PENSMAN TAKES YOU behind the SPOTLIGHT

I COULDN'T AGREE MORE

The prolonged spell of fine weather last month and earlier this month brought more people out-of-doors and as a result the gloomy forecasts of a tourist debacle have, fortunately, turned out to be not as disastrous as was first thought it would be. But while there was evidence of tourists, this showed that Continental visitors, predominantly Dutch far outnumbered the GB's.

Much political play has been made by the Opposition Party in the Dail that this fall-off in British visitors was, in the main, due to the situation in the North and to Ireland's stand in the recent Falklands conflict. Most hoteliers and tourist people have endorsed this view. While accepting that both of these reasons do affect the position to some extent I have never accepted that they are the principal reason for the drop in the numbers generally of people coming into the country as holiday visitors.

I believe and I am firmly convinced that the cause for the great drop off is based on simple economics. In plain language it just means that we have priced ourselves out of the market as far as the tourists, or at least the main body of them, are concerned. I have stated this consistently in the past and I repeat it now once more.

Recently I noticed a letter in the "letters section" of one of our daily papers and having read it I just couldn't agree more with what it said. Written by a Mr. Patrick Horgan with an address in Huddersfield, England, it stated: "As a Corkman working and living in England, I should like to comment on recent statements by the Lord Mayor of Cork regarding tourists and the coming of England."

The vast majority of British tourists to Ireland are Irish or those of direct Irish descent. The reason why these people and other British tourists are not visiting Ireland is because of the exorbitant cost. Recently English friends of mine visited Dublin and hired a car for a week. They were charged £269 sterling. I do not know for certain what the effect of Ireland's stand on the Falklands or the bombings had on British tourists but I do know that Ireland has priced itself out of the tourist market for the vast majority of people working in Britain."

In another round of the "Who's to blame row" about the disappearing tourists, the Mayor of Wexford recently found himself in conflict with the Irish Hotels Federation. Mayor Paudge Reck criticised drink prizes and especially the prices charged for soft drinks in Irish hotels which he described as "blatant robbery." Pointing out that soft drinks cost less than 20p per bottle to purchase wholesale, but that some hotels charged more than 50p, he stated that he was appalled by the price of food and drink in our hotels. He went on to say that in voicing these criticisms he had no wish to undermine the hotel business but he wanted the hoteliers and the Government to sort out prices. He warned that if this action was not taken, the tourist industry would be seriously damaged, leading to the closure of many hotels and much fewer visitors coming to Ireland.

Again I couldn't agree more and I would take, with a grain of salt, the reply of the President of the Hotels Federation, Mr. Dermot Dwyer to the Wexford Mayor's criticisms when all he could say was that the Mayor was merely "headline grabbing" in what he said.

WALK IN THE FOREST

On the second week-end in September, each year, since

European Conservation Year 1970, the Society of Irish Foresters in co-operation with the Forest and Wildlife Service, Dublin and Belfast, has organised a series of guided walks for those who wish to learn about the value of our forests and the trees that constitute them.

Many thousands join these guided walks annually and return with a deeper understanding of the role our forests play in the economic and aesthetic development of the country.

The walks, of about two hours duration, are led by skilled and experienced members of the Society of Irish Foresters who voluntarily give their time to foster an understanding and appreciation of the profession they are proud to follow.

Here in County Waterford the walk is scheduled to take place in Cappoquin on Sunday, September 12 commencing at 3 p.m. The meeting point for the walkers will be the Car Park at Glenshellane, 2 miles north of Cappoquin on the road to Mellerray.

Leaders of the walk will be Mr. E. Heffernan, Mr. C. O'Donovan and Mr. P. O'Neill and points of interest will be the general mixed nature of the forest there, the broad-leaved plots and riverside walks.

One could certainly do worse than spend an evening "down in the forest," provided of course that the weather is favourable.

FIRE HAZARDS MAY CLOSE SOME PUBS

The annual renewal of the country's 10,000 public-house licences due to be dealt with at District Court Sittings in all areas next month may lead to some premises being closed down if the law is fully enforced, the Chairman of the Chief Fire Officers Association, Captain Cathal Garvey said recently.

Captain Garvey said that District Justices had made it clear in many instances in recent months that, under the 1981 Fire Services Act, publicans would be required to produce evidence in Court, supported by Fire Officers, that their premises had been inspected and that they matched stringent new fire safety regulations.

"The Court have given fair notice," Captain Garvey is reported as stating, "that until such time as a Fire Officer gives evidence that a premises is safe, licences will not be renewed. Our position is that none of our officers will accept anything that is strictly enforced. If this is may lead to many publicans finding that their premises are simply not suitable for the purposes of carrying on business."

Commenting on the warning issued by Capt. Garvey, the Chief Executive of the Vintners' Federation of Ireland, Mr. Eddie Connellan said that he feared that if the law were strictly enforced in September some pubs might be forced to close.

However, the Chairman of the District Justices W. A. Torney of Mullingar said that in his jurisdiction, licence renewals would be granted even if Fire Officers did not appear in Court.

"This," he added, "is really a matter of discretion for the District Justice. The question has not been discussed by the Association and it is unlikely that it will be. In different areas, individual District Justices will interpret the Act as the situation demands."

FAREWELL TO HOME

Going through some old ballad books and paper clippings recently I came across the following composition, entitled "Farewell To Home." The composer's name and address given at the bottom is Marie de Paor.

GOOD AND NOT SO GOOD NEWS FOR CORK MULTI CHANNEL T.V. PLANS

There was good, and not so good, news this week for the expected multi channel television viewing population of Cork City.

The good news centred around the assurance by Waterford County Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley, that an application by Cork Communications Ltd. for planning permission to lay an underground cable from Lismore to connect with the cable system of Casey Cablevision Ltd. on the outskirts of Dungarvan was unlikely to encounter insurmountable planning difficulties. But on the other side of the coin more than one expression of surprise was forthcoming when the Planning Department's chief officer, Mr. J. Shine disclosed that as yet no formal planning application for the work had been lodged by the Cork company.

The matter was raised by Cllr. James A. Walsh, at last Monday's meeting of Waterford County Council in Dungarvan, who asked as what stage of consideration the Cork Communications planning application to lay the cable now was.

"The company has not yet gone through the full formality of lodging the application," Mr. Shine replied. "They had sent out forms to the Cork Company but as of now no formal planning application had been received by us."

Queried by Cllr. Walsh as to how long an application for the laying of the 121 miles of cable would take to process, Mr. Shine replied "fairly quickly. I would not like to put a timescale on it however," he added.

DISCONCERTING

Mr. A. Deasy, T.D. said the whole thing was a little disconcerting, especially as far as the people of Cork city were concerned. "Will they have multi channel in Cork by next Christmas," he asked.

The County Manager, Mr. D. Hurley said discussions had taken place between representatives of Cork Communications Ltd. and senior officials of the Council concerning the proposed route of the underground cable between Lismore and Dungarvan. While no official planning application has as yet been lodged by the company he did not, however, see any problems in relation to it.

Cllr. W. McDonnell said that considering that the underground cable through West Waterford was now absolutely vital as far as bringing multi-channel television to Cork he hoped that the towns of Cappoquin, Lismore and Fallow, through which the cable would be passing, would not have to wait too long for the service.

Footnote - Recently Cork Communications and Casey Cablevision Ltd. of Dungarvan successfully concluded negotiations to enable the Cork company to connect its underground cable from Lismore to Ballymacnaghe South, Dungarvan, and to this planning permission from Waterford County Council is an absolute necessity.

Originally it takes up to two months to process planning applications so assuming that Cork Communications Ltd. lodge theirs within the week a decision on it is unlikely by Waterford County Council before early October - at the latest.

Only then can work on the laying of the cable commence, so a Christmas deadline for the bringing of the Casey strand into Cork city would not be pessimistic.

GOOD-BYE DEAR HOME

Good-bye dear home sad is my heart,
To think that forever to-night we must part
But the long years may pass before death shall me free,
Fondly I'll cherish sweet memories of thee.

Alone in thy garden at twilight thou stood,
To light through the dark night both wicked and good.

Your light could be seen from the bridge here at night,
On nights when here at the lodge we made merry.

There music oft sounded and laughter would ring,
When a light-hearted bouchal said some witty thing.

There, always a friend or a neighbour would find,
And that's why to-night I have felt lonesome.

To miss some whose presence oft gladdened my sight,
As they danced here so gaily of sun and of night.

Then they all talked to me so friendly and kind,
That I felt quite elated such friendship to find.

And often when afterwards thinking things o'er,
I have silently wept when I feel they're no more.

And know that I very soon shall away,
From this dear home of my childhood so happy and gay.

There by the railway the dear lodge has stood,
And back to the north was the highway to Wood.

To the west stood our merry "Dungarvan",
The only town where you'll find a good man.

In front was the quarry, the well and the pond,
All picturesque spots of which I was fond.

And then from my window I always could see
That beautiful strand of the south called Cloona.

Where the white tinnies wags give a hue
To the glorious depth of its beautiful blue.

And over the rocks at the sluice stood the castle
Where often of old the Maguire drank.

Or sat in "a yacht" from Hewick to Ballyville Head,
While the Powers of Deities were working for bread.

And oft have I seen in a glorious dawn,
Those Comeragh Mountains whose queen is Crucechain.

More glorious still were they covered with snow
As they glimmered and shone in the evening's red glow.

As all guardian angels deserve to receive the homage that's due
As our guardian sentinel here we pay homage to you.

I am now saying a final good-bye
To the home of my childhood, my pride and my joy.

My poor father weeps and my mother is sobbing,
I feel my words falling and my sad heart fast-throbbing.

As my sisters and brothers so fondly embrace me,
Dear home of my heart, may we never disagree ther.

Till safely we meet in that dear home above,
And meet once again, all in an embrace of love.

And now as I bid these fair hillsides adieu,
To Crucechain abut I here at your feet pay my homage to you.

"Alarming Exaggerations Giving Planning Department A Very Bad Public Image" - Co. Manager

The members of Waterford County Council this week agreed to convene a special meeting to discuss the whole question of planning applications within the county.

Mr. D. Hurley, County Manager, Mr. D. Hurley, categorically rejected suggestions that in Waterford an inordinate number of planning applications were being refused. He insisted that such "alarming exaggerations" were giving the Council's Planning Department, and its officials, a "very bad public image."

One of the Council's most forceful critics of the way planning applications are being dealt with, Cllr. K. O'Ryan, told the monthly meeting in Dungarvan last Monday that the whole issue required a special meeting to "brush things out."

Stressing that he wasn't being in any way critical of the staff within the Planning Department, Cllr. O'Ryan claimed that hundreds of "frustrated and disappointed" people had come to him after their planning applications had been turned down.

There is a planning system operating in this county which doesn't operate in any other county in the country," Cllr. O'Ryan went on. "Waterford as a county is noted for its planning refusals," he added. "I will not be shouted down by any senior Council officials."

The Planning Department's chief officer, Mr. J. Shine, however, insisted that every application was given "due consideration." They dealt with a very large number of applications and he did not think, as had been suggested, that people were frightened at the prospect of having to deal with the Planning Department. "In fact," Mr. Shine went on, "our staff go out of their way to be as helpful as they can to the general public."

Mr. Shine said all decisions on planning applications were only made after due consideration of the recommendations, and strictly in accordance with the clear planning procedures.

The County Manager said he felt the exaggerations being made were "blatant." Cllr. O'Ryan had made a total of 12 enquiries regarding planning applications and he believed Waterford County Council's record on planning was "quite good."

ALWAYS AVAILABLE

Mr. Hurley said Council officials were always available to discuss specific cases, but he honestly felt the kind of debate at this meeting was giving the Planning Department, of the Council a very bad public image.

Finally however on the proposal of Cllr. O'Ryan, seconded by Mr. A. Deasy, T.D. it was agreed that the Council meeting of Sept. 27th would, in the main, deal with the whole vexed question of planning.

DEPARTMENT SANCTIONS IRISH SCHOOL

A new Irish medium school has been sanctioned by the Department of Education for Dungarvan. The new school will be called Scoil Gharaibhain and it is the latest among the ever-growing number of its kind in many parts of the country.

For its first year, it will cater for the junior classes and will have but one teacher. It will be housed in the old Church of Teaching School until a permanent building is provided.

This new idea, which has strong support and is welcomed in the area, should be a huge success. Its young pupils will be bilingual in a short time and will receive instructions in all national school subjects, including Religious Knowledge. (Cead Mile Pailte roimh Scoil Gharaibhain)

BRIDE-VIEW UNITED

Lack of match practice was evident as Bride-View kicked off for season '82-83 last Sunday, going down 2-1 to Everton in Cork in the first round first leg of the League Cup. Bride-View United squandered chance after chance in a game we should have won.

After missing several good scoring opportunities, it was Everton who took the lead in the 30th minute and held this lead until the interval. Again in the second half, Everton led everything right up until the final shot where we failed badly. Everton then further added in the sixth minute but Bride-View continued to push them forward. In the 76th minute, Sharon P. brought down in the penalty area and he slotted home the ball himself to score what could be a vital point in the second leg of the League to be played in Tallow.

Team—K. Tobin, S. Pratt, T. Sheehan, P. Fraser, P. Sheehan, R. Fraser, C. Hogan, S. Curley, J. Skee, L. Fraser, T. Pratt and Lew Fraser.

LEAGUE

Other fixtures for the league are—Thursday, Aug. 26th we play Gravatun United. Tuesday, Aug. 31st we play O'Brien Cup. Then we will have Lismore, Cappoquin, Modelle and Alone and desolate on O'Donnell Bridge. Sheehan a little tinker child. Her fate lies in the hands of those around her. No shoes and only tattered clothes.

JUST A LITTLE LOVE

City cars rushing past, Spraying through the lights, Wanting to get there as quickly as possible, Where? To schools, offices, who know? People rushing past, Not hearing, not caring, All going, all rushing on bicycles, on buses.

City smoke coming down, Blocking peoples view, Alone and desolate on O'Donnell Bridge, sheehan a little tinker child, Her fate lies in the hands of those around her, No shoes and only tattered clothes.

The buildings falling down, The city is crumbling, making room for office blocks, The Liffey stinks with pollution, a river that cannot move, The city's crumbling at her own feet she cannot stand alone.

Then I saw it, an old couple helping each other across the busy street, Unaware of the hooting horns and the screeching sirens, Only aware of each other, A little love, a little caring, and then it was a new city!

— NICOLETTE

ST. CATHERINE'S GAA

Being ousted in the 3rd round of the championship things are a bit quieter on the GAA front here at the moment. Naturally it is hard to avoid being a little disappointed but games can take a peculiar turn sometimes and so much can be learned from the outcome, that preparation for the future is far more important than restoring the past.

ANNUAL COLLECTION

The response and the interest in the annual collection is most heartening.

NEWS FROM LISMORE AND DISTRICT

MARRIEDS v. SINGLES

As in keeping since this competition commenced quite some years ago the "Marrieds" men came out on top in their annual clash with the "Singles" in the Castle Farm grounds on Sunday evening last. There were no goals throughout the normal period of this game of indoor in extra time, and it went to penalties before we had a winner. This tournament was sponsored by the Keeneland Hotel and refereed in his usual competent manner by Keeneland's John M. Kelly.

On the day there was nothing between both sides but the more experienced married side, and particularly their keeper, E. Cunningham made the vital break through with one or two great saves.

All in all a workmanlike performance for Lismore who were sportily commending the Red House League.

LISMORE GAA NOTES
MINOR HURLERS HELD TO A DRAW

Lismore 2-5, Dungarvan 2-5

A point by Dungarvan in the last second of the game meant that both Lismore and Dungarvan will have to meet again to decide who will be Western minor hurling champions for 1982.

This was a game which memories are made of, and showed the spirit and tenacity which brought these two teams to the final.

Lismore won the toss and opted to play with the assistance of the breeze in the opening half. No score was registered during the first ten minutes, then a defensive error saw Dungarvan presented with a soft goal. Lismore immediately shot back with a well taken point from Paul O'Donoghue and shortly afterwards Brendan Sullivan struck two great goals to put Lismore in solid command. Goal unfortunately they failed to turn Lisdomore into scores that were so vital at the final whistle.

Two further points by Liam Ryan and Paul O'Donoghue and a point by Dungarvan on the stroke of half time saw the score at the interval read, Lismore 2-3, Dungarvan 1-1.

On the turn over Lismore were first to score with a point from Liam Regan, but then the Dungarvan side began to play

LISMORE GAA NOTES
MINOR HURLERS HELD TO A DRAW

Lismore 2-5, Dungarvan 2-5

A point by Dungarvan in the last second of the game meant that both Lismore and Dungarvan will have to meet again to decide who will be Western minor hurling champions for 1982.

This was a game which memories are made of, and showed the spirit and tenacity which brought these two teams to the final.

Lismore won the toss and opted to play with the assistance of the breeze in the opening half. No score was registered during the first ten minutes, then a defensive error saw Dungarvan presented with a soft goal. Lismore immediately shot back with a well taken point from Paul O'Donoghue and shortly afterwards Brendan Sullivan struck two great goals to put Lismore in solid command. Goal unfortunately they failed to turn Lisdomore into scores that were so vital at the final whistle.

Two further points by Liam Ryan and Paul O'Donoghue and a point by Dungarvan on the stroke of half time saw the score at the interval read, Lismore 2-3, Dungarvan 1-1.

On the turn over Lismore were first to score with a point from Liam Regan, but then the Dungarvan side began to play

UNDER 16 FOOTBALL

The under 16 football semi-final between Lismore and the Nire is fixed for Tuesday next, August 31st. Cappoquin is the usual time of 6.30 p.m.

Lismore have two good wins to their credit in this competition and with the right approach there is no reason why they should not overcome next Tuesday's hurdle and qualify for the final of this under 16 football competition.

ST. CATHERINE'S CAMOGIE

The St. Catherine's camogie team has a commanding win over Castleknoger last week in the current league.

LISMORE AFO NOTES

In the semi-final of the Tallow Horse Fair (take McCarthy Cup) played in Tallow on Monday night last, Lismore defeated Modelle by one goal to nil. The game was an entertaining game with both sides committed to attack. Lismore were being supported by Peter Whelan and Leonard Coleman and both justified their selection as they gave their opponents a most uncomfotable night.

The only goal came ten minutes from half time when Coleman, Curley and Dunne linked up before passing to Whelan who gave the keeper no chance from close range. In the second half Modelle tried hard and it took two wonderful saves from Cunningham to keep the score sheet at nil.

On the night, however, the better team won and they now wish the winners of Cappoquin and Bride View. The final has been fixed for Thursday, September 2nd, kick-off 7 p.m. from St. Catherine's, Dungarvan. Billy Landers, P. Ahearne, Dave Landers, J. Dunne, Donald Landers, (capt.), Barry P. Whelan, J. Curley, L. Coleman, Subs.—J. Ryan, E. O'Sullivan, K. Ryan.

The AGM of the club will take place in the Red House on Wednesday, 2nd September, at 8.30 p.m. sharp. All players and club members please note.

more direct hurling and had the Lismore defence under constant pressure. The scores were level with four minutes remaining when Paul O'Donoghue shot another point to put Lismore back into the lead and the dying second of the game to leave the teams deadlocked at the final whistle.

Courage was the hallmark of Lismore's performance last Saturday night and we hope we get the same display for the re-play which takes place on Friday, September 3rd at 6.30 p.m. in Cappoquin.

BALLINACOURTY/CLASHMORE AND BALLYDUFF/ROANMORE CLASHES HIGHLIGHTS OF WEEK-END

Defeat at this stage would come as a major disappointment to the Western Standard bearers Ballyduff, but for many students of the game it will be a relief to see this aspect of the fall to show considerable improvement on their display against Abbeyside in their first round match. Ballyduff scored a convincing win over last year's champions Moone's. The Ballyduff team was in top form last Friday. But tournament form can be taken with a grain of salt. It rarely proves accurate. The championship is the true yardstick and I believe that a repeat of the form they showed against Abbeyside would not be good enough to see them through to a meeting with Dunhill at the Frater field in the county final on September 19th.

There seems little between them and in fact it is not easy to say what their difference is. Moele and Michael Walsh, Seamus Harmon, Seamus and Seamus Dwyer, Michael Linn Power, Richie Walsh, Mike Quirk, Maurice and Eugene Geary, Pat Barry, Seamus Flynn, Seamus and John Quirk and company would strike one as being a side capable of overcoming a Roanmore challenge, but only if these players are at their best would I give them the vote.

BRICKYS v. BUTLERSTOWN This is one of the two intermediate football semi-finals of the week-end and in the feature game of Leamybrien on Sunday afternoon. Brickys have built up a rather extraordinary record of winning their games by dangerously narrow margins. They have beaten Clonmel by a couple of points (0-6 to 0-4), they went on to beat Dunbarry by a single point (1-6 to 1-5).

It is difficult to say if this form is good enough to give them a chance against Butlerstown, who were so hotly fancied when losing to Ballyduff in last season's county final.

Jim McGrath, Gerry McGrath, Colin Whelan, Eamon Martin, Conroy Brophy, Richie Walsh, other scorers: Jack Curran, J. Hughes, P. Ryan, B. Hill, McCarthy, Meegan, O'Connell, other scorers: John and John, who were so hotly fancied when losing to Ballyduff in last season's county final.

INSURANCE Some dissatisfaction was expressed by members about the new insurance scheme which wasn't all that it was supposed to be. Problems had been experienced by members in obtaining benefit applications. Some members were still very much in the dark about the operation of the scheme. The Board undertook to have information on the points raised at the next meeting.

CEANNAIRIS The information sought at the previous meeting regarding the up-to-date position of payments from Waterford clubs was not available and the Chairman stated that the Chairman had been pointed out at the previous meeting that this figure was very much in arrears.

RESULTS MHC Western Final - Dungarvan 2-5, Lismore 2-5. Ref. J. Lenders. (Replay on Friday, 23rd September in Cappoquin 6-30 p.m.) U.21 Tallon-Tallow 4-13, Ballyduff/Shamrocks 2-6. Ref. J. Moore. JFC-Affane 0-8, Ardmore 0-4. Ref. T. Keating. JHC-Culligan 2-13, Ballysaggart 4-1. Ref. J. Moore. SFC-Stradbally 1-8, An Rinn 0-9. Ref. P. J. Ryan. SHC - Forshaw 2-11, Duahill 1-1. Ref. J. Lenders. U.21 F. - Ballinacourty 0-9, Ferrybank 1-1. Ref. N. Sullivan.

UP FOR THE FINAL Two great nights of entertainment, called OFF FOR THE MAIN HILL, I.D.S., on Saturday 27th Sept. (eve. of the All-Ireland hurling final) and in the National Stadium on Saturday 28th Sept. (eve. of the All-Ireland football final).

COUNTY BOARD MEETING Ordinarily there is no Co. Board meeting during August. This year there was a meeting on August 27th. It was a meeting of the County Board business meeting.

ALL-IRELAND TICKETS All clubs in the division have been notified that their allocation of tickets for the All-Ireland hurling final between Cork and Kilkenny on September 28th will be distributed at the Frater field. It is hoped that this will be otherwise disposed of.

TALLOW v. BALLYGUNNER This attractive intermediate level semi-final between Tallow and Ballygunner will provide a top-class curtain-raiser to the football semi-final at the Frater field. Hopefully it will favourably compare with the last intermediate game played here, when Shamrocks and Ferrybank played a thriller.

BALLYDUFF v. ROANMORE This is quite a game to watch in an exciting week-end and a match that has aroused the county. Many people are hoping for a Ballyduff victory, but I am of the opinion that the other side will win.

ABBEYSIDE BALLINACOURTY G.A.A. NOTES

U-21 FOOTBALLERS JUST FAIL Ballinacourty 0-0 Ferrybank 1-11 Our u-21 footballers came out second best to a fine Ferrybank side in the county final played at Waterford's Walsh Park last Sunday. Even though losing out on this occasion it was not the boys had mounted a magnificent challenge.

Having played against the very strong wind in the first half, we found ourselves 10 points adrift at half time, but the second half saw the 'County boys show something of our real form to come within striking distance of the slick city side. However, the leeway proved too much to make up and the eastern champions ran out deserving winners. But the manner in which our lads produced that second-half rally was encouraging indeed and it was a pity that the fine character of the squad.

Well done to all concerned and a special word to team mentors Bernard Sheldis, Johnny Buzan and Seamus Fitzgerald. Seamus was also trainer/coach to the squad and his work together with Bernard and Johnny was well rewarded by a fine effort.

Sunday's team was: Liam O'Meara, Michael Collins, Dan Looby, Joseph O'Riordan, Dailith O'Hagan, Dermot Kelly, Ray Moloney, Declan Clarke, Jim Healy (Capt.), Gerry O'Connor, John Mulligan, Dick Coleman, Coner Clancy, Liam Shanley, Hugh O'Hagan, Sub. Mick Hanrahan.

COMMITTEES MEET The club committee and the club development committee continue to meet as usual each week.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP On Sunday next, August 29, we meet our old rivals and friends at Dungarvan's Frater Field at 3.15 p.m. in the senior football county semi-final. Our last meeting in the senior championship was in the 1976 county final when we came out winners to take our first senior title.

It is interesting to note that Eddie O'Halloran who is training coaching the Clashmore team and who also plays in the 76 decider, is well known to us all here in the parish for the outstanding work he has been doing with the young boys at our own Abbeyside school where Eddie is teaching.

Sunday's game is timed for 3.15 p.m. Players will meet at the venue at the appointed time of 2 p.m.

BACK IN ACTION Back on the match trail again was Clonmel who were defeated by Flynn after a brief illness, when she made the journey to last Sunday's game at Walsh Park. Clonmel were with many games over the years and it was a tonic to see her "in with the gang" again, and in such fine form too.

WELL DONE Congratulations to all the lads who did well in the recent examinations.

MYSTERY The time at which Sunday's semi-final game between ourselves and Clashmore (Clonmel) will be played is 3.15 p.m. with the HFC semi-final between Ballygunner and Tallow going ahead as a curtain-raiser at 2 p.m.

UP FOR THE FINAL Two great nights of entertainment, called OFF FOR THE MAIN HILL, I.D.S., on Saturday 27th Sept. (eve. of the All-Ireland hurling final) and in the National Stadium on Saturday 28th Sept. (eve. of the All-Ireland football final).

SPRATT IRISH CHAMPION AT RECORD BREAKING SPEED

The Irish Time Trial Championships were held in Ballycollig, Cork, on Sunday. There were 22 qualified riders over the country. Each rider was set off on his own to ride 10 miles unassisted, against the clock. The rider with the fastest time being the winner.

Stephen Spratt was off 20th and was well on his way to winning as by the time he reached the half-way marker he had already passed two riders. With the wind at his back on the return there was no time to relax, as there had been some very fast times before him.

In fact Christy Collins (who eventually finished 2nd) had already clocked 24 min. 2 sec. but then Spratt powered home in 23 minutes 30 sec. to take the title and set a new school-boy record for the event.

The Irish Sauter 25-mile record was also broken when Stephen Deasy smashed the previous best time held by Billy Kerr at 55.22. Deasy clocked an impressive 54.14.

TWO WORKERS TIED UP, ROBBED
Two Co. Council workers, James Dunford and Patrick Prater, Cotnamaraun, Kilmacothas, were tied up and robbed of a total of £120 in cash by two masked men who broke into their homes.

The two men who live alone and are in the 60's, were tied up and beaten by a masked man while an accomplice kept watch outside their houses. Mr. Dunford was hit on the head with a timber stake when he refused to hand over the cash but he was not seriously injured.

DUNGARVAN SEA ANGLING NOTES

Our "Master Angler" title for 1982 goes to Abbeyside's Pat Donovan, and a more worthy winner of this prestigious honour. Pat made his mark in the final round on Saturday night. Pat ended the season with an impressive 163 points, a clear 15 points ahead of the defending "Master", Cashe's Jimmy Maher. In third place on 143 points was our own club secretary, Betty Dee, and this superb placing also makes her the "Lady Angler of the Year" in the club.

The full placings (top ten) were as follows: 1. Pat Donovan, 163 pts.; 2. Jimmy Maher, 150 pts.; 3. Betty Dee, 143 pts.; 4. Billy Bunster, 141 pts.; 5. Fred Forster and Allan O'Connor, 131 pts. each; 7. Olive White, 123 pts.; 8. Paddy Leahy, 115 pts.; 9. Christy Power, 114 pts.; 10. Jim Downing, 110 pts.

CLUB COMPETITION
The competitive season is not quite over yet for the club. While the Yoplat International was undoubtedly the highlight of the committee has decided to run a competition, confined to club members and their families, on Sunday week, September 5. This, incidentally, is an "end of the season" event and we hope to round it off with a social evening at which the prizes (some booty) will be presented.

Needless to say, I'll be out after that big conzer, that slipped away in the Yoplat and which also took my pet rubber with him.

All other details about this competition can be seen on the club notice board in the "Anchor Bar".

A.G.M.
Another reminder about that most important of all meetings for the club - the annual general meeting - will be held in the Hotel on Thursday, October 7, with a starting time of 8.30 p.m. and we are hoping to see every member and every intending member present. - P.C.F.

Cannabis Plants Seize In Ballynac Area.

In a big Garda swoop led by Detective Garda John Mahony, Ballynac, over one hundred cannabis plants with an estimated value of £70,000 on the market, have been seized in the Ballynac area.

A Garda spokesman in Duncannon confirmed that as a result of their final charges would be preferred at Dungarvan Court on September 8.

BUSINESS TACTICS NOT ABOVE BOARD

Some of the business tactics being adopted in the laying of the gas line between Kilmacothas and Dublin are not above board. Fine Gael T.D. Mr. A. Deasy claimed this week. Deputy Deasy told a meeting of Waterford County Council in Dungarvan last Monday that some West Waterford people who were capable of supplying materials for the work as completely sent out. He wanted to object strenuously, he said, to the kind of pressure that was being applied on the contract company where the supplying of materials was concerned.

"Very definitely some of the business tactics being adopted are not above board," Deputy Deasy added.

Clr. J. Walsh supported the Deputy while Clr. W. McDonnell strongly criticised the fact that no West Waterford people had succeeded in getting work in the laying of the gas line.
