A REMARKABLE MAN
It is with a sense of personal loss that I refer here to the death last week of Charles Curran of Clashmore a man who devoted a lifetime of dedicated service to the people of Waterford as a member of Waterford county Council and many of its subsidiary ibodies.

Although there were times when we crossed swords with the views expressed and the decisions taken by Councillor Curran he never allowed our differences of opinion at that level to interfere with the frieyfdship that existed and grew between us down through the years.

He was the District Corressonder to the Carbon of Malaman of the Carbon of the Car

"HURLER OF THE YEAR"

The announcement last week by the County Board officers that Feter Queenly has been controlled to the Very County Board officers that Feter Queenly has been greeted with remaine delight by everyone in the club. It is of, course an honour very rightly deserved as Peter, not yet seventeen years old, was an inspiration to us in every game he played last year. Additionally the county of the coun ing the lirst two weeks in Feb-ritary.

The Western Board officers met on Monday of this week and decided on dates for their two meetings and these will be announced at the Convention on tomorrow night.

ANNUAL AWARDS

gone before,

The Video film lasting forty minutes covers all the basic skills of the game. It was prepared by Rev. Bro. Mechael O'Grady, Manager of the Limerick hurling team and Mattikelly both members of the teaching staff, Limerick C.B.S. The students taking part in the film are all pupils at their school textion Sirech.

Each skills covered included the grip. Lifting Catching, Freetaking. The Swing: Sirkle in the control of the grip. Lifting Catching, Freetaking. The Swing: Sirkle in the control of the grip. Lifting Catching, Freetaking. However, the catching of the fact that it was made on a budget of only £500, it has been found to be of great benefit to schools, clubs and coordes.

Since copies of the fair are available for as little as £20, it would be very remiss of clubs in this country, not to avail of the generous offer. The wise clubs will find no better way of spending 40 minutes showing it at local schools.

COUNTY CONVENTION

It is now certain that the County Convention will not be a two-day event and neither will there be a morning/after noon session. The Coiside Guethe meeting her week con

DRAMATIC FLUKE INCREASE SAY VETS

£1,750 FOR IRELAND'S TOP MILK SUPPLIERS

As the creamery milk production season draws to a close another nationwide search will now begin to find the outstanding creamery milk suppliers of 1982.

Allowing that total creamery tilk output for 1981 was in the region of a thousand million allons, this means that a ational standard approaching that of these top farmers would outle the size of our dairy dustry and increase the gross leid of agriculture by at least 7000 million.

stablishment of young farmers. If the Irlsh currency is not soon devalued, Ireland could make a case for "special measures." In the short-term, the most useful special measures might be premia on livestock and interest rate subsides. Also, the Irlsh Government could consider seeking a second round of "EMS compensation aid," until there is greater convergence between the Irlsh and other EMS conjonies.

TOURIN BADMINTON CLUB

On their first outing the U/12 and U/13 teams played some very good badminton in the recent Waterford Open championships. Atthough not achieving outright success. Michael Meaney and Eamon Scanton did reach the semilinal in the U/12 competition. Our 4th Div. team must be congratulated on their recent victory over St. Anne's, Waterford, in the 4th Div. Cup. There was some excellent badminton played on the hight and after some very tight struggles we emerged victorious.

SCOUTS SCOUTS

Both cubs and scouts took a break from the more serious activities of scouting over the Christmas period. The main speriod the main speriod the scouting over the Christmas parties. One of the highlights was a likely prechristmest visit by Samda who had a present for everybody. The Scouts party held on New Year's Eve. was also a streat success and the amount of goodles consumed at both parties was considerable to say the least, everyone contributed their share.

A presentation was made to Mrs. McCarthy on behalf of both Gubs and Scouts for her cooperation in keeping the denso clean and tidy during the year.

The troop would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a hoppy and now way during the year.
