MINNIES SQUASH CLUB NOTES

FOR LISMORE

On Easter Sunday, April 3 and Friday 8, the Lismore Dramatic Society presents the Old Parish Drama Group in "The Year of the Hike" by John B. Keane at 8,30 p.m. each night.

This is one of Keane's best plays dealing with family life in rural freland. The 'Hiker' returns home, after twenty years to be respected and dis-respected by members of his family.

family.
The play is produced by former Abbey Theatre actor Eddie Colbert from Ardmore a man well known in Dramatic circles.

The play is staged by members of the Gaeltacht community of Ring and Old Parish, a region well known for its dramatic traditions. A few years ago they did well in the Iestival circuit when they staged another of John B. Keane's plays "Sive." The group got back together this year to stage "The Hiker" and with the added help and production of Eddie Colbert the play has been successful.

So come along to the Town Hatl, Lismore on Easter Sun-day night. The seats are on a first come, first served basis and admission is £1.50.

centre Indoor Showjumping League ended with a great final recently.

Horses gained marks for clear rounds at eight Training Shows and they got double marks in the final, so that the top scoring horses were also the most consistent and were worthy win-iners of their awards.

The lead had been held for the past few weeks by Christine Coakley on her own King Willow but she still had it all to jump for in the final because Paddy Fives on Woodstream and Michael Condon on E.T. were just behind her and any mistake from King Willow would cost them the lead. However, neither horse nor rider had any intention of letting the first spot go and they jumped two beautiful clear rounds making them the very deserving winners of the 1982 league.

We played without Dave Landers a 'fu vietm, white Denders a 'fu vietm, which was a substantial of the Commitment he gave of his best throughout the ninety minutes. Bill Curiev reverted to the back four while John Ryan came on to play on the wing.

For the first time in the league our forwards just could not ponctate a defect the start but limperoved as the game weaton. John'ny Dunne at middled had one of this best games while his partners Donal Landers and Spider Barry also played very well.

"Spider" Barry also played very well.

It looked as though we would take a point home with us as the score was level with a quarter of an hour remaining but then Youghal got the two scores that gave them the points.

With Killeagh also losing Valley Rangers have gone four points clear of us and we must now win our last three games to collect the runners up trophies.

LONELY BANNA

LONELY BANNA STRAND

Easter time for most train people, at least those of the older generation at any rate, recalls the Rising of 1916 and remembering those times in this week before Easter now I think that "Banna Strand" is an appropriate choice for our balled corner as it refers to happening connected with the Easter Rising which took place at Banna Strand outside Tralec on God Friday, sixty-seven years ago. Friday, sixty-seven years ago.

Twas on Good Friday morning all in the month of May A German ship was signalling way out there in the bay We've twenty thousand rifles all ready for to land an _ready | for | to | land | But no answering signal did | come from | lonely Banna | Strand
