At Question Time in the Dail, Deputy Jackle Fahey asked the Minister for Social Welfare the number of persons registered for unemployment benefit in the Dungarvan agea and how it compares with last year's num-ber.

compares with last year's number.

The Minister, Mr. Barry Desmond, in reply stated that the number of persons registered for unemployment benefit in the Dungarvan area was 422 on April 29, 1983 and 209 on April 30, 1982.

The total number on the live register in the area was 807 on April 29, 1993 and 578 on April 30, 1982.

Benefit In Dungaryan Area

My old caman that served me From Cork to Ballyhea.

Romecoming from the Fair of Homecoming from the Fair of Ross
I spled that bend of growing ash
And I vow'd I'd cut the makings
Before the night was done!
Although Lyrants ranged the woodlands
Then close-granded by Thady
Nash.
I shouldered bome that
supple tree

supple tree Before the morning's sun.

Right carefully we tended it Above the turf fire's mellow smoke, And waited till the moon was full the planks in twain. One Scamus Og Otcary, too Who came from good Tipperary folk. He helped to shape the handle blade. And shades of rugged grain.

My love was there that Autumn day I took you to the hurling field To test your steel against the might milet.

Of comains stort ratiors.
Of comains stort ratiors.
She cheered our work my milbrown maid.
When city stars were forced to yield
It was your broad bess that showed the way.
And whipped the wiming score.

You made your name in championships Where Gaelle men ranged side by side. St. Finburt's, Reds, Dungourney mon With Rockies in the van. Tipperary's fame, Kilkenny's pride.

Tipperary's Tame, Kilkenny's pride, The fearless men from Shannonside, But pour my word my honest You never inclined a man!

Homeconing from a fina match
And Mary in the ear with me
She beld you in her loving lap
And told me she'd be mine.
Through all my joys and sorrows too. She never has been far from And now we are slipping down vith hearts and hands antwined

We are awaiting now the final flag and God's good home is in our view. Two sons are gone, they nobly fought and to save. You are wrinkled now my mountain ash. There's few now left to fondle you you When I ain dead, you'll sleep with me And share a Fenjan's grave.

Dungarvan Rowing Chib was, on the proposal of the Chairman, Clir. J. Byrne, congratulated on their recent highly successful annual regatta held in Cappoquin. Clir. Byrne, however, remarked that it had made him sad in his year as Council Chairman that he had to go to Cappoquin to present the prizes because there was no facility now for holding the regatta in Dungarvan. He hoped that some solution could be found to overcome this problem in the years ahead.

definitions concerning the registration of care? What does one have to do now when selling a car? A—New rules applying to the registration of cars and other motor vehicles came into effect on 1st February, 1983.

Up to then, the "registered owner" was the person shown as the current owner in the registration book. From 1st February, 1983, the registered owner is the person whose name is most recently entered in the files of the local motor taxation office. (The object of the change is to ensure that records are kept up-to-date in order to facilitate enforcement of traffic laws and improve crime prevention and detection). The registered owner may be held responsible for illegal parking or uninsured use, so it is in the interest of any seller to ensure that the new owner becomes the registered owner.

In the past, the seller gave the buyer the retired his/her own name and address and office the seller to ensure that the new owner offer updating their files (in the seller to ensure that the new owner offer updating their files (in the seller sends both seller and buyer should fill up a joint declaration of sale on a special form (RF2) obtainable from the motor tax office the seller sends both from the motor tax office the seller sends both from the motor tax office the seller sends both from the motor tax office the seller sends both from the motor tax office the meantine, the buyer keeps a detailed the seller sends both from the motor tax office the seller sends both from the motor tax office the seller sends both from the motor tax office the seller sends both from the motor tax office the seller sends both form and book to the dealer, who is a slightly different procedure is followed where a private individual is selling to a private buyer, but the seller sends believed the seller moniss the carebes were four specimen rocklass.

MAYORAL ELECTION

Our majoral election which has been going on over the past fortnight will finish this week-end with the counting of votes at the Town Hall on this Mouday June 5. To-date the candidates have been extremely basy canvassing and indications are that just like last year's election, this year's will also have been an outstanding success for all the different candidates and in particular the organisations for which they are standing.

We expect too that inst like dates have been extremely that have been extremely that search and the have been extremely that have been an outstanding state case for all the different candidates and in particular the organisations for which they are standing.

We expect too lina just like last years of unstituted endeavour was rewarded recently when they brought home the coveted league trophy, having, finished four points clear of their near-search tremendous excitament. Our candidate in the field is of course our own ilmuny Lenihan who is standing for the juvenile committee. Jimmy has placed a lot of emphasis on youth which is of course in keeping with our juvenile committee is piled on the property of the course in the league may be seen the placed a lot of emphasis on youth which is of course in keeping with our juvenile committee is piled on have not cost your votes yet be sure to do so before this week-end.

As was expected Tourin had in easy win over Kilrossanty in their junior hurling championship tie played at Fra-ter Field. Dungaryan, on Sun-tay last her Field. Dungarvan, on Sunday last.

Tourin laid the foundations for victory in a four minute spell midway through the first half when they had five goals in rapid succession.

They led by 6-3 to 0-3 at the break but faded considerably in the second half to allow Kilronsyamy more room. However, they were never in danger and the result was a foregone conclusion long before the finish. Their best players were Paddy O'Farrell. John Barry, Ollic Wilkinson. Ballinacourty had outstand-ing players in Liam Shanley,

This intensely fought second round junior fooball local derby provided a chili hanger of a finish at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan on Sunday last as the sides locked at level scores (0.9 to 0.6) fought furiously for the winner in the final pulsating five minutes of a thoroughly enjoyable game.

The game lad, in fact, gone to extra time when Ballina-courty forced a free and Deckie Coleman nude no mistake from the placed ball, scoring his fifth a point of the game to save Ballinacourty.

Primarily it was Dungarvan's weakness in conceeding frees near goal which in the end cost them victory.

They had most of the play in the first half but their 0.4 to 0.2 interval lead in no way reflected their over all superiority. They missed several points from scoreable positions and fifteen minutes into the half fulf forward Michael Ferncombe drove wide of an open goal.

As subsequent events proved this was a costly miss as Ballinacourty fought back in the second half to take the initiative. # INCREASE from £9,500 to £11,000 in Income Limit for Hospital Consultant Services

The Minister for Health has increased the income limit for free hospital consultant services to £11,000, with effect from 1st of June, 1983. This limit will be based on income in the year to 5th of April, 1983. If your income was under this limit, you can get ALL

Hospital Services FREE as a public patient. If your income was higher, you are also entitled to FREE Hospital Services but liable for Consultants' Fees.

Any person who may need hospital services, either in-patient or out-patient, during the coming year, and who wishes to avail of free consultant services should have his cligibility for such services established NOW.

This can be done by getting an application form for a bospital services card and sending it to your Health Board, together with the required evidence of income

ARMERS: In future the eligibility of farmers for these services will be determined on a factual income basis as in the case of other solf-employed. The evidence of income required will be the Revenue Commissioners' Notice of Assessment.

Full information on eligibility for hospital services can be obtained from your Health Board.

GENERAL NEWS

I must first of all give my congratulations to Jim and the choir on their excellent performance of two very difficult but lovely songs at the Cork Choral Festival recently. You did us proud, as thoy say, and I must say that the girls hooked levely in their new outlits. Well done to all, and most especially to Jim and Anne Walsh who or ganised the making of the constitution of the constitut

FOROIGE AND CHALLENGE TO YOUTH

Not for decades have our young people felt so frustrated —even alienated—as they are at present by the combination of a rigid school system and uncerain employment prospects.
With nearly half the popula on under 25, our youth should e regarded as our greatest reource.

Instead they are being told by prominent politicians that here will never again be nough jobs to keep all our opulation gainfully employed, and that a return to the pattern of emigration prevalent up the 1930's must be considered.

But the economic rapility is 10 the 1930's must be considered.
But the economic reality is that employment prospects in most other Western democracies are little better than those at home Acaced with this situation Foroige, the National Youth Development Organisation, is renewing its efforts to encourage young people to identify and develop their own talents and creativity.

As part of its new development drive. Foroige launches this, week an impressive array of new programme resources. The materials bookles, leafets and a video film, are now avaitable to Foroige members and viding active of the same foroign and the control of the same foroign and the control of the same foroign and the control of the programmes. Speaking at the official aunching of the programmes and the same foroign the same time other nations to day's young people will be at the passes of their ability at the same time other nations to Europe will be faced with the difficulties of an aging and diminishing work force.

We in Foroign are meeting the challesse posed by our wast youth population. We are continuing to provide opportunities for young people to participate in the work of development of themselves, their families and their communities. Our new total programmes be said.

CO-OP WORKERS WAGES SHOULD STICK TO GOVERNMENT PAY NORM

Mr. Pat Finnan, Chairman of IFA National Dairy Committee has called on Dairy Co-operatives to follow the Government's pay horn in settling wage increases with Co-op workers. He pointed out that workers' wages had risen by 134 per cent since 1978, while milk prices have only increased by 28 per cent over the same period. Consequently, dairy farmers incomes have fallen by 40 per cent in real terms since 1978.

Mr. Finnan pointed out that

DUNGARVAN SEA ANGLING NOTES

What a memorable start to the 1983 competitive season With weather conditions absolutely ideal, and a hage entry, last Sunday's inter-frims competition must rate one of the most successful the club has staged to date.

Considerable interest centred around the bid by Waterford Co-Op to capture the honours for a fourth successive year and thus emulate the feat of the Traders some years back. It was not to be, however, and a little ironically perhaps — it was the Traders themselves who halted the Co-Op gallop this time.

With a tally of 299 points.

CONCERT
Non-Sectarian, non-political inst one of the beliefs of members of our Gaelic Athletic Association. At first glance considering the troubled times we live in, one might think it is the start of an election campaign. Not so.

To bring it down to a more natural level it means simply unity. Such was the word used last Friday evening by our own yers Rev. Mighnel Walsh, P.P., when addressing the people in the control of the control of kindness of people who so get erously supported them. He complimented Tallow on its talent on stage and praised wisting artisics.

A social gathering follow the concert when friends of the Carmelites partook of refrest ments, happy in the atternat of a job well done.

The replay of the junior had ing tournament final too pulsa in Comna last Friday night. Up fortunately the fine weather had the adverse effect on the attendance, with many people working laths the two teams. In spile of this the two teams.
