JUNIOR HURLERS CRASH OUT OF CHAMPIONSHIP

OUT OF GHAMPIONSHIP
On Saturday evening last our junior burlers travelled to Cappoquin to play Ballinameela in the quarter-final of the Western Championship. Hopes were high going into the game out at the play of the same of the same d contest.

By half time Ballinameela led 0-12 to 0-4 and in the end ran out convincing winners 1-13 to 1-5. On the night, Ballinameela were faster and sharper and we can have no complaints about the size of their victory.

U-14 V. SHAMROCKS

On Sunday morning next at 11.30 a.m. our u-14 hurlers are due to play Shamrocks in Paire Mochuda. A few weeks ago we travelled to Knockanore and at the end of a very exciting and closs-fought game the sides ended level.

Milk deliveries in the EBC increased by 3.5 per cent in 1982, with the main increase taking place in the Netherlands and the UK. In fact, milk deliveries increased in all European countries with the exception of Finland, Switzgerland and Spain. Very favourable weather conditions also allowed production to increase in Australia and New Zealand while farmers in the US took advantage of a very favourable milk/feed price ration to expand production. For three-quarters of an lour at Fraher Field, Dungar-van, last Sunday evening, Bally-duff's Waterford scaior hurling champion crown tottered on the brink. For much of that time they found themselves outlanded and out-smarted by an unfancied Farrybank side and only a flurry of late scores hooked them their place in next Sunday's quarter-final against Dunbill.

Ballyduff made extremely heavy weather of a game they were expected to win comforably. From the very outset however. Ferrybank, with Stephen Breen resplendent at centre back, threw down the gauntlet and an early Mick Cody goal proved just the tonic they needed.

GOLF OUTING

Some of the members, in preparation for the British Open, went to Lismore last Saturday night. This very pleasant 9-hole course was somewhat shattered by the efforts of Anne Deacon. Night, John. Dave, Gerardine, Rose, Caroline and Noel Murray. It was reported by the club members of Lismore that many golf balls left for lost were causing some confusion, because when they went to play their second shot they did not know which ball to play. However, Night and John Tenned the bears section, but John was not too keen to go out and put if out on the last green so this leaves some doubt. Anne Deacon marked the card for him so we mist give it some credibility.

Gerardine Maher recorded the best score of the laddes, and this despite, playing off the men's fees and also caddying for Noel Murray!

Many thanks, to the management countillage of Lismore.

Exciting And Entertaining Week-End Programme

TALLOW V. BUTLERSTOWN

which meets An Rinn in the quarter-final a couple of weeks later.

The Eastern team will be favourities their current champion-ship and league form must put them into the game with a great chance. Their display against Mitchels, Nire and Brickeys before defeating Klimae' in the final, showed them us an intermediate side of exceptional quality and while Tallow are the most unpredictable football team and a shock is not out of the question. I must give the vote to Butterstown.

MAGNIFICENT TROPHY

A magnificent trophy which will perpetuate the nemoty of former County and Western County and Western County and Western Chairman, Charles Curran, who dued recently, was presented to the County Board last week, through the Clashmore club. The donor of the beautiful cup remains anonymous, and a condition of its presentation is that in the event of the competition for which its intended, Primary Championship, fulling through Championship, fulling through Championship, fulling through the Chairmane clubs whose property it will become.

In making the presentation on behalf of his club, Eamon Lombard, expressed the hope that the competition for which it was offered would be taken would be a fulling way in which to know the memory of a man who had done so much for the Association in the Sean O Murchu, County Chairman, in accepting the cup, paid tribut to the late Charles Curran and fully endorsed the sentiments expressed by Eamon.

UNDER 2: FOOTBALL

The position about the under 21 football club championship is that, with one exception, all irrst round matches are played. A decision as to whether or not the championship will be concluded on a biltz arrangement. When the control of the control of the control of the control of the championship will be concluded on a biltz arrangement. Was due to be taken at a Western Board meeting last night. If it is excited, details will be given here next week. The quarter-shnals will be as tollows — Stradbally v. St. Patricks. Ballinacourty v. Sllabn gomi Adane v. Tallow Dungarvan. Kilrossanty v. However, Kilgobiner's Pat McCarthy was in such brilliant form when the met Tyrone's M. BALLYSAGGATT BEATEN

This was the big shock of the week-end and many people on hearing the result understandably looked for confirmation. I did. Having played such spiendid hurling in the early rounds, they were being halled as the likely winners of the championship. It was believed that themselves or Stradbally must win it. Maybe it was unfair to Ballinameria to rate their morale to such as the spinnedney after their football dejent would effect their morale to such an extent that they would never be able to match the favouriets. Ballysaggart. By half-time in the game when they led 6-12 to 6-4, everyone; had been proved wrong. They half-time in the game when they led 6-12 to 6-4, everyone; had been proved wrong. CLASHMORE THROUGH

Had Ardmore been able to capitalise on the hany scoring chances that came their way in the second half, this game could have gone to extra time. To the credit of Clashmore, it did not. Over the hour Clashmore lully deserved their good win. They were the better balanced team and took their chances better. It was a game featured by some splendid individual performances. If the winners succeed in itdying-up on their learn-work, they may be the side to go the full distance. Tramore of the control of the control

Our cards for the sponsored cycle to camp are now in the hands of our scouts and from early "feedback" things seen to be going well.

All Scouts are reminded to bring their bikes to the Ben on next Tuesday night, where our chief mechanic Vinny will give them a pre-camp inspection. These bicks should be the ones on which the scout will cycle to camp and not their mother's or sister's best two wheelers!

Who can gha a leak? That is the big question being asked at the disco in Clonea for the past two Fridays. Well, you might ask, what's the connection between a leak and a disco. Certain laddes are intrigued by this. For the answer, ring 41994 and ask for JOA.

REMEMBERING OTHER

Our photo in this series this week is an interesting one which goes back to the turn of the present century and was taken within the precincts of Lismore Castle, it shows a group of workers who were engaged in bulb growing in a corner of the Castle yard at the time. The bulbs were exported to Holland and the whole enterprise was organised by a Miss Curry (scated centre front with umbrella). The girl in the back row has been identified also includes men named. Behegan, O'Connor and Casey while the boy on the

SALMON WAR

TENSION BUT NO AIOTENCE IN

The "salmon war" which has erupted around the coast in recent months and which saw fishermen operating out of Helvick in open confrontation with officers of the Southern Region Fishery Board and Naval personnel twice in the past few weeks saw a further day of tension but fortunately no violence in Melvick last Tuesday.

Shortly before 11 a.m., two Landrovers with Fishery Officers and four Garda Patrol cars with a force of uniformed and plain clothes men converged on Helvick Picr. Out in the harbour a naval fishery protection vessel was anchored in full view of 8 Helvick trawlers operating at the dishing grounds off Helvick Hend.
