THE MINISTERIAL TOUCH Thanks to the good offices of Minister for Agriculture, Austin Deasy, Dungarvan is to have a new Vocational School...

None were more surprised when they heard the good news than the members of the Vocational Committee themselves. Try as they could the best they could achieve in the past was the extension of the existing school and finally in desperation, on the suggestion of former Chairman of the Urban Council, Jimmy Byrne who represents the Council on the Vocational Committee, it was agreed to ask Mr. Deasy to receive a deputation to hear their submission. He agreed to do so.

That was about a month ago and although Minister Deasy was able to promise the deputation nothing very concrete had at once set to work and the case to his cabinet colleague, Minister for Education, Gemma Hussey. Mr. Deasy put the case to her that the Vocational Committee members felt that a mere extension of the existing school would be too confining and would not achieve the result aimed at and that consequently the only proper solution was a completely new building.

Having considered the situation in the light of these representations Minister Hussey then advised that it should not be an extension but a new school and on July 13, Mr. Donal Creed, Minister of State at the Department of Education wrote to Mr. Deasy informing him that his Department, in view of Mr. Deasy's representations, had approved the provision of a new school on a new site in Dungarvan.

Without doubt it can be said and indeed without contradiction that were it not for Mr. Deasy's influence, the proposal for a new school building never have been forthcoming. As some members of the Vocational Committee remarked on first hearing the news, it is indeed good to hear something good in such bad times as the present.

THE KITCHENHOLE In the progress report on roads to the July monthly meeting of Waterford County Council, the County Engineer, Mr. J. D. Hally referred to the situation in the improvement work being done on the national secondary road between Cappoquin and Lismore at the point known locally as The Kitchenhole. The note in this regard in the report stated: 'walls and fence building continuing. Construction in progress has commenced. The work here involves the reinforcement and widening of the road and the removal of what was almost an S bend and it must have presented a major engineering problem as at the point the road skirts the river Blackwater on the one side while steeply rising ground bounds it on the other side. The work has now been in progress for some considerable time and I have passed through the area regularly at weekly intervals at the outset I wondered at the whole situation; how the engineers planned to tackle the job and indeed for a long time afterwards too and it is only in recent weeks that I have seen

County Manager Introduces "Special" Charges For County And Urban Services

In favour of it. It is medicine we must be prepared to take and the Manager has dealt very fairly with the matter," he said. In reply to a query by Cllr. T. Wade, the Co. Manager said that he had designed a waiver scheme to deal with hardship cases in regard to the charge. He added that in the case of Council tenants the new charge would be collected through the rent. For this year the full £25 would have to be collected between now and December 31, but next year the charge would be spread over the full 52 weeks. Cllr. Angela Creedon objected strongly to the charge stating that while it was £25 this year it could well be £50 next year. "This," she said, "is only the beginning." She added that as far as the administration of the town was concerned workers were already paying more than their share through PAYE. Cllr. Martin Walsh also objected but on the proposal of Cllr. Wade, seconded by Cllr. J. Byrne, the new charge was approved without a division.

On the cards for several months past, charges for certain services became official on Monday when a meeting of Waterford County Council in Dungarvan officially rubber stamped the proposals of County Manager, Mr. Don Hurley. Under these the collection of domestic refuse will cost £10 per house per annum, with a further levy of £20 per house served by public sewers, while the domestic water rate had earlier been increased from £29 to £45. Mr. Hurley told the meeting that the charges would bring in about £110,000, a sum already provided for in the current year's estimates. The waiver scheme which was being operated in respect of water charges would now be extended to cover these new charges. The Manager stressed that the charges would apply to every house throughout the county, whether or not householders availed of the services. However no payment would be expected from people not receiving specific services. "If we did not introduce these charges then it would mean leaving off 25 of our staff," the Manager said, adding that it was the intention to take court proceedings against people who blantly refused to pay the new charges. He went on to say that it was hoped to issue the demands by October 1, and people would then have the remaining three months of the year to pay their bills. Next year it was hoped to have the payments made on a quarterly basis. He believed the proposed charges were "very reasonable" and that many people would not be able to afford the charges, which he said, were a "terrible blow" to already hard-pressed members of the general public.

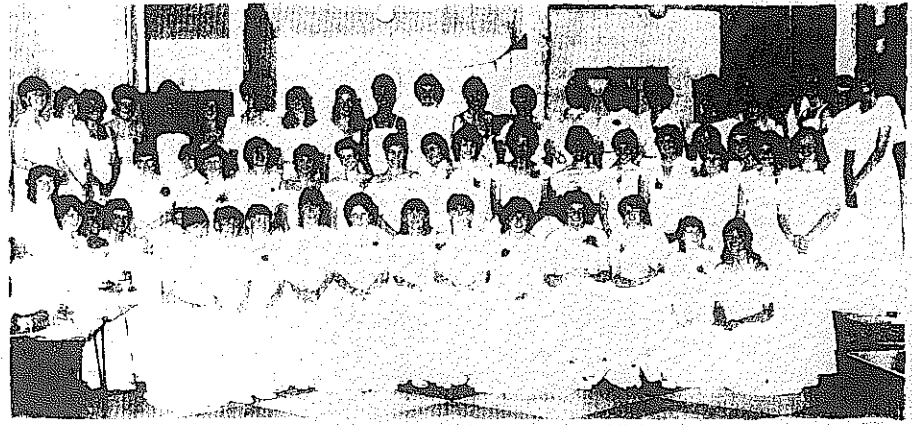

He was supported by Cllr. Paddy Cahill who said the charges were nothing short of "criminal." Cllr. Billy Kyne (Labour) however said he was amused by the grumblings of members of the two "capitalist parties." He alone had opposed the introduction of charges when they were mooted first at the estimates meeting, and it was disgraceful that the Council was owed £14m. in unpaid rates by the farmers while they now wanted to extract further payments from the workers, those on Social Welfare and the unemployed. Senator Katharine Bulbulla (F.G.) said everyone knew that local authorities had their backs to the wall and that they would have to get money if they were going to provide services. "The alternative is to do without the services," the Senator went on, "and that can only lead to a cutback on jobs. We have no choice where these charges are concerned and the ones announced today by the County Manager are relatively reasonable." Bulbulla added that they had an excellent waiver scheme that would go a long way towards alleviating hardships. Finally, on the proposal of Senator Bulbulla, seconded by Senator Michael Quinlan (F.G.), the new charges were formally approved.

NEW URBAN WATER CHARGE A monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council on Monday night, the County Manager, Mr. Don Hurley recalled that a waiver scheme for the sewer charges was proposed by the Council's current estimate and following the recent passing of the Finance Act 1982, he had asked the Manager to fix the various charges to raise that amount in the current year. He said that the charges for sewer, water, sewerage and refuse collection services. Having given the matter a lot of thought the Manager said that the development charges which had been fixed were estimated to raise £7 to £8 million in 1983. He said that a thousand odd to be met by other charges for this year. Adding that Dungarvan Urban Council had a massive debt balance like many other areas he said that he had decided to defer any consideration of a charge for sewer charges until the service was re-organised to provide an equal service in all parts of the urban area. He said it was a matter for this year any charge for sewerage and the only charge he proposed to introduce was a charge of £25 per house for water. Cllr. B. Kyne who opposed the concept of such charges from the outset congratulated the Manager on his handling of the matter. It was realistic, he said, that the town must pay its way and for that reason he supported the proposal although he was not

ST. GEHAN An open air Mass celebrated at St. Gehan's Holy Well at Glendine, Farr's Bridge, a few miles outside Dungarvan on the Main road to Waterford has brought me a number of queries since the celebration of the Mass on Tuesday, July 19, was first announced in Abbeyside Church. I have been unable to find out anything about St. Gehan but Very Rev. Canon P. Power, D.Litt., M.R.I.A., in his "Place Names of Decree" in his "Place Names of Decree" in his second edition, published in 1952, "St. Gehan's Well, Tobar Gaoithin. This is situated at the bottom of a lawn adjoining Glendine House. The well was formerly in high repute, and especially on Fridays and Sundays. It is made up of two circular basins, about 10 feet apart, and each about 5 feet in diameter, the more easterly of these is accounted the "real" well." From other sources I have learned that the well has, in the past, been associated with cures for blindness and eye troubles generally. The entry by the late Canon Power was

NO VANDALISM PLEA AS ABBEYSIDE PATTERN OPENS

Speaking in Irish at the opening of the annual Abbeyside Pattern at the Pond, Abbeyside last Sunday evening, Mr. John Fitzgerald, Chairman of the Pattern Committee appealed to everyone attending the Pattern to show respect for all property, private and public, throughout the area during the pattern week.

He said that the programme had been arranged to provide a fun-filled week and he hoped that everyone, local and visitor, would have an enjoyable time and that no damage would take place. He was supported in his appeal by Very Rev. Canon M. Farrell, P.P., who performed a special blessing and by the Chairman of the Urban Council, Mr. R. A. Walsh who performed the official opening. Prior to the speeches there was a parade from the Square, Dungarvan to the Pond in which the big feature was the appearance of the Majorette group from Ballinacorra, Middleton, Co. Cork who won the hearts of the big crowds which watched and accompanied the parade. Two bands - the local Brass Band and the Pipe Band - provided the music and also in the parade were members of the Urban Council - six of the nine members comprising the Council live in Abbeyside - and Scouts of the Abbeyside Troop. Leading the parade in a vintage car supplied by Moloney Motors Ltd., Springmount, and driven by Mr. Noel Murray was

SAYING IT WITH FLOWERS IN DUNGARVAN

Dungarvan has been given a real Continental look with the placing of many containers with a profusion of multi-coloured flowers along the Causeway from Abbeyside. Passing tourists and visitors to the town are impressed by the manner in which most parts of the town have been beautified in this way. A further bonus for the town is the manner in which the famous Causeway bridge has now been cleaned and brightened up and made to look almost like new. It all adds up to making Dungarvan and Abbeyside a nice place to be.

NEWS FROM LISMORE

LISMORE FESTIVAL TIME AGAIN

Once again it is festival time in Lismore, with an action packed week, with events to suit all ages. For details of festival see festival programme elsewhere in this issue.

LISMORE GAA NOTES HURLERS DEFEATED IN ARAGLEN

On Thursday night last our senior hurlers were defeated by Keshmulla by 2-8 to 1-0 in the Araglen Festival tournament. It is a game that we should have won comfortably but in the end inaccuracy was the telling factor. However it was encouraging to see a full turn out of players on the night. It goes to show that the spirit is still in the players despite being out of the championships.

Team—D. Buckley, T. Landers, P. Quinn, B. Egan, Pat O'Neill, U. Shanahan, P. Ahearne, J. Cashman, C. Barry, B. Prendergast, B. Landers, Dave Landers, K. Kiernan, B. O'Rourke, P. Donoghue. Subs.—K. Ryan, P. Walsh, D. Coughlan, F. Whelan.

TOURNAMENT V. CAPPAGH

This night, 29th July we play Cappoquin in the Lismore Festival tournament. This is a tournament that would be great to win, with a cup and a valuable set of trophies, and medals for the runners-up.

The game is fixed for 7.30 p.m. All players are to be at the field not later than 7.15 p.m. in the Shamrocks in the other semi-final on Wednesday 3rd August at 7.30

Intermediate Fixtures Main Features At Week-End

by Commentator

NEXT WEEK-END

No senior games are listed for next week-end and here in the West the biggest part of the programme is taken over by the intermediate clubs. Abbeyside, who lost their senior hurling status following their defeat by Ferrymore, will play their first intermediate hurling game ever on Sunday when they take on Ardmore at Cappoquin in a game to be held at 1.30 p.m.

The Nire and Affane will play in the feature game at Dungarvan when the sides meet in an intermediate football and Dungarvan, following their win against Castleknock, are due to play at Tallow in intermediate football.

Also on the list is the meeting between Geraldines and Modeligo in junior football and a couple of attractive under 21 football championship ties.

ABBESIDE V. ARDMORE

Both are going from the senior ranks and have concentrated on hurling for the past couple of weeks. Abbeyside must be favourites here, but after their disappointing display against Ferrymore, they will have every reason to feel worried until this game is decided.

Ardmore have some splendid players in the grade and if they can put their game together on the day they cannot be any means ruled out of claiming the title.

Abbeyside have a number of players who might not be available. Tallow will be fielding their second team, a few of whom are now not available.

Case of having two teams involved in the county championships. Because of this, it is difficult to predict the outcome.

Tallow are the favourites having a water choice, so they may surprise.

TALLOW V. DUNGARVAN

This game is fixed for Saturday evening and I understand that Dungarvan will be the favourite. Tallow are the favourites here, but after their disappointing display against Ferrymore, they will have every reason to feel worried until this game is decided.

NIRE V. AFFANE

Affane's two ill appointments against Brickets, put them out of the senior championship and their loss to the Nire has affected the morale of the club. Another defeat at a lower level, would certainly have another ill effect on their performance here will depend to a great extent on their attitude to their situation.

GERALDINES V. MODELIGO

This junior football tie is one that has attracted considerable interest and participation from supporters and players from the other sides remaining in contention. Geraldines have been playing improved form in the last few weeks and are expected to win.

UNDER 21 FOOTBALL

A couple of under 21 football championship ties are listed for Dungarvan and Stradbally. Dungarvan are the favourites here, but after their disappointing display against Ferrymore, they will have every reason to feel worried until this game is decided.

FRIDAY NIGHT

The junior hurlers of Cappoquin and Ballyduff will set the ball rolling to-night when they open the week-end programme with their replay at Lismore. The all-replays is very open and either team can win.

WATERFORD V. GORK

Waterford footballers play in their only remaining Munster championship, when they play Gork at Dungarvan, Stradbally on Wednesday evening. The team have undergone a very comprehensive training schedule, but whether or not this will be enough to put us in the game against such a strong opposition, is something that we will have to wait and see. The team will not be selected until the week-end.

HANDBALL NEWS

Kilbuckit Handball club continue to plough a lone furrow in the county's name in the new and on Saturday night, next, the county's novice champion, Pat McCarthy, makes the long journey to Ballina A.H.Y. to play in the All-Ireland finals of the under 21 singles against highly rated O. McGovern of Meath. McCarthy, our All-Ireland title-holder in the novice grade, is really up against it here, but is fully determined to make a tremendous bid to take the title. A very skilful and very determined player, the Kilbuckit clubman enjoys the confidence of his club mates, many of whom feel that playing to his very best form, he can win the title and bring further honours to the club and county. Best of luck to him.

At Limerick on last week-end, young Stephen Lyons had to give best to Limerick's very seasoned campaigner, R. O'Connell in the Munster junior final. Lyons was his two straight games. The home ground advantage of the Cappagh A.H.Y. proved too much for the under 21 champion of last year, but Lyons is in no way disheartened by this and will be back again next year. Stephen is still only sixteen, so he certainly has time on his side. Even in defeat, he played very well and has every reason to be proud of his display.

JIM WARE R.I.P.

As briefly reported in our last issue, Jim Ware, one of the great players of the hurling field, passed to his eternal reward on Tuesday of last week. Jim was a member of a really famous hurling family, who made an enormous contribution to the game, both as a county and Erin's Own player. Jim was a very skilful and very determined player, who was a goal for the county in 1929, when Waterford defeated Limerick in the first round and was still playing for the county when he captained the county team to its first All-Ireland victory in 1941. He retired from inter-county hurling soon afterwards, but continued his close association with the county teams and in 1951 when we look out our second All-Ireland title, Jim was a county selector. The great Erin's Own man captained his beloved club team to a big number of county championship titles and he also trained several of his club's teams.

At the removal of his remains on Wednesday evening, many of the players who played with him inside and outside the County as well as members of all the Boards and a huge crowd of club representatives were present to pay their final respects to a man who will forever be remembered as one of Waterford's all-time great players. He goes to his grave with a clean conscience.

COUNTY BOARD MEETING

Strange as it may seem, last Monday night's meeting of the County Board devoted one and a quarter hours to a discussion on the state of football in the county. A report from the selector, in which about a dozen members spoke.

Pragmatic action was proposed when it was announced that no report had been submitted by the selector hurling secretary. It was pointed out that this committee had defaulted on this matter on a couple of previous occasions. It was decided to ask an explanation and a report for the next meeting.

A splendid report from the minor football committee was favourably commented on.

A big row blew up when the minor hurling selection committee was being appointed. Four names were submitted by the county Board, but when a nominee from Dungarvan, Dungarvan club, complained about the manner in which the four nominees were selected and the manner in which the selection was influenced by the strong club representatives.

Both Jackson proposed that the committee be not appointed until the September meeting and this was agreed.

On behalf of County Bord na nOg, Vincent Mulligan withdrew the Bord's nominations.

Because of pressure on space a further report will be held over until next week.

WESTERN BOARD MEETING

Conducted on the field, presentation of our games as well as referees reports were the main topics at last week's meeting of the Western Board which was presided over by James Tobin, chairman.

The chairman said that nothing has really become a feature of dirty play and it was a matter of if it came before him, in a referee's report, he would deal very seriously with it. He said he would be meeting the referees in the division this week and it was one of the matters which he intended discussing.

On the matter of presentation of our games, he expressed the hope that by next year, all clubs who do not have very presentable wearing apparel for their players, will have purchased new jerseys, etc. He also stated that the Western Board will have a player being positioned on the field in accordance with numbers on their jerseys.

All official trophies are to be withdrawn shortly for inspection and a general examination of the overall position in relation to trophies, is to be undertaken almost immediately.

NATIONAL LEAGUES

The full schedule of matches in both the hurling and football National League have been published and a glance will show how difficult it is going to be to remain in our division. Our chances of having the All-Ireland champions play at Waterford venue, will depend on Kilbuckit v. Limerick and other matches against both Cork and Galway are 'away' matches.

The footballers, if they are worth the bit as all should see possible success (to some degree anyway), in their programme they can only stay as good as they are or get better.

RESULTS

The manner in which Ballyduff were able to switch on the power when they were never happy about their game. The dismissal of Albert Burke in the second half, put further pressure on the senior hurling team and they might have been considered lucky to have been only seven points away from Ferrymore at the end of the game.

Colligan and Clashmore served up some very skilful hurling in their semi-final tie at Cappoquin. Colligan hit out from the start and while they allowed Clashmore to narrow the gap to the minimum at the end of the first half, they expected to see them through. The champions will now have regained their confidence and from here on they will be expected to keep on improving and make a great bid to retain their title and maybe go one further.

In football, Tallow caused yet another surprise when they beat the fancied Ballyduff at Frasher field on Saturday evening.

The game was played with great atmosphere and there were several good individual displays, but it was not a great football game. Tallow deserved their win which was scored late on full time.

Only a point separated Dungarvan and Castleknock in the replay of the intermediate hurling tie and only hard luck kept the losers from forcing the game to extra time.

BALLYDUFF'S GREAT WIN

Any hopes that Dunhill might have had about getting to the semi-final of the senior hurling championship, were really and truly blasted to pieces by a powerful display of hurling by a totally committed Ballyduff team before a big crowd at Frasher field on Sunday afternoon.

When their inter-county player Moeise Walsh was sidelined only six minutes after the start of the game, many expected that the champions would find it almost impossible to hold on to their title and these fears mounted when the Eastern team had two last goals and went into a four-point lead. But the dismissal of Moeise and the challenge of having to play against a full team, served as a motivating factor and exposed the real character of the County champions and it was then that they showed total commitment and real fighting spirit. There were some really splendid individual performances, but overall it was a victory in which every man of the side shared. Dunhill really had no answer.

SEAN KELLY FINISHES IN GREEN JERSEY

Laurent Fignon emerged with the honours from the Tour de France, which ended in spectacular style in Paris last Sunday. Fignon led out the sprint at the end of the final stage, and crossed the line in fourth place but the stage did not result in the hoped for success for Sean Kelly. The Irishman, in the green jersey of points classification leader, went all out for victory but in the final surge he was pipped by Gilbert Clens of Switzerland.

As they battled it out Glaus and Kelly drew clear of the pack as they flashed past on the Champs Elysees. They were judged to be a second ahead of the rest, headed by Eugene Urbany of Luxembourg with Fignon next. Kelly finished seventh overall and in addition to the points award was also outstanding in the Rush Spins category.

Stephen Roche, who had been third on Saturday was placed 30th Sunday and 13th overall, a great achievement at his first attempt. In his classification for newcomers Roche was third. And he headed the special time trial league with Arroyo of Spain second and Kelly third.

AND STEPHEN SPRATT WINS JUNIOR TOUR

Stephen Spratt of Dungarvan and the NCA team regained the lead on the sixth stage of the ESKA Motocycle Junior Tour on Saturday afternoon and held it to the finish in the Phoenix Park on Sunday. Spratt, who had been penalised 30 seconds during the week for crossing the white line, fought back in great style and won by 40 seconds from David Raynor of West Yorkshire.

Junior champion Linus Murphy was third at the end of the 250 miles, with Richard Romm next, then John McHale, Eric Williams sixth, followed by Paul Fahy and Alistair Martin. Murphy's club, James Connolly-Rentokill, were the best team.

The final stage on Sunday was over 25 laps of the 1.7 miles circuit in the Park and it worked out very well for Spratt with no serious breakaway attempt and although he was not placed in the big bunch sprint, he did not win any of the stages, and was there safely for his greatest triumph.

Jim McGowan, NIFC, led the way across the line and this gave him the points classification award.

Final Overall Classification

1. S. Spratt (NCA) 11.03.01; 2. D. Raynor (West Yorkshire) 11.3.41; 3. L. Murphy (James Connolly) 11.3.55; 4. R. Romm (Irish RC) 11.4.02; 5. J. McHale (East Clare) 11.4.25; 6. E. Dungarvan To Get New Vocational School

Great indeed are the powers of Ministerial office. At the July monthly meeting of the County Waterford Vocational Education Committee held last week in Dungarvan, the C.E.O. Mr. D. Kelleher, disclosed to an amazed membership that official approval has been given for a new vocational school in Dungarvan.

The go-ahead comes after years of agitation by the Committee, but a mere three weeks after the Minister for Agriculture, Waterford's own Austin Deasy, had met a deputation from the Committee, who impressed on him the need for a new school as against the Department's expressed preference for an extension to the existing one.

"We have much to be grateful to Deasy for," the chairman, Very Rev. Dean T. Cassidy, P.P., told the meeting after the C.E.O. had revealed that a phone call from the Department had confirmed that a new school had been sanctioned for Dungarvan.

"This is a very big step forward," said Dean Cassidy. "We should thank Mr. Deasy for the major role he had undoubtedly played in the granting of this approval," he said, adding that it was only a "few short weeks ago" since they had met the Minister and made the case for a new school.

Mr. Kelleher disclosed that official approval in writing would be with them in a day or two, while on four acres at Young Road, was being provided by the Dungarvan Urban Council, and they now intend to proceed with the planning.

"In bad times it's remarkably good news," said Mr. James A. O'Connell, who first proposed that they hold out for a new school, said that everyone in Dungarvan would be delighted at the news.

He urged also that the contractor, when appointed, be asked to ensure where possible that local boys be employed in the building of the school.

The C.E.O. then informed the meeting that the extension to the Kilmacathomas Vocational school was on schedule and it would be officially handed over to the committee on July 31.

"The extension is a big one, but all deadlines have been met to date," said Mr. Kelleher.

SPORTS GRANT INCREASED

In a letter to the meeting, the Minister of State at the Department of Education, Mr. Donal Creed, disclosed that the committee was being given a grant of £5,500 for youth and sports organisations in the county for 1983.

The Minister, however, asked that 25 per cent of this allocation be spent on "Sport-For-All" activities.

ACOT - COUNTY WATERFORD CERTIFICATE IN FARMING COURSE

Commencing at ACOT CENTRE, LISMORE TUESDAY, 11th OCTOBER, 1983

ACOT'S NEW PLAN TO HELP FINANCIALLY EMBARRASSED FARMERS

Details of a more closely co-ordinated service to farmers in financial difficulty were announced by ACOT at a press conference last week. Speaking at the press conference, the Director of ACOT, Dr. Liam Downey, announced the establishment of a structure in each county which will have the objective of ensuring that farmers in financial difficulty, including those in severe difficulty, are adequately assisted and counselled in relation to the options available to them. This service will be co-ordinated by ACOT's county management, particularly by the Deputy Chief Agricultural Officer.

Dealing with farmers in financial difficulty has been given priority by ACOT during the past three years and has been an important aspect of the work of advisers. ACOT staff carried out a number of surveys to ascertain the nature and extent of the problem and farmers with financial problems were given special attention by ACOT advisers. In early 1982, before the introduction of the Reduced Interest Scheme or Rescue Package, some 6,500 farmers with financial difficulties were being counselled individually by ACOT.

A considerable amount of advisers' time has been and continues to be devoted to this activity. In the south eastern counties, where the number of farmers in financial difficulty is greatest, up to forty per cent of some advisers' time is being devoted to dealing with this problem. Since the introduction of the Rescue Package, ACOT has provided a prompt and professional service. To date, about 4,500 farmers have requested plans, cash flows from ACOT in connection with their difficulties. More than 80 per cent of these have been fully processed, leaving about 700 cases still with ACOT, half of which are in process due to inadequate information.

It takes, on average, less than three weeks from the time a request is received from a farmer until a final farm plan cash flow is prepared by ACOT, indicating that any delays which may be taking place are certainly not the fault of ACOT. In addition, ACOT staff are also fully available to help farmers in consultations with the lending institutions in connection with the Rescue Package. So far almost 2,000 farmers have involved advisers in such consultations.

THE EASIER CASES Dr. Downey said that up to now ACOT has been predominantly dealing with farmers who can be planned out of difficulty without major readjustments of their business and through the help of the rescue package can be restored to viability within a three to four year period. In relative terms, these cases are described as the easier cases. He said there is still a group of farmers who have very deep problems and more attention will be given to these in the next phase of ACOT's activities. He said the extension of ACOT's activities will enable it to maximise the support it can give to all farmers in financial difficulty and will also alleviate the burden and responsibility which this demanding and sensitive work is imposing on the individual local adviser. In operating its service to farmers in financial difficulty ACOT will be liaising closely with the farming organisations at county and national level. Discussions have already taken place with the IFA and they have offered to help in any way possible. It is hoped that the farming organisations will make a financial contribution to ACOT to help finance certain projects. ACOT will also, of course, be continuing the liaison with the lending institutions at local, regional and national level.

The Minister of State for Agriculture, Mr. Paddy Harty, who attended the press conference, paid tribute to ACOT staff on the high quality of service they have given to farmers in financial difficulty. He welcomed the new initiative as one which will enable ACOT to give the most extensive service to all farmers in difficulty, particularly those with very severe problems and whose assets are under pressure. Mr. Harty said he was especially happy to see close co-operation between ACOT and the farming organisations as it is only through the maximum liaison and contact between all organisations at all levels that the best possible assistance can be given to farmers in financial difficulty.

IRISH FARMERS ENTITLED TO RECEIVE REALISTIC PRICES FOR THEIR LIVESTOCK The Chairman of the IFA National Livestock Committee has called on the Minister for Agriculture, Mr. Austin Deasy, T.D., to alleviate the political and economic obstacles to the export of our best heifers to the U.K. and Northern Ireland. In a statement, he said: "Our best heifers are in Ireland and we are totally unable to export them. It is necessary to insist that farmers should have to go to the expense of loss will have not significant level for the group is down about 40 per cent since the start of the year to approximately 710. There are on-going discussions with the U.K. Government on the question of new aid. At the extraordinary general meeting called to approve the For Teo, Injection last December it was stated that the company had lost £2.3 million in the nine months to September 30th. The twelve month results indicate therefore that the last three months alone have cost us nearly £80,000 a week. Bearing this in mind, and that the rate of loss will be further increased through the year, it would appear that shareholders will be told of another cash crisis at this year's AGM. The latest results reveal that the group has lost £2 million in the last three months to cover working capital requirements, the group will need it badly to keep down its interest costs, these are at the moment costing £500,000-£1 million a year.

Mr. P. Finnan, Chairman of IFA National Dairy Committee, has called on all Co-Operative Creameries to pass back the full Brussels price increase to dairy farmers. He further pointed out that the increase in the price of milk in the past few years has been far less than the rate of inflation and increase in input costs. This has led to a reduction in the per cent in dairy farmer incomes over the period. Mr. Finnan stressed that there is a tremendous onus on Board Members to ensure that their Co-Operatives pass back the full price increase to the farmer. If the increase in milk supply recorded last year and this year is to be continued into the future, IFA County Dairy Committees are meeting Co-Operative Boards this week. Mr. Finnan also stated that IFA Dairy Committee members will be monitoring the level of increase granted at individual Co-Operative level.

ACOT DECISION TO INTENSIFY SERVICE WELCOMED BY IFA The IFA National Executive Committee, at its meeting in Dublin, welcomed the decision of ACOT to extend a comprehensive advisory and assistance service to all farmers in financial difficulty, including those who have been outside the scope of the existing rescue package operated by the Government, the Banks and the ACC. The IFA Executive said that this important initiative by ACOT after negotiations with IFA held out a new life-line to many genuine progressive farmers who would otherwise have gone under a direct consequence of responding positively to exhortations only a few short years ago from Government and financial agencies to invest, develop and expand their farm enterprises.

Oliver Conroy and seconded by Cllr. J. A. Walsh.

FUTURE OF IRISH LEATHERS GROUP STILL IN DOUBT

A further injection of funds by For Teo, the State rescue body, into the stricken Irish Leathers group is inevitable following the issue last week of the company's results for the year to December 31st. The losses amount to over £3.5 million for For Teo, put in last year. The group is understood to be finding it difficult to raise enough this year but there has, in recent weeks, been some sign of a pick-up in the U.K. demand for leather. The employment level for the group is down about 40 per cent since the start of the year to approximately 710. There are on-going discussions with the U.K. Government on the question of new aid.

At the extraordinary general meeting called to approve the For Teo, Injection last December it was stated that the company had lost £2.3 million in the nine months to September 30th. DEFENCE MINISTER HITS OUT AT POLITICIANS WHO BACK ILLEGAL SALMON FISHING Minister for Defence, Mr. Paddy Conroy, warned on Thursday last that there was no question of bending the law to accommodate fishermen who claimed they were getting a raw deal in the salmon row. He also hit out at politicians for their failure to condemn law breaking.

Mr. Conroy said it had been claimed there should have been consultation, before the Fisheries Protection Officers, backed by Garda and the Navy, moved to seize nets. The Minister said: "I hardly think that consultation is necessary before you seize something as illegal as monofilament netting." He said it was time that certain people realised that the Navy and the Garda and the Fisheries Protection Officers had a job to do. And it was obvious that Naval personnel did not want to get involved in a confrontation situation no more than the other officers.

He said that politicians at local and national levels should be aware of the fact that the observance of the law is the only alternative to the rule of law is anarchy," he said.

I.F.A. TOTALLY AGAINST E.E.C. DAIRY SUPER LEVY

"I.F.A. is totally opposed to the idea of applying a super levy on E.E.C. milk production as a means of solving the present milk problem of the Community. Such a proposal, if adopted, would prove catastrophic to the Irish dairy industry which is highly under-developed compared to the dairy sector in other E.E.C. countries."

This was stated by Mr. Donald Cashman, President of the Irish Farmers Association. The Irish Commissioner and the Irish Government must vehemently oppose such a suggestion which would be highly detrimental to farm incomes in Ireland. In effect such a levy would only serve to wipe out the small dairy farmer in Ireland, who has no option but to increase his production in order to earn a living."

Mr. Cashman added: "I.F.A. recognises that the Community is faced with a serious milk problem. However, we believe that action must first be taken to curb the importation of cereal substitutes and New Zealand butter. A tax should be applied to fat and before asking farmers to accept further penalty measures. The intensive farmers, who base their production on low materials coming from outside the Community should be made to carry the main burden of the price increase. It is not fair to place the burden of the price increase on the Irish farmer, who is placing Irish farmers at a disadvantage. If these pre-conditions were fulfilled, I.F.A. would be prepared to accept on a temporary basis increases in the fat rate or responsibility in the fat rate or policy of the Community. The next six months will prove to be very difficult time for the Common Agricultural Policy. We expect the Irish Government to hold firm and not compromise the future of Irish dairy farmers."

DEFENCE MINISTER HITS OUT AT POLITICIANS WHO BACK ILLEGAL SALMON FISHING

Minister for Defence, Mr. Paddy Conroy, warned on Thursday last that there was no question of bending the law to accommodate fishermen who claimed they were getting a raw deal in the salmon row. He also hit out at politicians for their failure to condemn law breaking. As far as members of the Oireachtas are concerned it is their duty to try to discourage their constituents from acting illegally, he said. "It is understandable, but at the same time reprehensible."

Mr. Conroy was at the Naval Base at Haulbowline in Cork for the commissioning of the cadets and also to present distinguished service medals to two non-commissioned officers. At a brief news conference, he said there was only one option open to fishermen and that was to leave the land and the sea to protect salmon stocks. He said the Government was satisfied that the present situation and there could be no question of negotiation on the law. He could see no purpose whatever in spokesmen for the fishermen suggesting there could be compromise.

I.C.A. WANT RAPE LAW REFORMED

The 27,000-strong Irish Countrywomen's Association wants the Government to urgently review the system for dealing with rape victims. The Minister of State at the Department of Justice, Mrs. F. O'Connell, has agreed to receive a deputation in September to discuss the situation.

One of the proposals to be put to the Minister will be for a ban garda to be available in every garda district to help women who complain of being raped. Mrs. Moya Ni Dhombhail, Ring, and P.R.O. of Waterford Federation I.C.A., said at the summer council meeting of the association in Limerick last Thursday that rape seemed to be on the increase, and it was an issue they wanted to raise with the Minister for Justice for some time. At present, she said, the situation seemed to be that a woman had virtually to prove she was raped. The Minister will be for a ban garda to be available in every garda district to help women who complain of being raped. The emphasis should be put on the woman proving her innocence in such cases - the man should be tried on the merits of the case," she said.

NEW LOOK INVENTIONS COMPETITION FOR PLOUGHING MATCH

This year's National Ploughing Championships, being held in Waterford on October 5 and 6, will feature a new approach to the very popular National Inventions Competition. This year, the original sponsors, the Irish Farmers Journal and the Institute of Industrial Research and Standards.

The aim of the competition is to expose the hidden talent for inventions that exists on farms. In particular, it will highlight improvements that can be made to existing machines, by people who use them every day. It will also expose new inventions from farmers who, through their every day work, have found a better or easier way of doing a certain job. The competition is open to farmers, contractors and other non-professional designers who have a direct link with farming. Conditions of entry state that the invention must be original and up to the time of the competition closing date, it must not have been offered for sale. There is a total prize fund of £1,000 for the competition. The top prize is £300 for the overall winner and this is being donated by the Irish Agricultural Machinery Manufacturers Association. There is a prize of £250 for second place and third prize is £100. All of these prize-winners will be guaranteed the expert guidance of the Institute for Industrial Research and Standards. This will enable them to bring their design to fruition by means of contact with reputable manufacturers.

The next six months will prove to be very difficult time for the Common Agricultural Policy. We expect the Irish Government to hold firm and not compromise the future of Irish dairy farmers."

TALLOW AND ROUNDABOUT NOTES

TALLOW, BALLYNOE AND KNOCKANORE PROTECTION ASSOCIATION
The AGM of the above club was held in St. Patrick's Hall on Thursday, July 14 last.

Out-going President—William Beecher, Vice-Presidents—Tom Leahy and Michael Brown; Chairman—Liam O'Brien; Vice-Chairman—Mike Mangan; Treasurer—Michael O'Regan; Assistant Treasurer—Arthur Mulcahy; Hon. Secretary—Tadhg McCarthy; Assistant Hon. Sec. and PRO—Tom Joe Daly; Predator Control Officer—David O'Brien.

Due to a three pound increase in insurance, membership fees have been increased to £18 for locals. It is important to note that insurance coverage will not be accepted after November 1.

Both officials and players from Tallow were present when Denis was buried in his native village of Moyne, Co. Tipperary and it was a sad day indeed.

It is the intention of the club to set up a nucleus hatchery, and in the future we intend to produce our own pheasant, quail, mallard, etc. to be released into the club's territory.

Committee meetings will be held in the near future to discuss this important topic in more detail. The club hopes to have a rat-proof building acquired before the end of this year, and with a little support from each member, successful operations should be well under way at the beginning of next year.

ST. PATRICK'S HALL IS DRIVE

INTERMEDIATE HURLING
Tallow take on Dungarvan in the semi-final of the Western Intermediate hurling at the weekend.

SOCER
A special evening held last Friday night the league and cup trophies which the club won last season, were presented to the Knockanore School. Congratulations to the teachers Mrs. Betty Gillen, Mr. Bill Twomey, Mr. Ned Power and Mrs. M. Barry, and of course, the pupils.

The Tallow Credit Union wishes to thank the ladies committee for their hospitality.

It is with a sense of shock and disbelief that people heard of the tragic death of Denis Connolly of the Mount Sion club.

As a club man he epitomised all that the Association stands for. In training he was a force all of his own and on the day of the match he was never found lacking in spirit, courage while also showing leadership to his team.

We in Tallow had the privilege of playing against him on only a few occasions but we will remember his willingness to be involved and help and uphold the proud tradition of the club.

He will be sadly missed and we extend our sincere sympathy to his wife, family and friends, all of whom held him in the highest regard. Ar dheis De go raib a nam d'ia.

WOODLAND SET DANCERS
The set came 1st place in Mallow on Thursday night, July 21. This competition was run in conjunction with the Mallow Folk Festival.

The set expresses its thanks to Tom O'Donoghue, Crowhill, for supplying the music so successfully on the night.

Since the set dancers formation 18 months ago they have been successful in up to 20 competitions including the All-Ireland Gaelic competition. The set will be competing in Lismore and Midleton on the 1st and 16th of August respectively.

They also compete on Sunday night in the Carling talent competition in Knockanore.

ENGAGEMENT
Engaged recently was Miss Carmel O'Leary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Leary, Founthill, Knockanore, to Mr. Pat O'Brien, Ballinacree, Co. Wick.

ST. CATHERINE'S GAA
In one of the toughest and players by manager Raymond Fraser and secretary Joe Tobin. Raymond Fraser congratulated the team and thanked them for their hard work and dedication throughout the season.

He also said it was a tremendous achievement for a small club like Bride-View to win trophies in the Cork AUL who had the second biggest league in the country. He hoped the cups won by the club last season would be the first of many.

If last season's performance was anything to go by, then we should be good enough for the first division, provided, of course, these performances are kept up. We did have some good victories over first division sides last year, with the county cup final victory over Midleton the most important one.

Another important factor is our home record, which we have not beaten just this season. If we can continue this trend, especially in the early part of the season, it should help to settle the team in the higher grade. Of course our average of over three goals a game is something we should be able to achieve in the first division.

Last season we were involved in very high scoring games with four players taking over 100 goals. Mickey Curley 46, Stephen Curley 18, Philly Curley 24, and Tommy Pratt 13. Looking at it realistically we should be happy with a mid-table position at the end of the season.

Last season is now past and we cannot afford to be complacent. Preparations are already well underway for the new season which starts on August 20.

Our next meeting is on August 6 in St. Patrick's Hall at 7.30 p.m. where all players in the coming season will be signed on.

ST. CATHERINE'S GAA

acclaimed one of the best junior hurling matches seen at Midleton for a long time we earned our passage into the second round of the championship last Saturday night.

In this replay against Aghada we had to contend with the far sharper team than in the first encounter and were very apt at gaining possession. The game lived well up to the expectations of the crowd and with some hectic pulling the more stylish play of the drawn game was ruled out.

Both teams, due to good goalkeeping, failed to register a major score in the first half and St. Catherine's led by 9 points to 6 at the break.

The resumption provided plenty of thrills with Aghada pulling on the pressure and being rewarded with a goal about midway and a couple of good points, forcing ahead and looking like potential winners with 10 minutes remaining.

St. Catherine's never lost their grip on the game and with great reserve produced the vital scores in the dying moments to win by 6-10 to 3-11.

Christy Clancy proved the most prolific scorer of the evening with a personal tally of 12 points. Mike Mullerick, Dan Mangan, Denis Walsh, John Murphy, Willie Kearney, finished the remainder.

John G. Barry, Maurice Hartnett, Barry O'Connell, Pat O'Sullivan, Seamus Neville, Lane, Denis O'Neill, Tom Walsh, and Pat Clancy until substituted by Oliver Twomey all contributed to a great victory for the team.

Billy Cody, Midleton, retired. It is on the list for the next Sunday against Lisgoold at Dimpurrough for the second CAOIGHE.

St. Catherine's Camogie team emerged victors in their league tie with Rathbarnac at the latter's home ground. Showing more experience in every game St. Catherine's got into an early lead which they maintained to the end. Kathleen Moroney of the Camogie team retired with a facial injury and was substituted by Marian Spillane.

Other Twomey all contributed to a great victory for the team.

Team—L. Geary, K. Hayes, J. Hurley, D. Hogan, M. Regan, A. Lane, M. Geary, M. Hurley, J. Flanagan, K. Moroney, D. O'Connell, A. Aheron.

KNOCKANORE FETE

MINORS DEFEATED
Our minor footballers were no match for a very strong Dungarvan fifteen in the championship game on Thursday night and suffered a very heavy defeat as a result.

DRAWN JUNIOR TIED
Our junior footballers played a draw with Ballyduff in their championship encounter at Lismore on Friday night last. On a rainy evening the game was a shade lucky to force a replay and will have to improve considerably for the fixture. The final score was Cappoquin 10-Ballyduff 6-8.

AUGUST FUN DAY
AUGUST MONDAY will be re-organised by the committee after this year when the general public will have sampled the fare at the GAA Day in the GAA grounds. It promises to be a great occasion with something for everyone from children's soccer to Gaelic football, tug-of-war, sack races, long jump, long kick, ball in the tyre to name a few but a few novelty events.

Added attractions of course will be the fancy dress parade and the 'Dixies'.

SCOUTS NOTES — FUND RAISING
Our unit Council Finance Committee members are commencing an ambitious venture in an effort to raise badly needed funds to provide toilet and shower facilities at our Scout Den. This extension is most essential and is indeed an urgent matter on our planning committee and must take top priority.

But first the money must be raised so a benefit meeting was held on a recent evening at the Track which we received. We are most grateful to the Youth and Adult members of the unit for their kind and generous grants as a fixture. The date for the benefit meeting is Friday, August 26. So now we appeal to the general public to buy admission tickets from our Finance Committee members which will be on sale in the coming weeks. Subscription fee will be £2.

We would also be eternally grateful if the business people of the town would kindly sponsor for the races as we would like to make the card as attractive and more enjoyable as possible to draw a big crowd and good entry on the night.

committee members will be calling on you in any way you can. You are furthering the cause of scouting and more importantly providing your local troop with essential facilities.

Arrangements will be finalised at a committee meeting this week. We wish them every success in their fund raising efforts.

Last Thursday night the Scout Troop climbed to the top of Knockmaldown mountains. Preparations are underway for our summer camp. This year we will be under canvas in the heart of the Dingle Peninsula in beautiful Kerry.

Arrangements will be made for all those scouts who received their merit badges for cycling last week. CAPPQUIN MACHA NOTES
Our unit members are taking part in Dungarvan Show on Thursday, July 28.

We have a number of new members, Noreen O'Brien, Shirley O'Donnell and Theresa Murray. Congratulations to Gerard O'Brien who celebrated his 21st birthday recently.

BALLINAMEELA AGLISH MUNSTER FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS
Saturday last proved to be a great day for the parish of Ballinacree Aghlish in Ballygiblin, which is two and a half miles outside Mitchelstown. The girls U 14 Community Games football team had a tremendous victory over the Dunparry representatives. Ardhanan in the Munster final. The pitch was in good condition but very large as it did not comply with the recognised size of a Community Games pitch. Therefore the score was low.

Ballinacree Aghlish got off to a good start with Patricia O'Brien kicking a nice point from a free. Ballinacree Aghlish had complete control of the first half with the half back line on top but our forwards could not turn their possession into scores. Just before half time Sinead O'Brien scored a point to leave the score 0-2 to 0-0.

Buckley along with Caroline Ryan proved to be our heroes on the day. They were solid in defence and always in the right place at the right time. Ardhanan could only score a point this proving that Ballinacree Aghlish were an all-round better balanced team. Victory was ours by the scoreline of 0-3 to 0-1.

While the final minutes could only be described as heart stopping, Fr. Lucy of Ardhanan had given his all and the very nearly gained victory. A 1st was earned from this victory and there is plenty of room for improvement before the girls represent Munster in the National Finals in Enniscorthy next September.

The full panel is — Aileen Ballahan, Mary O'Donnell, Clare Lohan, Anne Buckley, Cathy Tobin, Catherine Ahearne, Caroline Ryan, Patricia O'Brien, Rosemary Morrissey, Aine Whelan, Clare Fitzgerald, Catherine Morrissey, Theresa Irwin, Clare Christopher, Sinead O'Brien, Subj. Fr. Fitzgerald, Carmel Ryan, Una Ahearne, Jenny Maher and Karen Reynolds.

It was also a sweet victory for those who helped the team through thick and thin, such people as Mr. Cullio, John-Joe Power, Peggy and Davy Reynolds, Fr. Fitzgerald, Carmel Fitzgerald and not forgetting Michael Cullio junior. Our loyal supporters must also be included in the list.

The following are the match scores in this year's Munster Finals: 1st Round — Kerry 3-2, Limerick 2-2; 2nd Round — Limerick 2-2, Tipperary 0-1.

And so once again we salute the players who have brought honours not alone to their parish of Ballinacree Aghlish but also to the county of Waterford. The football talent there and lads with proper dedication to training the All-Ireland football title is there for the taking. Well done again.

Speaking at the recent Cappoquin F.F. Gumann AGM, Jackie Foley T.D. said he was well aware of the great need for additional industry in the area and he was pressing the L.D.A. for action.

He stated that there was a very good chance of procuring an industry for Cappoquin as there is a very live interest by a group of persons interested in the L.D.A. Advance Factory. The factory will be sited for far too long. This group would be concentrating on pig products and would give good employment.

There is also another industry — Computer Related Services Limited, showing a keen interest in locating at Cappoquin and he hoped that a joint announcement would be made in the near future.

MEMBERSHIPS
After lengthy discussions on this it was decided that our junior players would pay their annual subscriptions by way of covering referees expenses for home games in the Red House League next season. As regards our juvenile players, the matter was left open as to whether they would pay a full membership or else pay for transport on the day of a match. A decision on this will be taken at a later date.

This very important matter was discussed quite considerably and it was decided that we would look in to the possibility of covering every playing member of the club against minor or major injuries.

FUND RAISING ACTIVITIES
This item was left open as many ideas were suggested. Obviously it will be the committee which will decide on such a venture at future meetings.

TEAM MANAGERS
It was unanimously decided that Eddie Frater take charge of our junior side in the Red House League. As regards the Waterford Seniors League, we have decided to enter Under 14 and Under 15 teams. We have also made a provisional list of 11 squad members. Our assistant will be Steve O'Brien. Our 15 squad will be managed by our Under 14 squad manager, Paddy Leahy. Our 11 squad will be managed by Steve O'Brien. Our 15 squad will be managed by Paddy Leahy. Our 11 squad will be managed by Steve O'Brien.

Finally, the election of officers for the 1983/84 season will place and the following are the Chairman for the coming season: Paddy Casey, Assistant Secretary — Rhiney Walsh, Treasurer — Conor O'Leary, Committee — Michael Cahill, Paddy Bergin, Paul Doherty, Eddie Frater, Tom Morrissey.

LEAGUE 12 WATERFORD
Our Under 12's played their final league game of the season away to Crusaders on Thursday night last and went down 6-2. Our lads were never in it as we had a very understrength team. An important feature was that eight years old Jason Fleming got both our goals. Well done Jason.
