Sworn Inquiry Hears Objectors to Proposed Itinerant Halt in Dungarvan

A veterinary expert told a sworn inquiry in Dungarvan last Wednesday that if the local Urban Council is allowed to erect a halt within 200 yards of the Mart, it will in fact be a nuisance...

Dr. Martin O'Boyle, senior area medical officer, with the South-East Health Board, said that in his public health point of view he considered the Shannon site to be suitable for an itinerant halt...

Dr. P. Byrne disclosed that there were about 75 herds out of a total of 5,000-5,500 in County Waterford affected by brucellosis...

Ms. Maureen Ryan, a social worker with Core Corporation, said the Corporation had one functional itinerant halt in the Knocknacree area of the city...

Mr. Michael Guiry of the Co. Waterford executive of the IFA, said he was not in favour of the proposed itinerant halt...

Mr. P. Byrne said that a carriage would be used to collect full-time at the site. The cost of his development would be in the region of £20,000...

Mr. P. Byrne said he did not think the value of adjoining lands would fall because of the site. That land is zoned for residential purposes...

Mr. P. Byrne said the halt would be a nuisance from the people living in the area...

DUNGARVAN RUGBY CLUB NOTES

Next week-end the 2nds may play in a friendly at Ballymore...

Waterpark seemed to take heart from Dungarvan's missed opportunities and for the remainder of the first half were clearly the better side...

The opening 10 minutes of the second half continued to see Dungarvan struggle and Waterpark increased their lead...

Mr. Potter-Cogan, selector, said the Kelly sisters would be called by the presence of the halt site so close to their home...

Mr. Potter-Cogan submitted that the UDC had failed to consider the inquiry about the suitability of the site...

Dungarvan in addition ran away penalty that was awarded to them but could not effect anything...

In the closing 5 minutes Dungarvan again took the opposition and won a penalty which was converted by Tom Conside...

Overall, it was a point saved by Dungarvan's determination and one which maintains our

FIRST NATIONAL BUILDING SOCIETY TOURNAMENT

Entries are pouring in for this seven person team event—closing date Thursday, January 26. The tournament has an added extra as all entrants have a chance of winning a beautiful travel bag also courtesy of First National.

OPEN WEEK-END

This week-end sees 'Minnie's' as the venue for some of the country's top players. Our open has, as usual, attracted record entries. We will be catering for some 140 players and up to 200 guests will take place during the course of the two days.

MAGRA NA FEIRME

Our last meeting was held on Saturday, January 21st, when a programme of activities for the spring was decided. Four members from the club completed a tractor maintenance course in Tallow and received certificates. They are: Michael O'Rourke, Michael Hourigan, Tom Tobin and Jim Ryan.

MELLERAY NOTES

BADMINTON

It is with regret that we record the death of Mrs. Patricia Walsh (Morrissy) which occurred recently. Pat who was a member of our club for some years, was missed by all of us when she left as from the beginning she had won the hearts of all the club members with her kind manner and soft countenance.

MELLERAY/GLEN ROVERS GAA CLUB

The AGM of the above club was held in St. Mary's Hall on Sunday, January 8. It was a most constructive AGM and the mood of the meeting was a determined optimism.

PRESENTATION OF UNDER-AGE MEDALS

The presentation of the under-age medals and trophies won by the club last year will take place on Thursday, February 2, in the Lismore Hotel at 8.00 p.m. Music for the night will be provided by the St. Patrick's Trio. It would be very encouraging if the parents of all the players turned up for this special occasion.

LISMORE GAA NOTES

Though the weather would not encourage one to think of playing any games, training and matches will soon begin. Right now the committee are at work trying to raise enough funds to enable us to play these matches when the time comes. The Co. Convention is coming.

ably proud of. Regrettably, it would appear that such is not the case and we still have in our midst many clubs still existing in name only and whose prime and sole aim would appear to be to fulfill the statutory championship obligation...

TOO MANY CLUBS
While an increase in club affiliations is always pleasing to record, one wonders how we can get overboard on the subject. The question has been posed in the past, and we must make it again — "Have we too many clubs in some areas of the county?"

CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE
Continuing the report says:— "The important aspect of conduct and discipline — or to be more precise, the lack of such laudable attributes, became in many instances during 1983 a vexed and complex problem. More than a few games at both County and Divisional Level found recourse to the Disciplinary Committee involved, and this is not a welcome trend...

UPDATING OF FARM MODERNISATION COSTINGS "RIDICULOUSLY INSIGNIFICANT"
The twenty-five per cent updating of standard costings under the revised Farm Modernisation Scheme, announced by the Minister for Agriculture, has been described by Mr. Sam Harpur, Chairman of the IFA Rural Development Committee, as "ridiculously insignificant."

ATTIRE
"The lack of uniformity in attire was very much in evidence during the past year and this distasteful practice was carried on right through to some of our County Finals. Surely our players must generate pride in their dress and observance of the registered colours of club and indeed, county. Teams and individuals by their attention to this vital matter warrant the respect of friend and foe alike...

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

In our "Remembering Other Days" feature we repeat the photo published in our last issue with the addition of the relevant information that has since come to hand. Thanks to Mr. Michael Curran, popular Postman formerly of Cappaquin. The photo shows the famous Dark Blues Crew of Gappoquin Rowing Club who won all round them as Maiden and Junior Eight in 1955-57. In all that time they were beaten only once by the Senior Garda Crew. The first four named also won the Blue Riband for Fours. Left to right: Paddy McGee, Lefanta, John Flynn, Cooke Street, John Curran, Tivoli Terrace, Michael Cahill, Affane, Paddy Lenane, Drommora, Pakie Arrigan, Main Street, Don McGrath, Lefanta, John McGrath, Lefanta and Terry O'Grady, Main Street (Ox).

Double For Costello

Someone remarked at last Sunday's opening point-to-point of the season at Killeagh that it would have been better to make two days of it, and it was a reasonable comment considering that there were ten races with no less than 158 horses in action.

DOUBLE FOR COSTELLO
Tom Costello was the only rider to land a double with Rockford's partner in the second division of the 4-Y-O/5-Y-O Maiden and the Tinker in the Winners of Two Rockford's. He was followed after the fifth last fence. Costello didn't have to be hard on him to hold Neville's Delight over the last couple of fences.

DUNGARVAN MUSEUM SOCIETY

The new Museum Library-Tourist Office in the Old Market House is opening. To mark the opening of the museum the Society is mounting two special exhibitions: "The Canon Power Station and "The Archaeology of the Cork-Dublin Gas Pipeline."

Canon Power was of course a notable historian, archaeologist and writer. His best known work being the "Place Names of the Dioceses." The pipeline exhibition is a fascinating record of finds from excavations carried out during the construction of the gas pipeline.

A special preview night for Museum Society members will take place on Thursday, February 9 (see poster for details). This will be a good opportunity for members to renew their subscription for 1984.

The exhibition will be open on Friday, Friday 16th and Saturday 17th from 7.30 p.m. to 9.30 p.m. on Monday to Friday at 7.30 p.m. to 9.30 p.m. until further notice.

Copies of "Dungarvan An Architectural Inventory" are on sale during the exhibition. This is the last chance to obtain a copy as only a small number are now available.
