JUNIORS EXCEL

JUNIOR TOURNAMENT

Last week-end in Ballinroad the junior players had their opportunity to play some competitive tennis. The standard was exceptionally high resulting in some exciting finals. In the girts u/21 final Judy O Brien a very stylist player beat Majela Cummins, who is another girl with a bright future in tennis.

In the boys final in the same age category, Pat Hayes recorded a fine win over Larry Boland. These two play a lot of tenais and the final between them was a "ding-dong" battle.

In the girls over-12-under-toyen lovely tennis to beat another talented player Niamb Byrne. In the girls over-12-under-toyen lovely tennis to beat another talented player Niamb Byrne. # DELAY BY IRISH GOVERNMENT

We hear Paddy was getting down to brass tacks last Thursday night but workers were scarce as our Disco was on at Clonea and he hopes to field a full team this week.

UNACCEPTABLE

The delay by the Irish Government in submitting to the EEC a proposal for the extension to the Disadvantaged Areas has been described by Mr. Michael Slattery, He being totally unacceptable to Irish farmers. Mr. Slattery wis speaking at an IFA meeting is Carrick-on-Suir.

Speaking at an 17A meeting a Carrick-on-Suir.

He said. The possibilly in an increase to the areas is distanced by the recent decision by the EEC to extend the areas covered under Directive 286 in the U.K., the Netherlands and Italy. It must also be pointed out that 70% of Northern Inland is now classified and in Southern Inland is now classified in Southern Ireland only 51% of area are classified under Directive 266. This may be the last opportunity for an extension, as it is vitally important that the Government take the matter a immediately."

Continuing, Mr. Slattery sul that the present off-farm is come clause whereby a famor that the flexible whereby a fanner or his/her spouse carning more than £3,000 gross income are deemed incligible for headage payments, is totally unrealiste and it must be increased to a least £6,500. We must also ensure, he said, that the maintum benefits are attained under the continuous participation has been supported by the payment of the continuous participation has been supported by the payment of the continuous participation has been supported by the payment of the continuous participation has been supported by the payment of the continuous participation has been supported by the payment of the supported by the payment of

MR. CHRISTY PRENDERGAST

Feelings of sincere sorrow and regret were occasioned at hews of the death of Mr. Christy Prendergast, Thomas Ferrace, Dungarvan, which occurred at a comparatively early age, at a rackeen Hospital, on Thursday, April 26.

day, April 26.

"By Gum" was Christy's catch phrase and he became affectionately known as "By Gum" to his many friends. Member of a well-known and highly esteemed family, Christy himself was loved and respected by all who came to know him. He possessed a jolly disposition, loved hurling, football and soccer and revelled in a game of 45 with his friends.
