DUNGARVAN AFFAIRS
In a recent report to Dungarvan Urban Council on matters raised by members at recent meetings, the County Engineer, Mr. John O'Flynn in regard to the suggestion of placing a "yo slow" sign on the Causeway
side of Abbeyside Bridge, pointed out that this area was in a 30 mp.h. zone and he would be opposed to the creetion of a sign on the Quay side of the road. As an alternative he said that he would have a "slow" sign painted on the roadway on the approach to the

WIDESPREAD REGRET AT DEATH OF LEADING AGRICULTURAL ADMINISTRATOR

Having worked as a teacher in Tipperary Town for a brief priod and in Lerry for another short time he was appointed Agricultural Adviser in Limerick in 1951 and spent the early part of his career there being promoted first to the post and Decksting CAO.

He took up the position of permanent CAO with the Co. Waterford Committee of Agriculture on August 1, 1938, and since then he has been recognised as one of the leading agricultural administrators who has been responsible for the outstanding developments in farming circles in the county.

It was taken in 1909 and shows the Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band after The photo in our "Remembering Other Days" series this week is one that really goes back to other days almost to the dawn of the present century. It was taken in 1909 and shows the Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band after winning the Gisburne Cup in the face of stift competition which included bands from England at the great contest held in Waterford City. The photo was taken at Hargraves. Lawn, in the Brewery Lodge, Dungarvan in 1909 and shows the cup (recently valued at over £1,000) on the podested in front of Bandmaster Hargraves. The cup continues in the ownership of the Dungarvan Band as a memento of a great occasion. The families of many of the men and boys who were members of the band at the time still live in Dungarvan.

AN INSULT TO BOTH FARMERS AND VETS

The Executive of the Irish Veterinary Union have issued a statement which says that re-cent proposals to change the statement which says that to cent proposate to charge the system by which a farmer nominates the Vet who carries out the TB Test are not acceptable. The statement retirerates that there is no valid scientific reason for such a change. It is a direct insult to both the farmer and the vet and would not improve the TB scheme. A change would cause chaos to the administration of the scheme and also cause a major disruption to veterinary practice, as it is structured in this country. This is not in the best increase it is structured in this country. This is not in the best increase of farmer or veterinary and vet which was ducously in the Brucellosis Salare and the should be mainfailed.

The eventual use of the farmer vet link in Kerry BTE should be copied in other areas.
