the night on one occasion.

The County Engineer. Mr.
John O'Flynn thanked the Co.
Manager and the Council members and officials at a meeting of Waterford Co. Counbers for their remarks and said that he, also, would like to that he, also, would like to the the progressors and work.

General disappointment and disappo thank the overseers and workers for the long, cold hours kavanagh, of a grant of £2.26 they had worked in getting the million to the Council for road works during 1985. Mr. John O'Flynn, County En-gineer described the allocation as "somewhat disappointing." In the national context he said that the Government's plan had allowed for an increase of 23 grants would result in a marked per cent for Road Improvement Grants but in the case of Wa-terford the total grant commit-ments increased by 20.89 per cent and the actual grant allocation by only 14 per cent. He pointed out that the £150.000 allocated for the Dungarvan By Pass would only allow for the completion of the Youghai Road-Shandon section and provide lighting and traffic signals at the Clonmel Road Junction He was disappointed that approval had not been given for the Strandside North-Coolagh Road section of the By Pass and at the delay in approving of the bridge order.

The allocation of £350,000 for

Mr. O'Flynn also said that the grant allocated for ordinary maintenance was inadequate too while the Block Grant of £390,000 was grossly inadequate and at least £200,000 more was necessary.

Cllr. C. O Riain said that overall he was very disappoint-ed and the big reduction in the deterioration of their roads. He said that they should again make a direct approach to the Minister to seek more money. Cllr. W. McDonnell said that he was gravely annoyed that their county roads had been so badly neglected. It was a sad situation and a serious one, he said.

Mr. Dan Hurley, County Manager said that the county road network was being let run down because of the inadequacy of the government grants. "No the government grants. "No money is being provided for their proper maintenance," ne

POINT-TO-POINT

Dungarvan In The Rain

The late John Betjeman, former Poet Laureate of England once wrote a poem about Dun-garvan In The Rain and that really was the scene on Sunday last when a downpour fell throughout most of the day. However despite the atrocious conditions a good crowd turned up for the annual Point-to-Point meeting at Kilossera.

The rain made the course very heavy while many cars got bogged down in the mud as they were leaving at the end of the meeting and it was a case of get out and push in many instances as wheels slipped and slithered. cotton wool.

Of all the weather conditions that plague the Irish motorist the most dangerous. Drive only at a speed which enables you to stop within your distance of vision—using washers and wipers frequently.

Do not wander off the beaten track. Travel a route you know well with familiar landmarks. When fog falls, even the traffic island at the bottom of your road acquires the mystery of the Bermuda Triangle. Take the nearside kerb or hedge as a guide. Avoid the lure of the catseyes and do not cling to the centre lines. Watch out, though, for parked vehicles. Out of sight should not mean out of mind.

Beware the invisible man.

Pedestrians are particularly vulnerable. Drive on your headhindmost — drivers at the back of the queue may not be able to react quickly enough to avoid the black mass in front.

And remember, it is always more tiring to drive in fog be cause of the extra concentration involved, so pull off the road and stop in a safe place if you feel fatigue coming on. Overtiredness can lead to you wak-ing up with a close encounter of the third party, fire and thef kind. Follow the fog code, and you'll see your way clear to a safe journey.

Financial Loss Of Grave Concern

Two hundred and sixty onlicials and delegates attended last Sunday's County Convention which took place at Lawlor's Hotel and which was held in two sessions.

The speech was the message for the people who were trying to knock the association within the county. The report is published on page 3 of this issue.

MOTIONS

The ninety minute morning session dealt with reports and innance and following a forty-five minute break for lunch, the meeting resumed to deal with the 36 listed motions are sumed to deal with the 36 listed motions are sumed to deal with the 36 listed motions are sumed to deal with the 36 listed motions are sumed to deal with the 36 listed motions are sumed to deal with the 36 listed motions are sumed to deal with the 36 motions listed twelve were passed, fifteen were lost, eight were withdrawn and one was declared to be out of order. the 36 listed motions and elections and delegates were on their way home before 6.30 p.m. The convention was splendidly monitored and controlled by county chairman, James Tobin who was 'chairing' his first full county convention and didn't allow any delegate to get too badly burned by any of the 'sparks' that flew now and then.

When the preliminaries were disposed of the convention discussed finance and what was of obvious concern to everyone was the loss of about £12,000 on the year's working. County treasurer. Davy Power outlined the areas where the major part of the loss occurred. He said that travelling expenses for county teams, additional expenses in connection with the celebration of centenary year, the reduced receipts from National Leagues and the non-payment by some clubs of the public lia-bility insurance were chiefly responsible for the loss. A num-ber of these would not reoccur and some of the losses will be recouped.

Tony Mansfield said a look should be taken at the cost of preparing teams for the Munster championships.

The secretary's report which was regarded as being one of the most forthright ever presented, was taken section by section and was passed almost without comment. There were Padraig O Fainin and Seamus feated. O h-Aonghusa, Cnoc Sion, took Motio exception to the content of the report and they both refuted some of the insinuations made. The reports on Fraher Field and Walsh Park were also the subject of some critical com-ment by delegates. Eamon Mur-phy complained about the manner in which the financial report of Walsh Park had been presented and proposed that the financial reports of both the Dungarvan and Walsh Park yenues be embodied in the general County Board account.

Many of the discussions were very well debated and there were some splendid contributions during the four-hour de-narrowly and a couple of the championship motions were carried. The over-all result will be that the senior championships will continue to be run on a knock-out basis, but there will be no qualifying rounds as heretofore. The number of teams participating will not be limited by bye-law but will be determined by the county fixtures committee.

Teams eligible for the intermediate county championships will also be determined by the same committee and thanks to the success of a Ballysaggart mction, very well processed by James Bennett, there will be an additional junior hurling championship to be called a 'B' cham-pionship following examination of the entries. The dates for all county finals will be announced at the May meeting of the Co. Board.

Motions 1 and 2, concerning the 'Square Rule' in football were proposed by Garry Cunpected to work within this figure.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

"The Boys Of Yesteryear" could well be an apt caption for the photograph in our "Remembering Other Days" series this week for it shows the boys who were in 4th Class at Dungarvan CBS in 1936. Many of the faces might be familiar to readers as the boys of that time are now reaching senior citizens status.

Dungarvan Men On Illegal

When officers of the Southern Regional Fisheries Board sweeped on a wood near Dungarvan on the night of September 11 last, they found a Court heard.

Before the court were Sean Whelan, a licensed fish dealer, Twomilebridge, Dungarvan, and John Morrissey, unemployed, of Keating Street, Dungarvan, and both pleaded guilty to having in their custody and possession on that occasion at Pulla, Dungarvan, 145 salmon unlawfully captured.

They also pleaded guilty to using a van on the same occa-sion in the commission of an offence.

Mr. A. V. Maher, State Solr., prosecuting, sald the authorities took a serious view of the charges because there had been a lot of illegal salmon, fishing in the Helvick Head area over the last two years.

Mr. Joseph Curran, Solr, for Whelan, said that following this incident, the van, which Whelan had hired out at £95 a week, had been seized by the

WHEN SHALL THE DAY
DAWN IN ERIN
Our choice for the ballad corner this week is an old one that goes back to the days when

When shall the night star arise.

Out of the Eastern splendour To gladden straining eyes. When shall her wrongs become righted, The sad past forgotten be? The years may seem distant what matter,

It shall be her destiny.

Chorus:

For Ireland was Ireland through joy and through tears,

Hope never died through the long weary years, Each age has seen countless brave hearts pass away, But the spirit still lives in the men of today.

Ireland will surely awaken Out of her spell of despair Glow in her cheeks, death's design

Was never planted there.

Truth in her bright eyes glowing. Liberty's ring in her voice, That calls to her sons o'er the wide world

In nationhood's name to
