GOOD WIN FOR 'FIRSTS' ...

Dungarvan 7; Waterpark 3 In the run-up to the Junior Cup. Dungarwan got some valuexperience in beating Waterpark 7-3 last Sunday. It was a hard fought game in which the pack played well.

Dungarvan's main score came after a Waterpark mistake. when Peter Coughlan collected the ball and kicked ahead to touch down himself for a welltaken try.

The only blot on the game was the unexpected dismissa. of No. 8 Tom O'Brien. We hope however that with a minimum suspension he will be available for our forthcoming Munster Junior Cup game against Tra-lee on Sunday week. Team—J. McGrath, E. Phelan,

TROOP MEETING

This week we had a very short meeting. We began at 7 p.m. when Eoin Clancy opened the proceedings and after monies were collected patrols headed down to Mass due to the following day's activities. On our return at 8.15 we played a quick game of 'in the pond, off the ground' where on a given command scouters who made mistakes were out It was made mistakes were out. It was a major surprise when Alan Ryan was first out. Others quickly to follow were Michael Power, Damien French and Paul Tobin while Sean James came out trumps. Next on the agenda was the second part of our First Aid course. This week we covered serious bleeding, clothes on fire, etc. Brendan Kiersey and Ciaran Walsh were two of our major contributors to this sec-tion. We followed this section with a circle game, where on whistle signals the lads would break into the amount of blasts blown. Anthony Moore, Austin Cunningham and Conor Power showed how quick they were to Showed how quick they were to find a partner, while poor Neil Carty bit the dust (in more senses of the word than one) on his way round the circuit. Notices were next, when in-formation on this year's camp was top of the bill, plus news

At Last Friday's Mass Eoin Clancy and Niall Kirwan served while Niall O'Connor and ven-turer Mark Clancy read the lessons. We're glad to report that the attendance was on the very good side to get the year off to a great start.

TROOP HIKE

Last Sunday we had our first outdoor activity of the new year when all scouts and lead-ers assembled in the Den at 9.30. Sean Fitzgerald was our hike leader for the day. Our route was as follows—from the Den out by Shandon and from there on to Kilgobinet, where we stopped to visit St. Conlon's Well.

After our short rest we pro-ceeded through a mile and a half of forestry, before arriv-ing at our destination — the Colligan picnic area. Sean Cart-wright, Michael Cosgrave and Alan Ryan were complaining at this stage of sore feet while Kieran Walsh and Brian Bros-nan were still full of energy. The time was now twelve

We arrived back in Abbeyside at 4 p.m. after a good, tough hike covering an 11 mile circuit. By the way our turnout at 95% was very good indeed

VENTURER NOTES

Last Friday night we had a parade to Mass with almost a full attendance. When the Den was empty, some of the lads togged off and had a badmin-ton tournament. Pool was also played. We then had a talk about our programme for camp in England and about our programme for the coming weeks. On the 31st of this month, an investiture will be held in the Den — all parents are welcome. In the coming weeks we will be having "serious" computer nights, go-ing to the Sports Centre and

G.A.A. Notes Waterford Regarded As The

ON MUNSTER TEAM

We have reason to feel a little disappointed that only one player from the county is named on the Munster hurling team for the Railway Cup first round game against Leinster next month. Stephen Breen has been selected and is well worthy of the honour, but we did have one or two more who could have been justifiably named for selection. I suppose the view was taken by the other Munster selectors that Waterford, being a Division 3 county, couldn't have much to offer, Anyway, congratulations, Stephen.

failures. In his Munster championship report he states: "For the sec-ond successive year, we failed to hoist a victory flag on the Munster championship circuit, and even a number of 'hard luck' stories cannot hide the fact that we are well and truly regarded as the Cinderella County in the province. There is never any great virtue in de-feat, and while resultant des-pondency was somewhat tem-pered by a number of encourag-ing performances, we can hard-ly be satisfied with details as outlined below." outlined below.

"In the wake of our National Hurling League humiliation, our senior hurlers' splendid and spirited showing against Limer ick in the championship, was refreshing. We travelled to Cork with more hope than confidence

RESUMPTION

Playing activities will resume in the county on Sunday fort-night when our footballers play Ciare in the sixth round of the National Joseph act Traher National League at Fraher Field and on the following Sun-day our hurlers will be away to Carlow.

TEAM OF THE CENTURY

Their hurling and football teams of the century of the Dungarvan club are published elsewhere in this issue and it will be very interesting to hear public comment on both line-outs About seventy-five players were considered for each team and there were some very diffi-cult decisions to be taken by the selectors, before finally de-ciding on the player for each position. There are bound to be disappointments, but over all it disappointments, but over-all it looks a very good team and I'm sure, one that will be accepted.

At the moment club mem-bers are busy rehearsing the play "The Eccentric" which will be staged in Ballyduff on the 18th or 19th of January.

Our picture for the "Remembering Other Days" series this week recalls the days when a strong branch of the Gaelic League flourished in Dungarvan. It shows members of the Committee at a meeting to organise Feis Dungarbhan in 1953. All but four of the group, Mr. Bernie Tyers, Mrs. P. A. Croke, Mr. John O'Donnell and Brighdin Ni Chriostoir have gone to their eternal reward and, as shown, they were Jack Tobin, Michael Hynes (then Postmaster in Dungarvan), Rev. Fr. D. Daly, O.S.A., Ven. Archdeacon Power (who was P.P. of Dungarvan at the time), Liam Comerford and Packie Croke. The picture was taken in the grounds of the Friary Church, Dungarvan.

HELP FOR THE IRISH SCHOOL OF ECUMENICS APPROVED

One of the subjects discussed at ne 1984 Ballymascanlon Interthe church Conference was the support of ecumenical enterprises like the Irish School of Ecumenics through offerings taken up at united ser-vices during Christian Unity Week (January 18-25). The position was reached that there would be no objection to offerings being taken up at ecumenical services and the proceeds given to the Irish School of Ecumenics or shared with another ecumenical cause. Speaking about this development, the Rev. Dr. Robin Boyd, Director of the Irish School of Ecumenics, said: "Last Autumn we decided to seek clarification of the 1984 and also with the Church of Ireland bishops, expressing the hope that during services held in the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, and with the approval of the hosting clergy, offerings might be taken up in support of the School. Hopes are high that Churches and in-dividuals, taking part in Unity. dividuals taking part in Unity Week prayers will see the support of the School as a practical way of expressing their commitment to Christian Unity". RECONCILIATION

Since 1970 the Irish School of Ecumenics has been working to promote reconciliation and unity between Christians in Ireland, and the need for such work is today greater than ever before. The School has no endowments and does not receive any regular fund-ing but depends for its continued existence on voluntary donations. Its financial situation is at present one of great difficulty.

COURTHOUSE MAINTENANCE

At the December meeting of the County Council, arising from a request to have repairs carried out to the Courthouse in Kilmacthomas, the County Manager, Mr. Hurley, indicated that he felt that the Department of Justice should accept responsibility for the repair and maintenance of Courthouses. The Manager expanded on this point at the Council's January monthly meeting last Monday when he pointed out that there were two fine Courthouses in Waterford City and Dungarvan and these should be adequate to cope with all the existing courts being held i.e. the Courthouse in the City could be the venue for all courts held in East Waterford and the building in Dungarvan be the venue for all court sittings in West Waterford. While many of the centres where monthly district court sittings are held might not like to lose the status of being a "court" town, the County Manager's suggestions are worth very serious consideration.

THE WEXFORD FISHING

Our choice for the ballad corner this week brings us to our next door County of Wex-ford which being a maritime county like our own, has a great sea fishing tradition. "The Wexford Fishing Song" talls it own story. tells its own story:

aul Barry, who had no previous convictions, was also fined £2 for being drunk and disorderly, but that charge was dismissed against the remaining defendant, William O'Leary.

The club's next, meeting will be on Friday night followed by BANGED AND KICKED

During the hearing Andrew O'Leary told the court that while in the toilet of a Ballynoe public house on the night of June 23 he was accused by Mahon of selling a "score of bowls." Mahon banged him three or faur times in the face him three or four times in the face and while on the ground he was kicked in the ribs by Mahon. Later he was taken by ambulance to a Cork hospital but was discharged about an hour later

Paul Barry corroborated that evi-dence, but Mahon said he was in the toilet when Andrew O'Leary came in "ranting and raving." As witness turned to leave he received a blow from behind on the head but could not say if it was O'Leary or Barry that struck him. He did not strike O'Leary who he later saw roaring and shouting on the street.

Garda Charles O'Sullivan said batons had to be drawn and addiional garda assistance had to be summoned because of the situation that developed as they were taking Andrew O'Leary to the garda station.

O' sweet west wind singing, a seagull low winging, a seaguil low winging, Is our hooker that skims light and free, So raise a high chorus, the way lies before us, With a boat load of spoil from the sea.

The wind from the south-lands is soft and beguiling And it quickens the seeds that we set.

But the wind from the west-lands is soothing and smiling,

And it brings the bright fish to the net. Then, ho, for the west wind, and oh, 'tis the best wind
