MINISTER UNDER PRESSURE

Under severe pressure since last week's EEC farm price package was announced, Minister for Agriculture Austin Deasy has rejected the criticisms of his actions voiced by the two major farming organisations in the country and also a call for his resignation by Fianna Fail.

The IFA President Joe Rea has described the package accepted by the Minister as intolerable while Sean Kelly, President ICMSA has said that Mr. Deasy's acceptance of the negotiations "is beyond understanding."

When the Dail met on Tuesday, the Minister reported on the negotiations and their eventual outcome. He explained that if the Agriculture Ministers had not accepted the farm package submitted to them by the EEC Commission, Ireland would stand to suffer heavy financial loss. A major issue in the negotiations was the problem of farm surpluses which was tending to cripple the financial structure of the Community. During the Dail discussion Mr. Deasy said he would apologise to nobody for his decision. "You go and do your best and then people come and knife you in the back," he added.

It would seem that Minister Deasy was on a no-win situation where last week's negotiations were concerned. Under pressure at home by the farmer organisations for better prices, he faced powerful opponents in Luxembourg who were intent on reducing milk and cereal production and also the beef intervention system. The fact that the final session of the negotiations lasted over a period of 15 hours and continued throughout the entire night shows how tough the bargaining must have been.

Perhaps in the light of the outcome of the negotiations the need for the setting up of a national agricultural development plan to which every sector of the agricultural industry could contribute should now be considered seriously. Our entire economy is heavily dependent on agriculture and the situation is one which certainly should not be used as a political football.

We find much common-sense in the comment of Mr. D. Murphy, General Secretary ICMSA made at the AGM of the Mayo Executive on Monday night when he said that even at this late stage some good could be salvaged from the bad outcome of this year's farm price negotiations if we put ourselves in a position of planning better for the negotiations of next year and if in the meantime we manage to produce the first draft of how the agricultural industry should proceed for the remainder of this century.

"We just cannot make progress as individuals on an unchartered course," he concluded.

NOT FOR DUNGARVAN
Last week we learned from a most authoritative source that it is now most probable (if not fully decided by this) that the new development by the Dungarvan firm of Casey Electronics for the manufacture of colour TV sets is to be located in an IDA factory at the industrial estate in Waterford city.

The information came in response to the criticisms we had voiced the previous week that the development, being made by a Dungarvan based Company, should be kept in Dungarvan and that the benefit of the employment to be generated should remain here.

We have been informed that despite a most intense search, no suitable premises to house the new industry could be found in Dungarvan and so the offer of the IDA to provide a factory in the Waterford city industrial estate was to be accepted—at least on a temporary agreement for a 2-year period. The fact that the IDA has approved grant assistance in the region of £250,000 for the new venture has, we have been assured, nothing to do either with the fact that it is now going to Waterford.

So it appears that what must be, must be and what is Dungarvan's loss will be Waterford city's gain.

However this latest development in the matter must at least surely beg the question as to why the IDA did not have an advance factory suitable for the venture available in Dungarvan. We know that there have been budget cuts for all State and semi-State bodies but it is now little consolation for Dungarvan to lose a promising industry, simply because a suitable factory premises was not available.

TO STUDY IN FLORENCE
We learn with pleasure that a young Dungarvan woman has won a scholarship which will enable her to study for a year on post graduate work at the European University (EUI) in Florence, Italy.

She is Michele O'Kelly, daughter of Michael and Breda O'Kelly, Emmet Street. A past pupil of the local Mercy Convent, Michele opted for a career in Law and continued her studies at University College, Cork, where she obtained her BCL degree. She is presently in King's Inns, Dublin studying to be a barrister.

While at the European University in Florence, Michele will pursue a course leading to a Master's Degree in Law (LLM) and towards this end she will be engaged in the preparation of a thesis on Political Offences.

We wish this young lady further success in her studies in Italy and congratulate her and indeed her parents on the academic results she has so far achieved.

A POSTAL DELAY
We had to go to press last week without being able to publish our usual RTE television programme as the material failed to turn up. Normally this arrives by post from Dublin on either Monday afternoon or Tuesday and when this did not happen last week we were at a loss to know what in fact was responsible for the delay.

Having checked with the RTE Press and Information Office we were assured that the package had been dispatched in the usual way. They even expressed surprise that it had failed to turn up at our end by Tuesday.

It took until Wednesday for us to learn what had, in fact, happened and this came to light with the postal delivery shortly after 10 a.m. on Wednesday when the missing package turned up.

On checking we found it had been date franked in Dublin on Friday, April 18. It was delivered to us on Wednesday, April 23. It took all of five days to travel from Dublin to Dungarvan. And then we hear talk

A CONCESSION

Cllr. Austin Hallahan again stressed the need to allow business people in the town free car parking facilities and further he thought that a 2-hour parking period should be allowed on the Square. He said that he was aware that when tourists arrived at the Square and saw the 1-hour parking sign they just left as one hour was not sufficient time to enable them to get a meal or walk around the town. He said that as a concession to tourists the 2-hour parking time should be allowed on the Square between May 1 and September 30.

Mr. Tom Mulcahy, B.E. Town Engineer said that by increasing the parking time from 1 to 2 hours at the Square it would effectively mean reducing the number of parking spaces in the town centre by half and this could again result in traffic chaos.

He conceded that if this was confined solely to the Square it would not cause so great a problem but they would then be in conflict with the charge for the new car park at Davitt's Quay.

Following further brief discussion the Council agreed to a suggestion by Cllr. B. Kyne that consideration of the schedules be deferred for a month to enable the members to consider them fully.

All members joined in thanking the Town Engineer for his excellent report and accompanying maps showing the various parking and non-parking areas.

Councillor Annoyed As S.E.R.T.O. Not Represented

At the April monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council, Cllr. D. Goode said that he was present at the recent Holidays and Camping Exhibition held in the County Council Centre and while in the past he had always supported the contribution made by the Council to the Regional Tourist Board, he was very annoyed to see that they had no stall at the exhibition. He asked how much the Council contributed annually to the Tourist Board.

Mr. B. White, Town Clerk said that the amount varied and was based on the amount needed to have a director appointed to the Board. Last year and this year the amount was £1,500.

Cllr. Goode — That's a fair good contribution and they should at least have shown us the respect of having a stall at the exhibition. For the money we are giving them we are not getting much in return.

Cllr. R. Walsh, Chairman, who represents the Council as a director on the Tourist Board said that Cllr. Pat Coffey (the County Council representative) and himself raised "holy war" at the last meeting of SERTO about the matter and they were assured that a letter of explanation would be sent to the County Management about the matter.

CANOEING DRAMA IN DUNGARVAN

Two teenage members of Dungarvan Rowing Club were the centre of a dramatic incident which fortunately ended without tragic results last Sunday evening.

They were Conor Mansfield, Kilmash, Dungarvan and Michael Harte, Congress Villas, Dungarvan. While canoeing in the Colligan estuary in the vicinity of Strandside North, Abbeyside, between 5 and 6 p.m. their canoe capsized throwing them into the water. The tide was filling at the time and there was a strong current in the channel flowing towards Ballyneety Bridge.

Young Mansfield was wearing a life-jacket and managed to get ashore but his companion soon found himself in difficulties as he drifted upstream with the rising tide, holding on to the upturned canoe. His cries for help were heard by a number of residents at Strandside North and a number of them, including Mr. Paddy O'Brien, and Mr. John O'Brien his brother of E. O'Brien & Sons Ltd., and Mr. John Foley, Strandside North, shouted encouragement to young Harte to hold on until a boat could be got to rescue him.

An added hazard was the heavy bank of soft mud in the vicinity and this proved extremely dangerous as the O'Brien brothers and John Foley attempted to get as near to the struggling youth as possible.

In the meantime a crowd had gathered on the roadway to watch the rescue effort and an ambulance and Fire Brigade tender also arrived on the scene. Also there to co-ordinate the efforts was Garda John Sietor.

In the end the rescuers managed to get the youth back through the mud in an extremely distressed and exhausted condition and he was taken away in the ambulance. He was later reported to have fully recovered from his very harrowing ordeal.

Great credit is due to both John and Paddy O'Brien and to John Foley and indeed to all others who helped in effecting the safe rescue of the youth under such extremely difficult conditions.

GREYHOUND RACING

GUINNESS TROPHY FOR DUNGARVAN OWNER

Mr. Ned Power, Mount Odell, Dungarvan, owner of that outstanding greyhound "Odell Supreme" had an excitingly proud experience at Cork Greyhound Track last Saturday night, when he was presented with the Guinness Trophy which "Odell Supreme" won in the final from a class field by 2 lengths. In addition to the trophy Ned also received the winner's cheque of £1,800.

"Odell Supreme" the 5/4 favourite to win the final, looked in danger of being sandwiched early on but his great early pace carried him to the front on the run to the bend and when "Glin Ron" (5/1) ran wide here taking out second favourite "Easy Prince" (6/4) and "Summerhill Jet" (4/1) "Odell Supreme" was home and dry.

In winning, "Odell Supreme" became one of only a few greyhounds to go through the Guinness Trophy unbeaten and in doing so became a distinct possibility for the English Derby.

Following the presentation of the trophy to the proud owner by Barry Buttiner, Chairman Cork Licensed Vintners Association, the great victory was duly celebrated. Also at the presentation ceremony were Mrs. P. Enkoff, Power, Michael Flavin, President IOC, Paddy O'Neill, Chairman Bord na gCon, Johnny Byrne, Mary and Liam Barry.

CYCLING

STEPHEN SPRATT RETURNS TO PARIS

Stephen Spratt of Dungarvan and Cidona Carrick Wheelers returned to the Continent last Thursday to resume his training, interrupted a month ago when he returned home from France with a chest infection.

A win in the Des Hanlon Memorial race in Carlow the previous Sunday when he beat a class field proved a real tonic and a good morale boost for him. On Saturday he celebrated his 20th birthday in Rome when he lined up for the Liberanzona and this week he will be back to serious racing when he spear-heads the Irish challenge for the 6-day Tour De Region.

STEPHEN SPRATT

After that he will return to Paris to rejoin the ACBB Club with whom he has been training since the beginning of the year. A persistent chest infection during the long period of harsh weather in February curtailed his programme to four races in all. His experience of the Paris scene to date may be summed up in a comment he made shortly before his departure last week. "ACBB may have a super reputation but they are not the team to be with if things are not going well for you," he said on Thursday after an early morning training session around Dungarvan. "In fact," he added, "I would not recommend ACBB to anyone after what I have seen."

Stephen will lead a six-man Irish team in two major races in Italy this week when Irish amateurs will be breaking fresh ground. It will be Ireland's first appearance in an international stage race in Italy when they will be competing as one of the 34 international teams taking part in the 6-day Tour De Region.

POSITIVE AIDS TO CUT SURPLUS PRODUCTION PROPOSED

BY MICHAEL DILLON Over-production of food is the biggest problem facing the European Community and its farmers today. Over the past few years, various solutions have been proposed, particularly price reductions and quotas, but quotas are difficult to administer and price reductions are slow to reduce output and may cause increases on the bigger and more efficient farms, while bringing serious hardship to small farms in poor areas. The European Commission is, however, proposing to use structural policy in a positive manner to take land out of production of surplus commodities, and the methods proposed are explained in a memorandum from the Commission to the Council. Up to now the structures policy was designed to increase production per farm and per unit of labour, but now the memorandum states, "It must help create the conditions which will enable farmers to adapt more easily to the new situation arising from the policy on prices and markets, and secondly, enable a very large number of farmers who are marginal in terms of production, but whose function at least in certain cases is essential for preserving the social balance, for land use planning and for the preservation of the environment, to cope with the effects which a restrictive policy on prices and markets may have." Regulations which were introduced in 1984 and 1985, amending and redrafting structures

GARRYOWEN CUP WIN FOR DUNGARVAN

DUNGARVAN 21; CLANWILLIAM 10 History was made last Sunday in Thurles when Dungarvan beat Clanwilliam convincingly 21-10 to take the Garryowen Cup to Ballyvourney for the first time. This is the third year running that Dungarvan have taken a major trophy, having won the Mansergh Cup for the past two seasons. Full credit must go to the players whose commitment and skill on the day brought them just reward. Special mention must go to Coach, Niall O'Herlihy, whose dedication and leadership throughout the season contributed in no small measure to Sunday's historic victory. Dungarvan who led by 9-4 at half-time were well in control in the game with every player

TALLOW - CREDIT UNION OF THE YEAR

Once again Tallow Area Credit Union has grabbed the headlines by being chosen Credit Union of the Year at the Annual Convention of the Irish League of Credit Unions, which was attended by 1,500 delegates from the 32 counties in Lismore, land, Galway last weekend. Tallow who were joint winners with Dundalk won this award for their performance through 1985 based on a 40% growth in savings, service to members, including an extension of opening hours and the formation of a new branch in Conna, community involvement and general all round excellence.

Yoplait Scratch Cup in Eleventh Year

Mr. John Lyons, President and Miss Margaret Condon, Treasurer were present at the Convention to receive the cup from Mr. Frank Canny, President of the Irish League of Credit Unions. Also present were Miss Kathleen Barry, Director and Mrs. Sheila Ryan, Manager.

INTERESTING CONNECTION

The Cup which was received by John Lyons has a very interesting Tallow connection. It was donated by the Canadian League of Credit Unions over twenty years ago and on that occasion it was Mr. Terry Hancock, formerly of Chapel Street, Tallow who presented the Cup to Miss Nora Herlihy, the founder of the Credit Union movement in Ireland.

CAPPOQUIN AND DISTRICT NOTES

FEAST OF MUSIC AT VILLIERSTOWN Those fortunate enough to be in Villierstown Church last Friday evening for the joint concert by the Lismore Choir and the Greystones Golf Club Choral Society enjoyed an occasion of sheer musical splendour. The Concert, held to invite donations for the development of the Church for the use of all Christian Denominations, attracted reasonable support, but a classic performance, such as this, deserved a much wider audience.

Mr. James Villiers-Stuart, for the Trustees, welcomed the audience and thanked the choirs for their participation. The programme was a wide contrast in style, mood and period, and included the Lismore Choir again in a selection from previous productions of ecclesiastical music and oratorio. Conducted on this occasion by Peter McCrystal and with Alleen Callaghan at the piano they did not only realise that a more direct approach will pay better dividends.

Then a departure from the solemn to a livelier mood in the contributions from The Greystones Golf Club Choral Society, their programme consisted of an introduction by Joe O'Rourke with Denis Mellerick, a well-known name in Irish music circles at the piano. The audience revelled in the soft cadences of unaccompanied renderings of well-loved old favourites such as "All Through the Night," "All in an April Evening," "An Briskey Love Lilt" and a very apt opening number "Bless This House." The choir's concluding numbers were less familiar but the audience will certainly want to hear again numbers like the memorable "Goin' Down" and "There is a Balm in Gilead." A swift change of pace was heard in the lively spirituals "Pick a Bale of Cotton" and the concluding "You'd Better Run."

The final was the joint choirs was a fitting climax to an evening not readily to be forgotten. "Be Still My Soul" (Sibelius) and a marvelous rendering of that great choral work "Speed Your Journey" from Verdi's "Nabucco." Mr. John Wales for Lismore and Mr. Guy Edwards for the visitors expressed the satisfaction that the occasion had given their members and Mr. Villiers-Stuart expressed his own and the audience's appreciation of the Cappoquin Flower Club for the decoration of the Church.

TOURIN G.A.A. On Sunday we played our first championship football match of the season and Eire Og, our opposition, gave us a tough closely contested game and unfortunately showed up our lack of fitness. We started well and looked the better team for the first half. A goal from Michael Barry (Sibs) and a marvelous goal from Tommy Sullivan gave us a deserved three point lead at the interval. In the second half we began to tire and Eire Og dominated, allowing us only one further score, a Tommy Sullivan point from a free. Eire Og were winners by three points — 0-10 to 1-4.

Team — W. Leahy, M. O'Keefe, V. Moloney, P. Scannell, G. Bennett, P. O'Keefe, T. Feerick, J. D. Leahy, P. Leahy, M. Looby, M. Barry, J. Barry, T. Sullivan, J. Bennett, J. Collender, Subs — V. O'Keefe, for Moloney; E. O'Sullivan for J. Bennett.

Hopefully from now on we will do some serious training and do ourselves justice on the field. We are in action again on Saturday evening next against Old Parish.

APOSTOLIC WORK SOCIETY

The Society elected the following officers at its annual general meeting — President, Margaret Troy; Secretary, Mary O'Donnell; Treasurer, Marjorie Whelan; Spiritual Director, Sr. Agnes. The Society reviewed a very successful year and bid plans for another busy year ahead. Down through the years the Apostolic Work Society has done a great deal of work helping many missionaries on Mission Fields throughout the world. They have given unselfishly of their time and energy but like all other organisations they would like to see new members joining and would heartily welcome all such. A reminder to all our honorary members that subscriptions are now due.

ROSARY PROCESSION

A Rosary Procession for Peace, carrying the Pilgrim Statue of Our Lady of Fatima, will take place this weekend starting from Mizzen Head, West Cork on Friday and walking in procession through all towns en route and ending at the Grotto in Mount Melleray on Sunday afternoon, passing through Cappoquin at 2 p.m. People may assemble at the Boathouse at 1.45 p.m. Fresh flowers for statue appreciated.

Queally, P.P., and the interment took place following Requiem Mass on the Saturday morning to St. Michael's Cemetery, again in the presence of a large cortege. Sincere sympathy is extended to her loving sons, daughters, brother, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, grandchildren, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

WEDDING: BROCK-PRENDERGAST On Saturday last the marriage of Caroline Brock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brock, Clashmore, took place at Richard Prendergast, Coobogan, Clashmore, at Clashmore Church. The weather remained dry for the occasion and the wedding was conducted by Rev. Fr. Billy Meehan, C.C. Bridesmaid was Geraldine Brock and Bestman was Billy Prendergast and the Flowergirl was Niamh O'Mahoney.

DEATH OF JOHNNY VEALE The death took place peacefully at his home on Wednesday of last week of Johnny Veale, Moor, Kinsalebeg, John Veale was a member of the West Waterford Brigade of the Old IRA. He was a quiet and reserved man with a great love for Ireland and its culture. He was lovingly cared for by his grandnephew Liam Allen and his wife Kay. He will be greatly missed by his sister Mary and all his family and friends with whom we express our deepest sympathy.

COMMUNITY GAMES With the area finals of Community Games just around the corner on June 22 and the county finals on July 6, plans are now well underway for training for these events by the committee which was recently elected at their AGM in Clashmore. Officers elected were as follows: Chairman, James Fitzgerald; Vice-Chairman, Sean Casey, N.T.; Treasurer, Secretary, Mary Claude Fitzgerald. All are looking forward to and hoping this event will be a success.

LADIES FOOTBALL Despite the continued spell of cold weather the members of our ladies football team were out training and getting fit for the forthcoming season, during the week. Their AGM was also held recently and the following officers were elected: Chairman, Jim Fitzgerald; Vice-Chairman, Eamonn Lombard and John Hurton; Secretary, Margaret Sweeney; Treasurer, Caroline Brock; PRO, Anne Foley.

LADIES FOOTBALL NOTES All-Ireland Club Final Ballymacarby (Waterford) v. The Heath (Lois) On Sunday, Ballymacarby travel to Cashel to play The Heath in the All-Ireland Club final. This game has a kick-off time of 3.30 p.m. The Ballymacarby girls got through their semi-final in convincing style, but will find the Leinster club a much different proposition. The Heath will be playing with a number of all-stars in their line-up and go into the game as firm favourites. However this will not dampen the spirits of the Munster Club champions who can boast of quite a few stars themselves, among them Marie Crotty who has had an outstanding career to-date and has amassed a tally of scores that would make many a player envious. An Fitzpatrick who has held some of the best half forwards in the country scoreless; Bernie Ryan who commands and dictates the play around centre-field, and Dolores Hallinan whose all-round ability has often swung the tide.

At these the consistency of Margaret Phelan, Mona Fitzpatrick, Marie Ryan, Betty Ryan, to name but a few and you have a very strong defensive combination. Goalkeeper Bridget McGrath does a terrific job as an organiser and administrator at all levels of the game and is the best line of defence and what she lacks in height she makes up for with her courage and determination. We hope that a large following will come and support the girls in their bid to become the first team from the county to win this title, and wish them well in their efforts. A bus will leave from Ballymacarby at 10 o'clock.

IN HOSPITAL Best wishes for a speedy recovery are extended to Dick Lawlor, Clashmore, who is presently in the South Infirmary Hospital, Cork.

BROWNIES An enrolment ceremony for 11 young girls who joined our Brownies in January last took place at our meeting on April 12 in Clashmore Hall. Following this enrolment the young girls are now official Brownies.

There are 23 Brownies now under the charge of their leaders and O.C. Mary Fitzgerald and their new young leader is Patricia Coughlan.

Every good wish from all members of the club were extended to our treasurer and player Caroline Brock on her recent marriage.

On Saturday last the marriage of Caroline Brock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brock, Clashmore, took place at Richard Prendergast, Coobogan, Clashmore, at Clashmore Church. The weather remained dry for the occasion and the wedding was conducted by Rev. Fr. Billy Meehan, C.C. Bridesmaid was Geraldine Brock and Bestman was Billy Prendergast and the Flowergirl was Niamh O'Mahoney.

The reception followed at Whitechurch House Hotel, Caroline is a active member of many clubs in the area and we wish this popular young couple every happiness together.

PD CONSTITUENCY MEETING

The Progressive Democrats held an important Constituency meeting in Dungarvan on Thursday, April 10. The main topic of discussion was the draft constitution which the Waterford representatives, Sean Ryan and Noel O'Brien took to a national meeting of the Party in Dublin two days later. Waterford's proposals with regard to the make-up of the National Executive were accepted. Furthermore, the Waterford proposals for making the Party as democratic as possible in its decision making processes have been largely accepted at National level.

This pronounced input by Waterford is a tribute to the calibre of the delegation held in Dungarvan. All the party members in the Constituency will have a further opportunity to review the progress with regard to the drafting of the Constitution at the next Constituency meeting which will be held on Thursday, May 8 in the Tower Hotel, Waterford.

This meeting will in fact be the last meeting before the first conference of the Progressive Democrats which will be held in the National Stadium, Dublin on May 24 and 25. Pat Cox, the new National Organiser for the Progressive Democrats and former "Today Tonight" man will address the meeting on May 8.

The Honorary Secretary of the Dungarvan Branch of the Progressive Democrats is Noel Bluet. His name was omitted in error from an earlier statement from the Party. — P.R.O.

£50 Fine Follows Free Bus Ride

A young woman from the Ring Gaeltach who assisted in the running of cheap week-end buses from Dublin to provincial centres found herself charged before District Justice W. J. O'Connell at Dungarvan Court last week with carrying on an unlicensed passenger road service on January 13, 1984.

She was Yvonne Murray, Knockenpower, Ring, Dungarvan who was represented by Mr. Niall King, Solr. (J. F. Williams & Co.)

The prosecution was conducted by Garda Frank Jennings, Garda Carriage Dept., Dublin.

Bangarda Frances Walsh, Pearse Street, Garda Station, Dublin, stated in evidence that, on January 13, 1984 she was informed that she was to travel as a passenger to Borris-In-O'Flaherty on a Barton bus for which she had been previously booked in. The bus was to leave Dublin at 6 p.m. and when she entered the bus a girl with a list of names took £8 from her. The bus left and picked up passengers en route along the Naas road and in each case money was collected from them by the same girl.

When the bus reached Borris, witness said she was getting off and Garda Jennings who was waiting there then boarded the bus. Witness who said that she was not a member of any travel club added that she pointed out to him the girl who had collected the money.

Witness said that he then approached the girl and asked for her name and address which she gave as Yvonne Murray, Knockenpower, Ring, Dungarvan. He cautioned her and she then admitted that she had collected the fares on behalf of a Robert Gogan who hired the buses. In return for collecting the money she said she got a free seat on the bus from Dublin to Dungarvan.

No evidence was submitted by the defence and District Justice O'Connell said that he would convict, imposing the maximum fine of £50 he remarked that the "free seat" which the defendant had got "was not quite so cheap in the end".

Recognisances were fixed in the event of an appeal.

Removal Of Dungarvan Band Stand Not On

A kite flying suggestion made at the April monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council proposing that the band stand be removed from the Park and erected at the Causeway Park was peremptorily shot down by the members.

When the matter came up on the agenda, Cllr. Mary Dixon was first in with her objection. She said that the bandstand in the park was part of the town for years and now someone wanted to shift it to Abbeyside. She asked why such a proposal should come before the Council.

Cllr. D. Goode asked who had made the suggestion. The Town Clerk, Mr. B. White said that the proposal was suggested to them and it was put on the agenda merely to get the feelings of the members about it.

G.A.A. COACHING NEWS: SPRING 1986

The GAA Coaching Council has just published the first issue of a substantial quarterly magazine — COACHING NEWS. It is an attempt by the GAA to meet the increasing demand for general coaching knowledge, specialist articles on topics such as match analysis, fitness and the prevention and treatment of injuries, coaching publications and general coaching news.

Contributors to this issue include Dr. Mick Loftus, GAA President, who says: "The value of positive coaching cannot be overemphasised. I wish that I could convince everyone of the real need for coaching. As long as young people are growing up and wishing to play there will always be that need and our Association must supply it. Coaching must be made a positive, organised and practical policy.

Dr. Loftus also stressed the obligation on coaches to insist on good conduct, sportsmanship and discipline from their players.

Former Down star, Joe Lennon, organiser of the first coaching course in 1964 writes on The Interaction of Coaching and Psychology. Amy Johnson, a leading physiotherapist, gives advice on Maintaining Fitness While Injured and Mr. Peter O'Connor, casualty consultant at the Mater Hospital, Dublin, deals with The Treatment of Knee Injuries.

Dr. Michael O'Grady, successful Limerick team coach of recent years, sets out Guidelines On Match Analysis and Tony Jordan, a prominent referee outlines The Role of the Referee.

Physical Fitness is dealt with by Mickey Whelan, former Dublin All-Ireland medal winner and current Louth team coach. Fr. Willie Walsh, St. Flannan's College, Ennis, discusses The Preparation of Secondary School Hurling Teams.

A new football booklet for players, to be published this year, is described by co-author Jim McKeever. Derry and Eugene McGee, coach and journalist, gives his views on the need for coaching which can prove "that there is plenty of scope for the scientific approach to football" based on a good grounding "in the fundamental skills of the game".

"Coaching News" is available at £1.00 per copy (including postage) from Lorcan O'Rualac, Coaching Council, Paice an Chroaigh, BAC 3.

THIS WEEK ACOT CO. WATERFORD SAYS

BLOAT — This is likely to be a serious problem in coming weeks.

PREVENTION — 1—Pluronic acid may be added to (a) drinking water, or (b) incorporated in ration.

2—Feed some hay or straw on grass.

3—Avoid moving stock (a) from very bare pasture to lush grass, (b) to fresh paddocks at night.

4—Observe stock often.

CALVES — Floot in young calves is a problem on some farms. Prevent it by (a) feeding adequate amounts of good quality hay, silage or straw, (b) provide fresh water, (c) feed meals on a regular basis.

Once cows are out full-time, weaned calves can be moved into cubicle houses, covered silage pits, etc. until there is sufficient grass available for them.

GRASS TETANY — This is also likely to be a serious problem in coming weeks. Prevent it by feeding (a) rations containing calcium, (b) cal mag nuts, (c) cal magnesium + molasses, (d) magnesium added to drinking water, (e) magnesium bullets.

Dispensers (£150-£175) are available which can add both pluronic acid and magnesium to drinking water at same time.

NITROGEN — Apply 40-50 units N. per acre after each grazing. Wait for up to 2 weeks to graze paddocks where Nitrogen was spread to lessen grass tetany problems, etc.

WINTER CEREALS — Many crops are now at 1st node stage. Hormone type herbicides should not be used after this growth stage is reached.

Winter Barley — Rynchosporium is widespread. Apply broad-spectrum fungicide e.g. Sportak, Tilt/Radar, etc. + M.B.C. for effective control.

Spring Cereals — Nitrogen should be spread at the early tillering stage. Many early sown crops are now at this stage of growth. Watch for leatherjacket and other pest damage.

Growth Regulator — Avoid using Cycocel in frosty weather.

Q.—Do you have to be working to get Maternity Allowance? A.—There are two maternity allowance schemes. One is a special scheme for employed women who have a certain level of social insurance contributions and who are entitled to maternity leave. Under this scheme you get a weekly allowance of 70% of your average weekly earnings in the previous tax year, subject to a minimum of £71.05 per wk. This is payable for 14 weeks.

The general maternity allowance scheme is for women who have been employed in the past but are not in employment at the time they apply. Women who have become unemployed could qualify. Again you need to have a minimum social insurance contribution record. If you qualify you get an allowance for 12 weeks. Pay-Related Benefit is payable for the last 9 weeks if you are eligible for social insurance benefits. The Department of Social Welfare, 100, St. James's Street, Dublin 1. Telephone 01 726333.

LOCAL WORKERS AND PRODUCERS AT RISK

The future of hundreds of local meat factory employees along with the viability of the entire winter beef fattening industry are at risk, according to the Irish Farmers' Association.

This dilemma facing the industry was the subject of an emergency meeting between the IFA and the Minister for Agriculture recently.

These specialised beef producers are an integral part of the £1 billion Irish beef export business and according to the IFA, underpin the whole marketing and price structure throughout the year.

"Only 35% of Irish beef is produced in the first six months of the year and if these winter fatteners go out of business, seasonality in the meat industry will be the subject of a doubled loss of jobs," said IFA President, Joe Rea.

"Uneconomic prices for finished cattle, high interest rates have led to a loss per animal of £40 to £60 each."

The IFA delegation pointed out that livestock farmers have invested £80 million in slatted units and housing for winter beef over the past 13 years. Surely, said Mr. Rea, the Minister cannot stand by and preside over the close-down of this highly productive capital intensive sector.

Chief among the proposals outlined to the Minister was that the Government negotiate immediately in Brussels to have the 1 1/2% tax on cattle and beef exports, resting on exporters, re-evaluated or removed immediately by devaluing the Irish Green Pound.

DUNGARVAN SCOUT TROOP NOTES

11th/32nd WATERFORD SCOUT TROOP WOLFHOUD/EAGLE PATROLS JOINT HIKE TO VILLIERSTOWN

Everybody was up early and we met in the Den at 9.30 before departing. By the time we reached Twomilebridge, D.L. wanted to eat his lunch. Since we had chosen a roundabout route, from here on was uphill. We eventually reached the top, and everybody was relieved to be able to free-wheel down for a few more miles. We reached Geesh Pao, and B.D. assured us that we had to take a left turn, but after arriving in Clashmore four miles later, we had to do an about turn, back to the pub, and down the other road. We had a minor breakdown in Aghish but otherwise, we reached Villierstown unscathed, and headed straight for Dromana Wood, where we had our lunch. We had the whole wood in which to play games. Surprisingly we only had two injuries, which were soon treated by our expert first aiders. We then played another 'prisoners' type game, before we departed for Dungarvan. The 36 mile hike was enjoyed by everybody.

TROOP MEETING (TUESDAY)

The meeting began as usual with the prayer and collection of dues. As it was such a warm night, we decided to hold the meeting outdoors, so everybody made their way up to the Brothers' Field.

Here, the Cobras and Eagles played soccer on one pitch, while 'Sir' refereed a game of rounders between the Hawks and Wolfhounds on another.

The Eagles won their game of soccer, and the Hawks were victorious in their game of rounders, so we decided to

WEDNESDAY NIGHT GUB MEETING

The meeting began at 8.30 and after dues were collected everybody made their way to the car park where we played a few games of soccer.

After this, we all went back into the Den for 'auditions' for our 'mini-flops' sketch, which we performed at the regional camp in Mellerey last week-end. Our line-up included Diana Ross (S. Fraher), Bruce Springsteen (K. Curran), Shirley Temple (A. Hansberry and M. Radley), Bono (C. Curran) and others such as Status Quo and Band Aid.

The meeting ended up with the presentation of medals for both the superstars and fancy dress competition. Superstars medals were awarded to M. Radley, A. Hansberry and C. Fitzgerald, while the fancy dress medals were given to M. Radley (again), S. Hickey and J. McCarthy. —(P.R.O.)

WINNER AT PUNCESTOWN RACING FESTIVAL

On the second day of the 4-day Festival meeting at Puncestown last week "Another Brownie" now owned by Mr. Sean Lucey, Ballymackera, Co. Cork, ridden by Joe McGrath and trained by popular Dungarvan vet, Michael J. McGrath at his stables at Cappagh won the Motor Import Handicap Steeplechase with ten lengths to spare from the 9/4 favourite "Bobsline".

"Another Brownie" (6/1) set off in front and at one stage had a good 20 lengths advantage over his five rivals. Joe Byrne then gave the 7-year old a bit of a breather at the fifth from home and the opposition closed to four lengths with three to go.

But "Another Brownie" began to pull away again in the run to the second last and eventually went on to win by ten lengths from "Bobsline" with "Fartres" a further six lengths back in third place.

"Another Brownie" was described by trainer McGrath as a relaxed horse that goes on any ground and travels well and may be aimed now for the Galway Plate.

A 20/1 WINNER

On the final day of the festival meeting on Thursday, "Ballyhane" (20/1) in the colours of Mr. Michael O'Connor, Cappoquin and ridden by J. A. Flynn showed that front running in the improved going paid off.

He finished six lengths ahead of the 11/10 favourite "Decent Prospect" in the final CBA champion flat race.

"Ballyhane" is trained by John Kiely in Dungarvan.

BALLYSAGGART NOTES

Kilgobinet 2-7: Ballysaggart 0-6 Our junior footballers play Mel-loray in the second game of the championship. Melleray are always difficult to beat and we will need to show a marked improvement on last Sunday's performance if we are to collect our first points. The game starts at 2 p.m. Players should be in the half that we came into the game.

At half time we trailed 1-6 to 0-5. A penalty goal early in the second half seemed to put Kilgobinet on the road to an easy victory. Ballysaggart however took the game to Kilgobinet and in fact our opponents only managed one single point for the remainder of the half. We could not however turn possession into scores and Kilgobinet ran out winners by 2-7 to 0-6.

24 Hour Banking Service In Dungarvan

BY FRANK O'BEIRNE

MANAGER, BANK OF IRELAND, DUNGARVAN

Bank of Ireland will introduce a twenty-four hour Banking service to Dungarvan on Monday next, 5th of May. This comes through the installation of Personal Automated Self Service (PASS) machine. The decision to locate a Pass machine in Dungarvan emphasises the Bank's confidence in the town and surrounding area. It will also improve the service to the town's ever increasing tourist industry.

PASS IS SUPERIOR

The machine allows pass card holders to withdraw up to £100 cash in any day. It can also be used to order a cheque book, make a lodgment, to check the balance available on your account or to order a statement. Furthermore a new service available only on Bank of Ireland Pass machines allows card holders to pay certain accounts, such as Access and E.S.B., cheaply and efficiently.

League Style Senior Hurling Championship Commences

NEXT WEEK-END
The week-end marks the beginning of the league-style senior hurling championship and four of the five games listed are at Western venues. The lone Eastern game is at Walsh Park where Cnoc Sion meet the 1984 intermediate champions, Ballygunner. Cnoc Sion are the more experienced team and will have many of their 1985 under-21 title winning side in action here too, so a win for Ballygunner, to say the least, would be a surprise.

SATURDAY
With the new intermediate hurling champions Colligan and Roanmore rests the honour of opening this newly constituted hurling championship and Fraher Field will be worth a visit on Saturday evening to see this interesting game.

Colligan will be without at least one of the side which helped them to their historic win last year, Michael Flynn, and very likely his brother Paudie, who is not fully fit following his unfortunate accident in the divisional final last year. Their younger opponents who have had senior championship ambitions for the past couple of years are the favourites and it will be a big surprise if they lose.

SUNDAY: AT DUNGARVAN

Even though Portlaw were not impressive against Ballyduff in the senior league on Sunday evening, they may carry too many big guns including John Galvin, David Foran, Eddie Rockett, Paul Kelly and several of the under 21 championship winning side of 1985, for Shamrocks who lost to Colligan recently in the senior league.

In the second game county champions, Tallow, meet Clonea who failed narrowly to get to the county final after a thrilling draw with Ballyduff in the semi-final last year. Tallow's Munster club championship form could win them their third county title this year. If they can repeat such form, I don't believe that they will rise to such heights for a long while yet.

Clonea realise that the early rounds are Tallow's most vulnerable matches and this is the time to catch them. Clonea are a strong side powered by a good number of their successful under 21 teams of three and four years ago. I believe that they will run Tallow very close but they may not beat the champions.

DUNHILL v. CAPPOQUIN
Dunhill's recent win over Cnoc Sion in the senior league spelt notice to everyone that they could be a force in the championship this year. Cappoquin on the other hand are making a special effort to go places this season. They are not fully tuned up yet and may not be as well prepared as the Eastern team. For this reason I take Dunhill to win in the third game at Fraher Field.

BALLYDUFF v. LISMORE

Two outings in the past two weeks will have worked Ballyduff into some kind of good shape for this local derby meeting with neighbours Lismore in the feature game at Cappoquin on Sunday afternoon.

Less than two weeks ago, Ballyduff, with a full strength team beat Cappoquin by a couple of points in the 1985 edition of the Keaneland Cup and on last Sunday evening at Dungarvan they had a senior league victory over Portlaw. Lismore had just one game which they lost in the senior league so it will come as a mild surprise if they win here. Last year, Lismore almost shocked Tallow in the first round at the same venue. Ballyduff will remember this. It may take a year or two for the Lismore breakthrough at senior level. But make no mistake about it — it will come.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Although the senior championships have now taken over, I see that the Divisional Boards have managed to squeeze in quite a number of their fixtures as well.

In the West, for instance, a total of seven junior and several minor football games are listed. There is a big number of fixtures in the East, also where in the minor hurling championships get underway.

AT ABBEYSIDE

Following their good win last Sunday, Eire Og will have notions of doing well in the championship but they will certainly have their work cut out to beat Modeligo in the first round. Modeligo lost on Sunday and they will need to start picking up the points now if they are to qualify for the closing stages. They may win here.

Faha and Kilgobinet will provide the excitement for their supporters in the second game here. Kilgobinet scored a good win last Sunday while Faha had the winning of a game that they lost to Lismore at Fraher Field. On last season's form, and on the basis of a good display on Sunday last, Kilgobinet would appear to have the measure of Faha and they are given the vote to win.

AT ARDMORE

If last Sunday's form is a true guide, it won't matter to An Rinn or Clashmore which side wins their game at Ardmore, as both are poor and most unlikely to be in contention anyway.

AT STRADBALLY

Kilrossanty and Dungarvan meet here and since Kilrossanty will be having their first game of the championship, it is not easy to assess their chances. Dungarvan disappointed their supporters by their poor display on Saturday last and will try to make amends here. Whatever the form of Kilrossanty, Dungarvan will certainly need to improve if they are to have a chance of winning this one. On the basis of Saturday night's form, I must choose Kilrossanty as the possible winners.

AT LEAMYBRIEN

Stradbally, who received a walk-over from Ballinacorney last Sunday will have their first outing here when they take on Ballinacorney who have a first game win under their belts. This will be one of the better matches of the week-end and conceivably it could end in another win for Ballinacorney.

SEANA PHOHAL v. BALLINWILLIN

Making their season championship debut, Seana Phohal should have a bright start to their year by beating Ballinwillin at Cappoquin on Saturday. Seana Phohal have played a couple of good games in the junior league and would appear too strong for the Turin Footbailers who lost to Eire Og in the first round championship game last Sunday.

MELLERAY v. BALLYSGAGRT

Ballysgagrt suffered their first defeat of the season when going down to Kilgobinet in the first round, but they played well enough to suggest that they can be good enough to beat neighbours Melleray at Cappoquin on Saturday. Melleray 'enjoyed' a first round bye and this cannot be to their advantage.

SLIABH gCUIA v. GERALDINES

Slabh gCua who were involved in the first draw of the season in the adult championships will meet Geraldines in the only game fixed for Lismore over the week-end and judging by Geraldines display against Ardmore in the first round, I expect that the Touraneena side can get full points from this one.

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

The intermediate football league, set up in response to a Convention motion this year will commence in the West on Tuesday week and will continue on each Tuesday until completed. An Rinn and Briceys are in the section of the league being administered by the Eastern Board.

The fixtures are:
Tuesday, May 6 at Ardmore, Geraldines v. Ardmore; At Touraneena, Slabh gCua v. Shamrocks.
Tuesday, May 13, at Aghlish, Geraldines v. Slabh gCua; At Knockanore, Shamrocks v. Ardmore.
Tuesday, May 20 at Touraneena Slabh gCua v. Ardmore; At Knockanore, Shamrocks v. Geraldines.

In the event of a home venue not being available, the game automatically switches to the venue of the opposition. All matches at 7.30 p.m.

SOLO CUP

Leading by what seemed a safe five points margin, with only minutes remaining, Lisbally were rather lucky in the end to snatch a draw in the exciting Solo Cup final against De La Salle, Limerick at Kilworth on Friday last. Two fast goals in the dying minutes put the Waterford school side in trouble, but on the other hand they were unlucky not to have pointed with the last puck of the game, which went just inches wide. They led by a couple of points at half-time but had to face the breeze in the second.

The game is refixed for Kilworth on Friday next and Jimmy Dennigan will again be in charge.

REPORT OF FIXTURES WORK GROUP

This report which is considered to be one of the most important to come before the Boards and Councils for consideration, was recently issued and within the next couple of weeks, all our clubs will receive a copy of the relevant part of it and will later be required to attend a special meeting organised by the County Board, to discuss it in detail. The county will then make its recommendation to Central Council.

The report states that C.L.C.G. must be prepared to accept change, radical, if necessary, to present its games professionally at a high level of quality.

The following is a brief summary of recommendations:

- 1—Abandonment of the Junior and Under 21 inter-county competitions.
- 2—Raising the age limit to 19 years for minor inter-county championships.
- 3—An open-draw inter-county championship in the Spring — First round in November ending with hurling and football finals on St. Patrick's Day.
- 4—A National League run on a pure league basis during March/April/May/June. Four divisions of eight teams with two promotions and relegations. No quarter-finals. Semi-finals and final between the winners of each division for a trophy separate from the league.
- 5—An All-Ireland championship as at present in the months of June/July/August/September.
- 6—Railway Cups on a week-end in October, the winners touring with the All-Stars, instead of the All-Ireland championships.
- 7—Inter-club All-Ireland championship to be an open draw and to be played on five consecutive Sundays in October/November.
- 8—A short closed season of six weeks from December to mid-January. IF CLCG wants a much longer closed season, it can be achieved by not having the open draw championship proposed for the Spring.

The comments of the Work Group are very interesting and I will give these commencing next week.

MEETINGS

The Western Officer Board will meet on to-morrow, Thursday night to draw up a further programme of championship fixtures to be presented to an open Board meeting on the following Thursday. The decision to run the senior hurling championship on a league basis is putting additional pressure on the Divisional Boards in trying to find free venues and dates. The situation will be further compounded next year when we have the football championship on the league system as well. This hasn't been decided yet, but it will follow as sure as night follows day.

TOURNAMENT REFEREES

Providing referees for the huge championship programme is proving a real headache for the Boards' fixture committees. The problems associated with getting referees to handle tournament matches is becoming an even bigger problem, so much so that clubs running tournaments have to rely on people, many of whom have absolutely no qualifications for the job.

This problem came more into focus recently in a couple of tournaments and particularly in the Brickey seven-a-side football tournament which was played around the Easter period. A report on one of the games in this competition was so much at variance with the facts that the county Board ran into difficulties in dealing with an incident which took place in the semi-final.

At their meeting in Portlaw delegates spent an hour debating the matter which in the end was not resolved to the satisfaction of anyone and the matter is not yet finished with. The whole matter of the appointment of referees for tournaments is to be examined by the Boards and it may come to a situation where the Boards will advise clubs against participating in tournaments unless the men appointed to handle the matches are recognised referees.

RESULTS

The only surprise result of the week-end was Ballinacorney's big win against Dungarvan in the junior football championship. The surprise lay in the margin of 13 points — as only a couple of weeks ago Dungarvan had scored a good win against the same opposition in the league.

There was some confusion when the appointed referee failed to turn up and the fixture was on the point of being abandoned when Kilgobinet referee David Kiely who came along to referee a juvenile game, came to the rescue of the Board and agreed to step in. His handling of the game was top-class. His firm handling of this local derby was one of his finest performances and there was absolutely no reason for complaint.

The surprise about the play was Dungarvan's inability to score until near the end of the game, despite their numerous chances. The very accurate place kicking of John Melody (who scored seven of their eight points) and two fine goals by Thomas O'Mahony were major factors in Ballinacorney's win here.

A great display by Christy Kiely was a factor in Brickeys big win over An Rinn at Abbeyside. The winners showed very good form and if they can afford to keep this side apart from their intermediate team, they will be strongly in contention.

The second game scheduled for here did not materialise as Ballinacorney had earlier conceded a walk-over to Stradbally. An unexpected goal which came in the closing stages won this game for Lismore. Faha showed tremendous spirit but could not convert their outfield advantage into scores.

Modeligo squandered too many chances against Emmetts who looked at half-time as if they would lose this tight game. Two well taken goals by Thomas O'Grady was the deciding factor in Emmetts one goal win.

Ten well taken points were enough to give the persevering Eire Og their first championship win for a long time, when they played Ballinwillin at Cappoquin. It was a good display and the players were understandably elated, having suffered so many disappointments over the past years. Last year Eire Og had a succession of tantalising narrow defeats. The club will welcome this change of luck.

Kilgobinet put a stop to Ballysgagrt's long winning sequence, but I'm told that had the losers attack been steeper the result could have gone differently. Kilgobinet must be regarded as one of the better teams in the championship, so on the face of things it was not a bad performance by Ballysgagrt.

The first draw of the championship came at Colligan where when neighbours Nire and Slabh gCua ended all square.

Ardmore had a deserved seven points win over Geraldines in what was an enjoyable game, but greatly effected by a very strong breeze. I heard that after the game some of the Ardmore squad requested that this team be not 'broken' for the intermediate side. I know of a few junior teams with similar ideas.

DUBLIN HURLERS VISIT DUNGARVAN

Twenty-five young hurlers from sixteen Dublin Colleges visited Dungarvan last weekend and stayed in the Friary College. On Friday evening Seamus O'Brien, on behalf of the Co. Board, welcomed the visitors to Dungarvan and after tea, Billy Sheehan (Tallow) took charge of a coaching session and had the young hurlers working on various skills for about an hour.

On Saturday, a feast of hurling took place. De La Salle College, Waterford won Section 'A' and St. Augustine's won Section 'B'. De La Salle then beat St. Augustine's in the winners play-off. Good Counsel beat Dungarvan C.B.S. in the runners-up play-off.

In the final game of the afternoon the Dublin Colleges had a comfortable win over a Waterford Colleges Selection.

Local referees, John Moore, Liam Simms and Tommy Keating took charge of the games and their efforts were much appreciated by all. On Sunday morning the Dublin party went on to Thurles for the National Hurling League semi-finals.

16th Centenary of the Conversion of St. Augustine

THE GARDEN OF CONVERSION

'Too late have I known Thee, O Beauty ever ancient and ever new. Too late have I loved Thee'

A garden is a very special place—a place of beauty, order and love. In many ways it reflects the silent beauty of the variety of God's infinite power and wisdom. One feels reverence and emotion in a garden. It may evoke a sense of joy and sorrow, prayer and conversion. I think of the Garden of Eden at the beginning of the human story. How full of peace it was!

'God saw all that He had made and it was very good... God's plan was to bring Adam and Eve into Eden which was in the east—the man and his wife heard the sound of Yahweh God walking in the garden in the cool of the day.'

I think of the Garden of Gethsemane with Jesus at prayer amid the trembling olives. It is truly a moment of agony and reconciliation. In the setting of a garden Jesus tries to restore humankind to its original beauty. All people were in His Heart.

'He said to His disciples, stay here while I go over to pray.' 'My soul is agonised even unto death... Wait here and keep awake with me.'

'Father, if this cup cannot pass without my drinking it, Your will be done.'

'Now, the hour is come when the Son of Man is to be glorified... into the hands of sinners.'

It was a moment of intense suffering for Jesus as His sweat became drops of Blood drenching the earth of the Garden.

I think of a Garden, full of the glory of the Risen Christ on Easter Sunday. As Mary Magdalen turned from the empty tomb, she saw Jesus and thought He was the gardener; she did not recognise Him.

'Jesus said: "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?" She said: "Sir, if You had taken Him away from me, where you have put Him and I will go and remove Him." Jesus said: "Mary." She knew Him then. "Jesus said to her: Go and find my brothers and tell them: "I am ascending to My Father and My God, to Your Father and Your God."

BRILLIANT SCHOLAR
I think of Augustine in a garden—a young man of thirty three, a brilliant scholar, acclaimed by all, yet very unhappy. At a time when the Roman Empire was collapsing, when there was much change, unrest and heresy, he searched for truth and love. Born in Thagaste on the thirteenth of November 354, in North Africa, of a pagan father, Patricius, and a Christian mother, Monica, he was not baptised.

'And I was signed with the Sign of His Cross and seasoned with His salt, as I came from the womb of my mother, who had great trust in You. When I was still a child, I fell gravely ill... this caused my Baptismal cleansing to be postponed.'

Monica was a tender, strong, loving mother who prayed for him constantly. 'She used all her endeavour, O God that I should hold You for my Father rather than him, and in this with You did she overcome her husband, in her greater virtue serving him, because in serving him she served Your command likewise.'

He received his education at Thagaste, Madaura and at the University of Carthage towards the end of the year 370. The following year, his father, who had become a Christian, died. Augustine entered the University of Carthage with all its challenges:

'I came to Carthage, where a catkiron of illicit loves leapt and balled about me. I was not yet in love, but I was in love with love... I developed a passion for stage plays... there I was a wretched sheep strayed from Your fold.'

'It was a time of many friendships, of searching for love, of seeking for the truth. He lived a life of study and of pleasure. Heresy and sin attracted him. He lived with a woman with whom he had a son, Adeodatus. At this time he was influenced very much by Cicero's Hortensius. Although elegant in his language, he found it lacking. 'One thing that cooled my ardour, it was that the name of Christ was not there, and this name by Thy mercy, Lord, this name of Thy Son, My Saviour, my heart had drawn in with my mother's milk, and kept in its depths.'

He studied philosophy, embraced the Manichaean heresy, read Plato, examined the Scriptures. He left Africa, went to Rome and Milan in the year 382, accompanied by a circle of friends. The crisis of his life was approaching. He met Archbishop Ambrose of Milan, listened to him and was touched by the sincerity and sincerity of his preaching.

'That man of God received me as a father, and showed me episcopal kindness, on my coming.'

CELEBRATIONS COMMENCE

In Dungarvan the opening of the celebrations to mark the centenary 16th will be at the 11.30 a.m. Mass in the Friary Church on Sunday next, May 4. This also marks the feast-day of St. Monica, the mother of St. Augustine.

The official opening of the Centenary will take place in John's Lane Church, Dublin, also on Sunday next when the 11.30 a.m. Mass there will be celebrated by Archbishop Kevin McNamara.

A CLIMAX

Augustine's search for God was coming to a climax. It took place in a garden, where he was with his friend, Aliphus. Listen to Augustine as he struggled: 'I flung myself down under a certain fig-tree and no longer tried to check my tears. I go on saying to-morrow, and again to-morrow? Why not now, why not an end to my uncleanliness this very hour...'

'And I was signed with the Sign of His Cross and seasoned with His salt, as I came from the womb of my mother, who had great trust in You. When I was still a child, I fell gravely ill... this caused my Baptismal cleansing to be postponed.'

in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and impurities, not in contention and envy, but put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh in its concupiscence.' It was as though a light of utter confidence shone in all my heart, and all the darkness of uncertainty vanished away... then we went in to my mother, and told her, to her great joy. She was filled with happiness and praised You, who are mighty, beyond which we ask or conceive.

Augustine was at peace. His mind and heart were at rest. His conversion was radical, personal and forever. His conversion took place in September 386 and he was baptised at the Easter Vigil April 24th, 387, at the age of thirty three. He had found Jesus Christ. He had found the true Church. His mother, Monica died shortly afterwards at Ostia. Their final parting is revealed beautifully in the Confessions. Augustine, then spent some years with his many friends, forming the first Augustinian community. He was ordained a priest in 391, and made Bishop of Hippo in 396. He wrote the Confessions in 399, a mighty work in praise of God and in acknowledgment of his own weakness. It is a confession of sin, faith and praise, full of the action of God in his life. He began his famous work 'The City of God' in 410. He gave the remainder of his life to God and to the people of God, writing, preaching, revealing the brilliance and humility of a heart afire with love. Listen to him as he speaks:

'We are told to sing to the Lord a new song. A new man knows a new song. A song is a thing of joy, and if we think carefully about it, a thing of love. So a man who has learned to live a new life has learned to sing a new song. We cannot love unless we are first loved. Sing with your voices, sing with your hearts, sing with lips, sing with your lives. The singer himself is the praise contained in the song. Do you want to speak the praise of God? Be yourselves what you speak. If you live good lives, you are His praise.'

'Thou hast made us for Thyself, O God, and our hearts are restless till they rest in Thee.'

'Rome has spoken; the case is ended.' Augustine died on August 28th, 430 as Hippo was attacked by the Vandals. His last prayer was: 'If this chalice cannot pass, then, Thy will be done, Who can do nothing wrong.'

ONE OF THE BEST LOVED SAINTS

We celebrate this year the 16th centenary of the conversion of St. Augustine, one of the best beloved of God's saints—a sinner, helped and encouraged by a mother's prayers and tears, a young person meeting the challenges of youth in a University city, a heretic, who searched for the truth until he found it, a philosopher and theologian, an unparalleled gifts of mind and heart, a prolific writer and preacher, the author of the Confessions, the City of God and many other works, a champion of the Faith with heart on fire for the love of Christ, a quiet, prayerful contemplative, yet a Bishop, ever busy with love for the people of God. All are invited to share with the Augustinians, in the celebration of Augustine's unique conversion. We can thank God for the wonder of his life of singleness, repentance, truth, holiness and love. Let the courage and integrity of Augustine inspire us as we remember a youth of brilliant talents attracted to worldly ways, a teacher searching for the truth, a religious, a priest, a Bishop, a saint of God. He will lead us by word and example to find Christ. May 4th will be the beginning of the centenary year. Augustine will speak to so many people in so many countries this year. His words will inspire all those who read and listen. He will encourage all Augustinians and all who share in the Augustinian apostolate to share his spirit. He will ask many who are searching for a meaning to life to become part of the Augustinian family world-wide. Vocations are so necessary now. Let the voice of Augustine speak to the modern world. His mission is not yet complete. Let him continue to inspire, encourage and lead men and women, boys and girls to the Heart of Christ which He loved so much. Before all things let God be loved and then, the neighbour.'

However all is not yet lost as the championship is run on a league basis. It increases the pressure on us however and we cannot afford any further losses from here on in.

KILROSSANTY NEXT
We are given a quick opportunity in fact to get back into winning ways when we take on Kilrossanty in another crucial championship test, in Stradbally on this Friday evening (7.15). We cannot afford to slip up again, and with so much at stake it is to be hoped the 14 footballers, who were victorious in the championship last week-end's dismal effort out of our minds.

Consider that we accounted for Courty so decisively in the league not all that many weeks ago this was a most unexpected defeat. True our opponents were much stronger on this occasion, but even so it is difficult to explain so clear cut a defeat.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

Our picture for the "Remembering Other Days" series this week is an historic one and goes back exactly 30 years to 1956. It was taken on the occasion of the Golden Jubilee celebrations of the founding of Ring College (Oiscoil Na Mumhan) which were attended by Sean T. O'Kelly, President of Ireland and Mrs. O'Kelly and Eamonn de Valera who was Taoiseach at the time. The group pictured above with the President and Taoiseach taken at the College include An Fear Mór and members of the College teaching staff and the Parish Priest Very Rev. Fr. J. Corbett and other visiting VIP's. Among those in the group we recognise the present Manager and Principal of the College, Miceal O Domhnaill and Muiris Boleir. We would again ask any readers who may have old photos suitable for inclusion in this series to let us have them for publication. We can assure them that they will be looked after with care and returned safely.

Dungarvan G.A.A. Notes

Disastrous start for junior footballers

Our junior footballers made a disastrous start, to their championship campaign at the Fraher Field last Saturday evening when going under to old rivals Ballinacourty by the whopping margin of thirteen points—2-8 to 0-1.

Considering that we accounted for Courty so decisively in the league not all that many weeks ago this was a most unexpected defeat. True our opponents were much stronger on this occasion, but even so it is difficult to explain so clear cut a defeat.

MINOR FOOTBALL
Our minor footballers are, in vital championship action against the Nire on this Thursday evening at Cappoquin (7.15), and victory here will clinch our place in the divisional semi-final.

We were decidedly unfortunate to lose to Stradbally last time out but showed enough promise in that game to strongly suggest, we can still be there or thereabouts in the heel of the hunt. The Nire will undoubtedly present stiff opposition, but if the application of the players is right on the night then victory is well within their compass.

UNDER 14s
This week could well be "make or break" for our Under 14 footballers. Wins over Lismore and Kilrossanty in the championship gave them the best possible start and they faced three crucial games this week. Last Monday night, Wednesday night, and this coming Saturday night are the dates of these all-important games. A hat-trick of wins would undoubtedly clinch our place in the Western final.

The team is undoubtedly good enough to clinch that final spot and hopefully next week we'll have a happy story to tell about these Under 14s.

IRISH NIGHT
The Irish Night we organised last Thursday for the Dungarvan Lourdes Invalid Society proved an outstanding success and we are deeply indebted to everyone who supported us.

As a result we will now be able to hand over a very sizeable cheque to the Lourdes Society, and it is our intention to organise this Irish Night on an annual basis.

Once again the people of quality of the instruments still to be seen here.

To ensure that historic scientific instruments are preserved, and to foster an understanding of their importance, the Royal Dublin Society and the Royal Irish Academy have together set up a Joint Committee on Historic Scientific Instruments. The Committee has representatives not only from the RDS and the Academy, but also from the National Museum, the Ulster Museum and the Irish Museum of Modern Art. In addition it has as corresponding members experts from museums in Oxford, Cambridge and Edinburgh.

The Committee was launched at a reception held on 13th February and it has been agreed that one of the most important objectives of the Committee must be to make an inventory of all the significant historic instruments remaining within Ireland.

As a contribution towards this exercise may we, through the courtesy of your columns, request any reader who has information as to the whereabouts of old scientific instruments to get in touch with the undersigned. The compilation of our inventory will be a significant step towards the growth of a deeper public awareness of this aspect of our cultural and scientific history.

Yours faithfully,

Pass On Oil Benefits Says Waterford I.F.A. Man
A prominent Waterford IFA member has criticised the agro-chemical companies for not passing on the benefits of falling oil prices to their customers.

Mr. Gerard Flynn who is the county's representative on the IFA's National Grain Committee, said this is especially serious when one considers that some of those companies are actually involved in the oil business themselves.

"Cereal fungicide and herbicide production costs are strongly linked to the price of the basic raw material which is oil," he said.

The Carrick-on-Suir farmer said that most companies have pegged their prices at the same level as 1985 despite paying 10p service to the unfortunate plight of growers. Other companies have conspicuously increased some of their prices. Few, if any, have made any significant reductions in prices.

ANNUAL MEETING OF REGIONAL TOURISM ORGANISATION

The 23rd Annual General Meeting of the South Eastern Regional Tourism Organisation will take place at the Five Counties Hotel, New Ross on Thursday, May 8 and in the course of his report to the meeting, Mr. Bill Walsh, Regional Manager states that in the overall 1985 was a good year for tourism with overseas earnings of over £700 million. In the South East this welcome trend was reflected in the Tourist Office of the region with an increase in bookings of 17 per cent and an increase of 8 per cent in bednights booked.
Special mention is made of the Rothmans Circuit of Ireland Rally as follows: "Without doubt the highlight of the tourism year in Waterford was the second year of the Rothmans Circuit of Ireland Rally. This spectacular event provides a welcome boost to the commencement of the tourist season and is a big money spinner for the area."
ACTIVE PROMOTION
Dungarvan Tourism and Ardmore Holidays were active in 1985 in the promotion of their areas and we are pleased to be associated with their efforts. The development of sea angling at Dungarvan will be actively promoted during 1986. During 1985 Waterford County was well represented by trade and regional tourism staff at Bord Fáilte sea and coarse angling promotions in Britain where Manchester, Birmingham, London, Bristol, Swansea and Cardiff were visited. It adds: "We congratulate Co. Waterford on again winning the National Tidy County Competition. This success reflects great credit on the Tidy Towns entrants in the county."

LISMORE AND DISTRICT NOTES

LISMORE F.C. NOTES
In what can only be described as a game resembling a cup tie, Lismore played their last league game of the season and defeated Killeagh by 4 goals to 1 at Lismore last Monday night. This was a game the locals had to win to avoid relegation to the second division.
Defensive errors left Killeagh leading by 3 goals to 1 goal scored by Neal Twomey, and at this stage it looked all over.
However the second half was totally different as Lismore realised their precarious position and goals by Billy Landers, Pat Bennett and "Spider" Barry gave them a well deserved victory on the night.
It was a team victory in the second half but Neal Twomey had his best game for a while, and John Dunne at midfield showed all his experience and Pat Bennett was so unlucky not to score a few more as was "Spider" Barry and Brian O'Gorman.
The defence, after a disastrous start, was outstanding in the second half with Denis O'Donnell the commanding figure at centre half.
This win was all the more worthy when Lismore had to play without Donal Landers, Brendan Lawton and Pat Ahern.
Team: W. Cunningham, P. Fitzgerald, D. O'Donnell, B. Landers, Dave Sanders, J. Dunne, P. Bennett, C. Barry, B. O'Gorman, N. Twomey (capt.), B. Prendergast.

LISMORE AND HOSPITAL MUST MEET AGAIN
Lismore C.B.S. 3-6 Presentation/De La Salle, Hospital 4-3
Lismore C.B.S. and Presentation/De La Salle, Hospital must meet again to decide the outcome of the Munster Colleges Solo Cup u/15 hurling competition after the teams played a very exciting draw in the final at Kilworth on Friday afternoon last. The standard of hurling throughout was good particularly in the second half when the play flowed from end to end as both teams tried to gain supremacy.
Hospital opened the scoring with a goal from full-forward P. J. Garvey in the opening minute. It was nine minutes before Lismore opened their account with a point from Kieran O'Gorman, with Mark Geary adding another after 15 minutes. Centre-forward Michael O'Sullivan palmed a Lismore goal after 19 minutes following a long through ball from Eamonn Power, and within three minutes Sean Daly added a second goal following a pass from Power. Three minutes from the end of the half, Garvey added a second goal for Hospital following some slack marking in the Lismore defence. Lismore led by 2-3 to 2-1 at half-time.
Within three minutes of the restart, Sean Daly had scored 1-1 for Lismore to put them 3-4 to 2-1 ahead. After twenty minutes of exciting play to end hurling, Lismore still led by 3-4 to 2-2. By the twenty-fifth minute Sean Daly and Hospital's Ger Cunningham had exchanged points and then the drama began.
First P. J. Garvey after 27 minutes and Cunningham after 28 minutes slammed home two great goals and Lismore trailed by a point with less than two minutes remaining. But full credit to them as they fought back and Sean Daly equalised from a free with a minute remaining after Eamonn Power had been fouled going through.
Lismore had the man of the match in centre back Mark O'Sullivan who had a splendid game throughout.
Lismore scorers were — Sean Daly 2-3; Michael O'Sullivan 1-9; J. Ahern 0-1; M. Geary 0-1; K. O'Gorman 0-1.
Lismore C.B.S. K. Whelan; D. Hickey; D. Clancy; P. O'Gorman; E. Cunningham; M. O'Sullivan; F. Meagher; E. Power; J. Ahern; M. Hickey; Michael O'Sullivan; M. Geary; G. Hickey; K. O'Gorman; S. Daly.
Ref. Jim Denihan (Fermoy).
The replay goes on next Friday afternoon in Kilworth with a 3 p.m. throw-in.

PROGRESSIVE DEMOCRATS
At an area meeting of the Progressive Democrats held in the Lismore Hotel last week concern was expressed at the danger to Tallow of school children at the junction of New Street and Barrack St. The road at this point is narrow and there is a considerable amount of traffic there at schooltime making the area very unsafe.

The condition of the approach road from Tallow onto the C.E.S. Lismore was also discussed. On the night of the above meeting a large pool of water was lodged on the road and any cars approaching from Tallow had to cross to the right hand side of this road in order to avoid the water. Concern was also expressed at the amount of heavy vehicles travelling up and down Tallow Hill.

Tickets are now available for the Progressive Democrats national draw. There is a prize fund of £20,000 with a Ford Fiesta as first prize. The draw will take place in May in conjunction with the parties first conference.

A public meeting is being planned for this area in the near future, new members will be welcome at any time. Further details may be had from Dave Power, Glencairn or Bertie Hanrahan (56312).

G.A.A. NOTES
Senior Hurling - Tallow begin the defence of their senior hurling championship title when they take on Clonlea at Clonmilk on Sunday next. This is a tough one for the champions who are seriously hit by injuries and emigration since their historic county final win last September.

No doubt about it Sunday's team will have many new faces but with some of last year's team still available they will rise to the occasion in the true Tallow spirit.

Under 14 Football - Following two great wins in the under 14 football championship, Tallow lost to Kilsrossary by two points at Cappoquin on Saturday last. This was a great game between two evenly matched teams with a second half penalty miss proving costly for Tallow. Tallow must now win their remaining three games, the first of which is on Monday night next.

Lismore G.B.S. - Well done to Mark Barry, Eamonn Power, Clive Barry, Eamonn and Colin Cunningham who helped Lismore G.B.S. to the final of the Solo Cup against De La Salle of Limerick at Kilworth on Friday last. After a thrilling game of hurling the sides finished level at 1-10. The game was at the same venue on this Friday, May 2nd.

Sponsored Walk - The ladies committee are organising a sponsored walk on Saturday, June 7th for the Under 14 hurlers and footballers. The proceeds of this walk will go towards an outing for these young lads later in the year. Cards will be available during the week and we look forward to your support.

Club Jumper - There is one club jumper, size 40, left over from the last order. Anyone interested should contact Michael Sheehan or Dennis Cunningham.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.
St. Catherine's intermediate hurlers had a rewarding trip to Abbeyside last Thursday evening when they defeated St. Molleran's (Carrickbeg) in the local tournament. A fine spacious playing pitch in the new grounds provided the setting for good open hurling. The fabled St. Molleran's opened well but a few infringements on their part and the resultant frees being hammered over the bar by the accurate Christy Clancy was a bit upsetting for them. A goal and two points put them in the running again however, but Catherine's held sway at halftime.

Mollerans determined to come on level terms in the second half found the backline almost impregnable and Christy Clancy sending over a few more points sewed it up for Catherine's who won on the score of 1-17 to 2-6.

MACRA NA FEIRME
Tallow Macra are enjoying a very successful and eventful year to date. Three of the club's members, Ellen O'Regan, Karen Gallagher and Catherine O'Regan travelled to Wicklow last Sunday night to represent the County in the Regional Final of the Macra Talent Contest. They qualified with their ballad group and also in the solo singing for the semi-finals which will be held in Bree, Co. Wexford on Sat. 17th May.

The club will organise a bus for this event and are hopeful of the clubs full support in this venture.

Field Evening - As everyone knows the highlight of Macra's year is the field evening. This year as in previous years Tallow's field evening is being held on Ascension Thursday, May 8th in St. Patrick's Hall, followed by a Disco in Lismore Hotel.

Side shows for the field evening will include a children's fancy dress and a children's art competition. Other attractions will include a slow bicycle race, skittles, basketball, buried treasure and questionnaires. The competitions will be held in St. Patrick's Hall and the grounds attached to the hall.

A word of thanks to our sponsors - Mr. George Mills, A.I.B. and Waterford Co-op.

Sponsored Walk - The Macra club would like to thank all the school children who supported their sponsored walk in aid of the Irish Wheelchair Association. A special word of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Power for their help.

MR. TOM BEECHER, R.I.P.
Another tie with the Ballynoge community was severed by the unexpected death of Tom Beecher last Wednesday. To add poignancy to this he had attended the funeral of his brother Jerry at Carrigtwohill on the previous Sunday. Tom and his late wife Kit farmed extensively at Clogheen, Ballynoge, where he was a most popular and respected person in the district. He, with many others in 1951 helped to erect the magnificent Grotto at Ballynoge.

He was a prominent greyhound breeder at one time and had some successes at Young-hal track. An honest, unassuming and cheerful man, he will sorely be missed by many happy memories of him will remain with us and we sympathise with his brothers, Jim, Ballymacsinnon, Castletions and Jack. Mogeely, also his brothers-in-law, Pat and Bill Ronan, Castlemartyr, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

After Requiem Mass in Ballynoge, co-celebrated by his first cousin, Dr. Ahern, Bishop of Cloyne, his remains were interred at the family burial plot at Conna New Cemetery where a large course attended. Ar dheis lamb De go raibh a anam dhí.

U/21 Hurling - Shane O'Connell played at full back for Cork U/21 hurlers at Kilmallock recently when they were defeated by Clonlea in the Munster semi-final.

Denis Walsh is still nursing a hand injury sustained in the first round of the same competition against Waterford but is expected to turn out for Cork U/21 footballers against Limerick at Askeaton.

Intermediate Hurling League: Middleton 1-3; St. Catherine's 5-8
At Clonmilk Memorial Park, Middleton last Saturday evening our intermediate hurlers lined out against the local squad in the above competition. Middleton finished the first half with a point advantage. The second half saw Catherine's really get into their stride and on a great scoring spree they blotted out their rivals and strode to an easy victory to gain the points.

Pat Spillane (Carrigtwohill) refereed.

POINT-TO-POINT WIN
Thomas Hurley's horse "Golden Point" again confirmed his superiority when winning again at the West Waterford Hunt Point-to-Point races at Kill on Sunday last, trained by P. J. Daly and piloted by Tom Costello he shook off his challengers in a superb finish.

St. Catherine's 2-9 - Completing a week-end of hurling last Sunday morning at Caherlag, St. Catherine's were unsuccessful in their bid to gain the points in this junior hurling league match against old rivals Erin's Own. In a closely contested match from start to finish it was all square at the midway stage and in an exciting second half it was tough and go with Erin's Own just edging out

MAKING LIFE EASIER
Used to the full, the guide can have an almost miraculous effect, it can turn your Tax Inspector and Bank Manager into human beings rather than mythical ogres, since you'll actually be making life easier for them.

In short, the guide will help you to make optimum use of your financial resources which will mean considerably more cash in your pocket. The solution to your problems comes written in plain English, not accountants' jargon in this book called The Money, PAYE & Tax Guide, costing the princely sum of IR £3.00. It's available in most good bookshops, or direct from the Taxation Advice Bureau, Eagle House, The Angle, Ranelagh, Dublin 6.

about more postal efficiency as an explanation for the exorbitantly high postal rates charged!

ANNUAL MEETING OF SERTO

The Annual General Meeting of the South Eastern Regional Tourism Organisation will take place in New Ross on Thursday of next week, May 8. We were reminded of this last week when we met SERTO's Assistant Regional Manager, Jack Walsh, who was making some calls around the West Waterford area.

During our brief meeting he was at pains to stress that they would like to see many more people from the county attending their AGM especially those involved in catering for tourism and who might have suggestions to put forward and opinions to voice.

While he did not respond directly when we referred to the recent criticisms levelled at Bord Failte and SERTO for failing to put in an appearance at the recent Camping and Holiday Exhibition in Dungarvan and for failing to give a fair return for the contributions made to SERTO by both the County and Urban Councils, he did point out that in 1985, they had provided £1,368 to Dungarvan Tourism Ltd. and £718 to Ardmore Holidays Ltd. by way of financial assistance in addition to "considerable technical and advisory" assistance.

Mr. Walsh further drew attention to the fact that grants in excess of £14,000 under the Holiday Accommodation Scheme had been made in respect of 16 premises, mostly in West Waterford.

THE ROAD BETWEEN NEWPORT AND RAE
Our choice for the ballad corner this week is one which comes from County Tipperary, "The Road Between Newport And Rae." It is a ballad in the same style as "The Stone Outside Dan Murphy's Door" and tells of the good times they had in the good old days!

Oh! to those who seek pleasure in Ireland They need not go too far away To Yougalh, Tramore or Dungarvan, Lisdoonvarna, Lahinch or Kilkree.

Sure you'll find some enjoyment in coming And in case that you might go astray, When you land in Tipperary, enquire for The Road between Newport and Rae.

When you reach the white walls up the mountains, Enquire for the old copper mines, And when you proceed a little further, Do you know how best set about buying a house? How to best finance your children's education? How to claim PAYE refunds and benefits?

The Money, PAYE & Tax Guide spells it all out. It tells you how to manage your financial affairs to your best advantage.

The dire need for this information is clearly evident from the runaway success of the 1985 edition of this book. The current edition is revised and enlarged to cover three main areas: Part 1—Money and Tax Planning; Part 2—Simplifying the Tax & PAYE System; Part 3—Completing your annual Returns.

Can you remember when you last filed a tax return? You can? That puts you in a small minority of Irish tax payers. And if you do not file a return, you pay the maximum possible amount of tax on all your earnings. Simple as that.

The Money, PAYE & Tax Guide tells you exactly how to set about solving your financial problems, and how to fill in your Tax Return by walking you through the form itself. There's no fudge, and nowhere for you to go wrong. It also tells you who's liable to pay what tax, and how much, on all about your sensible saving and borrowing options.

For the angels, they say, were seen sporting On the road between Newport and Rae.

You may travel from Queens-town to Derry From Dublin right down to Mayo, You could visit Killarney in Kerry Or the homestead of old Brian Boru. But you won't find a place more enchanting Or the people so merry and gay.

For the angels, they say, were seen sporting On the road between Newport and Rae.
