SOLEMN NOVENA CONCLUDES

The Solemn Novena in Dungarvan and Abbeyside concluded on last Sunday and maintained the devotion of huge crowds up to the final session at each centre. Conducted by seven Redemptorist Fathers with headquarters in Limerick, four in Dungarvan and three in Abbeyside, the Novena drew crowded congregations throughout the entire nine-day period to both of the Parish Churches.

The Annual Eucharistic Procession in Abbeyside on Thursday evening (feast of Corpus Christi) and the Procession in Dungarvan on Sunday evening were edifying with larger than usual crowds, reflecting one of the direct results of the Novena.

At the final sessions, all concerned with making the Novena the huge success it proved to be, were thanked for their efforts. It was a memorable experience for all who participated.

THE ELUSIVE SUN SHINES

The first "summer" Bank Holiday made valiant efforts to live up to its name last weekend and partly succeeded on Monday afternoon. The elusive sun has been so rarely seen this year that when it did shine on Monday it caught us all somewhat by surprise.

However the week-end weather showed a most welcome improvement for it was mostly dry and very mild and Monday, as I have said, turned out to be really nice. Sporting fixtures throughout the week-end as a result of the improved weather enjoyed a bonanza.

A SURPRISING DECISION

The motion passed at a meeting of the Waterford Sheep Dipping Advisory Committee held in Dungarvan last Friday to recommend to Waterford County Council that it should be represented on the Joint Cork/Kerry Sheep Dipping Committee was, to say the very least, surprising.

We say, surprising, because it was opposed by the members who should know most about sheep farming in the county, the representatives on the committee of the Co. Waterford Sheepbreeders Association who were backed by a member of the veterinary profession with major interests in sheep farming and a member of the County Council who has had previous experience of meetings of the Cork/Kerry Joint Committee.

The motion was supported by four members of the County Council and when the vote was dead-locked at 4 to 4, the Chairman of the Committee gave his casting vote in favour of the motion to recommend representation and declared it carried.

The members who opposed the motion made no bones about how useless membership of the Joint Committee would be. It was described as superfluous and only a laugh from which nothing would be achieved or learned. There was a mention of the Ballymagash atmosphere of the meetings while a member told us subsequently, "if a tape of the first meeting was made it could be played after each subsequent meeting to show what went on!" Those were the views of the Sheepbreeder members but despite that, the motion was passed!

Why talk about economies when such ridiculous decisions are taken.

LIBRARY COUNCIL'S VISIT TO DUNGARVAN

At the invitation of Waterford County Council, An Chomhairle Leabharlanna visited Waterford on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. An Chomhairle was established by Dail Eireann in 1947 to manage the Irish Central Library for Students and to assist Local Authorities to enhance their library services through technical and financial aid.

A meeting of An Chomhairle was held at the County Council Offices in Dungarvan and the members were then officially welcomed by the Chairman of the County Council, Mr. John Carey and by the County Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley in Dungarvan Branch Library at a reception sponsored by Allied Irish Banks.

A visit to the Tramore Branch Library was also included in the itinerary of An Chomhairle members during their visit to the county.

The members were all highly impressed at the considerable progress that has been made in library services and accommodation in the county over the past few years.

The Annual Joint Conference of the Library Association of Ireland and the Northern Ireland Branch of the Library Association has been provisionally set for Dungarvan next year.

THE APOSTROPHE AND ITS USE

Some years ago I read a newspaper article which stated that the possessive apostrophe was approaching its demise in the world of big business and this was attributed to the laziness of some of the sign-writers of the time. Other culprits were identified as the major banks and the advertising world. "The practice of dropping the apostrophe is gathering momentum until, in signs, it has become the normal thing to do," the article said.

Well, the apostrophe has been making an appearance again in recent times but whether due to its absence or not for such a lengthy period it is being almost commonly mis-used.

The apostrophe, besides being used to denote the possessive case is also used to indicate a missing letter in a word or phrase and the mis-use which we have noticed occurs when these get mixed-up.

A prime example is the use of the words "its" and "it's". In this case the possessive case does not have the apostrophe as "its" clearly or should clearly indicate. When written as "it's" the word means "it is". In recent months we have noted in many official and even legal documents the word "it's" being used when "its" would be the correct form.

I think that it would be better to again let the use of the apostrophe decline rather than to have it used so frequently in an incorrect fashion as it is at present.

Motion To Join Cork-Kerry Sheep Committee Passed - But Sheepmen Object

Despite the most vehement objections voiced by members representing the Co. Waterford Sheepbreeders Association, a motion in the name of Cllr. C. O'Riain that Waterford County Council be represented on the joint Cork/Kerry Sheep Dipping Committee was passed at a meeting of the Co. Waterford Sheep Dipping Advisory Committee held in Dungarvan last Friday.

The matter had been referred to the Committee from a previous meeting of Waterford County Council where Cllr. O'Riain and Cllr. W. McDonnell endeavoured to have a similar motion passed.

Again proposing the motion at last Friday's meeting, Cllr. O'Riain said that the Co. Council had been represented on the Cork/Kerry Joint Committee for years and while he represented the Council on the Committee he had never missed a meeting. That was until there was some scare-mongering in a daily newspaper about the huge expenses paid to members who were supposed to then go to race meetings. "But," said Cllr. O'Riain, "when I travelled to Cork to these meetings I did so under my own steam and came straight home afterwards. I never went to race meetings around the country as the daily paper alleged."

Cllr. O'Riain went on to say that last September the local Committee decided not to continue representation on the Joint Cork/Kerry Committee but he was not present at the meeting as he was ill at the time. He had not been invited to attend any other meetings and he alleged that the reason for this was that he had voted at the Co. Council for the 10p per sheep dipping charge but he had done this as the lesser of two evils and it had been a hard decision for him to make.

Cllr. O'Riain then said that despite what had been stated in the newspapers he thought his motion should be accepted as it was vital for the sheep industry to have co-operation between the counties and membership of the joint Cork/Kerry Committee could do nothing but good for the sheepbreeders of Co. Waterford.

Cllr. Jim Harty said that he was the other Council representative on the joint committee but admitted he had been a bad attendee at meetings. He said that on occasions he had gone to meetings in Tralee which lasted only half an hour but he had to be away from home for an entire day to do so.

Referring to an address on Sheep Scab given to the meeting earlier by Mr. Jim O'Brien, Research Officer, Department of Agriculture, Cllr. Harty remarked, "we got no information from Mr. O'Brien here this morning than we got at all those meetings of the joint committee that I attended."

BALLYMAGASH MEETINGS
Mr. Jimmy O'Grady (Sheepbreeders Rep) said that he disagreed completely with any proposal to participate in the Cork/Kerry Joint Committee as he felt that it served no useful purpose.

Mr. N. J. Connors (Veterinary Surgeon) pointed out that more sheep were coming up here from Wexford than from Cork and asked, "are they on this joint committee?" He went on to say that in his opinion membership of such a committee would be superfluous and no useful purpose would be served in attending its meetings.

Mr. Connors said that he had sat at one of the meetings held in Dungarvan and he never thought the Ballymagash T.V. show was true until he saw what went on at that meeting.

The Chairman, Cllr. W. McDonnell then asked for a seconder for Cllr. O'Riain's motion and this was done by Cllr. James A. Walsh.

Mr. T. Power (Sheepbreeders) proposed an amendment that they have no more to do with the Cork-Kerry Joint Committee, "as they could learn nothing from it." This was seconded by Mr. J. O'Grady, who said that to join such a committee "would only be a laugh."

Cllr. O'Riain was at once on his feet to take exception to this comment and said that he had been associated with sheep all his life.

A further proposal made by Cllr. Harty and seconded by Senator Quealy recommending that only one representative be sent to meetings of the Joint Cork/Kerry committee and that the situation be reviewed after twelve months was then passed unanimously.

URBAN COUNCIL BACKS SALMON FISHERMEN

Cllr. T. Wright proposed a motion (carried) at the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council calling on the Government to legalise the use of monofilament nets for salmon fishing purposes.

Cllr. B. Kyne seconded the motion which was also supported by Cllr. Mary Dixon.

CALL FOR RELEASE OF HELVICK FISHERMAN

Proposing a motion at the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council calling on the Minister for Justice to release immediately from prison, Helvick fisherman Paddy Kelly, Cllr. T. Wright (W.P.) said that Paddy Kelly was in prison just for trying to make a living for his family.

He claimed that Kelly, like other fishermen, had no other option but to fish the seas with the most up-to-date equipment in order to survive.

Cllr. M. O'Riordan thought that it would be better to ask for a review of the case rather than a release as he felt the Minister had no powers of release which was a matter for the Courts.

It was agreed to incorporate the word "review" in the motion which was then seconded by Cllr. B. Kyne and passed.

£5,000 GRANT FOR DUNGARVAN YOUTH CENTRE

Mr. Austin Deasy, T.D., has received the following letter from Mr. Enda Kenny, T.D., Minister of State, Depts. of Labour and Education:

"I am pleased to inform you therefore, that I have approved a Capital Grant of £5,000 to Dungarvan Youth Centre. My Department will contact the organisers in the near future to outline the conditions of the grant. I would be glad of your co-operation in ensuring that the organisers take no action on foot of this letter until they are contacted by officials of my Department."

Cost Implications Of New Swimming Pool

The County Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley, commented on the Report and Feasibility Study prepared by a special voluntary committee on a plan for a new indoor swimming pool and sports area for the town at the resumed May monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council.

He said that the report was a magnificent one and dealt in a very fine way about the plan to site the pool and its ancillary sport activities at the Causeway at an estimated cost running to £0.75 million.

While the report was an excellent one, Mr. Hurley said that the proposals it made contained certain problems as to whether the proposed site, on reclaimed ground, would be capable of taking the type of complex that was planned while enormous cost implications were also involved.

Mr. Hurley went on to say that he had had a meeting with the Committee and had discussed the matter with his consultants and he thought that if the Committee were prepared to change their terms of reference and look at the possibility of marrying their proposals to the facilities in the existing Sports Centre (at Quann's) then something might possibly be done.

Mr. D. Goode said that he would not be inclined to agree with an indoor pool because of the high running costs involved.

The Co. Manager said that the voluntary committee formed had carried out a feasibility study and had prepared a very fine report but the matter was still only at the feasibility stage. "We haven't gone into the cost implications yet," he added, "but I don't think the town could afford the plan proposed in the report."

Mr. Hurley suggested that the committee might reconsider the plan in conjunction with the existing Sports Centre.

Cllr. B. Kyne thought the report of the Committee had the desired effect of stimulating a discussion on the need for a swimming pool in the town. He felt that it was right that the matter should be pursued further.

Cllr. T. Wright said that he would support the proposal for an indoor pool 100 per cent. It was agreed after further discussion to approve of the Manager's suggestion.

CHLORINATION TREATMENT FOR KILGOBINET WATER SUPPLY

Cllr. B. Kyne has received a letter from Mr. J. O'Flynn, Co. Engineer, setting out the up-to-date position of the Kilgobinet Water Supply as follows: 1) The treatment house has been constructed. 2) The Chlorination Plant has been obtained and 3) E.S.B. quotation accepted and provision of power is awaited.

The letter, dated May 26, advised that "the new Chlorination Plant will be put into service as soon as electricity supply is available for same."

Cllr. Kyne who has raised the problem of this supply on a number of occasions at County Council meetings has expressed his appreciation that it has now been solved thanks to the efforts of the County Engineer and his staff.

MAY DAY HOLIDAY PROPOSAL

A proposal in the name of Cllr. T. Wright (W.P.) calling on the Government to declare May Day a public Holiday was passed at the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council.

Cllr. Wright in proposing the motion said that he was conscious that Ireland was one of the few countries which had not recognised the contribution of Labour to society by honouring workers with their own public holiday. He added that with the exception of Britain, Ireland had fewer public holidays than any other E.E.C. country.

Cllr. B. Kyne seconded the motion which was passed with Cllr. D. Goode dissenting remarking that with so much absenteeism now being practised there was plenty of holidays going round.

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. NOTES

A LAST GAS DRAW

Pat Terry has seldom landed a more important point for us than the one he scored from a free in the dying seconds of our first round senior football championship game against Rathgriff. It gave us a really deserved draw, 2-5 to our opponents 1-8, and the right to live and fight another day. It was a gritty and gutsy performance considering that for a variety of reasons we had to line out without David Burke, Martin Sheehan, David Power and Morris Ferncombe. However the team never gave up, even when defeat stared us in the face, and we can look forward with confidence to the replay which seems likely to be played now on June 22.

We were three points down before we sealed into any kind of rhythm and trailed by 0-6 to 1-2 at half-time. Our goal in the second half had a decided element of good fortune about it, but after that we frittered away some great chances which, if taken, would surely have wrapped up victory for us. All things considered however, a draw was just about a fitting result, and there is much to look forward to in the replay.

Our fellows must now surely know that victory is well within their compass—and with it a place in the quarter-final. Let's go to it.

UNDER 14s BEATEN

There was no joy for the under 14 footballers in Cappoquin last Saturday when they were comprehensively beaten by a very fine Tallow side in the "A" championship Western final.

With the strong breeze behind them Tallow dominated the opening half and had built up a commanding lead by interval. Indeed it might well have been greater but for Trojan defensive work and superb goalkeeping by Michael Cunningham.

We still failed to raise our game on the turnover and long before the game had run its course our title hopes were dashed. Sincere congratulations to those who were on the field and to those who were on and annex the county cup.

We must now turn our attention to hurling and in our first game we face a difficult test again Lismore at Cappoquin next Monday night. The panel last Saturday night was: M. Cunningham, M. Desmond, J. Morrissey, J. Tutty, E. Dee, D. Donnelly, M. Lyons, A. Gueally, C. Gough, F. Cunningham, M. Butler, G. Curran, O. Curran, D. Dwyer, M. McGrath, K. Wright, V. Denmead, P. Dwyer, R. Kelly, S. Curran, K. Mahony.

CONGRATULATIONS

Sincere congratulations to club member Liam Dwyer and Helen Barron who announced their engagement last weekend. Liam has rendered us sterling service over the years as has his entire family. We wish him and his fiancée every happiness and success in the future.

MUNSTER S.H.C.

Despite the monumental task facing Waterford, there will be a big exodus of club members to Pairé Uí Chaoimh next Sunday for the Munster senior hurling semi-final against Cork. Jim Mullins will, presumably, be in charge of the travel arrangements, although he may well be on a "yellow card" after last year.

CBS HURLING FINALS

The CBS grounds is the place to be on this Thursday when the finals of the primary school hurling leagues will be staged. Opening the proceedings at 2 p.m. will be the boys in 2nd class, and as always we can expect this decider to be contested with youthful vigour and unbridled commitment.

In the 3rd-4th class final at 2.30 the form team is undoubtedly the one captained by John Power but the opposition—skipped by Brendan Downey—will make a real game of it. This one has all the makings of a battle royal.

The "big one," the 5th-6th class final is timed for 3 p.m. and it brings together teams who have battled to the decider on shewer ment. The favourite is, however, rests with Christopher Gough's team who are unbeaten to date, and it will take a great effort to deny them the honours now.

A sincere word of thanks is due to members of the primary school teaching staff—namely Messrs Ryan, Curran, Duggan, McCarthy and Kearney for their major contribution to the running of these very successful competitions. And of course one cannot forget Bro. Hickey who, as always, has been the real val player.

It is to be hoped that as many parents as possible will come along to these finals to give the boys every encouragement. There is also, of course, the guarantee of top class hurling fare.

Geraldines GAA Notes

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations are extended to Eddie Colbert and Mary Buckley who were married last Saturday week. Eddie is a former vice-chairman of our club and is still a very active member. — P.R.O.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

DUNGARVAN FRESHWATER ANGLERS Dear Sir, Through the medium of your widely read newspaper we the members of Dungarvan Freshwater Anglers wish to congratulate the elected members of the Urban Council who voted against the proposed extension of the town dump. Through their actions they have shown intelligence and integrity.

The criticism meted out to these men cannot be overlooked. The consequences of the present situation as it stands are so disastrous to the overall well-being of the environment, and this disastrous situation has been going on for the past sixteen years to the full knowledge of the Council officials. The consequences have been that the fish stocks of the Coligan river have almost been wiped out by indiscriminate management on the Council's part.

The sight of a clean river flowing through a town, in the eyes of tourists, would be a manerie. As the situation stood and with the extension we would have had a cess-pool flowing under the Abbeyside bridge. Without the dump, we, the anglers of the Coligan river, foresee a lake created at the bridge which can be utilised by the rowing club, sailing power boat and sail board enthusiasts as well as fishing. That would be a tourist attraction indeed.

As far as industry is concerned, that is a situation for the Council officials to work out. When the town dump opened sixteen years ago the County Council stated in planning permission that the dump was not to be used for industrial waste. That was laid down by themselves, it is very unfair for industry or the Council officials to now throw the blame on the Council members for their—Officials mistakes. In a recent statement from a council engineer which stated "we have waited two years on this one" Waited for what? The Council officials

I would like to thank Mickey Houlahan and others too numerous to mention for the trojan work they are doing in organising the concert and sessions which I trust, you will enjoy and support. Yours sincerely, NICKY POWER Springmount, Dungarvan.

Dear Editor, Through the medium of your newspaper I would like to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to all those people who have, through their letters, visits and Mass bouquets, wished me well. Many of you may already have heard of the forthcoming concert, on Wednesday, June 11 and the open-air session "Heath cheoll style" on Saturday, June 7 in Grattan Square. The proceeds of these events will be accepted by the trustees Fr. Michael Brennock and Helen O'Neill, Bank of Ireland go to be used by the Isolation Unit in Cork Regional Hospital for the well-being of the patients therein.

CAPPOQUIN AND DISTRICT NOTES

CAPPOQUIN SCOUT NOTES

At our last meeting the scouts and guides played basketball at the court in the Convent, the scouts winning by a short head. The scouts returned to the Den where testwork took place on pioneering and ropework in general.

This week the troop, under their leaders John Meskill and John Peppard hit for Stradbally where they will camp until Monday. Themes for the weekend will be scout standards—more about this next week. On June 8th, eight members of the troop with their leaders will hit for Mellerey Scout Centre where, with other units of the Region they will take part in the O'Farrell Trophy which will be based on the following—Scout Law and Promise, Scout Principles, Knots, Tentpitching, Drill, Compass Work, Firelighting, Cooking and the Country Code.

Both sections of the unit took part in different events for Sport Aid during the week. The cub pack are preparing for the father and son camp. We held a meeting of fathers on Wednesday night—not a very good turnout, but our thanks to those who did. I will be covering this weekend in full in next week's notes. I would like to welcome to the Cub Pack the following—Christy Dalton, Gerard O'Keefe, Michael Moynihan and Ward Fraher.

I met Mary during the week and she told me to inform all parents to return sponsor cards as soon as they can. Until next week, God bless.

AFFANE BRIDGE CLUB

There was a good attendance at the Third Annual General meeting. The treasurer reported a favourable credit balance and appreciation was expressed of her hard work and effort during the year, especially in the running of summer bridge. The President outlined the many events held during the year, the highlight being our Charity Bridge Night held in Whitechurch House hotel. She deceased was a most popular member of the community and was always in cheerful humour. She remains, accompanied by a large and representative cortege, were removed to St. Michael's Church, Ballyduff on Friday evening and the interment took place following Requiem Mass on Saturday afternoon to Clondulane Cemetery near Fermoy.

Sincere sympathy is extended to his wife, Melina, sons, daughters, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, grandchildren and a large circle of relatives and friends.

COMMUNITAS NOTES

There will be a meeting of the Healdh Cheoll Committee in St. Michael's Hall on Tuesday night, next at 9 p.m. All members are requested to attend.

COMMUNITY GAMES

The local athletic finals were held in the Community Field in ideal weather conditions on Sunday afternoon, last. We will have the full results next week. The girls soccer team were defeated by Clonea-Power on the score 2-1 at Lismore on Saturday last.

REGATTA

Cappoquin Regatta on the Blackwater on Saturday was favoured by brilliant sunshine, though surprisingly, the excellent spectator conditions were not reflected in an increased attendance. On the water a strong and variable headwind made conditions extremely difficult for coxes and crews alike and the 2,000 metre events were a real test of stamina. All the Cork clubs did extremely well as did Garda and trophies were fairly distributed among the clubs who supported the fixture.

Results: Elite 8—1, Cork Boat Club 2, Garda 1. Elite 4—1, Cork Boat Club 2, Garda 1. Elite Sculls—1, Garda (C. O'Brien); 2, Cappoquin 2. Elite Pair—1, Clonmel; 2, Dungarvan Dist. Elite 2 4—1, Cork Boat Club 2, Garda 1. Senior B 4—1, 1, Garda 2, Cappoquin 3. Senior B Scull—1, Cappoquin (M. Murray); 2, Cork Boat Club 2.

After the break, however, the situation changed quite dramatically with Tourin totally controlling the game. Good work by Peter Scanlon, Charlie Barry and Tommy Sullivan helped to change the game from being a run-away victory for Kilgobbin to a nail-biting finish where we had three chances to raise the green flag in the last ten minutes.

As it stands we lie at the bottom of the table pointless. However the team must be commended for their performance in the first half and we found ourselves trailing 2-8 to 0-2 at half time.

The losers narrowed the gap after the break but the winners led 1-10 to 1-4 with about ten minutes remaining when An Rinn had their second goal to narrow the gap to three points, but Seamus Daly with a point left four points between the sides at the final whistle.

Scorers—M. Quirke 0-6, M. Geary 1-0, M. Walsh 0-2, C. Daly, S. Daly, L. Power 0-1 each. Team was—P. Berry, J. Hanlon, J. Quirke, S. Daly, L. Drislane, S. Prendergast, D. Hanlon, M. Quirke, R. Walsh, M. Walsh, L. Power, C. Daly, M. Casey, M. Geary, S. Daly. Referee: David Kieley.

The u-14 hurlers defeated Mellerey in a challenge game in the field on Thursday night last, but were defeated by Fourmilewater in the championship in Cappoquin on Monday night by 5-0 to 2-4, having led at half-time by 2-1 to 2-0 but a stronger Fourmile water team finished on top at the end.

Team was—J. Corcoran, J. Coleman, D. Nugent, A. Martin, K. Martin, T. Feeney, K. Geary, G. O'Keefe, G. Hickey, D. Drislane, O. Corcoran, S. Hickey, P. Berry, D. Howard, L. Feeney, Subs.—T. Scanlon, S. Tobin, A. Morrissey, Referee—James Bennett.

Addressing a rally of salmon and inland fishermen in Cobh, last Friday, the Secretary General of the Irish Fishermen's Organisation, Mr. Frank Doyle, said that existing salmon regulations are totally unworkable and must be changed. The rally was the culmination of a day of protest involving a flotilla of vessels which sailed up Cork Harbour to Cobh. A number of trawlers from Helvick and other ports took part.

Mr. Doyle said it is clear to everybody involved in the business that changes in the regulations are required and that fishermen have been pressing for changes for several years. He pointed out that existing regulations have caused continuous friction and cost the State millions of pounds each year. "We have had thousands of men in jail, and several others pending, all because of crazy regulations. It is a sad situation where people are put in jail for trying to make an honest living," he said.

Anglers from Abbeyside and Ardmore who braved the conditions returned fish to the weigh-in. 1st, Michael Roche, 1200lb. 2nd, Michael Roche, Abbeyside Sea Angling Club; and 3rd, John Cronin, Ardmore Sea Angling Club.

Court Sequel To Dungarvan Co-Op Strike As Workers Sue

An evening in June last year when violence flared on a picket line outside the Waterford Co-op plant in Dungarvan and three Co-op employees were struck and injured by a milk lorry driven by a farmer-shareholder of the Society was recalled at a lengthy hearing at Dungarvan District Court last week.

Two of the three workers involved, including a Workers Party member of Dungarvan UDC, brought claims for damages against both the driver of the lorry and Waterford Co-op. In finding in favour of the workers, District Justice W. F. O'Connell commented that the driver of the milk lorry knew full well the risk he was taking in driving the vehicle through the mass picket line, and knew also that he was putting lives at risk.

Plaintiffs in the action were Anthony (Tony) Wright, 13 Mitchell Terrace, Dungarvan, and his brother Oliver Wright, The Burgery, Abbeyside, Dungarvan, each of whom claimed £2,500 damages jointly against Diarmuid Horgan, Garryduff, Colligan, Dungarvan and Waterford Co-op Society, arising from the alleged negligent driving of a Waterford Co-op owned milk lorry on June 11 last year by Horgan.

DISPUTE

Anthony Wright, a Workers Party member of Dungarvan Urban Council, told the court he is employed by Waterford Co-op as a long distance lorry driver. There was a dispute involving electricians at the Co-op plant in Dungarvan on June 11 last year and he and his colleagues among the general section of ATGWU members were supporting the action of the electricians.

On that afternoon he saw a milk lorry emerging from the Waterford Co-op plant and it was pushing his worker colleagues back. He went towards the lorry and when he was within ten or twelve feet of it he decided to indulge in a peaceful sit-down protest straight in front of the path of the vehicle.

Wright said the lorry was being driven by Diarmuid Horgan and before witness sat down on the road he looked straight into Horgan's face and Horgan did likewise to him. "I am certain Horgan saw me," he said.

He went on to say that when he sat on the road the lorry kept coming towards him and he suddenly realised it was not going to stop. He laid flat on the road and the lorry passed over him but the wheel on the front driver's side went over his back. The lorry stopped about half its own distance further on before coming to a halt.

Wright said he thought his foot was broken, but had he not lay down he would have been killed. He was taken to Ardee hospital but discharged later that evening and was out of work until July 2 when the doctor—at witness's insistence—allowed him back to his job.

Witness went on to say that to this day he still got pain in his hip, especially after running, dancing or standing for a long time. When he first saw the lorry it was travelling at walking pace but when he was under it he got the impression it may have been going a little faster.

Replying to Mr. Rory Brady, B.L. (instructed by O'Riada & Co. Solrs.) for the defendants, Wright said he staged his protest when he saw his working colleagues "being practically blown out of the way."

He denied in further cross-examination that he hurled himself in front of the lorry as "an ultimate gesture" to stop it.

HEAD INJURIES

The second defendant, Oliver Wright said when he saw the milk lorry emerging from the Waterford Co-op plant he, and others, went in front of it. He was pushing against it but remembered nothing more other than being dragged out at the back of the vehicle by a fellow worker. He sustained head injuries, was taken to Ardee hospital and detained overnight. He was suffering headaches well into August.

Dr. Tom Higgins told of examining both the Wright brothers at the scene shortly after the incident and he referred them by ambulance to hospital. Tony Wright, he said, was very distressed and had a massively swollen left foot. X-rays in Ardee however showed no fractures. Witness attended to him three more times and Wright was on crutches for a time. He remained distressed for a time but had now made "an unequivocal recovery."

Dr. Higgins said Oliver Wright was in a dazed condition at the scene but was not unconscious. He complained of headaches for some time after the accident but returned to work on June 26.

Waterford Co-op employees John Joe Sheehan, Anthony Downey, Richard Fitzgerald, Jimmy Healy, Liam Enright, Pat Lenthall and Joseph Clarke also gave evidence as witnesses for the plaintiffs, and Mr. Sheehan said he saw the milk lorry continuing to "push and push" forward in the face of the protesting workers.

Both he and Anthony Downey said they eventually had to jump out of the way as the lorry kept going forward.

Liam Enright, one of the striking electricians on picket line duty, told the court that he heard farmers inside the Co-op yard urging the driver to "drive on." He also heard one say "drive over them," and another "we cannot wait any longer."

INCH BY INCH

The first named defendant, Diarmuid Horgan, told the court that he was a farmer and was one of a number of farmers who decided to drive milk lorries out of the Waterford Co-op plant on the date in question. He saw six or seven people plotting outside the entrance and came out behind one lorry that had stopped at the picket line.

Horgan said he was only going out "inch by inch" and was in first gear. The crowd tried to stop the lorry and some were banging on the windscreen with placards. A still larger crowd joined in and the wipers and mirrors were pulled off the lorry.

Horgan said some hard objects also struck the vehicle and people were trying to get into the cab to attack him.

"Our livelihoods were at stake with milk to be collected," he went on. "I was fearful for my life at that stage."

He said he did not see Anthony Wright at any stage sitting on the road and eventually the lorry came to a stop.

Replying to Mr. Eamonn P. King, Solr. for the Wrights, witness agreed that farmers had planned the milk lorries would go out in convoy past the pickets. He had not, however, decided that he was going to get through "at any cost." "I would not deliberately drive people down," he said.

In further cross-examination, Horgan said he did not believe the lorry had gone over anyone that afternoon. If the lorries did not get out that evening milk would have had to be spilled on the farm.

Mr. King: Did that justify your putting life and limb at risk?

Horgan: No, but I did not do so.

Evidence for the defence was given by Ned Phelan and Martin Flood—a director of Waterford Co-op.

Detective Garda John Molloy,

Dungarvan, who also gave evidence said he saw Oliver Wright lying down about five feet in front of the lorry which kept on pushing forward. He heard the men on the picket line shouting and as the lorry continued to move forward the crowd got bigger. He heard someone shouting to "lie down" and with that Oliver Wright lay down in front of the lorry.

TAKING A RISK

In summing up, District Justice O'Connell said he felt all the witnesses had given truthful accounts of what happened as they saw it. He said that on that afternoon the farmers had obviously come to a conscious decision that the milk lorries were going to move out as there was too much at stake for them. The pickets and the workers were equally determined that they were not going to get out.

The District Justice said he did not think the plaintiffs had rushed out and thrown themselves in front of the lorry. He felt Horgan pressed forward "inch by inch" regardless of what damage or injury he was going to cause.

"He was at fault," the Justice said. "He should have called the gardai and asked them to provide a clear path for him. He knew well the men were there in front of him, and he was on notice that he was taking a very great risk and putting lives at risk. Fortunately, the injuries caused were not too serious."

He awarded Anthony Wright a decree for £500 together with an agreed sum of £799.62 special damages, a total of £1,299.69, and Oliver Wright was awarded £250 damages together with a further £255.49 special damages (also agreed)—a total of £505.49. Costs and expenses were also awarded. The decrees, costs and expenses, were awarded jointly against the two defendants. A stay of 21 days was put on the orders in the event of appeals.

Passengers Upset On London-Cork Flight Says Co. Cllr.

Passengers on board a London to Cork flight on Sunday, May 25, were "visibly distressed" after the Aer Lingus pilot was forced to abort two landings in bad weather, Mr. Paddy Kenneally, Curradarra, Aglish, has claimed.

Mr. Kenneally, the F.F. whip on Waterford Co. Council, said: "The mental anguish we went through was unbelievable. The pilot made two attempts to land and failed each time because of the weather conditions."

However, Aer Lingus later said passengers had not been "jeopardised" and said no landing would have been made without the necessary permission.

Flight EI-717 had already been a journey to forget for the 120 passengers, with a three-hour delay at Heathrow, while Aer Lingus waited to see if conditions cleared up at Cork. However, clearance to fly to Shannon was given at 10.55 p.m. Before the aircraft left London the passengers were told that the plane was being diverted to Shannon, but during the flight they were informed that a landing would be attempted at Cork.

CONDITIONS IMPROVED

According to Aer Lingus, the pilot of the plane was informed during the flight that conditions at Cork had improved and he was given permission to land there. "If there was any suggestion that to do this would have been dangerous, the pilot would not have tried to land. Under no circumstances would a landing have been attempted unless sanctions had been given," the spokesman said.

There were very strict guidelines regarding the granting of permission to land in conditions felt to be dangerous.

However, Cllr. Kenneally said that it was felt the pilot had seriously misjudged the conditions when attempting to land. The aircraft landed safely on its third attempt.

Some of the people on the flight remained cool, said Cllr. Kenneally, but others "were visibly upset" by the whole affair.

OPENING OF PRESIDENT REAGAN CENTRE IN BALLYPREEN

A new Visitor Centre at Ballypreen, Co. Tipperary, was officially opened by The Minister of State at the Department of Tourism, Fisheries and Forestry, Mr. Michael Mcynyhan, T.D. last Thursday, May 29.

The new building — to be known as the President Reagan Centre will serve not only as a Tourist, Information Centre but will highlight the contribution which Irish emigrants and their descendants have made to America. It will provide information on the connection between the two countries and will include Memorabilia of President and Mrs. Reagan's visit to the village. It is expected that further items relating to President Reagan will be added to the collection later.

During his visit in 1984, President Reagan unveiled a marble plaque to mark the beginning of work on the Centre commissioned by Bord Fáilte. The site which adjoins the Parochial Hall in the Centre of the village was provided by the people and parish of Ballypreen, Rev. Fr. Eamonn Condon, Very Rev. Fr. John Murphy, P.P., provided the motivating drive behind the project.

A highlight of the official opening was the first showing of a 17 minute video recording the visit of President Reagan to Ballypreen. It was produced by Bord Fáilte from archive material provided by RTE and will be available for showing to visitors to the centre.

HISTORIC TIES

Speaking at the official opening, Mr. Moynihan said that the visit of President Reagan to Ireland celebrated the historic ties between Ireland and the United States of America. There were many happy memories of that visit, he said, but for the people of Ballypreen the highlight must have been the President's address in the village where he declared that there was no place on this planet which he would rather claim as his roots than Ballypreen.

The Centre was designed by Dublin Architects, Brady Shipman & Martin to reflect that architecture of the adjoining Parochial Hall in scale, material and colour. There is one main public space in the building which is divided into two areas one for exhibitions and the other for audio visual presentation.

The Centre was constructed to the drawing and specifications of the design team by a Cashel based contractor, Fahy & Callaghan. The works to the forecourt, the rear yard and the interior of the Parochial Hall were carried out by Tipperary County Council (S.R.) under Government sponsored direct labour schemes.

Know Your Rights

Q.—What is the current position of students with regard to medical cards?

A. — Up to 1st January, 1984, students aged 16 and over were assessed on their own income only and not on that of their parents. In practice this meant that they qualified for medical cards since they had virtually no income. However, since January, 1984, changes have been made which mean that the entitlements of those aged 16 to 25 have been curtailed. The situation now is that students aged between 16 and 25 are generally regarded as dependants of their parents and only qualify for a medical card if their parents qualify for one.

A Health Board may still issue a medical card to a student in cases of hardship. Also, individual cases will be examined by the Health Board where a student claims he is not a dependant of his parents (e.g. someone putting himself/herself through college). Those students who are not entitled to a medical card will not necessarily be in the same health category as their parents. They will have Category II entitlement even if their parents are in Category III. This means that they will qualify for in-patient maintenance and treatment in a public ward and free out-patient services.

(This column has been compiled by Dungarvan Community Information Centre which provides a free and confidential service to the public. Opening times of Centre, which is located in the Courthouse, are: Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays — 7-9 p.m.; Saturdays — 11 a.m. - 1 p.m.)

GREAT SECOND HALF FIGHT BACK JUST FAILS

TIPPERARY 2-7 WATERFORD 2-6

A great second half comeback by Waterford just failed when they were pipped by one point in the final of the first round of the Munster football championship game played at Cappoquin on Wednesday night of last week.

This was the closest that Waterford have come to winning a Munster championship tie this year and their second half endeavours certainly deserved at least a second bite at the cherry.

The strong wind dictated the trend of play. Tipperary had the advantage in the first half and their domination saw them build up a 2-5 to 1-0 interval lead.

Waterford were on top in the second half when the introduction of Eddie O'Grady at full forward brought about a great improvement in their performance.

But while Tipperary added only two points to their tally time eventually ran out for Waterford who just failed to overtake the leaders by the narrowest of margins. Tipperary had good players in Brendan White, Jim McLoughney, Michael Noonan, Kevin Fox and Paul Walsh. Waterford's best players were Eddie O'Grady, Kieran Dunphy, Jack Dunne, Ger O'Brien, Noel Power and Dereck Larkin.

Scorers: Tipperary — K. Barron 1-1, S. Brett 1-0, S. Cronin 0-3, P. Walsh 0-2, W. Guiry 0-1. Waterford — J. Dunne 1-2, E. O'Grady 1-1, J. Kiely, K. Dunphy and M. Hogan 0-1 each. Tipperary — T. Roche, P. McEvitt, J. McLoughney, M. Phelan, B. White, E. O'Meara, M. Holland, D. Hahissey, M. Noonan, K. Fox, J. O'Brien, P. Walsh, S. Cronin, K. Barron, S. Brett. Sub. — W. Guiry for Hahissey.

Waterford — N. Power, N. Hayes, J. Harney, D. Casey, G. O'Brien, D. Larkin, E. O'Mahony, M. Hogan, K. Dunphy, J. Dunne, J. Cummins, D. Dunphy, J. Kiely, P. Kavanagh, T. O'Grady, Subs. — E. O'Grady for Kavanagh; M. Keane for T. O'Grady.

Stolen English Rolls Found In Stradbally

The strange story of how a Rolls Royce car stolen in England in 1984 was found in a field at Stradbally a year later was told at Dungarvan District Court last week when Supt. M. English applied to the Court for an order for the disposal of the vehicle which has been parked at Dungarvan Garda Station since it was discovered.

Garda D. Brennan stated in evidence that on August 4 last he went to Stradbally and found the Rolls Royce in the corner of a field in Englishstown. From inquiries which he subsequently made, he found that the car had been stolen in England in September 1984 and that an insurance claim of £21,500 (sterling) had been paid to the owners to cover the loss later that month.

Mr. E. P. King, Solr. (M/s. J. F. Williams & Co.), said that he represented the insurers of the vehicle, the Commercial Insurance Co., London, and he was now seeking a sequestration order on behalf of his clients. The car had belonged to Colmar Contractors, Oxford at the time it was stolen and the claim for £21,500 had been paid to them by Commercial Insurance. The original owners had since gone into liquidation and the Insurance Company now wanted the vehicle returned to them.

District Justice W. F. O'Connell granting the application said that it was extraordinary that a vehicle such as a Rolls Royce could be stolen in England and brought into this country without arousing any great interest. Supt. English said that those who stole it probably came in with it as tourists.

NEW RULE FOR COUNTY SCAVENGING SERVICE

Arising from a motion proposed by Cllr. J. Fahey, T.D., at a meeting of Waterford County Council in Dungarvan asking whether a review of the scavenging service had taken place, the County Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley stated that after June 1, anyone who wanted to avail of this service must notify the Co. Council that they wished to do so.

"Anyone who wishes to continue the existing service or wanted to have it provided for them must do so," he said, "as the service will be worked on a contractual basis in future and only those who notify the Council will be included."

The Co. Manager said that when all the notifications had been received and dealt with they could then see where they stood in regard to the service and the areas that could be covered.

URBAN COUNCIL LOANS APPROVED

On the proposal of Cllr. B. Kyne seconded by Cllr. D. Goode, Dungarvan Urban Council at their resumed May monthly meeting approved the raising of a loan of £150,000 to defray the balance of the expenditure on the new car park at Davitt's Quay and of a further loan of £150,000 to defray the balance of expenditure on the sports Hall.

The Co. Manager, Mr. D. Hurley explained that both jobs had been completed and it was proposed to transfer the expenditure to capital account and to discharge them over a number of years.

SHEEPBREEDERS WELCOME MINISTER'S DECISION

The Chairman of the IFA National Sheep Committee, Mr. Jim O'Grady, has welcomed the decision of the Minister for Agriculture, Mr. Deasy, T.D., to accede to the IFA request to pay farmers sheep headage payments earlier this year.

The £16.74 Ewe Premium will be payable from June/July and the Disadvantaged Areas Compensatory allowances will be payable in August/September. The Ewe Premium will be worth a total of £33m. and the Disadvantaged Area Headage payments will be worth in excess of £10 million and would help the cash flow problems of farmers this year.

Mr. O'Grady added that the abrupt decline in lamb prices this week is unjustified. He stated that the export lamb factories should be paying farmers in excess of £1.25/lb. carcase weight for Spring lambs as the French market is returning up to £1.30/lb. for Irish lamb.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

SPORTS NIGHT

Last Friday night the Scout Troop were out in St. Augustine's College where sports activities of all sorts took place.

We started off with physical jerks under the control of Brian Mulvihill, and jogging, press-ups, toe tapping, among others, were included in this session. Basketball then started with some of our new lads like Kieran Higgins, Patrick Power and J. P. Cosgrave making a big impression. While this was going on the other groups were kicking penalties, running relay races and doing ball dribbling. At 8.45 p.m. a short football match was played. Alan Ryan, Sean Cartwright and John Whelan were 'fairly bet' at this stage of the night. We finished off with various under age sprint races and the final consisted of three people in an overall play-off. Denis Slattery was our champion on the night. Our thanks to St. Augustine's College for the use of their facilities, scouting in Abbeyside appreciates their help.

ST. JOSEPH'S VENTURERS NOTES

We're back again after a few weeks absence and we apologise to our disappointed readers who missed these notes. Meeting - Anthony took charge of the meeting as Jim the chairman and four others were missing. We had a good long discussion about our forthcoming camp in England. Top of the list was our programme for camp and we plan to do some very interesting things. Canoeing - We had planned to go out to Clonea on Friday evening, but we couldn't, due to circumstances beyond our control. Anyway, next Friday we plan to go canoeing again. Everyone to be at the den at 6.30 p.m. IT'S AN S.L.'S LIFE! There are some Scouters who like a bit of home comforts at camp, rather than 'roughing it' like the youngsters in their chairs.

Take Trevor Stretton, for example, Group Scout Leader of the 1st Little Aston Scout Group in Sutton Coldfield. His camping equipment includes a large, folding bed, complete with huge padded mattress.

Quite naturally, this item of personal kit does attract a few ribald comments from his Troop but it was on last summer's Troop camp that the lads' ingenuity peaked. Unknown to Trevor, the Scouts began a pioneering project to convert it into an impressive four-poster. Trevor was confronted with the sight just as he was about to depart on a canoeing expedition and could therefore not dismantle it. In his absence, a representative of the local District Commissioner visited the site. Who knows what he thought of the S.L.'s sleeping arrangement!

Trevor took it all in good heart, though, and even slept in the elegant construction for the duration of the camp. Far from being upset, he pointed out that he was the only camper not to be troubled by mosquitoes at night! Hope Joe doesn't get any ideas!

GENERAL

Last week-end was a quiet one at the Den as all the Leaders were away. Ray and Austin were in Melleray doing a Woodbadge Course and all the others were in Wexford examining at a Scout Competition. With camp only a short time away we hope to tell you more about the Chalfont Heights Camp Site in the near future.

Cork Are Favourites But Waterford Will Run Them Close

WATERFORD V. CORK S.H.

It is disappointing to find that the team to represent Waterford against Cork in the Munster senior hurling semi-final at Pairc Uí Caoimh on Sunday next has not been selected at the time of writing. I understand that it was due to be selected last night (Tuesday). If it is available before going to press it will appear somewhere in the issue.

Stephen Breen who sustained a broken finger in a practice game is definitely out. He partnered Barry Power at centre-field in the game against Limerick in the first round at Pairc Uí Caoimh last year and was named as one of our best in that match. Damien Byrne who figured very prominently also in that match at centre forward is also out as he has since emigrated. Ten of the remaining thirteen are included on the recently published panel and are available for selection. Three of last year's side are available but are not considered.

In view of the policy of change in our recent games — no doubt due to the need to experiment — it is not easy to speculate on the possible lineup for Sunday's game. However, it does not seem likely that county under 21 goalkeeper Pat Curran will take over from John Power who is gone from the panel.

Rumours that John Galvin had decided to call it a day were scotched last week when the portlaw veteran turned in a splendid game in a match against Wexford. The availability of Liam O'Connor, who recently found employment at home and cancelled his emigration plans could change the defence plan and he could occupy the centre-half-back position between Railway Cup player David Foran and possibly Pat Ryan who seems to be returning to form. This would leave Michael Beecher available for a corner back berth and Seamus Daily likely occupying the other corner.

Barry Power and Shane Ahearn may be named as midfield partners. Power is in top form at club level at the moment and Shane Ahearn who resumed after an injury and who has played at centrefield in two league games was moved out from attack last year and played well here in last Limerick. It's a bit more difficult to speculate on how the available forwards will be placed. We seldom place them in the same position for all games and in the case of the forwards there will be a big number available. Pat McGrath is back in training and is playing well for Cnoc Sion. Newcomer Anthony Waters (Passage) is being talked a lot about as his clubmate Pat Connors.

Del Kirwan of Clonea is also back on the panel and then we have the regulars like Michael Ronayne, Michael and Mossy Walsh, Pat Bennett and Kevin Ryan.

Cork who have trounced us at neutral venues in two Munster finals in '83 and '84 have had their recent problems too, but now these appear to have been cleared up and team coach Johnnie Clifford spoke very confidently about his charges prospects after seeing players like Barry Murphy, John Fenton, Ger Cunningham, Kevin Hennessy, Ger Fitzgerald, Pat Harnett and a couple of other county players perform in the Middleton v. St. Finbarr's senior championship tie on Sunday.

I was told by a Corkman, who is very much in touch with the county team in Cork on Monday that the Munster champions intend to make no mistake this year and will go the full distance. The same fellow was arrogant enough to tell me that Cork would have no problem in beating Clare or Tipperary in the Munster final. This attitude very likely epitomises the feeling throughout Cork about the outcome of next Sunday's Munster semi-final clash.

They have hammered us in our last two meetings at neutral venues. They are the reigning Munster champions and the surprise of Division 3 of the hurling league. So on the face of things we cannot be given a great chance of beating Cork at home.

AT DUNGARVAN

Ballinameela who are the current junior county champions will attempt to emulate the feat of Colligan last year by winning a higher grade championship. They were beaten by Stradbally and have no further interest in football and can now concentrate on hurling. If they win this one they will be a threat to all others. Their chances of winning this one are not great as Fourmlewater have been concentrating more on hurling than on football. Recently at Ballymac they won the Newcastle tournament in good style and would appear to be in strong contention for the intermediate title now. Having lost in football on Sunday evening they too have no further interest in adult football.

ABBEYSIDE V. ST. MARY'S

It is unfortunate for St. Mary's that their outstanding midfielder, Declan Fitzpatrick, is currently out of bounds and will not be available for Saturday's clash with Abbeyside in the second intermediate game of the weekend. This game at Cappoquin, could still go either way, but Abbeyside must now be in with a very good chance and under the management of former Shamrocks star, John Foley, the side could make a good impact this year in the hurling championship.

JUNIOR HURLING GAMES

Of the four matches listed the clash between Gler Rovers (Mellery) and neighbours Modeligo at Lismore, may prove the most attractive, since both are doing very well up to now. Modeligo have made consistent progress and improvement and may prove the stronger side. I have a feeling that they will win, but it will be no surprise if the Mellery based team continue on their winning way.

AT OLD PARISH

Here there will be very little between Ardmore and An Rinn. There have been better days in hurling in the past. The clash with Ardmore's display against Kilgobinet two weeks ago, so An Rinn might just about make it.

AT LEAMYBRIEN

Unless there is a surprise here, Faha will suffer their third defeat on the trot after they have played the Briceys in their third round hurling tie. Despite all their efforts, Faha, it seems are going to lose all their hurling games and are destined to end up at the bottom of the table.

AT STRADBALLY

Neither Eire Og or Kilrossanty are likely to be in contention for the closing stages, but this is unlikely to moderate their determination and eagerness to win when they clash here on Saturday evening. Kilrossanty, if they can recover the good form that they showed in the early part of last season, can take the points.

WATERFORD V. LIMERICK

Although the panel of junior players was assembled rather hurriedly, the county selectors are more than a little optimistic about their prospects for their match with Limerick at Kilmallock on Tuesday night. Wednesday in the Munster semi-final of the junior hurling championship.

On Tuesday night last a junior selection played the county seniors at Dungarvan and I thought that the performance of the challengers was very encouraging. The juniors went about their business in a serious way and all seemed anxious to impress. Even the selectors were surprised that such a big number turned up for the game and at short notice. The team has not been named up to the time of writing (Tuesday morning).

COUNTY BOARD MEETING

The draws for the second round of the senior football championship, will be the important item on the agenda of the Monday night's monthly meeting of the Senior Board at Dungarvan.

Also there will be a draw for three prizes of £100, confined to promoters in the recent county development draw. The names of the new Clisde na Peil will be announced and since by Monday our fate in all eight Munster hurling games will be known, there could be some discussion on team management for next season.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The offer of 50 scholarships for a week in the Gaeltacht in August, did not appear to be as many as was expected and only about half that number turned up for interview last week. This situation is likely to force the County Board to re-examine the whole matter of this annual offer of scholarships.

SURPRISE WALK-OVER

Tallow's rather sudden decision to withdraw from the intermediate hurling championship and concede a walk-over to Ballinacourty on Saturday came as a big disappointment. It must be unique in the history of Waterford senior club football.

The game was fixed for Ardmore and it was mid-afternoon when Tallow discovered that a big number of their players would not be available and then had no option but to notify the County Board.

Naturally, Ballinacourty who had undergone a lot of preparation, were upset by the decision and Ardmore, who were hosting their first senior tie, were very disappointed. It was a big disappointment for Tallow club also and nobody will feel happy that one of our great clubs now find themselves in this situation. I expect that the matter will be discussed at County Board on Monday night.

This year a record number of clubs have conceded a walk-over and the whole matter is now serious enough to warrant full examination. Certainly club structures need to be looked at in this as well as most other counties, but most of all I believe that affiliations should be scrutinised before they are accepted. I am not referring to the Tallow case but there were half a dozen others including minor, junior and under 21.

HANDBALL NEWS

At Kilgobinet on Wednesday last our novice pair, C. Phelan and T. O'Mahony were surprisingly beaten two games to one by Limerick. Having played very good handball in the first game they became a bit overconfident and lost the next two games.

The news from Ballymacelligott, Co. Kerry was better when our novice 'B' pair, M. Sandford and S. Connolly beat Kerry's Noel Cronin and Tom Lynch. The Kilgobinet players went down in the first game but came back with a very gutsy display in the second and third games to win the match deservedly. We congratulate both on a great display and with a bit of improvement we know that they can make their mark in the game by winning a Munster championship.

Our Masters' representative, Deacy Mulcahy played very well against M. Kerrins who is the multi All-Ireland champion, but he was beaten by two games to nil.

Our Novice 'B' singles representative, J. Mansfield was also beaten but again he did us credit by giving Kerry's Eddie Stack a great challenge. He lost two games to one. Only four aces stood between Mansfield and a shock win.

On Saturday night next Kilgobinet will go into the field against Limerick at Kilgobinet. Best of luck to them.

RESULTS

Waterford junior footballers gave a very spirited display against Tipperary in the junior football championship at Cappoquin on Wednesday night last and it was real hard luck that we did not win. At least the points in this very enjoyable game. The team had done practically no preparation and this makes their display all the more meritorious. We lost by a point.

SENIOR CLUB GAMES

One thing that must be very clear from Sunday's round of games is that there are no certainties in this wide open senior football championship.

I didn't see the Kilrossanty/Tramore game which had been listed as the match of the day but I understand from a colleague that the standard was not anything wonderful, but that the game was enjoyable because it was close and keenly contested. Tramore might have won if they had taken their chances and Kilrossanty would have won by a bigger score than two points if their forwards had been able to kick the ball straight. It did nothing to convince supporters that the Comeragh team are sure of keeping their title.

Last year in the first round of the senior football championship, Ferrybank scored six points and Clashmore scored nine points. Both lost. Last Sunday Ferrybank again scored six points and lost, but the nine points scored by Clashmore was enough because Ferrybank were the opponents. The eastern team were short several players including Stephen Breen, while one or two Clashmore regulars were also not available. This wasn't a great game by any standards and Clashmore will need to improve a lot to stay in contention.

Stradbally were the best of the six teams that I saw in action but if Ballinameela hadn't let their challenge too late, they could have been caught. As it was Stradbally were under pressure at the finish. It was being said last week that Stradbally had too many veterans on board but the displays of Martin Coffey and Robin Ahearne certainly belied their ages.

Ballinameela were short one or two, whom they say could have made the difference. They always seem to go just so close. It's a pity to see a side with so many fine players gone from the scene at such an early stage.

Dungarvan who were forced to field without a number of their regulars did themselves credit in their first senior test when holding favourites Rathgormack to a draw at Leamybrien. In fact were it not for an own goal, the intermediate champions could have won. As it was this very young side gave a very good display and were in no way overawed by the big occasion. The experience will help them considerably in the replay which is due to take place in two weeks time.

The Nire flattered very much in the first half and with a bit more accuracy might have been further than two points in front at the half-way stage. In the second half, Butlerstown came back with a vengeance and took complete control running out deserving winners by double scores.

There were no great surprises in the divisional games but a few of the favourites did expect to have matters much easier.

Kilgobinet were one of these and were almost driven to panic in the closing stages when Tourin set about reducing their 14 points lead down to 5. There was never any question of Tourin being as good as Kilgobinet as they were well outplayed in nearly every sector. Some brilliant saves by Ollie Wilkinson in goal stopped the winners from running riot in the first half.

Shamrocks are a good intermediate side and fully deserved their win against the Bricey Rangers in an exciting tie at Cappoquin. This was a well contested tie, but the fitter Shamrocks survived.

There was a little surprise in the result of the Slabh gCua v. Ardmore game as many had expected that the regraded Ardmore side would lead the way through this competition. Not only did Slabh gCua win, but they did so with only fourteen men after Declan Fitzpatrick had been dismissed by referee John Kelly in the first half.

Wins for Modeligo and Glen Rovers had been predicted and the winning scores in both cases reveal the measure of their superiority.

DESERVING WIN FOR STRADBALLY

STRADBALLY 2-8; BALLINAMEELA 2-5

Stradbally qualified for the quarter-finals of the senior football championship when they scored a deserving win over Ballinameela in an exciting first round clash played at Dungarvan on Sunday last. Indeed Stradbally looked to be strolling to an easy win at times against a Ballinameela side which blew hot and cold over the hour.

Ballinameela's form was totally erratic and at times they looked no better than a mediocre junior team. But then they suddenly found their rhythm and in the end Stradbally had a bit of a fight on their hands to survive. Stradbally had a brilliant opening and goal through Liam O'Brien in the 5th minute following a Pat Curran point from a 45' in the second minute. They tacked on two more points before Jim O'Brien pointed for Ballinameela in the 17th minute and were 1-5 to 0-3 ahead at the break.

- Scorers — Stradbally: L. O'Brien 1-3, N. Weldon 1-2, P. Curran, E. O'Brien and T. Mulhoney 0-1 each; Ballinameela—M. Walsh 1-4, D. Connors 1-0, J. O'Brien 0-1.
Stradbally — K. Heffernan; C. O'Brien, R. Ahearn, D. Kirwan; M. O'Brien, M. Coffey, E. O'Brien; J. Keane, P. Mulhane; P. Curran, E. O'Brien, L. O'Brien; S. Ahearne, A. Curran, N. Weldon.

LIVESTOCK GRANT SCHEMES 1986

DISADVANTAGED AREAS ONLY

The Disadvantaged Areas for 1986 livestock grant purposes include the additional areas newly designated or reclassified as More Severely or Less Severely Handicapped following the review completed last year. In each of the 22 counties affected by the review, comprehensive lists will be published next week of District Electoral Divisions and Townlands in which the 1986 Disadvantaged Areas Schemes will apply. Farmers are eligible to participate in these schemes if they occupy and farm at least 7/2 statute acres in the relevant areas, if their off-farm income combined with that of their spouses did not exceed £6,400 in the income tax year ended 5 April 1986 and if they undertake to continue farming in the relevant areas for at least five years.

1. 1986 Sheep Headage Scheme in Disadvantaged Areas

Applications have already been posted to all flockowners who previously applied for sheep headage or ewe premium. Any flockowner in the extended areas who has not received an application form should immediately request one from the local office of the Department. Payments of grants under this Scheme will be made to eligible applicants in the More Severely Handicapped Areas, the Less Severely Handicapped Areas and the Areas designated as Disadvantaged for Sheep Headage purposes only.

£9.50 will be paid on the first 150 eligible ewes and £6.50 on the next 50 and the maximum payment per flockowners will be £1,750.

2. Cattle and Equine Headage Scheme in Most Severely Handicapped Areas

Under the Cattle and Equine Headage Scheme in More Severely Handicapped Areas the rates of payment on beef cows are being increased this year from £32 to £70 on the first 8 beef cows and from £28 to £66 on the next 22. As a result, the maximum payable under the Cattle and Equine Headage Scheme rises from the £872 applicable last year to £2,012 in 1986. The rates of payment on livestock units other than beef cows or dairy cows remain the same as in 1985—i.e. £32 on the first 8 livestock units and £28 on the next 22. The rate of payment on a dairy cow is increased from the £25.60 applicable last year to £32, subject to a maximum of 10 dairy cows. This year for the first time registered Connemara Pony breeding mares can qualify for the £32 and £28 rates of payment.

Farmers in these Areas may claim on both beef cows and other livestock units subject to an overall limit of 30 livestock units and to beef cows being counted first.

3. Beef Cow Scheme in Less Severely Handicapped Areas

In these Areas the rates of payment on beef cows are being increased also from £32 to £70 on the first 8 beef cows and from £28 to £66 on the next 20. As a result, the maximum payable rises from the £824 applicable in 1985 to £1,880 this year.

ALL AREAS OF THE COUNTRY

4. EEC Scheme of Premiums for Maintaining Suckler Cows

Farmers may participate in this Scheme if they own suckler herds for breeding beef calves and if they earn at least 50% of their total income from farming and spend more than 50% of their working time on farming activities. The rate of payment per suckler cow is £27.04 as compared to £26.25 in 1985.

5. EEC Calf Premium Scheme

Farmers with calves born between 16 June 1985 and 15 June 1986 may apply for premium. Each calf must: (a) have been born in the State; (b) have been ear-tagged and recorded in a Calf register by the breeder and given a Certificate of Birth by him if subsequently sold; (c) be alive at six months of age in the State. Farmers must produce at inspection properly completed Calf Registers in respect of calves born between 16 June 1985 and 15 June 1986 and also Certificate of Birth in the case of bought-in calves. The rate of payment is £6.75 for calves born between 16 June 1985 and 11 November 1985 and £6.95 for calves born after 11 November 1985 and is payable in each case after the calf has reached six months of age.

COMPOSITE APPLICATION FORMS

COMPOSITE APPLICATION FORMS FOR ALL SCHEMES EXCEPT (1) ABOVE ARE BEING POSTED TO HERDOWNERS AT PRESENT. INTENDING APPLICANTS UNDER ANY OF THESE FOUR SCHEMES WHO DO NOT RECEIVE A FORM BEFORE 13 JUNE 1986 SHOULD REQUEST ONE IMMEDIATELY FROM THE LOCAL OFFICE OF THE DEPARTMENT. HERDOWNERS ARE REMINDED THAT THE LATEST DATE FOR RECEIPT OF COMPLETED APPLICATIONS FOR THE FOUR SCHEMES IS 23 JUNE 1986. Applicants who are ineligible for the Disadvantaged Areas Scheme may nevertheless complete forms in respect of the Suckler Cow and/or Calf Premium Scheme(s) if eligible for one or both of these. Applications under each scheme will be subject to the detailed terms and conditions of the Scheme. Applications received after the stated closing date of 23 June 1986 will not be considered.

Issued by the Department of Agriculture

Over last week-end Mr. J. Mansfield's Captain's Prize was held and won, from a very large field, by Tom Booth with a two-day total of 129, the lowest ever recorded in a Captain's Prize. The overall scoring on the second day was one of the lowest recorded with P. J. Killigrew and Bill Power putting pressure all the way on the eventual winner. The presentation of prizes and dance on Sunday night drew a large attendance and a very enjoyable evening was had by all. Next week-end the Lady Captain's Prize is being held and we wish the Lady Captain and all competitors every success.

Lone Woman Living In Fear Of Break-Ins

An elderly woman living alone in a country area spoke up from the body of the court during the hearing of a case at Dungarvan Court last week and told the District Justice that she was living in fear of the next time her home would be broken into.

Before the court were two young defendants, Thomas Kieley (20), Mount Odell, Dungarvan and John Kenry (17) with an address at 38, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan who both pleaded guilty to charges that on May 23 at Modeligo they entered as trespassers the shop of Mrs. M. Bannon and stole £75 cash and caused malicious damage to the extent of £98 to a window. In addition Kenry pleaded guilty to further charges that on April 15 he stole a gas cylinder value £13.50 the property of M. Moloney's, Hardware, Bridge Street and on April 22 at Cloneyville Villas he received 800 cigarettes value £70 the property of Tony Bones, Centre Store, Cloneyville. A charge of entering the store of Tony Bones and stealing cigarettes and sweets to a total value of £2,600 was struck out.

Mr. E. P. King (J. P. Williams & Co.) was for Kieley and Mr. J. P. Gordon, Solr. for Kenry applied for and was granted free legal aid for his client.

Supt. M. English who prosecuted stated that Mrs. Bannon lived alone and on the night of May 23 she was in bed. She heard noise and got up and came downstairs. She saw 3 men and was afraid she was going to be attacked but they ran away out the back gate. She recognised one of them as Kenry and shouted after him but the three only jeered back at her. She contacted the gardai and a search was made and the 2 defendants were found in a nearby house.

When searched a sum of £51 odd was found on them. In regard to the gas cylinder, the Supt. said that at 6.10 a.m. on April 15 an off-duty garda saw Kenry going across the Square with the cylinder. The garda stopped and asked Kenry what he was doing. The latter admitted that he had stolen the cylinder and said that he would sell it to anyone who would buy it.

On the other charge, Supt. English said that Kenry and others not before the court broke into the store of Tony Bones and stole a large quantity of cigarettes and sweets. Kenry was charged with receiving some of the cigarettes. The Supt. added that lately Kenry was creating a bit of a town.

Mr. King pointed out that no attack had been made on Mrs. Bannon nor had there ever been any intention of molesting her. A large amount of the money taken had been recovered.

Garda J. Twomey in reply to questions by Mr. King said that Kieley lived with his sister as both his parents were dead. He understood there were plans for him to go to Canada and if this happened it would be better than sending him to detention.

Mr. Gordon said that Kenry was one of a very large family

NEW LIVESTOCK GRANT SCHEMES ANNOUNCED BY DEASY

The Minister for Agriculture, Mr. Austin Deasy, recently announced arrangements for four livestock grant schemes worth over £70m. to Irish farmers. Two of these schemes, viz. the EEC Suckler Cow and EEC Calf Premium schemes, are open to farmers in all parts of the country. The two remaining schemes, viz., the Cattle and Equine Headage and Beef Cow schemes are confined to farmers in the Disadvantaged Areas.

IMPROVEMENTS IN SCHEMES
The Minister stated that substantial improvements which will provide an extra £20m. in a full year, had been made in the 1985 Disadvantaged Areas schemes. These included provisions for the extension and reclassification of the Disadvantaged Areas, the increase in beef cow payment rate from £32 to £70, the inclusion of Connemara Ponies and the 25% increase in the payment rate on dairy cows from £25.60 to £32. Mr. Deasy added that he hoped these improvements, coupled with the continuation of the Suckler Cow and Calf Premium schemes at slightly increased rates of payment, would encourage all farmers, particularly their cattle numbers this year.

which lived a short distance from Mrs. Bannon's shop in Modeligo. Due to difficulties at home the defendant was not now living there but had moved into Dungarvan.

Det. Gda. J. Molloy said that the defendant's father was dead for a number of years and he now lived at Cathal Brugha Place where the environment was not the best. He said that the gas cylinder had been returned to Moloney's.

VERY DISTRESSING

District Justice W. F. O'Connell said that breaking into a house in a rural area must be very distressing and upsetting especially for a woman living alone. He was not sure that sending the defendant, Kieley, to prison was the proper answer to the problem and thought it might be better if he were sent to community service. He therefore adjourned the case until June 25 and requested a report from the Court Welfare Officer as to whether Kieley would be suitable for community service. If it was found he was not, then he would serve 6 months detention. In addition the defendant must pay his share of the balance of £58 due as compensation.

In the case of Kenry, the District Justice said that it would be better in his own interest and in the interests of the community that he be disciplined as the environment he was in was apparently not good.

CHANGE OF OWNERS FOR BOHADOON LICENSED PREMISES

On the application of Mr. J. P. Gordon, Solr., at Dungarvan Court, District Justice W. F. O'Connell granted an advertisement transfer of the licence held by Mr. Pat Meade in respect of the licensed premises at Bohadoon to Mr. Matthew Queally, Bohadoon. Mr. Gordon told the Court that Mr. Queally had purchased the premises from Mr. Meade but had not so far occupied it. Supt. M. English said that to the knowledge of the garda, objection

BOVINE T.B. TESTING

The Committee agreed a resolution expressing their disapproval of the testing of herds for Bovine T.B., due to restriction of finance. The Committee felt that a pause now in testing would allow an increase in incidence of this disease just when it would appear that recent breakdowns in the country were being got under control.

THIS WEEK ACOT CO. WATERFORD SAYS

GRASSLAND
Top pastures (3") and continue to spread nitrogen after each grazing. If sulphur has not been spread on grazing ground this season use 20 units sulphur / acre, when spreading the nitrogen e.g. 1 1/2 bags ASN (26% N) or 1 bag Sulphate of Ammonia (21% N).

SILAGE
(i) Use 20 units of Sulphur / acre when fertilising land for silage from June onwards.
(ii) Use additives at recommended rates when cutting leaty or wet grass or in very dull conditions.
(iii) Check and tighten plastic coverings on silage pits and clamps.

HAY
If you were depending on hay in 1985, consider making some or all (if possible) of your winter feed as silage in 1986.

FOR HOUSEHOLD EXPENDITURE
Estimate your cost of living for the year and also your likely income.

Set spending targets within the likely available household income. Record your expenditure for a period of 4 weeks. Re-adjust your spending if necessary to aim at keeping spending and income in line.

DUMPING OF BLOOD AND OFFAL IN RIVERS CONDEMNED

County Waterford Animal Health Committee at its recent meeting were unanimous in their condemnation of the dumping of blood and offal from slaughtering premises in rivers and streams. When the members heard that there have been instances where such material has been transported by lorry a distance from premises and dumped into streams, they expressed the hope that where those responsible for such behaviour were discovered, they should be treated with the full rigour of the law.

ACOT warns on danger of another fodder crisis

The ACOT Director, Dr. Liam Downey, has warned that farmers are facing another winter feed crisis unless definite preventative action is taken immediately. Following the most difficult and most expensive 12 months in living memory, grass growth and winter feed programmes are way behind normal on the farms. While all areas are affected, the problems are most acute in the difficult and wetter farming areas, especially the 12 counties in the West and North West.

Dr. Downey said that even with good weather for the remainder of the summer, these farmers are facing a repeat of the 1985 fodder crisis unless they take action now. The ACOT Director said that even on the less affected dairy farms, the loss through increased costs and lower production was about £70 per cow during the past six months. On the worst affected farms, the loss has been at least £150 per cow, or a drop of £3,000 in income to a dairy farmer with 20 cows.

On drystock farms, where margins are already low, many farmers are now in a position where they have made no income this year and any income made for the remainder of the year, will go to meet increased feed costs already incurred.

"Many of these farmers will have difficulty in recovering from the effects of the past year. However, unless they take action now their problems will be compounded," said Dr. Downey.

ACOT is now urging farmers to accurately assess their grass production and fodder needs. Through proper fertiliser use, animals can be grazed on fewer acres thereby releasing more land for winter feed. The adoption of this strategy will result in better utilisation of grass, better animal performance and more winter feed.

DOUBTFUL PROPOSITION
Dr. Downey said there must be no question of fodder being

POLLING DAY FOR DIVORCE REFERENDUM

Mr. John Boland, T.D., Minister for the Environment, has today made an order appointing Thursday, 26th June, 1986, to be the polling day at the referendum to be held on the proposal for the amendment of the Constitution contained in the Tenth Amendment of the Constitution Bill, 1986. Polling will take place between the hours of 9 a.m. and 10 p.m.

The Minister has appointed Mr. T. Sexton, a Principal Officer in his Department, to be the referendum returning officer for the purpose of the referendum. A statement indicating the subject matter of the referendum will be printed on the polling cards to be sent to each elector and on posters which will be displayed at all polling stations.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

The picture in our "Remembering Other Days" series this week recalls what a real sit-down supper was in the good old days of "all-night dances." The occasion, as far as we can gather, was a Macra na Feirme Dance at the CSM Ballroom, Cloneya with the supper held in the adjoining Ocean View Hotel probably in the mid-50's. The group includes most of the prominent young farmers of the time in the Dungarvan area while some of their wives sat by the sumptuously laden table. The photo is another from the collection of Tom Tobin.

FALL IN WORLD GRAIN OUTPUT EXPECTED

According to the Food and Agriculture Organisation of the United Nations there could be a drop of 2 per cent in world output of grain this year but, in spite of that, there will be a rise of 20 per cent in stocks in storage. The stocks in the USA are expected to double and reach a record 197 million tonnes, which is almost 44 per cent of the forecast world stocks of 377 million tonnes of grain.

It is well to keep these figures in mind when discussing the recent changes in the cereal regime in the European Community, the arguments between the USA and the Community about world trade in cereals, and the possibility of extra grain being required in the Soviet Union as a result of the Chernobyl disaster.

While that sad accident will have a fairly large effect on the output of cereals from the Kiev region, in a world context the reduction in output is very small, and the significance of the accident for the Community and its agricultural policy is that it justifies the carrying of sufficient stocks of grain to ensure that there would be no shortage in the event of a similar accident nearer to home. There is certainly no shortage of grain at present, to make up any deficit in the Soviet Union.

It is also well to recognise that the USA is under very great pressure to dispose of grain stocks and it is present fighting very hard to maintain or even increase exports to the Community while at the same time providing maximum protection for its own growers.

That brings us back to the situation in Ireland. Under the new price package agreement, the 1985/87 cereal year will start on July 1 and intervention buying can start in Spain, Portugal, Italy and Greece on August 1, but with delayed payment for the first two months.

In Ireland, intervention will apply from October 1 to April 30, but it will be available in September with delayed payment which, according to the Cereals Association of Ireland, will probably mean 120 days wait instead of 90 days.

The price for July is down by 5 per cent, but, allowing for the devaluation of our green currency, that is 3.6 per cent here, and the monthly increment is reduced from £21,928 a tonne last year to £18,641 a tonne for this season.

There are also price adjustments for quality of grain this year which are understandable in the light of the figures I have given for the stocks of feed grain, coupled with a fall in bread wheat production. There will be a reduction in the permissible moisture content of the grain from 15 per cent to

MOTORIST FINED AND BANNED

John McGrath, Faha, Ring, was fined £50, banned from driving for 12 months and had his licence endorsed when he pleaded guilty at Dungarvan Court to a charge of driving with excess alcohol at Youghal Road, Dungarvan on January 26.

Supt. M. English who prosecuted stated that the defendant was stopped at Youghal Road on the occasion and taken to the Garda Station where a blood sample was taken. On subsequent analysis this showed a blood alcohol concentration of 238 mgms. There was no previous conviction.

Mr. J. P. Gordon, Solr., who appeared said that the defendant was aged 46, single and a joinery worker. He met a few friends on the occasion and had a few more drinks than he should have had and made the first driving mistake at 46. The loss of his driving licence would be a severe penalty.

District Justice W. F. O'Connell said that the concentration was very high and remarked "one would imagine the defendant would have more sense at his age."

SUGAR CURES BOVINE MASTITIS

Bovine Mastitis has been successfully treated by a group of Argentinian Veterinary Surgeons using ordinary household granulated sugar. Details of the success were published in a scientific paper by the Argentinian Group.

The research paper shows how a cow severely infected by Bovine Mastitis has healed within 48 hours after two solutions containing sugar were administered through the infected nipple. The two solutions each contained just 205g of sugar and 100cc of water.

This marks a major breakthrough in the treatment of Bovine Mastitis. The current use of antibiotics for this disease has proven unsatisfactory since antibiotics have been later detected in the consumers milk which can result in humans developing resistances to treatment for infections. At present it has been estimated that over 90% of antibiotics administered to Irish cattle are for mastitis.

ONLY UNIVERSAL ANTISEPTIC

The first known record of use of granulated sugar for the treatment of wounds dates from 170 B.C. Scientific research into the healing properties of sugar for the treatment of animals began in Argentina in 1982. A research team led by Professor Hertzog achieved a 100% success rate when treating cold and warm blooded animal infections with sugar. This success led the researchers to conclude that concentrated sugar solutions "are the only universal antiseptic known to date".

The successful use of sugar as a low-cost treatment to prevent the growth of micro-organisms has led the Argentinian group to begin research on other diseases such as Trichomoniasis. The conclusions of this research will be published shortly.

SHAMROCKS 2-8 BRICKLEY RANGERS 2-4

The first round of the intermediate championship took place on Sunday last in Cappoquin with the lads getting on top in the closing stages to win by 4 points. The game showed good team effort and with some more hard training sessions this team could do very well in the championship.

ROAD REPAIRS AT DUNGARVAN HOUSING ESTATES

At the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council, Cllr. B. Kyrne asked who was responsible for the repair of roads servicing the Hillview Drive and Comeragh Crescent Housing estates. He pointed out that the residents of both estates had made big investments in purchasing houses for themselves and the position now was that due to extra development the roads were in poor condition, causing a great deal of inconvenience to the residents. Cllr. Kyrne said he would like to know how long the roads there were to be allowed in this bad condition. Mr. Tom Mulcahy, Town Engineer said that there was little point in repairing the roads until the heavy traffic through the estates had stopped. When the County Manager, Mr. D. Hurley said that they would review this matter at the end of October. Cllr. Kyrne agreed to defer his motion on that understanding.

N.A.T.O. PICKET AT DUNGARVAN COURTHOUSE

A large picket was mounted by the Dungarvan District Branch of N.A.T.O. (National Association of Tenants Organisations) outside Dungarvan Courthouse last week while the Court was in session throughout the morning and afternoon. They were protesting against the action of Dungarvan Urban Council in taking Court action against defaulters in respect of unpaid water service charges. At the court, judgment was entered against about 70 defaulters for sums of £25 and £50 in respect of the unpaid charges. All the summonses were undefended.

Later a lengthy statement was issued by the Branch criticising the Council for their failure to criminalise those refusing to pay a tax on essential services especially as those services are already adequately paid for by the taxpayers. The protest passed off without incident.

KNOCKANORE, GLENDINE, KILWATERMOY NOTES

SUPPORT NEEDED FOR HORTICULTURE

Despite surpluses of many agricultural products there are still opportunities for expansion in some sectors of horticulture, such as late season strawberries, carrot production for the May/June period, broccoli for December/January and more mushrooms for export. This was stated by Dr. David W. Robinson, Head of the Agricultural Institute's Kinsealy Research Centre, Dublin, when speaking at the National Conference on Fruit and Vegetable Production in Clowry last week.

However, he warned, a continuing high level of research support will be essential if the horticultural industry in Ireland is to achieve its potential. Research back-up is required not only to solve short-term problems but also to explore fully the possibilities arising from changing consumer demands and scientific advances in new fields such as biotechnology and electronics.

Because of the small size of the home market a significant industry will only develop in Ireland if export markets can be won. However, it will only be possible to export on a sound basis when the industry is sufficiently well organised to compete effectively on the home market. Dr. Robinson said.

SUCCESSFUL SYSTEMS

New production methods based on polythene bags and plastic growing houses enable the present successful system of satellite growing to be developed.

Dr. Robinson also showed how the soft fruit industry had been aided by developments in improved methods of pest, disease and weed control, and the vegetable industry by the identification of suitable varieties and methods of extending the normal cropping season.

"No industry can stand still," Dr. Robinson said. "As consumers increasingly seek higher standards of food quality, purity and freshness, fruit and vegetables grown in Ireland need to be more carefully prepared for market, presented more attractively and promoted more vigorously," he stressed. He added that advances in new forms of processing and modified atmosphere packaging will also have a profound effect on the fruit and vegetable industries.

LUCKY WIN

Congratulations to Patsy Heaphy, Barrack Street, who won £1,000 in the Fermoyle Rugby Club draw.

On the other hand the young lads were never able to match the strong Ballymacbray side in the final and were beaten 4-1 James Tobin had a consolation goal but the young lads had an enjoyable day out and even played a game of cricket between soccer matches.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.

Junior Hurlers Vm Gortree Tournament - The minute local referee Tommy Geary set the hurlers of Killeagh and St. Catherine's in motion it was evident it was going to be a thrilling game. Evenly matched and with no quarter given, the game developed into a spirited encounter as it progressed.

Both sides had early wides but then points from Sean Buckley and John Sice put the Saints ahead. Killeagh were quickly back on the trail and a major score followed by a point gave them the lead and they were two points in front at halftime.

Killeagh went further ahead in the second half and a four point lead going into the last quarter kept the pressure on the Saints. Pat Murphy, Mike Mangnan and Pat Lane relieved the tension and Joe Hartnett and John D. Cotter sent over a couple of points in succession. Still keeping up the pressure, Matt Harpur crossed to Sean Buckley who scored a point and another cross from John Cotter doubled on by John Hennessy ended up in the net. Both were then exchanged by both teams and in a goal netting quarter led going into the last, they well on the way to victory. Joe Hartnett from a free sealed the issue with a final point and a great effort in the end by Killeagh was averted by Edward Sheehan to leave Catholic winners after a most exciting game.

Team - P. Murphy, B. Neville, P. Lane, R. Carr, E. Sheehan, M. Mangnan, J. McCarthy, S. Buckley, J. Hartnett, D. Buckley, J. Sice, M. Harpur, C. Barry, J. D. Cotter, T. Noonan. Subs. - John Hennessy, Paddy Ahern.

BALLYSAGGART NOTES

THE LATE MICK MOORE

The death occurred in Lismore Hospital on Tuesday last of Mick Moore, Seamuscadda, who was in his seventies, was a very quiet, unassuming member of the community who will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

SYMPATHY

We extend our sympathy to Bill Kennefick and Tommy Nugent on the recent death of their aunt, Mrs. Minnie Nugent.

CLASHMORE

Clashmore who will need to show considerable improvement had the final point from John Duris in the 59th minute to record a deserving if unimpressive win.

BEHIND THE SPOTLIGHT

Mr. Boland said the view that litter was an endemic feature of the Irish landscape was simply not acceptable, coming from local authorities. For the special week in July, he would be asking them to submit plans to remove areas of consistent dumping, clear away wrecked cars and debris and clean up polluted rivers.

Some local authorities had made a genuine effort to implement the Act, but the majority had been "dilatory in the extreme." Accordingly, he had decided to designate the first week of July as "Clean Up Ireland Week" and he would be asking the councils to take positive action to eliminate litter.

Here in Co. Waterford a sum of £353,500 was included in this year's estimates as the cost of Environmental Protection which includes the provision, operation and equipping of dumps, the collection of domestic refuse and litter control throughout the county while in the Dungarvan Urban area the cost of providing the same services for the year was estimated at £128,976. That amounts to a total of roughly half a million pounds.

LADIES GOLF NOTES (DUNGARVAN)

LADY CAPTAIN'S PRIZE AT WEEK-END

Next week-end (Saturday and Sunday, June 7 and 8) is the highlight of the season for the ladies as the Captain, Cas Doherty's prize is to be played for. This will be a two-day event, with play all day Saturday and from 2.30 p.m. on Sunday.

However, despite all this expenditure and the best efforts of the Local Authorities concerned—the County and Urban Councils—there is still a proliferation of litter, especially in the Urban. The fault does not lie with the Councils but with the public in general and the total indifference which is shown to this litter problem. In other words when we are described as being dirty and are accordingly criticised we have no one to blame but ourselves.

In the circumstances Mr. Boland's assertion that the view that litter was an endemic feature of the Irish landscape was unacceptable seems to be somewhat off course. The local authorities in this county have done everything possible to curb the litter problem and we, through this column, have begged and appealed the public to keep the environment litter free. So far there has been little or no success as all the appeals have fallen on deaf ears.

LISMORE A.C. NOTES

The Bank Holiday weekend proved very fruitful for Lismore athletes in Ballyporeen and Grange, Fermoy with the following being amongst the prizewinners:

THE GIRL I LOVE

Our choice for the ballad corner this week is "The Girl I Love," an ardent love song composed by one, Jeremiah Callanan. Like many of the old Irish love songs it is fulsome in its praise and admiration of an unnamed lady.

CLOSE ALL UNSAFE NUCLEAR PLANTS - MAHER

In a debate on the Chernobyl disaster at the European Parliament, Mr. T. J. Maher (Independent, Munster) said he did not think this was the time to vilify Russia, however much he abhorred the regime there, for no western country had clean hands in regard to nuclear safety or disclosure of information. It was time to recognise that in the nuclear age it was no longer possible to protect everyone absolutely, and that co-operation was required not division.

The girl I love is comely, straight and tall; Down her white neck her Auburn tresses fall; Her dress is neat, her carriage light and free; Here's a health to that charming maid who'er she be!

When I go to the field no youth can lighter bound; And I freely pay when the cheerful jug goes round; The barrel is full, but its heart we soon shall see; Come! here's to that charming maid, who'er she be!

Had I the wealth that props the Saxon's reign; Or the diamond crown that decks the Kings of Spain; I'd yield them all if she kindly smiled on me; Here's a health to the maid I love, who'er she be!

Five pound of gold for each lock of her hair I'd pay; And five times five for my love one hour each day; Her voice is more sweet than the thrush on its own green tree; Then, my dear, may I drink a fond, deep health to thee!

LISMORE AND DISTRICT NOTES

LISMORE F.C. NOTES

Good news and bad news, the good news first. After two years of negotiations, the Red House League is finally recognised by the Munster Football Association and the F.A.I.

Two years ago this month the officers of Lismore F.C. approached the M.F.A. on behalf of all the clubs in the league, to become affiliated and since then meetings have been held in Cork, Waterford and Dungarvan to come to an agreement to suit all. Indeed on one occasion the full officers of the M.F.A. held their monthly meeting in Lismore and the clubs in the league got the opportunity to express their views.

A committee consisting of Paddy Pollard, Donal Shanahan, Pat Fitzgerald and Eddie O'Shea have worked for the past 24 months tirelessly to ensure that the Red House League can play in and against any opposition in cup competitions. F.A.I. and M.F.A. junior cups, but most importantly that the league will be accepted by the F.A.I. So last Monday night when all the clubs agreed to become associate members of the Waterford league, the goal of the league was achieved.

For the Lismore club, whose officers are the organising committee of the Red House League they can now feel proud and little did they think many years ago when the West Waterford-East Cork League started with just a handful of teams that the league would grow to its present high position.

All club members are reminded that the A.G. of Lismore F.C. will take place on this Wednesday night (June 4th) at 9.15 p.m. in the Red House.

Now for the bad news! Although it does not really concern the clubs as such, was that the community Games soccer games were played last week and in the Western end of the county the games were held in Lismore. Unfortunately, through no fault of their own, and five clubs were to play in Lismore last Saturday.

Lismore were asked at 24 hours notice to travel to Kilmactomas to play in the eastern section. With such short notice Lismore could not do so and the club cannot understand why they could not play on their own home pitch even though representatives were made by the club to the officers of the Waterford Community Games.

As stated at the outset it was not a club problem, but they just wanted to see that the locals had a game of football.
