EMIGRATION TIDE FLOWS AGAIN

Ireland's population is now 3,537,000 — the highest in 100 years, according to preliminary results of the census held last April which were released last week.

But the tide of emigration has begun to flow again with as many as 75,000 having left the country between 1981 and 1985. In the past two years, some 50,000 have left.

And the number of unemployed rose from 126,000 to 225,000 people between 1981 and 1985. In the five years since the previous census there has been a net population increase of 93,800 and the rise to the current figure represents a national percentage increase of 2.7.

Undoubtedly the most disturbing figures thrown up by the latest census are those relating to emigration and unemployment. These show that the greatest single problem which the country continues to face is to provide work for the ever-growing army of unemployed.

Incidentally in the context of the national percentage increase in population of 2.7, the figure for Co. Waterford is 2.9, with an actual increase of 1,464 in the population of the county from 50,118 in 1981 to the current level of 51,582 according to the census of April last.

HARDLY NECESSARY

The special meeting of Waterford County Council held in Dungarvan last Monday could well be said to have hardly been necessary. It lasted less than one hour and the items discussed could well have been left over until the next ordinary meeting. As a matter of fact one of the most difficult tasks must have been to assemble any kind of agenda at all to warrant the calling of the meeting.

In these times of such financial stringency for the Council one wonders how the costs and expenses involved in calling and holding such a meeting can be justified.

PAY PARKING DATE DEFERRED

We have been informed by the Acting Town Clerk, Mr. Michael Flynn, that the introduction of pay parking discs for the new Urban Council car park at Davitt's Quay, Dungarvan, first announced to commence on Tuesday, August 5, has now been deferred until Monday, August 18.

No doubt motorists using the park will hardly complain in being able to avail of the free parking for an additional fortnight!

A GREAT DAY FOR ARDMORE

Thursday of last week, July 24 was indeed a great day for Ardmore when the panel of judges to assess the local effort for the Entente Florale visited the village. The picturesque resort certainly looked its best; elegant, neat and full of colour. And the weather favoured the occasion also by remaining dry and warm despite being overcast.

The streets were spick and span and it was very evident that the entire community, men, women and children had come together to project the village in the best possible manner. A typical example of this great community effort for the event was the presence on the village streets early on Thursday morning of a group of ladies wielding shovels and brushes giving the place a final touch-up before the arrival of the judges. Included in the energetic group of busy housewives were Mrs. Celia North, Mrs. Ronnie Hennessy, Mrs. Roddy Whelan, Mrs. May O'Mahony, Mrs. Breda Hennessy, Mrs. Nora Hennessy and Mrs. Sheila Flynn.

In one location in the village the flags of the seven countries competing in the Entente Florale were on display and had been protected by some netting prior to the judging. Imagine the reaction when a village dog "attacked" one of the flags once the netting had been removed and especially when the flag singled out was that of England. When informed of the occurrence, a local wit quipped, "he must be a republican dog" to have singled out the Union Jack!

The panel of judges, led by the ebullient President, M. Eugene Schuster from Luxembourg, accompanied by the officers and members of the local Tidy Towns Committee, toured the village before moving on to Cliff House Hotel where they and a number of invited guests were entertained to a reception and luncheon.

There M. Schuster expressed their pleasure at visiting Ardmore and he had special words of praise for the local group of young boys and girls who have become locally known as KAT's and who have most successfully attacked and solved the litter problem in the village streets.

Whether they win or not, the work done by the Tidy Towns Committee and all the local people in preparation for the Entente Florale Competition can do nothing but good for Ardmore.

FOURTH GENERATION OF DOCTORS

It is a pleasure for us this week to send congratulations winging across the Atlantic to Canada to young Dr. Tim McCarthy who was recently conferred with his degree as medical doctor having successfully completed his course in the faculty of medicine at Manitoba University in Winnipeg.

Son of Dr. Donal McCarthy and Mrs. Tessa McCarthy (nee Lavan) both of whom lived formerly in Dungarvan, Dr. Tim spent some time here last year. He is a great-grandson of Dr. Hackett and grandson of Dr. Dan McCarthy, both of whom were giants in their profession in Dungarvan in their own times and therefore he represents the fourth generation of doctors in this great Dungarvan medical family.

Small Industries Activity In Co. Waterford

Speaking at a Press conference following a meeting of the IDA South East Regional Small Industries Board in Dungarvan last Friday, Mr. Frank Burke, Regional Manager IDA, Waterford said that the Board which was set up in January 1985 is made up of members of key Semi-State Bodies, Local Authorities and Private Industries, who are responsible for the development of small industry in the South East Region. It has total autonomy in relation to awarding grants for Small Industry, defined as manufacturing companies with less than 50 employees or a fixed asset investment of less than £500,000. The Board has met monthly since January 1985 and up to that Board meeting has approved a total of 119 projects involving a fixed asset investment of £7.8 million and a grant commitment of £3.2 million with a job potential of 754.

The Small Industries Grants section in the Regional Office has processed in excess of 550 claims and paid out over £2 million to date. It has also achieved a significant reduction in the time taken to process grant payments.

Included in the 119 investment projects approved by the Board to date are 41 for this year involving Fixed Asset Investment in excess of £2.9 million, an IDA grant commitment in excess of £1.2 million and job potential of 291. The average cost per job is working out at £4,100 which is good value for money.

ADDITIONAL 310 JOBS

Mr. Burke also revealed that of the 119 investment proposals approved since regionalisation 98 are already in operation and have provided an additional 310 jobs.

In Co. Waterford a total of 18 projects have been approved to date with a grant commitment of £353,000 and a job potential of 85. Of the projects approved 17 are up and running and 83 jobs have already been created.

Of the 18 projects approved the main thrust has been in the engineering and Fish Processing sectors. 11 of the 18 projects are new start-ups. Out of a portfolio of 93 manufacturing companies in Co. Waterford, 34 are in the Small Industry category. Indeed there is quite a lot of activity in the county with 11 Feasibility Study Grants approved this year, which will undoubtedly reach capital grant stage in the near future.

POOR RESPONSE IN DUNGARVAN

Mr. Burke went on to say that it is interesting to note that there is quite a spread of these small industry projects throughout the county, but Dungarvan town itself has not been very forthcoming in relation to projects. One would expect that Dungarvan with its concentration of large industries like Waterford Co-op, Dungarvan Crystal, Stafford Millar and now Sterling Drug would have more small industry projects being initiated to cater for the needs of these large industries. We have recognised that there is potential in the Coun-

£16,000 VARIATION IN CONTRACT PRICES

Cllr. M. O'Riordan at the July monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council asked how many tenders had been received by the Council for the 4 houses being built at Sexton Street, Abbeyside and the prices quoted.

Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager said that 4 tenders in which the prices varied from £32,000 to £98,000 had been received. The contract had been placed with the lowest.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS ON DUNGARVAN BY-PASS

For the second time in recent weeks the operation of the traffic lights at the junction of the Cappoquin and new By-Pass roads at Kiltrush, Dungarvan have been the subject of complaints.

The latest was made by Cllr. J. Harty at the special meeting of Waterford Co. Council in Dungarvan when he said that a crash had occurred there last week because the lights were breaking so fast that it was not possible to get through the junction before the traffic in the other direction moved. "As a matter of fact," he said, "it was claimed by people in the recent crash that both sets of lights were green at the same time. There's only an 8 second break and there's no way a car can clear that junction in that time."

The Co. Manager, Mr. D. Hurley said that this matter had been raised at the last meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council and the Co. Engineer stated that the lights were being checked.

Mr. J. O'Flynn, Co. Engineer said that he would again have the position checked out.

for small business in the area of Natural Resources, which is indigenous to the County, as the traditional skills are available, eg Beef, Bacon, Poultry and Fish Processing. The tradition in the leather sector must have possibility for small businesses to create added value products in the fashion and fancy goods sectors. I would ask the County Development Team to look at some of these areas and we will give every assistance to make things happen.

Mr. Burke concluded saying: "I would like to stress that with regionalisation the total responsibility for Small Industry Development now lies within the region. We will no longer have to look to Dublin for support and back-up. I would ask therefore that the County Development Team, community based organisations, educational and financial institutions take a lead role in the activity of job creation under the heading of small business."

COUNTY DEVELOPMENT TEAM

Mr. Dan Hurley, County Manager and Chairman of the County Development Team welcomed the members of the Board to Dungarvan. He said that the activities of the Board were most encouraging and he wished them every success. He added that the members of the County Development Team were very conscious of the place which small industries had in rural areas and he thanked Mr. Maurice McHugh, County Development Officer and Mr. Brian McNally, Co. Secretary for the work they had done in this field. He assured the Board of the fullest support and co-operation of the County Council and County Development Team for any projects which could be undertaken by them in the county.

Co. Council Using Banned Defoliant Spray?

Cllr. E. Kyne raised a query at a special meeting of Waterford County Council in Dungarvan last Monday as to whether a defoliant spray used by the Council workers in a recent operation was not only damaging to the environment but a danger to humans as well.

Cllr. Kyne who had raised the matter of the indiscriminate use of herbicide sprays by the Council to kill grass and weeds growing around roadside delineators at the previous meeting said that he had received a letter from a man which complained that a defoliant spray had been used by Council men at a time on July 14.

He went on to say that the man stated in the letter that when he returned from work he had got a peculiar smell while in his garden and found it came from the old Red a tree which had just been sprayed. He saw 2 of his children nearby and thought they could be in some danger.

Cllr. Kyne went on to say that from further inquiries he had made he thought that the defoliant used was similar to that used in the Vietnam War and that its use was banned in a number of countries. He understood that the man using the spray wore no face mask and could possibly have been endangered. "In raising this matter again," said Cllr. Kyne, "I am not trying to get at the Engineering staff but only want to know what policy, if any, the Engineering staff have in regard to the use of these sprays."

NEW BARRISTER AND SOLICITOR FROM DUNGARVAN

Among the 57 law students called to the Bar by Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Finlay in the Supreme Court in Dublin last Thursday was Miss Catherine M. O'Kelly, Emmet St. Dungarvan.

And also on Thursday last, Mr. Lawrence Cullen, President, Incorporated Law Society of Ireland presented a parchment to 34 newly qualified solicitors at Blackhall Place, Dublin, among whom was Mr. Michael McLoughlin, Kiltrush, Dungarvan.

FROM CLONNEL
Miss Dervla F. Browne was also among the 57 called to the Bar on the same occasion. She is daughter of Frank and Breed Browne, Clonnel and granddaughter of Mrs. B. Browne, Church St. Dungarvan and niece of Alicia Browne, 83 O'Connell St.

NOT AWARE

Mr. John O'Flynn, Co. Engineer said that he was not aware that the spray referred to was banned. However he would have inquiries made to ascertain if it was banned by the government environmental agency and if so he would certainly have it withdrawn from use.

Mr. O'Flynn went on to say that he did not believe the spraying had caused any environmental damage as the area sprayed was very small. In regard to the spraying around the road delineators he agreed that some had been oversprayed as the spray had been used on windy days. That shouldn't have happened and it would not happen again.

The Co. Engineer explained that spray was used in these cases in order to speed up the operation and to protect the delineators from damage they might sustain if machines were used around them to cut the grass and weeds.

The Chairman, Cllr. J. A. Walsh said that the matter in regard to Rellig a tree would be investigated.

MINISTER ASKED TO CLARIFY CAPPOQUIN SCHOOL SITUATION

The failure of the Minister for Education Mr. P. Cooney to make a decision in regard to the future arrangements for secondary education in Cappoquin gave rise to a discussion at a special meeting of Waterford Co. Council in Dungarvan last Monday when Cllr. O. Wilkinson, having proposed the suspension of Standing Orders to enable him to do so, raised the matter.

Cllr. Wilkinson recalled that a deputation representing the parents Council in the Cappoquin area met Mr. Cooney shortly after his appointment as Minister for Education to discuss the problem which had arisen in regard to the provision of secondary education facilities for Cappoquin and Lismore and the Minister had promised that he would let them have an early reply on his decision as to his plans for the future in the matter.

"That," said Cllr. Wilkinson, "was about a year ago but we have heard nothing since." He went on to say that when the problem originally arose last year the people of Cappoquin and district had gone through a period of uncertainty which did nothing to help the situation. He did not want that uncertainty to continue and proposed that the Council send a request to the Minister asking that he inform the people of Cappoquin as to his plans for secondary school facilities in the area without further delay. He felt that this was an urgent matter as the Mercy nuns intended to pull out from the facilities which they had provided there up to this.

The Chairman, Cllr. James A. Walsh, seconded the proposal stating that it was important that the Minister should let the people of Cappoquin know what his plans for the future of secondary education in Cappoquin are. He said that the existing secondary school was being phased out but it was important that secondary education facilities be maintained in Cappoquin as it was a very proper location in which such facilities should be

ANNOUNCED

Cllr. W. McDonnell supported the proposal stating that he had been very closely involved with the situation insofar as it concerned Lismore. He said that he was annoyed that it had been 12 months since the Cappoquin deputation had met the Minister and no reply had so far been received from him. "As a result," said Cllr. McDonnell, "we still don't know where we stand in regard to the position of secondary education in West Waterford.

Cllr. J. Quirk also supported the proposal stating that it was high time the Minister reached a decision in this matter and let the people know what is going to be done about it.

The proposal was passed unanimously.

COMPLAINTS ABOUT MANPOWER OFFICE

Cllr. P. Kenneally stated at the special meeting of Waterford Co. Council in Dungarvan that he had received a number of complaints from potential employers about difficulties they had experienced when dealing with the Manpower Office in Dungarvan. He said that those who had spoken to him had been very unhappy especially in regard to their inability to obtain a list of people who might be available for certain jobs.

Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager said that he would have the matter taken up with the Manpower Office.

QUERY ON FUTURE OF QUIGLEY MAGNESITE

When Cllr. O. Coffey at a special meeting of Waterford Co. Council in Dungarvan asked whether the County Development Team had any information regarding the possible reopening of the Quigley Magnesite factory at Ballinacourty, the County Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley said that it was not known that surveys had taken place at the plant. These he understood had been carried out by the Company to keep themselves up-to-date on the state of the plant and to ensure that it was properly "moth-balled."

ON A LONG LIST
When Cllr. J. Fahey, T.D., proposed that a light be provided at the T junction opposite Murphy's Pub, Knockanore, the Co. Engineer, Mr. J. O'Flynn said that he would put this on the list of public lights. "But," he added, "I can tell you it is a very long list."

WEDDING BELLS
There is no doubt but wedding bells are ringing loud and clear within the club at present. A few of our members are about to "tie the knot" in the coming weeks. But No. 1 up the aisle was our cul baire Michael Phelan who wears to no.1 jersey by coincidence (with distinction I might add). We wish Michael and his new bride Anne Geary Ballyduff, many years of wedded bliss.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES
LINK BADGE NEWS
While the older scouts are in Chalfont the new recruits from the cubs sections, under the guidance of A/S/L Denis Slattery are at present running an adventurous programme.
Last week eleven young scouts attended a swimming course held at Clonea beach. This was run by the Irish Water Safety Association. The water was very cold and everybody was eager to get out of it as soon as they could.
J. P. Cosgrave, Michael Verling and Enda Donnelly proved to be real "water babies" while Brian Elstead's teeth never stopped chattering with the cold.
On Friday we cycled out to Clonea where we were expected to "Swim-1." Everybody did well with some scouts almost ready for the next stage in swimming, i.e. Swim-2.
On Friday evening everybody turned up for an overnight stay in the den. We started the evening by setting up an assault course. The idea was that everyone had to manoeuvre around a tricky course of obstacles. High jumps, belly-crawls, climbing, balancing and many other items were included. The two winners were Mark Shepherd and Michael Verling.
At 10.30 p.m. we got a drive to Durov Pub from where we walked back towards Dungarvan on the old railway, incorporating Ballyvoyle bridge and Tunnel. The man of the day was Alan Mulcahy and Kieran Higgin both staying as close as they could to Denis—I wonder why?
We walked a fair distance before we again met Ambrose, Sarah and Martin. From here we got a lift back to the Den. The time now was 12.45 a.m. At this point we cooked some chips and sausages and it was time for everybody to fall asleep. The next morning we awoke early and everybody headed home for breakfast after an enjoyable overnight stay.
Sincere thanks to Ambrose for his great help with this activity.

UP, UP AND AWAY
On Thursday of last week the gear was laid out in the Den and the personal gear was brought along on Thursday night. We were trying to travel as light as possible as all the gear was going with us on the bus.
Judging by the weight of one PL's bag he must have packed the kitchen sink, but no doubt it will all come in useful at Chalfont. Ray was hoping a certain fellow would forget to bring along his guitar, but no such luck! On Friday at 5.30 p.m. all were down in full uniform and the stipabus arrived and swallowed all our gear with no bother.
After the usual good-byes and "tears" we were on our way to catch the boat for the night sailing across channel. As the weather was good we had a very comfortable crossing, and in next week's notes we'll fill you in on our doings across the water.

GENERAL
We hear a certain Park Lane resident found a nice present awaiting him when he got home last Saturday evening and it did not come via An Post. "Foxy" Paddy and Brown could have a lot to answer for yet.
Now that we are settled in Chalfont the big question is, who is going to get the most post. Vincent O'Mahoney of the Venturers Section is being hotly tipped, but the Venturer Leader could prove a dark horse. They tell me the Wolf Patrol box got special attention in the making so P/L John Whelan should have no complaints.
I'll finish with a few words of wisdom for our Scout Leader: "Of course you shouldn't judge everything by appearances, the early bird may simply have a worm up all night."

SEA ANGLING CLUB NOTES
The high-light of our season, the two-day Gold Medal has come and is once again and as in previous years it proved to be very successful due, mainly to our very generous sponsors and a big turnout of anglers.
Anglers from Abbeyside, Dungarvan, Waterford Glass, Tramore-Waterford, Dunmore, Rhinns, and Ardmore Sea Angling Clubs fished the competition. Over 90 anglers represented these clubs over the two days.
Fishing was poor but nevertheless the variety was good as conger, dog-fish, flounder and coal-fish were landed.
Day one — The choice of strand was disappointing due to persistent weeds being washed in on the strand and as a result we had to pack bags and move to Helvick. The results for day one are as follows:—
1st Eugene Young, Abbeyside; 2nd Eugene Young, do; 3rd Martin Kennedy, Tramore-Waterford; 4th Don O'Connor, Abbeyside; 5th Don O'Connor, Ardmore; 6th Brian Mansfield, Ardmore; 7th Nicky McEvoy, Tramore-Waterford.
1st Lady:— Alice Roche, Tramore-Waterford.
1st Gentle:— Derek Roche, Tramore-Waterford; 2nd Gentle:— Michael Power, Abbeyside.
Day two:—
1st Martin Lucas, Tramore-Waterford; 2nd Michael Roche, Waterford Glass; 3rd Willie Keane, Rhinns; 4th Tony Crows, Dungarvan; 5th Don O'Connor, Abbeyside; 6th Mick Garcia, do; 7th Brendan Cudihy, Waterford Glass.

Evening On Sunday evening night in Cappoquin our junior hurlers take on Clashmore the championship. This is our final game in the league portion and is of vital importance to both teams.
A win for us will put us straight into the semi-final, while defeat will involve us in a round of play-offs. Clashmore are still very much in contention and will be equally anxious for victory.
The game starts at 7 p.m. Players are asked to be in their dressing rooms at 6.30 p.m.

DUNGARVAN U.D.C.

Co. Manager's Report On Dump Site

As indicated at the June meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council, the County Manager, Mr. D. Hurley, submitted his report on an alternative proposal for a town waste disposal site to those previously discussed to the July meeting of the Council held last week.

The report was circulated to the members prior to the meeting but before the Council came to discuss it, the County Manager asked the members to defer any decision on it for a few weeks. "We have entered into negotiations for the acquisition of another site and we will know in a few weeks after a survey of the site, whether it might suit," he said.

The Manager's report on the existing situation is as follows: The proposal for the extension of the Tip Head was to provide a bunded area making maximum use of the acquired land. I now submit a proposal as follows:—

- (a) A lesser area to be enclosed by bunding and having a greater distance between the land and the estuary and river.
- (b) Grant a licence to Waterford County Council, conditional on them carrying out the necessary work for a period of 7 years.
- (c) Arrangements regarding tipping to be controlled by the County Council.
- (d) The period of tipping not to exceed 7 years.
- (e) As soon as the site is suitable for tipping, the existing tip head to be closed by Dungarvan U.D.C.

This arrangement will reduce still further any doubts that may have been expressed on possible pollution and enable the authorities to make alternative arrangements for a tip head after the 7 year period.

I met with Messrs. James Kieley, Edger Kirby and John Lyons, representatives of the Dungarvan Trout Anglers Association on Tuesday, 24th June to discuss my alternative proposal for the extension of the present Dump.

I regret to report that the representatives of the Anglers were not prepared to discuss the matter and disagreement was recorded.

WESTERN BAY PROPOSAL

In regard to the suggestion that the Western Bay be reclaimed there are a number of points that I would comment on in a preliminary way.

1. The area in question is outside the Dungarvan Urban Area.
2. Consideration would require to be given to a number of factors in relation to the existing functions.

- (a) Effect on drainage of the Brickey River Drainage Area.
- (b) Effect on the channel of the Harbour.
- (c) Effect on dilution factor of harbour.
- (d) Effect on the scientific value of the Western Bay as a wildlife resource in the national context.
- (e) Effect on existing amenity value as a boating/sailing area.
- (f) Effect on fishing including shell fish value.

These could only be evaluated in a full study and the merits and demerits evaluated before any decision could be arrived at.

3. While the reclamation is a project of considerable magnitude, from an Engineering point of view, it is feasible but whether it is an economic undertaking is entirely a different matter.

4. In relation to the expectation that the realignment work at the Sweep would provide large quantities of material, it should be stated that in work of this nature, a cut and fill principle is used to get the best balance possible. There is unlikely to be much surplus in this operation.

To suggest that the start of major realignment work on the N25 presents us with "a chance of a lifetime" is not correct. The whole design concept of that section of roadway, which has not been finalised yet, is to take a road line which, while meeting the necessary criteria in relation to traffic safety and convenience, minimises the cost by getting the best balance possible between "cut and fill" i.e. the amount of material excavated in one location would be used to fill in another. Thus, it is likely that there will be little surplus material to be disposed of and it can be taken as certain that sufficient material would not be available to complete an embankment to the Western Bay. Neither would whatever surplus material that became available be available at a rate to suit the engineering operation of construction of part of the embankment.

5. In so far as possible uses are concerned, I would not envisage a refuse tip head as one of them. The other possible uses could be considered in any study undertaken. I must point out that the County Council has no land in the area and indications have been received that acquisition in the area would be strongly opposed.

A LOT OF DIVISION

The Council unanimously agreed to the Manager's request to defer consideration of the report for the present. However, Cllr. B. Kyne said that he would like to refer to the suggested development of a dump site at Western Bay as made by Cllr. Walsh as he felt this had caused a lot of division. "Nobody doubts Cllr. Walsh's enthusiasm to get something done," said Cllr. Kyne, but I don't agree with it and his continuing harping about the Western Bay project is doing the Council no good."

Cllr. Kyne added that as of now the proposal was not feasible and he thought it would be better all round if it was left at that.

Cllr. D. Goode, Chairman, said that while he agreed he felt that the points made by Cllr. Walsh had been made without animosity.

£1 MILLION PLAN TO BOOST SHEEP EXPORTS

A plan to boost sheep exports by over £1 million a year has been outlined by a Dungarvan farmer.

Chairman of the IFA National Sheep Committee, Jim O'Grady has called on the Department of Agriculture to introduce a particular scheme which would result in a £1m. boost.

Mr. O'Grady said that as a result of the continued expansion of the Irish sheep flock, farmers must sell their lambs to the best advantage.

"Our sheepmeat exports are facing growing competition from increased supplies of UK lamb on the EEC mainland markets, particularly France," he said.

"It is now vital that the Department of Agriculture introduces the BUROP sheepmeat classification scheme so that Irish lamb can be marketed more efficiently on the export market and that farmers be paid on a quality graded basis."

Mr. O'Grady estimated that this would enhance the value of Irish sheepmeat exports by over £1 million a year. There is no justification for quality Irish lamb being the cheapest on the French market.

Mr. O'Grady repeated his call that the prospective buyers of the Bacon & Lamb Company Ltd. now in receivership, must make allowance in their prices for the sheep factories, to pay the farmer and livestock mart creditors in full the £103,000 and £116,000 respectively owed to them for lambs supplied. Otherwise the buyers will not have the goodwill of farmers and lamb supplies cannot be guaranteed.

Cllr. Walsh then claimed that discourtesy had been shown to him at the Council's May meeting when a number of proposals for a new dump site made by members had been put to the meeting. However while five of these were listed a proposal put forward by him was not even mentioned and had, in fact, been completely ignored. "My proposal was the only one before the meeting which had been properly documented and I think it was completely unfair that it was ignored in this way," he said.

WESTERN BAY PROPOSAL "TOTALLY UNACCEPTABLE"

The Western Bay proposal also met with additional opposition as outlined in the following letter from Mr. Michael P. Leo, General Manager, Stafford Miller (Ireland) Ltd., whose plant at Youghal Road is fronted by the Western Bay which was circulated to the members: "For some time now I have watched with interest the debate in relation to the facilities available for the disposal of waste. We do not generate very much waste in our normal production situation so as such we assumed that the matter in relation to disposal would have been resolved in due course and as such have avoided becoming involved in the discussion.

"However recent developments have altered the situation quite dramatically in that the suggestion now being proposed whereby waste would be disposed in the bay adjoining the factory. This is a totally unacceptable situation as the products we manufacture are for human use and a waste disposal site situated so close to our position would have the most adverse effect on our ability to sell our products.

"A matter as serious as this will have to be reported to our parent organisation in the United States and I know full well they will take very strong exception to a proposal of this nature. Dungarvan was selected originally as a site for a number of features all of which would be totally at variance with having a massive refuse disposal unit sited alongside our production facility.

"I am sure we would not be alone in our concern as I have no doubt our new neighbours will likewise have considerable reservations in relation to their recently selected site should such a proposal go ahead."

SUPERMARKET NOT OWNERS OF LANEWAY

Cllr. B. Cotter at the July monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council said that he was very surprised to read a report in a local paper in which a local professional painter had been brought to court on a charge of obstructing the laneway leading to the Anchor Bar with a ladder he was using in the course of his normal work of painting. He said that at the Court, the report stated that it was claimed that the L & N Supermarket owned the laneway. "Is this laneway owned by the L & N?" then asked Cllr. Cotter.

Mr. B. White, Town Clerk replied "No, it is a public laneway."

Cllr. Cotter said that it was scandalous that a man who was going about his ordinary work should have been brought before the Court on the charge of obstruction. "It should be brought to the attention of the L & N that the laneway in question is not their property and that they are the people usually causing obstruction there," he said.

Cllr. B. Kyne supported the points raised and agreed that the Council should write to the L & N management depicting their action in complaining that this man had obstructed the laneway. He said that it was vans and lorries delivering to the L & N who were continually causing obstruction in the laneway and he had personal experience of this.

The Council unanimously agreed to write to the L & N about the position.

DAIL QUESTIONS BY DEPUTY FAHEY

At Question Time in Dail Eireann before it went into recess for the long summer recess until next October the following were among the matters raised:

UNEMPLOYMENT STATISTICS

Mr. J. Fahey asked the Taoiseach the number of unemployed persons in Waterford county for each of the years from 1982 to 1985, inclusive.

The Taoiseach: A special area of residence analysis of the live register is carried out quarterly on the second last Friday of February, May, August and November. The following table shows the average number of persons residing in Waterford county who were on the live register for the years 1982 to 1985 inclusive: 1982: 2,012; 1983: 2,596; 1984: 2,888; 1985: 3,104.

FEED VOUCHER SCHEME

Mr. J. Fahey asked the Minister for Agriculture the number of farmers in County Waterford refused aid under the feed voucher scheme; the number who qualified; and the amount of finance which was paid to farmers under this scheme.

Minister for Agriculture (Mr. Deasy): There were 890 applications for aid under the feed voucher scheme in County Waterford. One hundred and twenty six applicants were assessed as being ineligible for aid. Feed vouchers representing £146,773 and 1,428 tonnes of cheap intervention grain were issued to the remaining 764 applicants under the scheme.

EXTENSION OF SALMON FISHING SEASON

The Minister for Tourism, Fisheries and Forestry, Mr. Liam Kavanagh, T.D., has announced that he has extended the commercial salmon fishing season by one week for draft, snap and loop nets.

The effect of this bye-law is that the close season for salmon fishing for these types of nets will now commence in the Southern Region area on August 8, 1986.

The Minister explained that this would enable draft, snap and loop net fishermen to secure further a fairer share of the total salmon catch and is in line with the Department's policy of striking a balance between the competing interests.

GOOD RESPONSE TO WATER CHARGES IN DUNGARVAN

In the course of a report submitted by the Town Clerk, Mr. B. White, to the July monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council it was stated that £52,479.38 (76.52 per cent) of the 1985 water charges had been collected in the Urban as at June 27 last. A total of £5,921.25 (8.63 per cent) of the charges had been waived and £1,660.58 (2.42 per cent) were struck off which left the amount of arrears due at £8,518.11 (12.43 per cent).

The report had been prepared at the request of Cllr. M. O'Riordan (F.G.) and commented on the report Cllr. O'Riordan said that this was a quite good collection and gave the lie to the rumours that only a few people in the town had paid the charges. He asked what the position in regard to the defaulters was.

Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager said that they had already moved against some and were moving against the others concerned.

Cllr. T. Wright (W.P.) said that he was the only public representative on the Council and in the whole county of Waterford "with the proud and honourable record of voting against this unjust form of double taxation." He believed that it had cost thousands of pounds which would never be recovered to collect the 76 per cent of these charges. "This money would be better spent on repairing houses, providing better public lighting and employing extra school staff yardens," he said and added "I live in a four square behind Ireland's largest organisations, the National Association of Tenants Organisation and A.C.R.A. in continuing to oppose the tax."

Mr. B. Kyne (Lab.) said that water matters like this were concerning responsible attitudes was required and "responsibility should not be selective."

The report was approved.

APPEAL FAILS TO REMOVE DRIVING DISQUALIFICATION

Michael Sullivan (52), single, a former group personnel manager with the County Council, had at Portlaoine with an address at 20, New Street, Carrick-On-Suir appealed at Dungarvan Circuit Court against the severity of the penalties imposed when he was convicted on charges arising from a head-on collision between two cars at Leamybrien on February 1, 1986.

Mr. A. V. Maher, State Solr. for the Director of Public Prosecutions stated that following the collision the defendant gave a urine sample which gave a reading of 260 mgms. On conviction in the District Court he had been sentenced to three months imprisonment and disqualified from driving for five years. There had been two previous convictions against him.

Garda D. Halpin gave evidence of going to the scene of the two-car collision at Leamybrien on February 1 last, and of arresting the defendant and taking him to the Grada Station where a urine sample was given.

Replying to his counsel, Mr. J. Kelly B.L., the defendant said that on the evening on question he had got involved in a drinking session in Dungarvan but for personal reasons he had to drive home and on the way he became involved in the collision. He said that he was now engaged in consultancy work but the disqualification from driving would mean that he would be unable to work except in cases close to home.

Judge Sheridan said that he had sympathy with people who were out of work but in this case a third conviction was involved and this situation would have to stop. He said that the three months prison sentence for a year but in the meantime the defendant could not drive and the disqualification would have to remain. At the end of the twelve months the Judge said that he would be prepared to review the position.

Prison Sentence Removed On Appeal

Matthew O'Brien with an address at Sea View, Helvick, Ring successfully had his convictions on six charges of illegal fishing reviewed at Dungarvan Circuit Court last week.

Mr. F. Power, Solr. for the Southern Region Fishery Board said that the defendant had been sentenced to 6 months imprisonment not to be enforced if he was of good behaviour for 12 months and ordered to pay the sum of £400 when convicted on a number of charges under the Fisheries Acts.

Mr. J. P. Gordon, Solr. for O'Brien handed in the £400 in cash at the hearing and stated that the appellant had behaved himself in the past 12 months.

Judge D. P. Sheridan in the course of his review of the case said that he was satisfied that the appellant had now fulfilled his obligations to the court and he accordingly removed the prison sentence and applied the POA in lieu with costs to the Fishery Board. In addition he directed that the £400 paid in by the appellant be divided equally between the 3 Fisheries Officers involved in the original prosecutions.

APPEALS ADJOURNED

When appeals by Michael Hayes, Helvick, against a number of convictions on charges brought by the Regional Fisheries Board under the Fisheries Act 1980 were called, Mr. J. P.

Gordon, Solicitor for the appellant handed in a certificate from Dr. T. Higgins which stated that the appellant was unfit to attend the court.

Mr. Gordon explained that the appellant had fallen asleep in the sun on the previous Saturday and had sustained severe sun burns.

When Mr. Power for the Regional Fishery Board who prosecuted was about to raise an objection, Judge Sheridan said that he was quite satisfied from the certificate submitted by Dr. Higgins that the appellant was not fit to come to court and he therefore had no hesitation in adjourning the appeals to the next sessions.

MAHER ATTACKS FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Pressure by the major financial institutions on people unable to honour their financial commitments to them despite their best efforts was so great that as a result a sizeable number of those involved were suffering severe mental distress, T. J. Maher, M.E.P. said in a statement during the week in Cashel.

Unlike a major Irish Banking Group with expert advice available to them, under a major investment blunder, Mr. Maher said, "farmers and business people minus such advice who likewise in ratio erred, did not have the Government and Central Bank at eventual taxpayers expense to step in and write off their losses." Under pressure and threats of civil proceedings and court decrees against people who are doing their best in difficult times, could activate a backlash against the financial institutions that would be to nobody's benefit.

"What is there to be achieved," Mr. Maher said, "by the financial institutions by such activities beyond adding to the distress and embarrassment of people whose best efforts in difficult circumstances are insufficient to meet their commitments. What will be the cost to the taxpayer by the financial institutions forcing such people off their holdings and on to the dole queues.

MOST CONSERVATIVE

Concluding, Mr. Maher said, "the financial institutions in this country were among the most conservative and insular in Europe. There was need for an immediate examination of agricultural related enterprises and other rural business groupings combining their resources and expertise to establish a truly progressive banking service throughout Ireland." "Otherwise," Mr. Maher said, "we will have to endure the strong hand of the current financial institutions on our economic throats every time a cloud appears on the financial horizon."

Divisional Boards Have Scene To Themselves

NEXT WEEK-END For the next three weeks the Divisional Boards will have the scene to themselves and in the time they hope to make substantial progress with their adult competitions, now that their under age championships are all but finished. On this week-end the Western Board will get a number of delayed fixtures out of the way and will also make progress with the championships that are well on schedule.

who has been keeping their interests alive and well, is Billy Kelly who is their chairman and has very deservedly been named chairman of the year (1985) in Waterford County. Billy, a trojan worker and very popular fellow, was recently presented with his award by the President, Dr. Mick Loftus.

COACHING NEWS

Six coaches from the county will travel to Queen's University, Belfast on Tuesday next and undergo a course in coaching under some of the top coaches in the country, including Joe McGrath, Bro. M. Lennon, Eugene McGee, Rory Kinsella, Sean McGuinness, etc. The course which deals with planning, match analysis, fitness testing and evaluation, team management, skills, principles of play, tactics, fitness etc., will continue until Friday. Our very active county Youth Officer Jim Greene, is the man chiefly responsible for organising our team which is representative of all the Boards and school bodies in the county.

Eamon Young, the Munster Council full-time coach who has been in the county for the past four weeks, has finished his second term in the county. In his final week he was with Coligan Emmet, Kilgobnet, Dungarvan, Bricekeys and Naomh Brd under-age clubs. Before leaving for his holidays, he told the Coligan club members that he was very pleased with the response from clubs here.

GOOD CROWDS

In recent weeks the crowds attending games have been satisfactory and in some cases the attendance was above expectations.

On Saturday night last for the Stradbally / Kilrossanty match the gate receipts amounted to £1,638 and on the previous Sunday afternoon a gate of £1,220 was taken at the afternoon programme. On Sunday last for the Lismore/Portlaw game a gate of over £700 was taken.

RESULTS

Stradbally's decision to play against the very strong breeze, having the toss may have been a factor in their defeat, but there can be no doubting the fact that the better team won and the reigning county champions, Kilrossanty fairly deserved their place in the county final against Kilmac-thomas at Walsh Park on August 31. A devastating first fifteen minutes gave them a commanding lead and at this stage it seemed that their old rivals were in for a hard time. However, the champions seemed to weaken and Stradbally took over, but were unable to get the scores that would bring them closer to the leaders. The half-time break seemed to revitalise Kilrossanty and they came back with a quiet gain in this half. They seemed more eager and they seemed to have a better plan than Stradbally who were all the time playing second fiddle.

The hurling play-off was certainly a game of two halves. Lismore even with wind advantage in the first half, could not do a thing right and at half-time they looked as good as beaten. A devastating display of power hurling showed an amazing change in the second half when the flow of the ball really bewildered a very disappointed Portlaw who must have been counting their chickens at half-time. The pattern of their play was something similar to their game against Ballyduff the previous Sunday when they faded amazingly in the second half. Some needless fouling by the Lismore defence in the first half contributed to Portlaw's early lead. In fact the first four scores by Portlaw were all from frees. In all six of their ten scores were made from frees—something that might be noted by Lismore. Portlaw had 14 frees over the hour, while Lismore had 10 and scored from only two of these. Even so, on the basis of these figures there was not a lot to be said for either team, but there was no doubting the fact the Lismore were deserving winners.

The possibility of the senior hurling title remaining in the West for three years (for the first time ever) is now a distinct possibility and Lismore are geared to do well in their championship as well being in the under 21 county final, in the divisional minor final and are having another record year in the juvenile championships.

An Rinn won their first league point on Saturday when they played a draw with the fancied team here, as it happened the Gaelacht team were a bit unlucky not to have won. This is not the first time that an Rinn have found their form too late in the day. The Bricekeys too had a good game and their defeat of Ballyduff puts them right into contention for the title. Someone who watched them perform at Cappoquin on Saturday evening told me that Bricekeys are the best intermediate side around and that they will take a lot of beating this year. The Geraldines scored a good win, also in intermediate football when beating last seasons

Eastern intermediate champions, Killure in the final of the county league.

The hurling arm of the Aglish / Villierstown combination scored decisively against Glen Rovers, for the second year running. Last year their game was hailed as one of the best in their grade and tremendously exciting. This one was less exciting as Villierstown were in command all the way.

DE LA SALLE ARE CHAMPIONS

When the records for 1986 are written, De La Salle will be listed as county under 21 'B' hurling champions even though all their games have been at divisional level. This year, county convention passed a motion making it obligatory on the County Board to run a 'B' championship in under 21. They did — or at least the Eastern Board did, but the Western Board did not because they could not get enough teams to participate. So it turned out to be a one-sided affair and won last week-end by De La Salle when they beat Ballygunner by a single point (5-5 to 3-10).

This is a matter which might be looked into when the special committee meets to look into the structuring of the under 21 championships. I note that Derry have abolished under 21 club championships in their county and Dublin have decided to pull out of the under 21 intercounty championships and practically all the hurling counties, including Clare, Cork, Limerick, Tipperary, Kilkenny and now Wexford have disallowed the grouping system in these championships. The recommendations of our special committee could be very interesting indeed.

CHAMPIONSHIP POSITION

Following Lismore's victory on Sunday, it is now almost certain that the county hurling final will be played at a Western venue.

On Saturday August 23rd, Lismore play Clonea at Dungarvan in the first semi-final and on the following day, Mount Sion and Roanemore clash in the second at Walsh Park. The county final is fixed for the second Sunday in September. It is scheduled for a Western venue, but if two clubs from the Eastern division qualify, it can be played in the East. However, I understand that Clonea have already stated that should they beat Lismore, they will opt for a Western venue, in which case it would be played here. The situation in football is very clear, with the county final between Kilmac and the champions, Kilrossanty going on at Walsh Park on August 31st.

The under 21 hurling county final between Lismore and Portlaw is re-fixed for Dungarvan on August 10.

The under 21 football county final is due to be played at Walsh Park on the same day, if Portlaw are not doubly involved. On to-night, Wednesday Portlaw and Kilmacthomas meet in the Eastern final at Dunhill. The Nire have won out in the Western championship, the situation is also very satisfactory. In minor football, Abbeyside play the Nire at Fraher field on Wednesday night of next week and on Friday of the same week, Stradbally play Drom Rovers at the same venue. In minor 'B' football, Affane and St. Olivers are through to the final which takes place on this week-end.

In minor hurling, Tallow and Lismore have qualified for the final and in the 'B' championship, Abbeyside and Cappoquin will meet in the divisional final.

The situation in junior and intermediate is still unclear, but very satisfactory progress is being made in these competitions also.

BORD NA nOG NOTES

ST. PATRICKS AND NAOMH BRID MEET IN 'B' FINAL

U-16 Hurling — Naomh Brd 5-8, Gaeltacht 1-0. There's no stopping this Touraneena / Modeligo combination at the moment. Last Sunday at Coligan they completely outclassed a fairly handy Gaeltacht side and with a repeat of this performance in the final they'll be very hard to beat.

LISMORE FOR FINAL

Lismore 5-5; Dungarvan 1-11. In this 'A' semi-final, Lismore had to survive a very determined display from a gallant Dungarvan side before emerging winners and so go on to meet Cappoquin in the Divisional final. They led 3-4 to 1-1 at the break but had to wait until the 50th minute before they had another score.

Indeed, had the Dungarvan forwards taken the many chances that came their way, the result could have been much closer.

CAPPOQUIN CRUISE THROUGH

Cappoquin 10-8; Fournmlewater 2-5. As the scoreline suggests, Cappoquin had it easy in their semi-final which was played at Coligan. Really this was no test for them, as Fournmle were very weak.

'B' SEMI-FINAL In the second 'B' semi-final St. Patricks beat Ballyduff.

'B' FINAL—NAOMH BRID v. ST. PATRICKS This final goes on at Dungarvan on Monday next, and it promises to be a "cracker". Naomh Brd, having come through the hard end of the draw must start favourites. They have some fine hurlers in Kieran Hallahan, Edmond Lonergan, John Hallinan and Eamonn Lonergan.

St. Pat's however can point to such hurlers as Peter Power, Michael Dunford, Kevin Walsh, Kevin McGrath and Paul Byrne who will, I'm sure, try hard to get the better of their old rivals.

Yes, a great final is in prospect with Naomh Brd just getting the vote. (James Bennett will referee the game).

COUNTY FINALS

The County U-16 Hurling finals will be played at Dungarvan on Saturday, August 16 — (B) 6.15 p.m.; (A) 7.30 p.m.

TOURNAMENTS We note that some clubs are taking part in various tournament games without the Bord's permission. Clubs doing so are not covered by insurance and are asked to note same.

COACHING NEWS

This coming weekend both Pa Meehan (Dungarvan) and Brendan Griffin (Clashmore) are off to Belfast where they will attend the National Coaching Course. Both are dedicated Bord na nOG men and we wish both well as they journey north.

SYMPATHY

The Bord would like to express its sympathy to Pádraig Breathnach (Gaeltacht) on the death of his father, Liam, Ar deith De go raibh a anam dílis.

Players to be at both venues at 7.30 p.m. Final trial will take place at Coligan on Sunday, August 3 at 11.30 a.m., during which a selection from both venues on Friday night will play each other.

The annual representative game West v. East will be played in Stradbally on Tuesday, August 5 at 7.30 p.m. U-14 football East v. West for the John O'Regan Perpetual Trophy will be played at Portlaw on Wednesday, July 30 at 7.30 p.m.

Great Second-half Performance Sees Lismore Through

Lismore kept Western hopes alive in the senior hurling championship when they scored a surprise win over favourites Portlaw in their play-off game at Fraher Field, Dungarvan on Sunday last. Following their struggle to score a narrow win over Coligan the previous week, few could visualise Lismore as winners on Sunday last. But win they did, and in a manner which proved that there is nothing wrong with the character of the side. Lismore, in fact, looked a beaten side at the interval when they trailed by 0-7 to 0-4. They had played with the strong wind at their backs in the first half and had shot ten wides (four from frees) as against seven for Portlaw.

The second half seemed nothing more than a foregone conclusion. Bug Lismore, to our eternal credit, proved otherwise. They took the field for the second half with a rearranged side. Ger Sheehan substituted for Fenton and took up duty in the half-line of defence. Donald Landers moved to midfield and Richard Ronayne took over at centre back. Frank Power moved to the halfward line and Michael Ronayne and Brendan Lawton swapped places.

The result was nothing short of miraculous. Lismore were a team transformed in the second-half and within ten minutes of the restart had beaten Portlaw into submission. It was a case of exuberant youth against experience, and youth proved the winner. Michael Ronayne was the Lismore hero as he led the onslaught. He pointed within 90 seconds of the restart and added a goal three minutes later to put them a point in front, 1-5 to 0-7.

Donal Landers added much-needed strength for Lismore in the centre of the field, and with Portlaw's grip broken here the winners got the service needed. The early scores boosted their confidence and they came forward in waves. Brendan Lawton shot home a goal at the second attempt in the 10th minute and Michael Ronayne added a point five minutes later. The same player added points in the 16th and 18th minutes to consolidate their position, leaving them with a 2-8 to 0-7 lead.

SECOND WIND

Portlaw had yet to score in this half but the experience of players like John Galvin and Michael and Jimmy Hennebery was seen to good effect as they helped to steady the side. They found their second wind and with Galvin moving out from defence they came back at Lismore. John Kiely forced home a goal after Denny Buckley had saved from John Kirwan in the 27th minute. Mossie Whehan added a point from a free in the 29th minute to leave just a goal between the sides (2-8 to 1-8) and the hearts of the Lismore supporters must have palpitated violently when Martin Hickey zeroed in on goal with time up. Hickey's shot went screaming goalwards, but

Denny Buckley deflected the shot over for a point. It was all over. Lismore had come back from the brink of defeat and then had to withstand a mighty Portlaw fight-back for a well-deserved victory. This was a wonderful second-half performance by Lismore, which will do wonders for the team as they carry the hopes of the West into their semi-final clash against Clonea. Scorers — Lismore—M. Ronayne 1-5, B. Lawton 1-0, B.

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. CLUB NOTES

GOOD WIN FOR JUNIORS Our junior hurlers put up a really fine display last Thursday evening at Lismore when scoring a fine 3-11 to 4-2 championship victory over Shamrocks.

Although we were never in any real danger of defeat here it looked as one stage as though we would register a runaway win. However our opponents got through for some good goals and we had to battle a little before finally clinching our victory.

We fielded a very youthful side in this game and all the players put in a determined effort over the hour. They had their reward in the shape of a deserved win and we now look forward to our next game. Meanwhile the training continues—for junior and intermediate alike.

TOURNAMENT DEFEAT

Although somewhat below full strength we still can have no excuses for our 2-11 to 1-9 defeat by Erins Own in the replay of that club's own tournament at Poleberry last week. We missed many chances over the hour and generally played well below expectations.

Clearly we still have some way to go before we can realistically begin to think in terms of championship honours. Yet there is much to work and aim for.

MINORS OUT

Although our minor hurlers tried all the way, and did reasonably well in all the circumstances, we were still well beaten by championship favourites Lismore last week. The scoreline however did less than justice to our gallant efforts, and with many of the team fit for the grade again next year we can look forward to 1987 optimistically. Goals at either side of the interval proved our undoing but great credit is still due to the boys for the way they battled right to the end.

The panel was:—D. O'Neill; I. Hayes, J. P. Moran, J. Desmond, P. Ormonde, D. Flynn, C. Mansfield, E. Burke, B. Morrissey, J. Walsh, J. Ferncombe, A. Simms, M. Truman, T. Butler, B. Maher, J. McGrath and E. Mahony.

MELADON CUP FINAL

The final of the Meladon Cup (under 16 hurling) takes place at Fraher Field on this Thursday evening (7.30) when our own fellows take on St. Olivers. St. Olivers scored an excellent semi-final victory over St. Patricks and we won our place in the decider thanks to a win over Abbeyside.

Here's hoping we can keep the "Meladon" at home and we would like to see as many supporters as possible at the game to cheer the boys on in their pursuit of victory.

EAMONN YOUNG IN TOWN

The Munster Council-appointed football coach, Eamonn Young of Cork was with us all day last Monday week and he spent much of the time coaching the eight to fourteen year olds at Fraher Field. The day-long coaching session also saw some adult club members assisting to whom we are indebted for his time and services.

Hopefully our young lads will, in time, reap a handsome dividend from the valuable coaching and hints passed on by the former Cork star.

ON HOLIDAYS

Many of our players are presently on annual holidays and doubtless this will not help attendances at training sessions. However we hope all will enjoy their deserved breaks.

Among those seeking the sun in far away Greece are playing members Pipi Ferncombe, Jim Meehan, Michael Dwyer and Denis McGrath. No doubt they'll be bronzed—and flat broke—on their return.

BLANK WEEK-END

For the first time in many months the club will not be in championship action this week-end. Hopefully we will have another "free" week-end the following week as apart from players out with injuries several others are in far-off places on holiday.

We are already through to the semi-final of the divisional intermediate hurling championship (at least) so there should be no difficulty for the Board in completing this championship well on schedule.

LATE "FEAR" ORGAN

On behalf of everyone in our club I would like to extend sincere sympathy to the wife, family, and relatives of the late Michael Organ of Abbeyside whose untimely death occurred last week.

"The Fear" was a great GAA man and enjoyed nothing more than the rivalry that existed between ourselves and Abbeyside (Ballincourty). He was however a great sportsman and a great friend of many Dungarvanians, and we have all been saddened by his death. Go ndeina Dia trocaire ar a anam.

GERALDINES G.A.A. NOTES

AGLISH QUEEN Congratulations are extended to Margaret Landers on being elected "Queen of Aglish" at a well attended function which was held in the Village Inn, Aglish, recently.

HARVEST FESTIVAL

On Sunday, July 20, the 10th Annual Muintir Na Tire Harvest Festival was held in Aglish, and what a wonderful day it turned out to be. The day was fine and sunny and the crowds turned out in style. There was plenty of entertainment there, with sports, super stars, spinner and a lot more stalls.

In the evening two matches were played. St. Olivers beat Lismore (B) in under 15 hurling and Ballinacoola lost at a ladies football match. Jim Joe Landers refereed both games. Great credit is due to Rev. Fr. Pat Fitzgerald and his helpers for making the day such a wonderful success.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

Geraldines ..... 2-6 Killure/Ballytruckle ... 0-9

On Wednesday evening, July 23, we made the long journey to Kilmacthomas to play Killure/Ballytruckle in the intermediate football league final, and what a game it turned out to be. It was the best game of football seen in this county for a long time. We had everything in this game—high fielding, long kicking, hard tackling and above all it was clean and sporting. At half time Killure/Ballytruckle led by 0-6 to 1-2, but in the second half we scored 1-4 to Killure's 0-3. If our lads could play like Landers 0-2, P. Donoghue 0-1; Portlaw—J. Kiely 1-0, J. Hennebery, D. De Paor and M. Whelan 0-2 each, M. Hickey, A. Burke and T. Larkin 0-1 each.

Lismore — D. Buckley; L. Buckley, B. Ormonde, R. Ronayne, B. Lee, D. Landers, S. Prendergast; J. Cashman, F. Power; B. Prendergast, B. Lawton, E. Fenton; B. Landers, M. Ronayne, P. Donoghue, Sub. G. Sheehan for Fenton.

Portlaw — J. Power; J. Galvin, M. Hennebery, P. Kelly; J. Hennebery, G. O'Brien, B. Coffey; A. Burke, R. Barry; De De Paor, M. Whelan, P. Burrows; T. Larkin, M. Hickey, J. Kiely, Sub. J. Kirwan for De Paor. Referee: John Moore (Dungarvan).

On behalf of everyone in our club I would like to extend sincere sympathy to the wife, family, and relatives of the late Michael Organ of Abbeyside whose untimely death occurred last week.

"The Fear" was a great GAA man and enjoyed nothing more than the rivalry that existed between ourselves and Abbeyside (Ballincourty). He was however a great sportsman and a great friend of many Dungarvanians, and we have all been saddened by his death. Go ndeina Dia trocaire ar a anam.

A meeting will be held in St. Mary's Hall, Aglish on Monday night next, August 4. # Dungarvan Hotelier's Appeal Against Assault Conviction

A Dungarvan hotelier who had been convicted in the District Court of assaulting a hotel guest, and occasioning him actual bodily harm, failed in his appeal to Dungarvan Circuit Court to have the conviction quashed.

Judge D. P. Sheridan, at the end of a lengthy hearing, said he did not think that the appellant, John Power, proprietor of the Ormonde Hotel, O'Connell Street, was justified under any circumstances in inflicting the injuries which had been inflicted on the hotel guest, Christopher Gordon, a market trader, of Salinas, Nass, Co. Kildare, in the hotel in the early hours of April 17th last year.

The Judge, in his summing up, said all the trouble arose over a missing hotel room key and it should never have happened. "If I had a doubt, in the case I would give the benefit of it to the appellant but I do not have any such doubt," Judge Sheridan said. Christopher Gordon told the court that he and two friends booked into the Ormonde Hotel on the evening of April 16 last year around 6 o'clock. They paid for their room but were told at the reception that the key could not be found at that time.

Witness said when they went to the room the door was open and they left the baggage on a bed. They later went out and had some drinks before returning to the hotel around midnight.

Gordon said they had one drink in the bar and he then decided to go to his room but found that it was locked. He came back down for a key only to be told by the proprietor, Power, that it could not be found. An argument developed about the missing key and the hotelier accused them of having been given a key when they booked into the hotel.

Witness said the appellant kicked him a few times and hit him in the face with his head. He was then put out of the hotel by Power and he then telephoned the gardai. Later all three of them left the hotel and spent the night in a van.

BOISTEROUS
Replying to Mr. P. McCarthy B.L. (instructed by Murphy, McCullagh and Gordon) for the appellant, the gardai denied that he and his friends were boisterous when they returned to the hotel around midnight. He also denied that the trouble with Mr. Power followed his attempt to assault Mrs. Power. Brendan Kearney, who also booked into the hotel with Gordon, corroborated his evidence about the missing key and said he saw the hotelier but Gordon in the face.

The third member of the party, Richard Ormsy, said that he did not see the actual assault on Gordon but afterwards he saw a badly swollen area around one eye and his spectacles were also removed from his face.

"HEADER"
Garda John Seator told the court that when he saw Gordon, who complained of having been assaulted by the hotel owner, his right eye was partly closed. He subsequently spoke with Power who admitted giving Gordon a "header." He did not make any complaint at that time about the conduct of Gordon and his friends.

Garda John Martin said Power also admitted to him to having "hit out" at Gordon and that he then took him down the stairs "and kicked him out of the hotel." Power, he said, claimed Gordon had caused annoyance in the hotel and that he would not take an alternative bedroom when the key for his own could not be found.

The appellant, John Power, said in evidence that when the three men returned to the hotel around 12.30 a.m. they were fairly noisy. All the other guests were in bed and at the time he himself, his wife, and their young children were staying at the hotel.

They were given one drink and they had to be asked to quieten down several times. Gordon was falling asleep and eventually went to bed leaving almost a full pint behind him. Gordon came back down and said he did not have a key to his bedroom and the others said they hadn't the key either. Witness tried several keys but none of them would open the bedroom door.

Power said they refused the offer of an alternative bedroom and they were shouting and roaring. He saw Gordon catch his wife and when he intervened he was pushed into a bedroom. On the way back out he hit Gordon one blow in self-defence. He later put him out of the hotel.

Mrs. Eileen Power corroborated her husband's evidence and said he had intervened when Gordon began pushing and shoving her. She had to reprimand them several times because of the noise they made on their return to the hotel.

On the question of penalty, Judge Sheridan said he would adjourn his decision for one year. If in that time Power paid a sum of £125 by way of compensation for the injuries to Gordon he would then apply the Probation Act to the appellant.

Mr. McCarthy B.L., subsequently intimated to the court that the appellant would pay that sum as directed by the Judge.

VETS ROLE VITAL IN FARMING

Mr. Kevin O'Farrell, the An Foras Taluntais, Moorepark expert, says that the vet's role is vital in farming. Speaking in Dublin, Mr. O'Farrell said that the rising trend towards intensive cattle husbandry will, if unsupervised by vets, lead to a corresponding rise in the incidence of diseases.

Mr. O'Farrell said that infertility costs Irish farmers some £35m. to £40m. in lost earnings each year. Mastitis is now generally reckoned to cost £5m. because of lost production and the cost of treatment he said.

Calf mortality which is estimated to cost £40m. per year could be reduced through veterinary intervention, while lameness in cattle is the source of further losses of many millions he continued.

On the lameness issue, Mr. O'Farrell said that it is now affecting between 5 p.c. and 50 p.c. of cattle. It leads to other problems, notably infertility, and on average causes a weight loss of 25 kgs. per animal. Given the trend to intensive herds, there will be a "greater incidence of metabolic disorders and diseases" for vets to contend with, said Mr. O'Farrell.

In dairying, the number of herds had already dropped from over 90,000 before EEC entry to about 60,000 and existing EEC policies could see that number drop to 35,000 or so herds before much longer, he estimates. "A lot of people think of the vet as a fire brigade man to call in when things go wrong," said Mr. O'Farrell, "but the vet has a lot more to contribute to a total animal health programme."

Entente Florale Judges Visit Ardmore

Judges from six European countries visited the picturesque seaside village of Ardmore on Thursday last to assess the Ardmore community effort in this year's Entente Florale competition.

Ardmore with Kinsale are Ireland's entries in this year's Entente Florale which is Europe's premier environmental competition, the object of which is to choose two towns in Europe (one over 2,000 and one under 2,000 population), which have used flowers, trees and shrubs with the most skill and imagination to enhance the environment.

This is the sixth successive year for Ireland to enter this prestigious competition which involves towns in Austria, Belgium, Luxembourg, France, Switzerland and Ireland. The Tidy Towns Committee in Ardmore with the co-operation of the local County Council and South East, tourism have been busy engaged for many months past planting open spaces, tending private gardens and giving special attention to window boxes and hanging baskets. And the major sponsors, Sandtex Ireland, provided paint, vouchers for householders to paint their houses before the judges arrived and to add the finishing touches to their preparations.

Mary Nash of Bord Failte, one of the panel of seven judges said, "This competition has pulled the community together. Every family in Ardmore has made a contribution and the village has changed beyond recognition."

And so Ardmore prepared for the great day of judgment and certainly on the day the village was a mass of colourful flowers and shrubs, with the spick and span streets (thanks to the work of the youthful "litter wardens" known locally as

"K.A.T.s"), brought an air of extra super cleanliness and freshness to the normally very beautiful seaside resort. It was probably more than a coincidence that July 24, the day fixed for the visit of the Entente judges, was also the feast day of St. Declan, the patron saint of Ardmore, and the influence of the good saint was surely reflected by the fact that the weather held fine in Ardmore, although drizzle and mist were the weather conditions which prevailed not all that many miles away.

On their arrival in Ardmore the judges were received and welcomed by Mr. John Fitzgerald, Chairman, Mrs. Caroline Bowen-Walsh, Hon. Secretary and members of the Ardmore Tidy Towns Committee and then proceeded to tour the village. On completion of their tour of inspection, the group repaired to the Cliff House Hotel where, with a large number of invited guests, they attended a reception and lunch hosted by Sandtex Ireland Ltd.

A GREAT AND WONDERFUL DAY

Speaking before the conclusion of the luncheon, Mrs. C. Bowen-Walsh on behalf of the Chairman and members of the Ardmore Tidy Towns Committee welcomed the international panel of judges and other guests to Ardmore. It had proved a great day for them all and it had now put Ardmore on the international map. She said that everybody had helped with the great effort put in, particularly the young people. "As a result," said Mrs. Bowen-Walsh, "the judges were all very impressed by what they have seen. It has truly been a wonderful day for us all."

Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager who spoke initially in Irish continued in English by saying that what had been accomplished was the result of the combined effort of the County Council and the local community. Winning a competition was important, he said, but at the end of the day it was not everything and what really counted was the pleasure which the end result would provide not only for the visitors to the village but to the local residents as well. "What has been done will benefit everyone," he said.

He said that every householder and every member of the community in Ardmore was to be thanked for what they had done. "Long may what they have done last and be of benefit to them," he added.

Mr. Jack Walsh, Assistant Regional Manager, South East Region, also spoke and said that Ardmore had put on a fantastic and fabulous effort and everything had come right on the day. He added that tremendous credit was due to the committee and to all the residents for all the wonderful work. "I hope," said Mr. Walsh, "that we will all meet again in September and that then Ardmore will be given the international award."

A BEAUTIFUL PLACE

Speaking in French, with the assistance of an interpreter, the President of the International Panel of Judges, M. Eugene Schuster, Luxembourg, thanked the Ardmore committee and the hospitality given to them. He said that they were all very pleased to visit Ardmore which was looking very beautiful. He had particular praise for the young KATs group all of whom he had met and said that the lovely floral arrangements and the combination of old and new houses made Ardmore "a beautiful place for visitors from any part of the world."

Mr. Schuster made special mention of the beautiful church in Ardmore and of the "luck penny" which had been presented to him as a souvenir of his visit at Perks Funfair. This he said he would take back home with him to remind him of his visit to Ardmore.

MEMENTOS

Mrs. Bowen-Walsh and Mr. Fitzgerald then presented each of the visiting judges with a piece of Waterford Crystal as a memento of the occasion and the judges and guests moved on to the hotel car park where they were regaled to Irish music played by Piper Christy McCarthy, Youghal, a member of the Pipe Band of the 1st Battalion, Southern Command.

DISSATISFACTION AT TREATMENT OF LISMORE G.A.A. OFFICIALS

Dear Editor,
Please allow me space in your paper to express my total dissatisfaction at the treatment of Lismore G.A.A. officials after this year's County Féile na nGael Final in early June. It has been drawn to my attention that substantial fines and suspensions have been handed out to Lismore G.A.A. Club and three officials.

I was a spectator at the above hurling game and witnessed the following incident. A long ball dropped into the Lismore goal where the full forward was standing beside the goal-keeper. The full forward touched the ball past the goal-keeper into the net. To my amazement the goal was allowed. Naturally this decision provoked an angry reaction from the Lismore officials as I am sure it would have from anybody who knows anything about the game of hurling. As the game was lost by two points you can see the significance of the decision.

As a parent I think that it is imperative that referees and umpires be seen to act in an impartial manner particularly in the handling of juvenile games as their example may have an everlasting effect on their personalities and their attitudes towards discipline.

I am saddened by the fact that the recipients of the harsh treatment meted out by the County Board have given long and untiring service to the G.A.A. in Lismore and in the county. Is it any wonder that Waterford hurling is in such a dire state when those who are willing to give their time and energy to the promotion of the game are treated in such a harsh manner?

In recent weeks, having travelled to under-age games in the West Waterford division, I have formed the impression that Lismore's success in under-age hurling is somewhat resented. They have won many county titles and several Western titles at under-age level through the hard work of the above badly-treated officials and many others who have given their untiring service to the promotion of under-age hurling. Finally success seems to be unacceptable in Waterford while failure is condoned.

Miss Le meas,
BILL KENNEALLY,

NATIONAL CEREALS CAMPAIGN IN THE OFFING

Concern about the recent serious decline in cereals—and the threat of inadequate supplies even for home market requirements—has led to the launch of a National Cereals Campaign.

Backed by producers, millers, compounders, livestock farmers, meat processors and the full cross-section of the cereals industry, the National Campaign will take effect from mid-August.

The joint chairmen, Peter Cosgrove, Grove Turkeys and Edward Kavanagh, Kavanagh's Manor Mills, said "If some positive action isn't taken now to shore up the decline in acreage there will certainly be a crisis for the overall industry. Our objective, therefore, is to encourage profitable production of home-grown cereals as raw material for animal feeds and for other relevant purposes."

"We also must keep in mind that there is great likelihood of an EEC curb on grain production in the near future. The Irish industry shouldn't let itself be caught out at low levels of production," they stated.

SEATS FOR DUNGARVAN SQUARE

When Cllr. B. Cotter moved a motion at the July monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council that the Council place two "form type" seats at the Square, one on each traffic island, bolted to the ground, the County Manager, Mr. D. Hurley agreed that the seats would be put out "on trial" for a period.

REA EXPLAINS IFA SHOCK DECISION

Fictitious follies was how IFA boss, Joe Rea described the targets and plans of the present Government in relation to agriculture.

And the Cahir farmer also accused the Government of having a scarpard mentality towards farmers as he explained why IFA has made the shock decision to withdraw from the Animal Health Council.

Mr. Rea expressed serious concern and anxiety at the failure of the Government's economic policies during a press conference after last week's (July 22) meeting of the IFA National Council.

He warned that the consequence of such a failure is the all time low financial environment of both agriculture and industry. This is characterised by the highest ever real interest rates and a penal cost structure which is forcing enterprises in the key productive sectors out of business.

"If Irish farmers had the same level of interest rates as German farmers, there would be a saving of over £100m. in 1986 which would improve farm incomes by 11%," he said.

Slamming the Government's targets and plans as fictitious follies, Mr. Rea said that in their programme for Government in 1982, the major economic target was the elimination of the current budget deficit over five years. By 1984, in "Building on Reality" this had changed to a reduction to 5% of GNP by 1987.

"The position now is that the budget deficit will be higher at the end of the plan than before the plan started," he said. "In fact, during the lifetime of the Government, the current budget deficit has never fallen below 7% of GNP."

DRIVER WAS CAUGHT ON HIS WEDDING DAY

A motorist who was convicted on charges of dangerous driving and with driving with excess alcohol on the day he was married appealed against the severity of the penalties imposed before Judge Sheridan at Dungarvan Circuit Court last week.

He was Padraig Meegan, Kilmurray, Dungarvan and he was convicted at Kilmathomas Court on charges of dangerous driving and driving with excess alcohol at Garrahylish, Leamysbrien on June 4, 1983.

Garda J. Ryan in evidence told the Court that the defendant when stopped had told him he had been married that day and was on his way from the wedding reception at the time. A blood sample given by the defendant gave a reading of 204 mgrms.

The defendant stated that he was aged 38 and had been working as an insurance representative based in Armagh. The day he was stopped was his wedding day.

Judge Sheridan said that he would vary the order made by the District Justice against the appellant by reducing the period of disqualification from three years to one year and by reducing the fine of £500 to £200.

Mr. A. V. Maher, State Solicitor was for the Director of Public Prosecutions and Mr. S. Langan-O'Keefe, B.L. (instructed by Ms. J. F. Williams & Co.), was for the appellant.

The photograph in our "Remembering Other Days" series this week takes us back to the mid 1950's and shows the boys of yesteryear who are the men of today, all primary school pupils at the Dungarvan CBS at the time. The occasion was the presentation of a watch being made by the then Headmaster Bro. T. Keane to Michael Lewis of Shandon Street, Sixth Class, to mark the fact that he had never missed a day in his 6 years in the primary school. The presentation was made on the iron stairs which led to the old secondary school. Many of the pupils, some now sadly gone from us, are easily recognisable but the Christian Brother at the back remains unidentified.

Recent Deaths

MR. MICHAEL ORGAN

We record with sincere regret the death of Mr. Michael "Fear" Organ, McCarthysville, Abbeyside, which sad event took place at Ardkeen Hospital on Wednesday, July 23, after a short illness.

"The Fear", who was only 55, had been one of the Village's best known personalities. He was member of one of Abbeyside's oldest and most highly respected families and was himself extremely popular in the area.

Of a gentle and most inoffensive nature, he made friends easily and his passing has been the cause of much sorrow to all, but more especially to his sorrowing wife, family, brothers, sisters and relatives, to whom we extend deep sympathy.

"The Fear" had many interests but one of his greatest loves was hurling. He played in every grade for the Village and was an ardent supporter of Abbeyside/Ballinacorty teams up to the time of his death.

He was a valued employee of Waterford Co-op and his fellow workers as well as members of the Abbeyside/Ballinacorty G.A.A. Clubs provided guards of honour when his remains were removed to Abbeyside Parish Church on Thursday evening.

Very Rev. Canon Farrell, P.P., who received the remains at the Church, assisted by Rev. Colum Flives, also celebrated the Requiem Mass on Friday morning and officiated at the burial in Kilmionin cemetery, again assisted by Fr. Flives.

Chief mourners — Rebecca (wife); Paddy (son); Sharon, Geraldine and Antoinette (daughters); Liam, Johnny, Paulie and Frankie (grandchildren); Maureen, Sheila, Riordan, Abbeyside, Breda Healy, do. (sisters); Tom Cahill and Frankie Flynn, Abbeyside (sons-in-law), grandchildren, relatives, etc., etc.

MR. JAMES CASEY

We regret to record the death of Mr. James Casey, Moine, Grange, which took place at his residence on Monday, July 21.

A member of the farming community, he was extremely popular in the area and his death has been the cause of much sorrow to his many friends, but more especially to his sorrowing wife, Teresa, sons, daughters, brothers and other relatives to whom we extend sincere sympathy.

His remains were removed to Grange Church on Wednesday and were blessed by Very Rev. D. O'Connor, P.P.

Rev. T. Flynn was celebrant of the Requiem Mass on Thursday and also officiated at the burial which took place afterwards in the adjoining cemetery.

MR. WILLIAM (BILLY) WALSH

The death of Mr. William (Billy) Walsh took place at his residence Knockenpower, Ring, on Thursday, July 24.

A fluent Irish speaker, he had a deep knowledge of the folklore of Ring and Old Parish and he was extremely popular with all the members of the local community and with the many visitors to the Gael-tacht area.

He had been the postmaster

FIGHT FOR SIGHT CAMPAIGN At a meeting of the above committee a vote of sympathy was extended to John Organ (Vice Chairman) and family on the recent death of his brother Michael. Sympathy was also extended to the Hayes family, of the Pike and the Casey family of Kiely's Cross.

TENNIS The work done included the installation of new seating on both sides of the Mall, and a general clean up of the walls and trees which were previously covered in moss and grasses. For locals and tourists alike, it will now prove to be a suitable resting area as well as providing a perfect view of Lismore Cathedral. However it is hoped that the area will remain litter free so that the beauty of the town will not deteriorate.

AWARD For the fourth successive year Waterford County Council has won the Midweek County award. Not a bad record.

LISMORE FESTIVAL

This Sunday (Aug. 3rd) the Annual Festival will be opened by Mrs. Mary Morrissey, chairperson of Lismore Town Commissioners. As can be seen from the advert elsewhere in this paper, Lismore Festival Committee have a full programme of events for the week.

On opening Sunday the Castle Gardens will be open to the public where St. Mary's Brass and Reed Band Youghal will give a recital. Judging of the baby show will also take place in the Castle Gardens.

On Sunday night the highlight will be the parade of the Festival Queen entrants. At the time of writing these notes there are nine clubs who have a contestant entered.

The Festival Queen parade will commence at the Court and will conclude at the Court where the winner will be announced and the queen crowned. Dancing on Sunday night in Lismore Hotel to Colette and Cosmos.

On Monday it is down to the strand for the swimming Gala. Last year unfortunately the sun was ruined by the rain, so hopefully we can expect the sun this year.

On Monday night there is an u10 soccer match between Lismore and Youghal while at the Hotel there will be a Monster "45 Drive" at 9 p.m. with Judging of the door takings in prizes.

On Tuesday evening the first round of the Inter Pub soccer competition will commence and at 7.30 p.m. the Annual Dog show as usual will take place. Dancing on Tuesday night is to Mick Delahunty and needless to say a very big crowd is expected to listen and dance to the maestro.

On Wednesday the very popular set dancing competition is guaranteed to draw the crowds to the Hotel. There will also be a first round of the Inter Pub soccer competition in the soccer field.

On Thursday night the ladies take over with a Fashion Show. Clothes are by the Arcade.

Next week we will preview the final weekend and give results of all events on the opening few days.

Last Friday night at Lismore Hotel Mr. Joe Eberst presented a cheque for sponsorship on behalf of Guinness Group Sales to Mr. Paddy Lawton, chairman of Lismore Festival Committee.

Mr. Lawton on behalf of the committee thanked the Guinness Group and said all sponsorship will help defray the heavy costs incurred in presenting a week long festival.

Finally before we finish these notes looking up the records recently we discovered this is the 22nd Festival in Lismore. Great credit is due to the many committee members who have worked over those years to bring the festival to the Cathedral town for festival week.

LISMORE F.C. NOTES

With the soccer season just a few weeks away Lismore, under the management of Joe Tobin, will play their first game of the 1986-87 season when they entertain Bridevee next Wednesday night.

As usual they will be playing in the very prestigious Tavern Cup, organised by Cappoquin. This tournament will also be open to all Red House League teams, and Lismore will be able to judge their strength and weaknesses.

On the Bank Holiday Monday (Aug. 4th) the Lismore u10 girls will play Youghal at the Club as part of Lismore Festival programme.

The visitors have a very strong side as they are proving at present in their league. So for the soccer club the holidays are over and it is back to the grind again.

NEW BAND

Sunday the 10th of August is red letter day for young Lismore band "White Heather Circus" when they make their debut on home ground supporting the "Loudes, Whisper" in the Lismore Hotel.

Although only practising since Christmas 1985, this motley crew of four (Owen Madden—Drums and Vocals; brother John Gaiter—Keyboards and Vocals; Brendan Lawton—Brass and Vocals and Dave Murphy—Guitar, Keyboards listen so here's hoping that all Vocals) have built up a collection of alternative songs which will be relatively new to the regular attenders at the Lismore Hotel live gigs.

Their range of music varies from U2 to Waterboys (coupled with some surprisingly good originals).

The band play from 11 to 12 midnight before the main act. They are worth a good everyone gives them plenty of support. Good luck lads!

GOOD WORK

Compliments are in order for Waterford County Council for the splendid work they have completed on the Mall, here in Lismore.

The work done included the installation of new seating on both sides of the Mall, and a general clean up of the walls and trees which were previously covered in moss and grasses. For locals and tourists alike, it will now prove to be a suitable resting area as well as providing a perfect view of Lismore Cathedral. However it is hoped that the area will remain litter free so that the beauty of the town will not deteriorate.

AWARD

For the fourth successive year Waterford County Council has won the Midweek County award. Not a bad record.

TIDY STREET COMPETITION

The preliminary judging took place last week. The final judging will take place during the week ending the 3rd of August.

MR. THOMAS FOGARTY

It is with deep regret that we record the unexpected death of Mr. Thomas Fogarty, Bish, opstown, Lismore, which took place on Wednesday, July 16th at his residence. He was in his 62nd year.

Although originally from Rathgormack, Carrick-on-Suir, he had lived in the Lismore area for over 31 years, where he became deeply involved with the local community and Farm industry. He had been given a life membership by the Irish Coursing Club as a mark of recognition for his work in the Irish greyhound industry.

He is survived by his wife Siobhain, sons, Eamonn, Thomas and Patrick (who returned from France), daughters: Katrina, Mary and grand daughter (who returned from New Zealand) and son in law, His brothers: Billy, Denis, Neddy and Frances, his sisters: Mollie and Nelly, nephews and nieces, sisters in law, etc. Sexton family, Limerick and Mr. T. Moonen, Bonmahon to whom we extend sympathy.

His remains were removed to St. Carthage's Cathedral, and after Requiem Mass celebrated by Fr. Madden Lismore, assisted by Rev. Fr. M. Wall P.P. Rathgormack and Rt. Rev. Mgr. B. Dunne, Head Chaplain of the defence forces, he was laid to rest in St. Carthage's cemetery.

Lismore claimed their second Senior Co. Title on Sunday last after a thrilling match against Gaultier. This game was a repeat of last year's Co. Final in which Lismore took their first title by just a 2 point margin. This year's game promised to be just as close and ended up even closer.

Gaultier took an early lead and had a lot of pressure on the Lismore defence for most of the first half. P. Bolger pointed from a free, and as Lismore began to settle, E. Tobin forced the Gaultier goalie and fullback into errors and the ball went over the line for a goal. Lismore then began to come forward but were unable to take advantage of the free space won. Another point from P. Bolger gave them a half time lead of 2 points.

Gaultier with the very strong breeze behind them in the second half looked dangerous and some very exciting camogie was played in this half. Orla Flynn pointed twice before the Gaultier star Tish Barry scored a marvellous goal to bring the score to Lismore 1-4 Gaultier 2 goals. Gaultier could not sustain their lead and were steadily fouled by the Lismore forwards and P. Bolger pointed again. In the dying minutes Tish Barry pointed, and Lismore just held on to win by 1 point. Lismore 1-5 Gaultier 2-1. Lismore made history in this game by winning 2 senior titles in one year, the 1985 final having been delayed until February of this year due to an appeal by one of the other semi-finalists.

T. Caples (capt.) was presented with the Cup by P. J. Curran, Chairman Waterford Camogie Co. Board. Terry thanked the Gaultier team for a great game, the Co. Board, the Lismore team and trainer P. Bennett for all the work put in during the year. In his thanks to P. Fitzgerald and the Co. Board GAA for the use of the field and dressing room facilities.

Scores for Lismore:— P. Bolger 0-3; O. Flynn 0-2; B. Tobin 1-0. Team:— M. Murphy, T. Caples (capt.), C. Caples, M. Kearney, A. Ryan, S. Tobin, E. Daly, C. Murphy, B. Tobin, O. Flynn, P. Bolger, H. Barry, Subs B. Crowley, S. Tobin, M. Hale and A. O'Gorman.

Thoughts now turn to three in a row but before that the Munster club championship takes place on Aug. 31st in Lismore against the winners of Kerry v. Limerick county champions.

The u/16 and u/12 championships go ahead this week against Ardmore u/12 and Tallow or Ballyduff u/16. Best of luck to C. Murphy who is our representative in the "Festival Queen" competition on Sunday evening.

P. Bolger giving her advice Carmel, a very strong contender for this title. — Runal.

LISMORE GAA NOTES

Draw results — week No. 28 — 0-50, Josie Roby, Ballylin, Lismore; 0-30, Ina Hayes, Main Street, Cappoquin; 0-20, Mrs. M. O'Keefe, Chapel Street, Lismore; 0-15, Finbar Flynn, Owens Co. Cork; 0-10, Geraldine Barry, Towns Park, Lismore; 0-10, George Howard, Curraheen, Lismore. Promoter's prize, Jim Hale.

Senior Hurling—Overcoming some major difficulties Lismore rose to the occasion in splendid fashion last Sunday. After a strangely inept performance in the first half which saw us trailing by three points, all that was signalled to a Portlaoise victory. But the team showed remarkable character in the second half and with ten minutes left seemed to have a comfortable seven point lead. Once again, however, Portlaoise rallied and brought the game to a nail-biting finish. Fortunately we finished victorious but it must be said that this game was a credit to both teams. It was a true championship game, hard and exciting, yet throughout, the same was played in the spirit and the sportsmanship of both teams has to be commended. Still there is a long way to go and all our attention must be focussed on beating Clonea. By now the team should have their feet firmly on the ground and realise that only further improvement will be enough to carry the day.

Minor Hurling—After a good win over Dungarvan last week our minors have qualified for the Western final and being unbeaten they must now be favourites to retain their title. However, favourites are there to be beaten and this team can not afford to be complacent.

Congratulations—Well done to the ladies who retained their title on Sunday. It was a great display and it was heartening to notice that so many stayed to watch the game which was played after the senior match. Finally promoters please note that for the next couple of weeks the draw takes place on Saturdays at 8.15.

LISMORE ATHLETIC CLUB

The past week has proved to be very successful for our athletes with winners at both Araglen Open Sports and Castletyons Open Sports.

An Cairdineil Sa Rinn

Bhí a Shoilse, An Cairdineil Tomas O'Flaich, Ard-Easbog Ard Mhaca i nGaeltacht na Ríne an deire seachtaine seo caithte. Shrois se An Rinn trathnóra de h-Aoine agus d'fhan se ann d'ti an Satharn. I nGaeltacht an t-Athair Mac Gaeltachta agus mo-chuid cuairteoir a bhí ann leo, flochaoilín falte roimhe.

His Eminence Cardinal Tomas O'Flaich, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of All Ireland honoured the small gaeltacht area of Rinn with his presence last week-end. In the course of his planned pastoral visits to the various gaeltacht areas all round Ireland, the Cardinal arrived in Rinn on last Friday evening where he was greeted by the Sagart Eucharistic An t-Athair Conchubhair O'Dalaigh, the Sagart Oig, An t-Athair Piaras Mac Siacuis and a huge gathering of local residents, visitors and many who crowded into the small gaeltacht area for the historic occasion.

Flags and bunting and scrolls bearing salutations in Irish were prominently displayed throughout the parish. At a formal function held in the local secondary school, Seol San Nioclás, the Cardinal was entertained as guest of honour and there he met representatives of the many voluntary bodies and clubs in the parish as well as a big number of the senior citizens who had been specially invited to the function.

Following this, Cardinal O'Flaich went on to Ring Parish Church, high on the hillside overlooking Dungarvan harbour where he concelebrated Mass with nine concelebrant priests among whom were An t-Athair O'Dalaigh, An t-Athair Mac Siacuis, Very Rev. Fr. Michael Oiden, P.P., Kilsheelan, a native of Cappoquin and former President Maynooth College and a number of former curates who had served in Rinn. At the church the Cardinal was formally welcomed on behalf of the parishioners by Nioclás Uasal Mac Craith, Ardmaistr, Seol San Nioclás, who delivered the address in nGaehilg binn blasta na Ríne.

Locally made products were among the Offertory gifts at the Mass while the church choir conducted by Moya Uí Dhomhnaill, sang the appropriate hymns. Addressing the crowded congregation which packed the church, Cardinal O'Flaich praised the wonderful work of the gaeltacht communities throughout the country. He said that he was particularly happy to be in Rinn which he had visited several times in the past before becoming Cardinal.

An extremely busy Friday night schedule for the Cardinal ended when he attended a concert and hall held in his honour in Halla Pobail na Ríne during which he was presented with two locally made Croise Bhríde, an Aran 'gansey' and the new bilingual game called 'Focal Fun' which is also made locally. Because of his late arrival all the time schedules ran late and although the Curiam Cheoil did not end until very late the Cardinal stayed on until the conclusion.

On Saturday morning Cardinal O'Flaich had an early start and went to the pier at Helvick where he blessed the local and visiting fishing trawlers and then made a courtesy call to Colaiste na Ríne where he was received by Micheal Uasal O'Donnabháin, Balaisteoir, Muiris Bulaear, Ardmaistr, and members of the staff and welcomed by students attending the summer course at the College. He also paid a visit to Old Parish where he had stayed overnight in the Parish Priest's residence. Subsequently the Cardinal left for Dublin taking with him the prayers and good wishes of the Rinn. Indeed despite the brevity of the visit, all who met the Cardinal were most impressed by his friendly approach. One resident summed it all up by remarking,

BEHIND THE SPOTLIGHT

LAST TRICK FOR COUNCIL

A couple of weeks ago we referred to the difficulty which Dungarvan Urban Council was experiencing in moving an encampment of itinerants which had wandering horses roaming around causing untold damage to gardens and lawns in the new housing estates adjacent to the by-pass road at Shandon.

First, the wandering animals were rounded up and taken to the public pound in Clonmel but before the day was out, the itinerants were able to "bail them out" by paying the relevant charges and had them back in Dungarvan again.

The Council countered by obtaining an injunction against the itinerants. The application was granted by Judge Sheridan at a sitting of the Circuit Court in Waterford City. However the "poker game" between the Council and itinerants continued as the latter appeared to ignore the injunction by continuing to occupy the same camp site throughout the following week.

The last trick of the game eventually went to the Council who had some of the itinerants arrested on foot of their failure to obey the Court injunction and they were brought before Judge Sheridan who was then sitting in Dungarvan last Thursday. Asked by the Judge why they had failed to comply with the terms of the injunction and which consequently put them in contempt, the excuse trotted out was, "we have houses in Enniscorthy where we live and we only came to Dungarvan on our holidays!" They added that they were about to depart on the previous day but were delayed when one of the vans got punctured. Judge Sheridan then ordered the defendants to vacate the area which they were occupying forthwith and to return to Enniscorthy.

On this occasion the Judge's orders were obeyed by the itinerants as all the trucks, vans, caravans and horses had disappeared by Friday last but we heard that on Friday night they had got no further than the far side of Clonea.

WHEN YOU PLAYED THE ORGAN

We depart from our usual choice for the ballad corner this week to publish the words of a lovely old sentimental song, "When You Played The Organ." It is included in response to a request and we express gratitude to Margaret Healy, West Street, Tallow for sending us the words:—

When you played the organ and I sang the rosary, Church bells are ringing 'mid Christmas snow, Voices are singing when lights are low, These memories clinging thrill me so.

Chorus:

When you played the organ and I sang the rosary, Life to me was sweeter than that mellow melody, Then your eyes said you loved me, When you played the organ and I sang the rosary.

Loves burning fire kindles an heat, My heart's desire keeps glowing too, They both inspire dreams of you, When you played the organ and I sang the rosary.

Kilrossanty Through To Football Final KILROSSANTY 2-9; STRADBALLY 1-8

Rising county senior football champions Kilrossanty are through to this year's county final. At the Fraher Field Dungarvan, on Saturday night, last they brushed aside the challenge of Stradbally in a manner which suggests that they will retain the title when they meet Kilmacthomas in the final.

Last Saturday's semi-final was seen by many as "the county final." That it fell far short of expectations could be attributed to the fact that the champions were far better than Stradbally in almost all departments and from an early stage the large crowd had little to speculate on with the final result being a cause for conjecture.

A devastating start in both halves by the champions made sure of this. They were 1-1 to nil up two minutes after the start of the game and had their second goal just thirty seconds into the second half. As a result the Stradbally challenge was plucked before it could blossom and they were fighting an uphill battle for most of the game.

There was an air of expectancy during the interval as the game seemed poised to produce a titanic second half battle. A full blooded Stradbally onslaught was anticipated as Kilrossanty faced the strong breeze. But such was not the case as the champions crushed all hopes of a Stradbally revival within seconds of the restart.

Pat Keating and Tom Keating were involved in the move which put Jimmy Maher through for the goal which set the seal on the outcome. Pierre White added a point and although Liam O'Brien and Eoin O'Brien had Stradbally points, similar scores from Maher and Nickey Hayes left the champions well entrenched with a 2-8 to 0-5 lead after 12 minutes.

It was too much to ask of the challengers to come back from such a hopeless position. They tried hard with their best player Eoin O'Brien making the openings but the forwards failed to respond. They pointed twice through Liam O'Brien (twice), but a Tom Keating point left Kilrossanty 2-9 to 0-7 in front with just seven minutes left. Eoin O'Brien added another Stradbally point four minutes from time and their goal came from Pat Curran on the stroke of time. However, there was never any real doubt from early on about the final outcome and Maher's goal thirty seconds into the second half proved the clincher for Kilrossanty who must now be regarded as favourites to retain their county crown.

Scorers — Kilrossanty — J. Maher 1-4, R. Hahissey 1-1, T. Keating 0-2, P. White and N. Hayes 0-1 each; Stradbally — E. O'Brien 0-4, P. Curran 1-0, L. O'Brien 0-3, J. Keane 0-1.

Seven countries are represented in the competition and one member from each country is represented on the panel of judges. Many people visited Ardmore during the week as it was also Pattern Week.
