COULD BE MAJOR FINANCIAL BLOW FOR HEALTH BOARD

The decision of the President of the District Court, District Justice Oliver J. Macklin, delivered in a reserved judgment at Youghal Court last Thursday in which he dismissed with costs an action brought by the South Eastern Health Board against a Dungarvan farmer claiming £317.58 in unpaid health contributions and youth employment levies for 1982/83 could prove a major financial blow for the Board which is already suffering from a severe cash shortage.

The decision could hit legal action by this and other health boards to recover these unpaid levies and health contributions from farmers who, in the south-east region, are stated to owe a massive £6-7 million.

District Justice Macklin ruled in Youghal that, as submitted for the defendant by Dungarvan solicitor, Mr. Paddy Gordon (who incidentally made the national head-lines in another case last week-end), the health contribution regulations made on April 4, 1979, when the Taoiseach, Mr. Charles J. Haughey, was Minister for Health, are invalid.

The Act under which the regulations were made did not become operative until two days later—on April 6, 1979—so that legal action taken on the basis of those regulations had to fail.

The decision of the District Court President has put the cat among the pigeons as far as the Department of Health is concerned. Since it was announced, senior officials of the finance section of the Department have been examining the implications of the Youghal decision for the country's eight health boards, all of which are under severe financial pressure due to the major budgetary cutbacks. The recovery of a big portion of the levies and health contributions stated to be due by farmers was expected to ease these pressures.

A spokesman for the Health Department has indicated that the ruling of District Justice Macklin would be appealed by the Board as this would be their only hope of ever recovering the massive £6-7 million which it claims the farmers owe.

FINE GAEL LEADER'S VISIT

Continuing his countrywide visits to the various constituencies, Mr. Alan Dukes, T.D., Leader of the Fine Gael Party will visit the Waterford Constituency on Saturday next, June 6.

During his day-long visit, Mr. Dukes hopes to meet several local bodies and it is also his intention to view some of the inner city development sites in Waterford City as well as some of the major developments in Dungarvan.

A Press conference has been arranged for the Majestic Hotel, Tramore at 12.30 p.m. following which a buffet lunch will be provided.

Mr. Dukes will spend more than 12 hours in the constituency, making a 10 a.m.

departure to his tour with a planned departure time of 11 p.m. He is obviously anxious to meet as many local Fine Gael supporters as possible and a Constituency meeting has been arranged to take place at 8 p.m.

THE POSTMASTER OF BALLYDUFF

In "Mainly About People" in the "Cork Examiner" of May 29 the following appeared under the heading "Centre of Community":

Back in 1954 Eamon Bolger took over the job of postmaster in the village of Ballyduff and created a little local history, for he was then the youngest to hold such a job in the country, at 20 years of age.

Times have changed, but Eamon still runs the West Waterford post office, and even after all these years enjoys the job.

"The place is one of the centres of the local community. Everyone comes in here and there's never a slack moment," he says.

There have been changes in those years, but Eamon takes them all in his stride, looking on them as a challenge. The post office gave up its manual telephone exchange in May, 1985, thus ending an era which had started possibly before the first Great War, for old post cards show telephone lines in Ballyduff as early as 1912.

Though not as well known as some tourist centres, Ballyduff, standing right on the famous salmon waters of the Blackwater, attracts quite a number of fishermen each year.

Eamon gets to know many of them. "Mostly they're from Britain but we get quite a few from France, Belgium and Holland as well," explains the postmaster.

Several like the place so much they have bought homes in the district.

Away from his postal duties, Eamon Bolger is much involved in the local theatre group, which is one of the better known ones in Munster and for relaxation likes nothing better than a day out with his camera or a day's sea fishing.

We endorse what has been said about this most pleasant personality which is our reason for the reprint.

BEHIND THE TIMES

One of the busiest deputies in the Dail since the February general election has been Deputy Jackie Fahey. We have noted from the official Dail Reports that very regularly since, he has as many as 30 questions down for answer at a single Question Time session. These questions are mainly concerned with grant payments for unnamed persons in the constituency.

However we were intrigued when we saw the Order Paper for Questions to be raised at Question Time for Thursday last, May 28.

Listed as Question Number 34 was the following: "To ask the Minister for Finance if a contract has been placed for the erection of a Garda Station at Lismore, Co. Waterford; if

Drug Charges Against Dutch Couple Withdrawn

A joint operation between the Gardai and Dutch police, which was designed to break up a drug trafficking operation between Ireland and Holland, appears to have failed after Garda Drug Squad detectives moved in to arrest a Dutch father and son, who were in no way involved in the operation, last month.

Last Friday charges of importing cannabis resin with an estimated value of £230,000 were withdrawn against Henry Hartgrings (58) and his son Freek (22), at Clonmel District Court on the direction of the Director of Public Prosecutions, who had found that there was no evidence to justify the case against them.

Their release marked an end to the joint police operation which sought to apprehend a Dutch criminal and a Co. Waterford schoolteacher who were linked to the trafficking operation.

The Hartgrings were arrested at Strawberry Hill, near Ballyduff, Co. Waterford, on May 17 last after a caravan which they had imported from Holland was found to contain about 50 kilos of cannabis resin which was secreted in wall panels.

The Hartgrings, who have a small caravan repair and sale business near Neimegan, imported the caravan as part of a contract of sale with a local man, whom it later transpired had criminal convictions.

At the time of their arrest, they were attempting to deliver the caravan to a Co. Waterford teacher whose name had been supplied to them in Holland. When this teacher failed to meet them, as scheduled on the Dungarvan/Fermoy road, they proceeded to a supplied address at Ballyduff. Meanwhile, Garda Drug Squad detectives, who had tracked the caravan on its journey with the assistance of the Dutch police, decided not to wait for the teacher to collect the caravan and arrested the Hartgrings.

DUTCH DETECTIVES

This early arrest means that it is now unlikely that either the teacher or the Dutch criminal can be clearly linked to the cannabis importation. There are continuing recriminations about the operation between both police forces, with the gardai saying that they only moved in to arrest at the request of Dutch police. Last week, a number of Dutch detectives travelled to Dublin to continue their investigation into the affair.

Ironically, after the initial arrest of the Hartgrings, they were depicted in both the Irish and Dutch press as major drug traffickers with reports suggesting that gardai had "smashed a major European drugs route."

At their initial court appearance in Carrick-on-Suir District Court, their solicitor, Mr. Patrick Gordon, Dungarvan, told the court that his clients had been set and were anxious to clear their name. In the event, bail for both was fixed for £70,000 and when they failed to meet this they were remanded in custody for 10 days in Limerick Prison.

Meanwhile, Garda officers prepared a file on the case for the DPP's office, but after examining the evidence against the accused the DPP ordered that a special District Court hearing should be convened at Clonmel District Court last Friday, where all charges of importing and possessing the cannabis resin were withdrawn.

LISMORE HOSPITAL CLOSURE

Health Minister To Meet Deputation

The Lismore District Hospital saga goes on with the announcement last week-end that the Minister for Health, Dr. Rory O'Hanlon, had agreed to meet a deputation representing the Lismore Save the Hospital Committee on Thursday of this week to discuss the threatened closure of the hospital. The deputation will be led by the Chairwoman of the Committee, Mrs. Mary Morrissey who is also Chairwoman of Lismore Town Commissioners.

Last week the Committee made a successful application to the High Court seeking a judicial review of the South Eastern Health Board decision to close the hospital. Legal costs of the Committee to date are stated to have reached £4,000 but the Committee have asserted their determination to see the fight to save the hospital through to the end.

The Committee has also presented a detailed financial package to the C.E.O. of the S.E.H.B., Mr. P. G. McQuillan outlining where savings amounting to 38.2% on the 1986 outlay at the hospital could be made in the current year. Included in the package is, it is stated, a commitment to raise £50,000 by way of local contributions towards keeping the hospital open in 1987.

The South Eastern Health Board will hold its June monthly meeting in Kilkenny on this Thursday, June 4 and in the course of his financial report to the meeting, the C.E.O. states that the implementation of the expenditure reductions has continued with discussions with staff and unions in several locations. The report adds that the Minister for Health has formally sanctioned the closure of five hospitals (one of which is Lismore) and this was progressing.

AN EXCEPTION

Dealing with the situation in regard to the District Hospital

In Lismore the C.E.O.'s report then states: "An exception has been made in the case of Lismore Hospital. The High Court in Dublin on Monday last (May 25) gave leave to a solicitor from Lismore to apply within 14 days for a judicial review of the Board's resolution of 7th May, 1987 on the grounds that the Board failed to comply with Standing Orders and failed also to apply the principles of natural justice. The order is restricted to Lismore District Hospital and effectively operates to stay the closure for 14 days at least, by which time the case against closing will have been submitted to the Court and will be available to the Board to answer. The Court will then decide whether or not to carry out a judicial review and, if it does, it will take the form of a hearing at which both sides will be present and legally represented. In the meantime for each week that the hospital remains open there will be a liability on the Board's budget of about £3,000 which will have to be found by further cuts in other services or employments."

DAIL QUESTION DISALLOWED

A Private Notice Dail Question asked by Mr. Austin Deasy, T.D. on the subject last week was disallowed. The question asked the Minister for Health if he will explain the ramifications of last Monday's High Court decision granting an injunction to the Lismore Save the Hospital Committee preventing the hospital from being closed; if this now means that all hospital closures are averted until his overall review of Health Services is completed and if he will make a statement on the matter.

The reasons given for disallowing the question were (1) The Minister has no responsibility for the decision of the Court and (2) the matter is sub-judice.

NOT BITTER

Last Monday night, Mr. Freek Hartgring, who is a security guard in Holland stated that he was in no way bitter about his experience in Ireland. He said he realised that the Irish police had a job to do and his only regret was that the "big fish" in the case appear to have slipped through the net.

He said that both he and his father had agreed to deliver the caravan to Ireland in good faith when the Dutchman had told them that he was extremely frightened or ferry travel after the Zeebrugge disaster.

Mr. Hartgring said that they had provided the police with full statements detailing the background to the importation and he trusted that these would assist the investigation. "We are just happy to be back in Holland, having proved our innocence," he said.

Death Was Caused By Skull Fracture

An inquest was held by Dr. J. Gallagher, Coroner, at the Courthouse, Dungarvan on Tuesday last into the circumstances surrounding the death of Daniel (Danny) Murphy (61), single, 7, Bridget's Terrace, Dungarvan, which occurred following an accident on Saturday, November 22, 1986.

In reply to Supt. M. English who represented the Authorities, Maurice Hackett, Fitzgerald Terrace, stated that on the day in question he was in Michael O'Brien's pub at O'Connell St., Dungarvan at around 6 p.m. He was there a while when Danny Murphy walked into the bar and asked witness to stand him a small stout. "I didn't say anything," said witness, "as I thought that he had enough and that Michael O'Brien might not give it to him."

Witness went on to say that Michael O'Brien then asked him to go home and invited him to leave. "He asked me to the door," said Mr. Hackett, "and they both left the bar. Michael O'Brien did not push or offend him in any way. I didn't see him fall to the ground but I saw him immediately afterwards. While he was on the ground I spoke to him. I got no reply and I was present when the Guards arrived."

VERY TALKATIVE

Michael O'Brien, the publican in his evidence stated that the deceased came into his bar at about 7.45 p.m. He had some drink taken and was very talkative. He looked for a bottle. "I suggested to him on a few occasions," said witness, "to go home and have his tea. I came outside the bar and I spoke to him and he walked back slowly towards the door, stopping occasionally. On reaching the door I eased him on to the step outside. He got excited and appeared to lose his balance and put his elbow through the glass panel of the door and broke it. He stumbled out and missed the step outside. I couldn't say if he hit his head on the path. I didn't push him out. I only eased him out into the porch and he fell out from there."

Garda Sergeant Tadh O'Donovan stated that at 8 p.m. that evening a message was received at the Garda Station concerning an accident and he immediately went to O'Connell Street. The man was being removed to the District Hospital by ambulance. Later that night he learned that the injured man had died. He then returned to the scene and confirmed that death was accidental due to a fall.

A HEAVY FALL

Dr. K. Cuddihy, Waterford Regional Hospital gave evidence of performing a post mortem on Sunday, November 23 as a result of which he formed the opinion that death was due to fracturing of the skull which would be consistent with a heavy fall against some hard surface.

The Coroner then returned a verdict in accordance with the medical evidence and extended his deepest sympathy to the bereaved relatives. Supt. English associated himself with the expression of sympathy.

NOTES

UNDER 14 COUNTY FINAL Fraher Field will be the focus of attention for everyone in the club on Saturday afternoon (4 o'clock) when our under 14 footballers take on Tramore in the
"A" county championship final.
The boys have done the club and themselves proud in reaching this final very much against the odds, and they are now just one game away from a title which last came to the club in 1980. A great run in the West ended in a 2-6 to 1-2 victory over Kilrossanty in the divisional final but now comes the most exciting test of all.

POSTPONED
The upshot of the win by our county footballers in Ennis last Sunday is that our senior hurling championship game against Ballygunner at Waish Park next Sunday has been postponed.
With victory of paramount importance to us we could not be expected to line out without David Burke who will be a key
TRIALS
Several of our players are presently engaged in under 14 hurling and football trials for the West Waterford teams. We are honoured that so many of our boys have been called up for these trials.
SUPER DRAW
The club had no fewer than three winners of valuable cash prizes in the third of 3 monthly draws in our big fundraising effort which concludes in July.
The prizes were drawn for in Lismore last Saturday night and though the new car eluded our subscribers we had £500, £200 and £100 winners. They were Patricia Walsh, Colligan, Cait Egan, Springfield and Tony Hickey, also of Springfield, respectively.
We hope that promoters will make a concerted big drive for the two remaining draws. The next draw will be hosted by Kil-rossanty club in Leamybrien on June 27.

Tramore will undoubtedly be the firm favourites after their easy romp to the Eastern title.
However, our fellows will revel in the role of underdogs and if they can play to their full potential they are well capable of making this another memorable day in our illustrious history.
Here's wishing team captain,
John Morrissey and all the boys
the very best of luck.

CAPPOQUIN AND DISTRICT NOTES

CAPPOQUIN FLOWER AND GARDEN CLUB
The May meeting of the Flower Club was held on Tuesday the 19th. The main business of the meeting was to arrange for our annual outing which is on Sunday next June 7th departing at 2 p.m. from the GAA Field. Our first stop is a very large beautiful garden in Oglehead followed by a visit to Eva Brennan's Garden Centre near Cahir. To complete the evening we will have dinner in Kilcoran Lodge Hotel - total cost £14. A few seats are still available. If you would like to join us contact Helen McGrath, Fourin.

Gate Collectors - Gate collectors for this week, 31st May to 6th June are - E. O'Shea, J.
Coughlan and B. Murray.
On gate duty next week, 7th
June to 13th June are - P.
Curran, E. Costin and M. Byrne.

Intermediate Football: Affane
1-6; Ardmore 1-5. Having played badly in the first half Affane raised their game considerably to come from behind and overcome Ardmore by the narrowest of margins. Michael Hackett was in vintage form and was aided by outstanding performances from Pat Casey, Kieran O'Connor, Eamonn Costin, Danny Lucas, Martin Power and Philip Bergin.
Scorers - M. Hackett (1-1),
P. Curran (0-4), D. Lucas (0-1).

Minor Football: Affane 3-15; Brickey Rangers 0-1. Although holding an under-strength team Affane still had no trouble overcoming a weak Brickey challenge. They have now qualified for the Western Final against Naomh Bríd.
Having been beaten by this opposition already this season
our lads will have to "pull up their socks" for this important game and take nothing for granted. We have been beaten at this stage of the competition for the past two years. It is now time we won a final and put an end to our losing sequence in finals.

Under Age Competitions
Break For Exams - All minor and under 16 competitions are suspended for exams at present and will resume following the Leaving Certificate.

S.H. Challenge - Our senior hurlers travelled to Cork to play Na Piaras in a challenge game last Sunday evening. Following a good first half display by our lads, they were no match for the Cork side in the second half and were beaten well at the finish.

S.H. Challenge - Our senior hurlers are in action on Sunday next when they play Lismore at Tallow. This is a game we must win if we are to keep our championship hopes alive.

Sympathy - The club extends deepest sympathy to the Fraher families and Lehane and Looby families who suffered bereavements last week.

The outing is planned for June 27th and we will be taking the high road for County Clare and visiting the beauty spots there. We hope, this time to include some of the areas previously visited and some new ones too. Our highlight will be our scenic drive through the Burren. Booking at Unlacks Shop, The Square or from any member of the Council. Cash to accompany all bookings.

Our enrolment ceremony for Juvenile Pioneers will take place on June 19th. We will confirm this date next week as we are contacting all concerned personally.

BEREAVED
We extend sincere sympathy to Mr. M. Looby, Kibree, and Mrs. B. Lehan, Main St., on the death of their brother, Very Rev. Timothy Looby, which has occurred in South Africa.

U/14 Hurling - On Monday night last our lads went down to Shamrocks in the second round of the championship. We led for most of the game only to be overtaken by a late Shamrocks surge. All our lads played their hearts out with Billy Tobin and Martin Lacey particularly outstanding. This was a great improvement on our previous outing and the training is beginning to reap rewards.

Training under Michael Lacey resumes on Thursday at 6 p.m.
and all members of the panel should attend.

Excellent Standards At Waterford ICA Federation Open Day

Waterford ICA federation held its 1987 Open Day on Saturday, May 9, in the Sports Centre, Dungarvan.

There was a delightful display of crafts, old and new, paintings, flower-arranging and a baking competition, which was new this year. The main hall area had been transformed by the hard working committee into a splendid setting for the goods on display.

Demonstrations of various crafts took place during the afternoon, such as patch-work by Mrs. Nancy Twomey, Hedge-row basketry by Miss Anna Roche, Crochet by Mrs. Marie Geoghegan and stained glass work by Macra na Feirme. A 'Demonstrators' Bar' was obtained by Mrs. Mary Walsh, Kilrossanty.

The judges for the various competitions were: Floral arranging—Mrs. Peggy Murphy; Crafts—Mrs. Phil O'Dwyer and Mrs. Margaret Sheedy; Baking—Mrs. Helen O'Mahony and Mrs. Angela Casey; Painting—Mrs. Margaret O'Shea.

Opening the exhibition, Mrs. Ina Broughal, National President, praised the quality of Waterford's craft work and said it was recognisable for its excellence at every venue where it was shown.

Manager's Report On Dungarvan Developments

This week we publish the concluding extracts from the Report of the County Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley to the annual Estimates meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council. These deal with Development Incentives and Controls in the Urban area, Environmental Protection and Recreation and Amenity activities as follows:

DEVELOPMENT INCENTIVES AND CONTROLS

The lands at Gallows Hill which were purchased in 1982 and designated for housing development are practically completed at this stage. The final phase of the development of Comeragh Crescent is nearing completion. 25 of the 35 sites have been built on and the possibility of the remainder of the sites being completed within the next 12 months is quite good. During the year an area of land at New Line was purchased to preserve the entry for the proposed roadway from the New Line to the Waterford Road as outlined in the Town Plan. Developments on the site allocated to the Health Centre at Ringnasillogue have not yet become a reality.

BETTER FARM BUSINESS CRUCIAL — ACOT DIRECTOR

Close attention to financial management and control is crucial in the difficult environment facing farmers, said Dr. Liam Downey, Director of ACOT at the launch of video tapes on financial management.

The videos are an integral part of ACOT's comprehensive service on financial management on the farm. They are being sponsored by Bank of Ireland and the first two tapes are now completed and are being used extensively by ACOT staff in advisory and training programmes. A further two tapes are now being planned.

In response to continuing financial difficulties facing farmers, ACOT is now giving greater emphasis to financial management on the farm.

"We have identified better farm business as one of the key priorities for the future and have introduced special instruments in our advisory and training activities to ensure that we have the maximum impact on all farmers," said Mr. Downey.

The ACOT Director gave details of a new Farm Business Service which the organisation has recently introduced.

"Its purpose is to assist farmers in knowing what is happening in their business, in identifying problems and ensuring that corrective action is taken on time. Its function is, essentially, preventative," he said.

THREE ELEMENTS

The Farm Business Service has three elements. Firstly, a Farm Business Balance Sheet, which is prepared each year by the farmer. This is a simple means of assessing the strength and progress of the farm business. Secondly, a Financial Report which is a simple analysis, prepared by the adviser of the financial position of the farm. And thirdly, a Farm Business plan which is an annual plan summarising the farming programme including the business priorities and a simple financial budget. The Farm Business Service is now an integral component of ACOT's intensive advisory service.

Dr. Downey said that farm and financial management is also a distinct and major part of the Certificate in Farming, the three year training programme for young farmers. It is also a major element of intensive training courses for farmers who wish to avail of Stamp Duty Exemption and additional aid under the Farm Improvement Programme.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

Waste Disposal — Members are well aware of the position concerning the present Dump Site owned by the Council at Ballinamuck which is situated in the County Council Planning Area. During the year the Council agreed to hand over an area of the site at the northern side of the roadway for development by the County Council. The County Council are in the process of developing this land in accordance with the standards set down by the IIRS in their report on the site. The remaining capacity of the present dump is now exhausted and I look forward to the development of the new area of the dump. It must be pointed out that the Urban District Council will have to make a considerable contribution for the use of this area when it is developed.

I would also like to point out that the Council's present contractor together with the operator will be used by the County Council on the new site. Arrangements will be made by the County Council regarding a quid pro quo in this regard.

Town Nursery — The nursery at the Youghal Road has contributed quite considerably to the environmental development of the town and the surrounding areas but unfortunately the costs have been high and our finances will not extend to an operation on the same extent as we have seen over the past number of years. Our concentration will of necessity have to be on the maintenance of what has already been developed.

RECREATION AND AMENITY

This programme group deals with such diverse activities as running and maintaining the Sports Hall, up-grading and maintaining the Town Hall and our contribution to the operation of the Tidy Towns.

Town Hall — As mentioned in my report last year, I am pleased to report that the work on the Council Chambers is now at a very advanced stage. I would like to pay tribute to our own staff who completed this work to a very high standard indeed. I would expect that the Council Chamber will be available for use within the next four to six weeks. I am confident that this project will show dividends in the future.

I know from past experience that this type of development tends to encourage developers who might be thinking of relocating in our area. I am aware that work on the frontage of the Town Hall needs to be undertaken together with the replacement of the windows on the ballroom floor. However, this is work which will have to be postponed until 1988.

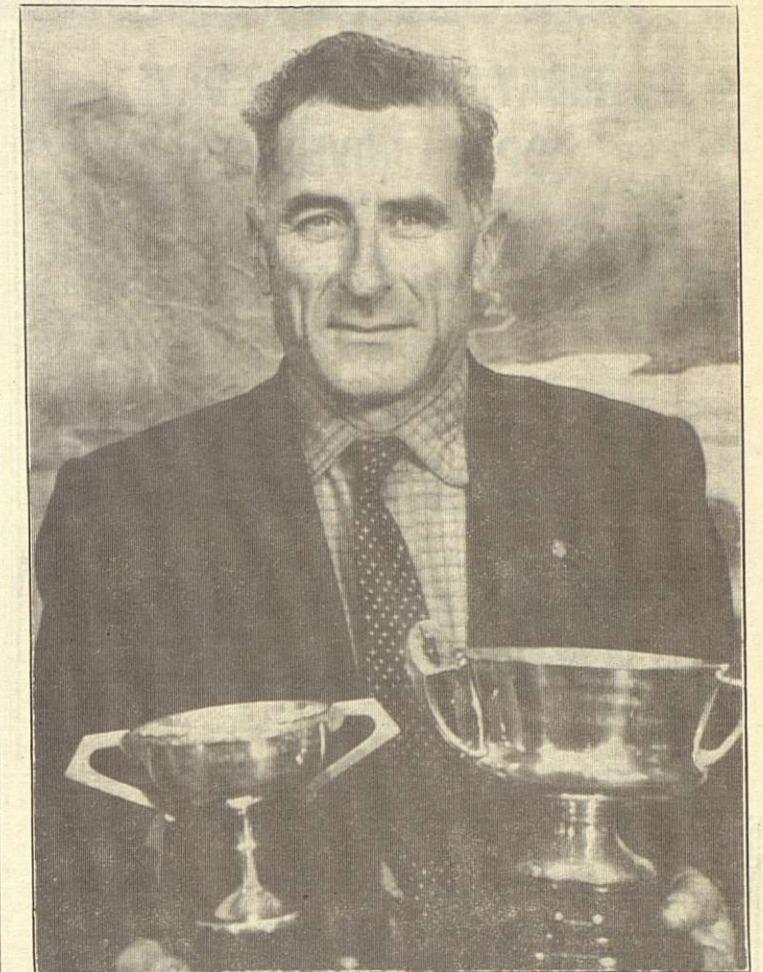

Sports Hall — The Sports Hall at Ringnasillogue continues to be used for a variety of purposes by all sections of the community. It has been used for many diverse functions, motor shows, concerts, exhibitions of various kinds, the most recent of which will be the Meteorological Exhibition due to commence on Tuesday, May 5. This is the kind of activity which should be encouraged as it gives the people of the area an opportunity to participate in events at a minimum cost which otherwise would necessitate travelling to other venues quite a considerable distance from Dungarvan.

The completion of the VEC school, the Health Board project and the new entry from the Youghal Road with the roadway at Quanns, are projects which are in the pipeline and will evolve as finance becomes available to the different bodies concerned.

Arts Act — A sum of £1,000 for Cultural Activities in the town has been provided under this programme.

SEAMUS O COBHTHAIGH

Amhranai Den Chead Scoth

Fear go bfuil an stall traidisiuntaige on gclabhain.

Breis is seasca bliain o shoin a rugadh e. Mac do Dhonnachadh agus Brid Ní Chobhthaigh, lanúin go raibh cuigear clainne ortha. Padraig, Tomás, Seamus Sean agus Peig. I Renadaupman i bParóiste Sliabh gCua a bhí conal ortha. Bhi clu agus call ar athair Sheamus mar amhranai ar an sean nos agus is aige a bhí an stor mor amhrain i mBearla agus in Gaedhlighe.

Seamus O Cobhthaigh was born a little over sixty years ago and is one of a family of five children born to Dennis and Bridget Coffey who lived at Renadaupman in the Parish of Sliabh gCua.

The family home was seldom without visitors as Dennis Coffey was a well known singer in both Irish and English.

As a young man Seamus came to An Rinn and for a number of years was employed at Colaisle Na Rinne. It is here that Seamus met his wife Cait who was also in employment there. Cait too is a very fine traditional singer. Four daughters were born to them, Breda, Kathleen, Marian and Bernie, all of them with beautiful voices upholding the family tradition.

The above photograph of Seamus was taken at the Munster Fleadh Ceol in Dungarvan in 1963. Over the past forty years he has been the recipient of many cups, trophies and medals at feadhanna ceoil all over the country and also an Oireachtas prizewinner. He has made many appearances on television and has featured in several programmes on Radio Eireann and Radio na Gaedhthachta, his latest appearance being on that well known programme "The Mountain Lark" in February this year and also on radio in the past few weeks singing that well known song "Na Finneiri" composed by the late Padraig O Míleadha.

As a traditional singer Seamus has few equals, he sings with great conviction and feeling, his clarity and diction leave nothing to be desired whether singing in his native tongue or that of the Sasanaigh. We hope to hear much more of Seamus in the near future both on radio and television and of course in the feadhanna ceoil.

Warning To Banks On Committal Order Applications

Banks and lending institutions should assist the Courts by finding out whether defendants against whom they sought committal orders for the non-payment of instalments on loans given to them were in a position to make these payments or not.

This was stated by District Justice O. J. Macklin at Dungarvan District Court, last week during an application to have two co-defendants committed to prison for failing to pay instalments of £10 per week on foot of a Bank loan.

For the Bank it was stated in evidence that £1,190 was outstanding on foot of unpaid instalments. Asked by the District Justice as to the financial circumstances of the defendants, the Bank witness replied that he was unable to say as he did not know.

District Justice Macklin said that defendants could be sent to jail when they were in a position to pay instalments on foot of a Court order and refused to do so. But if there was a question of poor circumstances it was a different matter. In the present case he did not know what the circumstances of the defendants were and he was not happy about the committal application he would refuse it.

Neither of the defendants concerned appeared at the Court.

WATERFORD FARMERS IN DUBLIN DEMO

Co. Waterford cereal growers joined last week's IFA protest outside the EEC Commission's office in Dublin.

The protest was against the poor prices being offered in the current farm price talks and the importance of cereal substitutes.

The current proposal to reduce grain prices by a further 6½% would prove the final nail in the coffin for many Irish cereal growers, IFA Grain Committee chairman, Michael McBennett, told the demonstration.

He said the future of Irish agriculture and not just of cereal growers depended on the Minister for Agriculture and his EEC colleagues making a strong stand against these price cuts.

Mr. McBennett claimed that a cheap EEC feed grain policy would be disastrous to the competitiveness of Irish red meat and dairy products as these are derived mainly from grass. However, such a policy would suit the factory type farms on mainland Europe where cows are fed indoors all the year around on cheap cereal substitutes.

MAIN CULPRIT

According to the IFA, unlevied imported substitutes are the real cause of the massive EEC surplus of Irish red meat and dairy products as these are exported on to the world market at a massive cost to the EEC Budget and farmers' incomes. The chief culprit is the U.S. from where maize gluten is being dumped on to the EEC market.

According to Mr. McBennett, the 15 million tonnes of substitutes being imported into the EEC is about equal to the size of the present EEC surplus. He added that 1.2 million tonnes of these substitutes end up on the Irish market at an annual import bill of £150 million.

The IFA has called for a special group to be set up within the Commission to devise a policy of cereal supply limitation with realistic prices through area control at national level, and proposals for a bilateral agreement with the U.S. to levy maize gluten imports as a quid pro quo for EEC production cutbacks.

This, according to Mr. McBennett, should be conditional on any agreement on the 1987/88 farm price package.

WESTERN BORD NA nOG NOTES

DUNGARVAN WIN "A" FOOTBALL TITLE

Dungarvan 2-6, Kilrossanty 1-2

The honour of playing in the first divisional final of 1987 fell to Dungarvan and Kilrossanty u-14 footballers at Stradbally recently. Kilrossanty, aided by a cross wind which made conditions difficult for the players, were leading by 1-2 to 0-1 a minute before half time when John Tutty scored for the winners to leave them a point in arrears at the break.

Dungarvan drew level within seven minutes of the restart and they scored again from Tutty with five minutes remaining. The final scoreline does not do justice to a gallant Kilrossanty side who had to give way to the physically stronger Dungarvan team.

After the game, Bord Chairman John Kieley presented the Chris Kearns Memorial Cup to the winning captain John Morrissey and we wish Dungarvan the best of luck in the county final on this Saturday, June 6 against Tramore.

Dungarvan — B. McDonnell, T. Curran, J. Morrissey, D. Sheehan, B. Lyons, R. Kelly, L. Hurley, C. Gough, F. Cunningham, E. Dee, G. Curran, T. Tutty, J. Wright, O. Cunningham, J. Long.

Kilrossanty — P. Veale, B. Lannon, M. Baldwin, S. Power, G. Houlihan, W. Cusack, M. Mulhearn, K. Loneragan, N. O'Connor, P. Barry, C. Dee, J. Kieley, D. O'Donovan, S. Coffey. Referee — Pat Moore, Abbey-side/Ballinacourty.

U-14 FOOTBALL: EAST v. WEST

The annual inter-divisional East v. West game for the John O'Regan Trophy will be played on Wednesday, June 10, between trials will be held in Dungarvan on this Wednesday, June 3 at 7.30 p.m. for all clubs except those contesting county finals on June 6.

A final trial will be held also in Dungarvan on Monday, June 8 to select a team for the game.

BORD MEETING

A meeting of the Bord was held in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan on Friday week with a disappointing attendance present. The affiliations for the u-12 hurling competition were accepted and it is expected that the A section will be played during the month of June.

ST. PATRICK'S WIN THRILLING 'C' FINAL

St. Patricks 1-6, Ballyduff 1-1

St. Patricks won a thrilling 'C' football decider by 5 points at Cappoquin over a gallant Ballyduff team that gave it everything for the 50 minutes. The losers had a dream start when they scored per Kenneth Geary before Tom Kieley got a similar score for Pats. A point from a free by Owen Corcoran put the village boys ahead again before Benny McGrath sent over two points, to leave St. Pats ahead by 1-3 to 1-1 at the break.

Ballyduff applied the early second half pressure and a great save by Richard Walsh after 6 minutes denied the losers a certain goal. Points by Raymond Lynch, Tom Kieley and John Byrne sealed victory for St. Pats at the end of a thrilling game.

After the game, Bord Chairman John Kieley presented the Bord Shield to winning captain Benny McGrath amid scenes of great excitement and we wish St. Pats the best of luck in the county final against Ballyduff Lower on this Saturday, June 6.

FESTIVE WEEK-END FOR ARDMORE

With all arrangements now made for the Co. Fleadh Cheoil in Ardmore on Sunday, 7th June, all that is now needed is continued fine weather to set the scene for what promises to be a very busy weekend at the seaside village.
The beautiful new Community Hall has been getting the final touches this week. It will be the venue for the Reed, Group and Ceilidh Band Competitions on the Sunday afternoon and the Ceilidh Mor on the Sunday night.
While many visiting musicians are expected, the musicians who play at the sessions throughout the county every weekend will also gather in Ardmore for the weekend. The impromptu open-air sessions which are so much a part of every Fleadh will be a major attraction this year.
For many dedicated Fleadh followers, the competitions themselves are the major draw — many perhaps trying to spot a potential All-Ireland winner. Rumour has it that Waterford will have an entry for the collection of ballads this year. Many ballads sung in the Ballysagart area, particularly by Willie O'Brien, should give Waterford a good chance of All-Ireland honours. Shirley McGrath, Naomh Padraig who took a 2nd in Munster last year in button accordion must be in with a great chance for All-Ireland honours this year. While it is not clear if last year's All-Ireland sean-nos champion, Sean Mac Craith will be taking part, there is a big entry in the ladies section, where Mary Farrell of Ballyduff will undoubtedly be a strong contender.

In the Junior Competitions Marian Walsh of Portlaoigh, Suzanne Rowe Waterford City and Sean Norris, Naomh Deuglan as well as several young players from Bobby Gardiner's Ballyduff class will be expected to make a big impression at least at Munster level.
A special Souvenir Programme is now in preparation which, for the first time ever will contain the names of all competitors whose entries were with the secretary on or before Monday, June 1st.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

Waterford Can Beat Limerick In McGrath Cup

NEXT WEEKEND

The planned programme for the coming week-end has been seriously disrupted by the senior football team's rather unexpected win over Clare on Sunday last...

then Lismore who were just pipped by a single last minute point went much closer than Cappoquin. This is hardly a good guide and like the game at Dungarvan it can go any way.

DUNHILL V. COLLIGAN

Colligan will have John Dunhill back and with county colleague Jimmy Beresford playing splendid hurling, they can trouble Dunhill without beating them. Dunhill scored a first round victory over Dungarvan and subsequently drew with Portlaoine on the basis of this they must be strongly fancied.

KILGOBINET V. ST. MARY'S

This could conceivably give Kilgobinet their first win in the intermediate grade. They showed good form last Sunday, while St. Mary's did not.

BALLYSAGGART V. CLASHMORE

A junior hurling tie that can seal the fate of either side. The way things are pointing, victory may go to Ballysaggart. Football is being given priority in Clashmore again this year.

TALLOW V. BALLINAMEELA

The favourites should win again here and put an end to Ballinameela's chances for another season in intermediate hurling. An upset by the outsiders would throw open the entire championship, but the chances must be remote.

FOOTBALLERS WIN

After one hundred minutes of hard fast and at times very exciting football, Waterford emerged as clear winners of the replay against fancied Clare before an attendance of almost three thousand people at Cusack Park, Ennis on Sunday last...

Clare won the toss and played with the strong wind and drizzly rain obviously intent on building up a half-time lead that would put the game beyond our reach in the second half. We were the first to score when Jim McGrath sent over in the sixth minute and would have been further ahead if Jim Maher and Carthac Mac Craith were not just wide of the mark with frees in the 8th and 12th minutes. Maher's goal before half-time kept us within a single score of the leaders and Clare went in a worried team at half-time.

We reduced the leeway to a single point but Clare came back with a couple to restore their half-time lead of three points. With 15 minutes remaining Waterford put in a final rally and Maher had 2 points and Eoin O'Brien one and we were level before the referee blew full-time.

I was in the dressing room while they prepared for the extra time and I got the feeling that 'hell or highwater' wouldn't stop them from winning in extra time. Two minutes after the start Liam O'Connor pointed and minutes later Eoin O'Brien listed to the net to give us a lead that we never lost. We were five points up at the break in extra time and while Clare with wind advantage in the second half tried everything to get back on terms, they failed. At this stage, Waterford were noticeably fitter after fighting with every ounce of strength to beat off the several Clare attacks. For the final minute of extra time the ball was kicked dangerously around the Waterford square and in this nervewracking and hectic sixty seconds anything could have happened. In the 17th minute of extra time the ball went wide and time was up. Waterford were into the Munster semi-final against the All-Ireland champions, Kerry whom they will meet at Dungarvan on June 21st.

This victory also qualifies Waterford for the McGrath Cup semi-final in which they will play Limerick at Killarney before the Clare v. Tipperary hurling game on Sunday next. The winners of the Waterford v. Limerick match play London in London in the final.

Something which pleased the footballers at Ennis was the number of supporters who travelled to see them play. Brickeys, who have always travelled after the football team, had a bus chartered for the day and there was good support also from Shamrocks, from Dungarvan, Kill and one or two other places.

McGRATH CUP

On Sunday next, the footballers play Limerick in the McGrath Cup semi-final and the team to do duty will not be announced until after training on this Wednesday evening at Fraher Field. It may show one or two changes from the side which started last Sunday. Pat Keating, who was very badly concussed in the first half and who was subsequently taken off, has, I understand made a full recovery and Dan Casey who suffered from torn ligaments is also available again.

The forward section of the team seems to be the most unsettled division, hence the need for the frequent switching of players. As next Sunday will be their final chance to settle on a side before playing the mighty Kerry, the selectors may do a bit of experimenting with the attack. They are certainly going all-out to win this one and earn a trip to London for the final later in the season. In their league meeting with Limerick at Limerick, we lost by just a couple of points, but we had a couple of goals disallowed. On the basis of that display and our improved form as seen on Sunday we must have a chance of winning.

A tough game, lasting over one hundred minutes last Sunday will have taken a lot out of the team, but having spoken to a couple of the players on Monday I am satisfied that they are 'rearing' to go again and that the question of being able to stay the full hour will not arise.

BUSY PLAYERS

Erin's Own man, Liam O'Connor will surely stand out as Waterford's player of the year for 1987 following the extent of his involvement so far. Liam has played in all the games in both hurling and football leagues so far and has played outstandingly in both our senior and under 21 championships this year. It is a magnificent record and something that should eventually be acknowledged in a tangible way. Last Sunday was the third on the trot in senior championships and this didn't stop him from having an outstanding game.

Another player who has been out for three successive senior championship games is hurling goalkeeper Pat Curran whom I would unhesitatingly name as the outstanding player over the 100 minutes on Sunday last.

RESULTS

Our county junior hurling team were very well beaten by Tipperary at Carrick on Thursday night of last week in the first round of the Munster championships. We were trailing by just one point at half-time and supporters were hopeful of beating Tipp when the teams went in at half-time.

In the second half the home side piled on the pressure and won very easily in the end. On the home front a lot of games were played and produced some unexpected results. Lismore beating the Emmetts in junior football was a surprise and must be looked at as a bit of a set-back for the ambitious Colligan club.

Ballinwillin's win over Ballysaggart was another surprise and especially for the people who saw the Tourin club perform so poorly in a recent game at Dungarvan.

Faha had their second win of the season and registered their highest score to-date when they trounced Melleray Rovers in junior football at Abbeyside. Melleray failed to score over the hour in one of their most forgettable displays ever.

In intermediate hurling, the new junior champions, Kilgobinet, certainly put it up to the hurling favourites, Tallow, Kilgobinet, who were understrength, sought a postponement without success and needed without a couple of their good players. Not having seen the game, I don't know if it was the case of Kilgobinet being very good or Tallow being poor. Anyway Tallow got the points and we'll be seeing enough of them to judge their standards before very long.

Ardmore who were plagued by injuries from the previous two Sundays, unsuccessfully sought a postponement, and eventually went under by a single point to Affane in their very closely contested intermediate football tie at the Fraher Field on Saturday evening.

Fourmlewater who are the second favourites in the race for the intermediate hurling championship had a dozen points to spare over their neighbours, St. Mary's in their intermediate hurling championship tie. St. Mary's - alias Silabh gCua - will settle for the intermediate football title this year and that is their target.

We didn't know that the Kilmachomas v. Rathgormack senior football tie was fixed for last week-end. The result shows a return to form for Kilmachomas who lost their first round to Ferrybank. This was Rathgormack's first game of the season and the two points defeat came as a big disappointment.

COUNTY BOARD MEETING

The June meeting of the County Board will take place on Monday night next when a report from the Fixtures Committee will outline the changes in the championship programme and the plans to still finish on time. Also the meeting will discuss finance - something that rarely happens at County Board. An up-to-date costing of the preparation of county teams, gate receipts and other matters relating to finance will be talked about. The names of the new County Coaching Committee will be announced and the names of all the successful candidates in the recent scholarships examinations will also be given to the meeting. Reports from the various committees will be read and a motion from Dunhill seeking to have all under-age committees (selectors) for 1988 appointed will be dealt with.

MRS. FLYNN, R.I.P.

Mrs. Biddy Flynn has been Hon. President of the Abbeyside/Ballinacourty clubs for a long number of years and has been one of the club's most loyal and dedicated supporters. There was great sadness throughout the parish recently when she died after a comparatively brief illness. The members of all the club committees and the club members turned out in strength for the removal of her remains to Abbeyside church and for her interment on the following day. A Guard of Honour was provided on both occasions. We offer our very sincere sympathy to all the members of her family.

SCHOOLS FINAL: BLAKE CUP

The final of the 'A' hurling, primary Schools competition, between Lismore and Dungarvan will take place at Cappoquin on to-morrow, Thursday evening at 6 p.m. The finals of the 'B' and 'C' competitions will be played at a later date.

LISMORE AGAIN!

For the fourth time in six years, Lismore's under 14 hurlers have qualified to represent the county in Feile na Gael and we congratulate them on this great achievement. They won it in the years 1981, '84, '85 and now in '87. We hope to give details of their forthcoming visit to Ennis for the National Feile when Scariff will be their hosts for the week-end.

CAPPOQUIN TOURNAMENT

This club have an under 11 years hurling tournament coming up this week-end and the following are the clubs involved, Na Flaxsigh (Cork), Lismore, Cappoquin and Abbeyside. I hope the club's very commendable innovation will be very successful.

TOILET FACILITIES AT BALLYDUFF GARDA BARRACKS

Mr. Jackie Fahey, T.D. and Mr. Brian Swift, T.D. have both been informed by the Minister for Finance that the Commissioners of Public Works have been aware for some time of the need for proper toilet facilities at the Garda Barracks at Ballyduff Upper. A number of legal difficulties in connection with acquiring the use of a suitable plot of land for a spreader drain have recently been resolved. The Commissioners will now proceed with the necessary works to provide the facilities required.

WEEK-END TO BURNCOURT

Last week—the long weekend—the troop went on a hostelling trip to Burncoat, Co. Tipperary. Our mode of transport was 'the bike' which was mainly being used as practice for annual camp. Our numbers were fairly large with 35, including leaders.

We left the den Saturday morning arriving at the hostel Saturday evening. During the journey all our cyclists received ferrys (just to save the legs). The main activity Saturday night was a short campfire where we picked up some new material from our Cork guests.

Sunday morning after an early 7 a.m. rise we cycled to Mass a couple of miles down the road at Burncourt Village. On return to site our morning activity was a forest walk with some river crossing by logs and some tunnelling through in.

In the afternoon we had an inter patrol based competition with some unusual items thrown in like lighting fires on the river, making bows and arrows and using them plus much more. After dinner we went up the woods for some 'bulldog' and to our surprise on our way back we got attacked by Sean Fitz, Brendan Kiersey, Muller, Alan Ryan and Sean James, but after some counter attacking it was these guys who came out worst, getting wet, tied up and torn up for their troubles.

We finished the night with a moester indoor campfire where Anthony Hackett, newcomer Michael O'Connor and Liam Moore really got stuck in. On Monday morning we dressed up using natural materials with Aidan Wall, Paul Tobin and Claran Walsh some of our best dressers. Before lunch we had a battle royal as everyone got soaked when we had a leaders versus scouts water fight. After a major clean up we hit the road for home where we made some great time as we 'bombed it home' though Conor Power and co. wouldn't agree with that.

Finally well done to all the young patrols who performed so well with the cooking and other items despite being without many of their experienced members. The winners of the bases competition were Michael Sheehan's Wolfhounds while the best picture of those completed was that of Gerard Mullen.

GENERAL

The big news of the moment is that our present log book is written up to date for the first time in years. Ray Moore went on the pen—in his spare time! and did the good work. Our scout leader is reported to have taken up golf to fill in his spare time but is still not sure of the difference between the fairway and a freeway—no doubt he'll get the swing of it as time goes by. Last week-end the 1st Killkenny Cub section camped in our field at the Den. They enjoyed their stay in the area and set a high standard. Brian M was having a busy time last week-end when he tried to be in two places at once—he almost managed it but the less said the better.

QUESTIONS

- 1.—What do Brian, Ray, Joe and Flowers have in common?
2.—Who are Mrs. B. and Mrs. H. and Mrs. L?
3.—What was M. Cosgrave doing over the week-end?
4.—What happened to half of the Kestrel Patrol?
5.—Will C. Walsh ever remove the black mark off his face or will Brendan K. ever wash his face?
6.—Will our Cork guests Neil and Paul ever travel again with the 4th after their baptism on Monday morning?

I.D.A. PAID GRANTS OF NEARLY £2 BILLION

Deputy Brian Swift at Question Time in the Dail asked the Minister for Industry and Commerce the number of foreign firms which have been grant aided by the Industrial Development Authority in the last 20 years; the total amount of such grant aid; the proportion of such firms which have gone into liquidation; and the proportion which have left the country within a year of grant aid ceasing. In his reply the Minister, Mr. Reynolds said: I am informed by the Industrial Development Authority that since January, 1967, 1,735 foreign firms have been approved grant aid. The total amount of grant aid approved in respect of these firms was £1,739 million of which £699 million has been paid to-date.

In the same period 342 foreign firms have closed. There is no record available of the proportion of grant aided foreign firms which have left the country within a year of grant aid ceasing.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

The Dungarvan Sea Angling Club held its first competition of the 1987 sea angling season last week-end and the picture for our "Remembering Other Days" series this week recalls many of those, some, alas, now gone to their eternal reward, who were involved in the foundation and running of the Club in its early years. The photo shows a group of anglers with officers of the Club at Helvick Pier in the mid-50's after a competition. Included are Tom Fennell, John Joe Moloney (R.I.P.), Denis O'Donovan (R.I.P.), Owen Shine (R.I.P.) and Sev Baumann.

Dutch Father And Son Again Remanded On Drugs Charges

Two Dutch nationals who were arrested following the seizure of a quantity of cannabis resin from a caravan at Strawberry Hill, Ballyduff Upper on Sunday, May 17, and who were remanded in custody on charges arising from the seizure at Carrick-On-Suir District Court, on May 18 appeared in custody before District Justice Oliver J. Macklin at Dungarvan Court, on Wednesday last.

They were Henny Hartgring (59) and his son Freek (23) and represented by Mr. J. P. Gordon. Supt. they were applying to have the bail fixed by District Justice O'Connell at Carrick in a total sum of £70,000 reduced to a more reasonable amount. Mr. Gordon told the court that because the original bail figure was for such a very substantial figure, the defendants had no hope of meeting it. He said that while the charges against them were very serious they were "drug narons" and neither were they flush with money.

Stating that the defendants would be fighting the charges all the way, Mr. Gordon said that both claimed that they were innocent and that they had, in fact, been "set up". He submitted character references on behalf of the defendants, one from the Dutch Embassy and said that neither had ever come under the notice of the police in Holland before and this was the first occasion that had ever been in Ireland.

Mr. Gordon went on to say that the defendants' passports had been taken from them but they wanted to stay in the country so as to clear their good name. He said that the earliest opportunity for the hearing of the charges would be July 1 next at the Circuit Court, sitting in Waterford. In order to enable them to pay their way and maintain themselves in the meantime a collection in their home village in Holland had yielded 2,000 guilders.

Supt. M. English for the Director of Public Prosecutions assured the court that every effort was being made by the State to have the case brought to hearing at the earliest possible opportunity.

Mr. Gordon then called Freek Hartgring to the witness stand and in evidence he said that for the past 2 years he had worked as a security guard in Holland. His father had worked in a caravan making factory.

Witness went on to say that he spoke English himself but his father was unable to do so and this made matters very difficult for him in the prison. He said that his father had sold a caravan and they had then been asked to deliver it in Ireland. They were to be paid expenses and so much per kilometre for the journey. He then said that all the money he had on him was about £40 but his father had the equivalent of about £300.

In reply to Supt. English, witness said that they would use this money to maintain themselves in the event that they were released on bail from prison.

In reply to a question by District Justice Macklin, the Supt.

said that the charges against the defendants concerned 50 kilos of cannabis resin which were found concealed in the caravan they were towing. Its value was estimated at £200,000.

NOT UNREASONABLE
District Justice Macklin observed that the defendants had been in custody since May 18 and the earliest trial date for the case was July 1. In the circumstances and as the defendants were unlikely to abscond as their passports had been confiscated he did not think that it would be unreasonable to reduce the amount of the bail initially fixed at £70,000. He then fixed bail in the sum of £100 with an independent surety of £10,000 or two of £5,000 each or in lieu a £10,000 cash deposit, and remanded both defendants in custody with consent, to bail to Lismore Court (for review) on June 3 and afterwards to Dungarvan on June 10.

£500 FINE FOR USING MARKED DIESEL OIL

A Kilmacthomas farmer, Vincent Kirwan, Kealfoun, was fined the mandatory £500 by District Justice O. J. Macklin at Dungarvan Court, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of using marked diesel oil on August 11, 1986.

Mr. E. P. King, Supt. (J. F. Williams & Co.) for the Director of Public Prosecutions stated that officers of the Dept. of Customs and Excise took a sample from a Landrover owned by the defendant on the day in question which on analysis proved to be marked diesel. The mandatory fine for a first offence was £1,000 but the District Justice had power at his discretion to mitigate this to £500.

Mr. J. P. Gordon, Supt. for the defendant acknowledged that it was marked fuel which was in the vehicle when it was dipped. He said that the defendant had run out of white diesel on the occasion and had used the red diesel to get by.

Mr. Gordon said that in such cases when a defendant admitted an offence a penalty of £300 to meet the case was usually imposed by the Revenue Commissioners and if this was paid, no prosecution would follow. This procedure had not been afforded to his client on this occasion.

Convicting the defendant as stated, the Justice imposed the mitigated fine of £500.

DUNGARVAN SCOUT NOTES

TUESDAY NIGHT SCOUTS MAY 27

Last Tuesday night we started the meeting with our scout prayer. No subs were collected as we were busy distributing the leaflets for the solemn novena, some scouts, eight to be precise, got shovels and picks and headed up to clean the graveyard. They were given the nickname "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" as they "heated off to work".

Later on we had a little talk-time session as Pl. Gerry Lennan gave some impressions of Donald Duck which were quite amusing. Afterwards we played some energetic games with balloons such as balloon crab relay.

When Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs returned from work it was time to end the meeting with the scout prayer and a few announcements by our SL Kevin Kiely. Afterwards, our Alan Street was given the "birthday bumps". He says he was trying to keep it a secret, but, Alan, nothing is all that secret.

FROM THE ARCHIVES 30 JANUARY, 1969

Court of Honour — Those who are not scouts, but who venture to read this column may be curious about a court of honour — what does it do and who's in it? Well, the COH is a Council consisting of scout leaders and PLs and others such as ASL's. APL's are there by invitation.

It is responsible for the running of the troop such as planning camp, hikes, etc. Being responsible for the general running of the troop also means that the COH has a say in making sure that the troop has the necessary equipment. They have a say in troop expenditure but finally and most important, the COH is responsible for seeing that the troop has a good name in the community and that the individual scouts are proud to be members of the troop.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CUBS

The meeting started at 7.00 sharp. After the subs were collected Kenneth took some cubs up to Glensheane with the gear for the week-end camp while Nicola ran the meeting. The night was fast and furious with loads of energetic games being played. We finished up the meeting with details on the camp, and the cub prayer.

I would like to congratulate all the cubs who have passed their test work and are being invested into the ranks of the CBI on the camp to Glensheane.

THURSDAY NIGHT CUBS

This week's meeting was run by Michael Desmond and Martin Flynn. It started with the cub prayer and afterwards Martin collected the dues. We then played lots of relay games which the lads enjoyed. Afterwards we went to the Brothers field to have a game of baseball. The Tigers beat the Dodgers 5-4 in a thrilling game. Finally we returned to the den and ended the meeting with the cub prayer.

SYMPATHY

On behalf of the Dungarvan Scouts we would like to offer our condolences to the Flynn family on the recent death of Mrs. Bridget Flynn. Bridget's grandsons Donnacha and Martin have been involved in scouting for many years.

ARDMORE AND GRANGE I.C.A. NOTES

Anyone who missed the meeting at Ardmore ICA Room on May 19, missed a thought-provoking, most helpful and most interesting address from Mr. Maurice McHugh, Co. Development Officer and Mr. P. Carlton, Assistant Director Manpower, Cork, on Employment and Career Guidance.

Mr. McHugh gave an account of the present situation in the county with about 18% unemployment in a population of over 51,000. It is a county of great scenic beauty with many amenities and over 90 miles of coastline. He outlined the steps which a prospective manufacturer should take before proceeding with his project and intimated that small industries are more viable than bigger ones. Besides manufacturing, an astute person is always on the look-out for gaps in the service industry, such as window cleaning, care of gardens, dress-making.

Mr. P. Carlton was quite pragmatic in his approach. At first he presented a gloomy picture of job prospects — clerical, teaching, nursing, civil service, bank clerks — all these openings practically disappearing; but he then proceeded to paint a positive picture of openings in computer jobs, electronics, electrical engineering, accountancy, horticulture, food processing, security officers (a course in the latter in Rathmines was not filled in spite of present trends). German is the language to study; one reason for this being the decrease in population there.

There were interesting questions and comments from the floor. We do appreciate the work and preparation that has been put into the compiling of all this information and its presentation, and we are deeply indebted to both gentlemen for coming to share their experience with us and endeavouring to guide us in the very important questions of careers for the coming generation, in a rapidly changing world.

TOURANEENA NOTES

A very successful Mission has concluded in St. Mary's Parish Church, Touraneena. Conducted by two priests of the Redemptionist Order, Fr. Larkin and Fr. McCarthy, the Mission opened at 7.30 Mass on Saturday evening, May 16. In all their sermons the missionaries stressed the importance of the Mass as the corner-stone of Catholic Faith and urged the people to remain faithful to its practice always, reminding them of the great sacrifices suffered by our ancestors during the Penal Days when they had to walk for miles to hear Mass in the depths of a forest or on a bleak mountainside.

The virtue of charity and of being always ready to do a good turn for a neighbour were also impressed upon a congregation who attended all the ceremonies in great numbers. Both Missionaries said they were greatly edified by the conduct of the people and expressed their gratitude to everyone who helped to make the Mission a success: to Fr. Lloyd, C.C., to the choir, to the altar boys, to the chapel woman and to the O'Dwyer family of "Cois Abhainn" guest-house where they were accommodated during their stay in the parish.

Having thanked the Missionaries for all they had done in one short week, Fr. Lloyd called for a round of applause for them which was readily given by the overflow congregation.

ATHLETICS EAST MUNSTER SCHOOLS CHAMPIONSHIPS

The long hard grind of winter training paid handsome dividends for the young athletes of St. Augustine's, Abbey-st. East, Munster Schools Sports on Saturday, May 23rd. Summer success is built on long hours of hard training in the frost and cold of January evenings, but so it was for the latest crop of Friary athletes.

Since the advent of Bro. Lennan the school has gradually developed a real strength in field events and a steady stream of good performers has emerged. This year is no exception — no fewer than 23 athletes qualified for the Munster Schools Championships, as a result of their performances at Rockwell on Saturday. This is the highest number of qualifiers in the schools athletic history and as a further proof of their worth, St. Augustine's won the Bro. O'Donovan Cup for the first time ever. Anyway the notable achievements were: —

- Field: Senior Shot — 1st, Peter Galvin; 2nd, Michael Ahern.
- Intermediate Hammer — 1st, Michael Ahern; 2nd, Neil O'Connor.
- Intermediate Discus — 1st, Michael Ahern.
- Intermediate Shot — 1st, Michael Ahern.
- Minor Shot — 1st, Felim Power; 2nd, Stephen Power.
- Track: Junior Walk — 1st, Francis Lynch; 3rd, Denis McCarthy.
- Walk — 1st, J. White; 2nd, Killen Power; 3rd, John Power.
- Senior Walk — Friary, 1st, 2nd and 3rd.

ABANDONED VEHICLES

Mr. Pdraig Flynn, T.D. Minister for the Environment has requested local authorities to engage in a crash programme to eliminate the nuisance and environmental degradation caused by abandoned vehicles. He has requested local authorities to make maximum use of the wide powers given to them by the Litter Act, 1982 and to deal with abandoned vehicles and has asked that they put in place a two-week programme to deal with the problem.

Under the provisions of the Litter Act, it is an offence to abandon a vehicle on any land without authority. Local authorities have power to remove abandoned vehicles and are obliged to provide places where unwanted vehicles or metal scrap can be legally abandoned. They also have power to take action in relation to accumulations of disused vehicles. Situations that can be dealt with include: (a) sites which for various reasons become "graveyards" for unwanted vehicles; (b) sites alongside or associated with garages or other places of repair, on which vehicles are kept in various stages of disrepair, or possibly for sale or use as spare parts and (c) sites for the accumulation of vehicles for sale as scrap.

Special Honour For Dr. Tom Walsh

Dr. Tom Walsh, first Director of An Foras Taluntais, was specially honoured on Wednesday, May 27 by his colleagues at Johnstown Castle Research Centre, Wexford, when they named the Centre's Soil Laboratory after him, in recognition of his contribution to agricultural science and to the nation.

Dr. Aidan Conway, Head of Johnstown Castle Research Centre, welcomed Dr. Walsh, his wife and family and many friends and colleagues to the Centre for the ceremony which was performed by Mr. Matthew Dempsey, Chairman of An Foras Taluntais. Dr. Pierce Ryan, AFT Director, paid warm tribute to Dr. Walsh's pioneering work in agricultural research and development which was known and highly respected not just in Ireland but in numerous other countries.

LECTURE BY DOCTOR WALSH

Following the dedication ceremony, Dr. Walsh delivered a lecture on "Growth from our land" in which he discussed how our land could contribute to securing the economic growth so necessary for national recovery. We have soils to serve a wide range of purposes, he said, from those of high quality and wide use range for efficient animal and crop production, to those of low farming merit but valuable for a variety of other purposes including recreation, amenity, tourism and living space.

Taking into account the potential of our land as defined scientifically, Dr. Walsh said that this land has only been partially commercialised yet. We have still a substantial production reserve capacity. For instance, on the land used for dairying, milk yields could be stepped up 50%, cattle and sheep production could double and cereal yields could increase by a further 30%. However, there are constraints, Dr. Walsh cited these as the over-supply of food in the EEC, the limitation in opportunity due to pricing and other considerations, the relative paucity of new alternative avenues for development, the poor structure and income position on many farms and apathetic attitudes deriving from failure to meet expectations in recent years.

We are now realising our weakness in the market place, Dr. Walsh said, and our failure to develop processing and marketing resources to match our capacity to produce high class raw material in a pure food trading is weakening and deficiencies are being met by once underdeveloped countries that are now capable of low cost exportation.

We have, however, resources which, if properly used, can give strength in meeting these difficulties, Dr. Walsh believes. We have information on our land resources and research results on which modern blueprint systems of production for arable and animal enterprises have been developed. Knowledge about our pastoral enterprises clearly shows our comparative advantage over our competitors.

IN STAR YOUNG FARMERS CONTEST

A number of top young farmers have been selected by tests over recent months to represent their counties in a bid for the most prestigious award open to young farmers, the Macra na Feirme Star Young Farmer Award, 1987. A Ford Orion Diesel car awaits the winner of the national final which will take place during the Macra Annual Conference to be held in Limerick on October 15.

The Regional Finals of the contest will take place in August, and representing Waterford will be Eamonn Hickey, Redgate Cappagh, Patrick Noonan, Ballymurphy, Conna, will represent the Imokilly region and John O'Donnell, Killoan, Clonmel, will be the representative of Tipperary South. In all a total of 26 will compete in the Regional finals.

Last year to top prize was won by David Loneragan, Modeligo, Ballyduff Upper, Co. Waterford.

Q. — Can all married women get Unemployment Assistance?
A. — No they can't. Married women may get Unemployment Assistance if they satisfy the ordinary conditions, such as being available for work, and actively seeking work, and in addition pass a means test.

Some confusion seems to have arisen since the introduction of equal treatment into social welfare last November. That change entitled a woman to claim Unemployment Assistance in her own right, which she could not previously do, but her husband's income is nonetheless taken into account in assessing her means. The guidelines for assessing means can be checked out at your local Community Information Centre.

TALLOW AND ROUNDABOUT NOTES

ed away in the prime of life after a short but severe illness borne in a most, exemplary manner of outstanding patience and fortitude. He leaves a great void in the locality. A promising hurler at underage level he was a lorry driver in the transport sector and the many people he came into contact with him often spoke of his amazing talent to generate happiness and mirth in company even when things looked dark and dismal. To say he was popular in the locality is almost an understatement, because his happy-go-lucky disposition and ever-ready smile was contagious and would win the heart of the smallest child or the biggest man. Gone from our midst now is "Ducky" but whether it be on the highway with his lorry or his accustomed stroll in the evening to Conna Village this vision of him will remain a vivid memory for us and encourage us to take life's joys and woes in a light-hearted manner, as he did. He was elder son of the late William Sullivan, Knockmourne, Conna, and Kitty Sullivan and to the latter our heartfelt sympathy is expressed, to his brother Pat, his aunt Mrs. Peg Lonergan, Ballynoe, his cousins the Sullivan family, Ballynoe, the Lonergan families, Carrigtwohill, Youghal and England, and the Fitzgerald family, Ballynoe, Walsh family, Conna, relatives and friends. He was interred at Aghern cemetery last Sunday and Frs. Buckley and Hegarty officiated. The St. Catherine's G.A.A. members formed a guard of honour at the church door. Go deane-

Winning Start - Our intermediate hurlers got off to a winning start last Sunday afternoon in Cappoquin against Killybeggin on the score of 2-12 to 1-6. A win is a win at any time but this performance was a far cry from the form shown in recent challenge matches against senior teams. As I said before, nothing should be taken for granted in this championship and I'm sure the lads will improve on this performance. Minors Exit - Our minor footballers made their exit from the championship last Saturday night after a defeat by Naomh Bric 2-11 to 0-4. The scoreline suggests that this was an

Dungarvan Sea Angling Club Notes

The clouds of white smoke billowing from the back room in the Anchor on Friday night was not a manifestation of the assent of a conclave of cardinals that a new Pope had been elected, it was the committee of DSAC at the boat draw. In the forthcoming future events this season it is intended to hold 'the boat draw' on the Tuesday preceding the competition so any intending participants must have their subscription paid on that day at the latest. To illustrate the purpose of this requirement it was only on Friday evening that it could be determined that there was demand for an additional boat. Richie Tobin from Helvic obliged at this notice. Thanks Richie.

On Sunday morning Davitts Quay was bristling with anglers, agog with onlookers and throbbing to the beat of diesel engines eager to be on their way. With an efficiency that belied the amount of organisation all put to sea as scheduled. The atmosphere of these occasions has to be experienced to be understood. Friendly rivalry is a contradiction, but how else can you describe giving or exchanging bait and tackle with an opponent, not to mention the words of wisdom and encouragement from the more experienced to the novices. Encouraged as the ladies were with their paraphernalia and protective gear, the ladies still managed to look pretty and they aren't just pretty faces either, as the results will show. All the stories of the day are not to hand yet, but boy! was there great concern over Richie Tobin's boat and its potential, but a failed anchor was to put paid to the chances of the crew on board, unknowingly of course at the time to the others. Apart from the loss of an anchor, Richie really ploughed the waves for us in his search for a good harvest and Tony Elsted (that E-I-S-t-e-d, right Tony!) in stealing my place assured his team of the first prize, which of course was rightly and traditionally the booty of the traders. Never mind, Tony, it's a long season yet! They say Seve netted something big but it did not materialise at the weigh-in. What was it Seve? Dan's crew have been re-named 'The Drifters'. More

Great Win For Waterford

WATERFORD 2-12; CLARE 0-16

Waterford scored their first Munster championship victory in four years when they plipped Clare in the first round senior football championship replay clash at Cusack Park, Ennis on Sunday last.

It took extra time to decide the issue but in the end there could be no disputing the justice of the result.

Clare were favourites but Waterford's greater commitment negated any advantage the home side might have had and in the end Waterford fully deserved their semi-final place against Kerry, to be played in Dungarvan.

The home side had first use of the strong breeze and looked to be justifying favouritism when they led by five points after 25 minutes. A minute before the interval however Waterford struck through Jimmy Maher who goaled to leave just three points between them (0-8 to 1-2) at the break.

Waterford scored a brace of points in the opening five minutes of the second half. Two similar scores from Clare, however, left them still three points clear with 15 minutes to go. The sides swapped points before Waterford piled on the pressure but they were extremely unlucky when they had a goal disallowed. Two points from Jimmy Maher and one from Eoin O'Brien however left the teams level at 0-11 to 1-8 at the end of normal time.

Liam O'Connor's point two minutes into extra time gave Waterford the lead for the first time in the game. Eoin O'Brien's fisted goal was the vital score just on the break as 16 left Waterford leading 2-11 to 0-12 with just 15 minutes of play left.

Although Clare had the advantage of the breeze in the final period they could never get the better of Waterford's superior fitness and great determination. Clare wasted a few opportunities through too much over elaboration yet few could deny that Waterford deserved their win and the jubilation in the camp after the final whistle was indicative of the sentiments of all Waterford people as the first round 'hoodoo' was well and truly laid low.

DUNGARVAN MACRA NOTES

On Wednesday, May 20, Dungarvan Macra took the limelight by nodding a very successful quiz in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan. It was the club's first major venture since the foundation of the "new" club in November, 1986. John Walsh was the very competent question master for the night and with all the club members hard at work the night ran very smoothly.

In first place representing John Paul's were: Michael Kiely, Peter Kiely, Patricia Kiely, Geraldine Veale; in 2nd place were: Eamonn Mansfield, May Ashe, Joe Brennan, Vincent Hayes.

The club would like to thank every one concerned and promise to be hitting the headlines many times in the future.

NAOMH BRID NOTES

Unfortunately the under-14 team were beaten by the narrowest of margins in a very exciting Western final on Friday evening last by a very strong Gaeltacht team. Naomh Brid played their hearts out and led right up to the last minute and just as victory was in sight the Gaeltacht scored a goal and snatched the title. The final score was 2-3 to 2-1.

Naomh Brid — J. Flynn, L. Boyle, P. Fitzgerald, E. Kennally, J. McGrath, S. Kearns, T. Power, T. London, K. Hickey, R. Ryan, J. P. Ryan, J. P. Fitzpatrick, A. Fitzpatrick, D. Whelan, B. Fitzgerald, Subs., J. Fitzgerald, P. Keane, O. Radley, M. O'Byrne, P. Dalton, E. D. Lonergan, E. Reddy.

LISMORE AND DISTRICT NOTES

CRICKET NOTES

Lismore cricket club played their first home game of the season last Sunday against the Waterford Regional Technical College and the very much under-strength home team were beaten by 3 wickets.

Batting first, Lismore hit up 96 runs. Dermot Edwards was highest scorer with 30 runs, Stephen Ahearne 17, Ger Kennedy 15 and Eric Flynn, team captain, 10 runs.

The visitors passed this total for the loss of 7 wickets. Bowling honours went to Eric Flynn who took 4 wickets, while Tony Bones, Ger Kennedy and Bobby Edwards took one each.

Team — Eric Flynn (capt.), S. Ahearne, B. Edwards, G. Kennedy, P. Campion, D. Edwards, T. Bones, G. Foley, D. Campion, J. Crotty, E. Flynn.

Next Sunday, Lismore play away to Waterford Rugby Club in Waterpark, on Sunday, 14th June. Waterford will be a big attraction and on Saturday, June 20th, Lismore travel to the famed Mardyke in Cork to play Cork County in the 2nd round of the Munster Cup.

So there is a busy time ahead for Lismore cricket club and let us hope they achieve their aim of capturing the cup this year. Finally the club must be complimented on having the grounds in such perfect condition on Sunday last. It was looking magnificent, but then as is well known throughout Munster, Lismore as a playing ground has never played second to any other grounds in Munster — dare we say in the top ten in Ireland?

LISMORE CAMOGIE NOTES

In the Felle na nGael in Abbeyside our u/14's were unlucky to be beaten by St. Savour's by 2 goals to 1. The girls tried hard and were in bad luck not to score a few times.

Team—B. O'Keefe, C. O'Gorman, C. Roche, M. Caples, E. Barry, G. Cunningham, C. Ahearne, J. Bolger, M. Cunningham, M. Kennally, B. Daly, E. Whelan Subs.—C. Byrne, S. O'Gorman.

However, Her O'Keefe did us proud by winning the skills competition. Well done.

In a tough game in Tourin we lost by a few points in the end. We were leading at half-time but couldn't manage to hold out against their great second half rally. This was in the Junior/Senior League. Our Waterford players were in action these last two weeks. Last Sunday week we met Offaly in Butlerstown for the league. It was a tough and physical game and a draw was the fairest result in the end, although we wouldn't have minded a win. We next met Meath and had to beat them as they had won all their games. This was the only one we didn't win. On Saturday, we met Tipperary in Cappawhite for the championship. It was a brilliant match with some of the best camogie we played all year. We were three points up going into the last five minutes. Then two late Tipp goals put an end to our plans, leaving the end score, 3-3 to 1-6 in their favour. Hard luck girls.

Panel—M. Murphy, C. Caples, C. Hutchinson, O. Flynn, G. O'Sullivan, N. McMahon, C. Murphy, P. Bolger, T. Barry, A. M. O'Gorman, O. Brady, T. Caples, A. Piper, M. Crowley, S. Coughlan.

Finally we had a cycle in aid of club funds on Monday, and we would like to thank everyone who contributed.

LATE CATHERINE MELLIGAN

We regret to record the death on May 19th of Catherine (Katie) Melligan, Deerpark, Lismore at the District Hospital. She was aged 92 years. Her remains were removed from the Hospital Mortuary to St. Catherine's Church on Thursday May 21st. After Requiem Mass celebrated by Fr. O'Gorman, C.C. assisted by her friend and former neighbour Fr. Charles Scanlan, C.C., Clonmel, who gave a homily on her life, her funeral took place to St. Catherine's cemetery.

She is survived by her sister Mary (England), nephews, nieces and many other relatives to whom we extend sympathy. Katie will be sadly missed by her many friends and neighbours in the area. She will be remembered by all as a good neighbour. May she rest in peace.

so, the name of the contractor and the contract price; and if he will make a statement on the matter — Jackie Fahey."

Surely Deputy Fahey should be aware that the new Garda station in Lismore has long since been built, opened and occupied! Or is there to be another built in the Cathedral Town?

WHAT IS "THE THING"?

We have received a number of queries about a large metal object which has been placed in the Leisure Park at the Causeway, Abbeyside. People have asked us what it is or what it is supposed to represent. Sorry but we do not know.

The object, painted in a glaring red colour, has been described as a sun dial or some such thing. More than one person has called it a monstrosity. Perhaps those in the know might let us and the curious members of the public know what "the thing" is?

STILL I LOVE HIM

For the ballad corner this week our choice falls on one with a merry tune which must be known to most of our readers. "Still I Love Him." The same chorus follows each verse and it goes as follows:—

When I was single,
I wore a plaid shawl,
Now that I'm married,
I've nothing at all.

Chorus:
Oh but still I love him,
I'll forgive him
I'll go with him wherever he goes.

He came up our alley
And he whistled me out,
But the tail of his shirt,
From the trousers hung out.

He bought me a handkerchief,
Red, white and blue,
But before I could wear it,
He tore it in two.

He brought me to an ale house,
And he bought me some stout,
But before I could drink it,
He ordered me out.

He borrowed some money
To buy me a ring,
Then he and the jeweller
Went off on a fling.

There's cakes in the oven,
There's cheese on the shelf
If you want anymore,
You can sing it yourself.

I.C.A. CHICKEN COOKERY COMPETITION

1987 is the first year that Kantoher Co-op Agricultural and Dairy Society ran its Chicken Cookery Competition. The competition is open to ICA guilds in Munster. Each guild sends its winner at local level to the Federation competition in each county, which in the case of Waterford was held in Kilmacthomas on May 23rd.

The Waterford guilds taking part were Ardmore, Ballinameela, Butlerstown, Gaultier, Kilmossanty, Touraneena and Tramore.

The winner was Mrs. Olive McCarthy, Tramore, who was presented with her first prize of £50 by Kantoher's representative, Ms. Nuala Quinlan. In close joint second came Mrs. Mary Morrissey, Touraneena and Mrs. Maria Mullins, Gaultier.

The judge for the competition was Mrs. Helen O'Mahony, who made her decision mainly on the basis of modern cooking trends and concern for healthy eating.

Dungarvan Lions Club Notes

CALLING ALL MUSIC LOVERS!

Dungarvan sports Centre will be the venue for the musical event of the year when the internationally renowned artists —The Dubliners—will provide a feast of music and song. Fresh from their international tour, and their first visit to Dungarvan, this should undoubtedly be a memorable evening and the sports centre will be the Mecca of all music lovers on Wednesday, June 24. They will be supported by the ever popular Willie White & Co.

This is a concert which we highly recommend. With the spacious hall and plenty of parking space and the Lions usual attention to detail, it is an event not to be missed and we confidently expect a very big turnout. And of course, the proceeds go to the many Lions charities.

The annual Cycle Tour held this year on Sunday, May 10, proved very successful. The new format met with general approval and thanks to the kindness of the weather clerk, the participants enjoyed a beautiful evening on the banks of the Colligan, listening to lovely music so ably provided by the Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band, supported by the Slabh gCua Celli Band. The big crowd enjoyed the evening. We are very grateful to the many people who helped to make the evening such a success. I think that a special "thank you" should go to the good ladies who provided the much appreciated "cuppa" on the occasion. Also, our thanks to the people of the Civil Defence Unit, who, as usual, placed themselves and their vehicles at our disposal. The draw for the bicycles resulted in the first one going to Eileen Kirwan, Ashtown, Kilmacthomas and the second one to Paul Clerkin, Abbeyside.

We are now making arrangements for the summer outing of the children of St. John's special school and also for Carriglea. Preparations are also in hand for the Annual Lions Senior Citizens Camp at Moseney in August. More about those events later.
