TRAFFIC DISRUPTION IN DUNGARVAN

On Sunday next, November 22, traffic in the Main Street-Friary Street area in Dungarvan will be disrupted when work on the laying of a new main sewer will commence. As a result the Dungarvan Urban Council has issued a request that persons attending Masses in the Friary Church for the duration should use the car park for parking cars so as to minimise traffic congestion in the area.

The traffic disruption will continue until Friday, December 11 and the Town Clerk, Mr. B. White told Cllr. Austin Hallahan at last Monday night's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council that the area would be rehabilitated in ample time for the Christmas rush.

VOCATIONAL PROJECT ON LONG FINGER

The Government has commenced the dismantling of the school building section of the Department of Education and the majority of the staff there have been asked to accept voluntary redundancy (isn't that term cropping up very often lately) while the remainder are either hearing retirement or are absent on career breaks.

This, of course, was intended to lead to a sharp cut back in educational building programmes at all levels—primary, second and third. At second level the pace of rationalisation has been speeded up and in this category one of the victims would appear to be the proposed new Vocational School for Dungarvan concerning which there has been so much ha-ha over the past four or five years. Only a few weeks ago Deputy Austin Deasy raised the matter in the Dail when he asked the Minister for Education what the present position regarding the school was.

In her reply the Minister, Mrs. O'Rourke stated that a new vocational school to cater for 225 pupils had in fact been approved for Dungarvan.

However, she added, and this is where the crunch comes, "my Department is conducting a review of the overall post-primary needs of the Dungarvan centre in the light of enrolment and population trends and of capital resources available to it. Pending completion of this review, I am not in a position to say when this vocational school project will be completed."

To us this appears to mean that if the project has not been clobbered altogether it has at least been put on a long, long finger. It certainly looks that by the long delay at the outset the vocational authorities have now missed the bus.

In those days there was keen rivalry between the two but with the passage of years and the major housing developments that have seen Abbeyside growing and spreading as a dormer area for the urban, that rivalry ceased to the extent that it had now practically entirely disappeared.

But a recent move seems to have again opened what one astute observer has called a minefield between the two areas. It comes from the Abbeyside side of the Bridge and is in the form of an official request to the Dungarvan Urban Council to allow Abbeyside to go ahead with a separate entry for the 1988 Tidy Towns Competition organised by Bord Fáilte.

Following an initial query last month, the Urban Council asked for a list of proposed members of the Abbeyside Committee and under date November 11, Mr. Michael O'Farrell with an address at Park Lane Green submitted the

WATERFORD CO. COUNCIL

Council Fails To Decide On '88 Estimates

After a meeting lasting two hours in Dungarvan last Monday, members of Waterford Co. Council failed to reach a decision on the estimates for funding the public services in the county in 1988. An effort to extend the meeting beyond the statutory ending time of 9 p.m. also ended in failure when a number of members claimed that they had become confused and did not know what they were voting for and it was then decided to adjourn the issue until next Monday.

At the outset the Co. Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley pointed out that the Council had already discussed the estimates at two meetings held in committee. Since then they had been notified of Road Grants totalling £2,944,000 for 1988 as against a total of £4,055,000 for the current year but this was in accordance with what they had estimated and he was not too unhappy with the situation.

The Manager also said that the voluntary redundancy scheme which had been offered to all the Council staff had been responded to by a much bigger number than they had expected. So far 9 officer grades and 160 non-officer grades had shown an interest in the scheme but they did not require all that number to go.

"The national finances in all departments of the State are at present under the microscope," he added, "and it would be absolutely unrealistic to think that Local Government would be excluded from the scapels. I regret that we have no money to go more but that is the position and I recommend that the Estimates as submitted be adopted."

The total expenditure for the year at £17,349,100 showed a cutback of £1,733,400 on the current year and in addition to the increases and new charges proposed would require a rate of £26.79 which was an increase of 5% on the current rate.

Cllr. G. O'Halloran was first on his feet, suggesting that a cut in the mileage allowances paid to both members and officials could be a factor to create a necessary saving. "The public perception where the officials are concerned," said Cllr. O'Halloran, "is that these travelling expenses are the gravy on an already good dinner as they are being paid to people who already have good jobs."

Cllr. James A. Walsh said that the Manager's report contained a very sad story due to the savage cuts imposed by the Government. "In getting rid of the disease they are killing the patient which is completely unrealistic," he said.

Cllr. B. Kynne said that they were just reacting to Government policy which saw no money coming in rates from farmers while urban business people were being pushed to the limit. "If the estimates as presented are passed it will mean that a significant number of outdoor jobs will go. The Council is now on its last legs as we won't have the finance in the long run to keep going and we will be disbanded," he said.

Deputy Jackie Fahey said that this was a very difficult estimates meeting for both the members and officials and while there was general acceptance that cutbacks and economies had to be made it was also accepted that there was no room for increased taxation. He felt that, if enough availed of the voluntary redundancy offer there would be a big saving and there would then be no need for an increase in charges. "I will be opposing these proposals by the Manager as the charges are not being collected as it is," he said.

The Co. Manager replied that he could not run the services without staff and they could not let too many go.

Cllr. Jim Harty, first remarking that there seemed little the Council could do, then launched a blistering attack on Deputy Fahey. "I'm surprised," said Cllr. Harty, "to hear him say he will oppose these changes as he is a member of the Government which produced these cutbacks. Recently Mr. Fahey and the Minister visited Helvic and promised £75,000 to dredge the harbour but there's no mention of that here to-day."

Cllr. M. O'Riordan deplored a cut of £75,000 in the Library Service but the Manager replied that the service had to bear its share of the cuts like all the others

ABOLISHED

Cllr. C. O'Riain said that this was his 33rd estimates meeting and again warned that if proper funding for Local Authorities was not forthcoming soon it would spell the end of Co. Councils. "The time has now come," he said, "for everyone in this country to face up to their responsibilities and if we don't face up to our responsibilities this Council will be abolished." He added that it ill-behaved members of the last Coalition Government to criticise the present Government as the national debt had risen from £12 billion to £24 billion while they were in power.

At this point the Chairman, Cllr. P. Kenneally said that the estimates had been fully discussed and it was time for members to decide whether they were for or against.

Deputy Brian Swift then proposed that the figures in the Book of Estimates as presented by the Manager be adopted with an addition of £10,000 for improvements at Waterford Airport.

Cllr. C. O'Riain seconded.

An amendment was then proposed by Cllr. C. Casey and seconded by Cllr. Harty that the Council go through the estimates item by item and this was carried by 11 votes to 7.

At this stage Standing Orders had to be suspended to allow the meeting to continue beyond 5 p.m. but within five minutes a proposal came up from Cllr. O'Riordan that the meeting stand adjourned as members were confused and did not know what they were voting for.

Deputy Swift voiced criticism of this calling it a childish exercise. "We should stand up and be counted and be men enough to vote on the estimates and not be like a crowd of mice scurrying off to another meeting next week," he said.

Cllr. O'Riordan's amendment was then put and carried by 11 votes to 7 and the meeting was then adjourned until next Monday.

SUMMARY OF COUNTY MANAGER'S REPORT

The Co. Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley, in the course of his report on the Estimates to the Council pointed out that in 1987 the financial cutbacks in the Department's funding necessitated a reduction in services and a limited short-time working. The latter was capable of being reduced by reason of such capital works in the Dungarvan area as the Dump, Town Ewers and Tintern Hall. These will not be repeated in 1988.

The report stated that the Council were notified by the Department in September that the Rate Support Grant for 1988 would amount to £4,248,000, a reduction of £689,300 on 1987. The Department's circular stressed that Local Authorities would be required to operate within the limitations of their 1988 income and the estimates adopted provided for expenditure levels which were matched by realistic priorities in relation to decisions on the level of services or expenditure programmes to be provided for.

This requirement the Manager then pointed out meant that the fall-back position for possible employment was no longer available and would have serious consequences for employment. He said that the amount required to continue a 1988 level of service — before any increase in charges — would result in a shortfall of £1,902 million. This shortfall could be met either by reducing expenditure or increasing receipts or by a combination of both but Mr. Hurley submitted that to meet the shortfall entirely by an increase in receipts was not an acceptable option. "Some increase in existing charges can be imposed together with new charges," he said, "but it follows that a reduction in expenditure is also required to balance the accounts. This reduction the report added, would mean less work and therefore less jobs."

PROPOSED INCREASES

The report then set out the proposed charge increases and new areas of charge as follows: Domestic water charge up by £10 to £95. The waiver scheme will continue but in 1988 it is proposed to apply a minimum charge of £26, equivalent to 50p per week or 7p per day; non-domestic up by 8.5% to £130 per 1,000 gallons.

A charge of £1 per collection for scavenging with other charges for use of dump, attendance at fires etc.

The Manager then stated that in the matter of expenditure, priority was recommended in the case of the following services: Water Supply Maintenance; Sewerage Disposal; Fire Services; Refuse disposal facilities; Emergency Services (Floods, Snow etc.); Emergency Housing; Maintenance; Road Planning and Pollution Control; Implementation of Bye-laws; Housing Loans and Grants Schemes.

On the question of employment the report stated that it was obvious that the Council could not hope to maintain the number of staff presently employed. This would affect the jobs of some 10 temporary staff and 40 to 60 outdoor workers.

SERVICES AND STAFF REDUNDANCIES

The report then stated that an examination was currently under way of the organisational structure of the Departments of the Council both indoor and outdoor while the scavenging services were being examined as to the practicality of contracting them out. Public lighting was also being investigated with a view to a saving on "rural" lights.

Mr. Hurley's report then informed the Council: "Within these areas of expenditure and realistic estimates of receipts the Council are being presented with a balanced book of estimates. The effect of this balancing means a reduction of services and a reduction in staff. It is open to the Council to vary the figures as they see fit."

DUNGARVAN'S HAPPY CENTENARIAN CELEBRATES

If being partial to a drop of whiskey and a cigarette are recipes for a shortened lifespan, Elsie Power is a marvelous advertisement for both these supposed "vices."

The Dungarvan-born former publican was the "Belle of the Ball" at the local St. Joseph's Hospital last Sunday when hospital staff, fellow patients, and well-wishers gathered to celebrate her 100th birthday. (As exclusively announced in last week's "Leader" — "Remembering Other Days").

"To look at her you would never think she had reached the 100 milestone," said Very

Rev. Dean Thomas Cassidy, P.P. Dungarvan when he presented Elsie with the traditional £250 cheque from President Hillery.

One of a family of three, two girls and a boy, Elsie confessed that all her life she smoked cigarettes. "Probably too many of them," she said. Nor did she conceal her liking for a drop of whiskey — but admitted to being "more cautious" about it than the "fags."

Her brother and sister, both deceased, gave their life to religion. Father John and Sister Mary Agnes, served in New Zealand where their uncle, Very Rev. Joseph Power, also ministered.

Until she retired from business 15 years ago, Elsie was licensee of a local public house, later known as "The High Chapparel." It was something of a landmark in Dungarvan where the "pint bottle" was the dominant order of the day. She retired to St. Joseph's Hospital 11 years ago where she is living "in total contentment and happiness."

There was an early surprise to the birthday when the local pipe band played some stirring tunes before pipen Gerry Bulfin rendered "Congratulations" on the bagpipes in honour of the centenarian.

The attendance at the presentation of the presidential cheque included matron, Sister Augustine, assistant matron Mrs. Theresa McCarthy, Redmond Russell, administrator, South Eastern Health Board, Dr. Maurice O'Sullivan, medical officer at the hospital, Austin Finn, supplies officer, St. Joseph's and Fr. James Griffin, C.C.

Fr. Griffin celebrated a special Mass in the hospital for Elsie.

Dungarvan Urban Council

Resign Call To Cllr. Wright By Council Colleagues

Incidents in Dungarvan in recent weeks when attempts to foil the work of Urban Council workers in disconnecting water supplies from Council tenants who had failed or refused to pay the Council's water charges were mentioned during a stormy interlude at the Council's monthly meeting held last Monday night.

Among the orders made by the Co. Manager which were before the meeting were two directing that legal proceedings be taken against two sets of tenants arising from attempts to reconnect the supply after the Council workers had made disconnections.

Referring to the situation, Cllr. D. Goode, Vice-Chairman, who presided said that he had been absolutely disgusted to learn that a member of the Council had gone around with people who had interfered with Council property. "I will pull no punches," said Cllr. Goode, "and I must say that this is unprecedented in the annals of the Council and as Chairman at this meeting I must say that I cannot accept what has been done and I wish to have that recorded in the minutes."

Cllr. Tony Wright was at once on his feet stating that he was the member referred to by the Chairman but he was making no apology for the stand he had taken. "It," he said, "is a crime for me for giving a family of five or six water after it was disconnected then let it be so. I am not a hypocrite. I have always opposed water charges and I still stand by that."

Cllr. B. Kynne said he wished to express appreciation at the manner in which the Council officials and workers had dealt with the people who found themselves in difficulty over disconnections. When many of the people learned that they were to be cut off they had paid the charges like everyone else, he said.

But, he added that he disagreed with the extra cost that some tenants now had to face as a result and also with the harassment of Council workers who had been intimidated while carrying out their orders to make these disconnections. "Like the good workmen that

PIETER MENTEN
DIES IN HOLLAND

Pieter Menten, the notorious

For over 30 years Menten

Leamybrien and at one time expressed the wish to spend his

Menten, a millionaire art col-

CAPPOQUIN AND DISTRICT NOTES

THE LATE MRS. MARY
FLYNN, TOURIN, CAPPOQUIN
The recent death of Mrs.
Mary Flynn, Tourin, which occurred at her residence after an illness of some duration has occasioned widespread regret and this kind and gentle lady will be greatly missed not alone in her bereaved family circle but among a very wide circle of friends. The huge cortege at the removal or remains to St.
Mary's Church, Cappoquin and the interment in St. Declan's Cemetery testified to the measure of esteem in which the deceased lady was held.
She is survived by her sons,
Val, Ollie and Michael; Bernie and Mary (daughters); Mrs.
Kate Landers (mother); John James, Thomas and Michael (brothers); Mrs. Anne Flynn and Mrs. Mary Flynn (daughters-in-law); Mrs. Ivy Ahern relatives and friends.

ground up the right and his line shot on the rip went high into the top corner of John D.
Cotter's net. But it was a short lived lead, as within five minutes Barry O'Regan headed home in a crowded goalmouth to put Valley level and a minute later the visitors were ahead when Edward Sheehan's shot took a deflection out of goalkeeper Michael O'Leary's reach. Denis O'Donnell and Pat Ahearne held the central defence for Lismore but the last quarter advent of Edward Sheehan and Jim O'Neill did put pressure on full backs Joe Tobin and Dave Landers. Valley could have increased their advantage but the finish was not up to standard and signs of a last quarter Lismore revival culminated in Seamus Prendergast's face-saving equaliser.

In the afternoon, Cappoquin
'B' made their first appearance at the Tourin venue a winning one with a decisive 3-0 win over Ballysaggart. Granted that the league newcomers are only in the formative stage and have a lot of work to do there was much to like about this 'Cappo-quin display. The team is now seemingly to knit together and their purposeful approach has much to admire. They led at half time by a goal from Leonard Coleman in 27 minutes when the Ballysaggart defence was totally drawn out of position and he was left with only goalkeeper Michael Fitzgerald to beat. The second and third came in 51 minutes through Shane Fraher and Liam Lacey in 68 and resulted from some good play and the right wing from Conor O'Leary. Again an encouraging team display and others to do well were John Cahill, Jimmy Lacey and Pat Cullen.
Few changes came Ballysag-gart's today and they depend very much on the experience of Pat, Michael and Ger Fitzgerald with commendable supporting effort from John Cash-ell, Anthony Brackett and Fergus Meagher.

The second half opened with

We got a free out on the wing, the ball

LIBRARY OUTBACKS

There is widespread disquiet at reports that there will be extensive outbacks in existing library services contained in the 1988 County Council estimates. Redundancy notices to take effect on December 31st of this year have been served on the part-time Branch Librarians. Apparently it will be proposed that the branch libraries left unmanned will be served one day a week by a member of the Headquarters staff. It is also reported that the cut in book funds for 1988 is so extensive that redeployment of the Headquarters staff in this manner has become necessary. Also due to be axed is the already much reduced mobile library service so the service will in effect, be left with both its vans inoperable.
The overall picture is of a reduction in library usage to a level below that of 30 years ago.
And all this comes at a time when the unpopular registration fees has already been impressed on users who will surely be entitled to ask where the grandiose scheme of the past five years, about which their was so much publicity, went so badly wrong. They deserve answers.

FINED FOR UNPROVOKED ASSAULT

A witness in a prosecution brought by the Dungarvan Freshwater Anglers Association against people allegedly in breach of the fishery laws was subsequently assaulted and sustained a black eye. District Justice W. F. O'Connell heard at Dungarvan Court last week that Thomas O'Shea, St. Patrick's Crescent, Dungarvan, was charged with assaulting David O'Riordan, 47 Congress Villas, at Bridge Street, Dungarvan on the night of July 4.

O'Riordan told the court that as he passed a group of four people with his girlfriend he was called back by O'Shea who then struck him with his fist in the eye and knocked him to the ground. He had to receive medical treatment.

Witness said the background to the assault was that he had given evidence against O'Shea on behalf of the local Freshwater Anglers Club at a previous sitting of the court.

O'Shea however claimed he only struck out in self defence. He alleged O'Riordan came towards him with his fists clenched and defendant said he then hit out first.

District Justice O'Connell said he did not accept O'Shea's story and said he was guilty of an unprovoked assault. Fining him £25 with £5 expenses, the Justice said the most serious aspect of the incident was that it was a sequel to previous court proceedings.

Supt. M. English prosecuted and Mr. Niall King, Solr. defended.

DUNGARVAN SCOUT NOTES

TUESDAY NIGHT SCOUTS The meeting started as usual and after patrol inspection we played a few quick games such as "circle" and "backwards alphabet."

Later on the patrols were briefed on a new project. The object of this is a patrol chart outlining the danger that smoking does to your health. We have three weeks to complete this project and it will be judged on patrol participation and presentation of the facts. The winning patrol are awarded points for the inter-patrol competition and the posters will be put on display in our window.

CART RACE RAINED OUT Sunday, Nov. 8 was an unfortunate day as all the work that the patrol carried out went to waste as the rain just came tumbling down, making carting conditions impossible — so we had to postpone our race for a week.

THURSDAY NIGHT SCOUTS The meeting started with drill for which marks were awarded for the "Cub of the Year." The winner was Colm Cunningham and in 2nd place was Joe Barry. Afterwards we did some testwork for the investiture which is coming up soon. This was followed by a ball game, the score of which was — Mark Crotty's team 2, Leroy Simms team 1.

Congratulations and best wishes to Terrie and Brenda for their courage and initiative.

AGM OF GAA CLUB The committee of the Sliabh Gúna/St. Mary's GAA Club will be fixing the date for their AGM in the near future. As is usual, the AGM will review the activities of the club for the past year and elect officials, officers and committee for the coming season and if anybody out there has any ideas to suggest or would like to be elected as selector of the club, make sure you attend the general meeting for this is where all club matters will be discussed and decisions made for the year 1988.

I.C.A. FANCY DRESS FASHION SHOW On Sunday next, November 22, Waterford ICA County Federation presents a fashion show with a difference. The theme of the show is centred around song titles. Each girl may model as many outfits as they choose within the fifteen minutes allotted to them. However, each outfit must represent a song title.

We finished up the meeting with an announcement on the cub and scout Annual Link Weekend to Mellery on the last weekend in November. It must be pointed out that we are depending on parent transport to bring us up and down, so all you parents out there who are doing nothing on Friday night or Sunday evening and who have cars, please give us a hand.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CUBS On Wednesday last, our meeting got off to a flying start as our O/L Susan had a few games lined up. Afterwards the clans were re-arranged and names can be easily gauged from the scoring statistics which show that over the hour only one of the forwards, Kieran Delahunty raised a flag.

FALL IN DOLLAR VALUE IS COSTLY

BY MICHAEL DILLON The average citizen read or listened to reports of the stock market crash in a bemused and possibly detached frame of mind. Millions of dollars being written off the value of some-one's stocks, or fortunes being lost, and the drastic change in the value of the U.S. dollar against other currencies, seem to be very remote from our everyday lives at this stage.

There is a feeling that the fortunes were all paper money anyway, and to some extent that is true enough, but the fall in the value of the U.S. dollar is quite real, and it is going to have quite serious effects on world trade in agricultural commodities, and on the budget of the European Community.

This will happen in a number of ways. First of all there is the immediate and direct effects on trade between the Community and the U.S. The lower value of the dollar will help the U.S. when selling commodities into the Community. Maize, grain, corn gluten and soy beans will all cost less landed at European ports.

Other consequences There are other possible consequences for agricultural

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. NOTES

FOOTBALLERS REACH UNDER 21 FINAL It was tough and uncompromising all the way at Abbeyside last Sunday when our under 21 footballers scored a hard earned 0-4 victory over Stradbally to advance to another Western final.

We knew the Reds would put it up to us in a big way and they certainly did that. In fact we trailed at half-time by 3-2 after missing many chances, but in fairness to the players they made significant improvements when it really mattered in the second half.

Denis McGrath's excellent goal midway through the half was the score that clinched the spoils for us and assured our place in the Western final against the reigning and divisional and county champions the Nire.

here's hoping we can go "all the way" with an under 21 double.

DIVISIONAL FINAL The Western under 21 football final against the reigning champions the Nire goes ahead at Frabur Field on Sunday week.

It goes without saying that it will be a very tight and hard fought affair, but such is the spirit and commitment in our camp right now that there is no valid reason why we cannot upset the odds. Meanwhile the training continues and the entire panel is putting in a super effort.

Wexford Halt Waterford's Run

Waterford lost their 100% record in Division 1 of the National Hurling League when they crashed to a resurgent Wexford at Walsh Park, Waterford, on Sunday last.

Conditions were terrible for the game and the pitch quickly turned into a quagmire. Despite this however, both sides contributed handsomely to a very competitive game which kept the 5,000 attendance on their toes right to the finish.

Wexford bigger physically, adapted better to the conditions and this proved a crucial factor in their win which leaves them joint leaders with Waterford on the league table.

However their success was carved primarily by an attack which capitalised on every game state contrast. To Waterford whose forward division laboured throughout.

In fact Waterford's midfield pair of Noel Crowley and Shane Ahearne won the battle for supremacy in this vital area. Unfortunately for Waterford their attack failed to respond as can be easily gauged from the scoring statistics which show that over the hour only one of the forwards, Kieran Delahunty raised a flag.

Crowley and Ahearne contributed 1-4 between them while Delahunty scored 0-6, two points coming from play. Wexford with the wind behind them dominated in an exciting first half and once they took the lead early on were never headed after this.

WEXFORD 2-13; WATERFORD 1-10

Jimmy Holohan scored in the 7th minute and Sean Wickham's goal left them seven points clear. Waterford hurled well for a period in which they sent over four points without reply but Wexford grabbed two points in the dying minutes of the half to leave them 2-5 to 0-6 ahead at the interval.

Waterford made switches in attack on the change-over which brought John McDonald to full forward and Billy Sullivan to right half. The moves failed to ignite the sector however and with ten minutes to go Wexford were two clear goals in front and looking set to crush the home side.

Waterford however continued to battle (they have no shortage of courage and commitment) and when Noel Crowley pointed and then goalied all in the space of two minutes it looked as if they could pull off another giant killing act.

It was not to be however. Wexford just 2 points in front, weathered the storm and in a final flurry sent over four points without reply to register a very deserving win.

They had stars in Sen Flood, Paudge Walsh, Pat Kenny, John Conran, Billy Byrne, Paul Carton, Sean Wickham and Jimmy Holohan.

The result will prove disappointing for Waterford who were hoping to maintain their unbeaten run. They need not, however, feel too despondent, as on the whole they played with tremendous spirit, and determination, despite failing to produce the goods up front.

Their best on the way were Noel Crowley Jimmy Beresford, Damien Byrne, Shane Ahearne, Dahi Foran, Billy Sullivan and Kieran Delahunty.

FINED £25 ON CANNABIS DRUGS CHARGE

Gardaí found cannabis resin in a Co. Corkman's car and also at his place of residence, Dungarvan Court heard last week. Pdraig Dineen of Grove Cottage, Fermoy, and also with an address at Abbeyside, had pleaded guilty to charges of possessing a controlled drug, cannabis resin, at the Burgery, Dungarvan, and at Abbeyside, on May 18.

Supt. M. English told the court that members of the Garda Drug Squad stopped the defendant's car at the Burgery on that date and in a pocket of the car found two portions of cannabis resin. Subsequently at his place of lodgings the gardaí found two cigarette butts that turned out to be cannabis resin. Gardai were satisfied that they were for Dineen's personal use only.

District Justice W. F. O'Connell fined Dineen £25 on one charge and marked the second one "proved" and taken into consideration.

NO MONEY FOR HOUSE BUILDING IN '88

A progress report on house building in the county for the month of October considered at the monthly meeting of Waterford County Council showed that there was satisfactory progress on the 4 schemes at present being carried out. Two of these would be completed this month and the other two were scheduled for completion in January next. A total of 11 houses were involved.

The report stated that 3 further schemes were at the planning stage and tenders had been approved for another.

Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager told the members that only 5 new houses would be built by the Council in the county next year, planning would go ahead but no starts would be made until money became available. The Manager added: "there will be no money provided for house building in 1988."

Replying to a question by Cllr. James A. Walsh, the Manager said that the 4-house scheme at planning stage for Lismore and the 4-house scheme at tender stage for Cappoquin would go ahead only if money became available.

In reply to Cllr. M. Queally, Mr. Hurley said that there was no money to build houses in the Western end of the county but there was a growing and increasing demand in the eastern end. At present there were about 100 applicants on the Council's housing list.

AGHERN BY THE BRIDE

I've roamed the Lee of song along, The Function and the Suir, And watched bright streamlets under troughs, The green woods of Glenbower, Nor these nor e'en the "Irish Rhyme" Nor Liffey's sparkling tide, Could woo me from my charming rhyme, Aghern by the Bride.

Of Knockmealdown and Galtee's heights, Let other writers tell, Sweet Slievenamon by Annor's side, And Wicklow's hills and dells, Through fair Killarney's scenes and grand, Old Carberry's Hundred Isles, My heart is with Aghern and The winding banks of Bride.

When summer wild flowers in showers, Spread over hill and dell, And lilacs bloom in sunlit bowers, Where thrushes gaily sing, And when the evening shades of fall grey, O'er grove and green hillside, In fancy through thy scenes I stray, Aghern by the Bride.

When death my name shall call at last, Far from those scenes of yore, And faith and trust, in God shall cast, For me fair scenes before, For me fair scenes and tears and fears, For thee my love won't hide, Old home of boyhood's happy years, Aghern by the Bride.

MIDLETON LEAVE IT LATE

MIDLETON 2-13; BALLYDUFF 2-5

Midleton didn't have it all their own way when they clashed with Ballyduff in their Munster Club Hurling Championship game played at Midleton on Saturday last. It wasn't until late in the game that the winners stamped their authority on the game when five points on the trot assured them of a place in the final.

Midleton had three early points but despite this Ballyduff were hurling confidently and John Quirke brought them level when he hand passed the ball to the net.

Midleton shot into the lead again with a point from Kevin Hennessy but Ballyduff quickly levelled again through Michael Walsh.

Midleton had a vital score in the 9th minute when Ger Fitzgerald pulled first time to set their first goal.

Ballyduff came back for two points but before the interval Colm O'Neill's shot deceived Ballyduff keeper Michael Leamy and the goal left the Cork champions 2-6 to 1-3 ahead at the break.

Although Midleton resumed with much more confidence it was Ballyduff who created the early chances but both John Quirke and Mossy Walsh snuffed chances to goal.

Midleton slowly took control however but after Vincent O'Neill pointed in the 40th minute they had to wait for another 14 minutes for their next score.

However Midleton were in the driving seat and some good points assured them of their place in the final. Ballyduff continued to battle gamely and Liam Power goalied from a penalty two minutes from time but by then Midleton had the game wrapped up.

Scorers: Midleton—C. O'Neill 1-3; J. Fenton 0-3; K. Hennessy 1-0; V. O'Neill and J. Boylan 0-1 each; Ballyduff—M. Walsh 0-4; J. Quirke and L. Power 1-0 each; P. Prendergast 0-1.

DUNGARVAN RUGBY FOOTBALL CLUB

DUNGARVAN DEFEATED IN LEAGUE

Old Christians 16, Dungarvan 12 In this entertaining game on Sunday last, Dungarvan were defeated by Old Christians in Cork on the score 16-12. This was a good display by Dungarvan against good opposition as Old Christians are having a very successful run in the league at present and Dungarvan can feel justifiably that they could have won this game.

Following a good back movement, John O'Connor scored our only try in lovely fashion in the corner, while Michael O'Connor converted with a very good kick from the touchline. Michael kicked a further two penalties but these were not enough to prevent defeat.

Both sets of forwards and backs played entertaining rugby and Dungarvan can feel satisfied with this performance. The team was: M.J. O'Connor (capt.), John O'Connor, Peter Maher, P. J. Kindregan, S. White, Andy Halley, Mark O'Connor, Rd. Quailly, J. Morrissey, O'Rourke, T. Clarke, G. O'Brien, P. Mullaney, J. Tynan, T. Shalloo.

2nds DEFEATED IN EVANS CUP

Clanwilliam 7, Dungarvan 0

At Tipperary on Sunday last, the 2nds were narrowly defeated by the home side. In a closely fought encounter the home side held their advantage and despite good pressure from Dungarvan ran out winners by 7-0.

FIXTURES: DOUBLE HOME BILL

The 1st team have an attractive home fixture versus Waterpark seniors with a 2.30 kick-off. This should be a game well worth seeing as Waterpark are expected to have their 3 inter-pros playing. The 2nds have a home GAA Cup match v. Waterford Glass with a 2.15 kick-off.

Even though Dungarvan did not win their games overall the team members can say without doubt, that 100 per cent effort was given by each team member.

G.A.A. Notes

Waterford Can Beat Limerick

NEXT WEEK-END
The meeting of Waterford and Limerick in round two of the football league on Sunday and the clash of champions, involving Stradbally and Nemo Rangers in a Munster club game at Stradbally on Saturday are the major events on an all-football programme arranged for the coming week-end. There will also be a big Western inter-club final in the Eastern junior football final replay between Erin's Own and Clonca, our champions, Kilgobnet, meet the winners in the county final at Dungarvan on December 6.

LEAGUE GAME
Following their defeat by Tipperary two weeks ago, the footballers will need to get back on a winning note in this game against Limerick on Sunday, if they are to stay in contention for promotion to division 2 next year. Last year we lost by a point to Limerick at Askeaton, but when we met in the McGrath Cup final at Kilmacshane we took a trouncing from them. Evidently this game came too soon in the wake of a 90 minute championship match in the replay against Clare and our side showed signs of weariness. A crowd can be made for forgetting the defeat and basing our prospects on our earlier league game. On that basis, we are in with a chance if our side performs as well as they are able. Doing this can be a problem in the present circumstances. By this I mean that at least six of the team will be in action in major championship matches just 24 hours before the start of Sunday's game. Five Stradbally players will be in action against Nemo Rangers in the Munster club game and Liam O'Connor will be assisting Erin's Own in the Eastern final, also on Saturday.

Liam O'Connor is one of the mainstays of the football team and his constant activity and his appetite for both hurling and football could come a bit stale and weary. But being the man he is, Liam will keep on trying regardless and thankfully at the present time we have other great players possessed with a similar quality. I have no information about the fitness of full-back Pat Quinn who missed the game against Tipperary because of illness.

After the beating by Tipperary, Waterford took their training in a more serious way and four hard training sessions in the interim. One of these included a challenge against Tipperary on Saturday last, and here with eight of the substitutes in action, we won by a point. Tipperary were also experimenting on the day. In the present league, Limerick have beaten Wexford (0-6 to 0-5) but for that game, five of their side, Sean Kelly, Liam Keane, Brian Hanley, Eugene Leonard and Owen Sheehan were all on the injured list. All are expected to be fit for Sunday under their new coach/trainer Paddy Dwyer who took over from Raymond O'Hagan who almost succeeded in taking Limerick out of division 3 last season. Francis Brosnan, a player who is a well known rugby player with Young Munster and who played well against Wexford will again be included on their side who will be attempting their third successive defeat of Waterford.

When the panel resumed training on Monday night, a total of 23 players (including Liam O'Connor) were present and they seemed undaunted by their defeat against Tipperary so there is certainly nothing wrong with their good spirit. The selection of the team was deferred until after to-night's final session because the selectors have some doubts about the fitness of a few players. When the side is announced it is likely to show at least a few changes from the team which played in the first match. Pat Quinn is expected to resume at full back and Conor O'Brien is expected to be included as one of the outfield changes of the team.

On the basis of their display against Limerick in their meeting in the league in the early part of the year, they must have a chance of the points here, but it will take a mighty effort on the part of every player.

STRADBALLY V. NEMO RANGERS
Stradbally have stated that they have no worries about Saturday's meeting with the Cork champions in their Munster club game and that they are confident of being able to field a full strength team. They appear to show little concern for the fact that the visitors are the holders of eight Cork county senior football titles, or that the hot favourites won their latest title on Sunday last. That speaks volumes for the spirit of our new champions and while such a philosophy might not win them a place in the provincial semi-final, it should enable them to play their very best football.

Last year, our reigning county champions, Kilrossanty were beaten by Nemo at Dungarvan, chiefly because they could not cope with the bewildering style of game played by this highly rated Cork team. Their radar-like passing movements and their ability to find their man in the open spaces, helped them to beat a well fancied Nemo group side in last Sunday's Cork county final. They are undoubtedly a great team with loads of talent and experience and will be very firm favourites to advance from this one.

Most observers will give our champions little chance, but still a very big crowd of our football supporters will travel to Stradbally on Saturday in the hope that their judgment might be wrong. I'm sure that if Stradbally play as resolute and as tenaciously as they did for periods against Kilrossanty and the Nire they will make a close match of it. A shock result would undoubtedly do a world of good for football in the county — as well as for Stradbally — and in a season of shocks and surprises, who knows?

The home team is expected to field out as they did for the county final with Kieran Heffernan in goal in front of David Kirwan, Bob Walker and Aidan Curran with Fintan O'Brien, Conor O'Brien and Jim Roche in the half line of defence. Eoin O'Brien and Pat Curran will be at centre-field against Timmy Dalton and Shay Fahy and in attack the Reds will have Noelie Weldon, Tom Gough and Sean Dee on their outside line with Liam O'Brien, Paul Mulvaney and Dave Coffey keeping the Cork backline busy on the inside.

Whatever the result, it will be a game well worth seeing.

RESULTS
When an intercounty game is lost, supporters of the beaten team invariably lay the blame on individual players or the selectors, but in the case of last Sunday's defeat, I don't believe our followers are justifying blame any of these, as nothing that could have been done would have saved the game. Wexford won because they were the better team and very few of the very big crowd who saw and enjoyed the game, will deny this. All round they were a bigger team and conditions seemed to suit them better on the day. From the moment the ball was thrown in they played tenaciously and hit Waterford (legitimately) with everything in an effort to put us off our game. These tactics paid early dividends, until we settled and began to hit back. We came into the game and were on top for a while in the second quarter and our hopes rose that with the breeze advantage in the second half, we might be able to take them. When we came within a couple of points of being equal on the scoreboard the league points seemed within our grasp, but Wexford, finishing as they began, wrapped it up in the closing stages to win and share top place on the table with Waterford.

This defeat should not be looked upon as a set-back for Waterford hurling. Not everyone realises that our resources are limited and that what is being attempted and aimed at, will take time, more time and patience than many of our supporters are inclined to believe. Wexford are the best team we have played against to date in the league and having beaten Kilkenny and Tipperary as well as us they will have notions of taking their fourth national hurling league title.

Our players will have learned from the game and the experience of playing against such a score-thirsty side as Wexford were can only do good, so instead of saying that the Slaneysiders put a 'stop to our good play' let us look at it in the light that it was a sobering result that might eventually prove advantageous to our long-term policy on hurling.

We play Tipperary on Sunday week at Thurles and this will be our final game until the new year when we play All-Ireland champions, Galway at Dungarvan on February 21st and Limerick in our final match on March 6.

BALLYDUFF BEATEN
Although our hurling champions, Ballyduff, went down to Middleton in their Munster club game at Middleton on Saturday they were deserving of full credit for a splendid effort and a very satisfactory display against such a highly rated club team. Even when they went far behind on the scoreboard, Ballyduff never gave up the ghost and fought courageously for every ball until the final whistle. Middleton were the better side and deserved to win this well contested and very enjoyable contest.

SHAMROCKS DOUBLE
I overlooked mentioning last week, that Shamrocks against the expectations of many people — scored a notable under 21 'B' double when beating Tallow in the final of the football championship. Earlier they had beaten Ballyduff in the hurling counterpart of this new championship and for a club who certainly has got an abundance of young players, this was quite an achievement. Having reached the County final of the intermediate football championship and retained their senior status in hurling as well as winning this under-age double, the Knockanore club will have every reason for feeling pleased with their achievements of 1987.

DUNGARVAN CLUB
I wrote last week that I would list the full record of their championship achievements, now that they have completed the grand-slam, but having run into a small problem in researching their victories in both junior county championships, I must delay publication until next week.

REFEREES
On Sunday next one of our leading football referees, Thomas Meachair, An Rinn, will handle his first big game in the present National League, when he takes charge of the Tipperary versus Wexford game at Clonmel.

My reference last week to Pat Moore's handling of the under 21 football game between the Nire and An Rinn/Seana Phoinne and An Rinn/Seana Phoinne without the assistance of umpires or linesmen, attracted some comment. One of Pat's admirers rang to say that he should be publicly congratulated. I did give him some well deserved praise last week.

ORGANISATION

The organisation of our championships in both sides of the county and in most grades, was the subject of discussion at a recent Western Board meeting and resulting from this, a special committee met to consider how best a restructuring job could be done. Two meetings of this special committee resulted in a number of proposals being agreed upon and now a representative section of that committee will confer with their Eastern counterparts at a Kilmacthomas venue on next Monday night.

Two members of the special Western committee have done quite an amount of research into the senior championships and have come up with an interesting formula for running properly disciplined leagues in three grades, with a promotion and relegation clause and a championship run on a knock-out system. Views were also expressed that we have too many teams playing in the senior championships and that the quality of the games would be much better if the numbers were reduced.

I note that at a mini-county convention held in Limerick on the same night over 130 delegates were unanimous that their senior hurling club championships should be reduced from the present 26 to 16 teams in hurling (they have no intermediate grade at present) and the football championship should be confined to eight teams.

It will be interesting to hear how Monday night's meeting fares and what the Eastern Board members think about the suggested changes. I'm sure too, that between now and convention time a lot of ideas will be thought-up about restructuring and these will be interesting (I hope) and helpful.

UNDER 21 FOOTBALL FINAL

The semi-final between Dungarvan and Stradbally attracted a fair sized crowd to Abbeyside on Sunday morning to see a very enjoyable and at times exciting contest. The standard was quite good and both teams were all-out for the full hour. Dungarvan led by five points to three at the break, were the better team in the second half and deserved to win.

They will now be fancied to beat the Nire in the final which is scheduled for next Sunday week at a venue to be decided. This should provide us with an excellent contest, with which to end our club championship playing season and it is something we will write about next week.

HANDBALL: SPECIAL MUNSTER OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP

Waterford v. Tipperary at Clonmel — In the Munster semi-final of this competition on Saturday last, Kilgobnet's J. Wall was narrowly beaten by Tipperary's P. Maher in a very exciting contest. In the first game Maher just managed to stay in front on the score of 21-20. His greater fitness also enabled him to take the second game of the match by 21-24. It was a splendid effort by Wall and things might have gone his way had he been a little

ABBEYSIDE SHORE ANGLING CLUB NOTES

The club's first competition of the 1987/88 season was fished at Quann's on Wednesday, November 11. This was a change from our usual Saturday night and proved to be very successful. A total of 20 seniors and 2 juveniles turned out on the night and the club takes this opportunity to welcome so new and to those anglers who haven't joined as yet, looking forward to seeing them at the next competition. All our Christmas competitions are closed and therefore one must be a member to fish.

Fishing the rising tide once again proved very successful for the venue with a variety of three-dogfish, coalfish and codling. All the anglers were kept very busy with the ever persistent small coalfish and codling, and the night slipped away quickly and pleasantly. In the interests of conservation all fish were returned to the water alive after the weigh-in.

Results: 1. Tony Crowe; 2. Michael Power; 3. Damien Dillon; 4. Brendan Wall; 1st juvenile, Alan Mulcahy. As an added prize this year the club had a sealed weight prize which was won by a new member to shore angling, namely Jerry Donovan.

Also new to the club is a special ladies prize for the best lady over the four competitions and this is generously sponsored by Danny Barry County Stores. This sponsorship would be much appreciated by any of the ladies who would be lucky enough to win it. The bottle of whiskey was won by a member making a welcome return after 12 years absence and a man I'm sure will hear more of before the season ends, Jim Dunford.

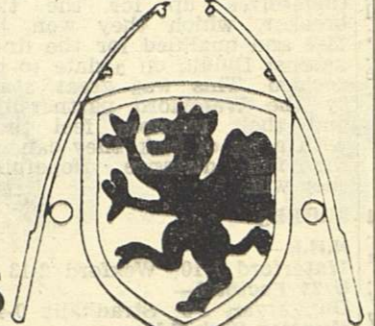

The much coveted 'Leader' Cup is now up for grabs and with the holder Tony Crowe off to flying start and not too anxious to relinquish his hold on it, it is up to the other anglers to catch him if they can. On behalf of the club I would like to thank the people of Dungarvan, Abbeyside and surrounding areas who so generously supported our annual church gate collection on Saturday and Sunday, November 6 and 7.

Until our next competition—tight lines!

The Irish Dairy Council, which is representative of all organisations involved in the production and processing of milk, has issued the following statement, following a recent meeting:—

“The Council, while agreeing that there would be certain advantages in a merger between An Foras Taluntais and ACOT, is alarmed at the proposal by the Government to cut the budget of the combined organisations in 1988 by some 43%. The Council feels that such a reduction is tantamount to a vote of no confidence in the future of agriculture and the food industry.”

COUNCIL DEFERS NEW ROADS MOTION

By 11 votes to 7 Waterford County Council at their monthly meeting in Dungarvan agreed to defer for one month a motion concerning the taking over of new roads.

The motion in the name of Deputy Jackie Bennett, changed since 1979 but they had changed for the worse. He added that he would prefer the Council to have dealt with the estimates for 1988 before they considered an open-ended resolution such as the one now before them. He wouldn't be my advice to the Council to deal with the resolution until the estimates for 1988 are first put to bed and I would suggest that you defer it for a month when you can then discuss it," he said.

The motion was seconded by Cllr. Paddy Cahill. Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager agreed that conditions had, as Deputy Fahey remarked, changed since 1979 but they had changed for the worse. He added that he would prefer the Council to have dealt with the estimates for 1988 before they considered an open-ended resolution such as the one now before them. He wouldn't be my advice to the Council to deal with the resolution until the estimates for 1988 are first put to bed and I would suggest that you defer it for a month when you can then discuss it," he said.

Cllr. M. Quigley said that even if the motion was passed it would have no power as there would be no money to do anything about it. "This is only going through an empty formula and it would be better to tell the people that instead of making speeches as this resolution is nothing only hot air," he said.

Cllr. C. Casey then proposed that the motion be deferred for one month and Cllr. J. A. Walsh seconded and on a vote this was carried by 11 votes to 7.

MILK QUOTA RESTRUCTURING SCHEME

[By P. G. Brannigan, Agricultural Adviser, Bank of Ireland.]

Details of a national milk restructuring scheme to facilitate transfer of quotas to those wishing to produce extra milk has been announced. In summary, the co-op's will purchase quotas from those suppliers who wish to cease milk production. In allocating these quotas to other farmers, priority will be given to certain categories starting with those who possess the least quota, of less than 25,000 gallons or less. It is envisaged that the transfer will become operational from the 1st April, 1988.

PURCHASE/SALE PRICE
The purchase price per gallon of quota cannot exceed the compensation level under the EEC Milk Cessation Scheme—22c per gallon for years. The resale price to those requiring additional quotas must be the same as that paid to the original seller. There is an option of payment in one lump sum or on a phased basis. It has been suggested that where a lump sum payment is adopted, the price will generally be in the order of 75p per gallon.

Thus over the next few months, people are liable to be faced with deciding on a lump sum or cash up front. In arriving at value of quota most people will be drawing a comparison with the terms of leases in their own area. However, a direct comparison in price per gallon is not correct in that existing leases envisage the quota reverting to the original owner at the end of the term of the lease. With the milk restructuring scheme now announced the original owner will lose the quota forever.

A decision whether to opt for the lump sum or a phased basis will depend on:—
(1) the need for money up front.
(2) interest rates applying to the individual situation.
If a farmer is paying off a loan obviously the interest rates will be higher than if he is going to put the money on deposit. If you can establish the interest rate applicable to your situation and the price per gallon it is possible to arrive at a Present Value for your quota. Thus if you are getting a rate of return of 10% on your money and offered 15p per gallon over 7 years, the Present Value of your quota is 73.05p. At higher prices per gallon, the value per gallon is obviously higher.

SUMMARY
These figures are only a guide. Obviously one has to check out the tax situation and decide whether to continue with borrowings repaid from a leased quota on a phased basis or take a lump sum to repay them right away. Alternatively, people who are going to deposit money must look at the tax implications of the sale of the quota now or an income over 7 years. People opting to sell their quotas on a phased basis should ensure that they will not have need for a lump sum within the next few years.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

The photo for our "Remembering Other Days" this week is one taken from the Quayside in Dungarvan with Strands South, Abbeyside in the background. Taken by Tom Tobin in the early 1950's it shows Tom Kenneally, Convent Road in his boat from which the two men from the Board of Works in Dublin operated a suction pump in an effort to dislodge the mud-bank which was silting up the quay at the time. The operation was one sponsored by the Urban Council acting as the Harbour Authority but like other similar efforts to clear these mud banks, it proved a failure.

Tallow Area Credit Union Reports Steady Growth

The Annual General Meeting of the Tallow Area Credit Union will take place in Edmund Murphy's Function Room, Knockanore on this Thursday night, November 6 and 7 commencing at 8 o'clock.

The Board of Directors Report, to be presented by Helen McCarthy, President, informs the members that the past year had proved a good one with savings showing an impressive increase of over 30 per cent and membership maintaining a steady growth. Looking to the future the report stated that while the magical million pounds had not yet become a reality it is in sight for 1988. The report then goes on to state:—

"Nationally, the year past has been characterised by curtailments and cut-backs, happily the Credit Union services to you the members continue to improve—longer opening hours, Savings Stamps, facilities for purchasing Travellers Cheques, Gift Tokens, payment of E.S.B. Bills, sponsorship of events, etc.

"This year we had the official opening of the refurbished Conna Office. The local Sub-Committee can be justly proud of their involvement in the fledgling Credit Union Branch, which has now become an integral part of the community.

"Modern technology will soon be needed to cope with the ever-increasing work load; a special Sub-Committee was set up to examine and study computerization.

"The Directors who are very conscious of the need to keep abreast with developments in the Credit Union field have attended Seminars, Chapter Meetings and Conventions.

"Unemployment and redundancy are two words which are heard daily by the politicians and the media. The antidote appears to be in Community Enterprise and Self-help. Tallow Enterprise Group, who came together last year with the encouragement and benevolence of the Credit Union, are happy to report that 16 young people are now working for the next six months on The Bridge Valley Development Project—under an ANCO Training Programme. Miss O'Leary, McCarthy, the coordinator for this training scheme. We wish to acknowledge the support given by Oliver Clancy and Jim Tobin of ANCO to this project. Our thanks also to Eamon O'Sullivan of the Y.E.A., without whose encouragement and support the Enterprise Group could not continue.

Board have expressed publicly their concern at this development. Credit Union still provides the cheapest means of finance, and ensures that it is money working for people, not people slaving to meet repayments.

"To glorify past achievements and ignore the future could lead to complacency—this must not happen. Our very active Promotion and Education Committee are always seeking new ways to promote the Credit Union message and we appeal to you our members to co-operate with us and help us realise the full potential of Tallow Area Credit Union.

"Our success is due mainly to the dedication and hard work of our Directors, Committee Members, Manager Sheila Ryan and Staff. On behalf of the Board I wish to pay tribute to O'Brien Bros and Castlelyons Co-op for their input to our payroll reduction scheme, also to Conna Community Council for their generous co-operation at all times. I take this opportunity to pay tribute to our friends in the media who have been so supportive of our efforts during the past.

"In conclusion I wish to acknowledge the contribution of retiring Director Anne Moroney to the Credit Union since its inception in Tallow. She will be missed at Board level for her loyalty and commitment. Anne is vacating centre stage to make way for the new leader of tomorrow. A very noble gesture indeed.

MEMBERS OF BOARD
The members of the Board of Directors are: President—Helen McCarthy; Vice-President—John Lyons; Secretary—Ann Moroney; Treasurer—Margaret Condon; with Nora O'Brien, Kathleen Barry, Kathleen Joyce, Tom Murray, Matthew Dineen, Michael Tobin and Michael Mulcahy, Manager of the Branch is Sheila Ryan.

SENATOR ROBB AND EXTRADITION
Dear Sir,
Much of the present debate in the Republic concerning the European Convention on the Suppression of Terrorism seems to have overlooked some of the realities.

1.—Extradition for non-political offences, has been practised by the Irish Republic since the Extradition Act of 1965 was passed by the Oireachtas/Parliament in Dublin.

2.—Extradition for offences for which exemption was claimed on the grounds of political motivation has already taken place out of the Irish Republic.

3.—The European Convention on the Suppression of Terrorism is not a cosy little behind the scenes extradition treaty concocted between London and Dublin. It is what it says it is—a European Convention.

4.—The Convention widens the categories of offences for which a claim of immunity from extradition on grounds of political motivation is no longer possible, e.g. hijacking of aircraft, interference with safety of civil aviation, serious attack on internationally protected persons such as diplomats, kidnapping, hostage taking, endangering persons by use of a bomb, grenade, rocket, automatic fire-arm or letter or parcel bomb and acting as an accomplice of anyone who carries out any of these acts (Article 1).

5.—Under the terms of the Convention (Article 5), a requested state is under no obligation to extradite if it has substantial grounds for believing that the request for extradition has been made for the purpose of prosecuting a person on account of that person's race, religion, nationality or public opinion.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Editor, Dungarvan Leader.
JOHN ROBB (SENATOR)
New Ireland Group,
Mountain Centre,
College Street, Belfast.
November 7, 1987.

To refuse extradition in respect of any of the categories of offence listed in Article 1 (see above) if it is considered to be a political offence provided it takes into account the seriousness of the offence.

8.—Any contracting state may subsequently denounce the convention and withdraw from its implications. (Article 14).

With the safeguards and qualifications provided in Articles 5, 12, 13 and 14 it seems inconceivable that the Convention will not be ratified by the Irish Republic by the December 1st deadline. We would favour prima facie evidence being produced whenever, under the terms of the Convention, extradition is being requested.

Yours etc.,
JOHN ROBB (SENATOR)

RTE AND IRISH CULTURE
Dear Editor,
Your play to you for the highly appropriate comments on RTE radio announcers in the "Spotlight" column of the "Leader" dated November 6.

It would seem to many of us that there is a deliberate attempt on the part of those behind the scenes in RTE to bury the true cultures of Ireland—including the native accents of newsreaders and so many other personnel.

These same authorities have captured an entire generation within the false world of jungle music. How many of our younger people—including those in the 21-25 years age group—will listen to Irish traditional music? Where are the grand cell bands gone and why have they faded? RTE Radio 2 killed our treasures ably assisted by our own TV services.

I have talked to so many of the great names in the world of traditional Irish music and song and all are sad. So many have actually accused RTE of making little of Irish music and song. Talk to the people of Tulla and Kilkenny where their cell bands won world fame. I meet them quite often and even though RTE may never kill their traditional talents or their spirit, the people in the glasshouse of Donnybrook are succeeding in getting these people to question their own Clare wisdom.

RTE has succeeded where the British Empire of yesterday failed—by destroying the popularity of our Irish music and song.

Now, they're trying to browbeat us with their BBC-style twang in the voices of their announcers. We have little spirit left in Ireland. We are being hammered into the ground in so many ways—but we are no longer protesting. We are no longer standing up to be counted—with the exception of all those involved in any campaign aimed at destroying the Irish way of life.

I me a very famous American TV producer last week at Shannon Airport. He told me in the course of an eye-opener of a long discussion that he found it impossible to accept that Ireland had thrown so much of its heritage out the window. He found nothing on radio to identify it as representative of an Irish nation, and very little on television.

I found this hard to digest at the time but think about it—and keep on thinking about it—particularly when you see some of the monstrosities that they call musical bands on TV or when you hear them on your national radio programmes.

Is there any pride in all that is good in Ireland anymore? Fairplay to you for the way you have been highlighting the sad scene.

Sincerely,
TOM TOBIN

PROPOSED CONFISCATION OF MILK QUOTAS

The ICMSA has rejected a suggestion from the Department of Agriculture and Food that there would be 5% confiscation of all milk quotas sold with land.

In a statement released from ICMSA headquarters this week, the Deputy President of the Association, Mr. Tom O'Dwyer said that ICMSA is totally opposed to this suggestion, because it infringes on a basic principle, if not a constitutional right, regarding property.

"The Minister has no right and should not attempt to confiscate quota for reallocation to other farmers, no more than he has a right to confiscate and reallocate land among farmers."

Mr. O'Dwyer indicated that ICMSA would oppose this proposal at political level and may challenge it legally should the Minister ignore representations.

The ICMSA Deputy President also referred to the proposal to operate a clawback on quotas purchased under the milk quota restructuring scheme as absurd and utter nonsense.

"Is the Minister really serious in suggesting a surcharge on small dairy farmers attempting to acquire reasonable levels of milk quota in order to give quotas free or charge to farmers not currently in milk production."

Finally Mr. O'Dwyer said that ICMSA are accepting the Minister's proposals in relation to restrictions on leasing of quotas because they are identical in principle to ICMSA's policy on this issue.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

SPECIAL MASS

The unit, was very pleased with the large turnout at last Friday night's Mass. This special Mass remembered all the deceased members of Abbeyside scouting. In a symbolic ceremony before the commencement of Mass 26 young men marched in procession, each carrying a lighted candle representing a departed member.

Fr. P. Ahearne, Troop Chaplain, celebrated the Mass and in his homily spoke about the great work and dedication that many of our deceased members gave, which proved an inspiration to those who came after and who were keeping on the wonderful tradition and making the community at large a better place in which to live.

The Abbeyside Folk Choir excelled themselves with an outstanding performance and Mr. Francis Kenely played a trumpet salute. To all we say a sincere thank you.

It was also nice too, that so many accepted our invitation to the den for a cuppa, biscuit and chat.

This was our fourth special Mass and each year has seen it grow and now has established itself as an annual 'Abbeyside' event.

BADMINTON LEAGUES
Our second section of the badminton leagues came to a halt last weekend when we had a new number one (yet again) and a new points champion.

The new number one is newcomer Tomas Walsh who battled very hard throughout the campaign to defeat the other five members in the first division. His scores were—15-3 v. Ray Moore; 15-3 v. Sean Cartwright; 15-1 v. Alan Ryan; 15-2 v. Michael Sheehan and 15-1 v. Joe Organ.

his games 16-14 v. Michael Verling; 15-6 v. Derek Kenneally; 15-10 v. P. Cosgrave and 15-3 v. Alan Beatty.

The next round of the leagues will be held next year.

TROOP MEETING

Last Saturday night's meeting was muffy. We began with prayers and the patrols checking out the scout leader article on the National Patrol Award. As it was a non uniform meeting we had a hectic night of activities as we had press-ups, jerks, sit-ups, kicks as well as speed relay. After these I can tell you there were a lot of bodies very tired—why Joe and I got tired and they were just looking.

At this stage Tony O'Mahoney had turned up his function was to run a check on all the bikes and boy had he some checking to do. A couple of his more comical reports were bad steering and he reported that one bike's handlebars were out of line, so if you wanted to turn you'd end up going straight. Other faults included bad brakes, bolts missing, lights missing and surprise, surprise he did say on a couple of occasions 'bikes perfect'.

Later in the meeting Tony answered questions on bicycle maintenance and biking in general. We would like to thank Tony for giving us his precious time to give the bikes their M.O.T. test.

Also during the meeting we had some firemen's relays, commando type activities and whistling chairs.

We finished the meeting with notices. Gerard Mullen getting presented with his badminton racket for winning the leagues and Derek Kenneally reading out his scout prayer.

LATE MRS. HENNESSY, CONNA

The death took place on Thursday, November 5 of Mrs. Katherine Hennessy, Conna. Very well known in the district, she, with her late husband Declan had conducted a licensed premises, now known as The Fisherman's Rest in the local village where they were held in high esteem. Their sons Michael, Youghal and Fr. Declan, Cobh (present vice-chairman of the East Cork Board of the GAA) had strong links with the St. Catherine's Club.

An overflowing congregation, including many priests, packed Conna church for the concelebrated Requiem Mass, the chief celebrant being Dr. John Magee, Bishop of Cloyne, assisted by former Bishop of Cloyne Dr. John Ahern, Fr. Declan Hennessy, Cobh (son of deceased) and Fr. Sean Cotter (nephew). The Conna Choir, with Jerry McElrick organist, was also in attendance. A guard of honour was formed outside the church and the interment took place in Ardmore cemetery, Guimild rath De is Muire ar a h-anam díllis. To her sons Michael, Fr. Declan and Mrs. Mary Lavín (daughter), sisters, brother, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends we tender our condolences.

DR. TOM M. O'RIRDAN, CORK AND CONNA

Deep shock and regret was occasioned in the Conna district on hearing recently of the untimely death of Dr. Tom O'Riordan. Attached to the staff of St. Stephen's Hospital, Sanfields Court, he was a very popular and unassuming man. He was elder son of the late Dr. W. O'Riordan and Mrs. to Mrs. M. O'Riordan. His father commenced duty in the district in the early thirties while his mother taught school at Killoonagh N.S., and during the last war years both young Tom and mother cycled the long journey to and fro to Kilkenny each day.

Tom never lost his affection for the place of his birth and this was demonstrated by his frequent visits there each year. His death in his mid-fifties is to be regretted and we express our deepest sympathy to his wife Betty, sons, sisters, brother and relatives and friends. He was buried at St. Michael's cemetery, Blackrock. Sotus na bhfiatthas da anam.

MRS. MARY (MAY) HOARE, CURRAHEEN

Profound sorrow was evoked in Conna parish in general at the passing of Mrs. Mary Hoare, Curraheen on Friday, November 6. Formerly Mary Sexton of Ahern, she and her late husband Maurice came to reside many years ago at Curraheen, Conna.

A very likeable person with a gentle disposition she was extremely popular in the parish and will be missed by all her friends but more especially by her daughter Mrs. Pádraig, son-in-law and family, Curraheen, her sister Mrs. Nellie Cotter, Cork, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends to whom we tender our sympathy.

A large concourse attended the removal of the remains to Conna church and on the following Sunday at Mogeely, Conna cemetery. Guimild beannacht De is Muire ar a h-anam díllis.

PTAA NEWS

Delegates from Cork were among those who travelled from Ireland to the 18th International Seminar held recently at the Normandy Hotel, Glasgow. Fabian Murphy, Castlemartyr, Mona Geaney, Dungourney, Mary Holland, Glengarf, Vincent and Imelda Daly of Ross-carbery, Flimmy Flinn of Clonakilty joined with Fr. Cemin, C.C. Ahlohill, Bridie Kenefick, Ballinassig and Brendan Shortall of Enniskeane, at what was a most inspiring and successful seminar.

REPAIR OF COUNCIL HOUSES

Co. Council houses at Woodview Park and Trecullen Tallow were a subject for debate at a recent Co. Council meeting. Cllr. Willie McDonnell, raising the matter, said some houses in these areas were in a bad state of repair, doors were cracked, some rotten and windows falling apart. He went on to say that he had the names of fourteen families where repairs are to be carried out and although making representations for them over the last, two years very little work had been done. The Co. Manager, Mr. Hurley, said with a small repair crew and shortage of money it would take some time before getting to all repairs on Council houses. However, we understand that work is now in progress at these houses and we hope all repairs will be carried out shortly.

BRIDE VIEW UNITED A.F.C. NOTES

Bride View Utd. 0; Ballyduff 3 This was one of United's worst ever displays in the Red House League. They never really got going with some terrible mistakes being made right throughout; the first 20 minutes were keenly fought, and United won the two matches in this period. Dermot Henley shot just over when in a good position and Pat Murphy's shot was well saved by Seamus Daly the Ballyduff keeper. Murphy was unlucky again five minutes later but Daly again denied him. Disaster struck for United in the 28th minute when a mix up by one of the defenders and the keeper left, in James Scamilton to score from close range. The crossbar came to United's rescue in the 44th minute when a goal looked certain.

United began well in the second half and David Henley (United's best player) was unlucky twice in an opening quarter. After this United fell apart, and Sean Prendergast put Ballyduff two up in the 63rd minute. Maurice Geary rounded off the scoring for the Village side in the 75th minute when he scored from close range.

United — K. Tobin, M. Sutherland, P. Sheehan, P. Prescod, K. Murphy, G. Sice, G. Hogan, P. Curley, David Henley, Pat Murphy and Dermot Henley. E. J. Henley and T. McCarthy both using red cards. CHALLENGE GAME U/10 Bride View Utd. 1; Lisroe, 3 Lisroe came from behind in this game played at Tallow on Saturday morning. James Tobin put United in front but Lisroe fought back and scored three times without reply. United did however miss a penalty but full marks to Lisroe.

Co-op Draw — The first of five draws took place in the Bridge Hotel in Waterford on Saturday night last but sadly we had no winners. Two prizes were won by Mrs. Ann Dunne. On behalf of the club I would like to thank all of you who supported this draw. It was a huge success financially for the club and much of this money will go to the underage club.

European Football championship — Now that Ireland have qualified for tennis, a number of the locals are talking about a trip to West Germany to support the Irish squad. I'm sure we will be hearing more about this later on but in the meantime well do Ireland. Next Fixtures: Away to Pine-wood on Sunday morning next.

CAUSEWAY TENNIS CLUB NOTES

Basking in the privacy of our new clubhouse, the building of which was brought about by the endeavours of our past committee led ably by our outgoing president Colin Carthy, our members listened to reports on progress made in 1987. Expressions of appreciation for the industry and dedication of the outgoing committee were made by those in attendance. After a healthy and enthusiastic discussion, nominations were put forward and the following officers and committee were chosen:—

President — Suzanne Dalton; Vice-President — to be chosen at a later date; Secretary — Kathleen Barrett; Treasurer — Ger O'Donovan; P.R.O. — Ann Higgins. Committee — John McGrath, Mary Eiland, Colin Carthy, Eileen Brennan, Jacinta O'Mahony, Mary Verling, Joan Sheehan, Ann Kelleher. Although at the beginning of a completely new year of Causeway tennis, we are fortunate to have the continued "fatherly" presence of Jack Veale, on our courts. Jack has weathered many storms and turned many a squall into sunshine in the course of umpiring and supervising junior competitions! Thank you Jack for all your help.

NEW BROOM SWEEPS CLEAN We would like to welcome Paul Dower who comes to the club under the Manpower Scheme. Already, he has brought a gleam and a sense of order to our clubhouse and I know this will be appreciated by all our members, both junior and senior.

Our winter league winds its way quite efficiently to its conclusion in early December. Team captains continue to scrounge points from their team members knowing that finals day will be Sunday, 6th December. On that day too will be the presentation of Ben O'Neill's trophies for the Mens Doubles tournament held earlier in the season. Keep up the good sportsmanship! SUCCESS Congratulations to Alicia Browne on her election to the Munster Branch of the Irish Lawn Tennis Association. We are very lucky to have Alicia as our ambassador to make a case for Dungarvan tennis. Her frequent meetings in Thurles, Alicia is a very strong link in the chain connecting earlier tennis achievements in Dungarvan with the present and we hope future successes of both the Causeway and St. Laurence clubs. Thank you for your continued interest and support, Alicia.

HELP!

We are calling on all members to support our first fund-raising venture of this year — our fashion show on Thursday, November 19 in Lawlor's Hotel, in conjunction with Maria Moloney. Tickets, costing £5 each, are available from all committee members but some may find it easier to buy from Maria herself in her shop, John McGrath in the Trustee Savings Bank and Suzanne Dalton in Daltons, Jewellers. The fashion show will be just one of many fund-raising ventures in '87 and '88 to improve our club and make our plans a reality.

CHRISTMAS

Plans are underway for our Christmas Party in conjunction with St. Laurence's, which will be held in Minnies sometime in December.

NEWSFLASH FOR JUNIORS

On a date to be confirmed, the president and her committee would like to meet with you for discussion about junior tennis needs, on court and off. Everyone will be encouraged to voice opinions and give ideas etc. The end result of this will be to form a junior tennis committee which will cater for some of the needs itemized at the meeting. We look forward to your co-operation. Do keep in touch with developments in your tennis club, both by reading the notes in the paper and also by keeping a weather eye on all notices in your clubhouse. — P.R.O.

O'FLYNN CUP (JUNIOR HURLING)

St. Catherine's v. Carrigtwohill — Our junior hurlers will be in action on this Sunday at Carrigtwohill when they play the home team in the final of the above competition. They will encounter stiff opposition here, as Carrig' have been producing good form recently in their outings in both hurling and football. Catherine's will be well prepared too and with some of the team having experience with the intermediate hurlers they should give a good account of themselves. The match is timed for 1.30 as the East Cork Junior Hurling Final, Castleisland v. Ballymacoda (Fr. O'Neill's) will be played immediately afterwards. The two games will no doubt be well patronised despite their lateness.

MARRIED

Congratulations to one of our prominent hurlers, Seamus Neville, Ballyknock, Ballynoe on his recent wedding to Catherine Hayes, Ticknock. We wish them both many years of wedded bliss.

CAMOGIE

Last Sunday at Banteer, St. Catherine's junior camogie team overcame Castleyons and thus gained a couple of points in the current league competition. The game reached great heights at times with each side exchanging scores, but it was the sheer determination of Catherine's that won the day on the score 3-5 to 3-1.

It is an encouraging factor for the team as they travel to Brian Dillon's ground in Cork City on this Sunday to play the local team in the county championship.

St. Catherine's team — Ann Lane, Catherine Heffernan, Nuala O'Connell, Catherine Hayes, M. O'Regan, M. Spillane, Annette, Maibach Cathy O'Sullivan, J. Flynn, S. O'Leary, C. Moroney, R. O'Leary, S. O'Keefe.

EAST CORK G.A.A. CONVENTION AT BALLYNOE

The Convention at Ballynoe will host the above convention at the Hall, Ballynoe on Sunday, December 6.

JUVENILE SCOR AT CONNA

The Juvenile Scor will be held at Conna Hall on Saturday, 28th November at 7.30. This will be one of the semi-finals and St. Catherine's will be represented in the eight items up for competition there.

RETREAT AT COBH

Last Sunday the Ballynoe extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist travelled to Cobh to attend a Retreat, given by Fr. Tom Murphy, C.C. St. Colman's, Fermoy. The discussion then ended.

Behind the SPOTLIGHT

following to this week's meeting of the Council stating that as soon as they received permission to go ahead with Abbey-side's entry, it was hoped a public meeting would be called at which further names may emerge: John R. and Mrs. Walsh, Danny Lenihan, Jim Hally, Mrs. Jimmy Shine, Vincent and Mrs. O'Brien, Greg Fives, Tom McHugh, N.T., John Daly, Mrs. Sean Power, N.T., Seamus O'Brien, Mrs. Liam O'Dea, Phil Duggan, N.T., Jack McCarthy, N.T., Joe Organ, Scoutmaster, Michael Mulcahy, Paddy O'Brien, Eddie Moore, Donal O Faolain, Fr. Aheame, C.C., Henry Beresford, Paddy Whelan, Jon Butler, Pat Veale, N.T., Violet Keating. Mr. O'Farrell's letter to the Council stated in conclusion "A separate entry for Abbey-side, it should be pointed out once again, can only be beneficial for the entire area."

The Abbeyside letter was sponsored and supported at the meeting by Cllr. Nuala Ryan. She proposed that the suggestion be approved and this was seconded by Cllr. Wright. It was evident that in the official view the urban area should not be split where entry to this competition is concerned but despite this the proposal was approved in principle. It will now be a matter for the Abbeyside Committee to formulate their proposals and to come back to the Council with them. County Manager, Dan Hurley, however remarked that he did not know how Bord Failte would look at this separate entry by Abbeyside but he added that it could be good to have competition between various areas of the Urban and even between the different housing estates in bringing about further Tidy Town improvements.

VANDALS STRIKE AGAIN Vandals were on the prowl in Dungarvan again last week-end and a total of fifteen mature trees were vandalised in the Urban Council leisure park at the Causeway, Abbeyside. It was only a few weeks ago when Environment Minister Pádraig Flynn visited the town to officially open the new Shandon Bridge that he announced that as an added incentive to the fine work already done in improving the local environment an additional grant of £5,000 was to be made for further improvements at the Park. It is a desperate state of affairs then that there are in the community some people, with less charity we could call them morons, who would enter such a place of recreation which has won so much admiration for both locals and visitors during the past summer and under cover of darkness create damage to this extent. The Urban Council has re-

'RESIGN CALL TO CILLR. WRIGHT'

ALREADY PAID Cllr. Wright again vehemently expressed himself saying that he still made no apology for what had been done. "I have spelled out where I stood in this issue several times already and I have not changed. We have already paid for this water and I see nothing wrong in what was done," he said. Cllr. M. O'Riordan described Cllr. Wright as a renegade who had tried to bring the Council down by breaking law and order in what was done. "I will not accept that from Cllr. Wright or from any of his bully boys," he said. Cllr. A. Hallahan then said he wished to congratulate the Chairman on his forthright statement on this matter and he agreed with what he had said. This was something which the Council could not tolerate and in all fairness he felt Cllr. Wright should resign from the Council. "If," said Cllr. Hallahan, "he is not going to accept the decisions of the Council as a democratic body then he has no business being part of it. He has disgraced the other members of the Council in what he has done."

CLUB TOURNAMENTS

POWER CUP Our annual 'Power Cup' mixed doubles cup tournament is due to be played on Sunday, December 6. Entry forms are currently being sent out to all club secretaries.
