CONTROVERSY OVER WATER CHARGES CONTINUES

The imposition of special charges including water charges by local authorities as a method of bridging the financial gap between income and expenditure in their annual budgets continues to generate a great deal of controversy up and down the country. In some cases local councils have thrown out the charges while a number of others have adopted their implementation but even in this there is controversy as the amounts charged vary, in some cases pretty widely, from area to area.

The Co. Council here in Waterford and the Urban Council in Dungarvan have been feeling the effects of this controversial method of raising money at their estimates meetings, both of which were held last Monday.

The Co. Council meeting held in the afternoon saw the simmering ill-feelings which have divided the Fianna Fail party for a long time now again surge to the surface. In a dramatic move the Fianna Fail Chairman of the Council and the Party Whip on the Council, Cllr. Patsy Kenneally agreed to a motion proposed by Fianna Fail colleague Cllr. C. O'Riain to allow the meeting to go into recess for ten minutes, "to allow the Fianna Fail members to come together" obviously with the intention of reaching a consensus in accepting the Co. Manager's proposal to increase the water charge.

The proposal came after Deputy Jackie Fahey stuck to his guns by declaring that he would continue to totally oppose water charges while another Fianna Fail Councillor Ollie Wilkinson stated that he would not be prepared to vote for any increase.

When the meeting recessed, the Fianna Fail Councillors trooped out to an adjoining room but as soon as an effort was made to place the Whip on Deputy Fahey in the matter of voting he walked out while Cllr. Wilkinson, we understand did not enter the room at all.

Following the resumption of the meeting there was a further stormy interlude as Cllr. Sean Fahey, son of the Deputy, rose to speak and was told by the Chairman to resume his seat. When Cllr. Fahey (junr.) persisted in his right to address the meeting to express his views, the Chairman brought the order bell a number of times and told Cllr. Fahey to sit down.

Later Deputy Fahey stated that he would defy any attempt by his Party to whip him into accepting these charges and he subsequently disclosed that moves are now on foot to remove the party whip from him altogether on the Council.

At the Urban Council Estimates meeting on Monday night, the question of water charges again created controversy. Here Cllr. Tony Wright reiterated his stand in totally opposing the charges and went so far as to propose that the Council would not entertain such charges "good, bad or indifferent." This proposal was supported by the two Labour Councillors and by independent Cllr. Mary Dixon but it was defeated but only by a single vote.

There can be no doubt but that an urgent reform of Local Government is required particularly in the matter of providing an adequate and proper funding base for local councils. When rates on domestic dwellings were abolished and the Courts declared agricultural rates unconstitutional the entire base from which councils drew their funds was practically if not altogether demolished.

WIDESPREAD POWER FAILURE

Many trees in Dungarvan and its environs have become infected with Dutch Elm Disease and the danger they present when not cut down and removed is a very real and serious one.

Not so very long ago a large tree at Hermitage, Abbeyside which had been struck by the disease collapsed and fell across the roadway. Fortunately no one was passing at the time but some overhead ESB cables were brought down causing a power black-out in the surrounding district.

A much more serious situation occurred during a storm which blew over the area last Monday night when another tree suffering the dutch elm disease, this time at the Burgundy, was brought down by the wind. It was shortly after midnight at the time and when the tree came crashing down it snapped some ESB cables passing under it and caused a power failure which blacked out Abbeyside, Garranbane, Kilgobnet, Kiladangan, Coolnasnear, Clonea and the entire area stretching down as far as Durrrow Bridge.

An ESB repair crew worked on the break until 1 a.m. but conditions became so impossible that work had to be suspended until first light on Tuesday morning.

Power was eventually restored shortly after 8 a.m. but as the stormy night was an ill wind that doesn't blow good for anybody. Because of the power failure throughout the night the storage heating system in the schools in the affected areas was unable to function and due to the very cold conditions that prevailed on Tuesday morning children were sent home when they turned up for school and given a free day!

FOR THE RECORD

A couple of weeks ago we carried a picture in our "Remembering Other Days" series which showed a group of customers at "Elsie's" pub, standing with the proprietress Miss Elsie Power, outside the premises as it then was in Fair Lane (now Wolfe Tone Road). We surmised that the date it was taken was 1964 but that has since been stated to be incorrect.

In a letter from Limerick where he now lives, Tom Tobin formerly of Dungarvan, writes to say that he was delighted to see we honoured Miss Elsie Power (on the eve

Waterford Co. Council

Rate Of £26.51 Struck At Second Attempt

By 14 votes to 9 Waterford Co. Council at their resumed estimates meeting in Dungarvan last Monday adopted a rate of £26.51 for 1988 and also approved increases in existing charges and the introduction of new charges. The latter include an increase of £10 to £95 for domestic water and £1 per collection for refuse with various charges for dumping trade waste and charges varying from £30 to £1,000 for the service of Fire Brigades.

But the decision was not reached without a certain amount of drama which came shortly before the end of the meeting. The sticking point at that stage was the increase of £10 in the domestic water charge. The Fianna Fail party members were split in their attitude to this with Deputy Fahey opposing all the charges, Cllr. Wilkinson opposing the £10 increase specifically while the remainder of the party members were in favour of the increase as submitted by the County Manager.

It was then that Cllr. C O'Riain asked that the Council should go into recess for ten minutes to allow the Fianna Fail Party members to come together on the matter and he assured the Council that if this was done "a rate will be struck to-day."

The proposal was seconded by Cllr. Wilkinson and the meeting went into recess while the Fianna Fail members moved out. Within a short time Cllr. Wilkinson was back in the Council Chamber as was Deputy Fahey and the remainder of the members resumed their seats later when the meeting was again called to order.

Cllr. Wilkinson showed that no agreement had been reached when he at once said that it would be unfair to increase the water charge.

Cllr. O'Riain then said that he was pleased to see that all 23 members of the Council were present at the meeting and he told them that it was their duty to strike a rate and a rate that the Manager could accept and work within. If the Council failed to live up to its responsibility in this regard then they could be rebuked and the Manager would strike the rate. "I'm sorry to have to say about the meeting which our members just held that some failed to honour the party whip on the matter of charges," he then said.

Deputy Fahey replied that he would not change his stand where these charges were concerned. He was always against them and he had an obligation to the people who elected him to oppose them and he would continue to do so. "Any attempt by my elected party to whip me into line would not be worthy of me if I was to give in to these kind of tactics," he said.

Cllr. G. O'Halloran then proposed and Cllr. Wilkinson seconded that the £85 domestic water charge remain as it was with no increase.

Mr. Hurley, Co. Manager, intervened to say that he would not accept this unless it was shown where savings to offset this increase could be made.

CONFUSION

The meeting commenced with the Chairman, Cllr. P. Kenneally stating that they had adjourned on the previous Monday because there appeared to have been confusion among the members as to what they were voting for.

Cllr. W. McDonnell then rose and said that he would not support the increase in water charges unless those who had withheld payment over the past couple of years were made pay up. "I want to see a near 100% payment of these charges," he said, adding, "if people want services they must be prepared to pay for them."

Deputy Jackie Fahey then spoke and left no doubts about his attitude when he declared, "I certainly will not vote for increased charges." He went on to say that no one was talking about increased taxation and the only way to avoid that was by economies and cutbacks and he advocated that the Council take a leaf from such a policy.

Pointing out that a great deal of interest had been shown in the voluntary redundancy offer, he said that it was possible that a lot of the staff might accept the offer and this would not have to be paid for out of Council funds. He added that the difficulty in collecting these charges in the past was because of the enormous charges charged "Some of the charges especially for the Fire Service are so high that they are completely discriminatory," he said.

Cllr. O. Wilkinson referred to the inequality of the water charges pointing out that in Waterford city it was "nil" while the charge in Dungarvan was only a fraction of that charged in the county.

Cllr. B. Kyne said that it was being conveniently forgotten by many of the members that a major slice of the Council's income had gone when agricultural rates had been removed while the present government had rejected the idea of a land tax. "If business people and the PAYE workers have to contribute to the charges when will farmers contribute?" he asked.

Cllr. J. Harty said that the Supreme Court had declared agricultural rates unconstitutional but farmers were now paying a lot more in income tax than they were in rates.

Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager then stressed the fact that they had to deal with a shortfall of £1.9 million on their '88 expenditure. He assured the members that the service charges due would be pursued vigorously through the courts and in any other way that recovery of the amounts due can be obtained. In the last month he had signed some 400 or 500 disconnection notices for domestic and agricultural defaulters. "When these charges are levied they must be collected," said Mr. Hurley.

In regard to the variation in charges he said that different authorities had different rate bases. In Waterford city a 1% variation in the rate realised £31,000 while in the county the amount was £7,500. "For that reason," he added, "we must find other areas to raise money to balance the accounts."

Finally the proposal of Cllr. O'Halloran seconded by Cllr. Wilkinson that the water charge be reduced to £85 was put to the meeting and was declared lost by 17 votes to 6.

Cllr. Swift then proposed and Cllr. Harty seconded that the estimates as varied with the figures in the Book of Estimates be adopted. This provided for a 1% reduction in the rate to £26.51, approval for the service charges as set out and the provision of £10,000 for Waterford Airport, £25,000 for Community Enterprises and £7,000 for Tourism promotion. The proposal was carried by 14 votes to 9.

Urban Rate Agreed At £24.77

After a meeting lasting two hours on last Monday night, Dungarvan Urban Council adopted a rate of £24.77 for 1988 and approved an increase in water charges from £36 to £45 by 5 votes to 4.

In his proposals to the Council on the Estimates, the Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley, said that his budget strategy aimed at containing the rate increase to 5% (at £25) and to increase the water charges to £50 per house with a 10% discount giving a net payment of £45 if the charges are paid before April 1. He also proposed that a minimum of £12.50 be charged where the waiver scheme operated with an assurance that this would be dealt with in a sympathetic manner.

"I have based my strategy," his report stated, "in increasing the charges so as to enable us to maintain our employment of some of the staffs which are at risk if such proposals are not adopted."

Mr. Hurley added that following discussions with the unions concerned, agreement had been reached to enable them to avail of the Social Employment Schemes in the Urban area which will give employment to approximately 24.

The members of the Council then raised queries on different aspects of the estimates over a period of 75 minutes and these were dealt with by the Manager, the Town Clerk, Mr. E. White and the Co. Engineer, Mr. J. O'Flynn. As a result it was agreed that extra publicity be provided at Quanns (for the Youth Club) and at the Burgery and the employment of two traffic wardens. The additional cost involved was stated to be £10,000 which the Manager said would have to be found.

Cllr. A. Hallahan referring to the estimated income of £2,000 from charges to casual traders was informed that this was based on a charge of £2 per day. He then proposed that this charge should be increased.

The Manager agreed that this was a valid point and said that by increasing the charge to £3 per day it would bring in an extra £1,000.

Cllr. M. O'Riordan said that in coming to grips with the estimates an unpalatable position faced them all but they had to be realistic about the situation. He then proposed that the water charges for the coming year be £45 with a reduction of 10% for early payment.

The Manager said that such a reduction would mean the finding of an extra £10,000 to balance the estimates.

NOT NEGOTIABLE

Cllr. T. Wright then declared that as far as the Workers Party was concerned water charges were not negotiable as they were only robbing people in enforcing them. He said that a constitutional case was to be taken in the courts against the charges and he felt sure this would be upheld. "These charges," Cllr. Wright then stated "will never be accepted by us despite the proceure or vice versa."

Cllr. B. Kyne also voiced his opposition stating that he did not know how the Council could deal with expenditure when they didn't know what the money was being spent on. He said that a wall was being built by the Council near Abbeyside Church although no member of the Council had asked to have this done.

Cllr. Mary Dixon also voiced her opposition to the estimates on the basis of the increased water charges.

Cllr. Hallahan then seconded Cllr. O'Riordan's proposal to reduce the water charge from the proposed £50 to £45.

Cllr. Wright proposed an amendment that the Council not entertain the matter of water charges "good, bad or indifferent" and this was seconded by Cllr. P. Power.

On a vote the amendment was defeated by 5 votes (Cllrs. O'Riordan, Hallahan, Goode, Walsh, Ryan and Cllrs. Wright, Power, Kyne and Dixon) and the proposal was declared carried.

A proposal to reduce the rate by an increase of 4 rather than 5 per cent which came from the Manager was opposed by Cllr. Wright who said that it would only benefit the wealthy and Cllr. Dixon.

Finally a proposal by Cllr. O'Riordan seconded by Cllr. Hallahan that a rate of £24.77 (a 1% reduction) be adopted and that a water charge of £45 less 10% for early payment be provided at Quanns and the Burgery and that two traffic wardens be employed (as agreed) and that the total additional cost of £25,000 for these adjustments be left to the Manager to arrange by an adjustment of receipts was passed by 5 votes to 4. Cllrs. O'Riordan, Hallahan, Goode, Walsh and Ryan voting in favour with Cllrs. Wright, Dixon and Kyne and Cllr. Wright, Dixon and Kyne voting against.

DISCONTINUANCE OF SCHOOL WARDEN SERVICE

Following queries raised at the previous meeting concerning the discontinuance of the school warden service at Younghal Road, a letter from Supt. M. English was circulated to the members of the Dungarvan Urban Council at their November monthly meeting held last week.

The letter stated that the Gardal would, insofar as was possible (and this would be on a very limited basis), pay attention to the area at lunch times and at closing times in the evening. At the same time the Superintendent made it clear that the Gardal would not be in a position to give the matter the attention which the Council were seeking.

In regard to the junction at the new Shandon Bridge at Abbeyside, the Superintendent stated that it was felt that the children using it were at this stage familiar with the crossing and no trouble was anticipated.

The Town Clerk, Mr. E. White, pointed out that following the opening of the new by-pass road, the traffic count at the Younghal Road had been reduced and it was now felt that the services of a school warden there would no longer be warranted.

COUNCIL CALL TO REVITALISE DUNGARVAN HARBOUR

At the November Urban Council meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council, Cllr. T. Wright proposed a motion calling on the Council as the local Harbour Authority to request the Manager to initiate discussions with local industries and the unions with the aim of bringing back shipping business to the port.

Moving the motion, Cllr. Wright referred to the great decline in the number of local merchants who now used the harbour for importing and exporting goods. He instanced the times when ships came to the quayside on a regular basis and said that they should encourage a return to this trade in and out of the harbour as apart from anything else it would generate employment.

Cllr. B. Kyne seconded the motion and said that he understood it, the major reason for the fall-off in the shipping was that the firms concerned now found it cheaper and more convenient to bring in their goods by road transport. He agreed that discussions with local firms should be opened to encourage a wider use of the harbour.

The motion was passed unanimously.

SIUCRE EIREANN cpt NOTICE TO SUGAR BEET GROWERS REGARDING SURPLUS BEET TONNAGE

Following a review of the estimated sugar beet tonnage available for the current campaign, it has been decided to accept any surplus tonnage which growers may have in addition to their contracted tonnage and which they may wish to deliver for processing.

SYSTEM OF PAYMENT FOR SURPLUS BEET

In the event of surplus tonnage leading to a national production of sugar in excess of 212,500 tonnes, the payment for the surplus beet involved will not be made until January 1989. It is anticipated that a "B" quota price of approximately £23.00 per tonne - at 16% sugar - will then be made. In order to ensure that a "B" quota price can be paid in January 1989, the Contract Tonnage to be allocated to growers for the 1988 season will be reduced in the first instance in accordance with the amount of surplus Tonnage which growers deliver in this current (1987) campaign.

"ON ACCOUNT" PAYMENT FOR CURRENT CAMPAIGN

It has also been decided that the "On Account" payment of £32.50 per tonne of beet at 16% sugar, which is currently being paid, will be increased to £34.00 per tonne at 16% sugar - for the remainder of the present campaign. Any further balances coming due to growers will be paid at the earliest possible date.

CATTLE NUMBERS FALLING IN EUROPEAN COMMUNITY

BY MICHAEL DILLON

SEASONAL PRODUCTION PATTERN

Eurostat estimates that Irish cattle production will fall by 5.6 per cent in 1988, and that the greatest fall will be during the first half of the year. Numbers slaughtered in that six month period are forecast to be down to 610,000 from 648,000 in 1987, and in the next six months it is expected that they will fall from 1,000,000 to 1,040,000 head. This means that next Autumn the Irish industry will once again be depending on an APS scheme to take off the surplus supplies of beef for which no market has been developed. No other member State has such a seasonal pattern of production, and our sales to intervention and to third countries with Community aid are the greatest in the Community as a percentage of national output of cattle. There will obviously be more opportunities to sell Irish beef within the Community without any kind of financial aid, but this can only be done if the seasonal pattern of production is broken through a big effort by the whole industry. It is significant that while there has been a big increase in the amount of boneless vacuum-packed Irish beef sold to Britain in the past year, this has been matched by an equivalent reduction in sales of bone-in beef. Domestic beef supplies in Britain and other importing countries are reducing but the slice of the resultant increased imports which can be provided by Ireland will be determined by the amount that they supply during the scarce months of winter and spring. Community markets will give higher prices, and more steady employment than any other outlet. At the same time, the writing is on the wall for heavy Community price supports. We seem to be waiting until the day when there is an autumn price collapse and no Community scheme to come to the rescue before we face the reality of market opportunity.

LISMORE C.B.S. PARENTS COUNCIL

After all the excitement of the Nissan Classic, especially as the Tour passed through West Waterford, interest was high in our annual fundraising cycle run this year. Students started at different points on the circuit which was 27 miles long through Lismore, Ballyduff, Tallow, Camphre and Cappoquin.

Stewards from the Parents Council and Staff of the C.B.S. ensured that order was maintained and safety was observed. Noel Hickey acted as a 'pick-up' with his lorry to ensure that breakdowns (both machines and rider) were brought home safely.

The Parents Council would like to thank all who helped in this year's run, especially the sponsors, who generously supported the students in providing much needed funds for the

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

WEEKEND AWAY

Last weekend, November 20-22 33 scouts and 10 adults left the village in an eight car convoy, their destination being Foulksrath Castle, 8 miles the far side of Kilkenny.

We left the den at 7.30 p.m. and arrived all together at the hostel around 9.30 p.m. On arrival the scouts explored the place to see that it was all what was reputed to be; they weren't disappointed.

After everyone were shown their sleeping quarters the warden took us off on a mystery walk. After returning everyone much the more tired, we had supper and went to bed.

The sleeping hour quota was about normal for the first night away on a weekend (i.e. about four hours if you were lucky).

Saturday morning we were awoken by our own 'alarm clock' Paddy Whelan at around 8.15 a.m. After breakfast and clean-up the cars were loaded for mission Kilkenny.

From here we proceeded on to the walking tour which included the town hall, Roche House and The Black Abbey. At the end of the tour the guide gave books away by way of a quiz.

From here we went to the scout den of the 2nd Kilkenny for lunch where we were looked after very well.

Best of the winners were John Power, Ray Flynn, Tom Phelan, John Shanahan and Peter Queally and best for St. Michael's, Sean Walsh, Pat Kelly and Joe O'Sullivan.

Referee — Donie Casey.

In the evening the patrols were given tasks to do around the city as well as doing the shopping for the rest of the weekend while the parents did some early Christmas shopping.

We then returned to the hostel when all the patrols cooked excellent dinners. After the clean-up everyone convened at the common room when we had a trivia pursuit challenge with Maurice Pennell as quizmaster.

A short campfire challenge between the scouts and adults was then held when the scouts with Brendan Flynn, Cian O'Donovan and Aidan Wall in full voice had a close run with the adults when Geoff Shepherd, Danny O'Mahoney, Joe and Brian were the main backbone.

After supper everyone went to bed feeling pretty knackered. Sunday morning we awoke at 9 a.m. when after breakfast we went to Mass at the local church. On return we had several patrol activities organised by the PLs which included legcup relays, quiz bases and facts and figures bases. There was also a treasure base which was won by Gerard Mullin and his Wolfhounds.

After a major clean-up we said our last goodbyes to the warden who had been very helpful throughout our stay. We then left for Kilkenny swimming pool where everyone had a dip before they returned to their mummies. After the swim we filled our tanks with 'grub' before heading for home.

A very enjoyable weekend was had by all.

Preparations for Camp—During the troop meeting on Wednesday night the Scoutmaster gave a talk on the importance of First Aid on camp.

The meeting last week started as usual and the patrols then returned to their patrol corners for patrol time. We then set about enquiring of each patrol what tests needed to be examined for the investiture coming up.

While the PLs were upstairs doing their training course the rest of us played some games under Tom's guidance. We finished up with a talk on the Link Weekend when it was ascertained which parents would be able to help with the transport.

The famous cart races took place on Sunday, November 15 and provided great excitement for all. There were eight races in all and the best patrol on the day turned out to be the Wolfhound Patrol.

The meeting started at 6.30 p.m. Martin collected the subs

Good Win For Waterford Footballers

Waterford footballers showed a return to form at a bleak and windswept Fraher Field, Dungarvan on Sunday last when they scored a good four points win over a fancied Limerick side in their Div. 3 South National Football League game.

There was only a handful of spectators present for the game which was played in very blustery conditions. It was a tribute to both sides that they managed to engender some excitement and keep interest alive to the finish.

Waterford played with the aid of the strong breeze in the first half but some poor play by the forwards negated any advantage gleaned particularly in the first eighteen minutes during which the sides were level twice.

A good point from Pat Curran in the 19th minute gave Waterford a lead they subsequently never lost but their 0-6 to 0-2 lead at the break looked rather precarious.

The home side played better however against the breeze and despite some strong Limerick pressure managed to keep their heads in front.

Donal Fitzgibbon's point in the 48th minute left Waterford with just a goal lead — 0-9 to 0-6 — and for the ensuing seven minutes the game hung in the balance as both sides missed chances.

Waterford, however, were the bigger culprits as far as chance wasting was concerned in this period and some good moves which should have yielded scores broke down through bad play up front.

Five minutes from time however Michael McGrath stormed through from midfield to clinch Waterford's insurance point and a minute later Jim Maher pointed a free to make the issue safe.

The final score of the game came just before the end for Limerick when Tom Browne converted a free but Waterford were well in control at this stage and finished very deserving winners in the end.

Although Limerick drove some wides over the hour they were given little scope by a strong Waterford defence in which keeper Kieran Heffernan, Pat Quinn, David Kirwan, Eddie Rockett and man of the match Dan Casey all starred.

Waterford blew hot and cold at midfield where Liam O'Connor, obviously tired following a glut of matches, was at times brilliant and at other times well below his best.

McGrath was prominent also in patches in the area but up front only Pat Curran, Jimmy Healy and Jim McGrath played up to scratch.

Limerick's best were Paddy Ivens, Tom Browne, Francis Brosnahan, Donal Fitzgibbon and Timmie Cummins. Scorers: Waterford — J. Maher and E. O'Brien 0-3 each; L. O'Connor 0-2; P. Curran, P. White and M. McGrath 0-1 each; Limerick — A. Moran and T. Cummins 0-2 each; T. Browne, D. Fitzgibbon and F. Ryan 0-1 each.

Waterford — K. Heffernan; D. Kirwan, P. Quinn, F. O'Brien; E. Rockett, T. Leonard, D. Casey; L. O'Connor, M. McGrath; J. Healy, P. Curran, E. O'Brien; J. McGrath, P. White, J. Maher.

EASY WIN FOR NEMO RANGERS

Nemo Rangers scored a well deserved eight points win over Stradbally in the Munster club football championship game played at Stradbally on Saturday last.

Although the difference in standards was quite apparent when the Cork champions turned on the power, Stradbally were in no way overawed and contributed much to a highly entertaining game which featured fast, open football and some very fine passing movements.

Nemo were quick off the mark in the first half and had raced into an 0-5 to nil lead by the 22nd minute.

Stradbally missed some chances also during this period but eventually found the range and points from Eoin O'Brien and Noel Weldon led the Cork champions 0-5 to 0-2 ahead at the break.

Nemo turned on the style in earnest on the change over and some brilliant moves culminated in some fine scores. A succession of points put the game well beyond Stradbally's reach and Michael Dorgan scored their goal eight minutes from time.

Stradbally put in a fighting finish however and James Keane's listed goal was followed by points from Liam O'Brien and Noel Weldon to put a respectable look on the scoreboard at the finish.

Scorers: Nemo Rangers — M. Dorgan 1-2, T. Nation 0-3; D. Allen 0-2; C. Murphy 0-2; T. Dalton 0-2; S. O'Brien, E. Fitzgerald and S. Fahy 0-1 each; Stradbally — J. Keane 1-0; N. Weldon 0-3; E. O'Brien 0-2; L. O'Brien 0-1.

EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT BRIEFS

CO-RESPONSIBILITY IN THE DAIRY SECTOR

The European Parliament debated in October a report of the budgetary control committee on the use of the milk co-responsibility levy to finance new markets and products.

Speaking in the debate, Mr. Tom Raftery (EPP, Munster), said that the funds produced by the levy should be used for this purpose, or the levy dropped. Only 11% of the funds collected from the levy between 1977 and 1985 had been used for new measures, and the rest had been used to finance measures which should have been covered by the budget.

Advertising would increase sales, as had recently been proved in California and Canada. A good promotional campaign for milk and milk products would in the end relieve the pressure on the Community budget.

Mr. T. J. Maher (Independent, Munster), said the use of the money was intolerable. The Commission had no idea how to cope with the decline in the consumption of dairy products. If a product was difficult to sell that was the time to promote it, just like soap powder. Belgian multinationals spent twice as much advertising margarine as the dairy industry spent on butter, and the ratio was 1 to 1 in France, 7 to 1 in Germany and 13 to 1 in Italy.

While the PLs were upstairs doing their training course the rest of us played some games under Tom's guidance. We finished up with a talk on the Link Weekend when it was ascertained which parents would be able to help with the transport.

Preparations for Camp—During the troop meeting on Wednesday night the Scoutmaster gave a talk on the importance of First Aid on camp.

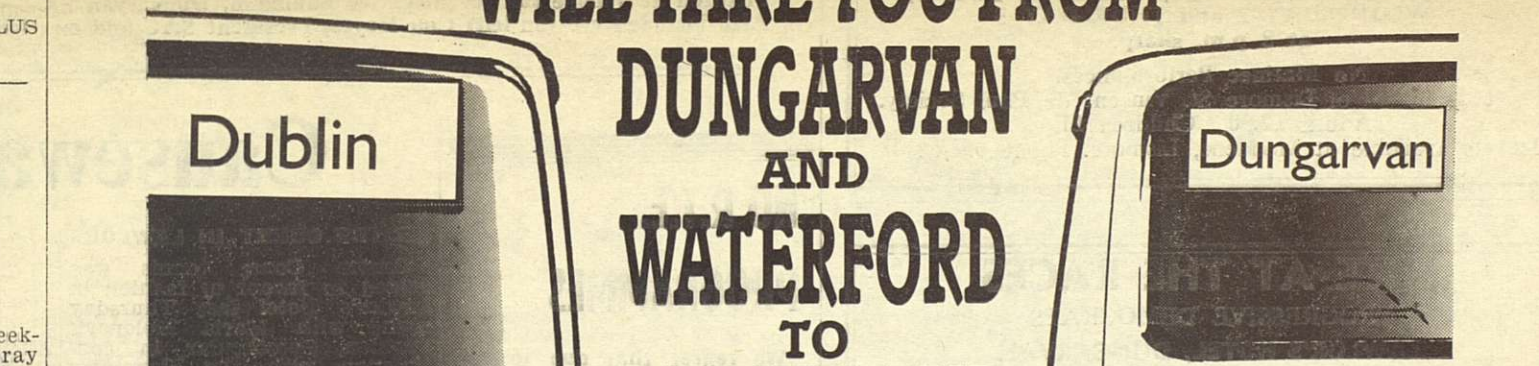

The meeting last week started as usual and the patrols then returned to their patrol corners for patrol time. We then set about enquiring of each patrol what tests needed to be examined for the investiture coming up.

NO R.T.E. PROGRAMMES

We regret that due to late delivery of copy, we are unable to publish the RTE television programmes this week. This is due to circumstances completely beyond our control.

CENTRE COURT IN LAWLORS

Centre Court tennis was ousted in favour of fashion in Lawlor's Hotel last Thursday night with Maria Moloney's Fashion Spectacular in conjunction with the Causeway Tennis Club. Co-ordinated by John McGrath of the Trustee Savings Bank and compered by Catherine Treacy from Dublin and Paul Scanlon of RTE, all tickets holders were treated to a kaleidoscope of colourful apparel carried on the backs of the four professional Dublin Models. But stealing the show were two models newer to the cat walk - Mrs. Moloney (Granny) and Caroline Keane. Well done ladies.

"CHAIRS" LADS!

A word of thanks to all who gave their help so willingly and made the night such a pleasant and successful occasion. A particular mention for the Mercy Convent who provided the chairs which were willingly loaded by some of our body-building juniors. Francis and Philip Walsh, Neil Carthy, Gareth Higgins, Stephen Morrissey, Eoin O'Riordan, Luke Brennan and Alan Dalton. "Wizarded" by the lorry kindly provided by Michael Moloney, to Lawlors Hotel, they were of great support to the ladies during the fashion event.

CAUSEWAY CALIGRAPHY

We now have a list of present members in full view on our notice-board in the Clubhouse. For this, we must thank Cathy O'Mahony who put pen to paper in the most diligent way to bring this about.

ATTENTION JUNIORS

You are invited to attend a meeting next Saturday, Nov 28th at 2.30 p.m. in the Causeway. Mission - to discuss junior tennis 'warts and all' with your president, and committee. So have your homework done - in every sense of the word! Our ambition this year is for everybody to get the maximum from our tennis club. Investment of time and enthusiasm will reap better results for everybody.

A DOUBLE FOR DUNGARVAN

Congratulations to Mrs. Ruth Byrne of St. Laurence's Tennis Club, Ballinroad, who joins break and offer him/her the money requested.

FESTIVITY

The date for the Christmas Party to be held in Minnies for the combined membership of the Causeway and St. Laurence's is Thursday, December 17 at 8 p.m.

DECAPITATION

As a result of the horrific display of vandalism which left no less than 15 young trees mutilated by being split at the trunk, the gardai have decided to patrol the Causeway area on a regular basis in order to prevent such a depressing vista being witnessed again. -P.R.O.

DEFEAT FOR HOME TEAM BY WATERPARK SENIORS

On Sunday last, in a friendly at Ballyrandle our 1st team were defeated by a Waterpark senior side who were missing only three of their regulars.

In very cold windy and sometimes wet conditions, Dungarvan did well in the first half and were unlucky not to score. Waterpark scored two good tries during this period and the Dungarvan pack played very well and gained a further score. The backs also defended well and Michael O'Connor was unlucky not to score during this period.

In the second half, Waterpark proved the stronger team and scored a further 3 tries to run out easy winners.

CASEY CUP DEFEAT FOR 2nd FIFTEEN

The 2nd fifteen were beaten at home on Sunday by a very strong Waterford Glass team. In very difficult conditions the heavier Glass pack were dominant and despite Dungarvan's best efforts the visitors ran out easy winners in the end.

The team was D. Salmon, M. O'Donovan, P. McGrath, B. Lineen, J. Clarke, P. Queally, Con O'Riordan, J. Curran, P. Foley, K. Clarke, N. Parks, J.

O'Brien, P. Mullaney, D. Coughlan, E. Nugent.

FIXTURES

On Sunday next our 1st team have a home league fixture with Skibbereen, kick-off 2.30. This is a game Dungarvan will be anxious to win as in previous fixtures over the past few years Skibbereen have emerged victorious and on home ground Dungarvan may have the incentive to avenge these defeats.

The 2nd team have a friendly fixture away to Highfield with a 2.30 kick-off.

DRESS DANCE TICKETS

A reminder to let people know that demand for tickets is brisk and people are asked to book early and avoid disappointment. Contact Brendan Mullen or Brian Lineen.

G.A.A. Notes

Waterford Will Give Tipperary A Great Game

WATERFORD v. TIPPERARY N.H.L.

This vital game in the league takes place at Thurles on Sunday next. It will be our final hurling league game before Christmas and it goes without saying that our supporters will be hopeful of getting a point or two that may keep us around the top of the league table before the break. This is the stage where the going gets tougher and the fight to remain in contention gets harder more especially now that we have set off the alarm bells by winning our first three rounds in the league.

Playing Tipperary on their favourite sod, will certainly be our toughest assignment to date. They are the reigning Munster champions who went under to the All-Ireland champions Galway in the semi-final. They met in the league at Semple Stadium, Thurles when Tipperary drew with the champions at 0-7 each. Galway are the All-Ireland and league champions and holding them to form with players of top class reputations like Nicholas English, Pat Fox, Conor Stakelum, P. O'Neill, Richard Stakelum, Seamus Gibson, Colum Bonner, Pat Fitzelle, etc. they have a more matured and more experienced side and will be hot favourites to add to their five league points. Unlike Waterford they can better cope with the present heavy going, so the conditions are likely to play a part in deciding the issue.

Despite losing, Waterford played very well against Wexford and a video showing of the game highlights the few mistakes that made the difference between the sides on the day. I am certain that we will give them a great game of it if we can cope with their cut-and-thrust style and not allow them the same liberties as we did Wexford. We were far less experienced in the big-time hurling when the counties met in the league in the early part of this year at Walsh Park and we are a better side now, so despite their championship display and their much publicised hurling standards, I believe that we are not without a chance. A draw would win us the points to keep us safe and two points would put us into the knock-out stages of the league. So Waterford have everything to play for on Sunday and supporters will, no doubt, be hoping for one or the other.

TEAM

The selected side, shows one change from the line-out against Wexford with Mick Neville coming in for Pat Bennett. There is one switch in attack also with Michael Walsh moving in to the corner forward berth.

Pat Curran; Peter Walsh, Damien Byrne, Daithi Foran; Jimmy Beresford, Liam O'Connor, Timmy Sheehan;

Shane Ahearne, Noel Crowley; Kieran Delahunty, John McDonald, Michael Neville;

Michael Walsh, John Quirke, Billy Sullivan. Subs. — R. Sheridan, P. Bennett, J. Ryan, B. Power, G. Fitzpatrick, J. Dunford, G. O'Brien, D. Casey.

UNDER 21 FOOTBALL FINAL

Ardmore is the venue for this attractive divisional final that will spell the finish to the Western playing activities of 1987, when county champions, the Nire play Dungarvan who will be bidding for the hurling and football double. The reigning champions received a walk-over from Lismore/Ballysaggart and then held the Gaeltacht group team scoreless in the semi-final. They have not been given a test, so far, so it is difficult to judge them. The fact that they took the game to Ardmore, indicates that they mean business and must be pretty confident that they can retain the title.

Dungarvan had a more difficult path, having to beat Drum Rovers and Stradbally (who had previously beaten Kilsrossanty). Their game against Stradbally was the best of the championship so far and it showed Dungarvan to be a good side who may be capable of beating the champions. Dungarvan were the title holders in 1985.

RELEGATION REPLAY

The drawn game between the Brickeys and Rathgormac didn't arouse any great excitement among the neutrals, so I am hoping there will be a large following of supporters for their replay at Stradbally at 2.30 p.m. on Saturday. There was nothing between them when they met three weeks ago and the winning margin here, for one or the other, was very small. Both clubs had so many near-misses in the championship that it is a pity that either team should have to go down.

FOOTBALLERS GREAT WIN

This was a splendid display and a great win by our footballers who surprisingly beat Limerick at Fraher Field on Sunday. The visitors, who had twice beaten us in the past eight months and came here as favourites and for a while at the beginning it seemed as if they would justify this favouritism, until Waterford settled down and began to take a grip on the game. In the second half, when facing the very strong breeze, Waterford hit their best form and played very well and when they went five points up they never really looked like being caught, although Limerick (who are the holders of the McGrath Cup) never let up.

This showed a happy reversal of the poor form shown previously when three or four of their regular players were missing and it is sure to inspire confidence in the team for their meeting with Wicklow at Dungarvan on Sunday week. In preparation for this game, a challenge against Wexford will be played on Sunday next.

BALLYMAC'S GREAT WIN

Congratulations to the Waterford Ladies Football team on winning their second All-Ireland title in two years. On Sunday last the Ballymacarby team scored a decisive win against Mullaghmore. A big crowd travelled from the area in support and were well rewarded when seeing their side win so convincingly and the jubilation which followed the final whistle compared well with what was witnessed after they had beaten Wexford in last year's final at Croke Park.

SYMPATHY

We extend our sincere sympathy to the Casey family of Knocknamalee, Colligan on the death which occurred during the week of Roddy Casey, who was a life long supporter of the Colgan Emmets club. The late Mr. Casey was father of well known referee Rodger Casey who has handled matches for the different Boards in the county during the past five or six years. May he rest in peace.

DUNGARVAN CLUB ACHIEVEMENTS

When Dungarvan club won the under 21 hurling county title a couple of weeks ago and became the first club in the county to achieve the "grand-slam", I promised to list their record of honour in all grades. Perhaps I should have waited until after December 13th as that is the date now set for the under 21 football county final and as you read, the result might be significant to this particular feature because victory for the Blues in this one would mean that they had achieved the double in all grades from minor upwards. Their seniors won the hurling and football double in 1908, their juniors emulated this feat in 1919 and their splendid minor teams achieved the double in both codes in 1983 and '84. So should they win the under 21 football championship this year and complete a double in four different grades they will possibly establish a record which has not been achieved in any county. But, having won a total of 32 adult County titles since they took their first in 1890, they very likely hold the national record anyway.

Comparing the records of Waterford championship winners (as listed from time to time in our own publications) with those in the national library I found a small difference. This is explained by the fact that on two or three occasions when championships were not played, the reigning champions, were credited with the County title. The following list deals with the years that the championships were played and won.

DUNGARVAN'S RECORD

Senior Football — They won their first in 1890 and the others in the following seasons—1893, '94, '96, '97, '98, 1908, 1916, 1926, 1927, 1928, 1929, 1930, 1937, 1938, 1945, 1946, 1947, 1948 and 1954 (20 titles).

Minor Hurling — 1908, 1917, 1920, 1921, 1923, 1926 and 1941 (seven titles).

Junior Football — 1914 and 1919.

Junior Hurling — 1919, 1927, 1934 and 1975.

Intermediate Football — 1985.

Intermediate Hurling — 1986.

Minor Football — 1928, 1932, 1933, 1961, 1983 and 1984.

Minor Hurling — 1929, 1931, 1940 to 1944, 1951, 1966, 1983 and 1984 (11 titles).

Under 21 Football — 1985.

Under 21 Hurling — 1987.

Sarsfields — For the first six or seven years of the minor football championship, Dungarvan and St. Stephen's (De La Salle) had things more or less to themselves and the contests between them in county finals was something of an ongoing saga. In fact between 1928 and 1933, Dungarvan and St. Stephen's were the only two in all six minor county football titles. De La Salle and Dungarvan themselves each won three titles. Dungarvan were beaten in three and De La Salle lost two. De La Salle won a further five county titles in the years 1938 to 1943 and Dungarvan were the losers in three of these finals.

Understandably the rivalry between the clubs intensified as the years went by and in 1946 when the Dungarvan School team, organised by Rev. Bro. Murray, C.B.S., won out in West and were again pitted against St. Stephen's. There was an excited speculation about the outcome of the final. This unfortunately ended in a draw, at one point each. I say unfortunately, because it was 'save the harvest year' and cancellation of games because of the atrocious weather conditions was the order of the day. The game was re-fixed for January 6th, 1947, but had to be cancelled because of flooding. It was re-fixed for the following Sunday and played at Mrs. Shanahan's field in Scrahan, Kilmactomas with 'Plus' Dalton as referee.

The Western Convention again it went within a hairs-breadth of being a draw until Ned Phelan kicked over a point—a score which made him top scorer in the final because the final result was Sarsfields 0-1; St. Stephen's 0-0. Sarsfields won the title again in 1948 before they faded into oblivion.

I was present at both these games and as far as I know, Tom Cunningham who played, is the only member of that team who is still involved with the club.

As well as the above, Dungarvan have won all the underage titles and have enjoyed great success in adult and juvenile Scor and they have contributed enormously to our county teams at all levels and in both codes down through the years as well as giving great administrators, etc. They certainly are a club with a very interesting story to tell. We congratulate them on their record and on having achieved their "grand-slam".

COUNTY FINAL DATES

Sunday, December 13th is the date set for the junior football final between Kilgobinet and Clonea at Fraher Field, Dungarvan. It will be preceded by the under 21 football final involving Clann na Gael and the Nire or Dungarvan. This will complete the club championships for 1987.

COUNTY BOARD MEETING

The December and final meeting of the County Board will take place at Portlaur on Tuesday, December 15th. When the Notice for this meeting is being sent out next week the correspondence will include, the nomination and motion papers for county convention which is also scheduled for Portlaur on this last Sunday in January.

The Western Convention which normally takes place on the second Thursday in January will be held at Bohadon, Kilgobinet this year. Both clubs hosting the conventions are celebrating their centenary.

COACHING NEWS

At a recent meeting in Dungarvan the following were elected to the new county coaching council:—

Jim Greene (Mt. Slon), Chairman; Rev. P. Fitzgerald (Hurling Officer); Rev. Bro. Dorner (Lismore C.B.S.); Sean Prendergast (Lismore); Maurice Geary (Ballyduff); Billy Sheehan (Tallow); Ned Power (Tallow); John Moore (Dungarvan); Liam Farley (Tramore); J. MacSweeney (De La Salle); Eugene MacKenna (Waterford Regional College); Michael Ryan (Fourmiletwater Nire).

The new council is responsible for coaching in the county.

A hurling coaching course is planned for two centres in Waterford one in the eastern part of the county and the other in the west. It is hoped to have these courses organised for the month of February next with the full backing of the Munster Council for same.

The new council will be holding a meeting on Tuesday, December 1st to get their plan in order.

FOOTBALL COACHING

As well as the hurling coaching course being organised by the new appointed committee, for the month of February '88, football coaching is also expected for the same time. Eoin Lis-

DUNGARVAN GAA NOTES

ALL SET FOR UNDER 21 FINAL

With the under 21 hurling titles, divisional and county—already in fine wraps, our footballers set out in quest of what would be a fabulous under 21 double when they play the defending champions the Nire in the Western final in Ardmore on Sunday (2.30).

With the vast majority of last year's championship winning team available to them, including half their senior side which reached this year's county final, the Nire will start red hot favourites to retain their crown.

We are not unmindful of the huge task which confronts us, but will be determined to do the club proud in this final.

The good news is that all our injured players have made significant improvement and should be very close to full fitness. The training in recent weeks has gone very well and the mood in the camp could scarcely be better.

There's a score to settle with our Nire friends who defeated us on their way to the county title in this grade last year. It won't be an easy one to settle, but despite being the rank outsiders we are quietly confident of upsetting the odds.

What better way of ending 1987 than by lifting this particular title which was ours two years ago. Let's give it a right go—we can do it.

Incidentally with a 2.30 start we leave for the Ardmore venue at 1.30 and hoping for a big turnout of supporters.

IMPORTANT MATTERS

Already the main club officers are preparing for the annual general meeting next month, and the busiest of them right now is probably treasurer Noel Sheehan. The good news is that he will be reporting the club to be in good financial shape for the first time in several years, but the level of expenditure during 1987 will also be a real eye opener. More anon however.

The club executive also has one or two vitally important meetings to convene between now and AGM time with some truly major decisions to be taken.

BEREAVEMENTS

Sincere sympathy is extended from everyone in our club to the Lawn family on the death last week-end of their son in Grattan Square of Very Rev. Nicholas Lawn, P.P. He was one of the victorious C.B.S. hurling team that won the Dr. Hackett Cup in the 1930's.

Also to the Casey family of Colligan on the death of Roger Casey, a great home in the club and whose son Roger is both a playing member of the Colligan club as well as a referee.

May they both rest in peace.

CLANCY CUP SEMI-FINAL

Geraldines 1-6; Ring 2-3. Replay: Geraldines 2-6; Ring 1-6

For the last two Sundays we have travelled over to Ring to play the homesters in the semi-final of the Clancy Cup. We were missing a lot of players on the first Sunday but held on for a well deserved draw.

On Sunday last in the replay our team played some great football. Playing with the strong wind in the first half we led at half-time by 1-6 to 0-2. We were hard pressed in the second half but we held out for a great win.

Line-out was — Liam O'Donnell, Mick O'Connell, Johnny O'Brien (capt.), John Longan, Conor O'Riordan, Seamus Meskill, Billy O'Connell, Pádraig Kiely, Daithí O'Brien; Joe Salmon, Pat O'Brien, Michael Broderick, Brian Connery, Paddy Corkey, Brendan O'Grady, Subs. — Richard Hurley, John O'Brien.

On Sunday week in Tramore, the county senior men women, junior men and juvenile "B" championships are on in the Tramore Falite Grounds at 1 p.m.

BIG JUMP IN 1986 ROAD ACCIDENT FIGURES

In 1986 the number of persons killed and injured on the roads in Ireland was 2,716, which was the highest number since 1981 when the figure was 8,855. The number of persons killed in road accidents was 387 which was a decrease of 23 on the figure for 1985, Ireland was one of the few European countries showing a decrease in road deaths in 1986 which was European Road Safety Year. However, since a large proportion of injury accidents lead to lifetime disablement, the increase in these accidents in 1986 is a considerable cause for concern and points to the need for a greater effort to halt this rising trend.

A welcome feature of the accident totals for 1986 was the increase in the number of reported accidents between the hours of 9 p.m. and 3 a.m., when there were 104 fatal accidents compared with 129 in 1985. The proportion of fatal and injury accidents between these hours was 23 per cent, which was lower than in previous years. This may reflect the more general acceptance of the drink-driving laws and the greater emphasis on enforcement and safety campaigns in this area in recent years, as well as the general level of recession in the country, with less money being available for discretionary spending.

PEDAL AND MOTOR CYCLES

A striking feature of the road accident statistics for 1986 was the continued increase in pedal cycle casualties. Here the total number of persons killed and injured was 798, the highest recorded for many years. However, the number of those killed in this category was 32, which is the lowest number since 1946. Thus, the trend in this category appears to be that of accidents of less severity, with a higher proportion of the casualties in the 13 to 24 age group, reflecting a greater use of cycles by those in this age category. In just under a quarter of the fatal accidents involving pedal-cyclists and another vehicle, the other vehicle was a goods vehicle.

There were 50 motor cyclists killed and 846 injured in 1986, with the reported injury figures showing an increase of 16. This shows the continuing poor record of motor cycle accidents in Ireland, which was also mentioned in last year's report. The total number of motor cycle accidents shows no sign of declining and is clearly an area in which more effective accident countermeasures are required.

There was a reduction in the number of pedestrians killed on the roads in 1986. The greatest decrease was in the number of children killed.

As far as accident location is concerned, thirty per cent of all reported accidents were from Dublin city and county, with fourteen per cent from Cork. This total of forty-four per cent shows the importance of obtaining lower accident rates by a greater concentration of accident countermeasure activities in Dublin and Cork.

BAD RECORD

Taking overall accident figures, thirty per cent of accidents occurred on the national routes. In particular, the Cork/Rossiree road has a bad record for pedal cycle accidents. This road has been a tourist cycle traffic on this road. It is of interest to note that an examination of the figures shows that Munster has a much higher rate of motor cycle accidents compared with the rest of the country, including Dublin.

As previous years it was evident in 1986 that towns with a national route passing through them had a high accident rate, such as for example, Carrickmacross, Fermoy, Midleton, Kells and Dundalk. However, there has been a decrease in the fatal accident figures for Dundalk, with 60 fatal accidents being reported in the twelve years to 1979, and a decrease to 17 for the seven years to 1986.

The overall impression of accident levels in 1986 was of a considerable increase in injury accidents from 5,141 to 5,421 and a decrease in fatal accidents from 377 to 355. The figures are consistent with the increasing effectiveness of measures aimed at lowering accident severity such as safety belt legislation, the drink-driving laws and the campaigns aimed at ensuring the greater visibility of cyclists and pedestrians at night.

Using methods that are accepted internationally it is possible to make an estimate of the cost of road accidents to the nation in 1986. Taking into account the lost output due to fatalities and injuries, the total for all accidents comes to the figure of 220 million pounds.

DUNGARVAN GAA NOTES

ALL SET FOR UNDER 21 FINAL

With the under 21 hurling titles, divisional and county—already in fine wraps, our footballers set out in quest of what would be a fabulous under 21 double when they play the defending champions the Nire in the Western final in Ardmore on Sunday (2.30).

With the vast majority of last year's championship winning team available to them, including half their senior side which reached this year's county final, the Nire will start red hot favourites to retain their crown.

We are not unmindful of the huge task which confronts us, but will be determined to do the club proud in this final.

The good news is that all our injured players have made significant improvement and should be very close to full fitness. The training in recent weeks has gone very well and the mood in the camp could scarcely be better.

There's a score to settle with our Nire friends who defeated us on their way to the county title in this grade last year. It won't be an easy one to settle, but despite being the rank outsiders we are quietly confident of upsetting the odds.

What better way of ending 1987 than by lifting this particular title which was ours two years ago. Let's give it a right go—we can do it.

Incidentally with a 2.30 start we leave for the Ardmore venue at 1.30 and hoping for a big turnout of supporters.

IMPORTANT MATTERS

Already the main club officers are preparing for the annual general meeting next month, and the busiest of them right now is probably treasurer Noel Sheehan. The good news is that he will be reporting the club to be in good financial shape for the first time in several years, but the level of expenditure during 1987 will also be a real eye opener. More anon however.

The club executive also has one or two vitally important meetings to convene between now and AGM time with some truly major decisions to be taken.

BEREAVEMENTS

Sincere sympathy is extended from everyone in our club to the Lawn family on the death last week-end of their son in Grattan Square of Very Rev. Nicholas Lawn, P.P. He was one of the victorious C.B.S. hurling team that won the Dr. Hackett Cup in the 1930's.

Also to the Casey family of Colligan on the death of Roger Casey, a great home in the club and whose son Roger is both a playing member of the Colligan club as well as a referee.

May they both rest in peace.

CLASHMORE R/A Monday, 30

Council Approves Disc Parking For Dungarvan

Following discussions at recent meetings of Dungarvan Urban Council on recommendations submitted by the County Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley that disc parking should be introduced for parking on the principal streets and that parking in the town's two car parks be free, the matter was further discussed at the November monthly meeting of the Council held last week.

Options discussed at the previous meeting were (a) Disc parking on streets, car parks free; (b) Pay parking Davitt's Quay (car park) remainder as at present; (c) Pay parking in car parks and streets with employment for workers where these were to provide parking and also for residents and for traders; (d) Disc parking on streets, car park free and yearly discs for residents.

In a report on the cost implications of these options submitted by Mr. Denis McCarthy, Town Engineer to last week's meeting it was stated that option (a) was the Co. Manager's proposal with the others submitted by members of the Council. At a charge of 10p per hour, the annual revenue based on 50% utilisation was estimated at £25,000 on option (a); on option (b) the annual revenue for a 10p per hour charge on 60% utilisation was estimated at £19,000; on option (c) the report said that the exemptions would result in a 50% reduction in the number of parking spaces available in the Town Centre, which would be an undesirable situation for shoppers and the estimated annual income from this would be £35,000; on option (d) the estimated annual revenue was £12,500 on the basis of yearly discs at £30 but it was added that as each premises in the town had a potential as a residence, this option could, in theory, result in all parking spaces being utilised by residents.

VERY FLEXIBLE

Opening discussion on the proposals at last week's meeting, the Co. Manager, Mr. Hurley said that he had recommended option (a) as the best way to handle the problem. It would be a very flexible scheme and would generate much needed funds for the Council.

Cllr. Austin Hallahan said that he would not like to see disc parking in the streets introduced to Dungarvan mainly because other towns of similar size in the vicinity, particularly Clonmel and Youghal were not operating such a scheme and these were towns which were competing with Dungarvan for business.

"I think," said Cllr. Hallahan, "that it would be very unfair to introduce such a scheme to Dungarvan in the absence of a national agreement that all towns of the size of Dungarvan in the country should do so. It would be very detrimental to the business of the town."

Cllr. Hallahan went on to say that in his opinion Dungarvan with the population it had would not be big enough to warrant a disc parking system. He said that people who might only want to park for periods of no more than 10 minutes on a few occasions each day could get fed up if they had to punch a disc each time and they could well go off to a place where no discs were necessary.

The Co. Manager said that disc parking was in operation in a number of towns in the country and in his opinion it was a painless and attractive source of revenue. Referring to short time parkers, the Manager said that in order to solve such a problem it could be arranged that the first half hour of parking would be free.

TRIAL BASIS

Cllr. Nuala Ryan then proposed that the Manager's recommendation be approved on a trial basis stating that she thought it would be a good way to raise money. Cllr. Mary Dixon seconded.

Cllr. Paddy Power said that he would be totally opposed to this proposal as in his opinion the town was not big enough. He added that in allowing free parking in the two car parks, the Council would be diverting shoppers to that end of the town and this would not be fair to the business concerns at the other end.

Cllr. D. Goode, Chairman, thought that of all the options, the Manager's recommendation was the best one.

Cllr. T. Wright said he was supporting option (c).

Cllr. Hallahan proposed and Cllr. Power then seconded an amendment that the Manager's recommendation be rejected.

On a vote the amendment (supported by Cllrs. Power, Hallahan and Kyme) was defeated by 4 (Cllrs. Ryan, Dixon, O'Riordan and Goode) to 3 and Cllr. Ryan's proposal was then declared carried on a similar vote.

Cllr. Wright received no second for his option and did not vote on the other issues.

LISMORE C. OF I.

NATIONAL SCHOOL

In the Dail on November 5, Mr. Austin Deasy, T.D. asked the Minister for Education when new classrooms will be provided at the Church of Ireland national school, Lismore, and the plans, if any, she has to have repairs carried out in the interim.

The Minister for Education (Mary O'Rourke, T.D.) in reply stated:

In relation to the first part of the Deputy's question, I would refer him to the reply which I gave on 20 October, 1987 to a similar question in relation to the new classroom for the Church of Ireland national school, Lismore, County, Waterford.

My Department will be prepared to consider any reasonable request from the school authorities for financial assistance towards the cost of essential improvements to the existing school buildings.

OFFICIAL BUS STOP FOR ABBEYSIDE

When Cllr. Nuala Ryan raised the matter of the necessity of having an official bus stop at Abbeyside at the October monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council, the Town Clerk, Mr. B. White, stated that he would contact CIE requesting that a Bus Stop be positioned there. Cllr. Ryan suggested that such a stop might be located at the Causeway.

On November 9 he wrote to CIE Waterford, concerning the request and the following reply was received under date November 12 from Mr. F. King, District Manager, Bus Eireann, Plunkett Station, Waterford:

"It is felt that the most central area of such a stop would be in the vicinity of Croitrys Corner and I am arranging to have all our Express services including our proposed new Dungarvan/Dublin Express stop to set down and pick up at this point.

"In your letter you requested that the stop should be positioned in the vicinity of the Causeway of Abbeyside and perhaps in the light of the foregoing you would arrange to have the matter re-examined and advise me which point would be the most suitable for the majority of the residents of Abbeyside.

"On hearing from you I will arrange to have a bus stop sign placed in position."

When the matter was further discussed at the November monthly meeting of the Council last week, the Town Clerk stated that they had been in further contact with Mr. King and a compromise had been reached by agreement to locate the Bus Stop at the new houses in Sexton Street, Abbeyside, opposite the Texaco Service Station.

GOLD COAST (BALLINACOURTY) BOARDSAILING CLUB NOTES

HEINEKEN/MURPHY'S BREWERY SPONSOR TEAM RACING

The Gold Coast Board Sailing Club were happy to host the visiting NIHE students and lecturers recently. Through the co-operation of the Gold Coast Holiday Homes, Murphy's Brewery graciously sponsored the racing, which turned out to be most enjoyable.

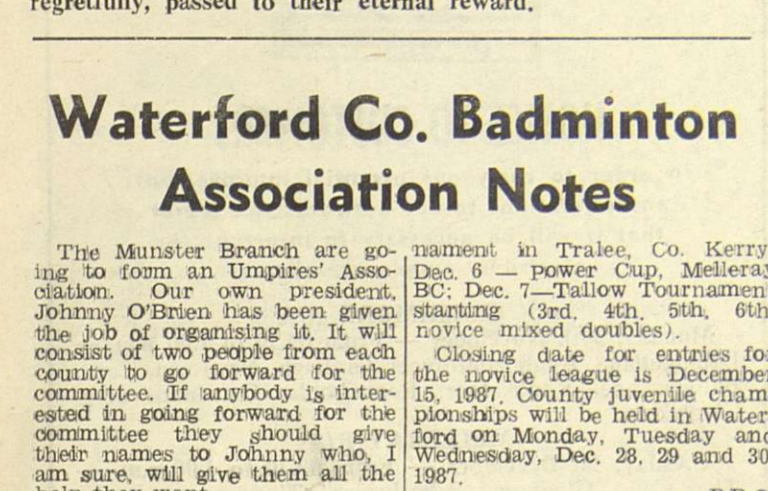

Both on and off the water the NIHE contingent of 65 in all had a very satisfying weekend and were not found wanting in producing their own entertainment through Michael O'Donoghue on the guitar and Kevin O'Neill on the violin. Mark Scanlon and Rory O Broilchin were always to the fore in ensuring that the organisation of the weekend ran smoothly.

The clear winner of the NIHE beginners event was Mark Owens but the serious competition arose in the team event where fine performances were shown by Vincent Morrissey, Seamus Kirwan and Alison Dineen of the Gold Coast, and Brian Bryce and Glen Cahill of NIHE. The more consistent winning team was made up of Regina Kelly (NIHE), Oliver Clancy and Pat Dineen of the Gold Coast Club. An excellent rescue service was provided by the Officer of the Day, Bill O'Donnell.

Prizes were presented by Mr. Mícheál Corcoran, Area Rep. for Heineken/Murphy's Brewery.

The Gold Coast Board Sailing Club and NIHE wish to acknowledge their sincere appreciation to both Murphy's Brewery and the Gold Coast Holiday Homes for a most enjoyable weekend.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

The photograph for our "Remembering Other Days" series this week takes us back to the early days of the 2nd World War, the 22nd of August, 1940 to be exact, and shows a group of Dungarvan Scouts on an outing to Cashel. The photograph was taken on the steps of Cashel Parish Church and shows, back row (l. to r.): Willie Joe Dee (now Fr. Dee), Terry Donnelly, Dan Forde and Danny Murphy; Middle row: P. Attridge, Francis Hogan, Joe Duggan, P. Havens and Albert Forde; Front: Carthage Power, Christy Moran, Tommy Kiely, Patchee Whelan and Canice Quinn. Some of the scouts have now, regrettably, passed to their eternal reward.

Waterford Co. Badminton Association Notes

The Munster Branch are going to form an Umpires' Association. Our own president, Johnny O'Brien has been given the job of organising it. It will consist of two people from each county to go forward for the committee. If anybody is interested in going forward for the committee they should give their names to Johnny who, I am sure, will give them all the help they want.

Leinster and Ulster branches have got their own umpires' associations and the men and ladies who umpire get great satisfaction from doing it. You need not be a good player to make a good umpire. If you are interested in it now is the time to get involved.

John Foley and Joyce Walsh from the Waterford Badminton Club took part in the Ulster Under-18 Open Championships at the start of November. They reached the finals of the competitions but were beaten. John was beaten in the singles final. Partnered by Brian Fogarty in the boys doubles, final, they were beaten in three sets, and partnered by Joyce Walsh, was beaten in two sets in the mixed doubles final. Joyce Walsh's partner in the girls doubles was Jayne Plunkett from Ulster and they were also beaten in the final.

Let's hope that their luck will change when they go to the Irish Under 18s in Ulster in December.

Here are some fixtures: November 28/29 - Butterfield Cup in Limerick; December 5/6 - Irish Under 18s in Ulster; Dec 6 - Kerry Invitation Tour-

DUNGARVAN INTO PROTEST

Following a recent meeting of the Dungarvan Branch INTO issued a statement protesting against the proposed reduction by the Government, in the pupil-teacher ratio in primary schools.

The statement claimed that as a result some classes will be doubled and that 62 teachers would be wasted out of the primary sector in Waterford. It further claimed that classrooms would become chaotic as teachers, already under severe stress, tried to cope with larger numbers of children.

Calling on Catholic and Protestant clergy to support the protest and to "champion the cause of the child," the statement concluded: "Savage cuts in education and fiscal rectitude = economic lunacy and political suicide. Can Minister O'Rourke solve this equation?"

The Cummins/Voith units are standard features on motorway express coaches in Britain and are noted for their quietness and smoothness in operation.

Full air suspension and full air conditioning ensures a high degree of passenger comfort on all road surfaces and in all types of weather. The high quality stereo sound system incorporates radio, tape player and public address microphone for announcements. There are 53 individually adjustable reclining seats and large under-floor lockers for passengers' luggage and express parcels.

LOGICAL DEVELOPMENT

Announcing the introduction of the new service, Mr. Frank King, District Manager at Bus Eireann's Waterford depot said: "This new daily Expressway service from Dungarvan to Dublin through Waterford is a logical development of our well-established services which have been operating from Dungarvan on two days weekly for some years past. We have felt for some time that there is a big demand in the West Waterford region for a fast daily coach link to and from Dublin. This new service is geared specifically to meet this demand, offering over six hours in Dublin for a variety of destination activities—visiting friends or relatives, shopping, medical appointments, sightseeing, family outings etc.

"Equally, the new service will provide a cheap, convenient and direct way of getting home at the weekend for Waterford people working or studying in Dublin. The 14 Red Card which combines a weekend return trip on Bus Eireann with unlimited travel during the week on Dublin Bus is also valid on our new service.

"We also plan to develop a number of economically priced accommodation packages in Dublin, Waterford and Dungarvan inclusive of return travel on the new service. These, we feel, will be very popular and will provide a welcome boost to the home tourist industry at this time, which is such a difficult one for tourism generally.

"This new direct coach link between the West Waterford region and the nation's Capital city is the second new Expressway service to be introduced by Bus Eireann since the company was established earlier this year. We are confident, in our knowledge of the expanding travel market in this region, that it will be a very successful service, and that it will be a very worthwhile addition to the comprehensive national network of services provided by Bus Eireann." Mr. King concluded.

There will be a special introductory offer for passengers making their first trip. By retaining their ticket, and producing it when they want to travel again, they can get the next return ticket at half price, provided they make their second trip before 17 December.

URBAN COUNCIL BRIEFS

Items referred to at the November monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council included:

CONGRATULATIONS

On the proposal of Cllr. M. O'Riordan, congratulations to Dungarvan G.A.A. Club on winning the recent u/21 hurling County title and thus becoming the only club in the county to have won titles in all grades; also to Mr. Tom Keith and staff at the Sports Centre on the very successful motor show held there.

TRIBUTE

On the proposal of Cllr. T. Wright, the Council joined in endorsing an outstanding tribute to the late Declan O'Sullivan.

NEW ROAD

When Cllr. Wright asked whether traffic using the new By Pass road would continue to stop at the grotto at Youghal Road, the Co. Manager, Mr. D. Hurley, said that this would in fact now become the right of way as the new N25 road.

HOUSING ESTATES

Cllr. Nuala Ryan referred to the need to erect name plates at the Council's housing estates such as McCarthyville and Kyme Park in Abbeyside. The Co. Manager said that it was proposed to do this for all the estates in the urban area.

When Cllr. Ryan suggested that a separate traffic sign be erected indicating Abbeyside as this was now a community on its own as distinct from Dungarvan, the Co. Manager replied that he wouldn't like to walk that minefield by considering such a suggestion.

GOOD WISHES

On the proposal of Cllr. Ryan seconded by Cllr. O'Riordan the Council extended good wishes to Mrs. Goode, the Chairman's wife, for a full recovery from her present indisposition.

POLLUTION

Cllr. P. Power referred to the need for a close watch on the waste disposal unit which had been permitted at Boreenatra and also to ascertain whether the emission from the chimney stack at the new Sterling Drug plant could cause pollution.

The Town Clerk, Mr. B. White replied that these points were fully covered in the conditions included in the planning permissions granted in each case.

Lighting Problem At Dungarvan Youth Club

The public lighting outside the Dungarvan Youth Club premises at Quann's has presented a major problem from the beginning, Fr. M. Cullinan, C.C., the Club's Spiritual Director, told members of Dungarvan Urban Council when he had deputated to the November monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council. Other members on the Youth Club deputation were Mrs. Mai Cantwell, Mr. J. O'Mahony and Mr. Brian Sheehan.

Fr. Cullinan who acted as principal spokesman said that there was genuine concern for the safety of the young members of the club as the road surface leading to the premises was potholed and very hazardous especially in the pitch darkness of the winter nights. "We can be called the Youth Club in the dark," he said pointing out that there was no public lighting in the vicinity nearer to them than the Sports Centre. As a result of this lack of lighting they also had to contend with the problem of vandalism. "The club premises is like Fort Knox it has to be so fortified from vandals," he told the Council.

Fr. Cullinan expressed the hope that the Council could place a light outside the premises "to make it more welcoming and safer for their young people so that they would not be left in the veritable darkness which was now there."

Other members of the deputation supported the appeal for adequate lighting at the club premises.

Cllr. D. Goode, Chairman, informed the deputation that the Council was aware that the lighting outside the Club was inadequate but due to lack of money they were unable to provide this so far. He said that they would again look at the problem at their estimates meeting.

Having thanked the Council for receiving them the deputation then withdrew.

TWO BISHOPS AT OBSEQUIES FOR DUNGARVAN PRIEST

Two bishops, Most Rev. Dr. M. Russell, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore and Most Rev. Dr. J. O'Connor, Auxiliary Bishop of Liverpool were present at the obsequies of Very Rev. Fr. Nicholas Lawn, P.P., St. Alphonsus Church, Great Mersey St., Liverpool which concluded with a special Concelebrated Requiem Mass in St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan on Tuesday last.

Fr. Nicholas, son of the late Charles and Mrs. Lawn, Grattan Square, Dungarvan, was at home in Dungarvan for a few days rest when he died unexpectedly on Friday morning November 20. He served most of his priestly life in Liverpool and this year he celebrated the golden jubilee of his ordination as did also his brother Very Rev. Charles Canon Lawn, P.P., Holy Family Church, Ballybricken, Waterford. He was predeceased by another brother, Very Rev. Fr. James Lawn, P.P., who died some years ago.

Fr. Nicholas was possessed of a charming personality and his kindness and understanding were boundless. He loved Dungarvan and never missed an opportunity to return home especially during his summer holidays when he was a familiar figure and known to a wide circle of friends all of whom held him in the greatest esteem.

Throughout his life he was a great sportsman and when the many racing enthusiasts from Dungarvan made their annual trip to Liverpool for the Aintree Grand National they always found a warm Dungarvan welcome awaiting them at the Parochial House of St. Alphonsus. As a tribute to their former friend on those occasions a number of these racing enthusiasts acted as pall-bearers when Fr. Nicholas was buried on Tuesday.

St. Mary's Parish Church was crowded for the Concelebrated Requiem Mass at which Most Rev. Dr. O'Connor Auxiliary Bishop of Liverpool was principal celebrant assisted by Very Rev. Dean T. Cassidy, P.P. and Very Rev. C. Canon Lawn, P.P. (brother). There were over 60 co-celebrants. Most Rev. Dr. Russell presided and Rev. Fr. J. Griffin, C.C. was Master of Ceremonies.

Most Rev. Dr. O'Connor preached the homily and before the coffin bearing the remains was moved from the Church, Most Rev. Dr. Russell intoned the psalm "In Paradisum". At the graveside Most Rev. Dr. O'Connor recited the final prayers and the burial rite concluded with the chanting by the entire choir of clergy of the "Salve Regina".

We extend our deepest sympathy to Canon Charles Lawn and to Tony Lawn, Grattan Square (brothers), to Sr. Francis Mary, St. Vincent's Hospital, Dublin, Mrs. R. Farrell and Miss Dodo Lawn (sisters), and to all the other family relatives as well as to the Bishops and his brother clergy.

URBAN COUNCIL SYMPATHY - At a meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last Monday night, Cllr. D. Goode said that it was only right and proper that the Council should pay their respects to the Lawn family on the death of Fr. Nicholas who was member of a family which had given three sons to the priesthood and a daughter was a nun.

Cllr. Goode said that Fr. Nicholas was a man of God, a humanitarian who had a great understanding of people and a gentleman priest. He proposed that the Council extend sympathy to the Lawn family on his much regretted death.

The proposal which was seconded by Cllr. R. Walsh, Chairman, was passed in silence.

SIUICRE EIREANN cpt IMPORTANT NOTICE ON SUGAR BEET HARVESTING. It seems likely that the current Sugar Beet Campaign will continue until the end of January. The Company therefore advises Growers to endeavour to harvest all their beet by mid-December. This advice is being given in the interest of avoiding severe harvesting difficulties in the bad weather usually associated with late December, early January.

METHODS OF SUGAR BEET STORAGE/PROTECTION. Because of the anticipated campaign finishing dates the storage of sugar beet on farms is inevitable this year. In consequence, the Company wishes to draw growers' attention to the following points in order to avoid losses. (1) Sugar Beet, which growers expect to have on hand in excess of two weeks, should be harvested as clean as possible and should be well crowned. (2) Sugar Beet should be kept in a tidy clamp or heap, undamaged and on a hard surface. (3) The best type of clamp is a wedge-shaped one. Suitable dimensions would be as follows: Base width, fifteen feet. Height, six feet to eight feet. Top width four feet and dome shaped. The capacity of such a clamp would be four tonnes of sugar beet per yard length. (The density of sugar beet is estimated at 50 cu. ft./tonne). (4) When FROST is forecast - and especially during the month of January - sugar beet clamps should be covered for protection. (5) Avoid dumping beet loosely, e.g. depositing trailer load after trailer load over large areas. To do so runs the risk of losses and damage from frost. Growers requiring any further information or advice should contact the nearest Siuicre Eireann Fieldman who will be always pleased to help.

TALLOW AND ROUNDABOUT NOTES

SQUASH NOTES

Tennents League—The semi-finals of the Tennents League last Friday night, were played amid great excitement, both for players and spectators. Frank Roche's team of Bar, O'Donoghue, Dessy Herlihy, John Beecher and Carmel Murphy had a very good win over Billy Symth's team of Owen O'Grady, Pat Cullen, Tomas Buike and Mary Forde to qualify for the final. The other semi-final was a cliff-hanger between Billy Cantillon's team of Maureen Allen, Gerard Beecher, Brian Dungan, and Evelyn Allen and John Roche's team of Paul Geary, Paul Condon, Liam Dalton and Fiona O'Donnell. Fiona had a good win over Evelyn to get 3 points, but Brian Dungan levelled it when he got the maximum from Liam Dalton. Paul Geary and John Roche's team the lead when he surprisingly beat our top lady player Maureen Allen in a wonderful game of hard, clever squash.

The two top players, John and Billy then gave us a great display of first class squash played in a most sporting manner before Billy won it 3 games to 1. John Roche's team led by 7 points to 6 with one game to play, and that was Gerard Beecher and Paul Condon. With everything to play for, who ever won this one qualified for the final. Paul settled faster, and won the first set 9-2 and led 5 love in the second, but back came Gerard and won 9-7 and then won the next to give his team the vital point. And so the scene is set for what must be a great final on this Friday night.

The final pairings are as follows—Carmel Murphy v. Evelyn Allen, James Beecher v. Brian Dungan, Dessy Herlihy v. Gerard Beecher, Bart O'Donoghue v. Maureen Allen and Billy Cantillon v. Frank Roche. "How will it go?" you may ask. Well, I think that the teams will still be level after the first set and don't forget the points being divided evenly; so it will depend on the final match between Frank and Billy and your guess is as good as mine. At any rate it must be a great final and don't forget all squash players that a party atmosphere will be at Ted's after the presentation of the prizes by the representatives of Tennents to both teams. Don't miss it.

Ted Keniry League—The draw for the most prestigious league of the squash calendar, the Ted Keniry League is now up on the Notice Board. This year it has broken all records for entry numbers. Would you believe it—14 teams have entered from the club. This year as always it will be played on a knock-out system with all first rounds played by December 5th. To familiarise yourself with teams and times please study the Notice Board this weekend and of course the finals will be played on Christmas week, followed by our festive party at Ted's.

Friendly With Dunhill—Last Saturday night twelve members from Dunhill visited the club for a friendly and what a great night it was. This was indeed a great idea, and thanks to club chairman Martin Allen and Billy Cantillon for organising same. Some great matches were recorded over the night, but none better than Marie Condon's match with her opposite number from Dunhill. I believe the return match will be in January with talks about a bus load of players for a days play. Until next week—Hand Out!

GRAND VARIETY CONCERT

On this Friday night, Tallow Community Centre will present a Grand Variety Concert, in aid of the Cronin Family Fund; starting at 8.15 p.m. sharp. I believe this will be the last fund raising venture, and the fund will close after this concert, so you are asked to give it your full support. Tickets (£1.50, children 50p) for the concert are available at all local shops in town, and if you are not able to attend, please support it financially.

The programme for the concert, commencing at 8.15 p.m., is as follows: Opening with our new rock group Gipsy's Kiss, followed by Johnnie Buckley. Then we have Karen Gallagher and Catherine O'Regan, and the Tallow Dancers, John Henley, Timmy Mackey, Tom Cunningham, Jacqueline Henley, Tom Mulcahy and Francis Hamilton will close the first half.

The second half will open with the school children's choir followed by Nina Kenneally. A big treat will be Eddie Curley and Michael Sheehan in music with John Beecher in song. Then we have the Blackwater set, Francis Tobin and Jim Carrig in comedy, Con Ryan, Rose Casey and Bernard O'Hara. Finally we have the Keniry School of dancing, our own Johnnie Curley, and a great treat, the Amos group, making their first appearance in public. All in all a great night's entertainment, while supporting a very worthy cause.

BRIDE VIEW UNITED NOTES

Pinewood 6; Bride View 3
United made the long trip to Ballymacarby on Sunday morning and suffered a heavy defeat by a much fitter home squad. The game commenced at a very fast pace and United found themselves two goals down inside 7 minutes. They fought back and good work by Pat Murphy set up Paul Curley to score for United in the 12th minute. Pinewood again restored their two goal lead in the 31st minute. Again United came back. A free kick by Pascal Prescod went all the way to the Pinewood net to leave the score at the break 3-2 in Pinewood's favour.

But Pinewood again took a two goal lead after just three minutes in the second half and went on to add two more in the 60th and 67th minutes. United rounded off the scoring in the 84th minute when Pat Murphy scored but it came too late to affect the result and Pinewood's great run continues.
United—K. Tobin, K. Murphy, P. Prescod, P. Sheehan, T. McCarthy, G. Sice, G. Hogan, L. Moroney, P. Curley, P. Murphy and M. Sutherland, Res. used, Dermot Henley.
United's next game is away to Lismore on Sunday.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A. JUNIOR HURLING: O'FLYNN CUP FINAL
Carrigtwohill 3-6
St. Catherine's 2-2
In a great second half rally at a wind and rain lashed Carrigtwohill pitch last Sunday, St. Catherine's almost overtook the local side who had piled up a big score in the first half of the above competition. With a couple of spectators huddled here and there the teams took the field at 1.30. Catherine's played into this devastating storm and failed to register a single score up to half time.

They were a completely transformed team in the second half and made amends for their prior showing in the opening half. Both teams fought out the issue resolutely to the end but Carrigtwohill's first half tally stood to them and they were worthy winners.

CAMOGIE: ST. CATHERINE'S v. BRIAN DILLONS

In a day that was not very conducive to the ladies game, especially St. Catherine's travelled to Delaney Rovers' pitch, Cork City, to play Brian Dil-lons. Plagued with injuries, St. Catherine's had to take the field minus a couple of prominent players and added to this two more of their players received rather serious injuries during the progress of the match. However, undismayed by those handicaps they served up a good display and it was entirely in the closing stages that they had to give way to a more skilful combination.

Next Sunday, they will be at home in Conna to Mitchelstown in a league tie.

SCOR AT CONNA

The semi-final of the juvenile Scor will be held at Conna Hall on this Saturday evening and the following clubs will participate there—Glannire, Sarsfields, Castlelyons, Lisgoold, Erin's Own, St. Catherine's.
The other semi-final takes place at Dungourney on the 4th of December and the final of the Divisional Scor will be held at Castlemartyr on the 11th December.

EAST CORK JUNIOR HURLING FINAL

In the second game at Carrigtwohill last Sunday the blustery conditions eased off a little and the people thronged in to see Cloyne and Fr. O'Neill's do battle for the honours.

Considered by many to be one of the best finals in years Cloyne had it all to play for, as being the nominated Divisional representatives they had won the county and had they been beaten last Sunday they would have to relinquish both honours and trophies. Fr. O'Neill kept so long on the waiting wings, played magnificently, being only two points down at half time, but the 7 points Cloyne winning margin at the final whistle was proof of the superb performance by the Round Tower players.

Behind the SPOTLIGHT of her 100th birthday) so fittingly with the picture as it summed up this wonderful lady. "For the record," Tom's letter states, "I took the photograph in 1953—not 1964. Some of those in the picture were dead by 1964."

He then goes on to add: "I'm delighted also that the picture was given to you by Nora Kirby who is one of the last of the old stock of Dungarvan. 'Tis many's the piece of bacon I enjoyed off her table when her back was turned. Those were the days in old Shandon where she lived the greater part of her life. And the memories I have of Miss Elsie Power and her public house at Fair Lane would fill a book. Elsie will always remain a fine lady in my memory and in the memories of all who knew her."

Indeed we can record that there was a wonderful reaction to the publication of the photograph which showed that Elsie is not forgotten but is still fondly remembered by all who knew her in those good old days at Fair Lane.

MILLENNIUM TO BE A NEW BEGINNING FOR DUBLIN

CITY TO BENEFIT CULTURALLY AND ECONOMICALLY

An extensive series of Millennium events and activities were unveiled at the Millennium media launch on board the L.E. Aisling last week by the Lord Mayor of Dublin, Alderman Carmelita Hederman. The Millennium, which will start on the New Year's Eve and continue until the end of 1988, is a celebration of 1000 years of Dublin's history. A full Calendar of Events is being co-ordinated which will encompass every area of activity in the life of the city.

Speaking at the launch, the Lord Mayor said "We have been delighted by the level of enthusiasm with which the Millennium has been grasped and acted upon. A wealth of creative talent throughout the city is going into devising an exciting and stimulating Calendar of Events." The Lord Mayor expressed her thanks, on behalf of the people of Dublin and Ireland, to the Irish Business Community for its overwhelming support. In particular she thanked the Millennium's 14 Patrons, Aer Lingus, Aer Rianta, Allied Irish Banks, Bank of Ireland, Bord Fáilte, Dublin Corporation, Dublin and Eastern Regional Tourism Organisation, Guinness Ireland Ltd., ICL Computers (Ireland) Ltd., Irish Distillers Ltd., Irish Life Assurance plc, Jefferson Smurfit Group plc, Philips Electronics Ireland Ltd. and Stokes Kennedy Crowley, whose commitment is very substantial.

"This co-operation from the business community surely symbolises a positive attitude which must now be developed in every organisation and group in the city," she continued. "The Millennium presents the opportunity to develop this positive attitude, this re-kindling of civic pride, this re-awakening."

The Millennium events have been divided into a number of categories, which will include Capital, Environmental, Community, Youth and Sporting Events. An extensive programme of international events will be taking place which will be of particular interest to the tourist industry. It is anticipated that an extra 250,000 visitors will come to Dublin for next year's celebrations. This will mean an extra spend of £25 million, giving an overall tourist spend of over £150 million in the city.

GENERAL OVERVIEW

The document gives a general overview of activities for next year. Mr. Matt McNulty, Managing Director, stated that this document would be developed and expanded upon over the coming weeks. There are a large number of projects and activities which are still being negotiated particularly in the arts and entertainment field. Specific details relating to all events next year will be available in national and local media, special publications, information systems such as telepages through the Dublin City and County Libraries Millennium F.M., the Millennium Information outlet in Royal Hill, Dublin Tourism and all tourist information outlets throughout the country.

Speaking on behalf of the Government, Alderman Bertie Ahern, T.D., Minister for Labour stated that the Government wholly supported the endeavours of the Millennium and that it is hoped to shortly announce a series of initiatives covering projects in the environmental, cultural, artistic and community areas. He pointed out that the Millennium is a national celebration—an opportunity for all Irish people to take pride in their capital city and come to Dublin to participate in and enjoy what will be a truly memorable year.

THE LARK IN THE MORNING

Our choice for the ballad corner this week, "The Lark In The Morning," is not one which we have published before here. We came across it during the week while searching for the words of another requested ballad and think, as it has not been included in our collection up to this, that it is a suitable choice for this week—

Oh Roger the ploughboy, he is a dashing blade, He goes whistling and singing through yonder green glade, He met with pretty Susan, she's handsome I declare, She's far more enticing than the birds all in the air.

Chorus (after each verse):

The lark in the morning she rises off her nest, She goes home in the evening with the dew all on her breast, Unlike the jolly ploughboy she whistles and she sings, And she goes home in the evening with the dew all on her wing.

One evening coming home from the rakes of the town The meadows being all mowed and the grass had been cut down Oh if I should chance to tumble all in the new mown hay Oh it's kiss me now or never love, this bonny lass did say.

When twenty long weeks they were over and did pass, Her mother asked the reason why she thickened round the waist, It was the handsome ploughboy the young girl she did say.

For he coaxed me for to tumble all in the new mown hay.

Here's a health to young ploughboys wherever they may be That like to have a bonny lass a-sitting on their knee With a jug of good strong porter they'll whistle and they'll sing For a ploughboy is as happy as a prince or a king.

1986 CENSUS

CO. WATERFORD'S POPULATION UP BY 1,504

The final results of the 1986 Census of Population for age, sex, marital status and household composition are at present being released on a county-by-county basis by the Central Statistics Office in a series of Local Population Reports.

The Report issued relating to Co. Waterford (excluding Waterford City Borough) shows that the population of the County was 51,622 persons (29,282 males and 22,340 females) in April 1986. This represents an increase of 1,504 persons (520 males and 984 females) or 3 per cent in the five years since the 1981 Census.

The change in population over the 1981-86 period varied considerably between different age groups. This reflects the effect of the national progression of the population age structure over the period together with birth, deaths and migration. The population changes in the various age groups were as follows (with the 1981 figures in brackets)—0-14 years: 15,631 (15,610) up 21 or 0.1%; 15-24 years: 7,960 (7,836) up 124 or 1.6%; 25-44 years: 13,109 (11,864) up 1,245 or 10.5%; 45-64 years: 8,875 (9,030) down 155 or 1.7%; 65 years and over: 6,047 (5,778) up 269 or 4.7 per cent.

MARITAL STATUS

Information on marital status was collected in greatest detail in the 1986 Census than on previous occasions, particularly in respect of persons who were married but separated. There were 22,483 ever-married persons aged 15 years and over of whom 19,130 were married (including remarried); 2,304 were widowed and 496 were separated or divorced. The number of persons aged 15 years and over who were not married was 13,506.

A total of 50,448 persons were collected in 14,272 private households (i.e. excluding hotels, hospitals, institutions, etc.). The average size of private households continues to fall being 3.53 in 1986 compared with 3.64 in 1981 and 3.84 in 1971. A total of 519 males and 859 females lived alone. The population of the Waterford Gaeltacht in 1986 was 1,439 (753 males and 686 females) compared with 1,391 for the corresponding area in 1981.
