ONE DAY FOR LIFE IN IRELAND

On Saturday next, May 7, the Irish Cancer Society, as part of the week-long Europe Against Cancer Campaign, are organising a photo fund-raising event to be called "One Day For Life In Ireland."

All you have to do is take your camera with you next Saturday and take as many photos as you like in black and white or in colour. Take them anywhere in Ireland at anytime on Saturday and then send as many as you like (prints only) to the Irish Cancer Society, 5 Northumberland Road, Dublin 4, enclosing a minimum donation of £1 per photograph. The closing date is Tuesday, June 14. From the photographs sent in, a panel of judges will select the best for publication in a magnificent colour hardback book called "One Day For Life In Ireland."

Cancer and heart disease are two of the most common diseases today and if you don't want to develop either one or the other, the first step is to find out more about them. To find out, take cancer . . . We don't know all the causes of cancer but we do know some of them. For instance, we know that cigarette smoking causes lung cancer and too much sun can cause skin cancer.

It is accepted that prevention is better than cure and the best way to protect your health is by removing risk factors from your lifestyle. In the case of heart disease and cancer the main risk factors include fatty foods, alcohol, cigarettes and too much sun for those who sunburn easily.

The growing fashion for suntans is to blame for the huge increase in deaths from skin cancer according to Dr. Richard Staughton, consultant dermatologist at London's Westminster Hospital. Speaking at the British Medical Association's annual scientific meeting in Jersey last week, he said that skin cancer was now the fastest growing form of cancer affecting people. He said that women were particularly at risk and the fashion of looking good by sporting a good suntan was largely to blame. Men, especially those with fair complexions, were equally at risk from too much exposure to the sun.

So if you are heading for a sun holiday this year make sure to always use a sun filter cream, wear a sun hat and put on a T-shirt or top if you're out in the mid-day sun.

The EEC Cancer Prevention Committee say that cancer deaths can be reduced by observing the proper precautions they have now mounted their Europe Against Cancer Campaign while the Irish Cancer Society plays a major role in the care of cancer patients in Ireland and deserves the support of everyone.

So on Saturday next, May 7, let's all take a shot at beating cancer. You will enjoy the challenge and a cancer victim will benefit from your participation.

A FITTING FAREWELL TO RETIRING GARDAI

The spacious function room at Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan, was filled to capacity on Friday night last April 29, for the Testimonial Dinner and presentations which took place to mark the retirement of Superintendent Matt English and Garda John Griffin from the Garda Force. The gathering was representative of the entire Garda District as friends, colleagues and well-wishers joined in paying honour and tribute to two of the most popular members of the Force on the eve of their retirement from active service.

Supt. English a native of Dundrum, Co. Tipperary, joined the force in November, 1947 and was assigned to duty for the first time in Lismore in May, 1948. He subsequently served in Villierstown and Ballyduff in West Waterford before being transferred to West Cork. He also served in Counties Kerry, Galway and Donegal before being appointed Superintendent in February, 1965. Three months later on May 20, he was transferred to Dungarvan where he has remained ever since. Referring to the fact that his retirement was effective as from May 1, he remarked to us in his own inimitable manner, "everything seems to have happened for me in May!"

On the other hand Garda Griffin is a Kerryman, a native of Cahirvullig, Ventry in the West Kerry Gaeltacht. Having joined in 1945 he was, following completion of his training period, assigned to Mullinahone as his first station in May 1946. A fluent Irish speaker, he was transferred to the Ring Gaeltacht station in 1950 and served for five years before being transferred to Dungarvan. In 1973 he was appointed Clerk in the Superintendent's office and has remained in that post since.

Chief Supt. T. A. Slovan, Waterford in the course of his after dinner speech at last Friday night's function paid glowing tributes to both Supt. English and Garda Griffin and delivered a special message from Mr. Eamonn Doherty, Garda Commissioner, sending his congratulations to both and expressing regret at his inability to be present. Inspector P. J. Hayes also spoke as did Garda Martin Shanahan on behalf of the organising committee while Sergeant Michael Blake proved a most capable and efficient

Will Tallow 'Facelift' Project Land National Award?

All over Ireland from Donegal to Dingle to Mizen Head to Malin Head and all points in between, groups of local committed citizens and residents have banded together over the past several months to clean up Ireland and give her a facelift, the like of which has never been seen before.

It has all been leading up to the culmination of stage one of the National Clean Up effort called for by the Minister of the Environment, Mr. Padraig Flynn, T.D., just a few months ago.

From the hundreds of projects entered, ten have been short-listed from which the eight finalists to share in the sponsored award will be selected as follows: Supreme Award of £10,000; 2 Awards of £5,000 each and 5 Awards of £1,000 each.

The final judging will take place during this coming weekend, May 7 and 8, when Anneka Rice of TV's Helicopter Treasure Hunt fame and 2 D.N.J. Ian Dempsey will be taking to the air and to the airways by helicopter and collecting the final votes from the local juries for Ireland where the winners will be announced.

The Adjudicators are due to make their final call at Tallow at 2.20 p.m. on next Saturday, May 7 (time is approximate and subject to change due to weather conditions) and it is certain that the entire community in the Brideside town will turn out to greet them on this very special occasion.

The project with which Tallow is hoping to hit the jackpot has been organised under FAS (Incorporating the former ANCO) and the group has been active since last October. They have since been engaged in cleaning the banks of the Bride, updating the history of the town and highlighting the areas which could be usefully developed for tourism and also examining possible sources of providing much needed employment for the town and district.

Under the banner of Tallow Bride Development of which local farmer, Maurice Geary, Knockrour is chairman it is expected that the group will be registered as a limited company in the near future.

ENORMOUS POTENTIAL

According to Maurice Geary, the FAS team have shown that there is enormous potential in the area, and just now much every happiness in their retirement.

NICE TO KNOW

Supt. English, speaking on his own behalf and on behalf of "my colleagues and good friend," said that while he felt embarrassed by all that had been said it was nice to know at the end of the day that they were appreciated by the public. One of the things that he most looked forward to during his career were the legal battles in court in which the legal profession had always proved helpful although cases were hard fought at all times. He said that as far as he was concerned his job was to help people and his attitude when something happened was to find out the cause and see what could be done to settle it. He then extended his sincere thanks to all who had helped him in so many ways down through the years.

Garda Griffin added his words of thanks, adding, in Irish, "Go raibh míle maith agaibh go leir."

Applause again greeted these remarks which concluded a rather touching interlude during the Court sitting.

any involvement in the pub row from the very start and says that he was there at the time only as an innocent bystander.

Kevin who has been detained in Santa Cruz prison in the Canary Islands of Tenerife, without out being charged for the past three and a half months, was visited in prison last week by two Irish members of the European Parliament, Mr. Niall Andrews, Dublin and Mr. Mark Killalea, Galway who were on the Island attending a meeting of a European Parliament Committee. Both made representations to the prison governor about the young Cappoquin man's plight.

Kevin's father, Mr. John O'Connor has also been to Tenerife to visit him and to arrange legal representation for him and has said that the Spanish lawyer which they have engaged believed that Kevin would face charges of assault and malicious damage to a pub following a row on January 23. Kevin has vehemently denied

Popular television personality, Anneka Rice, who along with Radio 2 DJ, Ian Dempsey, will be visiting Tallow on Saturday as part of the Zanussi National Washday which takes place this weekend, May 7 and 8.

A Very Special Day For Supt. Matt English - And Garda John Griffin

District Justice W. F. O'Connell suspended the ordinary business at Dungarvan Court for a period on Wednesday last, April 27, to refer to what he described as a very special day for Superintendent, Matt English — the last day he would appear in Court before retiring from the Garda Force, on May 1. Paying tribute to the retiring Supt. he said that he could not adequately say enough in this regard.

District Justice O'Connell went on to say that Matt English commanded considerable regard even in areas far outside his jurisdiction. He was a high honouree officer who had given long and outstanding service and his wide and detailed knowledge of all aspects of the law made him an eminent prosecutor who had always presented his cases with scrupulous fairness. "But apart from that," said the District Justice, "I think the reason was that he always applied a good leavening of common-sense to everything."

Referring to the manner in which Supt. English had kept pace with the many changes in the law over the years he said that he was regularly consulted in many spheres and his advice on all matters was always competently given. "And now," said District Justice O'Connell, "he is about to retire after a long and honourable tour of duty. He will be missed by the Gardaí who served under him and whose loyalty and respect he always enjoyed. He will be missed by the people in this town but most of all he will be missed by the community in general as his interests has always been for the good of the community. I wish him and Mrs. English many long years of good health."

These tributes were greeted with general applause by all present.

District Justice O'Connell then referred to the impending retirement of Garda John Griffin who has been attached to the Superintendent's Office as Clerk for many years and who was present in Court for the occasion. He said that he did not have much contact with Garda Griffin but he was well aware of the invaluable assistance which as the Superintendent's Clerk he gave to the maintenance of law and order. "He always kept impeccable records," said the District Justice, "and was what might be described as one of the 'backroom boys' of public service without whom we would be unable to function." He wished him and Mrs. Griffin every happiness in the years ahead adding in Irish, "ta suil agam go mbeidh sos fada suaineasach aige le blianta fada amach."

Mr. J. P. Gordon, Solr., President, Waterford Law Society, speaking on behalf of his colleagues endorsed all that had been said by the District Justice. He said that Supt. English had proved himself an officer of the highest calibre who had always been extremely courteous in facilitating solicitors and barristers. He was an astute prosecutor but had always tempered the presentation of his cases with mercy. The paucity of crime displayed how well Supt. English had administered the law and for that the public owed him a debt of gratitude for the manner in which he looked after the town and the area under his control.

Mr. Gordon also paid tribute to Garda Griffin who he said first came to Dungarvan in 1955 after spending 2 years in the Ring Gaeltacht where he proved himself to be a fluent Irish speaker.

He wished both Supt. English and Garda Griffin good health and every happiness in their retirement.

Mrs. Mairead O'Neill district Clerk, thanked Supt. English for all his courtesy and help extended to the D.C.C. staff down through the years and she wished him and Garda Griffin

Spanish Trial Date Set For Cappoquin Man

According to the latest information to hand, the trial of 21-year-old Kevin O'Connor of Carrigeen, Cappoquin, is now expected to go ahead on Thursday of next week, May 12.

Kevin who has been detained in Santa Cruz prison in the Canary Islands of Tenerife, without out being charged for the past three and a half months, was visited in prison last week by two Irish members of the European Parliament, Mr. Niall Andrews, Dublin and Mr. Mark Killalea, Galway who were on the Island attending a meeting of a European Parliament Committee. Both made representations to the prison governor about the young Cappoquin man's plight.

Kevin's father, Mr. John O'Connor has also been to Tenerife to visit him and to arrange legal representation for him and has said that the Spanish lawyer which they have engaged believed that Kevin would face charges of assault and malicious damage to a pub following a row on January 23. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Don't forget the grand draw on May 29 at Yogi's when the lucky winner will be announced.

LISMORE 'TIDY TOWN' PROJECT

We were very encouraged with the response and financial support from residents of West Street, Main Street, and East Main Street, recently, to add colour to the centre of our town by way of providing flower window boxes. We realise a few people intend providing their own but we hope to provide these flower boxes to the many others who are interested and we thank them for their co-operation and financial support. Unfortunately, our financial position does not allow us to cover other areas of the town this year; however, should anyone like to provide their own flower boxes, we will have available some boxes at a nominal cost — details available from committee members.

Some great work has already been done by local residents' groups and we hope to complement that work by doing a cleaning up job on a few identified spots. However, many power resources are inadequate for all the jobs required.

The other problem is litter! Despite the efforts of local businesses to sweep their own area, this problem remains. We hope to provide a few decent size bins — indeed, appeals for sponsorship in this regard have gone out to prominent firms operating locally. Could we make an appeal in the meantime — before you throw away that paper or carton, just think — there is a bin on the street or could you avoid throwing it away? If everyone does their bit, we would have no problem.

We are anxious to get a lot of work done before the Tidy Town adjudication starts in June. If you are thinking of a painting job, why not do it now.

Again, we would welcome any support, physical or financial. We will be holding a Church Gate Collection, on Saturday and Sunday, 29th and 30th May, to assist in defraying the cost of window boxes, flowers, bins, tubs, insurance (£200) and incidentals and would welcome your support.

TOWN COMMISSIONERS MEETING

As the Town Clerk, Mr. M. Pollard was indisposed, his place was taken by Mr. P. Pollard.

A letter to the Town Commissioners from Mr. Noel Hickey was deferred until the June meeting.

Mr. Joe Roche asked that, in view of the coming tourist season when was the promised public conveniences for the town going to materialise.

Mrs. Mary Ryan reported no improvement in the book situation in Lismore Branch Library.

With regard to a report in a local newspaper, Mrs. Mary Morrissey, chairperson, said she would like to know what committee would receive £10,000 from the Lottery, reported to be for Lismore Tennis Club. The Commissioners are not aware of such a club in Lismore.

A vote of sympathy was passed to Mr. M. Pollard, Town Clerk on the death of his brother, Michael Pollard, U.S.A.

LADIES GOLF NOTES

The past week has been a very busy week for the lady golfers. We had a very big day on Wednesday last, it was one of our open invitation days, which was very kindly sponsored by Sun-Life of Canada. We had a big field and except for the inclement weather, everybody enjoyed themselves.

The results were — 1st, Angela Allen 40 pts.; 2nd, Denise Fitzgerald (Youghal) 39 pts.; 3rd, Betty Cotter (Youghal) 38 pts. Category 0-20, Connie Dowd 37 pts.; Category 21-27, E. Hornbrook 37 pts.; Category 28-36, B. O'Donovan (E. Cork) 35 pts.

The Sunday was against us again. The weather is just what we need to play an 18 hole sponsored competition which had to be cancelled, but our Captain put on a 9 hole "Members Prize" competition which was won by E. Hornbrook with 18 pts.

We hope that everybody will turn out as often as possible for the 9 Hole Charity Week which started on the 2nd May and finishes on the 8th. 2 aggregate to count.

Good luck and we hope the weather improves for the golf this week. — (Divo).

SENIOR HURLING: SARGENT CUP

In a keenly contested game played in Dungarvan on Tuesday evening (April 26), Lismore defeated Dungarvan by 3-10 to 2-6.

S.H. Tournament — On this Friday evening, May 6th at 7.00 p.m. Lismore are due to play St. Mary's, Clonmel in Clonmel.

Junior Hurling — Lismore got off to a good start in the first round of the J.H. Championship in Tallow on Sunday evening, May 1st, when they defeated Tallow by one point (2-7 to 3-3).

Played in winterish conditions, Lismore had the better of the first half and should have had more scores on the board. On the turnover Tallow applied the pressure and only a great rearguard action by the defence saved the day for Lismore.

TEAM — P. LINEEN, J. TOBIN, F. FLYNN, P. MORRISSEY, D. BARRY, P. AHEARNE, M. O'BRIEN, C. BARRY, B. O'BORMAN, K. LAWTON, B. LANDERS, E. FENTON, D. LANDERS, M. BARRY, D. GEOGHEGAN, SUB. — E. FOOTBALL

JUNIOR FOOTBALL (RING TOURNAMENT)

In the first round of this football tournament, Lismore defeated host club Ring by one point (2-5 to 2-4). This was a great effort by an underdog Lismore fifteen, who played their hearts out for the hour and fully deserved their win. With a little more application we could do well in this tournament.

Team — M. O'Leary, J. Tobin, Sean Prendergast, D. Landers, B. O'Gorman, F. Power, E. Cusack, B. Prendergast, P. Ahearne, K. O'Gorman, B. Lee, Seamus Prendergast, B. Dunlea, S. Daly, K. Whelan.

WINNERS FINAL

We were all very sorry to hear of the hospitalisation of Mary Cunningham (wife of Billy) and we wish her a speedy recovery. We are delighted to hear that she is back home again.

The committee would also like to thank Conna Flower Club for their generous donation, presented to Mr. T. Hegarty (committee member) after their flower arranging demonstration held recently at Conna Community Centre.

LISMORE G.A.A. NOTES

Our u-14 Inter-County Hurling Blitz went ahead as scheduled on Saturday last, the 30th of April. Despite the adverse weather conditions the four teams involved — Craobh Chiarain of Dublin, Na Piarasagh of Limerick, Rapparees of Wexford and Lismore of Waterford, provided some excellent hurling. The matches, which were very well supported considering the awful weather, began at 11.15.

Winners Final — Na Piarasagh v Lismore. These two teams were both very worthy opponents in the Winners Final as they both produced some fine hurling throughout the Blitz. In their match earlier in the day they provided the attendance with a cracker of a match and in this final for the Paddy Whelan Perpetual Shield they both stepped up a gear to provide us with an even better game.

The contest was fought out at a frantic pace with the stronger Na Piarasagh team threatening to over-run the smaller Lismore team. Lismore were not about to be over-run, however, and some excellent defending kept them in the game with Na Piarasagh holding a half earned two point lead at half time.

WINNERS FINAL

running out it seemed the gallant Lismore team would have to give way to an excellent Na Piarasagh team. Lismore refused to give up however and in a last ditch effort they got the goal which sent the match into extra time.

Lismore continued to press in the early part of extra time and were very unlucky on a number of occasions not to get further scores. Na Piarasagh stuck to their task with great commitment, and with Lismore tiring after their great effort the Limerick lads got the scores they needed and so went on to win the Paddy Whelan Perpetual Shield. Again, as with the Losers Final, great credit is due to both these teams for giving us such fine entertainment.

Mrs. Whelan then presented the Shield commemorating her late husband to the captain of the victorious Na Piarasagh team. Without doubt, Paddy Whelan would have thoroughly enjoyed every minute of every match played on Saturday, so we salute Na Piarasagh on their marvellous victory. As well as appreciation to the match officials, referees, umpires, linesmen, etc. The sandwiches and tea were very welcome on the day thanks to the ladies. Finally a word of thanks to our loyal supporters who braved the weather. Let's hope we will be basking in the sun very soon! —(PRO Lismore G.A.A. Club: Juvenile Section).

LISMORE G.A.A. NOTES

Our u-14 Inter-County Hurling Blitz went ahead as scheduled on Saturday last, the 30th of April. Despite the adverse weather conditions the four teams involved — Craobh Chiarain of Dublin, Na Piarasagh of Limerick, Rapparees of Wexford and Lismore of Waterford, provided some excellent hurling. The matches, which were very well supported considering the awful weather, began at 11.15.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL (RING TOURNAMENT)

In the first round of this football tournament, Lismore defeated host club Ring by one point (2-5 to 2-4). This was a great effort by an underdog Lismore fifteen, who played their hearts out for the hour and fully deserved their win. With a little more application we could do well in this tournament.

We were all very sorry to hear of the hospitalisation of Mary Cunningham (wife of Billy) and we wish her a speedy recovery. We are delighted to hear that she is back home again.

The committee would also like to thank Conna Flower Club for their generous donation, presented to Mr. T. Hegarty (committee member) after their flower arranging demonstration held recently at Conna Community Centre.

Eight Point Win For Ballyduff

BALLYDUFF 1-10; DUNGARVAN 0-5

Ballyduff senior hurlers opened the defence of their county title on a winning note at Cappoquin on Sunday last when they scored an eight point win over Dungarvan in a mediocre game in bad underfoot conditions.

Playing with the wind in the first half it took the winners twelve minutes to score with a John Quirkie point. Richie Walsh scored in the 16th minute and they led by 1-6 to no score at the interval after shooting ten bad wides.

Brian Hennessy opened Dungarvan's account three minutes after the restart with a point from a sideline cut. Two points from Michael Walsh put Ballyduff 1-6 to 0-1 ahead ten minutes into the half before points from Paddy Ferncombe, Brian Hennessy and Eddie Burke left Dungarvan trailing 1-8 to 0-4 with ten minutes remaining. Michael and Richie Walsh with points stretched Ballyduff's lead before Dermot O'Callaghan pointed a Dungarvan free on the stroke of full time.

The winners will have to show a major improvement in future rounds if they are to challenge strongly for the title while Dungarvan on this display could find it difficult to qualify for the knockout stages.

Three players were sent to the line near the end of the game following an incident.

Scorers: Ballyduff — M. Walsh 0-5; R. Walsh 1-2; J. Quirkie 0-2; P. Prendergast 0-1. Dungarvan — B. Hennessy 0-2; D. Callaghan, E. Burke and P. Ferncombe 0-1 each.

Ballyduff — M. Leamy; L. Power; M. Geary; S. Hyland; M. Casey; S. Daly; Seamus Daly; P. Prendergast; D. Hannon; M. Walsh; R. Walsh; J. Casey; E. Flynn; J. Quirkie; J. Scanlon. Dungarvan — P. Hackett; J. Fitzgerald; P. Meehan; C. Meehan; S. McGrath; M. Sheehan; T. Curran; P. Quailly; M. Sandford; J. Ferncombe; B. Hennessy; D. Callaghan; F. O'Donnell; M. Ferncombe; M. McCarthy. Subs. — E. Burke for M. Ferncombe; P. Ferncombe for M. McCarthy.

CARELESS DRIVING ON DUNGARVAN BY-PASS ROAD

Brian Scanlan with an address in Galway was fined £25 when convicted of careless driving on the Dungarvan By-Pass road on February 23.

Thomas Curran gave evidence that on the day in question he had left the Waterford Co-Op and drove on to the by-pass. He turned right and at the junction he indicated he was again going to turn right up the Shannon road. A van came up behind him very fast and crashed into the right side of his car. It then went on for a distance before crashing into a JCB parked near the bridge.

Patrick Ryan said that he was sitting in the parked JCB about 100 yards from the junction. He saw the van coming at a very high speed on its wrong side as it was overtaking. The other car was making a right turn when the van crashed into it glancing off it and going on out of control until it struck the JCB and shifted it about four feet.

Garda C. Kelleher said that when he visited the scene of the accident the indicator was still on in the car. The driver of the van was badly injured and was removed to Ardee hospital.

Defendant in evidence said he was on his way from Cork to Waterford. He saw the van in front but it was not indicating that it was going to turn right. At the time he was travelling at about 50 m.p.h. and went to pass the car when it turned right in front of him. He said that he knew the road as he travelled over it a week. District Justice O'Connell said that the defendant's driving led much to the desired on the occasion. He was familiar with the road but went to pass the other vehicle at the junction. He convicted him of careless driving.

When informed by Supt. M. English who prosecuted, that a total of £177.64 expenses were involved, the District Justice said he would impose a reduced fine of £25 with an endorsement and allowed £150 towards the expenses.

GOVERNMENT MUST ACT ON POLLUTION MEASURES

"If the Government are serious about preventing water pollution and safe-guarding the tourism industry they should cut through the layers of EEC red tape and announce that increased funds are immediately available for the grant-aiding of work carried out on farms to prevent pollution."

This was stated recently by the President of the Irish Creamery Milk Suppliers Association, Mr. Sean Kelly, who was addressing the annual general meeting of the Co. Kerry Executive of ICMSA.

Mr. Kelly said that the Government are getting away with using words rather than action to portray their interest in preventing pollution, and that they ought to put their money where their mouth is.

Mr. Kelly continued: "This is the most vital time of the year for pollution prevention work and any delay in the availability of funds could mean that measures to prevent silage effluent running off farms into rivers would not be complete in time for this year's first cut of silage, and indeed for the tourist season."

"Certainly as there is room for considerable improvement from EEC of monies invested in pollution prevention, the Government should not let the bureaucratic work of processing of applications to the EEC hold up vital work," he said.

THIS WEEK ACOT CO. WATERFORD SAYS

GRASSLAND
Apply 40-50 units of nitrogen/acre after each grazing. To obtain best results use requires a saturated soil surface.

SULPHUR
20 units of sulphur/acre is sufficient for grazing for the season.

WINTER FEED
Now is the time to organise the supply of alternative bulky feeds for the winter such as Super Pressed Pulp, Wet Brewers Grains or Fodder Beet.

SILAGE MAKING
Grass cut for silage at this time must get sufficient additive for good preservation especially when:

- 1.—The grass is wet and weather is dull.
- 2.—The grass is young and leafy.
- 3.—Pastures are old.

Use only those additives on the ACOT Recommended List of Silage Additives, e.g. Additives containing 45 per cent sulphuric acid or 85 per cent formic acid. In addition molasses is also suitable.

IS YOUGHAL LIKE IT USED TO BE?

CHORUS (sing first):

Is Youghal like it used to be? Is the strand still there? Do the boys and girls so round the town in the evening fair?

Is my girl as nice as she used to be? Are my friends all right? Oh what I'd give to be with them in Youghal town to-night.

Two friends I met in a foreign land In a land across the sea And one of them came from Youghal town And landed there that day. After a shake of hands and a friendly smile.

The other whispered low Tell me all I want to know. Tell me all I want to know.

(Chorus). He spoke about his little girl And murmured with a sigh If she had been more kind to me.

I'd never have said goodbye. The tears they rolled down his cheeks And his heart was sad and sore.

But a frown quickly changed to a smiling face As he cried once more.

(Chorus).

The above song, contributed by Johnny Buckley, Ballynoe, was very popular in the locality in the 20's and especially in Ballynoe where a parody on it, "Is Ballynoe like it used to be, are the Maes still there?" was sung with gusto. The Maes were famous travelling show who performed on many occasions at that time in the Creamery Store in Ballynoe and this nostalgic ballad should still revive many memories in the area.

FINED £320 AT DUNGARVAN COURT

Fines totalling £320 were imposed by District Justice W. F. O'Connell at Dungarvan Court on Noreen O'Driscoll, Caravan Site, Blacpool, Cork when she was convicted on a number of Road Traffic charges. The defendant made no appearance nor was she professionally represented.

Garda Martin Shanahan gave evidence of stopping the defendant at Youghal Road, Dungarvan on August 24, 1987 and detailed the charges against her. A fine of £200 with an endorsement was imposed for having no insurance with further fines of £100 for having no tax and £10 each for having no driving licence and for having one worn tyre.

From now on we cannot be satisfied with near wins or narrow defeats, every player will have to show his pride in playing for Waterford.

This of course will entail a complete rethink on the part of the Waterford mentors. The present antiquated methods which have proved so ineffective should now be replaced by more modern thinking. We should appoint some enthusiastic young PE graduate from the NIHE in Limerick, preferably a Decies man, and give him the task of getting the team to concert pitch.

Ally this with the coaching skills of someone who really knows the game—I think everyone will agree that Tony Mansfield will adequately fill the bill here—and progress should result in a very short time. This is the method used successfully by every top-class team in the world.

Perhaps then we can once again dare to hope to see Waterford restored to its rightful place in the hurling firmament. Yours sincerely, MICHAEL O'FARRELL

FINED AND ENDORSED ON CARELESS DRIVING CHARGE

William Devaney Jr., Newcastle, Clonmel was charged with dangerous driving at Dungarvan Court but the charge was reduced to one of careless driving when his solicitor, Mr. K. Cleary, Clonmel, said he would be prepared to plead guilty to the lesser charge and this was accepted by Supt. M. English, who prosecuted.

The charge arose from an incident which occurred at Dicks-pool Cross, Abbeyside, on December 16 last. Supt. English said that the defendant had parked on the roadway near the Friary College at Dicks-pool and as Mr. Jim Gee was driving in from the Clonca direction, the defendant suddenly moved out on to the road. In doing so he forced Mr. Gee to swerve across the road with the result that Mr. Gee's car in which there was a number of passengers landed in a deep drain near the side of the road.

Mr. Cleary pleading guilty to a reduced charge of careless driving, said that the defendant was guilty of a slight error of judgment on the occasion. He

DUNGARVAN CRYSTAL SQUASH

Our recent club championship sponsored by Dungarvan Crystal provided some very exciting squash games in the three men's and two ladies divisions. It was very unfortunate that final night clashed with an important Union meeting, denying many the opportunity of witnessing one of the best games seen in the club, that between Willie White and Jimmy O'Dea who accounted for John Cliffe and Jack Elstead respectively in the semi-finals of Div. 1.

The game itself was a very tight affair with some superb shots and excellent retrieving, but when Willie lost 2 sets to 1 lead and a 5-0 lead in the fifth the writing looked on the wall for him. However he found the reserves from somewhere and edged home to stamp his name as Division 1 champion 1987/88.

Confirmation as to their rankings has also been established through the ladder which has just finished, with Willie, Jimmy and Jack Elstead as the top three in the club. Speaking of Jack Elstead, this is another player with many miles of squash behind him but he's still doing the business as can be seen by the results he has had this year. Against some of our better players who just do not understand that playing to your limitation with a never say die attitude can bring the results and prove very satisfying.

In Division 2, Michael Hurley having failed at the last hurdle last year, went one better and proved much too strong and fit for Paddy Walsh, and went on to record a 3-0 victory. From a club point of view it's unfortunate that Michael is due to emigrate next August to Canada, because, number one, he was a very regular player and, number two, in any sport he played and he is one of those players who would be good at any of them, you would never meet a more genuine or unassuming individual. To himself and his wife Ann, we wish you the very best in your new life abroad.

The best division, the 3rd, as club chairman Liam Moore later described it, was between, naturally enough, Liam himself and John Dunford. Against all predictions (including Liam's), John came from behind to win 3-2 in a marathon and showed everyone what a gutsy and determined player he is and undoubtedly has the capacity to improve even more.

The Ladies' 1st Division was run on a round-robin system and Ann Dunford left nobody in any doubt, that she is the number 1 lady beginner when she emerged a clear-cut winner, with Margaret Duhigh and Rita Moore joint runners-up.

The communities of the parish had ample reason to feel a tinge of regret during the past weeks when four well known members passed away. Two of them were living in the district and two domiciled in other areas of the county.

Mr. Murphy then went on to say: "Farmers must speak out against flat rate systems or they will soon find themselves with either income tax and a flat rate system which will allow any Government to take as much tax as they like from farmers regardless of their income."

"Divide and conquer still holds good in this respect and if farmers are treated differently for tax purposes from the rest of the community, the tax from farmers can be arbitrarily increased without the Government having to worry about its effect on the rest of the community."

Mr. Murphy added that IFA have set up a monitoring committee to investigate any case where the farm profile system may not be working smoothly, for example where a farmer receives an assessment to income tax where clearly he has no income or an insufficiency of income to support such an assessment.

"IFA will," he said in conclusion, "continue to press for the extension of the Farm Profile to farmers in the tax net who would normally have a low or nil liability to income tax. This would do away with the need for those farmers to incur unnecessary accountancy costs."

Farmers should forward details including their name, address and tax reference to Martin Good, at the Farm Centre, Bluebell, Dublin 12, telephone 01 500266.

Having analysed the championship, the most striking factor is that the gaps, so apparent even earlier in the year, have now closed drastically and those presently on the top better remove the blinkers and take a good look at what's coming, namely Dave Power, Patsy Hackett and Andrew Ratsy.

TALLOW NOTES

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A. U-21 Hurling Championship—Being level at half-time in the above championship tie at Ballynoe last Sunday week, these two teams served up a game which would do justice to the "A" grade. It was score for score and the first time pulling certainly thrilled the spectators.

Castleyons looked promising but about midway in this half they recovered from a couple of mistakes crashed home a couple of goals and the writing was on the wall for a gallant Castleyons bunch who never gave up.

IFA AND FARM PROFILE SYSTEM

Preliminary reports on the operation of the Farm Profile form indicate that over 70% of farmers whose profile forms have been processed by the Revenue Commissioners do not have a taxable income, said Mr. Gerry Murphy, Chairman, Waterford Co. Executive IFA.

"Those who are promoting land tax or a sales produce tax system must take note of this significant development," he said.

Mr. Murphy then went on to say: "Farmers must speak out against flat rate systems or they will soon find themselves with either income tax and a flat rate system which will allow any Government to take as much tax as they like from farmers regardless of their income."

"Divide and conquer still holds good in this respect and if farmers are treated differently for tax purposes from the rest of the community, the tax from farmers can be arbitrarily increased without the Government having to worry about its effect on the rest of the community."

Letters to the Editor

The Editor, Sports Section.

DECIES HURLERS IN DECLINE

Dear Sir,
The headlines 'Waterford Flop Yet Again' must by now be standard copy in every newspaper sportsdesk in the country following the most recent fiasco against Tipperary in Croke Park, the latest in a continuous succession of inept performances that, sadly, seem to have become synonymous with Waterford in major games in recent years.

To be beaten is bad enough to be continually hammered is very painful indeed. It's not easy being a Decies supporter these days.

Where oh where are the glory days gone? Will we ever again win a major hurling trophy, or are we to wander, like the Lost Tribes of Israel, in the wilderness for another forty years? Can we ever again expect to thrill to the exploits of such as John Keane, Christy Moylan, Seamus Power, Austin Flynn, Philly Grimes, Johnny O'Connell, John Kiely and Tom Cheasty, to name but a few of the host of stars who have worn the White and Blue in the past?

What's gone wrong? What are the problems, and what can be done about them? These questions are no doubt foremost in the minds of mentors, players and supporters alike these past few weeks as they once again ponder the pain of humiliation in the tough world of top-class hurling.

To begin with, it must be recognised that hurling standards have declined alarmingly in the county. And when you realise that the huge catchment area of Dungarvan, Abbeyside and Cappoquin, once a powerhouse supplying regularly a third of the entire team, now has no one on the selection, the true state of the decline is mirrored.

Be that as it may, there's no point in bemoaning the past or what might have been—we have to make do with what's available, to make the most of our limited resources. We have to make up for the lack of talent in depth and the lowered level of skills by concentrating on the one element which CAN be improved—fitness. For here lies the real Achilles heel of Decies teams at the present time—an appalling lack of real fitness.

I can say without fear of contradiction that I have not seen a properly trained or fully fit team represent Waterford in any grade over the past ten years. The charge that now passes as physical training would be laughable if it were not so tragic. And this low level of fitness has permeated all levels throughout the county till we now are on the lowest rung. While the standard in several other counties, particularly Kerry and Dublin, has risen to a very professional level, fitness has been consigned in Waterford to the back burner.

The fact is, the players are being sold short, are being asked to do the impossible by facing up to teams much sharper and fitter and better prepared and are then castigated for lack of commitment when they fail, as they inevitably must do. They deserve better.

True, we have seen some very good efforts from Waterford, particularly that against Galway in the league. But this sort of pyrrhic victory against teams who are only half-fit for the league merely flatters to deceive. By their own admission, even Tipp were not fully wound up the other Sunday. If they had been, God help us!

If Waterford are right in their thinking then every National, Olympic and International coach is wrong, every top team like Liverpool, Manchester United, Dublin and Kerry are preaching heresy. But of course they're not wrong, are they—it's Waterford who need to wise-up and change before losing becomes a way of life.

We should now determine to compensate for the lack of skills in depth by fielding teams trained to the ounce, fit and eager to fight tooth and nail for the full seventy minutes. In this manner, opposing teams will at least learn to respect us, and the spectre of humiliating defeat will not discourage youngsters from seeking to emulate great players of the past, rather than treat Waterford hurling as a joke.

For a short time back in 1982 I thought we were on the right track when Greg Fives took over a shattered, disheartened team and bravely tried to raise morale once again. He contacted me seeking advice and help, which was only too gladly given. This was after the departure of Joe McGrath.

A comprehensive progressive training schedule was drawn up and put into operation. The results were immediate and dramatic. A fine run in the league was only foiled narrowly by Kilkenny in the semi-final, after a replay.

Then the team took on Limerick, fancied by many for penultimate honours, in the first round of the Munster championship and sent them crashing out of the competition. All of a sudden, sagging morale was restored, and the stage was now set to implement the even more strenuous second stage of the physical training programme.

But, alas, other factors intervened and this training was discontinued with the inevitable disastrous result. I don't think Waterford have ever really recovered from that fiasco against Cork in the final.

But here's little to be gained in raking over the ashes of the past. What now needs to be done urgently is to ensure that every team from here on in to wear the White and Blue will be trained to fight to the finish.

DUNGARVAN CHORAL SOCIETY NOTES

It's that time of the year again when the AGM is upon us. It will take place on Monday next, May 9 at 8 p.m. sharp at Lawlor's Hotel where we hope to meet all our members and friends. Among other matters to be discussed will be a suggested short list of shows for 1989, so do come along and join us.

Congratulations to two of our members, Joan Clancy and Mary Curran on the birth of their baby daughters. Finally, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the outgoing committee for their help and co-operation during the year and wish the incoming committee every success.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

(4th Waterford, St. Joseph's)

PEER GROUP

During Easter our two patrols took part in hikes of contrasting natures. Last week's notes told the story of the boys backpacking across the misty Knockmealdowns, but we must not forget those 'stilted' fellows who peddled their way to Clonmel and from what we heard afterwards, they had to keep a tight hold on Conor Power who kept wandering off to Clonmel's hottest nightspots — Conor you rogue!

While the Peer Group were in Clonmel they spent some time in Ferryhouse where they swam, used the saunas, Turkish baths, the excellent gymnasium, jacuzzi, plus many other facilities available to the public.

In all it was a great weekend and the excellent weather played a major role in its success. The group would like to express their thanks to Christina Robin who kindly stopped on the return route to relieve the group of much of its gear.

TROOP MEETING

After the opening prayer the patrols continued their cooking revision when they revised part A of Scouting Skills—know the steps to successful cooking on camp.

After subs a troop inspection was carried out and Liam Moore of the Italian patrol was deemed the best turned out scout with Brendan Flynn of the Swiss patrol second.

Next we had a lively game of number soccer. If there was an award going for most spectacular goal then Aidan Mullarkey and John Paul Cosgrave would have easily won — why, their goals were so good they might get a call up from 'Big Jack' for the European Championships.

Drill was next on the agenda. After sorting out how to turn properly and how to respond to the orders in Irish we got underway with the April competition. After a good competition young Michael O'Connor of the Austrian patrol finished third second place went to Daniel Holland, new APL of the Eire patrol, but the winner for the second successive month was Eoin Clancy of the Italian patrol.

A game of reactions was then played, followed by a run of jump the rope where Barry Cliffe was one of the best performers.

Tonight's patrol activity required quick thinking as we had 'Scrambling'—here patrols were given a series of letters which they had to unscramble to make sense of. Alan Beatty and his Swiss troop proved too quick for the rest here.

A short discussion on tonight's revision then took place when we talked about the different food groups.

Before notices this week something very special happened as we were joined by an old scout complete with a large bag. Inside the bag was a large framed photograph of Mr. Liam F. Langan, the longest serving Scoutmaster in the history of the unit. After telling us about the great man and his outstanding service to the unit, he presented the photograph to ASL Ray Moore, who accepted it on behalf of the troop. After the meeting the photograph was hung in an appropriate place in the Den.

We finished the meeting with notices and the scout prayer.

SUNDAY PATROL MEETINGS

Our Sunday morning patrol meetings are busier than ever at the moment with new scouts and old scouts grafting very hard towards their awards.

New scouts Theo Dorman-Kade, Mollie and Ollie Keitt, have done tremendous work in the short few weeks they've been in. Martin Whelan, Robert Curran, Raymond Crowley, Enda Kirwan and Gavin Keane were very busy last Sunday doing their 'lashings'. Michael Kelleher, Brian O'Mahony and William Fennell passed Duty to God. Liam Moore completed Camper and Camp Chef merit badges, while Michael Sheehan and Claran Walsh are working very hard at their senior scout award.

Things were so busy last Sunday that Kieran Veale, Sean Whelan, Ray and others weren't all kept going, examining tests. — SUB-SCRIBE PLUS

DUNGARVAN MUSEUM SOCIETY

We have opened for the summer season with voluntary helpers. We start with a display on the environment to focus public attention on its many aspects, architectural and natural. Some of these may be overlooked by the passerby... work of local craftsmen in stone, metal and timber. The museum had a very successful visit to the architectural dig in the centre of Waterford. This is being finished at present before being handed over to the developers. The Waterford Corporation employed archaeologists, and three of these showed us the sites, including that of St. Peter's Church which became a secular building in the 17th century.

Mr. P. Shaffrey gave a very interesting lecture on the small towns of Ireland and their efforts to improve their buildings, parking areas and general appearance. This was very well attended and at its conclusion Mr. Shaffrey presented certificates to the winners of the Dungarvan Museum Competition for new and old business premises in the town.

Gold Star Award winner, Paddy O'Brien, appearing at the 'Cats' Bar, Melleray on this Saturday night, May 7.

Surprise Selections On Team To Meet Tipperary

WATERFORD V. TIPPERARY

This attractive championship double-header when the above counties meet in both senior and junior football at Fraher Field on Sunday afternoon is sure to attract a big following of football supporters. With both counties allowed to play their second best in the junior game, which will be the curtain-raiser, there may not be a great difference in the standards of the two. The junior match will have an early start because extra time must be played if the match ends in a draw at the end of regular time which will be 60 minutes as against 70 for the senior game.

JUNIOR GAME

We have long been advocates of the idea of being allowed to play second best in the junior football championships and our five-man selection committee expressed their satisfaction when Central Council granted this request this year. In hindsight, I am not at all satisfied that the change will be very much to our advantage. If what has transpired in the preparation for the game is anything to go by, I would not be very hopeful of a win.

On Thursday evening last at Killarney they were well and truly trounced by a Kerry selection and performances in other challenges have not been very encouraging either. Maybe they are saving it all for the real thing and that they will give us a pleasant surprise.

In the past two years we have lost very narrowly in Tipperary in junior football. In 1986 we beat us by a point — 2-7 to 2-6 at Cappoquin and last year at Clogheen we looked to be shaping for a decisive win against Tipperary when a sudden and unexplainable collapse saw us lose 1-6 to 0-7 in the Munster championship match that was 'there for the taking'.

Hopefully our third successive meeting will bring us a change of luck.

The team played a challenge against Ballinacloy at Abbeyside on Monday night and afterwards the team was due to be selected. As far as I know it was not.

SENIOR GAME

Ever since about 1969 championship football between Waterford and Tipperary has shown an almost extraordinary evenness between the teams. Having played a draw in Clonmel in that year the sides met in a memorable replay at Dungarvan when we won by 0-15 to 0-14. Ten years later after the teams had again played an exciting draw in Clonmel we met extra time in the replay at Dungarvan before Waterford emerged worthy winners on the score of 2-19 to 2-7. In 1980 our championship meeting in Dungarvan was described as one of the best games of football ever played between the counties when we finished losers by two points (1-15 to 1-10) before an attendance of more than one thousand spectators. In our last meeting with the Premier county in championship we played an 0-9 to 1-6 draw only to be beaten in the replay in Clonmel. We met in the league six months ago and having travelled to Clonmel with a very weak team we were decisively beaten in what was to some extent a mud bath.

With this kind of record any result is possible, but on the law of averages, it is our turn to win. Things don't work out that way and we will only win if we are good enough. Several of our performances in the league, including our win against Wicklow and the near misses against Longford and Wexford suggest that we are good enough. We beat Limerick before they beat Tipperary in the league and our display against the much bigger Dungarvan was the kind of display that would take care of any of the three other weaker counties in Munster.

When the selectors met on Saturday night they caused a few eyebrows to be raised in naming what is described as a surprise team. Eoin Phelan who has been playing great football with his club, Kilgobnet, and with the stars of Stradbally's Co. final against Kilrossanty, are both brought on to the team and there are half a dozen positions changes from what has been accepted as the regular line-out for the league. Twelve of the team played against Kerry—all having covered themselves with glory in that epic Munster championship semi-final and if they take this game as seriously and approach the game with a very determined attitude, as they did last June, then we can get over Tipperary once again.

If the junior game ends level, extra-time must be played and the starting time of the senior match will be put back by 30 minutes.

RESULTS

It was a week-end of no surprises. Ballyduff as expected scored a decisive win over Dungarvan in their first round senior hurling championship tie at Cappoquin. Leading by 1-6 to 0-0 at half-time, the result was more or less a foregone conclusion. The losers who had won advantage in the second half, tried all the way but could manage only five points as against four for the winners. During the game, referee Jim Landers sent two Dungarvan and one Ballyduff player to the line.

Dunhill are certainly motoring very well in the senior football championship and have two wins and four points to their credit, following their win against Rathgormack at Kilmathomas on Sunday evening. It is now likely that Dunhill will decide to concentrate on football as against hurling and should they do this, they are likely to reach the concluding stages of the championships.

It was very cold and windy and only those directly involved turned up for this second string double-header in Dungarvan. Ballinacloy failed to score against Kilrossanty in the replay, but full marks to them for trying very hard all the way with a very young team (mostly young). Kilrossanty had a powerful second string side and if held together are not likely to be beaten in this section of the championship.

FRAHER FIELD MATCHES

It was very cold and windy and only those directly involved turned up for this second string double-header in Dungarvan.

Ballinacloy failed to score against Kilrossanty in the replay, but full marks to them for trying very hard all the way with a very young team (mostly young). Kilrossanty had a powerful second string side and if held together are not likely to be beaten in this section of the championship.

In the second game Affane surprised the Briceys to some extent. With a near gale force wind, full marks to them for trying very hard all the way with a very young team (mostly young). Kilrossanty had a powerful second string side and if held together are not likely to be beaten in this section of the championship.

LISMORE BEAT TALLOW

Because of flooding at Cappoquin there was a disruption of the fixtures there and this game eventually ended up in Tallow. In a hectic finish, Lismore won by a single point over Tallow and a goal disallowed in the closing stages.

FAHA 'B'

To be or not to be, that was the question being asked about the Faha 'B' since they were accepted in a cloud of controversy last February and now after seeing them lose to Ballysaggart in their first game it is now expected that they are not very serious contenders for this new grade championship. With many former Mitchel players it was expected that they would be too experienced for all others in this grade. Five points was decisive and set Ballysaggart off on a winning note.

BALLINWILLIN WIN

Mellery had been fancied for this, but from the throw-in it was clear that Ballinwillin meant business with this championship, that was set up as a result of a motion from their club. They gave a good display and won deservedly and decisively.

Lismore proved too strong for Dungarvan in the quarter final of the Senior Hurling League at Fraher Field last week. Unfortunately for Dungarvan, one of their outstanding players, Derek Lyons, received a hand injury that may keep him out of the game for a time.

HOME GAMES

Over the week-end a big list of under-age fixtures will be played and these include two attractive under 21 hurling games. At Cappoquin Abbeyside, who defeated An Rinn/Ardmore decisively at Colligan on Sunday will take on Tallow and at Abbeyside, Dungarvan will play St. Patrick's. Tallow and Dungarvan are expected to win.

MINOR TEAM ON TOUR

Over the week-end the county minor football panel will travel away to take in two matches over the week-end as part of their preparation for their meeting with Kerry in the championship on the following week-end. On Saturday they play Laois and on Sunday they play Galway. The greater part if not all of the expenses involved will be paid out of the monies raised by sponsorship of their recent cycle from Walsh Park to Fraher Field. This cycle took place in very bad weather on Saturday last and all five, Mrs. Mairead McGrath, Briceys, John Moore, well known referee, together with Rev. Fr. P. Moran O.S.A., Eamon Martin and Liam Fardy — the three county selectors, made the trip in very tight quarters, a worthwhile achievement and those who expected that Mairead would not have the endurance to cycle the 30 miles were proved very wrong and she is to be especially commended.

HISTORIC DEVELOPMENT

The acceptance by County Bord na nOg of sponsorship for their under 16 hurling championships, 1988 from Yoplait — a subsidiary of Waterford Co-op Creameries was an historic development as far as this county is concerned and officials present at the presentation on Wednesday night last described it as a welcome and satisfying gesture.

Mr. P. J. Cummins, Assistant Chief Executive Officer of Waterford Co-op said: "It is imperative that the promotion and development of our national games at under-age level continues to progress at pace at which it is now moving within the county. Waterford Co-op through Yoplait are pleased to be associated with this new venture because many of the best young people who play these games, the development and promotion of our youth will be the county's main hope for success at minor and adult level in future years. Our firm is very confident that the sponsorship will be of very good use to the youth of the county by Bord na nOg."

Mr. Cummins concluded by saying that the sponsoring of the divisional and county under-age hurling championships would be a major step forward in juvenile activity in Waterford.

Mr. John Harnedy and Mr. Michael Cass also spoke on behalf of the sponsoring firm. John Moore in reply said: "On behalf of the County Bord na nOg, I wish to offer our very sincere thanks to the management of Yoplait for this very generous gesture in providing sponsorship for our under-age championships. "It goes without saying that this sponsorship will be of great benefit to the financial problems usually associated with the running of our competitions and it will save the officers and other people responsible for finding the necessary funds, a lot of headaches and trouble. As well as this aspect of the matter, it is most encouraging for this and the other boards in the County to find that their efforts to promote our games and cater for the sporting needs of our young people, are being supported by one of the nations leading industries — Waterford Co-op Creamery. "I am sure everyone here knows that this is not the first occasion on which this firm has shown an interest in the promotion of the games within the County, and only recently a beautiful set of jerseys were presented to the senior hurling team and we can recall the many occasions on which other forms of sponsorship have been willingly given to units of the G.A.A. in the County."

As Chairman of County Bord na nOg, I can assure you gentlemen and the firm which you represent that this very appreciative gesture is greatly appreciated, not only by our Board members, but also by the clubs and the parents of the huge number of young people who play and enjoy our games. Gestures such as this make all the more worthwhile."

John Jackson, secretary, Co. Bord na nOg, who was one of the chief negotiators with Rev. Bro. Griffey Moun, Sion, also thanked the sponsor and the firm which you represent that this very appreciative gesture is greatly appreciated, not only by our Board members, but also by the clubs and the parents of the huge number of young people who play and enjoy our games. Gestures such as this make all the more worthwhile."

COUNTY BOARD MEETING

A total of ten players will be suspended when the Senior Board meets at Dungarvan on Monday next. All ten, including three seniors in the Dungarvan/Ballyduff senior hurling tie at Cappoquin on Sunday were playing in senior competition when they were dismissed. The meeting will also finalise the list of members of the newly constituted Bord na nOg and scheduling of several championship games will be announced following a meeting of the county fixtures committee on Monday night last. The changes were made necessary by the inter-county programme.

WESTERN BOARD

The officers will meet on this Thursday evening to extend the championship fixture list. It is expected that the committee will concentrate on playing many under-age games as possible before the summer examinations begin.

RECORD SCORE?

What must be a record score for the hurling game was registered in the Eastern championships over the weekend with this result, M.H.C. — Ballyduff Portlaw 12-9; Carrickbeg 6-5. Just imagine getting such a hammering after scoring six goals in the Eastern result on Sunday read: Mullingar 6-23; Ferrysbank nil. They are certainly keeping the umpires busy down there.

WELL DONE

Our Bord na nOg man will give the details, but I'd like to come in here to say congratulations to both the East and West Juvenile Boards who have won their respective quarter-finals of the Munster under 16 championships and have now qualified for the final on Sunday night last. The most encouraging aspect of their performances is that in both cases the standard is very good. It is now very obvious that the policy of perseverance and keeping their under 16 teams of 1986 together and playing them in competition at under 15 level last year was the right decision and is now paying worthwhile dividends. It would be a unique situation if both won their respective matches to be paired in opposition in the Munster final.

CONGRATULATIONS

To former John Mitchels and county footballer Tom Hunt in scoring a notable success in his quest for the title of the national quizz 'Know Your Sport'. The quiz was sponsored by RTE and had aroused nationwide interest. Tom will now fly to Seoul in Korea for the Olympics.

COLLEGES ALL-IRELANDS

A huge crowd of hurling fans will converge on Walsh Park on Sunday for the two attractive county hurling finals. In the feature game, Midleton C.B.S. will play St. Kieran's College, Kilkenny and will be refereed by John Moore.

In the B final Castlecomber Community School play Kanturk. This will start at 2 p.m. and will be refereed by Jim Landers.

PHELAN CUP SEMI-FINALS

It is announced that both senior football league semi-finals will be played on Thursday of next week. Stradbally play Kilrossanty in one and Tramore oppose Butlerstown in the other. Kilmathomas and Walsh Park are the venues.

SYMPATHY

Our sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Mary-Ann O'Connell, Strandside South, Abbeyside and family on the recent death of Paddy who was a life-long supporter of our games. Paddy had been a life-long friend of mine and never hesitated to 'tell me off' if I wrote something that didn't meet with his approval. His three sons, Sean, Brennie and Jim all played hurling and football with Abbeyside/Ballinacloy at under-age and at adult level. May he rest in peace.

Our sympathy is also extended to the McGovern family, Killrush, on the unexpected death of Eddie. The name McGovern has always been synonymous with hurling in Abbeyside and the late Eddie was ever a popular supporter of the Village. To Mrs. McGovern and family we offer our sympathy. May he rest in peace.

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. CLUB NOTES

HURLERS LOSING START

Our senior hurlers made an inauspicious championship start at Cappoquin last Sunday when going down to an unimpressive Ballyduff by 1-10 to 0-5.

Although we can have no cribs about the outcome we made it a much closer game. Once again however forward shortcomings proved our undoing, and of course the absence of Derek Lyons — injured in the Sargent Cup on the previous Tuesday against Lismore — robbed us of our best player. As in senior football it looks as though we are going to have to battle extremely hard from here on in if we are to get back into the mainstream of title contention. There is little to concern us about either defence or midfield, but an inability to put the ball between the posts is costing us very dearly.

JOHN MOORE'S APPOINTMENT

Congratulations to clubman John Moore on another great refereeing honour. On Sunday next at Walsh Park John will have charge of the Midleton-St. Kieran's College All-Ireland Colleges hurling final at Walsh Park and we know he will do yet another competent job of work.

UNDER 14s WIN TITLE

It wasn't all disappointment for us last week-end because once again our under 14 footballers came to the rescue with a magnificent 4-3 to 1-1 victory over old rivals Abbeyside in the Western Bord na nOg final last Saturday. The boys from Tramore or Roanmore in the county final at Walsh Park on Saturday week, May 14th. These under 14s have been a revelation this year and they are worthy champions of the West. Abbeyside put up stern resistance all the way and contributed to a splendid final, but in the end there could be no disputing the overall superiority of our fellows.

U-16 HURLERS REACH MUNSTER FINAL

West Waterford 4-6 Muskerry 4-2 The divisional u-16 hurlers reached the semi-final of the Munster championship as a result of a four point win over Muskerry at Caherlag on Saturday in a dreadful occasion. The team came from the 'dead' literally after being four goals in arrears at half-time by giving one of the most spirited and committed performances seen in a long time in the second half.

WE WERE PLAYING AGAINST A strong wind and driving rain in the opening half and trailed by 4-2 to 0-2 at the break. After the restart we began to rush our play and became over-anxious before settling down to claw our way back into the game in a most courageous manner when Kieran O'Gorman, now operating a full forward slammed home two goals and a brace of points from himself and Kevin McGrath left us trailing by a point. A Muskerry attack was beaten back and despite conceding three set pieces they failed to score. With two minutes remaining sub, Kenny Killgrew slammed the ball to the net to put us a point in front before Kieran O'Gorman's 40 metre free ended up in the net to leave us four points winners. Congratulations to the players and mentors on this fine win which puts us through to the semi-finals on July 2nd. Scorers: K. O'Gorman 3-3, K. Killgrew 1-0, K. McGrath 0-3. Team: P. O'Gorman; A. Ryan, E. Wall, C. Cunningham; P. Nugent, K. O'Gorman (capt.), K. Wilkinson; G. Hickey, J. Power, S. Curran, M. Butler, K. McGrath; M. McGrath, D. Donnelly, K. Lynch. Subs used: M. Murphy, M. Dunford, K. Killgrew.

THE TEAM WILL PLAY A CHALLENGE GAME ON SATURDAY EVENING IN THE FRIARY COLLEGE AT 7 P.M. AGAINST A COLLEGE TEAM FROM DUBLIN. ALL PLAYERS ARE REQUESTED TO BE AT THE FRIARY NOT LATER THAN 6.40 P.M.

Congratulations to East Waterford on their 5-18 to 0-3 win over West Limerick on Saturday in Ballygiblin and they also go through to the Munster semi-final.

FEILE NA nGAEL

The divisional semi-final of Feile between Lismore and Abbeyside will be played in Cappoquin on Friday evening at 6.30 p.m. Ref. — J. J. Landers. The winners play Dungarvan in the final on Monday, May 9th at 7 p.m.

FEILE SKILLS/POC FADA

The Co. finals of both the above will take place on Sunday afternoon in Dungarvan with skills at 2 p.m. in the Showfield and the poc fada at half time in the senior football game between Waterford and Tipperary. Dungarvan Woman Sets Up New Shannon Based Tourist

Mr. Brendan Daly, T.D., Minister for the Marine, officially opened 'Executive Public Relations-Shannon' at Eunraty Castle Hotel, on April 18. At the launch, Minister Daly welcomed this enterprising and personal service to firms, visitors and company executives. He stated that the Government, the Minister for Tourism, Mr. John Wilson, Bord Fáilte, Aer Rianta and Shannon Development were all delighted that such a service now existed in the region. The Minister said that a lot of exciting things were happening in the area and he praised the initiative of Shannon businesswoman Valerie Sweeney who has set up the company. He said that he had known her for 15 years and had admired her professional approach to everything that she had undertaken. 'Executive Public Relations' will meet visitors, executives or students on arrival or departure at Shannon Airport, look after them and make sure that all requested arrangements have been confirmed. There is also a service for first time travellers or the people unfamiliar with airports. Entertainments available to the visitor on request include golf matches with a panel of excellent golfers and bridge games with experienced players. Tours of the area are also arranged. Important visitors flying from America to Dublin can be met and welcomed to Ireland on their mandatory stopover at Shannon at 6 a.m. This creates a favourable first impression of Ireland on the visitor. Normaj public relations and marketing services are also carried out.

FROM DUNGARVAN

Valeria Sweeney from Dungarvan, who is a daughter of former A.S.T.I. President, the late Liam Comerford, formerly of Mary Street, Dungarvan, and has a broad business background, gave a witty and professional speech thanking the Minister, welcoming the large attendance of dignitaries, politicians and business people and outlining the aims and objectives of the organisation. 'Executive Public Relations-Shannon' is located at 16, Gleanna na Smol Shannon, Telephone 061-363314, Telex 7292 and Fax is 061-363314. The telephone number can also be got by phoning telegages 085-1234.

IFA CRITICAL OF GOVERNMENT PROPOSALS TO IMPORT CEREAL SUBSTITUTES

The National Grain Committee of the IFA has been very critical of a recent Department of Agriculture report on the future of the Irish pig industry. In the report, the Department of Agriculture proposes the expansion of deep sea ports around the coast in order to facilitate the greater use of imported cereal substitutes by the pig industry in place of native grown feed grain.

The National Grain Committee has reacted angrily to the proposal claiming that its implementation will wreck future prospects for Irish cereal growers.

Waterford Grain Committee representative, Mr. Gerard Flynn says that IFA does not accept the major recommendation of the report that feed costs in Ireland can be cut through 'improving port facilities, handling and shipping arrangements for importing feed inputs.'

Why has there been no recommendation to follow the example of Denmark, he asked, whereby their feed costs are among the lowest in Europe and where they have a high usage of home grown grain and home mixing?

Mr. Flynn said no recommendation to promote the development of efficient integrated cereal growing/pig production units or the expansion of the pig herd by walking cereals of existing tillage farms appears to have been considered by the Department.

Continuing, he said we can never be as advantaged as the Dutch in relation to use of facilities for substitutes. Our farm structure and pig herd geographical distribution are completely different. Would it not be better to exploit our advantages and promote policies which will make native grain pig diets more competitive.

In a statement following Deputy O'Malley's announcement, Martin Cullen said that he was delighted with the new appointment.

DANGEROUS DRIVING CHARGE DISMISSED AT DUNGARVAN

Stating that from the evidence it was not clear to him what happened on the occasion, District Justice W. F. O'Connell dismissed a charge of dangerous driving against Thomas Lawlor Adramone, Leamybrien, at Dungarvan Court last week. The charge arose from a two-car collision which occurred at Tarr's Bridge on the main Waterford road just outside Dungarvan on November 17 last.

Anthony Beresford in evidence said that at about 7.30 a.m. on November 17 he was driving to his work at Dawn Meats, Kilmacthomas and pulled in to the forecourt of the filling station at Tarr's Bridge to collect two passengers. As he was about to leave the forecourt he saw a car coming from the Waterford direction going at a very fast speed. As the car came near him, it braked and then skidded towards him and the left side of the car struck the left side of his car. After the collision he spoke to the defendant who was driving the other car, but he did not know why he had collided with witness.

Garda J. Twomey stated in evidence that he arrived at the scene of the accident at 7.45 a.m. There was a curve on the road which was very wide at the point and the drivers involved agreed on the point of impact as on the yellow line of the hard shoulder leading out from the petrol station. He said that he spoke to both drivers and Beresford told him that he was just leaving the forecourt when he was struck. He found a skid mark for a distance of 60 ft. in the Waterford direction behind the defendant's car.

Garda Twomey added that he found three excessively worn tyres on the defendant's car. While it wasn't raining at the time, the road surface was wet. Cross-examined by Mr. N. King, Solr. for the defendant, witness said that he had no doubt about the worn tyres from what he saw of them.

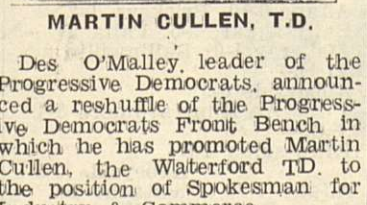

Thomas Lawlor in evidence said that he was a lorry driver and was going to work at Waterford Co-op on the occasion. As he came to Tarr's Bridge a car came out from the forecourt. He at once applied his brakes but an impact occurred and his car spun around on the road. Afterwards he took the tyres to a garage and was told that they had threads of 23 and 3 mms.

In reply to Supt. M. English who prosecuted, witness denied that there was a skid mark behind his car. The road at the point was full of skid marks left by other cars, he said.

Witness also denied that he agreed the point of impact as stated by Garda Twomey and said that the other car was out to almost the centre of the road when the collision occurred.

Stating that from the evidence as submitted he was not clear on what happened on the occasion, the District Justice said that he would dismiss the driving charge against the defendant and leave the matter to a civil court to decide. In regard to a further charge against the defendant concerning the tyres, he said that he would adjourn this to allow the defendant to produce a witness from the garage where the tyres had been inspected.

MARTIN CULLEN PROMOTED TO PD'S FRONT BENCH

Des O'Malley, leader of the Progressive Democrats, announced a reshuffle of the Progressive Democrats Front Bench in which he has promoted Martin Cullen, the Waterford TD, to the position of Spokesman for Industry & Commerce. It is generally agreed that this promotion is well deserved by Martin, following almost 15 months of intensive work, both in Waterford and in the Dail. He was listed by two national publications as among the top 10 most effective Deputies in Dail Eireann. In a statement following Deputy O'Malley's announcement, Martin Cullen said that he was delighted with the new appointment.

MICHAEL CURRAN & SONS OPEN COMPETITION

Ideal conditions prevailed for our second annual open competition sponsored by Michael Curran & Sons. Once again Ballinacorney was the venue and proved, as in the past, very popular with all the anglers.

Fishing a rising tide it was not long before the dog-fish were being landed and with 71 dogfish being returned to the weigh-in and twice as many mixed anglers were kept busy for the duration of the competition.

Anglers from Ardmore, Dungarvan, New Ross, Rhinashark and the host club, Abbeyside fished and we had a very close weigh-in with only grams separating the first ten places. It was nice to see Roland Buller fishing with the club again. He is a very accomplished angler and last year alone he was Master Angler of Boat and Shore for his own club New Ross, but alas, out of the prizes this time.

1st on the night—Dick Caulfield Rhinashark; 2nd, Tony Crowe; 3rd, Michael Cowming; 4th, Michael Power; 5th, Jim Dunford; 1st vice, Cait Mulcahy; 2nd vice, Michael Young.

CYCLING

Mixed Fortunes For Cidona Team

The Cidona Carrick Wheelers team were represented at three events over the weekend. In the Guinness sponsored Cork-Dublin 2 Days, Raymond Power was wearing the race leader's jersey after stage 1. This stage was a time trial up the infamous St. Patrick's Hill in Cork. Raymond clocked 2.32 for the 1km course. In doing so he beat a top class international field. Nicholas Butler did a time of 2.41 which earned him 9th on this stage.

Stage 2 brought the riders from Cork to Limerick, a distance of 75 miles. On Watergrass Hill a break of 9 riders escaped. These remained clear over the undulating countryside and at the finish Gerry Thompson was out on his own. However, Raymond Power and Nicholas Butler finished in the second group, 2 min. down. Paddy and Bobby Power and Jimmy Phelan finished in the next group, a further 40 secs. adrift.

In the second half of the race the bunch disintegrated, but Thompson, who rode very well all day, was with the leading group along with Cidona captain, Bobby Power. The remainder of the Cidona team however also rode extremely well and were all present in a chasing group of ten. But, alas team had a very convincing win. He came in on his own, nearly 4 mins. ahead of the second rider.

On Saturday last Robert Power was requested by the Irish Team Manager, Maurice Foster to attend trials for the Irish Time Trial team. From all reports Foster was very pleased with the Dungarvan lads performance.

Thompson also won the final stage and in doing so confirmed his overall victory. The Cidona overall placings were: Bobby Power 5th, Nicholas Butler 9th, Paddy Power 14th and Raymond Power 18th.

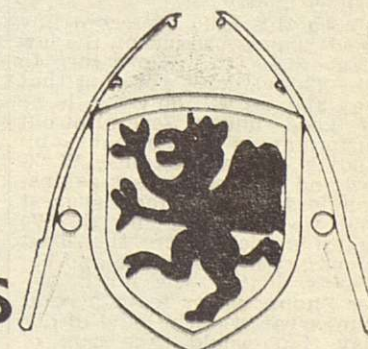

Only 35 of the 76 starters finished. Cidona were 2nd to Foster in the team classification, beating the overseas and Guinness teams.

Youghal Bookmaker's Licence Renewed

A bank draft for £45,000 was handed into Youghal District Court last Thursday on behalf of a local bookmaker in settlement of his 'account' with the Revenue Commissioners. Mr. Patrick J. Lavan, Solr., handed the bank draft into court on behalf of bookmaker John Grahame, Atlantic Park, Youghal, after which District Justice W. F. O'Connell upheld his appeal against a refusal by Supt. Maurice Murray of Midleton to renew Grahame's certificate of personal fitness to hold a bookmaker's licence. Supt. Murray's refusal had been based on the fact that Mr. Grahame had a number of convictions for the non-payment of duty on bets and also because he still had not paid mitigated fines totalling £53,000 in respect of those convictions.

However Mr. Lavan told District Justice O'Connell that following further representations the Revenue Commissioners had agreed to mitigate the fines to £45,000 and he was now handing in that amount to the court. The Justice then agreed to uphold Grahame's appeal and he granted him the certificate of personal fitness.

Club crests can be obtained from our club secretary Michael Cowming or any member of the committee for a nominal fee of £2.

LADIES COMPETITION

As an added incentive for the ladies, the club have revived a ladies section and this is due to the hard-working ladies of the committee, notably our former chairperson, Mrs. Nancy Cashman, Kitty Buckley and Cait Mulcahy.

Nevertheless all 17 anglers saw it to the finish. Results — 1st, Theresa Wright; 2nd, Joan Elstead; 3rd, Olive White; 4th, Nancy Cashman; 5th, Mary Coffey; 6th, Mary Brett; 7th, Mary Quarry; 8th, Kitty Buckley; 9th, Kathleen Young and 10th, Breda Power.

The presentation of prizes took place in Alice O'Connell's Lounge Bar, amidst great excitement. We would like to thank our sponsors, Sev Baumann for his continued support to the club; also Kitty Buckley and Pat Power Wood-Craft. Our Chairman also thanked Michael and Alice Marie O'Connor for the use of their premises for the presentation of prizes.

We would like to thank the ladies who made this competition a huge success and hope to see them all for our next in the series of ladies competitions.

TALLOW AND ROUNDABOUT NOTES

J.H.C. — Lismore 2-7 Tallow 3-3

Tallow's first round game in the junior hurling championship ended in defeat against a very strong Lismore team at Tallow on Sunday night last. Tallow played with the stiff breeze in the first half but it was Lismore who opened the scoring with a goal after about five minutes. Tallow equalised with a free from Martin McCarthy which went all the way to the Lismore net after eight minutes. Lismore added a goal and 2 points before Tallow's second major from John Beecher reduced the lead. Further points from Martin McCarthy (free) and Pat Sheehan had Tallow level with 10 minutes to the break. Lismore finished the stronger, adding 2 points without reply, leaving the half-time score — Lismore 2-4; Tallow 2-2.

Tallow faced the stiff breeze in the second half but Lismore added a point to go ahead by a goal 2-5 to 2-2. A point by Martin McCarthy (free) and a goal by Gerry Murphy left Tallow leading by a point entering the last quarter (2-5 to 3-3). This was to be Tallow's final score, and Lismore added two further points to run out winners. Tallow had a disallowed goal for a square infringement after one of the Lismore defenders own-goaled. Tallow kept up the pressure right to the end but there was no denying Lismore from their recent illness when they were hospitalised in Cork. Get well soon Han. We want to hear you cheering on the lads again soon.

During the week the panels for the Waterford Junior and Senior squads were announced for the championship. The good news for the club is that we have about 8 on the Junior panel — Martin Murphy, Jim O'Donoghue, Liam O'Brien, Steve Curley, Philly Curley, Paul Curley, Dermot Henley and Mickey Curley and we have 3 on the Senior panel — Tim Sheehan, Conle Curley and Pat Murray. Well done to all concerned.

To Colm Cunningham who was a member of the West Waterford u-16 hurling squad who reached the semi-final on Saturday last, well done.

We had no winner in the recent G.A.A. Clubs Development Draw — maybe better luck next time.

Pixtures coming up in the next few weeks: U-21 hurling semi-final in Cappoquin on this Saturday night.

S.H. Challenge v. Avonduh on Tuesday night in Ballygiblin. v. Mount Slon on Friday night and Youghal on Sunday night.

The seniors and juniors will be back in training this week for their forthcoming championship games coming up.

Intermediate Football v. Affane has been fixed for Lismore on Saturday, May 14, so Bernard Pratt will have his squad in training during the next fortnight for this important fixture. — (Padraig O Siochain, PRO).

RECENT DEATHS

MRS. NORA OWENS

We record with sincere regret the death of Mrs. Nora Owens, Knockenower, Ring, which took place at Dungarvan Hospital on Sunday, April 24. She had reached an advanced age.

A most unassuming and retiring lady, she was a good neighbour and she was held in high regard by all who knew her.

Sincere sympathy is extended to her sorrowing husband and other family relatives on their sad bereavement.

Her remains were removed on Monday evening from the hospital mortuary to Ring Church and were blessed by Rev. P. MacStacius, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. C. O'Dalaigh, P.P.

MR. PATRICK CULLINAN

We regret to record the death of Mr. Patrick Cullinan, Strandside South, Abbeyside, which occurred at Dungarvan Hospital on Monday, April 25. He was 88.

"Sonny" as he was affectionately known, was one of Abbeyside's best known personalities. A member of a well known and highly esteemed family he had worked for most of his life at Dungarvan Creamery.

During the struggle for freedom Sonny was a prominent member of the West Waterford Brigade Old IRA. Again in the emergency during the Second World War Sonny served with the LSP and subsequently with the LDF, later reformed into the Dungarvan Battalion of the FOA in which he held the rank of Lieutenant.

Her remains were removed on Tuesday evening from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church and were received by Rev. M. Cullinan, C.C.

Rev. Fr. Cullinan and Rev. Fr. O'Dea, C.C., Bruff, celebrated Requiem Mass on Wednesday morning for the happy repose of her soul. Burial took place afterwards in the adjoining cemetery when Fr. Cullinan officiated at the graveside, assisted by Fr. O'Dea, Rev. W. Carey, C.C. and Rev. J. Hooper, O.S.A.

Chief mourners — Joe McGuinness (brother); Chris McGuinness (sister); Mrs. Ryan, Clonmel (cousin), other relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements were by James Kiely & Sons.)

MRS. MARY ANN KIELY

The death of Mrs. Mary Ann Kiely (nee McGuinness), Palatine Road, Ballycampion, Bruff, Co. Limerick, took place at Glebe Nursing Home, Fedamore on Monday, April 25. She was in her early 80s.

Relict of Edward Kiely, formerly of St. Garvan's Terrace, Dungarvan, she had spent over 40 years in New York where her husband worked at Dunwoody Golf Club. On retiring they came to live in Cork and on Edward's death Mary Ann went to live with her relatives in Limerick.

A most kindly woman, she was held in high regard by a large circle of friends. Sincere sympathy is extended to her brother, sister and other relatives on their sad loss.

Her remains were removed on Tuesday evening from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church and were received by Rev. M. Cullinan, C.C.

Rev. Fr. Cullinan and Rev. Fr. O'Dea, C.C., Bruff, celebrated Requiem Mass on Wednesday morning for the happy repose of her soul. Burial took place afterwards in the adjoining cemetery when Fr. POWER FAILURE IN WEST WATERFORD

A power failure affecting the Lismore-Tallow-Ballyduff area in West Waterford occurred between 8 p.m. and 10 p.m. on last Sunday night when a tree in the network outside the E.S.B. station in Lismore caused a shortage in the line and blew fuses in the station.

The power cut caused a black-out in the areas concerned until repairs were carried out and power was restored.

Behind the SPOTLIGHT

Master of Ceremonies. The thanks expressed to the proprietors, management and staff of the hotel for the excellence of the meal and the manner in which it was served were indeed well deserved.

Supt. English and Garda Griffin suitably replied and the presentations then followed. Chief Supt. Sloyan made the presentation of a video recorder to Supt. English and Serrin Blake presented Garda Griffin with a colour television set while Garda Shanahan presented him with a suitably inscribed Waterford Crystal bowl on behalf of the Garda Representative Association. Mrs. Margaret English and Mrs. Mary Griffin were presented with bouquets of flowers by Bangarda Sweeney and Mrs. Nuala Condon of the Garda clerical staff. All the presentations were greeted with rounds of applause from the huge attendance.

A most enjoyable social occasion ended what will, without doubt, always prove a very special memory associated with their retirement for both Supt. English and Garda Griffin and their better halves.

May we add our own very good wishes to both for continued health and happiness for many years to come.

DUBLIN PROMOTION TO BOOST SOUTH EAST TOURISM

A major promotion aimed at pushing home tourism earnings in the south-east region up over the £40 million mark this year was launched by the Minister of State for Tourism, Mr. Denis Lyons, T.D. at a reception in the Burlington Hotel, Dublin last Tuesday.

The promotion mounted by the South East Regional Tourism Organisation will target home holiday makers in the greater Dublin area. It will be centred around colourful pavilion style stands, manned by personnel from the tourist offices and from the various tourism sectors in the region located in strategically placed shopping centres in Dublin and will move from area to area throughout the month of May.

A special promotional booklet detailing the wide variety of places one can stay and things one can do in the South East has also been published by SERTO, the only such regional booklet on the market.

West Waterford Notes

IN LEBANON

Best wishes for an enjoyable and safe trip to Danny Hayes, Castleyons. Tho' in failing health for a few years, he was a familiar figure at all matches in the locality and his fervent enthusiasm was greatly admired. Our sympathy is extended to his wife and family, relatives and friends. The interment took place at Conna New Cemetery, where he is to be buried.

FIANNA FAIL

As always the Clashmore Fianna Fail AGM is among the best attended meetings in this county. This year was no exception and among the large gathering of supporters was Jackie Fahey, T.D. The meeting was held at Tommy Beresford's, Clashmore, on April 19. The meeting for the election of officers was chaired by Deputy Fahey and the following were elected — Chairman, David Foley; Vice-Chairman, P. O'Keefe; Secretary, Anne McKenna; Assistant Secretary, Annette O'Keefe; Joint Treasurers, Eamonn Lombard and Michael Lombard; Youth Officer, Shirley Lombard.

Delegates to C.C., Anne McKenna, David Foley and P. O'Keefe, P.R.O., Kay Ledingham.

DEATH OF TOMMY O'DONOGHUE

The death of Tommy O'Donoghue of Lismore in Dungarvan on Saturday last has marked the end of a great era in local history. Tommy and his twin brother Patsy presently living in Youghal were thought to be the oldest living twins in Ireland. They would have celebrated their 94th birthday this year. Both men were great lovers of Irish music, song and dance. Both were talented musicians and dancers.

Uncles of David Foley, Clashmore and Joan McKenna, Graigue, Aglish we wish to express our deepest sympathy to all the family on the death of Tommy.

GOLD STAR AWARD

Fans and friends of the very talented Paddy O'Brien and his band were delighted to hear of his victory in the Gold Stars Award during the week. Paddy was up against some of the best known names in the Country and Western scene, proving him to be among the tops in the country. Continued success

While this will be SERTO's major effort for 1988, its promotional activities will not be confined to the home market. During the forthcoming summer months literature on the South East will also be presented to travellers at the Ferry Ports at Le Harve, Cherbourg, Fishguard and Pembroke Dock by specially trained SERTO personnel who will encourage tourists from abroad to spend at least some of their holiday in the region.

DATES AGREED FOR EURO ELECTIONS

Further to our references in this column last week that Fianna Fail Deputy Jackie Fahey has confirmed his intention to seek a nomination for next year's European Parliamentary elections in the Munster Constituency we have now been informed that the people of Europe generally will go to the polls during the month of June, 1989, for the third direct elections to the European Parliament.

According to the most recent copy of European Parliament News to hand, Parliament has opted for June 8-11 as the date for the elections with Ireland, Britain, The Netherlands and Denmark going to the polls on the Thursday (June 8) and the other member states voting on the Sunday (June 11). However it is for the national governments in each case to take the final decision.

In the course of a discussion on the matter during the April session of the Parliament in Strasbourg, Gene Fitzgerald, Cork (member of the Democratic Alliance which includes Fianna Fail, French Gaullists and Scottish Nationals) expressed concern with what he described as Parliament's lamentable failure to come up with proposals for a common electoral system. It is now too late for a uniform procedure to be adopted in time for next June and the elections in each case will take place according to national rules. But, he said, it was vital to see a common electoral system adopted in time for the next subsequent elections in 1994!

A proposal for a uniform system based on proportional representation was adopted by the Political Affairs Committee of the Parliament in March 1985 but this proposal has yet to come before a full sitting of Parliament. It certainly seems to be a case of big bodies move slowly!

LOVE IS TEASING

We have received a request for the words of an old ballad with a plaintive tune, "Love Is Teasing," from a reader in Cork City and to oblige we have made it our choice for the ballad corner this week:—

I wish, I wish, I wish in vain
 I wish that I was a youth again.
 But a youth again I can never be
 Till apples grow on an ivy tree.

I left my father, I left my mother,
 I left all my brothers and my sisters, too.
 I left all my friends and my own relations,
 I left them all for to follow you.

But the sweetest apple is the soonest rotten
 And the heart of love is the soonest cold
 And what can't be cured, love, must be endured love,
 And now I'm bound for America.

Oh, love is pleasan' and love is teasin',
 And love is a pleasure when first it's new.
 But as it grows older sure the love grows colder,
 And it fades away like the morning dew.

For love and porter make a young man older
 And love and whiskey make him old and grey.
 But what cannot be cured, love, must be endured love,
 And now I am bound to America.
