BUS FROM PARISH TO ALL-IRELAND

Last Sunday a packed bus load of GAA enthusiasts left the parish for Dublin's Croke Park to witness Cork and Meath footballers in action. It was a hard, close and exciting game, which looked like going either way in the last few min-utes, with Meath gaining the verdict by that single point. Both counties had four All-Ireland honours to their credit prior to last Sunday and the Royal County's win should now give Cork that extra incentive next, year to equalise on that score with the inclusion of the 'equaliser" of course.

CLUB NOTES WINTER LEAGUES

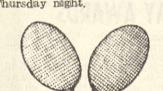

By the time you have read these notes, most of Dungar-yan's teams will have encoun-tened their first real test of the 1988/89 season. Team practice is now in full swing with four teams moulding together for what looks like a very excitting badminton season. CLUB NIGHT

Thursday night is club night for new team members and last Thursday saw the recent immense pressure on court space diminished with 20 players en-joying uninterrupted games for the full night.

BAUMANN START-OF-SEASON

Our start of season tournament is now at its final stage with the final being played on Tuesday. October 11.

On Monday night, Oct. 3, we had our final first, round clash when Sean Cleary narrowly led on the night it was Anne who won this nerve tingling en-counter by the narrowest of margins 9-7, in the fifth, to send Tommy's ecstatic team through his crew to a 9 sets to 8 victory over John Foley's team. At No. 3, Donal O Faolain de-feated Frances Carroll 3-0. At

No. 5, Nancy Fielding lost 3-0 to George Harney. At No. 1, Sean Cleary beat John Foley 3-1. At No. 4, John O'Sullivan 10st 3-0 to our juvenile, Eoin O'Maho-ney. The saying "save the best 'till last." applied to the decid-ing match here when Paddy Murphy on Sean's team had to call on all his experience to hold off a very strong and spirited challenge from Kieran Foley as he won 3-1 to edge Sean's team through.

Thursday night Oct. 6th was semi-finals night when Tony Keavers team and Tommy But-lers team qualified.

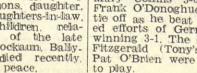

In the first semi-final. Tony's team beat Jim Harty's team by 3 matches to 1 (9 sets to 4). First on were the No. 4's and here Pat Culliname could find no answer to Paul 'Whiz-Kid' O'Brien as he lost 3-0. At No. 1 Tony Keaver was that bit shar-per as he won 3-1. At No. 5, Rene De Fusco was in fine form as he saw off the challenge of Mary Collins 3-0. At No. 3, Frank O'Donoghue finished the tie off as he beat the determin-ed efforts of Gerry McCullagh, winning 3-1. The No. 2's, Fiona Fitzgerald (Tony's team) and Pat O'Brien were not required to play.

Up in Cappoquin, also on Sun-day. An Rinn will be hoping to keep their unbeaten junior hur-ling record of this year intact by beating Ballysaggart in the Western junior 'A' hurling final. this will be the only game at this venue — it being the final adult championship game on the Western Board's 1988 programme

AN RINN V. BALLYSAGGART

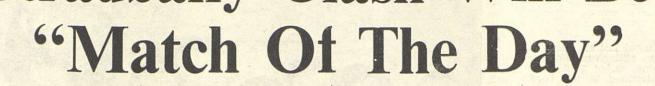

When these teams clashed in the league section of this championship, they played a 1-7 all draw, with Ballysaggart coming from behind just on the stroke of time to earn a second chance. An Rinn have played a total of seven games so far — they having had to so far — they having had to play St. Mary's three times — while Ballysaggart have played six. The Gaeltacht team are unbeaten and played two drawn matches, while Ballysaggart, who last won the junior hurling title in 1972, drew one and lost one-to Clashmore. The following are their scoring records:-

Clashmore 2-8 Ballysaggart 1-9; Tourin 2-4 Ballysaggart 1-7; An Rinn 1-7 Ballysaggart 1-8; St. Mary's 0-10 Ballysaggart 4-8; Lismore 2-13

An Rinn/ 3-13: Clashmore 2-13 An Rinn 1-15: Ardmore 1-8 An Rinn 7-8: St. Mary's 2-6 An Rinn 1-7: Ballysaggart 1-7 An Rinn 4-13; Tourin 2-3 An Rinn 2-6: St. Mary's 1-9 An Rinn 1-6: St. Mary's 0-8

A careful study of the above A careful study of the above, in my view would give a slight i advantage to An Rinn. They appear to have the greater number of seasoned campaign-ers available to them. It has been said many times in the past, that had they concentra-ted on hurling, rather than on football, they would have ach-iered success before now They ieved success before now. They Modeligo 1, like many others, won the junior 'B' title last wrote them in as possible Westyear and it would be a very sat-isfactory achievement if they were to take this junior 'A' tible were to take this junior 'A' thie in the following season. With Noel O Murchu, Dan Morrissey, Tomas O Meachair, Michael Houlihan, Ml. O Droma, Nioclas and Carthac Mac Craith, Sean Curran Fr. Walsh and company in form they must be strongly fancied. Ballysaggart are one of a number of clubs in this division who seem to have achieved much less than they have demuch less than they have de-served for continuous effort over the years. They have al-ways had a good hurling team. but somehow they seldom had what might be described as a balanced team. They have al-ways needed just a couple of players to make them as good players to make them as good as the best in the grade. Things have gone very well for them so far this year and who knows but this is the year that they have got the players to emulate but this is the year that they have got the players to emulate their team of 16 years ago. Pat and James Bennett, Adrian Maher, Pat Roche, Liam Ryan, Billy O'Gorman, John Cashel, Pat Fitzgerald and company are the men who will lead Bal-lysaggart, here and having drawn with An Rinn in their previous meeting, will no doubt be confident of going one betbe confident of going one bet-ter here. Hathgormack are a strong team with a fair amount of skill. I was told by a clubman down there that they are a very eager bunch of experienced players with notions of becom-ing a hurling force in the very near future. They took the East in very convincing style and expect to take this 'B' hurling title at their first appearance. finals and it was unfair to have people travelling home in dark started at a late hour in order to accommodate this kind of thing.

WALK-OVER

The first game which was due to be played here, Ardmore/ Clashmore v. Modeligo/Sltabh gCua did not materialise because the first mentioned side were unable to field. Three weeks ago the same group with-drew in minor football.

The members responsible for organising this group notified the Board secretary in plenty of time s_0 the cancellation caused little disruption. Just the some this sort of thing care

For both counties, their game on October 30, will be their first in the hurling league. The game has been fixed for Dungarvan and there will not be a curtain-raiser. The question as to whether Fraher Field would take the kind of crowd that would be attracted to a game like this, was discussed in depth before a decision was taken to play the game here.

Tipperary are sure to have a huge following now that their disappointment of losing the All-Ireland has dissipated so As it stands now, a total of four matches remain to be played in this championship, we can expect a crowd com-parable with that which saw us play Galway in our first match this year. With seven or eight of the selected panel unavailof the selected panel unaval-able for a variety of reasons, it is not possible to arrange a much needed challenge game and it is possible that we may have to field in our first league match without a decent trial.

'County And City' To Be Re-Opened As Private

The sale of Waterford's County and City Infirmary to a British medical concern for £250,000 has been sanctioned by the Commissioners of Charifable Donations and Br by the Commissioners of Charitable Donations and Bequesits of Ireland. The offer was made by Shawline Medical Services from Kent when the 200-year-old hospital was put up for sale by public auction after it became a casuality of the health cuts in October 1097 October. 1987.

The contract documents are due to be signed on October 20 but they contain a clause enabling Shawline to opt out of re-lopening the hospital if it is not put on the VHI's list of approved hospitals within a year. Because the infirmary was a public voluntary hospital it was hoped it would continue to used for medical purposes but they now concede that without support their hopes may not be realised. PRIVATE HOSPITAL

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

The photograph for our "Remembering Other Days" series this week takes us back to the heady days of the early sixties when Rings were one of the most popular pub games at that time. Ducey's pub in Main Street, Dungarvan, was to the forefront at promoting the game and the annual house tournament attracted a huge entry for the much sought after Ducey Cup. The winner of the year in question was Tommy Woods of Caseyville and he is seen here receiving the trophy from the then very popular proprietor, John Ducey, since sadly gone to his eternal reward. In the photo are (front, 1. to r.) Johnny McCarthy, John Fennell, John Michael Duggan, Mickey Crotty, John Woods, Tommy Woods, Joe Duggan, James Ducey, John Ducey, John Beres ford, J. COLLISION AT YOUGHAL BRIDGE

Matthew Barry, 2 College Road. Ardmore pleaded guilty to a charge of driving with excess alcohol at Youghal Bridge on May 6. A second charge of dangerous driving on the occa-sion was dismissed. The court was told by In-spector Malone that Barry who is unemployed, crossed to his incorrect side of the road while driving across Youghal Bridge on the occasion and collided with an oncoming car. The Inspector added that in another court last, month Barry had been convicted of druink driv-ing and was disqualified for 12 months. months.

months. When Barry told the court that he got a puncture which caused his car to go over to its incorrect side of the road. District Justice O'Connell dis-missed the dangerous driving charge charge.

However he then told the defendant that he must now be disqualified for 3 years to which Barry replied. "that's fine sir, I don't mind."

Our choice for the ballad corner this week is "The Road To Ballybay." which we came across in a collection of the songs of Percy French. Bally-bay, like Ballyjamesduff is in Co. Cavan where the redoubtable Percy French found the inspiration for so many of his great poems and wonderful songs:-

Is this the road to Ballybay? Sez I to Miss Magee: You're leaving it behind you, Sez Maryanne to me. I turned and walked SO beside her.

And 'tis only fair to say It was very pleasant walkin' On the road to Ballybay.

Chorus:

Ballybay Ballybay, 'Twas a dark and winthry day. But the sun was surely shinin' On the road to Ballybay.

Is this the road to fame and wealth?

Sez I to Miss Magee: Ye've got the brains, ye've got the health

Sez Maryanne to me, But still I want a comrade To praise me an' to blame, An' keep me from the traps that's laid

Upon the road to fame Ballybay, Ballybay,

No man could go astray With a guide like her beside him

On the road to Ballybay.

Is this the road to Paradise? Sez I to Miss Magee: I'm thinking that it might be. Sez Maryanne to me. Oh. I saw the love-light leppin'

In a pair of roguish eyes. n' I knew we two were steppin' An'

On the road to Paradise.

Ballybay, Ballybay, The birds are far away: But our hearts they sang together.

On the road to Ballybay.
