FARMERS' RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES DURING SHOOTING SEASON

The shooting season for pheasants got off to a flying start under ideal weather conditions on Tuesday last, November 1 and from first light on Tuesday morning fowling were on the move in force. The shooting season will extend over the next three months and in addition to pheasants will include other game birds such as duck, woodcock and snipe.

To coincide with the opening of the season the IFA have issued a warning to members reminding them of the rights and liabilities of farmers in regard to the shooting season and advising them to insist that any persons whom they allow on to their lands during the period will operate fully within the terms agreed between the IFA and the National Association of Regional Game Councils (NARGC), to which most gun clubs in the country are affiliated.

The main feature of the agreed procedures for the 1988/89 season is that permission to shoot over land will be granted by farmers to apply only to sportsmen who either have an insurance policy covering their shooting activities or who are members of the NARGC Game Hunting Compensation Fund (GHC Fund). This fund was established by the NARGC to cover its members for compensation claims from persons who suffer injury, loss or damage to property arising out of negligent acts of such members in the course of shooting activities, up to a limit of £300,000 for any one claim.

Taken in conjunction with the NARGC's ongoing direction to its members on gun safety precautions, the procedures referred to are designed to regulate shooting activities in an orderly manner, to minimise the risk of accidents and to protect the farmer's position in the event of compensation claims arising from the act or neglect of persons shooting over his land.

But all possible contingencies cannot be taken care of under these procedures as certain anomalies exist in the law of Occupiers Liability which could place property owners at a disadvantage in certain circumstances as a "good mark" for a compensation claim.

Accordingly, farmers are advised of two other precautions which they should take to further reduce their exposure to possible compensation claims. The first states that when giving permission to gun clubs or individual sportsmen to shoot over lands, farmers should stipulate clearly that such persons entering on the lands do so at their own risk. However, as a final safeguard, farmers are advised to have their own public liability insurance in case of accidents or injuries arising from the activities of "persons unknown" or of known individuals who do not conform to the NARGC/Gun Club rules and procedures as briefly outlined above.

JOHN TREACY AIMS AT 61,500 DOLLAR JACKPOT

While an estimated 8,000 runners took part in Dublin City's Millennium Marathon and fun-run last Monday, it is the New York Marathon on Sunday next which has been targeted by John Treacy and the 61,500 dollar jackpot which will go to the winner. As a bonus a Mercedes car will be thrown in for a course or world record on the occasion. Prizes for the minor placings are not to be sneezed at either with $25,000 for the runner-up, $20,000 for third and $16,000 for the fourth runner home.

Since returning from the Seoul Olympics, Treacy has regained some of his lost confidence by winning two 10,000

Minister Officially Opens New £150,000 School For Glenbeg

In the words of his Lordship Most Rev. Dr. Russell, Bishop of the Diocese, Thursday, October 27 was the day of thanks, a day of recollection of the past and a day of prayer for the future for the people who form the growing community of the Brickey Valley. Bishop Russell was addressing the assembled gathering which was present for the blessing and official opening of the new £150,000 primary school at Glenbeg, outside Dungarvan. Or as the popular principal teacher at the school, Mrs. Eileen O'Mahoney, more succinctly put it when she spoke to the large crowd which attended the ceremony, "this is the day the Lord made."

It was, miraculously almost to relate, in the midst of a long spell of the worst weather experienced in years, a fine day on which the sun actually shone forth again, making the weather conditions for the outdoor ceremony at the school as pleasant as might be desired at this time of year. A light breeze caused the bunting which festooned the new, modern building to flutter and indeed the entire setting was one of joyous celebration.

The new 3-teacher school caters for a total of 95 pupils.

HEART OF THE COMMUNITY

In his address, to the pupils, parents and big crowd which attended the ceremony, Most Rev. Dr. Russell said that this was a very, very important day for the local community, stressing the point that small was beautiful. Dr. Russell said that a 600 or 700 pupil school was not required to produce the calibre of persons needed by the country. The school was the heart of the community and the school and the family went hand in hand to develop and mature the growing members of the community. This, he said, was a day of thanks for all concerned in the building of the new school, a day of recollection of the parents who had sent children to the old school for almost the past 100 years and a day of prayer for the future.

Dr. Russell then thanked the parents for the tremendous help they had provided in having the new school built and he praised the contractor and the workmen for the very fine quality of their work.

The Liturgy of the Word followed during which Dr. Russell performed the solemn blessing of the new building and the surrounding recreation area.

MINISTER WAS IMPRESSED

Mr. Frank Fahey T.D., Minister of State at the Department of Education then performed the official opening of the school. He had, he said, first heard about Glenbeg when a deputation of parents came to Dublin and told him in no uncertain terms of the terrible conditions that then prevailed in the old school building. He was so impressed by the case put forward that he decided then to proceed with the project as quickly as possible. As a result they now had this very fine building with classrooms of particularly high quality.

The Minister of State then stated that if policies of other days prevailed to the present, Glenbeg school would have been closed and it would have been amalgamated with some other area. Indeed, they now had a school of which they could well feel proud and which had come back from 42 pupils to its present enrolment of 95 pupils.

Minister Fahey then referred in a special way to the presence of former principal of Glenbeg, Mr. Pat O'Neill and to the former teachers Mrs. Maisie Halley and Mrs. Mary McDonald and said that they all owed a great debt of gratitude for the work they had done over the years. A great round of applause greeted these remarks by the Minister. Applause also greeted his praise of the present principal of the school Mrs. Eileen O'Mahoney and the teachers Mrs. B. Cleary and Miss S. Clarke.

The Minister concluded his remarks by declaring that as a gesture of appreciation of the wonderful efforts made by the local community in having the school built he would provide a small grant of £1,000 for the promotion of games in the school. In addition he told the pupils that in honour of the occasion they could have a free day to be taken at the discretion of the principal. Needless to say both of these remarks were greeted with spontaneous applause.

The Principal Mrs. O'Mahoney, who with Mr. Pat Murphy saw to it that everything ran smooth, then addressed the attendance, first in Gaedhlig binn blasta na Deise and then as Béarla. She extended a welcome to the new Parish Priest, Very Rev. Canon Gregory Power and to the curates Fr. Carey and Fr. Rodgers and to the "old curate" Very Rev. Fr. Callanan, who is now P.P. at Ballnameela. The other curate, Fr. Jim Griffin was present in his capacity as Chairman of the School Board of Management and also acted as M.C. she also welcomed the three Department Inspectors who were present, Mr. C. Eames, Mr. S. Kirby and Mr. L. Denis.

Mrs. O'Mahoney joined in praising the wonderful effort of the parents committee at the school who in a short period of 9 months raised a total of £12,000. "That," said Mrs. O'Mahoney, "is unity and that is community."

A HISTORIC DAY

The concluding address was given by Fr. Griffin in the course of which he stated:—
 Mar Cathaoirleach ar Bord Baineistochta Chleamh Beag, ta se da dhulgas orm fíor cáin fáilte a chur roimh ar gairteoir, uaisle ar an ocaid stair-tul seo.

Ta athas mor orm a bheith anseo d'Oscailt Poiblí na scoile seo. Shíl mé nach bhfeicfinn go deo e ach feach anois... go fáirsing aguis go galanta. "Beir-eann Buan Bua" deirtear agus nach fíor e.

"Finding" 15 Salmon Was Like Winning National Lottery

A defence solicitor told District Justice W. F. Connell at Dungarvan Court last week that it was like winning the National Lottery when his client found a net containing fifteen small salmon on the river Colligan near Dungarvan last July.

The District Justice however did not accept the "find" theory and said the aspect of the case which disturbed him most was the persistent evidence given under oath by one of the two defendants.

Is There A Hope For The Future Of The Port Of Dungarvan?

Yes, in the years ahead, states the Minister for the Marine in an exclusive interview with Tom Tobin for the "Dungarvan Leader."

See Page 6.

MANAGEMENT CHANGES AT WATERFORD CRYSTAL

Major changes have taken place within Waterford Crystal it was announced last week-end. Corkman Colm O'Connell has been replaced as managing director by Billy Power who is currently general manufacturing manager.

O'Connell has been appointed chairman of Waterford Crystal and will remain as a director of the full Waterford board. Power however has been given full responsibility for the day to day running of the crystal division taking in its plants at Waterford and Dungarvan.

SEARCHING FOR SCRAP

Whelan in evidence said he had only given O'Shea a lift. Witness was returning from the town dump where he had been searching for scrap.

O'Shea said he found the fishing net in the Colligan river with the fish in it. "I took them before somebody else did" he added.

Mr Niall King Solr. said that for O'Shea it was like winning the National Lottery when finding the net and the fish.

District Justice O'Connell however refused to accept the defendants' stories. He convicted them both of having the unlawfully captured salmon in their possession and fined them £10 each with an additional £3 fine in respect of each of the 15 fish.

URBAN COUNCILLOR BEREAVED

The death took place at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan on Monday last, October 31, after a protracted illness, of Mrs. Kathleen Goode, Church Street, Dungarvan. Wife of Clr. Deslan Goode, Dungarvan U.D.C. she is also survived by her son, Paul, Billy and Owen and by her daughter Phil to all of whom as well as to the other bereaved relatives deepest sympathy is extended.

O'Shea was fined a further £30 and Whelan £10 on other related charges, and each defendant was ordered to pay costs and expenses totalling £500.

Mr. Fergus Power, Solr., prosecuted for the Southern Regional Fisheries Board.

DUNGARVAN BUNGALOW GUTTED BY FIRE

The new bungalow residence of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Curran, at Ballnamuck, Dungarvan, was gutted by fire in the early hours of last Monday morning. The fire was discovered shortly after midnight and Dungarvan Fire Brigade was called to the scene at 12.30 a.m. However despite their best efforts the house and most of the contents were destroyed in the blaze. Mr. Curran sustained rather severe burns to his hands for which he was treated at Ardkeen Regional Hospital but fortunately all the other members of the family escaped without injury.

BAN FOLLOWS FAREWELL DRINKS

A young man who was since stated to have emigrated to Australia pleaded guilty through his solicitor at Dungarvan Court last week to driving with excess alcohol at the Pike, Dungarvan, on March 20 last. He was John Gough, Villierstown and Inspector Pat Tierney who prosecuted told the Court that at 11 p.m. on the night in question, Garda Dunlea was on duty at the Pike and signalled an oncoming car to stop. The car failed to do so and continued on in the direction of Inspector Tierney said that Garda Dunlea followed the car into the town and at 11.55 p.m. located it. He recognised the car and spoke to the two occupants, one of whom was the defendant who said that he did not recognise that the Garda had signalled him to stop. He was taken to the Garda Station where a blood sample was taken. On subsequent analysis this was found to have an alcohol concentration of 133 mg/ml.

Ms. M. MacCraith, Solr. (J. P. Gordon & Co.) said that the defendant was a young man in his early 20's who had since emigrated to Australia. Two days before he left he went out with friends for a few drinks and on his way home he was stopped. She pointed out that the concentration was not very great. District Justice W. F. O'Connell imposed a fine of £50 with a 12 months mandatory disqualification and an endorsement.

LISMORE AND DISTRICT NOTES

A FISHY TALE To coincide with the saga of the Alaskan whales rescue, we learned that Lismore had its own fishy story last week, when a porpoise turned up in mysterious circumstances in New Street, Lismore. It was spotted by pupils of the C.B.S. on their way to school on Wednesday morning. A video of the creature, approx. 4 ft. in length was made by one of the teachers. It was removed by Mr. Willie Kelly, Glencarril and was examined by Mr. Tom Ryan and Mr. Arthur Hogan. Wildlife Conservation Officers who wished to ascertain how it had died. There was heavy flooding in the Blackwater at the time. It is thought the porpoise was washed inland by the floods. How it arrived in New Street remains a mystery.

LATE JIM FOLEY We regret to record the unexpected death of Mr. Jim Foley at his home in Chapel Street, Lismore, on Saturday, 22nd October. His funeral took place to St. Carthage's Cemetery on Tuesday, October 25th. To all his relatives we extend our deepest sympathy. May he rest in peace.

MISSION SALE OF WORK The Sale of Work in aid of Fr. Coleman's and Fr. Broderick's Mission will take place in Lismore Hotel and your support for this good cause will be greatly appreciated. Gifts of all kinds and good wearable clothing may be given to any member of the committee for inclusion in the Sale. As usual there will be a wide selection of items, all at attractive prices, plus spinner and raffles. Full details of this event, taking place on Sunday, 13th November, will appear in our advertisement in next week's issue.

LISMORE F.C. NOTES Lismore went to the top of the 2nd Div. in The Red House League on Sunday last, thanks to a resounding win in Mogeely by 7 goals to 2. On a very narrow pitch we found it extremely difficult, and while we led by 2 goals to nil at the break, Mogeely equalised early in the second half. However, we regained our composure and scored 5 more before the final whistle. Scorers were—Brendan Lawton (3), Tommy Pratt (2), Paul Prendergast and Brian Shanahan. Team—M. Fitzgerald, P. Fitzgerald, K. Foley, P. Ahearne, P. Power, C. Barry, S. Prendergast, T. Pratt, P. Prendergast, B. Shanahan, P. Lawton (capt.), Subs. S. Daly and K. Lawton both used.

LISMORE CAMOGIE NOTES After beating Butlerstown by the narrowest of margins in the replay of the u/18 championship quarter-final we went on to play Ardkeen/Mt. St. On last Saturday in Kill in the semi-final. The pitch was in good condition, considering the recent rain and Lismore elected to play with the wind in the first half. We applied the early pressure and within five minutes a great movement down the field ended up with the ball in the back of the net via Michelle Kennelly. Competition was fierce and the Lismore girls

CAPPOQUIN AND DISTRICT NOTES

GAAPQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES: MINOR FOOTBALLERS CAPTURE CO. TITLE Affane 3-8; St. Marys (Kill) 0-5 It was glory for our minor footballers at Walsh Park last Saturday when they captured the 'B' Co. Title, thus completing an historic minor double in 1988.

However that notorious bad habit of 'slow starters' once again plagued the team as they never played with urgency or determination throughout that first half. It must be said though that the softening up tactics of our opponents did not put our lads off their game and it speaks volumes for their self control and the coaching they received that they never lost their cool despite some ruthless tackling. Despite this lethargic opening we had a one point lead at half time - 2-0 to 0-5.

But, what a display of football Affane gave in the second half. They played powerhouse football and were a joy to watch. With Michael Ormonde, Tomas Mansfield and Donagh Cummins, producing superlative performances, and the rest of the team playing inspired stuff there was never any doubt but that the 'Co. Title was Western-bound. The quality of some of those long range scores were top class and that final victory margin was a true reflection of the winners superiority in that glorious second half.

Team - C. Cullinane, S. Costin, K. O'Reilly, M. Reddy, J. Burke, K. Veale, M. Ormonde, D. Cummins, T. Mansfield, T. Murphy, R. Flynn, C. Barry, D. Kelleher and P. J. Veale, Subs. - J. Cahill for T. Murphy; L. Lacey for K. Veale; G. Morrissey for P. J. Veale.

Jubilant Scenes—There were jubilant scenes when the team made their return to Cappoquin and Affane on Saturday evening. The team bus with colours proudly flying and team members beaming with delight was followed by a cavalcade of cars with horns blowing. Townspeople applauded as they passed on their way to Walsh's Hotel for a well deserved victory meal. Afterwards bonfires blazed at Affane Cross to finally seal the triumph.

Team Mentors—When teams are beaten it is the selectors who are blamed for this and the comments usually are - 'Why didn't they do that?' So now that we are victorious and could finish them off, Mick Walsh dominated at the back as did Donagh Cummins in the front three but there was little cohesive support forthcoming. Even the late introduction of Brian Murray for his first game of the season brought no inspiration. They certainly have a plentiful of goals.

U/21 Football—Our under 21 footballers are in action on Saturday next against Killorossanty in the Western semi-final. Killorossanty are raging favourites but our young team have their talk up at present, and will make the Comeraghmen fight hard for victory here. So come on lads keep that winning run going.

Good Record—Our minors may have created a record this season as last week's Co. Final game was their 24th game in the championships, without defeat.

MRS. MARGARET CODY, MONALOUR, LISMORE We record with great regret, the death of Mrs. Margaret Cody (nee O'Sullivan), a well known and respected member of the rural community who died at Ardkeen Hospital on October 22nd.

Very Rev. W. Phelan, P.P. Cappoquin, Rev. S. O'Dowd, C.C. and Rev. Fr. Francis, O.C.S.O. officiated at the reception of the remains in St. Mary's Church and when the funeral took place to St. Declan's Cemetery in the presence of large corteges. Very many floral tributes, were received. She is survived and mourned by her daughter Noreen Michael (son-in-law), Emma and Maria (grandchildren) and by her sisters and brother. (J. C. Murray & Sons, Undertakers, Cappoquin).

CATS BOWLING TOURNAMENT Scores for Sunday next, Nov. 7th—Con Power, John Whelan, Joe Geary, Joe Power, Maurice Gannon, John McGrath, Paulie Finnussa, Jimmy Power and Ollie Flynn.

DEATH It is with deep regret, we record the death of Mr. Joseph Lineen late of Ballyin. Full report next issue.

LISMORE GOLF CLUB NOTES The past weekend was a historic one in the annals of the Golf Club with the official opening of the new extension. Many months of hard work came to fruition on Friday night when John O'Reilly, Chairman of the Munster Branch of G.U.I. cut the tape to officially open the extension which comprises a new lounge, locker room and toilets. Title was Western-bound. The quality of some of those long range scores were top class and that final victory margin was a true reflection of the winners superiority in that glorious second half.

Team - C. Cullinane, S. Costin, K. O'Reilly, M. Reddy, J. Burke, K. Veale, M. Ormonde, D. Cummins, T. Mansfield, T. Murphy, R. Flynn, C. Barry, D. Kelleher and P. J. Veale, Subs. - J. Cahill for T. Murphy; L. Lacey for K. Veale; G. Morrissey for P. J. Veale.

Jubilant Scenes—There were jubilant scenes when the team made their return to Cappoquin and Affane on Saturday evening. The team bus with colours proudly flying and team members beaming with delight was followed by a cavalcade of cars with horns blowing. Townspeople applauded as they passed on their way to Walsh's Hotel for a well deserved victory meal. Afterwards bonfires blazed at Affane Cross to finally seal the triumph.

Team Mentors—When teams are beaten it is the selectors who are blamed for this and the comments usually are - 'Why didn't they do that?' So now that we are victorious and could finish them off, Mick Walsh dominated at the back as did Donagh Cummins in the front three but there was little cohesive support forthcoming. Even the late introduction of Brian Murray for his first game of the season brought no inspiration. They certainly have a plentiful of goals.

U/21 Football—Our under 21 footballers are in action on Saturday next against Killorossanty in the Western semi-final. Killorossanty are raging favourites but our young team have their talk up at present, and will make the Comeraghmen fight hard for victory here. So come on lads keep that winning run going.

Good Record—Our minors may have created a record this season as last week's Co. Final game was their 24th game in the championships, without defeat.

MRS. MARGARET CODY, MONALOUR, LISMORE We record with great regret, the death of Mrs. Margaret Cody (nee O'Sullivan), a well known and respected member of the rural community who died at Ardkeen Hospital on October 22nd.

Very many floral tributes, were received. She is survived and mourned by her daughter Noreen Michael (son-in-law), Emma and Maria (grandchildren) and by her sisters and brother. (J. C. Murray & Sons, Undertakers, Cappoquin).

LISMORE GOLF CLUB NOTES The past weekend was a historic one in the annals of the Golf Club with the official opening of the new extension. Many months of hard work came to fruition on Friday night when John O'Reilly, Chairman of the Munster Branch of G.U.I. cut the tape to officially open the extension which comprises a new lounge, locker room and toilets. The blessing was performed by Canon Power and Dean Bowler. Capt. Pat Norris thanked all, especially the clubhouse committee who put so much work into the undertaking. Games played on Oct. 28:— Division 1: Tavern 5; Lindsays 3; Morrisseys 3; Dunvegan 4; Old Still 4. Division 2: Cotters 8; Toby Jug 0; Deckies 4; Lindsays 4; Tavern 'B' 3; Dunnes 5.

SOCCER: PINWOOD UTD. TAKE LEAGUE CUP: PAT WALSH HAT-TRICK WINS THEM FIRST TROPHY Pinewood Utd. 3; Cappoquin 0 Pinewood Utd. are the new holders of the Tony Bolger League Cup. Three great second half goals from winger Pat Walsh gave them a totally deserved victory in the final at Lismore on Monday. A scoreless first half gave little indication of the goal-rush to come which the winger began in the 8th minute with a splendid header from a corner. As Cappoquin came forward desperately seeking an equaliser the gaps appeared at the back and Walsh is too good a player to miss copybook chances.

It was an effective team performance by the winners. They came seeking a win and used their resources to much better effect than the holders. With Walsh, Michael Ryan, Walter Kearney, Richie Crowe and captain Tom Guiry made an enormous contribution.

Disaster day for Cappoquin and once again they did not make the best of the panel strength. But on the play they can have no complaints for they made the chances and could finish them off. Mick Walsh dominated at the back as did Donagh Cummins in the front three but there was little cohesive support forthcoming. Even the late introduction of Brian Murray for his first game of the season brought no inspiration. They certainly have a plentiful of goals.

Pinewood—R. Guiry, J. Sheehan, M. Ryan, A. Sheehan, W. Kearney, R. Crowe, G. Coffey, T. Guiry, S. Ryan, J. Hogan, P. Walsh, B. Fahey. Cappoquin—L. Morrissey, S. Fraher, E. McLoughlin, M. Morrissey, M. Walsh, M. Power, J. Mason, W. Moore, D. Cummins, F. Murray, G. Morrissey, B. Murray.

Paddy Mason refereed and the linesmen were Tom Griffin and Len Fraser in a game which, at times, became over robust. ROWING CLUB A.G.M. Cappoquin Rowing Club held their Annual General Meeting in the clubhouse on this Saturday, Nov. 5 at 8 p.m. sharp.

SOCCER: FIRST FULL LEAGUE PROGRAMME With the welcome improvement in the weather a full programme of Red House League matches was played on Sunday, with the exception of the Cappoquin v. Pinewood tie and these sides met on Monday afternoon in the Tony Bolger League Cup semi-final.

DIVISION 1: Valley Rangers 2; Pittown 1; Killeagh 2; Youghal 2; Ballyduff 2; Affane 2; Bride View 2; Ardmore 2. DIVISION 2: Mogeely 2; Lismore 7; Modeligo 2; Inch 2; Grange 1; Pinewood Rgs. 1; Glenview 9; Ballysaggart 2.

A day of draws in Division 1 and high scores in Division 2 at Mogeely and Mallevy but, by no means, can the destination of the Div. 2 title be considered a foregone conclusion, as we saw at Modeligo where we saw Inch secure a most creditable 2-2 draw with Modeligo, who had already taken points at Lismore. A display of surprising and satisfying quality from the East, Cork side and, on this form, they will be no pushover in any competition.

On heavy ground where the grass was a little too high, both sides found it hard to settle in a scoreless first half where the chances were created but the finishing was never on a par with the approaches. So all the goals, came in the second half and Modeligo twice had to come from behind through the medium of two marvellous Nicky Donovan free kicks.

Modeligo's followers considered Inch's first score something of an o.s. but the indefatigable Eamonn Kent must take a share of the credit for Inch. The period of equality was short lived and when the Modeligo goalkeeper was penalised - in an impossible situation - Peter Savage made no mistake from the spot to put Inch back in front again. But Nicky Donovan rescued Modeligo again and there was no further score in a thoroughly enjoyable and totally sporting encounter which gave Len Fraser no problems.

An uncertain performance from Modeligo, short a few regulars they struggled throughout the field and at the end were surely glad to share the points. Nicky Donovan, Conor Culloo, John Coleman, Jim O'Shea and Nick Troy were best.

A good day for Inch. James Fogarty, Peter Savage the Fitzgergards, Flanagan, Denis Collins and Dermot Sexton did consistently well in a good team performance. Modeligo—M. Reddy, N. Troy, J. Barron, O. O'Neill, J. O'Shea, R. Kiely, V. Donovan, J. Byrne, N. Donovan, P. Troy, C. Culloo, J. Coleman, J. Cashman. Inch—J. Fogarty, P. Savage, D. Griffin, P. Fitzgerald, E. Flanagan, A. Fitzgerald, P. Flanagan, P. McMahon, D. Collins, T. Collins, D. Sexton, T. Savage, E. Kent, A. Budds.

On next Saturday Liam Lannon will be in the Munster team to play Leinster in Waterford. It's a great honour to be selected for the Munster team and the club wish him the best of luck. —P.R.O.

RAILWAY ATHLETIC F.C. Under 14 Match Off - Our under 14's travelled to Ferrybank on Saturday morning last and returned home without kicking a ball, as the official referee did not turn up. This was very disappointing for the lads, not to mention the cost of the journey. It is indeed very sad to see this kind of thing happening. According to the rule, the match will now have to be re-fixed for a new date.

Next Weekend - The club will have no league games on this coming weekend but there may be some friendlies arranged. We have no details on these as we go to press, but players will be notified as soon as arrangements are made.

Well Done Paddy—Well done to committee member Paddy Mason, who very successfully completed a schoolboys referees course in Waterford recently. Paddy is our club representative for schoolboy league games who up to now has been doing an excellent job and I'm sure will go for more strength to strength from here on.

On Injured List - Kieran Cotter, a regular full back in our under 14 team is at present out of action with a hand injury. Let's hope that Kieran will be back to full fitness very soon and in the thick of the action again.

TOURIN BADMINTON CLUB With the season under way and great enthusiasm within the club, we are looking forward to an exciting year of badminton.

Two of our teams were in action last week. Section C had a good victory over Dungarvan on Tuesday night, beating them 7-1 away. Unfortunately luck was not with the 4th Div. as they were beaten 6-2 at home to Old Parish on Wednesday night. However, during the previous week Section 2, who are in excellent form at the moment beat Holycross 6-2.

Congratulations are extended to Paddy and Brian on their recent wedding, also get well wishes to John Morrissey who is out of competition as a result of injury.

CAPPOQUIN BALLINAMEELA A.C. On Sunday last, four of our athletes represented the club in Kilmacow. All ran extremely well. Results in detail:— Girls u/10: Christine Colleder 5th; Girls u/15: Niamh Scallan 4th; Boys u/15: Martin Lacey 3rd; Boys u/15: Felim Power 26th.

Munster Cross Country—The best of luck to all our athletes next Sunday in the Munster Cross Country Championships.

IMPRESSIVE DISPLAY IN CORK—The Cappoquin Rugby Club's first visit to Cork saw them take on Shandon in an entertaining, competitive game. Cappoquin were very much on top in the first half and were stopped short of the line several times. Shandon managed to keep in the game and late in the first half went over for a try which was converted to give them a 6-0 lead at half-time.

The second-half was evenly balanced for long periods and the game could have gone either way. A penalty under the Cappoquin posts for an offside infringement gave Shandon a 9-0 lead. After this score, Cappoquin took control of the game and attacked the Shandon line and eventually their efforts saw Jerry Nicholson go over for a try in the corner.

The scorers didn't do justice to the great work by the forwards, with Eamon Hickey and Johnny McGrath dominant in the lineouts, Danny Lucas and Kieran Veale having good games breaking quickly from the scrums and putting the Shandon backline under pressure. At the end of the day it was a very much improved performance which saw the pack work as a unit.

Team - D. McGrath (capt.), P. J. Veale, M. O'Donnell, E. O'Sullivan, J. Barry, J. Nicholson, M. Power, D. Lucas, E. Hayes, K. Veale, E. Hickey, J. McGrath, L. Lannon, K. Curran and P. Fitzgerald. M. O'Leary, M. McCarthy and Nial O'Connor also got into the action.

MUNSTER TEAM On next Saturday Liam Lannon will be in the Munster team to play Leinster in Waterford. It's a great honour to be selected for the Munster team and the club wish him the best of luck. —P.R.O.

Credit Union Promote Careers Guidance Exhibition

Dungarvan Credit Union will host a Careers Guidance Exhibition in the Sports Centre, Dungarvan on Wednesday, November 9.

Plans are well advanced for what promises to be one of the largest career exhibitions to be held in the area in recent years. The Credit Union hopes that the promotion will be of assistance to many young students in providing them with the necessary information with which they will make their career choices. Parents who are anxious about the options open to their children on leaving school, will also find at the exhibition that they too can be provided with the necessary information on the various choices.

A special invitation has been extended to each of the seven Secondary schools in the Credit Union Common Bond Area, namely Christian Brothers, Meascoll, St. Rinn, Mercy and Presentation Convents, St. Augustine's and the Vocational Schools at Dungarvan and Kilmacthomas. All the above schools are participating, and students together with their teachers will attend on a rota basis.

A wide cross section of colleges, third level institutions, service organisations and industrial concerns have agreed to participate, and representatives will be available to speak to students on a one to one basis about the various career options.

The exhibition will be confined to the students and teachers from the local schools already mentioned, between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. It will be open to the general public and schools from other areas between 4 p.m. and 5 p.m. and from 6.30 p.m. to 8.30 p.m.

The Credit Union has put a great amount of work and preparation into the exhibition, and is very pleased to be associated with a venture which it is hoped will be of benefit to our many young people, and enable them to have a better understanding of what is involved in following a particular course of action, when embarking on the career of their choice.

Principal's Address At Waterford RTC Conferring

The annual conferring of awards by An U-Úasa P. Mac Diarmada Director of the National Council for Educational Awards took place at the Waterford Regional Technical College on Friday, October 21.

A list of local students who were conferred at the ceremony has already been published in a previous issue of the "Leader".

In his address to the successful students, the Principal of the College, Mr. M. R. Griffin, referred to the progress made at the College during the sixteen years, since the first conferring ceremony took place there in 1972. The following is the full text of his address:

Today's conferring ceremony is the 16th annual conferring to be held in this college. Sixteen years in institutional terms is not a long time. But for those of us who have been here since the beginning it is rich in memories. Our first conferring was a very small affair which, between graduates, visitors and staff, consisted of 112 people. Thirty-one parchments were presented.

Since then, year after year, the number of graduates has progressively increased and the range of awards has expanded. Indeed in today's ceremony we are presenting three new awards for the first time—the BA Degree in Music, The National Diploma in Business Studies (Export, Law) and the Bachelor of Business Studies Degree.

To you 16 years might appear to be a lifetime. That illusion disappears when you realise that the average age today of those first graduating classes would be about 36. In fact, over three-quarters of the graduates of this college are still in their twenties. We have however noted with gratification during the recent past some of those early graduates emerging in the ranks of senior management, and we expect to see much more of this from here onward with the increasing age profile.

We will of course be watching for your progress too. You have the expertise and talent which with commitment and energy will provide the foundation to your future.

We also hope that you will keep an eye on us and that you will maintain an interest in the development of your college. You more than most are aware of the developments that have taken place on this campus. You are also more aware than most of the pressure of the facilities of the college to cope with demand. The only significant impediment to expanding this institution both horizontally and vertically in the hierarchy of awards and activities is resources.

EC DEVELOPMENTS

Impending developments in the application of the European Community structural funds will provide a major opportunity to rectify the current imbalance in the deployment of higher education resources within the state. In the southeast we have been given an important vehicle through which to present our case.

Plans for the development of science and technology within this region are currently being formulated under the South-East Region Technology Development Programme (Sertec). Central to these plans we would hope will be the establishment of a technology park centred in Waterford and radiating throughout the south-east region in which this college would play a primary role as the vehicle for technology innovation and distribution. A technology park is a special type of industrial estate and business park combined in which the technology supports needed by high technology enterprises are readily available.

Competition for the structural funds will be intense both within Ireland and in the other disadvantaged regions of the Community. We cannot afford to dissipate our case through ambiguity. We in the college would welcome more definite clarity from within this city in steering this aspiration through the regional and national agencies to ensure its proper presentation to the European Commission.

Drink "Treat" Results In Fine and Disqualification

A drink "treat" to a man when he was delivering coal to a house resulted in losing him his job and landing him in court, where he was fined, banned from driving for 12 months and had his driving licence endorsed.

He was Maurice Drumme (52) Ballyneety, Dungarvan who pleaded guilty at Dungarvan Court last week to driving with excess alcohol at Cloncoskeran, Dungarvan on May 30.

Inspector P. Tierney who prosecuted said that at 5.40 p.m. on the evening in question Garda B. power went to the scene of a traffic accident at Cloncoskeran where a lorry driven by the defendant had run into a van. The defendant was taken to the Garda Station where he gave a blood sample. This showed a concentration of 209 mcgms. on subsequent analysis.

Mr. J. P. Gordon, Solr., said that the defendant was on a coal delivery round and when the lorry came to a T junction at Cloncoskeran it stopped and it was the van which then ran into the back of it. Earlier he said that the driver had been given a "treat" in a house where he had made a delivery. As a result of the incident he had lost his job.

District Justice O'Connell imposed a fine of £75 with an endorsement and banned the defendant from driving for 12 months.

IRELAND

A special display will be on view of metal work projects from this year's Leaving Certificate students from Vocational schools in the counties of Tipperary and Waterford.

The exhibition will be officially opened at 9.45 a.m. by Mr. Patrick Lonergan, President of Chapter Ten, Irish League of Credit Unions.

The following colleges, third level institutions, service organisations and industrial concerns will be represented: FAS, Army, Dublin Institute of Technology, University College Cork, Waterford Regional College, Cork Regional College, Garda Síochána NIHE, Limerick, Thomond College, Limerick, Skerrys College, Cork, ESB, CIE, Navy, reagents, Allied Irish Bank, Bank of Ireland, Union Mary Immaculate Training College, Limerick, South Eastern Health Board, Anne Marie O'Regan School of Beauty Therapy, Cork, Crawford School of Art, Cork, Ryan Air, Waterford County Council, Waterford Co-op, Sterling Drug, Stafford Miller, Dungarvan Crystal. Video equipment, supplied by Daysha Electronics.

CREDIT UNION

The Credit Union Movement recently celebrated Credit Union Day 1988, under the theme of United-Unique. It was the forty-first celebration of the occasion and was honoured throughout the world, demonstrating that all the members belong to one big happy family united together in their belief that Credit Union is a unique self-help co-operative among people for their individual and collective benefit.

Credit Union involvement helps to overcome economic distress by providing people with the means of improving the quality of their lives.

Credit Union is a caring and sharing society, its motto: "Not for Profit, Not for Charity, but for Service."

Credit Union is strictly confidential—what you save is your own business—what you borrow is your own business—what you say is your own business.

Credit Union is for everyone. Any group of people sharing a "Common Bond" can form a Credit Union. Every eligible person has the right to join an existing Credit Union.

The Credit Union movement in Ireland is strong, sound and secure. It is part of the World Council of Credit Unions uniting together more than 41,500 Credit Unions with a membership of over 70 million.

In Ireland there are 497 highly successful Credit Unions with a total individual membership of 886,000—representing a penetration of one in five of the entire population.

CREDIT UNION IN DUNGARVAN

The concept of Credit Union was first mooted locally in late 1964 and bore fruit in 1965 when the Union was officially registered. At that time membership was confined to the Common Bond area of Dungarvan Urban District and was comprised of persons living or employed within that area.

The Common Bond Area was extended in 1973 to include all persons living or employed within the postal districts of Dungarvan and Kilmacthomas, and part of the Cappagh district.

Having operated from temporary accommodation in the Courthouse and Town Hall, it found a permanent home at 32 St. Mary Street in 1973 and has flourished both in membership and savings growth ever since. The Union's 23rd Financial Year has just ended with a net increase of 540 members, bringing the active total to 3,786, with savings exceeding IR£2,250,000. Considering the large number of members who became redundant at the start of the year in some of our local industries, it was a remarkable achievement to exceed previous annual growth in all sectors. The loan total paid to members was £2,077,000, which was over £400,000 more than in 1987.

The Credit Union is controlled by a Board of Directors of 15 members, one third of whom are elected each year at the annual general meeting. It is the duty of all members to take part in decision making, and this can only be done at the annual general meeting.

The office is now open on all six weekdays including lunch hour. Collection points are operated at week-ends in Kilmacthomas, Kill, Bonmahon, Ballylaneen and Stradbally.

We congratulate Brendan Kiersey and Paul Tobin both of whom "trod the boards" at the Friday Hall in the recent production of "The Wizard of Oz," no doubt their Opera House experience stood them in good stead.

OUTDOOR OZALUMS!

Chimblet Lyle, writing in the 91st Netherley, Trap magazine, advises me that he has found the reason why some of the younger Scouts are reluctant to camp.

No, it's not the nasty wet weather. Nor is it the thought of having to cook their own meals.

The answer is all to do with camp terminology—the clunky language of the canvas set! Examples that Chimblet quotes:

● Homesickness: suffered principally by the older boys— which is why they come to camp in the first place (think about it).

● Lashing: a word which can be used to describe a way of joining two spars together in a camp pioneering project. However, more usually used to describe the velocity of the rain.

● Spare time activities: silly things to do which turn spare time into working time. Enjoyable if you are able to skin and cook a rabbit while making a cup of tea up a tree and listing 34 dog groups who have a left-handed lead guitarist and deaf drummers, at the same time.

● Tent peg: the idea is to leave as many of these behind at camp as possible.

● Gadgets: articles for which you get points but never use. If you do use them, they break.

● Aerial runway: a traditional camp activity which has more rules than any other activity in the whole wide world. The object is to take as long as possible to set up and then to use it as little as possible.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

Through the weather is not too kind at the moment things are still pretty busy on the scouting front. Plans are being made for the "Scout Mass" which takes place on the 11th of November and on the 12th of November we have an Inauguration at the scout den. On Sunday mornings the den is a hive of activity with scouts doing tests, in preparation for this investiture.

Our Thursday night workers are still busy with many indoor jobs receiving attention. We hear Tomas is putting his skills to good use this coming Saturday evening when he tackles a job that two others (unnamed), failed to accomplish.

We congratulate Brendan Kiersey and Paul Tobin both of whom "trod the boards" at the Friday Hall in the recent production of "The Wizard of Oz," no doubt their Opera House experience stood them in good stead.

THE COURTHOUSE CLOCK

By Michael Benedict-Creagh

(At present, a resident in St. Carthage's House, Lismore)

I hear it through my dreams sometimes. The sound of our Town Clock. It's not the sort that sends forth chimes. Not Westminster, nor not just a simple clock and bell.

Perhaps I heard it as a child. Ere The Courthouse was burned down. Silenced sound no longer meek nor wild. Stressed the silence of the town—Lismore of Carthage.

The Buffs were here, the "Tans" were here. The Free Staters and Sinn Féin. The stricken Town Clock we longed to hear. And strained our ears in vain—To hear its voice.

Elder trees grew in the Courthouse. Once, where British Justice reigned. It was not here the fires to douse. Its strength being overstrained—A New Era was imminent.

Where all-night dances went on that day. Grand Opera—Shakespeare Plays. No convicts sent to Botany Bay.

But no clock, nor bell, nor Courthouse. In the early forties they were all restored. Once more a polished floor. Some other bells blend their voices towards God's praise for evermore—The RC Carthage overall.

The voice of Carthage still holds sway. Above all Lismore bells, as well. But is rivalled for supremacy. By the Radio Eireann bell—Through the miracle of radio.

A duet by both. I sometimes hear. When my radio is switched on. The radio bells advantaged here. Like the "crooner" of a song—Its harmonies not lost by distance.

Our Town Clock strikes a single stroke. At half-past twelve and one. With shortage of funds—and that's no joke. The same, at half-past one—Night and day.

Again it strikes just one o'clock. As each half-past is due. Don't think I've started for to mock. I'm merely informing you. Not really mocking.

Perhaps one day if folk decide. That they cannot do without it. An improved clock might be supplied. By a well-wisher, don't you doubt it. —Some sort of philanthropist.

Let's raise a cheer for our town clock. Time marker of Lismore. Chronometer, or old time tick-tock. The keeper of the score.

of having to cook their own meals. The answer is all to do with camp terminology—the clunky language of the canvas set! Examples that Chimblet quotes:

● Homesickness: suffered principally by the older boys— which is why they come to camp in the first place (think about it).

● Lashing: a word which can be used to describe a way of joining two spars together in a camp pioneering project. However, more usually used to describe the velocity of the rain.

● Spare time activities: silly things to do which turn spare time into working time. Enjoyable if you are able to skin and cook a rabbit while making a cup of tea up a tree and listing 34 dog groups who have a left-handed lead guitarist and deaf drummers, at the same time.

● Tent peg: the idea is to leave as many of these behind at camp as possible.

ATHLETICS

Munster Championship Cross Country At Friary College

A major attraction for athletic followers will be staged at the Friary Grounds, Abbeyside, Dungarvan on Sunday next, November 6, starting at 1.30 p.m. There will be a full Munster championship programme of events for juvenile boys and girls in the uneven age groups up to 17 years, and in addition the men's and women's under-23. The latter events replace the under-21 grade which had been held up to this season.

Many boys and girls, men and women from Co. Waterford will be participating and clubs like Dungarvan, Ring/Old Parish, Cappoquin/Ballinacorney and Lismore will have numerous athletes competing.

Waterford has fared well in these events in the past and on Sunday once again we have fancied competitors. The support of the public would be appreciated by all our athletes.

COUNTY TESTS

On Sunday week, November 13, the County Championships for boys and girls u-10 u-12, u-14, u-16, novice men, novice women and veterans will be decided in Ballygunner just outside Waterford City at 1.30 p.m.

FRIARY AGAIN

Yet another big fixture will be held in the Friary on November 20 — the Munster Men's and Women's Novice and Vets Inter-County. Club mentors should keep their athletes informed well in advance of fixtures and interested athletes should cut out the details in this issue for reference.

BE SAFE, BE SEEN

With the long dark nights now with us, anyone using our roads, training should make sure they have clear, reflective clothing and they should avoid busy roads for their own safety and in fairness to motorists also. Young athletes should at all times be accompanied by adults.

FIRST AID

The County Athletic Board ask that all promoters of athletic events should ensure that adequate first aid facilities are available and be available on site if required also an efficient public address system.

NEW TRACK

Work is now well advanced on the new tartan track in Killybeg, Waterford city. It should prove of great benefit to all athletes in the south east region from next spring.

Touraneena Notes

G.A.A.

All roads lead to Walsh Park, Waterford, on Sunday next for the intermediate football county final between Sliabh gCua and Gaultier. Sliabh gCua have been very impressive in the lead up to this match with some impressive victories, notably their great Western final victory over a much-fancied Shamrocks team.

Now that the ultimate test is here our lads, playing the fast open brand of football that has got them this far, should, on form, bring back another title to the famed village on Sunday night.

Gaultier play an open fast game as well, so it should be a real cracker of a match. We wish the lads the best of luck.

SET CLUB NEWS

Our American tea party which was fixed for Saturday, Nov. 5 has once again been altered. Owing to the fact that our intermediate footballers are playing in the county final on Sunday, November 6, we felt that Friday, November 4 would be a more appropriate date so remember to keep Friday, November 4 free for the set club's tea party to be held at Clonea Hotel. A great night is assured.

G.A.A. Notes

Waterford Outsiders For Galway Clash

NEXT SUNDAY

With the county hurlers playing All-Ireland champions, Galway in Athlery in their postponed first round league match, the footballers meeting Clare in round 2 at Ennis and the intermediate and junior football county finals listed for Walsh Park. It is going to be a rather busy time for officials and players. Kilrossanty and Affane are due to play the under 21 football semi-final here in the West, and if a result is achieved, the Board will be ready for the divisional final and their last match of the season.

WATERFORD v. GALWAY

I don't know if the team to play All-Ireland champions, Galway in Athlery on Sunday, has been selected, but it is almost certain to show a change or two from the side who lost to Tipperary at Fraher Field on Sunday last. Liam O'Connor is likely to be drafted into the team and Jimmy Beresford may be fit enough to take his place on the team. With Pat Curran now in exile and Jim Power having played well on Sunday last, he will likely be retained. So apart from the inclusion of O'Connor and Beresford, the team may not show further change.

Having played so well against Tipperary, Waterford will now be expected to give the champions quite a game, even though it is being played on home ground for Galway. It was tough to be paired against the two All-Ireland finalists in our first two matches but with these over we should be good enough to pick up the points against some of the others. I believe that this Waterford team will play well again on Sunday and give the home side a serious enough test, but certainly I don't believe at least at this stage that we will be good enough to beat them.

WATERFORD v. CLARE

This team for Sunday at Ennis, was due to be selected last night (Tuesday) and available in good time, will be published in this issue. I feel sure that it will show at least a couple of changes from the team which lost narrowly to Wexford in the first round. There is evident need for a tighter defence and there is a glaring need for some improvement in attack. This sector also disappointed in the McGrath Cup final on Sunday last.

I would go so far as to predict that unless there is considerable improvement on the part of a few players in this game, that they may not be included for the next couple of rounds of the league. There are still some untried players around and given the chance, maybe they would prove themselves worthy of inclusion on the team.

Winning this one on Sunday will not be easy. Remember in 1987 it took us all of 150 minutes to win our first round game against them. They have taken two points from their first match and to keep pace with them on the league table we will need to win this one. It will take an improvement on the Wexford game to achieve this.

SLIABH GUA v. GAULTIER

The Western champions will field at full strength for this county title bid at Walsh Park on Sunday next and those who have seen them show improvement with every outing in this division must fancy their chances of gaining senior status which has been their ambition since winning their first junior title in 1981. At the start of the year, they felt very unsure of themselves, but as the championship progressed they gained confidence and after they had beaten Affane in a fine game of football, they geared themselves for a battle with Shamrocks and this final, played at Cappoquin last month, showed the Touraneena based team to be at their very best winning by 3-9 to 0-5.

With the intention of giving it a real 'go', they have prepared very well for the county final and all their players are reported fit and ready and they say that they have no inhibitions about playing in Walsh Park, even though they have played there only on one occasion before.

Having won their first county intermediate hurling title last Saturday in the colours of Passage, this group will be all out to put the name of Gaultier on the list of senior teams for 1989. According to some football people in their division, the crop of intermediate football teams there this year is a bit above the usual. Gaultier last year that they and not St. Saviours might have represented the division in the county final so if they are that good, they will be a tough nut for players like Tom Condon, John Dalton, John and Pat Hallinan, Kieran Power, Joe Devoy, Pat Ahearn, Declan and John Fitzpatrick, Maurice, Eamon and Anthony Butler, Kieran Hallahan, R. McGrath, T. Whelan and company to crack, but if they play as well and as confidently as they did in the Western final against Shamrocks, they will be good enough to win. Best of luck to them.

STRADBALLY v. BALLYDUFF EAST

Bill Dunford, who will be playing in goal for Stradbally in this final on Sunday told me that he was not sure if he would win this one. Modeligo and Fahy will never forgive us. Anyway thanks to those two teams our representatives in the final will certainly be very well conditioned for the battle that can make history for the club as should they win, they will be the first 2nd string team in football to win this title. Ballyduff are a reasonably strong side, but are likely to lack the experience of this Stradbally team, most of whom

McGrath Cup S.F. Final:

London Surprise Waterford

LONDON 2-8; WATERFORD 1-6

I suppose the statement, by the London County Board chairman, Tom Kenneally, after the game summed up the reasons why Waterford were unexpectedly beaten in this final at Ruislip on Sunday. He said that after a great showing in the Connaught championship last year, when they went within an ace of beating Sligo, London decided that if they put their act together they could become a serious football force. For this final they went into strict training in early September and had beaten Louth in a challenge. This convinced them that they were good enough to win their first major trophy here to-day.

Certainly the way London played, it was easy to believe all this as all through they showed an eagerness and a degree of fitness that surprised a good many of their home supporters, present at the game.

Waterford had obviously expected a far weaker challenge, but began to realise early in the game that this was a good London side which included players from Kerry, Cork, Galway and other leading football counties.

Playing with the breeze, Waterford had the better of things at the start, but seemed a bit upset by the uneven ground conditions in certain parts. In the 2nd minute Eoin O'Brien pointed at free and it was 13 minutes later before the same player, who certainly played a captain's part in the game, had another from play. Shortly before our second point we had amazing hard luck when Pat Curran, having rounded the backs, lost a ball that bounced awkwardly off a rut on the edge of the square. This was a certain goal missed and was the incident in the game that was most talked about afterwards.

In the 21st and 22nd minutes Pat Curran and Pierric White pointed to put us four points up. At this stage Derry Kiely, who was added to the panel in London, replaced Noel Weldon. While waiting for the half-time whistle, O'Dwyer goaled for London (30 mins. and 10 secs.) to leave the half-time score 0-4 to 1-0.

When play resumed, Eoin O'Brien pointed from a free in the 2nd minute, but with the breeze in their favour, London kept up the pressure and between the 4th and 19th minutes scored 6 points without reply from Waterford. Then came the killer blow in the 20th minute when London goaled to leave the position 2-6 to 0-5. Several Waterford attacks on the London goal proved fruitless. Then with eight minutes remaining an all-out bid to save the day yielded a goal, per Pat Curran. A minute later Liam Daniels pointed Waterford's final score, London, though had the final say with two points to make the issue safe beyond doubt.

Seamus Power, on behalf of the Munster Council then presented the trophy which has the name Waterford inscribed as the first winners in 1981.

have played in the senior grade. I give a confident vote to Stradbally to win.

MINOR HURLING

The new minor hurling management are certainly not leaving the grass grow under their feet since their appointment they have had their group of players together on a number of occasions. The group has now been reduced from 50 to 28 and this size of panel will be retained for the time being. Eventually it will be reduced to 25. The committee will issue a month-by-month programme and the training schedule notified to clubs and players will be strictly adhered to. Training each Sunday will be at a different venue as follows—Sunday next at 11 a.m. in Tallow; on the following Sunday, Nov. 13, it will be held at Cleaboy, De La Salle at 11.30 a.m., then on Nov. 20, at Fraher Field at 11 a.m.; and on Sunday 27th it is hoped to play a challenge in Kilkenny.

WINTER FOOTBALL

It is possible that we may soon have an inter-club football competition, to be run during the winter and at the venues of participating clubs. A very interesting person who is not a Board Officer or a member of the Olsde Pell, is prepared to set up and run the competition. A sponsor has already been found. The matter will be discussed by the County Board at Dungarvan on Monday week.

WITHDRAWALS

Both Kilrossanty and Kill have notified the County Board that they won't be taking part in the Under 21 'B' hurling championship. This leaves the way clear for the two semi-finals in this championship. Tramore will play Shamrocks in one semi-final on next Saturday and in the other, Stradbally will play Kilmacthomas.

RESULTS

I wasn't around to see what happened over the week-end but according to reports much of the fare was exciting. Waterford hurlers did far better than had been expected and a half-time lead against Tipperary gave the huge crowd of home supporters hope of a shock result. This didn't happen but our display, given the circumstances, was very good. It was far and away better than our last three competitive matches against the county.

It was no big surprise that at last Passage have won an intermediate hurling title. They have been favourites to take this title on numerous occasions and this year fielded a much younger side than in previous years. Fourmilewater lost a player in the first half and this must have proved a handicap for the remainder of the game.

It was great to hear of Affane's big win over St. Mary's in the minor 'B' football county final. For them it completed a great double as three weeks ago they had taken the hurling title in the same grade. It must mark a new beginning for the club and if the mentors can manage to keep this group together for a few years they will surely be a force in the adult grades when their very talented young players reach adulthood.

It was a big surprise to hear that Tallow were so decisively beaten, but then Ballygunner, who had played such brilliant hurling in their divisional campaign in the East, were supremely confident of winning this and giving their supporters some compensation for losing the replay of the senior hurling county final last month. The final score gives a clear indication of how superior they were to Tallow who really had no answer to the speed, fitness and greater skill of the 'Gunners.

PAT CURRAN'S AWARD

Almost eight months ago Waterford hurling goalkeeper Pat Curran was awarded the 'Saver of the Year' by RTE. A wonder save in the Waterford v. Limerick S.H. championship match at Thurles in June last year won him the award. However the failure of the RTE Sports Section to present the award was recently raised at a County Board meeting and the Secretary was directed to complain about the delay in presenting the award to Pat. An apology for the delay and an assurance that the trophy would be presented to Pat Curran at his place of residence in England was received by the County Board.

Pat, obviously, did not take kindly to the idea of being handed the trophy in the loneliness of his British 'digs' and he made his feelings known to the people in RTE.

The affair will now have a happy ending however and the award will be presented at the Stradbally G.A.A. Centre on next Saturday week, when Pat will be on a visit home.

TIPPERARY TAKE THE POINTS

TIPPERARY 1-12
WATERFORD 0-11

Waterford can certainly bemoan the loss of two vital league points in their national hurling league clash with Tipperary at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last.

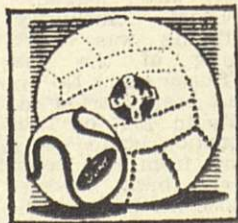

With so many deductions for various reasons, it was expected that the All-Ireland finalists would win the game with quite a bit to spare. Waterford however were in no way intimidated or overawed and gave the Munster champions a close run. They could, however, have won the game and they must now rue the number of chances which went by the board, particularly in the first half when they had the aid of the strong wind.

As well as having eight wides to Tipperary's four, Waterford also conceded a soft goal to Pat Fox in the 9th minute. Despite these setbacks, Waterford led, rather unflatteringly by 0-9 to 1-3 at the break.

Tipperary piled on the pressure in the second half and had six points without reply to leave them three points clear after 12 minutes. The signs looked ominous as Cormac Bonner forced a great save from Waterford, keeper Jim Power in the 15th minute.

The home side however refused to concede any more ground and a spirited fight-back saw them strike two points to cut the arrears to just a point with 12 minutes to go. Waterford created several more chances after this but failed to convert them and points from Pat McGrath, John McCormack and McGrath again made the issue safe for Tipperary.

Overall it was an unexpectedly good performance by Waterford, spoiled by a poor attack which missed too many chances over the hour.

Scorers—Tipperary — P. McGrath 0-6, P. Fox 1-2, B. Ryan 0-2, D. Fogarty 0-1, J. McCormack 0-1; Waterford—K. Delahunty 0-6, P. Murphy 0-2, D. Power, S. Ahearn and P. Bennett 0-1 each.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

The photographs for our "Remembering Other Days" series this week takes us back to the year 1964, when the Village of Abbeyside was one of the major hurling forces in the county at that time. Above are the minor hurling team who shared in three epic games at Fraher Field, Dungarvan with neighbours Dungarvan in the Western final of that year. Dungarvan, incidentally, won the second replay by a one point margin, 3-1 to 1-6. Abbeyside however lost no caste in defeat and were indeed honoured and privileged to have shared in the glory and splendour of those three never-to-be-forgotten confrontations which brought extra colour to the lives of all of us in the autumn of 1964, games which proved conclusively that hurling is the greatest of all field games. The third game attracted a record attendance for a minor final in the division. Two years later, in 1966, several of these players helped Abbeyside to win the inaugural Under-21 County hurling championship. Photo shows, at back (l. to r.) Mick Brett, John Cosgrave, Anthony Duggan, Liam Waters, Val Curran, John "Ruby" O'Mahony, Michael "Dasher" Power, Bernard Shields and Michael Morrissey; front: T. O'Donovan, David Dee, L. Morrissey, Ned Lenihan, Jimmy Needham, Joe Power, Christy Power (R.I.P.), Jimmy O'Dea, Pat Enright and Tom "Rufus" Flynn.

The photograph below shows what was one of Abbeyside's best ever senior hurling teams. They won the Sargent Cup in that year of '64 and lost 3-6 to 1-6 in a thrilling county senior hurling final to a great Mt. Sion team. At back (l. to r.) Paddy Langan (R.I.P.), Pat Enright, Pat Langan (Jnr.), Roger Cashin, Joe Power, T. O'Donovan, John McGrath, Austin Flynn, Jack Elstead, Donal Whelan and Liam Enright, and at front Bernard Shields, Denis Flynn, Eddie Moore, Peadar Wall, John Browne, Sean Fitzgerald, Johnny Hogan, Pat McGovern, Danny Barry, Michael Kiely and Tony Mansfield.

RECENT DEATHS

MR. EDMOND (EDDIE) MOONEY

It is our sad duty to record with much regret the passing of Eddie Mooney, Shanbally, Ardmore, which occurred at the Dungarvan Hospital on Monday, October 17. Eddie had been ill for some time, nevertheless, his death greatly saddened his family and legions of friends.

He was a lovable, warm and popular member of the Ardmore community and was held in the highest esteem by all who enjoyed his acquaintance. Just five years ago Eddie was predeceased by his wife Nora. He was indeed a loving husband, father and a kind neighbour who was ever ready to lend a helping hand to those who needed his assistance.

In his youth Eddie took an active part in the War of Independence—he was a valued member of the West Waterford Brigade of the Old IRA. During that troubled period he took part in the Pittwater Ambush and was a personal friend of Oathal Brugha and his wife.

He was a great storyteller, and his experiences which were embroidered with historical fact, were always listened to. During the mid 1920's he emigrated to New York where he became a leading light in the Waterford Men's Association. He organised many of their functions and on many occasions his party piece, he it in New York's Hilton Hotel or Carnegie Hall, was eagerly awaited. He donned the colours of Old Parish and Clashmore during his football days but most will remember him for his unflinching loyalty to his beloved Naomh Deaglan of Ardmore. What a proud moment it must have been for him to see the county titles captured and brought home and his sons to have played no small part in the process during the 1960's.

He farmed extensively and kept very much abreast of the changes in the development of agriculture. He was a man who relished hard work and his passing has left a void in the community that will be very difficult to fill.

His remains, draped with the tri-colour, were removed from the hospital mortuary to St. Declan's Church, Ardmore on Wednesday evening where they were blessed and received by Very Rev. D. O'Connor, P.P., assisted by Very Rev. Fr. A. Mc-

Grath (cousin), Affane Rev. W. Meehan, C.C., Clashmore and Rev. T. Flynn, C.C., Ballybricken. Concelebrated Mass on Thursday was offered up by Very Rev. A. McGrath, Affane. Co-celebrants were Rev. Fr. Reide, C.C., Rev. W. Meehan, C.C. and Rev. T. Flynn, C.C. Immediately after he was laid to rest in Grange cemetery before a huge gathering who had come to bid farewell and whose presence indicated clearly the high esteem in which Eddie was held by everyone in the district. Rev. Fr. Reide, C.C. Ardmore conducted the graveside liturgy, assisted by Rev. W. Meehan, C.C. and Rev. T. Flynn, C.C.

Chief mourners: Eddie, Billy and Jim (sons); Ciss, Mary and Vera (daughters); Don, Jerry and Derek (sons-in-law); Frances, Sheila and Mary (daughters-in-law); William Ryan (brother-in-law); Bridie Mooney, Kathie Woods, New York (sisters-in-law) and a large circle of grandchildren, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

Port Of Dungarvan Could Play Vital Role In The Years Ahead

— States Minister for the Marine

A DUNGARVAN LEADER EXCLUSIVE

BY TOM TOBIN

Is there a hope for the future of the port of Dungarvan? This was one of the questions I put to the Minister for the Marine, Brendan Daly, T.D. in the course of an exclusive interview for the "Dungarvan Leader."

He told me that it would appear that far too many people were inclined to overlook the fact that the small ports of Ireland would have a vital role to play in the years ahead and Dungarvan was among the most important. "Already, we are taking a look at these ports and Dungarvan stands out in importance because of its proximity to Britain. There will be major developments where the small ports of this country are concerned and particularly those along the south-east coastline.

"The EEC will be an open market in 1992 and this will be a challenge that most of us cannot reject if we want to stay in business but there is also the fact that Britain is going to be linked to the European mainland by a tunnel which means, in effect, that we are going to be the only part of Europe cut off from that mainland. In my opinion, exporters will be focussing their attention on the traditional ports of the south-east and Dungarvan is very much among them."

NEGLECTED

The Minister went on to say that the opening of the channel linking Britain and mainland Europe would put a big strain on every type of transport system and every type of coast of this country. The fact was all too clear, he said, a major role would have to be played by ports like Dungarvan and the Government was now aware of this fact. Shipping would take on a vital role so that exporters could get their products to Britain for quick delivery through the new channel. And, perhaps, it could be said that the role of the small coasters was likely to take on a new significance.

When I put it to the Minister that the port of Dungarvan had been neglected for too long by successive governments and that the quays were in need of major improvements, he agreed that there were many problems to be overcome. I asked him quite bluntly if he could help to restore the importance of Dungarvan as a port pointing out that it was one of the oldest in the country with tremendous potential. He replied: "As I have said the Government is seriously looking at the position of our ports along the south-east coast in view of the kind of developments in shipping that will come about much sooner than some of us are inclined to believe. However, if the harbour authority in Dungarvan would like to put forward a special case then I will be only too pleased to have the port and its facilities examined by my Department as soon as possible. It is worth taking note of the fact that my Department will, in his address, give the engineering specialists of the Office of Public Works who are being transferred."

I suggested to the Minister, Mr. Daly that the people of Dungarvan might feel a lot more confident if he would visit the place, meet the local authorities concerned and see the situation for himself. He told me that they want me to visit Dungarvan to take a good look at the port. I will be willing to go there.

RECONSTRUCTION

"Certainly, I would like to have the port of Dungarvan examined to see what can be done in the way of reconstruction of the quays and, indeed, whatever else that may be necessary. I believe the harbour authority should contact me without delay and everything that can be done will be done for the port of Dungarvan."

I spoke to Jackie Fahey, T.D., who has his heart set on winning a seat on the European Parliament and who has been campaigning in a big way as outlined in the Dungarvan Leader recently. He welcomed the Minister's comments.

"I believe it would be the beginning of a new era for the port of Dungarvan if the Minister for the Marine, Mr. Daly, did visit the area to see conditions for himself and to see its tremendous potential. Those of us on the local scene know exactly the vastness of that potential and I am all the more pleased that the Minister should make such a challenging offer to a Dungarvian."

"I have no doubt that the offer will be taken up and I promise to do my part in gaining whatever improvements that can be won for Dungarvan because there is no doubt about it when he states that the role of the small ports of the south-east, and particularly, Dungarvan, will be a new era in commerce—and a very welcome one."

Labour Party—Constituency Council A.G.M.

At the annual general meeting of the constituency council of the Labour Party held in Portlaoise recently, Senator B. O'Shea was highly critical of the Flanna Fail Government's starvation of Local Authorities.

Since Flanna Fail came to power three years ago the rate support grant was he said cut by 28%. One of the results of this lack of funding could be seen in the blocked road drains throughout the country. At a time when everyone acknowledged that tourism was a major growth industry and that much of the hopes for future employment was dependent on the tourist industry, the Local Authorities were he said, denied the funds they needed to keep the drains clear. It had now reached the stage that even after a heavy shower many of the country roads which were the ones preferred by tourists were water logged.

Local Authority housing building was now almost a thing of the past, Senator O'Shea said. No new houses had been started in Waterford City in 1987 or 1988. The Corporation could not get permission from the Department for even small schemes such as those on Ballytruckle or Ballygunner. In the entire County only six houses were being started in 1988. "It is obvious" he said that within a few years there will be another housing crisis."

SHAME In a blistering attack on health cuts Senator O'Shea said "to the shame of the Flanna Fail Government we now have a health service where the service you get is dependent on what you pay, not on what you need. Flanna Fail input into the Health Service in the South East has not alone led to a much lower level of health care but also resulted in the loss of 515 jobs. When Barry Desmond was Minister for Health there were no jobs, but there was no crisis in Waterford regarding surgical beds, and certainly with Barry Desmond as Minister there had been no need to abolish the Local Health Committees in a desperate attempt to prevent the deliberately created problems in the Health Services being highlighted."

"I will conclude," said Senator O'Shea "by saying that never was it more essential than at present, that the Labour Party speaks out and continues the fight on behalf of the people of this country."

The following were then elected:—Chairman James Conolly (Branch, Waterford City); Vice-chairman—Laurie Harte, (Dungarvan Branch); Secretary/Director of Publicity—Michael O'Brien, (St. Paul's/Ballybeg Branch); Treasurer—Pat Hayes, (No. 1 Branch, Waterford City); Director of Finance—Seamus Upton, (No. 1 Branch).

The Incoming Chairman, Jack Walsh, paid tribute to Senator Brian O'Shea on the enormous amount of work he had put into the development of the Party over the last ten years, to the point where it was certain that whenever the next general election took place Senator O'Shea would become Deputy O'Shea. He also praised the work of the other Labour Party representatives throughout the constituency.

DUNGARVAN MUSEUM SOCIETY

Dungarvan Museum Society held their annual general meeting in the Mercy Convent on Thursday, October 13. Our very able chairman, Mr. Jim Shine, B.E., in his address, gave a glowing account of a year's hard work. During the year there were ongoing exhibitions—five in all: of those the Maritime Exhibition was an outstanding success and attracted over 3,000 people.

Our committee are very proud of this exhibition which created tremendous interest with locals and visitors alike. The people of Dungarvan owe a great debt of gratitude to Mr. Willie Fraher, vice-chairman and a recognised authority on Dungarvan history, and also Mr. Jim Shine, B.E., and Mr. Evan Griffin.

We also mounted the detailed research on the Moresby Pattern Committee. In conjunction with this exhibition we had a display of The Spanish Armada, loaned from the Ulster Museum. This was a very topical exhibition.

This year being the anniversary of The Spanish Armada—also being the year of the Australian Bicentenary—we managed to fit this Australian Exhibition too, which overflowed into the Library. We are grateful to the Library staff for accommodating us.

This is some achievement, for a voluntary local committee and we know that the people of Dungarvan appreciate our efforts to record and display our town's history. As well as exhibitions, we had lectures and outings by Mr. Patrick Shaffrey, Architect and Author and Mr. Billy Houlihan, Architect to Cork Co. Council.

It was quite a coup to get those two notable speakers both very eminent in their field. In fact another coup has come our way and we have succeeded in getting speakers Mr. Niall McCullough and Miss Valerie Mulvin who are the authors of a recently published book on Irish Buildings, to speak at the Mercy Convent on Thursday, November 3 at 8.15 p.m. "A Lost Tradition" is the title of their book which received excellent reviews. There will be particular emphasis on Co. Waterford. We are expecting all our members and a large turnout for this "illustrated talk."

Our members enjoyed our outings to Youghal, Drumlohlan, Knockboy, the Comeraghs and to the Waterford archaeological dig.

We send our gratitude to all those people who made these outings such a success and to the Good Lord for sending us a good day with plenty of sunshine each time.

The following are the officers and committee elected at our AGM: Chairman, Mr. Jim Shine, B.E.; Vice-Chairman, Mr. Willie Fraher; J. Secretaries, Miss Ita White, Miss Mary McGrath; Treasurer, Mrs. Joan Bally; Committee—Evan Griffin, Bunda Cusack, Lily Mountain, Richie Walsh, Cathleen Morrissey, Jack English, Matt Conolly, Michael Walsh.

The outgoing chairman, Johnny Landers in his address said that there was need for greater development in the adult part of the branch. He felt the branch needed new direction and he had decided not to seek re-election.

Secretary, Ailice Fitzgerald, in reviewing the year, said that the branch co-hosted with the Dungarvan branch, was a great success and she thanked all those who assisted in stewarding, etc. She called for greater involvement by the parents of children who were attending comhaltas dancing and music classes. Many of these classes were heavily subsidised by Comhaltas, she said.

Outgoing Treasurer from McGrath presented a comprehensive balance sheet. He told the meeting that the Munster Fleadh took up a lot of the branch efforts during the year. Fortunately the branch had helped the finances of the branch, but in the coming year we would have to return to regular fundraising.

The branch are at present planning a concert which will take place towards the end of November.

NEW M.M.R. IMMUNISATION PROGRAMME LAUNCHED
The Minister for Health, Dr. Rony O'Hanlon, T.D., has launched a new Measles, Mumps and Rubella (MMR) immunisation programme. The programme represents a major initiative by the Department of Health in the promotion of health in the community. The aim of the programme is to eradicate measles mumps and rubella. The vaccine, which is safe and free, is available from family doctors.
The ideal age for immunization is 15 months but because this is a new vaccine in Ireland all children aged 15 months to 5 years should be immunized. Children who have already had any of the diseases—measles, mumps or rubella—should still receive the MMR vaccine as should children who have already been immunized against measles. It is important for boys as well as girls to be immunized because they themselves are susceptible to these diseases and because the wider the pool of infection in a community the greater the potential for spread.

The Minister for Health, Dr. Rony O'Hanlon, T.D., has launched a new Measles, Mumps and Rubella (MMR) immunisation programme. The programme represents a major initiative by the Department of Health in the promotion of health in the community. The aim of the programme is to eradicate measles mumps and rubella. The vaccine, which is safe and free, is available from family doctors.
The ideal age for immunization is 15 months but because this is a new vaccine in Ireland all children aged 15 months to 5 years should be immunized. Children who have already had any of the diseases—measles, mumps or rubella—should still receive the MMR vaccine as should children who have already been immunized against measles. It is important for boys as well as girls to be immunized because they themselves are susceptible to these diseases and because the wider the pool of infection in a community the greater the potential for spread.

TALLOW AND ROUNDABOUT NOTES

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

Ballygunner 4-16; Tallow 1-5. Tallow u/21 hurlers suffered a humiliating defeat at the hands of a very strong Ballygunner team on Saturday last in Abbeyside. The game ended as a contest after a quarter of an hour when Ballygunner led by 3-4 to 0-0. A number of switches and a substitution helped matters but in fairness we were totally outclassed by a bigger and physically stronger team.

Congratulations to Ballygunner on their win and with players coming through at this level it won't be long before they will be winning senior titles.

The disappointment of losing was evident on the lads faces on Saturday evening when they came back from Abbeyside. With 18 of the panel still under age, again next year, things don't look that bad. Obviously the long wait from the Western final to the County final had an adverse effect on the lads. The County Board will have to look seriously at this championship because a wait of 31 months is not good enough. If they keep treating the u/21's as they are, the grade could be lost within a couple of years. This grade is the stepping stone to senior ranks, and it would be a pity to lose it.

For the record the team that did duty for Tallow on Saturday last was - Billy Curley; Damian Flynn, Michael T. Cunningham, Colin Cunningham; John Beecher, Ger Sice (capt.), Brian Henley, Kieran Murphy (0-1); Mark Geary. Dermot Henley (0-1, free), David Henley (0-1), Clive Barry (0-1); Michael Henley (1-0), Paul Curley, John Joe Henley (0-1). Sub - Trevor Sheehan for John Beecher.

Finally the club would like to thank everybody who helped with transport on Friday evening and to Angela Mulcahy and her staff at the Latch Restaurant for the marvellous meal after the game. The club had no winner in the Piltown G.A. draw on Thursday night last. Well done to Pat Murphy and Timmie Sheehan who lined out with Waterford on Sunday last against Tipperary. Though defeat was their lot the lads gave a very good account of themselves.

- Pdraig O Siachain, PRO.

TALLOW BADMINTON NOTES

The club are enjoying a great start to the season and after the third series of games are well in there with a good chance. The Section G team had a convincing win during the week away to An Rinn by 8-0. The Section C team overcame Ferrybank 6-2 with some great badminton being played. Fixtures for the coming week: Section C - Waterford v. Tallow in Lady Lane on Monday night. Section G - Tallow v. Ferrybank in Tallow on Wednesday night.

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

The club wishes a speedy recovery to Denis Martin who had an operation during the week for tonsillitis. Denis missed the win over An Rinn but hopefully it won't be too long before he is back to full fitness and helping his team-mates. Badminton continues in the hall every Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights. The under-age team training will be starting on Saturday next, from 2 to 4.

BRIDE VIEW UNITED A.F.C. NOTES: RED HOUSE LEAGUE

Bride View Utd. 2; Ardmore 2. United 2 goals down, after 29 minutes fought back to share the points in a game they should have won. United opened well and had many chances in the first 20 minutes but their forwards failed to convert them. It was Ardmore who opened the scoring in the 26th minute on one of their rare attacks. Poor defensive work by United left Ardmore in again three minutes later and for a while it looked as if Ardmore were going to win their first league game of the season. But United fought back and a goal by Stephen Curley in the 41st minute put them back into the game. Ardmore led at the break by the odd goal in three.

United piled on the pressure in the second half and did everything but score. The post denied them as well as the Ardmore keeper. It was David Henley who came to our rescue when he scored the equaliser to give United a share of the points in a game they should have won. United - K. Tobin, P. Sheehan, P. Prescod, L. Moroney, J. Sice, P. Curley, D. Henley, G. Hogan, T. McCarthy, J. J. Henley, S. Curley, Res. B. Murphy, D. Flaherty.

Corner House League U/16 - Bride View Utd. 3; Inch 2 - This game developed into a thriller after a scoreless first half. John Paul Grey put United in front two minutes into the second half but Inch fought back and equalised only to see United go in front again when David Doyle who clinched the points for United when he scored a marvellous goal. United now head the league table but it is early days yet.

Thanks - The club would like to thank all the people who supported them in the Co-op Draw. The final number of tickets sold is not to hand but there is a huge increase on last year. Most of this money will go towards the underage teams in the coming months. The first draw takes place on Saturday, November 12th. Best of luck to everyone.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.

The annual tournament involving the u/12 hurlers of Cobh and St. Catherine's took place at Ballynoe last Saturday afternoon. This annual event between these two clubs has maintained its popularity over the years and this year was no exception and in a closely fought game with level scores midway, Cobh were the eventual winners.

Pat Lane (St. Catherine's club) was referee and Catherine's team lined out as follows - Ian O'Connell (goal), Brendan Hickey, Michael O'Brien, Pat Morrisson, Gerard Lynch, Kevin O'Connell, Eric Flynn, Paul O'Connell, Martin O'Keefe, Richard Hegarty, Michael Dorgan, Pat Lane, Michael Hegarty, Michael Twomey, John Collins.

U/13 EAST CORK HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP FINAL

St Catherine's 2-4; Middleton 2-2. Our u/13 hurlers excelled themselves last Sunday morning at Middleton when engaging the local boys in their own territory they achieved a tremendous victory. Last year, playing the same clubs teams in the u/12 competition we finished all square with them at the long whistle but we had to concede victory to them after extra time and of course the incentive this year was to make amends for that hard luck story, and while we had some great victories in the under age games this year this triumph last Sunday will stand out in our memory as our "finest hour". The scoreboard at half-time read - St. Catherine's 1-2, Middleton 1-2.

Knowing that we were facing a great team drawn from the strongest bastion of hurling in the division or almost in the county it was with not little apprehension we entered the

B.I.M. LAUNCHES DEVELOPMENT STRATEGY FOR FISHING INDUSTRY

A Development Strategy for the Seafood Industry, for the period 1988 to 1991, was officially launched by BIM last week. The plan has been approved by the Government. The fishing industry was earmarked for development in the Government's Programme for National Recovery and BIM's plan aims to double total fish production and export earnings by 1991, while also generating 4,400 first-time jobs. Its main focus is on strengthening the supply base, improved utilisation of supplies, and the intensification of the marketing programme for seafood at home and abroad.

Outlining details of the plan, BIM's chairman, Paddy Wright said: "We have three key targets: to double total fish production from 231,000 tonnes valued at IR£76 million to 444,000 tonnes valued at IR£181 million; to increase fish exports from IR£106 million to IR£246 million and to generate 4,400 full-time and part-time jobs in the fishing and ancillary industries. Most importantly these jobs will be in the island and coastal communities where fishing is the prime source of income and where there are few alternative sources of economic activity." The plan will cost IR£115 million to implement. This will be financed by State grants of IR£17 million (14%), EC grants of IR£28 million (25%), BIM loans of IR£58 million (7%) and private industry investors totalling IR£61 million (54%).

COVERS ALL ASPECTS

The new BIM development plan is market-driven. Based on the findings of extensive market research conducted at home and abroad into consumer needs and preferences, it covers all aspects of the supply chain from raw material supply to new product development, quality control and product promotion.

Behind the SPOTLIGHT

metres road races in the US and it was following the second of these victories in Baltimore that the Villierstown man decided to enter for the New York bonanza. After the Baltimore win Treacy is on record as saying: "It will take an awful lot to make up for the disappointment of Seoul but I feel I must try and salvage something. I felt strong and surprisingly aggressive in Baltimore despite the low I felt after Seoul. The terrible thing about Seoul is that I was never able to run hard enough to actually exhaust myself. I was almost out on my feet after six miles and I just fell apart."

Let's hope that John will find the legs to bring him victory next Sunday over there in New York.

NOT NECESSARILY SO

The recent finding of a dead seal on the beach in the vicinity of Ballinacourty Point, Dungarvan and a dead baby dolphin on the strand at nearby Clonea has caused a reader to pose a question to us as to whether they could have been victims of the virus which has resulted in the deaths of thousands of seals in recent months.

Experts in the Netherlands were confident that it was canine distemper which was responsible for killing off such large numbers of Europe's grey seals. Since the swiftly moving virus spread from the Baltic to Britain in the late summer and then to Ireland, research scientists have been feverishly attempting to identify the exact characteristics of the killer. After a flurry of bizarre theories were put forward, biologists at a major conference in Edinburgh decided to call the disease "seal plague" and have found that seal pups have proved most susceptible to it. As a result there are fears that the epidemic may begin a second equally serious wave in 1989 during the next breeding season. Since August last, 118 seals have been reported dead in the Irish Sea, and scientists have informed the public not to touch or interfere with dead seals washed ashore but to contact their nearest SPCA.

In regard to the seal found off Ballinacourty, an experienced veterinarian has expressed the opinion to us that it most likely was a victim of the seal plague but that it probably died some distance from where it was found washed ashore, possibly in the Irish Sea. He did not think, however, that the baby dolphin died from the same cause stating that they were not susceptible to the disease and offered pollution as the most likely cause of death in that case.

TRUCK SPEED LIMITS

We read with no little amusement lately an item in a Dublin daily paper which stated that the National Road Safety Council had opposed a call for an increase in speed limits for trucks on the basis that it would result in more fatal accidents.

It was not this that caused us the amusement but the fact that the proposal to increase the maximum speed for trucks from 40 to 50 mph came from the Confederation of Irish Industry. As all road-users must already be well aware, trucks up to the largest size including articulated lorries drawing trailers, travel at speeds far in excess of 50 mph as matters stand.

Mr. Jim Kelly, Marketing Director of the Road Safety Council, referred to this when he rejected the CII proposal stating that if approved it would result in a rise in real speeds and would contribute to a greater number of fatal accidents. This had been the experience in other countries, especially America and he then pointed out that it was well known that many trucks at the moment do not even observe the present limits. Perhaps a little more activity by the members of the Garda Traffic Corps in this region might have the desired effect of keeping these terrifying (to other road users) speeding 'artics' within the legal speed limit at present permitted.

Our choice for the ballad corner this week "The Glendalough Saint" is about St. Kevin who founded a religious establishment at Glendalough. The ballad dates from sometime late in the last century and is one greatly favoured by Ronnie Drew and the famous ballad group, The Dubliners.

THE GLENDALOUGH SAINT

Our choice for the ballad corner this week "The Glendalough Saint" is about St. Kevin who founded a religious establishment at Glendalough. The ballad dates from sometime late in the last century and is one greatly favoured by Ronnie Drew and the famous ballad group, The Dubliners.

In Glendalough lived an old saint, Renowned for his learning and piety. His manners were curious and quaint, And he looked upon girls with disparity.

Re-fol-di-dol, fol-di-dol-day, Re-fol-di-dol, fol-di-dol-laddy, Re-fol-di-dol, fol-di-dol-laddy, Re-fol-di-dol, fol-di-dol-laddy.

But as he was fishin' one day, A-catchin' some kind of trout sir, Young Kathleen was walkin' that way, Just to see what the saint was about, sir, 'You're a mighty fine fisher', says Kate, 'This yourself is the boy that can hook them, But when you have caught them so late, Don't you want some young woman to cook them?'

'Be gone, out of that' said the saint, 'For I am a man of great piety, Me character I wouldn't taint, By keeping such class of society, But Kathleen wasn't going to give in, For when he got home to his rookery, He found her sitting therein, A-polishing up of his crockery.

He gave the poor creature a shake, Oh, I wish that the peelers had caught him, He threw her right into the lake, And of course she sank down to the bottom, It is rumoured from that very day Kathleen's ghost can be seen on the river, And the saint never raised up his hand, For he died of the right kind fervour.

OPENING OF NEW GLENBEG SCHOOL

privilege to welcome our distinguished guests and the people and children of the area to the official opening of Glenbeg N.S. We are specially honoured to have His Lordship Dr. M. Russell to bless the school and Mr. Frank Fahey, Minister for sport to officially open it. It is obviously a historic and memorable day for the people of Glenbeg and the Bricey Valley. For many years the community here have been striving for a new school to replace the original school built in 1900. Today marks the end of their dreams and hopes as the new school is now a reality. It is a reality primarily because of the on-going determination and commitment of the teachers and local community. Their patience and zealous efforts over the years have been amply rewarded by this splendid modern building.

We thank the Department of Education for sanctioning the new school on Dec. 10th, 1985. The Board of Works, for planning it and overseeing the work. We are especially grateful to the contractor, Billy Halahan of Aglish and his superb workmen for their excellent workmanship. Thanks also to the sub-contractors who worked on the school. A sincere thank you to the Sisters of the Presentation Convent, Dungarvan who accommodated the pupils and teachers during their temporary exile. I am pleased to see our local public representatives present and also our local press representatives and thank them for their support and encouragement along the way.

A special treat will be to Jimmy Murphy of Glenbeg. Jimmy is the oldest past pupil present here to-day and links the past and present as his grandchildren attend the new school. On a historical note, Fr. Tom Cooney, O.S.A. is the oldest living past pupil. He is still hale and hearty and is attached to St. John's Lane Priory in Dublin. Born 23/12/1893, ordained in 1919. He is a former Provincial of the Augustinians and was responsible for starting the Nigerian Mission. (The oldest female past pupil, or so I am told is my own mother. She registered here on the 30th June, 1904. She has an abiding and deep affection for Glenbeg school. Regrettably she is unable to be with us because of illness.

Now as we enter a new era I am confident that the high values and standards of the past will continue. We are truly blessed to have three excellent teachers, whose dedication and enthusiasm will ensure the formation and development of our pupils. Rath De oraibh.

JOHN FLYNN, AGHERN, CONNA, R.I.P.

The death occurred at his residence Mountford, Aghern, last Sunday of Mr. John Flynn. In his late seventies and a well known member of the farming community, he was held in high esteem in the district.

During his active life all aspects of sport claimed his patronage but the one that must have had the strongest appeal for him was the Waltonian pastime and how often he traversed the banks of the adjacent river Bride with rod and line and many were the recipients of some of his marvellous catches. No more will we see him on that route again though we will always remember him as a kindly neighbour and most of all a good husband and father, and our sympathy is extended to his wife Nora, daughters Ann, Marion, Eileen, Mary, Josie, Philly, sons Paddy, Martin, Johnny, Gerard; sister Mrs. Mick Fouby; grandchildren, nephews, nieces grand-nieces, grand-nephews, relatives and friends.
