Plan For New Dungarvan Hotel Approved By Council

Members of Dungarvan Urban Council at their monthly meeting last Monday night unanimously approved of a planning application submitted by McNally and Duffy, architects on behalf of Mrs. E. Flynn, Whitechurch House, Cappagh, for the erection of a new hotel with leisure centre at Shandon, Dungarvan.

When the application was first lodged on November 29 it was found not to comply with the zoning conditions contained in the Dungarvan Town Plan (see Manager's Orders on page 20) and required approval by the Council for a material contravention of the plan.

Mr. John Reid of Reid, McHugh and Partners, who was present at the meeting to present the new Draft Plan (1989-1994) for the town stated that the problem in regard to Mrs. Flynn's application arose from the fact that the Shandon area where the new hotel is to be erected was zoned for residential purposes in the town's previous plan. In the new draft plan, the area was zoned for commercial and social purposes, he said.

Mr. Reid then went on to say that the site was ideal for the facility proposed as it was located on the main route from Rosslare through Dungarvan and was by the sea. He said that following long negotiations, the Architects had come up with the present proposals which took proper consideration of the residential amenity of the two existing nearby houses.

At this stage, Mr. Dan Hurlley, Co. Manager intervened to say that when the original plan for the hotel had been submitted they had identified some faults in it and had referred it back to the Architects and he had then made the order referred to, to deal with the matter.

Mr. Reid then went on to say that the revised plan made provision for the alteration of the car parking area, the erection of a 3-metre high wall, a very extensive tree planted area and high earth mounds all of which would provide adequate protection from the hotel area for the two houses concerned.

FANTASTIC PLAN

Cllr. B. Kyne said that before making up his mind he would like to see the outline plan for the hotel. He pointed out that they had been told before, that no parking would be allowed on the by-pass road and he wanted to reconcile this with what would be required when the hotel was built.

The Manager assured Cllr. Kyne that they envisaged no 'on street' parking as there would have to be sufficient car parking provided within the hotel grounds.

The plans for the hotel were then produced and shown to the members and Mr. Reid explained that the building proposed would be two-storey and the entrance would be from the Shandon Road.

Members generally described the plan displayed as "fantastic" and said that the new hotel would be a most welcome new amenity for the town and on the proposal of Cllr. M. O'Riordan seconded by Cllr. Mary Dixon the plan was then unanimously approved.

STRIKE CONTINUES AT "DUNGARVAN OBSERVER"

The strike by National Graphical Association (NGA) members of the 'Dungarvan Observer' entered its second week on Tuesday as efforts by Union officials to negotiate a settlement of the dispute met with no response from the Management of the paper.

The strike resulted from the dismissal of four members of the print union employed by the paper, Michael Deegan, Martin Linnane, Stephen Cliffe and John Byrne. A strike picket has been maintained at the entrance to the 'Observer' premises at Shandon, Dungarvan since the commencement of the dispute.

An NGA spokesman is on record as stating that by the almost instant dismissal of Michael Deegan and the subsequent dismissal of his three colleagues, the print workers involved had been treated disgracefully. No member of the management was available for comment.

Despite the presence of the pickets, however, last week's edition of the paper was published as usual.

Since then, support for the sacked print workers has been pledged by local members of the National Union of Journalists (NUJ) who will refuse to supply copy to the paper while the dispute lasts.

An effort on Thursday last by senior NGA officials to initiate talks with management failed and Mr. Seamus Casey the NGA Waterford Branch Secretary stated that the official pickets would be maintained on the 'Observer' in advance of any talks that might eventually take place.

WAS MARRIED

Despite his dismissal, one of the striking printers, young Stephen Cliffe, went ahead with his planned wedding to Miss Rose

Dolan in Knockanore Church last Saturday, commenting that being sacked from his job was scarcely "an ideal wedding present".

RECENT DEATHS

MISS NELL MORRISSEY

The death of Miss Nell Morrissey, which occurred at her residence, Ballinamona, Old Parish, on Tuesday, December 27 evoked feelings of profound sorrow in the area. She was aged 84.

Deeply religious she was faithful throughout her life to her First Friday devotions. A most kind and gentle woman, she was a fine neighbour who will be sadly missed by all her friends but more especially by her sorrowing brother, sisters and other relatives to whom we extend deep and sincere sympathy.

Fr. Desmond C.C., recited prayers at Dungarvan Hospital Mortuary before the removal of remains on Wednesday evening to Old Parish Church where Fr. Desmond received and blessed the coffin.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Thursday morning for the happy repose of her soul after which burial took place on the adjoining cemetery.

Fr. Desmond C.C. read the final prayers at the graveside assisted by Fr. Murphy.

Chief mourners — Dan (brother); May and Jo (sisters); brother-in-law; sisters-in-law; relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

MR. MICHAEL LONGAN

We record with great regret the death of Mr. Michael Longan, Ballymacmague, Dungarvan, which occurred at Ardkeen Hospital on Monday January 2. Aged 72 he had been ill for quite some time but bore his illness with courage and resignation, traits indeed which were part and parcel of his character throughout his long life.

Michael who was one of the Colligan area's best known and best loved personalities had been employed for close on 40 years at the Leather Factory in Dungarvan, where he was extremely popular with management and his fellow workers.

He loved the game of 45 and was a regular at the drives sponsored by Colligan Rockies and Emmetts G.A.A. Clubs. He loved hurling and football also and was a great supporter of the local clubs at games throughout the area.

Michael who was also a keen gardener lived life to the full and he enjoyed nothing better than to spend a pleasant evening with his family and friends at the gatherings organised by the Master McGrath Monument Committee.

A true gentleman Michael's death has been the cause of much sorrow to a huge circle of friends, but more especially to his sorrowing wife Mary and other family relatives to whom we extend deep and sincere sympathy on their sad loss.

His remains were removed from the Kiely Funeral Home to Colligan Church on Tuesday evening and were received by Very Rev. R. Doherty P.P. Members of Colligan G.A.A. acted as pall bearers.

Fr. Doherty celebrated the Requiem Mass on Wednesday morning and also officiated at the burial afterwards in the adjoining cemetery. Other clergy present were Rev. W. Carey C.C., Rev. J. Griffin C.C., Rev. P. Ahearne C.C., Rev. G. Hickey O.S.A. and Very Rev. M. Canon Farrell P.P.

Chief mourners — Mary (wife); Noreen and May (sisters); Frankie (brother-in-law); Frank Daly, Galway, Pat and Derry Holland, Cork (nephews); Eleanor McGrath, Ballinacmulla, Breda Harris, Bristol, (nieces); and a large circle of relatives and friends, including the Moroney family, Coolnasmear and England.

(Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

MR. JAMES O'MAHONEY

The death of Mr. James O'Mahoney, Lickeybeg, Clashmore, which occurred at Ardkeen Hospital on Thursday December 22, was the cause of much sorrow in the area. He had been ill for some time.

James had been a highly esteemed member of the community who enjoyed the simple things in life. He enjoyed nothing better than a social drink and a game of cards with his friends and his death has left a void in the area which will be hard to fill.

Sincere sympathy is extended to his sorrowing wife and family on their great loss.

His remains were removed on Friday evening to Clashmore Church where they were received by Very Rev. J. Canon Murphy P.P. assisted by Rev. W. Meehan P.P.

Burial took place in the adjoining cemetery on Saturday following Requiem Mass.

Chief mourners — Philomena (wife); Tony and John (sons); Eileen (daughter); daughters-in-law, son-in-law, grandchildren, relatives and friends.

MR. THOMAS HURTON

We record with sincere regret the death of Mr. Thomas Hurton, Aghlish, Cappoquin, which occurred at Ardkeen Hospital on Tuesday, January 3. He had reached an advanced age.

Tom, who had worked on many farms in the locality in his early years, had been a patient in Dunabney and St. Joseph's in Dungarvan where for nigh on 25 years he had enjoyed the love and care of the staffs of both hospitals.

He was a member of the L.D.F. in his younger days and had also played hurling and football with the local team. While active, he continued to take an interest in the Geraldines G.A.A. Club and followed their fortunes avidly.

Tom was a warm hearted man. He possessed a great sense of humour and his mind was razor sharp and he delighted in relating stories which went back to the turn of the century.

Sincere sympathy is extended to his sorrowing relatives on their sad loss.

His remains were removed on Thursday evening to Aghlish Church where they were received and blessed by Rev. M. O'Byrne, C.C.

Fr. O'Byrne was celebrant of the Requiem Mass on Friday morning and also officiated at the interment afterwards in the adjoining cemetery. He was assisted by Very Rev. W. Callanan, P.P.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Dungarvan.)

MR. JOHN HALLINAN

Feelings of profound sorrow and regret were occasioned in the Scart area at news of the unexpected death of Mr. John Hallinan, Scart, Ballinamult, which occurred at Dungarvan Hospital on Friday, January 6. He was 84.

Member of a well-known and highly esteemed family, he was brother of the late Tommy Hallinan who had run a well-known licensed premises at Kilgob-inet, and of the late Rev. William Hallinan, Adm., Cathedral, Waterford.

In his younger days John had farmed extensively and was always to the fore as far as farming techniques were concerned.

A most highly respected gentleman, his unexpected passing has been the cause of much sorrow to all his friends. He will be sadly missed by all, but more especially by his sorrowing wife and family to whom we extend deep and sincere sympathy.

His remains were removed on Friday evening to Kilbrien Church and the interment took place on Saturday in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. R. Doherty, P.P. and Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C., were present at the obsequies.

Chief mourners — Nellie (wife), Michael, Shannon, James (sons), Jimmy (brother), Noreen (daughter-in-law), relatives, etc.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Dungarvan.)

PAUSE FOR THOUGHT WITH FATHER PADDY

CHOSEN, WHAT MUST THEY DO?

A bird could not fly without air. Without prayer, chosen though we are, we would lose our birthright. Hence, prayer, which is our life-line with God, must play a part in our lives. It is not my intention to discuss the subject other than to tell you that prayer is a talk or chat with God. I will, however, tell you of an experience that will impress on you the power and the influence of prayer.

A Columban Father was visiting his sister at the blind school in Dublin: it was over fifty years ago. He spoke to the children about their work in China, and he especially asked them to pray for some of their priests who had been imprisoned by the Communists, who at the time were trying to get control of the Country.

Soon, he returned to China, and it was not long afterwards his sister heard that he had been taken prisoner by the Communists. She told the children, and she asked them to pray for him.

He was kept in a small cell with ten others, and it was sheer purgatory. They were badly treated, poorly fed and suffered from innumerable inconveniences. One thing that puzzled him was: the place was alive with vermin, and all of them were infested and covered in sores from scratching themselves. Yes, all of them were infested except himself. The others suffered torments, and he could not understand why the lice never touched him. Fortunately, after eight months they were all ransomed for six medical chests.

He had to be nursed back to health before he was able to return to Ireland. Prior to his capture he turned the scales at 14.5 stone but now he was down to 9.5. Eventually, when he returned to Ireland, he went to see his sister at the blind school. He again spoke to the children, and thanked them for all their prayers. One little girl put her hand up, and said: "Please Father, I hope the lice did not touch you. I asked God every day to keep them away from you." I need scarcely tell you that that poor priest cried openly. Certainly, truth is often stranger than fiction, but the story illustrated that there are no boundaries to the power of prayer.

One could draw many conclusions, but the one I would like you to focus your attention on is, the power of children's prayer. I hope I am wrong, but I doubt if parents draw the little children into the circle when they approach God in prayer. The very presence of their innocence will make your prayers all that more pleasing to God.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

WOMEN HURT BY ABORTION

The Editor,
Dungarvan Leader.

Dear Editor,

In his Christmas message Cardinal O Fiaich described the number of Irish women having abortions as 'frightening'. We in Women Hurt By Abortion find it heart-breaking that so many girls are making the same tragic mistake that we made — some of us recently, others, more than 20 years ago.

But, to understand why there are abortions people will have to listen to the women who have had them. For example, after the slogan "A woman's right to choose" many people think we had the abortion because of an 'unwanted pregnancy'. In fact, most of us went against our deepest desires in having it. We were distressed, confused and in panic. Above all, we were conditioned to think of our pregnancy as 'unwanted'.

If we see a pregnancy as 'unwanted' there is only one solution — get rid of it! But if we see it as "a crisis" we can seek the best solution. By speaking of 'unwanted pregnancy' rather than 'crisis pregnancy' the Cardinal is, unwittingly, promoting abortion.

Again, many girls have an abortion to save others — parents, etc. from pain. It seems like a safe, simple, instant solution. They have no idea of the suffering, physical and psychological, they may be bringing on themselves and others.

The physical effects include: infertility (5-10%), ectopic pregnancies, miscarriages, complications in later pregnancies., loss of womb, ovary, bowel or other organs, lacerations of cervix, death.

Many women who have had an abortion are still suffering complete isolation, with no one to turn to. They can feel afraid of affection, misunderstood, hateful, rejected, bereaved, empty, hopeless, guilty, remorseful, suicidal. This suffering is now recognised as Post-abortion syndrome, and can last for many many years.

Women hurt by abortion are among the unmentionables in society today. But until our suffering is recognised and our voices are heard abortion will continue to destroy babies and injure women.

Pigs — Black 1988: Better 1989

"1988 was a bad year for pig producers, the worst since 1973." This was stated this week by Mr. Maurice Tierney, Ballinamult, who is a member of the National Pigs Committee of IFA and a well-known Co. Waterford pig producer.

Mr. Tierney went on to say that "the problems of Irish pig producers in 1988 were caused by a glut of pigs in Europe and higher feed costs precipitated by the American drought. In the circumstances, farmers did very well to survive the crisis and despite income losses continued to improve their production efficiency. There were some casualties, however, last year and commercial pig farms now number less than 800.

"Looking forward to 1989," he continued, "numbers of pigs for slaughter in Europe will decline sharply and returns from the market place are expected to increase by 6% in the first quarter and 10% in the second quarter of 1989 compared to the same quarter of the previous year.

"Pig producers are unhappy with the lack of consistency in grading and killout percentages in slaughtering outlets generally. Even the new grading methods are not showing the expected level of consistency and some factories are not supplying producers with adequate information on grading.

Producers should get a print-out on each pig showing the precise weight and the exact backfat thickness in millimetres together with the actual lean meat percentage. If the quality of the pig is to improve then producers need accurate information on individual pigs on a regular basis.

"Feed costs are higher than justified in the case of some compounders. Prices vary enormously, dependant to some degree on quality and credit terms. Allowing for these variables it is difficult to see justification for pig fattening and sow feed prices in excess of £190 per tonne.

BIGGER PIGS

Having referred to production cost variations and to the lower pig prices in Ireland compared with those paid in England, Mr. Tierney said:

"The processing sector, from time to time, indicates to producers that it requires a bigger pig. The improved facilities at the new slaughter-houses should facilitate a movement towards heavier pigs which producers would welcome.

"However, producers are somewhat critical of processors who don't seem to be able to make up their minds about what they want. Given the right incentive, producers will supply processors with the variety of pigs the industry requires.

"Finally, while producers look forward with some confidence to 1989, they are conscious of the need for improved marketing by processors and see success in this area as crucial in the longer term."

Remembering Other Days

We go back almost 40 years for the photo for our "Remembering Other Days" this week. Taken once more by Tom Tobin, it recalls what he describes as "a glorious day in July" in the year 1952. Two porpoises had been washed up at Abbesside Strand and there taking a look at the rather large mammal on the occasion were Garda Sergt. John Browne (RIP) with Paddy Tobin now in London, John Tobin now in Limerick, Austin Flynn and Michael Strain both still living locally in Dungarvan, Esther Tobin now Cregan living in Limerick and a young woman named Lyons with a young Ion Power and his sisters from Land's End, Abbesside. The young man on the extreme right has not been identified.

PROBLEMS OF LOW FARM INCOMES MUST BE TACKLED

E.C. Income Aid Policy must be targeted at small and medium size farmers outside the disadvantaged areas as well as those within the disadvantaged areas, as their income position was equally acute, Mr. Tom Clinton, President, Irish Farmers' Association said recently. He said that there was an urgent and pressing need for helping farmers where incomes are very low but are outside the disadvantaged areas where there is no mechanism to assist them. The Income Aid Policy according to Mr. Clinton should be re-adjusted to make headage payments available to small farmers whether inside or outside the disadvantaged areas.

The challenge for the E.C., Government and I.F.A. in 1989 must be to redress the very serious income problems so many farm families are faced with. These facts are clearly borne out by the Farm Management Survey of 1987 which shows an average annual farm income of £5,672 which represents only 55% of the average industrial wage. According to Mr. Clinton 75% of farmers have an income less than the average industrial wage, an income level that must be considered to be the viability level as well for farming and their families.

The problem of low incomes in farming is being particularly added to by restrictive E.C. Policy and Government inaction. The E.C. have introduced under its reform of the Common Agricultural Policy in the last number of years, measures which have particularly hit the small to medium farm sector. These farmers have very low milk quotas and the restriction on output and the lack of any real viable alternative is leaving these farmers in a most serious position.

Cereal production and dry stock production are also a sector where the income per acre is £72 and £51 respectively which is much lower than the average for all systems which is £90.

STRUCTURAL FUNDS

Mr. Clinton urged the Government to utilise fully EEC measures by maximising the doubling of the Structural Funds so that a significant contribution can be made towards alleviating the income crisis that affects so many farmers.

Mr. Clinton said IFA would be making specific proposals to the Minister for Agriculture And Food, Mr. Michael O'Kennedy and the new E.C. Commissioner, Ray McSharry, which will be particularly targeted towards small family farms.

I.F.A. Chief And Farm Taxation

IFA, said Mr. Tom Clinton, President, are far from happy with the status quo in the current taxation system and are actively campaigning for substantial changes to reward hard work, family labour and remove anomalies from the system.

Furthermore, he said his Association was neither involved in the planning nor the organisation of the tax marches. Every farmer had to judge for himself whether a new land tax or sales tax on his milk, cattle or produce was in his longterm interest.

"All farmers must be aware of the implicit dangers in a flat rate system without the option to pay on their actual income," added Mr. Clinton.

V.H.I. Medicines Move Condemned By I.F.A.

Opposition to the termination of the VHI cover for prescribed medicines gained further impetus recently with strong condemnation of the move coming from the Irish Farmers' Association which has one of the largest VHI Group Schemes in the country, contributing over £5 million per year to VHI funds.

Mrs. Ann Gibbons, Chairperson of the IFA's National Farm Family Committee, has called on the Minister for Health, Dr. Rory O'Hanlon to reverse this harsh decision. She pointed out that the loss of cover for prescribed medicines under VHI would be a particularly severe blow to farm families, who were already disadvantaged because of:

— Extra medical costs associated with rural isolation;

— Discriminatory means test criteria for Public Health Scheme;

— Acute ongoing income problems on many farms.

GRIM REALITIES

The illusion created by highly publicised Government statements on farm incomes, was totally at variance with the grim realities of life for the majority of farm families. She cited UCD Professor Sheehy's analysis that, even in the so-called 'boom year' of 1988, only one quarter of our 100,000 full-time farmers are on an income level equivalent to the standard industrial wage, the other 75% of farm families being far below that level.

Mrs. Gibbons emphasised that farmers and their families are least likely to avail of the expensive hospital treatment benefits which, according to Dr. O'Hanlon, have led to the VHI Board's financial difficulties.

"In effect", she said, "the more costly elements of VHI benefits are now going to be maintained at the expense of diverting funds away from other VHI subscribers who are in far greater need of assistance with their medical bills. Dr. O'Hanlon must therefore, respond positively to the demand for reinstatement of the VHI prescribed medicine benefit.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

The following Notes reached us too late for inclusion in last week's issue. Deadline now for all items is Tuesday evening. As these Notes contain many items of interest for readers in the Clashmore-Aglish districts, we include them in the column this week:—

ST. STEPHEN'S DAY IN CLASHMORE

This year was one of the busiest in the village. Trade was brisk and despite the rain there was a large turnout of horses and riders for the annual meet of the West Waterford Hounds and the Dungarvan Harriers. Traditional Wren Boys were also providing entertainment in the village.

ENGAGED

Congratulations to Mr. James Murray, Kilmaloo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Murray and Miss Mary Fitzgerald, Cliff Road, Ardmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Fitzgerald on their recent engagement.

HUNT BALL

There was a large attendance at the Annual West Waterford Hunt Ball in Whitechurch House Hotel on December 30. All enjoyed an excellent meal and dance afterwards.

TIDY TOWNS

Clashmore Tidy Towns Committee have almost reached their target of £1,000. On St. Stephen's Day they held a raffle and this contributed quite a lot of money. The results of the raffle were as follows:—

1st, Hamper, Mrs. Vera Murphy; 2nd, £15 Voucher from Noel Devereux, the Tobin family, Curradara; 3rd, Bottle of Whiskey, Alan Curran, Coolboa; 4th, Bottle of Cream of Sherry, Deirdre Fennell, Killongford; 5th, Bag of Potatoes, Seamus O'Rourke.

The draw took place at Tom Beresford's, Clashmore and all enjoyed an excellent night of music, song and dance.

REUNITED

Many young people living and working away from home were reunited with their families in this area over Christmas in West Waterford. Among the many faces to be seen in the village were Walter and Anne-Marie Dower; Redmond, Patrick and Kieran McGrath; Thomas Mansfield and his wife and family; Miss Siobhan Twohig of London, who recently played the leading part of Laurie in Oklahoma at the West End of London, enjoyed ten days holidays in Clashmore; also Mrs. B. Norris of Leamybrien paid a short visit to Clashmore, during which she renewed many friendships especially in the Coolbagh and Ticknock areas. A regular visitor to Clashmore was greatly missed this year and that was of course Paddy Long and his wife Mary. We hope to see them back in the area again shortly.

DEATHS

Many families in this area were bereaved over Christmas and the new year.

JIMMY O'MAHONY

The death occurred of one of the finest characters in this area during Christmas Week in the person of Mr. Jimmy O'Mahony, Lickeybeg, Clashmore. Jimmy had been ill for some time and though his death was not unexpected, he will be greatly missed by his wife Phil, sons Tony and John Joe, daughter Eileen and all the family. The funeral took place to Clashmore Church and the burial was made in the adjoining cemetery.

THOMAS HURTON

The death took place also of Mr. Thomas Hurton, Aglish, Cappoquin. Tom had been enjoying retirement for many years in St. Joseph's Hospital following a life of employment among the farming community in the area.

His remains were taken to Aglish Church and following Requiem Mass on Friday burial took place in the adjoining cemetery.

MRS. MADGE MERNIN

The death occurred peacefully at the District Hospital, Dungarvan of Mrs. Madge Mernin, Villierstown, following an illness. Madge (nee McKenna) enjoyed a very active life and she had a deep interest in many things including reading, traditional music, song and dance. She was a much-loved and popular figure around Villierstown and she will be greatly missed by all her family and friends.

Her remains were taken to Aglish Church and following Requiem Mass on Sunday morning, burial took place in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. W. Callanan, P.P., Rev. Fr. O'Byrne, C.C., Rev. Fr. Ahern, Very Rev. Fr. P. Fitzgerald, P.P., and Very Rev. D. Fitzgerald, officiated.

Many people from the area are presently in hospital. Get well wishes are extended to them all, especially T. O'Brien, Jack Guiry, Mick Curran, Lena Hourigan and Paddy Burns. We hope to see them all out and about shortly.

WEDDING BELLS

Every good wish and congratulations are extended to Miss Eileen Hurton, Ballyheene, Clashmore, on her recent marriage.

RIDER AWARDED

1988 was an excellent year for Capt. John Ledingham and among his many wins was the now world famous Dawn Milk Derby at Millstreet, while he broke Irish records in the high wall, the outdoor at the R.D.S. and the Indoor at Navan. John was awarded leading sportsman in Equestrian Sport for the Ballygowan Sports Star of the Year trophy and though he did not win this overall trophy it was a fantastic achievement for this Waterford man.

KERRYMAN SENTENCED FOR DUNGARVAN ROBBERY

A Kerryman was jailed for four months at Dungarvan District Court last week when he pleaded guilty to a larceny charge.

Jeremiah Hennessy, no fixed abode but stated to be a native of the Kingdom, pleaded guilty to stealing property valued £300 from a Dungarvan house when he unlawfully entered it in broad daylight on December 12 last.

The court was told that Hennessy who was before the court in custody, smashed a window to get into the house and then stole a hallstand, radio and bicycle. He walked past the

There was an unusual turn in a case at Dungarvan Court last week when the Solicitor acting for a defendant living in the Gaeltacht area of Ring sought an Irish version of the Book of Evidence submitted by the prosecuting solicitor who was acting for the Southern Region Fisheries Board who brought the prosecution.

At the November sitting of the Court, Irial MacMurchu, Ring, an unemployed mechanic, was charged on a number of counts with having more than 800 illegally caught salmon taken from the sea, in his possession in a Transit Van at Killongford, Dungarvan, on August 20.

Following submissions at the time by Mr. Fergus Power, Solicitor for the Fisheries Board who alleged that the salmon involved were worth between £12,000 and £14,000, District Justice W. F. O'Connell directed that a Book of Evidence be submitted and adjourned the charges until this could be done.

When the case was called at last week's court, Mr. Power submitted the Book of Evidence which had been prepared. It was in English.

Mr. J. P. Gordon, Solicitor for the defendant then addressed the Court in Irish and submitted that as his client was an Irish speaking resident of the Ring Gaeltacht he was entitled to have the case against him tried in the Irish language.

District Justice W. F. O'Connell replying in Irish agreed that this was so.

Mr. Gordon then went on, still addressing the Court in Irish, to point out that the Book of Evidence submitted in English only and could not be properly understood by his client. He asked that an Irish version of the evidence be supplied, pointing out that the Fisheries Act, under which the 15 charges against his client were brought, had an Irish version. In the circumstances he said that he could see no reason why the Book of Evidence in such a serious matter for his client could not be supplied in Irish.

HIGHER AUTHORITY

District Justice O'Connell said he thought there had been a High Court decision about such a point in a case from the Donegal Gaeltacht and asked Mr. Power whether he could furnish any authority in the matter to guide the Court.

When Mr. Power stated that he would have to look the matter up, the District Justice said that he would adjourn the matter to enable the decision from the higher authorities to be obtained, until February 8.

CAPPOQUIN WOMAN FOUND DROWNED

The body of the woman found on the foreshore at Ballinacourty Pier, Dungarvan on Tuesday evening of last week has been identified as that of Miss Breda Roche, Knockalara, Cappoquin.

Miss Roche who was aged 33 years, was a member of the staff of the nearby Gold Coast Restaurant and she had been missing since that morning. The body was discovered by the proprietor of the restaurant, Mr. John McGrath and was removed to Ardkreen Hospital, Waterford, where a post mortem examination was later carried out.

MINNIES SQUASH CLUB NOTES

MINNIES OPEN '89

Our Annual Open (The Eleventh) took place at Minnies and Dungarvan Crystal Sports Complex last weekend January 13-15 when from 5 p.m. on Friday till Sunday evening we had some brilliant Squash played.

Because of the very hard work by tournament director Tom Phelan, to whom we are deeply indebted, the "show" ran very smoothly.

Friday night saw some great games as our own number one Pat Phelan powered his way to a 3-0 win over Tony Ryan. Sadly Pat faltered to number two seed Michael Morrissey in the second round. Our number two Michael O'Mahoney went down 3-1 to the very talented Kevin Power on Friday night and in the Plate he defeated Seamus Howard 3-2 before losing 9-7 in the fifth set to Paul Kelly in the semi-final. Another score worth a mention from Friday night was Pat O'Brien's fine 3-2 win over former vice-president Brian Barnes.

On Saturday our top ladies took to the court, Helen Kiely seeded one beat Mary O'Donoghue 3-0 before bowing out to no. 4 seed Eileen Dowling in the semi-final, while Fiona Fitzgerald had to work hard for her 3-2 victory over Annette Crowley before going down 3-1 to number 2 seed Kay Bolger 3-1.

Other scores with a local flavour worth mentioning from Saturday were John Foley's good 3-2 win over his old mate Denis O'Brien; Tony Keaver was also a 3-2 victor as he came up against Maurice Walsh; young Owen O'Mahoney was most unfortunate as he lost 10-9 in the fifth set against Jim Walsh of the Crystal in the 'E' Plate. Stephen Lyons recorded one of the great results of the weekend when he defeated Michael Moylan of London 3-2 in the 'C'. Michael had already "put-out" John Cliffe and Eddie Moore.

THE FINALS

Sunday was finals day and because of the huge entry in the mens we had to lay on an extra section. In the mens 'E' Plate, Derek Lyons, a relative newcomer to the game defeated John Killigrew 3-0 (9-2, 9-6, 9-3).

In the 'E' proper Pat Brett (Dublin) beat Owen Fanning (Celtic) 3-2 (9-2, 1-9, 6-9, 9-6, 9-0).

In the 'D' Plate there was plenty of chasing done as Michael Manahan (Crystal) outran our own Kieran Foley 3-1 (9-1, 10-8, 6-9, 9-0). In the 'D' proper John Walsh (Fermoy) beat no. one seed George Hamilton (Crystal) 3-2 (10-8, 9-6, 8-10, 0-9, 9-3).

In the 'C' Plate our own Eddie Moore defeated Eamonn Dowling (Freshfore) 3-0 (10-9, 9-7, 9-1).

In the 'C' proper the performer of the weekend Stephen Lyons put up a tremendous showing as he went down 3-2 to no. one seed Terry James (Waterford), (9-5, 6-9, 2-9, 9-4, 9-1). Terry hadn't dropped a set before the final.

In the Mens 'B' Plate Sean Twomey (Clonmel) had to call on all his experience as he defeated Paul Kelly (Waterford) 3-1 (6-9, 9-3, 9-4, 9-1). In the 'B' proper Kevin Power (Celtic) seeded three toppled the top seed Finbarr O'Doherty (Aer Lingus) 3-1 (9-5, 9-10, 9-3, 9-1), in one of the best games of the tournament.

In the Ladies 'B' Plate our own Anne Wyley performed very well as she beat Carmel Roche 3-0 (10-8, 9-7, 9-2). In the 'B' proper Kay Bolger (no. 2 seed) toppled the number 4 seed Eileen Dowling 3-0 (9-2, 9-4, 9-1).

In the Ladies 'A' 3rd and 4th place play-off, Marguerite Sutton beat Claire Sutton (Curragh) 3-0 (9-5, 9-3, 9-0). In the 'A' proper no-one seed John Singleton had to come back from two sets down to defeat no. two seed Maureen Clarke in a match full of enforced errors (5-9, 3-9, 9-3, 9-5, 9-5).

In the Mens 'A' 5th and 6th place playoff young Jason Martin (England) beat Billy Murphy (Collins Barracks) 3-1 (4-9, 9-3, 9-1, 9-3). In the 3rd and 4th place playoff Nigel Lloyd (New Zealand) proved too skillful for Michael O'Donoghue (Mullingar) as he won 3-1 (9-2, 5-9, 9-4, 9-1). In the 'A' final Willie Hosey showed why his Ireland undisputed number 1 as he recovered from 2-1 down in games to defeat a very determined George Okerchiri 3-2 in a game that lasted 66 mins., (9-7, 1-9, 6-9, 9-2, 9-3).

On behalf of the President Michael Fitzgerald I would like to thank everyone who helped in any way to make the open such a huge success.

LADIES COUNTRY LEAGUE

After some qualifying games for places the following is the team that has been selected to represent the club. At number one and captain we have Mary "Kylie" Coffey; no. 2 Ann Henneby; no. 3 Rita Moore; no. 4 Anne Keaver; no. 5 Katherine Keighery. The subs are Teresa Hayes, Lily Hannigan and Mary Collins.

By the time you read these notes the ladies will have played their first match but you can catch them in action at home next Monday 23rd, January, when they play Tallow. We wish Mary and her team the best of luck in the competition. Don't forget supporters are always welcome especially at home.

MENS COUNTRY LEAGUE

Our mens country leagues squad led by captain Richard Gough play their long awaited quarter final this Wednesday, January 18 (not Tuesday as we had been previously informed) when they take on last seasons winning club Carrigwohill at the neutral venue of Tallow. We would like to wish the "boys" the very best of luck and again supporters would be very welcome this Wednesday and hopefully the following two Wednesdays when the semis and finals will be played.

PENSMAN Takes You. . . . Behind The SPOTLIGHT

'Twill BE CHEAPER TO DIE — MAYBE

The recent withdrawal of the drugs refund by the VHI which has been generally deplored, amounts, in effect, to an increased annual expenditure of £166 on each of the affected members. It allows an annual saving of £7 million to the VHI. This withdrawal of course, will be coupled with the addition to the annual subscription fee increases already announced by the VHI. It all will mean that to remain within the VHI scheme, members will have to find this extra money, perhaps, in many cases, by making sacrifices in other areas of expenditure.

On the other hand, however, the fees paid by the VHI to Consultants will amount to a sum in excess of £4 million for the year, and this represents for some consultants a payment of £154,000 each for the period which by any standards must be accepted as excessive.

As if this was not bad enough, the possibility that GP's fees may also increase is something that will greatly add to the anxiety of thousands of people. The whole lot boils down to the fact that it will mean massive increases for basic health care for everyone.

That such an essential service now costs so much as to put it almost beyond the reach of the ordinary individual shows just how much the Government and in particular the Department of Health is out of touch with the realities of life. It looks as if the health service is now being run more for the benefit of the medical practitioners than for the public.

With such exorbitant charges for medical care, drugs and hospitalisation now facing them, it looks very likely that families will have to cut back on health care, thus increasing risks to themselves, simply because they will be unable to afford the charges. In the long run and it is a frightful thing to have to say this, it will be cheaper to die!

The Government should therefore, in the interest of the public in general, see that all these proposed increases and cutbacks will prove a massive and indeed an unbearable burden for many families and should act to see that health care for the community is not completely priced out of the market.

What price the Hippocratic Oath now!

MORE CONGRATS.

It is very heartening for the Management and staff of the "Leader" to see so many messages of congratulations still reaching the office in regard to the change in style which we have made in the paper. Many readers who openly admitted in the first weeks that they disliked the change and were opposed to it have since called personally, phoned or sent us letters to say that they have since changed their minds and are now quite pleased with it.

Typical of the many congratulatory messages are two from readers in London: Mrs. Bridie Moore and family send a card stating — "new paper terrific, great. Everyone thinks it's better" while Mr. S. O Mathuna writes to say, "there is no doubt about it the new "Leader" is a leader among papers in Waterford — much easier to handle and to read and Tom Tobin's pictures are first class. I must congratulate you and all concerned for bringing out such a wonderful change. . ."

Well our thanks to Mrs. Moore, Mr. O Mathuna and to all the many others who have sent us similar messages of goodwill and encouragement. It means a great deal to all of us concerned in the production of the new "Leader" to have so much appreciation of our efforts and indeed to also realise that the changeover in style and content is beginning to win us more and more readers with each passing week.

THE LISMORE CANAL

Last week in referring to the excellent cleaning up job which the County Council are carrying out on the old canal in Lismore, we asked if any readers could give some background information about the canal. We were fortunate to get a response to our query from two readers — both living in Lismore.

Miss Peggy Campion of New Street called to say that over 100 years ago her great grandfather, Mr. Andrew Troy of Cappoquin ran a steam barge between Youghal and Paxman's Quay (located opposite Willoughby's Garage, Ballyrafter) using the canal for the later part of the journey from Cappoquin to Lismore. Goods transported from Youghal to Lismore in the barge included coal, timber and grain.

Miss Campion then stated that while the barge was being unloaded and re-loaded, Mr. Troy availed of the opportunity to visit his daughter (and her grandmother) Mrs. Ellen Campion at New Street. It is also of interest to note that Mr. Troy was the great-great-grandfather of Peter, Andrew and David Campion and of Gerard and Bill Kennedy who are now all residents of Lismore.

The other response came from Mr. Peter Dowd who has made a close study of the canals and waterways of Ireland. He told us that in all probability the canal was originally the work of the Duke of Devonshire. It was used mainly to bring coal in barges from Youghal to the Lismore Gasworks which in those days was run by the Drohan family. Grain and butter from Paxman's butter factory were the other principal goods transported along the canal.

Mr. Dowd pointed out that in those days, coal was a regular cargo from Youghal to Cappoquin and to many other calling points in between along the Blackwater where the landing "quays" still exist.

He added that there was a lock-gate in the canal about two miles upstream from Cappoquin at which point the river is still tidal and while the actual timber lock has long disappeared, the stonework which supported it is still to be seen.

We are grateful to both Miss Campion and Mr. Dowd for going to the trouble to pass us this information, all of which will, we feel sure be read with much interest not only by people in Lismore but in many other parts of the county as well.

CONSUMERS ARE ASKING

Problems with purchases over the Christmas period still cause a lot of confusion and consumers may not be clear as to what their rights are where such problems are concerned.

For the benefit of those interested and indeed for the benefit of the public in general we publish (without comment) the following article from the recent report of the "Office of Consumer Affairs And Fair Trade." It states:

"The sales are over — or nearly so. Some people may have bought goods in January which turn out not to be of merchantable quality. You bring them back to the shop in February only to be told 'sale goods no refund or return' — or words to that effect. Is the shop right? No!

"You are entitled to bring the goods back (provided you bought them in that shop) and to expect reasonable treatment (including a refund of your money where the merchandise is clearly unfit for use). Your rights as a consumer are the same in respect of the 'sales' as they are at any other time of the year: you are entitled to expect that 'sale' goods will be fit for their purpose and as durable as can reasonably be expected having regard to the price you paid for them.

"Of course if goods are marked 'seconds' then you cannot expect 'first' or perfect quality, but you do have the right to have your complaint treated exactly as it would be at any other time. In this respect the 'sales' are no different to any other time of year".

Should readers give an adequate response to this we will return to other aspects of consumers rights over the next few weeks.

THE CROSS OF OLD PILTOWN

Following our recent requests for the words of "The Cross of Old Piltown," we are glad to be able to state that we have now succeeded in getting them. However our other request for the words of the ballad "The Cross At Ballinroad" has not so far got a response. We know it's not a very well-known ballad but we'll repeat the request for it in the hope that there still might be a response. Here then are the words of "The Cross of Old Piltown," which is our choice for the ballad corner this week:—

At the Cross of Old Piltown at Midnight,
We met them with rifle and steel,
The hirelings of Britain who boasted,
They'd trample our flag 'neath their heels.
We fought as our fathers before us,
We arose at the word of command,
We fought for the freedom of Ireland
A cause that was holy and grand.

Chorus:

I'll give you the brave volunteers boys
The cream and the race of our sod,
Whose lives they willingly gave boys,
For the sake of their lands and their God.

The roar of the guns it was glorious,
The bullets flew round us like hail,
From rifles of cowards and traitors,
Mid the ranks of the sons of the Gael,
And every rebel's a hero,
From Piltown, Old Parish, Ardmore,
And down from the slopes of the Comeraghs.
With Dungarvan's true sons to the fore.

Chorus:

Although he fell in the fight boys,
And his body lies cold in the clay,
In spirit he is in the fight boys,
'Till freedom's flag o'er us waves.
And though the dark cloud hangs o'er us,
And murderous oppression goes on,
Till the crack of a rebel's rifle, shall tell us that victory is won.

Chorus.

Official Opening Of Bridgie Terries New Lounge And Bar

The new Bridgie Terrie Lounge and Bar which, like the Phoenix, has virtually sprung from the ashes of the old Thatch Bar at the Pike, Killineen, Dungarvan, will be officially opened to-morrow (Thursday) night, January 19.

Located just a couple of hundred yards off the main Dungarvan-Waterford road about three miles from Dungarvan, the premises combine the best of the old and the new to provide the ultimate in comfort for patrons in most relaxed and pleasant surroundings.

An imposing double door entrance leads in to a fine spacious bar and customers will at once feel at home in the old world atmosphere created by the rough stone walls and the flagged stone floor, the stone for which was brought from Lisconnor in Co. Clare.

At either end, there are two fine open fire-places one with the old fire blowing machine which had originally been used when the premises was owned by the one and only Bridgie Terrie in those years when the 1900's were young and from whom the premises has now taken its trading title. Complementing the open fires is a highly efficient central heating system which ensures comfortable warmth for customers.

The main bar counter has been divided into a number of "stalls" with novel mirrored partitions while the remainder of the service area is furnished with tables and chairs. An unique feature of the wall seating is the manner in which old church seats have been adapted for this purpose.

WROUGHT IRON SHADES

The interior lighting in the entire bar area lends itself admirably to the old world atmosphere of the place and here again the ingenuity of the proprietor Mr. Maurice Kiely, is displayed by the very unusual wrought iron shades which were made in his MPK Precision Engineering plant in Co. Kerry.

The high, rafted ceiling is another feature which will ensure more than adequate ventilation, thus adding further to the comfort of patrons and the interior is so planned as to allow for the erection of a movable partition which can be used to close off portion of the premises, if required, for private functions and parties.

A special item of interest for patrons of Bridgie Terries should be a very old framed chart showing the Grand National course with a list of all winners from 1837 when the great race was first held up to 1931. The proprietor, Maurice Kiely, who incidentally hails from nearby Glendaligan, told us that he picked this up lately in Cork city.

Manager of Bridgie Terries who is in charge of the day-to-day running of the premises is Gerry O'Mahoney, formerly of Radley's Lounge in Abbey-side and he is assisted by staff members Maria Deegan and Pat Murray. In addition to the best of drinks a full range of bar snacks will also be available for customers.

CORKIES FOR THE OPENING

For the official opening night, the well-known and very popular Cork City traditional and ballad group "The Corkies" has been specially engaged and should ensure a cracking night's entertainment for all patrons who will travel to the Pike to-morrow (Thursday) night to wish Maurice Kiely, his Manager and staff, every success for the future.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

TROOP MEETING

The meeting started at 7 p.m. While subs were being collected the St. Patrick's Day float was discussed at the Patrol Corners. Because of the parade on Friday it was a mufty meeting and John Paul had a balloon activity planned. At 7.20 the PLs and APLs set out to prepare to ambush the scouts, all of whom had balloons, some filled with water. After a lot of chasing and getting wet, only two people survived: Gavin Keane (he hid his balloon and picked it up later) and Michael Brett. We were all back at 8.15 for Aidan Mullarkey's game.

The Tiger and Wolf Patrols came joint first with 3 out of 5 questions correct. Then Sean Fitzgerald took the floor. After a quick game of "cannon ball" (a favourite with most) and bulldog, and of course "north, south, east and west," the Scout Prayer was said with Colin O'Connor leading us.

BADMINTON LEAGUES

Our badminton leagues, sponsored by Michael Moloney, Hardware, came to a close last Tuesday. After this section, Alan Ryan is still number one with 8 pts. (+30), Tomas Walsh moves to second with 8 pts (+17), Ray Moore third 2 pts. (+1), Michael Cosgrave 4th 2 pts. (-13) and Sean Cartwright 2 pts. (-21).

In the second division, Michael Sheehan was tops, in the third division Darren French was the winner, in Division Four Liam Moore was king, in Division Five William Fennell was king and in Division Six Alan Mulcahy was tops.

On the overall front of points, William Fennell is the leader with 10 pts (+43); 2nd, Alan Mulcahy 10 pts (+33); 3rd, Aidan Mullarkey 10 pts (+28); 4th, Alan Ryan 8 pts. (+30); 5th, Michael Sheehan 8 pts. (+28), and sixth Michael O'Connor 8 pts (+27).

Our second section commenced Tuesday, January 17. All players are asked to fulfil all their fixtures.

N.L.B. UPDATE

Our December/early January Nugent / Lanigan / Burke inter patrol competition points were posted on the noticeboard last week when it was discovered we have new leaders, but only just. In the December competition it was the Tiger Patrol under Aidan Mullarkey who were victorious. Items scoring points were Christmas Eve and Friday Church parades to Mass, attendance, inspections, drill, patrol activities and our week-end in Melleray.

The December results were: (1) Tiger 240; (2) Wolf 209; (3) Eagle 202; (4) Kestrel 188; (5) Panther 175; (6) Wolfhound 103. The overall positions now read: 1st, Wolf Patrol (PL Gerard Mullen) 956; 2nd, Eagle Patrol (PL Michael Sheehan) 955; 3rd, Tiger

Patrol (PL Aidan Mullarkey); 4th, Kestrel Patrol (PL John Paul Cosgrave) 844; 5th, Wolfhound Patrol (PL Alan Beatty) 803; 6th, Panther Patrol (PL Liam Moore) 704.

Grant To Royal National Lifeboat Institution

The Taoiseach has approved a grant of up to £1.1m. to the Royal National Lifeboat Institution from funds made available following the enactment of the Irish Sailors Land Trust Act, 1988.

This legislation provides for the disposal of funds received by the Exchequer from the Trust. The grant will be used for the purchase of an Irish Relief Arun lifeboat which will serve at stations around the entire coastline and for the further development of the Institution's search and rescue services.

GLOR NA nGAEL REVIVAL IN DUNGARBHAN

This organisation was set up by Cumann na Sagairt to promote the growth and use of the Irish language in everyday life. Trophies were presented every year to the town or locality which was adjudged to have excelled in the promotion of our native language in that year.

A very effective committee existed here in Dungarvan in the 1960's, and the hard work and dedication of this committee eventually bore fruit, when in 1970, Dungarban won the trophy. The President of Ireland and the Chief Justice are patrons of Glor na nGaedheal. A day of great celebration was held in Dungarvan in the summer of 1971, when the late Cearbhaill O Dalaigh, the Chief Justice presented the trophy.

An effort is being made at the present to form a committee of Glor na nGaedheal in the town, with the object of repeating the success story of 1970. A preliminary meeting was held in town a few weeks ago, at which Risteard Breathnac was elected chairman, and Proinseas O Miocain, secretary (Risteard was a member of the successful committee of 1970). At the meeting it was decided to hold a public meeting at Lawlor's Hotel on Wednesday, January 18 at 8.30 p.m.

Anyone in the Old Boro, or vicinity, who would have an interest in this project, or might like to give a helping hand in any way, is invited to attend this meeting.

ARMORE/GRANGE I.C.A. NOTES

Our January meeting was presided over by Mrs. B. Keane who wished all members a happy and peaceful New Year. We hope all our members had a very enjoyable Christmas.

It was expressed by all our members, what a wonderful success our Christmas party in our I.C.A. hall was. A big thank you to all those who helped to make our party such a success including our musicians and especially all those who supported our draw.

We were saddened to learn that Mrs. Bridie O'Brien is hospitalised at the moment. We wish her a speedy recovery and hope she will be back among us very soon.

Our work meetings are continuing on Monday nights. Fr. Reid was our guest speaker for the night. He gave a very interesting and informative talk on wine making.

Our next meeting is on Feb. 14th.

DUNGARVAN SCOUT NOTES

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CUBS

As to-night was our first night back after the holidays we played a few of our most popular games, beginning with volley ball which was won by Ray's team. "On the bank, in the pond" was our next game and this was won by Paul Healy, despite all the pressure from Declan and Mille. For "bubble car" we divided the boys into teams of four. The results were Declan (1st), Gareth (2nd) and Seamus and Mille (joint 3rd).

Our last game was five-aside soccer. Again we had four teams and Niall and Maurice led the boys for the final, refereed by CL Susan, whilst ACL's Tom and Paula showed the semi-finalists some knots which, hopefully, they were practising all week.

To finish the night, some of the cubs entertained us with jokes, songs and storytelling. Mike Kiely told us a lovely story about his Christmas Eve waiting to meet Santa Claus, although he never said whether he did or not!

Until next week.

DUNGARVAN/ABBEYSIDE/ KILGOBINET EMIGRANTS EXCURSION

Emigration is once again a sad reality in Irish life. It is a grim commentary on those who manage our affairs that after almost 70 years of native Government our main export is our young people. Our Government also stands indicted for the almost total lack of concern and interest in our emigrants once they leave. The derisory amount of money given by the Government to voluntary bodies in England who have to cope with the newly arrived emigrants is a national scandal.

Consequently many of our young emigrants feel abandoned and alone. It is essential for all of us to maintain contact with our emigrants to show that we care and that we are concerned. Like the rest of the country many young people have left Dungarvan and Abbeyside in recent times. This year 1989, it is proposed to visit our emigrants in London. It is hoped that emigrants will travel from other parts of Britain for the reunion. In this way we will be showing community solidarity with the emigrants from Dungarvan, Abbeyside and Kilgobinet. Leaflets were distributed at the Churches last Sunday seeking addresses of your emigrants not only in Britain but where ever they are in the world. This information is important to maintain the lines of contact and communication. We hope you will avail of the Emigrants Excursion to visit your relatives and friends in Great Britain.

We will travel to London on Whit week-end, June 2-5. Please return the leaflets to your parish church before the end of January. — [Contributed]

DUNGARVAN DRAMATIC CLUB

It's all systems go for Dungarvan Dramatic Club's first production of 1989 which is "Ghosts" by Henrik Ibsen. This will take place in the Friary Hall Theatre on this Wednesday, January 18 to Saturday 21 (inclusive), at 8 p.m.

"Ghosts" is a play which deals with the consequences of a woman's decision to return to her husband and travesty of a marriage. She sacrifices her feelings on the altar of respectability.

"Ghosts" is a gripping tale with many a twist and moments of high drama — it's well worth a visit.

The cast includes some experienced performers who have trodden the boards of the Friary Theatre on many an occasion. Two of the faces are new and welcome additions to the club.

The cast is: Mrs. Alving — Mary Kelly, Pastor Manders — Sean Forde, Regina Engstrand — Helen Forde, Oswald Alving — Michael Hennessy, Engstrand — Hank Regan. The Producer is Sean Feehan.

Be sure to attend this very worthwhile and rewarding drama. — P.R.O.

MISS MAURA DINNEEN (NEE SMIDDY), BALLYNOE, R.I.P.

The sad news of the death of Mrs. Maura Dinneen, which occurred at the family residence, Lower House, Ballyknock, Ballynoe, last Wednesday caused profound regret to all people of the parish and surrounding districts with whom she was deservedly popular. A great family woman and a great community woman, she had many interests and for enthusiasm knew no bounds. She assisted such societies as Pioneers, Community Council, Tallow Credit Union and I.C.A., performing on stage with the latter even less than two years ago when her serious illness of a few years back proved a testing time for her.

But her indomitable spirit and her ready acceptance of ill-health without a complaint won for her the admiration of everyone and she has set us an example of patience and endurance which except for God's great help it would be difficult to emulate and to have made her acquaintance is a memory to be cherished always.

Our dearest sympathy is expressed to her husband — Matt, sons — Michael and David, daughters — Marie and Siobhan, sister — Bidy, brothers — Sean and David, sisters-in-law, brother-in-law, relatives and friends. Solus na bhflaitheas da h-anam uasal. A large concourse attended the obsequies to St. Catherine's Church on Thursday evening and also the interment at Conna New Cemetery on Friday.

ARDMORE NOTES

IN HOSPITAL

We would like to wish a speedy recovery to Robbie Whelan who is in hospital at the moment. Hope to see you home soon.

Welcome home to Mrs. Bridie O'Brien, Main Street, after her recent spell in hospital, and also Kenneth O'Brien of Grange.

RECITAL EVENING

A recital evening, "Instrument and Choral" will be held in St. Paul's Church, Ardmore on Saturday, January 21. Tickets are available from Stella Durand and Currie Hosford.

BADMINTON NOTES

Badminton is in full swing at the moment with the knockout cup and the ladies and men's leagues underway. The 6th division have beaten Carrick-on-Suir so they now go on to the second leg of the cup. The team is as follows: Pat Walsh, Michael Morrissey, Kieran Allen and Nicholas Cunningham, Margaret O'Brien, Bridie Curran, Mary O'Mahoney and Christine Walsh.

The men's and ladies league begin this week also and some strong opposition is expected in all sections.

Teams must pull together and support each other and take their badminton seriously if they are to achieve results. The 5th Division met Tramore G.A.A. on Thursday night and will have a return match at home this week.

The 3rd Division are practically non-existent at this stage and the amount of commitment by most of the members of this Division leaves a lot to be desired. To get results at any level, commitment, practice and dedication are expected.

We would like to wish a speedy recovery to Kenneth O'Brien after his recent spell in hospital. We understand he will not be playing any badminton for a few months and he will be a loss to the 5th Div as he was one of their most valuable players.

Congratulations are the order of the day for Michael Morrissey who got engaged over Christmas. Michael has been a member of the club for a number of years and we wish himself and his fiancée Tina all the best in the future.

The juvenile club is still going along nicely on Mondays and Saturdays, and all players are improving week by week, with Ciaran Foley and Bob Baker showing a big improvement since Christmas.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

FIRST MEETING

We held our first Committee meeting of the season last Thursday night and got through a very lengthy "clar" in good time. There was much important club business to discuss and it was good to see the young recruits making worthwhile contributions.

ADDITIONAL VICE-PRESIDENTS

Omitted from the list of Vice-Presidents in our A.G.M. report were loyal clubmen Jack McCarthy and John Costin. These two men have given tremendous service to the club down the years.

FUND-RAISING

Once again we have joined the Co-op Draw and we sincerely hope that our loyal supporters will contribute to the cause. The biggest headache in the club at present in finance. The flooding in October was disastrous for the club and has left us facing a massive pay-out to repair the damage. It will take a huge fundraising effort to raise the capital.

CAPPOQUIN F.C.

Brideview 2; Cappoquin 3

We were away to Brideview last Sunday and in a bright opening created many chances but failed to put them away. After 20 minutes, as we attacked, Brideview broke away and scored their first. Cappoquin attacked and as Gossie Mason was brought down in the area, Mick Walsh made no mistake from the penalty to leave it

1-1 at halftime.

We attacked on the resumption but Brideview were always good on the break as they proved when they scored their second midway through the half. Brideview held out until midway through the last quarter when Gossie Mason ran on to a through pass to score the equaliser. Our winner came when Mick Walsh got the touch in a goalmouth melee.

CAPPOQUIN PTAA

There has been a fairly quiet start to 1989 but we are still working hard on the Council to ensure that the Association carries on. During next week our census will reach the town of Cappoquin and our members will be calling to hand over the forms. We will be reminding everybody about our Get-together which we will be holding in early March this year and we look forward to the return of all our friends for this annual function then. We ask for your co-operation in filling in and returning our census forms to us.

DANCING AND MUSIC

Traditional Night dancing and music in aid of Cappoquin Dancing Classes at the Sportman's Inn, Cappoquin on this Friday night January 20. Come along and enjoy a really great night's entertainment. Prizes on door ticket. Finnisk C.C.E. All are welcome. Admission £1. (Advt.)

CATS BAR BOWLING TOURNAMENT

2nd Round, Sunday next, January 22 — Ml. Power, Tony Hickey, Ml. Coleman, Maurice Gambon, Tony Walsh, Jimmy McCarthy, John Noonan.

RAILWAY ATH. F.C. UNDER 14 S.F.A.I. CUP SEMI FINAL

Bohemians 8

Railway Athletic 0

Our Under 14's travelled to Waterford on Saturday morning last for the semi-final and suffered a terrible hiding. Our first division opposition were far too strong and dominated the game from start to finish. However we are not making excuses for our lads who totally lacked commitment on the day and just stood around as our opponents had total control.

Team — B. Whelan, M. Crowe, K. Cotter, K. Mason (capt), R. Curran, F. McLaughlin, G. Reddy, K. Cahill, P. McLaughlin, J. Fleming, A. Gilligan. Subs — B. O'Connor for Cotter, B. Tobin for P. McLaughlin.

UNDER 12 GAME OFF

Our under 12 league game against local rivals

Dungarvan Utd. scheduled for Saturday morning last, was postponed.

TRAINING

Training continues on Tuesday nights for our under 12's (6.00 to 7.30 p.m.), and our under 14's (7.30 to 9.00 p.m.).

SNOOKER CLUB JAMESON CUP

The closing date for entries for this, the club's most sought after piece of silverware, is Wednesday January 25.

At club competitions are of course open to members only, so I am sure the attraction of the Jameson Cup will entice many more club members within the next few weeks or so.

The membership fee is a very reasonable £5 and is payable to any committee member.

The entry fee will be £2 for this tournament. All rounds before the quarter-finals stage will be the best of three frames; the quarter-finals the best of five frames; the semi-finals the best of seven frames and the final the best of nine frames.

James Morrissey goes into this seasons competition as the holder, so he will be ranked among the favourites to take the cup again this year.

The draw will be made by the tournament committee on Wednesday, January 25th at 8 p.m. in the snooker room.

GLENVIEW A.F.C.

HARD FOUGHT WIN FOR GLENVIEW

Ballysaggart 0, Glenview 2

Glenview had a hard fought away victory on Sunday last. The pressure that is building up as the league draws to its climax was beginning to show and it took a full half hour for us to settle, when Jimmy Power's long range effort put us into the lead.

When Ballysaggart did give us trouble in front of goal, stand-in 'keeper Pat Casey coped competently with everything.

We finally sealed the points when Philip McGrath scored with a volley from outside the box.

Ballysaggart had two players sent off in the final 20 minutes for persistent fouling, something which did their cause no good.

We have a home game against Grange to look forward to next week, so let's keep up the good work. — P.M.

LISMORE NOTES

LISMORE F.C. NOTES

Lismore played their twelfth league game last Sunday morning in The Red House League and won 5-2 against Mogeely at the Castle Farm grounds.

This was not a vintage display and at half time we were level at 2-2. Those two goals against us were absolute presents and against stronger opposition we could very easily be in trouble.

Long serving player, Donal Landers, made a return to playing after a lengthy lay-off due to injury, and his presence made a difference. The club created a record — indeed a league record probably, when the midfield trio consisted of three brothers — Prendergasts — while the goal-scorers were the Lawton brothers — Brendan (hat-trick) and Kieran (2).

Team — M. Fitzgerald, P. Fitzgerald, E. Cusack, B. Landers, Dave Landers, Paul, Brendan and Seamus Prendergast, T. Pratt, B. Lawton (capt.), K. Lawton. Subs. — Donal Landers and F. Power for Paul and Barney Prendergast.

Next Sunday we play at home again — this time to Inch, who gave Modeligo a hard run on Sunday last before going down 2-1. Inch have proved they are a very strong side and we will have to take all our chances and not concede any soft scores, as we did last Sunday. Kick-off on Sunday is 11.30 a.m.

DRAMA NEWS

With the Annual St. Patrick's Day Show only a few weeks away, a full meeting of all and intending members will take place in the club room this Friday at 8.30 p.m.

LISMORE G.A.A. NOTES

Annual General Meeting — Our annual general meeting took place last Sunday, January 15, in our new clubhouse. A full report will be given in next week's issue of the "Leader."

Committee Meeting — The first meeting of the new committee takes place this Wednesday evening, January 18, in the clubhouse. All are requested to attend.

GOLF CLUB NOTES

The Spring League begins this week and with a record entry of eighty players we can expect some great scoring and a ding-dong struggle between the eight teams involved.

Friday night, January 20, sees the first of the "Variety Nights" presented by the members.

The Tallow Group will put on the first performance and with the wealth of talent and the depth of experience that Kevin and Ned and company can draw from, it should be a night to remember. Members are expected to turn out in force for these fun nights and be sure to bring a friend.

Last weekend's competition was 9 hole stroke and was won by Ned Power. Ned dropped two shots on the first hole but was level par for the rest.

Results — Saturday 14 and Sunday 15 December — 9 hole stroke — 1st, N. Power (13) 30.5 nett; 2nd, R. Ormonde (6) 31 last three; 3rd, B. Ormonde (16) 31 nett.

Fixtures — Spring League all through the week. Re-entry.

LISMORE LADIES GOLF NOTES

The Minor Alliance had a beautiful day on Thursday last and congratulations to all the winners. The ladies haven't got going yet on the golf scene. Congratulations to Delta Hogan for her great score of 22 points for the on-going 9 hole competition held over the Christmas period.

We look forward to our Spring League and getting back into the "swing" of it. There is a 9 hole on-going competition for anybody anxious to get out and about. — "Divot."

BADMINTON NOTES

Last Monday night, January 9, the division 1 team came through the first round of the 'Knock-out Cup', beating Waterford 5-3. This game was played at home. The ladies league got underway on Monday night with a home game and on Tuesday night our "G" team were away to Old Parish. — P.R.O.

RED CROSS

The annual general meeting of the above Society will be held on Thursday, January 19, in The Red House at 8 p.m. — P.R.O.

BALLINVELLA COMMUNITY CENTRE NOTES

A great night was had by everyone in the Community Centre on January 2. Full praise to our local musicians and to D.J. Johnny White for providing the music.

At a recent meeting best wishes for a speedy recovery were sent to Tony McGrath, Camphire, who is presently recovering in the Cork Regional after an operation. Congratulations were also sent to Johnny White and Edith Dolan, and to Bernadette Morgan and Ollie Farrell on their recent engagements.

Our next important event in the Community Centre will be our annual general meeting on Monday, February 20 at 8.30 p.m. All are more than welcome to attend.

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN (Never known to fail) — O most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendour of heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favour is granted. Grateful thanks. — V.A.C.

Have you ever lost a loved one,
Who meant the world to you,
The one I loved so very much,
And miss him like I do.
Then pray you never do,
For when God takes the one you love,
He takes a part of you.
Your smile is gone forever,

But we will never lose the memory,
Of a father we loved so much.
(Always missed by your loving wife Mary, sons, daughters, daughter-in-law, sons-in-law and your loving grandchildren.)

SOCCER ROUNDUP

DUNGARVAN UTD. A.F.C. NOTES

Division 2A League—
Dungarvan 3, Slieverua 2

A good showing by our second squad at Kilrush Park on Saturday evening last in their first outing since the Christmas break, when they overcame a spirited challenge by visitors Slieverua. For the second time this season the visitors proved to be a tough nut to crack and indeed earlier this season they inflicted the heaviest defeat that the Blues have suffered for quite some time.

Despite the heavy overnight rain the pitch once again was in excellent condition due mainly to the hard work by groundsman Pat Walsh, assisted by Christy Power.

The Blues made a flying start to this game and were a goal up after fifteen minutes when "Pepe" Ferncombe picked up the ball in midfield, shook off two tackles and fired in a left-footed shot from fully 30 yards to put the Blues in front.

Dungarvan began to dominate matters from this point and a great run by M. Houlihan took him clear of the defence but his shot was well saved by the keeper. Dungarvan almost increased their lead before the break when T. Egan got on to the end of a right wing cross, but his firm header was well saved by the keeper.

The pattern remained the same on the turn-over and the Blues increased their lead with the best move of the game — a good run by G. Beresford which saw him link up with Houlihan, Egan and Donovan, and the latter's inch perfect cross was headed powerfully home by T. Hamilton.

The visitors reduced the arrears minutes later when the ball broke kindly for Murphy to shoot past M. O'Dwyer. The game was all square after seventy minutes when slack marking in the home defence allowed Francy time and space to head home the equaliser.

Dungarvan brought on D. Crotty and G. Hamilton with seventeen minutes remaining and the switch brought instant results when Beresford took a return pass from Crotty and his centre was met by the in-rushing Donnelly who headed a beauty past the keeper.

This was a welcome two points for the Blues who face a tough away trip to St. Pauls next week-end.

Best for Dungarvan were Donnelly, Beresford, Hughes, Houlihan, T. Hamilton.
Team — M. O'Dwyer, G.

Burke, M. Donnelly, G. Beresford, S. Cummins, J. Hughes (capt.), P. Ferncombe, M. Houlihan, T. Egan, T. Hamilton, T. Donovan. Reserves: D. Crotty and G. Hamilton for M. Houlihan and Johnny Hughes.
Referee — Jim Grant.

RED HOUSE LEAGUE

CAPOQUIN CONTINUE CHALLENGE

With the home pitches comparatively quiet on Sunday, Lismore and Mogeely being the only game in the area, we travelled to Tallow to see if Cappoquin could continue their challenge for first division honours. They succeeded by the minimum margin, but in the process gave their supporters some moments of real anxiety. Weather conditions were ideal and the pitch looked splendid.

A lack-lustre first half left the teams level 1-1 at the break. Stephen Curley gave Bride View the lead but Mick Walsh put Cappoquin level when "Gossie" Mason was deemed to have been taken down in the area.

The game came to life in the second half when Brian Henley, a fast and elusive right winger, restored Bride View's lead and then the game produced some marvellously exiting exchanges. Gossie Mason levelled for Cappoquin. The tempo quickened even more as both sides raided for the winner.

There were some heart stopping exchanges in both goalmouths as both sides sought that elusive winner, but it fell to Cappoquin. From a corner of the right, Mick Walsh touched home in a frantic goalmouth exchange.

A contest to raise the adrenalin and a credit to both teams. Donogh Cummins on the Cappoquin right wing was the best player on view and his thunderbolt shot that came back off the bar could have been "goal of the season." Eamonn and Mick Walsh, Gossie Mason and "Wattle" Moore contributed so much to a good all-round team performance.

Bride View contested well all the way. The youthful Gary Ahearne is a bright goalkeeping prospect, Pascal Prescod was a solid centre half, Stephen Curley and Gerry Hogan won their fair share at midfield and Dermot Henley was always in the thick of it on the left side.

Cappoquin — L. Morrissey, G. Morrissey, E. McLoughlin, M. Morrissey, M. Walsh, J. Mason, D. Moore, D. Lucas, D. Cummins, B. Murray, F. Murray, F. Walsh, B. O'Shea.

Bride View — G. Ahearne, P. Sheehan, K. Murphy, G. Sice, P. Prescod, S. Curley, G. Hogan, J. J. Henley, P. Curley, D. Henley, B. Henley.

Jim Foley was always in control and up with the play.

Tyre Centre Cup Draw

The draw for the Dungarvan Tyre Centre Cup, the knockout competition of the Red House League, was made at a meeting of league delegates at the Red House, Lismore, on Monday, January 9. The draw was made by the sponsor, Mr. Noel Fagherly of the Dungarvan Tyre Centre and resulted:

Three first round games January 29 — (A) Valley Rangers v. Cappoquin B; (B) Affane v. Modeligo; (C) Pinewood Rangers v. Cappoquin A. Second Round, February 19 — 8 games: A. v. C., Ballysaggart v. Ardmore, Inch v. Killeagh, Piltown v. Pinewood Utd., Bride View v. Youghal, Glenview v. Lismore, Mogeely v. Grange, B. v. Ballyduff.

Quarter-finals — March 5; semi-finals March 19; final April 9.

All rounds up to and including quarter-finals to be played to a finish, with extra time and penalties if required.

Such was the draw on January 9, but on last Sunday morning came the surprising news of the withdrawal of Youghal from all Red House Competitions. The why or wherefore of this move we know not but it does leave the holders Bride View in to the quarter-finals without kicking a ball.

Pick of the first three games is the derby meeting of neighbours Affane and Modeligo, and Affane can be fancied at home. Valley should be too strong for Cappoquin B at Conna but Cappoquin A should have a successful trip to Ballymacarbry. Either Affane or Modeligo have a tough second round assignment, though they will have home advantage, against current league leaders, Ballyduff.

Taking a broad look at the second round draw, we should nominate Cappoquin A, Ardmore, Killeagh, Piltown, Lismore, Bride View, Grange and Ballyduff to reach the last eight.

RED HOUSE LEAGUE

SUDDEN WITHDRAWAL BY YOUGHAL

Talking point this week will be the sudden withdrawal of Youghal from the competition this weekend. We know not why and wherefore of the decision but their departure will be regretted for they have made a significant contribution over the years.

The series played on Sunday yielded the following results: Division 1 — Ballyduff 2, Pinewood Utd. 0; Killeagh 1, Affane 1; Valley Rangers 4, Ardmore 2; Youghal v. Piltown, Piltown w.o.; Bride View 2, Cappoquin 3. Division 2 — Lismore 5, Mogeely 2; Inch 1, Modeligo 2; Pinewood Rangers 1, Grange 1; Ballysaggart 0, Glen View 2.

This leaves the tables, with adjustment for the withdrawal of Youghal reading like this: Division 1 — Ballyduff 22, Cappoquin 20, Killeagh 17, Valley rangers 16, Piltown 15, Affane 15, Bride View 12, Pinewood Utd. 12, Ardmore 4. Ballyduff, Affane and Ardmore have played 14.

Division 2 — Lismore 21, Modeligo 19, Glen View 18, Grange 12, Pinewood Rangers 11, Inch 10, Mogeely 7, Cappoquin 6, Ballysaggart 0. Glenview, Inch, Cappoquin and Ballysaggart are all on 11 and each has a game in hand.

BALLINROAD A.F.C.

Impressive Win For Ballinroad

BALLINROAD 5; KYLEOGUE 1

After the Christmas break it was back to league action on Sunday morning last when we were at home to Kyleogue. Incidentally, this game was due to be played in Kyleogue but was switched to Ballinroad, the Kyleogue pitch being unplayable.

We kicked off with the aid of a strong breeze and got a tonic start of a goal after only 2 minutes, Ray Burke scoring with a hard low shot. Five minutes later Les Delahunty added number two, scoring after good work by M. Foley.

Pat Keane after Ray Burke was taken down. This goal and the fact that Kyleogue were reduced to ten men when their centre-half was sent off, killed the game as a contest.

Peter Hayes scored our 5th goal after 75 minutes. Play became very scrappy but credit to Kyleogue for trying, and they were rewarded with a consolation goal in the 80th minute, again from the penalty spot.

This was our biggest win of the season, with a good team display which keeps our league hopes alive.

Our next game is a tough one at home to St. Joseph's on Saturday 21 at 2.30 p.m.

Team — P. Flynn, P. Lynch, B. Mahony, D. Crotty, P. Keane (capt.), J. Meehan, I. Kiely, R. Burke, P. Hayes, L. Delahunty, M. Foley. Res., M. Butler for M. Foley (second half).

SUPER DRAW

The third of the Super Draws took place in Lismore on Saturday, January 14. Ballinroad had one winner. More details next week — P.R.O.

We continued to press forward, missing at least two good chances. However, goal number three came after 30 mins. in the form of a penalty from Pat Keane after Delahunty was taken down in the area. Half time came with Ballinroad well in command.

In the second half we

Dungarvan G.A.A. Notes

A DESERVED DRAW

Although it took a late, late point to ensure we remain unbeaten in the six-team senior football league being run by the Tramore club, a draw was no more than we deserved in our away game against Rathgormack last Sunday.

Once again circumstances ordained that we would have to field well below full strength. However the team gave a gritty and determined display and came back splendidly to force a division of the spoils in the end. We now have three points from our two games played to date in the league.

LOCAL DERBY

Our next game is the local derby meeting with Ballinacourty at the Burgery on Sunday morning (11.30) and if we garner maximum points here we will be in a very strong position in the league.

We are hoping to be nearer full strength for this one than we have been in our two previous games and an exciting "derby" clash is in prospect.

CONVENTION

We'll have a full eight-member delegation at the Western Board convention in Stradbally on this Thursday night.

We can expect an unopposed return for John Moore as assistant secretary, and while Paddy Fitzgerald is being challenged for the treasurership we are confident his excellent record of service to the Board will ensure his re-election.

COUNTY RUNNER-UP

Congratulations to clubman Tony Ryan who ran a superb race to finish runner-up behind Gerry Deegan in the senior county cross country BLE championship last Sunday.

Indeed it was a good day for members of our club as Michael Roche and Tom Meehan finished very creditably in 4th and 8th places respectively.

WELL DONE DEREK

Derek Lyons was in squash action throughout last week-end when the 11th annual Minnies Open Championships were staged.

Derek was in good form too and won the "E" Plate final in fine style. At least we now know that he is fast approaching full fitness and that can only be good for our hurling and football fortunes.

THE BIG SELL

It's very much a case of "action all stations" these days as we press ahead with the big Co-Op Development Draw which begins for three monthly draws at the end of March.

Whatever profits we make will be ploughed into paying off the huge debt on the 20 acres of land we purchased at Youghal Road and where we plan to develop two playing pitches that will be there for all time for the youth of the town.

We are confident the townspeople will support us when we call on them, but we are directing a very special appeal to former club members and players living away from home. If and when contacted please support us. Indeed if we don't get to you we would ask that you contact us.

IN MUNSTER SCOR FINAL

For the second successive year we have qualified for the Ballad Group final of Munster Scor na nOg.

At Tallow last Saturday night our quintet qualified along with Cork representatives Youghal and will now take their place in the provincial final in Freemount, Co. Cork, on Saturday week. Whatever their fate on that night the Ballad Group has done the club proud once again.

The members of the group are — Jackie Drumme, Catherine Brennan, Deirdre Murphy, Claire Murphy and Killian Walsh.

DUNGARVAN DARTS LEAGUE

Following the results of last weeks games the final of the league has been decided before the last game has been played. The two games that were played out in the Soccer club pavilion decided the final. In section 1 Martin Crotty beat Lenny Crotty 6-1 and in section 2 Pat O'Mahony beat John Ducey 6-1. So this means that Martin Crotty and Pat O'Mahony will contest the final later on in February. I was at the club house on Friday, January 13 to see some very fine darts thrown, Pat O'Mahony got the maximum 180 against James Morrissey and Frostie Maher played very well as did Anthony Cockwell and Paddy Power.

The following are the results from Week 13-1-89
Section 1 — Lenny Crotty 1 Martin Crotty 6; Billy Walsh 1 Christy Power 6; Denis Lynch 3 George Cockwell 4; Pius O'Shea had no game.

Section 2 — Pat O'Mahony 6 John Ducey 1; Paddy Street 4 Pat Walsh 3; Christy Costigan 6 Michael Flynn 1; John Moore no game.

ABBEYSIDE SHORE ANGLING NOTES

Sunday, January 8, saw the start of our 1989 season. Once again Shanley Electric was our first open competition.

We fished the harbour venue which is from Lands End to Quann's, encompassing the new bridge and the old railway bridge at Shandon. The weather was very kind to us and we had great fishing from 1.30 to 4.30 p.m. The return of fish was, as predicted by one very knowledgeable committee member, very high for the time of the year and it was proved by John Cronin of Ardmore who landed a specimen flounder between the bridges, of 3 lbs. 3.5 ounces. So John has set a high target for the club record flounder for 1989.

Brian Mansfield took 1st place with 7 flounders; John Cronin (Sen.) took 2nd place; Mark O'Sullivan 3rd; Mick Cowming was on the winners list again today in 4th; 1st lady, Cait Mulcahy; Juveniles — 1st, John Cronin (Jun.); 2nd, Terry Crowe.

After the weigh-in and returning of fish to the water we adjourned to the Anchor Bar for the presentation of prizes. Liam Shanley did the honours on behalf of Tom Shanley of Shanley Electric. The prizes were indeed a credit to the Company and all prize winners were well pleased.

George Young, our chairperson, thanked the Shanley family most sincerely for the generous support which they have given the club over the years. He was quick to remind all members we should be setting targets for the club record fish scheme. This takes in all our venues and all the coastline from Ballyvoile to Mine Head.

The chat after the presentations was all about the fishing in the harbour area, especially at the bridges, so John Cronin will have to watch out.

We had a great start to 1989 with 3 clubs represented and are looking forward to a full calendar for '89.

Our next outing is on Sunday, March 19. Fishing is in the harbour area from 2 p.m. to 5.30 p.m. It's one of our most popular competitions — the James and Mary O'Donovan (Lourdes Invalid) sponsored by Richie Donovan of Swindon and one of the highly respected and well known Donovan family from Murphy Place, Abbeyside. I'll keep you updated and I'll have full results of the 1988 specimen fish in our next bulletin. — P.R.O.

WESTERN BOARD CONVENTION

Battle Likely For County Board Reps.

This year's divisional conventions in the West and East have been almost completely overshadowed by the County Convention, but now that the time has arrived both meetings which are due to be held on Thursday night of this week, are arousing quite an amount of interest and understandably there is the associated speculation about the results of the elections for the various positions.

Denis McGrath, who withdrew from the race for County chairman, because of health reasons looks certain to be given a free ride into the chair for the final year of his five-year term. This vote of confidence in the Affane/Cappoquin man is truly an acknowledgement of the tremendous service he has given as first officer of the Board for almost five years. Denis, as far as I recall, has never missed a meeting of the Board over this period, he has always been fair and understanding and must be given his fair share of the credit for having all the championships completed on schedule during the past five years.

I have very little information about the intentions of the other candidates, but there are rumours that we could have late withdrawals from some of the elections.

Jimmy O'Gorman, Lismore club secretary and a former referee is likely to be opposed by a present referee, well known Tomas O Meachair from An Rinn club for the vacant post of vice/chairman.

The Board Secretary Anthony Walsh, Colligan Rockies has the assistant secretary John Moore and P. S. O Colmain named as opponents, but the expectations are that Anthony, whose report I will deal with hereunder is also likely to be given a free passage.

Paddy Fitzgerald, who is the long serving Board treasurer and whose financial report is referred to further down in this commentary, has Abbeyside/Ballinacourty's Noel Fleming, who is the present club secretary, named as his only opponent for the position of treasurer.

P. S. O Colmain County P.R.O. is named as a contestant for the post of assistant secretary, but is most unlikely to stand against the present incumbent, John Moore, well known inter-county referee.

The highlight of the convention will be the battle between the six named candidates for the three positions as County Board representatives, in which the three outgoing members, Paddy Walsh, James Walsh and John Lyons, will be opposed by Tom Cunningham, Stradbally, John Murphy, Seana Phobal and Ambrose Mullarky. The attendance of the three outgoing members as seen on the secretary's report, has been excellent at the 20 meetings held during the year but being opposed by three substantial members, they might well find it a tight squeeze at the finish of what promises to be an exciting contest.

Treasurer's Report Shows Increase In Gate Receipts

Once again the report of treasurer Paddy Fitzgerald is given in great detail and the Balance Sheet which details the financial operations of the Board, shows the painstaking manner in which he looked after this side of the Board's activities during the year.

Gate receipts from the games played at the eight venues in operation during the year amounted to £10,389.61 which is an increase of £4,000 on the previous season. Factors which made the increase in revenue possible were the number of attractive replays and we did have a greater number than before — and the assistance given willingly by clubs throughout the division in helping out with gate collection.

Of course with increased receipts, expenses were also up as grants to clubs, etc. increase with increased gate receipts. The surplus for the year was £2,184 and this leaves the Board in a good financial position.

MOTION

I wrote before about the lone motion that will go to the meeting and I believe that there are circumstances which would allow a club to do, what the Seana Phobal club are seeking.

Secretary's Report to Western Convention

In his very fine report, Anthony covered competitions under review and in the overall reports he made several considered critical comments on subjects such as withdrawals of teams from competitions, conduct and discipline and attitude to referees.

Having thanked the men who served as referees, sometimes at great personal inconvenience in refereeing almost 200 matches for the Board, he appealed for new recruits to the panel. He complained that many of the big and successful clubs had failed to produce a referee. He said this might be a long term affair, but it was something that must be tackled, sooner than later.

DISCIPLINE AND CONDUCT

Dealing with this subject, on and off the field, he wrote "while it might be contended with some justification that a lack of clarity in the playing rules might be a reason for some acts of indiscipline on the field of play, the major cause in most instances can be found in lack of self control and a failure of club officials to chastise these offenders. There is in fact, a need at all levels, to show that indiscipline must be punished with consistency. The player who does not hold respect for his fellow player or official who attempts to suppress the truth for a short-term gain, is doing a grave injustice to his club and the association".

PRESENTATION

"The presentation of our games still leaves a great deal to be desired. How many times" he asked, "have we witnessed players, and through them, club officials showing a scant regard for uniformity of attire. Even at final level it is evident that clubs must be prepared to eradicate this problem from our midst".

A.I.B. TOURNAMENT

WATERFORD TAKE ON KILKENNY

On Sunday next at 3 p.m., Waterford hurlers play old rivals Kilkenny in the annual AIB Tournament game at Walsh Park. In their last league outing, Waterford lost to Kilkenny at Nowlan Park on a 2-15 to 0-9 scoreline after being very much in the hunt for 55 minutes of that game.

The Roanmore player played in last Sunday's game but is obviously lacking in fitness and match play. Also included in attack is Anthony Cooney who had a useful game on Sunday last. Cooney last played in 1987.

With Pat Murphy not fully fit, Kieran Delahunty is given the number 14 jersey and Gerry Connors is placed at right half forward.

PANEL NOT FINALISED

The players have been advised that the panel for the remaining Royal Liver National League fixtures will not be finalised until late January or early February.

On Sunday, January 29, the players listed for Sunday's game plus Niall Warren, Pat Ryan, Pat Murphy, David Power and some County Under 21's will play another game and on

The team selected for Sunday's game see's Timmy Sheehan coming in at left half for the injured Pat Ryan, while Noelle Crowley is selected at centre-field and it will be interesting to see how he fares in his first outing since last year's Munster championship against Clare.

SENIOR FOOTBALL TOURNAMENT

Waterford Eager To Impress

On Sunday next at 2.30 p.m., the Stradbally Club will stage a very attractive tournament game involving Waterford and Tipperary for the Ann Halpin Cup and a set of trophies.

Ann Halpin is a sister to Rev. Tom Halpin and both have been closely associated with the Stradbally club for many years. The trophies are sponsored by Comeragh Oils.

The game should an excellent try-out for both counties before the National League resumes next month. With both in a challenging position for promotion, each will be eager to show good form and Waterford will be trying to prove that their National League win over Tipperary in November last was no fluke.

Both sides will hope to field their full teams and judging by Waterford's approach in naming their side very early, they are taking the game very seriously.

Team — Kieran Hefferman, David Kirwan, Donal Looby, Fintan O'Brien, Liam Dalton, Pierric Whyte, Dan Casey, Liam Daniels, Jimmy Maher, Michael Neville, Eoin Phelan, Michael Walshe, Jim McGrath, Michael McGrath, Eoin O'Brien.

Substitutes — J. Mulhearn, T. Corcoran, D. Wyse, L. O'Brien, J. McGrath, P. Curran and P. Quinn.

SENIOR FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Both Ballinacourty and Dungarvan who have won their first round matches in this special competition, each managed to draw their games last Sunday against Tramore and Rathgormack. They meet in round three on next Sunday morning at Abbeyside. With an important under 21 tournament game in football being played in the afternoon and a S.F. game at Stradbally on the same day, I don't know how the teams will be affected, but it will be a good work-out for both in any case.

THE COUNTY CHAIR

Not only does this continue to be a very live subject throughout the County, it seems to intensify, day by day as convention time approaches and with something of a cliff-hanger in prospect between Ollie, Eamon and Noel (one doesn't have to use their surnames anymore), I'm sure that, for the first time ever we could see a one hundred per cent attendance at Lawlor's on Saturday evening week.

With this issue still very much wide open, there will be pressure on every single delegate to attend. The tally men tell us that a few votes may eventually decide the election.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

Western Bord Na nOg

Although there was a fair attendance at last weeks Juvenile Divisional convention, held at Dungarvan there could have been more clubs represented and from the top table there were expressions of disappointment that only two of the Senior Board members whose role in the association is closely linked with juvenile activity, were able to come.

The meeting, to an extent, was overshadowed by the pending retirement of the Board secretary, John Jackson, who made it clear beforehand, that he would not be a candidate. Even though his decision was appealed by practically all delegates in the room, he told the meeting that his decision was irrevocable as business reasons prevented him from continuing in office.

From all parts of the floor, came tributes for his great efficiency, enthusiasm and hard work during his three-year term with the Board. Some delegates remarked that John did his job so well that he has set a standard that would be impossible to maintain. He assured the members that he would remain available to the division, to help out if required and he looked forward to the time, when he would be back as a member of some Board.

The vacancy created by his retirement was not filled and the chairman, John Kiely told the meeting that clubs had obviously believed that John might have been persuaded to change his mind. He told the meeting, also that a new secretary would have to be selected at their next meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 27.

The outgoing chairman, John Kiely, St. Patricks, vice-chairman, Sean Whelan, Naomh Brid, Treasurer, Jimmy McCarthy, Melleray and Seamus O'Brien, Registrar, were all returned unopposed.

Both the chairman and secretary gave a full report on the working of the Board over the year and both highlighted the fact that we did well on the championship scene, by winning the majority of the competitions. The wonderful victory of the East Waterford team in the Munster under 16 championships and their acknowledgement of the fact that West Waterford were the best team they played in the series was mentioned by both. The secretary hit out at the clubs who had players guilty of misconduct and said he was disappointed and very concerned at the numbers of incidents that had to be dealt with at the end of the season. He was critical of the attitude of some players towards the faithful band of referees who continued to handle games — sometimes in spite of provocation and abuse. He appealed to clubs to supply new referees. Board Treasurer, Jimmy McCarthy was commended for the manner in which he presented his balance sheet which showed a marginal loss on the year's working. Nevertheless the document showed the Board to be in a healthy state with a credit balance. During the discussion, the recent Yoplait sponsorship of the County championship was referred to and it was hoped that other firms would follow this lead in the County.

The high cost of championship and other competition trophies was debated at length and the incoming Board were urged to take a look at this.

The annual meeting for affiliations, transfers, gradings, etc., was fixed for next Tuesday at 8 p.m.

CO. CHAIRMAN HONOURED

Outgoing County Board chairman, James Tobin and his wife Anne were honoured at a special function organised by the County footballers and attended by a very large gathering at Lawlor's Hotel on Saturday night last. As well as the footballers, past and present, Board officials from both County and Divisional Boards and the members of the Ciske na Peil were present to pay tribute to James for his great contribution to the football side of our activities during his five year term.

As the various speakers elaborated on the fine qualities that made him a great chairman to work with, much of the splendid progress that was achieved during his term was outlined and matters such as his special brand of good humour, his impartiality, his willingness to lend an understanding ear to the problems of clubs and, most of all, his total dedication to the task which he undertook five years ago, were not forgotten.

Tributes were also paid to his wife Anne and his young family for the support they had given him and making it possible for him to be away from home so much during that time.

Greg Fives, Manager of the football committee, paid him many well deserved compliments for his contribution to and co-operation with the football element of the County and he said it was at the express wish of the footballers in the County that this special function was organised.

County P.R.O., P. J. Coleman, on behalf of Ciske na Peil, also elaborated on his fine qualities and in a good humoured speech told how it was an enjoyable experience to work with such a chairman.

On behalf of the players, team captain Jim Maher thanked him for working in close co-operation with the players at all times and being with them at their games whenever possible.

Chairman of the Organising Committee, Greg Fives, on behalf of the players, presented James with a beautifully inscribed clock and Anne was presented with a bouquet of flowers.

Having been given a standing ovation, James replied and thanked all concerned with the function and said that Anne and himself fully appreciated the gesture. He spoke about the pride of being County Chairman and what an honour it had been for all his family. He was highly critical of the unfair judgments made in a recent Sunday paper about football standards in the county and said that these people should get their facts right before rushing into print. A very nice meal was served and the social which followed made it a night to remember.

SCOR NA NOG

The Munster semi-finals of the Juvenile Scor were held at Tallow on Saturday night last and long before the competitions began the "house full" notice was posted on the doors.

This will be the third of their four games in the tournament and they must win if they are to have a chance of winning the competition, as they were beaten in their second match against Wexford

SENIOR HURLING TRIAL

Waterford 3-16; Selected XV 1-14

This senior hurling trial game played at the De La Salle grounds in Cleaboy on Sunday last produced a lively and interesting contest for the several hundred spectators present.

In all a total of 33 players participated which goes to show that interest in wearing the county jersey remains a very desirable objective for most players.

At the interval the Selected Side, who had first use of the breeze, led by 1-9 to 3-2. On the turn-over the County side improved somewhat to run out winners by an eight points margin. Overall it was a very worthwhile exercise.

Co. Council Chairman Pledges Support For Striking Printers

In a statement issued on Monday last, Cllr. Billy Kyne (Lab.) Chairman, Waterford Co. Council and member of Dungarvan Urban Council pledged his support for the NGA workers involved in the lock-out strike at the "Dungarvan Observer".

Cllr. Kyne stated that the people of Dungarvan were greatly concerned by the dismissal of the four workers and pointed out that there was a great trade union tradition in the community and he was sure this tradition would support the workers both practically and in spirit. "I would ask all workers and their families," Cllr. Kyne went on to say, "and especially those retired workers who use Shandon for their walks to stop and speak with the workers on picket duty there, as this will prove of great encouragement and support for them". He added that workers generally could also show their support by helping the striking printers financially in their fight for their jobs. Cllr. Kyne added that the lock-out of four loyal workers with an excellent service record to their paper was a great hardship and worry to them as was the very demanding picket duty they had to do especially in harsh weather conditions. "Let me assure the workers," he then said in conclusion, "that they are not alone in their fight and that they have the sympathy and support of a lot of people in the community and I would ask the Management of the paper to observe normal negotiating procedures with the NGA officials and to restore the rights of the workers by allowing them back to their jobs".
