CO. DEVELOPMENT PLAN

POPULATION CHANGES UNEVENLY SPREAD IN COUNTY

The draft revision of the County Development Plan for 1989 was considered by members of Waterford County Council at a special meeting held in Dungarvan last Monday and following a session lasting two-and-a-half hours it was agreed to adjourn further consideration to the Council's next ordinary meeting on Monday, May 8.

Presenting the Plan to the members, the Council's Planning Officer, Mr. J. Shine said that the general aim of the plan was to set out guidelines which it was hoped would inform individual developers as to what the Planning Authority considered to be the best options for development in the county.

The revision did not contain very many changes from the existing plan he said, and the most notable was the fact that the population projections in the last plan had proved too optimistic. Because of a change in the economic climate, emigration and a drop in the marriage and birth rates, the population increase was virtually nil at the moment.

Mr. Shine then went through the various sections of the Plan, addressing the meeting for the best part of an hour.

In the section dealing with population trends it was stated that at the last review of the Plan undertaken in 1983, the population of the county was estimated at 51,400. The rate of average annual increase in the period 1971-1981 of 1.6% had fallen to 0.6% for the period 1981-1986, brought about by reduced marriage and birth rates and increased emigration.

"The net loss of population through emigration in the 1981-86 period at 3.6 persons per thousand was somewhat better than the average of 4.1 for the south-east region.

• Within the county, changes in the population have been unevenly spread in the period 1981-86 with actual population losses in Lismore-Cappoquin, Kilmacthomas and Youghal areas and a virtually static population in the Carrick-On-Suir area and increases in Clonmel, Dungarvan and Waterford areas.

• On the matter of the projected population, the plan stated that the population of the county as a whole was likely to increase by a small number in the period 1986-1991 and also to 1991-1996 and at the end of the Plan period in 1994 the projected population could be taken as approximately 51,900.

• Referring to the need for new job requirements over the plan period it was stated that given the situation in the Lismore-Cappoquin area where a serious decline in population needs to be averted, a case can easily be made for a substantially greater job creation effort than for other areas. A similar case could be made for Tallow.

The Plan then states: "Over a long period, employment in agriculture has been in decline. The 1987 Labour Force Survey seems to suggest that this decline may have been halted and reversed but other factors suggest that it would be more realistic to assume that the job increases to be aimed for should come in the manufacturing and services sector."

Mr. John O'Flynn, County Engineer and Mr. B. J. Mc-

Nally, Acting Co. Manager stressed what they considered as the most important aspects of the Plan, the latter emphasising that the Plan was a matter for the Council to amend or approve as they considered necessary.

DISTURBED AND SURPRISED

Cllr. James A. Walsh described the Plan as an excellent one but said he was disturbed and surprised by the reference to the population imbalance in the Cappoquin-Lismore area. He agreed that an urgent request should be made to the IDA to establish job creation projects in the area to counter the situation.

Cllr. G. O'Halloran pointing out that Clashmore had suffered a huge population loss from 298 in 1981 to 253 in 1986 said that more houses should be planned for the area to avert a further decline.

Cllr. C. O Riain said that the Development Plan was one of the most important documents that the Council could discuss and for that reason he did not think they could finalise it at that meeting.

The Chairman, Cllr. B. Kyne then conveyed the Council's thanks to Mr. Shine and his staff for the preparation and presentation of the Plan and following his summing up, it was agreed, on the proposal of Cllr. O Riain seconded by Cllr. P. Coffey, to adjourn further consideration of it to the Council's next meeting on Monday, May 8.

The ceremony with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing was performed by Very Rev. Fr. R. Doherty, P.P., assisted by Rev. J. Griffin, C.C. and Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C. COUNTY COUNCIL VOTE SYMPATHY

On the proposal of Cllr. Paddy Cahill seconded by Cllr. C. O Riain, the special meeting of Waterford County Council in Dungarvan last Monday was adjourned for a brief period at the outset as a mark of respect to the late Florrie O'Leary a former Finance Officer of the Council whose death occurred in Bantry last week.

All members joined in paying tribute to the late Mr. O'Leary as an excellent and most efficient official of the

On the proposal of the Chairman, Councillor B. Kyne votes of sympathy were also passed to the City of Liverpool Corporation and the City Corporation of Sheffield on the recent Hillsborough disaster.

DUNGARVAN'S OLDEST CEMETERY IS NEGLECTED

At the April monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council, Cllr. D. Goode complained that people from the town and district who had relatives buried in the town's oldest graveyard at Kilrush were very unhappy about the very poor condition it was in. The approach to it was badly overgrown which made it very difficult for anyone to gain access to it, he said.

Cllr. Mary Dixon agreed and said that it might be possible to have a clean-up project done there under the Social Employment Scheme.

The Council agreed that the latter suggestion should be investigated.

Pause For Thought with Fr. Paddy

WASHING THE DIRTY LINEN!

The emphasis in the first of last Sunday's readings is focused on order in the Church, and it goes without saying that an institution founded to cradle, teach and hand down the eternal truths should be so constructed to enable her to fulfil her mission. You have only to recall Christ's commission to Peter to realise He was incorporating this necessary structure into His Mystical Body. In fact, when he singled out Peter to be the strength of the Apostolic body, He pinpointed his main task in the words: "Simon, Simon, behold Satan hath desired to have you that he might sift you as wheat, but I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not; and thou being once converted, confirm thy brethren."

Now, when you speak of order, it immediately postulates authority, because order without an authoritative source does not exist. The office of guarding and teaching the good news to all peoples and for all time would sunder unless endowed with the power to maintain and keep the pure waters flowing, and that in simple spelling is authority. Some seem to think they can preach disorder, and still hold they are talking with a Catholic voice, which is poppycock. I referred to this matter last week arising from an article I read in Alpha, a new fortnightly paper. The matter at issue was control and administration in the Church, a matter that was finally settled centuries ago. Peter holds the keys and he is still in the driving seat.

The fly in the ointment was a Papal directive insisting that Professors of Theology must take an oath of fidelity, and in view of recent muddled thinking being propagated by many learned experts, this requirement is timely. Surely, the Church has every right as well as a duty to ensure her flock are fed on the rich green pastures provided by the Lord. If any loyal son feels this ruling to be an unnecessary pressure, he should still bow and humbly accept the directive for the benefit of all.

I'd perhaps have felt that "the least said the better" were it not for a discussion on the radio on Sunday, April 9. I only heard part of it, but it was enough to make me realise that the panel was in cahoots against Papal authority. When a man declares he is a Catholic, and then proceeds to pour forth a diatribe on Papal appointments and Humanae Vitae, you raise more than eyebrows! I understand that Andy O'Mahoney's job is to create discussion and interest, but it makes you wonder when all the guns are firing the one way. It makes me smile when they say they do not want a passive Church, because if they want to be part of the Church they must accept her as God decreed. They must face the fact: the Church is not a democracy. Peter was appointed as Christ's Vicar, and I doubt if they'd question that, but the persistent way they go on nibbling at Papal directives and appointments, you'd imagine it was they who were the appointed guardians of the truth.

THE ROLE OF THE THEOLOGIANS

The role of theologians is to explain and to help, but when they set themselves up as prophets rivaling Peter, the holder of the keys, they are out of step. Their duty is to explain and to impart the teachings of Christ in keeping with approved principles. If they want to promote their own brand, then they should seek another platform. Whilst their work is important, the fact the Holy Father asks for a proof of their fidelity is not without good reason. They may show resentment and display disapproval, but it is not within their compass to change the nature of the Church. I have no doubt but the vast majority of the theologians will welcome any precaution to safeguard their sacred office.

And, what applies to theologians, applies more so to the appointment of Bishops. It is clear from the reaction of the critics that they would like to create trouble, so it is a consolation to know that the Holy Spirit is alive and active. The old saying goes: "Too many cooks . . ." Yes, let everyone have a say, and you end up with a mess. For instance, let everyone follow one's own code of rules for the roads, and you will have chaos.

You know the story of Samuel the prophet going to Bethlehem to anoint the one chosen by God. Seven of the sons of Isai were shown to him, but he said: "The Lord had not chosen any one of them." . . . When David was brought, whom the father had not even considered, Samuel said: "This is he." "Man judges by appearances, but the Lord beholdeth the heart." The Lord in His wisdom put Peter in charge, and he still holds the helm. Hence the Church will allow no group to assume her role in leading her children along the path of holiness. Do not be swayed by the pundits. They, like the storm, leave a trail of destruction. Align yourself with the Holy Father: he is God's choice.

ROUNDABOUT AT KILRUSH "IMPRACTICAL" SAID DEPARTMENT

The controversial junction at Kilrush on the Dungarvan By-pass was yet again discussed at the April monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last week.

The matter was raised by Cllr. Tony Wright who said that he was extremely disappointed at the outcome of the discussion at the last Co. Council meeting on the Urban Council's recommendation that a roundabout should be placed there and the decision that this recommendation "should be put on ice" for the present. "They were only passing the buck and all I hope is that there will be no fatal accident there", he said.

Cllr. Kyne said that he had moved the Urban Council's motion at the Co. Council meeting. He felt that it would have been quite easy for the Co. Council to pass the motion but that would mean that money would then have to be spent on the construction of a roundabout. "A lot of money has already been spent carrying out the improvements recommended at the junction and I think that the Manager's point that these should first be given a chance should be accepted", said Cllr. Kyne.

Mr. John O'Flynn, County Engineer, who was present at the meeting to discuss the Urban's Roadworks Scheme for 1989, stated that a roundabout at Kilrush had been discussed by the engineers of the Department and the Council as an option but had been rejected on design grounds.

Mr. O'Flynn then went on to explain that this was not a right-angled cross-roads but an X junction with slopes into it from two different directions. The Department designers and the consultants had deemed a roundabout at the junction to be impractical as it would have to be like a rugby ball, occupying a space of 5,000 square metres. Because of this it would encroach on to the adjoining housing estate and would also impede pedestrian movement through the junction.

like a rugby ball, occupying a space of 5,000 square metres. Because of this it would encroach on to the adjoining housing estate and would also impede pedestrian movement through the junction.

SPEED AN ACCIDENT FACTOR

The County Engineer added that the majority of the accidents at the junction involved right turning movements of cars coming from the Waterford direction turning right on to the Cappoquin road and colliding with traffic coming down from the opposite direction. He felt that the new traffic signs should now solve that. High speed on the By-pass was also a factor in many of the accidents there, he said.

Cllr. Wright was not impressed, stating the what they now had at the junction "was just a cobblers job." He said that the wishes of the local representatives in the matter were just being ignored.

Mr. O'Flynn then pointed out that this was a national primary road founded by the Department and everything done there had to be approved by them.

Cllr. R. A. Walsh said that the Department's reasons for rejecting the roundabout astonished him. "As far as they are concerned it's not a case of ordinary sense but ordinary common nonsense," he said.

Cllr. Mary Dixon thought that a roundabout should have been put at the junction in the first instance.

WARNING SIGNS NEEDED ON LISMORE ROAD

Cllr. O. Wilkinson proposed at the April monthly meeting of Waterford County Council held in Dungarvan that appropriate warning signs be erected at the Deerpark road, Lismore in view of the increased traffic by large vehicles on the road and that the Council grant permission for the erection of a public light at O'Keeffe's sawmills on the understanding that the owner will pay for its erection and maintenance.

Cllr. Wilkinson said that there was lot of very heavy traffic, including very big 'artic' lorries, constantly using this road now and he felt these signs were required in the interest of public safety.

The County Engineer, Mr. John O'Flynn said that there would be no objection to the erection of a light provided the people there paid for it. In regard to the warning signs he felt that there should also be a contribution made towards these and if this was done they could then be put up. He agreed there was an increase of heavy traffic using this road but he wasn't sure that signs would solve the problem there.

In reply to the Chairman, Cllr. B. Kyne, the Co. Engineer said that the signs would cost about £100 each.

£16 MILLION TURNAROUND AT A.C.C.

ACC has reported a profit of IR£1.633 million for 1988. This contrasts with a loss of IR£14.839 million on 1987 and represents an improvement of IR£16.472 million. It was achieved after making a provision of IR£3 million in respect of bad and doubtful debts and allocating a further IR£6 million to retire Government Guarantees on loans. These Guarantees amounted to IR£18 million a year ago and they have now been reduced by one-third.

The gross margin, 4.31%, was the highest for many years.

In his report to the 62nd Annual General Meeting of the Corporation, the Chairman, Mr. McGing, said that 1988 had been a year of record progress. The recovery was mainly attributable to a resolute collections policy. The continued buoyancy in farming incomes and the further decline in interest rates also contribut-

HOUSING BACKLOG BUILDING UP IN COUNTY

The Department of the Environment has informed Waterford Co. Council that a capital allocation has been made to cover the Council's house building programme for the current year. The allocation will only enable the Council to commence the building of 8 houses as follows: 4 in Tramore, 2 each in Fourmilewater and Portlaw.

Mr. Dan Hurley, County Manager told the Council at their April monthly meeting in Dungarvan that as only 8 houses could be built this year, he intended making application for a further allocation later in the year as a housing backlog was now beginning to build up again.

At present he said that there were between 80 and 100 approved applicants on the Council's housing list spread through the county and unless they could build more houses, a lot of people would have to remain on the list for a long time.

Cllr. J. A. Walsh said that as their backlog was building up an allocation by the Department to build only 8 houses in 1989 was completely inadequate.

Cllr. B. Kyne, Chairman agreed that this allocation was not at all adequate and he said this was merely sowing the seeds of further housing problems for the county in the years ahead. He expressed the hope that they would be successful in getting a further allocation later in the year.

CONGRATS. FOR THE NEW MAYOR DALEY OF CHICAGO

Dungarvan Urban Council and the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee at their monthly meetings held in Dungarvan last week both unanimously passed resolutions congratulating Richard M. Daley on his recent election as Mayor of Chicago.

In each case the resolutions were proposed by Cllr. D. Goode who recalled that the new Mayor was son of the late Richard Daley who had been Mayor of Chicago for 21 years and whose ancestors had hailed from Old Parish.

KILMAC' ASSAULT CASE LIKE A JOHN B. KEANE PLAY

The description of the incident was something like you'd read in a John B. Keane book said Mr. J. P. Gordon, Solr., when he appeared at Kilmacthomas Court last Wednesday on behalf of a defendant who was charged with assaulting a garda.

Before the court was James Power (50) who pleaded guilty to charges of assaulting Garda John Lawlor and maliciously damaging a garda patrol car at his home in Carrigeen Wood, Kilmacthomas on April 11 last.

Garda Lawton stated in evidence that the defendant's brother, Patrick, was arrested earlier on the date in question for alleged drunken driving. Witness then drove Patrick home to the defendant's house at Carrigeen Wood while Garda Maurice Clifford drove Patrick's car.

Witness went on to say that they drove the two cars into the defendant's yard and as witness got out of the patrol car, the defendant charged at him, swinging a bucket and using foul language.

Garda Lawton then said that he was forced to scramble back inside the patrol car and as he did so the defendant swung the bucket just missing him by inches. Instead the bucket hit the windscreen of the car and smashed it.

Garda Clifford then got into the patrol car as the defendant grabbed a shovel and charged at them. "I put my foot down and drove away as fast as I could as the defendant appeared to be completely berserk," said witness.

LUCKY TO ESCAPE

Garda Lawton concluded his evidence by telling the Court that Power chased the car down the laneway and he felt they were lucky to escape. On the following day witness said he returned to Power's house with some back-up but found the defendant was then a changed man.

To questions by Mr. Gordon, witness agreed that the defendant could be said to be "a bit highly strung."

Mr. Gordon then said the entire incident was something like you'd read in a John B. Keane book. What his client had done on the occasion was completely out of character for him and he had already paid £120 in compensation as a result. He added that the defendant had no previous convictions.

District Justice Keenan Johnson commenting that the ordeal was a rather terrifying one for the gardai imposed a sentence of six months imprisonment but then added that because the defendant had no previous convictions he would suspend the sentence on condition that the defendant paid £250 into the Garda Benevolent Fund within two months.

RECENT DEATHS

MISS PEGGY MORRISSEY

We regret to record the death of Miss Peggy Morrissey, Annaville, Ballinacourty, Dungarvan, which occurred at her residence on Wednesday, April 12, following a period of failing health. She was 65.

Peggy was a deeply religious woman with a great devotion to Our Lady in Mount Melleray, who never had a bad word to say about anyone. She did a lot of baby-sitting and she was well known and became a "second mother" to many children and many families in the Ballinacourty area down through the years.

She loved gardening and the cultivation of flowers and pot plants were a particularly enjoyable past time for her. Well known for her knitting and sewing, she was a first class housekeeper and a great organiser.

An exemplary neighbour, she was extremely popular in the Ballinacourty area where she will be sadly missed by all her friends. Sincere sympathy is extended to her brothers, sisters and other relatives on their great loss.

Fr. P. Ahearne, C.C. and Very Rev. M. Brennock, O.S.A., were in attendance at her residence prior to the removal of her remains on Thursday evening. Very Rev. M. Canon Farrell, P.P., officiated at Ballinroad Church and Fr. Ahearne and Br. Lennon were also in attendance. Mass followed at which Michael Fraher and Hannah Casey read the Lessons.

Fr. Ahearne celebrated Requiem Mass for the repose of her soul on Friday morning. Jim Morrissey and Alice Fitzgerald did the readings while the prayers of the faithful were recited by Bernadette Keane, Bernadette Norris, Margaret Sweeney and Ann Marie Casey.

Burial took place afterwards in the adjoining cemetery. Fr. Ahearn officiated and other clergy present were Canon Farrell, P.P., Rev. J. Griffin, C.C., Rev. Fr. Crowley, C.C., Clonmel and Rev. W. Meehan, C.C., Clashmore.

Chief mourners — John and Paddy Joe (brothers), Biddy Sweeney, Mary Fraher, Teresa Casey and Ann Crowley (sisters), Jimmy Fraher, Henry Crowley, Frank Phelan (brothers-in-law), Mary Morrissey (sister-in-law), aunts, nephews, nieces, grandnephews, grandnieces, relatives and friends.

(Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

MR. KEVIN BUCKLEY

It is with a sense of profound regret and deep sadness that we record the death of Mr. Kevin Buckley, Wolfe Tone Road, Dungarvan, which occurred on Saturday, April 15, following many months of hospitalisation at Dungarvan's District Hospital where he was in the loving care of Sr. M. Baptist and staff. He was 79.

Kevin's early years were spent in Mitchel Street and his early education was at the local CBS. He worked for many years at the Fuel and Grain Merchants of Sheehan & Ryan, Main Street and later he took up employment with Casey's Grocery Store, also at Main Street, and in both these positions he was diligent and caring and won the esteem of all.

In 1964 he became sacristan of the local Augustinian Church and his lifetime now was totally dedicated to the upkeep and smooth organisation of God's house. It was a task he considered to be a privilege. Kevin was a man of exemplary character and first rate ability. He was member of an old Dungarvan family and was predeceased by his sister Chrissie by just three years.

Kevin had a unique sense of humour, he could relate many an interesting anecdote from the past and especially from his travels and indeed Kevin enjoyed many trips to other parts with the various Augustinian pilgrimages and cruises. He was involved with the many charitable projects in the locality and was a hard worker when the December Friary Sale of Work was held.

Kevin was truly one of nature's gentlemen who will be sadly missed by all who knew him, but more especially by his relatives to whom we extend deep sympathy.

On Sunday evening his remains were brought to St. Mary's Parish Church where en route the cortege paused for a few moments at the top of Wolfe Tone Road in silent tribute. Very Rev. M. Brennock, O.S.A., Prior, blessed and received the remains, assisted by a full choir of clergy which included Rev. W. Carey, C.C., Very Rev. Canon G. Power, P.P., Rev. J. Griffin, C.C., Very Rev. J. Sullivan, Very Rev. Canon M. Farrell, P.P., Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C. and a large number of Augustinian clergy which included Rev. Frs. Hooper, Treacy, Hickey, Kehoe, Martin and O'Donnell.

On Monday morning the concelebrated Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. M. Brennock, O.S.A., with co-celebrants Rev. Frs. Hickey, Hooper, Hughes, O'Donnell, Martin, Prendiville (all O.S.A.) and Rev. Fr. Bonaventure, Mt. Melleray and Glencairn. Nephew Noel and niece Christina read the lessons while the golden voice of Jim Keohan added to the solemnity of the Mass.

It was close to midday when Kevin was interred in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a huge gathering which included Very Rev. Canon Power, P.P., Rev. Fr. Rogers, C.C., Rev. Fr. Griffin, C.C., Rev. Fr. Carey, C.C., Very Rev. Canon Farrell, P.P., Rev. Fr. Ahearne, C.C., Very Rev. J. Sullivan and Rev. M. Cullinan, C.C., Carrick-on-Suir and many more visiting clergy.

Chief mourners — Noel Buckley, William White (nephews), Christina Tobin, Mary Power and Sr. Patrice (nieces) and a wide circle of cousins, relatives and friends.

ENTIRE COUNTY SHOULD BE DECLARED DISADVANTAGED

Arising from a motion at the April monthly meeting of Waterford County Council in Dungarvan proposed by Cllr. W. McDonnell requesting the Department of Agriculture and Food to include all land in West Waterford in the disadvantaged areas, a long discussion ensued.

Cllr. McDonnell said that he was aware that land in other counties far superior to much of the land in Waterford had been included in the disadvantaged areas scheme. He felt that in a general area it was unfair that one farmer should be in and his neighbour out, as was happening.

He criticised the method used in designating the areas and said that in his opinion all farmers would have to be in the disadvantaged areas in 1992 if they were to survive. As things were he felt that the farmers in West Waterford were being ill-treated and victimised.

Seconding the motion, Cllr. C. O Riain said that it was ridiculous the way boundaries were set up as they were at present. On the road between Dungarvan and Clonmel he said that farms on one side were designated as disadvantaged while those on the other side were not. "It is absolutely ridiculous the way this is set up at the moment," he said.

Cllr. G. O'Halloran expressed the opinion that it was a political decision as to whether areas were to be declared disadvantaged or not. They could thank their former Minister for Agriculture, Deputy Deasy, that so many areas in Co. Waterford had been designated disadvantaged, he said.

RULES FROM BRUSSELS

Cllr. Jackie Fahey, T.D., thought that the motion should not seek to confine the declaration to West Waterford only. He added that he wanted to "knock" the idea that it was a political decision to declare any area disadvantaged as the criteria and rules for the scheme were laid down in Brussels.

"I think," said Deputy Fahey, "that all small farmers should be included as disadvantaged and the safest and best thing would, in the circumstances, be to include the entire county as this is the only way that farmers will be able to survive."

It was then agreed to amend the motion to include the entire Co. Waterford as a disadvantaged area and it was passed unanimously.

CAUGHT WITH ILLEGALLY CAPTURED SALMON

Patrick Mulcahy, 12, Childers Estate, Dungarvan was fined a total of £140 with £75 costs when he pleaded guilty to two charges under the Fisheries Acts at Dungarvan Court.

Mulcahy was charged by the Southern Region Fisheries Board with having 4 salmon illegally captured in his possession near Ballymacmague, Dungarvan on November 15 last and with using a vehicle in the commission of a fishery offence.

Mr. Fergus Power, Solr., for the Board told the Court that on November 15, Det/Gda Molloy and Garda Sheehan stopped a motor car driven by Mulcahy at Ballymacmague and asked him if he had any salmon in the car and he denied it. They then searched the car and found a bag with 4 salmon in it. There were two other men also in the car, Arthur and Philip Daly but both denied any knowledge about the salmon.

Mr. Power added that Mulcahy had two previous convictions for fishery offences.

Mr. Niall King, Solr., for the defendant, said that Mulcahy was unemployed and he had, at once, admitted the offences. It was only a small-time operation and in view of this and as he had pleaded to the charges he asked for leniency for the defendant.

District Justice O'Connell then imposed fines totalling £120 on the first charge and a further £20 on the second and disqualified the defendant from holding a fishing licence for 3 years. In addition he ordered him to pay £75 costs.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUTS NOTES

WEDNESDAY CUBS

Last Thursday night we travelled to the Friary College to take part in the Regional Soccer competition. On arrival we kitted out and got prepared for our first game against Dungarvan Thursday night cub's and in an uneven match we came out winners by 7-0.

Then we had a break during which Austin and Mary gave a pep talk of which Brian Clough would be proud. We then took to the field again and had another convincing win over Cappoquin. At this stage everyone was fired up for our game against our old rivals Dungarvan Wednesday nights who had also been putting in winning performances.

Our forwards, Sean Kelleher, David Shepherd and Paul Landy put up a great fight and indeed so did our goalkeeper Brian Loneragan who saved brilliantly from the spot. However, the Dungarvan goalie proved the thorn in our side as he constantly kept our forwards at bay with some great saves. When the final whistle went we had lost 2-1.

After this defeat we met the Abbeyside Monday nights and beat them by a convincing 3-1 score. After the judges did their figures it came about that the final would be between us and Dungarvan Wednesday nights.

So the scene was set for the big showdown! The final kicked off in the fading light and the atmosphere was electric with parents shouting on their sons, cubs urging on their friends and the Leaders having heart failure!

In a fierce and even match it was Sean Kelleher who rounded the Dungarvan defence to slot home the opener. The excitement was short-lived as Dungarvan struck back almost immediately. Our back-line of Alan Kinsella and Conor McCarthy did trojan work under the guidance of Denis O'Flynn, while in midfield Damien Wall and John Paul Molloy were at their best.

The breakthrough came in the second half when a powerful shot by Paul (Handy) Landy rocketed into the back of the net and two minutes later the whistle for full time was blown.

Back in the dressing room crisps, sweets and coke were handed out to everyone who took part and then A/R/C Brian thanked everyone and called on the winning captain Sean Kelleher to collect the magnificent shield. In his speech Sean thanked all his team and called for three cheers for the losing finalists.

At 9.30 everybody left the Friary after enjoying a great night and all are looking forward anxiously to next year's competition.

THATCHER ECONOMICS COMING HOME TO ROOST

A letter from the Department of the Environment informed members of Dungarvan Urban Council at their April monthly meeting that a capital allocation of £64,000 had been made by the Minister to cover the Council's expenditure on house building in the coming year.

The Town Clerk, Mr. B. White said that the amount allocated would provide for the building of only two houses and it was proposed to build these at Caseyville at the rear of the Pipe Band House in Wolfe Tone Road. He added that they expected that the houses being built in Rice's Street would be completed and ready for occupation in June.

Cllr. Kyne said that he had to deplore the common acceptance of cuts in all these allocations and as far as he was concerned two houses for a town the size of Dungarvan for the coming year was far from acceptable. "This", said Cllr. Kyne, "is Mrs. Thatcher's economics coming home to roost and we should protest against this continued cutting in our housing grants. It is the same where Health and Education is concerned."

Cllr. M. O'Riordan said that in not being able to build more houses they were only building up problems for themselves in the future.

Cllr. T. Wright agreed with Cllr. Kyne concerning the widespread acceptance of what is happening where all these cut-backs were concerned. "In the future it will mean that we will have less houses to give out," he said. Cllr. D. Goode disagreed and said that they had a record second to none in Dungarvan. "Over the years we have built hundreds of houses in the Urban," he said.

IT'S THE WAY IT'S PUT THAT COUNTS

Cllr. R. Walsh moved the following motion at the April monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council: "that we protest at the iniquitous legislation which requires Old Age Pensioners to pay up to twice as much for a driving licence as the rest of the population and to write to the Department of Social Welfare and the Environment demanding amendment of this discriminatory legislation."

Moving the motion Cllr. Walsh said that a non-contributory old age pensioner must get a medical certificate for which he can be charged whatever a doctor thinks enough before he can get a driving licence, and this has to be done every year. "It simply means", said Cllr. Walsh, "that old age pensioners have to pay twice as much for a driver's licence as say, Tony O'Reilly and Michael Smurfit."

Cllr. Kyne — Or Larry Goodman! It was pointed out that Cllr. Walsh's motion was faulty in its wording as the charges for driver's licences were the same actually for everyone and unless the motion was amended it could not be passed. It was the additional cost of a medical 'cert' that was in question, it was stated.

The Chairman, Cllr. Austin Hallahan then suggested that Cllr. Walsh might amend his motion as suggested and this was agreed. The amended motion asking the Dept. of Social Welfare to provide a free medical certificate for old age pensioners applying for driving licences was then put to the meeting and passed.

AGLISH COMMUNITY NOTES

OBITUARY

MR. PATRICK KEATING

News of the sudden passing of Mr. Paddy Keating, Dromore, Aglish, was received in the area with feelings of shock, sincere sorrow and regret when last Friday, April 21, Paddy slipped away quietly at home when he answered the last call to his eternal reward.

From a very young age Paddy was used to hard work and devoted himself to the land and even a few hours before his death neighbours were helping him prepare for the sowing of the potato crop.

Paddy was a very popular person in the locality with young and old. He was a man of many qualities and it was a pleasure to have known him. His quaint turn of phrase often left you wondering what he meant and from this he got quiet enjoyment. He really loved calling on his neighbours and every night continued the old custom of calling for a chat when he was always made welcome.

Above all he had a deep faith in Christ which was an example to all of us.

Dromore will miss him and will be all the poorer for his passing.

Following prayers of requiem on Saturday evening recited by Rev. W. Carey, C.C., removal took place from Dungarvan hospital to Aglish Parish Church where the coffin was blessed and received by Very Rev. W. Callanan, P.P. Mass followed.

Following Requiem Mass on Sunday morning, April 23, celebrated by Fr. Callanan, interment took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a large gathering who had come to pay their last respects. Fr. Callanan officiated at the graveside.

Chief mourners — Pat and Patricia Murray, Elizabeth, Helena, Sarah, relatives, neighbours and friends.

(Funeral arrangements by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

There was a meeting of the Aglish Community Council in the hall last Wednesday night and a lot of events were discussed. We thank the Ballinameela/Aglish Dramatic club who presented us with £200 from the "Big Maggie" play. Well done to all who participated in the play especially to our Aglish people William Downing, Anne Meskill, Sinead Ronayne, Austin Halley, William O'Brien and Patsy Lenane.

TIDY TOWNS

There will be a public meeting on the Village Inn Lounge on Thursday, May 4 at 9 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is to organise a public campaign on tidy towns. Everyone out of every household is welcome. There will be a showing of a video on tidy towns so come on everybody get Aglish on the map.

EYES DOWN

There will be another Eyes Down session in the community hall, on Monday, May 8 with buses from Youghal and Cappoquin.

LATE MR. PATRICK KEATING

With deep sorrow and regret we record the death of Mr. Paddy Keating which occurred at his home over the weekend. Paddy from Dromore, Aglish was a quiet but friendly man and will be missed by many.

MUSIC CLASSES

There will be music classes held in the Aglish Hall next Wednesday night and every Wednesday night. Teacher is Nicky Shanahan former bagpipe player and he will be teaching keyboards, tin whistle and accordion. The classes start at 6.30 p.m. to 7.45 p.m. for over age 6 to 12 years old and from 7.45 p.m. to 9 p.m. for 12 years and upwards.

GET WELL

We wish a speedy recovery to Mrs. Nuala Power who had a slight accident. Nuala is known to all the pupils of Aglish National School where she teaches.

We welcome Miss Maunsell from Ardfert, Co. Kerry, who is substitute teacher for Nuala.

We wish a speedy recovery also to Conor Riordan who also was injured recently.

BADMINTON CLUB NOTES

On Thursday night last our players travelled to Tourin for our second match against their club. Our players on the night were Lena O'Keefe, Esther Ware, Mary O'Donovan, Deirdre Corkery, Seamus Meskill, Paul O'Connell, Paddy Corkery, and Brian Connery. From the results of the night it would seem that our players need a lot more practice. The only bright spot in our night was the mixed doubles where Lena and Seamus played extremely well to win by 2 games to 1.

We must congratulate Tourin on a well deserved win and thank them for inviting us to their club. Hopefully the next time we play them our performance will be better.

There will be no practice on May 8 as there will be bingo in the hall. Instead it will take place on Tuesday, May 9 at 8 p.m.

We wish to express our sympathy to the relatives and friends of the late Paddy Keating, Dromore, whose death occurred at the weekend.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Q. — I worked here for the past four years but was let go in February. I went immediately to London and have worked there for 8 weeks. For family reasons I have to come home. Will I be able to claim any benefit in Ireland while I am looking for work.

A. — Under E.C. Regulations the country where you were last employed is responsible for paying your Unemployment Benefit.

If you were receiving Unemployment Benefit in the UK for four weeks you could transfer up to 13 weeks of your UK Benefit over here.

To come under our regulations it is usually necessary to work here for 1 week on your return.

However, if you satisfy the PRSI requirements on your Irish record alone, then they would normally pay your Unemployment Benefit without having to work here for the 1 week. As you meet the requirements on your Irish record (39 weeks PRSI in the tax year '87/88) you should sign on immediately on your return and you should be paid from the fourth day.

In your case if the exchange tell you that you need the one Irish contribution explain that you meet the requirements on your Irish record and ask them to confirm this with the Supervisor, U.B. Decisions, in Dublin.

PENSMAN Takes You.... Behind The SPOTLIGHT

NINETY SECONDS FROM GLORY!

When the Dungarvan United Youths team were only ninety seconds from glory in the All-Ireland Youths Cup Final at Ozier Park, Waterford last Sunday evening, disaster struck when the Donegal boys of the Milford United XI, in a last gasp effort, broke through the Dungarvan defence for the equaliser.

Dungarvan went one up after eleven minutes and remained in front until almost the last minute when the Milford lads came to terms. Extra time brought no change and the game ended in a 1-1 draw.

However, the 90 seconds lapse now means that the Dungarvan United lads and their mentors will have to face a 270 mile journey to Letterkenny, Co. Donegal where the replay will take place next Saturday. It couldn't be farther away than that, as Letterkenny is right at the top of the northern shore of Donegal!

However we will still be hoping that our team will overcome all the handicaps they now have to face and that they will bring home the bacon on Saturday night!

Good luck lads — keep going forward!

WITH WATERFORD EXILES IN NEW YORK

A letter from Mrs. Theresa French, Yonkers, New York, send us thanks on behalf of the Waterford Association in New York for our help to the Association in the past.

She goes on to say that the Association's Annual Dinner held in April 1 was a huge success, adding that "it was a credit to our Guest of Honour, John Clancy to see so much representation from other counties as well as Waterford. We hope John's family enjoyed their visit and that Joan, Pete and Ollie had a safe trip home (to Abbeyside)."

Enclosed with her letter, Mrs. French sent a page from the Association Journal consisting of an In Memoriam for Martin Power, Past President of the Association whose death after a long illness took place at his home in Yonkers on June 6, 1988. Martin was born at Kiely's Cross, Grange on April 14, 1925 and emigrated to the U.S. in August 1949. He was a great favourite with all members of the Waterford Association, serving for several years as President on two separate occasions while he was also a loyal supporter of the Hurling and Football Club in New York.

The Journal tribute states:

"His quick wit . . . his love of song and dance . . . his genteel ways will not easily be forgotten . . . nor the gleam in his eye when he counted his golf score! We miss you, Martin!"

The late Martin Power is survived by his wife Joan, daughter Maureen and sons Martin Jr., John and Kevin. Solus siorrai d'a anam.

DONNCHA'S SUNDAY

For his usual Sunday programme from RTE radio last Sunday evening, Donncha O Dulaing was at the horse training establishments of John Kiely and David Kiely at Lisfennel and of Paddy Kiely at Twomilebridge in Dungarvan. It was a carry over from his Ring Gaeltacht sponsored walk of the previous Sunday for which he thanked everyone concerned and in particular Tomas O Ceilleachair, Oide Scoile now retired, whom he said was the "instigator" of the 3-day fund-raising walk from Dunmore East.

Donncha, in the course of his hour long radio programme, spoke with each of the Kiely brothers and among the others he interviewed were Michael ("the Gabha") Moloney, Breda Kiely and Miceal O h-Ualachain whose horse "Tigh An Cheoil" was ridden by Donncha on the last stage of his walk to Helvick.

In all, the programme proved most interesting and gave many of us an idea of what a working day at a busy horse training and racing establishment is really like.

AN OLD COMEDIAN PASSES ON

It was with sadness that we noted the death of one of the greatest ever Irish comedians, Harry Bailey, which took place in Dublin at the age of 80, last week.

The Harry Bailey Show toured Ireland regularly in the 1950's and paid several visits to the Dungarvan Town Hall in those years. His act was to stand on stage with a fiddle and tell jokes and his quick-fire patter proved irresistible to comedy fans up and down the country over two generations.

On those visits to Dungarvan, he always called in at the "Leader" Office, usually accompanied by Manager Bob Ferguson and Ben Bono, a ventriloquist who was a leading member of the show. He took his final curtain when he died in his sleep at the Beaumont Hospital in Dublin last Friday.

FLORA COLOURING COMPETITION

The children's Flora Colouring Competition in the "Leader" ends this week and the last time for entries is Friday of this week, April 28, up to 6 p.m. So, any of you children interested in Art, who have not already tried your hand at colouring the Flora Sunflowers which are appearing for the last time in this issue of the "Leader", should get cracking without further delay and get your entry into the "Leader" office before closing time at 6 p.m. on Friday evening.

There will be nice sweat-shirts for the winners.

A MOST IMPORTANT DOCUMENT BUT —

The draft of the revised County Development Plan which will set the guidelines as to what the Planning Authority considers to be the best options for development in the county for the next five years was presented to the County Council — the Planning Authority — for their consideration at a meeting specially called for the purpose last Monday.

The approval and adoption of the Plan is a function reserved to the Council and when this has been done it will then be deposited for public inspection over a 3 months period during which any objections to the Plan by members of the public may be lodged.

At last Monday's meeting, the Development Plan was very correctly described by one member as one of the most important documents the Council could discuss. However, at no time during the two-and-a-half hour long meeting was the attendance of the 23-member Council in excess of 15 and when finally, the decision to adjourn further consideration of the Plan was taken at 5 p.m., the roll call was down to a mere 11 members!

It would seem that despite its importance, discussion on the Plan did not generate a great deal of interest among the members of the Council. Nonetheless it must be added that the members who did turn up made a number of worthwhile contributions while Chairman Cllr. Billy Kyne conducted the business in his usual workmanlike fashion.

"AN IRISH JAUNT"

This is the title of a book due to be published on Tuesday next, May 2, written by two friends setting out their own accounts of a 14-day walking trip which took them from Dublin to Kerry via counties Wicklow, Wexford, Waterford and Cork in May 1987.

The authors are Roger Jones, an Englishman and Tony Anderson who though also born in England is stated to "always feel more at home in Ireland". The first section of "An Irish Jaunt" gives Roger Jones's account of the journey while the second section tells Tony Anderson's story of the 14-day tour. Surprisingly there is little or no overlap despite the fact that both were written independently.

It is the second section which local people hereabouts should find the more interesting as Tony Anderson had strong family connections with Dungarvan. His father left Dungarvan in 1936 as a young man to seek work in England while his grandfather was employed by C.I.E. at the Causeway level crossing at Abbeyside for many years in the days when we still had a rail service in the county. His aunt Eileen (Mrs. Ned Veale) still resides in Abbeyside and all this is recalled in the book as the authors recount their experiences as they passed through Dungarvan and then via Cappoquin and Lismore on to Cork City before finally completing their Irish adventure in Kenmare and Killarney.

Both accounts are written in an enthusiastic, light and refreshing style and should really delight anyone interested in the Irish countryside and especially the counties through which the walkers passed.

"An Irish Jaunt" is published by the Ex Libris Press, Bradford-On-Avon, and will be distributed in Ireland by Easons as from Tuesday next. With illustrations by Edward Dowden it can well be described as an honest and fascinating account of what two Englishmen experienced in footslogging it across Ireland.

THE BOLD THADY QUILL

A very special request, all the way from a reader in Sydney, Australia, reached us this week for the words of that great Cork ballad, "The Bold Thady Quill." In the hope that they reach you, John, in time for the celebration you want them for, here they are —

Ye maids of Duhallow, who are anxious for courting,

A word of advice I will give unto ye,

Go down to Banteer to the athletic sporting,

And send in your names to the club committee,

But do not arrange any sketch of your

programme

'Til a carriage you see coming over the hill

Flying thro' the valleys and glens of Kilcorney,

With our elegant sportsman, the bold Thady

Quill.

Chorus:

For rambling or bolwing, for football or coursing

For drinking black porter as fast as you'd fill,
In all your days roving you'll find none more jovial,

Than the Muskerry sportsman, the bold Thady Quill.

At the great hurling match between Cork and Tipperary,

'Twas played in the Park on the banks of the Lee,

Our own darling boys were afraid of being beaten,

So they sent for bold Thady to Ballinagree.

He hurled the ball right and left in their faces,
And showed the Tipperary boys action and skill;

If they touched on our lines he did manfully brave them,

And they put in the paper the praise of Thade Quill.

At the Cork Exhibition there was a fair lady,

Her fortune exceeded a million or more,

But a bad consitution had ruined her completely,

And medical treatment had failed o'er and o'er.
Yerra, mamma, says she, sure I know what will heal me

And cure the disease that is certain to kill,

Give over your doctors and medical treatment,

Let me have a stroll out with bold Thady Quill.

Repeat Chorus.

J. J. LANDERS PERPETUAL DOUBLES FINAL (over 9 frames)

Conor O'Leary and Tommy O'Sullivan 4
Michael Casey and Martin Reddy 5

Last week in this column I predicted that Tommy O'Sullivan and Conor O'Leary would clinch the title of doubles champions for 1989 with comparative ease, and as you can see from the scoreline I was almost right.

To say the least the match turned out to be a very interesting contest, and would you believe that after the first five frames Martin and Michael found themselves in what they must have thought was an unbeatable position of leading four frames to one, a lead I might add they thoroughly deserved. All credit though to Conor and Tommy who battled on to win the next three frames and tie the match at 4 frames a piece.

In the last frame Martin and Michael were in command throughout and had a comfortable lead going into the colours, but they were made sweat by Conor and Tommy who really forced the issue and almost completed an amazing comeback, only to see Michael pot the pink and clinch the match.

All four players played well on the day, but I think Martin and Michael were deserving winners and I'm sure Conor and Tommy would agree.

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

MINOR FOOTBALLERS FOR WESTERN FINAL
Affane 0-7
Dungarvan 0-4
Affane qualified for the Western minor "A" football final by virtue of last Sunday's win over Dungarvan. The team again displayed skill and courage as they played almost 40 minutes of the game with 14 men. However poor shooting in front of goal is causing some concern for the selectors. But on the bright side is their never-say-die spirit. Well done lads.

Scorers — T. Mansfield, Tom Fives, P. J. Veale (0-2 each), K. O'Donnell (0-1).

Team — C. Cullinane, N. Burke, M. Reddy, M. Dransfield, J. Buckley, T. Fives, S. Costin, T. Mansfield, P. J. Veale, K. Wilkinson, D. Kelleher, K. O'Donnell, E. Fraher, M. McCarthy, M. Mason. Sub. — G. Morrissey for M. McCarthy.

ON COUNTY TEAM

Thomas Mansfield and Tom Fives both turned in good displays for Waterford minor hurlers against Limerick last Wednesday evening.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL

It's back to football again this week as Affane take on Ardmore in the third match in their section on Saturday night, April 29. Ardmore will be a tough nut to crack so our lads will have to be at their best to overcome the challenge of the seaisiders.

GOOD START FOR SENIOR HURLERS Cappoquin 2-11 Tallow 2-5

Cappoquin senior hurlers made a splendid start to the championship with a well deserved win over old rivals Tallow. It was an entertaining match with patches of good hurling and some delightful scores. It may not have been a hurling classic but it was a welcome win for the locals as Tallow are always a difficult obstacle. Proof of this was in the fact that we had 70% of the play and still Tallow were within striking distance all through the second half. But Cappoquin were the fitter side and finished the stronger.

With further training this team will undoubtedly improve and it was good to see the younger members of the team playing so well. But it was a team effort that won the day.

Scorers — M. Power (1-1), B. Hennessey (0-5), F. Murray (1-0), P. Curran, T. O'Sullivan (0-2 each), D. Cummins (0-1).

Team — E. McGrath, S. Fraher, M. Brackett, J. Crotty, S. McCarthy, P. McCarthy, B. Murray, B. Curran, B. Hennessey, D. Cummins, M. Murray, M. Power, F. Murray, K. McCarthy, T. O'Sullivan.

Well the teams have been picked for the Mass Lane Cup and all the youngsters are eager for the fray. This competition for u-14 hurlers always throws up some exciting contests. So when it gets under way next week it will attract enthusiastic followers.

LINDSAY'S DARTS

Last Friday the dart season ended in triumph for us when we took the league cup beating Tavern A by 5 games to 2.

It was probably one of our best performances to date and this showed when we raced into a 4-0 lead. Tavern however came back and took the next 2 but we held our nerve and took the last game for our first cup victory in our 2 years of existence as a club.

The club before signing off for the year would like to thank Maura for her generosity and co-operation throughout the season and to our 2 teams who were as follows:

DUNGARVAN SEA ANGLING CLUB NEWS

In case you haven't seen a calender posted, it is now only three week-ends away from our first outing, which is the "Inter Firms" competition for teams of four sponsored by Baumanns Jewellers and Tackle Shop. Any committee member will take your entry and we would like to get the teams organised at the earliest possible date, rather than confusion on the Quayside at embarkation time.

A minor change to the rules this year is that twelve fish of a species will count rather than the previous limit of ten. We would remind our members to return unharmed any fish not intended to be consumed.

We have a splendid variety of fish out there so let's lend a hand to their conservation. We spoke to anglers at the A.G.M. of IFSA who told us of species being totally wiped out due to overkilling, including Skate in Kilalla Bay!

The committee have been slogging hard during the winter including attending regional and national meetings all of which information has fluttered to those interested so I won't bore you with the details. The caravan has been renovated and will shortly reappear on the Quayside in its pristine condition.

No doubt you have all heard that the committee made a promotional foray to Wales where we have opened negotiations with a club in Mumbles (outside Swansea) with a view to some kind of reciprocal arrangements for anglers from there wishing to participate here and vice versa. We hope to formalise this at the Yoplait Weekend. We expect to have some of their members here at various stages throughout the season and if the weekend that we spent over there is any measure then the crack should be good. They can fish too!

There will be a meeting with the skippers on Wednesday, April 26 at the Anchor at 8 p.m. to discuss the arrangements for the season, including safety. Let's hope the weather will be kind this year.

SAD NOTE

It has only come to my attention that Breda Molloy's father died on Friday last the 14th. The committee wishes to express their condolences. — P.R.O.

Minnies Squash Notes

DENIS O'BRIEN THE HERO AS MINNIES WIN MUNSTER TITLE!

On Wednesday night last Minnies crossed the bridge to Dungarvan to take on defending champions Dungarvan Crystal in the Munster Novice team final, and, I'm very proud to report, an exciting 3-2 win for the Abbeyside club.

Minnies got off to a flying start when No. 5 Kieran Foley played some brilliant, well controlled squash, to defeat the very experienced Ger Foley 3-0 (9-7, 10-8, 9-0). Pat O'Brien, our top underage player showed how quick his game is maturing with a fantastic 3-0 win over the very fit Eamon Meehan (9-1, 9-7, 9-0). No. 1, Ray Moore came up against a very inform George Hamilton and despite his best efforts went down 1-3 (2-9, 1-9, 3-9). Our captain and No. 3 Maurice Walsh was next and here, hampered by a shoulder injury, he played very well before going down 1-3 (9-5, 8-10, 3-9, 5-9) to Pat Terry. This left it all square with the No. 2s to come. Minnies could not have asked for a more experienced anchorman as Denis O'Brien took to the court against Paddy Murphy. In the first game, Paddy led 8-6 before Denis stormed back to take it 10-8. In the second Paddy won 9-6 and followed with a 9-5 win in the third. In the fourth, Denis came out with all guns blazing as he cruised through 9-1. In the deciding game, Paddy led 2-0 before Denis pressed the turbo button to sail through 9-5 and clinch Minnies first Munster title for a few years.

The novice squad are to be complimented for such a fantastic achievement. The other squad members were Richard Gough, Maurice Flynn and Martin Walsh.

PAUL O'BRIEN PROVES HIS SUPREMACY

On the weekend of April 14-16, Minnies Squash Club hosted the Designer Homes and Minnies Lounge Bars Junior Waterford Closed, where I'm delighted to report, no less than seven finalists came from the home club, a remarkable achievement in our first season back in Junior squash.

I think the award for player of the weekend, without a doubt would have to go to Paul O'Brien. Paul first proved he is the undisputed No. 1 under 14 player in Minnies by disposing of Michael Sheehan 3-1 in the semi-final. He then made himself No. 1 u-14 player in the county by defeating Mark Murphy of Dunhill 3-0 in the final.

Paul's "big" brother, Pat, playing in the under 19 B section cruised through, beating Owen Fanning of Celtic 3-0 in the final.

It was a good week-end for the Burns family of Pinewood, with Jonathan runner-up in the u-12 plate; while older sister Alison was runner-up in the u-16 plate. In fact the girls u-16 plate final was an all Minnies affair with Jackie Mansfield defeating Alison 3-0. In the girls u-16 proper, Michelle Mernin was in tremendous form as she reached the final, going down to Alison Power (Dunhill). In the girls u-14 proper, Sinead Burns continued her superb form as she reached the final, losing out to Ciara O'Connor (Celtic).

Congratulations to all our finalists and all other competitors, well done to Fiona Fitzgerald, the tournament director and thanks to Designer Homes and Minnies Lounge Bars, without their very generous sponsorship there would have been no competition.

TONY LONERGAN'S TEAM VICTORIOUS IN HOFFMANS FINAL!

On Tuesday, April 18th we had the final of our Hoffmans Lager Team Tournament — our final tournament of the season. It was a well matched event going to the five matches. The captains (No. 2s) were first and here Michael Flynn one of our country League heroes was kept on his toes as he defeated Tony Lonergan 3-1 (9-6, 9-2, 4-9, 9-0). The No. 5s were next and here Bobby Lyons, a good young prospect, played exceptional squash as he beat in-form ladies country league star Teresa Hayes 3-0 (9-4, 9-3, 9-0). At No. 3, Michael G. Dwyer, hero of the semi-finals, kept up his fine form with a convincing 3-0 (9-4, 10-8, 9-4) victory over Ger Howley. The clash of the No 1s was won by the most consistent player in the club this season, Tommy Butler, who defeated Denis O'Brien 3-0 (9-6, 9-5, 9-1). In the deciding clash Peter Stam overcame a jittery start to defeat Liam Moore 3-0 (9-7, 9-0, 9-2) to clinch the title for Tony Lonergan's team.

The presentation of prizes will take place at the racquetball/squash end of season function at O'Bs on this Thursday, April 27th.

TALLOW NOTES

SENIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Tallow 2-4, Cappoquin 2-11

Tallow senior hurlers suffered a comprehensive defeat at the hands of Cappoquin in this first round senior hurling championship game at Lismore on Sunday night last. Tallow got off to a disastrous start when conceding a goal inside the first five minutes and were always struggling thereafter to catch up with the opposition.

Cappoquin led 1-1 to 0-0 after 10 minutes, but some determined play had Tallow level at 1-1 a-piece when Dermot Henley scored a goal and the same player added a point from a free. A second goal and a couple of points from Cappoquin left them ahead at the break by double scores: 2-4 to 1-2.

Tallow started the second half very determinedly but Cappoquin were the first to score and this seemed to settle them. A goal from Pat Murphy reduced the leeway to 3 points and Tallow seemed set to take the initiative at this stage, but with Cappoquin's half back line in good form, they ran out easy winners.

Tallow will have learned from this experience that taking scores is of vital importance if they are to hold their own with the elite of Waterford hurling.

The team which did duty on Sunday night was: Martin Murphy, Martin Allen, Jim O'Donoghue, Michael T. Cunningham, Brian Henley, Mick Beecher, Johnny Geary (capt.), Tomas McCarthy, Tim Sheehan (0-1), Dermot Henley (1-2), Steve Curley, Mark Geary, Bart O'Donoghue, Kieran Murphy, J. J. Henley. Subs. — Pat Murphy (1-1) for J. J. Henley (first half), Pat Sheehan for B. O'Donoghue (second half).

The club wishes Johnny Geary the best of luck on Thursday next when he heads off to the States. Johnny has been a model of consistency down through the years in the Blue and Gold of Tallow and his loss will be certainly felt. All the best, Johnny, from everyone in the club.

Result: MFC — Tallow 1-6, Brickeys 1-6.

TALLOW BADMINTON NOTES

Our 2nd division team qualified for the final of the Touraneena Cup last week when they defeated Melleray in the semi-final in Tallow. Who their opponents are is not yet known. We wish them the best of luck in the final. Team members are: Fiona Cunningham, Mary Murphy, John Pratt and Michael T. Cunnham.

The club are hosting their end-of-season party on Saturday night, April 29 in the Corner House. Hope to see a big crowd enjoy themselves. — PRO.

BRIDE VIEW UTD. F.C. NOTES — SCHOOLBOYS' FOOTBALL

Under-14 Pious Walsh League — Lismore 0, Bride View Utd. 5 — United got their league programme off to a winning start in Lismore last Wednesday evening. Goals from Pat O'Flynn, John Paul Grey (2) and John Murray gave Bride View a four goal lead at the break.

John Paul Grey added a fifth goal for the Tallow lads in the second half. This was a good all-round performance from the Tallow boys.

Bride View Utd. 2, Inch 5 — We dropped two home points against a very strong Inch side on Sunday last. Inch were two goals up after just 9 minutes before Brian Power pulled one back for Bride View. Inch finished the stronger in the first half and added two further goals to build up a good lead at the break.

John Paul Grey scored direct from a free kick just two minutes into the second half but Inch struck back 6 minutes later and ran out convincing winners.

TALLOW BOYS SCOUTS

Tallow scouts held a bring and buy sale on Sunday, April 16, in St. Patrick's Hall, Tallow, to raise funds for their forthcoming trip to Lourdes. The sale was very successful and raised a large sum of money. On behalf of the Unit Council, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the business people, the community and different clubs and organisations who sponsored us with prizes and donations; also the different people who helped organise and run stalls and events. I would like to add a special thanks to Ted Keniry, Billy Henley, Ollie Wilkinson and Willie McDonnell who took part in one of our novelty events — all in good spirits. Last, but not least, thanks are extended to all those who came and supported us on the day. — PRO.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.

A total of five games in both football and hurling provided a busy schedule for the club at the weekend. The under-14 hurlers succeeded in their league tie with Sarsfields last Thursday evening at Conna Sportsfield. Friday evening saw our under-21 hurlers in contention against Cloyne at Middleton with the latter taking the spoils after a good game, and Pat O'Connor, Aghada on the whistle.

Our under-12 hurlers were defeated on Saturday at Carrigtwohill by the home side. On Sunday evening our intermediate hurlers were at home in Ballynoe pitch against Cobh for their league game. It was a lively encounter all the way through and the lead changing hands on a few occasions, and when it looked like going Cobh's way in the end, Catherines redoubled their efforts to win on the score 1-11 to 1-6. Billy Cody, Middleton, refereed.

Our under-16 footballers returned home later in the evening from Rathgormac bearing the good news of a victory for them over Bride Rovers, registering 5-3 to 1-4.

Ballynoe Gaelic grounds hosted an under-21 hurling championship game last Saturday evening between Youghal and Bride Rovers and this proved to be a very exciting contest. The seiders had 1-7 to Bride Rovers 2-2 at the interval, and with both sides fighting out the second half in good sporting fashion, Youghal emerged the eventual winners on the score 5-12 to 4-4. John G. Barry, St. Catherines, refereed.

Under-14 Hurling At Coachford: St. Catherines v. Ahabullogue — On next Sunday evening our under-14 hurlers will travel by bus to Coachford to engage the Ahabullogue boys in the Feile na nGael Competition, and as it's a great honour for our lads to compete in this event we are asking our patrons to support us. This game commences at 7 p.m. and we hope a large crowd of supporters will travel.

DAVID (DAVEY) LONG,

GLENACROUGHERA, TALLOW

The parish of Glengoura, and surrounding districts as well, were saddened on hearing of the death of Davey Long, which occurred at his residence in Glenacroughera, last Sunday morning.

A farmer, he was one of the most popular men in the locality. Possessed with great agility, warmth, kindness and true Gaelic spirit, Davey was always to the fore in helping to organise events such as concerts, feiseanna or anything for the benefit of the locality and being a great exponent of the terpsicorean art, he was a regular choice for the stage at functions in the district.

His interest in sport was wide-ranging and he was a familiar figure everywhere when these occasions arose and his great example and enthusiasm in that sphere will remain long in our memories.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to his wife Nellie, his son Michael, daughters Mary and Breeda, daughter-in-law, sons-in-law, grandchildren, relatives and friends. Solus na bhflaitheas da anam uasal. Interment took place in Tallow cemetery.

THOMAS FITZGERALD, REAROUR, TALLOW

We regret to record the death of Tommy Fitzgerald, formerly of Rearour, who died at the District Hospital, Youghal, recently. A highly esteemed member of the community, endowed with a fine singing voice and equally adept on the accordion and violin, Tommy will be remembered especially as a prominent member of the Bridesiders Serenaders Dance Band, Tallow, way back in the thirties and forties.

Of a quiet and unassuming disposition, he was everyone's friend and we convey our condolences to his brother Patsy, cousins and friends. Beannacht De lena anam. He was interred in Tallow cemetery.

JAMES (JIMMY) MURPHY MURPHY, MIDDLETON

The death occurred recently after a long and protracted illness of Jimmy Murphy of 5 Youghal Road, Middleton and formerly of Dungourney. Jimmy was particularly known as a great sports fan and his enthusiasm in this field saw him organise and help to foster local youthful football teams.

Of a quiet disposition, he was always considered a good neighbour and his death whilst still in his fifties evoked much regret in the neighbourhood and we wish to share our sympathy with his wife Dolores, son Alan, daughters Terry and Tracy, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandsons, sisters, brothers, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

Solus na bhflaitheas da anam uasal. He was interred in Holy Rosary Cemetery, Middleton.

MRS. MARGARET QUIRKE, DUNGOURNEY

The recent death of Mrs. Margaret Quirke, Dungourney, cast a gloom over the neighbourhood where she was extremely popular. Her serious illness, borne with true Christian fortitude and patience, epitomised her great spirit and her death at a considerably young age caused much regret to all and especially to her husband and young family and we pray to the God of all consolation to guide and strengthen them in their distress.

Our sympathy is extended to her husband John, family of six, sisters, brother, relatives and friends. Ar dheis laimh De go raibh a h-anam uasal. She was interred in Clonmult New Cemetery.

The Lonesome Hobos

Country/Bluegrass/Magic

The Lonesome Hobos are six Irishmen who have managed over the past year to put together the finest acoustic bluegrass band anywhere outside the United States. The Hobos are not and have never claimed to be a country rock group, relying heavily on drummer and bass player for that big sounding "thump", but have enthralled audiences with the sheer speed and technique of their performances, as they execute some of the fine old bluegrass standards with ease and precision, found normally "State-side".

The Hobos are the brain-child of Gerry O'Regan and Jessie Lonergan, the two frontmen, using five string banjo, acoustic guitars, autoharp and dobro.

After returning from Australia they enlisted the services of Mickey Kinsella (ex-Dave Prim Band) on blues harps and harmonicas, Niall O'Brien, degree student at W.R.T.C. on violin and classical music, Mick Dower and Gerry Madden, bass and mandolin with over fifteen years' experience in various folk and ballad bands throughout South-East Ireland.

Since the formation of the Hobos in June, 1988 the band has gone from strength to strength playing in Loughrea, Roscrea, Limerick, Dublin, Cork and even recently an offered "jaunt" to above all places, New Zealand, where the world-wide interest in acoustic bluegrass music is as strong as anywhere.

Catch them this Saturday, April 29 at the Anchor Bar. Admission £2.

FRIENDS OF ST. MARTIN, DUNGARVAN

At the recent annual general meeting of the Society, the outgoing chairman, Seamus Ahearne, gave a brief outline of the various activities during the year. These included two socials at Carriglea Training Centre, two very enjoyable evenings at the Soccer Club in addition to the ordinary monthly evenings in Fatima Hall. Special functions, including a guided walk of the town, were held during the National Week of Ageing in October 1988.

Of course the highlights of the year are always the Christmas Party and the Annual Summer Outing. Thanks to the generosity of the people who subscribed to our annual church gate collection and raffle it was possible to finance all the above events.

The Dungarvan ICA have also been very generous to the Society. This year's raffle is at present under way and the committee look forward to the continued support of Dungarvan and surrounding areas. It is hoped that the prize money for the raffle will be sponsored and details of the sponsorship will be published later.

The following officers were elected for 1989/90, viz. — President, Sr. M.

Qliyer; Vice-Presidents, Sr. M. Francis, P. J. Breen, R. Walsh; Chairman, Seamus Ahearne; Vice-Chairman, John Lynch; Hon. Secretary, Cora Duggan; Hon. Treasurer, Carmel O'Sullivan; In charge of visitation, Mary Russell, Peggy Jones.

BADMINTON NOTES

The badminton season has almost come to an end, therefore there are very few events to report on.

On Thursday night, April 13, there was great excitement in the local club as four of our ladies travelled to Dungarvan to play in the cup finals. Unfortunately these ladies were competing against each other, which on the one hand made it very exciting for the spectators, but created a lot of tension for the players. The teams playing were Jo. Jo Tobin and Margaret Morrissey against Isabel Canning and Caitriona Fogarty. The game ended fairly quickly as Caitriona and Isabel won the first two sets therefore making them the proud winners of the cup.

On Saturday night, April 15, the Annual Badminton Social was held in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan and many players from Lismore club attended. By all accounts the night was very enjoyable and we would like to thank all the organisers for providing a very successful night.

As things have almost come to a stand still on the badminton front the lady members have decided to keep the interest in the game alive by starting a league amongst themselves. Anyone interested should give their names to Margaret Morrissey or Connie O'Dowd.

CAMOGIE NOTES

On Saturday our u-16's travelled to a 7-a-side tournament in Mount Sion. In their first match they met St. Saviours "A" team and won by 2-1 to 1-0. We had a casualty in Ber Daly in this match and she was replaced. In the next round we met Butlerstown and were unfortunately beaten by 3-1 to 2-0. Lismore had been leading at the beginning but Butlerstown fought back. Maude Cunningham played very well in both matches, with Brenda Barry, Michelle Kenneally and Catherine O'Gorman also playing well. Colette Roche had to retire due to injury. We wish both patients better luck in the future!

Panel — B. O'Keefe, C. O'Gorman, M. Cunningham, B. Barry, M. Kenneally, S. Daly, C. Roche, G. Cunningham, C. Murphy, S. O'Gorman. — P.R.O.

IN HOSPITAL

We wish a speedy recovery to Kieran Fenton and Kathleen Cunningham who are at present in Ardkeen Hospital.

Congratulations and best wishes are extended to Patrick and Bridie Bennett, Deerpark, Lismore, on their Ruby Wedding Anniversary, which they celebrate on this Wednesday, April 26 — from all their family and friends.

FIELD

Our field was well in use on Saturday last, with no less than three games being played. Everything was well in order and our thanks to everyone involved.

JUVENILES

Our u-14 footballers qualified for the semi-final of the championship with a fine win over Naomh Brid and they now play Ballyduff on Monday next in Dungarvan.

ST. PATRICK'S G.A.A. NOTES

UNDER 14 FOOTBALL

We contest the Western final of the under 14 football on Monday night next, May 1 at Tourin commencing at 7.30 p.m. It is now almost a month since our last league match and it remains to be seen if our team have the talent to bring off a victory against the Shamrocks who are a bigger team and have shown good form to-date. Good luck to our side and it would be nice to win our first Western final which we contest this year.

CARDS

The £300 jackpot has not been knocked yet and the attendance despite the longer evenings continues unabated. Many thanks for your support and here's hoping for a win soon!

MINOR FOOTBALL

We play Stradbally on Sunday morning, April 30 in Abbeyside at 11.30 a.m. It is now three weeks since we were beaten by Naomh Brid in a poor match. Let's hope for a good performance here bearing in mind our team is only under this year due to a shortage of players up against the age which has always been the problem for our club.

WESTERN REPRESENTATIVES

Tom Kiely, John Byrne and Benny McGrath were on the West Waterford team who beat Carrighdoun two weeks ago and now play Cork City in Kilworth on Saturday at 3 p.m. Padraig Flynn and Kieran Byrne are subs while Ena Flynn is acting as Medical Officer. John Kiely acted as linesman and Ml. Cass did umpire in the recent Gleeson Cup game.

MINOR HURLING MUNSTER CHAMPIONSHIP

Condolences to Kevin McGrath, Peter Power and Ml. Dunford on their defeat in the hurling championship. The amount of hard work which all three have put into the preparation for this match goes back 6 months over the winter period. Kevin and Michael are underage next year and it is hoped all three will stick with their task of shaping the county into a formidable unit in 1990 which was always been the objective for this team. There is much work to be done and there is no easy way forward in a Munster championship.

NOTAI NOG NA BRICI

Training on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 6.30 p.m. All under 14's and 12's are requested to attend as the under 12's play Clashmore this week.

The poc fada and skills competition will be held in the Gaelic field on this Friday, April 27.

Na Brici would like to congratulate John and Kealan and their gallant team on Sunday's display. Hopefully next week the cup will be in Dungarvan. Our best wishes to all involved next Saturday in the replay. — P.R.O.

STRADBALLY G.A.A. NOTES

VITAL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

On Sunday next April 30 our senior footballers set out on their championship trail when they play Ferrybank in the first round in Dunhill at 3.15 p.m. This is a most important game — one that we hope will get us off to a winning start — otherwise it will be an uphill struggle all the way. So let's have that winning start on Sunday next.

SLIGHT INJURIES

Some of our senior panel have slight injuries of late, Liam O'Connor will definitely miss Sunday's game but should be ready in the near future. All the other players should declare themselves fit for this important game.

BEST WISHES TO EOIN

All club members send best wishes to our secretary Eoin O'Brien, "Lisadell", who takes part in the "Know Your Sport" final this week, with that prize to New York at stake. So on behalf of all concerned — the best of luck Eoin.

GALLANT UNDER 14 FOOTBALLERS

Our under 14 footballers are after putting up some great shows lately in the championship despite being so young. If the panel of players are kept together the future should be bright within the club again. Great credit must go to all who looked after them, particularly Liam O'Brien who was their trainer, also many thanks to all who provided transport.

SOCIAL CENTRE NEWS

By popular request the Sunnysiders return to the Social Centre on this Sunday night, April 30 — to provide music for members and friends.

Look out for Mick Delahunty's Band on Thursday, May 25 — Corpus Christi. More details later!

HURLERS GOOD WIN

Our intermediate hurlers had a good win over Kilgobinet in the championship last weekend in Dungarvan on the score of 1-12 to 0-8. This was a good win for the team as it was their first outing, and from now onwards they can only improve as the championship makes progress. But we did not escape injuries with Paul Mullaney receiving stitches. He also scored a gem of a goal. Sean Dee and Conor O'Brien also received slight injuries — but all should be ready for Sunday's game.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

It seems our junior football game v. Dungarvan fixed for this Saturday night will now not go ahead as planned. But certainly it will be played next week, so our juniors will soon be in action.

FIELD IN DEMAND

Our club grounds are very much in demand at the moment, with both county junior hurlers and under 21 hurlers in action this week, and a minor Western game this Friday evening. Full credit to Willie O'Brien and Michael Curran for having the pitch in great condition.

GERALDINES G.A.A. NOTES

NED MERNIN DEPENDENTS' FUND

We, the Geraldines Hurling and Football Club and the Ladies Committee of our club wish to thank most sincerely every club and everyone who helped in any way to make the above fund such a great success. As it would be impossible to answer individually every donation received, we trust that this acknowledgment will be accepted by all.

We thank you one and all for your support. It was a job very well done. You all really rose to the occasion. Thank you.

LATE PADDY KEATING, DROMORE

It is with deep sorrow that we record the death of Paddy Keating, Dromore, which took place on Thursday night of last week. He passed away peacefully at his residence. It was only on Thursday evening I was in his company.

Paddy was a legend. Whenever he talked about hurling and football, Geraldines were his first love. He was also very interested in the County hurlers.

We extend our sincere sympathy to his relatives, friends and neighbours.

Large crowds attended the obsequies on Saturday evening and Sunday morning. May he rest in peace.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Sliabh gCua 1-10, Geraldines 0-4

We made the journey to the Mill Field, Ballymacarbry on Saturday evening last and were beaten by Sliabh gCua in the second round of the intermediate football championship. We were best served by goalkeeper Noel Downing, Johnny O'Brien, Michael Kiely, Billy O'Connell, Brian Connery and Seamus Meskill.

JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Old Parish's championship aspirations received a major set back on Sunday when they were beaten by Ballysaggart.

Old Parish playing with the advantage of the wind in the first half made all the running and despite missing a lot of scoring opportunities led 1-5 to 0-1. Ballygunner got off to a flying start in the second half with two early goals in quick succession, and after that the difference between the two sides was Ballysaggart's ability to take their scoring chances. All in all it was a most disappointing display by Old Parish, with only Martin Curran and Buddy Hourigan making any impression. The result means that Old Parish must win their remaining games if they are to reach the play-offs. Training continues every Tuesday and Thursdays.

The panel was — D.Wheilan, C. French, T. Hogan, B. Hourigan, M. Power, D. French, M. Donovan, J. Salmon, T. Mahony, M. Curran, M. Hogan, S. O'Donnell, B. Mahony, M. Walsh, A. O'Sullivan, A. Lally.

LADIES FOOTBALL

On Wednesday evening last our ladies team had their first outing in a challenge against Na Deisigh, and unfortunately had to give way to a more experienced side. It was however a useful pre-season workout and one must not be too discouraged as the opposition are a senior team. Training continues on Wednesday and Saturday evenings at 7 p.m. All are welcome.

Remembering Other Days

The Photo for our "Remembering Other Days" this week recalls an occasion in the early 1950's when the late Councillor Norman Walsh of Cappoquin, one of the leading auctioneers of his time, was conducting a livestock sale on the Villiers/Stuart farm at Drogheda. Recorded by Tom Tobin at the time, it will recall memories for many of our readers in West Waterford, some of whom may be identified in the photo. And, just another reminder, if any readers should have any old photos suitable for this series, we would like them to contact us.

ST. AUGUSTINE'S TAKE CORN MHC RUAIRI

St. Augustine's 4-9, St. Munchin's 5-5

For the fourth time in its history, St. Augustine's captured the Corn Mhic Ruairi, when their senior hurlers defeated St. Munchin's (Limerick) in this Munster Hurling "C" final at Bansha. On a dry day, but on a sod made heavy by week-long rain, the Waterford boys hung on to win by one point in a nail-biting finish.

The game opened in a dramatic fashion and the Limerick side were swept aside by some brilliant hurling from Ray Flynn (centre-field) and Peter Queally (centre-back). Under strong pressure from full forward Tony Fitzgibbon, their defence wilted. The tall Tipperary full-forward used his height to good effect to prise open the Munchin's defence, and twice Denis Kelleher (Cappoquin) nipped in to crash the ball to the net, while Fives was picking off a few stylish points from the half-line.

After 15 minutes the Friary were 3-2 ahead and seemed to be coasting, but Limerick hurlers are made of sterling stuff. Using the ash to good effect, they notched 1-2 and then in the final seconds got a goal to leave the half-time score 3-4 to 2-2.

STOOD FIRM

The opening minutes of the second half were all St. Munchin's, but time and again the full-line of Pádraig Lynch, Declan Hartley and Kevin O'Reilly stood firm. P. Lynch (Ballyduff) had an outstanding game at full-back, while Michael Hubbart (Ballydurn) had an outstanding game in goal.

In the second half, Vincent Behan (Kilmacthomas) was a revelation, and epitomised the never-say-die spirit of this Friary rearguard. P. Queally, who had been "in the wars" earlier, now lifted his game once again and in the first attack, Fitzgibbon was again on target.

Tom Fives and Joe Kennedy added points and it seemed as if the Limerick fire had been dampened, but a lucky goal a few minutes later raised their spirits, and when they slotted home their fourth a few minutes later, their hopes were very much alive. Again Kennedy struck — a peach of a goal from the left wing — and from then to the end, play swayed from end to end.

A goal and a point for St. Munchin's reduced their deficit, and though John Lawlor (Kilkenny) replied with a great point, it was Oliver Murphy (Ballygunner) who sent the insurance point over.

Once again Munchin's stormed back, but Queally marshalled his backs and Lynch stood firm on the edge of the square repelling all invaders.

The many disappointments of this present team were all forgotten as Peter Queally accepted the cup from Barry Walsh, AIB, Tipperary, the sponsors of the trophy.

Team — M. Hubbart (Ballydurn), D. Hartley (Kilkenny), P. Lynch (Ballyduff/Portlaw), K. O'Reilly (Cappoquin), B. Kirwan (Kilrossanty), P. Queally (capt.) (Ballydurn), V. Behan (Kilmacthomas), E. Cremin (Cork), R. Flynn (Cappoquin), J. Kennedy (St. Mary's), J. Lawlor (Kilkenny), T. Fives (Cappoquin), O. Murphy (Ballygunner), T. Fitzgibbon (Tipperary), D. Kelleher (Cappoquin).

DUNGARVAN BADMINTON NOTES

O'GRADA AND O'MAHONEY ARE CHAMPIONS

In one of the most eventful weeks of the year for Dungarvan badminton club, our 3rd div. players Ann O'Grada and Kathleen O'Mahoney made the trip to Lady Lane in Waterford to contest the ladies doubles competition.

The captain of our 3rd div. ladies and her partner had fought a great campaign during the season and this was to be crowned with victory in the county championships. Ann and Kathleen had to assert their authority on the game as soon as the first shuttle was served.

With their opponents stunned by a defeat in the first set, the Dungarvan pair soon had the opposition reeling under a continuous barrage of shots that culminated in total defeat to give a well deserved victory to Ann and Kathleen.

This victory brings another honour to our club at the conclusion of the 1988/89 season. Well done!

LENANE AND HARNEY IN COUNTY FINAL

In another east v. west encounter, our ladies really showed their male counterparts that when it comes to qualifying for county finals they certainly outshine them.

Breda Lenane and Carmel Harney made the trip down to the beautiful Lady Lane venue to compete in the 6th div. ladies doubles with two very strong Dunmore ladies.

Lady luck did not shine on the Dungarvan pair as victory went to Dunmore. Again Dungarvan had the honour of having two of its players representing the club in a county championship. Well done, Breda and Carmel.

JIM KIERSEY HONOURED

At the annual social of the Waterford County Badminton Association, the President of the Badminton Union of Ireland, Jim Kiersey, was honoured by the executive of the County Association in an emotional ceremony when he was presented with a huge piece of Waterford Crystal and his wife Marie was presented with a bouquet of flowers.

They were given a rapturous round of applause that lasted for over two minutes. This standing ovation signifies the appreciation that every badminton player in the county and in fact the country, had for Jim in his work to promote badminton throughout Ireland. His wife Marie was accorded the same vote of confidence.

A very emotional President of the Badminton Union of Ireland was stunned by this surprise gesture and found it hard to find the words to express his gratitude.

Waterford has been extremely lucky to have a man of such calibre to guide the fortunes of badminton throughout the land. The club is extremely proud to have this man as its President.

DUNGARVAN CLUB HAS A MAYOR

The very popular 1st div. captain, Bernie Ryan won the title of Mayor of County Waterford in a sponsored competition recently. We wish our new Mayor every success in her new role.

COUNTY BOARD SCHOLARSHIP SCHEME

The County Board Scholarship Scheme this year is drawing great interest from our clubs. Judging by the number of enquiries that are being made, there seems great interest in this scheme. The interviews will take place on Saturday, May 6 in Dungarvan and Portlaw.

Applications forms will be available from club secretaries or any member of the Board. Applicants must be attached to the Association through a club, Scor or camogie, etc. A real opportunity for younger members of our Association.

SENIOR FOOTBALLERS TAKE ON RATHGORMACK

At the Kilmacthomas venue on this Sunday afternoon, our senior footballers play Rathgormack in the third round fixture. Having already taken one point from our first round game v. Gaultier our lads will be all out to put together a positive performance and so become live championship contenders.

INTERMEDIATE HURLERS BEATEN

We had to give way to quite a good and rather lively De La Salle in the county championship game played on Sunday last. This was a most intriguing game, as with an under-strength team due to venue confusion we were very much out of it in the first half. However, when we fielded at full strength for the second half we more than held our own but the uphill struggle was too much.

A QUICK DASH FOR BERNARD

When we arrived at the Portlaw venue last Sunday we discovered that one car load had gone to the Dunhill venue, which was the original venue. Bernard Shields wasted no time and made the dash across country and had the full squad together at the earliest possible time. Well done Bernard.

U-14s WESTERN FOOTBALL FINAL

Our under 14 footballers play old rivals Dungarvan in the Divisional decider to be played at Fraher Field on Saturday morning at 11.30 a.m. The Village boys have come through the championship with full points from their three games played and even though we will be under-strength one never knows in a final.

MINORS BEATEN

Our minor footballers suffered a heavy defeat at the hands of championship county favourites Kilrossanty at Stradbally on Sunday last.

WELL DONE C.B.S. AND ST. AUGUSTINES

Our own Kenny Killigrew and Patrick Veale were on the C.B.S. team which qualified for the Munster quarter-final of the Colleges u-15 with a good win over Carrick-On-Suir. Kenny had a great game at centre half back while Patrick was most impressive at top of the right and snatched a vital goal at a vital stage of the game. Well done lads.

St. Augustines College became Munster champions after their narrow but fully deserved win over St. Munchins of Limerick recently. Our own Lar Power as player and Fr. Pat Moran as team mentor were both involved in this great win for the "Friary boys." Well done boys.

SPEEDY RECOVERY WISHES

To Gavin Keane who will miss our Western final this Saturday, due to a hand injury sustained recently.

WELL DONE AND BEST WISHES

To Dungarvan Youths on securing a draw last weekend. Best wishes in the replay — hopefully you can take the All-Ireland title. Our own John Shanahan, Liam Barron and Colum Flynn have played key roles in the progress of this squad.

JUVENILE VISIT TO KILADANGAN

On Sunday last we had 60 young lads on a trip to North Tipperary where we visited our great friends in the Killanangan club which is in the Puckaine area, just outside Nenagh. Our own Vincent Mulligan is attached to the Tipp. club and we were paying a return visit to the North Tipp. region, having been there last year.

In the three match series played we had two wins with the Tipp. boys taking the last game in style. All in all a great day out which was blessed by splendid weather.

Before leaving Killadangan we were presented with a beautiful locally hand-crafted picture. This was a most unusual piece and is something which we were most impressed with.

SYMPATHY

Our sincere sympathy to the family and friends of the late Peg Morrissey of Ballinacourty whose death occurred recently.

BEST WISHES

Our best wishes for a speedy recovery from a recent illness to our club Vice-President, Mrs. Margaret Cashman. Margaret is a vibrant officer of our ladies committee and we look forward to her return to action soon.

SOCIAL NIGHT — A CELEBRATION EVENT

The sale of tickets for our very special social to be held this Friday night, April 28, at Lawlor's Hotel, indicate that this is going to be an absolute sell-out. The fact that this is being held to celebrate ten years of activity by our ladies committee, has added a new and exciting dimension to the social and when talking to ladies committee secretary, Babs Kiely during the week, she told me that the ladies committee, under chairperson Mae Feehan, has been working feverishly to ensure allcomers will have a whale of a night.

Tickets are £6 each and music is being specifically chosen from the Sixties era — a real treat for you all. A great night out is assured.

SEAMUS O'BRIEN — A MAN OF HIGH ESTEEM

This week we join with the many friends of our own Seamus O'Brien in congratulating him on his election to the Gaelic Athletic Association's Management Committee.

accepted by millions.

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. NOTES

HURLERS DISAPPOINTING START

It was disappointment all the way at Ardmore last Sunday when our senior hurlers crashed to a 0-15 to 1-5 defeat against Lismore in their opening game in the league-style championship. Whatever hurling we played came in the opening half at the end of which we led by 1-4 to 0-6. However our second half collapse was as inexplicable as it was complete, and in the end we very tamely conceded the spoils to the opposition.

Now we surely know what lies ahead of us if we are to have any kind of direct say in the title race. Certainly last Sunday's level of performance won't suffice and 'tis as well that many of the players would realise that.

We next play Ballyduff on Sunday week and much more will be expected of everyone. Otherwise our year will be all about fighting off relegation.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

This coming weekend we switch codes and the senior footballers are in championship action on Sunday in Fraher Field against Clashmore (2.15). Having already lost to Kilrossanty it's a game we must win if we are to hold out any realistic hope of being involved in the knock-out stages.

However Clashmore, having already defeated Ferrybank, will be extremely difficult to beat.

JUNIORS IN ACTION

Our junior footballers will also be in championship action this weekend when they play Shamrocks at Lismore on Saturday evening (7 o'clock). We could have a useful junior squad this year and will be hoping to make a winning start here. We leave for the venue at 6 o'clock.

MINORS

The minor footballers were defeated 0-7 to 0-4 by Affane in the championship last Sunday morning and now play Kilrossanty in a make or break game in Stradbally on this Friday evening (7 o'clock).

We can still make it to the Western final if we win this one although our very youthful side will be up against it.

Against Affane we trailed by 0-7 to 0-0 at the interval but staged a determined second half rally inspired by the great play of Bobby Lyons. An absentee from the line-out was Andrew Queally who is presently on the injured list and we wish him a speedy return to the action as we sorely missed him last Sunday.

UNDER 14 FINAL

On Saturday morning next (11.30) we play old rivals Abbeyside in the Western "A" Under 14 football final. We are the holders of the title but face a huge task in the defence of it.

We have already lost to the Villagers in the league section of this championship but the boys are determined to give 100% in an effort to reverse that result. We are hoping too for as many supporters as possible to give the boys every encouragement.

POC FADA AND SKILLS

John J. Ronayne brought off a splendid club double last week end when he won the poc fada and hurling skills competition within the club. He will represent us in the western finals at Fraher field on this Friday evening and he carries with him all our best wishes.

Alan O'Donnell was runner-up in the poc fada with Eric Crowe in second place in the hurling skills.

There was a good turnout of officials headed by our under-age chairman Jim Mullins.

CONGRATS

Congratulations to Ger and Anne Moran on a recent happy event, the birth of a son. Another hurler for the Blues in future years.

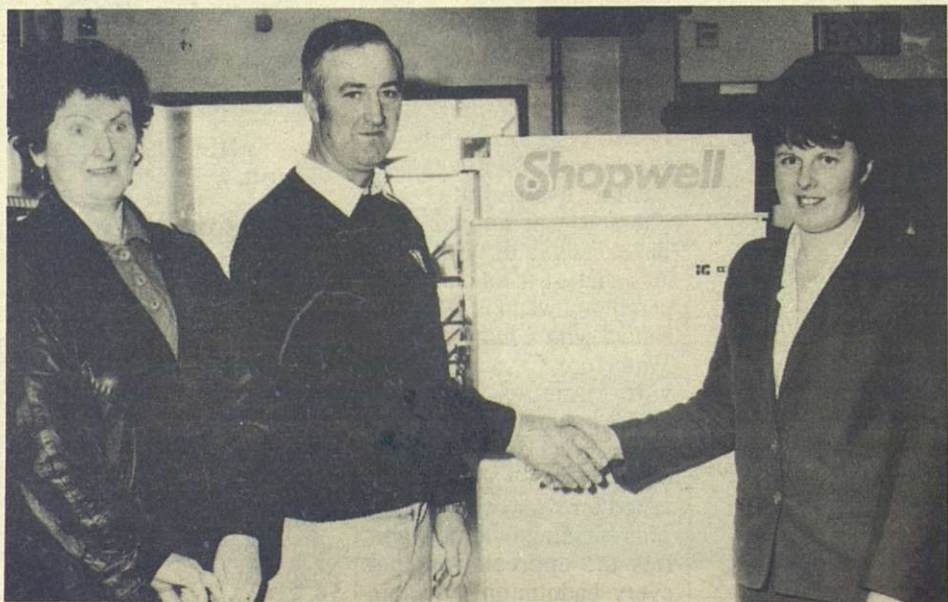

GOOD WISHES

Everyone in the club extends best-wishes to Sean Callaghan who has retired from his post at Waterford Foods plc after many years of outstanding service.

DUNGARVAN ATHLETIC CLUB NOTES

Our athletes have been busy at several different venues over the last two week-ends. The track and field programme got underway at Ferrybank and here our best performance was from Mark Radley who had a great run in the under-12 700m. Others to show promise were Dawn McEvoy and Shane Hayes in the sprints and Aileen Hogan and Andrew Travers in the longer events.

On the same day, Michael O'Brien competed in the annual triangular match between UCC, Waterford AC and Nenagh. He had a real field day at this match, winning shot, discus and hammer events. Meanwhile, our senior men competed at a 4-mile race in Castlemartyr where Tony Ryan finished third, Michael Roche 5th, and our team of Gerry Cantwell, Johnny Mason and Peter McGrath finished 2nd.

Last week-end we were among the large crowd that made the journey to Old Parish for the Ring A.C. Sports. Best of the Dungarvan athletes were Ailish O'Brien who won the junior shot and Dawn McEvoy, 3rd in the 80m. under-11, Ronan McCarthy, 3rd under-9 300m. and the under-10 4x100m. relay team, Aisling Foley, Patrice Moore, Christine Sheehan and Sandra Clancy.

Many more of our athletes qualified for the finals, including Richard Enright (u-9), Richard Ferncombe (u-11), Aileen Hogan (u-11), Shane Hayes, Richard Lynch (u-12), Mathew Lynch (u-13) and Gillian Fraher (u-17).

The best of our middle distance runners were Ronan McCarthy (u-9), Colin Hayes (u-10), Brian Power (u-12), Michael Hurley (u-14), Aileen Hogan (u-11) and Mary Donnelly (u-12). In the under-12 long jump, Shirley Foley had a great leap of 3.65 in her first attempt at this event.

Next week-end we have a rest from competing and training for all our athletes. The following week we will be back in action at three different venues. On Saturday, May 6, Ailish and Mike O'Brien will be competing in the Inter-Varsity Championships in Belfast, our juniors Denis McCarthy and Oliver Murphy will be in action in the RTC, Cork at the Munster Junior Championships and our under 11 to 17s will be at the County Championships in Newtown, Waterford. — PRO.

CAUSEWAY TENNIS NOTES

Tennis activity is maintaining such a high profile at the moment with our many programmes catering for all ages that we are now finding it necessary to close our membership.

We would appeal to all old members to renew their membership by May 15 so that we can then facilitate potential members now on a waiting list.

MUNSTER SCHOOLS CUP

Dungarvan C.B.S. travelled to Waterpark College

to play the first round of the competition last week. The team, Daniel Holland, Brian Barrett, Paul O'Brien, John Moloney accompanied by Mrs. Ann Holland, had a very close match against Waterpark's Stephen Breen, Andrew Collins and Andrew Gough and were unlucky to be narrowly beaten by the home team.

St. Augustine's College play Christian Brothers, Cork this week. Result next week. Team — Kieran Higgins, Enda Donnelly, David Moloney and Colum O'Grady.

SQUAD SELECTION

Squads have now been nominated for Maher and Sno Cup selection and are currently undergoing training by Frank Delaney and Sue O'Mahoney.

GOOD LUCK ANNE!

Anne Brennan will represent the Causeway and Munster in the Interprovincial Under 12 friendly in Galway at the weekend.

Munster, Connacht and Leinster will be represented. — P.R.O.

DUNGARVAN SCOUT NOTES

11th WATERFORD

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CUBS

As usual, when we see the fine weather it's almost impossible to try and keep the boys indoors. So C./L. Susan decided that we should all hike to Abbeyside and play a game of soccer.

On the way over the causeway the leaders were educated on all aspects of fishing and sailing by Stephen, whilst the rest of the lads listed the owners of practically all the boats in the Quay.

On arrival in Abbeyside C./L. Susan chose the teams with Richard Gough and Paul Sheridan as captains. What followed was a very exciting game and some terrific goals scored by Graham Nagle and J. D. C./L. Susan tried hard to score, but herself and Declan ended up covered in mud!

At 8 o'clock we headed back to the den with a few shops along the way for all the stragglers — Mike, Colin and of course Leigh. Great night enjoyed by all even though the referee, C./L. Paula made a few mistakes.

REGIONAL SOCCER TOURNAMENT

On Thursday night we went to the Friary College for a great night packed with soccer matches and fun. The Dungarvan Wednesday night cubs put on a fantastic display and managed to win all their matches and reached the final against Abbeyside. Unfortunately we were beaten by one goal but the lads were glad to have at least reached the final. All the lads played very well especially Kieran, Graham and Maurice. Goalie Colin Hayes was definitely man of the match and saved a lot of shots.

Thanks to all the teams who participated and congratulations to Abbeyside. Until next week. — Bi Ullamh.

NEW YOPLAIT PRODUCT FROM WATERFORD FOODS

Waterford Foods has made further progress in yogurt manufacture with the introduction of a new unique yogurt, fruit and cream dessert, which is now on the Irish market.

Fruit Royale contains a top layer of extra smooth yogurt enriched with fresh cream and layer of real fruit pieces on the bottom. This completely different concept for yogurt products was developed by the Dungarvan based research and development team led by Denis Hayes, Product Development Manager, Waterford Foods plc.

His Excellency, Mr. Jean Max Bouchaud, French Ambassador to Ireland was the first visitor to the plant at Inch to taste the new product. Introducing Fruit Royale to the Ambassador, Mr. P. J. Cummins, Assistant Chief Executive, Waterford Foods, with responsibility for consumer products, said, "Product innovation and development are essential to ensure that Yoplait maintains its position as market leader. We have brought this product to the market only after long and careful market and product research.

DUNGARVAN UNITED A.F.C. NOTES

SCHOOLBOYS UNDER-15

HARD FOUGHT WIN FOR DUNGARVAN

Dungarvan 4, Waterford Glass 2

On Tuesday last Dungarvan under-15's took on a very determined Waterford Glass team who caused them some problems. However, the Blues got quickly into their stride and David Whelan had some good chances but couldn't give them the lead.

After 25 minutes Decky Carlton opened the scoring for Dungarvan with a very well taken goal. They continued to press forward after this and D. Carlton got his second goal of the match. With David Whelan and Carlton in excellent form it was no surprise when Dungarvan made it 3-0 just before half time when Whelan put his name on the score sheet with a very good goal.

In the second half the Blues seemed to lose interest in the game and allowed the visitors come back, but luckily for Dungarvan they failed to take their chances. Slowly Dungarvan began to reassert themselves and when D. Whelan crossed the ball into the Glass goal-mouth D. Carlton was on hand to blast the ball into the net for his hat-trick.

Again the Blues seemed to lose interest and the Glass put them under a lot of pressure. The Glass pulled one back when Chris Gough was adjudged to have handled in the box and the visitors converted the resultant spot kick. The Blues seemed to go to pieces altogether after this and the Glass piled on the pressure and reduced the leeway to 4-2.

Dungarvan managed to survive the storm however and were unlucky not to stretch their lead when D. Fleming was brought down in the area but John Donnelly hit the resultant penalty over the bar.

Dungarvan will have to get things right for their cup match in a couple of week's time.

BANK OF IRELAND F.A.I. YOUTHS CUP FINAL

DUNGARVAN THWARTED IN DYING MOMENTS

All to do again next Saturday!

DUNGARVAN UNITED 1; MILFORD UNITED 1 (after extra time)

A record attendance at Ozier Park saw Milford snatch the cup from the lips of the Dungarvan men with a last ditch equaliser by skipper J. Kelly.

Dungarvan opened well and the first chance of the game fell to L. Barron. The huge home support were sent into ecstasy in the 11th min. when a Ray Flynn cross was superbly controlled by his namesake Colum before he drilled the ball low into the net past a helpless D. Sheridan. Dungarvan continued to dominate the proceedings and could well have increased their lead before a clash of heads resulted in the loss of Ray Flynn. This incident stifled the game and the last 25 mins. of the half fizzled out without any action of note.

Favoured by the strong wind Milford gained the upper hand in the second half. However in the 56th min. a marvellous header by J. Walsh was cleared off the line and scrambled to safety. While Milford had most of the possession the Blues defence of B. Kirwan, J. Shanahan, B. Whelan and J. Walsh were in excellent form while keeper Barry McGrath gave a classy display of goalkeeping. Up front L. Barron battled hard and was a constant source of worry to the Milford defence. Just when it seemed that Dungarvan had the cup in their grasp a corner was powerfully headed into the net by J. Kelly despite the best efforts of C. Flynn to keep the ball out.

This sent the game into extra-time and Dungarvan showed their true character by bouncing back and completely dominating the extra-time. D. Walsh and S. Duggan combined to set up a chance but the former was fouled just as he seemed certain to score and the referee waved play on. With full-backs B. Kirwan and J. Walsh supporting the attacks all the play was directed towards the Milford goal, but the closest Dungarvan came to scoring was when D. Walsh was denied by a last ditch tackle in the closing minutes.

Dungarvan — B. Mc-

Grath, B. Kirwan, J. Shanahan, B. Whelan, J. Walsh, K. Hallahan, G. Leahy, D. Wyse, C. Flynn, L. Barron, R. Flynn. Res. — D. Walsh, S. Duggan, T. Kenneally.

Milford — D. Sheridan, H. Hagen, B. McGinley, J. Kelly, P. McGettigan, A. Sweeney, S. Durkan, T. Finneran, D. McLoughlin, S. Barrett, Declan Sheridan. Res. — K. Graham, C. McHugh, M. McGlynn, H. Cannon.

Referee — B. Notley (Cork).

The replay takes place next Saturday in Letterkenny, (Co. Donegal), with a 3 p.m. kick-off. Team managers John Walsh and Kealan O'Neill have one week to analyse the game and devise a strategy to overcome what will be a difficult obstacle but with both Ray Flynn and Liam Barron expected to have recovered from injury the omens look good for a Dungarvan side that have won all their games (outside the Waterford area) away from home in Kilkenny, Dublin and Limerick.

HOW THEY PLAYED

Barry McGrath played very well in goal and his handling was top class.

Bryan Kirwan got better and better as the game went on and was outstanding in extra-time.

John Shanahan marshalled his defence well and was always calm and assured on the ball.

Brian Whelan was his usual solid self and was seldom beaten in the air or on the ground all afternoon.

John Walsh was tremendous and also got better and better as the game went on. He was never 'rounded' in the entire game.

Kieran Hallahan worked tirelessly all evening and was a constant threat which resulted in him being closely watched.

Ger Leahy did a tremendous amount of work and covered for everyone in the midfield sector.

Darren Wyse always looked capable of unlocking the Milford defence. He held the ball very well in extra-time when he moved up front.

Colum Flynn took his goal extremely well and his intelligent play and running were vital to Dungarvan.

Liam Barron battled very well up front particularly after the loss of Ray Flynn. He tormented the Milford defence every time he got the ball.

Ray Flynn laid on the goal and was playing well before being forced out of the game through injury.

David Walsh got into the game very quickly and twice went close to scoring what would have been the winner in extra-time.

Sean Duggan provided a vital link in midfield and his passing almost set up a goal on a few occasions.

BUS TO DONEGAL

MARQUIS CUP SEMI-FINAL

ABBEYSIDE IN CUP FINAL AFTER SOLID DISPLAY

Abbeyside 3; Butlerstown 0 (after extra-time)

As we go to press we learn that Abbeyside have reached the Marquis Cup final by way of a runaway victory over Butlerstown when the game went into extra-time at Ozier Park, on Monday night, after a gruelling 90 minutes of football, in lashing sleet and snow.

Sean "Hiker" McGrath lashed home a stinging cross from the boot of Tommy Wade in the 91st min. The game was evenly contested throughout the first period, but 20 mins. into the 2nd period, the Villagers started to slowly cruise away. The Butlerstown keeper kept his side in the game with some good saves after this. Almost immediately after McGrath's goal Tom "Iron Man" Cahill made a remarkable save in a 50-50 situation with the Butlerstown keeper. As the sides switched around Abbeyside launched an earnest attack on the Butlerstown goal, and Fran McGovern lashed home 2 super goals, in the remaining 10 mins.

While Abbeyside's performance was not great on the night, everyone gave their best to the competition and one hopes that they won't wait for 90 minutes to come alive in the final. Outstanding for Abbeyside were — Derek Lyons, Fran McGovern, Fergal O'Donnell and Tom Cahill.

Team — T. Cahill, M. O'Riordan, D. Lyons, F. O'Donnell, M. Reynolds, J. O'Riordan, E. Collins, T. Wade, S. McGrath, F. McGovern. Res. — O. Wright,

UNDER 16 LEAGUE
Southend 5;
Abbeyside 0

Our under 16 side went down badly to Southend at the latter's venue on Saturday last, only a few players gave their best to the game. Players like Jimmy Stacey, Damien Cliff, Pat Ormond and 'Boots' Jordan left the home side down on the day by not bothering to even turn up. This left the Villagers at a great disadvantage on the day, against the strong home side and one only hopes that a better effort will be made for the next game.

BALLINROAD A.F.C.
DIV. 3 CUP — QUARTER FINAL

CLASSY BALLINROAD CRUSH PARK RANGERS

PARK RANGERS 2; BALLINROAD 5

After waiting six weeks to play this game we travelled to Waterford on Tuesday night last April 18, more in hope than anything else.

We got off to a great start with a goal after 5 mins., a great solo effort by Ray Burke. After 15 mins. it was two, Bosco Mahony scoring with a header.

Park Rangers pulled one back from the penalty spot after our sweeper had handled on 20 mins. Ballinroad continued to dominate playing some great football scoring two more goals, one scored by Bosco Mahony after a great run from his own half, and the other a close range effort from Les Delahunty. Half time arrived with Ballinroad in a great position leading 4-1.

In the second half Park Rangers tried hard to get back in the game, but some good defensive work and some great saves by keeper John Reynolds denied them the goal they so badly needed. Mid way through the half we sealed the game with a 5th goal, Vince Tobin scoring with a header after a great cross from the left.

Park Rangers for their part played to the end in a sporting manner. A good win for Ballinroad and better still a good display all-round.

So it is to Ozier Park on Tuesday, April 25th, 7 p.m., to play Waterford Glass in the semi-final. Another top classy display will be needed if we are to reach the final.

Panel — J. Reynolds, P. Lynch, B. Mahony, D. Crotty, P. Keane (capt.), N. Hayes, B. Burke, P. Flynn, V. Tobin, L. Delahunty, R. Burke, M. Foley, A. O'Connor, J. Veale, P. Hayes, D. Power.

DUNGARVAN RUGBY NOTES

21ST CELEBRATIONS

Our 21st Celebrations was a tremendous success on Saturday night, a full house enjoyed a beautiful buffet supplied by David Crowley, and a lively night of dancing to Willie White and Co.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation to our first officers, trustees and 1st team of 21 years ago, plus all the Presidents who served over the 21 years.

It was great to see all the 'old faces' here again and many an "eventful" match was recalled. Special guest was Munster President, Martin Breen.

21 YEARS OF DUNGARVAN RUGBY

Our book on our 21 years was launched that night, which has a great array of "photos" over the 21 years, as well as articles and features.

VICTORY FOR 3RD XV DUNGARVAN 16 BANDON 3

Our 3rd XV kept up their good cup run with a fine win over a fancied Bandon XV at Ballyrandle on Sunday last.

Once again it was our "pack" that set the platform for this win. Pack leader Tony Shalloe led by example with William and Gerry (Gandhi) O'Brien, Vinny O'Rourke, T. Hickey (making a welcome return) and Seanie Coyne to the fore. Our try scorers were Gerry O'Brien, Vinny O'Rourke and Tony Shalloe, with Kieran O'Connor kicking two penalties. Michael Power made a welcome return also.

Our 2nd XV were narrowly beaten by Waterford City in the semi-final of the Ballyrandle Cup. Full report next week.

Waterford City 16; Dungarvan 14.

FEILE NA GAEL HURLING SKILLS COMPETITION

The Western finals of the Poc Fada and skills competitions will be held at Fraher Field on Friday, April 28 at 7.30 p.m. Each club has been notified in writing to have one player for the poc fada and another player for the skills. Only one player from each club will be accepted for each competition. It is hoped by now that all clubs have held their own competitions to decide who will represent the club. Players must wear the club jersey for the finals.

UNDER 16 HURLING MUNSTER CHAMPIONSHIP

The second round of the Munster championship will be played against Cork City on Saturday next in Kilworth at 3 p.m. The West team have already beaten Carrighdoun two weeks ago in the first round, but played very poorly in the Gleeson Cup against the East last Saturday at Walsh Park. The Cork City team are a big strong team with some useful hurlers throughout the field who have defeated Limerick City in a low scoring physical match. Following the Gleeson Cup performance, our team has it all to do but are capable if every players shows the commitment required to win a Munster championship game.

UNDER 14 FOOTBALL FINALS

The Western finals of the "A" and "C" grades will be played this week-end. The "A" final will be played on Saturday, April 29th at 11.30 a.m. between local rivals Abbeyside and Dungarvan. A keen contest is expected, Abbeyside have already beaten Dungarvan in the league but Dungarvan were short three players for that game and could cause an upset here.

in Tourin on Monday night, May 1 at 7.30 between Shamrocks and St. Patrick's. Both teams have won their matches to-date and this match with Jimmy McGrath in charge, could go either way.

The "B" semi-final will be held in Colligan on Monday, May 1st at 7.30. The Nire play St. Olivers in a match where St. Olivers have better form to-date. The other semi-final has not been fixed at time of writing these notes, but Ballyduff will play either Ardmore or Naomh Brid this week-end. This group has been evenly balanced with three good teams challenging for two places in the semi-final.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS RESUME

Having written a preview of the six matches which are listed as round three of the senior football championship and scheduled to be played on next Sunday, I was told (quite accidentally) on Sunday evening that this round had been postponed to the week-end of 3/4th June and that the six matches scheduled for that weekend had been brought forward.

Like my colleagues here in the West, I was annoyed and angered at not having been told of the change officially.

Up to the time writing on Monday morning I have been unable to ascertain the reasons for the switch of dates and why the county fixtures committee have kept the decision quiet until now. I'm sure a full explanation will be given to the County Board at their meeting on next Monday week.

STRADBALLY v. FERRYBANK

Since losing to St. Saviours in the replay of the semi-final last year, Stradbally have lost Pat Curran and Noel Weldon through emigration and have taken on two well known county players, Eoin Phelan from Kilgobinet and Liam O'Connor of Erin's Own. The Erin's Own man is still out through injury and will miss the clubs' first championship outing when they play Ferrybank at Dunhill.

In their first two or three matches last year, Stradbally were in devastating form and the record shows that this has been the pattern of their early performances over the years. With so many county players including Eoin, Fintan and Conor O'Brien, David Kirwan, Kieran Heffernan, Eoin Phelan and company, only one result seems likely here, even though Ferrybank have had the benefit of a first round game in which they failed by only a single point to Rathgormack. It must be Stradbally here.

KILMACTHOMAS v. DUNHILL

The splendid Kill venue, which was officially opened by Association President John Dowling last year, will stage its first senior championship game on Sunday next when Kilmac' and Dunhill clash on the historic occasion.

Three weeks ago Kilmac' failed to get their star midfielder Peter Coughlan released from his job in London to help them with their first round game against Rathgormack. They lost that match by a single point. Luck seemed to be on their side for their second round game against Gaultier when Coughlan became available and was flown home. But bad weather intervened and the game was cancelled, like all the others on the same day. They now find that he will not be available for this clash with Dunhill, who also suffered a first round defeat.

I believe that with Jessie, Robbie and Paudie Whelan, John and Tom Joe Power, Ml. Corkery, Peter and Brendan Troy, Dan Casey, Ml. Hallinan, Tom O'Connell, John Dee, Micheal Cleary, etc., that Kilmac' will prove good enough to beat Dunhill here.

DUNGARVAN v. CLASHMORE

This will be the opener at Fraher field and by all accounts it will be a close contest. In their first game, Clashmore beat Ferrybank and on the same day, Dungarvan lost to Kilrossanty. From here on the 'going' will be tougher for both clubs with some of the top sides waiting to be played, so this could be a vital one for both.

Backboned by the bulk of their very successful under 21-side Dungarvan could fancy their chances of winning. Tom Curran, Peter Queally, Peter and Morrie Ferncombe, John Fitzgerald, Dermot Callaghan, Eddie Burke, Derek Lyons, Tony Hamilton, Chris Meehan and Ger Moran will spearhead this challenge to the in-form Clashmore who will have the experienced Roger, Eddie and John Halloran, Sean Allen, Tony and Michael Shalloe, Roger Hynes, David Salmon, Vinny O'Rourke and who invariably play well in the Fraher field. This will be a close one that may see Dungarvan gain their first two points of the season.

KILROSSANTY v. BUTLERSTOWN

Butlerstown, who were surprised in their first match against the Nire, are likely to suffer their second defeat here. It strikes me as being a bit odd that this match is fixed for Fraher field, with Kilmac', Dunhill and Stradbally fields available.

Against Dungarvan the county champions were in top form and have got the message across that they mean business from the very start in their bid to keep their title. With so many of the county team in their line-out including Perrie Whyte, Jim Maher, Michael Walsh, Tom Behan, Tom Mulhearn and with the Keatings, Tom and Pat, Nicky Hayes, Pat Quinn and Pat Pender, etc., I feel that there should be little doubt about the outcome, unless we are to have a big surprise.

BALLINACOURTY v. RATHGORMACK

When they met in the winter league on two occasions, there was little between them but in their last championship clash Ballinacourty had five points to spare at the end of a close contest at Leamybrien.

The Western team had an extraordinary game against Gaultier at Walsh Park, when they came from four points in arrears to draw level and then get caught in the final five minutes. They were lucky to come away with a share of the points.

Rathgormack won their first game in the championship and have played very well throughout the winter competition, so Ballinacourty will need to avoid the blundering that went on against Gaultier when they did not play very well as a team. The experience of men like Jimmy Healy, Michael Collins, Bernard O'Gorman, Donal Looby, John Mulligan, Conor Clancy, Tommy Wade, Michael and Joe O'Riordan, John Moloney, Liam Shanley, Sean McGrath, Mark Reynolds, Ian Kiely, Jim Kiely and company will be enough to get them by but only if they play to their potential.

SAVIOURS v. TRAMORE

This will be their first meeting in the championship and it will be Tramore's first match in the championship of the current season.

On form, Saviours Liam Daniels, Mark and Tony Corcoran, Derek Wyse, Brendan Brophy, Alan Greene, Mark Boyle, Brian Thompson, etc., should be able to win this one and keep on course for a place in the group final.

SENIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

EXCITING FIRST ROUND DRAW

Mount Sion 1-10, Ballyduff 2-7

A share of the points was a fair result in this hectic first round of the new senior hurling championship which was played before a reasonably good attendance (gate receipts £562) at Fraher Field on Saturday evening. At times the exchanges were a bit hectic, there were some stoppages, names were taken, but it would be unfair to write that it was in any way unsporting. Two first half goals by Ballyduff full forward John Quirke were features of the scoring and factors in keeping the Western team in touch.

The first goal came when Mount Sion were completely dominating the exchanges, but unable to make the breakthrough that would enable them to take a commanding lead. A rock-like Ballyduff defence repulsed several Mount Sion attacks until corner forward Tom Browne touched a dead ball into the Ballyduff net in the 19th minute.

To young Brian Greene, who was man-of-the-match, went the distinction of opening the scoring in the 1989 hurling championship when he sailed one over from a difficult angle in the 5th minute. The sides were level in the 10th minute when Michael Walsh pointed a free. This was the first of five occasions on which the scores were level and at no time in the game did more than a score separate the sides. The 2-2 to 1-5 deadlock at half-time was broken by Ballyduff's Paudie Pender almost immediately after the restart.

Shane Ahearne who was moved out from full forward, equalised for Sion with a free before Michael Walsh put Ballyduff in front. Twice subsequently Mount Sion drew level until Michael Walsh gave Ballyduff a one point lead again in the 22nd minute. This was the Western team's final score and two minutes from time Shane Ahearne pointed the free that drew the game.

Scorers — Ballyduff — J. Quirke (2-0), Michael Walsh (0-5), P. Pender (0-2); Mount Sion — S. Ahearne (0-4), T. Browne (1-0), S. Fitzpatrick (0-2), B. Greene, E. Ryan, D. Power, A. Cooney (0-1 each).

Ballyduff — M. Leamy, M. Geary, S. Hannon, M. Casey, S. Hyland, S. Daly, S. Daly, P. Pender, R. Walsh, D. Hannon, M. Walsh, G. Quirke, E. Flynn, J. Quirke, J. Casey. Subs. — B. Tobin for E. Flynn, M. Healy for Casey.

INTERMEDIATE GAMES

The game of the championship so far will take place at Tallow on Saturday evening when the joint favourites Affane and Ardmore clash in round four of the football championship. Affane are just slightly fancied and if it is not going to end all square, they may win.

The Brickeys have their final slight chance of staying in the championship when they play Sliabh gCua at Abbeyside on Saturday evening. On form the Touraneena team should win this one.

Ballinameela will have it all to do to get over Ballyduff in their tie at Lismore. If fitness becomes a factor here, Ballyduff will win another two points. The Shamrocks are hot favourites to beat the pointless Geraldines in the second match here in the same championship. Any other result in this one would be a major shock just now.

SENIOR HURLERS PREPARE

Our senior hurlers are preparing strongly for their championship game against Clare on May 21. The panel is much the same as that which took part in the National League, but Liam O'Connor will probably not be in the panel owing to injuries, the spirit and determination is first-class and we can expect a very fit and determined team to take the field.

Manager, Tony Mansfield with fellow selectors Phil Fanning and Ollie Wilkinson will see to it that everything will be in order.

COUNTY BORD NA nOG MEETING

The May monthly meeting of County Bord Na nOg takes place on Tuesday evening next, May 2, in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan, at 8 p.m. It is expected that all officers of both divisions plus Bord Officers will be present as the championship makes good progress.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

INTERMEDIATE HURLING

The five games were played as scheduled and there were no big surprises.

DE LA SALLE 2-9
ABBEYSIDE 0-4

This game was fixed for Dunhill and switched to Portlaw when the venue became unavailable. Abbeyside's Jimmy Healy who had been away on holidays and could not be contacted, travelled to Dunhill and missed half of the game at Portlaw. At half-time the score stood at 2-8 to 0-1 in favour of De La Salle.

Healy played an outstanding game for the losers who scored only one point in the second half. Over the hour they shot eighteen wides and it was simply amazing that their sustained second half pressure did not yield more scores.

Unless they improve considerably in attack, they could finish up pointless.

De La Salle were deserving winners, they have a nice young side with county minors Noel Dalton, Johnnie Walsh, John Brenner, etc. They have been able to train all the spring and not having kicked a football yet, their hurling was sharper.

ERIN'S OWN 2-13
COLLIGAN 2-10

A great performance by Colligan who went close to causing an upset in the first of the two intermediate games at Fraher field. Jimmy Beresford's first half goal, when Colligan were playing with a breeze, put great life into the side. This display will help their confidence and they could be involved in the final stages.

FOURMILEWATER 2-9
MOLLERANS 3-5

The Western champions of 1988 had to pull out all the stops to contain this quite lively St. Mollerans side who came to town expecting to take the points. It was close and exciting and if it can be regarded as a sample of what to expect in this championship, then the county basis experiment will prove to be a worthwhile innovation.

STRADBALLY 1-12
KILGOBINET 0-8

The point to note about this game is that Kilgobinet did so very well without so many of their '88 players, including Eoin Phelan, M. Fahy, J. Fitzgerald, Kelly and the Powers. In the circumstances, seven points was not a big defeat. Stradbally played well below last season's form and unless they improve they can bid goodbye to any chance of being there at the finish of the championship.

SAVIOURS 3-8
TRAMORE 2-7

It was the first game in intermediate hurling for Savours and the result lent support to the claim that they were good enough for the grade, when there was some opposition to their being allowed up, at a recent County Board meeting. They seem to have an aversion to all the lower grades as we found in football as well.

The next round of intermediate hurling games is scheduled of the week ending, May 6/7, but there is a chance that these matches may be cancelled.

RESULTS

- Senior Hurling C. Mount Soin 1-10; Ballyduff 2-7
Ballygunner 1-14; Dunhill 1-6

MINOR MATTERS

A couple of enterprising forwards would have made all the difference to us at Thurles last week when our hurlers flattered to deceive against Limerick. They played well but could not sustain the momentum of the first quarter and when Limerick settled, Waterford faded for a long time. They recovered late in the game, but had too much leeway to make up.

The five selectors did everything that was possible to do to have the team tuned up for the game. The same men will have charge of affairs for another season and with a number of the team being available and the 'cream' of the two under-16 divisional teams of '88 available, our prospects for 1990 might not be all that bad.

The minor footballers play Clare at Bansha on May 10 and they have been using the Munster and Leinster minor league to prepare themselves for the game. We seem to have fared better out of Munster and our match with a full Wexford side last Wednesday was described as their best this year. We lost by 0-8 to 0-4. On the club front wonderful progress has been made by the Western Board who are ahead of schedule with the minor football championship.

If Kilrossanty happen to defeat Dungarvan on Friday evening — and it is quite on the cards that they will — then the Board will be ready for the final of the 'A' championship with Affane (who are unbeaten so far), very likely playing Kilrossanty.

The 'B' Minor championship is also well on schedule and is likely to resolve itself into a battle between An Gaeltacht, Clashmore, Brickeys and Naomh Brid.

On Sunday morning the Nire had to concede at the half-way stage of their match against An Gaeltacht when the score stood at 4-12 to nil. Nire played with only fourteen players and when they were unable to field fifteen for the second half, referee Michael O'Neill called the game off. Apart from the numerical and wind advantage, this young Gaeltacht side gave a very good performance.

At Abbeyside on Sunday morning it was a game of two halves. Affane's T. Mansfield was sidelined in the first half when they led by 0-7 to nil. That was the half-time score and Affane didn't score in the second half. Dungarvan fought back very well against the 14-man opposition and with a bit of luck might have caught the favourites.

After next Sunday, the minors will take a break from the championship until after the summer examinations.

INTERMEDIATE FARE

If present form is a reliable guide, the football championship in this grade looks like being dominated by a few teams like Affane, Ardmore, Sliabh gCua, Shamrocks and Ballyduff.

Even at this early stage it would appear that a number of clubs, notably the Brickeys and Geraldines have reached the point of no return. Because of cancellations due to weather, the schedule is a bit haphazard at the moment, but when this is remedied, I will begin publishing a league table.

COUNTY JUNIOR HURLERS PREPARE

Our junior hurlers preparations for the forthcoming Munster championship are under the care of Pat Flynn and Paddy Walsh, and a strong panel of players have been picked, and with the right co-operation allround, we could make the breakthrough here.

COUNTY JUNIOR FOOTBALLERS

Our county junior football panel will also be in action on Sunday, May 14 in Askeaton when they play the home county, Limerick, in the first round of the Munster Championship. The panel have only been brought together this past week but with the county able to field our second-best team a lot of the panel will have had senior experience.

The selectors in charge are Michael Brophy, Declan Ahearne, Michael F. Keane, Noel Kirwan and John O'Leary.

MINOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

DEISE SIDE FADE AFTER GREAT START

LIMERICK 2-11; WATERFORD 1-9

A well deserved seven points lead after fifteen minutes of the first half in this Munster minor hurling first round at Thurles on Wednesday evening of last week, certainly raised the hopes of the loyal band of supporters who made the journey with great expectations.

Amazingly, after Tom Fives pointed a free in the 15th minute to put Waterford 1-5 to 0-1 in front, we did not score again for the next 29 minutes and during that period, Limerick had eleven scores, including two goals. The 1-8 to 1-6 half-time scoreline in favour of Limerick saw us well in with a chance. But within a minute of the restart Limerick pointed and added another goal and two points before Tom Fives pointed in the 14th minute to give us our first score after a barren 29 minutes. The same player pointed again from a free in the 24th minute and substitute Anthony Fitzgerald sent a long shot over the bar, just on the call of time.

Defeat could be attributed to the failure in attack. The chances were there but try as they might and all eighteen players tried their hearts out — they could not penetrate a solid Limerick defence.

Scorers — T. Fives 0-6, S. Daly 1-0, N. Dalton, J. Brenner and A. Fitzgerald 0-1 each.

Team — R. Barry (Passage), K. O'Gorman (Lismore), T. Sheehan (Tallow), J. Walsh (De La Salle), T. Mansfield (Cappoquin), P. Fanning (De La Salle), C. Cunningham (Tallow), J. Brenner (De La Salle), Mce. Geary (Tallow), N. Dalton (De La Salle), K. McGrath (St. Patrick's), T. Fives (Cappoquin), S. Daly (Lismore), F. Hartley (Ballygunner), C. Sweeney (Ballygunner). Subs — A. Fitzgerald for N. Dalton, B. Coughlan for F. Hartley and A. Dunphy for T. Sheehan.

COUNTY SENIOR FOOTBALLERS

Our County senior footballers are in strict training for their forthcoming Munster championship first round game v. Limerick in Askeaton on Sunday, May 14.

Last week they played the County junior panel on Monday night and on Wednesday night played the Wexford County team, while this week they were due to travel to Carlow for another game — so good preparation all-round.

OTHER SENIOR HURLING RESULTS

Lismore 0-15,
Dungarvan 1-5

Dungarvan, who were very much the challengers, played well for the first 20 minutes but when Lismore had the wind advantage in the second half they took control and won deservedly.

Cappoquin 2-11,
Tallow 2-4

Splendid goalkeeping by Eddie McGrath, was a factor, but this apart, Cappoquin fully deserved this win. The recuperating Pat Murphy was introduced for Tallow and as well as getting a splendid goal, his presence made a difference. This win will prove a big boost for Cappoquin who are now riding high on both fronts.

OTHER GAMES

The drawn match between Ballyduff and Mount Sion was the best game of the week-end and more of these will bring back the support in the county.

Portlaw were shocked by the new intermediate champions, Passage. I believe that they misjudged the quality of their opponents as I was told in Portlaw on Sunday that they were confident of winning.

Roanmore's win over Clonea at Portlaw was no surprise and Ballygunner's good win against Dunhill was also predicted.

So, apart from the Cappoquin and Passage victories, there were no great surprises in the first round.

IRISH ROADS NETWORK SERIOUSLY DEFICIENT

Speaking at a meeting of the South East Region of the Institution of Engineers of Ireland held in Portlaoise, Dr. Con Power, Director of Economic Policy of the Confederation of Irish Industry said that despite the importance of roads in the context of inland transport in Ireland, the Irish roads network was seriously deficient in terms of operating efficiently, road width, kerb alignment, road pavement strength, the absence of urban by-passes in some cases and access to other transport modes, particularly the principal parts.

Dr. Power said that there had been serious underinvestment in roads in Ireland over the past two decades and thus underinvestment had impacted unfavourably upon the network of national roads.

"It is acknowledged", he said that there is now an acceptance by the Government that a massive programme is needed in the network of national roads and its improvement will enhance the capacity and the competitiveness of Ireland to earn more jobs and higher living standards".

Dr. Power added that it was only in this way that Ireland would work itself out of being a less-developed region within the EC and investment in roads was, consequently, important in the context of economic and social cohesion.

DISADVANTAGED AREAS IN COUNTY WATERFORD

In the Dail recently, Deputy Austin Deasy asked the Minister for Agriculture and Food if the general Knockanore area, the Barony of Gaultier area and the Fenor and Dunhill areas in Co. Waterford were being considered for inclusion in the disadvantaged areas scheme.

The Minister, Mr. Michael O'Kennedy in reply to the question said that Agricultural Officers of his Department had surveyed all of the lands submitted for survey in Knockanore and the Barony of Gaultier and the second part of the survey of these two areas would be carried out by Land Commission Inspectors in the July-October period as planned. The Minister also said that all of Fenor and half of the townlands in Dunhill which had been submitted have been surveyed. The task in Dunhill should be completed within a fortnight. The second part of the survey in these two areas would also be carried out between July and October.
