New Twin Cinema Complex For Dungarvan

Dungarvan's new twin Cinema Complex will open on next Friday night, July 14 with a super programme of first-run films. Constructed on the site of the old Ormonde Cinema, the new complex contains the most modern equipment and provides every comfort for even the most discerning of fans.

Cinema One, for its opening programme, has "Indiana Jones" and the Last Crusade, starring Harrison Ford, Sean Connery and the beautiful Alison Doody while on screen in Cinema Two will be the James Bond film "Licence To Kill".

Cinagoers should certainly welcome the opening of this modern, comfortable complex which will provide top-class films and which should prove a most welcome addition to the field of entertainment for the people of Dungarvan and West Waterford.

T.D. Attacks IDA For 'Hype' In Workforce Projections

A blistering attack against the IDA and a Dungarvan based pharmaceutical plant was mounted by Fianna Fail Councillor Jackie Fahey T.D. at the monthly meeting of Waterford County Council held in Dungarvan last Monday. The attack came during a discussion on a motion proposed by Cllr. Garry O'Halloran, Clashmore, which asked if the County Manager was happy that no health hazard would be caused to the people of West Waterford and to the animals, crops and fish stocks in the area by the proposed pharmaceutical development by Merrell Dow at Killeagh.

Proposing the motion, Cllr. O'Halloran said that many people in West Waterford have a fear of this plant and the risks that may arise if the development is allowed.

Deputy Fahey seconding the motion said it was a very serious matter for the people and he was one of those who felt that their fears about the plant were genuinely held. If the development went on he felt that there should be an independent monitoring of the plant as local authorities were not equipped to do this. Because of the unemployment in the area he said there was an inclination to rush in to allow the development despite the risk it might create for people.

Deputy Fahey went on to say that despite all the publicity and the big advertisements from Merrell Dow, there was still a great deal of anxiety among the people about the plant.

It was at this stage that Deputy Fahey turned on the IDA stating that there was a great deal of hype involved by them concerning the number of jobs which this new plant would create but he said the projected number of jobs for such developments made by the IDA never materialised. He then referred to the Sterling Drug plant in Dungarvan which he said was heavily grant-aided by the IDA and on which a great deal of money on site development had been spent by the Council and said that the number of jobs projected by the IDA for the plant had never materialised in either phase one or phase two of its development.

Ballinameela Win I.C.A. Craftwork Exhibition

A truly magnificent exhibition of craft-work was mounted by the ICA in St. Olaf's Hall, Waterford on June 28. On show was the work of sixteen guilds right through the county from Ballyduff Upper to Gaultier; and when one considers that each guild had to produce nine items, the enormous amount of work on display can be understood.

Nor was it just quantity, quality prevailed everywhere. The project, sponsored by AIB, laid down rules which called for dress-making, knitwear, a wall-hanging, three items of craft work, flower arrangements, home-baking and jam — and also five minutes entertainment.

As soon as the dress-making and knitting had been judged the garments had to be modelled by their owners — for the spectators a delightful part of the proceedings!

To the unskilled it was impossible to pick out the winning guild, but there were very able judges. From Tipperary came Mrs. Phil O'Dwyer and Mrs. Kathleen Sheedy, from Waterford, Sister Paul of the Ursuline Convent and Mrs. Pauline Beglin and Mr. Des Manahan. Their choice was Ballinameela Guild with an amazing 956 marks out of a possible 1000. Sincerest congratulations to Ballinameela. The prize of £200 by AIB was presented by Mrs. Margaret Guerin of the Bank.

WORTHWHILE PROJECT

The Federation President, Miss Lena O'Connor in thanking the guilds for their co-operation and the quality of their display, announced that a second and third prize would be awarded by the Federation. In second place was Kilcohan, with Waterford third. Miss O'Connor herself deserves much credit for the success of the day as she personally approached so many guilds encouraging them to take part in this very worthwhile project.

To the AIB must go the appreciation and thanks of the ICA for not only awarding prize-money, but also for defraying the cost of the entire project.

But there was another aspect of the day, a reversal of "Upstairs-Downstairs." While all the glamour was concentrated on the ground floor, upstairs in the kitchen, the "Cinderellas" (Waterford Guild) slaved away providing much appreciated teas without which no day-long ICA event would be complete. To them much deserved thanks.

In all, it was a day to remember, a lovely day when one met friends, old and new and a happy atmosphere prevailed throughout.

7 Nation For Kerrygold Dublin Horse Show

Teams from seven nations will compete in the International Jumping Competitions at the Kerrygold Dublin Horse Show next month.

Traditionally held immediately after the August Bank Holiday, the Kerrygold Dublin Horse Show will be staged from August 8th - 12th, 1989.

This year, Belgium, Great Britain, the Federal Republic of Germany, Sweden, Ireland, France and Italy will be represented by teams of six riders while the United States of America, Brazil and Luxembourg will each be represented by an individual international rider.

COME, FATHER IS CALLING

In the first of last Sunday's readings Isaiah tries to console the people. They had returned to their homeland after a long captivity, and whilst their return was marked with great rejoicing, it was only to find that their glowing expectations were not matched with the stark reality. They were disappointed. They grumbled over the problems they encountered, and the work to be faced.

Isaiah is trying to win them back to God. He assures them that, with God's peace flowing like a river in their midst, joy, laughter, song and prosperity would be their blessings. Isaiah wanted them to base their lives on a peaceful relationship with God, and thereby help to create a happy and a great nation.

St. Paul in the second reading tells us, from his own experience, how to build a fruitful union with God. And, may I add, it is a message that is hammered out again and again in Holy Scripture. Like Paul, we must shoulder our cross and follow Christ. It means, we must give wholehearted service to God by literally devoting all we think, say or do in His honour. There's no time for hesitation. Do remember, it is God who calls. He loves us. He wants us to follow Him. Paul responded and found himself on the road to peace and happiness. He did not hesitate when that road brought him face to face with suffering. Of course, he found it hard, but, as he said, "he was more than happy to be asked to share in the Passion of Christ."

The Gospel emphasises that same message, and directs us not only to seek peace through service, but also to join the Apostles in sharing that blessing with others. That peace Jesus speaks about is that same peace with which He blessed the Magdalene. Having pardoned her sins, the Lord told her to go and sin no more, and to rejoice and share her blessing with her neighbours.

I'm going to relate an old story. You may have heard it before, but it will still help you to understand the fruits that flow when one is at peace and in love with God. It was Patrick's first day at school. His brother James, who was eight, kept a watchful eye on him. When the bell rang to signal classes were finished, James was there to take Patrick under his wing. They lived on a small hill farm. It was about one mile from the school. When they came near home the way was now uphill, and little Patrick began to cry: "I'm tired." James gave him a wee hug, and got him to climb on his back. Just as James started to move, a neighbour passed and said: "the load is too much." James replied: Oh! sir, it is not a load, it is my brother." Of course, James found it difficult to carry Patrick, but, because he loved him, it was a labour of love.

Jesus loves us. He is our brother. When we were little, and weighed down with sin. He rushed to take the load off our shoulders. He found it heavy, but despite falling, he bore it all the way to Calvary. Then, he said: "I love you little brothers. I must leave you now. Father has called. You have now no need to fear, if you follow the road bounded by the Commandments. Avoid all the left turns. The Sacraments will provide your needs, and, should you require help, cry out and the Father will come. Courage, you have not far to go. Father will be waiting."

VALLEY OF TEARS

We live in a valley of tears, but it is up to ourselves to follow the Lord's way. Like James, because we love our brother Jesus, we humbly accept the cross the Carpenter has made for us, and we promise, with God's help, to bear it in His name. We know it will not be easy, but, we also know that doing it as a labour of love will extract the sting. Believe me, the burden would be dead weight if borne under any other name. Martin Luther King was murdered because he preached God's justice. He dealt beautifully with carrying the Cross when he said: "I have seen too much hate to want to hate, and I have seen hate on the faces of too many sheriffs, white councillors and klansmen to want to hate; and every time I see it, I say to myself, hate is too great a burden to bear."

Sin is hate, it is a destroyer. It banishes peace, and, it is deadly in its evil effects. Putting it bluntly, many, far too many, seek a good time, and they are not concerned if it means ditching God. Judging from what is happening all over the world, the way from here to eternity would seem to be littered with failures! I know as well as you that it is hard when things get tough, but that is the time to fight for your life. We are pilgrims and we must not stray. We've only to look at our compass, which always reads: "Be careful... God is everything."

BRASS BAND EXTRAVAGANZA

For lovers of Brass Band Music, Dungarvan is the place to be on Sunday, July 16. On that afternoon the town will play host to more than 100 musicians from 5 Brass and Military Bands (B&R) bands. It will be a first for Dungarvan for never in its history has such a musical festival taken place.

The bands will come from Youghal (St. Mary's), Fermoy, Midleton, Mitchelstown and of course Dungarvan and each will give a short recital at 5 different venues in the town and Abbeyside for the people's enjoyment. The venues selected are: Congress Villas, Childers Estate, The Band Stand, The Green at McCarthyville/Kyne Park and the New Park on the Causeway. These recitals are but a prelude to the highlight of the afternoon which will be the parade of the Massed Bands to the strains of some of the world's famous marches. They include: 'The Thunderer' by J. P. Sousa, 'National Emblem' by Bagley, 'Our Director' by Bigelow, 'Le Reve Passe' by Krier/Helmar and 'San Lorenzo' by C. A. Silva.

These are rousing marches in the finest tradition, their music invigorating and heart stirring. The march will commence at Crotty's Corner in Abbeyside at approximately 3.30 p.m. and will continue on to Dungarvan. It is hoped that both locals and visitors will enjoy the big band sound and join in the fun.

The idea of this musical extravaganza came about when the Co. Manager Mr. Dan Hurley urged the Dungarvan Traders to get up and do something to attract visitors to the old Borough. Responding to this, Mr.

Tom Fitzgerald, Chairman, with the help of Mr. Matt Connolly and Secretary Mr. Mario Flavin sought to get some form of entertainment under way. It was then that Mr. Pat Ormond in the dual role of trader and bandsman asked the Brass Band to get involved. Incidentally next year the Chamber of Commerce, acting as an umbrella body for all the town organisations hope to extend the activities of the festival over a weekend.

In the meantime it will be a case of all systems go for this musical spectacular. Dungarvan Brass Band which has a long association with the social and cultural life of the Old Borough was only too happy to lend its support. Representing the band initially were Mr. Danny O'Connor, Chairman, Miss Deirdre O'Riordan, Hon. Secretary and Band Master Mr. F. Keneally. Indeed it was on the shoulders of Deirdre that all the organising work fell. In this she is to be highly commended. The Waterford City Bands were also contacted but they could not come due to other commitments.

And so Dungarvan will welcome the Corkonian Bands on Sunday, July 16. The invitation on that day to locals and visitors alike will be — come follow the Bands. This musical Extravaganza will be an event to be savoured and a spectacle not to be missed.

Cork Homes And Leisure Fair

Now established as the leading successful public consumer show in Southern Ireland the "Homes And Leisure Fair" which in past years featured a fully built showhouse and hosted the "National Lottery's grand prize draw" and attracts an annual attendance of 25,000 visitors, takes on a completely new format this year.

The Dear Old Road To Conna

The following poem, submitted by Johnny Buckley, was written by the late Mick Fitzgerald of Ballynoe in 1929.

When the gladsome voice of Nature tells of summer's golden dawn,
 'Tis with sweetest thrill of rapture that my restless spirit's drawn,
 To a scene below'd in boyhood, where my feet were wont to tread—
 It's the dear old road to Conna, with its arching trees o'erhead.
 There the hedgerows, now, are teeming with a wealth of beauty rare—
 Fairest gems of flower and blossom; tone of colour—fresh and fair,
 And amid each bower entrancing, sweet bird-songs, in chorus gay,
 Ever float, in blissful cadence, blending thro' the summer day,
 With the Bride's joy-song of freedom (that fair stream I love so well, Ever since the hour, in boyhood, when it o'er me cast its spell),
 Beauteous, as in fairy garlands, are my hopes and dreaming cast,
 With that dear old road to Conna, and its mem'ries of the past.

Oh! that dear old road to Conna holds a tender charm for me—
 It's a charm that still is fairer than of flower, or bird, or tree.
 It's in mem'ry of a maiden, dower'd with beauty, fresh and fair,
 First I met, as in a vision, 'mid the flowers of summer there.
 And, the first sweet glance she gave me from her eyes of radiant blue,
 Told a spirit pure and mirthful, and a heart that would be true,
 And my young heart thrilled with rapture (such till then, I had not known),
 At that glance that brought love's crowning ere the summer bright had flown,
 And, though time has wrought its changes since that far off golden day,
 It's but made our path still brighter, 'neath true love's gilded ray.
 Thus, in spirit, still I wander, with a maiden's hand in mine,
 Where that dear old road to Conna breathes of youth and love divine.

The "Homes And Leisure Fair" which will include a total of 115 stands will house several new exhibitions within the context of one major exhibition. These are as follows:—

- ★ New Home and Property Market Section.
  - ★ Home Entertainment and extended Leisure Section.
  - ★ Fashion, Health and Beauty Section.
  - ★ Knitting, Needle and Handcraft Section.
  - ★ On Two Wheels (Bike/Motor Bike and accessories exhibition).
- In addition to this the "Homes and D.I.Y." section has been increased in size to cater for the overwhelming demand for space.
- As in past years the "Homes and Leisure Fair" will include a free kiddies creche, fashion shows, demonstrations, personality appearances and of course the exciting competitions and treasure trails.

Anyone interested in booking space are advised to do so before the end of July as 70% of the available space has already been allocated.

Further information without obligation can be had from John Kelly or Declan Lordan at Irish + International Special Events, Courthouse Chambers, 27-29 Washington Street, Cork. Tel. 021-273006.

I.C.A. NEWS

Waterford Summer Federation Meeting

The summer meeting of Waterford ICA Federation in Tramore was attended by nineteen guilds. The attendance was welcomed by Mrs. Phil Healy, President of Tramore Guild.

Following on the Secretary's and Treasurer's reports, accounts were given of the varied activities of the Federation.

Mrs. Jenny Kiely, An Grianan Officer, reported on "Waterford Week," at An Grianan, where splendid courses were availed of in gardening, yoga, tweed-pictures, soft toys and beauty care. Tributes were paid to Mrs. Kiely for her efficiency in relation to the week, and to Mrs. Anna Maher, the pianist who contributed much to the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Maria Mullins gave details of the competitions since the last meeting. The Cappoquin Chicken Cookery Competition was won by Mrs. Sadie Hourigan of Ballinameela. Mrs. Patsy Murphy of Waterford came first in The Federation Spring/Summer ICA Competition for rag dolls. Still to come are The Patsy Lawlor Set Dancing Competitions, the Bord Iascaigh Mhara Fish Cooking Competition and The Brown Bread Competition in connection with the Ploughing Championships on October 9/10 in Carlow.

Mrs. Margaret Leahy, Produce Promoter is arranging a Herb Growing Session for September 9 and 23. On October 7 there will be a Craft Produce Day in Dungarvan. Among the items featured that day will be Mountmellick work, crochet and patchwork.

Forthcoming shows will be the Tramore Flower Show, July 19/20, Dungarvan Show on July 22 and Waterford Flower Show on September 9 and 10.

On the sports scene, Mrs. Marie Gregan, Sports Officer, is arranging for a beginners course in September. She would like to know the names of those interested.

EFFECTIVE SPEAKING TEST

Mrs. Siobhan Lincoln (outgoing Arts Promoter, and now Irish Officer), reported that four members were successful in the Effective Speaking Test. They were Mrs. Nancy Twomey, Mrs. Annette Plunkett and Mrs. Mary Kelly of Tramore, and Miss Ciss Quaine of Ardmore. Congratulations to them on attaining this award. Mrs. Lincoln urged members to try to revive old songs of their own localities.

Moya Bean Ni Dhomhnaill (new Arts Promoter) told the meeting of a new group, the Guild of Irish Lace Makers started two years ago. Among the work it will deal with is Limerick work. The annual subscription is £7.50.

The next Federation meeting will take place in Ardmore in September.

Hospitals C.E.O. Says Statement Was Distorted

In the course of a Press statement issued last week, Mr. G. P. Martin, Chief Officer Comhairle na n-Ospideal, Dublin, States:

"In an article entitled "Advisory body says 16 smaller hospitals should go" by Aileen O'Meara in the Sunday Tribune on July 2, 1989, it is stated in the opening sentence, that "sixteen local hospitals, the majority of them at county level, should be closed in the long-term rationalisation of the hospital services, according to the Chief Officer of Comhairle na n-Ospideal, the statutory advisory body to the Government on hospitals." I wish to clarify that I never made such a statement. What I said, in response to a specific question about which hospitals have had question marks over their future, is reported in the body of the article. I made it clear to the reporter that this information was common knowledge since the publication in 1986 of the Fitzgerald Report. In the headline and in the opening sentence, this factual response is distorted to produce an erroneous statement of a sensationalist nature, attributed both to me personally and to Comhairle na n-Ospideal and giving the impression that the matter was of recent origin. This piece of reporting was subsequently converted in another newspaper (Irish Independent) on the following day to a call for further hospital closures on my part, thus further distorting the original distortion. I issue this statement in order to set the record straight.

TOURANEENA NOTES

PRESENTATION An unusual presentation took place in Dunford's Lounge, Touraneena recently. Mr. Jim O'Loughlin, formerly of the Nire and now of Kilbehenny, Co. Cork, met Bob Keane of Cahernaleague, in the F.C.A. over 20 years ago. The pair became firm friends and when Jim moved to Co. Cork, Bob continued to keep in touch and send Jim the local papers every week for the last 21 years. In appreciation Jim presented Bob with a gold watch. In his presentation speech, Jim thanked Bob for his thoughtfulness, saying that the papers had kept him in touch with the old place through the years. The thirty or so relatives and friends who attended enjoyed a tasty snack afterwards. Music was provided by Bob Keane, Mellerary, ably assisted by Tom Hickey. A great night was had by all.

CARDS Last week's cards — 1st Christy Hallinan and Bridget Fitzpatrick; 2nd divided between Josie and Ann McCarthy, Paddy Cullinan and Jimmy Kiely, Mossie Cliffe and Piery Wall; Last Game — Eddie Kirwan and Nonie Queally; Lucky Tables — Biddy Nugent and Minnie Kirwan, Johnny Kiely and Margaret Grace; Raffle — Alice Burke, Piery Wall, Alice McCarthy.

BEST WISHES We wish the best of luck to Mairead McCarthy, Skeheens, who secured a nursing post in St. Joseph's Hospital, Clonmel. Mairead was previously nursing in Australia and London. Best wishes also to James Condon, Boolavounteen, who secured a nursing post at St. Luke's Hospital, Clonmel. James was also working in Australia up to now.

ENGAGED Congratulations to James Cotter, Tinalira, who recently announced his engagement to Pauline Power, Wexford and to Donald McGrath, Touraneena and New York who has announced his engagement to Paula of Kildare.

BACK FROM HOLIDAY Welcome back to Connie Hearn, who has just returned from a holiday in London, also a big welcome home to Terrie Burke, Touraneena, who is presently enjoying a holiday in her

KILMACTHOMAS NOTES

HOSPITAL It is good to learn that Mrs. Mary Norris of Hillside Crescent is home again from hospital. We hope to see her out and about again in the near future.

ACCIDENT We wish a speedy recovery to Paul Power, Ballyhussa, who was involved in a car accident last week. Paul is the local T.V. repair man employed by Ryan's, Main Street, Kilmacthomas and very popular in the area. We hope to see him back in his job in the not too distant future.

NEW CRAZE A new craze in the Kilmacthomas area is fly racing. In the big race at Moshe's last weekend, Jim Scurry made a packet when he backed the Billy Power trained "Bottle Fly" at 5/1. He was led into the winner's enclosure by stable lad Joe-E. Reilly.

DRIVING TESTS Congratulations go to James Power, High Street and Dermot Guinan, New Houses who passed their driving tests in the local fire brigade last week. Also to Dolores Mulhearn, Main Street who passed her four wheel driving test in England last week.

INJURED We wish a speedy recovery to Brian Whelan, Hillside Crescent who is out of action at the moment with a leg injury.

HOLE IN ONE An achievement very rarely seen on the golf course was secured last week when Dr. Eamonn Kiely got a "Hole in One" at the Dungarvan golf course.

HORSE RACING Calling all racing fans! A big race night will take place in Danny Kirwan's lounge bar on Saturday, July 22nd, with the first race at 9 p.m. Come and enjoy all the excitement on film with tote betting facilities. Proceeds are in aid of the Kilmacthomas Lord Mayor Candidate Seamus Casey.

ON STAGE A large contingent of fans from Kilmacthomas travelled to Garter Lane 2 in Waterford last week to see Miss Jenny Kirwan, Main Street making her first stage appearance as Karin in "Albert" by Richard Harris. All agreed that a great future is in store for this fine actress.

KIRWAN'S IN SEMI-FINAL Kirwan's of Kilmac' reached the semi-final of the Waterford Pubs league last week with two good victories. On Friday night in St. John's Park they defeated a strong Walshe's team by 1 goal to nil, the all important winning goal coming midway through the first half from Jessie Whelan. Then on Thursday night last they travelled to Connors Park, Waterford, where they took on the Cuckoo's Nest in the quarter final. This was a good tough game and the Cuckoo's Nest from Tramore started at a fast pace and took the lead after only ten minutes of play and they held this lead to the interval.

On the resumption Kirwan's took control at midfield with Jessie Whelan, Tommo and John Mulhearn in top form and they secured the equaliser after fifteen minutes when Paudie Whelan scored. Minutes later after another great move, Kirwan's took the lead when Paudie Whelan scored after good work from John Mulhearn. With five minutes remaining they secured their ticket to the semi-final when Nickie Whelan scored number 3. They take on the Pulpit in the semi-final in Ozier Park, Waterford on Wednesday evening of this week, kick-off 8.15 p.m. Kirwan's line out: Eamonn Lawlor, Michael Lawlor, Son Whelan, Johnny Brown, Stephen Morrissey, Jessie Whelan, Nickie Whelan, Sean Behan, Derry Kiely, and John Kelleher. John Mulhearn, Tom O'Connell, Ray Kirwan.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL The Kilmacthomas Junior football team had a good victory last week when they defeated Butlerstown in Dunhill by 2-4 to 1-3. Kilmac' team and scorers: Patrick O'Reilly, Eoin Lawlor, Brendan Troy, Kevin Walshe, Mark Lenihan, Vincent Behan, Dermot Coughlan, Paddy Drohan (0-1), Paul Gallagher (0-1), Joe Joy (1-2), Michael Lawlor, Seanie Walshe, Martin Power, Donal Lawlor, Patrick Purcell, Philip Dee (0-1), and Trevor Whelan. On Saturday night they travelled to Ballyduff to play Killure but went down to a strong Waterford side by 2-6 to 0-4.

SENIOR FOOTBALL FIXTURES Following are the fixtures for the Kilmacthomas Senior Football side: July 30 v Tramore; August 30 v Gaultier; August 27 v Ballinacourty.

HOME FROM ENGLAND Enjoying a holiday from England in Kilmacthomas are brothers Seamus and Kevin Purcell, Walshe Place.

HAPPY RETIREMENT Best wishes for a happy retirement go to Denis Corkery N.T., Main Street, Kilmacthomas who retired last week after 40 years teaching in Kilmacthomas and Carrick-on-Suir.

Salmon Fishermen Protest On Youghal Bridge

Over 100 angry drift net salmon fishermen from the Clashmore-Ardmore areas blockaded Youghal Bridge for most of an hour as they mounted a fiery protest on Thursday last to highlight the continuing refusal of the government to legalise the use of monofilament nets for salmon fishing.

At about 1 p.m. the angry fishermen from the Blackwater together with their supporters moved on to the busy Youghal Bridge and for most of the succeeding hour mounted a blockade which brought all traffic using the bridge to a standstill.

The protesters were accompanied by Rev. Fr. Michael Reid, Ardmore, who stated that all those engaged in driftnet salmon fishing in West Waterford and East Cork were "small men" with families. "Between them," said Fr. Reid, "they haven't even a decent car and the politicians have failed them totally in their efforts to reach a compromise on the use of monofilament nets."

During the blockade at least one angry motorist tried to get through but he abandoned the attempt when fishermen sat on the bonnet of his car. Gardai were on duty at the Bridge but did not intervene.

Taking part in the protest were Clashmore fisherman Jimmy Roche and his wife, Mary, whose fishing trawler, the "Cally Marie," was tied up and moored near the bridge. They stated that the eight year old trawler had not been in use since last March because they cannot fish without monofilament nets. Mrs. Roche pointed out that the trawler had cost £100,000 and the monthly repayments to be made to An Bord Iascaigh Mhara amounted to £950 while in addition they had to find another £1,000 to pay an annual insurance premium. She told us, "we have four children and because the monofilament net is illegal for driftnet salmon fishing we find ourselves up to our necks in debt."

LEGAL TO BUY — ILLEGAL TO USE

Jimmy Roche said that it was ironic that he could freely and legally purchase monofilament nets on which the government receives VAT and yet if he were to use it in order to make a living he would run the risk of being sent to jail because it was illegal to do so.

When the protest was finally called off, gardai got the traffic moving freely again in a short time. However the fishermen pledged that they would continue their protests and take their case right up to Leinster House, if necessary.

Later in the afternoon, Fishery Officers of the Southern Region Fisheries Board were prevented from removing monofilament nets anchored in Ballycotton harbour. Two fishery patrol boats were spotted in Ballycotton Bay by fishermen returning from the Youghal Bridge protest who then sailed out and blocked the removal of the nets, forcing the officers to withdraw.

I.F.A. Concern At Bank Rate Increase

Mr. John Boylan, Chairman of I.F.A.'s Farm Business Committee has expressed concern at last week's announcement by the Central Bank increasing interest rates by a full 1%. This is the second increase in interest rates this year and will cost Irish farmers an extra £15 million per year in interest charges. He said "every effort must be made to ensure that this trend in interest rates is reversed, as high interest rates are a major handicap to farm development and the Programme for National Recovery."

Mr. Boylan also repeated his concerns that farmers need to do their sums very carefully before paying high prices for land and milk quotas.

Ernest T. Walton — Nobel Prizewinner

Recently the Ulster Historical Society published a series of articles on famous Ulstermen — among those featured was Walton the famous nuclear scientist. They were quickly rapped on the knuckles by, among others, Kevin Myers, the Irish Times columnist, for this barefaced attempt to steal our one and only Nobel Laureate in Physics! What surprised me was to learn that Dr. Walton was in fact born in Dungarvan on the 6th October, 1903, eldest son of the Rev. J. A. Walton, the then Methodist Minister in the town.

As I work as a Physics teacher and share a common birthplace with the great man, I was intrigued enough to write mentioning our shared interest. Despite being haunted by autograph hunters, and anxious to avoid the publicity he constantly attracts he graciously invited me to call to his home in South Dublin. Professor Walton lives alone in a quiet cul-de-sac, his wife having recently died and his four children away following their own careers in Science. Still in excellent health he fills his days with his hobbies of woodwork and gardening and with his lifelong attachment to the Church. Dr. Walton attributes his longevity to his never having smoked or drunk and to his extremely placid disposition.

When six months old his father was transferred from Dungarvan to Rathkeale in Co. Limerick, and soon after was to continue his Ministry in the North of Ireland. Ernest, himself, was educated in Methodist College, Belfast and at Trinity College, Dublin. Top grade results in his final exams led to the position of Research Assistant to Lord Cavendish in Cambridge. Professor Walton told me that his father often spoke to him of Dungarvan (his mother died in his infancy), and of the kindness of the local people — the Miller family in particular being very close friends.

SPLITTING THE ATOMS

The Famous discovery made in 1932 and now known as the Cockcroft-Walton experiment involved splitting atomic nuclei with very fast particles and was one of the reactions that ushered in the nuclear age. During the war while working in Trinity he was involved in Government projects to find substitutes for fuel and other materials embargoed by the hostilities. In 1951, now Professor of Experimental Physics, he was conferred in Swindan with the Nobel Prize, the highest accolade of the Scientific Establishment.

Now retired for fifteen years, he gives occasional lectures in Physics, reads scientific biographies and works with Pugwash — the international group of scientists who support nuclear disarmament. His pacifist leanings had led him during the war to turn down a leading position with the Manhattan Project. This organisation of Allied Scientists developed the Atomic Bomb which was dropped with such tragic consequences on Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

In spite of his great age he still takes a great interest in contemporary science and in computers which he considers have taken the drudgery out of science. He is following closely the latest claims of Fleishmann and Pons in Utah who claim to have created nuclear energy in a test tube. Dr. Walton considers that a basic knowledge of science is essential for everyone, so that we understand our bodies, our environment and our place in the cosmos. He is a man totally at peace with himself, and looking forward confidently to the after life. He leaves behind him an accomplishment that will ensure him a permanent place in the lexicon of famous discoverers — Ernest T. S. Walton, born Dungarvan, Co. Waterford 1903.

Antique Dolls Exhibition At Clonea

An exhibition of antique dolls, toys and clothes will be held in the Castle Room of the new Clonea Hotel, on Saturday and Sunday, July 22 and 23.

Some of this private collection is unique and date back to 1840 and it should be well worth a visit. Opening hours are from 12 noon to 9 p.m. each day. Admission is £1.50 adult and 50p child.

The exhibition is in aid of the Sacred Heart Unit for Mentally Handicapped, Lady Lane, Waterford, a cause very deserving of your support.

Dungarvan Man Is New Manager For Vetlink

Kilkenny-based Veterinary Surgeon Jim Spratt, MVB, MRCVS, has been appointed Technical and Marketing Manager of Vetlink, the specialist trading division operated by Co-Operative Animal Health Ltd. of Tullow.

From Dungarvan, Co. Waterford, Jim comes from a farming background and his family, the well-known and very popular Spratt family of Coolcormack, is widely involved in agribusiness. He qualified as a vet from UCD in 1968 and later became a partner in a general practice in Kilkenny. In 1982 Jim took up a position in the Department of Agriculture, working from the Kilkenny District Veterinary office.

He is a dedicated sports enthusiast. At various times he was involved in hurling, football and rugby and now settles for a game of golf. He is married with three children.

At the moment Vetlink supplies drugs and equipment to veterinary practitioners throughout the 26 counties. Jim sees the veterinary practitioner becoming more and more involved in preventative medicine and related advice to farmers. He also feels that more of them will avail of the opportunities that exist for supplying, through their practices, a reliable supply of quality medicines and equipment at competitive prices.

PENSMAN Takes You. . . . Behind The SPOTLIGHT

COUNTRY STILL ON THE BRINK?

As we pen these few lines on Tuesday evening, the Fianna Fail and Progressive Democrats Parties are still engaged in a game of brinkmanship while the country is left without a Government.

Throughout the week resistance to giving the PD's any representation on a Cabinet, not to mention two seats, has been building up within Fianna Fail at Constituency levels. However negotiations have proceeded but up to late on Tuesday afternoon there still appeared to be quite a divergence of viewpoints to be bridged, not to mention the crucial question of Cabinet representation.

While we have been assured by the leaders of both parties that the good of the country is the matter of paramount importance motivating both, it certainly looks as if personal and party interests are not lagging far behind. Some of the comments coming up from the constituencies smack of the old civil war bitterness. This is a great pity.

Fianna Fail must realise that they were not mandated to form a single party government and the PD's must not use the situation just to 'put the boot in.' The country is crying out for a government. Let common-sense and the overall welfare of the country be allowed precedence over party and personal interests and let us go on from there.

SUNNIEST JUNE FOR TWELVE YEARS OR MORE

The continuing long spell of dry sunny weather was the source of discussion at our 'local' in Dungarvan last Sunday evening when the question was posed as to whether it was ever matched in the past and if so, when.

The query sent us to ferret through our reference books looking for the required information and from one of these we learn that the month of June just past was generally the sunniest June since the 1975 to 1977 period although according to the sunshine totals for the month recorded at Cork Airport, it was the sunniest June since 1962.

During the month, sunshine totals ranged from over 225 hours near the south and east coasts to 168 hours on the Mayo coast. The sunniest days were recorded on June 1, 6, 13, 14, 17 to 21, 27 and 29 and between June 14 and 24, Rosslare had more than 10 hours of sunshine each day.

It may be of interest to readers to learn what the main points about the annual course of the sun in these latitudes are:

— In late June the sun rises north of east and sets some 17 hours later at a point in the northwestern sector of the observer's horizon circle. Its altitude at the maximum is about 60° and is achieved at solar noon.

— In late December the sun describes a smaller arc as it rises in the southeast and sets some 7 to 8 hours later in the southwest having a maximum altitude of less than 15°.

— On March 21 and September 21, called the Spring and Autumn equinoxes because the sun rises due east and sets due west giving a solar day of 12 hours, the maximum altitude is about 37°.

The sunshine averages in the period from 1951 to 1980 according to the records show that:

— May has the highest average sunshine except in some places near the south and southeast where June is sunnier than May.

— December is the month of least sunshine.

— Coastal areas are sunnier than neighbouring inland areas.

— Eastern and southern areas get more sun than northern and western regions, the southeast being the sunniest area in the country - hence the tourist slogan: the sunny southeast!

— Mountain areas have got less sunshine than nearby lowlands. The lee-side or sheltered side also has the advantage over the exposed slope.

Having read this, perhaps you are now a little wiser about the sun.

ON SENATE TRAIL

Waterford County Councillor Pat Coffey from Portlaw has been nominated as a candidate in the pending Senate election and is at present engaged in a nationwide canvass tour. It is a long and rather expensive stint beside being a physically exhausting campaign as well.

On Monday last, members of Waterford County Council were the targets of several prospective senators seeking support when they gathered in Dungarvan for their usual monthly meeting.

RECENT DEATHS

The death occurred peacefully on Wednesday of last week, July 5, of Mr. Desmond R. Counahan, Tramore. Aged 83 years, Dr. Counahan headed a highly successful law practice in Waterford City for a long number of years. As State Solicitor for Waterford for a long period, Dr. Counahan was well and popularly known in Dungarvan where he attended sittings of the District and Circuit Courts.

It was with much regret also that we learned of the recent death of Mr. John Baston, Passage East. John was a member of a highly popular family whose name will never be forgotten in the annals of Waterford hurling through the legendary Capt Vin Baston who played centre back on Waterford's All-Ireland winning team of 1948.

The late John Baston was well-known in Dungarvan and West Waterford as a member of the teaching staff of the County Vocational Education Committee up to his retirement and his passing will be a source of much regret for all who knew this kind and unassuming man. Beannacht De agus na Maighine Muire ar a anam dilis.

DANGEROUS TRAFFIC ON TALLOWHILL

The persistence of heavy vehicles in using the steeply inclined Tallowhill road was referred to once again at the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council in Dungarvan last Monday. As on previous occasions, the matter was again spotlighted this time by Tallow Councillor Willie McDonnell.

Cllr. McDonnell recalled that when he drew attention to the dangers caused by heavy lorries using the hill by-pass in preference to the more gradual sweep two years ago it was decided to have warning notices prohibiting vehicles in excess of two tons from using the route erected at the top and bottom. Although the Council had erected these signs he said that big lorries continued to drive down the hill at high speeds. "Something will have to be done to put a stop to this, otherwise there will be a very bad accident there", he told his Council colleagues.

The County Engineer, Mr. John O'Flynn, then pointed out that before the warning signs had been erected by the Council it was the Garda authorities who had specified the form they should take and it was a matter for the gardai to implement the restrictions laid down by the signs. He added that he would take the matter up with the gardai to see that these restrictions were enforced.

We fully endorse Cllr. McDonnell's call to put a stop to large heavily laden vehicles using this short cut as we are well aware from our own experiences in driving over this road that not only heavy lorries but tankers pass up and down there on a regular daily basis. Without doubt they create a major hazard for smaller, lighter vehicles using the road not to mention the danger they must present to pedestrians.

TIDAL FLOWS AFFECT BEACH CLEANING

Earlier this summer members of Dungarvan Urban Council agreed to have a cleaning operation carried out by Council workers on Abbeyside strand. The main target was the deposit of seaweed which stretched along the beach especially in the vicinity familiarly known by locals as "The Minister's Cove."

The cleaning operation was, in fact, carried out and for about 24 hours, the beach was perfectly clean and free from seaweed. Then, overnight, it all re-appeared again and the beach was almost as bad as ever.

On inquiry we were informed by the Town Clerk that the problem arises from the alignment of the promenade running from the 'New Road' down towards the Church. It seems that when this was built years ago it was placed further out than the existing bulwarks and this then resulted in a change of the tidal flows as they fill and ebb. This, in turn has meant that seaweed washed in by filling tides is not swept back out to sea as the levels drop and hence the problem as it now exists.

THE BOATMEN OF KERRY

Our choice for the ballad corner this week is one called "The Boatmen Of Kerry," and although it must be comparatively old, we must admit that we never heard it before. It was only while looking through a collection of Kerry ballads recently that we came across it. The reference in it to "Brandon's steep highlands" would indicate that it refers to the fishermen on the north western tip of the Dingle peninsula where Mount Brandon (called after St. Brendan, the Navigator) is a major landmark.

Above the dark waters the seagulls are screaming,
Their wings in the sunlight are glancing and gleaming;
With keen eyes they're watching the herring in motion,
As onward they come from the wild restless ocean.
Now, praise be to God, for the hope that shines o'er us,
When safely returning with our hookers well laden,
How gaily will sound with clear laugh of each maiden,
Oh, light as young fawns will they run down to meet us
While merrily over the waters we're gliding,
Each wave, as it rolls, with our boat stems dividing;
Till high on the beach every black boat is stranded—
Her stout crew in health and in safety landed,
Near cabins, though humble, from whence they can borrow
Content for the day and new hope for the morrow.

CHORUS:

Oh! loved of our maidens are the boatmen of Kerry!
For stalwart and true are the boatmen of Kerry!
To glide the black hooker or scull the light wherry,
My life on the skill of the boatmen of Kerry!

The rich man from feasting may seek his soft pillow,
The plank is our bed and our home is the billow;
Our sails may be rent, and our rigging be riven,
Yet know we not fear, for our trust is in heaven,
To waves at the base of dark Brandon's steep highlands,
To sandbank and rock near the Samphire Islands,
The nets that we tend in all trials and dangers,
From North, East and West, through the wild winds be blowing,
Through waves all be madly or placidly flowing,
These nets get us food when our children are crying,
Those nets give us joy when all sadly we're sighing,
When signs in the bay be around us and near us,
With thoughts about home to inspire us and cheer us,
When falls over the earth the grey shade of the even,
When gleams the first star in the wide vault of heaven,
Through gloom and through danger each bold boatman urges
With sail, or with oar, his frail boat through the surges.

Though wealth is not ours, though our fortunes be lowly,
Our hearts are at rest, for our thoughts are all holy,
Oh, who would deny it, that saw in fair weather,
Our black boats assembled at anchor together;
Their crews all on board them, prepared with devotion
To list to the Mass we get read on the ocean!
Oh! there is the faith that of Heaven is surest,
Oh, there is the religion, the highest and purest,
Oh! could you but view them, with eyes upward roving
To God ever living, to God ever loving,
The deep wave beneath them, the blue heaven o'er them,
The high cliffs around them, the altar before them,
You'd say — " 'tis a sight to remember with pleasure,
A sight that a poet would gloat o'er and treasure,
Oh, ne'er shall my soul lose the lesson they've taught her,
Those fishermen poor, with their Mass on the water."

RECENT DEATHS

MR. JOHN O'BRIEN

The death of Mr. John O'Brien, Kereen and Bewley, Cappoquin, took place at Waterford Regional Hospital on Sunday, July 2, following a short period of hospitalisation. Aged 70 years, John farmed for many years in the Aglish area where his agricultural knowledge and expertise made him a well known figure who was widely respected among the farming fraternity. All his life he was deeply interested in horses and show jumping in particular and he attended many of the top shows, and the sale of one of his top jumpers to the Army was a sporting landmark in his life.

The local Geraldines G.A.A. Club was especially dear to his heart and their fortunes were closely followed by John for many years.

We mourn the passing of one of nature's gentlemen, a man who had a good word for everybody and who was held in high regard by all. A deeply religious man, no doubt today he enjoys his heavenly reward along with his late wife Monica (nee Kenneally) who predeceased him by some years.

Prayers of requiem were recited by Very Rev. W. Callanan, P.P., on Monday evening at the Kiely Funeral Home after which the cortege left for Aglish. Fr. Callanan, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Michael O'Byrne, C.C. and Very Rev. Fr. A. McGrath, blessed and received the remains at Aglish Church.

On Tuesday morning, John was laid to rest after the Requiem Mass celebrated by Fr. Callanan, P.P., who also read the prayers at the graveside assisted by Rev. M. O'Byrne C.C., in the presence of a large concourse of mourners.

We tender our deepest sympathy to his cousins, relatives and friends on their sad loss.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

MISS VERONICA BERESFORD

We record with sincere regret the death of Miss Veronica (Vera) Beresford, Castlequarter, and Dublin, which took place at Waterford Regional Hospital on Sunday, June 25. She was eldest daughter of the late Edward and Catherine Beresford (nee Stephenson) of Castlequarter, Dungarvan.

Veronica had been employed by the Bank of Ireland and had worked in numerous branches throughout the country. Some years ago she retired from what was then the head office of the bank, at College Green, Dublin.

She had a vivacious, generous and warm personality and she was also a very devout Christian.

She was predeceased by her brother Tom (England), Mick (Glendine), Jim (Castlequarter) and Noel (England) and she is survived by her brother George, sisters Joan and Bernie, brother-in-law, sisters-in-law, nephews, nieces, grandnephews, grandnieces, relatives and friends to whom we extend deep and sincere sympathy on their sad loss.

Following blessing and prayers recited by Rev. Fr. Seamus O.F.M. in the Hospital Mortuary, the funeral took place to Garranbane Church, where her remains were received on arrival by Rev. P. Ahearne C.C., who then celebrated Mass for the repose of her soul. Following Requiem Mass on Tuesday morning, celebrated by Fr. Ahearne assisted by Very Rev. R. Arthure, P.P., Ballyduff, interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. Fr. Ahearne C.C. officiated at the graveside, assisted by Fr. Arthure, P.P. There was a large crowd at both funeral and burial. The lessons were read during the Mass by Valerie Beresford.

(Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

MR. MICHAEL O'DONNELL

The death of Mr. Michael O'Donnell, 3 St. Monica's Terrace, Abbeyside, which occurred on Sunday, July 2nd, shocked all sections of the community in the area.

Michael who was a great G.A.A. man, was motoring to Cork for the Munster hurling final when he was taken suddenly ill and died a short time later.

Michael who as 53 and a native of Charlestown, Co. Mayo, had five brothers and four sisters. He emigrated to England where he met and married his wife Breda. They lived in Luton and in Kilburn and had three children Vinny, Carol and Gary.

The whole family returned to Ireland in 1974 and set up home in Abbeyside. A carpenter by trade Michael had a great love for the G.A.A. A member of the Stradbally club, he trained their senior football team for a while and he also acted as a Waterford selector.

Imbued with a love of our native culture he loved traditional music and he was no mean performer on the mouth organ.

Michael was a great family man. Possessed of an extrovert nature he was great fun to be with and he made genuine friends wherever he went.

He was one of natures gentlemen whose death, coming as it did travelling to see a game he loved so much, caused great sorrow among his many friends and acquaintances.

He will be sadly missed by all who knew him but more especially by his sorrowing wife, family and relatives to whom we extend deep and sincere sympathy on their tragic loss.

His remains were removed on Monday evening from Dungarvan Hospital to Abbeyside Church where the coffin was received and blessed by Very Rev. M. Canon Farrell, P.P., assisted by Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C. Mass was celebrated on arrival. A guard of honour was provided by members of Stradbally G.A.A. clubs.

On Tuesday morning Requiem Mass was offered up for the repose of his soul by Canon Farrell, P.P. assisted by Rev. Fr. McCarthy and Rev. Fr. Hickey, O.S.A. The Lessons were read by Brian O'Donnell (nephew) and Michelle O'Donnell (niece). Sacred music was rendered by Eddie Cantwell, Nicky Power and John McCarthy.

The funeral took place afterwards to Ballinroad Cemetery where burial took place. Canon Farrell officiated at the graveside.

Chief mourners — Breda (wife); Vincent and Gary (sons); Carol (daughter); Tom (son-in-law); Andrew and Steven (grandsons); Paddy, Dominick, Vincent, Eddie and Martin (brothers); Ria, Susie, Evelyn, Sheila (sisters); brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, relatives, etc.

Successful Strawberry Season

The fine weather was a major asset to strawberry picking and selling this year. Reports from the Tallow Fruit Farm say the crop was one of the best in recent years, and although competition has increased in the production of Strawberries, Bride Valley sold their entire crop to the fresh fruit market.

While the season is a short one, only four weeks, road-side sales have become very popular, and indeed some are very attractive adding a bit of colour to the roadside. Summer strawberry stands have now become a feature, especially to tourists. This idea of selling commenced in England 20 years ago by fruit and vegetable growers.

Bride Valley supplied a huge consignment of fresh strawberries to the Castle-martyr Strawberry Fayre held last Sunday in brilliant sunshine.

The next draw will be held in The Red House on Saturday, 15th July at 8.15 p.m. All are welcome to attend. (Advt.)

SENIOR HURLING

On Friday evening last in Ballymacarby we scored a good win over Fourmilewater in a tournament match (2-14 to 2-7). We found it difficult to get fifteen players together for this game and at one time it looked as if some of the selectors would have to tog out. Let's hope we will have more enthusiasm next Sunday, July 16th when we play Portlaw in the S.H. Championship at 2.15 p.m. in Dungarvan.

Training continues on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. With no championship matches being played, some of the panel of players took it on themselves to take a rest. That time is now over and every player on the panel owes it to the others to give one hundred per cent in training. Nothing less will do. Every match from now on will be a tough one and every member of the panel is just as important as the other.

Let this be a rallying call to players in all grades to attend training sessions on the appointed evenings. Remember that success in this year's championships depends on YOU — your attendance at training — your effort and your commitment.

Nice to see that one of our exiled players, Niall Daly, figured prominently for London against Kildare in the All-Ireland Senior "B" final in Newbridge on Sunday week last (Kildare 1-13 to London 1-12).

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

We scored an unexpected 0-14 to 1-9 win over Ring in our first match in the junior football championship at Dungarvan on Sunday evening. Team: Seamus Prendergast, J. J. Duggan, R. Ronayne, B. O'Leary, P. Ahearn, Sean Prendergast, D. Barry, B. Prendergast, Donal Landers, F. Power, B. Lawton, David Landers, B. Landers, S. Daly, K. O'Gorman.

UNDER 14 HURLING

On Saturday next, July 15th at 3.15 p.m. we play St. Saviours in the County Final in Walsh Park. Everyone who saw our last match against St. Saviour's in the Feile qualifier will not want to miss this one. Some say we were lucky to win that day and we know we are in for a tougher game on Saturday, so we would ask all of our supporters to turn out in full and cheer on the lads to what we hope will be another victory.

UNDER 12 HURLING

We play Dungarvan in Dungarvan on Monday, July 17th at 8.00 p.m., leaving from the Monument at 7.00 p.m.

MINOR HURLING

Wednesday, July 12th in Ballyduff, Lismore v Cappoquin at 7.30 p.m. Wednesday, July 19th in Cappoquin, Lismore v Tallow at 7.30 p.m.

45 DRIVE RESULTS

In aid of St. Carthage's House — 1st: Tom Brown and Jim Crowley; 2nd: Cissie Power and Joe Power; 3rd: Mary and Nora Willoughby. Lucky tables: Mick Crowley and Mary Hyland, Cassie Hyland and Annie Neville. Raffle: Mrs. C. Power, John Ormonde, Mrs. O'Neill.

LISMORE CAMOGIE NOTES

Congratulations to our county players on their recent win over Clare in the Munster Junior Semi-final replay. Mary Murphy put on a fine display in goal, and Catriona Caples did likewise at left half back. Orla Flynn put on a captain's display at mid-field where she was always on top of her game and scored 0-5. Patricia Bolger played at right half forward and scored 0-2, and then she was moved to full-forward where she scored that vital goal in extra-time. Also Anne-Marie O'Gorman who came on in extra time. Final score after extra time, Waterford 2-13, Clare 5-3. We hope they now do themselves justice in the Munster final against Cork on Sunday week.

— (P.R.O.)

LISMORE LADIES GOLF CLUB

Our Open Fortnight starts on Friday, July 15th with a mixed 3 ball scramble. The 1st Open Day for the ladies is Wednesday 20th and it is an 18 hole singles competition. The time-sheet is being looked after by Esther Hornibrook at 058/54147. Also the time-sheet is available for our 2nd Open Day on the 26th 18 hole fourball competition.

Congratulations are due to Ann McCarthy and Gretta Barry who came 2nd in the 4 ball Open Day in Youghal. Also to Fiona Howard for doing so well in the Junior Munster finals in Castletroy.

Congratulations also to Vera Nugent, our Vice-Captain, who has qualified for the Independent (Newspaper) Golfer of the Year in Killarney with her score of 57 nett on Captain's Day. The winner of the 9 hole competition on Wednesday 5th was Ann McCarthy (23) 32.5 nett. — Divot.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

CAPPOQUIN MACRA NOTES

Soccer Blitz — The club held a very successful Soccer Blitz at Modeligo Community Sports Field on Friday, July 7. A word of thanks to all teams who took part and all those who assisted in the preparation of the field and in making the evening so successful. Also thanks to all sponsors whose help is greatly appreciated.

Farm Efficiency Competition — The club has qualified for the Dungarvan Show Efficiency Competition. A team from the club is currently preparing for this event which the club won last year.

Wedding Bells — The club congratulates Patsy O'Brien and Jimmy Mulligan who were married recently. We wish them many happy years of wedded bliss. — P.R.O.

ST. ANNE'S

BASKETBALL CLUB

Seeing that the basketball teams did so well during the school year, we thought it would be nice to have a few sessions to keep our hand in. Starting on Saturday, July 15 from 2-6 p.m. New players are welcome. — P.R.O.

RAILWAY ATHLETIC NOTES

"BIG DAY FOR OUR UNDER 12 TEAM"

On Saturday next, July 15, our U-12 team will represent Waterford in the Munster final of the Community Games. This is the first time our club has this honour. The team did very well in the Waterford league this season and are a very young side. Since we qualified for the finals this team has put a lot of hard work in on the training pitch, so they are all set for the final.

Any supporter interested in travelling to Limerick should contact Tom Browne to book a seat before Thursday.

We have a busy few weeks ahead — on Friday, July 21, we have our celebration disco in the boat house and on Thurs., July 27, we have our A.G.M.

CAPPOQUIN/BALLINAMEELA A.C.

Fisec Games — Best of luck to Fiona Lynch who will represent Ireland in the Fisec Games which will be held in Birmingham.

National Championship — On Saturday and Sunday week last the National B.L.O.E. Under 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17 took place in Tullamore Harriers Stadium where the club was well represented. On Saturday Aiden Ahern who was competing in the discus event, gave a great performance to win a well earned gold medal.

On Sunday Fiona Lynch carried on where Aiden left off by achieving the silver medal against tough competition in the discus event. So well done to both athletes.

BALLYDUFF NOTES

BALLYDUFF G.A.A. NOTES

The intermediate footballers drew with Shamrocks in Tallow on Saturday last in a very entertaining game. We conceded a goal from the throw-in but a Ml. Walsh goal from a penalty left us only a point, 1-4 to 1-3, behind at half time. Two goals from Maurice Geary and one from Seamus Daly left us five points ahead with ten minutes remaining. Shamrocks were still a point in arrears as the game went into injury time and took a pointed free in the 62nd min. to level for them on the final score of Ballyduff 4-3, Shamrocks 1-12. The next football game will be against Sliabh gCua.

The senior hurlers will play Passage on Sunday next in Dungarvan at 7.30 p.m. This will be a hard game to win as Passage had a three point win over Mt. Sion last week-end. We will be lining out without the services of Donal Hannon, Bob Tobin and Thomas Hyland while doubts surround the availability of Richie Walsh and Seamie Daly all due to injury.

The minor hurlers will play Kilrossanty next Wednesday evening in Modeligo at 7.30 p.m. All players are requested to be in the village at 6.50 p.m.

The U-16 hurlers may be in championship action on Monday night next against Dungarvan in Cappelquin. Players will be notified if this fixture goes ahead.

The club would like to wish a speedy recovery to players Brendan Bolger and Thomas Hyland who are at present in hospital.

BALLYDUFF MACRA NOTES

The club would like to congratulate Paddy Ahearne on his 21st Birthday on Saturday last and thank him for a great party.

On Friday night last some members attended Cappelquin sports evening in Modeligo field.

The club has qualified to take part at Dungarvan Show at the end of the month. A meeting will be held shortly to select a team and make arrangements for same.

Clonmel And Cashel Hospitals To Be Closed?

Fears have been mounting in South Tipperary that Clonmel and Cashel, battling with each other in a campaign to have a single sector hospital for the region located in their respective towns, could both lose out — to the new Regional Hospital at Ardkeen, Waterford.

For several years past the neighbouring towns of Cashel and Clonmel have waged an uncompromising, and oft times bitter, battle in support of their campaigns to have a single sector hospital in South Tipperary located in their respective towns.

But now, in a new and dramatic development, the very real danger has emerged that both towns will end up losers, and that hospital services for the entire region will be transferred to Waterford's new multi million pound Regional Hospital presently under construction.

The Government's statutory advisory body on hospitals, Comhairle na nOispideal, has mooted the closure of sixteen more hospitals nationwide.

Ironically, the recommendation is in line with the warnings given by the leaders of the Cashel and Clonmel hospital campaigns as they continued to 'slog it out', unrelentingly in their internal fight on the issue.

But now both camps are to intensify their campaigns, and the scene is being set for a long and bitter battle to save the hospitals in both South Tipp towns.

INTERNAL PROBLEM

Already the South Eastern Health Board has come down on the side of Cashel as the location for the sector hospital. Now, instead of a fight on that front, it may well be a fight to keep the doors of St. Joseph's Hospital in Clonmel and Our Lady's County Hospital in Cashel open.

A leading member of the Cashel hospital campaign committee, Mr. John Hassett, has now called for a coming together of Cashel and Clonmel to find a solution to their own internal problem.

"Otherwise", he has warned, "we will both lose out and all of South Tipperary will be left without a hospital in the long term".

Mr. Hassett said the urgency of having a sector hospital in either Cashel or Clonmel is greater than ever following the Comhairle na nOispideal recommendation.

The Washathon Is Coming To Town

The Bendix Washathon in aid of the Temple St. Childrens Hospital is coming to Dungarvan on Wednesday, July 19. The Washathon will arrive in town at approximately 4 p.m. and visit Shaws Department Store, Main St. The Washathon will have as its centrepiece a giant 12ft Washing Machine and its entourage will include clowns and face painters.

The Washathon is touring the country during July generating much needed public support for the Temple St. Childrens Hospital which is a National Hospital for children.

The Hospital is due to move to the Mater Hospital grounds in a number of years time. This however, will not solve the immediate problem, which the Hospital is faced with. With rising waiting lists being reported from hospitals all over the country, Temple Street is not alone in it's struggle to help patients more quickly and remember they are fighting to save children. Public funds are needed to help purchase new equipment and replace old equipment, which will improve the effectiveness and the facilities of the intensive care unit, which in turn save many young lives.

Dungarvan has a great opportunity to support this worthy cause. Why not visit Shaws Department Store on the afternoon of July 19 and bring the kids along as this will be a fun day out for all the family.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

COMMUNITY GAMES

We are proud to record the wins of the members of Clashmore-Kinsalebeg Community Games at the county finals in Lismore. Each child proudly represented the red and green and the results are as follows — Boys U-10 60m: Joseph Keogh 3rd; Girls U-10 100m: Linda Guilly 1st; Boys U-16 100m: Hughie McGrath 2nd; Boys U-17 100m: Robert Walsh 1st; Girls U-14 short putt: Ciara Griffin 2nd; Girls long puck, U-14: Ann Marie Casey 1st; Boys U-14 long jump: Kevin O'Rourke 3rd; Boys U-14 100m relay: 1st (Mossie Keogh, Sean Sheehan, Michael Costin, Michael Baker); Boys U-17 4 x 100 relay: 2nd (Robert Walsh, Gordon Troy, Eoin O'Rourke, Hughie McGrath).

This weekend our U-10 and U-14 draughts team accompanied by supporters will represent Waterford in the Munster finals in Limerick. The teams consist of: Under 10, Deirdre Curran, Cian Roche, Gerard O'Rourke, Patrick Troy, Shane Maher, Maura Lombard, Anthony Dunne. Under 14, Kevin O'Rourke, Fiona O'Rourke, Jacqueline Veale, Celine O'Malley, Eric Trihy, Sandra Lenane, Sharon Walsh.

IN HOSPITAL

Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Mrs. Nell Murphy, Coolboa, Clashmore presently in hospital. Continued good wishes for a speedy recovery to Mrs. Rita Nugent now home from hospital.

WEST WATERFORD HUNT

If hunting is to survive in this area, the West Waterford Hunt have many major decisions to make in order to ensure its future.

A special meeting of all interested members was held on Wednesday night, July 5th at Ballyrafter House Hotel, Lismore. The main facts put to the meeting were as follows: After the closure of the present kennels in April 1990, Dungarvan wish to form their own kennels, and an amalgamation of Waterford and West Waterford Hunts was proposed. This will be discussed with the Waterfords; A suitable site to be found on which kennels will be built before April 1990.

Finance for this project is expected to amount to about £30,000. £15,000 of this to be funded by the West Waterfords.

Interested members are asked to contribute in every way to make this project a success.

FISHERMEN PROTEST

Driftnet fishermen from West Waterford and East Cork made their first step forward to highlight the Government's continuing refusal to legalise monofilament nets by blocking traffic for three-quarters of an hour on Youghal Bridge last Thursday. Monofilament nets can be purchased legally and V.A.T. is paid to the government on these nets, yet fishermen are prosecuted for using them. If the use of a legal length of monofilament net within the fishing licence laws is not allowed what future is there for these men, many of whom have borrowed for boats and equipment. If some major changes are not made by the Government, fishermen, some presently living below the bread line, will be unable to exist. Is it the Government's plan to terminate traditional driftnet fishing on the Blackwater? Without monofilament nets this is the only option left to these fishermen.

SYMPATHY

Our deepest sympathy to John G. Barry and all the Barry family, Conna and to the Moloney family on the death of Dympna Barry (nee Moloney) which occurred at a young age, during the week. Both families are well known throughout West Waterford area and Dympna's death was a great shock to all who knew her.

CLONMEL SHOW

Best wishes to all the local entries at Clonmel Show this weekend. Among the riders representing the Army Equestrian School will be Capt. John Ledingham.

Dungarvan Youth Club Notes

MUCKROSS
Last weekend 26 of our members went to Muckross. Out of the 26 members who attended, one most of all must have enjoyed himself because Georgina came along. On the Friday night everyone got settled in. On Saturday morning everyone got up early and took an early morning look at Muckross House. When we got back to the hostel we had lunch, and at 2.30 we set off towards town and did a bit of shopping. The bus collected us at 5 o'clock and we headed up the mountain where photographs were taken of the lake and the mountains. The supper consisted of Major's super burgers. Edward Dee thought Major's super burgers were so nice that he had too many and got slightly sick, and Mandy Walsh felt the same. The few of us who cooked with Major that night felt as if we were cooking with Manuel. At 12 o'clock we set out on our midnight hike when little Annie Barry was the bravest of all.

Sunday morning the bus arrived at 12 o'clock and by that time we had the hostel cleaned and we were ready to go. We arrived back at the youth club at 4.30 and all agreed that they had a great weekend.

I would like to give special thanks to Georgina Simms and Susan Conway who helped out during that weekend, and we cannot forget Brian Kenneally, our bus driver who brought us up and back safely.

THE FRENCH EXCHANGE

This Friday the French will arrive in Cork at 2.30 p.m. We will be bringing up a bus to collect them and a few of our members will be going up to greet them. They should arrive at the Youth Club at about 3.30 p.m. or 4.00 p.m. We are looking for 8 houses for them and anyone interested would they please contact Brian Sheehan or Mary Cantwell. We would be very thankful for your co-operation. The students will attend at the Youth Club on Friday night, so we would like to see a big crowd present.

ARDMORE NOTES

CONGRATULATIONS

Belated good wishes to Una Connery and Hans Schmid on their recent wedding, on June 30. The bride was dressed in a beautiful, ballet length, wild silk and lace gown and the bridesmaids, Diane, Toni and Carol wore blue floral print ballet length dresses.

The groom's brother, Herbert, was bestman. Rev. Fr. Reid, C.C., officiated at the ceremony and the reception was held at Whitechurch House Hotel. The couple have now left for Germany and we wish them the best of luck and every happiness in all the years ahead.

COMING WEDDING

With all the weddings in the air it's a busy time in the church these days! Next to be wed is Patricia O'Brien, daughter of Mrs. Phil O'Brien, Lower Curragh, Ardmore, to Jim Meaney of Cork. Jim played many soccer games with Ardmore and is quite at home here now. The wedding will take place on Saturday, July 15 at 2.30 p.m. at St. Declan's Church, Ardmore. Reception will follow at Garryvoe Hotel, Castlemartyr. Best wishes for the day and all days to follow.

SWIMMING LESSONS

Swimming lessons have commenced again this year starting this week and until Saturday, July 15. The Irish Water Safety Association runs these classes, and at £3 a person, it is well worth sending them. Next lessons start August 7-12.

LOCAL FISHERMEN'S PROTEST

Fishermen from the locality are today (Wednesday) protesting outside the Dail, for a fairer fishing law to be passed. Many of these men have families to feed and depend on fishing to accomplish this. If the T.D.'s had to live on a fisherman's 'wage' for a week, maybe they would understand how the men feel. They had quite a lot of support on Youghal Bridge last Thursday and let's hope the support grows. Good luck with this one lads!

TIDY TOWNS

The Chairman and Committee of the Ardmore Tidy Towns are most grateful for the wonderfully generous response to their recent Church Gate collection. The support of both the visitors and the people of Ardmore is most appreciated — such generous support is what helps to keep the show on the road.

ARDMORE LADIES FOOTBALL

Last Wednesday evening saw us play our first league match which was against Touraneena. Some fine football was played by both sides but it was obvious in the second half that we still lacked in training, which means a full team training together every night. We were thus lucky to get away with a draw. This Wednesday evening (July 12) on the Ardmore pitch at 7 p.m., we play Old Parish in the second game of the league. All supporters welcome!

GRANGE/ARDMORE COMMUNITY GAMES

The last round up of the Community Games, at county level, took place last Saturday morning in Waterford Glass Swimming Pool. We had four swimmers representing us:

David Curran competed in the boys U-12, but unfortunately he lost his goggles as he entered the water and could not continue; Tom Curran in the U-14's took 1st place in the breaststroke, which gains him a place in Mosney for the finals which take place in August 25-27. We wish him the best of luck. He also took the silver in the freestyle and silver in the backstroke. Kevin Hickey also took part in the backstroke, and although he did very well, decided one length was enough for him. John Seaward took part in the U-16, (two years under his age group), and brought home a silver and bronze medal. Well done to all.

ARDMORE G.A.A. NOTES

I.F.C. — Ardmore lost a vital game in this championship when going under to the Shamrocks last Saturday week. It was a game we could have won, but after dominating the first half we failed to get scores and so it looks like the end of the road for us as far as this championship is concerned.

Training — Training continues for our hurlers, who have reached the Western final in the junior (B) championship. Our opponents will be the winners of Kilrossanty and Tourin who meet in the semi-final.

U-14 Football — On Saturday next, in Walsh Park, our U-14 team contest the County final against Passage. We wish the lads the best, and whatever the result, they have done very well this year.

For details of bus contact — P. Foley.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

This coming week-end Dungarvan will play host to five Brass Bands including the town's own Band in what has been described by the promoters, the Dungarvan Town Traders Association, as a Mass Brass Band Extravaganza. The photo for our "Remembering Other Days" series this week is, in the circumstances, of more than passing interest, as it shows the Dungarvan Brass Band as it was in the year 1900. While the personnel of the Band were not individually identified to us, the members included: Paddy Joe and Willie Meade; Jim Moloney, Springmount, who was a breadvan driver; James Nalen; James ("Crookey") Nagle; two Fitzgeralds, who were weavers living in Fair Lane (Wolfe Tone Road); Tommy and Michael McCarthy; Willie Brien, Glenbeg (who worked at a shop called Hudson's); Mary Crean's son (she had a lodging house in Blackpool — Upr. O'Connell Street); Jim Dunne; Patrick Whelan; Johnny Dunne and Bandmaster McAllister.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

TROOP MEETING

This week's meeting had an outdoor flavour. While subs were being collected the scouts revised the safety rules for swimming and other water activities.

We then proceeded to the field for a game of Aussie Rules Football organised by Ciaran Walsh. In this game John Paul Mills and David Considine starred. After the football everyone proceeded to the Cove for a swim. The majority of the scouts went into the water but there were a few afraid to get wet (isn't that right Neil and Martin). The water was warm and some of the boys stayed swimming for almost an hour. It was then back to the den for notices and prayers.

GENERAL

Last weekend Scoutleader Ray Moore along with Junior Asst. Alan Ryan and

P.L. Micheal Sheehan headed east to Bunclody to put the final touches and sort out the final details for this year's annual camp to Bunclody (July 30 - August 10). Mass times, medical and the swimming pool were just three items sorted out.

Our Thursday night work is also geared towards camp lately with Paddy Whelan working overtime in his quest to sort out the patrol boxes while Q.M. John Paul Cosgrave is confident about the conditions of the tents and equipment.

And still on camp all scouts are reminded to be in full uniform for next Saturday night's meeting as we will be taking the patrol photos for this year's camp booklet.

Recently as part of his gardener merit badge Mossie Kieth put some colour into the field at the den when he planted a flower bed. We're glad to report things are really "blossoming."

Junior Leader Alan Ryan donned dickie bow and tuxedo on Thursday last for his Graduation Dinner — our reporters tell us he looked really spiffing.

Our ever vigilant scouts tell us they heard a request for the troop on Radio 2 last weekend from the Strawberry Fair in Ennis-corthy. We ask ourselves is this why our Bunclody travellers were late for their troop meeting — were they indulging in the strawberry and cream?

PARADE

All scouts, venturers and leaders are reminded to be at the den this Friday night at 7.10 p.m. in full uniform for our July Church Parade.

IFA On Wrong Channel To Enter Sheep Dipping Committee

When an application from James Coughlan, Chairman, Co. Waterford IFA Sheep Committee seeking representation on the County Sheep Dipping Committee came before the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held in Dungarvan last Monday, a number of members held that the application had not come in the proper manner.

Cllr. B. Kyne thought that the IFA had gone about the situation in a negative way while Cllr. W. McDonnell who is Chairman of the Sheep Dipping Committee said that the problem centred about the need for the Committee to hold any meetings at all.

On a previous occasion he said that members of the Sheep Breeders Association held there was no need for such meetings. "I feel", said Cllr. McDonnell, "that there is a great need and all we have is one or two meetings in a year. People have come in, in the past objecting to the progress we are trying to make to protect and help sheep owners in the county. We don't want any more coming in to raise similar objections but if the IFA are serious about joining the Co. Sheep Dipping Committee, then I think the best thing for them to do is to contact their local Cllrs."

The Chairman, Cllr. M. Queally, said that the IFA should contact the Chairman of the Sheep Dipping Committee if they wished to pursue the matter and this was then agreed.

Jail Sentence In Absentia For Youghal Man

An Irish Army gunner was sent to prison last Friday for eight months. The sentence was handed down at Youghal Court by District Justice W. F. O'Connell to Frank Yellop, a native of Youghal but with an address at 1 Churchfield Gardens, Gurranebraher, Cork.

Yellop was not present in court, however, to hear the sentence, and District Justice O'Connell fixed recognisances in the event of an appeal.

The defendant had pleaded guilty at a previous court to stealing a television and video recorder valued £800 the property of Eddie Irwin, North Main Street, Youghal, on a date unknown between November 13, 1987 and November 22, 1988.

The court heard then that Yellop obtained the television and video on a rental agreement. However, after paying some monthly instalments he ceased the payments and the property had not been seen since. Yellop stated that he didn't know what had happened to it.

The case was adjourned to enable Yellop pay compensation, but Inspector Pat Malone told District Justice O'Connell that nothing had been paid by him.

"He says he has no money but that he will try to arrange to get it," said Garda Jack Gaine.

District Justice O'Connell said Yellop had turned his back on the opportunity given to him by the court. He sentenced him to eight months imprisonment and fixed recognisances in the event of an appeal.

WEST WATERFORD HUNT

PONY CLUB

On Tuesday last at the first rally of our pony club which was held at Tourtane House, Lismore. the members enjoyed some very beneficial instruction during the morning session and after lunch the pony games organised by H. Chavasse proved very popular with everyone.

The biggest surprise of the day came when the competitors were awarded rosettes for their achievements in their games.

On this Thursday a rally will be held at Peter Magner's, Lismore. On July 22, there will be an outing to the Jnr. H. T. Championships at Ballindenisk and a cross country walk.

Some members attended the Regional Mounted Games at Cork Showgrounds on Tuesday, July 11th.

AGLISH COMMUNITY NEWS

On Friday night last a very enjoyable night was held in the Village Inn when Paula Dee was crowned Aglish Queen. Paula will be going to the Ardree Hotel, Waterford, for the choosing of a rose to represent Waterford in the Rose of Tralee in 1990.

Congratulations to Paula and also to runners-up Eva Meegan (2nd) and Esther Ware (3rd).

MACRA NA FEIRME

Ballinameela Macra will hold a field evening at Whitechurch House Hotel next Sunday evening, admission is free, and there will be several side shows including childrens sports and adult tug-o-war, etc.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Tom and Nuala Power on the birth of their baby boy. Nuala is our local school teacher.

Congratulations also to Catherine, eldest daughter of Terry and Nancy O'Brien Kilmolash on her recent engagement to Tom Cummins of Stradbally.

Congratulations to Brendan O'Grady who celebrates his 21st birthday this week.

BEST OF LUCK

Best of luck to St. Olivers who will play the County final on Saturday next, July 15.

Best of luck to Liam Fen-ton who won a scholarship to Ring College. He won the scholarship at a combaltas competition at Fleadh Cheol in Cappoquin recently.

Congrats also to Aileen O'Mahony, Dromore, who is at present on an Irish course in Ring College and to Ned Meskill, who is taking part in an agriculture course at Kildalton College in Co. Kilkenny. Best of luck to all.

NEW CHOIR

A new adult choir has been formed in Ballinameela under the direction of Michael Culloo. The choir will sing during Mass every Saturday night. New members are always welcome.

DEATH

It is with deep sorrow and regret we record the death of Mr. John O'Brien, a native of Kereen, which sad event took place recently. To his relatives and friends we tender our deep sympathy.

VILLIERSTOWN

On holidays from U.S.A. are Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft, Ray Treacy and sons; from England Marie and James O'Brien; Tony and Mrs. Flipinell, Eddie and Phyllis Stiers. We wish them all a very pleasant time.

Congratulations to Master Eamonn Mernin on qualifying for the Community Games finals in Butlins.

Multiple Car Crash Lands Youghal Man In Court

A motorist whose car crashed into four parked vehicles pleaded guilty at Youghal District Court last Friday to driving with excess alcohol.

Patrick Landers, Cherry-mount, Youghal, also pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of careless driving on the same occasion at North Main Street, Youghal, on March 11.

Mr. P. Lavan, solicitor, said a tyre blew out on the defendant's car and it went out of control on him.

For driving with excess alcohol, Landers was fined £100, endorsed, and disqualified from driving for 12 months. He was fined £50 with a second endorsement for careless driving.

Inspector Pat Malone prosecuted.

TALLOW NOTES

MISS JOSIE HOLLAND, TALLOW R.I.P.

Death has removed from Tallow Town the last surviving member of an old family there. She was Josie Holland, daughter of the late Jackie and Nelly Holland, New Street. A well known, quiet and popular resident of the town her demise is regretted very much there and our sympathy is extended to her nephews and nieces, relative and friends. She was interred in Tallow Cemetery. Ar dheis laimh De go raibh a h-anam.

MRS. DYPNA BARRY, CARRIGMORE, CONNA R.I.P.

An aura of deep sorrow pervaded the whole countryside of East Cork and West Waterford when the news of the death, at the Bon Secour Hospital, Cork of Mrs. Dympna Barry, Carrigmore, spread around last Wednesday. A mere 27 years, wife of John G. and mother of 2-year-old Stephen, Dympna in her few short years there endeared herself to the people of the parish, showing keen interest in all its activities, a characteristic, undeniably she brought with her as a member of the Moloney family of Knockanore prior to her marriage and where she was a dedicated member in all aspects of the community life there. It was a measure of the esteem in which she was held that brought the overflowing concourse to St. Catherine's Church, Conna, on both occasions and as a hushed and grieved congregation listened to Fr. Kelleher's eulogy during the Requiem Mass, a real breath of hope and encouragement seemed to touch everyone present in his quotation of the Lord's words "Let not your hearts be troubled, be not afraid."

After Mass the cortege with the coffin draped in the Catherine's and Shamrock's colours wended its way to Conna's new cemetery and Dympna's resting place where Fr. Kelleher, P.P., Conna and Fr. Magnier, C.C., Knockanore, recited the final prayers joined by Fr. Mulcahy, P.P., Knockanore, Fr. Meehan, C.C., Clashmore, Fr. Supple, P.P., England, Fr. Declan Hennessey, C.C., Cobh, Fr. Gerard Condon, Kilmacow, Fr. Martin O'Keeffe, England, Fr. Buckley, C.C., Ballynoe, Fr. Stritch.

As a tribute to the Barry and Moloney families involvement in G.A.A. affairs the flags flew at half mast in the pitches of Knockanore and Ballynoe, and again we wish to join with all in offering our sincere and heartfelt sympathy to her husband John G. Barry; son Stephen; parents Garry and Mary Moloney; sisters Anne and Angela; brothers William and Kevin; uncles; aunts; nieces; nephews; father-in-law; mother-in-law; brothers-in-law; sisters-in-law; relatives and friends.

A guard of honour was formed also at the entrance to the Church by the members of St. Catherine's and Shamrock's G.A.A. Clubs.

Jerry Mellerick presided at the organ during Mass and some very appropriate hymns were rendered by the choir supported by the well known singer Sean O Se and daughter on violin whose beautiful rendition of "Ag Criost An Siol" agus "A Ri An Domhnaigh" was appreciated.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.

Minor Hurling Championship — Cloyne 5-7; St. Catherine's 3-10 — Catherine's minus a couple of their regular players met Cloyne last Tuesday evening at Dungourney in this first round decider. Closely contested from the start it was an interesting game to watch and Cloyne who proved to be the sharper in the second quarter led at half-time by 2-6 to 1-5.

A vast improvement was witnessed in the Catherine's team in the second half and at the end of the third quarter they had a five point advantage. A Cloyne resurgence however helped to reduce the arrears for them and in an exciting finish Catherine's had to concede victory to the southern boys.

Catherine's lined as follows — Jim O'Connell, Patrick Sheehan, Pat Fitzgerald, Liam Sheehan, Alan Bryan (capt), Pat Lucey, Maurice Spillane, James Sheehan, Paddy Higgins, David Dineen, Gerard Morrisson. Sub. — Kevin Hayes for Liam Sheehan. Ref. — Tommy Geary.

"B" Grade Football Championship — In this competition St. Catherine's will play Carrigtwohill at Dungourney on Thursday, July 20, and on that evening at Ballynoe, Castlelyons will play Bride Rovers in the County B grade football championship.

Senior Hurling Challenge At Kilworth — St. Catherine 3-14; New Market-On-Fergus (Clare) 2-9 — This inter-county hurling challenge produced a stylish and thrilling game at the Kilworth pitch last Sunday.

Catherine's just led by 1-5 to 1-3 at the break and both teams hurling with great commitment gave a great exhibition of the code. Eventually Catherine's broke away and registered a few great scores to win on the above score after a most entertaining game.

Catherine's team was — W. Murphy, M. Hartnett, P. J. Lonergan, J. Spillane, E. Hartnett, C. Casey, S. Neville, P. Clancy, S. Buckley, J. Mangan, B. O'Regan, P. Donoghue, C. Clancy, P. O'Sullivan, M. Mellerick. Sub. used — B. Neville. Ref. — Jim McCarthy, Kilworth.

TALLOW G.A.A.

NOTES

S.H.C. — Tallow 2-3; Dunhill 2-17 — The scoreline more or less tells the story of this senior hurling match played in Dungarvan on Sunday last. Dunhill totally dominated from start to finish but for a brief period in the second half when Tallow missed three goals, but Dunhill lifted the siege and scored a break-away goal and ran out easy winners.

On Sunday next we're back in Dungarvan against Roanmore and a vast improvement from last Sunday will be needed or we will be staring relegation in the face.

The team that did duty on Sunday last was Martin Murphy, Michael T. Cunningham, Jim O'Donoghue, Frankie Ryan, Ger Sice, Michael Beecher (1-0), Tomas McCarthy, Dermot Henley (1-0), Mickey Curley (0-1), Connie Curley (0-2), Steve Curley, Brian Henley, Bart O'Donoghue, Pat Murphy (capt), Con Ryan. Subs. — Pat Sheehan for Pat Murphy (inj); Trevor Sheehan for Pat Sheehan (inj).

Fixtures: — Tallow v. Dungarvan on Wednesday night in Cappoquin at 7.30 p.m.; S.H. — Tallow v. Roanmore on Sunday next in Dungarvan at 2 p.m.

Draw — Tickets are on sale for the Piltown G.A.A. Draw and can be had from Danny Cunningham.

A vote of sympathy is extended to the Moloney family, Knockanore and the Barry family, Conna, on their recent sad bereavement.

Horse Show Passes For Dairy Farmers

Over 45,000 dairy farmers and their families will have an opportunity to attend this year's Kerrygold Dublin Horse Show at half-price. Creameries throughout Ireland have already received the special passes which will be sent to farmers with their milk cheques over the coming weeks.

The passes will enable dairy farmers and their families to attend the show on any day of their choice from 8th - 12th August inclusive. Some creameries have begun making arrangements for special busses to bring their members to the show.

Munster Junior Camogie Semi-Final Replay

WATERFORD 2-13; CLARE 5-3 (after extra time)

This was the final score at the end of a most exciting game of camogie, with Waterford giving one of the best displays seen in a long time in the blue and white jerseys. They played with great courage and determination throughout and were unlucky to have to go to the extra time not to mind winning by the narrowest of margins.

From the throw-in Waterford were on top and were three points up before Clare got their first. Ardkeen's Eilie Power showed some great skill in this half in putting over some lovely points. About mid-way through the half, Niamh McMahon got a lovely goal, but no sooner was the ball in the net than Clare scored a goal at the other end. This left the score at 1-9 to 1-2 in Waterford's favour, and paved the way for a thrilling second half as Clare would now have the aid of the breeze.

Waterford were first to score in the second half with a point. But Clare were now getting into their stride and within a matter of minutes had notched up two fine goals. This left them only two points behind and everything to play for. The pressure was really on Waterford now. They got a point to put them three points up. Lismore's Mary Murphy brought off some spectacular saves during this time, while club-mate Catriona Caples and Gaultier's Siobhan Coughlan guarded her well. Waterford seemed to have done what they had failed to do in the first game, and that was to finish off Clare. But then they goaled and a couple of minutes later the final whistle went leaving the teams level again at the end of normal time, Waterford 1-11, Clare 4-2. And so we were into extra time.

In the first ten minutes Waterford got a point. Shortly after this, they were awarded a close-in free. Orla Flynn struck it low and Lismore team-mate Patricia Bolger got a vital touch to finish it up in the net. Just before the whistle blew for half-time, Clare converted a point.

On the resumption, Waterford scored a point when a pass-in from Anne-Marie O'Gorman of Lismore to Patricia Bolger (Lismore) found her fouled straight in front of the posts. Orla Flynn (Lismore) duly converted and this was to prove crucial as an insurance point because minutes later Clare hit back with their fifth goal of the game. Luckily for Waterford time ran out on them. Final score, Waterford 2-13, Clare 5-3.

Special mention must go to referee Rose Desmond of Cork on her fine handling of the game. It was a fine display by both players and referees present. Tramore G.A.A. club must also be congratulated on having things in order for a game of this importance.

Finally, we wish the girls the best of luck in the Munster Final against Cork on Sunday week.

Panel: M. Murphy, S. Sullivan, E. O'Toole (0-1), C. Caples, O. Flynn (capt. 0-5), G. Coughlan, C. Hutchinson, P. Bolger (1-2), N. McMahon (1-1), E. Power (0-4), C. Whitty, E. O'Shea, M. English, A. M. O'Gorman, G. Kennedy, A. Piper, M. Sullivan.

CAUSEWAY TENNIS CLUB NOTES

Big news this week is the Causeway Senior Open Competition which attracted quite a large entry despite being overshadowed by the Kilkenny Open Week. We were delighted with the interest shown by so many of our newer members. The committee are appreciative of the help given by Suzanne Dalton and Theresa Keane in the running of the tournament. Finals day on Saturday was brought to a fitting climax with a barbecue held in Ballinacourty Pier which eventually sought the higher temperature of the Gold Coast.

We would like to thank our generous sponsors, Comeragh Oil, Ballymacarbry; J.R.'s, Dungarvan, and Michael and Lena Walsh, Coolnagour, for the prizes won by the following.

RESULTS

Division 1 — Men's Singles, sponsors Michael and Lena Walsh, winner: John Ryan; runner-up: Michael Drummy. Men's Doubles, winners: Lar Cummins, John Ryan; runners-up: Ml. Drummy, David Walsh. Ladies Doubles, winners: Cora Kirwan, Margaret Cusack; runners-up: Teresa Keane, Ann Brennan. Mixed Doubles, winners: Ger, Margaret Cusack; runners-up: Lar, Majella Cummins.

Division 2 — Men's Singles, winner: Declan O'Keefe; runner-up: Liam Moore. Ladies Singles, winner: Ann O'Grada; runner-up: Ann Bailey. Men's Doubles, winners: Austin Kiely, Liam Moore; runners-up: Joe Power, Tony Keevers. Ladies Doubles, winners: Rita Moore, Ann O'Grada; runners-up: Bernadette Sheridan, Carmel Cummins. Mixed Doubles, winners: Liam Moore, Cora Cooney; runners-up: John Moran, Ann O'Grada.

SUNSHINE CUP

With 3 subs on our U-16 team on Sunday, we were delighted to defeat our opponents, Lr. Aghada. Patrick, Kieran and Rachel won in 2 sets while Sarah Dalton and Cathy O'Mahoney battled against Caroline and Clare O'Flynn. Entering into the mixed with just one victory needed, Rachel and Patrick were first to oblige us but we ended by winning all 3 matches giving us an overall score of 7-2.

Team: Patrick Veale, Kieran Higgins (sub for Gerard McCarthy), Enda Donnelly (sub for Peter Foley), Rachel Byrne, Cathy O'Mahoney, Sarah Dalton.

SUMMER CUP

An U-18 team travelled to Bishopstown and to defeat despite a good match. Team: David Cliffe, Judy O'Brien, Pat O'Brien, Aisling Fennell, Stephen Morrissey, Emma Fleming.

Congratulations to Rachel Byrne on her win in the U-14 singles in Rushbrooke Junior Open Week. This matches her win in the U-12 singles in the same competition. Other Causeway participants were Enda Donnelly, put out in the quarter finals, and Kieran Higgins, beaten semi-finalist and runner-up in the U-14 boys doubles with partner Alan Brogan.

Good luck to all who are taking part in Tramore and Sundays Well this week. Plenty of practice for our own Junior Open starting next week.

Official Comment By County Board On Munster S.H. Final

The following statement was issued by the County Board G.A.A. after its meeting on Tuesday night last in Dungarvan:

"Waterford County Board at its monthly meeting considered our team's performance in the recent Munster Final and regret the actions of a small minority of our team for their indiscipline during the game. Conduct such as this cannot be condoned and it is incumbent on us to ensure that such behaviour shall not occur again.

"Further comment by us on this matter of discipline at this juncture would be inappropriate, until such time as the Provincial Council has dealt with the referee's report of the game.

"However it becomes incumbent at this point to refute accusations levelled by certain members of the media against our team manager and mentors, that it was official policy to use "strong arm tactics" against Tipperary. At no stage, either before, during or at the interval were such matters contemplated or expounded by team management or others, and it is a source of genuine disappointment that the proud reputation of Waterford hurling should be sullied in this way.

"We congratulate again, Tipperary on their victory and wish them well in the All-Ireland series".

KILL NOTES

KILL G.A.A. NOTES

Last weekend we were to play Mt. Sion in junior football but it was postponed.

Our next outing will be on the 23rd against St. Mollerans and training is now in progress for this match.

ST. MARYS

The minor hurling championship resumes this Friday evening with a match against Mt. Sion in Dunhill.

Meanwhile our U-16 hurlers got a walkover from Ferrybank last Friday night and are now in the semi-final of this event.

In the U-11 hurling semi-final we were beaten well by a strong Ballyduff team, as we were missing some of our best players due to holiday arrangements. Final score — Ballyduff 12-2; St. Marys 1-1.

ON HOLIDAYS

On holidays at the moment are Mr. and Mrs. George Harris, formerly of the New Houses, Kill. Wishing them a most enjoyable holiday.

BIG DISCO

The big disco in which Mike Moloney, 2FM, D.J. was host, was a great success. Coming soon will be another 2FM D.J. in two weeks time.

DOG NIGHT

On July 29, the community centre will hold a dog night in Kilcohan Park, in aid of funds for the centre. Tickets are now on sale and we hope you will contribute to it, as it is Fr. Condon's last fundraising venture with the parish.

SYMPATHY

We extend our deepest sympathy to the O'Donnell family, St. Monica's Tce., Abbeyside on the recent death of Mick. His son Vinnie is a popular schoolboy referee and he also donned the blue jersey for Liam Curtin's outfit some seasons ago.

YANKEE DOODLE

No winner last week. Next week's prize £220. Nothing to report on the playing front at the moment as our players enjoy a well deserved break but no such luck for groundsman Pat Walsh as he is busy getting the pitch in order for next season. Extensive re-sodding has been carried out in both goalmouths and the centre circle to ensure that the playing surface is of the same high quality as it has been for some time. Keep up the good work Pat.

Review Of The Season

Part 5

Cup final fever gripped the town of Dungarvan the week prior to the F.A.I. Cup Final against Milford. Wherever one went they were caught up in the tremendous atmosphere and all the local business people did their bit by supplying the team with kit bags, blazers and pants, footballs and sponsorship money.

The entire squad were given a tremendous send off in the clubhouse on the Thursday prior to the big game. The blue and white army descended on Ozier Park on Sunday, 23 April and they lent colour and excitement and fun to the occasion. The fans looked like being rewarded with a victory following Colum Flynn's 11th min. goal but Milford equalised in the last minute to force extra time. There was no further scoring and Dungarvan were left to rue what might have been and faced a long trip to Letterkenny the following week.

The team and several supporters left Kilrush Park on Friday for the trip to Donegal and arrived in Bundoran after a nine hour journey where they had an overnight stop. The party travelled into Letterkenny on the Saturday morning and had a pre-match meal in the Mount Errigal Hotel before arriving in Leckview Park. With Ray Flynn having recovered from the injury sustained in the drawn game team managers John Walsh and Kealan O'Neill decided to move him back into midfield with Darren Wyse moving up front. Dungarvan had a dream start when B. Kirwan's free-kick was flicked on by Liam Barron into the path of Ray Flynn who hammered in the opening goal after just 47 secs. J. Shanahan's free-kick struck the crossbar before being headed in by Liam Barron to make it 2-0 in the 28th min. Dungarvan were coasting to victory when a blatant handball by D. Sheridan enabled him to reduce the deficit with 5 mins. remaining. However a fine tackle by C. Flynn won the ball for K. Hallahan who sealed the victory with a splendid chip.

The Dungarvan squad and supporters celebrated in fine style and stopped off in the "Sally Gardens" on the road home. It was a tired but happy group that arrived back in Dungarvan on Sunday morning. The team were guests at a Mass celebrated by Fr. Griffin on Sunday night before being given a wonderful reception when they had a victory parade through the town. A week of celebrating followed at various centres and in Kilmacthomas and the names that go into the history books are Barry McGrath, Bryan Kirwan, John Shanahan, Brian Whelan, John Walsh, Kieran Hallahan, Ger Leahy, Darren Wyse, Colum Flynn, Liam Barron, Ray Flynn, Sean Duggan, David Walsh, Thomas Kenneally, John Walsh, Kealan O'Neill and Anselm Hayes.

A huge crowd turned up in Kilrush Park the following Sunday to greet the new All-Ireland champions and they turned in a fine display as an unchanged line up beat Villa 4-0 in the Waterford Cup. The goal scorers were Ray Flynn (2), Liam Barron and John Shanahan.

The league title was clinched the following week in front of another huge crowd. Another unchanged team destroyed Johnville 6-0 with goals from L. Barron (2), D. Wyse, J. Shanahan, R. Flynn and K. Hallahan.

The Blues clinched their third trophy in nineteen days when they beat Villa by a whopping 9-0 in the area final of the Munster Cup. Villa had no answer as the Blues fired on all cylinders and were in no way flattered by the final score of 9-0 with C. Flynn (2), D. Wyse (2), L. Barron (2), R. Flynn, J. Walsh and T. Kenneally grabbing the goals.

Next week: the final part.

Ballinroad A.F.C. Notes

The annual general meeting of Ballinroad A.F.C. was held in Ballinroad Parish Hall on Wednesday evening of last week. The meeting was fairly well attended but as per usual a large number of players were absent.

In his report Secretary Pat Keane gave a detailed and truthfull account of the way our club and committee worked during the past season.

Three outgoing officers Chairman Michael Fraher, Secretary Pat Keane and Treasurer Jim Ryan did not seek re-election to their respective posts and were replaced by Vincent Tobin, James Veale and Mike Veale.

Many tributes were paid to Pat Keane for his outstanding contribution to the club over many years as Secretary. Since development work was started on our new playing pitch in the spring of '88 Pat has been the guiding light in getting the field ready for the coming season. This pitch has been the subject of much favourable comment even from people outside of football and this is all due to Pat Keane and his small group of committed workers.

With the new season coming up shortly registration forms are available from team managers Micheal Power and Mike Veale. We have entered a second adult team this season so the club would welcome new players who will give commitment to Ballinroad.

We have entered an U-12 and U-14 schoolboys team and here I would like to see more interest shown to three young lads by the adult members of the club as these lads are our hope for the future of football in the Ballinroad area. I would appeal to parents of young lads to come and visit our pitch and see for yourselves the facilities we have to offer. The work that has been done in the laying out of the pitch up to now has cost in the region of £13,000 which was collected through our involvement in the Seaview Co-op Draw and St. Laurence's Hall Committee Draw. We have not received any grants towards this development and as of now all the work that has been done has been paid for. I would like to thank sincerely all those people who subscribed to our various financial ventures.

The following are the officers who will run the club for the coming season.

Chairman — Vincent Tobin; Vice-Chairman — Michael Fraher; Hon. Secretary — James Veale; Asst. Secretary — Pat Keane; Treasurer — Mick Veale; Registrar — James Veale; Committee — Michael Power, Tony Butler, Ber Burke, Frankie Ryan, John Reynolds. Div. 3 (A) Manager — Mike Veale; Div. 4 Manager — Ml. Power.

Registration fee — £20; Youth player — £6; Schoolboys — £3.

Football is a game that has given us many hours of enjoyment since our club was founded back in 1971 but alas we have only won one competition in over 17 years. Now that we have a playing pitch that ranks with the best in the country, an all out effort must be made to win a league competition this coming season so I would ask players, management and supporters in the season ahead to make a genuine effort to make the vital break through.

SYMPATHY

It is my sad duty on behalf of Ballinroad A.F.C. to offer our condolences to the family of the late Michael O'Donnell, Abbeyside, whose sad and untimely death shocked us all. Mick was a genuine sportsman who supported and loved all games.

PUB LEAGUE DRAW

A tremor of excitement and anticipation reverberated through many a local on Monday night, July 10th when the draw was announced for the annual Abbeyside A.F.C. Pub League.

Among the plum draws are the clashes of the Paddy Foley's A and C team in what promises to be a cracker. Radleys hope to parade recent signing Tom Cowming, no doubt hoping he'll "plonk" one in the Park House net.

this scribe last evening he could scarcely conceal his delight at the capture of no less than 3 inter county G.A.A. players. So the scene is set for another exciting competition.

Monday — 6.30: Park House v Radleys; (1) 7.45: Paddy Foley's (D) v Village Inn.

Tuesday — (2) 6.30: Ormonde v Shandon Arms (B); (3) 7.45: Gold Coast v Paddy Foley (B).

Wednesday — (4) 6.30: Shandon Arms (A) v Enterprise; (5) 7.45: Minnies v Ducey's.

Thursday — (6) 6.30: Paddy Foley's (A) v Paddy Foley's (C); (2nd round) 7.45: Anchor v Park House or Radley's.

Next round games — Sunday, 23rd July, 11.30 a.m., 6.30 p.m. and 7.45 p.m.; Sun. 11.30: 1 v 2; Sun. 6.30: 3 v 4; Sun. 7.45: 5 v 6.

Semi-finals: Tues., 25 July, 6.30 and 7.45. Final: Thurs., 7.00.

Holders Minnies have a tough looking task against a rejuvenated Ducey's outfit. Felix "stamina" Shields faces a late fitness test, but, fingers crossed he'll line out. Maurice Dee is quietly confident and talking to

Dungarvan Sea Angling Club

The major question that everyone is seeking an answer to is "Why is there such a gap between the 'Casey TV and Video' Competition and the next event, the 'Yoplait'". The answer is that there are other conflicting events and our own tidal situation. The committee also thought that it would be a break for anglers wishing to travel to other venues. Had we known that the weather was going to be so kind things might have been organised differently, cast your mind back to this time last year!

At the prizegiving on Sunday for the "Casey TV and Video" Competition outside the Moorings (isn't good weather a great boon), our chairman had to make special mention of Kevin Sandford, again. Twice this week Kevin has come to the club's rescue and in a most competent and caring manner. Which leads me to a little side road. When the juveniles and the scouts arrived back on the Quay on Thursday evening one of the troop leaders pronounced his gratitude by asking for "three cheers for the driver"! Nice one I thought and there should be more of it, and no doubt you will get my drift about Kevin Sandford.

Watch out for the Yoplait, we're expecting a large entry. Don't say you haven't been warned.

And now for this weeks results and an update on the leader boards.

ABBEYSIDE SHORE ANGLING NOTES

Our last competition for the Juvenile Master Angler 1989 was held at Ballyvoile on Saturday evening last and 19 anglers turned out including the brothers Adam and Ben Morgan (Wales) who with their parents are holidaying in the area. It was nailbiting stuff with young Craig Cowming going in to the final with the slimmest of leads. Would he be pipped? Or would he hold out? Well the fish decided it by staying away. So congratulations Craig, who is our club Master Angler Juvenile for 1989. The winner on the night was John Dwyer. Our thanks to David Walsh who sponsored the series and put up the very useful prizes.

Next Saturday night Clonea Strand is the venue for our summer midnight competition. Fishing starts at 10 p.m. and goes on till 1 a.m. on Sunday. If the weather holds it should be a very enjoyable night. I hear talk of some people taking along their barbeque equipment. I'll say no more.

Irish Water Services are the sponsors and I'm told that they have arranged for a coming tide. So bring a big lunch as you won't be home till morning—P.R.O.

Tallow's Plight Highlighted

DUNHILL 2-17; TALLOW 2-3

With emigration robbing Tallow of vital talent and their problems compounded by injuries to inter-county players Timmy Sheehan and Pat Murphy, the Bridesiders plight was clearly highlighted at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last when they crashed to lowly Dunhill by a staggering fourteen points in a poor senior hurling championship game.

Up to last Sunday Dunhill had no points on the league table so the result will provide a life line for them. In truth they could glean little satisfaction or encouragement from the victory against a side who must be finding it difficult to muster a team.

The first half on Sunday was completely dominated by Dunhill. Their goal from Joe O'Loughlin in the 12th minute helped them to a whopping 1-13 to 1-1 interval lead, Tallow's goal coming from Dermot Henley in the 17th minute.

Connie Curley pointed for Tallow shortly after the restart but Tom McGrath's goal for Dunhill put paid to any hopes of a Tallow revival.

Mick Beecher who moved to attack did goal for the Bridesiders in the 49th minute. The score was nothing more than a consolation for the Bridesiders as Dunhill shot over three further points to leave them emphatic 2-17 to 2-3 winners of a game which aroused little excitement among the sparse attendance.

Scorers: Dunhill — T. Casey 0-8; J. O'Loughlin and T. McGrath 1-1 each; S. Burns, T. Moore and P. Foran 0-2 each; P. Murray 0-1. Tallow — D. Henley 1-0; M. Beecher 1-0; C. Curley 0-2; M. Curley 0-1.

Dunhill — J. Power; J. Reidy, J. Murphy, W. Moore; J. Baldwin, L. Og Daniels, M. Cavanagh; P. Murray, S. Burns; J.

Browne, J. O'Loughlin, P. Foran; T. Casey, T. Moore, T. McGrath. Subs — J. Kinsella for T. Moore; P. Cavanagh for J. Browne.

Tallow — M. Murphy; F. Ryan, J. O'Donoghue, M. T. Cunningham; G. Sice, M. Beecher, T. McCarthy; M. Curley, D. Henley; C. Curley, S. Curley, B. Henley; C. Ryan, P. Murphy, B. O'Donoghue. Subs — P. Sheehan for P. Murphy; T. Sheehan for P. Sheehan.

Referee — J. Moore, Dungarvan.

HURLERS GO DOWN AGAIN

Whatever faint hopes we may still have entertained of getting into the final shake up for county senior hurling championship honours before last Sunday went completely out the window as a result of our nine point defeat by Portlaw at Dunhill.

The annoyance of the result is escalated by the stark fact that it is a game we could so very well have won. For half an hour we played dismally and in the final analysis paid the penalty.

However we opened the second half in splendid fashion and raced into the lead. But with everything to play for we again went off the boil and ended up suffering our third defeat on the trot.

MOUNT SION NEXT

From here on in our efforts in the senior hurling championship must centre around avoiding relegation.

On this Friday night at Fraher Field we take on the defending champions Mt. Sion (7.30) who sensationally lost to Passage last weekend.

This is another very difficult one for us, and in truth on current form we can hardly hope to arrest a losing sequence. But stranger things have happened in the championship in the past and we owe it to ourselves to give it a real go.

MINORS IN ACTION

After a drubbing from Lismore in their opening game our minor hurlers were in action against Tallow in Cappoquin on Wednesday night.

Quite frankly we are going through a very sticky patch at Under 18 level right now but hopefully better days lie ahead.

COACHING

In conjunction with Bord na n-Og we had coach Donncha O Domhnaill with us last week and he took in hand members of our Under 10 and 12 squads. The attendance could have been better but those who did attend will be the beneficiaries.

A sincere word of thanks to John Meehan, John McLoughlin, and Darrell Donnelly who helped in a supervisory capacity.

UNDER 12'S

The Under 12's made an unsuccessful start to the Bord na n-Og competition last Saturday when Abbey-side proved vastly superior to them. The Under 10's, although beaten, put up a much better show.

Practice continues every Saturday morning, and the Under 12's are next in action against Lismore at the Showgrounds next Monday night at 8 o'clock.

UNDER 16'S

The Under 16 hurlers are in full training for the championship which is just around the corner.

We travelled to Mt. Sion last weekend for what, unfortunately, turned out to be a less than friendly challenge, but the experience will have done the boys good.

On Monday night last we played St. Patrick's in the first leg of the Meladon Cup (Under 16 hurling) with the second leg due to be played in the very near future.

MEETING

The executive met last Wednesday night and a lot of important matters were dealt with.

These regular meetings keep everyone on their toes and ensure the smooth administrative running of the club.

Stradbally G.A.A. Notes

IMPORTANT WIN

Our senior footballers had an important win over Butlerstown in the championship played in Kilmacthomas last weekend on the score 1-11 to 1-3. This was a very important win, and certainly the team stepped up considerably on their recent form, even though Butlerstown should have been a lot closer and had some goals at their mercy. But it's what goes on the scoreboard that counts in the end. This win moves us up the table and sets us up for the final run-in. With three games to go, and with the return of Eoin Phelan, James Keane and Paul Mulaney plus Fintan O'Brien back to full fitness things should start to come right. Also Conor O'Brien played last weekend despite his hand injury so it's all to play for yet.

REDS v. COUNTY CHAMPIONS

On Saturday evening week, July 22, our senior footballers play county champions Kilrossanty in the championship in Dungarvan at 7 p.m. There is always a great build-up for what is called "the big one" in Waterford football. Kilrossanty are certainly going great guns — winning all their games and must be favourites for this derby.

HURLERS v.

FOURMILEWATER
On Saturday evening

next, July 15, our intermediate hurlers play Fourmilewater in the Western championship in Colligan at 7.0 p.m. This will be a most difficult game to win. With Fourmilewater strongly fancied to win the title, the red's will have it all to do here. They will probably be breaking ground at the Colligan venue with their first hurling championship game!

DEEPEST SYMPATHY

The club would like to express its deepest sympathy to Mrs. Bernie Walker and her family on the death of her mother which occurred last week. May she rest in peace.

SOCIAL CENTRE ACTIVITIES

On this Thursday evening, July 13, a meeting of the club takes place at 9 p.m., particularly to deal with the Piltown tickets, so please return same. On Friday evening, July 14, it's the turn of the Whist Card game at 8.15 p.m. with lots of new prizes. Then on Sunday night next, July 16, it's the turn of Deise Sound to provide the music for members and friends.

GOOD RECOVERY

All concerned were glad to see our young player Laurence Walsh out and about again, after his recent injury. The club now await the referee's report from the Rathcormack club arising out of this incident.

FIELD WELL PREPARED

For last Sunday's championship game our playing pitch was very well prepared plus well staffed for the occasion. Credit must go to Willie O'Brien and Michael Curran plus their helpers for maintaining such high standards. Our club Chairman, Tom Cunningham refereed the game, which resulted in a win for Ballinacourty.

ALO ONLY REMAINING LINK

For last week's championship game Alo Curran remained the only link going back to '72 and certainly he is still going strong and a great leader for the younger players.

Also trainer/coach, Sean Ahearne is still the man that is bringing along the younger players for which he deserves great credit. It was most pleasing to see young Pat Dunphy making his first championship appearance — and surely he's there to stay for years to come! It certainly shows that our selectors, Joe Curran, Ml. F. Keane and Terry Guiry are working along the right lines. Keep up the good work.

SENIOR v. DUNGARVAN JULY 28

Our senior football championship game v. Dungarvan now goes ahead on Friday, July 28th in Dungarvan at 7.30 p.m. All please note change.

C.L.C.G. AN SEAN PHOBAL

Old Parish junior "B" footballers qualified for a place in the final following their big win over a depleted Melleray side in the semi-final

The match which was played at the Colligan venue on Saturday week last proved in the end to be a lot easier than anticipated. The final score of 3-19 to 0-1 speaks for itself and on the night Old Parish can be proud of a fine spirited performance. The back line was always solid, with the forwards making the most of any opportunity that came their way.

On Friday evening last in Leamybrien, Faha and Old Parish met in a challenge, and while Faha won with a six point margin it was a very entertaining game, and a very useful workout for the team.

The final of the junior "B" championship has been fixed for Saturday evening, July 22 at the Cappoquin venue. Meanwhile training continues every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

LADIES FOOTBALL

On the ladies front Old Parish have been kept busy over the past few weeks. In the first game of the league we played Touraneena, and unfortunately had to give way to a more experienced side. It was however a very spirited performance by a very young team.

Last week we welcomed visitors Newtown to Old Parish and again defeat was our lot. We should not be discouraged by these defeats, as on both occasions we were short a number of regulars, and for a new team it is very hard to replace regulars.

On Wednesday evening next, July 12, we travel to Ardmore for what should be another entertaining contest. The game begins at 7 p.m. sharp. So all players are requested to be at the venue at 6.45 p.m.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

Next Week-End Fixtures

With five or six senior hurling championship games fixed for Fraher Field on the coming week-end, supporters in this area will look forward in anticipation of seeing at least a few good contests. Very little of what we have seen at this end of the county has been good enough to excite patrons, but now that we are coming to the 'make-or-break' stages for most of the clubs, the quality of the fare must improve.

DUNGARVAN v. MOUNT SION

Beaten last week-end, Mount Sion will go into this game very determined to beat Dungarvan and restore their chances of being involved at the finish. Things are not going right for Dungarvan at the moment and finding themselves in the hot group in this championship, hasn't helped. The Monastery side may not be as good as they were last year and despite the fact that they lost to the intermediate champions last week, they are hot favourites here and it will be a surprise if Dungarvan beat them here.

LISMORE v. PORTLAW

Portlaw recovered very well from a poor start to beat Lismore by 0-17 to 1-8 in the corresponding championship game at Dungarvan last year and now that they have found their best form, will be hoping for a repeat. This is one of the games that I had in mind when I referred to the improved quality. It could be a thriller that might see Lismore drop their first championship points of the season. Such a result would really open up the championship for all the teams in this group, except, probably, Dungarvan.

ROANMORE v. TALLOW

After last Sunday, it must be Roanmore, and Tallow will remember their extraordinary meeting last year when their five points lead was snatched from them when Roanmore hit a purple patch and ran out winners on the score 2-11 to 2-7. A win for Roanmore looks certain.

PASSAGE v. BALLYDUFF

If Ballyduff haven't improved since they drew with Mount Sion in their first game of the championship, they will find it difficult to beat Passage who are a very balanced team with a fair amount of skill. They looked to be very fit when beating Mount Sion last week, so unless the Western team can produce their very best form, they can be beaten in this one. This could be the best game of the week-end and is sure to attract a big crowd to the venue on Sunday evening.

BALLYGUNNER v. CLONEA

This will be an interesting one at Walsh Park as if Clonea happen to defeat Ballygunner and this is not by any means impossible, it will re-open the doors for at least two other teams in the group. Having lost the points and two players which included star Ger Connors last Sunday, Ballygunner will be nervous going into this one. I give Clonea a good chance of winning here.

BALLINACOURTY v. KILMACTHOMAS

At the time of writing, the venue for this rescheduled game is uncertain, but I understand that Fraher Field is the most likely ground. Kilmac', like Ballinacourty have three championship points, but the Eastern club have a game in hand. Kilmac' will be the favourites, but I cannot perceive a big difference in standards between them. On the last occasion on which they clashed, Kilmac' won a surprise victory which took them to the county final against Kilrossanty. Last Sunday's win will have done something to restore the confidence of Ballinacourty who suffered some agonising near misses in all three matches before this. 'Courty could win this time.

CAPPOQUIN v. DUNHILL

Dunhill were doing very well in the championship last year until Cappoquin took them very much by surprise in an exciting game at Dungarvan and won by a couple of points (2-6 to 0-10). Last Sunday Dunhill moved from the bottom of the table to join Cappoquin on two points after the same number of games, so now both clubs have it all to play for. Taking a line through Tallow, whom they have both beaten, a case could be made in favour of Dunhill winning this one.

WESTERN BOARD GAMES

The big one in the intermediate football championships on Sunday will be the clash between Shamrocks and Sliabh gCua. They met in the final last year when Sliabh gCua caused an upset. I think they are good enough to prove that there was nothing fluke about that result.

In the other game in the same championship, Ballinameela will be strongly fancied to beat Brickeys. But the result here doesn't matter now.

In intermediate hurling, Saviours will be hotly fancied to beat Kilgobinet and in the Western championship in the same grade, Fourmilewater are favourites to put Stradbally out of the running.

In junior football, Colligan/Emmetts seem set for their second successive defeat when they meet Faha at Leamybrien.

End Of Another Season

With the defeat of our minor footballers by Kerry on Wednesday evening of last week, our interest in the Munster championships for another season, came to an end. Again we have no trophies to show for our efforts, but by our record of achievement in Munster, it was far better than we have enjoyed for over a quarter of a century — at least.

I cannot recall when we won championship matches in three grades, or in fact when we were undefeated in five games during the same season.

In senior hurling we defeated Clare and beat Cork in a replay before losing to Tipperary. We also had wins in junior football against Limerick and against Clare in minor football.

With the exception of senior football and minor hurling, the selection committee come up for appointment now that our provincial involvement is at an end. The senior hurling, minor football and both under 21 committees, will be elected at the August meeting, (or in September if there is no meeting in August.) As there is now a serious doubt about the continuation of the junior inter-county championships, I don't suppose that these committees will be chosen until much later.

News Bits

The County Board have appealed to Central Council against the imposition of the recent £600 fine for sideline transgressions during the championship games played at Thurles. The appeal will be heard at the August meeting.

When the recent intermediate hurling championship game between Stradbally and Saviours ended, the referee Noel Sullivan insisted that it was a 2-12 all draw. Saviours players and officials protested and insisted that they had won by a single point. The referee has since informed the County Secretary that Saviours, had in fact, won the game and that it was due to an error on his part that a wrong entry had been made in his notebook. It's a case of "all's well that ends well."

An exhibition hurling game between the defeated Leinster and Munster finalists is due to be played in Coventry on the second last week-end in August. These invitations were confirmed over the week-end and I understand that both Kilkenny and Waterford have agreed to travel. Central Council gave their approval to this game some months ago.

Several of the county players who were injured in the Munster final were noticeable and costly absentees from their club championships on Sunday last. Timmy Sheehan and Jimmy Beresford, both of whom played very well and despite their injuries struck it out to the bitter end of the Munster final, were onlookers at Fraher Field on Sunday last, when both their teams were beaten.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL LEAGUE TABLE

Results

There were a number of surprise results over the week-end, not least of which was the surprise defeat of county senior hurling champions Mount Sion by last season's enthusiastic intermediate title winners, Passage. The victory of Roanmore over Ballygunner also came as a surprise and Saviours' defeat by Rathgormack was also unexpected.

PASSAGE 1-12
MOUNT SION 2-6

Shane Ahearne who is out injured since the Munster Final was the only regular Mount Sion player missing from the champions team which unexpectedly went under to Passage at Walsh Park on Friday evening. It will have an 'opening-up' effect on this group in the championships and unless the reigning county champions can step up on their current form, they could find themselves in difficulties before the qualifying stage is reached. (Gate receipts were £625).

ROANMORE 2-12
BALLYGUNNER 2-9

This was what an old-timer would describe as a humdinger. The big crowd who paid over £800 in gamemoney, certainly got value all the way as the 13 man Ballygunner side tried everything they knew to bridge the small scoring gap which favoured Roanmore who had been regarded here as the challengers. Two Ballygunner players were sent off and this was seen to have made all the difference to Ballygunner's prospects of repeating their 1988 championship semi-final win over the same opponents. With full points from their three matches, Roanmore have now moved to the top of their group.

PORTLAW 2-13
DUNGARVAN 2-4

This game marked the return of county player, Daithi Foran who had been out through injury for almost a year. His return to the Portlaw team helped them out of the bottom spot on the league table, but the win may have come too late to raise their hopes of being involved in the knockout stages. The defeat has anchored Dungarvan at the bottom of the league-table — at least for the time being and unless they show an upturn in form, they may have relegation worries.

DUNHILL 2-17
TALLOW 2-3

The sad situation in the Tallow club at the moment is clearly reflected in the fact that when they lined out to play Dunhill in the championship tie at Fraher Field on Sunday, only Michael and Stephen Curley of the side which lined out to play the same opponents in the county final of 1980, were included. They are the best example of a club decimated by emigration due to lack of employment in the area. A number of their great players have retired and this adds to the problems of fielding a reasonably strong side. For age reasons, more than from emigration, Dunhill too have suffered and in this game, only five, John Power, Joe Murphy, Willie Moore, Nicky Kavanagh and Tom Moore were on the team which played in the 1980 county final. As a contest, this was very much a non-event and as the fourteen points margin shows the game lacked excitement for the small crowd. It was the first win of the season for Dunhill who have now swapped places at the bottom of the table with Tal-

BALLINACOURTY 0-8
TRAMORE 0-3

Most of the 24 wides which I counted in this fourth round senior football tie at Stradbally belonged to Tramore and understandably their players were dejected after the game that Ballinacourty won because they were better able to avail of their chances. But this was a match in which their defence was outstanding and in the heel of the hunt, probably saved them from a hammering. Fielding without six of their regulars, including full back Dan Looby, Michael Riordan, Pat and John Moloney they lined out a much changed team. Full-back Joe Riordan, goalkeeper Willie Kiely, Ger and Michael Collins, team captain Bernard O'Gorman, Jimmy Healy and Morry Foley all came out of this game with reputations enhanced. Alan Gillane, Nicky Hayes, Michael Goodwin, Tom Brennan and Pat Flanagan played very well for the losers.

Ballinacourty: W. Kiely, M. Foley, J. Riordan, G. Collins, J. Healy, M. Collins, B. O'Gorman, J. Melody, B. O'Mahony, T. Wade, J. McGrath, P. Walsh, C. Clancy, M. Reynolds, T. Organ. Subs: J. Byrne for P. Walsh, J. Mulligan for T. Organ, T. Organ for M. Foley.

Scorers: J. Mulligan 0-2, J. Melody 0-2, M. Reynolds 0-2, J. Healy and T. Wade 0-1 each.

Referee Tom Cunningham.

STRADBALLY 1-11
BUTLERSTOWN 1-3

The losers had extraordinary bad luck with a succession of amazing wides that must surely have cost them the two points that would have brought them back into contention for the championship. Their misses had an obvious effect on the side who threw in the towel as the game came to a finish. Feature of the game, which is well worth noting was the contribution of Noelle Weldon for Stradbally as not only did he contribute more than half their total score, he seemed to have inspired the other players. Weldon who was a regular on the county team until he emigrated, should boost Stradbally's chances of being involved at the end of the championships. Incidentally, Pat Curran, former county goalkeeper in hurling and who many times partnered Weldon in attack for Stradbally and the county footballers, is now living and working in Australia.

KILROSSANTY 2-12
FERRYBANK 0-6

The losers here who are now pointless from four matches and heading for a relegation battle with the bottom team in the other group, were hard pressed to field against the county champions, so in the circumstances, might be said to have done alright. For a club who have some of the most promising players in the county — as seen on a few occasions last year and in their match with Kilmacthomas several weeks ago, it is a pity that they are not having better results. Kilrossanty, scoring their third win on the trot, were never in top gear, but then they didn't have to.

RATHGORMACK 2-8
SAVIOURS 2-4

After three games Rathgormack have swapped places with group favourites, Saviours at the top of the league table. A prominent club official down there recently remarked that it was time that the newspapers stopped being surprised every time that Rathgormack won a match, so now that they have established themselves as strong contenders for the title, we won't say that anymore. But candidly I was surprised that Saviours were beaten. So were Saviours and many other people who had given the city team a very high rating. The good football produced in this game must have pleased the four county selectors who were present.

THE MUNSTER HURLING FINAL

Throughout last week, little else was spoken about in the county and wherever one moved, the same question was being asked 'what did you think of the match on Sunday?' In most cases the clever guy spoke first, wanting to know what you thought before committing himself. In practically every conversation on the matter, the subject of television came up and it was a sign of the times that almost everyone was able to talk about having seen it in video.

The official side of things in relation to the final was made known in a statement issued by county chairman Eamon Murphy at the monthly meeting of the Board on Tuesday. Talking to the ordinary supporter, it was refreshing to find that very many were able to take an intelligent and balanced view of the match and express themselves in a clear and logical manner. The general view was that a few players went overboard and that the referee was right in punishing the players who were involved in the incidents of misbehavior. Practically everyone was quick to condemn the players who behaved unsportingly and many believed that if these players had kept cool and not become frustrated, our second half display would have been better and Tipperary's winning margin would have been much smaller. Everyone agreed that Tipp. were the better team and fully deserved to win.

What was a source of great annoyance and disgust to almost every supporter of Waterford, was the over-severe media treatment of the game and the unfair and in many cases, irresponsible comments by a number of journalists. I suppose a few of the scribes who did 'go to town' on Waterford's players and selectors' saw this as an opportunity of giving their readers a break from their regular Monday morning articles on G.A.A. games, most of which are boring anyway.

What was exceptionally disgusting to all Waterford people was to see one or two of these journalists resort to sheer scandal-mongering and in the cheapest form of journalism set about destroying the characters of the Waterford players and mentors. For the past 30 years or so, the "Irish Independent" was my morning paper, but I recently changed over to another because the Independent Editor allowed a certain Nenagh-born journalist the freedom to indulge in extravagant criticism and ridicule of sporting events which had taken place on the previous day. Many people share my judgment of this individual.

Last week I was given cuttings of that newspaper with the most unfair criticism of the Waterford team manager, Tony Mansfield, the other selectors Phil Fanning and Ollie Wilkinson and the team. His article in the Wednesday edition was even more biased and irresponsible than the Monday rubbish which he wrote about the game. I am sure that someone has since told him that his description of the scene in the Tipperary dressing room after the game, was far more embarrassing to Tipperary than it was to Waterford. I know of one person who was present in the room and who laughed when he was told what the article said about the 'dressing-room soaked in blood'.

Then having completed his character-assassination of Mansfield and the others, he proceeded to instruct the Munster Council as to how they should deal with the referee's report when it comes to hand and God and Heaven help them if their decisions fail to fall in line with this man's demands.

Of course this was not the first occasion on which this man's imagination was allowed to run riot about a sporting event and I'm sure that other groups and other sports will have their tale to tell also.

T.D. Attacks IDA For 'Hype' In Workforce Projections

"In fact", Deputy Fahey continued, "the number of Dungarvan people employed there is practically nil and having a Dungarvan address is, seemingly, held against you when you apply for a job there".

Deputy Fahey continued to speak but was called to order by the Chairman, Cllr. M. Queally who pointed out that the motion before the Council referred to Merrell Dow.

However Cllr. Billy Kyne sought and was granted permission to speak and said that he was amazed that a member of the Oireachtas stood up here to make such a statement about the IDA but failed to do so in Dublin. He called for a consistent approach by Dail Deputies in their support of the IDA and referring to Deputy Fahey's attack on Sterling Drug said that perhaps the fact that Deputy Fahey had failed to get a job for a relative there accounted for this.

NO DETAILED INFORMATION

Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager then stated that Waterford Co. Council had received no detailed information about the Merrell Dow plant and he therefore felt that it would be inappropriate for him to pass any comments on the points raised.

Cllr. W. McDonnell expressed surprise that the Co. Manager had not got some information about the plant from Cork Co. Council. Stating that the people in West Waterford were worried about the plant and didn't know what to believe about it, he asked the Co. Manager to take steps to ensure the safety of the people of West Waterford where this was concerned.

Mr. Hurley replied, "I'm the Manager of the Planning Authority of Co. Waterford and not for Co. Cork". He added that as the matter was sub judice he was not prepared to comment further on it.

When Cllr. McDonnell insisted that the Manager should have got information in order to safeguard the people of West Waterford, Cllr. Kyne accused him of "alarmist talk".

The Chairman then declared the discussion closed.

Showdown By Salmon Fishermen

Allegations that Fishery Protection Officers were threatening and intimidating salmon net fishermen operating along the river Blackwater and in Ardmore and Youghal were again made by Cllr. Patsy Kenneally at the monthly meeting of Waterford County Council held in Dungarvan last Monday.

Cllr. Kenneally said that a showdown was building up between the fishermen in the areas and the Fishery Authorities concerning the use of monofilament nets. He said that the Minister didn't have a clue as to what was going on as fishermen were being pressed to make payments due on their boats while they were unable to catch any salmon because it was illegal to use monofilament nets. The bailiffs were threatening the fishermen and continued to intimidate them for using the nets, he added.

"Youghal Bridge," said Cllr. Kenneally, "was blocked by the fishermen last week and the protests will go on as they are not going to put up with this treatment anymore."

Cllr. G. O'Halloran supporting what Cllr. Kenneally had stated said that he had been told by the salmon fishermen that it wasn't worth their while going out to fish with nylon nets as they would catch nothing. "As a result," he said, "they are very upset about the matter and have arranged to hold a series of peaceful protests which will take them right to Leinster House if necessary, to highlight the situation."

Cllr. O'Halloran went on the say that up to 300 people in the area were depending on fishing but not one could put a crust on a table from what they were now earning from it.

On the proposal of Cllr. O'Halloran seconded by Cllr. Kenneally, the Council unanimously passed a resolution calling on the Government for a full review of the fishery laws.

Co. Council Votes Sympathy

At the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held in Dungarvan last Monday a sincere vote of sympathy was passed to the family of the late Jack Hynes, Limerick. Proposing the resolution Cllr. C. O Riain recalled that Mr. Hynes had been secretary of the former Waterford Health Authority during which he resided in Dungarvan for several years.

On the proposal of Cllr. John Carey, sympathy was also extended to the family of the late John Baston, Passage East, a former member of the teaching staff of the Co. Waterford Vocational Education, whose regretted death occurred recently.
