Fianna Fail Co. Councillor Resigns From Party

Mr. Sean Whelan, Kilcooney, Ballinamult, well-known farmer and auctioneer, has informed the "Leader" in a phone call that he has tendered his resignation from the Fianna Fail Party of which he has been an active member at all levels within the Constituency since the late 1940's.

Current Secretary of the Touraneena Fianna Fail Cumann, Sean Whelan was first elected a member of Waterford County Council in 1960 and held his membership of the Council up to 1979 when he was defeated. However he succeeded in regaining the seat in the 1985 Local Elections.

He has served on the Officer Board of the Fianna Fail Comhairle Dail Ceanntair and the Comhairle Ceanntair and represented the Party as a candidate in two general elections.

Cllr. Whelan told the "Leader" on Tuesday evening that his letter of resignation to the Chairman of his Cumann was then in the post. He said that while he had been unhappy with the direction the party was taking on certain issues in recent years, it was the price that had to be paid to the Progressive Democrats for their support in Government that had proved the final straw in his decision to resign altogether from the party. "The party has been making too many turns", he said.

Councillor Whelan added that he would continue as an independent member of the County Council until the next Local Elections.

LISMORE DENTAL SERVICE TO BE RESUMED "SOON"

The matter of the dental service to be provided in Lismore by the South Eastern Health Board has been the source of a great deal of discussion at recent meetings of Waterford County Council as Councillors from the area have sought to have the service resumed as it was before the retirement of Mr. Morrissey, who then conducted the dental clinic in the town.

First problems were created about the filling of the vacant position as the Health Board, faced with budgetary cuts reduced the service alternating it with a clinic in Cappoquin. Then the condition and location of the premises in which the clinic was held created a problem when it was alleged that the dentist allocated was dissatisfied with it.

The matter has been under discussion for some considerable time with motions put down at various meetings of the County Council by Cllrs. Quirke and Wilkinson and supported by Cllrs. McDonnell and Walsh.

As a result, the two members of the Council on the Health Board, Cllrs. Billy Kyne and Gary O'Halloran, pursued the problem at that level. Cllr. Kyne has been trying to arrange a meeting between the Councillors of the Lismore area and the Board's Community Care Manager so that the matter can be fully thrashed out at local level.

MATTER AGAIN RAISED

At the monthly meeting of the Health Board held in Kilkenny last Thursday

Cllr. Kyne again raised the matter of the Lismore Dental Clinic. He said that he had already raised this at a meeting of the Community Care Committee and he had written to the Board's Community Care Programme Manager, Dr. de Souza, asking that he meet the Lismore area Council members to explain what exactly was being done about the dental service and what steps were being taken to restore it.

Cllr. Kyne stressed that the people in Lismore and Tallow districts wanted the service resumed and said that excuses were no longer of any use to the many people who missed the service so badly. "It is now over three weeks since I wrote to the Health Board asking that a meeting with the local Councillors in the Lismore area be arranged and nothing has so far been done and to be honest this is just not good enough", he said.

In reply to Cllr. Kyne, the CEO, Mr. J. McQuillan, said that he was aware that Cllr. Kyne had raised this matter previously and he expressed disappointment that it had not so far been attended to and settled. "I want to assure Cllr. Kyne that the views of Waterford County Council on this matter are valued by me as CEO and I will ensure that the dental clinic in Lismore will be resumed as soon as possible", he then said.

Importance of Improved Marketing of Farm Produce

BY MICHAEL DILLON

The reform of the Common Agricultural Policy, alongside the development of the Single European Market, should reduce the reliance of farmers on price supports and increase the importance of good marketing as a means of getting a good return from the land. Good marketing needs good processing of farm produce into food that will win support from the consumers as well as attractive presentation and efficient distribution to all the Member States. All of these things have to be developed in this country which was a producer of commodities rather than food until recent times. That is why the grants provided by the European Community through the Guidance section of FEOGA, the Agricultural Fund, are of special value to Ireland at this time.

The recent list of projects approved for FEOGA grants highlight the changes that are taking place in Community agriculture in general and in Irish farming in particular. There are 26 projects, which will receive FEOGA grants totalling £13.9 million, as well as £6.5 million from Irish State agencies and £17.9 million invested by the firms concerned. There are no grants for milk processing this time, and most of the projects are concerned, with livestock in some way, but there is also aid for fish processing, and there are two projects concerned with cereals and three with potatoes and vegetables.

MARTS NEED MODERNISATION

The livestock projects approved cover a wide range of enterprises. Six are for the establishment or improvement of livestock marts, which were accepted as eligible marketing projects in 1986. As many of our marts were set up thirty years ago or earlier, they are in need of modernisation to meet present day standards, particularly in view of the part that they play in disease control.

There are grants for four pigmeat processing projects, which are part of the planned development of this industry in Ireland, and as this trade is booming at present owing to the reduction in pig numbers, this is a good time to get improved processing systems established.

Altogether this is an interesting collection of projects, all of which should contribute to the welfare of farming here, and also provide much needed employment.

EC Waterford Crystal Trophy For Horse Show Puissance

The European Commission has announced that it is to co-sponsor the Puissance event on 10th August next at the Kerrygold Dublin Horse Show in the RDS, Ballsbridge.

The announcement of this innovative sponsorship was made at a reception in Jean Monnet Centre, Molesworth Street, by Mr. Terry Stewart, Director of the Office of the Commission in Ireland.

The European Commission's involvement in the Kerrygold Dublin Horse Show is part of the Commission's "Peoples' Europe" campaign, designed to show that the EC is not just about business and economics but about people too.

A specially-commissioned Waterford Crystal Trophy featuring the twelve stars of the European Flag will be presented by EC Commissioner Mr. Ray McSharry to the winner of the event which will be called the Kerrygold European Communities Puissance, Kerrygold being the other co-sponsor. In the event of a tie, similarly styled medals will be awarded.

FAMOUS HIGH WALL

The Puissance event is one of the highlights of the show. The main obstacle is the famous high wall and the competition is run on a knockout basis — only horses which jump clear qualify for the next round. The height of the wall is increased after each round. Given the nature of the event it will not be run against the clock.

Puissance events are undoubtedly the supreme test of the skill of horse and rider and the Kerrygold European Communities Puissance will be no exception. It is expected that the event will be hotly contested by leading competitors from many countries. The event will be covered live by RTE.

Pause For Thought With Fr. Paddy

DESECRATION FOR AN OVERCOAT

In the first of last Sunday's readings Moses is encouraging the people to abide by God's law. He tells them that living by the Commandments is well within their powers. He makes it clear that the law is constructed to cover every aspect of life, and, when followed and observed, it becomes a source of comfort and strength.

The second reading deals with Christ as the centre of creation. I mentioned, when dealing with the Trinity, Christ's participation in creation, so I'm confining my reference now to Christ, the Redeemer, the One, who through His passion and death, won for us the right to make amends for our sins, and the power to utilize the ordinary things in life in His Honour and in His service. The world, as well as man, suffered through the fall, but Christ through His sacrifice opened the way to undo the harm. Man, as St. Paul said "was empowered to share in the work of restoration." At first I thought this reading was out of place, but very definitely it links up with the others.

Moses said "the law was a powerful source and means of new life." We learned as children that we're hear to learn to know, to love, and to serve God, so that we'd be happy with Him in the hereafter. The observance of His law is a proof of our love and loyalty. He Himself tells us that it is the way to perfection. So, the more we know and serve God, the more our love will flourish and grow. Our very actions when exercised and offered in His name, assume new values, and enable us to become more Christ-like. When you give to feed the hungry, you are taking Christ's place. When you help the sick, you are His minister. When you show faithfulness in times of trial and temptation, it proves that Christ is alive and active in your very being. We must always be mindful that the elevation of our acts is due wholly to Jesus, whose victory on the Cross, as St. Paul indicated, reaches back to Adam, and stretches forward over all time.

The law, as taught by Moses, had lost its force by the time Jesus came. However, He preached these same Commandments, and pointed out that they ruled and governed man's thoughts as well as his every action. It follows that one could offend grievously by wilful thoughts of hated, revenge, desire etc. Sadly, our times have witnessed a rejection of God as well as His law: great numbers no longer walk the way of God. They just please themselves, and that is fraught with danger.

The Gospel story dwells on the spirit of the Commandments. Prior to Vat. 11 there was such an undue emphasis on the letter of the law that the actual practice did not measure up to it. Luke is actually stressing this point in the Gospel. He is saying that the law should be applied with compassion, which he illustrates in his account of what is true love of one's neighbour. The lawyer knew the law, but he was unclear when it came to application. However, he did acknowledge the Lord's explanation. The Jews hated the Samaritans, so the last thing he'd have done would be to help the stricken man. Whereas, Jesus is saying we all, irrespective of our feelings, are bound to help those in need.

ON YOUR OWN DOORSTEP

We do not have to look hard to see what's happened to God's laws. I'm not going to take you down to Jericho, but to your own doorstep. A few years back a motorist got a heart attack and ran into the ditch. A passing motorist went to see if he could help, and saw the man was dead, and went for the Gardai. He led them back to the scene, and was horrified to note that the dead man was stripped of his over-coat. Why should he have been surprised: the day is long gone when you could leave the key in the door. The order of the day is, what is yours is mine! You could recite a litany of robberies, and still have more to tell. Certainly, there's a violent change in the behaviour of people. Were St. Paul to arrive in our midst, what would he say? In God's name, mend your ways, and turn away from evil whilst you have the time. Otherwise, you endanger your soul.

You often hear people say, they love God, and proceed to ignore their neighbour. Please, read, S. Scripture on the Final Judgement. "When I was hungry, you did not give me bread to eat etc." If one fails one's neighbour, one fails one's God. Our problem is, are we going to allow evil to flood the world? Surely, if we believe, our efforts to turn the tide will prevail. Remember, good example takes pride of place in the love of neighbour.

IFA And Beef Premium Crisis

IFA Deputy President, John Donnelly said recently that there was full agreement from both the co-op and associated livestock marts to fully back IFA's proposal for streamlining of cattle inspections for payment of the special Beef Premium.

"The sale of prime beef cattle via factories and marts is being seriously disrupted by bureaucratic delays at Department and EC level in inspecting eligible male cattle for the Premium," said Mr. Donnelly.

Mr. Donnelly repeated his call to the Department to immediately inspect over 55,000 beef cattle for the premium at factories and marts to avoid the cattle becoming overfat and a glut on the market next autumn.

"If marts and factories don't get the green light on this issue within the next week, Irish livestock farmers face a potential loss of up to £2m. Such a loss would be unforgivable," he said.

ELECTION '89

FF-PD Alliance Forms Government

After almost a full month of bruising negotiations of the toughest political nature between the Fianna Fail and Progressive Democrat parties which took them up to the very deadline, agreement was reached under which a new government was formed and Mr. Charles Haughey was re-elected Taoiseach when the Dail reassembled on Wednesday, July 12.

However Fianna Fail were forced into making major concessions before the deal was struck. Biggest of these was two seats in the Cabinet — for Party leader Des O'Malley in Industry and for Bobby Molloy in Energy — two key economic departments. In addition a Junior Ministry in the Department of the Environment has been given to the PD's Mary Harney while it is also expected that two if not three PD's will be included in the Taoiseach's nominations for the Seanad.

As well, Mr. Haughey conceded to PD objectives on personal tax reform, health funding, law reform, constituency boundary revision, parliamentary procedures, planning legislation and environmental protection.

Three Ministers of the outgoing Government were dropped — Brendan Daly (Marine), Michael Noonan (Defence) and Michael Smith (Energy).

The brinkmanship which was a feature of the negotiations throughout, continued right up to within a couple of hours of the 3 o'clock start scheduled for the Dail session on Wednesday.

Eventually when the 26th Dail did assemble, Mr. Haughey was elected Taoiseach by 84 votes to 79, his support coming from Fianna Fail's own 77 votes plus the PD's 6 and Roscommon Independent Tom Foxe.

Mr. Haughey then made his trip to Aras An Uachtaran and when the Dail reassembled at 7 p.m. he announced the members of his cabinet.

A BITTER PILL

The concessions granted to the PD's, especially the two seats in Cabinet have proved a very bitter pill for the majority of the Fianna

Fail grassroots. And in common with party members all over the country, the members of the Waterford Comhairle Dail Ceanntair have condemned the deal while Fianna Fail Deputy Jackie Fahey disclosed on radio and in the daily press last Friday that he had 'almost' resigned from the Fianna Fail Parliamentary Party in protest at the coalition with the PD's. He stated that he had written a letter of resignation but had not sent it to the Taoiseach.

High Court Refuses Injunction Application

A skin and hide company failed in the High Court in Dublin last week to win an injunction preventing a dealer and haulier, who allegedly defrauded it of nearly £75,000, disposing of his assets.

David Hardiman, B.L., told the court that his client, Steelver Ltd., of Hebron Road, Kilkenny had a station at Ballinlough, Co. Roscommon which had been managed by the defendant, Stephen O'Connell, of Ballygawley, Co. Sligo.

Raymond Lannen, managing director of Steelver, said in an affidavit that investigation of stock accounts at Ballinlough showed that about 1,345 hides and 3,316 skins appeared to have been bought by the company, but were not in store and had not been sold.

In an affidavit, Mr. O'Connell said no discrepancies existed or turned up as a result of his activities. Mr. Justice Blayney said he was satisfied there was a serious case to be tried but there was no evidence that Mr. O'Connell intended to take his assets out of the jurisdiction or to dissipate them. He refused the application and awarded costs to Mr. O'Connell.

Dungarvan Tannery Fined For Polluting Harbour

Effluent discharges from the Dungarvan tannery over the past three years had been seriously polluting the water in the harbour it was stated at Dungarvan Court last week when the owners of the tannery, International Hide & Skin Co. Ltd., Kilkenny, pleaded guilty to a number of charges brought by Waterford County Council for breaches of the conditions of the licence granted, permitting them to discharge effluent into the harbour from the tannery which is located at Quay Street, Dungarvan.

The charges were brought in respect of dates on September 13, 1988, November 16, 1988 and February 9, 1989 while there were also adjourned charges in respect of breaches on October 8 and 27, 1987 and November 13, 1987.

Mr. J. Curran, Solr., for the County Council told the Court that the effluent in question was a highly toxic chromium and as a result of the pollution which this caused, the local health authority had erected signs warning the public that it was unsafe to eat any shellfish in the Dungarvan harbour area.

Mr. Curran added that tests in 1987 showed a chromium content of 40 times the permitted level in the harbour but later tests showed it to be 300 times more on one occasion and 270 times the permitted level on another occasion.

"The Local Authority," said Mr. Curran, "takes an extremely serious view of the situation as certain undertakings given by the Company to the Council involving the installation of a treatment plant have not been carried out." "And, he added that the charges now before the Court were only a representative sample of what was happening on a regular basis. He said that expenses amounting to £740 were due for the sampling tests and pointed out that there was a previous conviction for a similar breach against the Company.

Mr. M. J. Hogan, Solr., Kilkenny, for the defendants admitted the offences but pointed out that the tannery was a very old one which was associated with Dungarvan for the past 50 years. It was only in recent years that the new very stringent regulations concerning pollution came into force and his clients were doing their best to comply with these. "They know they must comply and they want to do so," he said.

Mr. Hogan went on to say that the tannery had installed its own monitoring and sampling equipment and this would now go a long way towards controlling the content of the effluent discharge.

In regard to the proposal to install a treatment plant, he said that the company had engaged a consultant engineer and had been in touch with the Co. Council about this. But, he then said, because of the location of the tannery there was really no hope of installing a proper plant which could deal with any expansion of the operation there.

"In the circumstances," Mr. Hogan then said, "the only real solution is for the tannery to move from its waterfront site to another location nearby and start all over again."

NOT REALLY TOXIC

Reiterating that the tannery was in operation in Dungarvan for over 50 years and was historically associated with the town, Mr. Hogan pointed out that up to the passing of the Pollution Act, effluent had been discharged into the waters of the harbour without any comment. This however had been greatly reduced and steps were being taken to further reduce the waste and chromium effluent which he had said was not really toxic as had been claimed.

District Justice W. F. O'Connell having listened to the submissions said the fact was that the defendants had to be forced into doing what they were now going to do. The charges in respect of October and November '87 had been adjourned on the undertaking that a treatment plant would be installed. But this had not been done and matters had got progressively worse and the defendants had shown no signs of mending their ways. "As I can only view the offences as very serious, I must," said the District Justice, "impose penalties of an exemplary nature."

Fines totalling £900 together with £740 expenses and £300 costs were then imposed on the defendants.

I.F.A. In Beef Premium Talks

IFA Livestock Committee, Vice-Chairman, Mr. Pat Hoyne has revealed that the Department of Agriculture had agreed to seek the legal approval of the European Commission to allow the inspection of beef cattle at marts and factories for the purposes of the Special Beef Premium.

Mr. Hoyne earlier led a delegation from the Association's Livestock Committee to meet senior officials at the Department of Agriculture in Dublin.

The IFA estimate that over 55,000 eligible finished beef cattle are awaiting inspection for the beef premium at the present moment. The premium is worth almost £35 per head.

At what he described as "a very constructive meeting," Mr. Hoyne said "the IFA view that the marketing of beef cattle was being seriously disrupted by delays in having them approved was forcibly put."

"After today's meeting, we now have greater cause for hope that a positive outcome to this problem will be announced in the near future," he said.

District Justice Signs Prison Warrants

District Justice W. F. O'Connell at Dungarvan Court last week signed warrants to send two local men to prison for periods of 6 months and 2 months respectively. At previous sittings of the Court the defendants had been dealt with and sentenced but the Justice had refrained from signing the prison warrants to enable the defendants to pay compensation.

In the first, Adrian Sullivan (18), Boreenatra had been sentenced to 6 months in prison when convicted for a number of larceny offences in Cappagh in July, 1988.

Supt. P. J. Hayes told the Court that in these cases, the payment of £470 compensation was involved, but so far only £30 had been paid by the defendant. At the time, the defendant had promised to lodge £15 a week in the Credit Union towards the compensation but he had not kept that promise, said Supt. Hayes.

The District Justice then signed the warrant and fixed the usual recognisances in the event of an appeal.

HAS LEFT JURISDICTION

The second case involved 21-years-old Michael Nolan, 56, Cathal Brugha

Place who had been sentenced to 2 months for causing malicious damage amounting to £200 to an ambulance, the property of the Regional Health Board, which was parked in the grounds of Dungarvan Hospital on the night of December 21/22 last. The warrant in this case was also left unsigned at the time to enable compensation of £200 to be paid.

Mr. M. J. Hanrahan, Solr., told the court that Nolan had now left the jurisdiction.

Supt. Hayes said that only £25 of the compensation had been paid by the defendant who now had apparently availed of the freedom permitted to him to up and away.

District Justice O'Connell also signed the warrant sending the defendant to jail for 2 months in this case.

LETTING PEOPLE KNOW

Youth Information — A High Priority

One of the most significant developments in Youth Services in recent years has been the growth in awareness of the importance of information in the lives of young people. Since Dublin Corporation set up its very successful Youth Information Centre in Dublin City Centre in 1982, which now caters for about 40,000 callers annually, youth information has become a high priority for organisations such as the National Youth Federation, Foróige, the Catholic Youth Council and the YMCA, when it comes to planning local services.

Between them they now operate about 20 Youth Information Centres around the country in Dublin, Cork, Galway, Sligo, Clare, Limerick, Wexford, Waterford, Kilkenny, Tipperary and Kerry. These Centres offer information to young people and those who work with them on a wide range of subjects including career opportunities, employment matters, emigration, rights and entitlements, grants, clubs and organisations, sport and leisure, travel and accommodation.

Another Remand In Child Murder Case

Eamonn Daly (37), teacher, of Modeligo, Ballyduff Upper, made a further brief appearance in custody at Dungarvan Court last week charged with the murder by drowning of Aileen Daly (4) at Lismore on February 15 last. When Supt. P. J. Hayes informed the Court that the Book of Evidence in the case was still not ready, District Justice O'Connell remanded the accused in continuing custody to Youghal Court on July 27.

Best Of Entertainment For Visitors To Tramore

Each year in many towns throughout Ireland festivals of our living heritage of music, song and dance underline its importance as a great source of entertainment, indeed one of our greatest attractions. For more than thirty years Fleadhanna cheoil have attracted thousands of visitors to countless venues the length and breadth of the land. The crammed square in Dungarvan at last year's Provincial Fleadh was a monumental example of such a successful festival. Each year major towns fight to be hosts to the All-Ireland Fleadh Cheoil. For Tramore the "Siamsa" is a step towards establishing an annual festival of traditional music in one of Ireland's premier resorts. Siamsa Tra Mhoir was born from the discussions earlier this year between a Co. Waterford Sub-Committee and some interested people in Tramore. Comhaltas as part of their ongoing plan to re-develop a greater interest among families throughout the county intended to hold an event in Tramore. This idea has now grown from co-operation similar to that which is normally required to host a Fleadh cheoil.

SIAMSA TRA MHOIR: GRAND GALA OPENING

This Friday night sees the opening of Tramore's first ever festival of Traditional Music, Song and Dance. Following the grand opening in the G.A.A. Centre which will be attended by many local dignitaries, the main event "Cabaret Cheoil," an evening of traditional entertainment and dancing will commence at 9.30 p.m. There will also be open-air set dancing at railway square from 8.30 to 9.30 p.m. At O'Neill's Bar the traditional singers session will be a novel attraction. In other hostilities there will be traditional music sessions. Making a guest appearance at cabaret Cheoil will be the renowned box player from Clare, Bobby Gardiner, who will be launching his third tape of traditional music. Nora Hogan who recently launched her first tape of music and song "Valley of the Nire," will perform at Sunday's concerts as part of the Seisiun Group.

HUGE INTEREST IN SET DANCING

During the last few years there has been a phenomenal interest in set dancing as a form of entertainment. Following a decade in which set dancing had become almost synonymous with competition and competitiveness, the entertainment and participation elements have now come to the fore. At every major cultural event the Set Workshop is established as an essential part of daytime entertainment. Fitness, fun and friendship makes up the wonderful world of the Set Workshop. At Siamsa Tra Mhoir add sea, sun and sand and you have the ingredients of a carefree and exhilarating day.

CONNIE RYAN — A LIVING LEGEND

One of the main attractions of Siamsa at Tra Mhoir will be Connie Ryan, the inimitable master of Set Dancing. Connie, a bank official from Tipperary working in Dublin where he is a founder member of the Sliabh na mBan Club. As well as many members of his club who are coming to Tramore people have indicated their intention to travel from many clubs throughout the country for the Saturday and Sunday Set Workshops.

MELLERAY LANCER VERY POPULAR

When Waterford Comhaltas revived the Melleray Lancer Set two years ago no one ever thought it would become one of the most popular sets in the country. The novelty and the great variety of the Melleray Lancer and the fact that Connie Ryan will be giving it priority this weekend, ensures these workshops as a major attraction for followers from many parts of the country wishing to learn this unusual set with parts like the "kiss," the "gallop" and the "Grand Chain."

FREE OPEN AIR CONCERTS

Over the last few years traditional performers from County Waterford have performed in many prestigious concerts at home and abroad. Recently the two seisiun groups were invited to perform at the annual Fleadh Nua concert at Danelann an Chlair in Ennis. Many have also appeared on R.T.E.'s "Mountain Lark" and "The Pure Drop." Siamsa Tra Mhoir will feature many of these artists in two concerts on Sunday, July 23rd. For many these concerts will be the highlights of the weekend's entertainment. While the organisers are keeping their fingers crossed that the summer weather will continue alternative arrangements have been made to accommodate these concerts which will commence at 3.30 p.m. and 8 p.m. sharp.

SEAN NORMAN CEILI BAND

Siamsa Tra Mhoir would not be complete without a Ceili. The organisers have booked the Sean Norman Ceili Band which has been the number one choice at All-Ireland Fleadh Cheoil for several years. The Sean Norman Band has made several appearances on the Late Late Show and was the band chosen to play for Gay Byrne's "Singles" dance in Dublin a few months ago. The huge function and Ballroom area of O'Shea's Hotel is the venue. So do come along and meet new friends and enjoy a great night among visitors from near and far.

National Lottery Sales For Six Months Top £68 Million

National Lottery sales for the first six months of 1989 topped £68 million, 42% ahead of the same period last year. This was announced by National Lottery Chairman, Gerard Harvey, at a reception in Dublin to launch the National Lottery's new instant game, Eureka.

Eureka, which has a bigger prize payout than any other instant game to date, offers players the opportunity to play four games on the one ticket: players can match three like cash amounts to win a cash prize, get three stars to enter the weekly Grand Prize Game, collect letters to become a SPINAL and collect numbers to win £100.

£25,000 each week. (Grand Prize Game participants can win from £5,000 to £25,000).

Another novel feature of Eureka is a COLLECT NUMBERS game. When those numbers add up to exactly 100, then the player wins £100, payable instantly following validation at any Head Post Office.

TWO GAME TICKETS

Eureka tickets feature two games on a tear-off stub. Players who collect the letters P-A-L on the tear-off stub can enter a special SPINAL draw linked to the weekly grand Prize Game. Each Grand Prize Game participant will draw one SPINAL entry prior to spinning the wheel.

SPINALS win the equivalent of 10% of the Grand Prize Game participant's prize. So each week five lucky SPINALS have the opportunity to win prizes ranging from £500 to

SENIOR FOOTBALL

Kilmac' 1-9;

Ballinacourty 1-9.

In a most exciting senior football championship game in Stradbally on Saturday night last, Kilmacthomas and Ballinacourty shared the points on a 1-9 each scoreline. This was a game that could have gone anyway with the issue in doubt right up to the final whistle. The result leaves the championship table (B Section) looking like this: Rathgormack played 3 — 6 points; St. Saviours played 4 — 5 points; Kilmacthomas played 4 — 4 points; Ballinacourty played 5 — 4 points; Gaultier played 2 — 3 points; Dunhill played 3 — 2 points; Tramore played 3 — no points. So as you can see, it is anyone's guess who will qualify for the play-offs.

Kilmac' line out: Dan Casey, Michael Corkery, Robbie Whelan, Sean Behan, Michael Hallahan, John Brown, Andrew Rockett, Tom O'Connell, Derry Kiely, Tom Joe Power, Johnno Power, David Kiely, John Kelleher, Ned Power, and Jessie Whelan. KIRWAN'S DEFEATED

Kirwan's of Kilmac' were defeated 2-1 in the semifinal of the pubs league in Ozier Park, Waterford on Wednesday evening last. Down 2-nil at half time they made a great comeback on the resumption and reduced the arrears midway through the half with a penalty by John Mulhearn. After this it was all Kirwan's but they just could not get what would have been a well deserved equaliser. But all credit to the team for a wonderful achievement and they all look forward to next year. The big news to break after the game was that our right full back Michael Lawlor was approached by a scout and everything has been arranged for a month's trial in England. However Dolores says she will put a big price on his head!

Crux Over Creation Of Full-Time Vet Post

When the Co. Secretary, Mr. B. J. McNally informed members of Waterford Co. Council at their monthly meeting in Dungarvan that in accordance with the Abattoir Act 1988, the Department of Agriculture required the Council to appoint a whole-time Veterinary Inspector either for its own area or with an adjoining area on a shared basis, a number of members at once asked how such an appointment could be funded.

Cllr. Con Casey thought that the Department should be required to pay for the appointment as it was being foisted on the Council by them. "Because the finances of the Council are in such straitened circumstances at present this is something we should not take on board", he said.

Mr. McNally said that the cost of such an appointment in a full year would be £30,000 and he pointed out that under the Act, the Council had a responsibility to employ a full-time Veterinary Inspector.

Cllr. J. A. Walsh remarked, "If it's the law, the Department should bridge any gap between the actual cost and what would be collected through inspection fees".

Mr. McNally said that the estimated income from fees could be about £6,000 a year, leaving £24,000 to be found by the Council.

A SMALL COUNTY

Cllr. M. O'Riordan pointed out that Waterford was a small county and asked whether there would be enough work available to keep a vet employed full-time all the year round.

Mr. Dan Hurley, County Manager then told the Council, "you have no option in the matter as the law of the land requires us to employ a whole-time veterinary inspector".

Cllr. J. A. Walsh — Then we should be pushing for an amendment of that law! Cllr. C. O Riain asked whether such an appointment could be made on a shared basis with Waterford Corporation.

The Secretary said that this had been looked into but the distance to be travelled could cause problems.

Finally on the suggestion of Cllr. Jackie Fahey T.D. it was agreed to defer further consideration of the matter to enable a further look at an appointment on a shared basis to be made and to write to the Department pointing out that the Council could not afford to fund such an appointment at present.

WEDDING BELLS

Heartiest congratulations to James Bennett and Miss Ann Casey, Cappoquin who were married on Saturday last. We wish James and Ann many years of happiness and we welcome Ann to our community.

G.A.A.

With the hurlers out of contention for this year, we had hoped that maybe lady luck would shine on us in the football. The final against Old Parish is due to be played this weekend and the injury list which dogged us in the hurling campaign has got longer. There are at least five non starters and add to that the fact that James Bennett is on honeymoon and the magnitude of our problem is clearly seen.

PILTOWN DRAW

The first draw has been postponed for just one week so all ticket sellers please have tickets in by this weekend at the very latest to Breda Clancy.

JUVENILE TRAINING

Juvenile training is held every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All juveniles are requested to attend.

PENSMAN Takes You. . . . Behind The SPOTLIGHT

A STABLE GOVERNMENT TO RUN FULL TERM

The 26th Dail held its first full ordinary session this week and the new Government took up its position on the front benches led by An Taoiseach, Mr. Charles Haughey.

The protracted negotiations which followed the indecisive June general election ended on Wednesday of last week when agreement between Fianna Fail and Progressive Democrats to form a government alliance was eventually reached. Details of the agreement are set out elsewhere in the news columns of this issue of the "Leader."

Despite the objections to the "deal" raised in most quarters of Fianna Fail at constituency level, including those voiced here in Waterford, the new government must be accepted as a stable administration set to run for a full term. The Fianna Fail party members have always accepted the leadership of the party on the principle of uno duce, una voce and while Mr. Haughey has stated that while the alliance with the Progressive Democrats was not the option which Fianna Fail preferred, he and his colleagues had come to the conclusion, as the negotiations between the parties proceeded, "that coalition was necessary to stop serious damage and detriment to the country and its prospects."

It is understandably difficult for the rank-and-file members of Fianna Fail to accept without murmur the new concept of sharing government but as time goes on and the results make themselves known, perhaps they will find it has not hurt the party but has, on the other hand, greatly benefitted the country and the people of Ireland. And after all that is what really matters. Isn't it?

PROPERTY NEWS

The well-known Sportsman Inn owned by George Horsham in Cappoquin has recently been sold to an English based company for a sum stated to be in the region of £100,000.

Fully licensed as a pub and restaurant, the new owners of the Sportsman Inn trade under the title Foxsmart Ltd and are said to be considering the purchase of a number of other pubs around Ireland shortly.

And work on the new super hotel-cum-leisure complex at Shandon, Dungarvan was commenced last Thursday by Dungarvan Contractors, E. O'Brien and Sons. The owners are Mrs. Dottie Flynn and family of Whitechurch House Hotel, Cappagh. It is expected that the £1.4 million project will be completed and ready for business in ten months.

LET US KEEP OUR BEACHES CLEAN

Great activity has been noticed on Clonea beach for the past three Saturday nights. Due to the action of the recently formed Clonea Beach Awareness Committee whose purpose is to keep the beach clean and tidy, it is a pleasure to see groups of young and old people working side by side in gathering and disposing of litter into a mobile unit.

We understand that the members of the Awareness Committee hope to continue with this clean-up exercise every Saturday night for the remainder of the summer season and they will be glad to welcome any volunteers to help in this very fine civic spirited activity in keeping Clonea beach clean and free from litter. The group meets each Saturday night at 8 p.m. in the car-park at the hotel end of the strand.

The result of the good work now being done by the Awareness Committee at Clonea strand is very evident and has been very favourably remarked on by people who have walked the strand on recent evenings. Indeed the Committee and the members of the group are to be congratulated for what they have done and for the example they have set which other similar groups in other areas could well follow with advantage.

WHY DO IT?

But while we can only be fulsome in our praise for the work of such civic-spirited groups we must condemn in the strongest possible manner the hundreds of day-trippers to our beaches who are responsible for turning them into virtual rubbish dumps.

In this phenomenal period of tropical sunshine the seaside has come into focus to an extent not experienced for many years and beaches everywhere are crowded. Pic-nics are the order of the day and of course it is only right that those in a position to do so should fully enjoy themselves in the sun by the seaside. But, why, when they leave, can't they let the places they frequent as they find them when they arrive. In other words by ensuring that they leave no litter or empty bottles and containers behind them. Unfortunately this is a habit which is all too prevalent.

BEACH BARBECUES

This brings us to the 'shenanigans' that follow the holding of midnight barbecues on beaches, here, there and everywhere. Again because of the very warm dry nights we have been experiencing, these beach gatherings have been taking place with increasing frequency of late. Indeed they can prove highly entertaining and be most enjoyable if kept within reasonable parameters. Unfortunately more often than not, this is not the case.

A common practice as many of these beach parties end in the early hours, is the slinging of empty bottles into the dying embers of a bonfire which then burst in the heat spreading splinters and slivers of broken glass over a wide area. Incoming tides then cover these splinters with a light coat of sand with the result that children and indeed unsuspecting adults can sustain quite serious cuts as they then walk the strands in their bare feet.

One of these barbecues was apparently held at the popularly known Minister's Cove at Abbeyside strand last Sunday night with the result that the beach was left littered with rubbish, empty beer cans and discarded bottles. At the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council on Monday night the matter was raised by Cllr. Billy Kyne who congratulated the Council workers for the quick clean up of the locality carried out by them that afternoon. He criticised as frightening and disgusting the amount of rubbish and litter left behind by people who use the beaches and he appealed to local residents to at least be seen to make an effort to keep them clean as it was clear that most of those who came from outside made no effort to do so.

We whole heartedly endorse this criticism and fully support the Abbey-side Councillor's appeal to keep our beaches litter free.

ARD MHOR DHEUGLAIN

July 24 marks the annual "pattern day" of Ardmore as it is the feast of St. Declan, patron of the parish. Sunday next, July 23, being the nearest Sunday to the actual festival date is, therefore "Pattern Sunday" when a greater than usual influx of visitors to the picturesque West Waterford seaside resort takes place.

Briefly, Declan was the son of Ercus, chief of a noble family of Nan - Deisi (Co. Waterford) and his mother was Dethidin. He was baptised by a Christian teacher, named Colman, who preceded him in time. He was brought up until the age of seven by a relative named Dobran and at this period was placed under the instruction of Dymma, who gave his name to Kildimo in Co. Limerick.

Declan commenced his mission among the pagans of his district in the early part of the fifth century. The lord of Nan - Deisi, we are told, made him a grant of the "soile" called Ard-na-g-caerach, or the Height of the Sheep, a name which has since been changed into Ardmore or the Great Height. Here Declan founded, circa 416, a Seminary which soon won fame as a sanctuary for religion and letters.

In time there followed the building of St. Declan's Oratory, the Cathedral, the Round Tower and the 'Teampul Deiscart' while the ancient site also contains the Tobar Dheuglain, the famous holy well and among the rocks on the nearby beach St. Declan's Stone, beneath which penitents who came to Ardmore "to make the rounds" crept on Pattern Day — July 24 — in the hope of receiving health and spiritual benefits.

Some of these old customs are still practised by the older generation but many have now been forgotten.

DANNY BOY or THE DERRY AIR

Although it is less than twelve months since we had "Danny Boy" as our ballad choice for this corner, we repeat the performance this week to meet a request sent to us by a reader who has, in the past, contributed more than one of the vast selection published down through the years in this corner of the 'Spotlight' page. The accompanying melody is known worldwide as "The Derry Air," so here are the words of "Danny Boy" which goes with it.

Oh Danny boy, the pipes, the pipes are calling,
From glen to glen and down the mountain side,
The summer's gone and all the flowers are dying
'Tis you, 'tis you must go, and I must bide.

But come you back when summer's in the meadow,
Or when the valley's hushed and white with snow
'Tis I'll be there in sunshine or in shadow,
Oh Danny boy, oh Danny boy, I love you so.

And if you come when all the flowers are dying,
And I am dead as dead I well may be,
You'll come and find the place where I am lying,
And kneel and say an 'Ave' there for me.

And I shall hear, tho' soft you tread above me,
And all my dreams shall warmer, sweeter be,
If you'll not fail to tell me that you love me,
Then I shall sleep in peace until you come to me.

But should I live, and should you die for Ireland,
Let not your dying thoughts be all of me;
But breathe a prayer to God for our dear motherland,
That He will hear, and He will set her free.

And I will take your place, and pike, my dearest,
And strike a blow, though weak that blow may be,
To help the cause to which your heart was nearest
And you will rest in peace until I come to thee.

(N.B. — The last two verses above are not normally included in the sung version of the song which usually ends with the singing of the fourth. Whether verses five and six were part of the song when it was first composed or were subsequently added we are unable to say. — Pensman).

RECENT DEATHS

MR. VINCENT COFFEY

We record with sincere regret the death of Mr. Vincent Coffey, Kilbrien Upper, which occurred on Monday, July 10.

Vincent, who would be 24 in September was very involved in Hot Rod Racing. He was the winner of several trophies, including "Driver of the Year Award" in 1986.

He was a fitter/welder by trade and had been employed for 7 years with Thomas Coffey And Son, The Spring, Dungarvan and he also managed the Coffey farm. Vincent was held in great regard by his boss Tom and by all his fellow workers.

He had a great love of animals and he had his own sheep flock at home which he looked after himself.

Vincent was a jolly young man who was held in high regard by all. His death has been the cause of much sorrow to all but more especially to his heartbroken parents and family to whom we extend deep and sincere sympathy on their great loss.

Before leaving the hospital Mortuary the Rosary was recited by Very Rev. R. Doherty, P.P., and Fr. Butler, C.C. Removal was from Dungarvan Hospital on Tuesday evening to Kilbrien Church, where the remains were received and blessed by Rev. P. Butler, C.C., assisted by Rev. R. MR. JAMES MOUNTAIN years had passed to his eternal reward was the source of much grief and sadness in the Old Boro over the weekend.

The sad news that Jimmy Mountain, "Alverna", Burgery and formerly of Grattan Square, Dungarvan, who was aged 74

Jimmy had been in failing health for some time and had been hospitalised in the Mercy Hospital, Cork, where he died last Saturday, July 15. For many years the deceased ran a most successful grocery business on The Square and also was widely known in golfing circles. In 1938 he filled the left half back position on the Deise side that failed by two points to Dublin in the All-Ireland Final. He was one of the kingpins in the highly successful Dungarvan sides during their golden period in the late thirties and early forties.

His remains were removed from the Kiely Funeral Home last Sunday to St. Mary's, Dungarvan. Following the 12 mid-day celebrated Mass on Monday, Jimmy was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

We tender our sympathy to his wife Lily, sons Fr. Jim, Tony, Vincent and daughters Elizabeth and Maura on their loss.

Full obituary in next issue.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely and Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

MR. WILLIAM MAHER

It was late on Saturday afternoon at his residence, Gortnadiha, Ring, that Willie Maher answered the call of the Great Reaper. Ce nach raibh slainte an bhradain aige le fada, ni raibh einne ag suil le crioich beatha. All his life Willie was a hard working industrious member of the Waterford County Council who by his efforts won the acclaim of all. He toiled when times were tough and hence saw many changes in society over his 78 years. A native of Grange, for some years he resided in Old Parish, but most of us Dungarvanites knew him as Willie Maher of Gortnadiha. He loved An Rinn, it's fabric, history and it's picturesque landscape.

Last Sunday evening following Prayers of Requiem and Rosary at the Kiely Funeral Home tugadh Willie abhaile go Seipeal na Rinne. Tar eis Aifreann na Marbh ar an Luain cuireadh Willie, agus slua an mhór bailithe aris.

Deinimid comhbhrón lena bhean Bridie agus an clann go leir.

Abbeyside Scout Notes

SCOUTS NEWS!

Last Friday night we had our July Church Parade. Our altar boys were John Kyne and Peter Moynihan while our readers were Alan Hackett and Neil O'Kennedy — S.L. Ray was Minister of the Eucharist.

Saturday's troop meeting was full uniform. After the opening prayers camp monies and subs were collected. With camp just around the corner all our activities are camp orientated. To take full advantage of the glorious weather we are having, we went out to the field where the patrols pitched all the ridge tents, toilets tents, and the remainder of the stone tents. Martin Whelan and John Paul Cosgrave made an early start on the store tents last Thursday night. Michael O'Connor on his return to scouting needed a bit of a refresher on his tent pitching skills, Anthony Hackett did a good foreman's job while Brian Carroll, Patrick O'Dea and Brian MacNamara showed how much they have learned in their short scouting lives.

When all the tents were pitched, David Stearn arrived to take the photographs for this year's camp booklet. The only sad thing for the lads is this year's booklet is in black and white so they won't get a chance to show off their tans (isn't that right Michael S.)

It was back into the den then for this week's notices. We ended with the closing prayers and this week's Court of Honour which was gladly a lot sharper than last weeks.

This Wednesday (July 16) we have our final overnight of the season before the big one.

All scouts are reminded to have their bikes down for next Saturday's troop meeting.

FINALLY

I cannot finish these notes without saying thanks to all who dug into their pockets and searched the purse to provide cash for our Church Gate collection last week-end.

Not alone is the money most welcome but it's nice to know the general public are, as always, very generous when scouting calls.

It only remains for us to now put your money to good use. Thanks again. — Sub-Subscribe Plus.

Dungarvan Man Bequeaths £100,000 For Civil Rights And Republican Groups

On last Monday night in Dublin, veteran New York lawyer, Paul O'Dwyer distributed £100,000 to Republican and Civil Rights Organisations in Ireland on behalf of Sean McCarthy, a former member of the Republican Movement who died in the U.S.

Sean McCarthy was a native of Dungarvan where his family lived in Mary Street and his sister, the late Miss Essie McCarthy, had a sweets and fancy goods shop in Lower Main Street in days gone by. He was a regular visitor to Dungarvan up to a short while before his death in 1986 and was a well-known figure in the town. Some years ago he presented a set of fine paintings to Dungarvan Urban Council which were done in Paris from snapshots of well-known spots around the Old Boro' and these are now hanging in the Council's new hospitality suite on the top floor of the Town Hall.

A staunch republican all his life, Sean McCarthy emigrated to the U.S. where he worked as a waiter on ships. He died in New York in 1986 in his 80's.

In his will he instructed Mr. O'Dwyer, who was the executor to distribute his money to sympathetic Irish causes. Another £50,000 was set aside for his family.

GROUPS CHOSEN

In Ireland, a group of 10 organisations and individuals have been chosen to receive £10,000 each. They are: the Sean MacBride Foundation; the Irish Anti-Extradition Committee; the Birmingham Six Committee; the Irish Committee for Prisoners Overseas; Kadar Asmal, of the Irish Council for Civil Liberties; long-time political activist Bernadette Devlin-McAllisley; writer Michael Farrell; solicitor Ann Rowlands; barrister Rory Brady; and Father Des Wilson of The Conway Mills Project in Derry.

It is understood that for tax purposes both Ms. McAllisley and Father Wilson nominated representatives in the Republic to accept the money on their behalf.

DUNGARVAN YOUTH CLUB

THE FRENCH EXCHANGE

The French arrived in Cork at 2.30 p.m. and most of the families who are taking them went up on a bus to welcome them. On the way back the bus broke down so we had to send up another bus to bring them down. They arrived at the Youth Club at 7.30 p.m. Later that night they attended a get to know you disco at the Club.

FRIDAY NIGHT

On Friday night we had our first disco since the Regional Games. We had a great turnout and everyone enjoyed themselves so much that all are looking forward to another disco this week.

THE BARBECUE

On Sunday night we travelled to Ballydwane for our barbecue. Before the burgers and sausages were cooked we had a game of soccer. After the game we went in for some orange because we were parched with the thirst. Rosaleen Sheehan had an accident with the sausages while Brian turned out some lovely burgers. Comeragh Youth Club came down at about 9.30 p.m. We played them in a game of soccer before heading for home at 11 p.m.

PROGRAMME WITH THE FRENCH

On Tuesday night the French students and the families they are staying with went to Ring to a ceili. On Thursday they will be going to Sterling Drug, and on Friday, Saturday and Sunday they will be going camping in Melleray. On Monday morning they will be going to the Glass Factory Sports Centre. This Thursday we will be going on a hike to Cruachan. We will be leaving the Youth Club at 6.30 p.m.

Remembering Other Days

At least one of the two photos selected for our "Remembering Other Days" series this week is quite topical as it shows how people were entertained and enjoyed themselves on summer days on Clonea Strand all of 70 years ago. Above we see preparations for the start of a donkey and cart race during which the drivers stood erect like charioteers as they urged their 'nèddys' on. Note the old cloth caps which were in style in those days and the fact that none of the drivers held a whip or stick.

Below is a snap taken in Mitchel Street facing towards Emmet Street in Dungarvan (almost opposite the Parish Church) on the occasion of a Eucharistic Procession in the early years of the present century and framed in an archway of greenery that spanned the entire width of the street. We are indebted to Alicia Browné for both of these memorable old photos.

UNDER 14 HURLING

On Saturday last in Walsh Park we tasted defeat at the hands of St. Saviours in the Under 14 County Final. As in the Feile play-off this was another epic encounter with the result being in doubt right up to the last minute. In the end we were beaten by one point (3-2 to 2-4), and though defeat is always bitter we must congratulate St. Saviours who deserved their win on the day.

LISMORE CAMOGIE NOTES

Our senior players had a 6-12 to 0-2 win over Erin's Own last week in the county championship semi-final in Dungarvan. They led at half-time by 1-8 to 0-2 but moved into another gear in the second half to add 4-4 without any reply. So now we are into the county final against Gaultier next week. This looks to be a thriller of a match with Lismore going for the 5-in-a-row and Gaultier going out to avenge for those two county final defeats of '85 and '86. Past meetings were always close, exciting affairs and this one will probably be no different. Gaultier have nothing to lose in this match, and the pressure is really on Lismore to prove their worth as county champions.

Team: M. Curran, T. Caples, A. Bennett, M. Kearney (capt.), C. Caples, O. Flynn (0-4), E. Daly, C. Murphy, P. Bolger (2-3), M. Quirke (0-1), A. M. O'Gorman (3-1), M. Murphy (1-3). Subs: B. Crowley, S. McCarthy, L. McCarthy, B. Barry, J. Tobin.

Our junior team also had a great win over Ardkeen by 4-3 to 1-0 in the county quarter final. Lismore were always on top although the first half was a close encounter. In the second half Lismore turned their advantage into scores and pulled away from their opponents. Team: B. O'Keeffe, C. Murphy, B. Crowley, M. Cunningham, L. McCarthy (0-1), M. Kenneally (2-0), J. Tobin (capt. 1-1), S. O'Gorman (1-0), B. Daly (0-2), B. Barry, S. McCarthy, G. Barry. Subs: C. O'Gorman, H. Barry, D. Hickey, G. Cunningham.

Finally, best of luck to our five county panelists in the Munster Junior Camogie Final against Cork in the Glen Field on Saturday evening at 7.30 p.m.

Cappoquin Notes

ROWING CHAMPIONS

What a day and what an achievement for the members of the Cappoquin and Cork composite coxed four when they crowned a magnificent season by taking the senior championship at Blessington Lake. Belfast were second, two lengths away, with Neptune third by a canvas. It was the first occasion for this title to come south. In the winning boat were Pat and Milo Murray, 1 and 2, with the Cork representation being Finbarr Heas 3, Pat Peilow (stroke) and Brendan Rose, cox. It was truly a marvellous performance and club members have expressed their pride and jubilation in the performance of the two local heroes.

CAPPOQUIN FLOWER CLUB

The time has come for our annual outing. This year we are going to Glenstal Abbey to our National Flower Festival, on Saturday, 19th August. The bus leaves Cappoquin at 9.30 a.m. — cost of outing to members £17.00, non members £19.00. Names to hon. sec., Mrs. M. Feerick, by August 1st please. Our thanks to our Hon. Sec. for a most enjoyable evening in June visiting her lovely garden.

MR. DECLAN FOLEY, AFFANE, CAPPOQUIN

His family and many friends are grieved by the death of Mr. Declan Foley, Affane, Cappoquin which occurred at Dungarvan District Hospital on July 1st. He was, deservedly, a well known and most popular member of the farming community. Very large and representative corteges attended the removal of remains and interment at Affane when the officiating clergy were Very Rev. Ml. Barron P.P., Very Rev. A. McGrath, Very Rev. W. Phelan P.P., Very Rev. M. Russell P.P., Rev. J. McCarthy, Rev. Fr. Crowley, Rev. Fr. O'Brien, Rev. Fr. Meehan, Rev. Fr. O'Donovan. He is survived by his brothers Rev. Fr. Michael Foley, Australia, Joe, England, and Jimmy and Paddy, Affane; Mrs. Browne, Newcastle on Tyne, sister; Kevin and Michael Browne, nephews; Dick Browne, brother-in-law; Tess Foley, sister-in-law; cousins, relatives and friends.

RAILWAY ATHLETIC F.C.

On Saturday last our under 12 team and supporters made the long journey to Thomond College, Limerick to play in the Munster finals of the Community Games. Our first game was against Clare. After a long delay we finally got started and began very well as almost straight from the kick-off we went straight into attack. Despite all our pressure Clare broke away and scored. Just two minutes later a Clare defender handled and Conor Barrett equalised from the spot. Our midfield were brilliant and always in control. With eight minutes remaining Glenn Arrigan picked up a Clare clearance, made space for himself, and shot to the net.

Forty minutes later we went back on the field for our semi-final v Cork, who, favoured by the draw, had reached the semi-final without kicking a ball. Cork goaled in the first minute and this put a lot of pressure on our young lads. With most of the play the equaliser eluded us. With five minutes remaining Cork scored their second goal to seal the issue. It was clearly unjust to have to face a fresh team after such a short interval. Well done to the youngsters who gave of their best and were Niall Maher, Liam Whelan, Christy Dalton, Ward Fraher, Willie Fraher, Willie Murphy, Conor Barrett, Martin Ormond, Dermot Coughlan (capt.), James Manahan, Glenn Arrigan, Michael Moynihan, Alan Barry, Peter Keniry, Anthony Keniry, Stephen Curran, Shane Manahan, Paul Morrissey.

The volleyball team were unlucky in their final having played well. A refereeing decision cost them a place at Butlins. Parents — Don't forget our celebration disco next Friday night in the Boathouse.

CREDIT UNION

The monthly meeting was held at the Lismore Offices with Mr. Paddy Lawton in the chair. A discussion took place covering future plans and prospects and all members contributed enthusiastically. The treasurer presented the balance sheet to the end of June which, together with sub committee reports was unanimously adopted.

CAPPOQUIN/BALLINAMEELA A.C.

On Sunday last Fiona Lynch represented the club in the Senior Championships in R.T.C. track in Cork, where all the top senior athletes were competing. Once again Fiona was amongst the medal winners taking third place in the hammer event. So well done Fiona.

Grand Opening Of Dungarvan's New Twin Cinema Complex

The great new twin Cinema complex of the Ormonde Dungarvan got off to a grand opening on last Friday night when the first shows in each of Cinema 1 and Cinema 2 went ahead to capacity audiences at 8.15 p.m.

"Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade" was the feature in Cinema 1 while the James Bond "Licence To Kill" was the attraction in Cinema 2.

The twin cinema complex is a new venture for Dungarvan but is one which will, without doubt, meet with general approval as it will provide a choice of programmes in compact comfortable surroundings.

DRIVE AND INITIATIVE

Manager of the new complex is Joe Greene who hails from Castlemartyr. A young man with great drive and initiative, Joe has an immense amount of experience as he grew up in the family business which runs cinemas in both Middleton and Cobh. In the course of an interview, he told the 'Leader' that his main aim where Dungarvan's new twin cinemas are concerned is to provide an entertaining evening for patrons in comfort.

He said that patrons could also be assured of the very best programmes with first run films and runs of the top-class major shows. He also said that he would be planning for charity shows and would be making special arrangements for group bookings etc. Both cinemas will run on a full 7 nights a week basis with the late shows on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at 10.45 p.m.

THE WISHING STONES

The Wishing Stones, Dungarvan, have been together for sixteen months. They are a rock band who, since 1988, have been writing their own material. They recorded their first demo-tape in "Electra Studios", Dublin, at Easter, the demo-tape (including the songs "Saints And Scholars") is now readily available.

The Wishing Stones played in Sir Henry's, Cork, in April for the "Telethon", the band then entered a competition in Waterford, open to Munster bands, fifteen bands in all took part, and The Wishing Stones have made their way to the finals, due to take place on August 4, at the Bridge Hotel, Waterford. The Wishing Stones supported "Cactus World News" in Waterford.

2FM D. J., Dave Fanning, has played their demo on his show on several occasions.

On June 29, The Wishing

Stones played a highly successful gig to a packed house at O.B.'s Nite Club. They are due to play the same venue on July 27.

On July 20 they are playing the Baggot Inn, Dublin, a rock venue internationally renowned.

A management deal is currently under negotiations.

The Wishing Stones comprise of: Darren O'Connor—lead vocals; Connor Power—lead guitar; Owen Kehoe—rhythm guitar; Brendan Hayes—bass guitar; Dermot Dwyer—drums.

They wish to express their thanks to Court Travel, and also to John Coleman, Dirk Baumann, Michael Foley, Liam Shanley, Seamus Hayes, The Wishing Stones' parents, and everyone who have turned out locally or out of town to see them.

They look forward to your continued support in the future.

Massed Bands Recital Delighted Everyone

At the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council held last Monday night Cllr. R. Walsh proposed that the Dungarvan Traders Association and the Dungarvan Brass Band be congratulated for organising the massed bands parade and recitals which took place around the town on Sunday last.

Cllr. Walsh said that while there was a big number at the Square for the recital with which everyone was highly delighted, the weather was unfortunately too fine as crowds had gone to the seaside. Because of the success of last Sunday's venture it was hoped that such a parade and recital would become an annual event in the town, he said.

The resolution was passed unanimously.

And all the things we did enjoy,
A pleasant smile, a heart of gold,
No better friend could this world hold,
May the wind of love blow gently,
And whisper for you to hear,
I will always miss you,
And hold your memories near.
(Never forgotten by her loving daughter Bridie, son-in-law Pat and family.)

And wish that you were here.
(Sadly missed by your loving husband Pat.)

WADE — First Anniversary — Treasured memories today and always of my dear mother Helen Wade, late of 3, Sheare's Street, Abbeyside, who died on July 24th, 1988.

When you lose someone you love,
The hurt is hard to hide,
But when you lose your mother,
The hurt is deep inside.
Her smile is gone forever,
Her hand I cannot touch,
But I will never lose the memory,
Of a mother I loved so much.
To where she rests I visit
It's where I feel most near,
No one knows the sorrow,
As I turn and leave you there.
(Always remembered by her son, Tony.)

WADE — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my mother Helen Wade, 3, Sheare's Street, Abbeyside, who died on July 24, 1988.

God must have thought you special,
To take you the way He did,
They say He only takes the best,
And this He surely did.

Look around your garden Lord
For an angel with a smile,
She won't be hard to recognise,
She must stand out a mile.
So put your arms around her Lord
And kiss her smiling face,
For she is very special
And can never be replaced.
They say that time heals everything
But I can't believe it's true,
For the ache in my heart Mam is still the same
As the day I lost you.
(Loved and remembered always by your daughter Anne and Bob.)

WADE — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear Mam, Helen Wade, late of 3, Sheare's Street, Abbeyside, who died on July 24, 1988.

You have suffered more than you can stand
Come with me to a better land.

Love her while you may,
For I wish with all my heart
That mine was here today.

The hurt is hard to hide,
But when we lose our mother

A mother I loved so very much and wish I had today.
(Your loving son John.)

(Sadly missed by your loving granddaughters, Lisa, Tonya, Stacey.)

WADE — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear sister Helen Wade, late of 3 Sheare's Street, Abbeyside, who died on July 24, 1988.

When we find ourselves in times of trouble,
The thing we do is pray,
To a sister we had loved so much
In a very special way,
The most wonderful sister to ever live,
Whatever she had she was willing to give,
She never complained she wasn't that kind,
She was one of those sisters hard to find,
So soft and gentle so loving so tender,
A beautiful sister we will always remember,
Quietly today your memory we treasure.
(Always remembered by your loving sister Sheila, brother-in-law Jimmy and family.)

WADE — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear sister Helen Wade, late of 3 Sheare's Street, Abbeyside, who died on July 24, 1988.

Mass offered.
We cannot bring the old days back,
When we were all together,
But silent tears and loving thoughts,
Remain of you forever,
The home you left is lonely now,
And we are lonely too,
Those left behind are good and kind,
But no one replaces you.
(Never forgotten by her loving sister Mary and family.)

WADE — First Anniversary — In loving memory of Helen Wade, late of 3 Sheare's Street, Abbeyside, who died on July 24, 1988.

Your life was one of kindly deeds,
A helping hand for others needs,
Sincere and true in heart and mind,
Beautiful memories left behind.
(Always remembered by your mother-in-law Jo and family at home and away.)

WADE — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dearest friend and companion, Helen Wade, late of 3 Sheare's Street, Abbeyside, who died on July 24, 1988. R.I.P. Mass offered.

I often sit and think of you
And wish that you were here,
Because I miss you Helen
Because you used to care,
We shared each others joy and grief
And helped to carry on,
Even though at times we felt
That life was so unfair,
You suffered much but now its past
You are in a happy land,
And one day too we will meet again
And clasp each others hand.
(Always in my thoughts and prayers, your fond friend Kitty and family.)

KILL NOTES

ST. MARY'S

Last Sunday we played Passage in the U-16 Eastern hurling semi-final. In sweltering heat, we were beaten by 4-9 to 4-6. After a slow start we came to terms with Passage and were leading when they struck for 3 goals. Half-time score — St. Mary's 1-3; Passage 3-5.

The game burst into life in the second half, as Passage scored an early goal. But with some brilliant saves from goalie Peter Torpey and a marvellous goal from Eddie Power, when he ran with the ball for 50 yards before striking it into the net, we drew back an eleven points lead by a point. Passage, however, got some late points to hold out and emerge victors. Best for St. Mary's, Peter Torpey, Liam Lannon, Brian Hayes, Eddie Power and Patrick Foran.

The Team was — Peter Torpey, John Flynn, Darren Power, Kieran Veale, Brian Hayes, Liam Lannon, Andy Hubbard, Seamas Power, Eddy Power (2-2), Keith Kirwan (0-3), Kieran Whelan, Owen Kiely, Damien O'Brien (0-1), Patrick Foran (2-0), Anton Lannon. Subs. — Andy Morrissey, James O'Rourke.

SAD OCCASION

Last Monday night was a sad occasion for the people of Kill as our curate Rev. Fr. Condon, C.C., left the village. He now takes up a post in the Sacred Heart, Waterford. He was a popular man in the community and was a member of several clubs. He will be most remembered for the reconstruction of the Church in Kill. We wish him well!

ARDMORE NOTES

SPECIAL THANKS

A special 'thank you' has to be said to the girls and boys who spend their summer months teaching water safety here in Ardmore. They are Paul Coleman and Leslie Roch (Life saving) and Fiona Cunningham and Aine Tyres (beginners and intermediate). Due to the fine weather they had quite a large number of children in attendance. Approximately 170 took part in this month's lessons. Saturday was 'D' day for the swimmers when the 'inspection' came for the final swimming tests. All went well and water games followed. Remember — you're never too old to learn to swim, and the younger you start, the sooner you can enjoy the water. Next lessons in Ardmore are in August. More of that later.

TOPS OF THE TOWN

The Clashmore Variety group are coming to Ardmore on this Thursday, 20th July. They will be presenting their entry to the Tops of the Town 'Life and People'. So, on Thursday night at 8.45 p.m., St. Declan's Hall, Ardmore, is the place to be. See you there Aggie!

Co-stars will be a group of 'Holy' Fathers and Sisters calling themselves 'The Holy Show'. We've heard it's the best comedy in Waterford — so don't miss Thursday night!

ARDMORE LADIES FOOTBALL

Last week we had a good win against the Old Parish girls, who are a newly formed team. They have some great players, so the best of luck to these girls in their football future. Wednesday evening, July 19 will find us playing the Newtown girls in Newtown in the third round of the league. We're up against some tough opposition that night. The following week we will play the Deise.

We were lucky to get these matches played so early, as our two trainers will be getting married on July 31 (to each other!). We would all like to say many thanks to Breda and Tommy for all their dedication, when they must have plenty more to do! We wish them the best of luck in the future and every happiness together from the 'Squad'.

G.A.A. NOTES

Well done to the lads of the U-14 hurling team. You did well to get to the point you did. Better luck next year! Well done also to the U-12's who had a good win over Brickey's last Monday evening. Again, better luck next time to the U-16 lads!

RECENT VISITOR

A recent visitor to Ardmore was Jimmy Troy, brother of Mrs. J. Power, the Cliff. He was well known in the fishing fraternity of Ardmore and he and Jimmy Rooney had many chats about old times. He and Willie Whelan of Ballyquin are the only two survivors of the Coast Watching Service who manned the Ram Head out-post all during World War II.

It is 22 years since he last was in Ardmore and he was very glad to see that everyone in the village was so well off, in contrast to the days when he had to emigrate and spend 20 years in the coal mines of England. Rev. Father Reid C.C. and he also had several chats, as he had served Mass for a long time for a friend of his in England. Jimmy now lives in Bolton and has been very active in parish life there.

PAINTING EXHIBITION

There will be an exhibition of paintings by Anne Carlton in the I.C.A. Hall on the following dates and times: Saturday, July 22nd at 8.30 p.m. — 10.30 p.m.; Sunday, July 23rd at 10.30 a.m. — 10.30 p.m.; Monday, July 24th at 10.30 a.m. — 6.00 p.m. Admission is free.

THE PATTERN

SUNDAY — CAUTION

If this coming Sunday is anything like last Sunday, with the huge crowds, and as it is Pattern it is bound to be, car drivers please use the side of the road to park, not on the footpath! By obstructing the footpath, you force children to walk on the road and, with a large number of cars around, there is a very real danger of a fatal road accident.

Discos in St. Declan's Hall Pattern Friday and Saturday and Mick Delahunty will be in the hall on Sunday night.

TRAVELLING ABROAD?

For any 'sun-seekers' who are not already scorched by our heatwave, and are planning a trip to more sun, and don't want to totally rely on English to get them by, there are language classes now available in French and German, contact Sally at (024) 94187. All levels taught.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations this week to Amanda Hosford and John Mansfield who announced their engagement on last Monday, July 17.

WELCOME HOME

To Fr. James Hurley S.J. who is at present visiting his sister, Mrs. Siobhan Lincoln. Fr. Hurley's own parish is now out in Hong Kong. Happy holidays!

COMING SOON

Brush up your Irish dancing because you're in for a treat on July 27th. There will be a Ceili in St. Declan's Hall, run by the Co. Waterford C.C.E. More details next week.

WATERFORD COUNTY COUNCIL/DUNGARVAN URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL

Due to the continuous dry spell, many water supplies within the County are presently unable to cope with demand.

Accordingly, consumers are asked not to waste water — watering gardens, washing cars, etc., and to minimise use generally.

All supplies are liable to be interrupted without warning and water will be rationed as required.

Thank you for your co-operation.

Signed:

County Secretary, Town Clerk.

TALLOW NOTES

PAT BARRY, CONVENT ST., TALLOW R.I.P.

Poignant scenes were witnessed, and many people wept openly at the funeral of young Pat Barry at Tallow cemetery last Wednesday. Pat, a very popular and well known member of the staff of Keniry's Supermarket in the town, died in Dungarvan District Hospital, the result of a serious accident which occurred some weeks previously. Considered always as a good humored and obliging boy in his early twenties he made lots of friends and his passing at such a young age is indeed regretted.

Our sympathy is extended to his parents Peter and Elizabeth Barry, Convent Street, Tallow, brothers John, Michael and Noel, sister Elizabeth, uncles, aunts, grandmother, relatives and friends.

The interment took place after Requiem Mass in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow.

MRS. MARY O'BRIEN (NEE KENT), TALLOW

The death took place last Wednesday at her residence Kilwinny Tower, Tallow, of Mrs Mary O'Brien. A highly esteemed person in the district her demise is much mourned by all and we offer our sincere sympathy to her husband James (Jamie), her daughter Margaret, her sons John and Liam, brothers, sister, brother-in-law, daughter-in-law, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends. She was interred in Tallow cemetery. Solus na bhflaitheas da h-anam usual.

MISS SIOBHAN MURPHY, FERMOY R.I.P.

The recent death of Miss Siobhan Murphy, ex-N.T., "San Giovanni," Duntahen, Fermoy, caused profound sadness in the town and district where she enjoyed immense popularity. Well into her eighties Siobhan led a full life until a couple of years ago when she was hospitalised. A native of Cobh and having qualified for the teaching profession she was assigned to her first post in Salthill, Galway. Returning again to the homeland she taught for a while there. Araglin was her next school, then Castlelyons and finally Kilworth, where she retired. She will always be remembered as a great exponent of the Irish language and her great love of it made an impression on many people. Her generosity too in the schoolroom and outside of it will be remembered when she was ever ready and willing to help pupils and her welcome "grinds" to pupils up to a few years ago was much appreciated. Her staunch faith and also her great devotion to Padre Pio will be remembered. She was buried in Cobh. Guimid Beannacht De ar a h-anam uasal.

PAT BARRY, CONVENT STREET R.I.P.

AN APPRECIATION

July 10, 1989, was a sad day for the whole community of Tallow, but especially for Pat's family who are deeply grieved by his untimely death. Those of us who had the pleasure of knowing Pat are shocked by his death and haven't yet come to terms with our great loss. He loved life and lived it to the full. Ever bright and chirpy, it was a tonic for us all to share the workplace with him. And we lucky people were but a small fraction of his friends. Pat had a cheery word for everyone and all from 9 to 90, loved meeting him and sharing the inevitable joke.

He was so kind and so considerate to the old and so helpful to all. No matter what the mood of colleagues of customer, his bright smile and sunny personality dispelled the gloom and brightened everyone's life.

We would like Pat's family to know how closely we shared the agony of the last six weeks and how thankful we are to have known him. He brightened our lives and his attitude to life and living has set a standard for us all. How sad that he should be taken from us as he stood on the threshold of life, but we are better people for having known Pat. A day will not pass that we won't have fond memories of his lovable character. Pat, you will never be far from our thoughts. — Caroline and Mairead.

VOTE OF SYMPATHY — TALLOW FINE GAEL

At a specially convened meeting of the above branch, sincere sympathy was expressed to the Barry family, Convent Street., on the tragic death of their son Pat.

BRIDE VIEW UNITED A.F.C.

Sympathy — The club would like to extend its deepest sympathy to the Barry family of Convent Street. Also to the O'Brien family of Kilwinny and to the relatives of Jo Holland, New Street.

Kevin Moran — This P.R.O. and some of our younger players met Kevin Moran in Dunhill last week. A very pleasant lad he is and he is looking forward to Italy next year. And so say all of us.

A.G.M. — The clubs A.G.M. was held on Tuesday night last and a full report will appear in this paper next week.

SPURS IN CORK

Spurs and Gary Lineker will be in Cork next week and some club members are hoping to make the trip.

TALLOW G.A.A.

NOTES

M.H.C. — Tallow 4-10; Dungarvan 2-7 — Tallow minor hurlers qualified for this years divisional final, against the reigning champions Lismore with a 9 point defeat of Dungarvan, in Cappoquin on Wednesday night last. Tallow were on top for a long while against Dungarvan but some of the hurling was ragged, especially in the first half, but they totally dominated the second half and goals from K. O'Keefe, Gary Ahearne and James Beecher had Tallow deserving winners at the finish. A lot of work will have to be done before the final if we are to have any chance of beating Lismore.

Team — John Doyle, Ed. Nicholson, Colin Cunningham, Connie Henley, Paul McDonnell, David O'Regan, Ger O'Gorman, Billy Mahoney, Denis Flaherty, Clive Barry, Trevor Sheehan (capt), Kieran O'Keefe, Gary Ahearne, James Beecher, Eamonn Power.

S.H.C. — Tallow 1-5; Roanmore 6-15 — How the mighty have fallen was how one person described this Tallow performance on Sunday last at sun drenched Dungarvan. Except for the first quarter of an hour Tallow were totally annihilated in the second half. We missed three golden opportunities of goals in that first quarter. Roanmore were totally on top and ran out convincing winners in the finish.

That Tallow turned up at all is a fair indication of how our senior team are at the moment, just fulfilling the fixtures.

Our team was — M. ST. CATHERINES G.A.A.

With little more than a week to our first championship encounter for this year in the intermediate hurling, when we meet Mallow at Kilworth, our team is busy training and last Sunday evening they journeyed to Cloyne to play the local team in a league game. This was a pretty fast game on a hard and lively sod. Catherine's had a two point advantage midway and both teams were deadlocked almost up to the final whistle when the homesters obtained that lucky break to win by 4-9 to 1-15.

Billy Cody, Middleton, referred. A minute's silence was observed in memory of the recent death of Mrs. Dymphna Barry.

Junior Hurling — The junior hurlers travelled to Lismore last Friday evening for a friendly game with Lismore. The latter were victorious.

U-16 — The U-16 hurlers beat Cappoquin at Ballynoe and at the same venue last Saturday evening Killeagh defeated them in a league game.

Minor Football — Catherine's minor footballers were well beaten in the championship tie at Dungourney last Tuesday evening and Catherine's junior footballers had to concede victory to Castlemartyr in a league contest at the latter's venue.

U-14 — The U-14 hurlers defeated Erin's Own in a league game at Caherlag pitch last Monday.

The Club Draw will take place at the clubrooms, Ballynoe, on this Thursday evening and draw for Munster final tickets took place there earlier in the week.

1989 CATTLE AND EQUINES GRANT SCHEMES

— DISADVANTAGED AREAS ONLY —

Payments on equines are being made for the first time ever in the Less Severely Handicapped Areas this year. The payment rates on equines have been increased from £32 and £28 to £70 and £66 and payment will be calculated separately from payment on cattle — this means an applicant may receive grants on up to 30 equines in addition to his/her cattle grants. Payments on beef cows in mixed enterprise herds at the £70 and £66 beef cow payment rates also will continue in 1989.

1. Cattle and Equines Headage Scheme in More Severely Handicapped Areas

Under this Scheme the rates of payment on beef cows are £70 on the first 8 and £66 on the next 22 while the rates of payment on other cattle are £32 on any livestock unit in the first 8 and £28 on any livestock unit in the next 22. The maximum payable in respect of cattle is £2,012.

The rates of payment on equines are £70 on the first 8 and £66 on the next 22 and the maximum payable in respect of equines is £2,012 also.

2. Beef Cow and Equines Scheme in Less Severely Handicapped Areas

In these Areas the rates of payment on beef cows are £70 on the first 8 and £66 on the next 20 and the maximum payable is £1,880.

The rates of payment on equines and maximum applicable are the same as those which apply in respect of equines in the More Severely Handicapped Areas.

— ALL AREAS OF THE COUNTRY —

3. EC Scheme of Premiums for Maintaining Suckler Cows.

All farmers who own suckler herds for breeding beef calves may now apply for premiums under this Scheme regardless of any off-farm income they have. The rate of premium has been increased from £37.99 to £52.43.

4. EC Special Beef Premium Scheme

Registered herdowners under the Bovine Tuberculosis Eradication Scheme may apply for this premium in respect of cattle of at least 9 months of age at date of application which have been ear-tagged, fattened on their holdings and kept on those holdings for at least two months after application or until inspection whichever is later. Only cattle found at inspection will be paid premium. The payment rate has been increased from £15.20 to £34.96 and the maximum number of male cattle on which an applicant may claim premium has been increased from 50 to 90.

— COMPOSITE APPLICATION FORMS —

Composite application forms for all Schemes above have been posted to herdowners. Intending applicants who have not received a form should request one immediately from the local office of the Department. The closing date for receipt of applications is now being extended to 28 July 1989 — But there will be no flexibility whatever in relation to forms received after that final closing date.

Causeway Tennis Notes

YOUNGLINE

Youth has taken the Causeway by storm with the start of yet another Junior Open Week. Steam can now be seen rising from the courts as local and visiting players battle to get into the next round. We are delighted with the large entry and we hope they will enjoy the tennis and the entertainment we have lined up for them.

Yvonne Flynn of Lr. Aghada who recently became No. 1 U-12 girl in Ireland is here with her sisters Clare and Caroline and we could perhaps anticipate a final between herself and Ann Brennan if the seeding points the way. Judy O'Brien flushed with her spectacular defeat of favourite Jane Hyland in the final of U-18 girls singles in Sundays Well, is also competing at home. All finals will take place on Saturday followed by the presentation of prizes.

SUNSHINE CUP

Our sunshine turned to shadow in Rushbrooke on Sunday when our U-16 team were defeated in the quarter finals. Despite the absence of our No. 1 boy Patrick Veale, our team put up a hard fight but succeeded in winning just 2 matches with Kieran and Ann. Team: Paul O'Brien (sub for P. Veale), Gerard McCarthy, Kieran Higgins, Rachel Byrne, Cathy O'Mahoney, Ann Brennan.

JUNIOR SUCCESS

Elizabeth Moloney came very close to winning the U-12 singles title in Tramore last week but was pipped 7-5 in the final set by club mate Claire Dalton. Elizabeth and partner Leah Hartnett went on to win the doubles against Emma and Claire Dalton. Enda Donnelly and partner Brian Hobert met Sean Timoney and Stephen Granville in the final of the boys doubles and finished as runners up after a good game. Well done to all who took part.

St. Laurence's Tennis Club Notes

GOOD RESULTS FOR ST. LAURENCE'S PLAYERS

In recent weeks St. Laurence's teams and individual players have enjoyed a fair amount of success in this hectic tennis season. Our Mens Nationalist team are on a winning streak and hope to notch up a third consecutive victory when they play Mallow on Thursday July 27, in St. Laurence's. Our ladies Michel Cup team were unlucky to meet a better team in Limerick Lawn in their second round tie. Our Guinness A team are progressing nicely with well earned victories over Ballinlough and Nenagh.

In the Causeway Open Week St. Laurence's players had a bumper week. In the Mens Premier Singles, John Ryan defeated fellow club member Michael Drummey, while in the Mens Doubles John teamed up with Lar Cummins to defeat Michael Drummy and David Walsh. In the Mixed Doubles Ger and Margaret Cusack beat Lar and Majella Cummins and in the Ladies Doubles Cora Kirwan and Margaret Cusack defeated Teresa Keane and Ann Brennan. In the Mens B Singles Declan O'Keefe was a winner while in the Ladies B Doubles Rita Moore teamed up with Ann O'Grada to take the title.

up with Mary Coffey to win the C Doubles. Meanwhile at the Kilkenny Open Week, Margaret Browne was narrowly defeated in the Ladies B Singles semi-final, while Frances Carroll playing with Vinnie O'Toole from St. Ann's had to settle for the runner-up spot in the B mixed final.

CONGRATULATIONS

To Rachel Byrne in her great victory in the U-14 Singles in Rushbrooke and to Judy O'Brien on a magnificent win in the U-18 Singles in Sundays Well.

Annual Basketball International At Sports Centre

Next Monday night in Dungarvan Sports Centre the annual Big Big basketball game takes place with the participation of international players and coaches from the I.B.B.A. National Basketball Clinic currently running in St. Augustine's College.

Many of the regular big names will be there and a welcome addition to the programme this year will be a match arranged between the Irish Junior Women's team under coach Danny Thompson assisted by our own Gerry Fitzpatrick from Wildcats Waterford and a National League selection coached by Roger Kelleher, currently playing with Team Budweiser.

Tip off in the ladies match will be 7.15 and the Big Big game will follow at 8.15 p.m.

This is the fourth year of this extravaganza and connoisseurs of the game will be loath to miss this year's encounter.

Among the big names lining out this year will be: Tom Wilkinson, former captain of the Irish International squad currently playing with Burgerland; John McGowan, also a former Irish International presently with Sligo All Stars; Vinny O'Keefe, Irish International and Team Jameson; Roger Kelleher, Team Budweiser; Maggie Timoney, recently graduated from Iona College in the U.S.A., and who will be returning there as Asst. Coach. Maggie is also an Irish International. Donna Freitag from Wisconsin, top scorer in National League with

Marathon, Dublin; John Watson from Bucknell Uni, U.S.A.; Chris Evans, coach with Owego High School, Upstate New York; Ed. Randolph, playing with Marian, Dublin and a veteran of the Dungarvan clinic; Danny Thompson, Junior Women's International Coach; Rich Woolridge, coach to the Irish U-15 boys who were so successful in the recent Four Counties Tournament; Tony Dalton, Junior International and currently playing in the U.S.; and Waterford's Mr. Basketball Gerry Fitzpatrick, coach to the U-17 Irish Cadet team who won the series this year. Gerry is attached to Waterford R.T.C. and coaches the Wildcats Team, Waterford.

This is a game not to be missed. Those who were at this match in previous years know what's in store, those coming for the first time will have their eyes opened to what basketball is all about.

Photo shows: Roger Kelleher, Team Budweiser, imparting some of his knowledge of basketball to some of the young people attending at the I.B.B.A. National Coaching Clinic at St. Augustine's College. Roger will be part of the excitement in the All Stars match on Monday night in Dungarvan Sports Centre.

Waterford Camogie

Our county junior team take on Cork in the Munster Final on Saturday evening in the Glen Field at 7.30 p.m. We hope they do themselves justice by playing with the same courage and determination as they did against Clare in the semi-final replay. They have nothing to lose and should go out and prove themselves. Support was great the last day against Clare and really got behind the girls, and so all support would be greatly appreciated against the tough opposition of this Cork team.

We wish the girls the best of luck, especially the West Waterford girls represented by the Lismore club, Orla Flynn, who is leading the team, Mary Murphy, Catriona Caples, Patricia Bolger and Anne-Marie O'Gorman.

Abbeyside Shore Angling Club Notes

A sultry night on a foreign shore? No it was Clonea Strand last Saturday night, 29 anglers from Ardmore to Waterford turned up to fish our midnight competition and captured 95 fish. Weatherwise the night was lovely and people holidaying in the area came along to watch the angling. Winners of the event were 1st: Ray Lanigan (Waterford Glass); 2nd: Brian Mansfield (Ardmore); 3rd: Declan Foley (Ardmore); 4th: Tony Crowe (Abbeyside); 1st lady: Ann Cowming; 1st juvenile: Alan Mulcahy. One party did bring the barbecue complete with table and chairs on the beach. Thanks to Ann and Damien Dillon for the invite.

I hear that Jimmy "the boss" Egan is getting back to the angling scene after a lapse. He was seen last week in the company of Jimmy Lenihan and others wading out into the tide at Abbeyside and when he was up to his armpits in water he made a mighty cast at the Cunnigar. I hope he kept his two feet on the bottom. I must look up the rules about this. Afterwards the same party engaged in a casting competition in the soccer field. I wonder whose tackle he was using. I suppose the weather affects some people in strange ways. But isn't it great to see people getting fun out of their pastimes. Sometimes we tend to take it all too seriously, so let's have more laughs.

ROWING

Cappoquin/Cork Crew All-Ireland Champions

Cappoquin brothers Pat and Michael Murray with fellow crew members Finbarr Heas and Pat Peillo of Cork Boat Club and cox Brendan Rose crowned an unbeaten season by Irish crews with a magnificent victory in the Irish Elite Coxed Fours Championship at Blessington Lake last Saturday. The icing on the cake for this great crew is their selection to represent Ireland in the forthcoming Quadrangular International Regatta in Strathclyde between Ireland, England, Scotland and Wales. This is a fitting recognition of the achievements of this crew and from a local point of view, we extend heartiest congratulations to Pat and Michael who are the first oarsmen in the 127 year history of Cappoquin Rowing Club to win the international singlet.

The Elite Coxed Fours Championship was introduced only nine years ago. The Blue Riband at Dublin Metropolitan Regatta was unofficially recognised as the championship event up until then, so there was great psychological pressure on the Cappoquin / Cork crew having won the Blue Riband to prove that they were the top coxed four in the country and how they rose to the occasion.

Eight crews contested the Elite Coxed Fours Championship event with Cork Boat Club and Commercial Rowing Club being eliminated in the heats. The line up for the final was: Neptune R.C.; University College Galway; Trinity / U.C.G.; University College Cork; Belfast R.C.; and Cork/Cappoquin. All crews broke level off the start. After a minute's rowing Cork/Cappoquin, Neptune and Belfast R.C. began to show in front. At 500 metres Cappoquin/Cork were a half length up on Neptune and Belfast R.C. with the others a half length behind. At 1,000 metres the Munster men were one length up on Belfast R.C. with Neptune 1/3 length in arrears. The race was over for the rest of the field. At the three quarter stage Cork/Cappoquin had extended their advantage to two lengths and barring equipment failure the championship was going south and south it went!

Cork/Cappoquin won by two lengths from Belfast R.C. with Neptune a canvas away in third position. In the eight previous championships only two clubs shared the glory, Neptune and Garda, both Dublin based clubs. So it was another historic victory to annex the trophy from the capital.

Again we congratulate this fine crew and wish them well on the 29th July at the Home Countries International Regatta in Scotland.

Dungarvan Sea Angling Club

It's hard to believe it but there are five competitions fished already in this current season. The "Yoplait 2 day Gold Medal" sponsored by Dairyland/Waterford Foods is next on the agenda. This event which is the major outing of our season promises to be bigger and better than ever. The weather, which is already beginning to bother our farmers and others dependant on rain, is forecast to hold for some time, so if you want to polish up that continental tan and fish at the same time and particularly in the Yoplait you would want to get your entry in quickly. Last week there were about forty-five or fifty entries already in. These included groups from all over our own island, England and Wales.

Included in the Welsh contingent will be high ranking members of the committee of the Mumbles Motor Boat and Fishing Club, with whom we have established ties and which we hope to formalise over the week-end of the 5th and 6th. Sean Treacy, our own Ceann Chomhairle, whom we have invited to preside over the proceedings has replied to say that he will be delighted to do so, and we feel proud and privileged to have such a distinguished person to carry out this unique (and hopefully historic) function in angling.

The formalities will take place in the new look Clonea Strand Hotel on the

AMSTEL LAGER PUB LEAGUE

PARK HOUSE 2; RADLEYS 1

The opening game of this year's tournament saw a strong Park House team take on Radley's. The Park House had most of the opening play, with Pat Morrissey missing a couple of good chances. Johnny Roche also was unlucky when his header was well held by Radley's keeper John McLee. Gradually Radley's began to get into the game and just before half-time made a breakthrough when Mark McCarthy latched on to a loose ball to hammer the ball low into the corner of the net.

Straight after the interval the Park House came steaming forward forcing errors in Radley's defence with Johnny Roche capitalising to make the scores level. The deciding goal came after Percy Walsh won the ball in midfield and took off down the wing and avoiding a number of tackles he reached the end line, and crossed the ball to give Stan Cummins the simple task of slipping the ball home.

Park House: A. Lally, J. Roche, P. Walsh, M. O'Brien, O. Wright, P.

Morrissey, A. Hayes, P. Tutty, P. McGovern, S. Cummins, P. O'Connell, M. Donnelly.

Radley's: J. McLee, B. Jordan, P. Duggan, M. McCarthy, T. Cowming, F. McGovern, B. Whelan, E. Higgins, P. Ryan, J. Duff, S. McGrath, L. Jordan.

VILLAGE INN 4

PADDY FOLEY'S (D) 1

Our second game featured the first of Paddy Foley's teams against one of the favourites, the Village Inn. It took 20 minutes before the Village Inn broke down the Paddy Foley's defence. A long ball sent over the top was latched onto by Tommy Wade and his cross was met by Tiger Kiely's head to make it one-nil.

The second half was dominated by the Village Inn scoring three more times before Foley's replied. First Tommy Wade crossed the ball to Pat Dunford and with the deftest of backheels set up Tiger to hammer home his second. The third goal was the finest of the night when the veteran Tom Whelan hit a 25 yard cracker into the top corner of the net giving Showery Flynn no chance. Tom Whelan added another one before "Paddy's" were awarded a penalty and it was another veteran Hubie Hyslop who stepped up to give Switchie O'Donnell no hope in goal much to the delight of the large band of supporters from Paddy Foley's. Liam O'Brien should have made it five for the Village Inn but with only the keeper to beat put his shot onto the crossbar.

Village Inn: M. O'Donnell, P. Moloney, G. Hamilton, D. Dee, L. O'Brien, C. Phelan, T. Wade, T. Whelan, S. Hourigan, P. Dunford, S. Kiely.

Paddy Foley's (D): S. Flynn, S. Woods, N. Roche, S. Cuddihy, T. Lenihan, D. Callaghan, P. Hyslop, P. Ferncombe, B. Crotty, H. Hyslop, G. Burke, P. Mahoney.

Both these games were played in the fun spirit that we hope will continue throughout the tournament. Well done to all the teams involved in the opening games, winners and losers alike.

Good Win For Ballyduff

BALLYDUFF 2-10; PASSAGE 0-11

Ballyduff senior hurlers collected another brace of league points when they scored a five point win over Passage at the Fraher Field on Sunday evening. The winners led at half-time following a very competitive first half by 2-5 to 0-6 with big John Quirke striking for the goals, with Liam Power pointing two long range placed balls. The Fitzgerald brothers, Paul and Anthony, scored two points each for Passage with Pat Connors and Paul Barry scoring a point apiece.

In the second half, the winners added five points — four of them from Michael Walsh to Passage's five to hold out for a well deserved win. Late in the game the winners were reduced to fourteen men when one of their forwards was sent off by referee John Moore after an off the ball incident.

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. NOTES

GALLANT IN DEFEAT

Rough justice. That probably sums up best of all our gallant but unsuccessful effort to defeat county champions Mount Sion in a cracking senior hurling championship game at Fraher Field last Friday evening.

The 1-9 to 1-7 defeat was a difficult one to accept because over the hour we proved ourselves to be unquestionably the better side. We also had the rank misfortune to have Derek Lyons' "winning" goal disallowed in the final seconds when the clock had, seemingly, beaten us.

But full marks to our fellows on a performance which must give tremendous encouragement for the future. We are still engaged in a mighty relegation fight but it we can carry on from where we left off last Friday evening then we should ensure our survival in the senior grade next year. And then we can face all challengers with confidence.

Finally a word of congratulations to Mount Sion. They were fair and honourable opponents, and were the first to acknowledge that they were extremely fortunate that their title hopes were still intact at the end of the sixty minutes.

MINORS GO UNDER

Not too surprisingly our minor hurlers suffered championship defeat against Tallow in Cappoquin last Wednesday evening but they made a brave fight of it before losing on a 4-10 to 2-7 scoreline.

There was a marked improvement from the opening round against Lismore and the boys battled gamely right to the end. The panel was J. Donnelly, B. Lyons, J. Walsh, S. O'Shea, J. Tutty, D. Donnelly, M. Desmond, A. Queally, M. Butler, M. McGrath, D. O'Neill, R. Fraher, D. Sheehan, J. Morrissey, S. Dwyer, C. White, O. Curran, E. Cunningham.

We play our final game in the league section on this Wednesday against Cappoquin in Lismore.

MELADON CUP

Our understrength side went down to St. Patrick's (0-11 to 2-3) in the first leg of the Meladon Cup (Under 16 hurling) final at Fraher Field last week.

This was a splendid game of hurling and St. Patrick's well deserved their victory.

With the destination of the Cup to be decided on the aggregate scores over two games we are going to have to pull out all the stops in the second leg which will be played in Colligan in the near future.

CHAMPIONSHIP

By the time these notes reach print we will have played our first round Under 16 hurling championship game against Ballyduff. Hopefully we will have a victory to report next week.

LATE JIMMY MOUNTAIN

One of our all-time hurling greats, Jimmy Mountain, answered the final call last Saturday after a protracted illness that was patiently and understandingly borne.

From the day he arrived in Dungarvan from his native Waterford city Jimmy became a proud and honoured Dungarvan G.A.A. clubman. Over many years he sported the blue jersey with immense distinction and in the white and blue of Waterford too he became known, respected, and admired throughout the length and breadth of the land.

He was on that great Waterford team that narrowly and unluckily lost the 1938

All-Ireland senior hurling final against Dublin, but defeat that day was no fault of the teak tough wing half back.

Three years later, 1941, he played a starring role on a superb Dungarvan team that won the county senior hurling championship title. It was one of just many honours that came his way with the club. All of us in cumann Dun Garbhain have lost a very special friend, but his memory will live on and will help inspire the youngsters of the future to aspire the heady heights he reached on the playing fields.

His son Tony carried on the family G.A.A. tradition in subsequent years — a tradition we all very greatly value.

To Mrs. Mountain, his sons, daughters, brothers, sisters and other relatives our sincere sympathy is extended. Go ndine Dia trocaire ar an anam dilis.

The club provided a guard of honour at the removal of remains and at the interment on Monday. On both occasions the blue and white colours of club and county were on the coffin — a remembrance of the magnificent service he gave to both over many years.

MIXED SOCCER BLITZ

Our very popular mixed soccer blitz takes place on Wednesday next, July 26 at Ballyrandle, with a 6 o'clock start. Once again it's 4 males and 3 females per team with prizes for outright winners, runners-up and plate winners. This event which was conceived by the late Pat Cullinan has been the highlight of the summer sporting calendar in Dungarvan. With 6 pitches in operation the "blitz" will be run off in double quick time and will be followed by a "Disco" in the Clubhouse. (See Advt.)

TOUR TO WALES

The clubs 3rd tour which is to Newport in Wales in September, runs from Wednesday evening September 13 to Sunday, September 17th; with two matches. (The first under lights on Thursday night.) STRADBALLY G.A.A. NEWS

SOMETHING SPECIAL

On Saturday evening next, July 22, our senior footballers play county champions Kilrossanty in the championship in Dungarvan, at 7 p.m. There is always something special when the big two of Waterford football, clash and next Saturday evenings game should provide us with another thriller. Our last meeting was in '87, when it took two games to separate the sides — "could it be on the cards again." Kilrossanty will enter the fray this time as favourites, as they have chalked up three wins in a row, where as the Reds form has not been good.

EVERYTHING SET, DETERMINED

With everybody looking forward to this big-one, the Reds should be nearly at full strength, with the exception of Eoin Phelan and Laurence Walsh both out injured, the latter making great progress. The Reds will have to show improvement on recent outings, which they can and given this being the local derby, they will make a great effort to win this one — that would put them right back in the championship.

Please note the time of game — 7 p.m.

GOOD DISPLAY BY INTERMEDIATE HURLERS

Our intermediate hurlers put up a great display against Fourmilewater in the Western championship last weekend on the score 5-10 to 3-7, despite being very much understrength. The Reds got off to a great start with early goals by Liam O'Brien, Ray Kelly and Paul Mullaney the latter having a great game all through, despite suffering an ankle injury. Gradually Fourmilewater came more into the game and despite work by Pat Fennell and Michael Coffey in defence, the latter two making a welcome return to the game.

Certainly this game should set us up nicely for the county championship game in August.

DEEPEST SYMPATHY

The club would like to express its deepest sympathy to the Kiely family, Newtown, on the death of their mother, Mrs. Kiely. Also to the Gough families, Carrigera, and Five Cross Roads, on the death of Mrs. Gough. We extend our deepest sympathy to both families.

BOWERY BOYS

On Sunday night next, July 23, it's the turn of the Bowery Boys to provide the music for members and friends, — good night assured.

UNDER-AGE TRAINING

Under-age training continues every Saturday morning in the field at 11.30 a.m. This is under the watchful eye of trainer, Richard Hickey, who is doing an excellent job.

MUNSTER FINAL FOOTBALL TICKETS

Anybody interested in Munster final football tickets, should contact Secretary, Eoin Phelan or P. J. Coleman, before Friday morning next, July 21, otherwise tickets must be returned.

BEST WISHES

Best wishes to our club player Peadar Power who is getting married this weekend in Sligo, a lot of his friends are making the journey. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Power the very best for the future years.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Pat Roche, Ballinahilla, on his marriage last weekend. A lot of Pat's friends enjoyed the day.

SENIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Close Call For Champions

MOUNT SION 1-9; DUNGARVAN 1-7

The score tells the story of how close this one was and how close the county champions, Mount Sion went to suffering a surprise defeat by a very lively and very determined Dungarvan fifteen. Even as it was, the home side, must surely feel disappointed at not having won. Playing against the breeze in the first half they took a four points lead before Tom Browne opened the scoring with a point for the champions in the tenth minute.

During this period Dungarvan played all their best hurling and with some very skillful touches looked very much like upsetting the favourites. Morrie Ferncombe who proved a thorn in the side of Mount Sion and Donal Loughnane whose accuracy from play spelt trouble for Dungarvan, exchanged points before Kevin Ryan broke through for the visiting team's goal. Pat Ryan pointed just on time to leave the score 1-3 to 0-5 in favour of Mount Sion at half-time. Having faded noticeably after the resumption of play, Dungarvan allowed their opponents to dictate matters for the first quarter and they spent 27 minutes without a single score until Morrie Ferncombe regained their first quarter lead by shooting a great goal past a helpless Sean Walsh in the Mount Sion goal in the 47th minute. Dungarvan had it all to play for then and with twelve minutes remaining the score stood at 1-6 to 1-5 until Loughnane made it level. Shane Ahearne who had come into the game in the second half, and Morrie Ferncombe exchanged points to make it 1-7 apiece with eight minutes remaining. Points by John Meany and Donal Loughnane in the 27th and 28th minutes gave the champions a two points lead and while Dungarvan exerted terrible pressure on the Mount Sion goal for the final three minutes, they failed to get the score that would give them the points.

Overall it was a very commendable display by Dungarvan — probably their best in the past two years and were it not for their inexplicable lapse during the second and third quarters, the result would have been different. Mount Sion seldom find it easy to beat Dungarvan and they will remember this as one of the occasions when they nearly didn't.

Scorers — Mount Sion: K. Ryan 1-1; D. Loughnane 0-3; T. Browne, P. Ryan, D. Power, S. Ahearne, J. Meaney, 0-1 each. Dungarvan: M. Ferncombe 1-5; D. Lyons, T. Curran 0-1 each.

Easy For Roanmore

ROANMORE 6-15; TALLOW 1-5

It would be hard to judge Roanmore's potential from their display in this rather one sided senior hurling championship clash with Tallow at Fraher Field on Sunday last.

The Eastern side won pulling up but at times they looked less than mediocre and struggled when Tallow managed to put them under any kind of pressure.

Goals from Michael Mackey and Tom Shanahan helped Roanmore to a 2-11 to 0-4 interval lead. Within six minutes of the restart they had shot another four goals to leave them 6-12 to 0-4 ahead. Pat Sheehan had Tallow's goal on the three-quarter hour but three further points left Roanmore with a massive 6-15 to 1-5 lead at full time.

Scorers: Roanmore: K. Delahunty 2-5; M. Mackey 3-0; T. Shanahan 1-4; E. Nolan 0-3; A. Burke 0-2; P. Tobin 0-1. Tallow: P. Sheehan 1-0; D. Henley 0-2; B. Henley, S. Curley and T. McCarthy 0-1 each.

Roanmore: R. Sheridan, T. Flanagan, J. Ryan, S. Moloney, E. Roche, P. O'Neill, J. O'Brien, A. Burke, M. Wadding, A. White, P. Tobin, K. Delahunty, M. Mackey, T. Shanahan, E. Nolan.

Subs: L. Fanning for White, J. Coffey for Sheridan, D. Fitzpatrick for Nolan.

Tallow: M. Murphy, Trevor Sheehan, J. Donoghue, F. Ryan, G. Sice, C. Curley, T. McCarthy, D. Henley, Timmie Sheehan, M. Curley, S. Curley, B. Henley, M. Beecher, P. Murphy, B. Donoghue. Subs: P. Sheehan for M. Curley, C. Ryan for P. Murphy, G. O'Gorman for Tim Sheehan.

BORD NA nOG NOTES

YOPLAIT U-14 COUNTY HURLING FINALS

On Saturday last at Walsh Park the Yoplait Under 14 County hurling finals were played in brilliant sunshine. The three finals brought together some not familiar pairings and let's hope that this is an omen for the future in Waterford hurling.

The "A" final was contested by St. Saviours and Lismore.

St. Saviours 3-2 Lismore 2-4

This was a repeat of the Feile na Gael final won by Lismore. This time, however the city side turned the tables to come out on top 3-2 to 2-4 winners.

De La Salle 3-7 St. Olivers 1-3

In the "B" final De La Salle proved a bit too strong for a hard battling St. Olivers and had ten points to spare at the finish.

In the "C" final Ardmore trailed by three points at the interval but found Passage too strong in the second period. Passage were very impressive in winning the C title for the first time.

ALL-IRELAND SUCCESS

Tramore U-14 footballers scored a great All-Ireland success in Galway last Sunday when they won their division of the Feile Peil All-Ireland competition.

In reaching their goal they beat teams from Galway, Athenry and Loughrea before disposing of the challenge of Blessington of Wicklow and Athlone of Westmeath in the semi-final/

In the final Tramore overpowered the much fancied Longford Slashers by 2-9 to 0-3 to become our first winners in Feile Peil.

Congratulations to our four in a row county "A" football champions and now All-Ireland champions. A special mention has to be made of John Walsh who unselfishly gives time and effort to Tramore and county under-age football.

UNDER 14 HURLING EAST v. WEST

Next Saturday sees the annual East versus West under 14 hurling game. This is always a very tight affair with the lads on both sides fighting for their first inter-divisional honours. The game is also used by the county selectors to pick their team for the "Tony Forristal" tournament which is run in August.

This year's game will be at Walsh Park with a 3.30 p.m. throw-in.

The best of luck to all involved.

Week-End Fixtures

A full programme of six senior football championship matches and a couple of interesting intermediate games, comprise the programme for the coming week-end, which is sure to attract a large number of supporters to Killarney for the Munster football final between Cork and Kerry.

STRADBALLY v. KILROSSANTY

Because of the traditional rivalry which exists between these two clubs, their meeting in the championship attracts more than the usual share of public attention. There have been times when their games have disappointed and times when the pre-match hype was justified. One of these was the last occasion on which they clashed in the championship and that was at the semi-final stage in 1987 when Jim Maher kicked over the point which gave Kilrossanty a second chance, (2-4 to 0-10). The replay was a good game also, but not as close and Stradbally 0-12 were well on top of Kilrossanty 0-6., all the way. Stradbally beat the Nire in the controversial final that year.

Kilrossanty and Stradbally didn't meet at any stage last year, but the Comeragh side won the championship.

Noel Weldon who was a leading player in Stradbally's defeat of Kilrossanty two years ago and who emigrated, has now returned and as I wrote last week, he is playing great stuff. In losing to the Nire six weeks ago, Stradbally gave a poor display, but were good in two subsequent matches when beating Ferrybank and Butlerstown. Kilrossanty scored a couple of decisive victories also and looked good when beating Dungarvan and Butlerstown. They appear to have the consistent form and while there will be very little in this one, I expect to see the reigning champions, Kilrossanty survive.

BALLINACOURTY v. ST. SAVIOURS

At the time of writing, I know that Ballinacourty are very unhappy about this fixture which gives them their final match in the present championship. Having organised an under 21 game for Killarney on Sunday they sought a change of date to Saturday or Friday, but were told that this was not possible. They are unhappy also about the venue and feel that Kilmacthomas, Stradbally, Leamybrien or Kill would be more convenient to both.

Unbeaten Saviours — they played one draw, with Rathgormack — will be firm favourites to win this game and remain at the top of their group.

Ballinacourty having drawn with Gaultier and Kilmacthomas and defeated Tramore are safe from relegation worries, but have now only a remote chance of being involved at the knock-out stages. They have given tremendous commitment in their last three matches and won't give in without a fight here, but it would be a surprise if they win.

CLASHMORE v. NIRE

This will be a crunch match between two top teams. One of the two is certain to be involved at the finish of this championship and this will depend on which comes through this test.

With wins against Stradbally and Butlerstown I would take the Nire to have the better chance. In fact the Nire are one of my very strong fancies to take the title.

Clashmore had wins over Dungarvan and Ferrybank, but some of the kinks in their armour showed up when they lost by a couple of goals to Butlerstown.

RATHGORMACK v. TRAMORE

Rathgormack will be hot favourites to keep their unbeaten record here and it will be a big surprise if they are beaten by their pointless opponents at this stage. The favourites in this game, look sure to be involved at the finish — and this must be looked upon as a welcome breakthrough for Rathgormack.

GAULTIER v. DUNHILL

The concluding stage is likely to see these sides battle it out for a place in the semi-final. Dunhill will be slight favourites and may just about capture the points.

BUTLERSTOWN v. FERRYBANK

Apart from the relegation aspect of things, this match is of little importance. A win for Ferrybank would give them temporary relief from demotion worries, but it is so unlikely that it is not worth speculating about. Butlerstown should win with a bit to spare.

ERIN'S OWN v. SHAMROCKS

Without suspended Damien Byrne, Erin's Own will still be strongly fancied to beat Shamrocks in this attractive intermediate hurling third round match at Fraher Field on Friday evening. Shamrocks looked a very good team when decisively beating Abbeyside at Cappoquin some weeks ago, but may not be strong enough all round for a team who are being tipped for promotion down in the Eastern side of the county.

BALLYDUFF v. SLIABH gCUA

This could be the deciding game as far as three clubs are concerned and if Sliabh gCua succeed they may be the side to go through to the semi-final. A win for Ballyduff would mean another chance for Ardmore. It will be a close game with only a point or two separating them at the finish. I fancy the chances of Sliabh gCua.

AN RINN v. TALLOW

They both won their first round game and the winners of this will push themselves into contention for a place in the group semi-finals. An Rinn are the favourites and defeat for them will be a surprise.

Jimmy Mountain R.I.P.

We offer our very sincere sympathy to Mrs. Lily Mountain and family on the death of Jimmy, which occurred over the week-end. He had been ill for some time and passed away peacefully at a Cork hospital on Saturday.

One of the leading hurlers in the county in the late thirties, Jimmy Mountain played a leading role in bringing Waterford to their first ever senior hurling All-Ireland final in 1938 in which we were beaten by Dublin on the score 2-5 to 1-6. On that occasion the Dungarvan clubman wore the number seven jersey to complete our halfback line which also included Doyle Walsh and John Keane, who was centre-half back. He also featured very prominently in our epic game against Limerick in the '37 championship' at Clonmel when after an awful lot of extra time, Limerick won by 3-4 to 3-2. During that era, when he played in other very memorable games for the county, he also figured in the club championships with his club, Dungarvan with whom he played hurling and football. He won a championship senior hurling medal with Dungarvan in 1941 and had earlier won minor football championships with his city club, St. Stephens, De La Salle and he played junior football for a short while with Kilgobinet. Jimmy is the seventh member of the '38 team to pass to his eternal reward and he was one of the organisers of the recent 'get-together' at the Gold Coast to commemorate the first hurling final in which Waterford played. Having played against many of the greats in his younger days, he was not forgotten by a number of them, who came to pay their final respects on Sunday evening. Some of those present were Dick Stokes, 'Sweeper' Ryan, Micky Burns, etc. and several of his old colleagues were in the Guard of Honour provided by his club, Dungarvan at the removal of his remains. Sympathy

Our very sincere sympathy is extended to John Barry, Conna, Tallow whose wife, Dympna, a member of the very well known Moloney family, Shamrocks club, died very recently. Dympna herself had very close associations with the club, she having been club secretary for a time. This charming young lady's death at such an early age, understandably aroused enormous grief throughout the West. To the Maher family, Ring, Tomas, well known referee and Liam former players with An Rinn, on the death of their father William Maher and to Declan Fitzgerald, Modeligo club on the recent death of his mother Mrs. Nonie Fitzgerald.

Summoned To Munster Council Meeting

The report of referee Willie Horgan, will be dealt with at a meeting of the Provincial Council which is scheduled for Limerick on to-morrow, Thursday evening. Both players who were sent off, Noel Crowley and Damien Byrne have been given the opportunity of being heard in their own defence and the county Chairman, Eamon Murphy, secretary Seamus Grant and team manager, Tony Mansfield have been told to attend.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

County Board Meeting

Eamon Murphy, chairman, presided at last week's monthly meeting of the Senior Board and at which a statement concerning the Munster Senior Hurling final was issued after some discussion. The statement appeared here last week and it gave the County Board view of the affair which was criticised so much in the media. Some members held the opinion that a statement was not necessary while the majority held the view that it was important to clear the air about the instructions given to the team, before the game and at half-time. Some delegates felt that some elements of the media were disgraceful in their treatment of the game. It was even suggested that a couple of the more scurrilous journalists should be banned from attending our games.

The statement was issued following the reading of the match report by the county selectors, which dealt in detail with the final. The chairman then stated that since the referee's report of the game had not yet been dealt with by the Munster Council, he would not allow a discussion on the game at this point.

COACHING

A letter from the chairman of the Munster Council, expressed regret at his inability to attend the meeting to discuss the subject of coaching with the members, as already planned. Due to pressure of work he would be unable to come until some time in August. Eamon O Murchu, said that this was regrettable as the Board meeting had been changed from Monday to Tuesday evening to facilitate the Provincial chairman.

FINES

In reply to John Lyons, the chairman said that the recent fines imposed on the Board for sideline incursions, etc., had been appealed to the Central Council and a discussion at this stage would serve no purpose until the matter had been disposed of.

TO U.S.A.

Tramore club were given permission to travel to the U.S.A. to play a series of seven-a-sides during August.

SELECTION COMMITTEES

It was agreed that the senior hurling and under 21 hurling as well as the under 21 and minor football selection committees would be elected at the Board meeting to be held on August 22nd. Nominations must be in the hands of the secretary on the previous Friday.

The terms of appointment of the senior football and minor hurling committees will not end until the summer of 1990.

OTHER MATTERS

Tallow club were given permission to run a four-team junior football tournament involving An Rinn, Ballysaggart, Castlelyons and Tallow.

The chairman reported to the meeting on the outstandingly successful Golf Tournament which was run in the week prior to the Munster Final. He said it had been given tremendous support all round and it was very encouraging to find so much good will for the county hurling. He said the tournament had raised something in the region of £6,500.

Complaints about the poor quality of stand tickets received for the Munster final were made by a couple of delegates and other members said that it need not have been an all-ticket game. The county secretary said it was only fair to point out that the majority of the tickets received for distribution in this county, were good and those which displeased, were no better or no worse than what Tipperary had been given.

WRONG SCORE

A letter from referee Noel Sullivan stated that having consulted his officials at the game, he was satisfied that he had not credited St.

Saviours team with a point which they had scored in the second half of the Stradbally/St. Saviours intermediate hurling championship game played recently. The correct score, he said, was 2-13 to 2-2. He had mistakenly announced that the game was a draw. Tom Cunningham and P. J. Coleman, Stradbally as well as John Lyons and Nioclás Mac Craith, submitted that the score given in the first instance should be regarded as the official one. A replay was proposed, but the chairman ruled that the report as submitted to the meeting was the one that would be accepted and the meeting would have to accept that St. Saviours were the winners.

The report from the county football committee stated that a game had been played under the experimental rules against Tipperary at Clonmel and that it had been very successful. Another such match against Wexford is also planned and will be sponsored by a local firm.

Good Win For Lismore

LISMORE 4-13; PORTLAW 2-10

Although they struggled quite a bit in the first-half, Lismore eventually got their act together and with a good workmanlike display proved far too good for Portlaw in the second half of this senior hurling championship clash at sun drenched Fraher Field on Sunday last.

Lismore led 1-6 to 0-4 at the interval, thanks to a Sean Daly goal in the 26th minute.

The winners had increased their lead to 1-11 to 0-7 by the 40th minute but suffered a set back when Andy Rockett's goal for Portlaw left just 4 points between the sides (1-11 to 1-7).

Daly who proved a real torn to Portlaw pointed in the 43rd minute and two minutes later broke through for a great goal.

Three points followed for Portlaw but Lismore emphasised their superiority with a third goal from Barney Prendergast in the 53rd minute. Sean Daly pointed a minute later for Lismore and Portlaw's cause was not helped by the dismissal of sub Derek Larkin for an off the ball incident.

Ben Geoghegan had Lismore's fourth goal three minutes from time and just before the end Kieran Laffan goaled for Portlaw to put a more respectable look on the scoreboard.

It was a good workmanlike performance from Lismore who were impressive in a second half which they dominated.

Scorers: Lismore — S. Daly 2-7; B. Prendergast 1-1; B. Geoghegan 1-0; M. Ronayne 0-2; B. Lawton, P. Prendergast and G. Sheehan 0-1 each. Portlaw — T. Larkin 0-5; A. Rockett and K. Laffan 0-1 each; E. Rockett 0-3; J. Kiely and S. Fitzpatrick 0-1 each.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

'Courty And Kilmac' Finish Level

BALLINACOURTY 1-9; KILMACKTHOMAS 1-9

Both sides had their moments of good and bad luck in this very entertaining and competitive senior football fourth round match that saw them level on six occasions at Stradbally on Saturday evening. Both sides will regret their awful misses, but overall, Kilmackthomas had the greater number of unbelievable wides over the hour.

The sides were level at half-time and when John Kelleher put Kilmac' in front immediately after the resumption, John McGrath levelled again for 'Courty. The Western team took the lead in the 5th minute with a Bosco O'Mahony point and two minutes later Timmy Organ put Ballinacourty four in front when he found the net. John Moloney increased the gap to five points and the match seemed to be going beyond the reach of Kilmac' when T. J. Power and Pat Power pointed and the final score of the game came in the 24th minute with T. J. Power's well taken goal. In a hectic final six minutes both sides had near misses but failed to get the winning score.

Ballinacourty — W. Kiely, J. Burns, J. O'Riordan, G. Collins, J. Healy, M. Collins, B. O'Gorman, B. O'Mahony, J. Moloney, T. Wade, S. McGrath, M. Reynolds, T. Organ, J. Melody, C. Clancy. Sub. — J. Mulligan for G. Collins.

Kilmackthomas — D. Casey, Ml. Corcoran, R. Whelan, S. Behan, T. Rockett, T. Browne, Ml. Hallinan, D. Kiely, T. O'Connell, T. J. Power, J. Power, David Kiely, J. Kelleher, N. Power, J. Whelan.

Scorers: Kilmackthomas

Referee — John Moore.

Championship Results

The extremely hot weather made conditions unpleasant for players in all games over the week-end and very many of the supporters who would normally turn out for some of the important matches which were played, opted for the beach or choose to remain indoors. Just the same, the attendances at Fraher field were not all that bad, with £647 being collected in the afternoon for the double header and £870 for the attractive single game in the evening. This game between Ballyduff and Passage, was delayed for 40 minutes in order to allow patrons to attend the funeral of Jimmy Mountain.

BALLYGUNNER 1-9 CLONEA 2-4

I made Ballygunner favourites to win this one, but I would certainly have had second thoughts if I had known that they were forced to field without eleven of the side which played in the county final last year. They were a bit surprised themselves at having won. They are now safely into the knock-out stages.

DUNHILL 0-19 CAPPOQUIN 1-5

A poor championship game indeed and it was very much a non-event. The only feature of the game worth recording was the splendid striking of a number of the Dunhill players and several of their 19 points were as good as one could wish to see. The match was over as a contest long before the last whistle.

SAVIOURS 2-14 KILGOBINET 0-6

This further win in the intermediate hurling championship, puts the city team, St. Saviours safely into the knockout stage and it is the result that puts Kilgobinet completely out of the running for another season. A colleague at the game told me that Kilgobinet were undeserving of a fourteen points beating.

FOURMILEWATER 5-10 STRADBALLY 3-7

This was a Western Board championship game and it didn't turn out exactly as the score suggests. Stradbally shook the favourites here with three very fast goals, before Fourmilewater were able to open their account. Of course when the winners got into their stride, Stradbally were overpowered and Fourmilewater won deservedly.

SHAMROCKS 0-10 SLIABH gCUA 1-3

Shamrocks made no mistakes this time and went all out from the throw-in and never allowed the Touraena side to settle down. Shamrocks showed remarkable fitness and took their scores very well. It was something of a disappointment for Sliabh gCua, who had surprised the same opponents in the Western final last year. The situation in this championship now is;

Affane are through to the final, Shamrocks are in the semi-final and it will take another game to decide which of three, Sliabh gCua, Ballyduff or Ardmore qualify for the other semi-final spot.

FAHA 3-11 EMMETTS 1-7

Faha are now steadily on course for a place in the Western final and look like succeeding where they failed last year when losing to neighbours, Stradbally in a much publicized and glamorous divisional decider last year. They have full points from three games. Emmetts are pointless like Kilgobinet and these will now play to decide which gets the wooden spoon.

Heatwave Causing Water And Fodder Problems

While the entire country continues to bask in the heatwave conditions which have put many of the sunspots in the Mediterranean in the shade in recent days the prolonged spell of dry weather has brought problems affecting water supplies and also fodder supplies for livestock.

At the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council in Dungarvan last week, Cllr. Patsy Kenneally referred to what he described as the impending water emergency. Because of the drought, he said that springs around the county that had never before gone dry were now disappearing.

Cllr. Willie McDonnell said that he knew some springs in his area around Tallow that hadn't dried up for 40 years but had now done so. Farmers were having great problems watering stock, he said.

Mr. John O'Flynn, County Engineer, agreed that the public should be asked to conserve water supplies and not to waste water on washing cars or watering lawns. While there was no immediate problem about supplies, it could be on the way if the dry spell continued, he said.

FODDER SHORTAGE

While the hot sun has brought in an early grain harvest, winter barley was cut in the Ballyduff Upper area last week, it has greatly retarded grass growth and farmers are now faced with immediate fodder problems. In some cases, farmers are being forced to feed silage, cut only a few weeks ago, to cattle because of the scarcity of adequate grazing and this will create further problems on the long term where winter feed is concerned.

BEACHES CROWDED

On a week-end when road surfaces melted in the relentless mid-day sun, the beaches along the coast from Youghal and Ardmore to Dunmore East were crowded with sun worshippers and picnickers where onshore breezes and dips in the sea helped to keep them cool.

Splendid Job At Main Street, Lismore

At the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held in Dungarvan, Cllr. W. McDonnell complimented the Council workers and engineering staff for the splendid job which had now been completed in resurfacing the Main Street in Lismore. He also said that the road between Cappoquin and Lismore must now rank as the best in Ireland with its lovely tree planting and excellent stonework. "We can well be proud of the men who did this fine work", he said.

Cllr. Cahill also congratulated the Council workers for the magnificent job done by them at the promenade in Tramore and also on the road at Kilmeaden.

Cllr. O. Wilkinson agreed that the Cappoquin-Lismore road was now a very fine one but he said that a number of the minor roads leading off it were in very bad shape. He asked whether there were any plans to have repairs carried out to these.

Mr. John O'Flynn, County Engineer said that following the rainstorm last October which had created so much damage to these roads they had submitted an estimate of £470,000 for repairing them to the Department. The grant received amounted to £140,000 and out of this a certain amount of work had been done on the Monamon road. "The position", Mr. O'Flynn then said, "is that we can't do any significant work to repair the roads as we simply don't have the money but we will be able to do some repairs".

GLENRIBBEN ROAD

Cllr. J. A. Walsh proposed that the extremely bad dangerous areas of the Glenribben road be given urgent attention and having heard the case put up by Cllr. Walsh, the County Engineer, Mr. O'Flynn said that he would arrange to have some surface repairs carried out. There could, however, be no question of removing any of the bad bends on the road, he said, as the money was not available.
