FAHEY TURNS ON HAUGHEY

— And Quits F.F. Parliamentary Party

A row which has been smouldering for a number of years under the surface between long serving Fianna Fail Deputy for Waterford, Mr. Jackie Fahey and the Taoiseach and Leader of the Fianna Fail Party, Mr. Charles J. Haughey, burst into open confrontation at the week-end when the Dungarvan based T.D. who lived formerly at Lyreanearla, Clonmel, withdrew his support from Mr. Haughey and quit the Fianna Fail Parliamentary Party.

That the row stems primarily from a personality clash was admitted by Mr. Fahey in an interview on Radio Eireann news bulletins on Monday when he declared that as soon as Mr. Haughey was removed from the Party leadership he would immediately reapply for membership of the FF Parliamentary Party.

The sequence of events started on Friday night last when a largely attended meeting of the Waterford Comhairle Dail Ceanntair held in Lawlors Hotel, Dungarvan passed a vote of "no confidence" in Mr. Haughey's leadership and called for his immediate resignation as leader of the Party.

The proposal was made by Paddy Murphy and was decided on a show of hands. All the delegates who supported the motion mounted scathing attacks on Mr. Haughey condemning the deal which had been approved by him with the Progressive Democrats.

Mr. Maurice Tobin, Mod-eligo presided at the meeting and present were Deputies Fahey and Brendan Kenneally and Dr. Donal Ormonde, member of the Party National Executive. At the time the vote on the "no confidence" proposal was taken, Dr. Ormonde had left the meeting, Deputy Fahey who was present abstained but Deputy Kenneally voted to support the proposal.

At the same meeting a further resolution was passed calling on the Taoiseach, Mr. Haughey not to include the former Waterford Progressive Democrat T.D., Martin Cullen, among his nominations to the Senate.

LETTER OF RESIGNATION

Deputy Fahey's letter of resignation from the Parliamentary Party was sent to the Taoiseach on Saturday. In it he referred to previous correspondence between them and to their many meetings in the comparatively recent past. He also referred to the many u-turns taken by the Party on various issues and in particular, the coalition agreement with the Progressive Democrats.

The letter then went on to tell Mr. Haughey that it was obvious that his animosity to the writer had not changed over many weeks and months and that the coalition with the PD's and the agreement arrived at with them had proved to be the last straw that finally brought about his decision to resign.

In later interviews Deputy Fahey referred to what he described as Mr. Haughey's "shabby treatment" of him going back for several years. He said that Mr. Haughey had unfairly held him responsible for much of the internal party wrangling that had so seriously split the Fianna Fail organisation in Waterford in past years. "Not once since then", said Mr. Fahey, "has Mr. Haughey shown that his animosity towards me has been dropped and my decision to leave the Parliamentary Party and take my seat in the Dail as an Independent is exclusively down to him".

Mr. Fahey also denied that his resignation had come because he had not been appointed to a Junior Ministry. He said that he wouldn't have accepted one at the stage they were allocated if one had been offered him as the turnabout

Warning About Forest Fires

Last year 570 acres of forest were destroyed by fire — twice the amount of the previous year.

This is a loss to all of us. Apart from the economic loss forest fires scar the landscape and destroy the habitat of our wild life.

Because of good weather this summer there is a present a serious fire risk.

So if you are going camping or picnicing:

Do not light a fire in a forest, on grass or near gorse.

Be careful of how you dispose of matches and cigarette ends.

Pause For Thought With Fr. Paddy

LISTEN AND LEARN

In the first reading the story depicts the Lord visiting Abraham. Abraham is unaware of the identity of his visitor, but he nevertheless extends a warm welcome with all the trappings of oriental hospitality. It was only after they'd eaten, the Lord asked "where is Sarah your wife", and going on He said "I shall visit you again next year . . . and your wife will have a son." Abraham's eyes were immediately opened, and he realised it was the Lord. Undoubtedly, hospitality is important, but the emphasis would seem to be on hearing the word, and believing. In that sense the reading would dovetail into the Gospel story.

St. Paul in the second reading continues to remind us (he was in prison when he wrote this letter) that he rejoiced to make a prayer of his sufferings. He reminds us that the Church has to live and to endure set-backs and sufferings in order to fulfil God's plan of redemption. Paul is telling us that by offering his tribulations to God he is thereby sharing in the work of promoting God's message. This reading has been selected to assure us that our works, our daily tasks and our trials can all be used to serve God, and promote His word.

The Gospel knits into the hospitality theme, but the main thrust is focused on the importance of listening to God's word. It relates a visit the Lord made to some friends at Bethany, which poses questions for ourselves. Has the Lord called to see you? If He has, did you make Him welcome. Or, when He knocked, did you tell Him, you were just going out? A wee point struck me, when I read, "Mary sat, talked and listened to the Lord, whilst Martha set about preparing a meal." Surely, that's how we'd behave in our own homes. You certainly would not say to your visitors, wait here, and all the family rush off to get a meal. I know that this is only a minor point in the story, but it is worth considering in view of the general lack of respect and of good manners that is so prevalent today. Look at the lack of concern for private and public property. People who throw shop-trolleys into the sea may think it is fun: God does not. In the Isle of Man one would be flogged for such behaviour. However, they do not have to flog people any more, because, it would seem, the punishment fits the crime! People who ignore God's law are piling up judgment against themselves from whence there is no escape.

I am perhaps an optimist to even suggest good manners, when one considers the way God is treated. We read about Jesus visiting friends. His desire is to visit all His children, if they would but welcome Him. He longs to abide in your home. He'll be delighted if you ask Him to visit you, and He'll remain as your guest as long as you wish. Luke provides us with the information on how best to welcome and foster a lasting relationship.

There is a comparison of service portrayed in the Gospel. Martha is busy preparing the meal, and she is annoyed that her sister does not help. She even says to Jesus: "it is unfair". Jesus does not condemn her form of service, but He gently tells her that Mary's contribution of listening to the word is nearer to His heart. St. Luke does stress the importance of listening to and living by the word; and he implies that other services are secondary. After all, the mission of the Church is to spread the good news. And, whilst we are all aware of the value of expressing our love through good works, we also know that such fruits flow from following the word.

SPEAKING THROUGH THE GOSPEL

Jesus is speaking to you in the Gospel. He says: "He'd like to come and visit you." He wants you to sit, open your heart and listen to Him. Often, because we are so involved with other affairs, we do not hear Him knocking. The door is sometimes opened, and then banged in His face. Jesus will never impose Himself on anyone. He will only go where there's a welcome. He may present Himself in the guise of one who is sick or hungry or in need. He made it clear, what you do for them, you do for Him. You are bound to share your blessings: It is His law. So, when you are asked to help the S.V.P. etc., express thanks to God you are able to help, and His blessings will fall upon you.

The fact that Government makes certain provision from taxes does relieve us of part of our duty. I said part, because "the poor will always be with us." The S.V.P. will tell you that they would not be operating if the need did not exist. Give and it will be given back in full measure. You will never outdo God's generosity. Hospitality flows from respect for God, for when God is honoured, all these other things fall into place, and respect and good will are the order of the day. Never, never be ashamed to be a true son of God.

AUGUST 19TH MARCH COMMITTEE

A Chara,
August 1989 marks the 20th anniversary of the deployment of British troops on the streets of Northern Ireland. The August 19th March Committee has been set up to organise a national march in Dublin on 29th August to mark this event.

For the twelve months prior to the troops going in, the whole foundation of the Northern state had been shaken as a result of the activities of the Civil Rights Movement. For over 50 years, the Unionist government in the 6-County state had practised blatant discrimination against the minority Catholic population in terms of jobs, housing and access to health, education and other services. The Civil Rights Movement demanded an end to discrimination and enjoyed massive popular support. The very basis on which the state was founded however — "a Protestant state for a Protestant people" — meant that it relied on discrimination for its very existence. The response to the peaceful call for basic Civil Rights was near-pogroms against the Catholic population. Over the 48-hour period from 12th to 14th August 1969, for example, over 1,300 Catholic families were forced to flee their homes as a result of mob attacks which were backed up by the notorious B-Specials.

The British army was sent in on August 14th '69 — as a temporary measure — to "restore normality". However the only "normality" which could be restored was the normality of sectarian discrimination.

20 years and 3,000 deaths later it is clear that rather than solving the "Irish problem" the British army is in fact the root cause of that problem. Numerous "political initiatives" have been tried and failed. The only solution which has not been considered is the withdrawal of the troops.

In Britain, more and more people are adding their voices to the call for the army to be brought home, as is evident by the growing support for the "Time To Go" campaign. Surely we here in Ireland have an even greater onus on us to address the situation in the North-Eastern part of our island. The march called for August 19th gives us all an opportunity to address the question of how the army should be removed and the type of Ireland we wish to see in the future.

"New Nation" On The New Political Situation

A special edition of The New Nation magazine devotes itself to the new political situation which has arisen since the general election, with Fianna Fail forced into abandoning its traditional stand against coalition.

In the main article, James Downey welcomes the re-drawing of the political landscape, which he calls "exciting and full of promise", but says that there is no room for hub-bug and self-delusion, especially on the Left. He says that although the Progressive Democrats lost over half their Dail seats, the real winner was Des O'Malley, and asks: Will O'Malley succeed in his aim of bringing about a multiplicity of parties and constant coalitions? Will Fianna Fail find a new role as an ordinary political party, instead of the national movement it has traditionally claimed to be? Will Fine Gael in opposition move to a more "social democratic" position?

James Downey says, too, that the Left must not delude itself into overestimating the advances it has made. Its present unity is "specious and shaky", and it has a long way to go to become a meaningful force in Irish politics.

Barry Desmond, newly-elected labour MEP for Dublin, discusses the result of the European parliament elections. Robin Wilson gives a Northern view of the Republic's general election, and expresses doubt about prospects for devolution in the North. Niall O'Dowd, in an article on the Irish immigrants in the United States, voices the fear that their disillusionment with Ireland may have grave consequences in the future.

Other contributors, on politics and arts, include David Norris, Terence Brown and Conor Sweeney.

No Need For Ramps At Dungarvan Car Park

Following complaints by residents in Friary Street about speeding cars exiting from the public car park on to the street made to a previous meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council, the Town Engineer, Mr. George Taylor stated in the course of a report submitted to the July monthly meeting of the Council held last week that he had investigated the situation at the entrance to the car park and saw no need for speed ramps as had been suggested.

Mr. Taylor stated that as the exit was on to a narrow street any great speed could not be achieved. As an alternative he suggested the painting of a stop sign on the road and reducing the width of the entrance to allow only a single line to enter and exit.

The report added that the elimination of parking too close to the footpath could be achieved by a raised kerb or forming flower beds at each end of the entrance.

The report was unanimously adopted by the members.

New Abbot Elected For Mount Melleray

Rev. Eamon Fitzgerald, an Irish monk presently working in Nigeria, has been chosen as the next Abbot to head the Cistercian Community at Mount Melleray, Cappoquin.

Fr. Fitzgerald, who has been working for the past two years as chaplain to a Cistercian community of nuns in the West African state, takes up the post left vacant by the departure of the Right Rev. Justin McCarthy.

Fr. McCarthy's resignation, clouded in rumour that he was leaving to marry, was confirmed yesterday to be for health reasons. The Prior in Mount Melleray explained that Fr. McCarthy, originally from south County Tipperary, had been totally exhausted, both "physically and mentally" after nine years as Abbot.

The Prior said that Fr. McCarthy had made the decision to resign only after much deliberation; that he was a quiet man with a timid nature who found the strains of office "too great." He said Fr. McCarthy had taken a year's leave of absence, was staying with a sister and intended to return to Mount Melleray.

The Community of monks, said the Prior, were grateful for the work done by Fr. McCarthy and wished him well. Fr. McCarthy, said the Prior, was the fifth Abbot to resign. The others had done so for similar reasons, or due to old age, he explained.

HAILS FROM DUBLIN

Fr. McCarthy's successor, Fr. Eamon Fitzgerald is a 43-year-old Dubliner. He entered the community in Mount Melleray in 1966; was professed a monk in 1988, and was ordained a priest in 1974. He holds a degree in spirituality from Rome and served as novice master from the year 1981 to 1966. He was Prior from 1986 to July 1987 when he responded to a request from his superiors and departed for Nigeria to take up the post as Chaplain.

Fr. Fitzgerald's term of office is for six years but he may go forward for the position of Abbot again after that.

The election of the new Abbot took place on Wednesday of last week but the announcement was held over until Thursday when Fr. Fitzgerald could be contacted in Nigeria. The occasion was presided over by the Abbot of Mount Melleray in Brittany, France, who flew in through Cork Airport especially for the election.

Know Your Rights

Q. — I have been unemployed for the past two years and am receiving Unemployment Assistance. There is a possibility that I can get Sunday Work in the catering trade. Will this affect my assistance?

A. — Sunday is not regarded as a day of employment under the Social Welfare Acts. An exception to this would be certain employments where the normal working week included Sunday working e.g. nursing, publican.

If this Sunday work is insurable employment then your Unemployment Assistance will not be affected. If it is not insurable, i.e. your employer doesn't deduct PRSI or tax and you do it on a contract or self-employed basis, then any money you earn will be counted as means and it could affect your rate of Assistance.

The important thing to remember is that you must inform the exchange before you do this work and as you can see it is to your advantage that it be insurable employment.

Q. — I have been employed by the same firm for 12 years. Following major surgery I have been out sick for two months. Last week I was given redundancy notice and told that my job was going to be contracted out. I think this is just an excuse to sack me and suspect that they might wait a few months and then replace me. What are my rights?

A. — If you are being let go and not replaced then this is a redundancy situation and you can be made redundant while you are out sick. You will be entitled to your statutory redundancy payments. Any holiday pay due to you and payment in lieu of notice (if you get less than the six weeks notice due for your length of service).

If they take on somebody else to replace you then it is not a redundancy situation and you could take a case for unfair dismissal to a Rights Commissioner or to the Employment Appeals Tribunal, Davitt House, 50/60, Mespil Road, Dublin 4. You can also do this if your suspicions prove correct and you are replaced after a few months.

For further information contact the Dept. of Labour, Davitt House, Mespil Road, Dublin 2. Telephone (01) 765861.

Reorganisation Of Urban Council Staff

In the course of a report on the reorganisation of staff within Dungarvan Urban Council submitted to the July monthly meeting of the Council, the Co. Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley pointed out that since 1987, the total of 10 employees has been reduced to the current number of 7, which included the Town Clerk, 2 Assistant Staff Officers and one each Clerk Typist, Receptionist, Revenue Collector and Rent Collector.

"This," the report stated, "shows clearly that the Council has lost 3 permanent posts within the last two years, one clerk typist and one clerical officer by voluntary redundancies and one clerk typist on marriage gratuity grounds." It added that this reduction has had the effect of persons in lower grades acting in position of responsibility above their grading and undertaking an extra work load to ensure that the office worked to a satisfactory level of efficiency.

Praising the staff for their efforts, the Manager's report then stated: "I am pleased with the level of production and I must pay tribute to the staff for the work shouldered by them and particularly in recent months from the transition of computerisation which is now nearly complete."

On the proposal of Cllr. B. Kyne seconded by Cllr. M. O'Riordan the report as submitted by the Co. Manager was unanimously approved and adopted.

Safety Rules For Swimmers And Bathers

In view of the high number of drowning tragedies which have occurred during the past few weeks, the national Safety Council urges everyone going swimming or bathing or engaging in other water-based sports to be very careful. We are still only mid-way through the summer season and it would be unfortunate if the continuing fine weather was to be marred by further tragedies.

The following basic rules should be observed:

- know the locality or enquire locally about hazards;
- swim with others, never alone;
- stay within your depth and swim parallel to the shore;

- do not use air mattresses or make-shift rafts;
- allow a reasonable time after a meal before swimming;
- remember that alcohol and water sports should not be mixed;
- use an area where there are lifeguards, if possible.

The Council wishes to encourage people to participate in its courses in swimming, life saving, survival and resuscitation. The courses are open to the public and details of these courses and of all aspects of water safety can be obtained locally from the Water Safety Committee.

I.C.M.S.A. Calls For T.B. And Brucellosis Compensation

While the recently announced increase in compensation for reactors was welcomed by the Waterford County Executive of the ICMSA, John Cusack, Chairman, called on the Board of ERAD to introduce aid for farmers who are overstocked due to the eradication restrictions imposed on them by TB and brucellosis.

"I would like to commend the Board of ERAD for this increase in compensation and in particular, our representative, Terry O'Connor who has worked unstintingly for the eradication programme," said Mr. Cusack. He added: "However, it is the ICMSA feeling that one of the top priorities for ERAD should be the support of these farmers whose farms are overstocked due to the TB and brucellosis restrictions in the containment and elimination of these diseases."

Mr. Cusack said that conscientious farmers who strive to contain the disease in one area should be encouraged in every way possible, and he suggested that compensation to these farmers would prove a support, especially for dairy farmers with young calves, which would otherwise be ready for sale.

LEVIES

John Cusack also reported that ICMSA members in

Waterford feel that any levies deducted from milk or cattle sales should be regarded as a tax and he called on the Government to treat these levies as such.

Clonmel Sheep Sale

Dairy Men Accuse E.C. Of Playing Musical Chairs

Mr. Michael Drea, Chairman of the IFA National Dairy Committee accused the EC Commission of "playing a game of musical chairs with their proposal to increase the National Quota Reserve by 1% (10 million gallons) while at the same time making 1% of the 5.5% temporary quota cut permanent.

Mr. Drea said: "IFA had proposed that the full 5.5% cut should be restored to producers under 30,000 gallons. This proposal would mean a quota increase of 1.5% and would make 15 million gallons available to smaller producers without any of the red tape associated with the Commission plan."

"IFA's policy would give a 1,650 gallon quota increase to a producer on 30,000 gallons which would enable these producers to carry an extra two cows and two calves resulting in a worthwhile increase in producer incomes."

He added that IFA also insisted that development Plan farmers should be permitted to reach their targets and that outstanding disease cases should be resolved.

Mr. Drea dismissed suggestions that the IFA proposal would result in a build up of stocks saying that butter and skim milk powder stocks were now reduced to levels barely serving food aid purposes.

In conclusion, he said community producers must be allowed to benefit from the improved world market situation which the quota restrictions had brought about.

Call For Suspension Of EC Cereals Levy

The Irish Grain and Feed Association has appealed to the Minister for Agriculture and Food to support calls to the Council of Ministers to suspend the full EC Co-Responsibility Levy on cereals this year.

Conditions are right for the Levy to be suspended this year and provide ideal opportunity to boost the income of grain growers. Suspension of the Levy would help to encourage growers to continue to produce grain at the required volume.

The European harvest is unlikely to reach the threshold of 160 million tonnes and EC finances have benefitted greatly from the buoyancy of world trade and the reduction in intervention stocks.

It is important the Association holds, that this country should fully support demands for suspension of the Levy.

Proposed Changes In Operation Of Milk Quotas

by Michael Dillon

Milk quotas are not likely to be exceeded on most Irish farms this year because of the long hot, dry spell of weather, but next year will surely be different, and there seems to be no doubt that controls on production will be with us for many years to come. The quotas have worked very well so far, but it is a new system, only five years in operation, and there are inevitable alterations and adjustments to be made, some of which are under discussion now.

The market situation is changing continually, largely because of the effects of reduced milk output, and most dairy farmers are benefiting from the consequent price increases, but there are certain groups of producers who are having problems. In these circumstances, the Council of Ministers last April invited the Commission to carry out a study into the working of the system, and, if necessary, to come up with proposals before the end of July. The proposals now being discussed include making more quotas available for small producers and young farmers, and new entrants to farming, while tightening upon the regulations for producers who exceed their quotas.

The first proposal is to increase national quotas by 1% for the purpose of helping hardship cases. Farmers with very small quotas still cannot make a living from milking cows, though they work as hard and as long as those with big quotas. For young energetic farmers taking over the family farm, this is particularly frustrating, and these two classes of farmers are liable to be forced to sell their quotas, as they cannot expand output. Farmers with no quotas at present are barred from milk production unless they can afford to buy some quota.

Over the past two years national milk quotas were reduced by 2% and 1%, and over the same period 5.5% of the quotas were suspended under a scheme which provided the producers concerned with compensation (amounting to 39p a gallon in Ireland) being paid to the producers concerned. As a result the deliveries of milk have fallen by 7.4 million tonnes over two years, the Community market is much more balanced, with intervention stocks down to almost nil, buying of skim milk powder discontinued and only 25,000 tonnes of butter bought last year, compared with 388,000 tonnes in 1987 and 647,000 tonnes in 1986. Prices of skim milk powder are very high and other dairy products are also dearer.

WEAKENING OF SUPER LEVY

On the other hand, the quotas are being exceeded in every Member state except Greece and Spain, and in the last marketing year the excess was nearly 1.8 million tonnes and if the upward trend continues there could be an increase of between 0.5% and 1% of total output. The Commission believes that this is due to the weakening of the super levy because producers getting compensation under the suspension scheme get paid, even if they have exceeded their quotas, and this makes the excess production economically possible.

Now it is proposed that the compensation under the suspension scheme will not be paid for any gallon of milk produced over the quota as a means of keeping production within the prescribed limits. Those limits have been fixed because of necessity, and in the long term, it is not intended that they should be extended. To provide for the increases of national quotas already mentioned, one-fifth of the suspension of quota will be made permanent, and only 4.5% will be eligible for restoration.

The Commission hopes there will be no extra cost from these proposals, and no extra production either, even when the Mulder case farmers are accepted, because the tightening up of regulations and the switching of the suspended 1% to a permanent quota reduction. As this system has been the most effective method adopted for cutting output of any surplus commodity, its continued efficiency of operation is regarded as essential.

A Winning Favourite At Killarney

Nameloc which is trained in Dungarvan by John E. Kiely for Mr. Ed. Coleman, the popular Youghal farmer/breeder, proved a good 11/8 favourite when he won the feature race of the evening, the £8,000 Dawn Milk Run Handicap, at the Killarney 4-day festival meeting on Wednesday of last week.

Michael Kinane mounted a very smooth challenge to Bedford Ranger (4/1), ridden by Jim Bolger which had led until one and a half furlongs from home and went on for a comfortable two lengths win. This was the third win in a row for Nameloc and it is now expected that he could well continue his winning sequence at Galway next week.

WEDNESDAY OVERNIGHT!

Last Wednesday, July 19, we had our last campout before annual camp in the Den field when thirty scouts convened at the den. We assembled at 10 p.m. and as soon as the Unit Council Meeting ended we got down to business in the form of a long general discussion on such items as Abbeyside Tidy Towns and Camp.

At around 11.20 p.m. we prepared for our "thanksgiving" hike. For this, each patrol was given a different handicap, i.e. blind, deaf, lame, dumb, etc. After a short walk all present realised how fortunate we are to be able to run, walk, talk and see. Our hike route brought us down around the strand and up to the cove, in through Sea Park and out to the White Strand, where SPL Ciaran Walsh told us the story of the Ghost of Quigley Magnessite.

We then had a campfire (without a fire), started by Mark Shepherd and helped along by John Paul Cosgrave, Anthony Hackett and Michael Kelleher. After the campfire we returned to the den where any chance of sleep was quickly disturbed by the visit of a hedge-hog — ask Patrick Power, Neil O'Kennedy or any of the Tiger Patrol for details.

Little sleep was had during the night especially the Panther Patrol who were so sleepless they took their tent down early. Ask John Paul Mills or Conor Foley for details here!

At 9 a.m. after breakfast we took down and packed away the tents.

TROOP MEETING

We began with prayers and while monies were being sorted the patrols made out different menus such as their favourite breakfasts, lunches and dinners.

After this everyone went to the field for some chariot races. After this the leaders checked everyone's bikes, pointing out any faults they found. From here all the patrols were given different cycling routes as they pedalled away contented.

It was back indoor then for notices and the closing prayers.

CAMP '89

Next Sunday, July 30, thirty-eight scouts and four leaders are due to leave for this year's summer camp to Bunclody. This is the largest number of scouts with a long time, if not ever, in the history of the unit, to attend a summer camp. We hope the weather holds good and here's hoping for an accident free camp.

Our camp booklets came out in print last week, featuring patrol photos, campsite information and general information. We would like to thank Teresa Twohig, Fintan Strain and Fr. Ahearne for all their help here.

All scouts are reminded to have all their personal gear and bikes down at the den on Saturday, July 29, between 4 and 6 p.m., and don't forget, the bus leaves Sunday at 2 p.m. — so don't be late.

A LIFETIME OF SERVICE

Thirty-five years ago Tommy Hickey entered the employment of Knockmeal Co-op society. Working as a lorry driver he frequently travelled to Waterford, Cork, Limerick, Dublin and several other places. When Knockmeal was taken over by Waterford Co-op, Tommy was employed as a driver of a milk tanker. For several years he travelled all over West Waterford at all hours of the day and night, driving over winding roads and rough boreens. His unfailing good humour and obliging manner made him a firm favourite with everyone.

During his long years of service, Tommy has seen many changes. Farms from which he collected milk have changed hands. Several of the "old stock" have gone to their eternal reward. Boys and girls who were only children when Tommy first called to their homes have since married and raised children of their own. Many alas, have had to leave their native land and seek employment on foreign shores. To one and all Tommy was a friend and a welcome visitor to any social gathering, because as a gifted singer of traditional Irish songs and ballads, he has no equal. In company with his legions of friends, we wish him many long and happy years of well-earned retirement. "Go mairfidh tu slan".

CARDS

Last week's winners: 1st Eddie Kirwan, Nonie Queally; 2nd and 3rd shared, Paddy Kiely, Mick Leahy, Paddy Cullinan, Pierce Butler. Last game: Jack Dalton, Alice McCarthy. Lucky tables: Brendan Tobin, Jimmy Kiely, Eamonn Power, Margaret Grace. Raffle: Bridget Fitzpatrick, Teresa Fitzpatrick, Jennie Fraher.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Congratulations to Elayne Hickey who celebrated her fourteenth birthday recently. Also to Stephen Cliffe who celebrated his sixth birthday recently.

TUESDAY NIGHT SCOUTS

With it being so hot and sunny we decided that the meeting would be held outdoors. At 7.30 the lads went on a major hunt finding out things about the town. The lads were given up to 40 questions about the town. On their return the troop split into two groups, one the Melvin panel and the other a test-work group. Up to 9.00 the Melvin panel concentrated on their forthcoming weekend over the Kilbrien mountains. This is an extensive weekend of training for the Melvin Trophy, the All-Ireland competition, in which the lads will compete from 17th-20th of August. The meeting ended with the collection of dues and insurance.

tired to bed, looking forward to their long day in the mountains.

Saturday — It was an early rise and shine on Saturday morning. At 8.00 the leaders left the campsite for the mountains on which they were to man bases. At 9.00 the Melvin panel set off for the mountains in search of their first base. After a bit of confusion the lads reached the summit at 12.00 noon. They then proceeded onto the second base which was at Casey's T.V. booster in Skeffin mountain. Here the lads tackled a First Aid base and at the base they set up a tracking trail which the leaders followed. Here they also made a lovely dinner. They eventually reached home at 8.00 o'clock. Still the lads were not tired so they had a game of soccer which turned out to be plenty of fun and "tackles". After a cup of tea and a long day they hit the bed.

On Sunday morning the lads did several projects. For example they made pioneer projects out of pipe cleaners and made a cast of a horse's footprint. At about 3.00 o'clock the lads left for home. We would like to thank the Hickey and Flynn families for bringing the gear up and down to Kilbrien.

CONGRATULATIONS

On behalf of the scouts, cubs and unit council I would like to congratulate Kevin and Bernie Kiely on the recent birth of their son. Best wishes from everyone.

WEEKEND TO KILBRIEN 21st-23rd JULY

Friday — On arrival at Kilbrien at about 6.30 the Melvin panel immediately set up camp. After this the lads went on a small hike through a few fields and forests which ended at about 11.00. As soon as they returned to the campsite they had supper and re-

PENSMAN Takes You. . . . Behind The SPOTLIGHT

MORE FOR THOSE AT THE TOP

The announcement that the Government was preparing to give major salary increases to the top people in the public service was rolled out in a more than apologetic manner in one of our daily papers last week-end. The increases, stated to be almost certainly phased in over more than a year, will probably total some 20 per cent or from about £2,500 to as high as £12,000 a year. The formal announcement of the increases is expected to be made during this week.

Some 700 people will be covered by the rises and they include the Taoiseach, Cabinet Ministers and Ministers of State, Dail Deputies and Senators, the Judiciary, Chief Executives in the public sector companies, in Health Boards and State Agencies, the Garda Commissioner and City and County Managers.

At present the Taoiseach and the Chief Justice have slightly more than £62,000 a year, Dail Deputies have £23,177, Senators draw £12,631 while the highest civil servant who is Secretary of the Department of Finance receives just over £51,000.

The announcement pointed out, "in mitigation," that while the gross cost to the Exchequer would be more than £3 million annually, this would be considerably reduced as the recipients of the increase would be paying income tax at the rate of 56 per cent in the £ on the additional money. In other words, the tax people would be taking back more than half of what would be given out.

In a further effort to bolster a case for the increases, the daily paper which favours payment of them in an editorial comment says that it should be remembered that public servants in the category concerned do not receive automatic increases on a regular basis. It should also be remembered, it states, that public servants at this level are paid much higher salaries in Britain, Europe and elsewhere.

Maybe so, but it should not be forgotten either that compared to Britain, France, West Germany and these other European nations, Ireland is but a small country with a very poor economy. Britain with a population of 40 million plus can hardly be compared to our small 3 millions so it is not fair that we should be expected to match the salaries they pay. Neither should Dail Deputies be seeking to put themselves on a par with British M.P.'s as they simply do not do as much work as the Dail sits less often than the British Parliament and takes far longer holidays. We won't even comment on the number of days on which the Senate does business.

It all goes back to the need to cut our cloth to measure and to spend only what the country can afford. In the week prior to the reference to the increases, the Minister for Finance, Mr. Reynolds spoke about the continuing need to keep inflation down by keeping prices down. He spoke about the ongoing need to keep the huge national debt in check and warned that no tax reliefs could as yet be expected as a result.

Is this then an opportune time for a government which is preaching a continuation of restrictive spending on the part of the public to further strengthen the economy to vote themselves such very high increases. It looks as if there is one rule for those at the top and another for those who must make the sacrifices to support them. In these days when we have seen so much of the celebrations to mark the bicentenary of the French Revolution on our television screens, we might be forgiven for remembering, in context of the foregoing, that the French Queen Marie Antoinette remarked when told that the peasants had no bread to eat, "let them eat cake!"

GUILDFORD FOUR APPEAL POSTPONED

The hearing of new appeals ordered by British Home Secretary, Douglas Hurd for the four people convicted of the Guildford and Woolwich pub bombings cannot start in October, as planned, the Court of Appeals in London was told last Thursday. It appears that the final papers for the appeals could not be lodged until the end of October. Consequently the appeals by Patrick Armstrong, Carole Richardson, Paul Hill and Gerard Conlon have been put back until mid-January. They were sentenced to life imprisonment in 1975 and their original appeals were rejected in 1977.

As in the case of the Birmingham Six, Paddy Joe Hill, Gerry Hunter, John Walker, Hugh Callaghan, Richard McIlkenny and Billy Power similarly sentenced for the Birmingham pub bombings in August 1975, there is official intransigence where the Guildford Four are concerned on the British side. And because there is little sign of action on the Irish side, innocent people stay in prison and their families remain deprived of husbands, fathers, grandfathers and loved ones.

Unfortunately, the operation of the law does not always lead to justice. Juries can err or be misled. Judges can be irredeemably prejudiced. Police can manipulate evidence and extract confessions. Technical witnesses can be found to buttress the manipulation. All this has happened in the case of the Birmingham Six and Guildford Four.

The grim truth about the attitude of the English judiciary in these cases is encapsulated in what Lord Denning stated during the course of an interview. It is better, he stated, that innocent people should remain in prison than that the English judicial system come under question.

Perhaps, in a way, it could be an advantage that the Guildford Four Appeals have been put off for another six months as it must be in everybody's interest that additional time be afforded to their lawyers to make the best possible case on their behalf as there is a great mound of documents relating to the appeals to be sifted through. But in addition to the appeals of the four who have now been in captivity for 15 years, English justice will also be on trial for if the prisoners are found innocent it will be an indictment of those and of the system responsible for their conviction while if the appeals are again rejected it will just prove what Lord Denning stated to be true.

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN AUGUSTINIAN

It was with much regret that we learned of the death of Rev. Fr. Tom Butler OSA which took place at the Augustinian Priory, Grantstown, Wellington Bridge, Co. Wexford on Thursday last, July 20.

Fr. Butler was a member of the Augustinian Community in Dungarvan for many years where from the mid-1950's he served as Bursar, Rector of St. Augustine's College and Prior. He will be fondly remembered for his quiet, retiring manner and shy disposition by all who knew him.

ANOTHER CLEAN-UP EFFORT

The members of the Abbeyside Tidy Towns Committee are to be congratulated for joining the crusade to clean up our environment. Already we have commended the Clonea Beach Awareness Committee, the Ardmore Tidy Towns Group which has done so much to make that beautiful seaside resort more colourful and a few more groups here and there around the county who have organised voluntary collections of litter.

The Abbeyside group commenced operations last Tuesday night week and will, we understand, continue to meet each Tuesday night in an effort to keep the streets of the village free from litter.

The work of all these groups must be highly commended and the volunteers involved in them must be congratulated but their efforts can only be futile if the co-operation of the public at large is not forthcoming. This was very evident last week in the case of the effort mounted in Abbeyside. We understand that a fine job was done by the members of the group between 8 p.m. and 10 p.m. on the Tuesday night and several bags of litter were collected but then the litter louts very evidently came on the scene in the subsequent hours around midnight as on the Wednesday morning the Clonea Road was again absolutely covered with paper wrappers, greasy chip-bags and such things. It was, to say the least, an absolute scandal.

As we say, the civic-minded groups that go out in their own time to clean up their neighbourhoods are to be wholeheartedly congratulated but in the absence of co-operation from the rest of the community, their efforts are futile. So we appeal to everyone, young and old, big and small, as their contribution to the clean-up crusade, to think twice in future and stop disposing of litter (wrappers, cigarette packets, chip-bags, etc., etc.) on our public thoroughfares and of course also on our beaches.

P.S. — In regard to our article about clean beaches in last week's column, a reader has suggested that a special appeal be also made to the mothers of young babies not to leave disposable nappies behind when they visit the seaside.

REMEMBER THE BIRDS

A note came through our letter box from an anonymous scribe too late for inclusion in last week's column. It read: "Please could you put a little reminder in your much read paper to ask people to put out a little water and perhaps a few wet crusts for the birds. They must be much in need with the dry weather. Also a plentiful supply for dogs etc. — Please." Very obviously the note came from a bird lover and animal lover. If the dry spell is still with us when you read this, perhaps you'll act on it.

THE WOMEN ARE WORSE THE THE MEN

Our choice for the ballad corner this week is one with a real rollicking air. With more than a few verses, "Is It True That The Women Are Worse Than The Men?" is a real old-timer and one that should find favour at any sing-song or get-together.

Is it true that the women are worse than the men?
Right fol, right fol, tiddy fol-de!
Is it true that the women are worse than the men
When they went down to hell they were chucked out again!
With your right fol da, tiddy-fol-de
Fol-del-rol, ol-de-rol, ol-de-rol-de.

A man was walking around one day,
Right fol, right fol, tiddy-fol-de!
A man was walking around one day
And he met with the devil upon the highway,
With your right fol-da, etc.

Says he, "my good man, I have come for your wife,"
Right fol, right fol, tiddy-fol-de!
Says he, "my good man, I have come for your wife
For I hear she's the plague and torment of your life,"
With your right fol da, etc.

Says he, "Mr. Devil, oh take her away,"
Says he, "Mr. Devil, oh take her away,
For she is the plague of my life night and day,"
With your right fol da, etc.

Then the devil he hoisted her up on his back,
Right fol, right fol, tiddy-fol-de!
Then the devil he hoisted her up on his back
And off to his residence her he did pack,
With your right fol-da, etc.

Two or three devils were tied up in chains,
Right fol, right fol, tiddy-fol-de!
Two or three devils were tied up in chains,
Says they, "take her away of she'll knock out our brains,"
With your right fol da, etc.

So the devil he hoisted her up on his back,
Right fol, right fol, tiddy-fol-de!
So the devil he hoisted her up on his back,
And back to her ould fellow her he did pack,
With your right fol da, etc.

Says he, "my good man here's your wife back again,"
Right fol, right fol, tiddy-fol-de!
Says he, "my good man here's your wife back again,
For she wouldn't be kept not even in hell,"
With your right fol da, etc.

They were seven years going and nine coming back,
Right fol, right fol, tiddy-fol-de!
They were seven years going and nine coming back,
And she called for the scrapin's she left in the pot,
With your right fol da, etc.

So it's true that the women are worse than the men,
Right fol, right fol, tiddy-fol-de!
So it's true that the women are worse than the men,
When they went down to hell and were chucked out again,
With your right fol da, etc.

Recent Deaths

MR. WILLIAM MAHER

News of the passing of Mr. William Maher, Gortnadiha, Ring, was received in the area with feelings of sincere sorrow and regret. Willie passed to his eternal reward on Saturday evening, July 15 at his residence, rather unexpectedly. This August, Willie would have been 78 years. A native of Grange, for a time Willie resided in Old Parish and indeed was a great supporter of the "Shocks" for many years. Naturally, when his own sons donned the colours of An Rinn, Willie found himself in a bit of a quandary! A keen match-goer all his life, he followed the fortunes of the County with keen interest.

For many years he was employed by the Waterford County Council and was a hard, industrious worker who gave of his best. All responsibilities trust upon his shoulders were carried out with diligence.

Willie had many friends and nothing gave him greater pleasure than the rapport he enjoyed in their company over a few social drinks in Tommy Kenneally's bar (now the Seanachie). Stories from the past were relayed with relish, embroidered with anecdotes from the locality.

He was a most popular individual who was held in the highest esteem by all who came in contact with him. Most inoffensive, he loved the simple things of life and his death has been the cause of much sorrow to all.

We offer our deepest sympathy to his wife Bridie, family and relatives on their great loss.

On Sunday evening, Willie's remains were brought from the Kiely Funeral Home to Ring Church where they were blessed and received by Very Rev. C. O. Dalaigh, P.P., assisted by Rev. G. Desmond, C.C. The Requiem Mass on Monday morning was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Desmond, who also officiated at the burial in the adjoining cemetery, assisted by Fr. O. Dalaigh.

Chief mourners — Bridie (wife), Liam, Sean, Tomas (sons), Cissie (daughter), Matty Kiely (son-in-law), Breda, Bridget and Margaret (daughters-in-law) and a wide circle of nieces, nephews, grandchildren and relatives. (James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

MR. JAMES MOUNTAIN

It is with deep sadness and sense of loss that we record the passing of Mr. Jimmy Mountain, "Alverna," The Burgery and formerly of Grattan Square, Dungarvan, which occurred on Saturday, July 15, following a short stay in Cork Mercy Hospital. A native of Waterford City, Jimmy had just reached his 74th year. He lived a very active, energetic, worthwhile and rich life that saw him move to Dungarvan, establish a thriving family enterprise and in his leisure time grace the playing fields of Waterford and Munster.

Jimmy was a great family man, a devoted husband and loving father and his death will leave a void in the lives of Lily his wife and family, to whom we extend our sympathy.

Jimmy grew up in the Waterford of the early 1900's, was educated at De La Salle College and later secured employment with Merry's of Dungarvan. On July 14, 1950, he fulfilled a life's ambition when he established his own business in Grattan Square. For well over 30 years he rendered a service par excellence and hence he enjoyed the support of a very wide clientele.

Some years ago Jimmy was elected President of the Retail Traders Association, who formed a guard of honour at the funeral obsequies, which was very much appreciated by the family. In former years he was honoured with the Captaincy and Presidency of the local golf club where he was, up to a year or two ago, a very active member.

Most people who knew Jimmy will associate him with his exploits and feats on the hurling fields of Munster. Looking through old books and annuals, the name Jimmy Mountain crops up time and time again. In 1930/31 he was a valued member of the first De La Salle minor football championship winning side. On arrival in Dungarvan he played for a period with Kilgobinet but was later to become very involved in the golden years of Dungarvan when hurling and football titles were the norm in the Old Boro. In 1938 he filled the left half back position on the luckless Waterford side that failed by two points to Dublin in our first All-Ireland appearance. He possessed immeasurable determination, an abundance of skill and was a hurling powerhouse.

Jimmy was a fine caman wielder and also an excellent footballer who graced the fields of play with dignity for many years. On Sunday evening following prayers of requiem recited at the Kiely Funeral Home led by Fr. Jim Griffin, C.C., the hearse, flanked by a guard of honour of the Dungarvan Golf Club and Dungarvan GAA Club paused in prayerful silence at the Square before it made its way to St.

Mary's. On arrival at the church the coffin, draped in the blue and white of club and county, was received and blessed by his son Fr. Jim Mountain, assisted by Rev. J. Griffin, C.C., Very Rev. M. Brennock, O.S.A., Rev. G. Hickey, O.S.A., Rev. T. Rogers, C.C., Rev. N. O'Mahoney, C.C., Very Rev. Canon M. Farrell, P.P., Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C., Rev. D. Muldowney, C.C., Dublin, Rev. Mons. Lannen, Rev. Fr. Hooper, O.S.A., Rev. J. Grennan, O.D.C., Rev. Fr. G. Mason, do., Rev. M. McGoldrick, do., Rev. Fr. P. Beecher, do. and Rev. Fr. J. Curran, C.C.

On Monday, following concelebrated Mass celebrated by his son Fr. Jim (chief celebrant) with Fr. D. Muldowney, C.C., Dublin and Fr. J. Griffin, C.C. (co-celebrants) and the liturgy of the word shared with us by son-in-law Eoin Martin, Jimmy was shouldered the short distance to his final resting place. Fr. Jim officiated at the graveside, assisted by Rev. Fr. Griffin, C.C., Rev. Fr. Carey, C.C., Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C., Very Rev. Canon Farrell, P.P., Rev. Fr. Michael Coen, O.D.C., Rev. R. Morrissey, O.D.C., Rev. R. Clasby, O.D.C., Rev. T. Stone, O.D.C., Rev. J. Grennan, O.D.C., Rev. C. O'Curraoin, O.D.C., Rev. P. McPartland, O.D.C., Rev. E. McCaffrey, O.D.C., Rev. M. McGoldrick, O.D.C., Rev. V. O'Hara, Provincial O.D.C., Very Rev. M. Brennock, O.S.A., Rev. M. Curran, C.C., Rev. Fr. Nesson, O.F.M. Cap., Rev. J. Daly, O.S.A., Rev. B. Crowley, C.C., Very Rev. Fr. McCarthy, P.P., Australia, Very Rev. W. Callanan, P.P., Rev. J. Kelly, O.D.C., Rev. T. Maher, C.C., Dublin, Rev. Fr. L. Bereton, O.D.C. and many more visiting clergy.

Chief mourners — Lily (wife), Tony, Fr. Jim and Vincent (sons), Maura and Elizabeth (daughters), Eoin Martin (son-in-law), Aileen and Jayne (daughters-in-law), Aidan and Shane, Dungarvan, Timothy and Katie, London, Niamh, Clara, and Eoin, Dublin (grandchildren), Dick and Andy (brothers), Tess and Bridie (sisters), Kathleen and Madeline (sisters-in-law) and a wide circle of relatives and friends.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

MRS. MAURA KELLY

On Friday last we learned with deep regret and sadness of the unexpected death of Mrs. Maura Kelly, Ballyreilly, Helvick, which occurred at her daughters residence in Seaview. Maura, who was 65 years and a native of Galway, had been predeceased by her husband Tom by 14 years.

To her sorrowing sons, daughters and relatives we tender our condolences on their loss.

On Saturday evening Maura's remains were brought from the Kiely Funeral Home to Ring Church. Following Requiem Mass on Sunday, Maura was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

(Full obituary in next week's issue.)

MISS ELAINE CURRAN

The compassion and sympathy of the entire community was very much in evidence over the weekend when news was learned on Thursday, July 20, of the passing of 17-years-old Elaine Curran, Killosera, Dungarvan, who for the past two years had not enjoyed the best of health. A pupil of the Mercy Convent, Elaine was daughter of Michael and Joan Curran to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy. We also remember her brothers John, Paul, Patrick and Michael, her sisters Mary and Geraldine at this sad time.

A quiet gentle girl whose smile was her radiant hallmark, she touched many people by her kindness and sincerity.

Following Rosary and prayers recited by Rev. J. Griffin, C.C., the cortege of immense proportions left her residence for St. Mary's last Friday evening. On Saturday Elaine was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

(Full obituary in next week's issue.)

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

MRS. MARY LEAHY

We record with regret the death of Mrs. Mary Leahy, Ballintlea, Old Parish which occurred suddenly on Sunday, July 16 at her residence. She was in her late seventies.

She was very interested in flowers and loved gardening. A great neighbour, she was always there to give a helping hand and her door was always opened to everyone, night and day. She would always find time to have a chat.

Following Rosary recited by Fr. Desmond, C.C. at the hospital mortuary, Dungarvan, removal took place to Old Parish Church on Monday evening where the remains were received and blessed by Fr.

Fahey Turns On Haughey

£8,500 Award In Whiplash Claim

on the coalition issue had already occurred. Speaking on RTE news on Monday night Mr. Fahey said that he would never leave the party but he added that he could sit in the Dail as an independent for the future and will assess each issue on the merits before voting.

AN ISOLATED INCIDENT!

While no official reaction to Deputy Fahey's resignation or to the motion of the CDC had been voiced up to Monday night, the Fian-na Fail TD for North Kerry, Deputy Tom McEllistrim commented that the action of the Waterford CDC should not be taken seriously. He pointed out that the Fianna Fail Party had no option but to do what they did and as a result he felt that the country now had a stable government that would run for 4 or 4.5 years.

Sources close to the top in Fianna Fail also described Mr. Fahey's action as "an isolated incident" although the Chairman of the Waterford CDC had claimed that about 3 other Fianna Fail TD's were ready to join Mr. Fahey and the group could then hold the balance of power in the Dail.

Deputy Fahey's cessation from the FF Parliamentary Party reduces the Party representation in the 26th Dail to 76 and the FF-PD Alliance to a total of 82. Theoretically it creates a new uncertainty for the government.

ENVIRONMENT MINISTER ON FAHEY RESIGNATION

Commenting on the resignation of Mr. Jackie Fahey T.D. from the FF

Parliamentary Party in Dun Laoghaire on Tuesday, Mr. Pdraig Flynn, Minister for the Environment thought that the resignation was an isolated case which he said would not damage the Government.

The Minister said that he had been surprised by Mr. Fahey's decision and was not sure that it was one which had been fully backed by the organisation.

Mr. Flynn said that the Coalition government was now in place and required the support of the entire party and that, he said, included Mr. Fahey. "We have to go along with the arrangement we have entered into now" he said.

The Minister added that the decisions which had to be made to form the Government had been difficult but no option had remained to Fianna Fail beyond what they had done in the circumstances.

In a claim for personal injuries brought by Mary Hyslop, suing through her parents Daniel and Nora Hyslop, 30 Murphy Place, Abbeyside against John P. Cranley, Veterinary Surgeon, 6 Parnell Street, Waterford at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday, a settlement of £8,500 by consent was announced.

Mr. E. P. King, Solr. (J. F. Williams & Co.) told the Court that the claim resulted from injuries sustained by 16 years old Mary Hyslop in an accident which occurred on December 29, 1988. At the time, the girl was in a car sitting behind her grandfather who was the driver. She was being taken home after receiving treatment for another ailment at Ardkeen Hospital and just after passing Kilmeadon on the main Waterford-Dungarvan road the car was in collision with a car driven by the defendant.

As a result of the impact the plaintiff suffered a whiplash and received a cut on the forehead. Mr. King added that while he considered the amount of the settlement "not princely", the girl's parents were anxious to settle the matter without subjecting her to the trauma of a court hearing.

Judge Sheridan said that he was always worried about such cases.

Dr. Tom Higgins in evidence said that the girl had a laceration on the forehead but suffered no injury to her head. She sustained a moderate whiplash injury to her neck and this initially caused her severe pain but this had gradually abated and she appeared now to have only periodic mild pain.

Judge Sheridan agreeing that the settlement was not princely said that he would not go against the wishes of the parents in the matter. He accordingly approved of the settlement and made it a rule of Court.

What's Another Year? Or Two!! Or Three!!!

In happier times just a few years ago Jackie Fahey celebrated 21 years of unbroken membership of Dail Eireann at a function held to mark the occasion at Clonea Hotel. Guest of honour at the function was Mr. Charles J. Haughey, Leader of the Fianna Fail Party who is above shown lending a hand to an ecstatic Deputy Fahey to cut the cake with 21 candles. Below is Mr. Haughey with Deputy and Mrs. Fahey with a group of Fianna Fail supporters on the same occasion.

West Waterford Notes

21st BIRTHDAY

Congratulations to Mr. Sean Hogan, Tinnock, who celebrated his 21st birthday recently.

IN AMERICA

Presently enjoying a holiday in America are Dick and Helen Waide, Ardsallagh.

PILTOWN CHURCH

To give way for the commencement of our new church at Piltown, the old building has now been completely demolished. The site has been very skilfully cleared without any damage to the surrounding grounds.

Repairs are well under way to Clashmore Church. These major improvements require a lot of finance and the major source of income will be provided by the weekly house-to-house collection. Some areas have not received their envelopes but Rev. Billy Meehan, C.C., will be visiting all shortly.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE

On Saturday, July 15, at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, Cpl. Noel Hayes, Tinnock, Youghal, son of Criss and the late John Hayes, married Miss Mary Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Willis, Ballyduff.

Noel is based in Fermoy and has been on many trips to Lebanon with the United Nations Peace-keeping Forces. He is involved in many sporting activities in the area and is very popular among the people. We are very sorry to see him going to live outside the parish.

Mary is a very popular member of the office staff of Waterford County Council and she is already well-known to people in West Waterford. She is also involved in the Credit Union and in the Drama Society.

Rev. Patrick Barry was chief celebrant at the celebrated Nuptial Mass, assisted by Rev. Billy Meehan and Rev. Fr. Walsh.

Bridesmaids were Maire Ahern and Laura Dermody. Bestman was Danny Hayes, groomsman Eamonn Hayes, flower girl Emer Power. The beautiful music for the ceremony was provided by Mattie Fahey and the soloist was Angela O'Regan.

The reception followed in the beautiful setting of Clonea Hotel. The sun shone beautifully all day, giving this young couple a wonderful start to their life together.

Best wishes and congratulations to you both, Noel and Mary.

WORKING IN ENGLAND

On Friday last, David

Coughlan, Ardsallagh, left to commence work in England. Every good wish to you in your stay, David.

FRANCIS FIELD VISITS

Author of the monthly nature article on the Messenger magazine, Francis Field, visited Clashmore during the past week. West Waterford has provided a lot of study areas for these articles. Francis will leave shortly for a twelve month stay in the USA. We hope he will continue his writings and we wish him an enjoyable trip.

BALLYDUFF NOTES

LADIES CLUB

A meeting was held recently in the Library to draw up an autumn/winter schedule of events. More details of those later when arrangements have been finalised.

While the summer is still with us, it was decided to arrange a trip to Trabolgan on Saturday, August 12 — children to be included on this outing. Names of people interested to Gretta Kearney or Mary Walsh before Friday, July 28, as advance booking is necessary at Trabolgan.

WEDDING: WILLIS — HAYES

The marriage has taken place at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, of Miss Mary Willis, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Willis, Shean, Ballyduff and Mr. Noel Hayes, Tinnock, Youghal, Co. Cork. The bridesmaids were Maura Ahearne and Laura Dermody, while Dan and Eamonn Hayes were bestman and groomsmen.

The Nuptial Mass was concelebrated by Rev. Fr. Michael Walsh, P.P., Tallow, Rev. Fr. Paddy Barry, Ballyporeen and Fr. William Meehan, C.C., Clashmore.

The reception was held at Clonea Strand Hotel and the honeymoon is being spent in the Canaries.

We wish Mary who has associations with many local organisations and Ned many years of wedded bliss.

G.A.A. NOTES

The intermediate footballers made their championship exit when they were defeated by Sliabh gCua at Colligan on Saturday evening on the score of 4-9 to 1-2.

The under-16 hurlers were beaten by Lismore at Tallow on Monday and so they are out of the running for championship honours. The under-12 hurlers received a walk-over from Stradbally last week and have one more game to play against St. Olivers. Regardless of the outcome of this game they will advance to the semi-final. It is hoped to arrange an under-12 challenge game this week-end.

The senior hurlers will play Lismore in a vital championship game at Cappoquin on Sunday evening at 7.30 p.m. A win here would put us through to the knockout stages. This will be a close game as have meetings between the sides in recent years.

The minor hurlers had an easy win over Kilrossanty at Modeligo on Wednesday evening last. They play An Gaeltacht at Cappoquin this Friday evening at 7.30 p.m.

MACRA NOTES

On Thursday, July 27, the club will be represented at Dungarvan Show by Mary Quirke (Car Driving); Brenda Leamy and Maeve Kenny (Make and Model); Anne Scanlon (Novelty Cake); Richard Keane

TALLOW NOTES

TALLOW G.A.A. J.F.C. — An Rinn 3-10, Tallow 0-3 — Tallow junior footballers suffered a heavy defeat by An Rinn in the league style championship at Cappoquin on Sunday last. On a very hot and sunny day the fitness and cuteness of An Rinn really put paid to the Tallow challenge. An Rinn led 0-8 to 0-1 at half time and three second half goals showed the difference between the two teams. Tallow missed a couple of chances in the second half, with the last pass always seeming to go astray. Tallow must win their last game against Lismore to force a play off. It isn't totally beyond us and with a few challenge games and a bit of training we won't be far away.

The team that did duty on Sunday last was: Bernard Pratt, Michael T. Cunningham, Con Ryan, Mick Beecher, Tomas McCarthy, Jim O'Donoghue, Gerald Sice, Dermot Henley, Gerry Hogan, Brian Henley, Steve Curley, Denis O'Flaherty, Paul Curley, Micky Curley 0-3 (2 frees), Gary Ahearne. Subs: Jimmy Fitzgerald, David Curley and Bart O'Donoghue.

U-16 — Our U-16 hurlers played Lismore in the first round of the championship on Monday night week last and were beaten by 2-8 to 0-7. Although we had about eight U-14's on the team they all acquitted themselves very well. We take on Dungarvan on this Monday night and Ballyduff a week later. With a small bit of effort we may make the closing stages of the championship.

Our minors are in training for the forthcoming divisional final. They played Glanworth in a challenge last weekend and though short a few regulars the lads won on a scoreline of 3-8 to 1-7. We would like to thank Glanworth for coming to Tallow and hopefully we can return the compliment before the final, which probably won't be until the end of August. — (P.R.O.)

BRIDEVIEW UTD.

F.C. A.G.M. REPORT
Curley Brothers To Lead Utd. — Mickey Curley is the new manager of United and his assistant is none other than brother Philly. This was the good news announced at the club's A.G.M. on Tuesday night last. A good crowd attended the A.G.M. and those present felt it was one of the best in years.

Chairman Pascal Prescod opened the meeting and Sec. Tomas McCarthy gave a detailed account of the club's activities for the past season and treasurer Leonard Fraher showed the club to be in a sound financial position, despite an increase in expenses.

Dressing rooms and training facilities were high on the list and the new committee are already looking into these before the season starts.

The signing of Mickey Curley (who spent the past few seasons as a Munster Senior League player with Dungarvan Utd.) is a great boost for the club. Mickey announced that he will be looking for a commitment from each player he signs this season. Another new face with United next season will be that of Maurice Hartnett of Valley Rangers. Maurice is married and now living in Tallow and his signing is another boost for the club. Manager Curley has said more new signings may be on the way.

Two of our younger players namely Pascal Prescod and Pat Sheehan who were thinking of hanging up their boots were asked to have a rethink as the manager felt they still had something left to offer the club.

Tournaments — The Billy Henley Shield U-18 Tournament will take place during the festival.

Tracy Fire Fund — The club will be arranging an event for this worthy cause shortly.

The following are the new committee for the coming season — Chairman: Pascal Prescod; Vice Chairman: Pat Sheehan; Sec: Mickey Curley; Treasurer: Tomas McCarthy; P.R.O.: Liam Fraser; Manager: Mickey Curley; Assist.: Philly Curley; Committee: G. Sice, S. Hogan, P. Curley, L. Fraser, M. Henley, G. Ahearne, P. Curley, S. Lyons.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.

Draw — The two-monthly £1,000 draw took place at the clubrooms, Ballynoe last Thursday evening and the following are the results — £400: Chris O'Mahoney, Ballynoe; £100: Geraldine Ahern, Bridepark, Conna; £100:

Stephen Motherway, Clonmult; £50 to each of the following, Richie and Katherine Cotter, Glentrasna, Ballynoe; Kay Moroney, Conna; Mrs. Mary Long, Monagown, Conna; Rena Neville, Ballyknock, Ballynoe; Gerard O'Mahoney, Kilorand, Ballynoe; £25 to Ballynoe Race Committee; William O'Connell, Kilphilbeen, Ballynoe; Matt Twomey, Conna; Sean O'Brien, Castlelyons. Seller of first prize: Pat O'Brien, Ballynoe.

U-14 Hurling Championship at Dungourney — St. Catherine's 8-4, Middleton 5-3 — At the Dungourney venue last Wednesday evening the U-14 hurlers excelled themselves in putting in a tremendous display to defeat old and worthy rivals Middleton in this first round clash. Getting into an early lead and with a two goal advantage at the break they seemed to revel in their game and never relaxing in their efforts they strode to victory on the above score to meet Youghal in the second round in the near future. The pitch was in splendid condition and local ref. Dan Kenneally had charge of the whistle. Team: Michael O'Brien (goal), Richard Cotter, David O'Connell, Brendan Noonan, Gerard Lynch, Jim Lane (capt.), Kevin O'Connell, Michael Hegarty, Johnny Sheehan, Martin O'Keefe, Kieran Morrisson, Mark Spillane, Mickie Dorgan, Dessie Lucey, Brian Cotter. Subs: Richard Hamilton, Paul O'Connell, Aiden Hickey, Pat Morrisson, Pat

Lane.
B Grade Football Championship at Lisgoold — Glanmire Rovers 2-8, St. Catherine's 1-4 — This game was well contested and well up to standard. Catherine's had plenty of the play but inaccuracy was the deciding factor against them. There was a great demand for tickets at the clubrooms where a draw was held for them. Many were anxious to travel and cheer on the rebels and of course local man Denis Walsh.

St. Catherine's v Malloy — This match is being looked forward to over a long period now and will take place at Kilworth on this Saturday evening, so we wish our intermediate hurlers the best of luck. Having received a bye in the first round and the subsequent postponement of the next round due to players involvement with the county team, this game has been delayed for a long time but still it has afforded the lads to engage in plenty training plus league and challenge contests. They are not lacking in training or dedication and except for a couple of unfortunate injuries to prominent players recently the picture is looking good. Malloy defeated us in our initial attempt at the intermediate grade and now with greater experience and some confidence we hopefully expect to travel on to the next round, so here's wishing the team and mentors the best of luck.

James McCarthy, Tallow — One of Tallow's well known characters, Jim

"Hoddy" McCarthy died recently. Having worked in England for the greater part of his life, "Hoddy" in his retirement returned to reside at the family home in Convent St. Well versed in racing and G.A.A. lore always he was an interesting man to chat with and his passing will be regretted by many and especially by his sisters Maureen, Maggie and Lil, nephews, nieces, grand niece, relatives and friends. He was interred in Tallow cemetery. Ar dheis De go raibh an am uasal.

Blood Donor — Congratulations to Jody Morrisson of Conna who on the Cork Blood Transfusion Service visit to Conna recently reached the 50th blood donation and is shortly due for the "Golden Drop Award".

West Waterford Hunt Pony Club

Peter Magnier, thank you for the use of your land at Lismore for our second Rally on Thursday last. The programme for the day was similar to our first rally with instruction before lunch. During this time the members were divided into three groups. Each was mounted and all were instructed on the basic skills of riding. After lunch, Mr. H. Chavasse again very kindly supervised the games which the children enjoyed immensely.

At this stage we wish to say a very special "thank you" to Michael O'Connor, Cappoquin, for this sponsorship of £100 worth of rosettes. Funds are needed for so many items required to get the club off the ground. Michael's donation has been a wonderful boost.

All roads lead to Donal O'Connell's farm near the sea in Ardmore for our third rally on Tuesday next, August 1. Members are asked for their usual co-operation and please do not litter the fields. — PRO.

Abbeyside S.A.C.

Next Sunday is Ladies Day as their own competition takes place. Waterford Tiles are sponsoring this event and fishing is from 2.30 to 5.30. Entries will be taken at The Pond in Abbeyside. Fishing will be confined to the harbour area.

The Ladies Master Angler table reads: No. 1, Cait Mulcahy on 137 pts; 2, Ann Cowming on 120 pts; 3, Kathleen Young on 80 pts. — PRO.

Remembering Other Days

Appropriately for this issue in the week of Dungarvan's Annual Agricultural Show, the photo for our "Remembering Other Days" series recalls Show Days of other days when most of us were much, much younger than we are now. The photo shows the members of the Ladies Committee of the Show Society, can anyone guess in what year? The first lady on the left has not been identified but reading on the others in the group are: Mrs. Chavasse; Miss Kathleen O'Brien, R.I.P.; Mrs. Hobbs, R.I.P.; Mrs. Eunie Hocken, R.I.P.; Mrs. Langly, Tay Lodge; Mrs. Looby, Mrs. Joan Baily; Mrs. Mary Riordan; Mrs. Maura Stephenson; Miss Peg O'Donnell, R.I.P.; Mrs. Mgt. Walsh-Mellerick; Mrs. Maeve Coghlan; Miss Brid Ni Christoir.

Dungarvan Choral And Musical Society Notes

Do you sing in the bathtub? Serenade in the shower? Don't waste your sweetness on the indoor plumbing — join the Dungarvan Choral and Musical Society.

Rehearsals are starting in the Autumn for the society's latest action-packed musical. It's got cowboys and can-can girls, gold diggers and beer swiggers. A tale of rifles and romance from the Wild Wild West. Yes folks, "Calamity Jane" is coming to town!

From February 13th to 17th you can catch her at the Friary Hall, Dungarvan. So if you're looking for a way to warm up a winter's evening, get yourself down to Deadwood City, sit back and enjoy the fun.

Calamity is a lady with a big gun, a big heart and a lot of tall tales. Wherever she goes fireworks follow and like the mounties, she's determined to get her man!

There's plenty of music that will keep your toes tapping. Songs like "The Deadwood Stage", "The Black Hills of Dakota", "Windy City" and "My Secret Love".

Join us at the Golden Garter Saloon for a night to remember.

ARDMORE NOTES

GOOD LUCK!

Good luck and best wishes to Breda Coyne of Grange and Tommy Cronin of Ardmore on their forthcoming wedding on Monday next, 31st July. Breda is an active member of the community, in training the ladies football and also she is a member of the Hall committee. She is known by all as she is the 'one who gets involved'. She has been working at Qwain's Shop for the past few years and during her 'break' will be missed. Tommy, too is active in the G.A.A. and enjoys catching the odd fish or so. We wish them the best of luck and happy days for the future together. The marriage takes place in the Church of the Assumption, Grange.

LIFE AND PEOPLE — A TOP HIT IN ARDMORE

Last Thursday Clashmore area brought their entry, 'Life and People' to Ardmore. Fr. Meehan acted as compere for the show — which started with the Holy Show! Their first act was Fr. Kennedy singing Ballyjamesduff followed by 'The Valley of Slieve Na mBan'. Next came the 'babies' of the group, Fr. Keogh and Fr. Fitzpatrick, singing 'Scorn Not This Simplicity' and 'Let It Be'. The latter had everyone joining in. Next in line were 'Breach 'em and Chancy' better known as Fr. C. Kelly and David Creed. Fr. Kelly recited 'The Papisher and The Prod' and received overwhelming applause — the message was clear to all. Fr. Curran followed with his mandolin and also sang two songs for us to enjoy.

Two extra acts followed (1) Mary Dee singing and the Munster Champions from the 1989 Fleadh; (2) Catherine Mahoney (squeeze box), Judy Fleming (accordion) and Pauline Fleming (banjo). It was a great start to an even better finish.

Enter 'Tops of the Town' with an opening number sure to set the wheels in motion, 'Up With People!' 'The Itch' followed — picture this, you're sitting down on a park bench, up comes an old tramp and he makes you start to 'itch'. This went on until finally he got what he wanted, an old news paper! It may not sound like much but what had to be seen was W. Motherway in the part of the tramp. Next scene was of pure tradition — dancing, music, singing, etc. Janice Dee and Ollie Dee were then telling everyone to 'Be Happy' — don't worry and keep sponging! (I'm sure R.T.E. are delighted with that part lads!)

In scene 4 we heard the magnificent voice of Liam Dawson singing 'Jimmy Brown'. The parents, Aggie and Tossie, of Jimmy, Steve Dunne, and the 'Church' made the song go down exceptionally well. Next followed a bit of comedy in the form of a 'new' Indian joke. Scene 6 followed with songs 'Rockin' Rollin', 'Teddy Bear' and 'See You Later Alligator'. The costumes for these songs were a credit to their maker, Majella Nolan. 'City versus Country' followed. This was a new version of the shelf game. Mary Dee gave a great performance as the 'Old woman from the country', it's amazing how young she looked after her change. John Sliney was also good as the over confident 'City Slicker'.

Songs again, this time the pupils of Piltown, Ballycurane and Clashmore Primary schools sang 'Happiness' — with lighted T-Shirts. It was most effective. The children by the way remained well behaved throughout the whole of the show and were a credit, both for 'stage' performances and 'outward' performance, to their parents. Orla Baker gave a splendid rendition of 'Give the Children Back their Childhood'. If Liam Dawson and Orla Baker got together they would make a great ballad group as both have clear, beautiful voices.

Changing from the music scene we then met Dinny (W. Motherway) and Molly (M. Dee). Songs followed and an "In My Father's Time" story of the first umbrella. The finale had everyone on stage, some in costumes of the nations, singing 'I'd like to teach the world to sing' and 'Sing, sing a song'. We had an extra treat when Fr. Meehan sang 'The power over me is love' with the children and audience joining in with the actions.

This particular performance was in aid of the Piltown Church fund. The Church is in total need of renovation. The building, it is hoped, will begin soon, so any further donations would be very much appreciated. Just see Fr. Meehan in Clashmore.

It was a fantastic show and everyone deserves a mention — but there are so many we'll have to narrow it down a bit — production team: Fr. B. Meehan C.C., Mary Dee, William Motherway; choreographer: Jacqui Daly; musical director: Mary Dee; stage crew: Tossie Dee, Dan Leahy, James Leahy, John Connery, John Cliffe, Patrick Foley and Ml. Dee; make-up: Paula King, Ann Mulqueen, Teresa Foley and Eilish Rourke; wardrobe mistress: Majella Nolan; research: Mary Dee and Fr. B. Meehan; comedy team: W. Motherway, Mary Dee, John Sliney, Janice Dee, Mgt. Keevers, Ollie Dee; sound and lighting: Noel Cronin (sparks); lead singers: Liam Dawson and Orla Baker.

We've got it from a reliable source that the 'team' will be thinking of entering the 'Tops' competition again next year. So the best of luck and don't forget to bring the show to Ardmore! Everything we've said so far is in 'short' — for the full effect of costumes, lighting, etc., you would have to see it in person. Well done to all.

CONGRATULATIONS

Happy days ahead for Pat Flanagan and Mary Callaghan who were married recently in Knockanore. Fr. Aidan Crowley, who was just recently ordained, officiated at the Nuptial Mass. Best wishes for a long and happy life together, from Aggie and John Hurton.

ATHLETIC CLUB — RING/OLD PARISH

The Athletic club would like to thank all who contributed to their most successful cake sale on Sunday last in St. Declan's Hall.

Results of the draw — Iced cake: Tomas Aherne, Grange; Btl. of whiskey: David Aherne, Grange; Btl. of wine: Johnny Whelan, Rath; Fruit set: Angela Collins, Ardsallagh; Btl. wine: Laura Dower.

G.A.A. JUVENILE HURLING

On Monday the 24th the U-16 lads played against Kilrossanty at Abbeyside. The outcome was a draw, Kilrossanty 2-4, Ardmore 3-1.

Friday last the U-12 team played in Melleray, against Melleray. Ardmore won this game.

U.B.M. (UNITED BEACH MISSIONS)

We would like to thank the U.B.M. for coming to Ardmore each year and to give people a clearer picture of what they are. The U.B.M. is an interdenominational organisation and its members, aunts and uncles as the children call them, come from all walks of life, doctors, teachers, factory workers and even the unemployed. They even have some members from as far away as Hong Kong and Malaysia. These people give their time to the U.B.M. because, in some way, God has changed their lives for the better.

CIRCUS COMES TO TOWN

The Big Top Circus hit Ardmore on Monday and Tuesday with a terrific show. There were many acts to suit the whole family, including the following: (1) horse acts and in particular 'Beauty the wonder horse' (even Sean Connery, 007, has ridden her!). (2) Clowns like Teddy Grin, who made for one little boy, Allan North, a very happy birthday! (3) Unicycle acts. (4) Illusionist. (5) Jugglers. (6) Dog acts — both comedy and serious. (7) The Amazing 'Cloud-Swing', which was the way the first ever trapeze started, with the death roll.

In all I would say it's a Circus not to be missed. The Big Top moves to Ring this Wednesday (today) and on to Clonea Strand on Thursday. I nearly forgot one of the funniest parts of the show — when Marie Seaward 'volunteered' to become a flying horse woman. We always knew Marie was a knock-out — but two fellas at one swipe, Marie!!!

COMING THIS WEEK

A bumper night is assured Thursday, 27th July when Comhaltas Ceoltoiri na nDeise arrive in force for the Pattern Ceili in St. Declan's Hall. Don't miss it, what ever happens! Admission is £2 and a memorable night of song and music and dance is assured! Under auspices of Ardmore and Grange I.C.A.

Dungarvan Youth Club Notes

WEDNESDAY:

We had a disco which started at 8.30 p.m. Things were slow starting off but by 9.15 p.m. a good crowd had turned up and we were relieved to see them. At the end of the night every one agreed that they had a great time.

MOUNT MELLERAY:

On Friday night we went up to Melleray to go camping for the weekend. When we got there we put up our tents and got our gear ready. Saturday morning we went for a hike and when we got back we had our dinner. That night most of us went to the disco but some of us stayed with the French students and had a sing-song by the fire. On Sunday we took down the tents and returned home by bus at 5 o'clock.

Cappoquin Notes

THE LATE MRS. NORAH FITZGERALD, NEWTOWN, MODELIGO.

It was with feelings of real sadness that very many friends learned of the death of Mrs. Norah (Nonie) Fitzgerald, Newtown, Modeligo. She passed to her eternal reward at Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford, on July 11th. The deceased lady, nee Flynn, Kilcooney, was sister of the late J. J. Flynn, Frome, Somerset. The late Mrs. Fitzgerald was a widely known and respected figure, who throughout her long life, personally epitomised the old Irish traditional beliefs of a deep religious faith true charity, and hospitality. A lady of immense charm and personality she had the great happiness of seeing two of her daughters enter religion — Sr. Mary, Carriglea, and Sr. Kathleen, Dunmore East.

There was an immense gathering at the removal of remains to Modeligo Church where they were received by Rev. M. Barron, P.P., accompanied by many other clergy and again on the next day following concelebrated Requiem Mass, the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery. Principal celebrant was Fr. Matt Cunningham, P.P., music was rendered by Sr. Therese, Mercy Convent, Dungarvan and hymns were sung by Sisters from the Convent of Mercy, Dungarvan, The Convent of Mercy, Dunmore East and Carriglea Convent. Fr. Cunningham read the final prayers, assisted by very many other clergy.

The chief mourners were: Thomas (husband); David (son); Sr. Kathleen, Mercy Convent, Dunmore East, Sr. Mary, Carriglea Convent, Breda and Nora (daughters), Nora (daughter-in-law); Jim Cullinane and Willie Gahan (sons-in-law); John, Lenora, Pat and Catherine Fitzgerald, Caitriona, Ned, Mary and Jamie Cullinane, Owen, Liam and Conor Gahan (grandchildren); Mrs. Minnie Kirwan (sister); Mrs. Bidy Flynn (sister-in-law); Eddie Kirwan (brother-in-law); nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

RETIREMENT

Very many in Cappoquin will learn, with regret of the decision of Very Rev. John Power, P.P.V.F. Lismore to resign his position. Canon Power was previously Parish Priest of Cappoquin and all his former parishioners will wish him well.

ROAD REPAIRS

Here in Cappoquin we look, with envy, at the magnificent tarmac road surfacing which has just been completed throughout the town of Lismore. Surfaces here are in a dreadful condition and only a full scale relay can remedy the situation.

CAPPOQUIN SPORTS WEEKEND

Cappoquin's Second Annual Sports Weekend, due to be held from Thursday 10th to Sunday, 13th August (both inclusive) is being eagerly awaited and the programme to hand indicates a wide variety of outdoor sports to suit all tastes and fancies. The opening programme on Thursday features the 5000 metres Round the Houses road race with leading national runners taking part. Friday sees the Cappoquin Cycling Classic, so popular last year, and which, again, will have leading riders competing.

Saturday is devoted to soccer competitions with a welcome special attraction being the appearance of the Dungarvan Youths All-Ireland Championship winning eleven. Water sports and power boat racing will be a new sport for many on the Sunday programme which also includes tennis, Macra novelty events, fishing competition and senior hurling tournament finals. It is a programme which should provide a badly needed injection of activity, both social and economic, into the area.

G.A.A.

Gate Collectors — On gate duty this week 23rd-29th July are M. Morrissey, B. Murray and M. Byrne. Next week's gate collectors, 30th July to 5th August, are D. Flynn, Jimmy McGrath, K. McCarthy.

U-16 Hurling — Our under 16 hurlers were beaten by Fourmilewater last Monday night. U-12 Hurling — Cappoquin 4-6, Naomh Brid 1-1 — Cappoquin hurlers recorded their second win in the championship with a decisive victory over Naomh Brid last Monday night. Their first time hurling paid dividends and, but for a good Naomh Brid goalie, would have won by a bigger margin. Outstanding for Cappoquin were Eamonn McGrath, John Lynch, Ward Fraher, Cha Scanlan, Miceal Murphy, Thomas Scanlan, Peter Scanlan, Diarmuid Coughlan, James Manahan and Darragh Wilkinson.

Vandalism — It is with regret that we report that vandalism has reared its ugly head once more in the sports field, so the sports field gates will be locked at 10 o'clock every night as a result.

Senior Hurling — Our senior hurlers have just one game left to play in their section and this against Roanmore, the form team at present. In our last game against Dunhill we turned in a dreadful performance and the players must surely try and erase that painful display from their memories with an all out effort against the City team. This game could probably be played on Sunday next as both teams are agreeable to play.

Kilrossanty/Fews Notes

POPULAR CURATE DEPARTS

Magnificent Fund Raising Effort

The people of Dungarvan came out in force last Wednesday and gave generous support to a most worthwhile cause when the Bendix Washaton visited Shaws Dungarvan. The Washaton was raising funds for the Temple St. Children's Hospital. Centrepiece of the fund raising effort was a giant 12 ft. washing machine accompanied by clowns and face painters. Willie White and his jazz band livened up the proceedings at Shaws and kept the large crowd in great humour.

Derek Nally of Bendix said that they were most grateful for the huge turnout and the generosity of the people of Dungarvan.

Shaws would like to thank all those who helped in this fundraising effort most especially Maura Shanahan and her friends who were magnificent. All the monies raised last Wednesday will go directly towards equipping a new Intensive Care Unit at the Children's Hospital, so take a bow Dungarvan, your generosity has not gone unnoticed!

BLOOD PRESSURE CHECKS

Blood Pressure Check Centres for the month of August, organised by The Irish Heart Foundation in association with Regional Health Boards, will be held as follows:

Wednesday 2nd — Dungarvan at Dental Section, St. Joseph's Hospital from 2 to 3 p.m.

CAMOGIE — MUNSTER FINAL

Gallant Effort By Waterford

Cork 3-10, Waterford 2-8

This was the final score in a most exciting game of camogie played at the Glen on Saturday evening. Waterford, playing with the same courage and determination as they did against Clare, really took the game to the Cork girls and led for three-quarters of the game. But Cork being Cork, rallied and unluckily for us, came out the winners.

Waterford had a dream start with two goals inside the first few minutes. Patricia Bolger (Lismore) soloed through only to have her shot blocked by the Cork goalie, but Catherine Whitty (Gaultier) was on hand to put away the rebound for Waterford's first goal. For the second goal, Patricia Bolger got a vital touch to an incoming high ball to put the ball in the back of the net.

Four minutes later Cork got their first score with a pointed free and then, five minutes later, hit back with a goal. But Waterford stood up well to the rising pressure and added on two more points before Cork scored another one. They replied to this Cork point with two further points to leave the half-time score: Waterford 2-4, Cork 1-3.

EXCELLENT POINT

Waterford were the first to score again in the second half with an excellent point by Niamh McMahon (Butlerstown). However, after this, Cork began to get their game together. They got three points without reply and then got a vital goal to level the match. Points were now exchanged on a couple of occasions, but Cork were by now dominating and when they got another goal 10 minutes from time they began to pull away. This left the full time score: Cork 3-10, Waterford 2-8.

Waterford were well served by Orla Flynn at midfield, who was very accurate at her free-taking as well as in general play, and Patricia Bolger who put the Cork defence under a lot of pressure, especially in the first half. In defence Siobhan Coughlan and Caitriona Caples had their moments, while Mary Murphy in goal made a number of excellent saves and could not be faulted for any of the goals.

All in all, Waterford can be proud of their performance and they did not let down the blue and white one bit. If the present team can stay together, who knows what may happen next year, as it has to be admitted, Cork got a real fright last Saturday. Well done to all who were involved.

Team — M. Murphy, S. Coughlan, S. Sullivan, C. Hutchinson, C. Caples, O. Flynn (capt.) (0-5), J. Coughlan, E. O'Toole, C. White (1-0), N. McMahon (0-1), A. M. O'Gorman, P. Bolger (1-1). Subs. — T. Barry (0-1), G. Sullivan, E. O'Shea, G. Kennedy. — (Lismore PRO).

Tribute To Parting Curate

St. Brigid's Parish Hall, Kilrossanty, was the venue at which various Parish Committees and a capacity crowd paid tribute and made a number of presentations to their very popular Curate, Fr. Brian Power, before he departed to take up his new posting as Curate in St. Mary's Parish, Clonmel. Fr. Brian has been curate in Kilrossanty/Fews Parish since his ordination five years ago.

Cllr. Oliver Coffey, Vice-Chairman of the Parish Council chaired the proceedings and welcomed Fr. Frawley, P.P. and a very large crowd, who came to show their appreciation of Fr. Power's unobtrusive and dedicated service to his Parish. Fr. Frawley, paying tribute to his departing curate, recalled his own unexpected appointment as Parish Priest to Kilrossanty and Fews and his apprehension about the new responsibility. He stated that immediately on hearing of his announcement and before he had taken up residence in the Parish, Fr. Brian visited him in Carrickbeg, welcoming him and reassuring him on his new appointment. He also stated that but for Fr. Brian's hard work and loyal support he (Fr. Frawley) might not have had the courage to undertake the necessary fund-raising and commence the major reconstruction of Kilrossanty and Fews churches. Fr. Frawley also recalled he was Chairman of the Fews School Board of Management, and Fr. Brian was the main architect in the retention of Fews School which was threatened with closure in the recent past.

PARISH COUNCIL

During his five years in the Parish, Fr. Power established the Parish Council which set the scene for the major fund-raising activities, e.g. the Charity Dog Nights, Sponsored Walks, Tea Parties, etc. Kilrossanty Church has undergone a complete refurbishment and Fews Church renovation is to commence in the near future. Fr. Power was also instrumental in revitalising the two parish choirs. He also established the Active Retirement Group.

On the parish social activities scene, Fr. Power took a keen interest in sporting activities and was Hon. President of Kilrossanty GAA Club and was coach to the under 12 hurling team. He was also very active in the Kilrossanty Drama Group which staged many fine productions. He took to the boards frequently and will be particularly remembered for his performance as "Detective Trackem" in their production of "My Wife's Family." His musical abilities came to the fore when the Drama Group staged their first pantomime three years ago. He was Musical Director and Conductor on their first production, "Cinderella."

Fr. Brian's popularity was very strongly acknowledged by the many fine presentations made to him by: Michael Curran on behalf of the Active Retirement Group; Brigid Harney, B.O.M. Fews School; Trudy Walsh, Parish Choir; Joan Maher, Kilrossanty G.A.A. Club; Fr. Frawley, P.P., Kilrossanty School B.O.M.; Tony Coffey, Kilrossanty/Fews Drama Group, and Breda Kirwan, Secretary of the Parish Council made the presentation on behalf of the parish.

All present enjoyed the function at which the music was provided by Richie Halpin.

Breda Kirwan, Secretary of Kilrossanty And Fews Parish Council, presenting a wallet of notes to Fr. Brian Power, C.C., on his departure to St. Mary's, Clonmel. Also in picture is Oliver Coffey, M.C.C. Chairman of the Committee, Fr. Trowley, P.P., Liam Power, Parish Council.

The attendance included Fr. Brian's parents, Michael and Esther Power.

Before the proceedings concluded, local historian Sean Murphy read his comical verses dedicated to Fr. Power. Mrs. Madge Kiely a member of the Active Retirement Group, penned the following tribute to Fr. Brian on his departure:

TO FR. BRIAN

'Twas on a glorious summer eve, in our ancient Comeragh hall,
That young and old bade a sad farewell to 'our friend,' beloved by all,
Much Mahon waters 'neath the bridge have flown, how swiftly time goes by,
Since a gentle Priest came in our midst, sadly, now too soon it is goodbye.

We shall ever cherish his gentle care, for youth and old folk like me,
Sure, he helped us to feel young at heart with Choir, lore, song and jollity,

May God be with young Fr. Brian and Holy Spirits guide your destiny,

Our heartfelt wishes go to you from Fews and Kilrossanty.

Causeway Tennis Club Notes

Another successful Junior Open Week has come to an end with all visitors returning to their homes after matches and results which sometimes fulfilled expectations but often occasioned surprise. A very large entry came from as far afield as France and Spain! — this of course from the many students staying locally and from nearer places such as Lr. Aghada who sent up sisters Yvonne Flynn (U-12 singles winner) and Caroline and Clare who won the U-14 doubles and Barry Fitzgerald U-12 singles runner-up, Clonmel, Tramore, Carrick-on-Suir, Youghal, Rushbrooke, Bishopstown, Kilkenny and Dublin.

The use of our own 6 courts, St. Laurence's and a couple of private courts, plus a very efficient tournament director, Theresa Keane, cut through the large number of matches, allowed a plate event run by Luke Brennan and Judy O'Brien for the U-12 and U-14 singles competitors knocked out in the first round and enabled semi-finals and finals to be played without time pressure. A club "wit" has suggested that Teresa's speed in scheduling matches could enable finals to be played by Wednesday. Thank you Teresa for all the hard work and commitment necessary throughout the week.

HIGHLIGHTS!

Off the court the juniors enjoyed the entertainment of a very intriguing treasure hunt organised by Colin Carthy and Gerard O'Donovan, a disco and mineral bar in O'B's on Wednesday night and a barbecue which barely missed the only rain of the week on Thursday night. We appreciate all the help given by our seniors on these nights and also the help and support throughout the week in the shop, supervising driving and umpiring. The existence of such a reservoir of help is a source of encouragement for the president Ann Kelleher and her committee.

Notable matches were the U-12 boys singles where local boys Pauric Verling and Conor Barrett were knocked out in earlier rounds to result in a win for Laurence O'Dwyer fresh from his similar success in Tramore. In the girls U-12 singles the final fulfilled the seeding with Ann Brennan making a strong attack on number 1 Yvonne Flynn whose play showed why she recently defeated the Irish number 1 in the national rankings in Limerick.

In the U-14 boys singles Brian Hobart emerged as winner over Dermot Lawlor with Brian defeating Daniel Holland in a tense semi-final and Dermot Lawlor playing extremely well to put favourite Enda Donnelly out of the running. Rachel Byrne had a comparatively easy win over Claire Flynn having played a very exciting semi against her sister Caroline whose play on the day put Rachel under pressure that barely gave Rachel a last minute victory with a tie break score of 7-4.

In the U-16 boys singles, squad companions Conor McMahon and Patrick Veale battled it out with Conor wreaking revenge for defeat last year by Patrick. In the U-16 girls singles Aine White and Rachel Byrne put up a marvellous display with Rachel playing some of her best tennis yet to lose 6-6, 5-7 to Aine.

Tense matches and narrow victories were the order of the day in the U-12 boys doubles with Pauric and Conor winning, in the U-14 boys doubles with Enda and Brian dragging it out to the last before winning the vital point.

The plate was a great success giving first round losers another chance to compete. In the U-12 girls singles, local girl Nicola Wall met her match against visitor Nicola Mulhaire but after a 7-6, 6-7 score and some good play, lost in the third set 1-6. In the U-12 boys singles Colin Keane had a great match against William Fennell who just clinched victory. In the U-14 section Cyril Fritchette outclassed last year's winner Barry O'Connell, nephew of Mrs. O'Regan, O'Connell Street.

Congratulations to all our winners and a big thank you to all who took part. See you next year!

Dungarvan Sea Angling Club Notes

It seemed like a long break in the middle of our season, but in case you did not realise, The Yoplait 2-Day Gold Medal competition sponsored by Waterford Foods, will be fished on Saturday and Sunday week. A comprehensive programme will be published in next week's notes.

It was remarkable the number of casual angling outings there have been in the last while, some taking advantage of the good weather and others "poking around, jingoes" looking for new and better marks. The Waterford Foods/Co-op lads were more covert in their explorations and rehearsals, they called their's a "limited competition." Slanging apart, it's great to see the improvement in the numbers taking an interest in sea angling.

There are noticeable improvements in the variety and size of fish, presumably this can be put down to some extent to our own conservation policy of returning small and non-edible fish. The ling are a lot larger than last year's and on Saturday and Sunday last there were about 12 to 15 conger which could have been over the 1.5m. (5 feet), yielding the double score (30 points). There were also a few conger that might have taken a medal in the Yoplait. So, all augurs well at this stage for the "big one."

Entries will close for the Yoplait on Thursday, August 3. There are limited places and it will be first come, first served basis!

To bring you right up to date, Don has given me the leaderboard results incorporating the last event the "Daysha Open":

- Greatest Number of Conger — Tony Crowe 35; Sev Baumann 22; Billy Bumster 17; Pat O'Donovan 14.

TOUR DE FRANCE Congratulations Sean Kelly

Sean Kelly at 33 years showed what a mighty figure he still is in the field of international professional cycling when he crowned his best ever Tour de France by winning the green and red jerseys and helping his Dutch PDM team to win the team title. To win the green jersey for a record-breaking fourth time was indeed a remarkable achievement and as it was a feat never before achieved by any rider in the history of the gruelling Tour de France, it will further enhance the Carrick man's reputation as the greatest man on a bicycle in his time.

The green jersey goes to the rider accumulating the greatest number of points for consistent performance while the red goes to the best sprint cyclist during the Tour.

After the final stage of the Tour which ended in Paris on Sunday last, Sean said: "After the yellow jersey, the most important one to win is the green. I wanted to become the first rider to win it four times and that gives me a lot of satisfaction."

For the record, the Tour was eventually won by the US rider Greg Lemond who pipped the fancied Laurent Fignon, France, by a mere 8 seconds. Sean Kelly finished a very fine 9th overall with his team mate, another Irishman, Martin Earley in 44th place, his highest placing in five rides. Martin Earley also had the distinction of a stage win into Pau which for him was, very obviously, the highlight of this year's Tour.

Congratulations then, to both Sean and Martin for keeping the Irish flag flying with such honour with their magnificent feats in the 1989 Tour de France.

BALLINROAD A.F.C. FLAG DAY

We would like to thank everyone who contributed to our annual flag day on Friday last.

JOHN FRAHER TOURNAMENT

We intend commencing this tournament within a fortnight so all competing teams should have their entry forms in this week.

LADIES COMMITTEE

The above Committee held their first fundraising event of this season on Sunday morning last when they held a Cake Sale after 10 o'clock Mass in Ballinroad. With all the hard work which went into this event, I am happy to say that it was a big success.

A special word of thanks to the organising committee; to each and everyone who baked for this event; to Tom and Carmel for the use of their canopy, and to all who supported us on the day.

The Committee would like to have a bigger number of ladies involved in their forthcoming events, so if there are any ladies out there willing to give a hand please contact any member of the committee or come along to our next meeting.

Amstel Lager Pub League

1st ROUND GAMES

The Shandon Arms' (B) team ran out easy winners over The Ormonde by 4 goals to 1 with John Power (2), Willie Coward and Jim Mulcahy scoring for the Shandon Arms and Michael Keegan getting a consolation goal for The Ormonde.

The real drama came in the second match with the Gold Coast pipping Paddy Foley's (B) on penalties. A special mention to "Paddy's" captain, Michael Elstead, who gave an outstanding display in goal with his penalty saves being something to be remembered.

Then came the turn of the Shandon Arms (A) team who disposed of one of the favourites, The Enterprise, on penalties.

Last year's champions "Minnies" had a tough encounter with "Ducey's". With 10 min. to go Pat Terry set up Mark Reynolds to put the "champs" through with the only goal of the game.

The final game of the first round was the local derby when Paddy Foley's (A) and (C) teams were drawn together. "Paddy's" (C) team ran out winners by 3 goals to 1 with the highlight of the game being a save by Jesse Landers from a "Snail" Power penalty.

2nd ROUND

The Anchor who got a bye in the first round were drawn against the Park House and it was the Anchor with goals from Martin Houlihan and Tom McGuire who ran out winners with Anselm Hayes replying for Park House.

Sunday morning saw the Village Inn and Shandon Arms (B) locked together in a battle in the searing heat. John Power got the only goal of the game and once more Maurice Dee fails to win a trophy for his shelf.

Sunday evening saw the other Shandon Arms team go through to the semi-finals at the expense of the Gold Coast who made a brave comeback from 4-1 down to eventually finish 4-3.

Monday night the last of the "Paddy's" teams were victorious against last year's winners, Minnies, when Gerry O'Connor scored the only goal of a great game.

So the semi-final line-up is: Anchor v Shandon Arms (B); Shandon Arms (A) v Paddy Foley's (C).

Full report on semi-finals and finals next week.

Final Review Of Most Successful Season

All that remained for Dungarvan by the end of May was the Fitzgerald Cup. On Wednesday, May 24, the Blues travelled to Ozier Park to face Southend. A hand injury ruled out Sean Duggan but Dungarvan were still at full strength. Southend provided a resolute challenge and extra-time was looming when Colum Flynn scored the vital opening goal in the 82nd minutes. Further goals from John Walsh and Darren Wyse gave the Blues a flattering 3-0 victory.

Four days later the same sides clashed in a re-arranged league game. A depleted Southend were walloped 6-0 as Ray Flynn, John Walsh and Liam Barron each hit two goals.

The following Wednesday it was back to Ozier Park for the cup final against Bolton. A gem of a goal by Ray Flynn left Dungarvan 1-0 ahead at half-time. Midway through the second half R. Flynn made it 2-0 and although C. Lee pulled one back for Bolton it was Dungarvan who won their fifth trophy of the season.

Indeed this proved to be the last game of the season as Tramore failed to turn up for the last league game, of a tremendous season.

Kilrossanty Hang On In Cliff Hanger

KILROSSANTY 2-7; STRADBALLY 0-12

County champions Kilrossanty hung on literally by the skin of their teeth in their senior football championship clash with old rivals Stradbally at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Saturday night last. In a game of contrasting halves the Reds battled back from being eleven points down at the interval and just failed by the narrowest of margins in a pulsating finish.

Kilrossanty dominated the first half and had 3 points on the sheet before Eoin O'Brien opened Stradbally's account with a point from a free after 18 minutes. It was Stradbally's only score of the half and with just a minute to go to half time the champions led 0-5 to 0-1.

Then in an amazing and sensational 60 seconds Kilrossanty got through for the scores which wrapped up the game for them. In the 29th minute Jim Maher had a marvellous individual goal when he rounded Bob Walker in the right corner, soloed through and then blasted the ball home from ten yards.

With the half in its dying seconds a long ball floated into the Stradbally goal area. It should have been safely cleared but the defence and keeper failed to do so and Maher pounced to make it 2-6 to 0-1 at the break.

Roger Power and Ger Walsh had lorded it at midfield for Kilrossanty who looked champions material throughout the first half, so much so that Stradbally's task looked all but hopeless. The second half however proved otherwise.

Stradbally came out in the second half in a fiercely determined mood and their tactics of direct football as against the short passing game of the first half paid dividends.

They reshuffled their defence bringing Conor O'Brien from centre half to full back to negative the threat of Jim Maher. Dave Kirwan moved to centre half and Paul Mullaney was brought on at midfield.

The changes worked wonders as Stradbally took command and suddenly Kilrossanty were fighting a rearguard action. The points flowed from Stradbally and by the end of the third quarter they had added seven to leave the score at 2-6 to 0-8.

Michael Walsh had a Kilrossanty point, their only score of the half (it proved the winning point) to give them breathing space. Stradbally however continued to press forward and Eoin O'Brien was thwarted by a brilliant save from keeper Alfie Kirwan which ultimately saved the champion's bacon.

Four more points followed for Stradbally leaving them trailing 2-7 to 0-12, but time ran out for them as the clock denied them at least a draw.

Kilrossanty's first half display was very impressive while they did just enough to survive in the 2nd. They were best served by Harry Quinn, Roger Power, Ger Walsh and Jim Maher. Stradbally who were unlucky not to draw were best served by Dave Kirwan, Frank O'Brien, Liam O'Connor, N. Weldon, Tom Gough and A. Curran.

Scorers — Kilrossanty: J. Maher 2-2; M. Walsh 0-2; J. Mulhearn, R. Power, T. Veale 0-1 each. Stradbally: N. Weldon 0-3; T. Gough 0-2; S. Dee 0-2; E. O'Brien 0-2; L. O'Connor, J. Roche and J. Coffey 0-1 each.

UNDER 14 COUNTY HURLING FINAL
De La Salle 3-7
St. Oliver's 1-3

We travelled to Walsh Park on Saturday week last and were beaten by De La Salle in the under 14 county hurling final. We say well done to the team and selectors for reaching the county final.

MINOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

There was disappointment in Bushy Park on Wednesday evening week last when we could only field thirteen players in the first round of the minor hurling championship. All players were told of this match but didn't turn up for the game. Our minor hurling team have now been thrown out of the championship over not fielding a full team.

Some of our players had genuine reasons but more players didn't think it worth their while travelling to the game.

UNDER 12 HURLING

Our under 12 hurlers got a walk-over from Stradbally on Sunday last. The match was fixed for Aglish.

Fixture — Under 12 hurling: St. Oliver's v Tallow, at Aglish on this Wednesday evening, July 26 at 7.30 p.m.

UNDER 14 HURLING TRIALS

Five players, Paul Connery, Michael Walsh, Thomas Cliff, Laurence Maher and Aidan Aherne, all attended the under 14 hurling trials on Saturday last, and have been called back again for the final trials.

Easy For The Nire

NIRE 1-14; CLASHMORE 0-6

Although they suffered the trauma of seeing their 'keeper, Eddie Gough, sustain a broken leg, the Nire still proved far too good for Clashmore in what turned out to be a onesided senior football championship game played at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday night.

The injury to Gough occurred in the 12th minute of the first half when he was involved in a tussle for a 50/50 ball. It was totally accidental and necessitated a stretcher to remove the unfortunate keeper from the field.

Sean Guiry took over in goal with Jackie Hogan coming onto the team. The sides were level at 0-1 each at the time and play remained even throughout the first half after which Clashmore led by 0-4 to 0-3.

Two minutes into the second half however Ger Walsh broke through for a brilliant goal for the Nire to give them a 1-3 to 0-4 lead. Tony Condon added a point for them but a brace of points from Mick Shalloe left Clashmore just a point behind 1-4 to 0-6 after 37 minutes. Clashmore however failed to score again as the Nire took over complete control throughout the field.

They sent over ten points without interruption and could have managed more but for their own carelessness in front of goal.

In the end they won by eleven points and on their performance were fully deserving of this winning margin against a Clashmore side which proved disappointing on the night.

Scorers — Nire: G. Walsh 1-1; M. Ryan, M. Guiry and J. Hogan 0-3 each; P. Walsh (big), T. Condon, P. J. Mulcahy and P. Walsh (small) 0-1 each. Clashmore: M. Shalloe 0-4; D.

Salmon and C. O'Riordan 0-1 each.

Nire: E. Gough, P. Cooney, T. Walsh, D. Hogan, M. Fraher, K. Mulcahy, G. Coffey, P. Walsh, T. Condon, P. J. Mulcahy, P. Walsh, M. Guiry, G. Walsh, S. Guiry, M. Ryan. Sub: J. Hogan for E. Gough, D. Guiry for G. Coffey, A. Sheehan for Pat Walsh (big).

Clashmore: T. O'Keeffe, J. O'Halloran, R. Hynes, M. Devine, M. Walsh, M. Hynes, P. O'Halloran, R. O'Halloran, P. Hynes, C. O'Riordan, M. Shalloe, J. Power, D. Salmon, J. Douris, G. Hynes. Subs: M. Fenton for M. Devine, S. Allen for J. Power. Ref. D. Kiely.

Stradbally G.A.A. News

VITAL FROM NOW ON!

On this Friday evening, July 28, our senior footballers play Dungarvan in the championship in Dungarvan at 7.30 p.m. This is now a vital game for the Reds because nothing but a win will keep us in the championship. We will certainly have to play to top form in this game, otherwise it will be the "Blues" all the way for us.

If we can produce anything like our second-half performance of last week then it should be good enough to see us collect those vital points. It will also be interesting to see what team takes the field — notably our defence.

REDS PLAY FOR HALF HOUR

In what turned out to be a game of contrasting halves, County champions, Kilrossanty collected the points last week on the score of 2-7 to 0-12. It was all Kilrossanty in the first half and they had an eleven point lead at half time.

But whatever trainer-coach Sean Ahearne said to the Reds at half time, he certainly got them moving, and their display in the second half must prove one of the best in a long time and if we could hit the same form from now onwards we would be there or thereabouts at the finish.

UNDER-14 HURLING TRIAL

Three of the club's underage players, Stephen Cunningham, Eamonn Clancy and Michael Barnes attended a County under 14 hurling trial in Dungarvan last week.

This trial was held to pick a Western side for the forthcoming "Tony Forristal" tournament.

SOCIAL CENTRE NEWS

On this Saturday evening, July 29, the card whist game takes place in the social centre at 8.15 p.m. Lots of prizes in store — please note change of night.

On Sunday night next, July 30, it's the turn of Normands to provide the music for members and friends — do come early and enjoy the night.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Peadar Power on their marriage last week-end, which took place in Sligo. It was attended by many friends from the parish.

JUNIORS PREPARING

Our junior footballers will shortly be in action against Kilrossanty or Ballynacourty in the championship. Our strength in this grade has been somewhat weakened owing to some of the panel being brought onto the senior side, but this is certainly good for the players involved.

Our juniors will have to get down to serious training and no doubt Sean Ahearne will have them in good shape and determined for the fray.

HOLIDAY TIME

Some of our players and mentors are off on holidays this week as they take their summer break. We wish them all happy holidays and a safe return.

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. NOTES

SENIOR FOOTBALL

After our exciting hurling exploits against Mount Sion we return to senior football championship action on this Friday night with a very tough task against Stradbally at Fraher Field (7.30).

Although our opponents lost to champions Kilrossanty last weekend they put in a tremendous second half rally, and displayed the kind of football that makes them one of the most attractive sides of all to watch.

To reach the semi-finals Stradbally must win against us and that will make our task all the more formidable. However we had a good win over Ferrysbank last time out, and with the worries of possible relegation very considerably eased we can go into the Stradbally game in a relaxed frame of mind.

There must be no relaxation however in our efforts, and if everyone pulls his weight we will make the Reds travel all the way.

MINORS LOSE

Our minor hurlers concluded their championship campaign last week when going under to Cappoquin.

We dominated in the first half and deservedly led by 0-6 to 0-1 at the interval. We conceded a goal however immediately after the restart and our challenge faded from that moment onwards. A number of absentees didn't help our cause, but with the bulk of our panel eligible again next year we could be strong title challengers in 1990.

UNDER 16's WIN

The Under 16 hurlers made a winning championship start against Ballyduff last week, but there is plenty of room for improvement if we hope to lift the title.

We were scheduled to play Tallow this week in the next round and hopefully there will be another victory to record here next week.

DEFEAT FOR UNDER 12's

A depleted side proved no match for Lismore last week. There is now a break for the boys but activities will resume again on Saturday, August 19th.

IN CHARGE

Our sincere thanks to the chairman of our juvenile club, Jim Mullins, who took charge of all our activities last week when holidays ruled out some of the regulars. Needless to say Jim was the essence of efficiency at all times.

HOLIDAY TIME

Many of our players and officials will be going on the summer holidays from this week-end when the "Glass" takes its annual break. We hope the sun continues to shine for them and that they enjoy every day of the holidays.

FERGAL CUNNINGHAM

We are delighted in the club to know that Fergal Cunningham is home again after a stay in hospital in Cork.

Fergal is one of our most promising dual juvenile players and it is our hope that he will be donning the blue jersey again in the very near future.

MEETING

The club executive met on Tuesday night when an important agenda was dealt with.

More of the details next week D.V.

St. Patrick's G.A.A. Notes

MINOR HURLING

We beat Fourmilewater last Wednesday evening at Fraher Field, Dungarvan. This follows our wins over Naomh Brid and Abbey-side, which now means we contest the western semi-finals. This team, who are all under 17 years, have done well at minor level, but attendance at training has been poor and future matches will test this team.

UNDER 16 HURLING

We have qualified for the play-off stages of the Yoplait Championship and as County champions in this age group have done well in the league. From now on the opposition will be stronger and our team will have to perform better in all positions if we hope to do well this year.

UNDER 12 HURLING

We play St. Olivers in Bohadon on this Sunday night in the last match of the league at 7.30 p.m. Attendance at training has been very good and more challenge matches will be organised in August.

COACHING

Donnacha O'Donnell will be in attendance in Bohadon on this Thursday from 3 to 8 p.m. for under 11, 13 and 16 panels, as already arranged with the players. This Summer Camp is being arranged by Western Bord Na nOg and is free of charge for all participants.

Kill Notes

KILL G.A.A.

Last Saturday night we played St. Molleran's in the Junior Football championship in Ballyduff, but unfortunately we lost by a point. At half-time we were behind by 0-4 to 0-2, after a very poor first half. We slightly improved in the second half and snatched two goals but to no avail as St. Molleran's scored a last minute point. Final score, Kill 2-5, St. Molleran's 2-6.

The team was: J. Kiely, T. Mooney, M. Dunphy, F. Casey, P. Kirwan, J. Power (0-1), P. Halloran, M. Casey, M. Kiely, J. Kennedy (2-2), S. M. O'Regan (0-1), J. Flynn, K. Regan (0-1), J. Power, B. Whelan. Subs: T. Murphy, P. Regan, B. Mooney, A. Whelan.

ST. MARY'S G.A.A.

Last Monday night we played Mount Sion in the minor hurling championship in Kill, but were well beaten by a good balanced Mount Sion team. The scoreline of 5-9 to 1-6 does not do justice to the game as we missed two penalties and several other goal chances.

The team was: R. Hennessy, L. Lennon, J. Kennedy (1-2), B. Mooney, C. Lenihan, A. Kirwan, E. Power, M. Kavanagh, T. Kirwan, D. Walsh, M. Hubbard (0-4), K. Whelan, K. Kirwan, P. Kirwan, K. O'Regan. Sub: D. Power.

This Friday night we play Dunhill/Fenor in minor football in Portlaw at 7.30 p.m.

DOG NIGHT

This Saturday night coming the annual dog night takes place. This year it is in aid of the community centre and it is Fr. Condon's last fund-raising venture with the village. A bus leaves the village at 7.30 after 7.00 Mass and we hope that it will be greatly supported.

WATERFORD PLAYERS SUSPENDED

THE FINAL CHAPTER

The final chapter in the story of Waterford's Munster senior hurling campaign of 1989 was written over the weekend when both the Munster Council and subsequently the management committee, sat in judgement on matters related to Waterford's involvement.

On Thursday night at their meeting in Limerick, the Munster Council having heard the match report of referee Willie Horgan, imposed six month suspensions on both Noel Crowley, Ballygunner, and Damien Byrne, Erin's Own, who had been ordered off in the Munster Final for deliberate striking. Both the players, having been given the opportunity of being heard in their own defence, were present. Both have since expressed disappointment at the term of suspension imposed.

The county chairman, Eamon Murphy, secretary Seamus Grant and team-manager Tony Mansfield had also been summoned to the meeting and they made submissions on behalf of the county team. Tony Mansfield was, I understand, summoned to the meeting to explain his 'after-match' interview which he gave and in which he mentioned Waterford's injuries and the players frustration with the interpretation of the shoulder charge rule. Tony defended those views at the meeting, and no action was taken against him.

Tom Cunningham, one of the county's two delegates, claimed that Waterford had been subjected to a lot of adverse criticism and he complained that the whole team had been tarnished because of the deeds of a few. He also expressed annoyance that the entire defence had been brought into the totality of things in the referee's report.

In his report the referee described the second half of the game as an ugly spectacle and he was very critical of the Waterford defence whom he held responsible for the match developing into a nasty foul-ridden affair.

A fine of £1,000 which was then imposed was mitigated to £500 because the Waterford County Board had issued a statement making their views public about the game.

APPEAL FAILS

County chairman, Eamon Murphy, who was our chief spokesman at the Munster Council meeting, was Waterford's representative at the hearing of our appeal against the imposition of the £600 fine imposed recently by the chairman of the Munster Council Michael Maher, for incursions, etc., during the Cork and Clare championship matches. Having heard the submissions by the Waterford chairman and discussed the matter at some considerable length they ruled in favour of the Munster Council.

ster Council.

"WELL DONE"

"It takes a good man to admit when he is wrong and a particularly brave G.A.A. County Board to admit to fault. The expression of regret by the Waterford County Board for actions of some members of the county team in the Munster hurling final must be commended.

Waterford always had a name for skilled and clean hurling and the county's reputation was sullied against Tipperary. Many neutrals who remembered the Decies in the halcyon days look forward to the time when they will again take their rightful place amongst the best in Munster and the country".

When some sections of media were hunting for our scalps, it was nice to read this sub-editorial in The Cork Examiner on Friday, July 14th.

Next Week

In our next issue I will give a preview of the final stages of the senior football championship. Having been away for the week-end, I missed seeing some of the action, but I hope to comment on these games next week.

Senior Hurling Championship Situation!

After Lismore have played Ballyduff in round four of this championship, on next Sunday, only six matches will be left to be decided before the knock-out stage of the championship is reached. A close examination of the situation at the moment reveals some very interesting possibilities and show that the clubs in trouble could include the present county champions, Mount Sion.

BALLYGUNNER
Their final match will be against Tallow and they don't even have to win to qualify. It will be important for them to win as it may give them an outside chance of heading the group and qualifying for the semi-final without being involved in a knock-out game.

ROANMORE
They have qualified with full points from their four games, and they look all set to head the table in their group after they have played Cappoquin in their final game.

DUNHILL
In their final match they will play Clonea and a draw will suffice for them to qualify. Defeat will put them out of the championship. This game at Portlaw on the third Sunday in August will be the most important match in this group.

CLONEA
Their final chance of qualifying will depend on how they fare against Dunhill in their next and final match. Nothing less than a win will be of any use to them. It rests between Dunhill and themselves to determine the third placing in this group.

CAPPOQUIN
They were lucky to have beaten Tallow as it gives them the two points to keep them one off the bottom. They are not likely to get a further two as they don't appear good enough to beat Roanmore, whom they meet in their last game.

TALLOW
They now look as if they will be involved in a relegation battle as they are likely to finish at the bottom of their group. They have but one point from a draw with Clonea. They are due to meet Ballygunner in their final match.

All the above teams play on August 20th.
GROUP 'B' LISMORE
A win against Ballyduff on next Sunday would put them into the quarter finals and a further win or a draw against Mount Sion whom they play in their last game, would give them a semi-final spot. They have full points from their three matches and unless they lose both their next games they are out of trouble. Defeat in both could conceivably involve them in a tie-breaker with Passage for the third place in the group.

BALLYDUFF
Their only lapse so far was the loss of a point when they drew with the champions, Mount Sion in round one. With five points from three matches they will finish at the head of the table and go to the semi-final without any further worries.

MOUNT SION
Having dropped three points they have every reason to feel worried as if they lose to Lismore in their final match at Fraher Field on August 20 and should Passage beat Dungarvan, which seems likely, the champions will fail to qualify. As of now they have a 50/50 chance of getting to the knock-out stages. Many will feel that such a rating is generous on their present form.

PASSAGE

The intermediate champions of last year are very much the surprise packet of the championship and they could have more surprises before they finish. Any analysis of their position, must put them in with a splendid chance of qualifying for the quarter finals. A win against Dungarvan would guarantee this and what an achievement this would be in their initial season in the top grade.

PORTLAW

They have a mere two points and this may be enough to keep them out of a relegation game. They are not likely to beat Ballyduff in the next and final match.

DUNGARVAN

Pointless at the moment they will have it all to play for in their final game against Passage at Portlaw on August 20th. Indications are now that they will be involved in a relegation match with Tallow come September.

Senior Football Championship At Crucial Stage

With the final of the senior football championship probably going into October, it will be some time before we know who the semi-finalists will be. However, after the six matches which will be played over the coming week-end, we will have a fair idea of which six teams will be involved at the knockout stage.

On the basis of their most recent form, a number of these have little or no chance of winning over the coming weekend, but like drowning men clutching to straws, they will be expected to put up a struggle to stay as far from the bottom of the league table, as possible.

STRADBALLY v. DUNGARVAN

Dungarvan are presently only one step from the bottom, but if Ferrybank who are trailing them are beaten in their final match next Sunday, then there is nothing to worry about as far as relegation goes.

Stradbally, on the other hand, will need to win here to make sure of being in third spot on the table when the knock-out stage is reached. They were awful in the first half of their game with Kilrossanty on Saturday last and a repeat of that form could have them in serious trouble. The futility of trying to win the two top championships is something that should be considered by Dungarvan while the league system operates.

Attempting to do this with almost the same personnel puts too much of a demand on players at this level. What was achieved at minor and under-21 level is not something that can be carried through to senior under our system. I write this because I feel that Dungarvan's chances of success would be infinitely greater if they took one at a time. There is not a great gap in standards between themselves and Stradbally even though Stradbally won on each of the two occasions on which they met in the past two years.

A couple of rather lucky goals gave Stradbally the points when they met at Leamybrien last year. Knowing what trouble a defeat might mean for them here, I expect the Coveman to go all out from the start and if they do, they will probably get by.

KILROSSANTY v. CLASHMORE

With just two chances left to get the points that might keep them in contention, Clashmore will try to upset the odds here when they meet the champions Kilrossanty. They met in the past two years, being again in the same group, and on each occasion the current champions won, but in last season's clash Clashmore were heading for a possible victory when the defence broke down and conceded two goals, much against the run of play, to give Kilrossanty a win by that margin.

Clashmore have all to play for here as if they lose they are gone for another year. They will try all the way; but it doesn't seem that their best will be good enough against the championship favourites.

NIRE v. FERRYBANK

Looked upon as a foregone conclusion to everyone who have seen both in action this year, but the Nire are not likely to see it this way when they recall the surprise that the same Ferrybank gave them at this stage last year when the city team had a 1-8 to 1-4 win in a splendid game.

Their meeting in the senior football league was described by a number of scribes as one of the best football games seen at senior level last year. Everyone believes that the Nire are better now than they have been for a number of years and I will have to go along with this view and give them the vote to win here, but the match will be no push-over.

KILMACTHOMAS v. TRAMORE

Kilmacthomas will need to win this one to remain in contention and if I had been writing about it before last week, I would have had no hesitation in giving them a confident vote.

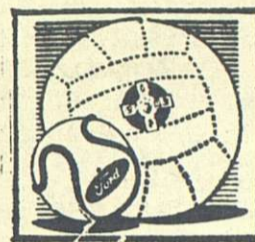

However, after Tramore's surprise win over Rathgormack last Sunday, one might be taking a chance in making such a prediction. All the year, Liam Fardy's men have been promising without delivering, but now that they have tasted victory they may be difficult to beat.

With so much at stake, I expect a mighty effort from Kilmacthomas and if they can produce this, they may win.

SAVIOURS v. GAULTIER

When the senior football programme was issued, I heard an amount of speculation about the game that would bring these neighbouring rivals into opposition. It was being talked about even then as one of the most attractive matches of the entire championship.

RATHGORMACK v. DUNHILL

This is very important for Rathgormack who suffered a very unexpected defeat by Tramore last Sunday. They will need to win this and then beat Gaultier in their final game to make sure of being involved later. They may just about defeat Dunhill who now seem to be fading out of contention after last week's defeat.

With Gaultier on course for a place in the knockout stages, if they win here, we can expect a tremendous fight from the present intermediate champions. Saviours are safely into the final stage, but are now fighting to secure a place in the semi-final without

All-Ticket

Because of the unprecedented demand for tickets, the Central Council have decided to make the semi-finals an all-ticket programme on August 6th. The applications from the five competing counties was almost double the entire seating capacity of Croke Park and it was in view of this that it was decided that tickets would also be required for the terraces. Both semi-finals will be televised.

Premier Football Championship

At the first meeting of the new Coisde na Peil held on Monday night last, it was decided to run an eight-team Premier football championship under the experimental rules, commencing on Monday, August 28th. Full details will be given in next week's issue.

TWO MARKS OF QUALITY

News Of The Town And Roundabout

THE RAIN CAME

The first showers of rain to fall locally since the heatwave started fell on last Thursday/Friday morning while a few showers also fell on Tuesday last. Rain is badly needed in the rural areas where crops are parched and grass growth is nil. At the same time, the weathermen say that there is still no major change in conditions and that the fine spell, although somewhat cooler, will continue for another few days.

THE STORY OF LIFE

The human life-cycle was fully exemplified in ceremonies at St. Mary's Parish Church on last Saturday. At mid-day there was a Requiem for a young girl whose death had touched everyone's heart. This was followed by a Christening ceremony for a young baby and shortly afterwards there was a Nuptial ceremony marking the wedding of a young couple. Truly these three ceremonies, all within a few hours of each other, realistically depicted the cycle of life — birth, marriage and death!

ENTERTAINER OF THE YEAR

The Entertainer of the Year finals will be shown on RTE 1 on Sunday night next, July 30, at 16.45. Dungarvan's well known musician and entertainer, Jim Duggan of Childers Estate is featured in the programme.

DUNGARVAN PREMIER PIGEON CLUB

On Saturday, July 22, we had the start of our young bird programme. The first race was from Kildare (80 miles). The birds were liberated at 7 a.m. and the first bird was clocked at 10.15, belonging to Francis McGovern. Our next race will be from Kildare.

Result: 1, Francis McGovern (time 10.15, velocity 719.1940); 2, Sean Leahy (time 10.38, vel. 641.695); 3, Sean Leahy (time 11.28, vel. 521.579); 4, Sean Leahy (time 11.29, vel. 520.257). Points table after first race: 1, Sean Leahy (6 points); 2, Francis McGovern (4 points).

We held our annual draw on July 15 at Ducey's Bar. We would like to thank everyone for supporting the draw. First prize went to Breda Delaney, 79 Congress Villas (£100); Second prize, Michael Mulcahy, Clonea Road (£60); Third prize, Emma Bones, 85 Springfield (£40). (Advt.)

Ballysaggart Notes

PATRICK MOORE R.I.P.

The news of the death in Birmingham of Patrick Moore R.I.P. was received in the area with feelings of deep regret. Pat had spent most of his life in England but was a very frequent visitor to the area where he proved himself very popular with everyone he came in contact with. His remains were removed from Cork Airport on Saturday evening and the burial took place in Ballysaggart on Sunday morning. On both occasions there were very large congregations present.

To his wife and family, relatives and friends we extend our sincere sympathy in their loss.

RESULTS OF PROGRESSIVE 45

1st: James Hyland and John Kennefick; 2nd: Mike and Paddy Fennesy; 3rd: Mickie Tobin and Joe Shea, Annie Neville and Esther Walsh. Best of last 5: Kieran Fen-ton and Mick Coleman. Lucky table: Dave Fennesy and Mary Hyland. Raffle: Bill Kennefick, Mick Daly, Mick Tobin, Joan Byrne.
