Merrell Dow Pull Out

The shock announcement on Monday last that the Merrell Dow group were to pull out their proposals to build a £50 million pharmaceutical plant at Killeagh in East Cork will bring to an end the controversy that has raged throughout East Cork and West Waterford between "pro" and "anti" groups since the proposal was first mooted.

Senior Merrell Dow executive, Mr. Fred Plagens, who flew in to Cork at the week-end to announce the decision said that it resulted directly from changed economic circumstances following a merger between Merrell Dow and another U.S. group, Marion Laboratories Inc. He flatly denied that the environmental row had anything to do with the decision.

"The environmental controversy had nothing to do with it," said Mr. Plagens, Vice-President and Director of Operations for Merrell Dow, who added, "we are leaving because the formation of the new group completely changes the economics of the Irish project as a free-standing entity."

The IDA commenting on the Merrell Dow decision denied the pull-out would be seen as a victory for the "green movement."

However, Mr. Pat Dowd, Cork County Manager described it as "a multi-million loss for Cork."

Mr. Jerry Ring, head of the company's public affairs division stated that they had not contacted the opposition group in regard to the decision taken, "nor have we planned to do so," he added.

LONG HARD FIGHT

Reacting to the Merrell Dow announcement, a statement from the Concerned Citizens of East Cork and West Waterford said that they were "vastly relieved" at the news. "This has been a long hard fight sustained by enormous, non-stop effort by ordinary citizens who want a safe, clean future for this and future generations," the statement added.

To date the group which has fought the project through the High Court (and only last week announced their intentions to follow on with a Supreme Court Appeal) had incurred costs of up to £100,000, but Stephen Pearce, a prominent member of the group, declared on Monday night, "it was money well spent."

TALLOW HORSE FAIR —ONE OF THE BEST EVER

Everything, even the weather, contributed to making this year's annual Horse Fair in Tallow held on Monday last one of the best for a long time. On a day when the sun shone bright and warm, the delivery vans were early on their rounds making their daily deliveries before the horse fair took-over and then the trailers and lorries began to merge on the town from all directions bringing horses and ponies from north, south, east and west.

In big numbers also came the usual following of chippers and take-away food vans which quickly lined the streets and continued to do a steady trade throughout the day.

Contrary to expectations the equine virus had no adverse effect on the fair and buyers from all parts of the country as well as from the UK were present in large numbers. The quality of the animals on offer was also reckoned to be fairly good and the top prices paid reached up to £4,000.

Mr. Jimmy Beecher, Loughnatusa, Tallow won the trophy for the best ridden horse with a four-year-old chestnut gelding which was ridden by his eleven years old daughter, Diana.

Mr. Michael McGrath,

Shanagarry, Cloyne won the award for the best led horse with a three-year-old grey gelding.

The fair was a fitting climax to the 4-day Mini Festival which began in Tallow on Friday evening and which concluded on Monday night with the great horse fair dance held in the Community Hall.

Pause For Thought With Fr. Paddy

"O LORD IT'S SO HARD TO BE HUMBLE"

You will, I expect, already have imbibed the message of last Sunday's readings, namely, pride and humility. The Gospel recounts an experience of Jesus, which illustrates the hateful sin of pride. The Lord, having been invited to a meal, noted that the other guests were all conscious of their own importance, and, as was their custom, they sought the honoured seats at table, and none of them were prepared to give way to anyone whom they considered of lesser rank. Jesus always availed Himself to teach on these occasions. He proceeded to comment on their arrogant conduct, and pointed out that patience, restraint and respect for others were the hall-mark of a distinguished person. You see, the outlook of the Pharisee was, I'm good, and I'm entitled to the best, so others should not intrude on my rights. Mind, we are all a little over conscious about our own importance, and I would suggest we should all take a good look at ourselves. Still, I feel even the worst of us would censure the puffed-up conduct of the Pharisee. It is not only an inordinate desire to be seen to be more important than others, but it is also a most hateful sin.

There is nothing wrong to strive to achieve the best out of our abilities, but let our endeavour have God's blessing. And, when we do good, let us not preach about it, but leave it quietly in God's hands. "Let your lights shine . . . that they might give glory to your father in heaven." Do not be lured into depending on yourself. That would be stupid pride.

The first reading stresses the virtue of humility. The writer is saying, "the greater you are, the more you should exercise humility." We ought to bear in mind that his virtue does not mean we should be indifferent to our work and rewards. It is rather the proper understanding of our true relationship with God and our neighbour. After all, everything we have, we have received from God. We are completely dependent upon Him. The due recognition of that relationship and what it involves is what we call humility.

St. Paul in the second reading explains that this relationship functions and operates through the new life to which we were born in Baptism. Our new state brings us into a close and intimate union with God. And, as His children, we strive to fulfil our duties and prove ourselves worthy. There's no room for boasting, unless we boast about the goodness of God. What have we that we have not received?

Take a leaf from Mary's life. When Elizabeth welcomed and praised her, Mary's humble reply was: "For the Lord who is mighty had done great things to me . . ." Let us then not deny our great benefactor. Too, recall how Jesus at the Last Supper instructed His Apostles to wear the cloak of service. The instruction was meant for our benefit. It is simply a matter of giving honour where honour is due. It follows, God would not approve of His gifts being used to make little of our neighbour or being employed in any forbidden manner.

GOOD EXAMPLE

There's nothing wrong with good example, when done to draw others to God. Here we are not seeking esteem for ourselves, but for God. We believe, God gives to all an equal portion, but to understand the inequalities of life has not been given to us. The more talents received, the greater the responsibilities to God, and one's neighbours. Whilst some will rail over it, one cannot but remind them that it is God who is asking them to humbly accept their cross. Always, always, salvation must be our priority.

Lucifer refused submission, and found himself in Hell. Our first parents wanted to be equal to God, and brought ruin upon mankind. Luther rejected Peter's authority, and caused deep wounds in the Body of Christ. Now, few, if any of us, would dare challenge God's honour, because we know all we have we have received. However, sometimes in our foolishness, we rebel against His laws, and frequently, we sell Jesus for less than thirty pieces.

Humility, the opposite of pride and which flows from the heart, helps us to realise our own nothingness. From this springs the urge to venerate God, and submit to His will. As a result, we recognise the rights of our neighbours, and our own corresponding duties. I feel we are all far from being blameless in clearing the air, so let our every word and act bear the stamp of this virtue. Hence, clothe yourself with the mantle of humility, and remember it is woven from the thread of obedience. And, you will inherit the kingdom.

U.S. Trip and £2,000 Cheque for 1989 Queen of the Land

The Silver Jubilee (25th) National Queen of the Land is to be guest at the St. Patrick's Day Parade on New York's Fifth Avenue in 1990.

In addition, the charming and knowledgeable young Irish farmerette, winner of the 1989 national title at Tullamore next November, will receive a handsome cheque for two thousand pounds.

Finalists from each of the twenty-six counties have been chosen to compete in the national final on November 10-12.

KILMAC' GIRL TO REPRESENT WATERFORD

County Waterford will be represented by Miss Moira O'Connell, Ballygarron, Kilmacthomas, a farmer's daughter and secretary who is a member of the Kilmacthomas Branch of Macra na Feirme.

The contest is being organised by Offaly County Executive of Macra na Feirme, with the principal sponsorship of Williams Waller Ltd., suppliers of the national Green Acres brand leader in grass seed mixtures, presenting the cheque for two thousand pounds and the trip to the United States by kind courtesy of Aer Lingus as a Silver Jubilee bonus for the winner this year.

PREMIER SOCIAL EVENT

More than 5,000 people are expected to attend the weekend festival at Tullamore, which has now become one of the premier social events of the year in the town.

The official opening will be performed by Senator Carmencita Hedderman, former Mayor of Dublin and the 25th National Queen of the Land will be crowned by a national celebrity on Sunday night, November 12.

More than 150 young farmerettes competed for the county titles in this year's contest from which the 26 national finalists were chosen.

Major US Collegiate Football Game For Dublin

On December 2, The Scarlet Knights of Rutgers University and the University of Pittsburgh Panthers will battle each other at Lansdowne Road Stadium in Dublin. The Emerald Isle Classic II, eagerly anticipated by both Irish and American football fans, is the last scheduled game of the American collegiate football season, and may give both teams the chance for a bowl invitation in the U.S.

Both Rutgers and Pittsburgh are ranked among the TOP 25 teams in the U.S. Coach Dick Anderson's Scarlet Knights will be fighting for their first bowl invitation in 11 years, while Mike Gottfried, head coach for the Panthers, will be looking for his first major bowl bid after several years.

Last year 10,000 American fans travelled to Ireland for the inaugural Emerald Isle Classic. This year even more fans are expected, many of whom will extend their stay to tour the surrounding area, and some who will have the chance to trace their Irish heritage. The Arthritis Foundation of Ireland will be hosting a black-tie gala in conjunction with the Classic on Friday, December 1 and the combined effort is expected to reach the goal of £100,000.

Bloody Affane — The End OF An Era

by TOM O'CONNOR

This is not a derogatory comment on this beautiful part of the Blackwater Valley but a description, by a sixteenth century chronicler, on a fierce battle that took place there in 1565. The Earl of Desmond, Gerald Fitzgerald, and Thomas Butler, Earl of Ormond, with their followers, came to blows at the Battle of Affane, the last conflict in these islands between private armies.

Each of the great Lords was laying claim to rents and levies from the lands of the Decies but in reality their quarrel was for the control of the province of Munster. Supporting Gerald were his feudal tenant class, the McCarthys, O'Sullivans, McSheehys and O'Connors, while ranged on the side of Ormond were the fighting men of the O'Kennedys, Gillpatricks, Cahills and Burkes. The fighting centered around the ford crossing the Blackwater, near to where the present bridge spans the river (the first bridge at Affane was built in 1610).

The battle raged all day, first one and then the other faction seeming to gain the ascendancy. Eventually the greater number on the Ormond side prevailed and the Geraldines were driven headlong into the river, or hacked to pieces along the banks. Gerald himself was left lying on the battlefield, his right leg broken by a musket ball. As he was lifted on to the shoulders of his opponents, his enemies jeered him, "Where now is the great Earl of Desmond" — to which he replied, "On the backs of the Butlers where he belongs."

QUEEN ELIZABETH ENRAGED

The affair at Affane enraged the young Queen Elizabeth who exclaimed,

"No sword shall be drawn in the realms but those of the Queen." Both Earls were summoned to London, Desmond being carried there on a stretcher and was lodged in the Tower. This was a grievous blow to this powerful magnate, who was at this time at the zenith of his power. He owned more than 800,000 acres of land, had built castles throughout his estates, and even kept a private army of 4,000 men.

At his trial, Gerald was found guilty of treason and to escape being hanged, drawn and quartered at Tyburn, he was forced to give up his lands and titles. Affane was the start of a process that saw the end of the rule of the old Gaelic aristocracy and the ascent of such famous "runners-in" as Walter Walter, the scientist Robert Boyle, and the poet Edmond Spenser. The latter was granted lands between the Blackwater and the Suir, rivers he immortalised in his poem the "Faerie Queene" —

"Sweet Awniduff, which of the Englishman, Is called Blackwater; the first the gentle Shure* That making way by sweet Clonmel, Adomes rich Waterford. *Old English form.

High Demand For Adult Education Continues

The continuing success of the adult education activities of University College, Cork throughout Munster is evidenced again this year by the fact that two separate conferrings have to be held in the College, as the number of students to be conferred is approximately three hundred and twenty.

On Sunday next, 10th September, classes from Cork City, Limerick City, Croom, Listowel, Dungarvan and Killenaule will be conferred, whilst on Sunday, 15th October, classes from Cork City, Bandon, Middleton, Newmarket, Ballincollig, Carrigaline and Fermoy will come to the University to receive their diplomas and certificates. The number to be conferred on each occasion is approximately one hundred and sixty.

Since the courses were founded in Cork City in 1946, in the region of 6,500 men and women from all walks of life in Munster have benefited from them. These have been students of over three hundred classes conducted in centres located in the area between Castletownbere and Clonmel, Cahirciveen and Waterford, Cork and Limerick.

COURSES OPEN TO ALL

The courses are open to all, whether they have matriculated or not. An adult of average intelligence and with good application is well able to pursue a course successfully. In selecting those to be admitted, however, prior consideration is given to applicants who have already shown an interest in community affairs, as evidenced by membership of statutory bodies, political parties, voluntary and farming organisations, trade unions, etc., or in further education.

The Universities in providing these courses with the cooperation of the ten Vocational Education Committees of Munster, Teagasc and other bodies, make a very real contribution to the economic and social development of the province as the great majority of the people in the classes are active members of trade unions, political parties and of a variety of voluntary organisations, urban and rural. The knowledge and training they receive in their two years' course of studies is reflected in the attitudes and the development of these organisations.

Organising for the next cycle of courses has just commenced and judging by the applications to date from all over the province, it appears that there is no diminution in demand.

DUNGARVAN DIPLOMATES

The following are the members of the Dungarvan Class who will be conferred with their Diplomas in Social Study (Citizenship Course) at U.C.C. on Sunday next — Davis-McGuinness, Phyllis Mary (Mrs.); Dunford, Michael Anthony, BEd.; Fives, Marie Therese (Mrs.); Fluery, Ellen (Mrs.); Flynn, Katherine Sibylla (Mrs.); Flynn, Nora Geraldine (Mrs.); Foley, Thomas Francis; Hurley, Anne Catherine (Mrs.); Lucas, Hanna Mary (Mrs.); McNally, Ruth Ann Mary; Morrissey, Catherine (Mrs.); Navin, Mary (Mrs.); O'Connor, Bridget Philomena (Mrs.), BA, HDE; O'Flynn, Kathleen Mary (Mrs.); White, Bridget Ita.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

The photograph for our "Remembering Other Days" series is very well suited for this week in that it recalls the time of the Second World War, which broke out 50 years ago on Sunday, September 3, 1939. Next Sunday Ireland remembers the Emergency with Commemoration Parades being held in various centres. Our Photo takes us back to the year 1944, and shows members of the Dungarvan Batt. L.D.F. on manoeuvres, on All Souls Night, November 1, in Dungarvan. Included in the photo are volunteers Dan Phelan, Jimmy Power, Paddy Walsh (formerly of Paddy Foleys, The Square), Tomas O Faolain, James Harty and M. McKenna.

★ Timmy Ryan — Dungarvan-born Timmy Ryan presents WLR FM's lunchtime show which should prove to be a hit when combined with the manic yet hilarious interruptions from Tom Clohessy. There's music a-plenty in this mix too with the Golden Hour between 2 and 3 p.m. shaking the dust off quite a few pleasant memories.

WLR is back

FM

Local Radio Returns on September 8 at 12 noon

It's back — bigger, better and brighter than ever before! With the red tape well and truly behind it, WLR FM is gearing up for a future full of promise and potential where, quite literally, the sky's the limit!

For over ten years WLR has filled a role in the South-East that was only fully appreciated when the station went off the air last December. But now, with a mixture of old faces and new talent, the station is ready to venture hand in hand with its listeners through the 90s and into the 21st Century as the premiere local station in Ireland.

Local radio is all about, well you! From the sports results of Saturday and Sunday afternoons to the news and gossip of a week in a growing region, WLR FM's new sound is tailor-made for you, the listener.

In fact, far from being a station of 'wall to wall music,' WLR FM is highly committed to giving the people of Waterford and the South East a station rich in local news coverage and airtime for the issues that matter.

From old favourites to drive time pop, from the Tony Weldon Show to Fr. Billy McCarthy and from community news bulletins to special interest features, WLR has set itself the goal of being the sound of the South East.

Of course, that's nothing new from a station that, in its ten years previous broadcasting, pioneered 'community interest' programmes and won for itself a committed yet discerning listenership.

The difference now, however, is that WLR can prepare and plan for the future on the sure foundation of a licence from the Independent Radio and Television Commission.

On that foundation, Des Whelan, WLR's Managing Director, and his committed staff intend to build a station that will become the shining example of what local broadcasting should be all about.

So, if you've been adjusting your radio dial of late looking for something exciting to tempt your eardrums, why not make sure you're tuned into the new WLR where you can judge for yourself the sweet, sweet sound of quality!

THE SOUND

RECENT DEATHS

MR. JAMES TROY

It is with sadness that we record the passing of 77-years-old James Troy, Bolton, Manchester and Ardmore, which occurred on Friday, August 25, at Bolton General Hospital. A native of the Cliff, Ardmore, James spent his early working years employed as a fisherman locally. During the war years he was posted at The Lookout near Ardmore.

Some years later he emigrated to Lancashire where he found work in the coal mines. An industrious worker, James gave of his best at all times. He always maintained his link with home and only two months ago he holidayed on Coveside. He had a great interest in Ardmore and always followed the fortunes of the G.A.A. club with keen interest. While in Manchester, he was honoured with the chairmanship of Shannon Rangers G.A.A. Club, a club which enjoyed great success under his stewardship.

We offer our deepest sympathy to his sisters, brothers-in-law and nephews on his unexpected demise.

Last Saturday evening, James' remains were brought from Cork Airport to St. Declan's Church where they were blessed and received by Very Rev. Canon O'Connor, P.P.

Following concelebrated Mass on Sunday with Rev. Fr. Reide, C.C. and Rev. Fr. Declan Deasy, O.S.A., chief celebrants, James was laid to rest in St. Declan's Cemetery in the presence of a large concourse of mourners who had come to pay their respects. Fr. Reide officiated at the graveside, assisted by Fr. Deasy and Rev. Fr. James Hurley, S.J.

Chief mourners — Mrs. Ellen Power, Ardmore, Mrs. Annie Neary, Long Island, U.S.A. (sisters), John Power (brother-in-law), John and Noel Power (nephews).

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

MR. PAT CONDON

It is with sadness that we record the passing of Pat Condon, Sexton Street, Abbeyside, which occurred at Ardkeen General Hospital on Monday, August 26. Pat hadn't enjoyed the best of health for some time and yet bore his cross with fortitude and Christian resignation. Pat's demise is all the more poignant by reason of the fact that in the recent past he has been predeceased by his aunt Noreen and uncles Tom and Nicky.

Pat was a member of one of the best known Abbeyside families and was a gentle soul. We sympathise with his brother Fintan, sister Bernice and relatives on their loss.

On Tuesday evening following Prayers of Requiem recited at Ardkeen mortuary by Rev. Fr. Laurence, O.Cap., the cortege left for Abbeyside Church where Very Rev. M. Canon Farrell, P.P., blessed and received the remains.

Following Requiem Mass on Wednesday morning, Pat was laid to rest in the family burial ground. The scriptural readings were shared with us by Michael Curran and in a brief homily Canon Farrell spoke in glowing terms of the deceased.

Chief mourners — Fintan (brother), Bernice (sister), Eddie, Abbeyside and Liam, U.S.A. (uncles), Kitty, Wales (aunt), and a wide circle of nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

MR. JIM KIRWAN

We extend our condolences to son Rory, daughters Mary and Agnes, relatives and friends on the demise of Jim Kirwan, Caherbrack, Ballinamult, which occurred on Sunday, September 3 at Dungarvan hospital. For many years Jim was employed in the grocery section attached to the Knockmeal Creamery where he was a great favourite with customers and management alike.

Last Monday, Jim's remains were brought from the hospital mortuary to Touraneena Church. Following the 11 a.m. Requiem Mass on Tuesday, Jim was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

(See next week's issue for full obituary.)

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

MR. JOHN P. O'CONNOR

We record with regret and sadness the passing of ever-popular John P. O'Connor, Mullinahorna, Ring, which occurred last week at St. James' Hospital, Dublin. For many years, John P. was one of the leading lights in the Management of Waterford Co-op. He was also well known in greyhound circles and anyone who met John P. were greatly impressed by his kind and caring nature.

A deeply religious man, he lived for his wife and family, to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

Last Tuesday evening, his remains were brought to Meath Street Church and on Friday they were transferred to his beloved Ring Church. Following concelebrated Mass on Saturday morning, John P. was laid to rest in the new cemetery san Rinn.

(Full obituary in next week's issue.)

MRS. RITA LENIHAN

News of the passing of Mrs. Rita Lenihan, formerly of Ballycullane and Stephen Street, Dungarvan, was received in the area with feelings of deep sorrow and regret. Rita passed on to her eternal reward on Friday, August 18 at Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford.

Even though Rita had not enjoyed the best of health for the past number of years, news of her passing was received by her many friends with feelings of shock.

To her sons, daughter, sisters, relatives and friends we tender our deepest sympathy.

Rita was a devoted mother who had a kind word for all those she encountered on life's journey. Her knowledge of all the old families of the locality was legendary. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her.

Following a short service at the mortuary of Dungarvan hospital, Rita's remains were brought to St. Mary's Parish Church. The coffin was blessed and received by Rev. W. Carey, C.C., assisted by Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C.

An overflow congregation was present on Sunday morning for Rita's Requiem Mass which was celebrated by Very Rev. Fr. Power, P.P., assisted by Fr. Carey, C.C., Fr. Hooper, O.S.A. and Mons. Lannen. Graveside prayers were recited by Fr. Power, assisted by Fr. Carey and Fr. Hooper.

Chief mourners — Ned, Pat, Seamus and Michael (sons), Lily (daughter), Anne, Maureen and Brenda (daughters-in-law), John Joe (son-in-law), Josie, Alice, Babe (sisters), and a large circle of grandchildren, relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements by Thomas Drohan, Funeral Director, Dungarvan.)

Pope's intention for September — "That young people, inspired by the Gospel, realise their ideals of liberty, human progress and the common good."

Young people to-day have to grapple with instability, unreliable relationships, loneliness and depression. These are found in all classes of society, among the homeless and in the cold impersonal dwellings of the rich.

But idealism also stirs in their hearts, a vague story of generosity. Filled with enthusiasm they are eager to join popular causes and participate in "massive youth events." Too often they find no substance in these things.

We pray that they may find that Christ is "the focal point of the longings of history and of civilisation, the centre of the human race, the joy of every heart and the answer to all its yearnings" (Vatican Council).

Hugh Colgan, B.A., B.Comm., H.D.Ed. — A Tribute

Lismore community and district were deeply saddened by the news of the death of Hugh Colgan, B.A., B.Comm., H.D.Ed., born in New Jersey, U.S.A., late of Derrinogue, Balla, Co. Mayo and formerly of 'Lios-na-Greine,' Fernville, Lismore where he lived for 28 years with his wife, Anne Mary (R.I.P.) and seven children.

Hugh was held in high regard as a Professor at Mount Melleray College and taught in the Friary College, Dungarvan for a couple of years before retiring into an active retirement period in 1975.

His love of education and ability to impart knowledge was recognised by his early Masters at the young age of 12 years in his native Mayo where he was regularly put in charge of teaching younger pupils the three R's.

Having studied at St. Jarlath's College, Castlebar, he proceeded to University College, Galway from where he graduated with First Class Honours Degrees in B.A., B.Comm. and H.D.Ed.

Prior to his appointment to the staff at Mount Melleray, Hugh taught in his native Mayo and Roscommon for a short period of time and then at the De La Salle College, Ardee. For several decades, Hugh also took a great interest in rural and adult education in West Waterford. He lectured on behalf of U.C.C. for the Extra Mural Diploma Courses in Rural and Social Sciences. With these courses, he was noted for inspiring new generations to greater achievement and to motivate and influence new community developments.

Hugh was a very gifted and prolific man when it came to putting pen to paper. He has to his credit many prizes for his short stories, articles, letters to national newspapers and publications, RTE and professional journals. He has always been greatly admired and respected by his colleagues and all those who came his way for his power of speech, his scholarly ways and his generosity and dedication to the community at large. He was an active man in Conradh na Gaeilge, organised Feiseanna, participated in and supported many voluntary organisations.

During his years of retirement he undertook Rural Courses, Records for the Census Statistics Office and acted as Returning Officer during election times — through which he gained new friends and created a new spirit of care and interest in community life.

Hugh died in Dublin after a short illness and went to his eternal rest and reward in the presence of all his seven children and grandchildren. Concelebrated Requiem Mass was said by his son and chief celebrant Fr. Niall, C.S.Sp., at St. Brigid's Church, Blanchardstown and the concelebrants were members of the Holy Ghost Order and the local priests of Blanchardstown, his new place of worship. Hugh was laid to peaceful and eternal rest alongside his wife Anne Mary at the cemetery at Mount Melleray surrounded by family, relatives, colleagues and sympathisers from Lismore and district.

Hugh was a dedicated and devoted husband and father and will be sadly missed by his children Ciarain, Dermot, Fr. Niall, Maura, Aoiheann, Finola and Bernadette, as well as by his in-laws and grandchildren and his sister Mary O'Connor (U.S.A.)

He was a scholarly gentleman who will be cherished "for the wisdom of old age and having in abundance the spirit of youth."

Beir beannacht ar anam agus ar anam a bheann, Aine Mhaire — a couple whose presence in Lismore will be greatly missed, but always remembered.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL DISCOVERY IN DUNGARVAN

Workers of Waterford County Council have been engaged in the major town centre sewerage scheme in Dungarvan throughout the summer months. The pipe laying process involved deep excavations and while engaged in this, the workers ran into some major problems when they ran into solid rock veins in Mary Street and Western Terrace. Let us say at once that they dealt with these in a most efficient and expeditious manner.

On Friday last while the excavations at Friary Street were proceeding, the workers came upon evidence that indicated something that could be of archaeological importance and an expert in this field was called in.

Under a scheme operated by the Office of Public Works in Dublin it happened that an Archaeologist, Ms. Catherine Power was on call and she carried out an examination of the "find" which consisted of a circular walled well which was about one metre under the road surface and which extended down for a depth of three or four metres. Some artifacts of the 16th century period were found in the course of the "dig" but whether these significantly date the find remains to be seen.

The "well" was located just outside the entrance to the Town Hall while nearer to the Friary side of the street there were indications of what might well be part of the old town wall.

After a preliminary survey of the find, the excavation was again filled in and it is planned to have a further and more thorough examination of the area at a later date.

THE LANES OF DUNGARVAN

It is of interest to note in regard to the find that the old name for Friary Street was Clubberts Lane and this set us on a trail which led us to Canon Power's "Places Names of Decies," the first edition of which was compiled and published in the early 1900's.

In this we found reference to a big number of streets in the town which were then known as lanes. There was Parsley Lane, later New Lane at the Upper end of Church Street; there was Chapel Lane and River Lane, later Cox's Lane and now Carbery's Lane. There was Poore's (Power's) Lane later Dirty Lane; Fox's Lane now Galwey's Lane and Kennedy's Lane later Short Hair Lane and now Thomson's Lane. And there was Windmill Lane where the Catholic Church and cemetery now stand, Strameen or Stramey's Lane now Bridget Street and of course Fair Lane which is now called Wolfe Tone Road.

THE TELEPHONE KIOSK THAT DISAPPEARED

Some weeks ago, workers of Telecom Eireann erected a new modern public telephone kiosk on the roadside at Tarr's Bridge a few miles outside Dungarvan. It remained there, in working order for a few weeks and then suddenly it disappeared as mysteriously as it had appeared in the first instance.

Its disappearance created a deal of public curiosity and some queries about it which landed on our desk set us on the trail of the story about the mysterious 'phone kiosk that had first appeared and then disappeared or as one witty gentleman put it — the kiosk that was, is and is now no more!

No one could or would tell us what the originating factor in the placing of the kiosk at Tarr's Bridge was. In other words who applied to have it put there. But an interested party who stood to benefit from it (apart from Telecom Eireann) was not slow to point out that it was on the N25 primary route and was the only roadside kiosk between Kilmacthomas and Grange and consequently an asset for visiting tourists, not to mention continental truck drivers. A query to the local office of Telecom Eireann brought the information that they had placed the kiosk at Tarr's Bridge following a verbal agreement with the engineer. However when a problem arose over its location they at once agreed to remove it, pointing out that the relations between Telecom locally and the Planning Section of the County Council were very good and they wanted to keep matters that way.

We then made a call to the Co. Council Planning Department about the kiosk and were informed that when the existence of the kiosk there became known to them, they objected to it on the grounds that it constituted a traffic hazard because of the heavy volume of high speed traffic passing along that stretch of road and its proximity to a major junction. The spokesman added that all the legal aspects of the matter were being looked into at present and pending the outcome of this, the position would again be fully reviewed.

And that's how matters stand about the mysterious phone kiosk as of now.

IT'S NOT A KERRY JOKE

What follows is not one of those Kerry man jokes which were so prevalent a couple of years ago. It is an item which we came across in a recent issue of "The Kingdom" which is published fortnightly in Killarney by the MacMonagle family who have long associations with the printing and publishing world and which, as its name proclaims, is now one of the leading papers in Kerry.

The item tells of the activities of retired Kerry Cop worker, Patrick Cronin from Shinagh, Rathmore and the ingenuity shown by him in his preparation for the cold winter months ahead.

Written during the days of the blistering heatwave in July, the "Kingdom" story relates that "a leisurely day at the beach was the furthest thing from his mind as he stayed at home building up his stock of paper logs to keep the home fires burning for the colder season."

Hold on, now, we told you this was not a Kerry man joke so read on: "Patrick has spent part of each day manufacturing the logs which are made from old newspapers and magazines. The process involves soaking the papers in rainwater, packing them tightly with a handmade wooden machine and allowing them to dry for a minimum of four weeks."

Patrick is then quoted as saying: "Over the past couple of years I've made thousands of logs and they really are great for starting the fire. I have up to 4,000 of them in stock now and that should easily keep us going for the winter." And in a very positive manner he assures us: "There's great heat from the logs and there's nothing like them for starting the fire — I haven't bought a fire-lighter for years."

Perhaps what this cute Kerryman has been doing down there in Rathmore may be something worthwhile following up by anyone who has the time and the ingenuity to do so!

TREES VANDALISED

We noted last week where some business people in Waterford City put up a sum of money in an effort to have vandals who were damaging trees in one of the city parks apprehended. We think that this habit of interfering with and causing damage to public property is most reprehensible and the fact that it is so widespread can be nothing but an indictment of the entire community.

Here in Dungarvan, matters in this regard have not been too bad of late but during the past week we noticed that some of the trees which add so much beauty to the Clonea Road at Abbeyside have come in for some damages. This has been caused by a number of young boys from the nearby housing estates who come across the railway walk and, using the roadside boundary ditch, do a "tarzan" act by swinging from the branches.

Now that children have returned to school after the long summer holidays, it will, perhaps, mean that they will no longer have idle time on their hands and this may put a stop to this activity. At the same time, parents could also help with an odd admonition in regard to the need for more respect for public property.

FARE THEE WELL, LOVELY DEISE

A few weeks ago we received a request from a reader in the Ardmore area for the words of the song which we now make the choice for our ballad corner this week, "Fare Thee Well, Lovely Deise." Somehow or other its title has become generally cut to "Lovely Deise", but when we published a version of the song which we received some years ago, the author of the song, Dan Savage, formerly of Knockanore very kindly wrote to us from Dublin where he now resides and gave us the full authentic and original version of the song as he had first composed it. It is this version that we now give here for the benefit of our Ardmore reader and we suggest that anybody who might want it at a later date should cut it out and put it on file.

The Boat from Dunlaoghaire was moored to the Pier
When the voice of an exile I happened to hear
As he glanced o'er his shoulder in the pale harbour light
Fare thee well Lovely Desie, I'm leaving tonight

Chorus:
Goodbye Ballybricken, Farewell Butlerstown
Adieu Ballytruckle and the road to Piltown
To the lights of my City and the sands of Tramore
Fare thee well Lovely Deise, I may see you no more

Farewell to green pastures and many I saw
In the famed Ballygunner and the scenes 'round Portlaw
To the lovers that whisper in the vales of Dunhill Fare the well Lovely Deise, I'm lingering still

Some day with a fortune, I still may retire
To the streams of Bunmahon or the vale of the Nire
To the Coast of the Comeraghs or sweet Knockmealdown
Fare thee well Lovely Deise of fame and renown.

It's well I remember, I longed just to stray
Through the streets of Dungarvan right on to Clonea
While the lights of Old Helvick have guided me right
Fare thee well Lovely Deise, I'm leaving tonight

There's a spot in my memory for the folk of Lismore
And they'll send me a shamrock from famed Knockanore
To the groves of Blackwater and Tallow on the Bride
Fare thee well Lovely Deise, I'm leaving tonight.

TALLOW NOTES

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

There was mixed luck for the hurlers and footballers of Tallow last weekend. The minor hurlers suffered a heavy defeat at the hands of Lismore, while our U-21 footballers scored a comprehensive win over Brickey Rangers.

The minors lost to Lismore on Wednesday night on a score of 3-9 to 0-6. Tallow were well in the hunt after 20 minutes when Lismore led by 1-2 to 0-3 with a couple of chances being missed by the Tallow forwards. Lismore led by 1-5 to 0-3 at half time.

They stretched their lead to 6 points at the start of the second half and two goals in about 5 minutes for Lismore finished off the Tallow challenge long before the final whistle, though the lads kept battling courageously to the end.

For Tallow John Doyle had a great game in goal, making some breathtaking saves especially in the second half as Lismore threatened to over-run the lads. Our full back line of Connie Henley, Colin Cunningham and Ed. Nicholson played very well under increasing pressure from the Lismore forward line. Trevor Sheehan was a tower of strength at centre-back, ably assisted by Paul McDonnell and David O'Regan. Our midfielders never really got going but Billy Mahoney and Denis O'Flaherty tried their best. Our six forwards though having a lot of the ball couldn't translate possession into scores but Clive Barry, Pat Foley, Kieran O'Keeffe, James Beecher, Eamonn Power, Gary Ahearne and substitute David Doyle never gave up.

Congratulations to Lismore and the best of luck to them in the County final.

Team — John Doyle, Ed. Nicholson, Colin Cunningham, Connie Henley, David O'Regan, Trevor Sheehan (capt) 0-2 (frees), Paul McDonnell, Billy O'Mahoney, Denis O'Flaherty, Kieran O'Keeffe 0-1, Pat Foley 0-1, Clive Barry, James Beecher, Eamonn Power 0-2, Gary Ahearne. Sub. — David Doyle for James Beecher.

A special word of thanks from all the players was conveyed to Ardmore and Shamrocks and to team trainer Eddie Curley for all the work they put in during the year.

The U-21 footballers were next in action on Friday night in Lismore where they played Brickey Rangers. Tallow won comfortably on a score of 4-9 to 1-3. Well on top throughout they were never threatened.

Tallow led by 1-6 to 1-2 at half time and three second half goals by Brian Henley, Dermot Henley and full forward Seamus O'Brien sealed victory for Tallow.

One of the features of the game was that the Brickey's were held scoreless in the second half despite having a strong wind in their favour.

Team — Jimmy Fitzgerald, Colin Cunningham, Michael T. Cunningham, Garry Ahearne, Paul McDonnell, Gerald Sice, Dan McGrath, Clive Barry, Brian Henley 1-0, Billy Curley 0-1, Dermot Henley 1-6, Martin McCarthy, David Doyle 1-0, Seamus O'Brien, Denis O'Flaherty. Subs. — Ian McIntosh for Denis O'Flaherty; Dominic Power for Martin McCarthy.

INJURED — The club wish a speedy recovery to David O'Regan (broken nose), Connie Henley (head wound), Trevor Sheehan (head wound), all were injured in the minor game against Lismore, and to Gillian Sheehan who was injured training for the U-16 football championship.

FIXTURES — Monday, September 11 — U-16 football v. Abbeyside in Cappoquin at 6.45 p.m.; Saturday, September 16 — U-16 football v. Dungarvan in Cappoquin at 11.30 a.m. — Padraig O Siochain P.R.O.

TALLOW BADMINTON NOTES

With a new season beginning the club will have its first night of play on this Thursday night, September 7 with our A.G.M. next week so all members and intending members are more than welcome to come along on Thursday night. — P.R.O.

BRIDE VIEW UNITED F.C. NOTES

Billy Henley Shield Final U-18

BRIDE VIEW UTD. 3 CAPPOQUIN 2

Clive Barry was United's hero in this game when he grabbed himself a hat-trick. Two of the goals were brilliant.

The first half ended scoreless and all the action came in the second half. Twelve minutes into the second half Dominic Power put Barry through to open the scoring. Cappoquin fought back and equalised in the 49th minute. United were back in the lead in the 53rd minute and Power was again involved in setting up Barry for number two. But Cappoquin fought back and were on equal terms again in the 57th minute. It was left to Barry to clinch the Shield for the Tallow lads when he rounded off a great individual performance by scoring a marvelous third goal.

United — G. Ahearn, D. Doyle, I. McIntosh, G. Doyle, G. Henley, B. Henley, C. Cunningham, D. McGrath, D. Flaherty, C. Barry, P. Henley. Res. all used — D. Power, G. Fitzgerald, M. Tobin, P. McDonnell and D. McCarthy.

Presentation — The presentation of the trophies and medals were made after the game by Liam Henley.

The Big Kick Off — Tony Bolger Cup

It's the big kick-off on Sunday next when the season gets under way with the first round of the Tony Bolger Cup. United have already played some games and the following are their results:—

Bride View Utd 9 Mogeely 1; Ballinroad 0 Bride View Utd 9; Cappoquin 2 Bride View Utd 3.

The Tallow boys latest warm-up game was on Sunday morning last against Dungarvan Crystal and they ran out winners by the odd goal in three. United's marksmen were Dermot Henley and Brian Henley. Manager Mickey Curley and his assistant Philly are happy with the way things have went up to now and are looking forward to the season. Best of luck boys.

Seaview Celtic Draw — Tickets are now available for this Co-op Draw from any committee member and we look forward to a big response for the people of Tallow and surrounding areas. In the last draw they were tremendous when they bought over 200 tickets.

KENIRY SCHOOL OF DANCING (Tallow Class)

Irish dancing classes recommence on Monday, September 11 in St. Catherine's Hall at 3.30 p.m., beginners very welcome.

The Tallow Feis is scheduled to take place on Saturday, September 30, in the Community Centre. Participating in this Feis will be the local pupils, plus entries from all the other classes in East Cork. — P.R.O.

MR. DAVID (DAVY) O'KEEFFE, BALLYNOE R.I.P.

Widespread regret was evoked in the Ballynoe and surrounding districts on learning of the recent death of Davy O'Keeffe, Kilphilibeen, Ballynoe. A very affable and honourable man he developed a great interest in sport from his early years, particularly horse racing and dancing and he seldom missed one of the those events whenever they were held in the locality. Though well advanced in the seventies his life remained active almost all the time and his passing now leaves a void in the neighbourhood and we express out heartfelt sympathy to his wife Nora, daughter Mary Ellen, son-in-law Denis Dorgan, grandson David, brother Pad, sister Kate McDonald, Kilworth, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends. Go raibh siochain De aige as so amach.

Interment took place at Ballynoe Cemetery after Requiem Mass in St. Catherine's Church.

ST. CATHERINES G.A.A.

U-16 HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP KILLEAGH 4-12

ST. CATHERINES 4-5

Though Catherines had to concede victory to Killeagh in this second round of the East Cork championship last Friday evening at Youghal, they certainly gave a fine display of hurling, particular in the first half after which they led their victors by one point.

From the throw-in it was a magnificent game with Killeagh opening the scoring with a minor. Catherines replied shortly afterwards when they raised a green flag. Alternate scores then kept the excitement at fever pitch and a high standard of hurling deservedly earned the plaudits of the spectators regularly.

Killeagh's stronger team became more dominant in the second half and as Catherines lost a couple of scores in the opening minutes it seemed to give the impetus to their opponents to go on the offensive with renewed vigour and registering some great points and a well taken goal they forged ahead and despite valiant efforts by Catherines they stamped their authority on the game. Catherines again replied with a great goal but Killeagh with good innings then could not be deprived of victory and the exhibition served up by these two teams at Copperalley was a real win for the game of hurling.

W. Gleeson, St. Ita's refereed.

EAST CORK JUNIOR B GRADE HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

St. Catherines junior "B" hurlers had little respite during the week when they had to fulfill two championship assignments. The first one last Tuesday evening at Lisgoold brought them into contention with Carrigtwohill in the replay of the previous week's drawn game. This was a very close affair in the first half when only a point in favour of Catherines separated them at the interval.

Carrigtwohill pressed early in the second half but good defensive work from Pad Joe Lonergan, John D. Cotter and Billy Neville halted the onslaught and John McCarthy with a much improved display made some fine clearances as did Bat Sheehan. Denis Buckner too came into his own in this half. Kevin Barry, Mike Mangan and James Spillane playing between the backline and forward line kept feeding the latter and with the Walsh brothers Denis and Mike with a personal tally each of 2-4, Catherines dominated up to the final whistle to win by 4-9 to 1-5 to secure a place in the semi-final.

Timmy Geary, Lisgoold refereed.

Castlelyons, a couple of days afterwards was the venue for the semi-final and opposition was provided by a good strong team from Lisgoold. Closer marking was the order of the day here and scoring chances weren't so easily available and Catherines just turned over at the halfway with a goal advantage.

Lisgoold still remained a hard nut to crack but eventually Catherines opened up the play more and sensing victory they hurled with might and main and with Pat Murphy proving as good a custodian as always, they chalked up 1-11 on the scoreboard to Lisgoold's 0-4 to earn a place in the Divisional final against old rivals Youghal.

J. Sweeney, Glenville refereed.

Catherines team was — Pat Murphy, Pad Joe Lonergan, John D. Cotter, Billy Neville, John McCarthy, Bat Sheehan, Eppie Hartnett, Kevin Barry, James Spillane, Mike Walsh, Denis Buckner, Mike Mangan, Pat Leahy, Denis Walsh, Paddy Ahern. Sub. — Edmund Galvin for Paddy Ahern.

WEDDING AT ST. CATHERINES CHURCH, BALLYNOE

The model county and the rebel county featured strongly in this wedding at Ballynoe Church last Saturday, when Tom, eldest son of Matt and Kathleen English, Rathnure, Co. Tom's brother Peter was bestman with brother Pat as groomsmen. Kay, who was given away by her father was attended by sisters Martina and Michelle. Mary Daly, Killeagh was vocalist and rendered the hymns in beautiful style.

Amongst the large number of guest who attended the ceremony and journeyed to Garryvoe Hotel for the reception was a cousin of the groom's Jim English, Rathnure holder of 3 All-Ireland senior hurling medals with Wexford '55, '56 and '60; 5 Leinster medals plus National League.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

TROOP MEETING

Last Saturday night September 2 it was back to the "grind" for our first troop meeting of the new scout year. It was a case of blowing the dust from the uniforms after our summer holidays.

We opened at 7 p.m. when the smaller than usual number gathered for the opening prayers. While subs were being collected rather than a revision session the patrols put their heads together to try to come up with some ideas for the forthcoming Feile na Gasog.

With the smaller number and as it was our first night back the emphasis was on playing games and generally enjoying ourselves. First on the list was a good English game of 'Storm the Castle.' Here the patrols linked hands to form a "castle" wall while one patrol had to storm its way in — the patrol with the fastest time was the winner and here Raymond Crowley and Brian O'Donnell showed their skill at climbing over walls while Neil O'Kennedy realised from this workout his delight at not being a permanent castle brick (ask Neil for the S.P. here).

"Poison" was next (our French game) and here the scouts formed one large rotating circle. In the middle was a dustbin (our poison) and the idea was not to touch the poison or you were "dead" — first "killed" were John Paul Cosgrave and Brendan Flynn while Aidan Mullarkey and Martin Whelan survived the longest with the latter deemed the victor.

Desert soccer (our Saudi Arabian game) otherwise known as Malcolm Allison training was next and this was two team relays heading the ball along the ground. Brian Carroll and Theo Dorman-Kade were two of the best here.

Out in the field we had tandem bicycle drop, solo bicycle relays and cycling races. For these Robert Curran, John Kyne and Thomas Moore were the stars, while Neil Moore would probably prefer this episode.

To round off the night we had unusual football skills (Austrian style soccer) David Considine showed his skills here. The meeting ended with the scout prayers and notices.

GOODBYES!

At the Court of Honour last Saturday night we were paid a visit by Eagle A.P.L. William Fennell. The purpose of his visit was to say slán as he heads out to school in Ring for a year. We would like to take this opportunity of wishing William the very best of luck and we will look forward to seeing him at some stages during the year.

PARADE

Next Friday night September 8 we have our first Church Parade of the '89-'90 scout year. All scouts and leaders are reminded to be at the den at 7 p.m. in full and correct uniform. The Tiger patrol of Mark Shepherd are on reading and serving duty.

Dungarvan Lions Club Notes

How quickly another year has flown and Mosney 1989 has come and gone. This year we had a bigger number than usual (14 guests instead of the usual 10). As usual, we assembled on the Square at 8.30 a.m. on Saturday, September 19 and set off for Waterford, where we were joined by the Waterford and Carrick-On-Suir guests and Lions.

We had a completely full bus as we started the long journey to Mosney. We were preceded by Lions from Waterford and Carrick, who had the tea and sandwiches ready for us when we arrived in Kilcullen. Then following the much appreciated "eats" we set off on the second leg of our journey, arriving at the Holiday Centre about 3 o'clock. The scene there was hectic, as Lions and guests were arriving from the four corners of Ireland. We registered and then proceeded to our chalets, which would be our homes for the next week.

The Camp was very crowded on this occasion. There were over 1,100 guests plus over 100 Lions and helpers. There was also over 1,000 other people staying there and this plus the day visitors meant that there was over 2,500 people in the Centre every day.

We had a very enjoyable week. There was plenty of entertainment all the time, and some of our guests took part in many of the competitions. Rosanne Kiely took part in the fancy hat competition, whilst John Hayes took part in a talent test. Although not winning they both did very well (Rosanne's hat was really good).

Then on Thursday, we had some more arrivals. First, Jim Duggan and his wife Betty, complete with accordion. Jim was taking part in the concert on Friday night. This concert was composed of the finalists of the R.T.E. 2 "Live At Three" Lions organised over-55 talent contest. The Concert was very good and then we got Jim back on stage later and in no time he had a huge number of the crowd in Dan Lowery's dancing up and down the aisles between tables and in one case up on a table — in fact Jim got the crowd going so well that we were dancing until 2 a.m.

SAD FAREWELLS

Saturday morning came too soon, and then the farewells began. In some cases they were tearful because as usual some wonderful friendships were made during the week and very often with people from the Northern part of our country.

This is one of the great pluses of the Lions sponsored holiday at Mosney, as so many from the South meet so many from the North and friendships are cemented which are of incalculable good for the future of our country. At about 10.30 a.m. we bade farewell to Mosney and set off on the 160 mile journey home. The Waterford Lions again preceded us and had a nice meal ready for us at the "Hide-out" in Kilcullen. Then on the road again, finally arriving in Dungarvan about 4.15 p.m.

NOVENAS

NOVENA TO ST. MARTHA —
O St. Martha, I resort to thee and to thy petition and faith, I offer up to thee this light which I shall burn every Tuesday for nine Tuesdays. Comfort me in all my difficulties through the great favour thou didst enjoy when Our Saviour lodged in thy house. I beseech thee to have definite pity in regard to the favour I ask (mention favour).
Intercede for my family that we may always be provided for in all our necessities. I ask thee St. Martha to overcome the dragon which thou didst cast at thy feet. One Our Father and three Hail Marys, and a lighted candle every Tuesday and the above prayer made known with the intentions of spreading devotion to St. Martha. This miraculous Saint grants every thing before the Tuesdays are ended. — B.B.

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN (Never known to fail) — O most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendour of heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea help me and show me herein you are my mother.
O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times).
Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine.
The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. Grateful thanks— B.B.

PRAYER — Jesus, who has said, ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened to you, through the intercession of Mary, thy most holy mother, I knock, I seek, I ask, that my prayer be granted. (Make request) O Jesus who has said, all who ask the Father in My name, He will grant you.
Through the intercession of Mary, thy most holy mother, I humbly and urgently ask Thy Father in Thy name that my prayer be granted (Make request) O Jesus, who has said, heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass, through the intercession of Mary, thy most holy mother, I feel confident that my prayer will be granted. Make request.
— L.H.

Our sincere gratitude to our neighbours and friends who were of invaluable help. We are forever grateful for your thoughtfulness and consideration. The holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for the intentions of all as a token of sincere appreciation.

VEALE — The brothers and sisters of the late Larry Veale, formerly of Mitchel Terrace, Dungarvan who died in London, wish to thank most sincerely all those who sympathised with them in their recent bereavement. A thank you to Fr. T. Rogers, all the local clergy, and all those who attended the funeral, Mass and burial; those who sent Mass cards and floral wreaths. A special word of thanks to Fr. Timothy Hutton, Dr. D. A. Gould and nurses and staff of Churchill's Ward, St. Charles' Hospital, Kensington, London, who so kindly attended him during his brief illness. We trust that this acknowledgment will be accepted by all in grateful appreciation. The holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for all your intentions.

FITZGERALD (nee Flynn) — The husband and family of the late Nora (Nonie) Fitzgerald of Newtown, Cappagh, Co. Waterford, wish to thank very sincerely the many friends and relations who offered sympathy in their recent sad bereavement; those who attended the removal of the remains, Mass and funeral, and those who sent Mass cards, letters, telephone messages and flowers. Heartfelt thanks to the priests of the Parish and the large number of priests who attended the Mass. A special word of thanks to the kind neighbours and organisations who were so supportive and helpful. The holy sacrifice of the Mass has been offered for the spiritual and temporal welfare of all.

The monthly meeting of Lismore Council took place in the Sacristy following evening Mass on Friday, September 1, Rev. Bro. Boyd presiding.

Plans for forthcoming events and activities were discussed — Presentation of Pins, Social Evenings, Regional Dinner Dance, Recruitment Publicity, etc. — and these topics will require consideration at our October meeting.

A vote of sympathy was expressed to Rev. Bro. Boyd and Mr. P. Vaughan on their family bereavements.

The Council members and local Pioneers would like to remind parishioners and their friends that information about the Association is freely available at any time and applications for membership are welcome.

The Council and members noted with regret the departure on retirement of Very Rev. John Canon Power, Parish Priest, and extend to him the good wishes for a long, healthy and happy time to enjoy a well-earned rest after a ten-year period spent in Lismore.

We offer a hearty welcome to Very Rev. Fr. Thomas Nugent who has been appointed Parish Priest of St. Carthage's. We wish him a tranquil sojourn in Lismore and assure him of the goodwill and co-operation of his new parishioners.

CRICKET NOTES

On Sunday last, Lismore travelled to Waterford to play WRTC at Newtown, and enjoyed their first win since mid-July. Lismore fielded first and a good bowling attack was made to look excellent by sharp fielding.

R. Edwards (4-24), T. Edwards (2-29) and A. Quinn (2-17) were the main wicket-takers as the home side were dismissed for 93. Every ball was fielded clearly and every catch held by the Lismore fielders, who gave another first-class display.

When Lismore's turn to bat came, runs seemed much easier to come by and the target was reached for the loss of three wickets. M. Cooper (55) and A. Quinn (15 not out) were the top scorers.

Team — P. Quinn, M. Cooper, R. Bryan, A. Quinn, R. Edwards, M. Willoughby, T. Campion, T. Bones, W. Boyle, B. Downe, T. Edwards, D. Campion.

Lismore's next game takes place next Sunday when WRTC again provide the opposition.

GOLF NOTES

This weekend was relatively quiet on the home front as it was the turn of the ladies on Sunday to play for the Col. O'Brien Cup. However, rumour has it that on Saturday, September 2, there was an invitation match (unofficial) between Malahide Golf Club (D. Feeney and F. Conlon) and Lismore (K. Madden and M. Troy). Malahide were the winners, but the margin of victory remains in doubt!

Results — Tuesday, August 29 — 9 hole fourball — 1, F. Geary and S. Moynihan; Saturday/Sunday, September 2/3, 9 holes stableford — 1, W. Henry (16) 24 pts.; 2, A. Barden (13) 23 pts.

Fixtures — Friday, September 8 — 9 hole mixed fourball from 2 p.m.; end of season barbeque; Saturday/Sunday, September 9/10 — Ford in Golf Trophy, Open, 18 Holes Stableford.

Note — The Club's Golf Classic takes place on the weekend of September 22/23/24. Teams of four — 18 holes stableford. Entries close September 15.

A big congratulations to Mrs. Vera Nugent, our vice-captain, who qualified to go to Venice in the Independent "Golfer of the Year" competition played in Killarney on Sunday last. Congratulations also to Daphne Cahill for winning the Club Championship and to Eileen Tinnelly for being runner-up — a very close one at that, by all accounts.

There will be an 18 hole competition on Wednesday, September 13 for a beautiful prize of Waterford Crystal and an LGU Pennant.

Ladies, don't forget the mixed fourball on Friday night and the barbeque after. — Divot.

FLEADH CEOIL

At the All-Ireland Fleadh Ceoil finals held in Sligo last weekend, Miss Marie Reilly, New York, came third in the Solo Fiddle Competition for ages 12-15. Fourteen-years-old Marie is grand-daughter of Mrs. Lena Cuffe and the late Tom Cuffe, Chapel Street, Lismore, and travelled from America with her parents Martin and Nora and brother and sister Martin Jnr. and Brendan, to compete in the Fleadh Ceoil.

Marie also won third spot in duet with Cris McLoughlin, also from New York. Their teacher in New York is Maureen Glynn, and we congratulate Marie on her success in such a prestigious competition.

LISMORE G.A.A. NOTES

Minor Hurling — On Wednesday evening in Cappoquin we captured our third Western title in succession by defeating Tallow (3-9 to 0-6). This was a very good performance by the team but a much better effort is needed by all the panel if we hope to capture our third County title in a row. We would appeal to all the players to make a 100% effort from now until the final.

Team and scorers — K. Whelan, P. Nugent, K. Clancy, P. O'Donnell, K. Hornbrook, K. O'Gorman (1-0), Mark Sullivan, A. Tinnelly, E. Power (0-1), M. Hickey (0-3), Michael Sullivan, J. Ahearne (1-0), K. Lynch, S.B. Daly (1-4), P. O'Gorman (0-1). Subs. — M. Clancy, D. Ormonde, A. Dunne, P. Hickey, T. Murphy, B. Ormonde, R. Nugent, P. Quinn.

Under-21 Hurling — We scored a good victory over Abbeyside in Cappoquin on Friday evening in the Western Under-21 semi-final (4-9 to 2-8). This was a very hard-earned victory and great credit is due to the players for their wholehearted effort.

Unfortunately, the victory was marred by a serious shoulder injury to one of our midfielders, Eamonn Power. After a spell in Ardkeen, Eamonn is back with us again but will be out of action for some time. We all wish him a speedy recovery and hope against hope that he will be available for the county minor final.

We led at the break by 1-4 to 0-3 but St. Patricks came good in the second half and finished the stronger. Man of the Match was without doubt goalie John Twomey who had a fantastic game. SOCCER CLUB A.G.M.

The following is the Chairman's address — This meeting follows a season which proved to be the most successful in the history of the club. We completed a remarkable feat in winning the Red House League and Dungarvan Tyre Centre Cup in the one season. This feat has never been achieved by another club in the league. Furthermore, to remain unbeaten during the course of winning the league will also go into the record books. Every person involved in the club, players, selectors, officials and supporters can feel very proud of Ballyduff F.C.

With the coming season just about to kick-off, our immediate aim must be to consolidate our position as the best and most consistent footballing team in the Red House League. With this in mind I call on all the players to show the same commitment to the club this season as they have shown over the past years. Being at the pinnacle in any sport is rewarding in itself, but to stay there is very difficult. We look forward to the new season with its difficult and exciting challenges ahead.

Without dwelling on the past, I wish at this stage to put on record our gratitude to some people. The club wishes to thank sincerely Ballyduff Community Council for the use of the field and the dressing rooms, and Joe O'Keefe for his splendid maintenance of the grounds. Without doubt we have the finest facilities in the League. We would like to thank those people who gave us sponsorship in one form or another last season, and we thank also the people of the parish for their support of our Church Gate Collection. A big thank you to the Ladies Club for the work they provided during the year and especially to the team management for the effort and the commitment given throughout the season. They were the foundation for our success. Finally, thanks to Paddy Pollard, Chairman of the Red House League for coming to Ballyduff to present the League and Cup trophies. A very enjoyable functions was held at the Blackwater Lodge, whose facilities were put at our disposal.

I would like also on behalf of the club to congratulate two of our players, P. Prendergast and M. Walsh on their selection on the Waterford hurling team. We wish all our players still involved in hurling and football championships the best of luck and look forward to having them available when the championships conclude.

Finally, a word of congratulations to Sean Prendergast and Bernie on their marriage during the year and to Brendan Dunlea and Diane and Mike Walsh and Anne on their engagements.

Congratulations to Angus McGarry, formerly of Main Street, Dungarvan, who won the Annual Billiards Tournament at Blackfen Social Club in Sidcup, Kent, recently. Angus, who is member of a well known Dungarvan family, has created a record which will never be broken. He was crowned champion this year for the 21st consecutive time. Truly a remarkable achievement for the Old Boro' exile.

Dungarvan Sea Angling Club

With the "Moorings" competition, sponsored by Pat and Nora Spratt, over, there are only two events left on the calendar. The next outing is the Doubles Competition, sponsored by Radley Engineering and will end up in Merry's for the prize-giving. It's a two person team event, so if you have not yet arranged a partner, you would want to get cracking — the 17th September will dawn quicker than you realise!

After that there's only one more outing — October 1 for the Anchor Bar Perpetual Trophy. If you want to get written into the history books of the club, then, you have limited time to do it.

The ladies at the top of the Lady Angler ladder board are making a great battle for the laurels — the best we've seen in years — and it's wide open still. Kay Cliffe tells me there's to be no more parties for a while, so she's really getting serious.

The Master Angler "scrap" isn't over either. Big Tom Cowming has really come into his own again this year.

Who's going to Cobh next weekend for the Aer Lingus outing? And what's this about an organised trip to our twin club in Mumbles in Wales? When I find out more details I'll keep you posted.

MUNSTER SENIOR LEAGUE

League Cup Victory For Dungarvan

Dungarvan 4, Glasheen 2

A fine second half display by Dungarvan capped by a magnificent goal from right back Bryan Kirwan, paved the way for this deserved victory for the local side in a keenly contested game at Kilrush Park last Sunday.

As has been the case in the first two games, Dungarvan started slowly and Glasheen enjoyed the bulk of the possession early on. A big side who were well able to knock the ball around, the visitors rattled Dungarvan in the 20th minute when a cross was volleyed against the underside of the crossbar and J. Farrell produced a brilliant save with his feet from the rebound.

Stung into action by this, Dungarvan stormed forward with K. Foley shooting narrowly wide in the 26th minute. A high cross was caught by J. Farrell, who immediately released K. Hallahan, whose run from one penalty area to the other produced a corner.

G. O'Connor's kick was not properly cleared and R. Flynn had a shot parried by the 'keeper, but T. Egan followed up to hammer home the rebound and put Dungarvan ahead. Glasheen's reply was swift as they forced three corners and then won a free kick on the edge of the box, from which their centre forward scored the equaliser.

Dungarvan used their spare man at the back to better effect in the second half with B. Whelan, pushing into midfield. The homesters were back in front in the 59th minute and again the goal was set up by Ray Flynn who won the ball in the Glasheen box and then picked out B. Whelan who neatly tucked away his first goal for the club.

Just five minutes later came one of the finest goals ever seen in Kilrush Park. As a Glasheen defender cleared the ball it was chested down by B. Kirwan and from fully 55 yards he hit an unstoppable volley that dipped into the top corner of the net to make it 3-1.

At this stage Dungarvan were well on top with K. Foley and W. Coward solid at the back and K. Hallahan, T. Egan and R. Flynn applying the pressure up front. However, Glasheen were given a lifeline when a long range shot deceived J. Farrell and ended up in the net to make it 3-2.

The Cork side threw everything at Dungarvan in search of an equaliser and B. Kirwan saved a certain goal with a marvellous clearance.

Then, in injury time, left back B. Coleman won the ball brilliantly and produced a marvellous 50 yards pass that released K. Hallahan whose pace took him clear of the Glasheen defence and he was eventually taken down inside the area. Bryan Kirwan duly hammered home the spot kick to clinch victory by 4-2.

Railway Athletic F.C.

Our under-12 team played the first game of the season on Saturday last at home to Rathgormack. We were very slow to get going in this game. Our defence were under a lot of pressure from the word go and halfway through the first half a back pass to our keeper was too short and Rathgormack scored.

This was a real body blow for us and we were very lucky not to be two down, but Mitchel Moynihan was outstanding in midfield and our front runners kept going.

We came out in the second half with a different approach and could have been one up early on when the 'keeper made a great save from James Manahan. Glen Arrigan was causing a lot of trouble for the Rathgormack defence and with fifteen minutes remaining Manahan got the ball, beat two defenders and scored a great goal to make it 1-1.

Overall, this was a fair result, but we will have to put a lot more effort in if we are going to be contenders at the end of the season. Man of the match: Mitchel Moynihan.

Topsy Cup Provides Some Great Entertainment

The annual Topsy Tournament took place over the past two weeks and once again young and old alike provided plenty of action and excitement.

The first game was between Alfie Egan's Glentoran and Liam Simms' Liverpool. A thrill a minute game ended 3-3 before Liam Simms set a captain's example by slotting home the vital penalty in the shoot-out.

The next game also needed penalties to determine the victors with Mick Wall's Celtic edging out Don Sheil's Rangers after a 0-0 draw.

Billy Walsh's Man. Utd. accounted for Christy Power's Derry City with goals from P. Ferncombe and K. Hallahan. P. Mulcahy replied for Derry.

Anselm Hayes' Linfield defeated Michael Early's Shamrock Rovers with goals from M. Houlihan and T. Kenneally in reply to one from B. Sheehan. Feature of this game was a fine goalkeeping display by Pat "Foggy" Walsh, who has put Jimmy Farrell under severe pressure.

The first semi-final saw Mick Wall's Celtic edge out Liam Simm's Liverpool in a five goal thriller with Colum Flynn notching a fine winning goal.

The second semi-final saw a weakened Linfield (A. Hayes) well beaten by Billy Walsh's Man. Utd. with K. Hallahan notching four goals.

The final brought together Manchester United and Celtic. An even first half saw J. W. Power put Mick Wall's side ahead on the stroke of half-time. Their lead lasted 30 seconds into the second half as K. Hallahan dispossessed Ber Whelan and crossed for J. Fitzgerald to equalise. Then with 10 minutes remaining Buddy Power up-ended Garry Burke, but made amends with a save "a la Grobbelar" from K. Hallahan's penalty. However Hallahan had the last laugh as he headed the winner from the resultant corner.

Following the game club chairman, C. Power thanked the organisers Pat Walsh, Tom Wall and Brian Wall, who ran the competition so well. Mrs. P. Veale (nee Kirby) then presented the Paddy "Topsy" Kirby cup to the winning captain Billy Walsh. Plaques kindly sponsored by J.R.'s and Tony Bones were presented to the winners and runners-up. Trophies were also presented to referees Jim Foley, Tony Wall and Matt Hayes.

[One disappointing aspect of the tournament was that several players failed to turn up for games and some teams had to field with only seven players.]

CARDS

Winners last week were Breda McGregor and Ansie Flynn. Jackpot £300 on 14 games. Cards starting 8.45 p.m.

SCHOOLBOY'S UNDER-16

Brilliant First Showing By Blues

DUNGARVAN 5; PORTLAW 0

On Saturday last Dungarvan played their first game of the new season, and what a way to start. They played some lovely football and although there was no score in the first half they created some great chances.

In the second half Dungarvan stepped up a gear, and when John Donnelly scored a great solo goal, it was clear there was only one team in it. Dungarvan went on to score four more goals after that to finish off a great afternoon's football.

But this type of effort will have to be maintained if we are to have a chance of honours at the end of the season. Well done lads.

DUNGARVAN RUGBY NOTES

Dungarvan's "Hoffmans" Rugby Festival

The 5th Annual Hoffmans Rugby Festival takes place at Ballyrandle on Sunday next. This event has become one of the top "Rugby Festivals" in Munster over the past five years and next Sunday promises to be another great day of rugby.

Once again 12 clubs will be taking part, with the winner receiving the "Curran Cup" which is presented by Michael Curran (Snr). Last year Mallow defeated Clonmel in a very exciting final and both clubs are back again next Sunday. Also taking part are Bandon, Youghal, Fermoy, Cashel, Clanwilliam (Tipperary), Carrick-on-Suir, Waterford City, Waterpark, Kilfeakle and the host club Dungarvan.

The 12 clubs are divided into 4 groups with 3 teams in each group. The winners in each group will go into the cup semi-finals with the runner-up going into the semi-final of the plate. In the event of teams finishing on same points, most tries will decide. There is also a trophy for the top try scorer of the day, so hopefully we should see plenty of tries and open rugby.

Competition gets under way at 11.30 a.m. in the morning with both pitches in use, with the semi-finals commencing at 4 p.m. The plate final is down for 5.30 p.m. with the "Curran Cup" final at 6.15 p.m. Presentation will take place in the clubhouse following the final.

YOGIS DISCO

Our very popular Yogis disco returns on Saturday night next and the draw of teams will take place for the festival.

UNDER-12 HURLING — EXCITING FINAL
St. Patricks 3-4, Ballyduff 1-5

St. Patricks and Ballyduff produced a magnificent game of hurling which was both exciting and of a very high standard. Here we had a sporting game of honest endeavour where every player on both teams gave their very best and this match was a welcome change from what we have seen on television in latter years. Ballyduff were well ahead at half time (1-4 to 0-3) and had a superb goalie who foiled St. Patricks non-stop in this half.

In the second half the standard of hurling improved further and St. Patricks came from behind with a great display. Both teams must be complimented for providing such an excellent match.

Eddie O'Shea did an excellent job on the whistle and as usual the Cappoquin field was in top class condition.

Jimmy McCarthy presented the medals after the match to winning captain, Mark Radley.

UNDER 16 HURLING

St. Patricks captured the first County title for the Western Division last week-end when they beat Ballyduff Lower in the replay of the "B" hurling 6-7 to 2-2. This is the only title for 1989 to come West in 9 county finals.

Congratulations to St. Patricks on retaining their title and hopefully the Under-16 football will be more successful for West teams now that the luck has been broken.

St. Patrick's G.A.A. Notes

U-16 HURLING: YOPLAIT CO. CHAMPIONS

ST. PATRICKS 6-7; BALLYDUFF Lr. 2-3

Club history was made in Walsh Park last Saturday when St. Patricks retained a county title for the first time in front of a large gathering of loyal supporters from the parish. This emphatic victory over Ballyduff Lower who had drawn with us only two weeks ago was achieved by a much improved display by our young team who literally pulled away from the opposition in the final ten minutes.

The great depth of character we have come to expect from these players was shown from the very start of the match. Their determination allied to two key positional switches by the selectors before the match was the difference between the two Saturdays.

GOOD TEAM PERFORMANCE

Our lads began in a no nonsense mood. Peter Fitzgerald playing a key role in midfield helped by captain Padraig Flynn supplied good ball to the forwards. Man of the match, Tom Kiely was in excellent form on the day. He scored four great goals, while making many useful passes to the ever accurate Barry McGrath who scored an impressive 1-6. Our solid defence were in control throughout the match with Richard Walsh making fine saves in goal. Roger Casey, Niall McConnell and full back Kieran Byrne who has established himself as a great full back this season were in great form, with John Byrne dominating at centre back helped by Alan Walsh and Dermot Ryan. Our young forwards Tony Hickey, Michael Flynn, Kevin Hickey and Garbhan Flynn all played their part in this victory while John Nugent took his scores well.

Having won the toss we played with a slight wind and while we had much of the play in the opening quarter we failed to reflect this on the scoreboard. Slowly but surely our forward line settled and at half time we were leading by 11 points. Following an extremely uncertain spell in the third quarter when Ballyduff played their best hurling we went on to dominate the final quarter and scored 2-2 in that period.

It was gratifying to see that so many people from the Parish had travelled to Walsh Park and their support is very much appreciated. It is sad that this young team full of kindred spirit will not play together as adults. History has been made but the real potential of this talented team will never be realised.

UNDER-12 HURLING CHAMPIONS IN A THRILLER ST. PATRICKS 3-4 BALLYDUFF 1-5

We beat a gallant Ballyduff in Cappoquin on Monday night. This game had all the thrills of a great match between two excellent teams who played superb hurling in both halves. A very large following from the Parish went to Cappoquin on a glorious evening to see a good game of hurling. This match will be talked of in houses in every corner of the Parish as one of the greatest games of skills displayed by St. Patricks and to their credit Ballyduff weren't far behind.

The sportsmanship was of the highest order as could only be expected between these great rivals and friends. Our team played well in the first half but did not score due mainly to the brilliance of the Ballyduff goalie and at half time we were satisfied to have hurled well and were losing 1-4 to 0-3. The second half saw the lads settle down and they expressed their skills with a superb display of hurling.

From young John D. Casey in goal, with David Ryan's long puck-outs we laid the foundation for a great victory where every player excelled and genuinely contributed in both defences and attack. It would be unfair to mention any player because each lad gave his very best and they can be proud of their achievement. This team victory follows many long hours of tedious coaching by John Kiely and Michael Cass and this well balanced team showed their skills on Monday night last.

This is the fourth time winning the Under-12 "B" in 12 years.

UNDER-16 FOOTBALL

We play St. Olivers in Modeligo on Monday, September 11 at 6.45 p.m. in the first championship match. We are in Grade B this year following our County title win at Under-14 "C" in 1987. We are grouped with An Gaeltacht, Affane and St. Olivers.

UNDER-12 FOOTBALL
We play Abbeyside "B" in the first round of this competition within two weeks. We are in Grade "B" this year and have Abbeyside "B", St. Olivers, Ballyduff and Stradbally in our group.

MEDICAL OFFICER

Ena Flynn has attended every match this year and we were delighted to see her son Padraig raise the cup in Walsh Park last Saturday. This no doubt will give her immense satisfaction and some reward for all the hard work she does for the club in her important role as a splendid First Aid Officer.

STRADBALLY G.A.A. NOTES

UNDER-21 HURLING "B" CHAMPIONSHIP

On this Friday evening September 8 our U-21 hurlers play St. Mary's/Modeligo in the B championship in Abbey-side at 6.30 p.m. We should have a fairly good panel for this game and it's a game we can win with something to spare and advance to the next round.

U-12 FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

On Sunday morning next September 10 our U-12 footballers play St. Olivers in the championship at a venue to be decided. Certainly there seems to be a good panel of players and they have trained every Saturday morning as they wait for this game, so we can expect to see a good performance from this young side — Note game in Stradbally at 12 o'clock.

GREAT WIN FOR UNDER-16 FOOTBALLERS

Our U-16 footballers had a great victory over a very fancied Nire team last week on the score of 1-4 to 1-3 in the championship in Dungarvan. This was an all round performance from the team but it took a long range point from Paul Foley to clinch this victory.

Team was as follows — L. Barrett, E. Clancy, P. Foley, T. Walsh, F. Gough, O. Costelloe, W. Drohan, T. Gough, A. Sweeney, A. Curran, G. Walsh, Ml.

Barnes, S. Cunningham, K. Cunningham, P. Casey.

It's expected that they will be in action this coming week in the championship.

SENIORS v. GAULTIER

On Saturday week, September 16 our senior footballers play Gaultier in the quarter final of the championship in Walsh park at 6.30 p.m., so now that we know our opponents at this stage — it must be all systems go, because now is the crunch time. All the preparation, game training etc. will be put to the test, but no doubt trainer/coach, Sean Ahearne will have the team well tuned up and prepared for this very important game.

SERIOUS INJURY PROBLEMS

With just over a week to go to the big game, our injury problems are very serious with Noelle Weldon and David Coffey possibly ruled-out, also out at the moment are Fintan O'Brien, Paul Mullaney and Martin Curran, but the latter three will possibly be fit, so let's hope things improve in this respect.

SOCIAL CENTRE ACTIVITIES

On Saturday evening, September 9 the Whist Card game takes place at 8.30 p.m., with plenty of prizes at stake. On Sunday night next, September 10 — it's the turn of the Bowery Boys to provide the music for members and friends — a great night assured. Also don't forget Pattern Weekend, September 14-17 with full details next week.

U-16 FOOTBALLERS v. BALLYDUFF

On Monday evening next, September 11 our U-16 footballers play Ballyduff Upper in the Championship in Dungarvan at 6.30 p.m. After their good win over the Nire in the last round a win is within their grasp here — let's take the opportunity.

Dungarvan Junior Hockey Club Notes

J.H. FINAL

Deserving Win For St. Mary's

ST. MARY'S 5-4; BALLINAMEELA 1-8
By "COMMENTATOR"

St. Mary's are a club who like so many others go out of their way to 'play down' their prospects of winning and they had been doing this again before this final which they won deservedly because they have quite an amount of skill and have obviously benefitted from some good coaching.

I don't suppose that Ballinameela fell for the 'poor mouth' play, but I do believe that they were to some extent affected by the Eamon Walsh affair and his absence from the team for this vital game. His presence would have helped in a big way, but whether or not it would have made the difference between winning and losing is something that will live on in the minds of Ballinameela, who were speculating on this aspect of the game when it was all over on Saturday evening.

A goal by Lar Looby, who had an outstanding game for the losers, just before half time brought Ballinameela level at 1-5 to 2-2 at the break. Goals by Kieran Hallahan and Declan Whyte had given St. Mary's an early lead, but they faded in the second quarter. Ballinameela didn't fully avail of their chances during this period when they sent over a succession of wides.

A Lar Whelan goal from a penalty in the 18th minute of the second half was the turning point in the game and many of those in attendance could not understand why he shot for a goal at this stage. Goals by Eamon Butler and Tom Whelan for St. Mary's sealed the final for the winners who had also won Western titles in 1978, '80 and '83.

St. Mary's — J. Fitzgerald, B. Tobin, J. Dalton, R. McGrath, P. Hearne, P. Hallinan, T. Condon, J. Hallinan, G. Butler, E. Lonergan, E. Butler, T. Whelan, L. Whelan, D.

Whyte, K. Hallahan.

Ballinameela — P. Looby, D. Cummins, W. Buckley, J. Power, J. Barron, M. O'Donnell, D. Galvin, L. Looby, G. O'Brien, B. Daly, J. J. O'Brien, J. McGrath, J. Walsh, B. Walsh jnr., J. O'Brien. Sub — P. Barron for J. Power.

Ref. — Eddie Cunningham.

After the game, Western Board chairman Denis McGrath presented the Cup to team captain, Eamon Butler.

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. NOTES

UNLUCKY SARGENT CUP DEFEAT

The Gods most definitely weren't on our side when we played Portlaw in the semi-final of the Sargent Cup (senior hurling) in Leamybrien last week. At the end of a highly exciting and competitive hour we were on the wrong side of a 1-13 to 2-9 scoreline — a slender one point defeat.

In the end we can really blame ourselves, but it has to be said that we returned home considerably less than happy with the refereeing of the game too. All the "hop of the ball" decisions seemed to go against us, many of them being perplexing — and frustrating — in the extreme.

Nonetheless it was a fighting display after that terrible performance against Passage in the championship on the previous Sunday. We still have the material to make a worthwhile impact at the highest level.

SENIOR HURLING SURVIVAL

Will we be a senior hurling club in 1990? Our fate in that regard lies in our own hands and on Sunday evening next (6.30) we play

Tallow in a relegation play-off in Cappoquin to decide which of the two clubs drops down to the intermediate grade next year.

We can only blame ourselves that we are in a relegation play-off for the second successive year. However we have played disappointingly overall this year, and now comes the real crunch.

Quite frankly our place is in senior ranks — that we proved conclusively against Mount Sion. However unless we can account for our Brideside rivals then our days as a senior club are over.

That surely is a challenge every player will face up to. We can win on Sunday and it behoves everyone involved to ensure that we do.

UNDER-16'S

We play Kilrossanty in the second round of the Under-16 football championship at Abbeyside next Monday at 6.45. Another testing hour for the boys.

The Under-12s also commence their championship campaign with a first round game against Abbeyside at Fraher Field next Saturday at 11 a.m.

TONY FORRISTAL TOURNAMENT

We made a significant contribution to the Waterford "A" and "B" teams magnificent showing in the annual Tony Forristal inter-county U-14 hurling tournament recently.

On the "A" team which reached the final were J. J. Ronayne and Niall Considine and both gave sparkling performances in all the games.

A star of the "B" team which went all the way to lift the All-Ireland trophy was Conor Murphy — very much a chip off the old block as his father Sean gave the club sterling service on the playing field.

SUCCESSFUL BINGO

Our thanks to the hundreds of people who supported our bingo night last Friday. As a result it was another overwhelming success.

The regular Friday night bingo at the Presentation Convent resumes this weekend with the next "big" session pencilled in for the Friary Hall on Friday, October 6. More anon.

UNDER-21s IN FINAL

Our Under-21 hurlers advanced to the Western final as a result of a hard earned but well deserved 4-9 to 2-10 victory over Cappoquin in Cappoquin last Saturday evening.

It was a good workmanlike display, and while we will go into the final against Lismore as the rank outsiders we are determined to give that game a real go.

WEEK-END FIXTURES

"Winding Down" Stages

Now that we have reached the 'winding down' stages of all the championships, every game is a knock-out contest, so with everything to play for the matches listed for all venues over the coming week-end will bring out the very best in all teams, many of whom will be playing their final game in 1989.

The programme includes the quarter finals in senior hurling and football and several very attractive divisional matches in the few remaining championships.

BALLYDUFF v. DUNHILL

A peep at the scoring chart for the present championship, which is published in this issue, will show what little difference there has been between these two sides this year. The argument in favour of Ballyduff will be that they had the more difficult passage and that Dunhill in beating Tallow, Cappoquin and Clonea, didn't achieve anything wonderful. This may be so, but the game in which Dunhill showed their best form this year was when losing to Roanmore (1-10 to 0-9) in their second game in the championship. A repeat of this would have the Western team in trouble. The records will favour Ballyduff in that they are better able to improve as the championship wears on and they are always at their best when the concluding stages are reached. Their best here should see them into the semi-final.

COLLIGAN v. MOLLERANS

Jimmy Beresford will be back for this one and by all accounts the Western team will need his skill to help them battle with a side who have been installed by most observers as the favourites to win this intermediate title. If scoring records this year are a good indication of a team's capabilities, the Mollerans will deserve to be short listed. Colligan will give them a good game and will try to the last whistle, but I cannot see them beat the Mollerans who defeated Kilgobinet, Stradbally, St. Saviours and Tramore, almost at their ease.

SHAMROCKS v. SAVIOURS

If both produce their best form, this will be one of the tightest games of this intermediate hurling championship. They have never before crossed camans in championships, but a glance at their most recent records show what both teams are capable of.

Saviours tremendous display against Mollerans was described as the best match played in this championship in the East this season. Shamrocks had a great game against Erin's Own last week, but perhaps their very best was in that free flowing exhibition of intermediate hurling against a nice De La Salle side, and which Shamrocks won by four points.

The Shamrocks invariably play very well at Fraher Field and this slight advantage against a side who have yet to play hurling on the famous sod, may make the difference. If this isn't an unwelcome draw, the winning margin will be very small.

BALLYGUNNER v. PASSAGE

For some reason unknown to us, tremendous rivalry has developed between these teams. For this and other reasons their meeting in the quarter final at Walsh Park on Friday evening, will be a real cracker. Last year, after many county final attempts, Passage won their first title and have since suffered only one defeat at senior level. Their rather sudden rise to hurling fame, is not looked upon too kindly by their several neighbours and their banishment from the scene at this stage would be regarded as something of a bonus by Ballygunner who will be attempting to get to their third county semi-final in a row.

The 'Gunners will go at their opponents here from the throw-in and try to take control from the first puck of the ball. They may need to be able to do this, to win. This will be a great game, whoever wins.

John Moore is appointed to referee it.

NIRE v. RATHGORMACK

No team can blow hot and cold as easily or as often as the Nire. Terrible or great and not consistently good or poor. I told a friend in their camp that I find it difficult to figure them out and he responded by saying that there were times when they found it difficult to figure themselves out. A possible explanation for their rather regular lapses is that they can only motivate themselves into playing at their best when the 'chips are down.' Their dismal displays against Dungarvan and Kilrossanty in the play-offs, might be accounted for by the fact that defeat in either or both cases, did not mean dismissal from the championships.

Here on Saturday night it is death or glory as defeat will end their '89 campaign. Rathgormack are a team who have come on a 'ton' in senior football and are the only side to have beaten St. Saviours. Their 2-8 to 2-4 defeat of the hotly fancied Saviours was one of the highlights of the championship and a repeat performance here will have the Western side in serious trouble.

There is some thing of a similarities of style and both play fast open football. The Eastern side are a younger team with five or six good minors on board. These could spell trouble for the Nire as they have done for a few of the sides, who have already surrendered their league points to this improving Rathgormack side.

If my perception of the Nire's attitude to playing at their best when the need is there is right, then they will give one of their hot performances here and this will give them reasonable chance of winning a place in the semi-final. But only a chance.

DOUBLE AT CAPPOQUIN

An Rinn and Modeligo who drew in their junior football tie here two weeks ago will meet again at Cappoquin on Sunday to decide who goes forward to play Kilrossanty in the semi-final of the championship. Replays rarely live up to the standard of drawn matches and they very often result in one-sided affairs. This will not be the case here and it is a game that could go into extra time before a decision is reached. It is an open game that can go either way.

LISMORE v. FAHA

This should prove to be quite an opener at Cappoquin. Last year, Faha brought a lot of glamour and excitement to this championship during their marathon with parish neighbours, Stradbally. A win for them would be a very popular result and it would be nice to see them in another divisional final. Lismore, who are concentrating on hurling, have fallen back somewhat in their football standards and have not lived up to the promise shown two years ago. I expect to see Faha survive, in what will be an exciting semi-final.

OTHER GAMES

The Brickey/Naomh Brid saga in the minor football race will be brought to an end, even if it has to go into extra time or to-morrow night. They have drawn twice, so who can take sides in forecasting the final outcome?

Ballyduff and St. Patricks fight out the minor 'B' final on to-night and by all accounts this, too will be very close.

Ballyduff, having accounted for better opposition than their opponents here, may take this title.

COUNTY BOARD MEETING

The September meeting, which is due to be held on next Monday night, has been put back until Tuesday, September 19.

At the August meeting Coisde na Peil reported on the arrangements for the running of the Premier Football Championships under proposed new rules. The committee asked that championship games which have been fixed, be not changed unless notified to the weekly papers in good time for publication.

SUSPENSIONS

Gerry Connors and Michael Phelan, Ballygunner, were each suspended for 3 months for having been sent off for striking in a championship game. Gabriel and Pat Hynes, Clashmore, were given the opportunity of being heard at the next meeting, both having been sent off in championship football.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

BALLYDUFF QUALIFY

S.H.C.
Ballyduff 2-13,
Portlaw 0-8

A great display by full-back Paudie Coffey could have been the only pleasing feature of this game from a Portlaw point of view, while at the same time there were aspects of the match that will leave Ballyduff pondering about their prospects from here on in.

The important thing for them is that they have qualified for the quarter final even though they will have little breathing room before doing some tidying up for their meeting with Dunhill.

They were every one of the 11 points a better team than Portlaw, who seem to have suffered more than most others as a result of emigration.

EASY FOR CHAMPIONS
S.F. —
Kilrossanty 1-12
Nire 2-1

Strange to relate, this was one of the County championships easiest of victories this year. Beaten by the same opposition two weeks ago, they came here full of fight and determined to reverse the result of their previous meeting.

They did this in style and not even those closest to the Ballymacarbry Club could explain the poor form of the losers who were very lucky that the scoring difference was not much greater.

MAGNIFICENT SAVIOURS
Saviours 5-11
Gaultier 1-9

This was a game of two contrasting halves, with the winners performing magnificently in a great second half. Those who saw it, described the winners display as being even better than their surprise win over Stradbally last year.

Gaultier started very well and were in control for fifteen minutes, but as the game progressed it became obvious that Saviours were going to reverse the result of the last meeting between the teams, when the losers here had a four points win.

DECISIVE LISMORE VICTORY
M.H. Lismore 3-9
Tallow 0-6

Goals by Sean Daly in the 41st minute and Kieran O'Gorman in the 47th, were the decisive scores in this well-deserved win for Lismore in a very entertaining and sporting Western minor hurling final which was seen by a big crowd at Cappoquin.

The standard of hurling was good and even though beaten by 14 points, the difference between the teams was not nearly as big as the final tally suggests. Pat Walsh handled the game very well.

Senior Hurling Scoring Chart

Statistical analysis is gradually adding a new dimension to match reporting by some sections of the media and I have heard enough about this innovation in the past few months, to predict that before very long statistics about the various aspects of games, will become the 'in' thing in reporting.

In the not too distant future a book will be published on the subject by a very well-known media personality who has already compiled an amount of data that will interest readers. Some of this information may even shock members who will find it difficult to believe that the 'playing-time' of an ordinary 60 minutes match seldom extends beyond 35 minutes. The statistical analysis of the Leinster Football Semi-Final between Laois and Meath, played on July 7, 1977, showed that the overall amount of 'lost time' in the game was 41 minutes and 05 seconds.

In his review of playing trends in senior All-Ireland Football finals, F. J. Lennon - 1983 to 1987 - wrote that on average there are 107 stoppages per game and if we multiply this number by the number of seconds which it takes to get the match restarted, we find a sizeable amount of 'lost time' that is never (or cannot) be taken into account by referees.

An analysis compiled by Mick Dunne of R.T.E. which extends from 1958 to 1988 gives interesting details of the frees awarded in the hurling All-Irelands. In the 1959 replay between Waterford and Kilkenny there were 29 frees (60 minutes).

The 'official' average number of fouls in a 70 minutes championship which is compiled by the experts is 46 (football) and it is something lower for hurling. In the Munster Senior Hurling Final there were a total of 37 fouls and the referee in his report described the match as a nasty foul-ridden game. This submission was a bit misleading as the figure of 37 was very close to the average.

It is an interesting subject and I will return to it again. I thought it might be an interesting preamble to the scoring achievements of the various teams in the league section of the hurling championship, which is now completed.

Western Board Meeting

Denis McGrath, chairman, presided at last Thursday's meeting of the Western Board which was held in Dungarvan.

REFEREES' REPORTS

Two players, Eamon O Breathnach, Ballinameela and Tomas O Meachair, An Rinn, who were reported by referee John Moore for striking each other with the hurley, were each suspended for three months. Nioclás MacCraith stated that the report did not include a reference to a player who was allegedly kicked during the match and it was submitted on behalf of Ballinameela that Eamon Breathnach was also kicked during the melee.

When it was made clear that the referee was following play some distance from where the fracas occurred and was not made aware of these two alleged incidents, the chairman stated that these would be investigated as far as possible. The Ballinameela player submitted medical evidence of having received a number of stitches as treatment for his injuries.

Michael Curley, Tallow, who was sent off in a junior football game, was suspended for one month.

DRAW

The following is the draw for the concluding stages of the junior football championship — Kilrossanty v. An Rinn/Mod-eligo; Faha v. Lismore.

M.F. WITHDRAWAL
Asked to explain their failure to field in minor football, Tom Cunningham, Stradbally, stated that the failure was partly due to the fact that the club secretary was away on holidays and because of a mix-up in the notification by the club to their players. No action was taken.

TICKETS

Bernard Shields, Abbey-side/Ballinacourty, complained of his club's failure to get tickets for the All-Ireland semi-finals and for the Munster football final. The chairman said the system was unsatisfactory and tickets should be distributed on a club basis, as they were for the All-Irelands. Others also complained.

CHAMPIONSHIP PROGRESS

A number of delegates complimented the Board on the splendid progress made in having the championships completed to the final or semi-final stages, so early in the season. The secretary, Anthony Walsh, said that this progress was made possible by the wonderful co-operation of the clubs in the division.

James Walsh, Kilgobinet, said that the system of running the championships was not satisfactory for the clubs who had only one or two teams. He said these clubs were free to play and made play when dates were available, with the result that they had all their games played very early in the season and were left with no games for much of the summer.

TICKET REDUCTION

The cut of 70 stand tickets for the All-Ireland finals was discussed. Paddy

Fitzgerald said that distributing All-Ireland tickets had become a frustrating business, with so many people seeking tickets that were not available. He said that tickets were not available for members who were entitled to them and it was most annoying to have individuals, many of whom were non members, coming along and expecting to be supplied.

Ambrose Mullarkey, Brickeys, stated that he knew of a firm in Clonmel who had been able to get a bundle of stand tickets and they had no connection with the Association. He was asked to supply details in order to have the matter investigated.

Relegation Match

Dungarvan and Tallow, who fill the bottom spots in the league table, will meet at Cappoquin on Saturday evening to decide which side goes under and which will survive to play in the senior championship next season.

On the basis of their respective performances so far, it seems likely that Dungarvan will win what might be a narrow victory.

In the football relegation battle, it remains for Dunhill and Ferrybank to decide who goes up and who goes down next year. This game will not be played until the week-end of September 17.

Other Results

The Under-21 championship got off to a good start over the week-end with games being played in both codes:

In the Abbeyside/Lismore game, the challengers, Abbeyside put up one of their best displays in this grade for a very long time and led the hot favourites by a point at half-time. A couple of opportunist goals by the champions, in the second half, decided the issue in their favour.

Dungarvan and Cappoquin played a cracker also in their first round game which saw Dungarvan win by five points from a spirited opposition.

There was a shock result in the Under-21 football when Tallow proved far too good for the Brickeys and won surprisingly and very decisively.

SHAMROCKS JUST PIPPED

In a thrilling clash between Shamrocks and Erin's Own, at Fraher Field on Friday evening, a fair sized crowd saw one of the better intermediate hurling championship matches played so far this season.

All the way from the moment that Martin O'Keefe shot home an early goal from Shamrocks, it was a hurling contest well worth looking at and it was good to know that the losers will not go out of the championship as it was just a qualifying match to decide which goes through to the semi-final3.

Shamrocks supporters were waiting for the whistle when a lucky shot was doubled on by an Erin's Own forward and into the net, just time to give the Eastern team a narrow and very lucky win.

ALL-IRELAND FINAL

At last, Tipperary make the long awaited and well-deserved break-through in the senior hurling All-Ireland and after a lapse of 18 years they won back the McCarthy Cup against rank outsiders, Antrim at Croke Park on Sunday.

Such was the difference in standards that Tipperary were able to show what a high degree of skill and hurling perfection they have attained in their three years campaign. Their hurling was a delight to watch and maybe if the opposition had been better, they might not have been able to play the exhibition stuff that we saw here, but on the day, no team would have taken this deserved title from them.

It was the most colourful spectacle that I have yet seen at Croke Park and it is true to write that the 'occasion and the glamour' compensated to some extent for the poor contest. What surprised me and very many more was the huge support given to Tipperary. We did not have the massive support for Antrim as was expected. I rated the support to be about equal.

Although beaten, Antrim are a good side and must be graded in the top five or six in the country. Their presence certainly added a lot to the big occasion which was seen by 65,500 spectators.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

G.A.A. NOTES

Gate Collectors — On gate duty this week Sept. 3-9 are Ml. Phelan, John McGrath and J. Mansfield. Gate collectors for next week, September 10-16 will be M. Morrissey, B. Murray and N. Byrne.

Injury List Grows — Our injury list grows day by day with Seamus McCarthy now on the treatment table. The I.F. panel is slowly being wilted away. Our troubles are further compounded with the absence of Brian Murray who is entering hospital this week, another valued playing member who will be sorely missed for the Sliabh gCua match.

Challenge Game — Our depleted I.F. panel finalise their training programme for the Western final with a challenge game against Stradbally on this Thursday night. It is important that as many players as possible attend the Stradbally venue.

U-21 Hurlers Beaten — Our U-21 hurlers were defeated by Dungarvan last Saturday evening. Our lads will have nightmares about this game wondering how in the name of God they let it slip from them. They had Dungarvan dead and buried but sat back on their lead and let Dungarvan in for some soft scores to snatch victory from us. Will our teams ever learn — each and every player must keep on playing for 60 minutes not 50 minutes. Let us hope we learn a valuable lesson from here on.

U-16 Football — Clashmore proved too strong for our understrength U-16 football side in a challenge game last Friday night. But most important was the fact that our entire panel have been tried out in matches and they can only benefit from these games, when the championship comes around.

TAVERN BOWLING TOURNAMENT

Sunday, September 10 at 10.30 a.m. — Michael McGrath, Maurice Gambon and Tony Hickey; Sunday, September 17 at 10.30 a.m. — Lar Dunne, Joseph Geary and J. Gallagher.

COMMUNITY CARE GROUP

The recently formed Cappoquin and District Community Care Group received a buoyant start to their fundraising efforts for a Day Care Centre in the area, at Youghal Dog Track on Friday evening last.

Regular greyhound enthusiasts were joined by a large number of people from the Cappoquin area in support of this worthy cause. Further support was evident in the generosity of our sponsors and the number of tickets sold for the draw.

Winners of the draw were as follows — 1st Patrick Casey, Affane, Cappoquin (microwave); 2nd Nora O'Sullivan, Bishopstown, Cork (camera); 3rd Edward Buddin, Emomron, Melleray Road, Cappoquin (Super-Valu voucher).

The best dressed lady was Mrs. Anne Devine, Glengarra, Lismore; The best dressed man was Mr. Morrissey, Killeagh.

A special thank you from the committee is extended to the generous sponsors, to all who helped to sell tickets, to all who bought tickets and particularly the management of Youghal Greyhound Track.

ROAD REPAIRS

The news from the last meeting of Waterford Co. Council is that a portion of the road surface at Allen St., Cappoquin is to be resurfaced, using a new method.
