ANNUAL ESTIMATES

Co. Council Can't Pay Its Way

The Council should now do the honourable thing and declare that we are bankrupt and we should go back to the Minister and tell him we're broke and that we just can't balance the books.

In making this statement at the annual estimates meeting of Waterford County Council in Dungarvan last Monday, Cllr. B. Kyne summed up the general attitude of the full membership of the Council in their efforts to grapple with the Council's budget for 1990.

In his report to the meeting, the Deputy County Manager, Mr. Brian McNally stated that the continuing effect of reduced funding from Central sources had now reached the stage that the ability of the Council to deliver services at any reasonable standard had passed. Over the past three years the rate support grants had declined by a total of £1,373,000.

Mr. McNally expressed regret that after many years acknowledging that something must be done to reform Local Government, a Dail Committee was still only considering the matter.

The estimates provided for a total expenditure in 1990 of £15,962,100 and in addition to the usual sources of income, a 9.6% rate increase (£29.34) with domestic water charges up from £96 to £106, metred water up from £1.30 to £1.35 and scavenging tags up from 25p to 30p would be required to balance out.

The Deputy Manager added that until such time as a decision was made regarding the future of Local Government and its funding there was little point in the provision of additional services, even if the capital cost was met 100% unless there was money provided for the ongoing running costs.

MEMBERS VIEWS

Cllr. C. O Riain said that he never felt so helpless about anything as in order to just maintain the services at the present level more money was needed. "It's a frightening situation and the eyes of the whole county will be upon us," he said.

Cllr. J. A. Walsh said that even if they were to increase the charges they were talking about a minimal amount of money and would just create a great amount of trouble in doing so. "The Local Authorities throughout the country are dying slowly and we have reached the stage where we must be funded from Central Funds as we just can't increase our charges," he said.

Cllr. Walsh added that it was time that the Government realised they were responsible for the position. "The fault is due to Government underfunding and we must hammer that message home," he said.

Deputy Jackie Fahey said the Council now found itself in an unenviable situation and they just did not know where to go. They could not increase charges and were practically powerless.

Cllr. G. O'Halloran said that the onus was now on the Council to call a halt.

Cllr. Kyne thought the Council should do the honourable thing and declare that they we're just bankrupt. "What we're saying to the people in these estimates is that we're broke and we don't have the money required to provide our services. We should just go back to the Minister and tell him that we're broke and that we can't balance our books," he said.

Cllr. P. Coffey — Basically that's the truth, we just haven't the money to provide the services which the public expect. To balance the books we must increase the rates and charges and I'm not prepared to do that.

Cllr. P. Cahill then proposed that they adjourn and send a request to the Minister to receive a deputation to discuss the position. "We're just wasting our time here now," he added.

Cllr. W. McDonnell thought they should first agree to increase the rates by the rate of inflation and then ask the Minister to make up the shortfall.

When no further proposal was made, the Chairman Cllr. M. Queally said that there was nothing more to do but adjourn.

Cllr. McDonnell — We'll just be in the same position when we meet the next day!

Cllr. Walsh — Well it's up to the Minister to do something now — the ball is in his court.

It was then decided to adjourn and to contact the Minister with a request to receive a deputation. It was further decided to reconvene the estimates meeting on Monday, November 27.

THE BROKEN RING!

I reminded you recently that marriage was far too serious a contract to be approached without due and careful preparation. You'll recall too that I proposed various steps to be followed as well as precautions to be observed. Then, I invited you into the inner sanctum to watch marriage in action, and take note of the difficulties, the ups and downs, the dragging and wrangling etc., and suggested ways and means to mend the cracks and prevent major eruptions. I asked you to dwell particularly on God's law of love, which He'd fashioned to smooth and iron out problems, and bring peace where there was discord. The Lord Himself emphasised the fact that love of neighbour was paramount among those who were closest and dearest. It's disappointing when so many reserve their restraint and good manners for visitors, and then crawl back into their hard shells once the show is over! In their blindness these people are sowing seeds of trouble, and will have only themselves to blame.

However, the truth has got to be faced. The best laid schemes do go adrift, and marriages do break up. In fairness, the vast majority of people do contract marriage with the best intentions. They not only want their marriage to work, but they also dedicate and commit themselves to creating a happy home. Sadly, things do go wrong. It may be drink or violence or unfaithfulness etc. And, what once offered so much promise now lies in ruins. As well informed people now say, "it has irretrievably broken down." Whatever the reason, it is a tragedy, and one that is bound to be followed by anguish, heartaches and suffering.

History shows that man was never slow to pick himself up from the ruins. Moses had to deal with the problem. Henry VIII 'twixt instituting laws to accommodate his marriage break-up and employing the deft use of the axe, had no marriage problems! Well, to be fair, he tried unsuccessfully to obtain a divorce from Rome. He set the ball rolling, which due to many reasons including a decrease in the moral power of religion, is now almost out of control. One in every three marriages in England end in the divorce court. It is to be noted that divorce settlements are now turning many off marriage: they just set up house. Facts prove that once divorce is introduced, it is almost impossible to keep it in check.

I believe we are supposed to have 30,000 marriages on the rocks in Ireland. I know some claimed during the Referendum that the number was 70,000 which was a gross and misleading untruth. Anyhow, all is not well in our country. Marriage is definitely under pressure. It needs looking at. Divorce is not the solution. It creates more problems than it solves. It undermines every marriage. It opens the door to adulterous unions. And, is a blatant disregard of the law of God.

God's law is unalterable. It applies to all marriages, and it can never be deprived of its force by civil legislation. Yet! the wording for the proposed Irish style divorce did promise the full treatment! Jesus did say "Everyone who putteth away his wife, and marrieth another committeth adultery." His teaching is clear. Apart from the exception mentioned by St. Paul, no one can break the bond of a valid and consummated marriage. Yet, the Pope is powerless as well as every other human authority. It is easy to claim the power, as some do, but having it, is another story.

If a catholic is party, as many are, to a divorce, and does not remarry, then he or she is fully entitled to practice their religion. Whereas, if he or she did enter another marriage, then the new couple would be wise to keep going to Mass, but they could not avail of the sacraments. Of course, in danger of death, all could be put right. It does happen that good Catholics do get caught up in the web, and they almost find the burden intolerable. If, they strive to live honestly as brother and sister, I say to them, do keep praying, do keep going to Mass and take yourself to confession. The confessor will listen patiently, and he'll direct you accordingly. People love to talk about scandals, so in such cases I would always advise people to keep their own counsel.

THE BOND REMAINS INTACT

In England and other countries when a divorce is sought, it is necessary, especially for the wife, to participate in the case on order to secure their rights re. children, and property etc. Catholics do require permission to co-operate, but it is no more than a question of asking. Of course, it is understood in such cases that the bond remains intact.

People say "The Church is too rigid on divorce." Excuse me. They are mistaken. The Church did not make the law! Divorced people may attempt marriage again, but never in the Catholic Church. You hear of people getting annulments, which is not the same as a divorce, but rather a declaration based on facts that a true marriage never existed, because of the absence of an essential requirement.

I heard people talking about a more Christian attitude to divorce, which is the same as saying, "there's a flaw in God's blue print for marriage." It is like saying, "He should have allowed exceptions." The fact is, He made no such exceptions. The simple fact is, God made the bond unbreakable. More good would be achieved if people promoted stable and permanent marriage. Look at your own marriage. Ask yourself, could you contribute more towards making your home ring with happiness? If all were to join the crusade for happy family life, those who would visit our area would ask: what's the secret of Christian marriage. So, let the world see that love does work.

Dog Owner Gave Garda "A Litany Of Abuse"

There was laughter at last week's sitting of Dungarvan Court during the hearing of a case in which Frank Keniry, 35, Cathal Brugha Place, was summoned by Garda E. Fitzpatrick for having an unlicensed dog on October 2.

When Mr. J. P. Gordon, solr., who appeared for the defendant, submitted that the dog was only a "mongrel hound which Keniry had on loan," Garda Fitzpatrick said that this was not true. "He told me when I questioned him that he owned the dog and gave me a litany of abuse and also passed some insulting remarks about the District Justice," said the Garda.

When Mr. Gordon pointed out that the defendant was not charged with that, district Justice O'Connell said that he would take it into consideration when imposing a penalty.

Mr. Gordon submitted that on the occasion the defendant did not own the dog and only had it on loan.

There was much laughter when Supt. P.J. Hayes who prosecuted remarked, "I never heard of a loan of a dog — that's really one for Ireland's Own!"

Convicting the defendant, the District Justice imposed a fine of £20.

Progress Report On County Roads

The Co. Engineer submitted the following Progress Report on Roads for the month of October to the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held last Monday:—

National Primary Road Improvement Works — Kiely's Cross — Pavement completed. Crash barrier being erected.

Killongford/Windgap (The Sweep) — Embankment under construction.

County & Regional Road Strengthening — Ballydurn.

White Lining — Tallow, Lismore & Cappoquin, Vee-Cappoquin.

Local Improvement Schemes — Knockaniska.

General — General maintenance in all areas. Minor Realignment Fairybush, Dunmore. Replacement of footpaths Parklane, Cross Bridge Street. Resurfacing Lower King Street.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Q. — I am a single woman in receipt of Unemployment Benefit. I am expecting a child shortly and am anxious to know how the birth, and the fact that I intend to keep the child, will effect my entitlements.

A. — As an unmarried mother you should apply for the Unmarried Mothers Allowance from Social Welfare. This is a means tested payment but you might note that should the father contribute to the maintenance of the child, this contribution will not be taken into consideration in the means test. Further details of how the means test is conducted are contained in the Social Welfare Guide which you may consult at your Community Information Centre.

In the weeks surrounding the actual birth, you will probably be incapable of, or unavailable for work. This will disqualify your Unemployment Benefit claim. However, you may be covered for this period by the General Maternity Scheme. Details of this Scheme are again available from your local CIC or Social Welfare Office.

Provided you continue to meet the other qualifying conditions, you may renew your claim for Unemployment Benefit subsequent to the birth of your child. This claim, if awarded, will be paid at half the full rate on account of your then being in receipt of the Unmarried Mothers Allowance. Even if you do not qualify for a payment of Unemployment Benefit you would still have the option of signing on for PRSI "credits" in order to maintain your insurance record.

An information Pack for Unmarried Parents is available, free, from F.S.U.P.C., 36 Upper Rathmines Road, Dublin 6, Tel. 01/964155. The F.S.U.P.C., would appreciate it if you could enclose a 50p stamp if ordering a copy.

LISMORE NOTES

LISMORE GOLF CLUB NOTES

We had some excellent scores again this week. Seamus Beecher's 42 points was only four over par, which is very good scoring in these conditions. Ritchie Ormond's team finished on top in the Winter League with 994 points.

Results: Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 11 and 12, 18 hole stableford — 1, S. Beecher (10) 42 pts.; 2, M. Troy (11) 40 pts, back nine; 3, T. O'Sullivan (20) 40 pts.; best Saturday, N. Rioridan (19) 39 pts.; best Sunday, J. Flynn (14) 40 pts.

East Cork Oil Winter League — R. Ormonde's team, 994 pts.; F. Corcoran's team, 987 pts.; J. Hornbrook's team, 985 pts.; S. O'Flynn's team, 983 pts.; Yellow jersey, J. Cashman.

Fixtures — Saturday, Nov. 18 — Second leg of match with Dungarvan in Dungarvan, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 18 and 19. Hamper sponsored by Castlelyons Co-op. Saturday, Nov. 18 — Society outing, tee reserved 10.30 to 11.30.

The captain's dinner on Friday night last was a terrific success and went on till the small hours. It did not affect the captain's golf as he had an eagle at the 11th on the following day. Congratulations, Bill.

LISMORE DRAMATIC ARE "ALL THE WAY BACK"

Rehearsals are now coming to a close up Lismore way for Lismore Dramatic Society's winter presentation of Bernard Farrell's "All The Way Back." A most distinguished and popular playwright whose successes speak for themselves, "I Do Not Like Thee Doctor Fen" (1979), "Canaries" (1980), "All in Favour Said No" (1981).

"All The Way Back" was premiered at the Abbey

Theatre in 1985 for the summer season and later revived and with such a list of credits as this, a great night's fun and entertainment is assured.

This is a very topical play and one to which we can all relate, dealing with the problems of unemployment and the attempts to keep a social standing within the community. Based in the Dublin Southside, the play deals with the anxiety and tensions within a family whose main breadwinner has been made redundant. Now at the age of 50, Brendan Ryan finds himself unemployed, how his marriage suffers, how his friends disappear, and his children, at first sympathise with him and later despise him and his wife in her vain attempts to run the household, takes in a lodger and opens a little business, without her husband's consent, and looked at in horror by the local residents.

All of this is moulded in the form of comedy with Bernard Farrell's humour and wit to sustain it.

The play is produced by James Lenane who has left no stone unturned in his efforts and we can say, having seen the rehearsals, that a treat is in store for drama lovers.

A large cast is assembled for this production and is as follows: Brendan Ryan (father) played by James Bennett; Sheila Ryan (mother) Una Walsh; Catherine Ryan (live in aunt) Deirdre O'Shea; Mary Ryan (daughter) Anne Casey; Michael Ryan (son); Billy Lee; Paul Ryan (son) Dermot Moore; Mr. Mulligan (lodger) James Lenane; Mr. Davis (contractor) Dick Aherne; Bimbo (Davis's son) Mossie Casey; Bill Patterson (Resident's Association) Billy Dineen, with supporting roles for Joan Lenane, Una O'Leary and Bernadette Crowley.

Many of these names are of faces well known to you from other productions and there's also some new talent that will surprise you.

The proceeds of the show will go towards the provision of new seating in the hall which will be installed by show time. The play runs for six nights — November 24, 25, 26 and December 1, 2 and 3, at 8.15 p.m. sharp. So go along and enjoy a great night's entertainment.

MISSION SALE OF WORK

At last, the Sale of the Year, on Sunday, November 19 at 2.30 p.m. in Lismore Hotel. Something for everybody and you have the satisfaction of knowing you are helping the trojan work being done by Father Broderick and Father Coleman in the Mission fields.

LISMORE CAMOGIE NOTES

On Sunday last we held the second round of our seven-a-side league. In the first match it was the Mongrels v. the Trotters. This was expected to be a close affair but the Mongrels ran out easy winners. Once they got their first goal it was all one way traffic and they led by 4-2 to nil at half time. In the second half it was the same way with the Mongrels scoring four more goals and the Trotters getting two late consolation goals, Final score: Mongrels 8-2, Trotters 2-0.

Best for Mongrels: M. Cunningham, C. Heaphy, Catriona Ormond, S. Coleman. Best for Trotters: G. Barry, S. O'Gorman.

Mongrels — Caroline Ormond, Catriona Ormond, C. Howard, M. Cunningham, L. Heaphy, S. Coleman, T. McGrath.

Trotters — M. Flynn, M. Reilly, J. Dunne, G. Barry, S. O'Gorman, N. Roche, S. Cotter.

In the second match it was the Devils v. the Bangers, and what a match this was. It had everything. The Devils scored first but the Bangers goaled to leave it 1-0 each at half time. All was now set for the second half and it was a thriller. The Devils scored first, a point and then a goal. Then the Bangers got a point.

Both teams threw caution to the wind and with all the players giving their best, we had thrills and spills galore. Then the Devils scored two goals in two minutes to put three goals between the teams and it looked as if they would pull away, but the Bangers were not finished yet. Two breaks upfield yielded two goals and with four minutes to go there was just a goal in it. The excitement was at fever pitch, with the field before the Devils and down the field before the Bangers. The clinching goal. Full time score: 5-1 to 3-1.

Best for Devils: D. Hickey, B. Daly, E. Dunne, B. Pollard. Best for Bangers: B. Keefe, E. Ormond, J. Roche, A. Barry.

Devils team — A. M. Coughlan, D. Hickey, B. Pollard, B. Daly, A. Howard, G. Walsh, E. Dunne.

Bangers team: J. Roche, E. Ormond, B. Keefe, K. Tobin, A. Barry, C. Sullivan, J. Walsh, P. Dunne.

Fixtures for next Sunday — Devils v. Trotters at 2 p.m. and the Mongrels v. the Bangers at 2.40 p.m. After two series of games the Mongrels have maximum points (4) and are through to the final and will meet the winners of the Devils and Trotters game, both of which teams have two points. This latter clash has all the makings of another thriller. This is one that I won't give a prediction on.

LISMORE A.F.C. NOTES

Lismore went down to Brideview and Bally over the bank holiday weekend. In Tallow they played a great first half and were very unlucky to be a goal behind at half time. However they failed to repeat their first half performance in the second half and Brideview finished well on top.

In Ballyduff on Monday the play was reversed with Ballyduff going 5-1 up before Lismore got their act together in the second half and brought the score to 5-4, and were unlucky not to get a point from the game.

Last Sunday, with nine of the panel unavailable for various reasons, Lismore travelled to Affane as usual with the bare eleven. These were good enough on the day, with the help of an o.g. from Affane we had a good start before Affane scored against the run of play to level the scores before half time.

Lismore soon had the pressure on again in the second half and Dave Landers's first goal of the season, a fine shot, put us in the lead again, 15 minutes into the half. Barney Prendergast sealed the issue soon afterwards when he capitalised on a defensive error and put the ball in the Affane net.

These are valuable points for Lismore who were well served by P. Bennett in goal, Frank Power at midfield, Dave Landers at wing forward and Billy Landers in defence.

Team — P. Bennett, J. Tobin, B. Landers, B. Shanahan, D. Landers, B. Prendergast, C. Barry, F. Power, M. Bennett, E. Cusack, D. Landers.

Next Sunday morning we travel to Melleray to take on Glenview at 11.30. — PRO.

LISMORE G.A.A. NOTES

Weekly Draw — Week No. 44 — £50 — Mrs. M. Lawton, Towns Park; £30 — Miss Collette Tinnelly, Ballyhea; £20 — Mrs. G. Flynn, Fernville; £15 — Miss M. Bransfield, East Main Street; £10 — Mrs. K. Dunne, New Street; £10 — Master D. Whelan, Parks Road. Promoters prize — E. Fenton.

The next draw will be held in The Red House on Saturday, November 18 at 8.15 p.m. All are welcome to attend. (Advt.)

Under-21 Hurling — On Saturday next at 2.30 p.m. in Walsh Park, we play Ballygunner in the under-21 County hurling final. So far this has not been our year on the hurling front as it has been a case of so near and yet so far. So, here's hoping for a change of luck on Saturday. Unfortunately, we will have to field without the services of Sean Daly, Michael Hickey and Eamonn Power who are all on the injured list. There is no doubt but that the fifteen who are out will give their all in an effort to dethrone the champions. Best of luck on the day, lads.

Please Note—
PRO's and Secretaries of clubs, societies and organisations as well as individuals with notes for publication in this column in the "Leader" should hand them in to O'Gorman's, Newsagents (by kind permission) before 3 p.m. each Monday and they will be collected there by our Lismore Correspondent, Frances Cunningham, for transmission to the "Leader" Office.

KILL NOTES

ST. MARY'S G.A.A.

Get well soon to L. Lennon who was injured in an U-15 game last week and will miss the county final in the minor football. Just back from injury are D. Power and B. Whelan.

Last Sunday morning, we were expected to play Portlaw in the U-15 city league, but due to the weather, the pitch was deemed unplayable.

CARDS AT CENTRE

The winners from last Thursday night cards in the Kill Community Centre were — B. O'Leary and T. Gamble and also C. Harris and P. Maher. The raffle was won by T. Hennessy and B. Cowman. Next weeks cards start at 8 p.m. with the jackpot being carried over from last week.

SCOR NA NOG

The season starts for Scor on December 1st and 2nd, when as usual St. Mary's have many teams involved in the competition. The club has teams in figure dancing, set dancing, ballad group, solo-singing, recitation, question time, novelty acts and instrumental music, which starts at 7.30 p.m. in Portlaw. We parish do us proud.

SAD OCCASIONS

We must express our sincere sympathy to Mrs. Chrissy Fitzgerald, Georgestown, Kill, wife of Michael on the death of her brother, Mr. Sean Walsh, Waterford, after a long illness. May he rest in peace.

SINGING PUBS

The above competition took place in Dunphy's recently with a great night's entertainment from many people. There were songs from P. Tobin, A. Torpey, B. Mooney, T. Power, T. Lonergan, K. Halley, T. Hennessy, K. Gaul, A. Power and J. Whelan. The crowd were in joyful mood many times with novelty acts from C. Thorpe, P. Halley, J. Burns and F. Casey. The Kill half-set were also in action as well with P. Barry in fine form on the banjo. A. Mulcahy got the M.C. award as she kept the crowd on their toes.

Protest At Proposed Garda Transfers

Cllr. J. Quirke stated at the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held in Dungarvan last Monday that it had come to his notice that it was proposed to transfer a garda from Lismore and Ballyduff into Dungarvan and he proposed that the Council submit a protest to the Garda Commissioner. "I believe that these gardai should not be shifted and replaced by Squad cars from outside the areas manned by gardai who do not know the local people," he said.

The proposal was seconded by Cllr. J. A. Walsh and passed.

KILROSSANTY G.A.A. NOTES

Kilrossanty had a great win over the Nire in the Under-21 Western championship. They now meet Af-fane in the final shortly.

On Sunday, November 26, the seniors make the long journey to Kilkee, to play in the Munster club championship.

PROGRESSIVE 45 CARD DRIVE

The above will take place in Barton's The Pike on Friday, Nov. 17 at 8.30 p.m., in aid of Kilrossanty I.C.A.

MARRIED IN KILROSSANTY

The marriage took place on Saturday, Nov. 4 in Kilrossanty Church of Nora Connors, Curraheen and John O'Sullivan, Cork.

BOOKS

Separation And Divorce Matters For Women

Recently published and now available in most book-shops is "Separation And Divorce Matters For Women" by Dervla Browne. This is the first book on the subject of separation and divorce compiled from a woman's viewpoint. It clearly explains the legal aspects of marriage breakdown in Ireland and outlines the range of legal options available to those whose marriages are at an end, for whatever reason.

This book aims to give a general description, in straightforward, accessible language, of the law applying to the family and should prove an essential handbook for women with marital difficulties.

The author Dervla Browne BCL, LLB, BL was born in Clonmel and is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Browne and granddaughter of Mrs. Bridget Browne, Church Street, Dungarvan. She now lives in Dublin where she practices as a barrister. She has been actively involved with Free Legal Advice Centres (FLAC) for a number of years and is a member of the Family Lawyer's Association.

Separation And Divorce Matters For Women is published by Attic Press, Dublin. Price £3.95.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

SCOUT MASS

Last Friday night we had our sixth annual Mass for deceased members and supporters of Abbeyside scouting at Abbeyside Church. Troop Chaplain Fr. P. Ahearne celebrated the Mass. Specially selected hymns were sung by the Folk Choir and Mr. Francie Kenneally played a trumpet salute.

Later in the night "a cuppa" etc., was provided at the den for all. To the large number of people who helped in making this a memorable night we say a sincere thanks.

TROOP MEETING

After Friday night's Scout Mass it was muffy for this Saturdays troop meeting. The revision tonight after the prayers was the safety and use of gas stoves.

After the subs S.L. Ray gave a demonstration on the correct procedure of fitting the various gas bottles, he emphasised emphatically the damage gas can cause if one is not careful enough. During the gas demo Michael Kelleher, Martin Whelan and Cian O'Donovan showed their ability at fitting the gas. A.S.L. Tomas then gave a short talk on food preparation and cooking on gas.

The signal was then given as the patrols set about their cooking night, tonight's menu included making chips from potatoes, cooking bun burgers, onions, peas, etc.

The Kestrel patrol of John Paul Cosgrave seemed to be the most organised as beefy (no not the burger) Mark O'Riordan, Tom Dalton and Munster athlete Derek Kenneally got the chips chopped double quick. If it was speed you wanted you just had to pop up to the Tiger patrol where Mark Shepherd, Patrick Power, Brian O'Donnell and Derek Hayes worked very well as a unit with S.P.L. Ciaran Walsh watching on and tasting the end product. The other patrols Smiley's Wolves, Liam's Panthers and Igsor's Eagles also did well.

For the clean-up it was the Tigers who led the way with Theo Dorman Kade giving the new mop a good test run.

According as the patrols finished their clean-up they were given a brief talk by the S.L. before they were dismissed.

PATROL MEETINGS

It was business as usual last Sunday morning with our weekly patrol testwork meeting. This week we had a smaller attendance due to a percentage of the lads going to see the local derby in soccer. For those who remained it was heads down. Patrick Power kept Alan Ryan and Ciaran Walsh busy as he passed two tests. Neil Moore and Robert Curran as well as Thomas Moore, Colin O'Connor, Derek Hayes and Raymond Crowley were all quite busy. We hear P.L.'s Liam Moore and Michael Sheehan were working on the new "twinning" test — ask

Ballinameela Macra Na Feirme Notes

A meeting of the club was held on Thursday week last in Kereen Bar. A large number of the meeting including M. Kieley, County Chairman, gave us some very good ideas, and who we would like to thank very much.

Final arrangements were made for the Table Quiz which we are holding shortly.

Various methods of fundraising were discussed but none have been decided upon. The Club Programme for the coming months was drawn up, and forthcoming competitions were decided upon.

The meeting was rounded off with a game of "charades" which was enjoyed by all.

Our Sports Nights in the Friary College, Dungarvan, continue to be well attended with some close encounters between old rivals in the squash courts.

Members of the club will be taking part in the Farm Task Competitions which are due to be held shortly. The team includes — John Tobin, Ned Meskill and Pat Barron. We wish them the best of luck in the tasks ahead.

Our club hosted the "Club Question Time" which was held in Lawlor's Hotel on Friday night last. We entered two teams in this competition which were as follows:

Team A — Conor Culloo, Karen Reynolds, Mary O'Donnell, Anne O'Donnell.

Team B — Anne Meskill, Liam Hallahan, Eileen Hallahan, Claire Longan.

The quiz was a great success and everyone relaxed their 'brains' at the disco in Zeta's afterwards.

Members of the club attended a Social held by Clonea Macra in Whitechurch House Hotel last Saturday night. The was enjoyed by all present. — P.R.O.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

JOHNNY QUANN, THE PLOUGHMAN OF COOLAGURTWEE

"Our beloved Ploughman has turned his last long lonely furrow, and has reached that bright and shining headland of Heavenly glory, where, I have no doubt, but, that waiting to welcome him, will be his own beloved Nancy, Mikie and Eddie his own kith and kin, and Moss, Pattie and Ned Connors, who will share with him, that last long happy sleep, in this lovely churchyard." So said Ruairi (Aluinn) O'Connor, Cluttahena, Cappoquin, in the course of a eulogy delivered at the burial of John Quann, Mill Street, Cappoquin. He then went on to say:—

No eulogy would be good or long enough, to give our Ploughman his deserved due, or his deserved place in the scale of sterling values.

He was a good kindly and loving man. Above all he was an honest man whose word was never doubted, and his was the final say in all arguments. A little anecdote, to illustrate my point: Johnny loved the game of '45' and was a regular patron of the Cappoquin Hall. Now you all know how contrary and argumentative we Irishmen can be, maybe with the count or questioning the little bit of renegeing. But Johnny's word was never questioned. What he said went, and if you were foolish enough to disagree, then, you went. Such was the measure of his esteem.

Never a fighting man in the military sense, as the 'Troubles' were over before he came of age, nonetheless in his boyhood days he often turned out of his cosy warm bed, and kept a lonely night watch, for the boys of the Column, in the fight for Irish freedom. For that we honour him, by draping him in the Tricolour, and our thanks to Davy Cullinane, for helping us to accord him, our Ploughman, this great and prestigious privilege. But Johnny was no Monk or Quaker. He liked his fun, and enjoyed the fair, wedding and dance.

He was a founder member of the old pony races of the Mullineerd and drove in the first nails in the old Coolagurtwee dancing stage.

He was never a hurler of any ability. Bear with me in another little anecdote. Eleven, thirteen, or some odd number anyway, practicing in the old 'back of the acre field.' Two men started to call the lads and it came to the last man. Johnny of course, and looking rather hopefully at the caller. But the gentleman never had any qualms of conscience, he would look up at the sky, look at the other caller and say: "I'll have the wind, you can have Johnny."

But he knew his hurling, and at half-time in many a hard game, we had the benefit of his advice, and always 'a drop of the craytur' to revive our spirits. And I know full well, that many a team wondered to hell what struck them in the second half.

So, Johnny, you're going out draped in the old Faugh-A-Balagh flag, the colours you wore with such pride and dignity in the days of long ago. And we thank you John Quann, Jnr., for your work in looking after this precious emblem of ours. I suppose it's what we expected. A chip off the old block. But the greatest criterion of all is in the good and happy families he has left behind.

In them we will keep his name enshrined, and through them his memory forever green.

So, Johnny old partner, Faugh A Balagh, ta me ag teacht.

CONCERN DEBATE

The first round of Concern debates for secondary schools was held in St. Anne's last Tuesday. The motion, "Environmental Protection is a luxury for the Third World" was proposed by the home team. CBS Dungarvan provided the opposition. A very lively session ended with St. Anne's carrying the motion.

The Cappoquin team had David Cullinane, Dromana; Jennifer Collender, Tourin; Anne Curran, Aglish and Dean Morrissey, Cappoquin, who are now looking forward to the second round.

RED HOUSE LEAGUE

Results of the 6th series played on Sunday were as follows:

Division 1 — Ballyduff 2 Glenview 1; Cappoquin 1 Killeagh 3; Affane 1 Lisimore 3; Valley Rangers 0 Bride View 2.

Division 2 — Modeligo 4 Cappoquin 0; Grange 2 Mogeely 1; Inch 0 Youghal 1; Pinewood Rangers 3 Carriglea Rover 1.

As we approach the midway point in the league the title race is already being narrowed down in both divisions. As Cappoquin fall away after some dreadful results at home, Bride View and holders Ballyduff look to be the two to figure in the final shake up. In Division 2 three teams look like opening a gap, Youghal, Ardmore and Modeligo and the meeting of the first two at Ardmore next Sunday could well be decisive.

On Sunday morning one could not but be impressed by the layout and condition of the magnificent community field in Modeligo with its near perfect facilities for G.A.A. and soccer competitions. It must be the ideal facility in any parish.

Not a happy morning for Cappoquin whose unbeaten four game run came to an end. The more experienced and better organised Modeligo eleven deserved their win but it was not until the second half that they were able to turn a majority of possession into goals. Only one down at half time to a Martin Reddy goal after ten minutes Cappoquin were not without hope. But three minutes into the second half Kevin Cliffe had the decisive score for Modeligo and when this was followed by two more from Johnny Byrnes and Liam Power not even a brave combative display was not enough to redress the balance for Cappoquin.

They had some good movements in the closing stages when Rhiney Walsh, making his first appearance at centre forward, went close on two occasions.

They need not be too disappointed at this result, they can do better.

John Cahill and sub. Ken O'Donnell also caught the eye. Modeligo look good and must be a force. Liam Power and John Byrnes were in their best form.

Modeligo — T. Kiely, P. Foley, J. Barron, M. Reddy, O. O'Neill, J. Barron, J. Byrnes, N. Troy, K. Cliffe, L. Power, J. Cashman, V. O'Donovan, S. Reddy, E. Kenneally.

Cappoquin — N. O'Donoghue, P. Walsh, P. J. Kiely, D. Mason, J. Cahill, P. Cullen, P. Bergin, C. O'Leary, B. O'Sullivan, J. Walsh, L. Lacey, K. O'Donnell.

A very sporting game gave referee Leonard Fraser no problems.

CAPPOQUIN BILLIARDS AND SNOOKER CLUB

League — The second series of games were played last week along with two postponed games from series one.

Result were — Darren Mason bt Andy O'Keeffe 68-61; James Morrissey bt Pa Curran 62-32; Michael Casey bt Pat Kiely 61-46; Michael Doherty bt John Noonan 77-36; Brian Ormond bt Conor O'Leary 64-33; Pat Kiely bt John Noonan 63-55; Conor O'Leary bt Andy O'Keeffe 53-49.

Each week I will briefly report on one of the five league games. This week's report is on the game between Conor O'Leary and Andy O'Keeffe. Although Conor had quite a large handicap to pull back in this game he still managed to come out on top by 53 points to 49. The potting throughout this game was good from both players, but their safety play was at times surprisingly poor. Andy was in control throughout the game, right up until the last three balls, this was where Conor was a little fortunate. He snookered Andy on the blue, although Andy successfully manouevred himself out of it, he left Conor with an easy clearance which he took with ease. On reflection, although Conor was a little fortunate in the end, it has to be said that on occasions throughout the frame he did concede an awful lots of points on some very unfortunate in-offs.

This week's fixtures are: Conor O'Leary v. Darren Mason; Michael Doherty v. Brian Ormond; Michael Casey v. John Noonan; Pa Curran v. Pat Kiely; Andy O'Keeffe v. James Morrissey.

At this stage three players are level at the top of the table on full points. They are Darren Mason, Brian Ormond and Michael Doherty.

Billiard League — A number of players have expressed a preference towards billiards over snooker, so in order to facilitate them we have decided to start a billiard league.

Full details can be found on the notice board.

Peter Ahearne Perpetual Trophy — By the time we go to press the draw for the above mentioned tournament will have been completed. Full details next week.

Intending Members — It's still not too late to join up, the fee is £5. Members should be 16 years of age or over.

AFFANE BRIDGE CLUB

Results: October 23 — 1st Addie Buckley and Pat Keevers; 2nd Kathleen Bary and Grace O'Connor; joint 3rd Lil Costin and Vera Curran, Brid Bergin and Josie McCarthy.

Results: October 30 — 1st Kathleen O'Mahoney and Marie Duffy; 2nd Grace O'Connor and Percie Hallahan; joint 3rd Mary Radford and Kathleen McGrath, Josie McCarthy and Monica O'Sullivan.

Pratt, Mike Foley and Gerry O'Brien. Lucky tables — Tom Tobin and Paddy Farrell, Johnny Flynn and Sean Buckley. Raffle: 1, Barry Kiely; 2, Johnny Flynn.

The jackpot will be £200 on 11 games or better on Saturday night next.

Councils Vote Sympathy

At the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last Monday night votes of sympathy were passed with the wife and family of the late John Troy, Friary Street, with well-known former All-Ireland hurling greats John Kiely and Christy Moylan on the death of Mrs. Kiely, with the relatives and friends of the late Gusty (Rocky) Power and with the family of the late Mike Lyons.

At the monthly meeting of the Co. Council held on Monday sympathy was extended to the families of Denis and Mary Martin, the young married couple who died in the tragic traffic accident the previous week.

Major Enterprise Award For Dungarvan Sisters

Like most little girls, dolls play a big part in their lives, and on Wednesday of last week, November 8, two sisters, Laura O'Connor and Maria Marsh won an award for producing ornamental dolls in their Dungarvan factory. Laura lives in Sea Park, Abbeyside, while Maria lives in Catherine Street, Waterford.

The sisters, both married with families, and their company, Waterford Porcelain Dolls Ltd., of which they are both joint Managing Directors, were announced as the winners of the IDA/Touche Ross women in enterprise award for 1989.

Mr. Padraic A. White, IDA Managing Director, said the striking feature of women entrepreneurs was their staying power and determination.

"This was creating an acceptance, in banking and business circles, that women are credible entrepreneurs," he said.

The award, in its fourth year, is designed to focus attention on the huge potential of women entrepreneurs who are proving to be better than men at converting their studies into commercial businesses, Mr. White declared.

In choosing the sisters for the award, Mr. White said that their feasibility study had been selected because of its structured and professional approach and detailed export oriented market research.

£5,000 AWARD

They receive the Touche Ross sponsorship to the value of £5,000 (£2,500 cheque and £2,500 consultancy services.)

Laura attended a doll making academy in England and then took a FAS start your own business course before joining forces with Maria to design and make the dolls dresses.

After a feasibility study they put a proposal to the IDA for employment grants and set up in business which now employs six full-time employees in Waterford producing ornamental dolls.

Women are good at business and what the IDA has seen is that women make good managers and good planners, said Mr. White.

GARDA, DOCTOR DIE IN SEPARATE ROAD CRASHES

On Thursday last, Det./Gda. Maurice Fleming (50) died after the van he was driving collided head-on with a lorry at Donard, Co. Wicklow shortly after mid-day. Gda. Fleming who was off duty at the time was attached to Waterford City Garda Station. He was married with three children and was a native of Blessington, Co. Wicklow.

In Co. Clare, Dr. Patrick Power, (39) of Kilkee and Clarecastle died when his car struck a ditch at Moyada Beg, outside Ennis while he was returning from a sick call. Dr. Power was married to the former Mary Kelleher, St. Enda's, Clonea Road, Abbeyside, Dungar-van and they have three daughters, Clodagh, Gillian and Sarah.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the Power and Kelleher families on their very tragic bereavement and also to the family of the late Det./Garda Fleming.

PENSMAN Takes You . . . . Behind The SPOTLIGHT

IT'S TIME TO FACE THE ISSUE

Members of Waterford County Council should have the courage of their convictions and should once and for all face up now to the scandalous manner in which local authorities are being underfunded by the Central authorities.

The Council failed to strike a rate for next year when they met in Dungarvan to consider an estimate to cover a gross expenditure of roughly £16 million for 1990 last Monday. One after another, the members stressed the dire financial straits in which the parent body found itself. Statements that the Council was bankrupt, broke and that they were facing a frightening financial situation were heard on all sides.

The Deputy County Manager in his report on the estimates stated that the last few years had been a period in which reduced overall spending had been the norm and with reduced Central funding they were still expected to improve services. In these circumstances such aims were not reconcilable.

Pointing out that the cost of pensions for retired Council employees now totalled £1.084 million which represented 21 per cent of the Council's annual payroll, Cllr. Kyne stated that while Environment Minister, Mr. Padraig Flynn, looked after his own Mayo constituency exceptionally well, Waterford and most other counties were expected to do more and more on diminishing budgets. Now they were even being expected to pay pensions which they could not afford. This is just not possible.

The lifetime of the present membership of local Councils will come to an end next year (barring a change in present policy) and in anticipation of the Local Elections due in 1990, a sum of £30,000 to cover the cost was included in the current Co. Council estimates. This being so, we believe that a definite stand should now be taken on this whole problem of funding, in adequate fashion, the services which local authorities are charged with administering.

And if the worst comes to the worst and the Minister decides to disband the Council for refusing to strike a rate because of continued underfunding it could well bring this festering problem to a head. And then the members could seek re-election within the coming year when the Local Elections take place and in such circumstances all could face the local electorate with clear consciences.

Certainly matters cannot be permitted to drift along as they have been doing for the last few years. The time for action is now!

NA h-AMHRAIN GAELIGE

With regard to the Irish songs which have been published in the "Leader" in recent weeks, it has been decided that if a sufficient number of people are interested and indicate this interest to us here at the "Leader", a night can be arranged in the first week of December when the airs of the songs will be taught and they will be sung in traditional style.

ACT COLLECTION

Members of the Clashmore Branch of Aid Cancer Treatment (ACT) will make a street collection in Dungarvan on next Saturday and again on Monday next

DUNGARVAN TO HONOUR NOBEL PRIZE WINNER

Responding to the promptings of a joint deputation representing Abbeyside Pattern Committee and Dungarvan Junior Chamber, members of Dungarvan Urban Council at their monthly meeting last Monday night unanimously agreed to accord a civic reception to Professor Ernest T. Walton, winner of the Nobel Prize in Physics in 1951, when he visits Dungarvan to address a public meeting at Lawlor's Hotel on Wednesday, November 29.

Son of John Arthur Walton, a Methodist Minister and Anna Elizabeth Walton, the world renowned Physics Professor was born in Abbeyside in a thatched house at Strandside South which stood on the site now occupied by the residences of Mr. Pat Fahy and Mr. John Cartwright on October 6, 1903. His father was the Minister in Dungarvan which at that time had a sizeable Methodist Community with a Church in Friary Street now incorporated into Shaw's Stores. The following year, in July 1904, the Waltons left Dungarvan when John was transferred to Rathkeale, Co. Limerick after spending three years in Dungarvan and later they went to the North of Ireland where the young Ernest was to grow up.

In 1926 Ernest Walton graduated with a degree in Physics at Trinity College, Dublin and subsequently studied at Cambridge University where he worked with Ernest Rutherford, the "Father of Nuclear Science" for seven years. During this period Ernest developed and constructed jointly with Sir John Cockcroft a method to split lithium atoms. However the significance of their discovery was not fully recognised until 1951 when they were jointly nominated for the Noble Prize in Physics and on December 10, 1951 at the Concerts Palace in Stockholm, the Swedish Academy of Science awarded the Nobel Prize to a son of Abbeyside.

Now a frail man of 86 years, Professor Walton lives in Dublin but came to Dungarvan some 10 or 15 years ago in an unsuccessful effort to locate the thatched house in Abbeyside where he was born.

Prime mover in this proposal to honour Professor Walton is Dr. Jim Stacey of the Abbeyside Pattern Committee who has carried out a great deal of research into the Walton family association with Dungarvan and Abbeyside in the early years of the present century.

The joint deputation which were received by the Urban Council last Monday night, in addition to their request for a Civic Reception further suggested that the new leisure area at the Causeway might be named Walton Park in honour of the Professor and the erection of a suitable plaque which would be unveiled by the Professor during his forthcoming visit to the town.

When the members of the deputation withdrew, the Council members discussed the proposals at length, agreeing to all the suggestions in principle with the finer details in regard to the type of plaque and the wording of it to be the subject of further discussions with the promoters.

We are sure that the people of Dungarvan and Abbeyside will give this decision of the Urban Council to accord this honour to Professor Walton, the only Irishman to win a Nobel Prize Award in a scientific subject, their whole-hearted support.

RINGVILLE, CO. WATERFORD

Browsing through Guy's Directory of Munster compiled by Francis Guy in 1886, we were interested in the entry under the above heading which described the Ring Gaeltacht as it was more than one hundred years ago.

The entry in the Directory commences as follows: "Post Office parish of Ringagonagh, on southern side of Dungarvan bay and harbour. Population of parish 1,276, of village 402. The parish contains portion of the Drum mountains, and stretching into Dungarvan bay is the long promontory of Helvick head. Part of the land, more especially that bordering on the sea and adjoining the villages of Ballynagaul and Shanakill, is of good quality and well cultivated."

It then goes on: "The principal manure is sand and sea-weed, which is found in abundance in the bay and on the coast. The refuse of fish is also used as a manure; it is placed in heaps in the fields, covered with sand and clay, and when decomposed applied to the land; it produces most luxuriant crops of potatoes, etc. Yellow sand is plentiful, and forms the greater portion of the sub-soil of the district; good stone quarries."

The entry then states: "The surrounding scenery is bold and in some parts strikingly romantic and picturesque. The village is near Helvick head and has a small pier and harbour for boats. The haak fishery is carried on here to a considerable extent. The want of proper boats and nets is a great drawback to the fishermen who are a hardy and robust race, and expert fishers. Protestant and catholic churches; near the former is a well dedicated to St. Nicholas. Parish of Ballymacart (pop. 384) served from this post office."

The entry goes on to give the full postal address as Ringville, Dungarvan, and names the Postmaster as John Murphy. The Medical officer and Registrar is named as Dr. Richard Graves and the Relieving Officer as J. Mahony. It then details that the area was in the Petty Sessions and Constabulary district of Dungarvan with Sergeant M. Connolly in charge of Ringville station and Stephen Pilcher as Chief Officer of the Coast-guard station at Helvick head.

A list of the VIP's living there at the time was then given as follows:

Gentry and Clergy — Rev. James Alcock, Rector, Seaview; Rev. Peter Casey, P.P., Ballymacart; Dr. Richard Graves, "Mount Pleasant"; Rev. Michael Power, C.C., Ballymacart.

Schools — National, Ballymacart. Head teachers — Male, J. Delany; Female, Mrs. Delany. National, Ringville. Male, Michael J. Foley; Female, Mrs. Foley.

Grocers — Declan French, Ballynagaul, Mary Tobin, Shanacloon.

Local Quarries — Mweelahorna (sand), Richard Casey, prop; Seaview (stone), James Harney, prop.

Trades — James Clancy, carpenter, Knockanpower; Augustine Draper, ship carpenter, Ringville; Michael Farrell, smith, Knockanpower; John Hannigan, carpenter, Ringville; James Killigrew, smith, Seaview; John Power, smith, Ballymacart; John Power, smith, Ringville; Thomas Power, smith, Ballymacart; John Sweeney, tailor, Ringville; Thomas Sweeney, Knockanpower.

Vintners — Laurence Draper, Ballynagaul; James Harney, Seaview; Sylvester Murray, Helvick; Thomas Power, Ballymacart; Margaret Sheehan, Knockanpower; William Walsh, Ballymacart.

Principal Farmers — John Costin, Ballycurreen; Michael Costin, Ballycurreen; Patrick Fitzgerald, Ballycurreen; E. Hannigan, Ballymacart; Jeremiah Harty, Ballymacart; P. Nugent, Ballymacart; J. J. O'Brien, Ballymacart; Arthur J. Anthony, Shanacloon; Richard Anthony, Knockanpower; Thomas Anthony, Knockanpower; R. Casey, Mweelahorna; Edmond Curran, Ballynacourty; Patrick M. Curran, Ballynacourty; Henry A. Fitzgerald, Seaview; John Galvin, Shanakill; Thomas Harty, Gortnadiha; William Harty, Mweelahorna; James Maher, Mweelahorna; Garrett Troy, Ballyreilly.

And that's how Francis Guy of Cork recorded the information he collected about "Ringville" in his publication of 1886.

Fighting McGuire

For our choice for the ballad corner this week we return to our collection of songs by Percy French and select the ballad about how a big bully boy got his "come uppance." Incidentally, in relation to the "Face On The Bar Room Floor" which we published last week, we overlooked stating that this was only an abridged version. Mrs. Josephine O'Rourke of 44 Murphy Place, Abbeyside has drawn our attention to this fact and informed us that she has the full version on tape.

Anyway now on to this week's choice, "Fighting McGuire" — completely unabridged:

Now, Gibbon has told the story of old,
Of the Fall of the Roman Empire,
But I would recall the rise an' the fall
Of a man of the name of McGuire.
He came to our town as a man of renown,
And peace was, he said, his desire,
Still he'd frequently state what would be the sad fate
Of the man who molested McGuire.

Well, we all were afraid of this quarrelsome blade,
An' we told him to draw near to the fire,
An' laughed at his jest, tho' it wasn't the best,
An' swore there's no man like McGuire.
An' when he came up with the neighbours to sup,
His friendliness all would admire,
An' he'd have the best bed - for we'd sleep in the shed
For fear of insulting McGuire.

But Macgilligan's Dan - who's a rale fightin' man
Said: 'Of all this tall talkin' I tire,
I'll step in a see whyever should he
Be called always Fightin' McGuire.
I'll step in an' say, in a casual way,
That I think he's a thief an' a liar,
Then I'll hit him a clout, and unless I misdoubt,
That's a way of insulting McGuire.

Then onward he strode to McGuire's abode,
His glorious eye shootin' fire,
An' we thought as he passed we had all looked our last
On the man who insulted McGuire;
Then we listened with grief while we heard him called thief,
An' abused as a rogue an' a liar,
Oh! we all held our breath, for we knew it was death
To give any chat to McGuire.

Well, the row wasn't long, but 'twas hot an' 'twas strong
An' the noise it grew higher an' higher,
Then it stopt! — an' we said, "Oh, begorra, he's dead!
He's been kilt out an' out be McGuire!
Then out like a thrush from a hawthorn bush
Came something in tattered attire,
And after it fled the man we thought dead —
The man who mal-treated McGuire.

"Twas Macgilligan's son, the victory won
An' we crowded around to admire
The bowld-hearted boy who was first to destroy
The Yoke of the Tyrant McGuire.
An' altho' it's not true, we all said that we knew
From the first he was only a liar,
An' we'd all had a mind to attack — from behind —
That cowardly scoundrel — McGuire.

RECENT DEATHS

Mr. William Augustine Power

It was just after 8.20 a.m. on Monday morning of November 6 that my good friend "Gusty Rocky," O'Connell Street, Dungarvan, answered the final call from his Master, passing away in God's peace at Ardkeen Hospital. Even though we both belong to different generations this was no block or hindrance to our friendship. Gusty was a legend in his own right, a colossus who touched all our lives in special ways, enriching them by his outstanding virtues, traits and characteristics. A week later I write in disbelief that Gusty has left us momentarily. A faithful friend is a sure shelter. Whoever finds one like Rocky finds a rare treasure.

Life for Gusty began 69 years ago on Grattan Square in the heart of the Old Boro, a town he came to know and love so well. His years in exile, while employed in the hotel business in London nurtured this love and yearning for his home by the sea.

In his younger days he wore the blue and white of Dungarvan with distinction. He loved the hurling and football and this scribe can recall on the road to Dublin on many occasions in conversation with Rocky, the glory days of Waterford hurling when he relayed with relish the atmosphere and tensions of epic Munster and All-Ireland struggles.

He loved the horses, and a day without his flutter was a rarity. Gordon Richards, Lester Piggott and the greats were his idols. He proudly boasted that he led in Royal Tan at Aintree after the National to the winners enclosure. The night Patricia's Hope won the English Derby was so special, he spoke of it as if it was yesterday. Going to the dogs will never be the same again. He loved the local longtails and their owners successes were his joy. How he basked in their sunshine, and how many victory photographs carried this popular man.

He was a conversationalist par excellence. He could talk on anything. The same story or anecdote was further embroidered on retelling. How we'd enjoy those hours of free entertainment. Gusty was a kind, sincere man who was a wonderful neighbour. He was a true Christian and enjoyed visiting the old in St. Joseph's where they shared stories, tales and 'tall tales' of yesteryear.

A member of the National & Commercial Club for many years, he enjoyed his game of cards with his friends. My abiding memories of Rocky will be of a man who loved wit, friendship, repartee and the boyish enthusiasm he brought to simple things. His laugh, joke, warm spirit and friendly smile will be missed. He had a quality of life all his own and a gentleness that was so very evident.

I offer my sympathies to his brother Tom, sisters Maisie and Josie, all in Canada.

On Tuesday evening following prayers of requiem at the Kiely Funeral Home, Gusty was brought the short journey to his beloved St. Mary's, where his remains were received by Very Rev. Canon G. Power, P.P., assisted by Rev. W. Carey, C.C., Rev. J. Curran, C.C., Very Rev. J. O'Sullivan, P.P., Very Rev. J. Griffin, P.P., Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A. and Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C.

On Wednesday, after con-celebrated Mass with Fr. Griffin, Very Rev. M. Russell, P.P. and Rev. M. Curran, C.C. (Chief Celebrants), Gusty was laid to rest in the family burial ground. Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A., Rev. J. Hooper, O.S.A., Very Rev. J. O'Sullivan and Rev. W. Meehan, C.C., were in attendance.

The scripture readings were shared by Mary Beresford and Ned Kiely, while Tommy McShane, accompanied by Claire Maher (organist) sang suitable hymns and psalms.

Chief mourners — Tom (brother), Maisie and Josie (sisters), and a wide circle of cousins including the Ahearne family, Grange, Powers of Shanbally, Bridie Walsh, St. Joseph's Hospital (formerly of Ballinamult) and Tommy Ahearne, London.

(Obituary by David Kiely, J. Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mrs. Una Prendergast (nee Cullen)

It is with feelings of deepest regret that we record the death of Mrs. Una Prendergast, Shandon, Dungarvan, which took place rather unexpectedly on Tuesday, November 3. She was wife of Jim who was creamery manager at Grange for many years.

A native of Ardmore, the late Mrs. Prendergast was Una Cullen, a National Teacher by profession who began her career in Clashmore. Later she transferred to Ardmore and the 1970's saw her on the staff of Dungarvan CBS. Una was recognised as a teacher of exceptional ability and those students lucky enough to have passed through her talented hands were given the ideal educational building for their advancement to secondary school. The Irish language was something close to her heart, indeed, she had an abiding love of all things Irish.

For many years she was a valued member of the Apostolic Society and enjoyed the company of her many friends in local Bridge circles and the Bridge Club in Youghal. Aged 77 years, her appearance and dress sense belied her age. She was a most popular and charming lady whose deep-rooted Christian values and traits were most admirable.

To her husband Jim, son Shay, daughters Mary, Judy and Kay, her brothers, sisters and other relatives our sincere sympathy is extended.

On Wednesday, November 4, a hugely representative cortege accompanied the removal of her remains from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church where Rev. W. Carey, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. M. Barron, P.P., Very Rev. J. Griffin, P.P., Fr. J. O'Sullivan, P.P., Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A., Rev. J. Hooper, O.S.A., Rev. M. O'Byrne, C.C., Rev. W. Meehan, C.C., blessed and received the remains. Guards of honour comprising of Bridge Clubs, Apostolic Society and St. Vincent de Paul Society, paid a deserved tribute which was greatly appreciated by the family.

Following con-celebrated Mass on Thursday with Fr. Carey and Fr. Hooper as chief celebrants, the funeral left for Grange cemetery where the interment took place in the presence of another vast concourse. Also in attendance were Very Rev. Fr. Liddane, P.P., Very Rev. J. O'Sullivan, Rev. W. Meehan, C.C., Rev. M. Curran, C.C., Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A., Very Rev. Fr. O'Daly, P.P., Very Rev. M. Barron, P.P. and Very Rev. Canon D. O'Connor, P.P., Ardmore, who recited the graveside prayers. The lessons were read at the Mass by Seamus O Cuil-liu and Frank Hughes and appropriate music and psalms were played and sung by Sadie and Paidin Breathnach, Doirin Ni Mhurchu and Carthach Mac Craith.

Chief mourners — Jim (husband), Shay (son), Mary, Judy and Kay (daughters), Billy Boland, Dan Galvin and John Power (sons-in-law), Terri (daughter-in-law), Mick, Jack, Moss and Seamus (brothers), Maura, Anna and Peig (sisters), Betty, Delia, Martin (Tralee), Kevin, Triona, John, Anne, Jenny, Elaine (Clashmore), Una, Maria, Pdraig, Olan, Diarmuid (Cork) (grandchildren), and a large circle of relatives and friends.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Maria Claire Hayes

Last Tuesday, November 7, eight-year-old Maria Claire Hayes, 38 Childers Estate, Dungarvan, was called home after her short stay with us. For most of her life she was in ill-health and now she has left to join her sister Abigail who also died in the spring of her life in October 1970.

For a short period Maria Claire was a member of Sesame School. Later she was brought to Carriglea and enjoyed her swimming.

During the Childers Estate Residents' Mass on August 17, 1986, Maria Claire received her First Holy Communion. For the past two months this little girl enjoyed the love and care of Sr. M. Baptist and staff at the District Hospital and the kindness and consideration of Doctors O'Sullivan and Brennock was a source of strength to the family.

We tender our sympathy to Matt, Margaret and family on the loss of Maria. They are in our prayers and thoughts at this time.

On Wednesday evening Maria was brought to St. Mary's Parish Church where Very Rev. Canon Power, P.P. conducted the funeral service, assisted by Rev. W. Carey, C.C., Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C., Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A., and Very Rev. J. Griffin, P.P.

The funeral Mass on Thursday was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Carey, C.C., while appropriate hymns and psalms were sung by children from the Presentation Convent, who also provided a guard of honour. The lessons were read by Michelle Ferncombe and Georgina Simms. Following prayers recited by Fr. Carey, assisted by Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A. and Rev. Fr. Hooper, O.S.A., Maria Claire was laid to rest.

It is our prayerful wish for those who are saddened by the demise of Maria that the hope of eternal life will sustain and comfort them in these difficult times.

Chief mourners — Matt and Margaret (parents), Peter, Anthony, Kevin and Dermot (brothers), Marguerite and Patricia (sisters), Mrs. Abbie Hayes, Caseyville (grandmother) and all her uncles, aunts, relatives and friends.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mrs. Rose Patterson

On Friday morning, November 10, Rose Patterson, Mountain Villas, Dungarvan, answered the great call home after 97 years of life. During the past few years Rose had been a patient at St. Joseph's Hospital where she was extremely popular with all.

A member of an old and highly respected family, Rose's passing removes another link with the 19th century.

We offer our condolences to her relatives and friends.

Her remains were brought on Friday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church and following Requiem Mass on Saturday morning the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

(Full obituary next issue.)
(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mr. Michael Lyons

We sympathise with the sons, daughters, brothers, sisters, grandchildren, relatives and friends of the late Mr. Michael Lyons, 2 Park Gate, Dungarvan, which occurred on Sunday last, November 12.

Removal took place on Monday evening from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church. Following 12.15 p.m. Mass on Tuesday, the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a large and representative gathering.

(Full obituary next issue.)
(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mrs. Kathleen Ryan (nee Hourigan)

With sadness and deep regret we write on the passing of Mrs. Kathleen Ryan, Gortacode, Kilmeaden, which occurred last Wednesday, November 8 at Cork's South Infirmary following a period of illness.

We tender our condolences to her husband Willie, family and relatives on their loss.

Last Thursday the removal took place from the Kiely Funeral Home to Ballyduff Church. Following Requiem Mass on Friday, Kathleen was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery

(Full obituary next issue.)
(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Late Mary (May) Nugent

The demise of May Nugent, Skehacrine, Abbey-side, Dungarvan, at Dungarvan Hospital on Wednesday, October 25, removes the last surviving member of one of Abbeyside's oldest and most respected families.

For many years Mary's family were the biggest landowners in Abbeyside and many of the housing estates of today stand on original Nugent property.

Every morning and evening, in olden times, Abbeysiders purchased their milk from the Nugents, hence this family have a very important place in the social history of 'The Village.'

Predeceased by her brothers Austin and Jimmy by many years, the latter, interestingly, was the first Scoutmaster in St. Joseph's 4th Waterford Scout Troop on its establishment in 1929. Aged 92 years, Mary, who was daughter of James and Agnes Nugent, has gone to join her own in eternal bliss.

On Thursday evening her remains were brought from the hospital mortuary to Abbeyside Church where they were blessed and received by Very Rev. M. Canon Farrell, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Ahearne, C.C. Following Requiem Mass on Friday celebrated by Fr. Ahearne who also officiated at the graveside, assisted by Canon Farrell and Frs. Hooper, and Keogh, O.S.A., Mary was laid to rest in the family burial ground.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

ARDMORE NOTES

BINGO WINNERS

This week bingo at Monastrea Hotel had quite a lot of winners from Grange and Ardmore. Among the winners were Maggie Nugent, Ardmore; Peggy Burke, Ardmore; Kathleen Foley, Grange; Theresa Lenane, Grange; Marie Stilwell, Ardmore. Not only were there winners in the bingo itself, but also in the draw which took place. Kathleen Seaward won first place of a bedside locker and Kitty Veale also won a 4 stone bag of spuds. Bingo as usual on Thursday night.

ARDMORE'S TRIUMPHANT

JUNIOR B HURLERS

Ten years ago, Ardmore last won the County junior final — against Fenor. On Sunday last, November 12, history repeated itself. In an excellent hurling final replay, Ardmore had to go to extra time to defeat a gallant Fenor team.

The game had everything the spectators could wish for in a game and it was a credit to both sides who played in a very sporting manner.

Ardmore led at half time 2-3 to 0-4, but Fenor came back to level the score. With time running out, Fenor scored what looked to be the winning point, but one last gasp free by Denis Conway brought the game to extra time.

In a ding-dong battle in extra time, Denis Conway scored a glorious winning point with 4 minutes to go. Credit too must go to Tommy Cronin who took the free which initiated the equalising point. Ardmore's "man-of-the-match" was goalkeeper James O'Donnell, who had a magnificent game, but all of the players gave their all and it showed on the day.

The selectors of the day's winning team were: S. Hennessy, J. Prendergast, J. Brien and a very special thanks to the trainer, Peter Power who gave his time and knowledge to the players — they did him proud!

Ardmore overcame the wet and soggy conditions on the day to return victors, to join the ladies and the under-12, to name but a few, in Ardmore's very successful sporting year. 1989 is a year Ardmore will remember!

The team of the day was: James O'Donnell; John Power, John Sullivan, Mattie Cronin; Eddie Foley, John Hennessy, John Power; Billy Mahoney, Pat Walsh; Pat Hallahan, Nicky Keating; Denis Conway; Donal Reidy, Tommy Cronin, Tommy Keane. Subs — P. Prendergast, B. Power, P. Hallahan, M. Hennessy, K. O'Brien (all used), D. McNamara, P. Power, B. Stilwell, J. Moloney, G. Gleeson.

A special word to be said for our outstanding outfield player, Nicky Keating who celebrated his birthday on the victorious day. Happy birthday from the supporters of the match. Also birthday wishes to Tommy Cronin whose birthday was on Monday (Ardmore is still celebrating). Well done to all who supported and played. We would like to thank Fenor for a good sporting game.

ANOTHER GOOD WIN

Under-12 Football: Ardmore 3-6, Ballyduff 4-2 — On Saturday last we had yet another win — this time the under-12 team scored a one point victory over a very gallant Ballyduff team that made us fight every inch of the way.

The football was of a very high standard right through, but it was when Ballyduff led by four points in the second half that our lads really displayed the depth of their character and skill.

Winning this has brought to the end the most successful year in the history of the juvenile club. We have now won the under-12 football and hurling and the under-14 Western hurling championship — a truly successful year for Ardmore's youth.

Our stars in the final were Keith, who was in a class of his own, Michael and Clinton who scored a really spectacular goal when it was most needed, and the two Kevins who displayed their many football skills up front.

Our line-up on the day was: S. Dower, J. Conway, M. Supple, J. O'Connell, C. Hennessy, S. O'Neill, Cathal Hennessy, K. Lenane, K. Flavin, C. Flavin, S. Budds, C. McCarthy.

The scores of the match came from: Clinton Hennessy 1-1, Seamus Budds 1-0, Cathal Hennessy 1-0, Kevin Lenane 0-2, Kevin Flavin 0-1, Sean O'Neill 0-1, C. Flavin 0-1.

Well done to all of the lads in the juvenile section of the GAA — you all did Ardmore proud!

REMINDER OF SOCIAL

The GAA social will be held in the Walter Raleigh Hotel, Youghal, on New Year's Eve. Tickets can be had from members.

ST. DECLAN'S HALL

There will be a meeting on Monday next, November 20, of the Hall Committee. Delegates from clubs please note, you must attend if you are to be represented.

GRANGE SOCCER

Last Sunday we played Mogeely at Grange. It was a good game, with victory going to the Grange team by 2-1. Our scorers were Pdraig Manahan and Micheal O Domhnaill.

DUNVEGAN DARTS

The team played Tavern A last Friday night and after a hard battle the game ended in a draw, four all. This Friday we play Lindsays in the Dunvegan.

BADMINTON

Ardmore played away to Ferrybank (6th division). Good games were had by all, and at times it was difficult to know who would actually win. In the end Ardmore won by 5 games to 3. Ardmore team: 1st men, David Murray, Eric Kingston; 1st ladies, Margaret O'Brien and Bridie Curran; 2nd men Thomas Power and Nicholas Cunningham; 2nd ladies Christine Walsh and Mary Mahony; 1st mixed David Murray and Margaret O'Brien; 2nd mixed Eric Kingston and Bridie Curran; 3rd mixed Thomas Power and Bridie Curran; 4th mixed Nicholas Cunningham and Mary Mahony.

BRAINBUSTERS

St. Augustine's Win County Final For The Second Time

The Waterford County final of the extremely popular Brainbusters Quiz — sponsored by First National Building Society in association with 2FM was held on Tuesday, November 7 at St. Pauls Secondary School, Waterford. In all thirteen teams representing the various Secondary Schools in the City and County participated in what was a most enjoyable and close contest. However, St. Augustines' team from Dungarvan came out on top and now go forward to represent the County in the Area semi-final at Clonmel on Tuesday, November 21.

No doubt the team consisting of — Alan Beatty, Paul Looby, Patrick Spratt, Neil Carthy and Cian Whelton (under the guidance of the very popular Br. John Williams O.S.A.) will by now have commenced preparing for November 21. We wish them the very best of luck.

Waterford City (Quiz Master), Colette Nugent and Grainne Kelly, First National Building Society.

WESTERN BORD NA nOG NOTES

U-21 FOOTBALL — "B" FINAL ARDMORE 3-6 BALLYDUFF 4-2

Our last final for 1989 went to Ardmore on Saturday when they defeated Ballyduff in a very exciting U-12 "B" final at Cappoquin. This was expected to be a great final with Ardmore having prepared this team in the past few seasons for honours while Ballyduff's battling commitment in any final is always a big factor. This was a great game of football with both teams evenly matched, played in poor underfoot conditions. Ballyduff opened well but failed to take their scores. Ardmore came back to score a goal and dominated for most of the first half.

Halt-time score was 1-0 to 0-1.

On the resumption Ballyduff lifted their game and scored two great goals and were 4 points in the lead. The turning point came when Ardmore goaled after the Ballyduff defence was outstretched. Ballyduff's good players had given their all at this stage and Ardmore's well balanced team levelled within 5 minutes of the end and scored the winning point with the second last kick of this exciting final. Great credit is due to both teams for their contribution to the match. Ballyduff were beaten in the hurling final by a narrow margin and will be in strong contention at Under-14 in two years time.

Congratulations to Ardmore who were presented with their medals by John Kiely, Chairman of Western Bord na nOg, amid jubilant scenes among their large gathering of supporters. John Hennessey, Paddy Foley and their dedicated mentors can be well pleased with this team, they have worked hard and reaped their reward.

UNDER 16 FOOTBALL NAOMH BRID WERE BEATEN BY KILMAC' LAST SATURDAY

week in the East Star Petroleum U-16 football "C" county final replay at Abbeyside. This was the twelfth and last county final for 1989. Unfortunately only one county title has been won by a Western team this year. St. Patrick's won the U-16 "B" hurling and are the sole county champions in the West in either hurling or football. Hopefully this imbalance will be addressed next season.

County Bord Na nOg Notes

UNDER-16 "B" FINAL REPLAY KILMACHTHOMAS 0-15

NAOMH BRID 1-8 (after extra time) A thrilling Under-16 "B" county football replay played at the Friary College Grounds last Saturday morning again went to extra-time after being level at full-time.

At half-time the score stood at 0-4 to 0-2 in favour of Kilmac'. Early in the second half Naomh Brid piled on the pressure and with S. Kearns scoring a gem of a goal to level up matters on the score of 0-9 to 1-6.

In extra-time Kilmac' came well into the game and with Pat McGrath in great form added on the necessary points to clinch this county title.

COUNTY CONVENTION

The County Convention of Bord na nOg takes place on Monday, December 11 in Lawlors Hotel, Dungarvan. All clubs please note this date in their diary.

THE LATE DENIS AND MARY MARTIN

It is with deep regret that we record the deaths of Denis and Mary Martin, Kilclare, Conna, who died so tragically in a car accident on Monday of last week.

Denis who was aged 29 was son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Martin, Toornageeha, Ballyduff and a plasterer by trade and also had a very successful pre-cast business. His wife of two years, Mary (nee Ahern) was a native of Castlelyons and worked in the check out section of the Co-op supermarket there.

There was a large and representative cortege at the removal of remains on Wednesday night to Castlelyons Church and the interment on Thursday afternoon.

Sincere sympathy is extended to their heartbroken parents, brothers, sisters, relatives and a large circle of friends.

COMMUNITY COUNCIL

The annual Sale of Work will take place in St. Michael's Hall on Sunday, November 26 at 2 p.m. There will be the usual stalls along with wheel of fortune, etc. More details next week.

The senior citizens party will be held on Sunday, December 10.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the Martin family on their recent sad bereavements. The weekly 45 drive in the Hall on Wednesday night last was postponed as a mark of respect.

HAPPY EVENTS

Congratulations to Gerry and Mary Keane, Marston, and Sham and Sheila (Walsh) Denn, Affane on recent happy events.

BALLYDUFF G.A.A. NOTES

The U-12 footballers had a thrilling game against Ardmore at Cappoquin on Saturday morning last, before going down by a single point on the score of 3-6 to 4-2.

We pressed from the throw-in but missed some scores before we conceded a goal of the soft nature and we trailed by 1-3 to 1-1 at half-time.

In a thrilling second half play flowed from end to end and we eventually drew level and then went ahead before the winners regained the lead. At one stage, we hit the crossbar twice in the space of a minute, but Ardmore found the target for the winning score. We congratulate Ardmore on their win but compliments have to be paid to our lads for their effort not alone in the final but in the two semi-final games against Affane. Well done also to team trainer Jim Hannon for the effort and time given to the team and his co-selectors Tom Feeney and Jimmy Scallion.

Panel was — C. Berry, S. Quirke, G. Feeney, P. Noonan, D. O'Keeffe, J. Twomey, P. Feeney, K. Condon, M. Molumphy (capt), T. Morrisson, G. Berry, K. McNamara, T. Feeney, B. Hannon, T. Molumphy, M. Feeney, M. Cahill, D. Berry, M. O'Gorman, T. Feeney, T. Murphy.

This was the seventh final that the club has lost this year, so let's hope our luck will change in the nineties.

The adult club are honouring the 1964 county intermediate hurling championship winning side at a special function in St. Michael's Hall on Friday, December 15.

Both the adult and juvenile clubs extend sincere sympathy to the Martin and Ahern families on the deaths of Denis and Mary.

The Primary Schools football team are scheduled to play Cappoquin in the field on this Friday afternoon and a win here would put us into the final against probably Ardmore/Grange.

RECENT WEDDING

The marriage has taken place at Dunagh, Co. Kerry, of Mr. Mark Ahearn, son of Mrs. Mary and the late Michael Ahearn, Sheanbeg, Ballyduff and Miss Mary Stack, Dunagh. The reception was held in the Ambassador Hotel, Ballyunion. We wish Mark and Mary many years of wedded bliss.

WEST WATERFORD DRAMA SOCIETY

The meeting of the society, scheduled for Tuesday, November 7, was adjourned as a mark of respect to the Martin family on their recent tragic loss. Jimmy has always been a tireless worker on behalf of the group — when a set needed constructing, he was always at hand — and the family has always associated itself with community endeavour in many areas. We hope that now in the midst of the pain the family can find solace in the fact that the whole community shares their grief with them and that they can gain strength from that sharing.

BALLYDUFF MACRA NOTES

Both last weekend and this weekend proved very busy for the club. On Friday night last a team namely Patrick Murphy, Pat Roche, Pat Geoghegan, Seamus Cunningham and Terence Kenny took part in the club county quiz. Well done lads.

On Sunday night we held our soccer tournament in Conna Sports Complex. Ten teams took part and we would like to thank all who supported us. The overall winners after a very close competition were Ballyduff A. Congratulations to Catherine O'Regan, Maeve, Pat and John Kenny and Mike Leamy. A special thanks to McDonnell's of Fermoy who sponsored the trophies.

On Thursday night, November 16, Cappoquin Macra are holding a table quiz in Lawlors Hotel. We wish the best of luck on Friday night, November 17 to our senior debating team — Catherine O'Regan, Mike Leamy, John Kenny and Dave Ahearn, who will be against Kilmacthomas in the county final. The team is proposing that arranged marriages are a thing of the past.

Fermoy Macra invites the club to a ceili which they are holding in the "Talk of the South", on Saturday night, November 18.

On behalf of the club I wish to express sincere sympathy to the Martin family on their recent bereavement. — P.R.O.

BALLYDUFF I.C.A. NOTES

We were pleased to see most of our members present at last weeks meeting. The domestic economy in-structress was so interesting, that it was requested that she will attend our next meeting on December 5.

We have seventeen paid up members and there is still time for anyone who may be interested in becoming involved in the I.C.A.

Each one of us have something to offer in the affairs of our community.

Sympathy was extended to Lena and Jimmy Martin and family and the Ahern family, Castlelyons on their recent bereavements.

TALLOW NOTES

BRIDE VIEW UNITED A.F.C. NOTES RED HOUSE LEAGUE LUCKY BRIDE VIEW VALLEY RANGERS 0 BRIDE VIEW 2

We took the short trip "over the border" to neighbours Conna on Sunday morning last and came home with two points in a game in which we never really got going.

Rangers opened well and it took a great save by our keeper Kevin Tobin in the 8th minute to keep the game scoreless. Rangers tried hard to open the scoring and again in the 36th minute one of the forwards shot wide with a goal at his mercy.

With just 1 minute to go to the break United jumped in front when Paul Curley scored from close range. It was a lead we hardly deserved and the half time whistle went shortly afterwards.

Luck plays a big part in football and it certainly was with us on Sunday. Rangers were awarded a penalty in the 51st minute but United's keeper Kevin Tobin saved brilliantly to keep us in front. We created some chances in this second half with Mickey, Philly and Paul Curley and Dermot Henley all going close. At the other end Rangers always looked dangerous. United made sure of the points in the 88th minute when Paul Curley struck again for us.

Not a great display from our lads with man of the match award going to keeper Kevin Tobin who turned in a marvellous display. For the rest of the squad it's doubtful if we will play as bad again for the rest of the season. To play badly and still win augurs well for our strong challenge for league honours.

United — K. Tobin, T. McCarthy, M. Harnett, S. Curley, G. Hogan, C. Curley, M. Curley, P. Curley, P. Curley, D. Henley. Res. — G. Sice and P. Sullivan both used. M. McCarthy, B. Henley and P. Sheehan (not used).

Seaview Celtic Co-op — Despite many of the prizes coming West we still ended up empty handed. Better luck next time we hope.

Pontoon — The club pontoon which you can join at The Corner House Bar, now stands at £225 for 8 results.

Best Of Luck — To Jack and the boys on Wednesday against Malta. Italy here we come.

Next Weekend's Fixture — Sunday next in Tallow, Bride View Utd. v. Cappoquin. Kick-off 11.30 a.m.

SPECIAL PRIZES FOR 21st ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

As the final celebrations of the 21st Anniversary of Tallow Credit Union the Board are putting up some fabulous prizes to be raffled at this year's meeting. First prize will be a luxury week-end for two in the Great Southern Hotel, Kilarney. There will also be prizes of Turkey, Ham, Wine, etc. Draw will be confined to members attending so make sure you are there.

The meeting will be held in Nora Herlihy House, West Street, Tallow, on Thursday, November 23, at 8 p.m. See you there.

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

The G.A.A. club held a public meeting on Thursday night last in the Hotel. The main item was the whole structure of the club both financial and on the playing fields. It was decided to set up a sub committee to deal mainly with finance, to look into all aspects of finance, while the officers would look after the running of the club. The meeting was well attended and a lot of good things came from the meeting — a kind of clear the air meeting.

The A.G.M. has been fixed for November 30, and it is important that as many people as possible turn up for the meeting. Next year will be a big test for everyone so maybe it would be a good idea to have some new faces on the committee with new and fresh ideas.

The club wishes to congratulate Sliabh gCua on their fine win in the intermediate football final recently, to Roger McGrath who was captain, as Roger is based in Tallow at the moment, to everyone involved well done and the best of luck in the hurling final against Ballydurn. — P.R.O.

TALLOW

BADMINTON NOTES

We are half way in the league and we are doing very well. The club will have both ladies and gents teams in the leagues after Christmas. The Open will begin early in December. Badminton continues every Mon./Tues./Thurs. nights with coaching sessions on a Friday night for the juveniles. — P.R.O.

ST. PATRICKS PARISH HALL

The snooker and pool season is now underway. Old and new members are enjoying the facility of our two full size snooker tables and pool table in heated and comfortable surroundings. The hall is open each night (under committee supervision) from 8 p.m. to 10.30 p.m.

New members of 16 years and over must apply and be accepted for membership. Season fees of £5 for adults and £3 for others are now due.

From Wednesday next, November 15, seasonal fare can be won at the Card Drive held each Wednesday at 8.30 p.m.

First prizes will be turkey and ham to each partner; Second prize will be ham to each partner; Third prize will be turkey to each partner.

Come and "play the game" with a chance to win a turkey and ham.

Last week's results — 1st/2nd divided between Mary Mangan and Dick Tobin, Brian Aherne and Betty Connolly; 3rd Noel Buckley and Pad Hogan. Table Prize — Sean Coady and Sean O'Donoghue. Raffle — 1st Betty Connolly; 2nd John Pratt; 3rd Mary Mangan.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.

St. Catherine's 0-2 Fr. O'Neill's 1-4 — The marathon, which meant a third meeting with Fr. O'Neill's in the U-16 football championship was finally resolved last Saturday at Dungourney, when we were defeated by a strong Ballymacoda fifteen. However all is not lost as we are still in with a chance in the semi-final of the divisional league.

Catherine's team lined out as follows — Tom Morrisson, Liam Sheehan, Pat Fitzgerald, Richard Cotter, Noel O'Neill, Martin Sheehan, Richard Sheehan, Maurice Spillane, Sean Twomey, Johnny Sheehan, Paul Higgins, Mark Lane, Jim Lane, Dessie Lucey, Kieran Morrisson. Subs. — Paul Gough, Noel Hogan.

Referee — Noel Hogan, Youghal G.A.A.

PARISH JUVENILE SCOR

A capacity audience packed Ballynoe Community Hall last Friday night for the above function. While competitors weren't too plentiful in some departments, still, a high standard was reached and it proved a great nights entertainment for all.

The result are as follows: Figure Dancing — Karen Dineen, Laura Lane, Carol Hayes, Kate Leahy, Patricia Flynn, Deirdre Flynn; Solo Singing — Michelle Burke. Recitation — Veronica Casey; Instrumental Music — Susan Finn, Jane Ryan, Audrey Leahy; Ballad Group — Emer O'Keefe, Elaine Fitzgerald, Nora O'Connell, Nuala O'Brien, Siobhan Beecher; Set Dance — Clodagh Jones, Deirdre O'Neill, Julianne Sheehan, Lisa Higgins, Clare O'Connell, Patricia Lynch, Liz Dineen, Helen O'Keefe.

Question Time (19 competed) — Kieran Morrisson, Pat O'Keefe, Shane Fitzgerald. The adjudicators were Joe Curran, Fermoy; Noel Higgins, Castletyons; John Mahoney was question master, with Dan McCarthy, timekeeper and Redmond Higgins as scorekeeper, John Buckley was Fear A'Ti and Chriss O'Mahony, supplied the music on his accordion. And we say go raibh maith gaibh to parents and teachers for their co-operation.

The East Cork semi-final will take place in Ballynoe Hall, Friday, November 24 and the second one takes place in Carrigtwohill on Sunday, November 26, at 7.15 p.m. sharp. Bigi ann.

Seven teams will compete in Ballynoe, namely — St. Catherine's, Dungourney, Bride Rovers, Castletyons, Erin's Own, Youghal and Fr. O'Neill's.

Carrigtwohill at 7 p.m. will house eight teams, namely — Sarsfield's, Glanmire, Lisgoold, Carrigtwohill, St. Ita's, Middleton, Aghada, Cloyne, and adjudicators will be Mary Rose Hayes, Glanmire; Eileen Forest, Lisgoold; Noel Higgins, Castletyons; Jacinta Sullivan, Little Island.

The final is fixed for Dungourney on Friday, December 1 at 7.30 p.m.

DEVOTIONS AT CEMETERY

Ballynoe cemetery was partly illuminated last Sunday night, when after Benediction in St. Catherine's Church, a large crowd carrying lighted candles, visited it, led by Fr. Buckley, C.C., who recited prayers for the faithful departed and the choir present sang, "The Lord is my Shepherd". Suaimhneas siorai da n-anam go leir.

BALLYNOE SENIOR CITIZENS PARTY

The above will take place at Ballynoe Hall, after the 5.30 p.m. Mass in the local Church, on December 13, and it is expected to be bigger and better this time. Failte roimh cach.

THANKS

Concepta Brackett, Tallow Creamery, would wish to say a special thank you to all the Tallow farmers for their lovely presentation and good wishes on her marriage to Patrick O'Donoghue.

SINGING PUBS CHAMPIONS

Congratulations go to the Bally Inn who won the Hoffman's Singing Pubs competition last week, especially to 81-year-old Sean Fitzgerald who won the senior citizen award. Well done to all concerned.

IN ENGLAND

In England for the weekend was Miss Jenny Kirwan, Main Street., also on a tour of England was the present Kilmacthomas Mayor, Mr. Seamus Casey.

ST. DECLAN'S IN FINAL

Well done to St. Declan's College, Kilmacthomas who had a brilliant win over a fancied De La Salle side in Walsh Park on Wednesday last to reach the final where they take on the Friary, Dungarvan, at a date to be arranged. A special word of praise must surely go to their trainer, Mr. Sean Ahearn who has put in a lot of effort and time into this team.

DARREN MULHEARNE

Congratulations to 16 year old Kilmacthomas youths soccer goalkeeper Darren Mulhearn who won a County medal playing for Kilrossanty last week.

IN HOSPITAL

We wish a speedy recovery to that great sports personality, Mr. Johnny Gaisley, Ballyshunnock, who is at present a patient in the Waterford Regional Hospital.

IN COUNTY FINALS

Well done to local teams Bonmahon and Ballydurn who won their Eastern finals recently and we wish them the very best of luck in the county finals.

XMAS HAMPERS

Christmas hampers are now being played for at Danny Kirwan's every Friday and Saturday nights at 8 p.m. So why not drop in for a good old fashioned game of 30.

MONTHLY PARISH DRAW RESULTS

Lucky winners in the monthly parish draw last week are as follows: £150

— Nellie Power, Ballyshunnock; £50 — Joan Joy, Scrahan; £20 each — Albert Kearns, Bernadette Dunphy, Peter Queally, Grenan, Maureen Power, Knockmahon, and Chrissie Sullivan, Kill.

GOOD VICTORY FOR KILMAC' YOUTHS

The Kilmacthomas youths soccer side maintained their recent good form with an exciting 3-2 victory over Seaview Celtic on Sunday morning last. Kilmac' got off to a bad start and were 2-0 down at one stage of the game with both goals coming from the penalty spot. But then midway through the second half they started to put their game together and played some delightful football and goals from Michael John Kiely, David Kiely and David Kirwan saw them take two very valuable points.

Kilmac' line-out — Darren Mulhearn, Owen Lawlor, Paddy McGrath, Trevor Whelan, Alan Casey, Joe Joy, David Kiely, Patrick O'Reilly, Michael John Kiely, Brendan Whelan, Philip Dee, David Kirwan, Sam Battye, Sean O'Neill, John Curran.

We would like to wish a speedy recovery to Robert Murray who received a serious leg injury in this game.

KILMAC' ARE CO. CHAMPIONS

The Kilmacthomas

Under-16 football team are County champions after a thrilling victory 0-15 to 1-8 over Naomh Brid after extra time in the Friary, Dungarvan on Saturday last. The teams had ended all square 0-9 to 1-6 at full time but in extra time the Kilmac' boys played some great football to take the cup back to Kilmac'. So congratulations to all concerned for a well deserved victory.

The Kilmac' boys who did the village proud on Saturday last were as follows:— Finbarr McCarthy, Colin Crotty (capt), Pat Lawlor, Michael Lawlor, Paddy Morrissey, Paddy McGrath (0-1), Hugh Mulhearn, Patrick O'Reilly (0-5), John Long (0-1), Michael John Kiely, Neil Phelan (0-2), Colin Whelan, Enda O'Regan (0-2), Nicholas Flynn (0-1), Michael Downey (0-3), Nigel Griffin, Sam Battye, Kieran Flynn, Gerry O'Rourke, Darren Curran, Stephen Dee, Tommy McGrath.

G.A.A. SOCIAL

AEROBICS COURSE

We wish the very best of luck to Miss Majella Butler, St. Anne's Terrace, who has taken up an aerobics course in the Fitness College, Dublin.

Strauss Ball

Dungarvan Hockey Club held their annual Strauss Ball at Clonea Strand Hotel on Saturday night last. It was one of the most enjoyable nights for a long time, the decor of the new hotel adding that little extra glamour to the night

The Cork Strauss Orchestra began the evening with a few well chosen waltzes and played a special waltz for Kate Cagney and John O'Sullivan who had just got engaged that night. Congratulations to you both from Dungarvan Hockey Club.

Just before the jazz interlude Avic Kiely (President) gave a short speech, thanking everyone and called upon Clare Morrissey (last years President) to select the winning ticket for the 2 Ryanair tickets to London. The Ryanair tickets were won by Sheila Thornton. The rest of the evening went very well and when the last waltz finished there were shouts for more from a very satisfied audience.

Dungarvan Hockey Club would like to thank the following —

Ryanair for sponsoring the two return tickets to London. Pat Spratt of the Moorings who sponsored a meal for two in Moorings. Carmel Feeney of Merry's who sponsored a meal for two in Merry's. Clonea Strand Hotel for the use of their facilities and sponsoring a meal for two in the hotel. The sponsors for the Port/Wine Reception — Jim Nugent, Super Valu; Darrers Stores and Whitechurch House Hotel.

Thanks also to Mrs. Valerie Leo, who arranged the centre pieces on the tables for the night and thanks to Mrs. Kate O'Brien for all her help on the night.

A special thanks to Cork Strauss Orchestra for such a wonderful night.

And finally thanks to anyone who helped in any way. Especially the fundraising committee of Grainne Kelly, Kate Cagney, Kate O'Brien, Clare Morrissey, Tess Reynolds, Margaret Harty, Colin Power and Avic Kiely.

In Memoriam

FENNESSY — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear wife, Alice Fennessy, Coolisheal, Ballyduff Upper, who died on November 19, 1988.

It does not take a special day, For me to think of you, Each Mass I hear, each prayer I say, Is offered up for you. (Always remembered by your loving husband Jackie.)

FENNESSY — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Alice Fennessy, late of Coolisheal, Ballyduff, who died on November 19, 1988. R.I.P.

The voice is now silent, the heart now cold, The smile and the welcome that met me of old,

I miss her and mourn her in sorrow unseen, In my aching heart I know I have no mother now. (Always remembered by your loving daughter Breda.)

FENNESSY — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Alice Fennessy, late of Coolisheal, Ballyduff, who died on November 19, 1988. R.I.P.

I lost a mother with a heart of gold, How much I miss her can never be told, She shared my troubles and helped me along, If I follow her footsteps I will never go wrong. (Sadly missed by your loving son, Michael.)

FENNESSY — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Alice Fennessy, Coolisheal, Ballyduff Upper, who died on November 19, 1988. R.I.P.

Along the road to yesterday, That leads me straight to you, Are memories of happy days, Together we once knew. (Treasured memories — your loving son John and daughter-in-law Cecilia.)

FENNESSY — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear Mum, Alice Fennessy, late of Coolisheal, Ballyduff Upper, who died on November 19, 1988. R.I.P.

As time goes by without you, Mum, And days turn into years, They hold a million memories, And many a silent tear, I will never cease to love you, Mum, I will never cease to care, For you are always in my heart, And will stay forever there. (Sadly missed by her loving daughter, Sheila.)

KIRBY — Fourteenth Anniversary — In sad and loving memory of our dear mam, Alice, late of Coolydoody, Ballyduff, who died on November 16, 1975. R.I.P. Masses offered.

It was a sudden parting, Too bitter to forget, Those who loved you dearly, Are the ones who will never forget.

Your life was one of kindly deeds, A helping hand for others in need, Sincere and true in heart and mind, Beautiful memories left behind. The blow was hard, the shock severe, To part with you we loved so dear, Our loss is great, we'll not complain, But trust in God to meet again. (Sadly missed by your loving family.)

LACEY — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of Margaret, late of Kilwinny, who died November 16, 1987. R.I.P.

Your life was one of kindly deeds, A helping hand for others needs, Sincere and true in heart and mind, Beautiful memories left behind. (Always remembered by your loving family.)

McGRATH — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of our dear father, Joe McGrath, Monatrim, Lismore, who died on November 7, 1986. R.I.P.

Deep in our hearts you will always stay, Loved and remembered every day. (Always remembered by your loving family.)

POWER — Fourth Anniversary — In loving memory of Christopher, late of Ballinroad, Dungarvan, who died on November 15, 1985, aged 37 years. R.I.P.

Will those who think of him today, A little prayer to Jesus say. (Always remembered by Ann, Keith and Jenny.)

POWER — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of "Pop," Patrick Power, 31 Main Street, Dungarvan, who died November 24, 1987. Also Helen, whose anniversary occurs at this time. R.I.P. Our Lady of Good Counsel pray for them. (Inserted by their loving family.)

TOBIN — Fourteenth Anniversary — In loving memory of James Tobin, late of Bishopstown, Lismore, whose anniversary occurs November 22.

A father is a special gift, One you think will stay, You never think the day will come, When he has to go away. (Always remembered by his loving daughters Mary and Alice.)

WADE — Twenty-fourth Anniversary — In loving memory of Daniel Wade, late of 3 Lackenfune, Dungarvan, who died on October 28, 1965. R.I.P. Masses offered. Also Mary Wade, 3 Lackenfune, Dungarvan who died on September 7, 1979. R.I.P. Masses offered. Masses and prayers are all we can give.

These you will have as long as we live. (Always remembered and sadly missed by your loving sons, daughters, daughters-in-law and grandchildren, at home and away.)

Acknowledgment

POWER — The wife and family of the late James Power, Congress Villas, Dungarvan, wish to thank most sincerely all those who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; those who sent Mass cards, floral tributes, telegrams and those who attended at the removal, Mass and burial. A special word of thanks to Rev. Fr. Carey, Doctors Sullivan, Stacey, and Brennock, and to all the nurses who attended to Dad at his home; also to the Matrons, Sisters, nurses and staff of St. Vincent's and St. Joseph's Hospitals, Dungarvan, and to all the kind neighbours and friends. Mass will be offered for the intentions of all.

Month's Mind — Mass at St. Mary's Parish Church on Thursday, November 23, at 9.30 a.m.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Margaret Costin

It is with deep regret we record the passing of Margaret Costin, Ballygreen, Ring, which sad event occurred at her residence on Saturday last, November 11.

Removal was from her residence on Sunday evening to Ring church. Following Requiem Mass on Monday afternoon, interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To her sons, daughters and families we extend our deepest sympathy.

Full obituary next issue. (Funeral arrangements by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

Mr. Tom Lonergan

Removal was from Dungarvan hospital mortuary on Monday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church. Following Requiem Mass on Tuesday morning interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To her son John and families and relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.

Full obituary next issue. (Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

Tragic Death of Popular Dungarvan Personality

Following a search throughout the morning and afternoon last Sunday, the body of 84-year-old Michael Lyons, 2 Parkgate, Dungarvan was found on the seashore adjoining Kilossera on the outskirts of the town at about 4 p.m.

The late Mike Lyons worked for the building firm of E. O'Brien & Sons for a long number of years until he retired and he was popularly known in many areas for his jovial personality.

Mr. Lyons who was a native of Ballysaggart, Lismore, was reported missing by his daughter on Sunday morning. A search in which local gardai with members of the Civil Defence Organisation and members of the general public joined with friends of the Lyons family was at once started and led to the tragic discovery of his body later in the evening at 4 p.m.

FRIDAY NIGHT

Last Friday night we had a fashion show which was a tremendous success. This was organised by a group of girls in the club. The models were — Gayna Keating, Edwin Egan, Anthony Dixon, Annie Barry, Catherine Wright, Rebecca Skelscy, Breda Power, Elaine Sinnott, Linda Sinnott, Edward Dee, Pat Jordan, Ml. Fitzgerald — during the show they modeled a lot of cloths from nightwear to evening wear. A.G.M.

On Friday night, December 1, we will be holding our Annual General Meeting. Any adults who would like to get involved with the club or even go for the committee next year can let anyone on the committee know.

BASKETBALL

All-Ireland Semi-final for Dungarvan Sports Centre

On next Sunday at 5.15 p.m. the All-Ireland Basketball Men's Under-19 Cup semi-final will be held in the Sports Centre. This will bring to an end two days of basketball in which seven teams compete to gain a place in January's final in the Neptune Stadium.

The 'A' section is being held in Castleisland, Co Kerry and the 'B' section in Dungarvan. Travelling to Dundalk, Club Amber, holders Tramore, Waterford Glass, St. Patricks Kilkenny, Wildcats and Dungarvan's Weststar (sponsored by Dungarvan Credit Union).

This tournament is being sponsored by the ICS and last year the finals were televised from Cork and gave great excitement.

The Dungarvan side will be coached by Danny McGrath and it will include Danny Sheehan, Richard Fraher, Brendan Hayes, Colm Morrissey and Daren Wyse, all of whom played in last season's ICS Cup final, also John Tutty

(who has been selected for Munster), John Whelan, Ronan Hallahan and Kevin Wright (both of whom played for Waterford this year), Neil Carthy, Sean Jacobs, Conor Power, Dwane Cantwell and Kieran O'Mahoney.

The Dungarvan lads play at 10.45 a.m., 3.15 p.m. and 7.45 p.m. on Saturday, and hopefully in Sunday's semi-final at 5.15 p.m.

The Weststar Ladies (sponsored by Darrell's, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan) travel to Castledermot for their Under-19 Cup. This team is a mixture of youth and experience, led by Brigitte McGrath. Their bid for success will lie in their back-court performance and here they will look to Niamh Morrissey and Emer Enright. Also expected to give good performances will be Linda Lannen, Denise Clancy, Antoinette Cooney, Carmel Cooney, Claire Murphy, Deirdre Murphy, Michelle Mulcahy, Catherine Mulcahy and Jackie Mansfield. The team will be coached by John McGrath.

All roads lead to Dungarvan Sports Centre at the week-end with basketball action from 9.15 on Saturday morning to 10.30 p.m. on Saturday evening.

There are two quarter-finals on Sunday at 1.15 p.m. and 2.45, with the All-Ireland semi-final at 5.15 p.m. It's not often that Waterford County gets an All-Ireland semi-final and this is a game that shouldn't be missed.

DUNGARVAN RUGBY NOTES

GREAT CUP WIN FOR DUNGARVAN 9 CARRICK 7

Dungarvan advanced to the 2nd round of the O'Neill Cup with a spirited win over Carrick on Sunday last.

With scrum-half Mark O'Connor unable to play in his regular position (due to a shoulder injury) his place was filled by Nicky Hannigan who performed heroically.

ANDY HALLEY — Scored Dungarvan's 9 points.

The pack did very well in the scrums with our front "5" rock solid, while in the lineouts Eddie Lonergan (in his first cup match) and Sean Killigrew won plenty of good ball. The back row performed well with wing forward Eamonn Spratt very much to the fore and probably our "man of the match".

Dungarvan led 6-0 at half-time with full back Andy Halley kicking two great penalties.

However, in the second half Carrick came back with a try and a penalty to put them 7-6 ahead. So as we entered the last few minutes of the game Dungarvan were awarded a penalty from 40 metres. This was our last chance of victory, Andy Halley took this "pressure kick" and put it over to the delight of all Dungarvan folk.

Team— A. Halley, E. Phelan, D. Salmon, P. McGrath, M. O'Connor, M. Brackett, N. Hannigan, D. Dower, J. Morrissey (capt), L. O'Donnell, M. O'Halloran, E. Lonergan, E. Spratt, S. Killigrew, A. Curran. Res. — P. Mullaney for M. O'Halloran (inj).

WELL DONE

Coach Martin Hession and captain Jimmy Morrissey can feel very pleased with this win and we hope that it's the first of many.

N.B. — Good to see Michael O'Halloran back in action again.

2nd XV

Our 2nd XV received a walkover from Dunmanway and so collect two more league points.

ALL-BLACK VISITOR

A very distinguished "All-Black" Bryan Lochore former captain and coach to the world cup winning side in '87 was one of a group of N.Z. supporters who visited Dungarvan on Friday last. Club President Donal O'Regan presented him with a Club History and Club Honorary Membership.

PROVINCIAL TOWNS CUP

Dungarvan travel to Clonmel on Sunday for the 1st round of this cup and hopefully they can produce the goods to advance to 2nd round.

Kick-off in Clonmel 2 p.m.

FIXTURE

2nd XV v. Waterpark at Ballyrandle, kick-off time to be confirmed.

DRESS DANCE

Tickets for our Dress Dance (Saturday, December 1) are now on sale from Bryan Lineen I.P.B.S. Limited number available. Venue is Whitechurch House Hotel and music is by Colette and Cosmos.

IRELAND v. ALL-BLACKS

Tickets for the above game on Saturday next must be collected from Bryan Lineen by Thursday, next November 16.

LIVE MUSIC

Our first Saturday night of "Live Music" is on Saturday next, November 18 with local band "The Wishing Stones" in action. This group have built up a big reputation and are playing the Baggot Inn earlier this week. Should be a great nite-out. (See advert.)

CAUSEWAY TENNIS NOTES

GOOD NEWS!

Honours all around at the moment for our club. In the junior section our talented players have embarked on their various coaching programmes.

Travelling to the Tennis Village, Cork, from now until next June are Ann Brennan, David Brennan, Elizabeth Moloney and Julianne Veale. This programme is by far the most intensive so far in Munster and those selected are indeed very lucky to get this opportunity to better their tennis under the tutelage of Billy Bolster.

The South Eastern Regional squad under Billy Bolster caters for Judy O'Brien, Rachel Byrne, Kieran Higgins, Patrick Veale, Yvonne Byrne, Claire Dalton, Leah Harnett, and they should have a friendly match with the equivalent Cork squad later in the programme.

A similar squad has been set up for under-12 players under the care of Chris Power (St. Anne's) and supervised by Billy Bolster. Taking part in this are Derval Donnelly, Marie Sheehan, Ray O'Brien, Robert Flanagan, Stephen Stacey.

Quite a few of our other talented juniors have fallen between two stools age-wise, but we are optimistic that their motivation and practice will bring them into the foreground next year.

MUNSTER COUNCIL A.G.M.

At the recent meeting in Mitchelstown, Dungarvan tennis was well represented and should continue to be highlighted with the election of Ms. Suzanne Dalton to join Ruth Byrne facing into the second year on the Council as Vice-President. Alicia Browne, who has served Munster and local tennis to the best of her not inconsiderable ability, stands down this year after many years service. We know, however, that her interest will not wane and we hope that she will be there with a welcome word in our ears from time to time. Thank you for all that you have done throughout Causeway's history and the role you have played in upping the standard to the level we have attained today. We are confident that tennis will continue to prosper under the direction of our two representatives, Suzanne and Ruth.

AMERICAN DREAM LEAGUE

The abacus was taken out of the cupboard this month to count up all those important challenge points trying to gain that magical total of one thousand points. Despite a few hiccups, the league kept people playing on the courts despite some wintry weather.

WELL DONE

Outright winner is Emma Dalton with 2950 points from 37 matches. Following her closely is her sister Claire with 2750 points from 34 matches. In number three position is a relative newcomer, Sinead Conroy who achieved a score of 2550 points from 40 matches.

Prizewinners — Emma Dalton—2950, Claire Dalton—2750, Sinead Conroy—2550, Christina O'Riordan—1700, Yvonne Byrne—1550, Margaret Cunningham—1500, Julianne Veale—1500, Nicola Wall—1450, Jillian Dalton—1350, Ann Brennan—1250, Derval Donnelly—1250, Fiona Brosnan—1250, Clodagh Carthy—1200, Sarah Dalton—1200, Willie Dunford—1150, Aoife Carthy—1150, Susan Brosnan—1150, Joanna Cartwright—1100, Leah Harnett—1050, Brian Barrett—1050, Teresa M. Keane—1050, Theresa Keane—1050, Enda Donnelly—1000, Karen Phelan—1000, Moya Verling—1000, Maeve Carthy—1000, Michael O'Connor—1000.

Presentation of prizes will be at 5 p.m. on Saturday, November 18. All prizewinners are asked to attend. Another American Dream League will start on December 8 and finish on January 7, 1990. Entries in the usual way — fee must be handed in with each entry, otherwise not valid.

Good luck to our Winter League team who play their first round at home to St. Anne's next Sunday, November 19. All support welcome.

QUADRANGULAR AT TENNIS VILLAGE, CORK

Under-18 boys and girls from Ireland, England, Scotland and Wales will compete from Friday, November 17 to Sunday, November 19, if anyone is interested in travelling to see some top class tennis.

LADIES FOOTBALL

BALLYMAC' BID FOR GLORY

The All-Ireland Club Championship final takes place on Sunday, December 3. Ballymacarby take on the winners of the Hollymount (Mayo) and Rochfort Bridge (Westmeath) semi-final. The Leinster champions are warm favourites to qualify for their third All-Ireland final, even though they have yet to win the title.

They have come through a tough Leinster campaign having dethroned the reigning All-Ireland champions Adamstown (Wexford) and then defeated the Heath (Laois) after a replay in the final.

Hollymount were defeated by Ballymac' in the 1985 All-Ireland semi-final and again went under to the Waterford champions in the 1987 All-Ireland final played in Tullamore. They have survived an objection from the defeated Connaught finalists St. Grelans (Galway). If Hollymount qualify, the final will be played in Ennis, otherwise it will be played in Semple Stadium, Thurles, depending on their availability.

Dungarvan Badminton Club Notes

CHANGE OF TOURNAMENT DATE

The Haughey Cup tournament will now be held on Sunday, December 3, and not November 19 as previously announced.

3RD DIV. WIN DECISIVELY

The 3rd Div. won their match against Holycross on Thursday night last with a score of 6-2. This brings their total scores to 33 points.

THIS WEEKS GAMES

1st Div. v. Dunmore on Friday, November 17; 3rd Div. v. De La Salle on Monday, November 13; 5th Div. v. Dunmore on Tuesday, November 14; 6th Div. v. Old Parish on

Thursday, November 16. 5TH DIV. BEAT DE LA SALLE

The 5th Div. beat De la Salle on Tuesday night last 8-0. This brings their scores to 28 points after four games.

6TH DIV. HAVE EASY WIN

The 6th Div. beat Ferrybank last Tuesday night with a 7-1 score. Well done to all concerned.

MEMBERSHIPS ARE ON THE INCREASE

Each week a large number of new members join our ranks for the Thursday night club night. It is nice to see new members joining and we welcome them to our ranks.

Dungarvan Sea Angling Club Notes

Last Wednesday night saw the last of the prize giving ceremonies for 1989. The coveted Master Angler prize was taken by Tony Crowe with 396 points, a magnificent score. As is now a tradition the presentations took place in the Village Inn, Abbeyside and the Master Angler prize was sponsored by Maurice and Betty Dee, the proprietors.

The ladies had a great battle this year and Kay Cliffe took the Lady Angler trophy. This was sponsored by John Torrens of the Town and Country Garage, Abbeyside.

Both Master and Lady Anglers will next year (1990) compete in their respective categories as club representatives, we wish them both well in this arduous assignment.

Eddie Holohan the Bank of Ireland manager (new to Dungarvan) presented prizes for — (1) the greatest variety over the season to John Cronin; (2) the greatest number of conger to Tony Crowe; (3) the greatest number of fish to John Cronin. We wish Eddie well in his new position.

Our Annual General Meeting is on tonight (Wednesday, November 15) at 8.30 p.m. in the Anchor Bar. We expect you to show your support of the club by turning up in large numbers. — P.R.O.

Abbeyside Shore Angling Club Notes

I'll start this week by letting you know that there is still some time left for you to give in entries for our record fish section. It is open until the end of the month, and some weight's are very vulnerable and maybe this is your chance to get in your fish. The rewards are well worth it.

The "Proof Badges" for the record fish have finally come and those who don't receive them have a lot to be envious of, so for the 2 weeks or so left in the month, get to where the fish are, and maybe you could be one of the lucky ones to receive a record fish badge. — Sea Scorpion.

Got Top Price At Goff's National Hunt Sale

Michael Fennessy of the Aghern House Stud, Co. Cork and Ballinroone, Ballyduff Upper, who got the top price of 18,000 guineas for a two-year-old gelding at the opening session of Goff's National Hunt Sale on Wednesday of last week, re-invested some of the "take" when paying 15,000 guineas on Thursday for a yearling closely related to the brilliant Champion Hurdle/Gold Cup winner Dawn Run.

Sent in by Mr. Ken Rioridan, the bay colt by The Parson out of Lek Dawn who won on the flat and over hurdles, is a daughter of Twilight Slave the dam of Dawn Run and six other winners.

A RECORD
£1 MILLION PLUS
When the 3-day sale ended on Friday last, Goffs were in the happy position to announce that for the first time at their Kill (Co. Kildare) location transactions at their national hunt sale topped the million guineas mark.

Upwards of 300 lots were sold over the three days. At the final session on Friday it was a Co. Waterford bloodstock owner who again hit the top spot when Bobby McCarthy of the Beeches Stud, Tallow, sold two in-foal mares and a colt foal for 24,700 guineas, the 3-year-old Torus mare "Breeze Dancer," in foal to Lancastrian fetched 10,000 guineas — top price of the day.

The colt foal from The Beeches Stud by Lancastrian out of "Paupers Spring" from the family of the Irish Grand National winner "Sweet Dreams," "Credo's Daughter" and "Seskin Bridge," went to a new young bloodstock agent from Lismore, James Trigg, for 9,500 guineas, the second top priced lot.

"Lancastrian," a high-class racehorse in France, where he had nine individual winners in the first two crops, stands alongside "Buckskin" and "Le Moss" at the McCarthy stud.

Michael Fennessy of Ballinroone also figured again in the transactions on Friday purchasing a 4-year-old bay mare by Rushmore out of rising dipper for 5,200 guineas.

RACING

Dungarvan Winner At Gowran

"Thepugot" owned by Mr. Tom Coffey, Springmount, Dungarvan, and trained by David McGrath was a good 4/1 winner of the Handicap Chase at Gowran Park held under very testing conditions last Thursday.

Ridden by Tony O'Brien, "Thepugot" put up a good performance considering that it was his first run since scoring at Limerick last Christmas.

He jumped well throughout and proved much too strong for "Queen Alda" (2/1) from before the second last fence. The favourite "Fatal Hesitation" (5/4) made a lot of the early running but faded from the third last and "Thepugot" went on for a most impressive 5 lengths win.

MINNIES SQUASH CLUB NOTES

EXCITING CLIMAX TO BANK OF IRELAND

Our second team final — the Bank of Ireland — came to a close last Thursday night when Maurice Walsh led his team to an exciting 1-8 victory over Jack Elstead's team.

The fives were first on here. The match was prematurely abandoned in the second game when Christina Tobin had to retire with leg trouble. Her opponent was Josephine Harty. Josephine won the first game 10-8 but not before a score for Christina came from 1-6 to 8-6 with seven consecutive aces from serve. Result: Josephine won 1-8, 3-0 (3-0 in games).

The ones were second here and we were treated to a very enjoyable game of clean squash between the very fit Jimmy Kiely and the "ice man" Tony Keaver. In a game that took over an hour it was Jimmy who took the honours winning 3-2 (5-9, 9-5, 9-10, 9-5, 9-5).

At number four Pat Breen found his long drive back from Thurles plus the retrieving skills of Liam Treacy too much as Liam won 3-0 (1-9, 9-6, 9-5).

At number three we had Dave Tuohy and Anne Wyley. This was a good match for comebacks. In the first game Dave came from 2-7 to win 9-7, while in the second it was Anne's turn coming from 1-6 to 9-7. From then on it was Anne who took control as she ran out a 3-1 winner. Scores (Anne first): 7-9, 9-7, 9-0, 9-4.

In the decider it was racquetball winning hero Maurice Walsh who proved too sharp for flu victim Jack Elstead as he won 3-0 (9-7, 9-6, 8-5) to clinch victory for his team.

We would like to thank the Bank of Ireland for their excellent prizes.

ALLROUNDER MEN'S LADDER

By the time you read these notes, the first Ladder Leagues of the season will be completed. This week we take a look at the men's ladder and the current positions at the time of writing. In Division One Pat Phelan leads the way with 16 points from 3 matches; second, Eddie Moore 15 pts., 3 games; third, Stephen Lyons 11 (2); Michael O'Mahoney 10 (4) and Tommy Butler 10 (5). Sadly, Francis Power has been forced to retire from the ladder and other squash through a recurrence of his back trouble.

In division two Liam Hansberry leads with 19 (5) from Tony Keaver 17 (5); division three, Maurice

Walsh 17 (3) from Ray Moore and John Foley 15 (4); division four, Paddy Murphy 19 (5) from Pat O'Brien 17 (3); division five, Dick Brady leads 21 (4); division six, Owen O'Mahoney 19 (4), Division 7, Peter Stam 28 (5) division 8, Pat Breen 17 (4); division 9, Cindy Brady 28 (5); division 10 seems to be the closest section with Larry Kiely, Liam Moore and Luke O'Brien all on 16 points from 4 games.

On the points front, Cindy Brady and Peter Stam lead the way with 28 points with their programme completed. Dick Brady is third with 21 points with one game left.

OTHER NEWS

Our first racquetball final came to a close last week when victory by Maurice Walsh over Michael Fitzgerald gave his team victory. In the other ties Rose Dwane lost 2-0 (15-6, 15-10). The tournament was kindly sponsored by Doubles, O'Connell Street.

The second weekend of the Dungarvan Close is this weekend, November 18/19. All players are reminded to check the draw outside the committee room for times and venues.

Well done to Owen O'Mahoney who ventured up to the North last weekend for the Irish Close. Owen is the first club member to represent the club up in the North since Eddie and James Moore played for Munster ten years ago.

Our third tournament, the Trustee Savings Bank gets underway next Monday, November 20.

Our Open Weekend is scheduled for January 26 to 28. Thursday, December 14, is the date fixed for our annual Christmas Party. Members are advised to get their tickets early.

Tipperary Motor Club Notes

The Tipperary Motor club currently has some very well known people amongst its members. Ronan Morgan from Bluebell in Dublin is one of Ireland's top professional navigators. Ronan has navigated in many countries and for many people including Billy Coleman and Saeed Al Hajri, Middle East champion, navigator Ronan has given lectures for the club on navigation and will hopefully give another soon.

Frank Meagher from Feathard near Clonmel is one of Ireland's up and coming rally champions. Unfortunately finance and engine trouble have held him back for the past year or so, but 1990 might put him back on top.

John Hackett from Clonmel recently came second in the Irish Auto Cross championship. Congratulations to John for the highest ever placing of a Saloon car against the Autocross specials.

At the recent prize giving for the Foley Rally championship, first overall went to Neil Perry and M. Hennessey. Club members to do well were James and John Lambert, 3rd overall. Ian Pericho/Jim Duff, second in Class 1; Shan and Bea White, first in Class 2.

Next years championship starts with the Tipperary Forestry Rally.

Dungarvan Junior Hockey Notes

On Saturday, November 18, there is a basketball tournament in the Sports Centre so there will be no hockey for Group 1.

Group 2 will be playing an away match against Newtown School in Waterford.

The bus will be leaving from Minnies at 9.30 a.m. and will return at about 1 p.m. Please bring £2 for the bus fare. All players must wear tracksuits and strong runners, gum shields are recommended.

Group 3 will be having practice at Kilrush as usual on November 18.

On November 25, Group 3 will be playing away at Ursuline Convent, Waterford.

DUNGARVAN UTD. A.F.C. NOTES

DIVISION 1B LEAGUE

Blues Brilliant In Local Derby

DUNGARVAN 1; ABBEYSIDE 0

A Ger Beresford goal midway through the first half gave the Blues two vital league points over arch rivals Abbeyside at Kilrush Park on Sunday morning last.

This was a crucial win for Dungarvan as it keeps them well in the hunt for league honours this season. This was a highly entertaining and exciting local derby played in the right spirit and the large crowd were treated to some delightful football.

The visitors made a promising start and dominated the opening twenty minutes but our defence were in fine form with Donnelly and Hickey doing sterling work in the heart of the Blues defence. The villagers almost took the lead after ten minutes when danger-man T. Wade broke through but his shot struck the post and was scrambled clear. Dungarvan had another let off minutes later when Reynolds shot high over the bar after a great run. The Blues took the lead somewhat against the run of play after twenty minutes, a quick throw from Sheehan found Houlihan who cut inside one tackle and crossed low into the box and the inrushing Beresford steered the ball inside of McCarthy to open the Blues account. This goal settled Dungarvan and they finished the first half on top.

With the advantage of the breeze in the second half the Blues turned on the magic and almost went further ahead after 55 minutes. Hamilton's pass found Hughes who played the ball wide to Beresford who cut inside a tackle and squared the ball to the inrushing Hughes who sot inches over. The Blues were rampant now and Crotty combined to put Sheehan clear but McCarthy denied him with a fine save.

Dungarvan badly needed a second goal to make sure of the points and almost got it in the 70th minute, when Beresford jinxed his way to the end line and pulled the ball back for Hughes whose volley hit the crossbar and went over.

Heartened by these let-offs the visitors went in search of an equaliser and Wall had to be alert to keep out efforts from McGovern and Organ before the finish.

This was a great team performance by the Blues in which every player gave his all with Hughes and Beresford outstanding.

Team — J. Wall, G. Hamilton (capt), Ml. Donnelly, Ml. Hickey, B. Whelan, D. Crotty, J. Hughes, M. Houlihan, G. Beresford, T. Hamilton, B. Sheehan. Res. — M. Shalloe for M. Houlihan (60 minutes); M. Sheehan for T. Hamilton (80 minutes).

Ref. — Gene Roche.
Man of the Match — Johnny Hughes.

Ten Minute Lapse Cost Rovers

PINEWOOD 3 CARRIGLEA 1

We were away to Pinewood on Sunday last. The game produced very little good football, on a very soft pitch.

The first half was scoreless with Pa Ryan coming closest with their keeper making a good save. Midway through the second half a lapse in concentration allowed Pinewood in for three goals in a ten minute spell. We scored near the end when Darren Drummey scored from close range.

MUNSTER SENIOR LEAGUE

Solid Blues Get Valuable Points

DUNGARVAN 2 CROFTON CELTIC 0

Dungarvan had Crofton Celtic as visitors to Kilrush Park last Sunday afternoon for this game sponsored by M. & J. Meats. With both sides struggling at the foot of the premier division the two points were vital and a good overall performance saw Dungarvan emerge as worthy winners.

For the first time this season team managers John Walsh and Kealan O'Neill were able to put out the same side as the previous week. The visitors almost took the lead in the 4th minute when Pat Collins outpaced A. Hayes and C. Flynn but shot narrowly wide.

At the other end an R. Flynn cross was cleared off C. Flynn's toe and M. O'Sullivan headed into the side netting following a corner. B. McGrath who had a very good game, made an excellent save at the feet of Pat Collins shortly before P. Ferncombe opened the scoring. A fine pass by K. Foley found P. Ferncombe who beat the full-back before rifling home a powerful shot in the 39th minute. Just before half-time the visitors squandered another good chance to leave the half-time score at 1-0.

Crofton attacked strongly in the opening stages of the second half but K. Foley,

A. Hayes, W. Coward and J. Walsh stood firm. Gradually the Blues came back into the game and good work by both B. Coleman and G. O'Connor created a chance for the hard working Ray Flynn but the Crofton keeper made a marvellous reflex save. With 4 minutes remaining Dungarvan sealed victory. Ray Flynn won the ball in midfield and found Colum Flynn whose astute pass put Pepe Ferncombe clear and he made it 2-0

U-13 T.S.B. LEAGUE

Dungarvan Hammer Rathgormac

RATHGORMAC 1; DUNGARVAN 7

A hat-trick from S. Roche set us on our way to a well deserved away win on Saturday last. We were ahead at half time by 3-1, our goals came from John O'Mahoney, an o.g. from a great cross from Danny McGovern and Roche's first.

The second half saw Dungarvan well on top with some lovely football and it was only a matter of time before we would score again.

And so it was, 2 more from S. Roche — one a great free-kick from 30 yards and one each from Trevor O'Mahoney and T.

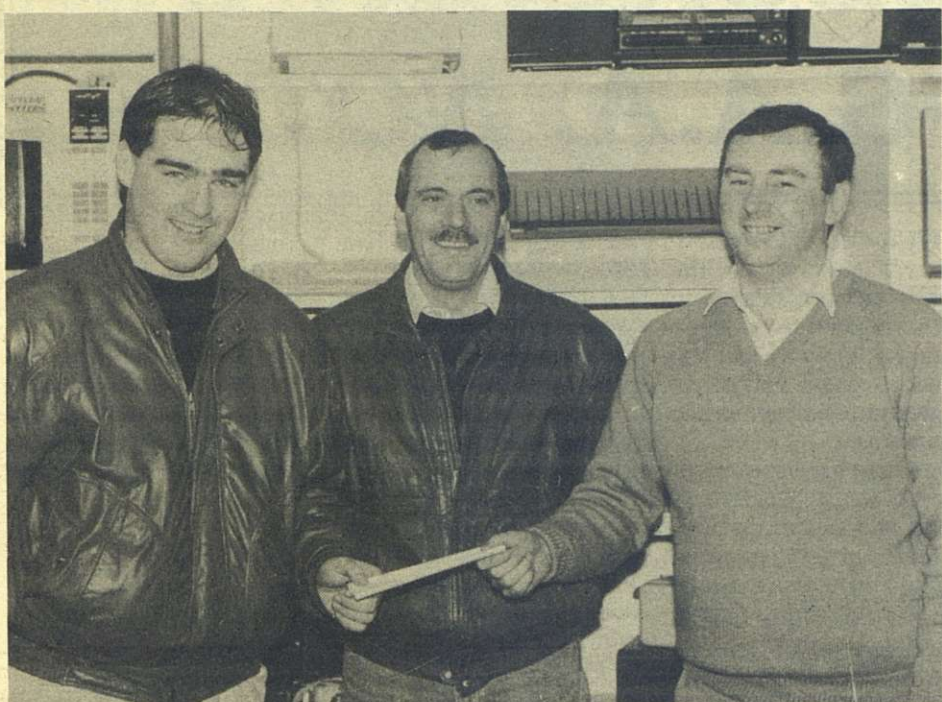

Butler, wrapped up the points.

So it is on to Kilkenny next for this squad as they play St. Anthony's Boys in the S.F.A.I. Cup on November 25. If the same effort is put in, we should get a good result there.

Man of the Match — John O'Mahoney.

FIFA World Cup (Group 6)

Charlton's Finest Hour (and a half)

Malta has been the sporting location on the news for the last few weeks with the corporate side of soccer, injunctions between sponsors and bonuses now being accepted as part of the build up for Ireland's most important world cup game.

How things have changed. My first recollection of Malta in a soccer context was when the then Waterford goalkeeper went to Valetta to work with an oil company for a few months and the loss he would be to the Blues who were then a few years from their league winning sequence. Dublin-based Tommy Taylor was a great favourite with Waterford supporters and he went on to win a cup final medal in Malta, but I believe he played at centre forward.

Maltese football and the name of Father Hilary Taglaiferro go hand in hand. Fr. Hilary, an Augustinian priest, has been the spirit of football and sport in Malta and is also a brilliant administrator. This has been reflected by the improvement in the standard of football and the recent dramatic construction of the National Stadium.

The Ta Qali complex is now recognised as one of Europe's best small venues for international football. In March 1983 the Republic of Ireland played the first international on the Ta Qali pitch which was in an awful condition at the time, but it has since been resurfaced and now sports a very good playing surface. In Horst Heese their West German national team manager, they have a hard task master who likes to think his team plays in a style midway between the English and Danish styles.

In my view, Malta's problem against Ireland in May in Dublin was the physical strength of the Irish game. Malta were tidy, played the ball around but lacked strength where it mattered in the penalty area, and this was again their undoing.

What of Ireland? Mick McCarthy's absence could leave the door open for David O'Leary's further rehabilitation under Jack Charlton. John Anderson has been added to the panel which has seen Steve Staunton get clearance to play, having missed games for Liverpool through injury.

Team — Bonner, Morris, Moran, O'Leary, Staunton, McGrath, Whelan, Houghton, Townsend, Aldridge, Cascarino. This could be the starting line-up but it is possible that McGrath might start in the back four instead of O'Leary with Sheedy coming into midfield.

WHAT OF IRELAND?
This game reflects the changes in approach to games under J. Charlton's unique style of management. Everyone knows what they have to do. The team selection, even allowing for injury, is settled, and with the comfort of Hungary playing Spain at the same time and needing a hat-full of goals, it's all over bar the shouting, and there will be plenty of that!

I feel Ireland will win with ease and wouldn't it be a good time for John Aldridge to break his world cup duck.

From my limited contact with the FAI, I have heard some stories of Jack Charlton's no nonsense approach to football and professional footballers. To best illustrate this I will quote from Eamon Dunphy's article of this weekend in the "Sunday Independent." This is his description of Frank Stapleton, especially his last paragraph, which says: "If called upon, he will do well — his survival and prosperity under the Charlton regime proves that the right manager can drive a horse to water and make him drink the water." The days of the slip-ups against the likes of Switzerland and Finland are gone, Italy beckons, Charlton's hour has come.

During the build up to the game the television coverage, its cost and the technical difficulties were explained and thankfully resolved, so you can tune in on Wednesday at home or you can try the atmosphere of your local to help raise the spirits! Bear a thought though for the spokesman from the Confederation of Irish Industry who pointed out the possible cost in absenteeism this coverage could cause. Without wanting to sound irresponsible, after all the effort and cost, does he not want us to watch it?

All together now — "We're going to Italy. Que sera sera. — B.K.

BALLINROAD A.F.C. — DIV. 3A

Ballinroad Slip Up Again

HIBERNIANS 2 BALLINROAD 1

Following their fine win over Tycor the previous week Ballinroad were expected to account for Hibs on Sunday morning last, but in very bad conditions they failed to capitalise on a good start which saw Pat Flynn crash home a great goal after 10 minutes. Even with this goal advantage the home side were not playing well and it came as no surprise when Hibs scored the equaliser direct from a corner in the 30th minute.

The loss of Ray Burke through injury early in the second half robbed Ballinroad of their best player and they were fighting an uphill battle from there on in. Hibs scored the winner in the 80th minute after at least three Ballinroad players failed to tackle the winger who set up the centre forward to score from close range.

SEAVIEW CO-OP DRAW
Unfortunately we had no winner in the first draw on Saturday night last. We sold 555 tickets for this draw which makes us the second highest sellers.

Well done and thanks to all concerned.

SYMPATHY
Sincere sympathy is extended to the Walsh family, Ballinroad Cross on a recent family bereavement; also the Hayes family, Dungarvan on the death of their daughter. Her brother Peter is a former player of our club and her father, Matt is well known to us through his involvement with schoolboy football. May they rest in peace.

DIV. 4 Ballinroad Hold League Leaders

PORTLAW 1 BALLINROAD 1

This was a well deserved point for Ballinroad against league leaders Portlaw on Sunday morning last.

Ballinroad fell behind to a rather soft goal but showed great determination to score an equaliser through Micheal Dwyer. It was good to see Dixie back in charge after a recent illness.

Glenview AFC Notes

Ballyduff 2, Glenview 1

The result will tell you that Glenview lost away to Ballyduff. What it doesn't tell you is that Glenview's performance was excellent. We played with a commitment and determination throughout, with our team-work and work rate first class. We attacked whenever possible and this game could have gone either way.

Ballyduff struck first with a scrambled goal but within five minutes we were level. Pat Hallissey's shot was well saved by the keeper but he could only parry the ball out to Johnny Kett, who beat the keeper with a beautifully judged chip into the top corner of the net.

The second half saw chances at both ends, but Glenview's defence held firm until a hopeful shot by an attacker got a wicked deflection and we were behind once more. We continued to push forward but a number of chances were missed, the worst when a mix-up in defence left McGrath with only the keeper to beat, but he amazingly shot wide.

This was our best performance of the season and we deserved at least a share of the points.

Team — Casey, Power (G.), McBride, Power (J.), Dolan, Duggan, Kett, O'Donnell, Lonergan, Hallissey, McGrath. Subs. — Coleman, O'Rourke and Marks.

St. Patrick's G.A.A. Notes

LADIES FOOTBALL

The final of our four team 7-a-side tournament was played in Bohadon on November 1. Norma Wall's team beat Paula Nugent's team by 14-3 to 13-3 in a superb match which had both excitement and good football. It is strongly rumoured that some girls are better than the boys and John Kiely who refereed the final was scouting for next years Under-16 football already. This tournament was a great success thanks to the great commitment of Johnny Landers throughout the season. The girls improved very well in their football skill due to the coaching. They won the National Schools competition.

Congratulations to Norma's team, to the Player of the Year, Colette Flynn who had an outstanding season and to Theresa Queally who is the most improved player of the year.

Teams who participated were:

Winning Team — Team B — Norma Wall (capt), Denise Nugent, Honour O'Brien, Clare Byrne, Siobhain Hickey, Anne Morrissey.

Runners-up — Team C — Paula Nugent (capt), Sinead Wall, Brigid Dalton, Julie Byrne, Elaine Fraher, Theresa Queally. Sub. - Sinead Dalton.

Team A — Trina Wall (capt), Martina Beresford, John Fitzgerald, Aoife Hickey, Claire McGrath, Marie Morrissey.

Team B — Claire Fitzgerald (capt), Catherine Walsh, Colette Flynn, Angela Byrne, Orla Fitzgerald, Sinead Dalton, Michelle Devereux.

VICTORY DANCE

A very enjoyable family night was held in Queally's Lounge on November 1. The very large attendance saw John Kiely present the awards to the ladies football tournament finalists and the players of the year awards. Our annual social will be held on Friday night, December 22, at the same venue.

SCHOOLS FOOTBALL

Coolnasmea/Kilbrien beat An Rinn last week 6-3 to 0-0 with a good performance in poor conditions at Bohadon. They now play Touraneena in their fourth successive final against the same opposition who have won all three finals. The final will be played as soon as possible.

Team — S. Fennell, B. Dunford, R. Keane, D. Ryan, R. Cass, M. Flynn, K. Dunford, P. Lynch, D. O'Brien, K. Casey, A. Corcoran. Sub. used — P. Morgan for S. Hickey.

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. NOTES

OUR COUNTY MEN

It was good to see the club with representation in both National League games at Fraher Field last Sunday when Waterford drew with Clare in hurling and football.

Because of late withdrawals Peter Queally was called into the hurling team at midfield and acquitted himself very well indeed before being substituted at the interval.

Alma Mater, the CBS on a decisive 5-6 to 0-1 victory over Abbesside N.S. in the West Waterford primary schools football championship last Saturday.

The boys played some delightful football and that augurs well for the future of the club. Congratulations and thanks also to teachers Tony Ryan and Pat Curran on the tremendous work they are doing with the boys.

FINAL EXECUTIVE MEETING

A year of hectic, almost non-stop, activity drew to a close for the members of the club executive with the holding of the final meeting of the year last Wednesday night.

Next on the agenda of course is the most important meeting of all, the AGM, and it takes place in the Atrium at Lawlors Hotel on Tuesday, December 5.

As is now traditional the AGM will be preceded by Mass for all deceased players and members of the club. The Mass will be celebrated at the Friary Church at 7.30 p.m. and we are hoping for a big turnout.

EXPENSIVE YEAR

While all the officers are busily preparing for the AGM one of the busiest over the coming weeks will be our treasurer Noel Sheehan.

His presentation of the statement of accounts on December 5 will make very interesting reading indeed and no doubt will graphically show just how expensive an exercise it is to run a club like ours in any given year.

SYMPATHY

On behalf of everyone in the club I would like to extend sincere sympathy to former hurling great John Kiely, and the entire Kiely family, on the death of John's mother which took place last Sunday.

Ar Dheis De go raibh a h-anam dilis.

Peter can only benefit from the experience gained and we hope to see him given another chance in some of the games ahead.

In the football game Dermot Callaghan played very well and made a number of scores for colleagues, and wasn't it good to see our former clubman David Burke back in the action and doing his bit in the cause of the county.

Irish Handball Council Launches Patrons Scheme

Details of a Handball Patrons Scheme have been announced by the Irish Handball Council at a function at Croke Park. The Scheme provides an opportunity for and invites people interested in handball to contribute to the funding of a development scheme for the game.

Speaking at the launch of the scheme G.A.A. President, John Dowling, said: "Everyone involved in any capacity in handball shares a joyful enthusiasm for this great game which completes a trio of Gaelic sports which have played such a vital role in the cultural and social life of this country through many decades."

In complimenting the Handball Council on initiating the development plan Mr. Dowling said he was very pleased to see that remarkable progress had been made by Handball and G.A.A. Clubs during the last two decades in providing 250 covered international sized handball courts throughout the country. He also commented on the very notable contribution which Irish handball has made to international handball and added that this has been enhanced in recent years by the major success of Irish players in the World, U.S.A. and Canadian Handball Championships.

Launching the Patrons Scheme, Mr. Michael Tyrell, President of the Irish Handball Council, said "the time was right for bold and decisive action to develop the game to its full potential and the Irish Handball Council had formulated plans to achieve this development. These plans included the introduction of mini-handball to Primary Schools, further coaching courses for teachers and student teachers, the publication of additional coaching and promotional literature and a Handball newsletter."

THREE CATEGORIES

Patrons may contribute to the Scheme in any one of three categories — £10, £50 or £100 — over a three year period in return for which the benefits, depending on the category, include a handball tie in county colours, tee-shirt, sports shirt and designer sweater, each with the handball crest. Patrons also qualify for draws for tickets for provincial and All-Ireland hurling and football finals and they will also be listed in the Annual Report of the Irish Handball Council.

A brochure on the Handball Patrons Scheme is available from Lorcan O'Ruairc, National Administrator of the Irish Handball Council at Croke Park, Baile Ath Cliath 3.

DUNGARVAN HOCKEY NOTES

GREAT WIN FOR MINOR B'S

Both Dungarvan teams played at (home) to Cork club Ashton in Fermoy on Saturday last, the minor B team winning 3-1, the minor A team losing 3-1.

MINOR B LEAGUE DUNGARVAN 3 ASHTON 1

Dungarvan's best performance of the season ended in a well deserved 3-1 victory for the home side. The game was won in the first half, Siobhan Kelly giving Dungarvan the lead early in the game with a fine shot following a short corner. Roisin Foley, the most outstanding player on view scored the second following a brilliant solo run. The third goal was again scored by Roisin Foley with a blistering drive following some excellent Dungarvan play. Ashton scored their consolation goal late in the game.

The result was due to Dungarvan's superb teamwork with all players excelling themselves.

Team — Yvonne Landers, Grainne Kelly (capt), Anne Bones, Catherine Tobin, Mary Kearns, Roisin Foley, Nora Barry, Mary Murphy, Mary Keane, Siobhan Kelly, Ann Ryan.

Player of the Match — Roisin Foley.

Umpire — Tom Gartland.

MINOR A LEAGUE DUNGARVAN 1 ASHTON 3

Dungarvan started the game well and took the lead midway through the first half, Tess Reynolds the scorer.

The score was 1-0 to the home team at half time. Ashton put more pressure on the Dungarvan defence during the second half and scored three times, two goals coming from penalty flicks. It was a disappointing result for Dungarvan.

Team — Yvonne Landers, Gillian Dunne, Avicé Kiely, Bernie Power, Martha Harnett (capt), Roisin Foley, Martina Moore, Kate Cagney, Tess Reynolds, Christine O'Keeffe, Karen Dempsey. Sub. — Ann Bones.

Best for Dungarvan — Gillian Dunne.

Umpire — Tom Gartland.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Waterford Share The Points

CLARE 1-15
WATERFORD 3-9

A penalty goal by Jim McGrath on the stroke of time earned Waterford a share of the spoils when they clashed with Clare in their Div. 3 South National Football League game at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last.

It was a fitting result to an entertaining game played under the new rules and while the game was free flowing with little hold ups, the actual four quarter periods lent nothing and were if anything, detrimental rather than helpful.

Clare were the dominant force in the first half and a goal from Frank McEmmerney after 18 minutes helped them to a 1-2 to 0-1 lead.

Seven minutes from the break a great shot from Waterford's Liam Daniels was parried by Clare keeper Joe Hanrahan but Michael McGrath was on hand to steer the ball to the Clare net.

This goal kept Waterford in touch and they trailed by 1-6 to 1-1 at the break. They mounted a strong fight back in the second half and by each after ten minutes. They fell two points behind going into the final quarter but a good goal from John Power put them into the lead for the first time in the game in the 46th minute.

Clare equalised through Aidan O'Keeffe shortly after but within a minute David Burke again had Waterford in front.

The home side lost their momentum after this and Clare stormed back for four points without reply. The visitors looked to have both points saved but a last ditch effort by Waterford saw Jim McGrath fouled and the Brickey man coolly shot home the equalising goal from the penalty spot.

Scorers — Clare — J. McEmmerney 1-1; T. O'Neill 0-5; A. O'Keeffe 0-4; J. Enright 0-2; D. O'Keeffe, P. O'Shea and J. Murray 0-1 each. Waterford — J. McGrath 1-1; M. McGrath and J. Power 1-0 each; L. Dalton, C. Mac Craith and T. Corcoran 0-2 each; D. Casey and D. Burke 0-1 each.

Clare — J. Hanrahan, F. Griffin, G. Jordan, M. Rouine, D. O'Keeffe, M. Comyns, N. Roche, A. Moloney, F. McEmmerney, J. Roche, J. Murray, T. O'Neill, A. O'Keeffe, P. O'Shea, M. Flynn. Subs. — J. Enright and J. Roche.

NATIONAL HURLING LEAGUE

Waterford Hurlers Force A Draw

WATERFORD 1-14 CLARE 3-8

A Waterford side hit by late defections did well to force a draw with Clare in their Division 2 National Hurling League tie played at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last.

A point from a free two minutes into injury time from the stick of Kieran Delahunty earned Waterford their vital league point but it was nothing less than the Deise side deserved following a great fight back to retrieve a disastrous looking situation when a hiding looked to be on the cards.

With Liam O'Connor and Jimmy Beresford absent from midfield the selectors started with a Peter Queally - Paudie Prendergast combination in this area. Billy Sullivan too also cried off and Maurice O'Keeffe came on to fill the right half forward berth.

The home side were a bag of nerves in the opening minutes and were rocked by a Clare goal from Cyril Lyons after just two minutes. With the defence in total disarray Clare piled on early pressure and Michael McNamara shot a point after four minutes.

Three minutes later there was even worse disaster when Clare won a semi-penalty and Cyril Lyons weak shot ended up in the Waterford net.

Clare were rampant and points followed from Cyril Lyons, 8th and 11th minutes and Michael Guilfoyle 13th minute to leave them 2-4 to nil clear.

Waterford looked to be on a hiding to nothing at this stage but Kieran Delahunty's pointed free in the 14th minute heralded a great fight back which produced four points on the trot to leave Waterford two goals down with seven minutes left to the break.

BADLY NEEDED

The goal the home side so badly needed came in the final minute of the half when a great solo by Kieran Delahunty ended with the Roanmore player finding full forward Pat Ryan unmarked and the Mt. Sion man made no mistake from close range.

Clare led 2-6 to 1-5 at the break but a rejuvenated Waterford side really had them under pressure in the third quarter.

The move which brought Gerry Connors to midfield was the point saver for Waterford. Connors played inspired hurling throughout the second half and three points from Delahunty and one for sub. Eamon Cullinane brought the sides level at 2-6 to 1-9 going into the final quarter.

A point from Delahunty from a free gave Waterford the lead for the first time in the 47th minute.

FIRST SCORE

Cyril Lyons had Clare's first score of the half, a point in the 49th minute but Waterford struck back immediately with a Kieran Delahunty point from a "65" nine minutes from time.

Disaster struck for Waterford in the 53rd minute when Michael Guilfoyle was let through for a Clare goal and when Martin Nugent added a great point shortly after it looked as if Waterford's great effort had been in vain. But the home side refused to accept defeat and they battled back with a Kieran Delahunty point three minutes from time and the team captain's equalising point in the 32nd minute was a score Waterford richly deserved.

While Waterford were relieved to earn a draw they must count the chances missed by a forward division which squandered quite a number of chances during the hour.

The loss of Ger Fitzpatrick through injury in the second half was also a great blow to the side because the centre-half had been hurling extremely well until injured.

Scorers — Clare — C. Lyons 2-3; M. Guilfoyle 1-3; M. McNamara and M. Nugent 0-1 each. Waterford — K. Delahunty 0-12; P. Ryan 1-0; P. Prendergast and E. Cullinane 0-1 each.

Clare — L. Doyle, S. McMahon, J. Minogue, A. Daly, K. O'Neill, J. Russell, N. Romar, M. Deasy, D. O'Loughlin, M. McNamara, F. Carrig, C. Lyons, M. Nugent, T. Guilfoyle, M. Guilfoyle. Subs. — T. McMahon for Deasy, G. Fitzpatrick for A. O'Keeffe.

Waterford — J. Power, S. Cullinane, N. Warren, S. Prendergast, T. Sheehan, G. Fitzpatrick, D. Foran, P. Queally, P. Prendergast, M. O'Keeffe, S. Ahearne, K. Delahunty, P. Prendergast, P. Ryan, G. Connors. Subs. — E. Cullinane for Queally, S. Frampton for S. Cullinane, O. S. Cullinane for Fitzpatrick.

STRADBALLY G.A.A. NOTES

SALE OF WORK

On Sunday next, November 19, the club's annual Sale of Work takes place in the Social Centre starting at 1.30 p.m. Some great bargains will be on the stalls, which will include cake stall, bottle stall, clothes-vegetable stalls, etc. But the real attraction will be the spinner with lots of valuable prizes. The club's raffle will also take place during the course of the afternoon plus a raffle for a beautiful Christmas cake. Lot's of other items on display, don't forget it — A great day is assured.

A.G.M.

On Tuesday night next, November 21, the club's A.G.M. takes place in the Social Centre at 7.30 p.m. It's expected that a huge crowd will be present for what is the most important meeting of the year. The Chairman, Tom Cunningham will preside over the meeting, secretary Eoin O'Brien will give a full account of the year's events and treasurer John Crotty will give an account of the finances. As well details of the Social Centre activities during the year will be given by Mrs. Margaret Cunningham, who was also under-age secretary for the year.

IT'S HARD WORK NOWADAYS!

It is certainly hard work now running a club, particularly with the Social Centre. It takes great commitment from everybody to run a club nowadays — so when Tuesday night comes — be prepared to help the club and go forward for positions because it would certainly ease the burden on everybody. So don't forget and come along and help plan our club activities for 1990.

ON C.B.S. COLLEGE TEAM

Our club under-age player Stephen Cunningham was on the Dungarvan C.B.S. under-15 college's team, which had a fine victory last week in the championship. Also on the team was Niall Considine, son of our former player Tom Considine. This was a great victory and we wish them well in the future.

MUNSTER CAP

Congratulations to our club player, Eoin Phelan on winning a Munster rugby cap on Saturday last v. Leinster, which ended in a draw. Well done Eoin.

CARD WINNERS

Winners of Cards last weekend were Denis Roche, Kevin Roche, Noel Costelloe and P. J. Coleman who shared the top prize while lucky table winners were Mrs. Peggy Walsh and Mrs. Anna Darcy.

CARDS

On Monday night next, November 20, the very popular Progressive 45 card game continues, with some great games in store — all money given out — jackpot still to be won — come and play a game with your friends. Please note 8.30 p.m. sharp.

ON COUNTY UNDER-16 TEAM

Club player Paul Foley was on the County U-16 football team, which was beaten by Tipperary recently. Paul again gave a fine display.

THE POPULAR "DEISE SOUND"

On Sunday night next, November 19, it's the turn of Deise Sound to provide the music for members and friends. This should prove an excellent night.

Watch-out for Sunday night week, November 26, when the big-time "Normad's" Band return to the Centre. Certainly all dancing fans cannot miss this popular band — Make it a date.

ON COUNTY TEAMS

Club players on the County teams last weekend were — Fintan O'Brien, David Kirwan, Liam O'Connor, along with selector Joe Curran. Best wishes to Liam O'Connor who will be playing for Erin's Own in the County intermediate hurling final on Sunday night.

WELCOME HOME

Good to see the popular Mrs. Marie Curran out and about again after her stay in a Dublin Hospital.

10TH ANNIVERSARY SOCIAL

The club's social and 10th Anniversary will now go ahead on Friday night, December 8 in the Centre, starting at 8.30 p.m. (sharp). Catering for the event will come from outside sources, only a limited number of tickets will be available for this big event. Full details on this event next week.

JUVENILE SCOR

The time is now approaching for Juvenile Scor and our dancers will be to the fore again plus competitors in the other events, so let's hope we have a good run in these competitions.

BIG WIN FOR ST. DECLAN'S

St. Declan's College Kilmac advanced to the county final after their great win over De La Salle last weekend. It was certainly a great achievement for St. Declan's and in particular trainer Sean Ahearne, who has got a good side together. Other Stradbally players involved were — Paul Foley and Richard Gough. We wish them well in the county final.

RAFFLE WINNERS

Winners of the raffle last Saturday night were: Bottle of Whiskey — Michael Coffey, Lisard; Christmas Cake — Mrs. Breda Cunningham, High Street; Voucher — Mrs. Condon, Chapel Lane.

NEXT WEEKEND

● 3 Hurling Co. Finals At Walsh Park

● Waterford Play Limerick In the N.F.L. At Fraher Field

● U-21 Football Final At Stradbally

Like some of us who were disappointed at not being able to see the Ardmore/Fenor county hurling final at Portlaw last Sunday, very many of our supporters will feel bad about having to miss some of the action on Sunday. With top-class games at three venues patrons will be faced with making a difficult choice.

WATERFORD v. LIMERICK

Following their very spirited display in coming back to draw with Clare on Sunday, Waterford footballers must have a chance of reversing the Munster championship result when Limerick gave us a drubbing in Askeaton in May.

In recent times, there has been very little between these counties in football and were it not for a few defensive blunders and the missing of a penalty on our side, the game in Askeaton could have shown a different result. Anyway on present form there is not a lot between us, if we discount our awful display against Kildare and regard our dismore in the Clare as being potential, we must have a chance of beating Limerick, who pipped Tipperary by 2-13 to 1-14 two weeks ago after the Tipp. side ran out of steam in the final quarter. It was at this stage that Limerick's top players, Owen Sheehan (who scored 1-6 of their total), Timmy Cummins, Paddy Barrett, Joe Reddington, Tom Browne and D. Fitzgibbons show their true mettle in overpowering Tipperary. All the above played against us in the championship.

On Sunday after the Clare game, our football selectors became aware of the problem of Tom Walsh, the Nire who performed very well at full back, but who will be required for duty with Fourmilewater in the hurling final on Sunday. His loss will pose a serious problem for the selectors, who don't have an abundance of talent at the moment. Should the big Nire defender who turned out on Sunday, despite having played in the Under-21 semi-final only 24 hours earlier, become available for some reason or other, it is likely that Waterford may field the team which finished on Sunday last.

Limerick will field as favourites and will come here confident that they can repeat the Askeaton result, but if we play to last Sunday's form we could reverse that result. A win in this game would do a power of good for Waterford Football.

FOURMILEWATER v. ERIN'S OWN

Although having to field without county full back, Damien Byrne, Erin's Own — once the most renowned named in Waterford hurling — will fancy their chances of qualifying for senior status again.

They last played senior in 1969 and have since been playing intermediate without success. The men whom they will look to in Connort, will be Liam O'county and province and whose hurling ability is well known, full-back Tim Byrne, Noel Kelly — county and under 21 minor player, David Robinson, Ger Dowling, Michael and Billy Coady and company. They won the Eastern divisional championship very decisively and must now fancy their chances of taking the county title as well.

Fourmilewater who won the intermediate hurling championship in 1979 and spent some years in the top grade contested last year's county final and were beaten by Passage, who have since made a splendid impression in the senior championship. They have played very good hurling all through the divisional campaign this year and did not suffer a single defeat throughout and having victories over Mollerans, Tramore, Kilgobinet, Stradbally and St. Saviours, before meeting Shamrocks and drawing with them in the semi-final. They defeated Shamrocks by 2-10 to 2-5 in a great replay.

On that form they must be given a great chance to win and regain senior status and become the third club in the county to hold dual senior status. In their line-out will be Tom Moore, B. Ryan, Pat Harte, Tom Walsh, Kevin Mulcahy, Richard Guiry, Pat Walsh, Tony Condon, Pat and Billy Walsh, Ger Walsh, P. J. Mulcahy, Paddy J. Ryan who saved the day for the club in the drawn match and who has contributed a total of ten points in their last two matches and Sean Guiry and Michael and E. Wall.

A win for the Western champions would take some of the sting out of their heartbreaking football defeat and the county certainly won't begrudge the players this title, if it comes their way. On the score of skill and experience Fourmilewater should win.

ST. MARY'S v. BALLYDURN

The Touraneena club remain the only ones in line for a hurling and football double and what a wonderful achievement this would be at the end of the eighties.

Ballydurn, who have been very much in the news in the past couple of years are one of the oldest hurling units in the county — they having won Waterford's second official hurling championship — way back in 1889 — exactly a century ago. So for them to take this title would certainly crown their centenary year and give them good reasons for celebrating.

To help them achieve a victory they will have Jim and John Harney, sons of Joe who was one of our '57 and '59 stars, Nick and John Hally, Billy Walsh, Michael Hubbard and company, but will have to field without Peter Queally, who is one of their stars, but who was sent off in the semi-final.

St. Mary's who have been in the intermediate grade before having won the title in 1983, will have the experience, but many of their young players will find the going pretty tough against their more matured opponents.

In the Western final St. Mary's gave one of their very best hurling performances in recent times and if they can now manage to reproduce this form then, John Fitzpatrick, B. Tobin, John Dalton, Roger McGrath, Pat and John Hallinan, Pat Hearne, Declan Fitzpatrick, Tom Condon, Kieran Hallahan, Lar Whelan, Declan Whyte, Eamon Butler, Ed. Lonergan, Ger Butler and company can lead the great Touraneena club to an historic victory.

LISMORE v. BALLYGUNNER

This under 21 hurling county final is fixed for Walsh Park on Saturday and if it is as good as it promises to be, it will be a thriller.

reigning champions are the being able to field no fewer than 13 of last year's team, they must be strongly fancied to retain the title.

With so many well known county players like Ray Whitty, Nial Warren, Stephen Frampton, Billy Sullivan, Eddie Brennan, Ml. O'Mahony, Cian Cantwell, Ml. Flynn, etc., in their line-out they must be the favourites to keep the title.

Lismore who are unquestionably the under-age specialists of the eighties and had their minor county championship hopes dashed by a last minute score by De La Salle in a great final will be hopeful of gaining some compensation here.

In the West they defeated Abbeyside by a couple of goals before gaining a 2-11 to 0-3 victory over Tallow, who were the reigning divisional champions.

It is very difficult to see this present Ballygunner side lose and if Lismore succeed, it will certainly be one wonderful achievement. We wish the Western champions the very best of luck.

UNDER 21 FOOTBALL THRILLER EXPECTED

Affane And Kilrossanty Clash In Divisional Final

Although the Eastern Under-21 football championship is not expected to be completed for at least another month, selectors have decided Kilrossanty playing Affane at Stradbally.

The situation in the Eastern division shows this championship to be running behind schedule. On Saturday last St. Saviours received a walk-over from Roanmore and Saviours have now qualified for a semi-final meeting against Gaultier in three weeks' time. Rathgormack and Portlaw are due to play in the other semi-final.

Barring a draw at Stradbally, the Western division, playing their last final in the normal championships, will be in a position to cry halt to the seasons activities, unless they decide to proceed with the divisional intermediate hurling championship — which is regarded as a very secondary competition and is arousing very little interest.

Affane and Kilrossanty will surely 'play us out' in style, if they can both reproduce their best form.

Convention Time Again!

It now seems certain that both the County and Western conventions will be held at Rinn O gCuanach in January next.

The County convention is being held there as a means of honouring a Gaeltacht club during its centenary year and the venue had already been chosen by the Western Board at the request of the club.

The official date of the divisional convention is Thursday, January 18, and the County convention, presuming that it will follow tradition, will take place on Saturday, January 27.

County Bord na nOg convention is fixed for Dungarvan on December 11.

JUNIOR HURLING 'B' FINAL

Ardmore Are Champions After Extra Time In Replay

Ardmore 3-10, Fenor 2-12

It is only on the rare occasion that replays live up to the standard of the drawn game, or produce the same level of excitement experienced in the first match, but by all accounts this was different and according to one neutral observer who gave me a great account of the game on Sunday night, this replay left the drawn match 'in the halfpenny place.'

This is saying something as having been present at the first game, I really believed that the replay could not or would not produce the same thrills and excitement as when Ardmore came back for a last minute goal to draw with Fenor on the last Sunday in October.

In this game the first half was dominated by Ardmore who, on the run of play, might have been further in front than the 2-2 to 0-3 scoreline showed. At the end of the hectic second half the teams were locked together with Fenor having fought back very determinedly and end with 1-8 as against 2-5 for Ardmore who slackened a while in this period.

Extra time was played and Ardmore were five points in front at one stage before Fenor came back at them to level near the end. Then, a Nicky Keating point gave the game and the title to the Western champions.

While it was a game in which every player played his part, Ardmore's undisputed man-of-the-match was goalkeeper and captain Jamsie O'Donnell. The huge Ardmore crowd of supporters made every man a hero when they surged on to the field after the final whistle.

County Chairman, Eamon Murphy, when presenting the cup to Jamsie O'Donnell, paid tribute to both clubs for a wonderful final.

RESULTS

N.H.L. Waterford 1-14; Clare 3-8

N.F.L. Waterford 3-9; Clare 1-15

JH B Co. Final (R) Ardmore 3-10; Fenor 2-12

U-21 F Semi-Final Kilrossanty 1-6; Nire 0-3

Western Board Meeting

The matter of the umpiring of the junior football final between Faha and Kilrossanty was discussed when the report of referee John Kelly was read at last week's Divisional Board meeting and at which chairman, Denis McGrath presided.

Having discussed the report at an Officer Board meeting, held before the open meeting, the officers expressed a vote of confidence, unanimously, in the referee and having explained this to the delegates, the chairman asked James Walsh, who was the umpire at the centre of the controversy, if he would like to comment.

James explained that on the occasion of the first decision in which he waved a point for Faha he was absolutely satisfied that more than three-quarters of the ball was on the inside of the upright and this in his judgment was a legitimate score. On the occasion of the second incident he had a very clear view of the ball and was in no doubt about it having gone wide, despite the ruling of the referee that it was a point. He said he had since examined a video of this and this proved that he was right in his decision. He further said that having been overruled twice in the game he felt frustrated and decided to walk off. Before doing so, he informed the referee and told him he could not continue.

The referee, then, as stated in the report, appointed the Board Secretary, Anthony Walsh as a stand-in umpire for the remainder of the game. He said he had not made contact with the Press as was widely believed, but he had given his side of the story when requested to do so.

Several delegates present expressed the opinion that the second one in question was a score and there seemed to be little doubt on that issue.

James Walsh stated that Faha had, in fact, won this game by three points and not one point. He expressed regret at having walked off during the game, but was disappointed that no officer or member of the Board had made personal contact with him after the game to discuss the matter.

Having discussed the matter further, the chairman said that in accordance with a decision of the Officer Board, James Walsh would be written to about the affair.

PROGRESS REPORT

When Board Secretary, Anthony Walsh gave delegates an up-to-date on the championship situation, he and his fellow officers were complimented on the progress made in spite of the many problems which had to be overcome during the year. This gave rise to a discussion on the policy of the Board in allowing 'closed' dates for Munster Council fixtures and All-Ireland semi-finals.

Delegates spoke for the and against this policy and several felt that better use could be made of week-evenings and particularly Friday and Saturday evenings in the summer months. Some made the point that playing every week-end towards the end of the season placed a severe strain on some players, particularly the dual players in clubs.

SCOR

Board Treasurer, Paddy Fitzgerald, made an appeal to clubs to co-operate with the newly appointed secretary, Mrs. Winnie Power in sending forward teams for the various events. The competitions will be held shortly and a list of the events is available from the secretary.

FIELDS CLOSED

Ardmore and Abbeyside clubs advised the Board that their grounds were closed for repairs and would not be available for a couple of months.

U.21 FOOTBALL SEMI-FINAL

KILROSSANTY 1-6; NIRE 0-3

Only six days after the controversial senior final, county champions, Kilrossanty inflicted another defeat on the Nire on Saturday when they won the refixed Under-21 semi-final by a six points margin and qualified for yet another football final in which they play Affane at Stradbally, on next Sunday.

Despite the six points margin, there was not a lot between the sides and as I saw the game, it was in fact decided by just two kicks of the ball in the first half. Tom Veale's goal for Kilrossanty in the 18th minute put them 1-2 to nil in front and minutes later a brilliant save from a penalty by Kilrossanty keeper Darren Mulhearn allowed the winners to turn over 1-3 to 0-0 in front at half time, after the Nire had wasted some fine chances.

Twice during the first quarter of the second half, the sides exchange points and again they had a point a piece in the final ten minutes to leave the score 1-6 to 0-3 at the end of a very entertaining match.

Scorers — Kilrossanty — R. Power 0-3; T. Veale 1-0; A. O'Brien, J. Dempsey and E. Flynn 0-1 each. Nire — T. Walsh 0-2; G. Walsh 0-1.

Kilrossanty — D. Mulhearn, P. Power, B. Kirwan, E. Flynn, N. Power, G. Fitzgerald, B. Whelan, W. Power, T. Veale, A. O'Brien, Rd. Power, Peter Power, P. Brazil, J. Dempsey, P. Houlihan.

Nire — R. O'Keefe, M. Mulcahy, J. Wall, B. Norris, J. Wyse, B. Ryan, I. Walsh, S. Byrne, Ger Walsh, P. J. Mulcahy, D. Phelan, R. Ryan, E. Wall.

Ref. — John Kelly (Shamrocks).

RESULTS

The unexpectedly big crowd which turned up a Fraher Field on Sunday were certainly given their fill of excitement as both our national league matches against Clare ended in draws, that came about in the dying seconds of both.

The late withdrawal of Liam O'Connor who was forced off because of an embargo placed on him by his club, Erin's Own who are resting him for the intermediate hurling final on next Sunday, the forced absence of Jimmy Beresford and Billy O'Sullivan through injury forced the hurling selectors to bring on three substitutes from the start and make a number of switches on the team.

A very slow beginning against the strong breeze saw Waterford down ten points at a stage, before Pat Ryan's goal restored the confidence that seemed to be lacking up to that point. More changes were made at the break and the team showed immeasurable improvement in the second half when Clare fought to hold on to a slender lead.

In all the circumstances and with so many of the panel not available the team did very well to force a draw and a share of the points which put them on a level footing with Clare. The magnificent support from the big crowd was a positive factor here and it was a very nice experience for the players who were having the first 'big' game at home since the Munster final.

They now play Westmeath in two weeks time in their second away match of the league and I'll be writing about this next week.

Not to be outdone by the hurlers, the county football team also forced a draw in their tie with Clare and here again the players showed wonderful spirit that was helped along with such big home support.

Taken in perspective this was a very good result for the players, who needed something like this to blot out the memory of the drubbing by Kildare three weeks previously. In recent weeks problems have been encountered by the football selectors in trying to consolidate a panel because some players were not available for one reason of another, but now this crisis seems to have passed and the present panel, having shown character and commitment, are as good as we can hope to find and are probably the best the county has.

It was nice again to see the crowd show such good support and it must have meant something to the players to find that the crowd remained to see them survive in this hectic finish.

The Protest!!

On the way in to the games at Fraher Field on Sunday it was disappointing to find a few members of the Nire Club mount a personalised protest which was meant to be an indictment of the referee of the football county final on the previous Sunday.

It was something that we had never seen before outside the grounds in the county and it was a pity that the club have adopted such a peculiar method of expressing their disappointment at what happened in the final. The infamous penalty had won them the sympathy of the whole county and whether it was right or wrong, the huge body of neutral patrons had been wishing for a Nire victory.

Now I am afraid the ill-advised protest and not the penalty will be the aspect of the affair that will be longest remembered.

Inside the grounds, the county had a big following of Nire people who came to see their club full-back play a great game in the football tie and to cheer both the hurlers and footballers to a good result.

In the end it was like the fellow who took his harp to the party and no one asked him to play. The referee was out of town and saw nothing of the protest!! I agree with the fellow who observed that the action of the Nire had shifted the spotlight.

Correction

In our article Nire '89 by Paddy Phelan published in November 3 issue we stated that "the '57 team which was beaten by Ballymacarbry at Clonea - - - " the final score was Ballymacarbry 3-6 Nire 0-6". This should have read Ballinacourty and not Ballymacarbry.

Lismore Dental Clinic Still Held Up

In the course of a letter to members of Waterford Co. Council which was considered at the Council's monthly meeting in Dungarvan last Monday, Mr. M. Lynch, the Community Care Programme Manager of the South Eastern Health Board stated that it was not possible to resume the Dental Clinic in Lismore in September as Board members had been advised because of an objection by the dental staff to the state of the building where the clinic was held.

Although an appreciable amount of money had been spent to upgrade the building to a reasonable level further issues subsequently arose, the letter stated, and it added, "I now have had further discussions with the principal Dental Surgeon. As a result some further work on the inside of the building is planned so as to bring it up to a more acceptable level for both patients and staff and it is hoped to proceed with this work very soon. This should then enable the Board to provide the services at the clinic.

Cllr. B. Kyne, a member of the Health Board, stated that Mr. Lynch had only been recently appointed as the new Community Care Programme Manager and when this matter was discussed at the monthly meeting of the Health Board held in Kilkenny on the previous Thursday it was stated that negotiations in the matter were proceeding and were now at a very delicate stage. He said that Mr. Lynch had offered a further £5,000 for repairs at the building and hoped that this would solve the impasse which had arisen.

"I am prepared to wait a month to see what the outcome will be," said Mr. Kyne, "but if there is no progress in that time I will ask for the names of those involved in creating this impasse. I know this further delay will not be welcomed by the public in the Lismore and West Waterford area but this further investment may solve the problem, if not then we should take the gloves off."

Cllr. J. Quirke said that he hoped that this extra money would be spent on the building and that then the dental service would be resumed there.

Cllr. O. Wilkinson said that while a certain amount of money had been spent on the building, it had not been enough. He would like to see this additional money spent and the place then inspected by the dental people whose requests in regard to the building he described as being reasonable. "It's a great pity that the clinic has been held up until now and it's a disgrace that the situation there was not looked into before now," he said.

Opening Friday, 17th Nov.
