Gordon, President, Dungarvan Chamber of Commerce, praised the high standard of the exhibits and congratulated all concerned. Urban Council Approves 1990 Roadworks Scheme

The Urban Roadworks Scheme for 1990 as prepared by Mr. John O'Flynn, County Engineer, was considered and approved by the members of Dungarvan Urban Council at their monthly meeting held last week.

The scheme provides for a total expenditure on roads and footpaths in the urban area of £497,050 during the coming year.

Commenting on the scheme as submitted by him, Mr. O'Flynn stated that the allocation of £26,250 for maintenance was the minimum amount needed to carry out the various road maintenance works which included minor footpath repairs etc.

A sum of £21,000 was included for footpath replacement at Mary Street, O'Connell Street, Mitchel Street, Bridge Street, Childers Estate, Cathal Brugha Estate and Strandside South and in this regard, Mr. O'Flynn commented that the deterioration in footpaths throughout the town has far outstripped the Council's financial ability to replace defective sections. To avoid further escalation of the problem and in the interest of public safety he had stepped up the level of activity on this work.

On the allocation of £11,500 for surface dressing at Park Lane, Western Bay and Springfield, Mr. O'Flynn said this was a very modest requirement but essential to prevent extensive potholing in the areas listed.

A sum of £84,000 is included for work at Scanton's Yard Car Park (£18,000), Fr. Twomey's Road (£25,000), Shandon (£18,000), Duckspool (£18,000) and Castle Street (£5,000) and Mr. O'Flynn stated that reshaping and strengthening of the road structure in each of these areas was long overdue.

Improvement Work at Strandside North to allow for the widening and realignment of the roadway there is given an allocation of £75,000. In this regard the Co. Engineer stated that the commencement of the new housing development in the area could result in a hazardous traffic situation unless the planned realignment was quickly completed.

TOWN CENTRE STREETS

A sum of £339,300 with a credit of £60,000 from the Sewerage Scheme (for trench width repairs) is provided for restoring and resurfacing the town centre streets most of which have suffered from trench excavations in the course of the new sewerage scheme.

Mr. O'Flynn stated that he felt that the resurfacing of full street widths was warranted here and he proposed a hot rolled asphalt wearing course underlain by base course macadam. "This has been done in several other towns such as Clonmel and surely Dungarvan deserves equal treatment," said Mr. O'Flynn.

Pointing out that this, together with the enhanced street lighting, would upgrade the whole appearance of the town centre and that surface maintenance costs would be reduced when the work was completed, Mr. O'Flynn recommended that the Council should seek grant assistance for this work which could be phased over 2/3 years.

Following a brief discussion during which Mr. O'Flynn was complimented and thanked for the Scheme as submitted, the Council unanimously approved it.

TRAFFIC HAZARDS AT TALLOW N.S.

Cllr. W. McDonnell proposed a motion at the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held in Dungarvan calling on the Council to put a Compulsory Order on the land owners involved to enable a start on a new road for the benefit of parents and pupils attending Tallow Boys and Girls National School.

Moving the motion Cllr. McDonnell said that he was aware that no progress was being made in the laying of this road to run from Chapel Street to the Youghal Road. At present there were 240 pupils attending the school and cars bringing children to and from the school are involved in traffic problems.

Mr. John O'Flynn, County Engineer, agreed that no progress was being made because the chances of money being made available for the project were nil. "A sum in the region of £50,000 would be needed for a job like this," he said.

Cllr. McDonnell — People in the area will not be pleased to hear this. All I can say is that this road is urgently required if the traffic hazards in the vicinity of the school are to be solved.

The County Engineer then said that all he could do at present was to progress the design for the project further and then if the landowners concerned were prepared to provide the land required for nothing they might be able to do something over a number of years.

UNGRATEFUL CHILDREN!

Watching R.T.E. 1 on Saturday, November 4, '89 at 11 a.m. I was shocked to see teenagers brazenly proffering reasons for not going to Mass. One said "she went odd times," but Mass meant nothing for the rest. They said "it was boring". One compared Mass to the playing of an old record over and over. They indicated they were not prepared to accept any direction. They questioned the right of the Pope to tell them what to do. They all felt capable of guiding themselves. The idea of listening to the Bishops was dismissed with laughter. One boy claimed to have his own line with the Holy Spirit. Whilst morals were not discussed, it was evident too that they would not accept or be bound by any law. They said, it was a matter for themselves. When asked about Confession, the question amused them. It was obvious, it played no part in their lives.

A discussion followed, and this involved some practising Catholics as well as some of the participants from the first part. One wee girl was excellent, but I felt no one put their finger on the heart of the matter. No, not even the priest who was present. Relative to the Mass missers, he was asked: "if they sinned." He simply side-stepped and evaded the issue. He had a duty to give direction, but he simply went on to say, it was a phase of growing pains, and that eventually all would come right. He baffled me. Surely, the Church's precept should have been mentioned. It says, unless excused, we have a grave duty to hear Mass etc. The Church is simply telling us how frequently an obligation arising from God's teaching should be discharged.

We believe that the Mass is the offering of the Lamb of God to our Father in Heaven to acknowledge Him as our Lord and Master. Jesus offered the same Sacrifice on Calvary. And, He made it abundantly clear at the Last Supper that He wanted His Church to continue saying Mass for all time. He wanted us to have a memorial of His passion and death to be used both as a source of nourishment and as a means of worship. It was as if Jesus made His last will leaving all His riches to His children. Those young people may not accept that all they have, they have received from the hand of God, but, whether they like it or not, He is our Father. He loves us. When Adam made a mess of things, God sent His own Son to put things right. He restored the friendship, and then outlined the ways and the means to protect and develop it. How could anyone ignore his debt to God? We should be on our knees in humble acknowledgement and gratitude.

Speak to one of our emigrants, and that one will tell you "he is happy to be working, but his heart is in Ireland. He longs for the day when he'll be back with his family. It means so much to just sit and chat with his loved ones. It's natural. Surely, considering all we owe to God, you'd expect people to yearn for His company.

We are His children. Adopted we may be, but look at the rank to which we have been raised with all the rights to a rich inheritance. It should follow that having been so highly honoured that we'd crave to be in His company. Those who do go, strive to create a lasting companionship. Whatever the basis for any friendship, communication is necessary to sustain it. Friendship with God is more. It is a privilege. And, those who say, "it is boring" know not what they say. If they only half realised the import of God's offer, they'd be on their knees praising God for His goodness.

When the devil tempted Jesus with the promise of greatness if He'd but bow down and adore him, He replied: "The Lord thy God thou shalt adore, and Him only shalt thou serve." Further, the First Commandment tells us that we have a grave duty to acknowledge, and pay due worship to God. And, having bound man, and supplying him with a ready made form of worship to be followed, man has no choice but to use the Mass. In fact, the same Commandment forbids man to put anyone or anything before God. So, we know what's to be done, how to do it, and the Church, whose office it is, tells us how often.

THE FINAL WORD

As I implied, had God not imposed this duty, man on account of his indebtedness to God, should be only too ready to express his deep gratitude to his Maker. However, the matter is not left to us to decide. God has superimposed his law on the law of nature. So, God has spoken. That is the final word.

The Mass is the same as the Sacrifice of the Cross. It is an honour to witness that great event. The Mass is an ocean of riches, and yet! we mostly fail to reap all the benefits that are available, because we fail to grasp the significance. You see, we are usually rushing. It is simply a matter of getting a duty done. We give little thought to the fact we are going to have a meeting with God, and witnessing the greatest event of all time. Indeed, the Mass is a mystery, but the more we know and appreciate what's happening, the more we will love it. Be in time next Sunday, and have a wee chat with the Lord to prepare you for the meeting. Try to draw close to Him in spirit, and promise to bring the spirit of your Mass into your daily life.

Dear young people, the Lord is calling you to greatness. He knows what is best for you. Remember, He promised: "If you eat my flesh and drink my blood, you will have life in you, and I will raise you up on the last day." If you treated your parents like you treat God, I would say "you would be a bad son." Sorry, I have to say it that those who chose to go their own way will not inherit their share of the Kingdom. Admittedly, there's a problem for many in the land, and so, I suggest to the faithful goers, make your Mass count. The richness is there. Dig it out, and offer it up in reparation.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

TROOP MEETING

It was a full uniformed meeting last Saturday night. The meeting began with the prayers. For tonight's revision the patrols were asked to revise the Dochas Linn Naomh Padraig. After the monies were sorted out, this week it took longer because of the Twelve Days of Christmas money, we examined the nights revision.

First up was Alan Hackett who gave a very polished recital of the Dochas. Unfortunately for the Tigers it wasn't such a happy night, for the full story why not ask P.L. Mark Shepherd or A.P.L. Michael Kelleher.

It was time then for a game of head and harp organised by Brendan Kiersey; after Brendan Flynn, Derek Kenneally, Denis O'Flynn and Co. were eliminated we were left with our two winners Liam Moore and John Organ.

Our November drill competition was then run by Alan Ryan who put everyone through their paces.

After a brief spell of meditation we were joined by Troop Chaplain Fr. Ahearne who thought he was going deaf when he entered the hall due to the serenity of the place.

We broke into two groups then with Fr. Ahearne taking the younger scouts this month for his discussion. We're told one of the subjects covered was "Hard Men" (with Brendan K. as his example). The older scouts retired to the committee room where various items were covered.

At 9 p.m. we ended the meeting with the closing prayers.

WEEK-END TO CORK

Next Friday night November 24, our travelling convoy heads West down the N25 to Cork City for this year's Winter Week-end away. We hear the cinema, bowling and swimming are all possibilities for the programme to supplement our regular scouting activities. All scouts are reminded that the convoy leaves at 8 p.m. from the Den, uniform is to be worn by all.

P.S. — Don't forget the woolen blanket. — Sub-Scribe Plus.

ST. MARY'S G.A.A.

All roads lead to Fraher Field, Dungarvan on Sunday when the club will try to land the title for the first time in their history. But, we are up against stiff opposition in An Gaelteacht who are favourites after their comprehensive Western final win.

The match kicks-off at 1.15 p.m. and it's the curtain raiser to the junior final between neighbours Faha and Bonmahon. Plenty support is needed to cheer on the lads.

Last Saturday, November 18, our U-12 hurlers had a great win over Slieverue in the "C" semi-final of the city league. The final score was 9-4 to 2-2 with A. Lannon, M. Kiely, P. Lannon and D. Casey outstanding. The final is likely to be on in two weeks time.

Unfortunately, last week-end we had to cancel the church gate collection, but it will now take place this Sunday at all Masses.

Civic Reception For Professor Ernest Walton

Plans have now been completed for the Civic Reception to be accorded Professor Ernest T.S. Walton, who now resides in Dublin, when he visits Dungarvan to address a public meeting at Lawlor's Hotel on Wednesday of next week, November 29.

Professor Walton was born in a thatched house which stood in Strandside South, Abbeyside, on October 26, 1903, on the site now occupied by the residences of Mr. Pat Fahy and Mr. John Cartwright. He is renowned internationally for his work in splitting the atom and for which in 1951, jointly with Sir John Cockcroft, he was awarded the Nobel Prize in Physics.

The Civic Reception by Dungarvan Urban Council will take place in Lawlor's Hotel on the Wednesday evening and Dungarvan Junior Chamber with Abbeyside Pattern Committee who are organising the historic occasion will host a dinner sponsored by the Sterling Drug Company at which Professor Walton will be guest of honour.

the occasion will be unveiled at the Park by the Professor himself.

● This old photo taken in 1890 shows Epworth Cottage, Strandside South, Abbeyside, the birthplace of Professor Walton in 1903. Note the fishing boats in the foreground and the old salt store to the left where the fishermen purchased salt to cure the fish. At the centre back are the ruins of the Old McGrath's Castle. All have since disappeared.

The play is set in the summer time, time is the mid-seventies and place a large, decaying house overlooking the village of Ballybeg, Co. Donegal. Most of the action takes place out of doors on what was once a croquet lawn.

The O'Donnell family are gathered to celebrate a wedding, that of Claire (the younger girl) played by Helen Forde. Her other sisters, Alice (Ann Kavanagh) and Judith (Mary Kelly) also appear throughout. Alice is home from London with her husband Eamon (Ruairi De Paor). Funds Crux For Housing Improvements

When Deputy Austin Deasy asked the Minister for the Environment when he intended to make an announcement about the provision of bathrooms for the houses of Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, he was told by the Minister, Mr. Padraic Flynn, that revised proposals for the complete refurbishment of the houses had been received and were at present being examined. If these were found to come within the scope of the Remedial Works Scheme, the question of funding would be considered in the light of the money available for 1990 and the competing demands from other authorities.

A.G.M. Of Tallow Credit Union

This year the Tallow Credit Union is celebrating the 21st Anniversary of its foundation in May, 1968 and the Annual General Meeting due to take place in Nora Herlihy House, West Street on this Thursday night, November 23 at 8 p.m. should prove an extra special occasion for the directors and members.

In the course of her Board of Directors Report to the meeting, the Chairman, Helen McCarthy, points out that a 21st anniversary is a special achievement in any sphere and as members of the Tallow Area Credit Union they were justifiably proud to have reached their coming of age.

Recalling that they opened in May 1968 with a grant of £30,000 and a lot of hope, she says that the confidence of the founder directors and the pioneer members of those early days has been fully justified, now that the "little Credit Union with a big heart" ranks at No. 139 in the latest count.

It is indeed a proud boast for the Tallow Area Credit Union that their initial investment has been turned into savings of close to £1.5 million and with a steady rate growth in excess of 20% the future certainly looks bright for them.

Cllrs. Cross Swords On Hospital Issue

There was a mild exchange between Cllr. G. O'Halloran and Cllr. B. Kyne when they crossed swords at the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council on the issue of the scare publicity given to a report of a Visiting Committee from the South Eastern Health Board, of a visit to St. Joseph's Hospital Dungarvan in a local paper (not the "Leader").

Both Cllrs. O'Halloran and Kyne represent the Council on the Health Board and at the Council's monthly meeting last week, Cllr. O'Halloran proposed a motion requesting the Minister for Health and Finance to provide funding for the long awaited replacement hospital for St. Joseph's, Dungarvan, in the Budget for 1990.

Having outlined the history of St. Joseph's, Cllr. O'Halloran went on to say that at present a 28-bed unit comprising St. Ann's and St. Michael's wards was undergoing major renovations at a cost of £192,000. He said that his motion was important because of the recent publication of a policy document on the care for the aged which, among other things, recommended that for the future all units for geriatric care should be limited to 30 beds.

He then referred to the report of the Health Board Visiting Committee made following a visit to St. Joseph's last July. This endorsed the recommendation that in the event of further delay with the complete replacement of the hospital, one unit should be proceeded with to replace the first floor accommodation as the Committee was concerned that this accommodation was a serious fire hazard and should be closed and the patients transferred to the ground floor.

Cllr. O'Halloran said that this report had been criticised by a small minority of Dungarvan Urban Council members including Cllr. Kyne who complained about its contents and the manner in which the report had been published. He said that the publicity given to the matter was justified as people were entitled to know that such statements about the hospital had been made. "Councillor Kyne has become divisive by his statements and he has now made a political football of this very important issue," said Cllr. O'Halloran.

SCARE HEADLINES

Cllr. Kyne said that despite what Cllr. O'Halloran had said he would second the motion. He pointed out that in regard to the matter all he had ever said was that a proper balance should be maintained about the position in the hospital. "If they were to encourage scare headlines about fire hazards all they were doing was to frighten the old people in the hospital," he said.

Cllr. Kyne went on to point out that very good work was at present being carried out at the hospital. However he felt that promises made in the past of a new 100-bed unit for Dungarvan had starved the existing hospital of significant funding for upgrading the facilities there.

Cllr. Kyne again referred to the scare headlines which had been given to the Hospital Visiting Committee report and said that this had raised unnecessary fear among the patients and there was no need for that. The motion was then put to the meeting and passed.

PHASED DEVELOPMENT

Subsequently Cllr. Kyne passed to the "Leader" a letter dated November 8 received by him from Mr. M. Hynes, Special Hospitals Programme Manager, South Eastern Health Board. This stated that major improvement work on St. Anne's and St. Michael's wards commenced last September and at present a new heating system was being installed together with new floors, new windows, two bathrooms and toilets. Some small additions were being built to provide extra space for beds and improved day dining facilities. The letter added: "As part of the contract, the recommendations of the fire committee are being implemented . . . the contract is due for completion in March 1990."

Cllr. Kyne then said that following the Health Board meeting on November 9 he expressed his appreciation of the work done at St. Joseph's to the CEO, Mr. Peter McQuillan, who then confirmed that the promise of the new 100-bed unit had deflected funding from St. Joseph's. "He felt that from now on the best approach would be for a phased development of the new unit as this would be more likely to get the approval of the Department of Health," said Cllr. Kyne.

MINISTER'S REPLY TO QUESTION

Deputy Austin Deasy asked the Minister for Health in the Dail last week what the present position was regarding the provision of a new replacement geriatric hospital for St. Joseph's, Dungarvan and when it was anticipated that work would commence on its construction.

In his reply, the Minister, Dr. O'Hanlon said that the detailed planning of a new replacement geriatric hospital for St. Joseph's, Dungarvan had been completed but in view of the other competing priorities of the South-Eastern Health Board for capital funds, it was not possible to contemplate when work would commence on the construction.

COUNTY COUNCIL TO TRY AGAIN

Members of Waterford County Council will re-assemble for their reconvened Estimates meeting in Dungarvan next Monday when, for the fourth time, they will try again to balance the Council's financial estimates for 1990.

The members have already met twice in Committee and once in open meeting without reaching a decision and whether the position has radically changed since the adjourned meeting last Monday week remains to be seen by the outcome of next Monday's effort.

The revised estimates as presented on the last occasion call for a 10 per cent increase in the County rate (up to £29.34 in the £) together with a £10 increase in domestic water charges (up to £106) with charges for metered water up from £1.30 to £1.35 and scavenging tags up from 25p to 30p each. These adjustments were estimated to realise a total of £185,000 which would bridge the gap between expenditure and receipts following the variations in the various allocations decided at the two previous meetings of the Council held in Committee.

The Council members are wisely shying away from any proposals to increase the service charges as they are already deemed to be high enough and as local elections are anticipated next year such increases would be frowned on by the public with the Council members having to shoulder the blame.

It is extremely doubtful that the Council's request to the Minister for the Environment for additional support grants will have met with any success and this will mean that the members will find themselves back in square one when they reconvene in Dungarvan next Monday.

A CALL TO RAISE YOUR VOICE FOR JUSTICE

The Guildford Four — Carole Richardson, Patrick Armstrong, Gerard Conlon and Paul Hill are free. They were freed because small groups of people, strangers, family and friends did not give up. These ordinary people achieved the extraordinary. They campaigned relentlessly and lobbied anyone who would listen and even those who wouldn't. Against immense odds they made their voices heard.

But the campaign for justice is not over yet. The Birmingham Six are still in prison, so is Judith Ward and so are the Winchester Three. The Maguire Seven have yet to have their names cleared. And there are more — all victims of a system that has shown no justice, ignored the evidence of their innocence and which continues to make believe that its judiciary and police force are beyond reproach.

Now a unique group made up of artists, campaign groups and families of those still in prison has come together united by a belief that soon justice will be done. The main event of their campaign of awareness is a huge candle-lit parade through the streets of Dublin on Saturday, December 9 starting from Parnell Square at 3.30 p.m. A central feature of the parade will be The Candle for Justice for as darkness falls, thousands of people will walk together each carrying a blue, glass-covered candle.

The organisers have issued an appeal to the public, as a gesture of support to order a candle now. For those who can't travel to Dublin to participate in the parade, they could light the candle in their homes on December 9 as a symbol of their support. Anyone who wishes to obtain a Candle for Justice can do so by sending £1 per candle plus 50p to cover postage and packing to Rev. Anthony Mullen, CSSP, A Candle for Justice, Kimmage Manor, Dublin 12. Everyone is being asked to support the parade and light the way to justice

A DISAPPOINTING RESPONSE

In last week's column we asked any readers interested that if they wished to learn the airs of the several old Irish songs which have been featured in the "Leader" in recent weeks, an arrangement to do so could be made if they sent an indication to us that they were so interested.

To say the least the response has been most disappointing. We thought that an opportunity to learn some or all of these grand Irish songs would arouse a good deal of interest, especially among the Gaeilgeoiri. We regret to say that this is not so!

KILLAHALA WOMAN REACHES HER CENTURY

A cutting from a recent issue of the "Catholic Pictorial," the official organ of the Archdiocese of Liverpool, which has reached us by courtesy of Dungarvan man Harry Glanville who has been a Liverpoolian now for many years, records the fact that Mrs. Margaret O'Mahoney of St. Anthony of Padua, Mossley Hill, Liverpool had recently celebrated her 100th birthday.

To mark the great occasion, family and friends gathered at the Sefton Park Nursing Home where Mrs. O'Mahoney now lives and she was there presented with a special Papal Blessing which had been collected on her behalf by her 73-years-old son Thomas.

Mrs. O'Mahoney, mother of three sons, went to Liverpool from her native Killahala, Cappoquin with her husband Jeremiah in 1924. She worked as a Secretary and as a Sales Assistant but devoted much of her spare time to the Church. Fr. Joseph Russell, OFM of St. Anthony's has stated that Mrs. O'Mahoney was an example to others in the parish.

She survived two serious setbacks, one when at the age of 83 she was struck by a car and spent five months in hospital recovering from her injuries, and some years later when she suffered a serious haemorrhage which hospitalised her for another period. But, as the "Catholic Pictorial" report states: "Even that could not stop this brave lady from reaching her 100th birthday."

Mrs. O'Mahoney is a member of the O'Donnell family who lived in Killahala where another niece, Mrs. Ursula Burke and her husband, Ger, now reside.

As Harry Glanville very correctly remarks in his accompanying letter: "isn't it remarkable how many women for the Lismore-Cappoquin area reach their centenary." It is indeed, and we now join, even if belatedly, in sending our congratulations to this wonderful lady, Mrs. Margaret O'Mahoney, who first saw the light of day in Killahala, Cappoquin, a hundred years ago.

— AND DUNGARVAN WOMAN PASSES 102

Last week, St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan was en fete when all members of the staff joined with her relatives and many friends in celebrating the 102nd birthday of Miss Elsie Power who has been a patient at the hospital for the past 13 years.

As the older generation in Dungarvan will remember Miss Power was owner of a licensed premises at Wolfe Tone Road (Fair Lane) which was popularly and widely known just as "Elsie's." The premises continues to trade as the Shandon Arms.

Despite her great age, Elsie Power still enjoys remarkably good health and continues to have a lively interest in everything that happens about her. Always a great conversationalist possessed of a ready wit she likes nothing better than a chat with the many visitors that go to the hospital.

Born in the last century, Elsie Power now faces into the last decade of the present century and we join with the many who have already done so in sending her our best wishes and congratulations.

A SPEED LIMIT NOBODY HEEDS

District Justice P. Keenan Johnson referred at Waterford Court last week to the fact that a speed limit of 55 m.p.h. on open roads is still operative in this country and commented that he found it amazing that such a limit could be imposed when modern cars are capable of such high speeds.

He went on to say that it never ceased to amaze him that we have a limit like this when car companies regularly advertised vehicles that are capable of going from 0 to 70 mph in a matter of seconds. He thought that a speed limit in the region of 60 mph would make more sense in the circumstances.

The 55 mph limit was introduced at the time of the last petrol crisis as a conservation measure and was never changed but as everyone knows it is now something to which very few if any pay any attention. Its continuation as a restriction in the highway code is ridiculous as it is something which merely brings this section of the Road Traffic Act into disrepute as it is almost impossible to enforce.

Even within the restricted speed limit zones in villages, towns and cities, drivers pay little or no attention to the multitude of signs warning of these 30 and 40 mph limits and one of the areas where this is now most blatant is the new by-pass road in Dungarvan.

This road is peppered with 40 mph repeater signs but as any diver who travels along there at this speed well knows, you'd be blown off by the cars and more dangerously by the biggest of the artics that fly over it at speeds of up to 70!

Now that a District Justice has drawn attention to this ridiculous situation, perhaps the Department of the Environment would take notice and act accordingly.

The Vicar Of Bray

Although not of Irish origin our choice for the ballad corner this week is one which has enjoyed widespread popularity over a long number of years. "The Vicar Of Bray" is all about one, Simon Alyn, Canon of Windsor, Vicar of Bray, Berkshire from 1540 to 1588. It goes as follows:

In good King Charles's golden days,
When loyalty no harm meant,
A zealous High Churchman was I,
And so I got preferment;
To teach my flock I never missed,
Kings were by God appointed,
And damned are those that do resist
Or touch the Lord's anointed.

Chorus (after each verse)—
And this is law, I will maintain,
Until my dying day, Sir,
That whatever King may reign
Still, I'll be Vicar of Bray, Sir.

When royal James obtained the crown,
And pop'ry came in fashion,
The penal laws I hooted down,
And read the Declaration;
The Church of Rome, I found would fit
Full well my constitution;
And had become a Jesuit
But for the Revolution.

When William was our King declar'd
To ease the nation's grievance,
With this new wind, about I steer'd
And swore to him allegiance;
Old principles I did revoke,
Set conscience at a distance;
Passing obedience was a joke,
A jest was non-resistance.

When Gracious Anne became our Queen
The Church of England's glory,
Another face of things was seen,
And I became a Tory;
Occasional conformists base,
I damn'd their moderation,
Although the Church in danger was
By such prevarication.

When George in pudding time came o'er,
And moderate men look'd big, Sir,
I turn'd a cat-in-paw once more,
And so became a Whig, Sir;
And thus preferment I procured,
From our new Faith's defender;
And almost everyday abjured
The Pope and the Pretender.

Th' illustrious House of Hanover,
And Protestant Succession;
To these allegiance I do swear—
While they can keep possession;
For in my faith and loyalty,
I never more will falter,
And George my lawful King shall be—
Until the times do alter.

RECENT DEATHS

Mr. Michael Lyons

The unexpected passing of Mr. Michael Lyons, 2 Park Gate, Dungarvan, on Sunday, November 12, saddened not alone his family but indeed his many friends and acquaintances, for Michael was a well-known and highly respected figure in our locality. A native of Ballysaggart, the deceased was of farming stock and was 82 years of age.

Well over 60 years ago he set roots in the Old Boro' where he found employment. A great scythe and plough man in his day, he worked with the Powers of Colligan, later McGraths the Building Contractors and also with Lannens the Wool and Hide Merchants. He was a valued member of the staff of E. O'Brien & Sons, Builders for over 25 years and was a most industrious employee. He was caretaker at St. Mary's Church of Ireland for some time.

Gaelic games were his main interest and he was a regular at the Fraher Field, not alone to watch the games but to keep a watchful eye on his sheep which grazed nearby. Michael had a cheery disposition and he enjoyed a social drink with his friends. He loved to sing the old ballads with "Master McGrath" and "Going To The Well For Springwater," special favourites.

Mike, as he was affectionately known to all, will be sadly missed by his many friends, but more especially by his sorrowing sons, daughters, brothers, sisters and relatives, to whom we extend deep and sincere sympathy.

On Monday evening, Michael's remains were brought from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church where they were blessed and received by Rev. T. Rogers, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. Canon G. Power, P.P., Rev. W. Carey, C.C., Rev. Fr. Cooney, O.S.A., Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A., Rev. J. Hooper, O.S.A. and Very Rev. Fr. J. O'Sullivan. A guard of honour of both management and staff of O'Brien's flanked the hearse.

On Tuesday morning, following Requiem Mass celebrated by Fr. Rogers, the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. The Lessons were read by Marie Egan (daughter) and Laurence O'Connor (grandson). Graveside prayers were said by Fr. Rogers, assisted by Canon Power, Fr. Carey, Fr. Hickey, Fr. Hooper, Fr. O'Sullivan and Very Rev. Fr. McNamara, Prior, O.S.A.

Chief mourners — Johnny and Liam (sons), Margaret and Marie (daughters), Joe Egan and Pat O'Connor (sons-in-law), Susan and Theresa (daughters-in-law), William and Tom (brothers), Mary and Nora (sisters), Dolores, Mary, Stephen, Stephanie (Dungarvan), Margaret, Laurence (London), Anthony, Nigel, James (Galway), Brendan, Derek, Leonard, Jonathan, Trevor, Criona and Lorraine (Waterford) (grandchildren), Sibéal, Shane and Christopher (great-grandchildren) and a wide circle of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Nora Patterson

It is with sadness we mourn the passing of Mrs. Nora Patterson of Mountain Villas, Emmet Street, Dungarvan. An O'Gorman of Mary Street, she was known to her beloved family and to her many intimate friends as — Nonie — ainm ceana that reveals the high affection in which she was held throughout her long life.

Dungarvan was her birthplace in 1892; here she was born; here, save for a period of her nurse-training in Glasgow, she lived; and here too in St. Joseph's Hospital surrounded by the gracious kindness of the Matron, Sisters, nurses and attendants of that haven of loving care, she silently gave up her loyal soul to the bosom of her heavenly Father on the evening of November 9. Faoi stua De agus a Mhathar Naofa go raibh a h-anam dilis.

Nora was pre-deceased by her husband Jim, a sweet baritone and one-time member of the Glasgow Orpheus Choir. No mean singer herself, Nora and Jim took part in all cultural activities in the town, being founder members of Dungarvan Dramatic Club in 1942, and of the then Choral Society. Both were zealous members of St. Mary's Parish Choir for many years.

To her daughter Eileen, son-in-law Jack Moriarty and grand-children Sean, Sheila, Anne and Niamh; to her sisters Mrs. Hanna Morrissey, Mrs. Birdie Moloney, her brother Michael, her nieces, nephews and friends we extend our deepest sympathy.

On Friday evening, 10th inst., Nonie was brought from the hospital mortuary to St. Mary's Parish Church, where her body was received and blessed by Very Rev. G. Power, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Carey, C.C. and Very Rev. J. O'Sullivan.

On Saturday at 12 noon, the Funeral Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Rogers, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. Carey, C.C., Very Rev. Fr. O'Sullivan and Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A. The interment took place immediately afterwards in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a large and representative gathering.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mrs. Kathleen Ryan (nee Hourigan)

With deep regret we write on the passing of Kathleen Ryan, Gortacode, Kilmeaden and formerly of Old Parish, which occurred unexpectedly at South Infirmary, Cork on Wednesday, November 8. Kathleen was aged 61 years and was a member of the Hourigan family of Old Parish, one of the area's best known and highly respected families.

Of farming background, Kathleen and her husband Willie moved from Old Parish to Ballyduff Lower 35 years ago, yet they always kept abreast of things in the Gaeltacht areas. A quiet Christian lady who lived for her husband and family, her passing has created a void that will be impossible to fill.

We offer our deepest sympathy to Willie, sons, daughters, brothers, sisters and relatives on their great loss.

On Thursday evening prayers of requiem were recited by Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C., Abbeyside, after which the funeral left for Ballyduff Church. Assisted by Very Rev. C. O'Daly, P.P., An Rinn and Rev. Fr. O'Donoghue, Midleton, Fr. Ahearne blessed and received the remains. Burial took place on Friday after Requiem Mass celebrated by Rev. J. Flynn, C.C.

A large and representative gathering was present for the funeral obsequies. Among the attendance were Archdeacon Tuohig, P.P., Midleton and members of the Garda Siochana whose tribute on Thursday evening was greatly appreciated by the family. Ryan O'Sullivan and Billy Ryan (grandson) read the Liturgy of the Word, while Kathleen's final resting place was covered with floral tributes reflecting the love and affection of family, friends and acquaintances alike.

Chief mourners — William (husband), Jimmy, Patrick, Liam, Kevin, Declan (sons), Brigid, Mary, Josie, Ann (daughters), John Joe and Jimmy Hourigan (brothers), Nellie, Dublin (sister), Chris O'Sullivan, Moss Clifford and Patrick O'Brien (sons-in-law), Ann, Nell, Mar, Carmel, Angela (daughters-in-law), Tom Collender, Dublin (brother-in-law), Maura, Theresa and Anne (all Hourigan), Josie Ryan, Nellie Cleary and Cait Connery (sisters-in-law) and a wide circle of grandchildren, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mrs. Margaret Costin

At 12.30 p.m. on Saturday, November 11, Mrs. Margaret Costin (nee O'Neill) of Ballycreen, Ring, Dungarvan, answered the final call from her Maker, peacefully, at her own home. Margaret, who was 81 years old when she passed away, spent 46 years of her married life in Ballycreen where she will be remembered by her neighbours, friends and family, as a kind, caring, helpful and considerate friend to everyone and she will be sadly missed by all. Go ndeana Dia trocaire uirthi.

On Sunday evening, following prayers of requiem in the presence of a large gathering at her home, Margaret was brought the short journey to St. Nicholas's Church in Ring where she had worshipped regularly. Her remains were received and blessed by Fr. Desmond, C.C., Fr. T. Norris, Maynooth and Fr. M. Enright, C.C. and concelebrated Mass was offered for the repose of her soul.

On Monday, again in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends, Fr. Desmond celebrated Requiem Mass. The offertory gifts were carried to the altar and music was rendered by her grandchildren and the scripture readings were read by her daughter Rita and sons John Joe and Jimmy. Fr. Desmond officiated at her graveside. Beautiful floral tributes were placed on the grave, reflecting love and affection of so many friends and relatives. She was laid to rest in the family plot beside her husband James who had predeceased her by eleven years.

The chief mourners were — John Joe and Jimmy (sons), Brigid, Carmel, Han, Maeve and Rita (daughters), Jim, Martin, Michael, Ami and Liam (sons-in-law), Betty and Margaret (daughters-in-law), Jimmy and Tommy O'Neill (brothers), Alice O'Neill and Alice Murphy (sisters-in-law), grandchildren, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

Mr. Tom Lonergan

We record with regret the death of Mr. Tom Lonergan, Coolnabason, Ballinamult, which took place on Sunday morning, November 12, at his residence. He was aged 76 years.

Tom, who was a quiet and inoffensive man, was an esteemed member of the farming community. One of nature's gentlemen, he was extremely popular and his death has been the cause of much sorrow to his family to whom we extend deep sympathy.

Removal was from Dungarvan hospital mortuary to Fourmilewater church on Monday evening, November 13, where the remains were blessed and received on arrival by Fr. C. Kelleher, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. Fr. Russell, P.P.

Following Requiem Mass on Tuesday morning celebrated by Fr. Russell, P.P., assisted by Fr. Kelleher and Fr. Hallahan, interment took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a large crowd. Fr. Russell officiated at the graveside, assisted by Fr. Kelleher and Fr. Hallahan. The Lessons were read at the Requiem Mass by his nephew and niece, David and Hannah Lonergan.

The chief mourners were — Rev. Monsignor David, Adelaide, Australia, John and Michael (brothers), Mary (sister-in-law), David and Pat Lonergan (nephews), Maura McCarthy and Hannah Lonergan (nieces), relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

The months of rehearsals are now over, the stage is set and all is now ready for what promises to be one of the best performances from the Society in recent times. Bernard Farrell's "All The Way Back", directed by James Lenane, takes to the stage this weekend and with such a humorous and witty playwright on view, this presentation is a must for drama lovers.

What could be more tempting, one of Ireland's most distinguished and modern writers, a play full of wit and comedy with some serious undertones, and also one of the best set designs ever to be erected in the Town Hall.

All the work and planning put in by Tom Murphy, John O'Sullivan and Billy Ormonde will have to be seen to be believed.

Our director James Lenane has now put us all through our paces and it's all now down to opening night, and with such spirit and commitment with the Company at present, we are looking forward to show-time!

At this point we must welcome our new members, James Bennett and Billy Devine from Ballysaggart, Mossie and Anne Casey from Ballyduff, who with our own experienced regulars Una Walsh, Deirdre O'Shea, Dick Aherne, Billy Lee, Joan Bolger, Mary Bennett-Lenane, Una O'Leary, Bernadette Crowley and Dermot Moore will make this presentation of "All The Way Back", a production to equal the best.

Many thanks to all those Society members who came along on Friday night last, to tidy the Hall, organise the teas, door staff and raffle, and making sure that everything is now ready.

The proceeds of the show will be towards the provision of comfortable seating in the Hall which will be installed by showtime.

Remember the show goes on November 24, 25 and 26th, December 1, 2 and 3 at 8.15 p.m. sharp and refreshments will be provided.

So now it's all down to you, our patrons. We know that you will support us in this venture as you have done in the past and we guarantee that you will not be disappointed. — P.R.O.

Fields; £20 Mr. J. Henehan, Mayfield; £15 Mrs. N. Hally, Melleray; £10 Mrs. A. McCarthy, West Street; £10 Miss U. O'Leary, South Mall. Promoters Prize — Mr. K. O'Gorman.

The next draw will take place in The Red House on Saturday, November 25 at 8.15 p.m. All are welcome to attend. (Advt.)

Under-21 Hurling — On Saturday last in Portlaw we were well beaten by Ballygunner in the county final (2-14 to 1-7). Ahead by 1-6 to 1-4 at half-time we ran out of steam in the second half and had to give best to a fitter and stronger Ballygunner team, who fully deserved their win and to whom we offer our heartiest congratulations. Our one consolation is that all but two of our panel will still be available next year and with a bit more dedication to training it could be a much happier story.

On Saturday evening after a meal the Western U-12 medals were presented to the team by Jimmy O'Gorman, Club Secretary and Vice-Chairman, Western Board.

Team — D. Landers, K. Clancy, A. Meagher, Mark O'Sullivan, M. O'Brien, D. Barry, K. Lynch, P. Prendergast, J. Ahearne, Michael O'Sullivan, Dan Geoghegan, B. O'Gorman, P. J. Coughlan, M. Barry, K. O'Gorman. Subs. — A. Tinnelly, K. Lawton, J. Hickey, P. O'Gorman, K. Hornibrook.

LISMORE CAMOGIE NOTES
We held the 3rd round of the league on Sunday last and we had wins from the Trotters and Mongrels.

The 1st match was the Devils v. Trotters and this was easily the best match we had so far. The Trotters started like a whirlwind and after 5 minutes they led 4 goals to no score. Then the Devils settled down and slowly got back into the game to trail 5 goals to 4 at half time.

The second half produced a ding dong struggle with both sides taking the lead and losing it but in the end the Trotters survived by 9-0 to 8-1.

It was a pity there had to be a loser in this one as both teams gave it what they had.

Trotters — N. Roche, M. Reilly, J. Dunne, G. Barry, S. O'Gorman, M. Flynn, S. Cotter.

Devils — A. M. Coughlan, B. Pollard, A. Howard, D. Hickey, C. Murphy, E. Dunne, G. Walsh.

In the 2nd match the Mongrels took on the Bangers and as the Mongrels were already into the final this was a tame affair which the Mongrels won 5-2 to 2-0. Best for Mongrels were M. Cunningham and L. Heaphy. Best for Bangers were K. Tobin and B. O'Keeffe.

Mongrels — Carl Ormond, C. Howard, Cat. Ormond, M. Cunningham, L. Heaphy, S. Coleman, J. O'Sullivan.

Bangers — J. Roche, A. Barry, B. O'Keeffe, K. Tobin, J. Walsh, E. Ormond, C. Sullivan.

All is now set for the final on Sunday at 2.45 p.m. The Mongrels v. the Trotters. When they met before the Mongrels won easily but a final is a great leveller and on Sunday if the Trotters play to top form they just might do it. This match will be preceded by the 3rd and 4th place play-off between the Devils and the Bangers at 2 p.m. Their last meeting was a thriller and a repeat looks likely.

The curtain will come down on Sunday after a very long season and hopefully we will see a few supporters there to finish it in style. — P.R.O.

LATE SR. PHILOMENA BUTLER

The Presentation Sisters Lismore regret to announce the death of their dear Sister Philomena Butler which occurred in the Convent on Saturday morning, November 18. Full obituary later.

Waterford Wrenboy Championship

All wrenboys please note that this year's competition in aid of Kilmacthomas N.S., takes place, on Wednesday, December 27 (the day after St. Stephen's Day). Due to the demand, there will be a junior championship (confined to under-17s) in conjunction with the senior event.

Since its inception four years ago, this competition has become a significant part of Christmas entertainment in Waterford. In fact, it has grown to such an extent that the main problem facing the organisers is that of finding a venue large enough to stage the event.

It is hoped that CCE musicians will take an increased part in this year's championship, as the organisers are anxious that the music content be of as high a standard as possible.

As always, places in the competition will be on a first come, first served basis. Full details from 051/73006, between 6 and 7 p.m.

A rough summary of the rules are: (1) traditional Wrenboy costume essential; (2) groups must contain a least 5 members; (3) routines, lasting not more than 25 minutes, must be folk/traditional in nature; (4) the 'Wren Song' must be sung; (5) although there is a junior competition, there is no lower age limit for groups which enter the senior category. (this means that it is technically possible for a very good junior group to win the senior competition as well as their own event).

The main prize for the event is the Liam Clancy Trophy plus cash.

CREDIT UNION NEWS

A special meeting of the Board of Directors of Lismore and Cappoquin Credit Union was held at the Cappoquin Office on last Wednesday. Vice-Chairman, Eddie O'Shea presided in the unavoidable absence of Chairman, Paddy Lawton. The meeting adjourned for a short period as a mark of respect to the Chairman on the recent death of his sister in Wales.

The meeting was totally concerned with the arrangements for the forthcoming annual general meeting now definitely fixed for Tuesday, December 5, in Lismore Hotel.

Plans are being made to secure the maximum possible attendance at the end of another very successful year when important progress has been made in all spheres of the union's activity.

CAPPOQUIN BILLIARDS AND SNOOKER CLUB

League — The third series of league matches were completed last week and results were:— Pa Curran bt Pat Kiely 78-55; Darren Mason bt Conor O'Leary 77-33; Brian Ormond bt Michael Doherty 58-36; Darren Mason bt Johnny Sheehan 62-51; Johnny Sheehan bt Pa Curran 64-31; Johnny Sheehan bt Andy O'Keeffe 58-40.

This weeks report is on the top of the table clash between Brian Ormond and Michael Doherty, from which Brian emerged victorious, by 58 points to 36.

The style in which Brian opened the frame suggested he was going to brush Michael off the table, but this most certainly was not the case, with the first few reds sunk Brian was in total control. Then Michael started to play a bit, and he got himself back into the game, only to see Brian take control once more and snatch the frame on the colours. These were two vital points for Brian as it is quite likely that Michael will be one of the frontrunners throughout this league campaign.

The situation at the top is:— Darren Mason leads the way on full points from four games, followed by Brian Ormond who has full points from three games and joint in third place are Michael Doherty and Johnny Sheehan on four points apiece.

This weeks fixtures are posted on the notice board.

Billiards League — I am delighted to report that a positive response was received in our attempts to start a billiards league. Fixtures for the first series of games will be in weeks report.

Peter Ahearne Perpetual Trophy — The draw for the above mentioned tournament was made on Tuesday, November 14 last and reads as follows:

Andy O'Keeffe v. Johnny

Sheehan, Thursday, November 23 at 8 p.m.; Darren Mason v. John Noonan, Monday, November 27 at 8 p.m. P. J. Reddy v. Pa Curran, Wednesday, November 29 at 8 p.m.; Michael Lacey v. Pat Casey, Saturday, November 25 at 8 p.m.; Conor O'Leary v. Roger McLaughlin, Tuesday, November 28 at 8 p.m.; Trevor Mason v. James Morrissey, Wednesday, November 29 at 9 p.m.; Michael Casey v. Michael Doherty, Friday, November 24 at 7.30 p.m.; Pat Kiely v. Brian Ormond, Tuesday, November 28 at 8 p.m.

All matches will be played over three frames. Any player unavailable on the time or date fixed for their match, please notify Darren Mason as soon as possible.

CAPPOQUIN AND DISTRICT DART LEAGUE

MR. DOMINICK BRAY, MOUNT MELLERAY

Neighbours and friends learned with regret of the death on Sunday morning of Mr. Dominick Bray, Mount Melleray. Full obituary in next week's issue.

OLIVER'S VARIETY NIGHT

This colourful and tuneful variety show was presented by the girls of St. Anne's School in St. Mary's Hall during the past week and played before capacity and enthusiastic audiences. Great credit is due to the players and especially to the producers, Grainne O'Connor and Shirley Landers who had clearly laboured hard to secure another outstanding show. Proceeds go to various local charities and there was generous local sponsorship.

CAPPOQUIN MACRA NOTES

Quiz Night — On Thus., Nov. 17 the club held a very successful Table Quiz in Lawlor's Hotel. There was a large attendance with Fawlty's Bar, Cappoquin coming out on top, scoring an incredible 58 pts out of 60. A special word of thanks must go to our quiz master John Kiely who posed all the questions. It is hoped to host another one in the New Year.

Soccer Night — Last Sunday night the club travelled to Conna Sports Centre for an Indoor Soccer Tournament hosted by Ballyduff Macra. Two teams were entered and a great night was had by all.

Cross Country Quiz — The club entered two teams in this competition, both teams did well with Kinsalebeg Macra coming out on top.

Club Visit — On Saturday, November 25, the club has been invited to Waterford City Macra to a night of Ten-Pin Bowling. This is another night in our enjoyable series of visits between both clubs, with a return visit by Waterford to Cappoquin in 2 weeks time. On past experiences a great night is assured for all.

Our next meeting will be on Friday night and new members are welcome.

MR. JOHN QUANN, CAPPOQUIN

We record with deep regret the passing of Mr. John (Johnny) Quann, whose death occurred after a brief illness at the Mercy Hospital, Cork, on Sunday, November 5. Beloved husband of the late Nancy Quann, he was in his 84th year and had enjoyed excellent health throughout his long life.

Originally from Coolagurtwee, he spent his earlier years working on the farm of the Cistercian Monastery in Mount Melleray before settling in Cappoquin where he spent nearly forty years in the service of the Sisters of Mercy.

Johnny was a kindly and loving man who liked the simple things of life but also enjoyed the fun associated with the fairs, weddings and dances of his time. He was a founder member of the old Mullineer Pony Races and the famous "Fagh-A-Balagh" hurling team. His favourite pastime in latter years was the game of "45" and he was a regular Sunday night patron of the sessions in the local hall.

Removal of his remains took place from St. Carthage's House Mortuary to St. Mary's Parish Church, Cappoquin on Monday, November 6. Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul was celebrated on Tuesday by Very Rev. Fr. Wm. Phelan, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Francis O.C.S.O., Rev. Fr. O'Gorman, C.C., Lismore, Rev. Fr. Peter Ahearne, C.C., Abbeyside, Rev. Fr. Stephen Brennan, Australian Missions, Rev. Fr. S. O'Dowd, C.C., Dunmore East. Burial took place in Affane Cemetery immediately afterwards where the officiating clergy were Very Rev. Fr. Barron, P.P. and Rev. Fr. Purcell, C.C.

His coffin was draped in the Tricolour as well as the colours of the "Fagh-A-Balagh" and surviving members of that great team formed a guard of honour at his graveside. Large crowds attended on both occasions and beautiful floral tributes were placed on his grave reflecting the love and affection of so many friends and relatives.

The chief mourners were — sons, Michael (Lismore), John (Cappoquin); daughters, Mrs. Margaret Foley (Abbeyside), Mrs. Breda Casey (Inniscarra, Co. Cork), Mrs. Anne Donovan (Mongally, Aglish); sister, Mrs. Mary Anne Coffey (Mt. Melleray); sons-in-law, John Foley, Patrick Casey, Eamonn Donovan; daughter-in-law, Noreen Quann, Catherine Quann; brother-in-law, Rory O'Connor (Clutahenna); sister-in-law, Bridget O'Connor (Cappoquin); nephews, nieces, grandchildren, relatives and a wide circle of friends.

(Funeral arrangements were by Maurice J. Noonan and Son, Cappoquin.)

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

The photo for our "Remembering Other Days" this week recalls the good old days in the Ring Gaeltacht and the memories of so many of the great personalities of nearly forty years ago who lived in Ring, Ballinagoul and Helvick in those years. Taken in the early 1950's it shows a happy group gathered in the pub of Martin Draper (now Tig An Cheoil) in Ballinagoul and includes: Back row (l. to r.) Micheal O Domhnail, Monny Drummy (R.I.P.), Johnny Bateman (R.I.P.), Deug Morrissey (R.I.P.), Eddie Curran (R.I.P.), not identified, Jack Cuddihy (R.I.P.), Larry Kenneally (R.I.P.), Bill Kelly (R.I.P.), John Walsh (R.I.P.) and Johnny O'Connor; Front Row (l. to r.) Murty Kelly (R.I.P.), Nicholas Fitzgerald (R.I.P.), Martin Draper (R.I.P.), Peggy Griffin (R.I.P.), Tom Griffin, Tom Kelly (R.I.P.) and Batt Drummy (R.I.P.). Also present on the occasion but not included in this picture was Liam O Miodhachan (R.I.P.).

TALLOW NOTES

RED HOUSE LEAGUE

Bride View Utd. 2, Cappoquin 1

While Utd. were beating Cappoquin at home, Ballyduff were dropping a point away to Killeagh.

United opened well and played some grand football for the opening 10 minutes but we failed to convert our chances to goals. It was Cappoquin who took the lead after 15 minutes with a fine headed goal that gave our keeper no chance. Bride View were back on level terms in the 30th minute when Mickey Curley converted a penalty.

One of the best solo efforts this PRO has ever seen took place in the 35th minute when Stephen Curley gained possession deep in his own half and then headed straight for the Cappoquin goal, leaving six or seven player for dead before hitting a fine shot that was well saved by the keeper. The effort deserved a goal but Stephen was not denied three minutes later when he headed home a Mickey Curley corner to give United the lead, a lead they held till the break.

We could have increased our lead 7 minutes into the second half when a Philly Curley cross was sent over the top by his brother Paul. Dermot Henley came close to scoring after 59 minutes but after this Cappoquin came more into the game and went close on a few occasions.

Both sides had goals disallowed in this half, but at the final whistle United had held on to their one goal lead and now they join Ballyduff at the top of the league table, but we have a game in hand.

United — K. Tobin, G. Sice, M. Hartnett, S. Curley, D. Henley, C. Curley, G. Hogan, M. Curley, D. Henley, P. Curley, P. Curley. Reserves — P. Sullivan and M. McCarthy (both used) and B. Henley.

Italy Here We Come — Yes, all roads lead to Italy for the big one after the Republic's win over Malta. Many of the local fans enjoyed the game in "their locals" and we are glad to report all made their way home safely.

Get Well — The club wishes a speedy recovery to David Henley who picked up an injury on Sunday last.

Meeting — A meeting of the committee and players takes place on Saturday night next at 9 o'clock at the Comer House Bar.

Crystal Ripped By Rampant Villa

Villa 5, Dungarvan Crystal 1

It has been a month now since we last played a game and by our performance you could clearly see that we were short of match practice. Although we totally dominated the first half, we failed to do what we have been successful in doing before our break — that is scoring goals.

Villa were one up at half time and went on in the second half to go 5-0 up before Alan Sheehan managed a consolation goal before the end.

Crystal — T. Murphy, S. Cummins, L. Crotty (capt.), T. Sheehan, M. Ferncombe, P. Tutty, W. Halpin, D. McGrath, A. Sheehan, M. Ferncombe, T. O'Grady. Subs.

— P. Dunford, M. O'Brien, S. Woods.

CONGRATS

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Tony Murphy and Martha Rea who were married recently and wish them all the best and happiness for the future from all the lads at Dungarvan Crystal F.C.

Tipperary Motor Club Notes

Last Sunday's Economy Run was a very enjoyable event for all those who took part. The competition started in Clonmel and travelled through Cahir, Bansha, the Glen of Aherlow and on to Mitchelstown for lunch. After lunch, the cars travelled across the Vee and back to Clonmel. First overall was Michael Sheehan in an Opel Corsa with an average of 76 miles per gallon. Second was John Ward and third was Michael Sullivan.

Rally drivers and navigators take note: as and from January 1, new safety regulations state that fireproof underclothes must be worn. Fireproof suits and helmets are the same standard as for 1989. Fireproof balaclavas and socks are recommended as are gloves for drivers. Intrusion bars must also be fitted to all rally car roll cages.

Next meeting is on Wednesday, November 29.

Don't Forget

Panasonic Microwave Demonstration at Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan on to-night Wednesday, November 22 — 8 to 10 p.m. All welcome. Admission free.

TOURANEENA NOTES

COMMUNITY ALERT

You will be delighted to hear Community Alert has arrived in Touraneena and outlying districts. Two meetings have already been held which were attended by a very enthusiastic and large group of people. Fr. Keogh, C.C., was unanimously elected as Chairman, Marie Power is our very able Secretary and Marita Nugent is entrusted with the Treasurer's purse. There is also a committee elected which will eventually assume different responsibilities.

In his opening address Fr. Keogh, C.C. stressed that the role of Community Alert has far wider ideals apart from helping elderly people. It should complement, integrate and mould all the other wonderful organisations in the area with a view to enhancing the quality of life here. He appealed to people getting involved in this worthwhile project to have a constructive and open mind.

Judging by the fruitful discussions at both meetings it appears the foundations of the community are indeed very alert. Garda Michael Fraher explained his role in connection with Community Alert and also imparted some funny and helpful experiences he had. We would like representatives from other organisations and people willing to contribute to the betterment of the way of life to watch these notes or get in touch with any of the elected members. Your support will be greatly appreciated.

PIONEER NOTES

A most enjoyable night was held in the Halfway Bar last Sunday night and the committee would like to thank Mary Condon for the use of her premises and for sponsoring first prize in the raffle which was won by Fiona Ahearne. Congratulations to Fiona and also to Nellie Power who won second prize. Our thanks also to Tony Coffey, Sean Murphy, the Kilrossanty set dancers and all the local musicians who provided music and entertainment during the night free of charge. Thank you to everyone who supported us and to all who helped in any way to make it such a successful night.

COUNTY CHAMPIONS

Congratulations to St. Mary's junior hurlers on winning the county championship at Walsh Park on Sunday last. After a very closely contested game they emerged victorious on the score 1-6 to 1-4. Paddy Walsh was a very capable referee.

Now Touraneena can be very proud as they have brought the double to Touraneena. We also congratulate Fourmilewater on winning the intermediate hurling county final. We are sure it made up in some small way for their disappointment two weeks ago.

HAPPY EVENT

Congratulations to Maurice and Marie on the birth of their second child, a sister for Stephen (Karen).

CARDS

Last week's winners — Sean Whelan and Margaret Grace, George Foran and Biddy Barron, Paddy Cullinan and Pierie Butler. Last Game — May Power and Mary Lonergan. Lucky Tables — Mick Power and Teresa Fitzpatrick, Jim and Mossie Cliffe. Raffle — Kathleen Hickey, Margaret Grace, Kathleen Hearn.

Friary Sale Of Work

The annual Sale of Work in aid of the Augustinian Foreign Missions will take place this year on Friday night, December 1 and Saturday night, December 2 in the Friary Hall at 8 p.m. each night.

Once again this year we have all the attractions of previous years: raffles, stalls and the ever popular wheel of fortune. All our prizes are up to the usual high standard, and we have so many that you are nearly sure to win one or two!

Saturday afternoon will be kiddies time. We are having our Fancy Dress Parade from the Square at 2 p.m. Santa is coming specially to lead the Fancy Dress Parade down Main Street, so why don't you dress up and join Santa and all the other young people to make it a monster fancy dress parade.

If you have any gifts or donations for the Sale of Work then you can give them to the collectors as they call on you or simply drop them in to Friary House. Bottles (full!) of any description are always welcome for our Bottle Stall.

So, make a note of it and put it in your diary — Friday and Saturday, 1 and 2 December — the Friary Sale of Work. We look forward to meeting you all in the Friary Hall on one or even both nights. (Advt.)

Blues Duo At Anchor

ELVA CROWLEY AND PAUL MILLER (BLUES DUO) AT THE ANCHOR, FRIDAY NOVEMBER 24

Elva Crowley (vocals) and Paul Miller (piano) met at a music session in Donegal in May 1989 and decided to form a blues duo. Covering a mixture of styles from Bessie Smith to Billie Holiday including their own material, they play their interpretation of the blues, some sad, some funny and often suggestive.

ELVA CROWLEY — a Dublin born singer/songwriter, gained her experience in Ireland and England — a respected vocalist who sang with various London based bands, was involved with 'The Community Workshop' in London during 1986/'87 and sang in the International Voice Festival at the Albany Empire, London. On returning to Ireland she formed a Dublin based all female band 'The Swing Sisters' who during 1987/'88 made appearances at various Dublin venues. Elva sang at the Cork Jazz Festival 1988 in the 'Triskel Arts Centre.'

PAUL MILLER — An English, Dublin based keyboard player/songwriter gained his experience playing a wide range of musical styles with various bands in London, Manchester and Ireland, the most notable being the Donegal based band 'Quarterdeck' in which he was keyboard player/writer for five years. Elva and Paul have played extensively in Donegal, and play this years Cork Jazz Festival in 'The Country Club', followed by dates in Donegal, Galway, Wexford and Waterford.

They look forward to their first visit to Dungarvan and should not be missed by any fans of Jazz/Blues, etc. See you Friday, November 24 at 9 p.m.

Finnisk Branch Comhaltas Ceoltoiri Eireann Notes

The Branch was very well represented at the County Board Social which was held on Saturday, November 18, in Lawlor's Hotel. After a very enjoyable meal the Ballycoe Ceili Band played music that had everyone dancing immediately and the night was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

If you would enjoy a night of music and song why not come to Murray's, Aglish on Saturday, November 25, as the Branch are holding an Irish Night there. These nights are always popular and very enjoyable so make a note of the date.

Plans are now finalised for the Christmas Party in Aglish Community Hall on Thursday, December 28 at 8 p.m. We have this party every year with music being provided by all the music class.

Pupils attending music classes should note that there will be a music class on December 19.

'The Hostage' In Whitechurch House Hotel

Ballinameela Aglish Dramatics are about to stage Brendan Behan's controversial three act play in Whitechurch House Hotel. This play has a cast of almost twenty people and is set in a very run down Dublin Lodging house in 1960.

The author the late Brendan Behan is regarded by many drama people as one of the most famous dramatists of modern times. His other plays include "The Quare Fellow", "Borstal Boy" and "Richards Cork Leg". The latter play was produced after Behan's death and featured "The Dubliners." Brendan Behan himself was born in 1923 into a strong republication family. His mother was a sister to Peadar Kearney — the author of the Irish National Anthem. The young Behan joined the republican movement as a youngster and was interned as a political prisoners in the Curragh from 1942-1946. He learnt Irish in jail from a fellow prisoner and began to write poetry, short stories and plays.

In the early 1950's he worked for R.T.E. Radio as a singer and scriptwriter in "The Balladmakers Saturday Night" programme. His brother who died recently was the well known singer Dominick Behan author of "The Patriot Game."

The Hostage is full of music, ballads and dancing, with a nice little romantic story at the centre of it all. The cast includes most of the stars of the group's strong production — "Big Maggie" and a few new faces. William O'Brien and Sheelagh McGrath combine with Patrick Ryan, Phyl McGrath, Tony McCarthy, Michael Stack, Tom Ahearn, Anne Meskill, William Downing, Julie Horsom and Brid Neilsen. The central character of the Hostage is played by Jim McGrath. The producer is Fr. Michael O'Byrne and the musical backing by Michael Culloo and the local veteran musician Eugene Flanagan.

The venue for this play Whitechurch House Hotel is a unique drama setting. Patrons can enjoy the full bar facilities for the night out and enjoy "The Hostage".

The play is on Mon./Tues./Wed. and Thurs., December 11, 12, 13 and 14, advance booking is essential. Booking is now open at Tony McCarthy, Ballinameela (058) 68091 after 6 p.m.

In Memoriam

HOGAN — Fourth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear brother John Hogan, late of 2 Woodview Park, Tallow, who died on November 19, 1985. November comes with sad regret, For it brings back a day we will never forget, You fell asleep without goodbye, But memories of you will never die. (Always remembered by his sister Helen O'Connor and Patrick and family, No. 9 Townspark East, Lismore.)

HOGAN — Fourth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear brother John Hogan, late of 2 Woodview Park, Tallow, who died on November 19, 1985. A day of remembrance, silently kept, Of one we loved and will never forget. Will those who think of him, today, A little prayer to Jesus say. (Always remembered by his sister Kathleen, Michael and family, Lismore.)

HAYES — Tenth Anniversary — In loving memory of our dad, William (Bill) Hayes, late of Garrybrittas, Glencairn and Chelsea, London, who died November 22, 1979, aged 71 years, at Ardkreen Hospital. We miss you from your fireside chair, Your 'crack' was great when it filled the air, Like our mum, you were the best, Our lovely parents, now both laid to rest. (We also think at this time of our cousin Nell Heaphy — First Anniversary — who died November 25, 1988, formerly 4 New Street, Lismore). Both R.I.P. (Always in our thoughts — your sons Michael and Maurice, daughter Ann, eight grandchildren, Hemel Hemstead.)

HEALY — Eighth Anniversary — In loving memory of my father, Thomas Healy, late of King Street, Abbeyside, who died on November 24, 1981. R.I.P. Masses offered. Masses and prayers are all we can give, These you will have as long as we live. (Always remembered by his loving son John, daughter-in-law Breda and grandchildren.)

KILLIGREW — Tenth Anniversary — In loving memory of James Killigrew, late of Kilcannon and Cappoquin, whose anniversary occurs at this time. Will those who think of him today, A little prayer to Jesus say. (Never forgotten by his loving family.)

MACKEY — First Anniversary — In loving memory of Con Mackey, Leigh, Ring, Dungarvan, who died on November 21, 1988. The past year without you, Is the saddest I have known, I treasure every thought of you, When I am all alone. I wonder to your graveside, And place each flower with care, But no one knows the heartache, When I turn and leave you there. Life goes on, I know that's true, It's not the same since I lost you, May the wind of love blow gently, And whisper for you to hear, How much I miss and love you, And wish that you were here. (Always in our thoughts — your loving wife, Mary.)

MACKEY — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear father, Con Mackey, Leigh, Ring, Dungarvan, who died on November 21, 1988. The lonely way you had to die, Is always on my mind, I wonder if you called my name, I wonder if you cried. No one you loved was by your side, To hear your last faint sigh, To whisper just a loving word, And the reason why. November comes with sad regret, It brings back a day we cannot forget. (Always loved and never forgotten — your loving daughter Gretta, son-in-law Guy.)

MACKEY — First Anniversary — In loving memory of our dear grandad, Con Mackey, Leigh, Ring, Dungarvan, who died on November 21, 1988. A sudden call from God on high, We had no chance to say goodbye, Without farewell you fell asleep, But memories of you will always keep. (Love you always grandad — Klara and Con.)

MACKEY — First Anniversary — In loving memory of Con Mackey, Leigh, Ring, Dungarvan, who died on November 21, 1988. As time goes by without you, dad, And days turn into years, They hold a million memories, And many a silent tear. I will never cease to love you, I will never cease to care, For you are always in my heart, And will stay forever there. (Always loved and remembered — your son Gerard.)

The past year without you, Is the saddest I have known, I treasure every thought of you, When I am all alone. I wonder to your graveside, And place each flower with care, But no one knows the heartache, When I turn and leave you there. Life goes on, I know that's true, It's not the same since I lost you, May the wind of love blow gently, And whisper for you to hear, How much I miss and love you, And wish that you were here. (Always in our thoughts — your loving wife, Mary.)

ATHLETICS

Munster Title For Young Mark Radley

Dungarvan athlete Mark Radley won the boys U-12 Munster Cross Country title at Glanworth, Co. Cork, last Sunday in a very exciting race when he unleashed a lengthy sprint effort from four hundred metres out to take him from fifth place to the winning enclosure.

Cork boy M. O'Sullivan (West Muskerry) had opened what looked like a winning lead but young Radley, pacing his final effort to perfection, swept past the Cork boy in the finishing straight and came home a worthy winner.

On the day, other fine individual Waterford performances came from Michael Molumphy (Lismore) 5th in the same race, Daniel O'Donnell (Cappoquin/Ballinameela) 12th in the U-14 boys race, Elaine Fitzgerald (Tramore) 7th in the girls U-16 race while Kieran Maher from Ring, running in the colours of Cappoquin/Ballinameela, added to his fine 7th place in the boys U-17 Munster race when running impressively to finish a close-up 5th in the boys U-16 race. Martin Lacey of the same club finished 11th in this race, when showing his best form to date this season.

At Munster championship level the first twelve competitors and the first three clubs qualify for the All-Ireland championships and at club level last Sunday, the U-12 girls from Ring/Old Parish qualified with Martina Hayes, Emer Kiely, Bridget Whelan, Michelle Power and Niamh Harty all running well. The Dungarvan team of Andrea Travers, Aisling Power, Aileen Hogan and Tara Foley fared well in their Munster experience while C. Kiely and G. Cahill (Cappoquin/Ballinameela) led all the above to secure the bronze medal for the Waterford team.

In the boys U-12 race Dungarvan A.C. exceeded all expectations when finishing 3rd in their Munster championship race with Bryan Power, Alan Moore, Darren Healy and Shane Hayes backing up Mark Radley in great fashion and so qualified for the All-Ireland.

Waterford finished 3rd in the Inter-County race and it was good to see Jamie Costin (Ring/Old Parish) winning his first Munster medal. The Waterford placings were Mark Radley, Dungarvan (1st); Michael Molumphy, Lismore (5th); Larry Morrissey, Ferrybank (13th); Jamie Costin, Ring/Old Parish (24th); Bryan Power, Dungarvan (28th) and Alan Moore, Dungarvan (30th).

GREAT NUMBER OF MEDALS

Munster medals came back to Waterford in great numbers last Sunday evening and the boys U-14 team played their part when finishing 3rd with Daniel O'Donnell (Cappo-quin/Ballinameela) 12th, Conor Murphy (Ring/Old Parish) 17th, Derek Kenneally (Ring/Old Parish) 19th, Richard Finnegan (Ring/Old Parish) 24th, Michael Hurley (Dungarvan) 36th, and Shane Young (Ring/Old Parish) 45th making up the team.

Cappoquin/Ballinameela A.C. packed very well in the girls U-16 race to finish 3rd and qualify for the All-Ireland championships. Corrina Walsh finished very strongly in her best race lately to lead home Claire Maher, Niamh Scanlon and Karen O'Donnell to the bronze medals. Waterford also finished 3rd in the Inter-County event.

In the boys U-16 race Waterford finished 3rd and the team was Kieran Maher (Cappoquin/Ballinameela), Martin Lacey (Cappoquin/Ballinameela), F. Walsh, (Tramore), Eoin Cunningham (Ring/Old Parish), K. Ryan (St. Paul's) and Conor Prendergast (Cappoquin/Ballinameela).

Michael Roche (Dungarvan A.C.) defended his U-14 title successfully on Sunday last while Elizabeth Butler (Villierstown) finished second in the ladies intermediate championship and Waterford did likewise in the team event.

Fourmilewater Win Intermediate Title

FOURMILEWATER 1-11; ERIN'S OWN 1-8

Fourmilewater were fully deserving winners of this county intermediate hurling final at Walsh Park on Sunday last. Even though they only won by three points the Ballymac' side were overall a better team and made up for last years defeat by Passage.

Playing with great determination and commitment and assisted by the breeze they led at half time by 1-10 to 0-1. The goal came from corner forward Sean Guiry in the 29th minute after he had another effort well saved by Noel O'Connor in the Erin's Own goal a minute earlier. O'Connor had taken down a line ball and Guiry banged the ball to the net. The city side's only score of the half came from Michael Hoban after 7 minutes.

David Robinson pointed a "65" for Erin's Own two minutes after the restart but Paddy Joe Ryan pointed a Fourmilewater free in the 35th minute. Ryan scored a total of 5 points for his side. At the end of the third quarter the winners were 1-11 to 0-5 in front but Erin's Own inspired by Liam O'Connor who was now at centre forward were coming more into the game. Bobby Coady goaled for them in the 49th minute after Noel Kelly had pointed a free and that left them only five points in arrears.

Fourmilewater missed a scoreable free in the 53rd minute and their defence held firm until the game went into time added on when Liam O'Connor and M. Coady sent over Erin's Own points to leave three points in it at the final whistle.

This victory gives Fourmilewater the title they last won in 1979 and captain Richard Guiry was presented with the cup by County Board Chairman, Eamonn Murphy amid scenes of great excitement.

St. Marys Win Junior Title

St. Marys 1-6, Ballydurn 1-4

St. Marys junior hurlers captured the county title when they scored a two point win over Ballydurn at Walsh Park on Sunday last.

Despite playing against the breeze the winners led at half time by 0-2 to 0-1, with the points coming from Lar Whelan frees in the 8th and 15th minutes.

Marys were 0-4 to 0-1 in front after 41 minutes, but Michael Halley slammed home a Ballydurn goal to tie the scores after 44 minutes. Tom Condon restored the Marys lead a minute later with a point. Ger Bagge equalised for the Eastern champions before Michael Halley put them in front with a point, thirteen minutes from time.

In the 22nd minute, St. Marys were awarded a free and Lar Whelan's effort went all the way to the Ballydurn net to give the Westerners a two point lead. Eamonn Butler and Michael Hubbard exchanged points, but there were no scores in the final seven minutes St. Marys held on for victory. They actually finished the stronger and missed two great chances in the closing five minutes.

St. Marys have now completed the double as their sister club, Sliabh gCua won the intermediate football title two weeks ago.

Best for the winners were Pat Hearn, Tom Condon, Kieran Hallahan, Lar Whelan, the Hallinans, the Butlers and John Dalton, while Michael Hubbard, Ger Bagge, the Dunphys and the Harneys tried hard for Ballydurn.

Scorers — St. Marys — L. Whelan 1-2, P. Hallinan, K. Hallahan, T. Condon, E. Butler 0-1 each; Ballydurn — M. Halley 1-1, M. Hubbard 0-2, G. Bagge 0-1.

DUNGARVAN HOCKEY NOTES

VICTORY IN BANDON

Both Dungarvan Minor A and Minor B teams made the long journey to Bandon last Saturday and recorded well deserved victories.

MINOR B LEAGUE

Another superb team performance by Dungarvan ensured a third victory in a row for the seaiders. It was a well deserved victory with Dungarvan well ahead in terms of both determination and skill.

Dungarvan began eagerly and the supporters did not have too long to wait for the first goal. Siobhan Kelly combined superbly with Roisin Foley for the latter to score. Soon afterwards Siobhan Kelly scored herself, expertly flicking home a cross from the right. Bandon pulled a goal back just on the stroke of half time.

The second half was again dominated in the main by Dungarvan. The highlight of this half was Roisin Foley's superb solo goal following a very skillful run. The top goal was scored by

Team — Ann Bones, Grainne Kelly (capt), Angela Cashin, Patrice Curran, Catherine Tobin, Nora Barry, Roisin Foley, Mary Murphy, Mary Keane, Siobhan Kelly, Mary Kearns.

Players of the Match — Siobhan Kelly and Roisin Foley.

Umpire — Christine O'Keeffe.

MINOR A LEAGUE

DUNGARVAN 1

Dungarvan at last struck the form of which they are capable. It was certainly their best performance of the season with all players finding their form.

Although the scoreline suggests a close match, Dungarvan were always in control. The winning goal was scored near half-time, Christine O'Keeffe flicking home a cross from the right.

Dungarvan had a second goal disallowed in the second half, Christine O'Keeffe again the scorer. The umpire was unsighted and did not see that Christine had struck the ball from inside the circle.

Best for Dungarvan — Yvonne Landers, Kate Cagney, Roisin Foley, Tess Reynolds and Martina Moore.

Team — Yvonne Landers, Kayte Cagney, Avice Kiely, Martha Harnett (capt), Ann Bones, Roisin Foley, Martina Moore, Bernie Power, Tess Reynolds, Christine O'Keeffe, Mary Murphy.

Umpire — Angela Cashin.

ALLROUNDER LADIES LADDER

On Tuesday, November 14, the first set of five games in the Ladies Ladder came to a close. It's proving to be a very exciting competition with only one point separating our top three ladies. We also have a new number one, with Cindy Brady taking over the coveted top spot.

The top six ladies now read: No. 1, Cindy Brady (25 points); No. 2, Helen Kiely (25 pts.); No. 3, Fiona Fitzgerald (24 pts.); No. 4, Margaret Browne (14 pts.); No. 5, Hilary Browne (29 pts.); No. 6, Ann Elstead (24 pts.).

The promotion and relegations after the first section are as follows: Promoted to Div. 1: Hilary Browne and Ann Elstead; relegated to Div. 2: Josephine Harty, Josephine O'Riordan; promoted to Div. 2: Rita Moore, Ann Hennebry; relegated to Div. 3: Mary Coffey, Lily Hannigan; promoted to Div. 3: Mary Walshe, Colette O'Mahoney; relegated to Div. 4: Rose Dwane, Patricia Walshe; promoted to Div. 4: Cathy Mahony, Michelle Mernin; relegated to Div. 5: Jacinta O'Mahoney, Mary Collins; promoted to Div. 5: Pat Clancy, Una O'Halloran.

On the all-important points leaderboard, Hilary Browne and Pat Clancy lead the way with 29 points, followed by Rita Moore, 26 points. Points board: (1) Hilary Browne and Pat Clancy, 29 pts.; (3) Rita Moore 26 pts.; (4) Cindy Brady, Helen Kiely and Anne Hennebry 25 pts. Last season's winner, Fiona Fitzgerald, is very much in touch on 24 points. With the second section of five games just underway, Joan Elstead has forced her way up the leadership board with 29 points (6 games).

ALLROUNDER MEN'S LADDER

It was also finishing night for the men on November 14. The closest section was Div. 3, with Maurice Walsh safely promoted with 27 points, the battle was on for the second promotion spot. For this Ray Moore and John Foley tied on 20 points apiece. In their head to head clash they drew 2-2, so it was all down to a countback, where Ray got the nod by virtue of 3-0 victories.

In Div. 1, Pat Phelan holds on to his top spot with Eddie Moore moving up to second place. The top six now read: No.1, Pat Phelan, 25 pts.; No. 2, Eddie Moore, 23 pts.; No. 3, Michael O'Mahoney, 15 pts.; No. 4, Tommy Butler, 10 pts.; No. 5, Stephen Lyons, 2 pts.; No. 6, Liam Hansberry, 19 pts.

The ups and downs are as follows: relegated to Div. 2, Francis Power (retired) replaced by Liam O Tuama who comes on a big transfer fee from Highfield in Cork; promoted to Div. 1, Liam Hansberry; relegated to Div. 3, Dermot Kelly, Pearse Moloney; promoted to Div. 2, Maurice Walsh, Ray Moore; relegated to Div. 4, Richard Gough, Michael Kelly (replaced by Colm Bannon); promoted to Div. 4, Dick Brady, Dave Mahony; relegated to Div. 6, Ray Dwyer, Michael O'Dwyer; promoted to Div. 5, Owen O'Mahoney, Dave Tuohy; relegated to Div. 7, Pat Power, Terry Flynn; promoted to Div. 6, Peter Stam, John Kelly; relegated to Div. 8, George Harney, Jo Ryan; promoted to Div. 7, Hank Regan, Pat Breen; relegated to Div. 9, Paul O'Brien, Gerry McCullagh; promoted to Div. 8, Cindy Brady, Michael Clancy; relegated to Div. 10, Ger Hanley, Denis Hayes; promoted to Div. 9, Liam Moore, Larry Kiely.

On the points front, top lady Cindy Brady and Peter Stam are in front of the pack on 28 pts., closely followed by Maurice Walsh on 27 pts. Points board reads: (1) Cindy Brady, Peter Stam, 28; (3) Maurice Walsh, 27; (4) Pat O'Brien, Dick Brady 26; (6) Pat Phelan, Owen O'Brien 25.

Ladder organisers, Joe Mulcahy and Ann Hennebry deserve special praise. For the amount of work and effort it takes to produce the ladder is not realised by the players, so I would ask all participants to make a special effort to play all their games, no walkovers, please.

TRUSTEE SAVINGS BANK

The TSB five-person tournament, our last of the year and the eighties, gets under way Monday, November 20 and continues until Wednesday night, December 13. A very good entry of 75 was received. Some interesting ties to look forward to in the first round are: Pat O'Brien versus Maurice Walsh; the battle of David and Goliath as Paul O'Brien takes on Michael Fitzgerald; we have our international clash as Rene di Fusco takes on Peter Stam, and new boy Liam O Tuama from Cork makes his club debut against Tommy Butler. Our tip for victory is the 'D' team of Tony Keaver, Dave Mahony, Pat Breen, Margaret Browne and Rose Dwane.

For the record, only one of last season's winning team is in this season's line-up to defend his title, he being Liam Treacy. The winning team was (1) Eddie Moore 3, Sean Cleary 1; (2) Fiona Fitzgerald 0, Kieran Foley 3; (3) Derek Lyons 3, Ann Wyley 1; (4) Liam Treacy 3, Rene di Fusco 1; (5) John Coade 0, Paul Walsh w/o.

St. Laurence's Tennis Club Notes

CIVIL SERVICE PLATE

Early on Sunday morning, November 12 our ladies Civil Service team consisting of Frances Carroll, Margaret Cusack, Ruth Byrne, Margaret Browne, Hilary Browne and Majella Cummins headed for Douglas Tennis Club to participate in the final of the Civil Service Plate against a very strong Sunday Well team.

Our ladies knew from the very start that it would be an up-hill struggle all the way as this very experienced Sunday's Well team were very strongly fancied. However, they weren't going to give in easily and only after some terrific play be the city side, were they eventually overcome.

Hero of the day for St. Laurence's was without a doubt, Majella Cummins who had a fantastic 10-8 victory over a very strong challenger, Margaret Cusack also had a very tight match before eventually going down 10-8. Each of the other girls never gave up the fight but were all beaten by better players on the day.

The score at the end of the six singles matches was 5-1 to Sunday's Well which meant that the doubles matches were irrelevant. The Civil Service Plate was staying in Cork City. Well done to Sunday's Well team and congratulations to our gallant ladies team who showed great potential in reaching the final. Maybe

MENS LADDER

Due to the excellent response we have received during the past two weeks to the introduction of a mens singles ladder, it is hoped that the ladder will commence the weekend beginning November 25. Abbeyside S.A.C. Notes

On Sunday evening last we fished the second of our Christmas competitions. We had a reasonably good turnout considering the way the night turned out. Driving galeforce winds and rain sorted out the real anglers.

There were an amount of fish returned, Donal Crowley even with his bad back proved to us he can still catch fish and after binding myself to the railings down in Quann's, I managed a few catches. Jimmy Maher and Jimmy Lenihan who were fishing just above me after some conversation discovered that you cannot mistake a bag of water for a fish.

Results — 1st Tony Crowe; 2nd Brian Mansfield; 3rd Jimmy Maher, 4th Martin Tobin.

There were a variety of 4 bass, dog, coal, eel, and the 20 or so anglers who fished caught a total of 17 fish.

The juvenilea failed to land a fish so that draw will be made at a later date. The bottle of whiskey was won by the Sea Scorpion and by God I will enjoy it.

Next competition will be held on Saturday, December 2, venue Harbour area. Fishing time 6 to 9 p.m. — Sea Scorpion.

DIV. 1B LEAGUE

Dungarvan Still On Course For Honours

DUNGARVAN 2 KILMACOW 0

Dungarvan finally laid the Kilmacow bogey to rest at Kilrush Park on Saturday last with an emphatic 2-0 nil victory. This was the Blues fourth win on the trot and one that keeps them well in the hunt for league honours.

Dungarvan began this game at a frantic pace and could have been three goals up after just ten minutes. B. Sheehan and T. Hamilton combined to force the ball home after four minutes but the ref. ruled out the goal. Minutes later G. Beresford made a great run down the left and his far post cross was met by T. Hamilton whose powerful header was well saved by the keeper. Houlihan should have opened the Blues account in the tenth minute when a great run took him clear of the visitors defence but he delayed his shot and the ball was cleared.

Kilmacow gradually clawed their way back into the game but once again our defence refused to buckle with Hamilton and Whelan playing starring roles, while behind them J. Wall had his best game to date between the posts producing a string of fine saves.

The visitors almost went ahead after 18 minutes when the centre forward hit a tremendous volley inches over. They broke through again shortly afterwards when the centre forwards pass found the winger who hit a left footed shot just wide. It all came right for Dungarvan after twenty eight minutes when B. Sheehan found M. Houlihan who shook off two tackles and played the ball into D. Crotty's path and he hammered it past the advancing keeper. With the advantage of a strong wind in the second half the Blues laid siege to Kilmacow's goal, but found it difficult to break down a tough tackling visitors rearguard. The all important second goal came mid-way through the half when T. Hamilton headed on to J. Hughes who put B. Sheehan clear to fire home the Blues second. Dungarvan should have put the issue beyond doubt before the end when Sheehan was taken down in the box but Whelan's spot kick lacked power and the keeper pushed it behind. This side face another difficult assignment on Sunday morning next when they take on Bohs in Kilrush park. With players like — "Sheppy" Daley, Brendan Madden, "Sooty" Coffey and Pat Quinlan in their line-up, the Blues will have to be at their best if they are to gain another brace of valuable league points.

Team — J. Wall, G. Hamilton (capt), Ml. Donnelly, Ml. Hickey, B. Whelan, M. Houlihan, J. Hughes, D. Crotty, G. Beresford, T. Hamilton, B. Sheehan. Res. — M. Shalloe for G. Hamilton, M. Sheehan for Ml. Hickey.

BALLINROAD A.F.C. NOTES

DIV. 3A

Ballinroad Show Great Spirit

STRADBALLY 1 BALLINROAD 2

A very much under-strength Ballinroad side got two welcome points from their clash with neighbours Stradbally on Sunday last.

Short the services of Ray Burke, Eddie O'Grady and Brian O'Sullivan from last weeks side they travelled to Stradbally with just eleven players and they were in further trouble when Paul Tobin and manager Mike Veale who togged off to make up a team were injured early in the first half. Paul Tobin was forced to retire and with Mike Veale a virtual passenger Ballinroad seemed to be in dire trouble as they faced up to the home side who were fielding their strongest side of the season, but Ballinroad who played with great commitment throughout the game shocked them with a goal early on. Ballinroad were awarded a free-kick in their own half and when Pat Keane chipped the ball over the Stradbally defence, Liam Crotty raced through and his well placed shot gave K. Heffernan no chance in the home goal. Ballinroad were forced to defend desperately after this score and were glad of the break when ref. Joe Murphy sounded the half time whistle.

Ballinroad defended heroically throughout the second half against a home side who were intent on walking the ball into the visitors goal area.

Eight minutes from time in a rare attack Ballinroad again unhinged the Stradbally defence. A great through ball from Pat Flynn put Liam Crotty in the clear and after skipping past two defenders he drew the keeper and expertly placed his shot in the corner of the net. As the game went in to the final minutes Stradbally pulled a goal back when Liam O'Brien scored from a penalty. It took a great save from Pakie Lynch in the final seconds to deny Stradbally an equaliser.

This was a fine team display by Ballinroad with every player doing his bit to secure victory but special mention must be made of young Derek Murray who at 15 years old looks a great prospect for the future.

Team — Lynch, B. Burke, Keane, Power, Fraher, Foley, Flynn, Crotty, Tobin, Veale, Murray.
Ref. — Joe Murray.

DIVISION 4 RATHGORMACK 2 BALLINROAD 1

Ballinroad's recent good run came to a disappointing end when they failed to Rathgormack on Sunday evening last. Rathgormack opened up a two goal lead as Ballinroad who gained a lot of possession missed the simplest of goal scoring chances. Les Delahunty pulled a goal back for Ballinroad when he scored from an acute angle, but this hard hitting Rathgormack side held out in a tight finish.

Team — Veale, O'Connor, Lenihan, Crotty, McGovern, Foley, Daly, O'Halloran, J. Veale, Delahunty, Dwyer. Res. — Condon for Dwyer (inj).

Ref. — Ml. Brennan.
UNDER-14

ST. JOSEPH'S 1 BALLINROAD 1

This was a great result for Ballinroad who had only ten players at the game as Kieran O'Brien and Damien Harkin cried off sick before the game.

Ballinroad took the game to St. Joseph's from the start and it came as no surprise when Michael Brett shot the visitors into the lead in the 25th minute.

Their lead was short lived however as St. Joseph's scored an equaliser just before half-time. Both sides missed chances in the second half and a draw was a fair result on the day. Thanks to Mike Veale and Paul Tobin for travelling with this team on Saturday last.

Team — Whelan, Kenneally, Fraher, Murray, O'Brien, Phelan, Shields, Tobin, Kavanagh, Brett.

FIXTURES

DUNGARVAN UNITED SCHOOLBOYS U-16

Tramore Much Too Good For The Blues

TRAMORE 5; DUNGARVAN 1

Tramore started very well and played very good football, Dungarvan looked nervous and could not get to grips with this game.

Dungarvan played the same Tramore side in the cup final last season and inflicted a heavy defeat on them and this seemed the incentive for Tramore to reverse the result.

After 20 minutes the home side took the lead, a corner from the right and the big No. 5 for Tramore was unchallenged to head home his side's first goal. The Blues settled down and played some good football and after 30 minutes a good move from midfield and a cross from Brian Beatty was met by David Whelan to make the sides level at halftime.

Into the second half and the home team played some excellent football and were unlucky not to go ahead, shortly after this Tramore did take the lead with a fine goal from the centre forward.

The home side went further ahead to make the score 3-1. Dungarvan didn't try at all through most of the second half and the Blues defence was under severe pressure only the efforts of S. Downey, Nial Considine, David Cummins and Pa Drummy kept the home team at bay and two fine saves by Alan Landers kept the score down. But Tramore scored yet again, from a corner from the left this time. Alan Landers called but the ball tipped the top of his fingers and the forward just tapped the ball into the empty net. After 35 minutes Tramore put a good move together and scored their fifth and final goal.

The Blues put a good move together near the end of the game, when a long kick-out was picked up by Chris Gough who took on the Tramore defence and slipped the ball to Brian Beatty who beat two defenders and was flattened in the penalty area. Benny Landers stepped up to take the kick but he sent it wide.

The Blues have a lot of work to do if they are to get back to their best form. This was a very bad display by Dungarvan.

RED HOUSE LEAGUE

The seventh series of games this weekend marked the halfway stage of Division 1. In the Division 2 there are still two games remaining before half-way. Results were: Div. 1 — Killeagh 3, Ballyduff 3; Glenview 1, Lismore 0; Brideview 2, Cappoquin 1; Valley Rangers 3, Affane 1.

These results leave Ballyduff and Bride View joint leaders on 11 points. Bride View have a game in hand. Killeagh are third on 9 with a gap to Cappoquin on 6.

In the second division, Youghal, with a good win in Ardmore, are leaders on 11, one point ahead of Modeligo on 10 with Ardmore, Cappoquin and Grange on 8.

Fixtures for next week are: Div. 1 — Bride View v. Affane, Lismore v. Ballyduff, Cappoquin v. Glenview, Valley Rangers v. Killeagh; Division 2 — Youghal v. Cappoquin, Modeligo v. Pinewood Rovers, Inch v. Mogeely, Carriglea Rovers v. Ardmore.

FAIR RESULT

Cappoquin B 2, Grange 2

A draw was an eminently fair result of this second division game at Tourin on Sunday morning. After a slow beginning the game livened up when Pat Manahan headed Grange into the lead after twelve minutes. Exchanges were hard but always fair, and Cappoquin levelled from the penalty spot through Philip Bergin, when Liam Lacey was taken down in the area after a good run.

In the second quarter Cappoquin took the lead when Rhiney Walsh ran on to a great through ball from Pat Cullen to hammer an unstoppable shot past Grange goalkeeper Andrew O'Sullivan. The scoreline remained unchanged until frantic Grange pressure forced a resolute Cappoquin into its only error midway through the second half.

Pat Manahan's first spot kick was brilliantly palmed away by Noel O'Donoghue as also was his second when following up, but it was third time lucky for the Grange attacker when he forced his third shot past the diving keeper. Grange continued to come looking for a winner, but Cappoquin kept their goal intact.

Centre backs John Cahill, Darren Mason and Conor O'Leary at midfield made important contributions at this time. Centre forward Rhiney Walsh scored his first goal for his new club and was unlucky when his second half header came back off the post.

Grange were not a whit behind in illustrating the high quality of Division Two standards. Their total commitment helped to make that exciting second half. Full backs Martin Curran and Paul Brown, midfielders Micheal O'Domhnaill and Pat Roche, and front runners Pat Manahan and Noel Heaphy were capable leaders of an impressive team performance.

Cappoquin — N. O'Donoghue, P. Walsh, P. J. Kiely, J. Cahill, D. Mason, C. O'Leary, P. Bergin, P. Cullen, L. Lacey, R. Walsh, K. O'Donnell, B. O'Sullivan, S. Mason.

Grange — A. O'Sullivan, M. Curran, P. Brown, T. Kelly, P. Roche, M. O'Domhnaill, D. Condon, S. Curran, N. Heaphy, P. Manahan, D. O'Connor, S. Wade, J. Salmon.

RAILWAY ATHLETIC F.C. NOTES

Railway Tumble Table-Toppers

VILLA 0 RAILWAY ATHLETIC 1

Our U-13's put up a spectacular performance away to table-toppers Villa and came away with two points. We started well and had Villa pinned in their half for most of the game. Our goal came in the 15th minute when K. Radley made a great run into the box and was taken down. E. Murphy took the spot kick and made no mistake. We could have scored a few more but lack of confidence kept the score at 1-0.

The second half was the same and Railway kept up the pressure and in the end it paid off.

Team — N. Maher, T. O'Connor, T. Fitzgerald, J. Dalton, J. Quann (capt), D. Coughlan, E. Murphy, I. Flynn, J. Lynch, G. Arrigan, K. Radley. Res. — J. Manahan for J. Lynch; Tom O'Connor, M. Moynihan, B. Landers, A. Morrissey, P. Keniry, B. Keniry.

DUNGARVAN RUGBY CLUB NOTES

CUP DEFEAT IN EXTRA-TIME

Clonmel 12 Dungarvan 0 (after extra-time)

Heartbreak for our 1st XV who were beaten by 2 converted tries in extra-time on Sunday last.

Both teams finished nil all after normal time, but in extra-time Clonmel scored a very fortunate try from a penalty kick which went harmlessly wide of the post and a Clonmel winger was well up to get the touch-down, which they also converted. Shortly afterwards as Dungarvan had to "run the ball" a break down along our backs led to their 2nd try and victory to Clonmel.

Once again our pack put up a solid performance with Frank Ahearne, Dec Dower, Jimmy Morrissey and Eamon Spratt and Austin Curran to the fore, with Niall Parkes and Eddie Lonergan doing well in the line-outs.

Full-back Andy Halley had another fine game and was unlucky with a penalty that came off the posts.

Team — A. Halley, P. Mullaney, D. Salmon, P. McGrath, E. Phelan, M. Brackett, Mk. O'Connor, D. Dower, J. Morrissey (capt), L. O'Donnell, Ed. Lonergan, F. Ahearne, A. Curran, E. Spratt, N. Parkes. Res. — J. Curran for N. Parkes (inj).

GLENVIEW A.F.C. NOTES

Club History For Determined Glenview

GLENVIEW 1; LISMORE 0

Glenview beat Lismore in the league for the first time in our history on Sunday last.

The match was played under windy conditions and Lismore chose to play with the elements in the first half. This local derby was eagerly awaited by Glenview and we played with a passion and determination which Lismore were never to match. The Glenview defence stood solid against any Lismore attack. Our midfield was creative and our forwards razor sharp. Pat Casey confidently dealt with the high ball in the swirling breeze, his handling superb.

The goal came towards the end of the first half, McGrath and Lonergan exchanged passes in midfield and then McGrath sent Pat Hallissey away on the right wing and his cross was scrambled away, but only to the edge of the box where McGrath following up, smashed the ball to the back of the net.

The second half was marred by some persistent Lismore fouling with two Lismore players being booked.

Lismore pressed forward and P. J. Dolan coolly cleared the ball off the line. Glenview had some fine attacking breaks and were unlucky not to add to the score-line. A fine team performance and one we are all pleased with.

Leonard Frazer refereed the game and handled the local derby excellently.

Team — Casey, G. Power, McBride, J. Power, Dolan, Kett, Duggan, Lonergan, O'Donnell, Hallissey, McGrath. Subs. — O'Rourke, Coleman.

Carriglea Rovers AFC Notes

Carriglea Rovers 1 Modeligo 2

We entertained league leaders Modeligo on Sunday last. With the wind in our favour we failed to take our chances in a scoreless first half. Modeligo scored right after the restart when Vince Donovan raced through to score from close range. They went two up ten minutes later when Nickey Donovan scored from the edge of the box.

We pulled one back near the end when Darren Drummey was upended in the box, with Pa Ryan converting the penalty.

Cidona Carrick Wheelers Notes

Cidona Carrick Wheelers annual dinner dance was held on Friday, November 10, in the magnificent setting of Clonea Strand Hotel. The Club decided to break with tradition on this occasion due to a very large group of riders and supporters in the Dungarvan area.

An excellent meal was provided by the management and staff of Clonea Strand Hotel for the more than 160 guests.

The atmosphere was electric for the dancing to the wonderful sound of Gerry Walsh and Dallas.

A function such as this needs a lot of careful planning and in this regard the sub-committee of Noel O'Doherty, Tom Bartley and Michael Bowe (junior), deserve many thanks.

The guest list was headed by the new President of the F.I.C. Jack Watson and his wife Rea. Jack and Rea travelled from Bangor, Co. Down (260 miles), to be present at this function.

Also present were Jimmy Cass, Cidona Products manager, and his wife Mary, and Mairead Brennan, Showings P.R. Company Representative and her husband Bernard.

The Chairmen of Carrick-On-Suir U.D.C. and Dungarvan U.D.C., Patsy Murphy and Paddy Power, and their wives also attended.

During the meal the Chairman of Cidona Carrick Wheelers, Bobby Sheehan, presented the annual awards to the following:

Merit Award — Larry Power; Senior Award — Stephen Delaney; Ladies Award — Claire Moore; Junior Award — Robert Power; Under-age Award — Michael Woods.

Robert Power was also the recipient of the Supreme Award.

The committee would like to thank P. J. Power for providing an excellent bus service during the year and on Friday night.

A most enjoyable nights entertainment was had by all.

CYCLING

Sean Kelly Looks Ahead To 1990

Sean Kelly, Ireland's record-breaking cyclist, has set his sights on a fifth green jersey in next year's Tour de France.

And "the Carrick-on-Suir Express" is also determined to defend his World Cup individual title and help PDM retain their position as the world's number one team.

Kelly, who celebrates his 34th birthday in May, has mapped out a tough campaign for the 1990 season, including all the major Spring Classics and the Tour de France in July.

The World Cup champion starts his 14th season on the professional ranks in Spain's Ruta de Sol on February 6-11 and his first major test will be Milan-San Remo on March 17, St.

Patrick's Day.

Kelly will be in Belgium from April 1-15, for the Tour of Flanders, Ghent-Wevelgem, Paris-Roubaix, Fleche Wallone and Liege-Bastogne-Liege.

After a break in May, Kelly prepares for the Tour de France via the Tour of Switzerland. "My target in the Tour is a top five place and a fifth green jersey," said Kelly.

The second half of the season will include the remainder of the World Cup races and the Autumn Classics, including the World Championships in Japan on September 2.

Dungarvan G.A.A. Notes

ON COUNTY TEAM

Despite Waterford's defeat by Limerick in the National Football League at Fraher Field last Sunday, our clubman Dermot Callaghan turned in a top class display over the 60 minutes.

Dermot was often to be seen helping out in an overworked defence, and all round gave an excellent performance.

Former clubman, David Burke was also in commanding form at full back and time and time again cleared his lines in style.

PREPARING FOR THE A.G.M.

After a year of intense activity on and off the field, the next big event for everyone in the club is the annual general meeting at Lawlor's Hotel next Tuesday week, December 5.

Anyone intending to submit motions for the meeting should submit them in writing to secretary, Maura Curran well in advance of December 5.

FINANCE

Financially it has been another year of very heavy commitments, not least our efforts to meet the exacting demands in relation to our development plans. Thankfully, we have succeeded in meeting all of them thus far, and that is due in large measure to the trojan efforts of many people.

TWO DIVISIONAL TITLES

Although we failed to capture a county title in 1989, we did win two divisional championships — under-14 and 16 football. And in the latter county final we were desperately unlucky to go under by a solitary point against St. Saviours.

With players of the calibre of our under 14 and 16 squads this year, it won't be too long before we are back again in the county "winners enclosure."

Of course the 1980's has proved to be a memorable decade for the club, and in future we hope to recap on some of those marvellous championship triumphs.

Dungarvan C.B.S. Primary School Notes

WON PRIMARY SCHOOLS FOOTBALL FINAL

Dungarvan CBS 5-6, Abbeyside 0-1

On Saturday, November 11, at the Showgrounds, Fraher Field, the CBS footballers retained the Primary Schools Championship by defeating Abbeyside N.S. in the final. The game was played before a large crowd and produced a splendid standard.

The early exchanges were close and exciting with both teams taking time to settle into their stride. After ten minutes John Paul Donnelly opened the scoring with an opportunist goal for the CBS. This score proved the ideal boost for the team and they began to play good open football.

Corner forward Michael O'Sullivan finished a fine CBS movement to the net in the 15th minute with a well taken goal.

At this stage the boys were playing with great confidence and skill. Team captain Mark Radley scored a fine point from midfield in the 20th minute, followed by an excellent point by Richard Ferncombe five minutes later. Abbeyside replied with a point from Brendan Cliffe to leave the score at half time: Dungarvan CBS 2-2, Abbeyside 0-1.

BEST FOOTBALL

The second half saw Dungarvan CBS start well and play their best football. They held their first half lead and with goals from Conor Curran and Tommy Butler, the CBS sealed a memorable victory.

In an excellent team performance, goalkeeper James Sheehan dealt capably with everything that came his way. Full backs Derek Foley and Jonathan Burns defended well, especially in the first half when under pressure. Our half back line of John Foley, James Power and Alan Moore displayed great skill and commitment all through and launched many attacks. Up field Mark Radley and Richard Ferncombe won the mid-field battle and combined well with a fast and skilful half forward line of James Burke, Conor Curran and Tommy Butler.

Our full forwards and scorers in chief John Paul Donnelly and Michael O'Sullivan showed great craft in front of goal and took their scores well. The other members of the panel who played their part and completed a great team effort were Philip Coles, Shane Hayes, Michael Lucas, Kenneth Walsh, Colin Cunningham and Michael Nugent.

Our thanks to referee John Moore, the umpires and linesmen and all those who helped to make the final such a memorable occasion.

Footballers Beaten By Double Scores

LIMERICK 0-12 WATERFORD 0-6

Waterford footballers gave a very poor display when they hit rock bottom form at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last when they were beaten by double scores by Limerick in their Division 3 South National Football League game.

After close play in the first two quarters after which the scores were level at 0-6 apiece, Limerick took over completely and but for some heroic Waterford defending would have chalked up a much bigger winning margin.

Waterford had the aid of the gale force wind in the first quarter and led 0-4 to 0-1 at the end of the fifteen minute period.

With the wind behind them Limerick took over in the second quarter and had the scores level at 0-6 each at the half time break although Waterford did score a goal which was disqualified when Carthac Mac Craith was ruled to have been "in the square".

Waterford had the wind advantage in the third quarter but it was Limerick who were in control. Corner forward Jim McGrath was unlucky when his shot hit an upright in the 9th minute. It was Waterford's "last hurrah." They were forced back on the defensive for the remainder of the game as the visitors doled out a lesson in football and skill and also showed tremendous fitness in comparison to a very sluggish Waterford fifteen.

Three points against the wind left Limerick 0-9 to 0-6 ahead at the end of the third quarter. They continued to dominate with the wind in the final quarter, adding three more points but it was a measure of their total dominance that Waterford failed to raise a flag over a thirty minute period — even when they had the wind behind them in the third quarter.

Scorers — Limerick — L. O'Connell 0-4; T. Cummins 0-4; E. Sheehan 0-3; P. Barrett 0-1. Waterford — C. Mac Craith 0-2; D. Casey, P. Curran, J. McGrath, J. Dunne 0-1 each.

Limerick — R. Bowles, F. Ryan, E. Leonard, J. Reddington, T. Browne, N. Leonard, L. Barrett, P. Barrett, A. Carew, F. Wolfe, L. Roche, L. O'Connell, T. Cummins, D. Fitzgibbon, E. Sheehan.

Waterford — T. Brennan,

P. Hayes, D. Burke, F. O'Brien, L. Dalton, D. Kirwan, D. Casey, T. Corcoran, L. Daniels, J. Power, P. Curran, D. Callaghan, J. Dunne, C. Mac Craith, J. McGrath.

Western Bord Na nOg Notes

WESTERN CONVENTION

The Western Convention will be held in early December on a date to be announced next week. It appears at this stage that Pat Nugent, our very competent Bord Secretary, will not be seeking re-election. This is a major setback for juvenile affairs in West Waterford and it is very important that clubs would nominate his successor. There are many clubs in the Division who have talent available for officership and there is no better way of contributing to the Gaelic Athletic Association. Notice of the convention will be sent out this week-end.

ROLL OF HONOUR

This week we publish the winners and runners-up for all Western competitions. It is noteworthy that 10 out of 18 clubs won titles. This demonstrates clearly that there is no monopoly by any club in the Division provided other clubs will work hard enough to qualify for finals.

Congratulations to all our 16 finalists for 1989. Dungarvan won all three football titles while Lismore won all

1 their hurling titles in the "A" competition.

LADIES FOOTBALL

Now that the playing season has come to a end with in the county, perhaps it's time to take a look at the roll of honour for 1989.

UNDER 14 LEAGUE

Probably the best competition run by the Board, the first round ended with Na Deise, Kill and Ballymac level on points. The second round saw the same situation and finally Na Deise defeated Kill to qualify for the final against Ballymac.

Played at Modeligo, Na Deise were deserving winners, with Olivia Condon, Honor Lonergan, Andrew Dunford, Rosanne Ryan and Karen Denn outstanding.

UNDER-14 CHAMPIONSHIP

Surprisingly, Ballymac turned the tables on Na Deise and they defeated Kill in the final, helped by outstanding displays from Fiona Crotty, Catriona O'Gorman and Natasha Galvin. They became the first holders of the Murray Cup, donated by former Co. Board Chairman, Noel Murray.

UNDER 16 (B) CHAMPIONSHIP

Kill took the honours when they deservedly defeated old rivals Na Deise. It was Kill's first county success and they had top class performers in Jennifer Coffey, Lorraine, Evelyn and Catriona Mooney. (Aisson Morrissey, Ruth Ahern and Julie Ann Torpey.

This victory was a just reward for Ger Mooney's work over a number of years and his perseverance paid off. Likewise, P. J. Roche did much for Na Deise.

UNDER-16 (A) CHAMPIONSHIP

Kill qualified for the final as (B) champions, but they were well beaten by a strong Ballymac side powered by county senior players Noirin Walsh and Martina O'Ryan. They became the first holders of the Mercy Cup donated by the Mercy Order.

JUNIOR LEAGUE

Newtown defeated Na Deise at Bushy Park and were well worth their six point victory. Majella Hubbard, Geraldine Hayes and June Whyte inspired the Eastern side. Na Deise, last year's junior champions, were allowed to take part in this year's league because of a county bye-law.

JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

This final at Stradbally drew the biggest crowd of the year. Sliabh gCua opposed Newtown and after a ding-dong battle, Newtown completed the league and championship double. Their greater experience proved decisive. Sliabh gCua's first year in football proved a big success. Their top players were Orla Butler, Mary Hennessy, Connie and Ally Hearn and Karen O'Sullivan.

SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Once again, Ballymac retained the title for the eighth year in a row. Mary O'Donoghue had a brilliant game in goal for Na Deise, defying the Ballymac attack virtually single-handed. It might be some consolation for Na Deise that Ballymac defeated the Kerry champions, Austin Stacks by an even bigger margin in the Munster semi-final.

There was also an under-18 blitz competition and Na Deise took the honours.

Mention should also be made of Old Parish, St. Patricks and Ardmore who did not figure in the quest for honours, but who played on despite many setbacks. Hopefully, their day will come soon.

The annual general meeting of the County Board will take place on Thursday, November 23 at Lawlor's Hotel at 8 p.m. Clubs are reminded to complete their nomination papers and return them to the County Secretary. Clubs should also note that any outstanding fines or money due must be paid in order to allow their delegates vote at the annual general meeting.

It's well worth noting that St. Declan's are trained by well known Stradbally player and current trainer Sean Ahearne.

NEXT SUNDAY

- ◆ N.L. Hurlers Play Final Match Of The Eighties!
- ◆ Attractive Football Double At Dungarvan
- ◆ Kilrossanty Play Clare Champions In Munster Club Football Semi-Final at Kilkee

I don't know if it has ever happened, but here on Sunday we have a unique situation where a junior football game overshadows two intercounty matches. The fact that Western champions Faha and their Eastern counterparts Bonmahon, are both from the parish of Stradbally must have something to do with the speculation surrounding this county junior football final, but at the same time, it cannot be denied that Faha's popularity is also a factor in creating such a 'buzz' about this one. I know that big numbers of supporters from neutral clubs will help to swell the crowd at Fraher Field to shout their support for a Faha victory which is long overdue. They have had a very checkered history which saw them go close, but unfortunately not close enough on a few occasions.

FAHA FANCIED

Several of the people who have followed the fortunes of the Faha club since it was re-organised reckon that their Western final victory over neighbours Kilrossanty, was their finest hour since they won the Premier football title in the division in 1968.

Complacency cost Faha a county title in that year and having beaten Tallow in the divisional final, they felt supremely confident of beating Dunhill in the county final. Their overconfidence cost them that title. This will not be the case here as they realise full well that the Nickey Hayes led Bonmahon team had to overcome some very good opposition in the East and many of their players have experience galore in championship competition.

Not having seen Bonmahon in action, it is difficult to assess their chances, but many people up at this end will be very surprised if they can surpass the performance given by Faha in our final just four weeks ago.

Faha invariably play very well in Fraher Field and this will be to their advantage and to players like Gerry, Pierce and Paudie Casey, John and Ml. Troy, Pat Kirwan, Brian Sweeney, Michael Kiely, Liam Connors, Vinny Kirwan, Martin Scurry, B. Butler, Ed. Lannon, P. O'Halloran, T. Jaynes, etc., all of whom have played quite an amount of their football on the Shandon sod.

I see the game as a very close and exciting contest with very little (if anything) between them in the end. If it is not to be another draw, I believe that the very worthy Western champions, Faha will play themselves into history

MINOR FINAL

An Gaeltacht and Naomh Mhuire's minor footballers will meet in the curtain-raiser which will be the 'B' minor final which begins at 1.15 p.m. The Eastern champions will be favourites to win this, but those of us who were impressed with An Gaeltacht's display in their two final games in this division, won't be at all surprised if they upset predictions here.

WATERFORD v. WESTMEATH

Waterford selectors have decided against travelling overnight to far away Castletown Geoghegan, Co. Westmeath, for this fourth round match and this final game before the Christmas break. A win for Waterford here is very important, in fact it is vital — if we are to keep pace with Laois who are holders of joint second place on the league table with Waterford behind Offaly.

Having defeated Laois, who subsequently scored a flattering 13 points victory over pointless Westmeath on Sunday week, it might be unwisely expected that we will win this with a certain amount of ease. At the present moment with so much uncertainty about the availability of some players, Waterford can't afford to feel confident in any company and caution should be the key note.

The team was not selected until Monday night and it will appear elsewhere in these notes. It is not expected to show many changes from the side which drew with Clare at Dungarvan on Sunday week. The side will include Liam O'Connor, who missed the Clare match and possibly Jimmy Beresford, who may be considered fit enough to partner O'Connor at midfield. It is also hoped that Ger Fitzpatrick who was playing a 'stormer' when forced to retire with a facial injury against Clare, will be able to resume. Billy O'Sullivan, who also missed out against Clare will likely be back.

Everything considered, I suppose we must be strongly fancied to win this one and not to do so would be a major setback to our hopes of keeping in the shake-up for a place in the knock-out stages of the league.

MUNSTER CLUB S.F. KILROSSANTY v. KILKEE

The newly crowned Waterford football champions, Kilrossanty will make the long journey across the Shannon on Sunday to play the Clare champions, Kilkee in the provincial semi-final of the club football championships on Sunday next. The game is a home match for Kilkee and for Kilrossanty, a lot will depend on how the players react to the strange environment.

Last year, Kilrossanty played wonderfully well against the reigning champions, Nemo Rangers at Clonmel and with the exception of a hammering which they got from Nemo in Leamybrien four years ago, they invariably play well in Munster club. 1989 is unquestionably Kilrossanty's best ever year in football and they are now odds-on favourites to take the 'club of the year' award so a win here would really put the icing on the cake for the champions.

Their team which will be selected mid-week, is not expected to show much change from the side which retained the title in the Waterford final two weeks ago.

Darren Mulhearn, who has served the club so very well since his 'call-up' to the senior grade at the quarter final stage will be in goal with Pat Pender, Pat Keating, Tom Pendar, Pat Quinn, Pierrie White and Greg Fitz' in defence. Tom Behan and Ger Walsh may hold their places in the middle of the field and leave Nickey Hayes Michael Walsh, Pat Hayes, Rodger Power, Jimmy Maher, Pat Power, Tom Keating, Ray Hahissy, Tom Veale and company available for selection in the forward division.

Kilrossanty will take with them the very best wishes of the entire county to qualify for the provincial final against Cork champions, Castlehaven at Middleton on December 10.

Ballygunner Retain U-21 Title

BALLYGUNNER 2-14
LISMORE 1-7

Ballygunner retained their Co. U-21 hurling title when they defeated Lismore in a very competitive and keenly contested final at Portlaoigh on Saturday afternoon last.

Lismore aided by the breeze led at the break by 1-6 to 1-4. At the end of the first quarter they were 1-3 to 0-1 in front with the goal coming when Kieran O'Gorman finished Paul Prendergast's centre to the net. The 'Gunners goal came from a Cormac Sweeney centre in the 21st minute which Pat Connors finished to the net.

Five minutes after the restart, Ballygunner had taken the lead when centre back Stephen Frampton point a "65". A second goal from Connors in the 37th minute gave the winners a four point lead which they built on despite the heroic efforts of the Lismore defence.

Scorers — Ballygunner — P. Connors 2-0; B. O'Sullivan 0-4; S. Frampton 0-3; L. Hartley and F. Hartley 0-2 each; E. Brennan,

C. Sweeney and M. O'Mahoney 0-1 each. Lismore — P. Prendergast 0-6; K. O'Gorman 1-0; B. O'Gorman 0-1.

Ref. — M. Wadding, Roanmore.

Sympathy

Our very sincere sympathy is extended to former All-Ireland hurler and champion handballer, John Kiely of Fenian Place, Abbeyside on the recent death of his mother which occurred at Dungarvan Hospital. The late Mrs. Kiely was also a sister to Christy Moylan, and also of All-Ireland fame and to whom we also extend our sympathy.

CHAMPIONSHIPS MAY NOT FINISH!

At the County Board meeting last week, the chairman stated that if the Eastern Board were not ready for the county final of the under-21 football championship by the last Sunday in November, he would require them to nominate a team. He said he would not allow a situation where a club would invoke the protection of the bye-law which declares that championships not be played in December/January. It was invoked last year.

The chairman referred to the Eastern Board because at the time four teams remained in their championship and at the same time the two remaining teams in the West were due to play their final last Sunday and presumably there would be no problem there. Now, because of a twist of fate, the West are the problem after all as the divisional final here on Sunday ended in a draw and the replay can produce a big headache for the Board.

Kilrossanty will be unavailable next Sunday because they must play the Clare champions in the Munster Club semi-final. Should they win, they will be due to play Castlehaven on December 10.

If Kilrossanty did not agree to play the replay on December 3 then the first available Sunday will be December 17 for the Western final. This alone will put the final into next year, regardless of what happens in the East.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

County Board Meeting

A letter from the Nire Club, which submitted that the referee for their county senior football final was under psychological pressure and should not have been appointed and that his handling of the game had denied their club a county title, was discussed at last week's meeting of the County Board and at which Eamon O Murchu, chairman, presided.

The matter of the protest by some members of the club outside the Fraher Field on the previous Sunday was also discussed, after their representative, Paddy Phelan had made a lengthy statement dealing with what his club perceived to be the cause of the trouble on the day. He said that a video of the final showed that the penalty which had decided the destination of the title, was unjustified.

The report of referee David Kiely stated that it was a very clean and sporting contest and that he did not have to take the name of a single player.

The County Chairman described the affair as intolerable and most unacceptable. He further said that the allegations and insinuations in the letter were of the most serious nature and he doubted if these could be substantiated. The whole matter was then referred to the Board's Disciplinary Committee (comprising the three chairmen and secretaries) and their findings will be submitted to the December meeting of the Board for ratification. The meeting was later fixed for Monday night of this week.

AFFILIATIONS

The system of affiliation in Waterford is completely out of line with the system in operation in all other counties and since the matter was highlighted last year, the matter has been discussed with a view to finding a formula that will be acceptable to clubs and which will not cause too much of a disruption for clubs or players.

When the new recommended system was outlined, not everyone fully understood the implications of the new proposals. These relate to adult affiliation and if accepted, will mean that a club will in future cater for both codes and dual players can play hurling and football only with the same club.

To illustrate the point of this, the case of Erin's Own man, Liam O'Connor, who plays hurling with Erin's Own and football with Stradbally will no longer be able to enjoy this privilege and will be required to play both with one or other of these clubs.

One of the alternatives spoken of at the meeting was the idea of having independent hurling and football clubs, with the minors being part of the adult club set-up, rather than remaining on their own as they now are. This system could pose certain problems and would eliminate minor units like St. Patricks, St. Olivers and St. Marys and there would also be other complications.

A decision must be taken on the matter when the Board meets for the December meeting at Dunhill on December 11.

PROGRAMME FOR JUNIOR FINAL

For the first time in the history of the Association here in this county, we are to have a programme for the junior football county final. Such is the attractiveness of the game between Bonmahon and Faha and the expected big attendance, that two clubs applied to the Board for the match programme on the day. After a short discussion this was awarded to Stradbally.

HOME OR AWAY?

A letter from the Clare County Board suggested a 'home and away' arrangement for the meetings between the counties in senior hurling. The letter pointed out that such an arrangement should be decided on in a year in which the counties were not due to meet in the first round (as is the case in 1990). Delegates spoke for and against and there not being a clear consensus, the meeting agreed to leave the matter over until the next meeting, when delegates will have an opportunity of discussing the matter with their clubs.

REPORTS

Reports were to hand from all the committees and a new innovation was the submission of reports by the Munster and Central Council reps. During the discussion on the Munster Council report it was announced that a total of five coaches had applied for the recently advertised post of hurling coach for this county.

The chairman promised that an interview committee would be appointed immediately and the matter of the appointment would be dealt with as soon as possible.

FINANCE AND DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

The county chairman announced that a preliminary meeting of the Fraher Field Committee had been held and that a Finance/Development Committee had now been named by him and these would meet shortly to organise themselves for a major fund-raising drive. Having named the eight members, he asked for permission to add a further two names and these would be announced at the next meeting.

RESULTS

N.F. League	Limerick 0-12; Waterford 0-6
L.H. Co. Final	Fourmilewater 1-11; Erin's Own 1-8
JH Co. Final	St. Mary's 1-6; Ballydurn 1-4
U-21 H. Co. Final	Ballygunner 2-14; Lismore 1-7
U-21 F. West Final	Affane 1-4; Kilrossanty 1-4

RESULTS

Having to field without several players, whose presence would almost certainly have made a difference, Waterford footballers were outplayed by a very eager and determined Limerick team at Dungarvan on Sunday.

Midfielder Michael McGrath, Butlerstown, who played so well against Clare was missing because of examinations and full back, Tom Walsh was on duty with Fourmilewater at Walsh Park. As well the Kilrossanty pair Jimmy Maher and Pierre White were unavailable. This meant a restructured side, from the one which drew with Clare on the previous Sunday and while they played well for the first two quarters, having led by 0-4 to 0-1 after the first and were level at half-time, their third quarter failure to score when playing with the breeze, cost us the points. We failed to score for the final 30 minutes, while Limerick, who are a very good side and look certain to qualify out of Division 3 South this year, scored a further six points.

GREAT WESTERN DOUBLE

In spite of the awful weather the bonfires blazed around the hills of Ballymac' and Touraneena on Sunday night following their tremendous double in the county intermediate and junior hurling finals at Walsh Park on Sunday.

For St. Mary's it was the achievement of the unique double in hurling and football in the same year and for Fourmilewater their splendid victory must have taken some of the sting out of the football final defeat of two weeks earlier. The scenes of jubilation which followed in both cases showed what victory meant to both and their supporters who travelled in strength were given good cause for celebration as both finals were exciting contests and won on merit. On this auspicious occasion it will be very interesting to recall the meeting of the same two teams, Fourmilewater and St. Mary's in the local derby county intermediate hurling final which drew such a huge crowd to Fraher Field exactly ten years ago.

That year the intermediate championship had all Western entries and became a special attraction when two neighbouring sides met in the final which provided such a sporting contest before it was won by Fourmilewater on the score of 3-9 to 0-8.

On the occasion, I recall having written that it was a pity that there had to be a loser. On last Sunday, they were both on the same programme and were both winners. With so many of the same players involved in both sides, the result is all the more satisfying.

Our sincere congratulations to both Fourmilewater and St. Mary's.

U-21 Football final Ends in a Draw

Affane 1-4, Kilrossanty 1-4

And so the final wasn't finalised as the young footballers of Affane and Kilrossanty remained locked together at the end of a game where both sides missed fine chances of winning. A strong wind blew into the country end and favoured Affane in the first half when they managed to score only 1-4 when many chances to considerably increase this total went a-begging.

Kilrossanty did not score at all in this half, but they managed to score 1-4 also in the second half, during which period Affane failed to raise a flag. Neither team scored against the wind.

For Affane it was very much a comedy of errors as they continued to mis-pass the ball. This was blatantly obvious in the second half when they were presented with many very good chances of getting the winning scores.

Their mishandling of the ball when they had Kilrossanty on the defensive, turned the game around and against them on several occasions. A draw was probably a fair result in the end.

Scorers — Affane (first half only) — P. J. Veale 1-1, T. Mansfield, M. Power and D. Cummins 0-1 each; Kilrossanty (second half only) — Rodger Power 1-1, Alan O'Brien 0-2, Peter Power 0-1.

Affane — L. Costin, S. McCarthy, K. O'Reilly, E. Costin, J. Buckley, M. Killigrew, S. Costin, R. Flynn, T. Mansfield, D. Cummins, T. Fives, K. Curran, P. J. Veale, J. McGrath, M. Power. Sub. — K. Veale for K. Curran.

Kilrossanty — D. Mulhearn, P. Power, B. Kirwan, E. Flynn, N. Power, G. Fitzgerald, B. Whelan, T. Veale, W. Power, A. O'Brien, R. Power, Peter Power, P. Brazil, J. Dempsey, P. Houlihan. Sub. — J. Kirwan for P. Houlihan.

Referee: David Kiely.

TEN FINALS

Martin Power who played at corner forward for Affane and who has starred with the club throughout his under-age career has now played in a total of ten finals without being once on a winning team.

In the eighteenth minute of the game on Sunday when he kicked over a nice point, I thought he had broken the 'duck.' I'm glad that he will have another chance.

ARDMORE NOTES

GET WELL WISHES

Continued get well wishes are sent to young Sara Dolan, who is still recovering in hospital.

I.C.A.

The November meeting of the Ardmore and Grange Guild of the I.C.A. took place on the 14 of the month. There was a good attendance and Mrs. B. Keane presided over the meeting.

A vote of sympathy was passed on the death of Mrs. Una Prendergast R.I.P., a former member and a tribute was paid to her memory. She was a founder member of the Guild and at one time served as Vice-President of the Waterford Federation. She also served as treasurer of our guild at one stage. She continued to attend guild meetings for a considerable time after going to live in Dungarvan and at one time when the guild was "homeless", she loaned her home in the village for meetings. She was, of course, a member of the debating team which brought in the Elenora Gibbon Shield for the county and shared with us too, her musical talent and her expertise as a needle woman.

Ar dheis De go raibh a h-anam. New lighting and heating systems for our room were discussed and amongst other things, members were reminded of the coming Federation meeting in Waterford.

Mrs. M. Morrissey of Dungarvan, came with beautiful and unusual pot plants and she also demonstrated impressive Christmas decorations. We were all enthralled watching these exotic creations emerge from under her skillful fingers.

Mrs. T. O'Connor proposed a vote of thanks and Mrs. E. Hickey seconded it. It was an evening enjoyed by all.

HALL NEWS

Yes. It's that time of year again — Christmas decorations going up and children all writing to Santa. What better time to hold a 'Monster Bazaar'.

this year's 'Bazaar' will take place on December 3 in St. Declan's Hall at 3 p.m. It promises to hold attractions for young and old — from bottle stall to spinner and from fortune telling to face painting. Also this year, it is hoped there will be Christmas trees and holly available. So get an early start this Christmas, be in St. Declan's Hall on December 3 — Santa will be there!

ARDMORE U-10s WIN

Fuel Centre Cup — Ardmore's U-10 team played Youghal on Sunday last. It was a good game for both sides, but in the finish Ardmore had a well deserved win.

Like we said before — it's Ardmore's "Year of the cup". Well done to all of the lads in the team.

SOCCER

Ardmore v. Youghal
 Last Sunday, Ardmore played Youghal in Ardmore, In the whole of the first half Youghal were all over Ardmore, but in the second half Ardmore made a gallant effort to turn the tables, but it was too late. The final score was Ardmore 2 Youghal 3.

DUNVEGAN DARTS

Last Friday we played Lindsays at home in Ardmore. We had a good set of games which ended in a 4-4 draw. We would like to thank everyone who supported our "At Home" draw and congratulate the winners.
