Storms Continue Unabated As Repair Bills Mount

Gale force winds accompanied at times by torrential rain continue to lash the country with unabated strength. With the exception of an odd few days the storms have just blown from one into the other in the course of the last fortnight. As a result, much of the extensive coastal damage and erosion caused by the major storm of December 16/17 has been aggravated and widened.

Around the coast, the high winds have also been creating travel havoc as cross-channel ferries have been delayed and flights cancelled leaving hundreds of passengers stranded, especially at the week-end.

The heavy rainfall has also caused extensive flooding and both the rivers Blackwater and Bride have overflowed their banks causing widespread flooding on the adjoining lands in the Lismore-Ballyduff areas and also in the vicinity of Tal-low.

Fishing trawlers have also remained stormbound because of the incessant gales and it is a rather unusual sight in these times to see up to a dozen sheltering trawlers moored at the Quayside in Dungarvan as they are unable to put to sea because of the terribly bad weather conditions. So prolonged have these conditions been that one fisherman stated that they had been able to fish for only four days since the beginning of the new year. Because they have been unable to fish, the trawler-men and the crews are suffering financial losses.

ESB REPAIRS UNDER PRESSURE

ESB services throughout the western end of the county had returned to normal by Tuesday of this week but Area Supervisor Michael Norris warned in Dungarvan that the ESB crews had been able to effect only repairs of a temporary nature and they are keeping their fingers crossed that further gales (as forecast by the Met. Office) would not cause further breaks. As far as the repair gangs have been

A Winner From Dungarvan

The trophy for the ICA Salesperson of the Year sponsored by Guaranteed Irish was won on January 31, in Dublin by Mrs. Georgina Quinn, a saleslady employed by M. J. Curran & Sons of Dungarvan. Georgina was nominated for the contest by Dungarvan I.C.A. Guild.

The I.C.A. organised the competition throughout the country and were warmly praised by representatives of Guaranteed Irish for their co-operation and expertise.

The test undergone by five finalists from Blarney, Sligo, Maynooth, Clones and of course Dungarvan was quite amusing. It involved selling beds to couples with widely different ideas of comfort.

The judges were Mrs. Kitty Harlin, National President I.C.A., Mrs. Bridin Twist, National Secretary I.C.A. and two members of Guaranteed Irish. The trophy was presented by Government Minister, Mr. Terry Leyden. — P.R.O. M. Shanahan.

Presentation To Retiring Credit Union Manager

A presentation was recently made by the Directors of Dungarvan Credit Union Ltd., to Mr. Patrick Ryan who retired as Manager after 10 years service.

Patrick joined the Credit Union shortly after its inception in 1966. He served as a voluntary worker and Director during the "good old days" when the Credit Union was based in the courthouse and then the Town Hall.

Later he served as Treasurer and after the late Mon McGrath's retirement as Manager in 1979 Patrick was appointed Manager.

Under Patrick's management the membership of the Credit Union has had an enormous growth and had extended its Common Bond to most of mid-Waterford. It has also seen the purchase of its own premises at Mary Street and the full computerisation of office facilities.

Patrick has been a dedicated and efficient servant of the Credit Union and his expertise and knowledge of Credit Union affairs has been sought after and appreciated throughout the country.

GOD IS ASKING YOU TO HELP

Isaiah in the first of last Sunday's readings reminds us that being a follower or a servant of God does not stop at knowledge and faith, but must extend and be linked with love and concern for our neighbour. He goes on to say and explain that if we hope to be a light and example, we must be prepared to shelter the homeless, clothe the naked, feed the hungry, etc. In short, he is saying that to be a true follower of Christ, one must be open to the needs of others. His message, rooted as it is in the basic principle of God's law of love, namely, love God and love your neighbour, should not be ignored.

Last week I reminded you of Paul's disappointment when he returned to Corinth only to find his converts quarrelling and divided; and how quick he was to make them see the foolishness of their squabbling. He reminded them that the duty of the preacher was to preach Christ crucified, and the message of good news which He bequeathed to all His brothers and sisters. Paul is saying, if you hope to help people to find Christ, you must provide them with genuine information to enable them to meet Him. He begged his listeners to abandon their foolish wrangling and remember that faith is based not on the wisdom or the eloquence of man, but on the power and the word of God. Hence, the true preacher and shepherd is the one who hands on the Gospel news as delivered by Jesus, and thereby enable the flock to follow in the steps of the Master.

The Gospel reading dovetails into the other readings by portraying the same theme on the Christian duty of being a light and an example to others. It also reminds everyone that the Church's mission of salvation imposes obligations not only on bishops and priests, but on all blessed with the light of faith. The Lord said, you are the salt of the earth, and it is therefore your duty to give unbelievers a taste for Christ. Isaiah has provided us with the know-how. He said, it was not by our words, but through our good works that men will see our Father in Heaven. It goes without saying, if our own lives do not measure up to our words and works, we'll fail to dispel the darkness. A good Christian is one who fulfils his duties both to God and to man.

God, having blessed us with the light in Baptism, has laid the consequent duty of sharing that blessing with others, and, above all, not to hide it under a tub. That means we communicate and share not our own light, but rather the light of Christ. St. Paul was most insistent on this. The Lord has invited every single person to live by His light, and he is asking you to deliver His message to the blind and the deaf. God is asking you to help in the salvation of souls.

You may have commitments, and so may not be able like St. Paul to leave everything and go and spread the word among those who are "hungry." Anyhow, let us look at our own community, and ask ourselves, what did we ever do for anyone? Have you ever felt concern for the needy, and tried to extend a helping hand? There are lay organisations in every parish, who try to do something about it. I know people are most generous to SVP etc., but have you ever considered lending a hand. Mostly, we are inclined to be the hurler on the ditch! Those who do this work for Christ will tell you, it is a joy and a blessing. Nowadays, we hear a lot of the new species of vultures who prey on the aged and the vulnerable. They watch and wait for the chance to steal the little they have, and not content with that, they beat them up to ensure they have got the last penny. Perhaps, we should be asking ourselves, if we could make a contribution to Community Alert.

FAMILY RESPONSIBILITIES

Some of us reserve our patience and our consideration for outside airing, and seem to forget all about our family responsibilities. I am afraid a lot of us will have to do some rethinking about behaviour in the home. The family after all is the arena and platform where most of us will find the opportunity to bear influence on the lives of others. Innumerable numbers have found God through the good example of their partners. And, when you consider the power and influence of parents on their children, one is bound to ask: what has gone wrong? God will one day ask many, why they failed to discharge their parental duties? It is good to see a family at prayer, and watch them gather around the altar of God. Somehow, fewer of our young people seem to give thought to a more committed service in the Church. It is sad, because the harvest is ready! I feel many parents no longer pray or favour their children entering the Church. I often met this attitude in England. And, now that we have joined the "jet set" young minds are bound to be gripped with the attractive prospects. We could all ask ourselves: what do we want from life? I have no doubt that if we responded to the readings over the last few Sundays, the flowers would once more bloom in our gardens again.

DAIL REPORT

Clash On Storm Damage Sees Deasy Ordered Out

Fine Gael T.D. for Waterford, Austin Deasy, was ordered out of the Dail during Question Time last Thursday following a clash with the Ceann Comhairle, Sean Treacy, when he failed to get an assurance from the Minister for Tourism and Transport, Mr. Seamus Brennan, that the extensive storm damage to three tourist resorts in Waterford would be repaired in time for this year's tourist season.

Deputy Deasy's question asked the Minister for Tourism and Transport if he had been fully appraised of the damage to tourist resorts and facilities on the south and south eastern coastal areas caused by the storm of December 16/17 last; whether he had any consultations in the matter with the Minister for the Marine and Minister for the Environment; and the measures he intended to take to assist the areas and individuals affected to see that their tourist potential for 1990 and subsequent years would not be damaged.

Minister Brennan's reply to the question simply stated: "I have no statutory function in relation to this matter which I understand comes within the brief of my colleagues the Ministers for the Environment and the Marine."

Mr. Deasy — I am sure the Minister is concerned about the destruction of tourist resorts. Is the Minister aware that the three leading tourist resorts on Waterford, Ardmore, Bonmahon and Tramore were savaged by recent storms and that their potential is greatly in danger? Is he prepared to do something about it?

Mr. Brennan — I am concerned about the destruction of any resort since my brief covers the tourism area. I will certainly convey the Deputy's concern to my colleagues at the Department of the Environment and the Department of the Marine and draw their attention to the areas mentioned.

Mr. Deasy — The question was put down two weeks ago and I would have thought the Minister would in the meantime have consulted his colleagues. I can only deduce from what happened yesterday when £1 million was granted to Wexford and Wicklow that we are seeing political patronage of the worst kind. Waterford has been worse affected than any other part of the country by the storm in question and should have received a sizeable amount of money, irrespective of whether money was given to any other area. The County Engineer in Waterford estimates that it will cost £11.5 million to rectify the damage done.

An Ceann Comhairle — I am anxious to assist the Deputy in eliciting information but he may not embark on a speech.

Mr. Deasy — The question has been down for two weeks.

An Ceann Comhairle — That may be so.

Mr. Brennan — To the wrong Minister.

Mr. Deasy — I am absolutely disgusted that the Minister has not concerned himself because of the damage to the tourism industry.

Mr. Brennan — I am concerned, but the Deputy has enough experience to know that this question is down to the wrong Minister.

Mr. J. Bruton — Why did the Minister accept it for answer?

An Ceann Comhairle —

Question No. 7 please.

Mr. Deasy — This is political favouritism of the worst kind.

An Ceann Comhairle — This question should not give rise to disorder.

Mr. Deasy — I am insisting that the Minister should give some commitment to the House that funds will be made available, whether from the national Exchequer or from the structural funds in Europe.

An Ceann Comhairle — I have given Deputy Deasy quite a lot of latitude but he must know obey the chair in the final analysis. I am calling Deputy Kavanagh.

Mr. J. Bruton — On a point of order—

An Ceann Comhairle — Sorry, Deputy. I am on my feet deliberating in this House.

Mr. J. Bruton — I wish to draw your attention—

An Ceann Comhairle — To what?

Mr. J. Bruton — To a point of order.

An Ceann Comhairle — I am dealing with a point of disorder.

Mr. J. Bruton — Perhaps a point of order might help allay the disorder.

An Ceann Comhairle — Deputy Deasy will have to resume his seat.

Mr. Deasy — I put the question down and I have got no answer.

An Ceann Comhairle — I hesitate to ask the Deputy to leave the House but he will leave me no discretion in the matter if he persists in defying the Chair.

Mr. Deasy — I want some commitment.

An Ceann Comhairle — Deputy Deasy, you have persistently refused to obey the Chair. I must now ask you to leave the House.

Mr. Deasy — One million pounds was given to Wicklow and Wexford. I can only call it political patronage of the worst kind.

An Ceann Comhairle — Either resume your seat forthwith or leave the House.

Deputy Deasy then left the house.

The Dungarvan Mammoth

In March 1859, a local landowner and amateur naturalist in Dungarvan, Edward Brennan came across a quarry worker in the town square showing an immensely large bone to the admiring locals. It had been discovered under the solid rock which at the time was being quarried at Shandon. Asking the quarry man to pass any such finds to him, he eventually came into possession of what was found to be the remains of a mammoth elephant, together with the fossilised bones of bears and reindeer.

The discovery caused great excitement among the scientific establishment and in the local community. Mr. Brennan prepared a paper which was read to the Royal Dublin Society in June 1859 and published in their scientific journal. Among the locals the area always had a very bad reputation being considered a haunted place and the dwelling of some evil spirit.

The quarrying had exposed a cave at the far side of the first quarry, now the site of the cattle mart. It was 100 feet in from the original quarry face and 30' underground. Many Dungarvan folk will remember this heavily wooded area, it's an ideal playground for cowboys and indians and other games of childhood — later it was used as a training ground for the FCA in preparing for their annual camps.

The mammoth elephant was the prime discovery and from the remains, Professor Ownes and Dr. Carte of Dublin were able to deduce most of the salient facts about this extinct mammal. It was 15' high, about 24' long, had small ears and relatively short hind legs. It carried magnificent tusks and a double covering of thick wool and very long hair. Unfortunately half the bones had been pulverised and removed before Mr. Brennan came on the scene, but from the remaining parts it was estimated that the bones were about 14,000 years old.

Being of a religious disposition, Edward attempted to relate his finds to various Biblical events. He thought that the animals in the cave had fled there for refuge from the flood and had died there like all living things outside the ark. "It must be have been many ages," he muses poetically, "since the elephant stood on the picturesque heights of Shandon, surveying the winding course of the Coligan beneath."

The Shandon discovery was the first example of a bone cave in Ireland. Similar fossil remains had been found in Siberia and the lower Arctic.

Thus, fourteen thousand years ago, the country must have been much colder and the mountains and valleys must have been well covered with forests. In the last two centuries a feature of the Dungarvan market was the massive loads of bog timber on sale for fuel and lighting. Brennan himself observed the remains of over thirty oak trees being removed from a bog called Loch-Na-Gceann at Mapstown.

EXTENSIVE STUDY
Edward Brennan made an extensive study of the caves and caverns in the neighbourhood of Dungarvan as the strata of carboniferous limestone in the region gave rise to many interesting geological features. At Mapstown, at Ceilliscul, and Knockalara, streams carrying considerable volumes of water disappear into fissures in the rock. The last stream, the Magaha, turned a mill at Nicholas-town, enters a gully in the limestone and reappears at Bewley after a subterraneous passage of two miles.

Caves were also found at Cuilnadamh, Pollnageat and Magnageolur (cave of the pigeons), this last cave containing magnificent stalactites and stalagmites. He also discovered in another Shandon cave, the store house of an ancient Irish Chieftain, together with valuable domestic items such as vases, scissors and fish hooks.

The salvaged bones of the Shandon Mammoth are stored in the Palaeontological Section of the Natural Science Museum, and there are plans to put them on permanent exhibition when the present renovations there are completed. But, as almost half the bones were removed with the rocks that were employed for road repairs, remember as you stroll down the street in Dungarvan you may be walking on the bones of one of our most famous residents!

[N.B. — The article which first brought the Mammoth remains at Shandon to the attention of the scientific community is from the journal of the Royal Dublin Society, Volume 2, published in 1859. It is titled "Notice of the Discovery of Extinct Elephant and other animal remains, occurring in a Fossil State under limestone at Shandon, near Dungarvan, County of Waterford. By Edward Brennan Esq."

My thanks to Nigel Monaghan, Assistant Keeper, National Museum, for his help and courtesy to me in researching this article.]

Abbeyside Scout Notes

TROOP MEETING

Saturday night's meeting was full uniform, and while the subs were being collected, the patrols revised the use and care of saw and axe. After the subs were collected, Michael Sheehan, Liam Moore and Aidan Mullarkey all showed their brains for the revision.

The first game of the night was "grab a copy."

Derek Kenneally came out on top. After this, quiz ludo was played. This is where a member from each patrol sat on a chair and the patrols were asked questions and each time they got one correct, the person from their patrol moved up a seat and at the end whoever had moved up the most seats won. There was a tie-breaker between the Eagles and the Panthers.

Some new knots were shown to the patrols and the meeting came to an end.

REMEMBER

All scouts are reminded to bring camp deposits on Saturday night next. Parade next Friday night. All scouts are expected to attend in full uniform (berets included).

GAME OFF

The game between Kilmacthomas and Bolton in the 1st round of the Fitzgerald youths cup arranged for Bolton Park, Waterford, on Sunday morning last was postponed owing to the very bad weather conditions. The game will be re-fixed for a later date.

LATE PADDY BEECHER

We sadly record the death of Paddy Beecher which took place in the Waterford Regional Hospital on Wednesday, January 24. Paddy was a native of Ballyduff Upper, who made his home in Kilmacthomas eight years ago. He was a quiet inoffensive personality who will be sadly missed. Sincere sympathy on their sad loss goes to his brothers Thomas and Michael, his nephews and nieces, relatives and friends. May he rest in peace.

BIRTH

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Power, High Road, on the birth of a baby girl last week.

£28.5M. Collected In Service Charges

Mr. Austin Deasy T.D., asked the Minister for the Environment the total amount collected by all local authorities in the country for service charges in the most recent year for which figures were available; and the likely figure if there were a 100 per cent collection.

Mr. Pádraig Flynn, Minister for the Environment in his reply stated: "Local authorities collected £28.5 million in respect of domestic service charges including arrears in 1988 as against the estimated income figure of £32.0 million contained in their 1988 Estimates.

Tallow And Lismore To Have Better Public Lighting

The arrival of electricity in the early part of the nineteenth century must have revolutionised people's lifestyle. The electricity was connected to homes in West Waterford in 1926.

Public lighting has in recent years come in for severe criticism from the general public as towns have suffered from a deteriorating dull and dismal lighting system. Public representatives have highlighted the problem of inadequate lighting over the years. At times low voltage and dirty light shades were thought to contribute to the problem.

A positive breakthrough came last year when Tallow Councillor Willie McDonnell made a successful bid to the ESB to erect more powerful and extra lights in the towns of Tallow, Lismore and Cappoquin.

The ESB started work in Cappoquin last October. The completed work resulted in a major improvement in the town's lighting system.

At a recent area meeting of the County Council, Cllr. McDonnell again raised the issue of town lighting and asked that both Tallow and Lismore be supplied with the same good lighting system as Cappoquin. He also requested that extra lights be erected on the outskirts of each town.

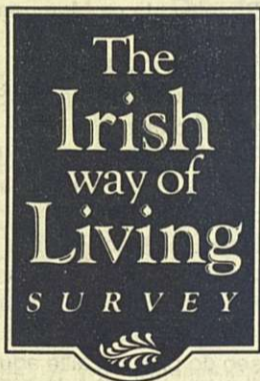

Mr. John O'Flynn, Co. Engineer, told him that extra lights had been granted and work will start in Tallow and Lismore in April. Tallow will get 28 extra lights and Lismore 43 lights. The new lights will be erected on most of the existing poles. New poles and lights will be placed in the new housing areas and extended to the outlying areas of the towns.

The ESB are experimenting with the new lights in Tallow which are yellow in colour. These lights are initially very expensive but are expected to use less electricity over a 12 months period than other lights.

Councillor McDonnell thanked Mr. O'Flynn and the Co. Council for their persistent efforts to improve the lighting system in the three towns. He added that the people in West Waterford are now leading the field as far as public lighting is concerned.

MRS. NORA BRENNOCK (nee FLEMING)

With deep regret we record the death of Mrs. Nora Brennock, Shrough, who passed away at her daughter's residence, Parks Rd., on Saturday, February 3. She was a native of Crooked Bridge and had reached an advanced age.

The funeral took place on Sunday evening from Ryan's Funeral Home to St. Carthage's Church, where the remains were received by Fr. O'Gorman, C.C., Fr. Nugent, P.P. and Fr. O'Dowd, Cappoquin. The interment took place after Requiem Mass on Monday in St. Carthage's Cemetery. Large corteges attended both days.

Sincere sympathy is extended to her daughters Mary and Pauline, sons Tom and Ned, sisters, daughter-in-law, sons-in-law, grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Congratulations to P. Norris Jnr., on being selected on the G.U.I. Coaching Panel.

LISMORE COMMUNITY GAMES

The 14th A.G.M. of Lismore Community Games was held in Monday night, January 29, at Lismore Hotel. Sad to relate the attendance was poor but nevertheless the A.G.M. went ahead.

As both the Chairperson, Martin Landers and the Secretary, Laura Roche, reported in their addresses to the A.G.M. 1989 was another highly successful year for the Lismore competitors in Community Games, the highlight being Valerie Barry's silver medal in the National Finals in Butlins.

To all the Lismore competitors who represented either town or county well done and we appeal for support for Community Games in Lismore again in 1990.

As the Treasurers report, (Chris Moore) showed we are walking a tightrope finance wise. It takes a lot of money to send athletes to County and more especially National finals, so your financial support is also vitally important. In this regard Lismore Community Games is very lucky in that the people of Lismore and Ballysaggart are very generous as our Church Gate Collections and Raffle show in the Treasurer's Report. So, once again, to all those who supported us in any way in 1989 a sincere 'thank you' and don't forget it is children you are supporting.

The next issue at the A.G.M. was the election of officers and a committee for 1990. After much discussion the following people were elected:

President — Fr. O'Gorman; Chairperson — Martin Landers; Vice-Chairperson — Kay Barry; Secretary — Kate Cunningham; Asst. Secretary — Laura Roche; Treasurer — Chris Moore; Asst. Treasurer — Eric Flynn; P.R.O. — John Landers.

As well as the above the following people were elected on to the committee — Dick Aherne, Maude Cunningham, Helen Barry and John Cahill.

Here's hoping that 1990 will be another, successful year for Lismore Community Games. — P.R.O. Lismore Community Games.

45 DRIVE IN AID OF ST. CARTHAGE'S HOUSE

Last week's results were as follows: 1st Jo Lineen and Martin Sheehan, 2nd John and Joan Bennett, Liam and Bill Murphy, Tim Hegarty and Jim Russell; Raffle — Rose Flynn, Martin Sheehan, Joe Everett; Lucky Tables — Mick Pratt and Pat O'Connor, Philip Neville and Pad Walsh.

HAPPY EVENT

Congratulations go to Brian and Mary Shanahan, Parks Road, on the birth of a son.

LISMORE A.F.C. NOTES

Lismore had no game on Sunday last, which was just as well, given weather conditions over the weekend. We hope the break will do the team more good than harm for their cup tie this Sunday afternoon in Lismore.

Inch provide the opposition in this round of the cup and though they will enter the fray as underdogs we all know how often the underdogs turn the tables on the favourites in the cup competition.

Lismore played with a great deal of determination against Ballyduff in the last round, and that same attitude and commitment will be needed from the starting whistle in Sunday if Lismore are to earn their place in the semi-final.

We hope to see the same amount of supporters for the 2.30 kick-off as we had last weekend.

The club sends congratulations to Brian and Mary Shanahan on the birth of a baby son. — P.R.O.

LISMORE/BALLYSSAGGART G.A.A. JUVENILE A.G.M.

The juvenile section of the Lismore/Ballysaggart G.A.A. started the 1990's with a very successful A.G.M. last Friday night. One of the more encouraging features was the large turn out of new enthusiastic faces.

Secretary, Bro. Dormer gave his usual well considered, well prepared report.

Mr. M. O'Leary acting chairman congratulated the Juvenile Club for the great work done over the past years. He paid special tribute to Bro. Dormer for his magnificent work over the past 10 years.

Mr. James Bennett on behalf of the Ballysaggart Club thank all concerned for their efforts. He expressed the opinion that both clubs had gained by the work being done at juvenile level.

The new Western Board Chairman, Mr. Jimmy O'Gorman, congratulated the club on its success and wished it well in the future.

WHAT THE BUDGET FAILED TO DO

The official announcement last week-end that the country's jobless figures had risen by 3,339 in January more than took much of the gloss off the Budget which had been greeted by such a fanfare in the previous week.

The Central Statistics Office disclosed last Friday that the January total of those signing on the "live register" was 234,467, an increase of 3,339 on the previous month. An effort was then made to benumb the impact by referring to "seasonally adjusted" figures, but the fact of the matter is that the figures confirm a further significant wintertime jump in the number of people now unemployed in Ireland.

The substantial rise in the unemployment figures sharply highlights the fact that no priority was accorded to job creation in the Budget and floors the government claims that the measures taken in Finance Minister Reynold's package would improve the conditions and incentives to accelerate the growth in employment. It goes further and firmly indicates that the government has no coherent jobs strategy, a fact reinforced by the budget which again increased the employers' PRSI contributions.

The present Minister for Industry, Mr. Des O'Malley, before he and his PD colleagues threw in their lot with Fianna Fail to form a government, very correctly declared that providing jobs was one of the most heavily taxed procedures in the country. Apart from the actual wage content involved, there were such added hidden costs as PRSI, insurance, superannuation and such like and where the small employer was concerned these proved the greatest disincentives to job creation at this level. The government has done nothing to lighten such burdens in order to encourage small concerns to create some extra jobs.

Significantly absent from Mr. Reynolds' Budget also was any provision to fund repairs of the extensive storm damage suffered by the maritime counties of the south and south-east including Co. Waterford in the big storm of December 16-17 and which have been greatly aggravated by the continuing storms which have lashed the coastline for the past fortnight.

It would appear, in the circumstances, that the only hope which these storm lashed counties now have of finding the kind of financial help which they have been crying out for in recent weeks is in Europe where moves are being made to obtain help from the EC Regional Fund. Certainly the government has so far given no indication as to whether the Department of the Environment and/or of the Marine have any intention of providing such assistance.

TO FORM WATERFORD BRANCH OF ALZHEIMER SOCIETY

Alzheimer's Disease made the front pages of the world press when it was discovered that Rita Hayworth, the beautiful film star of the 50's, was one of its victims. It can strike anyone.

It is a disease which causes intellectual disturbance by damaging some cells of the brain. It is particularly sad when it affects younger people, but it is also known to be commoner amongst the elderly and is the most frequent cause of mental deterioration in later life.

The rapid increase in the number of older people in our country is beginning to focus attention upon this condition, but still surprisingly few are aware of the existence of the disease or its significance to both younger and older patients and their relatives and helpers, although there are probably 20,000 Alzheimer sufferers in Ireland.

Tragic as Alzheimer's is for its victims, the brunt of the problem must be borne by the families and friends who care for them. Their task is an extremely difficult and demanding one. There are no easy answers to the problems they must face, no simple rules to follow that will work every time.

To help those faced with such a family problem, a Waterford Branch of the Alzheimer Society of Ireland is now to be formed and anyone who is interested in the formation or in attending branch meetings can obtain further particulars by contacting Tony Barden at 051/77214.

IT WAS ALL A HUGE SEND UP

The manner in which our local contemporary featured the story about a major archaeological discovery in the village of Ballyduff with a front page four column spread last week indicates that they failed to recognise it as a huge send up to highlight the forthcoming Drama Festival in the Blackwater village.

It is difficult to understand why the novel press release was not at once seen for what it really was with references to plastics being in use in the ninth century and that at that time the river Lee ran through Ballyduff. It was, of course, extremely comical and should never have been treated as a factual report as was done by having it printed as the main story of the week on the front page.

We must admit that the press release was indeed a novel one and displayed the excellent classical knowledge of the PRO responsible for compiling it. So good, in fact, was it that many people in Ballyduff at first believed it and thought what a wonderful thing it was that such valuable ancient treasures had been located in their area. That some University students had, in fact, been active in the locality during the past summer season added further credence to the story but when we were in Ballyduff on Monday morning last we were informed that these students had not been involved in anything like an archaeological "dig" but were there pursuing some form of entomological studies.

Anyway when the people of Ballyduff came to the realisation that far from being factual the whole thing was a joke and had never been intended to be taken in any other but in a jocose manner, their reaction changed. Several felt they had been fooled and at least one expressed the view that because of the manner in which the situation had developed because of the way in which it was handled, the idea which was aimed at winning good publicity for the Ballyduff Drama Festival might well boomerang on the event. We sincerely hope that this will not be the end result.

The manner in which this Ballyduff "archaeological find" has now garnered so much negative publicity reminds us of the story of the two editors of rival provincial papers which flourished away back in the 1940's (both have since ceased publication). One was strong with a large circulation, the other small with a limited readership.

The editor of the smaller paper was an extremely intelligent well-read man while the other was a thick-headed, boastful character. To make a long story short, the small editor got a friend to send a report to the editor of the larger journal that an upright stone of archaeological importance had been discovered in a field in a nearby townland with the following Latin inscription: FORAS SESTO RUBON. The big editor duly published the report and asked readers for their views as to the inscription.

It was then the small editor scored. In a letter to the big man he declared — "we are afraid that your classical education must have been sadly neglected. The "Latin" inscription which you published last week simply requires to be properly spaced when it then correctly states: FOR ASSES TO RUB ON!"

It would appear that like those on our local contemporary the big editor swallowed the story of the archaeological "find" hook, line and sinker and published it as fact having failed to recognise it as fiction.

INTER- COUNTY DEBATE FINAL

The East Cork - Waterford Inter-County Final of the Concern National Debating Contest will bring pupils of Loreto Convent, Youghal and St. Paul's Community School, Waterford into opposition on Thursday, February 15, at 8 p.m.

The venue will be the Loreto Convent, Youghal and the motion for the debate will be "International Sanctions are the best way of ending Apartheid in South Africa."

While everyone agrees that apartheid should be dismantled, such questions as how can this be brought about in the light of the latest developments in South Africa; Can it be achieved by maintaining or even by stepping up international sanctions or what, if any, are the alternatives? continue to arise and create divisions.

These questions will be addressed by the participants in the Concern debate on Thursday, February 15 commencing at 8 p.m., so it should prove an informative and entertaining evening for all who attend.

Threshings In West Cork Long Ago

While it is not the time of year for threshing operations, it is, in many ways, rather nice to recall the warm sunny days and the balmy nights of August and September, while we listen to strong winds howling outside and rain clattering against the windows. It is mainly for this reason that we have chosen "Threshings In West Cork Long Ago" for our ballad corner this week. Composed by Dan Holland it was published in "Biatas — The Tillage Farmer" last September:

The farmer would rise early that morning
He'd stop and look at the sky
If he saw the sun rising brightly
'Tis a sign that the day would be dry.
So he calls on the engine driver
Get ready! the steam whistle you'll blow
I remember the days of my boyhood
At the threshings in West Cork long ago.

As soon as the help had assembled
The threshing and work would begin
Farmers now fairly busy
Organising and giving jobs to the men.
Some up on the thresher or with sacks of corn
Others piking straw down below
Oh! for the days of my boyhood
At the threshings in West Cork long ago.

Extra women and girls in the kitchen
A lot of cooking to be done
About sixty or more for the dinner
Which must be ready at one.
Vegetables, meat and potatoes
Everything must be just so,
Oh! for the days of my boyhood
At the threshings in West Cork long ago.

When the day's work was all over
And the jobs in the haggard complete
Some men would stay a while chatting
Then back to the house for to eat
With lashings of food and refreshments,
Tables of nice things on show
Oh! for the days of my boyhood
At the threshings in West Cork long ago.

Next someone would play the melodeon
The girls smiling and shy
Boys, some wore boots with nails on them
Off the floor the sparks would soon fly.
Dance the sets, 'stack of barley' and waltzes
From the melodeon the music would flow,
Oh! for the days of my boyhood
At the threshings in West Cork long ago.

Songs a-plenty and choruses
"Boulavogue," "The Rose of Tralee," Love songs, emigrant, comic, local
And the "Banks of my own Lovely Lee."
"Mountains of Mourne," "Danny Boy," "Last Rose of Summer"
Sang so soft, sweet and low,
Oh! for the days of my boyhood
At the threshings in West Cork long ago.

Threshings are now but a memory
Some were hard work in those days
But were often a social occasion
And gave pleasure in so many ways.
Threshing sets from haggard to haggard
On the road long ago to and fro,
Oh! for the days of my childhood
At the threshings in West Cork long ago.

RED HOUSE LEAGUE SCHOOLBOYS FOOTBALL

Kick-off Time Draws Near — A big crowd attended the first schoolboys meeting of the season at The Red House Bar, Lismore. The number of clubs taking part is up this season which augurs well for the game. All the delegates felt that there is great interest in the game at underage level, due in the main, to the Republic of Ireland's great run at the moment.

It was decided to run leagues at U-10, U-12, U-14, U-15 and U-18 for the coming season. All five leagues are being sponsored which is greatly appreciated by the league committee. The U-10 and U-12 leagues will be run off together to cut down on club expenses. Red House League referees will be the men in the middle, as it were, for these games. Leagues will consist of one round only.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A. NOTES

At a recent meeting of the above, representatives to the County Board and to the East County Board reported on impending games and the junior footballers will be in action against Cloyne at Cloyne on Sunday, February 11, but if the pitch is unplayable the Conna pitch is the likely venue. Junior hurling league games will be in vogue in a fortnight's time and the intermediate hurlers will be in action on March 25. A players meeting is timed for 9 p.m. this Saturday evening at the clubrooms, Ballynoe.

The club too sends its best wishes to player and loyal club administrator, Matt Harper, for a quick recovery from his recent indisposition.

Showjumping Season Starts At Ballyrafter

The 1990 showjumping season got underway at Ballyrafter Equestrian Centre, Lismore with the first qualifying round of the leagues for horses held last Saturday.

Once again it looks like being another exciting indoor season with a very large entry forward on Saturday, and with shows continuing every Wednesday and Saturday between now and the 1st April there will be plenty of opportunity for these promising young horses to get experience.

Alltech Ireland Ltd., importers of the all-natural feed additive Yea-Sacc, this year sponsor the Yeats Novice League for Grade D and E horses. Waterford Foods plc., who produce the wide range of 'Gain' horsefeeds and who include Yea-Sacc in their feed, are the sponsors for the Gain Open League. This event is for the more experienced Grade A, B, C horses and will no doubt add to the already very impressive programme provided for the young potentials.

The Grade E horses have the Glenpatrick League and this is backed by Glenpatrick Spring Water Co. in Clonmel.

The competition in these events will no doubt be very competitive and some new stars of the future are very likely to emerge. One of the most popular events and the one which is running the longest is the Starters League and this caters for the first season horses and also gives the many amateur riders ideal competitions.

PONY LEAGUES

The activities are not just confined to horses as the ponies have an equally extensive programme. The leagues commence next Sunday, February 11, with the first Points Show of the season and continue every Sunday until the finals on March 25.

These smaller animals are extremely agile and their riders are even more so and when it comes to competition you will not have many more exciting events than the jump-offs the open ponies produce.

For the first time in many years, the training competitions held up to now have seen a very big increase in the numbers of local riders and the West Waterford region is full of new budding riders, so there is plenty to look forward to for the coming months.

CLUB OF THE YEAR CELEBRATIONS

On Saturday night last in Touraneena, Sliabh gCua/St. Mary's G.A.A. Club celebrated winning the Club of the Year Award with a traditional Irish night in Dunford's Lounge. The night was ably organised by Monnie and his troops from the Set Club and special thanks must go to these people for their efforts in making the night such a success. From the outset we were treated to a feast of traditional music, song and dance.

The highlight from the entertainment point of view was the starring performance of the 1972 All-Ireland Set Dancing champions, Sliabh gCua's first All-Ireland winners. They certainly showed us that they've lost none of their old sparkle. The staying power of some of the older members of the set was remarkable — one wonders where they get the legs for it. Some of the younger generation should take a leaf out of their book. A couple of them were seen hobbling around at the week-end on artificial legs.

The presentation of the Club of the Year Award was made by treasurer of the Western Board, Paddy Fitzgerald. Piery Butler, Chairman accepted on behalf of the Club. Also present was Paddy Walsh, representative to the Co. Board and Co. Chairman, Eamonn Murphy.

Piery Butler, Chairman, thrilled the large crowd with his acceptance speech and thanked all the people who had helped and supported the club throughout the year and looked forward to the 90's for continuing success. The night was brought to a close by the surprise introduction of a cake bearing 21 candles. Pa Hallinan one of our dual playing stars had "come of age." This ended the celebrations which proved a fitting finale to a great year.

Set Club — Don't forget our sister club, the Set Club are competing in four Co. Finals in the Scor on Friday night, wishing them every success in Kill. Go along, they are worthy of your support.

SCOUTS

SET CLUB NEWS

Of course, Teilifis na Gaeltachta, an Irish medium television channel, has been promised by An Taoiseach on more than one occasion and several Gaeltacht based groups have done a study of all aspects, including the cost, and these studies will be debated at the Saturday seminar in Ring.

Padraig O hAolain, PRO of Udaras na Gaeltachta will speak on the Udaras study as well as on Telegael, a company set up by Udaras to make television programmes in Irish. Doncha O hEallaithe, of the Conamara work group, who actually transmitted pirate television programmes in Irish, will

Dail Question About Dental Appointment

Deputy Austin Deasy continued his pressure to have a dentist appointed for West Waterford when he asked the Minister for Health in the Dail last week if he would make a financial allocation to the South Eastern Health Board to allow the provision of a dentist to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of a senior dental surgeon.

In his reply, the Minister, Dr. O'Hanlon, said that it was his intention that the development of an improved dental service, particularly for adults with full eligibility, would be commenced in 1990. He was discussing with the Board options to bring about an improvement in dental services throughout the health board area, including services in West Waterford.

Court Gives Youghal Man One Final Chance — Or Else

The former P.R.O. of Youghal A.F.C., who fraudulently converted club funds totalling more than £300 to his own personal use in 1988, must make restitution in full by May 1 or serve six months imprisonment.

That was the decision of District Justice W. F. O'Connell at Youghal Court last Friday in an adjourned case against 38 year old Daniel O'Keefe, 36 Sarsfield's Terrace, Youghal.

O'Keefe had been convicted at a previous court of defrauding Youghal Soccer Club of monies totalling £323 at a time when he held the office of P.R.O. in the club. He has since been banned for life from the club.

The Court had heard how O'Keefe retained monies collected by him for a major draw the club was running.

Supt. M. Murray told District Justice O'Connell that the case had been adjourned for several months to enable the defendant pay £323 compensation. To date, however, nothing had been paid by him.

The Justice said he would give O'Keefe one final opportunity to pay the money.

Jailed For Furniture Stealing In Youghal

A 20-year-old Cork city man who was jailed for six months last Thursday was back in Court again on last Friday (the following day) when he was given another eight months sentence.

Michael Rutherford, 42 Moran Avenue, The Glen, pleaded guilty at Youghal Court to stealing furniture valued £100 at Redbarn, Youghal, on January 31, the property of Jeremiah Lucey.

Supt. M. Murray said Rutherford, in the company of two juveniles, stole the furniture from a cottage and put it into his van. The defendant appeared at Cork

District Court last Thursday and was sentenced to six months imprisonment for larceny and malicious damage offences.

District Justice W. F. O'Connell imposed an eight month sentence on Rutherford and directed that it run concurrently with the six months. The defendant was also given a concurrent three months for giving a false name to the gardai.

SAILOR DROWNED

Pat McKenna and Jimmy Morrissey of Aglish both attended the funeral of their colleague, Seaman Michael Quinn from Drogheda, who was drowned off the Cork coast in a rescue bid last week. He was buried with full military honours.

Among the attendance at the funeral was Minister for Defence Mr. Brian Lenihan.

KINSALEBEG MACRA NA FEIRME NOTES

The past weekend saw Kinsalebeg add both another County final and a Regional final win to its ever-growing list of credits.

On Friday, February 2, our Senior Public Speaking team beat off the challenge of six other teams to collect the county honours. The team, consisting of Chairman John Hourigan, Speakers Caroline Smiddy, Peter Kiely and Suzanne Hynes, gave an authoritative dissertation on the subject: "Has the Catholic Church lost its influence in Ireland?"

Special mention must be made of John Hourigan's fine performance on Kinsalebeg's behalf, in view of the fact that he has but recently joined the club.

The following night, Saturday, February 3, our fine Quiz Team represented Waterford in the Regional finals, which were held in the Blarney Park Hotel, Blarney, Co. Cork. The team, led by Peter Kiely and comprising Patricia Kiely, Kevin O'Brien and Liam Foley, had little difficulty in securing their place in the national semi-finals of this competition. — PRO.

Dungarvan Band Go On National Tour

THE WISHING STONES

formed in December 1988 in Dungarvan, are one of a myriad of young Irish Bands reflecting the growing rock culture in the country.

They've spent the past twelve months maturing both in live performances and songwriting as well as supporting the likes of The Dixons, Something Happens, Subterraneans, Cactus World News and Burning Embers.

In Dungarvan and Waterford, they have built a following strong enough to headline in their own right, the result of winning "Battle of the Bands '89" at the Bridge Hotel, Waterford, June 1989.

Now, to help them move further up the ladder, the Band were spotted by Brian Travers of UB40 who promptly offered the young Dungarvan Band support slot on the forthcoming UB40 Tour.

Thanks to Liam for the Anchor gigs; to Paddy O'Brien at Minnies and all at W.L.R. Thanks to John Coleman for his technical assistance and to everyone else who assisted in the operation, and to everybody who has supported the band from the beginning.

Dungarvan Musical & Choral Society Notes

There are only a few more days to go before "Calamity Jane" hits the boards at the Friary Hall Theatre, Dungarvan. This is your chance to put the recent stormy weather out of your mind, because the temperature is rising in Deadwood City.

In the second act of the show, we see how Calamity (Padraigin Ni Chadhla) adds a little glitter to the Golden Garter Saloon, when she brings Katie Brown (Orla O'Keefe) from Chicago. There is consternation all round when Katie — who tries to impersonate the famous Adelaide Adams (Mary Kelly) is revealed as a fake.

Micheal O'Halloran who plays "Wild Bill Hickcock."

However, Katie proves she has plenty talent of her own and her charms don't go unnoticed by Deadwood's most eligible men — Wild Bill Hickcock (Micheal O'Halloran) and Lt. Danny Gilmartin (Pat O'Halloran).

Has Calamity ruined her chances of getting either Wild Bill or Danny? Was it a big mistake to bring the charming Katie to town? For the answers to these questions, the only thing to do is get down to the Friary Hall Theatre and see for yourself.

Shake-off those Winter blues and get into the spirit of the Wild West. You can tap your toes to songs like "Windy City", "Black Hills Of Dakota", "The Deadwood Stage", "My Secret Love", and many many more. Let the colourful characters of 'Calamity Jane' warm up a Winter's evening for you with their lively costumes, songs and dances.

Choreographer, Tara Ann Burns has imparted her own grace and vitality to the dance routines which include a high kicking Can-Can — Folies Bergeres eat your heart-out?

So saddle up your horses and head for the Friary Hall Theatre. The show runs from Tuesday 13 to Saturday 17 of February at 8.15 p.m.

You can book your tickets at Morrissey Meats Ltd.

Derek Davis At The Cats

Derek Davis sings. No Kidding! If you like a diet of good country music with a bit of Rock 'n Roll Derek has the recipe for you. The big man who says he's shifted more beef than Larry Goodman is looking terrific and sounding great. Ask any of the thousands of delighted dancers he's played to in the last couple of months, ask any of the women who surrounded him when he came off stage.

Of course he's no stranger to the band business. Long before he became one of Ireland's best liked broadcasters, he sang the country programme with touring bands. His resemblance to Big Tom in those days was uncanny and it was to establish his own identity that he went into broadcasting. "I never warbled a note for a couple of years then I started doing the charity shows and the personal appearance circuit. A lot of people who remembered me from the band days would insist on a song or two and to tell the truth, I enjoyed it", he says.

DEREK DAVIS

Derek is still enjoying himself and now has a two hour show for dancing or cabaret. He is still very very funny but to the crack you can now add a full dancing programme from a mighty singer.

The Derek Davis Show is on at "The Cats Bar", Melleray on Saturday night, February 10. Special guest appearing with Derek will be Aine.

FINEST RECORDS

From Galway's C.J.'s Club to Cricklewood's Galtymore, Aine from Armagh has enthralled audiences, albeit less than large crowds, in recent months, but she has still not gained the acclaim she deserves, especially in the recording world, for her recently recorded Nashville L.P. titled "I'm Not Lisa".

The album is released on the Music Box label and is possibly one of the finest new Irish Country records this year, but the fact that she is still largely unknown will militate against its success.

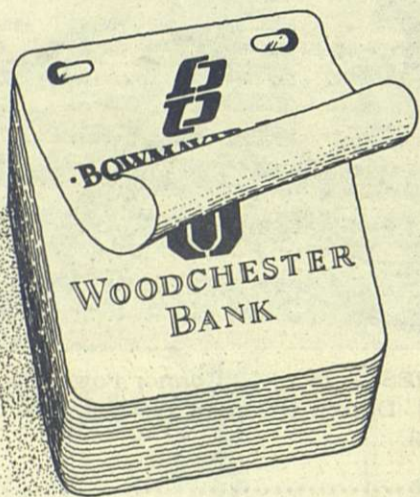

Mind you she was lucky with her single earlier this summer, "I'm Not Lisa" made it into the Irish pop charts and also gained a prestige placing in the R.T.E. Radio 2 playlist.

Aine has also been working with Derek on the T.V. show "Live At Three — Search For A Star" competition in recent months and this has also given her valuable exposure to the fans. She is still far from the top, but if this young singer can continue to make L.P.'s of the standard of "I'm Not Lisa" then it will not be long before the name of Aine is also on the lips of Dolly and Tammy and Nanci fans, not alone in Ireland and England but as far afield as Nashville where she made her debut album.

Dungarvan Scouts Notes

11th WATERFORD

THURSDAY NIGHT
CUBS

We started the night by organising the clans with William and Aidan rising to the ranks of sixers. After testwork we had a game of "off balance" which was won by the White Owl clan.

We then finished the night with a game of volleyball. We would also like to wish the lads who departed from us last week into the scouts all the best in their scouting days.

Aidan, Paul, Eamonn and Derek did well for themselves in winning the quiz which covered subjects from the Government to Fraggie Rock. Looking at the result, we can feel confident about the regional quiz next week.

Ballysaggart Notes

CAPPOQUIN COMMUNITY GAMES
A.G.M.

The local Committee held their A.G.M. recently. The Chairman, Ned Heffernan was delighted to see such a large attendance and in his address highlighted the success of all our competitors at County level and also the performance of our teams in the Munster finals and also our athletes at the National finals. Undoubtedly this was the most successful year that the Cappoquin club has ever had.

The Secretary, Eddie Fraher, in his report was loud in his praise of the committee who worked so hard to bring success to our young entrants, particularly the work put in by Angela Collender, Anna Scanlon and Mick Lacey. It was great to see their efforts being rewarded. Another plus for the committee was organising the local primary schools' participation in the West Waterford Schools Sports.

The Treasurer's report by Tommy Coughlan showed the Bank Balance on the right side despite heavy expenditure mainly due to our big number of athletes travelling to Butlins. However, thanks to our fund raising ventures we overcame the extra expense.

Cappoquin/Affane G.A.A. Club received high praise for splendid facilities for our local community games as did the various managers of participating teams for their unselfish efforts.

The following officers were elected for 1990:

Chairman — Ned Heffernan; Vice-Chairman — Peter Scanlon; Hon. Secretary — Eddie Fraher; Asst. Secretary — Angela Collender; Hon. Treasurer — Tommy Coughlan; Asst. Treasurer — Deirdre McGrath; Development Officer — Angela Collender; Registrar — Cathy Lynch; Co. Board Delegate — Ned Heffernan; P.R.O. — Eddie Fraher; Committee — Rita Dwyer, Margo Veale, Mick Murphy, Andy Lynch, Jim Collender, John Nicholson, Mick Lacey, Paddy McGrath, Pat Morrissey, Ml. McGrath, John Maher, J. J. Scanlon, Noel Looby, Anna Scanlon, David McGrath, Anthony Prendergast, Grace Scanlon.

CAPPOQUIN BILLIARDS AND SNOOKER CLUB

Peter Ahearne Perpetual Trophy Final — Darren Mason 5

Michael Doherty 4

This match was, as the scoreline suggests, a very closely fought out nine frames indeed. No fewer than five of the frames went to the black, actually the ninth and decisive game also came down to a black ball finish, both players had a couple of attempts each at it but it was Darren who eventually potted it into the centre pocket to clinch what was probably the closest final we've ever had at the club.

J. J. Landers Perpetual Doubles Trophy — Quarter finals results were — Michael Casey and Brian Ormond 3 Johnny Sheehan and Conor Morrissey 0; Andy O'Keeffe and P. J. Reddy 3 James Morrissey and Pat Kiely 0; Eamonn Costin and Jack McGrath 3 John Noonan and Pa Curran 2; Darren Mason and Michael Doherty 3 Conor O'Leary and Eamonn Uniacke 0.

The semi-final line up is — Brian Ormond and Michael Casey v. Andy O'Keeffe and P. J. Reddy; Eamonn Costin and Jack McGrath v. Darren Mason and Michael Doherty.

Billy McCarthy Perpetual Billiards Trophy — A reminder to players that the closing date for entries is Sunday, February 12.

Maurice Kelleher Snooker League — Results were as follows: — Brian Ormond bt. Pa Curran 73-44; James Morrissey bt. Pa Curran 78-62; Michael Doherty bt. Conor O'Leary 74-55; Brian Ormond bt. Andy O'Keeffe 71-39.

The situation at the top with just five games remaining is:

	P	Pts
Darren Mason	15	26
Michael Doherty	14	22
Brian Ormond	15	22
James Morrissey	13	20

As you see at this stage any of the above could clinch it. Over the next couple of weeks we have a number of crucial matches, so we'll soon know who will or won't be there or thereabouts.

Tom Feerick Perpetual Billiards League — The results are as follows: — Eamonn Costin bt. R. McLaughlin 71-48; Pa Curran bt. Pat Kiely 71-56; Darren Mason bt. Andy O'Keeffe 101-74; Brian Ormond bt. Andy O'Keeffe 138-97.

The situation at the top is:

	P	Pts
Eamonn Costin	8	14
Brian Ormond	9	14
Michael Doherty	9	14
Darren Mason	8	10
Andy O'Keeffe	9	10
James Morrissey	6	8

This week E. Costin plays J. Morrissey in what will be the league decider.

MINNIES SQUASH CLUB NOTES

FANTASTIC START BY LADIES COUNTRY LEAGUE TEAM!

With the men's country league team safely qualified for the quarter finals and still awaiting their next opponents, the spotlight switches over to our ladies country league team who began their campaign on Jan. 22nd when they travelled to Kildorrery where I'm delighted to report a fantastic 4-1 win.

With Rita Moore ill on the night and unable to travel, Colette O'Mahony was drafted in for action where she did splendidly to win 3-0 against Edel Moynihan. At No. 4. Mary Walsh beat Anne Walsh 3-0, at No. 3 Teresa Hayes went down 1-3 to Mary Dunne, at No. 2 Anne Hennebry beat Brigid Clohan 3-0 and at No. 1 our captain Mary Coffey won 3-0 against Judy Power.

Result: Minnies 18 pts., Kildorrery 3 pts.

On Monday night, Jan. 29th the ladies were at home to our nearest opponents in the group — Tallow — I'm delighted to report another fantastic 4-1 win. With Rita Moore fully recovered it was a full strength team that took to the court (or was it would Rita, Anne or Mary suffer from Marineitis?). At No. 5 Mary Walsh beat Nora O'Leary 3-0, at No. 4 Teresa Hayes beat Mauve Collins 3-0, at No. 3 Rita Moore beat Mary Forde 3-0, at No. 2 Anne Hennebry beat Kay Condon 3-0 and at No. 1 Mary Coffey went down 1-3 to Bets Daly.

Result: Minnies 18 pts., Tallow 3 pts.

VETERANS KEEP AHEAD OF THE FIELD

Our veterans were back in action on Wednesday night Jan. 31st when they travelled to Collins Barracks in Cork where they had an eventful night. Before they left Abbeyside there was a panic in the ranks as John Foley was unable to travel through illness at the last moment, so after a lot of running around and phone calls, Colm Bannon was drafted in. The excitement continued when on arriving at the barracks the lads were forced to wait outside for nearly ten minutes.

When the lads eventually got through the security and managed to get on court, supersub Colm Bannon was first on at No. 5 where he won 3-0. Lazarus was at it again for Tom Phelan was at his usual charity work this week. He gave his opponent a two games to love lead and six-nil in the third before he decided to hit the turbo button as he came back to win 3-2. At No. 3 Jack Elstead could afford to give his opponent an 8-2 lead in the third game before he came back to win 10-8 for a three-love victory. At No. 2 Denis O'Brien played through the pain barrier as he went down 1-3. At No. 1 Tommy Butler did very well as he came back from two-love down to win 3-2.

On Wednesday (tonight), Feb. 7th, the lads are home to Orchard; Wed. Feb. 14th, the lads are at home to Highfield and on Feb. 21st they finish their campaign away to Sunday's Well. Why not come along and support our team for their upcoming fixtures.

Result: Minnies 13 pts., Collins 7 pts.

A.I.B. REPORT

On Tuesday night, Jan. 30th, the first round came to a finish when the teams of Tony Lonergan and Owen O'Mahony progressed against Jim Sheehan's and Martin Walsh's teams.

For Tony at No. 5 Libby Flynn went down 0-3 to Maura Kindregan, at No. 1, club number one Pat Phelan beat Pearse Moloney 3-0, at No. 4 Eamon Murphy found the craft of Donal O Faolain very tough as he went down 1-3. At No. 3 Michael Dwyer beat Richard Dunne 3-0 and in the decider Tony Lonergan was happy with his form as he won 3-0 against Jim Sheehan. Result: Tony's team 10 pts., Jim's team 6 pts.

In the other tie, at No. 1 Liam Hansberry beat the injured Denis O'Brien 3-0, at 4 Larry Kiely beat Ann elstead 3-0, at No. 3 Pat Power beat John Kelly in an exciting five setter, at No. 5 Lily Hannigan beat Nancy Fielding 3-0. While this was going on the 2's began on the adjoining court and here Martin Walsh had won the first game when the result of the No. 5's filtered across. Result: Owen's team 9 pts., Martin's team 6 pts.

On Thursday night, Feb. 1st, we had two more ties when Ray Dwyer's team beat Frank O'Donoghue's team and Tom Phelan's team beat Gerry Flynn's team. For Ray at No. 1 Maurice Walsh beat Jim Harty 3-1 (played Wed.). At 5, in the most exciting contest of the night Olive White bounced back from two-love and 8-5 (matchball) down before she clawed her way back to a very exciting 3-2 win. Game scores 1-9, 2-9, 10-8, 10-8, 9-6. At No. 3 Liam Treacy did well to defeat Cindy Brady 3-1. At No. 4 Sean Power sealed victory for Ray's team with a convincing 3-0 win over Michael Coffey. Result: Ray's team 11 pts., Frank's team 4 pts.

Can Ray make it to the final in his plaster cast — that is the question being asked.

In the other tie, at No. 3 Dave Tuohy beat Hank Regan 3-1, at 5, Jacinta O'Mahony went down 0-3 to Rose Dwane. In the captains tussle an under par Tom Phelan had to work hard for his 3-1 victory over Gerry Flynn. At No. 4 Mai O'Brien bounced back into top form with a very good victory over country league captain Mary Coffey. Result: Tom's team 9 pts., Gerry's team 5 pts.

The semi-finals of the A.I.B. are due on next Thursday, Feb. 8th and the final is set for Tuesday, Feb. 13th — so why not come along for a look.

DUNGARVAN SMITHWICKS DARTS LEAGUE

Martin Crotty's Team Had The Edge In Good Final

The above final was held in front of a good sized crowd at the Shandon Arms last Friday night. The proceedings were started by chairman, Mickey Delaney and what was to follow was a feast of good darts and some great finishing.

The final started with the team game of 1001. Barry Sexton's Park House I took an early lead, but as soon as Martin Crotty's Park House II shook off their nerves they overhauled their opponents and got into a commanding lead but had to endure some anxious moments before captain Martin Crotty finished double 8.

The first single pitted the two captains against each other. The first leg was a great exhibition of darts with Martin Crotty winning in 22 darts. The second leg saw Martin faltering on the doubles to let Barry Sexton in to even things up. The third leg proved similar to the second with Barry failing to take advantage of a big lead and he left it to Martin to give his team a 2-0 lead. The second single saw Jim Mulcahy holding his nerve well to account for Paul Lane 2-0, which meant Park House II needed only one more point to take the title.

With their backs against the wall Park House I showed some good character with John Ducey and Paul Lane disposing of Martin Crotty and Sandra Crotty. They kept their hopes alive with another good win from Barry Sexton and Brian Wall over Tom O'Riordan and Jim Mulcahy to make the match score 3-2.

The third single saw Tom O'Riordan clinch the title for Park House II with a very good 2-0 win which included a 66 finish in the first leg over a much fancied John Ducey.

Cappoquin/ Ballinameela Athletic Club

On Saturday and Sunday, January 27 and 28, the National Junior and Senior Indoor Championships were held in Nenagh, with a record attendance.

On Saturday Michael Ahern competed in the junior men's shot and did very well to take the silver medal.

On Sunday, Francis Lynch and John White competed in the junior 5000m. walk. Francis came home in 3rd place. John White was unlucky not to be in the medals as was Fiona Lynch who was competing in the junior shot and finished in 4th place. Corinna Walsh had a great run in the junior 600m. and finished in 5th place.

MUNSTER SPORTS STAR AWARD FOR FRANCIS LYNCH

On Friday night last at a gala function in Whitechurch House Hotel, Francis Lynch received his award in recognition of his marvellous performances throughout 1989.

Well done Francis. This was a great honour for Francis and also for the club as it is the second year in succession that Francis has been so honoured.

Tipperary Motor Club

On Sunday, January 21, the club held its annual round of Hewison Trophy Test Trials. The event was held in the Clonea and Ballinacourty area. 23 drivers from all over Ireland took part in the ten tests laid out by Clerk of the Course, Jerome Waters and Assistant C.O.C. Eddie Higgins.

Special thanks should be given to the marshals and time keepers who kept the test trial running even though the rain tried to wash out the event.

The many drivers thoroughly enjoyed the weekend's motor sport and the overall winner on the day was Eamonn Byrne from Wicklow who won the Blacksheep Weavers sponsored heath rug.

For anybody who is interested in motor sport as a competitor, an organiser or a marshal you should attend our club meetings, held in the Hotel Minella, Clonmel, at 9.30 p.m. on the third Wednesday of every month.

United Let Title Chance Slip In Local Derby

ABBEYSIDE 0 DUNGARVAN 0

Dungarvan lost a great chance of going joint top of the table when they had to settle for a point after this hard fought and exciting local derby against arch rivals Abbeyside at Dog Leafe Park on Saturday last.

With just one league game remaining, the Blues now need a miracle if they are to lift this year's title and only a total collapse by leaders St. Paul's will ensure this.

Although the football in this encounter never reached any great heights, the closeness of the exchanges and the many goal-mouth incidents kept the big crowd interested until the final whistle.

The visitors had first use of the hill and opened brightly with the running of B. Sheehan and G. Beresford threatening to bear fruit, but Abbeyside's defence (in which "Cairo" was in inspiring form) stood solid while behind them Cahill gave a faultless display between the posts. It was Cahill who was first in action when he gathered a left wing cross at the second attempt. At the other end, Wade should have made better use of a clearance which put him clear of the Blues defence but he failed to beat Wall.

A neat build-up between M. Houlihan and M. Sheehan almost paved the way for an opening goal but Sheehan pulled his shot just wide. Just before the break Whelan was just over with a free kick.

On the turn-over, it was the Villagers who seemed the more determined as they swept forward in search of an opening score and were almost rewarded after 60 minutes. A good effort from "Muller" rebounded off the crossbar and fell to the feet of McGovern, but with the goal at his mercy he drove his shot against the post and Hamilton scrambled clear.

United responded immediately, a good run by Beresford who cut inside Cosgrave before firing in a shot that flew inches wide. With time slipping away the Blues pushed forward in search of that elusive goal and almost broke through in the 78th minute. A superb ball from Donnelly put B. Sheehan clear and he cut inside O'Donnell before whipping in a left footed shoot that Cahill saved brilliantly. Minutes later he was in action again, Dungarvan won a free kick on the edge of the box and Whelan's kick seemed destined for the bottom corner but Cahill flung himself to his right to beat out the shot.

This proved to be the Blues last chance to take the points and St. Paul's must now be odds on favourites to annex this year's title.

Cahill, O'Riordan, Cosgrave and O'Donnell starred for Abbeyside, while Dungarvan had solid performers in Wall, Donnelly, Beresford and B. Sheehan.

Dungarvan Crystal Squash Notes

Our team tournament sponsored by the A.I.B. continued on Tuesday night last with Jimmy Kiely's and Georgie Hamilton's teams getting through.

Jimmy's team wasn't looking good when No. 5 E. Burke was beaten 3-0 by M. Crotty and No. 4 T. Murphy went down 1-3 to K. Moore. But D. Long at No. 3 kept the team there with a 3-0 win over P. O'Connell and another 3-0 win by E. Cashin over E. Meehan left the game down to the No. 1's. P. Murphy and J. Kiely fought a hard battle, but Jimmy won 3-1 to bring his team through to the semi-finals. J. Kiely's team 10 pts. On Georgie's team at No.

5 A. Dunford bt. B. Duggan 3-1; at No. 4 in a very close game D. O Murchu lost to T. Duggan 2-3; at No. 3 P. Dunford bt. F. O'Donoghue

3-0 and at No. 2 P. Cleary bt. D. Power 3-0. That was enough to qualify Georgie's team for the semi-finals and that meant that Georgie and J. Cliffe did not have to play.

G. Hamilton's team 11 pts J. Cliffe's team 4 points.

COUNTRY LEAGUE

Our men's B team were at home to Fermoy and collected 19 points with a 4-1 win.

ABBEYSIDE A.F.C. NOTES

Rampant Reds Denied

ABBEYSIDE 0 DUNGARVAN 0

After a thrilling match which contained everything but a goal Abbeyside must surely be ruing a succession of missed chances and a virtuoso performance by Joe Wall in the Blues goal and on the occasions when Wall was beaten, the ball rebounded to safety from the woodwork.

The match started against the odds with all other local fixtures off. This was down to the dedicated bunch of lads who spent hours earlier getting the pitch in shape. A large crowd turned out and a contingent arrived from the city as this match was crucial to the league outcome with Dungarvan chasing the title and Abbeyside despite a promising start trying to shake off the spectre of relegation. So the scene was set for a vital derby match.

Dungarvan kicked off and immediately set about the Abbeyside defence but got no quarter from a determined back four and Cahill in the home goal was not called on to make any save noteworthy of mention. After a ding-dong first 10 minutes Abbeyside began to assert some semblance of superiority and some concerted attacks down the right flank by Wade and Mulvihill soon had the Blues defence back-peddalling and when Wade after another great run cut easily inside Whelan he unleashed a tremendous shot only to see Wall twist acrobatically to make a super save. 5 minutes later a cross by Reynolds headed on by Fran McGovern was only barely missed by Mark McCarthy at the far post. Sean McGrath lorded the middle Late in the half Abbeyside began to become complacent and this allowed the Blues to establish a hold and only fine goalkeeping from Cahill kept a hungry Dungarvan forward line at bay. However, the Reds weathered the storm and ended the half on the attack.

Half-time and D. Egan (manager) and M. Morrissey (asst. manager) impressed the need on their team for renewed vigour and spirit.

The second half started to a great roar of approval. This was the half the Reds were to dominate from start to finish, often forcing the visitors defence to defend desperately. After 10 minutes of the second half, a great run by Reynolds and a shot by McGovern skimmed narrowly wide. McCarthy began to show his promise by going down the left flank on several occasions past his experienced marker G. Hamilton. Hamilton, however, was one of the Dungarvan stars as he often had to cover against some very threatening moves.

Mulvihill and Wade were now proving a real thorn in the Blues defence and when with 20 minutes remaining Mulvihill's shot looped over Wall a goal looked certain but the ball rebounded off the bar. T. Wade also seemed certain to score but Wall somehow kept the shot out, but it only fell to Fran McGovern who fired low and hard against the inside of the post. Remarkably the ball rolled along the line and was cleared by Hickey to the utter relief and amazement of the Dungarvan support.

Dungarvan raced up the field and some sterling defensive work by Joe O'Riordan and Tom Cahill kept the Blues at bay. Ten minutes from the end Joe O'Riordan collected the ball in his own half and set out on a mazy run which carried him past six players right up to the edge of the six-yard box where he turned the ball across only for M. Hickey to clear ahead of T. Wade who was lurking dangerously.

Dungarvan surged back and only a great save by Cahill from a Ber Whelan free-kick kept the scorline on parity. Abbeyside ended the game on the attack but Dungarvan with the aid of some strange refereeing held on.

A most satisfying performance with the a impressive display from our defence who did not allow Dungarvan's much vaunted attack any opportunity to show its capabilities. M. Cosgrave and Joe O'Riordan in particular shone. Our midfield competed very well and S. McGrath had one of his better games in a red jersey. Up front McCarthy belied his age with a veteran like performance aided by the ever improving D. Mulvihill, a tigerish display from him. T. Wade and M. O'Riordan our two veterans were coolness personified and gave a great example to the rest of the players with two great displays. F. McGovern and M. Reynolds also played well in a very soft midfield area.

Hopefully this will augur well for our cup game v. Bolton next Saturday.

RED HOUSE LEAGUE

Weather Disrupts Fixtures

On a day when weather conditions made any attempt to play reasonable football verge upon the absurd, only two of the seven games scheduled for last Sunday were played. Indeed it is not unreasonable to assert that none of the games should have gone on in the awful, bordering on the dangerous conditions which prevailed.

Off, for the second time, was the 2nd round Tyre Centre Cup game between Bride View and Youghal. This is now down for next Sunday morning in Youghal, kick-off 11.30 a.m. Off were the two Division 1 games between Ballyduff and Affane and Killeagh and Glenview. Both of these will be played next Sunday Off were the Division 2 games between Carriglea Rovers and Pinewood Rangers, which will likewise go ahead next Sunday. There was likewise no game at Mogeely where Grange were unable to field a full side. Mogeely will get the points.

Only three third rounds will now be played in Dungarvan Tyre Centre Cup next Sunday. They are — Cappelquin A v. Cappelquin B; Modeligo v. Affane; Lismore v. Inch.

Cappelquin A v. B should bring a crowd to Kilbree.

Cappelquin A will be firm favourites but a surprise can, by no means, be ruled out. Anything but a win for Lismore would be a major shock. On form we fail to separate Modeligo and Affane though Modeligo's recent displays have been very impressive.

The two second division games that were played resulted — Inch 2 Ardmore 1; Cappelquin B 0 Modeligo 3.

These results do little to improve the promotion hopes of Ardmore and Cappelquin and it now looks increasingly likely that Modeligo and Grange will be the ones to join Youghal in Division 1.

Cappelquin B on their own ground at Kilbree again found Modeligo to be far more experienced and well organised. Two goals from Liam Power and one from Vince Donovan saw Modeligo through fairly comfortably.

DIVISION 4

Missed Chances Prove Costly For Ballinroad

Bolton 2, Ballinroad 1

Failure to put away the many chances that came their way proved to be Ballinroad's undoing in this Div. 4 league tie played in Waterford on Saturday last. Hopefully they can find the target in this weekend's cup fixture against Portlaw.

DIVISION 3A

Our game v. St. Josephs was postponed last weekend owing to ground conditions. The under-12 and under-14 schoolboy games were also cancelled.

PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE

Our annual general meeting of the juvenile section at the C.B.S. next Tuesday night (8 o'clock) is were the planning and preparing for the 1990s will begin.

The importance of this meeting scarcely needs to be stressed, and after a fabulously successful 1980s we can only hope there will be "more of the same" in the coming decade.

Although we ended the decade without a county title there were Western final victories in Under-14 and 16 "A" football, and these triumphs will, hopefully, provide the springboard for further honours in the coming years.

It all begins however at the C.B.S. next Tuesday night. Be there if at all possible.

CLUB DEVELOPMENT PLANS

Things are moving very speedily now on the grounds development front. The bulldozers should be moving into our 20 acres at the Youghal Road in the very near future and thereafter it will be very much a case of full speed ahead.

Of course the programme is going to cost us a lot of money, but in the end it will indeed be money well spent.

Which reminds me. The tickets are still on sale for the Co-Op Development Draw, and we renew our appeal to the townspeople to give us every possible support. Every punt profit will go towards the fulfilment of a burning ambition — a brand new "home" of our own.

ADULT SCOR

Good luck to our Ballad Group and Set Dancers who take part in the county finals of the adult Scor in Kill on this coming Friday night.

Both have done excellently todate, and hopefully they will bring home the honours with them and a place in the Munster semi-finals.

GOOD LUCK CLODAGH

Incidentally while on the topic of Scor everyone in the club extends best wishes to Clodagh Power of neighbours Abbesside/Ballinacourty who competes in the Scor na nOg All-Ireland final (Recitation) in Dublin next Sunday.

BOARD MEETING

We'll be represented at the first Western Board meeting of 1990 which takes place at Lawlors Hotel on this Thursday night.

At the time of writing there's no talk of transfers, so hopefully we'll be able to call on all the players who served us so well last year.

Incidentally we'll be contacting the players soon about the commencement of training and our plans for the championship year that is now just around the corner.

35th ANNUAL SOCIAL

Our 35th annual social/dinner dance will be held in Whitechurch House Hotel on this Friday night, February 9. Tickets can be had from P. J. Connery, Johnny O'Brien, Johnny O'Connell, Seamus Murray, Richard Hurley, Tony Hally, Daithi O'Brien.

MOTION BEFORE WESTERN CONVENTION

We would like to thank most sincerely everyone who voted for our motion which we put before the Western Board Convention recently. There was overwhelming support that the Adult Championships run by the Western Board should revert to a knockout formula, with a losers group. Our chairman, P. J.

Connery moved the motion.

Commonsense will tell you there is only one championship — that is a knockout championship. Players will give their best performance in a game if it is a knockout.

INDISPOSED

We wish a speedy recovery to Billy Poyner, Pakie Hackett and Kieran Downing who are all indisposed at present.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is a extended to the family of the late Billy Conway who died suddenly recently. May he rest in peace.

HAPPY EVENT

Congratulations to Mossie and Yvonne Glavin on the birth of a daughter recently. Mossie is a former player. — PRO.

Senior Hurlers Lose To Tipperary

TIPPERARY 1-8 WATERFORD 0-4

The senior hurlers suffered a seven point defeat by Tipperary in a tournament game at Clonmel on Sunday last.

Waterford had wind advantage in the first half but it was the home side who opened the scoring in the 5th minute, when Donie O'Connell pointed. Liam O'Connor equalised in the 9th minute of a game played in atrocious conditions. O'Connell had the only goal of the game in the 16th minute when he finished a Michael Cleary free to the net and three minutes later he added another.

Shane Ahearne and Cleary exchanged points before Noel Crowley had a point in the 28th minute to leave the half-time score 1-3 to 0-3 in favour of the All-Ireland champions.

Cleary added three second half points for Tipp. while Paudie Everard and second half sub. Nicky English added two more to leave the winners 1-8 to 0-3 in front with five minutes remaining. Morrie Wadding who came on at half time had Waterford's only second half score. In the closing minutes Waterford had two goal chances.

Tipperary fielded an experimental team in which John Leamy, Mick Ryan, Colm Bonner, who had an outstanding game, John Madden, John Cormac, Michael Cleary, Paudie Everard and Donie O'Connell played exceptionally.

For Waterford, Niall Warren, Seamus Prendergast, Ger Fitzpatrick, Liam O'Connor and Shane Ahearne were outstanding.

SCOR NEWS

On this Friday night, the adult Scor Finals will take place at the Community Hall, in Kill. In the West, only six clubs participated and all of these will have representatives in the various competitions.

On Sunday afternoon the spotlight will be on Abbeyside's young Clodagh Power, who is our sole representative in the All-Ireland final of the juvenile section at the Gaiety Theatre, Dublin.

We wish Clodagh the very best of good luck in her efforts to win a national title in Recitation.

Waterford Defeated In Carlow

Carlow 2-13, Waterford 1-12

With a hurricane blowing all through the game, this match in round five of the national league at Carlow was very much a case of the survival of the fittest and up until the closing stages it seemed as if Waterford would last the hour better than the home side who were fighting very determinedly for their first league points.

Although Waterford had the best of the play throughout the first two quarters, we enjoyed only a solitary point lead (0-8 to 0-7) at halftime. In the second two quarters both sides showed improvement and the match developed into an exciting contest for the small group of supporters who had braved the elements to see the game. A goal by R. Brennan with about seven minutes remaining, proved a big setback for Waterford who had been playing very confidently up to this point.

Carlow, who, on the previous Sunday, had scored five goals against joint league leaders, Wicklow, have obviously made tremendous strides since conceding a walk-over to Limerick in November.

An extraordinary feature of the game, from a Waterford point of view, was that a total of nine players shared in the scoring.

County Secretary, Seamus Grant commented after the game, that while it was disappointing to lose a match that we should have won, he felt that Waterford can improve sufficiently to do well in the McGrath Cup, which is our championship objective.

Team: T. Brennan, P. Power, T. Walsh, F. O'Brien, P. Walsh, K. Mulcahy, D. Casey, L. Dalton, P. Queally, T. Corcoran, P. Hynes, D. Callaghan, J. McGrath, C. Mac Craith, T. Kelliher.

Waterford scorers — J. McGrath (1-2), C. Mac Craith (0-3), F. O'Brien, D. Callaghan, K. Mulcahy, T. Kelliher, P. Queally, G. Walsh, J. Power (sub.) (0-1 each).

Hurlers Beaten By Tipperary

A gale force wind, rain and poor underfoot conditions made things difficult for both sides in this senior hurling tournament in aid of the St. Marys Club Development at Clonmel on Sunday. Only about 4/500 turned up and this was a pity for the sponsoring club who had gone to a lot of trouble and expense to stage the fixture. It was a game that should have been postponed considering all the circumstances.

Waterford selectors regarded the game as a useful tryout that was informative in some ways as well as being a help in the build-up for the resumption of the league on March 18, with an away match against Carlow in Carlow. They have now played a trial and three very competitive games against Wexford, Kilkenny and Tipperary and plan to step up training as and from this week, when the Western end players will train at Lismore and the players from the Eastern side at a venue in the East.

The usual collective training will go ahead on tonight

Wednesday at Abbeyside and another get together is planned for Sunday if a venue is available.

REMAINING LEAGUE GAMES AND DATES

Hurling — Versus Carlow in Carlow on February 18; against Meath in Dungarvan on the following Sunday, February 25, and our final match will be against league leaders Offaly at Walsh Park on March 11. Should we reach the quarter finals or the play-offs, we will be in action again on March 25.

Proposed New Playing Rules

At the closing date for motions and nominations for Annual Congress on Saturday last, only a small number of counties submitted motions dealing with the proposed new playing rules and if this is taken as an indication of the interest in the changes, the sponsors could find it difficult to get them accepted. Many of the national papers are cynical about the changes and have been crusading for their rejection, but wisely delegates at Congress ignore these pests and do their own thing.

What our 'own thing' will be in the case of the playing rules, has yet to be decided. Coisde Gnotha have decided that time for a discussion on the proposed playing rule changes, will be allowed at the March meeting.

On next Sunday at Leamybrien, players from Wicklow and Waterford, as well as all patrons attending the game, will be invited to tick-off their preferences on a small hand-out which will be issued going in to the game. This will be happening at matches all over the country and the results will provide the Rules Work Group with a fair consensus of opinions by the people most concerned with the changes.

Minor Hurling Games

On Saturday next a panel of over 35 players will travel to Clare to play two practice games. First they will play a game against Shannon Comprehensive School and they will also play St. Flannens, Ennis.

So far the interest by the large panel of players is very encouraging and whittling it down to size before the championship, could pose a problem.

UNDER-21 FOOTBALL v. TIPPERARY

South East Leinster Final

When Waterford's under-21 footballers went out of the Munster Championships last year, the majority of their players remained eligible for another term and I recall having heard the selectors forecast that 1990 would be a season in which the county could make a breakthrough in this grade.

In the South/Eastern Leinster league it is a case of so far so good. We have beaten Wexford and Carlow and have qualified to play Tipperary in the final, which has twice been postponed because of poor ground conditions at our venues. The final is now fixed for next Saturday and will be played at Tramore.

Three of the players, Pat Power, Pat Walsh and Peter Queally are also on the selected team to play Wicklow in the National League on Sunday and the Under-21 selectors are hoping that this will not pose a problem for the players.

The final selection of the team is deferred until mid-week, as there is a doubt about one or two players (including Martin Power, who was sent off in the game against Tipperary at Clonmel).

Certain to be included will be John Reynolds (St. Oliver's) who is playing splendidly in goal and seems certain to command this position through to the championships. Kilrossanty's Pat Power will likely be full back, with Greg Fitzgerald and Tom Mansfield at either side of him.

Liam Daniels (St. Saviours) and Eamon Cullinane (Gaultier) are the likely midfield partnership and with players of the calibre of Pat Walsh (Nire), Kieran Hallahan (Sliabh gCua), J. J. Ferncombe (Dungarvan), Paul Fitzgerald (Gaultier), and Michael O'Brien (St. Saviours), etc., available to play in the forward line, Waterford should have a good chance of taking this title.

I.N.T.O./ G.A.A. Skills Awards

When the All-Ireland finals of the above skills were seen on television at half-time in the hurling and football All-Ireland's last year, some schools in the county were surprised to learn that their school could have had a representative on the Munster team playing in Croke Park.

All clubs are now being given timely warning that competitions at local level are about to begin and all schools wishing to participate in the Round Robin 7-a-side competitions, should contact their school secretary immediately, or before the closing date, which is next Monday week, February 19. The secretary for this county is Rev. Bro. Anslem, 25 Patrick Street, Waterford.

How nice it will be to see (as we did last year) a few of our own young aspiring stars marching behind the Artane Band on T.V. come September.

Coaching Scheme

County hurling coach, Peter Power, has commenced coaching in the schools this week and already the response has been tremendous. Peter tells me that the support given by the teachers has been first class and he is really looking forward to an enjoyable year.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

N.F.L. ROUND SIX

Waterford v. Wicklow

With league leaders Limerick having been beaten last Sunday, Wicklow are now back in contention for promotion and possibly a place in the play-off stages of the league, so one doesn't have to stretch the imagination very far to forecast that they will go all out to beat Waterford in the second last match of the competition here on Sunday.

The points would be of little value to Waterford who are presently trailing the others in our section, but a win would do a lot to boost the morale and spirit of the team, who despite their tremendous determination, are going through a bad patch.

Because the league points are not vital to us, the selectors are in a position to continue experimenting with a view to naming a championship panel in a few weeks time, but even the non-availability of a number of players is making this difficult.

The game will be played at Leamybrien at 3 p.m.

Waterford team:

Tom Brennan (Tramore).

Pat Power (Kilrossanty),

Tom Walsh (Nire),

Fintan O'Brien

(Stradbally).

Pat Walsh (Nire), Kevin

Mulcahy (Nire),

Dan Casey (Shamrocks).

Liam Dalton (Shamrocks), Peter Queally (Newtown).

Tom Corcoran (St. Saviours), Pat Hynes (Clashmore), Dermot Callaghan (Dungarvan).

Ger Walsh (Nire), Carthach Mac Craith (An Rinn), Jim McGrath (Brickeys).

Supporters' Club

As I reported briefly last week, the Waterford supporters club held their A.G.M. recently when the activities of the past twelve months were discussed by the members present.

Having considered the breakthrough in senior hurling, via, the victories over Clare and Cork in senior hurling as well as our two football first round victories in minor and junior in the Munster championships, the meeting went on to restate their aims and objectives, which are as follows:

OBJECTIVES

- 1 — To represent the views of supporters.
- 2 — To provide a channel for the goodwill and support that exists for gaelic games, both within and outside the county.
- 3 — To develop and expand membership.
- 4 — To promote better understanding and communication between supporters, county board officials, team management and players.
- 5 — To provide practical assistance for teams in preparing for inter-county competition.
- 6 — To provide a forum and meeting place for Waterford exiles through the establishment of branches in Dublin, London, New York, etc.
- 7 — To continue and to improve existing service e.g. — Videotaping matches for team management, arranging transport for supporters to away matches, etc.
- 8 — To seek sponsorship and to raise funds to finance the above.

Any monies raised will be of direct benefit to the teams representing Waterford both at senior and underage level.

For example:

- By providing playing gear, track-suits, etc;
- By funding intensive week-end coaching sessions for players within the county, especially at underage level;
- By providing equipment - sliotars, footballs, hurley's, protective gear, etc.

Individual or commercial sponsorship would be most welcome to assist in the financing of these activities. Interested parties should contact Danny Sheridan, Tel. (051) 72920 or any member of the committee.

The group also plan to publish a quarterly Newsletter, which will keep the public informed about inter-county matters, etc.

County Board Meeting

The new County Board will hold its first meeting of the new season, on Monday, February 26. Normally the first meeting of the season is not held until March, but because of the amount of work to be done, it was thought advisable to bring the date forward. The agenda will also include some matters referred to the Board from county convention.

Referees' Course

Following a meeting last week between the Referees' committee in the county and the Coiste Iomana, it was agreed that the referees' course, which was to have been run by the Coiste Iomana, would now be run by the new Referee Body. Chairman Pat Moore and Secretary Liam Fardy whose responsibility it will be to organise the course, expect that it will all happen within a month or so.

Every club unit in the county will be expected to supply a referee or two for the course and referees at underage level will also be welcome.

The purpose of the undertaking is to improve refereeing standards, and to increase the number of referees for all the Boards.

G.A.A. Players Leukaemia Project

A major fund raising project to help save the lives of many sufferers of leukaemia, aplastic anaemia, other cancers and genetic diseases in Ireland and throughout the world was launched by the Right Honourable Lord Major Alderman Sean Haughey at a press reception in the Burlington Hotel, Dublin on Tuesday, January 30, 1990.

The project which was initiated by Bank of Ireland G.A.A. All Stars Nominees, chaired by Dermot Flanagan of Mayo has as its objective to raise £32,000 on Saturday, February 24, 1990. This money will be raised at a rate of £1,000 per county. The main event on February 24 is a 10K Fun Run which will be held at the Athletic Track UCD Belfield, Dublin. In addition other events will be organised by G.A.A. clubs and other associations and groups throughout the country on the weekend of the 24th.

Participation in these events is open to everybody.

All proceeds from this project will be donated to the Round Table Bone Marrow Appeal. This money will be used for testing potential Bone Marrow Donors for children and adults in Ireland and throughout the world, who will die unless a Bone Marrow Donor can be located. There is a 1 in 4 chance that a family member will be suitable as a potential donor but with reduced family sizes there is now a greater chance that a sufferer in Ireland will not have a suitable donor in the immediate family. Imagine the tragedy where an only child needs a transplant and has no family donor.

A request for support will be issued to the Secretary of every G.A.A. club in Ireland, this week.

Western Board Meeting

Once upon a time the first meeting of the Divisional Board used be referred to as the 'Fair-Day' meeting, because of the confusion and wheeling-and-dealing that went on about transfers, etc. Nowadays, clubs take a more civilised approach and it is only on the rare occasion that a 'flare-up' occurs when transfers are being dealt with.

Dozens of transfers are passed without a murmur and there is silence throughout the regrading sessions — except when a club applies for regrading for a full team.

Informed sources have predicted that a number of such applications will be processed at the first meeting of the Western Board which is scheduled for Dungarvan on this Thursday night at 8 p.m.

Such names as Ballyduff and Ardmore in intermediate football, Kilgobinet in intermediate hurling and Geraldines in football, also are but some of the clubs mentioned as seeking regrading. I recall some clubs being given the 'third degree' treatment last year before being allowed down and I expect it will be no different on this occasion.

Board treasurer, Paddy Fitzgerald has been inundated with applications for transfer forms, and while this could have to do with the new club structures, I understand that there will be a bigger than usual movement of players to new clubs. Faha's name is being tossed about as one of the units expected to gain most and while I know that there is some substance in the report that they will benefit considerably, the number involved could be exaggerated.

In many ways this will be an historic meeting as it will result in major changes in club structures throughout the division. The net result of the changes will see the number of clubs in the county reduced by half.

Nominations for membership of the Disciplinary Committee will be taken at the meeting, which will adjourn when this has been done and it will resume on the following Thursday when all club chairmen and secretaries will be expected to be present for the discussion on the format of the upcoming championships. The Disciplinary Committee (3) will be elected at the resumed meeting.

News Bits

The suggestion made by the outgoing Western Board, chairman, Denis McGrath, that this Divisional Committee should consider purchasing Fraher Field and which was also referred to by the County Board chairman, Eamon Murphy, is not going to be let drop all that easily. The matter is soon to be listed for serious discussion by the Board and while no firm decision is likely to be taken in the short term, it is something that could conceivably happen in time.

Within the next month or so, it is likely that the Western Board will organise a Seminar/Workshop type of course, similar to that being arranged for the Eastern division, and all clubs will be asked to give it full support.

The seminar will deal with such matters as Administration, Discipline, Finance, Registration, Planning for the Future, etc., and there will likely be guest speakers invited to help out.

The next convention of the Western Board will take place in Ballyduff who recently passed the 100 years mark since their foundation. Work on the club history is now nearing completion and publication is expected within six weeks.

Football coaching, similar to that of hurling at the moment, will get underway in late Spring, if the interviews for a Coach/Organiser turn out satisfactorily.

Storms Continue Unabated As Repair Bills Mount

concerned up to this, it has been a case of repairing damaged cables when suddenly trees just started coming down and disrupting the network again.

A major break occurred when a tree was blown across the main Cappoquin-Lismore road near Lismore Bridge at about 1.30 a.m. last Sunday and power to a wide area around Ballyduff, Ballysaggart and Glenshask was cut off until the repairs were completed by 1 p.m. on Sunday.

A power break in Abbey-side for about an hour before 12.45 p.m. on Tuesday was not storm related but was due to a fault in the marine cable which, like all the other repairs, was most expeditiously carried out by the hard-pressed ESB repair crews.

Although several trees were blown down in many areas, Co. Council workers have also been on the alert and have managed to keep the roads clear throughout the entire period. Nonetheless road surfaces in practically all areas are beginning to look the worse for wear and unless the government or the EC come up with money for an extensive repair package soon things are bound to become ever so much worse.

Sporting fixtures have also fallen victim to the gales and rain and a number of outdoor events due to take place last week-end had to be cancelled or postponed.

With more gales forecast we can only, as ESB man Michael Norris has so aptly remarked, just keep our fingers crossed and hope for the best.
