Council Elections Postponed To June 1991

The annual conference of the General Council of County Councils held in Dungarvan on Thursday, Friday and Saturday last proved to be an unqualified success and the facilities provided by Lawlor's Hotel where the conference was based were unanimously praised by the 300 delegates representing every County Council in Ireland who attended the conference.

Following the registration of delegates on Thursday evening, the address of welcome was delivered on Friday morning by Cllr. Tom Browne, Chairman of the General Council and the official opening was performed by Mr. Ger Connolly, T.D., Minister of State at the Department of the Environment.

The conference proper ranged over three sessions — two on Friday and the third on Saturday morning.

The climax of the event was the Conference Banquet on Saturday night in Lawlor's Hotel at which Mr. Pdraig Flynn, T.D., Minister for the Environment was Guest of Honour

Very Successful Danish Visit

This year it was the turn of Dungarvan to host our Danish friends as part of the Dungarvan-Danish Exchange, and one has to say it must have been one of the most successful weeks to date.

A group of 25 Danish men and women arrived here on April 9 and departed in the early hours of April 6. During that time they were accorded a Civic Reception by the Dungarvan Urban District Council, made visits to the Sterling Drug Factory, Waterford, Dunmore East, Nire Valley, Mount Melleray, Cappoquin and Tramore, and they also gave performances in various centres in Dungarvan and environs.

One of the things that will be remembered about this trip is the beautiful traditional dress which was evident when they performed.

Now the local group are commencing with plans for a return visit to Denmark next year, so if you are interested in going, why not come along to Lawlor's Hotel on Tuesday night, May 8 at 9 p.m. and find out all about it. All are welcome to attend.

Pause For Thought With Fr. Paddy

"HE THAT BELIEVETH NOT SHALL BE CONDEMNED"

Mother Church seems almost loath to take us away from the Easter scene. She wants us to immerse ourselves in the happenings of those eventful days. Her aim is to have us not only to soak up the spirit of Christ's Passion, death and resurrection, but also that we might incorporate its message, and be guided by its light. She knows that if our faith is rooted in the Risen Christ that it will be firm as a rock. Hence, it is part of her mission to see that we are all well versed in this great truth. So, in last Sunday's first reading she asked us to listen carefully to what Peter had to say. He asks us to notice the very definite way in which all the great prophecies regarding the Messiah were fulfilled in Christ. He was the one they fitted, and he was the one who not only claimed, but also proved that He was the Son of God.

St. Peter is again the preacher in the second reading. He had first hand and personal information about Christ's death and resurrection. He reminds us that Jesus saved us and freed us from sin by the shedding of His Blood. And, he makes it clear that it is through the Sacrifice Jesus offered on Calvary that we are now able to believe, live and hope for the future. You know already that Jesus called us all to come and follow Him, and we have His word that He'd lead us to life, eternal life. Christ's resurrection, about which Peter has provided us with assurance on his own testimony, is our guarantee that He'll take away our sins, and open for us the way to glory. Summing it up, Peter is saying that the Easter triumph provides us with the grounds to believe and to hope in God's word.

The Gospel relates the story of the two disciples on their seven mile journey from Jerusalem to Emmaus. They were discussing, and it was with heavy hearts, the recent happenings in Jerusalem. They, as followers of Jesus, had been hoping for great things. They accepted and believed that Jesus was the promised Messiah, even if their ideas of His role and mission were coloured by their yearnings for freedom and the greatness for Israel. They felt so shattered and upset that they scare noticed a stranger had joined them until He questioned them on the matter of their sorrow. And, when they told Him, He went on to endeavour to allay their fears by pointing out that the Scriptures not only foretold His mission, but also that the Christ would have to suffer before He entered into His glory.

You must be wondering why the disciples did not recognise Him. Don't forget that Mary Magdalen, when she saw Him, thought He was the gardener; and, on another occasion, the Apostles thought He was a ghost. How often have you not heard the words at funerals: "his life is changed, not ended." Likewise, it would follow that the Body of the risen Christ would have undergone change. Jesus did not just come back to life. He had risen to a new life. It was not, as I said, a corpse revived, but rather a body transformed and glorified. We are not told in what way His appearance was different, but I feel it is reasonable to conclude that Jesus did cloak the major changes leaving just sufficient to prevent immediate recognition. Hence, mere observation was not enough. Faith was also necessary. That is why it was not obvious who He was. The change that was now obvious allowed for a call to faith.

Faith is necessary for salvation for each and everyone. Jesus posed a question, a challenge. It is clear that He did hide the fullness of His glorification, and what He did allow to be seen did require a measure of faith from the Apostles. The necessity of faith is the reason that He did not reveal Himself openly. The Apostles like everyone else had to comply with this rule.

GOD SPEAKS REGULARLY TO US

The two disciples were so wrapt in their troubles that they failed to see Christ in their companion. Often, because we become so involved in daily affairs, we too fail to hear God speaking to us. He speaks regularly to us at Mass, in the Scriptures, through conversations, cries for help etc. There are no bounds to His ways of communicating. Sometimes, when He has important things to say to us, our minds are miles away. We should go to see Him and talk to Him more frequently, and then, when He calls, we'll know His voice. It was when the two disciples asked "the Lord" to stay longer with them that the grace of recognition came. We are wont at times to feel the Apostles were privileged to be with the Lord, yet we have the same benefit if we'd but open our eyes to His presence. He keeps an open door. He'll talk to you any time, any day. And, He keeps a regular place at His table for you.

Having seen the Lord the two disciples were now so happy and excited that they could not get back quickly enough to tell the brethren. God, in His mercy, has blessed us with the Good News. He is asking us to share it and tell the world. He wants everyone to know. Recently, I mentioned a dark pall was spreading over the world. You hear more references to devil cults, and, make no mistake, they exist all right. It is a warning to arm ourselves with the Eucharistic shield. Then, as soldiers of Christ, we should work to let God's love shine on the world. You may be God's link for a struggling soul. You may be the only person that will have the opportunity to introduce him to Christ. I'm certain that if we all resolved to spread the spirit of Christ we'd smash the power of evil.

Cllr. Tells Of World Traveller Who Got Lost In Dungarvan

Cllr. R. Walsh related to his colleagues at the April monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last week the story of a tourist who was unable to find his way out of Dungarvan recently because of the hopelessly inadequate signposting within the urban area. He said that this tourist had told him that he had travelled through 27 countries around the world and Dungarvan was the only place where he had got lost.

Cllr. Walsh was speaking in support of a motion in his name asking that the Co. council "as a matter of urgency, examine the present very inadequate directional sign-posting in the general urban area."

Cllr. D. Goode disagreed with the motion on the grounds that for the most part the signs around the town were alright. "The only thing wrong is that some of them may be turned around at times by people who are in 'good humour' in the middle of the night," he said.

Cllr. B. Kyne said that he did not believe that Dungarvan was as bad as Cllr. Walsh was attempting to make out.

At this point, the Town Clerk, Mr. B. White informed the Council that the County Manager had approved the appointment of a Traffic Consultant to examine and report on the traffic problems in Dungarvan and the consultant had informed them that the survey and report would be completed within four months of his appointment.

Mr. White added that the feasibility of erecting a multi-storey car park in the town would be included in the brief for the consultant.

In the circumstances it was decided to defer Cllr. Walsh's motion.

ACC Announce Increase In Profits

Agricultural Credit Corporation plc at their Annual General Meeting announced an increase in profits for 1989 to £3.6m (1988: £1.6m.) together with an increase in assets to £595m (1988: £536m). These results have been achieved after a provision for bad debts of £14m, enabling ACC to fully retire Government guarantees which two years ago stood at £18m.

Mr. Dan McGing, Chairman, ACC, stated: "The 1989 results reflect a considerable achievement and provide us with a number of sources of great satisfaction in that we retired all Government guarantees in relation to our loan book and, in an increasingly competitive environment, deposits (which of course, continue to attract the valuable Government Guarantee) increased by 8% to £423m (1988: £392m). This performance, together with a liquidity ratio of 36% of deposits, positions us to continue to make significant developments and broaden our base while continuing to compete vigorously in our core market - the farming sector."

Abbeyside Man Convicted And Bound To The Peace

Sean Needham, 74 Murphy Place, Abbeyside, appeared at Dungarvan Court last week where he was charged on two counts of assaulting a 16-years-old schoolgirl, Elaine Fraher, 45 Murphy Place, on November 3 and February 28 last. He was convicted on both but a third charge alleging an assault on the girl on March 2 was dismissed.

Elaine Fraher told the Court that on November 3, Needham spat in her face and on February 28 he struck her on the arm with his shoulder. She further claimed that he assaulted her in similar fashion on March 2.

Giving evidence on his own behalf, Needham, who suffers from a physical disability, admitted spitting in the girls face but added that he could not take any more of the taunts which she and others had been directing at him. He denied the assaults in February and March and said that when he complained to the girl's father, the latter just told him to "run off."

Convicting Needham in respect of the assaults in November and February, District Justice O'Connell remarked that while they were not of a very serious nature, they must have been extremely distressing for the young girl. He imposed a fine of £10 in respect of each charge and ordered the defendant to enter a bond to keep the peace for twelve months.

Garda Inspector M. Delaney prosecuted and Mr. J. P. Gordon, Solr., appeared for the defendant

Industrial Enterprise Display In Tallow

Tallow's magnificent new Enterprise Centre may not have had everything from a needle to an anchor under its resplendent roof on Tuesday of last week but on display was a most impressive range of 19 small industrial projects as diverse as worm farming to a car repair and dismantling service, all born out of a Fas Community Enterprise Training Programme which has been in full swing in the town since last October and which concluded last weekend.

The official launch of the new business projects was performed by local parish priest, Very Rev. Fr. Michael Walsh, who told his audience that it was a revelation to see all that is happening at the Tallow Enterprise Centre.

Fr. Walsh lauded the enterprise and initiative of the people who decided to provide themselves with their own "self-help" and turn their backs on the "begging bowl" attitude which has plagued the country over the years.

Fr. Walsh too was strongly critical of those multi-national companies who set up in Ireland through the generosity of IDA grants which come from the pockets of already overburdened taxpayers. When things go anyway wrong they then pull the plug and get out of Ireland, he said.

"The people now starting up their own small businesses here today are deserving of success, and I am confident they will go on to achieve great things for themselves and their projects in the future," Fr. Walsh said.

He added that while the Fas Training Programme is now drawing to a close in Tallow it is just the beginning of a long and hopefully productive commercial life for the participants.

The Chairwoman of the Tallow Enterprise Group, Mrs. Helen McCarthy, said the commitment, dedication and achievements of those now embarking into the business world through the Fas course will be a source of great encouragement to small communities everywhere.

The attendance at the official launch included Waterford County Development Officer, Mr. Maurice McHugh, Mr. Ollie Wilkinson, MCC, and other officers and members of Tallow Enterprise Group.

The list of exhibitors included Andrew Malcolm; Eilish Corr and Sheila Ahern; Ann O'Neill; Iris Sheane; Berry Regter; Therese Murray and Eileen Flynn; Maurice Pollard; Patricia McGrath; Jimmy McCarthy; Kieran Tobin; Michael McCarthy; Antoinette Tobin; Mary O'Brien; John O'Sullivan; Patricia Fuller; Peggy O'Donoghue; Geraldine Coughlan; Cora Healy.

Business Awareness Award For Dungarvan 'Pres' Girls

Pictured receiving the award from the Minister for Industry & Commerce, Mr. Desmond O'Malley, is Clodagh Beresford, the team leader from the Presentation Secondary School, Dungarvan. Also in the picture are Mr. David Kingston, Managing Director, Irish Life Assurance and Mr. Liam Connellan, Director General, Confederation of Irish Industry.

Girls of the Inter Cert class at the Presentation Convent Secondary School, Dungarvan were one of the eight award winning groups in the junior section of the Irish Life Business Awareness Competition, the results of which were announced by the Minister for Industry and Commerce, Mr. Desmond O'Malley, T.D., at a dinner in Irish Life Centre, Dublin on Wednesday, April 25.

The Irish Life Business Awareness Awards Competition aims to increase the awareness among post primary students of the role of business in the community. Over 130 groups comprising some 2,000 students submitted studies in this year's competition.

The Dungarvan Presentation Convent group chose the local Stafford Miller plant as the subject for their study. The group looked at the Company under the headings of Production, Workforce, Environment and Local and National Benefits, and related their findings to the Inter Cert curriculum. The impact of the Company on the local environment was also discussed in the group's submission.

The Tragedy Of Not Making A Will

Many people work hard all of their lives and put together a home, a business, and savings. They forget to make a Will — or they put it on the long finger. They die without a Will and then their hard earned assets are divided as the State provides under the Succession Act. This can be a very blunt rigid instrument, giving rise to extreme hardship and injustice to the near and dear ones of a dead person.

Statistics show that more than 35 per cent of persons with assets die without making any Will. To highlight this problem and to encourage people in their own interest and in the interest of their families to make Wills, the Solicitor members of Waterford Law Society, in conjunction with the National Association of Widows in Ireland, and Prudential Life, are sponsoring "Make A Will Week" commencing on Monday, May 7 next.

During that week any Solicitor in Waterford will discuss making a Will with you and will make a simple Will for you at a cost of £25 inclusive of VAT. People are encouraged to contact a Solicitor that week (or any week) to discuss making a Will and ordering their own affairs in accordance with their wishes and so as to achieve justice to those who survive them. Don't put it on the long finger! Act now.

Dungarvan Soroptimist Notes

At the recent Annual General Meeting, the following officers were elected:

President — Joan Baily; 1st Vice-President — Ann Morrissey; 2nd Vice-President — Mary O'Connor; Hon. Secretary — Theresa Clerkin; Hon. Treasurer — Nell Cullinan.

Bridie McHugh attended the Regional Meeting held in February in Dublin when Femscan were presented with a substantial cheque — being the proceeds of our two-year National Project. The new National Project is "The Care of the Carers" and each club has to contribute a minimum of £200. This is a very worthwhile project as up to recently the role of the carer had a very low profile. Many men and women have spent years looking after elderly relatives or invalids. Provision is now being made for "little breaks" for these stalwart people and the Dungarvan Club hope to contribute generously to this project.

Our next fund-raising activity is the Annual Car Boot Sale to be held on Sunday, May 20. Watch out for posters and advertisements in the next few weeks.

Co. Council Grants Under Small Schemes Programme

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

HERE COMES SUMMER!

As the song goes, here comes summer — that was the story last Saturday night as we pitched our tents for the first time since Bunclody last August. We gathered at 8 p.m. but due to a mix up between the leaders we were a little late in getting going. Brendan Kiersey eventually got the ball rolling as with J. P. Cosgrave's help he distributed the tents. It was all hands on deck out in the field as each patrol got their patch and got down to work.

The questions though started coming: "Are these the right poles? Have you more pegs? I think this is the wrong dolly! Where's the mallet? Eventually they all got sorted and pitched.

After subs all torches were confiscated as we headed off on a mystery hike. With Brendan "Gunny Heighway" Kiersey and Ciaran "Commando" Walsh at the front you knew you would have to be tough to survive. On return to the den the scouts, as quiet as mice, hit the hay and went to sleep in record time. On Sunday morning all the tents were down and packed away by 9.30 a.m.

TWO IN A ROW FOR WEDNESDAY CUBS

On Sunday afternoon last the regional cub soccer competition was held at St. Augustine's College. Five teams took part with two from Dungarvan, one from Cappoquin and our own Monday and Wednesday night sections each with a team. It was run on a league basis with the top two meeting in the final.

Our Monday night section under the management of Fran McGovern got off to a flier with a 5-1 win over Cappoquin. They followed up with an equally impressive win over Dungarvan (Thursday). The tiredness then crept in with defeats against Dungarvan (Wednesday) and John Mullarkey's Wednesdays.

Our Wednesday night section, the defending champions, under the management of John Mullarkey and Austin Kiely, proved to be the Brazilians of the tournament as they were convincing winners in their league matches with Lonergan, Wall, Landy, Molloy and the two McCarthys (Ronan and Garvan) all starring.

In the final it was Wednesday (Abbeyside) v. Wednesday (Dungarvan) or Susan Kiely's team against Austin Kiely's team. It seemed our lads saved the best until last for on the full pitch after a close start we opened up the Dungarvan defence with continuous ease as we recorded our biggest win of the event, a convincing 8-1 scoreline to return the title. Well done to the Wednesday Cubs (we hear big celebrations are planned for this Wednesday night.)

— SCRIBE.

Successful Concert At Villierstown

Villierstown Church was the venue on Friday, April 20 for an entertaining concert which showed great talent and variety. M.C. Ned Keane set the tone for a relaxed and friendly evening.

Each half of the concert was opened by a choir: First the Cappoquin choir under their leader Irene Cahill, and later the Lismore choir, conducted by Mark Casey, performed items from Gilbert and Sullivan. Another group item which was very popular was given by the ladies of Glenbeg ICA and took the form of a Golden Wedding party. For variety the programme included some excellent step dancing by the Dee sisters and also by Annette O'Keefe; there was plenty of crack with comedian Jim Carrig, and Marguerite Fraher played her recorder accompanied in two pieces by the youngest performer, her little daughter.

Con Ryan brought two friends, Tom Mulcahy and Frances Tobin, and all three contributed songs which were much appreciated, with their accompanist Maeve Collins. Very popular items to close each half of the programme were the quartets, one from Aglish and the other from Clashmore, presenting pleasant modern music on guitars, banjo, concertina and accordion, with a singer.

All the music was enhanced by the sound system in the capable hands of Mr. Noel Cronin.

OVER £450 RAISED

Not only did the community have a most enjoyable evening, but a sum of over £450 was raised towards the upkeep of this very fine building. Mr. James Villiers Stuart, representing the Trustees, commented in his welcoming speech on how pleasing it was to have so many young folk in the audience and also performing, making it seem worth while to be working for the preservation of Villierstown Church as a Community Centre.

Ardmore Fisherman On Assault Charge

This was a cowardly and unprovoked assault said District Justice W. F. O'Connell at Dungarvan Court last week when he convicted John Farrissey, College Road, Ardmore on a charge of assaulting Mrs. Elizabeth King at the Ormonde Hotel, Dungarvan, last November.

The court heard that when Farrissey went into the hotel bar, Mrs. King had asked him to leave as he had already been barred from the hotel. He then assaulted her as a result of which her spectacles "were sent flying."

District Justice O'Connell fined Farrissey £25 and directed that he pay £50 compensation to Mrs. King. In addition he ordered that Farrissey enter a bond to keep the peace for a period of twelve months.

Dungarvan Man Returned For Trial

William Fraher jnr. of 44 Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, was returned for trial to the Waterford Circuit Court when he appeared before District Justice W. F. O'Connell at Dungarvan Court last week on charges of entering the Friary College, Duckspool as a trespasser on February 25 and stealing sweets and other articles and cash to a total value of £250 and with causing malicious damage to locks and lockers at the College to the extent of £40.

At a previous hearing, Fraher opted for a jury trial and a Book of Evidence was then prepared. At last week's sitting of the Court, District Justice O'Connell said that having read the book of evidence he was satisfied that a prima facie case had been established by the State and on the application of Garda Inspector M. Delaney who prosecuted, he returned Fraher for trial at the sittings of Waterford Circuit Court to commence on May 1.

On the application of Mr. M. J. Hanrahan Solr. for the defendant, continuing bail was allowed on the same terms and the District Justice granted an application for a certificate for free legal aid to include one junior counsel.

DEATH OF TOM GRIFFIN

It is with deep sadness and regret we record the unexpected death of Mr. Tom Griffin on Monday evening of last week. Tom's death occurred at Kiely's Funeral Home, Dungarvan, where he was attending the funeral of Mary Morrissey, Grange. He was suddenly taken ill and died shortly afterwards. His remains were taken from the Funeral Home on Tuesday evening to Clashmore Church. Following Requiem Mass on Wednesday morning burial took place in Grange Cemetery.

A native of Grange and a fluent Irish speaker, we have, with Tommy's death lost a complete encyclopedia of local history and general knowledge. If you wanted to construct a family tree, Tommy could trace back to many previous generations. Tommy was a well travelled and conscientious worker. For many years he worked in England. Following his retirement some years ago, Tom enjoyed visiting neighbours and friends and his favourite hobby, reading. He will be sadly missed by everyone. Our deepest sympathy to his sister Kitty, nephews, nieces, family and friends.

Prison Sentence Suspended If Pays Compensation

A Dungarvan man who pleaded guilty to a number of charges arising from a break-in to premises at the Priory House shopping complex in Dungarvan was sentenced to six months in prison in each case at Dungarvan Court last week but was told by the District Justice that the sentences would be suspended if he paid compensation within two months.

Before the Court was Joseph Coward, 56 Congress Villas who was charged that on March 16 he entered the premises known as Power's Bookshop at Priory House, Friary Street as a trespasser and stole goods to the value of £23 the property of Michael Power and caused malicious damage to a glass door amounting to £37.50. He was also charged with causing malicious damage to a glass door at the "Kids Corner" premises, the property of Margaret Cusack on the same occasion.

Garda Martin Shanahan gave evidence of arresting and charging the defendant who he said committed these crimes on impulse but afterwards suffered from deep remorse.

Gda. Shanahan agreed with Mr. Niall King Solr., who represented the defendant, that Coward was in need of some kind of treatment.

District Justice O'Connell said he didn't know if there was any use in doing what he was about to do but he sentenced Coward to six months on each charge, the sentences to run concurrently. However he said that the sentences would be suspended if the defendant paid £88.75 compensation to the injured parties within 2 months.

The Stradbally boys football final took place on Friday, April 6. It proved to be an exciting and tight game. Brian Cleary opened the scoring with a point and Michael McCarthy's team replied with scores by Michael Curran and Michael McCarthy and a goal by John O'Mahony. At the end of the first half Michael McCarthy's team had three points to spare over Brian Cleary's team.

Immediately after the resumption Brian Cleary scored a goal and a point and Michael's team soon fought back with scores from Michael McCarthy and John O'Mahony. John Doyle scored the last point which was however not enough as Brian Cleary had snatched victory by two points. The final score was 7-5 to 5-9.

It was a high scoring and interesting game and much credit for this must go to Michael McCarthy's team who fought the good fight back, but were gallant in defeat.

First Irishwoman To Be Declared Venerable

On behalf of the Sisters of Mercy of Ireland, Sr. Regina Kelly, President of Mercy Ireland, wishes to express gratitude to His Holiness, Pope John Paul II, whose proclamation of the Decree of Heroic Virtue on 9 April, conferred the title "Venerable" on their Foundress, Catherine McAuley. The fact that Catherine is the first Irishwoman to be accorded this honour by the Church makes this a landmark in the history of religious life in Ireland, and a source of joy to all Irishwomen.

Born in 1778 in North Dublin, Catherine McAuley established her first community in Baggot Street in 1831, with the intention of providing for the poor, the sick, the uneducated and the marginalised the services she felt they needed and to which they were entitled. By 1841, the year of her death, she had established twelve convents in Ireland and two in England. In less than a century Catherine's Sisters of Mercy were recognised as the second largest congregation (either male or female) ever established by an English-speaking Catholic, and the only one to have convents in every Irish diocese.

INTRODUCED IN 1937
Catherine's cause was first introduced in 1937, by Archbishop Edward Byrne.

The setting up, in 1975, by Archbishop Dermot Ryan, of the Dublin Diocesan Commission on Causes brought increased momentum. Since then, the cause of Catherine has passed successfully through the initial Dublin process, and then the Apostolic process in Rome. This latter entailed a close scrutiny of Catherine's writings, life, work and reputation for holiness.

All of this painstaking work had its happy outcome on April 9. Mercy Sisters worldwide owe a debt of gratitude to Fr. Martin Nolan, O.S.A., Postulator of the Cause, and to Sr. Angela Bolster, R.S.M., Vice-Postulator, for the untiring and dedicated work which has brought the cause of Catherine McAuley to this stage.

LATE JEREMIAH (JERRY) CONNORS

It is with sadness and deep regret we pen the passing of Mr. Jeremiah (Jerry) Connors, Ballinagulkee, Ballinamult, which sad event took place in the early hours on Saturday morning last at his home following a protracted illness.

Deceased, who was in his early forties, was a quiet, gentle, unassuming man, held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

A man who had not enjoyed the best of health for some time past, he bore his illness with true Christian fortitude. A deeply religious man, he loved his family and his many friends. He was always interested in good company at a game of cards or darts, which were his favourite pastimes.

He will be sadly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him and all now deeply and justifiably mourn his demise.

SYMPATHY

A gentle, unassuming man, he will be sadly missed.

FRIENDS OF ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL, CLONMEL

During recent years a reduction in funds to Health Boards has resulted in cut-backs to our hospitals, including St. Joseph's Hospital, Clonmel. A group of interested people formed what is now known as "The Friends of St. Joseph's" to raise funds for badly needed equipment for the hospital. Much work has been carried out to the hospital recently but much more needs to be done. More very badly needed medical equipment must be installed in the hospital.

It was decided at a recent meeting to call to every house in the Ballymacarbry catchment area during the month of May asking people to subscribe to this very worthy cause.

G.A.A.

At the Mill Field, Ballymacarbry on Sunday last, Lismore defeated Cashel King Cormacs in the final of the Morrissey Perpetual Cup on the score: Lismore 3-10, Cashel 3-9, in one of the best games seen at the venue for some time.

After the game the donor presented the cup to Lismore captain, Barney Prendergast. The referee was Paddy (Tyler) Walsh.

"Remembering Other Days"

Next year will mark the 75th Anniversary of the Easter Rising of 1916. Because of a breakdown in communications, the freedom fight was confined mainly to Dublin City and its environs but in many areas throughout rural Ireland bands of Irish men and women had been preparing and were ready to join in the fray. Unfortunately the countermarching order that went out on that Good Friday caused utter confusion around the country. The photo for "Our remembering Other Days" this week recalls those years. It was taken in 1918 in the Churchyard in Cappoquin and shows the women who were then members of Cumann na mBan in Cappoquin. This historic photo was passed to us by Mr. James Collender, Cappoquin whose mother and aunt were members of the group. Editor's Note: We would be greatly obliged to any readers with photos which might be suitable for inclusion in this series (which has proved so popular since it commenced) if they would let us have them for publication. This will enable us to continue the series in the future.

COMHALTAS CEOLTOIRI WORLDWIDE

Irish traditional music is enjoying a huge popularity worldwide. In the Annual Report of Comhaltas Ceoltoiri Eireann which will be presented to the Annual Congress this coming week-end, May 5/6, it is stated that in the last year Comhaltas has sent groups to Italy, Korea, North America, Britain, Brazil and Iraq. This will, without doubt, mean a further boost to Irish tourism.

The report, the 40th annual report since Comhaltas was founded in 1951, underlines the extensive and varied nature of the work programme of the organisation both at home and abroad. It demonstrates the community concept of An Comhaltas and the cohesive nature of its activities. The movement minimises divisions and enhances harmony and co-operation. As one spokesman phrased it: "our heritage is older than our divisions."

There is widespread interest among young people in Irish traditional music. Comhaltas organises 600 classes at home and abroad and in addition they organise 40 Fleadhanna Cheoil annually. In the last year Comhaltas recorded the highest number of participants ever in their annual Scoil Eigse while over one million people attend Comhaltas functions each year.

There are now 400 branches in Comhaltas with one based in such an unlikely spot as the Mediterranean island of Sardinia which will be the centre-piece for Irish hopes when the first rounds of the World Cup take place there next month.

Over 300 delegates from Ireland and abroad will gather for the annual review when Congress goes into session at Culturlann na hEireann in Belgrave Square, Monkstown, Co. Dublin at the week-end. Agus is feidir leis an uile duine diobh a radh gur cuis

REPRESSIVE PARKING LAWS A DETRIMENT TO BUSINESS

At a recent meeting of Midleton Urban Council a Senior Garda Officer warned the members against introducing repressive legislation against those who violate the Council's parking by-laws in the East Cork town.

Supt. Maurice Murray who is no stranger to Dungarvan where he served for a period 'in the good old days,' told the Midleton Councillors that while inconsiderate and bad mannered motorists were causing serious traffic problems by double parking around the town he was of the opinion that repressive legislation could drive shoppers out of Midleton to the serious detriment of the economic and business life of the town.

Parking by-laws and the manner in which they are enforced have always been the subject of sharp controversy and critical comment. Here in Dungarvan many feel there is an unequal enforcement of the by-laws and some traders feel aggrieved by the manner in which they are regularly targeted.

It is from the traders, shopkeepers and business premises in the town that the local Council receives a major share of its annual finance in the form of rates — private houses are not subject to rates at present — and it is the owners of those business premises located in the town centre who have, as part of their business, to have van deliveries on a regular basis throughout each day, who feel aggrieved in this regard.

In the hope that some allowance would be made where these town centre traders are concerned we direct the attention to the Council members and officials to the views expressed by the Garda Superintendent in regard to the traffic laws as they affect the traders in Midleton.

MEDJUGORJE —A BOMBSHELL

According to the Catholic

Bishop who administers the Yugoslav diocese in which the shrine is located, the Blessed Virgin has not appeared in Medjugorje.

This claim will come as a bombshell to the huge number of Irish pilgrims, many from our own localities. But in a 15-page report to the Vatican, Bishop Pavo Zanic states that pilgrims to Medjugorje have been victims of a fanaticism. Bishop Zanic in the course of the report described devotions at the remote mountain shrine in Yugoslavia where six local children — two boys and four girls — are said to have daily visions of the Blessed Virgin for the past eight year, as religious blindness.

The bishop is in Rome "to speed up the investigation work of the Yugoslav Episcopal Conference" into the claims. Here in Ireland individual bishops of the Irish Episcopal Conference have requested Catholics not to make the Medjugorje pilgrimage until the local hierarchy and the Vatican authorities have given their approval for groups to travel. So far no Irish bishops have led any pilgrimage parties.

Without doubt this latest development about the authenticity of the visions at Medjugorje will come as a great disappointment and be learned with much sadness by the thousands of Irish Catholics who have visited the shrine in recent years.

WLR FM THE DOMINANT RADIO FORCE

Further to our reference here last week about the progress made by Waterford Local Radio in the past year we have since learned that according to the latest research figures resulting from a survey conducted by Landsdowne Market Research WLR FM has emerged as the dominant force in the south-east.

The survey figures show that WLR FM has 33 p.c. of the week-end listenership, R.T.E 1 has 31 p.c. and 2FM has 21 p.c. During the week-days RTE 1 has 48 p.c., WLR FM has 47 p.c., 2FM has 33 p.c. and Century Radio only 2 p.c.

Commenting on the results of the survey, Des Whelan, Managing Director of WLR FM said that the research confirmed that WLR was already the dominant station in the area.

THOSE STUDENT "GRINDS"

Some time ago we wrote here about the growing pressures to which our second level students are subjected under our present educational system. Not only have they to spend long hours in class on a daily basis but then have to grapple with a full load of "home-work" which keeps them occupied long into the night.

In addition "grinds" have, in recent years, become a fashionable necessity also for those students whose parents can afford to pay the £10 an hour going rate for them.

Not so long ago the educational establishment was in uproar about the increasing number of children resorting to "grinds" to help them through their Inter and Leaving Cert examinations. But this concern was not noticeably apparent, we have been informed, at the recent teachers' annual conferences.

Rather did it become apparent that "grinds" now seem to be a fact of life. At the Teachers Union of Ireland Conference held in the Grand Hotel in Malahide, Co. Dublin, delegates actually took turns to give grinds during the conference to scores of young students who were specifically bussed out for that purpose!

Cottage By The Lee

Thanks to the help of Mr. Paddy Daly, King Street Lower, Abbeyside we are, this week, in a position to fulfil the request received a couple of weeks ago from a reader in Kinsalebeg for the words of the lovely old song "Cottage By The Lee," written by Richard Farrelly. Not only did Paddy supply us with the words but also with a full copy of the sheet music. And so we shall make it our choice for the ballad corner this week. Thank you again Paddy for your much appreciated co-operation.

'Tis well I know that often folks keep won'dring
When in my eyes a far-off look they see,
What can it be, the cause of all my dreaming,
What is this dream so very dear to me?

And truth to tell 'tis often I go roaming,
In dreams along the road of memory,
To where my heart will find its consolation
Within that lovely Cottage by the Lee.

My home sweet home that I so fondly cherish
The dear ones there mean ev'ry thing to me;
In all this world, if there can be a heaven
I'm sure it's in that Cottage by the Lee.

'Tis grand to stand outside that cottage doorway,
And gaze across the corn fields rich and gold,
To hear the stream go rippling by the meadow,
Or watch the shepherd calling to his fold.

From down the lane that winds behind the garden,
The blackbird greets the smiling summer morn
And as his music echoes o'er the valley,
You smile and bless the day that you were born.

Yes that's my dream, my lovely dream of homeland,
And tho' I thought a rover I could be,
It's soon I found I left my heart behind me,
Within that lovely Cottage by the Lee.

P.S. — Thanks also to Mossie Noonan, Springmount, Dungarvan, for his offer to supply the words for the above.

Recent Deaths

Mrs. Mary Morrissey

We tender our deepest sympathy to the relatives and friends of the late Mrs. Mary Morrissey, Ballybrusa, Grange, whose passing occurred at Waterford Regional Hospital last Sunday, April 22, following a duration of illness. A native of Kiely's Cross, Mary was aged 69 years.

In former years she was employed in Ardmore where she was a great favourite. She lived a quiet, simple life and her main concern was for her family whom she loved to visit in Ireland and England.

Last Monday evening, Mary's remains were brought from the Kiely Funeral Home to Grange Church where in the presence of a large and representative gathering, Very Rev. D. O'Connor, P.P., conducted a short funeral service.

Following Requiem Mass on Tuesday celebrated by Rev. Fr. Reide, C.C., who also officiated at the graveside, assisted by Very Rev. Fr. Ml. Barron, P.P., the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Beautiful floral tributes were placed on Mary's resting place.

Chief mourners — Oliver and Michael (sons), Patricia, Frances, Carmel, Breda, Ann, Geraldine and Martina (daughters), and a wide circle of relatives including grandchildren, sons-in-law, daughter-in-law and Mary's many friends.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Late John (Jack) Noble

The passing on Saturday evening, April 28, at his daughter's residence at Friar's Walk, Abbeyside of Jack Noble, Main Street, Dungarvan, occasioned widespread sorrow and regret in the locality. For many of his 82 years he worked tirelessly in the grocery business of William Foley. His excellent rapport and obliging nature ensured that the concern enjoyed the patronage of a wide clientele.

We tender our deepest sympathy to sons John, Adrian and Willie and daughters Kathleen and Eileen on their sad loss. On Sunday evening the funeral took place from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church. Interment took place on Monday in the adjoining cemetery.

The demise of Jack removes another well known personality from our midst, and we are the poorer for his departure.

(Full obituary next issue.)
(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mr. Nioclas Terry

On Tuesday, April 17, the locality learned with deep regret and profound sorrow of the passing of 81 year old, Nioclas Terry, Ballinagoulbeg, Ring, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, where he had been a patient for the past few years. Predeceased by his sister, Hannie Tobin by four years, Nioclas was invalided all his life. A member of the Irish Wheelchair Association, Nioclas enjoyed the many television programmes and was well known in the Ring area as he used to sit outside his residence regularly watching the locals attending to their daily chores. The people of the locality are to be complimented on the outstanding care and attention given to Nioclas over many years.

Sincere sympathy is extended to his sorrowing relatives on their sad loss.

On Wednesday, April 18, the removal took place to Ring Church where Rev. Fr. O'Daly, P.P., conducted the funeral rite, while on Thursday morning Rev. Fr. G. Desmond, C.C., celebrated the Requiem Mass. A large gathering was present for the funeral obsequies including Rev. Fr. J. Hooper, O.S.A. The interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

Chief mourners — Nioclas and Eamonn Terry (nephews), Breda Ryan and Eileen Tobin (nieces), Brid Terry (sister-in-law), Shirley, Richard, David, Sibeal, Gearoid (Terry), Colleen, Terri, P. J. (Ryan), USA (grandnieces and nephews) and a circle of other relatives and friends.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mr. Dan Gallagher

The death of Mr. Dan Gallagher, Ardo, Ardmore, which occurred on Friday, April 20, at his residence was the source of much sorrow and regret in Ardmore and surrounding districts. Well known and highly respected, Dan was a great favourite on Coveside. A native of Cruit Island in the Rosses, Dan was born 94 years ago.

In 1922 he joined the Irish Army and later the Gardai which saw him take up positions of duty in Cahir, Rockcorry, Co. Monaghan, Connemara and finally Ardmore. Predeceased by his first wife Margaret, his son Donal and daughter Philomena, Dan hadn't enjoyed the best of health for the past few months yet he remained the same cheerful self who took a great interest in life.

An avid reader, he possessed a fine intellectual mind coupled with a masterly touch in composing poetry. Literary works were composed on all topics and clearly here was a man ahead of his time. Born in the heart of Irish culture, Dan took a tremendous interest in current affairs, politics and international matters.

Promoted to Sergeant while in Ardmore, Dan took part in the many projects in the locality. He had a great gra for animals whose habits were a source of study and their welfare of concern to him.

We tender our condolences to his wife Kathleen, sons and relatives on their loss.

Last Saturday evening, April 21, the removal took place from his residence to St. Declan's Church, Ardmore, where on arrival his remains were blessed and received by Very Rev. D. Canon O'Connor, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Ml. O'Connor, President of St. John's and Rev. Fr. Hurley, S.J.

On Monday morning Concelebrated Mass was offered for the happy repose of Dan's soul with Rev. Fr. Reide, C.C. (chief celebrant) and Rev. Fr. Ronald Bennett, O.F.M., Rev. Fr. J. Hurley, S.J., and Rev. Fr. M. Hurley, S.J., Rev. Fr. M. O'Connor, St. John's, Waterford.

The Lessons were read by son Tony while suitable hymns and psalms were sung by Noirin Fitzgerald, Cork. The graveside bidding prayers were recited in the presence of a large and representative cortege who had come to say farewell to this popular son of the O'Donnell County. A relative of the well known singer Daniel O'Donnell, Dan has left his adopted Ardmore and beloved Cruit Island to journey to his heavenly home.

We will end this tribute with an extract from his poem "Cruit Island" — clearly this was his heaven on earth:

"When looking west at eventide,

When the toil of day was o'er,

You could see the setting sun go down,

Between Owey and Arranmore.

And the fishing boats with their brown sails set,

As they sailed across the bay

To the fishing grounds far beyond the bounds,

Of the Rosses, not far away."

Chief mourners — Kathleen (wife), Patrick, Brendan, Kevin, Tony (sons), Toni, Mary, Frances (daughters-in-law), Denise, Anthony, Fiona, Patrick (Ardmore), Leone, Owen, Vincent, Emily (Dublin) (grandchildren), Walter Terry (brother-in-law), Mrs. Maureen Power, Eileen Nugent (sisters-in-law), Denis and Gerard O'Connor (nephews), and a wide circle of relatives and friends.

Mr. Thomas Griffin

It is with regret that we record the death of ever-popular Mr. Thomas Griffin, Kilmore, Clashmore, which occurred unexpectedly while attending the funeral of neighbour Mary Morrissey on Monday evening, April 23. A native of Clashmore, Tom was in his early 70's and his death is all the more poignant because he was predeceased by his sister-in-law Bridget a few months ago.

Tom was a hard working, industrious man all his life, much of which was spent in England.

We offer our condolences to his sister Kathleen, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends in their sad loss.

On Tuesday evening the funeral left the Kiely Funeral Home for Clashmore Church. Very Rev. J. Canon Murphy, P.P., assisted by Fr. W. Meehan, C.C., blessed and received the remains and then followed Requiem Mass and a musical tribute by the Clashmore-Piltown Parish choir.

The interment took place in Grange Cemetery on Wednesday morning in the presence of a large concourse of mourners, with Fr. Meehan officiating.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Miss Mary Power

In the early hours of Monday morning, Miss Mary Power, Mitchel Street, Dungarvan and late of Ballymullala, Cappagh, answered the great call home after a duration of illness which was borne with courage and dignity.

We sympathise with her nephew, nieces, sister-in-law, relatives and friends on their cross of bereavement.

Funeral took place on Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. to St. Mary's Parish Church and following the 11.15 a.m. Requiem Mass on Wednesday the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

Mr. Jeremiah Connors

An air of gloom was cast over the Ballinamult area when news became known of the death of Mr. Jeremiah (Jerry) Connors, which occurred at his residence at Ballinagulkee, on Saturday, April 21. He was son of the late Jeremiah and Anastasia Connors, Kilbrien and was one of the most popular and highly respected personalities in the Ballinamult area. He was one of nature's gentlemen and was extremely popular with all who came to know him and it was a pleasure to be in his company. He worked for many years in Clonmel Corporation and was held in high esteem by his fellow workers.

Socially he liked to participate in quizzes, play darts and he loved his game of 45. He was a founder and leading member of Dunne's Darts Club. He will be sadly missed by the club as he was a great organiser and an outstanding selector.

His other involvements included being an active member of the Parents' Committee of St. Anne's Secondary School, Cappoquin and a committee member of the Sliabh gCua Community Centre. He was a great neighbour and a true and loyal friend.

The sense of loss at his untimely death is severely felt but the loss is much greater for his sorrowing wife Kathleen, his young family, brother, relatives and friends, to whom we extend our deepest sympathy.

His remains were removed on Saturday evening to Touraneena Church. the cortege was immense and was a tribute to the deceased and his family. A guard of honour was provided by St. Anne's Secondary School, Cappoquin, Dunne's Darts Club, Touraneena and Cappoquin & District Darts League and Sliabh gCua G.A.A.

The remains were blessed and received by Very Rev. T. Nugent, P.P., Touraneena, Very Rev. S. Nugent, P.P., Powerstown, Rev. F. Lloyd, C.C., Cappoquin, Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C., Abbeyside.

On Sunday morning, following Concelebrated

Mass celebrated by Rev. M. Kehoe, assisted by Fr. Lloyd and Very Rev. S. Nugent, Jerry was interred in the adjoining cemetery. The Lessons were read by his brother Tom and sister-in-law Rita.

The chief mourners were Mrs. Kathleen Connors (wife), Jeremiah, Willie and James (sons), Kay (daughter), Tom (brother), Peter (father-in-law), Kathy (mother-in-law), Jim, Joe, Peter (brothers-in-law), Joan, Margaret, Mary, Rita, Hilda (sisters-in-law), John (nephew), cousins, relatives and many friends.

(Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

Mrs. Joan Mansfield

It is with deep regret we record the death of Mrs. Joan Mansfield, Kilmurray, Dungarvan, which took place at the District Hospital on Wednesday, April 18, after a period of illness. She was eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William McCarthy, Ballyduff.

She had travelled extensively in her earlier years and served in the Medical Corps in the British Army in Poona during the war years. Later she went to America where she met and married her husband John Paul Mansfield, Ballintlea, Old Parish, who predeceased her some years ago.

Deceased was a most popular member of the community and will be missed by a wide circle of friends.

To her brothers, sisters, sisters-in-law, nephews and nieces we extend our deepest sympathy.

Fr. Kiely said prayers at the mortuary before the removal on Thursday, April 19 to St. Mary's Parish Church where the coffin was received and blessed on arrival by Fr. Kiely, assisted by Fr. Carey and Fr. O'Sullivan.

Burial took place in the adjoining cemetery following Concelebrated Mass on Friday morning, the chief celebrant being Fr. Carey, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. Canon Walsh, P.P., Carrickon-Suir, Fr. Nesson, O.F.M. Cap., Cork, Fr. M. Curran, C.C., Cahir. Also in attendance were Fr. O'Sullivan, Very Rev. C. Daly, P.P., Ring and Fr. J. Hooper, O.S.A. The Lessons were read by brother Bill and niece Jane. Rev. W. Carey, C.C., officiated at the graveside, assisted by Canon Walsh, Fr. Nesson, Fr. Curran, Fr. O'Sullivan, Fr. Daly and Fr. Hooper.

(Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

LISMORE NOTES

LISMORE G.A.A. NOTES

Senior Hurling — Sargent Cup: Lismore 1-12, Passage 2-8 — Lismore deserved to win this tough match in Walsh Park last Tuesday.

Championship: Lismore 5-11, Cappoquin 2-7 — As the score suggests, this was a very one-sided affair and it is impossible to evaluate the Lismore team on this performance.

Morrissey Cup: Lismore 3-10, Cashel King Cormacs 3-9 — This was a splendid game of hurling and if ever Lismore required proof of their ability and determination this was it. This is the type of form required for the championship.

Junior Hurling — Lismore will play Tourin in a challenge in Lismore on Sunday next at 7 p.m. The following Friday they play in the first round of the junior championship.

Paddy Whelan Shield — A stronger Midleton team beat Lismore in the final of this competition last Saturday. Special thanks to the sponsor Mr. Michael McGrath.

Solo Cup — In this Munster Colleges quarter final, Lismore had only one point to spare over Dungarvan CBS after extra time. The team will need to improve for the semi-final but the effort and determination was evident in this match.

Lismore GAA would like to thank all who supported our night at the dogs last Friday week.

We had four players on the West Waterford Under-16 team which was beaten by a very good Cork City team. They were P. O'Donnell, P. Hickey, J. O'Connor and B. Ormonde.

A. Tinnelly, K. O'Gorman and M. Hickey all played for the Waterford minor hurling team which was defeated in extra time by Limerick in the Munster League final on Easter Monday.

Three of our players saw action with the County senior team recently. They were Seamus and Paul Prendergast and Sean Daly.

A senior hurling inter-county tournament, Waterford v. Laois, will take place in Lismore at 7 p.m. on Sunday, May 13, as part of their preparation for the Munster Championship.

Our under-14 hurlers were beaten by Cahir. A huge improvement is needed if we are hoping to reach Feile this year. Better discipline is also required all round.

Lismore CBS will have a new Principal next year: Mr. Maurice Geary from Ballyduff. Maurice, over the years, has given great help and encouragement to the young hurlers in the CBS from all parts. We wish Maurice well in his new job.

INTO Sevens — Lismore 9-0, Tallow 2-0 — After their recent win in the under-16s, Lismore continued on their winning way when this under-12 team scored an easy win over Tallow in Tallow in the INTO Schools' competition. This match was the Western final and now we await the Eastern winners for the county final.

Tallow were the slight favourites for this match (especially as it was played in Tallow) but on the night Lismore really turned it on. Emma Dunne was in fine form as she rattled in goal after goal (8 in all in a 10-minute a-side match) which should have someone searching the record books. She was well supplied by Ciara Tobin (who also scored) and in the backs Catriona Ormond was rock solid, Karen Begley in goal did her job effectively as did E. Walsh (back). A. Howard (midfield) and J. Roche (forward) played their part in a great team effort, as did the subs P. Dunne, M. Flynn and S. Shanahan.

Then, on Friday, April 24, our under-16 team had their final workout before the Pan Celtic when they took on Midleton in a challenge match and beat them on a score of 7-0 to 2-1. This was a good allround team performance and showed that this team should do well in the Pan Celtic competition.

Weekly Draw — Week No. 13 — £50, Mr. and Mrs. A. Barden, Deerpark; £20, Mr. S. Clancy, Coole; £15, Mrs. J. Lineen, Chapel Street; £10, Mrs. P. Roche, Ballymartin; £10, Mr. E. Foley, Fernville. Promoter: J. O'Gorman.

The next draw will be held in the Red House on Monday, May 7, at 8 p.m. All are welcome to attend. (Advt.)

The following officers were elected: Chairperson, Annette McCarthy; Vice-Chairperson, James Lenane; Secretary, Helen Leddy; Asst. Secretary, Owen Madden; Treasurer, Connie Dowd; Asst. Any person wishing to join, please contact any committee member after May 14 as after that date, only paid up members can play.

The club is this year getting a coach at weekends. Any members interested in having coaching lessons can put their names on a list in The Wine Vaults so that lessons can be arranged for the start of June.

Last year's committee members can hand their keys in to either Helen Leddy or Annette McCarthy. We would hope that this year will be even better than last year and that more members will avail of the courts and play.

Cappoquin Notes

CAPPOQUIN AND DISTRICT DAY CARE CHARITY WALK

This weekend we take to the highways and byways led by Donnacha O'Dulaing to collect for the provision of a Day Care Centre in Cappoquin for the elderly of the whole district.

Today we have "gone to the dogs", had a table quiz, cake sale, coffee mornings, raffles, Christmas medley in St. Anne's, non stop draw, donations anonymous and otherwise and recently Mrs. Michael O'Connor held an Open Day for us. It's great, you the people are so very generous. Thank you all. Donnacha O'Dulaing visited last January and very kindly agreed to do this walk for us.

We start in Cashel Friday morning following the "way of the Saints". Bothar na Naomh must be one of the oldest routes in the country. I'm sure the saints will be with us as we walk. It is a great privilege to walk their way led by Donnacha. Amongst us will be Liz Bullen of national and international fame. We wish her every success and offer our heartiest congratulations on her being picked to represent Ireland in the European Championships. Well done Liz and thanks.

Thanks to the Lions, I.C.A. and other volunteers our bodies will be fed and looked after. Our soles will take rest in Castle Court Hotel, Cahir, which will accommodate us for the night.

We will have a traditional night in the bar — artists include Donnacha, Melleray Set, Bobby Gardiner and friends and others.

On Saturday morning we have to leave the Way of the Saints and head for Clonmel via Barn. We stop at Rathkeevin, then on to Marfield. There will be a mayoral reception for Donnacha and the walkers.

We can never be appreciative enough of how kind people are being to us. That night we retire to Melody's Bar in Ballymacarby. A great night is assured with Donnacha, Pat Melody, Nora Hogan, The Cappoquin Set and a host of others. The Clonmel Arms Hotel will generously take care of the soles and bodies that night.

On Sunday we leave Clonmel and head for Cappoquin via Ballymacarby. Refreshments will be kindly sponsored by Doocey's. We hope to arrive in Cappoquin at 4 p.m. approx. A mini open air festival is to take place commended by Ann Mulqueen. Taking part will be Finnisk Comhaltas Group, Ring Folk Group, The Village Quartet, Ballyduff/Ballinvilla Dancers, Tom O'Donoghue, The Cappoquin Set and others.

There will be a childrens fancy dress parade to be judged by Donnacha. There will also be face painting by Miss Rita O'Dwyer, artist. Refreshments will be provided in the hall.

On Sunday night we dance our feet off to Paddy McGrath and his music. We are looking forward to a great night's entertainment with Donnacha and his entourage.

We are most grateful for the generosity of Donnacha, our walkers, sponsors, hosts, entertainers and to all who have contributed and helped to make all this possible. We hope everybody enjoys themselves. Looking forward to seeing you all.

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

U-14 Footballers For Western Final — Our Under-14 footballers qualified for the Western final by virtue of a two point win over St. Patrick's at Modeligo last Sunday morning. While never reaching the consistency of previous games they nevertheless did enough to win. The obsession to go for goals when points were there for the taking is something the players will have to iron out before the final. Had our lads taken their points their win would have been far more emphatic. We were also denied a perfectly legitimate penalty, however, well done lads and the best of luck in the final.

Team — G. Arrigan, C. Scanlon, J. Fenton, J. Dalton, B. Cullinane, Brian McCarthy, B. O'Connor, E. Murphy (capt), P. McLoughlin, D. Coughlan, I. Flynn, J. Lynch, B. Keniry, T. Prendergast, J. Quann. Subs. — D. Wilkinson for B. Keniry; M. Murphy, J. Manahan, W. Fraher, C. Dalton and E. McGrath.

Gate Collectors — The following gate collectors take note of field duty. This week, April 29 - May 5, gate collectors are D. McCarthy, S. McCarthy and C. Cullinane.

On gate duty next week, May 6 - May 12, will be E. Fraher, B. Cunningham and J. Coughlan.

Senior Hurlers Beaten — Lismore 5-11 Cappoquin 2-7 — The scoreline here suggest a runaway victory for Lismore but in truth we conceded four unbelievably soft goals which gave Lismore a "cushion" during the game. But the outfield exchanges were exciting, competitive and even, and we have to be fair to our young, inexperienced side which performed admirably. Our team included no fewer than eight young players tasting senior championship hurling for the first time and they gave of their best. They wore their club jersey with pride and helped to make this quite an entertaining match. In fact young Sean Costin stood out as our man of the match with delightful stickwork and non-stop effort.

Team — P. Casey, L. Lacey, K. O'Reilly, P. McCarthy, S. Costin, S. McCarthy, D. Cummins, B. Murray (capt), K. McCarthy, M. Power, P. Curran, F. Murray, S. Fraher, M. Phelan, J. Buckley. Subs. — E. McGrath for P. Casey; G. Morrissey for P. McCarthy.

Pat McCarthy — Pat McCarthy who has given our club such wonderful service down through the years twisted his knee rather badly in the S.H.C. match last Saturday evening and had to retire from the game in the first half. His loss was a big blow to the team. All his team mates and club members are keeping their fingers crossed that his injury is not a serious long term one as our club can ill afford to lose a player like Pat McCarthy.

Blackwater Cycling Club Notes

The 'Cappoquin Pork & Bacon' Blackwater C.C. travelled to Carrick-on-Suir on Sunday last. Congratulations must again go to the Under-12's, Paul Moore who finished 1st and Vincent Lombard who finished 2nd. Pat O'Donovan was 7th and Brian Moore finished well up in the bunch. There was 29 in this race.

In the Under-14's Shane Motherway crashed but fortunately he did not hurt himself. Ken Moore and Bryan Geary finished well up in the bunch. There were 70 in this race.

John Moore took part in the Under-16's and John Tracey and Denis McCarthy took part in the senior "C".

Fishy Ideas For The Barbecue!

ALTHOUGH summer does not officially arrive until next month, May usually signals the beginning of some warmer weather providing ample opportunity for eating outdoors.

Meat is usually the obvious choice for barbecue fare, but fish is an excellent alternative. The following recipes are easy to prepare and look impressive.

Salmon Nicoise

A classic Nicoise salad with delicious flakes of canned salmon; ideal to serve as part of a barbecue meal.

Ingredients:

- 1 small iceberg lettuce
- 150g (6oz) trimmed and cooked French beans
- 3 tomatoes, sliced
- 1 small red pepper, de-seeded and chopped
- 1 small red salad onion, sliced, or
- 1 bunch spring onions, chopped
- 430g (15oz) tinned salmon, drained
- 12 black olives, halved and pitted
- 50g (2oz) tin anchovies, drained and rinsed

3 tablespoons white wine vinegar
 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
 1 clove garlic, crushed
Method:
 Shred the lettuce and arrange it on a large serving platter. In a large bowl, mix together the beans, tomaatoes, pepper and onion and arrange this mixture over the lettuce.

Flake the salmon into a bowl, removing as much skin and bone as possible. Arrange this over the bean mixture.

Decorate the top of the Nicoise with the anchovy fillets and the black olives, chill in a refrigerator until required.

Whisk together the remaining ingredients and spoon this dressing evenly over the salad just before serving.

Serves 4.

Salmonburgers

Ingredients:

- 400g (15 1/2 oz) can pink salmon
- 1 egg
- 50g (2oz) each chopped onion, finely chopped green pepper and fresh wholewheat bread-crumbs
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
- 1/2 teaspoon rosemary, crushed
- pinch of pepper
- 1 tablespoon cooking oil

Method:

Drain the salmon reserving two tablespoons of the liquid. Combine flaked salmon, egg, onion, green pepper, breadcrumbs, reserved liquid, lemon juice, lemon peel and seasonings. Mix well.

Form into four or five burgers. Fry in a lightly oiled pan for about five minutes on each side, or place under the grill or on top of the barbecue.

Top with any of the following: sliced tomato, sliced pickles, chopped onion, sliced cheese, pickle or mustard relish, ketchup, mayonnaise, mustard, tartare sauce or Thousand Island dressing and lettuce. Serve on toasted hamburger buns.

Abbeyside Strand In Deplorable, Desperate Condition

She had been down at Abbeyside strand that day and had found it in a deplorable condition, Cllr. Nuala Ryan told members of Dungarvan Urban Council at their April monthly meeting. As a result of what she saw she asked, "is there anything at all to be done to clear the beach before the start of the summer?"

Cllr. Mary Dixon agreed that the strand "was in a desperate state," and pointed out that assurances had been given in the past that the beach would be cleared on a regular basis.

Cllr. B. Kyne thought that the only solution to this recurring problem was for the Council to adopt a policy to allocate a certain number of man hours during the summer months to tidy up the beach with priority being given to the most frequented areas.

The Town Engineer, Mr.

George Taylor said that it was proposed to try to undo the winter storm damage to the beach by clearing away the stones that now littered the strand and to level the old wall which had been blown over and to do a general tidy up.

Cllr. A. Hallahan suggested the formation of a "beach committee" in conjunction with the Tidy Towns Committee in Abbeyside to look after the strand. "Such committees have been formed in other places and have worked admirably," he said.

Something For Everyone . . . FREE

Cospoir's Be Active . . . Be Alive Week 1990 takes place from May 13 to 20. Each county will be organising lots of events through their local V.E.C. Offices.

There will be a wide range of activities available to all age groups and abilities, able bodied and disabled - free of charge. This year "non-sporty" adults in particular are being asked to try some of the activities.

This is your chance to roll a bowl, paddle your own canoe, scuttle a shuttle, pot the black, learn to swim, cycle a mile (or two), map reading through an orienteering course, play tennis or squash. If these sports seem too challenging then have your fitness checked at a Shopping Centre or Sports Centre.

Walking is the main promotion for the week and many opportunities to walk in woods, hills, rivers, canals will be available.

For further information and free leaflets contact your local V.E.C. Office.

Greenhouse gives early start

By Pete Moss

MAY is the time of year when a greenhouse really proves its worth.

It has given an early start to flower and vegetable seeds which are now being transplanted to produce strong displays and healthy crops.

And it is also a haven for cuttings and varieties that prefer more protection from our changeable climate, such as begonias, cucumbers, melons, vines and peaches.

Diseased

But the disadvantage is that the warm enclosed environment can also allow pests and disease to thrive, so greenhouse hygiene is essential if you are to make the most of the asset.

Always remove any diseased areas on plants, such as mould, rust and mildew and follow up with the appropriate treatment.

Even healthy plants can start a problem if they die and are left to rot, so always remove spent flowers and leaves promptly and keep them from littering the floor.

Obviously, you also need to inspect plants regularly for signs of insect pests.

No prizes for guessing that aphids or greenfly are the worst culprit, increasing rapidly to weaken the plant and deposit sticky honeydew, as will many of the other serious pests such as white fly.

This fly is a particular problem on fuchsias, yet is difficult to see unless the plant is brushed against causing the tiny flies to flutter up like dust.

Scale insects are one of the hardest to spot and worst to get rid of. The first sign is the stickiness they cause and closer inspection reveals the small brown shell-like adults.

But the waxy covering makes them almost impervious to pesticides so they need to be wiped off as much as possible before the plant is treated.

The worst of the rest of the pests are: leaf hoppers, mealy bug, red spider mite, thrips, leaf miners and ants.

Most shops and garden centres will stock a range of treatments administered in the form of sprays, dust or smoke, but if the problem is small then it is probably best to go for one of the all-round spray treatments though these do tend to be dearer.

Take care to use the treatment at the right strength and check to see if any plants are excepted from the treatment or you may kill both plants and pests.

If you are spraying vegetables and fruit you should also check when the crops can be harvested after spraying.

Needless to say, weeds need to be picked out as soon as they appear. Not only are they unsightly but they will compete, usually with more vigour, for the food and moisture available in the greenhouse environment.

Spoiled

Now is also a good time to give the greenhouse its annual clean by scrubbing down the structure, glass and staging with a weak solution of disinfectant.

All this hard work will all be spoiled as well if you don't clean and disinfect any plant containers and sticks as well and maintain the habit with any you bring in later.

You could follow up on this "spring clean" later in the season by using a proprietary smoke treatment for the greenhouse interior.

MRS. MARY (MAY) BARRY (NEE COTTER) CONNA R.I.P.

Conna parish lost one of its most popular members of the community last week in the person of Mrs. Mary Barry, whose death occurred at her residence Carrigmore, Conna. During her life, May, whilst rearing a large family earned great praise from time to time for her needlework and cookery but her expertise on flowers and shrubs and wild flowers was almost unsurpassed and in this field she was a regular prizewinner at Macra and other events some years ago. Never seeking the limelight, she was always ready to share her great knowledge with anyone who would be seeking such knowledge and she was always to the fore in rendering valuable assistance to any project benefitting the community. The cheerful word was always on her lips and in recent years despite her poor health she showed remarkable courage attending her local card games or bingo sessions, but above all as Fr. Stritch, C.C. mentioned in his eulogy at the Requiem Mass in Conna, she was a good wife and mother and an example to us all, and the large concourse that attended both the removal to the church and finally to Conna's new cemetery for the interment, typified her popularity with everyone, and we join with all in sympathising with her husband John, daughters Rose, Theresa and Ann, sons Pa, John G., Dave, Mike, Tom and Peter, brothers, sisters, grandchildren, nephews, nieces, sons-in-laws, daughters-in-law, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, relatives and friends.

MRS. MARGARET TOBIN, DUBLIN AND TALLOW R.I.P.

It is with deep sorrow we record the death of Mrs. Margaret Tobin (nee Coughlan), Conorclune Road, Navan Road, Dublin 7, on Tuesday, April 24. A nonagenarian and native of Tallow at one time she and her late husband James carried on a business at West Street which included confectionery shop, garage, cycle shop and car hire service and postal delivery van. Regarded as a respectable firm always, the Tobin family were held in high esteem always in Tallow town and surrounding districts and the many friends of theirs received the news of Margaret's death with profound sympathy.

Our sincere condolence is extended to son James, daughters Brigid, Mary, Peggy, Ellen and Kitty, grandchildren, great grandchildren, sons-in-law, daughter-in-law, relatives and friends.

After Requiem Mass in Our Lady Help Of Christians Church, Navan Rd., Dublin, her remains were conveyed to her native Tallow Cemetery for burial.

WEDDING AT BALLYNOE

DINEEN - CORKERY

The wedding took place at St. Catherine's Church, Ballynoe, last Saturday of Jennifer, eldest daughter of Michael and Elsie Dineen, Carrig, Ballynoe and Dan, eldest son of John and Josie Corkery, Farran, Co. Cork.

The bride who was given away by her father, Michael, wore an ivory coloured dress of Swiss Brocade in ballet length style. Her head-piece was of lace held in place with a short veil. Her sisters, Tracy and Haley were bridesmaids wearing dresses of light jade green taffeta with matching flowers in their hair. The bridegroom had his brother Kevin as bestman and brother John as groomsmen. The bride had cousins Finbarr O'Connell and Eimer Coleman as pageboy and flowergirl respectively. The Nuptial Mass which included Papal Blessing was celebrated by the grooms cousin Fr. Donovan, C.C., assisted by Fr. Hegarty, C.C., Charleville, and Fr. Buckley, C.C., Ballynoe.

The playing and singing during the ceremony was in the capable hands of Mrs. Muriel Coleman, Killeagh. A very large number of guests attended and with the happy couple they journeyed to the Country Club, Montenotte, for the reception and a joyful evening was spent there in the company of the Society Four Band.

BRIDE VIEW UNITED F.C. SCHOOLBOY FOOTBALL

Challenge Games: U-10 Dungarvan 3 Bride View 0 — Dungarvan were visitors to Tallow on Thursday night last. In this first game Dungarvan ran out winners by 3 goals to nil. The Tallow boys can be pleased as this was their first time playing together.

Bride View — G. Prescod, C. O'Sullivan, O. Mangan, M. McGrath, S. McCarthy, D. O'Brien (capt), P. Flynn, R. Henley, D. Tobin, S. Cronin, R. Cronin. Res. — W. Conroy, G. P. Kelleher, P. Tobin, G. O'Brien, W. Henley (all used).

U-11 Bride View 2 Dungarvan 1 — We reversed the result of the first game here but it has to be said we had a few players over the age limit. This was a good game with some players displaying some great skill. Daniel O'Brien put the Tallow boys in front in the first half. Dungarvan equalised midway through the second half but with just 2 minutes to go Stephen Pratt grabbed the winner for Bride View.

Bride View — P. Hogan, D. O'Brien, J. Fuller, M. Ryan, M. Fraser, J. Murray, G. O'Brien, B. Curley, B. Henley, S. Pratt, C. Tobin. Res. — O. Mangan and W. Conroy.

U-13 Bride View 1 Youghal 11 — As the scoreline suggests Youghal had a very easy win against our U-13 side. Youghal led by 4-0 at the break. James Henley pulled a goal back 3 minutes into the second half but it was all Youghal after this. We wish Youghal the best of luck in the U-13 Cup Final.

Bride View — B. Sheehan, D. O'Brien, J. O'Brien, W. Murphy, M. Fraser, T. McSweeney, B. Curley, G. Henley, B. Henley, S. Woods, K. Tobin. Res. — B. Power, K. Donnelly, M. Pratt, A. McCarthy (all used).

NOTES

SARGENT CUP S.H.

Tallow 4-10 Fourmilewater 1-8 — It took Tallow almost 45 minutes to overcome the strong challenge of Fourmilewater in the Sargent Cup played in Cappoquin on Tuesday night of last week and in a five minute spell in the second half put the game beyond their reach, when we scored 2-2 without reply. The scores were level 1-3 to 0-6 at half time.

Fourmilewater pointed on the turnover and Tallow replied to level it up. Then midway through the half we scored 2-2 to leave us leading 2-8 to 1-4. With ten minutes remaining Mickey Curley goaled as did Eamonn Power to leave Tallow flattering winners by 11 points at the end. Tallow's best on the night, where we lined out without the services of four key players, were Jim O'Donoghue, Tomas McCarthy, Johnny and Mark Geary, Tim Sheehan, Steve and Mickey Curley, Dermot Henley, Colin Cunningham and second half substitute Michael Cunningham.

Team — Martin Murphy, Tomas McCarthy, Jim O'

Donoghue, Trevor Sheehan, Brian Henley, Connie Curley, Johnny Geary, Mark Geary, Tim Sheehan, Dermot Henley, Steve Curley, Colin Cunningham, J. J. Henley, Con Ryan, Mickey Curley. Subs. — Michael Cunningham for Connie Curley; Eamonn Power for Con Ryan and Clive Barry for J. J. Henley.

Senior Hurling Championship — Tallow 4-8 Dunhill 3-9

Tallow senior hurlers won their first round of the championship against Dunhill on Sunday last in Dungarvan by 2 points. The first half was very close with some marvelous hurling after which Tallow led by 1-6 to 1-3 at half time, the goal coming from Dermot Henley midway through the first half.

The first 20 minutes of the second half belonged to Tallow and goals from Pat Murphy, Paul Curley and Dermot Henley had Tallow leading by 4-8 to 1-9. Dunhill added 2 goals but it was too late with their last goal coming on the final whistle.

Martin Murphy played very well in goal while his full-back line of Tom McCarthy, Jim O'Donoghue and Trevor Sheehan did all that was asked of them especially in the last 10 minutes when we came under pressure. It was our half backs that really won this game for Tallow with Tim Sheehan, the classy Connie Curley at centre-back and the tough tackling of Johnny Geary. At midfield Mark Geary and Brian Henley kept the ball moving to the forwards. Second half substitute David Henley played his part as well but it was our forwards of Colin Cunningham, Dermot Henley, Steve Curley and inside them Paul Curley, Pat Murphy and Mickey Curley all played their part in a very good win for Tallow.

There is still a lot of work to be done before anything can be achieved, but it was the kind of start we needed and everyone of the lads played their hearts out to achieve this victory.

TALLOW BADMINTON NOTES

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.

Our juvenile hurlers, particularly our U-12, U-14 and U-16 and minor footballers all tasted competition during the week with mixed fortunes though all of them gave good displays.

Our U-12's travelled to Youghal on Monday evening and were unsuccessful in their league game with the home team. Likewise on Wednesday evening at the same venue our U-14's minus two regular players were defeated by Youghal, a two point margin separating them. However, this U-14 team vindicated themselves on Sunday evening when being visitors to far away Ballyhea, they had an overwhelming victory over the local boys in the first round of the Feile na nGael competition thus earning for them a place in the second round and our congratulations go to them on their display.

Our U-16's enhanced their reputation too at the weekend, also, in Youghal, accounting for the home side to the tune of 5-5 to 2-9. They really rose to the occasion and hurling with great confidence and skill they headed Youghal by 4 points at the break.

The Seasiders in a remarkable turnabout on the resumption playing splendidly and wiping off the deficit went a point in front. This was shortlived however, as Catherine's putting in a storming finish ran out worthy winners on the above score.

Catherine's lineout was — Michael O'Brien, Richard Cotter, Pat Fitzgerald, James Fitzgerald, Gerard Lynch, Pat Sheehan, David O'Connell, Oliver Lynch, Mark Lane, Jim Lane, Johnny Sheehan, Brian Cotter, Robbie Hamilton, Kieran Morrison, Tom Morrison. Sub. — Michael Dorgan.

Referee — Noel Hogan.

Our best wishes to Mark Lane and Oliver Lynch, our two injured players for a speedy recovery.

Our minor footballers suffered defeat at the hands of Erin's Own in the league game at Caherlag last Sunday evening, and in the County League competition at Ballynoe our U-16 hurlers lost to Killeagh, a stronger team after a great game and Christy Clancy in charge of the whistle.

St. Catherine's intermediate hurlers had a useful try-out with Abbeyside at Ballynoe on Sunday morning and came off winners by a few points. John G. Barry, St. Catherine's referee.

'My Girl' Coming To An Rinn

Na Fanaithe are one of a kind! They are the only professional Irish Language Theatre Company in Ireland and they will be soon performing in Co. Waterford. The Galway based travelling theatre company are back on the boards with a new show "My Girl" by Barrie Keeffe. A bitter love story, "My Girl" premiered in March 1989 at the Theatre Royal, London.

The plot for My Girl centres around a married couple from the Gaeltacht now living in the heart of the big city. In the telling of their story the author critically examines the social conditions of Ireland's new poor.

Na Fanaithe as an Irish language group emphasise their ties with the Gaeltacht areas of Ireland. Because of their isolation, the Gaeltacht areas are rarely visited by touring Theatre Companies or music groups. Na Fanaithe are one of the groups seeking to redress this imbalance. The nationwide tour of My Girl will visit all of the Gaeltacht areas of Ireland and due to an overwhelming interest in the Irish Language in the six counties, My Girl will also be showing in Derry, Belfast and Newry.

Anyone wishing to catch My Girl on the move, can do so at the Halla an Phobail, An Rinn, De Domhnaigh 13u Bealtaine.

O Star of the Sea help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favour is granted. Grateful thanks to the Blessed Virgin for favour received. — J.C.

I beseech thee to have infinite pity with regard to the favour I ask (mention favour). Intercede for my family that all may be provided for in all our necessities. I ask thee St. Martha to overcome the dragon which thou didst cast at thy feet. One Our Father and three Hail Marys, and a lighted candle 9 consecutive Tuesdays and the above prayer made known with the intentions of spreading devotion to St. Martha. This miraculous Saint grants everything before the 9 Tuesdays are ended, no matter how difficult and favours granted if published before Novena is finished. Firm believer.

If you have ever wondered what deep sea fishing is like this is your chance to find out. We will hold a "Fishing Clinic" in Lawlor's Hotel on Monday next, May 7, from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Everyone is welcome, from total beginners to those who have done a little and would like to know more. There will be several very experienced members who will hold "knotting" sessions and demonstrate the art of trace making etc. Also, rods, reels, tackle boxes and their uses will be put on display. So don't miss this opportunity, fishing is a sport which we can all enjoy, and come on girls, you are expected too.

The Inter Firms competition will be held on May 27 and not May 13, as in the GAFF. There is no competition on the 13th! Please note, and tell your friends, that the two dates in July, the 8th and the 22nd start at 9 a.m. and not at 9.30 a.m.

See you on the 27th! — P.R.O.

Basketball News

Darrell's Ladies Go Top

The Weststar senior ladies team went to the top of the league and joined Clonmel as a result of a fine victory over Carrick. The victory was all the more remarkable due to the fact that the Dungarvan team was very much understrength with Denise Clancy and Gillian O'Brien missing and Niamh Morrissey out injured for the second half.

The first half was very much evenly matched but at the start of the second half the Weststar team began to take control and drew clear of Carrick, but in the last 3 minutes Carrick came back strongly but Weststar's team, Darrell's, held out and won by three points.

Whereas all players played well it was a game where the young players Claire Murphy, Emer Enright and Carmel Cooney really excelled.

Now we are in a play-off for the title with Clonmel. This game is fixed for Friday night and hopefully with everyone putting in a good performance we can take the cup home.

Team — B. McGrath, N. Morrissey, M. Mulcahy, C. Cooney, E. Enright, A. Cooney, C. Murphy and L. Lannen. Coach - D. McGrath

Dungarvan Athletic Club Notes

LIZ BULLEN QUALIFIES FOR EUROPEAN MARATHON

Villierstown athlete Liz Bullen won a place on the Irish Athletic Team for this year's European Championships in Yugoslavia last Sunday week in Clonmel, when she won the silver medal in the National Marathon Championship and in the process beat her previous best time of 2 hrs. 46 mins. and 40 secs. by almost six minutes when she ran a superb 2 hrs. 40 mins. 51 secs.

On Sunday Liz confirmed her recent good form and indeed her rapid improvement since she returned to serious athletics two short years ago. An international vest is a just reward for this athlete who always gives her best and this latest recognition will be welcomed by all the runners in our own club as Liz is a good supporter of our summer training nights and our local racing events.

Christine Kennedy from Galway was the race winner in 2 hrs. 38 mins. and she pulled clear in the latter half of the race to come home a deserving winner from Liz who now joins brother John on the marathon team and all Waterford athletic followers will look forward to their participation in Yugoslavia at the end of the summer.

BEST TIME

Liam Clince also took part in the marathon and all his dedication to training paid off when he smashed the three hour barrier for the first time in fine style when he ran 2 hrs. 55 mins. This was a great performance from an athlete who was running only his second marathon.

SENIORS

Michael Roche travelled to Ennis recently for a 10K race and finished second vet behind former Irish international Gerry Staunton in 32 mins. 05 secs. In Castlemartyr last Thursday evening Michael was first in the East Cork 4 mile race in 20 mins. 39 secs. We had other fine performances from newcomer Michael Clarke (23.29), Liam Rossiter (24.07), Helen Dwyer (4th lady) in 25.11, Paddy Joe Delaney (25.53) and Nicky Sheehan (26.34).

INTER-VARSITY TITLES FOR AILISH O'BRIEN

Current National Senior

Womens' Discus champion Ailish O'Brien got her summer season off to a successful start at the U.C.D. track in Belfield, Dublin last Saturday, when she won two University titles for her college U.C.C.

Ailish won the shot putt with an effort of 10.86 metres and she completed a notable double when she threw the discus 40.24 metres. Last year Ailish and brother Frank brought National Senior titles to the club at the championships in Cork showing that they have successfully bridged the gap between juvenile and senior competition.

BEST RUN BY

GERRY CANTWELL

Senior athlete Gerry Cantwell travelled to the recent London Marathon and recorded his best time for the distance to date when he clocked 2 hrs. 34 mins. and 40 secs. Gerry's previous run was last year in the New York Marathon when he ran 2 hrs. 35 mins. and 40 secs. Since Gerry dipped under 2 hrs. 40 mins. a while back, his times have been quickly coming down and his latest effort represents very fast running. Gerry averaged 5 mins. 54 secs. per mile.

SYMPATHY

We extend sincere sympathy to Kathleen Connors and family and to Peter McGrath on the very sad passing of Gerry Connors recently. Kathleen and Gerry were involved in the running scene for a number of years and were very well liked and respected.

Dungarvan Badminton Club Notes

O'BRIEN AND O'DONNELL ABU

All roads led to Kerry recently for the Listowel Tournament. Miko O'Brien from Dungarvan club teamed up with a partner from Kerry and won the tournament in what we hear was Miko's best performance to date. This Dungarvan player has brought further honour to the club.

Deirdre O'Donnell from Tourin also won her match in great fashion and returned a great performance for her club.

Our congratulations to Michael Baldwin of Kilnagrane who won top prize of £10,000 in the Co-op GAA Draw at Roanmore last Saturday night.

The first round of the Phelan Cup will be played on May 8, at Kill.

CONCERT

The St. Laurence's Hall concert will be held in Ballinroad on May 4, the proceeds going to Carriglea. Artists from the Kilrossanty Variety Group will be taking part.

KILROSSANTY/FEWS FIRST AGAIN

Kilrossanty & Fews Council have come up with another novel idea, another first for the area in fact, in their efforts to fund the major reconstruction of their two churches. We all remember their 1988 Politicians Race at Kilcohan Park in conjunction with the Charity Dog Night.

The next special event on their calendar is a "Fantastic Antique Auction" at St. Brigid's Parish Hall in Kilrossanty on Monday, May 7, at 7 p.m., the first ever to be held in the area.

A vast selection of antiques will be on view at the Hall under strict security on: Saturday, May 5 from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. and also from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.; Sunday, May 6 from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.; Monday, May 7 from 2 p.m. to commencement of auction.

We would recommend this event to all antique lovers in the area as being well worth a visit and you will also be supporting a very worthy cause.

A detailed catalogue of the contents of the auction may be purchased at the Hall for £1. This charge will gain entrance to the auction on Monday, May 7. The auction will be conducted by Mr. Rory Keighery, Auctioneer and Antique Dealer. Rory is no stranger to the area and is well known for his keen eye for a good antique.

All who attend will be eligible for a draw, the door prize, which is a beautiful coffee table donated by Mr. Keighery.

Players who took part in the Racquetball Tournament organised and hosted by the Causeway Tennis Club and sponsored by Mario's Motor Factors, Ruffles Boutique and Tom Fitzgerald, Man's Shop.—(Pat Crowley).

Ballymac's Trip To London

Ballymacarby club returned from a very successful trip to London over Easter week-end and the Waterford senior team have been invited back there to play two games in June.

Ballymac played a London selection at the Edmonton Sports Grounds on Easter Sunday and although the London side put up a spirited display they were eventually defeated 5-13 to 0-3. To be fair to the London side they were very much under strength as several of their players had returned to Ireland on holidays.

For Ballymacarby it was a nostalgic occasion with most of their 1982 Waterford championship winning side playing together for the first time in a number of years. It was good to see Betty Ryan and Frances Fitzpatrick, now based in London, lining out again in the club colours and both showed that they have lost none of their ability.

Many thanks to the London Board, particularly Bob Treacy and Lena Ryan (Ardfinnan), who looked after us and made us very welcome; also Jim Lane for his wit, not to mention his guitar; to Aine Crotty and Mary Donoghue, who were never short of a song and to everybody who travelled, their behaviour was first class, a credit to the club and county.

Dungarvan Crystal Squash Club Notes

LADDER KINDLY SPONSORED BY P. MOLONEY

Winner of the Ladder was Stephen Lyons who never moved out of the top division all season. Runner-up was Pat Dunford who had a very good year. Both were presented with their prizes by Pierce Moloney. Thanks to John Foley for organising this tournament.

WOMEN'S COUNTRY LEAGUE

Our ladies country league team had a great win over neighbours Minnies in the semi-final. Every game produced some great and exciting squash which was watched by a big crowd.

First into action were Elizabeth Burke and Collette O'Mahoney. This was a very important game for both sides as a good start would be a boost for those to follow. It was the closest game of the night, a game

Elizabeth won in the end by 3 sets to 2.

At four, Gerardine O'Connell, despite playing some of her best squash of the season, went down narrowly 2-3 to Mary Walsh.

At three, Bridget Duggan and Teresa Hayes played out another five-setter. Bridget, who is without doubt the most improved player in the club this year, went on to win 3-2.

Leading two games to one at this stage, we needed just one from the last two to go through. In came Noeleen

Power and Rita Moore to play at number two. This was a game in which Noeleen never got going, but this is not to take away from Rita who played some very good squash to win 3-0.

With everything all square going into the last game, tension was at fever pitch. In came Ann Dunford and Anne Hennessy. The first set was very close but after that Ann Dunford proved too strong and went on to win 3-0.

BEST WISHES

We would like to take this opportunity to wish Mary Coffey a speedy return to action. Best wishes also to Tommy Butler. Both had operations recently and it is good to see both out and about again.

TOP 24

We played our Top 24 tournament recently also. We ran it as an individual rather than a team tournament. We had to delve deep to make up the 24 as a lot of our players, for one reason or another, could not play. A handicap system was used and with this system in use, all games were very close.

In the early rounds the biggest shock was the win by David Power over Liam Hansberry. David had a 4-shot start.

The final of Div. 3 was played between Patsy O'Connell and Thomas Duggan. This was a tough five-setter, played on a very hot Sunday afternoon. Patsy came out best in the end.

The 2nd Div. was between Pat Dunford and Patsy Hackett. Another close game of squash, with Pat eventually winning by the odd set in five.

Stephen Lyons was the Div. 1 winner over John Cliffe. Some brilliant squash here in a game that could have gone either way, Stephen winning the first set 10-8. In the second set John had a four point lead but was pulled back and passed out on the score of 9-10. John went into an early lead in the 3rd set and this time he was not going to get caught as he went on to win 9-3.

In the final set Stephen finished strongest and ran out the winner. This event was very kindly sponsored by Ger Wyley.

MUNSTER NOVICE CHAMPIONS

On April 1 last our Novice team proved no fools when they deservedly became Munster champions in Limerick. In the morning they had to overcome a strong Limerick side 3-1 in the semi-final. A short while later they had to go back into action in the final against St. Pauls, which they also won 3-1.

The team, which was led by Paddy Murphy, also included (1) George Hamilton, (2) Gerry Foley, (3) C. Murphy, (4) Pat Terry, (5) E. Meehan, (6) Jack Elstead.

An enjoyable night was had by all afterwards. Each took it in turn to sing their favourite songs, ranging from the 60's sung by Jack to an up-to-date song by Georgie which no one but himself understood!

CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP

Our Club Championship which was sponsored by S-S Club took place over two weeks. There were four divisions in this tournament, with only five players in div. four which was won by Jerardine O'Connell 3-2 over Michelle Memin. Div. three was won by Joe O'Brien over Paddy Cummins. Div. two was won by E. Meehan against Paddy Walsh. Div. 1 was won by S. Lyons against J. O'Dea.

COUNTY CAMOGIE NOTES

CAMOGIE PERSONALITY

By now each club will have nominated their representative for the Camogie Personality of the Year.

Each club should also by now have forwarded the candidate's name and photo to Martina Hale, Glendeish, Lismore, so as the cards can be printed. This personality venture is certainly catching on in a big way, and why not look at some of the names already in the running. It's a great mixture, what with some past and present inter-county stars, some promising new talent, and of course with one or two "gents" throwing their hats in the ring also, we are assured of a lively few months.

MUNSTER CHAMPIONSHIPS: WATERFORD v. CORK

By all accounts both the players and mentors are feeling just a little excited at the prospect of meeting Cork at senior level in the Munster Senior Championships to be played at a Cork venue on this Wednesday, May 2nd. Graded junior the Waterford girls opted to take part in the senior and tonight it's a wish come true.

SEASON COMING TO A CLOSE

Once again our season draws to a close and unfortunately for our senior squad it means relegation from the Premier Division. Having lost most of their experienced players at the beginning of the season this side battled gamely to the end without having much luck, and in quite a few of their games they were only beaten by the odd goal.

Our Div. 1 side had an adequate season, finishing runners-up in a league they should have won but their dismal cup run continued when they were surprisingly beaten by bottom club St. Joseph's.

Our Div. 2B side found the going very difficult in this division and finished up near the bottom of the table and they also made an early exit from the cup. We wish all the managers and squads the best of luck for the coming season and maybe at the end we will have a couple of league titles at Kilrush.

MANAGERS

Anyone interested in becoming a team manager for the coming season should apply in writing to the club secretary on or before May 24.

CARDS

Last week's winners were Mike Condon and Nuala Kenneally. Cards as usual at 8.30 p.m. sharp Saturday night.

MUNSTER SENIOR LEAGUE

Avondale Take Points In Entertaining Encounter

DUNGARVAN 1 AVONDALE 3

Avondale collected the brace of points on offer in this exciting league encounter at Kilrush Park on Saturday evening. A game that was slow to come to life produced an abundance of fine flowing football particularly in the second half with the visitors proving more adept at taking their chances.

With a number of players out injured Dungarvan had Tommy Egan back after a very long lay off, and both Pat Roche and David Sheehan were recalled to the team by managers John Walsh and Kealan O'Neill. However Tommy Egan lasted a mere 15 minutes before a recurrence of a back injury led to him being replaced by Bryan Kirwan.

Both sides were very lethargic in the opening stages with Dungarvan in particular giving away possession on numerous occasions through bad passing. However, Brian Whelan and Derek Lyons held the side together with impressive performances until the 38th minute when B. O'Sullivan caught Barry McGrath off his line to put Avondale 1-0 ahead.

YOUNG SUB.

SCORES

CRACKING GOAL

At half-time U-16 player David Whelan replaced the injured Martin O'Sullivan and just 45 seconds into the second half he volleyed home a fine equaliser following a great move involving Bryan Kirwan, Pat Keane and Willie Coward. This goal brought the homesters to life and in the 50th minute Bryan Kirwan beat the offside trap and ran on before neatly turning the ball into the net. However, referee Jimmy O'Neill harshly disallowed the "goal" saying that another player who was not interfering with play was offside. To make matters worse Avondale went ahead just two minutes later with a cracking breakaway goal that was brilliantly finished by D. Daly.

However Dungarvan surged forward in search of another equaliser and won a free-kick on the edge of the area following a foul on the most impressive David Whelan. Pat Roche's free-kick was headed inches wide by W. Coward. With Derek Lyons in scintillating form the Blues looked as if they must equalise and Ger Beresford had two excellent crosses both of which were turned narrowly wide by David Sheehan and David Whelan. However the warning signs were always there for a breakaway goal and both Brian Whelan and Billy Coleman did well to deny the dangerous B. O'Sullivan, but in the 80th minute B. Healy made it 3-1 although he appeared to be well offside.

Pat Keane had a tremendous last twenty minutes and he showed a return to his very best form. One marvellous 60 yards pass almost set Pat Roche free but the visitors keeper reacted smartly. Dungarvan were denied of a deserved consolation in the last minute when Derek Lyons found Bryan Kirwan who hit a fine crossfield ball to Ger Beresford whose cross was headed by Willie Coward but alas the ball went just the wrong side of the crossbar with the keeper beaten.

Dungarvan — B. McGrath, W. Coward (capt), D. Lyons, B. Whelan, B. Coleman, G. Beresford, P. Roche, M. O'Sullivan, T. Egan, P. Keane, D. Sheehan. Res. — B. Kirwan and D. Whelan (both used).

Man of the Match — Derek Lyons - simply outstanding and never put a foot wrong.

O'CONNELL CUP DUNGARVAN v. MALLOW

Dungarvan received a bye in the first round of this cup which is solely for teams in the premier division of the M.S.L. On Sunday next, May 6 they play host to Mallow in the quarter finals, with the incentive of a home draw in the semi-finals should they beat the Cork side. In the league encounters Mallow won both games which were very close affairs by 1-0 on each occasion. Kick-off next Sunday is at 2.45 p.m.

WORLD CUP PREVIEW

by B.K.

Ireland 1 USSR 0

Success yet again — 43,570 fans turned out for a friendly game which saw Ireland's unbeaten home run extended by Steve Staunton's first international goal.

But success can bring impatience and a hard to understand reasoning from some fans and reporters. Some insist on highlighting the problems with the pitch and the quality of the game itself. It must be remembered we beat a very good team short two of our best players and during the game limited the Soviets to one half chance.

The pitch, in my view, looked worse than at the time of the Welsh game but seemed to play better. Maybe this was because the USSR played much better than Wales technically. Either way the second half was good, Ireland were better than against Wales and we won, maybe I'm too involved, but what more do you want!

The game itself pushed the claims of David Kelly and Niall Quinn — Andy Townsend seems definite for Italy with Chris Morris also much improved.

David O'Leary played very well which again has resulted in Eamon Dunphy highlighting the deficiencies of Mick McCarthy. The whole question of the Irish defence causes endless controversy and debate.

My reading of Charlton's approach is that he prefers his centre backs to attack the ball and not to pull back into the penalty area. Moran and McCarthy do this well — O'Leary, fine player that he is — has a tendency to hang back. Both full backs must be fast and quick turning, which means that they can push forward with the goalkeeper being a type of sweeper — quick off his line.

That is why David O'Leary finds it hard to hold the centre back position. He had a fine game in Dublin and could now be putting pressure on Kevin Moran. Mick McCarthy needs games — he is a strong hard hitting player — Charlton's type. I felt in the last two games he did well and if he keeps free of injury he will be in Italy. Many push for Paul McGrath as a centre back, he had a great game for Ireland last week. His work in midfield is vital for Ireland and he is versatile so he could be switched to full back if needed. All in all, I would keep him in midfield, if you feel your back-four don't need his presence — that is the dilemma!

Up front I think Quinn is sure of his Italian spot but I would like a smaller busier player as a front man also, as an alternative to two big strikers. David Kelly is knocking at the door but Frank Stapleton's position seems very doubtful now. Kevin Sheedy's form is erratic, with Alan McLoughlin and Mick Milligan doing well with their clubs.

The Irish Manager has suggested that he is slow to pick untried internationals for pressure games. He has proven in the past with Liam Brady that he won't persevere with a player because he has given good service in the past. I feel Kevin Sheedy is definite for Italy but from what I have seen of Milligan he would be an addition to the Irish panel.

A lot of advice will be offered to Jack Charlton in the coming weeks but he will do it his way — it has worked so far, long may it continue.

ITALIA '90

JOHN ALDRIDGE (Real Sociedad)

Date of Birth — 18/9/58
Age — 31 Caps — 28
Goals — 3
First Cap — v. Wales 26/3/86
Last Cap — v. Malta 15/11/89
Previous Club — Liverpool
Height — 5'11" Weight 11.6
World Cup Appearances — 5
European Appearances — 10
Honours — English 1st and 2nd Div. championships, F.A. and Milk Cup.

Real Sociedad's Irish international once refused to play soccer because it would prevent him watching his local team Liverpool. His boyhood hero was Roger Hunt, a goal scorer of note and the youngster who had a regular spot in the Kop went on to become an idol of the same soccer mad supporters.

While he was an apprentice tool maker with British Leyland he began to make his mark in amateur football and he signed for 4th Div. Newport County on a one year contract in 1979. His goals saw him spend six years at the Welsh club before Oxford United signed him to bolster a push for promotion. Five goals from Aldridge helped Oxford into Div. 2, with 34 the next season pushing Oxford in with the big boys of Div. 1, for the first time in the club's history.

The goals continued, 25 in his first season and his Irish connection was established following an enquiry from Dave Langan a club mate at Oxford. He made his debut with Ray Houghton against Wales in March '86.

All wasn't well at Oxford and Aldridge was keen to move on but all his dreams were realised when he signed for Kenny Dalglish and in his first season he scored 29 goals and 31 in his second just like his boyhood idol Roger Hunt.

At this time Ian Rush was rescued from his problems in Italian football but his form wasn't great but an incredible offer meant John Aldridge was to make the biggest move of his footballing life.

He left the security of Liverpool, his family home, for a club which was in turmoil for even considering a non Basque player. But it was an offer he just couldn't refuse — a weekly wage of £3,500 to sign for Real Sociedad of San Sebastian for £1.1 million.

Would he fit in with the Spanish style often isolated up front — would he suffer like Rush did in Italy? Once again he succeeded — 20 goals from 27 matches confirms him as one of Spain's top scorers.

Now nicknamed El Zorro (The Fox) he has scored over 200 league goals for his clubs from Newport, Oxford, Liverpool (64 in 104 games) and Real Sociedad.

For Ireland, Aldridge had difficulty scoring, finding Charlton's tactics frustrating but in fairness to him he works very hard, often unrecognised by some sports commentators.

In Euro '88 for me he was one of the stars — his leading of the Irish attack, unselfish and hard working.

The goals have arrived, 2 against Malta and he will be one of our main hopes in Italy in June, what a time to extend his goal scoring records. Will he, like his boyhood hero Roger Hunt, score goals in a World Cup Final series. Let us hope so.

Mixed Fortunes For Young Hopefuls

U-15 CUP RAILWAY 1 BOLTON 4

On Thursday last our U-15 side had city side Bolton in the quarter final of the cup at home. We started very well and we had all the pressure in the early part of the game. Paul McLoughlin got a great goal but ten minutes later Bolton were awarded a penalty which they scored. At this stage we seemed to lose the game and early in the second half Bolton get some early breaks and ran out easy winners.

Team — B. Tobin, J. Radley, M. Croke, J. Fleming, K. Mason (capt), F. McLoughlin, E. Murphy, G. Reddy, P. McLoughlin, Paul Ormonde, A. Gilligan, Subs. — K. Cotter for J. Radley.

Referee — Matt Hayes (Dungarvan).

UNDER-11 RAILWAY 0 TRAMORE 1 RAILWAY 4 SOUTHEND 0

Our Under-11 side are having a busy time at the moment. On Thursday last they travelled to Tramore where they were unlucky to be beaten by the odd goal. On Saturday last we were at home to Southend and had an easy win by four goals to nil. James Mahonian scored 2 and S. Curran got 1.

DAMAGE TO OUR DRESSING ROOMS

It is with regret that we have to write about all the damage that has been done to our dressing rooms over the past weeks. All windows were broken and the two doors broken off the hinges. It just goes to show that people have nothing better to do than to damage other peoples property. We are a small club and find it hard to keep going on such a small budget to keep sixty or more boys enjoying themselves on the playing fields.

KENNEDY CUP (Semi-Final Replay)

Waterford S.L. v. Kerry S.L. in Ozièr Park, Waterford on Saturday, May 5 at 2.30 p.m.

Waterford will be hosts to Kerry on Saturday next in the replay of the semi-final. The Waterford boys should have an advantage against Kerry with better conditions. If Waterford should win they would be playing in Lansdowne Road the following week. The best of luck to our Ray Curran and all the squad that includes two Dungarvan players, Jason Hyslop and Timmy Kiely.

U-15 INTERNATIONAL MATCH (MAY 9) REP. OF IRELAND v. SWITZERLAND

With a week to go we have some tickets available. Adults £2, Schoolboys 50p. Bus will leave Square at 5.30 p.m. sharp.

PLAYER PROFILE: MICHAEL ("HAULIE") MURPHY

"Haulie" is a member of our Under-11 and 12 teams and has been with our club for three seasons. "Haulie" plays fullback and is currently captain of the Under-11 side. He is a very dedicated lad and always gives of his best. His older brother Eamon also plays with our club. "Haulie" lives in Barrack Street with his parents Michael and Sheila and his two sisters and brother. He follows Manchester United but will be probably disappointed when Crystal Palace beat them in the F.A. Cup Final.

LADIES FOOTBALL

Kerry Supreme

Kerry 4-10, Waterford 1-5

All-Ireland champions Kerry outclassed Waterford in the second round of the national senior league at Abbeydorney on Sunday last. On this performance there is nothing to suggest that the champions are slipping. In fact, their display in the first fifteen minutes must rank as good as anything ever seen.

On a beautiful sunny afternoon Kerry opened the scoring after 50 seconds with a point and for the next 15 minutes they produced some dazzling football to lead 1-5 to nil. In an effort to curb them Waterford were forced to make five switches. Slack marking was punished as the Kingdom, with centre-fielder Catherine Liston in superb form, tore the Waterford defence to shreds.

Catriona Casey moved to centre back, Sinead Walsh to the wing and Noirin Walsh to centre field and gradually Waterford pulled themselves back into the game. Marie Crotty shot a point in the 16th minute and Deirdre Wall had another in the 21st minute, but Waterford missed a couple of chances and trailed at the interval 1-5 to 0-2.

Any chance of making a game of it disappeared 30 seconds into the second half as Margaret Flaherty got inside the Waterford defence to crash home another goal. Aine Wall replied with a point, but Mary Jo Curran added two further points for Kerry. Marie Crotty got through for a goal in the 42nd minute but Kerry added two further goals, both a result of combined defensive errors, as Kerry ran out easy winners.

On Sunday, whilst there were many poor performances, Ann Dunford and Ann Fitzpatrick played well in defence, Marie Crotty and Bernie Ryan were best in attack, but for everybody there's plenty of room for improvement.

Waterford — M. O'Donoghue, A. Dunford (capt.), D. Tyrell, A. Fitzpatrick, N. Veale, S. Walsh, C. Walsh (0-1), M. O'Ryan, C. Casey, A. Wall (0-1), B. Ryan, M. Crotty (1-2), F. Crotty, J. Whyte, D. Wall (0-1). Subs. — P. Butler and R. Byrne.

On Sunday next, Waterford travel to Cork where they will take on the home county in the third round of the national league.

Dungarvan Utd. AFC Schoolboys

We had no games over the weekend. On Tuesday last, April 24, our under-13 side travelled to Rathgormack to take on the home side in the second round of the cup. But they returned home disappointed as the game did not take place due to no referee turning up.

FIXTURES

Cup.

KENNEDY CUP REPLAY

On Saturday next at Ozièr Park the Waterford Under-14 Kennedy Cup side play Kerry Schoolboy League in the semi-final replay. A fortnight ago the sides finished level 1-1 after extra time in Tralee and this replay should attract a big crowd to the city venue.

JUNIOR WIN

Our junior footballers had a good victory over Kilmacthomas in the championship last week on the score of 0-10 to 0-5, at Abbeyside. The victory puts the Reds in line for a quarter final place and it was certainly a victory that was earned the hard way.

SOLO CUP — MUNSTER UNDER-15 HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Thrilling Win For Lismore CBS

Lismore CBS 5-4, Dungarvan CBS 3-9

Lismore advanced to the quarter-final of the Munster championship with this thrilling win over old rivals Dungarvan CBS at Lismore recently. The match ended with both teams on level scores and Lismore emerged victorious after extra time.

The game was played at a low key during the first half but it burst into life just before half time when Niall Considine fielded a high side line cut from John Joe Ronayne to score a great goal for Dungarvan. However a quick puck out by Lismore goalkeeper Brendan Ormonde caught Dungarvan and Lismore replied immediately with a goal at the other end from Seamus Clancy to lead 2-3 to 1-1 at half time.

In the second half, with the Dungarvan backs playing very tight and with John Joe Ronayne giving a masterful display the Dungarvan forwards began picking off the points with Dwane Moore, Niall Considine, Kieran Cunningham and Michael Enright all scoring. Dungarvan were ahead by the 40th minute when Michael Enright hit a marvellous shot on the run first time into the roof of the Lismore net.

Dungarvan were ahead 2-7 to 2-3 with 5 minutes to go when Ollie O'Dowd gave Lismore hope with a goal and Emmet Quann snatched a draw in the last minute with a point from a free.

EARLY LEAD

Lismore burst into an early lead in extra time with goals from Ollie O'Dowd and Shane Fennessy, Dungarvan weathered the storm and fought back strongly and when Michael Enright grabbed a high ball and turned to strike a powerful shot to the Lismore net with 5 minutes remaining the excitement mounted. Niall Considine narrowed the Lismore lead to a point and Dungarvan were on the attack to the end, but Lismore held on to win by the narrowest of margins.

Scorers — Lismore: Ollie O'Dowd 2-1, Emmet Quann 1-2, Seamus Clancy 1-0, Shane Fennessy 1-0, Kenneth Geary 0-1; Dungarvan: M. Enright 2-2, N. Considine 1-2, K. Cunningham 0-3, D. Moore 0-1, J. J. Ronayne 0-1.

County Bord Na nOg Notes

UNDER-16 FOOTBALL

This year's under 16 inter-divisional football game is due to be played in Kilmacthomas on Wednesday, May 9. This game was always used to select the county panel to take part in the Carrig Na bhFearr Coaching Week. This year it looks as if this coaching week in Cork is being discontinued by the Munster Council.

We are at present looking at different options open to us in Portlairge to replace this important course and we hope to have something finalised in the next few weeks.

U-14 FOOTBALL

Both divisions are at present at the knockout stages of this year's championships and all is on course for the county finals in Walsh Park on May 12. The Eastern clubs had a clean sweep in the three under-14 county finals last year and while Tramore must be favourites to retain their title for the fifth successive year, both of last year's 'B' and 'C' champions were promoted to the 'A' division in the Eastern competition, so we will have new county champions, and I am told that St. Olivers have done trojan work this year and it will take a good team to put them out of the 'B' championship.

In the 'C' competition, Gaeltacht and St. Mollerans are favourites to contest the final, with both fancying their chances. A good day's football is in store for all football followers in Walsh Park on May 12, with the 'C' final starting off the day's proceedings at 12.30 p.m.

COACHING

County and Divisional selectors are reminded that both coaches are available for sessions with any county or divisional team. They can avail of these services by contacting John Moore or Seamus Aylward.

INJURY

The Bord would like to wish Gordon Crooke a speedy recovery. Gordon was injured while playing for the Eastern under-16 team in the Gleeson Cup game recently.

HURLEY SUBSIDY GRANTS

It is believed that some clubs in the county do not avail of these grants. If any club wishes to claim hurley grants they should forward the receipts for the purchase of juvenile hurleys to their Divisional Bord Na nOg Runai. The County

Runai has recently received grants for various clubs and schools. These will be distributed to the relevant clubs within the next week.

U-16 HURLING

Our hopes of success in this year's Under-16 Munster Hurling Championship ended on Saturday week when both divisional teams were beaten in the opening rounds. The Eastern team were defeated by the Mid-Tipperary Division, while the Western team went out to a talented Cork City team.

Both our teams were unlucky to be drawn against two of the strongest divisions in Munster. All is not over however, as we can salvage some pride later in the year when our county team will participate in the "Nenagh Co-op" tournament in Tipperary.

We wish both Cork City and Mid-Tipperary under-16 teams every success in the Munster Championship.

HURLING HELMETS

Any club interested in purchasing helmets should contact John Moore or Seamus Aylward as we are at present in the process of purchasing helmets in bulk and we hope to be able to supply clubs and schools with these helmets.

Western Bord Na nOg Notes

On Saturday afternoon last at Bushy Park the Under-14 football final took place between Abbeyside and Dungarvan.

Both teams were togged out immaculately, but Abbeyside were the stronger team and won the game by 9-7 to 2 points.

Scorers for Abbeyside were — A. Landers, Johnathon Moore, Michael Kelleher, Barry Cliffe, Derek Kenneally, Michael Verling, Paul Shield and Michael Brett. Dungarvan's two scores came from Jason Hyslop.

After the game John Kiely, Chairman Western Bord Na nOg presented the winning team with the cup. Also present were Eddie O'Shea, Secretary, and Mary Barry, P.R.O. Commiserations to Dungarvan but they will be back next year and to Abbeyside congratulations to all players and great credit is due to Pat Moore, Joe Cleary and Larry Cliffe and all involved with the team.

Referee for the day was P. Walsh.

Result: U-14 "B" semi-final — Cappelquin/Affane 1-5 St. Patrick's 1-3.

Fixtures: Sunday, May 6 — "B" U-14 Football Final — Cappelquin/Affane v. winners of St. Olivers v. Clashmore in Modeligo at 12 noon. Sunday, May 6 — "C" Final — Brickeys v. Gaeltacht in Ardmore at 12 noon.

Feile Na nGael Skills and Puck Fada went on at the Showfield. Results were as follows:

Long Puck — Jason Corcoran, Ballyduff, Rodger Casey, St. Patrick's, C. Lennon, Dungarvan.

SENIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Easy Win For Passage

PASSAGE 3-8 DUNGARVAN 2-4

By "Commentator"

Splendid performances by former minor and under-21 county goalkeeper R. Barry, and present county players, Sean Cullinane and Mossy O'Keeffe, were the big factors in Passage's victory over Dungarvan in this first round game at Fraher Field on Sunday evening.

The game lacked the excitement of the two matches on the afternoon programme and the winners who, at one stage were twelve points in front, never really looked like losing.

Scorers: Passage — M. O'Keeffe 1-3, P. Barry 1-1, E. Fitzgerald 1-0, S. Cullinane, N. Connors, R. Corcoran, A. Fitzgerald 0-1 each. Dungarvan — P. Queally 1-1, M. Ferncombe 1-1, D. Lyons and D. Callaghan 0-1 each.

Passage — R. Barry, B. Quann, E. Cullinane, M. Kelly, P. Connors, Pat Connors, S. Cullinane, R. Corcoran, E. Fitzgerald, P. Barry, S. Cooney, A. Fitzgerald, P. Fitzgerald,

Encouraging Display By Tallow

TALLOW 4-8 DUNHILL 3-9

Tallow's decision to seek a return to senior ranks was fully vindicated at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last. In their opening game of the current senior hurling league championship they scored a well merited two points win over Dunhill, and but for tiring in the "home straight" would have been much further ahead at the finish.

On a day when many of the more experienced players showed the signs of the winter lay-off, Tallow still had enough in hand to win the game even more comfortably than the winning margin would suggest.

The first half was quite evenly contested. After 13 minutes the sides were level at 1-2 each, the goals coming within seconds of one another, Tallow's from one of their better players on the day, Dermot Henley and Dunhill's from an in-form Tom Casey.

Tallow had the better of the exchanges in the second quarter in which they added three points to lead 1-6 to 1-3 at the break.

The winners had their best spell in the third quarter during which goals from Pat Murphy and Paul Curley left them in a strong position with a 3-7 to 1-6 lead with 15 minutes left to play. Dermot Henley's goal in the 48th minute left them in an unassailable position but they began to tire and a Dunhill fight back sparked off by Tom Casey who moved to midfield in a switch with John O'Loughlin saw them shoot over three points, and goals from Stephen Burns and John O'Loughlin literally in the dying seconds put a more respectable look on the scoreboard from Dunhill's point of view.

As far as Tallow are concerned they have a long way to go before they will be a potent force, but the signs were very encouraging in last Sunday's satisfying overall performance, despite the fact that they had a 9 points lead whittled down to 2 in the final ten minutes.

Scorers: Tallow — Dermot Henley 2-3; P. Murphy and P. Curley 1-0 each; S. Curley 0-3; M. Curley and C. Cunningham 0-1 each. Dunhill — T. Casey 1-5; S. Burns 1-1; J. O'Loughlin 1-0; P. Foran 0-3.

Tallow — M. Murphy, T. McCarthy, J. O'Donoghue, Trevor Sheehan, Tim Sheehan, C. Curley, J. Geary, M. Geary, B. Henley, D. Henley, S. Curley, C. Cunningham, M. Curley, P. Murphy, P. Curley. Sub. — David Henley for Brian Henley.

Dunhill — J. Power, P. J. McGrath, J. Power, W. Moore, D. Murray, L. O' Daniels, J. Waldron, P. Murray, J. O'Loughlin, G. Drohan, P. Foran, S. Burns, S. Hartley, T. Casey, K. Murray. Sub. — T. Moore for S. Hartley.

Referee — Pat Moore (Abbeyside/Ballinacourty).

Good Win For Ballyduff

BALLYDUFF 2-12 MOUNT SION 1-11

After a tough, and at times uncompromising hours hurling at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last Ballyduff came away with both points when they scored a well deserved win over Mt. Sion in this first round senior hurling league championship clash.

It was a close and exciting game which featured some passages of good hurling and indications were that both sides could be there or thereabouts when the final stages of the championship are reached.

There was hardly a puck of the ball between the sides in the first half after which Mt. Sion led by 1-5 to 0-7. The Monastery side were rather fortuitous to be in this position at the break considering that sub. Eugene Flynn, not long on the field, missed a clear cut gilt edged goal chance for Ballyduff in the 22nd minute and seconds later Gerome Quirke had the ball in the 'Sion net only to see the score disallowed for a "square" infringement.

However just five minutes into the second half Ballyduff had their first goal when big John Quirke took a dropping ball cleanly out of the air but was fouled as he motored goalwards and centre forward Michael Walsh rattled the back of the net from the "semi penalty". Walsh had earlier pointed a free and the winners now led by 1-8 to 1-5.

Play swung from end to end after this as points came tit for tat and by the 48th minute Ballyduff held a narrow 1-10 to 1-8 lead.

Ballyduff mounted a succession of attacks but were denied major scores on two occasions by Mt. Sion keeper Philly Flynn who brought off some superb saves. It was still anybody's game with four minutes to go as Ballyduff held on precariously with a 1-12 to 1-11 lead. But just before the end John Quirke made Ballyduff safe when he crashed home their second goal to give the Western side a fully deserved victory.

Scorers: Ballyduff —

M. Walsh 1-6; J. Quirke 1-0; P. Prendergast 0-3; G. Quirke, M. Geary and C. Feeney 0-1 each. Mount Sion — J. Meaney 1-1; P. Ryan 0-4; D. Power and S. Ahearne 0-3 each.

Ballyduff — M. Leamy, M. Casey, L. Power, S. Daly, J. Casey, Seamus Daly, R. Walsh, P. Prendergast, E. Hickey, G. Hickey, M. Walsh, G. Quirke, S. Hannon, J. Quirke, M. Geary. Subs. — E. Flynn for S. Hannon; C. Feeney for E. Hickey.

Mount Sion — P. Flynn, V. Nolan, J. Cuddihy, L. Quinn, K. Ryan, G. Fitzpatrick, B. Greene, P. Walsh, J. Meaney, P. Ryan, D. Power, M. Flanagan, P. Fanning, S. Ahearne, D. O'Loughlin. Subs. — B. Coughlan for M. Flanagan; M. Foley for P. Fanning.

Referee — J. Moore (Dungarvan).

Dungarvan G.A.A. Notes

DISAPPOINTING DEFEAT

Our senior hurlers made the worst possible championship start last Sunday evening at Fraher Field when they lost by 3-8 to 2-4 to Passage.

We played particularly poorly in the opening half and trailed by 1-6 to 0-1 at the interval. The second half performance showed a significant improvement but we still failed to penetrate for the scores that were so badly needed.

All round then a very sub-standard display and we clearly face an uphill battle if we are to reach the concluding knockout.

MINOR FOOTBALL

Its make or break time for our minor footballers when they take on old rivals Abbeyside in a crucial championship game at Fraher Field.

That defeat by Clashmore last time out means we cannot afford another reverse so the boys know exactly what will be required of them on Friday night.

Incidentally Darrell Donnelly started for Waterford in the drawn and replayed Munster championship games last week. It certainly wasn't any fault of his that Waterford ended up being pipped at the post.

UNDER-14'S WELL BEATEN

Our Under-14 footballers were no match for Abbeyside in the "A" Western championship final at Bushy Park last Saturday.

We were never in this game with a chance against a vastly superior opposition, but nonetheless the boys stuck manfully to their task right to the end.

We had a panel of 29 players who now turn their attentions to hurling and also the upcoming Feile na nGael.

Incidentally a word of thanks to those who supplied the transport to Bushy Park for last Saturday's game. The gesture is much appreciated.

BE ACTIVE WEEK

We will again be involving ourselves in the "Be Active Be Alive" week. As we did last year we will be organising a long puck competition for the over 40's and we are expected a big turnout.

Last year it was dominated by the Tipperary duo, Peter Ferncombe and John McLoughlin, who no doubt will be fancying their chances again this year.

BINGO

As can be seen from the advertising columns on the Entertainment Page we are staging another of our big bingo nights on Friday at the Friary Hall Theatre.

There will be more than £1,000 in prizemoney so we can expect another full house.

MUNSTER SENIOR AND JUNIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Waterford v Clare At Dungarvan

In this attractive double-header new rules football championship programme at reopened Fraher Field on Sunday next, Waterford will be hopeful of a double, but most interest, naturally will be in the senior game with the team very keen on wiping out memories of the 5-9 to 1-9 beating by Limerick in the first round at Askeaton last year.

Both counties fared rather disappointingly in the National League and will now be attempting to show improved form and prove that hard luck played a part in their placings on the league table.

The records of the two show that there is very little difference in their standards. When we met in the championship two years ago in Dungarvan the game ended in a draw and we won the replay. In our most recent meeting we again drew with Clare (Waterford 3-9 Clare 1-15), also at Dungarvan, so our favourite football venue can be described as being reasonably lucky for the Banner county men.

After the National League, our selectors set about restructuring the panel and decided on holding the number to 20 instead of the normal 24/26 players. Several players of senior intercounty standard did not, for one reason or another, make themselves available for the league and only those who gave a firm commitment at a special meeting held at Leamybrien in late December, were taken on board to train for the championship.

According to all reports these have trained well and are fully prepared for this important first round game on Sunday.

On Friday evening last they did their final 'heavy' training session, having beaten Limerick in a challenge at Limerick on the previous evening. Although the match is listed as a 'Munster championship' game, it is more properly described as a semi-final of the McGrath Cup which is a competition between the four weak counties in the province who have no realistic chance of beating either Cork or Kerry. So winning the McGrath Cup will continue to be the aim of the four, but getting to a Munster semi-final against one of the big two does something for the profile of the counties who qualify and for this reason also, counties like Clare and Waterford will keep on trying their very best to win first rounders like this one on Sunday.

If Waterford win here today, we will have the mighty Kerry at Fraher Field in three weeks time in the semi-final and what a great occasion that would be for the promotion of the game here.

Following their week-end in Waterville with the great maestro Mick O'Dwyer, (see special article) the spirit in the camp here seems to have changed dramatically and the expectations are that the team will play more confidently and perhaps a bit more skillfully than they did in the league.

So while on past records our chances many not be reckoned to be greater than 50/50, it is a match that we can and should win, if the lads play to their full potential. We could not, in my opinion, have got a more suitable draw, and this, along with home ground advantage, could see us through here.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

WATERFORD v CLARE

This game will be the curtain-raiser at Fraher Field and whatever the result it should provide good entertainment for early arrivals.

Strange as it may now appear, both counties can field their second best team here. I say strange because both counties were among a number who unsuccessfully applied to be allowed to do so and were refused. The Management Committee turned down the application as did Central Council, who after discussing the appeals, gave a definite 'no'. Then amazingly it was announced some days later that all counties who had applied, could play their second best. The whole thing makes one wonder.

Anyway when both counties are allowed this facility what does it matter. It is a junior championship played with senior players. Why not try playing a junior football championship with junior players and see what happens?

Players Sent Off

One of the disadvantages of being important is that when you do something which you should not have done, everyone gets to know about it.

There was a great "buzz" around Fraher Field on Sunday when it was learned that Jim Green had been sent off in a junior hurling game at Walsh Park on Saturday. Three players were sent to the line by referee Pat Moore at Abbey-side on Sunday night, in the game between Stradbally and Kilrossanty. Pat who was refereeing his third match of the day, wasn't in the mood for taking any nonsense and acted according to rule.

At the time of writing I haven't heard the names of these players, so I take it that they were not high profile people. This brings to about ten, the number who have been dismissed already this season.

On Monday of last week, Waterford selectors played a trial at St. Augustine's when a lot of enthusiastic juniors (real ones) played for a place on the team, but three evenings later when the change was announced, a new trial was arranged for Stradbally with the eligible seniors being put on trial.

The team was due to be named following a game against Tipperary on Monday evening and if available in time it will be published by us.

Referees Instruction

The county referees body have, as expected, called a special meeting of all referees in the county for next Monday night at Lawlor's Hotel when instructions on the new playing rules will be given by John Moore, Jim Landers and Pat Moore, all of whom attended the special Munster Council Course at Limerick last week. The importance of this get-together cannot be overstated as the football championships, which are mostly affected, will be back in full swing on the following week-end, and if referees are not fully briefed, there could be great confusion.

Referees who will be involved with games before this special meeting are advised to get in touch with any of the above three, when they will be briefed. It is a meeting that should not be missed by any referees and it may be the ideal opportunity for new referees to come along and make a start.

I presume that team managers and club officials who are concerned will also be welcome on Monday night. This point can be checked out with Pat Moore.

Week-End Club Championships

Apart from several league fixtures, the Divisional Boards have the scene all to themselves on the club championship front and the Western Board have taken full advantage of the availability of venues to advance their junior championships. A number of important minor football games will bring that championship nearer completion.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL
Having beaten both Kilrossanty and Ballinacourty very decisively, Stradbally now look to be on course for the title and their prospects of taking this title are likely to get a further boost on Saturday evening when they play Brickeys at Lemybrien.

Shamrocks would love to win the junior title this year because of their upcoming celebrations of the Knockanore victory 50 years ago, but they can have but a slim chance as the best of their limited group of players will be involved with their intermediate side. They play Clashmore at Cappoquin and the same can be said for this club. Shamrocks may just about win this one.

Dungarvan didn't field for their scheduled match with the Shamrocks last Saturday as many of their second string were engaged with their senior hurlers on Sunday evening. They have an engagement with the Nire at Colligan in junior football and will expect to win. I don't expect that the Nire's second string are proportionally as good as their seniors and I would not give them an even chance here.

Kilrossanty were poor enough against Stradbally on Sunday but not nearly as poor as were Ballinacourty against Stradbally on the previous Sunday. Ballinacourty improved their team since then and could now make it hot for Kilrossanty when the sides clash at Stradbally on Saturday.

ARDMORE v GERALDINES

A four points win over Kilgobinet gave county junior 'B' champions, Ardmore a welcome start to the junior championships proper on Sunday and a repeat of that form could see them over the second hurdle when they play Geraldines at Seana Phobal on Saturday evening. I wouldn't regard the result as a foregone conclusion, but it would be a surprise if the Geraldines came out winners here.

Skills/ Puck Fada

On Sunday next County Bord na nOg will run off the finals of the skills and puck fada competitions with three players representing each division. Both divisions held their competitions last weekend and the following are the Western qualifiers who will represent this side of the county on Sunday in the Feile Skills: Roger Casey, St. Patricks, Jonathan Moore, Abbeyside and Kieran Curran, Dungarvan.

In the puck fada our representatives will be Jason Corcoran, Ballyduff, Rodger Casey, St. Patricks and Conor Lannon, Dungarvan.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

Weekend Results

The fare at the Fraher Field on Sunday afternoon was good and the meagre crowd got good value from both matches. Tallow were back in all their glory and their very skilful performance gave a taste of what we can expect when they are fully tuned up for the championship later on in the season. Their skill will be seen to better effect when they are fully fit as the two go hand in hand.

Dunhill are great championship battlers and true to tradition they never gave up and went close enough to catching Tallow when they piled on the pressure on their tiring opponents in the closing minutes.

Tallow, by the way, beat Dunhill in the 1980 county final and I was taken to task by a few people for having overlooked this when writing last week. Tallow in that year broke the Eastern stranglehold on the title (since Tourin in 1951) when they beat Dunhill by 1-7 to 1-6 in an exciting final at Dungarvan.

Ballyduff and Mount Sion was by any standards a very good contest and a game of contrasting styles to the first match. It began at a hot pace and the players tried to maintain this all the way with only a puck of the ball between them at the finish.

The delightful accuracy of Paudie Prendergast at centre field for Ballyduff was one of the features of the scoring in this game and it was good to see the County Selectors there observing. I wrote last year that the introduction of new rules and the outlawing of the scoring from the hand, would make Ballyduff's John Quirke redundant. The prediction was proved inaccurate and the rulemakers will have to think again if they are going to stop this opportunist full forward from scoring. John's goal on Sunday put the seal on Ballyduff's win.

Lismore and Cappoquin played the opening game of the senior hurling championships at Tallow on Saturday evening. Lismore were the better side as the score indicates but it was not all one way traffic and Cappoquin might have been closer if they had taken their scoring chances in the second half. At half time it was 4-5 to 1-5 before the losers defence tightened up in the second half and allowed the winners through for only one further goal.

Portlaoise proved themselves a ten points better side than Clonsilla on Sunday night but the overall performance of the winners was not good enough to boost their chances of winning this championship.

By comparison with the afternoon programme the Passage/Dungarvan game aroused very little excitement for the small crowd who turned up. Neither side did much to suggest that they might be involved at the finish, even though both have some good players.

JUNIOR GAME AT ABBEYSIDE

The second string section of the junior championship

has often been described as a 'Mickey Mouse' competition with the teams made up of hopefuls and has-beens but there are the odd occasions where clubs who are traditional rivals at a higher level, clash at a lower level and produce sparkling stuff. Such was the case on Sunday evening when Kilrossanty and Stradbally met in junior football at Abbeyside.

It was hot stuff, rough and tough, and with both sides having to be spoken to at half time by referee Pat Moore. Three players were sent off.

Deise Footballers In Kerry

[by Christy O'Connell

taken from "The Kingdom"]

Waterford's senior football team paid an historic visit to Waterville recently for a weekend of coaching under the tutelage of the Maestro, Mick O'Dwyer. This picturesque South Kerry coastal village, world famous for its spectacular rugged scenery, also possesses a fine sportsfield which is situated on the banks of the trout and salmon angling Loch Currane. It was in this ground that the Deise footballers felt the brunt of O'Dwyer's demanding training sessions.

Micko put the squad through their paces with the same hard graft he used when welding together his great Kerry 'Golden Years' team. As the squad tripped off the pitch on Sunday afternoon to have a quick shower before getting on the bus back to Waterford, O'Dwyer pointed out to me that he greatly admired the dedication and enthusiasm of the visiting team and their mentor Greg Fives. He added that it was a 'real pleasure' to work with them over the weekend. 'I must compliment Greg Fives and the Waterford County Board' he said. 'This is the only way the standard can be raised in the weaker counties: much more emphasis must be placed on coaching'. 'The pity is' he continued, 'that the authorities in the G.A.A. don't seem to see it like that'. When questioned on how he rated the quality of the side he had worked with over the weekend, O'Dwyer replied that there were certain aspects of their fitness and their game that they would need to concentrate on. 'I believe that they need three or four strong players in the pivotal positions', he added. 'It would give their side more balance. I always had a few strong target men on my Kerry teams' he concluded. Next month Micko will manage the 'All-star Football Team' which is scheduled to play in New York and San Francisco.

Waterford manager, Greg Fives, from Abbeyside, Dungarvan, who has put together a youthful and useful footballing squad, told me that the McGrath Cup is their immediate objective. He was absolutely delighted with the success of the weekend. He described O'Dwyer as a 'most unassuming man' who had treated his lads with the 'utmost respect'. 'The lads really felt the inspiring presence of Micko', said Greg. Stradbally's Eoin O'Brien endorsed this point of view. O'Brien had come under O'Dwyer's stewardship with the '85, '86 and '88 Munster Railway teams. 'We have learned a lot footballing-wise over the weekend', Eoin commented, 'and the whole squad has also got to know each other much better. It was very beneficial.'

Having had a final workout in the sportsfield on Sunday afternoon, the Deise contingent left Waterville and the Kingdom happy in the knowledge that their visit was an outstanding success.

S.H. TOURNAMENT AT CAPPOQUIN

Waterford v. Tipperary

A notice advertising a tournament game between Waterford and Clare in aid of Cappoquin Field Development was posted outside the Fraher Field on Sunday, but before the programme at the field ended it was learned that Clare had pulled out because of local championships.

On Monday morning, Tipperary stepped into the breach and agreed to play for the valuable set of trophies which have been kindly donated by the management of Cappoquin Chickens.

It's quite a while since we had All-Ireland champions playing in the county and with both counties having championship engagements in the next month or so, this game will be of benefit to both.

The sides are expected to field strong teams, so the game will be pretty exciting and well contested. Hopefully, for Cappoquin's sake, it will attract a very large attendance.

Fund-Raising Drive Launched

Waterford Hurlers Finance Support Group officially launched their fund-raising drive before a big attendance of retired and present-day hurlers and officials, past and present, at the Granville Hotel, Waterford.

The attendance included players from the '38, '48, '57, '59 and 1963 All-Ireland teams, all of whom pledged to throw their weight behind the scheme.

The fund is designed to provide finance for preparing, coaching and fitting out of the county hurling teams and as stated in the launch-brochure, while money is not everything and will not in itself, buy success, it will help to provide the necessary back-up facilities.

The Chairman of the Group is John McGrath, Abbeyside; V.C.'s — Liam Cusack and John McDonnell; Secretary/Treasurer — Christy Dowling, Mount Sion; P.R.O. — J. J. Landers, Geraldines; Liaison Officer — Phil Fanning, Mount Sion. Other committee members are — Pat Sullivan, Ballygunner; Frank Walsh, Kieran O'Connor, Cappoquin; John Lyons, Ballygunner; Mick Hayes, Butlerstown; Gary Cunningham, Co. Board and Garvan Whelan, Dungarvan.

MUNSTER CHAMPIONSHIPS

Minor Footballers Beaten In Replay

LIMERICK 0-13 WATERFORD 0-12

The standard of football in the drawn match at Fermoy on Wednesday of last week, was as good as I have ever seen from a Waterford minor team, but nevertheless I was one of a group of home supporters who came away disappointed that we had lost a game that we should have won by a comfortable margin.

It was most disappointing to have lost a seven points lead (which we fully deserved because of our superiority) towards the end of the first half. Dissent by a Waterford player who had been awarded a scoreable free resulted in the free being cancelled and from the resultant throw-in, Limerick broke away and scored a goal, totally against the run of play. We were fortunate to come back to draw — something that took courage and character when everything seemed lost.

We lost the replay on Saturday by a single point and here again with a total of 14 wides as against a total of 6 for Limerick, we kicked ourselves out of the Munster semi-final against Cork. It was a most disappointing result when we consider that Waterford had more than a 60-40 share of the play and possession.

Full credit to the team manager and selectors who had built this group into a very nice team who had speed, skill and fitness to a greater degree than their opponents. It does hold out hope for the future. What a great difference a good place-kicker would have made.

We have now lost both under-age Munster championships (minor and Under-21 by a single point).

Council Elections Postponed To June 1991

and at which Cllr. Browne presided.

Addressing the delegates after a most sumptuous meal excellently served, the Minister disclosed that the local elections scheduled for June which were postponed would now not take place until June 1991. Mr. Flynn said that local government was crying out for reform and it would be pointless to proceed with the elections of new members to the existing inadequate structures.

Mr. Flynn said that these structures required to be completely overhauled and it was for that reason that the government had decided to postpone the local elections until next year. "The existing system must be adapted to meet real needs and concerns — the needs of to-day," he said.

The Minister also told the delegates that for the future the cost of repairing and maintaining courthouses would be recouped to the local authorities by the Department of Justice. He also disclosed that between now and 1993, the government planned to spend £900 million on road improvements with the EC providing £451 million in grants.

No Seat Belt — Damages Award Cut By 10p.c.

A High Court judge said in Dublin last Thursday that a man who was seriously injured in a road accident should suffer a 10 per cent cut in his damages because he had not been wearing a seat belt at the time.

Mr. Justice Hamilton, President of the High Court, awarded £86,116 damages and costs to Brendan Wallace (62), married, a commercial traveller of Bushy Park Lawns, Newcastle Road, Galway.

Mr. Wallace, who brought his personal injuries action against Edward Flahavan & Sons Ltd., KilmacThomas, Co. Waterford, suffered severe whiplash injuries to his neck.

He claimed that a van belonging to Flahavan & Sons was in collision with his car at a bend on a narrow road between Ballyhaunis and Kilkelly in Co. Mayo on September 15, 1987.

In a reserved judgment, Mr. Justice Hamilton said he was satisfied that, as a direct consequence of the injuries, Mr. Wallace was unable to continue his duties as a commercial traveller in the north-west for the multi-national firm of A. H. Robins & Co. Ltd. and had thus been dismissed from his employment.

The judge held that the defendant's van was being driven too fast and was not as close as it could have been to the lefthand carriageway, and that this was the cause of the accident.

He said the evidence was that Mr. Wallace had not been wearing a safety belt and this contributed to his injuries. He made a deduction of 10 per cent because of this.

There were other deductions from the overall award of £103,680 and the president entered judgment for the final figure of £86,116 in favour of Mr. Wallace.
