NEW MODERN COACH FOR DUNGARVAN-DUBLIN SERVICE

Following Pensman's recent criticism in his Spotlight column in the "Leader" concerning the standard of service and the type of buses used by Bus Eireann on their Dungarvan-Dublin service, Deputy Jackie Fahey took the matter up with Bus Eireann.

In a phone call from Dublin on Tuesday evening, Deputy Fahey informed the "Leader" that as a result of his representations, Bus Eireann was to provide a new coach for this service. "I have been assured that it will be one of the most modern of its kind and that it will be in service before the end of this month," the Deputy stated.

[Editor's Note: We welcome this news and note with satisfaction the assurance given by Bus Eireann to Deputy Fahey.]

Cardinal O Fiaich Dies Unexpectedly In France

Deep and profound shock was caused throughout the entire country when the news was announced last night (Tuesday) that Cardinal Tomas O Fiaich, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of all Ireland had died unexpectedly in Toulouse hospital, in the south of France at 7 o'clock (Irish time) that evening.

Cardinal O Fiaich arrived in Lourdes leading a 600 strong annual pilgrimage from the Armagh diocese on Monday evening and even though his doctors did not think he was looking well he shrugged off their anxiety saying that he would feel better after a good night's rest.

However he showed no improvement on Tuesday and entered hospital in Lourdes and as his condition worsened as the day went on he was transferred to the hospital in Toulouse where his death took place at 7 p.m.

Cardinal Tomas was an outstanding cleric who loved Ireland and everything it stood for. A fluent Gaelic speaker he was a man of the people and loved nothing better than to be among the members of his flock. His pastoral duties saw him making frequent visits throughout Ireland and he delighted the crowds that flocked into Ardmore two years ago when he visited the town of St. Declan for the special celebrations there.

His unexpected passing will be mourned throughout the length and breadth of the land. Radharc na Trionoide go raibh aige ins na bhFlaitheas anois.

WHAT MUST I DO?

It is evident from the first reading that people were flocking to hear Peter preach on the necessity of being a follower of Christ, and they were so impressed by his teaching that great numbers believed, and wanted to know what they had to do. Peter's response was: "you must repent," and therein lies the key to bringing about a transformation in one's way of life. In short, you must turn away from sin. And, having thus prepared the way, you must wash yourself in the waters of Baptism; and from thereon, the Holy Spirit, whom you will have received through the Sacrament, He will help and guide you. Of course, you will have to go to Him, talk to Him and ask Him for counsel and guidance. There are times when He'll speak to you through hearing the Gospels, through the Mass, through discussing the Faith etc. Do listen, because He will always respond in one way or another.

The reading also reminds us of our own Baptism, and so, to ensure that we are living as befits a child of God, we ought to ask ourselves: are we Christ-like in our lives? Do we adhere to the standards ordained by the Master or do we follow the ways of the world? I followed part of the debate in the House of Commons regarding the unborn child, and especially the duplicity with which some members dealt with the sacredness of life. They meant it was sacred all right, but! For when the vote was taken, you immediately realised that their ideas of morality were bounded and limited by human interests. It is no wonder the world is in a mess, and, I'm afraid, so it will continue unless man finds the God solution. So, we have got to beware of the many false teachers, who do not always mean what they say! Hence, we have not only to guard against false shepherds, but we have also to make sure that we ourselves live by the spirit of Christ. That means we try to fulfil God's will in all our ways. Just ask yourself. Do you find joy in giving and helping? Where God is concerned, are you a fair-weather friend? As a father or a mother or child etc., do you discharge your duties faithfully? Are you the sort who relishes in destroying people's characters. There are times when we all fall short of what is good, but, are we prepared to put our finger on the black spot and root it out?

I asked someone recently what he thought of those who behave like "dynamite" when talking about their neighbours. Well, he said "I once told a priest that I'd spoken badly about someone", and his reply was "you take a pillow full of feathers, and throw them to the wind as you walk from here to the Pike. Then, try to gather them as you walk back to town." It brings home the irreparable harm caused by gossiping. It also tells us how sometimes it is almost impossible to undo the harm caused by the wagging tongue. So, whatever our weakness, let us take immediate steps to wipe the slate clean. You see, we've no problem about putting our finger on the other fellow's faults, and, if you are honest, you'll have little difficulty in locating the centre of your own trouble. Then, having made your peace with God, it is essential you continue to nourish yourself on the Eucharist.

Peter in the second reading and John in the Gospel portray Jesus in the role of a Shepherd, but do note that this Shepherd was prepared to suffer and to die for His flock. Peter is saying to all those, who were so moved and converted as a result of the Easter triumph, that following the steps of Christ is hard and difficult. He suffered. They too must be prepared to shoulder and bear the trials and troubles that may come their way. Of course, the message is also for our benefit. Hence, being faithful to the Christian life is our opportunity to make reparation to God for all His goodness. Have no fear. Jesus will be by your side. And, you'll find, the more you do for Him, the more you'll love Him.

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

In the Gospel John paints a picture of the relationship that ought to exist between Christ and His sheep. The shepherd watches carefully. He is ready to ward off dangers. He leads them to rich pastures. And, when evening falls, he sees them back to the safety of the sheepfold. The sheep know him. When they hear his voice, they listen and follow. Clearly, the well-being of the Christian depends on his listening to Jesus, and abiding by His words. There are many false shepherds looking for followers. Because they have not the true interests of their listeners at heart, they make rash and foolish promises. Be warned. The blind do not lead the blind! Christ is the one who came so that His followers might enjoy life to the full. He is the one who so loved His sheep that He laid down His life for them. He is the true Shepherd.

In the second reading we saw that Christ is the shepherd and guardian of souls. John unfolds the same theme in the Gospel: he, however, takes us a step further. He points out that the inevitable result is unity. All members are one in spirit both among themselves and with God. They all entered through the same gateway, Baptism. Those who enter, like the sheep, follow Christ, the Good Shepherd. They live within the fold, which is God's will as expressed through the Commandments. And, when they move into the pastures of prayer and the Sacraments, they grow strong, and become more like God. They remain close to their Shepherd. They know His voice, and they listen. Linked together through Baptism, they all believe the same truths, and sit at the same Eucharistic table. They are one with each other, and they are one with Christ.

Pictured at the Mercy Convent, Dungarvan recently, are members of Young Ireland Committee, teachers and friends, who helped to organise a very successful Fashion Show, proceeds of which went to help the People In Need.

Senator Carmencita Hederman Visits Waterford Tidy Towns

On Saturday last, April 28 Senator Carmencita Hederman visited some Co. Waterford towns and villages participating in this year's Tidy Towns competition. As a director of First National Building Society, the national sponsors, Senator Hederman hopes to see as many new entries as possible and, in an effort to achieve this, the entry date has been extended by Bord Failte.

In Ardmore Senator Hederman was shown the storm damage: fences swept away and hedges ruined. She visited the new school and admired the excellent planting done for the Entente Florale. She was shown the superb round tower in the graveyard and the ruins of the old church with 10th century plaques.

Father Meehan and Jim McGrath together with Lisa Walsh and Davy Foley of the Tidy Towns Committee met Senator Carmencita Hederman in Clashmore. She admired this lovely little village which retains its old world charm and the planting over the bridge where she planted a tree during her visit.

In Cappoquin Senator Carmencita Hederman was taken around by John Fraher and met Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Shea. She had a quick look around the town, admiring many very good shop fronts and fine buildings.

In Ballymacarbry Senator Carmencita Hederman met Cait O'Keeffe, Michael Danaher and Nora Doocey in the Oriel Bar and heard the up to date Tidy Towns news. She visited Mr. and Mrs. Pat Melody and saw their ponies.

Know Your Rights

Q. — My husband has been out of work since he was made redundant in 1987. I have been offered a place on a full-time FAS non-craft training course which I would dearly like to do. However, I have been told that if I take this course my husband will lose the increase he gets for me as well as half the rate for our children. If this is true there would be no point in my doing the course. Can you advise?

A. — The Social Welfare (No. 2) Act 1987 amended the definition of "adult dependant." Since this Act came into force in early 1988, a person participating in a full-time FAS non-craft training course is no longer regarded as a dependant.

However, in your particular case, as your husband's claim commenced prior to the coming into effect of this Act and his claim has remained unbroken since then, the old rules apply and your husband should continue to receive the full-rate for your children and the increase for you if you take up the FAS course.

Q. — My Unemployment Benefit is almost used up and I am about to go onto Assistance. For the past few months I have had part-time job for two evenings a week, with the permission of the exchange which pays me my full benefit. What effect will this part-time evening work have on my assistance?

A. — A person on Unemployment Benefit who has 78 weeks of PRSI paid in the previous three years may be allowed to do spare-time work i.e. work which is done outside their normal working hours and still be paid their full benefit.

However, the position will be different when you go on to Assistance. In this case if you do any work whatsoever in the 24 hour period, you must sign off for that day and you won't receive any payments for the day at the exchange. The earnings from your job will not be assessed against your Unemployment Assistance.

If this part-time work is likely to last for at least two months, it could be worthwhile going onto the part-time Job Incentive Scheme. Under this Scheme you can do part-time work of up to 24 hours each week and, in addition, you can be paid a supplement of £30 per week, if you are single or £50 if you are married, at the exchange. Enquire about this at the exchange.

Kilmac' Man Exhibits His Paintings In Cork

'Horses, Hurlers and Hookers,' an exhibition of paintings by Paul Downey was officially opened by former Taoiseach Mr. Jack Lynch at the Lavitt's Quay Gallery in Cork last Monday, May 7. The exhibition which is presented by the Frank Lewis Gallery, Killarney will continue until Saturday, May 19 (Tuesday to Saturday, 11 a.m. to 5.30 p.m.).

In this exhibition Paul Downey's paintings are attempting to convey "the power and urgency and sometimes danger" of the split second highlight that makes sports memorable; the "animal passion" of hurling, the "game of all skills — of striking running with, and controlling the ball." For Downey hurling is one of the most tremendous games. "There is nothing to compare with the atmosphere and the special buzz of a Munster hurling final," he says.

But he is also a keen follower of sports in other codes such as horse racing, football, rugby, golf, soccer, bike racing and even American football. Over the years he has developed the ability to freeze a sporting highlight in his mind and his artistic ambition is the expression of the essence and the spirit of a particular sport. He can focus attention on these particular elements in a way that could never be done in a photograph.

A native of Kilmac-thomas, Co. Waterford, Paul Downey is a committed watercolourist. He is a graduate of both Waterford and Cork Schools of Art. A member of the Garda Force, he has worked in Killarney since 1980 where he is a Detective Sergeant. He is married and has four daughters.

Paddy Lane MEP On Waterford Constituency Visit

Paddy Lane, MEP Fianna Fail, paid a visit to the Waterford Constituency on Wednesday, May 2 and following a day long tour he stated that it was vital that each county had its views put forward in the European Parliament. Towards this end he said that not only would he visit Waterford regularly but he would also pursue vigorously the interests of local groups in Brussels.

The visit was organised by Pat Leahy, Secretary of Waterford Comhairle Dail Ceanntair who with Maurice Tobin Chairman and Deputy Brendan Kenneally accompanied Mr. Lane on his 15-hour itinerary around the county.

Among the places visited were Waterford Co-op Cheese Factory in Kilmeaden including a meeting with Co-op Chairman Mr. John Barry and Chief Executive Mr. Stephen O'Connor;

Tramore, where there were meetings with business and tourism interests; Dunmore and Passage East for discussions with local fishing Co-ops and Dungarvan where, among other places, he made a personal call to the "Leader Office."

Mr. Lane also met representatives of the IFA and ICMSA to discuss a variety of farming matters at various levels.

In regard to the coastal erosion problems which were so greatly aggravated along the Waterford coastline by the savage storms of the past winter, Mr. Lane told the "Leader" that it was dishonest for people to promise millions for coastal erosion repairs from Brussels when these schemes were not in place. Now that coastal erosion problems were arising all around Europe a new scheme of assistance must be devised with adequate funding and Mr. Lane promised that he would support such an initiative in the European Parliament.

DISPUTE AT CRYSTAL PLANTS
Referring to the ongoing dispute at the Waterford Crystal plants in Waterford City and Dungarvan, Mr. Lane expressed the hope that the problems could be resolved at the earliest opportunity. "All problems are eventually solved by sitting around a table in a quiet and sensible manner. Hopefully common sense will prevail and Waterford Glass can maintain its premium status in the interests of the workforce, management and people of Waterford," he said.

The day's itinerary concluded with a meeting and exchange of views with the Fianna Fail organisation in the county.

£9,000 Court Award For Injured Lismore Woman

A two-car collision near the village of Rathcormac on March 28 last year was recalled at Youghal Circuit Court before Judge Anthony G. Murphy last week.

A housewife and sheep farmer, Mrs. Diana K. Dungan, Glencairn, Lismore, claimed £15,000 damages for injuries sustained as a result of the negligent driving on the occasion of an English holidaymaker, Peter R. Bell, Tramier, Merseyside, Liverpool.

Liability was admitted by the defendant for whom an offer of £6,000 had been made to Mrs. Dungan.

However after hearing details of the injuries sustained by the plaintiff when Bell's car crashed into the back of hers, Judge Murphy ruled that the £6,000 offer was not enough.

He awarded Mrs. Dungan a decree for £9,000 general damages together with £375 agreed special damages, plus costs of the action.

Mrs. Dungan told the court that as a result of the crash she developed a serious neck injury which affects her work in the home, on the farm, and also her social activities.

Recent Deaths

Mr. John (Jack) Noble

An air of gloom was cast over the Old Boro' and environs with the news of the passing of Mr. John (Jack) Noble, 65 Main Street, Dungarvan, which occurred on Saturday, April 28. Son of John and Kathleen, Jack was aged 82 years and a native of Offaly. For many years he was employed at Moloney's, but to us Dungarvanites Jack Noble was synonymous with William Foley's. He took a great pride in his work which was a true vocation to him. His caring and courteous manner made him a great favourite. Rich or poor, Jack Noble dealt with and served you in a most conscientious manner.

A keen interest in horse racing, a social drink and the customary game of 45 in Maisies or Landers was Jack's recreation. Jack was also involved in the fortunes of the GAA with his adopted Deise and native Tricolour counties to the fore in his hurling and football thoughts.

We offer sincere sympathy to his sons, daughters, relatives and many friends on their loss. Men like Jack are not born everyday, hence we are the poorer for his passing.

On Sunday evening the removal took place from Kiely's Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church where Very Rev. Fr. Power, P.P., blessed and received the remains, assisted by Rev. W. Carey, C.C., Very Rev. J. O'Sullivan, Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C., and Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A.

On Monday morning the holy sacrifice of the Mass was celebrated by Rev. J. Kiely, C.C. for the happy repose of Jack's soul. A large attendance was present for the funeral obsequies including Very Rev. Canon Farrell, P.P., Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A. and Rev. J. Hooper, O.S.A. Beautiful and appropriate music was provided by the Abbeyside Parish Choir accompanied by Finbar Keohan (organist). Final graveside prayers were recited by Rev. J. Kiely, C.C.

Chief mourners — John, Adrian, William (sons), Kathleen and Eileen (daughters), Eamonn Kelly (son-in-law), James, Luke, Eleanor, Catriona, Mary and Ann Brennan, Susan, Shane and Edward Kelly (grandchildren), Annie Mulcahy (sister-in-law), Joe Mulcahy (brother-in-law), and a wide circle of relatives and friends.

Miss Mary Power

With deep sadness we write on the passing of Mrs. Mary Power, 39 Mitchel Street, Dungarvan and late of Ballymullala, which occurred on Monday, April 30, following a period of ill-health which was borne with dignity and courage. Hospitalised since January, Mary was aged 74 years and was a hard working woman all her life. In her younger days she was employed at Waterford Co-op and some years later she spent a period on the Isle of Wight. Her last posting was in the Apple Factory where she was a great favourite with both management and colleagues alike.

A deeply religious person, Mary was a Child of Mary and helped with the many projects in fundraising for the Church. Predeceased by her brother Joseph by 3 years, Mary was the last surviving member of a well known Ballymullala family who are widely acclaimed for their agricultural expertise.

We sympathise with her sister-in-law Bridget, nephew Jim, nieces Helen O'Connor, Bridget Broderick and relatives on their loss.

On Monday evening in the presence of relatives and friends, Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A. and Sr. M. Baptist said the Rosary at the hospital mortuary. On Tuesday evening the removal took place to St. Mary's Parish Church and en route the cortege paused in prayerful silence outside Mary's residence. Rev. J. Kiely, C.C., blessed and received the remains assisted by Fr. Rogers, C.C., Fr. W. Carey, C.C., Very Rev. W. Callanan, P.P., and Rev. M. O'Byrne, C.C.

On Wednesday morning, following Requiem Mass celebrated by Rev. J. Kiely, C.C., at which grandnieces Lorraine O'Connor and Margaret Power read the Lessons, the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. J. O'Sullivan, Rev. Fr. Rogers, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Carey, C.C., joined the large concourse of mourners in paying their final respects to one whose passing is very much regretted.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mr. Samuel (Sam) White

The locality learned with deep regret of the passing of 93 year old Sam White, South Terrace, Dungarvan at Dungarvan hospital last Friday. A carpenter of high acclaim, Sam spent most of his working life in England.

We tender our condolences to his relatives and friends on their bereavement.

Removal of the remains took place on Saturday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church and following the 11.45 a.m. Mass on Sunday, the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. Canon G. Power, P.P., recited graveside prayers in the presence of a representative gathering.

(Full obituary in next issue.)

Mr. David Cunningham

It is with deep regret we record the passing of Mr. David Cunningham, Boolattin, Leamybrien, which sad event occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Monday, May 8.

Removal was on Tuesday evening to Kilrossanty Church. Following Requiem Mass on Wednesday morning interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To his wife Mary, sons, daughter and relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.

Full obituary next issue. (Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

DEATH OF MRS.

LENA FITZGERALD
The entire area were shocked when they learned of the unexpected death of Mrs. Lena Fitzgerald, Upper Piltown, at her home on Thursday last.

Despite a physical handicap, Lena never allowed this to weigh her down. Always bright and cheery she enjoyed each day in the company of her family helping with the household chores. A devoted mother and grandmother she will be sadly missed by her sons, Jimmy and Richie, her daughter-in-law Mary and grandchildren Elaine and Paul. Her deep Christian faith was an example to us all. May she now rest in peace.

Our deepest and heartfelt sympathy to her family, her brother and all her relatives and friends.

Her remains were taken to Clashmore Church on Friday evening from Egan's Funeral Home. Following Requiem Mass on Saturday at noon, burial took place in Piltown cemetery. Rev. Fr. Billy Meehan, C.C. officiated.

LATE JOHN (JACK) COFFEY

Deep regret was expressed on the passing of Mr. John (Jack) Coffey, Glendalaughin, Ballymacarbry, which occurred at St. Anne's, Melville, Clonmel on Tuesday, May 1. Deceased who was in his 76th year, was a man who possessed many fine qualities and was the last surviving member of an old and respected Nire Valley family.

He was a member of the Nire junior football team that took the first title to the Valley in 1942. He had a remarkable facility in recalling and relating experiences of his earlier years. He was a thoughtful neighbour who was always ready to lend a helping hand if required and he is deeply and justifiably mourned by all who held him in the warmest regard.

The measure of the esteem and high regard in which deceased was held was clearly indicated by the representative groups of mourners paying their final respects to a dear friend at the removal of his remains with the coffin draped in the Blue and Gold colours of his beloved Nire, from St. Anne's Nursing Home, Clonmel, to St. Helen's Church, Nire Valley.

On Thursday morning after Requiem Mass the funeral took place to Modeligo Church where interment took place in the family plot. To his relatives we tender our deepest condolences. Ar Dheis De go raibh a anam.

LATE WILLIAM JOHN (BILLY) O'BYRNE

It is with feelings of deep regret we record the passing of Mr. William John (Billy) O'Byrne, Knockeen, Grange, which sad event took place at St. Vincent's Hospital, Dublin, on Wednesday, May 2.

Deceased who was in his early sixties was a man who possessed many fine qualities. A kind and loving husband and father he will be sadly missed not only by his family, but also by his many friends.

He was a good friend and caring neighbour and was always on hand to help in any way. His passing leaves a void in the local community.

On Thursday evening his remains were removed to Grange Parish Church followed by a large cortege of mourners. Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul on Friday morning after which interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To his wife and family, his brother Pa, we tender our sympathy.

LATE LAURENCE (LAR) KIRWAN

With sadness we record the death which took place suddenly in England of Mr. Laurence (Lar) Kirwan, Ballybeg, Newcastle.

The deceased was a man of charm and personality and a wonderful friend and neighbour, who deservedly enjoyed the esteem and respect of the entire community.

On Saturday evening his remains were removed to Grange Parish Church. On Sunday morning after Requiem Mass the funeral took place to the Ancient Church at Tullaghmeelan, where interment was made in the family plot.

To his daughter and family, we tender our sympathy.

LATE ELLEN

GABRIEL HACKETT

It is our sad duty to write on the demise of Miss Ellen Gabriel Hackett, Frehans, Newcastle, which sad event took place suddenly on Thursday, May 1.

A member of a most respected South Tipperary family, her passing was learned with much regret by all sections of the community. The esteem in which she and her family was held was testified to by the large concourse that attended the removal of her remains from O'Donoghue's Funeral Home, Clonmel, to Ballybacon Parish Church on Wednesday evening and the interment which took place in the adjoining cemetery after Requiem Mass on Thursday morning.

To her family, sincere sympathy is extended.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

TROOP MEETING

Last Saturday night's troop meeting was full uniform. After prayers the patrols were asked to check-up on the tracking signs and do a poster of them. Our monthly drill competition then took place with the early casualties given clean-up duties after a series of left, right and about turns etc. Brian McNamara filled third position, Mark O'Riordan second and this month's winner was Padraig Verling.

The patrols were then given a list of questions for the "Abbeyside Challenge." These were questions spread out all over the village, ranging from the speed limit at the New Line, telephone number at Kyne Park, distance of Clonea from Coolagh and many more.

As well as getting as many correct answers as possible there was a time limit with speed coming into it. When all the answers were checked John Paul Cosgrave, Derek Kenneally and Brian Carroll's Kestrels were victorious with 13 out of 20 in a nifty time of 55 minutes. Second was Liam Moore's Kestrels with 10/20 in 68 minutes; third were Donnacha Cosgrave, Brian McNamara and Colin O'Connor of the Eagles in 70 minutes also with 10/20; fourth were Brian 'Box Car' O'Mahoney's largely assembled Tigers with 9/20 in 61 minutes with Aidan Mullarkey's Wolf next with 8/20 in 63 minutes.

The meeting ended with notices and prayers.

NEXT WEEK'S MEETING

Next week's mufty meeting has been specially engineered, designed and planned out by Sean Kelleher of the Wolf Patrol. Excitement, newness and never done before are Sean's guarantees. All scouts are asked to turn up in runners and tracksuit, plus a bicycle. The meeting may over-run until 9.15 p.m. so be prepared.

THE ULTIMATE CHALLENGE

Preparations are now at an advanced stage with the venue (Dogleaf Park, Abbeyside Soccer Pitch) now secure, the referee is also secured (Vincent Tobin, Ballinroad F.C.). The Scout (younger scouts) and Scouting Present (older scouts and leaders) squads are now posted at the Den, so, as they say, our cards are now firmly placed on the table, so the gauntlet is now down for the Scouting Past squad.

We hear that the Scouting Past squad is so strong and going back so far that Baden Powell may be making a guest appearance (or should B.P. be P. W., Paddy Whelan). So keep May 20 free in your diary for the biggest festival of soccer the village will ever witness. More info next week.

PARADE

Next Friday night, May 11, is the date for our May Monthly Parade, so all scouts, link-badge and leaders are reminded to be down in full and correct uniform at 7.10 p.m.

— Scribe.

"Remembering Other Days"

The title for this photo for our "Remembering Other Days" this week could well be 'they were boys then' but since it was taken, the years have passed inexorably on and for most of them their life span has now expired. This was the Dungarvan minor football team of 1934 taken at the Gaelic Field in Dungarvan prior to playing a game in that year. Included with the members of the team are a few of the club's staunchest supporters at the time. Standing at back (l. to r.) — John Hogan, Michael Fraher, Paddy Barry, Paddy Noonan, Eddie Power, Tommy Quinn, Dick Gough, Gerald Monahan, Tommy O'Sullivan; Middle row — Liam Kelly, Liam Morrissey, John M. Dunlea, Paddy Wyse, Mickey Landers, Jimmy Waters, J. Wade, Willie Duggan; Front row — Jimmy Barron, John Kiely, Mick Kiely.

P.S. — Due to the poor condition of the photo it was not possible to obtain a good reproduction so the blemishes must be excused.

PENSMAN Takes You . . . . . Behind The SPOTLIGHT

THE ROAD TO ITALY LOOMS AHEAD

With the first series of games in the World Cup due to start in little more than four weeks, the road to Italy looms ahead and soccer fervour will reach fever pitch from Friday, June 8 when the great spectacular gets under way in Rome until the final game due to be played, also in Rome, on Saturday, June 30.

Even those who do not ordinarily follow the code will, we have no doubt, find themselves embroiled in the excitement but we believe that the general approach to the great soccer extravaganza should be based on what our soccer supremo, Jack, said when he addressed a gathering of legal luminaries in Killarney last week-end and told them, "To say we'll win is nonsense. It's Ireland's first World Cup and we're at 40/1 but we'll compete, enjoy ourselves and frighten a few."

Starting this week the "Leader" is running its own World Cup competitions for which there will be some quite excellent prizes which are sponsored by Ger Wyley, Footwear and Sportswear Specialist, O'Connell, Street, Dungarvan. There is a special colouring competition for the Under-12's while there is a name quiz for adults.

To facilitate those wishing to enter these competitions we have (by kind permission) placed a number of containers with selected newsagents in various areas into which entries can be placed during the next few weeks. So go to it and get yourself into the mood and possibly win a World Cup memento.

HE DIED 85 YEARS AGO THIS MONTH

James Francis Xavier O'Brien had the rather doubtful distinction of being the last man to be sentenced under British law to be hanged, drawn and quartered.

That was in 1867, following his participation in the Fenian Rising of that year but the death sentence was commuted to penal servitude for life. However, in 1870 a new Act came into force which appointed hanging or beheading as the worst the law could do to a man or woman convicted of treason.

Born to wealth and industry, James F.X. O'Brien was a native of Dungarvan, where his father was a merchant, owning vessels trading with Britain and the Continent of Europe. Though he joined Fintan Lawlor in 1848 and later devoted all his talents to the Fenian movement, in between periods of revolutionary activity he displayed the business acumen which he had obviously inherited.

He travelled widely in America and took part in a colourful military expedition to Nicaragua but with the rise of Parnell he became attracted to parliamentary politics.

James Francis Xavier O'Brien was elected M.P. for South Mayo but he later switched to Cork City which he represented until his death which took place on May 28, 1905.

We are indebted to Nicolas Graves of Ring for this interesting bit of history and wonder if any further background information as to the family and associations of James F.X. O'Brien with Dungarvan might be available.

MAJOR IMPROVEMENTS TO BALLYDUFF COMMUNITY HALL

St. Michael's Hall in Ballyduff Upper is at present undergoing major improvement and extension works which, when completed, will increase the accommodation space and provide for a larger stage area.

In recent years the village of Ballyduff has been winning widespread publicity through the marvellous success which the Annual West Waterford Drama Festival has won and which now attracts entries from drama groups from all over Ireland.

The festival is based in St. Michael's Hall, the building of which has proved to be one of the outstanding achievements of the Ballyduff Branch of Muintir Na Tire, but so great has the public demand for tickets for the festival grown in latter years that the Community Council has now taken the brave step of taking on a £20,000 extension and improvement scheme at the Hall.

The work is proceeding quickly and the fine weather has greatly facilitated the contractors on the job, the local firm of Dave Feeney & Sons, Kilcoran, Conna. It is expected that the work will be completed by September.

Speaking to local member of the Community Council, Mr. Eamonn Bolger, during the week, he told us that they had hopes, with the additional accommodation and extra facilities including a larger stage which will be available at St. Michael's once this latest "face-lift" is completed, of staging the All-Ireland Drama Festival in Ballyduff at a future date.

He also mentioned that as part of their fund-raising drive to pay for the work now being carried out, there would be a sponsored benefit night at Youghal Greyhound Track on Friday night, May 18.

Indeed the members of the Community Council in Ballyduff are to be congratulated on their initiative and courage. They are certainly proving that nothing succeeds like success and deserve the fullest support.

IMEACHTAI SA RINN

The Halla Pobail in Rinn o gCuanach will be the focus of a great deal of unusual activity over this coming week-end.

On Friday night commencing at 8 p.m., Muintir na Rinne will flock to the Ionaid Pobail when Donncha O Gallchobhair, Cathaoirleach Udaras Na Gaeltachta will visit Gaeltacht Na Rinne to present the £4,000 award which Coiste Pobail na Rinne won in the recent Udaras competition "An Pobal Beo."

Following the formal presentation, the occasion will be rounded off with an oiche of ceol and rince.

Then on Sunday night next, Muintir na Rinne will have the opportunity of seeing top-class theatrical entertainment when Ireland's only Irish language theatre group, "Na Fanaithe," will pay a visit during their tour of Gaeltacht areas with their production of Barrie Keefe's "My Girl." Based in Galway, Na Fanaithe emphasise their ties with the Gaeltacht areas of Ireland which because of their isolation are hardly ever on the track usually beaten by touring theatre companies and music groups. The show begins in the Halla Pobail at 8.30 p.m.

DEATH OF HIGHLY ACCOMPLISHED ACTOR

And while on this topic of touring theatrical companies, it was with extreme regret that we read last week-end of the death of Ronald Ibbs which took place at the age of 74, after a long illness in San Antonio, Texas. In the 1930's, 40's and early 50's he was one of the most popular and highly accomplished actors on the Irish scene.

Those of us whose memories can stretch that far back will remember Ronald Ibbs playing at the Town Hall in Dungarvan as a member of Lord Longford's touring theatrical company when they brought wonderful theatrical entertainment to the town in those bygone years shortly after World War II.

P.D.s NATIONAL CONFERENCE 1990

Galway's Leisureland Complex is the venue for the 5th National Conference of the Progressive Democrats which takes place over the coming week-end from Friday, May 11 to Sunday, May 13.

The conference will be addressed by, among others, the party's three Ministers in Government, Mr. Desmond O'Malley, Leader and Minister for Industry and Commerce, Ms. Mary Harney, Minister for Environmental Protection and Mr. Robert Molloy, Minister for Energy.

In a programme embracing over 200 motions and submissions, a total of 16 motions have been sent in from the branches in Waterford.

Tramore Branch makes the submissions that Local Authorities such as Urban Councils and Town Commissioners be either scrapped or given more powers and also that shopkeepers should be obliged to clean up outside their own premises while environmental studies should be introduced in schools.

The Ardmore Branch submits that the revenue from televisions and radio licences be divided among all national television and radio stations while the Lismore/Cappoquin Branch has included a motion that television deflector systems be properly licensed so as to provide economic access to television stations.

No doubt our daily papers over the week-end will give this latest party political clambake the usual full coverage.

THE TIDE OF MEMORY

This week our choice for the ballad corner is a newcomer to the scene and as far as we are aware this is the first time it has been published. Called "The Tide Of Memory," it has been composed by Miss Eily Lyons who now resides in Limerick City and it nostalgically recalls the days of her youth around the area of Knockanore in West Waterford where she was born. "The Tide Of Memory" can be sung to the tune of "The Derry Air."

We love to watch the pulsing tide of memory
Come rushing down the cataract of years,
Our hearts are stirred by poignant reminiscences
Of simple joys, bright hopes and childish fears!
Beloved faces peep at us through time's soft mists;
We see their smiles reflected in the flowers,
And glean a foretaste of their Heavenly bliss,
As once-familiar names call out to ours!

These mem'ries are not bound by time or space,
They leap from childhood into adult years,
From human joys to realms of Divine Grace,
Down happy laughter into silent tears!
In Ballynatray's deep woods my dreams are rooted,
Where first my eyes absorbed the light of day!
Molana Abbey sanctifies that beauty
Which must have helped the ancient monks to pray!

My thoughts can lead me down the rugged pathways Neath whispering trees — towards the church and school
Where we were taught how to traverse life's highways
And make God's will our guiding light and rule.
I stand upon the bridge which spans the river,
Still flowing through that Valley of Glendine;
No other sights or sounds can ever sever
The links that bind me to that spot sublime!

In Boula's fields I see bright dewdrops glistening
On mushrooms — gleaming in the morning light;
Or find myself in Garrymore — still listening
For skylarks songs to help my own take flight!
I cycle down "Beach Road" to Knockanore,
And gather hazel nuts along the way!
Or climb the hill to Cherrymount once more,
From where I'll see Youghal Harbour miles away!

God bless you, dear Glendine and Ballynatray,
With all the people who are part of you!
May peace and happiness forever stay,
And may all hearts, to God, be ever true!
Our lives must tread the path which God's will indicates,
While making of each cross a "stepping stone"
Upon our pilgrim way to Heaven's gates
Where we can hope to hear God say "well done."

N.B. — Place-names are all in West Waterford County — except Youghal Harbour which is in Co. Cork! Molana Abbey is on the bank of the River Blackwater!

Comhaltas Feile In Kilmacthomas

All roads lead to Kilmacthomas this Sunday for the 2nd Annual Feile Lar Deise. Following the very successful inauguration of this traditional music festival last year, the local CCE branch are confident that all visitors to this event will have a very enjoyable day.

PRO, John Hughes, speaking during the week, said that last year they had to compete with Waterford hurlers match against Cork. This year they are keeping their fingers crossed the

The Feile commences on Saturday night with an Aifreann Gaeleach in Stradbally followed by an Oiche Cheoil in the GAA Centre. The Sunday programme in Kilmacthomas commences with a parade of clubs and organisations led by the Bonmahon Pipe Band at 1 p.m. Street sessions will commence in the afternoon and if last year is only repeated there will be plenty of entertainment in the local hostelrys later in the night.

The Feile competitions confined to non-prizewinners at Fleadh Cheoil, give the younger musicians a reasonable chance of success. With medals available for 1, 2 and 3 prizewinners and special certificates of merit for all participants, the young performers are well catered for. Competitions are run not in age groupings but on school classes, i.e. 1st and 2nd; 3rd and 4th; 5th and 6th and post primary. There is a special competition this year for those who commenced in Comhaltas classes last September. Entries will be taken on the day at the Feile Office in the Courthouse.

WHERE WERE THE PARENTS?

On Sunday, April 23 we held our annual Opportunity Knocks. This was a great success and we are proud of all the winners and of all the competitors. But despite the fact that the members put a lot of hard work into this show, most of the parents never came to the show. In the audience, there were 8 parents, out of 100 members!

We lost money because of this, but the most disappointing fact is that most parents found it difficult to come and see their own child performing!

Blackwater Cycling Club

The Cappoquin Pork & Bacon Blackwater C.C. travelled to Fermoy, last Sunday and took part in the "Silver Pail Grand Prix." Once again the under-12's put us in the prizes. Paul Moore took second place in a very exciting finish losing first place by half a wheel. Vincent Lombard, Brian Moore and Sean Cotter (a new member in his first race) also took part in this race.

In the under-14 Bryan Geary finished 10th and Ken Moore, Shane Motherway and Kevin Cotter finished in the bunch. John Moore had to retire in the under-16s.

Denis McCarthy, Maurice Hickey and John Tracey rode very well in the Senior "C" race. Denis finished 8th, Maurice 10th and John 15th. This was a very fast race.

The weather in Fermoy was very suitable for cycling and both cyclists and supporters had a very enjoyable afternoon.

Our next event is a Charity Fair which is being held on Whit Sunday. Last year this tour was run for St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan and Rehab, Waterford. This year we have decided to run it for the "Cottage Hospital," Youghal. As everybody knows, the cut backs in the health services are affecting everybody, so hopefully the old people of Youghal and surrounding areas will benefit from this tour. Raffle tickets and sponsors cards for this tour can be had from Ger Flanagan, Youghal C.C. or Terry Moore of Cappoquin Pork & Bacon Blackwater C.C.

The tour is being run in conjunction with Youghal C.C.

Kinsalebeg Macra Na Feirme Notes

Congratulations to former member Siobhan Kiely of Old Parish, on her recent marriage to Ed Devlin of England.

Siobhan, who nurses in England, was a prominent member of Kinsalebeg Macra for many years, taking part in numerous competitions. She was part of the cast of "The Rose King of Gisors" which won the county final in Drama for Kinsalebeg a few years ago.

Congratulations also to club member Anne Lynch, who celebrated her 21st with a party in Whitechurch House on Friday, April 27. Anne was a member of the all-girl team who brought county honours to Kinsalebeg this year in Novice Debating. At the moment, our Cross-Country Quiz team are feverishly preparing to represent Waterford in the National Finals in the very near future. The club is very proud of its record in all manners of quizzes, and we are confident that Peter Kiely, Patricia Kiely, Liam Foley and Kevin O'Brien will give of their very best in Mullingar.

In addition, the club has the distinction of contesting the National Finals of the Mastermind Quiz Competition, which event occurs very soon. 'Mr. Quiz' himself, Peter Kiely, will be the man answering the questions in Dublin. A large contingent of club members are already planning to travel to both venues to lend their support. — Suzanne Hynes P.R.O.

The petition is being sponsored by forty five TDs representing all the major political parties, and by trade union and cultural groups and the clergy.

European Students' Conference In Dungarvan Was Huge Success

The conference of the European Pharmaceutical Students held recently in Dungarvan proved to be an outstanding success. The conference is held in one of the member countries of the European Pharmaceutical Students Committee (ESC) each year and competition to host it is strong.

Chairman of this year's organising committee is Christopher Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kelly, Chemists, Dungarvan who with Ahonda Lecky, Karen Quigley and David Hayes, all of whom are studying for higher degrees in Pharmacy in Dublin, worked extremely hard to make the conference the huge success it turned out to be.

Christopher stated, "we were fortunate that I had been involved with the ESC over the last number of years and knew that the facilities of the Clonea Strand Hotel were ideally suited to the requirements of the conference." And as a result of the hard work put in by Christopher and his student colleagues, Ireland's application to host the Conference in 1990 was accepted.

On Monday, April 16, a total of 70 European pharmacy students from 14 different countries gathered at Clonea Strand Hotel, Dungarvan for the tough, week-long conference which entailed seven three and half hour meetings including two lectures on conference topics. On Monday night the student delegates dined compliments of Steifel Laboratories and afterwards spent a relaxing time renewing old acquaintanceships and getting to know one another.

After meetings on Tuesday, the delegates toured the Sterling Drug plant where they were entertained to dinner by the management. Later the European visitors went on a "treasure hunt" among the local hostels in the town and thoroughly enjoyed meeting the locals and having a few not-so-quiet pints of Guinness — a real delicacy for foreigners. This proved, for most, to be "the high point" of the week.

A PROMISE TO COME BACK

Visits to Dublin and to Thomastown, Co. Kilkenny where a superb dinner and night's entertainment at the Mount Juliet Hotel was enjoyed, followed during the week and too quickly departure time came on Saturday.

All the delegates were sorry to be leaving but so delighted were they with the people and the country that all promised to come back again next year.

The conference itself, according to Christopher Kelly, was a huge success setting a standard which other host countries will find hard to match. He said that the organisers would like to thank the proprietors of Clonea Strand Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. John McGrath, and also the Management and staff, the sponsors who in addition to Steifel Laboratories and Sterling Drug also included Stafford Miller (UK) Ltd. and everybody in Dungarvan who helped to make the week such a phenomenal success.

Alzheimer Society Meeting In Waterford

The Alzheimer Society of Ireland will hold a public meeting in the Glenmore Room, Tower Hotel, Waterford on Thursday, May 17 at 8 p.m. for the purpose of establishing a Carers' Support Group in Waterford for those suffering from Alzheimer's Disease.

The Chairman of the Society, Mr. Michael H. Coote, will present a short video narrated by Dr. Jonathan Miller and give a talk about the problems of Carers and the assistance available from the Society.

Anyone interested in getting further information on the matter should contact Tony Barden at 051/772147.

How to store your food

HOW long can you safely store food in the 'fridge? Use these storage times as a guide to keeping food.

- Joints - 3 days
- Poultry - 2 days
- Sliced meat - 2 days
- Minced meat - 1 day
- Offal - 1 day
- Sausages - 3 days
- Bacon - 7 days
- Fish - on day of purchase
- Milk - 4-5 days
- Soft cheese - 2-3 days
- Hard cheese - 7-14 days
- Semi-hard cheese - 7-10 days
- Eggs - 3 weeks
- Pies - 2 days
- Ham - 2 days
- Casseroles - 2 days

Raw food carries bacteria which are killed when the food is cooked properly. As pre-cooked foods are not cooked again, it is important to prevent them from becoming contaminated with bacteria and raw foods.

Always cover raw foods and place them on the bottom shelf of the 'fridge so that they cannot drip on to cooked products (preferably keep cooked foods on a separate shelf).

Check and clean the salad tray regularly in case the raw food, such as meat, has dripped on to it.

Remember that when opened, canned foods should be removed from the can and treated as cooked food, ie wrapped, refrigerated and kept apart from raw foods.

Azaleas' chance lies in the soil

By Pete Moss

WE ARE now at the peak of the flowering season for some of our favourite yet fussier trees or shrubs - rhododendrons and azaleas.

They are closely related although most rhododendrons are larger and some varieties can reach 20 feet, though six feet is the usual limit for a garden type.

Azaleas tend to be less dominating although some will grow to 10 feet high and there are varieties of both that will bloom at other times of the year.

These plants are particularly popular with visitors to public gardens at this time of year, but many attempts to recreate such colourful displays of blooms and rich green foliage in the garden at home are doomed to failure.

This is due to the types preference for acid soils and a hatred of limey soils, which cause yellowing and a generally weak growth.

The way to raise them if your soil does not fit the bill is to create a special environment, either by filling a bed or tub with the soil type they prefer.

Problems

If space is a problem then you will be better off looking at dwarf rhododendron varieties such as lavender coloured Blue Tit or Red Elizabeth, which reach a maximum of three feet high.

Azaleas are also a better answer to space problems and generally look more delicate and less overpowering as well as offering more pastel shades.

Look out for popular varieties such as the pink Cecile, Orange Beauty and Koster's Brilliant Red.

Providing they are planted carefully in the first place, rhododendrons and azaleas do not require much looking after.

To maintain blooming you should break off dead flowers with finger and thumb and prune rhododendrons if they start to lose their bushy shape.

You can increase your stock by pegging down low branches in the summer and cutting them away and replanting once they have rooted - the practice known as layering - and you can increase your azaleas cheaply by sowing seed if you have a greenhouse.

When you buy your stock it is probably best to pay a little extra for a proprietary brand of soil or compost recommended for these two types.

Choose a site which gets some sun but remember that these trees are shallow-rooted and like a lot of shade and moisture at their base so water when the soil dries out and use a peat mulch to retain water.

If you live in a hard water area you should also avoid using tap water but collect rain water or even use the water left from defrosting the 'fridge.

Popular

Once you have prepared the site you will find yourself spoilt for choice when trying to decide what colour blooms you prefer, particularly from the rhododendron branch of the family, where virtually every shade is possible apart from a true blue.

Red remains one of the favourite hues with the crimson Britannia a popular variety and Doncaster and Lord Roberts others worth considering.

Pink Pearl is a favourite for pink displays but may be too large for most gardens, while Purple Splendour lives up to its name.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

ROLL OF HONOUR

Congratulations to Andre Lynch, Jacqueline Geoghegan, Debbie Landers and Elyane Hickey on their recent success in the Cappoquin/Lismore Credit Union Poster Competition. They are all pupils of St. Anne's Secondary School, Cappoquin and reflect great credit on their art teacher, Miss Rita O'Dwyer.

Well done also to Francis Lenane who was highly commended for his entry in the Texaco Competition.

COMPUTER FUND

A most successful dance was held at The Cats on April 11, in aid of The Computer Fund for St. Anne's School. Past pupil of the school, Paddy O'Brien and his band graciously gave of their time and talent — a great night resulted, the dance hall being filled to capacity. The money raised will help to pay for 4 new Apple Macintoshes Plus and Printers, already installed. These machines are very up to date.

Many thanks to all who helped to organise this most successful event — Tom Hickey, Parents' Council, Mr. and Mrs. Tobin, Cats Bar, all our sponsors and of course the one and only Paddy O'Brien and his Band.

CAPPOQUIN AND DISTRICT DAY CARE CENTRE

The Chairman and Committee of the above wish each and everyone that helped in anyway, no matter how little, to make the 3-Day Walk a huge success. A big thank you must go to Donnacha O'Dulaing, who gave his time, effort and energy to support this deserving cause. To the motorists "thank you," you were great and very courteous to our collectors. It was a most enjoyable and a lovely experience, especially the Mayoral Reception in Clonmel.

There are still a few sore feet around but it will be all worthwhile when we will have the centre built and working. Then and only then can you, the subscribers, be proud of your achievement.

MR. JOSEPH (JOE) O'FARRELL

The death took place at Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford, on Saturday last May 5, after a rather long illness, patiently borne, of Mr. Joseph (Joe) O'Farrell, Main Street, Cappoquin.

Of a quiet and retiring nature, his death, in the fullness of years, has left a void in the community.

A member of the farming community he farmed successfully at Coodelane, Lismore, until his retirement some years ago when he came to live in Cappoquin.

To his wife, sons, brother, sister, daughter-in-law, grandchildren and other relatives we tender deep and sincere sympathy on their loss.

At the removal and burial which took place at Mt. Melleray there were huge attendances. The funeral Mass in St. Mary's Church on Monday morning was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Francis, O.C.S.O., who was assisted by Very. Rev. W. Phelan, P.P., Cappoquin.

(Funeral arrangements by Maurice J. Noonan & Son, Funeral Directors, Cappoquin. Phone 058/54317 and 54044).

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

U-14's Win Western Title — Affane 5-3 St. Olivers 3-3 — Affane U-14's turned the form book upside down with a convincing win over a fancied St. Olivers side, in the Western football final at Modeligo last Sunday morning. It was a great team performance by the locals who had the lions share of the play all through and in fact their final tally should have been bigger.

It really was exciting football with both teams contributing to an entertaining match.

We were very strong in defence with goalie and backs knitting together in a very solid unit. Our centre-field more than held their own against a strong Olivers sector, and Eamonn and Paul were going as strong at the finish as they began. Our attack was well supplied with the ball and they moved quite well for some well worked scores.

While essentially it was a terrific team display we had outstanding performances from Brian McCarthy, Eamonn Murphy, Paul McLoughlin, Ray Curran and Anthony Prendergast.

Team — G. Arrigan, C. Scanlon, J. Fenton, J. Dalton, P. Cullinane, B. McCarthy, B. O'Connor, E. Murphy (capt), P. McLoughlin, J. Quann, R. Curran, J. Lynch, I. Flynn, T. Prendergast, D. Coughlan. Subs. — M. Murphy, W. Fraher, C. Dalton, E. McGrath, B. Keniry, D. Wilkinson.

There was tumultuous applause when Eddie O'Shea, Chairman Bord na nOg, presented the cup to Eamonn Murphy, Affane captain, after the game. Eddie stated it was a double honour for him as the cup was going to his own club.

U-14 County Final — The U-14 county final takes place in Waterford next Saturday against Kilture/Erin's Own. Our young lads have done us proud by reaching this final so let us see everyone travelling to Waterford to cheer on our young heroes — hopefully to victory.

'Be Active, Be Alive' Week In Dungarvan

The Chairman of the County Waterford Sports Advisory Body, Rev. Fr. Paul Murphy, C.C., will officially launch the "Be Active, Be Alive" week at the Causeway Tennis Club, Dungarvan, on Sunday next, May 13, 1990, at 2 p.m.

The Minister of State at the Department of Education, Mr. Frank Fahey, T.D., is concerned with the need to highlight opportunities for involvement in Sport and recreation for people who are not at present involved in such activities and he is anxious that a special effort be made to create an awareness of the wide range of sports activities available throughout the country with a view to motivating more people to become involved. In this regard and in co-operation with Cospoir, the National Sports Council and the County Waterford Vocational Education Committee, a series of activities has been organised throughout the county.

The aim of the promotion is to encourage people to take a constructive part in the community through sport and to give them an appreciation of the value and joys of sport, physical recreation and leisure activity.

The emphasis is on participation rather than competition and it is hoped that the week will provide opportunities for people to experience new sporting activities. The main thrust of this year's programme is centred on Walking.

Several sports organisations throughout the county are participating in this week and the public are invited to participate in the activities which have been organised.

★ Your Stars ★

ARIES
MAR 21 - APR 20
A week when one thing leads to another. It's quite an exciting time, so don't say "no" out of caution. There could soon be a surprise within the family circle. Your partner may take the news badly. At work there's an air of anxiety.

TAURUS
APR 21 - MAY 21
You must accept a situation; it won't change straight away. If travelling, you could run out of food, fuel or money. If you're under treatment from your doctor, a medical drug will do its job, but may have side-effects. At work, you must catch up with neglected tasks.

GEMINI
MAY 22 - JUN 21
You may be asked to sort out a friend's financial affairs. During the week you could meet someone who will advance your career, and if you are thinking of a job change it is worth looking further afield. Snap up some secondhand goods if you can.

CANCER
JUN 22 - JUL 22
A slightly unrealistic time when you may be deceiving yourself about a situation. You may be somewhat more extravagant this week; beware of rushing to buy something expensive that you won't use very much. A stranger may prove good company, one evening.

LEO
JUL 23 - AUG 23
Your weekend may be full of surprises. You are in a somewhat impulsive mood at work, wanting to tell a superior just what you think of him/her; be careful, your job may be at risk! A mechanical breakdown will cause some delays; you may have to organise some alternative method of transport.

VIRGO
AUG 24 - SEP 23
A happy and friendly weekend is forecast by the stars, especially if spent with new acquaintances. Events at work this week will have a direct effect on your personal life; it's possible that you will make more work for yourself than is really necessary. Things may not go so well for a brother/sister.

LIBRA
SEP 24 - OCT 23
Others play important roles in your life now. There could be visitors at home, or you may take a trip to see friends or relatives. A forced delay may keep you from tasks you'd planned to complete this week. A partner or companion may develop a bad habit which should be curbed.

SCORPIO
OCT 24 - NOV 23
Someone may try to monopolise a great deal of your time, or you may find you have to deal with sick people. Make proper preparations, especially in business deals, as you can't leave things to the last moment and expect them to meet with success.

SAGITTARIUS
NOV 24 - DEC 23
A rather edgy week when you feel irritable and perhaps just a wee bit insecure. Don't worry too much about delay, and don't make up your mind about things until you've had time to carefully analyse all the different "pros and cons." Tuesday and Wednesday appear to be the most difficult days; after that you'll feel more relaxed.

CAPRICORN
DEC 24 - JAN 20
A good weekend for sports and recreational activities, but you probably won't have as much time to spare for yourself as you'd like. A shortage of money may prevent you from making the most of a special offer. Even so, a money matter will be sorted out quicker than you imagine.

AQUARIUS
JAN 21 - FEB 19
A bright clutch of beneficial aspects suggest that an unusual offer could come your way. Also, someone in the family will make a move which will please you. Near mid-week one brief moment of foolishness could spoil a lot of work, so make sure everyone takes care.

PISCES
FEB 20 - MAR 20
Looks like there will be some laughs this weekend. You need a break from routine to ensure continued good health, so grab any chance to go somewhere new. Don't lend anything of value as other people may be clumsy with some of your possessions.

It's freezing cold - even in summer

We were lucky this year to have a very mild winter (even if we did suffer from the gales and flooding in some areas).

But even in the coldest winter in Britain we are still lot warmer than in many other countries. You will probably think immediately of places like Russia and Tibet, where we imagine the people to wearing fur coats all year 'round. But what about the places which are so cold that no-one can live there at all.

In the Antarctic for example, where there is a frost every single month of the year and even in the summer (if you can call it that) the average temperature is below freezing.

The Antarctic is the continent surrounding the South Pole (not to be confused with the Arctic, which is around the North Pole). It covers about four and a half million square miles and may once have been connected to South Africa and Western Australia. That may seem strange since both those countries enjoy very warm climates.

The great ice sheet which covers the Antarctic reaches a thickness of about 2,000 sq ft.

The continent includes a number of islands in the South Atlantic, the most famous of which are probably the Falkland Islands, which are a British protectorate.

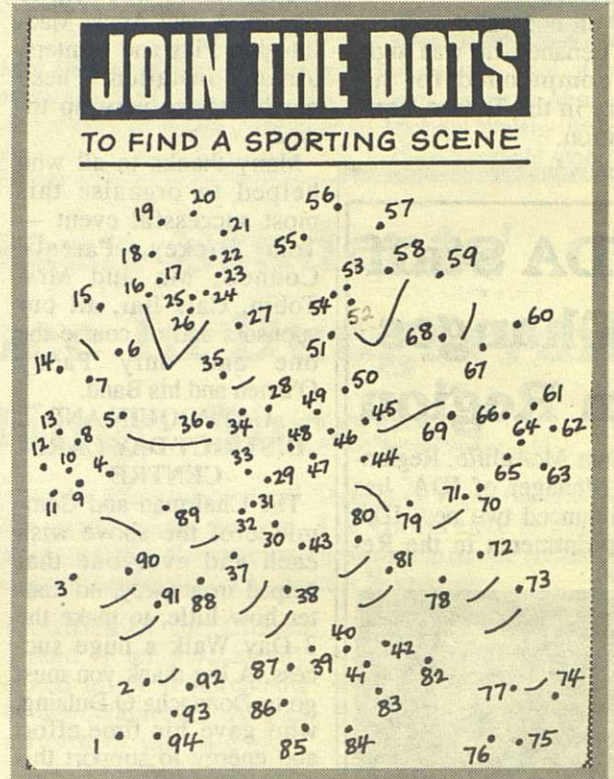

In fact all the islands in that area, plus all parts of mainland Antarctica are now claimed by various countries. These claims began when whaling expeditions earlier this century revealed the region's possibilities. Countries which have control over parts of the continent include France, Norway, New Zealand and Australia.

The first person to sail into the Antarctic Seas was Captain Cook in 1772, while the first person to cross the great ice sheet and actually reach the South Pole as a man named Amundsen in 1911.

The largest expedition ever attempted was in 1946, consisting of 4,000 men, 13 ships and an aircraft carrier with 20 planes.

Visitors would find little to excite them, as the only occasional inhabitants are whales, seals and penguins which are found in the seas and on the shores, plus many sea birds which nest there in the summer months.

O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favour is granted. Grateful thanks to the Blessed Virgin for favour received. — B.G.

Of sacrifice and pain.
A mother's love is all of these things,
It's the greatest treasure known,
And the greatest mother in all the world,
Is the one I called my own.
I wish that I could go back home,
And find you waiting there,

Until we meet again.

Till they are gone beyond recall.
So be forever with her, Lord,
Hear her should she call,
And light a star above her grave,
When evening shadows fall.
Parting comes to let us know,
We love more deeply than we show,
Love in death makes us see,
What love in life should really be.
(Never forgotten by your loving son Jim, daughter-in-law Margaret and family, Wales.)

Dungarvan Liver Transplant Girl Home And Well

Seven years old Caroline Dee who recently underwent a successful liver transplant operation at the Children's Hospital in Birmingham has now returned to her home at 71, Childers Estate, Dungarvan where she is now very well and getting better every day. Before she left on her journey home, the nurses and Caroline attended a farewell party at the Birmingham Hospital.

In the course of a letter to the Editor, Mrs. Dee writes: "My husband and I, on Caroline's behalf, would like to say a big thank you to all our friends and family who comforted and supported us through our bad time. Without them we would not have come through it all so well. Also to the Children's Hospitals in Dublin and Birmingham who saved Caroline. She would not be with us today without their dedication and skills to their work."

"Also to the very hard-working committee who are doing so well on Caroline's behalf, we say thank you and to everyone who prayed for her, as well as to her school friends who were very good to her in hospital.

"And lastly, to our neighbours and friends who gave us such a big welcome home last week. We will never forget them all. So, once again thank you, everyone.

Tallow Notes

TALLOW/YOUGHAL WEDDING

Belated congratulations and best wishes to Cynthia, daughter of Thomas and the late Kathleen Quinlan, Tallow Bridge, and Liam, son of Patrick and Rita McCarthy, Tallow Street, Youghal, on their recent marriage, which took place at St. Mary's Parish Church, Youghal, on Wednesday, April 4.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked beautiful in a full length ivory "Victorian style" dress, which was covered in lace, with matching hat and veil. Her sister Veronica, matron of honour, wore a full length peach dress with matching flowers in her hair. The groom had his brother Michael, as best-man. Also in the bridal party were Cynthia's nephew, Christopher O'Keefe, as pageboy and Liam's niece, Niamh McCarthy, as flowergirl. Niamh, who looked very pretty in a peach "Bo-Peep style" dress, carried a basket of flowers. The basket was made by the bride's father.

The Nuptial Mass which included the Papal Blessing, was concelebrated by Fr. S. O'Dowd, C.C., Dunmore East, (Chief Celebrant), and Fr. P. Corkery, C.C., Kilmartyna, Co. Cork, while Canon St. John Thornhill, P.P., Youghal, presided. The liturgical music was provided by Fr. J. Hannon, C.C., Miss G. Kelly, and Mr. M. Keneffick, all of Youghal.

A very enjoyable night was spent in Ballyrafter House Hotel afterwards and the very large number of guests saw the happy couple off to Tenerife, where a fortnight's honeymoon was spent.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.

Junior Football League At Ballynoe — St. Catherine's 1-12 Russell Rovers 1-6 — In perfect ground conditions at Ballynoe last Tuesday evening the above teams served up a stimulating and vigorous game of football. The homeside went into an early lead and were ahead at the break, though Russell Rovers could be well there but for Pat Murphy's couple of daring and skilful saves in the Catherine's net. The southern boys were still trying hard in the second half but Catherine's held out resolutely and adding a goal to their tally they strode to victory.

Catherine's team was — Pat Murphy, Mike Walsh, Pad Joe Lonergan, Teddy O'Leary, James Spillane, Denis Buckner, Kevin Barry, Denis Walsh, Donal O'Leary, Cathal Casey, Patsy Donoghue, Seamus Neville, Sean Buckley, Pat Sullivan, Edward Sheehan. Subs. — Maurice Hartnett, Billy Carr.

U-12 Football League — St. Catherine's 2-10 Glanmire 1-7 — Last Wednesday evening Glanmire were visitors to Ballynoe for the above game with the home side. Those young boys put in some brilliant passages and in a game of excellent football that would do justice to much older boys, the local boys ran out worthy winners.

Catherine's lined out as follows — Diarmuid Hogan, Liam O'Connell, Bill O'Keefe, Eoin O'Keefe, Michael Fitzgerald, Shane Fitzgerald, John Higgins, Gordon Bryan, Shane Kearney, Billy Carr, Ian O'Connell, David Beecher, Richard Leahy, Patrick Flynn, Tomas Geary. Subs. — Seamus Hogan, John Paul Flynn, Finbarr O'Connell.

U-16 Hurling League — St. Catherine's 4-6 Middleton 1-8 — Ballynoe was the venue for the above clash last Sunday morning between those teams. It was a fine exhibition of hurling which at times rose to great heights especially in the second half, when Middleton put in a supreme effort to wrest the laurels from the Catherine's side. The latter however, were very composed in defense and still contributing to the scoreboard, they were undisputed winners.

St. Catherine's lined out as follows — Michael O'Brien, Richard Cotter, Pat Fitzgerald, David O'Connell, Declan O'Neill, Pat Sheehan, Aidan Hickey, Johnny Sheehan, Mark Lane, Oliver Lynch, Brian Cotter, Jim Lane, Tom Morrisson, Kieran Morrisson, Robbie Hamilton.

Our U-14 hurlers were ousted by Middleton in the second round of the Feile na nGael Competition which was played in Middleton last Sunday, and in a recent outing at Aghada our U-12 footballers succumbed to the home challenge. Having two recent victories to their credit our intermediate hurlers had an unsuccessful outing to Iniscarra last Sunday evening, where they failed to overcome the home team.

COFFEE MORNING

The Ballynoe Parents' Association held a Coffee Morning at Ballynoe School last Wednesday morning and it proved a most enjoyable social occasion.

QUIZ AT CONNA COMMUNITY HALL

27 tables participated in the above Quiz last Thursday evening. The object of it was to provide funds for Crumlin Cancer Hospital for young boys.

The winners were — 1st Ballynoe Race Committee; 2nd Mitchelstown; 3rd Carrs, Curraglass; 4th Ballynoe Community Council. Barry Brothers sponsored the prizes, and the Kearney Cup for the Muintir na Tire area was also up for grabs and Ballynoe Community Council who were winners on the past two occasions, had to relinquish their hold on it this time as Ballynoe Race Committee are now the worthy holders.

Tom Higgins of Muintir na Tire praised John Gough N.T. Quizmaster on the night, for his efficiency, and Finbarr Motherway N.T., Gurtroe, and Muintir na Tire Officer conveyed his heartfelt thanks to all who patronised the worthy occasion. Many local firms and individuals sponsored prizes and it was an enjoyable evening.

LISMORE NOTES

LISMORE COMMUNITY FESTIVAL '90

The announcement that Lismore is to elect its first Lord Mayor as part of this year's festival (August 3 - 12) has aroused great interest in the town. In what promises to be one of the largest and most far reaching festivals ever staged in the town, three candidates, Una O'Leary, Donie Coughlan and Jimmy O'Gorman have thrown their hats into the ring and the stage is set for a no punches pulled, yet friendly contest.

Una (daughter of Michael, Chairman Lismore G.A.A. Club), is secretary of the Lismore Branch of the Red Cross and works in the Red House Bar. She will gather plenty of support from all sections of the community, not least from the fairer sex.

Donie (past Chairman of Lismore G.A.A. Club) and still a tireless worker for the club, will leave no stone unturned in his fund raising efforts on behalf of the Festival.

The ever popular Jimmy (Present Secretary of the G.A.A. Club and Chairman of the Western Board), is well-known throughout the length and breadth of the county (and the U.S.A.) and will gather his support from far afield as well as locally.

To all three we wish the best of luck and may the best man (or woman) win.

The Festival Director is Mary (Fenton) Morrissey (Town Commissioner), who has been involved with the festival through the years and whose experience should ensure that this will be one of the most successful ever held.

Mary has as her assistant, Barry McCarthy (new to the job), but whose youthful enthusiasm is bound to rub off on all of us.

A number of meetings (all very well attended) have already taken place. A programme which will ensure that all sections of the community young and old can participate has been drafted. This includes — dancing of all kinds, discos, music on stage every evening, young entertainer, pongo, pub singing, fishing, tennis and busking competitions, pavement artistry, treasure hunt, family barbecue, castle gardens, hot rod, fancy dress, donkey derby, terrier racing, tug-o-war, unisex hurling, poc fada, 45 drive, bicycle racing, car skills, road bowling, pig racing, athletics, hurling tournament, emigrants night, etc.

One way and another the stage is set for a very enjoyable build up to the Festival and we hope that everyone will join in the fun as that is what it is all about.

KNOCK PILGRIMAGE

The usual May Pilgrimage to Knock from Lismore organised by Mrs. Hyland and Sr. Rosarii takes place this year on Sunday, May 20.

LISMORE P.T.A.A.

The Centre sponsored a social evening and essay prize giving ceremony in Lismore Hotel on Friday, May 4. The Council would like to thank all who were associated with this event — the teachers, pupils, parents, friends, the Presentation Convent Sisters, the Christian Brothers and Parish Clergy. Gratitude is also due to those people unable to attend but who gave so generously to what proved to be an enjoyable evening.

Rev. Bro. Boyd, Council Chairman, in the course of a most inspiring address at the presentation of essay prizes referred to the generally high standard of entries. The final adjudication was made by a person outside the county, thus ensuring impartiality, the selection being made on merit and originality. In two categories second prizes were awarded to entries deemed worthy of such recognition.

The Results: 6th Year — 1st Tracey Rooney, 2nd Pat Norris; 3rd Year — 1st John Carey, 2nd Aisling O'Reilly; 2nd Year — Stephanie Harpur; 1st Year — Deirdre Donnelly.

In the absence of two prize winners — Tracey Rooney and Stephanie Harpur — Sister Carmel very kindly agreed to accept the prizes on their behalf.

Dick Ahearn was at his usual sparkling best on the accordion, playing for the Old Time Waltz — a feature greatly enjoyed by the adults and children.

James Lenane was a most efficient M.C. and soon got the evening going, with fine displays by the various set dancers.

Martin Landers provided the modern beat with his disco music, much appreciated by the enthusiastic dancers who must have lost stones in the process!

Finally, a word of thanks to all who helped in any way to make the evening enjoyable — one must mention of course Brother Boyd's much admired woodwork items; the raffle gifts given so generously by Jimmy and Mrs. O'Neill; Michael Madden and many other good friends who donated cakes, sandwiches and other items. Sincere thanks to each and all.

LISMORE G.A.A. NOTES

Senior Hurling — On next Sunday, May 13, we meet Portlaw in the second round of the championship. This match is of vital importance to the team. Only total effort by the full panel will suffice if we are to beat a very good Portlaw side. Match time is 3.15 p.m. in Dungarvan.

Inter County Senior Hurling Tournament — Waterford v. Laois. This match will take place in Lismore on Sunday, May 13 at 7 a.m. Admission is £2.

Waterford recorded a great win over All-Ireland champions Tipperary last week, with D. Byrne having a great game at full-back. All three Lismore players S. Prendergast, P. Prendergast and S. Daly played very well. The fact that Seamus broke his collar bone spoiled the night. We wish Seamus a speedy recovery and if anyone can recover fast — he will.

Weekly Draw: Week No. 14 — £50 Mrs. J. Lineen, Chapel Street; £30 Sgt. T. O'Grady, c/o Garda Station; £20 Mrs. Ber O'Donoghue, Fernville; £15 Mr. John Barry, Garrybrittas; £10 Mr. T. Cummins, c/o J. O'Gorman; £10 Miss P. Hegarty, Middleton. Promoter's Prize — L. Buckley.

Lismore's New Dean Installed

An informal group pictured chatting in the grounds of St. Carthage's Cathedral, Lismore following the installation of Very Rev. Canon Cecil Weekes as Dean of Lismore and his institution as Rector of the Lismore Group of Parishes. Included are Dean Weekes' wife Mildred, Rt. Rev. Noel Willoughby, Bishop of Cashel and Ossory, Mr. Peter Dowd, T.C. Lismore and other clergy who officiated at the installation ceremony.

The new Dean of Lismore, Very Rev. Canon Cecil Weekes, was installed in an impressive ceremony in a packed St. Carthage's Church of Ireland Cathedral in Lismore last Saturday afternoon.

Dean Weekes was installed by the Dean of Cashel and Archdeacon of Lismore, Venerable David Woodworth and his institution as Rector of the Lismore Group of Parishes was performed by the Bishop of Cashel and Ossory, Rt. Rev. Noel Willoughby.

The sermon was delivered by Rev. Canon Empey and the hymns throughout the ceremony were sung by the Lismore Choir under Musical Director Mark Casey led by the Cathedral Organist Ms. Ellen Cliffe.

Occupying special positions in the front pew in the Cathedral were the new Dean's wife Mildred, their four daughters and a number of other family members.

The congregation included former parishioners of Dean Weekes from Carlow and Kilkenny, Catholic clergy from many parts of the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore including Very Rev. Fr. Nugent, P.P., Lismore, Peter Roeber, Superintendent of the Lutheran Church in West Germany, the Chairwoman, Ms. Mona O'Connell and members of Lismore Town Commissioners, Mr. Eric Flynn, Town Clerk, Lismore and representatives of local Christian Brothers and Presentation Communities.

At a subsequent reception for the new Dean, Bishop

Willoughby thanked everyone who had helped to "make this great day possible" while Mr. Peter Dowd, member of the Town Commissioners also spoke.

Returning thanks, Dean Weekes said that he was most thankful to everyone who had made this such a momentous day in the life of his ministry.

The new Dean was originally ordained for the Dublin diocese and has previously ministered as Vicar in Kilkenny Cathedral and as Rector of the Carlow Group of Parishes. He is a member of the Chapter of St. Canice's, Kilkenny and St. Lazarian's Cathedral, Carlow.

Stradbally G.A.A. News

JUNIOR HURLERS v. CAPPOQUIN

On Friday evening, May 11, our junior hurlers play Cappoquin in the championships in Abbeyside at 7.30 p.m. This is a game where our second team will be playing but they have always put up a great performance — and a win is within our reach here.

INTERMEDIATE HURLERS v. ST. MOLLERANS

On Sunday next, May 13, our intermediate hurlers play St. Mollerans in the championship in Kill at 1.30 p.m. This is a grade that we have the ability to win, but that extra urge doesn't always be to the fore, but on Sunday next, we could see a new reds side in action, who are trained this year by Pat Curran, because a win in the first game is always vital.

PHELAN CUP v. KILMATHOMAS

On Tuesday evening next, May 15, our senior footballers play Kilmathomas in the Phelan Cup in Lemybrien at 7.15 p.m. This should be a great game of football, and a good indication for the championship. The reds should be at full-strength for this game.

MAY EVENING FOG It is hard to credit it, but our junior football championship tie with the Briceys had to be called off with about 15 minutes to go because of the fog. We were leading on the score of 1-11 to 0-0 and it was a pity that it was not finished after playing for so long. Also one wonders were we going to create a record by stopping our opposition from scoring for the second time this year.

CLUB SECRETARY AWAY

Our club secretary Michael Coffey is away at present on a working holiday in Germany and America where we wish him a happy break during his stay.

NATIONAL SCHOOLS GOOD SHOWING

The boys National School are having a great run in the Primary Schools League. They are taking part for the first time in the Eastern Division and certainly this should help the club.

UNDER-14 HURLERS v CLONEA

Our Under-14 hurlers are due to play Clonea this week as they prepare for the forth-coming championship.

ON C.B.S. TEAM

The clubs two young players Michael Barnes and Stephen Cunningham were on the C.B.S. team recently and both played very well.

ON COUNTY TEAM

Club players Eoin and Fintan O'Brien were on the senior football team which were beaten by Clare last Sunday. Both had very good games while Pat Curran made a return to the county senior hurling team against Tipperary last week.

HURLING COACHING

County hurling coach, Peter Power, will be visiting the National Schools this week in Stradbally. He will be visiting both the girls and boys schools. This is certainly great for the youth of the area.

THRILLING MINOR WIN

Our minor footballers are certainly showing the way, after their great win over St. Olivers last week in Lemybrien.

This win should put them into the Western semi-final, which will not be played for a while. The selectors are working hard with the players, which is showing in the results, so let's give them every support in their next games.

"WHERE IN THE WORLD' PRESENTATION

On Sunday night last, Club Chairman Joe Curran, presented trophies to the "Where in the World" winners John, Eileen, Jim and Eoin at a function in the club which was enjoyed by all. The Ladies Committee served up a beautiful meal and the music was by Mattie Weldon with various singers.

A great night was enjoyed by everybody.

WINNERS OF RAFFLE

Lucky winners of the raffle last Sunday night were — Bottle Whiskey, Mrs. Carol Power; £5 Mrs. Wm. O'Brien, Lisadell.

EVENING OF DANCING

On Sunday night next, May 13, a very popular band will provide the music for members and friends. After last week's great night — come along and meet your friends.

GAMES: WEEKEND, MAY 19 - 20

On the weekend, May 19 - 20, we play both Abbeyside in junior and intermediate hurling in the championship in Lemybrien, while on Sunday, May 27, we play Nire in the senior football championship in Dungarvan at 3.15 p.m.

KILL ADVANCE IN TOURNAMENT

In the junior tournament Kill had a good win over Kilgobinet last weekend.

biggest) attended our dance in the Village Inn for our draw. Terrific music was played by Colette & Cosmos. We hope to have them back again in the near future.

JUNIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Our junior hurling championship game with Ardmore, which was fixed for Old Parish last Saturday evening, had to be abandoned due to fog.

This year, between under age and adult matches we have travelled to Old Parish four times, Stradbally once and Leamybrien once. Surely there must be more convenient playing pitches in West Waterford.

At Bushy Park next, Saturday evening, May 12, at 7.30 p.m. we play the second round of the junior hurling championship.

Causeway Tennis Club Notes

Maytime and serious competition time as our junior cup teams battle for Maher and Sno Cup honours. Last weekend four teams represented the Causeway at home and away and gave us three wins.

Sno Cup A Team (U-14) v. St. Michael's (Cork) — Team: Trevor O'Mahoney, Deirdre Brennan (sub for Ann Brennan), Willie Fennell, Emma Dalton, Gavin Keane, Claire Dalton.

This first round match, played at home last Sunday was a veritable cliff-hanger with a win dependent on the mixed doubles at the eleventh hour. Splendid singles victories from Trevor, Gavin and Claire. Doubles victory for Deirdre and Claire balanced by St. Michael's winning the boys doubles in the third set against Trevor and Willie. Four all and everything resting on Gavin and Emma in the mixed doubles. Initial success in the first set changed to complacency and defeat in the second set and, pressure pushed, both Gavin and Emma rose to the occasion, lifted their game and won with aplomb, to the relieved delight of the on-lookers. Well played Sno A and good luck in the next round.

Sno B Team v. Douglas (Cork) — Team: Conor Barrett, Yvonne Byrne, Padraic Verling, Audrey Lenihan (sub for Emily Higgins), Cian O'Donovan, Christine O'Riordan.

Douglas, offering the cream of their talent in entering this one team, were formidable in victory over our Sno B team. Player of the match was Yvonne Byrne who won both her singles and her doubles with partner Audrey. This defeat gives the team a good chance in the Plate, to be arranged at a later date.

Maher A Team v. Fountainstown — Team: David Brennan, Julianne Veale, Ray O'Brien, Elizabeth Moloney, Colin Keane, Derval Donnelly.

A very definite victory over Fountainstown on their own courts, with the six singles matches deciding the outcome and avoiding the usual tense outcome of the doubles. Well done under-12s.

Maher B Team v. Lr. Aghada — Team: Stephen

Stacey, Sinead Conroy, Brian McNamara, Gillian Ormond, Michael Byrne, Tegwyn Stephenson. Sub Susan Brosnan.

Returning once more to Lr. Aghada, the scene of our 1987 defeat in the Maher Cup final, this team did very well to defeat Lr. Aghada's first team 5-4 in a very exciting match. We congratulate you one and all on your great play.

So much for the good news — the bad news is that in the next round on Saturday next and here in the Causeway, Maher A is drawn to play Maher B, so just one team can progress.

Our standard in junior competition could not be maintained without the co-operation and support of our parents and we would like to thank the drivers for the matches — Glynis Stephenson, Ann McNamara, Noel Brennan, Ann Moloney, Kathleen Barrett, Pauline Lenihan.

MUNSTER SCHOOLS CUP

St. Augustine's Under-19 team met CBS, Carrick-on-Suir in the first round last Wednesday when a very creditable display of tennis resulted in a narrow defeat for the Friary.

Friary team: Jim Cantwell, Paul Prendergast, Paul O'Riordan, Pat Hayes. Neck and neck after the singles and doubles, the eventual result was decided in a one set tie break which fell to CBS on the day. Both teams were treated to impressive hospitality in the Friary dining room after the match.

Friary under-16 boys face a strong challenge in their first round on Friday against Christian Brothers, Cork. Drawn in the A Section, CBS will be anxious to avenge their defeat of last year at the hands and feet of our boys. Team: Kieran Higgins, Enda Donnelly, Barry Cliffe, David Moloney. Good luck lads in your trip to Cork. CBS Dungarvan have entered three teams in this Schools Cup.

Under-16 A team: Patrick Veale, Gerard McCarthy, Peter Foley, Daniel Holland. Sub. John Moloney. A first round win over Rockwell College takes them into the second round.

Under-16 B team: Brian Barrett, Paul O'Brien, Michael Verling, Morgan Cummins met a very strong team from High School, Clonmel, who now continue on to play CBS A team.

in the semi-final.

Under-14 team: Trevor O'Mahoney, Gavin Keane, John Enright, Damien Harkin. Sub. Gerard Byrne. First round victory against Middleton College.

TENNIS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD!

The Inter-firms Tennis competition is upon us again. Sponsored by Waterford Foods, there are three sections: A, B and C and teams consist of four players: 2 ladies, 2 gents. ## John Treacy Not To Compete In European Marathon

John Treacy has decided against competing in the marathon at the European Athletics Championships in Yugoslavia next August. Instead he will concentrate on the 10,000m. where he finished sixth four years ago.

"I've considered this matter very seriously over the last few weeks and I've decided to give the 10,000m. one last try", said Treacy who was pre-selected for the marathon by BLE after finishing second in the big International event in Tokyo two months ago.

Last Thursday Treacy informed the BLE president, Bobby Begley of his decision not to accept the invitation and he said from his Rhode Island home that night: "Last August I ran 27.55 for the 10,000m. with very little preparation."

"This year I've already started my preparation for the track and I'm well ahead of schedule. I love track running and the longer I remain with it the better are my chances of doing well in the marathon at next year's World Championships and the Barcelona Olympics.

"I still feel that I can run a big race in the European 10,000m. and my preparations will be helped along the way by the fact that I am in a position to train with John Doherty."

MUNSTER SENIOR LEAGUE — O'CONNELL CUP

Dungarvan Hold Out To Reach Semi-Final

DUNGARVAN 1 MALLOW 0

Dungarvan advanced to the semi-finals of the O'Connell Cup by virtue of a resilient performance at a well attended Kilrush Park last Sunday. With Billy Coleman failing a late fitness test, George Hamilton returned to the senior team for the first time in three years. U-16 player David Whelan also started the game following an impressive performance as a substitute the previous week.

Dungarvan opened impressively with Pat Keane, Ger Beresford and David Whelan all posing problems to the visitors defence and it was Pat Keane who had a volley well handled by the Mallow custodian in the 10th minute. David Whelan won a corner for Dungarvan in the 22nd minute which was taken by Ger Beresford, skipper Willie Coward met the ball but his header hit the post.

However, the locals went ahead in the 32nd minute. A long kick by Barry McGrath was controlled by J. Hughes who put George Hamilton clear and although he mis-hit the shot there was sufficient power to take it into the net. Willie Coward almost added to this lead soon after but was again denied by the woodwork. Mallow's main tactic in the first half was to pump high balls into the box but these were no problem to Barry McGrath and at half-time Dungarvan had a deserved 1-0 lead.

The visitors certainly upped their performance on the resumption and Dungarvan were subjected to long periods of intense pressure. However they always looked dangerous on the break with David Whelan doing trojan work up front and he proved a real handful for even the experienced Paddy Shortt. Despite all their possession Mallow never forced Barry McGrath into any serious action as both Derek Lyons and Brian Whelan yet again gave inspired performances and they combined to form a rock solid centre in the Dungarvan defence while George Hamilton also made some important interventions. The best chance of the second half fell to Dungarvan when a Willie Coward cross was flicked-on by David Whelan but Ger Beresford headed over from close range.

Try as they might Dungarvan simply could not string any passes together and with the majority of the play directed towards Barry McGrath's goal, the Blues introduced Billy Coleman. Along with the impressive M. O'Sullivan he combined to stem the tide somewhat and twice referee J. Foskin gave dubious off-side decisions against David Whelan and Billy Coleman.

The closest that Mallow came to grabbing an equaliser was in the last minute when player-manager Gene Murphy had a header which was saved by Barry McGrath to clinch victory for Dungarvan. It was not the best that the team can produce but a win is a win.

Dungarvan — B. McGrath, W. Coward (capt), D. Lyons, B. Whelan, M. Hickey, G. Hamilton, M. O'Sullivan, J. Hughes, P. Keane, G. Beresford, D. Whelan. Res. — B. Coleman (used), B. Kirwan, D. Sheehan, P. Roche, T. Kenneally.

Man of the Match —

David Whelan - worked tirelessly all afternoon and has a bright future ahead of him in the game.

Referee — John Foskin.

THE SEMI-FINAL

Following this victory Dungarvan have qualified for the semi-final stage in which they will play Tramore Athletic or Cobh Ramblers or Casement Celtic. No date or venue has yet been confirmed but indications are that the semi-final may take place in Kilrush Park. Tramore played Cobh Ramblers on Tuesday night and the winners must play Casement Celtic for a place in the semi-final.

United Just Shade It In Tight Game

TRAMORE 0 DUNGARVAN 1

A goal by Kevin Walsh in the second half sealed both points for the Blues in what is always a difficult fixture.

In the first half it was all Tramore and they were virtually camped in the Blues half of the field, and, but for some sterling work by our defence, J. P. Donnelly in particular, Tramore would have won easily.

Changes had to be made for the second half if the Blues were to have any chance of getting into the game, and what a difference the changes did make. They really settled down and played some delightful football that had the Tramore defence at sixes and sevens and it was just a matter of time before they would score, and when the goal came it was a gem. T. Butler won the ball in mid-field, took on the defence, hit the ball low and hard across the goal and there was ace goal scorer Kevin Walsh to hang it into the net.

Tramore never recovered from this and Dungarvan ran out easy winners and could easily have added to their tally.

Team — J. Sheehan, P. Keane, K. O'Connor, D. Power, J. P. Donnelly, L. Simms, D. Foley, T. Butler, C. Hallahan, K. Walsh, M. Crotty, T. Barry.

WORLD CUP PREVIEW

PAUL McGRATH (Aston Villa)

When ever football fans discuss the Irish team or Alex Ferguson (Manchester United Manager) the name of Paul McGrath inevitably comes up in the debate.

McGrath, born in London of an Irish mother and a Nigerian father, was brought back and reared in Ireland from the age of 3 months.

Football was a big part of the youngster's life and he came into organised soccer with Pearse Rovers and from there graduated into the Leinster Senior League with Dalky United as a centre forward. His skill and athleticism were such that after 3 years with Dalky he was signed by Charlie Walker, then manager of League of Ireland club St. Patrick's Athletic. Walker a canny manager, soon switched McGrath to midfield and then back to centre back. McGrath's form was very good and he still could score vital goals and soon attracted the attention of cross channel clubs. Manchester United's scout the legendary Billy Behan was so convinced of McGrath's potential that he persuaded his manager that McGrath should be signed straight away without trials. Ron Atkinson took his advice and Paul McGrath, once known as the "Black Pearl of Inchicore," joined Manchester United for £100,000 — a windfall for St. Pat's, small change for United.

Paul McGrath made his English League debut in November 1982 but his stay with United was troubled by injuries especially his knees, one operated on 5 times, the other 3. But his courage and his skill saw him establish himself in the first team where he played with a list of several other centre backs such as Martin Buchan, Gordon McQueen and Kevin Moran. International football was to follow and he made his Irish debut in a friendly against Italy on February 2, 1985. In May '85 he picked up an English Cup winners medal when United beat Everton 1-0.

Reports of discipline problems in United often threw up the names of McGrath and Whiteside and the arrival of Alex Ferguson was the beginning of the end. Despite his growing international stature highlighted by the Euro Finals in German, Ferguson was keen to unload his centre back. At a knockdown price of £450,000 in July 1989, Graham Taylor signed the Irish defender who rewarded his new manager with outstanding displays which won him Aston Villa's player of the season award this year. Ferguson never really replaced McGrath and eventually had to pay over £2 million for Garry Pallister from Middlesboro — a sum which was a far cry from the £100,000 paid to St. Pat's for McGrath.

Under Jack Charlton, Paul McGrath has blossomed even though he is usually picked in midfield. His ability to score vital goals remains and he proved this against Luxembourg and Bulgaria in the European Championships and Hungary in the World Cup last June.

Paul McGrath's career has been threatened by injuries but this year under Taylor's shrewd managership he has been free of serious trouble and his display against the U.S.S.R. was excellent.

In June Paul McGrath will be vital to Ireland. Where will Charlton play him — full back to mark Barnes or centre back? At midfield he hits hard, tackles cleanly, heads the ball well and scores vital goals. I would start him there but where ever he plays he won't let you down.

Manchester United play an F.A. Cup Final next Saturday. The debate still lingers on — should he have been pushed out by Alex Ferguson. If United lose it will confirm that his season has been a disaster for United, a cup win may hide their poor league form, it will also confirm that Ferguson was wrong in his treatment of Paul McGrath the "Black Pearl of Inchicore."

Waterford Topple Cork

Waterford 4-9, Cork 1-2

Waterford proved far too good for a disappointing Cork team in the third round of the National League at the Eire Og Sports grounds just outside Cork City on Sunday last. The game was originally scheduled for Ballincollig but a bereavement forced a last minute change of venue.

Cork fielded a very young team and although they battled for a long time, they were eventually overwhelmed in the last quarter as Waterford began to play something like they are capable of.

Aine Walsh opened the scoring in the 1st minute with a point. A long solo run by Noirin Walsh in the 5th minute, coupled with a quick bout of passing amongst three of the forwards, ended with June Whyte shooting the opening goal. Marie Crotty and Aine Wall (twice) added further points before Cork at last began to make an impression.

Ann Minihane had their opening score, a point, in the 26th minute and on the stroke of half time Ann Morrissey pointed a free to leave the score at the interval: Waterford 1-4, Cork 0-2.

The Leesiders got a great start to the second half as Mary Buckley goaled to reduce the arrears to just one point. This led to ferocious Waterford pressure and June Whyte pointed in the 33rd minute and Bernie Ryan added another three minutes later. In the 42nd minute Aine Wall played a quick one-two with Catriona Casey and shot Waterford's second goal.

The last 18 minutes were all one way traffic as Waterford exposed huge gaps in the Cork defence, adding a further 2-3 without reply, the goals scored by June Whyte and Geraldine O'Ryan with Cork scarcely mounting an attack.

On the evidence of this display Cork are in big trouble and aren't a shadow of previous sides. From Waterford's point of view the last twenty minutes were very encouraging, but they will have to play as well for the whole sixty minutes if they are to trouble the big guns.

Ann Fitzpatrick and Noirin Walsh were outstanding in defence, Marie and Bernie Ryan dominated the midfield, and Aine Wall, June Whyte and Marie Crotty always looked likely to score in attack.

Team — Mary O'Donoghue, Ann Dunford, Dolores Tyrrell, Martina O'Ryan, Noirin Walsh, Ann Fitzpatrick, Cliona Walsh, Marie O'Ryan, Catriona Casey (0-1), Aine Wall (1-3), Bernie Ryan (0-1), Marie Crotty (0-3), Fiona Crotty, June Whyte (2-1), Geraldine O'Ryan (1-0). Subs. — Deirdre Wall, Regina Byrne, Patricia Butler.

On Sunday next, Waterford travel to Dublin to take on the home county. Dublin won last year's junior championship and although they have struggled a bit in the early rounds of the senior league they should not be under estimated.

KILL WIN COUNTY TITLE

Kill captured the Under-16 B County title when they defeated An Deise in Kill on Monday evening last. Great credit is due to both teams and after an outstanding game Kill were deserving winners.

Na Deise were minus the services of two key players and had they been present it would have led to a very interesting finish. As it was Kill had seven points to spare, 4-5 to 3-1, and their first to the ball tactics played handsome dividends. Although Na Deise were a bigger and stronger side, the all round skill of Kill more than compensated.

Roseanne Ryan opened the scoring with a point in the 2nd minute, but a defensive error allowed Kill in for a goal three minutes later and Debbie O'Regan added another after 14 minutes. The only other score of the half was a Rachel Kiely point that left Kill 2-1 to 0-1 ahead at the interval.

Within three minutes of the restart Na Deise had drawn level with two goals, the first from a long range free kick and by now it was anybody's game. Play flowed from end to end and the crucial score arrived in the 40th minute when Lorraine Mooney's well flighted free went all the way to the net. Within a minute Julie Ann Torpey added another goal and Jean Guiry and Debbie O'Regan shot points.

Na Deise fought back and Eleanor Dalton scored a fine goal but Kill finished the stronger with points by Bridget Queally and little Rachel Kiely. Na Deise never gave up, but that Kill scoring burst between the 40th and 45th minute decided this game.

For Kill, Rachel Whelan kept a sound goal, Ruth Ahern, Alison Morrissey and Ann Hearne were outstanding in defence, Rosemary Fitzgerald and Jennifer Coffey did well at midfield, Julie Ann Torpey, Debbie O'Regan, Rachel Kiely and Lorraine Mooney, whose distribution was vital, paved the way for this victory.

For Na Deise, Marcella Foran, Karen Denn, Honor Lonergan, Sinead Power, Martha Cahill, Olivia Condon and Eleanor Dalton tried their hearts out.

The Under-16 A final for the Mercy Cup takes place at Modeligo on Friday evening, May 18, when a county selection play Ballymacarby. The intermediate championship commences on Sunday next when Sliabh gCua play Newtown at Modeligo (1 p.m.) and the following Wednesday night Na Deise travel to Newtown.

POINT-TO-POINT

Winners At Ballindenisk

There was a shortage of runners at Ballindenisk Point-to-Point races last Sunday where Two Pot House trained by John Joe Walsh and ridden by Nicky Dee in the colours of Mr. M. J. O'Riordan won the Open Hunt race in a canter to follow up his win at Farnanes on the previous Sunday.

An odds-on favourite (1/2 hardening to 1/3) Nicky Dee moved Two Pot House into second place approaching the third from home and going to the last he pressed the accelerator and swept to a four lengths win.

Bucks Adage owned by Mr. M. O'Brien and trained by David McGrath took the four and five year old Maiden. Available at 2/1 and 5/2 before the off, Bucks Adage with John Flynn in the saddle made a lot of the running and held off the challenge of Miss Rockaway (7/2 to 3/1) on the final bend to go on to win by two lengths.

The 2/1 favourite Gold Tip never impressed and finished down the field.

Railway Athletic F.C. (Cappoquin) Notes

UNDER-11 SOCCER LEAGUE

Ferrybank 3, Railway 2

On Thursday last we played Ferrybank in the league and were beaten 3-2. We missed a lot of chances early on and some defensive mistakes cost us the game. M. Moynihan and S. Curran were our goal-scorers.

Team: P. Keniry, N. Maher, S. Cunningham, W. Fraher, M. Murphy, D. Coughlan, M. Moynihan, P. Morrissey, J. Mahionan, S. Curran, E. McLoughlin. Referee: John Kenneally (Abbeyside).

KENNEDY CUP

Waterford 1, Kerry 2

Waterford under-14 team were knocked out of the semi-final against Kerry on Saturday last. This was a shock result, especially when Waterford did so well in Tralee. They took the lead midway through the second half and visions of Lansdowne Road were looking good. But with 10 minutes remaining Kerry brought on what can only be called a super sub who made one and scored one himself. One only wonders why he was not on from the start.

I would like to thank all our supporters who travelled to Ozier Park on Saturday last.

Our own Ray Curran was once again outstanding. He was rewarded when he was given a chance of a trial for next season's under-15 international side.

PLAYER PROFILE:

ALAN GILLIGAN

Alan is a member of our under-15 side and has been with us for four seasons. He is a player of great ability. He plays up front and last season he was the club's leading goal-scorer. Alan is an out-and-out club man. At any game at our pitch you will find him there, helping out the younger players. He is one of the best in the club to collect money for non-stop draw or any of our club collections. He helps to run his family's chip van business and he is never stuck for a word!

WELL DONE

We would like to congratulate Affane under-14 football team in beating St. Olivers in the Western final and wish them the best of luck in the final against Erin's Own.

SENIORS WIN MIDDLETON ROAD RACE

Some of our athletes travelled to the annual five mile road race in Middleton last week and all ran very fast times to win first team prize from plenty opposition from the Cork clubs.

The team was led home by Liam Rossiter who ran his fastest time for five miles when clocking (30.07). Our second athlete to finish was the consistent Colin Lyons in (30.38) followed by Anthony Dwyer (31.08), Paul Keating (32.01) and Nicky Sheehan the 1990 Colligan Cup winner in (34.36).

Helen Dwyer had another good run in the ladies race finishing third in 31.49 which is her fastest time to date.

SUMMER TRAINING

The weekly training run for the summer months will take place every Tuesday at 8 p.m. from Michael Roche's Carpet Shop. This session has proved enjoyable and successful in the past and is open to everyone.

VETS RELAYS

Michael Roche represented both club and county at the big Vets Relay Competition on the new tartan track in Waterford recently. Also taking part was former club juvenile Joe Gough, who showed that he has lost none of his sprinting ability when he was a member of the successful Waterford 4 x 100 metres team and he made up a lot of ground in the 4 x 400 event to help Waterford finish second behind the Noel Carroll led Dublin. Joe was also one of the main organisers of the event.

Winners At Killarney

The John Kiely trained Glamorous Gale (5/2f.) ridden by Mickey Flynn won the Racegoers Handicap Hurdle on the opening evening of the Killarney meeting on Monday. Flynn made it a double when he also won the Aghadoe Maiden Hurdle aboard Maple Dancer (8/1).

Former jockey John Queally who took out a licence to train about a year ago saddled his first winner when Irish Bay (5/2 to 5/4f.) landed the opening division of the Bumper ridden by Nicky Dee. Queally also had a second with Cock Cockburn in the Maiden Hurdle behind Glamorous Gale.

Dungarvan G.A.A. Notes

A VITAL TIE

If we are to retain any ambitions of making it to the knockout stages of the senior hurling championship then victory against Fourmilewater at Cappoquin next Sunday (3.15) is an absolute must. Indeed if we lose this one then relegation will be very much a reality.

The players then must know what's at stake. Our defeat by Passage in the opening round was disappointing because we know we could, and should, have fared better. Well now it's crunch time and we simply have to raise our game on Sunday.

Fourmilewater won't be easy prey and nothing less than a 100% effort is likely to be good enough. We can do it provided that the required effort is forthcoming. Let's get down to the business and grab the win that is so vital to our campaign.

MINORS THROUGH

Our minor footballers kept very much on course for the divisional championship title with a very hard earned 1-9 to 1-7 victory over old rivals Abbeyside at the Fraher Field last Friday evening.

It was a game that could have gone either way, and on reflection Abbeyside will rue their failure to convert a penalty. To be fair we too had our misses, but in the end it was as much guts and determination as football skill that saw us through.

We led by 0-7 to 0-4 at half time and the lead would have been more but for some inexplicable misses. Then we had a slice of luck on the turnover when a '50' was deflected to his own net by an Abbeyside defender and within a minute came their missed penalty.

The Villagers did however get through for a fine goal to narrow the deficit to the minimum, but a fine Eoin Cunningham solo run ended with an equally fine fisted point and the vital victory was ours.

The panel was: N. Considine, M. Desmond, J. Morrissey, B. McDonnell, B. Lyons, D. Donnelly, R. Kelly, J. Tutty, G. Curran, F. Cunningham, C. Gough, A. Queally, M. McGrath, D. Cummins, T. Morrissey, M. Butler, E. Cunningham, C. Barry, O. Curran.

With six points from a possible eight, the objective of a place in the knockout stages has been well and truly realised. Well done boys. They now have a well deserved break — in the sporting arena — but many face important examinations in a few weeks time and it goes without saying that we wish all those sitting the exams the very best of luck.

FEILE NA nGAEL

The under-14 hurlers avenged the defeat of the footballers by Abbeyside when outscoring them in the Western Feile Na nGael semi-final. However, despite monopolising the play, our fellows missed the proverbial rake of chances and no such luxury can be afforded against red hot favourites Lismore in the divisional final.

At the time of writing I understand that game may be played at Cappoquin on this Wednesday evening.

JUNIOR HURLING

The junior hurlers are in championship action on Saturday evening at Colligan when they take on the most powerful team in the group, Lismore.

This will be a searching test for the team, but while we go into the fray as the rank outsiders we are determined to give the game our best shot. It is timed for 7.15.

PHELAN CUP

Our Phelan Cup game against Sliabh gCua on Tuesday night was switched from Cappoquin to Fraher Field because of the non-availability of the former venue.

Hopefully, we'll have a victory to record when next these notes appear in print.

JUNIOR WIN

The junior footballers made a winning championship start last week with a hard earned but well merited 1-8 to 1-5 victory over the Nire.

There is undoubtedly plenty of room for improvement, but the players are well capable of stepping up their game. We could enjoy a really good run in the grade this year.

ON COUNTY TEAMS

We had Dermot Callaghan and Peter Ferncombe in action for the Waterford senior and junior footballers respectively against Clare at Fraher Field last Sunday.

Defeat was certainly no fault of Dermot Callaghan who had a great game with the seniors and equally Peter Ferncombe was a starring figure in a game which Waterford were desperately unlucky not to win.

Missed Chances Cost Waterford

CLARE 0-13 WATERFORD 0-9

Pre match expectations gave Waterford a good chance in this first round Munster senior football tie with Clare at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last. The preparation was good and the signs were good, however the performance failed to match up and consequently Waterford again bowed out at the first hurdle.

Waterford however, can't be too disillusioned about the result. A terrible first half performance saw them trailing 0-8 to 0-3 at the interval. They showed a 100% improvement in the second half when they completely overwhelmed Clare, during which they held them scoreless for a twenty four minute period. But Waterford failed to register the scores and in the end they paid the penalty for a bagful of missed chances. Waterford, in fact registered 14 wides as against Clare's 8 during the game.

Clare dominated the first half with the aid of the breeze and points from Terence O'Neill (2), Pat Harold and Aidan O'Keefe by the 15th minute were punctuated by one Waterford minor from an Eoin O'Brien free in the 6th minute. Jim McGrath had a Waterford point in the 15th minute but Francis McInerney replied with a like Clare score a minute later.

In the 17th minute Waterford were extremely unlucky when John Power's effort hit the crossbar with Clare keeper James Hanrahan beaten and it was the winners who scored next when McInerney had his second point in the 19th minute.

Jim McGrath pointed for Waterford in the 22nd minute but points from Gerard O'Keefe and Aidan O'Keefe left Clare ahead by 0-8 to 0-3 at the break. It was noticeable that Waterford had made heavy weather of score getting in this 35 minute period, primarily because they insisted on going for goals, and nine times out of ten they invariably tried to walk the ball through the Clare defensive screen.

Clare on the other hand kept having a go from all ranges and angles and while their interval lead was fully deserved it in no way flattered them.

STRUCK EARLY

Waterford struck early in the second half when sub. Ger Walsh pointed after two minute. Walsh subsequently was forced to retire with a broken wrist, another factor which no doubt contributed to Waterford's defeat. Walsh's point was followed by one from Jim McGrath. Aidan O'Keefe and Carthac Mac Craith swapped points before John Murray had a brace of points to leave Clare leading 0-11 to 0-6 with 12 minutes of the half gone.

Clare failed to score again until the 36th minute as they were pegged back by Waterford who really piled on the pressure. But while they had almost continuous possession their scoring returns from a huge number of chances was pitiable. Eoin O'Brien (2) and Liam Dalton (1 point) left just two points between the sides (0-11 to 0-9) by the 24th minute. Jim McGrath just failed to guide home a great goal chance for Waterford with the keeper beaten in the 28th minute. It proved to be Waterford's final fling. Clare lifted the siege in the closing stages and 2 points from sub. Frank Carrig (who also incidentally played a significant part in the junior game for Clare) made victory safe for them.

CAN'T QUIBBLE

Waterford certainly can't quibble at this result. They conceded territorial advantage in the first half for long periods but their attitude when they were on top in the second half had to be seen to be believed. Their inability to find the scoring range was unbelievable and at other times the attack refused to take on the scoring responsibility with the result that an inordinate amount of chances were fluffed in truly amazing bout of squandermania.

Full credit to Clare however, who accepted every chance and who were consequently deserving winners as a result.

Scorers: Clare — A. O'Keefe 0-3; T. O'Neill, F. McInerney, J. Murray and F. Carrig 0-2 each; G. O'-

Keefe and P. Harold 0-1 each. Waterford — J. McGrath and E. O'Brien 0-3 each; C. Mac Craith, L. Dalton and G. Walsh 0-1 each.

Clare — J. Hanrahan, M. Rouine, A. Moloney, G. Kelly, N. Roche, F. Griffin, M. Roughan, M. Cummins, Francis McInerney, G. O'Keefe, J. Murray, J. Enright, A. O'Keefe, T. O'Neill, P. Harold. Sub. — F. Carrig for G. O'Keefe.

Waterford — T. Brennan, P. Power, T. Walsh, F. O'Brien, P. Walsh, K. Mulcahy, L. Dalton, C. Mac Craith, E. O'Brien, P. Queally, P. Hynes, D. Callaghan, D. Casey, J. McGrath, J. Power. Subs. — G. Walsh for J. Power; T. Corcoran for D. Casey; M. Power for G. Walsh.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Waterford Unlucky To Be Caught

WATERFORD 1-9 CLARE 2-6

Leading 1-8 to 0-6 with eight minutes to go Waterford looked to have done enough to win this first round Munster junior football championship clash with Clare at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last.

Clare goaled per Danny Coughlan six minutes from time but Peter Ferncombe's point for Waterford a minute from the end looked to have made the issue safe for the home side. Then disaster struck in time added on as the Waterford defence failed to clear a lobbing shot that bounced off the crossbar and Clare's Pat Murray was on hand to finger-tip the ball to the net for Clare's equalising goal.

It was a devastating blow for Waterford who had played well enough to have won the day. The fact that the equalising goal looked illegal due to a "square infringement" also made the result a little unpalatable.

Waterford, however, need have no qualms about the replay. Their youthful side played some excellent football throughout, and particularly in the first half during which a great goal from Paul Fitzgerald in the eight minute helped them to a 1-4 to 0-3 lead at the break.

If one could fault the side it would be for their lapse of concentration in the second half when they allowed Clare back into a game which seemed to be beyond them. Waterford did not play as well in the second half despite having the advantage of the stiff breeze.

They put themselves under strong pressure at times and keeper Tony Geynes had to make a superb save from Brendan Browne in the 45th minute to deny Clare a goal.

HELD ON

But as time marched on and Waterford held on to their advantage it looked as if they would hold out for a deserving win. With a five points advantage and with just eight minutes left on the clock few could visualise a Clare revival. Then came Coughlan's goal in the 24th minute and Murray's life saver for Clare with normal time up.

Taking all things into consideration however, it was a good display by the side and one which should give them confidence for the replay.

Scorers: Waterford — P. Fitzgerald 1-1; J. Hallinan 0-4; N. Power, J. Troy, M. Hallinan and P. Ferncombe 0-1 each. Clare — D. Coughlan 1-2; P. Murray 1-0; J. Meaney 0-3; G. Fitzgerald 0-1.

Waterford — T. Geynes, E. Rockett, A. Power, M. Hallinan, J. Salmon, B. Curry, E. Fitzgerald, N. Power, J. Byrne, J. Dunne, J. Murray, P. Ferncombe, J. Troy, J. Hallinan, P. Fitzgerald.

Clare — D. Keane, D. Clancy, G. Jordan, T. Jubridy, P. McMahon, J. Rouine, M. Guerin, P. Murray, J. Fennell, J. Griffin, B. Browne, G. Carrig, D. Coughlan, G. Fitzpatrick, J. Meaney. Subs. — J. Cleary for G. Carrig; F. Carrig for Clancy.

Referee — P. Lonergan (Tipperary).

Knockanore/Shamrocks To Celebrate Junior Football Title Win

[By "Commentator"]

Half a century ago there were great celebrations up Knockanore way when the local junior football team won the county title for the first time ever and now, just fifty years later the club, which is renamed the Shamrocks, plan to commemorate the great event by holding a special function in honour of that team.

1940 was a year of turmoil and trouble. Hitler's armies were winning the war in Europe, England was being bombarded from the air and here in Ireland food, clothing and petrol rationing had been introduced. But in spite of all this, the Waterford junior football championships had to be played and won, the same as in the previous year, when Mount Sion took their first adult football title and the same as in 1911 when Lismore won the first of its kind.

Petrol rationing wasn't a problem, because if they had an abundance of the stuff they would have had no use for it since they had no motor cars. It was the bike, shanks-mare or the pony and trap and for long distances, a loan of a lorry from the job. In those days too, while skill was very necessary, toughness was a quality which always played a role in winning and without it you were lost.

Around that time, junior football was a championship with a much higher profile than it enjoys to-day. Winning it was a singular honour and many of the established football clubs in the county were not one bit pleased when a John Keane led Mount Sion club, who were more readily identified as a hurling unit, came along and won the title.

Knockanore, Brickey Rangers, Newtown, Ballyduff, Lismore, St. Stephen's, Sliabh gCua and others were the strong contenders at the time, so here in the West it was no surprise when Knockanore and Brickeys qualified for the divisional final. Brickeys had won it in 1927 and their 1940 team included a few of that side.

WESTERN FINAL

The Western final was played on the fifth Sunday of September, the week after the All-Ireland and the records tell of a big crowd coming to see the game. At half-time the sides were level at 1-1 to 0-4, but at the finish a goal separated them with the Knockanore team having 3-1 as against 1-4 for their disappointed opponents.

Having scrutinised the list of players, the Brickeys were satisfied that there were good grounds for an objection — which was not unusual for clubs in those times, but when they went up to Knockanore country to obtain the evidence they were soon to realise that they were on a "mission impossible."

There was big trouble in the East between Newtown and St. Mary's in the divisional final. Liam Walsh, Eastern Board chairman stated that both should be suspended, but in spite of this, Newtown were awarded the game and matched to play Knockanore in the county final on November 24.

There was a very big crowd in attendance and despite rationing of petrol several cars were seen outside the grounds.

Dungarvan referee Jimmy Good, lined up the teams and spoke in strong terms about behaviour. He threw in the ball bang on time at 3 p.m. Knockanore had won the toss and decided to play with the 'hill' and the breeze.

LIVELY

Play was very lively from the start with an amount of tough tackling. Newtown pressed very hard, but with the Neville brothers, Donovan and Barry solid in defence the efforts of Mansfield, Duggan and Flynn were unsuccessful. Then in the 10th minute after Knockanore had missed 2 points, Newtown broke away to open the scoring with a point. Revins, Barry and O'Neill were very prominent for the side representing the West. O'Donovan took down a high ball, sent to J. O'Neill who sent over the bar for Knockanore's first score. A "50" to Newtown was taken by Larry Veale, but P. Neville cleared well to T. O'Neill who set up an attack, resulting in a great goal. Supporters went wild. Knockanore had made several switches and Murray, Moloney and Kelly were causing all sorts of problems for the Newtown defence. Baldwin was great in defence. Cunningham sent in a shot that was saved and sent over for a 50. This was taken by Mick Neville, saved by J. Dunne, who sent Newtown attacking and Nugent was almost through for a goal only for Barry and Revins. Eleven minutes from half-time, Tom O'Neill went high for a ball, drove hard to Cunningham who sent to P. Kelly who in turn dodged several Newtown defenders and shot to the net for a great goal to leave it 2-1 to 0-1 at half-time.

Knockanore made more changes and Baldwin was in goal and brought off two great saves in the second half which was more tough than good. Mick Neville fielded a high ball, sent it to the wing where it was met by Murray and passed to P. Kelly to raise Knockanore's only flag of the second half.

Newtown, who got the first score, were also to get the last and this was a point by Mansfield minutes from the end.

TREMENDOUS EXCITEMENT

A hug crowd of Knockanore supporters rushed on to the field to cheer their heroes amid tremendous excitement and the players were shouldered to the dressing rooms. Afterwards the team were welcomed home and greeted with bonfires as they arrived back on home ground.

Final Score — Knockanore 2-2 Newtown 0-2.

Newtown reported Knockanore to the Munster Council, who in turn instructed the Waterford Board not to award the trophies until the matter was investigated. Waterford ignored the instruction and the Munster Council subsequently gave the O.K.

Knockanore — J. Donovan, M. Neville, J. Neville, P. Barry, W. Revins, T. O'Neill, J. Baldwin, P. Neville, P. Kelly, M. Cunningham, J. O'Neill, J. Murray, T. Moloney, T. Donoghue, T. Kelly.

Newtown — L. Veale, J. Dunne, J. Wall, J. Cummins, E. Nugent, T. Lonergan, R. O'Connell, T. Mansfield, J. Mansfield, M. Mansfield, B. Mansfield, M. Duggan, T. Flynn, J. Power, J. Bluett.

NOTE

Johnnie Geasley who was a general factotem with Newtown all his life and one of the most sincere G.A.A. men that I have ever had the pleasure of knowing, told me that it would have taken a good senior team to have beaten the 'Knockers' on that day. Johnnie, R.I.P. died in hospital some months ago.

The Commemorative Function takes place on next Sunday night at the Shamrock Inn.

Week-End Of Tremendous Hurling Activity

The start of the county intermediate hurling championships and the resumption of the senior competition will give us plenty of hurling action over the coming week-end. On Sunday evening, Waterford play Laois in a Lismore sponsored tournament in hurling and both Divisional Boards also have a full list of championship matches down for decision.

So for supporters it will mean having to make a choice between venues and for a few of our clubs who have engagements on Saturday and Sunday, it will be a very busy time indeed.

MOUNT SION v. BALLYGUNNER

A look at the full list satisfies me that this will be the best and most keenly contested hurling match of the week-end. Some of the others may be good also but for the most part, I see little to get worked up about in the list.

Ballygunner are a bit unfortunate that their scheduled match with Fourmilewater was called off because of the Waterford/Clare football game on last Sunday. Having played against Ballyduff in a splendid first rounder, gives Mount Sion a head start and more often than not this is an advantage in the early stages.

The 'Gunners were beaten by a goal by the eventual champions Roanmore in the semi-final last year and this will be their first championship outing since that big disappointment. I recall seeing the same two, Mount Sion and Ballygunner play a thrilling draw in '97 (3-13 a piece). That was on the last Sunday of April and when eventually the sides were forced into a play-off, Mount Sion took one of their rare hammerings (5-8 to 0-7), but the 'Gunners still didn't win the championship. The last time on which they met was in '88 when Mount Sion had a two points win, 4-5 to 0-15.

The performances of such as Nial Warren, Anthony Qualter, Stephen Frampton, Billy and Eddie O'Sullivan, John Warren, John Connors, Ray Whitty and young Fergal Hartley of Ballygunner will be carefully watched by the county selectors and Mount Sion's Ger Fitzpatrick, Shane Ahearne, Peter Walsh, David Power, Michael Flanagan, Pat Ryan, Brian Greene, Pdraigh Fanning and David Power will also be looked at during the course of this eagerly awaited contest.

As I have written, I will be surprised if it is not one of the outstanding games of this championship and a game worth going a long way to see.

If Ballygunner are not affected by the lack of championship match practice, I expect that they can just about win.

BALLYDUFF v. PASSAGE

Sometimes a win in a top-class game, such as was the Ballyduff/Mount Sion game two weeks ago, does more harm than good. It can do Ballyduff more harm than good, if they perceive their match against Passage to be less demanding, because the Passage East club do not as yet, have a very high profile in the senior grade, which is comparatively new to them. Perhaps when they are reminded that Passage ran them to five points last year and Passage beat Mount Sion by 1-12 to 2-6 they will begin to realise that this game will require a full-blooded effort if they are to make sure of getting the points.

Sean Cullinane, Mossy O'Keeffe, Ray Corcoran, Pat, Paul and Noel Connors, Eddie, Anthony and Pat Fitzgerald and company are good enough to make it hot for any opponents, so good as Ballyduff were against Mount Sion, they will need to be at their best here as well. It is unlikely that Ballyduff will make any changes — that is if Seamie Hannon is fit to resume and recovered from the injury which forced him to retire in their first round game.

Ballyduff are given the vote in the expectation that they will make the required effort.

LISMORE v. PORTLAW

The loss of Seamus Prendergast will be a serious blow to Lismore who take on Portlaw at Fraher Field on Sunday. Both these teams had comprehensive wins in their respective first round games but when we take into account the quality of their opposition, it might be unwise to read anything wonderful into these results.

Two years ago, Portlaw gave Lismore a deserved six points beating but when the teams clashed last year, Lismore playing some of their best hurling of the championship won 4-13 to 2-10.

Portlaw now being trained by Kilkenny man, Kieran Brennan, intend making their way back up to the top and in scoring their ten points win over Clonea two weeks ago they gave a clear warning to the Lismores and others that they mean business this year.

It will take Lismore all their time to get the points here and if they are not at their best they won't win.

CAPPOQUIN v. ROANMORE

On the basis of their performance against Lismore it would be difficult if not impossible to fancy their prospects against the county champions, Roanmore. The champions played poorly against Ballyduff last week in the league. Roanmore will have their first match of the championship here and in spite of their league lapse, they should be good enough to win this one.

DUNGARVAN v. FOURMILEWATER

The injury to Ger Walsh in the game against Clare will be a big blow to Fourmilewater's hopes of beating Dungarvan in their second round tie at Cappoquin on Sunday afternoon.

Fourmilewater had their first round match postponed so this will be their first game in the senior championship.

I saw them beat Abbeyside at Colligan three weeks ago and they would certainly have to improve on this form to beat Dungarvan.

In the closing stages of their match with Passage, Dungarvan played their best hurling and if they can bring themselves to start on a high note they should be good enough to take their first two points. If they don't win here, their chances of winning later will be poor and the same can be said for Fourmilewater.

TALLOW v. CLONEA

When these teams met last year they played a draw. In the previous year when they met, Tallow had nine points to spare. I think that Tallow have now left last year's poor form behind them and are back in a challenging position again.

They may have to field without Pat Murphy who is reported to be injured, but nevertheless they should be good enough to win. A defeat for Tallow would certainly come as a surprise when their opponents are very much down on the list of contenders.

Senior Hurling v Laois At Lismore

At the time of writing there are many problems surrounding this match which is fixed for Lismore on Sunday at 7 p.m.

With at least five of the senior county team, Noel Crowley, Seamus Prendergast, Liam O'Connor, Pat Murphy and Peter Walsh on the injured list and a number of senior championship games listed for Sunday, the matter of filling the fixture could be a cause for concern. It would very likely be our final chance to play another county team in a worthwhile contest before our championship game against Cork/Kerry on June 3.

Junior Hurling Trial

A county junior hurling trial will take place at Dungarvan on Tuesday next, after which a panel will be chosen to go into training for the Munster championship in which we play Cork or Kerry in the semi-final at Thurles on Sunday, June 3, the same date as the hurling semi-final involving ourselves and Cork/Kerry.

We have been given permission to play our second best team in this championship. Clubs will be expected to inform the selectors of the names of players, whom they consider worthy of a trial as soon as possible.

Scholarships

I understand that the number of applications received on the closing date is not up to the usual number. The county secretary has stated that the interviews will take place on next Saturday and successful candidates will be notified by post.

The interview at Dungarvan will take place at Lawlor's at 3 p.m. and in Portlaw at 11 a.m. A total of twelve are on offer to Colaiste Na Rinne for the July/August session.

County Board Meeting

With no meeting having been held in April, it is expected that quite an amount of business will be transacted on next Monday night when the Board meets in Dungarvan. The meeting will be given a report on Congress and on related matters.

There will be a discussion on championship progress and some positive announcement is expected concerning the playing of the 1989 county under-21 football final.

Intermediate Hurling Championships

Kill venue will have its first double fixture in this grade on Sunday afternoon and this will certainly pose no problems for this very fine and spacious field which was opened two years ago.

ABBEYSIDE v. DE LA SALLE

When these teams clashed at Portlaw last year, Abbeyside fared disappointingly. Because of a late switch of venue, a few of their players arrived late and this upset things for them. The final score was 2-10 to 0-5. It was the only win recorded by De La Salle and Abbeyside fared even worse with no win.

Things could turn out better for Abbeyside this year and the players are coming along nicely under coach and trainer Dave Sheehan. Unfortunately, Ian Kiely was injured in training last week and will miss out on the game and his absence will be a blow.

However, with Michael and Ger Collins, Jimmy Healy, John McGrath, Mark Reynolds, Pat McGovern, Tom Kenneally, Dave Sheehan, Frank Sweeney, Tadgh Murphy, John Cosgrave, etc., they will certainly stand a much better chance than they had in the same game last year.

MOLLERANS v. STRADBALLY

Stradbally's best display last year was in their controversial match with St. Saviour's where the game was declared a draw before being subsequently awarded to Saviours after a recheck of the scores by the referee. Stradbally did have victories over Tramore and Kilgobinet and were heavily beaten by Fourmilewater and Mollerans.

Mollerans were surprisingly beaten by Erin's Own in the semi-final. I don't know if Stradbally expect to do any better this year but I'm sure that Pat Curran, now back on the county panel, Liam, Fintan and Eoin O'Brien, Conor O'Brien, Joe Roche, Alo Curran, Michael Coffey and company will hope for better results and try to get off to a good start in this one.

I feel that the Mollerans will have too much power and will win.

COLLIGAN v. ERIN'S OWN

The only game which Erin's Own lost last year was the county final in which they were beaten by Fourmilewater. Their victories included a win over Colligan in a very fine game at Dungarvan. According to reports, Jimmy Beresford is nursing a muscle ailment and Liam O'Connor will be out with an injured thumb. If both miss out, the absences will be balanced.

In either case the teams are rather evenly matched and there should be very little between them at the end. Both must be strongly in contention to go up his year, so the result here will be important. Colligan will have Patsy Coffey, Billy Fraher, Lar Beresford, John Dunford, Ollie Whelan, Pat Hickey, Liam Beresford, Noel Drohan, Anthony Walsh, Kevin McGrath, John Ahearne, Kevin Cliffe and company and must have a chance of reversing the 2-13 to 2-10 scoreline which made them the runners-up in the same game last year.

JUNIOR GAME

The best of the eight junior matches down for decision will be the meeting of An Rinn and Ballinameela at Cappoquin on Saturday. Last year they met twice in tough and uncompromising encounters which resulted in some suspensions. They are both among the contenders for the title and the result here will be of great importance. An Rinn are the fancied side.

Ballysaggart are likely to have the edge on Kilgobinet in their junior hurling tie at Cappoquin on Sunday afternoon. Kilgobinet were in the intermediate championships last year, but defections have reduced their effectiveness to some extent and I don't think it likely that they will be good enough to get the points in this one.

Lismore must be fancied to beat Dungarvan in their junior hurling tie at Colligan on Saturday, but there is nothing certain about the outcome of the Clashmore v. Geraldines clash at Brickey Park. Clashmore strike me as being the likely winners here.

The meeting of Cappoquin and Stradbally at Abbeyside in the second string hurling competition will be a low key affair as neither are strong in the grade. Cappoquin will be strongly fancied to win.

Kilrossanty, who had a good year in hurling last season, will be the favourites and the likely winners of their meeting with Eire Og in junior hurling at Abbeyside on Saturday, and Modeligo must be favourites to beat Melleray in junior football at Lismore, also on Saturday.

Shamrocks and Tallow meet in junior hurling at Ballyduff and a defeat for Tallow here would be a big surprise.

HANDBALL NEWS

Valiant Effort By Mulcahy Just Fails

Deck Mulcahy, who won four All-Ireland 60x30 championships in the past three years, was beaten by Kilkenny's P. O'Keeffe in two straight games 21-6, 21-14 in the All-Ireland Golden Masters 40x20 final at Garryhill, Co. Carlow. As O'Keeffe is a 40x20 specialist and has campaigned in America, a country he was resident in, Mulcahy's task was really a mountain in his first attempt.

It was some achievement to get to the final and he is adamant that he did not play as good as he can and will definitely play in it again next year, God willing, so good luck to O'Keeffe, the best man won on the day.

Bro. F. Spring of the Augustinians has started to revive handball in the college. This great handball enthusiast from Kerry was surprised to hear that there were two handball courts in the old priory at one time and T. Lawn of the Square and Fr. J. Power were just a few of the handballers who enjoyed playing there. So, good luck Bro., and let's hope it will be availed of in the college and I am sure D. Mulcahy will be only too glad to give some coaching lessons.

RESULTS

The result of the senior game against Clare was a big disappointment to the fine crowd who turned up hopeful of a first round win. It was particularly disappointing because it was a match that we should have won and would have won were it not for the inaccurate shooting by our forwards.

We were the fitter team by far and we enjoyed more possession than our visitors who were better able to make use of their lesser number of chances. We had a total of 14 wides and Clare had 7 and those figures do not fully illustrate the number of missed chances.

On three occasions we were unlucky not to have scored goals, but our worst luck was near the end of the game when a Jim McGrath cross went inches wide at the unguarded side of the goal.

With about ten minutes remaining we were only two points down and even at this stage it looked as if we could pull it off, but two late points for Clare sealed the victory for the visitors who had then won their first championship game in four years.

The result of the junior game was an even bigger disappointment as this was a match that we had won and failed to hold. Leading by six points and playing with the breeze, proved not to be enough. A very doubtful goal in added time has now cost us a trip to Ennis or Limerick for the replay on Sunday, May 20, where it will be played as a curtain-raiser to the McGrath Cup.

Clare had 27 on their senior panel and 28 on the junior according to the programme. Gate receipts were £2,400.

Ballyduff Club History

Ballyduff Upper, whose history dates back to the beginning of the G.A.A. in the county will become the fifth club in this division to launch their club history at a ceremony to be held at the Grand Hotel, Fermoy on Thursday, May 24. The Associated President, John Dowling has confirmed that he will attend.

Fogged Off!

A very heavy fog blowing in from the sea, caused the abandonment of three Western Board junior championship games on Saturday evening.

At Stradbally where Ballinacourty were due to play Kilrossanty, the game was cancelled altogether, but at Leamybrien, referee Charlie Browne, played 45 minutes of the junior football game between Stradbally and Brickeys before he decided that it was impossible to continue. At the time, Stradbally led by 1-11 to 0-0.

A junior hurling championship game between Ardmore and Geraldines at Seana Phobal was called off after just 13 minutes.

Not Played

The junior hurling game involving Modeligo and Melleray was postponed because a Modeligo player, Johnnie Byrnes was involved with the county junior football team against Clare.

OPEN SATURDAY 11 to 4

Telethonic Day At C.B.S.

Friday last, May 4, was certainly a busy day at Dungarvan C.B.S. in aid of the People In Need Telethon. The main fund-raising event came in the form of a sponsored soccer marathon by the 5th Year students. Some £320 were raised by this venture and we are most grateful for the help of the Gardai, the C.B.S. Primary School, Mr. Tomas Walsh, Brian Wall and Conor White during the day.

As the afternoon arrived the fund-raising bug became well and truly rampant as we witnessed sights such as strangely clad teachers and students, wet sponge throwing, egg swallowing, car washing, filling and pushing, window cleaning, lap running, hand standing and trick cycling.

To round off the day a soccer match between the 5th Years and teachers ended in an exciting 3-3 draw where again the Telethon appeal was the real winner.

In all, the secondary students raised over £450 for charity on a day where they can be very proud of their efforts and where we all learned a few lessons in social awareness.
