CRYSTAL WORKERS STRIKE

Deadlock Between Sides

Continues

— But Time Is Running Out Says Labour Minister

As the strike at the Waterford Crystal plants in Waterford City and Dungarvan enters its eighth week there is still deadlock between the workers and management and efforts to bring the parties to the negotiating table have so far proved unsuccessful.

The latest of these was the move made by Minister for Labour, Mr. Bertie Ahern, to get the sides together last week-end but this also failed when a mass meeting of the workers refused to accept the provisions put forward by the Minister in his peace initiative. Later the Minister, in a radio interview, expressed his deep concern at this latest failure to get talks going between the sides stating that time was running out as only a week to ten days remained for some settlement to be reached between the Union and Management before the Board of the Company would step in.

On Monday night, Dr. P. Galvin, Chief Executive of Waterford Crystal said that the jobs of the 2,300 workforce at the three plants were now "seriously at risk." He said that he was "deeply concerned" at the Union's refusal to participate in discussions with management on the basis proposed by the Minister which was rejected because

Identity Of Dungarvan Lotto Winner Remains A Mystery

While the identity of the woman who was one of the eight winners who divided the £2 million plus National Lottery jackpot last week still remained a secret up to Tuesday evening, her winning ticket which netted her £254,000 was purchased by her at The Central Newsagency, Grattan Square, Dungarvan.

On Monday, rumours were rife around the town as to the identity of the winner but the owner of The Central Newsagency, Mr. Bob Pugh while confirming that the ticket was purchased in his shop would not budge as to the person's identity.

However the "Leader" was informed on Tuesday that while lightning was supposed to never strike in the same place twice we were not to be surprised if the mystery winner turned out to be a fairly near neighbour of Mr. Michael Browne, Rathmeaden, Kilmac-thomas who was himself one of the first major Lotto jackpot winners. All we can say, in the circumstances, is maybe!

THE HOLY SPIRIT IS LIFE

The universality of the Church, which we profess in the Creed, is an evident characteristic in the Church from her very foundation. It is to be seen in Philip's mission to the Samaritans as described in the first reading. You'll remember, a few Sundays back the Gospel presented us with a scene at Jacob's well. A woman was drawing water, and Jesus asked her for a drink. She responded: "how come that you a Jew asket me, a Samaritan, for a drink." As you know, there was hostile relations between their two peoples. Yet! following Philip's sojourn among them, they were so eager for the word of God that Peter and John went among them, and laid hands on them so that they might receive the Holy Spirit.

The Church's beginning may well be compared to the mustard seed, but it was one that was bursting with the power of the Holy Spirit. The early Christians had the task of spreading the Good News. They not only understood that the Lord had not left them orphans, but they were fully aware of the support of the Holy Spirit. They knew that just as the soul was to the body, the Holy Spirit was to Christ's Body, the Church. Too, they believed that the Church was for men and women irrespective of their race or colour, and so it would be till the end of time. The Lord did not want His followers to isolate themselves. Whilst their homeland was not of this world, He expected them to be at home wherever they were. They were not to employ force to subjugate others, but, like their Masters who never exercised compulsion, they were to feed them with the word of God. They were to persuade by example. Hence, we should be conscious of our responsibility. Remember, you may be the only Gospel that many may see and read. You represent Christ. He is depending on you to let His light shine, and dispel the darkness. However, I feel there's a need to ask on account of the way the world is going: have we put the lid on our spiritual life? Or, are we keeping our religion up our sleeves?

Our world today is very different from the world in which the Church was launched. Nowadays, most have heard, at least vaguely, of Jesus. Yet, not only are there greater numbers, but the need to present the living Christ is more vital. People are so caught up in their achievements that there's little room for God. Added to the difficulty of popularizing God, where He is not wanted, hindrances from false prophets cloud the day. Had the Apostles allowed themselves to be swayed by the circumstances that prevailed in their time, we'd be still in our sins. It is clear the world is sick. It is also evident that she requires signs to convince her that Jesus is her salvation. It is up to us to let the world know that Jesus is alive and active. And, we have got to convince her that there's life beyond the grave.

It is of the very nature of the church to be universal or Catholic. Her function is to bring the message of salvation to all peoples irrespective of who or what they are. And, as the Lord Commanded: "I have made you, My Church, a light for the nations, so that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth." So, "Go and teach all nations . . ." Already, I have stated that the Church's role is not to beat people into submission or impose her teachings on the subdued. God's power is in His message. It is inevitable that the Church will experience persecution and suffering and rejection, but she can never forsake her role. She must persist in the saving of souls.

THE POWER OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

The second reading and the Gospel both teach us that the Church is sustained and invigorated by the power of the Holy Spirit. He is one who directs, purifies, strengthens and supplies the zeal to urge us into action. Without His help our moral life would be in tatters. Hence, if we hope to take our place in extending the frontiers of the Church, we must gird ourselves with His Spirit, which we're able to draw from the Sacraments, especially Confession and Holy Communion. And, if it is happiness and contentment you seek in life, then this is your road. There's no other way.

The Irish people are not without their faults, but to me they are still God's own people. Ireland, like many other nations, has experienced tremendous progress and success, and she has reaped a fair share of riches, thanks be to God. However, it is very true that many get so absorbed in worldly affairs, that they lose their taste for God. Now, whilst it is true to say that greater numbers than ever are more aware of the Holy Spirit in their lives, growing numbers too on account of the din of the world, are failing to hear His voice. These people need help. Unless we help to kindle the fire of love in their hearts, they'll fall a prey to unbelief. It means, we pray and invite the Holy Spirit to be our guide and our help, and we promise to be His light to the blind. Most of us will never accomplish more than the little things. The secret lies in knowing they hold our greatness. Do them for God. It is a most potent way of bearing witness. Above all, bring that spirit into your homes, and your homes will ring with the sound of joy and happiness, and help to make Christian Marriage a light to the world.

Waterford Regional Airport Will Become South-East Gateway To Europe

Plans on foot for Waterford Regional Airport would make it the gateway to Europe for the south-east region and in time the best regional airport in the country, Mr. Dan Hurley, County Manager, told members of Waterford Co. Council at their May monthly meeting held last week in Dungarvan.

In the course of a special report which was placed before the meeting, Mr. Hurley referred to the Council's association with the Airport project since it was first mooted in 1980. Originally funded by government grant aid, local authority subvention and local voluntary subscription, a new public liability company was established last February in order to broaden the capital base to finance the future development of the airport. A prospectus for 500,000 ordinary shares of £1 had been issued towards this end.

The Manager's report went on to state: "The Council has in the past number of years provided a subvention of £10,000 per annum towards the ongoing costs. Under the restructuring that has taken place and the proposed issue of shareholding, I would not see the necessity for this continuing. However, I would recommend to the Council that the Council subscribe for shares to the extent of £30,000 and maintain our continuing interest in the development."

Mr. Brian O'Shea, T.D., proposed that the Co. Manager's recommendation to subscribe £30,000 for shares in the new company be endorsed by the Council. He added that the public response to the shares issue had been most encouraging.

The proposal was seconded by Cllr. Paddy Cahill who said that the new company was deserving of the fullest support.

Cllr. B. Kyne supported the proposal but warned that the project should not be seen to be just a Waterford City Airport. If it is to succeed as it should he felt that the new company should sell its facilities throughout the hinterland of West Waterford and even farther afield. "It must be marketed as a regional airport if it is to reach its fullest potential," he said.

The Co. Manager, Mr. Hurley agreed with the point made by Cllr. Kyne and added that the airport was on its way to becoming the best airport in the country. "It will be the gateway to Europe for the entire south-east region in the years ahead," he said.

The Council unanimously approved of the Manager's recommendation to subscribe £30,000 for shares in the new company.

Know Your Rights

Q. — Can you give me details about the new Carer's Allowance?

A. — The new allowance for Carer's will come into effect in October and it will replace the existing Prescribed Relatives Allowance. The full rate will be £45 with increases for the carer's child dependants.

There will be a means test similar to the Non-Contributory Old Age Pension. If the pensioner has other income in addition to their Social Welfare Payment, then this other income may be taken into account in the means test. So, some carers will receive a reduced rate and others will not be eligible for any payment.

To qualify for the allowance the carer must be living with and giving full-time care and attention to a Social Welfare pensioner, who must be in need of full-time care and attention. The pensioner must be getting an Invalidity or Blind Pension or be aged 66 and getting a Social Welfare payment.

The carer doesn't have to be a relative and can be male or female. The fact that others are residing with the carer and the pensioner will not be a bar on getting the allowance. This means that married women will be eligible. However, half the spouses means will be assessed against her in the means test and this could result in her getting a reduced amount or nothing. If her husband is getting a Social Welfare payment he will lose the increase he receives for her and also half the increase for the children. She will be paid the £45 and half the child's dependant allowance (£5.50 per child), so there will be some gain.

Those presently receiving the Prescribed Relatives Allowance can remain on this payment if it would be to their advantage.

ULTIMATE CHALLENGE

There was only one thing that was going to dominate the thoughts of everyone last weekend and that was the ultimate challenge on Sunday at Dogleaf Park. It was a glorious day that saw a very large crowd in attendance, the T.V. (well O.K. video) cameras were present and even the editor and some of the crew from the "Parish News" were in evidence. It proved a very enjoyable game with everyone going home happy as both games ended in draws.

YOUNGER SCOUTS 1 LINK BADGE SELECTION 1

The afternoon kicked off when the younger scouts captained by Sean Kelleher took on the Link Badge Selection captained by Michael Kelleher. This was a very close contest with both goals coming in the first half, a cracker by John Organ for the Younger Scouts, levelling the issue. For the Link Badge Michael Verling, David Shepherd (we got it right this week David), Colm Fennell and Garvan McCarthy were all superb, while for the Younger Scouts Michael Kelleher was outstanding, others who caught the eye were John Kyne, Mark O'Riordan and Colin O'Connor.

SCOUTING PAST 1

The main match proved just as exciting with a star studded Scouting Past team assembled by Paddy Whelan starting the match in a manner that would have made Alex Ferguson happy.

A first half dominated by the Past, ended scoreless. In the second half a cross by James Moore was headed in as the Scouting Past queued up to knock it in the very first minute. A change of tactics by the Present team changed the whole course of the match and it was only a matter of time before they equalised, a Cosgrave one-two (John Paul to Michael) saw Michael equalise with a stunning drive. From then on it was one way traffic but amazingly there was no breakthrough (well there was but it was ruled off-side.)

It was nice to see such a large number of scouts from the past taking part, a few to mention were, Martin O'Donnell, Paddy Murphy, Felix Shields, Eddie Cashin, Willie Kiely, Pat Langan, Billy Kyne, Joe Riordan, Greg Fives, James Veale and Sean Whelan.

For the Scouting Present line-up was A. Mullarkey, A. Ryan, A. Kiely, R. Moore, B. Flynn (capt), M. Cosgrave, D. French, F. McGovern, M. Shepherd, J. P. Cosgrave. Subs. — B. Kiersey, C. Walsh and P. Tobin were also used. Before the match began and after the team photos, captains Brendan Flynn and Felix Shields exchanged pennants which was a nice touch.

THANKS

For their help in making this enjoyable day possible we would like to thank the following:— W. J. Kennelly (the sub. goalie) and Abbeyside Soccer Club for making the pitch available and lining it; Brian Mulvihill and all his crew who cut and raked the grass last Thursday; Eddie Moore for recording the historic occasion; Theresa Twohig, Finola McCarthy, Geoff Shepherd and the catering crew who provided the tea, orange and biscuits, which were enjoyed by everyone back in the den after the match; to Vincent Tobin (Ballinroad Soccer Club) who gave up his afternoon for the difficult task of refereeing both matches and finally all the players and spectators who made the whole thing possible. If there is anyone else who helped and is omitted we say thanks.

Roll on 1991 for the next challenge.

TICKETS, TICKETS

In the next few days if you live in Abbeyside, two of our representatives should give you a call, selling tickets for our annual Grand Draw.

All we ask is that you give us your usual support on this our biggest fundraiser of the year.

SYMPATHY

We extend our sympathy to our committee member Vincent O'Mahoney on the recent death of his father-in-law William Kelleher.

Dungarvan Youth Club Notes

BLIND DATE

As Cilla Black had a prior engagement, Michael Wright hosted our Blind Date with Comeragh Youth Club.

Elaine, Paki, Fitzy and Jackie were the four lucky Dungarvan contestants who went on blind dates with four Comeragh contestants. John Ryan very kindly donated a £5 voucher to all 8 and when the show was over they all went hand-in-hand down to J.R.'s where Michael Havens videoed them on their dates.

Back at the club we held a disco until they came back. We'll have to wait to see the video before we see how they got on with each other.

It was a good night and we would like to thank Michael Wright, John Ryan, and of course, Comeragh Youth Club.

BE ACTIVE, BE ALIVE

In aid of the Be Active,

Be Alive week, we travelled to Comeragh on Sunday where we played three soccer games. Our Under-18's lost a very hard fought game, the final score was 5-0 to Comeragh.

The girls played next and they also lost to Comeragh 4-0.

Our Under-16 boys did better. Killian Power scored from the penalty spot and we thought we had the game won only for a late equaliser from Comeragh, which brought the game into a penalty shoot out giving the last game to Comeragh.

But we didn't go home disappointed because, despite losing, we enjoyed ourselves and supported the Be Active, Be Alive week.

MUCKROSS

We are still taking names for Muckross, anyone interested in going can give their names to Susan or Louise, but please hurry.

Meatloaf For Conna Castle Entertainment

The June Bank Holiday week-end is just round the corner and everybody is wondering where to go, of course, there is one place to be — Conna for the MEATLOAF Live Concert. Conna have landed its biggest ever act in their 25 years of staging entertainment at the Castle. So June 2 is the day where Conna is concerned and the Brideside Village should be thronged with MEATLOAF fans.

Conna was once described as a sleepy village by a press reporter but over the years this remark has been lifted and artists and bands such as Susan McCann, Philomena Begley, Ray Lynam, Furey Bros., Dubliners and last year Smokie have lifted the tempo to extreme heights and proved where live entertainment is concerned, Conna Castle is second to none. With MEATLOAF on the menu the fans are sure to get a belly full of music and song and with a thirst quencher, it looks like ## being a merry night. PICTURESQUE SETTING

At the castle grounds a special stage will be constructed in an ideal site to ensure a good view of the performers for all the patrons. This picturesque setting should add a romantic element to the event and provide an exciting, hectic night of entertainment. The concert commences at 10 p.m. with MEATLOAF taking the stage at around 11.30 p.m. Tickets for the concert cost £10 and can be got from a number of local outlets.

Touraneena Notes

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

An emigrant re-union in London in November is being planned in the West Waterford area. Relatives, friends and other interested people are invited to think about travelling and participating. Travel will be by air or over land by coach, which ever is preferred. Accommodation at a reasonable price will be arranged in London and Mass followed by a meal, a drink, a song and dance and a general get together will be held on the Sunday night.

The main object of the exercise is to make our people living in England, feel remembered and cared about and to bring them a good flavour of home for that week-end — apart from the enjoyment of a lively week-end in London, shopping and sight seeing for those who will travel. So give it some thought and if you think you would like to go, please phone Fr. Keogh at 058/47138.

Dear Lisa, I would like to thank you and all the other members of the Tidy Towns Committee for giving me such a marvellous tour of Clashmore on Saturday morning. I was most impressed by the charm of Clashmore and by its unspoilt features. Your little river is very attractive, especially since you have managed to get that lovely grassed area planted. The remains of the old distillery is a most unusual and outstanding feature and I hope that you will be able to preserve and enhance it.

Please convey my thanks to Fr. Meehan, Davy Foley, Jim McGrath and all the other active members of your association.

Best wishes for success in the 1990 competition.

Yours sincerely, Carmencita Hederman, 9 Upper Leeson Street, Dublin 4. May 3, 1990.

Closure Of Rural Sub-Post Offices

Calling on An Post not to close any more Sub-Post Offices, Cllr. Seamus Dunphy at the May monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held in Dungarvan stated that as matters stood, rural areas all over the country were suffering.

He said that already hundreds of sub-post offices had been closed in the move towards more centralisation by An Post. As a result large country areas were now left without a post office which was most unfair especially to the old people in these areas. "If this move by An Post goes on we will wind up in the end with post offices only in large towns," said Cllr. Dunphy.

The proposal was seconded by Cllr. S. Whelan who said that it was now rumoured that the post office at Ballinamult was in line for closure and was passed unanimously.

Modernisation Grant For Helvick Trawler

Marine, Mr. John P. Wilson.

The grant for Helvick is for £13,956 for the trawler "Berceau de St. Pierre" owned by Mr. Maurice Kelly.

WEDDING BELLS

The beautiful Church of St. Mary's, Touraneena, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, May 5, when Joseph (Joe), son of Mr. Patrick and Mrs. Eileen Lawlor, Hollywood, Co. Wicklow, was married to Catherine, daughter of Mr. John and the late Mrs. Mary Tobin, Renadaumpun Commons, Ballymacarbry.

The bride was given away by her father and looked charming in a white georgette dress with undertones of delicate pink and insets of mother of pearl brocade. At the back, ruffles cascaded from the waist through a six foot long train which was carried by two flower girls, also in pink and white.

Bridesmaids were her sister Mary Bridget, Colette Flynn, Fiona Crotty and her sister Helen Laverty was matron of honour. The best man was Dave Lawlor while the groomsmen were Peter, Pat and John Lawlor, Tony Hogan and John Flynn.

The marriage ceremony with Nuptial Mass was solemnised by Rev. Fr. Jim Kiely, O.S.A., Hammer-smith, London (late of Touraneena), assisted by Rev. Fr. P. J. Brady, O.F.M., Multyfarnham, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The reception was held at the Clonea Strand Hotel, Clonea, where a large number of guests attended.

The honeymoon is being spent touring the country. We extend best wishes to the newly weds for a life of unclouded happiness and prosperity in the years to come.

HOLY COMMUNION

Children of Ballymacarbry National School received their First Holy Communion on Saturday last at St. Laurence's Church, Four-Mile-Water.

On Friday morning last, about 230 pupils from the school attended Mass for the late Canon Dan O'Byrne, P.P., at Four-Mile-Water Church.

SAFETY EXPERTS TO VISIT BALLYMACARBRY

Inspectors from the Health and Safety Association (H.S.A.) will be visiting farms in the Ballymacarbry area during Waterford Health and Safety Awareness Week (May 21-25) to stress and promote the importance of health and safety on the farm.

Most weeks, an average of one accidental death takes place on the farm and about 5,000 accidents occur each year with more than half of them severe.

LADIES FOOTBALL

At the Mill Field, Ballymacarbry on Friday evening last, Kill/Na Deise team defeated Ballymacarbry 3-6 to 0-7 in the final of the Under-16 A Championships for the Mercy Cup which was presented to the winning captain after the game.

The referee was Paddy (Tyler) Walsh.

WILL THE VISITORS CLEAN US OUT?

A circular recently published by the National Association of the Regional Game Council says that organised "Shooting Tourism" is moving fast towards the stage where the numbers of certain game birds are being put at risk. The Continental hunters are being attracted to this country to shoot birds such as snipe and woodcock, which cannot be restocked.

A recent advertisement went so far as to say that the visitor, provided he was a good shot, could shoot up to 80 birds a day. Bord Failte indicates that there is no limit to killing migratory birds and are planning to increase the level of commercialised hunting.

The Game Association claims there is an inequality as between the resident and the visiting sportsman. Unlike the visitors, the resident is subject to the scrutiny of the Gardai before he can obtain a firearms certificate; his licence expires on the last day of July while a visitor's licence is in force until its anniversary date. Also the visitor is permitted to have up to five times the quantity of ammunition allowed to the resident sportsman.

I.C.A. NOTES

There was a large attendance at the Hall, Ballymacarbry on Monday night of last week for the Applique (Fabric Pictures) display given by Eva Marie Helm, Toureen, Ballymacarbry at the ICA meeting.

Consideration is being given to running a course on Applique, Herb Remedies and Wine Making and anybody interested should contact Maisie McDonald (058/47194) or any ICA member.

Congratulations to Tina O'Brien on the recent birth of a baby boy.

LATE REV. CANON DAN O'BYRNE, P.P.

The parish and its inhabitants learned with great sadness on Thursday morning last of the passing of Very Rev. Canon Dan O'Byrne, P.P., V.F. (Retired), Four-Mile-Water and Newcastle.

A native of Round Hill, Lismore, he was appointed Parish Priest at Four-Mile-Water and Newcastle on October 18, 1969. As a priest he was kind, considerate and understanding and was ever available to help anyone who found the burdens of life too heavy to bear.

He was beloved of the parishioners in all the parishes throughout the Diocese where he had served (including Dungarvan), during the fifty-five odd years in which he had laboured in the Lord's vineyard. He celebrated his Golden Jubilee in 1981 and retired owing to ill-health on October 7, 1986.

During his pastorate he carried out extensive renovations to the churches of Four-Mile-Water and Newcastle, also to the parochial house, built a new school at Ballymacarbry and a new curate's house at Newcastle.

On Thursday evening his remains were removed from the Cottage Nursing Home, Clonmel to St. Carthage's Cathedral, Lismore and on Friday evening the interment took place after Concelebrated Requiem Mass, in the adjoining cemetery.

To his bereaved relatives we extend our sympathy.

LATE THOMAS McGRATH

With sadness and profound regret we record the demise of Mr. Thomas McGrath, Feddane, Rathgormack, which sad event took place suddenly in Cardiff where he had been living for close on thirty years. He was a great favourite with all who had the good fortune of knowing him and the large numbers at his funeral obsequies were ample testimony of his popularity. In his younger days he was an outstanding footballer with Rathgormack.

His remains were removed from Walshe's Funeral Home, Carrick-on-Suir to Rathgormack Church and on the following morning after Requiem Mass the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To his parents, his brothers and sisters we convey our sympathy.

next when they take on Dungarvan in what should be a thrilling game in Stradbally at 7.30 p.m.

YOUTHS LEAGUE

PENSMAN Takes You . . . Behind The SPOTLIGHT

NEIGHBOURHOOD UNITY CAN DETER CRIME

Many areas throughout the county especially in rural districts have already initiated a "Neighbourhood Watch" scheme as sponsored by the Community Relations Section of the Garda Siochana. The latest area where plans are proceeding to initiate the scheme is Abbeyside and at present members of an ad hoc committee are engaged in carrying out a survey of the residents of the area as to their attitude towards the scheme.

There can be little doubt but that burglary and vandalism are the principal crimes committed in most areas every year. To combat these and other such crimes, community involvement is essential as there cannot be a Garda at every corner throughout every hour of the day and night. By co-operating with each other and with the gardai people can help to fight crime in their communities in the most effective way — before it begins!

This is where the Neighbourhood Watch scheme can prove a major factor as it provides a means of reducing the opportunity for crime through the active participation of people in crime prevention. In addition it provides a sense of security for individuals or families who leave their houses vacant for any length of time while on holidays or for other reasons while it also provides a way of utilising the talents and energies of those interested to reduce criminal activity.

For this reason we cannot too strongly commend this scheme to the residents of Abbeyside where steps to initiate it are at present being taken nor indeed to any other areas where the introduction of the scheme might be considered.

The scheme involves a programme of mutual assistance among neighbours and encourages them to get to know each other, to work together alert to potential crime and entails a willingness to look out for one another's interests. It also stresses the need for residents to make their homes less inviting as targets for thieves by participating in property marking, thus making personal property less likely to be stolen.

In due course special security signs are publicly displayed in those areas where the scheme is in operation and these serve as a further warning to would be criminals. The heart of Neighbourhood Watch consists of caring and supportive neighbours who by working in close co-operation with the local Gardai can significantly reduce, not just the incidence of crime, but also the fear of crime.

OUR WORLD CUP COMPETITIONS

This is the last issue of the "Leader" in which our World Cup Competitions appear before the closing date next Tuesday, May 29, so anyone who still wants to be in to win should make the final effort this coming week-end.

It is now only a good fortnight away from the start of the great soccer extravaganza which will see the cream of the soccer wizards in the best teams in the world battle for the supreme honour of winning the World Cup in Italy. Soccer mania is gathering momentum and as the great sporting bonanza gets under way on Friday, June 8 it will be reaching fever pitch.

And then for a whole month we will be having soccer for breakfast, dinner and tea until the epic final takes place in Rome in Sunday, July 8.

So get in the mood now with a last fling in our competitions for which there will be mementoes for both young and adult winning competitors which should prove valuable keepsakes of such a wonderful occasion in the years to come.

THIS QUESTION OF CELIBACY

Apropos the article "Pause For Thought" in last week's issue of the "Leader" in which our Father Paddy touched on the question of married priests and the opinions of some of our youth on the matter, we must say that it is difficult to comprehend the excuses being put forward by those who decry a celibate clergy and indeed by those priests who have opted out to get married.

The national radio and television service provides a ready forum for many of these defectors and we recall in particular the appearance on the Gay Byrne "Late Late Show" on a recent Friday night of former priest David Rice who was being interviewed about his book, "Shattered Vows." We can only describe this person's efforts to explain why he threw his celibate vows over the wall as the whining of a weakling.

Had the man been forced to follow the celibate way of life we could see some point in his complaining while we could still have some sympathy for his "predicament" were he mistaken initially in choosing a celibate role rather than marriage and were that mistake his own. But some married folk however, far from sympathising, must envy David Rice his good fortune in obtaining a dispensation from his vow of celibacy after changing his mind. These would be those who, having made a mistake in their choice of spouse find they must live with an incompatible partner "till death do them part."

To our way of thinking these people are more deserving of sympathy than a drop out priest who freely made a vow, knew what he was doing and what the vow entailed, grew tired of keeping it and then succeeds in having the vow dispensed.

Certainly all those who have to endure unhappy marriages cannot be blamed if they think that such priests are not so badly done by or if, in the circumstances, they come to the belief that there is one law for priests and another, and harsher one, for lay people.

It is indeed disconcerting when a priest goes back on his word and flouts the law to get what he wants while those with marriage problems, equally as great, must toe the line.

HAVE YOU HEARD A CUCKOO?

A few years ago, ornithologists were discussing the phenomenal decline of the comcrake — one of the most characteristic summer migrants to this country up to that time. The almost total disappearance of the bird was attributed to a change in farming work practices and particularly to the introduction of silage making.

Now the spotlight has swung on the disappearing cuckoo and it would be interesting to hear from any reader who may have become aware of the advent of this now rara avis to any part of the county so far this year. As the old rhyme has it:

The cuckoo comes in April and sings its song in May,

In leafy June it changes its tune and in July it flies away,

Like the first swallows — we saw a few flitting around our house in Abbeyside last Friday evening — the cuckoo was always a summer harbinger. What a pity that it's disappearing.

Incidentally our locality is swarming with magpies and the numbers seem to be ever-growing over the past few years. What a pity that it's all not in reverse!

LITTLE COINCIDENCES

For the superstitious, the fact that Good Friday this year fell on Friday, April 13 was a quite a noteworthy date. On another plane last Monday was another date of special significance.
While the calendar marked it as Monday, May 21, it was also the 21st
Monday in the year 1990!

THE FAIR DAY OF AFFANE

One hundred and twenty years ago on May 14, 1870, Michael Cavanagh, the poet from Cappoquin, was in Washington, D.C., and recalling that it was the Fair Day of Affane as well as the "pattern"-day of Lismore, he composed a poem full of memories of his boyhood days. Although we are a week or so behind May 14 now, "The Fair Of Affane" should prove a fairly topical choice for our ballad corner this week:

My blessings go back to my old home this pleasant fourteenth of May,
For there in the days of my boyhood 'twas,
it was the grand pleasant day.
We had "lashins" of fun of all sorts which brought to us joy evermore,
For it was the Fair Day of Affane sure,
and the Pattern Day of Lismore.

To my neighbours of Tubber-na -Cartha
I'll leave to relate
How they recalled old St. Carthage's glory and piously honoured his day,
But we, heaven pardon our fathers, who left us no saint of our own
The festival kept in a fashion we had at the "Old Cornerstone."

The comcrake calls from the meadow, the thrush pipes from Kilderrihen,
The blackbird's voice mellowed by distance,
floats over from leafy Tourin,
And the human-like voice of the cuckoo floats over our heads in the air,
Oh, I hear them again this morning,
I wish from my heart I was there.

Where branches the road, the poor "dummy" leans pensively over the wall,
He gives us the smile and the handshake,
for we know he loves us all,
Though he "speaks" no thanks for our "feirins," they're seen in his misty blue eye,
And he knows he'll never want for the "dudeen" full while we the price could supply.

Arriving at the Churchyard, we march the Fair Green down,
We meet with a knowing gamester who wins our sole half-crown,
But knowing the rascal cheated, with a fierce avenging swoop,
We scatter his peas and thimble, and slate old trick-o'-the-loop.

Still led by the spirit of mischief we gather round the spot,
Where swearing "Mickel the butcher" stands
over his boiling pot,
But who can depict the horror, the anguish
of crazed Mickleen,
When he forks out Joan Harrington's tom-cat in place of a "sappy spoileen."

In the train of a veteran damsel we chorus with right good will,
A fine old "traison come-all-ye" of Ross
and Vinegar Hill,
Then retiring to the Churchyard we watch
a few small rows,
While waiting a general action between the "Poleens" and "Gows."

Ha! there goes the signal for action, that shout and caubeen in the air,
The ginger-bread women are skelping like mad from the fair,
The tents are flung down the next minute and ere you could count half-a-score,
The boys with swinging shillelaghs are leaping to join in the splore.

But scarce comes the clash of the factions when rings a fierce jubilant yell,
My soul — they're all down on the "Peelers," and don't they leather them well,
As they scamper in terror a-past us, and show us the tips of their brogues, Where's the boy could resist the temptation of having a "croust" at the rogues.

Thus passed the fair days of our boyhood, when red blood warmed in our veins, Scarce one of the love-linked old schoolmates in the dear old home now remains,
But wherever their fate may lead them, on the knees of my soul I pray,
Heaven's blessing be with the survivors, this pleasant fourteenth of May.

RECENT DEATHS

Mr. Dick Daly

It is with sincere regret that we record the death of Mr. Dick Daly, Acres, Ballinacourty, Dungarvan, which occurred on Wednesday, May 9. For the past number of weeks Dick hadn't enjoyed the best of health and was hospitalised at Cork Regional Hospital. Aged 74 years, the deceased was well known, an excellent farmer whose new potatoes were a speciality. For leisuretime he enjoyed his game of cards in the company of his friends. He had a special gra for the canary whose habits and breeding were of special interest.

A keen shot, Dick enjoyed life to the full. He will be missed in our community, but more especially by Nancy (wife), son Gerard and daughters Mary, Breda, Ursula and Alma, to whom we extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy.

On Thursday evening the removal took place from the Kiely Funeral Home to Ballinroad Church where the coffin was blessed and received by Very Rev. M. Canon Farrell, P.P., assisted by Rev. R. Goode, C.C., Meath Street, Dublin (nephew), Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C. and Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A.

On Friday morning Requiem Mass was offered for the happy repose of his soul, after which the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery, with Mass celebrant Fr. Goode officiating at the graveside, assisted by Canon Farrell, Fr. Ahearne, Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., Tallow and Rev. J. Hooper, O.S.A.

Daughter Ursula read the liturgy of the word, while Tommy McShane, accompanied by Christina Tobin (organist) expressed in music the solemnity of the gathering.

Chief mourners — Nancy (wife), Gerard (son), Mary, U.S.A., Breda, London, Ursula, Dublin, Alma, Cambridge (daughters), Simeon Cartajal, Michael O'Brien (sons-in-law), Paddy and Johnny (brothers), Maura Goode, Birdie Dwyer (sisters), Nellie (sister-in-law), Wayne, Shawn, Ruairdhi, U.S.A., Eoin, London (grandchildren), and a wide circle of relatives and friends.

Mr. Herbert Buttimer

With deep sadness we write on the unexpected passing of Mr. Herbert Buttimer, Coolnavan, Cappagh and Ballincollig, Co. Cork, which occurred at his brother's residence on Friday, May 11. The deceased who was aged 79 years, was a native of Ballyshoneen, Herbert was involved all his life in agriculture. Farming was his life and his work was to him a labour of love. He took a keen interest in gardening and many a shrub was rescued by his timely intervention.

Some five years ago he moved to reside with his brother Wilfred at Coolnavan, where he became well known and very popular with one and all and the attendance at the funeral obsequies was proof of this. A good storyteller, he entertained many an attentive ear with experiences from yesteryear. A man of sterling character, his word was as good as his oath. He possessed many gilt edged qualities and was a shining beacon in the community.

Herbert's demise was deeply mourned by his brothers Wilfred and Roy, sister-in-law Sally, nieces Vida, Charlotte and Jean and a wide circle of relatives and friends.

On Monday a Funeral Service took place at his brother's residence with Mr. Bertie Anderson, assisted by Mr. Edgar Lowe reading scripture. The committal service at the graveside in Kilmeen Cemetery, Rossmore, Co. Cork, was conducted by Mr. Wilson Greene, assisted by Mr. Herbert Jennings.

The Buttimer family would like to express their gratitude to the many people who attended the funeral and who helped in their hour of need.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mr. Stephen Butler

Widespread sadness and deep regret was occasioned last week at news of the death of Mr. Stephen Butler, 49 Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, which occurred at Waterford Regional Hospital. We offer our deepest sympathy to his relatives on their cross of bereavement.

On Monday, May 14, Stephen's remains were brought from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church. Following the 11.15 a.m. Requiem Mass on Tuesday morning, the interment took place in the Old Churchyard Cemetery.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mr. William (Bill) Walsh

We record with sincere regret the death of Mr. William (Bill) Walsh, Ballinaskeha, Dungarvan, which occurred on Monday, May 14. Bill was a highly esteemed member of the community. A good and kind neighbour, he will be sadly missed by his large circle of friends, but more especially by his sorrowing family, to whom we extend sympathy.

Following prayers recited by Fr. Ahearne, C.C., on Tuesday evening, removal was from Dungarvan hospital to Ballinroad Church where the coffin was received and blessed on arrival by Fr. Ahearne, C.C.

Following Requiem Mass on Wednesday morning, celebrated by Very Rev. M. Canon Farrell, P.P., interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Canon Farrell officiated at the graveside in the presence of a large cortege.

The chief mourners were: Thomas (son), Chris (daughter), Thomas (brother), grandchildren, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

PLEASE NOTE

We would ask all club secretaries, pro's and anyone with items for inclusion in this column from week to week to again please note that Mr. Denis McGrath, Coolaneen is now our Correspondent for Cappoquin and district. He can be contacted at 058/54501. News items should be sent to him as early as possible but certainly not later than 12 (noon) on Mondays.

IN HOSPITAL

We wish a speedy recovery to popular local County Councillor James A. Walsh. It is sincerely hoped that he will soon be back amongst us in full health.

HOLY COMMUNION

Over the weekend 36 or so children received First Holy Communion. On Saturday in glorious summer weather it was the turn of the Cappoquin children, while on Sunday morning again in brilliant sunshine, the scene was Affane Church, where this year the number was down to three. An occasion long to be remembered by the participants, a joyous day for the parents and source of pride for the teachers who had prepared them all so well.

SILAGE

Silage making is now in full swing in the area with contractors working very long hours to ensure that a plentiful supply of fodder will be available for animals in the coming winter. Road users are urged to be careful as tractors and their trailers are frequently leaving fields onto narrow by-roads and can be a traffic hazard.

A NIGHTS ENTERTAINMENT

The funds for the renovation of the Boys N.S. got a very welcome fillip last week with the completion of the Table Quiz. Approx. 80 teams started out and the final took place on Tuesday night before a packed house. Tom Scanlon was a very able question master. All teams scored very well. As a spectator, one learned a lot, for instance that Jim Ware (Waterford 1948) was the oldest man to receive the McCarthy Cup.

At the end of the evening Fr. Lloyd, C.C., thanked everybody and announced that the profit from the enterprise was £1,000.

AT THE SPORTSFIELD

On Sunday afternoon Clashmore met Ballinameela in the junior hurling championship. This was a nice sporting game played in ideal conditions. Exchanges were even in the opening minutes but gradually Clashmore edged ahead and ran out rather easy winners on the score 1-13 to 0-7.

Referee — J. J. Landers (Affane/Cappoquin).

THIS WEEK'S LOCAL QUESTION

Which poem did Spencer write on the banks of the Blackwater?

Answer next week.

Answer to last week's question:

Tradition has it that the stone on the East side of the Square is the genuine Corner Stone.

CAPPOQUIN TIDY TOWNS A.G.M.

The annual general meeting of the above was held recently at the Parochial hall, Cappoquin. A review of the year's activities was discussed. The Secretary, Tom Kelleher, read his report which was adopted. The Treasurer's report showed a deficit as no financial fund raising activities were implemented over the past year.

The Chairman's address was brief, but very much to the point of what should be done for 1990 rather than commenting on the past activities. The above reports were adopted. Following this the election of officers and committee proceeded.

Chairman — John Fraher; Vice-Chairperson — Nora Flynn; Secretary — Paul Flynn; Treasurer — Tom Hackett; P.R.O. — Maureen Hackett. Committee — Mary Foley, Breda Keating, Roberta Cahill, Dermot O'Leary, Breda Geary, Ina Hayes, Nora Meskill, Johnny Geary, Danny Murray, Eileen Morrissey and Tom Kelleher.

Also in attendance was May Houlihan representing West Waterford Integrated Resource Development. Mary who is secretary of this active development stated that a plan involving Cappoquin and district would be launched shortly. The meeting expressed full support for this plan which would receive the full co-operation of the Cappoquin Tidy Towns Association. Very brief plans were being suggested for our next meeting. The meeting expressed disappointment at the lack of support of attendance at meeting of business and traders and many areas of the town were unrepresented. However, with many new officers and the committee, work has already got underway. By the time this report will have been printed a full survey of the town and surrounding areas will have been completed and the most urgent improvements will be tackled right away — such as the ever present litter problem, especially the square, which has suffered in many ways during the last twelve months. We are appealing very much to all house holders to attend to the window boxes, with the proximity of many garden centres in the immediate area, flowers of all varieties are available. Window boxes of all sizes are available by contacting any of the Tidy Town members.

The meeting noted with satisfaction the many great improvements within the town and especially the approach roads and wish to thank sincerely Waterford County Council, especially Jim McGrath, overseer and his staff.

The meeting wishes to thank the outgoing secretary Mr. Tom Kelleher and also the outgoing treasurer Tommy Keaton both of whom did not seek re-election.

It was decided to invite all the clubs, associations and groups in the area and traders and business people to our next meeting. Notices will be sent directly to all concerned and it is expected that at least one member of each organisation will attend.

LABOUR PARTY NEWS

The Cappoquin Branch of the Labour Party were very pleased with the large number of people who attended their recently held A.G.M. The Chairman in his address welcomed all present and gave a very special welcome to Deputy Brian O'Shea. This was the branch's first A.G.M. since Brian O'Shea was elected to Dail Eireann as a Labour Party T.D. A very comprehensive report on a very successful year for the branch was read by the secretary. The treasurer also gave a very detailed report. After the election of officers, new members were enrolled in the branch.

LAUNCH OF ENVIRONMENTAL IMPROVEMENT STUDY ON CAPPOQUIN

IRD West Waterford and Waterford County Council will launch their 'Environment Improvement Study' on 'Cappoquin' next Monday night, May 28 at the Boathouse at 8 p.m.

The report was professionally prepared by the Dublin based 'Environmental Services Company, CASS Ltd. The Cass group has taken a thorough look at Cappoquin and contains suggestions, drawings and plans on how areas such as Twig Bog, The Square and the Main Street can be improved. This is a major step towards making the town more attractive for tourists to visit and more importantly for the people of Cappoquin themselves.

IRD West Waterford and Waterford County Council would like to put this plan into action immediately — however, we cannot do this without the co-operation and support of all.

Accordingly, we are inviting you to attend our launch of the Environmental Improvement Programme on next Monday evening.

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

U-14 Hurlers Win — Cappoquin 5-1 Naomh Brid 0-1 — Cappoquin U-14 hurlers confounded everyone last Sunday morning with a very determined display to run out winners over Naomh Brid. This victory was all the more meritorious considering the fact our lads have not had a hurley in their hands since last year.

Unfortunately we lost our centre back James Fenton through injury in the second half, up to the time of his injury, James had been outstanding. Our regrouped forces however, coped well with the Naomh Brid attack to the finish.

Team — J. Manahan, J. Dalton, R. Curran, B. McCarthy, M. Murphy, J. Fenton, W. Fraher, J. Quann, C. Scanlon, D. Wilkinson, P. McLoughlin, J. Lynch, D. Coughlan, T. Prendergast, E. Murphy. Subs. — E. McGrath and C. Dalton.

Gate Collectors — Gate collectors for this week, May 20 - 26 are J. Fraher, D. McGrath and K. Veale.

On duty next week, May 27 - June 2 are J. McGrath, T. McCarthy and M. Croke.

Senior Hurlers Defeated — We turned in our worst performance to date in the S.H.C. against Tallow last Sunday in Lismore. The team never got stuck in with our forward division having a complete off day. We could never gain control at midfield, so it was left to our overworked defence to perform heroics to keep Tallow at bay. None played better than Kevin "Paddy" O'Reilly, who was unquestionably our "man of the match" at full back.

However, our players can only improve with each game and it was good to see an increase in numbers logging out for games. We need "oceans" of hurling practice, so let us see every player in the field from here on in.

Team — E. McGrath, L. Lacey, K. O'Reilly, M. O'Reilly, S. Costin, S. McCarthy, D. Cummins, K. McCarthy, M. Reddy, M. Power, B. Murray, F. Murray, S. Fraher, M. Phelan, P. Curran. Subs. — T. Mansfield, M. Mason, G. Morrissey, P. Casey, J. Colender, J. McGrath.

Intermediate Football — Next important date in the adult calendar is our intermediate football game versus Faha on June 2. It is important that all players attend the training session every Tuesday and Thursday nights under team trainer Maurice Cahillane.

CHILDRENS ART EXHIBITION

The above will be held in CYMS Hall, Cappoquin on this Saturday and Sunday, May 26 and 27. Admission: Adults £1; Children 50p. (Adv.)

VERY REV. CANON DANIEL O'BYRNE P.P., V.F.

It is with deep regret we record the death of Very Rev. Canon Daniel O'Byrne P.P., V.F. of Roundhill, Lismore, which occurred at a Clonmel nursing home last week. Canon O'Byrne was Parish Priest of Newcastle and Fourmilewater for many years until his retirement in 1985, after which he returned to Lismore to reside with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Joan Byrne. He also spent some time in Dungarvan and Rathgormac as curate.

His remains were removed from Clonmel to St. Carthage's Church, Lismore on Thursday evening last and were received and blessed by His Lordship the Bishop, Dr. Michael Russell. Concelebrated Mass was celebrated on Friday afternoon, the chief celebrants being Bishop Russell, Very Rev. Archdeacon Laurence Walsh P.P. of Carrick-on-Suir, and Very Rev. Canon Patrick Queally P.P. of St. Peter and Paul's Clonmel, assisted by a large number of Diocesan Priests.

The Lessons were read by his nieces, Aileen Hegarty and Antoinette O'Brien and his nephew, Michael Ahern.

The interment took place immediately afterwards in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. Fr. Thomas Nugent P.P., V.F. of Lismore officiated at the graveside. Large corteges attended on both days.

He is survived by his sister-in-law, nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews, to whom we extend our deepest sympathy.

MASS

Mass will be offered by Rev. M. O'Gorman at Lismore Church on Thursday, May 31 at 10 a.m. for the living and deceased members of the Sodality of Our Lady.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

On Saturday last, May 19, the children of first class of the Presentation Convent received their First Holy Communion.

There were fourteen girls and twelve boys to receive the Sacrament for the first time at St. Carthage's Church. The celebrant was Rev. Fr. O'Gorman, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. Fr. Nugent P.P. The Lessons and prayers were read by the children, who also took part in the offertory procession.

Two children also received First Holy Communion at St. Mary's Church, Ballysaggart on Sunday morning.

IN HOSPITAL

We wish a speedy recovery to Mattie Landers, Parks Road, who is at present in St. Vincent's Hospital, Dublin.

POSTER WINNER

Congratulations to Blanaid Dennis who has been awarded a prize at county level for her entry in the "Health is Lookin' Good" poster competition. The Department of Health together with 2FM organised this competition for 5th and 6th class students countrywide. Peter Collins and Theresa Lowe of the Breakfast Club promoted the competition aimed at making young people aware of how decisions they make now can influence the quality and length of their lives in the future. County winners will have their posters entered to find a national winner. Blanaid was presented with her prize at the Tower Hotel, Waterford on Tuesday, May 22.

Elaine Singleton was among the prize winners in the recent S.T.A.G. (South Tipperary Art Group) competition. She was presented with a lovely trophy in Clonmel recently. Maith thu!

LISMORE BRIDGE CLUB

LISMORE G.A.A. NOTES

Feile na nGael — Lismore 6-1 St. Saviours 1-1 — Lismore/Ballysaggart head for the Feile finals after a great win over St. Saviours in the county final in Dungarvan last Saturday. This was a fine display by the lads who had obviously learned from their win over Dungarvan in the Western final. This year's team has a solid backbone of Ballysaggart players and was trained for the first time by Ballysaggart man, Pat Bennett. Well done Pat. This co-operation between the two clubs is bound to benefit both clubs.

Senior Hurling — No match last week-end because the County Board had other priorities. Some say we were lucky we didn't have a match after our terrible display against Portlaoise. The question is being asked what is wrong with senior hurling in Lismore. Are the players not good enough? Are they training properly? Are they tactically naive? Solutions to these questions will have to be found if we are to consider ourselves championship contenders. A start was made last week with a very useful meeting between players and selectors. Most spoke and at last the talking was done in the right place. The players are good enough. Training will have to be harder with full participation. Players not willing to train should inform the selectors. We must also smarten up tactically. Replaying the match after it is over is useless. Let's stop talking about winning championships and do something about it. Let's show some pride in the black and amber and get back on winning ways.

U-16, minor and U-21 training has been postponed until the exams are over. At this stage I would like to wish all our players doing exams the best of luck.

Weekly Draw: Week No. 16 — £50 Mr. D. Ahearn, Parks Road; £30 Mr. and Mrs. C. Brien, c/o Post Office; £20 Mr. L. Ahearn, Towns Park; £15 Mrs. M. Buckley, Chapel Street; £10 Master R. O'Sullivan and R. O'Donnell, c/o Kathleen Power; £10 Mr. John Landers, Fernville; Promoter's Prize — M. Landers.

The next draw will be held in The Red House on Monday, May 29 at 8 p.m. As we were late starting with the draw in January, this will be a two week draw. All are welcome to attend. (Advt.)

COMMUNITY GAMES

Our swimmers brought further Community Games glory to Lismore with the following being successful in the county finals:

Boys U-10 Freestyle — Edward Pollard (1st); Boys U-14 Freestyle — Brian O'Farrell (1st); Boys U-16 Freestyle — Emmet Quann (1st), Tony Dunne (2nd); Boys U-12 Freestyle — Ian Fitzgerald (1st).

Girls U-8 Freestyle — Kate Canning (1st); Girls U-12 Freestyle — Marie O'Farrell (1st); Girls U-14 Freestyle — Brid Pollard (1st), Regina Walsh (2nd); Girls U-12 Breaststroke — Caroline Whelan (1st), Noelle Quann (2nd); Girls U-13 Freestyle relay — (1st Lismore) Noelle Quann, Caroline Whelan, Marie O'Farrell, Regina Walsh and Ciara Dunne (sub.).

Very well done boys and girls. Who knows, one of you may bring back another national medal from the national finals later this year, the first Lismore swimmer to win such a medal. So keep up the swimming throughout the summer. Finally many thanks to Noreen Quann for her work in organising the swimming.

BALLINVELLA COMMUNITY CENTRE

Results of our annual draw are as follows: 1st prize £60, Tom Broderick, Castletyons; 2nd prize £40, Donal Landers, Lismore; 3rd prize £10, Ber Mangan, Brideane; 3 prizes of £5 each to Sinead Bennett, Glenclairn; Margaret Morrissey, Ballyrafter; Martin O'Keefe, Deerpark. (Advt.)

We would like to thank everyone who supported the draw and indeed everyone who sold tickets. A very special word of thanks to Nell Mangan and Peg Morrissey for selling so many tickets.

Congratulations to Noel and Mary Hennessey on their recent happy event, the birth of a girl, Annmarie.

Best wishes are sent to Kevin Leahy and Aaron Doocey who made their First Communion last week-end.

Our next night at the Centre will be Tuesday, May 29 and we plan to start our annual "clean up" in the grounds so do come along with your clippers, etc.

We now have a break before playing Clashmore in the next round in June.

Dungarvan Flower & Garden Club

It was from the Leaside that our demonstrator came this month. It was Elizabeth Kavanagh, one of Ireland's top flower arrangers. Elizabeth, featured on RTE last winter, when Gerry Daly had four flower arrangers depicting the four seasons on his programme. On that evening we had a glimpse of Elizabeth's prize-winning garden before she went on to do some beautiful arrangements with an autumnal theme. We were impressed by her talents this month.

Our competition for May was an arrangement incorporating china and the winners in the Open Section were: 1, Mrs. Maura Ryan; 2, Mrs. Mairead O'Sullivan. In the Novice Section the winners were: 1, Mrs. Dina Walshe; 2, Miss Paula Houlihan; H.C., Mrs. Monica Dwane. Horticultural winners: 1, Mrs. Mary Looby; 2, Mrs. Monica Dwane.

The annual outing is on June 9 to Waterford. It is most important that any member who wishes to travel on this outing should give her name and subscription to Mrs. Maureen Casey, Main Street, by May 31. You will be able to see the menu at Mrs.

Casey's and make your choice. No late entries can be accepted, as the hotel wishes confirmation of entire number on June 1. We are travelling by car on this occasion and any member needing transport should give her name to the Secretary at the June meeting. This outing is only for fully paid up members.

A Decorative Yet Easy Way To Cover Walls And Fences

By Pete Moss

WIDESPREAD availability of container-grown climbing plants and others suited to wall decoration allow planting virtually all year round.

But the warmth of May makes it worth considering as the time to establish these rewarding and decorative varieties, providing you keep the young plants well-watered early on.

The versatility of these plants allows them to be trained on walls, fences, trellises and pergolas.

Some types, like ivy, Virginia Creeper and many vines, need little help in clinging to walls and other features while others may need supports and tying, especially early on.

Variety

But the shops and garden centres can supply the special fixing nails, trellis or green netting needed to give them a start.

When choosing the variety to suit the location for planting, you should bear in mind that the less hardy will prefer a south-facing wall or aspect while the hardier will bear a north-facing location.

When digging the soil for the new plant it is best to double dig - to the depth of two spades - so that the subsoil is well broken up and the topsoil aerated.

You are not likely to be moving a climbing plant around the garden so you need this well-dug soil to allow the roots to establish for the many years the plant is likely to be there.

And if you are paying pounds for a dearer variety it is best to prepare well so that your money isn't wasted.

So what is best for your chosen location? You will find plenty on offer at garden centres, with details on where to place them and keep them healthy, but here are a few well-known types worth considering:

Clematis - a favourite climber with tendrils which love wood or wire trellises. The family has varieties with many sizes of bloom and will suit most soil types but the roots have to be well shaded and kept moist while the top growth loves the sun.

Ivy - perhaps the toughest and easiest climber to grow, able to cling by itself and able to withstand a northern location and dense shade. It also grows quickly and there are variegated types which look especially attractive, but bear in mind it will need ruthless pruning in May and June once established.

Hydrangea Petiolaris - another able to take hold firmly, even on a north wall. It needs pruning in spring and produces attractive bright green leaves as well as delicate white flowers.

Climbing

Russian Vine - this plant needs a "handle with care" label. Not for nothing is it also nicknamed "Mile-a-Minute" because it will add some 15 feet of growth annually to cover a garden eyesore with dense foliage and creamy flowers, but it can get out of hand unless checked by ruthless spring pruning.

Roses - there are far too many climbing varieties to mention here but any will make a colourful wall or pergola decoration. However, don't forget they are just as prone to blackfly and other pests as their standard brethren.

Wisteria - a mauve-flowering climber ideal for sunny and fertile locations and needing little pruning.

Virginia Creeper - a strong climber with attractive green leaves in summer turning to rich red in autumn.

Application To Re-open Quarry Refused

On the recommendation of the Planning Department of Waterford Co. Council, the Co. Manager has made an order refusing the application of Mr. D. Loftus, Ballyvoile, Stradbally for permission to re-open the quarry at Ballyvoile.

Reasons stated for the refusal were that the proposed development in a high amenity coastal zone and on the side of a steep valley would be seriously detrimental to the visual amenity of the area; that because of the narrowness and poor alignment of the road serving the site the increased traffic generated by the development would lead to an increase in traffic hazard and further that the proposed development would be environmentally damaging due to noise, dust, blasting and could lead to pollution of the nearby Dalligan river.

St. John's Association For Handicapped Children

At the general meeting of St. John's Association of Parents and Friends of Handicapped Children held recently in Dungarvan it was stated that the assets of the Association now stand at £62,154 and this was due mainly to the goodwill of the people of West Waterford (which forms the catchment area for the school) who have subscribed so generously down through the years.

It was also stated that at present 39 pupils were attending St. John's School in Dungarvan.

Macra Are Having A Busy Time All Over

The amount of Macra activity over the past few weeks has been simply amazing, ranging from regular club activities to the National Annual General Meeting, which was held in Bloomfield House, Mullingar on Friday and Saturday, May 4 and 5.

The county has been well represented at almost all the recent National Finals.

The Kinsalebeg Cross-County Quiz team consisting of Peter and Patricia Kiely, Liam Foley and Kevin O'Brien were narrowly beaten by the Co. Laois team at the National Final held in conjunction with the A.G.M. on May 5.

Peter Kiely on the following day represented us at the National final of "Mastermind" at the National Concert Hall in Dublin and managed to come away with third prize.

At the Spring Show held on Saturday, May 12, Ballyduff Upper Club members, Richard Keane and Pat Kenny, did well in the Welding and Dairy Stock-judging.

Congratulations to all the above and to the finalists that were chosen on Saturday, May 11 at Clonea Strand Hotel to represent the county during the summer:

Queen of the Land — Ann Veale, Fenor Club; Miss Macra — Vanessa Sadlier, Waterford City Club; Blue Jeans Country Queen — Valerie Collender, Cappoquin; Bachelor of the Year — Hugh Collender, Cappoquin.

Well done to Michael Keane from Kilmacthomas, on his election to the National Council and as well as that he was re-elected to the National Executive Committee at the A.G.M. in Mullingar.

As the National Sports Day is due (July 22 in Limerick) all clubs should be preparing entries for the county rounds, the team events in particular which will be run off shortly.

By all accounts our competition chairwoman, Noreen O'Brien, is having a whale of a time in Seattle. Hope she doesn't get lassoed out there in the Wild West! — P.R.O.

New West Waterford Tourism Brochure

IRD West Waterford initiated their programme in developing the West Waterford area as a major tourist attraction with the launch of their new Tourism Brochure 'West Waterford Leisure Breaks' at the Teagasc Centre, Lismore last Monday week. The brochure was officially launched by Mr. Pat Nolan of South Eastern Tourism for IRD West Waterford.

The brochure contains two scenic route maps of the area as well as providing general information which would interest tourists. These routes highlight some of the more notable monuments and views of West Waterford and invite the tourist to spend two leisurely days touring. A list of activities and information on holiday bookings completes this brochure.

Tourist Information Centres are vital to any area and this year there will be three in the area. One in Tallow, one in Lismore and one at Cappoquin.

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

J.H.C. — Tallow 3-11 Dungarvan 3-6 — Tallow junior hurlers collected their second brace of points against a very good Dungarvan fifteen in Cappoquin on Saturday last. Tallow were hit for two goals in the first half but hit back before half time with three good points to keep us in the game — half time score Dungarvan 2-3 Tallow 1-5 — with the goal coming from Eamonn Power.

Dungarvan added a goal and 2 points before Tallow got going and Philly Curley scored two goals to start the revival. Two marvellous points by Denis O'Flaherty and further points from Philly Curley (2) and Billy Curley (1) had Tallow five points to the good at the final whistle.

This was another splendid team performance and everyone played their hearts out especially Seamus O'Brien, Gary Ahearne, Martin Allen, David O'Regan and man of the match, Gerry Hogan totally dominating midfield. Our forwards were in sparkling form led by Philly Curley, Martin McCarthy, J. J. Henley, Billy Curley, Eamonn Power and Denis Flaherty.

Team — Seamus O'Brien, Aidan Ryan, Frankie Ryan, Gary Ahearne, Paul McDonnell, David O'Regan, Martin Allen, Gerry Hogan, Pat Sheehan (capt), Denis O'Flaherty (0-2), Philly Curley (2-5), J. J. Henley (0-1), Martin McCarthy (0-2), Eamonn Power (1-0), Billy Curley (0-1).

S.H.C. — Tallow 2-15 Cappoquin 0-2 — Tallow won their third championship match very easily against Cappoquin on Sunday last in Lismore. The scoreline tells its own story. Tallow were very slow to settle and at half time led by 0-7 to 0-2. That Cappoquin didn't score in the second half, speaks volumes for our defence. The defence was very shaky in the first half but once our half-backline tightened up in the second half with Connie Curley, Tim Sheehan and Johnny Geary playing soundly the Cappoquin forwards saw very little of the ball.

Our full-backline too upped their performance in the second half and goals from Dermot Henley and Pat Murphy sealed an easy victory long before the final whistle.

There is still quite a considerable amount of work to be done before we play the county champions, Roanmore, in the next round.

Team — Martin Murphy, Tomas McCarthy, Jim O'Donoghue, Michael T. Cunningham, Tim Sheehan, Connie Curley (0-2), Johnny Geary, Mark Geary, Trevor Sheehan, Dermot Henley (1-4), Paul Curley (0-1), Colin Cunningham, Mickey Curley (0-4), Pat

Murphy (capt., 1-4), Brian Henley.

An important committee meeting will take place in the Hotel on Thursday night, May 24 at 9.15 p.m. sharp.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.

The Club's £1,000 Draw was held last Thursday evening at the Clubrooms, Ballynoe. The following is a list of the lucky winners:—

£500 Paddy Fitzgibbon, Boulta, Ballynoe; £100 Richard Higgins, Kilcronat, Ballynoe; £50 each to the following, Tom and Angela Jones, Ballynoe; Pat Hartigan, Conna; Margaret Murphy, Monagown, Conna; John Leahy, Knockmoure, Conna. £25 each to the following, Michael Ahern, c/o John D. Cotter; Pat Quinn, c/o John D. Cotter; Dick Leahy, Ballymurphy, Conna; Denis Buckner, Glounthowne, Ballynoe; Gerry Mellerick, Conna; Tom and Ann Higgins, Aghern, Conna; Louise O'Leary, Ballybride, Conna; Mary Scanlon, Ballybride, Conna.

The committee offer its thanks to all supporters and the next draw will take place on June 21.

Intermediate Hurling At Cobh — St. Catherine's 3-9 Cobh 1-9 — Traveling to Cobh last Wednesday evening Catherine's succeeded in adding another two points to their record on the league table when overcoming the local fifteen in a pretty good game of hurling. Being well down midway through the game, Catherine's had a bit of leeway to make up in the second half, but in a resurgent last quarter of good, exciting fare, they sealed victory on the above score.

Catherine's team — P. Murphy, B. Regan, M. Hartnett, B. Neville, E. Hartnett, P. J. Lonergan, S. Neville, S. Buckley, K. Barry, C. Clancy, D. O'Leary, P. Donoghue, M. Walsh, D. Buckner, E. Sheehan. Subs. — M. Mangan and J. Hartnett.

Referee — Billy Coady, Middleton.

St. Catherine's 1-15 Delaney Rovers 1-12 — Catherine's had their second game in the intermediate hurling league at Ballynoe last Sunday evening when Delaney Rovers from Cork City provided the opposition. Getting into their stride quickly the home side slid into an early lead of 8 points and looked like having the game in hand. Then in a quick movement Delaney Rovers crashed home a great goal and three points to narrow the gap. Catherine's again replied but the city team now hurling with skill and composure held a firm grip on matters and just finished the first half with a two point deficit. Towards the end of the quarter Catherine's forced a good goal and had a four points lead, but Delaney's came again and again with points and in a hard fought last quarter Catherine's held the sway with a three point victory, and completed three league wins within the week.

Our U-14 hurlers travelled to Fermoy last Saturday and had a good lively game there, with victory going to the home side.

CONFIRMATION AT CONNA

34 children drawn from the National Schools of Conna, Ballynoe and Curraglass received the Sacrament of Confirmation at St. Catherine's Church, Conna last Friday evening. It was administered by his Lordship Dr. John Magee, Bishop of Cloyne, who was making a second visit to the parish within a short time. Fr. John Kelleher P.P., Conna, Fr. Stritch, C.C., Conna and Fr. Buckley, C.C., Ballynoe, assisted him during the ceremony and also other co-celebrants of the Mass were Fr. P. Sheehan, Fr. Phil Hegarty and Fr. Tim O'Leary. There was also a large choir in attendance with Gerry Mellerick on the organ and Mrs. Mary Barry as choir-mistress.

Having delivered his sermon based on the text of John's Gospel: "If you love Me, you will keep My commandments" the Bishop conveyed his heartfelt thanks to parents, teachers, sponsors, for the manner in which the children who received the Holy Spirit were presented on the day. The Sacristan too had his special thanks and the priests also received his gratitude and especially the retired P.P. Fr. Ryan, whom he was delighted to see present. It was a unique day as well he said, as it coincided with the Popes 70th birthday. He informed the congregation that he would be heading the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes soon and they would remember the people in their prayers.

West Waterford Notes

FARM SAFETY

On last Tuesday, May 22, the I.F.A. held a discussion on Farm Safety at the farmyard of Mr. Dan Leahy, Monatrea, Kinsalebeg. Safety in the work place is now a major national issue and there was a large turnout at this discussion.

MIDDLETON SHOW

Best wishes to all the local entries in the various Classes in the Annual Agricultural Show at Middleton on next Sunday. Holding the show on Sunday is a major change for the committee. We hope it will be a success.

DUNGARVAN FAIR

On Friday last the Annual Horse Fair was held in Dungarvan. Many locals attended and reported a very disappointing selection of stock on offer. Fairs have always been considered to be a good meeting place, sadly this tradition is not followed up in Dungarvan.

GET WELL WISHES

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Emma Flavin, Clashmore, presently in the South Infirmary Hospital, Cork. Also in the South Infirmary is Pat McKenna, we also wish him well. Continued good wished are also extended to Mr. Batt Curran now home from hospital and recovering quickly.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

The girls presently employed in the Community Services are doing a wonderful job getting the village in order for the Tidy Towns competition. The girls and the members of Clashmore Tidy Towns Committee continue the replanting of the Grotto.

The Social Welfare Officer will be in attendance this week at the Health Centre.

COMMUNITY GAMES

On this Thursday (Church Holyday) at 1.45 p.m. sharp the annual Community Games athletics will be held at the Clashmore/Kinsalebeg G.A.A. Field in Clashmore with events for children ranging from Under-6 to Under-16. All are welcome along.

Judging of the art competitions has now been completed.

PILGRIMAGE

On Sunday next nine locals will leave on the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes. Our Church organist Mary Dee is musical director of the Lourdes Diocesan Choir. The choir will be singing the Mass from the T.V. studios in Donnybrook on Sunday, July 29.

MASS

Please take not that as and from Saturday, June 2, the evening Mass in Clashmore will revert back to the old time of 7.30 p.m.

APPOINTMENT

Mary Dee our church organist and choir director has been appointed to the Diocesan Commission on Liturgy and Church Music. Congratulations Mary.

"Remembering Other Days"

The photo for our "Remembering Other Days" this week is by way of a follow-up to the one we had last week concerning the visit of the Waterford Senior Hurling team to London on August Monday, 1951 (we erroneously said it was 1950 last week), where they played Kilkenny in a tournament game at Mitcham Stadium. The team (above, though not in the order they are named but as they played) was: Johnnie Regan (goal); Larry Fanning, Davy Walsh, Mick Hayes; Liam Doocey, Jackie Goode, Moss Queally; John Kiely, Moss Fives; Mick Flannery, Jim Fives, Michael O'Connor; Maurice McHugh, Billy Mulcahy, Tom Lonergan. The officials with the team were Pat Fanning, Dec. Goode, Jack Ware and Charlie Curran who was then Chairman of the G.A.A. County Board. (Our thanks again to Maurice McHugh for his help).

[P.S. — A couple of weeks ago we published the Dungarvan minor football team of 1934 and erroneously gave the name of one of the players as J. Wade. This, we have now been informed should have read Richard Macklin who lived at that time in Boreenatra. He was a first cousin of another member of the same team, Paddy Barry and was also a cousin of Jadda Power who played senior football with Dungarvan and who is still a hale and hearty town resident.]

DID YOU KNOW?

by AL 477

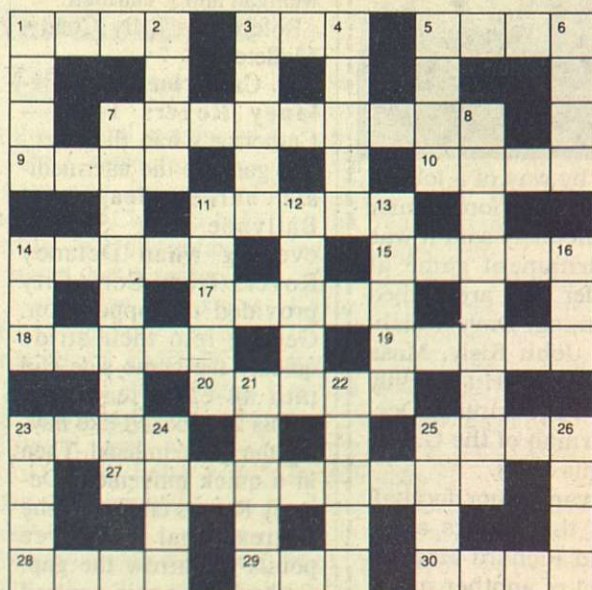

THE LARGEST MEAT-EATING FISH IS THE GREAT WHITE SHARK WHICH CAN BE OVER 25 FEET IN LENGTH. IT CAN BE VERY DANGEROUS AND HAS EVEN BEEN KNOWN TO KILL AN ELEPHANT!

ALTHOUGH SUNSHADES WERE IN COMMON USE IN ANCIENT TIMES THE EARLIEST MENTION OF A WATERPROOF "UMBRELLA" COMES FROM 1637 WHEN IT WAS LISTED AMONGST THE BELONGINGS OF THE KING OF FRANCE.

IN THE WORLD'S TROPICAL RAIN FORESTS THE LEAVES AT THE TOP OF THE TREES ARE SO DENSELY PACKED THAT THEY CUT OUT THE SUNLIGHT FROM THE FOREST FLOOR. BECAUSE OF THIS VERY FEW PLANTS WILL GROW AT GROUND LEVEL AND GROUND-DWELLING ANIMALS TEND TO LIVE AT THE EDGE OF THE FOREST WHERE LOW PLANTS WILL GROW.

Dungarvan's Kevin Evans For First Local Concert

 KEVIN EVANS & BRIAN DOHERTY

Minnies is the place to be on Wednesday night, May 30, with the first ever concert of Kevin Evans and Brian Doherty. Kevin Evans was born in Dungarvan and after becoming interested in music he decided to try a full time musical career, moving to Nashville, Tennessee and then to Los Angeles.

He worked as a studio musician, gradually making his way north to Canada, where he is now based in Halifax, Nova Scotia. He was a member of the Garrison Brothers group with which he had six number one hits on the Country Charts (most of which Kevin wrote). One of Kevin's songs, Silver Sea, represented Ireland in Rostock, East Germany, at an international festival and finished third. Kevin's partner on stage is Brian Doherty from Omagh, Co. Tyrone. Brian was a member of the Irish group, Barly Bree and after completing three TV shows and four LPs with the group he decided to form the Eastern Entertainment Agency in Canada and has arranged tours in Canada for many Irish groups, including The Furies, Mary Black and Phil Coulter. Together, Kevin and Brian have recorded three LPs, Down The Road, Silver Sea and their latest recording, Live At The Lunenburg Folk Festival. They arrive in Ireland for a ten day trip and also travel to East Germany to appear on East German TV on May 26 and 27, but for the Dungarvan fans the big night out will be in Minnies on Wednesday night, where Kevin will perform all his original hits. See adverts for ticket sales at Darrell Moloneys.

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN (Never known to fail) — O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendour of heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favour is granted.

Birthday Remembrances

McGRATH — A birthday remembrance for my Mam, Bridie McGrath, late of Townspark, Lismore, whose birthday is on May 27. May she rest in peace. Our Lady of Lourdes pray for her.

My dearest wish today, Mam,
I know will not come true,
I wish for the impossible,
For yesterday and you.
So keep Your arms around her, Lord,
Treat her with special care,
Make up for all she suffered,
And all that seemed unfair.
(With love from your daughter Mary and son-in-law James.)

McGRATH — A birthday remembrance for my Mam, Bridie McGrath, late of Townspark, Lismore, whose birthday is on May 27. May she rest in peace. Our Lady of Lourdes pray for her.

In heaven you rest,
No worries, no pain,
In God's own time,
We will meet again.
Simple words but very true,
I will always love and remember you.
(With much love from your daughter Julie.)

McGRATH — A birthday remembrance for our Nan, Bridie McGrath, late of Townspark, Lismore, whose birthday is on May 27. May she rest in peace. Our Lady of Lourdes pray for her.

If roses grow in heaven, Lord,

And give them to our Nan Nan,
And tell her they're from us.

LINDSAY'S DARTS

Last Friday the team achieved the double. Having already won the league earlier on in the the season, they completed it by beating Village Inn B team 4-2 in the Cup final in Morrissey's.

It was a hard fought battle but we pulled through to cap off what has been our most successful season ever. During the season we also won the Village Inn house tournament and took runners-up spot in the League Cup which was our only defeat of the year.

Before signing off, I would like to thank the organising committee of the league for running the competitions so effectively.

Also I wish to thank Maura Lindsay for her help and thanks to Breda Roche who brought us to all away games, sometimes even at short notice.

Finally, I'd like to congratulate the lads for their commitment in making it our year and hopefully we might do the same next year. — PRO.

June Opening For Dungarvan's
New Pitch And Putt Course

Several members of Dungarvan Urban Council expressed reservations and doubts at the monthly meeting of the Council held last Monday night concerning the setting up and administration of the Council's new pitch and putt course at Quann's, now nearing completion and due to be officially opened next month.

Mr. Dan Hurley, County Manager informing the Council that the laying out of the course was now nearing finality said that he wished to congratulate all who had been involved in the construction of the course which had all the appearances of being a really magnificent one. He said that they were proceeding with arrangements for the official opening of the course which would be performed by the Council Chairman, Cllr. Paddy Power on Sunday, June 17 and hoped for the attendance of a representative of the National Pitch and Putt Council.

Mr. Hurley then informed the members that in order to launch activities on the course it was proposed to form a club which would look after the administration of its day-to-day running.

Cllr. B. Kyne described the new project as one of the best investments made by the Council and stressed that it was very important that it should, from the very start, be seen as the people's pitch and putt course and not become a one club situation. He added that during its formative year the Council should continue to have a major input in the administration of the project.

The Manager assured the Council that it would always remain the Dungarvan Urban Council Pitch and Putt Course and there would be a very strong representation from the Council on the Board. It would be an Urban Council facility with a licence granted to a club to play there with a similar licence to the general public.

ORDINARY JOE SOAP

Cllr. T. Wright said that he would hope that charges there would not put the facility beyond the reach of "the ordinary Joe Soap." He thought that the course should be incorporated into the running of the existing Sports Centre and he wouldn't want some group to move in and take it over and run it for their own ends as had happened with other similar assets of the Council.

The County Manager then stressed that it was his aim to provide a first-class service at minimal cost at the new course. "In doing this," he said, "I am doing what's best for Dungarvan. I have no vested interest in the matter and only want to see this project get successfully off the ground."

The members agreed that the most important aspect of the matter was the successful launch of the new project along the lines outlined by the Co. Manager with an ongoing review of the position.

Dungarvan's
£5,000
Plus In Telethon
'90

The People In Need R.T.E. Telethon '90 was an outstanding success and is expected to reach a figure in excess of £3 million nationally.

In the South East Region, where a sum of £256,000 was raised last year, the projected figure this year is in the region of £347,000.

Here in Dungarvan, where no concerted effort was made last year, the figure at the moment is over £5,300.

Mr. Richie Walsh, Chairman of the local Committee, expressed his delight at this magnificent response from the general public in the Dungarvan area as this was a first attempt.

FINAL PANEL TAKES SHAPE

Jack Charlton's panel, although not his final one, threw up some surprises for me — Frank Stapleton, John Sheridan and Gary Waddock. I'm glad for Stapleton but feel Italy will be a major test. John Sheridan now has the stage to show his skills, if he gets the chance will he make the most of it? Ronnie Whelan's injury causes concern, so on the final day for selection, May 29, we will know for sure if the Liverpool player is in.

Ireland play Turkey on May 27, their final warm-up, and then it's a brief stay in Malta and then on to Sardinia. Another curious decision by Charlton is to use only two keepers, Bonner and Peyton. Most people prefer two keepers is a bit of a gamble.

For Gary Waddock his selection is a fairytale end to a football nightmare that saw him out of the game with a serious knee injury. He fought back and had to repay his insurance payment to get back into English league football with Millwall, and now he goes to the World Cup. I still would prefer Alan McLoughlin or Mick Milligan, but injury and the play-offs have hindered their chances.

The squad is: Bonner (Celtic), Peyton (Bournemouth), Hughton (Tottenham), Staunton (Liverpool), Morris (Celtic), McCarthy (Millwall), O'Leary (Arsenal), Moran (Blackburn).

Hughton (Liverpool), McGrath (Aston Villa), Whelan (Liverpool), Townsend (Norwich), Sheedy (Everton), Sheridan (Sheffield Wednesday), Byrne (Le Havre), Waddock (Millwall).

Cascarino (Aston Villa), Aldridge (Real Sociedad), Quinn (Manchester City), D. Kelly (Leicester), Slaven (Middlesbrough), Stapleton (Blackburn).

In selecting my last player profile I'm conscious with 16 days to go to kick-off that I haven't covered all the Irish panel. I don't mean this as any disrespect to those I have omitted but in the final editions I will use the space to try and keep you up to date with Ireland's chances, the final panel, and who we may meet if Ireland qualify from the opening three games.

In my final selection of Mick McCarthy I have picked a player I greatly admire, whose selection usually invokes a debate, comparing McCarthy's and David O'Leary's qualities.

For me Mick McCarthy epitomises all the values needed for any job — he gives his all, leads by example and is quite fearless, His skill, or lack of it as his critics would say, is often written about by our more cynical journalists, but he has served Ireland well and Jack Charlton rates him highly.

Mick McCarthy was born in Barnsley on the 7/2/59 and at 16 years was accepted as an apprentice electrician at a coal mine, but he opted for an offer from Barnsley Football Club to become an apprentice footballer. This decision was an example of McCarthy's commitment, maybe even stubbornness, for he took a reduction in wages from £35 to £14 to opt for the unglamorous life of football with his home town club.

Nowadays you could mention the many highlights of McCarthy's career — medals with Celtic, games against Lineker, but the hard tackling defender also played against the legendary defender Skinner Normanton. Michael Parkinson made Normanton famous when he wrote of Barnsley and Yorkshire and his many references to Skinner Normanton meant some people felt he was a fictitious player. He also was a defender noted for his sliding tackle. Mick McCarthy did play against him in a charity game and has many of the features of the footballer made famous by Parkinson.

After making his debut with Barnsley in August 1977, his club were promoted from the fourth division to the second division and he joined Manchester City in 1983. While with City Eoin Hand called him up for Ireland and he wore the green of Ireland for the first time against Poland in May 1984. McCarthy came into his own with Man. City and he made his best career move when he joined Glasgow Celtic for £500,000 in May 1987. League and cup medals followed and his international career was about to take off.

Jack Charlton's appointment was good for McCarthy, Charlton valued McCarthy despite the Dublin media especially, lobbying for David O'Leary. McCarthy repaid his manager with sterling displays culminating in Ireland's European Championship. A move to Olympique Lyonnais in France had its troubles and in a bid for first team football Mick McCarthy returned to the English League with Millwall, who were then relegated to the second division.

This season has been a tough one for McCarthy with injury and the move to Millwall. He had his critics again in his latest games with Ireland, but he will fight on and I'm confident that his fellow Yorkshire man, Charlton, will continue to pick him.

Mick McCarthy will have the eyes of all the Irish supporters on him in Italy, but not many of them know of his Waterford connection. Mick's father, Charlie, emigrated from Tallow, Chapel Street to be exact, and his uncle Tom who resides in West Street, Tallow, will, like all of Tallow and West Waterford be conscious and proud of Mick McCarthy's Waterford connection.

As I said he is a player I admire greatly. His manager might say that his teak tough defender has all the qualities of a Yorkshire man, like the legendary Skinner Normanton. I'm sure for a player born in the year Waterford won an All-Ireland hurling championship he must have inherited some of the great sporting traditions of the Brideside team.

Whether it's Yorkshire or Waterford or a combination of both, Mick McCarthy has served Ireland well — he faces his greatest test on June 11 against England — he will give his all as usual. —B.K.—

Blues On Top In Five Goal Thriller

DUNGARVAN UNITED 3
SOUTHEND 2

Dungarvan collected two more valuable points in what was a very hard match with Southend. Both teams had a chance of the league title so there was a lot at stake in the game.

The Blues settled the better and played some good football and D. Whelan and B. Beatty had a couple of good chances to open the scoring. The first goal came for the Blues in the 25th minute, when B. Beatty won the ball just outside the Southend penalty area, he fired a shot across the face of the goal and N. Considine was on hand to side foot the ball into the net for his first goal of the season. That's the way it stayed until half time.

In the second half the Blues took the game to Southend and it wasn't long before they went two up with a good goal by D. Whelan.

Dungarvan went off the boil after that and allowed Southend to take over the game and 20 minutes into the second half the visitors pulled a goal back. Southend totally dominated the game at this stage and it wasn't long before they were level at 2-2.

With time running out Bernie Wall made a clever switch by taking off D. Carlton and putting on Shea Harty and it paid off. J. Donnelly took a corner from the right, the ball was only half cleared and it fell nicely to S. Harty who hammered it to the top corner of the net to leave it 3-2 to the Blues. This was a great victory for all the lads.

Team — A. Landers, L. Boyle, C. Cough, D. Cummins, P. Drummy, J. Donnelly, N. Considine, P. Flynn, D. Carlton, D. Whelan, B. Beatty. Subs. — S. Harty for D. Carlton; D. Morrissey.

MUNSTER SENIOR LEAGUE — O'CONNELL CUP SEMI-FINAL

Lethal Leahy Sinks United

DUNGARVAN UTD. 0 TRAMORE ATH. 2

Tramore Athletic qualified for the O'Connell Cup final by virtue of this deserved victory over Dungarvan in St. Colman's Park on Friday evening last. This was always going to be a difficult game for Dungarvan but they had the proverbial mountain to climb when ace marksman Jim Leahy scored a superb goal after just 53 seconds.

Leahy received the ball thirty yards from goal and hit a stunning shot that gave Barry McGrath no chance. Tramore threatened to run riot at this stage and but for the post, a good save by Barry McGrath and a glaring miss, the Blues could have been four goals down inside the opening five minutes.

However, Dungarvan kept their heads and working their way out of trouble, Billy Coleman and Ger

Beresford tried to get a good supply of ball up to front men Johnny Hughes and David Whelan, but the Tramore defence was seldom extended. Indeed the Cork club's passing game and ability to create space had Dungarvan struggling, but the back four of Willie Coward, Derek Lyons, Brian Whelan and George Hamilton provided a resolute barrier and that combined with a fine one handed save by Barry McGrath from a free kick kept the scoreline at half-time at 0-1.

The same pattern continued on the resumption with Derek Lyons the outstanding member of a vigilant Dungarvan rearguard. After a long struggle the midfield quartet of Ger Beresford, Pat Keane, Martin O'Sullivan and Billy Coleman came into the game. Indeed for a twenty minute spell the Blues took the game to Tramore. The best chance fell during that period to David Whelan who received the ball from Ger Beresford, turned his marker and shot powerfully towards the top corner. However the Dungarvan players held their heads in disbelief as the Tramore keeper pulled off a brilliant save. Soon afterwards Ger Beresford cut through the defence but again the Tramore custodian saved well.

Tramore were always dangerous on the break and it took two fine interventions by Derek Lyons to deny them. A move up the right flank involving Willie Coward and Billy Coleman found Brian Kirwan who beat three defenders before finding Pat Keane but his shot went narrowly wide of the far post.

In the 79th minute a slick passing movement carved open the Dungarvan defence and it was goal poacher supreme Jim Leahy who headed Tramore's second goal from close range, to clinch a victory that was deserved.

Dungarvan — B. McGrath, W. Coward (capt), D. Lyons, B. Whelan, G. Hamilton, G. Beresford, M. O'Sullivan, P. Keane, B. Coleman, D. Whelan, J. Hughes. Res. — B. Kirwan (used), M. Hickey, D. Sheehan, T. Kenneally.

Man of the Match — Ger Beresford.

Referee — J. Ware; Linesmen — B. Notley and N. Murphy.

THE FINAL

In the final on Sunday Tramore went on to win the O'Connell Cup. An extra-time goal by centre-half Noel Hartigan enabled them to defeat College Corinthians by 1-0.

LAST GAME

Dungarvan have one remaining league game which is away to College Corinthians. This game is likely to be played on Sunday, May 27 at 11.30 a.m.

P.S. — There was a surprise in the "Penalty King" contest at training last week, when hot favourites, Willie and Anselm, lost out to John.

Causeway Tennis Notes

MUNSTER SCHOOLS CUP

St. Augustine's 2 teams are out of the running with the defeat of the U-16 team by C.B.S., Sexton Street (Limerick), in the Causeway.

Competing in the A section our team of Kieran Higgins, Enda Donnelly, Barry Cliffe and David Moloney all on their first year U-16, with Barry still U-14, did well to beat C.B.S. (Cork) for the second year running. Meeting C.B.S. in the semi-final meant playing a very strong all round team featuring Kevin Fleming and Kenneth McCormick in No. 1 and No. 2 positions respectively.

St. Augustine's Team — K. Higgins, E. Donnelly, B. Cliffe and D. Moloney.

COMPETITION NEWS

Both Maher A and Sno A teams continue on their uphill and victorious path with the U-12 team beating Youghal on their home ground on Saturday in the most positive way. In the next round, the semi-final, they meet strong contenders Douglas fielding the same hand-picked team.

Team — David Brennan, Ray O'Brien, Colin Keane, Julianne Veale, Elizabeth Moloney, Derval Donnelly.

The Causeway Club are the holders of the Sno Cup (a Munster competition for U-14 players) for the last two years. Can we do it again? Well our team seem to be saying yes, yes, with yet another step taken to victory with Sunday's home victory against Limerick Lawn. Decisive singles wins from Ann Brennan, Claire Dalton, Trevor O'Mahoney, Willie Fennell and Gavin Keane set the trend with stylish successful tennis the order of the day. Next obstacle in our way is Rushbrooke with a selection that must be taken very seriously. Well done players, and good luck in the semi-final.

Team — Trevor O'Mahoney, Willie Fennell, Gavin Keane, Ann Brennan, Claire Dalton, Emma Dalton.

SUNDAY TENNIS IN CAUSEWAY

Our courts were kept busy on Sunday with our Sno A team playing the semi-final of the Sno Cup against strong contenders Rushbrooke.

Three-all after the singles with Causeway victories contributed by Ann Brennan, Claire Dalton and Gavin Keane. Ann Brennan defeated favourite Aoife McDonald with a comprehensive score of 6-7, 7-5. With this result under her belt, she can face into this summer's tennis with confidence. Competing duo Emma Dalton and Gavin Keane won the mixed doubles, 4-3 to the Causeway and all eyes on the boys and girls doubles. Trevor O'Mahoney and Willie Fennell's fight took them all the way into a third set, but fell in the last minute to a strong and accurate opposition on the day. Ann and Claire were unlucky in being deprived of the deciding set with a result of 5-7, 6-7, which gave a place in the finals against Sundays Well.

So this year the Sno Cup will leave the Causeway after a two year stay to find a place in either Sunday's Well or Rushbrooke. Well done to all involved, players, coach Frank Delaney, junior captain Maeve Carthy with invaluable help from Pat Flanagan and all drivers for the various matches.

Team — Trevor O'Mahoney, Willie Fennell, Gavin Keane, Ann Brennan, Emma Dalton and Claire Dalton.

MAHER CUP

Another semi-final on home ground — this time against a Douglas side fielding a very strong team. Results next week.

INTER-FIRMS RESULTS

Competition among 32 teams produced the following results in Sunday's final under the prevalent pleasant weather conditions. Very enjoyable for all concerned and well run by Tournament Director, Liam Crotty.

Section A — Winners, Kids Korner: Ger Cusack, Margaret, Cusack, Michael Collins and Mary Phelan; Runners-up, Dungarvan Crystal: Liam Crotty, Theresa Keane, Tom Higgins and Frances Carroll.

Section B — Winners, Dungarvan Crystal: Joe Power, Carmel Cummins, Tony Keevers and Bernadette Sheridan; Runners-up, Central Dairies: Ml. Walsh, Carina O'Sullivan, Tom Landers and Lena Walsh.

Section C — Runners-up, Keohans Cleaners: Brian Keohan, Catherine Maher, Jim Kiersey and Elaine Moloney; Winners, McCarthy Wallpapers: Dan McCarthy, Ann Hennebray, Felix Shields and Mary Coffey.

Prize giving followed in the clubhouse with our President, Lena Walshe and Colin Carthy representing our generous sponsors Waterford Foods. Another extremely sociable Inter-Firms Tournament run with the co-operation of St. Lawrence's Tennis Club. Next year will be their turn.

SUMMER CUP

Practice Friday at 6.45 p.m. for anyone involved in the Summer Cup.

Railway Athletic F.C. (Cappoquin) Notes

U-12 COMMUNITY GAMES COUNTY FINAL

Railway 3, Lismore 1

We played Lismore in the Community Games final. We started very shaky and found it very hard to break down a well organised Lismore defence.

The first half ended nil all. Five minutes into the second half, newcomer D. Wilkinson got one of the best goals to be scored at this venue for a long time. Two minutes later, with almost their first attack, Lismore hit back with a well taken goal by their very impressive centre forward Gary Keane. With ten minutes remaining the Lismore keeper failed to hold the ball and Stephen Curran made it 2-1. A few minutes later D. Wilkinson scored his second goal.

So, we face a trip to Limerick for a second year in a row to play the Munster final. No date has yet been fixed.

PLAYER PROFILE:

IAN FLYNN

Ian has been with our club for over four seasons. He is currently playing in our under-13 team. Ian plays up front and he is a natural winger, with two very good feet.

Ian is younger brother to Ray who last season won a Youths All-Ireland medal with Dungarvan.

Ian is an out-and-out soccer supporter who never misses an international game when Ireland are playing. He is a manager's dream. He can play in nearly any position and no matter what you ask, he will do it.

Ian is a pupil of St. Augustine's College in Dungarvan and he lives in Affane with his parents, John and Ben.

WELL DONE

Well done to Affane u-14 team on winning the County final against Erin's Own.

CAMOGIE

Waterford Defeated In Munster U-16 Championship

Clare 4-9, Waterford 3-4

This under-16 Munster Championship game, played at McGrath Park recently, may not have been vintage camogie, but it most definitely saw Waterford in festive mood, so much so in fact that they made a present of this game to the visitors!

Leading at the break by three points, the Waterford girls repeatedly let the opposition off the hook in the second half with the forwards in particular having to take most of the blame.

The Waterford girls got off to a flying start with a goal in the early minutes, but a goal of the soft variety at the other end brought the teams level after eight minutes. Trudy Collins tacked on a good goal and a point before the interval to leave the score 2-1 to 1-1.

However, Waterford's tendency to miss scores was worrying.

EXASPERATING

The second period was very exasperating because of this and time and time again the wrong option was taken and all this when Clare were on the rack. Directly because of this and a looseness around the middle of the field, Clare clawed their way back into the game with a few neatly taken points.

The Waterford girls, as if realising the danger, came to life again and once more took back the lead, but by now, Clare, to their credit, had improved their work-rate and took control and so took the vital winning scores. For Waterford, Niamh Hayes made some fine saves and much more should have been made of her great puck-outs, especially in the second half. Lorraine Mooney at full back tried hard and this young and very inexperienced Kill girl can be very pleased with her inter-county debut. As the game progressed her confidence grew, which makes for a bright future. Elaine O'Mahony at centre-back was the Decies best player until she tired near the end. Brenda Barry and Maude Cunningham also gave fine performances.

Waterford team — Niamh Hayes, Lorraine Mooney, Bernadette O'Keeffe, Elaine O'Mahony, Brenda Barry, Linda Bennett, Maude Cunningham, Rosemary Fitzgerald, Sanya Kinsella, Trudy Collins, Ber Daly, Roisin Hartley. Subs — G. Barry for B. O'Keeffe; A. Waring for S. Kinsella.

Clare — H. Costello, M. Costello, A. McNamara, S. Maher, F. Moloney, E. Doyle, C. Hally, D. McDonagh, C. O Driscoll, B. Daly, C. Henson, E. Murphy, S. O'Meara, L. McDaid, E. Arthur.

RACING

Sindy's Gale A 7/1 Winner At Clonmel

"Sindy's Gale" in the colours of Mrs. K. O'Donovan, wife of Dr. T. A. O'Donovan, "Five Acres," Ballyduff Upper, with young Peter Dunphy in the saddle won the bumper in great style at the Clonmel meeting last Thursday.

Returned at 7/1, "Sindy's Gale" had two and a half lengths to spare over the well backed and much fancied favourite "Emma-green" (7/4) and while Peter Dunphy has had a previous point-to-point win on "Sindy's Gale," this was his first winner on the race-course. She ran on well over the last furlong for a very lucrative win for her backers. A bonus for the Dunphy family was the fact that "Sindy's Gale" is trained by Peter's dad, popular Tony Dunphy at his stables at Killosera, Dungarvan.

County Bord Na nOg News

At a recent Bord meeting the worrying aspect of clubs withdrawing from championships was raised. The Bord would like to ask all clubs who consider withdrawing from championships to study their situation carefully and think long and hard before making any final decision.

Both Divisional Bord Officers and County Bord Officers are available at all times to clubs who feel that they may need extra help to enable them to compete in the championships.

Both Divisional Bord's are at present running a "Guess the Score" competition with the GAA Supporters Club on the outcome of Waterford's Munster hurling semi-final on June 3. We would like to ask all GAA supporters to support this draw as all monies will be going back into the running of our juvenile games in both divisions.

Stradbally G.A.A. News

YOUTHFUL REDS HARD GAME

On Sunday next, May 27, our senior footballers play Nire in the championship in Dungarvan at 3.15 p.m. This will certainly be a hard game for what is now a very youthful Reds side and last years county finalists Nire must be favourites to collect the points here, but certainly there is great spirit and determination built into this side by trainer Sean Ahearne, with the help of fellow selectors Jim Skehan and Michael Coffey. So we could be in for a great game with very little in it at the finish and hopefully the Reds will record a win.

UNDER-14 HURLERS

On Monday evening, May 28, our Under-14 hurlers continue their championship programme when they play Melleray in Stradbally at 7.30 p.m. This side have prepared well with plenty of training and coaching with Kevin Barnes and fellow selectors Tom Cunningham, Michael F. Keane, Michael Curran and Eugene Casey, who have put a lot of time into this grade, so let's support our young hurlers on Monday night next, May 28.

ATTENDED COUNTY BOARD MEETING

Club Chairman Joe Curran, and Vice-Chairman Tom Cunningham, along with P. J. Coleman attended last week's County Board Meeting in Dungarvan.

GAELTACHT SCHOLARSHIP

Congratulations to Michelle Coffey on winning the Gaeltacht Scholarship to An Rinn next July which is promoted by the County Board and Club. Best wishes to her for a successful venture.

CONGRATULATIONS TO CAROL

Congratulations to Mrs. Carol Power, Rockview, on her big win recently, when Carol won a shopping spree to Cleary's, Dublin, where she enjoyed her stay for the weekend. Carol is the club's caretaker where she is doing an excellent job with our club premises.

PHELAN CUP SUCCESS

Our senior footballers had a good win over Kilmacthomas in the Phelan Cup in Walsh Park last week on the score 1-12 to 1-10. This was a very good, open game of football with some great scores being taken, and it was good to see Liam O'Brien with a tally of 1-4, plus Pat Halpin showing good form. Overall a great team effort and one that is always nice to win.

PHELAN CUP SEMI-FINAL

It now looks as if we will be playing our neighbours and county champions Kilmacthomas in the semi-final, which will be coming up in early June. Certainly a game worth looking forward to.

DEEPEST SYMPATHY
The club would like to express its deepest sympathy to the Kirwan family, Drumlohan, on their sad bereavement which occurred last week.

BIG PAINTING PROGRAMME

The club are about to launch a painting programme plus improvement to the outside of the club — which is a great credit to the clubs committee. If anybody would like to help out please contact any member of the committee.

VALUABLE DRAW

Our intermediate hurlers put up a great show when drawing with Abbeyside in the championship on the score of 3-6 each. This was a very determined Reds side as they had to come from behind to snatch the draw and even at half-time our prospects were not good, but with trainer Pat Curran urging on the team they fought all the way. It's worth noting that our forwards have scored a tally of 5-18 in two games — but on the other side we have conceded 4-20.

McCARTHY CUP AT COVE VENUE

The All-Ireland Cup visited the club last week for the benefit of our underage. All our young players were delighted to see the trophy. County coach Peter Power, spoke to all the players and reminded them that one day they could win this trophy for the county. Club hurling trainer Pat Curran spoke also to the players and reminded them that their aim should be to wear the county colours. Tom Cunningham thanks both on behalf of the club and wished Peter every success.

Photos were taken all round with the cup, with two ladies very interested in the cup — but they will have to wait till September!

HURLERS v. DE LA SALLE

Our next hurling game is against De La Salle on June 17, in Kill, which will prove vital to the Reds, because a win here would surely see us qualify for the semi-final stages, which would be a great achievement for all concerned.

JUNIOR HURLERS SHOW THE WAY

Our junior hurlers had a clear cut victory over Abbeyside in the championship last week on the score of 5-5 to 0-3. This was a great determined effort by all concerned and it proved what great heart can do in a game. There was some good hurling throughout the hour and the last score by Tom Cunningham showed he could be on the way back for the 90's.

Team was — B. Dunford, P. Fennell, L. Carroll, L. Walsh, P. Dunphy, J. Crotty, O. Costelloe, G. Walsh, T. Coleman, P. Foley, M. O'Brien, M. O'Brien, A. Dineen, P. Sweeney, J. Keane. Sub. — T. Cunningham.

JUNIOR FOOTBALLERS v. BRICKEY RANGERS

Our junior footballer play Brickey Rangers on this Friday evening, May 25 in the postponed championship game in Lemybrien at 7.15 p.m. It's a game we must win, and it will come as a major surprise if we don't collect the points.

TOURNAMENT GAMES

The clubs junior tournament games are advancing under the guidance of Treasurer, John Crotty, who is organising these games and all is going well.

KILROSSANTY v. BALLINACOURTY

On this Friday evening, May 25, Kilrossanty play Ballinacourty in the field at 7.15 p.m. in the championship.

MAY MUSIC

On Sunday night next, May 27 the Sunday night popular music continues in the Social Centre with some great dancing and sing along. All members and friends are welcome.

GOLF CLASSIC

It looks as if the club will be sending a team to the Golf Classic on this Friday, May 25 at Waterford Golf Course. The team will be headed by Liam Carroll who is trying to organise members from the club.

WATERFORD COLLEGES FOOTBALL

Convincing Win For St. Augustine's

St. Augustine's College 1-11
St. Paul's Community College 0-5

At Roanmore grounds recently, St. Augustine's had a convincing win over St. Paul's, Waterford, in the final of the Waterford Colleges U-15 1/2 A Football Championship.

For three-quarters of the game it was a ding dong struggle, with the sides level on five occasions. St. Paul's had their chances in the first half, but two brilliant saves by Tom Cliffe in the Friary goal kept his team well in contention, and at half time the sides were level at 0-3 each.

The first period of the second half was again keenly contested, and after 15 minutes the sides were level again at 5 points each. In the final quarter the fitness and skill of the Friary XV were telling factors, and they added a goal and six points without reply to run out deserving winners.

Best for St. Augustine's were — T. Cliffe, M. J. Keating, B. Hayes, C. Murphy, B. Beatty, K. Whelan.

Scorers — Brian Beatty 1-5, Kieran Whelan 0-3, D. Carlton 0-1, E. Clancy 0-1, T. Flynn 0-1.

Team — T. Cliffe (St.

Oliver's), M. J. Keating (Old Parish), B. Hayes (St. Mary's), J. Shields (Abbeyside), C. Murphy (Dungarvan), B. Fitzgerald (St. Oliver's), O. Power (Naomh Brid), B. Beatty (Abbeyside), K. Whelan (St. Mary's), A. Ahearne (St. Oliver's), D. Carlton (St. Oliver's), C. Dee (Kilmacthomas), E. Clancy (Stradbally), J. Brennan (Abbeyside), J. O'Donoghue (Abbeyside). Sub — T. Flynn (Fourmilewater) for E. Clancy.

Dungarvan G.A.A. Notes

FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP TIE OFF

Our senior football championship game against Kilmacthomas which was scheduled for Stradbally next Sunday has been postponed.

The reason is Waterford's involvement in the Munster junior football championship semi-final against Kerry at Listowel on the same day. Both ourselves and Kilmac have players on the county team and so the postponement was unavoidable.

PETER FERNCOMBE

Congratulations to Peter Ferncombe who had a fine game for Waterford in the 2-10 to 2-8 Munster junior football championship replay victory over Clare last Sunday. We hope he will fare equally as well in Sunday's semi-final.

JUNIORS LOSE — UNLUCKILY

Although our junior hurlers lost to Tallow in the championship at Cappoquin last Saturday evening on a 3-11 to 3-7 scoreline they contributed to one of the best games of the entire weekend.

Michael Sheehan helped himself to a hat-trick of superb goals to cap what was a top class individual display, but really on the night every player gave his all.

THE LONG PUCK CONTROVERSY

Our long puck competition for the Over 40s was won in fine style (and a little controversy) by Corkman Mick Burke last week. Tipperary's Peter Fern-combe surrendered the title he won last year but the Clonoulty man will be entitled to hold the view that his attempt to retain his crown was "sabotaged."

Runner-up was Richie Harty who has always fancied himself as a mighty striker of the sliothar.

The third spot went to Eamonn McCarthy after a very keenly contested competition (ask Alan Harty).

Finally a word of thanks to Jim Mullins who "ran the show" and did a fine job of work too.

UNDER-14'S

The Under-14 hurlers begin their assault on the "A" championship with a first round local derby game against Abbeyside at Fraher Field on Monday night next (7.30).

Although we defeated the Villagers in the Feile na nGael competition that result is no guide to the championship, and unless every member of the team gives full commitment we could have a real fight on our hands.

GOOD LUCK MATTY

We were all saddened last weekend to learn of Matty Wood's involvement in a road traffic accident in London.

However it is encouraging to know that Matty, always a great supporter of our teams, is fighting his way back to full health. We wish him every good luck and God's blessing.

THURLES-BOUND

News from the grapevine is that transport manager Jim Mullins is arranging coach transport to Thurles on Sunday week for the Munster senior hurling semi-final. But do hurry if you require a seat. There are likely to be more applicants than there are seats available.

HAPPY EVENT

Congratulations to Tony and Veronica Ryan on a recent happy event — the birth of their first son. Another hurler and footballer of the future for the Blues DV.

FOOTBALL CHALLENGE

The senior footballers journeyed to Clogheen last Sunday evening and scored a splendid victory over the local club Fr. Sheehy's in a most entertaining and highly beneficial challenge game.

There was much to be satisfied with in this display as every player gave 100%. It was certainly a valuable outing in advance of our next championship game against Kilmacthomas. That game, incidentally, is likely to be played on Saturday week, June 2, in Stradbally. More anon.

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to Jim Egan of Springfield on the death of his father, Tom, which took place last week in his native Toomevara, Co. Tipperary.

Jim has been a longtime supporter of the club and his wife, the former Cait Sheehan, is a member of a family intrinsically linked with the club down through the decades.

Blackwater Cycling Club

The Cappelquin Pork and Bacon Blackwater Cycling Club was well represented in Clonakilty on Sunday last for the Clona Milk Grand Prix. In the under-12's, Paul Moore took second place while Vincent Lombard, Pat O'Donovan and Brian Moore come in in the first ten. In the under-14's Bryan Geary came 6th while Ken Moore and Shane Motherway finished in the bunch. Kevin Cotter crashed but escaped with a few minor bruises. In the u-16's we only had John Moore who finished well up.

Maurice Hickey, Denis McCarthy and John Tracey were in the S.C. group. Maurice came 12th.

Terry Moore was on Radio Waterford on Wednesday last with the Matron of the Youghal District Hospital. Preparations for the sponsored cycle are running smooth. Sponsor cards or tickets can be had from Terry Moore.

Ballyduff On Top

BALLYDUFF 3-11
BALLYGUNNER 1-11

Apart from a brief period in the second half when they lost their way somewhat, Ballyduff were always in control in this senior hurling league championship clash with Ballygunner on Sunday last at Fraher Field, Dungarvan. The points were vital to both sides but on the day, Ballyduff, physically bigger and stronger proved to be the better side.

They were comfortably on top throughout the first half during which Michael Walsh's goal from a free on the quarter hour helped them to a 1-7 to 0-3 interval lead.

The sides swapped four points apiece in the third quarter but when Clem Feeney had a soft goal in the 45th minute Ballyduff looked poised to win pulling up as they led 2-11 to 0-7.

A needlessly conceded free in the 49th minute resulted in Fergal Hartley goaling from the free for Ballygunner. The Eastern side made a strong bid to get back into the game after this and three points quickly followed. But Paudie Prendergast's influence at midfield (he was their best player on the day) got Ballyduff back on an even keel and John Quirke's goal in the 27th minute, set up by Clem Feeney, put the issue beyond doubt for the Western side.

Scorers: Ballyduff — M. Walsh 1-5; C. Feeney 1-3; J. Quirke 1-0; P. Prendergast 0-2; S. Hannon 0-1. Ballygunner — F. Hartley 1-2; J. Connors, M. Mahony and S. Frampton 0-2 each; C. Sweeney, E. Brennan and L. Whitty 0-1 each.

Ballyduff — M. Leamy, M. Casey, L. Power, Seamie Daly, J. Casey, Seamus Daly, D. Hannon, P. Prendergast, R. Walsh, C. Feeney, M. Walsh, E. Hickey, S. Hannon, J. Quirke, M. Geary. Sub. — G. Hickey for J. Casey.

Ballygunner — R. Whitty, P. Warren, N. Warren, M. Whelan, C. Laphorne, S. Frampton, C. Cantwell, F. Hartley, L. Whitty, B. Sullivan, M. Mahony, J. Connor, P. Power, E. Brennan, C. Sweeney. Sub. — J. Flynn for P. Power.

Referee — J. Moore, Dungarvan.

Nire and Fourmilewater G.A.A. Notes

Fourmilewater Hurling club are holding their annual Tea Party at Clonea Hotel on Saturday next, May 26. All are welcome at £6 per head and anybody who is interested should contact any club officer or any of the hostesses for the night. Music will be provided by the Society Four and a great night is assured.

Fourmilewater Hurling Club are organising the annual outing for the upcoming June bank holiday. This year's trip is to Ballygarret in Co. Wexford where Fourmile will play the locals in a tournament game on arrival at the venue. Afterwards both groups will get together for music, song and dance and the usual crack and banter. At £6 the bus fee is a giveaway and performing musicians are free. Those who are interested in travelling should give their names to Thomas Crotty or Michael Danagher as soon as possible.

Ger Walshe was unlucky to sustain a broken bone in his wrist in the Waterford v. Clare senior football game. As a result, Fourmilewater and Nire are feeling the loss of his services at present, with the footballers being particularly hard hit owing to a scarcity of scoring forwards. Denis Hogan is also on the injured list with a damaged cartilage as a result of a clash with big Pat Walsh in a Phelan Cup game against Dunhill. We wish both players a fast return to action.

Nire seniors are due to play Stradbally at Dungarvan on Sunday next, May 27. This should be a great game of football and Nire will have to be on their toes here to contain the Reds who play a fast, possession game and look like a team who could adapt readily to the new rules. Broken balls at centre field could be vital here and Nire will have to improve on this aspect of their game to keep Stradbally at bay. Nire will most likely move Pat Walshe forward to replace brother Ger but this should not weaken the team as good backs are in plentiful supply.

The final of the 1989 Phelan Cup between Nire and St. Saviours will be played on Friday, June 1, at a venue to be decided and this will be another good test for Nire. When the teams met in last year's championship there was very little between the teams and bad shooting by Saviours forwards probably cost them the game.

Nire minor footballers had a rather disappointing run in this year's championship, losing three games and receiving a walk over from Shamrocks in their last game. They were unlucky that Eoin Wall, who received a nasty foot injury in a hurling game against Colligan, missed two games and David Phelan had to cry off with a dislocated finger at a vital stage in a Bushy Park game against St. Pats. Bright feature of the campaign was the great defensive play of Tom Flynn who is still under 14.

Friary Win Thrilling Replay Encounter

St. Augustine's 5-6, Dungarvan CBS 4-2

On Thursday last, May 17, the replay of the under-14 football match between St. Augustine's College and Dungarvan CBS was played at St. Augustine's College. The Friary got off to a good start, 2-3 to no score in the first half, although CBS often appeared to be threatening.

In the second half the contest was eagerly disputed, with CBS scoring 4-2. However, the Friary had already done enough to bring their total score to 5-6.

This was a splendid game of football, played in excellent spirit and discipline from both sides.

Scorers — Friary — T. Flynn 2-2, C. Fitzgerald 2-0, M. Kelleher 1-1, P. Mullaney 0-1, J. Fitzgerald 0-1; CBS — S. Roche 2-0, S. Cunningham 1-1, J. Hyslop 1-0, T. Keane 0-1.

Geraldines G.A.A. Notes

JUNIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP
Ballysaggart 2-17,
Geraldines 3-7

In one of the best and most sporting games of hurling played in many a long day, Ballysaggart got the better of us at the Castle Farm grounds, Lisimore, on Saturday evening last.

There was a big improvement in our play from our first match with Clashmore. Our forwards lost a lot of scoring chances in the first half and we must improve if we are to stay in this championship.

Our lineout was — Johnny O'Grady, Sean Osborne,

Johnny O'Brien, Shane Kiely, Richard Hurley, Billy O'Connell, Brendan O'Grady, Daithi O'Brien, Seamus Meskill, Brian Connery, Royco Ware, Tony Hally, Eddie O'Grady, Paddy Corkery. Subs — James O'Connell for Brendan O'Grady, Jimmy Morrissey, Declan Carlton.

Referee: Eddie Cunningham, Tallow.

COLLEGES U-14 HURLING

Dungarvan CBS Shock Limerick CBS

Dungarvan CBS 5-6, Limerick CBS 2-0

Dungarvan CBS advanced to the final of the Rice Cup plate hurling competition with a comprehensive win over Limerick CBS at Cashel recently. Forced to make a number of changes, Dungarvan played with four midfielders and four forwards. The tactics worked well for the Dungarvan forwards, who enjoyed the extra space created and Dungarvan led 2-4 to 1-0 at half time.

Early in the second Brendan Conway had Dungarvan's third goal to make the score 3-4 to 1-0. Limerick replied immediately with a goal at the other end, but afterwards failed to break through for any more scores.

Further goals from Jason Hyslop and Richard Lonergan and two points from Gavan Keane gave Dungarvan a comprehensive victory.

Dungarvan scorers — Jason Hyslop 2-0, Brendan Conway 2-0, Richard Lonergan 1-0, Gavan Keane 0-5, Michael Murray 0-1.

Dungarvan CBS — T. O'Mahony (Dungarvan), M. Hyslop (Dungarvan), K. Curran (Dungarvan), S. Ryan (St. Patricks), R. Lynch (St. Patricks), R. Casey (St. Patricks), T. Keane (St. Olivers), M. Murray (St. Olivers), R. Lonergan (Naomh Brid), S. Cunningham (Stradbally), G. Keane (Abbeyside), T. Galvin (Dungarvan), J. Moore (Abbeyside), B. Conway (Dungarvan), J. Hyslop (Dungarvan).

Subs — D. Barnes (Stradbally), D. Kiely (Kilrossanty), C. Walsh (Dungarvan), E. Veale (Abbeyside).

INTERMEDIATE HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Abbeyside And Stradbally Finish Level

ABBEYSIDE 3-6
STRADBALLY 3-6

[By "Commentator"]

Both of these won their first round I.H. matches at Lemybrien on the previous Sunday and kept up their unbeaten record at Fraher Field on Saturday evening when they played draw in a game that was quite entertaining.

It looked to me to be a game that Abbeyside should have won as overall they were the better team they having more of the play than Stradbally. In the end they were lucky to draw, I suppose.

Miscalculations by their goalkeeper, misdirected frees and too many missed chances by their forwards were all factors which kept them from winning.

They enjoyed a 3-3 to 1-3 lead at half-time, having played with the strong breeze, but within a minute of the restart Stradbally came back with a goal and gradually whittled away the local side's lead to draw level and forge ahead by a single point with time running out, but an awkward fee was delightfully converted to give Stradbally a share of the points.

A few very fine saves by Pat Curran in goal and his tremendously long clearances made all the difference as far as Stradbally were concerned.

Referee Pat Walsh had no problems with this very sporting encounter.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL REPLAY

Dramatic Late Winner For Waterford

WATERFORD 2-10 CLARE 2-8

Waterford snatched a dramatic late winner at Listowel on Sunday last when Noel Whelan goaled three minutes into injury time to give them a narrow win in this Munster championship junior football replay with Clare.

Clare claimed there was a square infringement but after consultation with the umpires, referee Pat Lonergan allowed the score. It was, in a way, poetic justice, as Clare's equalising goal in the drawn match at Dungarvan scored in time added on, did look to be a "square ball", but the score was allowed.

Ten minutes from the end of normal time Waterford's situation looked hopeless as they trailed by 2-7 to 0-8. But then Waterford's best player John

Burns was injured and was stretchered off. It was following this incident that Waterford staged a dramatic fight back and within 2 minutes Waterford had drawn level. The resurgence started with a Paul Fitzgerald goal and points from Pepe Ferncombe and Noel Whelan.

Clare fought back and sub. Joe Cullen pointed in the 58th minute and they looked to be holding on until Whelan got through for Waterford's winning goal.

Waterford led 0-2 to nil early on but found themselves trailing 2-3 to 0-5 at the break. They never gave up however and their dramatic fight back deserved reward.

Scorers: Waterford — N. Whelan and P. Fitzgerald 1-3 each; J. Burns and P. Ferncombe 0-2 each. Clare — J. Meaney 2-1; D. Coughlan and S. Cleary 0-2 each; G. Fitzpatrick, J. Fennell and J. Cullen 0-1 each.

Waterford — T. Jeynes, E. Rockett, A. Power, M. Hallahan, G. Casey, B. Currey, E. Fitzgerald, N. Power, J. Burns, M. Whelan, J. Murray, P. Ferncombe, P. Fitzgerald, J. Hallinan, J. Troy. Subs. — P. Hallahan for J. Troy; J. Dunne for J. Burns.

Clare — D. Keane, T. Jubridy, G. Jordan, M. Bohannon, A. Kerins, J. J. Rouane, M. Guerin, G. Fitzpatrick, S. Cleary, J. Fennell, K. Kelleher, J. O'Sullivan, D. Coughlan, C. Clancy, J. Meaney. Subs. — P. O'Shea for J. Meaney; D. Hayes for C. Clancy; J. Cullen for J. Fennell.

Referee — P. Lonergan, Tipperary.

Abbeyside/Ballinacourty G.A.A. Notes

HURLERS DRAW

Following a very exciting game, we shared the spoils with Stradbally last Saturday evening in our second game in the intermediate hurling championship. We now have three points from two outings in the series. Our next game will be against Shamrocks on June 17.

Our team was: P. McGovern, A. Ryan, M. Collins, G. Collins, T. Kenneally, S. McGrath, J. Walsh, M. Reynolds, I. Kiely, T. Murphy, P. Walsh (capt.), M. Cosgrave, C. Clancy, D. Sheehan, F. McGovern. Subs — G. Connors, W. Kiely.

JUNIOR HURLING

Our second string team went down to Stradbally by 5-5 to 0-3 at Lemybrien on Sunday evening last. Some big names from last year's team were unavailable due to retirement, but Eddie Cashin (Selector) and Johnny Byrne stepped in and both were outstanding.

Jimmy Stacey, who is on our under-16 team, played his first game at adult grade for the club, while the team was led by captain, John Whelan.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

We made our exit from the Phelan cup competition last Tuesday night week when Kilrossanty pipped us at the post on the scoreline 1-9 to 0-11.

This Saturday night we play Clashmore in the third round of the SFC in the Fraher Field in what is a very vital game for us. We defeated Tramore in our first game, while Rathgormack defeated us in our second game, which was a very big disappointment and we'll be very anxious to make up for this and enhance our chances of qualification for the play-offs.

On Friday night our junior footballers play Kilrossanty in the re-fixtured of our game which was due to go ahead last month but was postponed due to the big fog.

UNDER-12 HURLING TOURNAMENT

Our juvenile section are hosting an under-12 tournament this Saturday. Activities begin at 11 a.m. and should be in full swing until 3 p.m. Anyone who wants to see some very enjoyable hurling should drop out to the Burgery during the day. You won't be disappointed.

No Contest For Tallow

TALLOW 2-15 CAPPOQUIN 0-2

[By "Commentator"]

Cappoquin hurlers are certainly going through a lean period and just how lean it is can be seen from the above scoreline. Obviously it was never on as a contest and apart from getting them the two points to put them out in front on the points chart, it was of little benefit to Tallow who just cruised through this one.

Cappoquin did not have all their best players available, but even if they had they would not now beat Tallow who have now fully justified their application for re-admission to the senior championship. They said they belong up there and there can be no argument on that score now.

ROANMORE 2-7 DUNHILL 3-3

Two goals and a point by veteran Tom Moore in the closing minutes of this game made it appear that Dunhill had Roanmore under pressure, if the scoreline was accepted as an indicator. The winners had the game well in hand all the way, without being impressive at any stage.

OTHER GAMES

Ardmore had a good win over Geraldines in intermediate football and this will help the spirit of the winners who suffered a crushing defeat by Shamrocks in their previous game.

In junior hurling, Ballysaggart continued on their winning way when beating Geraldines and the feature of this match was the high score recorded by former player Pat Bennett. I understand it might have staggered the record.

Tallow beat Dungarvan, also in junior hurling and Clashmore had their second success within a week when they beat Ballinameela in a poor contest.

In the junior football tie of the week-end, Modeligo won by double scores against Melleray.

Coming Weekend Fixtures

Because of the victory of the county junior footballers in the replay against Clare and their Munster semi-final date with Kerry at Listowel on Sunday next, the published programme in the masters fixture list is well and truly decimated. Five matches were cancelled on last weekend and about the same number will go by the board again in order to release players for duty. It's the price of victory and in a success starved county like ours, I suppose we would go to any lengths in accommodating selectors if we thought the end would justify the means.

Stradbally versus the Nire, Ballinacourty v. Clashmore and Kilrossanty versus Rathgormack are the only games that will be played and I was advised when writing this column on Monday morning that the Kilrossanty v. Rathgormack game stood only a 50/50 chance of going ahead because there are Rathgormack players — Brendan Curry and Joe Murray — on the junior football panel.

WATERFORD v. KERRY AT LISTOWEL

On the Munster Council Fixtures Booklet, this game is scheduled for Dungarvan, but understandably there must have been a clause which took the game to the venue in which the Munster senior semi-final is played. Kerry and Clare meet at this venue in the provincial semi-final and our game will be the curtain-raiser. The team to play will be named after training in St. Augustine's College grounds on Tuesday night and the news at the time of writing is that it could see a number of changes from the team which beat Clare. Johnnie Byrne, Modeligo, was taken off on a stretcher about ten minutes from the end in the Clare game and while his injury is not as serious as was thought, he is not likely to be declared fit and there is a big doubt about Michael Hallinan and Joe Salmon being available for personal reasons. With the best fifteen players in the county available, we would find it very difficult to beat Kerry, but if the players named above are out, our chances will certainly be pretty slim.

It's nice to see our name on an important programme like this and hopefully many of the players and officials freed from championship duty as a result of the game, will travel in support.

STRADBALLY v. THE NIRE

I will not write a long preview of this one because I have a feeling that it might not be played. There have been rumours that if the juniors won at Listowel on Sunday that Pat Curran would likely be drafted in and now with so many problems to be overcome by the selectors, I can see 'Packo' being recruited, especially he being the kind of player who would relish the idea of playing against Kerry. Two years ago he played a big role in our good display against the Kingdom at senior level.

Stradbally and the Nire are both fancied to reach the knockout stages and both have won their first round matches. Stradbally beat Butlerstown by a couple of points on the same day that the Nire stole the game from Dunhill who looked all over a superior side for 55 minutes in an exciting game at Stradbally. When Stradbally played the Nire three years ago the Ballymac' side lost by double scores but on their next meeting, which was in the third round last year, the Nire just scraped through (0-8 to 1-4) in a close and tough contest.

The loss of Ger Walsh will be a major blow if the game goes ahead and I believe it likely that Stradbally will just scrape home in another tight finish.

KILROSSANTY v. RATHGORMACK

With two Rathgormack players on the county junior panel, I cannot see this going ahead, even though there has been no official announcement at the time of writing. Should the game take place, Kilrossanty will be favourites, even though they showed disappointing form against Tramore.

BALLINACOURTY v. CLASHMORE

In their many clashes over the years, there has been little between them and this too was the case then they met in a county final ten years or so ago. I saw Clashmore play St. Saviours at Leamybrien last month in a match which was the first for Clashmore and I was very much impressed at their splendid first half performance when they finished only a couple of points behind the favourites who had wind assistance. Obviously Clashmore were not fully fit.

Two weeks before, Ballinacourty, in the very first match of the '90 championships trounced Tramore at Kill and made themselves look like certain contenders for the title. But just a week later they flopped badly to Rathgormack at Leamybrien. These kind of results make County unpredictable as is the case with all teams who blow hot and cold.

Ballinacourty will have Ian Kiely, John McGrath, Joe O'Riordan, Mark Reynolds, hopefully for them, Jimmy Healy and Bernard O'Gorman, both of whom have been on the injured list, Michael Collins, Conor Clancy, Gerry O'Connor, David Mulvihill, Michael Cosgrave, Pa McGovern, Tom Cahill, T. Walsh, Tom Kenneally, etc., in their attempt to get a further two points, while Clashmore, led by Timmy O'Keefe, Roger and Pat Hynes, Mick Shalloe, Pat, Roger and Eddie O'Halloran, John Douris, D. Salmon, M. Devine, Seamus Allen, etc., etc., will be attempting to register their first win of the season.

It will, as always, be a close and exciting game and I believe that the outcome will depend on how well Ballinacourty play. If they are at full strength and play to their best form, they could just about win.

Ballyduff's Fine Win

Whether or not the quality of the hurling pleased the critics in this one, I cannot say, but the delightful stickwork, the fine hurling skills and the commitment displayed by both Ballyduff and Ballygunner gave us the most entertaining game of the senior championship so far.

Not everyone will agree that Ballyduff are six points a better side than the losers. In my view they are not and even though Ballygunner have no points from two matches, they can still come back into the championship and I will be surprised if they do not. I also believe that Ballyduff must wear the tag of favourites to win the championship. They should beat Dungarvan and Fourmilewater and finish with eight points which will put them into the knockout stages and the team which beats them there will be champions. They made better use of the chances that went their way. Including four 65s, there were 28 frees and from the 12 that Ballyduff got they scored seven times, while Ballygunner registered only three scores from 16 frees over the hour. Most of the missed frees on both sides were from scorable positions.

FIGURES OF THE GAME

Ballyduff — Scores: 14, Wides: 12, Frees: 10, 65s: 2, Sidelines: 8; Ballygunner — Scores: 12, Wides: 9, Frees: 14, 65s: 2, Sidelines: 6. Totals: Scores: 26, Wides: 21, Frees: 24, 65s: 4, Sidelines: 14.

Including a throw-in by the referee and a linesman ball, there were a total of 92 stoppages which is marginally above average for a 60 minute game.

Shamrocks And Mollerans Finish All Square

SHAMROCKS 2-6 ST. MOLLERANS 3-3

A second draw in the same group of the intermediate hurling championship within 24 hours goes to show how even the standards are in this competition. This too was very competitive and entertaining and featured by some good individual performances on both sides. Shamrocks missed some early chances of scoring and were trailing by 2-3 to 0-5 at half-time.

For about 20 minutes of the second half Mollerans continued to press, but with very little success against a very resolute defence which certainly were not in the mood to yield scores. Gradually the Shamrocks reduced the scoring gap and minutes from time equalised to win a very well deserved share of the points. This was Shamrocks first championship game of the season while Mollerans had played against Stradbally on the previous Sunday.

On the form shown in the above two matches, there is very little between any of the teams in this wide open championship.

Pat Moore was referee.

U-21 FOOTBALL 1989 FINAL

Kilrossanty To Take Their First Title

This is six or seven months overdue and outside the respective camps, most people have forgotten about it. One of the nice things about the final is that it is a final and with no matches following, people are left to talk about it for weeks or months.

When a thing like this happens to a final it is quite different and come next Sunday practically everyone will have forgotten the 1989 under 21 football championship. Even the participants will have forgotten because on next Sunday they are scheduled to meet in the senior football championship.

However both Rathgormack and Kilrossanty will want to win, particularly when both are still trying for their first. Whether or not it will be to the advantage of Rathgormack that they did not play the Eastern final until two months ago, I don't know, but it does speak highly of their football prowess that they were able to beat a side as good as St. Saviours who were the fancied ones.

Kilrossanty played a great championship to win out in the division and they looked to be on course for the title before it became known that the final would spill over into the next decade. I have been told that they have prepared well again and are reasonably confident of making the breakthrough on Thursday evening here.

With players like Darran Mulhearn, Ger Fitzgerald, Pat, Peter and Billy Power, Nicky and Richard Power, Brian Kirwan, Ed. Flynn, Alan O'Brien, T. Veale, J. Baldwin, J. Dempsey, B. Whelan, etc. available, it would be difficult to imagine them being beaten, as to me it looks the best side they have ever put out in the grade.

County Board Meeting

Eamon O Murchu, Chairman presided at last week's meeting of the County Board which was held at Dungarvan.

Arising out of the minutes it was pointed out that the previous meeting was told that Waterford could not play their second best team in the junior football championship. S. O'Brien, Central Council, explained that Management and Central Council had refused a group of applications on the grounds that they were not submitted on time, but that subsequently the President had decided that all applications be granted. The chairman said that Waterford had not been given a fair chance as at least two other counties in Munster had been preparing their second best teams while we had been training our panel of exclusively juniors. The Central Council delegate was instructed to raise the matter again.

COUNTY COACH

"The appointment of a county football coach for all grades is a matter that should be treated with great urgency." This was stated by Nioclas Mac Craith when the reports from the various committees were being debated. He said that having seen the games played by the county teams in all four grades, he was convinced that something in the matter of expert coaching needed to be done soon if we were ever to get anywhere in football. He reminded the meeting that this was the fourth time he had raised this matter. He agreed with the chairman that he would submit a motion on the matter to the next meeting.

The hard luck experienced in all our championship matches this year, was referred to in all the reports and when we recall that our under-21 footballers were beaten by a single point, our minors beaten in a replay by a single point, our juniors held to a draw and the seniors beaten by four points, hard luck must have been a factor. However there were other factors and it might be no harm to have these examined.

The senior football report stated that the outgoing selectors were prepared to continue in office and they were optimistic about their national league prospects. The matter of the appointment of selectors was left over until after the county team has played in the special 'B' championship which will be run within the next couple of months.

FIXTURES PROBLEMS

Applications from Dungarvan and Tallow for a change of date of a fixture because of holidays, etc., was referred to the fixtures committee. The chairman commented that these were the kind of pressures that the fixtures committee were put under, when he was dealing with an application from the county hurling selectors for a postponement of all matches effecting the senior county panel, which were fixed for the week-end of May 20. The application stated that if refused, the injury-hit panel would have only two weeks to get ready for the Cork/Kerry Munster semi-final match on June 3. County selector Phil Fanning urged the chairman to have the matter considered, but the chairman stated that the matter had been before the fixtures committee and they were standing by a decision taken at the previous Board meeting and the club fixtures would stand.

UNDER-21 HURLING

James Tobin informed the meeting that extreme difficulties were being experienced in organising training and in getting a panel together because of a variety of problems. Examinations, club championships and players involved with county teams were some of the reasons. He said that when these problems would be overcome, there would be very little time left in which to train for their game against Kerry in Kenmare in early June.

MINOR FOOTBALL REPORT

After the reading of this report, the chairman commented that this was the best prepared minor football team that we had out for a long time. He said they had played good football and were unlucky not to have won. He referred to one act of indiscipline which might have cost us the game. The selectors reported that they are prepared to give it another go.

NEW LEAGUE FORMAT

This was discussed at some considerable length and while the idea of completing the national leagues and championship within the calendar year appealed to the delegates, the proposed schedule of games did not seem acceptable as they felt that there was not enough time available for club championships at the beginning of the year. The chairman and secretary were given permission to examine the implications of its introduction, before our delegate will be advised as to how he should vote on the issue when it comes up on June 9.

REGISTRATION

County Development Officer John Fraher reported a very satisfactory situation in relation to the annual registration of members. He thanked the clubs for their response to his early appeal. The chairman congratulated John on having the position so satisfactory.

WESTERN BOARD MEETING

Jimmy O'Gorman, Chairman presided at this meeting which dealt for the most part with referees' reports. He said it gave him no pleasure to have to sit in judgment on a couple of reports that were before the meeting and he was referring in particular to the report of the Ballinameela/An Rinn, junior hurling championship match played at Cappoquin ten days previously.

In the report referee Jim Landers named three players who had misbehaved in a very serious way and all three will be heard at a special meeting of the Board on June 6. The referee who was manhandled and very distressed after the incident told the Board that he had seriously considered resigning and would give a final decision to the secretary within a week.

The chairman remarked that it would be a tragedy if one of our top referees were to resign because of this misconduct. Referring to the same match, Nioclas Mac Craith complained about there being no neutral umpires at the game and while he agreed that this had nothing to do with what happened, it was nevertheless a serious matter. Members pointed out that because of the multiplicity of fixtures, it was virtually impossible to have neutral umpires at all matches.

Arising out of the report of the Stradbally/Kilrossanty junior football game at Abbeyside, three players were suspended. Mcc. Lennon, Stradbally 1 month; Bren. Whyte, Kilrossanty 3 months; P. Hickey, Stradbally 2 weeks. Referee Pat Moore reported that it was a tight and tense game and apart from the incident in which the three players were sent off, the conduct and sportsmanship of the officials and supporters was excellent.

A player from each side, in the Clashmore versus Geraldines J.F.C. game who were sent off were suspended for 2 weeks. Pdraigh O Briain, Geraldines and L. O Domhnaill, Clashmore.

FOGGED OFF

Reports of the three games which became abortive because of thick fog, were read and in the case of the Stradbally v. Brickeys junior football match, it was reported by referee Charlie Browne that Stradbally were leading by 1-11 to nil when he called off the game at the three-quarter stage when less than half the field was visible. All were refixed.

WITHDRAWN

Surprise was expressed when Ballysaggart informed the meeting that they had decided to withdraw from the junior football championships. Their letter to the Board stated that when they entered a team, they understood that a 'B' junior football championship would be run. Their withdrawal was accepted.

AMERICAN VISIT

A letter from the New York, Waterford G.A.A. Committee thanked the Western Board for their recent gesture in presenting a Waterford Crystal Clock to the chairman on the occasion of the visit of Western Board Chairman, Jimmy O'Gorman. The letter spoke of their appreciation of the very fine sentiments expressed by Jimmy in his address to the annual dinner in New York, where Dungarvan man, Jimmy Walsh was feted as Waterfordman of the Year. The chairman told the meeting about the wonderful work being done over there and their loyalty to the games and Irish culture, etc.

PRESENTATION

At the end of normal business of the meeting a presentation of a beautifully inscribed eight-day clock was made to the recently retired Board Chairman, Denis McGrath. Making the presentation on behalf of the members, Jimmy O'Gorman spoke about the outstanding and loyal service given by Denis, not only during his years as chairman, but throughout a long number of years with his club as official and player. He said Denis had been a very popular chairman and had at all times been very fair and impartial. Denis suitably replied.

Cork v. Waterford In Thurles

By winning the double against Kerry on Sunday, Cork have qualified to meet us in both senior and junior hurling at Thurles on next Sunday week. Although the winning margin was only nine points, Cork seniors, never under pressure, showed what a force they will be this year. Having had the advantage of this game, they will be hot favourites to get to the Munster final.

Golf Classic

The response from clubs and sponsors as well as intending participants is most satisfactory and a great day's fun will be enjoyed when the 'classic' gets under way on Friday morning. Last year it proved to be a most successful venture and was a great financial success. The proceeds will go towards development within the county.

Legal Advice On Cllr's Right To Smoke At Meetings

Referring to the fact that the usual ash trays provided for members who smoked were missing, Fine Gael Cllr. M. O'Riordan raised the question at the outset of the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last Monday night whether the Council Chamber could legally be designated as a public place where smoking is prohibited under the new no smoking Act.

Cllr. O'Riordan, a regular smoker, objected to having his right to smoke in the Council Chamber taken from him on the grounds that it was not a public place as the general public did not have free access to it and could not come in except by invitation. He asked the Chairman for a ruling on the matter.

The Chairman, Cllr. P. Power said that it would be a matter for legal advice as he could not say whether the Council Chamber was a designated area or not under the Act.

Cllr. A. Hallahan suggested that Cllr. O'Riordan should make a little sacrifice and refrain from smoking for the duration of the meeting.

Cllr. O'Riordan — I'm not speaking about that, I'm talking about my entitlement and I'd like to have an ash tray as I don't want to throw ash on the carpet.

Cllr. T. Wright, a non-smoker, interjected "well, we have entitlements too."

When the Chairman, Cllr. Power, suggested that the matter be let over until legal advice could be got on the points raised, Cllr.

O'Riordan agreed with the suggestion and the meeting proceeded with the no-smoking ban in operation.

CRYSTAL WORKERS STRIKE

it did not provide for the restoration of the wage cuts which was the issue which sparked off the strike in the first instance.

Dr. Galvin said that it "was beyond belief that our workforce would allow the company be ruined without even discussing its problems with management."

However on Tuesday, a spokesman for the Union said that they were available for discussions provided these were confined to increased productivity and cost cutting procedures and did not include wage cuts. A meeting of the striking workers in Waterford on Tuesday morning also rejected the claims that they were not available for discussions.

NO NEARER SOLUTION

This terrible strike is now entering its eighth week and at local level appears to be no nearer solution than it was at the beginning. In view of the apparent intransigence of both sides involved perhaps it is time for the academics such as Dr. Bob Bryer on the Union side and the Minister for Labour or his officials to get together in an effort to hammer out some formula which would be acceptable to both sides as a stepping stone to a final solution of the dispute.

It has already gone on too long and needs to be settled before more hardship is inflicted on the workers, on the company and on the local economy in Dungarvan and Waterford City or while Waterford Crystal is still a Waterford based industry.
