Concern Over Domestic Water Supplies

Despite the fact that the first rain for weeks came this week, fears were expressed at the adjourned monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last Monday night that there could still be a water shortage later in the year.

The matter was raised by Cllr. Nuala Ryan who referred to the recent notice published jointly by the Urban and County Councils in the local papers calling on the public to conserve water supplies as much as possible. She asked if they were now facing the threat of a serious shortage.

The Town Clerk, Mr. B. White said that there could well be a shortage later if they did not get rain now. "If we get no rain at this time of year," he said, "the levels at the urban water source will drop in July and that could cause supply problems then."

Cllr. Ryan said that following the publication of the notice to conserve water supplies it made her mad when she still saw people washing their cars and watering their lawns. It was quite beyond her to understand why people ignored such notices and she suggested that a similar notice should be published at regular intervals so as to impress the seriousness of the matter on the public.

The Town Clerk said that he would bear this in mind.

Striking Crystal Workers Vote For Talks

Crucial talks in the nine-weeks-old strike by workers which has closed the Waterford Crystal plants in Dungarvan and Waterford City since the beginning of April are scheduled to commence to-day (Wednesday) following the unanimous vote to accept the "peace formula" put forward by Minister for Labour, Mr. Bertie Ahern, at a mass meeting of the company's 2,300 workers held in Waterford on Monday morning.

Mr. Ray McGee, a senior industrial officer of the Labour Court, has been appointed by the Minister to chair the discussions between union and management which will centre on the company's £10 million cost reduction plan and the union's response based on the Bryer Report.

The company wants to negotiate cuts in the bonanza payments and the holiday bonus while the union says it will discuss maximising productivity, a reduction in costs and a return to profitability in the context of the Bryer Report.

It is to be hoped that the discussions will prove fruitful and lead to an amicable settlement acceptable to both sides which will result in a resumption of work at the Dungarvan and Waterford plants of the company in the near future.

Deterrents Needed To Stop Anti-Social Behaviour

Speaking at the adjourned monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last Monday night, Cllr. Austin Hallahan referred to the immediate approach of holiday time and called for a public campaign to ensure safety on the beaches throughout the summer. He said that the irresponsible attitude of people who leave bottles behind cannot be too strongly condemned as broken glass was one of the greatest dangers for people and especially children on beaches and other places of recreation.

Cllr. B. Kyne supporting the point made by Cllr. Hallahan said that he thought the time had come for them to consider a joint appointment with the Co. Council of someone to stop the incidence of litter and vandalism. It seemed to him that the only way to stop these things was to introduce deterrents. If someone was summoned and fined for such offences from month to month it would have the desired effect. "The Council will have to seriously consider such an appointment as deterrents are the only thing to stop this anti-social behaviour," said Cllr. Kyne.

Pause For Thought With Fr. Paddy

JESUS PRAYS FOR UNITY IN HIS CHURCH

Some of the main themes over the last few Sundays including the Ascension were: the unity, the holiness, the universality and the apostolicity of the Church founded by Christ. Jesus entrusted His authority and His teachings to His chosen Apostles, and He commissioned them to go and teach all the nations. He assured them that He'd remain on in Jerusalem, and await the coming of the Holy Spirit. Then, they could go and embark on spreading the Good News.

The first reading tells us that the disciples dutifully followed the directions of Jesus, and gathered with some women including Mary in the Upper Room. We are told that they gave much time to prayer as they awaited the coming of the Holy Spirit. You will have noticed the emphasis placed on preparation. And, the lesson for us is, we ought to be regular with our prayers to ensure our habitations are fitting dwelling places for so important a Guest. Indeed, there's always the danger that our lives become so cluttered with daily affairs that we are wont to forget our deference to the Divine Spirit. True, He'll never abandon us unless we drive Him out by mortal sin. And, prayer is the environment in which He lives and operates. Say what you will, human nature is much of a muchness, and so I feel there's only the one way to avoid neglect. One must strive to have a subconscious awareness of His presence as well as keeping to regular times for daily prayers. Any old time never works.

The theme of the second reading is one we hear frequently, namely, we live in a valley of tears, and, whatever our circumstances, we ought to utilize our trials and our sufferings in God's service. It is the one and only way to combat and muzzle suffering. St. Peter tells us, we should feel privileged to bear suffering for Christ. So, instead of allowing our burdens to crush us, we now have the ways and means of making them a source of rejoicing. Oh! pain and suffering is not easy. They are part of life. Often, they put pressures on our love for God. However, we must not allow them to destroy us. Shoulder them, and let God know you are doing it for Him. In that way, the crosses that looked like breaking you, you have made them the instruments of salvation. Simon helped Jesus to carry His cross. He was very close to Jesus. And, the Lord has offered the same privilege to those who carry a cross.

The Gospel passage is one of the most moving in Sacred Scripture. It is an appeal from the heart made by the Son of His Father on our behalf, and it is made in simple language, and yet! the words are full of meaning. He talks of His hour, which He'll have to render as the price of our salvation. Too, He speaks as if He's already paid the full price; and, He then proceeds to ask that the fruits of His sacrifice might be blessed with unity and perseverance. He tells the Father that He has been glorified on earth through His work. However, it is obvious the Lord has in mind the future glories of the Church. Whilst His prayer for His faithful followers is final salvation, He speaks as if they were already in possession of that glory.

The Lord is very conscious of the dangers His followers will have to face. He knows the world will reject His law. He knows that the force of sin will almost make it look right. So, He prayed also that His followers would "be consecrated in truth," and here the obvious meaning would be that they'd be blessed in their faith and be able to reject the temptations of the world. We know that if we respond to God's blessing, the Holy Spirit will be our guide and our support for St. Paul says: "He is the gift of those who love and obey God."

YOU HAVE A MISSION

The Lord makes a special plea for the Apostles, and do note that He prayed too that all of us would be faithful in promoting the word of God. Never, never forget you are a son of God. You have a mission. You may be the only life-line that God will give to a soul in danger. Your good example may be just what was necessary to open his heart to the grace of Divine Mercy. Your reward will be very great.

If we follow the gist of this great prayer, we cannot but notice that Unity must be a characteristic of Christ's Church. The Lord compares that unity in the Body of Christ, His Church, to the unity existing between Himself and His Father. And, He prays that that relationship would continue to operate and to grow in His Body. As if to give us an insight into Himself, He mentions the equality existing among the Three Divine Persons.

Unity must, therefore, always remain a mark of God's Church. He founded only one Church. He appointed and commanded her to teach and spread His teachings. Her work was to save souls. Having given some thought to the beautiful prayer recorded by St. John, I feel puzzled why people should try to dismember the Body of Christ. False prophets are roaming the world claiming that they are qualified to unravel the Christian message, when the clear facts are, they are unable to uncover the truth for themselves. Remember, Jesus appointed His Church to rule and to guide us. His Church always bears the Peter label.

Major Cash Shortfall For Dungarvan Street Restoration Plan

The total cost of street restoration following the recent major town centre sewerage scheme in Dungarvan was £279,400, the County Engineer, Mr. John O'Flynn, told members of Dungarvan Urban Council at their May monthly meeting. He added that all that was available towards the work was £76,000 which left a shortfall of £203,400.

Mr. O'Flynn went on to point out that as there was no possibility of the Council funding the shortfall from its own resources a case should be made to the Department of the Environment for a special grant. "Other towns have, I believe been aided in surfacing programmes following sewerage schemes," he said, "and it is vitally important to the appearance of the town that the work be done properly and it is also important to note that proper surfacing will minimise future maintenance costs on the streets concerned."

The work proposed includes asphalt surfacing at Bridge Street, C.B.S. - Parish Church, Square - St. Patrick Street Junction, Mary Street and Davitt's Quay, with macadam surfacing at Upper Mitchel

St., Emmet St., Friary St., Lower Main St., Church St., Lower Quay, Western Tce., Sides of Square, Post Office - Quay, Quay - Square (via car park), Creamery Corner and Shandon.

On the point made by the Co. Engineer of requesting the Department for a special grant for the work, the Town Clerk, Mr. Bertie White said that representations in the matter were already being made to the Dept. on this.

When some members suggested that a deputation might seek to see the Minister on the matter, the Town Clerk said that they were at present making a case to the Dept and it might be better to see what the outcome of this would be before taking any further steps.

The Council agreed to follow this suggestion.

ANNUAL ROADWORKS SCHEME

The County Engineer also submitted particulars of the usual annual Urban Roadworks Scheme planned for 1990 at a total cost of £87,000 towards which grants totalling £62,000 had been allocated.

Apart from routine maintenance work the scheme included plans for footpath replacements at Childers Estate, Cathal Brugha and Mitchel St., and surface dressing at Park Lane, Western Bay and Springfield.

Q. — I recently returned to this country after an absence of 5 years. I am now involved in voluntary work and find that I am out of touch. Can you tell me if there is a Directory or Guide to Voluntary Organisations and if so, where it can be obtained?

A. — The National Social Service Board has just published a new edition of their Directory of National Voluntary Organisations. This is a completely revised edition which lists over 600 organisations.

The 140 page directory will be an invaluable source of reference material for people working with voluntary groups and to social workers, journalists, librarians and to any member of the public looking for a particular group or organisation.

It costs £3.50 and should be available at most newsagents and bookshops throughout the country.

Dungarvan Technical College "Must Get Its Act Together"

The future of Dungarvan's Technical College was discussed at the monthly meeting of the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee at their monthly meeting in Dungarvan last week. In the course of the discussion, fears were expressed by some members that the school could lose out unless a definite educational policy was planned and implemented.

Cllr. B. Kyne referred to the planned amalgamation and rationalisation of second level schools in Dungarvan, shortly to come into operation. He said that the two local convents, Mercy and Presentation, had already agreed their amalgamation plans while St. Augustine's College was to become co-educational. In the circumstances, Cllr. Kyne said, unless they had a definite policy for the Technical School it could lose out disastrously for the future.

Cllr. B. O'Shea T.D. supported this view and added that a community college should be their ultimate aim. "There is no time to be lost and we must get our act together where this is concerned without any further delay," he said.

Mr. A. Flynn, member of the teaching staff at Dungarvan said that if they were to retain their school in the town they would have to both extend and upgrade it. He expected that the enrolment figures would be up by 35 for the coming school year but as matters stood they were unable to adequately accommodate the number of pupils at present in the school.

Mr. Flynn went on to point out that other second level schools in Dungarvan were now providing instruction in technical subjects and there was no way that the vocational school could compete with them in the future unless it was upgraded.

Mr. D. O Ceilleachair CEO then informed the meeting that he had arranged for a deputation to meet officials of the Dept. of Education in Dublin during which all the points raised by the members would be discussed.

Further discussion was deferred pending the outcome of the deputation's visit to Dublin.

Recent Deaths

Mr. Stephen Butler

With deep regret the Old Boro' learned on Sunday, May 13, of the passing of Stephen Butler, 59 Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan at Waterford Regional Hospital. Aged 50 years, Stephen had been ill for some time, yet he bore his cross of ill-health with courage and dignity. A member of an old established family, Stephen was employed for over 20 years at the Apple Factory where he gave of his best at all times.

An outdoor man he loved to cycle through the countryside. His bicycle was very much part of Stephen's life. He knew its mechanics so well, as many a rothar was made roadworthy by his skill and expertise. He was a keen gardener also and he tended the family grave in St. Mary's with love and devotion.

Stephen's passing is all the more poignant since in the last few years his father and brothers Sean and Michael have gone to their eternal rewards.

We sympathise with his brothers Tom, Paddy, Noel, Danny and Mossie, sisters Mary, Biddy, Josie, Helen and a wide circle of relatives and friends on their loss.

On Monday evening, Stephen's remains were brought from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church where they were blessed and received by Rev. W. Carey, C.C., assisted by Rev. J. Sullivan and Rev. J. Hooper, O.S.A.

At the Requiem Mass on Tuesday morning the celebrant Rev. W. Carey, C.C., spoke in glowing terms of the deceased. The Lessons were read by Sean and Ann McShane and Ann Walsh.

The interment took place in the old churchyard in the presence of a large concourse of mourners who had come to pay their last respects.

Mr. Henry O'Reilly

With profound regret and deep sadness we record the death of Mr. Henry O'Reilly of Ardmore which occurred on Thursday, May 24, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, following a period of ill health. Henry was a well known figure in Ardmore and his loss has left a void in that community.

We tender our deepest condolences to his sons and daughters, sister, relatives and friends.

On Saturday following Requiem Mass the interment took place in the new cemetery, Ardmore.

Mr. Tomas O Floinn

Cuireann se bron orm na linte seo do scriobh ar bas Tomas O Floinn, "Ar Neamh," 22 Plas Ui Mhurchu, Dun Na Mainistreach, a tharla ar 24u Bealtaine ag a theach conaithe. Everybody in the environs of Abbeyside and Dungarvan were saddened to learn of the passing of Tomas O Floinn. In his late seventies, Tomas was a carpenter/cabinet maker par excellence and his works and efforts are lasting memorials to his skill, enthusiasm, desire for perfection and meticulous detail and planning.

He will be missed not alone by his wife Eibhlin and family, but indeed by many of us who had the good fortune to know a man of the calibre of Tomas O Floinn.

Last Friday evening the removal took place to his beloved Abbeyside Church, while on Saturday morning, following Requiem Mass, the interment took place in St. Mary's Cemetery, Dungarvan.

Mr. Walter John Waters

Within hours of his fellow Abbeysider and close friend Tomas O Floinn, Walter John (Monsie) Waters, Murphy Place, Abbeyside, answered his final call home to his heavenly rest on Friday, morning, May 25. Well known and highly respected, Monsie was a great favourite with one and all. His knowledge of yesteryear won the respect of many an attentive ear.

We sympathise with wife Biddy, son Liam, daughter Triona and relatives on their great loss.

The removal of the remains took place on Saturday evening to Abbeyside Church and following the midday Mass on Sunday, Monsie was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

(Full obituary next issue.)
(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mr. James Cooney

The death on Wednesday, May 23, of Mr. Jim Cooney, Carrigroe, Dungarvan, greatly saddened many people in the locality. Of advanced age, James was engaged for most of his working life in the garage business as a Main Ford Dealer in Donegal. He is survived by his brother Rev. Fr. Tom Cooney, O.S.A., John's Lane, Dublin, his nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

Last Thursday evening (Ascension Day) the removal took place to St. Mary's Parish church, while in the presence of a large and representative gathering which included many clergy, the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery on Friday morning.

Mrs. Mary (Mae) Hogan (nee Crotty)

It is with deep regret we record the death of Mrs. Mary (Mae) Hogan, Gorteen, Ring, which took place unexpectedly on Friday, May 25. Removal was from Dungarvan Hospital on Saturday evening, May 26 to St. Mary's Parish Church. Following funeral Mass on Sunday morning interment took place in Grange Cemetery.

Establishing MMDS System In West Waterford

Deputy Austin Deasy has received a letter from Mr. P. J. Kerr, Managing Director, Cork Communication Ltd in reply to a query made by him stating that their licence for MMDS extends in County Waterford to an area just east of Dungarvan and their plans are advances in establishing the system over their entire licensed area.

"The initial service," the letter states, "will have to come from a mast near our existing cable system in Cork. We have applied and are awaiting the decision of Cork County Council for permission to erect a mast near Cork Airport and the sites in North and West Cork and West Waterford will be fed from this site."

The letter concludes by saying that the Company has identified a number of sites which would be suitable in the Waterford area for the erection of a mast.

Touraneena Notes

WEDDING

St. Mary's Church, Touraneena, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday last, May 26, when Michael, son of Sean and Teresa Sheehan, Dungarvan, was married to Joan, daughter of Jim and Biddy Bourke, Knockmeal, Ballinamult. The marriage ceremony with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing was solemnised by Very Rev. Fr. Liam MacNamara P.P. (cousin of the bride) in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The reception was held at Clonea Strand Hotel where a very large number of guests attended.

We wish Michael and Joan every blessing and happiness in the years ahead.

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to George Foran and family, Eagle Hill, on the death of his father, which occurred recently. R.I.P.

BADMINTON

Our "End of Season Social" was held on Friday night last and was a great success. A large crowd turned up for the great occasion and everybody had a great time.

Tea and sandwiches served by the ladies was really appreciated, while music was supplied by Paddy Greenslade.

RECOVERING

We wish a speedy recovery to Raymond Ryan, Touraneena, who broke his collar bone while playing a hurling match.

Winners At Midleton Show

The decision to move the holding of the annual Midleton Agricultural Show to Sunday proved a highly successful one as crowds thronged in to the show-field in heatwave conditions last Sunday.

Without doubt the very fine weather proved a great factor in drawing the crowd, all of whom thoroughly enjoyed a great day out.

Among the winners in the horse section was Mr. Tom Power, Ballyknock, Dungarvan, who followed up his win at Bandon Show the previous week with a first in the 3-year-old gelding likely to make a hunter class. In the 2-year-old gelding class, Mr. J. Curran, Dungarvan took second while in the 2-year-old filly class, Mr. Michael Lenane, Clashmore was a winner.

Kilmacthomas Notes

REFEREE FOR COUNTY FINAL

Congratulations to local referee Francis Whelan, who refereed the Under-21 county final in Dungarvan when Rathgormack defeated Kilrossanty in a thrilling game.

BIRTHDAY PARTY CANCELLED

The birthday party arranged for the Old Road area last week-end had to be cancelled owing to a special senior citizens outing. The large crowd that turned up for the occasion were very disappointed.

KILMAC' LOTTO WINNER

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. John McGrath, Rathmeaden, who won £254,000 in the National Lottery Draw last week. They say that lightning never strikes twice but on this occasion it did as a near neighbour to John, Michael Brown, was one of the first major Lotto Jackpot winners.

BIRTHDAY

Congratulations to Kieran Fitzgerald, Ballyvooney, Kilmacthomas, who celebrated his 13th birthday on Tuesday, May 29.

KILMACHTHOMAS BRIDGE CLUB

The Kilmacthomas charity drive at Lemybrien on Sunday week last was most enjoyable with proceeds donated to the Kilrossanty/Fews Church Building Fund.

Results: Senior Section — 1st Justin Spratt and Leo O'Donnell; 2nd Paddy O'Reilly and Michael Prendergast; 3rd Ursula Power and John Kiely.

Intermediate Section — 1st Moina Ormond and Margaret Queally; 2nd David Kelly and Sean Reilly; 3rd Carmel Murphy and Ann Cox.

Novice Section — 1st Brid Culloo and Teresa Ryan; 2nd Aine Veale and Marie Curran.

PUBS LEAGUE

Kirwan's of Kilmac' travelled to Southend Park, Waterford on Tuesday night last and were most unlucky to be defeated 3-2 on penalties after the game had ended 1-1. They now play in the losers group B.

Michael Lawlor who was outstanding throughout the game was the scorer for Kirwan's. Keating's took on The Cuckoo's Nest from Tramore in Currabaha Park on Thursday night and after an exciting game that ended at 1-1, Keating's advanced to the next round as they won on penalties. In the second game in Currabaha Park, The Bally Inn took on The Old Ground from Waterford and also advanced to the second round winning 3-1 on penalties after the game had ended scoreless.

KILMACHTHOMAS BRIDGE CLUB

Results from the Kilmacthomas Bridge Club last week were as follows:— 1st Paddy O'Reilly and Michael Kirwan (91 1/2); 2nd Joan Behan and Pauline Fitzsimons (82); 3rd Alli Walshe and Mary Casey (81).

ON HOLIDAYS IN SPAIN

We wish a happy holiday to Ann Drohan, Stradbally, Patricia Lannon, Bally, and also to Ann Marie Hassett, Coolahorna, who have left for sunny Spain on holidays.

IN FRANCE

Michael Corkery, Walshe Place, has gone to France to take up employment for three months. Michael is a valued member of the local G.A.A. and Soccer Clubs.

FACT FINDING MISSION

Mr. Patrick Lawlor, Hillside Crescent has left Kilmac' on a fact finding mission into the "Mad Cow Disease". His return will be anticipated with great interest.

ON HOLIDAYS

On holidays in Kilmac' at the moment are Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Murphy, who are staying with Mrs. Murphy's sister Joan Crowdle, St. Ann's Terrace. Also staying with Joan is another sister Philomena and husband from England and also her brother Mattie from New Ross. Also home on holidays from England is Seamus Purcell, Walshe Place. We wish them all a happy holiday.

TO ENGLAND

We wish the very best of luck to Mary Hennessey, Kilnagrange, who has taken up employment in England. Mary is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Hennessey.

GOLF NEWS

Congratulations to local golfer, Dr. E. P. Kiely, "The Villa," who was a member of the Dungarvan team that won the "Cork Examiner" Am-Am in Tramore on Sunday week last. Another member of the team was Tom Rossiter, who is a regular visitor to Kilmac' and married to the former Breda Kiely, Old Road. Golf at its best was produced by the Dungarvan team as they came out on top from a total of 33 teams.

B.P. Check Centres

Stradbally Notes

DEATH

It is with deep regret and sorrow that we this week record the passing of Mrs. Catherine (Kitty) Hickey, Carrigahilla, Stradbally, who died early on Saturday morning last. Her remains were removed from the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Saturday to the Church of the Holy Cross, Stradbally, where they were blessed on arrival by Very Rev. Fr. Michael J. Ryan P.P. The interment took place after 11 a.m. Mass to the adjoining cemetery on Sunday and this was said by Fr. Ryan who also recited the prayers at the graveside.

Our deepest and sincerest sympathy is extended to her sons, Tom, Pat and Richard and daughters Mrs. Breda Cunningham, Mrs. Margaret Cunningham and Catherine, daughters-in-law, sons-in-law, grandchildren, relatives and very many friends. R.I.P.

HOME FROM HOLIDAYS

Welcome back home after his recent visit to the United States of America, to Rev. Fr. Michael Walsh, C.C., Ballylaneen, whom we hope had a great break away from it all. Welcome home also from their recent stay on holidays to the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Warren, The Rectory, Church Road, Stradbally, whom we also hope had a great break away from it all.

DEATH

The death also occurred on Saturday last of Mr. Patie Wall, Faha, Kilmacthomas, whose remains were removed from the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Sunday evening to Faha Church where they were met and blessed on arrival by Rev. Fr. Michael Walsh, C.C. The interment took place after 11 a.m. Mass on Monday morning. Fr. Walsh also said the prayers at the graveside.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to his brother, relatives and very many friends. R.I.P.

DIOCESAN PILGRIMAGE

The annual Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes left on Saturday and Sunday last under the leadership of the Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, Most Rev. Dr. Michael Russell. Again this year there is a local parish representative who travelled with the pilgrims, who will all be back home again this weekend. We trust they made a great one and remembered us all in their prayers.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

SCOUT NEWS

Last Saturday night after prayers the patrols were asked to make out a list of possible or probable snags that might occur on a cycling hike. After subs, the S/L, along with the S/P/L Ciaran Walsh and some of the scouts who were in full uniform, took part and attended the funeral of Monsie Waters. Those who remained under the guidance of ASLs Tomas, Alan and Brendan, were kept very busy out in the field as they erected a host of tents ranging from two-man hike tents to the army tent.

On Sunday morning we gathered at the den at 10.30 a.m. with our bikes. We headed out the coast road — our destination Stradbally. Patrick Power and Benny Flynn must have been drinking a certain apple drink as they led the posse at a fair speed — the Leaders could be seen puffing at the rear. On arrival at Stradbally we took a few minutes to recover before some of our late risers went to the village to get their lunch (isn't that right, birthday boy, Alan). A lively game of beach soccer was then played on the sand. This brought memories of Italy (88) flooding back. Lunch was next with everyone having a good appetite. It was nice to see health conscious scouts like Colm (Columbanus) Fennell and John Kyne on the brown bread sandwiches. After a short siesta it was time to tackle the surf. Aidan Mullarkey, Michael Verling and David Shepherd enjoyed the proceedings here.

After drying down, John Paul Mills and Brian Carroll led some exploring expeditions while others like Martin Whelan preferred to play in the sand.

They say a scout should do a good deed each day. Well, all the boys can claim to have done eight last Sunday for that amazing number of cars got stuck in the sand and but for our help who knows they might be in the Atlantic now. We headed home at five and on arrival at the den all the tents were taken down and packed away.

WEEKEND TO GLENSHELANE

All scouts are reminded that a full troop weekend to the Glen will take place this weekend, June 1-4. We will be leaving the den on bikes at 7 p.m. so please make sure your wheels are in good running order. Scouts are asked to check with their PLs with regard to menu and gear.

SYMPATHY

We extend our sympathy to the O Floinn family, Murphy Place, on the death last week of Tomas O Floinn. Tomas was a regular supporter of our Sunday night 45 card games and was unofficial carpenter to the 4th Waterford. Much of this excellent work is to be seen around the Den.

SYMPATHY

We extend our sympathy to the Waters family, Murphy Place, on the recent death of Monsie Waters.

To us present scouts, Monsie was a good supporter. Older fellows will remember tired hikers getting a welcome lift on the back of a lorry of grain, while an older generation will hold fond memories of packed scout concerts at the den. Just a handful in the village will recall a day when scouting was just three years old in Ireland. A new troop was to be formed by Fr. Crotty in the small village of Abbeyside. As preparation a hike was held to the mountain top of Cruachan, overlooking the bay. Monsie was on that hike. — SCRIBE

Ballysaggart Notes

CARD RESULTS

1, Mary Casey and Mary Byrne; 2, Dan Howard and Finola Hynes; 3, Cassie Hyland and Ester Walsh; Last 5, Mick Pratt and Pat O'Connor. Lucky tables, Maura Murray, Annie Neville, Joe and Cissie Power. Raffle, John Kennefick, Kieran Fenton, Mary O'Neill, Joe Shea.

LATE DICK NUGENT

We regret to record the death on last weekend of Mr. Dick Nugent. Dick, who was in his '70's, resided for a number of years in England, returning to work and live recently in Lismore. A quiet, friendly character, he quickly resettled in his old environment and his sudden passing will be mourned by his many friends.

His remains were received at St. Mary's Church, Ballysaggart, on Sunday evening and he was buried in the local cemetery on Monday.

To his sister, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends we extend our sympathy.

PENSMAN Takes You Behind The SPOTLIGHT

IS IT THE END FOR RURAL P.O.'s?

It would seem that the writing is now clearly on the wall for many small rural post offices which are to be closed by An Post in their move towards more centralisation as a cost-cutting exercise.

Since the foundation of the State, the village post office has been a focal point for rural communities and has provided a superb service. And, in the days of the old manually-operated telephone system, postmasters and their families acted as 24-hour operators.

The closure plan was spotlighted at the last meeting of Waterford County Council when a proposal was unanimously passed calling on An Post not to shut down any more of the country's sub-post offices.

We agree with the views expressed by the Council members that as matters stand, rural areas all over the country are suffering. It is the elderly and the poor who will suffer most from these closures. They will soon have to travel to the nearest town for their old age pensions and in many cases public transport will not be available which will add to the inconvenience and hardship they will have to endure.

While An Post recently disclosed losses of £3.5 million for last year it is to be hoped that their cost-cutting measures involving the closure of the country post office is not just taking the easy option and that the apparent inefficiencies in the overall system will also come under scrutiny.

Years ago, many rural national schools were shut down but a fight was made for some and they survived. The same could be done for many of those post offices which otherwise will now come under the hammer.

And what about our rail system? This was decimated over twenty years ago in another cost-cutting exercise, but look what it would mean to-day if the rail link between Waterford and Cork cities had been maintained. Most of the heavy freight could be handled by rail instead of not only cutting up our road surfaces but causing enormous traffic problems as well for the towns through which the juggernauts now pass.

When one considers the scandalously neglected conditions of our roads and the colossal cost of maintaining them, it is not too difficult to see these cost-cutting exercises as penny wise, pound foolish procedures!

HOPING FOR A MIRACLE

We had the privilege last week of attending the Graduation Mass of the "Class of 90," the Leaving Cert class of the Mercy Convent, Dungarvan, to mark the end of the second level education of the young ladies concerned before they face into the final hurdle of their Leaving Cert examinations next week.

For the girls who came together five years ago to commence their secondary studies the occasion was, understandably, one full of emotion. They were breaking with their youthful girlish past and preparing to face the future as young women. There were not a few tears, plenty of hugs and many tender hand-clasps. The singing was beautiful, the readings were splendidly done and indeed the entire ceremony was completed to perfection.

But in the midst of this occasion so full of joy and sadness there was one young girl whose courage and bravery in the face of great adversity shone forth beyond everything else. She was young Lorna Daly who through failing eyesight caused by a tumour which pressed on her optic nerves had to abandon her studies (temporarily, we all hope) but who, nonetheless, was there with her classmates to celebrate the occasion. When Fr. Jerry Hickey who celebrated the Graduation Mass referred to the fact that Lorna's sight was failing and expressed the hope that it would soon improve rather than get worse, the full congregation in the Friary Church joined in a spontaneous round of applause which must have left the brave and courageous young girl in no doubt as to where the sympathies of those around her lay.

And as if this was not enough, as the ceremonies were coming to a close, Lorna took her guitar and went to the podium where she sang in her very beautiful voice the very appropriate "From a distance . . . God is watching" and as she ended, the church again rang with the applause not only of her class mate friends but of their parents and all who had come to honour the occasion, made even more memorable by Lorna's singing. In our book this young girl would win, hands down, any achievement award for bravery and courage.

And this week Lorna is in Lourdes with her parents Paddy and Betty Daly, King Street, Abbeyside. They flew out on Sunday to join up with the Waterford Diocesan Pilgrimage led by Bishop Russell and all will be praying, as indeed those of us at home who are aware of the situation will also be praying, that Lorna's trip to the great Marian Shrine will result in a full return of her sight.

And before leaving this topic it is only right that we should wish all our young people who are facing into their examinations next week every success and God's blessing for the future.

AT LEAST ONE CUCKOO WAS HEARD

Further to our query about the disappearance of those harbingers of Spring, the corncrake and the cuckoo in last week's column, and whether anyone had, in fact, heard the call of a cuckoo anywhere in the county this year, we were glad to hear from Mr. Eddie Moore, McCarthysville, Abbeyside, that he had heard one in the past month.

Eddie, who is a well-known electrical contractor, was doing a job in the Melleray area last week when he heard one of these elusive and apparently fast disappearing birds sounding off.

PART OF THE PAY-OFF?

The Backchat column of last Sunday's "Sunday Independent" referred to the many deals that took place last year between Fianna Fail and the PD's in the formation of the Coalition Government and stated that two more of these were to have been announced in the next couple of weeks.

The first of these was the selection of Cork City PD Deputy Pearse Wyse to be a member of the Council of Europe. There are to be four Government representatives appointed to the Council, three Fianna Fail and one Progressive Democrat. Expected to be dropped are Fianna Fail Deputies P. J. Morley (Mayo East) and Michael Kitt (Galway East) and they will be replaced by Deputy Wyse and — wait for it — our own Deputy Jackie Fahey who can now celebrate his silver jubilee in the Dail in style.

Appointment to the Council of Europe is a major political plum as it literally drips with perks and carries the same super-generous expenses as a Member of the European Parliament when the monthly trips to Europe to attend meetings of the Council take place.

It will be recalled that following the General Election last June, Deputy Fahey resigned from the Fianna Fail Parliamentary Party because of the FF-PD coalition deal. He has also blamed the request from on high that he stand in Waterford to retain his seat as the reason for losing out in the Euro-election in Munster. Now the Deputy will be going back to Europe in a different role with a PD travelling companion — a situation which caused him to resign his party whip in the first instance last year.

How true to say that politics make strange bed mates and also that a week is a long time in politics — in this case it seems to have taken almost a full year to prove.

The second announcement concerned the nomination of the new Chairman of the all-party Dail Committee dealing with crime who was expected to be the PD's Justice spokeswoman, Deputy Mairin Quill, a former Cork secondary teacher. When Fine Gael claimed that they should get this appointment, the Taoiseach withdrew and the announcement has been deferred for the present.

THE GREEN BUSHES

Some weeks ago we were asked to once more publish the words of the charming old ballad "The Green Bushes" and although it's not the first time this song has been published in the "Leader," this is the first occasion it has appeared since the column took its "new look" lay-out. It is, a way, appropriate that we chose it for our ballad corner this week as it tells the story of a lovers' meeting in the month of May.

As I was a-walking one morning in May
To hear the birds whistle and see lambkins play,
I spied a young maiden, so sweetly sang she
Down by the green bushes, where she chanc'd to meet me.

Oh why are you loitering here pretty maid?
"I'm waiting for my own true love," softly she said,
Shall I be your true love and will you agree
To leave your own true love and follow with me?

I'll give you fine beaver and a fine silken gown,
I'll give you smart petticoats flounced to the ground,
I'll give you fine jewels and live but for thee
If you'll leave your true live and follow with me.

"I want none of your beaver nor fine silken hose,
For I'm not so poor as to marry for clothes,
But if you'll be constant and true unto me,
I'll leave my own true love and marry with thee."

"Come let us be going, kind sir if you please,
Oh let us be going from under these trees,
For yonder is coming my true love I see
Down by the green bushes, where he thinks to meet me."

And when he came there and found she was gone,
He looked very sheepish and cried, quite forlorn:
"She's gone with another and forsaken me,
And left the green bushes where she vowed to meet me."

BALLYDUFF NOTES

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to the nephews of the late Michael Jackson formerly of Coolisheal, Ballyduff, who has died in Boston and also to Noreen Lawless, Flowerhill, Ballyduff, on the death of her uncle, Dick Nugent, Ballysaggart.

MRS. MARY HARRIS

The death took place at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan on Monday, May 21 of Mrs. Mary Harris, Ballinlovane, Ballyduff. Deceased who is the former Mary Farrell, Ballyporeen, was in her seventies and a quiet, popular member of the community. Her remains were removed to St. Michael's Church on Tuesday evening last where they were received and blessed by Rev. Fr. K. Mulcahy P.P. The interment took place on Wednesday morning following Requiem Mass to St. Michael's Cemetery.

Sincere sympathy is extended to her loving husband Michael, brother, sisters, sisters-in-law, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

I.C.A. NOTES

The A.G.M. will be held on Tuesday next, June 5. Because of the renovations to the Hall, the meeting will be held in the Library.

We hope to have all members present, as this is the last meeting before the summer recess, affiliation fees will be collected on the night.

The I.C.A. have a very important role to play in the life of the community and it is up to us to come up with interesting ideas to make it more attractive and encourage new members.

We send best wishes for a speedy recovery to our treasurer, Peggy Daynes, who is at present in Ardkeen Hospital.

Don't forget Tuesday, June 5 at the Library starting at 8.30 p.m. — P.R.O.

G.A.A. NOTES

The club history written by Maurice Geary, was officially launched at a function in the Grand Hotel, Fermoy on Thursday night last by G.A.A. President, Mr. John Dowling. It was a very successful function attended by three hundred people. The club would like to thank all who helped to make the function such a success, especially the ladies club, who provided the food for all and sundry. (See full report of the launch function elsewhere in this issue.)

Copies of the book are now available from shops in Ballyduff; John O'Gorman, Lismore; Kelleher's, Cappoquin and club members Richie Walsh, Mossy Casey, Maurice Geary, John Jackson, Seamie Daly and Seamie Hannon.

This publication is a must for each household in the parish and for people who are now living outside the area. Full details of outlets where the book is available will be published in next week's issue.

The U-14 hurlers recorded their second win in the championship on Saturday night in the field when they defeated Cappoquin. They play Naomh Brid in Modeligo on Monday night at 7.30 p.m. Players to be in the village at 6.40 p.m.

The Primary Schools hurling team played Abbeyside (away) on Tuesday evening and we will have details next week.

Three club players are currently training with the divisional U-14 football team. These are Tony Scanton, Patrick Molumphy and Michael Drislane.

We wish Paudie Prendergast and the Co. senior hurlers and Seamie Daly and the Co. junior hurlers the best of luck in Thurles on Sunday.

The intermediate footballers will play Shamrocks in Tallow on Saturday night week, June 9. The Senior hurlers will lay Fourmilewater in Dungarvan on Sunday, June 17 at 2 p.m.

COMHALTAS NOTES

This weekend the Co. Fleadh will be held in Dungarvan, hosted by the Naomh Pdraig Branch. Best of luck to the dancers and musicians taking part.

At Fleadh Nua in Ennis last weekend, musicians and dancers from the branch took part in both the "Aos Og" and Piob's Bodhran concerts. — P.R.O.

Summer Display Of Priceless Dolls In Dungarvan

What is believed to be the finest doll collection of its kind in Ireland and the U.K. is going on public display in a Dungarvan Hotel for the months of June, July and August as an added local tourist attraction.

The "Collender Collection" has been painstakingly put together by Mrs. Nell Collender of Ballinavough, Lemybrien, and she has now agreed at the request of Bord Failte to stage an exhibition of the dolls — all fifty-five of them dressed in their period clothing — at the Lismore suite in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan, from Friday next June 1st right through to August 31st.

The magnificence of the collection, and its undoubted tourist attraction, has obviously not been lost on Bord Failte. A senior Bord Failte executive will perform the official opening on Friday evening in the presence of an attendance that will also include the chairman of Dungarvan Urban Council, Cllr. Paddy Power.

Mrs. Collender has been collecting her French, German and English dolls for the best part of forty years. She has, in her own words, "been to every nook and cranny in the country" collecting them.

The dolls date from the 1870s to the 1920s, while the prams in which many of them are comfortably accommodated were made in South Africa in 1860 before their importation into this country.

PRICELESS AND IRREPLACEABLE

Mrs. Collender correctly describes her collection as

"priceless and irreplaceable," and insists that the dolls of today cannot stand comparison with those that make up the "Collender Collection."

The moulds used to make her dolls were all destroyed during the two World Wars, and that is why she believes the present day dolls cannot be compared with hers.

Mrs. Collender has been told by Bord Failte that there isn't another doll collection in Ireland to compare with hers. In fact the Tourist Board is of the belief that it is one of the finest such collections in Europe.

"That is something I am proud of," she will tell you with obvious satisfaction. And so she should, considering the time, effort, and meticulous attention to detail she has put in over many years in compiling the collection.

She is both delighted and honoured at having been asked by Bord Failte to put the dolls on public display. And she particularly hopes that school children will come along to see what is undoubtedly a beautiful and quite fascinating collection.

The exhibition will run from 9.30 to 11.30 a.m. and from 6.30 to 9 p.m. seven days a week. Friday's official opening will be preceded by a cheese and wine reception.

Blackwater Cycling Club

The Cappoquin Pork & Bacon Blackwater C.C. travelled to two different meetings on Sunday last. The underage section travelled to Tramore and in brilliant sunshine they brought home more prizes. In the Under-12's Paul Moore was just pipped and had to settle for second place. Pat O'Donovan whom we have not seen racing for some weeks came a very good fifth. Vincent Lombard took the last prize coming sixth. Brian Moore finished tenth, and William Morrissey came twelfth. This was William's first day out. In the Under-14's there was a break of four riders. Bryan Geary and Ken Moore tried very hard to close the gap, but just could not make it. They finished very well up in the bunch, Shane Motherway had problems with his bike but still finished.

Denis McCarthy and Maurice Hickey travelled to Mooncoin, Co. Kilkenny and they rode a terrific race and Denis finished seventh and Maurice eighth, both in the prizes.

We wish all our cyclist and their fellow cyclists in other clubs every success in their Inter and Leaving Cert exams, which are starting next week.

"Remembering Other Days"

The "Remembering Other Days" photo for our series this week could well be sub-captioned, "where are they now?" It shows a group of young hurlers taken in Touraneena in 1956 and includes John Brett, Ben Walsh, Tommy Condon, Liam Condon, Sean McGrath, Larry Hickey, Tony Neagle, Tom Condon, David Condon, John Kearns, James Condon, Dick Lenihan, Patsy McGrath, T. Nagle. Our thanks to Miss Nora Condon, Ballinamult for letting us have this photo for publication.

[N.B. — We would like to hear from any readers who might still have old photos of interest which could be included in the series. All such photos will be returned safe and sound following publication — Editor.]

BOGUS COLLECTORS

The public are warned against bogus teenage collectors calling to houses looking for financial support for St. Joseph's Hospital, Clonmel. The Friends of St. Joseph's Hospital Committee point out that all their authorised collectors are adults and have been appointed to do this work.

WELCOME HOME

We extend a welcome home to our beloved Parish Priest, Very Rev. Fr. Michael Russell, P.P., who was hospitalised for some time past.

McGRATH FOR COUNCIL

To fill the vacancy on Tipperary (S.R.) County Council caused by the death of Councillor John Brennan from Ardfinnan, Mr. Matty McGrath from Newcastle was selected at a meeting of Cahir Comhairle Ceanntair of Fianna Fail. Noel Davern, T.D., presided at the Selection Convention in Cahir. There were four nominations: Matty McGrath, Newcastle, Michael Anglim, Ardfinnan, Barry O'Brien, Clogheen and David Norris, New Inn. Matty McGrath is very well known in Ballymacarbry. To him we say well done.

PEAT MOSS

During the past week a group of people have taken over 50 acres of bogland at Moneaha Bog for the production of peat moss. Measuring and marking the area has been going on for some weeks.

ANNUAL OUTING

Four-Mile-Water are going to Wexford on their annual outing on Monday, June 4. The bus is completely booked out.

AMERICAN TEA PARTY

At Clonea Strand Hotel on Saturday night last, Four-Mile-Water Hurling Club held a very successful American Tea Party which was enjoyed by a large crowd.

ACCIDENT

On Monday of last week, Mrs. Finbar Hickey and her mother-in-law Mrs. James Hickey, Clashganny, New-castle, were involved in an accident on the Cahir-Ardfinnan Road at Nolan's Cross. Both ladies were removed to Our Lady's Hospital, Cashel and later that evening Mrs. Finbar Hickey was removed to the Regional Hospital, Cork.

Both, we are now glad to report, are on the road to recovery.

APPOINTED PROFESSOR

Congratulations to Dr. Tom Gallagher, Churchtown, Dublin, who has been appointed a Professor in the Faculty of Electrical Engineering. Professor Tom is grandson of the late Alderman Thomas Gallagher former Lord Mayor of Waterford, a native of Drumgorey, Ballymacarbry and the late Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher, Roanmore, Waterford.

BARLO STRIKE IS OVER

Many workers from Ballymacarbry district were delighted with the news on Friday evening last that the seven months old strike at Clonmel's radiator manufacturers, Barlo, was over. The strike began on October 11, '89.

SYMPATHY

The sympathy of the district is extended to Mrs. Ann Maher, Nire Vale, Ballymacarbry, on the death of her uncle, Mr. Eddie Murphy, Dunhill, which took place recently.

I.C.A.

The next meeting of Ballymacarbry Guild ICA will be held in St. Patrick's Hall on Monday night, June 11, at 8.30 p.m. A cake sale will be held afterwards to help to raise funds. Meanwhile all members are reminded that their ICA fees are overdue. Payment would be appreciated so that the guild can enter for the free draw for paid up members.

The annual outing will be finalised at the meeting.

A LADY TO THE RESCUE

To make up a team on Saturday night last at Cappoquin, the Nire junior football team in their game versus Shamrocks had to call on one of the Ballymacarbry ladies to make up a team of fifteen. The game was abandoned with teams at 5 points each after twenty minutes when the field became flooded by tidal waters.

MASS

On next Friday evening at St. Laurence's Church, Four-Mile-Water, Mass will be celebrated at 7.30 p.m. for the repose of the soul of the late Canon Dan O'Byrne, P.P., V.F., who served the people of the parish for seventeen years and who died recently.

LATE JOHN CREAGH

Widespread sadness and deep regret was occasioned last week by the news of the demise of John Creagh, Lisheen, Derrinalur, Clonmel, which sad event occurred accidentally. Deceased was a kind and gentle man, well known in the area. He was always hard working and industrious and was always ready with a helping hand.

On Friday evening his remains were removed from Sean Condon's Funeral Parlour, Clonmel, to St. Mary's Church, Irishtown and on Saturday morning after Requiem Mass the funeral took place to St. Patrick's Cemetery, where interment took place. To his sister we extend our deepest sympathy.

LATE CATHERINE MARY HENNESSY

It is with very deep and profound regret we record the passing of Mrs. Catherine Mary (May) Hennessy, Raheny Road, Dublin and late of Ballymacarbry and Clonea Road, Abbeyside, which sad event took place at Beaumont Hospital, Dublin. Deceased (nee Johnson) was a native of Charleville, Co. Cork. She was wife of the late Garda Sergeant Frank Hennessy who was in charge of Ballymacarbry Garda Station from the time it opened in 1923 until he retired in 1958. The family then moved to Abbeyside, Dungarvan.

Her remains were removed to the Church of Our Lady, Mother of Divine Grace, Raheny and after celebration of Requiem Mass the funeral took place to Dean's Grange Cemetery where interment took place.

To her sons and other relatives we convey our sympathy.

INCREASED INCOME LIMIT FOR HOSPITAL CONSULTANT SERVICES

The Minister for Health has increased the income limit for free hospital consultant services with effect from 1st June, 1990

from £16,000
to £16,700

This limit will be based on income in the year to 5th of April, 1990.

If your income was under this limit, you can get hospital consultant services FREE as a public patient.

If your income was £16,700 or more, you are liable for consultants' fees.

Any person who may need hospital services, either in-patient or out-patient, during the coming year, and who wishes to avail of free consultant services should have his or her eligibility for such services established. This can be done by getting an application form for a hospital services card and sending it to your Health Board, together with the required evidence of income.

It is advisable for all patients concerned to have a hospital services card and it is essential to have one if you are a non-PAYE taxpayer i.e. if you do not have a P.60.

Full information on eligibility for hospital services can be obtained from your health board.

Dungarvan Dramatic Club

Dungarvan Dramatic Club held its A.G.M. in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan recently. This was earlier than usual as we intend to begin production of our next play at an earlier date than last year.

The following committee was elected to serve for the coming season:

Honorary President — Mary Kelly; Vice-President — Anne Kavanagh; Hon. Secretary — Eibhlin Nic Philib; Treasurer — Michael Hennessy; P.R.O. — Padraigin Ni Chadhla; Members of the Committee — Brid O'Kennedy, Connie Di Fusco, Hank Regan; Ruairi De Paor, Elizabeth Dorman-Kade.

Good luck to them in their posts for 1990/91.

Our plans for the coming season are to present two plays to you, our public in Dungarvan. We intend to travel to festivals and hold some workshops on theatre-related matters. As you know theatre is a venture which requires a great deal of help, both financial and otherwise, so if we call to your door looking for help, please listen and help.

The club is planning an outing to Thomas Kilroy's version of Ibsen's "Ghosts" which is running in the Palace Theatre, Cork, for a week. We propose to travel on Wednesday, May 30, a bus may be hired if sufficient numbers are interested. Please ring Patricia at 058/46275 if more details are required.

We intend to build-up our collection of period costumes, head gear, etc., for future productions as we find it very expensive to hire them.

So if you have a pith helmet, bowler hat or Edwardian dress languishing in a dark attic, give it a new lease of life in Dungarvan Dramatic Club, by speaking to any committee member or ringing the aforementioned number. — P.R.O. Padraigin Ni Chadhla.

Salmon as a regular treat

CONSUMER tastes are becoming more refined and concerned with quality and health issues but modern lifestyles leave less time for food preparation and cooking.

These are just some of the reasons why Scottish salmon may well become the taste of the 90s.

Scottish salmon is available all year round and no longer needs to be considered a seasonal delicacy for special occasions only. And with so many different and delicious ways in which it can be prepared, Scottish salmon never loses its appeal as a weekly treat.

Busy lifestyles make some suggestions for healthy eating seem impractical but Scottish salmon provides a good mixture of minerals, vitamins, protein and natural oils without large amounts of saturated fat and calories.

The key to healthy eating is to balance those foods which are low in saturated fat, salt and sugar with other foods high in fibre. Scottish salmon offers an excellent start for virtually any well diet.

Highland Ginger Steaks

Serves four.

Preparation time: five minutes plus one hour to marinate

Cooking time: 12-15 minutes.

Calories per portion: 462.

Ingredients:

4 Scottish Salmon steaks, about 5oz/175g each
1 teaspoon/5ml ground ginger
1 tablespoon/5ml sunflower oil
2 tablespoons/30ml dry sherry
1 tablespoon/15ml clear honey
8oz/225g long grain rice
Salt and ground pepper to taste

Finely grated rind 1 lemon
3 tablespoons/45ml chopper fresh chervil or parsley

Lemon slices, fresh herbs to garnish.

Method:

Place the salmon in a shallow dish. Mix together the ginger, oil, sherry and honey. Pour evenly over the salmon, cover and chill for about one hour.

Cook the rice in a large pan of boiling lightly salted water for 12-15 minutes, or until tender.

Meanwhile, cook the salmon under a preheated, moderate grill for 7-8 minutes, turning once, brushing with the marinade to keep it moist.

Drain the rice and stir in the pepper, lemon rind and herbs. Serve with the salmon, garnish with lemon slices and herbs.

Salmon Tail with Celery and Fennel Serves four.

Preparation time: 10 mins.

Cooking time: 12 minutes approx.

Calories per portion: 229.

Ingredients:

8oz/225g celery
8oz/225g bulb fennel
1 pint/600ml water or fish stock
1/2 teaspoon/2.5ml celery salt
2 slices of lemon
4 Scottish Salmon tailpiece fillets, about 4oz/125g each
2 teaspoons/10ml arrowroot or cornflour
Freshly ground pepper
Grated lemon rind, tomato slices, celery leaves and parsley for garnish

Trim and slice celery and fennel, place in a wide saucepan or frying pan and pour over the water or stock. Bring to the boil, add celery salt and two slices of lemon, then cover and simmer gently for about eight minutes. Carefully lower the salmon into the pan, cover and allow to simmer very gently for a further 4-5 minutes.

Lift salmon and vegetables out and keep hot. Discard lemon slices. Boil the liquid rapidly to reduce to about 1/2 pint/300ml. Blend the arrowroot with a little cold water and stir into pan. Cook, stirring, until thickened and clear. Season with pepper.

Fighting the invading pests

THIS is the month when the nation's most popular garden show starts to attract an unwelcome audience.

For our colourful displays of roses are at risk from an army of pests and diseases encouraged by the warm June weather.

It is therefore vital to halt these invaders and keep them on the run for the rest of the summer. Our rose trees should then reward us with some rich shows of colour.

Observe

Most pests and diseases can be easily dealt with by proprietary treatments and insecticides but always follow the instructions carefully and observe the basic safety rules:

*Spray on calm days and stay upwind.

*Cover bare skin, especially on hands and arms.

*Keep children and pets away.

First check your trees for signs of trouble. Caterpillars should be picked off to stop their nibbling, but chewed buds show chafers at work while slugworms will gorge on leaves until only veins are left.

Rolled-up leaves warn that sawfly larvae or tortrix moth caterpillars are present so cut away and dispose of affected parts and pick off the pests.

Red spider mite on the underside of leaves are a more persistent pest, especially in dry conditions. They cause yellowing leaves which then fall and disfigure the tree as well as weakening it while moisture is in short supply.

When treating trees afflicted by these stubborn pests you need to regularly spray leaves on both sides.

Fortunately, your persistence will have other spin-offs, especially in checking the worst rose pest of all, the aphid or greenfly.

By Pete Moss

The adults and their many offspring infest the stems and undersides of the leaves, covering everything with a sticky honeydew, generally disfiguring and weakening the tree.

Broken

Fortunately, this year has seen a surge in the population of ladybirds, the natural enemy of aphids, so a natural ally could well be helping out more than usual.

You can help the root system by applying a mulch such as peat or broken bark to slow down evaporation of moisture from the soil and keep the weeds from breaking through.

Always cut away blighted or dying flowers and help the trees to maintain their blooming power by sprinkling and working a rose fertiliser into the circle of soil above the roots. A fertiliser applied to the leaves will also help.

To get the best blooms from your hybrid tree bushes you should also practice disbudding, but don't do this with any other rose type.

To disbud, use your thumb and forefinger to rub out side buds before they become too large. This allows the main bud at the end of the stem to develop into a large showy bloom.

If you want to cut the bloom for display then, as with any rose bloom, cut cleanly just above the stem bud that will provide an outward facing shoot and a fresh crop of uncluttered blooms.

LISMORE NOTES

MR. RICHARD (DICK) NUGENT

It is with deep regret we record the death of Mr. Dick Nugent, late of Coole, Ballysaggart, who died in Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford, on Saturday, May 26.

Since his retirement over five years ago, having spent most of his life in England, Dick resided in South Mall with Mrs. Peg Herbert.

His remains were removed on Sunday evening last from Ryan's Funeral Home to St. Mary's Church, Ballysaggart, and were received and blessed by Very Rev. Fr. Thomas Nugent P.P., V.F. of Lismore.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Monday morning also by Fr. Nugent. The interment took place immediately afterwards in the adjoining cemetery. He is survived by his sisters, brothers-in-law, nieces and nephews, to whom we extend our deepest sympathy.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is also extended to the family of Mrs. Keating, Parks Road, who died on Monday last. Full obituary next week.

IN HOSPITAL

We wish a speedy recovery to Mick Crowley, South Mall and Jim Lineen, The Mill, who are both in hospital.

TIDY TOWNS

Over the next few weeks we hope to organise a "Tidiest Street" competition. Litter and the cleanliness of pathways will be noted in particular when deciding a winner. Watch out for further details next week.

Now that the fine weather has come we need to make a point of using dust bins provided for our casual litter, such as, ice-cream papers, crisp bags, etc. We would ask dog owners also to join in the effort to keep the streets clean.

LISMORE TENNIS CLUB NOTES

The fine weather is with us once more and it's great to see people dusting off their racquets again and starting to play. Some enthusiastic club members have participated in a round-robin competition in Dungarvan already.

The active ladies have visited Dungarvan and Cappoquin for "social mornings" tennis and are this week hosting a return visit for the ladies from Cappoquin. Anyone interested in joining this social set, should get in touch with Connie Dowd.

The fees for the year have been set and are as follow: Family £20; Single person £15; Junior £5.

The same rules as last year apply in regard to membership. All fees must be paid by June 9, as after that only paid-up members can avail of the courts. Please hand the subscriptions to any committee member.

A tennis coach is booked for the weekend of June 8, 9 and 10, and will be giving lessons. It is hoped that the juniors will have a separate lesson on the Saturday morning. Anyone interested in a lesson should put their name on the list in the Wine Vaults, or inform Connie, James or Annette, so that lessons can be arranged. Four at a time will be taken for lessons. We look forward to seeing members on court that weekend. So — keep hitting those balls!

I.C.A. NOTES

The May meeting of Lismore Guild I.C.A. was held on Monday, May 9. Mrs. D. Lee, President, was in the chair.

All members who attended the craft classes together with the ladies from Ballyduff were sorry that the class had come to an end. All were very pleased with the variety of work completed and are looking forward to commencing again in the autumn. Thursday nights are not the same without the 'crack'.

Members good wishes go to Mattie Landers, who is at present hospitalised in Dublin.

The usual collectors are reminded that the annual Conquer Cancer collection will be taken up at the church gates on the weekend, June 9 and 10.

Our annual cake sale will be held in Halla Brid on Tuesday, June 5 at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Eleanor Burns entertained us with a tape of 'Ned Kelly in Song and Story' which she brought home from Australia.

Our next meeting, the last before the summer break, will be held on Monday, June 11. — P.R.O.

FIANNA FAIL

The chairman and members of Lismore Cumann would like to thank all those who supported the National Collection in Lismore recently.

The Cumann would like to announce that Brendan Kenneally T.D. will be holding clinics in Lismore on the first Saturday of each month in the Red House, commencing, Saturday, June 2. (Advt.)

WEDDING:

WALSH - CULLEN
A very pretty wedding took place on Friday last at St. Carthage's Church, Lismore, when Muriel, daughter of Jack and Muriel Walsh, New Street, was married to Pat, son of Charles and the late Mrs. Cullen, Cappoquin.

The bride who was given away by her father, looked radiant in a full length white satin dress, embedded with pearls and diamonds and trimmed with white satin bows. She carried a bouquet of white roses and wore a shower of hail on her head. The bridesmaids were Linda and Tina Walsh, sisters of the bride, who wore turquoise off the shoulder dresses with matching head dresses.

The bestman was John Cullen, brother of the groom and the groomsman was Paul McCarthy, friend of the groom. The flower-girl was Joanne Cullen, who wore a full length white dress with turquoise trimmings. The pageboy was Martin Coady, nephew of the bride.

The Lessons were read by Michael Walsh and Susan Cullen, the Prayers of the Faithful were read by Kathleen and Anne Cullen, sisters of the groom, Evelyn Coady, sister of the bride, Christopher Coady, nephew of the bride and Janice Moore, niece of the bride.

The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Fr. Michael Walsh, Scotland, uncle of the bride, and assisted by Very Rev. Fr. M. O'Gorman, C.C., Lismore.

The reception was held in Clonea Strand Hotel and the honeymoon is being spent in Cyprus. We wish Muriel and Pat many years of wedded bliss.

A New King At Conna Castle

Conna Castle will have a new King on Saturday night, June 2, when Rock Star King "Meatloaf" takes the stage for a live concert. Backed by his band "Neverland Express" he plans to rock the stage built by a team of experts who have been involved in constructing stages for acts like Neil Diamond, Beach Boys, Heart, Kylie Minogue, U2, and the 120 strong cast of the Bolshoi Ballet.

Excitement is building up and organisation is getting into top gear to provide all the facilities needed for this show. There will be three stiles in operation and entering the main gate queue through barriers each patron will have to produce an individual ticket to gain admission. Patrons will not be allowed into the grounds with bottles or glasses, cans will be permissible. The ground will be well lit and public amenities like toilets, running water will be available.

A Soccer Song From Paddy

The first country artist to record a World Cup soccer song, Paddy O'Brien from Aglish in County Waterford has just released "Going For Glory," a number written by Mary Redmond from Ballykelly, Co. Wexford.

The tape, which also features "Reasons," an up-tempo country song, as part of a double A side, was recorded at Brian O'Reilly's Fiona Studios in Fermoy, Co. Cork and will be available on the Failte Record label.

A competent songwriter himself, Paddy O'Brien is particularly well known in countries such as Switzerland, Austria and Germany where his yodelling is a big hit.

Novenas

THANKSGIVING to our Blessed Lady for many seemingly impossible favours received.

THANKSGIVING — Novena to St. Clare — Say nine Hail Marys to St. Clare for nine consecutive days in front of a lighted candle for one business request and two impossible requests and promising publication on the ninth day.

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN (Never known to fail) — O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendour of heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favour is granted. — C.K.

Acknowledgments

O'DONOGHUE — The wife and family of the late Tommy O'Donoghue, Boolakiely, Cappoquin, wish to thank most sincerely all who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; those who attended funeral and burial; those who sent Mass cards, letters of sympathy and floral tributes. A special word of thanks to Fr. Phelan, P.P. and Fr. Lloyd, C.C., Dr. O'Donovan, Ballyduff and all the very kind neighbours and friends who helped in every way. Our appreciation also to Maurice J. Noonan, John Noonan and Ryan's Funeral Home, Lismore. The holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for the intentions of all.

O'BRIEN — The sisters, Kate O'Brien and Nell Kearney, nephews and nieces and brother-in-law of the late John O'Brien, Boherbyrea, Cappoquin, thank most sincerely all the kind friends and neighbours who sympathised with them on the death of John. A special word of thanks to Very Rev. Fr. Phelan, P.P. and Fr. Francis, Mount Melleray; also the doctors in attendance, and all the staff at Ardkeen Hospital who were so kind to him. We appreciate very much the very good neighbours who continue to give support and help. We trust this will be accepted by all in gratitude. A Mass will be offered for the intentions of all.

OPEN SUMMER BRIDGE

Open summer bridge in aid of Mercy Convent Foreign Missions will be held every Thursday night in the Mercy Convent, Church Street, at 7.30 p.m., commencing on June 7. All are welcome.

TROPICS REFORMED

Twenty years ago the Tropic were the new generation band in Dungarvan. The Sixties revolution was in full swing and "Trot" Power, "Stalkey" Walsh, Mike Daly, Stephen Tutty, Hubie Hyslop, Noel Fraher and John Egan belted out the music of the flower-power era on the stages of Munster. Now, 20 years later the seven are coming together again and will play in Minnies on Thursday, June 7 in aid of Dungarvan Crystal Strike Fund. (See advertisement for details).

The music will be the same, the clock will be turned back and the crack will be mighty. More details next week. Be there.

DUNGARVAN AND DISTRICT SOROPTIMISTS NOTES

On Sunday, May 20 last, the Dungarvan and District Soroptimist Club held their annual car boot sale. The sale was a great success, helped by the brilliant sunshine and the lovely recital given by the Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band.

The President and members wish to thank everyone who helped to make this fund-raising event such a success. The proceeds of the sale will go to local charities.

In Memoriam

KILLIGREW — Sixteenth Anniversary — In loving memory of John Killigrew, Boherwilling, Cappagh, who died June 3, 1974.

A bouquet of beautiful memories,
Sprayed with a million tears,
Wishing God could have spared you,
If just for a few more years.
(Inserted by his loving family.)

McALLISTER — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Annie, who died June 5, 1988, late of 60 Caseyville, Dungarvan. Anniversary Mass June 4, 11.30 a.m.

Then suddenly when God called her,
There was so much left unsaid,
No second chance to say thanks
For everything she'd done.
We never will forget her,
For she made us what we are,
Though she may be gone,
Memories linger on,
And we miss you, dear Mam.
(Always remembered by her loving family: husband Dick, sons Charlie and Richard, daughters Mary and Ann, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law and grandchildren.)

MURPHY — Sixth Anniversary — In loving memory of Michael Murphy, late of 56 Caseyville, Dungarvan, who died on May 30, 1984. Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on his soul.
(Sadly missed by his loving wife Alice and family.)

PANKS — Sixth Anniversary — In loving memory of Bridie Panks (nee Power), late of Dungarvan and Lincoln, who died on May 27, 1984. R.I.P.

A little tribute so small and tender,
Just to say I'll always remember,
Grateful and proud of the sister I had,
Our fond thoughts of you Bridie,
Will be forever in our hearts.
(Always remembered by your sister Molly, Dungarvan, brother Christy and sister-in-law Phyllis, London, Breda, Liam and family, Dungarvan.)

SHANLEY — Tom: Kilminion South. First Anniversary. May 31, 1990. Lovingly remembered today and always by Kay and family. Anniversary Mass 10 a.m. Sunday, June 3, at Ballinroad.

TALLOW NOTES

SOCCER FEVER IN TALLOW

In most towns and villages throughout the country there is a certain amount of interest and excitement in Ireland's participation in the World Cup.

Tallow has a special interest in the Irish team and no doubt will have a special cheer for Mick McCarthy when he arrives on the field with the Irish team. Mick's father, Charlie McCarthy was born in Chapel Street, Tallow, and is brother of Tom McCarthy, West St.

The Soccer Club in the town has been very active in recent years playing a major part in the sporting activities of the area. Tallow's local public representative, Mr. Willie McDonnell has suggested that a banner should be placed in the town for the duration of the World Cup in honour of Mick McCarthy and the Irish team. He also suggested that business people in the town and as many householders as possible should fly the Irish flag for the duration of the games.

TALLOW DANCING CLUB (KENIRY SCHOOL)

ST. PATRICK'S PAROCHIAL HALL

Result of Card Drive,

May 23 — 1st, 2nd and 3rd divided between Mrs. Cantillon and Billy Beecher, Eileen Flynn and John Pratt, Mary Mangan and Mary Pratt. Table Prizes — Mary O'Neill and Joe O'Shea, Dick Tobin and John O'Brien. Raffle winners — Mrs. Sigley, Anne Neville, Maura Lyons.

TALLOW COMMUNITY CENTRE

Last week's results are as follows:— Mary Geary, Tallow; Pa Sheehan, Tallow; Katherine Geary, Lismore; Mary Geary, Lismore; Sharon Henley, Woodview Park; John Dalton, Affane; Phil Beecher, Coolydoody; Mrs. Cross, Strancally; Mrs. Morrisson, Tallow; Angela Walsh, Aglish; Mary Hourigan, Tallow; Mrs. Enright, Ballyduff; Mary McGrath, Tallow; Tess Hickey, Glencairn; Bill Brown, Woodview Park; Mary Pratt; Woodview Park; Mae Mernin, Villierstown; Mrs. Buckley, Lismore; Kathleen Delaney, Tallow; Eileen Hickey, Lismore; Mrs. O'Mahoney, Kilcronat; Helen Kearney, Ballyduff; Nora Lane, Inch; Mrs. Long, Park (£100); Nora Leahy, Aghern, Conna; Mary Duffy, Coventry, England.

Next Sunday night's jackpot will be £375 on 48 calls. Books £2.50 and £4 Inc. tombola.

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

Our junior hurlers are due to play Lismore on this Friday night in Lismore at 7.30 p.m. We have asked the Board for a postponement of the fixture because a number of our players will be doing their exams. If we can't get a postponement we will play the game on Friday night without our players who are involved in exams, as it wouldn't be fair to ask them to line out. If we win this game we will be through to the quarter final of the championship, so let's give it a go lads.

Our senior hurlers have a break at the moment on account of Waterford playing their Munster semi-final on Sunday next. The club wishes all the lads the best of luck on Sunday next against Cork in Thurles, especially club players Tim Sheehan, Dermot Henley and Pat Murphy, who are on the panel.

We wish a speedy recovery to some of our players who are on the injured list at the moment, Stephen Curley and Mark Geary. We hope the injuries won't be too prolonged as we are down to play Roanmore on June 16. Only an all out effort against the county champions will do as we are both unbeaten.

The club would like to thank most sincerely Denis Lyons of the Bridge Bar, for his generous sponsorship to the club during the week. Thanks very much Denis it is most appreciated.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.

St. Catherine's 5-4 Russell Rovers 0-3 — The above score is not a true reflection on this hurling game in the current junior hurling league played at Ballynoe on Tuesday evening. Rovers seemed to make a lot of the running in the first half especially, but they were dogged with hard luck on occasions and as well their efforts were thwarted by a sound backline and goalie.

The second half saw the local side forge ahead and they dominated the scene towards the end to win handsomely and take the points.

Catherine's lined out as follows — J. Hartnett, T. Leary, P. J. Lonergan, B. Neville, Alan Bryan, B. Sheehan, J. McCarthy, K. Barry, J. Spillane, M. Walsh, M. Mangan, A. Clancy, J. Hennessy, P. Ahern, E. O'Brien. Subs. — M. Hartnett and P. Leahy.

Referee — Timmy Geary, Lisgoold.

Intermediate Hurling League At Ballynoe — Mallow 5-8 St. Catherine's 2-12 — This league tie was played at Ballynoe last Saturday evening. Catherine's having four previous triumphs to their credit were favourites on the evening. They took the field, however, minus four of their regulars and mMip game versus Eire Og close at hand appeared to have a real appetite for the contest and they deserved every bit of their six point lead at the break.

Still dictating the play in the second half they went further ahead, though Catherine's then more alert and showing great resilience in the last quarter plus two fine goals, came well into the game and were it not for the sterling defensive work of the Mallow men the margin between them might have been closer. Still a great finish left the North Cork men undisputed winners.

Catherine's team — J. Hartnett, B. Regan, M. Hartnett, S. O'Connell, E. Hartnett, D. Walsh, P. J. Lonergan, S. Neville, K. Barry, P. Donoghue, D. O'Leary, C. Clancy, B. Sheehan, P. Sullivan, D. Buckner. Subs. — P. Murphy, S. Buckley, M. Walsh.

Referee — Jack Cotter, Middleton.

Underage — Our underage teams weren't blessed with success this past week and the U-12's had to give way to a better balanced Erin's Own team in a hurling league contest at Ballynoe last Friday evening. Likewise our U-14 footballers had a tough assignment at Carrigtwohill last Sunday morning and lost to the home side after a good game.

FIRST COMMUNION AT BALLYNOE

Last Saturday morning at St. Catherine's Church,

Ballynoe, the children of Ballynoe National School received their First Holy Communion. It was a most beautiful and inspiring ceremony with the young choir participating and Mrs. O'Keeffe N.T. at the organ. Fr. Buckley was the celebrant of the Mass and Fr. Kelleher, P.P., who was also present presented the first Communicants with certificates to mark the occasion. He also spoke some appropriate words to them and to complete the ceremony teas were served in the adjacent Community Hall afterwards.

PADRE PIO DEVOTIONS AT HOLY CROSS

Ballynoe Pioneer Association chartered a bus to convey pilgrims to Holy Cross, Tipperary, last Sunday, where they joined an estimated 12,000 people for the above devotions. These consisted of the Rosary, Stations of the Cross, Anointing of the sick and infirm and Holy Mass concelebrated by many priests including the former Archbishop of Cashel, Dr. Morris.

Kilrossanty Notes

G.A.A.

U-14 Hurlers — Our Under-14 hurling team were well beaten on Monday night last, May 21, in the first round of the championship against Melleray.

U-21 Football — Our Under-21 footballers were beaten in the 1989 county final at Dungarvan last Thursday night by Rathgormack. They played well enough in the first half to suggest they were in with a chance, but shortly into the second half it was evident that Rathgormack were the better side.

Final score — Rathgormack 3-13, Kilrossanty 0-14.

Seniors — The seniors will play Rathgormack on Saturday night in Kilmacthomas.

The school girls from Kilrossanty had a good win over Kilmac' on Monday evening on the score 4-4 to 3-2.

CROTTY'S INN

The ever popular John

Hogan appears in Crotty's Inn on Saturday night next.

MATCH

A large crowd of supporters will travel to Thurles on Sunday next for the Munster hurling match between Waterford and Cork.

FLEADH

The Kilrossanty junior set dancers will be taking part in the Fleadh at Dungarvan on Sunday next.

MONTH'S MIND MASS FOR LATE CANON PHELAN

Msgr. P. Lannen was the celebrant of the Month's Mind Mass for the late Very Rev. Canon James Phelan, Edinburgh. In the panegyric which he preached, Msgr. Lannen recalled that Canon Phelan was a native of Fewes, Kilrossanty and was ordained in Waterford on June 16, 1938. Among the other priests present at the Mass were Very Rev. Canon P. Queally P.P., Clonmel, Very Rev. Fr. M. Wall, P.P., Very Rev. Fr. Foley P.P. and Rev. Fr. O'Brien, C.C.

More Local Backing For Waterford Airport

Dungarvan Urban Council at its May monthly meeting endorsed the decision by Waterford Co. Council in the previous week to acquire £30,000 worth of shares in the newly formed Waterford Regional Airport plc by approving of a proposal by the County Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley to also apply for an allocation of £10,000 worth of shares.

Recommending the proposal to the Council, Mr. Hurley said that approving it would show the council's faith in the tourism industry in the county as well as in the future of the airport. He added that from a very small beginning it was now expected that up to 60,000 passengers would pass through the airport this year and that this figure would increase to 100,000 within a very short time. "It is in our interest here to see that the airport is up and running and running well," he said.

Cllr. A. Hallahan thought that it would be detrimental for the Council not to support the new airport company as the future of tourism in the south-east region depended on the number of tourists which could be encouraged to come into the region and the airport in Waterford would be a big help in doing this.

However Cllr. M. O'Riordan was not at all impressed. He said he could not see how they could justify giving £10,000 to such a project while so many Council houses in Cathal Brugha Place and other areas as well as footpaths and roads around the town were in such desperate need of repair and for which there was no money available. "Because of this I cannot see my way to support this proposal," he said.

AN ACT OF FAITH

Cllr. B. Kyne said that the proposed investment in the airport would be an act of faith in the future of our county as it would mean the injection of a small amount of capital into the tourism drive. "I think we would be doing the county a disservice if we did not do this," he said.

The County Manager then explained that the purchase of the shares would be a capital charge and would be an investment by the Council. "It's not a case of giving a grant and if the Council isn't satisfied at any stage in the future they can sell the shares," said Mr. Hurley.

Cllr. D. Goode then proposed that the £10,000 worth of shares in the airport be acquired and this was seconded by Cllr. Nuala Ryan and the proposal was passed with Cllr. O'Riordan dissenting.

SUSAN McCANN at the Cat's Bar, Mount Melleray, on Saturday, June 2.

Cappoquin & District Notes

ART EXHIBITION
Over the weekend a very interesting exhibition of drawings and paintings took place in the C.Y.M.S. Hall. The event was staged by pupils from the local primary and second level schools, who displayed their own work. There were paintings on show by children as young as 4 years. Art Teacher, Rita O'Dwyer (a native of Carrick-on-Suir), was there to meet everybody and to offer a cup of tea.

The works ranged from stills to animated cartoon characters with a little bit of abstract which Rita was only too pleased to explain. One didn't realise that such talent existed in the area. Our congratulations to teacher and artists alike.

LOTTERY WINNER
Congratulations to popular lady, Miss Betty Lawlor, Castle Street, in qualifying to "Spin the Wheel" on next Friday night. Already guaranteed a substantial prize, we wish her the best of luck at the wheel.

AT THE SPORTSFIELD
Saturday night's junior football game, Shamrocks v. Nire, came to an abrupt end when with fifteen minutes to go the springtide "invaded" the pitch. The lower end became swamped and referee Jim McGrath (Affane/Cappoquin) had no option but to abandon the game. The score at the time was 0-5 each. To add a bit of glamour to the occasion, the Nire had a lady footballer playing at corner forward!

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION
What was the name of Cappoquin's Cinema?
Answer next week.
Answer to last week's question: The Faery Queen.

AFFANE SENIOR CITIZENS ASSOCIATION
The above held a very enjoyable social event on Friday, April 20. This was preceded by an informative talk on social welfare by Mr. O'Dwyer from Co. Tipperary. This is only one of many guest speakers we have lined up for the future. A cup of tea followed and the usual sing-song and dance continued into the late hours.

We must thank our musicians Tomas Scanlon, Moss Troy and Jack Foley. A word of appreciation also to the children who provided entertainment, Edith Prendergast and Anita Meagher, who sang, Elaine and Geraldine Prendergast and Breda Morrissey, Irish dancing, and also to Jamie McGrath who provided music on the flute.

The committee worked very hard last Sunday at the Car Boot Sale in Dungarvan and they have many more ambitious and adventurous ideas in the pipeline. We hope the sun shines all summer for our senior citizens.

GOOD ATHLETE
Congratulations to Daniel O'Donnell of Salterbridge, a student of St. Anne's, who finished third in the Munster College 800m. final on Saturday last at the R.T.C. Track in Cork.

AFFANE BRIDGE CLUB
Results, May 14 — 1st Addie Buckley and Andrew McGrath; 2nd Lil Costin and Kathleen O'Mahoney; 3rd Vera Curran and Mary Fives; joint 4th Monica O'Sullivan and Fr. Barron, Anne McCarthy and John O'Gorman.

End of Season Party, May 21 — 1st Brid Bergin and Andrew McGrath; 2nd Mary Radford and Maureen Morrissey; joint 3rd Rebecca Keevers and Ben Flynn, Betty Kelleher and Pat Keevers; Best Beginner — Bridget Tobin and Patricia Doyle.

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

Intermediate Football
— We played Dungarvan in an I.F. challenge last week. It was disappointing to say the least that we could not muster 15 players for this game with an important championship down for decision next Saturday night. However, two Dungarvan players made up the numbers and a very entertaining match was played with some good scores highlighting the match.

Our opponents next Saturday night will be Faha, who possess a big, strong, fast moving side. We will have to be at our best if we are to win here. The team must not be under any false illusions as a win for us is vital.

Under-14 Hurling — Ballyduff proved far too strong for our lads in the championship last Saturday night. The one heartening feature from our point of view was the gallant second half effort by our players. They carried the game to Ballyduff without gaining any reward for their efforts. We were short a few players for this game and while the result may not have been reversed, nevertheless we would have fielded a better balanced side.

Gate Collection Rota — Gate collectors on duty this week are, J. McGrath, T. McCarthy and M. Croake.

Next week's gate men, June 3 to 9, will be — M. Fraher, J. Mansfield and P. J. Veale.

Junior Football — Clashmore finished clear-cut winners in this J.F.C. game. But to be fair to our lads the squandermania of our attack proved very costly at the end. Deploable bad shooting by our forwards had to be seen to be believed. In fact all our teams are suffering this "ailment" to date and this seems to be the "Achilles heel" of our teams.

S.H.C. v. Clonea — Our next game in the senior hurling championship is against Clonea and will be played in Dungarvan on Sunday, June 17 at 3.15 p.m.

Training — We earnestly appeal to all players to turn up for the allotted training nights. Numbers have been slack in recent weeks so come on lads practice is the key to success.

U-14 Football — We are delighted that some of our victorious county U-14 side have been selected on a recent Western selection in preparation for bigger things. Well done lads.

CAPPOQUIN MACRA NOTES

Sports And Social Evening — The club held a very successful sports and social evening recently. The evening consisted of a soccer match in Modeligo's Community Sportsfield, which was part of the "Be Active, Be Alive Week". After the soccer it was off to Deckie's, where new local band, Dave and Mike (the Coyne's), supplied the music to end a very enjoyable evening for all.

Club News — Congratulations to club members Hugh and Valerie Collender, who will represent the county in "Bachelor of the Year" and Blue Jean's Country Queen" respectively.

Don voyage to Noreen O'Brien, who is presently on holidays in Seattle.

WATERFORD COLLEGES U-14 FOOTBALL

Friary Capture Third County Football Title

St. Augustine's 3-7, Tramore CBS 3-5

At Kilmacthomas recently the Friary captured their third Waterford Colleges Football Championship, to add to their Senior Hurling crown, and make a clean sweep of football titles for the school year 1989/90.

This was a truly magnificent victory over a much fancied Tramore side, most of whom have been part of the highly successful Tramore under-14 club team in recent years, and had beaten De La Salle College and St. Paul's, Waterford on the way to the final.

However, the Friary boys, buoyed up with victories over Kilmacthomas Community College and Dungarvan CBS (after a replay) were highly motivated for this game and stunned the opposition with early goals from Michael Kelleher and Tom Flynn. Tramore then came back with some good scores, to trail by just two points at half time, with the scores: St. Augustine's 2-2, Tramore 1-3.

In the second half an early goal by Tramore CBS gave them the lead for the first time, but with the Friary backs, ably led by full-back and captain Andrew Hubbard and assisted by a solid half-back line of Albert Keating, Aidan Ahearne and Derek Kenneally, Tramore could not get more than a point ahead of this determined Friary side.

Then, in a dream-like finish, the Friary boys put together a lovely passing movement, which ended with super-sub Peter Mullaney crashing home the winning goal. A splendid victory for a spirited Friary XV, who took home the magnificent Liam O'hAonghusa Cup for the first time.

Scorers — T. Flynn (1-1), M. Kelleher (1-1), A. Beatty (0-3), P. Mullaney (1-0), J. Fitzgerald (0-1), A. Landers (0-1).

St. Augustine's — B. Cliffe (Abbeyside), C. Fitzgerald (Brickeys), A. Hubbard (St. Mary's), D. O'Mahony (Abbeyside), A. Keating (Ardfinnan), A. Ahearne (St. Oliver's), D. Kenneally (Abbeyside), T. Flynn (Nire), P. Shields (Abbeyside), A. Landers (Abbeyside), J. Fitzgerald (Modeligo), M. Kelleher (Abbeyside), A. Beatty (Abbeyside), K. Walsh (Modeligo), I. Flynn (Cappoquin).

Subs — C. Scanlan (Cappoquin) for Shields (injured), P. Mullaney (Stradbally) for Flynn (injured).

Twelve Friary Athletes For All-Ireland Colleges Athletic Finals

On Saturday next, June 2, twelve Friary athletes make their way to Belfield, Dublin, to participate in the Silvermints All-Ireland Colleges Athletics Finals.

Last Saturday, in Cork, they took home seven gold, two silver and nine bronze medals from the Munster Colleges Finals, as well as the Intermediate Cup. In the last event of the evening they were just piped by Criost Ri for the Senior Cup.

However, with Michael Ahearne (shot and discus), Shane Scanlan (hammer and discus), Denis McCarthy and Francis Lynch (walk), all in top form at the moment, hopes are high that their senior athletes can retain the magnificent College of Science Cup — awarded to the school scoring the highest number of points in the senior boys section — and won by the Friary senior athletic team last year for the first time.

In the intermediate section, Pat Nangle (shot and discus), Conor Behal (discus and 400m. hurdles), Brian Hayes (javelin), Tony Moloney (walk) and Noel Keating (pole vault), also hope to do well.

At junior level, Aidan Ahearne (discus), Colm O'Grady (walk) and Brendan Maguire (javelin) will, no doubt, keep the flay flying.

We wish all these athletes the best of luck in Belfield on Saturday.

County Bord Na nOg Notes

SPONSORSHIP

Coisde na nOg are pleased to announce that once again Waterford Foods are kindly sponsoring our Under-14 and Under-16 hurling championships. This is the third year that these championships will be run with this sponsorship and we hope that our Yoplait Championships will be as successful as those in the previous two years.

It is a pleasure for this Bord to associate our championships with the Yoplait name and the county can only be proud to see the games we love and cherish associated with one of the major successes in the county.

FEILE NA nGAEL

On Saturday week Lismore had an impressive victory over St. Saviours to win the Feile na nGael County final for the fifth consecutive time. Their 8-2 to 1-1 win showed their superiority on the day and they now go on to represent the county in the All-Ireland Feile Finals in Tipperary in June.

Accompanying Lismore to the finals will be skills star Johnathan Moore of Abbeyside. Johnathan was a very convincing winner of the County Skills final on Sunday week last.

UNDER-14 FOOTBALL

Congratulations to Tramore on winning five Under-14 "A" county championships in a row and we wish them luck in Feile Peile in July.

Congratulations to Affane and Ferrybank this years "B" and "C" champions respectively.

RACING

Easy Winner At Tipperary

Mr. Michael O'Connor's "No Desert" had an easy win in the Maiden Hurdle at the Tipperary (Limerick Junction) evening meeting on Thursday last. Starting at 5/4 favourite, the John Kiely trained "No Desert" found the opposition very much to his liking as he cruised to a ten lengths win after being sent to the front by Conor O'Dwyer over the fourth flight from home.

Trainer Kiely said that "No Desert" required time to mature and would go chasing next season.

Ardmore Notes

FIRST COMMUNION

Thursday last, May 24 was First Holy Communion day in Ardmore and the pupils of St. Declan's Primary School looked beautiful in their new outfits. Many parishioners were present for the Mass celebrated by Fr. O'Connor. Well done to all the parents, teachers and Communicants and in particular teacher Miss Keevers.

Railway Athletic F.C. Club Notes

RAY CURRAN FOR INTERNATIONAL TRIAL

Great news was received last week when Ray Curran was picked to go to Dublin next weekend for a trial to play for Ireland's Under-15 team. Jason Hyslop from Dungarvan is also picked. They are the only two from Waterford. Both lads had a great partnership with the Waterford schoolboy league Kennedy Cup team which made it to the semi-final of the national competition.

This is a just reward for Ray, who has put in a lot of hours training since he was picked to play for Waterford and let's hope that he does well. This is also a great honour for our small club and great credit is due to everybody who helped Ray down the years.

Ray lives in Shanbally with his mother Breda and his brother Michael and his sister Annette.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish Ray and Jason the best of luck and hope they will keep the flag flying for Waterford and for their clubs.

UNDER-11 LEAGUE

Railway 2
Johnville 3

On Monday last our Under-11 side played their last league game of the season away to City side Johnville. We were unlucky to lose by the odd goal. We are away to Johnville in the cup, we must put in a better effort if we are to advance to the next round.

UNDER-10 TRAINING

On every Saturday morning, Paddy Mason will run a training session for all Under-10 players. Any young boys who would like to play would be more than welcome to join our very successful club. Training starts at 11 a.m. sharp.

PLAYER PROFILE:

Glenn Arrigan

Glenn is aged 12 and has been with us for the past three seasons. He lives in Villierstown with his parents, Billy and Maureen and his brother and sister. He is a fanatical Manchester United fan. He currently plays centre-forward and is also a very good goalkeeper. Glenn was a very important part on our Under-12 team which won the league and is currently leading goal scorer.

GET WELL SOON

We would like to wish Brian Whelan a speedy recovery from the leg injury he received on Sunday last.

DUNGARVAN UNITED SCHOOLBOYS

Young Blues In Excellent Form

With the season coming to a close it certainly is a busy time for our schoolboy teams just now.

T.S.B. U-12 CUP REPLAY

Dungarvan 4 Bohs 1

An emphatic 4-1 home win over league champions Bohs on Tuesday, May 22, saw our U-12 side advance to the quarter final of this competition. The sides were scoreless at half-time. Kevin Walsh scored the first of his three goals in the early minutes of the second half. Tommy Butler got the fourth and Bohs scored just before full-time.

QUARTER FINAL

Rathgormack 0 Dungarvan 4

Joe Foley's squad were away to Rathgormack on Saturday last in the quarter final of the cup and they produced another scintillating performance and ran out easy winner.

Scorers for Dungarvan were Leroy Simms (1), Tommy Butler (2) and Kevin Walsh (1).

SEMI-FINAL

This side are away to Slieverue in the semi-final of this cup competition on Saturday morning next, June 2, kick-off 10.30 a.m.

U-13 CUP QUARTER FINAL

Rathgormack 2 Dungarvan 4

Apart from a brief period in the second half when they lost their way somewhat, Dungarvan were always in control in this cup quarter final in Rathgormack on Monday night last.

The Blues got off to the worst possible start when after only two minutes play, star midfielder Tommy Butler, had to retire with a cut head, after a collision with one of his own players. Dungarvan reshuffled their team with James Cooney coming on for Tommy, and from there on, we were comfortably on top throughout the half.

After 12 minutes a good move ended with J. Cooney's great through ball to A. Landers and he left the keeper stranded with a great goal. Almost from the kick-off Dungarvan were two up, when Kevin Walsh was in like a flash when the keeper failed to hold a shot from Mark Crotty. John Lenihan who was having his best game ever was next on the score sheet, when his cross-cum-shot went all the way to the net. Half-time came shortly after with the Blues 3-0 up.

The second half started with Rathgormack pushing forward in numbers and were rewarded for their fine play with two goals in the space of five minutes midway through the half. The Blues came back into the game after this and John Lenihan's second goal ended the game as a contest. We played out the remainder of the game on top, with S. Roche twice hitting the woodwork.

They now play St. Saviours in the semi-final in Waterford on tonight (Wednesday, May 30). Bus leaving the clubhouse at 5.30 p.m.

Team — J. Sheehan, P. Keane, M. Hyslop, O. Simms, C. Walsh, K. Walsh, A. Landers, T. Butler, J. Lenihan, S. Roche, M. Crotty. Res. — J. Cooney.

Man of the Match — Kevin Walsh.

T.S.B. U-14 LEAGUE

Johnville 0 Dungarvan 2

Our U-14 side maintained their position at the top of the league table with a good workmanlike team performance away to Johnville on Tuesday, May 22. Aidan Landers scored both goals.

T.S.B. U-14 CUP QUARTER FINAL

St. Joseph's 1 Dungarvan 6

On Saturday last in John's Park, our U-14 side recorded a 6-1 victory over St. Joseph's. The Blues were 3-0 up at half-time thanks to Aidan Landers (2) and Timmy Kiely.

St. Joseph's pulled one back after the break, but Dungarvan soon took control again and Timmy Kiely (2) and Shane Roche completed the scoring.

This side are in league action on Tuesday, May 22, to Villa. This is their last away league match and they are at home in the semi-final of the cup on Saturday next, June 2, to either Tramore or Carrick, kick-off 11.45 a.m.

COMMITMENT

So, as can be seen a lot of football will have been played by the time these notes have been printed, with some players having played three games in three days. That's the kind of commitment these lads are putting in and with dedication and the will to win, hopefully they will be rewarded with a trophy or two before the season ends.

INTERNATIONAL TRIAL

Our U-14 player, Jason Hyslop, has been selected to take part in a trial match in Dublin on Monday, June 4. The trial is for boys U-14 to form a panel of 16 players (8 from Dublin and 8 from the provinces) to play for the Shamrocks (Republic of Ireland) in a week long tournament in Northern Ireland later this year. Jason along with Railway Athletic's Ray Curran were spotted playing in the Kennedy Cup semi-final against Kerry in Ozier Park recently. We wish both the best of luck in this trial game.

DISCO

Our schoolboy committee ran another most successful disco on Friday night last. Joseph Nolan was the very popular winner of "Mr. Beef Cake Competition."

WORLD CUP PREVIEW

A TALE OF TWO MANAGERS

While the English and Irish parties departed for their final World Cup build up the contrast in the stress on the two managers could not be more obvious. Bobby Robson haunted by the tabloid press in his country is forced to announce that he is to take up a position with P.S.V. Eindhoven because he won't be retained by the English F.A. after the finals, irrespective of the results. Robson, in my view, hamfistedly allowed the press to force him into announcing that Peter Shilton would start in the game against Ireland.

Contrast that to his counterpart Charlton, while all the media attention was on the payment demands by the Irish panel and the injuries to Whelan and Houghton, Charlton was where he likes best, fishing in the West of Ireland.

This difference in style or, if you like, ability to deal with pressure, was highlighted for me as both teams lined out for their European championship game two years ago.

Robson resplendent in blazer and tie in the blazing sun marched out behind his team. Charlton in his open necked shirt, chatted to his players while he kicked a football a few times.

Managers in the modern game are often over emphasised but they are important, a lot depends on how they handle the pressures of a World Cup. I feel Ireland are ahead in that department already.

INJURIES

Sunday's newspapers both Irish and English concentrated on injuries to Ronnie Whelan, Ray Houghton and to a lesser extent Kevin Moran. It would be simplistic to presume that it is all part of the need for the reporters to get good copy for their respective editors and readers. The loss of either midfielders would be serious, before you even kick a ball. Kevin Moran's injury picked up in his team's league play-offs is also causing concern, so Tuesday's (yesterday) deadline for the final 22 was a dilemma for the Irish manager.

Does he take a chance on forecasts by his medical team on possible recoveries or not — added to the managers problems was the aftermath of Sunday's game against Turkey. Played on the hottest day in Izmir in 50 years in a temperature of 107 degrees F, Ireland's unbeaten run was continued in a scoreless draw. This was the perfect game to get acclimatised for the heat of Italy.

During the game Charlton used 17 players and minor knocks and strains were not surprisingly reported afterwards. In a brief after match interview on R.T.E. Radio, he described the game as a worthwhile exercise, but expressed concern about his two Liverpool midfielders.

Local radio also carried a brief report on Ireland's game in a manner that I found at best, uninformed and at worst, negative.

Remembering that Ireland's game was to get acclimatised to heat, and heat they got at 107°, with 17 players used, then the report — "Ireland scoreless in slow, dull game, some chances missed" — was a bit over the top. Maybe I'm biased, but in those conditions against a reasonable team it wasn't a bad result.

EGYPT

If you are inclined to under-estimate Turkey, don't make the same mistake with Egypt. Their 3-1 defeat of Scotland has brought back Scottish nightmares of the 1978 World Cup. Scotland then badly underestimated what they saw as weaker countries to their cost and shame under Ally McLeod in one of the saddest chapters of Scottish football.

Egypt, who we play in our second game, will be no pushovers. They qualified by topping their African Group and in their group semi-final they drew and beat Algeria, themselves a reasonable team. They have a disciplined squad who have concentrated on getting ready by playing 14 warm up games — no league play-offs or cup final replays for their players.

Egypt, members of FIFA since 1923, draw their players in the main from arch rivals Al-Ahly and Zamalek clubs. They have prepared well so get ready for names like play-maker Hassam Hassan, defender Rabia Yassin and manager Mohammed El Gohary.

Ireland will have to be careful — we don't want a smiling Sphinx after they meet us on June 17.

MUNSTER SENIOR LEAGUE

No Luck In Last League Game

College Corinthians 3; Dungarvan 1

College Corinthians collected the points on offer in this entertaining league encounter at a sun drenched venue last Sunday.

Both sides were considerably understrength but a fine game of football was still served up. The visitors had by far the better of the first half and deservedly led 1-0, thanks to a fine goal by Billy Coleman, at the break.

Corinthians equalised early in the second half following a corner. The all important third goal came with twenty minutes remaining following another corner.

Dungarvan tried desperately to grab an equaliser and David Whelan hit the bar from the edge of the area while Bryan Kirwan and Ger Beresford were denied by the keeper. In the last minute the home-sters made it 3-1 with a breakaway goal.

P.S. Rumour has it that Mickey H. tried to prove his fitness to manager John Walsh, in a secret location some where in the vicinity of Clonea on Saturday afternoon, but it seems that his footwork let him down!

ENTERTAINMENT

On Thursday night, the club stage the first in a series of fun nights in the Clubhouse. We kick-off this week with a sing-song and crack with Paddy and Bernie Daly and friends. So why not start the Whit Weekend at the Clubhouse on Thursday night.

Don't forget on Sunday night next "Breakaway" make their debut at Kilrush.

CARDS

Last week's winners were as follows — Nora Walsh and Helen O'Grady. Cards as usual at 8.30 p.m. on Saturday night.

MANAGERS

Anyone interested in becoming a manager for the coming season should apply to the secretary in writing immediately.

Dungarvan Sea Angling Club

Our first competition of the year, the Inter-Firms, was held on Sunday last. There was a good turnout and fishing was generally good, with one or two notable exceptions! There were 64 anglers with the total number of fish caught being 193.

The winners were the Traders, John Molloy, Frank O'Byrne, Tony Crowe and Seve Baumann with 505 points. Second was Minnies, Jimmy Maher, John Geary, Johnny Clarke and Eileen Fennell on 295 points. Third was Waterford Foods A team, Con Lane, George Young, Pat O'Donovan and Don O'Connor with 270 points. The best individual was Tony Crowe with 205 points, the best lady Bernie Kenneally with 145 and the skippers prize was won by Seve Baumann.

Our second Fishing Clinic was held on Monday last. There was a good attendance and the master of ceremonies for the night was Tony Crowe, who gave a great performance judging from the number of questions fired at him from the eager audience. His knotting techniques and trace making left some of the not so inexperienced attendance scratching their heads in amazement. Now that some of us know how and why Tony does so well maybe we will catch him in the next competition!

Till then, tight lines!

Abbeyside Shore Angling Club

MUNSTER JUVENILE CHAMPIONSHIP

Amidst the brilliant sunshine, the juveniles were dotted along the wall in Quann's on Saturday evening. They were supported by parents and other family members.

Anglers hailed from clubs such as Aghada, Bishopstown, Celtic and Youghal.

Munster Rep. for the day was Dungarvan man Con Hayes who observed the whole competition. While chatting with other anglers his friendly laugh could be heard from one side of Quann's to the other.

Numbers were a little down on that anticipated but this venue proved excellent for the fish. Twenty-four anglers fished this competition and amongst them we had All-Ireland champion of 1988, Darren O'Leary from Cork.

Results — 1, Johnny Cronin, Ardmore; 2, Eric Crowe, Abbeyside; 3, Aishling O'Leary, Celtic; 4, Aaron Cowming, Abbeyside; 5, Christian Power, Bishopstown; 6, Mark Dunford, Abbeyside; 7, Michael Leahy, Abbeyside; 8, Stephen Flynn, Ardmore; 9, Michael O'Connor, Abbeyside; 10, Craig Cowming, Abbeyside; 11, Mark Crowe, Abbeyside; 12, Stephen Duggan, Youghal; 13, John Dwyer, Abbeyside; 14, Darren O'Leary, Celtic; 15, Donncha Finnegan, Abbeyside.

Twenty-four fish were landed on the evening with a variety of two — 23 eel and 1 flounder. Six clubs were represented: Aghada, Bishopstown, Celtic, Youghal, Ardmore and hosts Abbeyside.

After the competition we retired to the conservatory in Lawlor's where the presentation of prizes was made by Munster Rep. Con Hayes and sponsors of the competition Baumann's. Medals were presented to all anglers in the competition and we have Sev to thank for that.

We have opened up two new prize winning sections for juveniles of which there will be a presentation at the end of the year. First is for greatest variety and second is for the greatest number of fish. So these will be added incentives.

Our friends across the water, Dungarvan, started their fishing on Sunday last. We wish them the best of luck in their new season of fishing.

NEXT

COMPETITION

Saturday, June 9, fishing from 16.00-20.00. Venue: Slob Bank, Youghal. More details next week.

LADIES FOOTBALL

Laois Prove Too Good For Injury-Hit Waterford

LAOIS 4-3 WATERFORD 2-4

An injury hit Waterford team went under to Laois at O'Moore Park, Portlaoise on Sunday last. Played in blazing sunshine, this was a game that Waterford could and should have won. They were guilty of some very poor shooting from play and missed six scorable frees.

Regular free-taker, Marie Crotty was absent due to injury and had she been playing there is little doubt that Waterford would have won. Without her the attack lacked leadership.

This was very much a game of two phases as far as Waterford were concerned. For the first forty minutes they were completely out of touch and trailed by ten points. In the last twenty minutes they completely dominated, scored a goal and two points and missed several chances.

Referee Liam Forde (Galway) had a very poor game and allowed a lot of pulling and dragging which didn't suit the smaller Waterford side. Indeed a Laois defender gave away six frees without having her name taken and some of her tackles were more suited to a different code.

June Whyte opened the scoring with a Waterford point in the second minute, but Laois goaled in their very first attack, Margaret Brennan the scorer. Noreen Walsh was brought down going through and Catriona Casey narrowed the gap with a point from a free. Sue Ramsbottom restored the two point margin with a point from a free, Waterford gave away a soft goal in the 12th minute, a high lobbing ball ending up in the net.

By the 29th minute Laois led 3-4 to 0-2 and Aine Wall narrowed the deficit with a fine solo run and goal on the stroke of half time.

Laois got their fourth goal in the 36th minute, a superb shot by wing forward Niamh McEvoy. Waterford at last woke-up, Catriona Casey shot a point and Fiona Crotty added a goal. By now Waterford were in complete control with Ann Fitzpatrick and Noreen Walsh outstanding. Fiona Crotty scored another point but this was the final score of the game.

While Waterford will be happy with the last twenty minutes, they will have to play for the full hour if they are to succeed at this level.

They have two games left, away to Westmeath and home to Wexford. Victory in either of these games is likely to ensure qualification for the semi-finals.

Team — M. O'Donoghue, A. Dunford, M. O'Ryan, D. Tyrell, R. Byrne, A. Fitzpatrick, S. Walsh, M. O'Ryan, B. Ryan, A. Wall (1-0), C. Casey (0-2), W. Walsh, F. Crotty (1-1), J. Whyte (0-1). G. Ryan.

Clubs are reminded that the county Under-16 team are back training. Last Friday evening the venue was Kill and this week it's Modeligo (7.30 p.m.) and next week at Ballymacarbry. To date just three clubs have been represented and if any other clubs feel they have players worthy of inclusion in this panel, they should bring them to training.

Kill/Na Deise Win Mercy Cup

KILL/NA DEISE 3-6 BALLYMACARBRY 0-7

The group side, Kill/Na Deise, became the second winners of the Mercy Cup when they defeated the holders, Ballymacarbry at the Mill Field on Friday week. Played in ideal conditions it was a superb game and the winners were full value for their victory.

Fiona Crotty gave Ballymac' the lead for the first and only time during the game in the second minute, but Lorena Mooney crashed home the first goal in the 4th minute and Rosanne Ryan added a point in the 5th minute. It was obvious at this early stage that Ballymac' were in trouble as the group side tore into the fray and their blocking down and pressurising of their opponents was a feature of their performance.

Julie Ann Torpey stretched their lead with another point in the 8th minute but remarkably they didn't score again for a full thirty minutes. During the second quarter Ballymacarbry dominated and Natasha Galvin pointed in the 16th minute, Noirin Walsh added another in the 24th minute and Natasha pointed again in the 28th minute. During this period Ballymac' missed a number of good chances which they were to rue.

The half-time score was Kill/Na Deise 1-2 Ballymacarbry 0-4.

Noirin Walsh scored the equalising point in the 32nd minute. The crucial moment occurred in the 38th minute when a Ballymac' attack broke up and Kill/Na Deise broke quickly and when the ball came back off the goalkeeper, Rosanne Ryan crashed it to the net. Natasha Galvin replied with a Ballymac' point before Julie Ann Torpey got the best score of the game, a magnificent point from a difficult angle thirty yards out.

The last ten minutes saw Kill/Na Deise playing some delightful football, to notch the winning scores as Lorena Mooney twice from frees shot points and Rosanne Ryan scored her second goal to clinch a fully deserved victory.

Kill/Na Deise — Rachel Whelan (Kill), Ruth Ahern (Kill), Marcella Foran (Na Deise), Alison Morrissey (Kill), Ann Hearne (Kill), Honor Lonergan (Na Deise), Martha Cahill (Na Deise), Rosemary Fitzgerald (Kill), Olivia Condon (Na Deise), Mary Walsh (Na Deise), Jennifer Coffey (Kill), Sinead Power (Na Deise), Julie A. Torpey (Kill), Lorena Mooney (capt., Kill), Bridget Queally (Na Deise).

Ballymacarbry — Mary Mangan, Catherine Wall, Regina Byrne, Fionnula Ryan, Catherine Hallinan, Cliona Walsh, Maeve Wall, Deirdre Wall, Noirin Walsh, Catriona O'Gorman, Fiona Crotty, Michelle Walsh, Helen Walsh, Natasha Galvin, Claire Ryan.

After the game Sr. Dominic Wall, representing the Mercy Order, presented the cup to the winning captain Lorena Mooney.

Abbeyside/Ballinacourty G.A.A. Club Notes

SENIOR FOOTBALL

We were defeated by Clashmore in the third game of the series last Saturday evening. A very determined fight back from being six points down at half-time to lose by just a single point was agonising, when we should have at least shared the spoils.

ON MUNSTER PANEL

Derek Hayes and Michael Hickey have been selected on the Munster football panel for the I.N.T.O. Mini-Sevens which will take place before the All-Ireland senior semi-finals next August at Croke Park. It's a big honour for the boys, Abbeyside N.S. and the club and no doubt they will do us proud.

COMMUNITY GAMES

Our U-14 squad have qualified for both county finals in hurling and football and will be opposed by Ballymacarbry in both deciders. On this Friday evening the first of the finals take place when we travel to Ballymac' to take on the locals in the hurling final.

U-12 HURLING TOURNAMENT

The juvenile section held another very successful U-12 tournament last Saturday, the third such competition to be held this year. Before the proceedings began Danny Lenihan presented a cup for the competition to Club Chairman, Pat Moore. The prizes for the winning team was a set of togs and socks which were kindly sponsored by the Bank of Ireland and presented to the club by Mr. Michael Smith.

After the presentations the visiting teams, St. Mary's (Clonmel), Na Piar-sigh (Cork) and James Stephens (Kilkenny) were welcomed to the club and the games began shortly after 11 a.m. Following some very exciting hurling, St. Mary's and ourselves qualified for the final.

Expectations were high as we had already defeated the Clonmel side in the 1st round. In a very tense and exciting game St. Mary's emerged victorious by two points and should well thank their goalkeeper for depriving us of at least five goals, which made all the difference between winning and losing. Special thanks to both our sponsors, to our referees L. Power and T. Whelan and Club Chairman Pat Moore, and U-12 selectors Pat Ryan and Larry Cliffe, who worked so hard to make the day such an outstanding success.

BEST WISHES

Best wishes are extended to Ray Moloney and Marie Power on their marriage, and we wish them the best for the future.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Flynn and family on the death of her husband Thomas O Floinn, father of the late Micheal Flynn, who wore the club and county jersey with such distinction over the years.

Sympathy is also extended to Mrs. Waters and family on the death of her husband Monsie. The deceased was always closely involved with hurling in the village and his son Liam was on the Abbeyside team for those epic minor hurling games in 1964.

POSTPONED

Our senior football championship game v. Kilmac-thomas, scheduled for this week-end has been cancelled. All efforts to find a suitable alternative date were unsuccessful and a new date will be made by the fixtures committee at their meeting next Tuesday night.

THURLES BOUND

The club will be very strongly represented in Thurles on Sunday when Waterford take on Cork in both junior and senior championship semi-finals.

We expect to have a particular interest in the junior game through the presence in the Waterford team of Morrie Ferncombe and we wish him the very best of luck if, as expected, he is included in the side.

To Tony Mansfield and his charges too our best wishes will be extended. Cork are always a formidable hurdle to surmount in senior hurling, but the men in white and blue can still emerge triumphant if everyone plays to his full potential.

Our transport manager Jim Mullins has all the coach arrangements finalised, and I suspect if you haven't booked your seat by now you could be in real trouble.

£1,000 WINNER

Congratulations to loyal clubman Kieran Curran on his £1,000 win in the last of our three monthly G.A.A. Co-Op Development Draws in Dunhill last Saturday night.

Incidentally Kieran is entering hospital in Mallow this week for a minor operation and we all wish him well.

Overall the Co-op draw was another very successful one for the club, and our sincere thanks is extended to everyone who supported us. The monies raised will be ploughed into our major programme of development at our new grounds at Youghal Road.

Congratulations to everyone lucky enough to have won prizes. To those who didn't there will always be another day, and at least you can be assured you have the appreciation of everyone in this club.

LATE MONSIE WATERS

To the wife and family of the late William "Monsie" Waters, Murphy Place, Abbeyside, we extend sincerest sympathy on their sad bereavement.

Monsie was a great G.A.A. man and always followed the fortunes of our club avidly. But the link between the Waters family and the club was much more meaningful than that.

Monsie's late brother Jimmy was one of the greatest hurlers ever to pull on the blue jersey and was a tower of strength when we won our last county senior hurling title in 1941. Monsie's own son Liam was also an outstanding minor player but sadly he then emigrated and was a huge loss to us.

Monsie was a most gentle and unassuming man and he will be greatly missed. Ar dheis De go raibh a anam dilis.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

The junior footballers are in championship action on Friday evening at Old Parish when they play Clashmore. We have made an impressive start in this title race and will be expecting to continue the winning run against Clashmore.

We leave for the venue at 6.30 p.m. and will be hoping to be able to select from a full strength panel.

C.B.S. FINALS

It was a night of thrilling hurling action at Fraher Field last Wednesday when the C.B.S. Under-9 and 11 hurling finals were played.

There was a huge attendance on a lovely evening and the standard of hurling matched the occasion. We had some boys of tremendous potential in action and clearly the hurling future of the club is in good hands.

Our sincere thanks to Pat Curran, Tony Ryan and Bro. Farrell for their tremendous work in organising the leagues. They too must have taken immense satisfaction from the magnificence of both finals.

Afterwards the trophies were presented and our club chairman Paddy Fitzgerald congratulated all four teams on providing memorable games. He paid tribute also to the people who organised the leagues, and pledged that the club will always be there to give whatever support it can to its Alma Mater.

For the record the Under-9 final was won by Pdraig Conner's team who defeated Mark Shanahan's team after a great game.

In the Under-11 decider Alan Harty's team took the honours after another thrilling game against Colin Hayes's team.

EXCELLENT HURLING CHALLENGE

Our senior hurlers travelled to New Ross last Friday evening and scored a thrilling 5-12 to 3-16 victory over the local side Geraldine O'Hanrahan's.

The highlight of the hour from our point of view was the tremendous display by Morrie Ferncombe who ended with a personal tally of 2-10.

Our thanks to Geraldine O'Hanrahan's for the challenge and the hospitality. It is our intention to host a second game within the next few weeks.

BINGO NIGHT

We have another of our now every popular big bingo nights at the Friary Hall Theatre on this Friday starting at 8.30 p.m.

Once again there will be in excess of £1,000 in prizemoney and we are looking forward to another full house. See advertisement on the Entertainment Page for all the details.

Stradbally Best In Poor Game

STRADBALLY 0-11 NIRE 0-5

The full time score reflects truthfully Stradbally's dominance over last year's beaten finalists Nire, in this senior football league championship clash played at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last.

It was a poor game and while the strong cross wind made conditions uncomfortable for the players, there could be no excusing the inaccuracy of players from both sides over the hour.

Although Nire were more to blame, particularly near goal, both sets of forwards had nightmare games and chances which should have been put away, were sent wide, sometimes when it should have been easier to be on target.

Stradbally did not have to be at their best to beat a disappointing Nire fifteen. The Reds were, in control for most of the hour and were seldom stretched and were under pressure just briefly in the second half when Nire made a token gesture to get back into the game.

The winners took the lead after just two minutes with a point from Eoin O'Brien and they held this lead to the finish.

They were in total control in the first half and their 0-6 to 0-2 interval lead reflected their superiority over the thirty minute period.

The sides swapped points in the first seven minutes of the second half. Michael Guiry pointed a Nire free in the 41st minute to leave three points between them at 0-7 to 0-4.

They failed to score again until Tony Condon had a point in the 51st minute (their final score). In between Stradbally had points from Pat Curran, Liam O'Brien and Eoin O'Brien. The final score of the game came for Michael O'Brien seven minutes for time leaving Stradbally deserving winners of a rather mediocre contest.

VITAL

While the two points were vital, Stradbally can have no illusions as to their performance in this clash. A 100% improvement will be needed if they hope to go the distance. Nire short several regulars were extremely poor and on their performance on Sunday they could not hope to be in with a chance of qualifying.

Scorers: Stradbally — N. Weldon 0-4, E. O'Brien 0-3; P. Curran 0-2, L. O'Brien and M. O'Brien 0-

MUNSTER HURLING SEMI-FINALS AT THURLES

Waterford Do Battle With Cork In Both

With a complete shut-down ordered for Sunday next in the county, thousands of Waterford supporters will travel to Semple Stadium, Thurles, to see the meeting of old rivals, Waterford and Cork in a game that will determine the opponents of Tipperary/Limerick in the Munster senior final on Sunday, July 5. Our junior game against Cork which will be played as a curtain-raiser, is also a semi-final and the final of this championship is fixed for two weeks later, June 20.

Following our two matches with Cork at the same venue last year and our eventual defeat of Cork in the replay, there is certain to be added interest in this meeting and it would create its own bit of history if we went through three Munster championship matches with Cork without defeat.

Public expectations of our prospects are high and I can understand the concern of the selectors and players about the widespread notion that Cork are 'there for the taking.' This perception of things can be damaging to our chances and remembering the early years of the 'eighties in Thurles against Cork, we have an idea of how foolish it can be to underestimate Cork and overestimate ourselves.

Cork played poorly against Wexford in the national league semi-final replay, but they improved their game for the Kerry clash, which was not seen by everyone as a great achievement in winning. It should be remembered in this case that Cork didn't regard Kerry as a serious threat and their preparation for that game was reasonably light. In this context it must not be forgotten that Kerry beat Clare in a league play-off and our last league meeting with Clare ended in a draw. I do not believe that the prospects of either team can be evaluated by analysing the form book in this way. Cork might not have shown themselves to be the force that they have been in recent times, but I must ask the question about what has Waterford done to sound the alarm bells around Munster in past the ten months or so?

Certainly our form against Dublin — and this was the last real test of the team — in the league quarter final — didn't impress anyone and it is my belief that if we cannot show reasonable improvement on that form, we can wave goodbye to a place in the Munster final again this year.

Cork's Ger Cunningham, Jim Cashman, Teddy O'Sullivan, Denis Walsh, Denis Mulcahy, Finbarr Delaney, Pat Buckley, Kevin Hennessey, Michael Mullins and company have had all the advantage of a championship outing which is sure to have sharpened their skill a bit for this clash. Having lost to us in the replay last year, they no doubt, perceive themselves to be the challengers here and fully intent on reversing the 1989 result.

Waterford selectors because of some injury problems have delayed the selection, but have guaranteed to have it available in plenty of time for publication.

It will see a few changes from the team which played Cork in the replay and they will field without Peter Walsh, Pat Ryan, Anthony Qualter and Gerry Connors. The positioning of the team will ensure that there is as little disruption as possible with the other eleven playing, more or less in the position occupied at Thurles in their last meeting with Cork.

The panel had a full training session at Walsh Park on Sunday and while the injured Seamus Prendergast was seen pucking the ball around, he was not considered fit enough for inclusion on the team. His absence will mean moving Jimmy Beresford back into the corner and bringing Timmy Sheehan on to play in the position the Tallowman occupied very well in the replay against Cork and in the final with Tipperary. Liam O'Connor is fit enough to return and he will operate at centre-half forward with Shane Ahearne being placed on the edge of the square. Many supporters will wonder if this is Ahearne's best position and many hold the view that he is not the type of hurler who will perform best in a confined area. It will not be surprising therefore if we see the Mount Sion man moved further out as the game progresses (if such a move is needed). Daithi Foran also makes a welcome return and it will be interesting to see how this regular defender performs in attack. He did exceptionally well as a forward against Lismore recently and this may have influenced the selectors at the game.

In my book, Cork, despite all that is being said of them, will be the more fancied side and will go into the semi-final as favourites. I cannot imagine it being any other way. But at the same time I like this Waterford team well enough to consider them capable of winning if they play to form, and if things go right for them. Much will depend on their attitude going into the game and they not being too "hyped up." They must play aggressive hurling all the way and in a disciplined way and take every single chance that offers itself during the 70 minutes. Victory would put us into another Munster final — this time against the All-Ireland champions — but for most of us, I believe that beating Cork for the second year on the trot would give us special satisfaction.

JUNIOR GAME

They have been preparing very quietly and have had a couple of good sessions. They changed the personnel on the panel when it was announced that we could play our second best (and which Cork cannot). On Monday night they were due to play Tipperary in a challenge and afterwards to name the team.

Likely to be included are several very well known senior players as well as some good men from the club intermediate sides. These will be Paul Power, Clonea, who is the likely goalkeeper, John Dunford, Colligan, Simon Hennebery, Portlaw, Sean Fitzpatrick, Portlaw, Michael Flanagan, Mount Sion, Pat Connor, Passage, Noelle Kelly, Erin's own, David Power, Mount Sion and others.

I would rate our chances in this one to be reasonably good and if all our eligible players are available, we might fancy our chances of beating Cork. Somewhere along the line someone is going to say that someone on this junior sides was better than someone on the senior side. This might yet be so, but we should remember that they didn't show themselves to be better when they were under trial.

It would give a tremendous boost and prove a great incentive to the seniors if the juniors won — and who can say at this stage, that it won't happen.

Clashmore Pip 'Courty

CLASHMORE 0-8 BALLINACOURTY 0-7

To lose a game by a single point is nearly always a demoralising experience, but to do so after a team has kicked several scoreable balls wide makes the situation all the more disappointing. This was the case with Ballinacourty in their game against Clashmore at Fraher Field on Saturday evening.

The winners having the slight breeze advantage began in fine style and went into a clear 0-5 to 0-0 lead before Ballinacourty had their first score — a point per Jimmy Healy in the 27th minute. Another point was added two minutes later to leave the half time score 0-6 to 0-2 in favour of Clashmore.

On the turnover, Clashmore continued to exert pressure and were the first to score and then added a further point to give them a lead of six, before Ballinacourty roused themselves and began to take control of the game, but too many mishit frees and a number of balls kicked wide proved their undoing and left them trailing by a point at the finish.

Scorers: Clashmore — Ml. Shalloe 0-4; Sean Allen 0-2; John Douris and M. Fenton 0-1 each. Ballinacourty — J. Healy 0-2; G. O'Connor 0-2; T. Organ, J. McGrath and M. Reynolds 0-1 each.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

Ballyduff Club History Launched

The launching of the Ballyduff (West) club history on Thursday night last brought to ten the number of such publications in the county and this being a hard-back publication with fly-leaf cover, it surpasses most of the others in presentation. The history, by Maurice Geary, tells the story of this great club and quite a lot about the local parish and its community in its very interesting and enjoyable 320 pages.

There was a big gathering of club members and friends as well as a panel of distinguished guests who included personalities from different walks of life, but all with a strong GAA attachment, present, to pay well deserved tributes to the author, Maurice, his wife Kathleen and the club, for this really excellent presentation.

The guests included the President of the Association John Dowling and his wife, May; Rev. Bro. Gerard, Melleray, who is now in his 98th year and who made a point of being present to honour Maurice and the club; Dr. Kiely, Cork, who is the only surviving playing member of the 1924 county football champions team; Very Rev. Fr. Mulcahy, P.P.; Eamon Murphy, Chairman, Waterford Co. Board; Jimmy O'Gorman, Chairman, Western Board; Bill McNamara, Chairman, Ballyduff Club.

All of these were among the guests who spoke and paid tributes to the author and club, they having been introduced by Richie Walsh, M.C. for the occasion and who also spoke in glowing terms about the amount of work undertaken by Maurice in producing this history.

Maurice Geary gave an outline of problems, etc., that had to be overcome in producing the book which took about three years. He thanked his wife Kathleen and his family, the many people who had helped in research, the sponsors and he thanked on behalf of the club, the hundreds of great people who had gone before them down through the years in keeping their club alive through thick and thin.

In the book there are forewords by the chairman, Bill McNamara and secretary John Jackson who wrote about the debt of gratitude owed by the club to Maurice, but most of what is in the book is very well summed up by the author himself in his introduction which reads: "This book attempts to chronicle over a hundred years involvement in Gaelic games in the area. The history of Ballyduff GAA is the history of most GAA clubs — a constant battle in the early days for survival, success and failure in the intervening years, but above all, the great satisfaction and enjoyment for those involved at every level and in every capacity since the movement was founded.

"The fact that the GAA club was set up in 1886 and kept in existence since then, was in itself a major achievement, but when we look at the success of this small unit, it is nothing short of a miracle. Ballyduff have won a championship in every grade on both codes at least once — a feat few other clubs have achieved — since its foundation. However, it would be irresponsible to highlight these successful years to the detriment of the relatively unsuccessful ones. This history attempts to pay tribute to the people who kept the flag flying in the lean years and whose contribution was equally important as those who had the good fortune to share in the numerous successes on and off the field. This book therefore celebrates more than a century of service by players, administrators and supporters of our club."

Two years ago when John Jackson told me of the proposed publication I began looking forward to the finished product. I was pleased and privileged to be at the Grand Hotel, Fermoy with so many other interested people on Thursday evening last for this most impressive launching ceremony. Ballyduff Club certainly did themselves and Maurice proud. It was an occasion worthy of a good club.

RESULTS

STRADBALLY ADVANCE

In four hours of football over the week-end no goal was scored and whether this is because of the new rules, exceptionally good defenders or a lot of useless forwards in action, I don't know, but on Sunday I found people to agree with me that goals give added excitement to a game.

In the programme over the week-end, supporters could be excused for wondering why all three games at Dungarvan were played in isolation. We really should have had two games on in the afternoon programme at Fraher Field.

In the lone game here Stradbally played well enough to win well against an understrength Nire team in an enjoyable game. The winners were at full strength while Ger Walsh, Denis Hogan, Brendan Ryan, Ger Coffey and Pat Cooney were missing from the Nire line-up. These will be back later in the season. Going in to the game, Nire had four points and perhaps could afford to drop a couple and still be back for the knock-out stages. Stradbally now have four also, but they have a game in hand.

EXCITING DRAW

Ballinameela 0-6 Geraldines 0-6

Ballinameela did not avail of all their chances here and Geraldines fought back courageously to force a division of the points, in what was an entertaining game, even though the football was of a mediocre standard. There were many exciting moments in the game, which apart from one small altercation near the finish, was sportingly contested.

Ballinameela drew their first game in this championship and Geraldines lost narrowly. It is a competition that remains wide open.

AT LISTOWEL

By all accounts Waterford juniors played very well against Kerry in this semi-final and a five points beating by a county with enormous talent, was certainly nothing to be ashamed of. The attitude and determination of the players gave a very creditable rating to Waterford's overall performance and full credit to all concerned for a really great effort.

This brought to an end our football hopes for another season as we have now been beaten in all four. It is worth noting that in minor we lost by a single point in a replay, we lost by a point to Tipperary in Under-21 at Clonmel, our seniors were down four points at the end of the game against Clare and now we were five points behind in our final game of the season, in junior against Kerry.

All the way we were close, but unfortunately not close enough. Hopefully the hurling story will have a happier ending when we write on it at the end of July.

1989 UNDER-21 FOOTBALL FINAL

Rathgormack Are New Champions

The elusive Under-21 football title is now as far away as ever for Western champions, Kilrossanty who rather surprisingly failed to a better and more eager Rathgormack side in a fine game of football at Fraher Field on last Thursday evening.

Because of their splendid divisional campaign here, we had all strongly fancied their prospects and obviously underestimated the value of Rathgormack's great display against St. Saviours in the Eastern final.

In a close and exciting first half, the sides appeared to be very well matched and the game looked wide open when they finished level at 0-4 each at half time. The second half was altogether different and Rathgormack tagged on 1-4 early on without reply from Kilrossanty. Tom Whelan with a personal total of 2-4 was outstandingly the man of the match and his contribution was a major factor in deciding the destiny of the title for '89.

The final score of 3-12 to 0-14 gives a fair idea of the superiority of the winners who have fourteen of the same team available for the same championship this year.

After the game, county secretary Seamus Grant presented the cup to the winners.

News Bits

The two quarter-finals of the senior league Sargent Cup have been fixed for Tuesday next and both matches, Tallow v. Ballygunner at Dungarvan and Mount Sion v. Dunhill at Walsh Park, should be reasonably good championship indicators. The final of last year's competition remains to be played.

The closure of the Fraher Field for surface treatment is presently under active consideration. The surface is very much the worse for wear because of the awful winter rains and the long dry spell recently has not helped either. A proposal that the field be closed until the county hurling final in September was made at a recent meeting of the County Board, but the suggestion was not given a lot of support.

The present condition of Walsh Park and Dunhill grounds are also a matter of concern and if rain does not come soon, surface treatment will also have to be undertaken in these grounds as well.

Last Saturday night at Cappoquin, too much water became a major problem when referee Jimmy McGrath was forced to call off a junior football tie between the Nire and Shamrocks when the river, in high tide, overflowed the bank and flooded parts of the field at both ends. The flood beat the final whistle by about ten minutes and at the stage at which it was called off the scores were level at 0-5 apiece. Cappoquin is certainly not a very happy hunting ground for Shamrocks.

The new playing rules are taking a time to settle and there is still a small bit of confusion about the implementation of some. During the Waterford/Clare Munster championship games here last month, both referees penalised for 'toe-tapping' the ball when taking a side-line kick. Our own referees apply the rule in the same way. This is not the correct interpretation as 'toe-tapping' the ball for sideline kicks is permitted when it is done outside the sideline. Instructions will be issued to this effect shortly.

Club Games

At the time of writing, there is some uncertainty about the listed programme, but it seems that the following games are definitely on:

KILROSSANTY V. RATHGORMACK

They have yet to meet in the senior football championship, but if the game between them in the under-21 final last week can be relied upon as an indicator, the county champions will have their hands full in trying to beat this up and coming team, who reached the quarter-final stages last year only to be beaten by the Nire.

Rathgormack in their last match beat Ballinacourty by a clear seven points and while they subsequently failed to St. Saviours, they are potentially a dangerous side for Kilrossanty.

The champions defeated Tramore decisively but could only manage to draw with Gaultier in their next game. They are beatable and Rathgormack might be the ones to do just this. At the same time, if the champions are at full strength and play to their best form, they will likely win.

GAULTIER V. SAVIOURS

This is very much a local derby and down in the city it is being regarded as being the outstanding club game of the week-end. A score of 3-6 to 3-4 resulted from their tremendously exciting meeting last year and in the expectation that the contest will be equally as close this time, a big crowd is certain to turn up for the game.

It is one that can go either way. St. Saviours are the slight favourites.

OTHER GAMES

Of the published list of divisional matches the Affane v. Faha intermediate football clash at Fraher Field and the Kilgobinet/Seana Phobal clash at Brickey Park, should prove to be the pick of the programme.

Faha, who beat Geraldines, will find the going a bit tougher against Affane who are expected to win, and Kilgobinet will be more fancied to take the points from their clash with Seana Phobal.

Eire Og may come off best in their junior hurling tie with Melleray at Colligan on Saturday evening.

The Poor Man's Seat In Abbeyside

"The Poor Man's Seat" in Abbeyside is not only an old landmark in the village but a real institution where generations of villagers, elderly, middle-aged and even young, have gathered for generations.

Located at the junction of Strand Side (South) and the Causeway it is a noted focal point where locals meet to sit and discuss various topics of interest and to watch the passing parade coming and going across the Causeway.

Down through the years, just as the generations have passed on, the timber seats too, have fallen into disrepair due to wear and tear and weathering and have had to be replaced from time to time by the Urban Council.

At the adjourned monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last Monday night, Cllr. B. Kyne referred to "The Poor Man's Seat" and to the fact that when an old timber seat there required replacement some years ago, it was replaced by an iron seat but this had then been taken away as it was not very comfortable. The Council had then put a timber seat there but as it only provided room for about four it was too small. Cllr. Kyne pointed out that the old seats were capable of seating up to a dozen and this was what was again wanted.

The Town Clerk, Mr. B. White said that the new timber seats were being made by the Council under a scheme which had been started at the old Garda Barracks. He agreed that they were on the small side but they planned to put two more seats in Abbeyside addition to the one already there and this, he felt, should meet the requirements.

Cllr. Kyne expressed his satisfaction at this.

Fleadh Cheoil Weekend Is Here

This Friday, June 1, at 8.30 p.m., Labhras O Murchu will officially open Fleadh Cheoil Na nDeise 1990 in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan. While the usual music and singing sessions will be an integral part of the Fleadh, special emphasis will be placed on set dancing during the weekend. The set dancing workshops are with Joe Mannix on Saturday and with Connie Ryan on Sunday and Monday.

On Saturday night in the CBS Hall there will be a "sets only" night with the famed Sliabh Luachra box player Johnnie O'Leary. He will be joined by some locals for what should be a mighty night.

TWO CEILIS

There will be two ceilithe in Lawlor's Hotel during the Fleadh — on Friday night with the Ballycoe Band and on Sunday night with Ceoltoiri Phortlairge.

During the weekend notices will be displayed at the Fleadh Office and in Lawlor's Hotel for the information of those who wish to attend any of the organised singing and music sessions. With talented people coming from many places, arrangements will be made so that there will be a choice of venues. For those who follow the competitions, they commence on Saturday morning at 11 a.m. in the Mercy Convent.

Type set and published by the "Dungarvan Leader," O'Connell Street, Dungarvan and registered as the G.P.O. as a newspaper.
