Paul McGrath's Visit To Tallow

14 Weeks Crystal Strike Ends

A dramatic statement issued this Wednesday morning announced the good news that the 14 weeks old strike at Waterford Crystal plants in Waterford City and Dungarvan has ended.

The announcement came at 6 a.m. following a final twelve hour session of negotiations at a Waterford city hotel. The settlement terms provide for the resolution of 8 of the 14 outstanding issues between the parties with the remaining 6 being referred to the Labour Court for adjudication.

It was stated that work at the company's plants in Waterford and Dungarvan would resume on a phased basis as from today with the aim of returning to full production as soon as possible.

TRAFFIC ROUTE LIGHTING AT ABBEYSIDE

CLLR. JACKIE FAHEY, T.D.

Cllr. Jackie Fahey, T.D., at the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council, held in Dungarvan last Monday, proposed a motion asking that proposals be placed before the Minister for the Environment for the provision of traffic route lighting at the Burgery, Abbeyside, Dungarvan.

Speaking to the motion, Deputy Fahey said that there was a need for this lighting as the roadway at the Burgery was very wide and was completely unlit. The area was also thickly populated.

Mr. John O'Flynn, County Engineer, stated that about two years ago, proposals were submitted to the Department for route lighting along the entire length of the new by-pass road and at the Burgery. The Department had deleted certain sections along the by-pass and were not interested in funding work at the Burgery at the time.

Since then, Mr. O'Flynn said that he had again discussed the matter with the Dept. Inspectors, and as a result, he had now asked the ESB to submit three tenders for an extension of the lighting at the Burgery; 1, as far as Duckspool junction; 2, as far as Abbeyside GAA Ground and 3, as far as Tarr's Bridge.

He added that he was at present awaiting these quotations and as soon as he got them, he would forward them to the Department for their observations.

LISMORE DENTAL CLINIC STILL NOT OPEN

The controversial and much discussed matter of the opening of a dental clinic in Lismore was again raised by Cllr. O. Wilkinson at the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council in Dungarvan last Monday when he proposed that the Council call on the Health Board to open the clinic immediately.

Cllr. Wilkinson, in proposing his motion said that several promises had been made about the clinic in the past but up to today it still had not been re-opened. "I do not propose to say any more about it, but to ask that the Council ask the Health Board to re-open the clinic immediately", he said.

Cllr. J. Quirke said that he had been in contact with the Health Board on this matter and had been informed that the money for the repairs to be carried out at the clinic had been allocated and a contractor for the job had been appointed. However, he understood that the contractor was at present engaged in work at Ardkeen Hospital and it didn't look as if he would be available to take on the job at Lismore for some time. "We should ask the Health Board to give the job to some local contractor in Lismore and then it could be done in the next few weeks, that's our only hope", he said.

The motion as proposed was passed.

LISTEN

Isaiah in the first reading is telling his listeners that God's word is like the rain from heaven, which, as you know, is so essential to making things grow. To understand the passage, we must realise that the prophet was speaking to people recovering from the aftermath of their exile. They were so disconsolate with their unhappy lot that they felt God had abandoned them. So, Isaiah is saying, despite your grief and loss, do remember that God would never desert His people. You have His word. Perhaps, we should here borrow from the Gospel reading to get a better understanding of Isaiah. It says, continue to have blind faith in God, and let your lives be an example of resolute and undying trust.

These people had lost their faith in God on account of adversity, and it is much the same in life today. When things go wrong, many turn away from God, and no longer walk with Him. It definitely appears that the power and effectiveness of God's word does depend to some extent on the quality of one's faith. Leave the bag of seed on the shelf, and you will never reap a harvest!

Just for one moment, consider the power of the ordinary word. What you say or others say to you can be helpful and encouraging, but it could also be deadly and destructive. You know how comforting it is to be told: "I have never seen you look so well." And, you know equally well how crushing the bitter word can be. Too, they can be empty, false and misleading. They are after all the recognised means or channels to communicate something, and, when they do not reflect the truth, they are lies. All the Sunday readings are united in inviting us to meditate on the word of God. And, what a contrast one finds, when one considers the way words are uttered and used in everyday life. The practice in business is to say anything that is conducive to a good deal. It is truly, do not say what you think, but think what you say. Whereas, God's word is true. There's no room for wavering. It is clear, direct and comforting. It is good medicine for the ills of man. And, it is a light and a guide for all. No wonder Peter said to Jesus: "you have the words of eternal life." So, the word not only nourishes, but it brings life. It will bring pardon and forgiveness to the sinner and raise him up again.

SECOND READING

St. Paul in the second reading speaks of the imbalance in creation, and he urges his Roman audience not to be despondent over the disorders and the sufferings that will invariably be part of their life. He reminds them that even if their lot is bound up with difficulties, they must hold fast to the truth and not allow themselves to be diverted or thwarted by temporary trials. He tells them that their faithful perseverance is a small price to pay for the glory that God has in store for them. Apart from our being able to utilise our tribulations in God's service, and thereby elevating them to their original role, Paul is indicating that the whole universe, which was to be a help and a joy for man, suffered in man's downfall, and, even though now in travail and often a hindrance to man, the new man by his judicious use is thereby helping the world to fulfil the purpose for which God made it. Paul obviously is encouraging all of us to employ our trials in God's service, and allow them to share in their own liberation. To steady his listeners and to ensure that they would not lose hope, Paul asks them to keep in mind their heavenly reward. And, as if to fill them with greater confidence, he adds, you can trust God. God has promised. And, that He will fulfil. Therefore he says, open your hearts to His word, and you'll be inspired to reach out for the promised glory.

GOSPEL THEME

The main theme of the Gospel is the same as mentioned by Isaiah, namely, heed the word of God, and the inevitable blessing is bound to follow. Jesus paints a beautiful picture of a farmer sowing his seed; and everything in that scene is correct down to the last detail. He compares the fruitfulness of the seed to the effects produced by the word of God on the varying degrees by which the listeners accept it. It is clear when the seed fell on good ground it was fruitful. Likewise, the one who receives the word and understands it, that one will reap a rich harvest. It follows, if the word of God is to produce its effects, it must be heeded.

Each time we go to Holy Mass we hear the word of God, and when the reader proclaims "This is the word of God" we respond "Thanks be to God." The question is, did the reading have any message for us? Or, is our "thanks" an empty expression? The Gospel tells us, the one who hears and understands the word, is the one who bears fruit. And, you may rest assured that that one will reflect what is within him.

Because ecologists are taking a keener interest in promoting preservation of the earth, I feel I should add to my explanation of "creation still retains the hope of being freed." We speak of the four last things, namely, death, judgment, heaven and hell. The scholars say that that does not mean other things may not continue to exist. So, those who struggle to keep the earth healthy would seem to have a case. However, I feel it is only something about which we can do no more than make a conjecture. Indeed, certain signs will precede the last day, and destruction will fall upon the earth, after which, it will in some way be cleansed and restored. To show our respect for God's creation, our motto ought to be Neither Waste Or Devastate.

Memories Of The Old

Forge At Knockanore

The old forge is derelict now. It was in this place that Jack and Dick Foley carried on the business of general blacksmiths and farriers. These men were among the best in the business. It is on record that in a competition for farriers held at Cork Agricultural Show they took first and second places, for which their reward was gold and silver medals.

I spent many happy hours in this place. I am sure at times I was more of a nuisance than a help but these kindly men never seemed to mind. The forge was a kind of Mecca where many met and chatted while they waited for their various jobs to be done. The main business was shoeing horses. There was other complicated work done — wrought iron gates were made to order, farm implements were repaired and many other tasks that involved heating and welding iron. There was no electric power in the rural districts at that time so it is not difficult to understand that work took a lot of time and energy. Some of the work, too, was pretty dangerous. For instance the shoeing of young horses was particularly hazardous. There was extreme danger that a horse might withdraw his leg from the smith's grasp before the nail could be cut. This could inflict serious injury.

July and August was always a busy time when young horses were being prepared for Tallow Horse Fair. The breeding of half-bred horses was a very good source of income for many small farmers in the tough years before the war when cattle prices were at an all time low. The work that I liked best at the forge was the banding of farm cart wheels. This demanded a high degree of expertise. First the wheel was measured by means of a small wheel which was rolled around the circumference of the cart wheel. The small wheel had a single notch in it and the smith counted the number of rotations as he went round and then marked any extra with chalk. He then, having shaped the band iron into a circle, measured it but he always cut the iron so that the band would be slightly smaller than the wheel. The wheelwright would have left a little bit between the fellows so that when the hot iron band was contracting as it cooled it would pull the wheel into shape. When the band was welded it was heated in a circular fire until it was red all over. It was then taken from the fire by means of two tools called "dogs" and carried out to the banding bay on the roadside where it was dropped on to the cart wheel. The cooling process started immediately by throwing water on the full circle. When the wheel was partly cooled it was taken from the bay and rolled into the nearby stream where it was allowed to get cold. There was only one chance to get the band on correctly as when it cooled no amount of hammering would move it without damaging the wood.

DRESSING A CART AXLE

Dressing a cart axle was another job that demanded a lot of skill. This was done by two working in unison — one with a hammer and one with a sledge. The man with the sledge was the one who moulded the red hot iron into shape but he had to work on the directions of the man with the hammer who indicated where he wanted the iron to be struck. The strokes of both the sledge and the hammer were in perfect time and that was nice to hear.

The dark winter evenings were lit up in the forge by an oil lamp — gravity-fed from a container from which a two foot pipe extended to a cradle which when heated vapourised the oil and thus produced a bright flame. Having spent a few hours in the forge I was black from head to toe and my mother was never pleased about that.

There is no sound from the anvil now and Jack and Dick are gone to a place where there is nothing but joy. May they rest in peace.

Death Threats For Fishery Officers - Patrol Boats Slashed

Gardai are investigating damage estimated at £30,000 to two of the newest patrol boats used for fishery inspections by Fishery Officers of the Southern Region Fishery Board which occurred in Carrick-On-Suir last Wednesday night.

The five months old patrol boats valued at £84,000 were housed in a store into which one or more persons broke on Wednesday night and slashed the inflatable hulls of the boats.

At an emergency meeting of the Fishery Board in Carrick-On-Suir on Thursday, the Chairman, Mr. Luke Boyle, said that the manner in which the attack was carried out showed that it was done by a person or persons who knew how to disable the boats.

It was also revealed at the meeting that repeated death threats had been made against Fishery Inspectors Ned Hally and Edward Casey and against members of their families as well.

The fishery officers have been involved in an ongoing "salmon war" against the illegal use of monofilament nets along the south coast for the past two years.

"Wilson Appalled At Damage To Fishery Protection Vessels"

The Minister for the Marine, Mr. John P. Wilson, T.D., in a statement issued on Friday last said that he was appalled at the malicious damage caused to two fishery protection vessels, the property of the Southern Fisheries Board.

These vessels which have been very severely damaged had been purchased only last year at a cost of £80,000 which had been partly financed by EC grants. These boats were used by fishery protection staff to enforce fishery laws in the interests of conserving fish stocks and ensuring a proper balance between the interests of all fishermen.

The Minister described the damaging of these boats as an act of "anarchic thuggery" which would not be tolerated. The Minister has requested his Department and the Central and Regional Fisheries Boards to give every assistance to the Southern Fishery Board to ensure that an effective level of protection service is maintained in the Southern Fisheries Board Region.

Abbeyside Scout Notes

GLENSHELANE WEEKEND

Last weekend, July 6-8, our Saturday Scout section, those going on annual camp, headed to Glenshelane for our last weekend of camping before the big one.

From 6.30 p.m. on, the patrols started to head off in cars. On arrival P.L.'s Benny Flynn, John Paul Cosgrave and Aidan Mullarkey organised their patrols to erect their tents and construct some gadgets.

Friday night saw a couple of activities run by the P.L.'s Michael Sheehan (helping out for the night) and John Paul ran a wide game of whistle sound — follow the noise — after this Benny and Aidan set up a blind adventure trail through the woods and this proved to be very enjoyable.

Saturday morning after breakfast we prepared our lunches and headed off on a long hike which saw us go up the mountains behind Melleray. Mark Stearn, Colin O'Connor and Donnacha Cosgrave found the going tough, but nonetheless enjoyed themselves.

On our way back some of us had a quick dip while part of the return trip proved pretty mucky — ask Brian MacNamara or Paddy O'Dea why.

On return to site after a bit of water fun, we had Mass on site with Fr. Ahearne the celebrant. J. P. Cosgrave and Tomas Walsh did the readings.

After Mass a four course meal was cooked — once the fires got going the cooks did the business — gammon steaks and fresh fish were on the menu while you would be forgiven for thinking you were at Wimbledon as strawberries and cream were also on — ask Colm Fennell for full rundown.

A campfire was run Saturday night with the soccer songs top of the pops —

Sean Kelleher and Liam Moore were in full voice. P. L. Mark Shepherd, as part of his National Scout Award, built a backwood shelter up the woods and along with Brendan Kiersey spent the night in their "new" house.

Sunday morning after a sleep-in (we needed the rest) and breakfast we had a mini world cup, where Liam "Schilaci" Moore and the S.L. "Steve Bull" were two of the top scorers. After lunch and cleaning up Tomas took everyone up to the bridge for water activities. After drying up we hit the trail home.

Our Friday section spent their meeting having a cook night — Patrick Power, Peter Moynihan and Brian O'Mahoney showed their younger counterparts Mark O'Connor, David Shepherd, David Broderick and co., all their cooking skills and experience as a fine meal was enjoyed.

This Friday night is July parade night — both sections and leaders are reminded to be down in full uniform for this week's meeting, as the photos of the patrols for the camp booklet will be taken.

CUB NEWS

A fortnight ago both sections took part in the Regional Father and Son Camp and although the weather was not entirely in our favour, by moving indoors and switching various aspects of the programme, we had a hugely successful camp with everyone taking part in the true spirit of scouting.

At the moment due to holidays we are on our summer break and we will return again in September when the schools re-open. So for now we thank everyone who helped in any way with the cub sections over the year and we look forward to the new 90/91 cub year.

MRS. KATHLEEN COSTIN (nee Desmond)

On Monday, July 2, after a period of ill health that was borne with dignity and fortitude, Mrs. Kathleen Costin, 13 Mitchel Street, Dungarvan, passed away at Dungarvan District Hospital, much to the regret and sadness of her relatives, friends and acquaintances.

Aged 92 years, Kathleen was daughter of the late Cornelius and Ellen Desmond who were well-known in the business circles of our town as they ran a thriving flour milling enterprise at Kiladangan. The old mill today stands as a memorial to this hardworking, industrious and most popular of families. For some years Kathleen was employed at Paddy Crotty's Grocery Store on O'Connell St.

On her marriage to Thomas Costin, she took up residence on Mitchel Street. A quiet, retiring and private person, Kathleen was a model Christian, and a kind and helpful neighbour. She had a special devotion to Our Lady, and was a member of the Children of Mary.

We mourn the passing of Kathleen who had been ill for the past ten months and tender our sympathies to her sister-in-law, Annie, nephew, Joe, nieces, Philomena, Rita and Maureen and her wide circle of relatives and friends.

On Tuesday evening Kathleen's remains were brought to St. Mary's Parish Church. Enroute the cortege passed in prayerful silence outside her residence. Rev. J. Kiely, C.C., blessed and received the remains on arrival at the Church entrance. On Wednesday morning Requiem Mass was offered by Rev. J. Kiely, C.C., who also officiated at the graveside assisted by Rev. J. Gough, O.S.A.

The Lessons were read by Barry Desmond (relative). A large concourse of mourners were present for the graveside service and interment in the family burial ground in St. Mary's. (Funeral arrangements by James Kiely and Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

MR. JIMMY MULCAHY

The death of Mr. Jimmy Mulcahy, Congress Villas, Dungarvan, which occurred over the weekend was the source of much sadness and regret throughout the locality. A member of a well-known and highly respected family, Jimmy's passing in his late seventies was totally unexpected. We sympathise with his family, relatives and friends on their cross of bereavement.

On Monday Jimmy's remains were brought from the Hospital Mortuary to St. Mary's Parish Church and on Tuesday morning the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

Full obituary in next week's issue.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely and Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

MR. JIMMY DEE

MR. JAMES (JIM) CLAXTON

With sadness we write on the passing of Mr. Jim Claxton, Stradbally and formerly of O'Connell Street, Dungarvan, which occurred at his residence on Wednesday, July 4. A keen angler, Jim ran a thriving footwear business in O'Connell St., Dungarvan, for many years. His courteous manner coupled with his excellent service ensured that he enjoyed a wide clientele.

We tender our condolences to wife Mary, sons Jim and George, daughter Mary, relatives and friends.

On Thursday evening Jim's remains were brought to St. James' Church of Ireland in Stradbally. On Friday afternoon funeral service was held for family and friends.

We record with regret the death of Mrs. Bridget (Bridie) O'Brien which occurred unexpectedly at her residence, Main Street, Ardmore, on Saturday, July 7.

Bridie was an extremely popular lady in the Ardmore area and we tender our sympathy to her sorrowing brother William, sister-in-law, nephews, nieces and relatives.

Full obituary in next week's issue.

(Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh and Sons, Undertakers, Cappoquin.)

ARDMORE NOTES

LATE BRIDIE O'BRIEN

It is with great sadness that we write on the death of Mrs. Bridget (Bridie) O'Brien, Main Street, Ardmore. She died peacefully at home on Saturday morning, July 7th, and she was buried in St. Declan's cemetery on Monday morning.

Bridie was a founder member of the local I.C.A. and took a great deal of interest in all things pertaining to Ardmore. Though she had not enjoyed the best of health for some time, she still liked to take part in the arranging of the Communion breakfast, when she loved to see the happy faces of the children enjoying themselves.

Bridie had also worked for Waterford County Council for some time collecting the water rates and she will be sadly missed by all sections of the community.

GET WELL WISHES

Best wishes to Willie Seward, Grange, for a speedy return to health. Also to Frances, Bridget, Kay, Annie and Christine, all patients in Cappagh Hospital.

TOURANEENA NOTES

LADIES FOOTBALL Sliabh gCua 2-2 Ardmore 1-3

We played Ardmore on Saturday night in the first match of the Junior League. We had a very good, fast game with good football being played by both teams. Sliabh gCua opened the scoreline with a brilliant goal by Marie Hickey, followed by a lovely point from a difficult angle by Sinead Power. Towards the end of the first half, Alison Queally put a lovely, well taken point over. In the second half, Ardmore came more into the game and got some lovely points. A lovely goal by Connie Hearne clinched the match for us. So, a well deserved two points puts us on the road towards the final. Our next match will be on Sunday next in Kill. Training on Thursday night at 7.30 p.m. sharp. All players to attend training.

AIB's Connection With West Waterford

AIB Bank's strong connection with West Waterford stretches back to 1830 when it opened a Branch at Dungarvan.

From this beginning AIB Bank has grown with the prosperity of the region and now has long established Branches in West Waterford's major towns at Dungarvan, Lismore, Kilmacthomas and Tallow and Sub Offices at Ballyduff and Cappoquin.

Letters To The Editor

The Editor,
"Dungarvan Leader."
WE ARE CARELESS OF OUR HERITAGE
A Chara,
The old lime-kiln at Ballyquin has gone, not a victim to coastal erosion nor to the march of time, but deliberately destroyed by modern mechanism. This one was on the rocks above Ballyquin Strand and was doing no harm to anybody. J. Quain notes it in his interesting article on

"Lime Kilns of Ardmore and Grange" in the very first number of the Ardmore Journal in 1984. They are, he says, "a memorial to 18th and 19th century agriculture and should be regarded as heritage items."

We should be ashamed of our callousness and indifference. We have very little left of our rural past; the old, well-built farm out-houses are a rarity; farm-houses, thatched and otherwise, are disappearing and being replaced by suburban bungalows; we have a strong aversion to trees; wild flowers are expendable.

At the same time, we like to preserve the myth that Ireland is the last European haven of these values. Such is far from being the case.

I have just returned from a 2815 kms. coach tour Paris to Paris, through parts of France, Germany and Switzerland, where Irish saints, some of them unheard of at home, are still venerated. I took particular note of the profusion of wild flowers in so many places; of the young trees planted by the sides of new roads; of the red-tiled-roofed farmhouses.

If we continue as we are doing, nibbling away at the little things that still bind us to our past (our language above all); being careless of our trees and our wild flowers, we will become a characterless, utterly forgettable, wet, dismal island on the edge of Europe.

Mise le meas,
SIOBHAN LINCOLN
Ardmore.
July 3, 1990.

The Birmingham Six: European Parliament Study Mission

The Legal Affairs Committee of the European Parliament has unanimously decided to authorise its rapporteur, Rinaldo Bontempi (Italy, Left Unity group), to carry out a study mission into the case of the Birmingham Six on its behalf. Mr. Bontempi will visit the UK and establish contact with the Home Secretary, the prison authorities and the prisoners' lawyers with a view to examining the fairness of the conviction of the six Irishmen for the Birmingham pub bombings in 1975. The other aspect of his mission is to look at English procedures for judicial review in the case of new evidence.

While the committee's powers in the area of criminal law are limited in the sense that it is not a fact-finding body, nor does it have supervisory powers over national courts, Mr. Bontempi takes the view that it can investigate cases of possible human rights violation, and that Parliament's role is to ensure that every European citizen can feel protected by a fair system of justice.

His mission stems from a resolution adopted by Parliament on 23 November 1989 which called for a thorough review of the case. It will form the basis of a report to be submitted to the committee.

Water Safety Courses Next Week

Instruction in water safety, swimming and lifesaving organised by the National Safety Council will take place at the following venues during next week from July 16-22:

Dungarvan (Clonea Strand); Ardmore, Lismore, Tramore, Boatstrand and Clonmel (Sandybanks).
Classes are open to the public and details may be had locally at each of the venues.

Mr. John Power, Duffcarrick, Ardmore and Miss Caroline Tutty, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, leaving St. Anne's Church, Colligan, following their recent wedding under an arch of hurleys provided by members of Ardmore G.A.A. Club. Fr. P. Butler, C.C. officiated and the reception was held at Clonea Strand Hotel.

National Lottery Launches Gold Rush

The National Lottery reported sales of almost £80 million over the first six months of this year at the launch of its new instant game called Gold Rush last week.

The new game includes thousands of instant cash prizes and a unique 'Lucky Strike' stub with prizes of new cars, cash prizes of up to £10,000 and extra opportunities to participate directly in the Weekly Grand Prize Game.

Speaking at the launch, National Lottery Director, Ray Bates, said that sales of almost £80 million for the period January to June 1990 represent a 17% increase on the same period last year.

"This steady growth reflects the ongoing public support for National Lottery games. When compared to the growth of 42% for the same period in 1989 over 1988, the current growth is moderate and supports our belief that Irish players continue to play with their heads and not with their hearts," he said.

Ardmore/Grange ICA Notes

Ardmore/Grange ICA held their monthly meeting recently. It was well attended. Mrs. Margaret Conway won the Half Scholarship to An Grianan.

A big "thank you" is in order to those who helped on the day of the First Holy Communion in Ardmore and also to those who helped after the Corpus Christi Procession.

Congratulations to all those who participated in the competitions on Federation Day in Waterford, and a special congratulations to Mrs. Breda O'Brien who came first with her magnificent flower arrangement.

Congratulations also to Mrs. Margaret Leahy who received a Brannra for quilt-making and she also received demonstration bars for rushwork and skin-curing. Our guild came third in the crafts. So well done to everyone.

It pays to be early as we have just learned that the guild won a holiday voucher in the Toyota Irish Country awards due to our early entry submitted to the competition by Mrs. Siobhan Lincoln. Don't forget those tickets in your bags for the 24th July.

Enjoy your holidays. — P.R.O.

"REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS"

Our "Remembering Other Days" photo this week recalls the starting of the Dungarvan Choral Society and the first performance by members of the infant Society in 1961 in the Friary Hall, Dungarvan. With the passing years, the Society widened its horizons by performing excerpts from various musical shows before eventually and very successfully producing its first full-blown 'musical,' something which it has been doing annually since. Included in the picture above with the ladies and gentlemen of the choral group are Mrs. Gertie Morrissey (right front) who has remained the Musical Director of the Society down through the years and Mrs. Mary O'Gorman-Nagle (left front seated at the piano) who was the accompanist.

PENSMAN Takes You Behind The SPOTLIGHT

IT WAS FABULOUS, FANTASTIC AND HISTORIC

For those of us who were fortunate enough to see the marvellous concert televised from Rome on last Saturday night on the eve of the World Cup soccer final, it was, without doubt, pure magic, as the world's three most famous tenors sang their hearts out to a huge, 6,000 strong audience, seated under a full Italian moon in warm, balmy conditions in the ruins of the 3rd century Baths of Caracalla.

The great Luciano Pavarotti, Jose Carreras and Placido Domingo enthralled the audience as well as the millions of T.V. viewers as they took turns at singing famous opera arias and songs from the great musicals before joining together in a medley of popular songs. But it was their rendering of "Nessum Dorma" from Puccini's opera "Turandot", which was the signature tune during the World Cup series as sung by Pavarotti, that brought the house to its feet in a standing ovation.

Among the other outstanding performances by the trio, was the singing of the Neapolitan song "O Sole Mio".

At the end, the crowd demanded three encores from the maestros who seemed as willing as the audience to see the magic of such an enchanted evening remain unbroken.

Never before have three tenors of the calibre of Domingo, Pavarotti and Carreras been seen in concert together and it is hardly likely that we will ever see these three together again singing in such glorious harmony during our lifetimes. It was, for those of us lucky enough to have tuned into the concert, an unforgettable experience and a fabulous, fantastic and historic occasion.

THE NEW £1 COIN

Despite widespread criticism of the new £1 coin, the Central Bank last week turned down a call for its withdrawal. The Bank held the opinion that it was sufficiently different from the 10p coin which was one of the main criticisms levelled against it.

The retail grocers' organisation RGDATA has said that the new coin had created some confusion with customers, but agreed that any coinage changes initially raised such confusion.

However one of the main drawbacks of the new £1 coin, apart from the criticisms of its design and shape, is the new costs it will involve for small businesses especially. These will mean an increase of up to 500 per cent in bank handling charges, compared to the charges in respect of the old £1 notes, which are now being withdrawn from circulation.

Under the old system, Banks charged a 40p handling charge for every £100 lodged or withdrawn, but this has now gone up to £2 per £100 where the £1 coins are concerned.

It is but a further instance of the many charges by the Banks of which the general public know little or nothing.

WATERFORD RIDERS ON IRELAND TEAM

The Kerrygold Dublin Horse Show, organised by the Royal Dublin Society will open on Tuesday next, July 17th and run until Saturday 21st.

Normally the date for the world famous show is the first week in August, but the change of date this year is due to the World Equestrian Games being held in Stockholm in August. The RDS agreed to change the dates so as not to clash with the Games.

Teams representing seven nations; Britain, Federal Republic of Germany, France, Switzerland, Belgium, Italy and Ireland and individual riders from Canada and Ireland will compete in the international showjumping competitions for a prize fund in excess of £122,000 throughout the week.

Friday, July 20 will be Aga Khan day at the Show when the premier event will be the Kerrygold Nations Cup with a prize fund of £20,000 to be divided among the victorious teams with the Aga Khan Trophy and £6,5000 going to the victorious nation. Having won the competition in 1988 and 1989, a third win in a row would give the British team the right to retain the trophy this year.

As happened last year, Co. Waterford people will have more than a passing interest in this year's events as, named as members of the Ireland team are two Co. Waterford men, Captain John Ledingham of Kinsalebeg and Francis Connors of Woodstown. Capt. Ledingham is down to ride "Kilcoltrim" and "Gabhnan", while Francis Connors will ride "Diamond Express" in the various international events in which they will compete during the course of the week.

There will, as usual, be live television coverage on RTE each afternoon of the show.

HERITAGE SITE VANDALISED

The Ballymacarby Correspondent of the "Leader" has drawn our attention to a recent article in the Clonmel "Nationalist" which deals with the widespread vandalism by State and Semi-State bodies of heritage sites up and down the country, with particular reference to such a site at Toureen, Ballymacarby.

Main culprits, according to the article, were the Department of Forestry, whose functions have now been taken over by Coillte. They have been charged with ploughing up or otherwise destroying hillforts, old field systems, megalithic tombs and ancient places, or sites which were part of our national heritage.

Referring to the site at Toureen, Ballymacarby, the article states that in this site overlooking the Nire Valley, "there was an ancient collection of stones, a stone circle, an alignment of other stones and, in the vicinity, some ring forts. Part of the stone circle has now been destroyed through forestry reclamation and plantation and only a few stones remain in the site. Trees have been planted within the site and this can be disruptive of the remainder of the area because the roots undermine what has been left undisturbed of the archaeological remains. There has also been expensive and deep ploughing of the area".

The article then goes on to explain the significance of the site as follows: "The Toureen site was well-known in the locality and it was always regarded locally as an ancient burial place. Its origins and history are lost in antiquity. It is certainly many thousands of years old. It had been preserved by countless generations of people with a certain amount of reverence and respect for the past and, indeed, let it be said, with a certain amount of healthy superstition. People believed that if you interfered with such ancient places that certain ill-luck would follow..."

Pointing out that the site was clearly marked on the Ordnance Survey Map and that it was also listed in the County Plan adopted by Waterford County Council, the article asks if, when the Department of Forestry, now Coillte, acquired land for tree-planting, does any consultation take place with the Planning Authorities which would ensure not only the preservation of areas such as Toureen, but also the preservation or enhancement of views.

It's a good question to which, perhaps, our County Planning Authority might provide the answer.

The Lovely Back Roads Of Dromore

During the past week we read that emigration from Ireland is now running at an annual all-time high total of 46,000. Most of these are young, highly-educated people with university degrees and third-level qualifications who leave the country to take up jobs in far-away places. On leaving they promise to return in a few years but most of them never do. In latter times many people in the middle age bracket have begun to join the younger emigrants in the terrible exodus which, unless it is stopped, will leave us with an Ireland of elderly people and few young children. It's a daunting prospect which appears to be getting little consideration from the Government, probably because it's an easy way out for them in solving our massive unemployment problems.

Our choice of ballad for this week is in keeping with our increasing emigration problem and while "The Lovely Back Roads Of Dromore" is an old ballad, it is as relevant today as it was in the long years gone by when it was first composed. Equally it could, unfortunately, be said to describe the sentiments expressed in any rural parish in Ireland at the present day:

Far over the foaming Atlantic there is many an exile today,
Whose heart is still clinging to Ireland, like the shamrock that grows in the clay,
Ruan had its share of the sorrow, 'tis oftimes we miss them astore,
As they strolled after Mass on the Sundays by the lovely back roads of Dromore.

Those boys they were well educated, endowed with great talents and skill,
And oftimes on Sundays when hurling, their shouts would resound through Porte Hill
"Shall we ever again see our comrades, we're now left behind so heartsore Shall we ever again see the village, the wild woods and glens of Dromore."

In search of an honest existence, our comrades crossed over the foam
And left their poor parents heart-broken, dejected and lonely at home,
We long and we ache for our comrades, the hurling and games are all o'er,
The friends of our boyhood have left us, exiled far away from Dromore.

In the homes when the work was all over, the boys they would meet one and all,
To the field they would march with their hurleys, way down by the churchyard wall,
Although they are far o'er the ocean, there's a place that they love and adore,
Where the fields are all blooming with daisies, by the lovely back roads of Dromore.

Our children, our friends, our companions, no matter wherever they wind,
Will think of the nest in the homeland, the parents, so true, left behind,
They cross once again o'er the ocean and back to that village once more,
To meet with the friends of their boyhood and the lovely back roads of Dromore.

Dungarvan Youth Club Notes

MISS DUNGARVAN 1990

On Thursday night, Minnies hall was filling up fast. The 18 girls competing for the title of Miss Dungarvan 1990 were getting more nervous by the minute.

At a little after 9 p.m. the music began and all the girls paraded down the stairs and to the front of the stage led by Miss Dungarvan 1989, Lorraine Twomey.

One by one the girls went on stage for a few minutes but what seemed to each of them more like a lifetime. After all the girls had been interviewed there was a break during which Mike Daly played some music.

After a short speech by Pat McGrath (Spokesperson for the Youth Club Fundraising Committee), Bob Houston then came on stage and announced the winners. In 3rd place, representing the Ormonde Hotel was Valerie Kiely. In 2nd place, representing Mary Jean's Beauty Salon was Majella Butler and in 1st place, representing Karl's Classic Cut was Judy Veale.

It was a good night enjoyed by all and we wish Judy the best in her year ahead.

DISCO

Wednesday's disco was very good but the turn-out was poor. We hope to see more members at the next disco.

LATE MR. JAMES PRENDERGAST

The news of the demise of Mr. James (Jimmy) Prendergast, Chancellorstown, Clerihan, has caused profound regret to his many friends in Ballymacarbry and the surrounding districts where he was a deservedly popular member of an old established family, highly esteemed among the farming community. A former Chairman of Springmount Co-op Creamery, a position he held for many years, the deceased was a caring neighbour whose outgoing sincere nature endeared him to all who were privileged to make his acquaintance. Many now grieve for the void his demise leaves.

On Sunday evening his remains were removed from Condon's Funeral Parlor, Clonmel to St. Michael's Church, Clerihan, followed by a large and representative concourse of sympathisers, indicating the esteem and high regard in which the deceased was held. Requiem Mass was offered for the repose of his soul on Monday after which the funeral took place to St. Mary's Cemetery, Newcastle, where a friend of the people was laid to rest.

Sympathy is extended to his wife and family, to his sister and other relatives on their sad loss.

LATE MR. MICHAEL MAHER

Sadly we record the death which took place at Melview Nursing Home, Clonmel of Mr. Michael Maher, Clonacody, Ardfinnan. His death has cast a gloom over the district where he was a most popular person, a neighbour of the highest degree and a friend to one and all.

On Sunday evening his remains were removed to Grange Parish Church followed by a large and representative cortege. Requiem Mass was offered for the repose of his soul after which the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To his nephews and nieces we convey our sympathy.

LATE MR. EDMOND TIERNEY

Widespread regret has been occasioned by the death which took place at the General Hospital, Wexford, following an accident of Mr. Edmond (Ted) Tierney, Belfield Road, Enniscorthy, Co. Wexford.

Deceased was a member of the staff of the E.S.B. for many years. He was eldest son of the late Dick and Alice Tierney, John's Hill, Waterford and formerly of Newtown and Curtiswood, Ballymacarbry.

The Tierney family for generations have been attached to the Ambulance Service of the South Eastern Health Board. Sympathisers from many parts were present when his remains were removed to St. Aidan's Cathedral, Enniscorthy and at the interment which took place in St. Mary's Cemetery after Requiem Mass.

To his wife Mary and his family, his brothers and sister, we tender the sympathy of the Ballymacarbry district in their sad loss.

SYMPATHY

The sympathy of the district is extended to Mr. Roger McCarthy, Knockaunbrandaun, Ballymacarbry, on the death of his sister, Mary Bridget Power, Kilcannon, Cappagh, which occurred recently.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

SYMPATHY

Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Colette Foley, Monatrea, Kinsalebeg, on the death of her mother, Mrs. Peg O'Sullivan, O'Reilly's Tee., Youghal during the week. Mrs. O'Sullivan was also a relative of the Dee family, Clashmore, to whom sympathy is also extended.

ENGAGED

Warmest congratulations to Anthony Lombard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eamonn Lombard, Ballyheeneey, Clashmore on the occasion of his engagement to Miss Fiona Doyle, Ardsallagh, Youghal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Doyle.

DEATH OF MRS BRIDGET O'BRIEN

Her many friends in Clashmore and Kinsalebeg were shocked to hear of the unexpected death of Bridie O'Brien, Main St., Ardmore, on Saturday morning last. Though in her senior years she was always full of life and kept busy. She was involved in many clubs and organisations and she was a regular pilgrim on the many pilgrimages from this area to places at home and abroad. She had a very active interest in the community in general and she will be greatly missed by everyone.

Her remains were taken to Ardmore Church on Sunday evening and following Requiem Mass on Monday, burial took place in St. Declan's cemetery.

Our deepest sympathy to her brother and all her relatives and friends.

21ST BIRTHDAY

Miss Fiona Doyle,

Ardsallagh, Clashmore, celebrated her 21st birthday last weekend. Fiona is a very popular employee of the L&N Supermarket in Youghal. Warmest congratulations and every good wish is extended to you Fiona from all your friends.

AID CANCER TREATMENT

Despite the exceptionally wet, miserable conditions on Friday last, all the collectors turned up and braved the weather conditions to collect for Aid Cancer Treatment in Youghal Town. The collection was organised by the Clashmore branch. The total amount collected was £936.04 which was a wonderful achievement. The Chairman and committee would like to thank all the collectors and all who contributed to the collection, making it a wonderful success.

DRAUGHTS

TALLOW NOTES

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

On Sunday next, we play Portlaw in our last league match of the Senior Championship. We will have to line out without three of our players, who are going on holiday the previous night. Only an all out effort on Sunday will see us safely through, so let's give it a real go and we know that whoever replaces Martin Murphy, Paul Curley and Tomas McCarthy wont be found wanting on the day.

Our U.12's hurlers had a great start to their championship of Friday night last, when they beat St. Oliver's by 4-5 to 0-0. We play Cappoquin on Saturday at 12 noon in Tallow.

U.16 hurling championship, Naomh Brid 4-10, Tallow 0-2. Our U.16's suffered a heavy defeat at the hands of Naomh Brid in Tallow on Monday night last. We play Fourmilewater on Monday night next in Fourmilewater at 7.30. All players to be at the Square at 6.30 sharp. An important club meeting will take place in the Hotel on this Thursday night, 12 July at 9.15 p.m. All committee members please note.

BRIDE VIEW UTD AFC NOTES

A GREAT DAY FOR TALLOW

Thursday 5th July will long remain a memory for Tallow. Why? It was the day Paul McGrath came to Tallow. It was an occasion to remember. The people of Tallow and surrounding areas just couldn't believe it. But it was a dream come true.

Paul, voted the best player of Ireland's squad during "Italia '90" was really in Tallow. A Garda escort brought Paul to the hotel, where a huge crowd had gathered. Paul met Tom McCarthy (Mick's uncle), Billy Kyne (Chairman of Waterford County Council) Paddy Pollard (Chairman of the Red House League), Michael O'Leary (Main Sponsor of the Red House League), Willie McDonnell (local Fine Gael Councillor) and a host of other people.

Paul was delighted with his meal, which was served up by the staff of the Devonshire Arms Hotel. Well done folks. Where the cameras came from, nobody knows but everyone seemed to have one.

From the hotel, Paul went to the A.I.B. where Manager Michael Fives laid on a champagne party, and there was no shortage of takers. Well done A.I.B. Manager and staff.

At this stage the kids were getting restless in the Community Centre and Paul received a huge cheer when he entered the Centre. Here he signed hundreds of autographs and had to smile for the big crowd of people who came prepared with their cameras.

Numerous calls came to the club for all sorts of requests. But the one that seemed to get most attention was from the Matron of the Dungarvan District Hospital, Nurse Anglesey. One of Ireland's biggest fans, Michael Spillane (confined to bed) wanted to meet Paul. Paul jumped to this request and the delight on Michael's face had to be seen to be believed when Paul popped in. The hug and hand-shake lasted a long time. Well done Matron and staff.

Paul also made a brief stop at the Bank of Ireland, Lismore, where a big crowd gathered in the space of minutes.

For the local soccer club it was a huge undertaking. Not everyone was happy, but then it was impossible to please everyone, due to the short stay of Paul in Tallow.

THANKS

The club have so many people to thank, who helped make this day such a success, but we hope we will leave nobody out. Sean O'Brien (Seaview Celtic), the local publicans, the A.I.B., the lads in the club who didn't even get to meet Paul, Frankie Ryan (Butcher), the Community Hall Committee, especially Tom Mulcahy, the Gardai under Sergeant Boylan, the staff of the Devonshire Arms and you, the people who came out to welcome Paul in such large numbers. There were other people who helped out aswell. Many of these people had no connection with the club but who came forward when asked to do so. A big thank you one and all, not forgetting the lads from Lismore, Inch and Glenview.

How can we follow this? That's the question, and there is only one answer, and that's to get the Ireland captain (a Tallow man) Mick McCarthy to Tallow. Watch this space!

To the staff of this paper we say a big thank you. Well done Colm, as usual.

VISITORS FROM LUTON

A local club from Luton will pay a visit to Tallow next weekend. They will play the local club on this Friday evening. Kick-off at 7.30.

WATERFORD VISITORS

Bolton from Waterford city will bring an U.18 side to Tallow on Friday, July 20th. Kick off at 7.30.

Don't forget to look after houseplants

By Pete Moss

GET out and enjoy the garden as much as possible now that everything is blooming but don't forget the plants indoors that cheered you through winter.

For now is the best time to increase your stock of houseplants, saving pounds on buying new and allowing you to pass on or swap the surplus with friends and relatives.

Some varieties, such as Chlorophytum or Spider Plant, make it easy by producing baby plants on stems, simply needing to be pegged down in a pot of compost and cut free when rooted.

Pegging can also be used on runners from climbing or trailing varieties, such as Ivy. The connection with the mother plant can be cut once they are established through this process, known as layering.

Attached

Other plants such as cacti and succulents produce off-sets - small shoots or bulbs attached to the parent but easily cut away for potting up.

Some cacti or succulents can be propagated in another way, by carefully severing a leaf or pad and allowing it to dry for a few days before planting.

Yet another method can be used on plants growing in clumps, such as African Violets, by carefully splitting the plant in a procedure known as division.

Cuttings are highly productive and varieties such as Busy Lizzie and Wandering Jew (Tradescantia) will root by simply standing in water, much to the fascination of children.

When taking cuttings, pick a stout non-flowering shoot and cut straight across 3-6 inches from the tip, using a sharp edge such as a Stanley knife.

Carefully strip the lower half of the shoot and if the plant is woody, as in the case of Fuchsias, then dip the cut end in hormone rooting powder.

Making more of ageing specimen plants such as Swiss Cheese Plants (Monstera), Philodendron, Dracaena and Rubber Trees (Ficus) is often the reason for using another method of propagation.

Circular

Such plants tend to grow lanky and shed lower leaves, but they can be transformed by air layering. Make a circular cut around the stem a couple of feet from the plant tip and then another, half an inch lower.

Strip the bark from between the two and paint this with rooting powder before enclosing the wound with polythene, loosely filled with sphagnum moss below the cut.

The bag should bulge around the cut but be caught tight above and below it. After a month or so you will see roots entwining the moss, allowing the plant to be severed below the bag.

The well foliated head can be planted up while the stump will shoot again - two new plants from one old one!

Dungarvan Show Will Be A Very Special Event

The annual Dungarvan Show scheduled for Thursday, August 2, in Springmount, Dungarvan promises to be a bumper event. Increased prizemoney, generous sponsorship, additional classes and expanded Home Industries section make this year's Show a very special event.

A very welcome and much appreciated feature in the Horse section is that all the classes have been sponsored. John Foley, Campus Garage, Kilrush sponsors the Champion and Reserve Ridden Hunter of the show to the tune of £200, while Golden Pages are again sponsoring the 2-year-old Filly championship which carries a prize fund of £1,000. In the Broodmare section, the much coveted Dungarvan Observer Cup will be keenly contested.

In the Cattle Section, Waterford Foods plc are once again generously sponsoring the Super Cow Class which was such a success last year. With the inclusion of the Waterford Express (formerly Premier) area, this class promises to be even bigger and better this year.

In the Sheep section, the Boolattin Cup, kindly presented by Mr. Tom Power, is the supreme award, and, as in previous years, a big entry is expected.

HOME INDUSTRIES SECTION

The Home Industries Committee have been very busy this year. All the usual classes are included in the prize list, and, the children are catered for with a special Art Competition. The theme of the competition is "A Day at the Show" and entries should be submitted (no entry form required) on or before Thursday, July 26, to the Show Secretary, Mrs. Nancy Condon, Kilrush, Dungarvan.

This year's flower show also promises to be outstanding and spectacular.

In the Show Jumping arena, the feature event is the AIB Grade A, B and C Open. Other competitions include Grade C and D Horses, Grade E Horses, the Gain Grade A and B Pony Championship, and this is an event which has always attracted a huge interest.

So, remember, Thursday, August 2. Make a visit to Springmount, where there is something for everybody at Dungarvan Show.

BREAK OUT THE BARBECUE!

BREAK out the barbecue and enjoy an al fresco summer feast!

If last year's sizzling weather is anything to go by, there's bound to be ample opportunity to enjoy a patio party or back garden get-together around the barbecue.

The word barbecue means to cook a whole animal over a direct heat and comes from the French barbe a queue (beard to tail) - a method of cooking that goes back to Biblical times.

Barbecues today are very easy to use and lots of fun. They can be kept simple with sausages and burgers, or with a little more effort can be turned into gourmet affairs.

Whatever the choice of food, a good marinade is a must to tenderise the meat and poultry and to add flavour.

A barbecue should be relaxed and informal, but certain safety rules should be applied to ensure an enjoyable time is had by all.

Try these recipes for marinade and basting sauce.

Marinade

Ingredients:
4 tablespoons white wine vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
8fl oz olive oil
Choice of parsley, thyme, oregano, tarragon, citrus juice, honey, Worcestershire sauce, soy sauce or crushed garlic.

Method:

Mix together the white wine vinegar, seasoning and mustard. Gradually add the oil until well combined and smooth. Add choice of herbs, juices and sauces.

Sauce for basting

Ingredients:
1 tablespoon each of clear honey, soy sauce, Worcestershire sauce

Barbecues are just the thing for lazy days in the sun, using the best of fresh meat and fish.

3 tablespoons ketchup
2 teaspoons mustard
crushed garlic clove (optional)
pinch each of cayenne or cinnamon

Method

Blend ingredients thoroughly and use to baste meat while cooking.

These barbecue tips will help even the novice barbecue chef to come up with mouth-watering menus.

- Wait until the flames subside before cooking, or the food will be charred on the outside but not cooked through.
- Use only prime and tender cuts of meat as the barbecue cooks very quickly.
- Cook frozen vegetables on the barbecue, wrapped in foil.
- To promote rapid exchange of flavours marinate at room temperature.
- Take care when cooking fish that it does not dry out.

Choose small, whole, oily fish such as trout.

• When making fish kebabs, start and finish with something firm like a small shallot so that the ingredients are held firmly in place.

• Corn on the cob can be barbecued in various ways. Place on foil, add a tablespoon of water or a knob of butter. Wrap the foil tightly and place in coals for 15-20 minutes. Alternatively, wrap bacon around the corn and cook on barbecue grill, turning frequently for 15-20 minutes or until bacon is crisp.

• Speed up the cooking time of the jacket potatoes by part boiling first. Wrap each potato tightly in foil place among hot coals, turning frequently.

And if you follow these basic safety rules, your barbecue party will be accident-free.

Ensure the barbecue is stable and, if home-made, that it is built of sturdy material.

Site the barbecue on a flat surface, out of the wind and away from shrubbery.

Some barbecues use only certain types of fuel. Follow the maker's instructions.

Have a water spray or bucket of sand close by in case of fire.

Use long-handled tongs and a spatula when turning food.

Keep children away from the barbecue.

Prick sausages to prevent bursting and cut any excess fat from meat. To avoid food sticking to the grill, rub a little oil on the bars before cooking.

Never pour inflammable liquid on the fire, and once the fuel is lit, leave for 30-35 minutes before cooking.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

PUBLIC TOILETS

The lack of Public Toilets in the town was brought home to us on a recent Sunday afternoon when a coach load from Co. Kerry stopped, seeking such a convenience. The public houses (usually accommodating in these matters), having to obey the Licensing Laws, were closed. This was only one of many such incidents which occur during the year.

The problem is an ongoing one, and we are aware that local County Councillors, J. A. Walsh and Ollie Wilkinson have raised the matter with Waterford Co. Council on many occasions, only to be told that the money is not available.

It is hardly the prerogative of this column to suggest how the project should be funded, but we do state that the need is urgent. Our town deserves to be on a par with other locations in the Country. We would appeal to the powers that be, to give the matter their most serious consideration. We would ask those elected to represent us in whichever forum to redouble their efforts and perhaps before the year is out a start at least will have been made.

AT THE SPORTSFIELD

A very small crowd turned up on Saturday evening for the Senior Hurling Championships clash of Ballyduff v Fourmilewater. Maybe people were forewarned, as it turned out to be very one-sided with the Reds running out easy winners. Final Score:- Ballyduff 3-22 — Fourmilewater 1-7.

Referee: J. J. Landers (Cappoquin/Affane).

Probably the most entertaining game so far this season took place on Sunday afternoon with the Junior Hurling Championship clash of Ballysaggart and Ardmore. Both teams gave of their very best. There were some great scores and great individual performances, for instance, John Hennessey of Ardmore belied his years with a display at centre-back, the likes of which is very rarely seen in this grade, but lucky for Ballysaggart they still have Pat Bennett who has inspired them to many a victory and almost did again last Sunday but the result was a draw.

Final score:- Ballysaggart 4-6 — Ardmore 2-14.

Referee:- J. J. Landers (Cappoquin/Affane).

PTAA TOUR

Saturday 30th June saw us high-tail it for the West of Ireland to Galway and Connemara. Despite the odd shower, we managed to stay ahead of the rain and enjoyed beautiful sunshine in Galway. After morning refreshments in Ennis and our shopping stop in Galway City, our tour took us west to Connemara. We ventured as far as Kylemore Abbey in the idyllic setting in the remote west, taking in the local scenery en route and getting a running commentary on places of historical interest from Anne, our resident courier.

We ventured back via An Spideal and made it back to Ennis in time for a lovely evening meal. We did, of course, manage to take in the Ireland v Italy match, before singing all the way home. Our thanks to the Pioneer Council for organising the tour and the meals, and to Bus Eireann for a splendid coach and driver. To Anne, our courier and to all who entertained us on the way home, we say thank you, and finally, to all our faithful passengers, who enjoyed the tour. We hope to have the pleasure of your company again next year, wherever we may go!

DAY CARE CENTRE

Cappoquin and District Day Care Centre committee would like to thank all the people who collected the non-stop draw money and also everyone who contributed to the draw. £6060 was collected and £3000 was given in prizes, £150 each week for the 20 weeks, leaving us with £3060 to go towards building the centre. Thanks again, it was a great effort by everyone. A list of prize winners will be put up in T. Feerick's window.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Congratulations to Michael and Breda Doherty, Allen Street, Cappoquin, who celebrate their 30th Wedding Anniversary on July 13th, 1990. Wishing them many more happy years together.

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES U.12 HURLING

Our under 12 hurling team is making good progress in the Championship at present. In their first game, they proved far too good for St. Oliver's in all departments and recorded a facile victory. This was a great start for these youngsters, who are just learning the skill of the caman.

Last Friday night's match versus Naomh Brid was a different ball game, as we went into an early lead. We missed a lot of scoring chances after that and Naomh Brid put a few scores on the board, which gave them a new lease of life and our defence had to withstand fierce pressure. However, following a few astute switches, the locals found their feet again, to rattle the net with some good goals and a few well taken points to leave the final score: Cappoquin 4-9 — Naomh Brid 2-2. Team: D. Fraher, P. Keniry, E. McGrath, N. Maher, M. Murphy, P. Scanlon, W. Fraher, N. McGrath, D. Wilkinson, G. Arrigan, J. Manahan, T. Scanlon, S. Scanlon, A. Barry, I. Millea. Subs: P. Lacey for A. Barry and D. Coughlan for S. Scanlon.

The next game on the programme will be against old rivals, Tallow, on a date to be arranged.

INJURED

We wish a speedy recovery to Brian Hennessey, who received a facial injury in last Sunday's S.H.C.

match, which required five stitches.

S.H.C. V PORTLAW Portlaw 3-14 Cappoquin 2-6

Never mind that score-line, the reality here was a much improved display from our team, who hurled with spirit and determination from the outset. In fact the end result should have been much closer, as some poor marksmanship and the woodwork denied us further scores. We also had the misfortune to lose Brian Hennessey (who had been hurling well) with a nasty facial injury. This incident went unpunished and the culprit made a series of late dangerous pulls, but got away with it.

It was great to see the "elder statesmen" on the team, Miceal Phelan, Pat Curran, Brian and Fintan Murray, leading by example and the younger lads responded in kind. Goal-keeper Eddie McGrath was also inspirational with some saves out of the top drawer. As is always the case when a team goes through a bad patch, Lady Luck fails to smile on you, but all credit to all for a fine team performance. Team: E. McGrath, F. Murray, K. O'Reilly, J. Buckley, S. Costin, S. McCarthy, D. Cummins, B. Murray, P. Curran, T. Mansfield, M. Phelan, B. Hennessey, M. Brackett, S. Fraher, M. Power. Subs: Jimmy Collender and Garry Morrissey.

GATE COLLECTORS

On gate duty this week 8th to 14th July are D. McGrath, J. Fraher and K. Veale. Gate collectors for next week 15th to 21st July will be J. McGrath, T. McCarthy and M. Croke.

ROMANIA RELIEF

My sincerest thanks to everyone who contributed in any way to this worthy cause.

A special word of thanks to the children and teachers of the following areas, Ballinameela, Villierstown, Lismore, Tallow and Cappoquin, who were very generous in giving their toys and books.

On behalf of Romania's forgotten children, "Thank You". — Betty Kelleher.

ROWING

CAPPOQUIN'S SCINTILLATING PERFORMANCE AT HENLEY REGATTA

Cappoquin brothers Pat and Michael Murray, together with Pat Peilow, Finbarr Heas and Cox, Brendan Rose from Cork, set the Mecca of the rowing world, Henley Royal Regatta, alight with some scintillating rowing last week, when they took on and beat the best rowing crews in England, in the Britannia Cup for coxed fours. This marvellous crew joined the elite of world rowing in participating in the greatest event in the world of rowing, the final day of Henley, an achievement enjoyed by very few Irish crews in the one hundred and fifty year history of this famed Regatta. The irony on this occasion was that they had to do battle with another great Irish crew, University College Galway, who also had accounted for many fancied crews on their way to the final.

An estimated sixty crews entered for the Britannia cup and after the preliminary rounds thirty - two crews were left in the competition proper and Cappoquin drew No.1 seeds Robrom Rowing Club which includes Cambridge Blues. Eyebrows were raised when the dark blue of Cappoquin crossed the finishing line two and a half lengths clear, completely upsetting the form book.

When Cappoquin accounted for a strong City of Cambridge crew in the next round by two and two thirds lengths, this unknown club from Ireland had made its mark. So far so good for the Irish lads, but they were really up against it, facing seeded University of London in the Quarter-finals on Friday. Again Cappoquin showed scant regard for the form book and beat the London students who had earlier this year, beaten the boat race crews, Oxford and Cambridge, as part of the University of London eight. Cappoquin were now in the semi-finals against Nottingham and Union, with all international oarsmen on board. This race turned out to be a battle royal from start to finish, with Cappoquin putting on a final surge coming into the enclosure to win by two thirds of a length.

THE FINAL

Unbelievably, Cappoquin were in the final on the same day as final day in Wimbledon and the World Cup in Rome. The crew's thoughts were far from soccer or tennis as they lined up beside their fellow Irishmen, U.C.G., who were equally impressive on their march to the final. Both crews had met twice this year, in Limerick and Metropolitan Regattas, with the verdict going to the students on both occasions by two feet and one foot respectively, so the scene was set for an engrossing encounter.

Two of the Galway crew had tasted success when U.C.G. won the Thames Cup for eights in 1987 and started the race as slight favourites.

The conditions were rough and only two of the previous eight finals were won on the enclosure station which Cappoquin drew.

For the first quarter of the race nothing separated the two crews. Coming past the 'Island' a squall struck and cox, Rose, had to apply the tiller to keep the Cappoquin crew on course. This upset their momentum and U.C.G. took advantage by a half a length. Again and again, Rose tillered to keep his boat off the booms with disastrous consequences as U.C.G. surged to a length lead which they stretched to a two length verdict at the finish.

This gallant Cappoquin crew, though they lost the final, thrilled the large Irish following in Henley and brought great honour to their club and Country in the greatest of all Regattas.

We are rightly proud of them.

Ballysaggart Notes

G.A.A. NOTES: JUNIOR HURLING Ballysaggart 4-8 Ardmore 2-14

Our junior hurlers maintained their unbeaten record in Cappoquin on Sunday last when we just held out for a draw with Ardmore. We had the advantage of the near gale force wind in the first half and led by just a goal, 2-6 to 1-6. The second half was end to end stuff and in the end a draw was the fairest result.

CARDS

Last week's results are as follows — 1st Kathleen Coleman and Peg Morrissey; 2nd/3rd divided between, Moss Morrissey and James Dalton, Joe and Cissie Power, John Kenefick and John Daly, Pad Walsh and James Hyland. Lucky Tables — Bill Kenefick and Catherine Browne, Dan Howard and Finola Hynes, John and Joan Bennett. Raffle — Nellie Devine, Mick Daly, Mary Kenefick and Kieran Fenton.

O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendour of

for us who have recourse to thee

Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days.

The lonely way you had to die

You seem to smile and say
Don't be sad but courage take
And love each other for my sake.
We want to tell you something Francis
So there won't be any doubt,
You're so wonderful to think of
But so hard to be without.

O Lord it has been so lonely,
So heart-breaking and so sad,
But we'll never forget to thank you
For the wonderful brother we had,
So Lord be always near him,
And hear him when he calls,
And light the star above his grave,
When evening shadows fall.
(Sadly missed always by Pat, Teen and Dick in London.)

REYNOLDS — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear brother Francis (Franny), late of 24 McCarthyville, Abbeyside, who died on July 18, 1988. Sweet Jesus have mercy on him.

To us you were someone special
We miss you every day,
But the saddest day in all our lives
Was the day you passed away,
We think of you in silence
And always speak your name,
But all we have are memories
And a picture in a frame.
As we wonder to your grave-side
And flowers there we lay,
No one knows the heartaches
As we turn and walk away,
Every day we think of you
And think of how you died,
We wish we could have said goodbye
Before you closed your eyes.
(Always remembered by Tommy, Ber and Jason.)

ROCHE — Ninth Anniversary — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Nora Roche, late of Loskeran, Old Parish, who died on July 13, 1981. Mass offered.

Then suddenly God called her,
There was so much unsaid,
No second chance to say thanks,
For everything she'd done,
We never will forget her,
For she made us what we are,
Though she may be gone,
Memories linger on,
And we will always miss our dear Mam.
(Always remembered by her loving husband Paddy and daughters Brid and Geraldine.)

ROCHE — Ninth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Nora Roche, late of Loskeran, Old Parish, who died on July 13, 1981.

We smile behind our heartache,
As you would want us to,
And when we shed the lonely tears,
No one sees but you.
A million happy memories,
Can't ease our broken hearts,
On the day God took you,
Mam,
Our world just fell apart.
(Sadly missed and always remembered by your loving daughter Ann, son-in-law Patsy, grandchildren Micheal, Noreen, Sharon.)

ROCHE — Ninth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mam, Nora Roche, late of Loskeran, Old Parish, who died on July 13, 1981.

As down the road of memories,
I gently tread to-day,
My thoughts are with you Mam,
As life goes on its way.
Time may heal the heartaches,
Like the smile that hides the tears,
But happy memories keep you close,
Despite each passing year.
(Sadly missed and always remembered by your loving daughter Nora, son-in-law Pat, grandchildren Pat, Sonya, Micheal.)

WHELAN — Sixth Anniversary — In loving memory of Nonie Whelan, Dungarvan, who died on July 10, 1984.

A mother's love is something
That no one can explain,
It's made of deep devotion,
Of sacrifice and pain.
A mother's love is all of these things,
It's the greatest treasure known,
And the greatest mother in all the world,
Is the one I called my own.
(Never forgotten by her loving daughter Cait.)

LISMORE NOTES

LISMORE COMMUNITY FESTIVAL

(August 3rd to 12th)

With less than four weeks to go to the opening of the festival, things are beginning to hot up in the contest for the election of Lismore's first Lord Mayor. The three candidates are hard at work and are leaving no stone unturned in their efforts to gain support.

The programme has been finalised and should be back from the printers within a week. It is one which caters for all age groups and tastes and we are hoping for your support for all the events throughout the festival.

Included in the programme are fancy dress, 1st time unisex hurling, athletics, busking, pavement artistry, young entertainer on stage, treasure hunt for children and soap box derby. We would ask all those who intend to participate in the soap box derby to get their vehicles tuned up and start training immediately, as time is running short. The age groups are (10-12) and (12-15) years. Protective head-gear must be worn.

It would add to the gaiety of the Festival if flags and bunting could be displayed by as many houses and premises as possible, so we would be very thankful if you would get them ready for the big event.

We will keep you posted weekly on the run up to the Festival, and posters giving details of all the events will be on display within a week, so here's hoping for your continued generous support which is very much appreciated at all times.

WORLD CUP REVIEW

It's all over now - and while many may say thank God, the 1990 World Cup confirmed Ireland's arrival on the World football stage and created an unprecedented following for our team in what many people feel was Ireland's greatest sporting adventure.

Other consequences were how the supporters and journalists reacted to this adventure which in the case of Eamon Dunphy almost became a national incident. There were problems with Travel and especially tickets, thanks to the host country's attitude to market forces. Thankfully, the F.A.I. and a timely and important intervention by the Minister for Sport, Mr Frank Fahy, T.D. saved the day.

On the field, the referees' new "get tough" charter saw a record number of red and yellow cards, while the cynical dive inside the penalty box remains, highlighted by Voller in the final.

The early promise of Brazil and Holland wasn't fulfilled but the Cameroons were a breath of fresh air for their ability on the ball. Their ability and approach off the ball was their downfall.

Bobby Robson's nightmare ended when, like in Mexico '86, changes were forced upon his team selection. Scotland's nightmare continued - beaten by Costa Rica, they temporarily redeemed themselves against Sweden, only for Jim Leighton's worst nightmare to return against Brazil - for the Scots and Leighton, 1990 was not a great year. The host nation, talented, made favourites by many, couldn't live with the pressure, especially against the cynical empire of Argentina, who turned the penalty shoot-out into Italy's heart-break. Still the name Schillaci will live with us for evermore - possibly with the words "if only" before it.

Ireland's place in Italia '90 had been well chronicled from many angles, but without doubt the shoot-out against Romania was a special day. Never before was the nation caught up in a sporting event - Bonner's save, David O'Leary - often unwanted by Charlton, "cometh the hour - cometh the man", hysteria, Ireland are through. Then Schillaci the Sicilian with the looks to match made an offer even we couldn't refuse. Ireland are out - beaten, but unbowed.

I was fortunate to see the three preliminary games, names like Stadio Sant'Elia and Stadio Della Favorita come easily to mind, yet the Romanian game (Stadio L Ferraris) watched at home on T.V. was unforgettable, and it wasn't just because it was the first Irish game where Guinness was available while you watched.

So just when you felt it was safe to open the "Leader" and see nothing of the World Cup - I hope to in the weeks ahead give you my feelings of Italia '90, both home and away.

Some dates for your diary:
September 11 - Ireland -v- Morocco (friendly) Dalymount Park.
October 17 - Ireland -v- Turkey (European Championship) Lansdown Road.
November 14 - Ireland -v- England, Lansdown Road.

Here we go, here we go. - B.K.

The Organising Committee photographed with Ireland's World Cup midfielder star Paul McGrath on his visit to Tallow.

WORLD CUP SOCCER STAR'S VISIT TO TALLOW

The Brideside town of Tallow was literally bursting at the seams last Thursday as thousands of excited fans gave an ecstatic welcome to one of the stars of the Ireland World Cup Soccer Squad, Paul McGrath.

The brilliant midfield player was guest of the local Bride View United club and on his arrival in the town, he was greeted by the cheering crowd as he made his way to the Devonshire Arms Hotel, where he was introduced to members of the organising committee and especially to Mr. Tom McCarthy, West St., Tallow, who is uncle of the Ireland Captain, Mick McCarthy.

Smiling happily throughout, Paul readily signed autographs and posed for much-coveted photographs before moving on to the local AIB branch where he was greeted by the Manager, Abbeyside man, Michael Fives. He then went to St. Patrick's Community Hall, where again in a happy, relaxed mood, he was accorded another rousing welcome and continued to autograph souvenir pictures and pose for a further round of photographs.

Following his busy sojourn in Tallow, Paul McGrath left for Waterford City to fulfil further assignments but despite his full and very busy schedule, he made calls in Lismore, Dungarvan and Kilmacthomas as well. Later that night, he launched a mammoth fundraising draw for Seaview Celtic Soccer Club in Annewstown, before returning to Dublin.

PLAYER OF THE TOURNAMENT

In Dublin last Sunday, Paul McGrath was further honoured, having been voted Ireland's "Player of the Tournament" during the World Cup series, by 20,000 fans in a special competition and was presented with a beautiful crystal replica of the World Cup trophy.

CUNNIGAR PITCH & PUTT CLUB NOTES

Friday June 16th saw the opening of Dungarvan's and surrounding area's latest sporting amenity - a magnificent 18 hole Pitch & Putt course, expertly laid out and a constant challenge to all those who would hope to achieve ultimate skill and prowess on the course. The formal opening was carried out by UDC Chairman, Paddy Power in the presence of a large attendance, who when the formal ceremonies were over lost no time making themselves familiar with the course. The enthusiasm with which this new sporting venture has been received is a matter of deeply felt gratification to all those involved from the very beginning in bringing this project to fruition.

A highly motivated Committee has been set up under the Chairmanship of Councillor Paddy Power to oversee the smooth running of the amenity. Once the Committee had been formed, the choice of Club name became a priority and there were no objections when the Club was named after the locality's famous land-mark, the Cunnigar, which depending on the tides, is almost adjacent to the course.

Membership is open to all except for a few obvious exceptions. Specifically, we cater for adults, juveniles and students and we also welcome family membership and persons 60 years of age and over. Fees have been kept to the minimum and at the moment we are operating a system whereby the subscription may be paid over a maximum of 10 weeks.

We have a "Portakabin" on the course and during opening hours there is always someone in attendance to facilitate those wishing to play or indeed anyone seeking information or wishing to join.

What of the future? At the moment there are approximately 150 Pitch & Putt courses up and down the country and it is the Committee's aim that the Cunnigar Pitch & Putt Club will be as good as the best and already we are taking the first steps in that direction. Plans are being drawn up to hold our first tournament for members.

This tournament will be held over the coming August Bank Holiday weekend. So, to anyone who has been thinking of joining, my advice to you is - hesitate no longer - you could be the one to win our special prize for our first Hole in One scored in the tournament. So come along and join up. You won't regret it.

- T.O.V.I.D.

NOTAI CLG AN tSEAN PHOBAIL

Congratulations to Ann Hogan, who won a trip to the Ireland v Italy World Cup game in Rome. The trip was sponsored by Sterling Drug, where Ann works. She is a member of our club committee.

Following a game in which there was some good hurling at Pairc Ui Cholmain last Sunday evening, An Rinn pulled back a big lead and went on to beat Clashmore by a point in the J.H.C.

DUNGARVAN SCHOOLBOY NOTES

YOUNG BLUES MOST UNLUCKY

U.13 CUP FINAL: DUNGARVAN 0; TRAMORE 1.

Tramore just edged this cup final replay against a gallant Dungarvan side who battled to the very end at the Clover Grounds on Monday week last. We were short S. Roche (sick) and K. Walsh (inj.) and Tramore were well on top in the first half and our defence with keeper J. Sheehan in great form, had to work overtime to keep the score 0-0 at half-time. If Tramore had the better of the first-half, the Blues took control of the second with each and every player playing with pride and passion and on numerous occasions the Tramore goal led a charmed life with their keeper making a save from

M. Hyslop that had to be seen to be believed. As the Blues pushed forward looking for the winner we left gaps at the back and it was from a quick break that Tramore's speedy winger broke the deadlock with a fine goal to snatch victory for his team.

Panel: J. Sheehan, P. Keane, O. Simms, M. Hyslop, D. Foley, T. Butler, A. Landers, C. Walsh, J. P. Donnelly, J. Lenihan, M. Crotty, Leroy Simms.

U.10. Dungarvan 4 - Railway 2

The curtain finally came down on our schoolboy season in Cappoquin on Saturday last when our under 10 team were guests of Railway for a challenge game. With the excitement of the World Cup still in their minds, both teams played with great potential and skill. Railway went 2-0 up in the first half, but our fellows fought back in style to run out winners by 4 goals to 2. We would like to thank Railway for the game and in particular Tom Brown and Paddy Mason.

Panel - J. J. Kellehar, C. Barry, J. Nolan, P. Foley, T. Keohan, M. Power, W. Duggan, B. Crotty, C. Crotty, D. Tutty, M. Fitzgerald, I. Fitzgerald.

All the schoolboys in the club send best wishes for a speedy recovery to Liam Curtin who is in hospital in Cork.

CAUSEWAY TENNIS CLUB NOTES

With our season in full swing, many of our players are taking part in open weeks in Douglas, Rushbrooke, Tramore and Sunday's Well. We congratulate their many successes and wish them all the best of luck in future competition.

Ann Brennan did well to reach the semi-final of the U.14 singles, where she was put out by Caroline O'Callaghan, Munster No. 1. With doubles partner Emily Higgins, she made it to semi-final stage against No. 2 seeds Verona Coulter and Aoife McDonald, who were kept on court for 3 sets with an eventual score of 6.3, 2.6, 6.4. Elizabeth Moloney had a good tournament, but unfortunately she was beaten in the U.12 semi-final by Michelle O'Driscoll.

CAUSEWAY JUNIOR OPEN WEEK, 16-21 JULY

Preparations for an even better open week are underway with the possibility of an even larger entry than usual. The Causeway has a good reputation for hospitality and enjoyment so we hope this good name will be enhanced this year. Entry forms are available in the clubhouse and must be returned by Friday night at 7 p.m. We look forward to the usual help from our enthusiastic members — drivers, umpires, accommodation providers, etc. Please approach any member of committee with offers of help.

JACK IS BACK!

And aren't we delighted to have him for the holidays. Continuing for the summer with our Wednesday Primary Schools Doubles at the usual holiday time of 2 p.m. and also very much in evidence for the Monday coaching sessions for beginners at 3 to 4 p.m. We are grateful to the many juniors who have given of their time and energy in coaching three very new tennis players. With their help, we hope to continue this programme throughout the summer. Friday morning mixed doubles for secondary schools is in quite a delicate state of health — but we hope that a transfusion of tennis with an injection of enthusiasm will improve the condition! Keep trying lads and lassies!

CLUB RESULTS

After our marvellous Maher Cup victory, giving us the best U.12's in Munster, all subsequent results have been something of an anti-climax. Our two Sunshine Cup teams bit the dust at an early stage despite achieving Sno Cup success twice at U.14 level. Our Junior Cup team for U.18 travelled to Mitchelstown and despite some good matches, failed to clinch the singles results necessary to bring us into the mixed doubles. Well played to Judy, who had an easy victory over Marianne O'Keefe and Paul O'Riordain, who played an outstanding match against David O'Casey. With pressure on, Paul failed at the last fence and lost 6.2 in the third set. Aisling also had a marathon match and was unlucky to be beaten 6.4 in the final set. Hard luck. Team: Judy O'Brien, Aisling Fennell, Paula Veale, Gerard McCarthy, Paul O'Riordain, Owen O'Mahoney. However, we are still very much in the Sno Plate and our team with subs. for Yvonne and Liam will play the semi-final against Youghal or Bishopstown at the weekend. Good Luck!

THANK YOU DRIVERS!

Our club cannot thank sufficiently the parents who contribute so much by driving teams to the many away matches involved in Munster Competitions. Without their contribution, the club would not be able to afford to compete, given the high cost of hiring transport.

SENIOR COMPETITION

Laid to rest is the Summer Cup, Nationalist Cup and Guinness Cup. Eliminated by Youghal, St. Laurence's and Limerick Lawn, we live to fight another day. We would particularly congratulate our valiant Nationalist team who gave St. Laurence's such a close match at home, on their own courts. Team: Liam Crotty, Luke Brennan, Michael Collins, Tom Higgins.

RESULTS OF MILLER-GOODE CUP

Winner: Theresa Keane, Runner-up: Pat Flanagan. This competition was very successful. The handicap gave parents an equal chance and a better game. Pat gave Theresa a hard battle for the trophy by dragging her into a third set. Well done to both finalists.

MILLER-GOODE PLATE

Also handicapped, this competition brought many surprises with many new names achieving success. Winner: Tom Landers, Runner-up: Donal McGovern.

JOHN FOLEY PLATE

Winner: Paul O'Riordan, Runner-up: Colin Carthy.

COMMUNITY GAMES

We are privileged to be the centre for the Munster Final of the Community Games on Saturday next. Do come along to watch. U.16 teams from Cork, Limerick, Clare, Tipperary and Causeway will be taking part.

LADIES FOOTBALL

TRIPLE SUCCESS FOR WATERFORD

Waterford Ladies footballers recorded three victories last week and in doing so, played some great football.

The leading honours must go to the U.16 footballers, who defeated Cork 4-6 to 5-2 in a tremendous Munster Semi-final clash at Donoughmore, Co. Cork. The result was in doubt until the final whistle, as Waterford staged a magnificent recovery after trailing by five points, playing against the wind with fifteen minutes left.

Cork began at a tremendous pace and within two minutes, had shot the opening score, a goal. Lorena Mooney replied with a Waterford point. Julie-Ann Torpey, a fine prospect, scored a good point in the 9th minute, but Cork dominated most of the opening half and led by seven points after twenty-five minutes. By half-time, Waterford trailed by just two points, thanks to a goal by mid-fielder, Noirin Walsh and points by Lorena Mooney and Julie-Ann Torpey.

Cork came out in a very determined mood for the second half and an early goal put them in a strong position. However, Waterford, showing the experience gained in last year's campaign, called on substitute Rosanne Ryan, who scored a good goal in the 45th minute, after a fine passing movement in the forwards. Lorena Mooney added another point, then Jenny Coffey scored Waterford's 4th goal, to put the side two points clear. The sides exchanged points twice and Waterford led by four points, thanks to some great shooting by Julie-Ann Torpey. Cork never gave up and were rewarded with a goal in injury time, but Waterford held on for a deserving win.

Outstanding for the winners were, Regina Byrne, Martha Cahill, Catherine Hallinan, Cleona Walsh, Noirin Walsh and the entire forward line, particularly Julie-Ann Torpey. Rosanne Ryan made a big impression after coming on as a substitute. Nevertheless, the concession of five goals leaves plenty of room for improvement.

Team: Ruth Ahearn, Catherine Hallinan, Honor Lonergan, Cleona Walsh, Deirdre Wall, Regina Byrne, Martha Cahill, Noirin Walsh (1-0), Rosie Fitzgerald, Olivia Condon, Jenny Coffey (1-1), Julie-Ann Torpey (0-3), Fiona Crotty, Lorena Mooney (1-2), Michelle Walsh, Sub: Rosanne Ryan (1-0).

Special thanks to John and Biddy Lonergan, who made a round trip of the hundred and fifty miles to collect their daughter Honor at a college in West Cork, to bring her to the game. Such commitment deserves success.

The Waterford Senior team duly qualified for the Semi-final of their league with two victories during the week. On Wednesday evening at Cappoquin, they had a 2-11 to 2-0 victory over Wexford, playing some fine football in the process with Aine Wall and Patricia Butler scoring the goals. On Sunday they travelled to Rochforts-bridge to play Westmeath and won comfortably 2-4 to 0-1, Geraldine O'Ryan and Aine Wall scoring the goals. Thus, Kerry, Laois and Waterford have qualified with the 4th place resting on the final game between Wexford and Westmeath.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Sinead Walsh and Jane Whyte, both of whom were injured during the week. With the Munster championship just three weeks away, Waterford can ill afford to lose two players of their calibre.

The U.18 team play Kerry in the replay this weekend and the return of Noirin and Clare Walsh and Jenny Coffey should strengthen the Waterford team.

Board Sailing News

Sunday last dawned with gale force winds to the delight of the local windsurfers for the annual Pearse Moloney sponsored "All-rounder" event held at the Gold Coast.

For many years this event has been one of the most exciting and enjoyable days in the racing calendar and this year was no exception with a very good turnout and we were delighted to welcome surfers from our neighbouring Waterford Harbour Sailing Club, who travelled for this event.

Throughout the day winds reaching force 6/7 abounded to enable the surfers to test the very challenging and intricate slalom type course which Pearse and his patient boat man laid out. There were 5 races back to back with the lead changing hands as many times again. Shane Stathem sailed very well on the day and mastered the course and the winds best of all to emerge as overall winner.

Mention must also go to local member Kevin Monchoe, who surprised many with his performance and indeed will be the one to watch out for in the future.

Results: — 1st Shane Stathem, W.H.S.C.; 2nd Vincent Morrissey, Goldcoast; 3rd Kevin Monchoe, Goldcoast; 4th Seamus Kirwan, Goldcoast.

A most enjoyable day ended with a lovely Bar-B-Que laid on by Pearse and Marion which went down really well. The Goldcoast Boardsailing Club wish to acknowledge the generous sponsorship which they received from the "All-rounder" and wish them continued success.

Dungarvan Athletic Club Notes

BRIAN HAYES WINS NATIONAL JAVELIN TITLE

At the All-Ireland Juvenile championships in Waterford last week-end, Brian Hayes brought another national title to the club when he won the Boys U-15 Javelin event with a throw of 47 metres. For good measure Brian won second place in the shot putt championship, outlining his fine versatility. Brian is a native of Kill and is a student at St. Augustine's College where he is coached by club chairman, Br. Patrick Lennon.

At the same championships Mark Radley won second place in the Boys U-13 1500 metres, when he produced a very determined effort from start to finish and so he well deserved to win his first All-Ireland medal on the track.

Ross Darcy first threw the discus last May and he had done more than enough by qualifying for these championships, but Ross surprised many by winning third place and his first All-Ireland medal at this first attempt with a fine throw of 26.58 metres.

THANKS

Our annual flag day was held last week-end and our thanks to everyone who supported the club.

ANNUAL CHALLENGE

Dungarvan and Cappoquin/Ballinameela held their annual juvenile athletics match at the Friary Track recently and despite the unfavourable weather conditions a great night's sport was enjoyed by all the young competitors. Blackwater Cycling Club Notes

The Cappoquin Cycling Classic takes place this year on Sunday 29th July. This year we hope to have a very big field of Senior riders, as the Senior All-Irelands are on in Waterford the previous day. £150 and the beautiful Jimmy Foley trophy is one of the most attractive prizes in the country. There are also prizes on several laps.

Anthony Dineen of C.M.P Blarney will be defending his title with the help of his team mate, Richard O'Gorman, who came second last year. They will have some very tough opposition from Anthony O'Gorman who came third last year and is now riding with Tipperary Crystal. Of course we have two Dungarvan men who will be fighting hard to take it - those being Robert Power and Stephen Spratt. Robert rides for Cidona, but this young cyclist is at present riding in France. Stephen rides for Waterford C. C. and is also in France.

We have Denis McCarthy and Maurice Hickey of the local Cappoquin Pork & Bacon Blackwater C. C. taking part in the Senior cycle race. Denis is back to his best form, taking prizes every Sunday. Maurice is also in top form at the moment.

The underage racing will be starting at 12.30 p.m. sharp. The under 12's have one lap of the course. This year it should be a very fast race with Keith Walsh and Garry Whelan from Comeragh C. C. Vincent Lombard and Paul Moore from the local club and K. Twohig from C.M.P. Blarney. We will also have local riders in the U.14's and under 16's.

In the underage, there are prizes for the first six over the line. Also the first girl and the first local. In the Senior race there are prizes for the first fifteen.

The Cappoquin Pork & Bacon Blackwater C.C travelled to Gorey for the Gorey Grand Prix on Sunday last.

Denis McCarthy and Maurice Hickey took part in the Senior races. Maurice took the Senior "C" prize. Denis unfortunately got a puncture and had to retire.

Once again the under 12's took the limelight, taking three out of the first four prizes. Paul Moore 1st, Vincent Lombard 3rd and Brian Moore 4th.

HURLERS BOW OUT

Our last lingering hopes of making it to the knock-out stages of the county senior hurling championship were buried at Walsh Park last Sunday when we went under to Ballygunner by 2-12 to 1-9.

It is almost a cliché now to say it was a game we could have won. Ironically that is very much the case, but once again we didn't have the firepower up front to take the chances that were there for the taking.

The concession of two rather tame goals also helped seal our fate, and from here on in we must ensure that relegation is avoided.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

The real test for our junior footballers comes on this Saturday evening when they play old rivals Stradbally in the section final of the championship. The venue is Lemybrien and the starting time is 7.30 p.m.

For the winners there's a place in the Western semi-final and that should be incentive enough for all the players. We really owe ourselves a victory over Stradbally, and if the team plays as well as it can then we could grab that semi-final spot.

GOOD LUCK JOHN

I know I speak for everyone in the club when I extend best wishes to John Moore and his team of umpires who are in charge of next Sunday's glamour Tipperary v. Cork Munster senior hurling final in Thurles.

It is a tremendous honour both for John and our club that he has been selected for so major a game and we are all confident he will acquire himself with distinction.

Last Sunday John was in charge of the London v. Kildare All-Ireland senior hurling "B" final in Ruislip and was praised generously for a splendid refereeing performance.

MEETING

Another important meeting of the club executive took place last week with an excellent attendance.

The proposed development work at our new grounds is now at the tender stage and we are looking forward to a start being made very, very soon.

Other matters of importance were also dealt with, although there is already a pretty full agenda drawn up for next week's meeting.

MINOR HURLING

The minor hurlers were set to play firm favourites Lismore in the Western championship at Cappoquin on this Wednesday night. It is a huge challenge for the boys but we know they will give it their best shot.

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended from everyone in the club to the Dee family of Kilgobinet on the death last weekend of James Dee.

The deceased is an uncle of one of our executive committee members Jim Dee, whose own son Dermot is also very much an integral part of the playing side of our club.

MUNSTER UNDER 21 HURLING SEMI FINAL

Waterford Narrowly Defeated By All-Ireland Champions

TIPPERARY 2-15 WATERFORD 2-11

Forced to field without Eddie Burke, Dave Power and Peter Queally, Waterford's brilliant under 21 side failed narrowly to a badly shaken Tipperary side at Semple Stadium, Thurles, in the Munster semi-final on Thursday evening last, just 24 hours before Waterford had lost to Cork in the minor semi-final at Walsh Park.

Giving a display that fully deserved a better reward, this hastily prepared Waterford team played themselves into the ground at Tipperary's hurling headquarters and afterwards the winners were the first to admit that they were lucky to escape what would have been a sensational defeat and a bitter blow to their ambitions of retaining their All-Ireland title in the grade.

From the throw-in, it was crystal clear that the underdogs were not in the least overawed by the reputation of the hottest of favourites as they took the game by the scruff-of-the-neck and put the home team under severe pressure for the first fifteen minutes and ran up an eight points lead after goals by Sean Daly and Noel Kelly in the 8th and 14th minutes. This might have been ten points, had we not missed a couple of early frees. Tipperary fought back and they had goals by Lyons and Wall that brought them back into the game and by half-time the score stood at 2-7 apiece. After the resumption, Tipperary showed a number of positional changes and ran up a five points lead, but the confidence which this brought was short-lived as Waterford courageously fought back to within four points, they having failed earlier with a penalty.

Scorers; S. Daly 1-8, N. Kelly 1-0, B. Greene and J. Meaney 0-1 each.

Team; R. Barry, J. Walsh, N. Warren, D. Keane, P. Walsh, B. Coffey, F. Hartley, M. Kelly, J. Brenner, N. Dalton, B. Greene, P. Prendergast, N. Kelly, S. Daly, J. Meaney. Subs; E. Curran for Brenner, J. Ferncombe for M. Kelly.

IT'S A GAME WIN

On this Friday evening, July 13 our senior footballers play Sliabh gCua in the championship in Lemybrien at 7.30 p.m. This is a game the Reds are expected to win, one that would possibly see us through to the later stages of the championship. But we must remember, that this game must be won — as there are no easy teams when it comes to the championship.

JUNIORS v. DUNGARVAN

On Saturday evening next, July 14, our junior footballers play Dungarvan in the quarter-final of the Western championship in Lemybrien at 7.30 p.m. It has been a long time since our juniors had a hard game, so certainly they will have to be in top shape to win this one — as Dungarvan are strong in this grade.

GOOD SHOWING BY SENIORS

Our senior footballers had a great victory over Kilmacthomas in the championship on the score of 0-12 to 0-6 played at Lemybrien. The Reds going into this game had their problems player wise, so much so that the lion-hearted Michael Coffey had to lineout at full-back, but in truth it was probably one of the best games the Reds have played, and in particular in the first half. So all can feel happy with this win, particular trainer Sean Ahearne.

INJURED PLAYERS

With Eoin Phelan already ruled-out with injury, James Keane could not play at the last minute with a back injury, while Fintan O'Brien was carrying his injury into the game and with Conor O'Brien already ruled-out the problems were piling-up, so let's hope they all clear-up shortly as we prepare for the final run into the cham-

EOIN FOR AUSTRALIA?

It looks as if Eoin O'Brien has every chance of making the Australian Tour, after having a great game on Saturday last in Tullamore, where Eoin got some great scores. He certainly deserves this tour.

SELECTOR FOR UNDER-21 HURLING

Club player Noel Costelloe was a selector on the County Under-21 hurling team which played Tipperary in the Munster semi-final last week.

DEEPEST SYMPATHY

The club expresses it's deepest sympathy to the Claxton family, Stradbally, and the Keane family, Fahafeela, on their recent bereavement.

DEISE SOUND

On Sunday night next, July 13, Deise Sound provide the music in the Social Centre.

GALLANT UNDER-12 HURLERS

Our Under-12 hurlers put up a great performance on Sunday last, when they were defeated by St. Patricks in the championship. This was a good performance from the Reds' young side — and the future looks good.

UNDER-16 HURLING

Almost unnoticed our Under-16 hurlers are due to play their championship game this week. We hope to have full details next week.

50TH ANNIVERSARY

The Schools Anniversary Celebrations begin on Friday 3rd August with Mass. Then on Sunday night, 5th August will be the highlight with the Social. Tickets are now available from the committee.

REPRESENTING COUNTY

Inter-county goalie Pat Curran represents Waterford in the long puck, at Thurles on Sunday next.

GREAT WIN FOR LISMORE

Lismore 2-15 Roanmore 2-8

Lismore needed to win this senior hurling championship clash to have any hopes of qualifying for the knock-out stages of the competition. County Champions Roanmore looked to be proving a huge stumbling block and for a time Lismore looked in trouble.

In the end, however, the Cathedral town boys staged a dramatic rally to take the points and in the final analysis were worthy winners of one of the best games seen at the Fraher field so far this year.

There was a real "bite" to this game which was played with true knock-out fervour. Roanmore played with the very strong wind behind them in the first half after which they held a slender 1-5 to 0-6 lead, Kevin Sheridan's goal in the 9th minute the big factor separating the sides after a very exciting thirty minutes.

Lismore, after some poor performances recently, showed tremendous improvement and their position at the half way stage was very encouraging as they trailed by just two points.

However, it was the champions who dominated the early exchanges after the turnover and had points from Eddie Nolan and Kieran Delahunty in as many minutes.

Lismore struck back with a goal from Donal Landers in the 7th minute but almost immediately the score was negated as Anthony White was placed by Tom Shanahan for a Roanmore goal. When Delahunty added a point from a free for Roanmore in the 10th minute, giving them a 2-8 to 1-6 lead, Lismore looked to be in real trouble.

Significantly, Delahunty's point was Roanmore's last score. The ensuing 20 minutes belonged to Lismore and in this period they produced a brand of hurling which marked them as being capable of going the distance in this championship.

FULLY DESERVED VICTORY

Their commitment too, matched their hurling expertise and their fighting spirit over the next twenty minutes swept them on to a fully deserved victory.

Barney Prendergast had two great points, Seamus Prendergast had a minor, Michael Ronayne shot a point and when Sean Daly pointed a "65" in the 18th minute, the sides were level at 2-8 to 1-11.

Daly flicked over the lead a few minutes later and Seamus Prendergast put Lismore two points up with five minutes to go.

Three minutes later, Donal Landers clinched victory when he had his second goal and a brace of points from Sean Daly put the icing on a great display and a fully deserving win for Lismore.

Scorers — Lismore : D. Landers 2-1, S. Daly 0-6, S. Prendergast, B. Lawton, M. Ronayne, B. Prendergast 0-2 each. Roanmore — A. White 1-1, K. Delahunty 0-4, K. Sheridan 1-0, E. Nolan 0-2, Mce. Wadding 0-1.

Portlaw Did Not Impress

Portlaw 3-14 Cappoquin 2-6

The result of this senior hurling championship clash at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last was a foregone conclusion long before the finish. Portlaw, with eleven points to spare, were emphatic winners, but overall they were far from impressive and did not look like potential champions.

Cappoquin are going through a bad patch and their young side, despite trying hard, were never in with a chance. The premature inevitability of the result was reflected in the attendance. There was only a hand-full present for the game and they got little to cheer about over the hour.

Whatever the consequence of the result for Cappoquin, Portlaw support at the venue must have been disappointed at the general performance of their side throughout the hour.

They had a tonic start when Michael Hennebry goaled in the 5th minute after Liam Callaghan and Sean Fitzpatrick had early points. They were leading 1-6 to nil by the 12th minute, but then Pat Curran gave Cappoquin hope when he kicked a brilliant goal after soloing all of 80 yards. Portlaw shot four more points, as against two for the losers and led 1-10 to 1-2 by the half-way stage.

Cappoquin had two points early in the second half but any hopes of a successful revival were killed off by a Kieran Laffan goal for Portlaw in the 7th minute.

Their third goal came from John Power in the 18th minute, leaving them 3-10 to 1-6 ahead. Four further points followed before Cappoquin had a consolation second goal, five minutes from time.

Scorers - Portlaw; D. Foran 0-6, J. Power 1-2, M. Hennebry and K. Laffan 1-0 each, S. Fitzpatrick and T. Larkin 0-2 each, L. Gallagher and E. Rockett 0-1 each. Cappoquin; P. Curran 1-2, D. Cummins 1-0, M. Power 0-2, M. Brackett and M. Phelan 0-1 each.

Hurlers Qualify For Knock-Out Stages

Following a very competitive game, the intermediate hurlers defeated St. Mollerans by 1 point, — 2-7 to 2-6, at the Kilmacthomas venue on Friday evening last. We now progress to the quarter-finals and by next weekend it will be clearer as to whom our opponents will be.

The team was; Pa McGovern, A. Ryan, M. Collins, G. Collins, K. Killigrew, J. Healy, F. McGovern, S. McGrath, T. Murphy, M. Reynolds, D. Sheehan, M. Cosgrave, F. Sweeney, P. Walsh (Captain), C. Clancy, Sub; T. Walsh.

CLUB SPIRIT

Any report of last weekend's game would not be complete without mention of team Captain, Pat Walsh and team trainer, Dave Sheehan. Both received heavy knocks on the week of the game and neither would have been faulted if they had cried off, but true to the spirit which has prevailed in the camp this year, they were determined to field out and not let the lads down.

JUVENILE NEWS

The highlight of the week was the U.12's victory over Dungarvan by 7-4 to 0-0 in the Western Bord na N-Og 'A' Hurling Championship.

The U.13 footballers have successfully qualified for the Quarter-finals of the special Bord na N-Og 10-a-side competition, which will take place on Thursday 12th July. The preliminary rounds were played at our Grounds on Saturday afternoon last.

John Phelan's St. Patrick Tce. defeated Sea Park led by Diarmuid Keating in the O'Shea Cup Final for U.10 hurling last Saturday. U.10 hurling continues every Saturday morning at 11 a.m. sharp.

COACHING

County under-age hurling coach Peter Power, held another very successful session at the club grounds on Monday last between 10 and 1 o'clock. He will be in attendance again next Monday, 16th July.

The U.14 hurlers defeated St. Patricks to qualify for the tournament final for the Mahoney Cup. They will play the holders, Ballinacourty.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

The Senior footballers face County Champions Kilrossanty on Saturday evening next in Stradbally at 7.30 p.m. Although our efforts have been hampered to date due to severe emigration and injuries to Bernard O'Gorman, Tom Kenneally, and Ian Kiely, we will, as always, pull out a special effort when facing our Comeragh neighbours.

OFF TO LOUTH

Best wished are extended to James Power, who takes up a management position with Value Centre Ltd. in Dundalk this week.

WEEKEND FIXTURES

TIME OF DECISION FOR MANY CLUBS

A number of the matches listed for the coming weekend will decide the fate of a number of clubs as far as their progression in the 1990 championships are concerned. For some clubs it will be their final match in the current championships. In the circumstances we can expect much of the fare to be hectic and exciting. It is also the weekend of the Munster senior and minor hurling finals and many of our regular patrons who have been fortunate enough to obtain tickets, will be in Semple Stadium to see champions, Tipperary and Cork fight out the senior final and Cork and Clare deciding the minor. Referee John Moore who handled the London/Kildare match in Ruislip last Sunday will be in charge of the big one.

It is an indication of the pressures on the fixtures committee, that important and attractive senior championship games have been timed to coincide with the provincial time schedule at Thurles.

LISMORE V DUNHILL

This game is a decisive one as the winners are reasonably sure of being involved in the play-offs, if not in the knock-out stages. It was brought forward to Friday by agreement in order to facilitate Dunhill's John Power who goes for the long-puck at Thurles, but apparently Lismore have had a change of heart on the matter and insist on the game being played on Sunday which was the original date set for the match. It will put pressure on Dunhill to hold John Power at home and if that happens, it won't go down very well with the public.

They both needed to win last Sunday and they did just that. I was very impressed with Lismore's very good display against the champions and favourites Roanmore. Why the same side played so poorly against Tallow on the previous Sunday must be a bit of a mystery to them as Roanmore, even without Noel Crowley are in my view as good as Tallow. It wasn't the first time that Lismore have shown such enigmatic form and this is something that they will have to learn to shake off if they are going to win a senior hurling title.

Not many teams would beat them on Sunday's form and if they reproduce this they may win. I say "may" because Dunhill feel that their good display against Clonea last Sunday saw them back to their best and at their best they will prove a handful for Lismore. They each have four points and need to get a further two if they are to make sure of being in the final shake up. The result will depend on whether Lismore "blow hot or cold" on the day. In the expectation that they will play to last Sunday's form, I give them the vote to win.

PORTLAW V TALLOW.

This is listed as the feature game at Fraher Field and unless either or both show a lapse of form, it will be another cracker and will compensate supporters who have to miss out on the Munster finals and opt for the fare being provided at home. Portlaw are still undefeated, but no doubt the Tallow camp will have noted some weaknesses in their team when they played outsiders Cappoquin here last Sunday. They still have to meet Roanmore in the postponed tie, while Tallow will play their final match in the league section here. Neither side can really afford to lose. A win for Tallow just might put them at the top of the table when the league section finishes, but they could be caught in a tie-breaker with Roanmore, depending on how Roanmore fare against Portlaw later. Portlaw, Lismore and Dunhill could yet be caught in a three-way contest for the third place in their section.

Tallow, playing with great fluency and skill seem well poised for a semi-final place and maybe better, but to make sure they have got to win this game against Portlaw, who are undoubtedly a better team than they have been for a few seasons. If they play as well as they played against neighbours Lismore and a fair bit better than they played against Roanmore, who beat them by seven points here three weeks ago, Tallow may score a narrow win.

ROANMORE V CLONEA

It is being looked upon as a foregone conclusion and if Roanmore don't win by a reasonable margin, the form book will look idiotic as having failed in all but one game, it would seem out of the question that they would now come back and beat the reigning champions. Roanmore stated at Fraher field last Sunday that the Clonea game is one they will need to approach with great caution. I'm sure they will and that the result will be in their favour.

BALLINACOURTY V KILROSSANTY — S/F

It would appear at this stage that the three senior football games listed are all of more importance than they would appear.

First of all a surprise win for Ballinacourty over county champions, Kilrossanty would have the effect of opening up that section and could involve a number of clubs including Gaultier, Clashmore, Rathgormack and Ballinacourty in a fight out for third place in their group.

Of course with Ballinacourty having to field without players like Bernard O'Gorman and Ian Kiely their prospects of upsetting predictions here are pretty remote, even though they did previously surprise the champions at the Stradbally venue not too long ago.

On the basis of their form against St. Saviours, the challengers here are given a mountain to climb, even though Kilrossanty have a couple of their top men away on holidays in the U.S.A. Kilrossanty are given the vote.

NIRE V. BUTLERSTOWN

With the Nire fighting to get back on stream and Butlerstown trying desperately to avoid relegation we could see a hectic contest here at Fraher field on Sunday evening. The Nire have yet to produce the splendid form which got them to the county final last year. In their very first match this year they played great stuff to rob Dunhill of victory in the final moment, but since then they have done little to show their real form. I recall writing about the Nire after they had beaten Butlerstown by 4-8 to 1-3 in the championships here last year, that if they maintained this form they would get to the final. If they pull themselves together and organise their game properly, it could happen again. Butlerstown are still pointless and it will be a surprise if this is the match to move them up from the bottom.

GAULTIER V CLASHMORE

This will be a game to sort out the progression stakes as far as these clubs are concerned, as both need a win to stay safely in contention. Clashmore will need to remember that Gaultier drew with county champions, Kilrossanty, while it will probable encourage them as well that Gaultier lost to Ballinacourty whom Clashmore defeated. A poor first half, or at least a couple of defensive blunders in that period saw Clashmore in trouble against Kilrossanty. In the second half, however the reverse was the situation when the challengers had the champions under constant pressure. Clashmore missed a vital goal at one stage - a score that could have changed the trend of the game in their favour. They certainly have a chance to do better here.

Gaultier are a side whose style of football takes getting used to and they seem to benefit from giving their opponents the 'run-around', but their forwards are becoming renowned for their inaccuracy. They must have a record number of wides this year and while this shows a certain kind of defect in their play, it also shows the amount of possession they have enjoyed in their games so far. It will be a good football game with very little between them at the finish. I won't be surprised to find Clashmore getting the points, but nobody will be shocked, either if they don't.

STRADBALLY V SLIABH gCUA

Stradbally, with full points from all games are already qualified and two further points here will guarantee them a place in the semi-final. Pointless Sliabh gCua are struggling along with so many of last year's team no longer available and it would be stretching the imagination to give them a chance of winning this one. Stradbally still have some improving to do if they are going to win this title on the golden jubilee anniversary of their first win in 1940 when they took over from the then champions, Kilrossanty. An improvement will also be needed by Sliabh gCua if they are to have a chance of retaining their senior status when they play Tramore in the relegation game.

too are dangerously close to the bottom of the table. I don't expect Rathgormack to be beaten.

AN RINN V ARDMORE

This attractive junior hurling tie will be a match worth seeing as both are very strongly in contention for a place in the semi-finals of a championship that is certain to provide a great finish.

On Sunday evening An Rinn won a thriller by a single point when beating Clashmore and Ardmore played a draw with Ballysaggart in a game that, I understand caused some nail-biting on the sideline before it ended.

RATHGORMACK V TRAMORE

The result matters very little, but if Tramore unexpectedly beat the favourites here it could land Rathgormack in a relegation play-off as at the moment, they

Tony Forristal Tournament

Once again the All-Ireland Under-14 Festival of Hurling — the Tony Forristal Tournament will take place in Waterford on Saturday and Sunday, August 25 and 26. The Tournament which started in 1982 is in memory of the late Tony Forristal and Sonny Walsh.

Over the last eight years six different counties have been champions:— 1982 Kilkenny, 1983 Tipperary, 1984 Limerick, 1985 Cork, 1986 Clare, 1987 Tipperary, 1988 Tipperary and 1989 Galway.

Since 1987 there had been a Division 2 section with the following as winners:— 1987 Wexford, 1988 Waterford, 1989 Waterford 'B'.

Sixteen county teams took part last year. Galway defeated Waterford 'A' in the Div. 1 final, while Waterford 'B' overcame Wicklow in the Div. 2 final.

For this year there are some changes. Eighteen county teams will now participate with two new counties entering. Westmeath will be coming for the first time and so too will Dublin. It's nice to see the capital taking part. There will be three divisions instead of two. Eight teams in Div. 1, six teams in Div. 2, and four in Div. 3

Waterford will again have two teams 'A' and 'B', Div. 1 and Div. 2.

The tournament, will as usual, be sponsored by Waterford Crystal.

It should be a great weekend of hurling — August 25 and 26.

Following are the counties taking part in the 1990 edition of this prestigious All-Ireland event:— Cork, Clare, Kilkenny, Tipperary, Galway, Dublin, Limerick, Waterford 'A', Wexford, Antrim, Wicklow, Kerry, Meath, Waterford 'B', Laois, Down, Westmeath, Armagh.

The End Of The Road

It is difficult to imagine that it is not more than three months ago that we set out on the 1990 championship trail with some hopes of making a break through in at least one of the eight championships in which we played. We always hope, and that is good because whatever the results, the day we give up hoping will be Doomsday for us all.

But again in 1990 the final results of our efforts was defeat and in the championship stakes we lie at the bottom of the chart and in getting there we were beaten in some championships by every county in Munster. When the figures are put together at the end of the year, we will see that the cost of trying to win was around £45,000. Perhaps in to-days values, it is not a mammoth figure, but it does take an awful lot of gathering. It certainly poses questions about our team policies and our financial strategy in relation to their preparation. Should we, for instance, concentrate on winning one, or perhaps two championships and stop wasting money on the grades or codes where we have no chance? Regardless of what is done elsewhere, should we dispense with the junior grades in hurling and football. I believe that these are a waste of time and money and they serve no purpose except to give so called second best players a chance of wearing the county jersey.

I remember once when discussing the conditions which made one eligible to play intercounty junior and a man said to me 'in other words you mean if we were all dogs, this would be called a mongrel grade.' In the meantime, it is some consolation to the county that we finished on a high note with two splendid displays in the under-age grades last week.

On Thursday it was a case of so near and yet so far when we came very close to causing the upset of the season, when we really rattled the reigning All-Ireland Under-21 champions, Tipperary at their hurling headquarters in Thurles. Having struggled over Kerry in the first round, we were given no chance at all against mighty Tipperary and supporters were forecasting a 12/14 points beating. This was the game for which least of all preparation was made as all sorts of interruptions and headaches presented themselves in the lead-up to this championship.

The absence of three of their outstanding players, Eddie Burke, Peter Queally and David Power, gave a shattering blow to our hopes before the game. The match is written about elsewhere and the result certainly did the county proud and all connected with the preparation and the effort put in are to be complimented. They all pushed themselves to the limit and more could not be asked for. It goes to show that in this grade of hurling we can be every bit as good as the best of them.

I have no doubt but that a vote of confidence will be given to the selectors who have expressed their willingness to remain in charge for another season.

Twenty-four hours earlier we looked all set for a big minor upset in hurling when we came to within two points of Cork in what had been a hotly contested semi-final until a stoppage broke our momentum midway through the second half. After the stoppage we had to wait too long to put our game together again and in a crazy five minutes we allowed Cork through for four goals to destroy our chances of getting to the Munster Final next Sunday. This has been the closest that we had got to getting that far in a very long time.

We scored 4-11 which was the biggest that we have managed against Cork for a long number of years.

They must surely have been the best prepared team to go out in minor hurling in the past 20 years and while they may have lacked match experience, there can be no complaints about their improved skill and teamwork. Only for that crazy five minutes at the start of the final quarter, the result would have been much different. As it was Cork were by no means a nine points better team than Waterford on the evening.

The selection committee here will remain at the helm, they having been elected for a two-year period.

Within the next few days the new managers and selectors for the senior grades will be chosen and submitted to the County Board for ratification on July 23. There is an amount of speculation on the idea of having a hurling coach from outside the county and those who seem to favour the idea have lots of names to offer. Such people are ever generous with their suggestions, but these don't always work out and often when things go wrong, the proposers are not around to face the music.

Championship Results

It's good to see Lismore back in the race and it was satisfying to see them with such grit and determination against a side of the calibre of Roanmore.

Cappoquin played better hurling than they did on the previous Sunday and they were to take some very fine scores — sometimes under pressure. Pat Curran's early goal was as good as one would wish to see and they could have been closer if they had taken all their chances.

As I wrote elsewhere Portlaw are a much improved team, but this was not their best display this year.

Mount Sion defeated Passage but it wasn't a display that will fully satisfy their mentors if they expect to progress to the K/O stages. Overall Passage had 17 wides during the hour and it took an amount of possession to get that many shots in.

Ballygunner got off the bottom of the table with a win over Dungarvan in their senior hurling tie and neither will now (or should not) be worried about possible relegation. Dungarvan had their chances and the six points gap in the result probably exaggerated the gap in standards, but nevertheless the 'Gunners deserve their win.

The score in the Ballyduff/Fourmilewater game tells the full story. The winners were well tuned up for the game and even though the match was over very long before the final whistle, the winners never let up and went on to win by nineteen points.

It wasn't a real test for Ballyduff but the points will come in handy when the placings on the league section table are being sorted out.

INTERMEDIATE GAMES

The week-end results left the final placings, more or less clear.

Abbeyside qualified by scoring a single point win over St. Mollerans in their tie at Kilmacthomas and Shamrocks continued their unbeaten run when scoring an easy win over De La Salle. Erin's Own had no problems, as the score tells, in their game against St. Mary's, and Colligan made no mistake against Tramore.

Qualifiers — It would seem certain that in group 'A', that Shamrocks, Abbeyside and either Stradbally or De La Salle will go through and in the other group it will be Erin's Own, Saviours and Colligan.

In the senior football championships at Lemybrien, Stradbally, who led by 0-12 to 0-1 at half time and failed to score in the second half, defeated Kilmacthomas who could not make their second half superiority work to their advantage. In fact five second half points was a poor return for having had so much possession. Thanks to a solid defence, Stradbally were able to keep in front even without scoring when they were seriously under pressure.

Conor O'Brien was an absentee and his place at full back was taken by David Kirwan who was subsequently replaced by veteran Michael Coffey, who contributed his fair share to Stradbally's win.

Sympathy

Our very sincere sympathy is extended to well-known Kilgobinet and Waterford champion handballer, Declan Mulcahy, on his bereavement occasioned by the recent death of his father, Jim Mulcahy.

Cork Minors On Top

CORK 6-14 WATERFORD 4-11

Cork justified favouritism when they defeated Waterford in this high scoring minor hurling Munster semi-final at Walsh Park on Wednesday night of last week.

The fact that Waterford scored 4-11 shows how close they came to causing an upset and they only succumbed in the closing stages.

Cork played with the wind in the first half and led by 2-10 to 1-4 at the interval.

Kevin McGrath goaled for Waterford within 30 seconds of the restart. Waterford dominated the third quarter and had Cork under increasing pressure and cut the arrears to just 2 points, 2-11 to 2-9.

Cork struck back for four goals in the closing stages to clinch the issue but Waterford refused to die and Brian Coughlan and Tony Browne scored goals for them in a last ditch stand.

Scorers: Cork — K. Murray 3-1, D. Fleming 2-5, M. Landers 1-1, B. Sheehan 0-3, A. White, C. Buckley, R. Lewis and B. Egan 0-1 each. Waterford — T. Browne 1-5, K. McGrath 1-1, B. Coughlan 1-1, J. Kennedy 1-0, A. Fitzgerald 0-2, C. Sweeney and E. Dunphy 0-1 each.

Cork — J. J. Barry, W. Wallis, M. O'Donnell, A. White, P. Smith, B. Corcoran, C. Walsh, L. Meaney, C. Buckley, B. Egan, B. Sheehan, R. Lewis, K. Murray, M. Landers, D. Fleming.

Waterford — J. Joy, C. Cunningham, E. Dunphy, E. Wall, S. Keating, M. Dunford, B. Coughlan, F. Hartley, D. Kiely, M. Hubbard, K. McGrath, A. Fitzgerald, C. Sweeney, J. Kennedy, T. Browne. Subs. — M. Hickey for Hartley; E. Crotty for Dunford; G. Lowry for Wall.

Poc Fada

On Sunday next between the minor and senior Munster finals, the annual provincial section of the national Poc Fada will be held at Semple Stadium.

Waterford will be represented by former county goalman John Power, Dunhill, who is currently playing in goal with his club. Last year and in previous years Michael Phelan, Cappoquin, represented us with distinction and of course our All-Ireland champion Billy Tobin, of Shamrocks won the title outright about fifteen years ago.

We have always been represented by top class players in this event, but I believe that great interest would be added if we here in Waterford ran a competition of our own.

Frequent Flooding In Lismore/ Cappoquin Roads

At the July monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council, held in Dungarvan last Monday, Cllr. O. Wilkinson proposed that the Council examine the cost of raising the roads to prevent flooding from the Red Bridge to the Rock at Cappoquin, at Camphire Bridge and also at Deerpark.

Cllr. Wilkinson in support of his motion, said that frequent, very severe flooding occurred on these roads in the Lismore-Cappoquin area. He could not say why the flooding occurred, but almost on a weekly basis over a number of years people passing over the roads were faced with this hazard.

The County Engineer, Mr. John O'Flynn said that it would be as well for the Council to realise the kind of money which would be involved. To raise the road from the Red Bridge would cost in the region of £100,000, while the cost at Camphire Bridge would be £20,000 and at Deerpark £10,000. In view of the cost, he said that he could not see the first one being done any time in the near future. However, the other two were manageable amounts and could be dealt with in the next year or two.

Cllr. B. Kyne, Chairman, said that if the two smaller schemes could be done it would be an act of faith by the Council in the matter.

Cllr. Wilkinson agreed that if these could be done, it would indeed be a great help.

ABBEYSIDE S.A.C. NOTES

Munster Open Championship

On Saturday July 7th, Abbeyside Shore Angling Club hosted the Munster Open Championship 1990 at the Slob Bank, Youghal. It was truly a memorable event, with everybody enjoying the day's fishing. Up to 90 anglers turned out to fish this competition, and that speaks for itself. 17 clubs were represented as follows: Celtic, Tramore/Cork, Tramore/Waterford, Dunmore, Limerick, Cork S.A.C., Aghada, Crosshaven, Bishopstown, Lisdoonvarna, Fanore, Guileen, Southern Command, New Ross, Waterford Glass, Youghal, Ardmore, and the hosts, Abbeyside. It was a joyous occasion for us to host this competition again this year and the venue proved good once more.

There was a total of 76 fish landed with a variety of two; 75 flounder and 1 plaice.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all our sponsors of this competition especially John Manning, who was our main sponsor. John and his good wife drove from Dublin to attend our prize-giving and we were delighted to have them present.

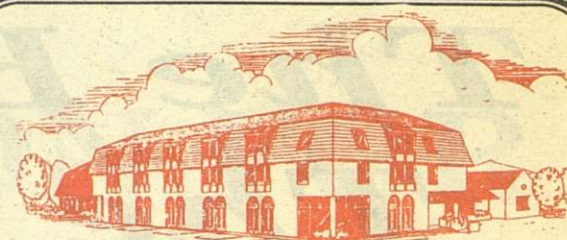

Our Munster Council Rep. for the day was Tom O'Sullivan and Tom scrutinized everything thoroughly.

After the competition, we retired to Youghal Motor Inn, where Tom Mannix and his staff looked after us very well.

We would like to thank Miles Clancy and all at Youghal S.A.C. for the use of their premises.

Just recently John Cronin represented us when he travelled to Portugal, where he fished with the Irish team. Congratulations to John, who came tenth in the competition.

Congratulations to Larry and Veronica Fraher on the birth of a baby girl, Aisling, last week. Now Larry has to buy another fishing rod! — Sea Scorpion.
