Much interest centred on a number of motions due for discussion at the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council in Dungarvan last Monday concerning the site of the disused Quigley Magnesite Plant at Ballinacourty, Dungarvan.

The first, in the name of Cllr. Jim Harty called on the Council to give every support to Dungarvan Golf Club in their attempt to purchase the site. The second, put down by Cllr. Jackie Fahey, T.D., called on the Council to take immediate action under the new Derelict Sites Act to remove the plant which was now "derelict, unsightly and a blot on the landscape," while the third, in the name of Cllr. M. O'Riordan asked for a report on the present position of the plant.

At the outset the Chairman, Cllr. Billy Kyne, said that Cllr. Harty had informed him that he wished to have his motion postponed for a month as the Golf Club had asked him to defer it as they were at present involved in negotiations about the site.

Cllr. Fahey then proceeded to move his motion stating that he had brought this matter to the attention of the Council when they discussed the new Derelict Sites Act at their last meeting. He said that if they now failed to move where this site was concerned it would be true to say that the new Act was already

No House Repairs For Water Charge Defaulters

A deputation of six housewives from Dungarvan's Childers Estate told members of Dungarvan Urban Council at their monthly meeting last Monday night that they were very angry with the Council at the way they were being treated in regard to repairs, involving doors and windows, to their houses over the past ten years.

Samples of rotten timber frames and photos were submitted to the members by the deputation while one woman said that due to the dampness there were mushrooms growing on her ceiling.

In general the members of the deputation complained that in the matter of repairs they had been passed over where the Council priority list was concerned and they alleged that there was a conspiracy in the Council against them. One of the deputation claimed that when she complained about her window, it was just boarded up and another told the Council "we feel discriminated against as people in the Estate who made no complaints had repairs carried out" while a third complained that "all I got was silence when I told them that the rain was coming in my door and windows."

When the deputation withdrew after lodging these complaints, the members of the Council proceeded to discuss the situation.

Cllr. Tony Wright said that for some reason these people were being discriminated against and someone was behind it.

The Town Clerk, Mr. B. White, pointed out that repairs to 20 houses in the estate were done last year and 16 had been done this year.

When Cllr. N. Ryan asked whether the discrimination had anything to do with water charges, the Town Engineer, Mr. G. Taylor agreed that most of the people on the deputation were in arrears with their water charges.

Cllr. B. Kyne then said that if the non-payment of the water charges was proving an inhibitor where house repairs were concerned, he thought those concerned should be informed of this and it was agreed that this should be done.

When the Town Clerk stated that a sum of £4,000 for repairs still remained, it was agreed that this should be spent on repairing single windows in the estate in accordance with a priority list to be prepared by the Town Engineer. But it was made clear that anyone who had defaulted in the payment of water charges would not be included in such a list.

Gold Medal For Ballyduff Athlete

At the National Community Games Finals held in Butlins, Mosney, Co. Meath at the weekend, Patrick Noonan, representing the Ballyduff area collected a gold medal when he won the All-Ireland U-13 600m. walking race title.

Patrick was competing in the finals for the first time having won the Co. title in Cappoquin in July. It was also a first for the Ballyduff area to win a gold medal at the National finals. Michael Molumphy captured a silver medal in 1988 when he finished second in the U-12 600m. event. These results are a tremendous achievement for a small area.

Congratulations to Patrick on his success and also to his coaches, namely Mary Molumphy, Bridie Feeney and Rena Carey (Lismore) herself a Community Games gold medal winner in the walking event.

Ballyduff Community Council will host a reception for Patrick and his trainer on Saturday night, September 15 at 9 p.m. in the School Hall. All welcome.

A week earlier, another Ballyduff representative namely Kate Canning was placed fourth in the semi-final heat of the U-8 swimming event.

P.S. — Patrick Noonan was the only Waterford competitor to win gold at the finals last weekend.

PAUSE FOR THOUGHT

WITH FR. PADDY

"God Is The Author Of Life"

In the beginning He implanted a law in the soul of man, and He expected man to be guided by that law. We know how Cain, after murdering his brother felt the force of that law. Time, sin and the general depravity of man so dimmed the power of this light, that eventually man no longer heard the voice, and inevitably failed to discern right from wrong. When God gave his Commandments to Moses, he re-awakened and rendered more luminous that light. And in our time we have it from the lips of Jesus that God's law must be upheld and observed. Indeed, He not only confirmed, but He also explained in greater detail the extent, the force and application of the Ten Commandments. It is clear from all the Lord said that His law was based and fashioned on the principles of love of God and love of one's neighbour. It follows that it is impossible for one to love God if one does not love one's neighbour. "Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and do not the things I say." We know from St. Luke that these words were said by Jesus to certain followers who honoured Him with words, but, who at the same time did not obey Him in deeds.

It is therefore no surprise to hear what Sirach, writing 200 years before Christ, had this to say in the first reading re forgiveness. He writes, if you expect to receive mercy and compassion from God, you yourself must extend that same sympathy to your neighbour. And, he condemns anger and wrath without reserve, and asks us to consider our own shortcomings, and we'll find it hard to blame others or to withhold the hand of pardon. He makes it obvious that if one refuses mercy, continues to bear grudges and bears ill-will towards one's neighbour that one has literally chained himself to his sins. He adds, it is time for such a one to remember his end! The Jewish people in those days were wont to live by the rule "a tooth for a tooth." If you injure me, it is my right to pay back with the same coin. In a sense, it brings home to us what happens when God's laws are brushed aside. Despite the people's lack of interest the prophets remained faithful to their task. You have many today who are not interested in God's word. I've heard many say, we are better than those who go to Church. You almost get tired of people saying on the radio, "I do my own thing." It is the same as saying "I know better than God." We should strive to follow in the steps of Christ, and our success will show how much we've succeeded in allowing His love to influence our lives.

Paul, in stating in the second reading that God is Lord of both the living and the dead, is simply saying that God has unlimited power and dominion over the whole universe. It means we are all servants of God, and it follows that if we bow, acknowledge and accept His supreme control and domination, we'll strive to abide by His laws. Those who ignore and reject God's law, will have to account for their blindness. There's no room for revenge or retaliation. We must behave like God in extending forgiveness and pardon. Of course, it will not always be easy, but it is the law of God. I agree, we live in a tough world, where there's little mercy, and where the practice is still "a tooth for a tooth." The Romans said: "see how the Christians love one another." It is up to all of us to make the world realise the existence and the power of God's love. And, unless we do, how is she going to learn the wisdom of the ways of God.

You know if you bottle up your injuries, you'll cause yourself more trouble to yourself than to the object of your vehemence. Experience proves that when someone offends you, it is better to pray for that one rather than allow the matter to take control of your mind. We as Christians are expected to behave with Christ-like behaviour, yet! many of us act no better than those who know no better. We hurt ourselves. We fail Christ. Now, whatever views one may have about the wrongs and rights of North of Ireland, the hatred that exists between different denominations bears the hall-mark of the devil. You may even blame Dr. Paisley, but he is no more than a symptom of the underlying enmity that pervades the unhappy situation. I can only say what Jesus once said about a like situation: "that kind of devil can only be driven out by prayer and fasting." Surely we have a grave duty to make Christ live in our land. Surely, if we act like Christ, we'll make them love Jesus.

PART OF CHRISTIAN LIFE

The Gospel tells us that brotherly love and forgiveness are not mere recommendations, but are a necessary part of Christian life. Their absence in any life, would raise doubts about salvation. Often, when the word sin is mentioned, we immediately think of impurity, murder, dishonesty, etc., and, the last thing we'd consider sinful, is the harsh and unjust treatment we mete out to others. If you claim to follow Christ, you must respect, deal fairly, help and when necessary, pardon and forgive. Otherwise, there will be no place for you in the Kingdom of God. Oh! it is not easy to forgive, but then, it is not a matter of choice. We perhaps could learn from the pardons meted out by fathers and mothers to their children, where love is an influencing factor. If we really loved God, we'd have no difficulty in forgiving our brother.

The Gospel reminds us that there are no bounds or limits to God's mercy, which is most consoling. However, when one is on the receiving end of injury from the same offender, it will certainly try one's patience, but it would never release one from the obligation of behaving as a Christian. Indeed, one would be entitled to take legitimate steps to off-set such unwarranted attacks, but never, never should one withhold forgiveness. The Christian religion is demanding, but when lived and practised, there is no other way of life to match it.

To Seek Injunction Against Opening Of "Chipper" In Abbeyside?

Referring to the recent opening of what he described as "a chipper" at Sexton Street, Abbeyside despite a planning refusal, Cllr. Billy Kyne at the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last Monday night was informed that this was concerned in one of the orders made by the County Manager since the previous Council meeting directing that a warning notice be served on Mr. John Torrens, Knockyoolan, Clonea, Dungarvan.

Cllr. Kyne said that the Council had been more than reasonable where this matter was concerned but the people adjacent to the chipper in Abbeyside who had objected to it also had rights which had to be looked after. "The developer of this premises has cocked a snook at this Council and the Council officials and on one occasion he has even threatened me over this matter," said Cllr. Kyne.

Cllr. Kyne went on to say that an appeal against the refusal to grant permission for the premises had been lodged with An Bord

Pleanala but because of the delay which the processing of such an appeal could take, he was proposing to bring documentation before the County Manager to institute proceedings to seek an injunction in the case against "a person who was now flouting the law and sniggering at officials of this Council."

Cllr. P. Power said he fully supported all that had been said by Cllr. Kyne.

Cllr. Tony Wright also said that he totally supported the local residents where this matter was concerned but he questioned the costs which could be involved in an injunction. "It might be just as well to let the matter go to its natural conclusion," he said.

Cllr. Austin Hallahan thought that this was a matter which should be followed up by the Council so as to set a standard for any future such cases. "We should hit this in the head now to show that conditions imposed by the Planning Act are implemented," he said.

It was agreed that the matter would come before the Council again following Cllr. Kyne's discussions with the Co. Manager on the subject.

International Banking Posts For Abbeyside Girls

Two girls from Abbeyside Dungarvan have recently left to take up posts as bilingual secretaries in major banking institutions on opposite sides of the Atlantic.

Jillian Mulcahy, "Derrianna," Friars Walk, Abbeyside and Nicola James, 44 Glendine Drive, Seapark, Abbeyside, earlier this year successfully completed a two year diploma course in Languages and International Secretarial Studies in the Leinster Business and Secretarial Institute in Dublin. Apart from the usual commercial subjects including word processing, both girls are highly proficient in speaking German and French and as a practical measure to perfect the latter, both have already spent several months in Paris on work routines.

In June, Jillian left for Belgium where she took up a bilingual secretarial position with the State Street Boston Bank in Brussels while on Friday last Nicola, who proved highly popular with the Management and staff of the "Leader" where she worked on holiday jobs during the past summer left Dublin Airport with a group of seven other girls from the LBSI en route for Washington in the U.S. to join the World Bank as bilingual secretaries.

Phoning home to her parents in Abbeyside on Friday night, Nicola reported a safe landing after a long flight and said that they had been given a very special welcome with flags flying and banners extending welcoming wishes to the Irish girls who had just arrived in Washington Airport from Ireland.

So Jillian and Nicola who have not only been schoolmates through the years but are also personal friends, now find themselves in new environments on opposite sides of the Atlantic, Jillian in Europe and Nicola in the U.S. In congratulating the girls on their appointments, we join with all their friends at home here in Dungarvan in wishing both every happiness and prosperity in the years that stretch ahead of them.

Clashmore Man Used Dud Cheques To Open Bank Accounts

Lismore District Court heard on Wednesday last that a 54-year-old retired sea captain had opened an account in a branch of Allied Irish Banks by means of a Midlands Bank cheque made out in a sum of £136,000 to himself, and was then given £1,500 in cash and a further £500 in sterling on the strength of the transaction.

Before the court was Daniel O'Connell, Coolboa, Clashmore, who pleaded guilty to obtaining £1,500 cash and £500 sterling from Allied Irish Banks, Bridge Street, Dungarvan on October 31 last year by falsely claiming that a Midlands Bank cheque for £136,000 was a good and valid order.

On the strength of that transaction O'Connell received £1,500 cash and another £500 in sterling from the bank. Supt. McAndrew said that all the money however was recovered within 24 hours and none of the financial institutions were at a loss.

HAD DRINK PROBLEM

O'Connell also pleaded guilty to obtaining a cheque book valued £2 from the Dungarvan branch of ACC on September 29, 1989 with intent to defraud.

Supt. Ray McAndrew told the court that O'Connell lodged a dud cheque for £1,000 at the ACC branch and then opened a new account. He did the same at the AIB branch by lodging a dud Midlands Bank cheque made out in his own name for a sum of £136,000.

Mr. J. P. Gordon, Solicitor, said the defendant had a drink problem at the time but this was now entirely behind him.

District Justice W. F. O'Connell said the case was an "unusual and extraordinary" one in that the defendant had been given £2,000 by a bank on the strength of a very poorly forged cheque.

He applied the Probation Act to the defendant on his undertaking to enter a bond to keep the peace for a period of 12 months.

Six Months Prison Sentence For Dungarvan Youth At Lismore Court

A 19-year-old youth who went on a criminal spree over a two month period, and who has threatened to kill his father if the chance arises, was sentenced to six months detention at Lismore District Court last Wednesday.

William Whelan, Childers Estate, Dungarvan pleaded guilty to eleven indictable charges together with additional charges under the Road Traffic Act.

The court heard that between May and July last, Whelan broke into a number of premises in Dungarvan including the Presentation Convent and Shamrock restaurant where he stole £40 and caused malicious damage to the amount of £611.

He also stole £100 in cash from the ACC offices, property from other premises, and on dates in May and June took cars without the owners' consent.

"He went wild during his criminal spree," Supt. Ray McAndrew told District Justice W. F. O'Connell, while Detective/Garda John Molloy said that while Whelan may be slow in some ways he was also very cunning.

Detective Molly disclosed that the defendant had told the gardai that he would kill his father "if the chance arises," and witness said he would be concerned for the safety of Whelan's father.

"This defendant is violent and truculent by nature," he added.

Whelan was sentenced to six months imprisonment on each charge, the sentences to run concurrently. Recognisances were fixed in the event of an appeal.

Waterford Hoteliers Plan New Extensions

Waterford Co. Council has granted planning permission to Mr. John McGrath, for the erection of a 7-bedroom extension to the Clonea Strand Hotel. This magnificent hotel with its fine leisure centre which includes an indoor heated swimming pool and a fully equipped gymnasium has enjoyed a very busy summer season and the proprietors have planned to provide the same excellent facilities both in the hotel and in the leisure centre for their many clients in the months ahead.

An application for planning permission has also been received by the Council from Mr. John Kelly for the erection of a 9-bedroom extension in a detached single block at The Haven Hotel, Dunmore East.

Ardmore Group's Plan To Win Larger Slice Of Tourism Cake

Ardmore Enterprise Co-op, established last year, following the disastrous wet summer of 1988, and representative of every interest in the parish presented their very ambitious tourism development plan armed at winning a larger slice of the tourism cake in the years ahead, to Mr. Denis Lyons, T.D., Minister for State at the Department of Tourism and Transport, in Ardmore last Friday.

Details of the proposals in the plan which will involve the expenditure of £600,000 over the next four years were unfolded by Richard Lincoln, Chairman of the Group at a largely attended Press Reception held at Cliff House Hotel, Ardmore.

Mr. Lincoln outlined the principal elements of the plan aimed at extending the tourist season by serving the growing continental market attracted to Ardmore to see the Round Tower and other historical features of the area. Most of the proposed expenditure will go towards the provision of a Visitor Centre incorporating a Heritage Centre, Tourist Information Office and other facilities.

Accepting the plan, Minister Lyons pointed out that tourism was everybody's business and he said that the plan would only succeed if there was a co-operative approach throughout the community to bring about the change and development necessary to attract a much greater share of tourism in the region. Praising the work of the Enterprise Co-op, the Minister said that the development plan which they had now prepared was an excellent study which took stock of the current strengths and weaknesses of the tourism sector in Ardmore and which pointed the way forward for the evolving needs for international and domestic tourism.

"The good performance of the industry since 1988," said Minister Lyons, "the solid government support for tourism and the excellent growth prospects have all combined to accelerate the rate of new developments. It is my hope that Ardmore will be able to attract investment to see the Co-op's plan become reality. You have made an excellent start, keep up the good work and success will be yours. Tosach maith leath na h-oibre."

Other points made by Mr. Lincoln in a most eloquent address to the very representative gathering referred to a survey which showed that in 1989, out of the 35,000 visitors to Ardmore, no fewer than 14,000 had only remained for half an hour and left without spending a penny; the need to improve sign posting into the resort; the need for more B & B accommodation and hotels and a plan to introduce "activity holidays" which would extend the tourism season by being less weather dependent.

"I see our historic Round Tower as a natural amenity around which our resort will develop. We have a beautiful, unspoilt village which now looks fabulous thanks to the County Manager, Mr. Hurley, the Co. Council Chairman, Mr.

Kyne and the Co. Council team. Our tourism development plan is a worthwhile project which we hope over the next four years will create eleven full-time jobs and treble tourist expenditure in Ardmore to £2.4 million," said Mr. Lincoln.

WILL MAKE THE COUNTY HUM

Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager and Chairman of the County Development Team said that the Co-op's plan was an exciting one and implementing it would mean a big commitment by everyone in Ardmore. "The work must be done at local level and it's only the people of Ardmore who can build Ardmore," he said. Pledging full support for the plan Mr. Hurley added, "we can make this county hum in co-operation with the nine other tourism co-ops now around the county."

Mr. Billy Kyne, Chairman, Co. Council said that the plan was not only ambitious but also well thought out and he assured the Enterprise Co-op of the Council's continued support in their drive to improve the environment.

Mr. Pat Nolan, South East Tourism Organisation said that he had no doubt but that there was a real stir about and things were about to happen.

Speaking on behalf of Waterford Foods plc who sponsored the Reception which included an excellent buffet lunch, Mr. John Byrne, Area Manager, congratulated the Ardmore Enterprise Group on their initiative in formulating such an ambitious development plan. Assuring the group of the ongoing support of Waterford Foods, he wished them the success which they undoubtedly deserved for the future.

PRESENTATION TO MINISTER

To mark the occasion of his visit to Ardmore, Mrs. Currie Hosford, the very efficient, helpful and courteous Secretary then presented the Minister on behalf of the Group, most appropriately, with a piece of Ardmore Pottery.

Council Chairman Welcomes Land Purchased For Ring Housing

While expressing concern that the Council's housing programme was being restricted by lack of government funding, Cllr. Billy Kyne, chairman, Waterford Co. Council told the "Leader" that he was delighted with the Council's recent land acquisition for housing in the Ring Gaeltacht village of Ballinagoul.

"For a number of years," said Cllr. Kyne, "there was no housing programme for the Ring area because the Council had no suitable land. However this changed when a motion in my name calling for the acquisition of land suitable for building in Ring was unanimously supported by the Council members and I am now delighted to be able to announce that the Planning Department of the Council are at present drawing up plans for the erection of between 4 and 6 houses in Ballinagoul."

Councillor Kyne added that he had been informed by the Council's Housing Section that two 3-bedroom houses would start this year with a completion date in 1991 while under the Council's current building programme it was proposed to erect a single rural cottage in the locality in the coming months. "This will be a welcome start on our housing list in the Ring area and it can be added to in the Council's future housing programmes," he said.

Don't Close Knockanore P.O. Says Councillor

Cllr. Willie McDonnell at the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council in Dungarvan last Monday moved a motion calling on the Council to request An Post not to include Knockanore Post Office in the 300 Sub-Post Offices earmarked for closure.

Cllr. McDonnell said that he understood that Knockanore was one of the rural post offices listed by An Post for closure and in addition, the post office in Glencairn was also to be closed. These closures would mark the end of rural Ireland as it was.

The closure of such a post office as Knockanore was absolutely disgraceful as it had been used by the people of a big rural area for 100 years. In fact, said Cllr. McDonnell, none of the rural post offices anywhere in the country should be closed.

The motion was seconded by Cllr. Jimmy Quirke, supported by Cllr. Paddy Kenneally who said that such post offices provided facilities and services for the people in the rural areas, and was passed unanimously.

Multiple Sclerosis Sponsored Cycle

Stephen Curran, Eamonn O Mairtin and "Gandhi" O'Brien, who will cycle from Dungarvan to Dublin on Saturday, September 22, in aid of the Multiple Sclerosis Fund.

(Photo: Rory Wyley)

The Brickey Rangers Football Club have organised a sponsored cycle in aid of the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Ireland (M.S.) from Dungarvan to Dublin on the occasion of the All-Ireland football final on Sunday, September 16. Three intrepid young men: Eamon Martin, "Gandhi" O'Brien and Stephen Curran (God bless them) have undertaken the herculean task of pedalling the long journey on Saturday, September 15.

This is indeed a very worthy cause as the disease is becoming more widespread, in fact we have quite a few cases in and around Dungarvan and West Waterford. A lot of money is urgently needed for research. One of the worst features of the disease (which attacks the nerve system) is the fact that, as yet, they don't know what causes it.

The MS Society can help the sufferers in many ways, such as counselling, taking them on outings, and, where it is warranted, helping them materially.

The Dungarvan Branch was formed at the end of last year and to-date, with very limited funds, we have been able to bring some little cheer into the lives of those suffering from MS.

The Committee would very much appreciate a generous response from the public, not only for this worthy cause, but also in recognition of the three gallant lads who are prepared to give their sweat to help those less fortunate than themselves.

Sponsorship cards can be had from the three cyclists, the members of the Brickey Rangers Club or any member of the MS Committee. The route they will take is as follows: Start at Grattan Square, Dungarvan at 7 a.m.; then to Waterford City, Kilkenny, Carlow, Castledermot, Kilkcullen, Naas and Dublin.

● Included in the picture are the three cyclists (l. to r.) Stephen Curran, Eamon Martin and "Gandhi" O'Brien. Also included are Richie Walsh, Chairman MS Committee, Kieran O'Connor, Waterford Foods (main sponsors) and members of Dungarvan MS Committee.

PENSMAN Takes You Behind The SPOTLIGHT

TOSNU MAITH LEATH NA H-OIBRE

The Minister of State at the Department of Tourism and Transport, Mr. Denis Lyons T.D., very properly described the great work done by the members of the Ardmore Enterprise Co-op in the preparation and presentation of their very fine Tourism Development Plan as "Tosnu maith leath na h-oibre" which freely translated means 'a good start is half the battle.'

Indeed the members of the group left nothing to chance in organising the Press Reception attended by the Minister at the beautiful Cliff House Hotel in Ardmore last Friday. From start to finish the event went off without a hitch. An excellent car parking arrangement ensured convenient parking for everyone attending the reception while a very well prepared briefing was available to the members of the Press and T.V.

When the official business had been dispensed with the invited guests enjoyed the hospitality which followed when the Enterprise Co-op hosted a magnificently prepared cold buffet lunch served under the watchful eye of Cliff House Hotelier Aidan Nugent.

Indeed for the press and t.v. representatives present the occasion was a more than pleasant one thanks to the excellent services provided for them by Richard Lincoln, Currie Hosford, Liam Gleeson and the other members of the Enterprise Co-op Executive.

The entire exercise was well thought out and excellently researched as tourism interests from all the surrounding localities had been invited to hear Richard Lincoln's able presentation of Ardmore's Development Plan which incorporates the facilities which each provides as complementary to the proposals for Ardmore and the region about it.

Certainly there was a great air of encouragement present in Ardmore last Friday and hope for the future there were bright. As Richard Lincoln pointed out "the two goals of the Co-op are to improve the economic life of the area and to encourage the creation of additional full-time sustainable employment in the parish of Ardmore and Grange."

It is our hope that both of these aims will be achieved in the course of the next three or four years. The effort mounted by the Enterprise Co-op to date certainly deserves such success.

LONG SERVING COUNCIL OFFICIAL RETIRES

Quietly, as was always her wont, Miss Eileen Hayes has retired from her post as Assistant Staff Officer in the offices of Dungarvan Urban Council. Her retirement took effect on August 31 last after a service of 43 years as an official of the Council.

It was on August 14, 1947 that Eileen first took up duty as a Clerk-typist in the Council under the then Town Clerk, Eugene Deery. In the interim period she served under six Town Clerks, four of whom went on to become County Managers.

Throughout her long period of service Eileen lived and continues to live at her home in Garrynageragh, Ballinroad. A dedicated member of the Council's administrative staff, she was always firm and straightforward in her attitudes and dealings with others.

To mark her retirement, her colleagues on the Council staff arranged an unexpected farewell party for her in the Council Chambers at which a television set was presented to her as a token of their thanks and appreciation.

On last Monday night, the members of the Urban Council at their monthly meeting, on the proposal of Cllr. Paddy Power joined in paying tribute to the service rendered to the Council by Eileen during her long period as a member of the staff and wished her every happiness in her retirement. We join with the Councillors in reiterating our own good wishes to Eileen for continued health and happiness in the future.

RISING COSTS OF SCHOOL BOOKS AND UNIFORMS

Last week marked the end of the long summer holidays in the schools and it was a case of back to the daily grind for the children.

But for a lot of the parents it was a time which placed the family purses under a great deal of pressure as they had to meet the ever increasing demands to purchase books and school uniforms.

The constant changing of school books from one year to the next has become a constant source of irritation for parents and the practice of making school books obsolete within a year has now developed into an absolute racket. We are not sure who is responsible for this, whether it is the whiz-kids in the Department of Education or the book publishers or a combination of both.

Then there is the matter of school uniforms which appear to be coming more and more exacting each year with the various educational establishments opting for more and more distinctive outfits. No longer having school-going children ourselves we are not burdened with costs of this nature but we have been informed that in some cases there is very little change out of £150 to outfit a child. How families with more than one child going to school can now cope is a mystery.

So widespread have the complaints become where these matters are concerned that even the Minister for Education, Mrs. Mary O'Rourke, has herself admitted that parents cannot be blamed for voicing their dissatisfaction about the continued rise in the cost of school books and uniforms. Last week she promised to "speak very briskly" to the book sellers about the problem.

Dealing with the question of uniforms the Minister said that parents should be allowed to make their own children's uniforms as long as they stuck to the set colour and cut. She urged school managements to be "much more considerate and sympathetic towards the needs of parents" where this was concerned.

We trust that the points made by the Education Minister will be noted in the relevant quarters.

AUGUSTINIANS IN ABBEYSIDE

Fr. Jackie Power OSA, now in New Ross, who was present at the "Augustinian 700" celebrations in Abbeyside recently has sent us the following poem about the occasion written by an English visitor, which he has received.

700 years of Augustinians in Dungarvan and Abbeyside,

Lots of people gathered from far and wide

To mark the anniversary the people got together, Celebrations were made and everyone prayed for good weather,

Like their forbears before them priests crossed the harbour by boat,

The skipper did a lovely job keeping all afloat,

Across the beach they walked to the small church by the sea,

To be greeted by the people ready to pray the rosary,

Inside the church was full, everyone glowing with pride,

Concelebrated Mass was said by Augustinians from far and wide,

A commemorative plaque was then unveiled in the lightness of dusk,

To see the smiling faces of the parish was a must,

Their hard work and their faithfulness to St. Augustine had been fulfilled,

Everyone went home happy, joyful and thrilled,

The plaque now overlooks the sea in Dungarvan Bay

To commemorate the Augustinians who arrived 700 years ago today.

THE SPELLING WAS INCORRECT

In our paragraph in last week's column concerning the meaning of the word 'Clogchas' in relation to the ruined portion at the back of Abbeyside Church, we have been brought to book by Nioclás MacCraith as Rinn O gCuanach for misspelling the word. The fact was that we placed the letter 'h' in the wrong position. To put the record straight, the correct spelling is 'Clogchas' and it means a shrine or belfry.

ANONYMOUS LETTERS

During the past week two anonymous letters were received at the "Leader" Office, one signed 'Credo' dealing with Melleray Grotto and the other signed 'Disgusted Leader' from Lismore. Traditionally anonymous letters are ignored in newspaper offices everywhere and in accordance with this tradition the two letters referred to were consigned to the wastepaper basket. Only letters bearing the name of the writer, even if a nom-de-plume is to be used, will be published.

The Jackets Green

This year marks the tercentenary of the Battle of the Boyne in which William of Orange defeated James 11 in 1690, but all was still not lost for the Irish and Catholic cause as Patrick Sarsfield and his men still held out in Limerick but only for another year or so before they took off in the "Flight of the Wild Geese" after the infamous Treaty of Limerick.

Our choice for the balled corner this week "The Jackets Green," recalls those other tragic times in Ireland and the brave men and women who vainly tried to stem the Orange tide.

When I was a maiden fair and young,
On the pleasant banks of Lee,
No bird that in that greenwood sung
Was half so blithe and free,
My heart ne'er beat with flying feet,
No love sang me his queen,
Till down the glen rode Sarsfield's men
And they wore their jackets green.

Young Donal sat on his gallant grey
Like a king on a royal seat,
And my heart leaped out on his regal way,
To worship at his feet.
Oh! love, had you come in those colours
Dressed,
And wooed with a soldier's mien,
I'd have laid my head on your throbbing
breast,
For the sake of your jacket green.

No hoarded wealth did my love own,
Save the good sword that he bore;
But I loved him for himself alone,
And the colour bright he wore.
For had he come in England's red,
To make me England's queen,
I'd rove the high green hills instead,
For the sake of the Irish green.

When William stormed with shot and shell,
At the walls of Garryowen.
In the breach of death my Donal fell,
And he sleeps near the Treaty Stone.
That breach the foeman never crossed,
While he swung his broad sword keen;
But I do not weep my darling lost
For he fell in his jacket green.

When Sarsfield sailed away I wept
As I heard the wild schone.
I felt, then, dead as the men who slept
'Neath the fields of Garryowen.
While Ireland held my Donal blessed,
No wild sea rolled between,
Till I would fold him to my breast
All robed in his Irish green.

I saw the Shannon's purple tide
Roll by the Irish town
As I stood in the breach by Donal's side
When England's flag went down.
And now it glowers as it seeks the skies
Like a blood-red curse between,
I weep, but 'tis not women's sighs
Will raise the Irish green!

Oh! Ireland, sad is thy lonely soul,
And loud beats the winter sea,
But sadder and higher the wild waves roll
From the hearts that break for thee.
Yet grief shall come to our heartless foes,
And their thrones in the dust be seen,
So, Irish maids, have none but those
Who wear the jackets green!

Recent Deaths

Mrs. Ellen Scanlon

It is with sincere sorrow and regret that we record the death of Mrs. Ellen Scanlon, relict of Patrick Scanlon, New Street, Lismore, which occurred at her home on Wednesday, September 5. Ellen was in her 93rd year and had lived for over 60 years in Lismore. One of her greatest pleasures in recent years was in receiving visits from her many neighbours.

She will be sadly missed by her family — sons Simon and Chris, daughter Alice, daughter-in-law Pat, nephew and niece, relatives and friends, to whom we extend deep sympathy.

Her remains were removed on Thursday evening from St. Carthage's House to St. Carthage's Church, Lismore, where they were received and blessed by Rev. Fr. Nugent, P.P., who also officiated at the burial on Friday.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

Can any reader of the "Leader" throw light on the photo which is the subject of our "Remembering Other Days" this week? Bearing the imprint of E. Keohan & Son, Photographers, 17, Main St., Dungarvan, it was taken on January 20, 1926 and shows the then Colligan Technical School. Obviously those in the photo include teachers and students, probably of a woodwork class as the various items of furniture in the picture would indicate. It would be interesting if anyone could tell us where in Colligan the school was located and how long it was there. As this feature has proved of such interest to readers everywhere and to enable us to continue it we would ask anyone who might have old photos which might be included in it to let us have them. Anyone who submits a photo will have it returned safely following publication.

I am pleased to inform you that the Gardai have now agreed the following alterations with us:—

(1) Relocation of Stop Sign 18m. south east from its present location.

(2) Erection of appropriate Warning Signs.

(3) Marking of "Stop Sign Ahead" on road surface to provide advance warning to motorists of the existence of the relocated Stop Sign.

I trust these measures which will be implemented as soon as possible, will be satisfactory and will result in some improvement in safety at the junction concerned."

Bishop Magee Speaks Of His Life With Three Popes

The audience in Villierstown Church Community Centre had a very special evening last week. Fr. Dan Ormond, O.S.A. was in the chair, and he explained how they owed the great privilege of having Bishop John Magee of Cloyne as the evening's speaker to the fact that as fellow Irishmen, they had met when they were each working in Rome.

Opening his lecture, Bishop Magee spoke of his gladness to come to Villierstown and said how pleased he was to help in a function which was in aid of a Community Centre. The Bishop then gave a detailed and uniquely interesting account of his "Life With Three Popes". He told how, after some years in the Mission field he had been called to Rome to work with an evangelistic office, and how amazed he was later on to have been put forward to become secretary to Pope Paul VI. He shared with the audience the sense of awe of his first day at the Vatican. He described how throughout the years, with each Pope he had felt himself close to a man of very great holiness and also great humanity.

Bishop Magee gave word pictures of each of the Popes whom he served. He spoke chiefly of Pope Paul VI, often thought to be austere and rather remote, but the Bishop described small instances which revealed him as a truly humane, caring man. He also told of a visit to Pope Paul of Anglican Archbishop of Canterbury Dr. Michael Ramsay, and of how these two men shared great mutual respect and love, and actually exchanged rings with each other. He spoke with great affection, too, of "smiling" Pope John Paul I and of how our present Pope John Paul II has continued his practice of openness to all people.

Finally Bishop Magee told the audience of his own sense of special privilege to have been close to men of such holiness for such a proportion of his life.

PRIVILEGED AUDIENCE

Fr. Ormond, in thanking Bishop Magee, expressed the thought that the audience had also been privileged to have been allowed to hear such a sincere account of this unique life. He also thanked the several members of the community who had prepared Villierstown Church for the evening, for the seating, the superb flower arrangements and catering.

Members of the audience had come from Youghal, Dungarvan, Lismore and Cappelquin as well as locally, so it was good to have an opportunity before going home to have a cup of tea and chat.

The Trustees of Villierstown Church are glad to name a profit of £562 from the evening. This includes a very generous cheque from Bishop Michael Russell, and is encouraging to the committee in the work they are undertaking in restoring the building for community use.

RESURFACING OF CENTRE OF TOWN STREETS

A programme of resurfacing of the Centre Town Streets is currently in operation. This will cause some disruption of traffic over a period of weeks. Any inconvenience caused will be kept to a minimum.

How to pick a new shrub

SEPTEMBER is the ideal month for starting to introduce or add to the trees and shrubs in the garden.

You can do this very cheaply or expensively depending on whether you opt for propagation of existing stock or buying new from the garden centre.

Obviously, propagation will save you lots of money, and if you have a keen gardener for a relative or neighbour, you might be able to swap one of your varieties for something new out of their garden.

Specimen

But you may have your heart set on something that is just not on offer or grows so slowly that you would rather buy a specimen already well grown.

In which case, you'll be making a trip to the garden centre and here are some dos and don'ts to remember:

DON'T buy a plant with a lot of weed growth in the container. It probably shows that it has been in stock for some time and neglected, although one or two small weeds could also show that the plant is well established and set for planting.

By Pete Moss

DO choose a sturdy and balanced plant with strong branches. Compact and stout specimens are often a better bet than a dearer one which is bigger or leggier, because they are better set to grow into their new home rather than a more mature plant.

DON'T choose a plant with an old and faded label. It's probably a sign that the plant has been in stock for a long time.

DO check for yellowing, sagging or damaged leaves. They are signs of pests and neglect.

DO check that the roots are well anchored by carefully lifting the plant from the base of the stem. The other extreme is that the plant may be pot bound with roots pushing out from the base of the pot.

Suited

Container grown trees and shrubs can more or less be planted at any time of the year but it is best to avoid particularly dry spells and, while evergreens are well suited to planting now, others may be better planted next month. The basic steps when planting are:

*Always water the plant while still in its container.

*Dig a hole which will easily take the size of the container, allowing the soil ball to sit no more than an inch below ground level.

*Break up the bottom of the hole to allow the roots easy purchase and then fork in moist peat and compost.

Tapping

*Remove plants from plastic pots by carefully but firmly tapping the rim until the container slides off, allowing the plant to be sited in the hole. Polythene bag pots should have their bases cut away first before the plant goes into the hole and the sides can be slit away.

*Fill in around the soil ball with a mixture of two parts soil and one of moist peat and garden compost/planting compost. Firm down and cover with a mulch to keep weeds from establishing in the broken soil.

Lismore Farmer Fined For Polluting River Blackwater

A serious pollution incident occurred when farm slurry caused the colour of the River Blackwater to change it was stated at Lismore Court before District Justice W. F. O'Connell on Wednesday last.

Waterford County Council prosecuted Lismore farmer William Houlihan of Lyrenacallee West, who pleaded guilty to allowing polluting matter to enter a tributary of the Blackwater on April 23 last in contravention of the 1977 Water Pollution Act.

Ray O'Dwyer, an executive engineer with the Council, said the pollution had been caused when the slurry escaped from an open lagoon into a stream and eventually it found its way into the Blackwater.

"It was a serious incident," said Mr. O'Dwyer, "because the slurry changed the water colour in the river."

REMEDIAL MEASURES

He agreed with Mr. Joe Lavan, Solicitor, defending, that Houlihan has already taken remedial measures to prevent a recurrence, while major works being carried out by him which the County Council has approved will cost the farmer in excess of £35,000.

District Justice W. F. O'Connell fined Houlihan £50 and ordered him to pay £205 expenses and £75 costs.

Trout Is A Healthy Choice

WHY not try fresh farm trout as part of your healthy, varied diet?

They are an excellent source of protein and contain valuable polyunsaturated fats as well as vitamins A, B and D.

Here are two recipes which will really impress your partner or family and friends. The first require a fair amount of waiting time, as you would expect with a marinade, and the second for use with a microwave oven.

Marinated Trout with Pepper Medley

Ingredients:
2 British trout, cleaned
3 mixed fresh peppers, sliced

Marinade:
3 tablespoons sunflower or olive oil
1/2 tablespoon mixed herbs
1 tablespoon honey
1 tablespoon wine vinegar
salt to taste
freshly ground black pepper

Method:

Score the sides of the trout diagonally (cutting into the flesh) at the thickest part. Place in a shallow dish.

Combine the marinade ingredients and pour over the fish, cover and leave for 1-8 hours in a 'fridge. Pour off the marinade into a saucepan, add peppers, cover, bring to the boil and cook for three minutes or until tender. Stir frequently.

In the meantime grill the trout under a pre-heated

Marinated grilled trout with pepper medley.

medium grill for about five minutes each side.

Turn peppers onto a warmed serving dish and place trout on top.

Serves 2

Trout Fillet with Grapes

Ingredients:
4 British trout fillets
pinch mixed spice
1 clove
150ml white grape juice
1/4 teaspoons cornflour
4oz grapes, halved and de-seeded

Method:

Place trout fillets on a suitable dish, cover with cling-film (pierced several times) and cook in a microwave for 5-6 minutes on Defrost.

Place mixed spice, clove and grape juice in a bowl, cover and microwave on high for three minutes until boiling. Blend cornflour with a little water and stir into liquid.

Return to microwave and cook on high for three minutes, stirring once.

Strain, add grape to liquid and heat through for one minute on high. Pour over the trout fillets and serve.

Serves 4.

To Anne From Mary

I say a little prayer for you,
And I ask the Lord above

To keep you safe within His care

And surround you with His love.

I know you don't need fortune,

Riches or fame,

So I've only asked for blessings

In the Saviour's Holy Name.

May God's blessing forever surround you,

In times of troubles and stress,

May inner joy fill up your heart,

With peace and happiness.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

STEP DANCING

Classes will recommence at Affane Parochial Hall next Saturday afternoon. A free bus will be available to ferry pupils from Cappoquin and home again. Classes will be from 4 p.m. to 5.30 p.m. and will be conducted by the well-known Hogan School of Dancing.

SOCCKER

The Tavern Cup final took place at the Danes Field on Sunday evening last (what a pity that it clashed with the big game at the Sportsfield). It was a local derby in every sense of the term as the participants were Cappoquin A and B. It was exciting from beginning to end but Eugene McLoughlin's goal in the first half was to prove decisive in the end.

Final score — Cappoquin (A) 1 Cappoquin (B) 0.

Teams: Cappoquin A — L. Morrissey, J. Morrissey, M. Walsh, E. Costin, J. Mason, D. Moore, J. J. Henley, D. Cummins, E. McLoughlin, M. Power.

Cappoquin B — M. Looby, M. Morrissey, E. Budden, S. McGrath, D. Mason, C. O'Leary, P. Cullen, M. Lacey, T. Fives, R. Walsh, K. O'Donnell. Referee — P. Mason.

LATE MRS. MARY BURKE

The death took place on Saturday last of Mrs. Mary Burke (nee Sullivan), Knockalara, Cappoquin. Mary spent some time in England before returning with her husband and family to her native place a few years ago. She had been in poor health for some time, a cross which she bore with great fortitude up to the very end.

Sympathy is extended to her husband Michael, son David, daughters Ann and Helen, also to her mother, brothers, sister and other relatives. May she rest in peace.

SEWAGE PROBLEM

The problem of the disposal of sewage from the Sunlawn housing estate has been an ongoing one for years now and despite numerous complaints and representations made by local County Councillors nothing has changed very much. Ironically the problem now is not so much within the estate but on the road outside. People attending church services would be able to testify as to the obnoxious odour coming from the ground immediately adjacent to the church car park. Nowadays great strides are being taken to prevent pollution and rightly so. The sewerage system at Sunlawn is urgently in the need of attention, otherwise the nearby stream will surely be at risk.

AT THE SPORTSFIELD

Last Sunday's fare made up for the many poor games and sparse attendances during the year. In the afternoon the two junior hurling "A" semi-finals were played. In the opening game a gallant second string team from Tallow had to give best to Clashmore, while the second game was a great disappointment to the large Ballysaggart following who were well and truly outclassed by An Rinn. The final in this grade should be something to look forward to.

A huge crowd turned up for the evening game. This was the intermediate Western final between Faha and Shamrocks. Faha are rare visitors to the Sportsfield but they and their huge following certainly created a carnival atmosphere, they cheered every kick of the ball and the jubilant scenes at the end would stir the cockles of the heart. Shamrocks were rocked by two early goals but they clawed their way back to make it a good final.

It was a great occasion in town with celebrations going on into the night, what a pity that we don't have more of the same.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is extended to Garda Denis O'Reilly on the death of his mother, which sad event occurred last week.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

What is the official name of Cappoquin (stone) Bridge?

Answer next week.

Answer to last week's question — It formed part of a road which led to Cappoquin Castle.

CONGRATULATIONS

Best wishes to Ballyduff man Seamie Hannon, on being appointed a county senior hurling selector. Seamie's wife Phyl (McGrath) is of course a local lady from Belleville, Cappoquin.

LATE SR. MERCY GALLAGHER

It is with deep regret that we heard the news of Sr. Mercy Gallagher's death which took place at Mercy Hospital, Cork on Friday, August 17, 1990.

Sr. Mercy had spent a long and fruitful life as a member of the Mercy Community. She was for many years Principal of St. Anne's School. Following her retirement she spent some time on the Welsh Mission in Havenford West and Tenby. Finally, she became resident Manager of St. Michael's School. All those for whom she worked in these different spheres remember her with esteem and affection. There was a large attendance at her funeral. It included members of her family, her community and other Sisters from the Diocese as well as past pupils of St. Anne's and St. Michael's.

The Principal Celebrant of the Mass was Rev. F. Lloyd, C.C., His Lordship Dr. Michael Russell presided. Other clergy present were Very Rev. Wm. Phelan, P.P., Monsignor Michael Olden, Very Rev. J. Mulcahy, P.P., Very Rev. Kevin Mulcahy, P.P., Rev. Seamus O'Dowd, C.C. and Fr. R. Fitzpatrick O.S.A.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Sr. Mercy's family — to her brothers Joe and Frank, her sisters Mrs. K. Horgan and Lucy Carroll, her community, her nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Ar dheis De go raibh a h-anam dilis.

CAPPOQUIN FLOWER CLUB

Our monthly meetings will resume on Tuesday, September 18 at 8.30 p.m. in the Y.M.C.A. Hall. Our demonstrator for the night will be Margaret Morrissey, Dungarvan. A bring and buy plant sale will be held and with a view to spring gardens some daffodil bulbs will be available. Jam and home produce would be welcome.

A club competition with "Golden Harvest" as the theme, maximum width 30" including base. Members are asked to support the competition as this is an open night. Non-members are welcome. Adm. £1.

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

U-12 Hurling — Our U-12 hurlers are still waiting for a definite date to play their Western final opponents Tallow. These youngsters have done the club proud by battling their way to the final. In recent weeks they have played some challenge game versus St. Patrick's and their form was somewhat inconsistent. However in a final anything can happen so go out there lads and give it your best shot and enjoy the occasion.

Immaculate Condition — Glowing tributes to the immaculate condition of our pitch were forthcoming from everyone last weekend and rightly so. It is satisfying to Mickey Fraher, Mossy Morrissey, Tom Buckley and co., to hear those comments and shows their hours of work in the field are not in vain.

Gate Collection Rota — Gate collectors for this week are — M. Fraher, J. Mansfield and P. J. Veale.

On duty next week, September 16 - 22 will be — E. Costin, M. Morrissey and M. Power.

U-16 Football — Our U-16 footballers got back on the winning trail last week when they disposed of St. Oliver's. Their next game will be against Clashmore which should be a very close encounter.

Under-21 Hurling Squad

It might have escaped the thoughts of everyone but may we remind one and all there is still the U-21 H.C. to play. To date players have shown scant interest, so we appeal to players to pull up their socks and come to training each Tuesday and Friday evening at 6.30 p.m. sharp. The entire panel of players is posted on the "tailors" window lest that anyone is in doubt that we do have an U-21 hurling side. So come on lads make an effort.

S.H.C. Relegation Play-Off — Our S.H.C. play-off game to decide relegation to intermediate hurling in all probability could be scheduled shortly. Is it possible to resurrect a senior hurling team to fight this battle? Do we want to play senior hurling or do we face the backward step of a lower division? It is up to you the players to decide this. The field is open to everyone so maybe you might take up the caman and turn up for some training.

CAMOGIE NOTES

Lismore 2-4

Butlerstown 2-1

This was the scoreline after a thrilling junior championship county semi-final in Dungarvan last Monday week. This victory puts Lismore into the county final for the 2nd year in a row.

Lismore were first to score with a point from play by Ber Daly. Butlerstown goaled but Lismore added a goal (C. Ahearn) and a point (S. McCarthy) before half time to leave it 1-2 to 1-0 at the short whistle.

Early in the second half Butlerstown goaled to go in front and then added a point to really put it up to Lismore. We retaliated in the 10th minute with a goal through S. O'Gorman and for the next 12 minutes the scores stood at 2-2 to 2-1. Both teams threw caution to the wind and the speed and intensity at which this match was fought left one breathless. Three minutes from time Lismore forced a "30", up came Deirdre Hickey to put it between the posts. Straight from the puck-out Lismore scored another point (a great score from Emma Dunne from way out the wing) and then came the final whistle. In a mixture of joy and relief we savoured our 1st championship victory over Butlerstown in three years. So now it's on to the County final against Gaultier this weekend.

The last time the club won this title was in 1979 and after the disappointment of losing last years final we will be all out for this one.

Semi-final team — C. Ormond, D.Hickey, M. Hale, M. Caples, E. Ormond, K. Murphy, B. Daly, G. Barry, S. McCarthy, C. Ahearn, S. O'Gorman, M. Kenneally (capt). Subs. — E. Dunne for G. Barry (inj.), J. J. Tobin, N. Roche, C. Howard, L. Heaphy.

BALLINVELLA NOTES

The Centre opened on Tuesday, September 4 for the winter season. It was nice to see a large crowd on the first night. We hope to make the third Tuesday of each month 'card night'. So all "45" fans in the area would be more than welcome. We hope to have a small first prize, a cup of tea and a chat.

A warm welcome is sent to two new families who have come to live in the area — they are the Clark's and the York's.

Don't forget Tuesday, September 18 is card night.

ASTRODAMUS

ARIES
MAR 21-APR 20
You are going to be busy in the home. But there will still be time to make some new friends. An invitation to a special party is coming your way; accept! Listen to advice on Tuesday and Wednesday, which could help solve a problem or two. Don't neglect your health, especially that of your teeth and/or eyes.

TAURUS
APR 21-MAY 21
Don't waste your talents; there are plenty of artistic or drama groups about. Your finances need care. Some heavy bills must be settled before long; a chat with your bank manager could be helpful. Romance is well starred and your emotional future looks good.

GEMINI
MAY 22-JUN 21
A pleasure to make yourself useful to others this week, so do your good Samaritan act. There's a particularly friendly, happy atmosphere in working surroundings and a colleague will have good news. Gemini housewives: specially good week for making special arrangements at home.

CANCER
JUN 22-JUL 22
Right week for special trips anywhere — one of the best weeks in 1990 for business trips. There's a very cheerful aspect on what's happening in the family circle now, and it looks as though you might be getting some welcome invitations from neighbours.

LEO
JUL 23-AUG 23
Forge ahead with your own plans this week. Partnership, finance and other important matters concern you most from Wednesday. You feel that much more content about the way romance is going — in fact, life in general is that much more to your liking right now!

VIRGO
AUG 24-SEP 23
Stay out of the spotlight and spend some time thinking about personal and/or work problems. You could come up with some answers. Midweek, you'll be the centre of attraction and can advance aims and ambitions. If you want to dispose of unwanted possessions, put them on offer to friends and neighbours.

LIBRA
SEP 23-OCT 23
Romantic dreams could come this week. Otherwise, you can expect disruptions from friends and associations. Throughout this phase you'll feel constantly over-worked, so don't take on more than you can comfortably accomplish.

SCORPIO
OCT 24-NOV 22
You may now have problems with your companion; this will be due to pressure outside the home, perhaps a difficult friend or relative. Unattached Scorpions: a new love interest may come into your life, and you will have the energy and the zest to really begin to enjoy life.

SAGITTARIUS
NOV 23-DEC 21
Week starts off less than exciting; the stars highlight possible problems with your love life, or possibly children, but you'll be able to sort it out by week's end. Monday begins a time of special emphasis on work matters, and your health. Nice financial windfall goes as quickly as it came in!

CAPRICORN
DEC 22-JAN 20
There undoubtedly will be many difficulties during the days ahead, and time spent sorting this out will bring inner peace. Tuesday evening, romance and creative pursuits are spotlighted. Keep busy on Thursday but be careful in dealing with neighbours and relatives.

AQUARIUS
JAN 21-FEB 18
Your tactlessness is evident this weekend, and you are likely to offend others. Wednesday evening gives you a chance to sort out any rips and tears in close relationships. Throw a party, if possible! Use care with those in authority.

PISCES
FEB 19-MAR 20
Love is in the stars. There's now an emphasis on correspondence, personal relationships, or perhaps even a short trip. Don't let enthusiasm make a bad impression on Wednesday and Thursday. Be sure to express yourself clearly to others and say exactly what you have in your mind though.

The reason why eggs are egg-shaped

DO you know why an egg is the shape it is? It is because that particular shape gives much greater protection to the unhatched bird inside.

In fact you can apply a certain amount of pressure to the outside of the egg, which it could never withstand if the same pressure were exerted from the inside.

So when the chick is ready to hatch out, it can break the shell from the inside with a gentle tap — a tap which would have no effect at all on the outside.

You must have noticed too that one end of the egg is larger than the other, even though both ends are rounded. This is to help prevent eggs rolling around too much.

When several eggs are lying together in a nest, you will usually find that all the smaller ends are pointing towards the middle; this means the eggs take up the minimum amount of room, which makes it easier for the mother bird to sit and cover them.

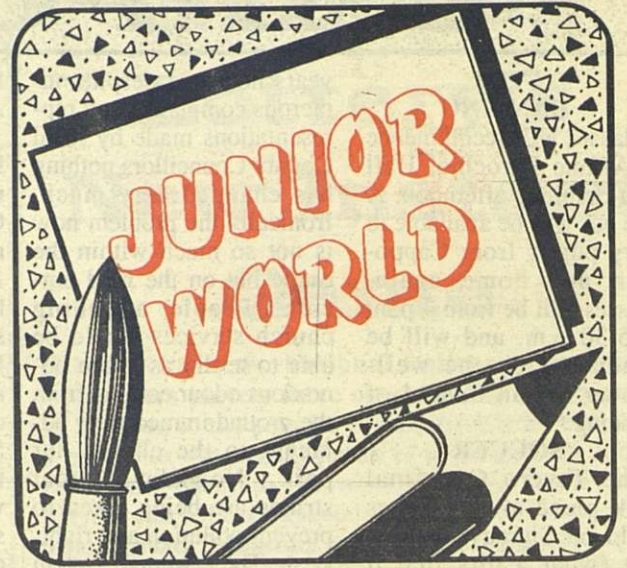

Sea birds usually have longer, narrower eggs. This is for a particular reason; if the eggs get blown by the wind while lying near the top of a cliff, their shape makes them spin round, rather than roll over, off the edge of the cliff.

Most birds, of course, build their nests in trees or hedges. Some prefer to make use of what man has provided, by building their homes in the eaves of roofs, or chimney pots.

But the ostrich does none of these. It finds a nice shallow hole, sometimes up to nine feet across, in which several female birds will lay one egg each.

Then each hen and her mate take it in turns, as a pair, to guard the nest and the eggs, each of which will weigh more than two pounds (that's about the same as a bag of sugar).

Unlike other birds, which sit on their eggs to help them hatch, the ostrich sits between the eggs and protects them from the hot African sun by spreading its wings over them.

DID YOU KNOW?

by AL 495

EIGHTY YEARS AGO THERE WAS A BULL IN AMERICA THAT WEIGHED 5000 POUNDS AND STOOD 6 FEET 2 INCHES IN HEIGHT. IT WAS THE HEAVIEST BULL EVER KNOWN.

THE WEIGHTLESS CONDITIONS IN SPACE MAKE IT NECESSARY FOR ASTRONAUTS' RAZORS TO ALSO BE VACUUM CLEANERS, OTHERWISE THE BITS OF HAIR WOULD FLOAT AROUND THE SPACECRAFT.

AT OBERAMMERGAU, IN GERMANY, A PLAY ABOUT THE CRUCIFIXION IS ENACTED EVERY TEN YEARS AND IS BEING PERFORMED IN 1990. IT WAS STARTED IN 1634 AS A THANKSGIVING FOR PEOPLE WHO HAD SURVIVED A PLAGUE THE PREVIOUS YEAR AND IT ATTRACTS VISITORS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD.

In Memoriam

ALLRIDGE — In loving memory of Chris and George, died September 17, 1972 and December 15, 1974. Padre Pio, Pope John, pray for them. Sacred Heart of Jesus watch over them.

Will those who think of them today,

A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Loving daughter Tina, Alan and family, Romford, Essex.)

BUCKLEY — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of John Buckley, Graigue, Aghish, who died on September 17, 1988.

Oh! friends of mortal years,
So trusted and so true,
Ye are waiting still in the valley of tears,
But I wait to welcome you!
(Always remembered by his loving parents, brothers and relatives.)

CLANCY — Seventh Anniversary — In loving memory of Michael Clancy, late of St. Garvan's Terrace, Dungarvan, who died on September 12, 1983. Masses offered.

(Always remembered by his loving wife Maeve and family.)

HENLEY — First Anniversary — In loving memory of our dear son, Peter, Ballinacourty, who died on September 16, 1989.

God must have thought you special,
To take you the way he did,
They say he only takes the best,
And this he surely did.
Look around your garden,
Lord,
For an angel with a smile,
He won't be hard to recognise,
He must stand out a mile.
So put your arms around him, Lord,
And kiss his smiling face,
For he is very special,
And can never be replaced.
(Love — Mammy, Daddy and Donal.)

HENLEY — Eleventh Anniversary — In loving memory of Maureen Henley, West Street, Tallow, who died on September 11, 1979.

Memories of you are lovingly kept,
Someone too special to ever forget.
(Never forgotten by her son Liam, Alice and family.)

KEARNEY — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of Pa, late of Ahaunboy, Glencairn, who died on September 10, 1985. R.I.P. Masses offered.

Today, tomorrow, our whole life through,
We will always love and remember you.
Gone are the days we used to share,
But in our hearts you are always there.
A special smile, a special face,
A special someone we could never replace.
(Always remembered by his loving wife Mary and family)

McGRATH — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear wife, Bride, Townspark, Lismore whose anniversary occurs today, September 12. Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on her.

The happy hours we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memories still,
But death has left a vacant place,
No one can ever fill.
(Always remembered by your husband, George.)

McGRATH — First Anniversary — Precious memories today and always of my loving mother, Bride, whose first anniversary occurs on September 12, late of Townspark, Lismore. On her soul sweet Jesus have mercy.

They say it's a beautiful journey,
From the old world to the new,
Someday I will make that journey, Mam,
Just to be with you.
And when I get to heaven,
Where all is free of pain,
I'll put my arms around you, Mam,
And we'll never part again.
(Always loved and never forgotten by your loving daughter, Julie.)

McGRATH — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear Mam, Bride McGrath (nee Enright), late of Townspark, Lismore and Ballyin, who died on September 12, 1989.

In the quiet of the evening,
I sit and think of you,
Turning a book of memories,
Of things we used to do.
As I turn the pages,
My eyes are dimmed with tears,
Knowing I have the memories,
But can't bring back the years.
I wish that I could see you, Mam,
Sitting in your chair,
I wish that I could go back home,
And find you waiting there.
All life's richest joys and treasures,
Are really not worthwhile,
When the greatest treasure missing,
Is that wonderful mother of mine.
(Sadly missed by her loving daughter Mary and son-in-law James.)

McGRATH — First Anniversary — In loving memory of our Nan, Bride McGrath, late of Townspark, Lismore, whose anniversary occurs on September 12.

You always had a smile to share,
Time to give, time to care,
A wonderful Nan, kind and true,
These are the memories we have of you.
You watched us when we were small,
We'll miss you, Nan, as we grow tall.
(From your heartbroken grandchildren Milo, Ross, Lance and Stephanie.)

Kilrossanty Notes

G.A.A.

Minor Football — Our minor footballers lost to Dungarvan last Wednesday night in Stradbally in a minor football play-off match on the score of 1-9 to 1-6. After leading by 1-5 to nil at half time, things looked good for us but in the end Dungarvan fought back well to win and qualify for the Western final.

Team — P. Barry, B. Baldwin, K. Lonergan, P. Behan, O. Fennell, M. Fitzgerald, G. Houlihan, D. Mulhearn, P. Brazil, C. Dec, K. Cotter, M. Kiely, S. Power, P. Veale, N. O'Connor. Subs. — B. Maguire for P. Veale, J. Kiely.

We now must meet Abbeyside on Monday night next, September 17 in Stradbally. The winners will go on to meet Dungarvan in the Western final.

Under-16 Football — Our under-16 footballers bowed out of the A Section of the Western championship last Monday night in the Fraher Field when they lost to Dungarvan on the score of 3-8 to 1-9. The lads played well throughout and really deserved better. We have been very unlucky in this year's championship, losing both games by only four and five points, but let's hope these experiences will benefit the lads in the future.

Team — T. Halloran, O. Fahy, O. Farrell, P. Behan, G. Houlihan, K. Lonergan, B. Lannon, N. O'Connor, C. Dec, J. Kiely, B. Maguire, M. Kiely, S. Power, P. Veale, R. Hayes. Subs. — D. Kiely for T. Halloran, J. J. Hayes, K. Hogan, K. Baldwin.

Senior Football — Our senior footballers had a good win in a senior football championship play-off game in Walsh Park last Monday night week, September 3, beating Gaultier on the score of 1-10 to 1-6. We now go on to meet either Dunhill or Nire in the quarter-final in a couple of weeks time.

Our senior footballers travelled to Laois last Saturday evening to take on Ballyronan in a challenge game. This was an excellent workout for the lads, who, in the end, lost by two points on the score of 1-12 to 0-13.

Under-14 Hurling — Last Saturday morning, hurling coach Peter Power brought down a team from St. Patrick's to take on Kilrossanty in a challenge game in Leamybrien and it proved to be a good workout for our lads who lost in the end to the visitors.

ATHLETIC CLUB

It has been proposed to start an Athletic Club in the parish. The first training session will be held in Bohadon Sportsfield tonight Wednesday, September 12, at 8 p.m. A member of BLE will attend to train boys and girls of all ages. For more information contact 051/91146.

the event. Proceeds went towards the Parish Funds.

BINGO

Stradbally Notes

RETIREMENT

This weekend it is with a certain amount of sadness that we announce the retirement of Garda Denis Roche who has retired since Sunday last, September 9, after 42 1/2 years in the Force. Denis was born in Lough-founder, Knocknagoshel, Co. Kerry and he has been stationed as a Garda 3 years in Ballinure, Co. Tipperary, 4 1/2 years in Ballingarry, 9 years in Portlaw and 26 years in Stradbally.

We wish many happy years of retirement to Denis and his wife Eileen. They are both remaining in this parish which they have made their permanent home now.

Denis is a great follower of the Kerry footballers exploits now for a number of years and at one stage he had a brother on one of the Kingdom teams. He is also a very keen follower of Stradbally teams.

Thanks, Denis and Eileen Roche, for being great friends to this parish during the 26 years stay amongst us all. We now hope that you will continue to be as happy in your retirement here.

SYMPATHY

Our deepest and sincerest sympathy is extended to the Coleman families, Fahafeelagh, Kilmacthomas, on their sad bereavement last weekend.

AN GAELTACHT 2-9; NA BRICI 0-9

Last Monday evening the Gaeltacht U-16 football team played Na Brici in Brici Pairc. This game started very slow with a low scoring first half. The score at the interval was 4 points all.

Both teams played better football in the second half and the scores started to come. We got some very good points but the Brickies evened up the game again. Then we got a goal and before the end we got another and we held on well to the end.

We had to win this game to stay in the championship.

The team was — P. O. Mathuna, S. Mac An Oige,

S. Uada, E. de Faoite, L. O Muiir, A. MacCraith, R. O Fionnagan, S. O Harta, M. S. O Ceitinn, R. O Criotoir, S. O Floinn, L. O Cuirrin, T. O Cuirrin, E. de Paor, C. O Harta.

Results of the Progressive 45 Drive in the Marine Bar last Wednesday were — on 10 games, M. and M. Fahey; 2nd on 9 games, A. Fennessy and S. Ross; 3rd on 8 games, M. Flynn and D. Quinn. The jackpot is £230 on 12 games.

On Wednesday, September 5, our ladies football team played a tough game against Dunhill in the junior championship. The final score was Dunhill 1-5, Sean Phobail 0-2.

TALLOW NOTES

TALLOW FESTIVAL Festival Queen — Friday night the opening of the festival, fifteen lovely girls, dressed in beautiful evening wear paraded down the Main Street to the Hall. The air of excitement and glamour was only magic, as the Master of Ceremonies Mr. Edmond Fitzgerald put the girls at ease. One by one the girls came on stage to be interviewed, on their likes and dislikes, music and what they wanted from life. It was refreshing to listen to these lovely girls expressing their views so well, one could only say, if these girls are given the chance, (they are the voice of our town), well Tallow will certainly be a better place to live.

The Festival Queen for 1990 was the lovely 19 years old Fiona McDonnell, daughter of Willie and Kitty McDonnell, and she now goes forward to the Rose of Tralee, Waterford area finals next May. Who knows we may be celebrating in a big way next year.

The judges for the finals again this year were Mrs. Carmel Doocey of Killeagh and Mr. Edmond Fitzgerald of Dungourney.

NOTES

M.F.C. (B) Tallow 2-4, St. Patrick's 0-6 — Tallow minor footballers qualified for the divisional semi-final with this hard earned win on Wednesday night against a very good St. Patrick's fifteen. St. Pats' playing with a very strong wind in the first half failed to capitalise on some great chances and their missing of a penalty just on half time left Tallow leading by 1-1 to 0-3, Tallow's first half goal coming from the boot of Gary Henley. The introduction of John Doyle just after half time and the switching of Clive Barry to the corner made all the difference. Johnny scored a great goal while Clive tacked on two valuable points and when Gary Ahearne scored a splendid point from near the touchline the writing was on the wall for St. Patrick's, who couldn't breakdown the magnificent Tallow rear-guard.

Everyone of the sixteen on duty acquitted themselves very well, but it's down to some serious training if we have any hope of honours in this particular grade.

Team — John Paul Grey, Denis Martin, Dan McGrath, Florence O'Gorman, James Beecher, Colin Cunningham, David O'Regan, Ian MacIntosh, Paul McDonnell, Peter Henley (0-1), Denis O'Flaherty, Clive Barry (capt., 0-2), Steve Hampton, Gary Ahearne (0-2), Gary Henley (1-0). Sub. John Doyle (1-0) for S. Hampton.

S.H. Tournament Replay — Blackrock 4-10 Tallow 3-9 — Blackrock won this eagerly awaited Deane Cup tournament replay in Tallow on Thursday night last by four points. The Rockies gave an impressive display in the first half when they led by 3-7 to 0-3 at half time.

Tallow laid siege to the Blackrock goal in the second half, after ten minutes it was 3-9 to 0-6. A Dermot Henley 21 yard free went all the way to the net and three minutes later Pat Murphy rattled the Rockies net leaving the score 3-9 to 2-6. A pointed free from Dermot Henley left five points between the sides and when the same player caught the corner back napping it was 3-9 to 3-7 with about five minutes to go, but the Rockies lifted the siege and tacked on a further goal and a point while Tallow replied with two points, the Rockies held out for a four points win.

After the game Sean Deane presented the Deane Perpetual Cup to Jim Cashman, captain of the winning team. The club wish to thank Sean Deane for putting up the cup in memory of his father the late Jim Deane, who was a founder member of the club, John and Maura Lyons who sponsored the trophies and who served Blackrock with sandwiches and refreshments after the game. Thanks to John Micheal Kelly who refereed both matches, thanks to all concerned.

The Tallow team that played on Thursday night were — Martin Murphy, Tomas McCarthy, Michael Cunningham, Colin Cunningham, Jim Sheehan, Con Curley, John Geary, Mickey Curley, Mark Geary, Paul Curley, Steve Curley, Dermot Henley, Phil Curley, Pat Murphy (capt.), Eamonn Power. Subs. — Ger Hogan for E. Power, Trevor Sheehan for Tomas McCarthy, Martin Allen for Michael Cunningham.

J.H.C. Semi-Final — Clashmore 2-12 Tallow 1-9 — Tallow junior hurlers lost this semi-final to a very good Clashmore fifteen at sun scorched Cappoquin on Sunday last by 6 points. Tallow led by 1-4 to 1-3 at half time and increased it to 1-5 to 1-3 early in the second half. Clashmore took over after this and ran out winners by six points.

Team — Seamus O'Brien, Frank Ryan, Frankie Ryan, Aidan Ryan, David O'Regan, Martin Allen, Paul McDonnell, Pat Sheehan (capt.), Gerry Hogan, Denis Flaherty, Eamonn Power, Billy Curley, Martin McCarthy, Con Ryan, James Beecher. Subs. — Ian MacIntosh for Con Ryan; Clive Barry for Denis O'Flaherty.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.

U-21 Hurling Championship — St. Catherine's 4-7 Bride Rovers 2-3 — Catherine's succeeded in qualifying for the second round of the championship on September 18 against Middleton when overcoming a Bride Rovers fifteen at Castletyons last Tuesday evening.

A quiet first half saw Catherine's ahead by a big score at the interval but the second half was a tougher proposition when Rovers, winning more possession and playing more resolutely looked more dangerous in their attacks at goal only to be nullified by a stern Catherine's defence and resting on their early scores they held on until full time.

Catherine's lined out as follows — John Hartnett, Frank Hayes, Ted O'Leary, Dessie O'Keefe, Edmond Galvin, Maurice Spillane, Paddy O'Leary, Donal O'Leary, Sean Hickey, Gerard Morrisson, Paul Higgins, John Hennessy, Michael Walsh, Eddie O'Brien. Subs. — Martin Sheehan, James Sheehan, Michael Dineen, David Dineen, Kevin Hayes, Mike Hartnett.

Referee — Dan Kenneally.

The junior hurlers will take the field this Friday evening at Rathcormac at 6.30 p.m. in the replay of the O'Flynn Cup against Sarsfields and the U-16 footballers will play the second round of the championship against Glenville at Castletyons at 6.30 p.m. on Saturday. The U-16 hurlers (East Cork champions) are drawn against the Duhallow champions, and will be played in a fortnight time.

Intermediate Hurling League At The Glen Field — At the above venue at noon last Sunday Catherine's disposed of Glen Rovers challenge after a nail biting tussle from start to finish. Catherine's just shaded it by a single point at the interval 1-6 to 1-5 and in a thrilling second half with no quarter given or taken Catherine's held on to that single point lead to win and enter the qualifying round of the competition. Final score 2-11 to 2-10.

Catherine's lineup was — P. Murphy, E. Hartnett, P. O'Sullivan, M. Hartnett, M. Mangan, C. Casey, S. Neville, K. Barry, D. O'Leary, C. Clancy, J. Mangan, P. O'Donoghue, J. Hartnett, B. O'Regan, M. Mellerick. Sub. — S. Buckley (used.)

The club church gate collection for Ballynoe, Conna and Glengoura will take place at Vigil Masses and Day Masses on September 22/23.

Select Your World Cup XI

The selection of the World Cup XI was made recently by Alfie Hale who wore the green shirt of Ireland on many occasions and was one of the pioneers of the remarkable rise of Irish soccer which has seen them rise to being among the top eight countries in the world. Well known for his fine skills and a vital member of that great Waterford team of the sixties and early seventies Alfie choose the following team.

- BONNER (Ireland)
- BERTHOLD (West Germany)
- MALDINI (Italy)
- WALKER (England)
- BARESI (Italy)
- MATTHAUS (West Germany)
- McGRATH (Ireland)
- GASCOIGNE (England)
- SCILLACHI (Italy)
- CARECA (Brazil)
- HAGI (Romania)

Amazingly not one person managed to select the same eleven players. The prize of two tickets for the Ireland v. England European Championships qualifying game therefore goes to the nearest team to that selected and the lucky winner is Barry McGrath of 6 Silversprings, Dungarvan, who had ten of the side correct.

Railway Athletic (Cappoquin) Club Notes UNDER-12 LEAGUE

Railway 2, St. Joseph's 2

Our under-12 team had their first league game at home on Saturday last when they took on city side St. Joseph's. The two teams were very even and just before the break St. Joseph's took the lead.

At the start of the second half our lads put the pressure on with Michael Moynihan playing well in the middle of midfield. Eoin Bennett got the equaliser with six minutes to go. St. Joseph's took the lead again through an error at the back, but with just seconds remaining, Eoin Bennett got a top class goal to take a point from a very difficult game.

Team — D. Howard, K. Landers, N. Maher, W. Fraher, M. Murphy (Capt.), M. Moynihan, D. Wilkinson, D. Fraher, G. Keane, O. Bennett, S. Coughlan. Res., J. Mahionan for D. Fraher.

UNDER-14 LEAGUE Railway 3 Park Rangers 0

On Saturday last our under-14s made the long journey to Dunmore East to play Park Rangers. It took a long time for our lads to get going and we found it very hard to break down our opponents who had an outstanding goalkeeper. We played with the hill in the first half but this did not help our front runners. The second half was a different matter. Our back four did very well. Timmy Fitzgerald (captain for the day) led by example. He was in brilliant form as was E. Murphy. Once again the class striking of John Lynch was vital as he broke the deadlock following some great work from Brendan Landers on the wing. Minutes later John got number 2. He kept the best for last when he beat two players and chipped the keeper to make it his second hat-trick in two games. This team is playing well together. Let's hope they keep it up.

Team — G. Arrigan, J. Dalton, J. Quann, A. Barry, E. Murphy, M. Ormonde, Tim Fitzgerald (Capt.), J. Lynch, M. Shanahan, C. Radley, B. Landers for A. Barry. Man of the match: T. Fitzgerald.

UNDER-16A LEAGUE Railway 1, Southend 4

The under-16 team had a very strong Southend outfit at home on Saturday last. We played very well but Southend were too strong. Conor Prendergast had a good game in goal and B. Whelan, K. Mason and R. Curran also played well.

Team — C. Prendergast, Ray Curran, Jason Fleming, B. Whelan, E. Hickey, Kenny Mason, Frank McLoughlin, Paul Ormonde, Alan Gilligan, P. McLoughlin.

UNDER-10 5-A-SIDE LEAGUE

Every Sunday morning, Paddy Mason is running a 5-a-side league for our under-10s. It is going very well and the boys are enjoying themselves.

A.G.M. CANCELLED

On Saturday night we had to cancel our AGM because only six people turned up. This is very heartbreaking for our committee who are doing so much work for the boys. I would appeal to all you parents to please make a special effort to make it to the AGM on Saturday next, September 15, 8.30 p.m., in the Scouts Den.

DUNGARVAN A.F.C. NOTES: DIVISION 1B LEAGUE

Blues Have To Settle For Share Of The Spoils

DUNGARVAN 1 PARK RANGERS 1

Dungarvan had to settle for a share of the spoils after this hard fought and exciting tussle at Kilrush Park on Saturday evening last. Both these sides, who finished second and third in the league last season lined out without several of last season's squad, but nevertheless a tough game was always on the cards.

Dungarvan had the better of the early exchanges and carried the fight to the visitors and it was no surprise when they went in front after 20 minutes. "Crocker's" quick free kick found Under-17 player David Whelan, who turned inside his man and slipped the ball past the advancing keeper. The Blues were dominant at this stage but failed to capitalise on their superiority and squandered some good chances. A lovely through ball from B. Sheehan found S. Cummins who made a great run from defence but he failed to beat the keeper from close range. Then K. Wall burst clear of the defence but pulled his shot wide with only the keeper to beat.

Tragedy struck the home side just before the break, when Dungarvan failed to cut out a left wing cross and J. Walsh in attempting to clear could only turn the ball into his own net.

The second half was a tough hard fought affair with defences for most part on top, but the best chance fell to "Beefy" but he totally mis-hit his volley from eight yards.

Team — J. Wall, G. Burke, M. O'Sullivan, S. Cummins, J. Walsh, D. Dee, L. Crotty, K. Wall, B. Sheehan, D. Whelan, T. Kenneally. Res. — J. W. Power for M. O'Sullivan (inj.), P. Drumme for T. Kenneally.

Man of the Match — Gary Burke.

Ref. — P. Mooney.

DUNGARVAN UNITED SCHOOLBOYS U-14 LEAGUE

Tough Game Ends All Square

DUNGARVAN 0 FERRYBANK 0

On Saturday morning last the Blues entertained what turned out to be a very strong Ferrybank side at Kilrush Park.

Both sides began the game well with creative play in midfield. Midfield is where it stopped however, as both teams were very mean in defence and gave nothing to chance. Dungarvan's defence of Philip Coles, Kevin O'Connor, Derek Foley and Mark Hyslop were sturdy throughout leaving little for Johnny Sheehan to do between the posts. The few chances that were created however did fall to the Blues.

Colin Walsh, David O'Leary and Stephen Terry had a good game up front, and on a better day would have finished one or two of the chances created by the tireless midfield work of Tommy Butler, Aidan Landers and Ross Power. Midway through the second half saw the introduction of John Lenihan and James Cooney to add more support to the Blues attack. The visitors defence withstood this assault well, however, and were well relieved to come away with a point.

This was a very good performance by United who are now concentrating on their forthcoming S.F.A.I. Cup match later this month. Well done lads!

Team — J. Sheehan, P. Coles, K. O'Connor, D. Foley, M. Hyslop, R. Power, T. Butler, A. Landers, C. Walsh, S. Terry, D. O'Leary. Res. — J. Lenihan, J. Cooney, M. Crotty.

DUNGARVAN UNITED DIV. 2B

They're Back!

DUNGARVAN 4 JOHNVILLE 4

Just when you thought it was safe to go back to a football match they're back. The "Starship Healyprise" blasted off on the second of it's five year missions to boldly go where no team has gone before.

This is virtually a new team to last year and though the new players brought in may not be as good looking as the players who have departed they certainly do the business.

The Blues got off to a great start, when after only five minutes Darren "Shirley Valentine" Drummy scored with a clinical finish. Dungarvan fell away after twenty minutes letting the visitors back into the game, and took advantage finding themselves 2-1 up at half time, although Jeff Allen's own-goal was clinically finished.

The Blues equalised midway through the second half when M. Walsh converted a penalty after "Shirley Valentine" was taken down. Ten minutes later the same happened with Walsh converting. Some sloppy defending by the Blues let Johnville equalise, and but for a brilliant save by K. Drummy, we would have been behind. With time running out the Blues hit four with M. Walsh heading home his hat-trick. United thought they were home and dry but Johnville had other ideas and equalised with minutes remaining.

So ended a breathtaking game which left J. Healy a lot to blow his nose over on the sideline.

Man of the Match — K. Drummy.

Team — K. Drummy, T. Duggan, A. Donnelly, J. Allen, M. Walsh, P. Mulcahy, J. Foley, B. Drummy, D. Drummy, D. James, P. J. Drummy.

DUNGARVAN RUGBY CLUB

Successful Hoffman's Rugby Festival

Our sixth annual Hoffman's Rugby Festival took place at Ballyrandle last Sunday. A huge crowd attended under glorious sunshine and witnessed seven hours of non-stop rugby. Play commenced at 12.30 with some sparkling rugby played right from the start.

The most tense game of the tournament proved to be the semi-final between the host club Dungarvan and Midleton. The sides were locked in mortal combat throughout the match. At full time the scoreline was 3-3 and still at the end of extra time the teams were not separated. Finally, Mark O'Connor emerged as the hero, slotting over the vital kick in a penalty shoot out.

Victory came at a cost however, with star forward Eddie Lonergan (who incidentally is the subject of much transfer speculation and could be the first member of the club to defect to rugby league, such are the offers coming through for this colossus of a man) picking up an injury and thus ruling him out of the final.

Dungarvan's opponents in the final were Clonmel who emerged as victors after a titanic struggle. This was Clonmel's first major trophy in over 20 years and great celebrations ensued in the clubhouse afterwards. Captain Billy Burke was presented with the Curran Cup by P. J. Kindregan, the club President.

In the plate final, Bandon beat Cashel with Eoin O'Connell of Bandon taking the trophy as top try scorer.

We would like to thank Hoffman's for their generous sponsorship, Dungarvan Brass Band for the wonderful atmosphere they created, Dr. Dave O'Mahoney and St. John's Ambulance for their care of the "walking wounded," George Beresford and his assistants Valerie and Eileen for supplying us all with food throughout the day and finally WLR for the outstanding coverage which they gave the event.

Our next golf outing takes place next Saturday, September 15 with the President's Prize to be presented by Mr. Jim Harty. Contact: Johnny Lynch for details.

Cunnigar Pitch & Putt Notes

MARIO'S MATCHPLAY

This very enjoyable and successful competition has been running for the past week with the finals scheduled for Sunday next, September 16.

The Under-16 final will be fought out between Jason Donovan, Murphy Place, Abbeyside, and Dermot Hayes, Childers Estate, Dungarvan. Jason is slight favourite owing to his previous two wins.

In the ladies final we have Pat Regan who had a narrow win over Martina Walsh in their semi-final, and June James who accounted for Marie Burke in her semi-final. June is hot favourite to take this one but I have a feeling Pat will give her a close run.

As I write these notes the men's pairing haven't been decided yet, but some of the favourites have gone already. Michael Delaney was beaten in a very tight game by John M. Power, Anselm Hayes fell to Tony Delaney, while the ever-green Tom Dolan disposed of Waterford juvenile hurling coach Peter Power. Still in contention is the Ballinroad man Jessie Landers after two good wins, but he is in a strong section and will find the going tough.

Who will win at this stage is anybody's guess, but if I had to name the finalists I would have to go for Tony Delaney and the consistent Jim Duggan, with Jim slight favourite to take it.

See you all Sunday, when we hope to have Mario and his wife to make the presentations. — P.R.O.

HANDBALL NEWS

Victory And Disappointment In All-Irelands

Declan Mulcahy of the Kilgobinet club won yet another national title — his fifth All-Ireland in four years — when he beat Kilkenny's E. Leahy by a score of 21-19 and 21-13 in a match in which he was led by 11-18 but with great skill and determination came fighting back to win by two aces.

He was also led in the second but the very resolute Mulcahy showed the character of a real champion by coming from behind again to take the game. Decky has now won four singles and one double in a space of only four years and he still has the doubles coming up, so he can possibly make it six national titles. In congratulating him on another great achievement we wish him the very best of luck in the doubles which will be coming up soon.

Kilgobinet's other star handballer, Mossy Butler had to travel to Kilkenny in his All-Ireland final against the acknowledged handball expert, Kildare's

J. Browne. This was the best final played for a very long time and the packed gallery gave both players a standing ovation.

Mossy lost the first game rather easily, but won a thrilling second by 21-20. In the third with our man serving on a 19-20 scoreline, Browne missed his shot but the ball spun off the side wall and dropped off the butt of the front wall. A miracle shot and a bit of cruel luck for Mossy Butler, who had deserved better. Brown then won by 2 games to 1, but we must nevertheless sincerely congratulate Mossy on having played a blinder in a great final.

Dungarvan G.A.A. Notes

MINOR HURLING FINAL

Against all the odds, we've battled our way to the Western minor hurling "A" final, and on Saturday afternoon at Cappoquin (3.15) we take on the raging favourites Lismore in the decider.

When we met the reigning champions in the league section earlier we put it up to them in a big way but ended up somewhat unlucky two points losers. Now we have the chance to put that result "right" and I am certain the boys will give it one heck of a go.

They have done the club proud to reach the final against all the odds. And remember, favourites don't always win titles, so let's get it 100% right from start to finish. After that you never can tell.

MINOR FOOTBALLERS IN FINAL

We set ourselves up for a possible minor championship double in the West when the footballers scored a thrilling three point victory over Kilrossanty in a semi-final of high drama at Stradbally last Wednesday evening.

We had to do a Cork on it in this game in which we trailed by eight points, 1-5 to nil, at half time. It wasn't all down to the strong wind either, but the tongue lashing meted out to the boys at the break did the trick and we went on to register a famous win.

We had our chance of first half scores but failed to take them, and when Kilrossanty goaled just five minutes before the break we were in deep trouble.

But it was a very different story on the turnover and Tom Morrissey's splendid goal gave us the encouragement we needed. We played some splendid football after that and having twice levelled, we raced into a three point lead.

With time almost up a short passing movement broke down on us and Kilrossanty attacked from which they were awarded a last gasp penalty. They had to score direct, and though Pat Brazil's effort was well struck, our keeper Niall Considine made a magnificent save and our place in the final was assured. Now we await Abbeyside or Kilrossanty who we must meet in the decider.

Our team was: N. Considine, M. Desmond, J. Morrissey, T. Morrissey, B. Lyons, D. Donnelly, R. Kelly, J. Tutty, M. Butler, F. Cunningham, C. Gough, A.

Queally, M. McGrath, D. Cummins, G. Curran, J. Ronayne, B. McDonnell, S. Curran, C. Barry and D. O'Flynn.

SENIORS PREPARE

A quarter final senior football championship meeting with Gaultier has now been confirmed although we still await an actual date for the game. September 30 however seems the most likely.

Meanwhile, the panel continues its intensive preparations under trainer Finbarr Kelly. Everyone is putting in the maximum effort and no one could ask more from any panellist. Come the quarter final day we'll be ready, and whatever our fate we certainly won't lack fitness or commitment.

UNDER 21s

Lest anyone has forgotten it, we are also in the Western under 21 football final in which defending champions Kilrossanty will provide the opposition.

As I write, I have not had a date for the game confirmed, but it really cannot be too far into the future. It is one that will take a lot of winning, but win it we can.

CONGRATULATIONS

From everyone in the club, sincere congratulations are extended to Adrian Kelly and his bride Ann Murray, Boreenatra, who were married last Saturday.

Adrian played many a good championship game in our colours and we wish him and Ann many years of wedded bliss.

CO. INTERMEDIATE HURLING SEMI-FINAL

On this Saturday evening, September 15 our county intermediate hurling semi-final against the Shamrocks takes place in Cappoquin at 5.45 p.m.

We will be short the services of Pat Walsh who has a hand injury while Ger Collins is still suffering from a leg injury, but hopes to be fit. Saturday's opponents have already beaten us in the league section but this is now a knock-out championship. Preparations have been very intense over the past six weeks and the lads all know what's expected of them on Saturday evening.

MINOR FOOTBALLERS ADVANCE

The minor footballers had a one point victory over Clashmore in a very tight game on Wednesday evening last. They now play Kilrossanty in the Western semi-final.

The team was — A. Landers, R. Duggan, P. Hayes, L. Boland, J. Stacey, A. Ryan, B. Landers, S. James, K. Killigrew, P. Reynolds, F. Prendergast, B. Beatty, A. Regan, P. O'Brien, D. Cliffe. Sub. — P. Ormonde.

ALL-IRELAND HURLING TICKET WINNERS

The lucky names drawn from the hat this year were — Dave Sheehan, Fr. C. Fives, Matthew Hogan, Ned Keane, Tom Whelan, Mrs. M. Shields, Liam Enright, Michael Fives and John Kelleher.

COMMUNITY GAMES

The relay team of Paudie Shields, Ml. Kelleher,

Derek Hayes and Derek Kenneally were participating in the National Finals in Mosney last weekend, along with Moya Verling. We hadn't heard how they got on but I'm sure they all did the parish proud.

U-16 FOOTBALL

Our U-16 footballers had a 1-7 to 1-3 victory over Kilrossanty on Monday evening week last. They now await the outcome of the Kilrossanty v. Dungarvan game.

U-16 FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

We lost to the Nire, Clashmore and Affane/Cappoquin in the Under-16 football championship. For the next two years we should be strong in this grade as this year we played a lot of Under-14 players in this team.

TONY FORRISTAL HURLING TOURNAMENT

Playing for Waterford "A" team in the Tony Forristal Tournament recently were Aidan Aherne and Tholam Keane, playing on the "B" team were Stephen Ronayne and Michael Murray. All four gave outstanding displays of hurling. Our club can be very proud of having four players on the teams, it was the highest number of players from any one club. Stephen Ronayne was captain of the "B" team and received a beautiful trophy. Well done lads — keep up the good work.

Peter Power Waterford hurling coach paid tribute to the wonderful hurling of both teams.

ATTENDED ALL-IRELAND HURLING FINAL

Tony Morrissey, Mick Tobin, Roger McGrath, Anthony Morrissey, Fr. Finbarr Lucey, P.P., Breeda Tobin, Brendan Fitzgerald, Tom Browne, Bill Downing and Michael McDonagh all travelled to Dublin for the All-Ireland hurling final. — P.R.O.

SENIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Ballyduff Come Good In Closing Stages

BALLYDUFF 1-14 PORTLAW 0-8

Ballyduff qualified for a semi-final meeting with Passage when they defeated Portlaw by 1-14 to 0-8, in what proved a rather poor senior hurling quarter final clash played before a good sized crowd at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last.

The final 9 points winning tally gives a false impression of what transpired to be a pretty close encounter. In fact it wasn't until the final five minutes that Ballyduff came good to grab the scores that won them the game.

Up to this there had been little between the sides with the scores standing level on four occasions in all.

The sides were level at 0-8 each with just ten minutes to go, and at this stage it was impossible to predict a winner. A draw too looked very likely so close were the exchanges.

Ballyduff got the break when Michael Walsh was on target with a point from a free in the 25th minute. He followed with another minor a minute later and with the scent of victory in their nostrils Ballyduff found reserves of energy and in a late blitz Walsh pointed again and Seamie Hannon, moved from defence to attack, scored the only goal of the game two minutes from time to ensure Ballyduff's safe passage to the semi-final.

Referee Danny Duggan mistakenly played five minutes extra at the end and in that time Ballyduff were totally on top and shot three further points.

In hindsight however a real worry for Ballyduff must be their lack of penetration in attack. It was a game in which both sets of forwards were completely off target, Portlaw's total of thirteen wides, being just two more than Ballyduff's eleven, on a day when conditions were ideal for accurate shooting.

Both sides laboured in this respect so much so that a low scoring first half ended with Ballyduff leading 0-4 to 0-3.

The winners did have the ball in the Portlaw net in the 22nd minute but play was called back for a foul on Clem Feeney. Michael Walsh struck the penalty perfectly but the shot was saved brilliantly and cleared.

REPETITION

Most of the second half was a repetition of the first. Both sides continued to struggle up front and neither side could gain an advantage.

The scores were level 0-4 each, 2nd minute, 0-5 each 7th minute and 0-8 each, 20th minute.

Some switches by Ballyduff improved their performance somewhat. Donal Hannon was brought on to the side, Seamie Hannon moved to attack, Clem Feeney moved to midfield and Richie Walsh took over at centre back.

Five minutes from time Michael Walsh started their revival when he pointed and they came good with a late flurry to clinch victory and a place in the semi-final.

However, they must have cause for concern at the all round performance of the team for long periods during a substandard and rather lack lustre game. They will certainly have to show 100% improvement for their semi final appearance against a side who have beaten them twice this year.

Scorers: Ballyduff — M. Walsh 0-8; S. Hannon 1-0; P. Prendergast 0-3; G. Quirke 0-2; R. Tobin 0-1. Portlaw — T. Larkin 0-4; St. Fitzpatrick 0-2; M. Whelan and P. Coffey 0-1 each.

Ballyduff — M. Leamy; S. Hannon, L. Power, Seamie Daly; J. Casey, Seamus Daly, M. Casey; P. Prendergast, R. Walsh; G. Quirke, M. Walsh, B. Tobin; C. Feeney, J. Quirke, M. Geary. Subs. — D. Hannon for Seamus Daly; G. Hickey for S. Hannon.

Portlaw — J. Power; P. O'Hanlon, J. Galvin, J. Kirwan; D. Keane, J. Hennebry, E. Rockett; J. Power, L. Callaghan; D. Foran, J. Kiely, D. Larkin; M. Whelan, M. Hennebry, S. Fitzpatrick. Subs. — P. Coffey for J. Power; D. de Paor for J. Kiely; M. Hickey for M. Hennebry.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL FINAL

Faha Overcome Shamrocks

Faha 3-11, Shamrocks 0-9

Maybe Faha were not eleven points a better team than Shamrocks, but no one can question their superiority in this very entertaining and sporting Western intermediate football final played before a huge crowd at Cappoquin on Sunday evening last.

A goal by John Troy in the fourth minute, followed by another which was shot home by Alan Sheehan in the sixth minute, had a shattering effect on the morale of Shamrocks who were playing in their third successive Western intermediate football final. Points by J. O'Neill and Michael Neville in the 7th and 9th minutes briefly revitalised Shamrocks, but Faha replied with well taken points by Kieran Power (2), John Troy and Alan Sheehan, to leave the score 2-4 to 0-2 in the 17th minute. Michael Neville and John Troy exchanged points. Faha continued to bring the game to their opponents and missed what seemed a certain goal in the 22nd minute, but a Brian Sweeney goal and a point by the same player in the 24th and 25th minutes put the challengers clearly in the driver's seat. A point by Joe O'Neill gave Shamrocks their fourth score just on half time, but left them trailing by 3-6 to 0-4 when the break came.

Shortly after the turnover, John Troy extended Faha's lead to 12 points and at this point the final was virtually decided, but Shamrocks continued to fight bravely and points by Pat Murphy and Liam Dalton gave them some slight hope. However, a John Troy point made it 3-8 to 0-6 in favour of Faha midway through the second half and at this stage the game was gone out of reach for Shamrocks. Shamrocks continued to press but their need for goals was so great that they sacrificed their chances of taking points and in the final quarter each side scored three further points to leave it 3-11 to 0-9 at the finish.

Western Board Chairman, Jimmy O'Gorman, presented the cup to Tony Jeynes, the Faha Captain.

Scorers — Faha: J. Troy 1-5, A. Sheehan 1-1, B. Sweeney 1-1, K. Power 0-3, G. Power 0-1; Shamrocks — Michael Neville 0-3, L. Dalton 0-2, P. Murphy 0-2, J. Neville and J. O'Neill 0-1 each.

Faha — T. Jeynes, B. Butler, L. Connors, K. Kiely, E. Lannon, P. Casey, M. Scurry, G. Casey, P. Halloran, R. Kirwan, B. Sweeney, A. Sheehan, G. Power, K. Power, J. Troy. Shamrocks — L.

Weekend Fixtures

Because of the All-Ireland football finals, no games are scheduled for Sunday so all the weekend activity will take place on Saturday. The interesting programme includes both intermediate hurling semi-finals, the two minor hurling finals, the replay of the Stradbally/An Rinn junior football semi-final as well as the Nire versus Kilmacthomas/Dunhill senior football play-off.

With the losers of all these matches due to depart from the championship scene until next year, we can expect some hectic fare at all the appointed venues.

SHAMROCKS V. ABBEYSIDE

The loss of team captain, Pat Walsh is a severe blow to Abbeyside who have already lost to Shamrocks in the championship. They meet at Cappoquin on Saturday evening in one of the two intermediate hurling semi-finals and despite Abbeyside's handicap, the game should provide patrons with a splendid contest. The magnitude of Abbeyside's loss can be gauged from the fact that when the sides met in an earlier round, Pat Walsh scored a total of 1-7 of their 1-10 when Abbeyside lost to Shamrocks. It will take a mammoth effort by the challengers now to overcome this handicap and their chance of winning will depend on how they can cope with the situation.

The remainder of their side, Pat McGovern, Michael and Ger Collins, Alan Ryan, Timmy Murphy, Jimmy Healy, Tomas Walsh, Sean McGrath, Mark Reynolds, Michael Cosgrave, Kenny Killigrew, Frank Sweeney, Dave Sheehan, Conor Clancy, Willie Kiely, etc., are all reporting fit and will take the field expecting to reverse the result of their last meeting.

Shamrocks, having lost the intermediate football final, can be expected to make an all-out effort to compensate their very loyal supporters by winning this one and qualifying for yet another final in the same grade. Their defeat by Faha might have a dampening effect on their spirit, but when they have recovered it could strengthen their resolve and motivate them all the more.

They will have Liam and Ollie Ahearne, Dan Casey, Pat Murphy, Liam Dalton, Sean Harnedy, Frank Roche, Michael Leahy, Michael Motherway, Liam Murphy, P. Fitzgerald, M. Murphy, K. Ahearne and company all very determined to succeed where their footballers failed and if reproducing their best form, they certainly must have a favourites chance.

Abbeyside, who ended up pointless in last season's championship, have showed marked improvement this year and in spite of their handicap, will make a bold bid to get to the County final against Erin's Own or De La Salle, who also play the other semi-final on Saturday.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL REPLAY

Stradbally and An Rinn will meet in their replay game in the junior football championship semi-final at Fraher Field on Saturday evening and the expectations are that the Gaeltacht side with Carthach Mac Craith, are unlikely to survive, as they barely did in the drawn match.

If Stradbally lose, they will "kick themselves" for having lost the drawn match, after they looked certain winners going into the closing stages.

Senior Footballers Prepare

On next Sunday week, the intercounty competitions resume and for us it marks the start of the senior football 'B' All-Ireland competition when we play Carlow in the first round. It is a very important game as a victory will bring Tyrone down to Waterford on the following Sunday for a quarter-final match in the same competition.

Several meetings of the selection committee have taken place and a 25 man panel has been chosen to go into training, which began on Monday of this week, at Fraher Field.

The late running of the club championships is a problem, in that clubs are slow to release players, but generally the co-operation is fairly satisfactory with most clubs anxious to help. This is as it should be, because it is very important that we win our first game in this All-Ireland competition which came about as a result of a Waterford motion to Congress.

The panel is: Tom Brennan, Tramore; Kieran Hefernan, Eoin O'Brien, Fintan O'Brien, David Kirwan and Tom Gough, Stradbally; Jim Maher, Pierrie Whyte, Pat Power, Roger Power, Kilrossanty, Tom Walsh, Kevin Mulcahy, Pat Walsh and Ger

Walsh, the Nire; Dermot Callaghan, Dungarvan; Martin Power and Finbarr Crotty, Rathgormack; Liam Dalton, Shamrocks; Pat Hynes, Clashmore; Jim McGrath, Briceys; David Kiely, Kilmacthomas; Carthach Mac Craith, An Rinn; Peter Queally, Newtown; Paul Fitzgerald, Gaultier; Liam Daniels, St. Saviours.

It is possible that the panel will undergo a change after the remaining five or six senior football championship games have been played.

HURLING

The senior hurling selectors have also met and it is expected that the names of their panel of players will be announced by the weekend. They are due to go into action in the first round of the national league in just four weeks time.

Junior Hurling Championship

CLASHMORE WIN

Clashmore 2-10, Tallow 1-7

At the halfway stage in this well contested junior hurling semi-final, Tallow led by a single point (1-4 to 1-3) and were hurling very well.

But a great second half display by Clashmore saw them take over and win deservedly by six points. It was Clashmore's best display so far in the championship.

AN RINN BEST

An Rinn 4-11 Ballysaggart 1-6

Despite some splendid hurling by Pat Bennett and Pat Ryan, Ballysaggart were never able to swing the game their way and at the halfway mark, when An Rinn led by 2-5 to 0-4, there was every indication that the match was going to go their way. A fourteen points winning margin gives a fair idea of the gap in standards here on the day.

Senior Football

With excitement beginning to build up, all our top teams are leaving no stone unturned in getting themselves ready for the concluding stages of the championship. During the past week or so, Kilrossanty have played Portlaoise in Portlaoise, Stradbally have been to Castletownroche to play Duhallow, Dungarvan had a game against Fr. Sheed's, Clogheen and St. Saviours played, Duffy Rovers, Wexford.

ALL-IRELAND FOOTBALL FINAL DAY

Cork May Win Unique Double

Cork are one of the only two counties to win the coveted hurling and football double, but they are the only county who are now in a position to make history by having the Sam McGuire and McCarthy Cups on display in their county in the same year. Neither of these trophies were in existence when they won the double on 1890 or when Tipperary did the same in 1900.

Cork's double was achieved in 1890 when, in hurling Aghbullogh 1-6 beat Castlebridge, Wexford 2-2 and Midleton 2-4 beat the Blues and Whites of Wexford 0-1, in football; Tipperary's double in 1890 was when Clonmel Shamrocks 3-7 beat Hibernians, London 0-2, in football and Two Mile-Borris 2-5 beat The Desmonds, London 0-6, in hurling. It is worth noting that the great and famous Sam McGuire played with the London team against Tipperary in the 1890 football All-Ireland.

I publish these details because some sections of the media seem to have got it wrong over the past couple of weeks. The McCarthy Cup was first presented in 1923 for the 1921 hurling final and was won by Limerick defeating Dublin by 8-5 to 3-2; Liam McCarthy was born in London, his mother was a Limerick woman and his father a Corkman.

Sam McGuire was born in Dunmanway, Co. Cork of Protestant parents and it was because of his trojan work for the G.A.A. that a group known as the 'Friends of Sam McGuire' raised money to commemorate his memory and presented the Sam McGuire Cup in 1927 — six months after his death — to Kildare who were the first winners.

In accordance with tradition and protocol, the ribbons of both Cork and Meath will be attached to the cup before it is put on display before the game on Sunday in Croke Park and immediately the final whistle is blown, the colours of the losers are removed.

This is certainly one of the most intriguing finals in recent times and predictably it will be another final to remember.

Munsters people will 'root' for Cork in the hope that they will achieve that unique double. It's the kind of game that could end in a draw, hopefully it won't as

Sundays are getting scarce and counties like Waterford have championships to finish.

Bigger Gates

The claim that patrons will flock to the games when the 'real' championship time comes around, was well substantiated in both sides of the county on Sunday. At Walsh Park where a double header was played a gate of £2,400 was taken while for one match at Dungarvan the receipts were £1,200. On the same afternoon and only just up the road in Cappoquin at the J.H. semi-finals, £800 was taken. The most attractive Divisional Board game played for a long time when Shamrocks and Faha clashed at Cappoquin on Sunday evening in intermediate football, attracted a crowd which paid £1,100.

Relegation Game

Although this fixture was made too late for publication, a number turned up to see the game. Cappoquin were to have played Fourmilewater to decide which goes back to intermediate grade, but in the expectation that the Nire (alias Fourmilewater) would be playing football championship, Cappoquin were unprepared and had allowed some players free to go on holidays. Their reasons for not playing, were therefore understandable. The game will now be re-fixed.

Statistics

Ballyduff justified their slight favouritism by beating Portlaw in their quarter final game at Fraher Field before a big crowd on Sunday afternoon.

It was not the kind of victory that will enhance their prospects of taking the title this year, as it was one of the poorest senior hurling games seen here for a very long time. With so much fumbling and scrambling and messing generally, the first half was so poor that the contest would have done little credit to two poor junior teams.

The second half showed some improvement and when the sides were level with nine minutes of normal time remaining, Ballyduff got a lucky break, took the lead and in the extra five minutes that Danny Duggan added on, the Western team went to town on Portlaw, who looked for a time as if they would take the game. The final score flatters Ballyduff and in my view they were not deserving of a nine points winning margin.

FIGURES OF THE GAME

- Ballyduff — Scores 15; Wides 13; Frees 18; 65's 3; Sidelines 3.
- Portlaw — Scores 8; Wides 14; Frees 13; 65's 3; Sidelines 9.
- Total — Scores 23; Wides 27; Frees 31; 65's 6; Sidelines 12.

With two other stoppages (lineman's throw-in and the interval whistle) we had a total of 101 stoppages over the 65 minutes and if we relate this to the accepted formula for doing professional match analysis we find that we had — at the most — 35 minutes of play.

It is also interesting to note that in this game we had 31 frees over the 65 minutes, whereas there were only 18 frees in all in the All-Ireland hurling final. It is also interesting that Ballyduff scored from six of their 18 frees and Portlaw scored only twice from their 13.

Minor Hurling Finals

The Western Board will complete their first couple of championships on next Saturday when they play both the 'A' and the 'B' divisional hurling finals at Cappoquin; Lismore and Dungarvan clash in the 'A' final and in keeping with their many previous clashes at this stage, the game should produce a classic final. There is very little between them in the matter of skill, so in a very close match, every score will count and I don't expect more than a score of two between them at the finish.

The 'B' final involving Ballyduff and Naomh Brid should also produce some very good hurling, and this, also should produce a close finish.

The Nire v. Dunhill

This senior football play-off match has now been fixed for Leamybrien and will be played on next Tuesday evening at 6 p.m.

If the game ends in a draw the replay will take place at the same venue on the following Friday evening.

Championship Line-Up

Following last Sunday's results the semi-final pairings are now clear. Tallow will play Roanmore and Ballyduff will meet Passage in hurling and both will be played at Dungarvan on Sunday week, September 23.

In football Dungarvan will meet Gaultier in Walsh Park on September 30 and in the other quarter final, Kilrossanty will meet the Nire or Dunhill at Dungarvan or Stradbally on the same date.

St. Saviours and Stradbally are both through to the semi-finals.

County Board Meeting

The appointment of a county football coach for all grades, following the passing of a motion from An Rinn Club, was again discussed at length at last week's meeting of the County Board.

A report from an Coisde Peil outlined the many problems associated with such an appointment and pointed out that if the services of a suitable and qualified person was acquired, that such a person might not be prepared to undertake the task if all the named players on the panel were not available for coaching. It also pointed out that at this time, more than half of the 25 players named on the new panel are still involved in the championships and would unlikely be released by their clubs for county training/coaching. It was recommended by the football committee that the manager and selectors discuss the matter and then negotiate with a selected coach and Coisde Peil before the appointment would be finalised. This is to be done within the next couple of months with a view to having the matter dealt with by December. This was agreed.

ALL-IRELAND TICKETS

This hardy annual was discussed at great length following complaints about the poor quality and small allocation received from Croke Park. The county secretary said that the complaints were understandable as Waterford's allocation was reduced by over 70 tickets last year and that there was no option but to reduce the share-out to clubs. There was no 'float' and there was no way in which individual applications could be accommodated. Denis McGrath complained that the Cappoquin gatemens were not given an allocation and here again it was pointed out that the Board could no longer give tickets to these and the many other workers in other spheres because of the cutback. The meeting was informed that a new five-year scheme will come into operation after the present scheme ends on next Sunday. The present holders of five-year tickets will be advised and all other applications must have County Board approval.

FOREIGN MUSIC

The presentation of the All-Ireland hurling final programme was discussed and some aspects of it came under fire when Nicolas MacCraith complained about the playing of boogie-woogie music, etc., by the Artane Band during the intervals and Tommy Hennessey and others asked if action would be taken against players who were in breach of the published regulations concerning the swopping of jerseys before the presentation of the McCarthy Cup.

The complaints were noted, but it was also stated that the overall programme presented a magnificent spectacle and was very efficiently organised.

MINOR HURLING REPORT

A comprehensive report from the minor hurling selectors told of their great displays against Cork in the championship. It also referred to the problems of getting players to train during examination time each year.

Nicolas MacCraith said that the Department of Education should give consideration to the idea of holding the Leaving, Intermediate and other summer exams, around December or during the late winter months. Such a change, he said would benefit most organisations and he felt that it was something well worthy of consideration by the Department.

The chairman said it was a matter that could be discussed at a later meeting in the year, as it was rather a complex matter and it would need to be discussed further before the Board would initiate a firm proposal on the matter.

Well Prepared Venues

Both Dungarvan and Cappoquin venues are certainly to be congratulated on the manner in which they were prepared for the weekend programme of fixtures and I have rarely seen them look so well. Fraher Field looked in perfect condition for hurling and Paddy Fitzgerald is to be complimented. I heard people comment on its lovely condition.

Western Board Chairman, Jimmy O'Gorman was right in not letting the opportunity pass by after the intermediate football final on Sunday evening when he complimented the Cappoquin Club on the excellence of their ground (which also looked immaculate) and for the manner in which the entire Divisional Board programme had been managed on Sunday. Jimmy also complimented referee Tomas O Meachair and his team of umpires and linesmen.

The other senior hurling semi-final was an exciting game between the reigning champions, Roanmore and Mount Sion at Walsh Park and here the standard was way above what we saw at Fraher Field. On their good performance Roanmore must have shortened the odds against their retaining their title.

At Cappoquin, Clashmore and An Rinn both had good victories and have now paved the way for a great Western final which will be played at Cappoquin on Sunday, September 30. It is interesting to note that this is also the date set for the replay of the All-Ireland football final if that game ends in a draw next Sunday!

There can be no doubt but that Faha are very worthy Western intermediate football champions. Their top-class display against Shamrocks must now put them in the county final with a splendid chance against either Ferrybank or Newtown.

In the replay of the senior football play-off, Kilmacthomas 'went out like a light' when they failed unexpectedly against a very determined Dunhill side who played some fine football throughout the hour. The winners now play the Nire in another play-off game and if the Nire survive this, we will have a repeat of the 1989 County final pairing involving the Nire and Kilrossanty.

Co. Council Defers Controversial Motions On Q/M Plant Site

dead and buried. "The Act must be seen to be enforced without fear or favour," he said.

Cllr. Fahey went on to say that the Quigley plant was an ugly monstrosity which the Council now had the power to deal with. Even when the plant was first opened 22 years ago it was a monstrosity and since it closed down about ten years ago, the place had further deteriorated and it was now "a definite blot on the countryside standing out on Ballinacourty Head." Stating that it was generally accepted that the plant would never be opened again as a factory, Cllr. Fahey said that the question now being asked was why it was being kept there.

Cllr. O'Riordan speaking in relation to his request for a report said that he would not like to see the Council rushing into anything where this matter was concerned as there were ten people at present employed in security duties there. He suggested that the Co. Manager and Council Chairman should seek to have a discussion with the Company executives about the future of the plant.

Cllr. Harty then said that he had been asked by the Golf Club Committee not to raise the matter at present as they were in negotiations with the Quigley Magnesite people and some of the local landowners in Ballinacourty. However, he said that even though the plant was a blot on the environment, as an industrial site it had great possibilities and while the Golf Club needed land he asked that his motion be deferred for a month.

Deputy Fahey then said that in view of what Cllrs.

O'Riordan and Harty had said he would ask for permission to also have his motion deferred.

RELUCTANT TO COMMENT

Asked by the Chairman, Cllr. Kyne to comment on the situation, the Co. Manager, Mr. Dan Hurlley said that he would be reluctant to do so because the matter was so delicate. However referring to the statement made by Deputy Fahey, the Manager said that Mr. Fahey was in the field of opinion rather than in the field of facts because while the plant might look unsightly, this did not mean that it was derelict. He also pointed out that rates amounting to £13,000 annually were paid on the property while ten people were presently employed there. "I think we shall let the hare sit for a while and allow whatever negotiations are taking place to be finalised and formalised and the Council can then discuss the matter," said Mr. Hurlley.

The Chairman said that he was aware that the Co. Manager had been in constant contact with the Irish representatives of the Company down through the years on the situation. At the same time he felt that there was some onus on the Company to now come clean and say whether they would be prepared to sell the site to the Golf Club at a reasonable price and he felt that in calculating this the Company must have some write-off dimension by way of its investment in the reinstatement of the site.

It was then unanimously agreed to defer further discussion in the matter for a month.

Jack (the Lad) Charlton is Council's Choice For People Of The Year Award

When members of Waterford Co. Council at their monthly meeting in Dungarvan last Monday came to nominate a person for the 1990 People of the Year Awards, Cllr. Paddy Kenneally was immediately off the mark when he said that there was only one person for them to nominate and that was Jack Charlton "who did more than anyone for the country this year in the World Cup."

Charlton is the Ireland soccer supremo who took Ireland to the last eight in this year's World Cup Competition.

The proposal was seconded by Cllr. M. O'Riordan and passed unanimously.
