TIDY TOWNS COMPETITION

Formal Presentation Of Regional Award To Stradbally

The picturesque Coveside Village of Stradbally will again be en fete on Monday next, October 8, when Tourism interests will gather at the local G.A.A. Centre for the presentation of the Regional and other Awards won this year by the Stradbally entry in the Bord Failte Tidy Towns Competition.

For the local Tidy Towns Committee in Stradbally, this year has meant a great sustained effort as they were involved as one of Ireland's entries in the EC Entente Florale which brought a panel of international judges to the Village on Thursday, August 16 while the Adjudicators for the Tidy Towns Competition made two visits to the area.

The National Awards in the Competition were presented in Dublin recently but this year as an innovation, the Regional and other awards will be presented locally to the winners. It is as a result of this decision and as Stradbally was the Regional Winner for the South-East-Region, as well as the winners of three other awards, that VIP's involved in the Tourism industry will gather in the Stradbally G.A.A. Centre on next Thursday evening at 7.30 p.m. to present the awards.

During the evening an award will also be presented to the Finnegan family, Hope Cottage, Dunmore East who won it in the Traditional Irish Cottage category in this year's competition.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUTS CELEBRATE DIAMOND JUBILEE BIRTHDAY

Pictured above are members of the Abbesside Scout Troop who celebrated their Diamond Jubilee Birthday in a very special manner in the Scouts Den, Abbesside last Saturday night. Since its foundation in 1930, the Scout Troop has proved one of the most important movements in the Village, establishing a great tradition. For full story of last Saturday night's celebration see Page 3 inside.

Seminar On Nursing In Britain

Students interested in the nursing profession in Britain are invited to a seminar in Mercy Convent Primary Hall, Waterford City on Thursday, October 18, at 2 p.m.

The object of the nursing seminar is to provide factual, up-to-date information in relation to the nursing profession in Britain to enable students to have the best possible chance of acceptance for training.

Information will be given on various courses available for nurse training and qualifications necessary for each course. The seminar will outline the lifestyle and daily programme of student nurses giving a realistic picture of living and working conditions.

The speakers will be Fr. Declan Foley, chaplain to Irish nurses in the London area and Miss Elizabeth Whelan, a ward sister at Whittington Hospital and a native of Castledermot, Co. Kildare.

Further information is available from the local organiser: Fr. Michael Enright, St. John's Presbytery, Waterford. Telephone 051/74271.

BALLYDUFF v. ROANMORE

Pause For Thought With Fr. Paddy

IT IS NOW YOUR TURN!

Isaiah, in the first reading, depicts in a brief and telling story, the Lord's relationship with the Jewish people. He uses a vineyard for the setting, and as this was a frequent adaptation of preachers, it would have been readily understood by his listeners. He goes on to relate how a landowner carefully prepared and planted his vineyard with strong and healthy plants, and had every hope of reaping a rich harvest. Clearly, the owner had done everything he could to ensure a good crop, but the venture ended in failure. Why? What went wrong? It is evident from the reaction of the owner that the workers were negligent. The place became so cluttered up with weeds that the vines were stulted; and when harvest time came, the crop was small and of poor quality. Naturally, the master was disappointed. He drove these unfaithful servants from his land. Isaiah is saying, God loved these people. He offered them every help, but they would not listen to His prophets. Hence, He takes the vineyard from them, and invites other workers to come and do the work.

We know from S. Scripture that Isaiah's words were fulfilled by Christ, when He founded His Church, the new people of God. Like Isaiah, it is now the mission of the Church to encourage her children to be faithful in tending to the needs of God's vineyard. Hence, it is her duty to remind us of our obligation to be fruitful. She must tell us that failure will involve condemnation. The Lord has prepared the way. The rest is up to ourselves. And Paul, in the second reading tells us how to produce a harvest of love. He says, you must pray, thank God, and practice the Christian virtues. He adds, there is no other way to obtain and enjoy the peace of Christ, which is so contrary to the bitter grapes of suffering, which Isaiah says was the lot of those who looked for it elsewhere. Paul fully understands, it will still be a struggle, but if you do not turn to God, who is always near, where can you go? It should make one think. Today, there's a mad rush for pleasure and enjoyment. The first rule of this club is: You must keep God out. It is the same as seeking for the crock of gold buried at the foot the rainbow! These foolish people run the risk of being excluded from Heaven. The sooner they realise, there is no peace here or hereafter without God, the better.

You'd conclude rightly from what I have said that the situation which faced Isaiah has again raised it's ugly head. People, who once worked in God's vineyard, are handing in their cards, and going to work elsewhere for what they say, are better terms. They claim the new job is less demanding and conditions and pay are better! It is the old cry, we will not have this man to reign over us. We want Barabbas. God's laws are outmoded in this enlightened age. Those who preach "do as you please" are doing untold harm to souls. For, as I said to you recently, how can these false teachers help you to find the key to life, when they are unable to find it themselves! People, who returned to Ireland this year, told me that they noticed a steep decline in moral standards. They expressed sadness, because they'd seen the havoc caused in their adopted lands, and had always felt refreshed and uplifted when they came back home. What surprised them too was not only the change, but the rapid change in the moral tone. Indeed, it is easy to be influenced and misled by what is happening in our midst, so be on your guard. You will only find peace here and hereafter by serving God faithfully. It will not be easy, and it will take courage, but when the referee blows his whistle, you'd rejoice that you were a member of God's team. Again I say, be on your guard. God always keeps His promises, and He has promised you eternal life. Remember, the world is full of false prophets. They'll offer you the sky, but ask them, what is left when the bubble bursts?

A WEE TWIST

In the Gospel there's a wee twist in the vineyard story. This time the workers forget that all they have, they have received. They behave outrageously when they are asked to acknowledge God's goodness. The Lord sent His servants to them to remind them of their duties but they simply beat them up, and ignored the Master's message. When He finally sent His own son, they killed Him. The meaning is, Israel was privileged, but failed to produce the expected fruits. She refused to listen to the warnings of the prophets, and worse still, she rejected God's son. Hence, she failed, despite being especially blessed, to fulfil her chosen role, because she fell to the lure of the world.

The Lord then went into the highways seeking other workers. Those who responded are now the new people of God. You are now numbered among that privileged group; and the Lord expects all the members of His Church to strive to be good and faithful servants. We've only to turn back to the second reading to learn how we are to fulfil our function. It is evidently clear that the Lord did punish His unfaithful workers, but Matthew is saying that worse is to come, namely, exclusion from the Kingdom of Heaven, for the new workers, if they willfully fail in their duties. You see. God has not asked for the impossible. Indeed, He has asked for a lot, but if He has, He has also assured us of all the helps necessary to succeed. He understands mistakes will be made, but He is always available and ready to help and to forgive. If He mentions the great reward at the end of the road, it is for our encouragement. Truly, we have a great and good God. He is worth living for, and He is worth dying for. So, watch and pray, and do not allow yourself to be blinded by the allurements of life.

Forged Cassette Tapes Were On Sale In Youghal

When agents of the owners of video and cassette copyright tapes visited two Youghal business premises on March 14 in the company of a garda officer they found dozens of forged videos, District Justice W. F. O'Connell heard at Youghal Court last Thursday.

Cal Flavin Ltd 70 North Main Street, and Anthony Varney, Cork Hill Stores, both pleaded guilty to a breach of the 1927 Copyright Act.

Supt. Tom Waldron told the court that a total of 65 videos and 43 cassettes were found in Flavin's premises, together with 22 videos at Varney's. All were forged, though the prosecution was not alleging that they had been forged by the defendants.

Cal Flavin Ltd was fined £50 and Varney £30, and in each case District Justice O'Connell made an order for the forfeiture of the forged videos and tapes and their restoration to the copyright company.

The Best Of McDonnells Good Food Cook Books

The best of McDonnells Good Food Cook Books by Paula Daly was launched by the Minister for Food, Joe Walsh, T.D., last week at The Royal Hospital, Kilmainham. In this book, Paula Daly has included her favourite recipes from previous books plus many new ones. All recipes are in Paula's easy to follow style and she has carefully checked and brought them up to date.

Paula Daly's name is synonymous with the best in home cooking. She hosted the McDonnells Good Food Kitchen Radio Show for 13 years and coped annually with a mailbag of close to 40,000 letters. She is famous throughout Ireland for her live demonstrations where her sheer professionalism won the admiration of all. As a result of their popularity, and because W & C McDonnell carried the major costs, local charities benefitted by almost £200,000.

This is the fifth Good Food Cook Book from the McDonnells/Paula Daly stable. It is available at £6.95 from good Book Shops throughout Ireland or from W & C McDonnell, PHS (Ireland) Ltd., PO Box 1155, Crumlin, Dublin 12.

Youghal Cattle Dealer Fined

Harry Ross, a cattle dealer of 67 North Main Street, Youghal, pleaded guilty at Youghal District Court last Thursday to four charges of permitting unburied carcasses on his land at Ballymacask, Youghal, to which dogs had access, on June 9, 10, 12 and 13.

District Justice W. F. O'Connell fined the defendant £20 on each of the four charges and also ordered him to pay £40 expenses.

Stradbally Vet Unfit To Attend Court

Veterinary surgeon John Phelan (33), married with four children, of Cove Lodge, Stradbally, Co. Waterford, was on Thursday last remanded in custody at Waterford Court for two weeks charged with the murder of William Horan, a 70-year-old single farm labourer of Owing, Piltown, Co. Kilkenny, at Carrowleigh, Rathgormack, Co. Waterford, on September 20 last.

When Phelan did not appear in court, Garda Insp. Ml. Delahey, Waterford, told District Justice Patrick Keenan Johnson that two psychiatrists in the Central Mental Institute, Dundrum, had certified him unfit to attend and that he would not be in a position to appear for a further two weeks.

KILMACTHOMAS BRIDGE CLUB RESULTS
 Results from the Kilmacthomas Bridge Club are as follows:

Wednesday, September 19 — 1st Paddy O'Reilly and Michael Prendergast; 2nd Mrs. Maureen Power and Mary Casey.

Wednesday, September 26 — 1st Mary Casey and David Kelly; 2nd Maureen Power and Padraig Kirwan; 3rd Michael Kirwan and Catherine Tuohy.

BIRTHDAY
 Congratulations to Michael Carey, Scrahan, who celebrated his birthday last week.

IN HOSPITAL
 We wish a speedy recovery to Mr. Mattie Kiely, Currabaha West, who is a patient in Waterford Regional Hospital at the moment and we hope to see him out and about again in the not too distant future.

RACES
 The last festival race meeting of the season took place last week at Listowel, Co. Kerry. As usual there were many punters from the Kilmacthomas area at the event including Johnny Power, Main Street, Gregory Mears, Hillside Crescent and Donie Ryan, Graigue, and all came home with pockets bulging!

JUNIOR HURLING
 The Kilmacthomas junior hurling team were defeated by 0-11 to 1-6 in the Eastern final of the junior hurling "B" championship in Portlaoise on Sunday afternoon last.

This was a game Kilmacthomas could have won but failure in front of goal proved costly.

We wish the best of luck to a gallant Fenor side in the county final.

TROOP BIRTHDAY

PARTY

Last Saturday night was a very special night for the scout troop as we celebrated our Diamond Jubilee (60th) Birthday.

The occasion was specially marked with a beautiful four course meal, specially prepared by three very hard working parents — Eileen Shepherd, Ann Kelleher and Alice O'Connor, on the night new cub leader Theresa Twohig came and gave the ladies a hand. Over the past couple of weeks the ladies had been planning their big surprise so we can only presume that they must be delighted with the end product which was simply stunning.

Earlier in the day the tables (thanks to the C.B.S. for a loan of their tables) were laid out and beautifully prepared and decked out with blue and gold serviettes, flowers and the full complement of delph and cutlery — when the ladies take something on, they really mean business.

On the night we were joined by the Regional Commissioner Mr. Joe Organ and his bride to be Sandra Manning; Colm and Linda Nagle, our working guests from the Leader and our camp sponsors were also represented.

Before the meal began outgoing scout of the year John Paul Cosgrave blew out the candles on the birthday cake (which was beautifully made and decorated by Eileen Shepherd). Grace was then said and we tucked in.

Turkey, ham, croquettes and vegetables, a selection of desserts, cake and tea of coffee were on the menu. Anne Kelleher must have heard of the expression "meals on wheels" as she raced around the hall at unbelievable speed — Alice and Eileen had sweat pouring from them in the kitchen while Theresa's hands must be shrivelled up from all the washing up.

After everyone were completely full it was down to serious business. Before the S.L. started the scout awards he made special presentations to Theresa for all her typing during the year and her help on the night. He also wished her well in her new cub leader appointment; to Alice "Pavlova" O'Connor (who also doubles as a good disco bouncer) he extended thanks to her for all her help and cooking; when it came to Eileen and Ann he said he couldn't separate them as they were the two "burning lights" behind the whole operation, so he said how truly grateful he was before presenting them with their "trophies" and "thank yous."

It was now the boys turn, the first award for Best

Camp Photo went to Sean Kelleher for this photo titled "Sad Ciaran" which we believe was taken after the departure of Janice from Chalfont (say no more). Drill champion was next and this award went to the most consistent drill scout in our monthly competitions, the recipient here was Alan Hackett. Scout of the Year, the award for most consistent scout over twelve months was next and a very deserving and popular recipient here was Brendan Flynn, a scout who has excelled himself with effort and leadership qualities over the past year.

Patrol of the Year for the N.L.B. Trophy was won by the Brookside Patrol, the P.L.'s were Aidan Whelan and John Paul Cosgrave, and patrol members were Sean Kelleher, Robert Curran, Martin Whelan, Neil Moore, Alan Hackett and Colm Fennell.

Next the S.L. presented Joe and Sandra with a gift on behalf of the scout sections for all his hard work and time given to the Fourth over his many years of participation. Joe was then called to make a very special presentation to Mark Shepherd — Mark received the National Scout Award (the first in the region since 1985) — Joe outlined that this is the second highest award in Irish Scouting and told how difficult it was to achieve it, he hoped, he said, Mark would now continue on to get the Chiefs Award.

Colm Nagle then got down to business as he took photos of all the awards plus a group photo.

After a major clean-up involving everyone, the slides of camp were viewed and this was followed by a campfire with Brian Mulvihill, Theresa and Ciaran Walsh leading the way.

The party ended with everyone lifting the roof off the Den in thanks to the four ladies in appreciation of their magnificent efforts. All scouts were given a slice of birthday cake and some goodies to bring home and we closed with the scout prayer.

It was nice to see the guests and scouts so thankful afterwards — it's nice to be appreciated — what was also pleasing to see was new scout of the year Brendan Flynn take on the role of spokesman for the troop as he conveyed grateful thanks.

There's one major rumour coming from the party — is the scout leader working on a contract to bringing the ladies to the Den to run night classes in cooking for our patrols? I'm sure the scouts wouldn't object.

— Scribe.

Court Expresses Sympathy On Death Of Mrs. J. King

Before proceeding to deal with the business before last week's sitting of Dungarvan Court, District Justice W.F. O'Connell said that he wished to express his sympathy on the occasion of the recent death of Mrs. Josephine King, wife and mother of two of the legal practitioners in his court, Mr. Eamonn P. King and Mr. Niall King.

The late Mrs. King was a kindly and gracious person and in extending his own personal sympathy and the sympathy of the Court to Mr. Eamonn King and Mr. Niall King and to the other members of the family, District Justice O'Connell said that the death of a wife and mother was the most serious bereavement which a family could sustain.

Mr. A. V. Maher, State Solicitor on his own behalf and on behalf of the members of the legal profession associated himself with the expression of sympathy and said that they all had been most grieved by Mrs. King's death.

Supt. R. McAndrew joined in expressing his sympathy on his own behalf and on behalf of the Garda Siochana.

Mr. Niall King, Solr. on behalf of his father and the other members of the family thanked District Justice O'Connell and the Court for their kind expressions of sympathy.

Dungarvan Man Fined £20 On Drugs Charge

Brian Needham, Boreenatra, Dungarvan, was fined £20 at Dungarvan District Court last week when he pleaded guilty to having a controlled drug, cannabis resin, in his possession on December 15th, 1988 in contravention of the Misuse of Drugs Act.

Supt. Ray McAndrew said Needham was at home on holidays from England at the time. Only a small quantity of cannabis was found on the defendant who wanted it for his own use.

Waterford R.T.C. In New E.C. Student Exchange Programme

Mr. Michael Smith, Minister for Science and Technology last Wednesday announced that the European Commission had awarded £2 Million to Irish led projects under the Comett II Programme — Community Action Programme in Education and Training for Technology which is co-ordinated in Ireland by EOLAS — the Irish Science and Technology Agency.

Under the scheme more than 150 Irish student's will receive funding to the tune of £374,000 to spend periods of 3-12 months in European companies where they will get on-the-job training and exposure to technology and management techniques in another Member State. Thirty-five students from other Member States will undergo training periods in Irish companies.

Students at the Regional Technical College, Waterford will participate in a project centred on developing, testing and disseminating the latest research and development information on Advanced High Performance Liquid Chromatography. Centres in eight EC member states will participate. This project which will involve student exchanges with the UK and preparatory visits to various EC countries will be of particular interest to small companies in the biotechnological, agri-food, pharmaceutical, packaging and environmental sectors.

Court Sequel To Late Night Disturbance In Youghal

An abuse of alcohol sparked off a late-night disturbance in Youghal, Youghal Court was told last Thursday.

Arising from the incident three defendants appeared before the court and all three were fined and bound to the peace.

Supt. Tom Waldron said the disturbance followed the refusal of a publican to serve drink to the defendants.

Eamonn Crowley, 16 Avoncore Place, Middleton, was fined £50 when he pleaded guilty to obstructing Garda Pat Grace in the execution of his duty at South Main Street on April 8. He was also bound to the peace for 12 months.

John Butler, 1, Avoncore Park, Middleton, was fined £25 for being drunk and disorderly and was bound to the peace for 12 months, while Pat Butler, also of 1, Avoncore Park, Middleton, was fined £25 for resisting lawful arrest, £10 for being drunk and disorderly, and was similarly bound to the peace for 12 months.

WELLINGTON WALK

The Wellington Walk from the Nire to Ballymacarbry Cross in aid of the Arthritis Association held last Sunday, attracted a fine number of competitors. The following were the winners: Men — 1, Thomas Connolly, Kilmacoma; 2, John A. Walsh, Marlfield; 3, James Barron, Graignagower; Ladies — 1, Bernie Meehan, Knockmeal; 2, Breda Coffey, Shanballyanne; 3, tie between Margaret Connolly, Kilmacoma and Noreen Coffey, Shanballyanne.

COMMUNITY ALERT

A meeting of Ballymacarbry Alert Committee was held at St. Patrick's Hall on Wednesday night. Information leaflets are to be printed and distributed to some 343 houses in the district. This leaflet will deal with the various emergency aids available and the system of alerting in emergencies. It will also impress upon the elderly the importance of alarms and safety systems in their homes, which include telephones, door chains, a strong light outside their door, and, above all, never open your door, day or night, to unknown persons.

MEMORIAL UNVEILED

On Sunday last a Memorial Stone was unveiled by the Third Tipperary Brigade Old IRA Commemoration Committee at Grange Churchyard near the village at Nine-Mile-House. It is to the memory of seven members of one family, the Butlers of Brenormore, they were Jimmy, Paddy, Martin, Tom, Jack, Ned and Harry. Tom and Harry saw service in the Nire Valley in the darker days of the twenties as they were members of Mick Sheehan's Flying Column.

JACKIE'S 25th

A celebration night will take place in the Park Hotel, Dungarvan on October 19, to honour Deputy Jackie Fahey's 25 years in Dail Eireann. The function will be attended by An Taoiseach, Charles J. Haughey, An Tanaiste Brian Lenihan, the Minister for Health Dr. Rory O'Hanlon, Minister for Finance Albert Reynolds and many other Cabinet Ministers and Ministers of State.

There will be a strong South Tipperary involvement in this function as Deputy Fahey represented South Tipperary for over 12 years in the Dail.

PRETTY DOUBLE WEDDING

At St. Mary's Church, Cahir, on Saturday, September 22, the weddings took place of sisters Carol and Michelle O'Sullivan to Joseph Corbett and Paul Byrne. The marriage ceremony with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. Fr. Michael Knight, C.S.Sp., Rockwell College, assisted by Rev. Fr. Michael Curran, C.C., Cahir and Rev. Fr. Michael Kennedy, C.C., Ardfinnan.

Carol and Michelle are daughters of Michael and Mary O'Sullivan, Bengurragh Square, Cahir; Joseph Corbett is son of Joe and Kathleen Corbett, Croan, Newcastle, while Paul Byrne is son of Paul and Dolly Byrne, St. Finnan's Terrace, Ardfinnan.

The reception was held at Cahir House Hotel, after which both couples left for the Canary Islands. Wishing both couples every happiness for the future.

LATE MR. THOMAS GUIRY

It is with regret we record the death, which occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Clonmel, after an illness of some duration of Mr. Thomas (Tommy) Guiry, Knockaunbrandaun, Ballymacarbry. Deceased who was in his late 80's, was for the past sixty years Sacristan of St. Helena's Church, Nire Valley. He served under eight parish priests, Rev. Fr. Richard Meskill, P.P., Rev. Fr. Thomas Gibbons, P.P., Rev. Fr. John Cullinane, P.P., Rev. Fr. Michael Phelan, P.P., Rev. Fr. Peter Walsh, P.P., Rev. Fr. Thomas O'Brien, P.P. and Rev. Fr. John Keating, P.P. All these priests have passed away to their reward and the present Parish Priest, Rev. Fr. Michael Power, P.P., in his homily at the Requiem Mass on Monday last, spoke in glowing terms at the late Tommy Guiry and his dedication to the Church of St. Helena's in the Nire Valley and also the graveyard where he could tell where each family are laid to rest.

Deceased was a caring neighbour whose outgoing, sincere nature endeared him to the many people who were indeed privileged to make his acquaintance. Many now grieve for the void his sad demise leaves. That he will be remembered was truly indicated on Sunday evening when his remains were removed from Fennessy's Funeral Home, Clonmel to the Church of St. Helena's, Nire Valley, followed by a large and representative concourse of sympathisers, indicating the esteem and high regard in which the deceased and his family are held over a wide area as they joined with friends and neighbours to say farewell to a Christian friend.

On Monday morning after Requiem Mass he was laid to rest in the little churchyard he loved and cared for so well.

To his wife and family we tender our deepest sympathy on their sad loss.

LATE MR. DENIS WALSH

Widespread and profound sorrow was occasioned in the district by the deeply regretted death which occurred at his residence Frehans, Newcastle, of Mr. Denis Walsh. A thoughtful and helpful neighbour, his warm sense of humour, unassuming courtesy, generosity and kindness to all, marked him out as a true

Christian.

An outstanding hurler, he played many an outstanding game for his club Ballybacon. He was a wonderful family man and accordingly all who knew and respected him will deeply and justifiably mourn his demise and long cherish his memory.

That Denis will be sadly missed was evidenced at the removal of his remains from his residence to Ballybacon Parish Church when all walks of life were represented in the large concourse of sympathisers indicating the esteem and high regard in which the deceased and his family are held. Following Requiem Mass on Tuesday morning, the interment took place in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery.

To his wife and family we tender our deepest condolences in their sad loss.

LATE MRS.

MARGARET BREEN

The death took place after an illness of some duration at Our Lady's Hospital, Cashel, of Mrs. Margaret (Peg) Breen, Rosegreen, Cashel. She was mother of Mrs. Carmel Melody, Curtiswood, Ballymacarbry and Ita and Rev. T. F. Breen, C.C., Killenaule.

On Monday evening her remains were removed from Davitt's Funeral Parlour, Cashel, to the Church of St. Thomas, Rosegreen and on Tuesday morning after Requiem Mass the interment took place in the family plot in Rosegreen churchyard.

To her husband and family we tender our sympathy.

LATE MR. JOHN NORRIS

The sad and unexpected death of Mr. John (Jack) Norris, Sillaheen, Ballymacarbry, took place at his sister's residence on Tuesday evening. His death has cast a gloom over the entire district of Ballymacarbry and surrounding areas. He was a member of an old and respected Four-Mile-Water farming family. A neighbour of the highest degree, he was always ready to lend a helping hand. His wife, Mary, predeceased him by some three years.

On Thursday evening his remains were removed from Condon's Funeral Home, Clonmel, to St. Laurence's Church, Four-Mile-Water, when all walks of life were represented in the large concourse of sympathisers, indicating the esteem and high regard the deceased and his family are held. On Friday morning, after Requiem Mass, the interment took place in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery.

To his daughter Helen, his brothers and sisters we extend our sincere sympathy.

Married recently at Kilgobinet Church were Catherine Veale, Leamybrien and Jorgen Mikkelsen, Holland. Rev. Fr. Ahearne, C.C., Abbeyside officiated. The reception was held at Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan—(Photo: Pat Crowley).

1990 CATTLE HEADAGE & EC PREMIUM SCHEMES

Because of industrial action by the inspection staff, the Department is introducing the following arrangements for the current year.

Cattle Headage and Beef Cow Schemes in Disadvantaged Areas:

Herds not already inspected will not now be inspected. Applications will be cross-checked against existing records and processed for payment if found in order. An applicant may be asked to forward to the Department's local office the relevant cattle identity cards and Marts/Meat Factories sales dockets if this is considered necessary in specific cases.

Suckler Cow Scheme:

Applicants whose herds have not been inspected will have their applications cross-checked under this scheme also and processed for payment if found in order. Cattle identity cards will be requested if these cross-checks reveal any apparent discrepancies. Because of the six months retention period under this scheme and because applications under the special Suckler Cow scheme for small-scale dairy producers have not yet issued there will be a small number of special checks carried out on suckler cows later this year.

Special Beef Premium Scheme:

Male cattle not already inspected will not now be inspected. All uninspected applicants will be asked in due course to forward to the Department's local office the relevant cattle identity cards and any LH/SBPI forms completed by Department staff at Marts so that claims can be processed for payment. Cards should not be forwarded until requested.

Applicants wishing to sell cattle in the meantime should bring the identity cards of all male cattle still in their possession and listed on the application form together with any completed LH/SBPI forms to their local office for checking, punching and stamping.

General:

Applicants are asked to refrain from all unnecessary telephone and other queries to this Department's local offices, otherwise the processing of payments will be delayed unduly.

DEATH

The death took place in the Waterford Regional Hospital, of Miss Margaret Kirwan, a native of Drumlohan, Stradbally, on Monday, September 23. Her remains were removed from the hospital mortuary to Kilrossanty Church, where they were received and blessed on arrival by Very Rev. Fr. Frawley, P.P.

The interment took place after 11 o'clock Mass on Tuesday morning which was also celebrated by Fr. Frawley, P.P. and also in attendance were Rev. Fr. Finbarr Lucey, P.P. and Rev. Fr. Virgil Power, U.S.A.

Deepest sympathy is extended to her brother and sisters, relatives and friends. R.I.P.

WELL DONE

Congratulations to all concerned with the new additions at the Church of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, Stradbally, since Sunday last. It really does enhance the church interior.

SYMPATHY

Our deepest sympathy is extended to the family and friends of the late Miss Kitty Sheehan, Brennan, Stradbally, whose death occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan on Wednesday, September 23. She was buried at St. Anne's Church Cemetery, Ballylaneen, at which Very Rev. Fr. M. J. Ryan, P.P., Stradbally and Fr. Pat Butler, C.C., Stradbally, attended.

LISTOWEL 1990

A large number of punters attended the annual 5-day race meeting at Listowel, Co. Kerry last week from Monday to Friday and almost all came back with very empty holes in their pockets, but we believe they had a great time!

A.G.M.

The Bunmahon Seafield Pipe Band held their annual general meeting at the Community Barron Hall, Stradbally, on Monday night, September 17, at which there was a fair attendance.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President — Mr. Matty Wall; Chairman — Mr. Paddy Jo Carey; Secretary — Mrs. Peggy Carey; Treasurer — Mrs. Peggy Walsh; P.R.O. — Miss Karen Connors.

The committee are as follows:— Mary Wall, Stradbally, Mrs. M. Kiely, Bunmahon, Mary Anne Connors, Durrow, Stradbally and Mrs. Rose Power, Carrigbarahane, Stradbally.

Practice for the band continues every Tuesday night for the coming winter months at the Community Barron Hall, Stradbally, at 7 p.m. sharp till 8.30 p.m. and those interested are asked to please note.

A dance has been arranged for the Pipe Band at Corcoran's Bar in Kill, for later this month and the full details will be made available in this column at a later date.

FOLEY - FENNEL WEDDING

Our warmest congratulations and best wishes are extended to a very popular girl in Clashmore, Mary Margaret Foley, youngest daughter of Mrs. Mary B. and the late Patrick Foley, Coolbagh, Clashmore, on the occasion of her marriage at St. Cronin's Church, Clashmore on Saturday last, September 29 to Tom Fennell of Stradbally. Mary Margaret's hand in marriage was given to Tom by her brother John.

The exceptionally beautiful floral display at the church and the music brought sunshine into the day, making up for the dull, wet conditions outdoors. Bridesmaid was Mrs. Lena Walsh, bestman was Mr. Jamie Fennell, brother of the groom, flowergirl was Melissa Fennell and pageboy was Patrick Walsh. The principal celebrant of the Nuptial Mass was Rev. Billy Meehan, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. Canon Joseph Murphy and Very Rev.

Michael J. Ryan, P.P., Stradbally.

Mary Margaret is a very popular assistant at O'Malley's in Clashmore and we are glad to hear that she will continue to work here.

Every good wish for health and happiness to you both.

YOUGHAL PORT

For a West Waterford man the largest ship ever to dock in Youghal was in full view to us in Youghal Bay last weekend. We are proud to report that this historical event was the direct action of a West Waterford man, Mr. Maurice Cliffe, Kinsalebeg. The ship carrying steel came here from Turkey, measured 116 metres and had space for a cargo of 7,444 tons. The steel used for the building trade was delivered to Maurice Cliffe's company, Youghal Shipping Ltd. On board the ship were three stowaways all of whom were later flown back to Morocco.

Maurice continues to make history as he will shortly have a coal ship docking in Youghal for the first time in almost twenty years. We wish Maurice and Youghal Shipping continued success.

BABY GIRL

Warmest congratulations to P. J. and Anne O'Connell, Kilmore, Clashmore, on the birth of a baby girl some weeks ago.

THE MATCH

The Western junior hurling final at Cappoquin on Sunday last between Ring and Clashmore had a very disappointing result for Clashmore. At the end of the first half it was level scoring, but in the second half Clashmore never got on top of the game.

IN LISDOONVARNA

Three brave bachelors from this area attended the annual festival at Lisdoonvarna last weekend, John Cliffe, Ger Ronayne and Noel Nugent. All reported having a very enjoyable time but no luck!

A.C.T.

Clashmore branch of Aid Cancer Treatment are holding their annual general meeting at Decies Lounge, Clashmore, this Saturday night. All are welcome along.

NISSAN CLASSIC

The annual All-Ireland Nissan Cycling Classic will pass through West Waterford at Kinsalebeg on Thursday mid-day. The race will be en route to Cork, and has always attracted a lot of interest in this area.

Kill Notes

ST. MARY'S G.A.A.

Last Saturday afternoon, September 29 our U-16 footballers travelled to Walsh Park to take on Rathgormack in the Eastern final. In a tough and exciting game the match ended in a draw which was a fair result, although we had chances to win it. Then, twenty four hours later saw the replay at the Portlaw venue. This game was also a tension filled one, as the game swayed from end to end, and in the end the lads from Rathgormack held out to win by 3 points.

Final score St. Mary's 0-2, Rathgormack 0-5.

However, our U-12 hurlers had a change of fortunes when they recorded two big wins over Ballyduff and Slieverue in the city league.

ON HOLIDAYS

On holidays in England at the moment is Miss Geraldine Power, Ballingarry, Kill. Geraldine as we know is a very popular lady in Kill and she is Whip in Kill Harriers.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

ST BRIGID'S WELL BREWERY

In our "Remembering Other Days" series this week we go back to the early fifties. The photograph shows the staff of St. Brigid's Well Brewery in Dungarvan pictured with the then proprietor, the late Paul I. Power. At that time Power's Brewery was one of the major Guinness bottling plants in the south-east and they also produced and bottled their own range of minerals using the famed St. Brigid's Well water in the process. Of course the Power's "large bottle" was also renowned and revered for its "quality and essence" in those days. Included at back are (left to right) — Dick Scanlon, Willie O'Donnell, Tom Seward, Willie O'Brien, John Flavin, Jim Whelan, Mickey Hurley, Pad O'Brien and Joe Foley; third row — Ned Conway, Maurice Fraher, Mamie O'Brien, Bertie Ahearne, Pauline Barry, Phil Heaney, Lucy Fraher and Paddy Delaney; second row — Cathy Hennebery, Johnny Morrissey, Tommy Greaney (foreman), Paul I. Power, Georgie Barry, John Franklin and Alice Kiely; front row — Mary Alice Hickey, Marcella O'Shea, Mary Dalton, Jimmy Connors, Maisie Duggan, Joanie Fitzgerald and Angie Dalton. Many of the above have now sadly gone to their eternal reward.

PENSMAN Takes You . . . . . Behind The SPOTLIGHT

CAN WATERFORD SUSTAIN ITS CRYSTAL TRADITION

According to "The Sunday Business Post's" comment in the industrial section of last Sunday's issue which was totally devoted to industries in the South East, a lot of hard thinking and realistic talking will be required if the tradition of glass-making, re-established at Waterford after World War Two, is to be sustained into the next century.

The comment under the heading "Kristallnacht for workers at Waterford Glass" states that the decision of the Waterford Glass board to source machine cut crystal from the Bavarian glassmaker FX Nachtmann illustrates that no industrial job whatever is safe.

It goes on to say that while the workers at Waterford Crystal are quite rightly proud of their enormous skills and tradition, there is no doubt that the German glass will also be of excellent quality. It then points out that to the untrained American eye there may be no obvious difference in quality between crystal blown and cut by the craftsmen of Waterford and the machined glass from Nachtmann.

It was "The Sunday Business Post" which first revealed the tie-up between Waterford Crystal and the German glass firm and since then it is unofficially being suggested that perhaps five per cent of all glass could be sourced abroad, with minimal implications for employment at the Waterford Crystal plants at Kilbarry in Waterford City and at Dungarvan. However the Business Post makes the point that once a precedent is established and crystal is being made successfully outside Ireland, the way will be open for the management to bring about further sharp cost reductions at Waterford itself.

It is anticipated that a hard decision concerning the way forward will most likely have to be taken this side of Christmas so let us hope that the Union, the Management and the Board of Waterford Crystal will be able to arrive at an acceptable work plan that will ensure that the great tradition of Waterford Glass will be sustained into the next century.

A PEEP AT DUNGARVAN OF THE FUTURE

Further to our front page story in last week's "Leader" concerning the changing face of business life in Dungarvan, we were afforded a look at the visual plan for the proposed developments along Davitts Quay and on to the Look-Out as drawn up by Architects Niall Hyde & Associates, Dublin, in the office of the County Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley, on Tuesday last.

All we are at liberty to say at present is that the plan is a most ambitious but very beautiful one which, when it finally is completed, will bring a complete new look to Dungarvan Quay. When the negotiations at present proceeding concerning various properties involved have finally and successfully (we hope), been concluded, there will be a public unveiling of the proposals.

All going well, it is anticipated that the plan, to be carried out in stages, should be completed within a time limit of ten years, so it's now really a first peep into Dungarvan of the 20th century. Incidentally during the course of our informal discussion on the proposal, the County Manager informed us that according to three different independent surveys which he had commissioned there was now £9 million worth of business going out of Dungarvan every year. This is surely something for the commercial interests in the town to be thinking about.

HOW IT GOT ITS NAME

While further looking through Hansard's History of Waterford we came across the following item which explains how Fr. Twomey's Road in Dungarvan came to be so named. The history which was published in 1870 had this to say about it:

"At the rear of the Union Workhouse (now St. Joseph's Hospital) is a "holy well," much frequented by the people who come to Dungarvan for the benefit of the sea. Among the many old and fanciful superstitions embodied in the traditions of the peasantry of "old Ireland," some of the most poetical are those connected with something of a sacred character ever since the days of Druidical worship.

"The one to which we have alluded is called the "Friars Well," in memory of the Rev. Patrick Twomey, a good priest of the Augustinian order, anxious, no doubt, to perpetuate one of the old customs of the land, had in the year 1860, this well cleaned out, and a stone cross affixed near it, and crowds of people constantly resort to it.

"It may be here mentioned that the Rev. P. Twomey was buried in 1867, in the interior of the Friary Chapel, Dungarvan; there are also buried within the same building — Dr. John Coman of Dungarvan; also Father Ciciretti, an Italian friar, for some time living in Dungarvan, and who died in 1869."

Fr. Twomey's Road runs from the Youghal Road on the outskirts of Dungarvan to the Spring or Springmount and is now bounded by a modern housing estate. The Road very obviously takes its name from the old Friar's Well which Fr. Twomey cleaned up in 1860.

NOW WHICH WAS IT REALLY?

Coupled with his visit to New York to attend the United Nations World Summit for Children last week-end, the Taoiseach, Mr. Charles J. Haughey attended a fund-raising dinner organised by the Friends of Fianna Fail in the U.S. Held in the world-famous Waldorf Astoria Hotel in the Big Apple we are not sure from the reports of the function which we read whether it was a success or a flop.

Writing in the Weekender supplement in last Saturday's "Irish Independent," columnist Angela Phelan reporting from New York had this to say about the event:

"The setting was only superb, not to mention appropriate for the guest of honour. In the lavish Empire Room at the legendary Waldorf Astoria, Ireland's Emperor received a standing ovation from the assembled glitterati when he made his entrance at the long-awaited Friends of Fianna Fail Dinner last night.

"Displaying all the old Haughey style, the adrenalin of the Big Apple obviously pumping at a mega rate, with arms raised out to the crowd, he might well have been saying: "I'll take Manhattan."

"Of course, having taken all of Europe earlier this year, Gotham City is no big deal for the Boss. This was vintage veni, vidi, vinci."

And so the report went on in the same vein in detail to describe "the dinky little dress suit" worn by "our Emperor" for the occasion and named some of the "heavy hitters" who packed "the court of King Charlie" and who "make this town tick." Incidentally the subscription of $5,000 per table for the dinner was further described as "small potatoes indeed." The piece ended by stating that "the party was a complete success for the Boss."

But then came the other side of the coin in another journal from the same stable, the "Sunday Independent" of last Sunday. A front page banner spread across the top of the front page declared: "Drab Haughey failed New York Friends," and this led into a story from Orla Healy, also "reporting from New York."

Ms. Healy opened her report by stating, "It was an off-colour Charles J. Haughey who made an entrance less than grand into the Empire Room of New York's fabled Waldorf Astoria on Friday night.

"The much talked about Friends of Fianna Fail Dinner, honouring An Taoiseach had all the promise of a glamorous exciting, fun-filled evening that would run long into the night. Instead it was a jaded, yawn-stifling experience of exactly three hours and 40 minutes.

"The dynamic energy synonymous with Manhattan (sic) failed to invigorate An Taoiseach, whose speech was lustreless and failed to generate the up-tempo beat his supporters hoped for. Audience reaction was polite but where was the foot stomping, the wild cheering and the "isn't he great" admiring expressions that I had expected.

"As can happen to the best-planned parties in the world, this just never came together, it never even got off the ground."

One can well be excused for wondering whether the two ladies mentioned were at the same function at all, so contradictory of each other are their reports. If the reports had appeared in papers with opposite political affiliations, such divergent descriptions might be understandable but they appeared in sister papers from the same group, one on Saturday and the other on Sunday. It's then a question of which report one is to accept as being a fair reflection of what really took place in the New York Waldorf Astoria last Friday night but overall it shows an utter contempt for the truth in the news by either one or other of the reports as published.

Incidentally "Backchat" who is responsible for "the column that looks behind the headlines" in the "Sunday Independent" also referred to the function in his column last Sunday. Writing about "Joe, the pimperl of fund raisers"

Malone, "Backchat" stated: "He sat beside the Fianna Fail President, Charles J. Haughey on Friday night at the party's big bash in New York's Waldorf Astoria Hotel, bathing in the reflected glory of the Taoiseach among the F.F. diaspora . . . and he was in charge of arrangements at the fundraiser for 350 loyal supporters who paid 5,500 dollars for a table and the privilege of being there."

Well you'll just have to take your pick!

The Sean Bhean Bhocht

Our choice for the ballad corner this week is called "The Sean Bhean Bhocht," pronounced "Shan Van Vocht." Its meaning is "the poor old woman" which at the time was another name for Ireland. There are numberless versions of the song but the one we have chosen here is considered to be the best. The date of its composition is 1797, the time when a French fleet arrived in Bantry Bay with help for the rising led by Lord Edward Fitzgerald and the United Irishmen.

Oh! the French are on the sea,
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht;
The French are on the sea,
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht;
Oh! the French are in the bay,
They'll be here without delay,
And the Orange will decay,
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht.

Chorus:

Oh! the French are in the bay,
They'll be here by break of day,
And the Orange will decay,
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht.

And their camp it shall be where?
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht;
Their camp it shall be where,
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht;
On the Curragh of Kildare,
The boys they will be there,
With their pikes in good repair,
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht.

To the Curragh of Kildare
The boys they will repair,
And Lord Edward will be there,
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht.

Then what will the yeoman do?
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht;
What will the yeoman do?
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht;
What should the yeoman do
But throw off the red and blue,
And swear that they'll be true
To the Sean Bhean Bhocht.

What should the yeoman do
But throw off the red and blue,
And swear that they'll be true
To the Sean Bhean Bhocht.

And what colour will they wear?
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht;
What colour will they wear?
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht;
What colour should be seen
Where our fathers' home have been
But our own immortal Green,
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht.
(repeat 4 line chorus).

And will Ireland then be free?
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht;
Will Ireland then be free?
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht;
Yes! Ireland shall be free,
From the centre to the sea;
Then hurrah for Liberty!
Says the Sean Bhean Bhocht.
(repeat last 4 lines again as chorus.)

RECENT DEATHS

Dr. Ann Casey (Nee Foley)

The unexpected passing of Dr. Ann Casey, "Mountain View," Dungarvan, at Cork Regional Hospital on Tuesday, September 25, occasioned much sorrow and regret in the locality and surrounding districts. Predeceased by husband Austie in February 1952, Dr. Ann lived life in a most exemplary and dignified manner. Aged 74 years, she was a native of Ardmore.

In 1952 she took up the position of dispensary doctor for Ring-Old Parish area, a people whom she served so unselfishly. She also had a private practice in Dungarvan and was medical advisor to Carriglea Convent. The recent passing of her son-in-law Billy greatly saddened her. Despite her heavy workload all through life, she always had time for everyone, her talents and gifts she shared among us in a most Christian way and her many friends are now the poorer for her passing.

Our sympathies are extended to her sons, daughters, brothers, sisters, relatives and friends on their cross of bereavement.

On Wednesday evening her remains were brought from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church. En route, the cortege paused in tribute outside her residence "Mountain View." Rev. Fr. J. Kiely, C.C., received the remains at the church. In the large choir of clergy in attendance were Rev. W. Carey, C.C., Very Rev. J. Sullivan, Rev. Fr. Nessian, Or. Cap., Mons. P. Lannen, Rev. Fr. G. Power, P.P., Rev. C. O'Daly, P.P.

At the Requiem Mass on Thursday, celebrated by Very Rev. Fr. O'Daly, P.P., the Lessons were read by Andreas and Michael (nephews). A musical tribute was provided by Lena Walsh (soloist) accompanied by Gertie Morrissey (organist). A huge gathering, representative of all walks of life, was present for the interment which took place in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. J. Kiely, C.C., Rev. G. Desmond, C.C., Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A., Rev. J. Hooper, Very Rev. J. Sullivan and Mons. P. Lannen were also present. Very many beautiful floral tributes were placed on her resting place.

Chief mourners — Michael and Richard (sons), Jean and Laurann (daughters), Frank, Hugh, Noel (brothers), Catherine, Mary, Daphney (sisters), Maura (sister-in-law), Andreas (brother-in-law) and a wide circle of nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Miss Ellen "Queenie" Kyne

The death on Tuesday, September 25 of Miss Ellen "Queenie" Kyne, Park Terrace, Dungarvan, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, severs yet another link with our past. Aged 90 years, and a native of the Old Boro, Queenie knew and loved her town, it was "her home by the sea."

She loved to relay stories from the past, but was also a most attentive listener. For most of her life she gave faithful service to her mother and brothers. A gentle soul, she loved the holy sacrifice of the Mass which she attended at St. Augustine's Church. A Child of Mary and a prefect of Our Lady of Good Counsel, no doubt her Christian ways are now being well and deservedly rewarded. Even though her life started with the birth of this century, she very much kept abreast of happenings in today's world.

We offer our sympathies to her nephews and nieces Mary and Ann, Anthony, Garvan and Billy, her grand-nephews, grand-nieces and great-grand-nephews, relatives and friends. Rev. J. Kiely, C.C., blessed and received the remains on their arrival at St. Mary's Parish Church on Wednesday evening. Also in the large gathering was Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A., Rev. D. Treacy, O.S.A., Rev. Fr. Nessian, O.Cap., Mons. P. Lannen.

On Thursday, September 27, Concelebrated Mass was offered for the happy repose of her soul. Very Rev. G. Power, P.P. (chief celebrant), Rev. Fr. Nessian, Ord. Cap., and Rev. J. P. Sheridan, C.C., were co-celebrants. Also in attendance was Rev. Fr. Treacy, O.S.A., Very Rev. J. Sullivan, Mons. P. Lannen. The Liturgy of the Word was read by Billy (nephew) and Emma (grand-niece).

James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mrs. Elizabeth Dillon

The death took place of Mrs. Elizabeth Dillon, 71 Congress Villas, Dungarvan, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Monday, September 24, after a long illness that was borne with true Christian fortitude. A native of Caherhurlley, Bodyke, Co. Clare, Elizabeth was 86 years of age and was predeceased by her husband John by some years. Among us for the past 26 years, Elizabeth was a most popular individual, was a good neighbour and was always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need.

Our condolences to her son Michael, daughter Mary, daughter-in-law Margaret, her many relatives including her 12 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren on their sad loss.

On Tuesday evening, Rev. J. Kiely, C.C., assisted by Rev. W. Carey, C.C., blessed and received the remains at St. Mary's Parish Church. On Wednesday, following Requiem Mass, the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

Mr. Ted Kelly, M.P.S.I.

Everybody in the locality was greatly saddened to learn of the unexpected passing of Mr. Ted Kelly, M.P.S.I., Ballyduff, Dungarvan, on September 25, while holidaying in Madeira. A native of Carrig House, Middleton, Ted was one of the town's true gentlemen, who by his kind, considerate, courteous manner won the respect of one and all.

Our heartfelt sympathies are extended to his wife Maighread, family Christopher, Joseph, Maeve, Raymond, Nina and Edward. We remember his brother Joe and family, Middleton, his many relatives and friends who like us all, are the poorer since Ted was called to his eternal reward.

On Saturday evening, Ted's remains were brought from Cork Airport to St. Mary's Parish Church. On Sunday morning following Concelebrated Mass the interment took place in Ballinacree Cemetery. (Full obituary next issue.)

Mr. Patrick McGrath, M.P.S.I.

The death of Mr. Paddy McGrath, M.P.S.I., Main Street, Dungarvan, on Wednesday, September 12 at Dungarvan Hospital was the source of much sorrow and regret in the area. A native of Mary Street, Paddy was educated at the local CBS. An accomplished hurler and footballer, he starred on many of his alma mater's college sides. For some years he donned the blue and white of Dungarvan with great success.

A chemist by profession, he worked for many years in Athy. It was while residing in the midlands town that he played a major role in the fundraising projects to build the church there.

We tender our sympathy to his sister Nurse Brigid McGrath, his many cousins, relatives and friends.

On Thursday evening the removal took place to St. Mary's Parish Church, where on arrival Very Rev. Canon G. Power, P.P., blessed and received the remains, assisted by Mons. P. Lannen, Rev. Fr. Martin, O.S.A., Rev. Fr. Nessian, O.Cap., Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A.

On Friday morning the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery after the Concelebrated Requiem Mass. Rev. T. Rogers, C.C. was chief celebrant, with Rev. Fr. Nessian, O.Cap. and Mons. P. Lannen co-celebrants. Rev. Fr. Martin, O.S.A., was also present.

Mr. Patrick Ahearne

Deep regret was expressed on the death of Patrick Ahearne, Kereen, Aglish, Cappoquin, which took place on Wednesday, September 26, at his residence. Removal was from his residence on Thursday afternoon to Aglish Church. Following Requiem Mass on Friday morning interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To his wife, sons, daughter and families we extend our deepest sympathy.

(Full obituary next issue.) (Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

Treatment Centre For Drug Abuse and Alcoholism

Sr. Patricia from the Mercy Convent, Dungarvan is soon to return to the Missions in Nigeria. Before setting out, she is asking our readers to give a kindly thought to the very needy and deprived people for whom she and the other Sisters work in Yola Diocese.

There is an urgent need for treatment centres for the treatment of chemical dependency — alcohol and drug abuse. Nigeria — twenty times the size of Ireland — has just one such centre, which was set up by a Nigerian, Jack Bature. He was trained in Hazelden, Minnesota, U.S.A. and is implementing the programme for recovery based on the 12 Step Programme of A.A., which has proved to be the most successful means of help that alcoholics receive. He receives no funding except what is voluntarily given by benefactors. The cost of treating one person for two months is £200. Funds are vital if this good work is to get going and keep going. So any help, no matter how small that any reader can give will be most welcome.

A fund called the Jack Bature Appeal Fund, Ac. No. 16352,350, has been started in the Bank of Ireland, Dungarvan. Donations will be accepted at any Bank of Ireland.

Sr. Patricia nursed for many years in St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan before going to Nigeria in 1982. We wish her every blessing and success in her work.

International Road Safety Week

This year this 1st week of October has been designated International Road Safety Week by the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe. The main objective of the campaign is to promote greater awareness by road users and the general public of the scale of road traffic accidents and the importance of measures and changes of behaviour that could reduce them.

Ireland is participating in the campaign and activities are being co-ordinated by the National Safety Council. Governments have a part to play in improving Road Safety and so do Safety Councils. But the situation will only improve when each citizen realises that, in the last resort, it is his or her activities that matter.

Remember Road Safety Saves Life — maybe yours.

THE LATE NORA FENNESSY

The death took place on Friday morning last of Mrs. Nora Fennessy, Glenview, Ballyduff. Deceased who was in her seventies, was the former Nora Brackett and was a very popular and jovial member of the community.

Her remains were removed to St. Michael's Church on Saturday evening from Ryan's Funeral Home, Lismore and on arrival were received and blessed by Very Rev. Fr. K. Mulcahy, P.P., Ballyduff and Very Rev. Fr. P. Barry, P.P., Ballyporeen.

The interment took place following Requiem Mass on Sunday morning in the adjoining cemetery.

Sincere sympathy is extended to her loving sons, daughters, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, grandchildren, brother, sister, step-brother, step-sisters, relatives and friends.

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Lily Feeny, Waterpark, on the death of her sister, Mrs. Bridie Fitzgerald, Lackenacummeen, Belgooly and formerly of Whitegate, which occurred last weekend.

PIONEER NOTES

The meeting arranged for this Friday night has been deferred to Thursday or Friday night of next week. The Readoiri Talent Competition will be coming up shortly.

G.A.A. NOTES

All roads lead to Dungarvan this Sunday for the 1990 County senior hurling championship final against the holders Roanmore who, incidentally, defeated us in the final last year. This will be a very hard game to win as the city side looked very impressive in their semi-final win over Tallow, two weeks ago.

We have trained and prepared well for this one and it would be a tremendous start to the "nineties" if the cup was to be brought back to the village on Sunday night. (See match preview elsewhere in this issue).

Following the game on Sunday, which has a 3.30 p.m. throw-in, the team and officials will return to the Park Hotel, Dungarvan for a meal. Anyone wishing to join with the players and officials can obtain tickets from Myra Quirke or John Jackson. Tickets must be paid for on collection on or before Saturday.

We wish the team the best of luck in their quest to bring the County title to Ballyduff for the third time.

The under-21 hurlers qualified for the Divisional (B) final when they scored a 2-3 to 0-8 win over St. Patrick's in the semi-final at the Fraher Field on Sunday last. We had earlier in the week received a walk-over from Stradbally.

In Sunday's game we trailed by 0-3 to 0-2 with Owen Corcoran our only scorer. St. Pats had gone into a three point lead when James Scanlan goaled in the 37th minute. At the end of the third quarter the same player added another goal to put us 2-2 to 0-6 in front and a point by Jerome Quirke in the 47th minute left us 2-3 to 0-7 ahead before Pats had a point one minute later, to leave only the minimum between the sides and there was no score for the remaining twelve minutes. Our defence held firm in those closing stages to see us through to the final against Kilrossanty or St. Marys/Modeligo.

Team was — K. Martin, M. Feeny, D. Hickey, G. O'Keefe, T. Feeny, F. Hickey, P. Murphy, O. Corcoran, S. Hickey, B. Bolger, J. Scanlon, G. Hickey, D. Flynn, S. Feeny, M. Geary. Subs used: J. Coleman, G. Quirke. Referee: J. M. Kelly, Shamrocks.

The under-12 footballers lost to Shamrocks on Friday evening in Knockanore by 1-8 to 0-4. They are due to play Faha this weekend.

The Primary Schools football team lost heavily to Coolnasmeear/Kilbrien last week and played Clashmore (away) on Wednesday evening.

The club wishes a speedy recovery to Patsy Molumphy who suffered a knee injury while attending the under-12 game in Knockanore on Friday evening.

BALLYDUFF MACRA NOTES

Last Friday many of our members travelled to Conna for our sports night. Those present took part in soccer and basketball for two hours. Everybody had an enjoyable time despite the sore muscles and bruises felt the next day. It is hoped to hold further trips to Conna in the near future.

A team took part in the Farm Tasks Competition on Sunday last held in Kinsalebeg. The results of this competition will not be known until next week.

There will be a meeting next Saturday, October 6, at 9 p.m., so all members and anyone interested in joining the club are requested to attend.

LADIES CLUB NOTES

The first aid classes have been fixed for Wednesday, October 10 in the Library for 9 weeks at 8 p.m. each night.

These classes are open to all persons and any other club or organisation are welcome to send members. These classes should be of particular interest to all the sporting clubs in the parish.

For more details please contact Mary Ahearn 60179. Names as soon as possible to Mary as places are limited.

COMHALTAS NOTES

Music classes with Bobby Gardiner continue every Thursday night in the Library, commencing at 6.30. Beginners welcome.

Step dancing classes with Michael Ryan on Friday nights at 7 o'clock in the Library, Newcomers welcome.

Set dancing classes with Ann Casey continue in Lismore on Wednesday night. Set dancing classes with Thomas Hyland in Ballysaggart will resume as soon as renovations are finalised in the Community Centre.

An Irish Night will be held in Meagher's on Sunday, October 14. Music by Mrs. O'D.

The branch extends sincere sympathy to Maureen Fennessy on the recent death of her mother, Mrs. Dunford, Bohadoon. — PRO.

Wedding Bells

Married recently at St. Augustine's Church, Abbeyside, Miss Maureen Crowley, Dungarvan and John Beecher, Conna, Cork. Celebrants were Rev. Fr. M. O'Regan, Cork and Rev. Fr. W. Carey, Dungarvan. The reception was held at the Park Hotel, Dungarvan. —(Photo: Pat Crowley).

Waterford Profits Hit By World Dairy Prices

Waterford Foods plc turnover for the half-year to June 30, 1990, rose to just under £230 million, compared with £138 million in the same period of 1989.

Excellent performances were recorded by the Consumer Products Division and the two overseas acquisitions, Heald of Manchester and Galloway West of Wisconsin. However, the important Dairy Division was hit hard by the sharp, worldwide downturn in dairy product prices, despite phased reductions in milk prices from April onwards.

This had the effect of reducing overall Group profits. The profit on ordinary activity, before tax, was £3.852 million compared with £4.223 million in the first half of last year.

During 1990, the company exercised its option to acquire Galloway West from Waterford Co-op and also acquired Western Cheese Ltd., a UK producer and distributor of continental cheeses.

The acquisition of Premier Tir Laighean was also completed and Dublin retail milk company is a contributor to the results for the period.

A further significant step was an issue of unquoted convertible preference shares which strengthened the balance sheet by £16.7 million.

The board of directors has decided to pay an interim dividend of 1.05p per share, compared with 1.00p for the same period of last year.

Looking to the future, the statement by group chairman, John Barry, says there is cause for considerable satisfaction in the performance of the consumer businesses and the new acquisition. The strategic direction and planning involved had been well rewarded.

"Although the outlook for dairy markets is a continuing cause for concern," he added, "we are optimistic that the outcome for 1990 will be satisfactory in terms of overall company results."

Tallow Notes

CASEY - DALY WEDDING

The Church of the Holy Cross, Kilwatermoy, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, September 22 when Pat Casey, son of John and Mary Casey, Cappoquin, and Mary Daly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daly, Tircullen, Tallow, were united in Holy Matrimony. The Nuptial Mass with Papal Blessing was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Magnier, Kilwatermoy.

The bride who looked exquisite in a full length gown of white embroidered shantung with short veil, carried a bouquet of mixed white and yellow flowers. The bridesmaids were Margaret Giles, sister of the bride, Olive Casey, sister of the groom and Ann Daly, sister-in-law to the bride. They wore full length gowns of turquoise satin and matching head-dresses. They carried bouquets of mixed white and yellow flowers. The flowergirls were Sandra Giles and Elizabeth Daly, both nieces of the bride, who wore ballet length turquoise gowns, trimmed with white bib, waistband and bib. They carried baskets of white and yellow mixed flowers.

The pageboys were Stephen Giles, Shane O'Neill and Alan Giles all nephews of the bride. The bestman was Brendan Casey, brother of the groom and the groomsmen were Michael Casey, brother of the groom and James Bennett, brother-in-law of the groom.

The soloist for the occasion was Paddy Greenslade. The reception was held at Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan and the honeymoon is being spent in the Canaries.

Best wishes are sent to Pat and Mary for many years of happiness as they start their new life in Dublin.

TALLOW YOUTH CLUB

To enable Tallow Youth Club to continue, six more leaders are required. Anyone that is interested please contact Elaine McCarthy, West Street, before October 15.

We need help. If you want to find out more about Leadership Duties, you can contact Mary Curley, Angela Allen, Jack Ahearne or Elaine McCarthy and they will answer any questions you might have.

ST. PATRICK'S PAROCHIAL HALL

Results of card drive, September 26 — 1st Sean Coady and Sean O'

Donoghue; 2nd/3rd divided between Chris and Mary Murphy, Mary Pratt and Mary Mangan. Table Prizes — Colin Sice and Gerry Hogan, Liam O'Brien and John Corkery. Raffle — 1st Pat O'Connor, 2nd John Corkery, 3rd Pad Hogan.

ST. PATRICK'S PAROCHIAL HALL A.G.M.

The annual general meeting of St. Patrick's Parochial Hall was held in the Hall on Thursday, September 27. The minutes of last year's meeting having been read and adopted, the Chairman Dick Tobin asked for the Treasurer's report. Michael O'Regan then gave a very detailed account of income and expenditure for the year which resulted in a modest credit balance. The Chairman thanked the officers, committee and caretaker for their co-operation and efficiency throughout the year.

Very Rev. J. Walsh, President, then took the chair for the election of officers. In his address he thanked the chairman and committee for their diligence and service to the Parish Hall during the year. It was to be regretted he said that it was necessary to have night supervision in the hall during the indoor season.

The election of officers and committee for the coming year resulted as follows:

President — Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P.; Chairman — Dick Tobin; Vice-Chairman — John O'Brien; Secretary — John Pratt; Asst. Secretary — Liam O'Brien; Treasurer — M. O'Regan; P.R.O. — Liam Coughlan; Committee — Eugene Barry, Pat O'Dwyer, Pad Hogan, Jimmy Rohan, Mick Pratt, Bernard O'Hara, Michael Dooling.

In discussing forthcoming events it was decided to open the snooker season on Monday, October 8 at 8 p.m. It was also arranged that the annual sale of work will take place on Friday, October 19. The committee wish to express thanks to all who have so generously supported their fund raising efforts over the year, and would once again appeal to your generosity in supplying items for the forthcoming sale of work.

Work is due to commence within weeks on the erection of toilets and showers for ladies and gent's, for use by indoor and outdoor members. This is considered to be a much needed amenity. Some necessary work is also to be carried out to preserve the timber in the roof.

Intending members may apply for membership by completing application form for acceptance by the

committee. — P.R.O. TALLOW COMMUNITY CENTRE

Results, September 30 — Bertie Neville, Lismore; Willie Farrell, Ballyduff; Margaret Daly, Tallow; Pauline Barry, Dungarvan; Peggy Murray, Convent St.; Frances Tobin, Woodview Park; Sonny Meade, Castlelyons; Kathleen Manahan, Cappoquin; Mrs. Mahoney, Ballynoe, Margaret Giles, Tallow; Mary Henley, Tallow; Mrs. Cross, Tallow; Mrs. Deedy, Midleton; Oliver Power, Cappoquin, Maura Lyons, Tallow; Mrs. Buckley, Lismore; Martina Feeney, Ballyduff; Joe Donnelly, Woodview Park; Caroline Murphy, Woodview Park; Marie Fitzgerald, Ballynoe.

Next week's jackpot will be £425 on 50 calls or less.

TALLOW SQUASH CLUB NOTES

The long nights are upon us again, and like the mice, we move in from the fields, to the warmth of the house. Will we get heavy and lazy for the winter months? Or will we be active and alive.

Well, the obvious choice is to play some indoor sport, and we have just the thing for you. A game of squash a few nights a week, a shower and a pint and you should be in the pink.

The squash courts are now becoming active again and we welcome all members and anyone who would like to become members for the new season.

The courts are now open every night, the place is centrally heated and the showers are good and hot, so why not book a game this week, by just phoning 56212 and book your own time. The first tournament of the year will begin on October 22, so all names must be in by October 20. See the notice board in the Hall.

Membership fees will again be the same as last year. Full membership £20 and lights at 50p each. All fees must be paid by November 1. Until next week. — Handout.

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

U-21 Hurling — Tallow 0-6 Lismore 6-15 — The above scoreline tells its own story of this very one sided U-21 hurling championship game against Lismore on Sunday last in Cappoquin. Tallow were totally outclassed by a very competent Lismore fifteen.

Team — John Cunningham, Brian Henley, Colin Cunningham, Dan McGrath, Paul McDonnell, David O'Regan, Ian MacIntosh, J. J. Henley, Mark Geary, Denis O'Flaherty, Eamonn Power, Clive Barry, James Beecher, David Henley (capt.), John Doyle. Subs. — David Doyle for D. O'Flaherty; D. O'Flaherty for Mark Geary (inj.)

The club wishes a speedy recovery to Trevor Sheehan and Joe Fraser who are recovering in hospital after a serious accident on Saturday last. Trevor is one of our outstanding U-21 players, while Joe is a very good juvenile. Get well soon lads and we hope to see you home amongst your families and friends very soon.

An important club meeting will be held in the Hotel on Thursday night, October 4. All committee members please note.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.

Liam McCarthy Cup Comes To Ballynoe — Ballynoe village bedecked with rebel flags and buntings took on a festive atmosphere last Friday evening as St. Catherine's Club, supporters and people from the surrounding districts converged there to welcome members of the Cork senior hurling team plus some of the football squad as well bearing the coveted Liam McCarthy Cup with them.

From early on many youthful, enthusiastic and vigilant boys and girls paraded around as they sought out their special heroes to sign autographs for them. A lorry awaited their arrival and they were driven through the village, headed by the Thomas Kent Pipe Band to the tumultuous cheers of the large crowd.

Then they went on stage where John G. Barry, Chairman of the St. Catherine's G.A.A. Club welcomed both mentors and players alike. He congratulated them on their unique achievement in bringing off the double in hurling and football, a feat which was almost unprecedented at the beginning of 1990. He then called on Denis Walsh, St. Catherine's and Cork hurling and football member and Cathal Casey, St. Catherine's and Cork hurling member to introduce both administrators and players to those present.

Those on stage included local man and Treasurer of Cork County G.A.A. Board, Dan Hoare, Gerald McCarthy, Denis Hurley, Kid Cronin, Liam O Tuama, attached to the senior hurlers. Bob Hanahan, senior football selector, apologies were received from Denis Conroy and Fr. O'Brien. Next we had Thomas Mulcahy (capt.), senior hurlers, Tony Sullivan, Pat Buckley, Sean O'Gorman, (who was described as an inspiration and example for any young hurler, having been a sub on the county senior hurling team for all of 10 years but gaining his just reward for endurance and sportsmanship this year, an All-Ireland medal), David Quirke, Kevin Hennessey, Teddy McCarthy, dual All-Ireland winner, Jim Cashman, Brendan Sullivan, Kevin McGuckian, Ger Cunningham (goalie), and Conor Counihan of the All-Ireland senior football team.

Many of those thanked the St. Catherine's club for inviting them to Ballynoe and spoke in glowing terms of the club's activities and also of its two representatives on the county team. Dick Hegarty, Chairman of the Ballynoe Community Council and John Leahy, Chairman of the Conna Community Council, also joined in the felicitations to players and administrators and mentioned how proud they were of the two local members of the Cork team.

The visitors were treated to a meal in the G.A.A. Clubrooms afterwards.

It was great to have strong links with the victorious county team in 1990, but the parish also had links with the 1890 victorious county senior football team. Richard Kelleher, full-back for the county representatives, Midleton, then, was grandfather of the Morrisson and Higgins families, Conna, and Will Hennessy, half-back was grand-uncle of the Hennessy family of Ballynoe and in the intervening years, in 1939, prior to the senior All-Ireland Cork and Kilkenny, on the thunder and lightning day, Tom McGrath played in goal for Cork minor hurlers versus Kilkenny with the former winning the Blue Riband. He played hurling with his parish team Kilcroat and also with Lismore C.B.S.

U-16 Hurling Championship — Hurling with great skill and dexterity, St. Catherine's earned a place in the county semi-final when they succeeded in defeating the Duhallow champions, Kanturk, in the quarter final match when they met at Ballyhooly last Saturday.

Intermediate Hurling At Ballynoe — Ballinascorthy hurlers were visitors to Ballynoe last Saturday for their current league tie with St. Catherine's. Evenly contested for most of the hour, Catherine's dominated in the last quarter to win comfortably and add the league points to their tally.

PRESENTATION TO BALLYNOE SCHOOL BOARD

The members of the Ballynoe Past Pupils Reunion Committee visited a recent meeting of the above Board which was in session at Ballynoe National School and presented them with a cheque for £600. The Asst. Secretary of the Past Pupils Reunion Committee, presenting the cheque to Mrs. Veronica Farrell, Principal of the School, said that after clearing all their expenses after their recent successful Past Pupils Reunion function, it was the unanimous wish of the committee members to donate this money for the benefit of the school especially in view of the great co-operation they received from the teachers, Mrs. Farrell, Mrs. Sullivan and Miss Margaret O'Keefe, during their preparation for the big day on July 20 of this year. Mrs. Farrell replying, thanked them for this wonderful gift, which they greatly appreciated. She congratulated them on their great and successful venture on Reunion Day and was glad of the close ties that existed between the school and parish always.

LISMORE LADIES GOLF NOTES

We had a very good entry for the Ballyin Cup and prizes (kindly presented by Conna-Bride Plastics, Conna) on Wednesday, September 26 last.

Results: 1, Katherine Moynihan (19) 43 pts.; 2, Fiona Howard (8) 39 pts; Best gross, Ann Howard (17) 19 pts.

Keep an eye on the notice board in the club house for news of the 9 hole winter league.

C.B.S. PAST PUPILS UNION

This Friday night, October 5, the Lismore CBS Past Pupils Union are holding their second benefit night at Youghal Greyhound stadium.

Last year a marvellous night was had by the large attendance who travelled from Lismore and for many it was their first ever visit to the dogs. So successful in fact was the occasion that the management of Youghal Greyhound stadium offered the Past Pupils this coming Friday night, October 5, immediately after last year's event.

There is a free bus to the track from Lismore on the night, while admission tickets (costing £1) are on sale throughout the town and which also entitles the holder to a draw for three very valuable prizes.

The nine races, starting at 8.15 p.m., have been very kindly sponsored.

So if you want to have two hours of enjoyment while at the same time have a small flutter, Youghal Greyhound stadium is the place to be and at the same time supporting a very worthy cause. Hope to see you there.

LISMORE G.A.A. NOTES

Weekly Draw — Week No. 36 — £50 — Martin Sheehan, Chapel Street; £30 — Mossy Casey, Ballyduff; £20 — Miss Nicola Barry, Town Parks; £15 — T. J. Hegarty, Main Street; £10 — Mrs. Joan Kennefick, Ballyea; £10 — Pat Kenneally, New Street. Promoter: P. Ahearne.

The next draw will be held in The Red House on Monday, October 8 at 8 pm. All are welcome to attend. (Advt.)

Annual Social — Tickets for this year's annual social which will be held in Lismore Hotel on Sunday, October 28, are now on sale. As numbers are limited, we would advise anyone wishing to attend to purchase their tickets as soon as possible. These may be had from any of the club committee, price £9.

45 Drive — Friday, October 12 is the date for our first big 45 drive and we are very hopeful of a big attendance on the night. Hope to see you all there.

LISMORE A.C. NOTES

Congratulations to Rena Carey who qualified at Tullamore last Sunday for the British A.A.A. Youth Road Walking Championships in Aldershot, England, on October 20. We wish her all the best from Lismore A.C. — PRO Lismore A.C.

LISMORE CAMOGIE NOTES

On Sunday, September 23, Lismore took to the field once again to replay Gaultier in the junior county final. Lismore were very unlucky not to have taken home the title of County champions on Saturday evening, September 15.

In the first half, Lismore played fantastic stuff and led 2-1 to 1-0 at half time. Siobhan O'Gorman scored 1-1 of this with Michelle Kenneally scoring the second goal. The second half was equally as exciting, with Lismore making sure of the title.

This junior title hasn't been in Lismore since 1979. Each and every girl played their hearts out in Ballyduff Lower on Sunday week, so keep up the good work girls. The final score was 3-1 to 2-0.

Panel — Caroline Ormonde, Siobhan O'Gorman, Michelle Kenneally, Suzan McCarthy, Claire Ahearne, Ber Daly, Marie Caples, Ciara Murphy, Enda Ormonde, Geraldine Barry, Martina Hale, Jo-Jo Tobin, Emma Dunne, Lynn Heaphy, Carmel Howard, Melanie O'Reilly.

We would like to wish a speedy recovery to Nora Roche who last week sustained a shoulder injury. We hope to see her back in training soon.

Following this, we had another fantastic match on Sunday, September 30. This was played in Abbey-side against Butlerstown. It was a county semi-final and now the girls are through to their second county final this year. In the first minute, Lismore took off by scoring a point. The ball shook their opponents net many times throughout the game, leaving Lismore well ahead. We meet either Gaultier or St. Saviours in the county final, which is to be played on Sunday next, October 7. Keep up the good work, girls!

Panel — Caroline Ormonde, Deirdre Hickey, Moira Caples, Maud Cunningham, Ciara Murphy, Geraldine Barry, Lilly McCarthy, Ber Daly, Ber Keefe, Michelle Kenneally, Siobhan O'Gorman, Brenda Barry, Melanie O'Reilly, Emma Dunne, Carmel Howard, Claire Ahearne, Lynn Heaphy, Enda Ormonde. Claire Ahearne was subbed for Lilly McCarthy. Final score was 5-6 to 2-4.

Citizens Information Week Launched

Citizens Information Week, the national awareness week organised annually by the National Social Service Board, was launched on to-day Wednesday (October 3) by Mr. Gay Byrne, broadcaster, at the Mansion House, Dublin.

Mr. Byrne unveiled the new logo for the Citizens Information Centres which is the new name for the 75 Community Information Centres located throughout the country. The new name emphasises the services of the centres which provide free, impartial and confidential information on every aspect of entitlements and rights due to every citizen.

Specially trained volunteers run the centres and

G.A.A. NOTES

Senior Football — Our senior footballers once again qualified for the semi-final of the championship as a result of their hard earned victory over the Nire last Saturday afternoon in the Fraher Field on the score of 3-5 to 2-7.

We dominated for much of the first half with Jim Maher and Tom Behan scoring two great goals leaving us firmly in control at half-time on the score of 2-5 to 1-2.

On the turn over though, the Nire's renowned battling qualities were very much in evidence as they outplayed us in virtually every area, but with only a couple of minutes remaining Ger Walsh soloed all of 40 yards before planting the ball in the net.

We will certainly need to improve a bit before we take on Stradbally in the semi-final on October 14.

Team — D. Mulhearn, P. Prendergast, P. Keating, E. Flynn, W. Power, P. Power, P. Quinn, P. Whyte, G. Walsh (1-0), N. Hayes, M. Walsh, R. Power (0-1), B. Kirwan (0-2), T. Behan (1-0), J. Maher (capt., 1-2). Subs. — G. Fitzgerald for P. Quinn, T. Keating for M. Walsh, T. Prendergast for E. Flynn.

Minor Football — This Saturday afternoon at 1.30 p.m. our minor footballers take on Dungarvan in the Western A final in the Fraher Field. We have won this title for the last three years and we will be going all out for our fourth successive win. We have won four of our six games on our way to the final this week and after beating Abbeyside impressively in the semi-final recently, we have hit top form at just the right time. We are hoping our star forward Pat Brazil will be fit enough to play in the game. It will take a big effort from all fifteen players if we are going to capture the title once again.

Under-12 Football —

Our Under-12 footballers were unable to field a team last Saturday morning against Stradbally in the championship in Leamybrien and therefore had to concede the two points. As we could only field eleven players at the start, we then played Stradbally in a challenge game which they won easily.

Junior Hurling — Our junior hurlers are training hard at the moment in preparation for the county final in which they will meet Fenor, who beat Kilmacthomas in the Eastern final replay over the weekend.

I.C.A.

The October meeting of the I.C.A. takes place next Monday night, October 8 in St. Brigid's Hall at 8 p.m. Our guest speaker Mr. Sean Crotty will speak about upholstery, etc. Anybody interested in this, please come along at 9 p.m.

PARISH MISSION

The Parish Mission will be conducted by the Vincentian Fathers from November 17 to Dec. 1.

SALE OF WORK

The annual Sale of Work for the Parish Funds will take place in Crotty's Inn, November 16.

STATIONS

The house stations will commence on October 8 in the Kilrossanty and Few's area.

MONSTER VARIETY NIGHT

The Monster Variety Nights continue next Sunday night, October 7 in Crotty's Inn.

DEATH

The sudden death of Patrick (Sonny) Donovan of Comeragh, took place last Sunday. His remains were removed to Kilrossanty Church on Monday evening last. The burial took place after 11 a.m. Requiem Mass on Tuesday morning.

Sympathy is extended to his wife Mary, son James, daughters Brigid, Marian, Alice, Patricia and Betty, sons-in-law, grandchildren, relatives and friends.

CARDS

Cards continue next Monday night, October 8 at Crotty's Inn. £5 entry. Starting at 8.45 p.m.

Touraneena Notes

BADMINTON CLUB NOTES

The Annual General Meeting of the Badminton Club was held in the Hall recently, where a large crowd attended. The outgoing chairman and secretary did not stand for re-election and the following officers were then elected for the coming year:

Chairman — John Dalton; Vice-Chairman — Tom Power; Secretary — Theresa Butler; Vice-Secretary — Paula Connors; Treasurer — Nuala Power; Committee — Karen Sullivan, Raymond Ryan, Patrick Hallinan, Maura Fahey.

The Hall is available to paid up members on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights (except for the Under-15's), until the leagues start. The U-15's are on Friday nights from 7 to 9.30 p.m. Names of teams next week.

FIANNA FAIL CUMANN (TOURANEENA)

Anybody looking for tickets for Jackie Fahey's 25th Anniversary celebration, please contact Brendan Tobin.

HAMPER DRIVE

Two valuable hampers to be won in Dunne's Pub, Touraneena, tables of six can be played any night of the week. Come along and chance your luck. Proceeds in aid of Village clean-up.

MUSIC CLASSES

It is hoped to start Irish music classes in the Parish

Hall commencing in October, provided we got sufficient pupils. The classes would be on Friday evenings between 5 and 8 p.m., and the teacher would be Bobby Gardner.

Anybody who is interested, please contact Ned Power, during this week — all age groups are welcome.

COMMUNITY CENTRE

The Sliabh gCua Community Centre are handing out a specially prepared balance and information sheet to all householders. It should be read very carefully as a meeting will be held in October.

CARDS

Results of last week's progressive drive were:— Bob Keane and Tony Condon, Brendan Tobin and Michael Quinlan, Kathleen Hearn and Jimmy Kiely. Last Game — Eddie Kirwan and Nonie Queally. Lucky Tables — Biddy Barron and Paddy Cullinan, Ned Burke and Mick Leahy. Raffle — Mossie Cliffe, Eddie Kirwan and Piery Wall.

TOURANEENA I.C.A. CLUB NOTES

The above organisation are holding a demonstration of homemade cosmetics and herbal remedies by Eve Helm on Tuesday, October 9 at 8.30 p.m. in the Parish Hall. All are welcome.

ASTRODAMUS

ARIES
MAR 21-APR 20
Make time for romance. Lighthearted stars bring a sparkling scene — and your appeal is high. You'll be wooed, if not won; all relationships have something special to offer. Carry this softness over into more practical areas; persuade, rather than lay things on the line.

TAURUS
APR 21-MAY 21
Get facts straight before arguing. Remain enthusiastic; don't mind some extra slog if it's called for. Work-wise, it could be a week of promise, rather than much profit, yet the future potential is there; you'll see the point later. Your social scene will be rewarding, with ardent trends appearing in your love life.

GEMINI
MAY 22-JUN 21
A relative is planning exciting changes for the future. Activity behind the scenes will soon become more positive and will give hopes and wishes a boost. It may be that you have a secret friend or sponsor! Just now, the accent is on fun and friendships, on pleasure, travel and group outings.

CANCER
JUN 22-JUL 22
The picture ahead is one of expansion, with wider horizons and targets, so it's no time to air mini grievances. At work, someone's habits will get on your nerves. Throw out old ideas, in order to make way for new relationships to begin. You can sometimes cling to old ideas and loyalties for just too long. Keep on the move — mentally and physically.

LEO
JUL 23-AUG 23
Irritations of the past few weeks clear; someone you've missed lately comes back to your scene to brighten the atmosphere. You'll do best if you take a back seat this week and let others grab the limelight. Clear up the odds that you've neglected and get life organized. Around the 2nd of March, there's an important task that you just can't pull off.

VIRGO
AUG 24-SEP 22
Avoid rowing about something that may never happen. A confusing picture with many demands on your time, challenges your ingenuity. Avoid impulsive changes and don't allow yourself to be forced into hasty decisions. However, try not to cling too rigidly to a set routine.

LIBRA
SEP 23-OCT 23
It's a week when you deserve a treat; if no one will oblige, be kind to yourself. You need to use your intuition and know-how. Luck and happiness depend to an unusual degree upon the whims of others — and the impression you create. Extra cash could come in, but you may spend it quickly.

SCORPIO
OCT 24-NOV 22
Beware of being stubborn over something trivial; perhaps your Scorpio pride is at fault! Home and family affairs dominate the first few days of this week. Could be you'll consider a move — a breakaway, perhaps. Late week aspects bring a new heart interest or deeper understanding in a present relationship.

SAGITTARIUS
NOV 23-DEC 21
Look to long-term needs when making decisions. A busy and stimulating week when romance and social life takes second place to more practical aims. Home and work interests are favoured; you could find yourself in a flurry of activity, making happy changes. Take time to relax and get some light relief.

CAPRICORN
DEC 22-JAN 20
Unsettling rumours, and a minor setback, will mar the first week but, from then on, a care-free scene, with pleasing news, and some unexpected invitations. Interviews, short trips and visits will have a fortunate outcome; fresh scenes will bring happy meetings, leading to new friendships and romantic overtures.

AQUARIUS
JAN 21-FEB 18
At work, people are unreliable so you must do extra — a partner is forgetful. Rewards will come from efforts made recently under difficult conditions. You'll see clearly where you are heading and will like the picture. The 2nd of March marks a turning point in your affairs.

PISCES
FEB 19-MAR 20
Aspects are contradictory and your feelings will be a better guide than plain facts. Follow your heart — but without being too soft. Consider the practicalities and remember that you must be sensible money-wise. Try to keep some cash reserves — don't just count on your luck.

TRANSPORT PROBLEM

STARTING AT THE WHITE LETTER "S" AND MOVING UPWARDS, DOWNWARDS OR SIDWAYS, BUT NOT DIAGONALLY, SPELL OUT SIX FORMS OF TRANSPORT.

S	H	A	C	H	T
P	I	Y	A	C	M
A	I	N	R	R	O
E	A	R	T	O	T
R	O	P	R	C	I
N	A	L	E	O	L
E	C	Y	T	P	E
B	I	C	L	E	H

ANSWER: SHIP, AIRPLANE, BIYCLE, HELICOPTER, TRAIN, YACHT, MOTOR CAR.

Japanese school makes the rules

SCHOOL means a lot of things to different people - grown ups usually say that school days are the best days of your life, although they might not always seem like it!

Just imagine, however, if you went to Tokyo's biggest secondary school, which has a 28-page rule book!

Never mind talking in class - here are just some of those rules. Read them and see what you think ...

The length of toilet paper used must not exceed 11.8 inches.

If a pupil wishes to talk with a friend of the opposite sex, he or she must fill out an application form.

The number of pleats in a girl's skirt must not exceed 24.

When standing to attention, toes should be angled between 45 and 60 degrees and fingers should be extended straight with the palms touching the body.

When saluting, the upper body should be inclined forward at 30 degrees and held rigid before resuming an upright posture in a smooth manner.

... It probably makes your school rules seem rather tame!

Long hair and curls are not allowed and any students with naturally curly hair must produce proof that they were born that way.

When a pupil is spoken to by a teacher of the opposite sex, the distance between them must be more than eight inches.

Girls must wear white underwear.

Pupils must march to assembly, with eyes turned towards teachers.

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN (Never known to fail) — O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendour of heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favour is granted. Grateful thanks to the Blessed Virgin for favour received. — M.C.

HANRAHAN — Fifth Anniversary — Fond memories of Dick Hanrahan, Ballinacourty, Dungarvan, who died on October 5, 1985. May he rest in peace. (Always remembered by Peggie and family.)

KIELY — Twenty-first Anniversary — In loving memory of my father, Gerald Kiely, Congress Villas, Dungarvan, who went to his eternal reward on October 2, 1969. R.I.P.

The tears have all been shed now,

We've said our last goodbye, His soul is blessed, he's laid to rest,

'Tis now I feel alone.

He was more than just a father,

A teacher, my best friend, He showed me things not known to kings,

But secrets between him and me.

Like the colours of the pheasant,

As he rises in the dawn, Or how to fish and make a wish,

Beside the holy stream. I never will forget him,

I miss him — the old man.

(Loved and remembered always by his loving son Jimmy, Teresa, Valerie, Samantha, Geraldine and Margaret.)

POWER — Twenty-first Anniversary — In loving memory of Christina Power, 8 St. Brigid's Terrace, Dungarvan, who died on October 4, 1969. R.I.P. Mass offered.

A day of remembrance, silently kept,

Of one we loved and will never forget.

(Never forgotten by her loving husband Bobby, sons Michael and Robert and daughter Margaret.)

POWER — Twenty-first Anniversary — In loving memory of Christina Power, 8 St. Brigid's Terrace, Dungarvan, who died on October 4, 1969. R.I.P. Mass offered.

Not today, but everyday, In silence we remember.

(Always remembered by her loving son Paddy, daughter-in-law Judy and grandchildren Robert, Catherine and Patrick.)

BIRTHDAY REMEMBRANCE

HARTY — Rita, late of 66 Springfield, Dungarvan, thinking of you on your birthday today, October 4.

Look around Your garden, Lord,

For an angel with a smile, She won't be hard to recognise,

She must stand out a mile. So put Your arms around her,

Lord, And Kiss her smiling face,

For she is very special, And can never be replaced.

(Always in our thoughts — from all your family.)

FISHING — OUR MAIN TOURIST ATTRACTION

Last Sunday saw the close of the Salmon Angling Season for 1990. While the river tended to run low due to the prolonged dry weather, nevertheless some good specimens were hooked by locals and tourists alike. The Angling Club can be well satisfied with their inaugural year. The officers and committee are to be complimented for the promotional work done and also for the general control of what is our main tourist attraction.

RUGBY

The local club would like to congratulate Liam Lannon, who came on as a substitute for Munster in a recent game versus a Russian side at Clonmel.

RE-FIXTURE FOR DUCKS

The Duck Race in aid of the Boys National School Renovation fund which had been postponed a few weeks ago, will now take place on the Glenshelane River on Sunday, October 14 at 3 p.m.

AT THE SPORTSFIELD

A fine crowd turned up on Sunday afternoon for the Western junior hurling final An Rinn v. Clashmore, which turned out to be highly entertaining for fifty five minutes at which stage Clashmore finally caved in, but what a battle they fought with fourteen men.

This was junior hurling at its best, hurling which kept the big audience enthralled and cheering every stroke. An Rinn probably had the edge in skill which began to tell as the game aged. We were delighted to have hosted this fixture, there was incredible atmosphere in the town. What a pity that games and crowds like this are now so rare. An Rinn played their semi-final as well as their final at the Sportsfield.

We wish them the very best of luck in the county final.

Final score — An Rinn 3-12 Clashmore 0-8.

Referee — P. Walsh, Fourmilewater.

The curtain-raiser was the Under-21 hurling championship match — Lismore v. Tallow. This was a disappointing game with Lismore in command from start to finish.

Referee — J. Moore, Dungarvan.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Who captained the Tourin S.H. team which won the county championship in 1950?

Answer next week. Answer to last week's question was — 1565.

AFFANE A.F.C. NOTES

We started our league cup campaign last Sunday week with a 2 all draw away to Pinewood, our goals coming from Brendan Hennebry and John McGrath.

Last Sunday we were at home to Ardmore and had a very convincing 5-0 win. Brendan Hennebry put us one up after 20 minutes and T. Sullivan got our second before the break. We scored our third just after the restart when Brendan Hennebry beat the keeper with a well placed shot from inside the box. The same player was denied his hat-trick when he beat the keeper with a lovely chip, but a defender handled the ball on the line for a penalty, which Sham Denn duly converted. S. Costin completed the scoring twenty minutes from time with a well taken goal.

This leaves us well in contention for a semi-final spot, we must win our last game next Sunday in Mod-eligo.

Panel for both games was — C. Cullinane, S. Denn, J. McGrath, L. Denn, J. McGrath, J. Crotty, S. Costin, S. McGrath, T. Sullivan, B. Sullivan, B. Hennebry, T. Mansfield.

CAPPOQUIN & DISTRICT DARTS LEAGUE

The annual general meeting of the Cappoquin and District Darts League was held recently in the Village Inn, Aglish. The chairman in his address thanked all those who helped the league throughout the year, the clubs for their co-operation, the sponsors and Noel Cummins for his invaluable assistance in making out the fixture list for the year. He also sympathised with all clubs who had bereavements throughout the year.

All clubs were represented on the night plus the Overflow Inn from Ballyduff, who will compete in both sections. The league will commence on October 12 with a starting time of 8.45 p.m.

The officers for the coming season are as follows: Chairman — J. Morrissey; Secretary — S. Crotty; Treasurer — M. O'Brien.

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

Underage Players Shine — It was a great week for the club with the splendid performances of our underage players and we must give credit to the men behind the scenes — the selectors. These men are always the subject of a torrent of abuse, but they still carry on unselfishly for the good of our club. Our U-16 selectors Brian Murray, Anthony Prendergast and Seamus McCarthy deserve great praise for their efforts. Their charges played two vital matches last week culminating in that great Western final victory.

U-16 F. Western Semi-Final — Affane 2-7 Naomh Brid 1-5 — This was a hard fought encounter, but we were always in command, without putting our superiority where it mattered, on the scoreboard. It really was only when Affane scored their second goal that Naomh Brid's gallant challenge was killed off. In a brief skirmish, five minutes from the end, both sides had players sent off.

Team — B. Tobin, B. McCarthy, C. Cullinane, P. Ormonde, E. Murphy, M. Croke, G. Reddy, K. Mason, A. McCarthy, A. Gilligan, K. Cahill, D. Morrissey, R. Curran, C. Prendergast, T. Prendergast. Subs. — P. McLoughlin for R. Curran; F. McLoughlin for K. Cahill.

It was now all systems go for the Western final, but the club was rocked with injuries to goalie Billy Tobin, centre half back Miceal Croke and the enforced absence of left half back Gregory Reddy. The selectors had big decisions to make.

U-16 F. Western Final — Affane 3-6 Nire 3-0 — Affane's revamped side, lined out at Abbeyside for this final with great determination. They were under pressure, but the men called in to fill the various positions, did their job well. Ray Curran justified his selection in goal. The lion-hearted Miceal Croke played despite his injury and Jason Fleming filled the left half back position. In fact young Fleming was one of the stars of the day with a top class performance, and in a fine team performance there was great displays from Paul Ormonde, Ciaran Cullinane, Conor Prendergast and Eamonn Murphy. That is not to say the other lads played badly — they all played their part in a great victory.

The lads carried the game to the Nire, but still they did not take the early scoring chances that came their way. Affane were in control of the game and in the second half looked to be heading towards a comfortable victory, leading 1-6 to 1-0, when they were stunned by two quick Nire goals. But to their eternal credit our lads lifted their game with brilliant full-back Ciaran Cullinane crashing home a great goal and Paul McLoughlin adding another. It was Affane's Western title and their joy at winning was shown in their beaming faces.

Team — R. Curran, B. McCarthy, C. Cullinane, P. Ormonde, E. Murphy, M. Croke, J. Fleming, K. Mason, A. McCarthy, A. Gilligan, K. Cahill, D. Morrissey, F. McLoughlin, C. Prendergast, T. Prendergast. Sub. — P. McLoughlin.

U-12 H. Western Final — Cappoquin 4-0 Tallow 3-3 — Going into this final as underdogs, Cappoquin defied pre-match forecasts with a great display and very nearly snatched a great victory. It took a last minute close in free which enabled Tallow to force a draw.

Our lads made a blistering start with Patrick Lacey finding the net in the first minute. Tallow replied with two points, but young Lacey was on hand again to finish a great move to the Tallow net. We had a long period of supremacy but sadly our forwards did not avail of the chances. Our defences were defiant to every Tallow attack and our centrefielders battled to the bitter end.

An injury to corner back Peter Keniry proved a big loss to Cappoquin. He had been soundness personified. Our half back line was the sheet anchor of the team as Miceal Murphy, Peter Scanlon and Ward Fraher cleared ball after ball.

Tallow crashed home another goal, but our lads are made of stern stuff and answered with a great strike from diminutive midfielder Dermot Coughlan. It was thrilling end to end hurling, Tallow pierced our rear-guard for another goal — but the lads in red and black stormed up-field once more for James Manahan to lash a grounder to the net.

Time was running out, could Cappoquin hold out — alas no — a Tallow attack, a free, a score, the sides were level. Then the final whistle. It was an exciting match.

Well done lads — everyone played their hearts out.

Team — D. Fraher, P. Keniry, E. McGrath, L. Whelan, M. Murphy, P. Scanlon, W. Fraher, N. McGrath, D. Coughlan, J. Manahan, D. Wilkinson, T. Scanlon, P. Lacey, G. Arrigan (capt.), A. Barry. Sub. — J. Millea for P. Keniry.

The replay will be held in Lismore at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning.

Gate Collection Rota — On gate duty this week, September 30 to October 6 are E. Fraher, B. Cunningham and J. Coughlan.

Next week, October 7 to October 13, collectors will be N. Ormonde, M. Phelan and K. McCarthy.

Best Of Luck — We wish our Under-16 footballers the very best of luck in the county final in Walsh Park, Waterford on Saturday next.

Speedy Recovery — We wish a speedy recovery to Billy Tobin and Peter Keniry and hope both lads will be fit to play in their respective finals next weekend. Also a special get well soon message to our popular secretary, Jack McGrath, who is recovering at home following an appendicitis operation.

CUNNIGAR PITCH & PUTT CLUB NOTES

"Every cloud has a silver lining" how often do we console ourselves with these words. They've come to mind now looking out at the falling rain as I write these notes. Play on the course may be restricted due to the rain but for the course itself the rain should do nothing but good. Even though the course is given daily care and attention the prolonged dry spell just ended did leave it's mark on the course. So the break in the weather is a mixed blessing.

Last week, mention was made of an up and coming competition — 4 Ball Better Ball. It has been decided that this competition will be played over the October weekend (October 27, 28 and 29). Entries will close on Friday October 20 and the draw will be held on the following day and this time we will be introducing a club handicap system. Also it has been decided that from now on only fully paid up members will be eligible to play in forthcoming tournaments. So don't say you haven't been warned.

The condition of the tees has been causing concern for some time past and it has now been proposed that we obtain "teeing off" mats and plans are in progress towards getting a full set and hopefully our plans will come to fruition.

Those of you who play the course will have noted the greens we are "resting." Well it has been noted that some players persist in using these greens. As this can not be allowed to continue we will be closing them off in a very distinctive manner, so there will be no excuse for playing them.

Anyone interested in a series of Sunday Sweepstakes to commence next Sunday? Entry fee 50p and up to three cards may be played, but only one to count. These games to be played from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

As a corollary to these we are looking forward to Christmas and in the preceding weeks we will be offering turkeys as prizes in the Sunday games. So how is that for being forward looking? TOVID.

ABBEYSIDE S.A.C.

On Friday night last we had our annual card night at Barton's Inn, The Pike. We had a reasonably good turn out.

Results: The first prize was shared between five pairs, Peggy and Mick, Paddy and Bridie, Eileen and Kitty, Mary and Phil and Jim and Ann. Last table: Nicholas and Francie. Lucky table: Cyril and Paul. Best of last five: Nellie Quinlan and Kevin Crotty.

Raffle results: 1st prize, Ann Darcy (£15 voucher, sponsor Noel Devereux); 2nd prize, Tony Elstead (toaster); 3rd, Sheila Carroll (box of chocolates, sponsor FCF School of Motoring, Abbeyside);

4th, Pakie Lynch (£5 note); 5th, Dan Lucy (£10 voucher, sponsor Mary Lee); 6th, Martin Norris (torch, sponsor Darrell Moloney); 7th, Eileen Donovan (ginger jar, sponsor Dalton Jewellers); 8th, Eileen Dee (belt bag, sponsor Pearse Moloney, Allrounder).

A.G.M.

Notice to all anglers — don't forget on October 10 at 8.30 p.m. in Alice O'Connor's Pub, Abbeyside, Abbeyside Shore angling Club will hold their annual general meeting. All anglers and intending anglers more than welcome. See you all on October 10 in Abbeyside.

DUNGARVAN RUGBY CLUB NOTES

Dungarvan Go Under In Close Encounter

FERMOY 10 DUNGARVAN 9

This Munster Junior League game played in Fermoy on Sunday last produced a close finish but precious little else in terms of good rugby.

Having played against a fresh breeze, Dungarvan were behind by 7 points to nil at half-time, and when Fermoy stretched their lead to 10 points after 10 minutes of the second half, it looked all over for the visitors.

A Sean Dower penalty after 20 minutes gave Dungarvan some hope, and when Pat McGrath's excellent try was converted by Eoin Phelan with 8 minutes to play it seemed as if Dungarvan might steal it. Try as they might, however, Dungarvan could not secure the winning score and the home side held out for a deserved win.

Team — P. Mullaney, P. Foley, E. Phelan, L. O'Donnell, P. McGrath, M. Brackett, S. Dower, F. Ahearn, J. Power, J. Curran, M. O'Halloran, K. Clarke, R. Power, T. Shanley, A. Curran.

TRAINING

Training continues each Tuesday and Thursday night under coach Niall Parkes and with second team activities about to commence, a greater turn out is expected from this week on.

FIXTURES

Sunday, October 7 — 1st XV League v. Dunmanway at Ballyrandle; 2nd XV League v. Douglas at Douglas.

Dungarvan S.A.C. Notes

I omitted to thank Kevin Sandford and Maurice McGrath in my notes last week for their generosity in providing their boats for the juvenile fishing trip. Many thanks lads.

Our annual dinner dance will be held in Lawlors Hotel on Friday, October 19. Tickets, which will cost £12, are available from committee members and at the caravan prior to our next competition. Music will be provided by Willie White and a great night is guaranteed.

Take note that our annual general meeting will be held over the Anchor Bar on November 7 at 8 p.m. sharp. Motions for the meeting must be received in writing three weeks before this date. Verbal motions will not be accepted.

A trip to the Mumbles is being organised for the weekend of October 26. Those interested should contact Damien Dillon for further information.

Our last competition is on Sunday next and will be fished over sand instead of the usual rock. A list of the fish eligible for scoring will be handed to each competitor on check in, so, a very different and entertaining days fishing is in the offing.

Going into our last competition the scoring in the various categories is as follows:

Master Angler — Tony Crowe 322 pts; Damien Dillon 304 pts; John Molloy 300 pts; Bernie Kenneally 284 pts; Helen O'Grady 282 pts; Don O'Connor 282 pts.

Lady Angler — Bernie Kenneally 284 pts; Helen O'Grady 282 pts; Breda Warren 269 pts; Kathleen Young 254 pts; Kay Cliffe 206 pts; Ann Dillon 130 pts.

Greatest Variety — Damien Dillon 10; George Young 10; Helen O'Grady 8; Sean Flynn 8; Kay Cliffe 7; Sev Baumann 7; John Cronin 7; John Brady 7.

Notai CLG An tSean Phobail

It was a miserable, wet, foggy morning as An Sean Phobail minor ladies football team boarded the bus on Saturday last and headed off to play Dunhill, not long after mid-day. The game began and just two minutes into the match Dunhill scored a goal. Soon afterwards Leah Murphy broke through the Dunhill defence scoring first two points, then a goal. Dunhill fought back but the day was to be An Sean Phobail's.

The final score was An Sean Phobail 5-4, Dunhill 1-0.

We look forward to our next game against Modeligo on the Friary Field on Saturday next, October 6 at 3 p.m.

The team was — O. Power, D. Murphy, M. Mahony, S. Murphy, N. Murphy, E. Ni Chonchuir, M. Power, J. Young, M. Wade, C. King, L. Murphy, U. Power, E. Whelan, S. Leahy, L. Whelan. Subs. — Y. Power, G. Wade, J. Young.

AN GAELTACHT 2-4 NA BRICI 2-4

Last Sunday evening our U-16 football team played Na Brici in the Western final at Modeligo. This was a very good game which started with some good football from both sides. The Briceys got a good goal after 10 minutes but we got back into the game with a point from S. O Harta and a goal from E. de Paor which left the scores even at half-time at 1-1 each.

We got off to a good start in the second half with a point from S. O Harta. But the Briceys replied with 3 points in a row. Then S. O Harta finished off a good move with a very good goal, but the Briceys were not finished, they got the ball up the field and got a goal. We were one point behind with 5 minutes to go. Then the youngest player on the team L. O Cuirrin got a point to level the game. A draw was a good result for us.

Dungarvan Athletic Club Notes

ALL-IRELAND ROAD TITLE FOR MICHAEL ROCHE

Local athlete Michael Roche showed continuing good form at the national Half Marathon Road Racing Championships in Ferns, Co. Wexford, last Sunday when he won the Vets race in the fast time of 69 mins. and 40 secs. Michael defeated Joe Cooper (Dublin) and the reigning champion Denis Noonan (Clonliffe Harriers) to win the title for the second time in his career. Michael is now gearing himself for the Dublin City Marathon at the end of the month.

In the same race, Gerry Cantwell showed good form over the 13.1 mile distance when he clocked 73 mins. 25 secs.

FERRYBANK OPEN SPORTS

The club brought a large number of juveniles to the open sports in Ferrybank last week and our results were as follows:

Girls U-9 — Helen Foley 14th; Girls U-11 — Lisa Power 5th, Christine Sheehan 6th; Girls U-13 — Geraldine Kiely 7th.

Boys U-9 — Terry Crowe 7th, John Ryan 8th, Joseph Curran 11th, Paul Power 13th, Richard O'Leary 14th; Boys U-11

— Ronan Curran 9th, Ronan McCarthy 10th, Kieran McCarthy 11th, Jason O'Mahoney 13th; Boys U-13 — Mark Radley 3rd, Darren Healy 16th.

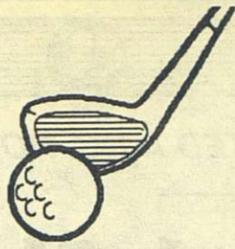

Relays: Boys U-10 — 1st Thomas Hogan, John Ryan, Eoin Hayes and Ronan McCarthy; Boys U-12 — 2nd Jason O'Mahoney, Kieran McCarthy, Ronan Curran and Shane Hickey.

MINI-MARATHON

Liz Bullen finished 5th in last Sunday's Mini-Marathon for ladies in Cork, when she ran the five miles in a time of 30 mins. 17 secs.

Aghern Golfing Society

Autumn Outing To Dromoland

The Aghern Golfing Society's Autumn Outing this year was to Dromoland County Clare. Ninety-five members and friends in all travelled. The weather was exceptionally fine, the setting was glorious and the golf was superb. The main sponsors for the weekend were Kearney Bros., Castlelyons, who sponsored Friday and Saturday competitions, while the First Southern Bank sponsored Sunday's competition in Shannon. Other sponsors for the weekend were Parfrey Murphy Finance, Cork and Stephen Hales, Lismore.

The ladies turned out in style with twenty-two ladies playing Dromoland, Friday and Saturday, and they moved to Ennis Golf Club on Sunday. The hotel had the added attraction of a swimming pool, sauna and jacuzzi. All in all, it was a wonderful weekend and hopefully to be repeated on the same weekend next year.

The following are the results: Friday, 18 hole stableford: 1, Mick O'Halloran, Kinsale (35 pts.); 2, Kevin Ryan, Lismore (35 pts.); 3, Matt Collins, East Cork (35 pts.); Cat. 1 to 13, Mick Troy, Lismore (32 pts.); Cat. 11, 14-18, Willie Kearney (32 pts.); Cat. 111, 19-over, Anthony O'Regan (32 pts.); Final nine, Tom Cahill (18 pts.); 2nd 9, Con Crowley (19 pts.); 9, Pat Beecher (32 pts.); 10, Paddy Flynn (31 pts.); 11, Seamus Beecher (31 pts.); 12, Matt Hegarty (30 pts.); 13, James Gill (29 pts.); Poc Fada, John Cusack.

Ladies 18 hole stableford — 1, Geraldine Canning (19) 36 pts.; 2, Angela Allen (17) 29 pts.; 3, B. O'Halloran (36) 29 pts.

Saturday — 18 hole four-ball (morning) — 1, Rob Konwenberg (15) and Michael Byrne (17) 44 pts.; 2, Paddy Flynn (15) and P. J. Rumbley (18) 43 pts.; 3, Seamus Beecher (11) and Austin O'Brien (18) 43 pts.; 4, Sars Smith (7) and Pat Murray (17) 40 pts.; 5, Pat Lynch (15) and Stephen Hales (16) 39 pts.; 6, Dave Murphy (10) and Mick O'Halloran (17) 39 pts.; Poc Fada, Denny Fitzgerald, Fermoy.

9 hole stableford (evening) — 1, Matt Henley, Youghal 19 pts.; 2, Denny Fitzgerald, Fermoy 18 1/2 pts.; 3, T. J. Murphy, Lismore (11) 18 1/2 pts.; 4, Liam Gamble, Mitchelstown 18 pts.; 5, Matt Hegarty, East Cork 18 pts.; 6, John Joe Crowley, Fermoy 18 pts.; 7, Michael Byrne, Lismore 18 pts.; 8, Dan Howard, Lismore 17 pts.

Ladies 18 hole stableford — 1, Ber Halloran 36 pts.; 2, Geraldine Canning 36 pts.; 3, Angela Allan 34 pts.; 4, Mary Crowley 33 pts.

Sunday — 18 hole stableford — Shannon — 1, Paddy Flynn 34 pts.; 2, Kevin Ryan 33 pts.; 3, Pat Kearney 32 pts.; 4, Mick O'Halloran 32 pts.; 5, Sars Smith 31 pts.; 6, Seamus Beecher 30 pts.; 7, T. J. Murphy; 8, Pat Murray; 9, Michael Byrne; 10, John Cusack.

COUNTY CAMOGIE TITLE FOR LISMORE

Lismore 3-1, Gaultier 2-0

Most attention last Sunday week was perhaps focussed on Croke Park where both All-Irelands were the big attraction. There was quite an attraction on the local scene as the Junior County Final replay took place at Ballyduff, with Lismore taking the title for the first time since 1979.

This Lismore team, with Johnny Flynn and Jo Jo Tobin at the helm, set their minds on this title some months back and with this aim in mind nothing was left to chance in the way of preparation. No effort was spared and a number of friendlies, both near and far, were played, with every opportunity given the girls.

All this very nearly came unstuck however when at Ballyduff last Saturday week, Gaultier came from five points down and almost snatched the title after Lismore seemed to be cruising.

On Sunday week, Lismore rewarded the faith those two mentors showed in them and this time there was no way back for the gallant Gaultier girls. Perhaps the game did not catch fire in the same way as the drawn encounter, yet this was a most exciting and thoroughly enjoyable game of camogie.

Lismore were first to attack and some minutes of sustained pressure were scarcely rewarded when in a break away the Barony girls scored a goal from some nice play by Charlotte Brenner. Almost immediately, Lismore attacked and got on terms with a really well taken goal. From then to the interval, we were treated to some fine passages of play, with the Lismore girls finding cracks in the Gaultier defence. At the other end, the Barony girls were finding it most difficult to outwit a sound rearguard. Lismore had a nice cushion at half time on the score 2-1 to 1-0.

We were given a splendid second half with the girls from the East much more prominent but they failed dismally in the scoring department. We had a goal from each side and some near misses and generally everyone was very happy with most if not everyone in agreement that Lismore were the better team, and deserved their title.

Lismore had trojan workers in Deirdre Hickey, Enda Ormonde, Marie Caples in defence, with Bernadette Daly, Geraldine Barry and Cora Murphy to the fore at midfield and Susan McCarthy and Siobhan O'Gorman strong in attack.

Marie Pollard refereed and also made the presentations, and in conclusion a word of thanks to Ballyduff for the field being in such good order.

Lismore team — Caroline Ormonde, Deirdre Hickey, Marie Caples, Martina Hale, Ger Barry, C. Murphy, B. Daly, S. McCarthy, Alice Ahearne, Siobhan O'Gorman, M. Fennelly, Emma Dunne, M. O'Reilly, Jo Jo Tobin, L. Murphy, C. Howard, N. Roche.

Ladies Football

Kill Capture Junior Title

Kill 3-4

Sliabh gCua 2-1

Kill captured the Waterford Foods plc Cup on Sunday week last when they deservedly defeated a spirited Sliabh gCua side at Colligan. This was Kill's first adult success and was achieved with a team that had twelve members under 16 and the remaining three just 17 years of age.

Twelve minutes into the game, a Kill victory seemed a remote possibility as a rampant Sliabh gCua side led by seven points after a blistering start. Kill fought back however and were trailing by just a point, 2-1 to 1-3 at the interval.

They still trailed by a point with five minutes to go but came good in the closing stages to clinch a good win.

After the game, Declan Fitzpatrick presented the cup to the winning captain on behalf of Waterford Foods.

SOCCER SCENE

DUNGARVAN CRYSTAL F.C. NOTES

SECOND DEFEAT FOR UNLUCKY CRYSTAL

HIBERNIANS 1 CRYSTAL 0

On Saturday last we suffered our second defeat in two games, although we were well on top in this one, we could have no complaints about our opening game of this year's league campaign, when we were comprehensively beaten 3-0 at home by Red Star.

The team were in defiant mood as we travelled down to Hibs. Although the first half was not much of a game with both sides failing to create any real scoring opportunities, this was soon to change in the second half as Crystal really took the game to the home side.

In bad and wet weather conditions the Crystal really dominated the game with our back four of O'Shea, Halpin, Crotty and Sheehan in great form. Our midfield started to win everything. About half way through the second half P. Dunford was unlucky to have what seemed to be a good goal disallowed when he tapped in from close range from a shot by T. Murphy.

It seemed as if it was not going to be our day, when T. Murphy was again unlucky when he won a series of corners and he headed powerfully only to see it cannon off the upright and away to safety. L. Shanley was also very unlucky when two good shooting chances went just wide of the upright and one went just over the crossbar.

It wasn't until the very last seconds of the game that T. Sheehan, who was outstanding, failed to clear the ball half way into his own half when his attempted clearance was blocked, and the striker raced on to chip the ball past the advancing O'Grady into an open net. It was the final nail in the coffin for we did not get a chance to kick-off when the referee blew for full time.

But we can take heart from our improvement as it was a 100% better performance from our opening game, and hopefully things will get better.

Team — T. O'Grady, J. O'Shea, L. Crotty, W. Halpin, P. McCarthy, L. Shanley, T. Murphy, A. O'Connor, P. Dunford, M. Ferncombe. Res. — P. Keane, E. Meaney.

NISSAN INTERNATIONAL CLASSIC

Further Honours For Dungarvan Cyclist

"Over The Moon" was how 19 years old Robert Power described his reaction to the news that he had been selected on the Irish amateur team to compete against the top professional cyclists in the world in the Nissan Classic, and on the team to tour Australia and New Zealand later in October.

For any locals who wish to view the great road show, which gets under way on October 3 with a stage finish in Waterford, there is a time-trial from Waterford to Carrick on Thursday morning followed by a stage from Carrick to Cork at 1 o'clock going through Clonmel, Ballymacarbray, Millstreet, Clashmore and Youghal finishing with three turns up St. Patrick's Hill in Cork.

Robert has to date 27 senior wins to his credit, twelve of them coming this year. His first win of the season was in March when he won the Tour of North Cork followed by the Sean O'Leary in Wexford.

In April he won the Des O'Hanlon in Carlow followed by the Earl of Desmond Two-Day in Kerry, winning two of the three stages. He then travelled to England for the One-Day Over-tour International with the Irish National Team and he took 4th place in this top class event. The following week he was in Scotland for the Girvan 3-Day, securing 3rd place on stage three.

THE "RAS"

The F.B.D. Milk Ras the highlight of the amateur season in Ireland took place in May. Here again he distinguished himself riding for the Tipperary team. He was 8th on stage one, 2nd on stage 3 and 5th on stage 5, finishing a very creditable 6th overall after nine days of racing.

In June he won the Cork Grand Prix when he had a full 6 minutes to spare over a very strong field. He then went to France where he had further success winning four races in all including the very prestigious Niort Two-Day stage race.

Back in Ireland at the end of July he was quickly into his stride winning the "Jimmy Foley Perpetual Trophy" in the

ROBERT POWER

Cappoquin Classic, taking 2nd place in the Lismore Classic and 2nd place in the West Gate Traders Criterium in Clonmel.

August saw him line out for the Irish amateurs in the Professional Carling City Centre races in Dublin and Cork finishing in both races.

Not bad going for a 19 year old. We wish him well in the Nissan International Classic, the Tour of Australia and the Tour of New Zealand.

DUNGARVAN UNITED A.F.C. NOTES DIV. 1B LEAGUE

Missed Chances Cost United

DUNGARVAN 1 CARRICK 2

Once again, the Blues failure to convert the simplest of chances, cost them dearly in this division 1B game at Kilrush Park on Sunday morning last, when they went under to a spirited Carrick eleven.

The first half display by Dungarvan must rank amongst their poorest for quite some time. The Blues had the advantage of the breeze in the first half but it was the visitors who took the initiative and attacked from the outset. The visitors took the lead after just 15 minutes when Wall failed to gather a right wing corner and Walsh headed home unchallenged. Carrick swept forward in search of a second and it took some sterling defence from our back four to keep them out, with Walsh in particular playing a fine game at left back. The Blues fell further behind before the break when once again Wall failed to cut-out a left wing cross and the winger shot home from close range.

Dungarvan found their rhythm on the change-over and totally dominated the half, but they spurned most of the chances that came their way. They should have reduced the arrears after 55 minutes when Wall put Sheehan clear but he shot narrowly wide from close range. Minutes later a great move down the right ended with "Crocker" shooting high over with the goal at his mercy. They reduced the leeway midway through the half, when Sheehan was brought down in the box and he slotted home the spot kick. The Blues laid siege to Carrick's goal in the final 15 minutes but some good goalkeeping and bad finishing cost them dearly.

Team — J. Wall, G. Burke, B. Wade, S. Cummins, J. Walsh, K. Wall, D. Crotty, L. Crotty, B. Sheehan (capt.), T. Kenneally, J. W. Power. Res. — M. Donnelly for J. W. Power.

Man of the Match — John Walsh.

Referee — B. Frances.

F.A.I. JUNIOR CUP

On Sunday next the Blues face the daunting task of an away trip to Tipperary to take on St. Michael's in the first round of the F.A.I. Junior Cup. St. Michael's have for the past number of seasons been one of the most consistent teams in Munster, so Dungarvan face an enormous task. But on the day the Blues are capable of taking on the best and we wish them the best of luck in their endeavours on Sunday next. A bus to this game will leave the clubhouse at 11.15 a.m. sharp. Names can be given to Tom Wall.

MASS

Mass for deceased members will be held in the Clubhouse on Thursday, October 11 at 7.30 p.m. All welcome to attend this Mass.

SYMPATHY

The Club would like to extend sincere sympathy to the Kyne family, Abbey-side, on the recent death of their aunt.

BALLINROAD SOCCER NEWS

Ballinroad Gain First Point

TRAMORE RANGERS 3

BALLINROAD 3

Ballinroad travelled to Tramore on Saturday last and with a much improved performance, took home a point from their encounter with the home side. Seamus Power scored twice with Les Delahunty adding a third. Ballinroad played well in this game so hopefully this draw is the start of better things in the future.

U-15 S.F.A.I. CUP

St. Anthony's Boys (Kilkenny) 4
Ballinroad 1

On a pitch that bordered on the ridiculous, Ballinroad bowed out of the national cup on Saturday last. Ballinroad opened the scoring when Eamon Veale headed home a free kick from Brendan McGuire. The Kilkenny side scored twice to lead at the break 2-1. Ballinroad hit the post on two occasions and the final score line hardly does justice to a fine performance.

UNDER-13

Kilmacthomas 2

An understrength home side failed to overcome Kilmac' on Saturday morning last. Maurice Tobin scored Ballinroad's goal.

FLAG DAY

Thanks to all who supported our schoolboy flag day last weekend.

RAILWAY ATHLETIC F.C. NOTES

Railway Go On Goal Spree

CRUSADERS 0 RAILWAY 7

Our Under-13's had a very comfortable win on Saturday last over a poor Crusaders side in the S.F.A.I. Cup 1st round. Our lads went at them straight from the start and it was no surprise when Brendan Landers struck for a good goal after 13 minutes. Then Caimin Radley took over and he hit a hat-trick in a 10 minutes spell. Stephen Quinn, James Manahan and Alan Barry also had goals, to leaves us comfortable winners in the end. It was a good team performance and let's hope that these lads will keep up the effort.

FIXTURES

U-12's away to Dunmore, kick-off 10.30 a.m.; U-14's away to De La Salle, kick-off 10.30 a.m. Bus leaves for both matches at 9 a.m. U-16's at home to Bolton, kick-off 2.30 p.m.

U-10 7-A-SIDE

Our Under-10's 7-a-side will be on Saturday next, October 6 at 2.30 p.m.

CONGRATULATIONS

We would like to say well done to our Under-16 footballers who won the Western final on Saturday last. Most of these lads are on our U-16 squad.

EXCITING FINISH

The U-16 footballers were defeated by local rivals Dungarvan by a single point after an exciting finish to the Western final on Saturday evening last.

We built up an early 2 point lead but Dungarvan gradually gained the upper hand leading at half-time 0-4 to 0-2.

A great effort in the second period saw us regain the lead 0-5 to 0-4 before Dungarvan again dominated to go in front by 0-8 to 0-5.

In a thrilling finish the lads rallied to close the gap to a point and were unfortunate not to have at least kicked an equaliser late in the game, in which we felt the final whistle was premature. We would like to extend our best wishes to Dungarvan in their quest for the county title.

Our team was — A. Landers, J. O'Donoghue, J. Shields (capt.), J. Clancy, J. Stacey, D. Ryan, E. Murray, P. Ormonde, D. Cliffe, B. Landers, K. Keohan, J. Brennan, P. Spratt, B.

Beatty, D. Moore. Subs. — Ml. Sheehan and Ml. Enright.

UP FOR THE MATCH

De La Salle U-12's travelled up to play us on Sunday morning last before going to the Fraher Field to shout for their adult hurlers in the county intermediate final. Club chairman Pat Moore and his team of officials were in charge of the intermediate final.

WESTERN

PRIMARY SCHOOLS FOOTBALL

At present both National Schools in the parish are participating in the Primary Schools Board football competition. Abbeyside N.S. are competing in Roinn A with Lismore C.B.S., Ballymacarbray N.S. and Dungarvan C.B.S., under their coaches Eddie O'Halloran and Pat Whyte (N.T.s). Garranbane N.S. under Principal Don Sheil are participating in Roinn C.

We wish both schools the very best of luck in the competition and for the rest of the school year.

STRADBALLY G.A.A. NOTES

BIG WIN IN UNDER-12 FOOTBALL

Our under-12 footballers had a big win over Kilrossanty last Sunday on the score of 3-15 to 3-1 in Lemybrien. This was a rather easy victory over our neighbours and one that should improve our young boys.

Team was: S. Keane, P.

Keane, P. Kiely, A. Darcy, M. Sheehan, N. Thompson, R. Cunningham, B. Cleary, J. Hearne, T. Curran, N. Curran, B. Curran, E. Cunningham, J. Thompson, M. Curran. Subs. — K. Coffey, T. Costelloe, D. Power.

They are training for their next game, possibly on Saturday week, October 13 v. St. Patricks or the Nire and if they are successful here, things will be looking good.

MINOR FOOTBALL V. TALLOW

Our minor footballers are still awaiting their semi-final game v. Tallow which will probably not take place until the weekend of October 14. It seems a pity they have to wait so long as they just cannot train with the dark evenings.

DEEPEST SYMPATHY

The club would like to express its deepest sympathy to the Kirwan family, Dromlohan, on their recent sad bereavement.

EOIN ON STAND BY

Our club player, Eoin O'Brien, has been named as one of the five players on stand-by for the trip to Australia. Two of the five will travel, so certainly Eoin has every chance of the trip which he certainly deserves for his talent, but more so for his efforts this past three months with training and dedication. Eoin, you deserve that trip.

When one reads an article about one player attending only one training session and getting on the trip, should we ask ourselves some questions in Waterford?

SCHOOLS COACHING

On this Friday, October 5, County Coach, Peter Power, will attend the girls school from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m., while on Monday, October 8, the coach will attend the boys school from 9.30 to 12.45 p.m. Certainly the coaching is going well and we thank Peter for his guidance.

THE LOCAL MODELS

Yes, on Thursday, October 18, the club will hold their Autumn Fashion Show in Lawlor's Hotel. The ladies fashions will be by Mairead's and Razz, while the full range of children's fashions will be by Shaws, Dungarvan.

The big news on the home front is that local ladies will be modelling and it should certainly be a great night. Tickets are now on sale and can be got from Mairead's, Shaws, Razz or any member of the committee. Also on the night, a huge raffle will take place — a night not to be missed.

ON COUNTY DUTY

Our club players Fintan O'Brien, Tomas Gough, Kieran Heffernan and Eoin O'Brien will be assisting the county team in the National League v. Clare in Ennis on Sunday next, October 7. Joe Curran will be acting as selector.

ON IRONFOUNDERS TEAM

Club players, Pat Curran, Michael Coffey and Michael O'Brien were on the Ironfounders team which were successful recently in the Factory Leagues.

REDS V. KILROSSANTY

On Sunday week, October 14, our senior footballers play County champions Kilrossanty in the county semi-final in Dungarvan at 3.30 p.m. in what is now the traditional game every year. So now we await the big build up. What will happen? Who will play where? All the talking points for the big game.

ON COUNTY HURLING PANEL

Our club player, Pat Curran is on the Waterford senior hurling panel to play Wexford this weekend.

UNDER-12 FOOTBALL V. BUTLERSTOWN

On Sunday next, October 7, our under-12 footballers play Butlerstown in a challenge in the field at 12 noon.

ATTENDED COUNTY BOARD MEETING

Club members Tom Cunningham, Michael Coffey and P. J. Coleman attended the County Board meeting on Monday night last in Dungarvan.

G.A.A. TIT-BITS

A PLACE IN THE SEMI-FINALS

The senior football championship dream lives on. But only just. We probably turned in our worst display of the senior football campaign to date at Walsh Park last Sunday and yet came away with a 1-8 to 1-6 victory that copperfastens our place in the semi-final on Sunday week.

For much of the hour we were on a disaster course. So many of our players seemed to be totally hyped up and not at all their cool and composed selves of other games. Luckily however they strung something approaching their best form together in the final twenty minutes when they had Gaultier on the rack, and yet it took two magnificent saves by goalkeeper Doc O'Connor to preserve our narrow lead.

We were in all sorts of problems when we trailed by 1-3 to 0-4 at half-time having played with a stiff breeze. Within two minutes of the restart we were a further point in arrears and the outlook was bleak. But to the team's eternal credit they picked themselves off the deck and at long last began to play as we know they can.

Finally the all important goal came from Peter Ferncombe and the victory that looked so unlikely for so long was ours.

A win is a win at any time, but so much better will be required of everyone on Sunday week.

UNDER-16's CHAMPIONS

Although Abbeyside pushed us all the way we retained our Under-16 "A" Western football title with a well deserved 0-8 to 0-7 victory at rain lashed Fraher Field last Saturday afternoon.

Abbeyside had a "flyer" going two points clear in the opening minutes. However the boys fought doggedly back, were soon on level terms but then proceeded to kick wide after inexplicable wide. We certainly weren't flattered by our 0-4 to 0-2 interval lead. Abbeyside thundered back into the game on the restart and three points on the trot put them back into the lead. We were now struggling in many areas, and our cause wasn't helped by some refereeing decisions that quite honestly were mystifying.

However to the team's eternal credit they came surging back and four points in succession gave us an 0-8 to 0-5 lead entering the closing ten minutes. But full marks to Abbeyside who kept on battling and in a welter of excitement they reduced the deficit to the minimum. Our fellows held out in the face of incessant Abbeyside pressure to retain the title and qualify for the county final once again.

One thing however is certain — there will have to be a vast improvement if we hope to add the "county" to the "West."

MINOR FOOTBALL FINAL

There's no respite these days from the playing fields and on Saturday (1.30 p.m.) we take on defending champions Kilrossanty in the Western minor football final at Fraher Field.

Although we've defeated Kilrossanty in the league section of the championship the certainly is that the titleholders will be very formidable opposition in the decider. We have shown that we can compete with the best however, and if every player gives his all for the hour then we could well add the minor title to the Under-16 one landed last Saturday.

It will be a searching test of the team however. That's for sure.

INJURY PROBLEMS

After a great run free from injury we have our problems as we await Sunday week's senior football county semi-final.

Midfielder Derek Lyons fractured his finger against Gaultier and in the same game Peter Queally sustained a neck injury which has necessitated him wearing a collar. This double blow is something we could well have done without, but knowing the determination of both players they will do their utmost to be ready for the semi-final fray. Meanwhile we are hoping against hope both will be fit.

CONGRATS

Congratulations and best wishes from everyone in the club to our sterling defender Dermot Dee and his fiancée Irene Desmond who have announced their engagement.

We wish them both happiness and success for many years to come.

BINGO

We have another of our big bingo nights at the Friary Hall Theatre on this Friday night at 8.30 p.m. With over £1,000 in prize-money we look forward to another full house.

See advertisement on the entertainments page for all details.

LATE TED KELLY

Like everyone else in the community our membership was deeply saddened to learn of the unexpected death last week of Ted Kelly who was so generously supportive of our every fundraising effort over the years.

Ted's son Raymond is one of our top minor players and has been with us since he first began playing. A more committed young clubman you won't find.

To Mrs. Kelly and the entire Kelly family we extend sincerest sympathy on their tragic loss. Go ndeine Dia trocaire ar a anam dilis.

Waterford Senior Colleges Hurling Title For Dungarvan CBS

Dungarvan CBS 3-8, Lismore CBS 0-4

Dungarvan CBS powered their way to a most convincing victory over old rivals Lismore CBS in the final of the Waterford Colleges senior hurling, played in Fraher Field recently.

With ideal weather conditions, Dungarvan CBS immediately from the throw in took control of the game, with Thomas Kiely dominating at midfield, helped by Laurence Boyle, but strong defending from Lismore and the tendency of the Dungarvan forwards to overplay the ball, meant that Dungarvan led by only three points to no score after fifteen minutes. Then a switch of John Patrick Fitzpatrick to full forward, where he scored 1-2 in the next five minutes from play, and a further goal by Patrick Veale left Dungarvan CBS leading 2-6 to nil at half time.

The second half was keenly contested with Lismore if anything having the better of the exchanges, but they could make little headway against an impressive Dungarvan defence, where Tom Morrissey and Christopher Gough hurled strongly and were well assisted by Michael Barnes, Michael Ryan, Paudie Flynn and John Tutty. A great individual goal by Brendan McGrath with five minutes remaining put a final seal on Dungarvan's victory. Lismore were best served by Tom Feeney, Paddy O'Donnell, Ollie O'Dowd, Mark Clancy and Brendan Ormonde.

Scorers for Dungarvan CBS — John Fitzpatrick (1-4), Patrick Veale (1-1), Benny McGrath (1-1), Thomas Kiely (0-1) and Fergal Cunningham (0-1).

Dungarvan CBS — J. J. Ronayne (Dungarvan), M. Barnes (Stradbally), Tom Morrissey (Dungarvan), R. Ryan (Naomh Brid), P. Flynn (St. Patricks), C. Gough (Dungarvan), T. Tutty (Dungarvan), T. Lismore CBS — B. Ormonde (Lismore), J. O'Connor (Lismore), P. Hickey (Lismore), T. Murphy (Lismore), M. Clancy (Lismore), T. Feeney (Ballyduff), D. McGrath (Tallow), D. Ormonde (Lismore), S. Hickey (Ballyduff), K. O'Keefe (Shamrocks), K. Hornbrook (Lismore), P. Henley (Tallow), O. O'Dowd (Lismore), P. O'Donnell (Lismore), M. Daly (Lismore).

In the semi-finals, Lismore CBS accounted for St. Augustine's by 4-8 to 2-4 and Dungarvan CBS accounted for Mount Sion by 7-14 to 1-6. Dungarvan scorers v. Mt. Sion were J. P. Fitzpatrick (2-4), P. Veale (1-3), N. Considine (1-3), D. Ryan (2-1), B. McGrath (0-2), F. Cunningham (0-1).

De La Salle Are Champions

DE LA SALLE 2-13 SHAMROCKS 0-6

To say that this youthful De La Salle team are worthy intermediate hurling champions would be an understatement. At Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last, powered by a brilliant John Brenner at midfield, they ran riot over Shamrocks to win a very one sided game by a staggering thirteen points.

They had twenty wides in all against Shamrocks eight, a further indication of the city sides dominance over the hour.

The first half was completely one way traffic. Shamrocks pointed after two minutes through Michael Neville. They failed to score again for the rest of the half as De La Salle took over complete control.

Veteran Davy Duggan shot home a goal for the winners in the 15th minute and a string of points left them holding a 1-7 to 0-1 lead at the break.

Shamrocks improved a little bit in the second half but there was no one to give them much needed inspiration, especially in attack. Consequently they continued to struggle and Salle had built up a commanding 1-12 to 0-3 lead as the game entered the final ten minutes.

The Knockanore men were denied a goal in the 20th minute when De La Salle keeper Donal Treacy brought off a magnificent save from a well struck Martin Murphy shot.

It was all over bar the shouting three minutes from time when Davy Duggan put the icing on the cake for De La Salle when he scored his second goal to give them a victory they fully deserved.

The future looks bright for the winners who had some very good hurlers on view. It was a disappointing day for Shamrocks who never got going at any stage during the game.

Scorers: De La Salle — D. Duggan 2-0; N. Dalton 0-6; J. Brenner 0-3; J. Dalton 0-2; J. Griffin and J. Carton 0-1 each. Shamrocks — M. Neville 0-4; K. O'Keefe 0-2.

De La Salle — D. Treacy; G. Lowery, E. Dunphy, O. Ryan; T. Clooney, F. Murphy, J. Walsh; J. Brenner, G. Brenner; N. Dalton, J. Griffin, M. Murphy; J. Dalton, D. Duggan, J. Carton.

Late Goal Saves Kilrossanty

KILROSSANTY 3-5 NIRE 2-7

A goal from Ger Walsh, two minutes from time, saved Kilrossanty's crown and put them through to the semi-final when they clashed with luckless Nire in a hard fought and exciting senior football quarter final played on a very heavy sod at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Saturday last.

Walsh found himself in possession and all on his own and he soloed all of forty yards before shooting the champions' match winning goal to give them a two points lead. It was, in fact, Kilrossanty's only score in the second half in which they played second fiddle to a Nire side which dominated most of the thirty minute period.

Nire must be wondering what they have to do to win a championship. The term luckless used above was exemplified just three minutes before Kilrossanty scored their goal.

Ironically it was the Nire's Ger Walsh who found himself completely unmarked with a clear path to the Kilrossanty goal but for some unknown reason he lost his footing and fell as he bent down to pick up the ball. It was a cruel quirk for a side who had fought their way back into a game which looked beyond their reach at the half way stage.

Kilrossanty had been the dominant force in the first half and were in front by 2-5 to 1-2 at the break.

Goals from Jimmy Maher (15th minute) and Tom Behan (23rd minute) emphasised their overall superiority with P. J. Mulcahy keeping Nire in touch with his well taken goal in the 17th minute.

Kilrossanty were not flattered by their half time advantage as they shot nine wides over the thirty minutes, although they were playing well enough to suggest that they would qualify for the semi-final with ease. It was a different story however, in the second half and a game which had been somewhat one sided suddenly came to life as Nire began the long process of hauling back the champions.

The Nire took over completely in the centre of the field and quickly got a grip on the game throughout the field. However we had a foretaste of their bad luck early on when Michael Ryan broke through only to see his shot come back of an upright.

Michael Guiry pointed a free for them in the 10th minute and Richard Guiry had his shot taken off the Kilrossanty goal line in the 12th minute.

A minute later the goal they so badly needed came from the boot of Ger Walsh leaving the champions leading by just two points 2-5 to 2-3.

Michael Ryan was on target for the Nire in the 16th minute and two minutes later a superb point from Michael Guiry levelled the scores.

Ger Walsh sent over the lead for the Nire in the twentieth minute and the champions crown looked to be on the brink of falling. Twice keeper Darren Mulhearn was called on to make vital saves as Nire swarmed forward.

Five minutes from time came Ger Walsh's (Nire) slip and three minutes later at the other end Kilrossanty's Ger Walsh, placed by Jim Maher, soloed through for their goal, their lone second half winning score.

FUTILE ATTEMPT
Nire, two points adrift

fought back and Michael Guiry had a futile attempt at goal saved, when he might have gone for a point. Had he pointed, then Tom Walsh's point just on the call of time would have brought the sides level, which on the run of play over the hour, would have been a more equitable result.

As it was Kilrossanty survived by the narrowest of margins and they now go on to contest the semi-final.

Scorers: Kilrossanty — J. Maher 1-2; T. Behan 1-0; B. Kirwan 0-2; R. Power 0-1. Nire — M. Guiry 0-4; G. Walsh 1-1; P. J. Mulcahy 1-0; M. Guiry and M. Ryan 0-1 each.

Kilrossanty — D. Mulhearn; P. Pender, P. Keating, E. Flynn; W. Power, P. Power, P. Quinn; G. Walsh, P. White; N. Hayes, M. Walsh, R. Power; B. Kirwan, T. Behan, J. Maher. Subs. — G. Fitzgerald for P. Quinn; T. Pender for E. Flynn; T. Keating for M. Walsh.

Nire — S. Guiry; G. Coffey, T. Walsh, T. Guiry; M. Fraher, K. Mulcahy, P. Walsh; P. Walsh, T. Condon; R. Guiry, J. Hogan, P. J. Mulcahy; G. Walsh, M. Guiry, M. Ryan. Sub. — P. Cooney for J. Hogan.

COLLEGES FOOTBALL

Augustinian Boys Seek To Make It Four-In-A-Row

ST. AUGUSTINE'S 5-10 DE LA SALLE 0-4

On Tuesday last at Abbeyside, St. Augustine's scored a comprehensive win over old rivals, De La Salle, Waterford, in the first round of the Waterford Colleges senior football championship.

St. Augustine's, current county champions and holders of the Burke Cup for the last three years, are obviously determined to make it four-in-a-row.

Last week's win sets them up for a semi-final clash with St. Paul's, Waterford. The other side of the draw has Dungarvan C.B.S., Tramore C.B.S., Waterpark and Kilmacthomas. If these games go according to the form book, we could have another local schools' derby when the final is played on October 26.

Scorers for St. Augustine's: — E. Power 3-4, D. Cliffe 1-1, M. Drans-field 1-0, P. J. Lanigan 0-2, J. Stacey, K. Whelan and D. Phelan 0-1 each.

Team — Eoin O'Rourke (Clashmore), David Cullinane (Cappoquin), Ronan Power (Ballyduff Lr.), Pat Murphy (Ballyduff Lr.), Michael Lyons (Dungarvan), David Phelan (Nire), P. J. Lanigan (Grangemockler), Jim Stacey (Abbeyside), Kieran Whelan (St. Mary's), Brian Beatty (Abbeyside), Damian Cliffe (Abbeyside), Ed. Power (St. Mary's), George Walsh (Stradbally). Subs. — Damon O'Flynn (Dungarvan) for Stacey; Mark Dransfield (Cappoquin) for Beatty.

An Rinn Take Western Title

An Rinn 3-12; Clashmore 0-8

[By "COMMENTATOR"]

Although Clashmore led by 0-5 to 0-3 at half-time, they were completely dominated by An Rinn in the second half when the winners added 3-9 to their half-time tally in this entertaining Western junior hurling final at Cappoquin before a big crowd on Sunday.

Clashmore had a good opening half, but seemed unable to sustain their effort after the Gaeltacht side came more into the game in the second half. It is interesting to note that all Clashmore's eight points were scored by Michael Shalloe who was their man of the match.

Goals by Finbarr Walsh (2) and Eddie Crotty in the second half were the crippling scores as far as the losers were concerned.

An Rinn may be a bit flattered by their thirteen points winning margin, but they were deserving winners.

Scorers: An Rinn — F. Walsh 2-1; E. Crotty 1-3; S. MacCraith 0-2, Cartach MacCraith 0-3; E. Curran, N. MacCraith and D. O'Murchu 0-1 each.

Referee — Pat Walsh.

NEXT SUNDAY

County Senior and Minor Hurling Finals at Dungarvan

COUNTY FOOTBALLERS FACE CLARE IN OPENING ROUND OF NATIONAL LEAGUE

As far as supporters here are concerned, all roads will lead to Fraher Field on Sunday next in hopeful anticipation of enjoying the very best club hurling of the year when the 88th senior hurling final is played between last year's finalists Roanmore and Ballyduff, as well as the attractive curtain-raiser between Lismore and Roanmore in the 69th playing of the minor hurling county final.

Given a fine day, a near record crowd will turn up to see both finals, but the senior game will be particularly attractive to the huge crowd who saw the same clubs, Roanmore and Ballyduff, contest last year's county final at Walsh Park, the result of which saw Roanmore win their first senior title. In defeating Ballyduff by 3-8 to 2-7, they might not have produced sparkling hurling, but the game nevertheless kept an almost record crowd on their toes for the full sixty minutes.

For Roanmore it was the realisation of a dream and a title they richly deserved, they having reached the semi-final stage in every year since 1982 except 1984. They had disappointingly lost to Ballyduff by 4-7 to 2-11 in a thrilling replay of the county final in 1987 and taking the title at the expense of the same opponents last October was particularly gratifying. This will be the third meeting of the sides in a county final in the past four years and with one title each from the two already played, it will be interesting to see which club takes the third.

As will be seen from our scoring chart, both Roanmore and Ballyduff have each played a record number of matches to reach this final. Never before have teams had to play nine championship games before qualifying for a final and with the unique formula in operation here and where a total of 42 matches had to be played to sort out the pairings for the final, it is interesting to find that the teams have not clashed already.

They are now due to meet in the 43rd and final game and it is something of an understatement to write that hurling supporters all over the county are looking forward to a game that will show Waterford club hurling at its very best and compensate our followers for some of the poor fare which the championship has produced so far. It might be considered a worrying fact that both Roanmore and Ballyduff were among the many sides who have played poorly at times this year, but when the heat was really turned on they both came up trumps, and in their respective semi-finals both clubs showed us what they were able to do when the result mattered most. I believe that both will produce great stuff in this final and that it will be a game to remember.

Roanmore are the reigning champions and must be listed as favourites. The manner in which they disposed of Tallow in the semi-final was, in the view of some hurling judges, more impressive than Ballyduff's defeat of Passage on the same day in the other semi-final, but to base a prediction on this game alone can be very misleading and this point might well be proved on Sunday.

The expressed notion that many of the Ballyduff players have "gone over the top" was well and truly scotched on a few occasions this year and here I have in mind their two victories over Mount Sion, their win over a hotly fancied Portlaw and their overpowering display against Passage two weeks ago. Just how well they will fare against this brilliant champions side may be considered questionable, but if one can regard the scoring chart with any seriousness, we find them equal, if not slightly better than Roanmore in the arithmetic of the thing. In their nine games the Western team have scored a total of 18.113 as against 17.105 for Roanmore and this is balanced to some extent by the scores recorded against them. This shows an average of 1-9 against Roanmore and 1-10 against Ballyduff. These figures are probably more interesting than being regarded as a guide to their respective standards, but nevertheless it must convince everyone that there is no gap between the finalists here on Sunday.

The news from both camps is that all their players will be available and while there is still a slight doubt about Liam Power's fitness, Ballyduff are keeping their fingers crossed that their powerful full-back will be well enough to line out for the final. If Power resumes it may mean that Seamie Hannon may wait on the line. Or it could see Liam in the corner where he played in last year's final at Walsh Park.

Michael Leamy, one of the most reliable keepers in the game, will again mind their net and the Ballyduff defence will comprise Seamus and Seamie Daly, Donal Hannon, Mossy Casey and John Casey. This certainly does not rule out the possibility of Seamie Hannon being on the team. At centre-field where Noel Crowley and Albert Burke will operate for the champions, Ballyduff will likely place the great Paudie Prendergast and Richie Walsh. A lot will depend on which pair get the upper hand here. Gerome Quirke, Michael Walsh (who is the club's top scorer so far in the championship) and Bob Tobin are the likely trio in the half forward line and inside will be Clem Feeney, John Quirke (their goal-snatcher in chief) and Maurice Geary. It is interesting to note that Ballyduff hold the "points" scoring record in finals, but at the same time they have one of the poorest goal scoring records. In fact they have the unique record of not having scored a single goal in three county finals: 1983: Ballyduff 0-11, Mount Sion 1-8; 1982: Ballyduff 0-20, Dunhill 1-11; 1987: Ballyduff 0-10, Roanmore 2-4.

Roanmore's Ray Sheridan in goal and full back John Ryan, both of whom have intercounty senior experience, will try to ensure that John Quirke does not go too far towards changing that record. Sean Moloney and Michael Wadding will flank John Ryan and in their half backline they will have John Tebay, Pat Tobin and Eddie Roche who were the trio who stood firm against Ballyduff's final onslaught in last year's county final. Crowley and Burke are their midfielders and if their attack remains as it was against Tallow they will line up as follows: Eddie Nolan, Gerry McGuire, Morrie Wadding, A. White, Tom Shanahan and Kieran Delahunty, who has been their top scorer throughout.

THE RESULT?

It's an intriguing final and as I have written before the result can go either way — in fact it could even result in a draw — but if it is not a draw and I hope not, then I believe that on form to-date, the odds slightly favour Roanmore. Being slight outsiders and having to challenge the champions who denied them the title last year at Walsh Park, might prove sufficient motivation for Ballyduff and who knows, but that they could bring this off on Sunday.

The very best of luck to them.

Western Board Games

The Western Board have two finals down for decision on Saturday afternoon at Fraher Field and I understand that the fixtures are conditional on the weather staying good during the week. Otherwise the field will be held for the county finals on Sunday.

The opening game in which Kilrossanty are due to meet Dungarvan in the minor football divisional final, is also conditional on the county under 16 football game, which involves Dungarvan, being postponed as understandably, both cannot go ahead at the same time.

Should the game go ahead it will no doubt be an exciting contest between two very fine minor teams. They have already met twice and with not much more than a kick of a ball between them, then, it could well be the same here.

AN RINN v. MODELIGO

This is the divisional junior football final and hopefully the weather will stay well enough to allow it to go ahead as it should be a very well contested and exciting game.

An Rinn having taken the hurling title will go all out for the double and should at least go close. At the same time, the good form that Modeligo have shown in their last two or three games, will certainly be good enough to win it if the Gaeltacht team don't show an improvement on their form against Stradbally in their two games recently.

COACHING PROGRAMME

Interviews for the football (juvenile) coach appointment will be held within the next few weeks or so, and the person chosen from the panel of applicants will go into action shortly afterwards.

The hurling coaching programme is very successful and is now entering its final quarter of the first year. The results are heartening and will, hopefully, yield many benefits to clubs and county in the years to come.

Monday, October 8 — 9.30 a.m. to 12.45 p.m. Stradbally N/S; 1.30 p.m. to 3 p.m. Knockmahon N/S.

Tuesday — 9.30 a.m. to 12.15 p.m. Garranbane N/S; 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Seafield N/S.

Wednesday — 9.30 a.m.

to 12.30 p.m. Kill N/S; 1.15 to 3.30 p.m. Fenor N/S.

Thursday — 9.30 a.m. to 12.15 p.m. Modeligo N/S; 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Dungarvan CBS (Secondary).

Friday — 9.30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Lismore (Primary).

Waterford v. Wexford

Waterford senior hurlers will have their first outing under their new selectors when they travel to New Ross on Saturday to play a Wexford selection in a trial game. Afterwards the team to play Clare in the first league game at Ennis on Sunday week, will be chosen.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

The Minor County Final

The minor final by all accounts will be a classical example of how underage hurling should be played and there will be some disappointment if Lismore and Roanmore do not serve up a thriller that can match the senior final, for skill and excitement. The rumour that Roanmore were not prepared to play in both senior and minor finals, have now been dispelled and the game will definitely go ahead.

In this clash, Lismore will be attempting to win their seventh final in the grade and Roanmore will be trying for the fourth and if we discount the victories of Lismore in the distant past, the clubs are equal in that they have each won three titles over the past thirteen years.

It can be said that these sides have all graduated through the under-12, under-14 and under-16 grades and every player lining out next Sunday, is a medal holder.

The pen-pictures of the respective teams which appears on the programme, lists the record of the players and this will give a fair idea of their qualities.

The 24-man Lismore side includes:

Brendan Ormond — (goalkeeper) who is sub goalkeeper on their Under-21 side, Mark Clancy — who came on as a sub in last years Co. final, Paddy Nugent — who is the captain and played in the 1989 final, Philip Hickey — a sub last year and a county Under-16 player, Paddy O'Donnell, Kieran O'Gorman, Anthony Tinnelly, Keith Lynch — all members of last year's county final panel, Richie Nugent — brother of the team captain, Alan Dunne, Dermot Ormond, Keith Hornbrook — who was a member of the 1989 final team, Paul Quinn, Pat O'Gorman (son of Board Chairman, Jimmy), Michael Hickey — who played with the county against Cork this year, Michael Daly — who played in a brother of county player Sean, Johnny Whelan, John Henard, Tom Murphy, Robert O'Sullivan, Michael Veale, James O'Connor, Dan Shanahan and Oliver O'Dowd.

This will be Lismore's fourth successive minor county final appearance. In 1987 they beat Mount Sion in a replay. In the following year they again beat Mount Sion (2-15 to 2-5) and last year they lost by a single point to De La Salle in an epic decider at Walsh Park. It might be significant in this final that in the 1987 Under-14 county final, Lismore beat Roanmore 1-4 to 1-1 as a big number of these (now 17 years old) are on the panels for Sunday.

In their path to this final, Lismore beat Tallow, Dungarvan, St. Patrick's and Dungarvan again in the divisional final (2-12 to 3-5).

Nursed in the art of hurling from a very early stage by Rev. Bro. Dormer and his associates in the game, and trained by Sean Prendergast, this panel who have represented the county in Feile na Gael more often than any other club, must surely comprise one of the very best groups of young hurlers ever to play in a final and there will be great disappointment, not alone in Lismore, but throughout the West, if they fail to capture their seventh title here on Sunday.

The selectors are, Sean Prendergast, Noel Barry, Billy Cunningham, Donal Shanahan and Pat Bennett.

Roanmore too have quite a record at underage level and having won three titles in the minor grade in the past twelve years, they must know what it takes in a county final. They played well throughout the Eastern championship but their win over the hot favourites Mount Sion in the divisional final was something of a shock. In fact many people who saw that game, judged that it was the sheer brilliance of Gary Kelly in goal for the winners, who really made the difference between winning and losing. Now in a county final, however unexpectedly, they will be motivated into giving an improved display and they reckon that if their outstanding players like Trevor Sinnott, Philip Myler, Graham Butler, Gary Kelly, Shane O'Donoghue, Conor Walsh, Tony Fanning, etc., improve their efforts, that they will push Lismore to the limit and possibly beat them.

While accepting the fact that anything can happen in a final, I will still be surprised if the very worthy Western champions, Lismore are beaten here.

Tyrone Game Cancelled

Tyrone's decision to pull out of the All-Ireland 'B' football competition came as a big disappointment to Waterford football supporters who had looked forward to the visit of the Division 1 team at Walsh Park last Sunday. I understand that the enormous expense involved for them as well as the fact the tiring round trip down here would affect their strict training schedule for the opening round of the national league next Sunday, influenced their decision.

The timing of the competition was obviously all wrong and unless some more suitable time of the year can be selected, the whole idea will not be the great success that we had anticipated.

Limerick, who are one of the counties with visions of winning a Munster title if the open draw is accepted on Friday night next, could only muster 12 players for their match last Sunday week, because they had senior football championship games on at other venues.

Waterford are now through to the semi-final in which they will play Leitrim, probably at Portlaoise on October 21.

WATERFORD V. CLARE

Our record against the Banner County team is not great in very recent times, but nevertheless there is not a big difference in standards. In the championship this year at Dungarvan they scored a narrow win — against our expectations — and earlier they had beaten us in the national league. In the previous National League game the counties drew. To our advantage now, is the fact that all our best players are likely to be available, thus allowing the team to mount a full-blooded challenge to our hosts.

Jim Maher who was injured against Tourin, resumed to play with Kilrossanty on Saturday and at Cappoquin, Carthach Mac Craith took the field with An Rinn against Clashmore. The expectations are that Waterford may field the side which defeated Carlow in the 'B' All-Ireland here two weeks ago. The team was selected on Monday night and is published elsewhere in this issue.

NEW COUNTY HURLING COACH

The news that Joe McGrath is proposed as the new hurling coach came as a big surprise when it was announced over W.L.R. on Thursday last. According to the announcement, Joe will be assisted by our own Ned Power, whose outstanding coaching experience and qualifications are well-known here and elsewhere in the country and both will be proposed as selectors as well.

Joe McGrath was here with us in the early eighties and his term came to an end in controversial circumstances after one national league campaign.

Not knowing what conditions or arrangements are involved, I cannot very well comment on the decision to engage him — a decision taken by the three-man committee of Seamie Hannon, Senan Cooke and Danny Murphy.

Late Goal Puts Dungarvan Into Co. Semi-Final

DUNGARVAN 1-8 GAULTIER 1-6

This was a close and very tightly contested quarter final game which saw Dungarvan deservedly, but perhaps luckily, edge their way into the county semi-final for their first time in 28 years at Walsh Park last Sunday.

Dungarvan played with the strong breeze in the first half, but had difficulty in raising their game to the high standard of the four previous victories and trailed by 1-3 to 0-4 at half-time. The eventual winners went further behind immediately after the turn over when Pat Lee pointed for Gaultier.

However, Dungarvan then began gradually to move into top gear and took control of the game and exerted pressure on the leaders and were able to draw level with a Ger Beresford point in the 53rd minute.

Then in the 55th minute a quickly taken Derek Lyons free reached Peter Ferncombe who fisted the ball to the net to put them into the lead for the first time. Then followed their most anxious moments of the game when Gaultier came fighting back and it was only because of the brilliant goalkeeping of Doc O'Connor that they were saved from defeat in the closing minutes.

While their overall display did not compare with their previous brilliant performances, this was a difficult match to win and the experience will prove to their advantage in the semi-final in two weeks time.

Scorers: Dungarvan — P. Ferncombe 1-4; D. Callaghan 0-2; M. Ferncombe and G. Beresford 0-1 each. Gaultier — M. Flynn 1-0; P. Lee 0-2; A. Fitzgerald, P. Fitzgerald, M. O'Mahony and M. O'Keeffe 0-1 each.

Dungarvan — D. O'Connor, D. Dee, M. Sheehan, D. Donnelly, M. Houlihan, E. Burke, M. Kelly, D. Lyons, T. Hamilton, P. Queally, M. Ferncombe, D. Callaghan, D. McGrath, J. Ferncombe, G. Beresford. Subs. — M. Ferncombe for T. Hamilton; P. Queally for D. Dee.

Referee — D. Duggan.

CORRECTION!

In last week's issue I wrote that the appointed referee Jim Landers pulled out of refereeing the divisional minor hurling final shortly before the Lismore/Dungarvan game was due to start. Jim told me on Sunday that this was not correct as he had notified the Board on the previous day after it had become known to him that he would not be available. I can assure him that there was absolutely no intention on my part to discredit his outstanding record of service to all our Boards and to the Association generally. I'm sure Jim Joe knows that too.

VITAL MEETING ABOUT HALL

Only 29 people, and that included the members of the committee, showed up at last week's meeting about the future of the hall. This must show the lack of interest by a good number of people in the use to be made of the hall.

Anne McCarthy and Mary Revins made a good suggestion — getting a film club going. Anyone interested please contact Anne or Mary.

A junior drama group, involving the youth of the area, was formed. Those interested contact John Burke.

It was good to see some of the younger members of the community involved in the discussions something which can only bring more understanding between the age groups.

A junior youth club will be starting on October 20, from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. — 6 years to 13 years. Activities will include games, quizzes, make and do, etc. Enquiries to Cecilia North or Robbie Whelan.

This will be a registered youth club, so they will participate in activities involving other youth clubs in the future.

DUNVEGAN DARTS

The annual general meeting will be held in the Dunvegan Bar on Friday, October 5 at 9.15 p.m. sharp. All members are requested to attend.
