Minister Announces 128 New Small Industry Jobs For South-East Region

Mr. Michael Smith, T.D., Minister for Science and Technology speaking at the official opening of the IDA/Waterford RTC Campus Innovation Centre on Monday last announced 128 new jobs in small industries for the south-east region.

The Minister stated that the need to strengthen the interface between the higher education sector and industry and to develop Irish third level colleges as sources of technological innovation had now been clearly recognised. Waterford Regional Technical College had, he said, for the past few years been amongst the most active of the RTC's in this development.

Pointing out that the South-East Region had a long tradition as an industrial base incorporating many long established companies and sectors, Mr. Smith said that he was therefore delighted to be able to announce that 128 new jobs will be created in the Region as a result of 31 new and expanding business proposals agreed with the IDA's Regional Small Industries Board since January, 1990.

"The projects," the Minister said, "involving capital and employment grants amounting to almost £900,000 will generate 200 jobs in total. Seventy-two of these jobs have already been created in counties Carlow, Kilkenny, Tipperary, Waterford and Wexford, and the remainder will be recruited within two years."

Eleven of the projects agreed with the IDA involving 52 jobs are in Co. Waterford and are listed as follows with the number of jobs for each in brackets:

Red Point, Ltd., KilmacThomas, Horse exerciser (5); Ellickson Laser Cutting Ltd., Kilmurray, Waterford, High technology laser cutting production facility (9); Keltech Engineering (Waterford) Ltd., Tycor, Waterford, Sub-supplier of precision fabricated components (5); Dolmen Car Mats, Tramore, Car mats (4); Bride Valley Foods Ltd., Tallow, Chutney in various flavours (3); Cosy Capes (CIF), Waterford, Disposable protection capes for the hairdressing and dental sectors (6); Supreme Polymers Ltd., Waterford, Regrind plastic from industrial plastic waste (4); Standard Chemicals Ltd., Waterford, Prepared microbiological plates (4); Tobin Engineering Ltd., Tallow, Tubular steel components (4); Vee-Lite Lighting Ltd., Waterford, Floodlights (6); Lotus Leathers, Waterford, Leather fashion products and industrial bags and aprons (2).

Work On Dungarvan's New Bank of Ireland To Start Next Week

Bank of Ireland has confirmed that work on its new office in Dungarvan is expected to commence early next week. The first phase of this major building project will be the demolition of the former Casey's licensed premises and the entire work is expected to take twelve months to complete. The main Contractor will be local firm E. O'Brien & Sons.

The existing Branch in 18 Grattan Square has catered for the combined staff of the National Bank and Bank of Ireland branches since rationalisation in 1974. In addition, the first floor of the property was utilised for some years as a residence for the Branch Manager.

While commenting on the proposed development, Eddie Holohan, Manager, expressed his delight at the news of a definite start date for the new office and stated that while the work will result in temporary disruption and inconvenience to both customers and staff, the end produce will be well worthwhile.

Call For Lifeguards At Bonmahon Beach

Cllr. Paddy Cahill at the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held in Dungarvan last week called on the Council to investigate the necessity for the provision of lifeguards on Bonmahon beach and that provision to meet the cost be made in the Council's estimates for 1991. Cllr. Cahill said that it was absolutely necessary that lifeguards be placed on the stretch of beach at Bonmahon during the summer months.

Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager said that he would ask the Water Safety Officer to survey the position at this and some of the other beaches and the Council could then deal with the matter when they came to consider the estimates for next year.

Pause For Thought With Fr. Paddy

Law Creates A Standard Of Action

In the first reading Isaiah tells that God commissioned Cyrus, the king of Persia, to do some work. So, it is clear that God distributes His gifts to whomsoever He wishes. Also, from this appointment, it is evident that the Lord is interested in the way man uses his authority in the administration of ordinary affairs. The text is important in that it shows, nothing in life is independent of God from whom all power flows. Hence, it is logical to conclude, because God is the source, that all ordinances, whether promulgated by Church or State, should be directed towards man's happiness here and hereafter. Hence, it would follow that all laws should be just, useful, stable and geared to the needs and the ability of the people. And, it goes without saying, no law should infringe or be opposed to the will of God. I wonder what Isaiah would have to say about governments in present day society! If governments ignore that God is the Supreme Lawgiver from whom all others derive their authority, and laws their sanctions, it is not that they have not been warned. If, therefore, they bow and introduce evil laws to meet the demands of their subjects, they will have to account for their blindness. It is a condemnation that you'd be hard put to find four or five countries where laws directly opposed to God's will are not in force!

Isaiah is saying, Cyrus is to be obeyed, not due to any of his own merits, but, because his power is derived from God. All such authority, reflecting as it should the will of God, ought to be executed in the interests and for the benefits of the people. It is the duty of rulers to see that their subjects are provided with safe and peaceful conditions in which they can work out their salvation. Whilst all rulers are supreme in the field of human affairs, they violate their trust if they step outside their set boundaries. If, for example, a government were to institute a law breaking the bond of marriage or even neglect to protect the rights of the innocent babe, that government would be acting contrary to God's established order.

The Church, like the state, is supreme in Church affairs, but likewise, she too is limited by the boundaries of Sacred Scripture. Indeed, it is her duty to guard, teach, explain and point out the Divine Law as embodied in God's revelation. However, the Lord not only instructed His Apostles to go and teach the Good News, but He also empowered her to make binding ordinances, which she might consider necessary for practice, order and discipline. Priestly celibacy, for instance, is aimed at keeping alive the spirit of Christ in the world, and my! it is needed. Again, Sunday Mass ensures we pay our due tribute to God. Now, because the Church is able to dispense from her own laws, many err in thinking she is able and unwilling to dispense from Divine Law. The fact is, she is powerless in this matter. God's Divine Law is immutable. I have heard people of RTE criticise the Church, because, as they say, of her uncaring attitude. They forget, the Church's mission is to save. Henry VIII failed, others too have tried and more will try, but the answer is and always will be: The Bond of Christian married love is unbreakable.

In turning down Henry's appeal, the Church was simply saying, the divine Law is wholly and completely in God's hands. I have said that the Eternal Law in the mind of God is the font and source of order. Human law is under the control of the One in charge of the community, and should be made known, be just, useful and geared to the ability of the people. Whilst civil law is supreme in its own field, it should never dare to trespass in the area reserved for sacred administration. Unquestionably, nations or peoples do require some system of directions under a controller. You have only to consider the rules of the road, and you'd neither question the need or the usefulness of such laws. It would be chaos without them. I cannot help wondering if society has lost her way. Serious offences are ignored mainly because there's no penalty. And, where there is punishment, it no longer fits the crime. Many parents are no longer exercising authority in their homes, so it is hard to blame the children for behaving as they do. The spill over is: they think that they can ignore the Commandments, and get off scot-free. God is merciful, but a just Judge, and there's no running from His judgement!

THE WAY TO HAPPINESS

Paul in the second reading gives high praise to the Thessalonians for their response to God's word. They were a transformed people, and he was proud of them. It was a joy to see the way they received the word, and the peace and happiness it brought them. You could say, this is what happens when we receive God's word, and respect His laws. If you seek happiness, then this is the way.

We see the Pharisees in the Gospel trying to ensnare Jesus, but He turns the tables on them by saying, we have duties to the government, not in contradiction to our duty to God, but because of our duty to Him. It follows, if we deliberately fail in civil duties, we could be failing God. If a drunk drives his car, he'd offend God as well as breaking the law. Again, you could have a ruler, who imposes oppressive and unjust laws: it has happened. In such cases, one would not be bound in conscience, but one may not have any choice as to external submission. Now, whilst governments could bind their subjects in conscience, they generally do not, and prefer to rely on the use of a penalty to secure observance of their laws. And, as I mentioned conscience, I'll add, law determines obligations. Conscience makes us aware of them.

Were a government to introduce a law binding all their people to act contrary to the Divine Law under pain of death, one would have no choice, but to accept the penalty. Don't give to the state what belongs to God.

Emigrants Need Personal Development Training

— Fr. Jim Kiely In London

Fr. Jim Kiely O.S.A., Director of the Irish Support and Advice Centre, Hammersmith, London, at the launch of the Centre's Annual Report on Wednesday, October 10 stated: "There's a cry of pain going up from the streets of London. It's the cry of the homeless and the badly housed, those who sleep rough, those in squats, in night shelters, those in all kinds of grotty and overcrowded accommodation . . . It's a cry that calls our attention to all that is involved in homelessness, poverty, ill-health, family disruption, insecurity, loneliness, violence. It shames, embarrasses and disturbs our affluent society. We ask those in positions of authority to speak on behalf of the poor in the corridors of power."

Fr. Kiely went on to say that it is hard to be rejected. When the Leaving Cert results came out in Ireland last August, the media seemed to be immediately at the service of those who made it. The successful people were interviewed and congratulated. The rest and those who did not make it to the Leaving Cert were left alone, their future uncertain. There was an inequality in our educational system, it favoured the rich. So many fall by the wayside. Rejection and failure breeds low self-esteem and lack of self-confidence. Young people need hope. They need to know that they are not failures — that they have something definite to offer. Our educational system must provide more comprehensive vocational training, which will include personal development and education for living. Otherwise there will be another generation of vulnerable Irish people on the streets of London.

"The Church in London," then said Fr. Kiely, "is becoming increasingly irrelevant to the young. Church buildings with closed doors are a common sight. They reflect a lack of vibrancy and life. The Church needs an injection of youth and enthusiasm. Young people have their own distinctive gift to offer the Church; without it the Church will always seem old and somewhat forbidding.

"In a city like London, swollen with an international population of young people, the common denominator is music. In a sense, it's their international language and has a unifying dimension. Their pains, needs and plans are expressed in music. It is a definite challenge to the Church of today to enter into more dialogue with young people and their music in order to make its message more meaningful and relevant at this time. Indeed, one could ask if the young have rejected the Church or has the Church rejected the young?

IMPORTANT TIME TO TACKLE POVERTY

In conclusion Fr. Kiely stated: The European Community is creating a single European state in 1992 with tremendous implications for its populations.

We look forward at this point to learning from the openness and rich diversity of other countries. It will afford us the opportunity of clarifying the strengths and weaknesses of what it is to be Irish. Irish emigrants will have a lot to give and a lot to receive in this new decade which we hope will be characterised by a climate of international co-operation and friendship. However, the immediate future will be an important time for all member states to tackle poverty in all its forms. A European Anti-Poverty Network is vital as a voice to protect and improve the conditions of the poor in Europe. We must make this voice strong and

Motorist Found Drunk In Charge

Sean Quinlan, Island, Stradbally was fined £150 and had his licence endorsed at Dungarvan Court when he pleaded guilty to a charge of having been drunk in charge of a vehicle at Kilminion, Dungarvan on Saturday, September 8.

Supt. R. McAndrew who prosecuted told the Court that at 3.35 a.m. on the date in question the gardai found the defendant in charge of a van which was stopped at Kilminion. He was arrested and taken to the Garda Station in Dungarvan where he gave a urine sample. Subsequent analysis of this gave a reading of 292 mgrms.

Supt. McAndrew stated that throughout the situation the defendant had been quite co-operative with the gardai. Mr. J. P. Gordon, solr. for the defendant said that he had been at a special function and realising that he had had a little too much taken, he pulled up and that was when the gardai came along and found him.

District Justice O'Connor having imposed the fine and endorsement said that he would exercise his prerogative not to disqualify the defendant in view of what Mr. Gordon had said.

KILMACTHOMAS NOTES

KILMACTHOMAS BRIDGE CLUB

Results from the Kilmacthomas Bridge Club last week were as follows: 1, Michael Kirwan and Maureen Power; 2, Clair Cummins and Anna Harney; 3, Gerty Drohan and Betty Murphy.

The annual general meeting of the Kilmacthomas Bridge club will be held in Crotty's of Leamybrien on Wednesday, October 17 (to-night). All members are requested to attend.

KEEP FIT

Exercise and Keep Fit classes will commence in the Temperance Hall on Wednesday, October 17 (to-night) from 7.30 p.m. to 8.30 p.m. All are welcome. Instructor is Miss Majella Butler, St. Anne's Terrace and you can exercise to music. Suitable for all levels of fitness. So this is your chance to get off those extra pounds before Christmas!

HOME ON HOLIDAYS

Home on holidays from England are Mr. and Mrs. Val Moore who are staying with Val's mother, Mrs. Moore, Walshe's Place. Val was an outstanding goalkeeper with the local soccer team in the 60's.

BIRTHDAY

Congratulations to Myra Parkinson, Old Road, Kilmacthomas, who celebrated her birthday over the week-end.

COLLEGES FOOTBALL

Well done to St. Declan's College, Kilmacthomas who had a convincing 1-13 to 0-6 victory over Waterpark in the Colleges Under-17 1/2 Championship recently.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Quannie Butler, 2 St. Anne's Terrace who celebrated their Silver Wedding Anniversary this week. We wish Kathleen and Quannie many more years of happiness.

SCHOOLBOY SOCCER

The Kilmacthomas Under-13 soccer team were defeated 6-3 by Seaview Celtic in Currabaha Park on Saturday morning last after a most exciting and entertaining game.

IN HOSPITAL

We wish a speedy recovery to Mrs. Nan Houlihan, Rathgormack, who is in hospital at the moment and we hope to see her out and about again in the not too distant future.

NEW SUPERMARKET OPENS

On Thursday last, October 11, Mulhearn's new "Supersave" Supermarket opened in The Square, Kilmacthomas. The proceedings began at 11 o'clock when Rev. Fr. McGuinness, C.C., Kilmacthomas blessed the supermarket, which then officially opened for business.

The large crowd that were present all agreed, after viewing the new store, that the supermarket is magnificent-looking and praised the hard work of the two sisters, Margaret and Mary Mulhearn, Mahonbridge. For many years the very popular sisters had a thriving supermarket business also situated in the Square, and now after moving to the newly-built premises will hope to expand in lots of new products and bargains that will no doubt be appreciated by the people of Kilmacthomas and surrounding areas.

We would like to take this opportunity in wishing Margaret and Mary the very best of luck in their new venture.

SINGING PUBS

The second round of the singing pubs competition takes place in Morrissey's, The Square, Kilmacthomas, on this Thursday night, October 18, at 9 p.m. So another outstanding night's entertainment is anticipated.

21st BIRTHDAY

Congratulations to Miss Diane Foley, Croughatagart, Portlaw, who celebrates her 21st birthday this week-end with a party for all her family and friends in Clonea Strand Hotel.

GRADUATION BALL

Mr. Vincent Behan, Kilnagrange and Miss Elaine O'Mahoney attended the St. Augustine's College Graduation Ball held recently in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan.

SPEEDY RECOVERY

We wish a speedy recovery to the popular Tom Keating, Briskey, Kilrossanty, who is a patient in the Waterford Regional Hospital at the moment. Tom is an outstanding playing member of the Kilrossanty senior football team for many years and we hope to see him back on the playing fields in the not too distant future.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

The senior football championship semi-final in the local GAA grounds on Sunday evening last between Dungarvan and St. Saviours ended with a deserved victory of 2-10 to 1-10 for Dungarvan before one of the biggest attendances of the season.

In the other semi-final played in Dungarvan, Stradbally defeated champions Kilrossanty by 0-12 to 0-8 after a very exciting game. So it's a Dungarvan versus Stradbally County final in Walsh Park on Sunday, October 28 and we wish the very best of luck to both teams.

Passing of Esteemed Cappoquin Councillor

—Death of Mr. James A. Walsh

It is with profound sorrow and the very deepest regret that we record the death of Mr. James Aidan Walsh, Springfield, Cappoquin who has been a Fine Gael member of Waterford County Council since 1979.

Aged 70 years, Cllr. Walsh was member of a highly esteemed and much respected family which has rendered almost 50 years of unbroken service to the people of West Waterford as public representatives. His late uncle, Michael F. Walsh was elected a member of the County Council when it was reconstituted under the 1942 City and County Management Act, having stood abolished for a period since the mid-1930s. On his death the tradition of public service established by the Walsh family was continued by the late Norman Walsh until his untimely death in 1978 and following a brief hiatus, the late James Aidan was elected a member of the Council in 1979.

During his eleven years on the Council, he served as Chairman on two separate occasions, 1984/85 and 1986/87 and at the time of his death following a rather protracted illness, he was a member of the Governing Body of University College, Cork, on which he had served as the representative of Waterford Co. Council without a break since 1980.

A prominent member of the farming community, Cllr. Walsh was a leading member of the Co. Waterford Committee of Agriculture until that body was disbanded a couple of years ago. In all aspects of public administration Cllr. Walsh always championed the interests of the ratepaying public and of the deprived sections of the community and his passing will now be deeply mourned by all.

THE OBSEQUIES

His remains accompanied by a huge and most representative cortege were removed from St. Carthage's House, Lismore on Wednesday evening last to Affane Church and at noon on Thursday last there was a concelebrated Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul. Chief celebrant was Rev. Fr. Gerald Crotty, CSSR, Armagh (cousin) and the concelebrants included V. Rev. Fr. Mulcahy, P.P., Ballyduff, V. Rev. Fr. M. Phelan, P.P., Cappoquin, Rev. Fr. Lloyd, C.C., Cappoquin, Fr. James Purcell while also in attendance were V. Rev. Fr. O'Connor, P.P., Ardmore and Very Rev. Canon P. Quealy, P.P., Clonmel.

The Lessons were read by Aideen and Cathy

Walsh, daughters of Cllr. Walsh while the soloist was Grainne O'Connor.

In the course of his homily, Fr. Crotty recalled holidays spent in the past in the company of the deceased and he paid tribute to him for the wonderful Christian life which he had led, to his dedication as a public representative, to his great integrity and honesty and above all to his role as a loving husband and caring father.

A full muster of members of the Co. Council together with members of both houses of the Oireachtas were accommodated in reserved seats at the front of the church which had otherwise to accommodate the overflowing congregation which had come to pay a final tribute to a man who had looked after their interests so devotedly for more than a decade of years.

Subsequently the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery with Fr. Crotty assisted by all the other clergy officiating. In a touching graveside tribute, Cllr. Billy Kynce, Chairman, Waterford Co. Council described Cllr. Walsh as a perfect gentleman, an outstanding public representative and a man of the highest principles and integrity who has left a void which it will be very difficult to fill.

The immediate family mourners were Mrs. Monica Walsh (wife), James, Conor and Norman (sons), Aideen and Cathy (daughters), Mrs. Grace O'Connor, Mrs. Carmel Scanlan (sisters).

(Funeral arrangements were by A. Walsh & Sons, Undertakers, Cappoquin.)

SPECIAL CO.

COUNCIL MEETING

Later the members of the Co. Council held a special meeting in the Library, Cappoquin where all joined in paying outstanding tributes to their deceased colleague. The formal vote of sympathy was proposed by Cllr. Con Casey and seconded by Cllr. Willie McDonnell.

Mr. B. J. McNally, Co. Secretary representing the Co. Manager who was unavoidably absent and Mr. Eamonn Mansfield on behalf of the Council's Engineering staff joined in the tributes and associated themselves with the expressions of sympathy.

Need For Kiosk At Melleray Grotto

Waterford County Council is to ask Telecom Eireann to provide a public telephone kiosk in the vicinity of the grotto at Melleray which has been visited by in excess of 50,000 in the past 12 months.

Cllr. Ollie Wilkinson told the October monthly meeting of the Council that the provision of a public telephone has become an urgent necessity such is the magnitude of the crowds coming to the grotto.

He said that hundreds attend the regular all-night prayer vigils there and it has been estimated that more than 50,000 people have visited the grotto in the past year alone.

Mr. Brian O'Shea, T.D., seconded the proposal which was supported unanimously.

Cappoquin Scout Troop's European Tour

The 16th Waterford Scout Troop, Cappoquin, undertook a major tour of Europe this summer, visiting eight countries and three ferry trips. The trip was a huge success due entirely to the dedication and leadership of John Peppard and John Mescall who between them must have put every spare minute into the planning and logistics of such a trip, and the hardworking Troop Quartermaster Roger McGloughlin.

For the troop and their long suffering parents the time leading up to D-Day was an experience that should not be repeated in a lifetime. For the troop, stories of hot spring spa's, glorious sunshine, exotic food, swimming and swimming and swimming; for the parents, will they be alright? is there rabies? mad dogs? sunstroke? etc.

The trip began with Mass celebrated by Fr. Bernard, then the troop piled aboard the bus, later christened "Joe" along with sleeping bags, kit, and peculiar looking objects that John Mescall liked to refer to as portable camp fires. I understand that he will not be looking for a patent for this idea. The first stop was Rosslare to catch the Irish Continental Lines ferry "St. Killian" to La Harve. Once on board they left "Joe" to the mercy of the crew and headed for the cinema. Later they crowded into the disco and it is reported that some of them at least were still there at dawn.

The first night in France was spent with families in the Yvot region. Fears that traditional fare i.e. escargot (snails) would be served up were unfounded, but Ward and Sam were determined to catch any that might try and crawl off their plate if they did.

The next day "Joe" was pointed in the direction of Lyon, taking them through Paris, Auxerre, Macon. Attempts at taking photos of the passing scenes resulted in a lot of pictures with the back of John Peppard's neck in focus.

After an overnight stay at the sumptuous Lyon den, "Joe" headed for the mountains and Geneva. This was the start of Gok's mission to find the abominable snowman. The trip along the shore of Lake Geneva was the start of a trip taking them through some of the most mountainous and beautiful countryside on the continent.

"Joe" developed kidney trouble about this time and had to make frequent stops along the way, much to the delight of everyone on board. It was decided that "Joe" would be safer catching a train over the Alps so he was headed for Lausanne, Montreux, and Visp, finally getting the train at Brig for the Italian town of Dommodossola. Dommodossola is situated high up in the Alps and the views over the northern Italian countryside were breathtaking. Hiking and swimming in this setting for five days, the troop and "Joe" felt recovered enough to tackle the next part of the journey through Milan, Verona, Padova and Trieste on the Yugoslav border. The area's beauty and fame was not lost on the troop with John Mescall reading from "The Merchant Of Venice" and "Romeo And Juliette."

Leaving behind Italy "Joe" headed for Lubjiana and Zagreb. The camp-site was situated about 20 miles south of Zagreb in the town of Kapele, close to hot spring spas and Olympic sized swimming pools.

TRIP OF A LIFETIME

The friendliness of the locals made this trip worth remembering for a long time. Food was provided as if by magic; trips were organised for the troop, camp-fire sessions had a very international flavour. One local garage man was informed of "Joe's" ailment and without delay he set about repairing a leaky radiator. Roger had a gift for a local policeman — stamps, promised three years previously, better late than never Roger. A local widow woman made a good luck charm for the Troop, and it worked because the bus never went better after that.

The charm, a little man made from some pine cones, is now being looked after by John Geoghegan. Maybe that will stop the road from coming up and knocking him off the bike. Stranger things have happened John!

The troop were sorry to leave Kapele and the friends they had made during their stay.

Next on the list was the trip from Zagreb to Schaffhausen in Germany taking them through Badgastein, Kitzbuhl, Innsbruck in Austria and St. Gallen in Switzerland which they all know now was named after St. Gaul, an Irishman, or they should. Not everyone on board managed to stay awake for the full 15 hour trip. They went on trips around southern Germany, home of the cuckoo clock. The talk now was of home and missing the first few days back at school, they were heartbroken but managed to struggle on! The remainder of the trip through Germany, Luxembourg, Belgium and France to the port of Le Harve was spent taking more photos of John Peppard's neck and even one or two of the Eiffel Tower at angles it has never before been seen at, or was it Pisa?

The short ferry trip from Le Harve to Southampton offered some time to recover before they returned home again. Over the Severn Bridge and up to Fishguard a rowdy sing song shook the hills and valleys of Wales.

Finally, the trip home to Rosslare and Cappoquin, tired, full of excitement and stories about what they had seen and where they had been. It is stuff like this memories are made of.

The troop owes a debt of gratitude to those who organised, and supervised the whole venture, in particular John Mescall and John Peppard, not forgetting the very kind sponsorship of kit by Scheisser (Clonmel) and trusty "Joe" TXK 36 (Hallahans Coaches), the people of Yvot, Dommodossola, Kapele and all those in France, Switzerland, Italy, Austria and Germany who made the trip the success that it was.

The Troop is still recovering from the effects of their eight country European tour, Europe is reported to be putting the pieces together again.

Next trip, the U.S.S.R.? Watch this

Fined For Breaches Of Food Hygiene Regulations

Fines totalling £125 together with £150 costs and £50 expenses were imposed at Dungarvan Court on Maurice O'Donnell, Lismore Park, Dungarvan, when he was convicted on 6 charges of breaking Food Hygiene Regulations in the operation of a mobile food van on various dates during the past year.

The prosecutions were brought by the South Eastern Health Board and Mr. J. O'Connor, Environmental Health Officer with the Board told the Court that he had been dealing with Mr. O'Donnell for the previous 12 months. He inspected food stalls being operated by him at Clonea Beach last July and found breaches of the regulations under which his licence had been granted.

Witness said that he warned the defendant then but on a subsequent visit he found no improvement in the situation and breaches still existed in regard to the disposal of litter, lack of adequate washing facilities and absence of bins for storing waste.

Maurice O'Donnell giving evidence on his own behalf stated that the van was cleaned and washed out twice a day while he was operating at Clonea beach and in all he had carried out repairs to it which had cost £3,500.

In reply to Mr. J. Herlihy, Solr. for the Health Board, witness agreed that his licence to operate had now expired. He had not re-applied for a licence as he was waiting to have other jobs to be done to the van completed but said that he was still operating the business.

District Justice O'Connell said that he was not satisfied that the defendant was doing his best to put matters in order. He regarded the charges as serious because the only protection which the public had was the inspections carried out by the Health Board who issued the licences to operate under very strict rules. "I am satisfied that in this case these rules have not been complied with," he said.

Convicting on all the charges, the District Justice imposed fines totalling £125 and allowed £150 costs and £50 expenses to the Health Board. He fixed recognisances in the event of an appeal.

Mr. M. J. Hanrahan, Solr., appeared for the defendant.

Middle Of Night Disturbances In Dungarvan

Rows and fights which took place over a period of from one-and-a-half to two hours in Dungarvan in the early hours of Saturday morning, August 4, were mentioned at Dungarvan Court last week when applications were made to have two young men from the Stradbally district bound to the peace.

Garda T. Murphy in reply to questions by Supt. R. McAndrew who prosecuted said that at about 2.45 a.m. on Saturday morning, August 4, there was a number of outbreaks of trouble between a couple of gangs which stretched from the Causeway in Abbeyside on down to the quay and then on to the Square.

He met one of the defendants who had blood on his pants and on his face at the Causeway and when he advised him to go home, all he got was threats and abuse. The conduct of those involved in the fighting which lasted for from 1 1/2 to 2 hours was disturbing for the general public of the neighbourhood.

This defendant said in evidence that he had been in a nightclub and when he left it he found a row going on out on the road. He tried to break it up but was struck and there was blood on his face and his pants. He then went into town for chips and on his way back over the Causeway he met Garda Murphy. The defendant went on to say that he did nothing on the night to provoke any row or fighting.

District Justice O'Connell said that he would adjourn the charges until the first court in March and if he heard nothing against either of the defendants at that time he might then be disposed to take a certain course.

Youghal Man Returned For Trial On Rape Charge

A 23-year-old Youghal man was returned for trial to Cork Circuit Court on November 6 on rape and indecent assault charges by District Justice W. F. O'Connell at Youghal District Court.

The accused, represented by Mr. Patrick J. Lavan solr., is charged with (1) at Cork Hill, Youghal, on May 31 raping a 24 year old woman and (2) at the same place on the same date indecently assaulting the woman.

He was remanded on continuing bail of £2,000.

Recent Deaths

MRS. MAUREEN DALY

We record with very sincere regret the death of Mrs. Maureen Daly (nee Connors) which occurred suddenly at her residence 33 Byrneville, Dungarvan, on Sunday evening October 7.

In her early 60's she was born in Clonea and lived for most of her life in Caseyville, Dungarvan before moving to Byrneville. She loved to mingle and enjoyed people of all walks and ages, she loved fun and music and was very proud of all her family and friends. She had a great zest for life and her good humour was infectious. She cared also for others and provided a shoulder to cry on, and ear that listened and most of all she possessed a heart of gold and that's what we will all miss about Maureen. A loving wife and mother she will be sadly missed by her husband and family to whom we extend deep sympathy.

Following prayers recited by Fr. Rogers, C.C., at the Drohan Funeral Home on Tuesday evening removal took place to St. Mary's Parish Church where the remains were received and blessed by Rev. Fr. Rogers.

A guard of honour was provided on the evening of the funeral by Dungarvan Scouts and members of Dungarvan Fianna Fail Cumann.

Following Requiem Mass on Wednesday morning celebrated by Fr. Carey assisted by Fr. Kiely, Fr. Rogers, Fr. Sullivan and Fr. J. Power O.S.A., interment took place in Ballinroad Cemetery. Fr. Carey officiated at the graveside assisted by Fr. P. Ahearne, C.C., in the presence of a large crowd. Music and appropriate hymns were rendered by her family and friends. The Lessons were read by her grandchildren Denise, Stephanie and Siobhan. Music was played at her graveside after her interment by her family which was her wish.

The chief mourners were — Johnny (husband), Sean, Michael and Paddy (sons), Helen, Caroline and Anita (daughters), Jim and Sean, (brothers), Kitty and Nellie (sisters), Denise, Stephanie, Siobhan, Fiona, Sharon, Sarah, Jason, Colum and John (grandchildren), Bill (son-in-law), Mary, Sandra and Bernie (daughters-in-law), brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nephews, nieces, relatives, Billy and a wide circle of friends.

(Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

Mr. John O'Farrell

With sadness we pen these lines on the unexpected demise of Mr. John O'Farrell, Derra, Modeligo, at the O'Donnell family residence in Derra last Wednesday week, October 3. Aged 72 years, John was a hard working farmer all his life. Well known and highly respected, John enjoyed his game of '45' at the Welcome Inn on Sunday nights in the company of his many friends. He had a keen interest in both horse racing and GAA affairs.

We sympathise with his brother Paddy, sisters Eileen Prendergast, Brigid Coffey, brother-in-law Patrick Prendergast, sister-in-law Statia and his many relatives and friends, especially the O'Donnell family, Derra, who will miss John.

On Thursday evening, John's remains were brought from the Kiely Funeral Home to Modeligo Church where Rev. J. Purcell, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. L. Walsh and Rev. M. Walsh, blessed and received the remains. Prayers of Requiem were recited by Rev. Fr. J. Kiely, C.C., at the Funeral Home in the presence of a large and representative gathering earlier.

The Requiem Mass on Friday was celebrated by Rev. J. Purcell, C.C. and the Lessons were read by Helen and Michael Scanlan, Ballyhane. The burial took place afterwards in the family burial ground.

Mr. Richard (Richie) Morrissey

On Wednesday, October 10, ever popular Richie Morrissey, Ballinclammer, Ballinacourty, answered the call of his Creator to return to his heavenly home. Well known in the locality, Richie was a great favourite with one and all. The numbers who attended his funeral obsequies left nobody in any doubt of the extent of his popularity.

On Thursday evening the removal took place to Ballinroad Church where on Friday morning the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

Our deepest sympathy to his wife, family, relatives and friends on their sad loss.

Dungarvan Youth Club Notes

"THIS IS YOUR LIFE"

On Friday last, "This Is Your Life" host Liam O'Keeffe surprised Roger Moore and Catherine Wright with the famous red biography. It was a great programme and the two Jamaican guests were a great hit. Well done to Liam, Danny, Anthony, Shane, Pa and Alfie, who organised the programme.

MUCKROSS

As Muckcross was a great hit with all visitors, we hope to go again before Christmas. More details later.

YOUTH CLUB BLOTTO!

The tickets are selling very well and anyone interested in winning £250 should see a youth club member and buy one of the few remaining tickets.

Senior Hurling — Our senior footballers were beaten in the semi-final of the championship by Stradbally in Dungarvan last Sunday on the score of 0-12 to 0-8. We never really got going as Stradbally dominated for most of the game. Stradbally led by 0-5 to 0-2 at half-time and they maintained their grip right through a hard fought second-half.

We battled bravely but in the end we were beaten by a better all round side. We wish Stradbally the best of luck in the County final in a fortnight's time against Dungarvan.

Team — D. Mulhearn, P. Prendergast, P. Keating, E. Flynn, W. Power, P. Power, P. Quinn, J. Maher (0-2), P. White, R. Power, G. Walsh (0-1), N. Hayes, B. Kirwan (0-4), T. Behan (0-1), M. Walsh. Subs — G. Fitzgerald for P. Quinn, P. Hayes for N. Hayes, T. Prendergast for P. Keating.

Junior Hurling — At the moment we have no news of when our junior hurling B County final against Fenor will be played.

Two Lady Councillors For Cork Conference

A two-day conference on "Sewage Disposal — Where Do We Stand?" to be held at the Imperial Hotel, Cork, on November 8 and 9, is to be attended by two lady members of Dungarvan Urban Council. The invitation to the conference which is being organised by Matt Murphy, Sherkin Island Marine Station, Co. Cork was considered at the Council's monthly meeting held last Monday night.

Cllr. B. Kyne proposed and Cllr. P. Power seconded that two members be sent to the conference and this was passed when an amendment proposed by Cllr. T. Wright that no one be sent as the Council could not afford the cost involved failed to gain a second order.

It was then agreed that the two lady members of the Council, Cllr. Ryan and Chairman, Cllr. Dixon, represent the Council at the Conference.

LISMORE NOTES

LISMORE DRAMATIC SOCIETY

Over the last few years Lismore Dramatic Society has presented, apart from its stage shows, a series of popular social events. In the past we have had American tea parties, fashion shows, outdoor concerts, Irish nights and other well attended events. This year, in a new departure we are having a Table Quiz. This has become a very popular event in recent times and to get the season of quizzes off to a good start, we are expecting large numbers of contestants to Lismore Hotel next week.

In order to defray a heavy expenditure which we expect to have in the Society during the next year, we are hoping all our regular patrons will turn up for a quiz which will suit all ages and give enjoyment to everybody on the night.

We will have cash prizes and a huge raffle. Music, sport, current affairs, history, geography, literature and other subjects will be featured in the questions.

So don't forget — Lismore Hotel, Wednesday, October 24 at 8.30 p.m. (sharp). Tables of four at £10. See you there!

Will all members please note details will be finalised at a meeting in the Dramatic room at 8.30 p.m. on Friday next, October 19.

LOCAL SCHOOLS TABLE QUIZ

A very successful Schools Table Quiz was held in the Lismore Hotel, on Thursday night, October 4. 53 teams took part, with 24 tables from local Primary schools, and 29 tables from local Secondary schools.

The winning teams were — in the Primary school section, from the Presentation Convent Lismore namely, Caroline Whelan, Louise Walsh, Anne-Marie Lineen, Sharon Geoghegan, Sub. — Sylvia Mangan.

In the Secondary school section, from St. Anne's Cappoquin namely, Andree Lynch, Rose Coffey, Jennifer Collender, Catherine Cunningham.

These teams along with the runner-up teams from both sections, now go on to Carrick-on-Suir, on Sunday, October 21, to represent their Credit Union in the Chapter 10 Table Quiz.

The Board of Directors, wish to thank all who took part in the event, the students, their teachers and any one else who helped make the night the success it was. We now wish the very best to the four teams when they go to Carrick on Sunday.

THE RIGHT TO READ AND WRITE

On October 11 an information night on adult literacy was given at the Library in Lismore. Organisers Anne O'Donnell and Helen Whelan from the Dungarvan Adult Learning Centre spoke on the nature and causes of literacy. On the basis of figures available from the National Literacy Agency it was found that 10% of adults in Ireland today are in serious need of help with reading and writing. At least 20% are in some need of literacy provision. Over half the people seeking help are between sixteen and twenty years. The speakers pointed to some of the underlying causes in the social and economic structures which create the problem. People often seek help who had to leave school early to help contribute to the income of low wage earning families, or who did not fit into the schools system, who were left behind in large classes, or who missed out due to illness or other factors. It is important that we are aware that the person with poor reading and writing skills have the problem through no fault of their own.

The service is free and confidential and given by volunteer tutors who are trained by the VEC. It is proposed to extend the service to Lismore with the help of local people, who are willing to share their literacy skills with adult students who lack the necessary skills in reading and writing, to participate fully in the community. An exhibition of student writings is on display at the Library in Lismore from October 11 to 30.

Further information on becoming a tutor or student can be had from the Technical College, Dungarvan. Tel. 058/41184 or Adult Learning Centre, Tel. 42822 ext. 272, Tuesday or Thursday 2 to 5 p.m.

TO WALK IN ENGLAND

We would like to wish Rene Carey the best of luck next weekend in Aldershot, England, for the International Walking Championships. Rene who has four All-Ireland medals for race walking is getting her big chance, so hopefully she will do very well. She is the first person from the club to take part in competition outside the country. — P.R.O. Lismore A.C.

BALLINVELLA NOTES

At a recent meeting at the centre a vote of sympathy was passed to the following: — Mrs. Mary O'Brien, Camphire on the death of her brother Garry Moloney; To John Walsh, Bishopstown, on the death of his father in Kilkenny, and to Mrs. Eileen Prendergast, Bridane, on the death of her brother, Mr. John Farrell.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF WIDOWS IN IRELAND

(West Waterford Branch) At a specially convened meeting of West Waterford Widows, a vote of sympathy was passed to Grace O'Connor and Carmel Scanlon — two valued members of the branch — on the death of their brother James A. Walsh, M.C.C. No other business was transacted as a mark of respect.

WEDDING

Kelleher - Vaughan
A very pretty wedding took place at St. Carthage's

Church, Lismore, when Jerry only son of Frances and the late John Kelleher was married to Paula, daughter of Pat and Paddy Vaughan, Chapel St., Lismore.

The ceremony with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing was performed by Fr. Gerard Stapleton, friend of the families.

The bride who was given away by her father looked radiant in a gown of raw silk in shades of ivory. Her old-fashioned veil was held in place by her headdress of fresh flowers. Her bouquet was also of fresh flowers. The bridesmaid was Miss Orla Flynn friend of the bride, who wore a dress of raw silk in salmon-pink with a fitted off the shoulder bodice. A segment of fresh flower adorned her hair.

The bestman was Dan Penderville, friend of the groom. The flower girls were Caroline and Ruth, nieces of the bride. Shane and Alan, nephews of the groom, were pageboys. The ushers and readers were John and Patrick Vaughan, brothers of the bride. The organist was Gus Ahlsued and his wife Annette presided at the organ. The reception was held at the Blackwater House Hotel.

We wish Paula and Jerry many years of wedded bliss.

PENSMAN Takes You Behind The SPOTLIGHT

THERE IS A CASE FOR REASONABLE CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

The issue of "reasonable" corporal punishment for disobedience in schools got an airing last week when a Circuit Court Judge and teachers' leaders and parents clashed on the matter.

Judge James Carroll advocated the use of reasonable punishment when giving his decision in the Dublin Circuit Court in which he dismissed a personal injuries claim for £15,000 by a boy who injured himself in a fall from a school yard wall on which he knew he was not allowed to climb.

"For some considerable time now, teachers have had difficulty in dealing with minor breaches of discipline by reason of the fact that they have, I think most unwisely, been deprived of the power of inflicting reasonable corporal punishment which could deal with such disobedience," Judge Carroll said.

However his comments drew swift reaction from the Department of Education, which said it was agreed world wide that physical discipline was totally unacceptable in the classroom.

The leaders of the INTO and the ASTI both came out in support of the ban on corporal punishment although the latter body stated that they agreed with the judge in that the hands of second level teachers were tied because they were still waiting for a code of discipline to be drawn up to allow them deal with disruptive pupils without the fear of legal action.

In the overall we find ourselves in agreement with the views expressed by Judge Carroll as we have always been of the opinion that "reasonable" punishment was needed to deal with certain cases. We recall our own days in school when the "leather" and the "cane" were part and parcel of everyday school life. You got a couple to-day so you had everything right to-morrow. That was the way it was. We were all the better for it.

Of course there was the exception where teachers used an excessive amount of punishment but this was the exception rather than the rule.

We believe that there is a strong case for the re-introduction of "reasonable" and we stress "reasonable" corporal punishment to the schools in the interest of discipline and obedience and feel sure that if this were done our juvenile courts would not then be as crowded as they presently are.

IRRESPONSIBLE VANDALISM

The vandalism which caused so much damage to public property in Dungarvan and elsewhere in recent months has been widely condemned and rightly so. Most of the damage was targeted at parked vehicles and at trees, shrubs and flowers placed around the town with the sole aim of adding beauty and colour to the place so as to make it a more attractive environment to live in for the local residents and which in addition would appeal to more and more visitors.

The vandalism involved in these cases was motivated by robbery where the cars were concerned and just downright blackguarding and destruction where the despoiling of the the shrubs and flower beds was concerned. Of course such acts must be condemned in the strongest terms but at least they did not involve a possible loss of life.

The vandalism which Cllr. Dec Goode referred to at last Monday night's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council was of a more sinister nature and was very correctly described by him as diabolical work. Cllr. Goode told his colleagues that he had received a complaint about interference to two lifebuoys placed on the seafront at Abbeyside by the Council for use in case of an emergency. The manner in which the lifebuoys were interfered with displayed a malicious intent which was positively criminal.

It appears that the lifebuoys with the ropes attached were placed at points where they might be most readily needed if anyone fell into the sea. They were taken down and detached from the ropes but then replaced in such a manner as to appear to be perfectly alright. The snag was that if an emergency did arise and one of these lifebuoys were to be used it would just float away and the would be rescuer would

The warped and twisted mentality of the perpetrator(s) of this type of vandalism cannot be too strongly condemned as their action could well have resulted in some poor innocent life being lost. And the worst aspect of it is that it appears that the interference with the lifebuoys was done with this very intention. Truly, as Cllr. Goode described, it was diabolical work!

THE LIFE AND TIMES OF JAMES F. X. O'BRIEN

Earlier this year, in the month of May, we wrote about the Dungarvan born Fenian, James Francis Xavier O'Brien, who had the doubtful distinction of being the last man to be sentenced under British Law to be hanged drawn and quartered for his participation in the Fenian Rising of 1867, but who later had the sentence commuted to one of life imprisonment.

Now once more, thanks to Aglish man, Walter Terry, we have learned all that is to be known about this great Irish patriot about whom so little is known even in his native town. It is all contained in a thesis prepared for his Master's degree in Arts at UCC in 1971 by Mr. Peter Nolan, B.A., H. Dip. in Ed. Running to close on 300 typed sheets, the thesis deals most comprehensively with the life of James F. X. O'Brien (1828-1905) and with the stirring events with which he was actively associated.

Appropriately the opening chapter states: "It is indeed ironic that not only has Ireland forgotten O'Brien's Fenian adventures but his native Dungarvan seems entirely unaware that it is the birthplace of this eminent patriot." In delineating his family pedigree, Mr. Nolan says that O'Brien's paternal grandfather, Christopher, farmed some 80 acres of land at Duckspool and he had several sons, most of whom emigrated to America. Timothy, the father of James F. X., remained in Ireland and became a prosperous merchant in Dungarvan. O'Brien's mother, Catherine, also belonged to an O'Brien family, being daughter of Matthew O'Brien, a farmer who lived at Ballyguiry, three miles outside Dungarvan. This branch of the family subsequently moved to Aglish House, Aglish, which is still owned by descendants of the family.

James F. X. was the sixth child in a family of ten and throughout his life he insisted on using his full multiple name, a practice which often prompted his associates to label him 'Alphabet' O'Brien or 'X.Y.Z.' O'Brien.

He grew up in moderate affluence. His father kept a draper's shop in one part of the town and in another part he carried on the business of general merchant dealing in corn and butter and selling timber, slate and coal. He also owned sailing vessels which traded between Ireland and England and South Wales. In this regard the author then remarks: "At this time, all the cross-channel trade was done by means of sailing vessels and the quayside at Dungarvan was often lined by them, two or three deep. At the time of O'Brien's birth (1828), the town was very prosperous and its fishing industry was justly famous giving employment to a total of 1,983 men."

A fully documented description of O'Brien's life and times then follows. He is described as an enigmatic figure: small, thin almost fragile who was involved in every major political movement in Ireland for over 50 years and a close associate of nearly all the national leaders of his time.

When James F. X. O'Brien died in 1905 he was a member of the English House of Commons as an M.P. of the Irish Party having been first elected to the parliament in 1885. He was then living in Clapham in London but had planned to return to Ireland when he became ill and developed pleurisy. Then on May 29, having suffered heart failure, he died on the presence of his wife and two daughters, Molly and Annie.

Subsequently on June 1, his remains were brought to Ireland and following Mass at the Pro-Cathedral, Dublin the funeral moved through thronged streets to Glasnevin Cemetery where the interment took place.

The author of this wonderful thesis also notes that almost all the public bodies in Ireland passed motions of sympathy to O'Brien's widow and family and among these were Dungarvan Urban Council, Waterford Co. Council and Waterford Corporation. And so we can now close the book on the life and times of James F. X. O'Brien.

A MEANDERING MEETING

The manner in which the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last Monday night was allowed to meander, clearly showed the need for a closer study of the rules and regulations governing the control of meetings of such bodies. The meeting which came to order at 8.15 p.m. with a brief adjournment occupying no more that a few minutes at the outset drifted like a rudderless ship for more than two hours dealing with an agenda which should have been disposed of in half that time.

The first thirty minutes of the meeting was taken over as members held an "inquest" on the minutes of the previous meeting and being permitted to re-open discussions on matters already dealt with. While members are entitled to raise questions on the minutes the generation of full-blooded discussions under such a heading should be ruled out of order.

When the meeting eventually ended at 10.20 p.m. most of the press representatives had left and even some of the members of the Council declared as they departed the Council Chamber that the meeting was one of the worst which they had ever experienced. To say the least the manner in which the meeting was allowed to drift left a great deal to be desired.

The Garden Where The Praties Grow

Our song for the ballad corner this week is one which won world wide renown when the great late Count John McCormack included it in his repertoire when he toured the concert halls of Europe and America charming and thrilling audiences everywhere with his beautiful tenor voice. Indeed "The Garden Where The Praties Grow" was by then popularly known throughout Ireland as it was composed by the well-known comedian and circus performer Johnny Patterson who sang it regularly at performances as he toured the country in those by-gone days.

Have you ever been in love, me boys
Oh! have you felt the pain,
I'd rather be in jail, I would,
Than be in love again;
Tho' the girl I loved was beautiful,
I'd have you all to know,
That I met her in the garden
Where the praties grow.

Chorus:

She was just the sort of creature now
That nature did intend
To walk right thro' the world me boys
Without the Grecian bend,
Nor did she wear a chignon
I'd have you all to know
That I met her in the garden
Where the praties grow.

She was singing an old Irish song
Called "Gra Geal Mo Chroi," Oh boys, says I, what a wife she'd make
For an Irish lad like me,
I was on important business but I did not like to go,
And leave the girl and garden
Where the praties grow.

Says I, my lovely cailin
I hope you'll pardon me,
But she wasn't like those city girls
Who'd say you're making free,
She answered then right modestly,
And curtsied very low,
Saying, you're welcome to the garden
Where the praties grow.

Says I, my lovely darling
I'm tired of single life,
And if you've no objections
I'll make you my sweet wife,
Says she, I'll ask my parents,
And to-morrow I'll let you know
If you'll meet me in the garden
Where the praties grow.

Prepare for bad weather

THINK the worst for this winter and carry out some preventative garden maintenance. You will then sleep soundly through the bad weather.

Our climate has been wildly unpredictable in recent years and though last winter was mild it was another windy one, which smashed down many new fences as well as seeking out the rickety ones.

So take advantage of October's relative mildness to check and repair your boundaries. Most fences will at least require a new coating of preservative to protect against rot and infestation.

Creosote remains one of the cheapest and most effective applications but it can be lethal close to plants, so try one of the low-toxicity brands of preservative now available.

Whichever you choose, give the timber a liberal coating and allow to soak in, repeating if necessary and renewing every three years.

But it is best to right any weaknesses shown up by your fencing checks, before you go on to apply preservative.

Fence boards often work loose and may simply require new nails, preferably galvanised to resist rust, but rotten or split boards should be replaced.

With close-boarded types, take out the defective length and cut a new one to fit before carefully sliding and nailing it back into place.

A rotten fence post is an altogether trickier proposition. It's one which many people solve by simply ripping out the stump of the old post and fitting the surface section or a new length into a fence spike, driven into the same position as the base of the old post.

But the most secure method is still to take a trusty pick and break out the old concrete setting before installing a new full length post that has been absolutely saturated in preservatives.

Dig down at least 18 inches for a post supporting a six foot high fence. Pack the bottom and surround the base of the post with hard core before pouring in a rich concrete mixture to set.

Always top the post with a cap or, at least cut it off at an angle to avoid water settling and promoting rot.

The base of gravel boards are also prone to rot but easily replaced once the soil around them is dug out. A heavy coating of preservative should be applied to the replacement which also needs to be firmly secured to the adjoining fence posts.

Arris rails, the supports backing boards and linking the posts, are also at risk but easily repaired using galvanised brackets available from DIY stores.

Credit Unions Creating A Global Vision

"Credit Unions; Creating A Global Vision" is the theme for the 1990 International Credit Union Day which is celebrated this year on Thursday, October 18.

It will be the forty-third celebration and will be honoured around the world demonstrating that members belong to one big family united together in their belief that credit union is a unique self-help financial co-operative.

In Ireland, Credit Union is a symbol of a special co-operation among people for their individual and collective benefit.

Credit Union Day will be observed among the 80 national Credit Union Movements and their related service organisations around the globe. It will honour the achievements of the past and promote the work of credit unions today. The theme "Credit Union: Creating a Global Vision" was chosen to highlight the continuing process of educating people everywhere about the achievements and the promise of credit unions. That vision must not die, but needs to be created and re-created, in order to offer the unique benefits of credit unions to everyone who needs and wants them.

STATISTICS

Number of Credit Unions in Ireland: 512, Total individual members: 1,100,000, Total savings: £760,000,000, Total loans outstanding: £610,000,000, Total number of employees: 800.

The Credit Union Movement in Ireland was founded in 1958.

Proven goodness in fish

PEOPLE have always said that fish is good for you but now scientific proof has emerged that fish, especially oily fish such as mackerel and herring, is an important part of the diet.

Scientists identified a substance called Omega 3 as the important factor. This is found almost exclusively in oily fish and eating just two fish meals a week can make a significant difference to people who are at risk from heart disease and other medical conditions.

Basically Omega 3 fatty acids have a lowering effect on blood fats and this decreases the chances of blood vessels clogging up with cholesterol. They help to make blood less "sticky" and it therefore flows more easily round the body - thus reducing the likelihood of a heart attack.

Arthritis sufferers can benefit too (since Omega 3 has been shown to reduce swollen joints) and so can help people suffering from psoriasis.

As well as being good for you, fish is also extremely tasty and filling. And at this time of year herring is plentiful and good value too. Try this tangy recipe from the Seafood Kitchen and eat for health as well as pleasure.

Mushroom and Lemon Herring

4 medium sized herring fillets
1 tablespoon (15ml) polyunsaturated oil
1 medium onion, finely chopped
Grated rind of one lemon
1 tablespoon (15ml) lemon juice

1 tablespoon (15ml) parsley, chopped
3oz (75g) wholemeal breadcrumbs
Salt and freshly ground black pepper

Preheat oven to 200C/400F, Gas Mark 6.

Heat the oil in a pan and gently fry the onion until soft.

Add mushrooms and cook for 3-4 minutes.

Stir in the lemon rind and juice, parsley, breadcrumbs and seasoning.

Spread the filling on the herring fillets, roll up from heat to tail and secure with a cocktail stick.

Arrange in a greased oven-proof dish, cover and bake for 30-35 minutes.

Serves four.

Buffet Treats

This simple starter is ideal for entertaining as it can be made well ahead of time. Try it for buffet parties packed lunches or picnics, too.

Preparation time: 15 minutes.

Calories per portion: 200.
6oz/175g smoked Scottish salmon
8oz/225g low fat cream cheese
1½ oz/40g walnut pieces
Finely grated rind 1 lime or lemon
Freshly ground pepper
Lemon and lime slices and dill to garnish

Finely chop half the smoked salmon and mix with the cream cheese. Finely chop the walnuts and stir in with the lime or lemon rind. Season with pepper to taste.

Form the cream cheese mixture into two long rolls, then wrap with the remaining smoked salmon, rolling to an even shape. Cover and chill until required.

To serve, cut carefully into slices and garnish with lemon and lime slices and fresh sprigs of dill, or other herbs.

Serves four.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

LATE JAMES A. WALSH

The death took place on Tuesday of last week of James Aidan Walsh, Springfield, Cappoquin. He was first elected to Waterford County Council in 1979 and held the seat up to the time of his death. On being elected a Councillor he was continuing a proud family tradition, the seat having been previously held by his late brother Norman who in turn inherited it from their uncle, the late "M.F." James was a public representative of the highest calibre. He tirelessly worked for the people of the area and he sorted out problems with the minimum of fuss. He was a great respecter of people's confidences and for that reason it's difficult to envisage the magnitude of the tasks which he tackled.

A man of wonderful courtesy, he held the respect of everybody regardless of political allegiance. His main hobby was horse racing. He liked to attend meetings and when that wasn't possible to have a "flutter" locally and could be relied upon to supply a "certainty" now and again. He will be missed in Cappoquin both as a person and as a public representative.

Sympathy is extended to his widow Monica, to his sons and daughters, sisters and other relatives. May he rest in peace.

MISSION SUNDAY

Next Sunday is Mission Sunday. There should be great activity in the Convent Hall with the annual Sale of Work in aid of the Missions. The society have spared no effort to make it a pleasant occasion for the many supporters who will attend.

LATE BILLY SHINE

The death took place in England of Billy Shine, Tivoli Terrace. His remains were flown home on Friday last. He was laid to rest in St. Declan's Cemetery on Saturday. Billy hailed from Limerick and came to the town a half a century ago. In the early years he was employed in the timber trade and later took a post with Cappoquin Estates. A quiet inoffensive person, he was very popular in the local community. A widower for all of forty-three years, his main interest was the welfare of his family, to whom sincere sympathy is extended.

WINNING HORSE

Congratulations to Mr. M. D. O'Connor on the success of his race horse "No Desert" at Punchestown recently.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Complete the local verse the second last line of which is:

"You'll never find the beating out of Ireland or within."

RUGBY

Our first outing of the season was last Sunday when we travelled to Charleville. For a variety of reasons we were only able to muster fourteen players. Nevertheless it was a good all round display, especially as it was a first time out for three of our men.

Final score — Charleville 9 Cappoquin 3.

Team — D. McGrath, K. Veale, G. Nicholson, P. J. Veale, T. Stapleton, N. Uniacke, D. Wade, E. Hayes, K. Curran, N. Hayes, J. McGrath, O. McGrath, N. O'Connor, R. Kiely.

AFFANE BRIDGE CLUB NOTES

Results, Oct. 8 — 1st M. Fives and E. O'Driscoll; 2nd A. Buckley and J. O'Gorman; 3rd K. O'Mahoney and R. Costin; 4th C. Meaney and M. O'Brien.

Invitation Night: Section B — 1st Claire Meaney and Joan Howard; 2nd Grace O'Connor and Mary O'Connor; 3rd Nora Willoughby and Vera Curran. Section A — 1st Gretta Barry and Mary Fives; 2nd Brid Culloo and Kitty Greaney; 3rd Addie Buckley and Ned Whelan.

SCHOOLS FOOTBALL

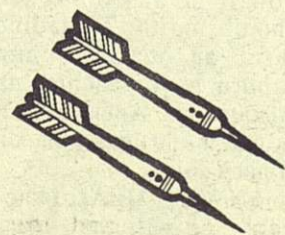

On Tuesday last, October 8 the Primary School lads took on Ardmore/Grange in the school league. From the start Cappoquin showed the way and some fine fielding and kicking saw us a goal and point in the lead at half time. Goals from Thomas Scanlon, Daragh Wilkinson and Donal Fraher and points by Mitch Moynihan and Peter Scanlon set the seal on this victory.

The outcome was in some doubt to the very end but Cappoquin showed the greater stamina on the day. Our keeper Liam Whelan had a good outing and with midfield in fine fettle victory was assured.

Keep up the good run lads and the best of luck in your next outing to Clashmore on Friday next. We must commiserate with Ardmore on their narrow defeat.

CAPPOQUIN AND DISTRICT DARTS LEAGUE

The league got underway last Friday night with some excellent games of darts taking place at all venues.

In the section A their were big wins for Morrissey's, Village Inn (A) and Tavern (A) while reigning champions Lindsay's also made an excellent start with an away win over Deckies.

In the B section there were wins for Dunnes (B), Village Inn (B) and league newcomers The Overflow Inn, while Dunnes (A) and Tavern (B) shared the spoils.

The full results are as follows:

Section A — Village Inn 6 Old Still 2; Kereen 2 Morrissey's 6; Tavern 6 Dunvegan 2; Deckies 3 Lindsay's 5.

Section B — Dunnes 4 Tavern 4; Toby Jug 3 Village Inn 5; Sycamore Inn 3 Dunnes 5; Overflow Inn 5 Kereen 3.

1990 TIDY TOWNS COMPETITION

The following are the adjudicators remarks. Maximum possible marks in brackets.

Effort 29 (45) — Thank you for sending the completed questionnaire — could I suggest that you also send a simple map with the entries in future as this helps to guide the adjudicator and draw his attention to new work highlighted on the map. Cappoquin has made some good progress this year. Some of our comments below may help win planning of next year's work. — The litter situation is much improved thanks to your efforts — perhaps you should pick another aspect to concentrate specially on this year? Good luck with the Five Year Plan!

Tidiness 23 (40) — Litter control has been much improved since last year and this is a very good achievement. There was a lot of litter at the G.A.A. Grounds and just across the road, otherwise negligible amounts of litter were in evidence at the time of our visit — well done. Some plastic bins in need of cleaning — the other bins looked well. Advertising hoarding should be discouraged.

Presentation Of Buildings 32 (40) — Some of your shops look well with a simple style such as Uniacke's, the Supervalue Store and the Chemists. The Banks are well presented. The Fire Station now looks very well — a very commendable presentation except for one small patch of long grass to its side which should be planted. The side of Walshe's Hotel facing down the street should be upgraded. The school and hall look well but the Misericordia building looks a bit gloomy. Some premises could be improved such as the Top Garage. The odd sign or facade needed cleaning. The display of window boxes, hanging baskets, should be encouraged as they are an attractive enhancement and look well on buildings which already have them.

Natural Amenities 27 (50) — We would still maintain that the riverside is underdeveloped for its amenity potential. Is it possible for you to develop this area? We liked the green alongside the Fire Station and the attractive display on the incidental green space on the road beyond the Post Office. The green at the housing estate is well presented.

Appearance Of Approach Roads 35 (45) — The standard is good and you have a pleasant route out by the river towards Lismore. As stated, there was a lot of litter at the G.A.A. Grounds at a gap just across the road. There was one particularly bad boundary fence on the Waterford Road which otherwise looked well. Some weeding and removal of moss was needed at Cappoquin's many stone walls. The seating at the green at the housing estate on the Melleray Road will soon need a "touch-up"!

Residential Areas 15 (30) — There was quite a few poorly presented boundary walls and railings, at the housing estate, just at the entrance by the green there was one dreadful looking one which unfortunately is in a very prominent position. Some of the town houses looked very well and there were some attractive individual floral displays. Some others looked a little bit gloomy and needed a little brightening up. Keep up efforts to cope with the impact of derelict buildings on the streetscape.

Cappoquin's total of 161 marks was 3 higher than the 1989 figure.

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE FINE GAEL

The death of Cllr. James A. Walsh has deprived the Fine Gael Party of one of its most loyal members. James was a man of the highest integrity with a most pleasant personality. All his actions were motivated by the strongest Christian principles.

Since his election to Waterford Co. Council in 1979, he has worked tirelessly for Cappoquin and the surrounding areas. He served with distinction as Chairman of Waterford Co. Council on two occasions, 1984/85 and 1986/87. The efficiency with which meetings were conducted bears testimony to his tremendous diplomatic skills. At the time of his death he was a sitting member of the Governing Body of U.C.C.

Ni bheidh a leitheid aris ann. Leaba i measc na naomh go raibh aige. — J.B.

CAPPOQUIN MACRA NA FEIRME

Club News — A number of events on the Macra calendar has kept Cappoquin members quite busy in recent weeks. The club's Farm Tasks team consisting of Edward Cahill, Michael O'Donnell and John Fitzgerald recently took part in this challenging event hosted by Kinsalebeg Macra. Our club officers have completed their training courses and a new club programme is being drawn up. A club meeting took place on October 6 last during which Hugh Collender presented an interesting show of slides on "Alternative Farm Enterprises" taken by him during his recent trip to France. A video on Macra will be shown at our next club meeting. All members and intending members are most welcome.

New Members — As we approach National Recruitment Fortnight, the Cappoquin Club is now actively seeking new members who may wish to take part in its programme of activities for the coming year. For many young people, Macra na Feirme has been the launching pad for them to develop their skills and talents in whatever interests them the most. For many, Macra has opened new horizons through its variety of activities ranging from artistry in the home to all aspects of the world of theatre. Its programme consists of many general interest competitions, ranging from question time to dressmaking. For most young people however, Macra is a social and recreational outlet through which you can make new friends and learn new hobbies. The Cappoquin branch of Macra na Feirme has established itself as a club committed to the personal development of its members and is recognised as a club worth being a member of. Its members, past and present, have gained respect for their service to Macra at county and national level, and have always continued to enjoy being part of the Cappoquin Club. Cappoquin Macra takes pride in its length of continuous existence and the resulting impact it has made locally since its foundation.

If you would like to join a club with a tradition of its own and an officership second to none, contact club chairman Hugh Collender at (058) 68045 or Secretary John Fitzgerald at (058) 68117 and you'll be welcome aboard the club that was by National P.R.O.

Ethna Archer this year described as: "being more active than ever before." — P.R.O.

Ardmore Notes

CONGRATULATIONS
Congratulations to our Post Mistress, Margaret O'Brien and Eric Kingston (Cork) on tying the everlasting knot last Saturday. Best wishes for the future.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Welcome home to Bernie Stilwell, Main Street who is now back home recuperating from a recent illness. Also great to see Mrs. Peggy Keevers and Mrs. Power feeling better, and back home.

BACK TO ENGLAND

It's bon voyage to John Hennessey who came home recently from England for a week. It was good to see you around John and everyone wishes you well on your return trip and hope to see you soon again.

JUNIOR YOUTH CLUB

Attention! all aged between 6 and 13 years. On Saturday, October 20, there will be a meeting in St. Declan's Hall, Ardmore, at 3 p.m. The club will be open to Grange and Ardmore Primary School (age group 6-13). All interested please attend this first meeting. It is hoped on every Saturday between 3 and 6 p.m. to provide games, quizzes and crafts, "it's a knockout," etc., for those members.

Membership admission 50p each week.

DUNVEGAN DARTS

Last Friday night we played the Tavern away, but we lost 2-6, so it's clear we must practice 'the final throw.'

GRANGE UNITED SOCCER

Last Sunday we played a friendly against Piltown away. The game lacked excitement but Grange emerged the victors by 5-1.

ARDMORE SOCCER

Ardmore played a challenge game against Youghal and despite being short a couple of players, played well, but not well enough to beat Youghal, who won with a score of 7-0.

U-12 FOOTBALL

The under 12s played St. Oliver's, Aghlish, last Saturday at home and played a great game to score a good win. These are Ardmore's future senior players and if they continue to practice they will be a force to be reckoned with.

ST. DECLAN'S HALL A.G.M.

The annual general meeting will take place this Friday, October 19, at 8.30 p.m. sharp. All clubs are asked to be represented. All people are encouraged to attend this AGM. Thank you.

West Waterford Notes

WELCOME TO CLASHMORE

We wish to welcome to Clashmore Mr. and Mrs. Cashman from England, who have taken up residence and commenced business in the premises formerly owned and run by Mrs. Bridie Mansfield in the Main Street. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Cashman every success in their new venture.

CAR ACCIDENT

The occupants of the car involved in the car accident at Piltown Cross on Tuesday morning were not seriously injured. The car which was travelling from Rosslare to Cork crashed into a pole. There was no other vehicle involved.

CRAFT CLASSES

Mrs. Laura Laffan, Clashmore Village informs is that Craft Classes are to be held in Clashmore at her house on Tuesdays and Fridays, starting Friday, October 26 and Tuesday, October 30. Teacher of the classes is Eily O'Brien. The crafts will consist of Rushwork, Embroidery, Patchwork, Cushions, Poofs and Rugs. If you are interested please contact Margaret Walsh or Laura Laffan.

QUIZ

The Decies Lounge Table Quiz team captained by Tommy Joyce, and team members James Flavin, John Kiely and Christy Ormond, won the Table Quiz in aid of the Romanian Babies Fund on Saturday night last, October 13, at the Village Inn, Aghlish. The runners-up were Ann Curran's team, with Fawltty's, Cappoquin in third place.

Question Master was Michael Hennessy, Cork. Congratulations to the Decies team on their success.

SCHOOL MEETING

At the three-year meeting of the Parents Council and Board of Management of Clashmore National School on Monday night last, October 15, the parents elected Tom O'Keeffe and Mary Fleming to represent them on the Board of Management for the next three years. Mary and Tom did an excellent job over the past three years and we hope they will continue to do so in the future.

CLASHMORE A.C.T.

The first annual general meeting of Clashmore ACT was held recently at the Decies Bar. The meeting was chaired by Dr. Maurice Hurley, Consultant Radiotherapist at Cork Regional Hospital and was also attended by Bernice and Pat Ryan, Directors of ACT.

Dr. Hurley paid tribute to Clashmore ACT Branch and thanked them on their achievement of having raised £18,958 in the short period of time since the Branch was formed. He also stressed that the Radiotherapy Unit in Cork Regional Hospital has the most modern treatment available. At the moment a linear accelerator is being installed and the advanced treatment this machine provides is not available anywhere else in the 26 Counties. This is a marvellous achievement and also the fact that it's based in Cork cuts down on the long journeys that people from Munster would otherwise have to travel for treatment.

Without ACT there is no way this would have been possible.

The local ACT Committee elected are: President, Fr. M. O'Gorman, P.P.; Chairperson, John Trihy; Vice-Chairperson, Sean Foley; Secretary, Helen Trihy; Asst. Secretary, Margaret Walsh; Joint Treasurers, Kathleen Roche, Davey Foley; PRO's, Bernie Fleming, Garry O'Halloran.

Committee: Bobby and Ann Morrisson, Eamonn Beresford, Kathleen Dee, Denny Walsh, Bridie Foley, Madge Dee, Paud and Breda O'Keeffe, Peg and David Scanlan, Batt Curran, May Beresford, Sean Kearns, Pat Wilson, Davey and Margaret Walsh, Mary Douris, James Flavin, Dick Power, Roger Morrisson, John Motherway, Michael, Kit and Shirley Lombard, Kathleen Fleming, Christian Kyriacow, Maura Coughlan, Birdie Cunningham, Maureen Mason, Eilish O'Rourke, Niall Davis, Anna Morrisson.

The Chairman welcomed Fr. M. O'Gorman, P.P. to the parish and wished him well. The welcome to Fr. O'Gorman was endorsed by the ACT Committee.

The next committee meeting will be held at T. Beresford's on Saturday, November 3.

Ballyduff Needs A Public Toilet

Pointing out that a site was available, Cllr. Jimmy Quirke at the October monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held in Dungarvan last week, proposed that the Council erect a public toilet in Ballyduff as a matter of urgency.

Cllr. Quirke said that Ballyduff was a great fishing area to which many foreign anglers came to fish in the river Blackwater and when they came into the village it was very necessary for them to have a public toilet.

Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager, said that he proposed to submit a report on the provision of toilets around the county in general and the Council could then deal with the problem on that basis. "I would like to see public toilets erected in all places where they are necessary," said Mr. Hurley, "but it comes down to a question of money and if this is provided then we would most certainly go ahead."

No EC Funds For Waterford Coast Erosion

The European Commissioner for Regional Affairs, Mr. Bruce Millan has told Fine Gael M.E.P. John Cushnahan that there is no European funding for Waterford's problems of coastal erosion. The Munster M.E.P. says that it is now up to the Government to find the necessary funding from Ireland's doubled Structural fund allocation to prevent an even worse disaster occurring this year.

Ballyduff Notes

COMMUNITY COUNCIL

The annual general meeting of the above Council was held in the school on Monday, October 8. There was a full attendance of all members. The outgoing chairman; P. J. Aherne, in his address outlined the main activities during the year and thanked all members for their support and co-operation during his term of office. He said that we realised our main ambition during the year by seeing the reconstruction of the Hall completed. All that remains now is painting and decorating. We hope to re-open the hall for the usual card game on Wednesday, November 7. (See advertisement for details).

The Secretary, B. Hyland, in his report, outlined the fund raising activities during the year. Owing to the development of the Hall, our activities on the ground were smaller than usual. However, the greyhound meeting held in Youghal in May and our annual threshing held in the field this autumn, were outstanding successes. We will be repeating both of these events during the coming year.

The Treasurer, John Kearney, produced an excellent balance sheet, showing the Community Council had a surplus for the year of £17,000.

The following are the new officers elected for the coming year: President, Jerry Hickey; Patron, Rev. Fr. K. Mulcahy; Chairman, P. J. Aherne; Vice-Chairman, John Kenny; Secretary, Seamus Hyland; Asst. Secretary, Moira Quirke; Treasurer, John Kearney; Asst. Treasurer, Jack Fuller; PRO, Tim Barry.

PARISH MISSION

The Parish Mission which opened on Sunday night last has been attracting large crowds. It continues until Saturday night with the regular 8 p.m. Mass at the close of the Mission. Masses on Thursday and Friday at 7 a.m., 10 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. Masses on Saturday morning at 7 and 10 a.m.

The Mission is being given by Fr. Tony Flannery of the Redemptorist Order, Limerick.

MACRA NOTES

The Beef and Dairying Stockjudging will be held on November 1 in Kilmacthomas at Michael Keane's farm. A course will be held in Dungarvan in the near future as an aid to the above-mentioned. Points will be given to those who attend.

Last Saturday night we went to Conna for soccer in the sports complex. There was a good attendance.

The County Quiz Competition is on Friday, November 2, in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan. Anyone interested should contact Paddy Ahern. — PRO.

WEST WATERFORD REGIONAL PIONEERS

The annual general meeting of the West Waterford Regional Pioneers was held in Ballysaggart Hall on Monday, October 8. A very large crowd was present with a lot of the Centres being represented. Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were read to all present.

The election of officers for the coming year resulted as follows: Spiritual Director, Rev. Fr. K. Mulcahy; President/Chairman, Mr. Ken Begley; Vice-Chairman, Br. Boyd; Secretary, Miss Breda Carey; Treasurer, Mrs. Tessie Begley; PRO., Miss Martina Kearney.

Forthcoming events for November are: Regional level of Readoiri, provisionally booked for 9th or 16th November at 7.30 p.m. in Ballinroad Hall. Also our annual dinner dance for November 23 in Lawlor's. More details at our next monthly meeting. Venue: Stradbally Hall on November 5 at 8 p.m. — PRO.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

The photo for our "Remembering Other Days" this week goes back a long time to the days of long ago in Ring, Ballinagoul and Helvick. Where or when the photo was taken we have been unable to ascertain but the passage of time has seen all but three of the group "irithe ar shli na firinne, beannacht De ortha." Reading from left to right at the back are Pa Costin, Ellie Walsh, Deuglan O'Reagain, Maggie Drummey-Whelan, Tom Kelly, Willie Tooin, Bill Nagle, Nick Walsh, Danny Mahoney, Deug Shanahan; in front is an unidentified garsun, probably one of the Mahan family with Willie Walsh and Willie Kelly.

Must Pay Compensation For Damaging Public Property

District Justice W. F. O'Connell at Dungarvan Court last week condemned the vandalism in Dungarvan of trees and shrubs which had been put there to improve the environment and the town surroundings.

He was dealing with a charge of malicious damage to trees and shrubs at the Causeway Park, Abbeyside, on May 15 last, valued at £60, the property of the County Manager.

Supt. R. McAndrew who prosecuted stated that on May 15 last the defendant and a number of other youths damaged six 4-year-old willow trees in the Park. He added that from what he knew, the defendant was not the ringleader of the group, a number of whom had already been dealt with by the Court in the matter.

Mr. Niall King, Solr., who was assigned to represent the defendant under the free legal aid scheme said that O'Sullivan claimed that he hadn't damaged the trees but had walked on the flower beds.

District Justice O'Connell pointing out that the defendant got the benefit of public funds as he was unemployed and was now afforded free legal aid having caused malicious damage to public property remarked, "the unfortunate public are three times losers in this regard and this cannot be tolerated."

Convicting the defendant as charged, the District Justice imposed a fine of £20 (only because he was one of the least culpable) and ordered that he pay £30 compensation towards the damage caused. He allowed the defendant a period of two months in which to pay the fine and compensation.

The death in Clonmel last week of John Canon Power was the occasion of much sadness in the area. At the time of his retirement from the priesthood Canon Power was P.P. of Lismore/Ballysaggart in which position he made for himself many friends with his gentle, unassuming manner. May he rest in peace.

Opted For Jury Trial On Larceny Charges

When Tony Riordan and Frank Keniry both of Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, appeared before District Justice W. F. O'Connell at Dungarvan Court last week on charges of entering the dwelling-house of Carol Fraher, Shandon, Dungarvan and stealing a radio cassette value £189 and with receiving it known it to have been stolen, they pleaded not guilty and opted for trial by jury.

On the application of Supt. R. McAndrew who prosecuted both defendants who were before the court on bail were remanded on continuing bail until the first court in November to enable the Book of Evidence to be prepared.

Dangerous Bends On Dromana Road

Cllr. Paddy Kenneally moved a motion at the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held in Dungarvan last week calling on the Council to widen the dangerous bends on the Dromana Road in the interest of road safety.

When the Co. Engineer, Mr. J. O'Flynn stated that there was no money available for the removal of road bends, Cllr. Kenneally pointed out that the work in-involved would mean only the cutting away of excess foliage at and around the bends.

Mr. O'Flynn then said that he would have the position examined on this basis.

Pets that sleep through the winter

Those of you who have a tortoise as a pet will know that they survive the winter by hibernating.

This means that they — in common with many other creatures — find shelter in which to go to sleep as winter approaches, and stay asleep until the warmth of spring wakes them up.

Hibernating animals include frogs, toads, lizards, dormice, tortoises, hedgehogs, squirrels, bats and snails.

Some of them find shelter for the winter underground or at the base of hedges and trees.

In preparation for a long winter the animals store up sugar and nourishment in their bodies from the food they eat during the summer.

While they are hibernating the animals seem to be completely lifeless because they breathe so slowly. They also feel cold to the touch.

You might think that these animals would be glad if the winter weather was rather mild, but this is not the case. Mild weather in the middle of winter encourages them to wake up, but that leads them to start moving around, which uses up the energy they have stored and means that when spring time eventually arrives, the animals are a lot thinner than they ought to be.

The first wheel

The wheel is probably the most important invention ever made by man, as most other progress would have been impossible without it.

The earliest wheels discovered so far are believed to date from about 3,500 BC and were found in Mesopotamia. They were made from wooden planks, held together with copper clasps. However, there is no evidence of a wheel with proper spokes until at least 1,500 years later. This type of wheel was also found in Mesopotamia, as well as Turkey and Iran.

By the 15th century BC spoked wheels were commonly used on chariots in Egypt, Syria and other Mediterranean countries.

You could receive some overtime pay this week. It may have completely slipped your mind — but don't spoil loved ones, even if they are giving you a hard time. Romance should go with a swing around mid-week. You feel very enthusiastic about a new boy/girlfriend — or perhaps just a new platonic relationship.

A time for planning — any kind of planning, but more especially anything in connection with others at home. For those of you who want to acquire property, a week when what's desirable comes to your attention by chance — and you stand a good chance of getting it if you take prompt action.

A new contract becomes available to you around this time. Very good week for seeking benefits from official sources. The stars also favour those of you seeking membership of clubs, societies or other organised bodies. Eventful time socially; invitations from new friends forthcoming now; could lead to visiting unfamiliar places.

A week which will bring pleasant surprises to relieve the monotony of the commonplace. Be quick to take full advantage of what the Cosmos has to offer — especially in accepting invitations, and opportunities to move in new social circles. Business-wise a good time to join a syndicate.

Don't overdo things, as you may not have your usual amount of energy. A lazy weekend would do you the world of good. Exciting news from far away could put an encouraging light on something you've been planning recently. Throughout the week you'll feel determined to improve money matters.

A very good time for making a start on anything new; no need to hide your light under a bushel this week — the more attention you draw to yourself, your views on life, your progressive and humanitarian view, the better. There's a strong emphasis on happy family life.

A time for planning — any type of planning, but more especially for planning anything in conjunction with others at home. For those of you who would like to acquire property, hold off for now; the stars will be better positioned for such activities next month.

If feeling adventurous, now is the time to get off the beaten track and explore unfamiliar territory. Ideas racing through your mind have the stamp of originality on them, so give them a try-out. Opportunity could beckon from abroad — especially for those of you looking around for potential profitable stocks and shares.

Financially, likely to be a peak week of 1990 — with more gained than expected. You'll be coming more and more to the fore at your place of work, adding to your prestige there. Socially, prospects are exciting, with entertainment on grand scale. In fact, expansion in all directions seems to be the order of the week.

You get the green light this week — the all-clear signal for speeding ahead in any new direction which appeals to you. Plan your future on new lines now, as new vistas are opening up before your eyes. These may have to do with people or concerns abroad — or at least at a far distance from your present background.

It's what is going on behind the scenes which is important this week — this could do so much to lend support to the plans you have for self advancement. If you're connected with any large organisation, changes that are in the offing there will work to your advantage. Take-overs, or mergers, could be imminent.

Get ahead with the essential tasks early — then get ready to have fun for the remainder of the week. See that you are stocked with food and drinks, for some unexpected guests are a possibility. Sports activities, outings with youngsters, etc., are especially well starred.

Hallowe'en Cabaret

Dungarvan Lions Club proudly present their annual Halloween Cabaret in the Park Hotel, Dungarvan on Wednesday, October 31, 1990. This promises to be one of the highlights of the 1990 social calendar with top quality entertainment plus a great range of wonderful prizes to be won.

Top of the bill is Ireland's newest recording stars Logue & McCool recent winners of "Live at Three" Talent Competition. From busking in Belfast to winning a top T.V. Talent Show, to recording in Nashville, success has been almost instantaneous for this talented and unique duo from Derry. We stress the word "unique" for a reason because they both overcame physical handicaps to become overnight stars, Pat McCool is confined to a wheelchair while Chris Logue is blind from birth. Their tight harmony work on "This is where the cowboy rides away" was one of the highlights of their performance on the "Live at Three" talent competition and of course this song was later recorded and went on to be a big hit for them. Also appearing in this year's cabaret are top country and western group Patrice & Tulsa Bank who are sure to have a big following. Comedian and M.C. for the night will be one of Waterford's Top Artistes, the one and only Eddie Wymberry. This promises to be a great night's entertainment and judging by the demand for tickets for last year's cabaret you are advised to purchase your ticket early and so ensure your seat for this great Cabaret night.

Tickets costing £5 each are now available from Trustee Savings Bank, Arch Fashions, Matt Connolly Chemist and Richard Dalton Jewellers.

DRAW

In conjunction with the cabaret we are again running a Super Halloween Draw. Prizes range from a Mitsubishi Television and Video combined value £900 kindly sponsored by Ben O'Neill, O'Connell Street and weekends away for two in top class hotels in Dublin, Cork, Castle-townroche and West of Ireland, dinner for two in Jury's Hotel, Waterford, dinner for two in Park Hotel, Dungarvan, shopping voucher at Shaws, Dungarvan and bronze Rynhart figure sponsored by Richard Dalton Jewellers. The Lions Club are deeply indebted to all our sponsors of our Annual Halloween Cabaret.

I think you will agree that there are fabulous prizes on offer this year and tickets are now on sale from any Lions Club members or from Trustee Savings Bank, Arch Fashions, Matt Connolly Chemist and Richard Dalton Jewellers. Tickets cost £1 each and a book of six for £5, surely great value for the vast array of prizes on offer.

Regular patrons of the Lions Halloween Cabaret will note that this year we have moved to the function room of the new luxurious Park Hotel, Dungarvan. The room will be fully heated and full bar facilities provided. The Cabaret commences at 8.15 p.m. sharp.

All proceeds from this Cabaret including draw go towards Lions Christmas Children's Funds and other Lions Charities. So as well as having a super night on Wednesday, October 31 you are also helping many deserving causes.

Don't forget to make a note of this date for the greatest Cabaret entertainment this year. — (P.R.O.)

They Won A "McDonnell Good Food Cook Book"

The five winners of our competition run in the "Leader" in conjunction with W. & C. McDonnell in our issue of October 5 were Mrs. Mollie Beston, Friar's Walk, Abbeyside; Mrs. Anne Marie Brown, Rathmeaden, Kilmacthomas; Breeda Clancy, Coole, Lismore; Catherine S. Thomsen, Strandside North, Abbeyside; Mrs. Mary Batty, Old Road, Kilmacthomas.

Each will receive a copy of "The Best of McDonnells Good Food Cook Books" by Paula Daly on calling to the "Leader" Office, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan during office hours.

We wish to thank all the readers from all over the county who took part in the competition.

Abbeyside Scout Notes

FRIDAY'S PARADE

At the parade on Friday we had a small turnout. There was no Mass so instead we went to Benediction. Thomas Moore and Donnacha Cosgrave were servers.

SATURDAY'S MEETING

The meeting began at 7 p.m. and while the patrols revised the rules of First Aid and the treatment of minor injuries, subs were collected. Anthony Hackett is back with us along with Conor Foley. Then we had a quick game of "farmer in the orchard" with Robert Curran finding out he isn't as fast as he thought. After this we had some relays with the fireman's lift and sling tying. Most of the lads managed this and Martin Whelan proved he can tie a black knot.

Then it was time for the ghost story with some weird noises coming from the Eagle patrol as the patrols added their own sound effects.

Alan Ryan took the floor next and everybody got down for a game of crab soccer. Smiley saved a goal "Maradona style" and a penalty was given against him. It nearly cost his team the match, but they made it to the final nevertheless. The meeting then finished with prayers and everybody rushed out (to watch the wrestling at Paddy's house?)

Novena

THANKSGIVING to St. Jude for favours received. Publication promised.

NOVENA — May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be praised, adored and glorified throughout the whole world, now and forever. Amen. Say six times a day for nine days. It will be answered. Publication promised.

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN (Never known to fail)
— O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendour of heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine.
The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favour is granted. Grateful thanks to the Blessed Virgin for favour received. — F.M.

In Memoriam

AHERN — Thirteenth Anniversary — In loving memory of our dear father, Jeremiah Ahern, late of Kilwinny, Tallow, who died on October 19, 1977. On his soul sweet Jesus have mercy. R.I.P.

Will those who think of him today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by your loving family.)

CASHEL — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of Michael Cashel, Coolisheal, Ballyduff, who died on October 19, 1987. R.I.P.

You always had a smile to share,
Time to give and time to care,
Your loving nature, your heart of gold,
These are the memories I tenderly hold.
(Sadly missed by your loving wife, Nora.)

CASHEL — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of our dear dad, Michael Cashel, late of Coolisheal, Ballyduff, who died on October 19, 1987.

This day is remembered and quietly kept,
Of a dad we loved and will never forget.

(Sadly missed by your loving daughter Mamie, son-in-law Michael, grandchildren Noreen, Nuala and Patrick.)

CONNORS — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of our dear friend, Seamus, late of Seapark, Abbeyside, who died on October 10, 1988. R.I.P. Masses offered.

Our gift to you is a loving prayer,
That God may keep you in His loving care.
(Always remembered by Gerard, John McGovern and family.)

CROTTY — Treasured memories of our dear mother, Bridget, late of 17 Mitchel Street, Dungarvan, whose anniversary occurs at this time.

Sweet are the memories we have kept,
Of a mother we loved and will never forget.
Will those who think of her today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Inserted by her sons and daughters)

FLYNN — Eighth Anniversary — In loving memory of Michael Flynn, late of Ballynoe East, Cappoquin, who died on October 18, 1982. R.I.P. Masses offered.

The years are quietly passing,
But still we don't forget,
The hearts that loved you dearly,
Are the ones that won't forget.

(Sadly missed by your loving wife Josie, daughters Sr. Caroline and Alice, son-in-law Patie and grandchildren Michael and Caroline.)

HAYES — Twentieth Anniversary — In loving memory of James Hayes, late of London and Dungarvan, who died October 17, 1970. R.I.P. Lord have mercy on his soul. Masses offered.

Will those who think of him today,
A small prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered — wife Josie and family, London.)

HAYES — Twentieth Anniversary — In loving memory of Dad, James Hayes, late of London and Dungarvan, who died October 17, 1970. R.I.P. Lord have mercy on his soul. Masses offered.

You only have one father,
Patient, kind and true,
No other friend in all the world,
Will be as good as you.
(Never forgotten — your loving daughter Babs, son-in-law Vic, grand-daughters Danielle and Joanne, London.)

HAYES — Twentieth Anniversary — In loving memory of Dad, James Hayes, late of London and Dungarvan, who died October 17, 1970. R.I.P. Eternal rest give him O Lord. Masses offered.

We think of you always,
We talk about you still,
You'll never be forgotten,
You know you never will.
(Sadly missed — son James, daughter-in-law Peggy, grandsons James and Mark, London.)

LYONS — Seventh Anniversary — In loving memory of Michael Lyons, late of Caseyville, Dungarvan, who died October 15, 1983. Masses offered.

Will those who think of him today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by your wife Madge and family at home and away.)

MCCARTHY — Thirty-first Anniversary — Treasured memories today and always of our dearest mother, Mary C. McCarthy, late of 18 St. Thomas's Terrace, Dungarvan and relict of Thomas McCarthy, U.D.C., who died on October 15, 1959, also our grandmother, Mary Duggan, late of O'Connell Street, whose anniversary occurs. On their souls sweet Jesus have mercy. R.I.P. Masses offered.

Our dearest wish today,
Mam,
We know will not come true,
We wish for the impossible,
For yesterday and you.
So keep Your arms around her, Lord,
Treat her with special care,
Make up for all she suffered,
And all that seemed unfair.
In heaven you rest, Mam,
No worries, no pain,
In God's own time,
We will meet again.
Simple words but very true,
We will always love and remember you.

Will those who think of our Mam today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always in our thoughts and prayers — Kitty and Philomena.)

MCCARTHY — Thirty-first Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Mary C. McCarthy, late of 18 St. Thomas's Terrace, Dungarvan, who died on October 15, 1959. On her soul sweet Jesus have mercy. Masses offered.

Time may pass and fade away,
But silent thoughts and memories stay,
No longer in our lives to share,
But in our hearts you are always there.

(Never forgotten by your loving daughter Mary and grandchildren.)

NEEDHAM — Eighth Anniversary — In loving memory of Margaret Needham, late of Murphy Place, Abbeyside, who died on October 20, 1983. R.I.P.

A mother's love is something,
That no one can explain,
It's made of deep devotion,
Of sacrifice and pain.
A mother's love is all of these things,
It's the greatest treasure known,
And the greatest mother in all the world,
Is the one I called my own.
(Always remembered by your loving son Michael, daughter-in-law Mary and grandchildren.)

NUGENT — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of Paddy, Ballycreen, Ring, who died on October 17, 1985. R.I.P. Masses offered.

Paddy, we think of you always,
We talk about you still,
You haven't been forgotten,
You know you never will.
(Always remembered by his wife Eileen and family Ann, Terry, Kay, Pat and Noel.)

POWER — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear father, James Power, late of Congress Villas, Dungarvan, who died on October 20, 1989. Masses offered.

Will those who think of him today,
(Always remembered by Pat, Marion, Colin and Damien.)

POWER — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear father, James (Jimmy) Power, late of Congress Villas, Dungarvan, who died on October 20, 1989. Masses offered. Anniversary Mass Sunday at St. Mary's Parish Church at 9 a.m.

A bouquet of beautiful memories,
Sprayed with a million tears,
Wishing God could have spared you,
If just for a few more years.
(Never forgotten by James, Eileen, Kieran, Edel and Eamonn.)

RYAN — In loving memory of my dear parents, John and Ellen Ryan, late of Knockaun, Cappagh, whose anniversaries occur on October 19 and November 21. Masses offered.

If I could have just one wish,
Here's what I would say,
I'd ask to have my parents back,
Just like the good old days.
I never ask for miracles,
But today one would do,
To have my front door open,
And to see my mother and father walk through.

(Never forgotten by Michael, Maura and family.)

VEALE — In loving memory of James and Mary Veale, 55 Congress Villas, Dungarvan, whose anniversaries occur. Masses offered.

Will those who think of them today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.

(Always remembered by their family at home and in England.)

WHELAN — Sixth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Annette Whelan, late of 54 Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, who died on October 19, 1984. Mass offered.

In the quiet of the evening,
I sit and think of you,
Turning a book of memories,
Of things we used to do.
As I turn the pages,
My eyes are dimmed with tears,
Knowing I have the memories,
But can't bring back the years.
I wish that I could see you,
Mam,
Sitting in your chair,
I wish that I could go back home,
And find you waiting there.
All life's richest joys and treasures,
Are really not worthwhile,
When the greatest treasure missing,
Is that wonderful mother of mine.
(Sadly missed by her loving daughter June, son-in-law Monnie and grand-daughter Helen.)

WHELAN — Sixth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Annette Whelan, late of Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, who died on October 19, 1984.

A mother's love is something
That no one can explain,
It's made of deep devotion,
Of sacrifice and pain.
A mother's love is all of these things,
It's the greatest treasure known,
And the greatest mother in all the world,
Is the one I called my own.
(Always loved and never forgotten by your loving daughter Ann, son-in-law Jim, grandsons John, Jimmy and David.)

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

U-12 H.C. Western Final

Tallow 3-3 Cappoquin 1-2

Tallow under-12s won a great game of hurling against Cappoquin at Ballyduff recently by 7 points. Cappoquin had the use of the wind in the first half and led by 1-1 to no score for Tallow. A break down the field and Paul Cronin had the ball in the Cappoquin net. A further point for Cappoquin had them leading by 1-2 to 1-0 at half time.

The Tallow lads took over completely in the second half. Two points from Stephen Curley levelled it and James Murray's point had us ahead and from this position we never looked back. Barry Power goaled and then added a second major and it was all over.

This was a marvellous team performance. Roy Henley in goal never put a foot wrong. In front of him, captain Tom Mulcahy was rock solid as were the corner backs, but it was the half backline that really put up the shutters and the introduction of Dan O'Brien made this line very solid with Mark Fraser our best player, who denied Cappoquin the vital scores.

At midfield, Stephen Curley and Johnny Barry hurled really well. The second half introduction of Billy Henley paved the way for victory, ably assisted by Paul Cronin, Alan McCarthy, Jason Prescod, Johnny McCarthy, Barry Power and James Murray.

This was a great victory and special thanks to the mentors Ned Power and Billy Sheehan.

MFC (B) Western Semi-final:

Tallow 2-8

Stradbally 1-5

Tallow minor footballers qualified for the divisional final on Saturday next against Naomh Brid with a clearcut win over Stradbally on Sunday last in Dungarvan by six points. Leading by 2-4 to 0-1 at half time and with most of the good work done in the first half, they won by 2-8 to 1-5.

Team — John Paul Grey, Florence O'Gorman, Daniel McGrath, Denis Martin, James Beecher, Colin Cunningham, David O'Regan, Ian MacKintosh, Paul Mc-Donnell, Peter Henley, David Doyle, Denis O'Flaherty, Clive Barry (Capt.), Gary Ahearne, Steven Hampton. Subs — Jerry O'Brien and Gary Henley.

Fixture — MFC (B) Western final in Dungarvan at 2 p.m. on Saturday next against Naomh Brid. All players to be at the Square at 1.15 p.m.

An important committee meeting will take place on this Thursday night, October 18, in the Hotel at 8.45 p.m. All committee members please note. A senior hurlers players meeting will take place on Saturday next, October 20, in the Hotel at 8.15 p.m. to review the year past and plan ahead for next year.

Congratulations to Paul Curley and Dermot Henley who are on the Waterford senior hurling panel, and also to Ned Power who is assistant coach as well as a selector with Joe McGrath. Well done to all concerned.

Cunnigar Pitch & Putt Notes

The weather is continuing fairly well to be a friend to the players who come to the course day after day in happy pursuit of "that little white pill." Our course is continuing to give endless enjoyment and relaxation day after day. Even now with the days growing so noticeably shorter we find quite a few players having more than one game each day. Dedication and appreciation sums it up.

Construction of the shelters is already underway. The shelters when finished will be a most welcome asset to the course.

Our Sunday Sweepstakes are proving very popular and very well supported. On the first Sunday, October 7 Michael Healy was 1st (bit of a dark horse, must keep an eye on him), Percy Walsh 2nd and Michael Delaney 3rd (what happened Michael?)

Incidentally Michael is our representative on the County Board and we know that it would be hard to find anyone better able to look after the good of the game in general and the good of the club in particular.

Regarding tournaments, it is proposed to hold a special committee meeting shortly to make out our tournament list for 1991 — so if you wish to become involved through sponsorship we will be only too pleased to hear from you.

The organising of coaching lessons is another matter that has been occupying our minds and we are now planning to provide a series of sessions commencing Saturday, November 3 from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Those interested may leave their names with P. J. Delaney in the clubhouse (did you know that P. J. is running in the Dublin Marathon on October 29). He is running for a very worthy cause, so don't be backward in coming forward in supporting his efforts and fill his sponsorship cards.

Winner of last week's Sunday tournament was Mark Drummy with Michael Delaney 2nd and Kevin Hayes 3rd. — TOVID.

ECUMENICAL SERVICE AND DINNER

To celebrate the 80th birthday of the Irish Countrywomen's Association, Waterford Federation, held an Ecumenical Service with dinner and entertainment on Wednesday, October 10. Many of our members attended this important event.

Bus Eireann informed us that a new service from Limerick to Dungarvan (return) was to commence on Friday, October 12. Our guild was delighted with this as it was our efforts that secured this service. We hope the community will find it useful and make it a viable route for Bus Eireann.

We congratulate Eileen Dalton on her success so far in Guaranteed Irish Salesperson of the Year competition and we wish her further success in the National final for which she has now qualified. This is a great honour for our town as Eileen is following in the footsteps of last year's winner, Georgina Quinn. Good luck Eileen in the final.

Cappoquin/Ballinameela Athletic Club

On Sunday last the club travelled to Ballygunner for the second leg of the County Cross Country Championships. We had four individual winners:

CAMOGIE

Gallant Gaultier Take Title

Gaultier 3-3 Lismore 2-0

What a year it has been for Gaultier, for on Saturday week last at Abbeyside GAA pitch they retained their under-18 crown in most convincing fashion when they beat Lismore by 3-3 to 2-0.

Playing against the strong wind, Gaultier took the game to Lismore and despite having a player sent off, led by 1-1 to 1-0 at half time. Despite numerical advantage, Lismore failed to contain Gaultier in the second half and they tacked on 2-2 to 1-0 for Lismore to run out deserving winners.

Lismore — Caroline Ormond, Deirdre Hickey, Marie Caples, Ciara Murphy, Maud Cunningham, Gerardine Barry, Bernadette O'Keefe, Bernadette Daly, Lily McCarthy, Brenda Barry, Siobhan O'Gorman, Michelle Kenneally. Subs

— Emma Dunne, Melanie O'Reilly, Enda Ormonde, Claire Ahearne, Lynne Heaphy, Carmel Howard.

Gaultier — Rose Power, Lisa Whelan, Ruth Warren, Sinead O'Sullivan, Roisin Hartley, Catherine Greene, Esther Murphy, Tina Hutchinson, Ciara McSweeney, Catherine Whitty, Claire Kelly, Sonya Acheson. Subs — Charlotte Brenner, Jackie Horgan, Laura Tritchelor.

CORK V. WATERFORD

Waterford made the long trip to Faralea, Cork on Sunday week in vain. We were soundly beaten by the girls from the Lee.

Notai CLG An tSean Phobail

Results of the progressive 45 drive in the Marine Bar last Wednesday night were: on 10 games, B. Walsh and A. Hourigan. The jackpot is £280 on 12 games. In charge of the cards this month are J. Kirwan, M. Hogan, T. Power, M. Mahoney.

Naomh Brid 1-7, An Gaeltacht 2-1 — Last Saturday afternoon An Gaeltacht played Naomh Brid in the Minor "B" football championship. We played against the wind in the first half and Naomh Brid lead us by four points at half time. In the second half we got into the game more and scored two good goals and went in front. But Naomh Brid had the last say with a goal and time ran out on us.

The team was: S. Ceitinn, P. de Faoite, S. O Cuirrin, C. de Faoite, C. de Paor, P. O Foghlu, T. O Harta, A O Suileabhain, E. O Cuirrin, S. O Harta, E. O Crottaigh, R. O Cuirrin, S. Mac Craith, R. O Harta, K. Gleeson. Subs — M. S. O Ceitinn for K. Gleeson, L. O Muiri for R. O Cuirrin.

The under 12's played Shamrocks in An Rinn last Saturday morning. We won by two points.

The club will hold a supper dance in Whitechurch

House Hotel on Friday, October 26, at 8.30 p.m. Tickets can be had from any member of the committee. (Advt.)

It is with deep sadness we record the death of John Flynn, a native of Ballymacart, Old Parish, who died in Limerick on Monday, October 1. To his wife and family and to his brother Michael and family, we extend our deepest sympathy. Go ndeana Dia trocaire air. — Micheal Toibin PRO.

BIM Launches 1991 Seafood Calendar

BIM launched its new 1991 seafood calendar at a luncheon in the BIM Fish Cookery Centre last week.

The calendar, entitled "Fish in a Flash," features twelve different seafood recipes all of which can be prepared, cooked and served in a matter of minutes.

Phena O'Boyle, BIM's fish cookery expert, who compiled the calendar with Geraldine Lane, says that most people don't realise how quick and easy it is to cook fish, hence the emphasis on speed in the 1991 calendar.

The recipes cover a range of different seafood dishes including "Salmon with Spinach Dressing," "Brill Normandy Style," "Speedy Seafood with Stuffing" and "Smoked Fish Chowder."

For the more adventurous seafood eaters there is "Oriental Squid" and "Pan Fried Shark."

In addition to the recipes, the BIM 1991 calendar contains helpful advice on the different ways in which seafood can be cooked — poaching, stir frying, microwaving, steaming, shallow frying and grilling, are all covered.

TALLOW NOTES

MR. MICHAEL MULCAHY R.I.P.

The unexpected death of Mr. Michael (Mike) Mulcahy of Carrigannasa, Inch and Tallow, was greeted with a sadness and a sense of regret at losing another true Irish man. Mike who was in his eighty-ninth year was a successful athlete in his youth. All through his life he was a member of the F.F. party. He was President of the Youghal/Killeagh Comhairle Ceanntair.

The removal of the remains took place from Lismore Hospital on Thursday, October 11 to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow. Requiem Mass on Friday was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., Tallow during which funeral hymns were sung by his nephew Art Supple. A guard of honour from the church to the grave was formed by members of the Inch/Youghal/Killeagh and Lismore Comhairle Ceanntair, where an oration was given by Mr. Michael Aherne T.D.

END OF AN ERA

Michael Aherne said he was honoured to be given the opportunity to pay tribute to Michael Mulcahy. While his brother Arthur died for Ireland at the hand of the British Forces in 1921, Mike lived and worked for Ireland. Years before he met Mike he heard of him and as he got to know him he realised that Mike worked for the well being and betterment of his neighbours and countrymen. He worked in a totally unselfish manner never looking for reward or glory.

He was a true patriot serving for the good of his fellowmen and he would have no hesitation in recommending him as a shining example to the youth of today, of what patriotism really means.

It was, he said, the end of an era and Inch and Youghal/Killeagh Comhairle Ceanntair would be the poorer for his passing.

"Ar dheis De go raibh a Anam."

He is survived by his sister Mrs. Minnie Supple, Gortroe, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

Fr. Magner, C.C., Knockanore, assisted at the graveside.

Public representatives in attendance were Mr. Brendan Kenneally, T.D., Mr. Jackie Fahey, T.D., Mr. Ned O'Keefe, T.D., Cllr. Oliver Wilkinson and Cllr. Maurice Ahern.

ST. PATRICK'S PAROCHIAL HALL

Results of card drive — 1st Sadie Geary and Toinette Tobin; 2nd/3rd divided between Liam O'Brien and Bridie McNamara, Sean Coady and Jimmy Rohan, David Mangan and Richard Tobin. Table Prizes — Maura

Murray and Peg Morrissey, John Grey and Noel Buckley. Results of Raffle — 1st Colin Sice, 2nd Pad Hogan, 3rd Maura Lyons.

The annual Sale of Work will take place on Friday next, October 19. Doors open at 8 p.m. Items for the sale may be handed in at the Hall on Thursday night between 8 to 10.30 p.m. Cakes, fruit, vegetables, etc. and as usual a crack at the spinner. — P.R.O.

SQUASH CLUB NOTES

A.I.B. League — This Saturday night, October 20 is the last night for entries for the A.I.B. League. The draw for teams will take place on Monday night. This is the first league of the season and is always one of the best sponsored leagues. Our thanks to Mr. Michael Fives and his staff. Now it is up to you to give it the support it deserves. If you have your name down, well done, if not, do so now, on the time sheet in the Squash Courts before the weekend.

The competition will be a team event, both ladies and gents and also juniors and you will be playing someone of your own standard. You will be playing one match a week for four weeks. The finals are fixed for November 24 after which we will have a little party.

Improvements — At the moment the men's and ladies dressing rooms are undergoing a big overhaul. New shower units are being installed in both dressing rooms, so we apologise to all for any inconvenience caused. The old showers are still in use, until we are ready for the switch over. Paddy and Aidan tell me it should be ready in a week or so.

Until next week — Hand Out.

TALLOW BADMINTON NOTES

The season has started again for our players and the gents section B team are the only ones in action at the moment as the mixed league won't be starting until after Christmas. The lads played Touraneena away on Thursday night last and got a very creditable 2-2 draw.

Team — John Pratt, Michael Cunningham, Pat Sheehan and Colin Cunningham. On this Monday night they are hosts to Waterford in Tallow.

MRS. NORA COUGHLAN, CURRAGLASS

We record with regret the death of Mrs. Nora Coughlan, Curraglass, which occurred at the Mercy Hospital, Cork, recently. Predeceased by her husband Michael many years ago, Nora was held in high esteem in the district where she was regarded as a kindly and helpful neighbour always, and we offer our deepest sympathy to her daughters, sons, grandchildren, sons-in-law, brothers, sister, relatives and friends.

She was interred in Mogeely North Cemetery.

Ex-COMMDT.

SEOSAMH O h-UIGIN, BALLYNOE, BALLYHOOLEY AND KILDARE

Ex-Commandant Joe Higgins who died at the Blackrock Clinic, was interred with military honours at Ballynoe Cemetery last Thursday week. He was younger son of the late Thomas and Mrs. Higgins, both national teachers. On his father's death at an early age, the family moved to Ballyhooley where the mother (O'Sullivan) taught school there, and Joe and elder brother Daithi attended also and later went to St. Colman's. Daithi went to Spain with the Irish Brigade during the Civil War and died in battle.

Joe went to Newbridge School and Blackrock College in turn, where he showed his athletic prowess, being capped for Leinster in rugby and also excelling at sprinting and football. He joined the Irish Army Cadets during the Emergency and was assigned to An Chead Cath., the Irish-speaking battalion at Renmore Barracks, Galway. He was transferred then as an officer to Ballincollig and there he became an outstanding player with the Cork City rugby club, Dolphin who had 10 representatives at his funeral.

He completed his army service in Dublin and at the Curragh and retired to the family home in Ballyhooley and more recently to Kildare.

He was actively engaged with many clubs over the years and was regarded as a most benevolent member in a quiet way. However, he was a controversial character, though amusing and like Goldsmith's Village Schoolmaster in conversation: "e'en tho' vanquished he could argue still."

His demise leaves a void in the many parts of the country where he was so well known and the large crowd that attended the Requiem Mass at Kildare, celebrated by his near cousin Fr. John O'Keefe, S.J., Limerick and again at Ballynoe Cemetery for his interment, testified to his great popularity and our happy memories of Joe Higgins will remain with us always. Fr. O'Keefe was assisted at the graveside by Fr. Buckley, C.C., Ballynoe and Fr. Neilus O'Flynn, P.P., Killavullen.

We express sincere sympathy to his cousins the O'Keefe family of Ballynoe as well as his other relatives and friends.

CONNA SENIOR CITIZENS ON T.V.

A bus conveyed approximately 50 members of the Conna Senior Citizens from Co. Cork to the "Live At 3" t.v. programme last Monday week and all agreed it was a most enjoyable event.

DICK KELLEHER, MELLIFONTSTOWN, BARTLEMY

The death took place last Wednesday at the Prairie House Nursing Home, Fermoy of Mr. Dick Kelleher, Mellifontstown, Bartlemy.

A very popular sporting enthusiast always, Dick never failed to attend most games over the years in the East Cork Division, and it must have given him great pleasure this year to see Cork bring off the double in hurling and football, as his late father and namesake, Richard Kelleher, played full back on the winning Cork senior football team in 1890, being also, a member of the Middleton county champions.

Dick's presence will be missed at future games, as he was a most consistent and happy supporter in triumph or defeat and our condolences are extended to the Morrisson families, Conna, the Higgins family, Aghern, other relatives and many friends.

Ar dheis laimh De go raibh a anam. After Requiem Mass in Bartlemy Church, interment took place in the nearby cemetery of Gurtroe.

YOUGHAL TRACK SUCCESS FOR CONNA OWNERS

Success beamed on two Conna dog owners at Youghal Greyhound Track last Friday night when Dave Barry's dog "Ted Said" came in first in the 325 (yards) at 2/1 and Sean Noonan's charge "Bye the Bride" completed the Conna double in 525 (yards) coming home at 3/1.

WALK

There was a pretty good response in the local parishes to the annual walk for the Conquer Cancer Campaign which took place last Sunday.

PIONEER TALENT COMPETITION

The above talent competition is billed for Castlemartyr Hall on Friday, November 9. It is for the U-18 age group and we hope they will respond well to the call. Information can be had concerning the event from the Regional Committee members.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A. NOTES

St. Catherine's 6-10 Cloyne 1-6 — In the above junior hurling league game at Ballynoe last Saturday evening the local team playing inspired hurling came out winners after a great competitive contest.

Ahead by 2-6 to 0-5 at the interval, Catherine's played much more determinedly on the resumption but met with stout resistance from the Cloyne boys, but in the last quarter Catherine's really got on top and coasted to an easy victory in the end to keep them secure in the competition.

St. Catherine's — John Hartnett, Kevin Galvin, Ted O'Leary, Billy Neville, Eppie Hartnett, Batty Sheehan, John McCarthy, Edward Sheehan, James Spillane, Anthony Clancy, Edmond Galvin, James Sheehan, Eddie O'Brien, Paddy O'Leary, Dessie O'Keefe. Subs. — Paul Higgins, Ger Morrisson (used).

Referee — Willie Coady, Middleton.

U-16 Hurling At Cobh — Catherine's were visitors to Cobh last Saturday for a hurling league tie. Short a couple of their regulars, though they weren't fully up to scratch they nevertheless acquitted themselves well but at the end of the day it was the homesters who emerged winners after a strenuous game.

Team — M. Dorgan, D. O'Neill, B. Noonan, R. Cotter, R. Hamilton, D. O'Neill, J. Sheehan, M. Lane, O. Lynch, B. Cotter, J. Lane, D. O'Connell, D. Lucey, T. Morrisson, K. Morrisson.

U-16 County Championship Semi-Final — Douglas is the venue for the above hurling semi-final next Saturday, between Newcestown and St. Catherine's and we wish them the best of luck.

MRS. MARGARET O'CONNELL, MOOREHILL & TALLOW

Profound regret was evoked in Tallow and the surrounding districts on the recent death of Mrs. Margaret O'Connell which occurred at her daughter's residence, Mrs. Mary O'Brien, Chapel Street, Tallow.

Formerly of Moorehill, she was predeceased by her husband Ned O'Brien 17 years ago. Having reached the fine aged of 91 years, she was held in high esteem by the people of Knockanore, Kilwatermoy and Tallow, whom she served diligently as district nurse for a period of 31 years, her work for the most part accomplished on a bicycle, or horse and trap.

Fully testifying to her popularity was the large concourse which attended her funeral. Her remains were received and blessed at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, by her grandson Rev. Eddie O'Brien (Deacon), assisted by Fr. Michael Walsh, P.P., Tallow, Fr. M. Mullins, St. John's College, Waterford, Fr. Pat Condon, Rathgormac. The interment took place in the adjoining cemetery after Concelebrated Mass on Monday, October 2. The chief celebrant was Fr. MacErlean, Drogheda, assisted by Fr. Walsh, Tallow, Fr. P. Condon, Rathgormac, Fr. P. Lloyd, Cappoquin, Fr. Jerry O'Connor, Ballybricken and Fr. Jerry Langford, Clonmel. Rev. Paul Mackey sang the psalms during the Mass.

We tender our deepest sympathy to her daughter Mrs. Mary O'Brien, son-in-law Tom O'Brien, grandchildren Eddie, Thomas and Margaret, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Cappoquin Proposal Would Not Be Suitable

The use of the toilets at the GAA pitch in Cappoquin as public toilets was suggested by Cllr. O. Wilkinson at the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held in Dungarvan last week when he proposed a motion calling on the Council to discuss with the Cappoquin GAA Club the possibility of a joint venture for the maintenance of the public toilets in Cappoquin.

Cllr. Wilkinson said that if some kind of joint venture could be worked out between the Council and the local GAA it might solve for the time being the urgent need of a public toilet in Cappoquin.

Replying to the proposal, the County Engineer,

Mr. John O'Flynn said he would not consider the set up at the GAA pitch in Cappoquin suitable for such a purpose nor would its location be central for the town and for these reasons he said that he would not be in favour of the proposal.

DIVISION 3

Ballinroad Work Hard For Victory

BALLINROAD 2 KILMACOW 1

Ballinroad gained two vital points from their clash with Kilmacow in Ballinroad on Saturday last. The windy conditions made life difficult for both teams but credit must be given to them for a hard fought game.

Ray Burke and Les De-lahunty scored for the home side, who after a disastrous start to the season have now pushed themselves into a challenging position in the league table.

Ballinroad — O'Connor, Lynch, O'Grady, Crotty, Hennessey, Ber Burke, Flynn, Ray Burke, De-lahunty, Power. Res. — Paul Tobin for Hennessey (inj.); Tommy Lenihan (not used).

Referee — Tom Browne.

Reds On Top In Local Derby

ABBEYSIDE 2 DUNGARVAN 1

In what was at times a very entertaining game Abbeyside came out on top after a great comeback when all seemed lost.

In what were extraordinary conditions, driving rain and a near gale force wind the Reds set about the Dungarvan citadel with great gusto and but for sterling defensive work by Cummins, Donnelly and co., the Villagers would have been well ahead by the 20th minute mark. Abbeyside's defence showed none of the generosity of previous games with debutante Tobin showing great confidence in the green jersey. Other new signings Kiely, Curran and returned Sean Woods also figured prominently in a half totally dominated by the Villagers.

However, despite the best efforts of Cosgrave, McGovern and Jim T. Kiely, Dungarvan held out. Half time score 0-0.

The second half began with Abbeyside on the attack and a drive by McGovern was just off target with Joe Wall well beaten. Abbeyside were rampant now, but time and time again the Dungarvan rear-guard repelled attacks. Then after 25 minutes in remarkable circumstances Dungarvan took the lead when a deflected cross from Sheehan fell into the path of "Dinger" Kenneally who smashed home from close range. After all the pressure Abbeyside were now in a dreadful position, a goal down and playing into a gale force wind. Managers Wade and O'Donnell withdrew John Curran and brought in young Sean James placing Joe O'Riordan at centre forward. It was a move which paid dividends, when Jim Kiely crossed from the right to O'Riordan who chested the ball down to Mulvihill who volleyed superbly home from 8 yards. Abbeyside were now totally in control and a new confidence filled their play.

It was no surprise when Joe O'Riordan surged to the end line and sent over a low cross to Jerome Kiely who steered the ball into the corner of the net with great aplomb. The home fans were now ecstatic at their teams revival. Shortly after F.I.F.A. panelist referee, Robin Finn blew the final whistle to signal another great derby victory for the Villagers.

Abbeyside — K. Tobin, M. O'Riordan, G. McGovern, S. Woods, J. O'Riordan, J. Curran, J. Kiely, M. Cosgrave, J. J. Kiely, F. McGovern, D. Mulvihill. Subs. — S. James for J. Curran, T. Cahill.

Abbeyside Schoolboys A.F.C. Notes

UNDER-15 T.S.B. LEAGUE

ABBEYSIDE 2, BOLTON 1

Last Saturday in very windy conditions, Abbeyside defeated league leaders Bolton in a highly competitive game.

The Villagers played with the wind in the first half and found ball control almost impossible. Most of the play was in the Bolton half and we missed a few goal chances. Then, against the run of play, Bolton scored when one of their players carried the ball from his own half, beating a slack defence five minutes before the break.

For the opening 10 minutes of the second half, with the breeze behind them, Bolton really put pressure on our back four of Kelleher, Higgins, Walsh and O'Rourke and with Gavin Keane playing well in goal they weathered the storm.

Derek Kenneally, operating at centre forward for this game, scored following good play by wingers B. Flynn and T. O'Mahoney. The winning goal came 8 minutes from time per Jason Donovan who had an outstanding game in mid-field.

Team — G. Keane, M. Kelleher, K. Higgins, T. Walsh, F. O'Rourke, C. Curran, J. Donovan, K. Curran, B. Flynn (Capt.), D. Kenneally, T. O'Mahoney. Res. used: P. O'Brien, J. Foley, A. Beatty.

Fixture: Under 13 SFAI Cup second round — Bolton v. Abbeyside, 10.30 a.m. on Saturday, October 27.

UNDER-13 LEAGUE

RAILWAY 3 WATERFORD GLASS 1

On Saturday last our Under-13 team played their second league game of the season, when they had city side, Waterford Glass at home. We started very well and went straight into attack. The Glass were strong at the back and also in the middle of the field. Caman Radley got a great individual goal to break the deadlock and he went on to make another and score another before the Glass scored late in the game.

The team played very well and looked a very balanced side.

Team — Glen Arrigan,

Stephen Quinn (capt.), Jim O'Connor, Michael Murphy, Niall Maher, Martin Ormonde, Mitchel Moynihan, James Manahan, Alan Barry, B. Landers, Caman Radley.

Referee — John Kenneally (Abbeyside).

Railway v. Dungarvan

Our Under-10 team played Dungarvan in a friendly on Saturday last. This team are preparing for the Under-11 league and Paddy Mason has a large panel. The team is coming together well and training will continue each Saturday at 2.30 p.m.

CHURCH GATE COLLECTION

On next weekend we will hold our annual church gate collection. This season we will have a lot of expense, so we would ask for your support.

Missed Chances Cost United

ABBEYSIDE 2 DUNGARVAN 1

The Blues league aspirations received a major set-back at "Dog Leaf" Park on Saturday evening last when they went under 2-1 to arch rivals Abbeyside.

This was a game that we never should have lost, after holding out against a gale force wind in the first half and then taking the lead early in the second. The Villagers began with the gale at their backs but it was Dungarvan who dominated the early exchanges and Abbeyside rarely threatened Wall in the visitors goal. Abbeyside came more into the game as the half progressed but Dungarvan's defence and midfield allowed them little room with "Crocker" and Donnelly in particular having sound games.

In the 25th minute Cosgrave broke through but his shot was well saved by Wall, minutes later a long ball from defence found McGovern and his shot was brilliantly tipped over by Wall. The visitors almost broke the deadlock just before the break when Kenneally's pass found Walsh and K. Wall was only inches away from his far post cross.

Having survived the first half gale with their citadel intact things looked good for the Blues on the change over and this was further emphasised when they took a deserved lead after an hour. Burke's throw was headed on by Sheehan to Wade who played the ball into Kenneally's path and he slipped the ball to the net past the advancing Tobin. The "Reds" to their credit refused to buckle and were right back in the game 10 minutes later when Cosgrave's cross was chested down by O'Riordan and "Muller" left Wall helpless with an unstoppable shot.

With the outcome now back in the melting pot the home side pushed forward in search of the lead and they were rewarded shortly after when a quick throw released O'Riordan and his cross was headed home by Kiely, despite the attentions of Wall and Walsh. This goal jolted the Blues out of their complacency and in the final 15 minute they laid siege to Abbeyside's goal in search of an equaliser. They almost got it when a great through ball from D. Crotty put Wade clear, but he shot straight at Tobin. Then Cummins and Walsh were narrowly wide with free-kicks before Walsh had the final chance when his long range effort whistled past Tobin's right hand post.

The Blues must learn that at this level of football, lack of concentration and failure to take your chances can prove fatal. Still it was not a bad showing from Dungarvan's second string who were short a number of regulars against the Villager's first team panel.

Dungarvan — J. Wall, G. Burke, M. Donnelly, M. Cummins, J. Walsh, D. Crotty, B. Wade, T. Kenneally, L. Crotty, K. Wall, B. Sheehan (capt.) Res. — J. W. Power for T. Kenneally.

FIXTURES

Grange United F.C. Notes

Grange travelled away to Piltown last Sunday to play the recently reformed local team in a friendly. This was not a game of fluent football but it did have its high points, mainly at the midway stage in the first half, when David Mansfield and Joe Salmon kept a tight grip on the centre of midfield.

Grange took the lead after 15 minutes when Declan Whelan drove the ball low to the corner of the net following a free-kick. Ten minutes later new signing Shane Reddy scored direct from a corner kick to put Grange 2-0 up. Piltown held on well for the remainder of the first half and the half-time score stood at 2-0.

Grange started well in the second half and added to their lead after 10 minutes when some good work in midfield by David Mansfield and David Condon lead to a Piltown defender conceding a penalty which Paul Brown slotted in. Grange held their grip on the game through to the half-way stage in the second half and scored a fourth goal through Huckle Manahan.

Team — A. O'Sullivan, M. Curran, P. Brown, P. Roche, D. Whelan, D. Mansfield, T. Keane, J. Salmon, D. Condon, P. Manahan, S. Reddy.

Star Performer — David Mansfield.

Youngsters Put On Good Show

DUNGARVAN 6 RAILWAY 0

The young boys of Railway were our guests on Saturday last for this U-10 challenge which the Blues won after a very good game of football. Railway had the better of the first half and it took some great defensive play by Owen Morrissey, Paul Foley, Ronan McCarthy, Colum Barry and keeper Brendan Horan, who was in great form to keep Railway at bay.

The Blues started the second half with Brendan O'Connor at centre forward and in the space of 10 minutes the bustling Brendan hit a hat-trick. A goal each from Ronan Keating, Ronan McCarthy and the hard running Vincent Sullivan wrapped up the game for the Blues.

With the quality of young players on view on Saturday, both clubs can look forward to a bright future.

Panel — Brendan Horan, Owen Morrissey, Paul Foley, Ronan McCarthy, Colum Barry, Warren Duggan, Michael Power, Vincent Sullivan, J. J. Kelleher, Mark Walsh, Garvan McCarthy, Liam Whelan, Alan Linnane, Stephen Murphy, Brendan O'Connor, Ronan Keating, Bernard Crotty.

U-15's

Progressing Well

Over recent weeks our U-15 side have commenced their league campaign and are progressing well.

In their first game they played Bohs away in Poleberry Park and after a very lack lustre performance were deservedly beaten 2-0.

Their next fixture was at home to Ferrybank which they won 3-1. The scorers were newcomer Barry Cliffe, Ml. Donnelly with a tremendous free-kick, and an own goal.

On Saturday, September 29 they defeated Villa 3-0 in the first round of the S.F.A.I. cup at Kilrush Park. Ml. Cowming, J. Hyslop and M. Hyslop

On Saturday last they took on Tramore at the seaside resort. The strong cross-field breeze made constructive football difficult and the Blues had to battle hard in this game. Dungarvan took the lead in the 29th minute when a B. Cliffe corner was met by A. Landers whose shot crashed off the crossbar, but Timmy Kiely was following up to tap home the opening goal. However, lack of concentration left Tramore in for the equaliser one minute later. Half time score Tramore 1 Dungarvan 1.

The Blues had the better of the exchanges in the opening period of the second half and came close to scoring on a number of occasions. The winning goal came in the 50th minute when another corner on the right was flicked in by the head of man of the match Timmy Kiely.

Dungarvan Panel — M. Cummins, M. Hyslop, R. Finnegan, B. Elstead, M. Cowming, J. Hyslop, A. Landers, T. Kiely, B. Cliffe, C. Walsh, M. Donnelly. Res. — C. Murphy for C. Walsh; O. Simms, D. Walsh, K. Tutty, M. Lynch.

International Football Focus

EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP

This Wednesday is another big test for Ireland and the home countries as they set out to try to qualify for Sweden in 1992.

Group 4 — Northern Ireland, already defeated by Yugoslavia, face a rebuilding Danish team at Windsor Park. Another home defeat would be disastrous for the North.

Group 5 — Wales, playing at Cardiff Arms Park against Belgium, must at least get a point to build on for tough games ahead.

Group 2 — Scotland, with 2 points already in the bag, face Switzerland, who, managed by former West German hard man Willie Stielike, will surely be happy with a draw, with the Scots doing everything for 2 more home points.

Group 7 — England and Graham Taylor's first competitive game brings Poland to Wembley. The Poles are a very inconsistent side, beaten last week 3-2 by the USA after going 3-0 down. If England are to progress from their World Cup standing they must beat Poland with a bit to spare.

Forecast: Northern Ireland, defeat; Wales, draw; Scotland, victory; England, victory.

GROUP 7 — IRELAND v. TURKEY

Former Danish World Cup Manager, the vastly experienced Sepp Piontix will be using most of the side that drew 0-0 with Ireland in a World Cup build-up game in June. Turkey have never beaten Ireland in Dublin, so Ireland must be firm favourites to gain two points and put us in good shape for England in November.

Previous home games against the Turks: October '75: 4-0 and April '78 4-2, have been high scoring and this is the test. To build on our strength defensively we must score goals, especially against the so-called weaker nations.

Ronnie Whelan (groin strain), Chris Morris (allergy), are out so that could mean a first competitive game for Denis Irwin of Man. United at right back. Midfield should see Kevin Sheedy in and the questions in the main are who plays up front.

Last week I mentioned Quinn and Kelly as the striking pair. Tony Cascarino played on Saturday for Aston Villa in a scoreless draw against Moscow Dynamo at Villa Park and this confirms his recovery from injury. John Aldridge's role for Ireland means he hadn't the chances he had to score like he had with Liverpool. I accept that, but he missed some good chances which (his hard work aside) is telling against him. Will Charlton go for a smaller, more mobile striker in tandem with the big Cascarino type? That's the choice, and weighing it all up, I feel the Irish team will line up like this: Bonner, Irwin, O'Leary, McCarthy, Staunton, Sheedy, McGrath, Townsend, Houghton, Quinn, Aldridge.

Personally, I'd like to see David Kelly in but Charlton may use him after an initial pounding of the Turkish defence. Three of the Irish defence could be coming into international football playing reserve football and knowing Charlton's reluctance to blood players in vital games, Chris Hughton could get the nod over Denis Irwin.

Lansdowne Road, newly grassed, will be under close scrutiny today, as will Ireland. Can we make it 22 games in Dublin without defeat? I think so, but a lot will depend on how we do it. With only one team going through from each group there is no room for mistakes. Charlton, with England due in Dublin on November 14, will want to start with a win.

JACK CHARLTON'S WORLD CUP DIARY

(Gill + MacMillan £6.99)

One interesting fact to emerge from Charlton's diary was that he did the F.A. Preliminary Coaching Badge when he was just 22 years of age.

Charlton says: "That went against the norm for young players in that era but for me, it was one of the best moves I ever made. Before long, I was coaching in the local schools after doing an hour long session before reporting for work at Elland Road. Killing free time is often a tricky exercise for young professional players. But while many of them were hanging around bookmakers offices and drinking coffee — I did a bit of that too — I was out and about coaching boys and making myself some extra money. I was earning somewhere between £17 and £20 a week at Leeds — a monthly cheque of £30 to £40 was very welcome indeed to a man with a young family. Apart from the money the experience of getting up on your feet and addressing people was invaluable."

A full F.A. Coaching Badge followed at Lilleshall and while there he first met up with Maurice Setters with whom he worked later on with English league clubs and of course Ireland.

David O'Leary — not surprisingly figures in the book where Charlton, not in a vindictive way, explains the events of the original refusal of O'Leary to play with Ireland. Explaining that the F.A.I. organisation at the time wasn't the best and it was late when the tournament in Iceland was confirmed, David O'Leary not picked originally was asked to travel as a late replacement.

"He told me he couldn't because he had arranged to take his family on holiday at the time of the tournament. I asked him to postpone the holiday but he said it was out of the question. Fair enough. But we went on to win the tournament and David O'Leary couldn't blame me for the fact that other players proceeded to stake compelling claims for the two positions in central defence."

Explaining that he had Mick McCarthy, Kevin Moran, Mark Lawrenson and Paul McGrath available for positions, he also has reservations about O'Leary fitting into Ireland's style of play.

"He is primarily a drop off player at Arsenal where Tony Adams makes the first contact and O'Leary fills the hole at the back. Our system is different. We require both our centre backs to go forward and make contact with the people in front of them. The ball which drops behind them then becomes the responsibility of the goalkeeper."

He is at pains to explain he has no feud with O'Leary, but isn't going to be "railroaded by anyone into playing him when I didn't consider that he would enhance the team at the particular time."

In finishing the chapter on the O'Leary controversy he talks of his experience of Alf Ramsey where he writes: "He was also among the first in the world to prove that the best eleven individuals do not, necessarily make up the best team. This philosophy is fairly common now, but 30 years ago it was still fairly innovative. It stood Ramsey and England in good stead and it's my philosophy now." — B.K.

GIRLS UNDER-12 WIN COUNTY TITLE

Pride of place this week goes to our girls under-12 team who won the Waterford Cross Country Championship at Ballygunner last Sunday. The girls u-10 team very nearly made it a double when they gave a great performance to finish a close second and the girls u-14 brought home the bronze medals with Geraldine Kiely having a fine run in second place.

In the boys races Mark Radley ran very well to take the u-14 title and he led his team to the silver medals. The boys u-12 were also second and the u-10 team won the bronze medals.

RESULTS

Girls U-12 County Champions — Patricia Cotter 5th, Lisa Power 7th, Andrea Travers 8th, Christine Sheehan 10th, Aileen Horgan 12th, Samantha Power 25th, Ann Marie Cullen 28th.

Dungarvan Badminton Club Notes

A GREAT START TO THE SEASON

Dungarvan's badminton players certainly made the club proud with nine teams in action last week. The results of these matches gave Dungarvan 5 wins and two draws and 2 defeats.

Jim Kiersey's team set the ball rolling with a 4/0 win against Dunmore East. John O'Riordan's team beat Dunmore East 3/1. Marie Kiersey's team won 4/0 against Waterford. Nuala Murphy's team drew 2/2 with Tramore GAA. Pat Lehane's team beat Lisamore 4/0.

Second XV Outpointed In League Tie

YOUGHAL 7 DUNGARVAN 0

Dungarvan's 2nd XV got little reward for a valiant effort in their opening league game played at Ballyrandle on Sunday last.

This was a game in which the home team, in particular the forwards, displayed fine commitment and effort, but could not match the overall organisation of a very good Youghal side.

The visitors led by an unconverted try at half-time and completed the scoring with a penalty goal in the second half.

Despite the result, Dungarvan can be reasonably happy with this their first outing of the new season. There were fine displays from Jim Power and Gavin

King in the pack, and Fergus Moloney and Sean Dower in the backs.

NO FIXTURE

The proposed friendly with Charleville failed to materialise, so the first XV had no fixture on Sunday last.

FIXTURE

Dungarvan Junior Hockey Notes

Group 3, Secondary School, 1st, 2nd and 3rd years, will be playing away on Saturday, October 20, at Loretto Convent, Clonmel. The bus will leave Minnies at 9.30 a.m. and will return between 1 and 1.30 p.m. Ann Bones and Louise Neylin will accompany the teams. Please bring £2 for the fare.

There will be no hockey practice on Saturday, October 27.

Punchestown Double For John Kiely

Popular Dungarvan trainer/rider John E. Kiely scored an outstanding double at Punchestown's all National Hunt programme last Thursday.

"No Desert" (11/4) in the colours of Mr. Michael D. O'Connor, Cappelquin, registered the first leg of the double when, piloted by John A. Flynn, he forced the pace from six out and went on for a good 6 lengths win in the Ingoldsby Steeplechase. Trainer Kiely went on to complete the double when "Young Ivan" (6/1) owned by Dungarvan solicitor, Mr. Eamonn P. King, dominated the opposition in the Herbertstown Hurdle and ran on for an easy 8 lengths win.

LADIES FOOTBALL

Ballymacarbry Win Four

In A Row

FERGUS ROVERS (Clare) 1-2

Ballymacarbry retained their Munster Club Championship crown with a clear cut victory over Clare champions Fergus Rovers in the Munster final at Cappamore (Limerick) on Sunday last. Played in atrocious conditions the issue was never in doubt and Ballymac' led 1-6 to 0-0 at the interval despite playing against a strong wind.

Fergus Rovers won the toss and elected to play with the breeze in the first half but it was the Waterford champions who took control and Marie Crotty opened the scoring in the third minute with a point from a free. She did likewise after six minutes and with Ballymac' on top at midfield the ball was continuously in the Clare half. It took some good defending by Fergus Rovers to keep the score down. Marie Crotty added two more points the second a magnificent effort from a difficult angle and when the ball came back off the crossbar in the 17th minute, Aine Wall crashed it to the net.

Marie Crotty pointed a free and Bernie Ryan had another in the 22nd minute. Then the rain came teaming down and made conditions difficult for both sides. A Fergus Rovers attack produced a good save from Patricia Butler and corner backs Regina Byrne and Dolores Tyrell snuffed out a number of attacks as Fergus Rovers at last came into the game.

The second half saw the rain continue. Fergus Rovers open their account with a point from a free in the 33rd minute, but Marie Crotty cancelled this out two minutes later.

ISSUED DECIDED

Although Fergus Rovers added another point the game was decided in the 42nd minute when a move involving six players ended with Catriona Casey getting possession twenty yards out and Catriona skipped around two tackles before crashing a great shot into the left hand corner of the net. Fergus Rovers to their credit never gave up and scored a late goal, but the game ended as it began, with Ballymac' on the attack.

The match was played as a curtain raiser to a Limerick Divisional junior hurling final and there was a fine attendance present for both games. When Ballymac' arrived at the venue three quarters of an hour before the start everything was in tip top shape and the scoreboard was in operation for the ladies game. We have visited Cappamore many times over the last five years and their officials deserve great praise for the way they treat us.

When Ballymac' look back on this game they will realise that although they won their fifth Munster title in six years, they were a long way from their best. They played good football in the first twenty minutes but after that they seemed to lose their way. The forward line scored only 1-2 between them and a repeat of this form in future will surely prove disastrous. In the All-Ireland semi-final they are away to either Adamstown (Wexford), or Rochford Bridge (Westmeath), who meet in the Leinster final on Sunday week. The All-Ireland semi-final is scheduled for Sunday, November 18.

FINE PERFORMANCES

On Sunday last there were fine performances from Regina Byrne and Dolores Tyrell, Catriona Casey in defence and attack. Ann Dunford, Marie Crotty who scored six excellent points and Mari O'Ryan who was the best player on the field. Overall there is plenty of room for improvement.

Team — Patricia Butler, Regina Byrne, Martina O'Ryan, Dolores Tyrell, Noirin Walsh, Catriona Casey (1-0), Ann Dunford, Marie Crotty (0-6), Mari O'Ryan, Aine Wall (1-0), Bernie Ryan (0-2) Cleona Walsh, Fiona Crotty, Geraldine O'Ryan, Deirdre Wall. Sub. — Ann Fitzpatrick.

Ballymacarbry defeated Na Deise 3-4 to 1-0 in the County Under-18 final at Modeligo on Sunday. Strong winds made good football impossible, Ballymac' led 0-4 to 0-0 at the interval and with the benefit of the wind scored three goals in the second half to ensure victory.

Clubs are reminded that a County Board meeting takes place this night (Wednesday, October 17) at 8.30 p.m. (note the time). A discussion on referees is on the agenda.

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. NOTES

FIRST IN 36 YEARS

The dream lives on. Kilmachomas was the setting last Sunday for a day of unbridled glory for our famous club as the senior footballers outscored St. Saviours by 2-10 to 1-10 to qualify for a county final meeting with Stradbally on Sunday week.

This was a vintage display by men who yearned for success and who were prepared to run until they dropped in pursuit of the cause. Trained to the proverbial tee by Finbarr Kelly, they ran St. Saviours ragged at times and looked every inch a side capable of regaining a title that was last ours in 1954.

To be fair to Saviours they accepted defeat with dignity and upheld the proud name of their club. But this was our day and our big support savoured every minute of a great day.

Our man of the match was unquestionably Hud Kelly whose display will rank with the best seen in the county this or any other year. But even Hud I'm sure will acknowledge that on the day every man in a blue jersey was a hero and contributed handsomely to a famous victory.

We now await the final with eagerness and with a determination that knows no bounds. We will go in as the very definite outsiders but then favourites don't always win. Just ask St. Saviours.

UNDER-21 FINAL

While most clubs are now in winter hibernation there's no championship respite for us. That of course is the price of success and we are eagerly looking forward to our Western Under-21 football final against old rivals Kilrossanty at Fraher Field on Saturday (3.15)

With two Western titles already in safe keeping we will pull out all the stops to complete the hat-trick. We will need to however because Kilrossanty as defending champions, and with a majority of last year's players still eligible, will take all the beating in the world.

It promises to be another exciting chapter in the great football rivalry between ourselves and Kilrossanty. And though we go into the fray as the very definite underdogs that is not to say we cannot, will not, pull it off. Good luck to the team.

A COSTLY EXERCISE

Winning championships has become a costly exercise. As indeed has the day to day running of our club. However, I'm sure no one will mind if at the end of the day one or two county titles can be won.

I make the point simply to say that club expenditure this year is likely to be an all time high. Fortunately our fundraising efforts are proving very successful.

UNDER-16 FIASCO

The news that we have been unceremoniously tufted out of the Under-16 "A" county football final just about represents the biggest travesty of justice ever perpetrated on any club in the county.

Simply because we couldn't play two football finals on the same afternoon at venues almost 30 miles apart the powers that be at underage level, the officer-ship of County Bord na nOg, has decided that we must be kicked out of the Under-16 final.

The other game involved was the minor football Western final. It mattered not, seemingly, to those in authority that we had nine players common to both teams.

Not even the great Houdini himself could have done what some GAA officers expected us to do on October 6 last. But now those same officers have decided to hand down the ultimate punishment.

It goes without saying that we will not let the matter rest. We have lodged an appeal against the Bord na nOg decision with the adult County Board. Meanwhile we can only hope that the real losers out of all this fiasco — the young players — will bear with us as we seek to rectify a horrific wrong.

GOOD WISHES

From everyone in the club best wishes are extended to Bridie Woods of Caseyville, who is recovering at home after sustaining a fall.

The Woods family have long been supportive of our club and we look forward to Bridie making the speediest of recoveries.

SHELBOURNE WINNER

It was a weekend to remember for our senior football coach David Kiely who has played such a key part in our advance to the county final.

Davi's brilliant greyhound "Miold Lady Belle" won the 750 marathon at Shelbourne Park last Saturday night in the superb time of 42.40 which is just half a length outside the track record.

This is "Miold Lady Belle's" 12th marathon win and David is looking forward to many more from his brilliant greyhound.

SPLENDID WIN

Our senior footballers had a great victory over champions Kilrossanty on Sunday last in the county semi-final on the score of 0-12 to 0-8. This was as good a performance as we have seen from the Reds in a long time with every member of the team playing excellent throughout the hour. The standard of football was high at all times, played at a fast pace, with some great passages of football. So now we are back again in the county final after a lapse of three years, and certainly we will give it a go.

CREDIT TO EVERYBODY

Last Sunday's success was a credit to trainer Sean Ahearne, fellow selectors Jim Skehan, Michael Coffey and most of all the panel of players who put in a great effort all through and all the officers and club members. It was a success for the whole club.

COUNTY FINAL — WALSH PARK

On Sunday week, October 28, we travel to Walsh Park to take on a very impressive Dungarvan team in the county final. If I am correct it will be the first meeting in a county senior final between the Reds and Blues since the 1939-'44 time and what a classic it should turn out to be. We will have more to say next week.

MINORS BEATEN

Our minor footballers were beaten in the Western semi-final on Sunday last on the score of 2-8 to 1-5 by a very strong Tallow team, who seemed to be a better balanced side. After getting off to a bad start, the Reds gradually came more into the game, but a serious injury to Fergal Gough did not help matters and so time ran out on the team.

The team was — P. Foley, N. Power, G. Keane, P. Flynn, A. Gough, N. Cusack, F. Gough, G. Walsh, R. Gough, J. Weldon, O. Costello, A. Curran, M. Barnes, J. Hickey, E. Clancy. Sub. — A. Sweeney for F. Gough.

GOOD SHOWING

Our Under-12 footballers put up a great performance before going under to a very strong St. Patrick's team last week — but certainly we are improving with every outing.

Team was — S. Keane, P. Keane, P. Kiely, D. Power, R. Cunningham, N. Thompson, J. Coffey, J. Hearne, B. Clancy, B. Curran, N. Curran, T. Curran, E. Cunningham, J. Thompson, C. Dee.

Our underage player Fergal Gough suffered a serious shoulder injury during the minor game and was taken to Waterford's Regional Hospital by club chairman Joe Curran. Also out through injury for the senior game was Alo Curran who suffered a back injury and could be doubtful for the county final. We can only hope he recovers in time.

HARD WORK AT UNDERAGE

It was great to see two of our underage teams involved at this stage of the year and credit must go to Maurice Lannon, Pat Curran, Jamie Weldon, Eoin O'Brien and Noel Costelloe for their year's work with the minors. As regard our Under-12 footballers Michael F. Keane, Tom Cunningham and John Kiely are doing great work almost unnoticed with these young boys — keep it going as this is where it all starts.

SALE OF WORK

On Sunday, November 21 the club's annual Sale of Work takes place and already plans have been laid. We hear there will be some great prizes for Christmas in store — so remember November 21 — club's Sale of Work.

WINNERS OF DRAW

Lucky winners in last week's club draw were — James Keane and Conor O'Brien. Many thanks to the ticket sellers.

AUTUMN FASHION SHOW

On this Thursday night October 18 the club's Fashion Show takes place in Lawlor's Hotel at 8.30 p.m. The fashions are by Mairead's and Razz Dungarvan, both will be showing full ranges of Autumn and Christmas styles. The children's fashions will be shown by Ms. Shaws, Dungarvan, covering 4 years to teenage fashions. It should be a night to remember for the ladies. A huge raffle will take place during the night — many prizes donated. Tickets for the show are only £4 and can be got from the committee (Advl.)

SPEEDY RECOVERY

The club wish a speedy recovery to Sinead Power, Carrigbarahane, Mrs. Anna Darcy, Shanbally, Lemybrien and Mr. Nicholas Power, Carrigbarahane House, all of whom are in hospital at this present time and we hope all will soon be out and about again shortly, with their families and friends.

ON COLLEGE TEAMS

Our underage players Michael Barnes, Stephen Cunningham and George Walsh are all playing for the colleges teams at the moment.

U-12 WIN WESTERN TITLE

The U-12 footballers captured our 5th Western title on Sunday morning last when they defeated Lismore. 1990 has seen our underage teams make significant progress to the point where we contested six divisional finals winning three of them and one county titles. The club are very lucky to have a large, dedicated pool of officials to cater for our underage team. The trio who guided the lads to the title were Pat Ryan, Larry Cliff and Pat Moore who have worked tirelessly all year with the U-12's.

U-12 F.C. results — Abbeyside 3-12 Lismore 1-0; Abbeyside 8-11 Dungarvan 4-10; Final — Abbeyside 6-4 Lismore 0-1.

Previous wins in this grade were achieved in 1979, 1980, 1987 and 1988.

The team on Sunday was — P. Murphy; D. Quirke, J. Burns, E. Byrne; P. Cummins, C. Power, C. Keane; J. Keohan, S. Stacey; J. Hayes, E. Daly, S. Kelleher, R. Cliff, B. McNamara, P. Landy. Subs. — M. Hourigan, D. Cosgrave, P.

Burke, B. Mansfield, P. Hayes, B. Hayes, J. P. Keohan, P. Veale, R. Keane, J. Kiely, D. Wall, M. Kiely, J. Byrne.

AUTUMN DRAW

The club are presently running a five week draw in promotion of underage hurling and football. As we have already stated 1990 has been a very busy year for the club and with such a run the expenses mount up. To off-set these we are currently running a very attractive 5 week draw with weekly prizes of:

1st £200; 2nd £100; 3rd £50, and 5 prizes of £10.

The draw will commence in late October and everybody is encouraged to join for the princely sum of £5 or £1 a week. The income will be very welcome as each year the number of youngsters we cater for grows as anyone who visits the field on a Saturday morning will testify.

U-21 HURLING

The U-21 hurlers play Ring/Ardmore in the West-ern quarter final on Sunday afternoon next in the Fraher Field.

CLUB SOCIAL

The club's annual social will take place on Friday, November 9 next.

Stradbally Best In Great Semi-final

Stradbally 0-12; Kilrossanty 0-8

Stradbally qualified for a County senior football final clash with Dungarvan when they scored a good four points win over reigning champions Kilrossanty in a blood and thunder semi-final show-down at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last.

It was a great game of football played with tremendous vigour and verve and from the outset it was clear that not only was a football title at stake, but parish pride was also a priority.

Despite the tenacity of the exchanges, the game was played in an exemplary manner and the high standard of football produced was a credit to both sides.

The huge crowd certainly got good value for money and even neutrals at the venue must have been "caught up" in the excitement as the hour spun its course.

That Stradbally were deserving winners was indisputable. They were by far the better team on the day and, in fact, were in no way flattered by their four points winning margin in the end.

The "Reds" missed some real goal scoring chances over the hour and their twenty wides to the champions six over the sixty minutes gives a fair indication of Stradbally's superiority over the hour.

It was, in fact, Stradbally's failure to put away the goal scoring chances and their erratic shooting from scoreable positions which kept Kilrossanty in with a shout for so long. Yet it was obvious at the break when they trailed 0-5 to 0-2 that their crown looked to be in jeopardy as Stradbally looked poised to dethrone them.

A strong cross wind favoured neither side but did make conditions uncomfortable, yet both sides came to grips, outfield at any rate, to overcome the handicap.

Eoin O'Brien and Tom Behan swapped points early on, before Nickey

Hayes put Michael Walsh through but the Kilrossanty corner forward's fisted effort came back off Stradbally 'keeper Kieran Heffernan in the 12th minute.

HIT UPRIGHT

Two minutes later at the other end, Liam O'Brien missed a "dead goal" and a minute later Pat Curran put Noel Weldon through but his shot hit the upright with the Kilrossanty 'keeper out of position.

Curran was on target a minute later to inch Stradbally ahead, but Ger Walsh quickly levelled for Kilrossanty. Eoin O'Brien, Stradbally's man of the match, shot Stradbally ahead with a point in the 20th minute. It was a lead they never relinquished after that as they got on top to hold Kilrossanty scoreless for the remainder of the half.

Liam O'Brien added a point for Stradbally in the 22nd minute and Pat Curran forced a great save from Darren Mulhearn in the 28th minute. Just on the stroke of half time Noel Weldon put Eoin O'Brien through for a point and Stradbally looked good at the interval as they led 0-5 to 0-2, having shot eight wides as against two for the champions.

Stradbally had been playing the better of the two in the closing stages of the first half. However, it was generally expected that Kilrossanty would make a mighty effort in the second half to hold on to their crown.

This they did but their best efforts were not enough to thwart the "Reds" who despite shooting another twelve wides still managed to stay ahead right to the finish although Kilrossanty did come within a point of them at one stage during the half. Eoin O'Brien pointed for Stradbally after two minutes but Brian Kirwan replied in kind for Kilrossanty a minute later.

Jim Maher had a point from a free in the 5th minute and a minute later Kirwan pointed to cut the deficit to 0-6 to 0-5. Eoin O'Brien again raised a white flag for the winners before a great move ended with Pat Curran putting O'Brien through for another point and further pressure ended with Noel Weldon putting four points between the sides after 14 minutes.

CANCELLED OUT

Again Brian Kirwan pointed for Kilrossanty, but Weldon cancelled out the score with a Stradbally minor. Ten minutes from time Jim Maher pointed a free to leave just two points between the sides: 0-10 to 0-8. It was Kilrossanty's final score. As in the first half, Stradbally took over in the closing stages.

Liam O'Brien should have put them three points clear in the 24th minute but he miskicked a free. A minute later Eoin O'Brien should have put the issue well beyond doubt when he rounded 'keeper Darren Mulhearn but his effort went over the bar.

Three minutes later however he put four points between the sides when he scored a great point. It was the final score of the game. Stradbally were victors and no doubt will remember the result as one of the sweetest victories they have ever scored over their famed adversaries.

PLAYED WELL

Stradbally played well on the day and there could be no disputing the fact that they were the better team. One worrying feature however must have been the failure of the forwards to put the ball in the net from genuine goal scoring chances coupled with their huge total of 20 wides over the hour.

They had the man of the match in Eoin O'Brien and others to play well were 'keeper Kieran Heffernan, Conor O'Brien, Dave Kirwan, Paul Mullaney, Pat Curran and Liam O'Brien although essentially the whole team contributed to the win.

Kilrossanty have often played better but on Sunday they were knocked off their stride by the determination of the winners.

Darren Mulhearn proved a very good 'keeper and others to impress were Pat Power, Ger Walsh, Pierre White, Brian Whelan and Jim Maher.

Scorers — Stradbally: E. O'Brien 0-7, P. Curran and N. Weldon 0-2 each, L. O'Brien 0-1; Kilrossanty: B. Kirwan 0-4, J. Maher 0-2, T. Behan and G. Walsh 0-1 each.

Stradbally — K. Heffernan, L. Walsh, C. O'Brien, M. Curran, D. Kirwan, J. Keane, F. O'Brien, P. Mullaney, E. Phelan, N. Weldon, E. O'Brien, T. Gough, L. O'Brien, P. Curran, P. Halpin.

Kilrossanty — D. Mulhearn, P. Pender, P. Keating, E. Flynn, W. Power, P. Power, P. Quinn, G. Walsh, P. White, R. Power, J. Maher, N. Hayes, B. Kirwan, T. Behan, M. Walsh. Subs — P. Hayes for N. Hayes, G. Fitzgerald for P. Quinn, T. Pender for P. Keating.

Referee: T. O Meachair (An Rinn).

Statement By Dungarvan G.A.A. Club On U-16 County Football Final

Dungarvan G.A.A. Club feel obliged to issue the following statement to allay the disquiet and disappointment felt by our members, supporters and particularly our Under-16 players and their parents in relation to the Under-16 County Football Final.

1 — Having qualified for both the County U-16 football final and the Western minor football final, the Club was notified that the Under-16 football final was fixed for Walsh Park, Waterford at 1.15 p.m. on Saturday, October 6 and was also notified that the Western minor football final was fixed for Fraher Field, Dungarvan at 1.30 p.m. on the same date.

2 — As nine players were committed to both Under-16 and minor teams, the relevant bodies were notified of the problem and advised that it was impossible for the Club to fulfill the fixture as notified. It is our belief that both bodies accepted this to be the true situation.

3 — Up to Friday, October 5, 1990, other than being informed that the fixtures as notified stood, no effort appears to have been made by the relevant authorities to avoid the apparent clash of fixtures. Accordingly, on Friday, October 5, 1990 the Club advised Coiste na nOg, Portlaoige that it would not be participating in the Under-16 final on the date notified and for the reasons outlined.

4 — The decision to play the minor game was taken by the Club having regard to the programme of games involving the Club teams in senior, under-21, minor and under-16 football and also under-21 hurling and being in our view the least disruptive of future fixtures for all concerned.

5 — The Club was at all times willing and anxious to play in whichever one game it was directed to play on Saturday, October 6, 1990.

6 — On Thursday, October 11, 1990 the Club was notified by Coiste na nOg, Portlaoige, that our Under-16 football team had been disqualified from the championship and the game awarded to our opponents, Tramore and also of the possibility of the Club being liable to a suspension of six months.

7 — An appeal in the matter has been lodged with the Waterford County Board.

ANNUAL CHURCH GATE COLLECTION

St. Olivers annual church gate collection will be held in Aglish, Ballinameela and Mount Stuart on the weekend of Saturday and Sunday, October 27/28. Please subscribe generously.

UNDER-12 FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Our U-12 football team had a big win over Kilrossanty on Sunday morning of last week in Aglish. We were beaten in Bohadon by St. Patrick's and beaten in Ardmore by Ardmore. Our last game in the championship will be against Stradbally — this game will be played in Aglish.

Our lineout — Roger McDonagh, J. Fletcher, P. Scanlon, J. Mernin, K. Burke, Paul Moore, Ian Cliffe, J. Stack, V. Lombard, D. Mulcahy, P. Donovan, Anthony Morrissey, Padraig Landers, Liam Cullinan, Sean Cotter. Subs. — V. Mernin, J. Nugent, E. Lynch, Bill Morrissey, B. Lynch, D. Cotter, A. Walsh, M. Cliffe, V. O'Brien, M. Carlton, J. Kearns.

Referee for all our away games was Brian Connery, who certainly did a fine job. We hope he will continue as a "knight of the whistle."

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Playing on the St. Augustine's College team that beat St. Michael's, Listowel, recently in the Munster Colleges Under-15 competition were Aidan Mernin at right full back and Aidan Aherne at centre half back. Aidan Aherne scored two points and both players had great games.

Nire and Fourmilewater G.A.A. Notes

NIRE EXIT

Nire senior footballers made a rather unlucky exit from the 1990 championship at Fraher Field on Saturday, September 29. Having been lucky to get back into contention as a result of Dungarvan's good run, Nire supporters were hopeful that lady luck would continue to shine for their team but such was not to be. In fact, this always fickle lady seemed to be on Kilrossanty's side on the day.

In the first half, usually reliable full back Tom Walshe failed to hold a spinning ball which ended up in the Nire net, courtesy of Jim Maher and in the second half Ger Walshe had the agony of tripping as he went backwards to collect a through ball with only Pat Keating inside him and forwards up in support. Then, with only two minutes to go and Nire clinging to a one-point lead, Kilrossanty's Ger Walshe found himself in possession inside the Nire defence and he proceeded to give Sean Guiry no chance.

The wine of victory had once again turned to the gall of defeat for the gallant Nire team who, after a rather poor first half had lifted their game to completely dominate the second half.

On the positive side, this was a good performance against a team of the calibre and experience of Kilrossanty. Reigning champions always seem to have a psychological advantage and Murphy's Law seems to operate against challengers, particularly when a lead is fragile. Nire have proved themselves to be in the top bracket and perseverance must eventually see them win a county title. The bulk of their players have yet to reach their prime and with some coaching and an expanded panel Nire will be a force to be reckoned with in 1991.

It is interesting to note that club president, Johnny McGrath, when asked in the dressingroom after the Kilrossanty game at what age he played his best football, began to relate about a game he played at the age of 39: "I played at centre field and scored three points." Food for thought.

It was also interesting to see how Johnny's nephew, Paddy Cooney, now the veteran of the Nire team, inspired his men and put pressure on his opponents when he came on the field. Surely deserving of a county medal.

And who can forget the roar of approval from the bank as our halfback line of Mick Fraher, Kevin Mulcahy and Pat Walshe turned back attack after attack. Vintage football and tremendous heart.

Nire have a lot to be proud of and with a team of this quality, supporters have many exciting days and years ahead. Fortune favours the brave. Roll on 1991.

UNDER-16 FOOTBALL

Nire Under-16 footballers were defeated at Abbeyside by a good Cappoquin-Affane side on Saturday, September 29. This was a Western final and those who attended had their own quota of excitement.

Halfway through the second half Cappoquin-Affane seemed to be coasting to an easy win with the score at 1-6 to 1-0. Then our lads came very much back into contention with two good goals.

The excitement was high at this stage and it looked to be anybody's game. However, Cappoquin-Affane came back strongly to get two further goals before the end and put the issue beyond doubt.

We were unlucky to have two key players, Eddie Nugent and Noel Ryan, out through injury for this game, Aidan Crotty was also on the sick list but played a great game at centre back, full back and up front in the end. A very good performance in the circumstances and augurs well for the future.

Team was — D. Tobin, Ml. Wall, B. McCarthy, A. Ryan, M. J. Ryan, A. Crotty, Ml. Byrne, J. Tobin, T. Flynn (1-0), C. Ryan, S. Morrissey (1-0), B. O'Sullivan (1-0), W. Grant, D. Doocey, M. Connolly. Subs — D. Ryan, J. Mangan, Ml. Doocey and M. McCarthy.

LISMORE'S SUCCESS

[By "COMMENTATOR"]

When Roanmore took their second senior hurling county title on Sunday week, their cup of success was full to the brim, except for one thing. They had failed to beat Lismore in the championship. Before beating Roanmore at Fraher Field this year (2-15 to 2-8), a Lismore player spoke very confidently about the outcome as the club felt that they had the measure of the reigning champions. They had also beaten Roanmore when they last met in the 1988 championship by 1-10 to 0-9, so now the champions must continue to live with the thought that Lismore are yet to be conquered. This consoling thought was expressed to me by a Lismore man coming home from the county final on Sunday week.

A few hours earlier, the same club had beaten Roanmore in the minor county final and by so doing added their seventh minor crown to their enviable list of successes.

Lismore now stand out as leaders in the under-age title race and their long list of successes, which we publish hereunder is not likely to be equalled for a very long time to come.

County Minor Hurling Title — 1, 1932; 2, 1935, 3, 1939; 46 year gap; —4, 1985 — Capt. Seamus Prendergast; 5, 1987, Capt. Martin O'Brien; 6, 1988 — Capt. James Hickey; 7, 1990 — Capt. Paddy Nugent. Also Western minor hurling title in 1965 and 1989.

All members of this year's minor hurling panel attend or have attended the local CBS School where they started to play the game of hurling — in the CBS Primary School.

A number of the players (on this year's panel) have played in the Tony Forristal Under-14 hurling tournament as well as the West Waterford inter-divisional under-14 and under-16 hurling teams.

Note — Won seven County minor hurling titles, three in 1930's and three in the 1980's — start the '90's with a minor win.

In 1987 won the County under-14, under-16 and minor hurling titles.

In 1985, a double at under-14, County titles in hurling and football. Represented Waterford at Feile na nGael in Wexford and represented Waterford in the Feile na nOg football competition in Cork. The only club to represent the county in both competitions to date.

In 1985 and 1989, won all Western under-age hurling titles; i.e. from u/12 to u/21. Played in three All-Ireland Feile na nGael Div. 11 finals: 1981 at Galway, beaten by Portlaoise; 1987 at Ennis, beaten by St. Paul's, Belfast; 1988 at Birr, won, defeated Ferbane/Belmont, Canon Fogarty Trophy. The only Waterford club to win this trophy on the field of play.

Most of the present day juvenile players of the club have had the experience of playing in the national Feile na nGael competition.

AT SCHOOL LEVEL

The local CBS Primary School has won the County INTO/GAA Mini Sevens hurling competition for the past three years, i.e. 1988, 1989 and 1990.

The only school to win this competition in hurling to date as the competition was only inaugurated in 1988; in that year also (1988) the INTO/GAA held a Munster Mini Sevens hurling competition in Semple Stadium, Thurles, defeating teams from all the other counties in Munster, i.e. Mungret, Limerick; Shannon, Clare, Scoil Iosagain, Farranree, Cork City. All these schools are three, four and five times the size of Lismore CBS Primary School.

The Primary School has also won the West Waterford Primary Schools Hurling League for the Blake Cup on a number of occasions.

The Secondary School in Lismore — CBS — won four Munster hurling titles in the '80's, i.e., 1981 — Munster Under-15 "C" Solo Cup; 1982 — Munster Under-16 1/2 "C" Corn Iognaid Ris; 1986 — Munster Under-15 "C" Solo Cup; 1988 — Munster Under-16 1/2 "C" Corn Iognaid Ris; 1983 — Beaten in Munster under-18 "B" hurling final — Corn Phadraig; 1982 — Beaten in Munster under-15 "C" final; 1985 — Beaten in Munster under-15 "C" final. Won 4, lost 3 — appeared in 7. Also won Rice Cup under-14 Christian Brothers Schools competition in 1981 (beating Dungarvan CBS in final of this competition after a replay).

Players from Tallow, Ballyduff, Araglin, Ballysaggart, Cappoquin play for the Secondary School teams.

A number of the Lismore players would have Munster Colleges hurling medals won with Lismore CBS.

Paul Prendergast (1987) and Brendan Crowley (1985) got young hurler of the year award.

WEEK-END GAMES

Waterford And Carlow Clash In Important NFL Game At Fraher Field

DUNGARVAN AND KILROSSANTY TO MEET IN U-21 FOOTBALL FINAL

These are the important fixtures on the week-end programme which also includes other important Western Board games, which are also fixed for Fraher Field on Saturday and Sunday.

In the feature game of the weekend programme, Waterford footballers will clash with Carlow for the second time within a month, but this is certainly the more important game as both counties have had first round victories and the result here will put the winners in as joint leaders on the table before the five weeks break in the re-organised league.

Carlow had a resounding win over Kilkenny two weeks ago in the league, and while a resounding victory over them is hardly something to boast about, it did show the Carlow side to have been very well tuned up and meaning to go places in this series here and will come back now to prove this.

Waterford had a very good win over Clare in their first round game and after their very heartening performance, they will expect to take the points here, but this will be very difficult even though we will have the advantage of a home venue. More than half of our players were in action in club championships on Sunday and as far as I am aware no injuries are reported. I do not expect that the fact that many of them will be playing in the county final on the following Sunday will hinder the selectors from selecting the best team for the game.

The team was due to be picked on Monday night and will appear here if it becomes available in time. The expectations are that it will show little change from the team which beat Clare in round one.

This will see Tom Brennan, Tom Gough, Dermot Callaghan, Liam Dalton, Eoin O'Brien, Fintan O'Brien, Jim Maher, Pat Hynes, Carthach Mac-Craith, Pat Walsh, Ger Walsh, etc., etc., on our lineout and hopefully they will do as well against the Leinstermen as they did three weeks ago.

UNDER-21 FOOTBALL FINAL

This long drawn out championship will come to a close on Saturday next at Fraher Field if Kilrossanty, who are the reigning champions in the grade here in the West and Dungarvan, do not finish up level at the end of what will surely be an exciting game on the day.

Because of their involvement at other levels, both these teams have been waiting for quite a while and this makes it difficult to figure out what their form will be like.

Dungarvan are enjoying a wonderful season in the football championships and see themselves as being on course for four football county titles, which would be a unique achievement indeed.

Kilrossanty who are not meeting with the best of luck in this particular championship will try to gain some compensation for their defeat last Sunday and they may have a little too much power all round for Dungarvan. But it will be a close game and a good one and whichever side comes out on top will be worthy representatives in the final next month.

ABBEYSIDE v. AN GAELTACHT

This Under-21 hurling game will be played as a curtain raiser to the football league game at Fraher Field on Sunday. Abbeyside will be favourites to advance.

M.F. "B" FINAL

Tallow and Naomh Brid will play this as a curtain raiser to the Under-21 football final at Dungarvan on Saturday.

EASTERN FINAL

Our divisional intermediate football champions, Faha will be well represented at the Eastern final between Portlaw and Newtown on Saturday at Walsh Park. Newtown are slight favourites to qualify.

SYMPATHY

Our sympathy is extended to well-known Ballyduff players, Seamie and Donal Hanon on the death of their aunt Mrs. Nora Crowley, Ballyduff, which occurred on Sunday. Seamie is a county hurling selector.

Knockanore Minor Hurlers

Some months ago while being entertained at the Knockanore jubilee celebrations a friend in the Shamrocks club asked me if I could 'root out' any information on the Knockanore minor hurling team which played in a county final about sixty years ago.

It was news to me that a Knockanore minor hurling side had ever got into the hurling headlines and a few enquiries were not helpful. As I had promised to find out, I did an amount of research and found to my surprise that there was a fair amount of substance in the claim made by my friend.

Knockanore did have a good bunch of young hurlers around the 1930's and in the Western championships of 1931 they won a couple of good matches, but apparently they lacked the skills needed when the real crunch came.

In that year (1931) they reached the Western final and were well beaten by Dungarvan but not nearly as badly as the score might indicate. The final score was Dungarvan 3-1, Knockanore 0-0.

Dungarvan had a number of county players who helped Waterford to their first minor All-Ireland title.

It was played at Lismore immediately following the senior hurling county final between Erin's Own (4-7) and Tallow (0-3), so rather than being a curtain raiser, it was a curtain-dropper to the programme.

Many of the names on the minor teams will be remembered, but unfortunately the majority are not still with us.

Dungarvan — Wm. Higgins, Wm. O'Donnell, Jas Houlihan, Dec Goode, Wm. Coleman, Patrick Lannon, E. O'Brien, Patrick Houlihan, Ray Dalton, Patrick McGrath, Jas J. Foley, Nicholas Noonan, Paddy Nagle, Michael Cashman, Joseph Noonan.

Knockanore — Patrick Ryan (capt.), John O'Donovan, John Moloney, John Ryan, M. J. Leahy, Wm. O'Neill, Wm. Kevins, John Neville, Jas Murphy, R. O'Connor, Thomas Ryan, Thomas Murray, Michael Neville, Patrick Henley, Paul Beecher.

Referee — James Mason of Cappoquin.

These games were played on September 20, 1931.

Dungarvan went on to win the county title, which was held by Eire Og in the previous year.

Stradbally v. Dungarvan County Final

The county final between these clubs will be played on next Sunday week and by all accounts the venue will be Walsh Park. There may be a problem about the minor football county final, now that Dungarvan are doubly engaged, and I'm sure this will be sorted out during the week.

Stradbally and Dungarvan last met in a county final way back in 1945 when Dungarvan stopped Stradbally from winning six championships in a row.

It is interesting to note that both clubs are celebrating centenaries this year. It is exactly one hundred years since Dungarvan won their first senior title (1890) and Stradbally have held their celebrations to mark their first ever championship win in 1940. Dungarvan last won the senior football title in 1954 and Stradbally's most recent victory was achieved three years ago. It certainly makes for a very exciting clash and I will write on it next week. Dungarvan (1928) were the first to win the senior/minor football double. De La Salle, Mount Sion and Abbeyside/Ballinacourty were the only others to do so.

COACHING PROGRAMME

Monday, Oct. 22—Ballymacarbray, 9.30 to 3 p.m.
Tuesday — Abbeyside N/S, 9.30 a.m. to 3 p.m.
Wednesday — Dungarvan CBS N/S, 9.30 to 3 p.m.
Thursday — An Rinn, 9.30 a.m. to 12.15 p.m.; Seana Phobal N/S, 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.
Friday — Fews N/S, 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.; Currabaha N/S, 12 noon to 3 p.m.

Munster Minor Football League

Preparations for the Munster minor football league will shortly be announced, with Clare, Kerry, Limerick, Tipperary and Waterford taking part. No doubt manager Timmy O'Keeffe will have his forces in order when the dates are announced.

Special Minor Football League

A special minor football league for all clubs within the county will shortly be announced. This was approved at the recent County Board meeting. The league will be drawn up by Timmy O'Keeffe and Eamon Martin, who are very much involved in this grade. It's hoped all clubs will co-operate.

Under-21 Hurlers

It's expected that our Under-21 hurling selectors will be meeting shortly to draw up plans for their panel which they hope to finalise without delay. Our selectors of James Tobin, Paddy Walsh, Noel Costelloe, John Galvin and Pat Flynn have twelve of last years team — so certainly they want to leave no stone unturned.

SENIOR FOOTBALL SEMI-FINAL

Dungarvan Shock St. Saviours

DUNGARVAN 2-10;
ST. SAVIOURS 1-10

The Saints who were almost everyone's fancy to keep marching on in this long distance football championship, were unexpectedly given their marching orders by a tremendously fit and eager Dungarvan team at Kilmacthomas on Sunday last. It was a win that was fully deserved and if one was asked to name the quality which was most outstanding in their performance, I would not hesitate to name courage as the factor which made the difference, having seen them recover from a bad start and survive a late Saviours onslaught when they were under severe pressure near the finish.

Their overall display was probably put in proper perspective in the immediate aftermath of the game by those who judged them to be an even-money chance against Stradbally in the county final and this was compounded by a few Stradbally players at the game, who expressed the honest opinion that Dungarvan will be very difficult to beat if they play as well again on next Sunday week.

For St. Saviours it was a big disappointment and this was clearly shown in their faces when the final whistle brought to an end, their hopes of taking their first title this year.

In fairness to them, they did not play to their full potential as they never really got into their usual stride. They had very obviously underestimated the opposition and could not cope with the tactics, speed of movement and precision passing of a Dungarvan team when they got into top gear at the end of the first quarter.

At the end of the first half, when Dungarvan led by 0-8 to 1-2, they seemed to have a big fight on their hands facing the strong wind in the second half as a three points lead made their position look shaky in the circumstances.

The story of the scoring in the second half showed how wrong this judgement was and in meeting the challenge posed by the wind, the winners proved their true qualities.

SCORING

Even with wind advantage, Dungarvan were put under severe pressure in the opening minutes and an opportunist goal by wing forward Michael O'Brien in the 5th minute gave Saviours a tonic start that brought the game to the 9th minute before Ger Beresford opened the scoring for the Western team. In the 14th and 15th minutes Derek Wyse and Morrie Ferncombe exchanged points to leave it 1-1 to 0-2. Then in the 18th minute with Donnelly, Burke and Sheehan defending very well a high ball came out to Derek Lyons who sent over a splendid point to narrow the gap and put new impetus into the challengers who went on to take the next four scores that had the effect of putting unexpected pressure on the favourites.

Ger Beresford, Pepe Ferncombe, Derek Lyons and Tony Hamilton were the players to score without reply until the 29th minute when Morrie McCormack pointed for Saviours. In the 30th minute Pepe Ferncombe sent over to leave Dungarvan three points up at the break.

Probably the most decisive score of the second half was registered when Morrie Ferncombe shot home a goal in the 35th minute after great work by Dermot Callaghan and Denis McGrath. This had a propulsive effect on Dungarvan who came back again to shoot two wides before St. Saviours had their next score, which was a point by Tony Corcoran who had recovered a good pass from Liam Daniels. Pepe, Morrie Ferncombe and Denis McGrath all pointed again to extend their lead to six points before Saviours substituted Hartery for Alan Greene and this change brought about a change of fortune for them as they were now motoring back into control and points by Liam Daniels, Tony Corcoran and two by Pat Twomey reduced the gap to two points in the 52nd minute and put them back in the game with a real chance of breaking the fierce resistance being offered by Dungarvan's Martin Sheehan, Eddie Burke, Darrell Donnelly and Martin Houlihan. Brendan Morrissey replaced the injured Peter Queally, who had previously come on for the injured David Dee.

Then came the movement in which Callaghan sent to Lyons and he in turn sent forward the ball that placed John Ferncombe for the goal that sealed the result for Dungarvan in the 56th minute. It was their final score and gave them some respite to resist the final Saviours onslaught that brought two points from Tony Corcoran in the closing hectic minutes of this exciting and enjoyable semi-final that was seen by a reasonably big crowd who had paid £1,550 for the entertainment.

Scorers: Dungarvan — M. Ferncombe 1-1, P. Ferncombe 0-3, J. Ferncombe 1-0, D. Lyons 0-2, D. Dee, D. McGrath and T. Hamilton 0-1 each. St. Saviours — M. O'Brien 1-0, T. Corcoran 0-3, G. McCormack 0-3, P. Twomey 0-2, D. Wyse and L. Daniels 0-1 each.

Dungarvan — D. O'Connor, D. Dee, D. Donnelly, M. Houlihan, M. Kelly, E. Burke, M. Sheehan, D. Lyons, T. Hamilton, D. Callaghan, M. Ferncombe, D. McGrath, P. Ferncombe, J. J. Ferncombe, G. Beresford. Subs. — P. Queally for D. Dee.; B. Morrissey for Queally.

St. Saviours — M. Fitzgerald, J. Foskin, A. Power, L. Walsh, P. Corcoran, M. Corcoran, L. Quilty, T. Corcoran, L. Daniels, D. McCormack, M. O'Brien, P. Twomey, A. Greene, D. Jacob, D. Wyse. Sub. — L. Hartley for A. Greene.

Referee — N. Sullivan (Portlaw).

FIGURES OF THE SEMI-FINAL GAMES

	Scores	Wides	Frees	Sidelines	65's
Stradbally	12	20	28	3	1
Kilrossanty	8	6	21	7	0
	20	26	49	10	1
Dungarvan	12	10	23	9	2
St. Saviours	11	6	22	17	0
	21	16	45	21	2

The above shows that including the half-time stops and "throw-in" balls, there were 108 stoppages in the game at Dungarvan and 107 in the Kilmac' match. This is well above the normal average and in both cases, beats the recent All-Ireland football final tally of 97 (over 70 minutes).

RESULTS

Good Result For Hurlers

Waterford hurlers played very well against Clare in the opening round of the national league at Ennis last Sunday.

In fact we were unlucky not to have taken both points as it was only in the last seconds that the home side came back to draw this exciting clash. It was the only Div. 1 match played and was given almost full coverage on Radio and we were able to keep in touch while at Dungarvan and afterwards while en route to Kilmac'.

In reality the panel had only one training session before the match and this was at Fraher Field on Wednesday evening when Joe McGrath and Ned Power took over the coaching end of the business. There were 36 in training for that session and a few were unavoidably absent. The selected side could not include Noel Crowley or Paudie Prendergast as both are suspended, so in all the circumstances it was a good result and a very heartening start for the team and new management.

We next play Cork in round 2 which will be at Dungarvan on next Monday week (Bank Holiday). This week the panel will train on Tues., Thurs. and Saturday at Fraher Field.

SEMI-FINALS

The games are described elsewhere. There were two good and exciting contests, with the Stradbally v. Kilrossanty, probably being the better of the two. The standard of club football was delightful and there could have been very few complaints on that score.

It was surprising to find so very many joining in the rush to Kilmac' for the second semi-final which was also exciting and nailbiting for Dungarvan supporters.

I would sum up the games as being Stradbally's best display for a long time and for Dungarvan, although not being their best performance this year, it was certainly their most wholehearted.

Their best game this year was against a team called Stradbally at Lemybrien in the summer!

Open Draw In Munster

At the meeting of the Munster Council on Friday last, members voted by 8 votes to 7 to introduce the open draw for the 1991 football championship and to retain the seeded draw system for the senior hurling championship. The idea of the proposed change was to give one of the four weaker counties a chance of reaching the Munster final and the result of the draw now is that Waterford, Tipperary or Limerick must qualify as none of these will clash with Cork or Kerry en route.

It is a little ironic that Clare who were seen to be the campaigners for the change are the losers in that they will meet, and very likely lose to Kerry in round one and for them, unless a miracle happens, the whole show will come to an end at an early stage of the championship next year.

We came very well out of the draw and having got a bye, we play the winners of the Tipperary/Limerick game in the semi-final for our first time since 1957. The majority of the football people here in Waterford are delighted at the way this has turned out and the exciting prospect of reaching the highly glamorous provincial final, has set a buzz around the county.

As one who opposed the whole idea, I genuinely hope that I will find I have been wrong in thinking so. I believe that this is not the ideal remedy for closing the big gap in standards between the two and the four in Munster. The standards must be improved at home first.

Now, however that the open draw is in, we must do everything humanly possible to prepare for the challenge and leave no stone unturned in winning our way to the Munster final next July. We should not have any great worries about either Limerick or Tipperary if we prepare as well as we can — we have beaten them both before. Having to win only one game to qualify for the provincial final will be looked upon as a welcome change for our footballers who haven't been in the best of luck in recent times.

Our County Board helped to bring about the change and now it is up to the players/selectors/manager, etc., to prove that it was the right decision.

In senior hurling we drew Kerry in round one and should we win this we will play All-Ireland champions Cork in the semi-final. Our game against Kerry is fixed for Killarney, so at worst we seem sure of playing in two provincial semi-finals next year.

DRAWS

Hurling: (A) Waterford v. Kerry at Killarney; (B) Cork a bye; (C) Tipperary a bye; (D) Limerick v. Clare at Limerick.

Tipperary changed their minds about the open draw when the hurling draws were being made and they voted to have last year's finalists, Cork and Tipperary seeded.

Football: (A) Waterford, (B) Limerick v. Tipperary at Askeaton, (C) Cork a bye; (D) Kerry v. Clare at Ennis. This most likely means that Cork and Kerry will meet in the semi-final and hopefully it will be no less glamorous an event than such meetings have been in the past.

McGRATH CUP

Waterford v. Limerick; Clare v. Tipperary. Both games will be played before the Munster championship and will take place at neutral venues. The ultimate winners will meet London in the cup final.

CLUB H.&F.

Our county champions, Roanmore will play the Cork champions at a Waterford venue and our new football champions will meet the Limerick champions, also at a Waterford venue on November 11.

SENIOR 'B' FOOTBALL

It is announced that Waterford will play Sligo in the All-Ireland 'B' semi-final and not Leitrim as previously announced. The game is fixed for Tullaghmore and will be played on November 4.

Public Toilet May Go Private In Dungarvan

Arising from a suggestion by Cllr. Paddy Power at a previous meeting members of Dungarvan Urban Council at their monthly meeting last Monday night considered the introduction of Automatic Conveniences to the town. Cllr. Power who had seen these new type convenience in use in Enniscorthy stated that they were vandal resistant which was the major problem affecting their existing public convenience.

Before last Monday night's meeting were details of APC which stated that the outright price of one was £35,560 with alternative of renting one at £11,966 a year (plus VAT). Cllr. Power said that from the figures he had, the cost to the Council would work out at about £300 per week and at a charge of 10p per time he felt that it would more than pay for itself. "I have seen these type of conveniences in use all over and the latest town to install one is Clonmel," he said, adding that he was ashamed to direct anyone to the existing one which they now had at the quay. Cllr. A. Hallahan said that people he knew in Enniscorthy told him that they thought the new type toilet which was installed there was a tremendous asset. It was presentable looking and vandal proof and seemed to be the coming thing. Cllr. M. Dixon Chairman said she could not in conscious agree to spending such a large amount of money. She pointed out that whether one was bought or rented it would cost an additional £7,000 a year to maintain it. Cllr. B. Kyne said that the main problems about public toilets concerned vandalism, caretaking and where they could be located. He did not think the public toilet at the quay was all that bad and said it should be vetted to upgrade it.

Cllr. T. Wright agreed that it would be out of the question to spend such a massive amount of money on public toilets when the Council could not afford to replace rotted windows in many of their own houses. Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager said that all modern towns needed these new type of facilities and as he saw it, the figure to rent an Automatic convenience would be roughly £300 a week plus maintenance. As an alternative, the Manager then suggested that they could consider upgrading the existing convenience at the Quay and then handing the concession of running them to some people who would look after them and keep them in good nick. This could obviate the type of vandalism which saw 97 toilet bowls broken in one summer. Cllr. D. Goode said that the prices as presented were confusing and he asked that they be given in a simple fashion. "You'd need an accountant to understand them as they are now given," he said. Mr. Hurley said that it was most unlikely that at the end of the day the Council would abandon what it had at the Quay even though there would not be a lot of change out of £20,000 to upgrade it. He said that he would include an item about this in the Council's forthcoming estimates. Further discussion was then deferred to the estimates meeting.
