Education Minister Officially Opens New Lios Mhor Mochuda N.S.

The Minister for Education, Mrs. Mary O'Rourke, paid a visit to Lismore last Monday where at 12 (noon) under leaden skies, but thankfully dry for the duration of the ceremony, she performed the official opening of the beautiful new Lios Mhor Mochuda National School.

Built in the shadow of the towering landmark spire of the Church of Ireland Cathedral of St. Carthage, the new school consists of two spacious classrooms and, as the Minister aptly put it, nestles into the Cathedral as children nestle into their parents. It cost an estimated £70,000 and caters for 35 pupils.

The blessing of the new school was performed by Rt. Rev. Noel V. Willoughby, Bishop of Ossory, Waterford, Cashel and Lismore.

The Bishop, Minister and other guests gathered at the Deanery on arrival and moved from there to the school where they were greeted at the gates by the children of the school who, very appropriately, sang, "The School Around The Corner," as it is located just around the corner from the Deanery and the Cathedral.

Mrs. Mary England, School Principal and M.C. for the occasion in the course of her introductory speech said that it was an eventful day not only for the school-children but also for their parents and the school staff. She praised the parents for the ready manner in which they gave of their time to activities in the school and for the cheerful way in which they had so successfully participated in the raising of funds to pay for the new school. She also thanked all who had contributed so generously to the funds and expressed profound gratitude to all for their generosity and support.

Very Rev. Dean Cecil Weekes, Chairman of the Board of Management of the school said that this was a very important day in the history of their community in Lismore. He described Lismore as a town of beauty and peace with a history going back 1300 years to the advent of St. Carthage.

Pointing out that the new school had been the brain child of Dean Gilbert Mayes (now retired) who had been the Dean in Lismore for 28 years, Dean Weekes said that they were now reaping the rewards of the seeds sown in the past.

Dean Mayes who was making a nostalgic return visit to Lismore for the occasion said that when he first came to Lismore towards the end of 1961 there was no Church of Ireland school in the parish. Pointing to a corner where the new school complex now stands, he recalled that a coach house, stable and store stood there in 1961. In November of that year Jack Nugent of South Mall started work to convert the building and by Easter 1962 they had a teacher with 12 pupils in

Mick McCarthy "Captain Fantastic" Gets Rousing Welcome To Dungarvan

Fr. Paul Murphy, Chairman of the Co. Waterford Youth and Sport Advisory Committee speaking at the official launch of the "Be Active, Be Alive Weekend" organised by the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee for May 17/18 which took place at the grounds of the Dungarvan United A.F.C. last Sunday afternoon extended a welcome to the huge crowd that attended but especially to Mick McCarthy, Captain of the 1990 Ireland World Cup team who had made the long journey from England to help in the promotion of the project.

"We are particularly pleased," said Fr. Murphy, "to be able to welcome a man of Waterford stock who has done Irish sport proud. During the summer of 1990 Mick McCarthy and his Irish team mates uplifted Irish spirits. The members of the Irish soccer team brought new life to soccer and sport in Ireland."

Fr. Murphy went on to point out that participation was central to the idea behind the "Be Active, Be Alive Weekend" and in an effort to encourage wider participation in sports throughout the county, local organisations, particularly sports organisations would be organising sporting events for the public. It was hoped as a result of the promotion that more people may be encouraged to join sports organisations.

In conclusion Fr. Murphy again thanked Mick McCarthy for taking the trouble to travel from England

Popular Lismore Hotelier Dies In Fatal Car Crash

The tragic news of the death of Mr. Joe Everett, the popular owner of Lismore Hotel on Tuesday night of last week, sent shock waves through the entire community.

Mr. Everett was returning from a business trip to Dublin when his car was in collision with a van at the junction of the Conna and Castlelyons roads known locally as Kenny's Cross. The accident, in which Mr. Everett died instantly, occurred at 11 p.m.

A native of Woodstown, Dunmore East, Mr. Everett (41) came to Lismore some 11 years ago when he purchased Lismore Hotel. Since then he became one of the most respected members of the community and won a wide measure of popularity throughout the entire West Waterford region.

His untimely, tragic death has come as a terrible blow to his loving wife Maria and young family, sons,

Barry, Robert and Ross and daughter Barbara, whose ages range from one to nine years and to whom as well as to his mother, brothers, sister and other relatives, the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community is extended in the great and tragic bereavement which they have now suffered.

JACK LEAVES MICK OUT

Ireland's soccer team manager, Jack Charlton has opted for the same team which played the 1-1 draw against England at Wembley for the European Championship game against Poland to be played at Lansdowne Road, Dublin to-day (Wednesday) with a 2 p.m. kick-off. This means that there is no place on the side for World Cup Captain, Mick McCarthy, who was out of the Wembley game through injury.

UFA Branch For Kilrossanty-Fews

A meeting to form a Kilrossanty-Fews branch of United Farmers Association was held in Comeragh Inn, Kilrossanty on Thursday, April 18. Mr. Paddy Phe'an, Chairman, Waterford UFA, presided. Mr. Sean Scanlan, National President, was unavoidably absent due to the death of his mother and Mr. Tim McCraith, National Secretary deputised for him.

The whole area of milk collection, quality testing, quota allocation, etc., was discussed and reservations were expressed about many factors.

The county chairman said all matters relevant to the livelihood of dairy farmers would be strongly pursued by UFA at a suitable time.

The rapidly worsening area of financial difficulties got an airing. Mr. Pat Phe'an who is a member of UFA National Credit Committee advised those present that any farmers in difficulties should be prepared to 'stay the course.' The alternative was to see their land and living taken over by somebody who already had enough.

Election of officers — Chairman, Nick Dunphy; Vice-chairman, Tony Coffey. As none present would take on the job of secretary, Nick Dunphy volunteered to carry out those duties until a full canvass of the area has been completed. — PRO.

Law And Order Outside 12-Mile Limit

At Question Time in the Dail last Wednesday, April 17, Deputy Austin Deasy asked the Minister for Foreign Affairs if he will outline who is responsible for the maintenance of law and order outside the 12 mile territorial limit but within the 200 mile economic zone in our coastal waters.

In reply the Minister Mr. G. Collins stated: The general principles governing the use of the sea and its resources are part of long established customary law and numerous international treaties dealing with particular aspects of the law of the sea.

In the waters beyond the 12 mile territorial sea, high seas freedoms apply. That means that these waters are open to vessels of all States. Ships in these waters are required to exercise the freedom of the high seas with due regard for the rights of other users of these waters.

High seas freedoms are subject to certain exceptions within the 200 nautical mile zone. These exceptions relate in particular to those resources over which the coastal State has exclusive jurisdiction — these include living resources such as fish and non-living resources such as oil.

The general rule under international law regarding the maintenance of law and order on the seas is that it is the duty of the flag State, wherever the vessels may be, to exercise its jurisdiction and control at all times over ships flying its flag.

The duty of the flag State derives from its responsibility for the good order of vessels of its Registry. The duty of the coastal State derives from its right to the resources within the 200 mile zone.

Unless an activity relates to its resources within 200 nautical miles the coastal State has no greater authority than any other State with regard to foreign vessels and may only intervene if it believes a vessel is engaged in piracy, the slave trade, unauthorised broadcasting or that a vessel is without nationality.

Responsibility for the maintenance of law and order, therefore, falls in the ways I have outlined to both the flag State of the vessel and to the coastal State within whose 200 mile zone the vessel is operating.

MAXIMUM PENALTIES

The Minister for the Marine, Mr. John P. Wilson, T.D., in reply to a further Dail Question by Deputy Deasy regarding penalties for illegal fishing said:

The maximum penalty under the Fisheries Acts for conviction on indictment for illegal fishing is £100,000. In addition, any fish or gear found on board the vessel to which the offence relates can be forfeited and, in certain circumstances and at the discretion of the courts, a vessel which is before the Courts on a second indictable offence can also be confiscated.

WANTS OFFENDING VESSELS CONFISCATED

Deputy Deasy issued the following statement on the foregoing to the "Leader" last Monday:

"I will be pressing the Minister to have these boats confiscated as it is the only way to stop this outrageous activity. I am well aware that offenders have been caught twice and have not had their vessels confiscated. This relates specifically to Spanish boats which are blatantly breaking the law and which are owned by companies quite willing to pay the fines because of the extent of their illegal fishing and the value of the fish involved. The maximum fine is £100,000 but the fine generally imposed is between £10,000 and £15,000."

Pause For Thought With Fr. Paddy

LOVE IS YOUR ANSWER

St. Peter in the first reading next Sunday reminds us that it is God's will that all should share in the victory of Calvary. The Jewish people believed that when the Messiah would come, He'd lead them to greatness. This mistaken slant about His role no doubt arose from not listening to the prophets, centering their hearts on worldly affairs. Peter, however, makes it clear that God has no favourites, and that everyone, no matter what their nationality, who fears God, and does what is right, is acceptable to God. Yes, seeking truth is seeking God. The simple fact is, God's love is there for the taking. And, as you know, it is the teaching of the church that "God gives to every man and woman sufficient help to save their souls."

Whilst God loves all His creation, He has a special affection for man, who is one of the jewels in that vast work. He asked man to prepare himself for Heaven, but, in his foolishness, he rebelled and forfeited the offer. However, God was patient and in His mercy He renewed the offer, but on different terms. He sent His own Son, who gave His life to build and open up a new road to Heaven. All man had to do was to equip himself for the journey!

God is our Father, He is a great God and He is generous and merciful. Now, whilst we may love Him for His greatness and His goodness, we'll never fully grasp the extent of His love for us. Of course, we're free to explore the secrets of His love, and you'll find that the more you'll learn, the more you'll offer Him your services. Indeed, it is a consolation to know that God is not swayed or moved by our IQ or our ethnic origins. And, it matters not what our past may have been, we can approach our brother, Jesus, and like St. John rest our head upon His breast and enjoy the warmth of His love. After all, He is our brother, our friend and our helper as well as our Saviour. The great mystery is that it is so easy to honour, to serve and to praise Him. If we help the sick, console those who mourn, give to the needy etc., He'll accept the service as if it were done for Himself. Those, who serve, experience a growing attachment to God. As the Gospel suggests, if we wish to see our love grow and bear fruit, we must nurture it by our faithful observance of God's law.

People who acquire a close intimacy with God, a relationship that is open to all, will tell you that it was only then they understood what it was to live. God means everything to them. And, life has more meaning. Even death is no more than a barrier to be torn down to allow them enjoy the fullness of their love. The man who wrote "you have to learn to live before you can learn to die" fully understood the purpose of his existence.

John certainly believes in the value of repetition. In the second reading he is again hammering home the message and value of God's love. And he is saying to us, to love is to live. He does not want us to forget that God proved His love by the sending of His Son to save us, which means that all our lives relate to Calvary. This great act of love was completely unmerited. It was God Himself who took the initiative. When people contemplate this great act of mercy, they react and respond by opening their hearts in gratitude, which John tells us is best expressed in faithful service.

THE WORLD IS IN A MESS

If one were to judge from what one sees, hears and reads, one would conclude that very many no longer love their God. There's a growing disrespect for both God and man. Look at the hatred in the North. Stealing and with violence is an every day occurrence. You are regarded as old fashioned if you speak of chastity or purity. In fact, there's nothing sacred any more. And the end product is, the world is in a mess. It has all happened before, but they never learn, and they never will unless they strive to introduce order based on God's rules.

Jesus in the Gospel spells out for us the implications of love. He directs our attention to the unity and love existing in the Godhead, and he encourages us to cloak ourselves with this love and make ourselves one with them. Hence, we must strive to please God in all we do. The Lord said, it is a great act of love to give one's life for one's friend. That for the majority of us will actually mean living for others. Yes, it means giving time, energy and help etc., but giving in the name of God. Even the disabled have the corresponding duty of thanking God for His care. If we neglect our duties to God and to man, our love would die. God wants your help. He needs your hands and your feet to distribute His love. The reward is very great.

Waterford Vet's Trial On Murder Charge

A Co. Waterford vet was arrested by Gardai after the body of an elderly carpenter was found lying in a pool of blood near the vet's father's house, a jury at the Central Criminal Court in Dublin heard last Wednesday.

John Phelan, a 33-year-old father of four, of Cove Lodge, Stradbally, pleaded not guilty to the murder of Mr. William Horan (74), at Carrowleigh, Rathgormack, Co. Waterford, on September 29 last year.

The jury of nine men and three women heard that Mr. Horan of Owing, Piltown, Co. Kilkenny, was found lying face down on grass near the home of the accused's father, Mr. Seamus Phelan.

Mr. Michael Walsh, a neighbour of the Phelans, told the court that he was looking out his window towards the Phelan house when a ladder at the side of the house caught his eye. He saw two men, one in a light-coloured shirt and the other in dark colours, talking, when he saw the man in the light-coloured shirt push the other man.

Mr. Walsh said he then saw the man in the light-coloured shirt moving his arm as though he was cutting blocks with a stick.

At this stage he got into his car, as he thought a burglary was taking place at the Phelan house. He drove to the Phelan house and saw a man lying on the grass.

Witness said he drove to the Garda Station at Rathgormack and returned with Garda James Kelly. The two men then found Mr. Horan's body lying face down in the grass, with a spade beside the body.

Garda James Kelly said there was blood on the ground around Mr. Horan's body. The garda said he saw a spade lying a couple of feet from the body and he noticed what appeared to be blood stains on the spade's handle.

There was a ladder lying on the grass about 10 feet from the body, the garda added.

Earlier, prosecuting counsel, Mr. Maurice Gaffney, SC, said that the dead man was well known in the area and had been fixing roofs.

Mr. Gaffney told the jury they would hear evidence that the accused man was arrested by gardai around 3 p.m. that day and charged with murder.

A subsequent forensic examination showed that blood on the accused's shoe corresponded to the dead man's blood.

WRITTEN STATEMENT

Det. Garda Brendan Cullimore told the jury that he arrested Phelan near Stradbally round 3.15 p.m.

Phelan said to him: "I'm glad it's over. Will somebody do something for my father and old Willy. It's been going on for a while. I'll go with you now. Who will look after the children. I hit Willy Horan on the head with a shovel."

Det. Garda Cullimore said that as he was bringing Phelan to Waterford Garda Station he asked could he stop at Stradbally Church to say prayers. Phelan then said the Lord's Prayer aloud in the garda car.

At Waterford Garda Station, Phelan made a written statement, which he signed. In the statement, Phelan said that earlier that morning a doctor had tried to take away two of his children.

Phelan said he hit the doctor with his head and then left his house and drove to the family home at Carrowleigh.

"I told Willy Horan who works there to f... off and he kind of mumbled," Phelan said in the statement.

"He had got down off the roof. He was as old as the hills. I took the ladder off him and told him to f... off. I was in a temper and I picked up a shovel that was nearby and I hit him with it.

"I kicked him a few times when he fell. I kicked him in the face and in the testicles. I kicked him in the nose. Blood flowed from the nose copiously," the statement went on.

Phelan said he told the dog, a three-legged dog called Dusty, to attack Mr. Horan, but the dog wouldn't.

Det. Garda Cullimore said that during the interview, Phelan drank numerous cups of water and complained of being very thirsty.

He told prosecuting counsel, Mr. Maurice Gaffney, SC, that Phelan had said he was in Italy for the World Cup.

Witness told Mr. Patrick MacEntee, SC, for Phelan, that there were two children, aged four and two with Phelan, when he arrested him. He noticed that the children did not have any footwear, but they seemed happy.

Det. Garda Cullimore denied a suggestion that he wanted to get a confession from Phelan on the roadside because he knew that Phelan was mentally ill.

He also told counsel that he did not think any of Phelan's behaviour was abnormal.

When the trial continued last Friday, Dr. Richard Brady, Dungarvan gave evidence that the accused had been taken ill on his way to the World Cup in Italy last June. The doctor said that he believed Phelan was suffering from "manic depressive psychosis" and added that Phelan had butted him when he called to his house several hours before the alleged killing. He had been called by Phelan's wife who had become concerned about her husband's behaviour.

VERY UPSET AND AGITATED

After a recess for the week-end the trial resumed on Monday when Supt. P. J. Hayes, Waterford in evidence said that the accused had appeared very upset and agitated when he went to see him in custody on September 20.

Very Rev. Fr. M. J. Ryan, P.P., Stradbally said that he had known Phelan as a hardworking, conscientious man since he became P.P. at Stradbally in 1985. It became obvious to him last September that he was not well and he agreed with defence counsel, Mr. Patrick MacEntee, S.C., that the accused was then a mentally sick man.

The trial continues.

COCK FIGHTING

Gardai are at present investigating what is believed to be cock fighting in the Goatenbridge area of South Tipperary. At around 6 o'clock on last Saturday morning, six dead cocks were found in a field in what was described as an ideal natural pit for a cock fight. About six other cocks with beautiful coloured plumage were found wandering around the district and their natural spurs were entwined with blood and feathers. There is no tradition of cock fighting in the area and it is believed that itinerants or some kind of dealers from outside the district may have been responsible for organising the cock fight. People around the district were shocked with such news.

LOCAL PLAYER STARS FOR TIPPERARY

Local underage player Brian McCarthy, Knockaun, Ballymacarby, gave an outstanding display when assisting Tipperary in the All-Ireland Vocational Schools senior hurling final against Offaly at Roscrea recently. It is hard to see how Waterford could not find a place for him on their minor hurling team.

LATE MRS. BETTY FINN

It is with deep regret we pen the untimely demise of Mrs. Betty Finn (nee Russell) "St. Olivers," Mulberry, Mitchelstown and formerly of Ballyporeen, which sad event took place on Thursday at the Bon Secours Hospital, Cork.

Deceased was a deservedly popular member of an old established South Tipperary family. She was a sister of the late lamented Very Rev. Fr. Michael Russell, P.P., Fourmilewater and Newcastle. She was a caring neighbour whose outgoing sincere nature endeared her to all who were indeed privileged to make her acquaintance and accordingly many now grieve for the void her sad demise leaves.

On Saturday evening her remains were removed from O'Brien's Funeral Parlour, Thomas Street, Mitchelstown to the Church of Mary Conceived Without Sin, Mitchelstown followed by a large and representative concourse of sympathisers, indicating the esteem and high regard in which the deceased was held over a wide area, as they joined with friends and neighbours in a final fitting tribute to a Christian friend. On Sunday after 12 noon Mass she was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

To her husband Michael and family, her brothers and sisters and many other relatives we tender our sympathy. Ar dheis De go raibh a h-anam.

LATE MR. WILLIAM BROPHY

It is with sadness the news was received of the death of Mr. William (Bill) Brophy which sad event took place in his 90th year at his daughter's residence at Barnasalla, Borris-in-Osary on Good Friday, March 29. Bill, a member of the Garda Siochana served for many years at Ballymacarby Station and it was during his stay there that he proved himself as an outstanding hurler with Fourmilewater club in the late 20's and in the 30's, he played on Fourmilewater teams with the Butler brothers, the Grants, the Moores, Jack Halpin, Ned Ryan, Richie Moore and Maurice Morrissey are the only survivors of the 1926 era.

LATE MR. PATRICK POWER

Profound and sincere feelings of regret were widely expressed at the news of the death of Mr. Patrick (Pakie) Power, Knocklucas, Clonmel, which sad event took place at St. Patrick's Hospital, Cashel on Saturday, April 20, after a period of illness but at the fullness of years.

An accomplished and interesting conversationalist he was one of nature's gentlemen, whose unassuming nature commended him to young and old. Pakie was a worthy member of the old stock and his exceptional courtesy and sincere nature truly endeared him to all. He was a caring neighbour and many now deeply and justifiably grieve for his sad demise. The esteem and high regard in which deceased and his family are held was amply indicated when his remains were removed from the Hospital Mortuary on Sunday evening to St. Peter and Paul's Parish Church, Clonmel.

Requiem Mass was offered for the repose of his soul on Monday morning after which the funeral took place to St. Patrick's Cemetery where interment took place.

To his family we tender our sympathy.

Abbeyside Scout Notes

Last week's meeting was unusual for a number of reasons. They were that, first of all, the meeting was held on Thursday night, and secondly, it involved a fishing boat. Yes, after an initial postponement, our fishing trip got underway. First we were driven out to Helvick thanks to the parents involved for this and then we scrambled down ladders and across some moored boats before we boarded Paddy O'Riordan's (himself a former scout) boat.

Colin O'Connor, Damien Wall, John Kyne, David Broderick and Eamonn Veale provided the lines for fishing. We left Helvick at 7.30, heading towards Mine Head. We then doubled back towards Clogher and then between the Black and East Rock we stopped for a spot of fishing. "Smiley," would you believe, was positive we were fishing for "goldfish" while "Leabhra" meanwhile was turning a distinct shade of green. However, he quickly recovered his normal deathly pale colour.

No sea trip is complete without some drama and we had our share at 10 o'clock as we headed to our berth on the Dungarvan quayside, picking our way slowly and carefully along the channel because of the fact that the tide was so low our boat had a draft (nautical term) of four and a half feet and, yes, you've guessed it, the channel at the port was four feet! So we were stuck. A sing song broke out on deck including a religious medley with by-standers on the quay including Alice and Winnie, joining in. After ten minutes, with the tide coming in, we floated free and docked safely at the quay.

We hear that the local teachers did not believe the excuse of "I was stuck on a sandbank" for having no homework done.

NEWS

We hope to have a report of the mother and son camp for next week's notes.

The talk around the den at the moment is of GAS Camp '91. Stay tuned for further details. — SCRIBE.

Mrs. Ryan requested that the County Council examine the wall between the Graveyard Gates and Townparks. She stated that a number of cracks were appearing in the wall and require attention.

Dungarvan Man Makes Court Threat To Hang Himself

A 20-years-old Dungarvan man who had been remanded in custody at St. Patrick's Institution, Dublin from the previous sitting of the court a fortnight earlier declared at Dungarvan Court last week (Wednesday, April 24) that he would hang himself if he was again to be remanded in custody.

He was William Whelan who gave his address as 38, Cathal Brugha Place but, who was stated to have lived formerly at Childers Estate and he appeared in custody before District Justice Uinsinn Mac Gruairc on a number of charges involving the stealing of Bank Deposit Books and a Bank of Ireland Pass Card with which he had illegally obtained £200 from the Bank Pass Machine on March 17 last and with allowing himself to be carried in four stolen cars on the Easter Week-end. Whelan had pleaded guilty to all charges and had been remanded for a fortnight to come up for sentencing.

Garda Inspector M. Delaney who prosecuted told last week's sitting of the Court that two further charges were to be preferred against Whelan — one of assaulting Garda Sergeant Thomas O'Grady at Dungarvan Garda Station on April 24 and causing malicious damage to a cell mattress at the Station.

While Sergeant O'Grady was giving evidence about the fresh charges, Whelan started to shout abuse at him and told District Justice Mac Gruairc that the court could lock him up for another 12 or 18 months but he wanted the truth to be told.

Shouting at the Sergeant who was in the witness box, the defendant declared that he did not give a f... about him, adding "if I am remanded again I will hang myself!"

Shortly after this, the court recessed for a brief period and on resuming, Mr. Niall King, who appeared for the defendant, stated that Whelan would consent to a further remand to Carrick-On-Suir Court on Thursday, May 2.

District Justice Mac Gruairc then told Whelan that he had endeavoured to do all he could for him and said that he did not want him to be in custody for one day longer than was absolutely necessary. He accordingly remanded him in custody as agreed.ø

TOURANEENA NOTES

BADMINTON NOTES

Our 6th division team brought off a magnificent double recently by winning the 6th division knockout cup when they beat Ring in the final down in Waterford. First men Eamonn Lonergan and Aidan Fitzpatrick had a very good game but were narrowly beaten in 3 sets. Our first Ladies Siobhan Walsh and Teresa (Meehan) Condon were also narrowly beaten by a very strong pair in 2 sets. Our second men John P. Fitzpatrick and John Flynn won our first game of the night in 2 sets. Our second Ladies Marie McDonald and Nuala Power (capt) played above themselves and won in 2 sets and surprised all the many supporters who travelled the long distance with them. Our first mixed Eamonn and Nuala also played very well and won in 2 sets. Our second mixed Aidan and Teresa were again barely beaten in 2 sets and were a bit unlucky. So that left the score after 6 games 3 all but we also had a set in hand after the first men. So our 3rd mixed John Patrick and Siobhan were asked to do the needy and in a great game in which every ace had to be fought hard for, we came out winners in 2 sets and the title was ours. Our last mixed John and Marie did not have to play. So what a great year we had in winning League and cup.

COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIPS

We were also very successful in the Co. Championships. Eamonn Lonergan and John P. Fitzpatrick won the 6th division mens doubles; Eamonn Lonergan and Paula Connors won the 6th Div. mixed doubles and Eamonn Lonergan won the mens singles. Karen O'Sullivan beat Paula in the 6th Div. Ladies singles in a very close game.

Mary Flynn and Mary Wall won the 2nd Div. Ladies doubles. Eamonn Lonergan made a bit of local history in playing in 6 finals and winning them all — 6th Div. League, 6th Div. Cup, 6th Div. Mens doubles, 6th Div. mixed doubles, 6th Div. mens singles and he played in the final with the 4th Div. League, replacing Brendan Tobin who was in hospital for the final.

MUNSTER LEAGUE

Even though our 2 teams in these leagues did not win they gave a great account of themselves. Our 6th Div. were beaten by a Cork team in Tallow last week and all played very well. Our 4th Div. team played a Tipperary team in Cashel last Friday night and were also narrowly beaten and were without Pa Hallinan and Brendan Tobin who were both injured. So in all we had a very good year at County level and to finish it off we hope to have a great week next week in our own championships. Photographs will be taken of all winning teams in the Hall in the near future all teams in whites and a celebration session in the pub afterwards. Team captains will be notified. Our end of season hooley will be held in Dunford's Lounge on the 18th of May. A great night assured so anyone interested in going tickets are limited and only a few left from any committee member.

KURDS APPEAL

£220.00 has been sent to the Irish Red Cross in aid of the Kurd refugee appeal, from donations and a card game at the Halfway. Thanks to all the kind people who helped this great cause.

LOURDES

Lourdes Invalid Committee will hold an Irish night at the Halfway Bar, this Saturday night, May 4th. The big attraction of the night will be the Kilrossanty Wren Boys, so a great night is assured for young and old. Please support this very worthy cause. They will also hold an Irish night in Hanrahan's, Ballinamult, next Saturday night May 11th.

WEDDING

Congratulations to John Fitzgerald, Dungarvan and Fiona Hickey, Cahernaleague, Ballinamult, who were married on Saturday last in St Marys Church, Touraneena. We wish John and Fiona many happy years of wedded bliss.

CARDS

G.A.A.

KILL NOTES

KILL G.A.A. NOTES

Last Saturday, April 27 our junior footballers travelled to Fenor to take on De La Salle in the championship. After a bad start the lads got back into it and by half time the scores were level at 5 points each. At the start of the second half the lads played extremely well and had run up 1-4 inside ten minutes with the goal coming from Sean Michael O'Regan. With the lads now leading by eight points De La Salle staged a comeback and with three minutes to go we were only leading by one point, but we just held out in those dying moments for a great win.

Final score — Kill 1-11

De La Salle 2-7.

LATE MR. MICHAEL MOONEY

Last Saturday morning, April 27 we were all saddened to hear of the death of Mr. Michael Mooney, Carrigeen, Kill. Michael was synonymous with horses all his life, as he rode and trained them and was a great judge of a horse. He will now be dearly missed by all who knew him.

His remains were received and blessed at Kill Church by Rev. Fr. Burns, C.C. and a large concourse was present for his burial after 11 o'clock Requiem Mass last Sunday morning in the adjoining cemetery.

We extend our sincerest sympathy to his loving wife Bridget, grandchildren Michael, Helen, Thomas, Raymond, Bridget and Philomena Murphy, relatives and his many friends. May he rest in peace.

Telecom Eireann Announces Details Of New 'Phone Charges

Details of changes in telephone charges were announced recently by Telecom Eireann.

Mr. Fergus McGovern, Chief Executive, in a statement welcoming the price reductions, said that they formed part of Telecom's on-going commitment to lower prices. They will reduce the national telephone bill by 8% or almost £50 million annually when implemented in January 1992.

Details of the changes are as follows:—

● Charges for all national trunk calls over 80km (50 miles) will come down by 33% from £1.01 to 67p per three minutes (peak) and from 67p to 45p per 3 minutes off-peak.

● Peak rates apply Monday to Friday 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Off-Peak rates apply all other times.

● Many local call areas will be expanded thus giving increased local coverage for 75% of customers outside the (01) area.

● Local calls will be timed at 15 minute intervals for week day peak times (8 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday to Friday). Less than 3% of calls are affected. All other local calls including weekends and public holidays will be timed at 30 minute intervals. Less than 2% of calls are effected. Each timed interval will be charged at the same rate as the preset local call, i.e. 11.17p.

● The fee for operator assisted calls will rise from 20p to 50p while alarm clock calls via the operator will go up from 50p to 75p.

● A charge of 11.17p per call is to be introduced for Directory Enquiries. This will not be charged for enquiries from payphones.

Blind persons will also be exempt.

● There will be no change in the five minute local call charge, currently, 20p, from a payphone although there will be an overall increase of 6% in payphone charges to part compensate for the implementation of V.A.T. (12.5%).

EXPANDED LOCAL AREAS

Some examples of charge reduction as a result of the expanded local areas will include Dungarvan - Clonmel, present rate 34p for 3 mins. or £1.70 for 15 minutes, new rate 11.17p for 15 mins.; Dungarvan - Middleton, do.; Dungarvan - Cahir, do.; Kilmacthomas - Clonmel, do.; Cappoquin - Cahir, do.; Lismore - Clonmel, do.; Ballyduff - Middleton, do.

PENSMAN Takes You . . . . . Behind The SPOTLIGHT

THIS MUST NEVER BE ALLOWED TO HAPPEN AGAIN

Last week the entire nation was veritably brought to its knees by the strike action of 1,000 electricians employed by the E.S.B. The strike was about whether or not the electricians should be given a pay increase of two per cent or five per cent in return for past concessions on productivity. That was as the electricians saw the issue but on another level it was whether or not a small but powerful group with a great deal of industrial muscle could drive a coach and four through the Programme for Economic and Social Progress.

The strike went on for five days during which the entire country had to endure a continuation of unannounced power cuts. It is not our intention to rake over the coals of what went on prior to or during the period of the strike but we are concerned that some fail-safe system should be introduced to ensure that such a strike will never be allowed to happen again.

It is no consolation for those of us in all walks of life, who are dependant to a major or lesser degree on electricity to have to suffer while unions and employers bicker about their grievances and the Government displays a preference to play politics instead of doing what they should do and govern, as happened throughout last week.

Many will agree with the argument that workers employed in such a vital and public national service should not have the right to ever go on strike. However, our Minister for Labour made it clear no later than last Monday that he would not be in favour of a law banning such strikes.

Perhaps then something should be done to have a sufficient number of trained personnel within the Army who would take-over if the electricians or some other such body in a vital area opted for strike action again. Or maybe some arrangement could be made to enable us to connect into an alternative supply of electricity perhaps from Britain or Northern Ireland. Certainly the monopoly must be broken in some way.

The time for pussy-footing is over and the Government must now take action to ensure if some more civilised system of dealing with grievances cannot be put in place that the entire country is not cruelly, wrongly and most expensively held to ransom ever again.

MAGNIFICENT RESPONSE TO KURDISH REFUGEE APPEAL

The appeal on behalf of the Kurdish refugees in Iraq whose desperate plight since the cessation of the Gulf War has been highlighted daily on our television screens met with a magnificent response in Dungarvan and district last week-end.

Staff at the Mercy Convent which was the local collection point were kept busy dealing with the great quantities of adult and children's clothes handed in as well as blankets and non-perishable foodstuffs.

The Dungarvan Soroptomists Group organised the collection of funds in conjunction with the appeal and we understand that here also the public showed a wonderful spirit of generosity as several thousands of pounds which will go towards the purchase of medical supplies and equipment were collected.

The response showed how deeply touched we all have been by the great misfortune which has befallen the Kurds in having to flee the wrath of the fiendish Saddam Hussein who continues to rule in Iraq.

WHO ARE WE TO BELIEVE?

We have been informed by members of the Government and by Government spokesmen on a regular basis how well the economy is going, how inflation is being kept well in check and how good future prospects look for the country.

However, last week, in his opening address to the Annual I.M.I. Conference which was held in Killarney, Professor Joe Lee of University College, Cork said that we have been deluding ourselves about our economic performance.

We have done this, he said, by looking at averages relative to other E.C. countries but even in the 1960's when we were doing well our growth rate was significantly below the rates of European economies at a comparable stage of development.

Taking our current situation, Professor Lee told the conference delegates that if emigration was counted into our employment figures that it would be running at 30 per cent and not 20 per cent which was the figure currently being quoted. Furthermore, if the proportion of working wives in the labour force was closer to the E.C. average, he said that we would be running at a 30 per cent unemployment rate.

Professor Lee pointed out that in assessing ourselves there are two things to be taken into account: unemployment and emigration as they are the best pointers to long term economic performance. The truth, therefore, was that we had fallen behind most of the economies of the other E.C. countries because we had failed to match the growth rates of even the more backward economies.

Was Professor Lee just scare-mongering when he addressed the I.M.I. Conference in this manner or was he just laying bare the situation as it really is. His picture of the economy is certainly at odds with what the politicians would want us to believe. The question that remains to be answered though is, who are we to believe where these very important issues are concerned.

MINISTER'S BOUQUET FOR COUNTY MANAGER

During the course of her speech when she performed the official opening of the new Church of Ireland Liosmor Mochuda National School in Lismore last Monday, the Minister for Education, Mary O'Rourke was in sparkling form as she told the V.I.P. gathering of the thrill she had experienced in travelling over the famous Vee for the first time on her way to the Cathedral town.

The Minister had complimentary remarks to make about several among the attendance whom she knew previously and paid a particular compliment to Waterford County Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley. She recalled that Mr. Hurley was an old friend of hers as he was attached to the Local Authority in her own home constituency of Westmeath before coming to Waterford. "What was Westmeath's loss has been Waterford's gain", said the Minister, a compliment which will be generally endorsed by all.

A POOR RESPONSE TO AGE AWARENESS WEEK

Last Sunday marked the beginning of the National

Age Awareness Week organised under the Age and Opportunity Campaign with the slogan for this year "Rarin' To Go!" In many parts of the country a special programme of activities was organised for the benefit of the active over 55 years group to mark the occasion.

Here in Dungarvan a most entertaining town walk was conducted by Nurse Monica Walsh on Sunday evening but regrettably the response to the effort was extremely poor, not more than fifteen people turning up to take part.

However, for the few that did participate it turned out to be a most enjoyable occasion and we have been asked on behalf of the group to thank especially the members of the Dungarvan Brass Band who gave up their afternoon to entertain the walkers with a grand recital during a stop off at the Friary Hall. "They played beautifully as usual and deserve great credit and we look forward to hearing them again often during the coming summer," the spokeswoman for the group told us.

As It Was A Century Ago In Knockanore

This week we continue our commemoration of Miss Bridget Budds (in last week's issue due to a typographical error the word 'commemoration' appeared as 'communication') who was born at Kilcockan near Tallow on December 14, 1869 and who died in December 1898 at the early age of 29 years.

Under the nom-de-plume "Heather Bell," she had many of her beautiful poems published during her lifetime some of which have now come to us courtesy of Tom Murray from Dunmoon, Tallow. Last week we published the poem "Camglass" and continue with another this week.

But first, in order to give readers an insight into the background of this very talented young woman who graced the Knockanore district all of 100 years ago, we will publish extracts from an Obituary published shortly following her demise in 1898 which stated: "On the 16th inst. this genial and talented young lady passed away after a brief illness at her mother's residence. As "Heather Bell" she will be best known to readers of the "Weekly Herald" whose pages so often contained her beautiful poetic contributions . . ."

It then goes on: "Of a retiring and unassuming disposition, like the mountain flower she chose for nom-de-plume, her delights were to walk along the slopes of her native Helicon — the green hill of Camglass — or to pensively stray beside the old adjacent churchyard of Kilcockan in her mother's farm, communing in poetic transport with its voiceless inmates."

The obituary continues: "To natives of Knockanore, at home or abroad, the news of her death at the early age of twenty-nine will be a cause of unaffected sorrow, and must needs bring before their mental ken scenes of the dear old village, and the faces of such genial and noble characters as the veteran "Postman Maurice" so beautifully depicted in, and happily introduced into the writings of the gifted young lady who is now no more. Her remains were laid to rest in the new burial ground attached to the local chapel and many wreaths as tokens of true affection were laid on the green sod that encloses them by sorrowing relatives and sympathetic friends. The Rev. T. Walsh, P.P., Knockanore, assisted by Rev. J. Curran, C.C. officiated at the graveside. R.I.P."

Here then is another of "Heather Bells" lovely poems which tells of the beauties of "Glendine" (its title) as she saw it during her lifetime a century ago—

Glendine, oh lovely calm retreat!
The seat of rural peace and bliss
Thy bowers how beautiful and sweet
When tinged with summers ripening kiss.

Each vista green each sunny mead
Hills, glens, glades and mills combine
To make thee what thou art indeed
A bonny, beautiful spot Glendine.

There beauty wandering wreaths her spells
Among thy stately wood-crowned heights
And gently sloping mossy dells
Whose wondrous bloom the heart delights.

When first I saw thee, fair retreat
Thy every sylvan shade and gleam
Thy smile was of so softly sweet
A dream of Eden did'st thou seem.

What charms to captivate the eye
Adown thy fern-fringed woodland paths
Dim nooks embowered in greenery
And tree-girt lonely fairy raths.

'Twas May — the heavens were blue above
The ground rejoiced in the same hue,
For stream in every shadowy grove
Were lovely odorous bells of blue

Green drooping brambles interwove
O'er canopy thy babbling mills;
And every hazel clustered grove
With bursts of wild sweet music thrills.

Up from St. Michael's Chapel fair
Embosomed in a bloomy dell,
Came sweetly on the balmy air
The mellow pealing of a bell.

Exquisite music in whose strains
A thousand feathered minstrels join
They love thy shady hills and glens
O peaceful, beautiful Glendine!

It entered every convent dim
And echoed softly far and near
Raising the mind on high to him
The author of all beauty there.

How pleasant thy recesses deep
Where dainty wild flowers freely bloom
And timid soft grey rabbits peep
From out the dusky trees soft-gloom..

Long may'st thou bloom o tranquil place!
May peacefulness be always thine
And beauty ne'er withdraw her grace
From thy fair scenes o sweet Glendine

RECENT DEATHS

Late Geraldine Margaret Egan

Widespread sorrow and deep regret were occasioned with the passing of Geraldine Margaret Egan, 18 Mitchel Terrace, Dungarvan, which occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan on Tuesday, April 23. A member of an old Dungarvan family who enjoy the respect and high esteem of the entire community, Geraldine was 30 years of age and had, in previous years, resided in Middlesborough where she assisted with many social projects involving the aged and young.

Educated at the Mercy Convent, Geraldine loved music and television. She was mustered keen on the pop scene and loved dancing. For some years she had been a regular at the bingo sessions in the soccer club and enjoyed the various snooker and dart competitions in the Shandon Arms.

Despite her long duration of illness, Geraldine kept her cheery sense of humour and indeed bore her cross of illness with tremendous courage and resignation.

We extend our deepest sympathy to her son, mother, grandmother, brother, sister and many other relatives and friends on their loss.

On Wednesday evening last following Rosary and Prayers of Requiem at the hospital mortuary, the cortege left for St. Mary's Parish Church. En route the funeral paused in prayerful silence at Mitchel Terrace. Rev. J. Kiely, C.C. blessed and received the remains, assisted by Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A., in the presence of a huge gathering who had come to pay their respects.

Following Requiem Mass on Thursday morning celebrated by Fr. Kiely, the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. The Liturgy of the Word was read by Jean (sister) and Ursula Fraher (relative). Jim Keohan sang appropriate music which was deeply appreciated by the family. The numbers at the funeral obsequies spoke volumes of Geraldine's popularity. Among the large concourse were representatives of the Multiple Sclerosis Society and Rev. J. Hooper, O.S.A. and Rev. W. Carey, C.C.

Very many beautiful floral tributes were placed on Geraldine's resting place, reflecting the love and affection of her family and friends.

Chief mourners — Joseph (son), Dolly (mother), Bridie (grandmother), John (brother), Jean (sister), David (stepfather), Mary (aunt), Joseph and Thomas (uncles) and a wide circle of relatives including Crotty, O'Neill, Egan families and Nicholas Kiely.

Mr. John Stack

On Monday, April 22, the quiet, picturesque townland of Canty, Cappagh, awakened to the sad news that one of its most respected and esteemed citizens, John Stack, had answered the final call from his Maker, at Waterford Regional Hospital. Aged 81 years, John was employed for 21 years as foreman with the Agricultural Limestone Works now the J. A. Wood Plant. He was a man of exemplary character who carried out his duties with vision and understanding, indeed his employers were fortunate to have a man of his ability and expertise at their disposal. In his former years he worked as driver/salesman with Power's Brewery and his courteous manner coupled with his excellent service were greatly appreciated.

In his spare time he did some farming and was a founder member of Macra Na Feirme in the Ballinameela area. He always kept abreast of happenings and developments in the agricultural scene. He was one of the driving forces behind the Rural Electrification Scheme in the area. He always sought to improve the lot of his neighbours, hence he was always ready to assist those in need.

A man of principle, John was a most upright, honourable and sincere man who lived for his wife and family, to whom we extend our deepest sympathy on their loss.

In his youth he donned the Ballinameela colours and all his life took a great interest in the happenings in the local GAA scene. He loved to read, with the historical aspect in literature his great favourite. He was a keen gardener and got immense pleasure out of his garden.

A deeply religious man, John often assisted with the many projects in Ballinameela Church, especially the Christmas crib.

John enjoyed the highest esteem of all who came in contact with him and his death has been the cause of much sorrow to all.

On Tuesday evening, following Prayers of Requiem and Rosary recited by Rev. M. O'Byrne, the funeral left the Kiely Funeral Home for Ballinameela via Whitechurch Road. On arrival, Rev. Fr. O'Byrne, C.C., blessed and received the remains assisted by Very Rev. F. Lucey, P.P., Very Rev. P. Fitzgerald, P.P., Very Rev. T. Nugent, P.P., Rev. W. Carey, C.C., Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A. and Rev. Fr. Martin, O.S.A.

On Wednesday morning the holy sacrifice of the Mass was offered for the happy repose of his soul. The Lessons were read by Esther (daughter) and John (grandson). Prayers of the Faithful were shared with the overflowing congregation by Caragh and Kevin (grandchildren) while the Offertory Gifts were brought to the altar by Kevin, Pauline, Caragh, Stephen, Cyril. John and Kenneth were altar boys. Soloist Marie Kirrane, musicians Joe White, Catherine McGrath, Mairead Looby, Bobby Nolan and The Parish Choir under the direction of Micheal Culloog sang and played music appropriate to our coming together, tributes richly deserved by a man who touched so many of those present with his own extraordinary gifts on life's journey.

Rev. M. O'Byrne, C.C., officiated at the graveside, assisted by Very Rev. Fr. Lucey, P.P., and Rev. W. Carey, C.C., while the Irish Christian Brothers Community in Lismore were represented by Rev. Bros. Kavanagh and Boyd. Very many beautiful wreaths were placed on John's resting place.

Chief mourners — Mary (wife), Eddie and Michael (sons), Breda and Esther (daughters). Joe and John (sons-in-law), Mary and Noreen (daughters-in-law), Kevin, Pauline, Stephen, Caragh, Ross, Kenneth, John, Cyril, Ann, Kathryn (grandchildren), Eddie and Willie (brothers), Annie (sister) and a wide circle of relatives including nephews, nieces, cousins and very many friends.

Mr. Patrick Power

We record with very sincere regret the passing of Mr. Patrick Power, Middle-quarter, Kilossera, which occurred at Waterford Regional Hospital on Saturday, April 20 after a lengthy duration of illness. A local,

Patrick was employed at William Fennell & Co., for many years and was a hard working individual who gave of his best at all times. Aged 70 years, Patrick was very popular with all, he relished a good conversation and his contribution was always listened to as he was a man of substance. He was an outdoor man who enjoyed working in the garden or decorating his home, and both stand as testimony to his talents and dedication.

We offer our condolences to his wife, son, daughters and other relatives on their loss.

On Sunday evening Patrick's remains were brought from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church and on arrival Rev. Fr. J. Kiely, C.C., assisted by Rev. W. Carey, C.C. and Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A., conducted the funeral service. The Liturgy of the Word was shared by grandson Michael at Patrick's Requiem Mass which was celebrated by Rev. J. Kiely, C.C., who also officiated at the graveside in the presence of a representative gathering.

Mr. Robert Palmer

News of the sudden and unexpected death of Mr. Robert Palmer which occurred at his residence at 5 Keating Street, Dungarvan on Thursday, April 18, was learned with feelings of profound sorrow and regret throughout the entire area. He was 46.

Robert had been out and about on Thursday evening and in his usual good spirits, and his passing came as a devastating blow to his family and friends.

Robert was a barman by trade and had worked for the last eight or nine years at the well known licensed premises of James and Rita Ducey at Main Street.

Prior to that he worked at the Rusty Nail (McGraths), O'Connell Street and before that again at the Devonshire Arms Hotel in Bridge Street.

Of a quiet nature, Robert got on with everyone and his personality suited his work down to the ground. He enjoyed the "crack" in the bar and could "give as well as take," and his dry wit and good humoured nature made him extremely popular with the punters.

Never one to complain, he took the rough with the smooth and enjoyed life to the full. He loved to travel and had been to Lourdes a number of times as well as travelling to other destinations for holidays on the continent.

Robert also liked photography and liked nothing better than a walk in the countryside around Dungarvan. He had a huge number of friends in the area who deeply regret his passing. A loving son, brother and uncle, he will be sadly missed by all but more especially by his mother Maisie, sisters and other family relatives to whom we extend deep and sincere sympathy on their great loss.

Following Rosary at the Drohan Funeral Home on Friday evening said by Rev. W. Carey, C.C., removal was to St. Mary's Parish Church where the remains were received and blessed on arrival by Fr. Carey, assisted by Fr. O'Sullivan.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Saturday by Fr. Carey, C.C. and also present was Fr. Ahearne, C.C., Very Rev. M. Canon Farrell, P.P., Fr. Hooper, O.S.A. and Fr. O'Sullivan. Burial took place afterwards in the adjoining cemetery. Fr. Carey officiated at the graveside, assisted by the full choir of clergy, in the presence of a large number of sympathisers. The Lessons at the Mass were read by P. J. Breen (nephew), Susan Wade (niece) and Wendy Flynn (niece). Appropriate music was rendered by the Abbeyside Choir. A huge number of floral tributes were placed on his grave.

The chief mourners were — Maisie (mother), Rita, Agnes, May, Doris, Phyllis, Teresa, Gabrielle, Monica and Catherine (sisters), Lizzie Wade (aunt), brothers-in-law, nephews, nieces, etc.

(Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

Mr. Paddy Walsh

We regret to record the death of Mr. Paddy Walsh, Colligan Beg, Dungarvan, which occurred on Sunday, April 21. A member of the farming community, he was a hard working man and he also loved the garden. He was part and parcel of Colligan Church and was always willing to give a helping hand.

A good neighbour and friend, his death is deeply regretted and we tender sincere sympathy to his family relatives on their sad loss.

Following Rosary said by Very Rev. R. Doherty, P.P., and Fr. J. Hickey, O.S.A., removal was from the Drohan Funeral Home to Colligan Church where the remains were received on Monday afternoon by Fr. Doherty.

Following Requiem Mass on Monday evening celebrated by Fr. Doherty, burial took place in the adjoining cemetery. Fr. Doherty officiated at the graveside in the presence of a large concourse of mourners. The Lessons were read by Anthony McCann (nephew) and Kay Johnson (niece).

The chief mourners — Lucy (sister-in-law), Tony McCann (brother-in-law), Michael and Anthony McCann, Pat, Justin, Peter and Dermot Walsh (nephews), Kay Johnson, Mary Lou, Walsh (nieces), relatives and friends.

C.L.C.G. LIOS MOR

Sympathy — Everyone in the club was saddened to learn of the tragic death of popular local hotelier, Joe Everett which occurred last week. We express our sincere sympathy to his wife Maria, family and relatives on their great loss. May he rest in peace.

Minor "B" Football — Our minor footballers were decisively beaten by a stronger and more skilful St. Patricks fifteen in Touraneena on Friday evening in their second outing of the current championship.

Paddy Whelan Tournament — The annual tournament for under-14 hurling, which commemorates former deceased sportsman, Paddy Whelan, took place at the Castle Farm venue on Saturday last when four teams competed for this prestigious trophy. They were St. Marys from Clonmel, Middleton, Fermoy and Lismore.

After a series of games which were run off in clockwork fashion, Middleton and Lismore emerged to qualify for the final. After a closely fought first half, the "Magpies" gained control and ran out winners in the end to take the title for the second consecutive year. Fermoy subsequently beat Clonmel to win the "B" final, which rounded off an exciting afternoon's entertainment for the large crowd present.

After the finals, Mrs. Anne Whelan presented the trophy to the Middleton captain, while local victualler Michael McGrath ensured once again that every individual who took part went home happy with a beautiful medal for their efforts on the day.

During the afternoon refreshments were provided by our ever ready ladies committee in the clubhouse. Our thanks to everyone concerned for once again making the tournament an outstanding success.

The Lismore panel was: Eugene O'Brien (capt.), Brendan Landers, Billy Buckley, Maurice O'Connor, Brian O'Farrell, Anthony Whelan, Ian Shanahan, David Hickey, John Begley, William Cunningham, Michael Shanahan, David Bennett, Thomas Veale, Eoin Bennett, Stephen Quinn, Kenneth Kearney, Alan O'Gorman, Billy Walsh, Michael O'Gorman, Fergus Hickey, David Howard, David Whelan.

Under-21 Hurling County Final — Following our comprehensive win over Cappoquin in the Western final just a week earlier, we travelled to Walsh Park on Sunday in defence of our county title when Mount Sion once again provided the opposition. Even without the valued services of the injured Kieran O'Gorman we were cautiously optimistic but we found the opposition too tough on the day. See report elsewhere in this issue.

We thank Mount Sion for the post-match hospitality shown to our team and officials when they were treated to refreshments in the clubhouse before returning home. Later that evening the team and officials were guests at a special function at "Eamonn's Place" where an excellent meal was provided by the management and staff.

Our appreciation to the large crowd of supporters who made the journey to Waterford. A special word of thanks to Dick and Sonny for organising the supporters bus, and finally we salute the players and selectors for all the hard work they put in over a short period. Beidh la eile againn le cunamh De.

The Lismore panel on Sunday was — Declan Landers (capt.), James Hickey, Kieran Clancy, Pat

Senior Hurling Championship 1991 — We look forward to Sunday next, May 5, when our senior hurlers have their first outing of the season against Portlawn in Dungarvan at 3.30 p.m. Your vocal and moral support would be appreciated as we start out in quest of the "big one" which has eluded us for far too long.

Our best wishes go to the players and mentors for a successful campaign.

Feile Na nGael 1991 — At rainswept Cappoquin on Monday evening our under-14 hurlers stormed to a surprisingly easy victory over Abbeyside and qualified to meet Dungarvan in the Western final on this Monday at 6.15 p.m., again at the Cornerstone venue.

The panel, which was the same one that played four gruelling games in the Paddy Whelan Tournament on Saturday showed no signs of fatigue and are obviously fit and ready for Monday's final against the "Old Boro." We wish them well in their quest for Divisional honours.

National Schools Hurling Blitz — St. Colman's College, Fermoy hosted a hurling blitz for national schools last week which involved a total of 15 teams. Lismore were drawn in Category "A" along with Tallow, Glanworth, Kilworth and Watergrasshill.

Our boys beat all before them to qualify for the final against Watergrasshill and after an exciting encounter, Lismore took the spoils on a 1-5 to 1-0 scoreline. Well done lads.

Community Festival 1991 — A meeting of the committee will be held at Lismore Hotel on this Thursday evening, May 2, at 8 p.m. Your attendance would be appreciated.

Don't Be A Weed

—Fight 'Em Now

FIRE the first shots in the war against weeds and the summer campaign will be much easier.

But holding fire will allow the weeds to gain ground as the warmer April weather injects all-round vigour into the garden.

An early move now also enables the weeding to be done without resorting to 'ungreen' methods such as weedkillers, which can damage the plants you wish to keep as well as being hazardous to apply and a risk to pets and children.

Simple hoeing of flower beds and vegetable plots is just as effective now by simply detaching the weeds from their roots before the pests gain a foothold.

If you must use chemicals — garden paths often require such attention — then use the proprietary gel types which can be dabbed on in a more localised and controlled way.

After weeding, lay a loose mulch of well-rotted garden compost, pulverised bark or old sawdust to a depth of about an inch around flowers, shrubs and small trees. Avoid using peat — a resource which is fast being used up.

Mulching will not only deter the weed heads from poking through again but also help keep moisture in the soil, for April is a surprisingly dry month despite its traditional reputation for showers.

In fact, the regular should stand by to water where necessary or the spring vigour of his flowers and vegetables may be set back for the rest of the year by a sudden burst of warm sunny weather.

But that doesn't necessarily rule out the risk of frost either so protect fragile plants with cloches or home-made 'tents' of hessian, plastic sheet or polythene.

Some of the risks can be avoided by choosing higher locations in the garden for such frost-prone plants and using sturdier stock for lower parts where frost will lie thickest.

If the worst comes to the worst you can limit frost damage by spraying or watering affected plants with tepid water, which should also ease any follow-up damage from the contrasting temperature of the daytime sun.

Now is also a good time to check ivy which will otherwise start to run amok and quickly gain a hold on house walls. Clip it close and, if it is a threat to the home or trees, cut the stump as low as possible and paint with an ammonium sulphate solution.

You can cut back overgrown holly, laural, yew and box hedging quite severely now as long as a sharp pair of shears or electric trimmer is used — messy cuts will disfigure and promote infection.

The lawn will now need more mowing and can be conditioned for the coming months using a spring or electric lawn rake to pick out 'thatch', which builds up and hampers drainage and nourishment of the grass.

More Memories of Growing Up in West Waterford

REVIVAL OF "THE STATIONS"

I well remember about 1930, the revival, after a lapse of many years, of the old custom of holding the Stations in private houses. This revival came as a bit of a shock to some and spurred many of them into action to bring their homes up to an acceptable standard for the priest and the celebration of Mass. What gave rise to the stations in the first place? Many believe the custom began in penal times when it was against the law to celebrate Mass.

In spite of the prohibition, Mass continued to be celebrated — quite often on the rocks in the open air. If the weather was inclement the celebration had to be taken indoors to houses in quiet places. Because there was a price on the heads of priests, they often travelled incognito — as vagrants or as farm labourers.

With the revival of the stations in my parish came a new zeal for the Catholic faith. The parish was subdivided into station areas consisting mostly of two townlands. It was expected that every household would hold the stations if they could afford it. Stations were held twice a year at Easter time and in the Autumn.

The priest would arrive either on a bicycle or if it was convenient on foot. On the day before the stations, the Mass basket had to be brought to the house either from the church or from where ever the stations were held on that particular day. This was a wicket basket about three feet by two feet and one foot deep. It contained everything the priest needed for the celebration of Mass except the communion breads which he brought himself.

It was the duty of the Mass server, usually a local boy aged 10 to 13 years, to set up the altar. The kitchen table was placed up on two chairs and placed against the wall. On it was placed the Altar Stone, three altar cloths, two wax candles, three prayer charts, and the chalice which was always wrapped in a green beige bag. Nobody was allowed to touch the chalice except the priest. On top of the altar the boy had to place the vestments in the correct order. The priest always checked the altar on arrival to ensure that everything was correct.

Confessions were usually heard in the parlour and penitents went there one by one. At that time most of the people present would go to confession. The server had to make a count of all those intending to receive Holy Communion and some priests were very particular that the count was absolutely correct. Mass over, the priest set about collecting "the dues" from those present. In the meantime the women folk prepared breakfast — usually toast, tea and a boiled egg. The woman of the house used enquire as to how each person wanted their egg done. I remember one particular priest who always said "with another." About eight persons would sit down with the priest — two always included in this sitting were the head of the house and the Mass server.

Station breakfasts were pretty much the same as people would ordinarily have. The only extras would be lump sugar and "station" loaf which could be either a barn brack or a seed loaf. Toast was made in front of the open fire. There was usually an expert toast maker and she could manipulate three forks and would make three cuts at the one time.

USUAL TOPICS

Conversation at the breakfast table was about the usual topics — the weather, the happenings on the farm and maybe some local gossip. I am sure the priest often heard parish secrets at the stations. The Mass server was the first to leave the table as he had to go to school and would aim to be there at about 11 a.m. He was always given a cut of the station loaf well spread with home made butter and two shillings.

I remember on one famous occasion an old woman went to Confession and forgot to close the parlour door after her. The priest was slightly deaf and impatient as well. As the Confession proceeded he spoke to her in a raised tone of voice. "Was it one, or a dozen or a bucketful you stole." The poor woman in an effort to quieten him down said "Oh one, one, one father." Down in the kitchen there was a lot of speculation as to what she stole. Eggs were ruled out because of the reference to the bucket. It was not the apple season and potatoes were all safely in barns. The conclusion was that it must have been a turnip. I am sure that old woman had no trouble getting by St. Peter at the Golden Gate! —M.M.

Apricot and almond afters

ALMONDS and apricots not only start with the letter "A", they go together beautifully; the perfect tasty complement.

So here's a pudding that perfectly blends their subtle flavourings.

ALMOND APRICOT PUDDING

- Ingredients:
- 1/2 lb (225g) dried apricots
  - 1/4 pint (10fl oz) water
  - 2oz (55g) brown sugar
  - 3oz (85g) butter
  - 3oz (85g) caster sugar

Soak apricots in water overnight, drain off surplus liquid. Place fruit in a greased 2 pint ovenproof dish. Sprinkle over the brown sugar. Cream butter and caster sugar together until light and fluffy. Add almond essence and egg yolks, beat well. Fold in flour. Whisk egg whites until stiff and carefully fold into the sponge mixture.

Spread over the fruit and sprinkle over the almonds. Bake Gas Mark 4 or 350F 45-50 minutes. Plums, rhubarb or apples may be used instead of apricots.

Serves 4-5.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

AT THE SPORTSFIELD

On Friday evening we had the minor football championship game Naomh Brid v. Tallow. This was not the match scheduled for the venue. We understand it was originally fixed for Lismore. The game fixed for the sportsfield was Lismore v. St. Patricks. It is understandable that venues have to be changed, often at the last minute. Unfortunately it can be puzzling for the followers, which was reflected in the case when only four paying patrons came along. As to the game itself it was one way traffic with Naomh Brid vastly superior in all departments. Final score Naomh Brid 2-15 Tallow 1-2.

Referee J. M. Kelly (Shamrocks)

On Sunday the sportsfield staged the Western Under 21 '3' Western Final — An Gaeltacht v. Ballyduff. A good crowd turned up for the game which was played in ideal conditions. In the previous round Ballyduff looked good against Naomh Brid and many had them earmarked for County honours. In this final, however, they never repeated that form, being thwarted in every move by a tough skillful Gaeltacht side which was well prepared. They contested every ball with fervour and on this form will be difficult to beat in the County Final. It reflects great credit on the dedicated mentors to have motivated a group team to work so well together.

Final score — An Gaeltacht 4-9 Ballyduff 1-6.

Referee — J. M. Kelly (Shamrocks)

After the game Ollie Wilkinson (Vice-chairman Western Board) presented the trophy to the winning captain, Brendan Power.

A BIT OF GOOD NEWS

On a few occasions in the past we have referred to the sewerage problem at Sunlawn, Cappoquin. We are now informed by Councillor Wilkinson that there is a good chance that work will be carried out in the near future. This is good news indeed and will be most welcome to the people of the area.

CUT BACKS

The proposed reorganisation by An Post has received nationwide publicity in recent times. On a local level it is not envisaged that there will be closure of any sub-post office. What is the cause of some concern is the proposed use of boxes which are to be sited at the end of lanes leading to houses which are not on the roadside. These boxes are at present being used in the area where customers have agreed. Many people though, are resisting the change for a variety of reasons. The main one would appear to be the lack of social contact which has always existed between rural people and their postman. Others believe that the boxes will eventually be a target for vandals. It is also thought that there will be an erosion of confidentiality. At least one person that we know would like to know the procedure if she has a letter to post. This service would apparently be lost.

THIS WEEKS QUESTION

Who wrote the song "Evening In Mount Melleray"?

Answer next week.

Answer to last week's question — The Red Bridge.

LADIES FOOTBALL

The under 16 final was played at Ballymacarby last Sunday. Na Deise v. the home team. This was a first class game of football in which no quarter was asked for or given, it was anybody's game, right up to the final whistle.

Final Score — Na Deise 1-3 Ballymacarby 0-4.

Referee — Ger Mooney (Kill)

Deise team — C. Fitzgerald, O. Lonergan, K. Denn, M. Hickey, S. Power, H. Lonergan, A. Dunford, O. Condon, M. Walsh, M. Cahill, R. Ryan, E. Denn, C. Ryan, A. Grady, M. Tobin.

MELLERAY BOWLING

Last Sunday, K. Fraher beat Liam Power. B. Whelan beat S. Murphy and M. McGrath. Scores for next Sunday 5th May — A. Sexton, J. O'Donoghue, P. Fitzgerald, P. Moore, T. Hickey, M. Gambon, L. Ormonde.

AFFANE BRIDGE RESULTS

1st, Brid Bergin, Lil Costin; 2nd, M. Radford, A. McGrath; 3rd, C. Roche, Fr. Barron.

CAPPOQUIN AND DISTRICT DARTS LEAGUE

The semi finals of the cup took place on last Friday night. Both games took place in the Village Inn as both Village teams received home draws. The Village Inn A took on the Old Still and despite some good darts by the Clashmore men, the Village A ran out easy winners and booked a place in the final. In the other semi final it was division two winners Village Inn B versus cup holders Lindsays. Lindsays took the first game but the Village took the next to level. The next two games went to Lindsays to give them a three one lead and requiring just one more for victory but the Village fought back well and took the last three games to make it to the final against the Village

A side.

This must be a unique occasion with both the Village Inn A and B in the final. The final takes place next Friday night in Deckies.

KARATE CLUB NOTES

We travelled to Fermoy last Sunday week to compete in a Kata and Kumite (freestyle fighting) tournament. There was a very good entry with most of Munster's top clubs taking part. The standard of karate shown by all students was excellent with some memorable bouts.

MR. THOMAS KERTON

We record with deep regret the passing of Mr. Thomas (Tommy) Kerton of Shanbally, whose death occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan on Fri. April 19. Beloved husband of Peggy Kerton, he was in his 78th year and had enjoyed excellent health throughout his life.

Originally from Killester in Dublin, Tommy served with the British Army and was based in Europe during the Second World War. After the war, he was employed by Mr. W. E. D. Allen of the well known publishing company as a chauffeur. When Mr. Allen bought Whitechurch House in Cappagh, Tommy accompanied him to Ireland, where he met and married Peggy and settled in Cappoquin. He served as chauffeur to Mr. Allen until his retirement.

Throughout his life Tommy was always in jovial spirits and was very active in local clubs and organisations in his adopted town of Cappoquin, that he knew and loved so well. He was a very keen gardener, an expert D.I.Y. man and also enjoyed fishing in the Blackwater and Glenshelane rivers, but above all, Tommy was a loving husband and father, and will be sadly missed, not alone by his family, but by all the people who knew and loved him so well. Though leaving Dublin is his teens, Tommy never lost his distinctive Dublin accent.

Ar Dheis De go raibh a anam.

Removal of his remains took place from St. Joseph's Hospital to St. Mary's Parish Church, Cappoquin on Fri. April 19. On arrival the remains were received by Very Rev. Fr. Phelan P.P. assisted by Fr. Lloyd C.C., Fr. Mulcahy, Ballyduff, Fr. Pierce, Fr. Walsh, and Brother O'Connor of St. Joseph's, Ferryhouse, Clonmel. A guard of honour was formed by the boys of St. Joseph's.

Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul was celebrated on Saturday, April 20 by Rev. Fr. Lloyd C.C. assisted by Fr. Slane, and Fr. Pierce of St. Joseph's, Ferryhouse, Clonmel. Burial took place in St. Declan's cemetery immediately afterwards. Large crowds attended on both occasions and beautiful floral tributes were placed on his grave reflecting the love and affection of his family and so many friends.

The chief mourners were Peggy (wife), daughters, Catherine, Ann, Siobhan, and Mairead, sisters-in-law, Jessie and Joan, sons-in-law, John, Johnnie, and Norman, brother-in-law, Michael, grandchildren, John, Thomas, Eoghan, Brian, Katie, Tracey, Francis, Kieran, Sean, Daniel and Christopher.

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

Intermediate Hurling — We begin our intermediate hurling championship campaign in Dungarvan next Sunday evening at 7.15pm.

While our preparation has not been as thorough as we would have liked due to injuries and players outside the county due to work commitments, we will have to take the field with the panel at our disposal. Our opponents Colligan, always great championship battlers, will start favourites but our young team should give a good account of themselves. We wish the lads the best of luck.

Support — We have touched on the subject of team support in recent weeks and we cannot stress the importance of vocal support at all games our teams are engaged in. So come on old and young alike, make it your business to be in Dungarvan on Sunday evening and cheer on the efforts of our I.H. team.

Team Captain — The intermediate hurling selectors have selected Brian Hennessey as captain of the side and Seamus McCarthy as vice-capt. These lads have always shown great dedication to training and have been rewarded with the above positions.

Trainers — This week, I think, it is only right that we must give due credit to the various team trainers within our club. Maurice Cahill and Mick Lacey have spent countless hours these past few months with their respective adult squads and providing the players continue to attend the sessions, the trainers efforts will not be in vain. The enthusiasm has rubbed off on the younger lads and while honours might not come our way this season if everyone sticks together and keep at it we should have a team challenging for a title in a few years.

U.16 Hurling Challenge — A challenge game versus Tallow has been arranged for our U.16 hurlers for next Monday night. All interested players are requested to be at the square. See "Tailors" window for full details of time and panel.

Injured — Presently on the injured list are Martin Reddy and Mical Broke. We wish them both a speedy recovery to full fitness.

Fixtures — Some important club fixtures to look forward to are Sunday 5th May I.H. v. Colligan in Dungarvan at 7.15pm.

I.F. v. Sliabh gCua in Dungarvan on 12th May and J.H. v. Dungarvan in Colligan 1st June.

Cappoquin Pork & Bacon Blackwater C.C.

The club travelled to Carrick-on-Suir on Sunday last with Brian Moore taking the last prize in the Under-12's, then came Thomas Hogan, Paul Geary and William Morrissey, there was 29 riders in this race.

The U-14's had thirty riders in the race. The club was very well represented by Bryan Geary, who finished 2nd, just pipped for 1st place.

Paul Moore, Shane Motherway, Kevin Cotter and Vincent Lombard all finished well up in the bunch.

John Moore, Denis McCarthy and Maurice Hickey took part in the junior and senior races, but had no luck, despite giving it their best.

"I was once a Pharaoh!" says 'Miami Vice' star

JUNIOR
YOU only live once – or do you? Many people are convinced they have had past lives and they claim to have recalled them, on tape and in uncanny detail, while under expert hypnosis.

They are in famous company.

Madonna believes she has had many past lives, most of them as boys who all died tragically when they were 12-years-old.

"An Indian guru told me about them and some people have interpreted it as a subconscious wish to be a boy. But I don't understand why I should have this urge to be a boy when I'm so successful at being a woman!"

Which is probably why, more recently, Madonna claims she is the reincarnation of Marilyn Monroe. "Her spirit is guiding me in my new-found movie career," says Madonna.

Loretta Swit – Hotlips in TV's M*A*S*H is sure she has lived before as a princess in the French royal court of Louis XVI. And also in the 11th or 12th century in China she was "a rich and powerful landowner."

Loretta says: "I'm convinced reincarnation exists – I believe we will all return again. For some odd reason, I've always been fascinated by the Orient. That endorses my belief."

Philip Michael Thomas, co-star of Miami Vice has been put into hypnotic regression many times and has come up with lots of past lives.

"So far I've managed to go back as far as Ancient Egypt at the time of the Pharaohs. In fact, I was actually once a Pharaoh! A tape was made of the conversations I held under hypnosis and when I heard them afterwards I was absolutely stunned."

"I was describing times from different periods of history that I couldn't possibly have known about."

Sylvester Stallone also underwent hypnosis to learn about reincarnation and discovered some amazing facts about his former lives.

"I'm now a total believer," he says. "Have you ever thought how strange it is that you can do things that neither your parents nor brothers who came out of the same womb with the same genes can do. It's because of your experiences in previous lives."

"I've been an American Indian, a rebel during the French Revolution and I believe I was also once a wolf."

Tough guy Stallone star of the big Rocky fight movies claimed he was beaten to death in a boxing ring in a past life.

Sean Connery – the original and, to many, the best James Bond – is also convinced that, like his screen character, 'You Only Live Twice'.

Under the guidance of leading American psychic, Kebrina Kinkade, Connery relived a previous life when he was helping to build a railway in Africa. He had turned his back on the white community and gone 'native' sharing huts with two different women.

Later, Connery 'saw' himself die in a hut with one of his African women looking on. "My body was put on a pyre and burned," he says.

Glen Ford believes he has lived two other lives, one as a Colorado cowboy and the other as a Scottish music teacher named Charles Stewart, who died in 1812.

Under hypnosis, Glen played the piano with the skill of a professional. In reality, he can't play a note. A few years ago, Stewart's grave was discovered in an isolated cemetery in Elgin, Scotland.

Engelburt Humperdinck believes he has lived before. "I've discovered that I've had more than 90 previous lives," he says. "Most of them weren't as anybody famous, just ordinary folk. But once, though, I was a Roman emperor."

"Between The Lines" Returns!

Reports to hand indicate that the recently launched local television channel received by all subscribed to Casey Cablevision is indeed a great success. The programme called "Between the Lines," is being transmitted on the first Tuesday of every month on the S4C Channel at 8 p.m.

When asked about the venture, Willie White, producer of the programme, said there are hitches and minor problems to overcome but given a chance to breathe, the programme will become an integral part of local community life. Without the assistance of the Casey Cablevision Company, the programme would not be possible, and great credit is due to them for supplying the technology to make it possible.

While the venture does not have the equipment or financial back-up of a major T.V. company, nevertheless, the venture is bound to go from strength to strength, if local support is forthcoming.

The next edition of the programme will include an item on Dungarvan Golf Club and its future plans, the industrial giant, Sterling Drug, a number of items of interest to Abbey-side, a Garda Watch and music from Nicky Power and Christy O'Neill.

So, tune into S4C at 8 p.m. on next Tuesday, May 7 and enjoy your monthly helping of "Between the Lines."

They enjoyed almost ten successful years on the road before The Morrisseys decided to change enter-

DUNGARVAN PREMIER PIGEON CLUB NOTES

On Saturday last our pigeons raced from Mullingar (99 miles). The pigeons were liberated at 9.15 a.m. and first home were clocked at 12.04, belonging to Sean Leahy. Our next race will be from Dundalk (141 miles).

Mullingar result — 1, Sean Leahy (time 12.04, vel. 1031.4); 2, Jim Drumme (12.05, 1031.1); 3, John Organ (12.07, 1015.1); 4, Jimmy Fraher (12.07, 1012.4).

Points table after two races: 1, Jim Drumme, 6 points; 2, T. and M. Drumme and Sean Leahy, 4 points each.

Pigeon Racing — We would like to take this opportunity to explain some of the facts behind pigeon racing. The day before the race members of our club bring their birds to a marking station. At the marking station rubber rings are put on one of the legs of the pigeons. The pigeons are then put into a special crate and then put onto a pigeon transporter which brings the birds to a race point (e.g. Mullingar).

Then, on Saturday morning the birds are liberated. When the bird comes home from the race the owner of the bird takes the rubber ring from the pigeon's leg and puts it into a thimble that is put into a pigeon clock, which times the bird.

A velocity time is then made for the owner of the pigeon and the highest velocity will win the race.

We hope this information will help people who do not know much about pigeon racing.

Stradbally Notes

KNOCK PILGRIMAGE

The annual diocesan pilgrimage to Our Lady's Shrine at Knock, Co. Mayo, takes place on this Sunday the 5th of May under the leadership of his Lordship the Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, Most Rev. Dr. Michael Russell D.D. We wish all of those people travelling a safe journey and fine weather for their day.

SAD SALE HELD

The last remnants of the once Mercy Nuns, Stradbally convent were sold at an auction held at the Minella Hotel, Clonmel, on Saturday afternoon last. There was a large attendance present including a number from this parish, who by all accounts made a number of purchases. Although it was a day of sadness for the parish, the Mercy Sisters will not be forgotten by the Stradbally people for all their hard work over the years and the many lives they touched through their decades amongst us, and the remaining Sisters who were transferred from our now sold convent to others will always be remembered in the prayers of the many locals who knew them.

GREAT TALK HELD

A talk and slide show was recently held at the Park Hotel, Dungarvan, by the South Eastern Tourism and the Tidy Towns committees that were present at this were Stradbally, Dunmore East, Passage East and Ardmore while entering the competition for the first time this year, Dungarvan and Lismore. Mr. Jack Walsh from Bord Failte also attended. Some very interesting tips were given for the competition ahead.

P.T.A.A. SCHOOLS QUIZ

The local Stradbally branch of the above movement, held a great schools boys question time in this parish recently where twenty teams took part. The winners were the Stradbally Boy's School and the trophies that were presented on the night were sponsored by Very Rev. Fr. Michael J. Ryan PP, to whom the organisers are very grateful for his sponsorship.

NIGHT OUT

Our Local Comhaltas Lar Deise branch held another of their very popular nights out with a successful music session held at the Bally Inn, Ballylaneen, Kilmacthomas, on Friday night last. It was led by Mr. John Hughes and Mr. Alf Morley, and the large attendance had a great appreciation of the 'crack' on the night which each and everyone of them thoroughly enjoyed.

STATION DUES

The parish stations that were postponed during the recent bad spell now commence in all of the churches in the parish on Monday next the 6th of May. The priests request that a representative from every house should show up on their appointed night.

LOURDES COLLECTION

The people who are invalids will this year be sent from this parish to Lourdes at the end of May and to help send them there, an envelope collection is at present being made by the parish Chapter of the St. Vincent De Paul Society and will then be taken up at all church doors on Sunday the 5th of May.

SCOUT NEWS

It's short and sweet this month as the boys of the 12th Waterford troop have had their Easter break. On the 27th of March last, seven of our new boys were invested into the troop and we congratulate Mossy Power, Brian and Michael Curran, Richard Cunningham, Brian Cleary, Michael Sheehan and Paul Lannon who are all the new members. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Fr. Pat Butler CC Stradbally, which was attended by parents and leaders and Mr. Joe Organ, the area regional commissioner was also in attendance and a sincere thanks to all of those who supplied and helped with refreshments on the day. Meetings have begun again with a variety of activities planned for this coming month.

IN HOSPITAL

The following people from this parish area are at present all patients at the St. Bridget's Unit, Waterford Regional Hospital Ardkeen: Mr. Ned Walsh, Curabaha, Kilmacthomas, and Mr. Michael Flynn, Dungarvan, and High St., Stradbally. It is now hoped that all of the above will be back home soon again.

WESTERN BORD NA NOG NOTES

RESULTS

(B) — Clashmore 2-6, Nire 2-2; Naomh Brid 2-7, Ardmore 3-3; Naomh Brid 1-3, St. Patricks 2-5.

WESTERN FINALS

(A) — Abbeyside 3-15, Dungarvan 0-5 — For the second consecutive year Abbeyside U14 footballers dished out a decisive defeat to their neighbours Dungarvan in a Western Final, and have now qualified to meet St. Saviour's on next Sat. in Dungarvan. In the second half Abbeyside looked impressive but the Abbeyside mentors will be hoping for a fifty minute display in the County Final to reverse the result of last year's county final appearance. Good luck to them.

(B) — Clashmore 3-1, St. Patricks 3-2 — This game played on Monday night saw St. Pats come back from the dead to qualify for the County Final on this Friday night in Dungarvan at 6.30. Half time: Clashmore 2-1, St. Pats 0-1. St. Pats opponents will be St. Mary's (Kill, Bonmahon, Newtown group).

This will be St. Patricks third game in a week and the big question they will be asking their U14's is can they repeat the performance of the Semi Final and Final.

(C) — Brickeys 4-2, Shamrocks 1-0 — This game, played in Cappoquin last Saturday, saw the Brickey Rangers boys overpower a gallant Shamrocks team. At half time having played against the wind the Brickeys led 0-1 — 0-0, but it was the Shamrocks who took up the running in the second half with a goal but it was to be their only score. If the Brickeys are to add the County title on this Thursday night, 7pm, their forwards cannot afford to miss golden opportunities as they did last Sat. Good luck to them.

Feile West Final — Lis-

more v. Dungarvan in Cappoquin, Monday May 6, at 6.15.

U-14 Football Trials — East v. West — John O'Regan Trophy. Trials will be held Sunday night 7pm in Bushy Park.

Skills and Puc Fada — Tuesday night 7th May Fraher Field — 7pm.

COUNTY U14 FINALS

(A) — Abbeyside v. St. Saviours Sat 4th May 2.30 Dungarvan.

(B) — St. Patrick's v. St. Mary's Friday 3rd May 6.30.

(C) — Brickeys v. St. Mollers Thursday 2nd May 7.00.

TALLOW NOTES

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

The minor footballers were well beaten on Friday night last in Lismore by Naomh Brid on a scoreline of 1-13 to 0-2. Tallow were short a few players due to injury and unavailability.

The senior hurlers play Dungarvan in the first round of the championship on Saturday night next in Lismore. They played two challenge games on Thursday night and Sunday morning last against Fr. O'Neills and Cappoquin respectively. They won both games and tried out quite a few players and with a full panel to choose from for the Dungarvan game, no player is guaranteed his place as the competition for places is tough.

TALLOW BADMINTON CLUB

Now that the season is at an end it is time to reflect on what was probably the best ever season for the club. We played in three finals and won two and lost one. The 2nd Div. retained the league they won last year and the 4th Div. won the Knockout Cup in style and lost the league to Touraneena. Michael Cunningham and John Pratt won the 1st Div. mens doubles in the Co. championships. The 2nd Div. lost to Aglish Borrisokane of Tipperary in Cashel on a score of 4-1 with all the games being three setters. The club would like to thank the staff of the Leader for the coverage they have given us throughout the season.

"MNA NA HEIRE-ANN" IN TALLOW

Mna na Deise is a newly formed women's group, which meets weekly in Tallow. The purpose of the group is to provide support to all women in the community. This will be achieved with opportunities to learn new skills (and crafts), build confidence, enjoy social gatherings and outings, with the opportunity to earn a little pocket money also. Anyone can join Mna na Deise, we don't charge a membership fee, but ask our members to donate £1 at each meeting they attend. This money will finance our rent, and the remainder will finance outings, social or educational.

As we are a new group, we need to raise funds and have planned a series of fund raising activities, to be advertised nearer the time. Our first was held on 26th April at Tallow Enterprise Centre. This was a cake and Home-Baking sale. The response was excellent and most produces had sold out after an hour. There will be further Home-Baking sales in the future, so look out for our posters. Thank you to all those who took part.

Next Friday, May 3rd,

Mna na Deise are holding a Coffee Morning at Tallow Enterprise Centre, 11am until 1pm, in aid of the Kurdish Refugees. Admission will be £1.50, and there will be a talk and demonstration by local beautician, Kay O'Brien. Refreshments, of course, will be included in admission.

This is a most worthy, and topical cause, so please come along to support it, and also to find out more about Mna na Deise.

ST. CATHERINES G.A.A.

The clubs £1,000 draw took place at the clubrooms Ballynoe last Thursday night and the following are the results — £500, Etna Lane, Monagown, Conna; £100, Mrs. Ahern, Convent St., Tallow; £50, to each of the following, Patricia Hegarty, Newtown, Ballynoe; Veronica Hartnett, Ballynoe; Paddy Aherne, Bridepark, Conna; The Jones Family, Ballynoe. The following received £25 each — Pat Motherway, Dungarvan; Katherine Casey, Shanakill; Seanie Noonan, Conna; John Joe Hickey, Conna; John Leahy, Ballynoe South; Theresa Colbert, Ballynoe; Dan Long, Youghal; Mrs. Nellie Cotter, Ballynoe. Next draw is on Thurs. 16th May.

The last week was a very successful one for the club. We played 7 games which produced 5 victories. Castlelyons with a useful U-12 football side inflicted a fairly heavy defeat on our team Monday evening at the local venue but it was a helpful exercise and will improve our players.

At Conna on Tuesday evening in a thrilling encounter in the League, our minor hurlers outplayed Erins Own to win by the narrowest of margins, 1 point. On Wednesday evening Glenbower Rovers Killeagh were visitors to Ballynoe to contest a junior football league tie with St. Catherines, who were victorious.

The same evening saw our U-16 hurlers score a convincing win over Middleton in a league game at the College grounds in Middleton.

Cobh intermediate hurlers played St. Catherines in the 3rd round of the league at Ballynoe on Friday evening and in a close and exciting tussle, the homesters got the verdict in the end with a score of 1-14 to Coves 1-10.

U-21 FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP SEMI-FINAL

Dungourney was the venue last Saturday evening for the above game and it appeared to be curtains for Catherines at the interval with a deficit of 1-2 to 0-1 against them. Stepping up in their performance in the second half, Catherines with more scoring power and staying the pace in a well fought out finish succeeded in ousting old rivals Bride Rovers to reach the final against Castlelyons at Watergrasshill this Saturday night at 7.15pm.

The junior footballers, minus some prominent players had an unsuccessful journey to Mitchelstown for a challenge game with the local squad as the local team won well.

MISS MARY (BABE) MORRISON, BALLYNOE

The death took place last Wednesday at the Sacred Heart Nursing Home, Youghal of Babe Morrison, Glounthoune, Ballynoe. The last surviving member of a well known and esteemed family in the parish she was elder daughter of the late John and Catherine Morrison of Glounthoune, Ballynoe and was predeceased by her brother Jackie, just two months previously. Though an octogenarian, with a few years, she had lived a full life up to recently, and she, with the other members of the family, were always supportive of any project for the benefit of the parish over the years, and especially as patrons of the St. Catherines Club. Her demise will be regretted, but memories of her and other members of the family will long be remembered in the district. Her remains were interred in Conna's new cemetery after requiem mass in Ballynoe.

"DRAMATIC SOCIETY" FEVER

On Thursday 25th of April, the local dramatic group members took to the stage. While hindered by the lack of power due to the E.S.B. strike, the shows still went on. The first half was filled by a fine production of Sean O'Casey's one-act play, "Bed Time Stories". Producer Fiona McDonnell also took part in the play and along with other members, gave great entertainment. The second half was considered a great laugh, thanks to Tom Murphy's play "On The Outside". This farcical comedy was well executed by the very large cast of ten, some of whom were making their debut. The Society would like to thank Mrs. Cunningham for the use of St. Catherine's Hall, and also to the Enterprise group for the use of Nora Herlihy's House. A committee was formed as follows:- Chairperson Fiona McDonnell; Vice Chairperson Assumpta Mangan; Secretary David Murphy; Treasurer Con Ryan (Jnr)

COMMUNITY CENTRE A.G.M.

The Annual General Meeting of the Community Centre was held last week, with a very good attendance. The chairman Mr. Tom Mulcahy in welcoming all present, spoke of the activities of the Hall over the past twelve months.

The financial statement for the year was given by Mr. Bart O'Donoghue of the financial committee and Mr. Tony Glavin on behalf of Sheehan & Co. Chartered Accountants, Fermoy. This got a great airing from all present and a great discussion on ways and means in trying to clear the debt which now stands at £13,000. Last year the debt was £19,500, so an improvement of £6,500.

Mrs. Kitty McDonald Hon. Sec. gave a wonderful report of the year's activities.

The election of officers for the next twelve months, resulted as follows —

Sec., Jim Behan; Treasurers, Bart O'Donoghue and Sean Twomey; Committee, Mary O'Dwyer, Eily Hartigan, Mona Mulcahy, Bernadette Moore, Anne McGrath, Kitty McDonald, Alice Tobin, Fiona McDonald, Jo Donnelly, Sheila McGrath, Moira Ryan, Nora McCarthy, Jim Clancy, Richie Pratt, P. "It was", she said, "a great day for Tallow."

The next meeting is fixed for 2nd Monday in May.

£12,000 Winning Streak Win For Dungarvan Woman

In the final National Lottery "Winning Streak" Game Show of the present series on R.T.E. last Friday night, Mary Cunningham (26) of Southways, Abbeyside, Dungarvan came out with a very nice £12,000 present for her birthday which she celebrates to-day (Wednesday) May 1. A year ago Mary married Noel Cunningham and they are expecting a baby in August. An air hostess with Aer Lingus, mostly on domestic runs, Mary is at present on maternity leave but will return to work in December.

Mary is not the first member of her family to appear on the show as her mother, Mrs. Maureen Casey, 12 Main St., Dungarvan was an £11,000 winner when she was on the show a few months ago. Her father Mr. John Casey bought the winning ticket for Mary and she would like to share her winnings with him and spend the rest on her baby when it arrives and on her house as husband Noel is a great D.I.Y. man and Mary will get him to do the work!

Mary says that her father is the lucky one in the family as he bought both of the winning tickets and also recently entered her brother, Maurice, in a golf tournament which he also won.

● Picture shows Mrs. Cunningham receiving her £12,000 cheque from Noel Browne, Chief Accountant, National Lottery, with a happy Robert and Maria Pugh, Central Newsagency, Square, Dungarvan, who sold the winning ticket.

GROUP 7 — IRELAND V. POLAND

European Championship Preview

LAST HOME GAME

Ireland's last home match must be seen as a home win if we are to retain an interest in the championship. In saying that it must be remembered the Poles will be difficult opponents who should not be underestimated.

Their team and footballing association have problems, the players play in the Italian, Spanish, German, French and lately the English and Scottish leagues, and the life they enjoy in football exile compares badly playing for Poland. While I'm sure they have patriotism for their country, they are reportedly unimpressed by the match fee paid in what they see as worthless Polish currency.

Support for the team at home is low and not more than 20 to 30 Poles will travel to Lansdowne Road. On the field, Jacek Ziobar, impressive with Montpellier recently against Manchester United, may miss the game through injury. Without doubt Poland will play an extra sweeper in a very defensive formation hoping to hit Ireland with a quick break.

Dziackanowi of Celtic isn't expected to play but Everton's Polish recruit Warzcha could well be in the line up. One absentee from their game against Turkey, Jan Furtok, scored four goals for Hamburg in the German Bundesliga against Frankfurt recently and his return could cause problems.

So, it's not the walkover some people expect. A lot will depend on how manager Andrzej Streglav and his team react to Ireland's approach. The danger for Ireland could be in chasing a score they may give the Poles a chance that without doubt they have the skill to exploit.

Many statistics have been thrown up in the build-up to this game. There's another one, of the 48 games Ireland have played under Jack Charlton, only 21 goals have been conceded — a testament to the Irish manager's priority of a tight defence and Bonner's goalkeeping skills.

With no reported injury problems the main debate has been will Mick Mc-Carthy return at O'Leary's expense. McCarthy, in Dungarvan on Sunday, confirmed that he is fit and ready to play but somehow I feel he may not get the nod for this game. The rest of the team picks itself and I expect it will be the side that started against England.

TIME WARP

The FAI's much criticised decision to bring forward the kick-off time to 2 p.m. could hand England a decided advantage. They could know the outcome before they kick off against the Turks. If Ireland have a less than impressive result, England could benefit by the time warp.

For the travellers from Dungarvan it means an earlier arrival at McCluskeys for a pre-match pint.

LEARN FROM HISTORY

Over the pint in McCluskeys it is probable that England's elimination from the 1974 World Cup will be recalled. England were confidently expected to secure the 2 points to clinch their place for Germany. A goalkeeper called Jan Tomaszewski described as a clown by Brian Clough, defied England in a 1-1 draw. A quick break from defence, a mistake by Norman Hunter, Peter Shilton slow getting down to the ball, and for England the unthinkable had happened. A penalty made it a draw but England were out of the world cup.

Again England are involved and Ireland are expected to win. I expect Jack Charlton to get the two points he needs to keep the pressure on England. How well England do against the now dispirited Turks is another matter. Graham Taylor's clearout following the Wembley game could backfire — let's hope so! — B.K.

MUNSTER SENIOR LEAGUE — DIV. 1

Anti-Climax To Dungarvan's Season

Dungarvan United were in action on two occasions over the past week, firstly at Douglas Hall and secondly in Crosshaven, both fixtures were in Cork.

In the first fixture, Dungarvan conceded three goals in fifteen minutes, all by mistakes, though they did stage some sort of comeback and only for some squandermania in front of the homesters goal, the story might have been very different. The Blues lost Derek Lyons through injury and this was not to help their cause and they found themselves 3-1 down at half time after having the advantage of the breeze and the hill!

Douglas Hall finished off the game early in the second half by adding two more goals, though Dungarvan did attack on every occasion and were rewarded by getting a second before the game ended.

The Blues had an early start for the second fixture, leaving Dungarvan with a depleted squad for Crosshaven at 9 a.m., kick-off 11 a.m. and were caught "napping" once again, by conceding two early goals, again giving themselves the arduous task of trying to claw their way back against the champions elect.

Dungarvan, however, halted Crosshaven for a time and were right back in the game when they scored, but Crosshaven, who were only looking for three points out of two games to become champions, were eager to win and went on to score twice more before the game ended.

Dungarvan now only have one league game left, away to Wembley, and they must try and get it right for the upcoming cup campaign, if they are to salvage anything from their season.

PLAYERS NOTE

Cars will leave the Clubhouse at 4.45 p.m. sharp for the away fixture versus Wembley on this Friday, May 3.

Minnies Racquetball Notes

These being our final notes of the season, it is my pleasant duty to record a very successful year in our Racquetball Club. Our Men's team reached the final of their Country League, while the Ladies were pipped in the Semi Final of their Country League.

NED O'CONNELL RACQUETBALL TOURNAMENT

The final of this tournament was played last week and turned out very exciting. The winning team was Seamus Connolly, Owen O'Mahoney and Jenny McGrath versus Paddy Walsh, Tommy Butler and Cara Cooney.

First on court was Seamus Connolly and Paddy Walsh resulting in a 2/0 win for Seamus. Next came Owen O'Mahoney who lost to Tommy Butler, the latter scoring a 2/0 win. The Ladies game was by far the closest, both winning a game each, until Jenny finally clinched matters by winning the final game.

Special thanks to Ned O'Connell for his sponsorship and beautiful prizes.

We ran various tournaments during the year, with our membership increasing steadily. Gratefully we record our appreciation to Sponsors Tipperary Crystal, Dawn Meats, Noel Devereux and Ned O'Connell, also to our hard working committee members, and finally to the Editor and staff of "Dungarvan Leader" for publishing our club happenings throughout the year.

Dungarvan Athletic Club Notes

Dungarvan United Schoolboys

T.S.B. U-11 LEAGUE Southend 0 Dungarvan 7 Dungarvan 7 Johnville 0

Two more good wins for Dungarvan over the week in their quest for league honours. On Thursday night last we travelled to Waterford to play Southend, and after dominating the game from the kick-off, we ran out winners by the above margin.

On Monday last we played Johnville in Kilrush and 2 goals each from V. Sullivan, D. Keating and K. Walsh and one from W. Duggan secured the points in what was another good all round performance.

Best of luck to all schoolboys who are sitting entrance exams this weekend.

DISCO

Our next schoolboy disco is on this Friday night, May 3. D. J. for the night is John Wall and admission is £1.

UNDER-14 LEAGUE Johnville 3 Dungarvan 2

On Tuesday evening last Dungarvan travelled to Curran Park to take on the team that they had quite comprehensively beaten 4-1 the week previous. This was not to be a repeat performance however, and the above result puts a dent in any title aspirations that the Blues may have had.

Cup Glory For Dungarvan

Dungarvan 11, UCC 6

Dungarvan's third fifteen brought tremendous glory to themselves and the club when they came out on top in what was an excellent South Munster Cup final played at Musgrave Park on Sunday last.

As everyone knows, college sides are never easily beaten and this side was no exception. However, Dungarvan's experience and know-how was to prove crucial in the final analysis.

The UCC had first use of the fresh breeze and led after ten minutes with a penalty goal. The students were enjoying a period of dominance at this stage and could have gone further ahead were it not for some fine tackling, particularly by centres P. J. Kindregan and Kieran O'Connor.

Dungarvan weathered this early pressure and took the lead after thirty minutes when Dermot O'Neill got over in the corner from a blind side move involving Michael O'Connor and Joe Harty.

After the break, Dungarvan really began to stamp their authority on this game. This was most noticeable through the scrummaging of Eamon Walshe, Deckie Power and Vinny O'Rourke who were magnificent all through. Second rows Neil Parkes and Jack O'Hare were rock solid and the back row of Michael Hanrahan, Eamonn Spratt and Tom Shanley wore the students down with telling thrusts at the heart of their defence.

Kieran O'Connor stretched Dungarvan's lead with a penalty goal and then came the decisive score. Some fine tactical kicking by Michael O'Donovan and Michael O'Connor set up a five yard scrum and Michael O'Donovan got the touch down to secure Dungarvan's victory despite a late surge by College which saw Noel O'Connor and the magnificent Joe Harty make some fine clearances under pressure.

It was indeed a proud day for Dungarvan rugby when Kieran O'Connor climbed the steps of the stand at Musgrave Park to collect the cup on behalf of his team.

Team — J. Harty, N. O'Connor, K. O'Connor, P. J. Kindregan, P. O'Neill, M. O'Connor, M. O'Donovan, E. Walshe, V. O'Rourke, P. Power, N. Parkes, J. O'Hare, E. Spratt, T. Shanley, M. Hanrahan.

In victory we cannot forget Niall O'Herlihy who did tremendous work with this team and Donal Flynn unable to play because of injury. Also Jim McGrath, Conor Blackwell, Seanie Coyne and Eamonn Hayes who played in earlier rounds.

DUNGARVAN DEFEAT TOURISTS
This was a typical tour game which produced some attractive rugby and ten tries in all as Dungarvan came from behind to defeat the visitors from Cardigan in South Wales by 37 pts. to 24.

Dungarvan's try scorers were Ger O'Brien, Jimmy O'Brien, Pat McGrath, Austin Curran, Jim Power, Eamonn Phelan and John Curran. Michael Brackett converted four of the tries and dropped a goal and Paul Mullaney converted one try.

The club wishes to thank the Park Hotel who provided a lovely meal following the game.

BALLYRANDLE CUP
Waterpark won the Ballyrandle Cup with a 20-10 victory over Carrick-on-Suir at Ballyrandle on Saturday evening last.

BALLINROAD SHOCK VILLA

Ballinroad 2 Villa 1

Ballinroad gave their best performance of the season on Saturday last when they overcame second in the table Villa. Paudie Shields who played magnificently throughout the game scored both goals.

Ballinroad: Fitzgerald, Kenneally, Murray,

Maguire, O'Brien, Fraher, Coffey, Fennell, Shields, Phelan, Tobin. Res. Flynn for O'Brien.

(Kilbarry won 4-3 on penalties)

A game we should have won, but again failure to take our chances cost us dearly. Maurice Foley scored a brilliant goal for us.

Team: Keohan, Lynch, Power, Lenihan, Fraher, Foley (Mce), Flynn, Burke, Power, Delahunthy, Tobin, Foley.

Our final league game of the current season took place last evening April 30th in Kilmacow at 7pm. Result in next week's notes.

MICK MCCARTHY'S VISIT TO DUNGARVAN F.C.

Our club were privileged to be involved in last weeks visit to town of Irish international Mick McCarthy.

Our under 11's in their first competitive game scored a great win over Abbeyside in the semi final but lost to Dungarvan in the final. Well done to Dungarvan F.C. and Waterford V.E.C. for their organisation of a historic occasion.

DUNGARVAN UNITED A.F.C. NOTES

SYMPATHY: We extend sincere sympathy to the Stack family, Main St. and Cauty on the death of John Stack who died recently. Also to the Leary family, Abbeyside on the death of Tommy O'Leary who died in London. R.I.P.

MICK MCCARTHY: "Captain Fantastic", Mick McCarthy was guest of honour at a packed Kilrush Park on Sunday last to officially open "Sport for all Weekend" in conjunction with the V.E.C. Committee. Dungarvan United would like to thank the committee for giving us the honour of hosting this historic event, and from early morning, club members were out in force to make sure everything was in tip-top shape for the day. Mick's arrival was greeted with great excitement by the crowd and after the opening ceremonies Mick got the final of the U11 tournament under way to the delight of the young boys. It was into the clubhouse after this for photos and autographs. Regrettably, Mick's stay was all too brief and he had to return to Dublin to join the Irish team for Wednesday's game. We would like to thank everyone who helped to make the day a success, but a special thank you to Mrs. Margaret McGrath who was a great help to us during the week.

SCHOOLBOY DRAW: Our schoolboy committee are now running a raffle to help pay the ever increasing cost of transport for games. Tickets are £1 each and the prizes are £100, £50, £25. The draw will be held in the clubhouse on Sunday 2nd June. Your support would be much appreciated.

BENEFIT NIGHTS: On this Thursday night 2nd May our M.S.L. team are holding a benefit night for injured player Alan Sheehan. Tickets are a modest £1 each and can be had from any M.S.L. players. On Saturday night our card committee are holding their card night for the Kurdish Refugee Fund.

YANKEE DOODLE: No winner this week. Numbers were 63 and 76. Prize money next week stands at £280.

CARDS: Helene Hayes

and Marion Walsh were the winners of the progressive 45 drive on Saturday night last. Jackpot now stands at £200 on 14 games.

FIXTURES: Thursday 2nd May U11 Dungarvan v. Tramore 6.30pm; Friday 3rd U12 Dungarvan v. Bohs 5.45pm; Friday 3rd U17 Dungarvan v. Tramore 7.00pm; Tuesday 7th Southend v. Dungarvan 6.30.

Deise Pitch And Putt Society

Our recent outing was held in the Cunnigar Pitch and Putt Club. Despite the cold weather a very large turnout was present. We are very indebted to the generous sponsorship provided by Mr. John Radley of Radley Engineering. This generous sponsorship encourages nearly all of the society membership to play in our competitions. One of the more pleasant aspects of the society is the nice social gatherings which occur after each outing. This, no doubt, is part of the attraction of the society. The Committee would hope that this would always be the case. The newer members have achieved a monopoly on the prizes in our recent competitions. I have no doubt that some of our more senior members will be determined to reverse this trend during the coming competitions. The results in the A Section were - 1st Vincent Tobin (Jnr), 2nd Alan Phelan. B Section Results - 1st Maurice Tobin (Jnr), 2nd Michael Veale. The next competition is the Mario Challenge Cup against the Cunnigar Pitch and Putt Club, on Sat 19th and Sun 20th May. Details of format and team will be posted in the Village Inn during the week prior to the match.

ABBEYSIDE BOW OUT OF CUP

The Abbeyside Div. 1B team who lost to Villa in the cup.

Abbeyside 2 Villa 4

An abysmal performance signalled the end of a very promising season for the Villagers. A disastrous start in which the homesters conceded three goals in 15 minutes was not compensated by virtually complete domination for the remainder.

Goals by M. Cosgrave and E. Curran brought Abbeyside back into the game but it was a case of too little too late and the Reds tasted failure for only the fourth time this season.

Thanks to the staff of Dungarvan Leader for their kindness throughout the season, especially Colm who turned up with camera to several games.

AGM

The last act of the year occurs on May 12 when our AGM will be held at 11.30am. Venue to be decided. All intending members are welcome and new blood is badly needed to revitalise our club, in the future, which rests on the shoulders of the few, looks decidedly bleak.

New York Waterford H. & F. Clubman Of The Year

As exclusively reported by "Commentator" in the "Leader" of April 19, Jim Cullinane, formerly of St. Augustine's Terrace, Abbeyside was honoured as New York's Waterford Clubman of The Year at the Waterford Hurling & Football Club's Annual Dinner which was held at the Tower View Ballroom, Woodside, Queens, New York. Hundreds of Waterford exiles and friends toasted Jim's selection and cheered as he was presented with an inscribed silver tray by Club Chairman, Joe Power, formerly from Butlerstown.

And relaxing on the patio at Jim's home at Willets Road, Mount Kisko, New York, where he lives with his wife Anne (formerly Tyrell also of Abbeyside) and children Triona, Christine and Terence, the morning after the big celebration are special guests, Fr. Michael Brennock, O.S.A., who flew in from Buena Park, California, Amelia Moore, Jim's sister who travelled from her home at Friar's Walk, Abbeyside, Jim, the man himself and Pat Moroney and another Abbeyside man, John ("Blondie") O'Dea.

Abbeyside/Ballinacourty G.A.A. Notes

DIFFICULT OPENER

The intermediate hurlers face a difficult task on Friday evening next when they face Stradbally in the first round of the County I.H.C.

Following the positive progress made in this grade in 1990, everybody in the club has been looking forward to 1991, but mounting injury worries has left the selectors with major problems in the run up to the clash with the Covesiders.

JUNIOR SPIRIT

The spirit that is prevailing within the club at the moment really shone through on Saturday evening last when a total of 27 players were at the Ardmore venue for the J.F. decider with the Shamrocks and full marks to the selectors who have put tremendous work in this grade this year.

The outcome was a well deserved victory by 3-11 to 0-3 with much fun had into the bargain. Mention must be made of some notable performances on the night. "Captain Fantastic" Willie Kiely led by example at the back and brought off a great penalty save.

The defence was solid all through, while at midfield Obbie "Bonecrusher" O'Connor, who showed some dazzling skill and Pat O'Brien who kicked 3 points, were the powerhouses of the team.

Martin "Hat Trick" Carroll was the hero of the attack, followed closely by Tommy Reynolds with 2 points to his credit, and hard working corner forwards "Duggie" and John Curran. Brian Beatty and Pat Ormonde made their adult debuts while Tommy Walsh pulled on the 'Courtly jersey for the first time, also Philip Foley, the newcomer to Gaelic, converted a point.

The team was: W. Kiely (Capt.), A. Ryan, S. McGrath, T. Reynolds (0-2), P. Breen, P. Hayes, J. Murphy, S. O'Connor (0-1), Pat O'Brien (0-3), B. Beatty (0-3), J. Spratt, K. Killigrew, P. Duggan, M. Carroll (3-0), J. Curran (0-1). Subs — P. Ormonde, J. Walsh, P. Foley (0-1).

U-14s RETAIN TITLE

The under-14 footballers retained their divisional title on Friday evening when they defeated old rivals Dungarvan.

The first half was a very close affair, 0-6 to 0-5 in favour of the 'Village' but in the second period the lads showed their superiority by coming out on top 3-15 to 0-5.

Overall it was a very enjoyable win which team manager Joe Cleary and selectors Donal Verling and Pat Moore worked hard to achieve. To cap the evening the cup was presented to John Organ (captain) by under-age committee chairman, Tony Mansfield on behalf of Western Bord na nOg.

The team was: M. Kiely, K. Thompson, J. Organ (capt.), C. Power, A. Moore, B. Donovan, D. Hayes, W. Fennell, B. Cliffe, C. Barrett, J. Kavanagh, P. Verling, J. Foley, T. Melody, M. Hickcy. Subs — C. Foley, C. Keane, J. Keoghan.

GOOD LUCK

The under-14 county final goes ahead this Saturday afternoon at 2.45 in the Fraher Field against St. Saviours who by all accounts are a very big team and who have been very impressive in the Eastern championship. It is hoped a big crowd will make its way to the game to give the lads a bit of moral support. After all, it's not every day we play in a county final.

UNDER-10 LEAGUES

The under-10 leagues moved on to the second round stages on Saturday morning last. We had quite a big number of new lads in on Saturday to join, which in turn made the games even more enjoyable for all.

In game one, Brian Moran's O'Donovan Rossas rattled in 11 goals to overcome Brian Borus led by Rory White. Rory himself had a whale of a game with Gary Lyons notching up a hat trick of goals. Brian Moran crashed home a superb goal to get in on the scoring act.

Indeed, were it not for some great goalkeeping by Martin Lavan, the end result might have been a lot closer. Result: O'Donovan Rossas 11-0, Brian Borus 6-0.

In the second game Peter Moloney's Sarsfields had a hard luck defeat by Cuchullains led by Alan O'Kennedy. This was a cracker of a game which Eamon Veale, our league's co-ordinator and referee, enjoyed immensely. Result: Sarsfields 0-0, Cuchullains 1-0.

Next week's games: Brian Borus v. Cuchullains, Sarsfields v. O'Donovan Rossas. Both games at 11 a.m.

New players last week were — Nicholas Veale, Anthony Burke, Mark O'Riordan, Richard Phelan, Paul Curran, Christopher Walsh, Barra O'Donovan, Sean O'Connor, Henry Shields, Aileen O'Riordan, Bernard Beatty, Aidan French, David Ferncombe, Mark Ferncombe.

We will give more names in next week's notes.

UNDER-AGE SNIPPETS

The under-12 hurlers travelled to Kilkenny on Saturday last where they played James Stephens in two games. Both Abbeyside N.S. and Garranbane N.S. have been impressing in the schools hurling competition of late. More news soon.

Paul Landy was on the CBS primary school 7-a-side Western champions side.

Diarmuid Keating and Brian Lonergan were on the defeated CBS semi-finalists of the INTO 7-a-side football team.

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. O'Leary and family on the death of Tommy O'Leary in England, brother of well known club personality Jimmy.

BOARD SAILING NEWS

O'BRIEN'S BLACK ROCK RACE

Brendan O'Brien's "Black Rock Trophy" attracted great interest with a full fleet on Sunday last. In moderate south easterly winds the sail to the rock, Ballinagoul and back home to the Gold Coast was most enjoyable.

An interesting feature was the sponsor's return to competitive sailing when after a lapse of two years Brendan put in a fine performance finishing right up with the winners.

The results were as follows: A Fleet: 1, Noel Lawlor, Kilkenny; 2, Steven Foyle, Tipperary; 3, John Collins, Dungarvan. B Fleet — 1, Oliver Clancy; 2, Caroline Gordon.

CONFINED DRAW

Congratulations to popular local winners who were drawn at a function at the Gold Coast on Friday night. 1st prize (one week Shannon Cruise) — Nora and Pat Spratt; 2nd prize (weekend at Adam's, Kin-sale) — Margaret and Tom Fitzgerald, Man's Shop.

The committee wish to thank all their patrons who so generously supported the confined draw. (Advt.)

Cooney, K. Curran, C. Curran, M. O'Sullivan, M. Hyslop, T. Butler, R. Ferncombe, C. Walsh, J. Burke, D. McGovern, C. Cunningham, S. Walsh, J. P. Donnelly.

MINOR FOOTBALL

The second round of the minor football championship will be played on Friday, May 3. Our opponents are Clashmore and the venue is Bushy Park.

UNDER-14'S FINISHED

Our U-14's now finished with football will turn to hurling for the next few weeks. We have received a bye into the Western final for the Feile competition. We play the winners of Abbeyside versus Lismore on next Monday evening.

WERE HOSTS TO TRAMORE

On last Saturday we were hosts to Tramore's U-11 and U-10 hurlers. An enjoyable morning's sport was had by all. The Saturday morning leagues will begin next Saturday at the Fraher Field at 11 a.m. Parents, supporters, etc., who may wish to become involved with the young boys would be welcome.

CONGRATS'

Congratulations to our "Alma Mater" on winning the West Waterford I.N.T.O./G.A.A. Mini-Sevens hurling 1991, on April 23 in Abbeyside, on the scoreline Dungarvan C.B.S. 7-3, Lismore C.B.S. 6-3.

Team — Paul Ahearne, David Morrissey (Dungarvan), Bert Ahearne (D'van), James Burke (D'van), Michael Tobin, Alan Harty (D'van), Paul Landy.

They play in the county final next week and we wish them the very best of luck.

McGRATH CUP

In the dying minutes of the McGrath Cup game versus Limerick on Sunday last in Clonmel, Waterford senior footballers were very unlucky to be defeated by two points. Three of our senior footballers, P. P. Ferncombe, Dermot Callaghan and David Burke played for Waterford and acquitted themselves very well.

SENIOR HURLING

The first round of the senior hurling championship takes place on Saturday night next at 7.15 p.m. in Lismore. We play Tallow and we look forward to a win here.

BINGO

Our monthly Super Bingo session will take place at the Friary Theatre on Friday night next, May 3 at 8 p.m.

WON CAR

Congratulations to William and Shannon O'Brien, Kilmolash, on winning the car in the Co-op Draw last Saturday.

WEDDING BELLS

On behalf of everyone in the club we extend congratulations to John Fitzgerald and Fiona Hickey, on their marriage on Saturday last. John comes from a great Dungarvan club family. His father, Paddy, is our Chairman, while his mother, Mary, is our Asst. Secretary. John himself has won many county medals from underage upwards and still continues to play in the blue jersey. We wish them many years of wedded bliss.

COUNTY

The U-16 county team in preparation for their tilt with Cork travelled to Freshford on Sunday week and enjoyed a fine game with the same club.

and played a football game. A big success also for the county selectors as new material came to light, and players such as Lisa Walsh and Caroline Power must be very pleased they are now added to the panel for the game versus Cork in the Munster championship on May 18.

Five clubs and seven teams took part. There were two sections with Kill, Dunhill, Lismore "B" and St. Saviours "B" in Section (A), and Butlerstown, Lismore "A" and St. Saviours "B" in Section (B).

Lorraine Mooney was Kill's outstanding player with most assistance from Julian Torpey. The aforementioned Lisa Walsh, Caroline Power and Sandra Kinsella of St. Saviours, Bernadette O'Keefe and Deirdre Hickey (Lismore), Aine Power (Dunhill), Sylvia Fann, Sinead Lonergan and Siobhan Kelly (Butlerstown) were others to catch the eye.

Section (B), as might be expected, was won by Butlerstown, Lismore, in fact, being the only team to push them. Butlerstown then went on to take the final proper by beating Kill 3-2 to nil.

Jo Jo Tobin a great worker for camogie not only in her own native Lismore, but also county wide, will be very happy when she reflects on the displays on one Ciara Tobin, a star in the making.

Except for Orla Flynn, who was present in a working capacity (Co. Selector), the Board was not represented, something mentioned to me on more than one occasion.

St. Saviours are to be complimented on the arrangements, two pitches were available and teas and sandwiches provided, so to Dolores, Johnny and all who helped in any way, Jimmy and the Board say thanks.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

Unlucky Waterford Beaten On The Post

Limerick 1-6 Waterford 0-7

A goal by corner-forward Timmy Cummins in the 61st. minute gave Limerick a surprise and undeserved win over Waterford in this very well contested McGrath Cup semi-final at Clonmel on Sunday last.

An Eoin O'Brien point from a free in the 52nd minute gave Waterford a slender lead which they held up to the final kick of the ball, which came unfortunately when the entire full-back line were caught out of position. Waterford attacked incessantly in the final eight minutes and had some awful misses, but were none-the-less in control and waiting for the final whistle when disaster struck in the form of this unexpected goal. The referee collected the ball from the kick out and blew full time.

Waterford were forced to field without Liam Dalton who was injured in training and he was replaced by Michael McGrath, Butlerstown.

We played with the breeze, but it was Limerick who opened the scoring with a pointed free in the 3rd minute. The next score came ten minutes later when Ger Walsh pointed from play to make it level. Two Waterford wides denied us scores in the 15th and 16th minutes. Limerick went ahead with a Liam Long point and we got on terms again when Dermot Callaghan sent over from far out. Dan Fitzgerald and David Burke exchanged points to keep things even, but Limerick then went ahead with points by Long and Larkin. Waterford again took control and converted frees by Jim Maher and Eoin O'Brien enabled us to get on terms at half-time.

On the turn-over, Jim Maher was inches wide with a '45', but Eoin O'Brien made no mistake with a 37th minute free. Jas. Donovan equalised in the 39th minute and each side registered wides, before O'Brien pointed a Waterford free in the 52nd minute and to us, this looked like a winning score, until Cummins caught our defence off guard going into lost time.

FOULING

A total of 45 frees and four '45's were awarded in the match. Limerick had eleven frees in each half while we had 13 in the first and 10 in the second. We were awarded three of the '45's.

Waterford — T. Brennan, P. Power, T. Walsh, P. Queally, P. Walsh, K. Mulcahy, D. O'Callaghan (capt.), P. White, M. McGrath, P. Ferncombe, D. Burke, E. O'Brien, G. Walsh, P. Hynes, J. Maher. Subs. F. O'Brien for P. Ferncombe, J. McGrath for J. Maher, R. Power, for P. Hynes.

CAMOGIE NEWS

SEVEN-A-SIDE A HUGE SUCCESS

The U-16 seven-a-side blitz played at St. Saviour's grounds was a huge success in many ways. A big success in as far as it showed Kill in a splendid light, taking the honours in Group "A" in spite of the fact that they had earlier in the day travelled to West Waterford

NEWTOWN/BALLYDURN G.A.A. NOTES

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL Newtown 0-11 Rathgormack 1-4

This was a good win for us and we picked up two points we didn't expect. The game was played on a good surface but the bitter cold was uncomfortable for both teams. As the game progressed we gained the upperhand and with Michael Hubbard in fine form at centre forward we were soon 0-3 to no score up.

The game was one of honest hard football from both sides and all were surprised when with about eight minutes of the first half gone the referee ordered off two Rathgormack and one Newtown player.

At this point Rathgormack came more into the game and added a further two points to our one. The loss of Ger Bagge with a knee injury at this time was a serious blow as he was definitely causing problems in the right half forward berth.

The second half saw us bring Michael Hubbard to midfield and Jason Boland to centre forward, a move that was to pay dividends during the second half. Rathgormack started the second period with great determination and when their centre forward goaled and they then added a further point to go two points up we looked in trouble.

But with points from Hubbard, Boland, Queally, O'Brien, Boland and Hubbard we put the game beyond our opponents reach, after what was a great never say die team performance.

What makes this win more important is the victory was earned by a very young and new team with a lot of last year's regulars missing.

Team — P. Foran, S. Morrissey, Jim Harney, A. Joy, Bill Cummins, P. Queally, T. Kirwan, David Dunphy, Jason Boland, Ger Bagge, Michael Hubbard, A. O'Brien, Danny Walsh, B. McCormack, A. O'Sullivan. Subs. — Seamus Sullivan for G. Bagge (inj.), E. Dunne, Paul O'Donnell.

WEEK-END FIXTURES

Splendid Contests Expected To Mark The Start Of The Adult Hurling Championship

Six senior and five intermediate hurling championship games will provide the entertainment at practically all the main venues throughout the county over the coming week-end. Many of the contests are certain to produce exciting fare and such are the pairings, that one cannot at this early stage, predict with confidence, the outcome of any of the listed matches.

With speculation rife about major changes on the county senior hurling team in the lead up to the Munster championships, there will be particular interest in the individual performances of players who have so far failed to catch the eye of the county selectors, and while I don't believe that there are many of these around, there may be a few drafted on to the panel (for junior or senior) after the week-end round of matches.

No further matches in the senior and intermediate grades in hurling will be played until after we have played Kerry at Killarney on next Sunday fortnight in our first round matches. No games will be played after this, either (if we beat Kerry) until after the Munster semi-final against Cork on June 2.

BALLYDUFF V. CLONEA

This will be the first of two matches on the afternoon programme at Dungarvan and it should be a lively start to the day's activity. A lot of water has passed under the bridge since the clubs last met in the senior championship, so there is little to go on, except one's assessment of their respective standards. This must favour Ballyduff, who made it all the way to the final again last year and with a bit of luck, might have become champions.

They haven't met since the 1987 championship and then I remember writing that Ballyduff won a disappointing game on the scoreline of 3-11 to 2-4. The Western team showed nice form when playing Mallow in a challenge lately and look to be in reasonably good trim. Clonea are very fit and won't fail on this account, but they will create a surprise if they win this one.

LISMORE V. PORTLAW

This will be one of the best matches of the week-end unless they fail to produce the kind of hurling that they have in all their meetings over the years.

The high standard of their games in their meetings over the last three years were features of the championships in those years. In '88, Portlaw won by 0-17 to 1-8, in '89, Lismore came out on top by 4-13 to 2-11 and when they met last year it was 2-12 to 2-8 in favour of Portlaw in a game that was a thriller.

All their games have been at Dungarvan's Fraher Field.

Since last year, Lismore have lost the Ronayne brothers, but on their credit side many of their Under-21 champions side will have matured into potentially good senior players. With players like Seamus, Ber and Sean Prendergast, Dec Landers, Brendan Lawton, Brendan Crowley, Billy Lee and the pick of their Under-21 team, they will at least have a fifty/fifty chance of getting the points here but it is not going to be easy against such a seasoned team as Portlaw will field. They have John Power (goal), John Kirwan, Davy Foran, John Galvin, Dathai de Paor, Paudie Coffey, John Hennebry, Michael Hennebry, etc., and they too will have players from their Eastern champions Under-21 "B" hurling team to add to their side.

It should be a good game with a close finish. Lismore might just about even the score by winning the second of the last four meetings.

ROANMORE V. DUNHILL

Unless the form book is all wrong, there can be only one result here and this will see the county champions, Roanmore, over their first hurdle in the opening match of the double-header in Portlaw.

PASSAGE V. FOURMILEWATER

In the expectation that this will be the better of the two games at Portlaw, the match is made the feature event. It will certainly be more even and a more enjoyable contest. Fourmile went pretty close to relegation last year and will need to improve if they are to remain in the top grade this year. Passage led by the Cullinane's, Eddie and Sean, Mossy O'Keeffe and the two Fitzgerald brothers, etc. will be favourites, but renowned for their true fighting spirit, Fourmile will certainly stretch them to the limit.

TALLOW V. DUNGARVAN

It is exactly 30 years ago (1961) since Mount Sion won the senior hurling and football double and I have heard predictions made since that something wonderful like that would never again be achieved in Waterford.

Now if it is going to be achieved, it must be by Dungarvan, who are the only club in a position to try to do so.

Even attempting to win this double is a mammoth undertaking. It is true to write that in the case of Mount Sion, it wasn't an undertaking. It was something which just happened. With the addition of the Ronayne brothers and the return of David Burke to the side, Dungarvan who did reasonably well without these players last year, can be considered strong contenders for the hurling title as well as the football title this year. I cannot recall a senior hurling championship meeting between Tallow and Dungarvan in recent times, so there is very little to go on as far as form is concerned. Tallow had some good wins last year and their victims included Portlaw and Lismore, so if they reproduce the form that won them these victories, they will prove quite a handful for the Old Boro side. Whatever the outcome, I don't expect more than a score or two to separate them at the finish.

DE LA SALLE V. BALLYGUNNER

Back in the senior championship after a long number of years, De La Salle who won last year's intermediate hurling championship with a very skillful and eager young side, will be keen to impress in their first outing in the top grade. Victory, however, may go to the experienced Ballygunner team, who didn't enjoy the best of good luck last year.

INTERMEDIATE GAMES

This was a good championship last year and is sure to provide us with some very fine contests again this year.

COLLIGAN V. CAPPOQUIN

Cappoquin will hope to mark their return to intermediate grade with a win over Colligan in their first game here on Sunday. The records show that the only time in which the teams met in senior grade was way back in '87 when Cappoquin survived a relegation tie by winning 2-8 to 0-6. That is unlikely to have any relevance now, but just the same, Cappoquin must get the vote to win.

ABBEYSIDE V. STRADBALLY

When these teams met in the same championship last year, it was a real cracker before the match ended level with 2-6 for Abbeyside and 3-3 for Stradbally. Abbeyside showed good form recently when playing a draw with Shamrocks in the 1989 divisional championship and a repeat of this might win the day, although it will be another close one.

SHAMROCKS V. TRAMORE

Only thing of note that was achieved by Tramore last year was when surprisingly beating St. Saviours at Walsh Park. Shamrocks, on the other hand got to the County Final and played well, but not well enough against De La Salle, so on this basis the Western team, who played very well against Abbeyside two weeks ago in the same game referred to above, must be favourites to win.

MOLLERANS V. ST. MARY'S

The Western team will have to show improvement on last season's form if they are going to get off to a winning start here. The Mollerans showed good form in the early part of last year and I have in mind their splendid performance against Shamrocks. The same kind of display would win for them in this one, in my reckoning.

ERIN'S OWN V. SAVIOURS

Liam O'Connor is left Erin's Own to play in Kilkenny and his loss will effect the club's prospects this year. St. Saviours are a coming side and may win the points here.

U/21/H. 'B' CO. FINAL

An Gaeltacht who decisively beat Ballyduff in an entertaining divisional final at Cappoquin last Sunday, may have to wait for some weeks before playing in the county final against Portlaw, who are already out in the East. The game which takes place at Walsh Park will be fixed at a County Fixtures Committee meeting scheduled for Dungarvan on to-night, Wednesday.

WESTERN BOARD MEETING

The next meeting of the full Western Board has been fixed for Wednesday, May 8. This meeting will deal with referees' reports of players sent off and will also discuss championship progress. Applications from clubs for a change of date after the fixtures have been made and published have caused some problems for Board officers and this matter will also be discussed.

It is a long standing Board agreement that clubs will not be asked to play until both teams involved in a game have played their adult sides in a first round match.

This game has been re-fixed for May 18.

Top Class Display As 'Sion Beat Lismore

Mount Sion 0-14 Lismore 1-7

In keeping with their splendid record in under-age county finals, Mount Sion and Lismore served up yet another top-class display of skilled hurling in an exciting contest at Walsh Park on Sunday afternoon.

It was a game that could have gone either way, but at the end, the Eastern Champions, just about deserved to take this, their fourth county title in the grade. They now equal Tallow's record of four under 21 hurling titles and have one more than Lismore. Not having won an under-age title for two years, in hurling, Mount Sion came out hungry for success and applied themselves to the task on hands from the throw in and while the reigning county champions, Lismore, expressed their customary eagerness for success, here and there throughout the team a few of their players did not play up to their usual standard.

However it must be written that both teams covered themselves with glory and are to be complimented in having served up such a fine exhibition of skilful hurling at such an early stage of the year. Hopefully it will prove advantageous to the county under-21 selectors to have the championship completed well in advance of our first round match against Kerry next month.

PLAY

Johnnie Ahearne opened the scoring with a pointed free for Lismore in the 7th minute and it was level pegging one minute later when John Deady sent over from play. Points by team captain Pdraigh Fanning, Gary Gayter and Tom Browne during the next twelve minutes while the city team were on top, left them three up until John Ahearne had his second point, also from a free, in the 22nd minute.

Anthony Tinnelly and Alan Dunne both had points from play in the 25th and 26th minutes to narrow the gap before ace marksman for Mount Sion, Tony Browne pointed a close in free. Ahearne had his third point for Lismore in the 29th minute and Barry Browne had the last score of this half to leave Mount Sion 0-6 in front of Lismore 0-5, by just a whisker.

On the turnover, Mount Sion with points by man-of-the-match Brian Greene, Johnnie Deady and Tony Browne, extended their lead to four points and looked as if they might widen the gap still further until Sean Daly's 37th minute goal brought the Western side well back into contention. Alan Dunne's point just one minute later brought the teams level and with both sides having it all to play for, the players threw themselves into the game with rare abandon, each believing the match being there for the taking.

However, in the fourth quarter of the match, Lismore conceded some needless frees and were heavily punished by the deadly accurate Tony Browne who had Mount Sion's five last scores (all from frees) and the losers only reply came with a pointed free by Johnnie Ahearne in the 48th minute.

Outstanding for Lismore were the O'Sullivan twins, Mark and Michael, Eamon Power and Sean Daly who was moved in to the full forward berth after being injured in the second half.

PRESENTATION

Western Board Chairman, Jimmy O'Gorman presented the trophy to the winning captain, Pdraigh Fanning amid tremendous excitement after the game.

the classroom. He continued to trace the history of the school through the years and ended by telling the children that they now had a school second to none.

The Minister for Education, Mrs. O'Rourke said that the building of this new school marked the fulfilment of the wishes of the parents of the children involved. Lismore, she said, was an area renowned for education, culture and monastic settlement and it was a joyful occasion for her to come here to open the school.

Stating that in travelling to Lismore she had come over the Vee, the Minister said that it was her first time doing so and she loudly praised the real beauty of the area.

The children sang the National Anthem, as Gaedheal, and performed some comic sketches which greatly amused the Minister and guests after which all were entertained to refreshments of savouries and wine in the school.

Among the attendance were Deputies Austin Deasy and Brendan Kenneally, Rev. Fr. W. Ryan, C.C., Lismore, Rev. Bro. J. L. Dormer, Superior, CBS, Lismore, Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager, Mr. B. J. McNally, Co. Secretary, Mr. Donal Brady, Co. Librarian, Cllr. Mary Ryan, Chairman, Lismore T.C., Cllrs. J. Quirke, O. Wilkinson, W. McDonnell, Mr. Peter Dowd, T.C., former Chairman of the Board of Management, Mr. Gerard Joyce, Architect, Office of Public Works, Mr. Noel Hickey, Building Contractor, Mr. Michael Nugent, Clerk of Works, etc., etc.

Mick McCarthy "Captain Fantastic" Gets Rousing Welcome To Dungarvan

and he wished the Irish team success in Wednesday's match with Poland.

As Mick McCarthy arrived at the soccer grounds, much of the old exuberant spirits of the "Italia 90" days of last summer were revived as the Seafield Pipe Band from Bonmahon struck up the well-remembered "Ole, Ole," and the huge crowd cheered to the echo. Flags waved and cameras clicked as the soccer hero made his way on to the platform.

Christy Power, Chairman, Dungarvan United said that his club was very proud to have been chosen to host the launch of "Be Active, Be Alive" by Mick McCarthy. He said that the Irish skipper was a shining example to every player and club in the game.

As a memento of the occasion Mr. Power then presented Mick with a framed Dungarvan United pennant.

In a short address, Mick said how happy he was to have been invited to come to Dungarvan to launch the "Be Active, Be Alive" week-end and wished the project every success. Later he expressed complete confidence in Ireland's ability to beat Poland in Wednesday's European Championship to be played in Dublin. He assured his admiring audience that he had now fully recovered from the injury which had forced him out of the last game at Wembley in which Ireland played a 1-1 draw with England.

LARGE TALLOW CONTINGENT

Among the very big attendance was a large following from Tallow where Mick's father Charlie lived until he emigrated to England more than 40 years ago. The occasion was, in a sense, a McCarthy family reunion because his uncle Tommy McCarthy and cousins Dessie and Jo McCarthy made the journey from the Brideside town to be present.

Hundreds of autographs had to be signed before Mick "made their day" for the young under-12 soccer teams from Dungarvan and Ballinroad by starting off their game. And then despite the very tight schedule he managed to visit the local Youth Club where he again received a resounding welcome.

THE ATTENDANCE

Mr. Donal O Ceilleachair C.E.O., Vocational Education Committee was a capable M.C. and the attendance included Mr. P. Coffey, Chairman V.E.C., Cllr. Billy Kyne, Chairman, Waterford Co. Council, Cllr. Mary Dixon, Chairman, Dungarvan U.D.C., Cllr. Mary Ryan, Chairman, Lismore T.C., etc., etc.
