The people of Lismore and district through their elected local representatives, Lismore Town Commissioners, joined in paying tribute to the members of the Presentation Community who, after an association stretching back for 155 years are now about to leave the town. The tributes were paid at a function held at the Court-house, Lismore on last Monday night when the departing nuns were accorded a civic reception and each was presented with a farewell gift.

Mrs. Mary Ryan, Chairman of the Town Commissioners visibly moved by the occasion spoke with great emotion and having acknowledged that they were all saddened said that the function was more of an occasion to thank the Presentation Nuns after 155 years in the town for their continued presence in Lismore and for providing an extensive education for the people of the district throughout all those years.

"We thank you for those wonderful 155 years and all of us who have been fortunate enough to have received our education from you, are now deeply saddened by your departure," she said.

Mrs. Ryan added that Lismore was not only losing the sisters now but also their extensive educational skills and their unswerving commitment to the social fibre of the community.

Telling the sisters "you will always be in our hearts," Mrs. Ryan then made a presentation to each to take with them and to remind them of Lismore. The presentations were in the form of framed line-drawings of the Presentation Convent in Lismore, the work of Mrs. Mildred Weekes, The Deanery, Lismore which were specially commissioned by the Town Commissioners for the occasion.

The first presentation was made to the oldest sister in the group, Sr. Carmel, who has been in Lismore for the past 60 years and each of the other nuns then received their mementos from Mrs. Ryan.

Returning thanks, Sr. Gabriel, Superior, said that in according them this civic reception, the Town Commissioners and the people of Lismore were showing their appreciation of the presence of the Presentation Nuns in the town over the years.

Thanking the townspeople for the support and concern always shown to them, Sr. Gabriel said that without the kindness and generosity shown to them they could not have functioned as they did for the past 155 years.

Following the formalities the Sisters were guests of honour at a beautiful buffet meal while also in attendance were Very Rev. T. Canon Nugent, P.P., Rev. Fr. W. Ryan, C.C., Very Rev. Dean Cecil Weekes,

Dungarvan Tidy Towns Competition

The Dungarvan Tidy Towns Committee in a drive to encourage environmental awareness among the younger generation recently organised a competition for the pupils of the Secondary Schools and Colleges in the town.

The competition was in the form of an environmental critique on the major approach roads in to Dungarvan and a big number of first-class reports were submitted. The first prize was awarded to Dungarvan Technical College whose project was presented by a team of 5th year students under the supervision of Mr. Paudie Geary, the members of the winning group being Margo Hennebry, Ann O'Donnell, Patricia O'Doherty, Rita Fraher, Kieran Byrne, Barry Duggan and Bernard Queally.

Thanking all the schools which participated in the competition, the Tidy Towns Committee complimented and highly praised the pupils and their teachers for the many excellent presentations submitted.

As a direct result of the competition, the Committee plan to take action over the next couple of months on the various problems highlighted in consultation with the Local Authorities. Individuals will be contacted on a confidential basis and the Committee feels confident that with a little co-operation and endeavour, the problems will be ironed out. As a result the Committee hopes that an appropriate response will be reflected in the overall marking for Dungarvan in next year's National Tidy Towns Competition.

A spokesman for the Committee stated that the environmental awareness displayed by the students who participated in the competition was in sharp contrast with the recent unfortunate mindless destruction of flowers, shrubs and trees around the locality by a small number who were doing a grave disservice to the residents and the youth of the town. He added that any suggestions from the general public as to how this problem could be tackled in an effective manner would be greatly welcomed by the Committee.

Bombshell As Lismore Industry Announces Closure

The town of Lismore was stunned by the announcement last week-end that the only industry in the locality was to close down within a month. The shattering news came as a bombshell to the 15 employees of Associated Casings Ltd which has been producing natural casings for sausages and which is located at the old railway station in Lismore since 1985.

The announcement which literally came out of the blue came when Mr. Terry Rudgley, the Managing Director of the English owned company told the workforce that there would be a complete close down of operations as and from the week ending July 20 next. Explaining the reasons for the decision he referred to E.C. regulations and to the excessive cost of modernising the factory premises in Lismore which the company has on lease. Mr. Rudgley subsequently flew back to England and efforts to contact him about a meeting concerning the closure of the plant convened by Lismore Town Commissioners for Tuesday night proved unsuccessful.

Commenting on the announcement, Mrs. Mary Ryan, Chairman of the Commissioners said that closure of the plant would be a devastating blow to the town of Lismore which was already very badly hit by unemployment.

Windle imposed a sentence of 3 months detention or 180 hours of Community Work and directed that the case be adjourned to the Court sitting on July 7 pending a report from the Court Welfare Officer. He also ordered a 12 months disqualification from driving.

A fine of £50 was also imposed on a charge of having no driving licence.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Question — I have been on Disability Benefit for some years and my doctor has suggested that I should do some light part-time work. Is it possible to do this and draw my Benefit, and how much are you allowed to earn?

Answer — The rules for Disability Benefit require that you do not do any work unless it is work which you are allowed to do under the Department's Regulations. You must get written approval before you do any work and the maximum you can earn is £24 per week.

The type of work allowed would be:

- work for which no money is normally paid
- work done as part of hospital treatment
- charitable work
- part-time rehabilitative type work
- or retraining for other work because you are incapable of carrying out your normal occupation.

Pause For Thought With Father Paddy

BRAVO YOUGHAL

Next Sunday, the reading from the Book of Wisdom tells us, God made man to live. Last week you saw how Adam upset the apple-cart, and, as you know, it led to endless trouble. The way to Heaven was closed, and life on earth was no longer imperishable. God, however, was merciful. He promised, He'd forgive man and re-open the way to Heaven provided he'd submit to God's will. It is hardly up to us to grumble if we're left with some of the consequences of Adam's sin. In fact, contending with them is part of the price we must contribute. The agreement did involve a change in the route to Heaven, but Jesus has assured us and proved to us that it is both safe and sure. So, Jesus came not only to help us to rebuild our friendship with God, but His very death proves to us that we need not fear the short journey through that same gateway. Death is now, for those who love and serve God, the only way to life eternal. Putting it briefly, Jesus came into the world, so that we might be restored to the life for which we were created, and have it to the full.

If you fear death, and many do, it would be worth taking stock of your life-style. You will soon realise that if you live for God, you extract the sting of death. The early Christian radiated joy in the face of death. They loved their faith. They loved their life, but they loved God more. They rejoiced and felt privileged to die for their faith. Our own history is littered with the stories of brave men and women who gave their lives for their religion. Of the seventeen, who are to be canonized, many of them could have purchased their freedom by simply renouncing their faith. You could say, St. Patrick brought the faith to our land with scarcely a hitch, but since, it has been washed many times in the blood of our Martyrs.

Sadly, reports indicate that in our days many are forgetting the value of their faith, and you hear of them selling it for less than "thirty pieces." It is good to think of someone like Dominic Collins. Born in Youghal in 1566, he, due to the unsettled state of affairs in Ireland, sought sanctuary in France, where after a distinguished military career, he was appointed a Military Governor. This he relinquished to join God's army. In 1601 he returned to Ireland as an assistant to Fr. Archer, a Jesuit, who was chaplain to the Spanish troops sent to help in the struggle against the old enemy. Sufficient to say, the expedition failed. Dominic was taken prisoner, and sent to Youghal in the year 1602 to be hanged. Every effort was made to induce him to renounce his faith, but it was all to no avail. He was hanged on October 31, and as he was pushed from the scaffold, he fell into the arms of Jesus. It will be a great day when he is crowned in glory, but whilst we await the event, let us build a spiritual monument to him in our hearts.

The Corinthians were an educated and progressive people. They received and relished the value of their faith, and Paul was justly proud of them. In the reading, he is telling them that he'd received word that the brethren in Israel were in great need, and he commends his countrymen to their generosity. He feels so confident about their response that he dispenses with mentioning, they were in duty bound. He does draw their attention to the generosity of Jesus, who divested Himself of His riches to come to man's assistance, in order to encourage them. His counsel was, God has blessed you, so share what you have to spare with your needy brethren. The Lord is telling us, all we have, we have received, and it is His will that we should all help when possible, the poor and the hungry. Greed is a destroyer. Help and you'll never want.

TRUST IN GOD

The Gospel is easy to follow. It provides two examples showing Jesus restoring health and life in response to belief in Him. The first story illustrates God's compassion. It shows, He cares, and nothing escapes His notice. The secret lies in trusting God. If we do, and he still asks us to bear our cross, be assured, He'll be your Simon. When we do God's will, he loves and He helps us.

Jairus in the second story believed Jesus was his only hope: his child was seriously ill. Jesus readily agreed to visit the child. While on their way, word came "the child was dead," but Jesus continued without hesitation. The reaction of those in the house, who felt He was too late, only confirms the child was dead. Imagine the reaction of the parents, when Jesus gave them back their child. Jesus did try to restrain the excitement as He wanted people to focus their attentions on His message of salvation. Have you ever considered that God, in raising you to the new life in Baptism, works a far greater miracle? It is time we woke up. And, it is time we listened. Only one thing matters in life, and that one thing we should strive to gain — to live in God's house forever and ever. So, start making your adjustments.

New Gardai From Dungarvan

Among the 87 garda recruits who took part in the passing out ceremony at Templemore Training Depot last Thursday were ten bangardai and two new gardai from Dungarvan.

Richard Quarry, Kilrush, Dungarvan and John Fitzgerald, Abbeyside were the two local men who have now joined the Garda Force. Garda Quarry has been assigned for duty to Harcourt Square while Garda Fitzgerald goes to Sundrive Road, both Dublin City Garda Stations.

Speaking at the passing out ceremony, the Minister for Justice, Mr. Ray Burke, said that the primary task of the gardai was crime prevention and law enforcement. He told the new gardai, "You must constantly strive to ensure that the public do not see your primary role as an enforcer pure and simple. If this should happen you will be seen as somebody who threatens rather than protects. You will isolate yourself from the communities you have sworn to serve and the only people to gain will be the criminal and subversive elements in society."

BALLYMACARBRY NEWS

BALLYMACARBRY MAN'S LUCKY ESCAPE

Mr. Laurence English, Sillaheens, Ballymacarbry had a lucky escape from serious injuries when the van he was driving out of Dungarvan on Wednesday of last week was in collision with a lorry on the bye-pass road near the Park Hotel. Mr. English escaped with a few minor cuts to the back of his neck but the driver of the lorry, Mr. Jim Phelan of Kilkenny received severe injuries to his foot and thigh.

DRESSING ROOMS VANDALISED

The dressing rooms at the Mill field, Ballymacarbry were the target for the vandals on Thursday or Friday night last. They gained admission by breaking a back window and they broke the electricity meters which contained several hundred pounds in 50p coins. The damage to the meters will cost about £200 to repair. It is very sad that this should happen to a club doing so much for the people. The local gardai under Sgt. Maurice Walsh are leaving no stone unturned to find the culprits and bring them to justice.

G.A.A.

On Sunday next 30 June, the final of the Morrissey Cup takes place at the field Ballymacarbry at 3 p.m. between Killenaule (Tipperary) and Ballyduff Upper (Waterford). Both teams are strong contenders for county titles in their respective counties so come along and see hurling at its best.

CONGRATULATIONS

LOCAL ELECTIONS

As you read your local papers the local elections are just a day away and many of the electorate are wondering if it is a waste of time travelling to a polling station. The power of local government is under the control of the Minister for the Environment who decides what local authorities may spend or do. What is needed is to give our local authorities some real powers and give them a chance to improve the communities they serve. However, it is important that all voters come out on the 27th and vote for the candidate of their choice.

RINGED IN DUBLIN

A swan recently found dead on the banks of the river Suir some three miles down river from Ardfinnan was found to have a coded ring on its leg requesting the finders to return the information on the ring to the British Museum of National History. The information was sent as requested and the finder has received the following from the British Trust for Ornithology, the Mute Swan was ringed at Malahide, Co. Dublin 26 July 1983.

LATE MR. WILLIAM HALLINANE

It is with deep regret we record the passing of Mr. William (Willie) Hallinane, Baunfaun and late Caherbawn, Kilmanahan, whose death took place suddenly on Friday last. Deceased who was in his early sixties was a quiet, gentle, unassuming man who was held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. A true Christian he never sought the limelight but came forward only if he could offer a helping hand. A man who enjoyed the chat and a quiet drink, he will be sadly missed. His remains were removed from the O'Donoghue Funeral Home, Clonmel on Saturday evening to St. Laurence's Church Four Mile Water and all walks of life were represented in the large concourse of sympathisers paying their final respects to a valued friend. On Sunday morning the 11 o'clock Mass was offered for the repose of his soul after which he was laid to rest in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery. To his brothers and sisters we tender our deepest sympathy.

EVEN JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER STARTED FROM SCRATCH.

There's a lot to be said for starting from scratch. Take the National Lottery's new scratch card, Star Trail. There's up to £10,000 to be won instantly, there's £250,000 to be won in the Grand Prize Game, and there's the special Rose of Tralee collect game.

To play the collect game, just collect 5 roses and enter the "Draw of the Roses". There's an added £300,000 to be won, all from the National Lottery's unclaimed prize fund, with a top prize of £100,000! Or collect the letters T-R-A-L-E-E and win £100. Just like that.

John D. Rockefeller was the richest man in the world. We can't exactly promise you that, but scratch a Star Trail ticket, and you're off to a pretty good start.

BATTLE OF THE BANDS

Many long hours of hard work and money were put into this one night of brilliant entertainment.

Bands concerned gathered at the club early on Saturday morning to prepare their equipment for the performance of their lives. All the practising and re-adjusting was soon to come to an end, and by 8.30 the show was on the road when the disco started.

The crowd chanted for the bands to come on, and at around 9.30 "The Blaze" took to the stage to blast out the sounds of the 60's. Followers of this young band went wild - as if they were in the presence of famous rock legends. Next to come was "Champion The Wonderhorse" led by John Quill who showed the crowd that his band also had something to offer.

At this stage a very short break was in order while everyone waited for the next band to put themselves on centre stage.

Brendan Ormonde's band "Wonderland Avenue" took their place on stage and many of the crowd thought that they would be one of the hot favourites for the coveted prize. They strutted their stuff and kept the crowd going for the duration of their performance.

"Green 15" were the last of the bands to perform in front of the packed house, and they sang like polished performers to the delight of their followers.

At this stage the clock showed the time of 11.45 p.m. and the judges, Martin Walsh, Conor Power, Noel Fraher, Dermot Dwyer, Craig Rague and Alan Walsh, retired upstairs for refreshments and to deliberate on who should come out on top. So at about 12.10 they arrived back in the hall to a big hush. The M.C. for the night, Thomas Duggan, called on Conor Power to deliver the judges' verdict and he pronounced "Green 15" as winners of "Battle of the Bands 1991". Peadar Conway received the prizes on behalf of the band members and he thanked everyone for making the night such a success.

And on behalf of the youth club I would sincerely like to thank everyone who attended and I must not forget the judges who sat patiently for long periods of time, so here's to Battle of the Bands for another year.

Music returned to the hall when we resumed the disco and everyone took to the floor for the remainder of the time, but sadly 1 a.m. arrived and a hectic night was brought to an end. Thanks to our DJ. for great music.

MUCKROSS
Muckcross is drawing nearer and nearer as we reflect on the memories of our last venture. Club members talk about our "second home" in almost every conversation and the excitement is unbearable as the time draws near. And it brings me to the point of those people who went on the last trip and have yet to pay the full cost or the remainder, I would appeal to them to pay the final payment to any of the committee.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Mary Ahearne (nee Cunningham)

It was with deep regret and great sorrow that the entire locality learned of the unexpected passing of ever popular Mrs. Mary Ahearne, Brenan, Stradbally, on Monday, June 17 at the Blackrock Clinic, Dublin. Predeceased by her husband Robert in August 1985, Mary who was 74 years hailed from Ballinabogue, Kilmacthomas.

A very sincere and caring individual, Mary qualified as a nurse and this profession saw her travel to Germany and India. In former years she took an active part in Muintir na Tire and greatly assisted with the family farm and its development. She was a hard working wife and mother, who took great pride in her family, her home and its environs. Her residence was always one of welcome, where the happenings of the locality, particularly the footballing fortunes of Stradbally, were discussed. She had a deep religious faith and often gave of herself in decorating the altar in Ballylaneen Church. Her passing has left a void in the community life in Stradbally, but more so in the lives of her family and many relatives to whom we extend our deepest sympathy.

Prayers of Requiem, were recited at the Blackrock Clinic on Monday evening by Hospital Chaplain Rev. G. Byrne after which Mary's remains were transferred to the Kiely Funeral Home, Dungarvan.

On Tuesday evening following Rosary and Prayers the removal took place from the Funeral Home to Ballylaneen Church, where Very Rev. M. J. Ryan, P.P. assisted by Rev. Ml. Walsh, C.C. blessed and received the remains in the presence of a huge concourse of mourners who had come to say farewell to a much loved member of the community. Rev. Ml. Walsh, C.C. was Mass celebrant on Wednesday morning and also officiated at the graveside assisted by Very Rev. M. J. Ryan, P.P. The Lessons were read by Tom (son) and grand-daughter Fiona. Members of the Defence Forces from H.Q. in Dublin and Curragh joined the large gathering at the obsequies.

The interment took place in the family burial ground and many beautiful wreaths were laid on her resting place.

"After life's labours, may Mary enjoy peaceful rest."

Chief mourners — Robin, Sean and Tom (sons), Angela (daughter), Thomas (brother), Nora (sister), Eugene (son-in-law), Agnes, Bridget and Maureen (daughters-in-law), Fiona, Paul, Deirdre, Emer, Caroline, Robert, Shane, Claire, Robbie, Barry, David and William (grandchildren) and a wide circle of relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mrs. Johanna O'Rourke (nee Nagle)

The news of the unexpected death of Mrs. Johanna O'Rourke, Wembley, London and late 14, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, brought great regret and sadness to the locality on Saturday, June 15.

Aged 64 years, Johanna was a native of Boithirin na Tra and was a member of an old Dungarvan family. For over 30 years she resided in London yet managed to keep abreast of happenings on the Old Boro' scene. Her love of home grew over the years and now she returned home to be interred in her native soil, a stone's throw from her beloved bay and harbour.

On Wednesday last Johanna's remains were brought from Cork Airport to St. Mary's Parish Church where they were blessed and received by Rev. W. Carey, C.C.

Following Requiem Mass on Thursday morning celebrated by Rev. C. Kelly, C.C. interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. A large concourse of mourners were present for the funeral obsequies.

Very many beautiful floral tributes were placed on Johanna's resting place reflecting the love and affection of her relatives and friends to whom we extend our sympathy on their loss.

Chief mourners — George (husband), Thomas (son), Mrs. Catherine Thorpe, Mrs. Mary Meredith, Mrs. Elizabeth Hiller and Mrs. Patricia Ahearne (daughters), Christy, Patsy and Louis (brothers), Kate and Lolly (sisters), Mark, John, Barry, Robert, Lorraine, Mark, Christopher, Rebecca, Siobhan, Charlotte, Kieran, Victoria and Shane (grandchildren).

Mr. Tony Kiely

With sadness we write on the unexpected passing of 83 year old Tony Kiely, Mitchel Street, Dungarvan, which occurred at Peamount Hospital, Dublin, on Wednesday, June 12. Although a native of the Mitchel Street area, Tony spent 47 years in New York.

During World War II he served with the American forces. On his retirement, he returned home and resided with his sister Angela to whom we extend our deepest sympathy.

A quiet inoffensive man, Tony occasionally enjoyed a social drink in the company of his friends where the pages of history both national and local were topics of conversation. May he rest in peace.

On Friday evening Tony's remains, draped with the American flag, were brought from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church, Rev. C. Kelly, C.C. conducted the funeral service, assisted by Very Rev. J. Sullivan and Mons. P. Lannen. Following Requiem Mass on Saturday morning celebrated by Rev. Fr. Kelly, C.C. at which the readings were shared by John Paul Cosgrave with the large gathering which included Rev. W. Carey, C.C., Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A., Very Rev. J. Sullivan, the interment took place in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery.

Chief mourners were —

Angela (sister) and a wide circle of relatives including nephews, nieces and many friends.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Late Alice Curran

On Sunday, June 16 after a duration of illness, Alice Curran, 57, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan and late of Gortnadiha, Ring, passed away at Waterford Regional Hospital.

The last surviving member of an old Ring family who were involved in farming for many years, Alice was a most Christian and charitable lady who loved to visit frequently the Abbey of Mount Mellera.

We tender our condolences to her relatives, including many cousins, on her passing. Faoi bhraht na Maighdine go raibh si.

On Monday evening Alice's remains were brought from the Kiely Funeral Home to Ring Church where a short reception service was conducted by Very Rev. C. O'Daly, P.P. and Rev. C. Kelly, C.C. Requiem Mass was celebrated by Fr. Daly on Tuesday morning and afterwards with Rev. W. Carey, C.C., Fr. Daly officiated at the graveside in the presence of a representative gathering who had come to pay their respects.

Late Bridget (Bridie) Dwane

It is with deep regret we record the passing of Bridie Dwane, Bawnabraher, The Burgery, Dungarvan, which said event occurred at her residence on Saturday, June 22. Removal was from her residence on Sunday evening to Ballinroad Church. Following Celebrated Mass on Monday morning burial took place in the adjoining cemetery.

Full obituary next week. (Funeral arrangements by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

Mrs. Margaret Foley

With sadness we record the passing of Mrs. Margaret Foley, Lackendarra Lower, Colliigan, Dungarvan, which occurred at Dungarvan Hospital on Monday, June 24. Removal was from Dungarvan Hospital on Tuesday evening to the Nire Church. Following Requiem Mass on Wednesday burial took place in the adjoining cemetery.

"Peter's Pence" Collection Next Sunday

The following is the text of a letter issued by the Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. Russell:

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

On next Sunday, at all Masses, a collection will be taken up to help meet the needs of our diocese and our obligations towards the upkeep of the Holy See.

The cost of meeting all the demands of the diocese is increasing each year.

The greatest, and yet the most welcome, call on our resources continues to be the education of our diocesan students for future life and work in our diocese. During 1990 we had 20 young men at St. John's College and at Maynooth. Thank God two of these were ordained to the priesthood and work in the diocese on Sunday June 2. To meet the costs of seminary training each year, even with generous assistance from the St. Joseph's Young Priests' Society, we will have to find upwards of £60,000. There are, of course, many other calls on our finances: ordinary administration, charity, support for Cura, the Catholic Marriage Advisory Council, Youth Ministry and other services, the continuing education of the clergy, our share of the cost of National Church Commissions and organisations.

The demands on the Holy Father are also increasing, so much so that the Holy See shows a deficit each year. The Holy Father needs and depends more and more on our continued generosity and has made a special appeal for our support this year.

All this means that we need over £100,000 each year. Many people have been generous with their gifts and bequests for diocesan charities, but without your annual support it would be impossible to meet the many commitments.

With every blessing to you and your families and with appreciation of your goodness and kindness.

Sincerely in Christ,
MICHAEL RUSSELL
Bishop of Waterford & Lismore,

Bishop's House,
Waterford.
June 1991.

THE CO. COUNCIL ELECTIONS

The electorate of County Waterford with those in all other counties in Ireland will be afforded an opportunity to exercise their democratic right to elect members to their local County Councils on this Thursday, June 27. The polls will open in all areas at 9 a.m. and will remain open for the following 12 hours, surely a long enough period to facilitate everyone who wishes to vote.

It is six years since the last local elections took place but despite this the general public has not displayed any great interest in the opportunity now being afforded them to elect a new Council. Some of the candidates, especially those getting into the electoral race for the first time, have been in the field, testing the water, so to say for quite some time now but it is really only in the last few weeks that the main contestants have gone into action.

Last weekend there were a few big guns brought in to support the local efforts with Minister for Energy, Bobby Molloy doing the rounds in Dungarvan and district with his P.D. candidate and M.E.P. John Cushman accompanied by a full muster of F.G. candidates whipping up support for his team.

While many of the candidates, in the literature they give out and statements they make, look for support on the basis of national issues, we feel certain that it is the local issues which people are mainly interested in. Added to that there will, we feel, be a bigger stress on personalities rather than on parties and this, in all probability, could lead to a good deal of cross voting as voters cross lines to support those whom they favour.

At the outset of the campaign efforts were made, first by the Labour Party to have a cross-party agreement concerning the non-display of posters in the Dungarvan area and then by the Workers Party seeking agreement to put an end to canvassing outside polling stations. In the event both moves failed which was indeed a pity as we feel that neither of these activities have any beneficial effect for the candidates concerned. It is absurd for anyone to believe that poster displays or subjecting voters entering polling stations to the hassle of last minute canvassing will affect their voting policy. It is to be hoped that those who have placed posters on display will see that they are removed as quickly as possible after the election.

So it is now up to the electorate to make their choice and the only way to do this is to come out and vote. We hope that they do so in big numbers.

COUNTING THE VOTES

Following the close of polls on Thursday night the ballot boxes from all over the county will be brought to the Town Hall, Dungarvan where the counts for each of the four electoral areas of the county will take place on Friday next June 28 under the supervision and direction of Mr. Brian McNally, Returning Officer for the county.

Commencing at 9 a.m. on Friday morning the counts for the Lismore and Kilmacthomas areas will proceed simultaneously and these are expected to be completed at about lunch time. Then at about 2 p.m. it is hoped to commence the counts for the Dungarvan and Tramore areas and to have these concluded by nightfall.

So all should be known by Friday night that is, of course, provided there are no hiccups along the way!

OUR BEAUTIFUL COUNTY DESTROYED BY LITTER BUGS

A few weeks ago we heard, in the course of one of those 'phone-in programmes on R.T.E. Radio 1, a lady from somewhere in the Midlands complaining that because of the profusion of litter left behind by day-trippers who visit the beach at Tramore during the summer months, she no longer goes there.

The lady described Waterford as a most beautiful county but said that it was being destroyed by litter bugs. Down the years repeated appeals to the public have fallen on deaf ears and it is now more evident than ever that the message has not got home to our young people either as they have become the greatest offenders of all.

But now that the newly-formed Tidy Towns Committee in Dungarvan has initiated an environmental awareness campaign with a special competition for the students of the second level education establishments in the town perhaps the school principals in the primary area would take the cue and arrange a few basic lessons in civics for the pupils in their schools on a regular basis. This could help the situation a great deal.

When people refuse to respond to public appeals, the law can and should be enforced to see that they comply and at Tralee Court recently, District Justice Michael Patwell imposed a fine of £50 with £50 costs, on a man seen throwing a container with chips and the remains of a burger on to the roadway.

The Justice rightly commented that not enough people were caught in the act of creating litter with the result that most of our towns are in a disgusting state especially after week-ends.

Perhaps more people should take their courage in their hands and report offenders who besides creating litter are also damaging our tourist trade. Visitors to Ireland are always very hygiene conscious and abhor litter and surely it is more than time that we faced up to this problem and did something to shed the dirty Irish image.

Nature has endowed us with a beautiful country and we have one of its loveliest counties here in Waterford. Let us take pride in its appearance and stop the litter bugs from defacing and destroying it.

WATERFORD CRYSTAL'S NEW CHAIRMAN

The appointment of Mr. Donald Brennan as group chairman at last week's annual meeting of Waterford Wedgwood has been interpreted in financial circles as a flexing of power by the U.S. Merchant Bankers Morgan Stanley. Head of the merchant banking division of Morgan Stanley, Mr. Brennan joined the Waterford Wedgwood board last April, a year after the U.S. Bank had taken a 29 per cent stake in the company with Tony O'Reilly's Fitzwilton.

One of the major financial strategic moves taken by Waterford Crystal in recent months was the launch of the Marquis product under the Waterford brand cut on contract in overseas plants at low cost. Waterford workers claimed such an investment should have been made in Ireland.

Commenting on this, the new group chairman said that it was a fair complaint from the workforce at Waterford when they asked why these products were not manufactured here, thus putting capital into Waterford as opposed to some other production site.

But Mr. Brennan then has been quoted as saying, "a sensible man doesn't stick his arm into a tiger's cage without some evidence he'll get it back. You won't put in capital in significant quantities without being able to get it out. The decision to invest was based on the reputation of the brand. There is a high affinity with Waterford and its people but the investment was in the brand and if it is too costly to make here we will make it elsewhere".

However, Mr. Brennan went on to say that he did not foresee Waterford abandoning Ireland. "What is made here in Ireland is a hand craft with a very high end price for which market there is a finite size. It is not a billion dollar market," he said.

It certainly looks from this that Waterford Crystal is set to play in an entirely new ball game for the future.

Dear Ghosts Of All Our Yesterdays

A couple of weeks ago we had a visit at home from a travelling man who asked if we wanted any garden shears or lawn-mowers sharpened. He was an elderly fellow and he recalled that many years ago he used to sharpen the scissors for us. I did not remember. The surprising thing about this was that I thought such operators were all now a thing of the past.

I recall seeing such handymen in the old days pushing a whetstone with a treadle action around calling from door to door sharpening knives, scissors and such like. The man who called on us lately had updated all this. He had a van and an automatic grindstone. Incidentally he did a pretty good job on the garden shears in jig time but was not shy about charging £2 for the job!

We were reminded of this when looking through a collection of "Songs And Ballads of Dublin" at the week-end and came across "Dear Ghosts of All Our Yesterdays" which we now select as our choice for the ballad corner this week, and dedicate to all those travelling men of years gone by.

I'd like to see him once again, the barrel-organ man;
His music wasn't good, I know, just like an old tin can,
But, ah, he made us happy when he played outside our door
And Mary Ann and Mary Kate got up and took the floor,
They weren't young and beautiful, just going grey and big,
But you should see them lift their skirts and dance an Irish jig.

Another man I'd like to see, "Sweet Lavender" his name,
On Monday afternoon each week adown our street he came,
He wore an ancient caubeen hat and a suit of home-spun check,
And slung on bits of knotted twine, a tin tray from his neck,
A little bag cost twopence, a large one twopence more —
The girls all bought the big ones to scent their bottom drawer.

And then there was the Cockle man, his basket painted yellow,
The maids were mad about him for he was a handsome fellow;
But better than his splendid looks he was an honest man,
For sixpence he would pick them big and fill a billy can.

But, oh, the one that I like best, the truly real spell-binder,
Was crooked Tom O'Connor, the knife and scissor grinder,
He had a little donkey cart with a seat that sat him high,
And when he turned his magic wheel he made the sparks to fly;
I often mitched an hour from school to see him passing by
And nursed a secret hope to travel with him bye and bye.

And there was Dan who came at dusk, to make our world seem brighter,
And Ma would say, "To bed now boys, here comes the old lamp-lighter."
No matter what the weather was, just cold and dry, or damp,
He always came, his staff in hand, to light the corner lamp.

Dear ghosts of all our yesterdays, we sigh for you in vain,
Your work is done, your day is gone, you will not come again;
But as you pass, we lift a glass and say a word of praise,
To thank you for the sweet romance you brought to boyhood days.

LISMORE NOTES

VALERIE BARRY WINS MUNSTER CHAMPIONSHIP

Valerie Barry did it in style on Sunday by winning the girls under fifteen Munster 800m championship. She won the heat very easily and in the final she produced a roasting pace to beat off all the opposition to win in a time of 2 min. 19 sec. Best of luck to her in the All-Ireland finals in a couple of weeks. We had Ryan Flynn in the boys U/15 long jump and he was most unlucky not to qualify for the All-Ireland, being beaten by four centimeters for first place and one centimeter for a medal and also to qualify. Olive Broderick tried her heart out at every event as usual and Rena Carey on the injured list was deprived of doing the girls U/17 walk which she would have won, she turned out for the relays. Joan Coleman competed in all her events with great dedication and should go well in future competitions and of course, Ann Barry who was great to fall in for the relay at short notice with little training done. Best of luck to all Lismore athletes in the Community Games County Finals on next Sunday in Dungarvan.

C.L.C.G. LIOS MOR

Feile na nGael— While our U/14 hurlers did not manage to take home the honours they, nonetheless, represented their county with pride and distinction and won the admiration of the crowds for their gritty determination and their refusal to throw in the towel even in the face of insurmountable odds.

Drawn in Section 'C' of Division 1, for some inexplicable reason, Lismore were grouped with some of the strongest teams in the entire country and it was plain as a pikestaff that only a minor miracle would see them through to the semi-final stages.

Their first game against host club Durlas Og on Friday night was to confirm our worst fears when the Lismore lads were decisively beaten by a superior Thurles fifteen.

Saturday morning we travelled north to Roscrea to meet the cream of Cork hurlers, Na Piarraigh, and after a titanic struggle the Cork boys won the day on the score 2-7 to 2-1 - but they knew they had been in a match!

This game restored Lismore's confidence and belief in themselves and in the afternoon took on Roscrea whom they beat on the score 3-4 to 2-1 after a game which was interrupted due to a thunderstorm.

But unfortunately Lismore had not achieved enough to qualify for the semi-finals and so were out of the competition for 1991 but can find solace in the fact that they went down fighting and were gallant in defeat.

The parade on Sunday morning was a spectacular event with teams from every county in Ireland, together with numerous bands, taking part in the march to Semple Stadium where Archbishop Dermot Clifford celebrated open-air Mass for the assembled hurling and camogie teams and officials. Three of the Lismore hurlers David Bennett, Brendan Landers and Brian O'Farrell were chosen along with three of their counterparts from Durlas Og to participate in the bidding prayers, at which they excelled.

After that it was time to relax and watch the various finals in the magnificent setting that is Semple Stadium. It's interesting to note that the eventual winners of Division 1 (by a mere 2 pts.) were Na Piarraigh against whom Lismore put up such a spirited performance. It was also heartwarming to note the large number of supporters who travelled to give vocal and moral support to the Lismore team - it didn't go unnoticed and was deeply appreciated - and was in keeping with tradition down through the years. The Lismore Feile panel for 1991 was Eugene O'Brien, Brendan Landers, Billy Buckley, Maurice O'Connor, Brian O'Farrell, Anthony Whelan, Dan Shanahan, David Hickey, William Cunningham, Michael Shanahan, Thomas Veale, Eoin Bennett, David Bennett, Stephen Quinn, Garry Keane, James McNamara, David Howard, David Whelan, Billy Walsh, Kenneth Kearney, Fergus Hickey, Michael O'Gorman, Alan O'Gorman, John Begley.

While the panel representing Waterford was known as Lismore, we acknowledge with thanks the contribution by the Ballysaggart club in supplying several of the key players, not to mention the trainer, Pat Bennett, who put so much hard work and countless hours into preparing the panel for the big occasion. His fellow mentors were the irrepressible Rev. Bro. Dormer and the enthusiastic Donal Shanahan. Well done everyone!

U/14 Hurling County Final— Now that Feile '91 has come and gone we must now concentrate on retaining our U/14 County Title when we meet old rivals Mount Sion at Walsh Park on Saturday at 3.00 p.m. in the county final. After last weekend our boys are certainly not short of match practice and hopefully will have reaped the benefits to help them overcome their Eastern counterparts. We wish them well and assure them of our support as they go for the "big one". The team will travel by coach from the monument leaving at 1.30 p.m. on Saturday. A limited number of seats will be available for supporters on a first come first served basis and are bookable through Dick Ahearne, Parks Road.

Junior Football Championships— Tallow will be our opponents in the second game of a doubleheader at Cappoquin on this Sunday June 30 at 3.15 p.m. Following our earlier poor showing against Old Parish we will need to pull out all the stops if we hope to make any real progress in this competition.

At the Castlefarm Grounds— Meanwhile, on this Sunday we feature our own double-header attraction when Ballinameela play Brickey Rangers at 2.00 p.m. in the Intermediate Football Championship while at 3.15 p.m. Geraldines take on Affane in the same competition.

Munster U/21 Hurling Championship— Congratulations to Sean Daly who figured prominently in Waterfords victory over Kerry in the first round at Walsh Park recently. Sean who plays U/21 and senior hurling with Lismore had a personal tally of 3-2 and was instrumental in burying any hopes the Kingdom might have had in winning this one. Well done, Growler!

B/B and 2 All-Ireland Hurling Final Tickets for £1— In an effort to keep pace with the ever-increasing cost of running the club we are presently running a raffle, tickets for which are available from any member of the club. They cost £1.00 each or a book of 6 for £5.00 and the prize is 2 All-Ireland Hurling Final Stand Tickets 1991 plus bed and breakfast in the sumptuous surroundings of the newly refurbished Central Hotel, Dublin, (courtesy of former Lismore man Jim Canning).

KILROSSANTY NOTES

G.A.A.

Senior Football— The seniors play their third game of the championship on Sunday against Gaultier in Walsh Park. After two good wins so far we are now in a strong position to qualify for the play off stages although a victory this weekend would set us up nicely for the remaining three games in our group. As always Gaultier will be a hard team to beat but if we play to our fullest potential we can record yet another valuable victory.

Under 21 Football— Our under 21 footballers were beaten by Sliabh gCua in the first round of the championship last Thursday night in the Fraher Field on the score of 2-9 to 3-5. The team went into the game as Western champions but without a number of key players we fielded a weakened side. After playing well and leading by 2-04 to 0-02 at half time, Sliabh gCua made a determined comeback in the second half and when they got two vital goals near the end, we were on the way out. Although we got a goal in the last minute, the final whistle was then blown to leave just a point separating the two teams at the end of a hectic contest.

Team:— P. Barry, E. Flynn, K. Lonergan (0-1), O. Fennell, N. Kirwan (1-0), M. Fitzgerald, B. Whelan, W. Power, N. Power (0-1), C. Dee, B. Kirwan (1-1), N. Connors (1-1), M. Kiely, P. Brazil (0-1), P. Veale.

Junior Football— Our junior footballers beat Kill in a challenge last Saturday night in Leamybrien on the score of 4-10 to 2-9. They meet Shamrocks in the first round of the championship on Saturday next June 29 in Cappoquin at 7.30 p.m.

Under 12 Football— Our U-12 footballers beat Gaultier in a challenge last Sun. morning by 2-5 to 3-1.

County Players— Pat

Power, Jim Maher and Pierce Whyte all played on the Waterford senior football team that were beaten by Limerick last Sunday in the Munster semi final.

CLEAN-UP

The annual clean up of Kilrossanty Cemetery will take place on Monday 1 July, it would be great to have one person from each household come along on that night. Many hands make light work.

For the remainder of the Sixties and the Seventies they were a sell out in all venues throughout Ireland including local venues such as Piltown carnival (marquee), Anthony Hayes, The Pike (marquee), Arch Ballroom, Tallow; Clonea Ballroom (C.S.M.). Other hits of his include Four Country Roads, Back to Castleblaney, Old Rustic Bridge by the Mill and many more, too numerous to mention.

No wonder Casanova was so sexy!

GETTING frisky with fish is not new - legendary lover Casanova was said to eat 50 oysters every evening to get him in the mood for seduction.

The aphrodisiac qualities of oysters are put down to zinc which is said to increase fertility levels, and vitamin E which sets off the hormones. They also contain other vitamins, protein, phosphorous, iron, iodine, copper and manganese, are low in carbohydrates and have a naturally high sodium content which stimulates appetite and digestion. No wonder then, that Casanova had high energy levels!

There are three species of oyster which form the basis of our industry in the United Kingdom: the European flat oyster; the Portuguese oyster; and more recently the Pacific or Japanese oyster.

The flat oyster is the most sought after. It is 'native' and has been cultivated for centuries, but is therefore more expensive.

Portuguese and Pacific oysters are less expensive, and the old adage "never eat an R in the month" is not applicable - they can be eaten at any time of the year since there is no closed season. Stocks of Pacific oysters are at their highest level for many years and there are now some 125 businesses growing these oysters at various sites around the United Kingdom. The British public can rest assured that the oysters they buy are of the highest quality - good purification systems and strict controls on harvesting ensure this.

The oyster in its shell is a living animal and should be treated with care.

Oysters can be kept alive for a few days in a refrigerator operating at 5-8C (40-45F). And remember to discard any oysters that do not close when tapped or have damaged shells.

This summer let yourself go to seed!

MOST gardeners and houseplant growers like to save money by raising cuttings but few 're-cycle' the seeds from their plants.

However, it does make increasingly good sense to save money in this way as seed prices rise.

True, there is a strong argument that seed 'harvested' and stored at home is unlikely to be as fresh and reliable as that produced commercially, but you can afford to sow generously when your homegrown supply is free!

Of course, you can't germinate seeds taken from every plant. Some need highly-controlled conditions and great patience.

And seeds from plants highly cultivated by man, such as roses and F1 hybrid varieties, are often unreliable, and different and inferior to the parent plant.

But those who try growing from collected seed will not have much difficulty with plants close to the form in which man found them in the wild.

Seed collecting can now start, with the greenhouse and garden now in full bloom, and the secret is to collect the seeds when they are at their freshest, just as they are about to be shed by the plant.

Wait for a warm dry day, to avoid the chance of dampness inducing any contamination and mould, and then collect the seed.

Seed pods should be dried for a few weeks in a dry sunny place such as the greenhouse or an indoor window ledge, before being split open to gather the seed.

As with the traditional separation of the wheat from chaff you will need to pick out the seed from the rest of the material inside the pod, but this can be done by gently fanning all the pod debris.

The rubbish should blow away leaving the heavier seed to be gathered and placed in carefully labelled envelopes alongside your other supplies until needed for the next growing season.

In the case of plants producing berries or fruit, you will need to wait until these ripen before collecting. They then need to be stored somewhere cool during the winter to simulate the cold spell they would normally go through before bursting into life next year.

Once people try seed collecting, which is increasingly popular, they tend to experiment more, graduating from such simple plants as marigolds to shrubs and trees.

A secret of success is to use a proper seed compost such as John Innes or an own label from any of the supermarket or DIY chains. Be pleased with the savings on your seeds and do not be tempted to sow simply the seed straight into some material dug and sieved from the garden.

If you buy in compost you cut down the risk of infection and give the seedlings the balanced start they need so always re-seal the compost in the bag or container after use, to keep it fresh and bug-free.

Hennessey C.C., Cobh and he was assisted by Fr. Fian, P.P. Coachford, Fr. Lomasney, C.C., Ballynoe. The bride, who was attended by June Flanagan and Vivian Ryan, was given away by her father Davy. The bridegroom had as best man and groomsmen, his brother Edmund and Donal Hurley, respectively. Fr. Declan, performed the wedding ceremony. Mrs. Anderson, Middleton, presided at the organ and Lena Walsh, Dungarvan, vocalist, sang such numbers as "O Lord My God", "Ave Maria", "Panis Angelicus", etc. Mike being a member of St. Catherine's hurling team for a considerable number of years, and also the Regan families involvement in club affairs earned for them both the honour of an archway of hurleys, provided by members of the Catherine's Club on their departure from the Church. The sun shone too to assist the photographers and guests numbering close on 200 headed for Dungarvan, where the reception was held with great conviviality at the Park Hotel. Mike's sister Edell was married to Chris Woolrick, England, at St. Catherine's Church, Conna a week previously and we wish both couples long life and happiness in their new state.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A.

Results Of Club's £1,000 Draw 20 June—£500 Moss Kilty, Reinduff, Tallow; £100 Richard O'Connell, Kilphilibeen, Ballynoe; £100 James Spillane, Kila-vorilla, Conna; £50 Mrs. Bridget Buckner, Glounthoune, Ballynoe; Richard Magner, c/o John D. Cotter, Ballynoe; Mrs. Mary Daly, Ballyhamshire, Castlelyons; Oliver Twomey, The Fisherman's Rest, Conna; £25 to the following - Noel Tobin c/o Castlelyons Co-op; John Flynn, Cullinagh, Ballynoe; Patrick Sheehan, Kilphilibeen; Peggy Kenneally, Coolrue, Conna; Francis Healy c/o John D. Cotter, Ballynoe; John Ahern, Tallow; John Hegarty, Glounthoune, Ballynoe. Thanks again to all from the club. Next draw July 18.

U/14 Hurling Championship at Ballynoe—Watergrasshill 1-9 Fr. O'Neills (Ballymacoda) 0-4—This was a rip roaring game for the spectators from start to the final whistle blast from Pat Clancy. It couldn't be more evenly matched with the 'Hill on 4 points and the Ballymacoda boys one less midway. Never losing the tempo on the turn-over and with these young lads playing their hearts out 'twas a real treat to watch them. Here the Ballymacoda backline excelled as they cleared ball after ball for almost 20 minutes, but the boys from the 'Hill shone out picking off a couple of beautiful points and a goal in the dying minutes sent them well on the road to victory.

Junior Hurling Challenge At Ballynoe—St. Catherine's 4-11 Castlelyons 2-14—In a very entertaining match last Friday evening at Ballynoe, Catherine's just had the edge on Castlelyons in this practice game. Catherine's got away early on and had a big score of 3-8 chalked up at half time with Castlelyons trailing with 6 points. The latter with wind advantage in the second half came into the game more and entering the last quarter they were within striking distance of their opponents, which livened up matters considerably. Points were exchanged pretty rapidly with a two point lead by Catherine's being reduced to one. Then a goal to Catherine's put them in the driving seat again and a final minor score to Castlelyons cut the lead to 3 points after a great game which should be advantageous to both teams on their championship dates on the 30th June, Castlelyons playing Bride Rovers at Ballynoe and Catherine's taking on Sarsfields at Rathcormac. Eddie Cunningham, Tallow, proved a most capable referee.

Junior A Football League At Middleton—St. Catherine's 0-6 Middleton 0-6—The above league game at Middleton last Sunday morning remained undecided and the sharing of the points between those old rivals was a fair result as it was evenly contested for the duration of the hour. Catherine's team was Pat Murphy (goal), Sean Hickery, Mike Walsh, Ted O'Leary, Seamus Neville, Maurice Hartnett, Kevin Barry, Donal O'Leary, Edmond Galvin, Billy Carr, Denis Buckner, John Mangan, Edward Sheehan, Pad Joe Lonergan, Sean Buckley. Subs used - Patsy Donoughue, Paul Higgins. Kevin O'Shea, Cloyne, referred.

Congratulations to Catherine's player Christy Clancy whose significant contribution on the scoreboard at the Final of the Munster Junior hurling championship at Mallow last Friday evening between Tipperary and Cork helped the latter to draw and live to fight another day. Our congrats too to Helen Lane from Catherine's who gained a place on the Cork minor camogie team.

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

U/21 Football (B)—Tallow 2-2 St. Oliver's 4-8—Tallow lost out to St. Oliver's in this first round match on Sat. night last in Cappoquin. The crossbar was what saved St. Oliver's in the first half when Tallow hit it 3 times. If we had taken those goalscoring chances we would have been a lot closer at the end. St. Oliver's really buried the Tallow challenge ten mins. into the second half with 2 goals. Though Tallow replied with two goals themselves it only put a more respectable look to the scoreline.

J. P. Grey, Denis Martin, Eamonn Cunningham, Florence O'Gorman, Dan McGrath, David O'Regan, Colin Cunningham, Denis O'Flaherty 0-2, David Doyle, Peter Henley, Gary Ahearne 1-0, Damien O'Flynn, Dominic Power 1-0, Eamonn Power, Ian Mackintosh. Subs Paul McDonnell for Ian Mackintosh and Steven Hampton for Dan McGrath.

On this Sun. in Cappoquin the junior footballers play Lismore in the A championship at 3.15 p.m. All players to be at the square at 2.30 sharp.

ST. PATRICKS PARISH HALL

Result of Card Drive 19 June—1st Pad Hogan and Willie Murphy; 2nd Richard Tobin and Mrs. Linda McCormack; 3rd divided by Jack Fraser and James Coughlan, Mrs. Josie Curley and Mrs. Maura Lyons, Mrs. Babe O'Mahoney and Noel Buckley. Table prizes - Bertie Neville and Jack Cotter; Miss Eily O'Neill and Mrs. Ceccila Corkery. Raffle winners - Mrs. Maura Lyons and Pad Hogan.

Parish Hall News—Friday 14 June marked a memorable occasion in the parish. The occasion was the celebration of the Golden Jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood, of Tallow's beloved Parish Priest for the past 17 years, the Very Rev. Fr. Michael Walsh P.P. The ceremony commenced with a concelebrated Mass of thanksgiving in the Church of the Immaculate Conception at which Dr. Michael Russell Bishop of Waterford and Lismore presided and over twenty local and visiting clergy participated. Addressing the large congregation present Fr. Walsh expressed his deep appreciation and thanks for the many messages of congratulations and good wishes he had received and also for the help and assistance he receives in his ministry in the parish.

In his eulogy, Mons. Shine spoke of his long association with Fr. Walsh giving an outline of his life in the service of the Lord. Bishop Russell also spoke of the dedication and untiring service of Fr. Walsh.

The parish choir under the direction of Mrs. Alice Tobin gave a fine rendering of hymns.

Following the Mass the congregation adjourned to St. Patrick's Parish Hall. Fr. Walsh again thanked all who helped to make the occasion such a memorable success. He especially thanked Fr. Donal Clancy and the Sisters of the Carmelite Convent. Dick Tobin, Chairman of St. Patrick's Parish Hall Committee then addressed the gathering.

Mr. Tobin recalled that Fr. Walsh was ordained to the priesthood on 12th June 50 years ago. June 1941 was not an easy time for anyone as people were in the middle of World War 2. Father's first appointment was to Bristol and Cheltenham where he encountered the bombings and trauma of war firsthand. 1948 saw him back in Waterford City and in 1952 he was appointed to Abbeyside where he spent 22 years. In 1974 he was appointed Parish Priest in Tallow. It is only right and fitting that we have a Cahir man as Parish Priest in Tallow as we presently have a Tallow man, Very Rev. Paul Beecher, doing similar honours in Cahir and another honourable Tallow man, the late Canon John McCarthy was P.P. in Cahir also.

Having detailed the many developments initiated in the parish by Fr. Walsh, Mr. Tobin concluded as follows:- Father Walsh is a man of many parts but his star which shines brightest is his enduring concern for the old, the sick and those in trouble in his parish. His priestly concern for his flock is what has made a lasting impression on the people of Tallow. His work in the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul and deeds of a private nature have bettered our community in many ways. I wish to congratulate Fr. Walsh on the celebration of his Golden Jubilee and I wish him many more years of health and happiness in his Holy Ministry here with us in Tallow.

The crowd were then entertained in the hall to a lavish display of refreshments, the result of a massive co-operative effort by the Ladies Committee, who are to be complimented on their achievement.

Congratulations and thanks to Fr. Donal Clancy and Eddie Cunningham who organised the event. A fitting tribute to our beloved Pastor to whom we wish many more years of active ministry with us.

NEW SINGLE RELEASE

Congratulations to Thomas Cunningham, Tallowbridge who is receiving air play on local radio stations with his first recorded cassette single. Continued good luck to our well known popular local singer.

KILL G.A.A. NOTES

Last Saturday, June 22, our U-11 hurlers were beaten in the final of the City League by a strong Clonea team in Walsh Park. The lads never really got going and the opposition led by 2-0 to 0-0 at half time. They added a goal just after half time and our lads seemed dead and buried, but to their credit, they rallied with Brian Hennessey and John Bagge scoring goals. But Clonea came back with further goals to secure the win.

Final score — St. Mary's 2-1 Clonea 5-0.

LOST property is becoming a booming industry. Every year more than 5,000,000 items are mislaid in public places.

And it's not only wallets, purses and umbrellas that go missing. Everything from stuffed baboons to artificial limbs and false teeth are lost by careless owners.

What's more, lost property is no longer restricted to a small office at a railway or bus station - it's big business.

Staff at these offices spend hours trying to trace the unfortunate owners, sometimes through only the flimsiest of clues.

Usually they keep the property for three months before putting it up for auction.

Dealers buy large lots then sell them on the market stalls or in shops.

It must be a red letter day - I've lost something!

Among the more unusual items found in public places have been rare antiques, valuable paintings, prints and even pet mice.

Last year in Britain alone, more than 1,000,000 gloves were lost, of which only two-thirds were in pairs.

Lost property offices say there are peaks when they can expect a flurry of activity, normally during a big public event.

"Whenever an important event takes place, people seem to get so carried away they forget their belongings," said a spokeswoman for one of London's big lost property offices.

"If we kept a graph showing the peaks it would always coincide with something like a royal wedding or General Election."

There are also seasonal differences. In spring, people tend to carry raincoats and lose them, while winter sees a run of scarves and gloves.

In America, things are even worse. In Philadelphia somebody forgot an alligator on a bus, while in Chicago, a plain brown paper package containing £500,000-worth of uncut diamonds was found - and handed in to the lost property people.

In Washington last year, one young mother actually 'lost' her baby. She left the child on a bus and had to seek a tearful reunion at the bus depot's special lost and found office.

In Britain, a little more than half lost property is claimed by the owners - and it's largely due to diligent staff.

"We spend a lot of money trying to contact owners," said one office. "We make dozens of 'phone calls every day following up clues."

"Then we send letters all over the country and often abroad, informing people we have their goods."

Would-be smugglers have often tried to trick lost property staff. They leave articles on a cross-Channel boat and then try to pick them up in the office later, thus avoiding Customs.

"But the scheme is useless," explained an official. "We always refuse to hand over any article until Customs have been informed."

But though we now leave almost £4 million worth of property lying around, the lost property people can still see the funny side of their business - and it usually involves animals.

When small livestock is lost, it's kept in the lost property office for a few days and then sent off to an animal home. If the owner claims it, he must pay for the food eaten during its stay there.

"We frequently have tame mice, hamsters and budgerigars brought in," said a spokesman at a big London British Rail terminal. "But one of our most amusing examples of love livestock was a big cockatoo."

"He was a wonderful talker and spent the day cursing us all. The only thing he hadn't learned was his name and address."

CAPPOQUIN NEWS

AT THE SPORTSFIELD

On Saturday evening we staged the under 21 football championship tie St. Oliver's v. Tallow. Only a very small crowd attended and it must be disheartening for players to have to play with practically no spectators. St. Oliver's were the stronger side here even though they were short a few of their key men. With this win to encourage them they will no doubt be difficult to beat in the next round. Tallow tried hard and indeed scored two excellent goals, nevertheless they lacked that bit of skill out field. Still it is good to see them competing in all grades of football this year. Final Score St. Oliver's 4-8 Tallow 2-2.

Referee J. McGrath (Affane/Cappoquin)

THIS WEEKS QUESTION

In which of Joyce's works is Mt. Melleray mentioned? Answer to question two weeks ago - 1 hour (Approx).

ROWING

Congratulations to Johnny and Oisín McGrath who will be representing Ireland at rowing in Amsterdam this weekend.

THE LAST ROUND-UP

There is great excitement locally as the local election campaign draws to a close. It is agreed by all sides that the three outgoing councillors will hold their seats. There is no such agreement in regard to the last seat. The fourth outgoing member - Cllr. Monica Walsh - is not seeking re-election which is the reason that the result is so difficult to call. Fianna Fail activists claim that with only a small swing their third candidate Mrs. Mary Ryan will take it. Mary is a native of Ballinameela and spent much of her early years in Cappoquin before moving to Lismore a number of years ago. Despite the great faith, we feel that Fianna Fail are being a little optimistic and that the seat will fall to one or other of the Fine Gael candidates i.e. Mrs. Nora Flynn or Mattie Power. Both have conducted an extensive campaign and of course, both have the makings of excellent representatives. Mattie is a native of Shrough, Lismore and has resided at Kilbree, Cappoquin for a long number of years. He is well known in G.A.A. circles having played both hurling and football with distinction as well as holding administrative positions in the association. Mrs. Flynn is a Cappoquin native and is married to Danny, a well known Affane and Waterford footballer. If it's any kind of guide Nora is odds-on with the bookmakers. For yours truly it is too close to call and all we can do is to wish them all the best of luck and wait until the votes are counted on Friday.

MELLERAY BOWLING

Results from last Sunday— Brian Whelan beat John Michael Kelly. Final will be played on Sunday next June 30 at 5 p.m.

Finalists are— Brian Whelan, Tom Farrell, Ciaran Fraher. Presentation at the Cats Bar afterwards.

P.T.A.A. TOUR

The tour is now fully booked and we look forward to Saturday. Passengers are asked to assemble at 6.45 a.m. for departure at 7.00 a.m. Full itinerary of the tour will be given on the bus. As usual all travellers will be provided with a map of the touring route.

Let's hope the good weather promised for this week will favour us on Saturday. Looking forward to meeting you all bright and early and ready for the day.

KARATE CLUB NOTES

We travelled to Fermoy last Saturday week to take part in a training and grading examination under 5th Dan Black Belt Instructor Mr. George Reilly.

Mr. Reilly praised the standard of karate shown by all the students with all of the following passing their respective belts.

9 kyu white belt - Barbara Kenerick, Jennifer Kenerick, Linda Kenerick, Kerry Barry, Pat Fitzgerald, Ewen Mangan and Allan Stuart.

8 kyu yellow tipped belt - Seamus McCarthy, Noel McCarthy, Catherine McCarthy, Carol Uniacke, Steven Rourke, Michael Curran and Henry Hurton.

7 kyu yellow belt - Frank McLoughlin; 6 kyu green belt - Gerald O'Keeffe; 5 kyu purple belt - Denis Barron; 3 kyu yellow belt - Liam Giblin.

ADMIRAL OF THE BLACKWATER

Scout funds received a filip of £400 plus from the brilliantly conceived and methodically executed 'Admiral of the Blackwater' project, which reached its finale on Friday night last. A big crowd gathered to see local farmer Mr. James Wall declared Admiral, in an extremely close-fought finish from Ms. Bernie Landers and the popular venturer leader Pad Joe Kiely. A most enjoyable night began with the presentation of an inscribed Waterford Crystal clock to Mr. Willie Gallagher by Regional Scout Chairman, Mr. S. Moynihan, to mark his long service to scouting in Cappoquin. The 'Admiral of the Blackwater' was then piped ashore to much applause. All the candidates were congratulated on their hard work and the work of their 'election agents'. Certificates were presented and the 'Admiral' spoke some well-chosen words saying scouting was the real winner. The £100 was won by

Ms. Jackie Casey, Green St., the £50 by John O'Connor of Carrigeen and the £25 by the local scout troop, the 16th Waterford. A special word of thanks to Garda O. Croke for his valuable help. The community spirit which the whole project evoked was wonderful and we know that local scouting can now make that quantum leap forward which it was always ready to do.

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

U/21 Footballers Win— Affane 3-8 Dungarvan 0-6— Affane U/21 footballers caused a big championship upset by beating raging pre-match favourites Dungarvan in decisive fashion last week. Forced to field a very young side through illness and players outside the country it still did not stop this team from turning in a top class performance. Their enthusiasm and hunger for victory was evident from the outset and they proceeded to play quality football scoring three goals out of the top drawer and kicking some lovely points. Dungarvan were never allowed to settle and play their normal game but Affane were worthy winners here and fully deserved their convincing victory.

The team was loaded with star performers but man of the match must surely have been young Conor Prendergast who gave the Dungarvan defence a torrid time.

Affane now meet Naomh Brid in the next round who showed very impressive form last week, and on that showing must surely leave us the underdogs once again.

Team— C. Cullinane, L. Lacey, M. Reddy, K. Wilkinson, G. Morrissey, J. Buckley, D. Cullinane, S. Costin, T. Fives, D. Cummins, R. Flynn, T. O'Donnell, K. O'Donnell, T. Murphy, C. Prendergast. Sub - K. Mason.

Injured Players—

Presently on the injured list are two of the clubs promising young players. Ray Curran sustained a fractured finger while Pakie Manahan pulled muscles in his leg, in a recent challenge game. We wish them both a speedy recovery.

U-12 Hurling Challenge— St. Pats 2-4 Cappoquin 1-0— Our under 12 years hurling team played an entertaining game against St. Patricks last Sunday night. This was a much improved performance by all players than in previous games. We must consider the fact that most of the team are underage again next year and can only benefit from matches. All players put in a great effort and with more training in the field and skill practice they will continue to improve. There was some excellent defensive work by Shane Coughlan, Niall Maher and Thomas Scanlan. Others to impress were Richard Scanlan, Damian McCarthy, Michael Scanlan, Peter Keniry and Carl Mason. Our thanks to St. Pats for the challenge game.

Team:— S. Coughlan, G. Foley, N. Maher, D. McCarthy, R. Scanlan, T. Scanlan, G. O'Keeffe, N. McCarthy, M. Scanlan, P. Morrissey, P. Keniry, J. Dalton, J. Murray. Subs— S. Curran, C. Horsom, S. Hanrahan, B. Coughlan.

Elections Will Feature On T.V.

The County Council elections will be featured on next Tuesday's "Between the Lines". Interviews and comments from the successful candidates and supporters will be featured plus the count. The recent Munster semi-final senior football match at Fraher Field will be recalled and the programme will have a feature on Dungarvan Youth Club's "Battle of the Bands". Abbesside School was the venue last weekend for an exhibition of art, with a Japanese theme. Fr. Moran tells us of the recent success of St. Augustines College great 3 in a row All-Ireland Athletics team.

So tune into the S4C Channel on Tuesday night at 8 p.m. and meet once again our presenters Kieran O'Connor and Natanya O'Mahony and no doubt Tony and Sean will have their say about important matters of the moment. So reserve Tuesday July 2 at 8 p.m. on S4C for "Between the Lines".

LOCAL ELECTION CANDIDATES ON THE MOVE

Fianna Fail candidates contesting in the Dungarvan Electoral Area are (l. to r.) — Willie John Kenneally, Paud O'Keeffe, Nuala Ryan, Austin Flynn and Cllr. Paddy Kenneally.

Canvassing in Dungarvan recently were Garry O'Halloran, M.C.C., John Cushnahan, M.E.P., Mario Flavin and Richard Walsh, U.D.C., Fine Gael candidates, Dungarvan Electoral area.

Abbeyside Scout Notes

TRIP TO GLEN

Last Thursday seven of us cycled to the Glen for an overnight camp. Our gear was brought by car and while Martin, Derek and Conor went to Cappoquin for our food, John, Colin, Peter and Eamonn pitched the giant pearl tent. When the lads returned we had our supper.

We later travelled to Cappoquin and called on Colm's aunt who promised to bring us chips later in the night — which she did and we really enjoyed them. Later back on site we were in the caravan from the rain, when we heard strange singing and four figures passed down the path. Peter was armed with the frying pan! when the singers returned and proved to be Brian, Smiley, Cossie and Sean. When they returned home we went to our tent and spent much time talking and singing before sleep arrived.

Following a late rise we walked to Mellerary where Cathy looked after us well. When we got back to the Glen we cleared up the campsite, packed our gear and cycled home. The trip took about one hour.

GENERAL

Sunday morning saw many tests passed and a big order for merit badges will soon be on its way to the Scout Shop. Our troop weekend camp planned for July 12-14 has been postponed as our flag days take place that week-end. There will be overnight camping arranged before we set off for our annual camp at the Curragh Chase later in the year. Our log book got a check up on Sunday morning and proved an interesting read — keep up the good work Conor.

MONDAY NIGHT CUBS

Yes! We've done it again. We are the champions of the Deise. On Sunday, June 16 we all gathered at the C.B.S. Field in town to play the Regional Soccer Blitz. We had the best unit turnout, and after the rules were given out the games got underway.

We were drawn against Cappoquin in the first match. Here we lost a great first half lead to finish level 2-2 at full-time. The rest of the games went easily (apart from the girls who caused some sweaty brows amongst our leaders). In the final we met Cappoquin again. History repeated itself here as we lost a two-nil lead (goals from Eamonn Cashin) in the first half to 2-2 into the second half. But great skill from Padraig "Shakespeare" Conroy saw us take the lead again. Ronan Wall pulled off some great saves to see us to victory for the third time.

Drinks and crisps were well deserved to everyone and John Ryan, our captain fantastic, lifted the trophy to great cheers.

At the celebration party on Monday night we presented "A Man of the Tournament" prize to John Phelan, the best player of the day.

Well done to all the lads who took part.

dent aid that is available for the 1991-92 school year.

According to the company's spokesman, Carvil Phillips, students complete a short background questionnaire that asks about their income, expenses, academic abilities, and a list of the schools that they are considering attending. This information is entered into a computer that analyzes each student's particular circumstances and prepares a 40-page report, guiding the student through the steps that they need to take to complete foundations, organisations and federal student aid applications in a manner that will insure the best chance of receiving an award.

New Desperately Needed Service Helps International Students Qualify For Foundations, Organisations and Federal Students Aid Programs

New York, New York. June 13, 1991 — Every year, millions of eligible international students miss out on their share of the $26 billion dollars available from foundations, organisations and federal student aid programs either because they don't apply or they do not know how to complete the foundations, organisations and federal student aid applications in a manner that will insure the best chance of receiving an award.

St. Declan's Church And Well Declared Ancient Monuments

The Office of Public Works is to take St. Declan's Church and Well in Ardmore into their ownership and guardianship under the National Monuments Act.

This was the good news conveyed on Monday last by Minister of State Vincent Brady, T.D., to Cllr. Paddy Kenneally who has been making representations for some time to have this done.

Stating that he was very pleased with the news, Cllr. Kenneally said that the potential of Ardmore as a tourist area was now only starting to be fully realised and this latest announcement would further the quality and range of the facilities being provided in Ardmore.

He added that efforts were at present under way to identify the present owners and once this had been done, the Commissioners would proceed with the take-over. In the meantime the Commissioners were arranging to have both the church and the Well registered as ancient monuments under the Acts in order to give them statutory protection.

Dungarvan Chamber Committee's Report On Projects

The Dungarvan Chamber of Commerce recently held a General Meeting of all members in Lawlor's Hotel. Chamber President Paddy Gordon and five committees gave an account of their activities to date.

Mr. Jack Flanagan, Chairman of the Retailers Committee outlined their activities which included the Christmas Promotional Campaign, which is one of Chamber's most public and successful promotions. New Christmas lights are to be used this year. The twinning with Killarney was also a very successful project. Assisting the U.D.C. and E.S.B. in the undergrounding of electric cables in the Town Centre proved very rewarding as well, while great assistance was also given by this Committee to the Town Development Committee in setting up the Window Flower Box Campaign of 1990.

Mr. Maurice Christopher spoke for the Town Development Committee. Their activities include: The window floral box in town centre; tree planting in The Square for National Tree Week; winning the prize for the most colourful float in the St. Patrick's Day Parade; setting up the first Tidy Town's Committee. The Committee works closely with the U.D.C. in helping to improve the floral look to the town and setting up environmental awareness projects for schools and housing areas. It also is seeking to have an updated list of buildings to be preserved.

Mr. Jim Ryan spoke for the Industrial Committee whose activities included finding a Development to assist in building an advance factory and seeking decentralisation of Civil Service to Dungarvan. The Committee also in the course of its work met people from the I.D.A., C.T.T., F.A.S., County Council, Urban Council and all Public Representatives, to get their views on Dungarvan as an Industrial Base.

Mario Flavin spoke for Mr. Pat Ormond who was unable to attend for the Marine Committee. Their activities centered around the setting up of a floating pontoon in the harbour area. This project it is hoped will be carried out by the Angling Club, Sailing Club and the Council and Chamber though a lot more work is expected to be carried out to get all parties together on this.

CASTLE RESTORATION

Mrs. Breege O'Connor spoke for the Castle Restoration Committee. The Committee were pleased to hear the Castle will be open to the public this summer, but felt a lot of restoration work needs to be done and not repair work. The Committee is actively seeking E.C. funding for the castle to include an archaeological dig, followed by restoration to have our King John's Castle restored to its former glory, which should prove to be quite a tourist attraction.

Mr. Gordon thanked the Committees for the hard and fruitful work completed to date and hoped it would continue. Several representations he said, had been made to various bodies on behalf of members over the past months, and Mr. Gordon stated that the Board would always do its utmost to safeguard the interests of its members. Other items discussed were the Community Development Project and the "Leader" Project.

ABBEYSIDE A.F.C. CLUB NOTES

Heineken Pub League

Our annual pub league kicks-off on Monday night next with a double header which should prove to be a cracker. First at 6.30 p.m. a local derby between Bartons and Bridgie Terries, who were runners-up last year. Bartons draw upon the experience of D. Looby, Ml. Fraher and M. Foley, while Bridgie's have all the Kilrossanty men who so nearly pulled it off for them last year. A great tie in store.

In the second match the holders managed by Liam Shanley, face the favourites in many peoples eyes, P. Foleys (D), in what should be a tremendous game. Some pundits have compared this game to Dublin v. Meath, two great teams but only room for one to go forward. Foleys are rumoured to have inter-county stars Pepe Ferncombe and Dermot O'Callaghan in their ranks and these allied to the somewhat eccentric management of Shaun Organ and Eddie "Cloughie" Cantwell is sure to test the holders, who are already without Tomas O'Mahony and Sean Wade who have decided to call it a day at this level.

So don't forget, be there in plenty of time, so as not to miss a minute of the action.

The full draw for the week is:

Monday, July 1 — Bridgie Terries v. Bartons, kick-off 6.30 p.m.; Paddy Foleys (D) v. Anchor (A), kick-off 7.45 p.m.

Tuesday, July 2 — Radleys (A) v. Paddy Foleys (B), kick-off 6.30 p.m.; Anchor (B) v. Paddy Foleys (A), kick-off 7.45 p.m.

Wednesday, July 3 — Village Inn (B) v. Village Inn (C), kick-off 6.30 p.m.; Paddy Foleys (E) v. Paddy Foleys (C), kick-off 7.45 p.m.

Thursday, July 4 — Bridgie Terries or Bartons v. Village Inn (A), kick-off 6.30 p.m.; Minnies v. Enter prise, kick-off 7.45 p.m.

U-11 T.S.B. CUP SEMI-FINAL

Brilliant Young Blues Reach Final

DUNGARVAN 2 CARRICK 0

On a night of high tension and excitement, and in front of a huge crowd, our U-11 team booked their place in the final of the cup at a sun splashed Kilrush Park on Wednesday night of last week.

Carrick came to Kilrush as League Champions, they piped us for the title by one point, and our young lads took the field with determination etched on their faces to make up for that disappointment.

Straight from the kick off United took the game by the scruff of the neck and prompted from mid-field by the brilliant Diarmuid Keating had Carrick pinned in their own half for the entire first 30 minutes. The Blues should have been in front at the break, and only bad luck kept the score at 0-0 at half time.

Carrick came more into the game at the start of the second half, but our back four of Donie Kelleher, who had his best game ever, Kevin Whelan, whose speed to the ball was a joy to watch, the elegant Paul Foley, and the hard working Colin Hayes were the rock that Carrick perished on, while keeper Mickey Power's safe handling made sure any ball that came his way was dealt with confidently.

Our mid-field of Captain Kevin Walsh, the tireless Bernie Crotty and as already stated the brilliant Diarmuid Keating took control again and it was Kevin who broke the deadlock with a super individual goal. Our front line of Owen Morrissey, whose heart is as big as himself, leading goal scorer Vincent Sullivan, and the skillful Alan Harty had the Carrick defence at sixes and sevens, and when Vincent scored with a spectacular shot 10 minutes from time, United were well and truly in the final. Reserves Damien Tutty and Warren Duggan also played their part when they were called into action.

Ozier Park Sat. 6 July will be a sea of blue and white, as United will contest the cup finals on that day. In the U/11 cup-final United will play Tramore "A" with a 10.30 a.m. kick off, while our U/15 team will take on Southend in the second final. A bus will leave Kilrush Park at 9.00 a.m. for the finals and you can give your name to Dixie Deegan or Liam Simms to book your seat.

FIXTURES

Thurs. 27 U/15 Johnville v. Dungarvan kick-off 7.00.

MEETING

A meeting of the Schoolboy Committee will be held on tonight Wed. 26 at 8.30 p.m. in the Clubhouse.

U-15 T.S.B. CUP SEMI-FINAL REPLY

Blues Make No Mistake In Replay

DUNGARVAN 5 CARRICK 2

Dungarvan's Under-15 side qualified for their fourth cup final in four years when they defeated Carrick in the semi-final on Saturday, June 15 at Kilrush Park.

rick scored their second goal shortly before the final whistle.

The Blues opened brightly and took the game to the visitors and twice the woodwork denied them from taking the lead. After 12 minutes, Carrick, with their first attack took the lead after some sloppy defensive work. Five minutes later Jason Hyslop scored the equaliser from a melee following a corner. A good run and cross by Barry Cliffe saw Aidan Landers pick his spot in the corner of the net. Dungarvan went 3-1 up in the 24th minute when Brian Elstead scored after a good build up on the left wing.

Shortly are the resumption Conor Murphy scored number four after a good run by Timmy Kiely. Following a corner and a goal-mouth scramble Jason Hyslop lashed the ball to the roof of the net to give the Blues a 5-1 lead. Car-

So this young Dungarvan team have reached their fourth cup final in four years where they will play Southend in Ozier Park on Sat., July 16 at 2.30 p.m.

DUNGARVAN UNITED A.F.C. CLUB NOTES

A.G.M.

Our 26th annual general meeting was held at a packed Kilrush Park on Thursday night last. Chairman, C. Power opened the meeting and thanked everyone for coming. Secretary J. D. O'Shea's report dealt with all aspects of the club for the year and made very interesting reading. Treasurer M. Lyons then went through the finances of the club and his report was as always, well presented and comprehensive.

Next came the election of officers for the coming season, and history was made when Mrs. Helen Sullivan became the first woman President of Dungarvan United. Chairman C. Power was re-elected unopposed as was Vice-Chairman Pat Walsh. Secretary J. D. O'Shea did not seek re-election and the new secretary is the popular Billy Walsh. Asst. Secretary Don Shiel, likewise did not seek re-election and into his place comes Brian Wall. The finances of our club are once again in the very capable hands of Michael Lyons and Jimmy Healy. Martin Walsh, Mickey Hickey and Liam Simms make up the nine man committee, who have been given the task of restoring United to the top in the Waterford Junior League. To the people who put their names forward for positions on the committee and were unsuccessful, we say thanks, as it is a healthy sign of a club when you have contests for places.

Our schoolboy committee got a huge vote of confidence and were re-elected in block, with the added help from Pat Tutty, John Keane and Garry Burke. Their help with the coaching will be of great benefit to the young boys.

As we welcome the newcomers onto the committee, we must say a big thank you to Don and J. D. who are taking a well earned rest after many years of dedication to Dungarvan United.

The meeting concluded with a prayer for all deceased members of the club.

SUPPORTERS CLUB

Our outstanding supporters club will hold their Annual General Meeting in the clubhouse on Tuesday, July 2 at 8 p.m. This A.G.M. is deserving of everyone's support as they are the backbone of the football side of the club with their financial support.

MARK HYSLOP

Under-14 player, Mark Hyslop is in Dublin today Wednesday, Thursday and Friday for the final international trials from which a panel of 16 will go into training for next season's U-15 internationals. This is just reward for Mark as he was the outstanding player of the recent Kennedy Cup tournament in Dublin. Let's hope justice is done and he makes it onto the panel and follow in Kevin Mulvihill's footsteps and wear the green shirt of Ireland.

PLAYERS MEETING

Following on from our very successful A.G.M. and the interest shown by so many players, a players meeting will be held on Thursday, July 4 in the Clubhouse at 7.30 p.m. to ascertain how many teams we will enter for the new season. All present players, including youths and intending players are requested to attend this meeting, as a final decision will be made on the night, and the attendance at this meeting will determine how many teams we will enter for the new season.

WELCOME HOME

A very interested visitor to Kilrush Park last week was former schoolboy player, David "Chunkie" Wall, who is home on holidays. David who now lives in Derby is making a big name for himself in football circles in the Derby area, as he plays for Telford United in the Vauxhall Conference, where his manager is the former Manchester United and Irish international Gerry Daly. We hope David's stay among us is a happy one.

DARTS

The semi-finals and final of the Carling Fours will take place in Kilrush on this Friday night, June 28.

CARDS

Helen O'Grady, Tommy Carey, Paddy Cliffe and Mick Power were the winners of the cards on Saturday night last, on 11 games.

YANKEE DOODLE

Numbers on Sunday were 1 and 51 and we had no winner. The jackpot next week is £160.

INTERNATIONAL TRIAL

Best of luck to our schoolboy player Mark Hyslop, who this week travels to Dublin for a final trial. If he is picked in the 16 man squad he will be part of the Irish team to play in the Milk Cup tournament in Belfast in July. Mark plays on our U-14 and U-15 teams.

Dungarvan Rugby Club Notes

MIXED SOCCER

The year's mixed soccer tournament takes place on Wednesday, July 17. The usual rules will apply, that is teams of seven, four lads and three lassies with only the ladies allowed to score. Teams interested should contact Michael Hanrahan, Geraldine Foran or any of the committee.

TOUR

Plans for our tour of Scotland in October are well in hand at this stage. While the final price is not yet available it is planned to subsidise the cost through fundraising thereby ensuring that it is kept within everybody's budget. As numbers may be limited it is advisable to pay the £25 deposit to either Michael Hanrahan, Eoin Phelan or Geraldine Foran as soon as possible.

SOCIAL EMPLOYMENT SCHEME

The above scheme which ran at the club grounds over the past twelve months has recently come to a close. The improvements brought about have been commented on by locals and visitors alike and we would like to take this opportunity to thank the four men involved for their efforts.

A word of thanks also to the committee who supervised the work and especially to last year's President, P. J. Kindregan who did an enormous amount of supervisory, technical and administrative work related to the scheme.

Notai C.L.G. AntSean Phobail

The results of the progressive 45 drive in the Marine Bar last Wednesday night were, on 12 games Peg Ni Murchadha and D. Hurton, 2nd on 8 games J. Fitzgerald and G. Scanlan, E. Delaney and B. Bradley. The club would like to congratulate Peg and Denis on winning the jackpot. The new jackpot is £100 on 13 games.

Last Tuesday evening we played Dungarvan in the Ring tournament. This was a good open game of football. We played very well against a strong Dungarvan team and led for most of the game but Dungarvan were too fit for us and won in the end by a couple of points.

Last Friday evening An

Gaeltacht U/21 footballers travelled to Colligan to play Nire in the championship. This was a one-sided game and we ran out easy winners 2-15 to 0-5.

An Gaeltacht U/14 hurlers played Clashmore in the Western Final. Our team were very small and young but they put up a great show before going under to a very good Clashmore side. We wish Clashmore the best of luck in the County Final next week.

Our next game in the championship is on next Friday evening in Dungarvan at 7.30 p.m. against Kilgobinet. This is a game we have trained very hard for and with a little luck we should win here.

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. NOTES

U21's LOSE

Our U/21 footballers are out of this year's championship following their defeat by Affane on Thursday evening last. Forced to field without a number of players, due to injury and holidays, we were well beaten by our opponents and we wish them well in their quest for Divisional honours.

GAME OFF

The re-play of the junior hurling game with Ballyduff, fixed for Sunday evening last, did not go on, as we requested a postponement on the grounds that some of our players would not be available to us on the night. Our opponents had a similar problem and the Divisional Board were most reasonable with us and granted the postponement.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

Our next game in the senior football championship will be against Cill Rosanta on Saturday evening week. This game will be a real test for us so attendance at training is a must for all.

JUVENILE SCENE

We play our first game in the U/12 Hurling Tournament on Monday evening next at Fraher Field (7 p.m.). Our opponents will be old rivals Abbeyside who will, as always, prove tough opposition.

The finals of the "Mini Leagues" will take place this Thursday evening. The U/10's play at 7 p.m. while the U/12 final takes place at 7.30 p.m. The venue will be the Fraher Field. So don't miss it.

INTER-COUNTY

A number of players were involved in the Fraher Field on Sunday last as Waterford Senior and Junior footballers sought a place in their respective Munster finals.

In the senior game we were beaten by Limerick despite the best efforts of Dermot and "Pipi". What a pity, as it looked for a long while that we would be Kerry's opponents on Final Day.

Our Juniors had a fine win over Tipperary and they now meet Kerry in the final this Friday (7.30 p.m.), at the Fraher Field. Representing their county here were club players, Darrell, Martin and Eddie, while Mikeen of course was a selector.

Well done to all the lads, you did club and county proud.

Waterford County Badminton Association

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT A.G.M.

At the recent A.G.M. of the association held in Dungarvan, the largest gathering of delegates for many years was in attendance. Association President Tony O'Byrne welcomed the historic activities of Waterford badminton teams during the year.

Under the leadership of Tony O'Byrne and his extremely hard working committee and selectors, Waterford made wonderful strides against some of the most professional counties especially the class I win over a powerful Kildare side in the All Ireland in Dublin recently.

Again Waterford were in action in the Brewster Cup against Cork with a whole new line up, having won the cup for several years in succession.

NATIONAL COACH VISITS WATERFORD

Magnus Whilborg, the National Coach, put all the county squad through one of the most exhausting but rewarding sessions on two separate occasions recently.

Class I squad members:— Martin Walsh, Timmy Kehoe, Michael Connelly, Colin Coleman, Pat Morrissey, Bernie Ryan, Kate Hayes, Niamh Hayes, Triona Dobbyn, Thelma O'Donnell and Mary Walsh.

Brewster Cup Team:— John O'Riordan, Terry James, John Pratt, Peter O'Brien, Tim McEnery, Suzanne O'Riordan, Ann Dunne, Thelma O'Donnell, Mary Murphy and Catherine Maher.

MUNSTER JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

more. In the mixed doubles the partners became opponents with Pat Morrissey teaming up with Ann Dunne from Lismore against Colin Coleman and Mary Walsh from Waterford City. Colin and Mary won this title.

Cunnigar Pitch & Putt Club Notes

By the time these notes see the light of day another competition will be nearing completion and depending on when you get around to reading these notes you may have already registered your vote - that's the competition I mean. You have been assailed and entreated for your No.1 vote so often and so highly flattered to be subject to so much attention you might be inclined to let it turn you off on voting day. So let me flatter you now my friend - your vote is important no matter who you vote for. If you don't vote, don't complain about the way your town, county or country is being run. End of lecture.

And now to Pitch and Putt which after all, is of our immediate concern. Our 18 hole stroke sponsored by T.S.B. was satisfactorily completed in spite of the unseasonable weather and some of the players were more than happy with their scores. And as well there were surprises all round at the departure of some of the more fancied players. Final result:— Mens' First Francis McCarthy, 2nd Eddie Lenihan; Ladies First Helen Love, 2nd Margaret Condon; Juveniles First Maurice Tobin Jr., 2nd Brian Donovan.

Presentation of the prizes was carried out in an enjoyable informal ceremony at Downey's, Main St.

We are deeply grateful to T.S.B. for their sponsorship of this tournament. Our reminders over the past few weeks are showing some fruit but we would like to see this matter brought to a pleasing conclusion (for all concerned). What am I talking about? The question of membership fees and the fact that all fees must be fully paid up by June 30. Our facility of payment by installment will no longer be available after that date. And anyone not fully paid up will be liable for "Green Fees", no "ifs" or "buts"!

Don't forget now that the final of Ger Wyley's Cunnigar Match Play Championship takes place next Sunday with tee off at 11 a.m. and presentation of prizes at the clubhouse around noon. To the successful candidates in Thursday's election why not come along and make this your first public appearance. Thereafter Pitch and Putt might become your No.1 choice. TOVID

St. Laurences Tennis Club

11th SENIOR OPEN WEEK OUTSTANDING SUCCESS

Our Open Week was held recently and each and every night despite some pretty dreadful weather conditions, St. Laurences tennis club proved to be a hive of activity as the club hosted its 11th senior open week. This year's entry was the best to date with players participating from St. Anne's Tennis Club Waterford, Carrick-on-Suir, Tramore, Butlerstown, Youghal, The Causeway and of course, St. Laurences. There were some outstanding matches played throughout the week culminating in Saturday's climax finale day. Many of our local players played exceedingly well and did us proud in both section A and section B.

Finals began in St. Laurences on Saturday at 2.00 p.m. with the finals of the singles competitions. In section A Pat McGrath proved that youth can sometimes overcome experience when after a titanic battle with Dick McCarthy, he eventually ran out victorious by winning the 3rd set 6-4. In the ladies A final, Niamh Kennedy and Eileen Skelly had their usual nail biting encounter with Niamh proving the stronger on the day. The ladies doubles A final was contested between old rivals Niamh Kennedy and Mairead Deegan and Eileen Skelly and Stephanie Keating with Niamh and Mairead eventually running out worthy winners after a dynamic three setter. The mens doubles final had a local flavour attached to it as Patrick Veale was one of the finalists teaming up with Pat McGrath. However, Dick McCarthy gained revenge for his singles defeat at the hands of Pat by playing out of his skin with his old reliable doubles partner Dermot O'Shea. The final of the A mixed doubles proved to be the shortest match of all with Dermot O'Shea and Eileen Skelly not putting a foot wrong on their way to a two set victory over Stephanie Keating and Johnny Fitzpatrick who had played terrific stuff all week. Section B also had its share of tense, exciting matches. Local hero, Joe Power and Martin Prendergast contested the mens B singles final with Martin just getting the better of Joe in two sets. There was also a local representative in the final of the ladies B final where Bernadette Sheridan played Nora Veale from Youghal. This turned out to be a great match with play flowing from end to end. Nora eventually proved the more consistent on the day and ran out a worthy winner. Martin Prendergast, Youghal rounded off his week in style when he teamed up with Derek Kiely to win the mens B doubles defeating the gallant Victor Mullins and Tom Landers who made the Cork pair fight all the way. The much fancied Rita Moore and Ann O Grada played the well established pairing of Theresa M. Keane and Josephine Fennell, Rita and Ann winning a tight exciting match after some great rallies. Finally, the last event of the day the mixed B doubles final was contested between Victor Mullins and Rita Moore and Eoin "Matso" O Mahoney and Theresa M. Keane. Spectators looking on at this one thought Shanley's Electrical would be called upon to provide some form of lighting in order to finish the match. It just couldn't have been closer. Each point was fought for in dogged fashion and after two hours of heart stopping action Eoin and Theresa held their nerve and ran out winners.

After all the finals had been decided, all competitors retired to the Rugby Club for the presentation of prizes. This turned out to be a great social occasion with everybody really entering into the spirit of things. Our sincere thanks must go to all our sponsors who were kind enough to sponsor the open week, to the Causeway for the use of their courts, Jim and Ruth Byrne for the use of their court, the rugby club for the use of their clubhouse, Mary Ryan and David Walsh for running such an efficient tournament and all those who helped out in any way during the week. Well done to everybody - keep up the good work.

STRADBALLY G.A.A.

JUNIORS VITAL CLASH

On Friday evening next, June 28 our junior footballers play Ballinacourty in a vital championship game in Lemybrien at 7.30 p.m. This is a most important game — one that we cannot afford to lose, as this is a very tight group with only one team going forward. Ballinacourty will start favourites here, so the Reds will certainly have to pull-out something special if we are to get a win.

ARE WE OFF AT LAST

One would nearly be afraid to say that we are playing our first round of the senior football championship v. Butlerstown on this Sunday evening, June 30 in Kill at 7.30 p.m. This is a vital game, because already Butlerstown have won two games and if they could beat the Reds they would possibly qualify for the knockout stages.

So where does that leave the Reds as they start out on their campaign. They have trained hard under the guidance of Sean Ahearne with fellow selectors Jim Skehan and Richard Hickey. We should be free of injuries — so a great game is assured in which we expect the Reds to show all their determination and record a good win in this their first championship game.

NEWS

BEATEN IN TRAMORE

Our footballers were beaten by Rathgormack in the Tramore tournament last week after extra-time. This was a very good game, particularly for our younger players who showed up well. We would like to thank the Tramore Club for inviting us into the tournament.

OVER-40 HURLING

Yes! The heading is correct, as two of our club players Michael Coffey and Noel Costelloe helped Waterford to a great victory over Wexford in this grade. These players are still two of our leading players in the intermediate hurling championship.

SELECTOR WITH WATERFORD

Our club player Noel Costelloe was an Under-21 hurling selector with the county team, who had a great victory over Kerry last week in the championship. They now play Cork.

DEEPEST SYMPATHY

The club expresses its deepest sympathy to the Connors families on their recent sad bereavement, which occurred last week.

UNDERAGE PROSPECT

The club's underage player, Stephen Keane, has been highly commended by county hurling coach Peter Power as being a very skilful player who loves hurling. Stephen's father, Michael Francis, has been coaching the club's underage teams for the past few years.

PAT AND KIERAN FOR MUNSTER FINAL

Our two club players Pat Curran and Kieran Heffernan helped Waterford junior footballers to the Munster final when they scored a great victory over Tipperary last Sunday.

NO LUCK FOR SENIORS

Despite our county senior footballers playing very well, they suffered defeat at the hands of Limerick. Our players Eoin and Fintan O'Brien played leading roles, and Tomas Gough was in the subs.

BRILLIANT HOUR FOR FINTAN

In what was his finest hour in the Waterford jersey, Fintan O'Brien was named man of the match in last Sunday's Munster semi-final in which he had a brilliant game, and after the game he was presented with the trophy in the Park Hotel. Full report next week.

LATE MRS. AHEARNE

The club would like to express its deepest sympathy to the Ahearne families, Brenan and Ballinabanogue, the Casey family, Ballylynch and the Cunningham family, Ballinabanogue, on the death of Mrs. Ahearne, which occurred last week. May she rest in peace.

BEST OF LUCK

The club wishes our Vice-Chairman Tom Cunningham the best of luck in the local elections, which take place this week.

U-21 FOOTBALLERS BEATEN

Our Under-21 footballers were beaten by Ballinacourty in the championship last week on the score of 2-8 to 0-8. This was a good performance, considering that most of the panel will be under 21 for the next two years.

DEEPEST SYMPATHY

The club would like to express its deepest sympathy to the Flynn family, Ballylynch, on their recent sad bereavement, which occurred last week.

WHIST OUTING

The ladies had their whist outing last week, which was enjoyed by everybody.

BEST WISHES

Best wishes to our two club players, Pat Curran and Kieran Heffernan in the Munster junior football final on this Friday evening, June 28 in Dungarvan.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

The senior footballers face into an important game on Sunday evening next at the Fraher Field, against what is unquestionably recognised as a very good Nire team, and our lads will have it all to do here.

The junior footballers are also in championship action on Friday evening when they play Stradbally at Lemybrien.

Passage Beat Portlaw

This refixed game was played on Saturday and resulted in a win for Passage. According to reports, it was a very good contest with Portlaw's inability to score proving their undoing. This was the only senior game of the weekend.

On the senior hurling championship scene it now seems reasonably certain that at least six of the 13 teams have gone out of the race. In group 'A', it is going to be a fight between Roanmore, Lismore and Passage for the two places in the semi-finals and in group 'B', Tallow, Ballygunner, Mount Sion and Ballyduff are the four in contention for the 2 places.

Waterfords' Hopes Dashed In Rip Roaring Semi

LIMERICK 0-13 WATERFORD 0-11

Waterford's hopes of qualifying for a Munster senior football final clash with Kerry were dashed by Limerick at the Fraher field, Dungarvan on Sunday last. In a Munster senior football semi final which was in doubt up to the end the Shannonsiders took the laurels with a brace of points in the final minutes of what proved to be a rip roaring struggle.

Despite the overcast conditions a packed Fraher field thrilled to an exciting struggle and even though the standard never reached great heights there was much to remember from a thrill a minute encounter which had the crowd on their toes right to the very end.

With the game entering the final five minutes the sides were locked on level terms at 0-11 each. But in a frenzied finish full forward Danny Fitzgerald sent over minors in the 32nd and 33rd minutes to clinch victory for Limerick following sustained pressure.

Waterford were the dominant force in the first half, particularly in the first twenty odd minutes. This dominance stemmed from the superiority of their midfielder Pierre Whyte who was superb during this time, so much so that it was hard to fathom why the selectors chose to move him to full forward in a swop with Michael McGrath.

Limerick had the edge early on and led by 0-2 to 0-1 after four minutes but they had a real let off in the 2nd minute when a fist-ed effort from Jim Maher went wide of the upright with the keeper beaten.

Waterford were on level terms by the 13th minute when Eoin O'Brien's point left it at 0-2 each. Waterford had their best period then as they shot over points from Pierre Whyte 15th and 16th minutes and Michael McGrath in the 20th minute and two minutes later Limerick keeper Richard Bowles brought off a great save from Jim Maher.

Eoin O'Brien pointed a minute later to leave Waterford four points clear but then in a flash Limerick missed a sitter at the other end when Eoin Sheehan drive wide with Tom Brennan beaten.

TURNED SOUR

It was at this stage that the game began to turn sour for Waterford. They lost touch at midfield where Dan Larkin began to dominate for Limerick and a string of points from John Quane, Timmie Cummins, Larkin and Donal Fitzgibbon, between the 28th and 33rd minutes wiped out Waterford's advantage and left the sides level at 0-6 each at the break, Waterford having shot 6 wides as against 4 for Limerick during this period.

Following the change over Whyte was back again at midfield but he was no longer the dominant force that he had been in the area and was overshadowed to an extent by Chuck O'Connor here, although Waterford struggled in the area for the remainder of the game.

Sub. James Donovan shot Limerick into the lead seven minutes into the second half but Peter Ferncombe levelled from a free for Waterford four minutes later. Liam Dalton put Waterford ahead again in the 12th minute but James Donovan brought Limerick level again from a free four minutes later. Corner back Joe Reddington put Limerick back into the lead a minute later when he pointed after the Waterford defence failed to clear but sub. Peter Queally again levelled for the home side a minute later with his first kick of the ball after he came on the field.

GOOD PATCH

Waterford hit another good patch after this and sub. Pat Hynes (23rd minute) and Liam O'Connor (29th minute) gave them a two point cushion at 0-11 to 0-9.

Sadly for Waterford they failed to score again as Limerick staged a great fight back which yielded points in the 28th minute from Donal Fitzgibbon and the equaliser from Liam Long in the 30th minute (0-11 each).

It was heart stopping stuff as the Shannonsiders piled on the pressure and Danny Fitzgerald shot them into the lead in the 32th minute. A minute later the same player pointed again and they held on in a welter of excitement to qualify for the Munster final, their first since 1965, although they were fortunate when 'keeper Bowles brought off a great save from Waterford's Liam Dalton with just a minute left for play.

It was a sweet victory for the Shannonsiders who celebrated with relish after the match. They just about deserved the win but they had to battle every inch of the way and they looked as if they were kicking themselves out of contention with a total of eight wides, as against one for the home side in the second half.

Waterford who had one of the best players on the field in corner back Fintan O'Brien lost no caste in this defeat and perhaps the heavy, slippery conditions did not suit them as well as Limerick who seemed to have the better stamina near the end.

Scorers:— Limerick T. Cummins, D. Fitzgibbon, J. O'Donovan and D. Fitzgibbon 0-2 each. E. Sheehan, J. Quane, L. Long, J. Reddington and D. Larkin 0-1 each. Waterford E. O'Brien 0-3, P. Whyte 0-2, M. McGrath, P.

Ferncombe, L. Dalton, P. Queally, P. Hynes and L. O'Connor 0-1 each.

Limerick— R. Bowles, E. Leonard, P. Ivess, J. Reddington, P. Barrett, W. Roche, L. Barrett, K. Quane, D. Fitzgibbon, S. Kelly, P. Danaher, D. Larkin, T. Cummins, D. Fitzgibbon, E. Sheehan. Subs T. Browne for W. Roche; J. Donovan for E. Sheehan; L. Long for S. Kelly.

Waterford— T. Brennan, P. Power, T. Walsh, F. O'Brien, P. Walsh, K. Mulcahy, L. Dalton, L. O'Connor, P. Whyte, P. Ferncombe, E. O'Brien, D. Callaghan, G. Walsh, M. McGrath, J. Maher. Subs P. Hynes for J. Maher, P. Queally for D. Callaghan. Ref. J. O'Leary (Cork).

Under 21 Football

This championship got off to a good start over the weekend and with one exception, all matches were played.

There were a few surprises with last year's winners and runners-up being beaten. Affane beating Dungarvan was a surprise and the result will give a morale boost to the winners who were overdue a break.

Ballinacourty had a good win over Stradbally at Leamybrien with 2 goals to spare at the finish of a hectic contest.

Sliabh gCua/Modeligo were at their very best when accounting for the divisional champions, Kilrossanty in a nailbiting finish at Dungarvan and An Gaeltacht were in top form against the Nire in a rather one-sided game at Colligan. Clashmore proved far too strong for the Shamrocks side and St. Olivers were too powerful for Tallow. Brickey Rangers got a walk-over from Lismore.

This under 21 football championship is a knock-out competition and each round has a new draw. The following are the pairings for the semi-finals of both 'A' and the 'B' championships:— 'A' Sliabh gCua/Modeligo v. Affane, and Ballinacourty v. An Gaeltacht; 'B' Brickeys v. St. Olivers and St. Patricks v. Clashmore.

The fixtures committee were due to meet this week to name dates and venues for these games.

Intermediate Football

Both semi-finals of the losers group in this knock-out championship will be played at Lismore on Sunday and with the losers going out of the competition, all four will go all out to win.

In the opening game, Brickeys will face a tough assignment in trying to beat their stronger opponents, Ballinameela, who just a few years ago were in contention for a senior title. When I spoke to a Ballinameela player some time ago, he expressed the opinion that if they organised themselves to mount a serious challenge, they would be good enough to beat all comers in this championship. There may be a lot in what he said. They could win here.

Affane and neighbours, Geraldines will fight for survival in the second game and if Affane play the kind of fast, open football of which they are capable, things could go their way. They would be foolish, though to underestimate the quality of the Geraldines challenge. The winners of these games will meet in the losers group final and after this the intermediate championship proper will resume.

Magnificent Win For Juniors

WATERFORD 0-14 TIPPERARY 2-5

Despite conceding a goal from a penalty seventeen minutes into the second half which gave Tipperary a one point lead (2-5 to 0-10), Waterford junior footballers fought back magnificently to record a great win in this exciting junior football semi final played at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last.

Waterford are now through to a Munster final meeting with Kerry, and few could deny them the right, following such a splendid performance on Sunday.

Waterford were by far the better team over the hour and in fact it was a soft goal, scored by Shay Coen in the 23rd minute following a very bad defensive blunder which kept the Tipperary side in touch.

Waterford got off to a flying start and had points from Michael Guiry in the 1st and 3rd minute and Derek Wyse in the 10th minute. Tipperary's first score came from M.J. Browne in the 13th minute and the same player added another a minute later but Joe Murray and Ned Power added Waterford points to leave the home side ahead 0-5 to 0-2 by the 22nd minute.

Then came Coen's goal to equalise and Tipperary took the lead for the first time when their top scorer Browne pointed in the 24th minute.

Waterford finished the half the stronger side with points from John Hallinan and Michael Guiry to leave them narrowly ahead 0-7 to 1-3 at the break.

LEVEL AGAIN

The sides were level again thirty seconds into the second half when Browne pointed a free for Tipperary. Back came Waterford with points from Brendan Curry from a "45" and Ned Power to put the home side back in the driving seat.

Again M. J. Browne pointed a Tipperary free to cut the deficit to the minimum but Pat Curran put more daylight between the sides when he had a Waterford point in the 14th minute. Tipperary won their penalty three minutes later and Browne duly obliged from the spot to give them a slender lead.

It was their final fling however as the home side stormed back to clinch the scores which brought them their deserved victory.

Joe Murray sent over a point in the 18th minute, Pat Curran who was Waterford's man of the match pointed a minute later and sub. Kieran Hallahan had a minor when he might have engineered a goal in the 22nd minute.

Five minutes from time John Hallinan put 3 points between the sides when he had the final score of the game. The final five minutes saw the home side soak up some fierce pressure but they coped well and held out magnificently to the final whistle.

There was drama in the final minutes as Liam Duggan of Tipperary was sent to the line in the 29th minute and Ger Casey, Waterford got his marching orders two minutes into time added on.

Overall it was a good display from Waterford who showed grit and determination as well as no mean skill over the hour and they fully deserve their place in the final against Kerry.

Scorers — Waterford M. Guiry 0-3; J. Murray; N. Power; J. Hallinan and P. Curran 0-2 each; B. Curry; K. Hallahan and D. Wyse 0-1 each. Tipperary M.J. Browne 1-5; S. Coen 1-0.

Waterford— K. Hefferman; E. Rockett; D. Donnelly, M. Sheehan; G. Casey; B. Curry; J. Salmon; J. Byrne; N. Power; P. Curran; J. Murray; D. Wyse; L. Daniels; J. Hallinan, M. Guiry. Subs E. Burke for Salmon; K. Hallahan for Guiry; B. Reddy for Donnelly.

Tipperary— F. Conran; R. Forrestal; M. O'Connell; P. Norris; W. Morrissey; D. Foley; L. O'Meara; P. Murray; S. Delahunty; S. McManus; P. Everard, M.J. Browne; J. McNamara; L. Duggan; S. Coen. Subs C. Coen for Everard; D. O'Shea for S. Coen; J. O'Donnell for Foley.

Referee — J. Motheray (Cork).

WEEKEND CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

Senior Football Championship Reaches Make Or Break Stage

Divisional Football Championships Continue

When the curtain closes on the weekend programme, many clubs will know their fate as far as their future in the current championship is concerned, because defeat for some clubs will put them completely out of contention.

It is also an important weekend for several clubs in the other grades who will suffer a similar fate if beaten.

Once again the full list of fixtures relates to football and if the entire programme is got through without a hitch, the Boards will feel satisfied that the championships are getting back on schedule after some necessary interruptions.

STRADBALLY v. BUTLERSTOWN

On Sunday next many of the senior clubs will be playing their fourth championship match, while Stradbally will be playing their first of the season when they take on Butlerstown at Kill. For a variety of reasons, Stradbally through no fault of their own, missed out on their first three fixtures and now find themselves without a 'try-out' going into the championship at the deep end. They are without a game since losing to Dungarvan in the county final last year and meeting Butlerstown who have played three and won two in this year's competition will prove a test of character for the "Reds" in their first game. Butlerstown having beaten Ballinacourty and Clashmore will not be easy to overcome and with four points from three games, they will be very determined to get another two to place them in a challenging position for inclusion in the knock-out stages. Even at full strength with the O'Brien brothers, Eoin, Fintan, Conor, and Liam, Pat Curran, Kieran Hefferman, Tom Gough, Paul Mullaney, David Kirwan, Pat Halpin, Eoin Phelan, Martin Curran, James Keane, Lce. Walsh, Noelle Weldon etc., it will take a super effort to win here. In top form, they will have a chance.

SENIOR LEAGUE SEMI FINAL

With Dungarvan and Clashmore having the bye in their respective groups this weekend, the county fixtures committee pounced on the opportunity to play the outstanding 1990 Phelan Cup semi-final which goes ahead at Ardmore, Dungarvan, the champions will be favourites.

BALLINACOURTY v. NIRE

This is an attractive game to round off a busy weekend and it should be quite a contest at Fraher Field on Sunday evening.

The Nire have played only one game and in that one they stole the game from Kilmacthomas, who kicked themselves out of the match. All indications are that the Nire, backboned by county players, Tom, Pat and Ger Walsh with Kevin Mulcahy and others, will make a strong bid for the elusive title this year and there will be surprise all round if they fail. There is no doubt that the Nire club are overdue a county title. Ballinacourty have played very well in their last two matches and it will cause no little surprise if they, too, reach the knock-out stage. Against Kilmac' at Stradbally, Ballinacourty played their best football for a long time and a reproduction of that form will certainly put it up to the Nire. This will be a game of fast, open, football with a close finish and the result can go either way.

KILROSSANTY v. GAULTIER

Gaultier were beaten by Dungarvan at Walsh Park in their first game this year and the Passage East club regarded the six points defeat as a major set-back as they had notions of beating the champions. They are no doubt, hopeful of recovering the lost points when they play Kilrossanty at Walsh Park on Sunday, but this will certainly be easier said than done. The Comeragh club played very well in the replayed match against Rathgormack and will be favourites to retain their unbeaten record here. I expect Kilrossanty to win.

FAHA v. RATHGORMACK

Rathgormack are favourites and very likely to win this one. Since qualifying for senior status, Faha have learned that much more experience is needed if they hope to make an impression at this level. They are a club with proven triers and they never give up the ghost, no matter what the opposition is, but standards win matches and here I expect that the gap in standards will be the deciding factor in Rathgormack's favour.

TRAMORE v. DUNHILL

Dunhill have had two defeats and a win over Faha so far, but this is better than what Tramore have achieved. They are without any points after three games and are not likely to have any at the end of this one. Personally, I don't believe that it matters which side wins as neither are likely contenders.

KILMAC' v. ST. SAVIOURS

Kilmacthomas have several very good players and play a nice brand of football but somehow they are finding it difficult to put it all together this year. They have a record of playing well when not expected and at all times are capable of upsetting predictions. They will certainly have to play to top form and make no mistakes in this one if they are to hold out any chance of being in the final shake-up in September as Saviours are playing very well and being one of the fancied teams this year, will go all out to make sure that they are not caught here. I think that Saviours will survive this challenge.

JUNIOR GAMES

Two very important junior football championship ties are down for decision over the weekend and both should make tremendous contests.

Kilgobinet and Seana Phobal at Dungarvan on Friday will open the weekend programme of matches and this will be well worth seeing. Kilgobinet will be slight favourites but it might not work out this way in the finish.

Modeligo and Emmetts on Saturday at the same venue will be another good game with very little in it at the finish. The Colligan based team may just shade it here.

HANDBALL NEWS

Munster Championship At Clonmel

JUNIOR SINGLES AND NOVICE SINGLES

Our representatives in the novices singles, J. Mansfield and M. Sandford were beaten by Cork's O. Feeney and Tipperary's S. Doyle in two great matches. Our players acquitted themselves well and will be a lot more prepared for the doubles.

Our junior representative, J. J. Wright, played the multi All-Ireland winner N. Ryan of Tipperary, who plays all his handball in Clonmel and he got some fright when the Waterford man got to within 3 aces of winning a great match. Home advantage was a big help to Ryan and we wish him well in his quest for one title that has eluded him. This showed once again what a great player J. J. Wright is, as any handball enthusiast will tell you, it's at least a ten ace advantage to play in your own alley.

Waterford mentors have always advocated all championship games should be in a neutral alley.

UNDER 21 HURLING

Resounding First Round Win

WATERFORD 5-14 KERRY 1-8

This was a decisive and well deserved victory for a very determined and well prepared Waterford team who played some splendid hurling throughout a very sporting and enjoyable first rounder at Walsh Park on Wednesday of last week. Kerry, too had some very fine players and tried all the way, but in the end they were outclassed by a fast and skillful Deise side who will now meet Cork at Pairc Ui Caoimh on July 7 in the Munster semi-final.

Noel Dalton's 3rd minute point was negated by a Sean O'Shea point in the 4th minute. Johnnie Brenner and Sean Daly both pointed and then followed points by Peter Queally and Sean Daly again. Sean Hickey who was outstandingly accurate from placed balls for Kerry pointed a free in the 14th minute, but then in the next two, goals by Sean Daly and Eugene Curran put us 2-5 to 0-2 in front and the writing was beginning to appear on the wall for Kerry. Supporters of both counties applauded a 95 yards free taken and pointed by Sean Hickey. Paraigh Fanning had our final score of this half with a well taken point and two more for Kerry per Hickey and Sean Nolan left the halftime score 2-6 to 0-5. In the opening minute of the second half, Sean Hickey had a pointed free, but four minutes later Eugene Curran had his second goal to give Waterford a clear nine points lead. In the 37th minute a '65 taken by Kerry sharpshooter Hickey went all the way to the Waterford net to give a boost to the visitors who were showing no signs of surrender. Johnnie Brenner had points in the 10th and 11th mins. before Paraigh Fanning, Noel Dalton and Kevin McGrath notched minors as well. Sean Daly had our fourth goal in the 22nd min. to make it 4-11 to 1-6 and at this stage it was all over bar the shouting. Daly had another goal in the 27th min. and a couple of scores by Brenner and Queally brought our tally to 5-14. Hickey had two final points for Kerry. Overall it was a very good display with five of the six forwards as well as both midfielders contributing to the scoring. Our defence had outstanding players in Nial Warren, Eoin Dunphy, Brian Greene and Fergal Hartley.

Scorers: Waterford; S. Daly 3-2, E. Curran 2-0, J. Brenner 0-5, N. Dalton 0-2, P. Fanning 0-2, P. Queally 0-2, K. McGrath 0-1; Kerry - S. Hickey 1-6, S. O'Shea and S. Nolan 0-1 each.

Waterford; R. Barry, O. Dunphy, N. Warren, D. Keane, J. Walsh, F. Hartley, B. Greene, J. Brenner, P. Queally, E. Curran, P. Fanning, K. McGrath, N. Dalton, S. Daly, T. Browne; Subs - J. Kennedy for T. Browne, P. Power for B. Greene, Ml. Dunford for N. Dalton.

The Big Game

It was the biggest occasion in town since we played Kerry here three years ago and what a huge crowd turned up to support Waterford. It was disappointing to be beaten at the end of what was really a tremendous semi-final, especially when we had looked to be on course for a Munster final place after so very long.

The team gave of their very best and there can be no complaints on this account. We had our share of hard luck and might have begun with a goal when Jim Maher's fist ball went inches wide and in the closing stages when Liam Dalton's shot was deflected for a '45'.

Our best period of the game was in the first 30 minutes when we enjoyed a 55/45 ratio of possession but failed to capitalise on the scoreboard. Limerick were physically stronger and to some extent it was a telling factor in the final ten minutes. When the score stood at 0-11 to 0-9 in our favour in the 24th minute of the second half one could feel our supporters gearing themselves for victory. Limerick, however finished better and had the final four scores.

Supporters as well as the team and selectors felt the disappointment of defeat, more especially because we seemed to have victory within our grasp. However, we didn't win and now we will have to wait for another year to try again.

It must be said too, that the team manager, Greg Fives and his co-selectors, Jimmy Power, Noel Kirwan and Ned Flynn certainly left no stone unturned in a preparation campaign that went on over the winter. No time, effort or money was spared in the preparation of the team and nothing more could have been done in this regard.

Limerick are a very good side and I doubt if Kerry will find it easy to shake them off in the final at Kilmaley later this month.

JUNIORS GREAT WIN

I was unfortunate not to have seen this victory but I know that the description I got of the match does justice to a splendid effort by the entire team, who now go forward to the Munster final against Kerry at Dungarvan within the next week or so. The game is reported elsewhere.

At the time of writing, the County Board are unsure of the final date. It is fixed for this Friday, but I understand that it will go back to next Wednesday. The All-Ireland semi-final against Meath is fixed for Saturday week and this is the replay date of the Dublin/Meath game also.

LAST SUNDAY — THE INCIDENTALS

Full marks to all concerned for the excellent manner in which everything was so well organised for the fixture at Fraher Field on Sunday. The field was in excellent condition and the new fencing around the country end was a help to the stewards.

Gate — The official gate receipts of £13,686 was a record for the venue and it must be said that the big crowd were well managed by stewards and by the Gardai who kept traffic moving and the roadway cleared.

Programme — It was an excellent production, organised by County P.R.O. John Jackson and a small committee. Only 1,500 were on sale and these were bought up long before the end of the junior game and many more could have been sold. As only about one in three purchase programmes, the sales were unusually high.

Band — The Dungarvan Brass Band provided the musical entertainment during the programme and paraded the teams before the game.

Complaint — Why R.T.E. failed to announce the result of this Munster semi-final game on their sports bulletin on the Sunday game, is certainly something which requires explaining. It was the most important game in the province on Sunday and in our opinion it was more important than a lot of the rubbish that is spoken on this programme on Sunday evenings.

On Sunday night, I got a few 'phone calls complaining about the matter and one very angry caller described the failure as 'typical contempt by the people in R.T.E. for the small counties.' I fully agree with this view. This station were not slow to send down cameras some weeks ago when they thought that there was a little bit of scandal to be picked up around Waterford.

Man Of The Match — The man of the match award went to corner back, Fintan O'Brien, who had an outstanding game all through. The award was sponsored by the Park Hotel, Dungarvan.

Feile Na nGael

Lismore were our representatives once again in the Feile finals and this time it was a special Feile, it being the 21st anniversary of the founding of the hurling festival in Thurles in 1971.

Playing in the toughest section of Div. 1, the Waterford representatives were beaten in their first two games and won their third.

Durlas Og had home advantage and beat Lismore by 8-7 to 0-4 in the first and that famous side Na Piarasaigh won on a scoreline of 2-7 to 2-1 in the second game. The extraordinary feature of this was that having played with the wind Lismore had only a point on the scoreboard at half time. They got two goals in the second and had they played as well with the wind, they could have caused a sensation. Na Piarasaigh won the championship and Durlas Og were the 1990 champions, so overall Lismore didn't do badly. They won their final game against Roscrea in a game that had to be abandoned for 15 minutes because of a deluge of rain. This was a splendid display by Lismore who withstood a great last ten minutes barrage by the home side.

Lismore club were representing Waterford for their eighth time and a big cheer greeted this announcement by Micheal O Muirceartaig during the passing parade.

CELEBRATION OF 21st

The organisers certainly made a big occasion of this particular festival and it was nice to hear Portlaine being remembered at the special function on Saturday night, when reference was made to all the Feile's down through the years.

Padraigh O Fainin's speech to the Feile at Thurles during one of the years of his presidency was described as the outstanding address of the 20 that had been made up to this point.

Seamus O Braonain R.I.P. was remembered during the celebration of Mass in Semple Stadium by Most Rev. Dermot Clifford, D.D. and I was glad to hear the name of Vincent Mulligan mentioned also. Vincent was one of the people most responsible for the success of the Waterford Feile in '77, here.

This was the biggest Feile with more than 2,200 boys and girls taking part in hurling, camogie and handball. We were represented by St.

Saviours in camogie. In the national skills competition Waterford were well represented by David Ryan of St. Patrick's club who came second overall after a fine performance.

Throughout the time since the start of the Feile we have been represented by:—

St. John's Park 1971; Roanmore 1972; Cappoquin 1974; Mount Sion 1975; Waterford were the hosts in 1977; Mount Sion 1978; Erin's Own/St. John's Park 1979; Dungarvan 1980; Lismore 1981; Ballygunner 1982; Mount Sion 1983; Lismore 1984 and 1985; Mount Sion 1986; Lismore represented us in '87, '88, '89, '90 and 1991.

Lismore club, because of their involvement over the years were given the honour of doing the readings of the Prayers of the Faithful during the Celebration Mass by the Archbishop and Patron, Dr. Clifford at Semple Stadium and the following were the readers — Brendan Lawton (goalie), Brian Farrell, David Bennett, who read in Irish, and Dathai Mac Beineid.

Junior Football Final At Dungarvan

WATERFORD v. KERRY ON FRIDAY

Waterford play Kerry in the Munster junior football final at Fraher Field on this Friday and the winners will go straight through to the All-Ireland final, which is likely to be played at Croke Park as a curtain-raiser to the second replay of the Meath versus Dublin game on Saturday week.

The fixture was not confirmed until late on Monday and it will likely have an effect on our weekend fixtures programme, but the listed matches are expected to be re-arranged, rather than cancelled. The counties had agreed to play the game on Wednesday of next week, but G.A.C. would not accept this arrangement because the All-Ireland was already fixed. The match is fixed for 7.30 p.m. at Fraher Field.

Sympathy

Our sincere sympathy is extended to the Ahearne family of Brenan, Bonmahon on the death of their mother Mrs. Mary Ahearne which occurred last week. Sean, Robin and Tom Ahearne all of whom played senior football with the county over the years, were among the top players on the Stradbally senior team and all won county titles with their club. The late Mrs. Ahearne was a committed G.A.A. supporter and always took a very keen interest in the fortunes of the club and county throughout her life. May she rest in peace.
