WATERFORD CO. COUNCIL

Fine Gael - Labour Pact To Freeze Out Fianna Fail

When the newly elected members of Waterford County Council assemble for the first annual meeting of the new council at the Courthouse, Dungarvan on this Thursday, July 11, it now looks almost a certainty that a continuation of the Fine Gael - Labour pact which operated throughout the lifetime of the last Council will see Fianna Fail frozen out of the chair and from most of the other important appointments to be made at the meeting.

The alignment of Fine Gael with nine members and Labour with three will give them an overall majority of twelve on the 23 member Council of which Fianna Fail with ten and Workers Party with one make up the balance.

Throughout last week representatives of both Fine Gael and Labour met to discuss strategy and following a good deal of tough, hard bargaining, the "Leader" was informed on Friday night that agreement on a package deal involving both parties had been reached subject to final confirmation on Saturday.

Main interest will centre on the election of Chairman and Vice Chairman and in this regard the agreement provides for the chair to alternate between the parties from year to year with Fine Gael taking the honour for the first year to be followed next year by the Labour nominee and so on for the expected five-year lifetime of the Council. This would give three terms in the Chair to Fine Gael and two to Labour.

As we go to press we learn that two and possibly three of the Fine Gael Councillors have expressed an interest in the position with the names of Tallow Councillor Willie McDonnell and Tramore Councillor Con Casey surfacing while Portlaw Councillor Pat Coffey has also been mentioned as a likely contender.

Jailed For Stealing Car In Cappoquin

Richard Hanley (26), married with one child of 10, St. Bernard's Place, Fermoy appeared in custody before District Justice B. J. Carroll at Mallow Court on Tuesday last charged with the unlawful taking of a motor car, the property of David Reddy, Affane, Cappoquin, from Cappoquin on Saturday last July 6. He was further charged with driving the vehicle without insurance and with the larceny of a stereo and radio from the car on the same date.

Also before the Court in custody was John Murphy (23), single, of 15 McDermott Place, Fermoy, charged with allowing himself to be carried in a car knowing it to have been stolen on July 6 and further with the larceny of a stereo and radio on the same occasion.

Gda. Oliver Croke, Cappoquin gave evidence of investigating the matter following a complaint received from Mr. Reddy who parked his car in Cappoquin on July 6 and found it was gone when he returned at 6 p.m. that evening. The car was found abandoned in Fermoy the following day with the radio and stereo stolen.

Gda. Croke then told the Court of arresting the defendants and of charging both after caution.

District Justice Carroll sentenced Hanley to six months in prison on each charge, the sentences to run concurrently while in the case of Murphy, as it was his first offence, he remanded him on bail of £300 to appear again at Fermoy Court on July 27 pending the receipt of a report from the Court Welfare Officer as to his suitability to do 160 hours community work.

Pause For Thought With Fr. Paddy

THE LORD IS MY STRENGTH

Amos was a herdsman. One day the Lord asked him to go and speak to the people of Israel, and tell them, give up your pagan ways or the Lord will punish you. Amos felt unfitted for the role of a prophet, but he did as the Lord commanded. Uprooting himself, he went and he delivered the Lord's message, but they would not listen. He made it clear that his prophesy was the inspired word of God, and that failure to heed God's warning would bring sorrow and grief to them. They told him to vamoose. And history shows they paid dearly for their infidelity.

It is strange the way the Lord works. He chose a "nobody" to deliver His message, because He does not depend on the charisma of the messenger: the power is in His word. He used fishermen to be the founder members of His Church, and He continues to confound the co-called learned by often appointing "nobodies" to be the bearers and promoters of His truths. Take little Bernadette. She was far from being the brightest child in Lourdes. Neither did she come from a privileged home. Yet! above all the children of her day, she was the one chosen to remind us of the greatness of Mary, the Mother of God. After she pulled back the curtain and let us see our Immaculate Mother, she retired to spend her life in prayer and penance. When she entered the convent, you'd imagine she'd be treated as special, but such was not the case. When the cup of kindness was handed round, it seemed to be always empty when it came to Bernadette. Most of her companions in religion, coming as they did from well-to-do homes, would frown on the very idea of God favouring one from so lowly a station. God looks into the heart, and He confounds us by using the weakest instruments. It is a pity that so many, on account of their station, consider themselves unworthy to be active in God's service. Why! God would work wonders through the use of such instruments.

How often do you need the bible? People see and read you daily. Do you reflect the Gospel message? It is no excuse to say you are a "nobody." Yes, I feel it is necessary to ask, do you work for the opposition? Look at our town. People talk and act as if the Commandments were for the birds. The fact that over 100 Irish babes are murdered weekly is a symptom of general behaviour. I recall a woman on TV claiming she'd a right to do as she wished with her own body. God will not force Himself on people, but, as Amos said, these people, unless they repent, will have to pay for their crimes.

God allocated from all eternity the role each individual was to play in life, and later in time, he revealed the details to be observed and followed. So, Paul in the second reading is saying, we ought to rejoice that the Lord has destined us to be His children. And, he reminds us that whatever contribution we're asked to make, we, like the Apostles, have been chosen for the part. Hence, it is God's will that we behave as members of His family. Manifest His glory and promote His plan of salvation. Therefore, your light should be a beacon guiding and helping others to find their way into God's Kingdom. Your light may appear small compared to that of others. Do not be disturbed. God knows best. If He wanted you to do more, He would have told you. In short, God's plan of salvation, which is eternal, was revealed by Jesus to enable man achieve and experience the reality. I feel the easiest way to explain the participation of those, who lived and died before Christ, is to say, their knowledge of God's plan and their share in the work of salvation, though limited, was sufficient to enable them to reach fulfilment. God's power is more visible when it is reflected in weakness.

GOSPEL MESSAGE

We're all familiar with the way the Lord chose His Apostles. Sunday's Gospel tells us, the Lord takes the initiative when it comes to choice, which, as Paul tells us, the Lord did long before creation. Whilst all the readings concur and emphasise choice, the Gospel takes us a step further. It outlines the type of work the Apostles were delegated and empowered to do, namely, proclaim the Gospel, and teach people to make it their way of life. So, the Church's role is missionary. She's also a pilgrim, and must avoid building an empire on earth. This carries the warning of not settling our hearts on worldly things.

Baptism seals our relationship with God. Our Heavenly Father wants all His children to develop a close relationship with Him. He is pleased when we make Him our companion and friend. He is honoured when we consult Him, and ask Him to guide us in all our ways. Experience shows that our love is influenced by our home, our school, our friends, etc. Now, little "nobody" you could do wonders in helping others by your words and your actions.

Pat the "Cope" Gallagher, T.D., Minister of State for the Gaeltacht presents the Pobal Beo award to Seamus Mac Craith, Cathaoirleach, Comhairle Pobail na Rinne. Also included are Aine Bean Uí Cheilleachair, Cait Nic Craith, Tomas O Ceilleachair.

"Pobal Beo" Award For Ring Gaeltacht

The winners of Udaras na Gaeltachta's "Pobal Beo" community Awards were announced by Minister of State for the Gaeltacht, Pat the "Cope" Gallagher, T.D., at a function in Spiddal, Connemara on Thursday last, July 4.

The top regional prizes of £4,000 each in their respective categories were won by the Kilnamartyra and Cape Clear Island communities in the West Cork Gaeltacht.

In the 500-1,500 population category, the second prize of £2,000 was carried off by the Co. Waterford Gaeltacht of Ring. The award was made because the people of the Ring Gaeltacht are totally immersed in every aspect of their area's development with a strong emphasis on spoken Irish and on Irish music, song and dance. Annual awards are also presented to individuals in the community there who play an active part in parish life but who also make a special effort to improve their level of fluency in Irish.

In the Munster Gaeltacht regions, national and local business interests also banded together to show their appreciation for the valuable work being achieved by voluntary groups in their areas and under this scheme in Ring, local industry Inneal-toireacht Teicneolaíochta

Teo., presented a special £500 award to the Old Parish Community.

"An Pobal Beo" — the living community — is a programme initiated by Udaras na Gaeltachta to encourage Gaeltacht people to take an active role in planning for local progress and to pursue the implementation of projects designed to improve their own areas and lifestyle.

Know Your Rights

Question — I recently applied for a sight test and glasses with my Medical Card. They sent me a notice telling me to apply to the Dept. of Social Welfare. I never worked outside the home and don't understand what this is all about. Does my Medical Card cover me for a sight test and free glasses or not?

Answer — Yes! Your Medical Card does entitle you to a sight test and standard type spectacles. If you choose non-standard type frames you will have to pay towards the cost and the optician should tell you what the cost to you will be. The Dept. of Social Welfare also operate an Optical Benefit for insured workers and their dependent spouses. So, the practice of some Health Boards is to tell the medical card holder to apply to the Dept. of Social Welfare in case they are covered under their Optical Benefit Scheme. Then, if the Dept. of Social Welfare confirms that the person is not covered under their scheme, the Health Board will authorise the sight test and glasses under the medical card scheme. This is all rather confusing and it is understandable how some people, on being told that they do not qualify under the Social Welfare Scheme, assume that they are not covered under the Medical Card Scheme.

CLONEA BEACH

Clonea Beach has been awarded the prestigious Blue Flag for the third successive year. In addition, Clonea has also received the Silver Star Fish award indicating the high esteem with which the beach is regarded for its purity of the water, and cleanliness and accessibility of the beach.

To maintain this standard, the local voluntary group — Clonea Beach Awareness Group — need the co-operation of all persons using the facilities. Bags are being provided daily and visitors are requested to use these bags to dispose of their litter — or better still to bring their litter home. As there is a national competition this year for the cleanest Blue Flag Beach, the assistance and co-operation of all is required. Additional volunteers will be very welcome for the clean-up on Saturday/Sunday nights.

So, if you see anything strange going on in your area it is only the film crew going through their paces!

G.A.A. NOTES

Senior Football — Our senior footballers were well beaten by a very good Dungarvan team in the championship last Saturday evening in Stradbally on the score of 0-18 to 0-6. From start to finish Dungarvan dominated in almost every sector and with the lads failing to hit the same form as they displayed against Gaultier the previous week, the town team eventually ran out comfortable winners.

So now we have to win our two remaining games against Faha and Tramore to qualify for yet another semi-final place.

Team — D. Mulhearn, E. Flynn, P. Keating, T. Prendergast, B. Whelan, M. Fitzgerald, P. Hayes, T. Behan, W. Power, B. Kirwan, R. Power (0-1), N. Power, J. Maher (0-5), P. Whyte, N. O'Connor. Subs. — P. Power, P. Prendergast, P. Brazil, K. Lonergan, N. Hayes.

Junior Football — Our junior footballers were beaten by Stradbally last Thursday night in the championship in Dungarvan on the score of 1-5 to 0-4. This was a game we could easily have won but failure to convert our chances meant that our local rivals progress to the next round.

Junior Hurling — Our junior hurlers meet Ardmore in the championship next Sunday in Dungarvan. This is a game the lads have to win so hopefully they can pull off a much-needed victory.

Under-16 Hurling — The under-16 hurlers were well beaten by Ardmore in the first round of the championship last Monday night, July 8. We fielded a very young team in this match which never really got going against the home team. Our next match is against Ring.

Team — O. Fennell, J. Comyn, O. Fahey, T. O'Reilly, D. Kiely, S. Coffey, S. Veale, V. Harney, C. Dee, J. Kiely, B. Maguire, K. Hogan, K. Baldwin, T. Hallahan, D. Kirwan.

Castle Art Gallery Launched In Dungarvan

Dungarvan's newest cultural centre, the Castle Art Gallery was officially launched at a largely attended cheese and wine reception last Friday night.

Located upstairs in the refurbished and renovated Barry's Stores, one time part of the Dickens Leather Company complex, the old world setting of the Gallery with its massive oak beams and rough stone walls is ideal. It has an entrance from Quay Street just down the way from the Old Market House at the end of Main Street where the town library and museum are located.

The Director of the Gallery, local lady Anne Murphy, extended a warm welcome to all the invited guests and thanked all for making the official opening and preview so very successful.

Brief speeches congratulating Anne and her associates for their initiative and wishing the venture every success were made by Mr.

Dan Hurley, County Manager; Cllr. Billy Kyne, Chairman, Waterford Co. Council and Cllr. Nuala Ryan, Vice Chairman, Dungarvan Urban Council.

In all a total of 71 oil paintings, watercolours and acrylics were exhibited by local and visiting artists while some fourteen wood sculptures were also on display. Prices ranged from £20 to £270 for the paintings and from £50 to £900 for the wood sculptures.

That the new Gallery will prove commercially successful was indicated by the fact that a number of the works exhibited were already marked "sold" at the preview.

Comhaltas Concert Packs Park Hotel

Long before the 9.00 p.m. starting time of last Wednesday's C.C.E. Concert in the Park Hotel, Dungarvan, every seat was occupied and it was standing room only. For R.T.E. presenter/producer Peter Brown the rumours of the widespread interest in traditional music in Waterford became a reality.

The 19 musicians of the U/15 Group opened the show which was co-presented by Peter Brown and Micheal O Maranain, Naomh Pdraig C.C.E. Each half of the concert which lasted 45 minutes, will be broadcast on R.T.E. Radio 1 on the 9.15 p.m. Friday night Arnean Programmes. While definite dates are not yet fixed it is possible the first broadcast will be on Friday July 19.

Two of the most popular items in the concert were Bridie Dunford, Bohadon, who sang "The Little Village Schoolroom of Kilbrien" and Willie O'Brien, Ballysaggart, who sang a song which he himself composed called "The Villierstown Hare" about the exploits of Waterford's Athletics star John Treacy. The U-12, U-15 and U-18 groups who were giving their final performance before competing in the Munster Fleadh this weekend were very impressive.

Playing a wide variety of instruments their performances were a credit to their teachers and to group trainer Bobby Gardiner.

The second half of the night's entertainment was the Ceili with the Ballycoe Band which was recorded for "Ceili House Requests" with Breandain O Duil as Fear a' Ti. Here the Park Hotel proved a very suitable venue as the floor of the huge ballroom was tested for the first time by the large crowd of Ceili and Set fans. It is expected that the programme featuring the Ballycoe will be broadcast at the usual Saturday night slot of 9.15 in a matter of weeks.

BALLYMACARBRY MAN VISITS THE ETERNAL CITY

Mr. Martin Moore, Ballyrohan, Ballymacarbry, travelled to Rome recently to take part with the Irish Wheelchair Association in this year's walk. The first day they travelled by coach to the Basilica of Santa Marca Maggiore, from there they walked to the Parish Church of Rome, The Basilica of St. John Lateran where many Irish couples get married.

The walk really began with Mass in the Irish College. This college was founded by Luke Wadding in 1625. It has produced many priests for the Irish Churches. From the college the walk took part of them past the church where Brian Boru's son is buried, then on to the capital, the Forum, the Trevi Fountain, the Pantheon and Piazza Navona, then on to St. Peter's Basilica from where they returned to their hotel by coach.

Next day the walk took them to the Alban Hills, south of Rome. After Mass in a beautiful spot overlooking Lake Albano, they travelled to Rocca Di Papa from where the view of Rome was breathtaking. They had lunch and then headed for Lake Albano. It is on those shores that Castelgandolfo is built and it is here that the Pope has his summer residence. That night they were taken on a coach tour of Rome.

Next day they had an audience with the Pope after which they walked to Janiculum Hills which gave a perfect view of the city. They then visited San Pietro in Montorio which contains the Tombs of the Earls, O'Neill and O'Donnell. Next day to Assisi in the Umbrian Hills through typical Italian farming country. Day 5 took them to the Shrine associated with St. Francis, the Santuano Franciscan near Greccio. That night they walked back to Reiti and home to Rome for a Gala night. Day 6 started with Mass celebrated by Fr. Frank Monks, an old friend of the Wheelchair Association. After Mass they visited the Sistine Chapel and saw the paintings by Michelangelo on the ceiling. Day 7 they checked out of their hotel after Mass in the Church of San Clemente and then to the airport and back to Dublin. In all they walked about 100 kilometres, a lot of it uphill and through tough terrain. Through the "Leader", Mr. Moore, on behalf of the Irish Wheelchair Association would like to thank all those for their help to him to reach fundraising target for the 1991 Rome Walk Project.

LATE MRS. MARY K. FENNEL

It is with deep regret we pen the passing of Mrs. Mary Kate Fennell, Lagg, Ballinamult, which sad event took place at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan on Tuesday 2 July. Deceased, nee Cunningham was a native of Donegal where her late brother Liam Cunningham was Fianna Fail T.D. for many years. She was a lady who was held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

Though she had not enjoyed the best of health for some time past, she bore her illness with true Christian fortitude. She was a kind, thoughtful, courteous and unassuming neighbour and many now truly and justifiably grieve for the void her demise leaves.

That she will long be remembered was indicated at the removal of her remains from the Hospital Mortuary on Wednesday evening to St. Mary's Parish, Touraneena. On Thursday morning Requiem Mass was offered for the repose of her gentle soul after which the interment took place in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery. To her husband and family we tender our sympathy.

LATE MRS. MARY WALL

It is with sadness we pen the unexpected death of Mrs. Mary Wall (nee Barron), Castlereagh, Ballymacarbry, which sad event took place at her residence on Friday morning 5 July. Her death has cast a gloom over the entire district. She was a member of an old and respected family, the Barrons of Graig-na-gower.

Predeceased by her husband, Ned, by some 26 years, she was highly respected among the farming community. Her caring nature, unassuming courtesy, generosity and kindness to all, marked her out as a true Christian and all who were indeed privileged to know and respect her will deeply and justifiably mourn her demise and long cherish her memory as a thoughtful and helpful neighbour.

That she will be sadly missed was evidenced at the removal of her remains on Saturday evening from Condon's Funeral Parlour, Clonmel to St. Laurence's Parish Church, Fourmilewater, when all walks of life were represented in the vast concourse of mourners indicating the esteem and high regard in which the deceased and her family are held over a wide area.

On Sunday morning the 11 o'clock Mass was offered for the repose of her gentle soul after which the funeral took place to St. Helena's Church, Nire Valley where interment took place in the family plot. To her family and brothers we tender our sympathy.

LATE MRS. PEGGY O'REGAN

Mrs. Peggy O'Regan, Kilmagague, Kilmeaden, Co. Waterford who passed to her reward at the Regional Hospital, Ardkeen on Monday last following a long and brave battle against her illness, was (nee Keating), Grange Knocklofty. Peggy's death was rendered all the more poignant because of her relatively young age of 53 years. She was a devoted wife and mother.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Thursday morning for the repose of her soul after which she was laid to rest in Ballyduff Lower Cemetery. To her mother, Mrs. Josie Keating, Grange; her husband Eddie and five children; her brothers Michael (Babs), Joe, Jimmy and Donie we offer our heartfelt sympathy.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy of the district is extended to Mrs. Margaret Mangan, Tooracurra, Ballymacarbry on the death of her brother Mr. Maurice (Monnie) Hickey, late of Knockboy, Ballinamult which sad event took place in San Francisco, California on the 29th of June.

FACTORY BREAK-IN

Pinewood Laboratories was broken into on Sunday night. The thieves gained entry through the front door which they broke down. Once inside they rifled cabinets and other containers. Gardai are investigating.

Kill Notes

ST. MARY'S G.A.A. NOTES

Last Wednesday evening 3 July our U/16 hurlers made their first appearance in this year's championship when they took on Clonea in Clonea. After a good hurling match, the opposition won by sixteen points, however, it was in the last few minutes that they pulled away.

Then last Sunday morning, 7 July the lads played Passage in Kill and this proved to be a great match with the lads winning by a point with the vital goals coming from Anton Lennon and Mark Kiely. This year's membership fee is now due and can be given to club treasurer Breda Kiely as soon as possible.

ALL-IRELAND CHAMPION

Last Sunday morning 7 July Nellie Sullivan, Shanakill and a member of the Tramore club in pitch and putt headed out for 36 holes in the All-Ireland

Pitch and Putt finals. Little did she know that 36 holes later she would be the new All-Ireland Pitch and Putt Women's Champion. Taking place in Mullingar, Nellie shot two superb rounds to win by five shots from her nearest rival. It has been a great claim to fame for her as only twelve months ago she caught a club for the first time and who knows if she had caught it earlier in her life she might be now a professional golfer. So it's roll out the red carpet for Nellie!

BIG DISCO

Last Saturday night, 6 July, 2FM star and D.J. Mike Moloney visited Kill Community Centre and he got a great reception from the big crowd present and everybody thoroughly enjoyed themselves on the night.

BON VOYAGE

Best wishes to Jack Power, who this Friday heads for sunny Portugal on a scholarship he got at U.C.C. Jack, well known for all his football skills for Kill G.A.A. club, will be a big loss to the club as he is a great lift to any team. However, we congratulate him and wish him the best of luck for his 3 month stint in Portugal.

A 1991 Lament For Ireland

Come! all who want to save the soul of Ireland,
Now writhing in most bitter agony!
Let's try to heal her wounds, for she is our land,
Her joys and sorrows shape our destiny!

But, EVIL — like a serpent poised to strike,
Or, greedy octopus with searching tentacles,
Now lies in wait for young and old alike,
To crush their Faith in God's identity!

Our young folk are being caught in pleasure's grasp,
While old folk only chant "sure times have changed!"
Or smile indulgently as falsehood's mask,
Hides vile attacks on all that God arranged!

The ruthless claws of modern, pagan "FASHIONS,"
Are plucking modesty from women's brows,
And so there's no defence for lovely chastity,
Where "Condoms" and Abortions are allowed!

Sharp, atheistic teeth of sinful licence,
Are tearing holes in Irish family life.
Rejecting God's Commandments as a nuisance,
And advocating all that leads to strife!

The fragrant flowers of holy awe and reverence,
For God - and one another - are suppressed,
While drugs and murders, violence and intemperance,
Are rampant in our Isle — once called "The Blest"!

O listen to the sobbing voice of Ireland,
Now blending with the West wind's lonely sigh,
"Please look with pity on your hapless sireland,
A bruised and brokenhearted land am I!"

Fair laurels of the "Isle of Saints and Scholars,"
Lie withering now - like seaweed on the shore,
Though bards once sang of "Erin's love and honour,"
A treasure greater far than "Golden Stone"!*

Court Orders Forfeiture of Illegal Fishing Nets

Between August and October last year two officers of the Southern Regional Fisheries Board seized ten illegal fixed monofilament fishing nets on the river Blackwater and at Youghal Quay totalling almost half a mile in length, District Justice Uinsinn Mac Gruairc heard at Youghal District Court last Friday.

All the nets were unattended at the time of their seizure.

The Southern Fisheries Board, through Mr. David Keane, solicitor, brought applications before the court for the forfeiture and disposal of all ten nets.

There were no objections to the applications which District Justice Mac Gruairc granted.

Ardmore Auctioneer Awarded £15,000 Damages For Death Of Racehorse

Liam Gleeson, Auctioneer, Grange, Ardmore was plaintiff in an action at the High Court in Waterford last week in which he claimed £25,000 damages against Irish Helicopters Ltd., Westpoint Hangar, Dublin Airport, arising from the death of a racehorse, his property at Kinsalebeg, Youghal on March 29, 1988. Mr. Gleeson claimed the defendants were negligent in allowing a helicopter to fly at less than 500 feet over the farm on that date. The defendants denied any negligence in the matter.

Outlining the case to Mr. Justice Gerard Lardner, Mr. John Gordon, S.C., for Mr. Gleeson said that the horse, a 5-year-old bay gelding, was grazing in a field on the date in question when a helicopter flew over the field and the noise so terrified the animal that it bolted, burst through a 6 foot high tubular gate, jumped a fence which it damaged, raced through a garden and continued for half a mile before failing to take a turn, colliding with a wall, demolishing it and breaking its neck.

Richard Lee, trainer stated in evidence that he had offered £20,000 Sterling for the gelding. He had trained the horse's half-brother which won four Point-to-Point races and had a brilliant blood line.

Mrs. Maura Doocey, wife of owner/trainer Garrett Doocey, Kinsalebeg told the Court that on the day in question she heard a crashing noise and thought a plane was about to crash on to her house. Her husband rushed in and said Mr. Gleeson's horse had bolted from the paddock and had been killed.

Mrs. Nora O'Connor also gave evidence that on the occasion she ran out of her house as she was afraid the helicopter was going to crash on it and she thought that she would be safer outside.

Giving evidence on behalf of the defendants, helicopter pilot, Capt. Michael Hennessy told the Court that on March 29, 1988, after he had picked up the Tuskar Rock Lighthouse Keeper at Ballycotton to take him to Rosslare, he had not flown over land again. He had maintained a flight path two to three miles offshore at a height of between 1,200 feet and 1,500 feet.

Mr. Justice Lardner giving his decision in the case said that a number of people had described how a helicopter flew over the farm on the day in question. Nobody had seen what had happened to the horse or how it had been killed but on the balance of probability it was likely that it had been deeply scared by the helicopter and bolted. In the circumstances he found in favour of the plaintiff and awarded him a decree of £15,000 on foot of his claim for damages.

£30,000 High Court Settlement For Dungarvan Fish Merchant

Evidence of a rather unusual nature was introduced during the hearing of a case at the High Court in Waterford last Thursday in which Sean Whelan (48), fish merchant, Twomilebridge, Dungarvan sued David Quinn, Agricultural Contractor, Tinalyra, Grange for injuries and loss of earnings arising from a traffic accident which occurred at Monamean, Old Parish on July 2, 1987.

The unusual evidence was contained in a coloured amateur video which was shown in court during the course of the hearing.

Mr. Tom Slattery, S.C. for the plaintiff outlining the case told Mr. Justice V. Lavan that Mr. Whelan suffered a fracture of the thigh, lacerations to his elbow and bruising of the abdomen when the defendant's tractor and silage harvester collided with a van which he was driving at Monamean on July 2, 1987. He underwent three operations and now walked with a limp in his right leg.

Mr. Slattery went on to say that Mr. Whelan who was self-employed as a fish merchant was unable to continue his business as a result and added that the plaintiff who had a drink problem in the late 1970's relapsed into alcoholism again following the accident.

Mr. Whelan in the course of his evidence stated that following the accident he suffered from bouts of depression and was unable to work and as a result his £150,000 a year fish business had collapsed. He said that the Fire Brigade had to cut him from the van after the collision.

The plaintiff repeatedly broke down and cried as he related how his wife had gone to England with their young children to find work when the business collapsed. He said that as a result of the injuries sustained he still had a bad limp, suffered from lower back pains, had scars and was very depressed.

The case then took a dramatic turn when an amateur colour video was shown in court in which the plaintiff was clearly shown having a good time and dancing vigorously on the dance floor to the strains of "My Name Is Dan, I'm Your Man" at the Park House, Dungarvan at a time when he claimed he was deeply depressed and in pain.

Plaintiff agreed that he was in good hearty form and was dancing with a young girl at the time. "I had a lot of alcohol in me," he told the court.

ILLEGAL FISH

Cross-examined by Mr. Nicholas Kearns, S.C. for the defendant, plaintiff denied that he had been drinking on the night of the accident. Mr. Kearns then submitted that plaintiff's business collapsed not because of the accident but due to other causes including Whelan's return to drinking.

To further questions put by Mr. Kearns, the plaintiff admitted that he had his fish licence revoked in 1984 for a breach of the Fisheries Act. He agreed that 70 per cent of his fish came from auctions while the other 30 p.c. was purchased from fishermen.

At this stage Mr. Justice Lavan intervened to say that he would not allow illegal earnings as evidence in court. "The plaintiff admitted to me in the witness box that 30 per cent of his accounts were based on the illegal use of fish. The plaintiff's evidence in relation to illegal fish will not be entertained in this court as a basis for compensation," he said.

A brief adjournment then took place when the Judge suggested that the plaintiff should have these implications explained to him by his counsel.

On the resumption, Mr. Slattery stated that a settlement had been reached and he asked the Court to enter judgement in favour of Mr. Whelan for £30,000 and costs. The Judge then made the order as requested.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

TROOP MEETING

Last Saturday night we headed out to Ballinacourty for some canoeing and water sports. The rumour was that Smiley's Tiger Patrol were working hard all day on their raft. On arrival Laubhra was presented with a special birthday cake for his 13th birthday. There was plenty of help to finish it off with the S.L. joining in.

Michael Verling and Derek Hayes were first changed and in the water. The Tiger Patrol were still assembling their raft and when they eventually did get it afloat it sank quickly when Eamonn Veale jumped on to it.

Meanwhile Brian MacNamara and Colin O'Connor were having trouble staying in their canoes, thanks to Cozzie and Mick. A few people were afraid to get their feet wet and the birthday boy's excuse was that he was too full up after the cake.

Later on everybody got changed and Conor Mooney could be heard screaming for a plaster when he saw his bicycle wheel stuck up in a tree. Ask Ciaran Walsh for further details! Mark Stearn was at it again with his Kerryman jokes. The prize for the best canoeist must go to John Kyne who spent more time in the water than in the canoe. Everybody enjoyed the night and it was great fun.

Four Qualify For Carling Talent Finals

After the mighty entertainment of the 1st rounds and quarter finals of the West Waterford Carling Pub Talent Competition the four pubs to qualify for the finals have now been selected by the adjudicators. Cotters of Aghlish, Kereen Bar, Tighe an Cheoil and the Sycamore Inn, Knockanore will give their final performances in the Cats Bar, Melleray on Thursday 18 July. Those who have attended the earlier rounds will appreciate the difficult decisions the adjudicators had to make. Many of those who didn't qualify had put in a big effort and there were several brilliant individual performances in groups who didn't get beyond the 1st round. When it came to the quarter finals it was obvious that many improvements had been added, especially in presentation and production. The winners of the final night will receive a cheque for £150 plus a Perpetual Plaque for the winning pub. Numerous individual awards will also be made.

Tickets for the final will be allocated in block to the finalists and to the pubs who participated in earlier rounds. The best way for patrons to acquire tickets is to contact one of the participating pubs.

PENSMAN Takes You Behind The SPOTLIGHT

FINE GAEL AND LABOUR TO SHARE CO. COUNCIL CHAIR

In accordance with an agreement reached following discussions between the Fine Gael and Labour parties last week and finally confirmed on Saturday last, the Chair and Vice-Chair positions on the County Council are to rotate between the parties for the five-year term of the Council which commences with the new Council's first annual meeting which will take place in the Courthouse, Dungarvan on this Thursday afternoon.

According to the latest information available, Fine Gael are to have first go and we understand that the party's nominee to the position on Thursday will most likely be Councillor Willie McDonnell from Tallow. Next year it will be the turn of the Labour Party to nominate their candidate for the chair and on this rotation basis, Fine Gael will hold the position on three occasions and Labour on two occasions over the next five years.

When the newly-elected Council assembles for the first time on Thursday it will have one woman member, Cllr. Nora Flynn, Cappoquin, who won a seat for Fine Gael in the Lismore area. She was the only woman of the four who stood for election to prove successful in the county.

In all there will be seven first time members on the new Council, three for Fianna Fail, two Fine Gael and one each Labour and Workers Party. Concern was voiced last week about the position of the new Fine Gael member Richie Walsh following his collapse after last Mass in Abbeyside on the previous Sunday. However, we have been reliably assured that the 75 year old veteran politician was not seriously ill and that his collapse was caused by the sheer exhaustion of an extended and intensive camaign followed by the long count for the Dungarvan electoral area. We were pleased to learn, as we feel sure will all his friends and supporters, that he has now fully recovered and will be present for the formalities when the Council assembles for business on Thursday.

Incidentally, mention of the long count for the Dungarvan area reminds us that of the seven members to represent the area, five are resident in the Dungarvan Urban area with only two in the rural district while the electoral area stretches up to Ballinamult on the north side, as far as Youghal Bridge on the west and to Helvick on the east. It proves the old maxim where elections are concerned that there are more votes in one street in a town than in a vast country area!

TOO MUCH CENTRAL CONTROL

Another fact to which we would like to refer in regard to the June 27 elections was that one in three of the electorate didn't bother to vote and this must surely be a sad reflection on local government in Ireland. It is our bet that they stayed away because they don't see Councils as having much relevance in their lives.

The truth is that central government has far too much control over local matters and despite the recent reform and reorganisation of local Government, Councils are still almost totally dependant on central government for funding - a position that exists since domestic rates were removed in 1977 and which has seen most councils strapped for cash ever since.

Until adequate powers, and the right to raise funds independently, through whatever source, are handed back to Councils people's respect for such bodies will continue to diminish. The sooner that the Government realises this and takes steps to give people some say over their local and regional affairs the better.

TIDE TABLES ARE BACK

In the hope that the weather will take a turn for the better, sooner rather than later, we have recommenced publishing the tide tables showing high water times in Dungarvan Harbour which are also approximately the times for all the coastal resorts along West Waterford.

There tide tables proved a much appreciated source of information to readers of the "Leader" last summer and should do so again in the weeks ahead - provided, of course, that we get some summer weather which is now really very much overdue.

NEW TARGET FOR MIDNIGHT COWBOYS

In recent weeks we have condemned the vandalism which has seen so much damage done, under the cover of darkness, to so many of the ornamental flower tubs in Dungarvan that they have had to be totally removed from along the Abbeyside Causeway. In many areas around Dungarvan where the Urban Council has planted young trees, vandals have also been at work and it is indeed shameful to see many of these lovely trees broken and totally destroyed.

Now we understand that the midnight cowboys have a new target for their after dark capers. This has come to light recently when big numbers of roadside defectors have been discovered knocked out of position. It appears that the Nigel Mansells and Alain Prosts who go out to live it up, particularly at weekends, have developed a new game as they drive home at night, the winner being the one who can knock the most defectors in a sideswipe swerve.

Apart from the cost of these defectors and the work of replacing them, do these irresponsibles ever stop to think that the defectors have been placed along most of the principal roads of the county by the County Council as a safety measure for all law-abiding roadusers? Their absence could contribute to a serious accident and unfortunately somebody's death. Perhaps someone would pass this thought on to those engaged in this latest act of vandalism.

NEWS FROM AUSTRALIA

In the course of a letter which arrived recently from her address in Mount Lawley, near Perth in Southern Australia, Tessa Quinlan Munday sends us news of what she has been doing since she paid us a visit at the "Leader" office last October.

A member of the Quinlan family of Tallowbridge-lands, Tallow, Tessa, amongst other things, is a highly qualified nurse and midwife, an aesthetician, marriage guidance counsellor and has also done holistic studies in many countries throughout the world. As she says herself, rearing her family, running a home and having a husband in addition to her multitude of professional pursuits has kept her busy and made the past 40 years of her life very exciting. "and to cap it all I still ring and do so in Gaelic", she writes.

But as if all this was not enough to fully occupy Tessa's time she also continues to develop her B.B.W. campaign, being a Big Beautiful Woman by appearing in National papers and magazines and modelling down under. She says that research has shown that many big people, men and women, have begun to realise that they are indeed very wonderful, warm and special people who have much to give to others instead of hiding themselves because of how they look. She appears in fund-raising shows to promote the campaign and on television advertisements and has worked on the film set for the Americas Cup film, "Wind", which has many major names on its credits.

She says she looks forward to seeing all her friends in Tallow again early in 1991 "if filming, TV and modelling permit me a long vacation". Let's hope so.

Mrs. McGrath The Sergeant Said

Our choice for the ballad corner this week is the rollicking "Mrs. McGrath, The Sergeant Said" or as it is also known by many "The Widda McGrath." The version we have chosen goes as follows:

"Oh Mrs. McGrath," the sergeant said,
"Would you like to make a soldier out of your son, Ted,
With a scarlet coat and a big cocked hat,
Now Mrs. McGrath, wouldn't you like that?"

Chorus (after each verse)
Wid yer too-ri-aa, fol-the-diddle-aa,
Toor-ri-oo-ri-oo-ri-aa,
Wid yer too-ri-aa, fol-the-diddle-aa,
Toor-ri-oo-ri-oo-ri-aa.

So Mrs. McGrath lived on the seashore
For the space of seven long years or more
Till she saw a big ship sailing into the bay
"Here's my son Ted, wisha clear the way."

"Oh Captain dear, where have you been
Have you been sailing on the Meditercen,
Or have ye any tidings of my son Ted,
Is the poor boy living or is he dead?"

Then up comes Ted without any legs
And in their place he had two wooden legs.
She kissed him a dozen times or two Saying "Holy Moses, 'tisn't you."

"Oh then were ye drunk or were ye blind
That ye left yer two fine legs behind
Or was it walking upon the sea
Wore yer two fine legs from the knees away?"

"Oh I wasn't drunk and I wasn't blind
But I left my two fine legs behind
When a big cannon ball on the fifth of May Took my two fine legs from the knees away."

"Oh then Teddy me boy," the widow cried,
"Yer two fine legs were yer mammy's pride
Them stumps of a tree wouldn't do at all,
Why didn't you run from the big cannon ball?"

"All foreign wars I do proclaim Between Don John and the King of Spain
And by herrins I'll make them rue the time
That they swept the legs from a child of mine."

"Oh then if I had you back again
I'd never let ye go to fight the King of Spain
For I'd rather my Ted as he used to be
Than the King of France and his whole navee."

Mile buiochas, a Dheuglan!

TALLOW NOTES

THE LOCAL ELECTIONS

At the victory celebration in Tallow, Willie McDonnell thanked all who supported him and all who canvassed on his behalf. He congratulated Cappoquin's new Councillor, Nora Flynn and said she will be well capable of carrying on the good work which was done by members of the esteemed Walsh Family over many years. He also congratulated Cllrs. Jimmy Quirke and Ollie Wilkinson who, he said had fought a clean and honest campaign.

The dust has now settled in Tallow on the Local Elections but we recall that at one time here we had no local public representative. We have been represented on the County Council now since 1979 and it looks certain that as long as Willie McDonnell's name appears on the ballot paper Tallow and Kilwatermoy will have its own County Councillor to represent them.

ST. CATHERINES G.A.A.

The junior footballers had a friendly game with Mitchelstown at the beginning of the week in Ballynoe with the victory going to the men from the Galtees in the end. Their next game was with Youghal who were also visitors to Ballynoe. Catherines as well as Youghal fielded out in this league contest minus some of their regulars. The home side were ahead a point at the interval but Youghal on the resumption with some nice passing movements went ahead. Catherines however, fought hard to recover lost ground and in an exciting and closely fought out second half the southern boys captured the points by the narrowest of margins 1-9 to 1-8. Eddie Hayes referred.

Team— P. Murphy, M. Walsh, B. O'Regan, M. Hartnett, S. Neville, P. O'Donoghue, K. Barry, D. O'Leary, E. Galvin, B. Carr, J. Mangan, T. O'Leary, S. Buckley, P. J. Loneragan and P. O'Sullivan. Subs used E. Sheehan and S. Hickey.

Minor Hurling Championship — Cloyne 5-16 St. Catherines 3-7 — Our minor hurlers travelled to Rostellon last Thursday evening to compete in this first round of the championship with old rivals Cloyne. It was a good game all through but it was evident from the start that our opponents had a decided advantage, having a well balanced and experienced 15, while some of our players are just promoted from the U/16 squad. Being about 4 points in arrears at the break, our lads tried to assert themselves in the second half and managed to lower the deficit for awhile but the southern boys, showing superb skill and strength, strode away again in some great scoring raids and won meritoriously after a fast, clean game of hurling.

Ref. Tom Cotter.

St. Catherines juniors will play Erins Own in the semi-final of the Divisional football championship at Watergrasshill on Sunday evening at 7.30 p.m. This will be a tough encounter as Erins Own boys here already disposed of two strong urban teams, Youghal and Midleton, but we are hoping to give a good account of ourselves.

Ballynoe grounds will house the Youghal, Glenville B Grade football championship on Saturday day evening at 7.30 p.m.

Munster Hurling Final At Pairc Ui Chaoimh — Last Sunday there was a big exodus from the parish to the Cork, Tipp game at the above venue, East Cork players and subs played a prominent part in the exciting clash including Cathal Casey, Ger Fitzgerald, Kevin Hennessy, Pat Hartnett, Dave Quirke, John Considine, Teddy McCarthy, Brian Corcoran and Denis Walsh who is still nursing an injury.

African Mission Priest Attends The Parish — The combined parishes of Conna, Ballynoe and Glen-goura were visited recently by Father Raymond, a member of the S.M.A. His object was to solicit support for the African missions, particularly in the vast area of Nigeria, where he has ministered for the past 26 years, and informed us that he had no regrets for same. This body of missionaries was founded in 1877 and in that time 800 missionaries from our country including priests, nuns, brothers, have worked in God's vineyard there he told us. Nigeria is twelve times the size of Ireland with a population of 120 million people. There are two Irish Bishops there and a most hopeful sign is that there are at present 32 native bishops there. While appealing for support of any description, he emphasized that prayer was most important, and again he exhorted his listeners to pray for vocations in our own country as well as the foreign missions, so that with God's help, that there will be an increase in the numbers entering the religious life in the future to serve at home and abroad.

Travelling Show Visits Ballynoe — Ballynoe Hall hasn't hosted a travelling show for many years now, but on Sunday evening last a large audience were treated to a very lively and entertaining production by the James Burgess, travelling company. This was geared especially to the youthful section and how they revelled in it as James "Ireland's Mr. Magic" and his company kept them fascinated and in stitches of laughter during the whole proceedings. He informed us of being an old acquaintance of "Dusky Dan" Dan Ellis, whose company played in Ballynoe in 1938, and whose grand-daughter is the renowned, "Sandy Kelly, of RTE fame, and who lives with the family in Sligo.

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

Tallow senior hurlers played Shamrocks in an entertaining hurling challenge on Sat. night and not playing above themselves won by 6 points. Injuries robbed Tallow of at least three of the team that played Clonea, this must be a cause of worry to the selectors as we play Ballygunner on Sun. next in Dungarvan at 2 o'clock. Hopefully the injuries will have cleared up by then, if not we may be under pressure to get a result. Players to be at the square at 1.15 sharp.

The juveniles played their first championship game on Mon. night last against Fourmilewater in Fourmilewater and were well beaten. They play St. Olivers in Tallow on Mon. night next at 7.30 p.m. All players please note.

A CAKE mixture that can be served hot with custard for dessert, or sliced and cold at teatime has a lot going for it. It is the kind of recipe older children who enjoy cooking will like making. It is also helpful to mothers uncertain when various members of the family will arrive home to eat!

CINNAMON SPICED APPLE CAKE

Ingredients:
225g (8oz) self-raising flour

A HOT OR COLD CAKE TREAT

½ teaspoon ground cinnamon
75g (3oz) home-produced butter
1 egg, beaten
1 cooking apple (about 335g (12oz))
50g (2oz) sultanas
A scant tablespoon granulated sugar for sprinkling on the cake

Method:

Pre-heat oven at 190C, 375F, Mark 3. Grease a one litre (2 pints) ovenproof dish.

Sift flour and cinnamon together into a bowl. Rub in the butter until mixture resembles breadcrumbs. Stir in caster sugar, then the beaten egg. Mix thoroughly. Peel the apple and coarsely grate into the bowl taking care none of the core is included. Finally, add the sultanas and again mix well. Transfer to greased dish, level top and sprinkle granulated sugar over.

Bake in centre of oven for 30 minutes. Reduce heat to 170C, 325F, Mark 3 and cook for about 30 minutes more or until cooked through and beginning to come away from sides of the dish.

Best consumed within 24 hours of baking.
Serves 6-8.

Preparation is the key to laying a good lawn

PUT some thought now into the lawn you plan to sow next month and it will not only establish quickly but also be long-lasting.

Site preparation should be started some six weeks ahead of sowing and the right mixture of seed needs consideration — you may think weeds will be the biggest threat to your new lawn but paws and feet are far worse.

If you have a family and pets which enjoy some rough and tumble then be realistic and choose ryegrass mixture which will establish and regenerate quickly.

However, it is a coarse grass and is probably best avoided by the keen gardener looking to create something more in the bowling green class and better suited to a mixture of fescues and bents.

But this is really only a rough guide and you will find quite a variety of mixture available at the DIY stores and garden centres, sold loose or boxed but usually with some guide to suitability. Bear in mind that, generally, the finer the lawn required the more expensive the mix.

At least this way you can more accurately dictate the type of lawn you create. Laying turves is a little more uncertain as well as expensive and also best left until September or early autumn.

While deciding on the seed mix, make a start on preparing the site. Unless the site is particularly rough or large then avoid using a mechanical digger as they tend to spread the weeds rather well and compact the ground.

So try to get away with turning the ground over by hand to one spade depth and condition it by working in some well-rotted compost.

Then rake it well to produce a fine crumbly texture and keep checking it for weeds and coarse grass before sowing. The longer the period between digging and sowing, the more of these will show up for disposal.

Wait for a calm day when the soil is slightly moist before sowing and follow the recommended density for the mix you have bought, although 1½ ounces per square yard is the normal amount.

Gently rake the soil to cover the seed and protect with netting before stringing up foil or stout plastic to flutter in the breeze — don't rely on the fact that the seed might have been treated with bird repellent!

Cats too can be a nuisance through digging into the soft soil, but they can be deterred by laying canes and sticks over the ground. With their love of the quiet life they will walk round such obstacles rather than bother to pick a way over them.

Once the seed germinates and the blades reach 1½ inches high, they can be given a light rolling in dry weather but wait until the grass is three inches high before giving the first light mowing.

In the case of established lawns, be careful not to cut too close in July or the grass may scorch and brown in the dry weather. Regular soakings are advisable with an occasional liquid feed to give strength in the heat. During water shortages, invest in a water butt and use suitable household waste water where possible.

More Memories of Growing Up in West Waterford

DANCING AT THE CROSSROADS

Fifty years ago dancing at the crossroads was a favourite pastime of the young men and girls of West Waterford. On Sunday evenings and maybe one weekday evening in the summer we would meet on the Moorehill Road and decide to which dance stage we would go, for there was a choice. Our "local" was at Janeville in the parish of Kilwatermoy — just on the border with Tallow parish. It was deliberately sited there to avoid the wrath of the old Canon — P.P. at Tallow — who had a serious objection to what he described as "an occasion for sin."

On many an occasion he made pronouncements from the altar admonishing the parents of his parish to ensure that they always knew where their sons and daughters were in the evenings, to see too that they kept respectable hours and not allow them to be cavorting around the roads late at night. As a result it was not unusual for some adults to come to the stage as spectators. It was very evident that they too enjoyed the music and indeed many of them were not adverse to tripping the light fantastic. As many as one hundred people could be there on occasions — many of whom came long distances. The mode of travel then was "shanks mare" or bicycle.

We did not hear any objections from the priests of our parish, except that one particular curate insisted that everybody in the parish young and old should attend Sunday evening devotions and benediction once a month. This was held from 7.30 p.m. to 8.30 p.m., so that there was plenty of time afterwards for dancing. His wishes were always honoured. Devotions over and before the scent of the incense would fade we jumped on our bicycles and away we went. It was an exhilarating feeling to freewheel down Chanleys' Hill as the sinking sun in the western sky filtered through the trees and cast a filigree of shadows on the dusty road.

Music at the stage was supplied by locals — mostly button accordions. I remember one woman — Mrs. Tobin — playing there on the concertina and she was able to play some lively Irish music. It was all free of course, except that on very rare occasions the hat would be passed around to collect money for repairs to the stage or to a musical instrument. The stage was made of conventional flooring boards and would be about fifteen feet square. Before dancing it would be well sprinkled with candle grease to make the surface smooth and slippery. We danced all the old Irish dances — Waltzes, Irish Sets, Barn Dance, Veleta, Siege of Ennis, Walls of Limerick. On occasions too there were solo dances — reels, jigs and hornpipes. Dancing usually finished at 10.30 p.m. The stage was then lifted and securely placed against the old wall with the dancing surface inwards to save it from the weather. There were many romances started at this place and indeed some blossomed into marriage.

There was a similar stage at The Warren, Camphire, near the lovely river Blackwater. This was in an old quarry in off the road. Many came there from Lismore, Cappoquin, Tourin and even Villierstown at the other side of the river. They came up the river in small boats and they brought their favourite musicians with them to augment the local talent. Passersby returning from GAA games or sports in the local towns always stopped for periods and many took part in the dancing or just listened to the music. There was also a famous stage at Araglen, near the Bridge there where three counties meet. We went there too on rare occasions bringing our own girls with us as the Araglen boys resented any meddling with the local talent.

ACROSS THE BORDER

Just across the border in Co. Cork there were two stages — one at Agherne between Conna and Rathgormac. This was a usual stop-over for us coming from games in Cork. We would stay for a few dances and move off to be at Janeville before finishing time. The other Co. Cork stage was at Knocknagappagh, near the Half Way Publichouse, on the main Tallow/Youghal Road. Patrons of this stage came from Inch, Mount Uniack, Park, The Red Forge and that general area. This was an usual stage in that instead of wood it was made of concrete. A few waltzes on that stage would not be good for the soles of your shoes. I believe that it was put in place there by the local publican, the late Willie Morrisson. Although close to the licensed premises there was never any intoxicating drink consumed by the patrons there. I suppose at that time money was scarce and the boys did not need any stimulants to prompt up their courage. One musician who played there was Paddy McCarthy of Gleanaghlough, now living at Killeagh. I believe he still plays at that publichouse on Sunday evenings.

All this was happening long years before De Valera pronounced his vision of Ireland with "Happy (he did not say "comely") maidens dancing at the crossroads." Wouldn't it be a nice idea if this old Irish pastime were revived. — M.M.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

*The Editor,

A Chara,

Over the past year the British legal system has been forced to overturn guilty verdicts involving innocent Irish people.

One of the main themes involved in these cases has been the attempt by the British Establishment to blame such miscarriages of justice on individual lapses in the system. One such example being evident was the blame laid at the feet of Lord Lane and sections of the West Midlands Police Force. Such a focus ignores the fact that the Judiciary and the Police do not operate in a political vacuum but are rather the administrators of the British Establishment's political policy in relation to Ireland and its people.

Failure to understand this leads to suppositions that the British justice system operates impartially and it's only human error and the odd bad apple which causes the problem.

In these circumstances, it's a national disgrace that a Government acting on behalf of the Irish people should even contemplate handing over Irish citizens to be tried by such a system.

I'm sure Dessie Ellis was cheered up no end listening to finely chosen words used by Paddy Hill, one of the 'Brum' 6, describing Justice — the British way — "Justice, those people in there (Old Bailey) couldn't even spell it not alone dispense it."

Extradition should stop now!
Is Mise,
LEONARD FERRIN,

Maze Prison.

BRITISH JUSTICE DISCREDITED

A Chairde,
Recently a British court dismissed cases against three people charged with conspiracy to prevent the course of justice in a miscarriage of justice case which locked up four innocent people for 15 years. The judge ruled that it was unfair to go ahead with a prosecution because of the time lapse and that media coverage of the frame-up prejudiced the three's chance of a fair trial.

The following day another British court calmly began hearing conspiracy charges against another person. This person's alleged offences took place a decade ago when, the prosecution have admitted, he was not even in Britain. The alleged offences gained massive publicity in the British media. Moreover, the charges had already been dismissed in February, after the accused had been held on remand for three months. After the dismissal of charges, the accused was held in prison for another four months and the dismissed charges simply reintroduced.

Spot the difference?
The three alleged conspirers in the first case were British police officers and their victims were the Guildford Four.

The alleged conspirer in the second case is an Irish working class person, Dessie Ellis.

British justice seems determined to utterly discredit itself. Unfortunately many Irish people are suffering while it does this. And unfortunately our government seems utterly determined to continue to allow these appalling vistas to go on — even if they have to hand our citizens over on stretchers to facilitate British government policy.

RACING Stylish Win For Colligan
River

John E. Kiely, the popular Dungarvan trainer scored an outstanding success at Wexford on last Friday night when Colligan River owned by well-known Dungarvan publican, Mrs. Nellie Power, won the £5,000 William Neville & Sons Handicap Chase in comfortable style.

With young Jaimie Magee in the saddle, Colligan River (12/1) didn't move into contention until the final circuit and as they straightened up to jump the last, Colligan River took it well and young Magee had no trouble in going on for a good three lengths win.

Castlelyons
Contender
For Quality
Milk Award

The Waterford Foods representatives for this year's Upjohn Quality Milk Award are the Sheehan family who have the distinction of owning the farm closest to Castlelyons creamery. They are considered to have a realistic chance of following in the footsteps of last year's national winner, Jim Kirwan, who farms superbly at Rathgormac, Co. Waterford.

Michael and his son Donal, ably backed by Mrs. Anne Sheehan produce milk and beef on an 89 acre farm. Their herd of 50 cows, averaging 1,200 gallons, supplies a 53,000 gallon quota and leaves plenty of whole milk for feeding to calves.

From a quality point of view, they hit a consistent jackpot of TBCs below 10,000 and SCCs of under 250,000. That is as far as quality needs to go, even in the face of modern demands for quality raw material. It is proof that their hygiene routine is above reproach and that mastitis is fully under control.

Yet, as very often happens, the Sheehans have least to say when you ask how they get their excellent results. In fact, they would remind you of another Waterford Foods man who says dairy hygiene is like washing your neck. You have to wash it completely and you have to do it every day. Otherwise, neglect shows up very quickly.

Dungarvan
Sea Angling Club

With Caseys (Daysha) competition on Sunday we will be half way through our season! The best has yet to come, for the weather has not been great, fish numbers are probably bigger than last year but conger and ling are down. Johnny "Boats" found a grand spot last day so I must have a word in his ear.

The All-Ireland Master Angler competition will be fished on Saturday two weeks and our club will be represented, appropriately by the chairman, John Molloy. Good luck John. We'll keep you posted on the results when they are to hand.

We've had a large entry already for the 'Munster Open Boat' competition even though entries don't close until the 10th August, so intending participants be warned.

The up-to-date situation with the annual awards scheme, which keeps changing and has all to be fished for still, is as follows:— Greatest Variety - John Cronin 7, Pat O'Donovan 7, Don O'Connor 7; Greatest No. of Conger - Seamus Deehy 12, Sev Baumann 8, John Cronin 7, Sean Flynn 6, Con Lane 5, Frank O'Beime 5; Greatest No. of Ling - Damien Dillon 10, George Young 6, Frank O'Rourke 5; Greatest No. of Fish - John Cronin 38, Damien Dillon 34, George Young 31, Liam Whelan 25, Sev Baumann 25, Pat O'Donovan 23; Master Angler - John Cronin 157 pts, George Young 152 pts, Damien Dillon 151 pts, Seamus Deehy 147 pts, Breda Warren 141 pts, Kathleen Young 130 pts, Con Lane 130 pts; Lady Angler - Breda Warren 141 pts, Kathleen Young 130 pts, Helen O'Grady 119 pts, Kay Cliffe 119 pts.

THE JUNE OUTING

The outing was held in Youghal on Sunday, July 29. An excellent turnout enjoyed the challenge provided by the windy conditions, not to mention the water hazards. Quiet optimism could be sensed as the queue formed on the first tee. Those who found the course rather difficult on their last visit were determined to restore their ego and reputations. Alas there were bitter disappointments. Billy, a keen water man, came well prepared. Negotiating the first water shot with ease and the second one with lady luck and a good bounce, his third visit went splash, splash, splash. However, he took it in his stride as golf balls appeared one after the other from his pocket. Helen a beach person could not resist the sand and once she felt the soft texture under her feet decided to stay there for more shots than I would care to mention. The spoils of the day went once again to those Tobins. Well done lads. We had three new members partaking for the first time. However, they were no novices and all scored very well. Our thanks to Mick Burke of Lawlor's Hotel for sponsoring this outing.

RESULTS

DUNGARVAN MART

There was a much bigger entry of sheep at Dungarvan Mart on Monday last. Trade was good and there were plenty of buyers, especially for the lighter store lambs weighing 30 to 40 kgs. Lamb prices were up £1 per head on last week. Principal buyers at the sale were factory representatives as well as the local butchers.

There was a smaller number of cattle on offer. There was a good strong demand for bullocks. Beef and forward store bullock prices no change from last week.

Sean O'Farrell at the Cats

The future looks bright for newcomer to the Irish music scene, Sean O'Farrell, as he prepares to release his latest single "Billy Can't Read" on the K-Tel label.

Sean is 23 years of age, comes from Ashbourne, Co. Meath and has been performing with various local groups since the age of 12.

When Louis Walsh saw Sean performing he quickly decided to manage him. K-Tel Ireland signed the recording contract and Sean is on his way.

See him at the Cats Bar, Melleray on this Saturday, July 13.

THE angler's fingers mould the bread-paste around the hook until the shining barb and shank are hidden inside the pear-shaped piece of bait.

It looks fine to the human eye - but what does it look like to the fish?

Says a scientist who has been studying the eyesight of fish: "It's probably too big for the average fish."

"Too many fishermen worry about hiding the hook when there is no need. We've proved that by catching fish with a pin-prick of paste on the very point of a hook, a piece so small that even the barb was exposed."

"Fish do not recognise the barbed hook as something dangerous. Why should they?"

"But the old saying 'Keep low and keep out of sight' is good advice. A movement

Look out - the fish have got you covered on the bank frightens any fish."

What is the fish's eye-view of things?

As far as the trout is concerned, it's a clear one. They live in clean, fast-flowing streams and can see and be seen.

The bulbous eyes look sideways and upwards, directing their main vision towards the underside of the surface of the river.

Water plays tricks with light, bending the rays around corners so the fish gets a peculiar - but extremely effective - view of life outside its own environment.

It is as if it is peeping at the outside world through a small, circular window in the ceiling.

Through that window it can see everything that is going on through 360 degrees on both banks of the river, upstream or downstream.

This means that if a fisherman can see the fish, the fish can see him, even if it is facing away.

Which is why it is so important for an angler to move slowly and quietly.

Sit quietly at the edge of a river and the fish may get used to you sitting there. But make any sudden movement and the fish will dart away.

It is not true that a fish sees less of you the deeper the fish goes, the bigger an object appears in its field of vision.

Looming even larger in a fish's world are objects on the surface of the water, like a float, or just above the water, like a rod.

This is why a shrewd angler buys a rod with a dull finish. A rod with a coat of gloss varnish would glitter in the sunlight and be obvious to the fish. And as they have no eyelids, the slightest movement will alert them, even during resting times.

On coarse fishing waters - the home of bream, tench, perch and others - the canals, rivers and ponds are often so discoloured that the visibility of the fish is dramatically reduced.

Certainly, a patrolling pike would be unlikely to see an angler on the bank.

But nature has given all fish a kind of second sight.

Running down each side of the body, fish have a row of nerve-ends called pressure receivers.

These transmit vibrations in the water to the fish's brain.

The pressure receivers are so finely tuned that scientists believe a fish can feel the changing pressure in the water as another fish swims by.

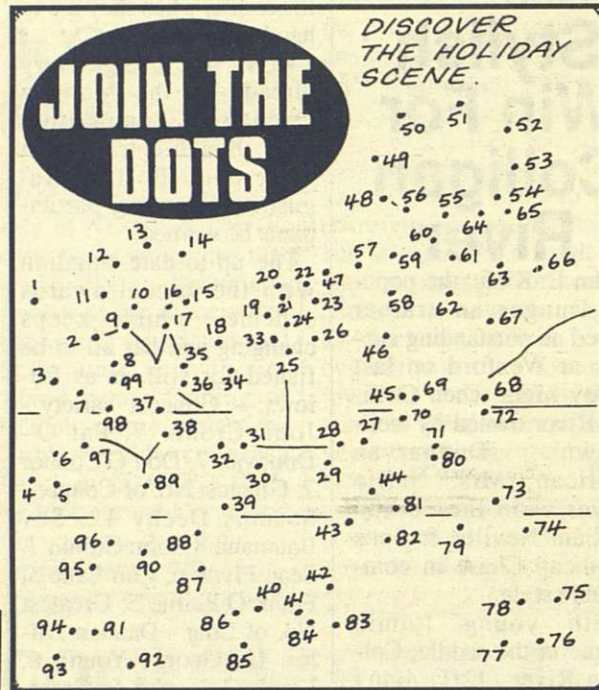

Scientists also believe that fish use the receivers as echo sounders to "feel" objects in the water they cannot see.

It is in this way that fish feel vibrations caused by an angler moving around on the river bank.

The fish also has ears but scientists do not yet know how they work. They merely know that a loud noise on the river bank can be picked up by fish through their pressure receivers. A shout on the bank is something like someone punching the fish in the side.

Some anglers whistle while fishing believing that the vibrations caused in the water are like a hand gently tickling the fishes' sides.

This theory isn't proved, but it indicates that anyone who takes the fish-eye-view of angling is likely to do well.

THE PATENTING OF INVENTIONS GOES BACK A VERY LONG WAY. IN 1449 THE FIRST KNOWN PATENT WAS GIVEN BY KING HENRY VI TO A MAN WHO HAD PRODUCED COLOURED GLASS WINDOWS.

ONE OF THE PLANETS IN OUR SOLAR SYSTEM USED TO BE CALLED "GEORGIUM SIDIVM" BEING NAMED AFTER THE ENGLISH KING GEORGE III. IN 1850, HOWEVER, IT WAS RE-NAMED AFTER THE ROMAN GOD "URANUS".

O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN (Never known to fail) — O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendour of heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favour is granted. — K.J.

Cappoquin Notes

TRAFFIC PROBLEMS

Some time ago we referred to the traffic congestion which is now an every day occurrence in the lower part of the town. This problem is becoming progressively worse. Delivery lorries have to be unloaded. These are huge vehicles and occupy at least half of the street, and with cars parked on the other side there is little room for motorists just passing through. This situation can hardly be allowed to go on forever. The powers that be will eventually have to take steps to solve the problem. Whether the solution lies in one side parking, we do not know, what we do know is that the people are entitled to travel easily through the town, so we would appeal to the body responsible to at least take a look at the situation. There may be a very simple solution.

ROWING

Back from Amsterdam are Johnny and Oisín McGrath who rowed with the Irish International crew. This was a great honour for the lads, they were part of an outfit who were capable of taking their place with the best in Europe. We understand that the crew will now start training and will compete in World Championships next year. Well done lads.

The best news of the week was the success of the Cappoquin crew at Henley Regatta. This event is one of the most prestigious in the rower's calendar and it is indeed the ambition of every oarsman to compete there. The Murray brothers Pat and Milo represented the local club in the double sculls event and while we have not seen the final results we know from radio reports that they did extremely well.

WEDDING

Congratulations to Marie Fennell, Boherwillin, Cappagh, who was married recently to Declan Mulhearn, Mahon Bridge. The ceremony took place at Affane Church on Saturday last and the reception was held at Ballyrafter House, Lismore. We wish the happy couple many years of wedded bliss.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

In a boat race what are the starting positions known as?

Answer next week.

Answer to last week's question — Number of seats plus 1, divided into total valid poll plus 1.

WEDDING - COSTIN AND KEHOE

A very pretty wedding took place at St. John the Baptist Church, Affane on Friday 28 June between Mary Costin, eldest daughter of John and Lil Costin, Sheskin and Aidan Kehoe, eldest son of Paddy and Maureen Kehoe, Lisdug-gan, Waterford. The celebrant was Very Rev. Fr. Barron P.P. Modeligo/Affane.

The bridesmaids were Margaret and Ailish Costin and Suzanne Kehoe. The bestman was Tony Hennessy. Groomsmen were Paul and Tony Kehoe.

The Affane Church choir under the leadership of Noel Mason, Mary Coughlan and organist Tomas Scanlon gave beautiful rendering of the O Riada hymns.

The Church had beautiful floral arrangements, expertly arranged by Mrs. Maggie McCarthy.

The reception was held at Clonea Strand Hotel and the honeymoon is being spent in Portugal.

We wish Mary and Aidan many years of happiness.

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

Footballers Defeated —

Affane Intermediate Footballers turned in a wholehearted performance against Brickeys in Lismore last Friday night. Forced to field out short six regulars nevertheless the team deserve great credit for their efforts. In fact it is a game we could have won. Just when we fought back to level the game early in the second half our midfielder Liam Costin had to retire through injury, and from there on we lost our way a bit and failed to dominate the outfield and Brickeys were relieved to hear the final whistle. It was a very good match with plenty of scores, some brilliantly executed and the pace of the game was exceptionally fast.

The team need not feel despondent, just aggrieved, that those key players were missing for this losers group final. We can only speculate on what might have been.

Affane's best performers were Ciaran Cullinane, Shane Fraher, Seamus McCarthy, John Buckley, Ray Flynn, Liam Costin, Miceal Phelan, Donagh Cummings, P. J. Veale, Frank McCarthy and Garry Morrissey.

The Lismore G.A.A. pitch was in excellent condition for the game and the club deserve praise for getting it into shape.

Team — C. Cullinane, S. McCarthy, F. Murray, S. Fraher, D. Cullinane, J. Buckley, G. Morrissey, L. Costin, D. Cummins, E. O'Shea, R. Flynn, M. Power, P. J. Veale, M. Phelan, F. McCarthy. Subs E. Flynn, J. McGrath and J. Mason.

U/16 Hurlers Win — Cappoquin 3-3 Naomh Brid 1-2 — Cappoquin U/16 hurlers thoroughly deserved their seven point victory over Naomh Brid in Modeligo last Monday night. Indeed with wind assistance in the first half we had an abundance of scoring chances but failed to capitalise on them. However, the team played much better in the second half against the wind, fighting for every ball and showing great eagerness and will to win. Cha Scanlon starred in defence and received great assistance from Eamonn Murphy, Ray Curran and Trevor Norris. At midfield and in attack Frank McLoughlin, Jason Fleming and Billy Tobin played extremely well while Eddie Hickey, Paul McLoughlin and Tony Prendergast did trojan work. So a winning start to the championship for these young lads. It should give them a boost and give them the incentive to put in a bit of training.

Highlight of the game was "Bimmer" Casey's goal when he connected beautifully with a centre just outside the area giving the Naomh Brid goalie no chance at all. It was as good a goal as has ever been scored in any match.

Team — F. Cotter, C. Scanlon, B. McCarthy, J. Dalton, T. Norris, R. Curran, E. Murphy, J. Fleming, F. McLoughlin, E. Hickey, P. McLoughlin, B. Tobin, J. Casey, T. Prendergast, J. Quann.

On Holiday — Great to see one former goalkeeper Michael McCarthy formerly of Mill St. and now resident in Dublin attending last Monday night's juvenile game. Michael and his wife Joyce and three young boys are enjoying a holiday in Cappoquin at present.

Out Of Action — Liam Costin's injury will keep him sidelined for at least a month. So another casualty joins our long list of "walking wounded". It must surely be the worst injury crisis to hit our club and with important matches coming it is looking extremely unlikely if we will be able to fulfill the fixtures, especially in hurling as our panel is limited.

Boys u/17 relay, Lismore 3rd (Edmund Landers, Ollie Dowd, Ryan Flynn, Emmett Landers).

Girls u/14 long jump, Patricia Cahill 1st; Boys u/14 long jump, Thomas Barry 1st.

Then we had the Lismore u/17 relay team and we had great performances from Oliver Broderick, Joan Coleman, Ann Barry and Valerie Barry who had a fierce battle with Clonea-Rathgormack and in the end Lismore got there to take the gold. All our athletes performed really well.

C.L.C.G. LIOS MOR "Walsh Cup Final" — The 'Eamonn Walsh Perpetual Trophy' left 'home' for the first time on Thurs. evening when Cashel King Cormacs coasted to a ten point victory over Ballyduff in the final played in ideal conditions at the Castlefarm venue. Despite some good individual performances, our neighbours failed to produce the sort of teamwork that we know they are capable of and as a result ended up on the wrong end of the 1-16 to 0-9 scoreline. Referee for the occasion was J. J. Landers.

After the game Mr. Paddy Moore, President, Lismore C.B.S.P.P.U. (who organised the tournament) thanked all the participants and congratulated the Tipperary kingpins on their deserved victory before inviting Mrs. Joan Walsh, wife of the sponsor, to present the magnificent trophy to the winning captain.

Both teams attended a post-match reception at 'Eamonn's Place' during which the Cashel team were presented with individual prizes, courtesy of the sponsor, Eamonn Walsh. During the course of the evening Rev. Bro. J. L. Dormer, Principal, Lismore C.B.S. Primary School paid due tribute to the winners and thanked everyone who helped to make the tournament such an outstanding success. He had a particular word of thanks for the Past Pupils Union who this year donated the proceeds to help defray the cost of major renovations to the C.B.S. Primary School, and for the sponsor, Mr. Eamonn Walsh, for his continuing generosity.

This Week — The local G.A.A. pitch is a veritable hive of activity at the moment as hurlers from under 12 to under 50 intensify their training programmes in the run up to their respective match dates.

First off this week will be our U/12 hurlers who travel to Dungarvan on tonight Wed. 10th to take on the locals in the first round of the Bord na nOg competition, timed for 6.45 p.m. These youngsters have been working hard under the direction of Dick Ahearne, Bro. Dormer and Pat Bennett for several months and must be firm favourites to progress further in this competition which Lismore has won for the past ten years in a row! We wish them well.

On this Friday 12 our minor hurlers commence their campaign in defence of their county title when they play Dungarvan at Cappoquin in the opening round at 7.30 p.m. Like their U/12 clubmates they have been "putting in the work" of late under the watchful eyes of Sean Prendergast and his fellow mentors, Billy Cunningham, Marty McNamara, Donal Shanahan and Kieran O'Gorman. While the mood will be one of cautious optimism it must be remembered that the opposition will have nothing to lose and all to gain on the night. Best of luck, Lismore.

Next Sunday July 14th will round off a busy week for the club when our senior hurlers meet Fourmilewater in Cappoquin and will be endeavouring to preserve their unbeaten record in the championship to date. The following Sunday July 21st Lismore meet old rivals Roanmore at Dungarvan in the final game of the league section of the championship, so the results of both these games could prove crucial to the hopes and aspirations of the senior panel and selectors. The time has now come to deliver on the request for total commitment from everyone if we are to go forward and reap the rewards of all the good work done to date. We think you can and you will.

Meeting — A committee meeting will be held on Thurs. at 8.30 p.m. in the Red House together with representatives of the proposed new Tennis Club with a view to overcoming whatever difficulties prevent the re-opening of the courts at the moment.

Bon Voyage — We extend warmest good wishes to Tom O'Donoghue and family, Parks Road who leave for Australia this week after a short holiday in the old home town.

Weekly Draw — Week No. 26 — £50 Miss Gemma Tobin, 84 New St.; £30 Mr. Kieran O'Gorman, Main St.; £20 Miss Orla Daly, Main St.; £15 Miss Peggy Campion, New St.; £10 Mr. Ml. O'Leary (Jnr), Red House; £10 Miss Auril O'Hallahan, 15 Parks Road; £10 Mr. S. Bransfield, Main St. Promoters prize Johnny Flynn. The next draw will be held in the Red House on Mon. 15th July at 8.00 p.m. All are welcome to attend. (Advt.)

LISMORE CAMOGIE NOTES

Lismore 2-5 Butlerstown 1-4

This was the scoreline at the final whistle in our senior championship semi final played in Abbeyside last Sunday. This was a victory (against all the odds) carved out for a team whose spirit, will to win and intense commitment gave us one of our sweetest victories in a long time. Four points down after 8 minutes and under pressure all over the field 'keeper Ber Keefe kept us in the game with a couple of great saves. Orla Flynn pointed a free for our first score after 12 minutes and with Ann Marie O'Gorman thundering into the game at centre back we slowly hauled our way back into the game. With our defence in magnificent form we whittled away at the lead and a marvellous goal from Orla on the stroke of half time left the sides level at 1-3 each. We led for the first time 5 minutes into the second half with another point from Orla but back came Butlerstown to level. With our backs to the wall our defence rose majestically to the challenge with Ann Marie a towering figure at centre back and captain Catriona Caples at her brilliant best at full back we weathered the storm. Then an electrifying solo run Catriona all of 80 yards inspired her team mates to new heights.

Each Lismore player lifted her game and we charged up the field and were awarded a free. Up stepped Orla and we were in front with five mins. to go. With the smell of victory in the air we swept forward again and Orla bursting through the middle buried the sliothar in the back of the net (to cap a great performance) and we hung on until the final whistle and the sweet taste of victory was ours. Although we had some great individual performances, this was a team victory with every player giving her all and finding that bit extra when it was needed.

So now it's on to the Co. Final against Gaultier which will be fixed this week.

Panel— Ber Keefe, C. Caples (capt), E. Daly, A. M. O'Gorman, M. Kearney, J. Murphy, O. Flynn, S. McCarthy, P. Bolger, M. McCarthy, C. Ahearn, B. Barry, M. Murphy, S. O'Gorman, G. Barry, M. Hale, M. Kenneally.

Our juniors are playing the first round of the championship this Sunday in Abbeyside at 2 p.m. v. Butlerstown. Our U/14's by now will have played their county final and hopefully will have brought the club the first title in this grade. Training for all the U/16 panels is now starting and the first session is on Mon. 15th at 7.30 p.m. in C.B.S. field.

We would like to wish the best of luck to our community games team who are off to Limerick this Saturday to represent Waterford in the Munster Finals.

ATHLETICS NOTES

Valerie Barry Wins All-Ireland Medal — Valerie Barry ran a tremendous race in the girls U/15 800m All-Ireland final at Tullamore on Sunday last. She got boxed, got pushed and tripped in a packed field and she had to fight hard all the way and she eventually came through the field to win her medal. Well done Valerie. We also had her brother Thomas Barry in the long jump All-Ireland final and he put in a great performance but was in hard luck to be just out of the medals by one centimetre.

Best of luck to the three teams going to Limerick on next Sunday for the Munster Community Games finals - the boys U/14 hurling team who we hope will have a good chance; the girls camogie team, hoping they will go well and the volleyball team. Best of luck lads and girls. Best of luck also to the lads doing the run from Dungarvan to Lismore next Friday night. They will be running a distance of fifteen miles. — P.R.O.

COACHING NEWS

Greg Morris is coming down to the club on the weekend of 20th-21st July. He will be here at the club until 7 p.m. for the two days, so anyone interested in getting coaching, please contact Suzanne Dalton.

JUNIOR NEWS

First things first — many thanks to Eileen and Betty Brennan for their many hours of dedication on Saturday mornings for teenage tennis. This session has now ended but that doesn't mean you must stop playing tennis!

Well done to our Sunshine Cup team (U/16) — L. Hartnett, A. Brennan, R. Byrne, G. Keane, K. Higgins and E. Donnelly. The team play Limerick Lawn in two weeks time at home so do come along and support them.

MARATHON

Last but not least, don't forget our Tennis Marathon on Saturday and Sunday next, 13th and 14th July. There will be plenty of action that weekend around the club so do come along and join in the festivities. You can play tennis too if you like! We would like to encourage all our members to invite their friends to sample our new courts. Please note the Marathon is open to anyone who would like a game of tennis.

GUINNESS CUP TEAM

Our Guinness Cup team travelled to Mallow last week. Tom Landers subbed in for Liam Crotty who was rightly "crocked up" with his broken foot for the game. Many thanks to Tom Landers who by no means let the side down. Our team were beaten 4-3 that night - better luck next year!

MICHEL CUP NEWS

Well done to our ladies team: Theresa Keane, Pat Flanagan, Cora Cooney and Jenny McGrath who beat Bishopstown tennis club on Monday night last. The No. 1 ladies for Bishopstown proved too strong for both our No. 1 and No. 2 ladies but we were well able for their No. 2 ladies. The match resulted in 2-2 so a tie-break game had to be played taking a No. 1 and a No. 2 lady from each team. Theresa Keane and Jenny McGrath were chosen to play and they gave us a cliffhanger of a game beating the Bishopstown ladies in a tie-breaker set 7-6. Well done to the whole team for a magnificent performance. The ladies go through to the semi-final where they will meet the winners of Bishopstown B and St. Laurence's. Best of luck in the next round.

JUNIOR OPEN WEEK

A reminder to all our juniors that our Junior Open week begins on July 28 and ends on 3 August.

Until next week everyone - have a good game!

Clashmore/Kinsalebeg G.A.A. Notes

U-14 HURLING

Well done to the under-14 hurlers who beat Ring in the Western final recently. They then took on Ferrybank in the county final but were not destined to take the honours in this clash.

U-12 HURLING

The u-12 hurling team were unfortunately beaten by the Shamrocks last Friday, July 5, on a score of 4-1. The lads, under the able guidance of Liam O'Rourke, gave a promising display and hopefully they will get the desired result in their next match. This will be against Melleray and takes place at home in Clashmore on July 20.

The team fielded against the Shamrocks consisted of: Brian Dunne, T. J. Broderick, Mark Power, Karl O'Keefe, Shane Allen, Ed. Beresford, Gerard O'Rourke, Dave O'Keefe, Donal O'Keefe, Benny McGrath, Roger Ryan, Declan Lenane, Patrick Troy, Barry Dunne and Anthony Dunne. On the panel were: Declan Hickey, Liam Fleming, Luke Cunningham, Paul Lenane and Alan Curran.

UNDER-16 HURLING

The under-16 hurlers played the Brickeys on Monday night last, July 8, in Bushy Park.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Our junior footballers put on a tremendous display against Dungarvan in Bushy Park last Thursday night. After conceding a rather doubtful penalty, we finally gave way to a skilful Dungarvan side. It was great to see Danny Hayes making a welcome return to championship football.

Outstanding displays were given by Vinnie O'Rourke, Ger Keane, Tom Kelly and captain Eamonn Hayes.

Our next outing will be against Ring in the Old Parish Tournament.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

It was the turn of our senior footballers to take the championship trail against Stradbally on Saturday evening last. After a very good first half display (level at 1-3 to 0-6) we lost our way somewhat in the second half, mainly due to injuries. Pat Hynes suffered a shoulder injury, Gabriel Hynes received facial injuries and Conor O'Riordan suffered a severe knock to the knee. Both Gabriel and Conor had to leave the field and with them went our chances of winning.

JUNIOR HURLING

A very important game is fixed for next weekend in Cappoquin. Ballinameela provide the opposition and a victory is vital if we are to stay in the championship. — PRO.

ABBEYSIDE A.F.C. NOTES

Heineken Pub League

The Heineken Pub League got off to a great start last week with many exciting games played. The following scorelines give a true indication of how close most games were and of the quality of the fare on offer.

Bridgie Terries 1 Bartons 0

A gallant performance by Bartons and Maga Foley in particular, failed to the Kilrossanty backboned Bridgies in a most entertaining fixture. A great goal by Jim Maher early in the first half proved decisive and with Roger Power, Jimmy Fraher and Joe Power (who came out of retirement) showing great commitment and skill, Bridgies held on.

Paddy Foleys D 3 Anchor A 0

A composed and clinical display by the team regarded by many as hot favourites saw Paddy Foleys D advance to the second round past a stubborn Anchor team. Goals by K. Hallahan (2) and Dermot Callaghan proved decisive, Hallahan in particular being impressive, with a great turn of pace.

Best for Foleys were Hopper McGrath, K. Hallahan and Pepe Ferncombe. Best for Anchor were Tony Hamilton, P. Murphy and Pat Dunford.

Village Inn C 0 Village Inn B 1

A very close encounter with the "B" team just coming out on top. An excellent goal by Garry Byrnes thwarted a brave bid by the underdogs whose challenge was led by the indefatigable Tommy Reynolds and old warhorse Joe Foley.

Time and time again the "B" defence was run ragged by Pat Earley and co., with only the towering Barry McGrath holding firm.

In the end the boundless enthusiasm of Christy "Schillachi" Phelan proved the difference with his thoughtful promptings and classy first touch.

Paddy Foleys E 1 Paddy Foleys C 2

A rip-roaring contest played with great gusto and sportsmanship provided first rate entertainment for the huge crowd. Veteran crowd pleaser Alfie Egan took the stage here and roared on by legions of his fans he almost showed his team the way to "Amarillo" with a dynamic display.

However it was not to be and even though Michael Dwyer gave Paddy Foleys E the lead with a tremendous shot "Kidney" equalised with a flying header and Michael Sheehan sealed the tie when he rounded the sweeper and fired home an unstoppable shot from 35 yards out.

Minnies 3, Enterprise 2

Two goals by Pat McGovern who was celebrating his 35th birthday, had the fans reaching for the superlatives at Dogleaf Park in this titanic struggle of old rivals. Billy Sheehan was always a thorn in the Minnies side, blasting two great goals also. Derek Lyons scored from the spot after being taken down.

With this fine win, Minnies have shown that they are a side well capable of lifting the O'Brien Cup.

Radleys A 3 Paddy Foleys B 0

In the slickest display of the tournament to-date Radleys A overwhelmed a gallant Foleys B who had stars in Dinny Dalton, Alan Donnelly and co. Goals by Joe Fleming, D. Sheehan (2) proved decisive in a most sporting game.

Anchor Bar B 6 Paddy Foleys A 0

Not even some superlative goalkeeping by Michael "Bonner" Elstead could keep a rampant Anchor B team at bay. For a large portion of the match the dogged resistance of Elstead kept the Anchor at bay and they finally put paid to the hopes of the Foleys A team who played with great heart and skill despite having only 2 league players in their line up.

Best for the Anchor Bar were M. Houlihan, Pajo and M. Geoghegan. Michael O'Connor was very impressive and on more than a few occasions showed "total skill."

Deise Bar 1 Radleys B 0

A marvellous, defiant performance by the men from Clashmore who overwhelmed a gallant Radleys B in a rip-roaring contest. The all-important goal came after 15 minutes when the influential Vinny O'Rourke placed P. Ryan to slam home.

A feature of the game was the intricate dribbling of Colin and the industrious Budgie who was involved in everything.

For the Deise who were watched by Gary (Clr.) O'Halloran and the eccentric coach Pat Langan, Mossy Devine was a revelation and D. Salmon also stood out. Best for Radleys were Billy Jordan, K. Moore, S. McGrath and Pat Ryan.

FIXTURES

Tuesday, July 9 — Paddy Foleys C v. Anchor B, 7.30 p.m.

Wednesday, July 10 — Deise Bar v. Radleys A, 6.15 p.m.; Village Inn B v. P. Foleys D, 7.30 p.m.

A meeting will be held at Scouts Den, Abbeyside on Friday, July 12, at 7.30 p.m., to decide what teams to put in the leagues for the coming season. Turnout will decide the level of participation. All junior and youth players please attend.

Tigh An Cheoil Are Carling Darts Champions 1991

Tigh An Cheoil travelled to the Dungarvan United Club on Friday night last to compete with 3 Shandon Arms teams in the finals of the Carling Fours Competition. As league champions, Shandon Arms were expected to take control of these games from the start, but a determined Tigh An Cheoil team had other ideas.

Playing brilliantly and consistently, they totally outclassed the opposition to win the semi-final by 4-0, a result which shocked the large attendance and stunned the opposition.

The scene was then set for a great final with favourites Shandon Arms determined to reverse the result of their semi-final defeat. Tigh An Cheoil won the opening game of 1001 to give them a 1-0 lead and subsequent results saw the scores at 1-1, 2-1, to Tigh, 2-2, 3-2 to Tigh, and after an exciting last game Tigh An Cheoil won by 4-2.

The winners were represented by Sean O Conduin who scored the only 180 of the evening. Seamus O Droma who turned the first 1001 game around with a 125 score when his team were under pressure, Martin Crotty who scored consistently and in one game was on double 16 after after 15 darts, thus earning his name The Ice-Man. The fourth member of the team was Gerry Tobin whose cool attitude controlled the team at all times, thus ensuring a great victory for Tigh An Cheoil.

What amazed the large attendance was the determination, concentration and control of the four Tigh An Cheoil players who totally deserved their victory. After the game, their captain Sean O Conduin was presented with the trophy and spoke in both Irish and English to the delight of the attendance.

SOCCER SCENE

UNDER-11 T.S.B. CUP FINAL

Blues Take Cup In Thriller

DUNGARVAN 4 TRAMORE 3

DUNGARVAN UNITED U-11 SIDE — Seen above in jubilant mood after their stirring victory. Also included is Liam Simms (mentor).

Over the years United have won many league and cup trophies, but none were won with so much heart and determination as was shown by our U/11 team in Ozier Park on Saturday morning last. Picture the scene, 2 mins. into the game as flying winger Alan Harty outstripped the Tramore defence only to see his shot hit the post and bounce back into play, Tramore worked the ball up field and we were one down with less than 4 minutes gone. The young Blues started the game very nervously, but if anything, the goal seemed to have a settling affect on the team and they started to play the kind of football they are capable of. After 15 minutes play they got back on level terms, when after a succession of corners, Kevin Walsh fired home a great goal. Half-time 1-1.

If Tramore got the early break in the first half, it was the Blues turn at the start of the second half when Vincent Sullivan got the ball 20 yards out, went past his man and planted the ball in the net. The Blues were well on top now and it took some great defending by Tramore to stop us scoring again. With less than 5 minutes to go Tramore got the equaliser and so the game went into extra time.

It was now we saw the best of this Dungarvan team and it took 3 great saves from the Tramore keeper to keep his side in the game, but he could do nothing about our third goal when Alan Harty scored with a powerful shot. Once again Tramore came back and scored their third after a goalmouth scramble. Dungarvan were not to be denied however, and with time almost up Alan Harty went on a solo run and beat man after man before scoring a brilliant individual goal.

After the game and amidst great excitement captain Kevin Walsh received the cup from Mr. Eddie Kiely, President of the Schoolboy League. The players of both teams would like to thank John Ryan of J.R.'s, O'Connell St. for the chips and burgers after the game. Panel— M. Power, D. Kelleher, P. Foley, C. Hayes, K. Whelan, D. Keating, K. Walsh, B. Crotty, O. Morrissey, V. Sullivan, A. Harty, W. Duggan, D. Tutty.

Dungarvan United A.F.C. Notes

GILLINGHAM
Sunday, 28 July will be another red letter day in the history of Dungarvan United, when Gillingham will become the first English League team to play in Kilrush Park. Gillingham, who will be on a tour of Ireland as part of their pre season training, will play Waterford United, and it is indeed a great honour for us to be chosen as the venue for this prestigious game. The Board of Directors of Waterford United will be meeting with our management committee shortly to put the final touches to what should be a great night for football in the area. We will have more details of the game in next week's notes.

AWARDS
Our schoolboy Players of the Year Awards were announced at a packed disco in the clubhouse on Friday night last. The excitement was at fever pitch when chairman 'Dixie' Deegan took the stage to make the presentations. The first award was for U/11 and the winner was ace goal scorer Vincent Sullivan; U/12 Player of the Year went to Mark Coles; Tommy Butler got the U/13 award, while Mark Hyslop and Richard Finnegan got the U/14 and U/15 respectively. We would like to thank all our sponsors for making the night such a success, especially James Ducey and Colm and Linda Nagle.

U/15 CUP FINAL
Dungarvan 1 Southend 2
The report of the U/15 game 1 will leave to the colourful pen of my colleague (published elsewhere on this page), suffice to say well done on a great performance, even though we did not pick up the silverware, we were by far the better team on the day.

CARDS
Winners of the cards on Saturday night last were Patsy and Hanna Foley.

YANKEE DOODLE
7 and 89 were the lucky numbers in the Yankee Doodle on Sunday night last. Nicola and Alan Shiel, Springfield were the winners of £100.

FIXTURES

T.S.B. U-15 CUP FINAL

Unlucky Blues Go Down In Cup Final

DUNGARVAN 1 SOUTHEND 2

In the under-15 cup final in Ozier Park on Saturday morning, Dungarvan lost to city side Southend by the odd goal in three. A goal in the 77th minute by substitute McCarthy saw Southend deny the Blues for the second year in succession.

Barry Cliffe gave the Blues the lead after ten minutes when he dispossessed the goalkeeper and tapped the ball into the empty net. Southend equalised in the 35th minute from a free kick 25 yards out. So, at half time the sides were level at one each.

The second half saw the Blues dominate for long spells and they missed several chances of going ahead, but they could not put away the chances and Southend grabbed a late winner to take the cup.

U-15 T.S.B. LEAGUE
Southend 0

These two sides clashed again on Monday night in the league and after a great game of football Dungarvan put the disappointment of the cup defeat behind them and came out deserved winners by one goal to nil.

The Blues played with the wind in the first half and dominated the game. They created plenty of chances and forced numerous corners and free kicks. Midway through the half Conor Murphy scored the all-important goal after a great run.

The Blues were against the breeze in the second half playing into the country goal and defended stoutly. Dungarvan created chances and Brian Elstead should have put the Blues further ahead. Southend had the ball in the net but it was disallowed for a foul on the goalkeeper. The visitors had a free kick go inches over the crossbar and so ended one of the most exciting and keenly contested games seen at the Kilrush venue this season.

On this Thursday evening, July 11, this under-15 side play their last league game at home to Bohs. A win here will see the Blues take the league title. Kick-off is at 7 p.m. and a big home support would be appreciated.

Also on Saturday morning our u-15s play Southend again in the Barrett Cup tournament in Johnville, to bring what has been a long season to a close. Kick-off 10.30 a.m. Bus leaves clubhouse at 9.30 a.m.

Dungarvan — M. Cummins, M. Hyslop, D. Wall, M. Cowming, R. Finnegan, T. Kiely, J. Hyslop, C. Murphy, A. Landers, B. Elstead, B. Cliffe. Res. — T. Butler, C. Walsh, T. Whelan, M. French, D. Walsh.

CAMOGIE NEWS

Thrilling Fare At Tramore

Gaultier 3-2 Ardkeen 1-4

Gaultier and Ardkeen have given us many a great game down the years but perhaps none will surpass this exciting semi-final played at Tramore on Saturday evening last.

This was fast, hard and fair, with each team showing a great respect for the other, with the result in doubt right up to the final whistle.

Only a point separated the sides at the interval but midway through the second half came the score which proved the vital one when Kathleen Duffin goaled for Gaultier. Shortly after Claire Kelly had another goal and Gaultier were on their way to a fine victory.

Ardkeen — Niamh Hayes, Margaret Quinn, Helen Davis, Sheila O'Donoghue, Cleona Pinkerd, Martha Butler, Gene Coughlan, Mary Lonergan, Deirdre Byrne, Thelma O'Donnell, Caroline Larkin, Anne Kiely. Subs. — Mary Quinlan, Joanne Dooley, Kay Brophy, Sinead Bowe, June Phelan, Brid Hayes, Joan Kiely, Alison, Sullivan.

Gaultier — Lillian O'Sullivan, Josie Barry, Helen Upton, Gale O'Sullivan, Geraldine Kennedy, Sinead O'Sullivan, Siobhan Coghlan, Sharon McMahon, Ashling O'Sullivan, Kathleen Duffin, Claire Kelly, Catherine Whitty. Subs. — Bernie Fitzgerald, Jackie Hutchinson, Clara O'Sullivan, Esther Murphy, Rose O'Keeffe.

Lismore Come Good

LISMORE 2-5 BUTLERSTOWN 1-4

This second semi-final played at Abbeyside on Sunday last had everything: brilliant camogie, great scores and some magnificent individual performances on both sides. Make no mistake about it, this certainly surpassed anything we saw in the Tramore game the previous evening and certain it is, Lismore are back and will take some stopping in the final.

The game itself, as already stated, was a great advertisement for Waterford camogie — fast, skilful and very, very exciting stuff.

Two movements lifted Lismore on Sunday — Orla Flynn's goals and a most daring but sheer brilliant run by full back Catriona Caples. Spirit like this wins games and Lismore won.

The teams were level at 1-3 each at half time and Orla Flynn's 1-2 in the second half made the issue safe for Lismore. Lismore will forever owe Orla Flynn for this one, as, scores apart, she was always in the thick of things. Ber Keefe in goal, Catriona Caples, Anne Marie Gorman, Susan McCarthy, Patricia McCarthy and Jackie Murphy were others to impress.

Butlerstown — Orla Brady, Linda Bennett, E. O'Connor, Trudy Collins, Pam Murphy, Elaine Mahoney, N. McMahon, Louise Mathews, S. Callaghan, Ruth Mathews.

Sylvia Farr, Fiona Murphy. Subs — Anne Murphy, S. Byrne, A. Grant.

Lismore — B. Keefe, C. Caples, E. Daly, A. M. O'Gorman, M. Kearney, J. Murphy, O. Flynn, S. McCarthy, P. McCarthy, C. Keane, M. Murphy. Subs — Ger Barry for S. McCarthy, S. O'Gorman for C. Ahearne.

Notai C.L.G. An tSean Phobail

The results of the progressive 45 drive in the Marine Bar last Wednesday night were, on 10 games, Paddy Tobin and M. Toibin; 2nd on 9 games, M. O'Grady and M. Cummins, J. Fitzgerald and G. Scanlan. The jackpot is £120 on 13 games.

Next Tuesday evening, July 16, we play Clashmore in the Terry Cup. This is the first game of the tournament. We hope to field a strong team for this game but we have a lot of injuries.

The club would like to wish the best of luck to John Walsh who broke a bone in his leg in the last game. We hope to see John back again soon.

Two ladies got on the intermediate under-16 football team last week — Leah Murphy who played mid-field and Jacqueline Young who was a sub. Well done, girls.

Congratulations to our star centre half back, Tomas Mahoney who passed his final exams with honours.

Tomas is now qualified as A.B.,E.El., and will take up his position with the E.S.B. in Dublin in September. Best of luck for the future, Tomas. — Micheal Toibin, PRO.

STRADBALLY G.A.A. NOTES

HISTORIC VICTORY

Our senior footballers recorded a historic victory over Clashmore in the championship last weekend on the score of 0-15 to 1-5 in Stradbally. Historic in that it was the first time our senior side played on home soil and it will be nice to remember it in the years ahead.

Even though we had seven points to spare at the finish, it was certainly no championship winning display and it took our two subs Oliver Costelloe and the injured Pat Curran to bring the Reds safely through this game, but it was nice to wake up on Sunday morning with four points on the table. But we have an awful lot of hard work to do to even think of qualifying for the knock-out stages. We have the time for the next three weeks - so players it's all up to yourselves - let's all give it a go together.

INJURIES PILE UP

Our injury list seems to be piling up of late with David Kirwan and James Keane being injured last week plus Pat Curran and Paul Mullanny not yet fit - so we hope all will come right before we play the Nire.

MINOR HURLERS v. NAOMH BRID

On Wednesday evening next 17 July, our minor hurlers play Naomh Brid in the championship in Colligan at 7.30 p.m. This is a game we can win and which would keep us in championship contention so let's give our young players some encouragement.

SPEEDY RECOVERY

The club wishes a speedy recovery to Paddy Kiely who is at present in hospital. We hope he will soon be out.

U-16 HURLERS IN ACTION

Our under 16 hurlers are now in action with their championship games and we will have a full report of this weeks game later.

CONGRATULATIONS TO VICE CHAIRMAN

Congratulations to our Vice-Chairman Tom Cunningham on being elected to Waterford Co. Council in the recent elections.

EXCELLENT ARRANGEMENTS

The club can feel proud of the excellent arrangements last weekend for the two games. The pitch was beautifully laid. Many thanks to all who helped in anyway doing the various jobs - to Tom Cunningham for the use of his field for the car park, to the Gardai for their help and to everybody who helped in any way over the weekend.

S.F. v. NIRE

Our next crucial senior football championship game v. Nire takes place on Friday 26 July in Dungarvan at 7.30 p.m. With the Nire unbeaten in three championship games one can see why they are ahead of our group - and must be warm favourites to continue their winning ways.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING

Our intermediate hurlers play Ballydurn on Sunday week 21 July in Kilmac' at 3 p.m. in the last game of the championship.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Brickeys Qualify For Semi Final

Brickeys 2-12 Affane 0-13

This was the final of the losers group and the result saw Brickeys qualify for the semi-final of the championship proper in which Shamrocks, Ardmore and Sliabh gCua are also involved.

It was one of the best games played in this knock-out championship and even though there was a five points gap at the finish, the result was in doubt right up to the very end as Affane battled gallantly to get on terms against a side who had shown improvement since their previous match. With a total of 27 flags raised during this exciting hour's play, scores came regularly and rapidly as play moved from one end of the field to the other. A colleague summed up the game when commenting that 'this would have made a great final'.

A Jim McGrath goal from a free in the 3rd minute caught Affane on the hop but two minutes later they settled again when Frank McCarthy pointed a free. Points by Ray Flynn and Noel O'Connor 0-2 left it 1-2 to 0-2 after 15 mins. P. J. Veale had two points and Frank McCarthy another to make things level in the 20th minute. Gerry McGrath sent Brickeys in front with a point and the same player had another four minutes later. After this a P. J. Veale point was negated by a 30th min. score by Noel O'Connor to leave it 1-5 to 0-6 at the break.

TEAMS LEVEL

Points by Donna Cummins and Ray Flynn for Affane brought the teams level within minutes of the restart. Then points by Noel O'Connor and Willie Sheehan made it 1-8 to 0-8 before a Gerry McGrath minor put the Brickeys four in front in the 34th min. McGrath had another before Affane hit back with points by Ray Flynn (2) and Frank McCarthy to narrow the gap to 2 points. Gerry McGrath and Noel

[by "COMMENTATOR"]

O'Connor restored the Brickeys' four points lead before substitute Jim Mason and Donna Cummins pointed in the 56th and 57 minutes to leave just two points separating the teams. Then on the stroke of time, a Gerry McGrath goal put the issue beyond doubt.

Brickeys— B. Collins, A. Spratt, T. Shanley, M. McCarthy, W. Halpin, P. Ryan, E. Martin, J. McGrath, T. Halpin, W. Sheehan, N. O'Connor, T. Lennon, D.

The Lismore venue was in excellent shape for the game.

Dungarvan G.A.A. Notes

SENIORS WIN AGAIN

Our senior footballers had a marvelous win over old rivals, Kilrossanty at Stradbally on Sat. evening last. As we said last week, this was a most important game for us and we responded in a most positive manner. We took the game to our opponents from the very start and never allowed them to settle.

Our backs were in control right through the game and the scoreline, 0-18 to 0-6, tells the story of our midfield and forwards.

Still, there's a lot of football to be played yet in this championship and our remaining games against, Faha, Tramore and Rathgormack respectively, will have to be approached in a serious manner if we are to make the 'knock-out' stages of the championship.

JUNIORS RUN CONTINUES

At Bushy Park last Thursday evening, our Junior footballers scored a fine win over Clashmore and they now meet Stradbally in the section final. Behind at the break, we really got on top in the second half and were worthy winners at the end. Stradbally looked good in their win over Kilrossanty and they must be favourites for the final but if we get our act going - well who knows!

HURLING THIS WEEKEND

This Sat. evening, at Kilmacthomas, our senior hurlers play Clonea in the Senior Hurling Championship. Because of our involvement in the football championship, preparation for this game has not been easy, while injuries have not helped our cause either. Still we have the hurling ability to win here so let's get out there and do it.

MINOR HURLING

On Friday evening we travel to Cappoquin where we play old rivals, Lismore, in the semi-final of the Minor "A" Hurling Championship. Past meetings between the sides have always been close and Friday's encounter should be the same.

BINGO

Another huge crowd turned up for our Super Bingo on Friday night last at the Friary Hall. The Super Prize was divided by May Donnelly and Mrs. Dec Mulcahy. Our old friend, Mary O'Donnell, went "through the card" on the "quicker game" and won herself £100. Nice to see Margaret Keohane back with us again after her recent illness.

TOMAS AND MARIE

Congratulations to club member, Tomas Curran and his bride, Marie, on their recent wedding. Tomas has been one of our most loyal players over the past number of years and only injury prevents him from "toggling out" at present.

Again, congrats to the happy couple and we wish both many years of wedded bliss.

MUNSTER FINAL

Many club members travelled to Cork on Sunday last for the Hurling Final and what a game was enjoyed by all. Already the hunt is on for tickets for the re-play which once again will be hard to come by. Good luck to ye lads - I hope ye win it out -!

GET WELL

The club extends its good wishes to Teresa Sheehan who is "out of bounds" at present. We hope to see you back on your feet again soon Teresa.

ABBEYSIDE/BALLINACOURTY G.A.A. NOTES

FOOTBALLERS OUT OF LUCK

Just as in the Nire game, only a score separated ourselves and St. Saviours on Sat. evening last, when the city side pipped us at the post by 1-13 to 2-7.

Going into the game, we lost the services of Ian Kiely and Bernard Gorman but the lads put in a very determined and gritty performance with a number of missed chances proving costly at the end of the hour.

BUSY EVENING

The club had an extraordinarily busy evening on Monday week last when we fielded 4 teams. The Junior footballers were in championship action against Stradbally, going down by 1-11 to 1-5 after a tremendous fight back in the last quarter.

The U/12 hurlers were the heroes of the evening defeating rivals Dungarvan to qualify for the divisional final.

The intermediate and U/16 hurlers rounded off the quartet by playing useful challenges against Lismore and St. Patricks.

SAVIOURS AGAIN

On Sat. evening next we get a chance to make up for the football disappointment when we meet St. Saviours in the 3rd round of the Co. I.H.C. at Walsh Park.

U/12 HURLING

After three rounds of our U/12 Parish League for the Danny Lenihan Cup. The league table is as follows:— Team Capt. A - R. Clyffe - 0, B - P. Burke - 4, C - J. P. Keohan - 6, D - J. Burns - 4, E - J. Phelan - 0, F - P. Landy - 4.

Next Sat 13th will see our hurling U/12A team travel in Youghal to compete in their annual nine-a-side tournament.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is extended to Mathew Hogan and family on the death of his father Mathew Hogan (Snr), Clonea, which occurred last week. Mr. Hogan was a regular at many of our games while Mathew has served many positions in the club, and is ever present at all club activities.

FIRST MUNSTER FINAL

Club chairman Pat Moore refereed his first Munster hurling final when he was in charge of the special interdivisional decider. One of the busiest referees around Pat handled local championship games on Thursday and Saturday evening also.

WEEK-END FIXTURES

Exciting Programme Listed In Our Busiest Week-end Of The Season

By next Sunday evening very many of our clubs will know their destiny as far as going places in the championships are concerned and others will find that they are going nowhere for yet another season. The programme marks the resumption of the senior and intermediate hurling championships and the commencement of the minor competitions. Several attractive junior hurling ties are also listed.

WATERFORD V. CORK

This is the under-21 hurling Munster semi-final and as it will be played on tonight (Wednesday) and many people will not read us until Thursday. I wrote about the game last week. Many of our hurling supporters believe that the team to represent us is the best that we have put out in a very long time and despite the record of our opponents and the home venue advantage for Cork, that we are in the game with a chance. With all Cork now in the grip of hurling mania, they will have huge support in Pairc Uí Caoimh to-night, so hopefully, we too, will be strong in support of our team and give them the encouragement they deserve in facing such a mighty challenge.

Waterford team:
Ray Barry (Passage)
Owen Dunphy (De La Salle), Nial Warren (Ballygunner), Derek Keane (Portlaw)
Johnnie Walsh (De La Salle), Fergal Hartley (Ballygunner), Brian Greene (Mount Sion)

TALLOW V. BALLYGUNNER

This is the opener at the Fraher Field on Sunday and I have no doubt but that it will be a cracker of a match between two unbeaten teams in the championship. Tallow with six points have beaten De La Salle, Clonea and Dungarvan, while the 'Gunners have beaten Dungarvan and De La Salle. Both sides were probably at their best in their respective matches against De La Salle.

For both teams their toughest assignments are to come and that makes this all the more important to win as they now find themselves vying with two other clubs for the two places on offer in the group final. Ballygunner will be slight favourites and I have heard that they are pretty confident of levelling with Tallow on the points table. With players like Stephen Frampton, Fergal Hartley, Anthony Qualter, Billy O'Sullivan, Nial Warren, Ray Whitty, Ciaran Cantwell, etc., included on their side one can understand why they are strongly fancied.

Tallow played very well against De La Salle which was their only real test, but they will need to show marked improvement here to beat the fancied Eastern team. They will depend on the skill and fitness of Timmy Sheehan, Johnnie and Mark Geary, Jim O'Donoghue, Colum Cunningham, Paul, Connie, Mickey and Stephen Curley, Dermot Henley, Eamon Power, Pat and Martin Murphy, Tom McCarthy and company to see them safe before they meet Mount Sion in their final game.

Tallow might get by, but my vote goes to Ballygunner.

MOUNT SION V. BALLYDUFF

A defeat for Ballyduff here would leave them with a problem on their hands in trying to get back into contention for a place in the knockout stages. Their surprise defeat by Clonea was a set back and they justifiably feel that they were not very impressive against Dungarvan, even though winning by seven points. They will field a more experienced club championship team than Mount Sion, many of whose team are young players, and in Paudie Prendergast, Liam Power, Seamus Daly, Seamie Daly, Gerome and John Quirke, Maurice Geary, John Casey, Richie Walsh, Eugene Flynn, Billy Tobin, etc., etc., they may feel capable of overpowering their city rivals.

This won't be easy and the way Mount Sion are training and playing this year, it won't be easy for any other team either. Shane Ahearne, Pat Ryan, Brian Greene, Paraigh Fanning, Tony Brown, Ger Fitzpatrick, Peter Walsh are among the many outstanding hurlers gracing the monastery team at the moment and they will rely on their skill and fitness to cross this barrier between them and a reasonably sure place in the semi-finals.

On form it looks to be Mount Sion to complete an Eastern double on Sunday.

LISMORE V. FOURMILEWATER

Fourmilewater surprised Dunhill when giving a very spirited display in their second round tie last month, but on present form it would be stretching the imagination a bit far to give them anything like an even chance of beating Lismore who have had wins against Portlaw and Passage, as well as Dunhill.

Lismore are on course for a place at the finish and if this is interrupted here at Cappoquin on Sunday, it will be a mighty shock, even though Fourmile (alias the Nire) have a few very good hurlers.

Lismore to win this one.

DUNHILL V. PORTLAW

Portlaw will be attempting to win their first championship game in the present championship, but it really won't matter which side wins here as both are well out of the running. Portlaw might have the measure of Dunhill. It will be their last chance to avoid relegation at the bottom of the group.

PASSAGE V. ROANMORE

This will be the biggest test so far for the county champions who have yet to produce the kind of form which won them the title last year. Passage have an eager and very skilful side. They performed very well against Lismore and with some improvement could surprise the champs.

DUNGARVAN V. CLONEA

If they can repeat their good form against Ballygunner, Dungarvan will have a chance of taking their first points. Clonea played well when beating Ballyduff, but that was a once-off result and I don't expect to see them overcome Dungarvan who have loads of hurling potential, if they get it all together.

for Mollerans (1-13 to 2-6) in the first round and then lost very narrowly to Colligan in a splendid game of hurling. They are certainly a very improved team, but I have a feeling that they might have to wait a while longer before beating a side like Cappoquin who carry a lot of experience back from the upper crust where they played for very many years without success.

A good game, with Cappoquin the likely winners.

Shamrocks v. Colligan — A very difficult game to figure out and a result in favour of either side will surprise no one. Shamrocks are unbeaten and played great stuff against St. Mollerans and playing the same brand of hurling here they will have a good chance of beating the Jimmy Beresford led Colligan.

Ballydurn v. Erin's Own — Ballydurn have experienced problems in trying to get all their players together since winning the junior title last year. However their opponents, Erin's Own are also faring badly and with anything like a full side, Ballydurn could be in with a chance of taking their first intermediate points here.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING

The fourth round of the intermediate hurling championships will produce some hectic hurling. So closely are some of the pairings matches that it is difficult to predict the outcomes.

Abbeyside v. St. Saviours — These are now the two fancied teams in this group and both are unbeaten so far. Abbeyside are a match in arrears, but have beaten Stradbally and Ballydurn. So have St. Saviours and they have accounted for Erin's Own as well and this was the win which marked them out as a very good side and with a chance of taking this title.

Abbeyside will be without Ian Kiely who is off for two weeks and he will be a big loss. Abbeyside still might do it.

Cappoquin v. St. Marys — St. Marys showed very good form when accounting

That Junior All-Ireland

While thousands of Waterford people were glued to the telly on Saturday watching the end of the Meath/Dublin saga, quite a number had their ears cocked for a whisper about the junior football All-Ireland which has been played as a curtain-raiser. Kerry defeated Meath by just two points in what was described as a splendid junior final. Only eight days before this final, Kerry mentors were the first to admit that they were 'blessed' to have beaten Waterford (also by 2 points) here in Dungarvan. The sad point is that had we beaten Kerry as we should have we would likely have taken the All-Ireland junior title and what a boost that would have been for Waterford. Maybe there is something to be learned from this.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

A New Record

As will be seen from our fixtures programme, an all-time record will be set up on this weekend when a total of 24 championship matches will be played. The list is for the Western and County programme and does not include a very big number of Eastern Board fixtures. The total for the county is 37 games and this will have 74 teams in action. Without substitutions, a total of 1,110 players will field out from Thursday to Sunday.

National League Dates

The start up dates for the Royal Liver National Hurling and Football leagues have been officially announced as follows. Sunday October 20 N/H/L/, Sunday October 27 N/F/L. If our club championships run on time, these dates will suit us admirably.

The Munster Final

When I wrote last week that the Munster Final might end in a draw and that people who had been disappointed in their application for tickets, might catch them on the rebound, I was not making an official statement. I write this because minutes after the game at Pairc Ui Caoimh ended I got a phone call from a person who said he was 'booking two tickets for the replay'. This is an opportunity for me to make it clear that I do not issue tickets and will not be so doing for the replay at Thurles on Saturday week. Applications should be made to the Board officers. The replay is certain to attract another massive crowd as it will be an all-ticket affair. Hopefully this county will get a bigger allocation.

A big sigh of relief was breathed here in Waterford after the official announcement on Sunday evening, that the replay would take place on Saturday week, as earlier it was stated on T/V that it would go ahead on next Sunday and in which case it would ruin our full fixtures programme.

The Top Five

The league table is shown elsewhere, but the reality of the situation now in the senior football is that only five teams matter. Dungarvan and Kilrossanty will come through in group A, and the three for the two places in group B are Stradbally, the Nire and St. Saviours. If the Nire could manage to reach their full potential, there would be little doubt about their reaching yet another county final, but right now the odds against having the same county final pairings as last year - Dungarvan/Stradbally are beginning to shorten. The county final is due to be played in Dungarvan this year and the date set is Sunday October 13th.

JUNIOR GAMES

The junior hurling championships in both the A and B grades also resume on Sunday and a number will be exciting contests as this championship is still very much open.

At Dungarvan on Sunday evening, An Rinn play Geraldines and here the Gaeltacht team will be strongly fancied as will Clashmore in their game against Ballinameela at Cappoquin on Sunday afternoon.

Kilgobinet certainly won't find it easy to overcome Ballysaggart in the evening game at Cappoquin and Ardmore will have their hands full in trying to beat the vastly improved Kilrossanty at Abbeyside. A second game at Abbeyside will take place in the evening when Eire Og play the more fancied Modeligo. At Lismore on Sunday it will be close between Tourin and Melleray. The result may favour Tourin.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Brilliant Dungarvan Outclass Kilrossanty

Dungarvan 0-18 Kilrossanty 0-6

County champions Dungarvan were at their brilliant best and gave a superb display of football in this one-sided and disappointing tie against a Kilrossanty side who were outclassed almost from the start.

A lot had been expected of this game but the clash of the giants became something of a non-event when Dungarvan really "came alight" in the second half and sent over scores from many angles and added a further eleven points to their halftime score of seven points to two scores for Kilrossanty.

The Comeragh team had to wait until the three-quarter stage before getting their first score from play and by the all six Dungarvan forwards had scored.

On the basis of this display it would be difficult to imagine any team beating Dungarvan. If there is another team as good as them, they have yet to expose themselves.

Nothing went right for Kilrossanty in the game and there will be questions asked about their inexplicable display. They are going to end up with ten points as they will beat Tramore and Faha in their final two matches and are guaranteed a place in the semi-finals. but I doubt if this factor would have lessened their desire to beat Dungarvan, who will also have Faha and Tramore as their final two opponents.

Dungarvan — D. O'Connor, D. Dec, D. Donnelly, P.

Queally, B. Lyons, E. Burke, M. Sheehan, D. Burke, T. Hamilton, D. Callaghan, D. Lyons, P. Ferncombe, D. McGrath, J. J. Ferncombe, G. Beresford.

Kilrossanty — D. Mulhearn, E. Flynn, P. Keating, T. Pender, B. Whelan, M. Fitzgerald, P. Hayes, T. Behan, W. Power, B. Kirwan, R. Power, N. Power, N. Connors, P. White, J. Maher.

UNLUCKY 'COURTY LOSE OUT

St. Saviours 1-13 Ballinacourty 1-10

This was Ballinacourty's best performance this year, but it was also their most disappointing because it was a match that they looked to have all wrapped up when leading by four points in the 45th minute and in complete control.

Before they reached this point they had a succession of near misses from frees and after Pat Walsh put them 4 up in the 45th minute they missed a couple of close in frees, and had the city team under severe pressure. Amazingly they did not score again in the game and St. Saviours came back to notch the next five scores which included a 58th minute goal which came from a melee around the square. To their credit, Saviours never panicked, even when the game looked beyond them and they finished the better team. Ballinacourty needed to win this one, but their chances did not look good when forced to field without Ian Kiely who was sent off in an inter-firms game earlier in the week and Bernard O'Gorman who is injured. It will be little consolation to Ballinacourty that they played some very good football and showed tremendous grit against a bigger team, as they are now out of the running for a place in the closing stages of the championship. St. Saviours with only one defeat are in with a chance of making it to the k/o stages, but will have to face very stiff opposition when the play Stradbally and the Nire in their final two matches.

Then points by Twomey and Corcoran for Saviours were followed by similar scores from Reynolds and Mulligan for Ballinacourty to leave it 0-8 to 1-4 in favour of the visitors at halftime.

Aided by a strong breeze Ballinacourty attacked on the turn over, but Saviours were first to score when Corcoran sent over from a distance. 'Courty then came back to take control and after John Mulligan and Jimmy Healy pointed frees Jimmy shot home an opportunist goal to put them three points up in the 39th min. Then followed a succession of Ballinacourty wides that were lost opportunities to put the game beyond the reach of the eventual winners. Pat Walsh pointed to give 'Courty a four points advantage in the 45th minute and following this they had a couple of wides that should have been scores. They were not to score again and points by Keating, Brendan Brophy, Corcoran and Twomey brought Saviours on terms with two minutes remaining. Then came the goal for the winners which was kicked in by Twomey.

St. Saviours— F. Ryan, A. Power, P. Corcoran, P. Thompson, G. McCormack, M. Boyle, M. Corcoran, T. Corcoran, M. O'Brien, L. Quilty, D. Wyse, P. Twomey, M. Keating, L. Daniels, B. Brophy.

Ballinacourty—T. Cahill, J. O'Riordan, L. Shanley, G. Collins, M. O'Riordan, M. Collins, G. Kiely, S. McGrath, M. Reynolds, J. Healy, P. Walsh, J. Mulligan, J. Curran, D. Melody, C. Clancy, Sub J. Shanahan for C. Clancy.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Nire 3-12
Butlerstown 2-7

This was a fast moving game with good scores coming regularly to keep both sets of supporters excited until way into the second half when the Nire asserted themselves and took control of this enjoyable clash.

Tramore 1-9
Faha 1-7

It was even closer than the score suggests, because it was in the closing minutes that Tramore got the goal that won the points and denied the new intermediate champions their first two league/championship points in the senior grade.

Faha were disappointed at the result, but quite pleased with their performance.

Rathgormack 0-12
Gaultier 0-11

This was another close game and a big disappointment for the strongly fancied Gaultier, who have now gone out of contention. Rathgormack are still there with a chance. They are playing their best football for a number of years and in a year or two will be among the strong contenders.

THE PLAY

M. Keating, Tony Corcoran and Pat Twomey had points for Saviours in the 5th, 7th and 9th minutes before Conor Clancy broke through for a well taken goal to level the scores. Twomey and Corcoran had further points before Dermot Melody had Ballinacourty's first point in the 19th min. Mark Reynolds and Gerry McGuire exchanged points to leave it 0-6 to 1-2 in the 23rd min.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Stradbally Leave It Late

Stradbally 0-15 Clashmore 1-5

This seven points winning margin was not as decisive as it appears and it was late enough in the game when Stradbally were able to pull away and get the winning scores. At halftime the sides were level, thanks to a well taken Pat Hynes goal in the 24th minute as Clashmore were revitalised and able to stay level at 1-3 to 0-6 at halftime. It was the introduction of substitutes Pat Curran and Oliver Costello late in the game, that seemed to make the difference in favour of Stradbally, who are now on course for a place in the k/o stage.

Stradbally— K. Heffernan, L. Walsh, C. O'Brien, M. Curran, D. Kirwan, Jas. Keane, F. O'Brien, R. Gough, P. Mullaney, P. Halpin, E. O'Brien, T. Gough, S. Dec, P. Foley, L. O'Brien. Subs on - A. Costello and P. Curran.
