Inaugural V.E.C. Meeting Cancelled Due To Legal Doubts

The inaugural meeting of the County Waterford Vocational Education Committee due to be held in Dungarvan last Friday was cancelled because of fears that the constitution of the Committee might be legally flawed.

The meeting, to elect a Chairman and Vice-chairman, was due to take place at the Vocational Education headquarters in Dungarvan but a brief letter from the C.E.O., Mr. Donal Kelleher informed the members that for legal reasons it had been found necessary to defer the meeting. The letter added that members would be informed in due course when and where the meeting would now be held.

We understand, as exclusively forecast in last week's "Leader", that the decision to defer the meeting pending the receipt of legal advice hinges on the decision of the last County Council meeting in appointing six non-elected members to the Committee, to nominate an unnamed Parents Representative as one of the six.

Under the V.E.C. Act, the County Council is obliged to name its full complement of 14 members appointed to the 16 member committee, the remaining two members are in the nomination of Dungarvan Urban Council. In the event only 13 names were submitted by the County Council which decided to leave the naming of the Parent's Representative to the Parents Councils of the Dungarvan and KilmacThomas Vocational Schools.

It is this latter decision which has given rise to the problem as the C.E.O. believes this could be in contravention of the V.E.C. Act and decided to cancel the meeting pending receipt of legal advice on the position.

Passing Of Revered Pastor, Very Rev. M. Canon Farrell, P.P., Abbeyside, Ballinroad, Garranbane

It is with the utmost regret that we record the death of Very Rev. Michael Canon Farrell, the revered and beloved Pastor of the United Parishes of Abbeyside, Ballinroad and Garranbane, which took place after a rather prolonged illness at the District Hospital, Dungarvan on last Monday morning, July 22. He was aged 80 years.

The late Canon Farrell was born at Grange, Clonmel on February 2, 1911, the son of a Tipperary farmer. He spent his boyhood days at home on the farm and received his early education at Grange N.S. before going on to the CBS in Clonmel where he spent two years before moving to Mount Melleray Seminary where he completed his secondary education. He then entered St. John's College, Waterford in 1927 to pursue his theological studies and was ordained in 1934 by Most Rev. Dr. J. Kinane, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore.

Following his ordination, Fr. Farrell was assigned to the Leeds mission and served for three years in the parish of Beston before returning to Ireland as Curate at New Inn in the Archdiocese of Cashel. He returned to the home diocese when he was appointed Curate at St. Patrick's parish in Waterford City on March 19, 1938. Three years later he was transferred to the parish of Ballybricken and Butlerstown where he was to spend the next 30 years. In the mid-50's while there he directed his energies towards the building of the Holy Family Church which was blessed and dedicated in 1954. Also while in Ballybricken he was assigned as Chaplain to the Mercy Convent a post which brought him much satisfaction.

On June 26, 1971 he was appointed Parish Priest of Abbeyside, Ballinroad and Garranbane and during the ensuing 20 years he worked unsparingly and ceaselessly for the welfare of his flock and the benefit of the parish as a whole. The renovations and reconstructions to the churches and schools as well as the improvements and extensions to the graveyards were all major achievements during his pastorate.

APPOINTED CANON
In 1979 he was appointed to the Cathedral Chapter as Canon by Most Rev. Dr. Michael Russell, Bishop of the Diocese, an honour which he richly deserved for his untiring efforts for the Church he loved and the people he served. He celebrated the golden jubilee of his ordination in 1984. He was a man with a big voice and an equally big heart and his passing now, even in the fulness of years, has been the source of widespread regret throughout the diocese but especially among the people of Abbeyside, Garranbane and Ballinroad who came to love and revere

Annual Mass At St. Declan's Well

A gentle reminder of the Annual Mass at St. Declan's Well, Toor on this Thursday, July 24 at 12 noon. Last year's appeal for a larger attendance following many years of declining crowds, received an excellent response from the public. We hope this year will be as good if not better.

As the weather plays a large part on the attendance, all prayers are for fine weather on the day.

Water Safety Around The Home

Each year drowning accidents occur in or near gardens and farmyards involving children and elderly persons. With a little more care and attention these accidents could be prevented.

The National Safety Council has issued the following guidelines relating to water safety around the home:— Children should be supervised at all times when playing in or near water - very young children can drown in just a few inches of water. Any stream or river which runs through your land should be fenced off if there are children or elderly persons living in the vicinity. A heavy, secure cover should be placed over any well on your premises. Rain barrels and water tanks should be covered with a wire mesh.

Ornamental ponds, slurry pits and holes or drains left after building are hazardous as children could easily step from firm ground into mud or water without recognising the difference and the danger in time. Swimming pools and play pools should be locked securely or fenced off to prevent access when the pool is not under supervision. Parents and persons in charge of children should know how to resuscitate.

Pause For Thought With Fr. Paddy

WIN WITH GOD

The first reading on Sunday next describes a miracle, where there was insufficient food, yet, not only was a great number fed, but there was even some to spare. Elisha's miracle did resemble in miniature the great multiplication as recorded in today's Gospel, but, apart from Jesus being the immediate author, both miracles were triggered off by compassion. Indeed, those who witnessed the multiplication would have remembered what their fathers had said about Elisha, whom they revered as a holy man. However, Elisha's work would have conveyed no more beyond emphasising man's impotence compared to God's power, whereas, St. John does unfold the purpose Jesus had in mind, namely, the Eucharist.

God has blessed you with the faith. You may well consider yourself to be small fry, but if you live and work your one talent, you'll find you'll have a superabundance to give to those who are hungry for God. Parents hold a privileged position in relation to their children. Their example stamps their children for life. Imagine a father failing to feed his children on love of God. Let's say, he dies and makes purgatory. He now knows what it means to lose God. His biggest torment would be, the salvation of his children! I've known parents, who gave their children everything except God. And, whether you believe it or not, life without God is an impossible struggle. It has happened in the past and it is happening today, when God is pushed aside, all restraint goes.

St. Paul almost makes an impassioned plea to the Ephesians to live the Gospel he's delivered to them. Obviously, they'd shown great promise, and so he urges them to maintain the high standard to which they'd been called. He reminds them that through Baptism they have been linked and forged into the Body of Christ by the Holy Spirit. So, he tells them that now you have been raised to a new creation, you have only one kind of life open to you. You should, therefore, let God's love shine through your patience, your gentleness, your generosity, your counsel, your understanding, etc. The Body of Christ, the Church, exists to bring her members to eternal life. It is the one great hope for all her members. Whilst Paul is trying to motivate the Ephesians to live for that end, he makes it clear that they must keep within the bounds of faith. He spells it out that he is talking about the faith as delivered by Christ, and placed in the custody of His Church, and that is why he added, they must be part of the living Body of Christ.

Nowadays, so-called Catholics seem to think they know better than Paul. They think they can pick and choose. This morning, July 13th (as I write this), I heard "someone" on the "Saturday Playback" criticise the Cardinal. I missed most of what was said, but I gathered he felt the Cardinal was unsuited to act as a go-between considering he was unable to smoke the pipe of peace with Fr. Buckley. Clearly, this man does not like the Church. Everyone knows it would be easier to make peace with Dr. Paisley. This gent went on to say, as if it were Gospel, that 90% of the Church were against the Holy Father re. the Church's teaching on the pill and rubber goods. Who told him? Did he pick his figures out of the hat? The Church's mission is to teach holiness. She could never change her role, and she never would. We all know that Christ's teachings can sometimes be hard, but we also know "He has the words of eternal life." And, if the Lord demands sacrifice, He'll provide the helps to cope. Today's readings tell us to trust God.

A SIGN OF THE EUCHARIST

The Gospel tells us, Jesus took the few loaves, offered thanks . . . and gave the vast crowd all they required, and there were 12 hampers filled with leftovers. The crowd, as in the first reading, assumed it was God's goodness, but due to the greatness of this miracle, they were thinking that Jesus was more than an ordinary prophet. They talked and concluded He must be the promised Messiah, the one who'd set them free and make them into a great nation. They were ready to acknowledge Him, and proclaim Him king.

We know from subsequent events that this miracle was a sign of the Eucharist, yet, it also shows the Lord's concern and compassion for thousands stranded and with nothing to eat. If we believe in the Eucharist for what it is, we must understand the duties it places on us of bringing God's love and compassion to those in need. Help and thank God you're able to help, and you'll never want.

Life is never easy. And, we are very human. Be warned. Do not seek help from the world unless you want to be disappointed. You must place your trust in God. He makes life worth living. So, love Him, serve Him and trust Him.

31 Derelict Sites In Dungarvan

According to a report submitted to the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last week there is now a total of 31 derelict sites in the urban area.

The report went on to state under the new Derelict Sites Act, the Council was obliged to identify and compile a register of such sites. Originally 26 sites had been registered as derelict but the total now was 31.

At present the sites were being valued and all owners would be notified of these valuations and of the fact that they would be liable to a levy of 3 per cent of these values from next January unless the sites ceased to be derelict by that date.

The report then added: "At present there appears to be some movement on roughly half a dozen of the registered sites but it is hoped that this will increase considerably when the owners are made aware of the annual levy payable."

Cllr. Mary Dixon referred to some particularly bad sites in the urban area, one old house in Abbeyside which she described as an absolute disgrace and a death trap for children from the nearby housing estate that went playing in and around the place. It was a miracle that no one had so far been seriously injured there, she said.

The Town Clerk, Mr. B. White said that the owner had been notified of the position.

Finally it was agreed that a list of the sites registered as derelict in the urban be supplied to each member of the Council and that they could then recommend others to the Co. Manager which they considered might also be included.

Scoil Na Leanai, An Rinn

The Minister for Education has written to Deputy Brian O'Shea to inform him that she has accepted the tender for the extension at Scoil na Leanai National School, Ring.

Spanish Students On English Summer Course

Two weeks ago a group of Spanish students, aged between twelve and twenty-three, arrived in Dungarvan as has been happening during the last six years. This course is run by Patricia Geoghegan with the aid of four Irish teachers.

We are living with Irish families mainly in Silver-springs, Springfield and Abbeyside. In the morning we attend classes at Abbeyside School and in the afternoon we participate in different activities; on Mondays and Wednesdays we go on short excursions and on Tuesdays and Thursdays we practice basketball, soccer and learn Irish dances at the Sports Centre. On Fridays we go on a day trip to places such as "The National Heritage Park," Waterford and Cork.

At weekends we remain with our host families and become closely integrated with them. During the evenings, a group of Spanish students organise soccer matches against a local team, while others take part in the junior tennis championship. At night time most of the older students go out to local pubs and discos where they meet Irish friends.

This year most of the students who came last year have returned, which proves we thoroughly enjoy our stay in Dungarvan.

Finally, we would like to thank all those who have made our trip possible and help us during this month in Dungarvan. I Gracias! (Thank you) — Jose Manuel Rodrigo agus Isabel Ferrer.

John Hearn International Cycling Race

Looking for something to do for August Weekend — want a great weekend for excitement, spills, thrills? Make it to Carrick-on-Suir for the John Hearn Memorial International Cycling Challenge Cup Race on August 3, 4 and 5.

Yes it looks like Carrick-on-Suir this August Weekend with the John Hearn Memorial, which starts at Dublin on August 3 and makes its way south through the midlands and to the foot of the famous Comeragh Mountains and Slievemanon where on Main Street, Carrick-on-Suir the riders will then complete three laps of a five mile circuit. On the amateur cycling scene this is a very important race for selection for the World Cycling Amateur Championships in Stuttgart in Germany.

Lots of big names on the amateur scene for a number of years with the Powers, including Robert Power, Abbeyside, Stephen Spratt, Abbeyside, the Kimmages, the Dalbys, the Lonergans, will all be competing against top flight international competition from all over Europe, including England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

The following day we have the famous race of truth, the individual time trial starting and finishing at the Square named after the great Sean Kelly, where an attempt is going to be made by the cyclists to break the Irish record for the ten mile time-trial.

That evening, again,

Jimmy Magee and George Hamilton will be doing the commentating as indeed they will for the entire race over the Bank Holiday Weekend for the Criterium International, taking in the two bridges and the Main Street in Carrick-on-Suir for what is always regarded as one of the most popular aspects of International cycle racing. This stage starts and finishes at John Hearn's on the Main Street and proceedings should be getting under way around 6.30 p.m.

The City of Waterford, of which Sean Kelly is a freeman will be hosting the final stage of the John Hearn Memorial where the cavalcade will start high up at Jury's Ardree Hotel in Waterford and will make its way down for the official start by the Mayor of the City at John Hearn's on the Quay, will then roll through the scenic route of Tramore, Annestown, Bonmahon to Dungarvan and then inland high up to the Mahon Falls in the Comeragh Mountains before dropping to Clonmel and then heading east, back to Carrick-on-Suir where again the riders will compete on the Main Street in Carrick three laps of a five mile circuit taking in Arrigan's Boihirin Cllr. P. Power at the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council held last week asked what the position was in regard to the provision of an additional public car park in O'Connell Street.

In reply, the Town Clerk, Mr. B. White said that negotiations concerning the property involved had made great strides for a while but recently there had been a bit of a setback. However discussions in the matter were continuing.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

WOLF PATROL'S HIKE TO TOURANEENA

The patrol met in the Scouts' Den at 5.00 p.m. and headed off to Touraneena for an overnight. We arrived there at 7.00 p.m. and went to 7.30 p.m. Mass. After Mass Mark's elastic (off his bike) got caught in the back wheel and he was very worried about a buckle in it. We then pitched the tent and went down to the village where Paddy was not very welcome as he was shouting about Cork, and caused two men to argue about the match. Later Eamonn and Macky got to know some of the villagers. We got our tea in a chipper. John told the person in charge that the chips were nicer than the chips in town but that there was too much vinegar on them. Eventually when we settled into the tent we had many visitors throughout the night - S. L. Brian, etc. The following morning (Sunday) we set off for home at 9.30 a.m. On the way home Mark had more trouble with his tube as it burst. We arrived back in the Den at 11.00a.m. where we heard the other patrol's stories about their hikes. It was an enjoyable overnight.

PATROL HIKES

As you may have gathered from the Wolf patrol log of their hike to Touraneena the other patrols were also in action by way of practice for annual camp '91. Cossie's Kestrels travelled the hills to Cruachan while Derek's Panthers went to Mahon Falls and Smiley's Tigers travelled to Stradbally. All patrols reported back safely saying bicycles and indeed legs were now well oiled for Curragh Chase.

GUIDES

It's not often we get round to mentioning Guides in these notes. With one thousand Guides presently holding camp "Melleray '91" to mark 80 years of Guiding here in Ireland at Melleray, we must wish them all enjoyable camping.

Mrs. Joan Bartlett has fifty or so Guides on site at Glenshelane and we wish them plenty of sunshine. While this is the first time Guides have camped at Glenshelane all the indications are that it went like the last.

Could our Scouts learn from the Guides? Are they as tough as the Guides? Will we get a chance to find out?

GENERAL

Our workers were in action last week and we now face the winter with a new roof on our committee room, store and office so we are well prepared for the rain. They also found time to do a bit of carpentry at Glenshelane - there is no end to their talents but we do say thanks.

It's T-minus three days and counting. Yes we are off on annual camp to Curragh Chase in Limerick this Sunday. Our gear travels on Saturday and we would like to thank Michael Curran, Hardware for the lorry to transport our vital supplies.

Our canoe trailer is expected back in action this week after a major reconstruction.

Finally, we send congratulations to the composite Bull Patrol made up of scouts from Cappoquin, Touraneena, Stradbally, who won this year's De Burcha Shield held last weekend in the Melleray, Lismore area. —Wolf Scribe.

Ballymacarby Notes

BALLYMACARBRY WATER SCHEME

There was a huge number of people at last Thursday's meeting about the Ballymacarby/Ballyrohan Water Supply. Cllr. Kieran O'Ryan chaired the meeting and also present were Deputy Jackie Fahey, Victor Bowers and Billy Rockett, Portlaw. Cllrs. O'Ryan and Fahey gave a detailed account of their meeting with officials of Waterford County Council.

The entire scheme is being supplied at present from the Curraghateskin supply where the phosphorus in the water is higher and therefore less corrosive than the village borehole. The changeover will be closely monitored in the coming weeks. The slow sand filters have been refurbished. Waterford County Council are taking a very serious view of the difficulties being encountered and are doing all in their power to solve the problem.

Further meetings will be held in due course when the TDs from the Constituency, Noel Davern, Michael Ferris, Sean Tracey and Theresa Ahearn will be invited to attend.

OPEN AIR MASS

Open Air Mass will be celebrated at the Mass Rock at Mounatouke on Saturday next, July 27 and the celebrant will be local priest Rev. Fr. Paddy Hallinane. Mass will start at 2.30 p.m.

So, come along and see where Mass was celebrated in the dark days of penal times. Four-Mile-Water Church choir will be in attendance.

FIFTH YEARS IN CALIFORNIA

Monsignor William Kennedy, Attykit, Rosegreen, Co. Tipperary has spent more than fifty years ministering as a priest in California since he was ordained in St. Patrick's College, Thurles in 1933. He is at present enjoying a well earned rest with his sister Mrs. Mai Devitt, Cashel. He is uncle of well known Gael, Mr. William P. Kennedy, Ard Na Coille, Colligan, Dungarvan.

G.A.A. NEWS

At the Mill Field, Ballymacarby on Saturday evening last in the under-12 hurling championship, Four-Mile-Water defeated St. Patricks, Kilbrien on the score: Four-Mile-Water 4-1, St. Patricks 2-1, in as exciting a game as has been seen at the venue for some time. Referee was Thomas Crotty.

In the senior hurling game at Dungarvan on Saturday evening last, Four-Mile-Water defeated Portlaw on the score 4-9 to 2-11 and assured themselves of staying in senior ranks for 1992.

CLEANING OF CEMETERIES

At present Waterford County Council workers from the district are engaged in cleaning the old cemeteries in the parish — Kilonan, Cillcloggin and Bennetts Church.

NIRE VALLEY GUN CLUB

In the report of the recent annual general meeting of the Nire Valley Gun Club inadvertently omitted was the Treasurer who is Thomas Kelly, Ballymacarby.

MAYOR OF MELLERAY

Congratulations to Mr. Dan O'Rourke, White-House-Quarter, Ballymacarby, on being elected Mayor of Melleray at the Cats Bar on Sunday night last. Dan hails from Ballygalane Upper, Lismore and now carries on a Motor Garage business in Ballymacarby.

LATE MRS. MARGARET POWER

It is our sad duty to record the passing of Mrs. Margaret (Peg) Power (nee Upton), Tickincor, Clonmel, which sad event took place at St. Joseph's Hospital, Clonmel, on Thursday, July 18.

The deceased was a very estimable lady of many charming traits of character whose gentle good humour and obliging nature, mild mannered and unassuming disposition, commanded her to all fortunate to make her acquaintance. Her sons won county honours with Four-Mile-Water and Nire.

Testifying to the esteem in which deceased and her family are held in the district, a representative cortege accompanied her remains when they were removed from the hospital mortuary, Clonmel to Gambonsfield Parish Church on Friday evening. On Saturday morning Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of her gentle soul after which she was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. To her husband and family we tender our sympathy.

LATE MR.

NICHOLAS HOGAN

Widespread and profound sorrow was occasioned by the deeply regretted death which took place on Saturday last at the Regional Hospital, Ardkeen, Waterford of Mr. Nicholas Hogan, Toor, Kilsheelan. A member of an old and respected Co. Waterford family, a thoughtful and helpful neighbour, his warm sense of humour, unassuming courtesy, generosity and kindness to all marked him out as a true Christian. Accordingly all who knew and respected him will deeply and justifiably mourn his demise and long cherish his memory.

That Nicholas will be sadly missed was evidenced at the removal of his remains from Walsh's Funeral Home, Carrick-on-Suir to the Parish Church, Rathgormack when all walks of life were represented in the large concourse of sympathisers indicating the esteem and high regard in which the deceased and his family are held.

On Monday morning following Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul, the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of another large concourse of mourners paying their final respects to a Christian friend. To his wife and family we extend our sympathy.

St. Mary's Parish, Dungarvan

FRIDAY, JULY 26

Feast of St. Joachim and Anne, Parents of Our Blessed Lady.

"Being a parent today brings worries and difficulties, as well as joys and satisfactions. Your children are your treasure. They love you very much, even if they sometimes find it hard to express that love. They look for independence and are reluctant to conform. Sometimes they wish to reject past traditions and even reject their faith. In the family, bridges are meant to be built, not broken, and new expressions of wisdom and truth can be fashioned from the meeting of experience and enquiry".

Pope John Paul II.

Dungarvan Youth Club Notes

LAST FRIDAY NIGHT

Our last club night turned out to be a great laugh. We decided to go on a mystery tour. Brian, our bus driver, was not too sure where we were going. At one stage we ended up in a farmyard in Kilbrien, much to the amusement of the farmer and his wife.

After leaving the farm we headed across the Comeragh Drive and we stopped at the foot of Cruachain. Then to Angela's horror we decided we were going to the top. "Quiver" led the way and was first to reach the summit. Poor Kim was looking for oxygen, while Matty and the rest of us enjoyed the view.

On our way back down the mountain we noticed that Wally was missing, and after a quick search we found him chasing some sheep. When he leaves school he hopes to become a shepherd.

At about 9.30 p.m. we all got back to the bus and Brian headed for Bonmahon. The gang then invaded the local chip shop and Bonnie really enjoyed the visit. It was back home on the bus then when Ambrose entertained everyone with his brilliant singing. Rosie, Jackie and "Scrappy" said they never heard anything like it.

FREDS

Another large crowd this week and everybody enjoyed it. We are all delighted to see Rosaleen back helping out.

BIRTHDAY

Happy birthday to Alan Simms who celebrated his 21st on Sunday last.

PENSMAN Takes You . . . . Behind The SPOTLIGHT

THE DISAPPEARING TOURISTS - A MAJOR FINANCIAL LOSS

Tourists and visiting holidaymakers are, so far, very thin on the ground in County Waterford and from inquiries which we have made, the situation is more or less the same all over the country. A trip around West Waterford during the past week showed the many B & B signs with the additional sign "vacancies", hanging on to all of them.

Originally it was the Gulf War which was being blamed but now the lack of tourists is being more freely attributed to the recession which is still affecting both the U.S. and U.K.

As a result of all this, tourism earnings for 1991 are expected to fall £67 million short of the government target, according to tourist industry estimates. The resulting loss to the exchequer could be as high as £33.5 million.

Under the Programme for National Recovery (P.N.R.) the government set a target of doubling earnings from tourism between 1987 and 1992. In the first three years of the P.N.R. the target was exceeded. Now, however, the Irish Tourist Industry Confederation (I.T.I.C.) has predicted that earnings from tourism this year will fall about £67 million short of the government target of £896 million.

It has also predicted that the number of visitors coming into the country this year will fall almost half a million short of the 3.6 million which was anticipated. A spokesman for the I.T.I.C. said that the lack of U.S. business was a blow as the fall in the number of visitors from the United States could be as high as 25 per cent.

The year 1991 so far has certainly been a year in which the estimates and numbers all seem to have gone wrong where the government has been concerned.

AUGUSTINIAN JUBILARIAN

There was a very large number of family relatives and friends present at the Concelebrated Mass of Thanksgiving which was sung in the John's Lane Augustinian Church in Dublin last week to mark the occasion of the Golden Jubilee of the ordination of Rev. Fr. William Clement Power O.S.A.

Fr. Power was born in Effin, Kilmallock, Co. Limerick and was educated locally and at Mungret College, Limerick before going on to do his theological studies at the Gregorian University, Rome where he was ordained on July 13, 1941.

For six years after his ordination Fr. Power taught in the Augustinian College in Dungarvan before going on mission work in Nigeria where he spent many years. He also served in the U.S.A. where he was Pastor of St. Pius V, Buena Park, California and where another Dungarvan Augustinian, Fr. Michael Brennock O.S.A., is serving at present.

Fr. Power has two other brothers and three sisters who are members of religious orders and between them they have a grand total of 280 years service in the Lord's Vineyard.

DAYS TO TAKE CARE

Although up to the time of writing, the weather for the summer of 1991 has proved a total disaster, it's the time of year when tragic accidents can happen to blight and mar what should be a happy, carefree holiday time.

Inevitably there will again be loss of life but much can be done to prevent it if proper care is taken. Apart altogether from the obvious dangers of bathing in the sea, rivers and lakes, there are many unseen dangers, especially for young children and in some cases for the elderly.

Children should be supervised at all times when playing in or near water — very young children can drown in just a few inches of water. Where they have access to rivers or streams on farms, safety precautions should be a top priority at all times while wells, water tanks, rain barrels and ornamental ponds should also always be securely covered.

Slurry pits are a particularly dangerous area as has already unfortunately been proved this summer and holes and drains can also prove a hazard for the young as well as for the old.

Care should be the operative word for all and if care is taken at all times then lives will be saved and heartbreak and tragedy will be averted.

CONSENSUS SAYS NO

We were rather amazed at the feed back to our piece in last week's column which questioned the appointment of a second traffic (and litter) warden in Dungarvan. The consensus was that such an appointment was not necessary.

One person, a professional driver, pointed out that neither Youghal or Fermoy had wardens, stressing that the latter was on the heavy traffic arterial highway between Cork and Dublin and now for some unfathomable reason, Dungarvan has two. The general opinion is that the town is not big enough to warrant the employment of a second one.

Maybe this accounts for the report to hand which states that for the first time since the Traffic Bye-laws were enacted, parking dockets have been placed on cars parked in Abbey-side. The area of operation has apparently been extended to accommodate the second appointment!

A complaint which has come to us also from more than a few sources was that while one of the wardens is fully attired in his uniform and cap, the other is not so fully attired or capped - the one is clearly identifiable, even from a distance, the other is not. There may be some official reason for this of which we are not aware.

As we understand it, the official position is that the appointment has been made on a temporary basis for the next six months and this will bring us into the new year. It will have to stand until then and the townspeople and whatever few visitors come to the town will have to just grin and bear the situation.

A SIGN OF THE PASSING YEAR

That the year 1991 is fast passing us by was brought home to us one day last week as we walked through one of the principal shopping streets in Dungarvan and spotted a sign in a toy shop window which stated, "Now is the time to join our Christmas Club".

It only seems like yesterday since last Christmas passed us by and here we are already talking about the next one! Time is certainly flying.

The Shoals Of Herrin'

Listening to the radio (BBC Wales) one morning two weeks ago we heard of the great Tall Ships Race that was about to start from Milford Haven in Wales on its first leg to Cork which brought such great excitement and crowds to the City by the Lee all last week.

In connection with the programme a few old sea shanties were played and sung to give atmosphere to it and among these was one which was called "Old Swansea Town" but which had the same air as the ballad we know as "The Holy Ground." It seems that many of these old airs had different versions sung to them to suit the locale of the singers and sailors. Another good old ballad included in the programme was "The Shoals Of Herrin'" which was one of the great favourites made famous in their young days by the Clancy Brothers.

We make this our choice for the ballad corner this week:

With our nets and boats we're farin'
On the wild and wasteful ocean,
It's out there on the deep that we harvest our bread,
As we hunt the bonny shoals of herrin'.

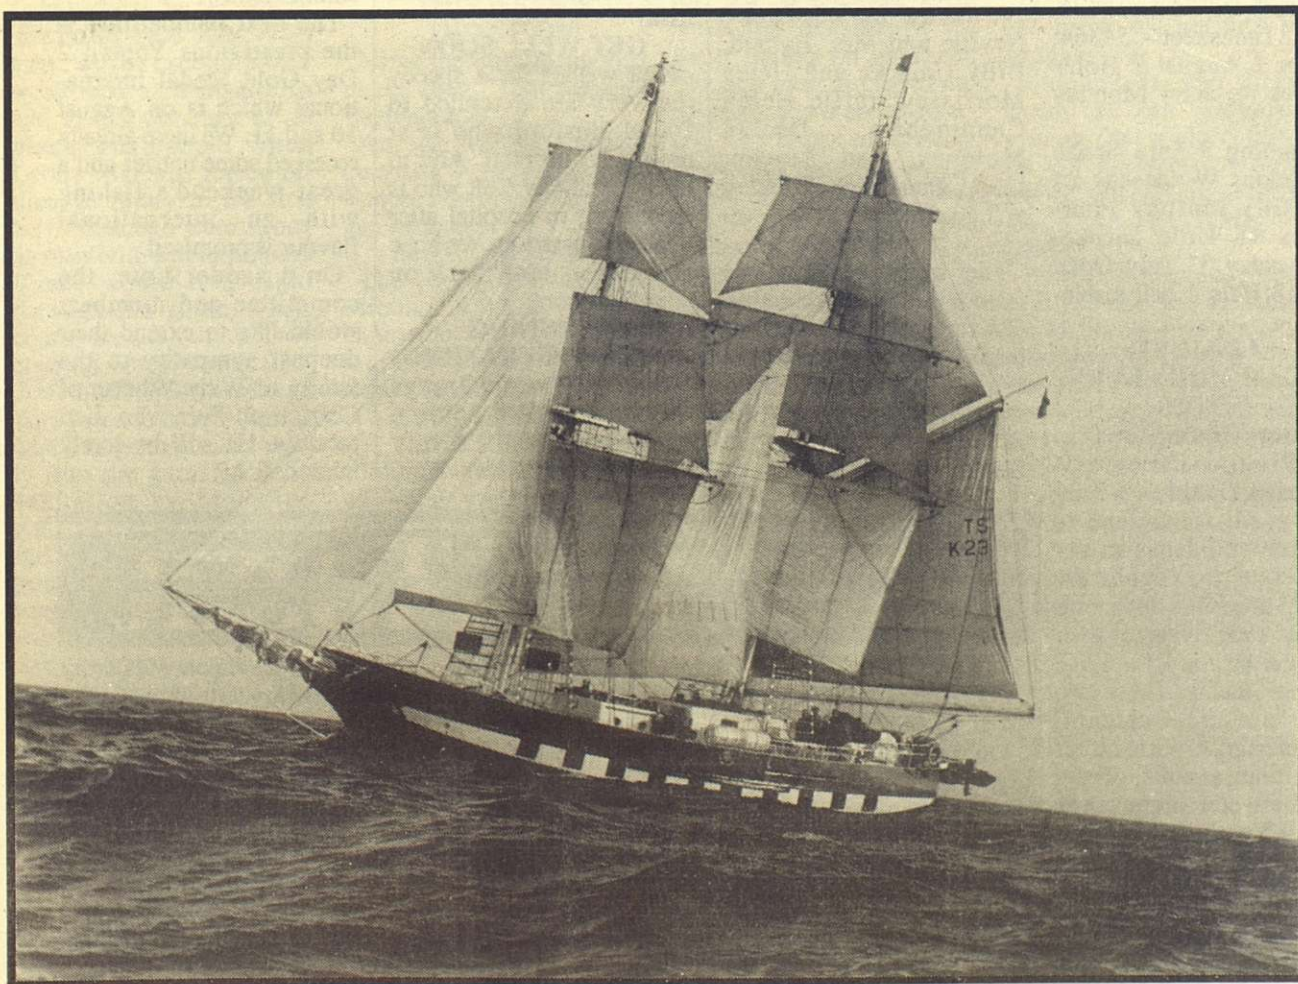

It was on a fair and pleasant day
Out of Yarmouth Harbour I was farin'
As a cabin-boy on a sailin' lugger,
For to hunt the bonny shoals of herrin'.

Now we left our home grounds in the month of June
And for Grannock Shiels we soon were farin',
With a hundred cran of the silver darlin'
That we'd taken from the shoals of herrin'.

Now the work was hard and the hours were long
And the treatment sure it took some bearin',
And I used to sleep standing on my feet,
And I'd dream about the shoals of herrin'.

Now you're up on deck — you're a fisherman
And you're learnin' all about sea farin',
That's your education scraps of navigation,
As you hunt the bonny shoals of herrin'.

In the biting wind and the driving rain
Sure you earn the gear that you are wearin', Sailed ten thousand miles, caught ten thousand fishes,
As we hunt the bonny shoals of herrin'.

LISMORE NOTES

LISMORE TENNIS CLUB NOTES

Another meeting took place last Friday night in Lismore Hotel. Fewer people turned up than at the previous two meetings but it was decided by all present that a committee should be formed as the alternative would be that the courts remain closed.

The officers and committee elected were:- Chairperson N. Twomey; Treasurer G. Daly; Secretary A. McCarthy; Committee M. Cotter, M. Fenton, C. Farrell and T. O'Grady as the G.A.A./Tennis club liaison officer.

The first task of the committee and officers is to sort out the matter of insurance and once cover is obtained the courts will re-open to paid up members.

It has been agreed that the fees will be reduced due to there being so little of the tennis season left. Family membership will be £8. It will be £4 for a single member over 18 and £2 for juniors between the ages of 10 and 18. This will be reviewed at the A.G.M. in March. A key will only be issued to paid up members, for a nominal fee of 50p, as the gate must be kept closed for insurance purposes.

A committee meeting will finalise the insurance this week and it is hoped that once the people interested in playing tennis will pay their membership to any committee member, the courts will be operating again.

Minor Hurling— Our minor hurlers continued their winning sequence with a hard-earned but well-deserved victory over a determined St. Patrick's side at Cappoquin on Wed. evening. Following an early setback, when the opposition goaled from a penalty, the locals, slowly, but surely got back into the game to lead by 2-4 to 1-3 at the break. In the second half both sides enjoyed an even amount of the ball but Lismore made better use of scoring opportunities to add a further 1-2 and run out winners on the score 3-6 to 1-7. Senior Hurling Championship— This week we congratulate our senior hurling panel and mentors who maintained their unbeaten record to date and finished top of their group with maximum points from five games played. Their latest success, and arguably their most impressive in the campaign, was achieved at Fraher Field on Sun. last by virtue of a five point win over arch rivals Roanmore in an entertaining top of the table clash played in ideal conditions. Lismore now await the outcome of the game on Aug. 18th between the leaders in Group B, Mount Sion and Tallow to establish who they meet in the semi-final stages.

LISMORE CAMOGIE CLUB NOTES

Senior Championship Co. Final— Lismore v. Gaultier (Holders) 3.30 p.m.— All roads lead to Tramore on Sunday as our seniors try to regain the county title. Our opponents are our great rivals Gaultier who will be going for 3 in a row on Sunday. These two teams are great championship rivals with never more than a puck of the ball between them (they drew 4-5 each in the league early this year). With Gaultier on top for the last 2 years, they will be strongly fancied on Sunday as many people in the county regard our victory over Butlerstown in the semi-final as being lucky. But lucky or not we are there and we are not going all the way to Tramore just to play a match.

Sunday is the big day and our girls relish big days. It's been 3 long years since we last held the cup so it's death or glory on Sunday. Be there - your voice could make the difference.

A bus for supporters will leave the monument at 2 p.m. for the match. The first 16 names with their £2 fare will get seats.

Personality Contest— Martina Hale launched her campaign last weekend with a visit to Araglen Festival and will be visiting all local areas in the coming weeks in her bid to become Waterford Camogie Personality of the Year 1991. So get your pounds ready.

U/14 training will be on Thursday 25th at 7.30 p.m. in preparation for the festival tournament and on Tuesday 30th at C.B.S. field.

We have just got the draws for the U/18 and U/16 championships. U/18 1st round v. St. Saviours, U/16 1st round v. Butlerstown. So let's get training as these two matches couldn't be tougher. Training for the week of the 29th, Tues. 30th and Thurs. 1st 7.30 p.m., C.B.S.

Also those experienced campaigners who took part in last year's Unisex Hurling Tournament for the festival should start chasing their boots, dusting off the hurleys (and other things) as the Bank Holiday is looming.

ST. CARTHAGES PROGRESSIVE 45

Peig Moore and Moss Morrissey, Maurice Power and Jack Crowley, Mary Connery and Betty Connelly; lucky tables Annie Neville and Mrs. Hyland, Billy Uniacke and Helen Morrissey; raffle Helen Cunningham, Declan Moloney, Pad Lineen. Usual game next Monday at 8.30 p.m.

THANKS

The past pupils and friends of the Presentation Convent, Lismore, wish to thank all who, by their generous contributions, showed their appreciation of the work done by the Sisters.

Cappoquin Notes

CAR PARK

A new Car Park is at present being prepared beside St. Declan's Cemetery. With the narrow road there have for years been problems for people attending funerals, with mourners often having to walk considerable distances. Now the matter has been taken in hand by Parish Priest Very Rev. Fr. Phelan P.P. who with the co-operation of a local landowner and a few local volunteers, has set about providing a considerable space for cars which will certainly make things easier for everybody.

LOCAL TALENT

The Cats Bar was packed to capacity on Thursday night of last week for the area final of the Carling Pub talent contest. Everybody present enjoyed the occasion and were enthralled by the excellent entertainment provided by the finalists. Everybody agreed that there shouldn't be losers, but of course, competitions are not like that, so when the marks were totted up the Sycamore from Knockanore were adjudged the winners with Kereen Bar a close second. Congratulations to the winners and a word of praise for the runners up and indeed to all the groups beaten in earlier rounds.

AT THE SPORTSFIELD

On Saturday the junior hurlers of Tourin and Modeligo provided the entertainment for the small gallery present. This was a game which could have gone either way so closely matched were the contestants. Tourin were forced to field without the services of star centre-back John Fives and were considerably weakened as a result. To add to this they had to replace goalkeeper Mick Looby who was forced off through injury in the first half. Modeligo were strong at midfield where Johnny Byrne dominated right through the game. Their centre-forward John Troy enjoyed considerable freedom until Tourin moved Tom Fives to centre-back at which stage they came really into the game. A little hesitation by Modeligo goalkeeper left substitute Joe Bennett in for a clever goal when it was badly needed. Unfortunately this was counteracted by a "soft" Modeligo goal finished by Seamus Troy. The last ten minutes was played in a welter of excitement as Modeligo mounted a fierce offensive but the Tourin backs held out with Paul O'Keeffe lording the full back position and veteran Peter Scanlon when moved from full forward effecting many vital clearances. At full time it was all square Tourin 2-5 Modeligo 1-8.

It now looks that there is a chance that Tourin and Melleray will be the top two in this junior B championship. If it happens like that, it will be a unique occasion with two teams from Cappoquin Parish contesting a county final. (However, Modeligo may have the last word).

Tourin Team— M. Looby, P. Mangan, P. O'Keeffe, P. Leahy, J. Morrissey, K. Wilkinson, W. Leahy, D. Moore, T. Fives, K. O'Donnell, J. Dalton, C. Barry, J. D. Leahy, P. Scanlon, M. McCarthy. Subs. G. Bennett for Looby, M. Morrissey for McCarthy, J. Bennett for M. Morrissey.

On Sunday afternoon we had the Intermediate hurling game between St. Mary's and Shamrocks. Right from the word go it was obvious that the Tourneena men were the team with everything to play for as a defeat here would have ushered them out of the championship. From the throw-in they contested every ball and showed that they really meant business. Shamrocks, although already qualified, tried to the last but on the day St. Mary's were the better side. Even though two players were sidelined by referee Eddie Cunningham, it was by and large a good sporting game. Final score St. Mary's 0-12 Shamrocks 0-8. As we said Shamrocks are already qualified, the other two places rest between St. Mary's, Colligan and Cappoquin. So it will take at least two more games to decide the issue.

ON HOLIDAY

CAPPOQUIN/BALLINAMEELA A/C NOTES

On Sunday last the National U/21 Track and Field Championship took place in Tullamore. Once again our athletes performed well. Results as follows: Hammer, Shane Scanlon 1st; Walk, Francis Lynch 2nd; Hammer, Fiona Lynch 2nd.

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

Minor Hurlers Win— Cappoquin 3-8 Gaeltacht 0-1— The scoreline tells the whole story. Our lads never looked in danger here but our first half performance must rank as the worst ever. Scoring opportunities were "fritted" away but at least the team improved somewhat in the second half and put away scores on the board to win comfortably.

It must be said that conditions were completely against good hurling with the sliothar like a lump of lead. Our opponents here were very strong physically but we had better team work and undoubtedly the better hurlers on the night. The lads must improve considerably if we are to entertain any hopes of winning titles, but they are on the right road as they possess terrific determination and willingness to learn which are two vital ingredients in the making of a successful team.

Team— D. Morrissey, K. Wilkinson, M. Croke, J. Fleming, M. Lacey, P. Manahan, A. McCarthy, K. Mason, F. McLoughlin, B. Tobin, C. Cullinane, T. O'Donnell, C. Prendergast, G. Reddy, R. Curran. Subs used P. Ormonde, E. Hickey, B. McCarthy.

Minor Hurling Fixture— Abbeyside are the next opposition for our minor hurlers. This game takes place on this Wednesday 24 July at 7.30 p.m. in Lismore. This should be one of the toughest games in the group and our lads will have to strike top form to achieve victory.

U/21 Football Challenge— Affane 3-13 St. Olivers 0-5— Affane U/21 footballers played St. Olivers in a challenge in the sportsfield last Tuesday night. Olivers were no match for Affane as the team played outstanding football to sweep to a comprehensive victory. Their display must indeed have pleased the selectors here.

Team— C. Cullinane, L. Lacey, Martin Reddy, Ed. Flynn, D. Cullinane, J. Buckley, G. Morrissey, S. Costin, T. Fives, P. J. Veale, D. Cummins, T. O'Donnell, C. Prendergast, T. Murphy, K. Mason. All the subs were used:- K. Veale, B. Cunningham, Ml. Ormonde, E. Fraher, P. Manahan, P. Ormonde, J. Collender.

Local Player Weds — We would like to congratulate one of the most loyal players, Brian Murray who tied the knot with the lovely Geraldine Galvin from Conna. We wish them both many years of wedded bliss. No doubt future Waterford/Cork clashes will cause much debate in the Murray household.

County Representative — Even though Waterford minor footballers were badly beaten by Cork recently local player Ciaran Cullinane can be excluded from blame in this heavy defeat as he played the proverbial "blinder" in goal. Well done Ciaran.

Intermediate Hurlers Disappoint — St. Mollerans 0-10 Cappoquin 2-3— Our Intermediate hurlers hit rock bottom form against Mollerans in Dungarvan last Saturday evening. It is hard to explain how in gods name we can miss so many gilt edged chances in a game. In all honesty we should have been out of sight of our opponents after 20 minutes of play but we did not punish them where it counts - on the scoreboard. The further the game went the more we seemed to struggle.

Undoubtedly the social event of the previous evening had a big bearing on our performance here but we still should not have taken our opponents so lightly.

When complacency sets in it is very hard to shake out of and we paid the ultimate penalty - defeat. The standard of hurling here was very poor and on our performance here we have an awful lot of work to do if we are to qualify for the final stages of the championship. We must now do it the hard way.

Team— M. Phelan, L. Lacey, F. Murray, E. Costin, S. Costin, J. Buckley, D. Cummins, S. McCarthy, B. Hennessey, M. Power, M. Reddy, J. Mason, S. Fraher, M. Cahalane, M. Brackett. Sub M. Croke.

Going into this game Brian Hennessey and Miceal Phelan carried injuries. We sincerely hope both players recover as soon as possible.

U/21 Football Championship — We learn our U/21 football game due to be played v. Naomh Brid in the Western Semi Final on Tuesday night next, has been postponed until August 8.

Mr. Thomas (Tomaisin) Kiely

The unexpected passing of Mr. Thomas Kiely, Patrickswell, Limerick, late of Monang, Abbeyside, at Limerick Regional Hospital on Thursday 11 July occasioned deep sorrow and regret in his adopted Patrickswell and in his native Abbeyside. Son of Jack and Alice, Monang, Tomaisin was thirty three years of age. He was educated at Scoil Mhuire, Abbeyside and later at Dungarvan C.B.S. Shortly afterwards Thomas was employed at Quigley Magnesite, Ballinacourty, where he was a great favourite. Later he took a position with Alcan Ltd. in the Shannon Estuary. For the past few years he resided in the Treaty County with his wife Bridget (nee Halpin) and Thomas (son). He enjoyed great popularity here and was about to embark on coaching the youngsters in the Patrickswell G.A.A. club. His presence in this community was very genuine and the people were most appreciative of his efforts on their behalf. The very many who travelled to share the family burden was clear evidence of the impact this young man had made on them. When fingering through the Dun na Mainistreach/Baile na Cuirte history his name is continually to the fore, as he participated in many of the epic battles won by the underage teams of this club. He tasted success with their under 14's hurling and under 16's hurling sides but perhaps his golden hour came when thanks to his efforts the Village captured the 1976 Co. minor hurling title. The minor football crown was also added, Thomas contributed much to this golden period of Abbeyside supremacy at underage. He was a man of all sports, he loved soccer and played for Abbeyside A.F.C., the family greyhounds also enjoyed his support. An extrovert, who was the essence of good company, his wit and humour always brought laughter and joy. He will be missed, his passing has touched us all in so many different ways, husband, father, son, brother, relatives and friends. Words of mine are totally inadequate to express my sincerest sympathy, heartfelt sympathy to my own.

'Go ndeana Dia trocaire ar ananam'.

On Saturday evening following Rosary and Prayers of Requiem recited by Rev. C. Fives O.S.A. the remains draped with his club jersey and club colours was brought from the Kiely Funeral Home to Abbeyside Church, Guards of Honour from both Abbeyside G.A.A./Soccer Club were appreciated by the family.

On arrival Thomas' remains were blessed by Rev. Fr. P. Ahearne C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. Slattery.

On Sunday morning Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. P. Ahearne C.C. for the happy repose of his soul. The liturgy of the word was read by John Beatty, Earl Healy and Patricia Dunford. Bidding Prayers were shared by Paul McGovern and sister Bernadette. Abbeyside Folk choir and Sinead (niece) provided sacred music.

Following Prayers of Requiem Thomas was laid to rest in Ballinroad Cemetery.

Chief Mourners: wife, Bridget; son, Thomas; parents, Jack and Alice; brothers, Jim, Pat, John, Liam, Michael; sisters, Mary, Paula, Ursula, Bernadette; mother/father-in-law, Richie and Peggy; brothers-in-law, Tommy and Nollaig, Willie and Mage, Watty, Christy, John, Paul; sisters-in-law, Babs and Catherine and a wide circle of other relatives including uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

Mr. John Kearney

With very sincere regret we pen these lines on the passing of Mr. John Kearney which occurred after a relatively short duration of illness at his residence 47 Silversprings, Dungarvan, on June 27. John who was aged 56 years was a member of an old Dungarvan family, his late father, Paddy ran a most successful hairdressing salon on Mitchel St. for many years.

In his youth John was a keen cyclist and indeed his interest in that sport grew year by year as he watched all the major tours unfold on television. He was an able businessman who specialised in catering equipment to many of our fastfood outlets and restaurants. A devoted husband and father, John's demise is all the more poignant as just three years ago his son, Jerry went to his eternal reward.

'May he rest in peace'. We tender our deepest condolences to Cora, family and relatives on their great loss.

On Friday evening John's remains were brought from the Hospital Mortuary to St. Mary's Parish Church where, on arrival, they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. J. Kiely C.C. assisted by Rev. Fr. On Saturday morning Concelebrated Requiem Mass was offered for the happy repose of John's soul. Chief concelebrants were Rev. Fr. C. Kelly C.C., Very Rev. Fr. J. Griffin P.P., and Rev. P. Butler C.C.

Mr. Patrick Kiely

On Tuesday evening July 16 we learned with sincere regret of the passing of Mr. Patrick Kiely, Grove Cottage, Knockeylan Lower, Leamybrien, at the District Hospital after a short duration of illness. Aged 78 years, Paddy was well known, particularly from his exploits with the famous five title winning Stradbally teams. Affectionately known as "Aeroplane" as he was a football stylist particularly of the over head catch. He farmed for much of his life, while for a period he was a valued member of the staff of Billy O'Shea, Builder. A hard working individual who gave of his best at all times he loved the outdoor life, was a keen enthusiast and follower of the greyhounds. He enjoyed much success on both the field, track and was an accomplished trainer. Captain Claudia was probably the jewel in his kennel. When the doggy fraternity gather and converse, the name of Paddy Kiely will be spoken with affection and admiration.

On Wednesday Paddy's remains were brought to Kilrossanty Church. Very Rev. Fr. Frawley P.P. conducted a short funeral service assisted by Rev. J. Curran C.C., Rev. J. O'Brien C.C., and Rev. Fr. B. Power C.C.

On Thursday the interment in the adjoining cemetery followed the 11 a.m. Concelebrated Mass celebrated by Rev. Fr. Frawley P.P. and Rev. Fr. J.

Curran C.C. A large gathering was present to hear the music of Kilrossanty Parish Choir, while the readings were shared by John Kiely and Mrs. Michael Kiely. A Guard of Honour comprising of members of Stradbally G.A.A. was provided while the graveside oration was by Tom Foley.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Madge, Paddy's brothers, sisters and many relatives on their loss.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors).

Mrs. Alice O'Donovan (nee Cooke)

It is with very sincere regret we write on the passing of Mrs. Alice O'Donovan, Strandside North, Abbeyside, which occurred on Wednesday July 9 at her son's residence in Foxrock, Dublin. A native of Kilmallock, Co. Limerick, Alice came of a farming background. She was educated at the F.C.J. Convent in Bruff. The late Mrs. O'Donovan was wife of Denis who was Manager of the Munster and Leinster and A.I.B. Banks in Dungarvan. On Denis' transfer from Dungarvan to Borrisokane the family moved to North Tipperary. Some years ago they returned to the Old Boro' and resided on Strandside North. Alice enjoyed her game of bridge and was a valued member of the local Flower Club. We sympathise with Denis, family and relatives on their loss.

Concelebrated Mass was offered for the repose of her soul on Friday morning, Very Rev. Canon Donogh O'Donovan P.P., Millstreet and Rev. Fr. P. Ahearne C.C. were chief celebrants. The Lessons were read by Orla, Shane and Laura (grandchildren) while Lena Walsh accompanied by Finbarr Keohan organist, sang appropriate music. After the Requiem Mass the cortege left for Ballinroad Cemetery where Alice was laid to rest.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan).

Mr. Christy Duggan

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the many relatives of the late Christy Duggan who died at his residence St. Martin's Terrace, Dungarvan on Friday 12 July. Christy was a well known figure whose caring, kind ways won him a legion of friends. He was a very sincere man, an upright individual who possessed the sterling traits and characteristics of a true Christian. A member of one of the town's oldest families, Christy knew his town and its social history. He was employed for some years at Cogan's who had a pharmacy on O'Connell St. Later he qualified as a nurse in England. He was a most responsible person and carried out his duties with vision and understanding. He was a valued member of the nursing staff at London's Southern Hospital and Joyce Green Hospital. When he returned to Ireland his nursing experience built up over the years stood him in good stead. On many occasions he relieved distress and was a wonderful neighbour to have on one's door step. He loved his game of bingo and pongo, and he was kept a radio, television enthusiast.

'May Christy rest in peace'.

On Saturday evening Christy's remains were brought from the hospital mortuary to St. Mary's Parish Church where they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. G. Power P.P. assisted by Rev. Fr. Sullivan.

Also a few weeks ago we had John Hallinan and Kieran Hallahan on the Waterford junior football Munster final team who were beaten by Kerry by 2 points and were very unlucky not to have won. Kerry went on to win the All-Ireland final. Here's hoping for better luck next year.

Everything is growing so quickly now!

JULY seems to be one of the few months when we can sit back and enjoy the garden at its blooming best.

But everything is now growing so strongly that it makes a lot more work than many people think. Desirable varieties need everything from deadheading to trimming, while undesirable such as weeds and bugs, will need control.

On the pruning and trimming front, trim fast-growing hedges such as privet. The lawn mower will be in action frequently, but be careful not to mow too close in hot weather or the lawn will turn brown and patchy.

Water the grass regularly and perk it up occasionally with a liquid feed. Save useable household water as much as possible for use on the lawn and the rest of the garden even if there is not a current shortage of water - without such care from all of us, there may be one later in the season.

Roses should be at their best by now and prompt dead-heading of spent blooms will ensure a continuing supply of colour.

As you lop these on non-hybrid tea varieties, look amongst this year's growth for strong shoots about nine inches long which can be used for cuttings. These can then be planted in good firm soil to increase your rose stock.

Check roses for mildew, black spot and insect pests such as aphids and be ready to use systemic pesticide and insecticides.

In the flower beds you should think about extending the displays of blooms by planting some autumn bulbs such as Belladonna Lily, Diamond Lily and cyclamen.

But most planting will be in the vegetable garden when sprouting broccoli, leeks and savoy cabbage should go in now.

Current vegetable crops and especially succulent varieties such as courgettes, marrows and cucumbers, will need regular watering during July heat.

If you have been growing strawberries then try to pick the fruit as soon as it ripens and seek out and discard any that have mould and disease.

Once they have finished producing fruit then pull up plants which are in their fourth season. They are unlikely to crop well again and are best replaced later in the year.

One source of new stock is to identify some healthy runners from the younger and stronger plants in the strawberry patch and then anchor these into pots of compost plunged into the ground. These should then take root and become large enough to cut away for planting next month.

Make the most of the abundant clippings, trimmings and so on this month to keep the garden compost heap well stacked. The hotter the weather, the better the heap will decompose and it can be helped by using a proprietary compost 'maker' or sulphate of ammonia.

Occasionally, turn the sides of the heap into the centre where decomposition is greater and then water to further fuel the process.

Council Houses Vandalised In Dungarvan

In the course of a report on the housing situation at Cathal Brugha Place submitted by Mr. Raymond Moloney, Acting Town Clerk to the July monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council it was stated that at present there were 13 vacant houses in the estate, 10 purchased houses while the remaining 38 houses were all rented.

The report added that in accordance with the refurbishment scheme plans for the estate, which had been sanctioned on a pilot basis for 7 houses by the Department, a policy of not re-letting houses as they became vacant was adopted. Many of the houses which did become vacant required considerable works before they could be re-let and it was then decided not to repair these as they would be included in the refurbishment scheme at a later date.

"Unfortunately," the report then stated, "some of these houses have been badly vandalised despite the fact that they were secured by Council staff."

Cllr. P. Power said that while he had supported the original decision not to re-let the houses as they became vacant, in hindsight it had been a mistake to do so. "Some of the houses that were left vacant have been vandalised almost beyond repair," he said.

Cllr. T. Wright said that he was told that in one case a vacant house had its roof stripped by vandals.

The Council unanimously agreed to press the Department for additional funds to continue the refurbishment scheme at the estate.

There's No Plaice Like Rome

PLAICE WITH ROMAN SAUCE

Ingredients:
6 fillets of plaice, fresh or frozen
1 lemon
freshly ground black pepper
For the Sauce:
3oz (85g) butter
4 spring onions
1½ oz (50g) can anchovy fillets
2 tablespoons (30ml) capers
1 tablespoon (15ml) chopped parsley
Kitchen foil

Method:
Thaw the fish if it is frozen. Wash and dry the fillets. Cut six pieces of foil, each one large enough to wrap a fish fillet loosely. Lightly butter the foil, put a fillet of plaice on each piece and season with pepper. Grate the lemon rind and reserve. Squeeze the juice of the lemon and sprinkle a few drops over each fillet, using about half. Fold up each piece of foil to make a loose parcel, double-sealing each edge. Put the foil parcels on a baking sheet or in a baking tin and cook at 350F (180C, Gas Mark 4) for 25-30 minutes, depending on the thickness of the fillets.

While the fish is cooking trim and chop the spring onions. Just before the fish is cooked, melt the butter in a small pan and fry the onions over a moderate heat for 1-2 minutes to soften them without browning. Chop or finely cut the anchovy fillets and add them to the butter with the capers, and reserved lemon juice and lemon rind.

When the fish is cooked, slit open each parcel, pour the sizzling hot sauce over each fish fillet and served in the foil.

Serves 6.
THE summer holiday can make a dent in the house-keeping budget, especially when there are hungry children - plus their friends - at home. The British Food Information Service recommends a meat loaf that can be served cold with a salad and jacket-baked potatoes for a tasty, reasonably priced tummy-filler.

Complaints About Raw Sewage In Dungarvan Harbour

At both the County and Urban Council meetings held in Dungarvan last week allegations were made about the presence of raw sewage in the sea at Dungarvan harbour.

Cllr. G. O'Halloran raised the matter at the County Council meeting when he referred to complaints made to him about the presence of the sewage in the vicinity of Barnawee Bridge outside Dungarvan. He said that the area was one with a lovely sandy beach which was very popular before it became polluted.

Cllr. P. Power raised the same matter at the monthly meeting of the Urban Council when he said that there was now a serious pollution problem in the Land's End area of Abbey-side which was always very popular with bathers.

Cllr. Power said that there was an appalling smell in the locality and all along out as far as Ballinacourty. The whole place was in a disgraceful condition and he asked for a full report on the situation.

Cllr. T. Wright said that he had been continually told that now sewage was being discharged into the harbour and it was now a matter which should be looked at seriously.

It was agreed that a full report on the situation be prepared and discussed at a later meeting.

Cappoquin Oarsmen Congratulated

On the proposal of Cllr. Nora Flynn, the members of Waterford Co. Council at their monthly meeting in Dungarvan last week joined in congratulating well-known Cappoquin oarsmen, Pat and Milo Murray, on their outstanding success in winning the Coxless Pairs Championship of Ireland at the regatta at Blessington Lake on the previous Sunday.

The Murray brothers have not only won great honour for themselves but for Cappoquin Rowing Club and also for the town of Cappoquin.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Question — I have just been made redundant and will only get the statutory payment. Can you explain how my lump sum will be worked out? I started work on January 1, 1980 and would expect to finish on June 30, 1991. I am now aged 55. My present salary is £260 per week.

Answer — As all your service was over age 41 you will be entitled to one week's pay for each year of service plus an extra week's pay.

The ceiling on pay is £250 per week. Each period of 364 days is counted as one year. This means you get an extra day's service for each year and a further extra day for each leap year. When the total number of 364 day years of service is ascertained, if the remaining days come to more than 182 days, this counts as an extra year's service.

Assuming that you had no lay-offs or non-reckonable service your payment would be calculated as follows:

Length of Service from 1/1/1980 to 30/6/1991

Full Years	11 Years
Surplus Days	181 Days
Days for each extra year of service	11 Days
Days for each Leap Year	3 Days
Service =	11 Years 195 Days

As the surplus days come to more than 182 they are counted as an extra year's service and you are due 12 weeks at £250 = £3,000 plus bonus week = £3,250

EVERYONE dived out of sight as two gunmen, hands on holsters, faced each other at opposite ends of the mining town's dusty main street.

Two shots rang out, scattering the pigeons from the surrounding roofs. And one man fell to the ground - never to rise again.

Almost ever since the first Western movie in 1903 - and there have been more than 7,000 to date! - the street duel has been the way to settle things before the final credits.

But that's plumb loco according to the lowdown from the people who know about these things.

The face-to-face duel, best-remembered no doubt in High Noon, just didn't happen in the way the West was really won.

Any differences out West weren't settled that way at all. In fact, in the heyday of Dodge City, Abilene and other towns, there were only an average of two killings a year, and hardly any of the victims managed to shoot back. The epic face-to-face encounter can be traced to imaginative writers.

If you are interested in what really happened in the West, don't watch Westerns. Most of them grossly distorted history and even made up adventures and reputations for some of the great Western names who were real, such as Wild Bill Hickock, Buffalo Bill and Jesse James.

For one thing, the West wasn't all that wild. Statistics show that it was far less violent than the cities of the north east or certain counties to the south.

But, thought the early filmmakers (and most of them still do today), what's a Western without violence?

The audience need that climatic shoot-out in the street, or an Indian massacre, or the bloody cavalry charge - or, at very least, a bar-room brawl.

"Elaborately choreographed, stereotypical and even stylised in its stages and movement, the 'brawl' provides a more-or-less comic variation of a film's dominant themes," say the authors of a book that is not only a pretty thorough guide to the films themselves, but also the rich and complex cultural background of the Western.

There were certainly some fights in the real West bars, but nothing like the everybody-involved, all-action, exaggerated fisticuffs and bashings with chairs and bottles we often see on screen.

So, what else shouldn't you believe in the Wild and Woolly West?

- Certainly not all doctors were whisky-swinging drunks who sobered up in time to treat a patient (Thomas Mitchell was surely the definitive portrayal).

- And while, of course, there were plenty of old men in the real West, it was the movie business which created the term "old-timer", allowing a whole troop of actors to specialise in making a living in this one part.

- Posses weren't all as bad as they're mostly made out in Westerns. On screen they're at best incompetent and at worst as criminal as those they are chasing; often no more than a lynch mob. In real life, posses were mainly made up of decent, law-abiding folk out to put bad 'uns behind bars.

The West is full of interesting trivia:

- Doc Holliday was a dentist who only went to the drier air of the West when he got TB.

- Real-life gun-fighter Johnny Ringo was so educated he often quoted Greek.

- The best-known Indian of them all, Sitting Bull, once toured with Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show.

- And the noted Apache chief, Geronimo - the last Indian leader to surrender to the United States - was finally reduced to selling pictures of himself to tourists in Oklahoma.

- And while few gun-slingers were as quick on the draw as most Westerns make out, at least one of them really could shoot cigarettes out of a man's mouth, fire backwards using mirrors and shoot glass balls thrown into the air (on one occasion, breaking 943 out of 1,000!).

And what was a woman! Annie Oakley - was never in the West except as a sharp-shooting sensation with Buffalo Bill's touring show.

Go'darnitt!

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN (Never known to fail) — O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendour of heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. Grateful thanks to the Blessed Virgin for favour received. — T.F. (2-8)

Kill Notes

ST. MARYS G.A.A.
Last Monday evening our minor hurlers qualified for the Eastern semi-final with a great win over Passage. The lads played very well on the night despite being short a number of key players and so can feel confident going into the semi-finals. Final score: St. Marys 2-6, Passage 0-7.

Our under-16 hurlers also qualified for the Eastern semi-final despite being well beaten by Dunhill/Fenor last Wednesday night. They now play Clonca in the semi-final.

Our u-13 hurlers took on St. Mollerans in the final of the city league. Played in Portlaw, the lads faced the wind in the first half and were playing well when the opposition scored two late goals to kill off our challenge.

However, the lads battled bravely back in the second half but could not reduce the lead. Final score: St. Marys 1-2, St. Mollerans 3-6.

Team: J. Keane, A. Kiely, W. Power, R. Kirwan, D. Hearn, S. Hearn, J. P. Hubbard, B. Mooney, M. Ahearne, F. Torpey, D.

Casey, F. Whelan, J. J. Bage, G. Power, B. Hanigan.

KILL G.A.A.

Last Sunday evening, July 21, our junior hurlers travelled to Portlaw to take on Kilmacthomas in the junior hurling championship. We were very much under-strength for this game as some players were sick and others injured.

In the first half we were unlucky to have Bernie O'Brien sent off, but Kilmac' proved a handful as they rattled in three first half goals to lead by 15 points at half time.

The lads battled back in the second half with Eddie Power getting a good goal and the defence playing superbly, but the final whistle came and we were still behind. However, it was a great team effort considering the circumstances. Final score: Kill 1-6, Kilmacthomas 3-12.

Team: R. Hennessy, M. Ryan, A. Kirwan, T. Hennessy, B. O'Brien, P. Regan, L. Lennon, K. Whelan, S. M. O'Regan, E. Power, Fr. T. Burns, B. Mooney, J. Kennedy, A. Crowley, M. O'Regan.

Tallow Notes

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

S.H.C. Tallow 1-14 Ballyduff 2-9— The Tallow senior hurlers all but qualified for the county semi-final at Lismore on Sat. night last when they had 2 pts. to spare over a gallant Ballyduff team. Both teams made nervous starts and after the first quarter it was level at 3 pts. each. Tallow went in front by 5 pts. to 3 pts. and then disaster for Tallow as a ground stroke went all the way to the Tallow net. After this Ballyduff made all the running and led by 1-6 to 0-6 at half time. Tallow made a bold bid to get back into the game at the start of the second half and had levelled 0-9 to 1-6 after 10 minutes but Ballyduff were not to be outdone and came upfield to score a goal to leave them 3 pts. clear entering the final quarter. Paul Curley came thundering into the game and scored a marvellous point to really lift the team and when Pat Murphy goaled for Tallow the writing was on the wall for Ballyduff, but still they pressed forward but couldn't break down the Tallow defence in which Martin Murphy, Jim O'Donoghue, Tomas McCarthy and Johnny Geary really excelled, and Tallow held out for an exciting victory. A lot of our players didn't do themselves justice on the night and many played below par. Best for Tallow was goalie Martin Murphy, Jim O'Donoghue, Tomas McCarthy and Johnny Geary in defence. Paul Curley really came into it in the last quarter and some of Philly Curley's points were of vintage quality. Pat Murphy and Dermie Henley tormented the Ballyduff rear-guard. We have now won our 5 matches and play Mt. Sion on the 18 August - this will decide the state of play in the group. We have nothing won yet and now the work begins and this will only happen in the field.

ST. CATHERINES G.A.A. NOTES

U/12 Hurling at Ballynoe— Cloyne visited Ballynoe last Monday evening to play Catherines in the current league. In a fairly close game with little separating the teams during the hour, Cloyne emerged winners on the score 4-4 to 3-1. Michael Walsh, St. Catherines refereed.

On Saturday morning our U/12 hurlers were away to Middleton and with a reversal of results this time our lads put in a great performance to finish victorious. The team on both occasions was Noel O'Leary, Killian Ronayne, Liam O'Connell, John Paul Fitzgerald, Michael Fitzgerald, John Higgins, Seamus Hartigan, Sean Kerry, John O'Leary, Leonard Flynn, Donal Caplice, Seamus Hogan, David Hegarty, Pakie Twomey, Brian Gallagher. Subs. B. Gallagher, David Beecher.

The U/16 hurlers overcame Bride Rovers in a challenge game at Ballynoe on Saturday afternoon, and on Saturday evening the junior footballers had a practice game with Ballygarran, getting the verdict in the end.

Our minor footballers first round championship against strong opponents and neighbours Castlelyons is coming up this Thursday evening at Rathcormac and support from our patrons will be greatly appreciated there, and we are hoping for a good performance from our players.

Many enthusiasts left the parish last Sunday morning for Thurles to cheer on Cork to victory. However, success did not smile on them but hurling was surely the winner and memories of that sporting Cork, Tipp. final will be spoken of for a long time.

BALLYNOE GALA WEEKEND A GREAT SUCCESS

The above function at the weekend in Ballynoe turned out to be an unprecedented success from beginning to end.

Friday night's merging of Conna and Ballynoe senior citizens at a social in the local hall proved to be a most happy occasion with a large attendance and splendid music supplied by Michael Burke and Chris O'Mahony. John Denis Cotter chairman of the Community Council welcomed all the guests, and asked for a minutes silence in memory of the late Jerry Mellerick, Conna, who he said so generously and willingly gave of his talents in the music line for several years. Further into the night those sentiments were expressed too by John Leahy and Mickie Murphy of Conna. Everyone was treated to a nice meal during the night and plenty vocal contributions in between dances made it a marvellous nights entertainment. Saturday evening from 3 to 5 a kiddies disco was well attended in the hall. And a youth disco from 10 to 1 attracted a large crowd from far and near. The music here was supplied by a reputable firm of D.J.'s and relished by all the fans. The final day on Sunday evening commenced with field events including golf, bowl in bucket, wellington in barrel, identification of timber etc. Parents sports conducted by Dan McCarthy, Chairman of East Cork B.L.E. was one of the highlights. The final results of the new venture this year, that of the mayoral election, was released on the field and John D. Cotter without seeking any transfers just snatched victory from Mary Beecher, Esther Tobin, and Tommie McCarthy to hold the prestigious position as Mayor of Ballynoe for one year.

Fr. Lomasney, President of the Ballynoe Community Council making the announcement, praised the organisers of the weekend and then presented the prizes to the winners of the various events. Fr. John Kelleher P.P. was also present and one other interesting innovation this year was the Bastible Cake-baking on an open fire by two capable ladies, Mrs. England, Ballynoe and Mrs. Daunt, Ballyduff. The proof of the cake was in the eating of it and they were actually assailed by requests for cakes.

The results from the games were as follows - bowl in the bucket, Moss O'Neill, Ballynoe; breaking of pipes on timber Maggies Mouth, Jerry Hogan, Glengoura; throwing the wellington into barrel, John Keohane, Fermoy; golf competition, Eric Flynn; identification of timber, Willie Lane, Ballynoe; faces and places, 5 tied and Mike Walsh, Ballynoe, won on a draw; sports quiz, Shane Fitzgerald; draw for pound in jar, J. Buckley, Ballyanthonny, Tallow; £50 Dick O'Brien, Castlelyons; £30, Geraldine Tobin, Rathrum, Ballynoe; £20, Bank Of Ireland, Middleton.

The curtain hung down on the programme with a dance in the Hall to the '60's music and attended by young and old it was a fitting finale to an invigorating and great weekend entertainment for the community at large.

The Parish sports results are as follows:- Boys U/9 100m 1st John Carr, 2nd

Dungarvan G.A.A. Club Notes

JUNIOR HURLERS WIN

Our junior hurlers had a fine win over Ballyduff at Modeligo on Friday evening last. Our display here showed a vast improvement on the drawn game and we now await the draw for the "play-offs" which will be made at the next meeting of the Divisional Board.

JUNIOR FOOTBALLERS TAKE ON STRADBALLY

At Leamybrien on Sunday next, our junior footballers take on Stradbally in the final of the 2nd string section. Stradbally defeated a very strong Kilrossanty side in their last game and so will start firm favourites on Sunday but the lads have fought hard to get this far and they will not give in easily. Indeed with a bit of luck, anything could happen. The game is timed for 2.30 p.m.

LADIES FOOTBALL

"If we can't beat them - we'll join them". Yes! that's the word coming through on the "grapevine" from the ladies in the club and sure why not? For the past months both Nickey Sheehan and Noel Buckley have been training our U/14 girls team with tremendous success so it has been decided that we should have a team in the ladies championship. However, to do so we need more manpower - and womenpower - so if you are interested, why not come along to Lawlors Hotel on Tuesday next, 8.30 p.m., where a meeting will be held. Hope to see you there.

ARAGLEN TOURNAMENT

On Sunday evening last we travelled to Araglen to play Ballyduff in the final of the Festival Tournament. Although short a number of players we gave a tremendous display and only lost out in the end by the narrowest of margins. The club would like to thank the Araglen Committee for their kind invitation and we congratulate Ballyduff on their victory.

MUNSTER FINALS

What a day we had last Sunday! Limerick going close against Kerry, and another super game in Thurles. And when we stop and think about it - Waterford should have been in both finals, and that's no "Tall-story" either. Let's hope we have better luck next year.

GATE DUTY

Club members, Paddy Fitzgerald, Mikeen Lyons, Ritchie Harty and Noel Sheehan were on duty in Thurles last Sunday. They travelled at the request of the Munster Council and operated as gatemen. As always, they did a first-class job.

SYMPATHY

The club extends its sincere sympathy to Mrs. Nellie Duggan, Mitchel St., on the recent death of her mother. Also to John McShane, Bohereenatra, on the death of his wife, Biddy.

May they both rest in peace.

DOG NITE

On Sat. week next the club have a "Dog-Nite" at the Waterford greyhound track. This event, which is being sponsored by local interests, will raise badly needed funds for the club so we call on all club members and supporters to come along and make it an enjoyable night for everyone. Should you wish to nominate a dog or indeed, sponsor a race, Noel Sheehan will be only too happy to talk to you.

The Sub. Committee in charge of the "Dog-Nite" will hold a special press conference tonight (Wed) in Lawlor's Hotel at 8.30 p.m. All are welcome to attend.

Historic Clash of Waterford and Gillingham

On this Sunday night, July 28, another page of history will be written in the annals of Dungarvan United when Gillingham will become the first English League team to play in Kilrush Park.

Gillingham, who are on a tour of Ireland as part of their pre-season training, will play Waterford United, and great credit must go to the Board of Directors of Waterford for bringing this game to Dungarvan. The Board were in Kilrush last week for a meeting with our own Management Committee to put the final touches to what will be a great night for football in the West Waterford area.

Kick-off time for the match is 7 p.m. and you are asked to come early and to obey the Gardai and stewards who will be on duty for the game. The Dungarvan Pipe Band will also add to the occasion, and the night will be rounded off with a Heineken Promotion Karaoke Night.

THE PANELS

Notai C.L.G. and Sean Phobail

The results of the progressive 45 drive in the Marine Bar last Wednesday night were, on 10 games, Tim Condon and S. O'Donnell. Jackpot is £140 on 13 games.

Last Thursday evening An Rinn played Brickey Rangers in the Terry Cup. This was a good game of football in which An Rinn ran out easy winners. They will play Ardmore in the semi-final this Thursday evening in the Sean Phobail at 7.30 p.m. sharp.

In the same tournament we played Clashmore last week. In a very close first half it was end to end stuff but in the second half we took over at mid-field and gave a good supply of the ball to the forwards who got some good points from play. We won this game by a couple of points to reach the final.

Our minor hurlers played Cappoquin in Abbeyside last Wednesday evening. We are very weak in this grade this year and were beaten by a good Cappoquin team. This Wednesday evening in Colligan we play Naomh Brid at 7.30 and next Friday we play Abbeyside in Dungarvan at 7.30.

Our game in the U/16 hurling was cancelled last Monday evening owing to a death in the club.

Congratulations to Leah Murphy and Jacqueline Young who won Munster medals with Waterford U/16 football team last week. They beat Kerry.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the Condon family of Newtown on the death of Jimmy Condon which took place last week and also to his sister Mary Wade.

It is also with deep sadness we record the unexpected death of Michael Flynn of Ballymacart. Michael was a well known farmer in the parish who was liked by all. Deepest sympathy is extended to his wife Bride and to his sons James and Liam, nephews and nieces. Go ndeana Dia trocaire ar a n-anamacha. Micheal Toibin P.R.O.

two games on each night.

Heineken Pub League Finishes With Superb Spectacle

SEMI FINALS

Deise Bar Go Out In Blaze Of Glory

PADDY FOLEYS "D" 1 DEISE BAR 0

The Deise Bar silenced all the soccer experts and cynics when defying for a long portion of this match the hot favourites for the coveted O'Brien Cup.

Only a goal of singular quality, struck with venom by Foley's captain D. Callaghan divided the teams after a titanic struggle. Time and time again the sophisticated build up of a talented Foleys team was repelled by the spirited Deise defence marshalled by the superb Veale and an inspired Mossie Devine who blotted out the menace of Hallahan for long periods. However, the quality of Foleys D had to prevail and when Callaghan scored, it was the beginning of the end for the gallant Deise Bar. Foleys D were well served by P. Ferncombe, D. Callaghan, Pat Roche and the tireless O'Keefe and in truth the margin of victory could have been greater but for the defensive stratagem adopted by coach Pat Langan. So Foleys D march on to the final but spare a thought for the gallant Deise, the O'Rourkes, Kearns, Ryan and all who proved that soccer is alive and kicking in Clashmore.

clinical display at Dogleaf before a huge crowd. Anchor A the holders, were considerably weakened since last year but to their eternal credit they never gave up the ghost and could even have taken the lead on several occasions. Mark Reynolds opened the scoring with a firm header and Ray Flynn made it two with a fine drive. Owen Mansfield pulled a goal back before John Shanahan scored a peach of a goal to restore the Villagers two goal lead.

The ageless Pat Terry scored a fourth to seal the tie. Again a fine display from the Village Inn "A" but all credit is due to the Anchor A for a sporting performance. Liam Shanley brought a superb save from Fintan O'Brien with a rocket like shot early in the game and if that had gone in it might have affected the course of the game. Best for Village Inn John Shanahan, M. Reynolds, S. Woods and J. Hamilton. Best for Anchor Liam Shanley, Pajo, Owen Mansfield and D. Mulvihill when introduced had an immediate impact.

THE FINAL

Hubie Turns Back The Clock

FOLEYS "D" 1 VILLAGE INN "A" 0

Hubie Hyslop returned to his old stomping ground Dogleaf Park, scene of many a triumph and scored the only goal of a titanic tussle between two evenly matched sides. A game of immense quality and verve which swung to and fro as advantage was gained and lost with reckless abandon.

An enormous crowd gathered at famed Dogleaf in anticipation of a classic and no-one was disappointed. Alfie Egan was his usual boisterous self as he led the chants of the huge Foleys contingent who crossed the bridge to cheer on their heroes. The Village Inn contingent, not as partisan were none-the-less quietly confident boosted by their impressive semi-final score.

Excitement reached fever pitch at 7.30 p.m. as referee Tony Wall started the match with a wave of his hand and a sharp blast from the whistle. Village Inn immediately went on the attack with Reynolds causing problems and a superb move almost gave them the lead. A super ball up the line by Georgie Hamilton was turned superbly by Maurice Walsh into the path of Mark Reynolds who sped through. His shot was well struck but a flying save by Doc O'Connor averted the danger. Foleys retaliated but Hallahan and Pepe Ferncombe were being constantly thwarted by a resolute Village Inn defence in which M. Cosgrave was outstanding. The half continued and the action was no less exciting and absorbing with the half time whistle greeted with relief by all, everyone was grateful for the respite from the nerve-wracking fare on offer.

The second half began as the first ended but Paddy Foleys sent on Hud Kelly for the injured Pat Roche and his influence and fresh legs began to turn the game for Foleys. Pepe Ferncombe rattled the crossbar with a vicious free kick and O'Keefe fired just wide. Village Inn responded but Morrie Ferncombe lorded at the back as the hard running Flynn began to tire. Foleys now had the bit between their teeth and then it happened. Ten minutes remained when Foleys won a free on the right and it was driven across by D. Callaghan, his cross took a wicked deflection and Hubie Hyslop stole in to plant a firm shot past the despairing dive of Fintan O'Brien. Village Inn threw everything at the Foleys goal and a goal-line clearance by Morris Ferncombe saved the day. The final whistle sounded and bedlam broke out, reports of tears streaming from the eyes of the Foleys team manager abounded.

As the cup was presented to team Captain D. Callaghan and the crowds streamed away everyone was in agreement that this was a superb tournament. Congratulations to Foleys on a fine victory but you can be sure the Village Inn will be back next year.

Abbeyside A.F.C. Club Notes

THANKS

Thanks very much to the individuals who stole the collection from the club dressing rooms on the night of the final. A despicable act and another illustration of the times we live in.

U/11 TEAM

It was heartwarming to see our U/11 team parade around the field with the league Shield (B). The loss of revenue resulting from the theft on Thursday night makes it much more difficult to field teams for the coming year. Perhaps any local business man can help out? All contributions are gratefully accepted.

TOUR TO EDINBURGH - RUGBY WORLD CUP GAME

The tour party to Edinburgh for the rugby World Cup game Ireland v. Scotland will fly out from Cork on Thursday, Oct. 10 and return on Sunday 13. All players will pay an amount not exceeding £250 and all others £315. Full deposit of £60 has to be paid by Friday August 9 to any member of the committee or direct to Court Travel. People who have already paid a deposit of £25 need only pay additional sum of £35 by way of deposit.

MIXED SOCCER

Wednesday evening of last week saw the club run another highly successful mixed soccer tournament at Ballyrandle. This was the 10th year of this event and considering the unfavourable weather the turnout of 25 teams was very satisfying.

The tournament was won by the "Jolly Tinkers" team captained by Martina Dugan who beat Pat Dunphy's "Ballylaneen" in the final. The plate was won by the "Naked Guns" who beat "Old Parish Cosmos" in the final of that competition.

Well done to all the committee who did such fabulous work on the night and in the lead up to the competition and a special word of thanks to Jim Power for his work on the pitches and to Kieran O'Connor for keeping the ball rolling on the night.

A special word of appreciation to the referees, Tommy Wall, Brian Wall, Austin Curran, Stephen Flynn, Danny McGrath and Michael Brackett who did trojan work in awful conditions, and to Dungarvan G.A.A. and soccer clubs for the use of their footballs.

WORLD CUP RELAY

Monday July 29 sees a special event take place when the "World Cup '91 Message Relay" comes to Dungarvan. This event consists of a series of relays through Ireland, England, Scotland, Wales and France, carrying a rugby ball which will eventually find its way to Twickenham for the World Cup Final in November.

The run through Dungarvan commences at 5.30 p.m. on the Waterford Road and the ball will be carried by teams of young people through Abbeyside, The Square and on to the Youghal Road. Former Ulster and Ireland second row forward Willie Anderson will be in attendance.

TRAINING

Players should note that while no dates have been decided upon, training will commence under coach Neill Parkes and captain Austin Curran in early August. With the new all Munster League it will be straight into competitive rugby in mid-September and a good start to this new league is vital.

STRADBALLY G.A.A. NOTES

THE LATE PADDY KIELY

We record with sincere regret the death of Paddy Kiely who was called to his eternal reward last week. "Aeroplane," as he was known, was one of the greatest of our famous five-in-a-row side. The word "aeroplane" speaks for itself. On the playing field, though small in stature, he was able to go "into the sky." He gave excellent service to the Cove club since 1932 where he won his first minor medal with Kilminion Rovers, then captured the five county medals and had various other medals and trophies.

Later in his years he always attended functions and in particular the card games in the club. Always interested in the everyday affairs of the club, his death severs a great link with the Cove club, but we will always remember the late Paddy "Aeroplane" Kiely R.I.P., as one of the greatest ever club players.

A FINAL TRIBUTE

The club paid their final tribute to the late Paddy Kiely when his remains were draped in the Red and White flag, carried into the church by his club mates and a guard of honour was formed.

At the graveside, the following day, Tom Foley gave a graveside oration and spoke on the many memories left by Paddy, which was a fitting tribute by Tom to a great man. May he rest in peace.

The club offers its deepest sympathy to his wife Madge, sister, brother and a wide range of relatives.

MINOR HURLERS V. CLASHMORE

On this Wednesday, July 24, our minor hurlers play Clashmore in Abbeyside in a vital championship game at 7.30 p.m. A win here for the Reds would be a good boost — so let's hope it comes our way.

A CRUNCH GAME

On this Friday evening, July 26, our senior footballers play Nire in the championship in Leamybrien at 7.30 p.m. This is really the crunch game in this league system because a win here would surely see the side through to the semi-finals.

The Nire will be favourites going into this game as they have displayed the better form so far, so it will take a great effort from everybody to get a win here — which the Reds can do if they hit top form and show all their old determination.

IT SHOULD BE A GOOD ONE!

On Sunday next, July 28, our junior footballers play Dungarvan in the championship in Lemybrien at 2.30 p.m. This is a game that should produce great football as both sides are all out to win here.

The Reds side will be all out to advance to the semi-final stages and it would be great to win this one as there is a great build-up to this crunch game.

WELL DONE LIAM

Almost unnoticed, our club member Liam Carroll, Knock, has been refereeing some very important Western championship games. Liam is one of the up-coming referees in the county. Keep up the good work.

KILL TOURNAMENT

Our senior footballers will be playing St. Saviours on Sunday, August 4 in the final of the McGrath Cup, in Kill, at 7.30 p.m. as part of the Kill summer Festival.

HURLERS FOR PLAY-OFF

Our intermediate hurlers had a good win over Ballydurn in the championship on the score of 2-9 to 0-10, played at Kill. The Reds got off to a great start with two early goals by Liam O'Brien, but then afterwards it was Ballydurn who were doing the pressing and it took two excellent saves by Bill Dunford plus great covering by Michael Coffey to see us through, which will put us in a play-off with Erin's Own and no doubt trainer Tom Hickey will be trying to improve his forces.

MINOR HURLING V. CAPPOQUIN

Our minor hurlers are due to play Cappoquin in the championship on this Friday evening, July 26, but changes could be made owing to a clash of fixtures. This game is fixed for Abbeyside.

St. Olivers G.A.A. Notes

U-16 HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Tallow 0-0 St. Olivers 4-11 — Last Monday, it was off to Tallow (everyone managed to cram in the bus). After 45 seconds gone in the game Thomas Cliffe game St. Olivers the lead point. The backs, Tomas Curran, Laurence Maher, James Tobin, Brendan Mernin, Aidan Aherne and Tholm Keane, played well to prevent Tallow getting on the scoreboard. Michael Walsh pointed two frees while points from Stephen Ronayne, Thomas Cliffe and Michael Murray plus two goals from Mickey Ronayne gave St. Olivers a good half time lead. Paul Connery hit, kicked and hand passed a hat-trick of points before Stephen Ronayne scored two goals and a point in the space of 70 seconds. Donnacha Tobin had a shot cleared off the line just before the end. After 45 minutes, the final whistle blew giving St. Olivers a 23 point win.

But despite the score, it was a below standard performance by St. Olivers.

Scorers — Stephen Ronayne 2-2, Mickey Ronayne 2-0, Thomas Cliffe and Paul Connery 0-3 each, Michael Walsh 0-2, Michael Murray 0-1.

Referee — John Michael Kelly (Shamrocks).

AGLISH PERPETUAL CUP

The Aghlish Perpetual Cup was played for in the annual senior football tournament run by Geraldines Club in Aghlish between the years 1959 and 1964. Teams that took part in those tournaments, which incidentally attracted record attendances to the Lawn in Aghlish, were Geraldines, Brickey Rangers, Stradbally, Kill, Kilrossanty and Clann Na nGael (a divisional team).

What we are now looking for is the whereabouts of the cup. This is a very valuable cup so if it can be found we would be most grateful for its return to our club. We therefore request it to be returned. This is our second appeal for the return of the cup.

Greyhound "Present" A Winner At Youghal

A greyhound which was given as a present came up trumps last week with a good win at Youghal Track. Last St. Patrick's Day well-known and widely popular Dungarvan man and long-time greyhound enthusiast, Miceal O Faolain, 81, Congress Villas made a present of a well-bred greyhound, "Ryefield Randy" (Randy — Why The Fuss) to his wife Phil to mark her growing interest in greyhound racing.

The dog was entered in the last race at Youghal on Tuesday night of last week and won the 525 yds. in 29.76 with a length to spare over the evens favourite "Robert Mover." It was returned at 6/4 having opened at 2/1.

We congratulate Mrs. O Faolain on this win which we hope will prove the first of many.

Deserving Win For Lismore

LISMORE 3-11 ROANMORE 1-12

There was little at stake in this senior hurling championship clash at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last. Prestige apart, the result left Lismore topping the group with champions Roanmore in the runners up spot so both had already qualified for the semi-finals.

The fact that nothing was at stake was reflected in the play because despite the fact that the game produced a hatful of scores it lacked bite and was somehow devoid of excitement, although the standard of hurling generally was high.

A goal by Declan Landers after ten minutes set up Lismore for their 1-7 to 0-6 interval lead. They increased this lead with two early points in the second half but Roanmore came back for five points on the trot to leave Lismore just a point ahead, 1-9 to 0-11 by the 48th minute.

Lismore tacked on points through Brendan Lawton and Sean Prendergast and Noel Crowley replied with a Roanmore point and with six minutes left for play the winners held a two points advantage. (1-11 to 0-12). The result was well and truly decided in the space of two minutes. Sean Daly goaled for Lismore in the 25th min. and Brendan Prendergast shot home another goal two mins. later.

With time up Anthony White had Roanmore's lone goal which evened up the score sheet a bit but Lismore were well worth their 5 points advantage at the finish.

Scorers— Lismore - S. Daly 1-7; B. Prendergast 1-1; D. Landers 1-0; B. Lawton 0-2; S. Prendergast 0-1. Roanmore - K. Delahunty 0-4; A. White 1-0; G. Maguire 0-2; M. Mackey 0-2; M. Wadding 0-2; C. Walsh 0-1; N. Crowley 0-1.

SENIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Good Win For Fourmilewater

FOURMILEWATER 4-9 PORTLAW 2-11

The winners of this very exciting championship game made it clear to the people in the Press Box on Saturday evening that it would annoy them to read of this result being described as a shock. It was a shock for Portlaw and whatever Fourmilewater say, it was a surprise for them also.

I cannot recall the Ballymac' team play such good hurling for a long time and in addition to keeping them well clear of a relegation battle later on (as they were against Cappoquin last year) this victory must surely have enhanced their hurling reputation quite a bit.

Portlaw, as expected, set the pace and points by P. O'Brien (2) and Tom Larkin (3), had them five points in front in a matter of ten minutes. Richard O'Keefe and Michael Guiry reduced the gap to three points in the 15th and 16th minutes and then they exploded into action and had goals by Billy Walsh and Michael Guiry in the 21st and 22nd minutes. These scores dramatically changed the game around and Fourmile' were not headed afterwards. Another splendid goal by Billy Walsh in the 26th minute and a point by Pat Walsh put them 3-3 to 0-9 in front at half-time, Portlaw's last four points being scored by Tom Larkin.

Within five minutes of the restart Fourmile' had a further goal per P. J. Mulcahy and points by Michael Guiry and Eoin Wall, to give them an eight point lead. Portlaw fought back frantically and seemed to take control again, so much so, that by the 50th minute of the game only two points separated the teams. Davy Foran's goal, which was struck from about 60 yards out, had an inspiring effect on Portlaw and they continued to fight doggedly to get on terms, but a stout Fourmile' defence denied them the scores and having survived an eight minute onslaught, they came back to take the final three points, which were scored by Richard Guiry, Michael Guiry and Billy Walsh. Ger Walsh, who had an outstanding match all through, scored one of the finest points seen at the venue for a long time when he pointed under great pressure in the 51st minute.

Referee John M. Kelly handled both games at the Fraher Field on Saturday evening and his refereeing left no cause for complaint.

Scorers — Fourmilewater — B. Walsh 2-1, M. Guiry 1-3, P. J. Mulcahy 1-0, R. O'Keefe, Pat Walsh, P. Walsh, E. Wall, G. Walsh, R. Guiry 0-1 each; Portlaw — T. Larkin 0-8, D. Foran 1-0, F. O'Shea 1-0, P. O'Brien 0-2, J. Galvin 0-1.

Fourmilewater — S. Guiry, R. Ryan, T. Walsh, P. Ryan, T. McCarthy, Rd. Guiry, I. Walsh, Pat Walsh, G. Walsh, O. Wall, P. Walsh, B. Walsh, P. J. Mulcahy, M. Guiry, Rd. O'Keefe. Sub — M. Fraher for P. Ryan.

Portlaw — J. Power, F. Walsh, J. Galvin, J. Kirwan, D. Keane, L. Callaghan, W. Maher, D. De Paor, D. Foran, M. Walsh, F. O'Shea, T. Larkin, K. Laffan, P. Coffey, P. O'Brien.

Cappoquin Beaten

St. Mollerans scored something of a surprise win over the much favoured Cappoquin in intermediate hurling at the Fraher Field on Saturday evening, but the losers can only blame themselves for having wasted many good chances of scoring.

Goals by Michael Brackett and Maurice Callaghan gave Cappoquin a slender one point lead (2-1 to 0-6) at half time. Shortly after the three-quarter stage, when they were level, James Mason sent Cappoquin in front with a point, but this was their final score and St. Mollerans came back with a couple of points from the stick of the very accurate Brendan Raggett to leave the Eastern team winners by a single point.

Cappoquin — M. Phelan, M. Lacey, F. Murray, E. Costin, S. Costin, S. Buckley, D. Cummins, S. McCarthy, B. Hennessey, M. Power, M. Reddy, J. Mason, M. Brackett, M. Callaghan, S. Fraher.

WEEK-END FIXTURES

Meeting Of Stradbally And Nire Is Highlight Of Light Week-end

Because of the holiday break, the programme for the coming week-end is on the light side, except for some junior and minor fixtures. The clash between the Nire and Stradbally, both of whom are so far unbeaten in the senior football championship is the one attracting the most interest and is certain to attract a big crowd to the Leamybrien venue on Saturday evening.

There are a few attractive junior football matches down for decision and the results of these will determine the fate of the winners and losers.

STRADBALLY V. NIRE

With an amount of uncertainty about the outcome of things in their group, both these sides will go all out to win the points that will take them further up the table. At the moment, the Nire have six and Stradbally four, but both have a number of unplayed matches. This particular match has already been twice postponed because of bereavements and now because of the unavailability of the Dungarvan venue, it has been changed to Leamybrien.

I wrote some weeks ago that if the Nire team reached their full potential, very few teams in the county would have a hope of beating them. But somehow they have not yet managed to explode into the kind of action that we saw from their hurling counterparts Fourmilewater, at Fraher Field on Saturday evening. The Nire have lost so many matches that they were capable of winning.

They gave some great displays last year and one of these was against Stradbally who beat them 0-11 to 0-5. Stradbally were in good form on that day and as far as I can recall it was their third beating of Nire in a row. They went on to be beaten by a point in the county final.

The Nire, with players of the calibre of Sean, Richard and Michael Guiry, Tom, Pat, Ger and big Pat Walsh, Tom Condon, Kevin Mulcahy, Jackie Hogan, Tom Walsh, Fraher, Phelan, Crotty and the veteran Paddy Cooney, should be showing a better return for their capabilities.

Against Stradbally, whose side will include Eoin, Conor and Fintan O'Brien, Pat Curran, Tom Gough, Kiernan Heffernan, David Kirwan, James Keane, Paul Mullaney, Pat Halpin, Sean Dec, the Nire will need to be at full stretch from the throw-in if they are going to win this one. I believe they can.

drawn from the competition, so this fixture goes down the drain.

Most people would like to see Seana Phobal beating Tallow in junior football because the team from the Gaeltacht is traditionally football and have no other teams. But things don't happen because of the likes or dislikes of people and facing reality one must respect the skills, etc. of Tallow and give them the vote to win.

Emmetts and An Rinn at Dungarvan on Monday night will be a game well worth seeing. An Rinn are the stronger team and will be fancied, but there is no guarantee that they will win.

Melleray and Ballysaggart provide the curtain raiser to the double-header at Cappoquin on Sunday and this, too, will be an entertaining contest. Dungarvan versus Stradbally on Sunday is the semi-final of the second string section and while a win for Dungarvan is expected, Stradbally might be capable of causing a surprise.

Intermediate Football Fixtures

The draws for the semi-finals for the intermediate football championship were made last week and fixed as follows; Sunday August 18 Shamrocks v. Brickeys 2 p.m.; Sliabh gCua v. Ardmore 3.15 p.m. Both games will be played at Cappoquin.

UNDER 21 FOOTBALL FIXTURES

The under 21 football semi-finals are fixed for Wednesday, August 7, and both will be played at Dungarvan.

Ballinacourty and An Gaeltacht will play at 6.30 p.m. and Sliabh gCua will play Affane at 7.45 p.m.

THE LEAGUE/CHAMPIONSHIP SITUATION

Although the senior championships are quite a bit away from the finish, the competitions are only a matter of playing rather meaningless matches as far as the majority of the fourteen football and thirteen hurling clubs are concerned. For clubs who are gone out of contention and safe from relegation, they are an incumbrance and an inconvenience as they interfere with a club's fixtures in other grades.

The situation which we now find ourselves in is no different from what it was at the same stage last year and every other year going back for a while. Is it time we changed from the present system?

Many people to whom I have spoken to recently believe that a change of our championship structures is urgently needed. Perhaps now is the time for discussion on the matter.

CHAMPIONSHIP SITUATION

Lismore and Roanmore are now through to the semi-finals, with Lismore on top of the table and Roanmore, county champions, in the second place. Passage, Dunhill, Fourmilewater and Portlaw are the "also rans" in that group and Portlaw, with no points, are the team to represent the group in the relegation battle with the bottom team in the other group. This is the first time since the league system was introduced into the championship that Portlaw went through the competition without winning a single game.

In the other group, Tallow are safely through, having beaten Ballyduff in a great game at Lismore on Saturday evening. Mount Sion must also feel safe with 8 points from 4 matches.

There is a remote chance that Ballygunner might get back, but as of now, it is most unlikely. The certain "also rans" in this group are Ballyduff, Clonea, Dungarvan and De La Salle. Conceivably, there can be a play-off for the relegation spot.

INTERMEDIATE CHAMPIONSHIP

This hurling championship is almost on schedule and Group (A) have all their games played. Shamrocks are through at the top and three teams, Cappoquin, Colligan and St. Marys, will compete for the two other positions in the quarter-finals.

Group (B) is moving at a slower pace and it looks likely that Saviours will go through with Abbeyside, Stradbally and Erin's Own likely to battle it out for the other two spots.

Heavy Fines

On Friday night last, both Laois and Louth County Boards were each fined a record sum of £5,000 for their involvement in the fracas at the end of their semi-final game at Croke Park on the previous Sunday. Other penalties were also imposed. Recently Cork and Kerry were each fined £3,000 by the G.A.C. for similar, but probably less serious conduct during a National League game. On Saturday next, the Management Committee will consider Waterford's application to have their £2,000 fine for breach of Rule 12, deferred until a later date.

The awful scenes which were seen at Semple Stadium when Tipperary supporter invaded the pitch after Tipperary had gone in front minutes before the end of the game, will no doubt be fully investigated by Munster Council and appropriate action taken in the matter.

Death Of Paddy 'Aeroplane' Kiely

The death of "Aeroplane" Kiely, as he was popularly known throughout his long playing career, marked the end of one of the real legendary characters of the Stradbally club and many indeed, are the stories told about the wonderful football displays of this great exponent of the game over the years. He was ever modest about his great football ability and last year when I had the pleasure of talking to him at the Stradbally club celebration of their great five-in-a-row, I didn't find it easy to elicit much detail of his splendid record with the county and club.

"Aeroplane" was the midfielder supreme in the late 'thirties and early forties and was so named because of special agility and high-fielding ability. Billy McGrath, of the Dungarvan club who partnered him in the centre of the field with the county on many occasions, told me that Paddy was one of the greatest footballers that he had ever seen and many others who played with him or saw him perform, hold a similar opinion.

His playing career began when he was a minor with Kilminion Rovers who won the championship in 1932 and some years later (1937) he won a junior medal with the same club before throwing in his lot with Stradbally with whom he played until his retirement.

He was one of their great players and played a leading role in all their five-in-a-row victories from 1940 to '44. He won numerous other medals and trophies in tournaments and other competitions as well.

At the removal of his remains his friends and admirers turned up in huge numbers and the Stradbally club, many of whom were team mates of him during his playing days, did him full honours. The coffin was draped with the famous Red jersey in which "Aeroplane" played with distinction for so many years.

It was a very fitting farewell to a man who became a football legend. To his wife Madge and other relatives we express our very sincere sympathy.

Results

With so much on all over the country on Sunday, it was not easy to keep abreast of things, so fast did they happen. At the big games alone on Sunday, over 150,000 attended and this must be a new record for just one day. There were 55,000 in Thurles, 30,000 in Killarney, 47,000 in Croke Park and huge crowds in the other venues where finals or semi-finals were played.

In Dungarvan on Sunday afternoon there was a surprisingly big gate of £352 for a game that wasn't listed as an important contest and also there was a nice crowd at Cappoquin at the same time.

There were surprises in the intermediate hurling championship with Erin's Own beating Abbeyside and St. Marys defeating Shamrocks.

In senior hurling, Mount Sion had a comprehensive win over Ballygunner and one of the big talking points around the city on Saturday night was the great comeback by Passage when beating Dunhill.

Munster Finals

A query arose during the past week as to when the last Munster Senior Hurling final took place at Fraher Field, Dungarvan. The information is that it took place on the 11th August 1929 between Cork and Waterford, the score Cork 4-6 Waterford 2-3. The game was refereed by Willie Gleeson, Limerick and on the same day at the same venue in a minor hurling semi-final, Waterford defeated Limerick 8-3 to 1-2. This game was refereed by Phil Cahill (Tipperary).

Football Final

Poor old Limerick were 20 to 1 against on the Sunday morning papers, but what a game they gave Kerry at Killarney. They were within an ace of causing the biggest shock since we did in 1957 at Walsh Park. Limerick's tremendous display was certainly a good advert for the open draw and following our great performance against Limerick here last month it must have enhanced our football reputation somewhat.

COUNTY BOARD MEETING

Frankie Cullinane, Chairman presided at last week's meeting of the Senior Board which was held at Dungarvan.

COISDE NA PEIL

A request from Coisde na Peil that interviews for the position of a juvenile football coach be held as soon as possible, with a view to having the appointment made well in advance of the re-opening of the schools in September, was discussed and approved. The Chairman stated that the interview committee would be reactivated and the matter set in train as soon as possible.

FINANCE

A report from the County Treasurer, Garry Cunningham gave an outline of the financial position of the Board and this led to a discussion on the whole matter of raising badly needed finance as soon as possible.

The Chairman reported that two meetings had taken place with the Finance and Development Committee and the Hurling Finance Support Group in an effort to have them amalgamate. At a third meeting it was found that this would not be possible as agreement could not be arrived at. The meeting then discussed the matter at length before deciding that both be dissolved and a new committee formed.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Reports from the various selection committees were read and discussed. The minor football report stated that following a very long and thorough preparation that the team were disappointingly beaten by a super Cork side at Middleton. The report referred to the urgent need for the promotion of football in all the colleges and also the need to have the structures of our championships and competitions at this level, examined by a special committee. The chairman thanked the committee for their dedication and the tremendous work that had been put into the preparation of the team.

The senior football report told about our very narrow defeat by Limerick and how unlucky we were not to have qualified for the Munster final. Again the county chairman thanked the selectors and players for their many months of very dedicated work and said that with a small bit of luck, we would now all be looking forward to playing Kerry in the final on Sunday.

The junior football report was read and delegates again praised the team and mentors. It was pointed out that having beaten Tipperary, they had only five days to prepare for the final. Having lost by just a couple of points, it was felt by the meeting that we would have beaten Meath, who subsequently lost to Kerry by five points.

The under 21 hurling report will be read at the next meeting of the Board. As all our county teams are now out of the championships, the above are the final reports for the season.

Although no report was due to have been made by the senior hurling selectors, disappointment was expressed at their negative response to the request by An Coisde Gnotha to withdraw the statement which was issued some months ago.

FRAHER FIELD

A report from the Fraher Field committee asked that the Board take an urgent decision about development plans to decide on priorities in relation to Fraher Field and Walsh Park. It is intended that advertising hordings will be erected along the north side of the Fraher Field and the immediate plans also include work of a security nature at this venue. The report also stated that a number of trees at the 'country' end had to be felled because they were found to be in a decayed condition and were dangerous.

It was also announced that an electronic device to monitor the inflow of patrons to the venue, had been recently installed and a report on the operation of the system was given. Concern was felt about the numbers who gain admission to our ground without having to pay and this situation can be highlighted by the newly installed apparatus. As well as old-age-pensioners and student card holders, many others it would appear, feel that they have a right to free admission and this matter is now being looked into.

REPORTS

When the Munster Council report was given by Greg Fives, delegates were critical of the ticket allocation for the Munster hurling final. The county secretary stated that although we had received an increased allocation, the demand had also increased and all applications had been treated on a fair basis, but not all applicants could be accommodated.

It was also pointed out that on previous occasions when we had been given a much smaller allocation, that the Board secretaries found themselves having to return unsold tickets on the morning of the match. We could, it was said, find ourselves in a similar situation again, if the final involved was deemed to be less attractive. We had been given 250 tickets for the football final between Kerry and Limerick and the majority of these were not taken and had to be returned. A complaint was also made that in spite of the fact that tickets were unavailable to some applicants here for the drawn hurling final, hundreds of tickets were on sale outside the ground on the day of the match. This is being looked into.

On the report of the Central Council, delegates were advised to have club documents relating to property and investments examined to ensure that these were properly vested in the club and not in the name of individuals. Instances were given where problems arose quite recently (not in this county) because documents were held in the names of the club officers of the day, rather than in the name of the club. All clubs were asked to note.

HANDBALL NEWS

Waterford v. Tipperary at Clonmel in Golden Masters Doubles

Our representatives J. Wall and J. Fahy were beaten by Tipp's P. Meagher and G. O'Meara two games to one in a great match. Home advantage proved the winner for the Tipp men. The Mahony brothers John and Tony beat Limerick's No. 2 pair in the Masters B Doubles and went on to beat Limerick No. 1 pair in the Munster Final at Ballyporeen on Friday night. A great performance and they will make a bold bid for All-Ireland honours. Congratulations and good luck in the semi-final. Our Munster champion M. Butler in Silver Masters reached the final again when he beat Tipp's J. Butler in two straight games at Ballyporeen. Good luck. Our novice pair J. Mansfield and P. Carty were beaten by Limerick's P. Moran and W. McNamara in 2 straight games but played very well.

So a busy week for Waterford handball.

Circuit Judge Not Impressed by Appellant

A 20-year-old unemployed motor cyclist was told by Judge D. P. Sheridan at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday that he needed a shock period to consider his position and ordered that he be put off the road for a month as from Monday next.

Derek Neylin, Shandon St., Dungarvan was appealing against the severity of sentence imposed on him at the District Court when he was convicted on a charge of dangerous driving and disqualified from driving for six months arising from incidents which took place on October 31 last.

Mr. A. V. Maher, State Solicitor for the Director of Public Prosecutions told the Court that at 2.30 a.m. on October 31, Bangarda Foley was in the official patrol car with another garda at Mary Street, Dungarvan. She saw two motor cycles entering from Mitchel Street and both drove down and went through the red traffic lights at the end of the street. The gardai went in pursuit and the motorcyclists went down Shandon road and on to the by-pass where the gardai failed to stop them. They continued on and then went through the red traffic lights at Kilrush junction and there the gardai lost them.

Mr. Maher said that however Bangarda Foley had identified Neylin as he passed her in Mary Street and she went to his address later to interview him. He subsequently called to the Garda Station and made a statement.

Bangarda Foley in evidence confirmed the facts as stated and added that on the night in question there was quite a few people around the Square when the defendant drove through the red lights. She said that when Neylin called to the Garda Station and made the statement he had told her that he would go out and do the same again.

Neylin in reply to Mr. Niall King Solr. (J. F. Williams & Co.) stated in evidence that he didn't see the garda car following as they went through the lights at Mary Street but he was aware of it when they went through the second set of lights at Kilrush.

To further questions by his solicitor, Neylin said that he might have used the words which Bangarda Foley said he used "out of temper".

Witness agreed with Judge Sheridan that "he was a hot tempered young man".

Judge Sheridan then said that he was not terribly impressed by the appellant but felt that he might not have been doing himself justice in the witness box. However, he thought that he required a shock period to consider his position and would put him off the road for a month as from Monday next and he reduced the disqualification period accordingly but affirmed the rest of the District Court order.

£5,500 SETTLEMENT
FOR INJURED INFANT

A settlement in the sum of £5,500 was approved by Judge D. P. Sheridan at the Trinity sitting of Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday in a claim brought by Christopher Power, aged 4 years, suing through his mother and best friend, Mrs. Ann Power 18, Boreenatra, Dungarvan in a personal injuries claim for £15,000 brought against Donal Whelan, Coal Merchant and Patrick Whelan of 50, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan.

Mr. J. O'Kelly B.L. (instructed by Murphy McCullagh & Co.) for the plaintiffs told the court that on October 20, 1989, the child was riding his toy tractor at 20 Childers Estate when a lorry owned by the first named defendant and driven by the second named defendant reversed and collided with him. As a result of the accident, the child suffered facial abrasions and an ear injury and subsequently suffered nightmares for some time.

Mr. O'Kelly added that an offer of £5,000 was originally made but the court was not satisfied that this was adequate because of the nightmares. Since then there had been no further occurrence of the nightmares and a further £500 had been added to the settlement offer. While he did not still feel that the latest offer was overly generous, Mr. O'Kelly submitted it for the approval of the court.

When Mrs. Power went into the witness box and told Judge Sheridan that they would prefer to have the matter settled, the settlement of £5,500 was approved. Judge Sheridan also allowed a sum of £250 for special damages together with costs.

M/s. M. M. Halley & Son, Solrs. Waterford were the defendants.

SYMPATHY

At a specially convened meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council held on Tuesday evening, outstanding tributes were paid to the late Canon Farrell by the Chairman, Cllr. M. O'Riordan and all the members and a sincere vote of sympathy was passed with the Bishop and Clergy of the diocese and with the bereaved relatives on the loss sustained by his death.
