Waterford Foods Chief Executive Refutes "Sunday Business Post" Claims On Avonmore Merger

MR. STEPHEN O'CONNOR

Claims made in an article published in last Sunday's "Sunday Business Post" concerning the proposed merger between Waterford Foods and Avonmore Foods were rejected by Mr. Stephen O'Connor, Managing Director, in a statement from Waterford Foods plc issued on Monday.

The Business Post article dealing with the proposed acquisition by Waterford Foods of United Co-operative Dairies (UCD) in the UK stated that a proposal by Avonmore made some months ago that UCD should be made the subject of a joint purchase by both Waterford and Avonmore had been rejected by Waterford Foods. As a result it

Christy O'Connor To Launch Dungarvan GC's Fundraising Drive

Christy O'Connor whose golfing career is legendary will visit Dungarvan on Saturday next, August 24, to launch the first major fundraising drive by Dungarvan Golf Club to finance the development of the club's new proposed 18 holes course and ancillary facilities at Knocknagranagh, Dungarvan estimated to cost well in excess of £1 million.

For the record Christy O'Connor has been ten times Irish Champion; appeared fifteen times for Ireland in the World Cup; has ten Ryder Cup caps — a record on both sides of the Atlantic; is winner of countless other major titles; six times European Seniors Champion and twice World Seniors champion. And though the mounting years have obviously taken their toll, Christy at 66, can still hold his place in tournaments with players less than half his age.

And so when this legendary golfer arrives in Dungarvan on Saturday there will undoubtedly be a huge welcome awaiting him not only from the members of the golfing fraternity but from the general public to most of whom his name is a household word.

The new course at Knocknagranagh, some three miles outside town on the main Waterford road, has already been pegged and commencing at 10 a.m., Christy O'Connor accompanied by Moss Fives, the course architect, who is member of the well-known Fives family from Tourin, Cappoquin, with officials and members of the club will walk the course and discuss the proposed lay out.

Later in the afternoon from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m. Christy will hold a clinic at Ballinacourty and then, commencing at 6 p.m until 8 p.m., he will play in a 9-holes fourball exhibition.

A busy schedule will be climaxed when at 9 p.m. at the Ballinacourty headquarters, Christy will launch the Club's first major fundraising drive based on five monthly draws for tickets priced at £100 each or £20 per draw.

The organisers have not overlooked the social aspect of the occasion as they plan to bring the day to an end with an open-air Bar-B-Q at Ballinacourty with the proviso of course, so much to the fore all through the past summer, that the weather will permit.

Married recently in St. Augustine's Church, Abbeyside were Paul Gilbertt, Sydney, Australia and Libby O'Donoghue, "Abbeyville," Abbeyside. The reception was held in Ballyrafter House Hotel, Lismore. —(Photo: Clatre Cusack).

Young Abbeyside Woman In Fatal Car Crash

A young Abbeyside woman sustained fatal injuries on Monday night last when the car she was driving crashed and overturned at a small bridge near the Marine Bar, Pulla, on the main Cork road about six miles from Dungarvan.

She was Mrs. Yvonne Landers (30) a widow with two young children who lived at the Grove, Abbeyside, Dungarvan.

The fatal accident occurred at about 10 p.m. on Monday night as Mrs. Landers and a friend, Mr. Tim Shepherd from Kent in England, were returning from Ardmore. Both were rushed by ambulance to Cork Regional Hospital but Mrs. Landers was pronounced dead on arrival. Mr. Shepherd was detained at the hospital where he is recovering from injuries.

The tragic accident has cast a great gloom over the area where Mrs. Landers and her family are extremely well-known and popular and the sincere sympathy of the entire community is now extended to them on the great loss which they have sustained under such tragic circumstances.

Great Double Issue Of "Treoir"

The current issue of Treoir, the journal of Comhaltas Ceoltoiri Eireann, carries an extensive tribute to the late Paddy O'Brien — one of the greatest traditional accordionists of all time. In a series of articles, the life of this famous musician/composer/teacher is traced from his early years in Newtown, Co. Tipperary, to his emigration to America and his eventual return to Ireland.

Of particular interest to readers in Co. Waterford will be "Memories Of Seamus Ennis" an article written by Dr. Kevin McCann who was a well-known figure in Comhaltas circles in Waterford in the late '40s and '50s while there is also an article on "Saol Fado" by Sorcha Ni Cheilleachair, An Rinn.

This issue also has a report on New York based traditional musician Jack Coen who has been conferred with the National Heritage Fellowship of America. Jack was born in Drumnacuckla, Co. Galway, in 1925.

History will be made in Montreal next April when the first ever North American Provincial Council of Comhaltas is launched. There are 40 branches of the movement in the United States and Canada. Over 1,000 delegates attended the Annual Conference in New Jersey this year.

Treoir is published by CCE, Belgrave Square, Monkstown, Co. Dublin, and an annual subscription is £6 (post free).

Pause For Thought With Fr. Paddy

LOOK TO THE FUTURE

On a number of Sundays during the past few weeks, we walked with the Israelites on their journey to the promised land. We saw them forget God's goodness, and give their allegiance to false idols. In the first reading for next Sunday we see them settled and contented in the land of the Amorites. As we watch, we see them beguiled by their new prosperity. And soon, they started to forget about God, and show favour to the gods of the Amorites. Joshua was displeased, and summoned all the people to meet him at Shechem. There he charged them with their infidelity. You, he said, have abandoned the God of your fathers, and you have indulged in false worship. So, I as your leader, implore you to make a new beginning with God. I declare, before you all, that the God I serve is the one true God. And, I charge you this day to join me in pledging your services to that same God or go your own way and offer your obeisance to the idols you've been worshipping. They responded with one voice and said, we've not forgotten God's goodness to our fathers, and we proclaim that we too will serve Him.

Would you take your minds back to those occasions when you received Holy Communion. Did you realise that each time you received, you declared and made the choice that you came to God, because you believed and hoped in Him? Any idea of betrayal at such moments would be far from one's mind. In fact, each occasion amounts to an act of faith and love, which includes a declaration of fidelity. Our very act makes us one in spirit with God. We know how the Jewish people lapsed and lapsed despite all their protestations. Hence, because we are moulded in the same human flesh, we must remember that Jesus is life, and guard against drifting into the ways of the world. Your future lies with Christ.

Paul in the second reading tells us how we should nurse our relationship with God. And, he says, it is necessary for each and everyone to take their place in the Body of Christ, the Church. As part of that Body, we are nourished on the Bread of Life, and participate, operate and live the life of Christ. You could say, the whole Body vibrates with life as the Blood of Christ rushes and reaches into every part. That's why we can say: "I live now not I, but Christ liveth in me."

Paul uses the image of marriage to illustrate God's love for His Church, and says, husbands ought to model their love of their wives on that of Christ's. Just as Christ is the Head of the Church, so is the husband the head of the family. Wives should therefore be subject to their husbands, not as servants, but as companions. This in no way denies a wife her dignity or her liberty as a mother and a wife. The office of the husband is to ordain matters to promote harmony, peace and respect. Paul is saying, love should be the axis on which all mutual relations should rotate. In short, the husband ought to love his wife like Christ loves His bride, the Church.

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF FATHERS

If people read and follow God's blueprint for marriage, they'll have sanity in their homes. If dads did their duty, you'd see them leading their families at worship. I remember a little girl who cried: "no one in the house will pray with me except the dog." It is time people opened their minds to the fact that there's no life without God.

In the Gospel there's drama and division following the promise of the Eucharist. The discussion presents us with information on how to achieve and fulfil our function in the Body of Christ, which lives and operates on God's love. Some disciples found the doctrine of the Eucharist difficult to accept. Their lack of faith made it impossible for them to believe Christ's challenging claim. To them, it was nonsense. When Jesus asked the 12 if they were also leaving, Peter replied: "Lord, it is hard to accept, but where can we go. You have the words of eternal life." In fact, Peter was declaring that Jesus was the Holy One of God.

When one looks round the world and sees the countless numbers that no longer walk with Christ, one must ask: where do I stand? Do I believe in Christ's teaching or do I join the mad rush for "gold"? Paul spoke of the uncertainties of life. Have you noticed the increase in local deaths? One day you see someone on the street, and the next day you hear he is dead and buried. Truly, we're here today and gone tomorrow. However, life is not easy for anyone, but, whatever our troubles may be, it would be madness to try to live without God.

Outstanding 11th Annual Aglish Vintage Rally

One of the biggest crowds ever seen in Aglish attended our 11th annual Vintage Rally which was held as usual each year on Sunday, August 11. The Vintage Festival started on Thursday evening, August 8 with an under-14 ladies football match, Aglish/Villierstown/Ballinameela v. Ardfinnan. The match ended all square 6-6 to 8-0. Medals were presented to the two teams. Referee for this match was Brian Connery of the local clubs Geraldines and St. Olivers.

Friday evening, August 9 saw the outstanding game of football provided by Geraldines and Modeligo. This was clean open football. Referee John Michael Kelly.

After the match music was played in Murray's pub by Dessie Norris.

Saturday night the Carling Vintage Festival Queen was chosen at a dance in The Village Inn. Music was played by Harmony. Nine girls contested for the title, in first place, the winner was Judy Veale from Dungarvan; 2nd place Tonette Landers, Cappoquin; 3rd place Anne Buckley, Cappagh.

On Sunday, August 11 the first vintage tractor came into the village early, we were blessed with the weather, the finest day that came this year. This was surely the largest crowd seen in the field and village ever. The crowd came from Kilkenny, Carlow, Wexford, Limerick, Tipperary, Waterford. We also had the biggest Cork crowd ever, especially from East Cork, a steady stream of cars and traffic came through Clashmore from early morning.

One of the main attractions in the field was the raffle of a Charolais calf won by Fr. Patrick Osborne. Open free sports, golf skills, baby show, spinner, old time waltzing competition, music by Finnisk Branch of C.C. and lots more attractions followed. The parade was led by the ever popular Dungarvan Pipe Band which are coming to Aglish for years.

On Sunday night the Festival closed with a dance in the Village Inn with music played by the Dawn Sisters all the way from Mitchelstown, before a capacity crowd.

The Vintage Committee wish to thank the following:— Exhibitors, members of Geraldines Hurling and Football Club, Aglish Parents Association, the "Dungarvan Leader" for coverage of notes, and each and everyone of our sponsors who made this Vintage Festival such an outstanding success, hoping that all our sponsors will accept this thanks as it would be impossible to write to everyone of them all. Thanking you one and all again. See you all same Sunday 1992. — P.G.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Question — I am a part-time relief worker. My hours worked vary from week to week and some weeks I am not called at all. Up to now I have never been granted paid holidays. Can you tell me if the new rules for part-time workers apply to me?

Answer — Yes! The benefits under the Worker Protection (Regular Part-Time Employees) Act, 1991, apply to anyone working on a regular basis for at least 8 hours per week for the same employer. The fact that you don't work every week doesn't exclude you. As soon as you have worked for 13 weeks since 6th April last for the same employer you are covered and the 13 weeks don't have to be consecutive. You will be entitled to 6 hours paid leave for every 100 hours worked.

Touraneena Notes

ENGAGEMENT

We wish to congratulate Claire Hickey, daughter of Paddy and Teresa Hickey, Sleady on her recent engagement to Kevin Naughton of Dunstable, Bedfordshire, England. Claire has spent the last four years nursing in Luton and Dunstable Hospital, Bedfordshire. We wish Claire and Kevin the best of luck.

ONE MAN SHOW

Congratulations to Patrick Whelan on a brilliant performance in Dunford's

Lounge on Saturday and Sunday night last. Patrick drew a huge crowd from near and far with his "One Man Show." Patrick comes from that well known musical family — the Whelans of Knockboy. Sunday night was tinged with sadness owing to the death of Eddie Kirwan, Boulavouneen. We hope to see Patrick back again in the near future.

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to the wife Minnie, brothers, sisters, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends of the late Eddie Kirwan, Boulavouneen whose death occurred on Saturday last. Eddie was President of the local GAA Club and will be sadly missed by all. May he rest in peace.

WEDDING

Congratulations to Tony Ahearne, Dungarvan and Jackie O'Sullivan, Knockraha, Ballinamult who got married on Saturday last in St. Mary's Church, Touraneena. We wish Tony and Jackie all the best for their future happiness.

CARDS

Last week's winners — 1, Brendan O'Dwyer and Eamon Power; 2, Brendan Tobin and Nonie Queally; 3, Johnny Prendergast and Tom Tobin; Last game, Bridget Fitzpatrick and Biddy Nugent; Lucky tables — Paddy Cullinan, Alice Burke, Bob Keane, Tommy Condon. Raffle — Bridget Fitzpatrick, Mick Power, Piery Wall.

WATERFORD LADY FOOTBALLERS

We would like to extend congratulations to the Waterford Ladies senior football team who defeated Kerry in a close fought encounter at Listowel recently. Special congratulations to Olivia Condon who represented Touraneena in fine fashion by turning in a sparkling display.

We wish them continuing success in the forthcoming All-Ireland semi-final and eventually we hope to see them representing our county in Croke Park.

Kilrossanty Notes

G.A.A.

Senior Football — Our senior footballers had three very useful workouts in the past week in preparation for our remaining championship games. Last Tuesday evening they defeated Moyle Rovers of Tipperary in Leamybrien on the score of 1-12 to 3-3. On Sunday they played two games, the first against Fethard-on-Sea from Wexford and eventually ran out winners on the score of 1-12 to 1-8. That evening they travelled to Fethard in Tipperary to take on the home team and in the end we won by 1-8 to 0-5.

On Sunday next we take on Tramore in the championship. This is a game we must win if we are to qualify for the knock-out stages of this year's competition.

Minor Football — Our minor footballers had a good win over Tramore in a challenge last Monday night in Leamybrien. We ran out convincing winners in the end on the score of 3-10 to 2-6.

Team — P. Barry, O. Fennell, J. Crotty, B. Maguire, B. Lannon, K. Lonergan (1-0), K. Cotter, D. Mulhearn, C. Dee (0-4), F. Hogan (0-1), N. O'Connor (1-5), M. Kiely, J. Kiely (1-0), P. Veale, S. Power. Subs — O. Fahey for S. Power, D. Kiely for K. Cotter.

Under-16 Football — Our under-16 footballers were beaten by the Nire in the Billy Terry Memorial Tournament in Rathgormack last Wednesday night. We are due to play Ballyduff in our first game of the championship next Monday night in Ballyduff and hopefully we can get off to a winning start in this year's campaign.

Under-12 Hurling — Our under-12 hurlers were beaten by Stradbally in a challenge last Wednesday evening in Leamybrien on the score of 4-1 to 2-4. This was meant to be a championship match but unfortunately we were unable to field a full team.

LADIES FOOTBALL

Congratulations to the under-14s who won the Modeligo Pattern under-14 tournament. This game was played in Modeligo on Thursday afternoon last against Na Deise. It was a very entertaining game played by two evenly matched teams and at the end of normal time the sides were level on the score of 2-6 each.

In the first period of extra time Kilrossanty went ahead by two goals and held on to the lead to the end. After the game the team received beautiful medals.

Team — M. Walsh, S. Hallahan, M. Kirwan, L. Murphy, L. Power, S. Kirwan, C. Foley, A. Harney, J. Hallahan, T. Whyte, P. Cotter, A. Daly, C. Walsh, A. M. Coade, C. Fraher, E. Lynch, T. O'Riordan.

Thanks to Modeligo for inviting us into their tournament.

Well done to S. Power, A. Harney and J. Hallahan, all members of the county under-16 panel who have reached the All-Ireland final.

On Waterford Team — Two of our local girls (sisters in fact), June and Collette Whyte, played on the Waterford Ladies Football senior team which beat Wexford in the National League semi-final last Sunday on the score 4-7 top 0-4. The girls will be playing next Sunday in Dungarvan against Leitrim in the All-Ireland semi-final. Best of luck girls.

DEATH

Sympathy is extended to Mr. Vincent Walsh of Comeragh on the death of his sister-in-law, Sister M. Cletus (Hally) whose death took place at Auteven Hospital, Kilkenny, on Saturday last. Burial took place in Foulkstown Cemetery, Kilkenny after 3 p.m. Requiem Mass on Monday. She is also survived by nieces and nephews. May she rest in peace.

BINGO

The winner of the top prize of £300 went to Mrs. Mary Purcell of Furraleigh in Crotty's Inn last Tuesday night. Prize money increased as from this week.

GOLF

Congratulations to Mr. Brian Lynch of Leamybrien who won £1,000 worth of golfing equipment on WLR recently.

BEST WISHES

Best wishes go to newly ordained priest, Fr. Michael Collender, Ballinavouga, who leaves this week for the Augustinian House in Galway to where he is assigned.

WATERFORD SHOW

Mr. Frank Cunningham of Boolatin scooped two first prizes in the Blackface Mountain Sheep section at Waterford Show on Sunday last.

PARISH COUNCIL

A meeting of the above will take place on this Thursday night, 22nd inst. in Fews Sacristy at 8.30 p.m. Any outstanding money from the recent Dog Night can be handed in at this meeting.

MASS

Mass on Ballintlea Mountain on Sunday, 25th inst. at 3 p.m. (weather permitting).

FIELD DAY

The annual Field Day (threshing, donkey derby, sports, side shows, etc.), will take place on Sunday, September 8. More details next week.

EXAM RESULTS

Well done to all the boys and girls of the area who received their Leaving Cert results last week. Hope all were pleased with the outcome.

CROTTY'S INN

RECENT DEATHS

Mr. Maurice Kiely

We write with very sincere regret and sadness on the unexpected passing after a short duration of illness of Mr. Maurice Kiely, Emmet Street, Dungarvan in the early hours of Monday, August 5, at Cork Regional Hospital. Aged 69 years, Maurice was a man of many talents, he had a life long interest in the world of radio and electronics. A noted electrician, Maurice was employed for many years with the ESB.

In his early days he was a valued member of the Local Defence Forces and was promoted to the rank of Lieut. He took part in many of their training programmes in Fermoy over the years. He loved music, was a founder member of the Gramophone Circle and was lighting technician with the local Dramatic Club. His lighting effects and expertise enhanced many of their splendid productions.

He was a keen tennis player and was a member of the old Dungarvan Club on the Youghal Road, but to most locals Maurice Kiely will always be linked with sailing and over his many years on the water numerous trophies and accolades came his way in the world of competitive boating. In the 1950's he attended boat building classes out of which grew, like many others, his love of maritime pursuits.

We mourn the passing of Maurice, a man who enjoyed great popularity and respect in our community, a grouping that is all the poorer since his demise. We sympathise with his brother Peter and his many relatives on their loss.

On Tuesday evening Maurice's remains were brought from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church where on arrival they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. McNamara, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. J. Kiely, C.C. and Very Rev. Fr. J. O'Sullivan.

On Wednesday Requiem Mass was concelebrated by Very Rev. Fr. John Boyle, P.P. Also present were Very Rev. Fr. J. O'Sullivan and Rev. Fr. Hooper, O.S.A., after which the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Liturgy of the Word was read by Eddie Kiely, Waterford (cousin) while guards of honour were provided by the Sailing Club, ESB and Local Defence Force.

Late Margaret Hyslop

With sadness and deep sympathy we write on the passing of Margaret Hyslop, Fitzgerald's Terrace, Dungarvan, on Saturday, August 17 at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan. We tender our sympathies to her sister, nephews and nieces on their loss.

Funeral took place on Sunday to St. Mary's Parish Church where following Requiem Mass on Monday the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

(Full obituary next issue.) (James Kiely & sons, Funeral Directors.)

Mr. Edward Kirwan

With regret we record the passing of Edward Kirwan, Boulavounteen, Ballinamult, which sad event occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Clonmel on Saturday, August 17.

The remains were removed from the Drohan Funeral Home, Dungarvan on Sunday evening to Touraneena Church and following Requiem Mass on Monday morning burial took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To his wife Minnie and relatives we express our deepest sympathy.

Full obituary next issue. (Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

CLOVER MEATS LIQUIDATION

Angry Farmers Walk Out In Protest

As the collapsed Clover Meats Ltd. went into voluntary liquidation last Friday, twenty farmers angrily walked out of a shareholders meeting, in protest over the way the financial institutions had treated the company.

With debts totalling nearly four million pounds, all the monies raised in the liquidation will go to the Department of Labour as a secured creditor, while the farmers and trade suppliers will not receive a penny of the £1.6m they are owed.

At Friday's stormy meeting, two financial institutions, the Agricultural Credit Corporation and the Bank of Ireland, were roundly condemned for failing to support the group when it got into difficulties in 1984.

It was eventually decided, on a unanimous vote, to wind up the group, which has debts totalling £3.97m, marking their end of a bitter and expensive seven-year saga. The meeting also approved the appointment of Enniscorthy based accountant, Mr. David Dowling, as liquidator.

Speaking after the meeting, Mr. Victor Quinlan, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Society, said the creditors were angry that while the banks were paid what they were owed, they were left suffering a loss.

Among the larger creditors were: Bandon Marts, who were owed £18,426, Coleman's Printers Ltd., Clarke's Bridge, Cork (£27,154), F.B.D. Ltd. (£37,187), Stephen Galway, Half Way House, Co. Waterford (£14,829) and James Walsh, Bilboa, Cappamore, Co.

Limerick (£10,858).

The group went into receivership at the end of November 1984, amid bitter controversy over who was to blame for the collapse of the industry, which employed around 1,500 people at its peak.

The saga began back in the early 1980s, when the group which involved Clover Meats Ltd., Clonmel Foods Ltd., National Proteins Ltd. and Clover Exports Ltd. got into difficulties.

Late in 1984, the problems came to a head. The workers went on strike in support of a 15% pay increase. The company offered six per cent and warned that if this was not accepted the company would close.

500 JOBS LOST

The dispute was settled after five weeks, but in November the group ran into financial difficulties and a rescue package with the Bank of Ireland and the A.C.C. fell through. On Friday, November 30, the group went into receivership with the loss of five hundred jobs in Waterford.

Farmers who had supplied the group with livestock were particularly bitter at the move. They complained that the plug on the industry should have been pulled during the strike, not when production had resumed and over £3m worth of animals had been slaughtered.

There was much bitterness throughout Waterford at the time among workers and creditors. The Government of the day, the unions and the financial institutions, were all blamed for the collapse, which traumatised the area and industry locally for years.

STRADBALLY NOTES

PIPE BAND DANCE

The Bonmahon/Seafield Pipe Band are bringing Johnny McEvoy to Crotty's Lounge Bar, Leamybrien, Kilmacthomas, on this Saturday night, August 24.

The band are at present in need of cash as a number of new instruments need to be bought as soon as possible and because of this they have organised the above great night out which we again ask as many people as possible to support.

NEW ARRIVALS

Congratulations to Mrs. Marie and Mr. Paddy Kiely, New Houses, Stradbally, on the birth of their new baby son recently at Airway Hospital, Waterford. Congratulations also to Mrs. Anne and Mr. Jim Cullinane, Bonmahon (nee Whelan, Stradbally), on the birth of their new baby son at the Cork Maternity Hospital during the past week.

IN HOSPITAL

At present a patient at Kilkenny Hospital, Kilkenny, is local man Mr. Jimmy White, Grague, Stradbally, we hope that his stay there will be a very short one and that he will soon be back home and well.

DEBS NIGHT

Many young men and women from this area will be attending the Kilmacthomas Community Schools annual debts night at The Park Hotel, Dungarvan, on this Thursday night, August 22, where we wish all concerned a great night.

EXAMS SUCCESS

Very well done and lots of congratulations are this week extended to all of our parish young people who did so very well in their Leaving Certificate examinations. But the problem now or in the future is where are the jobs going to come from for all of these?

FROM HOLIDAYS

Welcome back home to Miss Emma Casey, Ballyvoile, Stradbally, who has recently spent two weeks holidays in Northern Ireland where we hear she had a great time and also welcome home to Miss Ann Marie Morrissey, Kilminion, Stradbally, who has recently returned from a week's break in Dublin.

DEATH

The death occurred at the Waterford Regional Hospital, Ardkeen, last week of Larry Power, Brenan, Stradbally. His remains were removed to Ballylaneen, Kilmacthomas on Thursday evening, August 8 where they were met and blessed on arrival by V. Rev. Fr. Michael J. Ryan, P.P., Stradbally. The interment took place after 11 o'clock Mass to the adjoining cemetery which was said by Rev. Fr. Pat Butler, C.C., Stradbally, who also said the final prayers at the graveside. Our deepest and sincerest sympathy is extended to his family and very many friends. R.I.P.

ON HOLIDAY

At present on holiday in England is Mrs. Kitty O'Brien, Lisadell, Knockrower, Stradbally, where she has gone to visit her family and friends.

EMIGRANT DANCE

There is an emigrant dance taking place at Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan, on this Friday night, August 23 for all at home and abroad and tickets for this which are £3 each can be had from Rev. Fr. Michael J. Ryan, P.P., Stradbally or at the door on the night.

WELL DONE

Our congratulations and very well done is this week extended to local Bus Eireann driver, Mr. Michael Power, Rockville, Stradbally, who has been recently appointed to the Dungarvan to Dublin daily run.

LEAVING CERT RESULTS

Congrats to all the Leaving Cert students who did so well in this year's Leaving Cert exams and who celebrated the announcement of the results over the weekend.

KILL NOTES

LATE NICHOLAS MURRAY

Last Friday morning we were all saddened to hear of the death of Mr. Nicholas Murray, Killbarrymeaden, Kill. It was a shock to us all as fine a man as Nick should be taken away from us after a short illness. He worked with Waterford Co-op all his life and he will be sadly missed by them and us as he was a kind, caring and lovable person.

His funeral took place last Saturday evening from his home and the remains were received and blessed by Rev. Fr. Burns, C.C. A large crowd of mourners and friends had attended.

On Sunday morning after 11 o'clock Mass he was prayed for by Rev. Fr. Burns, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. Condon, C.C. and Very Rev.

Fr. Carey, P.P. He was then buried in the nearby cemetery in the presence of a large cortege.

We extend our sincerest sympathies to his wife Bridget, his sons, daughter, brother, sisters, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandchildren, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends. May he rest in peace.

KILL G.A.A.

Last Saturday night, August 17, our junior hurlers travelled to Ballyduff to take on Ferrybank in the final game of the championship. However, we were completely overwhelmed and in the end were well beaten despite being short a number of key players who are presently injured.

The team was: R. Hennessy, F. Casey, P. Regan, M. Ryan, B. Whelan, J.

Kennedy, L. Lennon, K. Whelan, E. Power, T. Hennessy, M. Regan, D. Power. Subs — J. Burns, J. Kiely.

KILL SUMMER FESTIVAL

The Kill Summer Festival which was cut short due to the death of the late Michael Hennessy, takes place this weekend. On Friday evening, August 23, the final of the senior hurling tournament takes place when local rivals Ballygunner take on Passage in what should be a cracking match, which is timed for 7 o'clock. So don't miss this one!

Our Field Day takes place on Sunday, August 25 where there are many items of interest. The donkey derby should be a good attraction and a big field is expected, so Kill is the place to be this weekend.

Limerick Mayor To Host Museum Society "Treaty 300" Visit

Next Sunday members and friends of Dungarvan Museum Society will visit Limerick in this, its tricentennial year, when the city celebrates "Treaty 300" commemorating the sieges and treaty of Limerick and remembers the brave deeds of Patrick Sarsfield, Galloping Hogan and the fearless Shannonside men and women who gallantly withstood the might of the Williamite Armies.

The Society is greatly honoured to have as its host and medieval city tour guide Alderman Jim Kemmy T.D., recently elected Mayor of Limerick. A noted local historian, Major Kemmy is co-editor of three special siege and treaty editions of the "Old Limerick Journal", the first of which was launched by President Robinson on New Year's Day '91.

En route to Limerick the Society will visit Glenstal Castle, former home of The Barringtons, founders of Barringtons Hospital, Limerick, now a Benedictine Monastery and its renowned gardens.

URBAN COUNCIL MEMBERS ON KING JOHN'S CASTLE TOUR
Members of Dungarvan Urban District Council, accompanied by Town Clerk, Mr. Bertie White, were guests of Dungarvan Museum Society recently on a guided tour of King John's Castle. Welcoming the guests, Society President, Mr. Matt Connolly, outlined the introduction of the society's guided tourist town trail and the highly gratifying response it had evoked from visitors, raising the profile of Dungarvan and its Castle to a new level as a town of great historic interest. Local historian and author, Mr. William Fraher, conducted the tour and in great detail traced the Castle's colourful history.

Also accompanying the guests was Mr. Gabriel Foley, Administrator of the F.A.S. Scheme, whose team of young local people have done excellent work in refurbishing the Castle. U.D.C. Chairman, Cllr. Michael O'Riordan, at conclusion, thanking the Society for the opportunity, paid tribute to Mr. William Fraher and the Society for its initiative in introducing the Town Trail and Castle Tour and its work in recording Dungarvan's history and assured the Society of the Council's interest and support. He also complimented Mr. Foley on the results achieved by the F.A.S. Scheme and its workforce, all members and Mr. White concurring.

Town Trail continues daily Monday to Saturday to end of month with special Castle Tour each Wednesday at 8 p.m. (assembly at Market House, Tourist Office).

Kilmacthomas Notes

IN HOSPITAL

We wish a speedy recovery to Mrs. Joanie Joy, Scrahan, Kilmacthomas, who is recovering in Ardkeen General Hospital following a car accident last week.

BIRTH

Congratulations to Michael and Ann Marie Brown, Rathmeaden, on the happy event, the birth of a baby girl.

WON £150

Congratulations to Anna Scurry, Kilnagrange, Kilmacthomas, on her lucky win of £150 in the Kilrossanty raffle at their "Dog Night" at Kilcohan Park, Waterford on Saturday night week last. Congrats also to Kathleen Whelan, Kilnagrange, who won £25 in the same raffle.

SPONSORED CYCLE

Presently in training for a sponsored cycle in aid of the Muscle Dystrophy Association from Cork to Kilmacthomas are many local cyclists. The cycle will take place on Saturday, September 7 and all are seeking sponsorship so please give generously to this very worthy cause.

LATE JOE KELLY

The village of Kilmacthomas and surrounding areas were shocked to learn of the tragic death of Joe Kelly, Woodland Heights, Carrickbeg, following a bicycle accident at Jonestown Cross outside Carrick-on-Suir. Joe, who was a popular worker and director of E. Flahavan & Sons Ltd., Kilnagrange Mills, Kilmacthomas, was a quiet man who enjoyed his cycling. We offer our sincere sympathy to his wife Helen, family, relatives and friends.

SYMPATHY

We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Michael Hennessey, Rathanny, Kill, whose death occurred on August 4 following a recent illness.

MARRIED

We wish the very best of luck to Tom Joe Power, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Power, Walshes Place, Kilmacthomas and the charming Miss Gillian Burke, Waterford, who are getting married on Saturday next, August 24.

83 YEARS YOUNG

Congratulations to Mrs. Nora Walshe, William Street, Portlaw, who celebrated her 83rd birthday with a party with her daughter Margaret of Riverview Estate recently.

WATERFORD SHOW

Many locals attended the 2nd annual Waterford Show at Knockmore, Waterford on Sunday last.

HEADLESS COACHMAN

It is a well-known fact that many years ago the Headless Coachman used to travel up the Currabaha Road and then disappear into the still of the night. I wonder if this is what Patie saw?

KILMACTHOMAS G.A.A. NOTES

Phelan Cup — I completely forgot to report on the Phelan Cup game between Kilmac' and Faha last week. It must have been due to the "Craic in Kilmac". Sorry about that, Peter! Anyway, after a hard-fought game that was in doubt up to the last minute when Jim Burke scored a great goal, Kilmac' emerged victorious on the score of 1-7 to 1-2.

Kilmac' team and scorers — Finbarr McCarthy, Sean Behan, Paddy McGrath, John Carey, Paddy Drohan, Eddie Rockett, Michael Kiely (0-1), Martin Troy (0-1), Tom O'Connell, Tom Joe Power (0-1), Derry Kiely (0-1), Jim Burke (1-0), Joe Joy (0-2), Jessie Whelan, Johnno Power (0-1).

They now take on Butlerstown in the second round.

Senior Football — Our senior footballers took on St. Saviours in the third round of the championship in Portlaw on Sunday afternoon last and after a hard fought game Saviours came out on top by 0-9 to 0-4. This was a game Kilmac' threw away as they missed chance after chance in the first half and paid the penalty in the second half when St. Saviours took their chances to claim two very valuable championship points.

Kilmac' team and scorers — Finbarr McCarthy, Sean Behan, Paddy McGrath, Eddie Rockett, Johnny Brown, Michael Rockett, Ned Power, David Kiely, Joe Joy, Jessie Whelan, Johnno Power (0-1), James Power (0-2), Derry Kiely (0-1), Andrew Rockett, Tom O'Connell, Tom Joe Power.

Referee — Mr. Pat Kearns, Bonmahon.

We take on Clashmore in Dungarvan on Sunday next, August 25 at 2 p.m. and a big improvement is required.

Best Wishes — All in the club wish the best of luck to Tom Joe Power, Walshes Place and Miss Gillian Burke, Waterford, who are getting married on Saturday next.

Congratulations — Congratulations to club members Michael and Ann Marie Brown on the happy event, the birth of a beautiful baby girl.

Found — A ladies purse was found in the Kilmacthomas G.A.A. Grounds after the "Craic in Kilmac" on Saturday week last. Will the owner please contact Mrs. Nellie Brown, Rathmeaden, Kilmacthomas.

Sun Shines On Villierstown Gala

Villierstown was blessed with glorious sunshine for its Annual Gala on Sunday last, and the crowds enjoyed the stalls, the sports and the side shows in the lovely garden of Villierstown House, which Mr. and Mrs. Harding Bancroft kindly lent.

A special feature later in the afternoon was an Auction Sale which proved very popular. Over a hundred items were sold, and in the evening there were scenes of successful bidders carrying their trophies to the cars: everything from books to bedsteads and pictures to porcelain.

The funds raised will help the Trustees to further the restoration of Villierstown Church and to add to the equipment for its use as a Community Centre.

Grateful thanks are due to all our sponsors, to our auctioneer Mr. John Noonan and his helpers, and to all those who contributed to the success of the day.

TALLOW NOTES

CHARITY COFFEE MORNING

On Saturday next, August 24 from 10.30 a.m. to 1 p.m. a Coffee Morning will be held at the Enterprise Centre in Tallow in aid of the suffering, displaced and homeless people of Liberia.

The SMA Fathers are at the heart of helping to rebuild the country after the disastrous civil war in which 20,000 were killed and over 2 million people have wound up in Refugee Camps.

At home on holidays in Tallow at present is Fr. Laurence Collins of the SMA Fathers. He is a brother of Mrs. Mary O'Brien of 30, West Street and he has been working in northern Liberia for the past 37 years.

The organising committee of the Coffee Morning would greatly appreciate donations of milk, sugar, tea, coffee, etc. for the occasion while there will be baskets placed at the Credit Union and Enterprise Centre for donations of non-perishable foods, saucepans, cutlery and children's toys, all of which will be later sent to Liberia to be distributed amongst the needy people.

So come along, enjoy a social morning and help a very worthy cause.

LATE MRS. CATHERINE (KATE) CUNNINGHAM

It is with sincere regret that we record the death of Mrs. Catherine (Kate) Cunningham (nee Walshe), Currareigh, Tallow, which took place at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, following a comparatively short illness on Wednesday, August 7.

The late Mrs. Cunningham who was in her 80th year was predeceased by her husband Jim a little over a year ago. A native of Ballyculane, Dungarvan, she worked for many years at Butlers, Lackendarra, Toura-neena before she was married.

Kate, as she was affectionately known to her many friends, was a very well respected lady by all who knew her and she lived a good life in keeping with the old traditional Irish ways.

Her remains were removed from the hospital mortuary following prayers recited by Rev. Fr. Kiely C.C., and Sister Maura. The cortege travelled from Dungarvan via Ballyanchor and paused for a few minutes outside her home at Currareigh before moving on to Tallow where the coffin was received and blessed at the Church of the Immaculate Conception by Very Rev. Fr. M. Walsh, P.P., Tallow.

Requiem Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. Fr. Walsh on the following morning after which the interment took place in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a large gathering of mourning relatives and friends. Fr. Walsh recited the final prayers at the graveside.

Chief mourners included her daughter Sheila, son-in-law Tom, grandchildren Deirdre and Irene, her sister Mrs. Lizzie Roche, Congress Villas, Dungarvan, nephews and nieces to all of whom deepest sympathy is extended.

FESTIVAL NEWS

The full programme for the Festival is now in circulation and looks quite impressive. Starting on Wednesday night, opening by our own Cllr. Willie McDonnell, official opening at 8 p.m. to Horse Fair night on Tuesday, September 3, a full week. Full programme in this edition of the "Leader."

Fashion Show — The fashion show should be a great night with lovely outfits from that famous house of fashion, "Impulse", Midleton and Tallow's Sheila Curley with her wedding and first communion dresses. Tickets are now on sale at Ted Keniry's Bar or phone 56247.

Final of Pub Talent — The final of the pub talent should be a wonderful night. We will have twelve finalists, two from each of the six pubs and "Ivory Sound" to back them, plus a great cabaret and dance and John Lyons will provide the lubrication.

Already two pubs have provided their winners. From the Corner House we had Eimer McMahon, Glencairn and Gbnait Aherne from Ballyduff. The winners from John Lyons were Herman Bailey, Midleton and John Henley, Tallow. This weekend four more pubs will give a result. This Thursday night Luke McCarthy's, Saturday night the "Hotel", Sunday night Ted Keniry's and finally Tuesday night at Bride View Bar.

The Corner House and John Lyons were two mighty nights — Heineken are of course sponsoring to the tune of £200.

Festival Queen — On Friday night the highlight of the Festival must be the Festival Queen, sixteen lovely girls from around the area will represent the business firms of the town under the watchful eye of Donie Gleeson of Cork. We will also have the Midleton Accordion Band with Con Ryan, who played to 20,000 people in London three weeks ago and our youth band "No Strings Attached". This will be followed by an adult disco "Golden Needle." All in all a packed programme.

National V.W. Beetle Show — On Sunday at noon the V.W. Beetles from all over the country will roll into Tallow, for what will be a marvellous gathering. Maureen Fox of the Cork Examiner will judge the best vintage, modified, standard and everyday use. First, second and third in the four different categories.

Car Treasure Hunt — The Car Treasure Hunt is a very popular event. Last year 38 cars competed. This year's event should be even better. Starting at 5 o'clock from the Oil Depot and finishing at the Bride View Bar.

Monster 45 Drive — On Monday night at 9 o'clock the annual monster 45 drive will take place at the Community Centre, £500 must be won. A night for all card loves. What a busy week — enjoy it!

ST. PATRICK'S PARISH HALL

Progressive 45 results, August 14 — 1st Moss Morrissey and Joe O'Shea; 2nd/3rd divided by John Gray and Noel Buckley, Chris Murphy and Joe Power, Cissie Power and Mary Murphy. Table Prizes — Maura Murray and Brian Ahearne, Eric Curley and Annie Neville. Raffle winners — Maura Murray, Dick Tobin, Peg Morrissey.

TALLOW COMMUNITY CENTRE

Last week's results were — Mrs. Roche, Fermoy; Lily McCarthy, West Street; Terry O'Connor, Cappoquin; James Kelleher, Lismore; Mrs. Whelan, Cappoquin; Mrs. Farrell, Ballyduff; Sonny O'Shea, Castlelyons; William Murphy, Woodview Park; Maria Delaney, Barrack Street; Deirdre Donnelly, Woodview Park; Peg Morrissey, Cappoquin; Mrs. Barry, Dungarvan; Mary Lee Ahern, Conna; Sadie Geary, Chapel Street; Mary Feeney, Glencairn; Mrs. Enright; Sean Kelly, Woodview Park; Mary McGrath, Convent Street; Cathleen Rice, Fermoy; Mary O'Brien, Aghlish; Mary Fitzgerald, Ballynoe; Nora Lane, Conna; Tom Hallahan.

Next week's jackpot will be £375 on 48 calls or less.

BUS TO MOUNT MELLERARY

A bus packed with pilgrims left Ballynoe last Monday evening for Melleray, to join in the Novena, which commenced on that evening. The Ballynoe Choir performed at the ceremony and the prayers were led by Fr. Michael Fitzgerald, C.C., Aghada

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES
Tallow 1-6 Mount Sion 2-15 — Tallow slumped to a heavy defeat at the hands of Mount Sion in their last league game, on Sunday last in Dungarvan. The first half was evenly contested with Mount Sion leading by 1-8 to 1-4 at half time. Tallow's second half performance must rank as one of our worst performances in a long time.

We were short the services of Pat Murphy, Johnny Geary and Dermot Henley and hopefully, all three will be fit to face near neighbours Lismore on September 8 in the county semi-final.

A lot of work will have to be done in the field from now on. Mount Sion did as they liked in the second half on Sunday last and strolled to an easy victory.

Team — Martin Murphy, Tomas McCarthy, Jim O'Donoghue, Colin Cunningham, David O'Regan, Tom Sheehan, Gerald Sice, Mark Geary, Paul Curley, Mickey Curley, Stephen Curley, J. J. Henley, Philly Curley, Eamonn Power, Connie Curley. Subs. — Gerry Hogan for David O'Regan; Martin Allen for Gerald Sice.

Tallow have drawn An Rinn in the junior football Western semi-final, no date has yet been made but it will probably depend on our hurling exploits.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A. NOTES

Club's Collection, August 24/25 — The club's annual collection has been arranged for the above dates, which comprises chapel gate collection at vigil and day Masses at Conna and Ballynoe, 8 p.m., 8.30 a.m. and 11 a.m. also Glengoura at the 9.30 a.m. Mass.

We are very grateful for the response from the public each year and we are asking you to do your best again this year. Heavy expenses are incurred in the club each year re hurleys, sliotars, injuries, etc., but it is a worth while object promoting the games amongst the youth and of course without our patrons assistance this would be an impossible task, so aris in anticipation go raibh maith agaibh.

As we write the junior football divisional championship semi-final versus Erin's Own will take place at Watergrasshill and our best wishes go with them. Go n-eiri an t-adh leo.

East Cork Hurling Semi-Final At Killeagh — Midleton 2-14 St. Catherine's 1-7 — On a splendidly laid out pitch at Killeagh last Thursday evening St. Catherine's opposed Midleton seeking a place in the final of the competition. Taking the field without the pivot of attack, the injured Kieran Morrisson, they threw themselves boldly into the game from the throw-in and in the twinkling of an eye they struck over a magnificent point, followed by two similar scores. Having missed a good scoring opportunity they remained undaunted and although Midleton started to make an impact in the contest Catherine's finished the first half on a 0-6 to 0-4 tally. Playing with the wind advantage in the last half, Midleton made some daring raids on the Catherine's goal, but were repelled time and again by a sound goalie and backline whose motto was "thou shall not pass." The centre-field pair too had a big say in the matter and gave a good supply to the forwards. Here of course, Midleton showed great strength in warding off many an onslaught with an almost impenetrable defence. About midway they sent over a great point but Catherine's looked good still when they replied with a similar score. Still Midleton's all round stronger team started to dominate entering the last quarter and slinging over successive points plus a goal from a low driven '65 they coasted to victory after an excellent game for three-quarters of an hour.

Catherine's team was — Michael O'Brien, Kevin O'Connell, Richard Cotter, Brendan Noonan, Jim Lane, Michael Dorgan, Ger Lynch, Johnny Sheehan, Michael Hegarty, Martin O'Keefe, Dessie Lucey, Paddy Lane, Brian Cotter, Robert Hamilton, Dave O'Connell. Subs. — Aidan Hickey, Oliver Lynch, Robert O'Connell, Kieran Morrisson, Paul O'Connell.

MISSION IN CONNA PARISH

The Sacred Heart Mission, Cork, will conduct a Mission in the parishes of Conna, Ballynoe and Glengoura from September 21 to 28.

BALLYNOE BOWLING CLUB

The newly formed Ballynoe Bowling Club wishes to express thanks to all who subscribed so generously to the clubs recent draw, also to the large crowd who attended the clubs social at McAuliffe's Bar, Ballynoe, last Saturday night. The P.R.O., John Hennessey, wishes to inform all, that the competitions are resuming again this week and hoping for your support as usual. The results from the draw which took place at Sat. night's social are as follows:

1st (lamb) Mrs. Noreen Hamilton, Monagoun, Conna; 2nd (£20) Tommie McCarthy, Upper Newtown, Ballynoe; 3rd (bottle of whiskey) John Flynn, Ballynoe; 4th Mrs. Wall, Whitegate, Cork.

BONMAHON NOTES

FAUGHEEN MASS

The annual Mass at Ballyristeen Church, Faugheen, for the deceased took place last Friday. There was a large crowd for what was a beautiful Mass with hymns sung by the congregation and priests. The Mass was celebrated by Fr. Carey, P.P. assisted by Fr. Ryan, P.P., Stradbally and Fr. Burns, C.C.

BEACH AWARENESS WEEK

Bonmahon Beach Awareness Week was a great success where a total of 48 children took part. Great enjoyment was the overall reaction from parents and children.

The people who ran the week were Johnny Doyle, Mary Wall, Anne Durand, the Coleman family and the junior life-guard members. Medals and trophies were given out on the last day for sports. A great week was had by all and it's sure that next year the same fun and excitement will be had.

LUCKY ESCAPE

On last Tuesday week young Philip Fleming, Kildwan, Bonmahon, had a lucky escape while aboard "The Stelimar" a Dunmore vessel fishing out of Howth. "The Stelimar" caught fire on the morning of Tuesday week last claiming the life of Mr. James Byrne, a 38 year old father of 3 children. Philip along with two other crew members thankfully escaped and were taken to a hospital in Dun Laoghaire for treatment. The two other crew members were Denis Harding from Howth, now living in Dunmore East and Brendan Woodhead from Laytown, Co. Meath.

LATE NICHOLAS MURRAY

On Friday last, August 16 the death of Nicholas (Nick) Murray occurred at his residence. The large attendance at his funeral on Saturday evening last testified to the high esteem held by all for Nick. His burial took place on Sunday after 11 o'clock Mass. He is survived by his sons Michael, Nicholas and Denis, daughter Geraldine, daughter-in-law, grandchildren, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends. We offer our deepest sympathy to all.

K.D.B. NEWS

Over the next two weeks the K.D.B. Game Preservation Club will be releasing 400 young pheasants. Motorists are asked to take extra care should they come across these young birds on the roads. The Club Clay Pigeon Shoot has been provisionally fixed for Saturday and Sunday, September 28/29 subject to the availability of a suitable site. More news next week.

EXAM SUCCESS

Congratulations to all the young students in the area on their success in the Leaving Certificate examinations.

G.A.A. NEWS

At the Aug. monthly meeting of the club arrangements were made for the recommendation of work on the field project. The construction of the boundary wall and fencing to be given immediate priority and members are asked to make themselves available to help with this work.

Our last hurling match due to be played last Saturday was postponed and will now be played this Friday, August 23 at 7 p.m. in Fenor.

The completion of the field collection will take place over the next 4/6 weeks and it is hoped to cover the remainder of our area not already canvassed within the next couple of weeks.

ST. MARY'S NEWS

We played Ballyduff in the minor hurling Eastern semi-final last Monday evening in Fenor with the game ending in a draw. The score was St. Mary's 4-5 Ballyduff 2-11. We had an excellent first half and led by 7 points at half time unfortunately we let control of the game slip and we had to come from behind to draw this game. Peter Torpey's display in goal was superb.

Congratulations to Mark Kiely and Anton Lennon on their selection to the Waterford U-14 panel to participate in the Tony Forristal Tournament due to be played this weekend. This year as in previous years we are hosting one of the visiting county teams and we would appreciate hearing from parents who would be prepared to take 2 boys for this Saturday night.

LADIES FOOTBALL

Congratulations to both the U-16 and U-18 Waterford teams who are both through to the All-Ireland finals. On Wednesday evening last, August 14 the U-16's travelled to Wexford Park where they beat Wexford in a thrilling All-Ireland semi-final. Kill had seven players on this Waterford panel: — Evelyn Mooney, Ruth Ahearne, Alison Morrissey, Rachel Kiely, Julie Torpey and Jennifer Coffey.

On Saturday last the U-18's travelled to Portlaoise where they beat Laois in their semi-final. Kill again had seven players on this panel: — Lorena Mooney, Ann Ahearne, Julie Torpey, Rosemary Fitzgerald, Jennifer Coffey, Ruth Ahearne and Alison Morrissey.

We wish them the best of luck in both finals.

PENSMAN Takes You Behind The SPOTLIGHT

ONE IN EVERY FIVE IS UNEMPLOYED

The unemployment problem has now reached such proportions that it is threatening to totally destroy the country. With the colossal total of 261,000 registered as unemployed, the official rate is 20 per cent which in simple terms mean one person in every five is now out of a job. But the true rate is probably higher and this is a truly frightening thought.

In the old days our young people could emigrate to Britain and to the U.S. and this to a great extent was the solution which successive Irish governments relied on to tackle the unemployment problem. But now the recession in both the U.K. and the U.S. has virtually put a halt to the flow of people out of Ireland.

The problem is that while America is practically closed off because of emigration curbs there is very little work in Britain, particularly in areas like building and road construction which always relied heavily on an Irish labour force.

But that's not the only fly in the ointment. A slowdown in economic growth at home, high interest rates, a worrying decline in agriculture, a poor tourist season and, importantly, failure to create a sufficient number of new industrial jobs have all added to the problem.

And as if all that was not enough we have an added factor in the present tax and welfare system which is nothing but a disincentive to employers to take people on. In other words, it costs too much in terms of payments to the State to employ people.

So we have more than a quarter of a million people on the dole and we have the same number of civil servants employed and in terms of what the country is earning in revenue both groups are being paid too much and certainly more than the country can afford.

The benefits provided by our social welfare system although poor by comparison with other E.C. States, mean that it is, in many cases, more rational for Irish people to claim their benefits than to take up low-paid jobs.

The grim fact of the matter is that we are facing a national emergency and part of the solution lies in reducing the indebtedness of the State which pre-empt a sizeable proportion of our resources each year and so hinders any move to solve the crisis.

Drastic situations call for drastic measures to rectify them and the Government must realise that it has to act quickly if this accelerating crisis in unemployment is to be slowed down before it capsizes the ship of State.

AN ANNUAL REMINDER

Our annual reminder that Autumn is here has arrived, we refer, of course, to the annual Tallow Horse Fair Festival which is now just around the corner.

This year the organising committee are planning, if not a bigger and better festival, at least one that will prove as exciting and enjoyable as any of those of previous years.

Already plans are well advanced for the full and varied programme which will include, amongst other things, a pub talent competition which has already seen some of the preliminary heats run off with the final fixed for the Community Centre on Thursday night, August 29; a fashion show and of course the centre piece of the programme, the selection of the Festival Queen for which an entry of sixteen sponsored candidates has been received.

An innovation this year will be a V.W. Beetle gathering at which over 200 models are expected to compete for prizes in four different categories.

And while the festival programme will provide fun and enjoyment for all, the real business will centre on the horse fair itself.

Without doubt, the Brideside town will be the place to be for this last great festival of the summer season.

LISMORE BRIDGE — A MONUMENT TO A COURAGEOUS ARCHITECT

As promised a few weeks ago we return this week to "Irish Stone Bridges - History and Heritage," a wonderful book by Peter O'Keeffe and Tom Simington, which deals not only with the development of Road Bridges in Ireland from A.D. 1000 to 1830 but gives detailed information on a large number of more historic bridges in Ireland as well and again we acknowledge our indebtedness to County Engineer John O'Flynn for providing us with extracts from the book.

The book devotes a great deal of space to the history of Lismore Bridge and in tracing its history it recalls that an ancient road existed before the 12th century linking Cashel, Ardfinnan, Lismore and Ardmore, called the Rian Bo Phadraig or track of St. Patrick's cow. This road crossed the Blackwater at Lismore, probably by a ford.

The book states that the importance of Lismore diminished after it was burned in 1645 but revived when the 5th Duke of Devonshire inherited the castle and large estates in 1753. Ryland's History of Waterford (1842) records that he spent large sums erecting a sessions house and a gaol, an inn and offices and importantly, the bridge concerning which the historian states "it was built at the sole expense of the late Duke in 1775 and is 100 ft in span of the arch." Various secondary sources give a range of cost, up to £9,000 and state that the bridge was designed by Thomas Ivory, the noted 18th century Irish architect.

There are a number of references to the number of arches in the bridge but while a sketch from the Irish Penny Magazine of 1833 showed five arches it states that the sixth arch was obscured from the artist by trees. However an article in the Magazine on Lismore had the following sentence about the bridge: "Here is a fine bridge, over the Blackwater, erected at very great expense, by a former Duke of Devonshire, and particularly remarkable for the extent of its principal arch, which spans ninety feet."

The book goes on to record that the 1842 Ordnance Survey 6-inch map showed the river to be 220 feet wide between the banks at the bridge. A substantial pier with cutwaters fore and aft is shown in the river, such that the main south arch had a clear span of about 100 feet, the second scales about 70 feet.

Reference is then made to an inscription on the present plaque on the bridge which reads: "1858/Lismore bridge/Rebuilt/C.H. Hunt and E. P. McGee/Contractors/Charles Tarrant Engineer, C.S.," and the authors state that this gives the impression that the whole bridge had been rebuilt then but an old postcard (c. 1900) showed that the main arch spanning the river had not been rebuilt and was obviously Thomas Ivory's original.

Bringing the matter up to date, the authors then point out that the main span of Lismore, that is the surviving arch of Thomas Ivory's bridge was measured and examined by Pat Corbett, assistant engineer, Waterford Co. Council in 1990 using electronic distance equipment. He found the span to be 100 ft. from the abutment to the face of pier 1 and the authors say that the masonry in pier 1 which is 34 ft. wide and obviously designed as an abutment pier by Ivory together with the lowering of the main arch springing plane saved the 100 ft. arch from collapse in a disastrous flood in the Blackwater in 1853.

The author concludes with the following tribute to the architect, Thomas Ivory: "It is a landmark arch in the history of Irish masonry bridges and a monument to a courageous architect, a master of stonework who was born in Cork in the 1730s."

CONFERRED AT U.C.C.

Gerard Flynn, Dip.Dy.Sc., of Sarsfield Street, Abbeyside, who received an Hons. BSc. degree (Food Business) at the recent conferrings at U.C.C., Cork. Gerard is the son of Patrick and Maureen Flynn, Abbeyside.

The Banks Of Kilrea

Our choice for the ballad corner this week, "The Banks Of Kilrea," comes from north of the Border and is one which tells of a young man's unsuccessful efforts to persuade the girl he loves to leave her home and her parents on the banks of the Bann and go with him across the sea. Not only does he fail to do this in the end he has to go off on his own to a place where he never again would see her or his native Kilrea.

One evening for my recreation
I wandered along the Bannside
Where a young man was courting his darling
And he swears he will make her his bride.
Where a young man was courting his darling
And he gently intrigued her away,
But said she, "I can't leave my old parents
All alone on the banks of Kilrea."

Oh darling but don't you remember
The fond vows that you made unto me,
They were made in the month of November
When I was thinking of crossing the sea.
It was then you would not stay behind me
And you coaxed me a while for to stay
And you said, when the Spring was returning
We would both leave the banks of Kilrea.

But there's danger in crossing the ocean
There's great danger in crossing the main
Sure there's danger in crossing deep waters
Therefore all of your coaxing's in vain.
At my home I have both peace and plenty
And my rent I'm well above to pay
But I'm leading a lifetime of pleasure
All alone on the banks of Kilrea.

So farewell to my comrades forever
For it's now I will lay down my pen
Here's a health to the bonny Bann waters
And the girls all around the Bridgend.
Here's a health to my comrades forever
For it's now I am going away
And I'll see you again no, never
No more on the banks of Kilrea.

IT MAKES SCENTS TO SEW HERBS

IT may come as a shock to learn that herbs need not be added to the cooking pot as shrivelled flakes inside brightly packaged containers.

Supermarkets and other go ahead shops have been offering fresh herbs for some time and alerted people to the possibilities of growing their own fresh flavour enhancers.

A herb garden needs little space and some plants are decorative as well as giving off marvellous scents and aromas.

Special

It can be fun too, especially for kids, who can make it their special gardening project. Most varieties are planted outdoors in spring for maturing about now.

Most herbs like a place with lots of sun and well-drained fertile soil enriched with good well-rotted compost, but the cook of the house will also want the site to be close to the kitchen door.

Many people deal with such conflicts by planting a large tub, window box or even a grow-bag - the last is highly practical even if not so pretty.

Whether you opt for this or a special herb garden, plan carefully and make it an enjoyable feature, with taller varieties at the back so that the lower growing types can be shown off in the front.

And remember that you will be harvesting from it regularly so plant nothing more than an arm's length from the path.

If the patch is to be more than five feet square then break it up with small paths so that you can reach all your herbs.

Near the end of the season, try saving and drying some of the crop. They will save money and probably be better than any dried herbs you can buy.

Pick tender undamaged non-flowering sprigs and shoots on a dry day and bind into small bunches before washing and draining on newspaper in the shade and then hanging in the airing cupboard for a couple of weeks.

Here are some herb varieties to try growing yourself:

CHIVES - a must for anyone's herb garden and a good plant to start with is chives which is not only great for cooking and salads but also produces delicate mauve puffball flowers on tall stems.

MINT - it's weed-like persistence will have it taking over the herb garden so confine it to its own pot or tub.

MARJORAM - seed sown outside in spring will produce attractive flowers and foliage about now.

PARSLEY - slow to germinate unless the soil is warm at the time of sowing but does produce rich green foliage for flavouring and garnish.

FENNEL - the lacework foliage of fennel is not only attractive but the plants can be made to last several years, to supply a useful aniseed-like flavour for salads and cooked dishes. Sow seeds in spring in rich soil.

BALLYMACARBRY NOTES

HOLYCROSS ABBEY

Many people from Ballymacarbry and the Nire Valley will travel next Sunday, August 25, to Holycross Abbey for the Annual National Pilgrimage of the Apostolate of Our Lady of Fatima. The ceremonies will start at 2.30 p.m. with the anointing of the sick followed by the Rosary Procession at 3 p.m. and the Way of the Cross. Celebrated Mass will begin at 4 p.m. and the homily will be preached by Most Rev. Dr. Dermot Clifford, Archbishop, Cashel & Emly.

ON COUNTY PANEL

Congratulations are in order for Eoin O'Sullivan, Michael Connolly and David Ryan of Four-Mile-Water who have made the respective county panels for the forthcoming Tony Forristal under-14 hurling tournament. Hoping that they do both club and county proud.

The tournament starts on Saturday next at 11.30 p.m.

SOCCER

Pinewood United Soccer Tournament started on Thursday evening at Melody's Field with two great games. In the first game Acton Stanleys (Clonmel) defeated Stop Inn (Cahill), while Omegas United (Cork) defeated Nire Valley.

Playing with Omegas was Larry Tomkins, the well known Cork intercounty footballer who scored 3 goals for his side. On Friday evening Wilderness (Clonmel) defeated Central Garages (Clonmel).

CEMETERY CLEAN-UP

The cemetery attached to St. Laurence's Church at Four-Mile-Water has got a welcome clean-up during the past week. It now looks well.

G.A.A.

At the Mill Field, Ballymacarbry on Saturday evening last, Nire defeated Cahir/Ballylooby 1-9 to 1-6 in a minor football challenge.

LADIES FOOTBALL
Waterford under-18 ladies continued on their winning way on Saturday last when they defeated Laois at O'Moore Park, Portlaoise in the All-Ireland semi-final on the score: Waterford 3-14, Laois 3-4.

PATTERN DAY

The Pattern Day organised by Newcastle G.A.A./Muintir Na Tire took place at the Gaelic Grounds on Sunday last and was attended by a large crowd in glorious weather.

BUCKLEY CUP

First rounds of the Buckley Cup are at present taking place at the Millfield, Ballymacarbry. Four teams drawn from the youth of the district - with in all, about one hundred being involved.

LATE MRS. ELLEN POWER

It is with regret we pen the passing of Mrs. Ellen Power (nee Condon), Mountain View, Abbey Road, Clonmel, which sad event took place at Melview Nursing Home, Clonmel on Thursday, August 15. Deceased was a member of an old and respected Ballinamult family. Her late father, Tom Condon, was Mayor of Clonmel and carried on a tailoring business in the town for many years.

Ellen was a lady of outstanding qualities who possessed a wonderful, warm personality and made friends at ease. She was a caring neighbour abounding in Christian charity who made an immediate and lasting impression by virtue of her courteous and easy-going nature which endeared her to all.

On Saturday evening her remains were removed from O'Donoghue's Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church, Clonmel. On Sunday morning 10 o'clock Mass was offered for the repose of her gentle soul after which the funeral took place to St. Patrick's Cemetery where interment took place.

To her husband John and daughter Kate we tender our sympathy.

SYMPATHY

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Nellie Kelly, Race Course, Thurles on the tragic death of her only son Tony following an accident. Mrs. Kelly, formerly Hally, is from Ruan, Newcastle. Her husband died some two years ago.

Abbeyside Scout Notes

FROM THE LOG: 10th April, 1938

This being our Communion Sunday we paraded to early Mass. Parade was O.K. except for two stragglers and two absentees.

At 10.30 a.m. all who could beg, borrow or steal a bike had assembled outside the Den. The Scoutmaster formed us up in twos and off we went at a steady pace as soon as he gave the word. We rested at Ballyvoile Bridge and then proceeded by the short cut to Stradbally Cove.

After dinner and a brisk limb-loosening we marched up to the Den of the Stradbally scouts and announced our readiness to take the field for the football match. A half hour later we lined out as follows against our opponents:

Liam Whelan; Maurice Tierney, Sean McManus, Frankie Daly; Edsie Foley, Tom Whelan, Joe Organ; Sean O'Brien, Mick Murphy; Gerald Cashman, Seamus O'Brien, John Flynn; Pa Foley, Christy Power, Mickey Clancy.

A brisk game resulted in a draw, Stradbally 1-6 Abbeyside 2-3.

We then adjourned to the Stradbally Den and did full justice to a tea generously provided by Scoutmaster Ahearn and his scouts. We then gathered round the blazing log fire on the open hearth and held an impromptu sing song. The approach of dusk forcibly reminded us that Abbeyside was seven bike miles away and so after a rousing rendering of "My Land" we hit the homeward trail.

HOW TO COOK YOUR OWN GOOSE

ROAST GOOSE WITH SAGE AND ONION STUFFING

Ingredients:

- 1 goose, approximately 9lb (4 1/2 kilos)
- About 1lb (1/2 kg) dry sage and onion stuffing mixture
- 8 streaky rashers bacon, de-rinded
- 8 small cooking apples, cored, scored round middle
- Potatoes (quantity as required) par-boiled
- Salt and pepper
- A little plain flour

Method:

If the bird is purchased frozen, ensure it is thoroughly thawed before cooking. Make up the stuffing. Roll bacon rashers and thread onto wooden cocktail sticks. Fill body cavity of bird with stuffing. Season bird and sprinkle flour over.

Place it on a trivet in a large roasting tin. Cover breast with foil. Cook for 20 minutes per pound (450g) and 20 minutes over. For the first 30 minutes cook at 400F, Mark 6, 200C. Reduce heat to 350F, Mark 4, 180C. Remove foil for last hour of cooking time.

At this stage put par-boiled potatoes in the oven to bake.

Thirty minutes later add the apples to the potatoes and then, 10 minutes afterwards, the bacon rolls. The bird should be brown and crisp on top when ready to serve.

Accompany with a gravy made from the giblets and a selection of freshly cooked seasonal vegetables.

Serves eight.

LISMORE NOTES

NEW CREDIT UNION OFFICES

Even though work has not been fully completed at the new offices in Main Street, Lismore, business has commenced there. To date the result of the work carried out is by any standard very commendable.

The offices are spacious, airy and very comfortable, offering a very welcoming atmosphere.

These new offices reflect the advancements of the Lismore and Cappoquin Credit Union. On completion of same, the offices will be in line with or surpass any modern Credit Union Office.

Official opening of these offices will be held in due course, more details anon.

Opening hours, as of yet have not changed, however this matter is at present under discussion.

WIDOWS ASSOCIATION

The first meeting of the West Waterford Branch N.A.W.I. after the summer recess will be held at the Lismore Hotel on September 3 at 8 p.m.

Arrangements will be made for the Annual Retreat with the Cork Branch at the Dominican Retreat House, Innismore, Cork, on Sunday, September 29, 1991. Names of members interested in attending will be taken. — P.R.O.

WEDDING

Feeney - Fraher — A very pretty wedding took place recently at St. Carthage's Church, Lismore, when Lucy, daughter of Helen and John Feeney, Towns Park, was united in holy matrimony to Shane, son of Janie and Michael Fraher, Cappoquin.

The bride, given away by her father looked radiant in a full length gown of white raw silk and carried a bouquet of multi coloured silk flowers. The Nuptial Mass with Papal Blessing was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Phelan, P.P. Cappoquin assisted by Fr. Lloyd, C.C., Cappoquin and Fr. Ryan, C.C., Lismore.

The bridesmaids, who wore full length multi coloured gowns of pastel shades, were Tricia Feeney, sister of the bride and June Fraher, sister of the groom. The bestman was Stephen Mason, cousin of the groom and the groomsmen were Pat Cullen, friend of the groom. The flowergirls also wearing multi coloured gowns of pastel shades were Donna Feeney, Vicky Kiernan, Lorraine Geoghegan and Roslyn Cassidy. The page-boy was Ivan McLoughlin.

The Lessons were read by John Mason, Jackie Kiernan and Amy Fraher. The soloist was Irene Cahill who also was responsible for the flower arrangements. The organist was Mairead Cullinane. The cake was made by Janie Fraher and the dressmaker was Helen Killigrew. The reception was held at The Park Hotel, Dungarvan and the honeymoon was spent in Majorca.

We wish Lucy and Shane many years of happiness in their lives together.

LISMORE ATHLETIC CLUB NOTES

Lismore A.C. had athletes at Carrig Na Bhfear, Co. Cork, Open Sports and as usual we had a great team of athletes all round.

We had Valerie Barry coming second in the 100m, second in the javelin, a new venture for Valerie and as usual she ran away with the U-15 girls 800m her nearest rival being two hundreds metres behind.

We had Laura Kingston who is unbeaten in Munster in the girls U-12 shot and as usual she won again on Sunday, in a throw of nearly eight metres.

Then we had two long jumpers, Patricia Cahill, who went up one year over age to come second, while Tomas Barry also came second in the boys U-13 and last we had Joan Coleman getting third in the girls U-15 javelin.

We also had great performances from the Broderick sisters, Heffernan sisters, the O'Keeffe's, Sharon Mangan, Pa McCarthy, Emma Flynn and Mark Landers. Hope they all keep up the good work next Sunday. — P.R.O.

C.L.C.G. LIOS MOR

Under-16 Hurling Co. Final — Reigning county champions, Lismore, suffered a temporary setback on Saturday last at Walsh Park when their opponents in this year's county final, St. Saviours, goaled in "injury time" to snatch a draw and earn a second chance to bring the title back to the city.

Playing with the benefit of the stiff breeze in the first half, Lismore were more than a match for their physically stronger opponents and took a two point lead before Saviours replied with a point and then a goal to reverse the trend. Some quick, decisive positional switches by the Lismore mentors on the sideline paid immediate dividends and yielded a goal and three points to leave the half-time score 1-5 to 1-1 — not a comfortable margin by any standards.

The champions started the second half with renewed determination but this was matched blow for blow by an opposition who were clearly intent on bringing back the title to the City. Some great defensive play by Lismore kept them at bay but at the other end many scoring opportunities went begging when the forwards failed to capitalise on several chances to seal victory and could only manage two points to bring the score at the end of "normal time" to 1-7 for Lismore with Saviours three points in arrears at 1-4.

Just when we thought we were "home and dry" the unbelievable happened. From a Lismore puck-out St. Saviours won the ball and tore through a hitherto impressive defence to find the Lismore net and live to fight another day. A cruel blow to our aspirations of retaining the title but also a lesson that any game is not over until the final whistle is sounded.

The game now goes to a replay probably on Saturday, August 31 at the same venue, and have no doubt but the trainer and selectors will be using the intervening period to good effect in an effort to achieve the desired result next time out.

Our appreciation to the large contingent of supporters who made the trip to Waterford on Saturday — we hope you get your just reward in the replay.

The team was — Brendan Landers, O. Troy, J. O'Connor, M. O'Connor, J. Roche, B. Ormonde, P. Barry, O. O'Dowd, A. Ormonde, S. Fennessy, E. Quann, D. Bennett, D. Shanahan, S. Clancy, B. Nugent. Subs. — J. Landers, J. O'Gorman, M. Shanahan, S. Veale.

Referee — D. O'Leary.

Minor Hurling Western Final — The eagerly awaited re-match between Lismore and St. Patrick's takes place on this Friday, August 23 at 7 p.m. in Cappoquin when both teams meet in the divisional final. We are the current Western and county champions in this grade and will be competing for our fifth divisional title in-a-row on this occasion.

Our opponents, St. Patrick's, have heretofore competed in the lesser grades of this competition but have emerged as serious contenders for the "A" title by virtue of some impressive displays to date this season, and will, no doubt, be out to prove that they are here to stay.

While Lismore will be dubbed "favourites to retain their title" it will also be recalled that Pat's proved that they are no mean outfit, when, in the second round, they pushed us all the way before we eventually won by five points. So it will be a case of cautious optimism on the night.

Referee for the game will be John Moore.

Junior Hurling Championship — Lismore are drawn against Kilgobinet in the junior hurling semi-final to be played in Cappoquin on Friday, August 30. With impressive wins over Abbeyside, Tallow and Dungarvan to their credit there is every reason to look forward to a continuation of the winning sequence as this is a team which seems to improve with every outing. A win here would earn a place in the divisional final against the winners of the other semi-final which features Ballysaggart and Rinn O'gCuanach.

The appointed referee for our semi-final is John Moore.

All-Ireland Hurling Final Tickets

Our allocation of tickets is to hand and as on previous occasions will be raffled amongst eligible members. To comply with this requirement one must (a) be a paid-up member of the club; (b) be present or be represented at the draw; (c) tickets must be paid for on the night. The draw will be held on Wednesday, August 28 at 9 p.m. in the Clubhouse. By the same token, for those of you who do not qualify for inclusion in this draw you are reminded that raffle tickets are currently available from any member of the committee at £1 apiece or a book of six for £5, the winner receiving two All-Ireland hurling stand tickets plus bed and breakfast in the sumptuous surroundings of the newly-refurbished Central Hotel, Dublin (courtesy of Mr. Jim Canning). This draw will be held immediately after the weekly draw on Monday next, August 26 in the Red House so all tickets-sellers are asked to return money and counterfoils to Declan Bransfield on or before Monday.

Tony Forristal Tournament — This annual inter-county tournament for under-14 hurlers takes place this week-end 24 and 25 August in Waterford. This is the tenth anniversary of the competition which has grown in stature over the years. Lismore will have three representatives on the Waterford team: — David Bennett, Maurice O'Connor and Dan Shanahan. Best of luck to all three and, indeed, to the team in general.

Mid-Term Review — It will be recalled that we ended last year by being voted "Club of the Year 1990" in Co. Waterford. Our unique achievement in winning all underage hurling county championships was, undoubtedly, a deciding factor in gaining this prestigious award. While we have to date surrendered two of those county titles a quick review of the current situation suggests that we could still make the short list at the end of the current season.

U-12 Hurling — Lismore v. Dungarvan or Abbeyside in Western Final; U-14

Hurling — Beaten county finalists; U-14 H. Feile na nGael — Co. champions; U-16 Hurling — In county final replay v. St. Saviours; Minor Hurling — Through to Western final v. St. Patrick's; U-21 Hurling — Beaten county finalists; Junior Hurling — Through to Western semi-final v. Kilboginet; Senior Hurling — Through to county semi-final v. Tallow.

An impressive list of achievements so far this year but the next few weeks will require the dedication and commitment of all concerned if we are to reap the rewards of all the hard work done since the Spring. Is it too much to ask or hope for?

Weekly Draw: Week No. 32 — £50 Miss Martina Hale, Glendeish; £30 Mrs. Josie Roby, Tallow; £20 Colin and Tina McNamara, Parks Road; £15 Mrs. M. Putnam, Parks Road; £10 Miss Sharon Geoghegan, Kilbree; £10 Miss Marie Flynn, 20 New Street; £10 Mr. Sean Oakam, Parks Road. Promoter's Prize — John O'Gorman.

The next draw will be held in the Red House on Monday, August 26 at 8 p.m. All are welcome to attend. (Advt.)

Ballyduff Notes

ENGAGEMENT
Congratulations to Jim Martin, Toornageeha and Cathy Murphy, Athlone, on their recent engagement.

SOCCER CLUB
A very important meeting of the soccer club will be held in St. Michael's Hall on Saturday night at 9 p.m. All members are requested to attend. New members welcome.

BUS TO TRALEE
A bus will travel to Tralee Races from the area on Thursday, August 29. A few seats are still available and can be booked by phoning (058) 60152 or 60234.

JUVENILE G.A.A. NOTES

The minor hurlers will play Abbeyside in the divisional semi-final at Cappoquin on to-night (Wednesday) at 7 p.m. The U-16 footballers will play Shamrocks in a challenge game on tomorrow (Thursday) in Knockanore. Players to be in the Village at 6.30 p.m. They play Kilrossanty in the first round of the championship next Monday night in Lemybrien at 7 p.m. Players to be in the Village at 6 p.m. They play Tallow the following week.

We wish Michael Molumphy, Brendan Hannon and John Twomey the best of luck at the Tony Forristal U-14 Hurling Tournament in Waterford this week-end. Jim Hannon is also involved as a selector. The selection of three players on the Co. (A) panel is a tremendous honour for the club.

COMMUNITY COUNCIL

On this Sunday, August 25 at 2 p.m. we hold our annual Gala Day. This year we will start by cutting the oats with a reaper and binder and then threshing it. A demonstration of old style horse ploughing will follow. We will have numerous side shows, arts and crafts, basket making, butter making, country market stall, fortune telling and a sheaf throwing competition, open and confined. Music for the day will be supplied by that great country and western star "Jim Ed." Keeping up all this activity will be thirsty work, so we have laid on a free pint of the "Black Stuff" for everyone.

An added attraction this year will be sheep dog trials. This is a first for Ballyduff, so should create great interest. No threshing was ever complete without a "Threshing Dance." This traditional facet of Irish life will begin in the field at 9.30 p.m. on an open stage. There will be music to suit all tastes, even the odd set or half-set will be danced. In the event of bad weather, this will be held in the Hall. See you there!

BALLYDUFF G.A.A. NOTES

Last Sunday our senior hurling team defeated Ballygunner by 3-13 to 3-11 to guarantee senior hurling status for next year. This was a great performance from the team, especially when in the second half, we trailed by eight points with fifteen minutes left.

The team last Sunday was — Michael Leamy, Maurice Geary, Liam Power, John Casey, Mossy Casey, Seamus Daly, Tom Feeney, Paudie Prendergast, Richie Walsh, Ger Hickey, Clem Feeney, Bob Tobin, Eugene Flynn, John Quirke, Mike Barry. Sub. — Denis Drislane.

On last Thursday night, August 13 the senior hurling team defeated Dunhill in the Sargent Cup by 1-15 to 2-11. We now play either De La Salle or Dungarvan in the semi-final of this competition.

Our team was — Michael Leamy, Mike Barry, Liam Power, Seamus Daly, Mossy Casey, Seamus Daly, Tom Feeney, Paudie Prendergast, Richie Walsh, Gerome Quirke, Clem Feeney, Bob Tobin, Gerald Hickey, Eugene Flynn, Diarmuid Flynn. Sub. — Denis Drislane.

During the course of this game we lost Gerome Quirke with a broken finger and we wish him a speedy recovery.

Any members who wish to apply for All-Ireland tickets are asked to give their names to Eugene Flynn as soon as possible.

BY the time you are 25 you should have lost 144 bones. A baby has about 350. As we get older many of them fuse together until we are left with the average skeleton of about 206 bones. The baby's extra ones are designed to cope with the peculiar movements of a growing baby.

If you think 206 is still on the generous side, remember the skull consists of 29 bones and there are 28 more in the fingers and thumbs.

Bones have several functions. They are the framework round which the body is built, their hard exterior stores calcium and their spongy centre, or marrow, makes blood cells.

The smallest bone, in the ear, is a tenth of an inch long. The longest, the thigh bone, is 27% per cent of your height - nearly 20in in a 6ft man.

Broken

Bones can regenerate. When one is broken or chipped, new bone grows to repair the damage by fusing the broken parts together.

In some remarkable cases surgeons have amputated a diseased section of bone and the remaining section has regrown to the original shape.

The shape and size of the skeleton is determined by the parents. One gene comes from each parent for each physical feature of the child.

If there is a difference in height, the child is more likely to develop closer to the height of the shorter parent because genes controlling shortness are stronger than the ones which make you taller.

YOU HAVE GOT A LOT OF SUPPORT

As well as holding up the body, the skeleton is designed to protect delicate organs.

The rib cage protects the lungs and heart, and the skull the brain.

The skull is a remarkable piece of engineering.

For example, a one-piece skull would crack like an eggshell from a fairly light blow. The break would be almost impossible to repair.

So the dome of the skull is made of eight ones allowing head-blows to be cushioned by the give and take along the joints.

In the rest of the body each bone is cushioned from the next by a tough, springy tissue of cartilage which acts like a shock absorber of a car. In the spine, when one of these fails, the result is a slipped disc.

The bones at the ball-and-socket joints, like the elbow and knee, are held together by ligaments and have a self-lubrication system.

One has a small hollow containing fluid which "oils" the joint.

The most hard-working bones are those in the spine

- the vertebrae. These 26 hollow cylinders, which hold the body upright are like cotton reels threaded on a piece of wire.

The wire is the spinal cord - one ounce of never fibre about 16in long that carries messages between the brain and the muscles.

Stripped of the more than 600 muscles and 18 square feet of skin in the body, the bones would fill a sack and weigh about 14lb.

Offered for reassembly into a skeleton for medical use, they could be worth about £150-£200.

But only in Asia can you still find countries prepared to market their people's bones.

All others have banned the practice, and skeletons for medical research etc are usually made from modern materials, including plastic.

Joe Murray — New Country Heart Throb At The Cats

"Tender Years" was an appropriate first hit for Joe Murray of Scotstown, Co. Monaghan. The former apprentice mechanic was, indeed, of tender years when he first hit the stage back in 1989.

Kevin McCooley was, at the time, conducting his own talent search for a lead singer to replace Big Tom in The Travellers. McCooley had looked at about five other possible contenders before he came across Joe Murray singing at a local concert. The impression he made must have been good because Kevin immediately set about securing his services for The Travellers.

Joe, although a country singer himself, liked listening to all kinds of music, Tina Turner and Lionel Richie were particular favourites. Joining The Travellers was like a dream come true for the young Monaghan lad.

Joe Murray made his T.V. debut in 1989 with an impressive spot on Live At Three. He has since appeared on Kenny Live, The Sandy Kelly Show and U.T.V. series Kellys People.

The Monaghan singer is currently preparing material for a new L.P., which is to feature a good number of original songs. Plans are also in the pipeline for Joe Murray's first video.

For now, he's continuing to break new ground, particularly in the Southern half of the country. Joe is learning all the time and his career is certainly heading in the right direction under the guiding hand and shrewd management of Kevin McCooley.

"I really love performing" Joe admits "and my confidence is growing all the time."

● Joe Murray will appear at The Cats, Melleray on Saturday night, August 24.

John Forde and his family, daughters Mary, Liz and Helen, and son Richard, are now open in their all new Spar 8 Till Late Supermarket. After 80 years of trading in Tallow, John, one of the first Spar shops in Ireland, has put the new Spar 8 Till Late image into his Supermarket. John has now been a member of the Spar Group for 26 years, and customers will be pleasantly surprised at the bright new shop and all the services it offers. It's a far cry from the days when John operated a mobile shop from his Volkswagen van. John is proud to say that many of those customers still frequent his shop.

John would like to thank the following: Munster United Merchants Spar Wholesalers for their support, especially James Warren, Sales Manager; the Spar Developing Team, David, Oliver and Peter Keally; Mark Gough, Retail Operations Adviser for Spar; Damien Hughes of Commercial Refrigeration; Dolan Brothers, Shelving Contractors; Gary Keating, Ceiling Contractor; all tradesmen who helped during renovations; his family for their hard work; most of all, his customers for all their loyal support, past and present. A special word of thanks to Ann Murphy who has been with John in the shop for 19 years.

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN (Never known to fail) — O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendour of heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favour is granted. — Grateful Client

IN MEMORIAM

BALDWIN — Eleventh Anniversary — In loving memory of John Baldwin, late of 15, Convent Street, Tallow, who died on August 22, 1980.

The voice is now silent,
The heart is now cold,
The smile and the welcome,
That met us of old.
We miss him and mourn him,
In sorrow unseen,
And dwell on the memory
Of days that have been.
(Never forgotten by Maura, Tom, Rachael, Liz, Michael, Martin, Kate and Thomas.)

BYRNE — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear Uncle Billy, late of Ballysaggart, who died on August 19, 1986. R.I.P. Mass offered.

Today is your anniversary,
My gift to you is a Mass,
God has you in His keeping,
We have you in our heart.
And when old times we do recall,
It's then we miss you most of all.

(Sadly missed by Dodo, Willie and family.)

COADY — Fifteenth Anniversary — In loving memory of Dad, James Coady, Barrack Street, Tallow, who died on August 20, 1976. On his soul sweet Jesus have mercy.

Never more than a thought away,
Loved and remembered every day.

(Sadly missed by Alice, Chris, Paul and Mark.)

CONNORS — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of Michael Connors, late of Duro, who died on August 25, 1988. R.I.P.

Will those who think of him today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by his wife Eileen and family.)

FAHEY — Eleventh Anniversary — In loving memory of Joseph Fahey, Burgery, Abbeyside who died on August 25, 1980.

Time passes, memories stay,
Will those who think of him today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered with love — Anne, Treasa, Mattie, Geraldine, Sinead, Joseph and Aoife.)

FLYNN — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Kieran Flynn, late of 35, Springfield, Dungarvan who died August 21, 1988. R.I.P. On his soul sweet Jesus have mercy. Masses offered.

They say there is a reason,
They say that time will heal,
But neither time or reason,
Will change the way we feel.
For no one knows the heartache,
That lies behind our smiles,
No one knows how many times,
We have broken down and cried,
We want to tell you something,
So there won't be any doubt,
You're so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to be without.
(Sadly missed by your loving wife Libby and children Laura and Ronan.)

FLYNN — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of Kieran Flynn, late of 35, Springfield, Dungarvan who died August 21, 1988. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord.

(Always remembered with love by his parents, brothers and sisters.)

FLYNN — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of Kieran Flynn, late of Springfield, Dungarvan who died August 21, 1988. On his soul sweet Jesus have mercy. Mass offered.

Will kind friends who think of Kieran today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by Lil and family.)

GRIFFIN — First Anniversary — In loving memory of Paddy Griffin, Baunfaun, Cappoquin, who died on August 22, 1990.

God saw you getting weary,
A cure was not to be,
He put His arms around you,
And whispered come to me.
So keep your arms around him, Lord,
And give him special care,
Make up for all he suffered,
And all that seemed unfair.

(Sadly missed by your loving brother, John.)

GRIFFIN — First Anniversary — In loving memory of Paddy Griffin, Baunfaun, Cappoquin, who died on August 22, 1990.

To me you were someone special,
What more is there to say,
Except to wish with all my heart
That you were here today.

(Always remembered by your loving sister Kathleen, Jim and family.)

KEEGAN — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear husband, Ernest Keegan, late of Monarud who died August 25, 1986.

Memories have such lovely ways,
Of bringing back our yesterdays,
When old times I do recall,
That's when I miss you most of all.

(Always remembered by your loving wife, Gretta.)

KEEGAN — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear father, Ernest Keegan, late of Monarud who died August 25, 1986.

To us you were someone special,
What more is there to say,
Except to wish with all our hearts,
That you were here today.

(Always remembered by your loving son, Ernest, wife Rose and grandchildren Timothy and Emma.)

KEARNEY — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of Jerry Kearney, 47, Silver-springs, Dungarvan, who died August 20, 1988.

Three years have passed since you went away,
We think of you Jerry each night and day,
It didn't seem fair then, it still doesn't now,
God alone can answer the question why.
Daddy has gone to be with you now,
I am sure you were there with a smile,
Waiting at the gates of heaven.
Waiting to welcome him home.
Will those who think of them today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.

(Mother Cora, sisters Cora and Nicola, brothers John Michael and Fergal.)

McGOVERN — Twenty-fourth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Mary, late of 4, St. Patrick's Terrace, Abbeyside, who died on August 25, 1967 and whose anniversary occurs about this time. R.I.P.

Will those who think of her today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by your loving daughter Jane and family at home and away.)

Anniversary Mass at St. Augustine's Church, Abbeyside on Sunday, August 25 at 10.30 a.m.

McGOVERN — In loving memory of my very dear mother, Mrs. Mary McGovern, late of 4, St. Patrick's Terrace, Abbeyside, whose anniversary occurs on August 25. Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on her soul. Kind friends of "Mother" please remember her in your prayers. Mass offered.

(Loved and remembered always — your loving daughter Biddy, grandsons Pat, John, Francis and families.)

McGRATH — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear husband, Jackie, late of Dunmoon, Tallow, who died on August 22, 1990. R.I.P.

Anniversary Mass for Jackie in Parish Church, Knockanore at 8 p.m. on Saturday, August 24.

I lost my life's companion,
A life linked with my own,
And each day I pray for you,
As I walk through life alone.

You gave me years of happiness,
Then sadness and tears,
But you left us beautiful memories.

We will treasure through the years.

So rest in peace dear loved one,
And thanks for all you've done,
We pray that God is giving you,

The crown you've truly won.
(Sadly missed by your loving wife and family.)

O'CONNOR — Eighth Anniversary — In loving memory of Ned O'Connor, late of 8, Fitzgerald Terrace, Dungarvan who died August 15, 1983.

Will those who think of him today,
A little prayer to Jesus and Mary say.
(Inserted by his loving son Eamonn, sisters and brothers-in-law at home and away.)

O'SHEA — Eighth Anniversary — In sad memory of our dear daughter, Sandra, who died August 21, 1983, late of Sunlawn, Affane.

We all know what it's like to suffer,
We all know what it's like to cry,
But only God knows the pain of the heart,
When a much-loved daughter dies.
There are many gifts in this life,
From the greatest to the small,
But to have you for our daughter San,
Was the greatest gift of all.
If we could have one wish in life,
One dream that could come true,
We would ask God with all our hearts,
For yesterday and you.
(So sadly missed and loved by Mam and Dad.)

O'SHEA — Eighth Anniversary — In sad memory of my dear sister, Sandra, who died August 21, 1983, late of Sunlawn, Affane.

As each day comes and starts anew,
And each day ends I think of you,
And in between, no matter where,
In my thoughts you are always there.
Others still miss you, San, I know that is true,
But you were my sister and I thought the world of you.
(So sadly missed by Eamonn.)

O'SHEA — Eighth Anniversary — In fond remembrance of Sandra, taken from us suddenly, August 21, 1983.

Words are few, thought are deep,
Memories of you will always keep.
(God bless you, Sandra, love from Auntie Bid, Uncle Jimmy, Susan and Anthony.)

O'SHEA — Eighth Anniversary — In loving memory of Sandra, Sunlawn, Affane, who died on August 21, 1983.

Will those who think of her today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always in our thoughts — Uncle Willie, Maura, Ann, Josephine and Francis.)

O'SHEA — Pray for the soul of Sandra O'Shea, Sunlawn, Affane, Cappoquin, who died 8 years ago in a car accident. May she rest in peace.

(Always in our thoughts, from Rita, Caroline, Lynn and Tara in Surrey.)

O'SHEA — Eighth Anniversary — In sad and loving memory of Sandra O'Shea, late of Sunlawn, Affane, who died on August 21, 1983 as a result of an accident. Our Lady of Peace pray for her. R.I.P.

The night I heard the tragic news, Sandra,
Wishing it wasn't true,
I often think and wonder,
Why it happened to you.
(Never forgotten and deeply regretted, Maisie.)

O'SHEA — Treasured memories today and always of my dear friend Sandra of Sunlawn, Affane, whose anniversary occurs at this time.

Your presence I miss, San,
Your memory I treasure,
Missing you always,
Forgetting you never.
(Always remembered by your friend, Cheryl.)

WADE — Seventh Anniversary — In loving memory of Donal Wade, late of 9, Connolly Row, Dungarvan, who died August 22, 1984. R.I.P.

The angels sang Amazing Grace,
The Lord came down and touched your face,
Then He whispered soft and low,
Come with me, Donal, it's time to go.
Simple words but very true,
We will always love and remember you.
(Never forgotten by your loving mother and all the family at home and away.)

Requiem Mass on Wednesday, August 21 at St. Anne's and St. Dominic's Church, St. Helen's, followed by burial at St. Helen's Cemetery. Deeply mourned by her daughters Rose and Mollie, sons-in-law and grandchildren in St. Helen's, and by her cousin John Walsh and his family, 16, Mitchel Terrace, Dungarvan. May she rest in the peace of the Lord.

BIRTHDAY

REMEMBRANCE
KIELY — In loving memory of Thomas Kiely, 18 Belgard Grove, Patrickswell and late of Pinewood, Abbeyside who would have been 33 years on Monday next, August 26.

Lonely is the home without you,
Life to us is not the same,
All the world would be like heaven,
If we could have you back again.

What he suffered he told but few,
He did not deserve what he went through,
Tired and weary he made no fuss,
But tried so hard to stay with us.

Two tired eyes are sleeping,
Two willing hands are still,
The one who did so much for us,
Is resting at God's will.
Our lips cannot speak how we loved him,
Our hearts cannot tell what to say,
But God only knows how we miss him,
In our home that is lonely today.

(Sadly missed by his loving wife Bridget and son Thomas.)

Acknowledgments

DWANE — The sons, daughters, brothers, sisters and relatives of the late Bridget (Bridie) Dwane, The Burgery, Dungarvan, wish to convey their sincerest thanks to all those who sympathised with them recently; those who called to her home, attended the funeral, sent Mass cards, letters, cards of sympathy, telegrams and floral tributes. We wish to thank most sincerely His Lordship The Most Reverend Dr. Michael Russell for his presence, Fr. Ahearn and the local and visiting Clergy and Sisters for their presence and kind words. Our grateful thanks to Dr. Brady, Dr. Higgins, Dr. O'Connell and Dr. O'Mahoney. The kindness of our neighbours and friends was deeply appreciated. As a token of our appreciation the holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for all your intentions.

HOGAN — The sons, daughters and relatives of the late Matthew Hogan, Knock, Clonea, Dungarvan, wish to thank most sincerely all those who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; those who attended the funeral obsequies; those who sent Mass cards, letters of sympathy, floral tributes and those who called personally. A very special word of thanks to Fr. P. Ahearn, C.C., Matron and staff of Drum Hills Private Nursing Home and all the kind neighbours and friends who helped in every way. Trusting this will be accepted by all as a token of appreciation. The holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for their intentions.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

REUNION OF ST.

ANNE'S PAST PUPILS

On Saturday, August 10 one of the happiest and most historic occasions ever to happen in Cappoquin took place with the first ever reunion of St. Anne's Past Pupils.

It commenced with Mass in St. Mary's Parish Church at 7.30 p.m. celebrated by Rev. Fr. F. Lloyd, C.C. Past pupils participated during Mass which made it very special for us. We wish to thank Fr. Phelan P.P. and Fr. Lloyd for letting us take such an active part in the Mass; Sr. de Lourdes for her eloquent narration during the bringing up of the Offertory Gifts; also Irene Cahill and the choir, organist Mairead Cullinane for their magnificent contribution; the Altar Society for the lovely floral arrangements in our school colours and everyone who participated.

More about this is next issue. — P.R.O.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is extended to the Scanlan families of Affane, on the death of their uncle, Eddie Kirwan of Boolavoonteen, Ballinamult, which sad event took place on Saturday last.

VANDALISM

Wanton damage to public and private property is becoming prevalent around the area, the most recent being the damage to the signs erected by the Cappoquin Angling Club. A number of these were defaced using aerosol spray paint. We understand that the damage was such that they will be very difficult to restore and will have to be replaced. This may just be the work of hooligans or may be some form of a protest. Whether or which such acts are to be deplored.

ACCIDENTS

Again this week there have been a number of motor accidents around the area. There were two separate collisions at the Pike where cars were damaged by hitting the wall. The Pike has become notorious with drivers coming from the Dungarvan direction being unable to negotiate the sharp right hand bend, thus colliding with the wall. On Monday evening there was a three-car collision at Botherwillin, Cappagh, all three vehicles were extensively damaged. Mercifully nobody was seriously injured in these crashes, which is something to be thankful for.

NEW CAR PARK

On Sunday Very Rev. Fr. Phelan, P.P. was loud in praise of the volunteers who carried out the work on the new car park at St. Declan's Cemetery. A new wall has been erected which looks splendid and in keeping with the place. Also there is a new parking area on the town side of St. Declan's. The work is now almost completed so the area should be ready for use in the very near future.

LEAVING CERTIFICATE

We understand that again this year the results at St. Anne's have been very satisfactory indeed, with some entrants reaching a very high standard. We would like to congratulate the successful students, their teachers and parents and all who were responsible for keeping St. Anne's to the forefront of second level institutions.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Where was Murphy's Drapery Shop? Answer next week.

Answer to last week's question was — Bethlehem.

AT THE SPORTSFIELD

Despite the attraction of live television a good crowd turned up on Sunday for the intermediate football semi-finals. The first game was the meeting of Shamrocks and Brickey Rangers. During this game there were times when it looked as though the men from Knockanore were on their way out. The Brickeys were putting some nice passing movements together and indeed were well worth a lot more scores. Shamrocks as always, never gave up and came more and more into contention as their opponents began to tire. They too can claim several missed chances but they did enough to be three points ahead at the finish.

The final score was Shamrocks 0-10 Brickeys 0-7. Referee — J. J. Landers, Affane/Cappoquin.

Before the throw-in for the second game a minute's silence was observed as a mark of respect to the late Eddie Kirwan, who was Hon. President of the Sliabh gCua Club and was indeed one of their most ardent fans over a long number of years.

Ardmore got away to a great start in this game and were four points ahead after just ten minutes. Sliabh gCua then settled down and went in at the interval just two points in arrears. It only took two minutes in the second half to seal the issue for the men from Touraneena. That two minutes saw full forward John Hallinan score two splendid goals. Ardmore while they battled on never were in the hunt for the remainder of the game.

The final score here was Sliabh gCua 2-12 Ardmore 0-11. Referee — J. J. Landers, Affane/Cappoquin.

AFFANE BRIDGE CLUB

Results — 1st Ned Whelan and Jim Prendergast; 2nd Monica O'Sullivan and Monica Walsh; 3rd Brid Bergin and Una Barry; 4th Helen McCarthy and Mary Quinlan.

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

U-16 Hurlers Defeated — Dunhill 4-7 Cappoquin 0-6 — We travelled to Walsh park on Friday night last to contest the U-16 "B" county final against Dunhill. We lost the toss and had to play against a strong wind in the first half. The lads opened like sprinters and rocked Dunhill with an early point. Dunhill gradually got into the game and forged ahead, but Cappoquin were contesting every ball and creating chances but unfortunately we did not transform our superiority into scores. So at the break Dunhill led by 0-7 to 0-3 when in truth Cappoquin should have been ahead.

So with the wind at our backs on the resumption we scorned another scoring chance and unfortunately Dunhill answered with two quick goals, both of the soft variety. Cappoquin's dogged resistance was still troubling Dunhill, but it was very noticeable that their tactics had changed in this half. Their pulling became wild and dangerous and many of our players were on the receiving end of the hurley. What was unforgivable was the encouragement from Dunhill mentors on the line to continue to "use the stick." To our team's credit we did not resort to these tactics but continued to play the game as it should be played. But our opponents' rough house tactics caused two of our young players to retire injured and received treatment at Ardkeen. Several more were blatantly fouled on several occasions and all those incidents never even yielded a free. No marks to the official in charge for his handling. Our weakened team conceded two more goals before the end but it must be said these lads fought on gamely to the end and not once did their heads drop. They did our club proud.

These youngsters started out the championship campaign with a very small panel of players. No one gave them a chance of winning a game. They surprised everyone with their never-say die spirit and battled their way through all their games with sheer commitment and effort and plenty of skill also. But we were lacking a few extra players to make a county winning side, but by God these lads almost made it.

They won one of the most exciting Western finals seen in Dungarvan and have contested a county final which is a great honour in itself. Well done lads.

On their return to Cappoquin they were treated to a lovely meal at McLaughlin's Hotel.

Team — F. Cotter, J. Fenton, R. Curran, B. McCarthy, T. Norris, C. Scanlon, E. Murphy, F. McLaughlin, B. Tobin, J. Fleming (capt.), P. McLaughlin, J. Quann, B. Whelan, T. Prendergast, E. Hickey. Subs. — J. Lynch, J. Casey.

Speedy Recovery — We wish a speedy recovery to Eamon Murphy and Trevor Norris who both received knee injuries in last Friday night's U-16 county final. Get well soon lads.

I.H.C. v. St. Mary's — Well it's make or break for our intermediate hurlers this week-end when they take on St. Mary's in the play-off for a quarter final qualifying place. The odds are stacked against us here with injuries and holidays depriving us of numbers we can ill afford to be without. So all we can do is try and field a team and fulfil the fixture. The lads can only do their best.

Pattern Day Tournament — We contested the Mod-eligo Pattern Day football tournament last Thursday evening. Our team was mainly comprised of under-21 players and on the night the home team proved far superior to our lads in all departments. Modeligo showed here that they can play quality football but Affane's display has certainly given the selectors cause for concern as their effort was indeed a lethargic one. Only Kevin Wilkinson showed any form for Affane, as he put in a great 60 minutes. It was indeed a disappointing performance from our lads here.

U-16 Football Championships — (B) Nire v. Naomh Brid, Stradbally v. St. Olivers, Kilrossanty v. Ballyduff, Clashmore v. Ballyduff. (C) Shamrocks v. Brickeys, Faha v. Melleray, St. Patrick's v. Ardmore.

First named teams are at home and all games are on Monday at 7 p.m.

Dungarvan United A.F.C. Notes

SYMPATHY

Dungarvan United extend deepest sympathy to Mrs. Rita Earley and family, Boreenatra, on the death of Johnny Early which sad event occurred recently. May he rest in peace.

400 DRAW

All is now in readiness for the commencement of our 400 confined members draw. The first draw will take place on this Sunday night, August 25 and the response from the people of Dungarvan and surrounding areas to our appeal has been unbelievable.

Our committee were out and about distributing explanatory leaflets house to house last week and if you intend joining you are advised to get in contact with any committee member as soon as possible as only the first 400 names will be entered for the draw. If you have any inquiries about how to join you can phone 058/41357 and you will be put in touch with the promoter in your area. All promoters are reminded to have their cards and money in on this Thursday night, August 22 between 8.30 p.m. and 10 p.m., so as to give our co-ordinators every opportunity to have everything in readiness for Sunday night.

BINGO

The goodwill and generosity from the people of the town towards our club manifested itself in the Youth Club Centre on Monday night last when a huge crowd turned up for our monster bingo session.

The bingo was run in conjunction with our schoolboy committee to help with their ever increasing transport costs for away games, and as a result their bank account got a welcome boost on Tuesday morning.

We would like to thank our friends from the Abbeyside/Ballinacourty G.A.A. Club for all their help and advice on the night, especially Joe and Mary Flynn. Also John "Major" O'Mahoney and his Youth Club Committee for the hall and Tom Keith, Manager, Sports Centre and to all who turned up on the night to make it such a success. The jackpot winners were Mrs. Madge Flynn, Mrs. Bernie Hurley and Nora Fitzgerald.

VOICE OF DUNGARVAN

The third and last heat of the "Voice of Dungarvan" will take place on this Friday night, August 23 and the grand final will be held on Friday week, August 30. With a first prize of £150 on offer, plus the magnificent Carling trophy. The standard of singing is on par with former years. So don't forget this Friday night is your last chance to book your place in the final.

CARDS

Pat and Michael Ormond were the winners of the cards on Saturday night last and in the process also scooped the jackpot of £200 with 13 games. New jackpot of £100 on 15 games.

IN HOSPITAL

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Nora Walsh, Caseyville, who is presently hospitalised. Nora is one of our hardest working members and we hope it will not be long before she is home again.

YANKEE DOODLE

Last week's numbers were 17 and 42 and there was no winner. The jackpot will be £160 next week.

RESULTS

Our 1B team under John Walsh (Manager) and Jimmy Healy (Trainer) put in a good workmanlike performance to beat Stradbally 2-0 last week, to advance to the semi-final of the Ballinroad Tournament. They now play Abbeyside on Friday, August 23 (kick-off 6.45 p.m.) to decide who will contest the final.

They then played a challenge against city side Crusaders in Kilrush Park on Sunday morning last and although they played the better football they failed to put the ball in the net and paid the price by been beaten 1-0. Even though they were beaten, one would have to say that they are shaping up nicely for the coming season.

FIXTURE

Thursday, August 22 — T.S.B. Cup 1B Dungarvan v. Granagh, kick-off 6.30 p.m.

Dungarvan G.A.A. Notes

HURLERS FINE DISPLAY

At Walsh Park on Saturday evening last, our senior hurlers gave their best display for a long time when they defeated De La Salle, 4-13 to 2-8, and so retain their status for '92. Once again we were short a number of players for various reasons but the side that took the field on Saturday evening made light of the problem and were easy winners in the end.

FOOTBALLERS FACE FAHA

Our senior footballers travel to Stradbally this Saturday evening where they meet Faha in the senior championship. Faha, in their first year in the senior grade have been a little unlucky with a number of their games being lost by narrow margins. Still, this is a game we should win but not as easy as some people think. Our next game in the championship will be against Tramore, also at Stradbally, on Thursday of next week.

SARGENT CUP

Our first game in this year's competition will be on Tuesday, September 3 in Dungarvan when we play De La Salle.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

The draw for the junior football championship was made at the Western Board meeting last Saturday night. We await the winners of the Modeligo, Old Parish and Melleray group.

SYMPATHY

At our recent club meeting a vote of sympathy was passed to the Earley family, Boreenatra, on their recent sad bereavement. Also to Tommy Hennessy, Kill, on the death of his brother, Michael.

NEW ARRIVAL

Congratulations to Finbarr and Eileen Kelly on the recent birth of their baby daughter, Alison. Finbarr is of course our highly respected club trainer.

Indeed last week was a busy one for Finbarr and Eileen as they also moved into their new home at Ballinroad. We wish them well.

ALL-IRELAND TICKETS

The draw for All-Ireland tickets will be held shortly and any club member wishing to have their name entered in the draw should contact any member of the club committee before the weekend. Only fully paid up members need apply.

JERSEYS

We would like to thank club member and former player, Tom Power, who has very kindly presented the club with a set of jerseys which will be worn by our minor players. A very nice gesture from Tom and we sincerely appreciate it.

LADIES FOOTBALL
Another fine turnout last Thursday night. The pitch was neatly trimmed and everyone seemed to enjoy the "craic." Nice to see Dan Murphy and Noel Murray offering their help. Dan has been involved with Ladies Football for a long time while Noel's name is synonymous with Ladies Football not only here in Waterford but at provincial and national level also.

At a meeting of the Ladies Football Committee over the weekend it was decided to organise a tournament involving the following clubs: (A) Clonea/Rathgormack, (B) Stradbally, (C) St. Patricks, (D) Dungarvan. August 26: A v. B, C v. D; August 27: A v. D, C v. B; August 28: A v. C, B v. D; August 30: final. First game at 6 p.m.; second game at 7.20 p.m. For further information telephone 058/41060 (Dan Murphy).

We also wish Waterford seniors the best of luck on Sunday next when they play their All-Ireland semi-final at the Fraher Field.

CEIST AGAT

A question put to us last week "How many club members hold or have held All-Ireland Championship medals?" Come on — you tell us.

Notai C.L.G. An tSean Phobail

The results of the Progressive 45 Drive in the Marine Bar last Wednesday night were, on 11 games, J. Hourigan and P. Cliffe. The jackpot is £180 on 13 games.

Last Monday evening our ladies team played St. Patrick's in the second game of the championship. This was a close game and while we had a lot of play our forwards had many wides. The final score was St. Patrick's 0-6, An Sean Phobail 0-2.

On Monday night of this week the ladies played Faha at Pairc Ui Cholmain. This was a good game and the girls had some good scores and played well as a team. Final score was An Sean Phobail 1-4 Faha 0-0. The team was — M. Mahony, D. Murphy, M. Lenane, M. Lucey, G. Wade, F. Flynn, N. Murphy, M. Wade, L. Murphy, S. Leahy, E. Ni Chonabhair, Y. Power, J. Young, C. Power, N. Harty.

The next game is next Monday evening in An Sean Phobail.

Last Sunday morning our junior football team played Faha in a challenge in beautiful sunshine. With some open football from both teams and with some good scores, we ran our winners by a couple of points. The club would like to thank Faha for the game.

Any members holding sponsored cards are asked to hand them in to any member of the committee as soon as possible. — Miceal Toibin P.R.O.

Ballinroad A.F.C. Notes

JOHN FRAHER CUP

This very successful tournament has now reached its concluding stages and the following are the results of the matches that have been played:

1st Round — Teachers 3 Ballinroad "B" 1; Seaview Celtic 2 Ballyduff 1; Grange 3 Kilmacthomas 0.

2nd Round — Ballinroad "A" 2 Grange 1; Teachers 2 Crystal 0; Dungarvan 2 Stradbally 0; Abbeyside 1 Seaview Celtic 1 (Abbeyside won on penalties).

The draw and dates for the semi-finals are as follows:

Tuesday, August 20 — Teachers v. Ballinroad "A", kick-off 6.45 p.m.; Friday, August 23 — Abbeyside v.

Dungarvan, kick-off 6.45 p.m.

The final will be played on Wednesday, August 28 at 6.45 p.m.

The success story of the tournament so far has been the Teachers, who under the guidance of Johnny Hughes, have advanced to the semi-finals where they met host club Ballinroad.

The other semi-final sees local rivals Abbeyside (holders) and Dungarvan in action. Abbeyside were most impressive in the second half of their tie with a very strong Seaview Celtic side and are strong favourites to lift this cup once again.

CAMOGIE NEWS

PERSONALITY CONTEST

The G.A.A. Centre Tramore on Friday night, August 30 is the place to be, for it promises to be a great night not only for camogie enthusiasts, but for all sports minded people as well. The highlight of the entire evening, of course, will come with the announcement of this year's camogie personality.

This venture inaugurated last year was an instant success, but all indications are that it is really about to take off this present campaign and even as I write excitement is at an all time high with many of the candidates claiming massive support, which all adds up to one hectic night.

ANNETTE WARING

Annette, a St. Saviours club player since 1985 when she started playing the game she loves at a very young age. A pupil of the Presentation Convent School, Annette has been honoured by her county at underage level. A "Will O The Wisp" Annette can torment defenders with her weaving runs with ball stuck to the camog, she certainly has a great future and will no doubt mature into a great player and help bring that first senior title to Ballybeg, which is what Jimmy and Johnny are now planning and working for.

JOSIE BARRY

A native of Crooke, Passage East and a member of one of the most sports minded families in the Barony, Josie's own talent as a camogie player is known and respected far and wide. A prominent member of the Gaultier and Waterford teams for many years now Josie's skill, fearlessness and anticipation at full-back has won her acclaim from friend and foe alike. Her older sister Teresa now domiciled in Wales introduced Josie and younger sister Patricia to the game, and through the coaching and attention to detail given at juvenile level this talented individual quickly graduated to a valued team member. Josie — with that wide smile — will tell you as she is still learning, her best is still to come, and many shrewd judges are predicting that her displays this year alone must surely have short listed her for inter-provincial honours. Always good for the "crack", the social side of the game and fun in general, has a great attraction for this pleasant individual. She certainly is looking forward to Friday, August 30.

Playing the game since she was nine years of age, Josie now likes to help with the juveniles.

CATRIONA HUTCHINSON

Catriona, who lives with her family at Kennedy Park, Tramore, is and has been, for a number of years, the "back-bone" of the Tramore team in the Waterford championship. Having come through the juvenile ranks, Catriona actually played junior and inter-county while still only fourteen. She also plays hockey and indeed excels at most sport. Educated at "Star of the Sea" Primary School and Stella Maris Secondary School Tramore, Catriona qualified as a "Figure Therapist" at the Figure Clinic in Dublin, and now runs her own keep fit and figure classes in Tramore. Of a cheerful and out-going disposition, she has won many friends throughout the county and in sporting circles generally.

The Tramore Camogie Club wish Catriona success in everything she does.

ELAINE MAHONY

Elaine from Shangan, Butlerstown, although only fifteen years of age, is rapidly making a name for herself at the game she loves. An ever present member of all Butlerstown teams since she was eight years of age and perhaps made a little bit of Decies history when at twelve years old she helped her club take junior county honours. She has represented her county at all grades and is at present in strict training for the tilt with Cork in the U-18 Munster championship, and only recently played a prominent part in the Decies good showing in the league and championship at junior level. Camogie is not Elaine's only sporting interest, basketball and tennis keep this young lady very busy. She was a member of St. Paul's Cadet Basketball team which reached the All-Ireland in 1991, and helped Piltown take the honours in the Kilkenny League. She has also represented her club at junior Scor, in the novelty act and at recitation to be exact. Always good for a song, Elaine with her charming out-going personality will surely be a hit on the night.

Honours — 7 county championships, 1 at U-12, 3 at U-14, 2 at U-16 and 1 at Junior.

EDEL O'REGAN

Edel is a prominent member of the Kill ladies football and camogie teams, having played at U-14, U-16 and U-18 in both codes. She holds championship medals at U-16 and junior level and Munster and All-Ireland runners-up medals with her county. Talented, yes, but then that is to be expected coming as she does from one of the best known G.A.A. families in the district. Her father, Michael, graced the playing fields at both football and hurling for many years and no doubt gives Edel every encouragement and expertise.

A young lady with a bright future and a pleasant personality.

MARY O'LOUGHLIN

A native of Armahal, Dunhill, where she resides, Mary is sports "mad", camogie, football, hurling, Croke Park, Casement Park or Walsh Park it matters not to this genial lady. Representing Dunhill/Fenor in the personality contest, Mary readily admits there is only one team and that's her beloved Dunhill, where incidentally she acts as First Aid person for all their teams. She is also a keen squash enthusiast. An avid reader, Mary is employed by Kromberg and Schubert on the Estate and is of course the county camogie treasurer, so she will have a double interest in the contest.

MARY RYAN

Mary of 22, Convent Hill, Waterford, can boast of one thing none of the other candidates can, that being, Mary is one of the founder members of the Erin's Own Club, who she now proudly represents. Therefore she has seventeen years service to the sport at various levels within her club and is at present club asst. treasurer, and is active in giving very valuable assistance with the juvenile training programme and all other activities organised by the club.

In this day and age when club loyalty seems to be out of fashion, Erin's Own Camogie Club is proud to nominate Mary, a loyal and dedicated member, to represent the club in the personality contest.

CAROLINE LARKIN

Caroline first started playing camogie in primary school and from there joined the local Ballyduff team. When her juvenile days were over she transferred to her present club, Ardkeen, who she now represents in the contest. She had the honour of captaining that fine team last year, and so was merely following in the footsteps of her aunt Breda, who had that distinction in the past. Caroline really enjoys her camogie and will, she tells me, continue to play the game for as long as she can.

MARTINA HALE

This very quiet spoken and most pleasant lady hails from Lismore and is proud of it. Martina will be hoping to annex the title and so emulate her better known colleague, Orla Flynn, whose year as Personality will end come Friday night.

Started playing the game in 1985 and to date holds two — now three — senior and one junior county championship medals. Not just content with playing, Martina believes in leading by example and as chairperson of her club since 1989 is doing trojan work for the youth of the area. She is active also in the other area of club affairs such as, selector to the various teams. Heavily involved in the work behind the scenes for the personality contest, Martina gets it all done with the minimum of fuss.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Shamrocks Into Final

SHAMROCKS 0-10
BRICKEY RANGERS 0-7

In the opening game at sun-drenched Cappoquin on Sunday afternoon last, Shamrocks scored a three point win over Brickeys in a moderate game.

The winners got off to a great start with points by Martin and Pat Murphy in the opening 7 minutes. Points by Noel O'Connor and Gerry McGrath in the 9th and 16th minute had the sides on level terms for the first time before O'Connor put Brickeys in front for the first time. Liam Dalton pointed a 45 metre free to tie the scores again and a further exchange of points left the sides level at 0-4 each at the break.

POINTS EXCHANGE

In the opening 6 minutes of the second half David Cullinane and Kieran O'Keefe exchanged points before a succession of points from Martin Murphy, Liam Dalton, Michael Hunt and sub. Ml. Neville gave Shamrocks a 0-9 to 0-5 lead with 7 minutes remaining.

Jim McGrath pointed a Brickeys free in the 54th minute before Liam Dalton pointed again for the winners to restore their four point advantage. Willie Sheehan pointed for Brickeys three minutes from time and even though they were attacking at the final whistle, Shamrocks held out for victory.

Shamrocks — J. Fitzgerald, D. Butler, S. Harnedy, M. Leahy, M. Motherway, T. Roche, K. Ahearne, M. Hunt (0-1), L. Dalton (0-3), K. O'Keefe (0-1), M. Murphy (0-2), P. Murphy (0-2), J. O'Neill, D. Casey, J. Ahearne. Subs. — L. Ahearne for J. Ahearne; Ml. Neville (0-1) for K. O'Keefe.

Brickey Rangers — B. Collins, A. Spratt, T. Shanley, M. McCarthy, C. Millar, P. Ryan, E. Martin, J. McGrath (0-2), T. Halpin, W. Halpin, N. O'Connor (0-2), T. Lennon, M. Hickey, G. McGrath (0-1), D. Cullinane (0-1). Subs. — W. Sheehan (0-1) for T. Lennon; D. Clancy for M. Hickey.

Referee — J. J. Landers.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Hallinan goals put Sliabh gCua through

SLIABH gCUA 2-12 ARDMORE 0-11

Two goals by John Hallinan in the 39th and 40th minutes paved the way for Sliabh gCua's victory over Ardmore in the second intermediate football championship semi-final at Cappoquin on Sunday last.

Ardmore got off to a flying start and points from John Hennessey (2), Tony Keane (2) and Pat Walsh gave them a 0-5 to no score lead after only six minutes play. John Hallinan pointed a free to open the winners account in the 8th minute. Ardmore led at half time by 0-8 to 0-4 at the end of a very entertaining first half.

ARDMORE LEAD

Ardmore led by 0-9 to 0-6 with 38 minutes played. Then John Hallinan struck for his two goals in the space of a minute to give Sliabh gCua the lead for the first time in the game. These goals gave Sliabh gCua the lift they needed and they added a string of well taken points particularly from Kieran Hallahan who scored three. Ardmore battled gamely to the final whistle but they never recovered from the goals body-blow.

Sliabh gCua — D. Dwyer, T. Whelan, J. Dalton, S. Kearns, D. Kiely (0-1), P. Hallinan, R. McGrath, T. Condon, D. Whelan (0-2), K. Hallahan (0-3), P. McCarthy (0-1), E. Loneragan, P. Hearn, J. Hallinan (2-4), L. Loneragan. Subs. — B. Tobin for T. Whelan; J. P. Fitzpatrick (0-1) for L. Loneragan.

Ardmore — D. Hennessey, J. Power, E. Power, K. O'Brien, E. Foley, T. Power, W. Keating, P. Walsh (0-1), S. Veale, D. Conway, Ml. Veale, H. Veale (0-1), T. Keane (0-7), J. Hennessey (0-2). T. Walsh.

Referee — J. J. Landers.

ABBEYSIDE A.F.C. NOTES

Bill Organ Memorial Tournament

An Outstanding Success

In the days following the Bill Organ Memorial Tournament, many people of the younger generation have asked who Bill Organ was. Bill played with Abbeyside in the 1960's and was a member of the victorious Casey Cup team of 1964 along with such characters as Paddy Whelan and company. Popular with his team-mates, a rock in defence, Bill epitomised the spirit of the club in its early years.

It was as a tribute that his former team-mates gathered at Dogleaf Park on a sunny Sunday night recently to honour the memory of a good friend.

We have been asked by the Organ family to thank all who helped make this first memorial tournament such a success. Frank Barry who travelled from Cork on both nights, Martin "Switchy" O'Donnell who officiated at the matches and Mark "Charlie" McCarthy and Michael "Cossie" Cosgrave who ran the line, the committee of Abbeyside A.F.C. for their help and kindness and especially Christy Phelan who provided the First Aid at the matches.

We would also like to thank the supporters who turned out on both nights to honour Bill as without them it would not have been such a success.

Next year it is hoped the "Bill Organ" will be a bigger and better success with fair play and enjoyment being the most important factors.

Please note: if anyone is interested in buying a tape of the Bill Organ Memorial Tournament, please contact Willie White at 058-41951.

We would also like to thank Micheal O Faolain, M.C. also Willie White for video.

Causeway Tennis Club Notes

Prizewinners in the Causeway Tennis Club's Junior Closed Week. Included are Ann Higgins, President, Dr. Jim Stacey, Pat O'Sullivan, Manager, First National, Liam Crotty and Mrs. Bunda Cusack. (Kevin Wyley)

JUNIOR NEWS

Results of Tramore Open — The winners of the under-18 girls doubles were Majella Cummins and Leah Harnett. The winners of the under-18 boys doubles were Gerard McCarthy and Conor McMahon. The winners of the under-18 mixed doubles were Gerard McCarthy and Gena Reynolds. Congratulations and well done to all those juniors from Dungarvan who participated in Tramore.

Our juniors are having a very busy summer as regards open weeks. Here are the results of St. Anne's Junior Open Week, which again had a huge participation from the Causeway Tennis Club: Under-14 mixed, Anne Brennan and Conor Barrett; u-14 girls doubles, Anne Brennan and Julianne Veale, and finally, Anne Brennan was runner-up in the u-14 girls singles. Again a big clap on the back to all those juniors who took part. Remember, it's the taking part and not the winning that counts!

And speaking of which hard luck to our Sunshine Cup team who lost the semi-final. A special thanks to Deirdre Brennan and Claire Dalton who obliged very kindly by subbing in for Anne Brennan and Leah Harnett. Better luck next year!

The junior club week was held last week. Some of the events were not filled so take note that there will be an opportunity to play in these events, probably during the first weekend in September — watch the noticeboard for details.

SENIOR NEWS

Hard luck to our Michel Cup team who travelled all the way up to Nenagh two weeks ago for the final of the Michel Cup against Nenagh. Despite our brave effort against the Nenagh ladies, it just wasn't good enough for the excellent play of the Nenagh ladies. Well done to Teresa Keane, Pat Flanagan, Jenny McGrath and Cora Cooney who fought a good battle all the way to the final. The final score was 3-1. Better luck next year!

A special word of thanks to our loyal supporters who travelled and helped to drown our sorrows.

Our Sunshine Cup team are on a real rock-n-roll (literally!). The team beat Mallow 6-0 in the semi-final of the plate so well done to our team.

A special mention to some of our budding Madonnas and Jason Donovans who took part in a karaoke night in Kinsale on the way back from playing Kinsale in the Sunshine Cup in the quarter-finals. Helena Lenihan, Liam

Moore and Kevin Wyley provided great entertainment for both our team and the whole of Kinsale, doing their rock star impressions. Hopefully, the whole team will sing along their way through the final of the Sunshine Cup Plate.

The Annual Abbeyside Pattern Tournament was held two weeks ago with a fantastic entry for the open mixed doubles. Great fun was had by all and some very interesting combinations were made and proved to be very effective. The final was held on Monday night with Michael Drummey and Bernadette Sheridan playing against Ger Cusack and Paula Veale. The final proved to be a very tough, long struggle for both sets of partners, but Michael and Bernadette held tough and won the third set 7-5. Well done to all who participated and a special word of thanks to Niall Herlihy, the organiser of the tournament who did a fine job in running the tournament.

Lastly, don't forget to come along to the club to enjoy the club's open week this week with some great tennis guaranteed.

CYCLING

Stephen Spratt Takes Top Prize In Kerry

The series of Kingdom races held in Co. Kerry throughout the previous week was rounded off with the national 10-mile individual time trial and the Athea Grand Prix on Sunday evening last and while Dubliner Julian Dalby, former national road race champion won both, it was the Cork-based Dungarvan cyclist, Stephen Spratt who took the overall prize for the series.

Cunnigar Pitch & Putt Club Notes

Pictured above is Pat McGrath presenting Francis McCarthy with the McGrath Perpetual Cup which he won in last week's Cunnigar Pitch and Putt competition. The cup was sponsored by the McGrath family of Cambridge and Dungarvan in memory of their late brother, Mossie McGrath. Prizewinners were (l. to r.) Helen Love, Vincent Tobin, Pat McGrath, Michael Delaney, Francis McCarthy, Maurice Tobin and Alan Harty.

Blessed with a week of near perfect weather, our Charity Week competition for the McGrath Perpetual Cup was an outstanding success. Each day from opening to closing time players were to be seen in keen competition and many satisfactory cards were returned. And to show the value of practice and yet more practice, the scores were gratifying in their consistency and augur well for the future of the club.

This of course confirms the frequently expressed opinion that Cunnigar Pitch and Putt Club in its short period of existence is producing players of a very high calibre from whom more will be heard in years to come — make no mistake about it!

Our club may be young, but that youthfulness is reflected in the vigour, the growing expertise and the enthusiasm of our players amply displayed in the results of last week's tournament — 1, Francis McCarthy; 2, Morrie Ferncombe; 3, Helen Love; 4, Michael Delaney.

Congratulations to all concerned, with a special word of praise to Tessie Dalton for her hole in one at the 14th. Also our sincere thanks to the sponsors of the week-long competition for the McGrath Perpetual Cup. — Tovid.

SENIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIPBallyduff Snatch
Win In Thrilling
Encounter*BALLYDUFF 3-13 BALLYGUNNER 3-11

[by "Commentator"]

This might not have been Ballyduff's best hurling display, but I have no doubt but that it will be remembered by them as their finest hour in the 1991 championships. It will be recalled as the day on which they rose from the ashes to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat in the dying moments of a very exciting contest against the pre-match favourites, Ballygunner.

Patrons had complained, that this, and not the Mount Sion/Tallow match, which was played earlier, had been billed as the feature game on the Sunday programme, and as events turned out, this was the better game, it being a better contest all the way and far more exciting. I, and others in the small crowd at the game, had intended leaving Fraher Field at half-time in this match, in order to watch the second half of the Roscommon / Meath game on telly, but because of the closeness of the first half, many of us decided to remain on and were eventually glad to have done so. Only a point separated the sides at half-time with Ballygunner leading by 3-3 to 1-8. This was increased on the turnover and by the 42nd minute the 'Gunners raced into an eight points lead (3-10 to 1-8) and looked to be coasting to an easy victory, when Ballyduff struck back amazingly to take the next eight scores without reply from a tiring Ballygunner side. Earlier it had seemed that Ballyduff were getting leg weary, but in the end they finished the fitter side and just about deserved their win to keep them clear of relegation worries.

SCORING

Paudie Prendergast opened for Ballyduff with a pointed free in the 3rd minute, Billy Sullivan had a goal for 'Gunners in the 5th and a minute later Prendergast added a point for Ballyduff. John Warren and Mossy Casey swapped points. A goal by Liam Whitty and a point by Billy Sullivan gave the Eastern team a five points lead which changed quite quickly when Michael Barry shot home a goal and Ger Hickey and Bob Tobin had points to leave the game level. When Tobin and Sullivan exchanged points they were again level. A third Ballygunner goal by C. Sweeney was their final score of this half, but Ballyduff replied with 2 Paudie Prendergast points to leave it 3-3 to 1-8 at that stage.

Ballygunner, in opening their second half, were obviously bent on making an early 'kill' when they raced into a big lead. They had the first seven scores without reply and by the 40th minute the score was 3-10 to 1-8 with the speedy 'Gunners firing on all cylinders. It is impossible to figure out, just what brought about the transformation in Ballyduff at this stage, but when the very industrious Clem Feeney pointed in the 44th minute it seemed to have an inspiring effect on Ballyduff who also had the next seven scores without reply. A fine John Quirke goal in the 25th minute brought the teams level and with all to play for, both sides threw all they knew into the game. Mossy O'Keefe pointed to give the 'Gunners a slight lead going into the final minutes, but the Western side, were not finished and when Liam Power averted a very dangerous situation for Ballyduff, Richie Walsh added to his clearance and a Ballyduff attack yielded a goal, per John Quirke to put them a couple of points in front a minute before the final whistle sounded.

Scorers: Ballyduff — J. Quirke 2-0, P. Prendergast 0-7, M. Barry 1-0, B. Tobin 0-2, C. Feeney 0-2, G. Hickey and M. Casey 0-1 each. Ballygunner — B. O'Sullivan 1-3, L. Whitty 1-0, C. Sweeney 1-0, J. Warren 0-3, M. O'Neill 0-2, M. O'Keefe 0-2, P. Power 0-1.

Ballyduff — M. Leamy, J. Casey, L. Power, M. Geary, M. Casey, S. Daly, T. Feeney, Rd. Walsh, P. Prendergast, G. Hickey, C. Feeney, B. Tobin, M. Barry, J. Quirke, E. Flynn.

Ballygunner — R. Whitty, P. Laphorn, M. Whelan, N. Warren, F. Hartley, C. Cantwell, D. Kennedy, M. O'Neill, Ed. Brennan, B. O'Sullivan, M. O'Keefe, C. Sweeney, M. O'Mahony, Jn. Warren, L. Whitty. Subs. — P. Power for Brennan; T. O'Sullivan for C. Cantwell.

Referee — Pat Moore.

Wasted

Kilmac'*Saviours 0-9
Kilmacthomas 0-4

Once more it was a case of too many wasted chances costing scores as far as Kilmacthomas were concerned in the senior football championship tie and while they were well able to match the pre-match favourites all over the field, they could not find the target with some hastily kicked balls.

Kilmac's passing movements had them in trouble on quite a few occasions and Saviours capitalised on these mistakes.

Overall, Saviours just about deserved their win, but the result might have gone the other way had Kilmacthomas played steadier football.

The senior footballers play championship high-flyers Stradbally in the final game of their section on Sunday evening next in Dungarvan at 7.15 p.m.

PHELAN CUP

Following a 6 week lay-off the senior footballers played a splendid contest against St. Saviours in the Phelan Cup at Walsh Park on Tuesday evening week last.

The city side made a blistering start and led at the interval by 0-8 to 0-2. The second period saw a renewed effort by 'Courty who pulled back the deficit to 0-8 to 0-7 with 10 minutes remaining but St. Saviours grabbed the only goal of the game to progress in the competition by 1-11 to 0-8.

The team was — G. Cahill, J. O'Riordan, L. Shanley, G. Collins, J. Kiely, I. Kiely (capt.), K. Killigrew, S. McGrath, P. O'Brien, M. Reynolds, T. Walsh, J. Spratt, J. Kiely, M. Carroll, A. Ryan. Subs. — P. Walsh, Pa McGovern, W. Kiely, L. Brennan, T. Reynolds.

GREAT DISPLAY

In a very exciting and keenly contested Western U-16 'A' hurling final, we were edged out by Lismore (champions for the past 6 years).

Although the odds were considerably stacked in Lismore's favour, especially after Brendan Flynn was injured, the lads never gave up and with vintage village vigour almost caused the upset of the year.

The team was — G. Keane, M. Verling, G. Breen, A. Moore, P. O'Brien, O. Murray, P. Shields, D. Moore, B. Flynn, J. Moore, M. Enright, K. Cunningham, M. Brett, J. Donovan, B. Cliffe. Subs. — J. Kavanagh, M. Sheppard.

FINAL
Geraldines 4-8
Modeligo 1-11

Played at Aghlish on Friday evening, August 9, in ideal weather conditions, Geraldines and Modeligo served up a thrilling hour's football. There was high fielding and long kicking in this non-stop game, the way Gaelic football should be played at all times. This was our best performance in a long time.

We thank Modeligo for taking part in our Festival Tournament. We also thank the referee John Michael Kelly from our neighbouring club, Shamrocks, just across the river Blackwater, for his handling of the game.

Main feature of this game was that we played a total of eight under-21 players. We have a total of 12 under-21 players altogether.

Our lineout was: Shane Kiely, Pat O'Brien, Johnny O'Brien, Martin Landers. Seamus Meskill, Nickie Aherne, Brendan O'Grady, Joe Broderick, Noel Downing, Michael Broderick, Eddie O'Grady, Brian Conroy, Martin Conroy, Daithi O'Brien (Capt.), Declan Carlton. Subs — Brendan O'Connell for Martin Conroy, Gerard Broderick for Brian Conroy.

After the game medals were presented to the winning team and a trophy to the referee.

MAURICE COLBERT

When Kildare shocked the Dubs in the Leinster minor football final three weeks ago, one of the stars of the winning team was centre-field player Maurice Colbert who contributed in a big way to Kildare's win. I saw the game and without noting the Waterford connection I was impressed with young Maurice Colbert who was the better of the two midfielders.

Maurice is son of Ardmore's Maurice Colbert who played all his football with the St. Declan's Club and won a county title with them in 1966 when they defeated Mount Sion. The young player is also nephew of John Colbert very well known county goalkeeper for very many years. So there was plenty of football in the blood of young Maurice, who, incidentally, played very well in the semi-final against Mayo at Croke Park on Sunday last.

NEXT WEEK-END GAMES

Vital Games To Be Decided On Attractive Programme

Whatever the quality of the fare there is certainly plenty of variety on the published list of fixtures for the coming week-end and it is nice to find the fairer sex featuring on the attractive three-match programme in the afternoon at Fraher Field on Sunday. The All-Ireland semi-final of the ladies football championship when Waterford play Leitrim, should bring the crowds to the venue to cheer the home side on to a Croke Park appointment with Wexford, later this year.

Those who come to watch the full programme at the same venue should be treated to some very good football when St. Saviours meet the Nire in the feature game and Clashmore and Kilmacthomas contest the opening match.

The fourth match at Fraher Field will have a 7.15 p.m. start when Stradbally meet Ballinacourty in their senior football tie.

STRADBALLY v. BALLINACOURTY

Unbeaten Stradbally will be favourites to win this one, but if Ballinacourty, who are now out of contention and accordingly under no pressures, play to their best form, a surprise result is possible.

In their recent matches, for which they were under-strength, Ballinacourty ran the Nire and St. Saviours to a single point in both matches and in each case 'Courty kicked themselves out of the game. Stradbally who were pipped in the county final last year, haven't lost a match this year and appear to be heading towards another county final appearance. Should they lose this and their final game, which will be against St. Saviours, they could be in difficulties and possibly caught up in a play-off situation. This should motivate them into playing their best football here and if they do, then they might just get by.

MINOR HURLING FINAL

A top-class game of skilled hurling should entertain visitors to the Cappoquin venue on Friday evening when Lismore and St. Patrick's clash in the divisional final. Lismore will be favourites, but by all accounts they won't find it easy against the saints, who have matured into a very fine minor side. St. Patrick's are one of the best examples of the fruits of perseverance and the consistency of coaching that has brought this club from the bottom of the underage grades up to their present standards, and this should prove an inspiration to others.

As I have written Lismore are the favourites, but it would be foolish to discount the chances of the challengers.

MINOR 'B' SEMI-FINALS

Both these games will be played on to-night,

Wednesday when Abbey-side take on Ballyduff at Cappoquin and Fourmile-water play Naomh Brid at Colligan. Two very close contests are predicted, but hopefully there will be results in both cases and that the way will be cleared for the divisional final after to-night.

Abbey-side will be slight favourites to win the other match, which is fixed for Colligan.

S.F.C. KILROSSANTY v. TRAMORE

Kilrossanty dropped two points, when being well beaten by Dungarvan and will go all out here to make sure that they won't drop further back on the league table, if they are to stay out of trouble later on.

They should not experience any trouble in beating pointless Tramore, but still they cannot afford to take chances.

DUNGARVAN v. FAHA

The gap in standards between the 1990 senior and intermediate champions is big enough to enable speculators to confidently predict the outcome of this match which will be played at Stradbally on Saturday evening. Faha have improved their performances and played well in their last two games, but it would be a major surprise if they achieved something which the others have failed to do so far.

NIRE v. ST. SAVIOURS

The good thing about this game, from a spectators point of view is that both sides badly need to win in order to make sure of qualifying for the knockout stages of the championship. I cannot recall having seen them play since the 1988 championship when the Saviours won with greater ease than their winning margin of 1-8 to 0-5 suggests.

So far, the Nire have been more impressive of the two, but have yet to play to their full potential. They seem to have everything that is needed for football, but they don't always seem able to put it all together when needed most.

Saviours cannot feel completely happy about their displays to date and they will be first to agree that luck has played a part in their progress up to this point. Again they got the lucky breaks against Kilmac' last Sunday and there is no reason for supposing that it won't stand by them here.

My opinion is that the Eastern team will need luck, if they are to come safely through this one, if the Nire play in top gear all the way. I give the Nire the vote.

CLASHMORE v. KILMACTHOMAS

This game will open the programme at Fraher Field and will be an entertaining clash even though both are to all intents and purposes gone out of contention. With neither playing under any great pressure we should see both produce good and enjoyable football.

I.H.C.

ST. MARY'S v. CAPPOQUIN

This intermediate hurling play-off game is scheduled for Fraher Field on Saturday evening. The winners will play Abbey-side in the semi-final in mid-September.

Cappoquin, unless they show enormous improvement on their form against Colligan, must be considered here, even though they have beaten St. Mary's before.

Dungarvan Too Good For De La Salle

Dungarvan needed to win this one to make sure of not being caught in a relegation play-off and long before the game ended their worries were well over as they won the game very decisively after giving another very fine performance.

De La Salle kept challenging the visitors to Walsh Park all through the first half, but Dungarvan managed to keep them at their distance with a half-time lead of 1-9 to 1-4, having played against the breeze.

De La Salle doubled their half-time score before the game ended, but this was not nearly enough against a bang-in-form Dungarvan outfit who added a further 3-5. Goals by young Fergal Cunningham, Pepe and John John Ferncombe and some spectacular points by Morrie Ferncombe were the features of this sporting encounter.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

Tenth Tony Forristal All-Ireland Inter-County Tournament

The annual All-Ireland Inter-County Under-14 Hurling Tournament, which is now an established part of the GAA calendar, will take place as per usual on the last week-end of August, Saturday and Sunday, 24 and 25.

Once again it will involve 18 county hurling teams operating in 3 divisions using the league format on the Saturday. The 3 finals will take place on Sunday at Walsh Park. Sponsored by Waterford Crystal and organised by Waterford Glass G.A.A. Club, the tournament commemorates the memory of Tony Forristal, a former member of the Waterford Glass Club and Mount Sion Club who died in 1981. This is a special year as it is the tenth year of the tournament.

Over the last nine years six different counties have won the Tony Forristal Cup for Division 1, namely Tipperary (3), Clare (2), Kilkenny, Limerick, Cork and Galway. The winner of Div. 2 will receive the Sonny Walsh Trophy. Sonny was one of the founding members of the tournament but died suddenly in 1983. Each of the visiting counties are hosted by one of the local GAA clubs in Waterford. Teams travel from Ulster, Connacht, Leinster and all six Munster counties.

The cream of Ireland's young hurling talent assemble in Waterford — a total of 378 — for what will be a really great social and sporting occasion. It has now become a great annual meeting place for the hurling people of the land who keep coming back simply because they love the whole occasion. A new county coming this year will be Kildare who replace Armagh who came for 5 years.

Following are the groups:

Division 1 — Group 1 — Tipperary, Clare, Cork, Limerick; Group 2 — Wexford, Galway, Waterford, Kilkenny.

Division 2 — Group 1 — Wicklow, Meath, Dublin; Group 2 — Antrim, Westmeath, Waterford 'B'.

Division 3 — Laois, Kerry, Down, Kildare.

Champions of 1990 were — Div. 1, Clare; Div. 2, Wexford; Div. 3, Westmeath.

The tournament commences at 11.30 a.m. on Saturday 24th and continues to 6.30 p.m. at 5 city venues.

WATERFORD TEAMS

Waterford "A" team — John Twomey (Ballyduff Upper), Ger Cunningham (Mount Sion), Paul Coffey (Tramore), Alan Moore (Abbeyside), Michael Murray (St. Olivers), Eoin O'Sullivan (Fourmilewater), Freddie Kelly (Portlaw), John Cleary (St. Saviours), Charlie Scanlon (Tourin), Ken McGrath (Mt. Sion), Jamie O'Meara (Mt. Sion), Michael Connolly (Fourmilewater), David Bennett (Lismore), David Acheson (Mt. Sion) (Capt.), Dan Shanahan (Lismore).

Subs — Maurice O'Connor (Lismore), Kieran Curran (Dungarvan), Michael Molumphy (Ballyduff Upper), Michael White (Dunhill), Brendan Conway (Dungarvan), Brendan Hannon (Ballyduff Upper).

Waterford "B" team — Gavin Foley (Mt. Sion), Peter McSweeney (Tramore) (Capt.), Stephen Butler (Butlerstown), Mark Radley (St. Patricks), Brian Brophy (St. Saviours), Brian Donovan (Abbeyside), Darragh Breatnach (An Rinn), Davin Power (De La Salle), Leo Kelly (Sacred Heart), Billy Power (St. Saviours), Richard Bolger (Mt. Sion), Stephen Curley (Tallow), Francis Halpin (Clonea), Brian Crotty (Clonea), Anton Lennon (St. Marys).

Subs — Mark Kiely (St. Marys), Michael Baker (Clashmore), Eddie Keane (Ferrybank), Pierce Kelly (St. Saviours), David Ryan (Fourmilewater), John Foley (Abbeyside), Kevin Lenane (Ardmore).

S.H. SEMI-FINAL LINE UP

Following last Sunday's series of games, the final pairings for the county senior hurling semi-finals are known as well as the two teams who will battle it to decide which goes back to the intermediate grade.

In one semi-final, Mount Sion will play county champions, Roanmore, in Walsh Park and Tallow will meet Lismore, probably at Cappoquin. Both games will be played on the week-end of September 7/8. Had Sunday's result at Dungarvan been different, it was planned to play both matches at Dungarvan on Sunday, September 8.

This situation now ensures an East/West county final and this will be played at Walsh Park on Sunday, September 22.

Portlaw and Clonea will meet in the match to decide relegation with the losers going back to the intermediate grade.

Intermediate Semi-Finals

As expected, they brought a good crowd to Cappoquin on Sunday and while the excitement may not have been as intense as was expected, both were very enjoyable and leave the way clear for a great final between Shamrocks and Sliabh gCua some time next month.

Comfortable Win For Mount Sion

Mount Sion 2-15, Tallow 1-6

This match certainly lacked the real cut and thrust of a championship tie and while it was entertaining for the most part, it produced very little excitement and disappointed those who had expected something better from two of our leading hurling clubs.

Mount Sion will probably feel happy enough about their performance which was far more spirited than that of their "happy-go-lucky" opponents, Tallow.

The result merely decided the pairings for the county semi-finals, so apart from prestige, there was nothing else much at stake. Mount Sion have now maintained their winning record against Tallow.

Tallow had plenty of scoring chances in the second half and it was really amazing that for it all they had only two points added to their half-time score, when full-time was called. Over the full hour only about six frees were awarded and while many people will read this as a tribute to the fine sportsmanship on both sides, and rightly so, it also gives an idea of how casual it was as a contest.

Garry Garter had a 3rd minute point for Mount Sion and a minute later Paul Curley made it level. Donal Loughnane added points for the city team, but replies from Mark Geary and Philly Curley had them level again in the 7th minute. Garter, a point and Seamus Clere a goal, put Mount Sion four points up, but Tallow hit back with an Eamon Power goal and a point from Connie Curley to make them level again. Points by Paraigh Fanning and Seamus Clere gave Mount Sion (1-6) a two points lead at half-time.

Three minutes after the restart, Seamus Clere had a goal for the winners and this was the first of their ten second half scores that brought just two points by way of reply from Tallow (points by Mickie Curley and Mark Geary) to leave Mount Sion run out easy and deserving winners.

Scorers: Mount Sion: S. Clere 2-1, Tony Browne 0-4, G. Garter, D. Loughnane and G. Fitzpatrick 0-2 each, P. Fanning, J. Meaney, S. Ahearn and D. Keogh 0-1 each; Tallow: E. Power 1-0, M. Geary 0-2, Paul Curley, Philly Curley, Connie Curley and M. Curley 0-1 each.

Mount Sion — P. Flynn, V. Nolan, P. Ryan, D. Power, B. Coughlan, G. Fitzpatrick, B. Greene, J. Meaney, Tommy Browne, G. Garter, D. Loughnane, T. Browne, G. Garter, D. Loughnane, Tony Browne, P. Fanning, S. Ahearn, S. Clere.

Tallow — M. Murphy, T. McCarthy, L. O'Donoghue, C. Cunningham, G. Sice, T. Sheehan, D. O'Regan, M. Geary, Paul Curley, J. J. Henley, Stephen Curley, M. Curley, Connie Curley, E. Power, Philly Curley. Sub. — M. Allen for G. Sice.

Mr. Jimmy O'Gorman, Chairman, presided at Saturday night's meeting of the Western Board and at which fifteen clubs were represented.

SUSPENSIONS

The minimum suspension of two weeks was imposed on the following who were reported for having been sent off for rough play: N. Donovan, Modeligo, J. Keating, An Gaeltacht, Pat White, Kilrossanty, N. Donovan, Modeligo. G. Hogan, Tallow, was suspended for three months.

FINES

Nine clubs were named for having withdrawn teams from various championships and those who did not give the required notice to the Board Secretary were each fined £50 in accordance with a previous decision of the Board. Fines were imposed on Af-fane, Brickeys, Faha, Eire Og and An Gaeltacht.

The penalty was disputed in some cases but the Chairman ruled that it had been a Board decision at an early meeting this year, when the whole matter of teams pulling out of the championship and not giving sufficient notice, was being examined.

NO REPORTS

Not all the reports of games were before the meeting and an appeal was made to referees to submit these as soon as possible in order that players who have been sent off, can be regularised.

CORRESPONDENCE

Ballysaggart Club wrote to apologise for their late fielding for a recent game and outlined a couple of problems which caused the delay. The Chairman said the explanation was reasonable and the Board accepted the apology.

Shamrocks Club wrote seeking a grant towards the cost of travelling to Feile na Gael with the under-14 hurling team and a grant of £100 was approved. It was pointed out that the overall cost of sending a team party to the Feile was in the region of £1,000.

HANDBALL APPLICATION

The Kilgobinet Handball Club applied for a special grant to help clear off a debt which had accrued from heavy travelling expenses to games outside the county, including places like Roscommon, Castlerea, Carlow, etc. The club have won five All-Ireland titles over the past few years and heavy training costs had also been a factor. The Board agreed to give a grant of £200.

DRAWS

The draw for the junior hurling championship resulted as follows: An Rinn v. Ballysaggart to be played at Cappoquin on Saturday, August 31, and Kilgobinet versus Lismore which was scheduled for Cappoquin, on Friday, August 30.

OTHER FIXTURES

J.F.C. — Seana Phobal v. Modeligo at Dungarvan, August 30; winners v. Mellerary at Cappoquin on September 6.

M.F.C. — Abbeyside v. Clashmore at Dungarvan, August 28; Gaeltacht v. St. Olivers at Abbeyside, September 28.

A further officer board meeting was fixed for Wednesday, September 4 when the committee will probably be in a position to fix most of the finals.

SYMPATHY

Our sincere sympathy is extended to Billy and Jimmy Lineen of Lismore, on the recent death of their mother Mrs. Mary Lineen. Both Billy and Jim were players and very staunch members of the Lismore club and both played on their senior teams in their younger days. Billy was a well-known inter-county man, having assisted the county in the late fifties. May she rest in peace.

We also tender our sincere sympathy to Mrs. Kirwan, Touraneena, on the death of her husband, Edward, which occurred last week-end. The late Edward, was the president of the Sliabh gCua/St. Mary's Clubs, and he once owned the grounds on which the teams now play.

was claimed that the merger negotiations between the two giant food companies were now close to collapse and that several Avonmore officials and advisers had questioned Waterford's goodwill to the merger talks in the belief that individuals within Waterford were ill-disposed towards a merger.

In the course of the statement issued on Monday, Waterford Foods plc confirmed that it was dedicated to bringing the merger with Avonmore Foods plc to a successful conclusion. Mr. Stephen O'Connor, Managing Director, Waterford Foods said that his company was at present eagerly awaiting a series of extremely important meetings with Avonmore and that Waterford's approach would be committed, objective and in total goodwill.

Referring to the report in the "Sunday Business Post," Mr. O'Connor said that false and potentially damaging claims were made. In regard to the claim made in the report concerning the purchase of United Co-operative Dairies, Mr. O'Connor pointed out that the Post offered no authenticated source for this claim which he described as totally untrue. "No such proposals ever existed" Mr. O'Connor confirmed.

PRECISE SITUATION

Outlining the precise situation, Mr. O'Connor said, "At an informal meeting about other issues as long ago as last May, Waterford mentioned casually to Avonmore that it had had earlier, but unsuccessful, discussions with UCD and Avonmore acknowledged that they also had shown some passing interest in the same company. Avonmore also acknowledged that the company in question would be an extremely good fit for Waterford's subsidiary Heald Foods." That was the full extent of the informal exchange between us in relation to UCD up to the time when recent media speculation linking Waterford to UCD emerged," said Mr. O'Connor.

BALLYSAGGART NOTES

G.A.A.

Our opponents in the Western semi-final will be none other than Ring. This will most certainly be a major assignment and a big improvement on anything produced so far this year will be needed to defeat them. The game will be played in Cappoquin on Saturday, August 31.

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Bridie Ryan, Coole and all other members of the family on the death of her mother Mrs. Mary Lineen which occurred last week.
