The long-awaited and much requested Traffic Management Plan for Dungarvan was finally presented to the members of Dungarvan Urban Council at a special meeting of the Council held on last Monday night.

Prepared by Harewood Associates, Consulting Engineers of Galway City, the Traffic Management Study was presented by Mr. Frank Harewood who used slides to explain the various proposals contained in the study.

The recommended proposals were summarized in two groups — those to be implemented in the short-term and those in the medium term. The short-term proposals are those with the highest priority and which will yield immediate benefits. These were listed as follows:

Two multistorey carparks to be developed with private sector investment in joint venture with the Urban Council — a 3-level park at Davitt's Quay and a 2-level park at Scanlon's Yard to provide an additional 330 parking spaces.

Roundabouts (subject to approval by the Dept. of the Environment) at Shandon Road junction with Bridge Street, and the Quay, at south end of relief road and at Park Hotel junction with a mini-roundabout at Crotty's Corner, Abbeyside.

New carparks (up to 150 spaces) located at West of Mary St./Grattan Square: a site for at least 50 cars has been identified in the area north of O'Connell St. and west of Grattan Square and a site for up to 200 cars could be gained by the reclamation of the area between the Fire Station and the relief road.

Grattan Square — a one-way gyratory system to eliminate traffic conflicts and improve pedestrian facilities.

There was a fullscale dramatic rescue operation mounted to the west of Minehead under Ballinaharda, Old Parish last Sunday evening when a helicopter and lifeboat combined to airlift six teenagers to safety from rocks on which they had been stranded when caught by the rising tide.

After lunch on Sunday, Linda and Emma Whelan and Kevin Power, all from Old Parish with Leonard Whelan from Butlerstown, Samuel Reid from London and Liza Ward from Antrim who were holidaying in the Old Parish area went for a walk on the beach and as they moved on to another beach at Ballymacart they were caught on the rocks by the fast rising incoming tide.

Mr. Martin Whelan, father of the Whelan girls was fishing in a boat off Ballymacart and spotted the plight of the trapped teenagers. He went ashore and rang the Gardai in Dungarvan. It was then 5.20 p.m. and the Marine Rescue Co-ordination Centre at Shannon was immediately alerted.

The Youghal inshore lifeboat under helmsman Kieran O'Connell and the Sikorsky rescue helicopter from Shannon were dispatched to the area and arrived on the scene shortly after 6 p.m. and one of the lifeboat crew David Slattery then swam to the stranded walkers.

Meanwhile a crowd had gathered at the beach at Ballymacart and Mr. Micheal Toibin, one of the onlookers said that a very high tide with a strong current was running as the stranded teenagers were airlifted to the helicopter which then proceeded to Youghal where the six were landed safely.

The speed with which the lifeboat and helicopter crews reached the scene following the initial alert has been widely and deservedly praised.

GOD HAS INFINITE WISDOM

God not only chose the Jewish race to be His people, but He also watched over, protected and constantly proved His fidelity to them. God did expect them to show their appreciation in return. He had requested that they'd show through their observance of His Commandments. Likewise, we the new people of God knowing we depend on God for everything, we should strive to observe the Ten Commandments in their entirety. It is the one and only way to prove our love for God.

The Pharisees failed because they added a super structure to the law, and then concentrated in fulfilling these human requirements and neglected to give God what was His due. Many have made that mistake in more recent years: they were so caught up with their own goodness that they were blind to the needs of others. These people were failing to build a Christian Community, because, whilst they kept some of the Commandments, they neglected to keep the whole law. Too, you have others whose faith is so weak that they declare God's law is too rigid and too demanding. In fact, the reading makes it clear that those, who accept and live by God's law, find great joy and consolation in sharing in God's plan of salvation. The law is not framed to be a burden, and those, who wisely follow it, will tell you, it is the road to happiness.

When people reject God's law, and act and do as they please, they generally create trouble for themselves. One thing, they never find real happiness. God's law is designed to bring order and peace. Everyone readily understands the absolute necessity to have road traffic laws. Experience shows, where God is not honoured, there's no restraint. In sexual matters, where there's no control, disease abounds. The Commandments are designed to see that man gives God His due and renders a like service to his neighbour. Instead of being restrictive, God's law protects man's freedom. Dispense with traffic regulations and see how free you are to use the roadways!

It is important to bear in mind that God is Lord of heaven and of earth, so when He directs us to do something, we ought, as St. James puts it in second reading, to comply with His request. He is the all wise God, and it would be foolish to ignore Him. He loves us. He knows what is good for us. And, since His word is law, we'd be stupid not to listen and act upon it. St. James says, we must be practical Christians. We must live our faith, help those in need and keep the Commandments. The attitude in the world is greatly at variance with Christ's teachings. It has openly declared that rubber goods are a necessity in order to allow people have unlimited sex. The Church declares that this is wrong, and can never be justified. It is much the same with those who promote abortion, which is another name for murder. This sin is so great, it cries to Heaven for vengeance.

I have heard of Catholics, who lived without God, and did not want to know Him on their death-bed. I was shocked when told of someone, I'd known and respected, died like a pagan. Not knowing all the circumstances, I cannot pass judgement. Ever after, when I visited the sick, I always blessed the house before entering. We do not give half enough credit to "old nick." I would always advise people to say at least one daily prayer for a happy death.

BLIND TO HUMAN NEEDS

Next Sunday's Gospel would apply well to present day society. It is well known that some people, who haunt the Church, are blind to the human needs that surround them. Unwisely too, some, who are most unselfish in caring for the needs of others, fail to render due service to God. One has to keep the whole law. Just imagine a Catholic saying, "a divorced person deserves a second chance." As the Lord said: "you are for me or you are against me." You cannot have two masters.

The Lord is not satisfied with lip-service. He wants to be worshipped, and He wants it to come from the heart. The Pharisees were condemned, because they'd woven a lot of little structures into the law, and ended up by giving wholesale attention to these traditions, and forgetting all about God's law. Mark is actually referring to this problem, when he makes it clear that defilement does not arise from eating a particular food, but comes from man's heart, such as envy, evil thoughts etc. We must keep the Commandments. Yes, we must keep all of them. They contain God's law for all time. No one can change them.

September Warnings To Parents

Every September when schools re-open a major change in the pattern of road use occurs — the amount of traffic and the number of young children on the roads increases dramatically. This combination of traffic and young children can end tragically if the proper safety precautions are not taken. The National Safety Council has issued some guidelines to help prevent the more common types of accidents involving school-going children.

WALKING TO SCHOOL

- Young children should be shown a safe route to school and taught the necessary rules of the road on the way.
- They should be accompanied by an adult until they are able to cope with the journey on their own. As a general rule children under seven years old should not cross roads on their own. They cannot decide how far away a car is or how fast it is going.

- Make sure each child has a pair of reflective arm-bands.
- Remember that children follow the example set by adults — try to set a good example by following the rules of the road yourself.

TRAVELLING BY BUS

While waiting for a bus children should be taught to stand well in on the foot-path or grass verge. Before crossing the road they should wait until the bus has moved off and they can see clearly in both directions.

CYCLING

Think twice before allowing your child to cycle to school. A bicycle is a vehicle, not a toy and a cyclist is very vulnerable, even when trained and experienced.

- No child under the age of ten should be allowed cycle in any sort of traffic.
- Make sure the rules of the road have been thoroughly understood and that he or she can look behind and signal without wobbling.

- Impress on children that traffic light signals must always be obeyed and that RED means STOP.
- Check that the bicycle's brakes, lights, reflector and bell are in good order.
- Make sure your child is as visible as possible. A reflective belt, bright clothes, in fact anything that makes cyclists more visible might save their lives.

● The risk of head injury can be reduced by 90% by wearing a cycle helmet - it makes sense for your child to wear one.

DRIVING YOUR CHILD TO SCHOOL

- Children should sit in the back seat and each should have his own safety restraint.
- Set down and collect your children on the school side of the road whenever possible.
- Don't park within 20 yards of the school entrance.
- Co-operate with school wardens and never overtake a school bus when it is stationary.

DUTCH TOURISTS OBJECT TO PROPOSED SEWERAGE PLANT IN CLONEA

Dear Sir,
On behalf of all Dutch visitors I would hereby strongly ask to grant Mr. Casey's wish to extend his site without having the sewage works on his own land. This would not be in the interest of the Dutch campers and it may result in their absence totally.

I think you will agree to the fact that without Dutch (and eventually all foreign) visitors, tourism in Dungarvan and Clonea will come to a halt and local shops will suffer as well.

Signed,
M. VINK,
Inspector for the Dutch Touring Guide, International Camping Wijzer, Slenkweg 2, Ressen - Holland.

DEATH OF SISTER JOSEPHA LALOR
 The death has occurred in England of Sister Josepha Lalor at an advanced age. Sister Josepha was a native of Graigneshoneen, Kilmacthomas. She spent over sixty years of her religious life in the Mercy Order in England. She was a regular visitor to the Mercy Convents in Kilmacthomas and Dungarvan.

She is survived by her sisters Mrs. Jim Leader, Clonmel, Mrs. McDonald, Friars-Walk, Abbeyside, Dungarvan and a number of nephews and nieces including the family of her late brother Paddy in Carrick-on-Suir. Incidentally the late Paddy was a play-

International Sculpture Workshop Opens In Tallow

Mr. Jack Verbrugge the well-known Dutch Sculptor and Industrialist officially opened the second John Hogan Memorial Sculpture Workshop at the Tallow Enterprise Centre in Tallow on Sunday night last. Mr. Verbrugge suggested that art and its creators do not receive the kind of due recognition it deserves. "Appreciating art might be a question of personal taste but people must be allowed to express their individual talents where possible," he said.

"This event," Mr. Verbrugge said, "is an ideal opportunity to bring creative individuals and the public in a well organised manner." This year the Workshop has an International flavour with sculptors from five countries and three continents. In his role as an industrialist Mr. Verbrugge stated he readily recognises the role the artist plays in making everyday consumer products such as irons, toasters, vacuum cleaners, etc. more visually acceptable. We all like to look and handle attractive items.

In the context of our economy art might not seem high on our everyday priority list and the amount of direct foreign earnings might not impress many of us. But Ireland with its already very rich heritage of cultural ambassadors, be it writers, playwrights, actors, painters, sculptors and many more, provides the world with many pleasures which far outweigh any of the negative publicity.

This event is aimed at providing a direct contact between artist and public and I can't imagine a better opportunity in which to succeed in this objective.

UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY
 Mr. Verbrugge then went on to praise the organisers of the workshop who are giving the young artists such a unique opportunity. This workshop will make history in that it is the first Joint Group piece to be created by a group of sculptors. The piece will be sited at the Square, Tallow. In selecting the participants as well as their technical ability, their ability to interact with each other in a creative way was also considered.

Mr. Dan Hurley, Waterford County Manager welcomed the sculptors and congratulated the Enterprise Group on their initiative in organising such an event.

Mrs. Helen McCarthy on behalf of the Enterprise Group paid tribute to all the support and help we have received from so many bodies and people but a special thanks to International Sculptor Bernard Mortell who for the second year will act as co-ordinator of the project. Mrs. McCarthy also paid tribute to Waterford County Council who are so supportive of their efforts to put West Waterford on the cultural map.

Celebrating Hope in the Friary Church, Dungarvan

An International Producer/director is set to address a thronged Friary Church at Dungarvan. Fred C. Forsey reports:

With soaring unemployment figures, continual blood-letting in the North and a general feeling of paralysis in the country, young and old are looking for signs of hope. It is a time to draw on inner resources and the wellsprings of hope in the human spirit. On next Wednesday evening in the Friary Church, Dungarvan some of the ultimate reasons for hoping will be celebrated in music, in song, in prayer and in Eucharist.

After Mass John Bird, film director and producer, will speak about the hope which has touched his life.

John Bird has directed and produced a number of films for television, including "A Vision of Freedom" and "A Hill of Redemption" which was screened by R.T.E. The documentary "Vision of Freedom" tells the story of hope born out of suffering among Christians in the Ukraine. Mr. Bird has worked extensively for several television channels, including the B.B.C. For some years he was a senior executive with Twentieth Century Fox and Paramount Pictures. John, who is now living in Baltray, Co. Louth has been invited to speak to Religious Orders and at various religious ceremonies.

Being a frequent visitor to the Cistercian Abbey at Mount Melleray, he spoke to a congregation of 500 in the Melleray College Chapel in August of last year. People were deeply impressed by his simple and direct message of faith and hope coming out of his commitment to Christ and to Our Lady.

The celebration begins with Rosary at 7.15 p.m. and Mass at 7.30 p.m. All are welcome to the Friary Church on Wednesday evening, 4th September.

ROSEWEEK 1991

A garden party in scenic St. Anne's Rose Garden in Clontarf, Dublin, was the setting as The Right Honourable Lord Mayor, Councillor Sean Kenny officially launched Roseweek 1991 in aid of the Irish Society for Autism (ISA) and the Irish Epilepsy Association (IEA).

This is the third year that both the I.S.A. and the I.E.A. have joined forces for the national Roseweek campaign. For one week, between 24th and the 30th October, 1991, thousands of roses will be sold throughout the country in an effort to generate £500,000 and to increase awareness of both autism and epilepsy. The volunteer network will ensure that a plentiful supply of roses at £1 each will be available to the general public.

Although both conditions are unrelated, the united effort of the previous two years has proven beneficial to both. First described and named in 1943, autism is a severe, lifelong disorder of communication and behaviour affecting twenty-five new born babies every year. The outstanding characteristics are extreme aloneness, difficulty in relating to others, severely impaired or no speech and retardation in some cases.

Epilepsy can happen to anyone at any time and affects one in every two hundred people. There are many types of epilepsy, ranging from absence in consciousness to attacks with convulsive movements of the body and limbs. These attacks can occur as often as once a year to several times per month depending on the level of control.

The Story of Dick and Mary and the Ploughing Championships

On October 4, just four days before Limerick is thronged for the National Ploughing Championships, Dick and Mary Fitzgerald will hold the official opening ceremony for Woodlands House Hotel at Knockanes, Adare. Then they will roll out the red carpet for the guaranteed thousands of farmers who will visit the official residence of the National Ploughing Association for this great rural event from October 8-10.

The story began in the Swinging Sixties when Mary, then Mary Ryan, joined Lough Gur branch of Macra na Feirme. She gave her time generously and enjoyed every minute of it, competing in debates, public speaking contests, becoming branch secretary and even representing Limerick in the 1971 Queen of the Land competition.

At the same time she met Dick who was a prominent member of the Castleisland branch of Macra na Feirme from Castleisland. They married in 1973 to start farming 60 acres purchased from the well-known Chawke family at Adare. Their main line was market gardening with strawberries and sprouts as a speciality.

Mary's energy and way with people attracted her into catering and she hung up her first B and B sign in 1976. A year later they were on the Bord Failte list of farm guesthouses and members of a very supportive Failte Tuaithe.

It was a real snowball situation for the Fitzgeralds. They added four bedrooms first. Then they went the big step of adding ten bedrooms with own bathroom. No one would say that Mary married Dick for his cooking but cook he did, when the chips were down, in a manner of speaking. They were now heavily committed to middle market catering and there was a substantial investment loan to service. It wasn't helped by the wet summer of 1982 so there was sound economy in a tightly managed establishment where Dick was 'head chef' and Mary was 'head waiter.'

STIRRING TIMES

They were stirring times, but the big move was yet to come. At about the same time as the NPA decided to go to Limerick for the year of Treaty 300, the Fitzgeralds were developing their plans for a million pound investment at Knockanes. They pitched for the role of official headquarters hotel and persuaded NPA's managing director, Anna May McHugh that they would be ready in time.

The scaffolding is up around the front just now but it's business almost as usual inside. They have just opened a wing of twenty new bedrooms which are priced for the middle market but still set a very high standard.

When October comes around, there will be more new bedrooms, a new restaurant, a function room to seat 400 for dinner and a huge marquee added to cater for the Queen of the Plough Dance and the Ploughmen's Presentation Dinner.

It's a big, courageous step from a farm guest house.

The End of the Road is But a Bend in the Road

When we feel we have nothing left to give,
And we're sure the "song has ended"—
When the day seems over and the shadows fall,
And darkness of night has descended,
Where can we go to find the strength to valiantly
keep on trying,
Where can we find the hand that will dry the tears
that the heart is crying—
There's but one place to go and that is to God
And, dropping all patience and pride,
We can pour out our problems without restraint,
And gain strength with Him at our side—
And together we stand at life's crossroads and view
what we think is the end,
But God has a much bigger vision as He tells us it's only a bend—
For the road goes on and it's smoother,
And the "pause in the song" is a "rest,"
And the path that's unsung and unfinished,
Is the sweetest and richest and best—
So rest and relax and grow stronger,
Let go and let God share your load,
Your work is not finished or ended,
You've just come to "a bend in the road."

A PROFILE, 1990 - 1991

Co. Final winners of Novice Debating 1990-1991 (left to right) — Fiona Costin, Mary Fleming, Edel Smiddy, Donal Fitzgerald.

1990-1991 has been an exceptional year for the Club with membership rising to 41, drawn from our catchment area of Clashmore, Piltown, Grange, Ardmore, Dungarvan, Ring, Old Parish, Tallow and Kinsalebeg itself, a total of five Parishes in all.

Patricia Kiely, Co. winner of Mastermind 1990-1991

At the start of this year, we decided to place greater emphasis on sport and social activities. This policy has paid off handsomely with members benefitting from our many outings with other Clubs in the county, to the mutual enjoyment of all.

Bowling, Soccer, Tug-O-War, Basketball and Athletics are but a few of the activities we have taken up during the year, not forgetting our Ballroom Dancing Classes. Our greatest sporting achievement to-date was the winning of the National Final in the Men's 4x100m. Relay recently.

Kinsalebeg Macra na Feirme is a rural young people's organisation. This is not to say that one has to be a farmer to join the Club. Our Club is made up of both farmers and non-farmers between 17 - 30 years of age who join simply because they are impressed by the activities we have to offer them.

Kinsalebeg has always been very well represented in competitions. This year saw us win County Titles in Junior Debating, Public Speaking, Senior Public Speaking, Beef Stockjudging, Novice Introductory Tasks, Light Entertainment (Mastermind and Male Disco Dancing!), Farm Communicator of the Year, Cross Country Quiz, Junior Dairy Stockjudging, and Make and Model. Our proudest moment in 1990-1991 however, was when Quiz Team Leader, Peter Kiely accepted the National Cross Country Quiz Cup on behalf of Kinsalebeg and County

Waterford.

Officers for the Year 1990-1991 were — Chairman, Suzanne Hynes; Secretary, Kay Fleming; Treasurer, Gabriel Hynes; P.R.O., Edel Smiddy.

Eleanor Kiely, Kinsalebeg Macra na Feirme, Co. winner of Best Actress award 1990-1991

1990-1991 was indeed an exceptional year for our Club. The start of 1991-1992 has already seen us improve on last year. In addition to retaining our Club of Dungarvan Show Award we were delighted to recently accept the Club of the Year Award for County Waterford. — Suzanne Hynes (Chairman), Kinsalebeg Macra na Feirme.

Locals who competed in the Cahir 10K on Thursday evening last were Frank Bolger, Tom Connolly, Tony McCarthy and Margaret Connolly formerly Ballymacarbry who was fifth in the Ladies race and first in the local confined race. To them we say, well done.

WATER PROBLEMS NOT SOLVED

A deputation from Newcastle Muintir Na Tire recently met Mr. Martin Nolan, Senior Engineer, South Tipperary County Council. They were accompanied by Senator Sean Byrne and Matty McGrath in connection with the many problems and breaks to the local water supply system. Mr. Nolan assured them that everything is being done to locate the problem. The pipe has been investigated but more tests will have to be carried out.

It is now hoped to lay a new pipe which will ensure a supply of water to Newcastle irrespective of the breaks. The laying of this pipe will take at least six or seven weeks and it is being treated as a matter of urgency.

CHURCHYARD MASSES

The Masses at the ancient churches, Kilronan, Cill-Cloggin and Bennetts Church will not take place this year, but will take place in July 1992.

G.A.A.

At Colligan Gaelic Field on Wednesday evening last, Four-Mile-Water minor hurlers defeated Naomh Brid in the Western semi-final (B Grade) on the score Four-Mile-Water 5-4, Naomh Brid 0-5, while at Cappoquin on Saturday evening last the under-12 hurlers of Four-Mile-Water and Tallow ended all square, Four-Mile-Water 2-0, Tallow 1-3. The replay takes place at Cappoquin on Thursday evening next.

CHALLENGE GAME

On Saturday evening at 3.30 p.m., Four-Mile-Water take on Passage West (Cork) in a senior hurling challenge at the Mill Field, Ballymacarbry.

LATE MR. EDWARD KIRWAN

A very highly esteemed and well known member of the community went to his eternal reward with the deeply regretted death which occurred after a brief illness borne with true Christian fortitude at St. Joseph's Hospital, Clonmel of Mr. Edward (Eddie) Kirwan, Boolavounteen, Ballinamult.

The deceased was a very estimable gentleman of many charming traits of character, his gentle, good-humoured and obliging nature, mild manner and unassuming disposition commended him to all fortunate enough to make his acquaintance and his demise has evoked feelings of sincere regret among his neighbours and friends.

For many years he was a member of the committee of the now defunct Knockmeal Co-op Creamery, Ballinamult. A staunch supporter and member of Sliabh gCua Football Club of which he was president for many years, the Gaelic field at Boolavounteen is named to his memory, Kirwan Park.

Testifying to the esteem in which deceased and his family are held in the district, a large and representative concourse of mourners accompanied his remains draped in the Green and White of the club he loved, Sliabh gCua, when they were removed from Drohan's Funeral Home, Dungarvan to St. Mary's Parish Church, Touraneena. On Monday morning Requiem Mass was offered for the repose of his gentle soul after which he was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

To his wife and family we tender our sympathy.

LATE MRS. CATHERINE BULBERT

It is with sadness and regret we record the death of Mrs. Catherine (Katty) Bulbert (nee Hally), Davitt Ave., Clonmel, which sad event took place at her daughter's residence, St. Finnan's Ave., Ardfinnan on Wednesday, August 14. Deceased was a member of a very old and respected family, the Hallys of Large-wood, Newcastle.

A thoughtful and helpful neighbour, her warm sense of humour, unassuming courtesy, generosity and kindness to all marked her out as a true Christian. Accordingly, all who knew and respected her will deeply and justifiably mourn her demise and long cherish her memory. She was predeceased by many years by her husband Richard (Dick) who was for many years Sacristan at St. Mary's Church, Clonmel.

That Katty will be sadly missed was evidenced at the removal of her remains from Condon's Funeral Parlour, Clonmel on Thursday evening to St. Peter and Paul's Church, Clonmel when all walks of life were represented in the large concourse of sympathisers indicating the esteem and high regard in which the deceased and her family are held.

On Friday morning Requiem Mass was offered for the repose of her gentle soul after which the funeral took place to the Old Churchyard, Newcastle where interment took place in the family plot.

To her son, daughters, brother and sister we extend our sympathy.

LATE MR. JOHN McGRATH

It is with regret we pen the passing of Mr. John (Johnny) McGrath, Jubilee Terrace, Kilsheelan which sad event took place at St. Joseph's Hospital, Clonmel on Monday, August 19.

John, a well-known stone mason, hailed from Rathgormack and last July he was the driver of a car in which his wife Kitty was accidentally killed at Langanoran, outside Clonmel on the Waterford road. In the accident John received severe leg injuries from which he never fully recovered.

Deceased was truly one of nature's gentlemen. Of a friendly, good humoured and generous disposition, he was always ready to lend the helping hand and he is deeply and justifiably mourned by all who held him in the warmest regard.

On Wednesday evening his remains were removed from Fennessy Funeral Home, Clonmel to the Parish Church at Gambonsfield and on Thursday morning Requiem Mass was offered for the repose of his soul after which he was laid to rest beside his wife Kitty who predeceased him by just six weeks.

To his sons, daughter and many other relatives we tender our sympathy.

SYMPATHY

Many ex-members of C/Coy. 13th Batt. FCA from Ballymacarbry extend their heartfelt sympathy to the Geasley family, Shandon, Dungarvan on the death of Thomas Geasley who passed to his reward last week. He served for many years with the FCA in Dungarvan.

Sympathy also to the family relatives of the late Maurice Kiely (ex Lieut.) FCA, Dungarvan.

GUIDE TO SAFE BOATING

The popularity of water sports, especially boating, has increased during the recent spell of fine weather. The National Safety Council, anxious to ensure that people are aware of the dangers involved in boating activities, has issued the following guidelines:

Ensure the craft is seaworthy — check your boat, sails, oars, oarlocks, engine, fuel on board; Inform a responsible person of your intentions, duration of your trip, number and names of persons you have on board, and when you expect to be back. If you do not return on time the rescue services should be notified at once by dialling 999.

Check the weather forecast for the area in which you intend to operate and also check that you have lifejackets or buoyancy aids for everyone on board and also at least one lifebuoy with line attached.

If you are undertaking a voyage outside your local areas check that you have a properly corrected compass and charts on board for the voyage, and you know how to use them correctly.

Any small boat going to sea should have at least two parachute distress flares, two red hand-flares, and two smoke signals on board. Instructions for their use are on the sides of the signals. They should be stowed in a clearly marked water tight container.

Boats with engines should have all necessary spares including fuel, engine tool kit, spare plugs and a small fire extinguisher, while all small boats should carry in watertight containers some fresh drinking water, water resistant torch, small first aid kit and a knife.

All boats, irrespective of size, should have a small bailer on board. Larger size boats should carry a bucket with lanyard attached. Further information on boating safety, lifejackets etc. can be obtained from the National Safety Council, 4 Northbrook Road, Ranelagh. Phone No. 963422.

WEDDING :

McGRATH - GOUGH.

A very pretty wedding took place recently at Moyglass Church, Fethard, when Thomas only son of Paddy and Noreen McGrath, Affane, Cappoquin, was united in holy matrimony to Louise, only daughter of Trevor and Joan Gough of Coolmore Stud, Fethard.

The bride, given away by her father, looked radiant in a full-length gown of white satin trimmed with pearls and carried a bouquet of multi-coloured fresh flowers. The Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Canon Power.

The bridesmaids who wore ballet length gowns of deep purple were Susan McGrath and Mary O'Sullivan (sisters of the groom) and Catherine O'Rourke and Catherine Condon, (friends of the bride). The best man was John McGrath (cousin of the groom) and grooms men were John Finnegan, Colm McGrath and Mick Tobin, Army Comrades of the groom.

The reception was held at the Clonmel Arms Hotel and the honeymoon is being spent in Turkey.

We wish Tom and Louise many years of happiness.

ST. ANNE'S PAST PUPILS REUNION

On Saturday 10th August 1991, one of the happiest and most historic occasions ever to happen in Cappoquin took place, namely the first ever reunion of St. Annes past pupils. It commenced with Mass in St. Mary's Parish Church at 7.30 p.m. celebrated by Fr. F. Lloyd. Past pupils participated during Mass which made it very special for us. We wish to thank Fr. Pheelan P.P. and Fr. Lloyd for letting us take such an active part in the Mass. Sr. de Lourde for her eloquent narration during the bringing up of the gifts, also Irene Cahill and the choir, organist Mairead Cullinane for their magnificent contribution, the altar society for the lovely flower arrangements in our school colours and everyone who participated.

The minute the final hymn was over the reunion began. Past pupils who hadn't met for years greeted each other with handshakes, hugs, and tears of joy. The chapel yard was thronged with excited men and women rushing from one old friend to another, and the sound of over 200 people all talking together had to be heard to be believed. About an hour later we headed off to Lawlors' Hotel for the next part of our celebrations. When we arrived there were still more encounters. Those who hadn't been able to attend the Mass met their old school pals and the lobby of the hotel buzzed with talk and laughter. Eventually everybody sat down to an excellent meal. Billy Arrigan was a very capable M.C. and welcomed us all in his opening speech. Then Maureen Hackett (nee Regan) spoke on behalf of the very first pupils. Next Margaret Lyne (nee Coffey) spoke for the classes of the 50's, Patsy O'Keefe for the later years of Co-ed, and then Marion Looby (nee Power) on behalf of the boarders. To mark the occasions of Sr. Annunciatina's recent retirement and Sr. de Lourde's Golden Jubilee, Ollie Wilkinson on behalf of the Parents Council, presented them with gifts. Then Angela Collender (nee Prendergast) presented inscribed plaques and Mass Bouquets to Srs. Evangelist, Margaret Mary, Carmel, Annunciatina and de Lourde on behalf of the past pupils as tokens of appreciation for their years of dedication and service to St. Annes.

The formalities over, the reuniting of old friends continued unabated. There were many old school photographs on display prepared by Mary McGrath (nee Kiely), they excited great interest and much laughter. One treasured item on display was an old ticket for a school play, "Daddy Long Legs", and Grand Variety Concert in the Desmond Cinema, Cappoquin on December 10th 1958, admission 2/6. This was lent to us by Mary Murphy (nee Rawlins).

Those who wished danced with abandon, while others were content to reminisce, but in the early hours of the morning we all joined hands for Auld Lang Syne. Even then we were reluctant to say good-bye, but all good things must come to an end, so we finally parted with promises to meet again in the not so distant future. Thank you all for coming. Well done to those who came from abroad especially to be with us, it was truly a night to remember. The whole memorable occasion was recorded on video, and photos taken professionally. They can be ordered from the committee. Finally, the winners of the draw on the door tickets were Anne Fennessy and Maureen Arrigan.

AT THE SPORTSFIELD

On Friday evening the venue hosted the Western Minor Hurling Final featuring Lismore v St. Pats. The odds were against a Lismore victory here as they were bidding to take their fifth Western Title in a row. The reality was of course that they were just as keen to win this one as they were when the run started in 1987. In St. Pats they faced a side of great potential, a side which had knocked Dungarvan out of the championships and who were well capable - on form - of taking this Western crown.

Indeed in the first half they looked as if they might do just that, they matched the champions throughout the field but suffered from the malaise of many teams nowadays the lack of ability to score. The boys in the black and amber were a little slow to settle, but gradually it became obvious that they were not about to relinquish their title. They displayed all of their vast experience in putting scores together when scores were most needed and ran out fairly easy winners in the end on the score 3.7 to 1.4.

Jimmy O'Gorman (chairman of the Western Board) was a proud man when presenting the Cup to the Captain of the team from his own Club.

This was Lismore's third game at the Sportsfield and each time they were punctual and well prepared. We wish them the best of luck in the County Final.

ADVICE CENTRE

In a recent conversation with a gentleman here on holidays from another Irish town we discussed the advantages of an advice centre with which he is involved in the town of his adoption. The Centre gives advice and guidance on Social Welfare, Income Tax and other Related matters and is operated by FAS.

We are aware that locally there are many people with problems in this regard especially in relation to medical cards. The average person is unfortunately not equipped or trained to deal with the maze of regulations now in being. Many seek assistance from County Councillors or even TD's to help to obtain that which they are entitled to. Public Representatives often find themselves inundated with queries which of course they do their best to deal with. There is most certainly a case to be made for the setting up of an advice centre of some description where people could have their problems dealt with in a fast, efficient and confidential manner.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Who was the Captain of the Affane Senior Final team which won the County Championship in 1974?

Answer next week.
Answer to last week's question — Lower Main St. (Now Faricks)

CAPPAQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

Intermediate Hurlers Beaten: St. Mary's 1-10 Cappoquin 0-1 — Defeat by St. Marys ended our hopes of a quarter-final spot in the Championship on Saturday night last. The game was evenly contested all through until going into the final quarter we took control and went 4 points clear. Following this we missed a further four clear-cut scoring chances. Had we put away those chances victory would have been ours but alas our luck changed dramatically as a fortuitous goal brought them back in the game followed by a point to draw level. At this stage our players seemed to lose their way and did not pick up their men. This slack outfield marking left Marys through for their match winning scores.

There is no doubt it was a game thrown away, and players can justifiably be angry with themselves for letting this game slip from their grasp. However we had some fine performances from Eddie McGrath, Liam Lacey, Michael Brackett, Brian Murray, Fintan Murray, Conor Prendergast and Miceal Croke. But at the end of the day - on reflection - the team just did not put in enough work in the training field to do themselves justice. This game is not the only match we let slip this year. Can we learn from the disastrous year! I certainly hope so.

Team — E. McGrath, L. Lacey, M. Brackett, S. Costin, J. Buckley, B. Murray, D. Cummins, S. McCarthy, B. Hennessey, M. Lacey, F. Murray, C. Prendergast, M. Croke, M. Reddy, S. Fraher. Subs — M. Power.

We must also mention the splendid free-taking of Brian Hennessey. He struck some magnificent placed balls.

ON HOLIDAY.

We were delighted to meet former Cappoquin player Jim Regan holidaying in his native town. True to form Jim never missed a game we played during his stay.

Another former clubman Paddy Cahill has just returned to England following an enjoyable vacation.

UNDER 16 FOOTBALLERS

The U.16 football championship is due to begin shortly and we hope to see a full squad of players attending the training sessions.

The hurlers had a great year let us hope the footballers repeat the dose.

UNDER 21 FOOTBALL

The U.21 footballers are presently preparing for the Western final. They had a good outing against Ardfinnan last week despite being short some key players and are to play a return match next week.

DEDICATION

On Sunday last as I strolled around our G.A.A. grounds I observed a player training on his own. This is the type of dedication that every player should give his club. Perhaps all our players might take pattern by the efforts of this young lad.

The player in question was Ciaran Cullinane. Well done Ciaran.

G.A.A. NOTES

SENIOR FOOTBALL

Our senior footballers beat Tramore in the championship last Sunday night in Kill on the score of 1.8 to 0.7. After getting off to a great start with a goal in the first minute by Roger Power, we then played pretty badly for the rest of the first half and only led by a point at the break. In the second half we totally dominated the game but we failed to put away some very good chances and in the end we won by just four points.

Team; D. Mulhearn, P. Keating, P. Prendergast, T. Prendergast, B. Whelan, M. Fitzgerald, E. Flynn, P. Power, W. Power, P. Whyte (0.2), T. Behan (0.1), G. Walsh, P. Brazil (0.1), R. Power (1.1), J. Maher (0.3).

Subs; N. Power for B. Whelan, N. O'Connor for T. Behan, P. Hayes for G. Walsh, J. Dempsey, B. Kirwan, N. Kirwan.

This Friday evening in Stradbally we take on Faha in our last game in the championship before the knock out stages commence. After last weeks performance against Tramore we need to play a lot better this weekend and hopefully we can collect the two points which would probably see us finish second in the table.

UNDER 16 FOOTBALL

Our under 16 footballers were beaten in the championship by Ballyduff in Leamybrien last Monday night August 26 on the score of 4.7 to 3.6. This was a game we could have won but in the end our failure to convert our chances was the difference between the two teams.

Scorers: J. Kiely 1-2, B. Lennon 1-1, D. Kiely 1-0, C. Dee 0-1, B. Maguire 0-1, K. Hogan 0-1.

UNDER 14 FOOTBALL

Our under 14 footballers take on Stradbally this Sunday evening in Leamybrien in the final of the Mary Power Cup at 7 p.m. After losing in the final last year to our old rivals, the lads will be all out to win this prestigious trophy.

LADIES FOOTBALL

Congratulations to June and Colette Whyte who were on the Waterford Ladies Football team that beat Leitrim on Sunday last in Dungarvan, the score being 7-15 to 1-2.

They have now reached the All Ireland final against Laois which will be played in Croke Park in October.

WALK

A large crowd attended the Mass on Ballintlea Mountain last Sunday celebrated by Fr. J. O'Brien, C.C. A word of thanks to Tom Walsh Barnakill, Coillte Teoranta, Joe Dee and Tony Coffey who without their help it would not be possible to have the event.

CROTTY'S INN

The ever popular singer Susan McCann and her band appear this Saturday night at the above venue.

BINGO

The winner of the top prize of £300 went to Mr. Johnny McGrath of Dunhill last Tuesday night in Crotty's Inn.

FIELD DAY

In conjunction with this Field Day, a meeting of the Hall Committee will be held on Monday night 2nd. September at 8.30 p.m.

SCHOOLS

PENSMAN Takes You . . . . Behind The SPOTLIGHT

WEST WATERFORD HERITAGE WEEK

This year is the tercentenary of the death of Robert Boyle, the eminent scientist born in Lismore Castle in 1627. To celebrate the life and achievements of Boyle and also to mark the recent designation of Lismore as a Heritage Town, a series of events has been arranged under the aegis of the Waterford County Library Services for the week from September 17 to 23.

The highlight of the programme will be the opening of the Heritage Week on September 17 by the President of Ireland, Mary Robinson and the unveiling by her of a specially commissioned bust of Boyle in the Lismore Library.

Another major highlight will be a night of Baroque Music in St. Carthage's Cathedral in Lismore on September 23. More about all this anon.

Apart from her visit to Lismore, President Robinson will have a busy schedule on her first official visit to Deise Mumhan as she is also scheduled to fulfil official duties in Waterford City, Dungarvan and Tal-low on the occasion.

THE STREET SIGN WAS STOLEN

Further to our comment a couple of weeks ago concerning the removal of the newly erected street sign at St. Monica's Terrace, Abbeyside, we have ascertained from the Town Clerk of Dungarvan Urban Council that the sign was in fact removed by vandals and stolen.

These signs were erected around the Urban area by the Urban Council and were placed at a level at which they would be readily legible by motorists and indeed by anyone who might be seeking various streets and housing estates in the area.

A spokesman for the Council informed Pensman that it had originally been considered to place the signs at a high level but it was then decided that it would be more useful to place them at vehicular eye-level. "Perhaps," the spokesman ventured, "it would have been better to have placed them higher up out of reach but then how high would you have to go to ensure this!"

Indeed we can only again condemn in the strongest possible terms the vandals who roam around, obviously at night, destroying and damaging public property in this manner and we strongly suggest to anyone who may have any information about any of these wanton acts of destruction that they should make it available to the authorities in charge, either at the Town Hall or at the Garda Station.

TO FIGHT LIKE KILKENNY CATS

We have all heard this old saying over and over again but we are sure that very few are aware of how the saying originated. With little else to do at the weekend we started browsing through some of the books which we have collected down through the years and came across one, "Proverbs and Sayings of Ireland." This was a book compiled and edited by Sean Gaffney and Seamus Cashman and first published by the Wolfhound Press, Dublin in 1974.

The book contains an illustrated collection of over 1,000 proverbs, sayings and triads from all over Ireland most of them translated from Irish. It also has an explanation about several of the old sayings which are still commonly used and how they originated. The one which interested us most in this classification was "To Fight Like Kilkenny Cats."

It explains this as follows: In 1798 when the Hessians (English soldiers) were quartered in Kilkenny they amused themselves by tying two cats together by their tails and throwing them over a line to fight. Their officer on hearing of this, ordered his men to stop. However the soldiers continued to practice in secret, and one day while they were amusing themselves in this manner they heard the officer approaching. One soldier drawing his sword cut down the cats leaving only their tails hanging. When the officer enquired as to where the cats were, the soldier replied that the cats had fought so furiously that they had devoured all but each other's tails.

It could be true but it could also probably be just another tall tale!

PRIEST AUTHOR CLAIMS LISMORE MAN SHOT MICHAEL COLLINS

"The Dark Secret of Bealnablath", a new book on the death of General Michael Collins by Rev. Fr. Patrick J. Twohig, Parish Priest of Churchtown, Co. Cork, which was published in Dublin last Tuesday, suggests that it was a Lismore man who shot Collins in the ambush which incidentally had its 69th commemoration on Sunday last, August 25.

The claim made by the priest historian will raise new questions as to how Collins was, in fact, shot at Beal Na Blath 69 years ago. Already many other theories have been put forward and as many as six or seven others have been named as the men who fired the fatal shot but nothing positive or generally accepted has so far surfaced.

Now Fr. Twohig, in his account of the ambush, deals with the involvement in it of various groups of Republicans including some from Waterford and Kerry who came on the scene. He states that the Waterford Group were returning from West Cork where they had gone to train under General Tom Barry for a possible campaign in the North.

He then records that in 1986 he got the story on tape with a signed statement from Ned Lane some weeks before he died at his home in Dublin.

In this, old Ned related how James Ormond of Lismore, his cousin, had told him that he had come on the ambush at Beal Na Blath from the Bandon side, that he had fired some shots and "saw the big man" fall.

The two cousins, who had fought on opposite sides in the Civil War met in New York in 1926 and it was there that Jimmy Ormond made this revelation to Ned Lane. The book states that the tired and hungry Waterford men were making their way across country in single file with Ormond as the last in line when they heard distant firing. They made for the scene in the hope of capturing some transport but the firing ceased just as they arrived. They saw an army column halted on the road. A big man appeared from behind an armoured car and walked in their direction. They fired some shots and Ormond saw him fall. Other soldiers appeared around the bend and having fired some more shots as a gesture, the Waterford men went on their way.

The book states that "this revelation in Broadway in 1926 was the only one Jimmy Ormond ever made, even to his family" but it goes on to claim that the Lismore man did, however, admit to his wife on his death bed in 1978, having been at Beal Na Blath on the ambush date.

Historian Fr. Twohig spent five years researching his subject and completing his 320 page book published by Tower Books of Ballincollig, Co. Cork.

"The Dark Secret of Bealnablath" is the latest book on one of the most intriguing incidents of the Civil War in Ireland and its launch in Dublin on Tuesday is bound to raise once again all the old questions as to who really fired the fatal shot that killed "The Big Fella".

TALLOW SCULPTURE WORKSHOP

Formed five years ago to encourage the economic, social and cultural development of the area the Tallow Enterprise Group in 1990 initiated the first Sculpture Workshop. This year the Workshop which was officially launched last Sunday night has taken on an international flavour with participants from five countries and three continents.

Apart from the benefit to both the Artists taking part and the area generally, the group wished to commemorate and pay tribute to one of the most dominant Sculptors of the 19th Century, Tallow born John Hogan.

John Hogan was born in 1800 and when his part-time hobby of sculpting in marble attracted the attention of various patrons, a public subscription was raised to send him to the famed St. Luke's in Rome. He remained in Rome until 1848 when he returned to Ireland with his Italian wife. His best known works here are The Dead Christ in Clarendon St. Church, Dublin, the statues of Fr. Matthew (Cork), Daniel O'Connell (Limerick) and The Drunken Faun in University College Dublin. A second and splendid statue of O'Connell stands in Dublin City Hall.

The Workshop has been organised in conjunction with the Arts Council and the Irish Sculpture Society.

FIGHTING McGUIRE

Our choice for the ballad corner this week is one from the collection of songs and ballads composed by the great Percy French. While "Fighting McGuire" may not be as popularly known as "Come Back Paddy Reilly," "Are Ye Right There, Michael?" or "The Mountains of Mourne," also from the pen of Percy French, it tells a story which is all too common of a bully-boy who ruled through fear and boasting but collapsed when eventually confronted by some one with a bit of courage.

Now, Gibbon has told the story of old,
Of the Fall of the Roman Empire,
But I would recall the rise an' the fall
Of a man of the name of McGuire.
He came to our town as a man of renown,
And peace was, he said, his desire,
Still he'd frequently state what would be the sad
fate
Of the man who molested McGuire.

Well, we all were afraid of this quarrelsome blade,
An' we told him to draw near the fire,
An' laughed at his jest, tho' it wasn't the best,
An' swore there's no man like McGuire.
An' when he came up with the neighbours to sup,
His friendliness all would admire,
An' he'd have the best bed — for we'd sleep in the shed
For fear of insulting McGuire.

But Macgilligan's Dan — who's a rale fightin' man,
Said: "Of all this tall talkin' I tire,
I'll step in an' see why ever should he
Be called always Fightin' McGuire,
I'll step in an' say, in a casual way,
That I think he's a thief and a liar,
Then I'll hit him a clout, and unless I misdoubt,
That's a way of insultin' McGuire."

Then onward he strode to McGuire's abode,
His glorious eye shootin' fire,
An' we thought as he passed we had all looked our last
On the man who insulted McGuire;
Then we listened with grief while we heard him
called thief,
An' abused as a rogue an' a liar;
Oh! we all held our breath, for we knew it was death
To give any chat to McGuire.

Well, the row wasn't long, but 'twas hot an' 'twas strong,
An' the noise it grew higher an' higher,
Then it stopt! — an' we said, "oh begorra, he's dead!
He's been kilt out an' out be McGuire!!"
Then out like a thrush from a hawthorn bush
Came something in tattered attire,
And after it fled the man we thought dead—
The man who maltreated McGuire.

'Twas Macgilligan's son, the victory won,
An' we crowded around to admire
The bowld-hearted boy who was first to destroy
The Yoke of the Tyrant McGuire.
An' altho' it's not true, we all said that we knew
From the first he was only a liar,
An' we'd all had a mind to attack — from behind,
That cowardly scoundrel — McGuire.

EAST CORK JUNIOR A. FOOTBALL SEMI-FINAL

Overcoming the challenge of Erins Own at Watergrasshill last Wednesday evening St. Catherines footballers earned to right to contest the Divisional Final at 7 p.m. in Cobh this Friday evening against sterling opponents Castlemartyr. The pitch at Watergrasshill was well laid out but a strong prevailing wind didn't lend itself too well to the big ball game. Yet both sides adjusted themselves well to the conditions, and Catherines, availing of gale advantage took their scores admirably, dominating this opening half, chalked up 2-5 to 0-1 to leave the tally in that position at the interval. Tentatively Catherines returned for the resumption, expecting an onslaught from Erins Own. And it did come. For almost 15 minutes without any respite they struck hard at the Catherines goal, but goalie and backs were sturdy and constant in repulsing every effort. The final score St. Catherines 2-6, Erins Own 0-6. Willie Cody, Middleton Club, refereed.

Now the final on Friday evening at Cobh is looming in sight. It is a big step forward, our first time contesting the junior A. Football

Final. It's not our first time meeting Castlemartyr. Since 1937 we have known them playing them in Ballynoe in April of that year in a friendly match and afterwards 4 times in the Inch Hurling Tournament. That was all hurling of course and football was hardly mentioned then but at present both sides have become very proficient in football. Castlemartyr have won divisional honours a few times, almost annexing the County title recently which must give them great confidence and experience so we are approaching the final in the hope of giving a good display of the code.

DYMPNA BARRY MINOR HURLING COMMEMORATIVE TOURNAMENT.

St. Catherines and Knockanore minor hurling teams contested the above hurling tournament at Knockanore last Friday evening. This is the second year of its existence and Catherines again repeated their success of last year with a win after a good exhibition of the code. John G. Barry, St. Catherines, presented the Cup to Paul Higgins, Captain, and trophies to the rest of the team: - M. O'Keeffe, James Fitzgerald, Pat Fitzgerald, Liam Sheehan, Pat Sheehan, Maurice Spillane, Richard Cotter, Paddy Leary, Johnny Sheehan, Mark Lane, Paul Higgins, Michael Hegarty, David O'Connell, Brian Cotter, Jim Lane. Subs: Aidan Hickey, Des Lucey, Pat Morrison. P.J. Kelly refereed. In the under-16 football league at Caherlag last Sunday Erins Own beat St. Catherines after a fine game of football.

EAST CORK FINAL AT DUNGOURNEY

The Junior A. Hurling Final at Dungourney last Sunday brought two Southern teams into contention. Fr. O' Neills and Aghada. In very warm conditions the pitch looked resplendent, and when the Castlelyons Pipe Band in their kilts entered the field the skirl of these pipes playing Irish airs generated a great atmosphere amongst the exceptionally large attendance for an East Cork final. Notable too was the attractive programme produced by the East Cork Juvenile Board and sponsored by the Imokilly people and some splendid and informative and suggestive contributions from well known members of the G.A.A. fraternity makes it an excellent keepsake for anyone. Parking and all stewarding arrangements were of the highest order and while Aghada took the laurels it could be said that Fr. O' Neills hadn't all the luck.

BALLYSGAGGART NOTES

GAA NOTES WESTERN

SEMI-FINAL V RING

On this Saturday evening in Cappoquin at 6.45 our Junior hurlers take on Ring in the Divisional Semi-Final. Last year at the same stage in the Championship Ring ran out the easiest of winners on a 4 - 11 to 1 - 5 scoreline. Last year's Western Champions and unbeaten this year, Ring must start warm favourites. We have improved with every outing but it will however take a display far above anything we have produced so far to overcome Ring on Saturday evening. We are capable of springing a surprise however and 100% effort from each player should see us closer than the 15 points which separated the sides last year.

NON-STOP DRAW

Due to circumstances beyond our control the first draw in the Club's ten weeks Non-Stop Draw was postponed on Wednesday night last. The draw will now take place on this Wednesday night 28th August. List of winners will be published in next weeks notes. Our thanks to our promoters and all those who became members of the draw.

CARD DRIVE RESULTS

1, John and Joan Bennett; 2, Mary Willoughby and Esther Walsh; 3, Anne Neville, Mary O' Brien, Kathleen O' Gorman, William Murphy. Best of Last 5, Joe O' Shea, Jimmy Hornibrooke. Lucky Tables: Sheila and Margaret Lonergan, Paddy and Mary Power. Raffle: Fr. Ger Stapleton, Paddy Power, Kathleen O' Gorman, Jimmy Hornibrooke.

SYMPATHY

We extend our sympathy to Sheila Bennett on the death last week of her uncle Mr. Jimmy Moloney Coolisheal, Ballyduff.

MINORS RETAIN TITLE

Well done to Lismore/Ballysgaggart minor hurlers who retained their Western title with a six point winning margin after an excellent decider against St. Patrick's in Cappoquin on Friday evening last.

Facelift For Dungarvan's Elegant Town Park and Bandstand

Dungarvan's Town Park located at the Look-Out on the seafront commands a panoramic view of Dungarvan Harbour with the Drum Hills stretching along the Ring peninsula to Helvick Head on one side and the low-lying market-gardening area of Ballinacourty stretching out to the Lighthouse on the other.

As indicated in the carved stone set in the archway over the main entrance, the Park was the gift of the Gibbons family to the people of Dungarvan. The inscription states: "These recreation grounds were acquired and the adjoining bathing place extended and improved with portion of the large sum of money generously bequeathed for the benefit of his fellow townspeople by the late William Gibbons 1894."

The Park was laid out in that year in typical Victorian style and some six years later in 1900 further improvements were carried out and the bandstand with its attractive wrought iron railing, which has been an outstanding landmark ever since, was added. The recitals provided there by the local Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band have been a feature which have provided wonderful entertainment for not only the townspeople but for the big numbers of visitors known as "gay-bricks" for whom Dungarvan was a summer Mecca in the early years of the century.

In latter years, however, the Park and particularly the Bandstand had become rather neglected but recently the Urban Council in the general drive by County Manager Dan Hurley to beautify the town, had a survey of the Park carried out by the Council's Consultants, Niall Hyde & Associates.

In their report the Consultants recommended that no change be made to the Park, such as the laying out of flower beds or the planting of additional trees or shrubs. As it stood, the Park was an elegant, typical park of the Victorian era and the report recommended that this image should be retained.

In adopting the report the Urban Council agreed that the Bandstand be repaired and painted and this week with the job just completed the Bandstand now stands resplendent in its colour scheme of fresh red and black paint.

MONUMENT CLEANED ALSO

The entrance archway has also been cleaned and the gateway painted while the monument in the park has also received a cleaning and its inscription, as follows, is now clearly legible: "In memory of Edmond Power who was hanged in Dungarvan for his love of country in 1798. Also in memory of the Heroes of '98 who fought and shed their blood for Ireland. May God bless the cause for which they fought."

Without doubt this elegant Town Park is an architectural gem set in ideal surroundings and of which all Dungarvan people can now well feel proud.

BONMAHON NOTES

DEBS NIGHT

Last Thursday night August 22 was a great night for some of Bonmahon's young people when they attended the St. Declan's Community College Debs at the Park Hotel, Dungarvan.

NEW ARRIVAL

Congratulations to Mrs. Anne and Mr. Jim Cullinane, Bonmahon on the birth of their new baby son at the Cork Maternity Hospital recently. A little brother for Collette and the twins Kevin and Cormac.

REMINDER

Next Monday September 2 both Knockmahon and Seafield National Schools will be reopening. Also for the older age group St. Declan's Community College will also be reopening on the 2nd and 3rd of September.

ST. MARY'S

Last Saturday we welcomed the Wicklow U.14 Hurling Team who were taking part in the Tony Forristal Tournament. The boys and mentors were guests for Saturday night of a number of local householders and the Club would sincerely like to thank them for looking after the visitors.

On Sunday last we played Ballyduff in the replay of the Minor Hurling Championship game. This match was again played in Fenor and after a good first half which ended all square we made a number of mistakes which Ballyduff capitalised on and went on to win easily. We expect the U.12 Football Competition to commence next Saturday 31st and on next Wednesday 4th September we travel to play the Sacred Heart Team in the U.16 Football.

Congratulations to Mark Kiely, Declan Power, Anton Lennon, Warren Power and Mervyn Guiry on their inclusion on the East Waterford U.14 Panel to play the West for the John O' Regan Perpetual Trophy next Saturday 31st August in Kill.

WATERFORD SHOW WINNERS

Congratulations to Harry Gray, Ballinahila, Bonmahon on securing 3rd place in the 3-year-old non-thoroughbred fillies class.

Also to Ann Dunphy, Ballylaneen whose horse got 3rd place in the 2-year-old Colt/Gelding non-thoroughbred class.

Great credit to the show organizers on another very successful event.

GAA NEWS

On Friday last we played our last hurling Championship game for the year. It was an enjoyable game with Fenor coming out easy winners. We were short a number of our regulars so we had to introduce some young players, one of whom Brian Cummins, playing corner forward, scored a well taken goal with his father Eugene giving a good account of himself in defence.

The attendance for work on the new pitch is very disappointing and we appeal for more volunteers to make themselves available. Next week we hope to set out the new entrance and remove the old fence and with the short evenings a lot of help is required.

We wish John Coffey our Treasurer, his wife Kitty, and family an enjoyable holiday in England.

GOOD WEATHER

The recent good weather has been a boost both to holiday-makers and farmers and hopefully it continues for a while yet as there is still a lot of hay and corn to be saved in the area.

LIFEGUARD NEWS

It was very reassuring to see some of the old hands being put through their paces last Saturday and we hope that they did well in the examination!

We also welcome back Nicky Power from his Summer duties in the US.

Get Those Bulbs In Now For The Spring

SPRING bulbs and new shrubs are a priority in what can be a busy month for planting in the garden.

Crocuses and snowdrops, as the earliest flowering bulbs, should head the job list with daffodils and narcissi following by the end of the month.

If you have lots of bulbs to put in then a bulb planting tool is a good investment. It will neatly draw out a tube of soil and the bulb can be dropped into the hole and the plug returned.

Foliage

It is particularly useful when planting bulbs into lawns to bring freshness to the grass in spring - the foliage has usually shrivelled by the time the lawn becomes vigorous and can be simply mown away.

You should also be looking for spring bedding plants in the shops and garden centres, especially wallflowers - the delicate scent belies their ability to weather the winter.

Also consider pansies, forget-me-nots, double daisies and some hardy annuals such as alyssum, calendula and nigella.

Shrubs and trees can be expensive if you are buying commercially-grown varieties, so here are some tips on buying:

- Avoid plants with old and faded labels or lots of weeds in the container. It is a sign of being in stock too long and neglected.

- Choose a sturdy and balanced plant with strong branches. A compact and stout specimen is often a better bet than a bigger and pricier one, because then it will grow its new home better than a more mature plant.

- Watch for yellowing, sagging or damaged leaves. They are signs of pests and neglect.

- Check that roots are well anchored, by carefully lifting the plant from the base of the stem. The other extreme is being pot bound with roots pushing out from the base of the container.

Planted

Container grown trees and shrubs can be planted at any time of year but avoid dry spells and, while evergreens are well suited to planting now, others may be better planted next month.

Water the plant beforehand and then dig a hole to take the size of the container, allowing the soil ball to sit no more than an inch below ground level.

Break up the bottom of the hole to allow the roots easy purchase and then fork in moist peat and compost.

Polythene bag pots should have their bases cut away first before the plant goes into the hole and the sides can be slit away.

Fill around the soil ball with a mix of two parts soil/one part moist peat with garden compost/planting compost. Firm down and cover with mulch to keep weeds from establishing in the broken soil.

SAN GIOVANNI PILGRIMAGE

A group from the South Tipperary / West Waterford area will depart on Sunday, October 6 for an eight day pilgrimage to San Giovanni in the south-east of Italy.

The group will fly from Dublin to Bari which is quite near San Giovanni and will be based for the duration of the pilgrimage in the town made famous by Padre Pio (1887 - 1968). Included in the pilgrimage is a full day tour to Pietrelcina, Padre Pio's home town, as well as a half-day tour to Monte St. Angelo, where the apparition of the archangel St. Michael took place, and a further half-day tour to Lanciano, where the renowned Eucharistic miracle took place in the eighth century.

While in San Giovanni, the group will participate in a full spiritual programme and in all the devotional exercises associated with this increasingly popular place of pilgrimage.

The cost of the pilgrimage is £475 per person, which includes government tax and insurance as well as the tours described above and is on a full board basis in one of San Giovanni's hotels (Hotel Fini). The only extra cost will be in respect of the hire of a coach to carry the group to and from Dublin Airport and, naturally, the fare per person will depend on the number of persons travelling.

A copy of the pilgrimage itinerary is available from the group leader, Mr. Denis Holland, 8 Western Park, Irishtown, Clonmel, Co. Tipperary (phone 052 - 23231) from whom any further details may be sought and with whom bookings may be made.

Give yourself a fish feast

THIS recipe can be made with any white fish fillets - cod or haddock, or for those feeling more adventurous, ling, pollack, coley, whiting and huss. If unsure, your local fishmonger will be happy to make a suggestion.

As well as the wide choice fresh fish available at the local fishmonger, supermarket or market stall, don't forget the frozen food cabinets. If choosing frozen fish, the packaging should be intact and the fish frozen hard.

FISH FEAST

- 1-1½ lb (450-675g) white fish fillets, skinned, fresh or defrosted
- ½ oz (15g) butter or margarine
- 1 clove garlic, crushed
- 3 medium sized leeks, sliced
- 1-2 tablespoons (15-30ml) lemon juice
- salt and pepper
- 1 bunch watercress, rinsed
- 1 tablespoon (15ml) reduced sugar marmalade pan, add the garlic and leeks and cook for a few minutes.

Divide the fish fillets into four portions and place on top of the leeks.

Add the lemon juice and seasoning, cover and simmer for 8-10 minutes or until the fish whitens.

Meanwhile place washed watercress on a serving dish.

Arrange cooked fillets on top of watercress, cover to keep warm.

Add marmalade to pan, increase heat and boil rapidly until marmalade has melted and juices thickened slightly.

Pour the leek and marmalade sauce over the fish and serve with potatoes.

Serves 4.

West Waterford Notes

BABY BOY

Warmest congratulations to Stephanie and Eddie O'Halloran, Abbeyside, (formerly of Ferrypoint, Kinsalebeg) on the birth of a baby boy recently.

DEATH OF JIM FITZGERALD

Jim Fitzgerald, Summerhill, Kinsalebeg, recently passed peacefully to his eternal reward after an illness which he bore with Christian fortitude. Jim had a deep Christian faith and he was very close to nature. He spent much of his life working the land and he had a great knowledge of farming. He also had a great interest in folklore and local happenings and he always enjoyed a game of cards.

First and foremost Jim was a family man. He was a loving husband and the death of his wife Catherine (nee Hubbert) almost ten years ago left a great emptiness in his life. He always spoke fondly of her when visitors called to his home, where one always received a warm welcome from him.

In the final years of his life, Jim was lovingly cared for by his daughter, Margaret and her husband Mossie O'Keeffe. May they be rewarded for their kindness to him.

His remains were taken from his home to Ardmore where the funeral cortege was met at the church by Rev. Fr. Billy Meehan, C.C., Clashmore and Very Rev. Fr. O'Connor, P.P., Ardmore. Following Requiem Mass burial took place in the adjoining cemetery, Ardmore.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to his daughter Margaret, sons John, Tom and Jim, son-in-law Mossie O'Keeffe, daughters-in-law Alice and Mary, grandchildren Jimmy, Catherine, Carmel and Thomas, brother, sister, family and friends.

Rev. Fr. Meehan, C.C., celebrated the Requiem Mass and recited the prayers at the graveside.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Paddy McCarthy, Rath, Kinsalebeg, who was injured in an accident was hospitalised for a few days but we are glad to report he is now home and we wish him a speedy recovery.

VISITING CLASHMORE

Visiting lovely Clashmore recently was Paddy and Mary Long from Herbertstown, Limerick. Both are regular visitors to Clashmore and Paddy always provides excellent entertainment during their visits to the local pubs and they are always welcome.

WATERFORD SHOW

What a beautiful day was the main subject being discussed by the huge crowd at Waterford Show on Sunday, August 18. The atmosphere was electric with something for everyone. 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th prizes were awarded to competitors from West Waterford. This was a fantastic achievement considering the large entry in each class.

EXAMS

The Leaving Cert results were released over a week ago and the students in this area were very pleased with their achievements. Some local students received exceptional results. We extend congratulations to all and wish them every success in the future.

MASS

On Sunday morning, August 18, our curate Rev. Fr. Billy Meehan, C.C., Clashmore, celebrated Mass on R.T.E. 1 television. He was accompanied by the Clashmore Choir under musical director Mary Dee. The choir consists of all ordinary members of the community yet they have gained fame throughout the region. This is a wonderful achievement and we compliment them on their success.

As always Fr. Meehan's celebration of the Mass was very prayerful and inspirational. He has a magnetic way of bringing the Word of God to young and old alike.

ENGAGED

Congratulations to Miss Christine Dee daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tossie Dee, Shanakill, Aglish, on the occasion of her engagement to Mr. Liam Dalton, Ballydasoon, Youghal. Both Christine and Liam are musically talented and are well-known throughout West Waterford. We wish them both every happiness.

21ST BIRTHDAY

Congratulations to Mike O' Sullivan, Kinsalebeg who celebrated his 21st birthday on Saturday night last with a party at the Walter Raleigh Hotel, Youghal in the presence of family and friends.

DEATH OF KATHLEEN FITZGERALD

Sadly we record the unexpected death of Kathleen Fitzgerald at the Bons Secours Hospital Cork, on Wednesday morning August 21st.

A quiet, reserved, unassuming lady, Kathleen devoted her life to the care and up-bringing of her family and she loved a game of cards. She enjoyed good health with the exception of an illness sometime ago. She was predeceased by her husband Jamie in 1984 who was a very popular member of the farming community and his death left a great emptiness in her life.

On Thursday evening her remains were taken to Clashmore Church from Egan's Funeral Home in Youghal.

On Friday morning following Requiem Mass, burial took place in the adjoining cemetery.

Our deepest sympathy to Kathleen's sons J.J. and Richie, daughters-in-law, Siobhan and Patricia, her grandchildren, family and friends.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

The Met Office predicted on Monday that we are to have an Indian Summer which started with a sizzling day on Monday and is set to last until the end of the week.

The warm sunshine has sent throngs of lucky people on to all the beaches in the locality and many are having their first swims of the summer! The Met Office spokesman said "we may get an Indian summer and we will have pleasant beach weather up to the week-end." So dig out your bathing gear and check the tide times on page 3 of this issue of the "Leader" — but take care and enjoy yourselves for the next few days.

BALLYDUFF NOTES

SOCCER CLUB collected during the coming weeks.

The annual general meeting of the local soccer club was held in St. Michael's Hall last Saturday night and was well attended. The question on many lips was whether or not Ballyduff would field in this years Red House league having been relegated to Division 2 last year. Indeed it appears that many anticipated the demise of soccer in Ballyduff judging by the many approaches made to players to don new colours this season. All fears may now be dispelled as Ballyduff will be aiming for a quick return to the top flight this year. Officers for the coming year are — Chairman: John Flynn, Vice-do., Vincent Sheehan, Secretary - Billy Casey, Treasurer - Brendan Cotter, Manager - Mike Quirke, Selector - Gerry Scanlon. # Britain's Shrinking Mountains

BRITAIN'S highest mountain is going thin on top. And the 4,406ft Ben Nevis in Scotland is not alone. Many similar-sized peaks are receding each year.

It is not the fault of some strange geological quirk. More and more people are beating any number of paths to the highest mountains.

The peak of Ben Nevis is an estimated six to seven inches lower than ten years ago. The tens of thousands of visitors who climb to the summit each year are literally making the mountain lose its top.

Things are even worse on 3,560ft high Snowdon.

Wales' highest mountain takes a real beating from the hoards of day trippers. The mountain railway from Llanberis means more visitors reach the top than on any other peak in the British Isles.

Our hills are becoming threadbare in other spots, too. Armies of climbers aiming to tackle the mountainsides have worn the paths into deep grooves.

In some places, as much as 10ft has been worn away, exposing 30-ton boulders that are ready to roll downhill and crash into the villages below.

In Great Langdale, Cumbria, it took a task force of National Trust volunteers months to shovel and clobber the Raven Crag hillside back into place. Staircases were built up steep scree.

Climbers are now routed up the special stone-paved path and the pub and farm below are safe from dangerous rock falls.

Elsewhere, paths to our mountain tops are being eroded as deep as trenches. Girl Guides walking up the Pyg track on Snowdon from Pen y Pass had a lucky escape when the sides of the path caved in on top of them during a rainstorm.

They were buried for a few moments, but fortunately the covering of sodden earth and mud was not thick enough to smother them. The struggled out to safety.

Conversation teams are constantly topping-up the erosion caused by millions of footprints, from Dartmoor in Devon to Dingwell in the Highlands.

Even famous skylines like the Crib Goch in Snowdonia and Striding Edge in Cumbria need regular facelifts.

In holiday times, queues of people form along these very narrow but popular crests. Inevitably, boulders come away and plunge down the mountainside, to leave yet another gap.

Planting trees is a good way of welding slopes together. Indigenous types like holly, oak, rowan and juniper are favourites.

On sections of the 250-mile Pennine Way, the route is so well trampled it can be seen for miles.

Where it crosses the Peak

District hills in Derbyshire, plastic matting has been laid over acres of moorland trampled down into the peat.

One National Parks volunteer warden told us: "Our hills have been eroded for centuries by the wind, rain, ice, snow, frost and nibbling of sheep."

"Now heavy boots are smashing through the tender skin of the landscape. Pounded earth goes hard and sterile as cement. Where the surface is lacerated, rain deepens the grooves with streams."

Another reason mountain tips are sinking is because people take the stones home as souvenirs.

When Balmoral Castle became a royal residence in Queen Victoria's time, local people wanted to make the district famous in another way.

They believed a massive cairn would raise the height of Ben Macduh kin the Cairngorms to beat that of Ben Nevis.

The cairn was not completed. Today, the half-finished cairn is still huge.

A walker, lost in mist, walked smack into it and knocked himself unconscious.

The tops of two of Britain's most distinctive peaks are likely to stay put for some time. One is Napes Needle on Great Gable in Cumbria. A mighty rock fang, it has yet to be climber with a rope.

The summit tip is so loose that three climbers sitting astride its top could move it.

Dungarvan Youth Club Notes

MUCKROSS
Next Friday evening we will be heading for Killarney for the second time this summer. The numbers will not be as high as in June when 58 members went. If it is half as enjoyable this time it will be a weekend to remember. Fitzy I'm sure has a few surprises for everyone.

LEAVING CERT. RESULTS
Congratulations to all our members who recently received their results. No one was disappointed thank God.

AMBROSE O'CONNELL
This week is a very sad week for everyone involved in the Youth Club because one of our most popular members, Ambrose O'Connell is leaving to take up a position in London. Ambrose, as everyone knows, is one of the most hard working members in the Club and on behalf of everyone in D.Y.C. we wish him well and look forward to seeing Ambrose again in the near future.

The club will not be the same without him. Maybe we might see him on "Top of the Pops".

FREDS NO ALCOHOL NITE CLUB
Another large crowd at Freds last Friday night and thanks to the success we will be hoping to purchase new pool tables soon.

The Arthritis Association highlights the crippling disease and its fund-raising drive. Lenane's of Lauragh make and distribute boats which are acknowledged as the finest in the world, and Dungarvan Crystal Social and Leisure Club is once again open for the winter months for weight conscious people.

The recent Bill Organ Memorial Trophy shook the cobweb's off some dusty old boots, while Tony and Sean, once again, have a topical comment or two.

Mr. William (Bill) Harris

It is with feelings of profound regret we record the passing of Mr. Bill Harris, 14, Springfield, Dungarvan which sad event occurred at his residence on Monday, August 19, following a short duration of illness.

Bill who was in his mid-seventies, was a native Londoner and resided with his wife Anna (nee Crowley) in Cornwall before returning to Dungarvan in 1978 when he came to reside at Springfield. He was a carpenter by trade and a master craftsman. He served overseas in the 2nd World War and was a much travelled and highly interesting conversationalist. Bill was a colossus who touched so many lives and enriched them with his outstanding virtues, traits and characteristics and he won the hearts of young and old by his sterling character.

He was a model neighbour and sincere friend, ever ready to help and advise others. He was an avid follower of sports with a keen interest in boxing and cricket. His passing leaves a void in the community that will not easily be filled. Bill possessed a unique quality in the fact that he enriched the lives of those he came in contact with and his jovial sense of humour will be forever missed. May he rest in peace.

His remains were removed from the Drohan Funeral Home on Wednesday to St. Mary's Church of Ireland and following a short service interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. The Rev. Weakes officiated at the graveside.

Services At Dungarvan Post Office

Under date August 21, Mr. Austin Deasy TD, has received the following letter from Mr. John Hynes, Chief Executive of An Post:

Dear Deputy,
Thank you for your letter of 7 August 1991 regarding services at Dungarvan Post Office. You refer to two specific areas affecting customer satisfaction and comfort.

With regard to office size we are aware that at certain times of the week, notably between 10 a.m. and 11.30 a.m. on Fridays, appreciable numbers of customers tend to arrive for payment of allowances. With this in mind we have examined the retail area and are in the process of drawing up plans with a view to maximising existing space.

You will appreciate that we are making an ongoing and determined effort to upgrade our building stock nationwide. The time scale for the carrying out of any remedial works at Dungarvan will, therefore, depend on the availability of funds governed by possible more pressing needs elsewhere.

You also refer to understaffing. As part of our commitment to customer care we carry out a daily monitoring of queuing times at Company Offices. An examination of the Dungarvan results indicates that in the period 29 April 1991, when the monitoring system was introduced, to 20 July 1991 queuing times exceeded 5 minutes on two occasions only. Generally the waiting time is less than 3 minutes.

Counter staffing always takes priority when absences occur. Please be assured that absent counter staff are always replaced.

I trust that you will find the foregoing to your satisfaction and thank you for your interest.

Dungarvan Flower and Garden Club Notes

The hard work of the committee was rewarded last Wednesday evening when hundreds of people from far and near attended the Floral Demonstration in the Park Hotel.

The Reverend MacMillan travelled from Dunmurray, Co. Antrim to celebrate our 21st anniversary with us. He was a perfect guest; easy to please, charming, gentle, talented and delightfully entertaining.

People of flower club circles were familiar with the Reverend MacMillan's talent but I think the people who just came to support us were amazed at the night's entertainment. It appeared so easy for him to stand there under the lights and create the most wonderful arrangements. While he worked, he recited some lovely poetry by Yeats and Wilde and also entertained us with funny stories. We were sorry to see the evening draw to a close.

In proposing a vote of thanks to the Reverend MacMillan, Mrs. Margaret Morrissey said that words seemed totally inadequate to describe the talents of this man. She then made a presentation to our guest on behalf of the club. Mrs. Maureen Casey seconded the vote of thanks.

Our President, Mrs. Mary Flavin thanked our very generous sponsors: Allied Irish Banks, Mr. John Doyle, The Arcade, Sterling Drug and Waterford Foods. She also thanked the very kind people who provided prizes for the raffle — Careyswood Garden Centre, Casey's Florists,

M. J. Curran, John Lynch and David Power. A word of thanks to all the people who attended and those who helped in any way to make the night such a success. As a result of all the financial support we were in a position to think of people less fortunate than ourselves. Mrs. Flavin presented a cheque for £1,000 to Mrs. Bunda Cusack on behalf of the Guide Dogs for the Blind. A cheque for £200 was presented to the Reverend MacMillan for his charity — epilepsy.

The committee and members extend sincere sympathy to our treasurer Mrs. Kay O'Flynn on the recent death of her father. — PRO.

Stradbally G.A.A. Notes

SENIORS V. ST. SAVIOURS

On this Thursday evening, August 29, our senior footballers play St. Saviours in the championship in Kilmacthomas at 7 p.m. There is no more important game than this one because a win here will put us into the semi-final, whereas defeat would set us back. This is a game in which I'm sure the players will rise to the occasion and collect those two vital points.

SUMMER CAMP

It was great to see some of our younger players attend the Summer Camp recently in the Friary College under the watchful eye of County Coach Peter Power. Those who attended were Barry Ahearne, John Halpin, Kieran Foley, Robbie Ahearne, Denis Doyle, Maurice Casey, Robert Fennell, Patrick Doyle. Certainly this will stand to them in the future.

STILL UNBEATEN

Our senior footballers are still unbeaten in the championship after their 0-10 to 0-7 win over Ballinacourty. It may not have been the greatest of games and the players would be the first to admit same, but a win is the most important thing (four out of four so far) and that keeps the show going. Well done to all concerned.

UNDER-16 FOOTBALL V. NAOMH BRID

On Monday evening next, September 2, our under-16 footballers play Naomh Brid in Modeligo at 7 p.m. This will be a hard game to win, but it would be very important to collect the points.

CLUB DRAW

The club membership draw was won by Mrs. Ann Heffernan, Stradbally. The draw is held once a month.

PATTERN FAST APPROACHING

The Pattern is fast approaching, starting on Friday, September 13 to Monday, September 16. The items include "Stradbally Rose," Fancy Dress, Dog Show, "Sports For All" with a gala Senior Citizens Party on Monday night, September 16. Full details next week.

SENIORS V. KILMAC'

Our next senior game v. Kilmac' takes place on Sunday, September 8 in Leamybrien.

Once again our under-age team did us proud. In the All-Ireland finals we brought home six of the fifteen medals, Paul Geary taking 1st and Thomas Hogan 2nd and Brian Moore 9th in the under-11s. In the under-13s Vincent Lombard was 6th and Paul Moore 11th. In the under-14s Bryan Geary was 2nd and Shane Motherway 12th. All these boys points were added together to give us the overall team prize, beating Cork C.C. by some forty points.

Medals were presented to the first three on the team — Paul Geary (under-11), Vincent Lombard (under-13) and Bryan Geary (under-14).

Also in Mosney at the weekend the underage who travelled to France for the International under age "Tour de France" were presented with their "Transdauphinoise '91" medals. In the overall event they finished second team, taking the polka dot jersey — Under 11s Brian Moore, Thomas Hogan and Paul Geary and under-13 Paul Moore.

The season is drawing to a close and the boys are all off to new schools. We wish Vincent who is going to Cappoquin, Shane who is going to Fermoy and Paul who is going to Middleton, every success.

Marine Bar last Wednesday night were, on 9 games, H. O'Grady and S. Cliffe, M. Crotty and P. J. Curran. The jackpot is £190 on 13 games.

An Gaeltacht U-21 hurlers travelled to Walsh Park, Waterford, last Sunday to play Portlaw in the County Final. This game was played in brilliant sunshine with a close first half and both teams playing good hurling. Portlaw took an early lead with some good points. We got back in the game before half-time with 2 good goals. We had good hopes for the second half and the wind to our backs. We started strongly with 2 points but Portlaw began hurling better and started to pull away. We tried hard but could not get the scores and Portlaw went on to win.

The final score was Portlaw 2-15, Gaeltacht 2-8.

This is a busy week for the club. This Wednesday An Gaeltacht play St. Oliver's in the minor football championship in Abbeyside at 7.00 p.m. and on Monday night An Gaeltacht play Ardmore in the U-16 football. This game goes on at 7.00 p.m. Players are asked to be in Ardmore at 6.45.

Next Saturday evening we play Modeligo in Dungarvan in the junior football championship. This game goes on at 7.00 p.m. sharp and all players are asked to be in Dungarvan at 6.30. This is a game we will have to win to stay in the championship.

The death took place last Sunday morning of Bridget French after a short illness. Deepest sympathy is extended to her sons and daughters, grandchildren, relatives and friends. Go nDeana Dia Trocaire uirthi. Miceal Toibin — P.R.O.

Calm seas, sunshine and a gentle breeze was the setting for the Munster Open Boat last Saturday. Unfortunately the fish seemed to be on Holiday too with a total of only 150 being caught. ## Ballinroad A.F.C. Notes

JOHN FRAHER CUP SEMI-FINALS

Ballinroad 4, Teachers 2

The Teachers great run finally came to an end on Tuesday evening last when they were defeated by the home side. Short the services of some key players from the side that were victorious in the earlier rounds, they were disorganised at the start and they soon paid the penalty. Within ten minutes the homesters went three goals up through Ian Kiely, Maurice Foley and Pat Flynn and this knocked the competitiveness out of the match.

To their credit, the Teachers battled on and were rewarded when Gerry Connors scored a fine goal for them before the break.

The second half had only just begun when Ballinroad struck again through Les Delahunty after the visiting keeper made a blunder. For the rest of the half the Teachers enjoyed an equal amount of possession and they scored their second goal towards the end of the match.

Ballinroad's new Player Manager Ber Burke will know from this game that a big improvement has to be shown in many positions to have any chance of success in the final.

The Ballinroad lineout was as follows: J. Reynolds, D. Murray, E. Grady, S. Power, R. Burke, I. Kiely, M. Foley, B. Burke, V. Tobin, L. Delahunty, P. Flynn, Res., P. Tobin, M. Condon, L. Boland.

Postponed — Due to unforeseen circumstances, the second semi-final, Abbeyside v. Dungarvan, has been deferred to Wednesday, August 28 at 6.30 p.m. The final has now been re-fixed for Monday, September 2 at 6.30 p.m.

COMING FIXTURES

Saturday, August 31 — under-14 schoolboys league: Ballinroad versus Bolton, 11.45 at Ballinroad; under-16 schoolboys league: Ballinroad versus St. Saviours, 2.30 p.m. at Ballinroad.

SYMPATHY

The club would like to express their deepest sympathy to the Ryan family, Ballinacourty on their recent bereavement. The family are great supporters of the club both on and off the field.

Dungarvan Crystal F.C. News

CRUSADERS 2

DUNGARVAN CRYSTAL 2.

Last Sunday we started our League Campaign with a visit to Crusaders. On paper this was going to be a tough game, but a new look crystal team under the management of Sean Wade gave a good account of themselves and could have won this game, but this time we had to be content with a point.

The Crystal goals were scored by Paddy "Wacky" Ferncombe, and Paul "Monster" McCarthy. The Crusaders goals incidentally were scored by John Moloney, formerly of Abbeyside.

Training has now commenced on Tues. and Thurs. nights at 7.30. New members are always welcome.

Team: T. O'Grady, P. Ferncombe, P. Dunford, T. Sheehan, V. O' Donnell, P. Keane, W. Halpin, M. Whelan, P. Healy, P. Sheehan, C. White. Subs: P. McCarthy, G. O' Donnell.

CAMOGIE NEWS

Ardkeen Supreme

ARDKEEN 1-10 BUTLERSTOWN 0-2

This junior county final played at Ballybeg on Sunday August 18, in splendid conditions went according to plan, as it were, for when Ardkeen settled down and opened up the game there was never any doubt about the result. Full credit to Butlerstown, though fielding mainly a very young team they were, if anything, the superior outfit in the first twenty minutes, and will bemoan the two golden chances they let slip for goals in this period.

As the game progressed the superior strength and experience of the city girls was clearly in evidence. The camogie know-how and big match experience of such as Brid Haynes, Mary Quinn, Geraldine Barry, Mary Crowley and Bernie Prendergast was too much for the Butlerstown girls in that second half. Anne Murray, Irene Regan, Susie Grant, Siobhan Kelly and Eimir O Keeffe tried hard for Butlerstown.

Mrs. Marie Pollard presented the Cup amidst great excitement.

PERSONALITY

With all the hard work now done, all that is left at this stage is the counting. Who will be personality for 1991? You can find out first-hand by attending the Gala Night this Friday at Tramore G.A.A. Centre where the Barry Brothers will supply the music.

MUNSTER CHAMPIONSHIPS

Waterford v Cork — The venue for this game is not yet known except to say it's in Waterford at 7.30 p.m. Saturday evening.

Rumour has it the venue decided upon early this week will be either Tramore or Butlerstown. The girls, John Collins and County selectors deserve your support.

Dungarvan G.A.A. Notes

FOOTBALLERS WIN AGAIN

Our senior Footballers scored an easy victory over Faha at Stradbally on Saturday evening last and so remain unbeaten in this years championship. Feature of the game was the many long range points scored by our forwards.

On this Thursday evening, again at the Cove venue, we play Tramore and this is a game we must approach in a serious manner. Last weekend Tramore gave Kilrossanty a very hard game before going down by a narrow margin in the end. So — be careful lads.

CONGRATS GIRLS

Congratulations to the Waterford Ladies on their fine win last Sunday in the All-Ireland Semi-Final at Fraher Field. This was our first time seeing the girls in action and we were all very impressed indeed. They now play Laois in the Final and we wish them well.

JAMIE'S BIG DAY

On Sunday next one of our brightest young stars will line out at Croke Park. Yes — Jamie Burke, son of Mick and Mary Burke, will take part in the I.N.T.O. Hurling Skills Series which will be held during the interval of the Senior Final. We wish Jamie and his Coach, Mr. Pat Curran N.T., the best of luck.

U.12 Hurlers Draw — On Monday evening last we played old rivals, Abbeyside, and following a very exciting game the sides ended level. In a game in which both defences were on top Abbeyside were first to score with a goal. We levelled just before the break and went into a 2 goal lead mid-way through the second half. Abbeyside fought to level but a point from an acute angle gave us the lead once again. However, the Village lads levelled on the stroke of full-time with a point from a free.

MEETING

A meeting of the Club committee takes place tonight (Wed.) in Lawlors Hotel at 8.30 p.m. All Committee are requested to attend.

SARGENT CUP

We play De La Salle in this competition on Tuesday evening next at Fraher Field. Time - 7.00 p.m.

The World Athletic Championships 1991

The world's top athletes are currently gathered in the Japanese capital Tokyo for the World Championships. Ireland are hoping for the same success that they had in last month's World Student Games, where Sonia O'Sullivan struck gold. But Sonya pulled out last week, along with Marcus O'Sullivan, Terry McHugh and Villierstown's John Tracy, all four Irish medal hopes. The games opened early on Saturday morning last, Irish time.

DAY 1 — SATURDAY, AUGUST 24

The opening day belonged to the USSR, China and the USA's Carl Lewis's early moment of glory came in the men's 100m. heats where he shattered the world record, but because of a helping breeze at his back the new time of 9.80 seconds does not count. By winning the women's shot putt, Zhihong Hwang became the first Chinese athlete to win a world games gold medal. But the USSR dominated the medal events by winning 5 out of a possible 9 medals. In the 3000m. Ireland's Catriona McKiernan failed by fractions to make it to the final. A great start to a great games.

DAY 2 — SUNDAY, AUGUST 25

In the women's marathon, reigning champion, Rosa Mota dropped out with 9 miles to go. Eventually, Poland's Wanda Panfil pipped Japan's Yamashita in a race to the line. But the story of the day was the greatest 100m. race ever, Carl Lewis, being involved in a head-to-head with his rival, friend and teammate, Leroy Burrell. Lewis started poorly but in the end he finished superbly to break the world record — this time it was legal. Jackie Joyner-Kersey of the USA recovered from an ankle injury to win the women's long jump on a scintillating day 2, the day Carl Lewis ran 100 metres in 9.86 seconds.

DAY 3 — MONDAY, AUGUST 26

Linford Christie, the top British sprinter, said in a morning interview that he would retire next week. In the men's 200m. heats the USA's Michael Johnson shattered the championship record while he was "slamming on the breaks"; Leroy Burrell meanwhile was on his way out. It was a good day for Soviet women runners as Lilia Nunitdinova (800m.) and Tatyana Dorovskikh-Samalenko (3000m.) scooped gold medals. But Jackie Joyner-Kersey crashed out of the Heptathlon when she pulled a hamstring after recovering from yesterday's ankle injury. In a classic 10,000m. final, Moses Tanui of Kenya won by 5 yards.

Still no medals for Ireland but there's a long way to go yet.

Dungarvan Ladies Hockey Club Notes

Dungarvan Ladies Hockey Club are pleased to announce that a new season of Hockey begins on August 28th, in the grounds of St. Augustines College by kind permission of Fr. P. Moran.

This year excitement grows as we go into the new season with a new All-weather pitch which has been constructed at St. Augustines College, Duckspool. Our thanks and gratitude to Fr. P. Moran, Fr. Hayes and Bro. Patk. Lennon and to St. Augustines College for the use of the pitch for the forthcoming season.

As you may or may not know Dungarvan Hockey Club have been playing on various grass pitches over the past years. So with the development of this new All-weather pitch great things will be expected from all. Our thanks to Dungarvan Crystal sports centre whose facilities we enjoyed for the past two seasons.

Training sessions will be from 7.00 p.m. to 9.00 p.m. every Monday and Wednesday nights from the 28th onwards.

Also we would like to extend our sincere sympathy to both the Wright and Landers family on the recent death of Yvonne Wright-Landers.

Yvonne had been a valued member of the Hockey Club for a number of years. An energetic humorous person, she played in goal. She will be missed by us all as she will be by all who knew her.

On a happier note we would like to congratulate Christine and Declan O'Keeffe on the birth of their baby boy. May their future be happy.

Cunnigar Pitch & Putt Club Notes

This week-end, as these notes are being prepared, an air of quietness hangs over the course — but don't let it fool you! Just because we are not running a tournament does not mean there is no playing — far from it! Members are availing of every opportunity to sharpen their pitching and bring their putting to that final degree of excellence which is their ultimate aim. Just look at our four next tournaments, all of them guaranteed to attract large entries, thereby providing the stiff competition that all our entrants expect. Indeed it would be disappointing for our players if they got what they would consider an easy round. We have tournaments sponsored by (1) Radleys, Aug. 31-Sept. 1;

(2) Jimmy O'Donnell, Sept. 7-8; (3) Ben O'Neill, Record Shop, O'Connell Street, Sept 14-15; then we have on Sept. 21-22 Michael Delaney's 36 hole stroke play for the Mens Captains Prize.

There we have as attractive a line up as we have had to date and we are looking forward to a large number of entries for each of the tournaments.

Speaking about Michael, a certain politician expressed a desire some time ago to have a match with Michael. So far he hasn't followed through — I wonder why! Maybe he would feel up to it before too long.

Referring back to our Charity Week Competition for the McGrath Perpetual Cup, a special word of thanks to all who participated and also to those charged with the smooth running of the games, day after day. And it is gratifying to note that the local beneficiary, nominated by winner Francis McCarthy, was St. John's School for the Handicapped. Well done Francis. — TOVID.

Tony Forristal Tournament 1991

HURLING WEEK - END TO REMEMBER.

Last week-end, the County and City of Waterford were hosts to the young hurlers of Ireland. What a wonderful sporting and social occasion it was in the glorious sunshine. In this the 10th annual Inter-County All-Ireland Under - 14 Hurling Tournament with 18 County teams involved, both Tony Forristal and Sonny Walsh were remembered in a manner that was both fitting and appropriate — in the playing of the game that they loved, by the youth from the four provinces of our land.

Overall, this great festival of hurling was a marvellous success and those involved with the organisation can once again be extremely proud. The tournament is sponsored by Waterford Crystal to whom sincere thanks is extended. Large crowds attended the 26 games at the 5 city venues on Saturday and at the 3 finals at Walsh Park on Sunday. For the 378 young hurlers especially, it was a week-end to remember — playing for their county in a competition with a very high level of hurling skill. The 18 county teams were graded into 3 divisions.

DIVISION 1

Eight teams in 2 groups of 4 competed in Division 1 for the Tony Forristal Cup. Waterford had a comprehensive 2-6 to 0-1 victory over Kilkenny. They defeated Wexford by 2 points and did quite well against Galway, though they conceded 2 easy goals. The best game in division 1 was the Cork/Tipperary game which Tipperary won by one point. Galway and Tipperary clashed in Sunday's final. Tipperary were too strong and ran out easy winners. The Tony Forristal Cup went to Tipperary and to their captain John Enright. The Man of the Match Award went to Liam Cahill, Tipperary. Mrs Betty Forristal presented the Cup.

DIVISION 2

Six teams competed in division 2. Here the Waterford 'B' team were involved. They lost to Antrim in a game that they were good enough to win. They defeated Westmeath by 7 points. In the game against Dublin Waterford led by 7 points mid-way through the second half. In the last six minutes the Waterford backs collapsed and Dublin scored 4-1 to win by 7 points. Waterford were short 3 players through injury. The division 2 final on Sunday brought Antrim and Dublin into opposition. Dublin were the team on form and won by 12 points and took the Sonny Walsh Trophy for the first time. It was presented by Mrs. Stelly Walsh.

DIVISION 3

Four teams operated in division 3 - with both Kerry and Kildare reaching Sunday's final. There was little between the sides with Kildare 3 points ahead at the end. It was their first time at the tournament and they went away with the Waterford Crystal shield. It was presented to their captain by the committee chairman John Jacob. The Man of the Match Award went to Kildare captain Jason Dowling.

PRESENTATIONS

After the 3 finals on Sunday at Walsh Park, the presentation ceremony took place. The captain of the 12 County teams not involved in the 3 finals received mementoes of the occasion. The man of the match Awards were presented. Pat Fanning addressed the gathering and so did former G.A.A.

President John Dowling, chairman of G.A.A. Festivals. The committee chairman John Jacob also spoke. Afterwards the teams departed and took with them to their home counties happy memories of a fantastic sporting week-end in the sun. Roll on 1992. The organising committee led by hard working secretary Larry Quinn can look back on a job well done.

HOST CLUBS

Central to the success of this annual tournament is the role played by the 17 local clubs. They host the county teams as the young players stay with local families. Each year our visitors from the four provinces enjoy and appreciate the hospitality which they receive while in Waterford. A special word of thanks to all the G.A.A. clubs in question.

TEAM SELECTORS

It is fitting at this stage to pay tribute to our Waterford selectors who have worked hard over the last 8 weeks to prepare the two teams. Their names appear elsewhere in this report.

ALL-IRELAND SEMI-FINAL

Waterford Ladies For Croke Park

Waterford 7-15 Leitrim 1-2

This was truly a magnificent display by a great group of very skilled and committed footballers who really overpowered Leitrim before a big crowd at the Fraher Field on Sunday. The big crowd waited on to cheer the team who were given a fine reception when they raced out on to the field fifteen minutes before their opponents.

Hundreds who saw the match were seeing ladies football for the first time and wondered at the delightful skill, speed and stamina of these young ladies, many of whom were more professional-like than a whole lot of the adult men folk who are playing today.

The score tells the story of the game and sadly Leitrim were absolutely no match at all for Waterford. Waterford will now play Laois in the All-Ireland final at Croke Park on October 13 and what an occasion that will be for us. We will have more on this later.

Waterford (Ballymacarbry unless stated) — Patricia Butler, Regina Byrne, Martina O'Ryan, Cliona Walsh, Sinead Walsh, Ann Fitzpatrick, Ann

Saviours Score Late Win

St. Saviours 2-10 Nire 1-8

As was expected, this senior football championship game was played with great earnestness as both needed to win in order to remain strongly in contention for a place in the semi-finals.

For almost fifty minutes it seemed as if the Nire would bring off one of their sweetest victories of the championship, but then things started to go wrong and Saviours got into their stride and took complete control in the final ten minutes to run out winners by a flattering five points.

SCORING

Corner forward Michael Guiry pointed for the Nire in the 6th minute and three minutes later Paddy Cooney had a brilliant goal that was followed one minute later by another Michael Guiry point to give them a five points lead without reply. Guiry added another before Saviours, per Tony Corcoran, pointed a close in free to give the Eastern team their first score of the match in the 14th minute. Michael Keating pointed for Saviours but a very much in form Paddy Cooney pointed twice to keep the Nire six points in front in the 19th minute to leave the half-time score 1-5 to 0-4.

Michael Guiry and G. McCormack exchanged points after the turn over and points were again exchanged by Ger Walsh for the Nire and Liam Daniels for Saviours in the 40th minute and 43rd minutes. Points by Tony Corcoran (2) and Mark Boyle reduced the Nire's lead to a single point (1-7 to 0-9) in the 46th minute.

Their lead was stretched to 2 points with a very well taken Pat Walsh point in the 47th minute, but this, unfortunately for them, was their final score of the game and Saviours fought back with skill and fierce determination. A pass from Mark Boyle found Derek Wyse who sent to the net and three minutes later Michael Keating added another for St. Saviours who now had taken control of the game. Tom Corcoran had the final point in the 54th minute to give them a five points winning margin.

Scorers — St. Saviours — T. Corcoran 0-5, D. Wyse 1-0, Ml. Keating 0-2, M. O'Brien, L. Daniels, G. McCormack 0-1 each; Nire — P. Cooney 1-2, Ml. Guiry 0-4, G. Walsh 0-1, P. Walsh 0-1.

St. Saviours — F. Ryan, P. Corcoran, A. Power, P. Thompson, G. McCormack, L. Corcoran, B. Brophy, Ml. O'Brien, L. Daniels, L. Quilty, O. Hartley, T. Corcoran, Ml. Keating, M. Boyle, D. Wyse. Sub — P. Twomey for Quilty.

Nire — S. Guiry, L. Guiry, Pat Walsh, D. Tobin, D. Phelan, K. Mulcahy, P. Wall, T. Condon, J. Hogan, I. Walsh, Rd. Guiry, P. J. Mulcahy, P. Cooney, G. Walsh, Ml. Guiry. Subs — O. Wall for I. Walsh, G. Coffey for T. Condon. Referee: T. O Meachair, An Rinn.

Late Win for St. Marys

ST. MARYS 1-10
CAPPOQUIN 0-11

With a safe looking four points lead entering the final ten minutes of this well contested intermediate hurling quarter final at Fraher Field on Saturday evening, Cappoquin looked to have booked a place in the championship semi-final but with the introduction of veteran Lar Whelan for St. Marys, a dramatic change came about and the substitute proved a match winner for the Touraneena side in the end.

Cappoquin were hurling very well, but were held to a draw at half-time when the score was 0-6 apiece. However Cappoquin then took a four points lead but after the 50th minute, did not again score. Following his introduction Lar Whelan pointed and then a John Hallinan point closed the gap further, before Whelan's dramatic goal which proved the death knell for Cappoquin in the 56th minute. John Fitzpatrick had the final point for the winners just on the stroke of time. Brian Hennessey scored seven of Cappoquin's 11 points total.

Abbeyside/Ballinacourty G.A.A. Notes

WHOLEHEARTED DISPLAY

In a very wholehearted display, the senior footballers pushed championship flyers Stradbally all the way (0-10 to 0-7) in a very keenly contested game on Sunday evening last.

Going into the game the selectors were short the services of Bernard Gorman, John Curran, Mark Reynolds, Liam Shanley and Gerry O'Connor.

Like the last four of our championship games, the margin between winning and losing have been quite slim.

All in all to-date, 1991 has seen a steady improvement in our senior football fortunes. Hopefully we can now build on the progress achieved more in the minor football play-off. Victory will ensure a place in the semi-final and defeat will allow a second chance against Kilrossanty.

WELL DONE

Congratulations are extended to Gerard Flynn, Sarsfield Street, who recently received his B.Sc. degree in Food Business at the UCC Conferings. Gerard won Western u-14, and u-16 football and 2 Western minor 'B' hurling medals with us. Best wishes are extended to him for the future.

JUVENILE SNIPPETS

The under-16 footballers open their campaign against Affane on Monday evening next at the club grounds.

UNDER 12s BATTLE BACK

Our under 12 hurlers looked to be on their way out of the championship at the club grounds on Monday evening last as they trailed by six points to local rivals Dungarvan in a most enjoyable game.

However the Village boys battled back to earn another chance on a scoreline of 3-1 all.

Team — B. Mansfield, J. Phelan, R. Cliffe, P. Veale, M. Kiely, P. Burke, N. McGrath, J. Hayes, J. P. Keohan, P. Landy, M. Murray, R. McCarthy, S. Flynn, J. Thompson, P. Morrissey. Sub. P. Murphy.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Ryan and family, Ballinacourty on the death of Jimmy Ryan. Condolences are also extended to Mrs. Noel Fleming, Sea Park on the death of her sister Mrs. Nellie Murphy, Fermoy.

DATE FIXED

The intermediate hurlers play St. Marys in the County quarter-final on the weekend after next. Preparation continued last week with a useful challenge game against Kilmacthomas and a very competitive game against Youghal in the Ring Tournament which ended in a draw: 2-7 to 1-10.

MINOR ACTION

The minor hurlers qualified for the Western minor 'B' final against Fourmilewater by defeating Ballyduff in a very exciting semi-final clash by 2-10 to 0-7 at Cappoquin. In what was a very important victory the lads considerably stepped up on their performance against Naomh Brid, but there is still quite an amount of room for improvement, a fact, I'm sure they are quite aware of.

This Wednesday evening, August 28, we play Clash-

Narrow Win for Kilmac'

Kilmacthomas 1-10

Clashmore 1-8

A David Kiely goal midway through the first half, gave Kilmacthomas a sound boost and enabled them to have a 1-6 to 0-4 interval lead in this very competitive game that saw a player from each side sent off by referee John Kelly.

The second half was splendidly contested and the game remained in the balance right up to the final whistle.

Kilmacthomas — F. McCarthy, S. Behan, P. McGrath, P. Drohan, A. Rockett, Ed. Rockett, J. Power, N. Power, Derry Kiely, G. Whelan, J. Browne, J. Troy, M. Rockett, T. O'Connell, David Kiely.

NEXT WEEK-END

The Last Round Up Of The League Section Of The SF Championships

Attractive Junior Hurling Semi Finals At Cappoquin

With this county hemmed in between Tipperary and Kilkenny, hundreds of Waterford hurling fans will travel to Croke Park on Sunday to see the old rivals clash in the All-Ireland final. On form, the Munster champions will be the hot favourites against Kilkenny, who have so far shown poor form, but with Kilkenny expected to improve their game in the final, expectations are high that it will be a close and exciting contest. Let us hope that it will be good value for the expensive admission price and that our supporters will get their money's worth.

There was a huge amount of demand for stand tickets and again there were very many disappointed applicants. No tickets were available to individuals and the distribution, as usual, was through the clubs. I know that many of the tormented County Board officials are praying that the final will not end in a draw.

On the home front practically every game is of great importance and for some of the twelve senior football clubs who will be in action, it will be their final outing of the championship season. With unusual interest in the junior hurling championship, there will be big crowds in Cappoquin on Friday and Saturday evenings to witness the semi-finals, both of which are quite open affairs.

SAVIOURS v. STRADBALLY

With the 'B' group of the senior football championship at a complicated stage, the above game will be of great interest to a few clubs. Should St. Saviours win this game at Kilmac-thomas, then Stradbally and themselves will be on equal points, but with Stradbally having a game in hand. Should Stradbally win, then Saviours will have to await the outcome of the Clashmore/Nire game at Dungarvan on the same evening. Should Clashmore and Saviours both lose, then the Nire and Saviours will be caught up in a play-off situation.

Here in Kilmacthomas, St. Saviours, if reproducing last Sunday's form, could beat Stradbally who are finding it difficult to strike their top form, so far this year. It can be a tight and very well contested game, producing plenty of excitement. A draw would save St. Saviours from a play-off situation, but I feel that they can score an outright win, if they strike their top form.

NIRE v. CLASHMORE

A vital one for the unlucky Nire as they must win this, if they are to have a chance of staying alive in the championship. Last Sunday's display was not very encouraging for Clashmore and comparing it with the performance of the Nire in the match which followed, one must fancy the Nire to come through here.

RATHGORMACK v. DUNHILL

This tie will give Rathgormack their final chance of a play-off game however remote. If they win here and beat Dungarvan in their final match, it would involve them in a play-off. Dunhill have the same number of match points as Rathgormack, but the latter have a game in hand. Rathgormack are the slight favourites, but they certainly won't find it easy.

DUNGARVAN v. TRAMORE

Few people will doubt the outcome of this game and it would be one of the very big shocks of the football season, if the result does not show a resounding win for the county champions who are coasting along to a place in the 1991 final in October. Tramore, who have but one win to their credit so far in the championships are not likely to cause an upset at this stage. However, after such a disappointing run, a win over the reigning champions would give them something to shout about and atone for some of these disappointments, so it will be no surprise if they make an almighty effort to beat Dungarvan here.

I don't believe that this will happen and that the winners will go into their final match with their record intact. The game will be played at the Stradbally venue on Thursday evening.

KILROSSANTY v. FAHA

Faha have yet to record a first win in the senior football championship and they are unlikely to end their losing sequence when they play Kilrossanty here. The Comeragh team have lost only one match so far in the Championship and this was when losing to Dungarvan at Stradbally. On the league table, they are trailing the champions and will need to win their two remaining games to fill second place before the knock-out stages are reached. They have recently intensified their training schedule and have played challenge matches against Moyle Rovers and Fethard-on-Sea. They will be the hottest of favourites to win here.

SEANA PHOBAL v. MODELIGO

I spoke to two football people about this game at Fraher field on Sunday and each had a different (and neutral) opinion of what will happen. It is the kind of match that will keep the speculators guessing right up to the finish as it must be a close encounter for both.

The winners will play Melleray on the following week-end at Cappoquin.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

Kilrossanty Win

KILROSSANTY 1-8; TRAMORE 0-6

Not a very impressive display, but Kilrossanty played well enough to deserve the victory. The winners, were unquestionable the better team, but had many uneasy moments before the final whistle declared them the winners.

Western Board

An open Board meeting will take place at Dungarvan on Wednesday evening of next week. At the last open meeting, the chairman commented on the absence of quite a big number of club delegates and in view of this it will be interesting to see if the situation improves.

All-Ireland tickets will be distributed to clubs at Lawlor's Hotel on to-night (Wednesday) at 8 p.m.

U-21 Hurling "B" Final

Portlawn, who now find themselves involved in a play-off for relegation can at least feel happy about having won a hurling title this year. They beat An Gaeltacht by seven points in the final at Walsh Park on Sunday last.

Lismore Retain M.H. Title

Our Lismore correspondent will deal with this game in his notes. They retained their divisional title deservedly, but the final score does less than justice to a splendid effort by St. Patrick's who matched their highly rated opponents in several of their positions. It was St. Pats first time in such a final.

Minor Hurling "B" Semi-Finals

Abbeyside and Fourmilewater both qualified for the divisional final of this championship, having defeated Ballyduff and Naomh Brid, respectively on Wednesday evening of last week.

Abbeyside, who were favorites to beat Ballyduff at Cappoquin, won deservedly, but were not very impressive and will need to show an amount of improvement before playing in the final next month.

Their opponents will be Fourmilewater who very surprisingly defeated Naomh Brid, who could be described as the favourites to win the title. After the game, referee Roger Casey was assaulted and this will be the subject of investigation by the Western Board when they meet within the next week or so.

Stradbally Win Under Pressure

STRADBALLY 0-10
BALLINACOURTY 0-7

Stradbally senior footballers had their mettle well and truly tested and found wanting in some sections when they came up against an unfit and under-strength Ballinacourty team who have gone out of contention for more than six weeks. Stradbally were obviously keyed up for this tie and played the entire match under pressure, while Ballinacourty who were without Bernard O'Gorman and Mark Reynolds, were under no pressure whatsoever.

Remembering that some of the Ballinacourty players had not kicked a ball for more than six weeks, this was not a championship winning performance by Stradbally who are undefeated so far. They certainly have an awful amount of improving to do before they get any ideas of taking the title this year.

Ballinacourty, in their circumstances, gave a very good account of themselves and will feel happy enough about not being hammered. But the club must rue their many lost chances of qualifying for the knock-out stages this year. The opportunities were certainly there, but were not taken.

SCORING

John Mulligan pointed a Ballinacourty free in the first minute and they went two points up when J. Leahy added another in the 8th minute. Tom Gough opened Stradbally's account in the 10th minute and a converted free by Eoin O'Brien three minutes later brought the sides level in the 13th minute. Two further Eoin O'Brien frees put Stradbally 2 points up before the same player added another in the 28th minute. Then, just on half time, John Mulligan pointed for Ballinacourty to leave the scores 0-5 to 0-3 in favour of Stradbally at the break.

Leahy and Mulligan, who opened Ballinacourty's account in the first half, did the same in the second, to bring the teams level at 0-5 apiece by the 35th minute. Points by P. Dee and T. Gough gave Stradbally the lead again, but a well taken Leahy point narrowed the gap again in the 43rd minute. Eoin O'Brien and Pat Walsh exchanged points and with just 12 minutes remaining, just one point separated the sides and both then threw everything they knew into a splendidly contested final ten minutes. A great save by Tom Cahill in the 51st minutes denied Stradbally a certain goal, but they came back with a point by Paul Mullaney and just on the call of time J. Keane had the final score of this very entertaining and close contest.

Scorers — Stradbally — E. O'Brien 0-5, T. Gough 0-2, P. Dee, P. Mullaney and J. Keane 0-1 each; Ballinacourty — J. Mulligan 0-3, J. Leahy 0-3, P. Walsh 0-1.

Stradbally — K. Hefferman, L. Walsh, C. O'Brien, M. Curran, D. Kirwan, E. Phelan, F. O'Brien, P. Mullaney, G. Hogan, T. Gough, E. O'Brien, P. Curran, P. Dee, J. Keane, L. O'Brien. Subs — N. Weldon for L. O'Brien, P. Halpin for Dee.

Ballinacourty — T. Cahill, J. O'Riordan, M. Collins, G. Collins, M. O'Riordan, I. Kiely, J. Kiely, S. McGrath, K. Killigrew, J. Leahy, P. Walsh, J. Mulligan, T. Organ, M. Carroll, C. Clancy. Subs — J. Kiely for M. Carroll, T. Walsh for K. Killigrew, E. McGovern for J. Leahy.

Referee: J. J. Landers, Affane/Cappoquin.

Junior Hurling Semi-Finals

These games would certainly make a tremendous double-header on any programme, but unfortunately the tight fixtures schedule does not allow the Boards to pick and choose at this stage of the championships.

Lismore play Kilgobinet on Friday evening and a win would take them a step closer to a senior/junior double and in with a chance of achieving something unique in the history of Waterford hurling, as they have already won divisional honours in minor and under 16 hurling.

Kilgobinet had their strength depleted in recent times, but nevertheless are playing splendid hurling at the moment and will put the younger Lismore side to the pin of their collars to survive.

Lismore won the second string section and have a nice blend of youth and experience and will be strongly fancied to win, but Kilgobinet, cannot by any means be counted out.

The Saturday evening game will see An Rinn and Ballysaggart in opposition and this is certain to produce an exciting contest if their past meetings are a guide.

The Gaeltacht side are the reigning divisional champions and have some very good players on all lines. They are slight favourites, but remembering the manner in which Ballysaggart put Clashmore out of the championship three weeks ago, it would be foolish even to suggest that they do not have a reasonable chance of winning.

County Board Meeting

Frankie Cullinane, Chairman, presided at last week's meeting of the County Board and at which there was a full attendance of delegates.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

The chairman reported that following the dissolution of the two previous finance groups, that a new county finance committee had been set up and the initial meeting of this body had taken place on the previous Wednesday. He told the meeting that there had been an excellent response from those who had been invited and that the executive committee had been very impressed and heartened by the interest and attitude of the people who had accepted. The immediate objective of the committee will be to raise funds to help the County Board over its present financial problems, to advise the Board on financial matters and to assist in the funding of county teams in training. It was also stated that John McGrath had been elected chairman and Christy Dowling as secretary. The remaining officer posts were filled when the committee met on Thursday August 22nd.

The County Board unanimously approved the committee and wished them well. Several delegates said that this was a very welcome development and asked the officers to convey the thanks of the Board to the members who had agreed to serve.

DECEMBER CONVENTION?

Timmy O' Keeffe, Clashmore said the Board should very seriously consider the idea of holding our annual county convention in the month of December as was being done in most counties. This, he said would allow more time for organising the championships every year. The chairman said that such a proposal would need notice of motion and asked if the delegate would be prepared to submit same to the September meeting. This was agreed.

OPEN DRAW

Phil Fanning asked about Waterford's views on an open draw in Munster next year and it was unanimously agreed to support the open draw for both hurling and football in the province in 1992.

UNDER 21 HURLING SELECTORS

The final selection committee report on the championships, was submitted by the outgoing under 21 hurling selectors. This report told of their game against Cork at Pairc Ui Caoimh and how close the team went to winning. It was a splendid effort by the players and there was very little between the teams. The report also stated that had the game been played outside Cork, that Waterford would have a splendid chance of winning. The idea of not having a home-and-away arrangement was mentioned, but when it was pointed out that Waterford will have home venue for our next matches against Cork, Tipperary and Limerick, it was agreed not to proceed with the idea for the time being.

John Jackson asked about the appointment of a new under 21 selection committee, as the outgoing members were not seeking re-election, they having served for three years. It was agreed that this will be done by An Coisde Gnotha and submitted to the September meeting for approval. Clubs may submit nominations to the county secretary before September 2nd.

The chairman thanked the outgoing selectors for their dedicated work while serving.

JUVENILE FOOTBALL COACH;

The Ciske Peil report stated that the appointment of a juvenile football coach, had been advertised and that applications would close on Saturday August 31. The interviews will be held early in September and announced to the County Board for approval, when available.

Having discussed the report, Coisde Na Peil were asked to prepare a list of recommendations regarding the appointment of selectors in the junior, under 21 and minor grades and if possible to have same ready for the next meeting.

CHAMPIONSHIPS 1992!

It was agreed to have time set aside for a discussion on the format of the championships at the October meeting of the Board and all clubs were asked to consider this matter and make their views known when the subject is being debated.

REFEREES' REPORTS

Arising out of these, a number of reports of misconduct were read and several players whose suspensions will exceed the minimum two weeks, will be written to and given the opportunity of being heard in their own defence. These suspensions will be dealt with at the next meeting.

HANDBALL NEWS

Waterford Lose Golden Masters

Our representatives, Declan Mulcahy and John Kiely, who won the Golden Masters for two years in succession had to give best to the Dublin pair, Garda D. Walsh (Wexford) and L. Ferguson (Galway) in the semi-finals which were played at the Garda Depot, Dublin on Saturday last.

Our representatives accepted their defeat gra-duously and sportingly, but like their supporters, they were very annoyed at having been forced to play in the ally of the Garda Depot in Dublin in such an important game against the two Dublin representatives. Apart from other considerations, championship handball has not been played in this ally for more than 20 years and it is something of a mystery that the Munster Handball Council agreed to have the game fixed for there.

Tipperary were also forced into playing in this ally and there is a strong feeling that the Cork representative let the others down when the fixture was being made. The whole matter will be raised in a big way at the next meeting of the Council.

TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT STUDY

cilities and safety; closing the existing carriageway through the centre and developing central area as an amenity and focal point for the town centre. One-way system involving O'Connell St., Mary St., Western Tce., Friary St., Church St. and St. Brigid Street.

Pedestrianisation Options — Upper Parnell (Main St.) with a possible later extension to Castle St., Quay St. and the south of Davitt's Quay and Carbery's Lane (to go into second phase).

Bus terminus and coach parking facility at Shandon Road, additional street parking restrictions and review of parking charges.

The medium-term proposals included: New road link between Mary St. and Friary St. (through Scanlon's Yard) and roundabout at Rice's St./Mitchel St. junction.

The study recommended that the short-term proposals be implemented over a period of two to three years and the medium term proposals before the year 2000.

A £1 MILLION DEVELOPMENT

Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager said that the immediate major problem was to provide additional car-parking facilities in the town centre while the introduction of the roundabouts would speed up traffic. In the proposals before the Council they were looking forward to the next 10 to 20 years in the development of the town.

In reply to a question by Cllr. B. Kyne, the Manager estimated the cost of the proposed carpark development at Davitt's Quay at £1 million based on an accepted cost of £5,000 per car space. He said that such developments had already proved feasible in many places around the country.

Members of the Council joined in complimenting Mr. Harewood on his very comprehensive report and on the proposal of Cllr. Nuala Ryan seconded by Cllr. Mary Dixon the report was approved in principle. Cllr. T. Wright proposed an amendment that the matter should be discussed further before having the report adopted but this was not seconded. The report had been studied and discussed over an hour and a half at the meeting.

Cllr. M. O'Riordan, Chairman presided and in addition to the Council members also in attendance were Supt. R. McAndrew, Garda Siochana, Mr. John O'Flynn, Co. Engineer, Mr. George Taylor, Town Engineer, Mr. Eamonn Mansfield, Senior Executive Engineer and Mr. O. O'Sullivan, do., Waterford Co. Council, Mr. D. Hurley, Co. Manager, Mr. B. White, Town Clerk and Mr. Ray Moloney, Staff Officer.
