Malin, Co. Donegal, the most northern village in Ireland has won the overall National Award in the 1991 Tidy Towns Competition organised by Bord Failte and sponsored by the First National Building Society with a mark of 192 points. It has also won the title of Ireland's Tidiest Village and a Population Category.

But just one mark behind with a total of 191 was our own seaside resort of Ardmore which as a consolation was adjudged winner of the South-East Regional Award.

The results of the 1991 competition were announced at a reception in the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, Dublin on Monday evening last.

Ardmore also won the award as best town or village in Co. Waterford with Stradbally only again one point behind with 190 marks in the runner-up position and being highly commended. As County Award winner, Ardmore

President Robinson's Hectic Whistle-stop Tour Of West Waterford

Tuesday, September 17 will be remembered throughout West Waterford for many years to come by those privileged to experience the occasion as the day on which her Excellency President Mary Robinson paid her first official visit to County Waterford. In a hectic whistle-stop tour she fulfilled engagements in Dungarvan, Cappoquin, Lismore and Tallow. Fortunately the sun shone bright and warmly throughout the day and the President was obviously charmed with the beauty of the countryside as her motorcade travelled from place to place.

The President was accompanied by her husband Nicholas and Aide-de-Camp Commdt. Pat McNally and sharp on time at 11.30 a.m. the Presidential car, escorted by Garda Motorcyclists and Patrol cars, turned into the driveway of the Augustinian College in Dungarvan where she was to perform the first of her engagements for West Waterford, the opening of an all-weather hockey pitch for the Dungarvan Ladies Hockey Club.

The President made her way on to the pitch through a guard of honour formed by hockey club members and was greeted by a Presidential salute.

Rev. Fr. Pat Moran, OSA, College Headmaster, welcoming President Robinson said that it was an historic day in the life of the college which in the past had always been known as a GAA school for boys. But, he said, just as the wind of change had hit Arus an Uachtarain it had also affected St. Augustine's and last September the College was opened to girls for the first time. Thirty-two girls were then enrolled but that number had now grown to 93 in a total of 502 students at present at the College.

President Robinson formally cut the tape and Very Rev. Fr. N. O'Donnell, OSA, Prior at the College performed the blessing.

In a short address President Robinson said that she was present particularly to stress the role of girls in sport and she sought, and

Call To Adjust Timing At Dungarvan Traffic Lights

Cllr. Austin Hallahan at the September monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council referred to the information provided in the recent Traffic Management Study presented to them. This, he said, showed that much of the traffic which previously passed through the town centre via Mary Street had now transferred to the new Ring road.

Cllr. Hallahan then referred to the traffic lights at the Mary Street - Square junction and pointed out that these were at present regulated to allow a longer time for the Mary Street traffic than for traffic on the Main Street - O'Connell Street line. He thought that in view of the information contained in the Traffic Management Study it was now time to equalise the timing of the lights at the junction in both directions.

The Town Clerk, Mr. B. White, agreed that traffic from Main Street was being held at the lights for longer than the other traffic lane and he had personal experience of that.

It was agreed to refer the request to the County Engineer to see what could be done about it.

THE MASS IS LIFE

This is the last time I'll be writing the "thoughts," and I trust you'll bear with me if I deal with a subject that is the very heart and soul and centre of our religion. The impression is about that many teenagers have stopped going to Mass. Indeed, the Lord never said how often we were to attend Mass, but He did give us the Mass to be our main form of worship; and He did declare it was absolutely necessary for salvation to participate and share in the fruits of the Sacrifice of the Mass. The First Commandment binds us to worship God, and not to dare to put any other god before Him. Truly, it is possible to worship God in our prayers, but the fact is, God has willed that we should use the Holy Mass as our main form of worship. It was to be the memorial of His passion and death. Hence, we all have a grave obligation to share in the Mass.

Holy Mother Church, who speaks with God's authority, has interpreted God's will in this matter. She says, all Catholics over seven, unless excused by sickness or any other reasonable cause, must attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days. She makes it clear that to deliberately and willfully miss Mass is a grave sin. It is not a matter of choice, and to say so, would be wrong and dangerous. I understand someone asked Bishop McComiskey "If it was a sin to deliberately miss Mass on a day of obligation" and he replied "It is almost a sin to even ask such a question." To ignore the church's Law is tantamount to saying, Jesus was not serious when He gave His Church the power to rule and guide.

If we only considered who God is, and the privilege it is to be in His presence, we'd walk on our knees to Mass. Undoubtedly, the Church should always be striving to present the Mass to us in the best possible manner. We do not go to be amused. We go to fulfil our duty of worship. I recall seeing a daddy give his child money for sweets. After a few minutes the child was back saying, "daddy, daddy, you take one." Every thing we have, we have received. We could learn from the little child! What better way is there for us to express our love and our gratitude than to fulfil God's own wish. "Do this . . ."

The following, I think, will help. Each morning before Mass I sit down and say "Lord, this is your servant. I'm not worthy to come into your presence. You are the infinite God, and I am a sinner. You did say to people like me, "come to me." So, here I am. Once more I thank you for your goodness, and I beg you to continue to watch over me. I could not manage without you. I do thank you. You are a good and a great God. You are patient, and your mercy is beyond our understanding. I humbly acknowledge my own helplessness. I am totally dependent upon You. Hence, in my Mass I will bow down before You, I will adore you and I will praise You. The offering I make of the most precious gift you have bestowed upon mankind, namely, the Lamb of God, is a testimony of my love and devotion. Yes, I know it is your dearest wish that we serve you in this way.

When Jesus offered Himself, the Lamb of God, You opened the gates of Heaven to man. When we join in the Mass, we could offer you nothing more precious or more pleasing."

GOD'S GREATEST GIFT

Why! even the angels of Heaven, if it were possible, would envy our great privilege, and our close relationship with God. If people only half thought of the honour it is to share in the Mass, and take the Lord into their hearts, they'd be so filled and over-powered with love that Communion would be their life. It is important to remember, when we share in the Mass, the same Lamb that was offered on Calvary is the victim. It is not a new and different offering, but somehow and in some way we participate in the Sacrifice of Calvary. And, we could have no better authority for this than God Himself. It is mysterious, but there is no bounds to the power of God. Naturally, God our Father will be pleased with our participation in this great act of worship. It is an opportune time to open our hearts, and ask for help. Above all, we should ask Him to fill our hearts with His love. I am sure it is very painful to God to see His friend leave Him. It is a frightful insult to hear people say "the Mass, which is everything, means nothing to them." To them I say, get down on your knees and beg for pardon. Don't throw away the greatest gift that God has bestowed upon you.

Auditor's Report On Urban Finances

In the course of his report on the finances of Dungarvan Urban Council for the 2 years ending December 31, 1990, presented to the members at the Council's September monthly meeting, Mr. John C. O'Brien, Local Government Auditor stated that the overall standard of revenue collections improved over the two year period from an average of 88.46% in 1988 to an average of 92.31% in 1990. As a result the total of arrears outstanding at the end of the year decreased from £103,370 (9.72%) in 1988 to £86,058 (6.6%) in 1990.

Arrears of Service Charges, the report then stated, amounting to £57,055 accounted for 66.3% of the total arrears of £86,058 at December 31, 1990. A specific exercise will be undertaken during 1991 in order to identify Service Charge arrears which have arisen out of the non-claiming of Waivers by those entitled to them as distinct from those caused by a hard-core of non-payers.

The report also pointed out that in the 2 years, the Council provided 7 new houses and the housing stock at December 31, 1990 comprised 338 rental, 226 on tenant purchase and 309 redeemed or sold outright, making a total of 883.

The report was adopted unanimously and on the proposal of Cllr. B. Kyne, the Town Clerk, Mr. Bertie White and staff were congratulated on the excellence of the report.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Question — I am single, aged 68 and am no longer able to work my farm. So, I have let the land and this brings me in about £3,500 per year. I intend leaving this land to my nephew who lives abroad. If I transfer the farm to him now will I be able to get the Non-Contributory Old Age Pension?

Answer — No! You will not be entitled to the Non-Contributory Old Age Pension. Under the Social Welfare Acts, where property or assets are given away in order to get a pension, that transfer will be disregarded. An exception to this may be made where a farm of less than £30 valuation is transferred to a son or daughter. Even in this case the pension could be refused if the son or daughter was not working the land.

You were very prudent to look into this before taking such a drastic step. We have numerous enquiries from people who have transferred their property and been refused the pension.

Other factors you should consider are that the land could be sold and the proceeds used to:

- (a) Buy a smaller house elsewhere and depending on the amount of capital you have after purchasing the other house you might be eligible for some amount of pension.
- (b) If your health deteriorated you might like to go into a private nursing home.
- (c) You might like the person who looks after you in your final years to benefit from your estate.

Our advice to anybody considering transferring property in order to get a pension would be to get independent advice which is available from Macra na Feirme, Teagasc, Irish Farmers' Association.

Pledge Promise Saves Youth From Detention

An 18-year-old youth gave an undertaking to Dungarvan District Court that he will keep the peace for 12 months and during that time will refrain from drinking alcohol and from entering any licensed premises.

Thomas Fraher, 6 St. Patrick's Crescent, was convicted by Judge Haughton of taking a car without the consent of the owner and allowing himself to be carried in a stolen car but was discharged after giving the undertaking.

Nominated For "People Of The Year" Award

At the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council it was agreed, on the proposal of Cllr. B. Kyne seconded by Cllr. T. Wright to nominate Deputy Jim Kemmy, Mayor of Limerick as the Council's nominee for the 1991 People of the Year Awards.

GREYSTONES SEMINAR

Chairman, Cllr. M. O'Riordan attend the 3-day seminar on the "Role of Local Authorities in the Preservation of Our Heritage" which will be held in La Touche Hotel, Greystones, Co. Wicklow on October 11, 12 and 13.

2 Years Jail Sentence For Sexually Assaulting Young Girls

Michael Hogan (61) Ballinacourty, Dungarvan, an Irish dancing teacher, pleaded guilty at Dungarvan District Court to seven charges of sexually assaulting five young girls aged between 9 and 13 years contrary to Section 2 of the Criminal Law (Rape) Amendment Act 1990.

The Court was told that the offences occurred on dates between August 1990 and May 31 last and mostly in the defendant's van as he drove the girls home after they had attended his dancing classes. One of the girls aged 10 was stated to have been sexually assaulted on three occasions in March and April last.

Although the hearing was held in camera, Judge G. Haughton allowed the mothers of all five girls (two of them sisters aged 11 and 12) to be present as well as one of the fathers. He also granted permission to Mr. Gerry McCullagh, solr., to keep a watching brief, but turned down his application to make representations on behalf of the parents.

Mr. Niall King, solr., defending objected to Mr. McCullagh's application, and the Judge told Mr. McCullagh that allowing him to keep a watching brief was as far as he could go.

As Supt. Ray McAndrew, who prosecuted, outlined the facts of each case some of the parents wept.

Mr. King for the defendant, a bachelor, told the court that Hogan had been an Irish dancing teacher for 40 years and had had considerable successes in that time. He had fully co-operated with the garda investigations and freely admitted the offences to them when interviewed.

Mr. King said that as a result of the whole affair Hogan had suffered considerable ill-health and has had to have medical and psychiatric treatment.

"I would suggest that none of the children have been adversely affected by the offences," Mr. King went on. "The defendant is held in the highest of esteem by the clergy and by other people in high authority within the community."

NIGHTMARES AND SLEEPLESS NIGHTS

Mr. King said Hogan is very embarrassed and very sorry for what had happened. His livelihood would now be adversely affected and socially too he would be affected. "But for these unfortunate offences he would be seen as a person of very high calibre in the community," he added.

Invited by the Judge to address the court if they wished, one mother told of the nightmares her 10-year-old daughter is now having. She is also receiving counselling from the South Eastern Health Board, and the whole thing had seriously affected the entire family.

Another mother, weeping openly, told of her daughter's sleepless nights and is now on sleeping tablets. "She is also receiving counselling, but she will never be by the same girl again."

The mother of the 11 and 12-year-old girls said both children were outgoing before these sexual assaults but now they were withdrawn.

Judge Haughton said all the girls had been put in the care and trust of Hogan by their parents and he had then been in flagrant breach of that trust. Stating that he believed the maximum two-year sentence he could impose was not enough, Judge Haughton said that were he to refuse jurisdiction in the case and send it to the Circuit Court he would be causing still further trauma for the girls and their families. "I want to save them that," he said.

Judge Haughton then sentenced Hogan to one year's imprisonment on each of the seven charges. However he ordered that in the case of the 10-year-old, who had been sexually assaulted three times, two of the sentences will run consecutively.

Recognisances in the defendant's own bond of £1,000 and two independent sureties of £500 each were fixed in the event of an appeal.

Ballinroad Sewerage Scheme Operational By Christmas?

At the September monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council, Cllr. B. Kyne asked when the Ballinroad Sewerage Scheme treatment works would be completed and the new system operational and also whether the roadway on the route of the scheme would require further reinstatement.

Replying to the query, the County Engineer, Mr. John O'Flynn confirmed that a contractor had now been selected and sanctioned. He said that work on the project should start almost immediately and was expected to be completed early in 1992. "In fact," Mr. O'Flynn stated, "it is possible that the scheme could be operational by Christmas."

Mr. O'Flynn also confirmed that further reinstatement would be carried out on the roadway affected by the scheme.

Cllr. Kyne thanked the County Engineer for this information and stressed that it was vital that work on the scheme be completed as soon as possible.

Mr. D. O Ceilleachair C.E.O. Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee was principal speaker at the opening of the Adult Literacy Headquarters in Lismore last Friday evening. The scheme is sponsored by the V.E.C. and the office and resource centre will be open to the public on Tuesdays (7.30 p.m. - 9.30 p.m.) and Fridays (2 pm. - 4 p.m.) Pictured above is An t-Uas O Ceilleachair (extreme left front row) with representatives of the various groups who support the promotion of Literacy and Numeracy Education in West Waterford. ## Acute Water Shortage In Ardmore During Summer

Moving a motion at the September monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council, Cllr. Gary O'Halloran proposed that the Department of the Environment be requested to provide funding to resolve the chronic water supply problems in Ardmore and Grange.

Cllr. O'Halloran said that a water shortage was experienced over the entire area and during the months of June, July and August the position was entirely unacceptable for locals as well as for visitors. "Ardmore," he said, is our finest resort in West Waterford and it was a great drawback when they suffered from this water shortage throughout the summer."

Mr. John O'Flynn, Co. Engineer, said that over the August Bank Holiday week-end there had been over consumption in the lower areas of Ardmore and the situation was aggravated by the big number of caravans in the locality. He agreed that some alterations were needed but said that by and large the situation was alright now.

The Co. Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley said that some of the caravan parks in the Ardmore area were "over-caravanned" during the summer and the use of water had been very high. He said that the numbers should be reduced for the future and suggested that the caravan park owners should install their own tanks to cater for peak periods.

The motion was seconded by Cllr. P. Kenneally and passed.

3 Months Detention For Dungarvan Man

"To describe this young man as a lout would be putting it mildly," Judge G. Haughton stated at Dungarvan District Court last week when he sentenced 20-year-old Frankie Keniry, 19 Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan to three months detention.

Keniry was convicted of causing malicious damage to the amount of £129 to an unmarked garda patrol car on August 10.

He was also convicted of using threatening and abusive language to Garda Timmy Murphy on two occasions.

OIL SPILLS AT BALLYMACARBRY

On Friday evening around four o'clock an oil tanker belonging to Tedcastles, Limerick, was delivering a cargo of oil to Comeragh Oil Company, Ballymacarbry when the lorry ruptured a tank on a gate pier which resulted in a spillage of over 4,000 litres of oil on to the road. Clonmel and Dungarvan Fire Brigades were quickly on the scene and prevented the oil with the help of Waterford County Council workers from entering the nearby Nier River. The Fire Brigade workers under Fire Chief for the County, Mr. Tony McCarthy and County Council workers worked for about five hours to keep traffic flowing and to render the road safe. We congratulate them on a job well done.

It was her first visit to this country.

LARGE CROWD AT MOUNTAINSIDE CEREMONY

One of the largest crowds seen for many years took part in the annual commemoration in honour of the late General Liam Lynch at his monument on the Knockmealdown Mountains overlooking Newcastle.

A spirited and interesting oration was delivered by well-known historian and author Uinsinn Mac Eoin. He spoke of the life and untimely end of the I.R.A. Chief of Staff and he traced the last weeks of the Civil War to the fatal morning when Liam Lynch and his comrades were retreating on the slopes of the Knockmealdown's the morning of the April 10th, 1923. They were pursued by a large detachment of the Free State Army. After an exchange of fire Lynch fell mortally wounded from a single shot and he died that evening in St. Joseph's Hospital, Clonmel. He was buried in the Republican plot in Kilmcrumper Churchyard outside Fermoy.

Mr. Enda O'Riordan, Clonmel and formerly of Newcastle, made a strong appeal for opposition to extradition and appealed for support for the national protest march to take place in Dublin on September 28. Mary Healy, Fethard, laid a wreath on behalf of the Republican Movement. The presiding Chairman was Mr. Patrick O'Donnell, Fethard.

LATE MR. MATTHEW KEATING

With deep regret we record the passing of Mr. Matthew (Matt) Keating, Ard Mhuire, Clonmel Road, Cahir, which sad event took place at Blackrock Clinic, Dublin, after a long illness, patiently borne. His passing was learned with sincere regret by his many friends who were held in the highest esteem.

He was the owner of a most successful sand and gravel business known throughout South Tipperary and West Waterford as Keating's Silver Sands. His integrity and sincerity was greatly appreciated by all who did business with him.

On Friday evening, September 6 his remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church, Cahir and on Saturday morning after Requiem Mass, a friend of the people was laid to rest. To his wife, his nine sons and his daughter we tender our deepest sympathy.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

REV. FR. BILLY MEEHAN

We have been proud to call him our own. He has formed the back-bone to our faith here in Clashmore and Piltown for almost eighteen years. His name is famous throughout the country and now sadly we must part with him. We will never know his likes again. Through the changing face of Christianity he has helped and inspired the young people to keep the faith. He brought a new concept to the old and sick, never making them feel pressured when he visits with the Blessed Sacrament.

He is a pillar of strength in times of death and tragedy. On the other hand he is the life and joy of any wedding or party. In times of sickness he manages to be priest, doctor and nurse, all in one. On the social scene his love of music has managed to bring our little choir to national fame. He served for many years in this parish under Very Rev. George McDonald but in recent years under Canon Joe Murphy until his retirement last year. Together they formed a unique team. Two more caring and religious yet broad-minded men you could not find in any other parish.

Together they made vast improvements in the parish. They concurred many controversial issues regarding the restructuring of parish buildings; they never allowed these problems to come between them and their duties and man made structures do not strengthen faith. Fr. Billy is deep in faith, rich in kindness and full of giving. Each family in this parish has at some-time received one of these gifts from him. Each family has personal experiences of good deeds done by Fr. Billy which nobody will ever know of and he will be greatly missed.

Our loss is another's gain and we wish him happiness and hope to see him back here in his "second home" as often as possible.

SPORTS FOR ALL

This weekend is "Sports For All Weekend" and everyone is asked to get out and do something. All over the country the emphasis is on pitch and putt and walking. On Sunday, September 22, a walk has been organised in Clashmore. The walk will commence in Clashmore at 2.30 p.m. and goes towards Ballinacash Quay.

GOLD MEDAL

A celebration in honour of our Mosney Gold Medalist Linda Guilly will be held in the Decies Bar, Clashmore on Friday night, Sept. 20 at 8.30 p.m. Everybody welcome.

RETIREMENT

To mark the occasion of Dick Lawlor and his wife Maureen and their family's retirement from business a surprise party was held.

The Lawlor family purchased "The Old Still", Clashmore some years ago from Brendan O'Grady. During their time in the business they gained vast popularity in Clashmore. They worked hard and did major structural improvements. They kept very high standards and Dick and his darts team representing the Old Still achieved a lot of success in competition. Master of ceremonies for the occasion was Fr. Billy Meehan and he was accompanied by Pat Tobin. The atmosphere was magic and the premises was packed to capacity. Many beautiful presentations were made to Dick and Maureen including some Waterford Crystal, a tray and a clock, gifts which will adorn their picturesque new home at the end of Clashmore Village which is now almost complete.

Dick and Maureen were always faithfully assisted in their business by their two daughters Marie and Martina and a presentation was also made to them.

We all join in wishing the Lawlor family many years of health and happiness in their new home.

WELCOME

"Be Active — Be Alive" Weekend PITCH AND PUTT FOR ALL

On Saturday and Sunday, September 21 and 22, Dungarvan's Cunnigar Pitch and Putt Club are offering the use of their club facilities at Quann's completely free to members of the general public who wish to try out one of this country's fastest growing sports. The ever increasing popularity of the game is due to the fact that it can be played and enjoyed by both young and old alike whether for competitive or relaxation motives.

Dan Crotty, Secretary of the Cunnigar Club, was approached by Co. Waterford VEC's Youth and Sports

Committee with a view to making pitch and putt a primary focus of the forthcoming "Be Active, Be Alive" Weekend on September 21 and 22.

The Dungarvan Club enthusiastically replied, offering full use of their facilities for the Sports Weekend. Coaching will be available and for those of you without the basic equipment required — golf clubs, putters, etc. — the Cunnigar Club will rent these to you for the day. Everyone is welcome, so come along and pitch in.

Abbeyside Scout Notes

100 YEARS SCHOOLING

For over sixty years our scouts have been coming to us first from the Primary School at the Pond and later from the present school at Sheares Street.

This weekend the school celebrates 100 years of its existence with "a do" in Lawlor's Hotel on Friday night and a photographic exhibition, etc., at the school on Saturday. We send congratulations to all involved in organising both events and send best wishes to all former teachers and pupils of both schools, wherever they may be.

FEILE '91

No, I'm not talking about Thurles but rather Mt. Melleray where the now annual Feile na nGasog takes place on the first weekend of next month when teams from all parts of Ireland will be competing against other scout teams for the title of All-Ireland champions of football, squash, basketball, etc. To this end some of last week's meeting was taken up with practising our play with musicians like Conor Mooney, Eamonn Veale and Brian McNamara coming under the spotlight. Indeed all the scouts seemed to be in voice, that's Annual Camp campfire singing for you! On Sunday afternoon we had football and basketball training and indeed we would like to thank the Friary College for the use of their facilities and also John Whelan for coaching the basketballers.

PARADE

Last week's monthly church parade which is as much a part of scouting as the Saturday night meeting, was badly attended and as the Scout Leader explained this will have to improve a lot over the coming months.

CONGRATULATIONS

To scout Derek Hayes who did so well in gaining a gold medal at the recent Community Games held in Mosney. Watch out Carl Lewis! — Scribe.

Waterford and Avonmore Co-ops Abandon Merger Plans

Merger talks designed to form Ireland's largest food and dairying company have been abandoned by the parties involved, Avonmore Foods and Waterford Foods, according to a joint statement issued by both sides last Thursday.

The year-long discussions, which were only formally confirmed back in May, were terminated "by mutual agreement," according to both companies.

The two also unfurled much better first-half trading results last Thursday.

Waterford's pre-tax profits beat market expectations by doubling to £7.7 million, but Avonmore's were just a shade down on expectations — despite showing a solid 30% rise to £6.6 million.

In a joint statement, the two groups said the talks were undertaken "within an amicable and positive framework," but that it had not proved possible to achieve the shared aspiration of a 50/50 merger.

The statement said "...it has been found that a merger on this basis would not be possible at this time."

This implies that the stumbling block was one of evaluation — one company or both of them placing a value on their business which the other could not accept.

This may have been the key element, but industry sources suggest that a clash of cultures was probably a factor.

"Both companies have very different management styles," was how one food analyst saw it yesterday.

"Avonmore is headed up by a strong leader (Pat O'Neill) supported by a closely-knit team, whereas Waterford is more a collection of strong individuals under Stephen O'Connor."

Knitting the two styles together was clearly impossible.

The I.D.A. said it was "disappointed" with the decision.

The Authority is keen to bring the country's foods groups together so as to achieve the scale necessary to compete more effectively in the food markets of Europe.

Merging would have created a group with sales of £1 billion, annual profits of more than £30 million and, arguably, the prospect of wringing out considerable savings, while at the same time affording the enlarged group the critical mass to do larger deals.

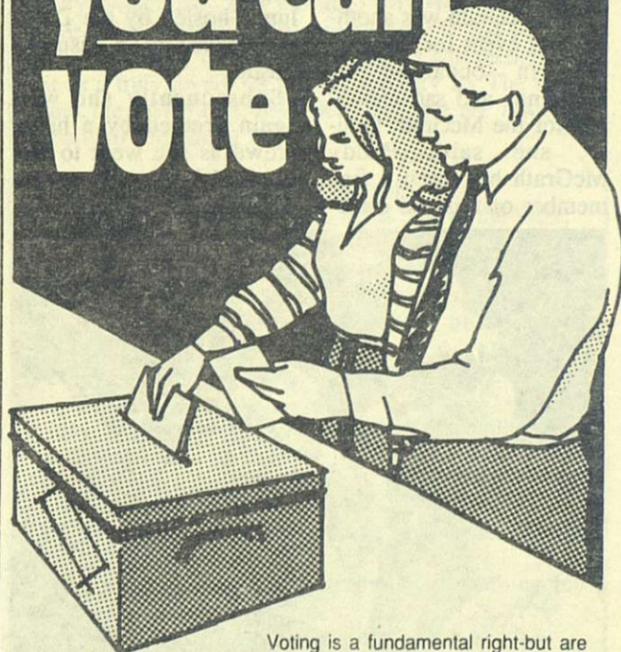

Both companies have said that they will continue to work together.

Motorist Fined And Banned At Tallow Court

A motorist was fined £150 and banned from driving for 18 months at Tallow District Court last Friday.

got after a little coaxing, a commitment from the boys that they would in the future support the girls in their sporting activities.

Martina Hayes, whose letter the President admitted had been the factor which finally decided her to visit the College, then presented Mrs. Robinson with a piece of Ring Crystal which Fr. Moran said was a fine example of the craftsmanship of Iar Dheise.

The President then made a tour of the pitch meeting the students, people and finally the College staff before departing.

AT CAPPOQUIN

A huge crowd including all the schoolchildren, scouts and guides in the town and district had gathered outside the Boathouse when she arrived in Cappoquin to make a presentation to the Murray Brothers, Pat and Milo and to launch a new boat to commemorate the late Paddy McGrath.

Mr. Billy O'Donoghue, Club President welcomed President Robinson and her party to Cappoquin and she then presented gold watches to Pat and Milo Murray who had won the Elite Coxless Pairs Irish Championship and the Home International Championship. She congratulated both as outstanding oarsmen who had brought honour to Cappoquin and to Ireland.

The launching of the new boat to bear the name of Paddy McGrath was another great event for the club but an occasion of poignancy and sad memories for the McGrath family, she said. Paddy McGrath had been a fine member of this old established rowing club who had died tragically but his name would now be honoured by this fine rowing boat for generations to come.

Martina Hayes presenting President Robinson with a Criostal na Rinne bowl with Rev. Fr. P. Moran, O.S.A., Headmaster to mark her visit to the Augustinian College in Dungarvan

Cllr. Nora Flynn then presented Mrs. Robinson with a gold writing pen and Helen McGrath, daughter of the late Paddy McGrath presented her with a bouquet of flowers.

LUNCH AT LISMORE CASTLE

The President and her entourage then motored on to Lismore where she had lunch hosted by the Duke of Devonshire in Lismore Castle.

Subsequently she was again greeted by a huge crowd as she went to the Public Library where she declared the West Waterford Heritage Week officially opened and unveiled a bust of the great scientist Robert Boyle, the tercentenary of whose death is celebrated this year, in Lismore Library.

In addition to the President, speakers here included Mr. D. Brady, Co. Librarian, Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager, Cllr. W. McDonnell, Chairman Co. Council and Mr. J. Roche, Chairman Town Commissioners.

TALLOW WAS FINAL STOP

The Presidential motorcade then travelled on to Tallow via Glencairn Abbey and as in each of the other occasions throughout the day, Mrs. Robinson was vociferously greeted by a huge crowd when she arrived in the Brideside Town.

There she was greeted and welcomed formally by Ms. Helen McCarthy, Chairwoman Tallow Enterprise Group who explained that President Robinson had come to unveil a work completed by an international group of sculptors who had been involved in the International Sculpture Workshop at the Tallow Enterprise Centre since August 25.

The sculpture which stands at the junction of the Square and Chapel Street has as its motif — horses — which Mrs. McCarthy said would signify to outsiders what Tallow was all about in one word — horses — and particularly Tallow Horse Fair which took place annually on September 3 and was now reputed to be the oldest fair of its kind in Ireland.

President Robinson praised the work of the Enterprise Centre which she said was undoubtedly a great asset to the town.

Cllr. W. McDonnell, Chairman of Waterford County Council, Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager and Mr. Bernard Mortell, Co-ordinator of the Sculpture Workshop also addressed the crowd and Mrs. Robinson was presented with a locally crafted basket full of locally produced produce before descending from the platform to unveil the sculpture.

Thus ended a very full and extremely busy day in the life of our President who very evidently showed that she really enjoyed her first official visit to the Deise.

Gardai under Supt. Ray McAndrew, Dungarvan were in charge of security and traffic arrangements at all the venues.

KILL NOTES

ST. MARY'S G.A.A.

Last Saturday afternoon, September 14, our U-12 footballers took on Dunhill/Fenor in the championship on a wet and windy day in Kill. Our lads adapted much better to the conditions and played some nice football to win yet again. It was a great team effort from the young ones and if they continue to play like this again, we have a great chance of winning this competition.

Final score — St. Mary's

3-11 Dunhill/Fenor 2-0.

KILL HARRIERS

Last weekend saw the start of the cub hunting season, when Master Mike Power and Whipper-In Geraldine Power brought the pack on their first outing this year. Afterwards, both Mike and Geraldine were happy with the day and the plentiful supply of foxes. This is a good omen for the rest of the season and we hope it's another exciting and enjoyable year with the harriers.

Salmon Fishing Season Draws To A Close

Readers may or may not be aware that the salmon fishing season draws to a close on Monday, September 30. Blackwater Lodge in Upper Ballyduff is very involved with salmon fishing, bringing in many anglers from all parts of the world to fish the Munster Blackwater. In order to celebrate the closing of the season, the Lodge has organised a special music weekend, and there will be live bands playing at the Lodge for the three nights over the weekend to give the fishing season a good send-off.

On Friday, September 27, Dungarvan duo Phoenix are featured, with their own brand of folk-rock and traditional. Saturday, Sept. 28 sees Lismore father and son duo the Bowery Boys in the spotlight for a traditional music night and on Sunday Lan Stad from Dungarvan make their debut appearance at the Lodge. Impromptu guest appearances will certainly include Lodge proprietor Ian Powell on guitar and vocals, and hopefully Scafold ("Lily the Pink" fame) guitarist and vocalist Mike Young, who is hoping to come over from England for the last few days of the fishing season.

During the winter season, the Lodge Lounge Bar will remain open every night, with the A La Carte Restaurant open from Wednesday to Sunday nights and for Sunday lunch, and the Friday music nights will be continuing. Local lovers of good food and a convivial atmosphere are finally discovering the Lodge, so if you want a table on a weekend or for Sunday lunch, you would be well advised to book in advance. Contact the Lodge on 058/60235.

President Robinson congratulates Nicola Carroll, Bridge Cottage, Clonea on winning 2 gold medals and one silver in this year's Special Olympics when she visited the Augustinian College, Dungarvan, last Tuesday.

PENSMAN Takes You . . . Behind The SPOTLIGHT

THE FAILURE OF CO-OPS MERGER TALKS

Commenting on the failure of merger talks between Waterford Foods and Avonmore last week, the IDA which had played a major role in getting the giant dairy groups to the negotiating table in the first instance said that the formation of three super co-ops in the country was as relevant now as it ever was.

It was on Wednesday morning of last week that the eventful decision was reached when the financial advisers to both groups met in the IDA headquarters at Wilton Terrace in Dublin to set valuation terms for the merger. A suggestion of a 60/40 split in favour of Waterford was put forward and although this was merely a bargaining position it was accepted that the gap between the sides was too great to bridge and the meeting ended on that note.

The parties met again in Clonmel early on Thursday morning but although the Waterford side made several suggestions in an effort to revive the plan again, the position could not be retrieved.

IDA Manager of the Food and Agribusiness Division, Michael Duffy, under whose chairmanship the merger negotiations took place described the failure of the talks as a "lost opportunity" not just for the two companies but for the country. He said that in deciding not to merge, Waterford and Avonmore had bucked the E.C. trend where there is growing fear among food groups double the size of Waterford and Avonmore combined that they are not big enough to withstand the Europe of post 1992.

But while the failure of the merger talks was accepted with dismay and great disappointment in many influential quarters, the news was greeted with a certain amount of relief among the middle management and general workforce of Waterford Foods where it was felt that the merger would have had its greatest affect in job losses. Many of the business firms in Dungarvan were also not sorry about the breakdown as such job losses would further hit the economy of the town and district which, at present, is far from good.

District Officer of the A.T. & G.W. Union, Tony Mansfield referred to this when, commenting on the abandonment of the merger plan, he said that if the headquarters of Waterford Foods was moved from Dungarvan, as it would be if the merger talks had been successfully concluded, he could not see the IDA being able to replace the type of jobs that would be lost. "That," said Mr. Mansfield, "would have been a major body blow for Dungarvan."

Following the announcement of the failure of the Waterford-Avonmore talks, rumours have begun to circulate that an alternative merger deal with the giant Cork Co-op, Golden Vale, is under discussion but a Waterford spokesman stated on Friday last that they had no plans to pursue further merger talks. "There is no foundation for suggesting Waterford are in discussion with Golden Vale or anyone else," he stressed. And so that's how matters stand as of now.

BEWARE OF UNSCRUPULOUS MONEYLENDERS

A case at a recent sitting of the District Court in Waterford City has focussed attention on the exorbitant interest charges which many people, unfortunate enough to fall into the hands of unscrupulous moneylenders, have to pay. The case concerned the application by a man in the moneylending business for the renewal of his licence.

The application was opposed by the Garda Authorities on the basis that in effect the moneylender charged a total of 64 per cent interest per annum as he included a 25 per cent collection fee on top of the 39 per cent legal maximum permitted. The moneylender admitted that this was so but his solicitor stated that he had charged the additional 25 per cent collection fee on the assumption that it was lawful and that he understood this was standard practice among moneylenders.

It was only when the moneylender gave an undertaking to the Court that he would cease charging the collection fee and that he would refund all money collected by way of service charges and where there were clients who could not be contacted he would make a contribution in kind to the St. Vincent de Paul that the Court granted the renewal of the licence.

We welcome and applaud this decision by the Court and hope that all concerned will take due note of it.

An article in the current issue of the Abbeyside Parish News under the title "A Perspective On Moneylending" also deals with the problems which many people encounter when they deal with door-to-door salesmen who offer loans. It points out that the St. Vincent de Paul Society encounters many people who have problems repaying debts and is endeavouring to help them through the Loan Guarantee Fund. This is a fund setup by the Department of Social Welfare and operated by the Society.

The article points out that most moneylending problems are caused by poor understanding on the part of the borrowers who take on loans without checking on the full cost. It then gives a number of examples, one of which shows that a £100 borrowed for 50 weeks from a door-to-door loan group calls for a total repayment of £156.50 while the repayment on the same amount borrowed over a similar period from a Credit Union would be £105.94. That's a very great difference.

The article then states that the best advice the St. Vincent de Paul Society can give to people is to save up the money needed in the first instance but if they have to borrow, then to go to their Credit Union. Never borrow or buy from door-to-door salesmen without checking out a few things such as, how much would the item cost in the local shops, find out the cost of the item at the door and what the sum total of the repayments will come to and if there is a collection fee.

Anyone who may be in difficulties with a moneylender at present is then advised to contact the local St. Vincent de Paul Society or Credit Union. This is good advice which we whole-heartedly recommend to anyone unfortunate enough to have to deal with moneylenders who charge excessive interest rates.

A WINNER IN GREECE

Fermoy song-writer and musician Brian O'Reilly and his band, Loudest Whisper, who had been selected to represent Ireland, did us proud when in face of competition from band and singers from all over Europe he won the Salonika International Song Contest in Greece last Sunday in front of an audience of 7,000.

Brian is due to perform in Lismore with the Lismore Youth Choir in concert on Friday night as part of the West Waterford Heritage Week. Without doubt he will receive a very warm welcome from his great number of friends and supporters.

WHO WAS SARAH PURSER?

On the week-end September 26-29 next, Dungarvan Museum Society have organised a four-day programme of events to commemorate Sarah Purser (1848-1943). We can understand the curiosity this will arouse among readers who are bound to ask who was Sarah Purser and what were her associations with Dungarvan. We must acknowledge our own ignorance of this lady's existence until we got the Museum Society's brochure for the occasion in which the C.V. of Sarah Henrietta Purser is recorded.

Sarah was the daughter of Benjamin and Ann Purser who came to live in Dungarvan early in 1848. They lived in Abbeyside and later leased the house called "The Hermitage" in Abbeyside. Benjamin who had previous experience in brewing was involved in several brewing ventures in Dungarvan and in 1860 he opened a brewery on the site of the present Waterford Foods complex. He was also a corn merchant, miller and baker with a bakery located in Lower Main Street. He had a store in Carbery's Lane and leased Colligan Mill from Lord Cremorne.

Sarah was born on March 22, 1848 in Kingstown (now Dunlaire) where her mother happened to be on a visit. They returned to Dungarvan where Sarah spent the first 25 years of her life. At the age of thirteen, she and her sister were sent to school in Switzerland where she started to take up painting.

Nothing is known about her work until 1872 when she exhibited some of her work in the Royal Hibernian Academy. In 1873 her father's business collapsed and the family had to leave Dungarvan and went to Dublin where Sarah attended classes at the Dublin School of Art. She went to Paris in 1878 where she attended the Academic Julian and six months later returned to Dublin where she subsequently became a leading light in artistic and literary circles. She continued to be an influential figure in the world of modern art in Dublin where she died in 1943 at the great age of 95 years.

Beautiful City

The accepted anthem for all Corkonians, especially those who live in Cork City is, of course, "The Banks Of My Own Lovely Lee." But an equally beautiful song which is not as popular is "Beautiful City" which has, as a sub-title, "My Home By The Lee." We have chosen this then for our ballad corner this week fully convinced that readers will recognise it as a truly lovely song about the City By The Lee and the love for it which Cork people are always ready to sing about.

I have sought to discover a haven of rest,
Where the sun sinks by night in the land of the West;
I have dwelt with the red man in green forest bowers,
Or the wild-rolling prairie, bespangled with flowers;
I have hied to the north, where the hardy pine grows,
'Mid the wolf and the bear and the bleak winter snows;

I have roamed through all climates, but none could I see

Like the green hills of Cork and my home by the Lee,
Beautiful city, beautiful city,
Beautiful city, pride of the Lee.

I have slumber'd in palm-groves by clear running streams,
And the wild groves of Blarney come haunting my dreams;

I have listened to bells on the soft summer wind,
But the sweet Bells of Shandon were dear to my mind;

I have mixed in gay dances my sorrow to hide,
But there's none like the maiden that's now by my side,

There is nought in the land of the slave or the free,
Like the green hills of Cork and my home by the Lee.
Beautiful city, beautiful city,
Beautiful city, pride of the Lee.

The bold feudal castle looks down on the Rhine,
That flows through the land of the olive and vine;
There's freedom and health in the fresh mountain breeze,

That careers round the home of the brave Tyrolese;
There is beauty and love in all spots of the earth
To the heart that can call it the land of its birth,
But of all the fair countries, the dearest to me
Are the green hills of Cork and my home by the Lee,
Beautiful city, beautiful city,
Beautiful city, pride of the Lee.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

ROAD SAFETY

In recent weeks three miles of the Cappoquin/Dungarvan Road in the Afane area has been resurfaced. Nobody could complain about the road itself, it is well nigh perfect for all traffic. During the work it was necessary to raise the sides by as much as a foot in places. This left a step onto the grass margin which can be dangerous. We know of at least two motorists who have had the under side of their vehicles damaged when a wheel dropped over the edge. One lady driver who was a tourist had to obtain assistance from the A.A. to get her car back on the road. She had, in fact, pulled over a little to far too allow oncoming traffic to get by. She was extremely distressed by her experience and couldn't understand how a busy road could be left in such a condition. If it is difficult for motorists, pedestrians use it at their peril. The high speed traffic often forces walkers to take refuge on the grass margins, now they have this step to contend with adding to the risk of injury. This problem will have to be tackled, and soon, by whoever is responsible. In the meantime we urge everybody using this stretch of road to be extra careful.

LATE MICHAEL PHELAN

The death took place on Tuesday of last week of Michael Phelan, Shanbally, Cappoquin. Mick as he was more usually known was the last surviving member of a very well known and respected local family. For many years he was employed on the staff of Knockmeal Co-op where he was held in high esteem by management and customers alike. People who supplied milk to the Co-op Creamery will remember him as a dedicated person who was most efficient and helpful always.

His remains were removed to Modeligo Church on Wednesday evening. He was laid to rest on Thursday morning in the adjoining cemetery following Requiem Mass which was celebrated by Very Rev. Fr. Barron, P.P., Modeligo assisted by Rev. Fr. Purcell, C.C. and Rev. Fr. Lloyd, C.C., Cappoquin.

Sincere sympathy is extended to his sorrowing son, nephew, nieces and other relatives. May he rest in peace.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Who was the composer, singer, musician and Irish language teacher who lived in Castle Street? Answer next week.

Answer to last week's question — Legend has it that it was a road which ran from Cashel to Lismore passing through parts of Cappoquin Parish.

HERITAGE

In recent times much has been said and written about the restoration of old buildings and bringing them back to their former state. At Crinnaughtane there is a bridge which allows a small stream to pass under the road. The parapets of the bridge were built of cut stone and were, in fact, a local landmark. A few years ago one of the walls was damaged in an accident, it was rebuilt by Waterford Co. Council who finished it off with a cement cap. There was no such cap on the original. The other wall is now completely overgrown and in fact cannot be seen even on close inspection. What a pity that financial constraints or whatever, prevent the County Council from maintaining such places. Maybe now with the renewed interest in stone structures this little bridge might be saved from extinction.

CAN IT BE TRUE?

Recently we listened to a discussion between people — who usually know about such things — on the theory that the River Blackwater did not always flow from Cappoquin to Youghal where it joined the sea. It was pointed out that there are deposits of sand between the towns with no explanation as to where they came from. There were many other pointers which must be left for another time!

CAPPOQUIN/AFFANE G.A.A. NOTES

U-21 Footballers Beaten — Gaeltacht 2-7 Affane 0-7 — Our hopes of an under-21 football Western title were well and truly dashed in Dungarvan last Saturday when a very fit and strong Gaeltacht outfit ran out convincing winners over a very much off-colour Affane team. We all held great expectations for this under-21 team but once again they flattered only to deceive. It was another lethargic display — waiting for things to happen. Finals are not won waiting for the ball to fall into your hands — they are won by getting in where it hurts to win possession and a fervent will to win. Our opponents looked the more hungrier side and played like a team that wanted to win while we seemed to adopt that lackadaisical attitude. Our display was a major disappointment to our club and supporters who deserve better performances from our teams.

Of course, as we have pointed out almost weekly throughout the season, players have not prepared properly for games — turning up when they felt like to and letting fitness levels fall drastically. Players attitudes most certainly have to change if we are to produce a title winning side. Many of our players will want to forget last Sunday's game as quickly as possible. In truth only Martin Reddy and Sean Costin played up to standard.

Team — C. Cullinane, L. Lacey, M. Reddy, K. Wilkinson, S. Costin, J. Buckley, D. Cullinane, G. Morrissey, T. Fives, P. J. Veale, R. Flynn, D. Cummins, C. Barry, T. Murphy, C. Prendergast. Subs. — K. O'Donnell, K. Mason.

U-16 Footballers Unlucky — Abbeyside 2-14 Affane 3-7 — Our U-16 footballers though beaten by Abbeyside last week were glorious in defeat. Slow starters as always we fell behind to a series of great Abbeyside scores but were those lads going to cave in completely — not on your life — they fought back gallantly and were unlucky not to overhaul our more fancied opponents. But as in the county hurling final, that bit of luck deserted us, that separates a win from a defeat. Undoubtedly there is a touch of "Meath" about this under 16 squad — whoever they play they will battle away right to the end. Well done, you need not be despondent — all ye young lads have been a ray of sunshine in a very drab season.

We certainly hope this team repeats their form in their remaining matches, but please don't give the opposition 1-7 of a head start again.

Outstanding form was displayed by Frank McLoughlin with great assistance from Jason Fleming, Paul McLoughlin and Ray Curran.

Team — B. Whelan, C. Scanlan, B. McCarthy, E. Murphy, B. Cullinane, J. Fleming, E. Hickey, F. McLoughlin, K. Cahill, B. Tobin, P. McLoughlin, J. Quann, J. Fenton, R. Curran, C. Gleeson. Subs. — F. Cotter, N. Maher.

Dungarvan will be our next opponents in this competition. This game is down for decision this week.

Non-Stop Draw — We hope all our promoters have all our supporters canvassed for our forthcoming non-stop draw which begins this Friday night. Cards and cash to be turned in to committee meeting in McLoughlin's on this Friday night. It is important that we make a success out of this fundraising venture and that can only be achieved by the full co-operation of everyone. So let's get these cards full. Every name garnered will help to alleviate our debts.

Wedding Bells — Wedding bells are still ringing within our club. The latest club member to reach the altar was James "Gossie" Mason, who married the lovely Margaret Costin from Affane recently. Both families have given tremendous loyalty to our club down the years. "Gossie" and "Mag" are valued club members and we wish them both a lifetime of happiness together.

County Semi-Final — Next Sunday we stage the replay of the county senior hurling semi-final. A special meeting will be held tonight (Wednesday) at 9 p.m. to finalise arrangements. Committee members are requested to be at the Sportsfield at 12.30 on Sunday.

CAPPOQUIN SOCCER CLUB

Tavern Cup Final — A new name will go on the Tavern Cup this year, Bride View fully deserved their win. They saw off a determined early challenge by Cappoquin, took control of midfield and took the lead after thirty minutes. The goal came from a corner kick, the ball was pushed low to the edge of the box where Murphy struck an unstoppable shot. From then on all the pressure came from Bride View.

They kept the Cappoquin defence under constant pressure with excellent first time football. The second goal, an o.g., came midway through the second half, again the ball was pushed in low behind the Cappoquin defence, Mike Morrissey running back tried to cut out the ball but only succeeded in putting the ball in his own net. The game ran out with Bride View holding onto their two goal advantage.

The club would like to thank Mike O'Brien of the Tavern, who has sponsored this tournament for nine years. Also Jim Wall who gave us the use of his land at very short notice; and a word of thanks to the referees who helped us run off the tournament.

The trophies were presented at the Tavern Bar where "Speedie" Hogan was awarded the "man of the match."

All member are reminded that their Seaview Celtic tickets should now be getting back to the treasurer.

The Tony Bolger League Cup starts this weekend, our "B" side play away to Youghal and our "A" side have a local derby game against Affane. All games kick-off at 11.30 a.m.

CAPPOQUIN RUGBY FOOTBALL CLUB NOTES

On Saturday last representative honours again came the way of Cappoquin Rugby Club when Liam Lannon, the club coach this season playing in the colours of the famed Garryowen Club lined out at prop. forward for the Munster Senior team which played London Division. Liam had a great game and all the club wish him well in his quest for future honours. This is the second time that he was capped for Munster Senior team. He was also capped three times for the Munster Junior team when playing with Cappoquin.

G.A.A.

Minor Football — Our minor footballers had a magnificent victory over Abbeyside in the Western A semi-final in Stradbally last Saturday afternoon with the final score being 4-8 to 2-3 in our favour. We got off to a splendid start with two quick points and when Niall O'Connor scored a great goal soon after it gave us a five point cushion with only 15 minutes played.

Although we only scored one more point before the break, we still had a lead of four points, 1-3 to 0-2.

One minute into the second half, Pdraig Veale fisted a crucial goal which gave us a commanding seven point lead at that stage. Two more goals from Niall O'Connor and Willie Cusack saw us win in the end by eleven points.

This was a great team performance with every one of the lads playing very well and hopefully we will be able to play the same way in the Western final.

Team — P. Barry, B. Maguire, B. Lennon, O. Fennell, M. Kiely, D. Mulhearn, K. Cotter, G. Dee (0-1), K. Lonergan, R. Hayes, N. O'Connor (2-3), F. Hogan (0-1), W. Cusack (1-2), P. Veale (1-0), J. Kiely (0-1). Subs — D. Kiely, S. Coffey, V. Harney, O. Fahy, T. Hallahan, K. Hogan.

Under-16 Football — Our under-16 footballers were beaten by St. Olivers in the Western B semi-final in Dungarvan last Monday night, September 16, on the score of 1-10 to 0-6. This was a game in which we never got going against a very big St. Olivers side.

At half time we trailed by 1-7 to 0-2 but in the second half we came more into the game and the lads put over some great points. In the end though St. Olivers ran out winners and it was to be the end to this year's campaign for our very young team with most of them under age again next year.

Team — D. Kiely, B. Maguire, B. Lennon, V. Harney, P. Riordan, O. Fennell (0-1), G. Crotty, K. Hogan, C. Dee (0-3), C. Keating, J. Kiely (0-2), S. Coffey, T. Hallahan, O. Fahey, M. Coffey. Subs — S. Veale, T. O'Reilly, J. Comyn, D. Kirwan, K. Baldwin, F. Curran.

Senior Football — Our senior footballers travelled to Ballyhogue in Wexford last Saturday evening and played a draw on the score of 1-13 to 4-4. Once again this was a valuable workout in preparation for our semi-final clash against Stradbally on Sunday week.

Team — D. Mulhearn, P. Keating, P. Prendergast, T. Prendergast, B. Whelan, M. Fitzgerald, E. Flynn, P. Power, J. Maher (1-6), P. Brazil (0-3), G. Walsh (0-1), B. Kirwan (0-2), J. Dempsey, R. Power (0-1), P. Hayes. Subs — N. Power for B. Whelan, N. O'Connor for P. Power, R. Hahessy for R. Power.

This Saturday evening in Leamybrien at 6.30 p.m. Bishopstown are the visitors with this being our final challenge game before the semi-final.

Jail Sentence For Man Who Terrified Cappoquin Children

Schoolchildren froze in fear on the streets of Cappoquin when they saw a 29-year-old local man approaching, a District Court was told last Friday.

Garda Oliver Croke was giving evidence in a case in which unemployed labourer Charles Cullen, Shanbally, Cappoquin, pleaded guilty at Cappoquin District Court to a charge of indecently assaulting an eight year old girl.

Garda Croke said he and other gardai had spoken to Cullen several times and had warned him about his conduct. "When the schoolchildren see him on the street they freeze. They are terrified of him," he said.

Supt. Ray McAndrew who prosecuted said the incident on April 24 occurred when Cullen went into a shed in the schoolyard and grabbed the little girl and indecently assaulted her. It could have had very serious consequences had not another girl bravely intervened.

The Supt. said Cullen lives near the school, and even though the gardai had been continually advising him to stay out of the schoolyard he hadn't taken the advice.

"He is a cause of great disquiet in the town of Cappoquin," Supt. McAndrew added.

MUST PROTECT PUBLIC

Mr. J. P. Gordon, Solr., said Cullen had a psychiatric history and had been in and out of hospital. However, during the summer when he again went into the schoolyard the Sister in charge had physically admonished him and he had not been back there since. He urged the court to be as lenient as it could with the defendant.

Judge Houghton, however, said his primary duty was to protect the public. He also had before him a psychiatric report which indicated that Cullen had little remorse for what he had done.

The Judge sentenced Cullen to 12 months imprisonment with a recommendation that he receive whatever medical treatment is necessary while in custody.

Recognisances in the defendant's own surety of £100 and one independent surety of £200 were fixed in the event on an appeal.

1970 WALSH CUP REPLAY

There was drama and nostalgia at The Paddock, Portlaw on Saturday evening last when the Portlaw and Kilmacthomas teams which contested the very first final in 1970 lined out for a repeat of that game.

Both sides took time to settle down and a little nervousness showed, but as time went by some brilliant football was played although by half time it was still scoreless.

Both teams rose their game in the second half and the pace got "fast". Portlaw opened the scoring with a good shot from Long and they held this lead until 10 minutes from time when young Battye equalised for Kilmac' with a header, after a good cross from Geoff Kiersey. But with a minute remaining Portlaw grabbed the winner, after a disputed offside decision.

It was a great sporting game and the Kilmac' Veterans Clubs wish to thank Portlaw for their invitation and a re-match is now being rearranged for the near future, although not after another 21 years as rumoured.

KILMACTHOMAS G.A.A. NOTES

Senior Football — Our senior footballers put on their best performance of the season when they overwhelmed a strong Stradbally side by 2-9 to 0-4 in Lemybrien on Thursday night last. This was a real do-or-die effort from all the team and if only they had performed half as well in their early games, things could have been a lot different. But they retain their senior status and can build on this great performance for next year, whilst concentrating on hurling success for the remainder of this season.

Kilmac' team and scorers — Finbar McCarthy, Sean Behan, Johnny Brown, Paddy Drohan, Paddy McGrath, Eddie Rockett, Michael Rockett, Ned Power, Johnno Power (1-0), Joe Joy, Jessie Whelan, Derry Kiely (0-7, man of the match), Tom Joe Power, Tom O'Connell (1-0), Andrew Rockett (0-2).

Junior Hurling Final — At the time these notes were written the Eastern junior hurling final versus Ferrybank is to be played on Saturday, September 21. More details later.

Omitted — Omitted from the list of club members that took part in the Muscular Dystrophy sponsored cycle from Cork to Kilmac' in last week's notes were Ned and John Curran, Hillside Crescent. Sorry about that lads!

How to keep your garden good all year

SEPTEMBER is really summer's final fling and the tidying of faded flowers and preparation for falling leaves sometimes brings questions for gardeners.

Why go to all the trouble of planting bulbs for spring and flowers for summer? Couldn't it be easier?

Maybe you're starting to feel the back pains a little more and hate the thought of more digging to come during the winter months.

The answer is to plant more permanent and evergreen varieties which will keep the garden looking attractive all year round and mean less work.

With a little imagination they could be used as the basis for boxes and baskets which can be simply brightened up with a summer bloom or two in season.

One of the favourites and toughest customers is variegated ivy, which can cascade from a permanent basket, tub or window box yet makes a good bedfellow for a 'crown' or centrepiece of summer bloomers such as begonias.

Aurea is another sturdy plant which cascades, and it would bring a highly attractive golden foliage to baskets and boxes.

Dwarf conifers are excellent labour-savers and the range of varieties on display at the garden centres is quite impressive.

Grouping a half dozen would give an interesting and all-year round feature which could be made even more attractive with some large rocks or a paved border.

If you want some colour amongst them then try planting knots of aubrietia, which will offer a smoky green foliage all year but add pinkish and mauve flowers from spring to early summer.

They are particularly effective if planted on a slope or the edge of a wall to create a cascading effect.

Another alternative is erica or heath, a low-growing shrub which can be mixed in with dwarf conifers and produces white and pink flowers in winter.

If you need proof that a labour-saving perennial/evergreen approach means a garden only of shades of green then try dwarf lavenders or the unusual looking senecios.

The lavenders have a greyish foliage which can provide an excellent contrast to 'standard' green. Of course, you will also get flowers in late summer and not always mauve ones - there are now white, pink and blue varieties.

Unfortunately, senecios are not as sturdy as some of the above mentioned types and can get badly damaged by winter, but they do produce silvery-grey leathery leaves enhanced by daisy-type yellow blooms in June. And they are particularly suited to seaside locations.

Co. Council Motions

Among the large number of Notices of Motion dealt with at the September monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council were the following:

Bridge — Cllr. P. Kenneally moved that the Council make provision in the estimates to build a bridge on the Shanakill Road at Twomilebridge. The motion was seconded by Cllr. B. Kyne.

The Co. Engineer, Mr. J. O'Flynn agreed that a bridge was needed there. He estimated the cost at £5,000 but said that no money was available this year. He would be prepared to consider it for 1992.

Villierstown Water Pipe — Proposed by Cllr. Kenneally and seconded by Cllr. L. Hart, "that provision be made in the estimates to replace the old water pipe leading to houses near Villierstown Quay."

The Co. Engineer said that this would cost £10,000 and again it was a question of funds. He said that they would scour the pipe to clean it and look at the position again next year.

Education Grants — Cllr. B. Kyne moved that the Council ask the Minister for Education to take nett income as the income limit in calculating third level education grants. He said there was a great anomaly in the processing of such grants at present.

The motion was seconded by Cllr. P. Coffey and passed.

Public Toilets — Cllr. Nora Flynn proposed that the Council provide public toilets in Cappoquin. She said that large crowds passed through the town regularly on their way to Melleray and the fact that there were no public toilets in the town was the cause of great embarrassment to visitors.

Cllr. O. Wilkinson seconded the motion.

The Co. Manager, Mr. Hurley asked the Councilors if they would identify a site in the town for public toilets which would be acceptable to everybody.

Abandoned Homes — Cllr. Nora Flynn proposed that the Council compile a register of abandoned homesteads with the aim of acquiring them where owners were willing to sell.

Cllr. Flynn said that there was a big number in Cappoquin and she felt that something should be done about them "as we don't want to leave the fabric of the town fall down around us."

Cllr. W. McDonnell, Chairman, asked for particulars of derelict sites in Tallow, Lismore and Cappoquin and what action the Council proposed to take in the matter.

The Co. Manager said that they were dealing with those matters under the new Derelict Sites Act which was now law. A register of derelict sites was being prepared and this showed 12 in Tallow, 9 in Lismore and 6 in Cappoquin.

He agreed to report progress in the situation to the Council on a quarterly basis.

Chairman's Refusal To Receive Deputation Described As Disgraceful And Unfair

Arising from a request by residents of Caseyville to have a deputation received at the September monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council, the Chairman Cllr. M. O'Riordan said that he had turned down the request because of the length of the agenda to be dealt with at the meeting which was the last to be held before the Annual Conference of Municipal Authorities took place in Dungarvan and in the organisation of which the Council was heavily involved.

Cllr. O'Riordan said that the deputation sought to discuss public lights, roadways and cleaning the right-of-way to Cathal Brugha Place and he felt it was a matter for the Council to first decide whether the deputation should be received.

Cllr. T. Wright described the Chairman's decision to turn down the deputation as disgraceful and showing a total lack of the meaning of democracy.

Cllr. Mary Dixon thought the Chairman's decision had been "a bit unfair." She said that never in the six years she was on the Council had she seen such a request refused. "I think the Caseyville deputation should have been received," she said.

In reply to a query by Cllr. Kyne, the Town Clerk Mr. B. White said that even if the deputation was received the position was that the Council had no money to do any road repairs. Mr. White added that he was not aware that any extra lights were needed in Caseyville either.

The Chairman said he felt there was a need for the Council to have a general policy concerning deputations and thought that the Council members should first be made aware of what was to be discussed before agreeing to receive a deputation.

Cllr. A. Hallahan agreed that it was probably unfair to place the onus of deciding this totally on the Chairman.

The Town Clerk said that under the existing rules, a deputation was to consist of 3 persons and 7 days notice was required prior to that date of the meeting. It was a matter for the Chairman to decide whether to receive or refuse if the agenda for a particular meeting was too heavy.

On the proposal of Cllr. Kyne it was then agreed to receive the Caseyville deputation at the next meeting and that the members be informed in the meantime what was to be discussed.

Mr. John Skehan

The death of John Skehan, Carrigadustra, Kilmeaden, occurred on Tuesday, September 10 at Waterford Regional Hospital. This sad event has grieved the entire community of Ballyduff and its surroundings. When the news came through on Tuesday the neighbourhood was filled with a deep sadness — a young man had been taken in the prime of life. The Parish had been deprived of one of its best loved and popular parishioners.

John, who had only just celebrated his 37th birthday, had been recently enjoying a short period of good health though suffering from a traumatic illness for the past four years which necessitated frequent spells in hospital.

John sadly lost his own father when he was only seventeen years. He gave great strength and support to his mother and became a father figure to the younger members of his family.

Educated in Ballyduff National School and De La Salle College, Waterford, he subsequently managed the family farm at Carrigadustra. He also ran a contracting business until the onset of his illness. During his earlier years he was very active in G.A.A. circles. He was involved in Macra na Feirme and later in the Easter Waterford Dairy Discussion Group. He was also a keen and enthusiastic card player and at some time or another John must have played cards in nearly every community hall in the county.

He was an outstanding husband to Nellie (formerly Nellie Cullinan, Bleantis) and a devoted father to Evelyn. He was an attentive son to his mother Bernie and a great favourite with everybody. His attitude to life was easy going and his friendly and pleasant personality made him a popular neighbour and a wonderful companion. His humanity was unparalleled and he was a friend to everyone young and old. Anyone in need of a kind word or a helping hand was sure of a willing listener in John. He bore his illness patiently and suffered silently and his untimely death leaves his family and particularly his close friends the poorer for his passing. As Father Flynn said in his homily, he achieved so much during his short life.

The removal took place on Wednesday, September 11 to St. Nicholas' Church, Ballyduff amid a large concourse of relatives, friends and neighbours from several parishes and counties. The remains were received and blessed by Fr. Flynn, C.C. assisted by Fr. M. Cullinan, C.C., Fr. P. Ahearne, C.C., Fr. J. Kiely, C.C. and Fr. Doherty, P.P.

The interment took place after concelebrated Mass on Thursday, September 12. The chief celebrant was Fr. Flynn, C.C. and he was assisted by Fr. M. Cullinan, C.C., Fr. P. Ahearne, C.C., Fr. J. Kiely, C.C., Fr. P. Butler, C.C. and Fr. J. Hickey, O.S.A., Fr. J. Condon was also present.

The Liturgy of the Word was read by Catherine Cullinan and Marie Savage. The organist was Mrs. Ann Kavanagh and appropriate hymns were sung by Mrs. Margaret Moore. A guard of honour was provided by Shaw's management and staff and also by various clubs from the locality.

Everyone's sincerest sympathy is extended to his wife Nellie; his daughter Evelyn; his mother Bernie; his brothers Tony and Henry and his sister Marie; his father-in-law Tommy Cullinan, Bleantis, his mother-in-law Kitty Cullinan, Bleantis; his brothers-in-law Patsy Savage, Ardfinnan, Jim Cullinan, Kilbrien and his wife Martina, and Pat Cullinan, Bleantis; his sisters-in-law Bridget Martin, Carrickmacross and her husband Paul, Mary Cullinan, Perth, Australia and her fiancée Peter Chambers and Catherine Cullinan, Clonmel; his nephews James, Thomas, Edmond, Kieran, Keith, Aidan, Kenneth and Alan; his nieces Lisa, Katie and Christine, his uncle, aunts, cousins, relatives and a host of friends.

His labours now are over, may he rest in peace. R.I.P. (Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

Tallow Gets New £80,000 Fire Tender

A new Fire Service Unit for use in Tallow and surrounding areas was handed over and blessed at the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Tallow on Tuesday, September 10. It was part of the upgrading of the fire service in Co. Waterford.

The Chairman of Waterford Co. Council, Cllr. Willie McDonnell, who performed the official handing over said that he was delighted to see Tallow in receipt of such a new unit. The unit is a new de-luxe model costing in excess of £80,000 and is the first of its type in the county. He paid special tribute to Mr. Tony McCarthy, Chief Fire Officer, to Mr. John Power, Station Officer, and to Waterford County Council who saw fit to grant this elaborate new unit in Tallow.

The Chairman also paid tribute to past members of the Tallow Fire Brigade, to the late Frank Prendergast, the late Billy Buckley, to Harry Ronayne and many others who had to work under extremely difficult conditions having to resort at times to pushing the old fire brigade unit. Such days are now gone forever.

Cllr. McDonnell went on to say that the new unit will be in capable hands in Tallow. The present Fire Service Members in Tallow are a young energetic efficient staff having been specially trained under the Chief Fire Officer's instructions. They can be relied upon to do a good job in an hour of need. He made particular mention of the only lady member of the staff namely Angela Allen. Angela has the distinction of being the only member of the Fire Brigade Service in Co. Waterford and will, no doubt prove to be quite as capable as her male counterparts.

He then handed over the keys of the new unit to Mr.

Timmy Flaherty, who has 23 years service with the Tallow Fire Brigade. The other members in Tallow include — John Grey, Michael Delaney, John V. Delaney and Noel Buckley. Very Rev. Fr. Michael Walsh, P.P. then blessed the new fire unit saying he hoped it's services will not be needed but was delighted to know such a super unit was available to us if it was ever required.

Also present were Mr. Brian McNally, Acting Counting Manager, Mr. John O'Flynn, Co. Engineer and Mr. John Shanahan, Second Fire Officer, Mrs. Nora Flynn, M.C.C. and Mr. Ollie Wilkinson, M.C.C.

Refreshments were enjoyed by all following the occasion.

THEY call it the Youngsters' Curse. Doctors have been trying to cure it for decades. Boys get it more than girls and 85 out of every 100 sufferers are aged between 14 and 17.

It is acne. A skin scourge that brings shame and distress to sensitive youngsters — out of all proportion to its seriousness as a disease. For sufferers here's some good news and some bad news.

First, the good news. Acne will cure itself — given time.

In boys it usually burns itself out by the early twenties. In the cases of some girls, though, it can smoulder fitfully on into their thirties.

The bad news is that there's still no simple cure for that disfiguring crop of blackheads and ugly red and white spots on the face, back of the neck, chest and shoulders, which is the commonest skin disease of all.

A big difficulty in coping with acne is the fact that it is all tied up with the emotional crisis period when coming of age sexually.

At puberty, the fatty-wax (sebaceous) glands in the skin — which are in the follicles next to the hair roots that lubricate the skin with the natural oils it needs — undergo a change.

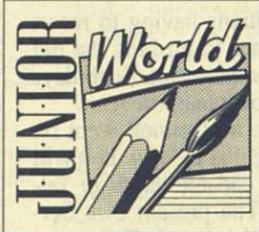

Prodded by an alteration in the body's hormone balance, they grow larger and produce more oil.

BUT ... although the glands get bigger, their outlets do not.

Result: The outlet channels become blocked by an excess of greasy oil (sebum), which creates acne.

Scratching or squeezing

Don't let acne get you down

spots is the commonest way of spreading the unsightly rash. It can also cause permanent scarring.

The reason why spots occur most extensively on the face is that there are more sebaceous glands there.

The first priority of treatment must be to reduce the number of blackheads formed, and to get rid of those which have already developed before they go on to produce the inflammation which causes the spots.

Modern treatment is based on:

REDUCING the over-activity of the grease-producing skin glands.

ATTACKING the bacteria which colonise the skin.

BLOCKING and modifying the processes which cause inflammation.

There is a romantic-sounding pill called Diane. Actually it is a birth control tablet which acts on the hormones and cuts back grease-production. It can be bought only on prescription.

Diane is no good for males, though. To reduce obstinate skin grease, they must rely on the carefully supervised medical use of a group of substances known as retinoids.

The retinoids work by shrivelling the grease-producing sebaceous glands to virtually nothing.

DIY Acne Treatment

KEEP the skin as clean as possible. Medicated soap and lotions may help to stop spots spreading.

ALWAYS use clean flannels and towels.

NEVER pick spots.

AVOID greasy foods.

EAT plenty of fresh fruit, green vegetables and fish.

WASH your hair regularly. A greasy fringe encourages spots on the forehead.

TAKE plenty of exercise. Some doctors think the moisture produced by the sweat glands has a helpful cleansing effect.

Acne experts advise: "Watch your cosmetics". Observe these few simple rules and you can help prevent problems:

DON'T use heavy cold creams. They clog the pores. Clogged pores make fertile soil for spots.

STICK to water-based cosmetics. Oil-based ones can cause acne by acting as irritants.

AVOID moisturisers. Like heavy cold cream, they can clog the face pores.

BRIAN O'REILLY

Brian O'Reilly, the internationally renowned singer from Fermoy is a man who delights in performance. The size of his audience is very much secondary to their appreciation of his music. Proof of that is his presence in Lismore Library next Friday night at 9 p.m. when he goes into concert with Lismore Youth Choir, as part of West Waterford Heritage Week. Two hundred people are the very most that will be present. Compare that with the 7,000 who were present when last weekend he won, for Ireland, the Salonika International Song Contest in Greece with the great Demis Roussos as guest artist — good on ye, Brian!

SYMPATHY

We extend our most sincere sympathy to the Power family, Shrough, on the tragic death of Eoin on Friday last.

LISMORE ATHLETIC CLUB NOTES

A number of our athletes travelled to Butlins for the Community Games All-Ireland finals and as they reached the final stages in Butlins they were just out of the medals. The distance was more than they were used to, but even so, they gave a great account of themselves to go so far.

We would also like to thank the people of Lismore and surrounding districts for such a great church gate collection. Hopefully in the year ahead our athletes will be as good as always. Thanks everyone. — P.R.O.

LISMORE SOCCER CLUB NOTES

It's that time of year again folks, we kick-off with the Tony Bolger Cup on Sunday morning next when we meet our neighbours, Glenview, at the Castle venue.

With seven or eight of our senior panel still very much involved in the senior hurling championship we are very much depending on our younger players to get the show on the road with a win and I'm sure they won't disappoint.

Players are asked to be at the field no later than 11 a.m., kick-off 11.30 a.m.

We would like to wish our team mates involved in the senior hurling semi-final clash with Tallow on Sunday, all the very best of luck from all the lads.

Finally, we extend our deepest sympathy to team mate Frank Power and all his family on the death of a brother and son, Owen, last weekend. May he rest in peace.

BADMINTON CLUB

The annual general meeting of the above club was held at the Hall on September 9. A good crowd attended, though a few familiar faces were missing. After the chairman thanked everyone for coming the meeting got underway. First our never-tiring secretary (Connie) read out the minutes of our last A.G.M., and as nobody questioned these, they were duly signed by the chairman. Next our treasurer's report, as usual our treasurer (Catriona) had all our financial problems in order. She even had a few bob left over for sweets. Then the chairman thanked the secretary, treasurer and committee for the enormous amount of work they did last season.

As in all clubs, we too had our share of problems but with the commitment and co-operation of both players and members, everything ran smoothly. He also thanked the Dean for the use of the hall, as without it we wouldn't have anywhere else to play. Then he reflected on the successful events of last season, with Jo Jo and Brian winning the Anglesey Cup. Rena and her team winning the West Waterford ladies league, our 4th division runners-up in the country league. Pa and Colin bringing Munster honours to the club winning the Munster junior men's doubles. Colin and Mary (Tramore) winning the mixed doubles against Pa and Ann. Pa and Colin on the Waterford team that won the All-Ireland Inter-County Class 1 championship. All-in-all it was a great season and hopefully next season will be better.

The election of officers followed and here is the result:

Chairman — Pa Morrissey; Treasurer — Catriona Fogarty; Secretary — Connie Dowd; P.R.O. — Colin Coleman; Committee — The above with Betty Dowd, Rena O'Brien, Jo Jo Tobin, Mary McGrath.

Fees for the coming season to be paid by October 7.

It was decided at the meeting that we should run a draw to help us with the growing costs of running the club. As this is our first time in ten years we are going to the public for financial help, we are sure it will be a success. So if anyone calls to your door asking you to buy a ticket for the club please do so, it might be another ten years before you get the chance to buy one again. Tickets will be £1 each.

The hall is now opened so we look forward to seeing you all again. We haven't much time to get fit as leagues are starting on October 7. With that the meeting finished.

As it is my first year as P.R.O. for the club, I would like to take this opportunity to wish all clubs the best of luck for the coming season.

LISMORE

Senior Hurling Championship — The eagerly awaited replay against near neighbours Tallow takes place at 3 p.m. on this Sunday at Cappoquin when both sides attempt to resolve the stalemate result of two weeks ago, when Lismore fought back from a five points deficit to draw in the closing minutes and earn another chance to advance to this year's final.

In the interim period that prospect has receded considerably with the news that ace full-forward and

Environment Minister For Dungarvan

Mr. Pdraig Flynn, T.D., Minister for the Environment will be guest of honour at the Conference Dinner of the 78th annual 3-day Conference of the Association of Municipal Authorities of Ireland in the Park Hotel, Dungarvan tonight (Wednesday). The Minister will address the delegates representing City and Urban Councils and Town Commissioners from all over the country who are attending the Conference which commenced on Tuesday and will conclude tomorrow (Thursday).

goal-getter supreme, Sean Daly, is a definite non-starter for Sunday, as a result of a broken hand sustained in training, while brilliant minor Paddy O'Donnell also appears on the injured list to further reduce any options open to the selectors.

This is a cruel blow to our aspirations, coming as it does at a crucial stage in the championship and creates enormous problems for the players and mentors alike. But problems are meant to be overcome and this may well be the spur that's needed to bring out the best in a team who most definitely have the talent and expertise to achieve the ultimate. After that, all is needed is the will to win.

Under-12 Hurling — Lismore's opponents in the Western final will be Dungarvan who beat Abbeyside 2-3 to 2-2 in the second replay on Monday evening.

Congratulations — We take this opportunity to congratulate all the successful candidates who achieved such excellent results in both the Intermediate and Leaving Cert examinations this year and compliment the principal and teachers of Lismore C.B.S. who continue to maintain the tradition of producing brilliant students as well as top-class hurlers.

On Holidays — We are pleased to see Paul O'Donoghue, Parks Road, back amongst us and taking a keen interest in G.A.A. affairs locally. Paul is currently taking "time out" following an assignment in Southern Africa before moving to fresh pastures. We wish him a pleasant stay in our midst and hopefully happy memories to take with him when he moves on.

Sympathy — We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the parents and brothers and relatives of the late Owen Power, whose tragic death occurred last weekend. Ar dheis De go raibh anam dilis.

Correspondent Required For Lismore District

As our regular correspondent in Lismore has decided to relinquish the post for personal reasons we are now seeking a person who will submit some news items from Lismore and district on a weekly basis for publication in the "Leader."

Anyone interested should contact the Editor, "Dungarvan Leader," Dungarvan.

Two Young Ladies Locked Up In The . . . .

Employees of the Leather factory in Dungarvan mounted a rescue operation at the restored King John's Castle at the old Garda Barracks at the Quay, Dungarvan on last Monday evening and saved two young visitors to the town from being locked up in the Castle for the night.

It appears that the two ladies, both in their 30's, are on a visit to Dungarvan from England and paid a visit to the Castle on Monday evening. They were intent on taking photographs and were not aware that the huge entrance gate was closed for the night at 5 p.m.

To their dismay they found themselves locked in when they got to the gate and everyone was gone.

They at once commenced efforts to attract attention to their plight. Fortunately some employees of the nearby leather factory became aware of the situation and with a forklift and ladder mounted a rescue operation which saw the visitors being brought to freedom. Needless to say both were very relieved as they did not at all relish the thought of having to spend the night locked up in the Castle!

Brothers Remanded On Assault Charge

Two brothers were remanded in custody, with consent to bail, when they appeared before Judge G. Haughton at Cappoquin District Court last Friday.

James O'Brien (34) and Michael O'Brien (33), both of no fixed abode, are charged with assaulting Daniel Veale at Crougha, Ardfinnan, Clonmel, on September 11, thereby occasioning him actual bodily harm.

TALLOW NOTES

LATE MR. JAMES TOBIN

It is with deep regret we record the death of Mr. James Tobin formerly The Garage, West Street, Tallow, which sad event took place at his residence Conor Clune Road, Dublin on Sunday, September 8.

Deceased, a native of Tallow, was a member of an old established and respected family. A person who made friends with complete ease by the virtue of his outgoing, sincere nature he was one of the towns most popular inhabitants before moving to Dublin over twenty years ago.

The measure of the esteem and high regard in which he and his family are held was clearly indicated by the representative groups of mourners paying their final respects to a dear friend at the removal on Monday evening last from his residence to Our Lady Help of Christians Church, Navan Road and also at his burial on Tuesday, when he was laid to rest in his native Tallow, a place he loved so well.

James had two great interests in life, Fianna Fail and Tallow G.A.A. Clubs. He gave long service to the Fianna Fail Party both in West Waterford and in Dublin. At the time of his death, he was Hon. Secretary of the Martin Savage Cumann Cabra and Chairman of Dublin Central Comhairle Dail Cheantair. The attendance at the removal from his residence on Monday evening included the Minister for Labour, Bertie Ahearn T.D., Brian Lenihan T.D., Councillors Patrick J. Farry, Tom Stafford and members of the National Executive Jim Hayes, Eamonn Nolan and Sean Sherwin. The Fianna Fail Party were represented at the burial in Tallow by Brendan Kenneally T.D., Ollie Wilkinson M.C.C., Tom Murray and James Tobin who acted as pallbearers with members of the Tallow Cumann.

Mr. Ned Power N.T. on behalf of Tallow G.A.A. gave the oration at the graveside. Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P. Tallow officiated at the burial.

He is survived by his sisters Brigid Hurley, Mary Murphy, Ellen Pegnam, Peggy Mathews and Kitty Tobin, Frankie Syng (sister-in-law), brothers-in-law, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

Sincere sympathy is extended to them on their sad loss. Ar dheis De go raibh a anam dilis.

NED POWER'S ORATION

It would surely be remiss of us if some one of those who knew him well didn't honour the memory of James Tobin, go ndeana Dia trocaire air, now that we have consigned his remains to the earth of his native Tallow. At last he enjoys complete repose after the fever and the fret of this tortuous world.

I know James from my earliest days in Tallow. Even if we didn't move in the same circles then or share a common life pattern I always found him very courteous, not in any voluble or gushing manner, of course, but he never failed with a cheery salute. And aftertimes with a corrosive comment, he would summarise most of the morning's news. He was economical with the English language but he could express himself on any subject most concisely and wittily and pungently. His wry sense of humour I came to appreciate very much.

I only got to know him properly after one Tallow G.A.A. A.G.M. of the early 60's. The appointment of an Hon. Secretary was creating difficulties. Well, you see, nobody wanted the job. After the usual pleading, excuses and refusals, a voice from the body of the hall caused all heads to turn as it announced, "I'll take the job" and up strode James. The G.A.A. was no sudden, new found phenomenon in James's life, of course. He had always maintained a lively and informed interest in the local, county and national scene but it was his first experience of the inner workings of the organisation at grassroots level. The chairman of a club sometimes makes the headlines, often for the wrong reasons, and occasionally enjoys a high profile. The best tribute to a secretary is that the organisation's affairs run smoothly and unobtrusively and James from that moment when he sat at the table and took a biro in his hand, immersed himself in Tallow G.A.A. affairs with such consistency and dedication that it was no coincidence that his tenure of office marked the most successful period of the club's history. If all of this was a lucky break for the club, it was good for James too. It gave his life a new sense of purpose and fulfilment. He loved the games and loved his native place and served both with distinction while holding that important executive position.

When the family eventually removed to Dublin he maintained contact with Tallow and yearned for news from the Bride of how the hurlers and footballers were faring.

His other great interest was politics and for James there was only one party that mattered in public life. He gave Fianna Fail unflinching support throughout his life and never wavered in his allegiance, actively involving himself in Dail Ceantair and Comhairle Ceantair affairs. When he settled at Conor Clune Road, Dublin, he continued to invest much of his time in political affairs and became Chairman of the local Comhairle Ceantair. But then he always had the courage of his convictions as he showed when volunteering to undertake an onerous and unpopular task at the G.A.A. A.G.M. and his progressive national outlook impelled him to make his own modest contribution to his country's welfare.

He was very fortunate in that his dear mother, whom I knew very well, was a woman of great energy and resource and patience and kindness and understanding. This helped tide him over a difficult period of his life. Equally James was very good to her in her declining years. He appreciated very much also how blessed he was to have such a fine supportive family, especially his sisters Brigid and Ellen whose homes were a haven of security and tranquility.

James, a chara, taimid chun slan a fhagail agat. Ta scith agat anois nach raibh i gconai agat ar an saol corrach seo. Taimid buioch diot agus is fada a bheidh cuimhne ort anseo cois Bride imeasc do chairde. Go raibh leaba agat i dteannta do mhuintir ar neamh.

TALLOW ENTERPRISE HOST SUCCESSFUL SCORAIOCHT

The Scoraiocht held in the Enterprise Centre on Friday night last was described by two English tourists from Kent as the highlight of their holiday. The atmosphere, the entertainment and the hospitality were all top class. Full marks to Fear an Tigh, Liam O'Keeffe, who kept the Beamish flowing all night and who ensured the women had their little drop of Portwine and the Marie biscuits. The snuff was also handed round as was traditional. The Melleray Set Dancers were superb, as were all the singers, too numerous to mention and the Seanachies Jim Carrig and Patsy Ahern. Willie Kearney on the "box" had everyone dancing barn dances, military two steps and old time waltzes. Things rested so and all present were having a sup of tay with the currantry cake when in came the Strawboys from Glendine headed by Sean Leahy who took over the organising of the entertainment for the rest of the night. It was a night to remember for all, but especially for the young sculptors from five countries who spent the last three weeks in Tallow. Before the evening ended a presentation of bouquets of flowers were made by the sculptors to Chairman of the Enterprise Group, Mrs. Helen McCarthy and its Secretary, Mrs. Sheila Ryan. To round off the evening Japanese sculptor Yuka Komiyama sang a song in her native tongue and Canadian Karen Watson, who is shortly to wed her Italian sweetheart gave us a song in Italian to end a truly wonderful night.

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

A house to house collection will be taken up on Friday and Saturday, next in aid of the G.A.A. Clubs. Every house in the town and surrounding areas will be visited by members of the club for subscription. As this is one of our means of finance for the year we are hoping that you the public will give generously what you can afford.

On Saturday next we renew rivalry with Lismore in our quest for a place in the senior hurling county final. On Sunday week last the team did not play to their full potential, hopefully we can right that on Sunday next in Cappoquin at 3 p.m. and we are asking our supporters to come along and shout on the lads. We wish everyone the best of luck on Sunday.

Sympathy — At a recent meeting of the Tallow G.A.A. Clubs a vote of sympathy was passed to the Tobin families, Dublin and West Street on their recent sad bereavement. James Tobin R.I.P. was once the very efficient secretary of the club, a position he held for many years. The club paid him full honours at his burial on Tuesday last. Also a minutes silence was observed at the senior hurling championship match, Tallow v. Lismore, when the tricolour was flown at half mast as a mark of respect.

Our sincerest sympathy is extended to his sisters, brothers-in-law, sister-in-law, nephews, nieces, relatives and many friends of the late James, who will be sadly missed by all those who knew him.

Our sincere sympathy to the Power family, Shrough, on their tragic loss on last weekend and from everyone connected with Tallow G.A.A. Club our heartfelt sympathy is extended at this tragic time.

Tosach Maith — Tallow 0-8 Naomh Brid 0-6 — Tallow's U-12 footballers made a good start at Modeligo on Saturday last to edge out Naomh Brid in a very keen contest which saw Tallow come from four points down to finish very strongly. Ten minutes remained, the score 0-5 to 0-1 in favour of the home team with Tallow heading for defeat, it seemed. That self-belief, which Down possessed in abundance on Sunday last, is one quality these boys don't lack, because once the ball went between the post for their first second half score, Tallow went into overdrive and were a completely transformed team for the remainder of the game. Indeed they could have won by more and were unfortunate not to have a penalty awarded when Roy Henley was taken down almost on the goal line.

Scorers — Jason Prescod, James Murray and Barry Power 0-2 each, Roy Henley and Paul Cronin 0-1 each.

TALLOW BADMINTON CLUB NOTES

TALLOW BRIDGE CLUB NOTES

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A. NOTES

Intermediate Hurling League At Ballynoe — Last Sunday morning Youghal hurlers visited Ballynoe to play St. Catherine's in the above competition. The home team made a better impression to run out winners by 5-8 to 2-4.

Referee — Michael Hegarty, Castlelyons.

Catherine's team was — P. Clancy, P. Sullivan, B. Regan, E. Hartnett, M. Hartnett, P. Donoghue, S. Neville, C. Casey, S. Buckley, D. Leary, C. Clancy, M. Mellerick, D. Walsh, K. Barry. Subs. used — James Sheehan, Paddy Ahern.

Junior Hurling League — Watergrasshill v. St. Catherine's — This game in the above competition was played at Ballynoe last Sunday evening in a continuous downpour. It developed into a tough struggle all the way through in slippery condition. The 'Hill' took the lead from the beginning and maintained it for the duration of the hour winning convincingly to take the league points. Michael Hegarty, Castlelyons refereed.

JOHNNY FOLEY, KILLEAGH R.I.P.

The large crowd that assembled at Gurtroe Church and at Clonpriest Graveyard for the funeral of Johnny Foley, Bonofona, Killeagh, last Thursday was indicative of the high esteem in which he was held in the East Cork District. Many former hurlers were there from several clubs in the divisions to form a guard of honour for "Johnny" the "gentle giant" as he was appropriately named. Endowed with fine physique, and playing in turn over the years with teams from Ballymacoda, Gurtroe and Youghal and Imokilly he carved a name for himself as one of the finest centre-field players in the forties and fifties and undoubtedly a real gentleman on and off the pitch. He was a marvellous supporter of gaelic games over a wide area and loved to chat about them always. His interests were many, being a member of the Killeagh Community Council and possessed with a fine singing voice, he was a great asset always to the local choirs, concerts and plays. Never one to boast about his talents, he was ever the unassuming and jovial Johnny Foley, whose memory will live long in our minds.

To his wife Noreen, brother-in-law, sisters-in-law, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends our sincere sympathy is extended. Go dtu-gadh go mbuailimid le cheile leis ar Neamh nios deanai. — J.B.

Fr. Heddigan, C.C., Youghal, celebrated the Requiem Mass, with Fr. Kelleher, C.C., Inch and Fr. Phillip O'Keeffe, C.C., Youghal in attendance and the local choir sung beautifully during Mass.

MARRIED

Congratulations to Pat O'Connor and Karen Gallagher, "The Plough", Curraglass, who were recently married at Glengoura Church. Pat was a well-known horse rider in his younger days having much successes at Point-to-Point meetings, while Karen endowed with excellent singing voice has participated in several shows and concerts over the years. Guimid Rath De is Muire ortha sa todhchai.

NEW GARDA

Our best wishes also go out to Michael Dineen, son of Mattie and the late Maura Dineen, who having completed his training at the Garda Depot in Templemore, has been assigned to Mountjoy Station where he commences duty this week, and well-known Inch girl, Eileen McGrath, who is presently undergoing her training in Templemore. Go n-eiri an t-adh leo.

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. NOTES

SENIORS MEET NIRE

All is known at last. Yes, the Nire will be our opponents in the senior football semi-final. Last Saturday evening they finished far too strong for St. Saviours to clinch their semi-final place and on the evidence of their showing against the city side, we have it all to do.

We understand the semi-final will go ahead on Sunday week next at a venue yet to be appointed.

SEVEN-A-SIDE

Last weekend our footballers travelled to Dublin where they took part in the Kilmacud Crokes sponsored national seven-a-side competition. This style of competition was new to the lads and despite playing some tremendous football they failed to reach the semi-finals.

Still, it was an enjoyable weekend for the lads and we would like to thank our hosts for their kind invitation. Also we thank all who helped sponsor our trip!

The winners were Bryonsford (Down) making it a great weekend for the county.

UNDER-12'S WIN

THRILLER

Dungarvan 2-3

Abbeyside 2-2

Following another thrilling game of hurling, our U-12 side just pipped Abbeyside and so qualified for the final of this competition where they will meet old rival, Lismore.

We led 2-3 to 1-1 at the break and early in the second half we missed a number of easy scores before the expected fight-back from the Village came in the 11th minute when a well-taken free hit the net. A point followed and the final minutes saw Abbey-side apply tremendous pressure. However, our defence stood firm and we held the day on this occasion.

Our thanks to the Abbey-side Club who, as always, had everything in tip-top order for the game.

Team — D. O'Shea, J. Flynn, B. Ahearne, C. Byrne, E. Sheridan, D. Morrissey, B. Shanahan, A. Harty, C. Hayes, M. Fitzgerald, J. Burke, M. Power, S. Flynn, M. Power, D. Kelleher.

OFF TO ROME

Congratulations to Miss Patricia Beresford, Stephen's Street, who has gone to Rome to take up employment with the E.E.C. Patricia is a sister of club player, Ger Beresford.

FIELD WORK

Work on our new training field continues to show progress. Last weekend the re-seeding was completed and all that's needed now is some rain, some sunshine, some rain, some . . . .!

GATE DUTY

Club members have been very busy recently as gate-men for both Divisional and County Boards. Well done lads — Keep up the good work.

MINOR FINAL

The way is now clear for the Western football final. Our opponents will be Kilmrossanty who defeated Abbeyside last weekend in the play-off. A date for the final will be known this weekend.

Notai C.L.G. An tSean Phobail

The results of the Progressive 45 card drive in the Marine Bar last Wednesday night were — on 11 games, P. Burke and T. Carey. The jackpot is £200 on 13 games.

Last Friday evening our under-16s played Shamrocks in the semi-final of the Western Under-16 Football Championship. This game was changed from Cappoquin to Clashmore. It took us a while to settle down and Shamrocks started off with two good points. Then we got a grip on the game and got in some good ball to the forwards and the scores started to come. We got some very good scores from L. O Cuirrin and G. O Harta and led well at half time. The final score was An Gaeltacht 4-8, Shamrocks 3-3.

The team was: D. Mac Giolla Chuda, S. Mac An Oige, E. de Faioite, L. O Floinn, R. Fionnagain, S. Uada, L. O Muiri, M. Ceitinn (0-1), E. de Paor, C. O Cuirrin, T. O Cuirrin (0-1), L. Last Saturday afternoon our under-21 football team played Affane in the Western final at Dungarvan. It was a bad day for the forwards and scores were hard to get and all the points were scored from frees. The final score was: An Gaeltacht 2-7, Affane 0-7.

The team was: S. Ceitinn, S. O Cuirrin, B. de Paor, D. O Foghlu, D. O Drochain, H. de Bheal, M. O Cuirrin, E. O Cuirrin (Capt.) (0-7), A. O Suilleabhain, P. Breathnach, E. O Crotaigh (1-0), T. Next Saturday evening we play Ardmore in the final of the Terry Cup in Pairc Ui Cholmain at 6 p.m. sharp. — Miceal Toibin, PRO.

Primary Schools G.A.A.

The Annual General Meeting of the West Waterford Primary Schools Board will be held on Monday night next, September 23 at 8 p.m. in Dungarvan C.B.S.

The draws and fixtures for the schools football competition will be made at Monday night's meeting.

RED HOUSE LEAGUE — TONY BOLGER CUP

Sunday Is D-Day For All Clubs

Yes, it's the big kick-off for all Red House League teams on Sunday next when the season kicks-offs with The Tony Bolger Cup. The biggest number of teams (seventeen) ever to enter the competition will get the season underway. The draw was made last week at The Red House Bar and is as follows:

Section A — Mogeely, Pinewood Rangers, Cappoquin "A" and Affane.

Section B — Araglen, Inch, Youghal and Cappoquin "B".

Section C — Modeligo, Grange, Lismore and Glenview.

Section D — Piltown, Ballyduff, Ardmore, Bride View and Valley Rangers.

FIXTURES

Wednesday, Sept. 18 — Bride View United v. Piltown, kick-off 6.30 p.m.

Sunday, Sept. 22 — Mogeely v. Pinewood Rangers, 2.30 p.m.; Cappoquin v. Affane, 11.30 a.m.; Araglen v. Inch, 11.30 a.m.; Youghal v. Cappoquin "B", 11.30 a.m.; Modeligo v. Grange, 11.30 a.m.; Lismore v. Glenview, 11.30 a.m.; Piltown v. Ballyduff, 2.30 p.m.; Bride View United v. Valley Rangers, 11.30 a.m.

SECTION A

This section should see Cappoquin "A" and Affane fighting it out for the top position. However, Pinewood and Mogeely will be no pushovers.

SECTION B

This should prove to be an interesting section. Newcomers Araglen will be anxious to do well, Inch will be fancying their chances, especially after a good run in The Tavern Cup. Cappoquin "B" will be anxious to prove themselves, but if one is to pick the winners it could be the seaisiders from East Cork namely, Youghal, who could advance.

SECTION C

At first glance one would have to go for Lismore, but much will depend on how their senior hurlers progress. This could be a very inexperienced side and if so, Modeligo, Grange and Glenview will fancy themselves to do well.

SECTION D

The big game here will be the local derby of neighbours Ballyduff and Bride View. The winners of this game could top the section. However, Ardmore Piltown and Valley Rangers will be in with a shout.

RESULT

Ballyduff 1

Ardmore 0

The opening game of the season took place in Ballyduff on Sunday morning last with the home side getting the points. The home-side were made fight all the way by Ardmore. The first half finished scoreless.

The first real chance fell to Ardmore when they were awarded a penalty in the 65th minute, but they failed to convert it. Going into the final quarter and a draw looking on the cards, Pat Ryan grabbed the only score in the 78th minute from close range to give victory to the homeside.

A good number of fans turned up for this opening game and Ballyduff will now be hoping to advance from their section.

N.B. — P.R.O.'s all results to 058/56324 before 7.30 on Sunday evenings.

BRIDE VIEW UNITED A.F.C. NOTES

TAVERN CUP FINAL

UNITED LIFT THE TAVERN CUP

CAPPOQUIN 0 BRIDE VIEW UNITED 2

What a great start to the soccer season for United when they lifted the Tavern Cup for the first time.

The opening period was closely fought but the break United wanted fell to Pat Murphy. Cappoquin's defence failed to clear the ball and Murphy volleyed the ball from 25 yards to put the Tallow side in front, a lead they held till the break.

Eight minutes into the second half, a Paul McDonnell cross was blasted to the Cappoquin net by one of their own defenders trying to cut out McDonnell's cross. This was the turning point of the game. United played some nice football after this even though Cappoquin went close on two occasions. Seamus O'Brien played well in goal while his defence of McDonnell, M. Ahearne, I. McIntosh and D. Doyle kept the Cappoquin forwards under tight control. United's midfield of J. P. Grey, G. Hogan and P. Murphy played their part in containing the Cappoquin lads. Up front G. Henley, S. Ahearne and D. Flaherty played well and with a bit of luck could have increased United's two goal victory.

Bride View — S.O'Brien, P. McDonnell, M. Ahearne, I. McIntosh, D. Doyle, G. Hogan, J. P. Grey, P. Murphy, G. Henley, S. Ahearne, D. Flaherty. Res. — L. Ahearne (used); G. Henley, S. Lyons, J. Fitzgerald.

Presentation — The presentation of the cup and trophies took place in the Tavern Bar, much to the delight of United's players and supporters. David Doyle was United's captain and thanked the Cappoquin Club and the Tavern Bar for inviting United into the tournament.

Man of the Match — This award went to Gerard Hogan of United. We believe there were three of United's players in the running but Gerard "Speedy" Hogan just about deserved it. In receiving the award Speedy said he accepted it on behalf of the squad. Well done Speedy.

On behalf of the club well done to all concerned, especially manager Milo Ahearne and his assistant Michael Henley. Let's hope it's the first of many trophies to come this season.

Sympathy — The club extend its deepest sympathy to the Sweeney family of Woodview and West Street. Also to the O'Brien family of West Street on the sad passing of Mrs. Sweeney.

Congratulations — To all our underage players in their exams this year. A crowd of geniuses we have. Well done lads.

Fixtures — (Tony Bolger Cup): Wednesday, Sept. 18 — Bride View United v. Piltown, kick-off 6.30 p.m.; Sunday, Sept. 21 — Bride View v. Valley Rangers, kick-off 11.30 a.m.

Best Wishes — To all the lads playing in the senior hurling championship replay against Lismore. Go to it lads.

Seaview Celtic Co-op Draw — Tickets are now on sale from club members. The price is still the same, £20 for 4 months. We again appeal to our supporters and friends to support this draw.

Last Chance For Alcoholic At Tallow Court

Remanding Paul Coughlan, Lisfinny, Tallow, on bail at Tallow District Court last Friday, Judge Haughton directed that the defendant admit himself to an alcoholic treatment centre and remain there for not less than 30 days, and that he also attend for any further alcohol treatment that may be deemed necessary.

Coughlan has been barred from consuming alcohol or from entering any licensed premises while the court case is still pending, and he must adhere to a nightly curfew under which he is to remain in the family home between the hours of 9 p.m. and 8 a.m.

Coughlan was convicted of burglary from a local store on August 22 last and taking a van which he and his accomplice drove to Dublin and abandoned.

The court heard that last July Coughlan had been convicted of a number of other offences including forgery and burglary. He was given a suspended three months sentence on the undertaking that he would receive treatment for his alcoholism.

After the defendant's father made a plea for his son, Coughlan told Judge Haughton that he would now submit himself for treatment if given a chance.

"I have reached the stage where I would do anything for drink, even rob," the defendant said.

Remanding Coughlan on his own bail to Lismore Court on October 2, Judge Haughton told him that if he is in breach of any of the conditions of his bail he will be sentenced to 12 months detention.

"It is your last chance," the Judge said.

DUNGARVAN UNITED A.F.C. NOTES

SYMPATHY

Our very sincere sympathy is extended to Paddy Prendergast on the recent death of his sister in Tralee. Paddy is a regular visitor to Kilrush Park when in Dungarvan.

400 DRAW

The second draw in our 400 confined members draw is just over a week away and all indications are that it will be another outstanding success. Promoters are reminded to have their cards and money in on Thursday, September 26 between 8.30 p.m. and 10 p.m. so as to give our co-ordinating committee every opportunity to have everything in order for the draw. Subscription is £5 per month, and for that you will be helping us continue to upgrade and improve our grounds for the youth of the area.

CONGRATS

Speaking of youths, congratulations to all our schoolboy players on their excellent Inter Cert results, which were announced last week. Keep up the good work lads.

THANKS

Dungarvan United are indebted to Mr. James Farrell & Sons, Meat Wholesalers, Thomastown, Co. Kilkenny, for their kind sponsorship of a match ball recently. Also to Kieran Foley for his efforts.

BON VOYAGE

We say bon voyage to Miss Jane Richardson, who returned to England last week after her stay amongst us. Jane was a great supporter of United during her stay in Dungarvan and she is also joint holder of this year's Voice of Dungarvan. We wish Jane all the best for the future and hope she will be back among us again soon.

Hat-Trick For Micheal Downey

DUNGARVAN 6 JOHNVILLE 1

Our Under-16 team recorded a comprehensive victory over city side Johnville at Kilrush Park on Saturday afternoon last.

Jason Hyslop gave the Blues the lead after 5 minutes when he chipped the outrushing keeper. Minutes later Johnville equalised. Micheal Downey scored a fine goal to put us 2-1 ahead with 15 minute gone. There was no further score before half time.

Feature of the second half was the completion of Micheal Downey's hat-trick. Micheal Downey and Aidan Landers also added goals to set the Blues in the right frame of mind for their S.F.A.I. Cup game versus Tramore Rangers at Kilrush Park on Saturday next, kick-off 2.30 p.m.

Training on Fri. at 5 p.m.

Dungarvan — M. Cummins, B. Cliffe, D. Wall, M. Hyslop, R. Finnegan, B. Elstead, J. Hyslop, T. Kiely, M. Donnelly, M. Downey, A. Landers. Res. — M. Lynch, M. French, T. O'Mahoney.

Dungarvan S.A.C. Notes

The deadly duo, Damien Dillon and Joe Lavan, crushed the opposition last Sunday, coming in 225 points ahead of their nearest rivals. Joe, fresh from his win in the Yoplait, combined with Damien and gave an exhibition of fishing which augurs well for their trip to Gambia in November where it is possible to catch everything except fish! We hope their 'shots' won't have any side effects though Damien was seen to be a little pukey after the yellow fever one.

George and Kathleen are also proving a great combination and with the Tipp match out of the way Kathleen was able to concentrate and really showed us how to do it.

Results: 1, Damien Dillon and Joe Lavan 510 points; 2, Justin McCarthy and Dan McCarthy 285 points; 3, Kathleen Young and George Young 260 points.

Cormac Walsh of 'Gone Fishin' sponsored the competition and presented the prizes. Our thanks to Cormac for his very generous sponsorship.

The Fish for all Day Medal was won by Damien Dillon with a score of 300 points and when asked, refused to reveal the set up of his secret trace. Wonder how many hooks it's got?

Maurice McGrath again won the skipper's prize in the Barbara Ann and did so without any deepening of the channel. Nice.

On Sunday last, September 15, our Captain, Brendan O'Kennedy, presented his prize to the ladies. We would like to thank Brendan for his magnificent prize which was very much appreciated by all the ladies.

Due to the inclement weather the scramble was cancelled. A most enjoyable putting competition was held instead. This proved most successful. Winner, K. O'Brien (32) 46 pts.; runner-up, B. # International Football Review

With the final qualifying match in Euro '92 to take place on December 22 next, last week saw the return to international football for the home countries.

FAROE ISLANDS 0 NORTHERN IRELAND 5

A Colin Clark hat-trick meant Billy Bingham held onto his job, at least until after the championship. Either way Yugoslavia look the qualifier from Group 4.

SWITZERLAND 2 SCOTLAND 2

Scotland's self destruct tendencies continue with Andy Roxborough's job on the line with his side 2-0 down at half time. A goal two minutes into the second half by Gordon Durie of Spurs opened the door for the Scots who won a vital point when Ally McCoist pounced on a Durie rebound to equalise. A slugging match between manager Roxborough and his defender Gough who withdrew from the panel with an injury didn't add anything to what was a very close call for Scotland. Romania who play host to Scotland in October and Switzerland in November have a big say in who qualifies from Group 2.

WALES 1 BRAZIL 0

In recent years Wales have taken the example of the Republic of Ireland in trying to improve their football fortunes. Fresh from a great 1-0 victory over Germany in the championship proper in June, they continued their use of the Cardiff Arms Park with its new floodlighting system to account for a disappointing Brazil with a second half Dean Saunders goal.

While some pundits may agree that Wales can qualify from Group 5, Germany's home game on October 16 against the Welsh will be crucial to see who qualifies. Wales play bottom of the group, Luxembourg, in November but I still feel Germany will continue their great record of qualifying for European and World Cup finals, even though at the present Wales seem to be in the driving seat.

ENGLAND 0 GERMANY 1

Graham Taylor's first defeat as English manager was a strange game to analyse, were England unlucky or did Germany deserve their victory thanks to Karl Heinz Riedle's goal.

England were short some regulars and once again Garry Pallister of Man. United did not have an impressive return to international football. The German midfield of Matthaeus, Thon and Hassler were impressive with Batty of Leeds finding the move from Leeds to international football just too much. David Platt, the £5 million signing to Bari, had a strange game. Unlucky not to convert one of three great chances created by his late runs, he still failed to anchor the English midfield. With calls to reinstate Bryan Robson, Graham Taylor must hope the injury problems allow the return of Walker and the suspended Pearce. For Germany it was their third victory at Wembley and the only comfort for Wales could be German goalkeeper Bocio Illgner. Illgner made some great saves, one in particular from a Platt header, but he looked anything but comfortable under the cross ball. Hope for Wales? — maybe, but with any team that can afford to use Juergen Klinsmann as a reserve? I have my doubts!

HUNGARY 1 REPUBLIC OF IRELAND 2

By all accounts there was more mosquitoes than spectators when Ireland faced Hungary in Gyor last Wednesday. The home side trying to restore its football standing riddled by scandals of bribery used the game to prepare for their away trip to the U.S.S.R. on September 25. Ireland we all know have to win 2 away games and hope for a slip up by England, more realistically against Poland on November 13.

Short amongst others, McGrath, Townsend, Staunton and Whelan, Ireland proved once again that they can play to a pattern and ended a series of drawn games. Interestingly, only Whelan out with ligament damage, was the only one of the 4 not to be playing club football on Saturday. Was it coincidence or was Jack Charlton co-operating with clubs with two tough games in mind.

Roy Keane and Terry Phelan came out of the game with enhanced reputations and David Kelly of Leicester City got his 7th goal in 11 internationals. Mick McCarthy still not playing first team football with Millwall had a testing return and was exposed late in the game for Bonner to save well.

Hungary took the lead in the second half, shades of Schillaci in the World Cup, but Kelly equalised almost immediately. Ireland with Houghton, having his best game for some time, capitalised on a mistake by the home keeper for Kevin Sheedy to strike the winner off the crossbar with John Aldridge finishing the ball to the net. For me Sheedy was the scorer, but who could blame Aldridge from claiming a goal for Ireland.

Ray Houghton's display confirmed how much he has benefitted from the close season break. One of the questions to arise from this game is David Kelly's chances of starting against Poland on October 16. Slight and not as defence restricting as Aldridge, his ability to get a strike at goal should get him in the team in my view. Goals are needed against Poland and that makes the case for Kelly. Denis Irwin and Terry Phelan had fine games with Bonner strangely unsure but he redeemed himself with his second half block.

John Sheridan, not as effective as Houghton and Keane, was replaced by Alan McLoughlin in midfield. Up front Aldridge replaced Kelly with Quinn, trying hard but having an unrewarding night. David O'Leary played well with McCarthy, who found his lack of regular football telling.

The question now is how will the Irish manager react to this display. The pattern of play will be the same, and if injuries are cleared McGrath and Townsend are sure to get back, but Whelan has to prove his fitness yet. Charlton is slow to change his pattern of play but he must now consider changes to get goals and the two games to come against Poland on Oct. 16 and Turkey on Nov. 13 will test Charlton and his selection to the full.

UNDERAGE RUGBY AT DUNGARVAN

The news that underage rugby is to be re-launched in Dungarvan after a lapse of some years, will be greeted with great enthusiasm within the club. It is planned to get this scheme off the ground by forming our U-18 team to compete in local competitions.

This move is seen as central to the continued success of Dungarvan Rugby Club and it is expected that the body of the membership, particularly ex-players who have gained so much from the game, will put their weight behind the project.

As we are starting with an U-18 team, youths between the ages of fifteen and eighteen — who wish to learn the skills of the game, are welcome along to the club where expert coaching will be given. Coaching will take place on Saturdays and a commencement date will be announced in the coming week. Watch this space.

TOUR

All those travelling with our tour party to Scotland should note that final payments must be made within the next week. Monies should be paid directly to Court Travel.

FIXTURES

Sunday, September 22 — 1st XV league v. Waterford City at Ballyrandle.

CUNNIGAR PITCH & PUTT CLUB NOTES

The shorter evenings brings me to a request from our Grounds Committee, who as you know are doing a marvellous job in keeping the course in its excellent condition. Their request is simply — if you have an hour or so to spare any evening, between 5 p.m. and dusk or any time of the day for that matter, just have a chat with Paddy O'Neill in the Clubhouse and he will put you in touch with the Grounds Committee.

On Sunday we had the 27 Hole Stroke Tournament sponsored by Radley's. The results were — (Gents) 1st

John Power; 2nd Pat Tutty; 3rd Morrie Ferncombe. (Ladies) 1st Patricia O'Regan; 2nd Margaret Condon. Vincent Tobin was our best juvenile.

Congratulations to one and all.

Next Sunday we are holding the David Walsh tournament which you will remember was originally scheduled for July 13/14 but had to be postponed. The Tournament Committee request that names be in before 7 p.m. on Thursday and the draw will take place immediately after.

These days the town is hosting an annual conference of representatives of Municipal Authorities of Ireland and knowing full well that all conference and no play makes a dull day we are pleased to welcome the delegates, their wives and friends to the course.

Next weekend, of course, sees our practical participation in "Be Active, Be Alive" Week with Cospoir (see separate item).

Now for one of our occasional old movie quizzes — What was the name of the movie in which the song "September in the Rain" was featured." — TOVID.

STRADBALLY G.A.A. NOTES

U-12 FOOTBALL V. KILROSSANTY

On this Saturday evening, September 19, our under-12 footballers open their championship campaign when they play neighbours Kilrossanty in the field at 6.30 p.m. There's no better way to open your campaign than against our old rivals Kilrossanty and a great game is assured here.

The Reds have trained hard for this game and it will come as no surprise if we get off to a winning start.

SENIORS

OUTCLASSED

In what must be described as one of the poorest games ever played by a Reds senior team was witnessed last week in the championship when Kilmac' ran out the easiest of winners on the score of 2-9 to 0-4 at Leamybrien. One could not go close to describing the game as there was only one team in it the whole time.

The fault for this game lies straight with the players and nobody else. They never raised their game, their attitude was nil, their determination was zero and that is one thing always the Cove Club had in every grade. It just will not do players, a mighty change is needed before all is lost.

DETERMINED

MINORS BOW OUT

Our minor footballers are out of this year's championship after putting up one of their best displays in a long time in this grade and with any bit of luck could now be in the final. Naomh Brid were firm favourites going into this game but a determined Reds side fought all the way, a fact which the club was proud of and with all the panel being available next year the team should make good progress.

Team was: K. Cunningham, T. Walsh, E. Clancy, A. Keane, F. Gough, P. Foley, M. Barnes, W. Drohan, G. Walsh, A. Curran, O. Costelloe, L. Barrett, S. Cunningham, J. McGrath, P. Casey.

CREDIT TO

TRAINERS AND SELECTORS

Full credit must go to our trainers and selectors who have worked hard with the minor panel. Certainly Kieran Heffernan, Noel Costelloe and Tom Foley and our two ladies, Bridget Clancy and Pauline Barnes deserve great credit for their work.

OLIVIA CROWNED "STRADBALLY ROSE"

Amid great excitement on Friday night last, Olivia Curran, Seafield, was crowned Stradbally Rose for 1991 after she was picked from six contestants who were all interviewed by the judges on stage. We congratulate Olivia on her success. She will carry the crown for a year and will now go forward for the Waterford Rose of Tralee contest next year. Olivia received her sash, bouquet of flowers plus a voucher.

Best wishes Olivia and also many thanks to the other contestants who performed very well and also to our judges for coming along and making it a success.

FANCY DRESS SUCCESS

The Fancy Dress proved a huge success in the village. It was led by the pipe band who played some excellent tunes and really got the weekend off to a great start.

Results of the fancy dress: Best overall, Rose and Flower of Stradbally, Sharon Cunningham and Emer Cunningham; Most original, 1, "Miley and Dinney Are Back With Denise" — Grainne Quinlan and Mandy Brown with Mary Quinlan as Baby Denise; 2, "Charlie Chaplin" — Eoin Brown; Funniest — 1, "Week On, Weak Off" — Kerry-Ann Weldon; 2, "The Local Poacher" — Linda O'Mahoney.

BICYCLE RACE

Under-10 — 1, Stephen Lawlor; 2, Pamela Condon; Under-12 — 1, Brian Curran; 2, Helen McCarthy; Under-14, Boys — 1, Michael McCarthy; 2, Trevor Costelloe; Girls Under-14 — 1, Fionnuala Barrett; 2, Sinead Cunningham; Boys Under-16 — 1, Michael Carey; 2, Michael McCarthy; Girls Under-16 — 1, Tracey Kett; 2, Helen McCarthy.

LADIES FOOTBALL

Clonea-Power were the winners of the ladies football game, sponsored by Norris Brothers, Englishtown. Both teams were presented with plaques and medals by Mrs. Marian Morrissey who represented Norris Brothers. The club are indeed grateful for the sponsorship. Many thanks to everybody. The referee was well known Kilrossanty man, Tony Coffey.

BEAUTIFUL PRESENTATION

The club were presented with the 1939 team photo (lost final) last Friday night at a function in the Social Centre. The presentation was made by Mr. Edward (Eddie) Phelan. This team photo is unique as it contains many players who were involved in the famous five-in-a-row and who did not have any photos taken.

Among this particular group of players was Eddie's brother Bob Phelan who was the youngest player that year — 19 years of age. He died two years later while serving as an RAF Pilot.

The club would like to thank Eddie and his family for this lovely gesture which helps to preserve a piece of history for the club.

PATTERN MASS

The Pattern Mass took place on Monday evening last in the Social Centre. The celebrant was Rev. Fr. Butler, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C. The Folk choir sang some beautiful hymns during Mass. This Mass was offered up for the deceased members of the club and was attended by a very large crowd. Everything was laid out beautifully by the ladies committee. Thanks to everybody who helped in any way.

CLUB WINNERS OF TUG-O-WAR

The club were the winners of the tug-o-war which comprised of Dick Clancy, Pat Fennell, Paddy Joe Carey, Liam Hogan, Mick Carroll, with Richard Hickey as coach. Full credit to Raymond O'Reilly's team and Whelan's team who put up a great pull for getting their team ready.

Full report on rest of Pattern events next week.

SEMI-FINAL V. KILROSSANTY

On Sunday week, September 29, our senior footballers play Kilrossanty in the county semi-final in Dungarvan. This is a game that can go either way but with the Reds recent display they will have to step up considerably if they are to have any chance in this semi-final.

There is no doubt that Trainer-Coach Sean Ahearn with fellow selectors Jim Skehan and Richard Hickey will do their utmost to win this game — but it will all depend on the players when it comes to the crunch.

Prize winners in the Dungarvan Golf Club's President's (Barry Foley) Prize Competition. The first prize winner was Pat McGovern (seated centre). Also included are President, Barry Foley and Captain, Brendan O'Kennedy. (Rory Wyley)

COUNTY BOARD MEETING

One of the big surprises at Monday night's meeting of the Senior Board was the decision to hold the annual county convention in December rather than in January, which has been the practice for more than half a century.

The decision, which was unanimous, was proposed by Timmy O'Keeffe, Clashmore, who had previously submitted notice of motion. This will mean that the Divisional Conventions must be held in November and that the dates of the juvenile conventions must also be brought forward. The idea behind the decision is to give the respective Boards more time to get the championships organised in the new year.

FINANCE

The meeting was presided over by Frankie Cullinane, County Chairman, who gave an in-depth account of the financial state of the Board. There followed a long discussion on many matters relating to finance and development, but the Chairman advised that it would be unwise to make any firm decisions in these matters until after the officers had further discussion with the Munster Council on the question of grants and loans.

REPLAY

The replay of the county intermediate hurling quarter-final against St. Mary's takes place on this Saturday evening in the Fraher Field at 5.45 p.m.

Our performance in the drawn game was disappointing to say the least and we will have to step up quite considerably on that display if we want to progress to the semi-finals.

MINORS GO OUT

In what could also be described as a disappointing display the minor footballers were defeated by Kilrossanty by 4-7 to 2-3 in the Western semi-final in Stradbally on Saturday afternoon last.

U-16'S WIN

The Under-16 footballers got their campaign off to a winning start on Tuesday evening week when they defeated Affane.

INADVERTENTLY OMITTED

We inadvertently omitted the name of Dermot Walsh from our minor hurling line-up last week, sincere apologies Dermot.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Brilliant Kilmacthomas Shock Stradbally

KILMACTHOMAS 2-9 STRADBALLY 0-4

[By "Commentator"]

This was a delightful display of fast intelligent football by outsiders, Kilmac', who certainly played their very best football of the season when accounting for hot favourites Stradbally at Leamybrien venue on Thursday evening last.

Stradbally were forced to field without Kieran Hefernan, Conor O'Brien and Tom Gough, but were nevertheless confident that they would maintain their unbeaten run since last year's county final in which they were pipped by Dungarvan.

Kilmac' were already out of contention for a place in the knock-out stages but were trying to make sure of not being involved in a relegation play-off. A win or a draw here would avoid this situation, but it became obvious from the start that nothing less than an outright win would satisfy them here. They played great football and won decisively and deservedly and were so much in control at one stage that they made it look like copybook stuff, the way they were handling and moving the ball. They will now surely rue their many defeats after discovering that when put to the test, they can play this well.

Nothing seemed to have gone right for Stradbally after the first fifteen minutes and in the second half they were completely outplayed until the final minutes when Kilmac' seemed to have run out of steam. For Stradbally it was the kind of performance that made many of the Kilrossanty team in the attendance go home smiling, they meet in the county semi-final.

SCORING

Derry Kiely opened for Kilmac' with a pointed free in the 6th minute and six minutes later they were level when Eoin O'Brien converted a free. Stradbally took the lead for the first and only time when Liam O'Brien had the first score of the game from play in the 19th minute, but less than two minutes later full forward Tom O'Connell got his fist to a long ball kicked in by Derry Kiely and Kilmacthomas went in front to remain their till the end. Derry Kiely pointed another free, but Pat Curran brought one back for Stradbally in the 23rd minute. Stradbally were to go another 36 minutes without a score until Weldon pointed in the 59th minute.

Coming up to half-time Derry Kiely had two further points, one kicked from a sideline ball almost 50 yards out from goal. John Power ended the first half scoring with a very fine goal to leave the score 2-4 to 0-3 at the break.

On the turnover Andy Rockett and Derry Kiely added points and the next two points came from the same two players. Kiely made it 2-9 to 0-3 in the 26th minute and the scoring ended in the 39th minute with a very well directed Stradbally point by Noelle Weldon.

As far as the winners were concerned, it was a great team effort but players like Jessie Whelan, John and Ned Power, Eddie and Andy Rockett and Tom Browne, were very prominent throughout. It is sad for Kilmac' that they won't have a chance of a repeat performance as they are now out for the year.

For Stradbally it will be a game that they will want to forget as nothing seemed to have gone right for them on the night. Here overconfidence might have been a factor. The winners are now being trained by Rev. Michael Kennedy, former Offaly All-Ireland hurler.

Kilmacthomas — P. McCarthy, S. Roche, T. Browne, P. Drohan, P. McGrath, Ed. Rockett, M. Rockett, N. Power, J. Power, J. Joy, J. Whelan, D. Kiely, T. J. Power, T. O'Connell, A. Rockett.

Stradbally — M. Foley, M. Curran, Jas. Keane, L. Walsh, D. Kirwan, O. Phelan, F. O'Brien, G. Hogan, P. Mullaney, N. Weldon, O. O'Brien, S. Dee, L. O'Brien, P. Curran, P. Halpin.

St. Olivers G.A.A. Notes

Defeat For Footballers In U-21 B Western Final

St. Olivers 0-2, St. Patricks 0-8

We were beaten by St. Patricks in the Western final in the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, last Saturday afternoon in atrocious conditions. After a poor display St. Patricks ran out winners by six points. The rain made a big difference to proceedings and as it was windy as well, conditions were terrible for the final.

The two championships the St. Olivers are still in are the under-16 and under-12 football competitions.

U-16 FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

It was back to the Fraher Field on Monday night, this time it was the u-16 footballers taking part in the Western semi-final against Kilmacthomas. A full report next week. Last week they took on and beat Naomh Brid by 1-8 to 0-4. Roger Ronayne was the goalscorer. He went on a solo run and cracked in a superb individual goal.

St. Olivers — Kieran Cotter, Tomas Curran, Stephen Ronayne, James Tobin, Paul Connery (0-1), Laurence Maher, Michael Walsh, Aidan Aherne (Capt.) (0-5), Roger Ronayne (1-0), Kenneth Stack, Brendan Mernin (0-2), Tholm Keane, Michael Murray, Alan Ronayne, Donncha Tobin. Subs — Mikey Ronayne, Pat O'Donovan, Aidan Mernin, Caimin Radley, James Fletcher, Damien Landers, Anthony Morrissey, Kevin Cotter. Mikey Ronayne came on for Alan Ronayne.

NEXT WEEK-END

Exciting Fare Predicted For All Four Hurling Replays

Now that all eight teams involved in replays over the week-end, have had the benefit of a trial run, we can presume that each will have prepared plans to outmanoeuvre the other in the matter of team tactics and strategy.

Exploiting weaknesses of the opposition which might have been exposed in the drawn match, will feature high up on the agenda of the pre-match team meetings and in a couple of cases where a video was made players will be able to view their costly mistakes.

Extra time will be played if necessary in all the replays, so results are certain in all cases. This means that by Sunday night the pairings for the senior hurling final as well as the intermediate hurling semi-finals, will be known. It is unfortunate that the senior replays had to be fixed for the same time at far apart venues, but patrons won't do all that badly as it will be possible to see both intermediate matches as well as one of the senior semi-finals.

LISMORE v. TALLOW

Although the standard of hurling did not seem to please everyone in the drawn match, very few of the record crowd will want to miss the replay in the expectation that it will be a much better game. Reports from both camps indicate that each will field at full strength, but there could be rearrangement of placings on both sides, depending on how the back-room people in the clubs analyse the performances of the individual players in the drawn match. Speaking to people on both sides, I felt that each is confident of winning. Tallow obviously feel that they should have won the first game, having taken a five points lead at one stage and Lismore can respond to this claim by pointing out that having been able to cut back such a big lead in a low scoring game, they finished much better and should therefore have the capacity to overcome the challenge from Tallow in the replay. The experience of newspaper people who have very many times previewed replays, is that these invariably turn out to be very different from the drawn matches. It is impossible to foretell how much different this replay will be, but I am predicting that we will see many more scores than were registered in the draw. Reflecting on the respective displays, in the immediate aftermath of the game, I felt that an important factor in Lismore's favour on the day, was the absolutely brilliant goal-keeping of Declan Landers, who brought off some remarkable saves. Martin Murphy saved a few cracking shots, as well, in the Tallow goal, but he was not kept as busy as his counterpart at the other end. This may not be a factor on Sunday, but it is a factor in helping me to give the vote to Tallow to win this time. But if I was a gambler, I wouldn't invest a whole lot in the chances of either side. It could be very close again. It could even go to extra-time and on form, both must have a chance.

Cappoquin Club have asked me to request the public to show the same very fine spirit of co-operation that helped to make the management of the fixture in the drawn match, so easy and so successful. In reviewing that game, I overlooked complimenting the Cappoquin Club on the excellent condition of their grounds and for the delightful way in which they organised the arrangements.

MOUNT SION v. ROANMORE

At Cappoquin on Sunday, we hope to have our radios tuned in for news of this tremendously attractive replay at Walsh Park on Sunday and which is being played at the same hour. Both these teams claim to have been unlucky on the first day. Perhaps Mount Sion, who shot a total of eighteen wides as against eleven for Roanmore, have more justified regrets in this regard. Both clubs were represented in large numbers at the game in Cappoquin on the day after and subsequently the view (however justified) was expressed that the winners at Walsh Park, will take the title this year. This might be a foolish assumption, but it will nevertheless be a motivating factor in the performances of the two city teams in this replay.

Supporters in the Eastern side of the county will opt for Walsh Park in the expectation that it will produce a thundering contest, that might also have to go to extra-time.

The feeling of some neutrals, to whom I spoke, is that Mount Sion will come out of this, if they can manage to improve their shooting up front.

Of course, like the semi-final here in the West, it can go either way.

COLLIGAN v. ERIN'S OWN

Hurling people are still talking about the drawn match between Colligan and Erin's Own which was played two weeks ago at the same venue and which saw an amazingly transformed Erin's Own stage one of the greatest comebacks in history when wiping out a fourteen points lead to earn a share of the spoils.

We can be sure that this will be a much different game. Colligan, who must have felt completely confident at half-time took it easy for a while on the turnover and this is something that will not be allowed to happen again, whatever their situation at the interval.

I know that if both teams could play the same good standard of hurling for the full hour, as each played for half an hour, this game would be a classic contest. It will be a match in which patrons will be waiting for things to happen. If Colligan are as good again in the first and not as bad in the second half, they can win this time.

ABBEYSIDE v. ST. MARY'S

Although nine of their eleven scores came from frees, St. Mary's claimed to have been unlucky not to have won the drawn match two weeks ago. Going into the replay, St. Mary's must be warm favourites as Abbeyside will be forced to field without centre-field man Sean "Hiker" McGrath, who will not be available for the game. The club are hopeful that both Pat Walsh and Mark Reynolds who were forced to retire injured the last day, will be fit enough to line out. Should the trio not be available, the result would be a foregone conclusion. Neither side showed their true form in the drawn match and for that reason it was not a great game. Hopefully the story will be different on this occasion as with these sides producing their best, we should have a fine contest.

MELLERARY v. MODELIGO

This is the semi-final of the junior hurling "B" championship and will be played at Cappoquin on Friday evening at 6 p.m.

The winners will play Tourin in the divisional final.

Deserving Win For Gaeltacht

An Gaeltacht 2-7 Affane 0-7

A strong Gaeltacht side who showed great fire and spirit deservedly won this under-21 'A' football final at Fraher Field on Saturday last. Although it was clean and sporting, it was, to a great extent, a foul ridden match with all fourteen points coming from frees. It is probably unique in this championship that not a point came from play over the full hour.

The Gaeltacht team showed greater eagerness and dominated the game for most of the hour but were denied a number of scores by a very resolute Affane defence. The winners will now meet Rathgormack in the county final at Dungarvan on a date to be named.

Gaeltacht — S. Keating, S. Curran, B. de Paor, P. Foley, D. Drohan, H. Veale, M. Curran, A. Sullivan, E. Curran, P. Walsh, E. Crotty, T. Walsh, S. McGrath, B. Mahony, D. O'Connor.

Affane — C. Cullinane, L. Lacey, M. Reddy, K. Wilkinson, S. Costin, J. Buckley, D. Cullinane, T. Fives, G. Morrissey, D. Cummins, R. Flynn, P. J. Veale, C. Prendergast, T. Murphy, C. Barry.

Referee: Roger Casey.

PRESENTATION

The trophy was afterwards presented to An Gaeltacht team captain Martin Curran by Vice-Chairman, Ollie Wilkinson.

SYMPATHY

Our very sincere sympathy is extended to the Walsh family, Lackendarra, on the recent death of their mother, Mrs. Bridget Walsh, who died on Friday evening last. The late Mrs. Walsh was mother of well-known Colligan club members, Paddy and Laurence Walsh, both of whom played with distinction in their club colours over a long period. Paddy is the well-known and very popular Western Board representative on the County Board. May she rest in peace.

Nire Outplay St. Saviours To Qualify For Semi-final

Nire 1-11 Saviours 1-6

A five points winning margin was a fair measure of the Nire's superiority over St. Saviours in this enjoyable and at times exciting play-off match in the senior football championship at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan on Saturday evening last. The result means that we will have an all-Western semi-final programme here on next Sunday week. It is possible that the double-header will be at Dungarvan as the Nire are expected to agree to play the champions, Dungarvan at Fraher Field on the afternoon on which old rivals Kilrossanty and Stradbally clash in their semi-final match.

The very good display by the Nire on Saturday evening will put them strongly into contention for the title. It was without doubt one of their better performances this season, the most praiseworthy feature of which was their ability to stage a comeback when Saviours had reduced their seven points lead to a single point in the 45th minute. It was at this stage when the real pressure was on that the winners showed their true mettle and came back fighting and defending and giving their big number of supporters something to cheer about and something to hope for in the weeks ahead. Saviours played their best football in the third quarter but after a tightening of the Nire defence their impetus weakened again in the final quarter when the winners were supreme.

Nire had four points on the scoreboard, three per Michael Guiry and one from Jackie Hogan by the 14th minute and Saviours did not open their account until Derek Wyse pointed in the 21st. Ger Walsh and Richard Guiry had points to make it six for the Western side and in the 28th minute Tony Corcoran pointed a free to leave it 0-6 to 0-2 at half time.

PRESSURE

On the turn-over Nire put on the pressure and after a fine team movement Ger Walsh set up Michael Guiry for a good goal. Six minutes later Pat Twomey had a goal to bring Saviours back into the game in a big way. There followed three points by Tony Corcoran to leave the score 1-6 to 1-5 in the 45th minute. A great save by Sean Guiry relieved some of the Nire anxiety. Michael Guiry pointed a free and young Owen Wall who had come on as a sub had a fine point in the 51st minute and another was sent over by Richard Guiry two minutes later, but Nire came back with points by Owen Wall and Pat Walsh to leave the final score 1-11 to 1-6.

Nire — S. Guiry, T. Guiry, T. Walsh, D. Hogan, K. Mulcahy, Pat Walsh, D. Phelan, T. Condon, J. Hogan, G. Walsh, Rd. Guiry, P. Walsh, P. Cooney, Ml. Guiry, P. J. Mulcahy. Sub. O. Wall for P. Cooney.

St. Saviours — F. Ryan, L. Walsh, A. Power, P. Thompson, L. Quilty, M. Corcoran, B. Brophy, T. Corcoran, Ml. O'Brien, D. Wyse, L. Daniels, O. Hartery, M. Keating, M. Boyle, P. Twomey. Sub. A. Greene for M. Keating.

Referee: Tomas O Meachair, An Rinn.

All-Ireland Final

It was a fine game and an occasion to remember when Down took the Sam McGuire back up North for their first time in 23 years. It was probably the most colourful spectacle that we have ever seen at Croke Park, and played in a wonderful atmosphere and in bright sunshine it is one that patrons will not forget in a long time.

Several hundred supporters travelled up from Waterford and there were divided loyalties. Very few tickets were on sale on the streets.

ANN LISA CROTTY

She was the young lady who got our name on the Croke Park programme on Sunday last and having seen her name we watched her play in the Girls Football in the I.N.T.O. Mini-Sevens which was staged during the interval.

Ann, who is a pupil in Ballymacarby School was a member of the team wearing the Meath colours of green and gold. We don't get a mention very often on the All-Ireland programme, so well done Ann.

Munster Championship Draws 1992

The open draw in Munster will now apply to both hurling and football for the coming season and Waterford can feel a certain amount of satisfaction at the result of the draws which were made on Wednesday night last.

The Scoring Chart

With the league section of both football and hurling championships now completed, we publish the total scoring charts for both. These do not include matches played at the knock-out stages. These will be published later. The teams are placed in the order of scoring totals. Because there were seven teams in Group "A" and only six in Group "B" of the Senior Hurling Championship, we publish them separately. Again this is for the league section and the further details will be given before the county final.

Surprise Win For St. Pats

St. Patricks 0-8, St. Olivers 0-2

This divisional under-21 'B' final, which was played in heavy rain produced something of a surprise result when St. Pats overcame the fancied Olivers in an enjoyable and sportingly contested final. St. Patricks led by 0-5 to 0-2 at half time and this did not look to be a commanding lead, having played with the breeze.

However, they added a further three points while St. Olivers failed to score in the second half. After the game, I learned that St. Pats decision to enter for this championship was a last minute one. It certainly proved to be a worthwhile decision. After the game, Western Vice-Chairman, Ollie Wilkinson presented the Shield to the winning captain, Michael Beresford.

Minor Football Results

KILROSSANTY THROUGH

Kilrossanty 4-7, Abbeyside 2-3

Kilrossanty qualified for the Divisional final when defeating Abbeyside very decisively at Stradbally on Saturday last. The winners who led by 1-3 to 0-2 at the break, were undoubtedly the better team as many of the Abbeyside squad played well below form.

Kilrossanty are now due to play Dungarvan in the Western final on the coming weekend.

NAOMH BRID WIN

Naomh Brid 1-10, Stradbally 1-7

Naomh Brid minor footballers deservedly qualified for the Divisional 'B' final when defeating Stradbally in a very lively and entertaining semi-final game at Dungarvan on Friday evening last. The game reached an exciting point when the losers came within a point of the winners in the second half, but Naomh Brid held on to win.

Referee: Tom Whelan, Ballinacourty.

BIG DAY FOR TENNIS

On Sunday next, September 22, St. Laurence's Tennis Club are proud to host the O'Brien Cup, the most prestigious event on the Munster Tennis Calendar. As it traditional, the event is hosted by the President of Munster Tennis, and this year's presidency is held by Ruth Byrne.

Eight teams have been invited to participate and comprise of all the top players in Munster. Local girl, and senior Munster Inter-Provincial, Judy O'Brien, will play a specially selected President's Team.

To run such a big event costs money and we are delighted to announce that Bank of Ireland, Dungarvan, have agreed to generously sponsor the day. David Walsh, Chairman, St. Laurence's reports that the committee have been hard at work over the past couple of months planning the event and the finishing touches are about to be put in place. Play commences at 10 a.m. in St. Laurence's, so if you want to see top class tennis come out to St. Laurence's on Sunday.

Parachute Jumpers Wanted

Parachute jumpers are wanted for a sponsored parachute jump which will take place at Punchestown on October 19 and 20. St. Carthage's House, Lismore, will be the beneficiary and full details can be had by phoning Jimmy Fitzgerald at 058/54882 or Mary Fenton Morrissey at 058/54611.
