High Prices Not Wardens Cause Of Shopping Decline Says Manager

County Manager Mr. Dan Hurley lashed out at critics of the town's parking regulations and his decision to appoint two traffic wardens at the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council last Monday night. He said that he was appalled when he read the reports of the discussion on the matter at the previous meeting as he felt that they were absolutely detrimental to the town.

The matter was raised by Cllr. B. Kyne who said that it would be as well to identify whether the debate was about the actual traffic regulations or whether one or two wardens were needed.

He suggested as a possible solution that parts of the town centre be pedestrianised using removable bollards. He condemned comments on local radio about the matter and he said he was not convinced that outside shoppers were afraid or were being terrorised to the extent stated. "I think," said Cllr Kyne, "by continuing this debate

Job Creation In West Waterford

At the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held in Dungarvan last Monday, Cllr. W. McDonnell, Chairman said that in regard to his stated interest in job creation in the county as part of his policy as Chairman of the Council he asked the County Manager for a statement on the update position.

Mr. Dan Hurley, Co. Manager said that the situation in regard to the new project being initiated by Flair in Tallow for the manufacture of garden furniture was that it was progressing favourably. Recruitment of a workforce would commence shortly with the expected start-up date in January next.

In regard to Lismore, Mr. Hurley said that under the development of the Heritage Town project they had identified jobs for 24 people in the companies set up within their own development and these would be filled next year. He said that with the County Development Officer, Mr.

Disagreement On Cappoquin Traffic Regulations

The matter of the new traffic regulations introduced in Cappoquin was raised by Cllr. Nora Flynn who stated at the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held in Dungarvan last Monday that a number of traders in the town had voiced objections to them. She asked who was responsible for introducing them and who would now impose them. It was felt generally by the traders in Cappoquin that too many parking spaces had been taken over. She asked for replies to the questions as she wanted to report back to a special meeting of the Traders of the town due to take place on that Monday night.

Cllr. Ollie Wilkinson who originally raised the matter at a previous meeting took issue with Cllr. Flynn and said that he had not received as much as one single complaint about the single yellow-lines which had been placed at Main Street. There was only one small problem and that was for shoppers at the nearby supermarket.

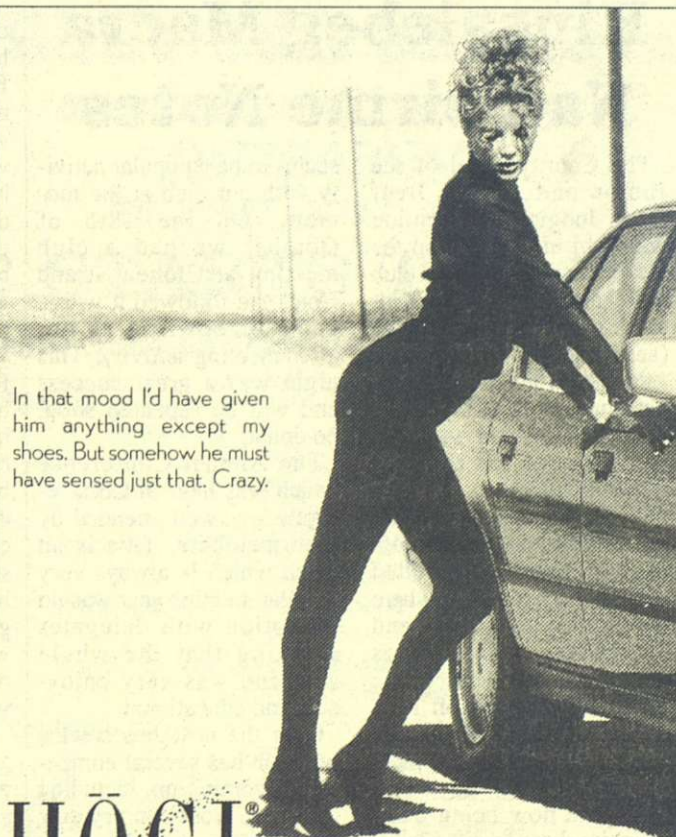

Cllr. Wilkinson went on to say that in dealing with the parking problem there, two options had been looked at but neither had proved satisfactory. A third option now being considered depended on permission being received from the Church of Ireland authorities to make some space at the Church of Ireland at the corner available.

Reiterating that he had got no complaint about the matter Cllr. Wilkin-

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

SCOUT MASS

Last Friday night at Abbeyside Church we had our Annual Mass for deceased members and supporters of Abbeyside scouting. For the first time we had a concelebrated Mass when our Troop Chaplain was joined by Fr. Doherty, P.P. and Fr. Lloyd, Regional Chaplain. We would like to thank all who contributed to this very special ceremony, Deirdre and Kathleen and the Folk Choir and Mr. Francis Keneally who played the trumpet salutes.

Later a large crowd gathered in the Den for the traditional "cuppa" and it was nice to see Patrick Ryan, one of the very first scouts invested into the 4th Waterford Unit, present. All the decades were represented but as usual the forties scouts were in the majority.

Finally, a special word of thanks to our Chaplain Fr. Peter Ahearne for making it all happen.

TROOP MEETING

Last Saturday's meeting was one of games for 95% of the time which was a welcome change for many. After uniform inspection a type of basketball was played where in order to score each team had to make nine passes of the ball. Michael Fives was in good voice, shouting numbers while Conor Foley put his height and weight to good effect. Martin "Boston Celtic" Whelan did some nifty footwork in what were entertaining games.

Over the next three weeks three scouts will qualify each week for the final of this year's drill competition. This week's winners were Neil Moore, Martin Whelan and Colin O'Connor.

Starting shortly in the den, on Sundays, will be badminton, soccer, table tennis, etc., courtesy of the Tiger Patrol and the fit and athletic senior patrol leaders!

Some up coming events in the next few weeks include our weekend in Melleray (hot water bottles not included) and of course our variety concert, which promises to be two hours of total enjoyment for all the family. Already a number of big stars have been booked with no expense spared, so we will be delighted to see you in the audience on the 19th or 20th of December in the Scouts Den. You won't be disappointed!

Finally this scribe sends apologies to one Mr. Pat Kiely of the Cappoquin Scout Unit for forgetting to mention that he also was presented with his Woodbadge beads a couple of weeks ago. Congratulations Pad Joe, better late than never! — Scribe.

WATERFORD/TIPPERARY WEDDING — Thomas Humphries, Ardfinnan and Margaret Carey, Lismore, cutting their cake following their wedding which took place in St. Carthage's Church, Lismore, recently.

Abbeyside Girl Guides Notes

At this week's meeting we played a few games and then we made the final plans for our marathon campfire which we hope will be enjoyed by everyone.

Last Friday night, 19 guides and 3 leaders set off from the Den a 9.00 in the direction of Waterford. When we reached Waterford we unpacked and sang a few of our campfire songs around our very unusual campfire. That took us into Saturday morning. After that it was time to hit the sack and get as much sleep as possible as we had a very long day ahead of us.

Next morning at 9.00 we all departed the Waterford Scout Den after our breakfast and our packing. We then headed for Waterford City to do a spot of shopping when we bought a lot of interesting things.

At about 11.15 when all our money was spent we headed towards Waterford Bowling Centre. There we met the Waterford Guides who we got to know very well. After a very enjoyable hour of bowling we had our dinner at the centre. After that we played a few games of pool and some other games which took us well on into the evening.

Next we headed for the People's Park, in the rain, but enjoyed ourselves immensely on the obstacle course. At 5.00 we headed back to the Scouts Den to collect our things and catch our bus. We cheered ourselves up on the way home by singing all the way. We got home at 7.00 and it would be fair to say everyone enjoyed themselves very much.

NEXT WEEK

We would like to remind everyone to bring over their sashes with all badges sewn on for inspection next week and we would like to congratulate the scouts on doing a good job in winning on Saturday.

seems to be a popular activity with our club at the moment. On the 18th of October we had a club meeting at Clonea Strand Hotel and followed it with a game of bowling as our after meeting activity. This night was a great success and will be repeated soon, no doubt.

The Annual Conference which was held in Cork recently was well attended by club members. This is an event which is always very popular and this year was no exception with delegates agreeing that the whole weekend was very enjoyable and educational.

Over the next few weeks, our club has several competitions coming up, including debating, cross country quiz and dairy and sheep stock judging. We wish all competitors the best of luck.

— Edel Smiddy, PRO, Kinsalebeg Macra.

Kinsalebeg Macra Na Feirme Notes

The County Final of the Junior and Senior Beef Stock Judging Competition was held in Gaultier on the 1st November. The two club members representing Kinsalebeg were Tony Keane (senior competition) and James Keating (junior competition). Both competitors did very well and we await the results of this competition with interest.

On the invitation of Glanmire Macra, a large number of club members travelled to Cork City recently, where an evening of quazar and ten pin bowling games was held. This very enjoyable night was rounded off by a disco. A word of thanks must go to Glanmire Macra for organising the event. Plans are now being made to invite them to our Christmas Dinner Dance which will be coming up again soon.

Pictured above is Jimmy Lenihan, the popular Abbeyside man who resides in Murphy Place and who has undertaken a sponsored "slim" in aid of the Dungarvan Branch of Multiple Sclerosis and the Senior Citizens Group, Abbeyside. The "slim" was launched at The Park Hotel on Monday night, October 14 and when Jimmy stepped on to the scales then he weighed in at 18 stones. It is due to end on Friday, December 20 and by then Jimmy expects to have shed up to 2 stone.

Waterford Foods paid a special tribute to its computer team, led by Martin Hession, at a special function in the company's headquarters in Dungarvan last Friday evening. Mr. Hession's team were the winners of the 1991 Memorex Telex/Business and Finance Computer Professionals of the year award. The award consists of a cash prize of £3,000 and a specially commissioned perpetual trophy, which was presented to Stephen O'Connor by the Minister for Finance, Des O'Malley at a ceremony in Dublin last week.

The winning project consists of a new computerised milk collection system which features prompt two-way communication. The system, the most advanced of its kind in Europe, enables the supplier to receive a print-out detailing volume and milk quality as the milk collection is completed. The increased efficiency generated by the system will result in a saving of up to £1 million.

A MAJOR UNDERTAKING

Reacting to the company's success Stephen O'Connor, managing director of Waterford Foods said:

"In a large dairy business like ours, milk assembly is obviously a major undertaking. It is seasonal and variable in many ways and the potential for wasteful travel of a large number of vehicles is enormous. We are also dealing with a fresh, very perishable food product which must be accompanied by essential information about volume, composition and quality. Our dairy division applied very specific knowledge and understanding of our requirements and worked in close harmony with the computer section to develop this system. As a progressive company, this award reflects our commitment to improved efficiency in all aspects of our business.

In a recent survey throughout Ireland by the Marketing Corporation on behalf of the Irish Brokers Association, the company which qualified for the first ever Service Excellence Award was Hibernian Insurance. Two hundred and twenty Insurance Brokers — all members of The Irish Brokers Association — took part in the survey which considered the levels of service and efficiency within the general insurance industry.

Over 800 Competitors For Dave O'Loughlin Memorial "Sports Day" In Dungarvan

Over 800 competitors will crowd into Dungarvan from the Irish Dairy and Food Industry for the Annual Dave O'Loughlin Weekend which commences on Friday next,

November 15 and continues until Sunday, November 17. Accommodation has been taxed to the limit to cater for the huge influx of sportsmen and women and all hotels, guesthouses and Bed and Breakfasts have been booked solid.

It will be a case of non-stop action from 10 a.m. on Saturday morning which is the Big Sports Day, when 44 teams battle it out at the Friary College for honours in soccer and basketball while the rugby stalwarts will make the Rugby Club pitch at Ballyrandle their area of competition with the ladies and gents contesting at the squash court at Minnies, the golfers at the golf course at Ballinacourty and the pitch and putt people testing their expertise at the Cunnigar Club's Pitch & Putt course.

The Memorial Banquet will be held at Lawlor's Hotel on Saturday night followed by a Dance/Disco while a Jazz Session has been arranged for the Park Hotel for Sunday morning.

The Sports Weekend is being hosted in Dungarvan for the first time by Waterford Foods. It started in 1973 and commemorates Dave O'Loughlin who was then General Manager of Golden Vale and former Rugby International who died suddenly in 1971.

We welcome all our visitors to Dungarvan for this great sporting occasion and hope they will all enjoy a good time and take happy memories of Dungarvan away with them when they return home.

BALLYMACARBRY NOTES

BALLYMAC' MAN'S PLEA FOR UNITY

Small and low income farmers will become an endangered species unless they unite and pull together. This was the warning from one of the founding members of the strife-torn United Farmers' Association, Mr. Patrick (Paddy) Phelan, Toureigh, Ballymacarbry, who was elected President-Chairman of what he claims is the Official UFA at the second AGM held in Roscrea last week. He has made an impassioned plea for an immediate closing of the ranks at what is a crucial time for small farmers. "I now ask all farmers whose livelihoods are in jeopardy to support our endeavours in this critical time," said Mr.

Phelan.

We believe that if low income and small farmers do not pull together they will no longer be there to pull in any direction. He pledged that his organisation will expose corruption wherever it is found to affect farmers' incomes.

CONTROVERSIAL PIGGERY GETS GO AHEAD

Outraged residents reacted angrily last week to the final approval for the controversial pig farm at Garantemple, Grange. The decision by An Bord Pleanála to uphold the original South Tipperary County Council ruling to grant planning permission for a 500-pig unit has stunned the objectors to the plan.

Marlfield Village and Surrounding Areas Action Committee just cannot believe it. Where is democracy gone if the vast majority of people living in the area say no to this development, everyone is shocked they say, adding "We were certain we would have won after the two-day oral hearing which took place last July. We are worse off now than before even though we have spent well over-£8,000 already fighting this."

The developer, Mr. Tony O'Reilly, Monksgrange who also farms extensively in the parish of Four-Mile-Water had little comment to make on An Bord Pleanála decision in his favour other than to say he was pleased and that he had played the game by the rules from the start. He could not say when work would begin on developing the 500-pig integrated unit.

HOSPITAL WARD TO CLOSE ONE WEEK IN FOUR

The Gynaecology Ward in St. Joseph's Hospital, Clonmel is to close for one week in every four beginning on November 24 and two nursing posts will be lost. During the week in four it is closed, emergency gynaecological matters only will be dealt with in St. Joseph's Gynaecological Ward which covers all South Tipperary, North Tipperary south from Thurles and a large area of West Waterford. These cut-backs will mean that the current waiting list for the service will be increased.

IRELAND'S OLDEST MONK

One of the longest serving members of a religious order in this country is Brother Gerard Leddy who celebrated his 99th birthday on Tuesday, November 5, at Mount Melleray Abbey. Brother Gerard was born at Gurt-naskehly, North Cork on November 5, 1892. He entered the Cistercian Order at Mount Melleray on September 29, 1914, the year of the outbreak of the First World War, all of seventy-two years ago, an occasion which he clearly remembers as if it was only a few days ago.

He arrived at the Monastery accompanied by his parents in a horse-drawn car which belonged to the local publican, Tom O'Mahony. When he bade his parents adieu he was convinced that he would never again see the outside world. Many years later he learned that his father had instructed Tom O'Mahony to drive slowly on their way out of the Monastery as the father was sure that his son would overtake them at the gate, but seventy-two years later he still had not reached that gate!

Br. Gerard claims that he was desperately lonely for the first month or so as he was "a great homebird," but he came to terms with the then austere way of life of the Cistercian Order. Br. Gerard walks to-day in a slightly stooped fashion with the aid of a walking stick and is hard of hearing, but his faculties are pretty much intact. His memory stretches back to his early childhood. He possesses a keen sense of humour and for his age he is truly a remarkable man.

Born on the Cork side of Araglen, an area which straddles the Counties of Cork, Tipperary and Waterford, his first education was at the local National School at Coolmahon. He had one sister, Mary, and two brothers, Jack and Con.

Br. Gerard is uncle of well known Ballyporeen Fianna Fáil Councillor, Con Donovan. In his youth his abiding passion was for sport. He recalls an incident when a group of friends and himself were returning from a football game in Dungarvan when suddenly one of the horses dropped dead and they had to walk eight miles to Ballyduff before completing their homeward journey to Araglin, eight miles more on bicycles.

A wonderful athlete, he recalls an event at the Mountain Barracks near Mitchelstown when he won a famous race which had to be re-run after some supporters had erected a false finishing tape. He won a beautiful ornate clock for his athletic prowess but this prize was lost to him when a unit of the Black and Tans under the command of Captain Anderson, ransacked his home and took his prize clock. It may adorn some building in England.

He says that he has no regrets whatsoever about answering his vocation. Before he did so he felt he was missing something and was delighted to have devoted his life to God. But fulfilling though he has found his life, it has had some hardship attached especially in the early days. Then, there was the vow of silence, the early morning rise, 1.30 a.m. on Sunday, 2 a.m. on week days and the long hours of fasting and prayer.

His father passed to his eternal reward at Easter 1915, six months after Gerard had entered the Order, but he was not allowed to return home for the funeral. When his mother's health began to fail sometime later he was granted permission to visit her for a short time before she died in 1939. It was his first time home and it was also his first time outside the Monastery gates in twenty-four years. The regime at Melleray has been relaxed in recent years and the lives of the monks have approached what lay people might consider to be normality.

Very much hale and hearty in his 99th year, you would imagine that Br. Leddy was looking forward to celebrating his 100th birthday this time next year, but he's quite philosophical about his prospects of reaching the century. "That's all in the hands of God," he says in his jovial fashion.

SALE OF WORK

A Sale of Work will take place at St. Patrick's Hall, Ballymacarbry, on Sunday next, November 17. Also, Santa will arrive at the Hall in his usual back-to-back car. Proceeds are in aid of the upkeep of the Hall. During the week members of the Committee will call on each household in the parish for items for the sale.

SYMPATHY

The sympathy of the district is extended to the Condon family, Killeshal, Cappagh and late of Knockmeal, Ballinamult on the death of Mr. William Condon. He was father of Rev. Fr. Eanna Condon, C.C., Cahir. Also to the Collender family, Brook Lodge, Modeligo, on the death of Mrs. Cathy Collender (nee Wall) which sad event took place on November 5.

Also to the Dunford family, Bohadon, Dungarvan on the sudden passing of Mr. Michael Dunford who was brother of local well known publican, John Dunford, Touraneena.

NIRE VALLEY

FEATURED ON RADIO
On Thursday night, November 7, a programme on Tipperary F.M. Radio featured the Village of Glendaloughin and its dwindling population. Glendaloughin, a village in the Nire Valley, had, at the beginning of the century 21 families and 110 people, 65 males and 45 females. To-day there are 5 families in the village with a population of 8 people, all male, so it's a village without a woman. At the beginning of the century the families were 9 Tobin families, 4 Coffeys, 2 Whelans, one each, Harney, Mara, Crotty, Harte, Morrissey and O'Grady. Today's families are 2 Tobins with one each, McGrath, Harney and O'Grady.

Locals featured on the programme were John McGrath, John Tobin and Tom Walsh. The programme was compered by Michael Desmond, Ballymacarbry.

LATE MR. DANIEL MORRISSEY

Widespread and profound sorrow was occasioned in the Ballymacarbry district by the deeply regretted death which took place at St. Joseph's, Clonmel, after an illness of some duration of Mr. Daniel (Dan) Morrissey, "Park View," Old Bridge, Clonmel and formerly of Russelstown, Kilmanahan. His passing is all the more poignant as his sister Ellen predeceased him by a mere month.

One of nature's gentlemen, he possessed a friendly, good-humoured and generous disposition with a ready wit, rich fund of anecdotes and a remarkable facility for recalling days gone by. A thoughtful neighbour, he was always ready with the helping hand and he is now deeply and justifiably mourned by all who held him in the warmest regard.

The measure of the esteem and high regard in which he and his family are held was clearly indicated by the representative groups of mourners paying their final respects to a dear friend at the removal of his remains on Friday evening from O'Donoghue's Funeral Home, Clonmel to St. Laurence's Parish Church, Four-Mile-Water. On Saturday morning Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul after which he was laid to rest in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery.

To his wife and family, his brother and sister we extend our sympathy.

Dungarvan Awareness Group Meet Local Councillors

Cathal Brugha Awareness, a Dungarvan group working for a better quality of community life, met with five Councillors of Dungarvan Urban District last Saturday. "We see this kind of turn-out as a sign that we are not forgotten and that we have a serious cause for concern here in Cathal Brugha," said Kathleen Duggan who is on the Committee. She was commenting on the state of repairs to authority houses and the general state of the neighbourhood.

At the gathering were Cllrs. O'Riordan, Dixon, Kyne, Goode and Walsh, with apologies from Cllr. Wright. Following brief introductions, the representatives were escorted to some of the homes to see for themselves the dire conditions of houses and the derelict sites.

After the tour a short meeting ensued with the local committee represented by Andy Tobin, Mary McGuire and Ann Cummins. Genuine shock was expressed that the area had become so run-down and this despite the renovations to seven houses over the last few months. Recognising that the policy of blocking houses up had not worked, there was a commitment from the Councillors to bring the matter further.

It was also the view of all those present that something would have to be done about repairs. "It's one thing to be told that the Council are hamstrung for money and that when it becomes available more houses will be revamped. It's another to have to live with the rain pouring in. The promise of something in the future is of little good when you're sitting in the wet now."

A POSITIVE MEETING
"A society is judged by the way it treats its weakest members, by the way it looks out for those who are at the margins," said Bro. Noel Keane, O.S.A., "and these people, their families and children, deserve more than this." Acknowledging that the meeting had been a positive one, it was agreed that the Councillors would encourage a meeting of Town Officials and the Cathal Brugha Awareness Group to look at the need for immediate repairs.

Mr. Willie Roche, General Hardware Merchant, Lismore, presenting a cheque to Bro. Dormer, Principal, Lismore C.B.S. Primary School, for the Benefit Race Night at Youghal Greyhound Track in aid of recent renovations at the C.B.S. Primary School. Also present are Paddy Pollard, (Secretary, Lismore C.B.S. Past Pupils Union) and Paddy Moore, (President, Lismore C.B.S., P.P.U.)

KILMACTHOMAS G.A.A. NOTES

County Final — This Sunday, November 17, the village of Kilmacthomas will be deserted as everyone will descend on Walsh Park, Waterford, to cheer on the local junior hurlers when they take on An Rinn in the junior hurling 'A' county final. This promises to be a great final with An Rinn the favourites after contesting last year's final. But Kilmac' have worked hard and have put in a mighty effort into their preparation for this final under the skilful eye of coach Fr.

Kennedy and trainer Shay Fitzpatrick. They have worked wonders for the side and will have the lads fighting tooth and nail to gain victory on Sunday. The only worrying aspects is the fitness of our young star forward David Kiely, who is a doubtful starter, and injuries to our centre-field pair of Jessie Whelan and Johnno Power and full forward Donal Lawlor. If any are missing it will be a big blow to our chances. But we shall just wait and see and hope for the best.

Incidentally, it is 70 years to the day since Kilmac' last won this prestigious title and there is now only one surviving member of that team, great sportsman Paddy O'Reilly, Main Street, Kilmac'. What a happy man Paddy would be if the lads could bring the cup back to the village on Sunday evening next. And so lads you have everything to fight for, so get in there and give it your best shot.

Golden Goal — The time of the Golden Goal in the Eastern final between Kilmac' and Ferrybank on Saturday, October 19 was 37 minutes 20 seconds. Will the holder of the same contact any members or phone 051/94334 by 6 o'clock this Friday evening, Nov. 15.

G.A.A. Social — Our social has been arranged for Friday, November 29 in the Park Hotel, Dungarvan. Full details later.

On Waterford Team — Congratulations to our senior footballer Eddie Rockett who was selected as corner back on the Waterford senior football team that was defeated 0-10 to 0-9 by Wexford in Dungarvan on Sunday last. Unfortunately our other senior footballer Johnno Power, who was selected as corner forward, was injured and had to be withdrawn before the match. We hope to see Johnno fit and well as soon as possible.

Phelan Cup — Our senior football opponents in the 1991 Phelan Cup semi-final are old rivals St. Saviours, with Rathgormack and Gaultier contesting the other semi. Dates are to be arranged.

Application Forms and full particulars may be obtained by sending a stamped (36p) self-addressed envelope (22cm x 11cm) to the County Secretary, Arus Brugha, Dungarvan, to whom completed applications must be returned not later than 5.00 p.m. on Friday, 29th November, 1991.

Lismore Employment Exchange Discussed At Special Meeting

Mr. J. Roche presided at a special meeting of Lismore Town Commissioners held last Monday night and at which Mrs. M. Morrissey, Mrs. M. Ryan, Miss M. O'Connell and Mr. G. Geoghegan were present. The Town Clerk, Mr. E. Flynn was in attendance and also in attendance were Mr. J. Maher, Social Welfare Regional Manager and Ms. Alice Howley, Waterford District Manager.

Mr. Roche began the meeting by welcoming Mr. Maher and Ms. Howley. He then went on to outline the history of events that brought about this meeting. At the time of the closure of the Labour Exchange last May a commitment was given by Mr. Pat Curley of the Department to return to Lismore at the request of the Commissioners if the new arrangements relating to Lismore Labour Exchange did not work out satisfactory. Mr. Maher's visit was now in direct response to this promise.

The Commissioners raised a number of queries which were put to Mr. Maher and included the following:

(1) — Last May a new service capable of dealing with all Social Welfare queries was promised for Lismore on a two day week basis on the closure of the Exchange. Now six months later, members stated, that no progress has been made to date!

(2) — Also in recent times, the length of queues outside the former Exchange came in for much criticism.

(3) — In addition, the length of time involved in dealing with people's transactions was highlighted.

In dealing with the points raised, Mr. Maher pointed out that it was the Department's intention to locate this new service in Lismore but they were experiencing difficulty in locating a suitable premises. However the Department through the Board of Works were at present pursuing a number of definite possibilities and it would be the new year before this service would come on stream.

In referring to length of queues involved, Mr. Maher stated that Ms. Howley would personally assess the situation this week. However, he foresaw that the introduction of fortnightly "signing on" would ease the situation. In this regard, Ms. Howley requested that if people arrived at their appointed time only, it would also be of benefit.

The Office would be open to the public at the following times:

10.00 a.m. - 12.30 p.m. and 2 p.m. - 3.30 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays.

In relation to opening times, Ms. Howley was requesting that if people with particular problems could avail of the afternoon times, then it would further ease the situation.

At the conclusion of the meeting the Commissioners while accepting the explanations given, would continue to assess the situation and would be in further communication with the Department if the situation did not improve.

Mountain Bike Racing At Ballyduff

A total of 48 competitors took part in last Sunday week's Mountain Bike Racing event at Ballyduff.

Robin Seymour from the Mountainbike association of Dublin (MAD) won the senior title with the defending champion, Richard McAuley (Les Jeunes) in second place and young David McGill (MAD), still a junior, third at the end of an exciting contest over an excellent course that was well prepared by James Lawless.

Trish Mulcahy from Hill-town was a clear leader in the women's race until her bike broke and she had to run with it over the final laps. She was overtaken by Susan O'Meara (Concorde) and Clare Moore (Cidona Carrick).

Schoolboy John Gavin won the u-16 title while two other Hilltown riders, John Bermingham in the junior and Trish Mulcahy in the ladies race were placed.

The winner of the senior race received the Phil Byrne Perpetual Cup at the presentation of prizes in the Blackwater Lodge Hotel after racing.

Mr. Tom Darcy, President of the A.M.E.V. Irish Road Club thanked the local landowners for the use of their lands and the local gardai and stewards for their help.

Know Your Rights

Question — I would like to attend my G.P. during my pregnancy. Can you tell me what maternity services I will be entitled to and will I be eligible for the Maternity Grant. I don't have a Medical Card?

Answer — Since the 1st June this year all women are entitled to Maternity and Infant Care Services free of charge. An expectant mother can choose to be treated by any doctor who has an arrangement with the Health Board to provide these services. Most family doctors undertake this type of work.

Under this scheme you will be covered for 6 visits before the birth and one visit after the birth for yourself, and one visit for the baby during the first six weeks of life. Most Health Boards allow for additional visits where the G.P. considers them necessary (the G.P. doesn't receive any extra payment for this.)

The G.P. is entitled to charge non-Medical Card holders for visits which are not related to the pregnancy.

It is necessary to apply to be accepted into this scheme before the visits start. The special application form M.C.A. should be available from the G.P. or Health Board. When the approval comes from the Health Board the visits can start. Ideally these should commence around the 16th week of pregnancy.

The Maternity Grant of £8 which is payable by the Health Board is only paid to Medical Card holders.

Severe Gale Causes Havoc Around The County

A severe gale of south and southwest winds with gusts of up to storm force 10 lashed the county on Tuesday morning and did an immense amount of damage all around the south-east and along the east of the country up to Dublin where a great deal of flooding also occurred. At its height around mid-day, the short ferocious storm uprooted trees in many places some of which fell across roads blocking traffic until they were cleared while roofs in several cases were also damaged.

A widespread power blackout occurred in West Waterford when E.S.B. Cables were blown down while telephonic communication were also disrupted.

Efforts to refloat the freighter "Metriche" on Tuesday morning, aground in a small cove between Bonmahon and Ballydwan since the last big storm on Thursday, October 31, had to be abandoned because of the gale when the tug involved had to leave the scene and seek shelter at Helvick.

Falling slates in many areas proved a hazard and Mary Street in Dungarvan was blocked off on Tuesday evening as a result.

ENTERTAINMENT

Last Tuesday week, Hayes Variety Pub Show took place and an overall improvement was very noticeable in the show. However despite this improvement the show failed to reach the semi-finals of the competition but great credit is due to all who took part and gave us two good entertaining shows. A significant comment by both adjudicators, Eamonn O'Neill and Paddy Grant, was the fact that little or no support was given to the show by way of joining in the chorus of the various songs by the local patrons which can boost the entertainment value considerably. A point to be considered for the future.

Last Sunday night music at Hayes Lounge Bar was provided by Harry Caulfield "The Music Man."

CARDS

Last Thursday's winners at the cards in Kill Community Centre were — Breda Cowman and Biddy Crowley; runners-up were, newcomers from Waterford City, Michael Lyons and Willie Grant. Raffle prize winners were James Dunphy and Catherine O'Brien.

On this Friday cards continue for hams and beef joints at Kirwan's Pub, Bonmahon and first round winners are reminded that a number of finals will have to be played this week.

LADIES FOOTBALL

Congratulations to Kill on their victory over Na Deise last Sunday in the intermediate county final replay. This was a tough gruelling match that resulted in extra time. However, despite the miserable conditions a great game of football was displayed and the level of skill from the Kill girls was superb. This was the club's first victory in such an age group and Ger Mooney must be complimented for the tremendous work he has done with the club.

ST. MARY'S G.A.A. NOTES

Last Saturday our U-12 footballers having won the 'B' section played De La Salle the 'A' winners, who came out convincing winners highlighting the difference in standards between the grades. However despite this defeat we offer our utmost congratulations to our U-12's who treated us to some marvellous games of football during the season. This was a very young panel the majority of which will be eligible again next year.

G.A.A. NEWS

Last Friday night we received the names of the nine pubs who will go forward to the semi-final stage of the Bonmahon G.A.A. Club organised Hoffmans Variety Pubs competition from the adjudicators. The successful pubs were — The Cosy Thatch, The Long Hall Tavern, Tom Kirwan's, Stapleton's, O'Neill's, Tramore, Dunphy's, Kill, The Clodagh Bar, Dunphy's, Newtown, The Lord Doneraile.

In addition the following special awards were announced: Best Singing Pub — The Three Swans, Tramore; Best Male Performer — Tom Power, Dunphy's, Kill; Best Female Performer — Marietta O'Keefe, The Cosy Thatch; Best Male Old Timer — John Joe Walsh, Dunphy's, Kill; Best Female Old Timer — Claire McGrath, Tom Kirwan's, Kill; Best M.C. — Tom Coffey, Crotty's Inn.

At our November monthly meeting last Monday night arrangements were made for the running of the Variety Pubs semi-finals and final.

A decision to commence tree planting immediately around the new pitch was taken and help to carry out this task is urgently required.

PENSMAN Takes You Behind The SPOTLIGHT

COUNTY COUNCILLORS FACE DIFFICULT BUDGET PROBLEMS

Members of Waterford County Council will meet in Dungarvan next Friday to consider the Estimates of Expenses for 1992 and with a considerable cash shortfall to be bridged some hard and unpopular decisions will, most probably have to be taken.

The total estimated expenditure to fund the various services for the Council for the year is given in the Book of Estimates as £17,189,800 and although at the time if writing no indication had been received by the Council from the Department of the Environment as to what the allocation will be under the Rate Support Grant, a rate of £30.03 has been indicated which is an increase of 3.5% over last year.

The estimates also provide for an increase of 5% in the domestic water charges and for metered water while there is also an increase in the charges for commercial dumping while a charge is also proposed for domestic dumping by individuals.

In regard to the latter, we understand that a sum of £169,000 has been included in the Estimates to provide for the existing Refuse Collection system until the end of June 1992. However as from that date it is proposed to disengage from this operation and to privatise it with the crews presently employed being offered an opportunity to engage in the work in a private capacity.

To meet the higher proportion of the cost of collection and disposal during the first 6 months of 1992, the charge for domestic collection is to be increased from 25p to 50p per bag while a charge of 50p per car discharging domestic refuse will be made at the tiphead also.

At the Council's monthly meeting held in Dungarvan last Monday, Cllr. B. Kyne inquired whether any indication had been received from the Department of the Environment as to the allocation they were to receive under the Rate Support Grant and received a reply in the negative.

Cllr. Kyne remarked that this was symptomatic of what was generally happening at Government level at present. He knew that the Council could hold their Estimates meeting in the absence of this information but added "surely we are entitled to know what the allocation will be." Cllr. Pat Coffey said that all members of the Council felt the same as they were being left in the dark.

It was unanimously agreed to send an urgent message to the Department of the Environment requesting that all Local Authorities be notified in good time of these allocations in the future.

In the meantime ratepayers must wait until Friday to learn what charges they will have to meet for the coming year.

CHRISTMAS CARDS TO AID LIFEBOAT FUNDS

Over the past 12 months lifeboats of the Irish Fleet launched on 380 occasions and saved 96 lives. The ongoing maintenance, together with the R.N.L.I.'s policy of modernisation of the Irish Lifeboats will continue to place a heavy burden on the Institution and its voluntary workers as the R.N.L.I. depends entirely on voluntary contributions for its income.

With the near approach of Christmas people will be thinking of sending the usual greeting cards to relatives and friends at home and abroad. As usual the R.N.L.I. have placed a magnificent selection of Christmas Cards on the market which will be sold in aid of the Institution's funds. The cards are printed in Ireland and are sold in packs of 10 with envelopes and range in price from £1.50 to £2.85 per pack.

In this maritime County of Waterford we should always be conscious of the need for Lifeboats and the great work which the R.N.L.I. crews perform in saving lives at sea and by buying the R.N.L.I. Christmas Cards we will not only be helping in this great and courageous work but we will also be buying Irish made cards.

COLLECTORS' SHOW FOR WATERFORD

The Collectors' Show based on the popular television series, "Antiques Road Show", after last year's successful visit returns to Waterford City next Saturday, November 16. Organised by leading Irish professional philatelists, numismatists and deltiologists — that is to say stamp, coin and picture postcard experts, the show will take place in the Tower Hotel opening at 11 a.m. and continuing until 6 p.m.

At the show members of the public may bring in stamps, old letters, old picture postcards, coins, medals, tokens, bank notes, cheques, militaria and cigarette cards for free appraisal by the country's leading professional experts.

There will be no obligation to sell but the professionals will be willing to pay top prices on behalf of their international clientele or advise on the best method of sale for collectables, be it auction or private treaty. Last year at the same venue over £10,000 was spent on buying collectables by the experts.

So if there is something you want to get valued or you are interested in old coins and other such items you should make a point of getting to this Collectors' Show sometime next Saturday.

AN OPEN VOTE — OR SECRET BALLOT

The goings-on at Leinster House over the week-end as the power struggle within factions of the main political party in the Government took place into the early hours of Sunday morning, found an echo at the special meeting which preceded the monthly meeting of Waterford County Council held in Dungarvan on Monday.

It came at the outset as the members were proceeding to elect a representative on the Governing Body of University College, Cork and one member jocosely asked "is it to be by open vote or by secret ballot!" The remark was greeted by gales of laughter.

PUTTING TWO WHERE ONE SHOULD DO

In case there may be any misunderstanding as regards our views on the present controversy surrounding the traffic and parking regulations in Dungarvan, we would like to state clearly that we are not opposed to a flexible and reasonable enforcement of the regulations.

However we do find ourselves in disagreement with the situation by which two traffic wardens are employed to do what one should be quite capable of doing. Despite the official view as expressed at the monthly meeting of the Urban Council last Monday night we see no reason to alter this viewpoint.

Dungarvan is not a big town and the principal shopping area is more or less confined to the town centre with the radials of Main Street, O'Connell Street and Mary Street. It should not be necessary to have two wardens to patrol these areas and to ensure that traffic is kept free flowing through the town.

It is absolutely ridiculous to see the wardens patrolling opposite sides of the same street in the town at the same time as is happening regularly. This is something that you would not even see happening in any of our cities where each warden has his/her own "beat" to supervise.

The local authority in Dungarvan in common with all other local authorities throughout the country is strapped for cash and in such circumstances it is difficult to reconcile a decision of putting two where one should be able to cope.

71st Anniversary Of Kilmichael Ambush

Coming up later this month, the 71st anniversary of the ambush at Kilmichael in West Cork during the War of Independence will be commemorated at the site of the ambush on Sunday, November 24. Well-known Munster MEP T. J. Maher will deliver the oration at the Annual Commemoration Ceremony to be held on that day.

"The Boys Of Kilmichael" which is our choice for the ballad comes this week is a fine swinging ballad which was written to commemorate the attack by members of the West Cork IRA Flying Column on two lorry loads of auxiliaries on a lonely moorland road between Macroom and Dunmanway in the afternoon of November 28, 1920.

It had been noted that a company of 'auxies' (British Army soldiers) quartered in Macroom had, for three Sundays running, made a sortie along this road; so on Sunday, November 28, the men of the 'Flying Column' gathered there during the night and remained in an ambush position all next day until they came along. They annihilated them and burned the lorries.

The ballad is lively, gay and devil-may-care despite the grim action it describes.

Whilst we honour in song and in story
The names of Pearse and McBride,
Whose names are illumined in glory
With martyrs who long since have died.
Forget not the boys of Kilmichael,
Those gallant lads stalwart and true,
Who fought 'neath the green flag of Erin
And conquered the red, white and blue.

Chorus:

Then here's to the boys of Kilmichael
Who feared not the might of the foe,
The day that they marched into battle
They laid all the Black and Tans low.

On the twenty-eighth day of November,
The Tans left the town of Macroom,
They were armed in two Crossley tenders
Which led them right into their doom;
They were on the road to Kilmichael
And never expected to stall,
There they met the boys of the Column
Who made a clear sweep of them all.

The sun in the west it was sinking,
'Twas the eve of a cold winter's day,
The Tans we were wearily waiting
Sailed into the spot where we lay;
And over the hills went the echo,
The sound of the rifle and gun,
And the flames from the lorries gave tidings
That the boys of the Column had won.

The lorries were ours before twilight,
And high over Dunmanway town
Our banners in triumph were waving
To show that the Tans had gone down;
We gathered our rifles and bayonets,
And soon left the glen so obscure,
And never drew rein 'til we halted
At the far-away camp of Glenure.

Another version of the latter part of the second verse, perhaps a later corruption of the original, goes:

But the boys of Kilmichael were ready
And met them with powder and shot
And the Irish Republican Army
Made bits of the whole bloomin' lot!

Sometimes the last line is made ruder but it's a matter of choice taking the time and place into consideration!

BALLYDUFF NOTES

BALLYDUFF COMHALTAS NOTES

Last Thursday and Friday nights, members of the Branch played their part very well in the local show. It was a demonstration of the fruits of the labours of the dancing and music teachers of the Branch.

Set dancing classes continue in Ballysaggart on Wednesday nights and Ballyduff Hall on Thursday nights. The music class will be on again in the Hall on Thursday night while Michael Ryan's step dancing class goes ahead now on Friday evenings in the Hall.

On Sunday night last a bus load from the area travelled to De Lacey House in Cork to hear the wonderful music of Sharon Shannon and her band. Great music and great fun!

BALLYDUFF MACRA

It was all action in Conna Sports Complex last Friday night with Mike Leamy continuing his fine run in the league. His strikers were in fine form (Carmel, Big Jack is always on the lookout for new talent!). Some of the other ladies were also in form, with Catherine Harris saving a penalty in Packie Bonner style (it's alright Pat, I'll tell nobody!) While Willie Quinn is thinking of entering the transfer market, rumour has it that Packie Bonner is his target (only joking, Davy!).

Results: Mike Leamy 5, Mighty Quinn 1; Paddy Ahern 1, Tom Kearney 4; John Kenny 5, Glencairn Rovers 2; Kenny United 4, Catherine Harris 4. More action next Friday night at 10 p.m. sharp.

I would like to congratulate Paddy Ahern and Martin Kenny who won the Senior and Junior Beefstock Judging respectively. The sheep and dairy stockjudging was held in Ballyduff last Sunday. On behalf of the club I would like to thank George Tanner, Barry Bros. and John Kenny for the kind use of their premises and I would also like to thank Roger McCarthy and Brid Corkery for so generously giving of their time and expertise in judging the dairy and sheep events.

On Friday, November 22, our Novice Debaters are in action again. They are proposing the motion that "Politics Rule Agriculture." Our opponents are Kinsalebeg and the lads are really looking forward to the clash.

A meeting will be held in the Hall on Saturday, November 16, at 9 p.m. sharp. New members are always welcome.

Last Thursday night some of our members went swimming and all reports are that a great night was had. The club are going swimming again next Thursday night at 8 p.m. sharp.

OVERFLOW INN DARTS NEWS

The team turned in their best performance of the season last Friday night when defeating Castle Lodge 7-1, away from home. The scoreline, however, flatters to deceive as each game was hard fought with every player having to pull out all the stops to win.

This win keeps us in a commanding position on top of the table. We end the first half of the season on next Friday night at home to Sycamore B.

Call For Early Payment Of Amenity Grants

Cllr. P. Kenneally criticised the delay by the Dept. of the Environment in paying grants approved under the Amenity Grants Scheme when he raised the matter at the monthly meeting of Waterford Co. Council held in Dungarvan last Monday.

Cllr. Kenneally pointed out that 51 projects approved by the Council had been submitted under the 1991 scheme to the Dept. and of these 24 had been sanctioned at a total cost of £85,000 which was funded by the National Lottery. However the problem arose because the grants would not be paid until 1992.

"This," said Cllr. Kenneally, "is most unsatisfactory as most of the projects concerned have been completed or nearly completed and if the clubs have to wait for the payment of the grants until next year it will place undue pressure on their finances because of the Bank charges which the delay will cause for them." He went on to propose that the Council urge the Dept. of the Environment to pay out the grants without delay where the works have been completed and duly certified by the Local Authority.

Cllr. J. Quirke seconding the proposal said that it was a shame that clubs which were badly in need of the money should have to wait in this fashion.

Cllr. P. Coffey supporting the resolution said that clubs were depending on these grants and should not be asked to wait until 1992 to have them paid.

The resolution was passed unanimously.

The National Final of the Guaranteed Irish salesperson of the year competition took place last Wednesday, 6th Nov., in the Whiskey Corner of Irish Distillers plc. An officer training course was held in Lawlor's Hotel recently. This course provided training in the individual officer skills. It was well attended by all the clubs.

Last weekend Glanmire Macra invited the county up to Cork for a night out. About 100 members from clubs all around the county travelled to Cork. Our first stop was at the Mardyke Sports and Leisure Centre where we went bowling and played a game called Quasar.

Quasar consists of 2 teams with up to 10 people on each team. Each person was supplied with a laser gun and points are scored when you hit your opponent. We later moved on to the Country Club where a disco was held. We would like to thank Glanmire Macra for providing us with a very enjoyable evening. — PRO, Liam Hallahan.

Disagreement On Cappelquin Traffic Regulations

son, however, admitted that "a lot more yellow lines did appear than I expected" but he added that if extra space could be got it would greatly relieve the situation.

To a further question by Cllr. Flynn, the Co. Manager said that while the Co. Council was the Road Authority, it was the Gardai who were the Traffic Authority. He added that should a request from Cappelquin Traders for a deputation to discuss the problem with the Co. Engineer be received he was sure it could be arranged.

Cllr. Flynn said that she would report accordingly to the Traders meeting.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Annie Upton (nee Stack)

We learned with very sincere regret on Sunday, October 20 of the demise of Mrs. Annie Upton, Mitchel Street, Dungarvan at the District Hospital after a short duration of illness.

A native of Canty, Whitechurch, Annie was employed at Power's and later McCarthy's, 81, O'Connell Street where she gave of her best at all times. An exemplary Catholic, Annie loved her Mass and personified all that was good and her virtues and values ensured that she was a true witness for our Creator. Of a quiet, gentle disposition, she enjoyed great popularity and her charitable ways were well known. She was a wonderful neighbour and friend who will be greatly missed by all. We sympathise with her brothers, sister-in-law, nephews, nieces and other relatives on their loss.

May she rest in peace.

On Monday evening the removal took place to St. Mary's Parish Church where Rev. J. Kiely, C.C. assisted by Very Rev. P. Hallahan and Very Rev. Fr. Sullivan conducted the funeral service. A guard of honour at the church was provided by members of the Widows' Association. Concelebrated Mass was offered on Tuesday morning by Rev. Fr. J. Kiely and Very Rev. P. Hallinan for the repose of Annie's soul. The Liturgy of the Word was shared by Moira Dunford and Bridget Roche (nieces) while Jim Keohan and Liam Stack played appropriate music. The Prayers of the Faithful were read by Annie's grand-nephews and grand-nieces in the presence of a large concourse of mourners who had come to say farewell to a much loved member of the community. Mr. Joseph (Joe) O'Toole

We write with a deep sense of loss on the passing of our neighbour Mr. Joe O'Toole, 7 St. Mary's Street, Dungarvan, which occurred unexpectedly on Monday morning, November 4 at Waterford Regional Hospital.

A native of Tullow, Co. Carlow, Joe came to town almost forty three years ago and with his wife Monica established a most successful drapery concern. All his life Joe took a keen interest in G.A.A. affairs and regularly attended the major fixtures on the sporting calendar. He loved his morning newspaper and enjoyed a social drink in the company of his many friends. He was a most devoted husband and loving father and grandfather who always had his God and the welfare of his family uppermost in his mind. It was our own good fortune to have lived on the same street and within metres of Joe, he was without fear of contradiction the best neighbour one could have, his kindness, generous ways, encouragement we experienced as kids; yet as we made our way in life Joe was still the same Joe O'Toole whom we always respected, admired and one with whom we shared our golden times.

His departure from our midst has left us saddened but yet grateful, for we were lucky to have had the acquaintance and influence of such a man.

We tender our deepest sympathy to Monica, to Pat and Joseph to Mairín, to grandchildren Margaret, Jody, Fiona. Our condolences to Joe's brother Jim of Ardoyne, Tullow, sister Margaret in Ballon, sisters-in-law Mary O'Toole, Sabina Finnerty, Josephine Spellman, Sr. M. Imelda, brother-in-law Eddie Burke, his many nephews, nieces, cousins, especially Ger, Anthony and Peg on their loss.

On Tuesday evening following Rosary and Prayers the funeral left the Kiely Funeral Home for St. Mary's Parish Church. Enroute the cortege paused in prayerful silence outside 7, Mary St. Rev. Fr. C. Kiely, C.C. assisted by Rev. Fr. J. Kelly, C.C., Very Rev. Fr. J. Sullivan and Rev. Fr. J. Hickey, O.S.A. conducted the funeral service. On Wednesday morning con-celebrated Mass was offered by Rev. Fr. Kelly, and Very Rev. Fr. Boyle, P.P. while the Lessons were read by Sr. Imelda and son Joseph. The offertory gifts were brought to the altar by Joe's grandchildren. Rev. Fr. J. Hickey, Rev. Fr. J. Kiely, Very Rev. Fr. J. Sullivan were in the large attendance who came to pay their respects to a much loved member of the community.

Joe loved Ardmore, on many a Sunday afternoon he enjoyed its beauty, tranquility and splendour. Appropriately his last journey was to Ardmore of Declan, where Very Rev. Canon D. O'Connor, P.P. officiated at the graveside, after which Joe was laid to rest.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors.)

Mr. Michael Foley

On Thursday, October 24, Mr. Michael Foley, London and Gortnadiha, answered the last call at a London Hospital. A native of Gortnadiha, Michael, who was 72 years of age, emigrated to London almost fifty years ago. Employed in the Postal Service for many years, he always enjoyed his game of 45 and his regular visits home to the Gaeltacht area.

On Saturday evening the removal took place from Cork Airport to Ring Church where Very Rev. Fr. C. O'Daly, P.P., blessed and received the remains. On Sunday morning, Fr. O'Daly was Mass celebrant while the Lessons were read by Mary Ann McCarthy (niece) and Martina McCarthy (grandniece). The interment followed in the adjoining cemetery.

We sympathise with his brother John, sisters Kathleen, Molly, Bridie, Rita and Ann, brothers-in-law David Stone and John Coughlan, sister-in-law Mary and a wide circle of other relatives including nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors.)

Mr. Richard (Dick) Carey

With deep sadness and regret we learn of the passing of Mr. Dick Carey at his residence Mweelnahorna, Ring, on Thursday, October 31, after a brief illness. All his life he took an avid interest in Gaelic games and followed closely the fortunes of Ring GAA at all levels, especially this year.

As a 14 years old he was present at the 1924 football final when An Rinn won a county title. He loved to watch the major games on television and in the pre-television times he listened to the radio commentaries.

Many have not known him as a horseman, yet he rode the hounds and followed all the locally trained horses. Once the chasing season began he was a regular viewer of the main festival meetings in Ireland and England. Flat racing did not really take his fancy. He was a keen greyhound man and would have been one of the first to race at Youghal track with his Shanbally Sean enjoying many successes. He attended also the many coursing meetings over the years. In the early 70's a new greyhound dynasty was begun when Dick's grand bitch Equal gave birth to a litter of pups including Power's Equal, dam of the famed Odells.

To an outsider or young person, Dick or Richie as he was known to some, had many interesting stories to relate of times past in Mullinahorna, his boyhood exploits with the Hartys, Lenanes, his horse riding days, stories of the "troubles," the Tans and Civil War, of his Coursing days, bicycle trips to GAA matches and of the priests in olden times.

His religion, Mass and prayers were always important to Dick and his trust in God helped him to overcome many difficulties.

Over the years the Carey household played host to many scoláirí who attended at Ring College, many of whom returned in sadness to pay their final respects to a man who had placed his home at their disposal and made them welcome.

Never ostentatious in his use of an Ghaeilge, one might be led to believe that he had little knowledge, but on many occasions he surprised his listeners with a salvo delivered in perfect Déise "blas."

We extend our sympathies to his wife Kathy, brother-in-law Martin Curran, sisters-in-law Nellie Trihy, Annie Mulcahy, Sr. Mary Claude, Sr. Windeline and Sr. Declan, his many nephews, nieces and cousins, but especially Pat.

Removal took place on Friday evening to Ring Church where Rev. Fr. P. Mackey, C.C. conducted the funeral service and who on Saturday morning celebrated the Requiem Mass for the happy repose of Dick's soul. The numbers present spoke volumes of Dick's popularity. The interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors.)

The Liturgy of the Word was shared by Caroline Fennell and Martin Dwane (grandchildren). Prayers of the Faithful were read by Mary Browne, Sandra Spratt and Mary Whelan (granddaughters). Fr. MacSweeney officiated at the graveside, assisted by the full choir of clergy.

The chief mourners were — Eddie (son), Margot Russell, Helen Fennell, Betty Browne and Mary Spratt (daughters), Bríd Whelan (daughter-in-law), Hugh Russell, Thomas Fennell, Patrick Browne, Michael Spratt and P. J. Dwane (sons-in-law); Mrs. Margaret MacSweeney, Mrs. Nora Landers and Mrs. Josie Walsh (sisters); grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nephews, nieces and other relatives.

(Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

Mr. Roger Fennessy

The death of Mr. Roger Fennessy, Bohadon, Dungarvan, took place on Saturday, November 2, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, where he had been a patient for some years and where he became a great favourite.

One of nature's gentlemen, Roger was extremely popular with all who came to know him during his lifetime and his passing has been the cause of much sorrow to all.

Sincere sympathy is extended to his brothers, sister and relatives on their sad loss.

Removal was from Dungarvan hospital on Sunday evening, November 3 to Kilbrien Church where the remains were received and blessed by Very Rev. Fr. O'Dwyer, P.P., assisted by Very Rev. R. Doherty, P.P. Following Requiem Mass on Monday morning, Removal was from the Drohan Funeral Home on Friday evening, November 8, to St. Anne's Church, Colligan. Following Con-celebrated Mass on Saturday morning burial took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To his wife Amelia and family, brothers John and Gerard, aunt Sr. Aloysius, in-laws and relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.

(Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan and Paddy Collison, Moneygall.)

Mr. Daniel (Danny) Lennon

With profound sorrow we record the passing of Mr. Danny Lennon, 37, Murphy Place, Abbeyside, which sad event occurred at Waterford Regional Hospital on Thursday, November 7. Removal was from the Drohan Funeral Home on Friday evening to Abbeyside Church. Following Requiem Mass on Saturday morning burial took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To his wife Breda and family we extend our deepest sympathy.

Full obituary next issue. (Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

Lismore Town Commissioners Estimates Meeting

The Estimates Meeting of Lismore Town Commissioners was held in Lismore Courthouse on Wednesday, October 30. Mr. J. Roche presided and also present were Mr. P. Dowd, Mr. F. Geoghegan, Mrs. M. Morrissey, Mrs. M. Ryan and Miss M. O'Connell. Mr. Paul Clerkin, Co. Council Finance Officer and Mr. E. Flynn, Town Clerk were in attendance.

Mr. Clerkin began by apologising for the unavoidable absence of the County Manager and went on to outline the estimates requesting a rate of 74.88p in the pound.

The members at this stage went through the figures as presented.

Mr. Clerkin outlined for the Commissioners the very bright future he saw for Lismore with the concept of the Heritage Town, stating that no less than £60,000 would be invested through various projects in Lismore in the coming year. He then went on to list the projects involved and called on the people of Lismore to make the whole concept work.

Finally, on the proposal of Mrs. Ryan seconded by Mr. Geoghegan it was resolved that the estimate of 74.88p in the pound as submitted be adopted.

LISMORE DUMP

Mr. Clerkin was questioned closely by the Commissioners on the future prospects of a dump for Lismore. In reply he stated that the option of providing a "transfer station" for Lismore was now actively being pursued and would come before the Estimates Meeting of the Co. Council on November 17.

Mr. Roche stated that the possibility of this new service should be highlighted as people were now under the impression that no further dumping facilities were going to be provided.

Mr. Dowd requested that the facility for waste recycling should be provided and in reply to this Mr. Clerkin stated that the Co. Council were becoming very aware of the benefits involved in recycling and a small project dealing with cans would begin next year.

It was unanimously agreed to appeal through the local press, to all County Councillors to support the proposed "transfer station" for Lismore being the minimum facility that was required.

LABOUR EXCHANGE

Mrs. Morrissey again highlighted the disgraceful scenes outside the local Exchange. She went on to say that the Commissioners had accommodated the Department with the provision of a public meeting and were given to understand that no new system would commence until the "one stop shop" had been set up. She now felt that they had been badly betrayed and now called for a Department Official to attend a Commissioners Meeting.

The Clerk informed the meeting that he had invited a representative from the Department to attend their meeting but had not received any reply.

Mrs. Morrissey then proposed, seconded by Mrs. Ryan and resolved that a Department Official be invited to attend a special meeting of the Commissioners on Monday, Nov. 11 to discuss the whole situation.

G.A.A. RECEPTION

The deferred civic reception for the victorious Lismore Senior Hurling team was raised at the meeting. It is understood that due to club fixtures, this reception has had to be postponed until after Nov. 17.

LISMORE FLOWER CLUB

Mr. J. Roche congratulated the Lismore Flower Club on the tremendous amount of work and outstanding displays presented by them during the recent West Waterford Heritage Week. He went on to say that they embodied the spirit which will be needed in Lismore over the next few weeks.

CO-OPTIONS

Mr. Roche proposed that the following be co-opted to fill the three vacant Fine Gael seats:— Mr. Noel Hickey, Curragheen, Lismore; Mr. Owen Madden, South Mall, Lismore, and Mrs. Joan Bolger, Deerpark, Lismore. He went on to say he had no hesitation in recommending these names as Commissioners.

The proposal was passed unanimously.

CARD TELEPHONE

Proposed by Mr. J. Roche seconded by Mrs. M. Morrissey and resolved that Bord Telecom be requested to provide an additional card type telephone at West St., Lismore.

Here's two easy-to-make dishes with crab

Stuffed mushrooms, a tasty combination of white crabmeat, soft cheese and chives.

CRAB, with its delicate white and rich creamy brown meats, offers two distinct flavours to tingle the taste buds. For all its flavour, however, crab is delightfully non-fattening, with only about 36 calories per ounce and like all fish, it is packed with protein and vitamins.

It's available all the year round now. Thanks to the latest freezing techniques.

Crabmeat makes a delicious choice for starters, lunches or snacks either served ready to eat with simple salads or incorporated into recipes.

Here's a tasty combination of white crabmeat, soft cheese and chopped chives.

STUFFED MUSHROOMS

Ingredients:
8oz (225g) white crabmeat
8 medium sized mushrooms
2oz (50g) low fat soft cheese

1 tablespoon (15ml) chopped chives
2oz (50g) wholemeal breadcrumbs salt and freshly ground black pepper

Method:

Rinse mushrooms and pat dry.
Remove stalks and chop finely, add crabmeat, cheese, seasoning and chives and stir.

Divide mixture between mushrooms. Sprinkle with breadcrumbs.

Place under medium grill and cook for 10-15 minutes, until golden.

Serve as a starter.

Serves 4.

Finally, here's another delicious, easy-to-make crab dish. It's perfect for the kids.

CRAB CAKES

1 tablespoon (15ml) lemon juice
2 eggs, beaten flour
2oz (50g) breadcrumbs
1oz (25g) oatmeal
oil for shallow frying

Shallow fry in hot oil for 4-6 minutes, turning once. Ideal for children. May be served with a salad.

Help the birds through winter

NOW that we live in 'greener' times there is a greater and nicer tendency to think of alternative ways of beating garden pests rather than reaching for the chemicals.

And so many gardeners are looking again at their previously uneasy relationship with birds. Of course, some species will have a go at seed beds and flowers but these can be protected, while most birds coming into gardens will help clear pests and weed seeds.

You will also find a great deal of pleasure in attracting birds and making them as much of a feature as your finest blooms.

A great favourite is the Blue Tit which can be lured into the garden during the winter with bags of hanging nuts and suspended half coconuts filled with a mash of kitchen scraps.

They will give much entertainment to adults and children alike by hanging upside down as they feed, but stop feeding in spring when it is time for them to repay you.

Hopefully, some will nest in or near your friendly garden and scour the area for caterpillars, greenfly and other pests to feed their chicks. When the fledglings emerge, you get even more entertainment.

Seed on a bird table in more rural areas will attract finches, such as Chaffinch, Greenfinch and Goldfinch, which help clean up weed seeds and insects in summer.

And even the humble Starling and House Sparrow will sort out summer pests for you. Much rarer but good at keeping down flies is the Pied Wagtail — a great favourite with garden bird watchers with its tail-wagging sprints from cover and looping tail-wagging flight.

For tackling the bigger pests such as large insects, snails and slugs, try to get the Thrushes, Blackbirds and Robins on your side.

But if you decide to feed any birds and adopt for this brave approach to pest control and garden attractions, there are points to remember:

- Help the birds through the winter by putting out scraps to encourage them to settle in the vicinity. Once you've started feeding them, keep it up through the cold months, as they will rely on it.

- Make a bird table and set it well away from any cover that cats could use.

- Put out water in a sturdy dish or specially made bird-bath for them to drink or bath in. It will add to the entertainment.

- Nest boxes can be put up to further encourage birds to stay around. The Royal Society for the Protection of Birds can advise on designs for certain species — even the size of entrance hole can determine whether you get interesting species like Blue Tits in residence or end up with a ghetto of Sparrows!

- Be ready to give up most spraying in summer because the bodies of insects, grubs and caterpillars will pass on chemicals to birds and their chicks which will build up a lethal dose. If you have to spray then use treatments derived from pyrethrum, which is less toxic.

- Try growing plants which birds like, such as climbers which provide shelter, nesting sites and food storage. They also like holly, which gives good protection against cats and predators.

- Spread nets over brassicas in winter to prevent birds feeding off your crops instead of the bird table, and put up nets and scarers as normal elsewhere and during the other seasons.

Letters to the Editor

DISAPPOINTMENT AT HANNON STATEMENT

Dear Sir,

It is with disappointment I read the statement issued by Shamie Hannon concerning his resignation as a member of the Selection Committee of the Waterford senior hurling team. What is most disturbing are his reasons for calling it a day. The views that Shamie expressed are shared by many people in Waterford, especially by ordinary G.A.A. supporters who do not have the means of expressing their opinions. Surely the executives of the County Board must be aware of the anger and frustration of G.A.A. supporters in Waterford concerning the running and management of our affairs.

The situation is compounded by the G.A.A. correspondents of our local newspapers. Very few words of encouragement or praise have been given by the local press. Despite the measurable success which Waterford achieved during last year's National League and the tremendous displays in defeat by our senior and junior hurling teams in this year's championship, no recognition was given to the management of the teams. Indeed during the week prior to the championship game versus Cork a deliberate attempt was made to undermine the selectors by means of a sensational report re. one of the players partaking in a soccer game. Further evidence of Waterford's hurling revival was in evidence with their fine display against Wexford on Sunday last.

In conclusion, I would ask our local G.A.A. correspondents to restore some impartiality to their reporting rather than reflecting their self-held opinions.

Yours sincerely,

BILLY O'HALLORAN,
Clashmore,
Co. Waterford.

6/11/1991.

It was an action packed two hours with lots of fun and games with a fair share of learning thrown in for good measure. Topics covered were the Scout Promise, Scout Principles and the Scout Law.

Youghal C.B.S. News

HALL FOR YOUGHAL

Since the launch for the Hall for Youghal project just two weeks ago, reports indicate that the support for the venture is widespread. Ticket sales in the area are encouraging at the moment for the fundraising six months super draw which will begin in January. Sellers report a very positive response at the door-step.

When asked about what has been happening since the launch of the super draw, Mr. Pat Nolan, Chairman of the "Hall For Youghal" Committee said:

"Teachers, parents and friends of the school have been busy selling tickets and contacting past pupils of the school to-date. All are impressed with the positive response and the level of support forthcoming from the townspeople of Youghal and from all the surrounding rural areas. The pupils of the school are making a great effort and are also meeting with much success."

Mr. Nolan expressed sincere thanks to all workers and the people of the locality for their support, and feels assured it's only a measure of what's to come.

I.F.A. Man Advises "Get Your Application In Now"

Mr. Anthony Ryan, Chairman of County Waterford Rural Development Committee advised farmers wishing to have their area reclassified from "less severely handicapped" to "more severely handicapped" status to apply to the Department of Agriculture and Food on form APP2 available from local I.F.A. Office Livestock Mart as soon as possible.

Completed application forms should be returned by Registered Post to Liam Conlon, Secretary, Disadvantaged Areas Appeal Panel, Department of Agriculture and Food, Agriculture House, Kildare Street, Dublin 2, and must arrive not later than Friday, December 6, 1991.

Mr. Ryan advised farmers who felt that they should have their townlands reclassified to hold a meeting in their area — elect a group secretary and get the application form away in the post. The minimum area that will be considered will be a townland and there is no upper area limit stated Mr. Ryan.

Mr. Ryan pointed out that almost 20 per cent of land was now eligible for appeal following the latest round of reclassification, emphasising that all areas of the country currently under less Severely Handicapped status were eligible. The I.F.A. man stressed that this included all the new land recently bought into the DAS Scheme for the first time.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

SCHOOLS TABLE QUIZ 1991

St. Mary's Hall, Convent of Mercy, Cappoquin was a buzz with enthusiasm and hope on Tuesday night, November 5, as it was this year's venue for the annual Credit Union Schools Quiz.

The competent quiz master Mr. Tom Hackett, got proceedings underway at 7.30, with the National Schools Quiz. A total of 18 teams took part in this with the following results. Winners — Boys National School, Cappoquin (Paul Morrissey, John Noonan, Tom Scanlan, Mark Coffey). Second — Liam Cunningham, Karl Mason, Michael Heffernan, Brian Quinn. Third — Lismore Presentation (Hilda Howard, Noellie Quann, Margaret Broderick, Louise Dowd.)

An excellent standard of answering was returned and only points separated winners from the rest of the teams.

At 9 p.m. it was the secondary schools turn and over 20 teams took part. The winners were as follows: First — St. Anne's Secondary School, Cappoquin (Jason Fleming, Paul Ormond, Thomas Cullinan, James Coffey, Sub. Frank McLoughlin). Second — CBS Lismore (Brian O'Shea, Ollie Troy, Liam Henry, John Roche, Sub. Emmet Quann.) Third — St. Anne's, Cappoquin (Paul Coleman, William Downing, John Quann, Eamon Murphy, sub. Timmy Fitzgerald.)

The winning teams were presented with trophies, and their respective schools will receive £50 each.

All of the above placed teams will now go forward to represent their Credit Union at Chapter level, towards the end of November, their schools will be notified in due course.

A special word of praise and thanks must be extended to the Principal of the Mercy Convent, Cappoquin, for allowing the use of their hall and facilities which was much appreciated. Thanks is also extended to all the parents and teachers who prepared the teams for the night, and of course to all the teams that took part.

ST. ANNE'S SCHOOL TOUR 1991

On October 27 last, a group of 54 students and teachers left St. Anne's School, Cappoquin for their first school tour abroad in some years. Many parents, students and other well wishers showed up to give the group a rousing send-off.

After a wonderfully calm crossing the group landed in Le Havre from where they immediately set out for Paris. A visit of the city by night followed and the school saw many of the famous landmarks of the city — Place de la Concorde, the Eiffel Tower, the Champs Elysee, Notre Dame and the Arc de Triomphe. A short but intriguing visit was also to paid to Pigalle!!!

Next day the group continued onto Brussels where they were given a tour of the European Parliament by Irish M.E.P. Mr. Paddy Lane. Students were given the opportunity to ask questions on the workings of the institution and all agreed that the visit proved one of the highlights of the tour. They then proceeded onto Valkenburg in Holland where they were based for two nights.

On the following day St. Anne's crossed the border into Germany and visited FantasiaLand near Cologne. This is a Disneyland-type Theme Park with everything from a Wild West town to a Parisian quarter to Chinatown to a roller-coaster ride through Space. The day spent there was scarcely spent to experience the delights, thrills and spills of this wonderland.

On the last day of the tour the group headed back for La Havre stopping en route in Rouen. This time the crossing from Le Havre to Rosslare proved less than perfect with seven hours extra sailing time and very rough seas. However, despite a few outbreaks of "mal de mer" all arrived safely back at the end of what proved to be a very worthwhile and rewarding tour.

DEATH OF MRS. CATHERINE (CATHY) COLLENDER (NEE WALL)

The death occurred peacefully on Tuesday, November 5 of Mrs. Catherine Collender, Brooklodge, Cappagh, Co. Waterford, relict of Paddy Collender, Brooklodge, after a rather long illness.

A member of a well known farming family, the Walls of Newtown farm, Kilmacthomas, she came to Brooklodge about 50 years ago.

A woman kind in nature, gentle and unassuming she endeared herself to all those who came in contact with her throughout her life.

To her only daughter Stella, son-in-law Dan and grandchildren deep sympathy is extended.

Her remains were removed from the Hospital Mortuary, Dungarvan, on Wednesday evening to Modeligo Church and the interment took place in the family burial plot after funeral Mass on Thursday morning.

Very Rev. Fr. Barron, P.P. and Rev. Fr. Purcell, C.C., Modeligo, officiated on both occasions.

Poignancy is added to her passing by the fact that her sister-in-law Rita Collender predeceased her by only two weeks. May they both rest in peace.

Chief mourners — Stella (daughter), Dan (son-in-law), grandchildren, brother William, Old Parish, sisters May, Old Parish, Bridget, Newtown, Kilmacthomas, relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements by Maurice J. Noonan and Son, Funeral Directors, Cappoquin. Phone 058/54044 and 058/54317.)

HOME AGAIN

We are glad to see that Dick McCarthy has returned after spending some time in Ardkeen Hospital. Dick, who resides in Allen Street, looks to be well on the way to a full recovery.

SPEEDY RECOVERY

We learned only recently that popular local blacksmith, John Rea, is at present a patient in Dungarvan Hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery and hope that he will be with us in time to compete for the Christmas Hampers.

COMMUNITY BEREAVED

Sympathy is extended to his family and to the Lord Abbot and community Mount Melleray on the recent death of Fr. Mark. A well known figure locally he was in charge of the farms attached to the Monastery for many years and later was involved in the sawmills. Through his life as a Cistercian, Fr. Mark worked extremely hard in the interest of his beloved community both as a dedicated priest within the order and engaging in hard manual toil in the fields. He will be sadly missed by those whose privilege it was to know him. May he rest in peace.

ROAD ACCIDENTS

There has been another spate of collisions in the area over the past few weeks, the most recent being at the Finnisk Bridge on the main Dungarvan Road. Thankfully nobody was seriously injured when a car hit the wall. This Bridge has been the scene of many, many accidents over the years. It is hump backed and located on a bend, so therefore has all the ingredients for trouble for the unwary motorist. Waterford Co. Council may have some long term plans to make it safe, in the meantime we believe some signs should be erected to alert drivers to the danger.

STORM DAMAGE

The Affane Parochial Hall suffered some damage when a tree fell on the rear of the premises during a recent gale. This Hall is of course a converted school house and the offending tree was planted there — with many others — by a well intentioned school master many years ago. Down the years they served their purpose and provided much needed shelter. Now, unfortunately the trees, though beautiful to look at, have become dangerous and will have to be cut down. That N.T. could hardly have foreseen such problems a half a century ago.

REV. BRO. GERRARD O.CIST

Last week Bro. Gerrard (Liddy) celebrated his 99th birthday. He joined the Cistercian Order in 1914 and became well known to the local people in his capacity of farm manager and perhaps even more so when he worked in the shop in the Abbey where religious objects are sold. He was always willing and able to regale the customers with stories of his early years in the order when as he used to say the regime was much tougher than it is now. Many of these stories were re-told during a radio interview which was broadcast last week. His voice came across loud and clear and in a manner which belied his on 99 years. We wish him many more years of health and happiness.

FOROIGE IN VILLIERSTOWN

On Friday next at 7.30 p.m. in Villierstown Hall a meeting will take place with the view of setting up a local Foroige for the young people of the locality. Any teenagers interested in joining are more than welcome. Anyone willing to help as Youth Leaders are also more than welcome. The Foroige organisation is an ideal way for young people to learn how to set up and run their own organisation which aims to teach responsibility and making decisions for themselves.

CAPPOQUIN FLOWER CLUB

The above club will hold their Annual General Meeting on Tuesday, November 19 at 8 p.m. in C.Y.M.S. Hall. All new members welcome.

There will be a slide show and sales tables.

AFFANE BRIDGE CLUB

1st Marjorie Feerick and Bernadette Fives; 2nd Fr. Barron and Lil Costin; 3rd Mary O'Brien and Mary Bennett; 4th Bridget Tobin and Addie Buckley.

AFFANE A.F.C. NOTES

Killeagh were our visitors last Sunday and despite a very strong wind both sides served up some good football in an entertaining game. Killeagh had the advantage of the wind in the first half and dominated the game in the early stages. As the half progressed we came more into the game and took the lead midway through when Sean Costin was on hand to shoot from outside the box. We were back in front again five minutes before the break when Bryan O'Sullivan shot home from the edge of the box following an excellent cross from K. Reddy.

In the second half we had the wind and took control early on, but as the half progressed we began to tire and allowed Killeagh back into the game. With just ten minutes left Killeagh broke down the wing and equalised with a well taken goal. We tried hard for a winner but could not get through a strong Killeagh defence.

For us this was a disappointing result as we should have held out for the win, especially as we had the lead and the wind in the second half.

Team — C. Cullinane, D. Twomey, D. Glavin, F. McCarthy, T. Mansfield, L. Costin, J. Crotty, S. Costin, E. McGrath, B. O'Sullivan, K. Reddy. Sub. — J. McGrath for B. O'Sullivan.

CAPPOQUIN AND DISTRICT DARTS LEAGUE

The results in Div. 1 were as follows:— Dunvegan 3 Village Inn 'A' 5; Village Inn 'B' 4 Lindsays 4; Tavern 'A' 5 Old Still 3; Kereen 'A' 6 Morrissey's 2.

Div. 2 — Castle Lodge 1 The Overflow Inn 7; Dunne's 5 The Sycamore Inn 3; Toby Jug 3 Tavern 'B' 5; Sycamore Inn 'B' 5 Kereen 'B' 3.

AFFANE/CAPPOQUIN G.A.A. NOTES

Meeting — A very useful get together was held on Friday night last and many aspects of the club's activities were discussed. A further general meeting of members and players will be held on Friday, November 22.

Draw — The 5th and 6th rounds of our Non-Stop Draw took place on Friday night. There were quite a few new subscribers so the registration took a little time. We hope that this trend will continue and that the numbers will again be boosted for our next two draws on November 22. We congratulate all the winners a list of which is given below.

Week No. 5 — £50 J. Butler, p. P. O'Shea; £30 P. O'Shea, p. P. O'Shea; £20 J. Mason, p. E. Costin; £10 P. Norris, p. M. Morrissey; £10 M. Fleming, p. E. Fraher; £10 M. McCarthy, p. S. McCarthy.

Week No. 6 — £50 W. O'Keefe, p. W. Fraher; £30 R. Sargent, p. M. Byrne; £20 O. O'Connell, p. Mick and Liam; £10 Mrs. McLoughlin, p. J. Fraher; £10 L. Lemass, p. M. Fraher; £10 J. Byrne, p. Mick and Liam.

Welcome Home — We are glad to note that our star player, Tom Mansfield has arrived back safe and sound having spent a tour of duty with the Irish Forces in the Lebanon. Tom is, of course, son of our esteemed committee man, John. Both father and son have given and still give sterling service to our club.

New Selector — Congratulations to our committee man Jack Cullinane on his appointment as a Waterford U-21 county football selector. It is a fitting honour for Jack, who has devoted much time and energy on the promotion of football within the club. We know that he will show equal dedication to the task of bringing success to the county team.

RUGBY NEWS

We had our biggest win to date last Sunday when we took on U.C.C. at their home ground "The Farm." It was a truly magnificent display of forward play which brought about our 28 points to nil win over a plucky home side. Martin Power set up a scoring record for the club when he registered 2 tries, 3 conversions and 2 penalties, a total of 20 points. We also had tries by Willie O'Brien and Conor O'Riordan.

Our mentors were extremely pleased with this display and are now confident that a great future lies in store for our club.

Our team on Sunday was — N. Hayes, E. Heffernan, P. Fitzgerald, E. Lonergan, E. Harty, W. O'Brien, J. O'Brien, E. Hayes, C. O'Riordan, P. J. Veale, K. O'Reilly, M. Power, J. Dignam, D. McGrath, M. Reddy. Subs. — A. Power, T. Aherne, H. Collender, N. O'Connor, B. Cunningham, R. McGrath, R. McLoughlin, N. Uniacke.

We expect another first class display next Sunday when we will be away to Waterford City.

We organised a very successful underage meeting on last Thursday night. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Pierce McNamara and by Mr. Michael Darragh, who is I.R.U. Youth Officer. Mr. Darragh spoke of the great need to have our youth involved in sport, especially boys between the ages of 12 and 16. He stressed that while he was promoting the game of rugby that at the same time our youth should be encouraged to participate in some sport, no matter what it was.

Underage training will commence at the Danes Field on Monday, November 18 at 7 p.m.

TRIBUTE TO PA SHEEHAN, TALLOW

The passing of Pa Sheehan has left a void in hurling, none more so than in his native Tallow. His deeds and exploits will live on in the annals of Brideside hurling where his name is carved with pride. On the field of play and off he was an example to all. Pa was the complete hurler. Allied to that he had speed, endless stamina and bottomless heart, a formidable combination. I would say ground hurling was his strong forte, lovely wrist work and his expert timing of the ground ball with or against was a joy to behold. He rarely soloed except to get free and he bemoaned the scarcity of ground play and would say "sure how can they when there is no bit of heel in a hurley today."

Linking up with his brother Bill, they formed one of the best midfield pairings in club hurling at the time. His brother Tom was a useful half forward and one can readily see what an impact they made on Tallow hurling.

Their workshop in Barrack Street was the mecca for all hurling men, young and old. At that time fellows cut their own ash roots, cut them into planks at Scanlon's Mill, then on to Sheehan's workshop which was a hive of industry, every fellow busy at his own plank. Of course they were under excellent supervision as the Sheehans were top-class hurley-makers. The debates and arguments that went on about the games and outside them as well, if recorded, would generate some interest today.

But back to the hurling: one Sunday Tallow were playing Carrigtwohill, at the time one of the leading clubs in Cork. Pa was marking "Big" Tom Barry who, at that time, was a midfielder on the Cork County team and as they say, Pa "hurled the socks off him" that day. At the finish of the game he came to Pa in admiration and told him "Sheehan, you are the best small man in Ireland today."

Tallow played Tulloroan in a tournament. Pa was pitted against the great Lory Meagher. It was a miss match as usual. Pa in a sustained all-out effort, covered the field. Lory couldn't keep tabs on him so he wisely decided to stay in one place to deal with whatever came his way. I may add he was on the way out at the time.

Pa was younger, at his peak, in Tallow's great tussles with Erin's Own. He marked "Fad" Browne, then regarded as one of the best centre-field men in the game. I can assure you he had nothing to spare over Pa.

I feel honoured to regard him as a friend. Shortly before his death, at a local game, I had a shake hands and chat with him and recalled old times. The era of togging out by the fence, when transport wasn't too reliable and the ould bike was often called in at short notice, the plain cup of tea after the match was always welcome. Pa was the most genuine of hurling men. He never wavered in his love and admiration of the game. May his generous soul and spirit rest in peace.

Co. Manager's Orders For Urban Council

Orders made by the Co. Manager for Dungarvan Urban Council included:

Planning Application — That outline planning permission be granted to Edmund Harney, Sexton Street, Abbeyside for change of use to commercial and flats at Sexton Street.

Arrears Of Water Charges — That Aries Management Services Ltd., Kilcock, Co. Kildare be instructed to carry out necessary works to facilitate the disconnection of water supply to consumers who have failed to respond to demands for payment of outstanding arrears.

AN UNCHRISTIAN ACT

In regard to this Order, Cllr. T. Wright said that he had already condemned it as an unchristian act to cut the water supply to any family and as he was aware that a number of housewives and children had been intimidated. He asked how much had been paid to these people by the Council.

The Co. Manager, Mr. D. Hurley said that they hadn't so far got the bill. He said that a different type of stopcock had been installed by the agents appointed at a number of houses at a cost of £3,000.

To further questions by Cllr. Wright, the Town Clerk, Mr. B. White said that the stopcocks had been put outside about 30 houses and premises. There was an additional cost of £70 per house for the materials used.

Cllr. Wright — That makes a total of £5,000.

The Manager said that despite all the exhortations, some people didn't pay their water charges and refused to do so and this outside agency was then brought in and as a result a sum of £10,000 had been collected in a short few weeks.

Motor Insurance — A National Disgrace

Exorbitant car insurance rates are not so much a national disgrace as a national outrage. So claims Consumer Choice following a survey carried out for the magazine's November issue.

A survey of 15 motor insurance companies shows that even if you did not claim on your insurance policy over the last twelve months you could have to pay a further 25% premium this year.

Consumer Choice discovered that almost all premiums had increased over the last twelve months — some increases were as high as 37.6%. The vital message from Consumer Choice is that it does pay to shop around for motor insurance. However, "It is not possible to say that one particular company is always the cheapest" according to a Consumer Choice spokesperson as insurance is tailor made to suit an individual.

Consumer Choice states that the high level of accidents, high legal costs, high compensation levels, and the high proportion of uninsured drivers are the main factors which contribute to the outrageous cost of our motor insurance.

Many motorists feel that because premiums are so expensive they should claim at every possible opportunity. The high number of claims and the cost of claims results in even higher premiums for motorists.

Consumer Choice calls on the Government to act now on the findings of the special Inter Ministerial Committee for Insurance (1990). This committee looked at road traffic law reform, enforcement of road traffic law, the court system and the motor insurance market. Consumer Choice contends that a safer driving environment should reduce the number of accidents and claims which in turn should stabilise, if not reduce, insurance premiums.

CONSUMER CHOICE SURVEY FINDINGS

Consumer choice presented the same four driver profiles to each of 15 insurance companies and obtained comparable quotations for third party, third party fire and theft and comprehensive cover. The survey's findings show, for example, that:

*a 47-year-old male, Co. Limerick civil servant, with 26 years driving experience and a full no claims bonus, seeking insurance for a car valued at £8,000, could pay between a low and a high of:

Cover	Cost Range	Savings
Third Party	£255 to £340	£115
Third Party Fire & Theft	£294 to £424	£130
Comprehensive	£377 to £774	£397

*a 33-year-old female, Dublin clerical worker, with 3 years claim-free driving, seeking insurance for a car valued at £1,200, could pay between a low and high of:

Cover	Cost Range	Savings
Third Party	£291 to £555	£264
Third Party Fire & Theft	£303 to £593	£290
Comprehensive	£339 to £788	£449

*a 47-year-old male, Co. Sligo teacher, with 30 years driving experience and a full no claims discount, seeking insurance for a car valued at £5,000, could pay between a low and high of:

Cover	Cost Range	Savings
Third Party	£226 to £557	£331
Third Party Fire & Theft	£262 to £588	£326
Comprehensive	£337 to £792	£455

*Only one of the 15 companies approached was prepared to provide insurance of any type to a 25-year-old Co. Waterford man, with a provisional licence, who is still awaiting the outcome of a third-party claim against him for personal injuries arising from an accident in 1989.

"FRIENDS OF DUNGARVAN DISTRICT HOSPITAL"

This is just to remind all of you that we are still meeting and working very hard — our aim to provide 30 new Nesbitt Evans high-low beds. The estimated cost of this project is £40,000, fifty per cent of which will be borne by the South Eastern Health Board.

The beds in question, while expensive, are necessary to properly cater for the patients at St. Vincent's Hospital, having regard to the age and mobility of the patients in the hospital. The matron, staff and medical personnel at the hospital are all agreed that the provision of such beds is essential.

The committee are of the view that fund raising for the provision of such facilities in the hospital which provides a valuable service for the people of Dungarvan and surrounding areas should be tackled immediately.

Our first fund raising event will take place on Sunday, November 24. We are running a dance at the Park Hotel, Dungarvan. (See advertisement). Tickets are £5 each and are available from Morrissey Meats, Grattan Square, First National, Grattan Square and Richard Dalton, Jewellers, Main Street, Dungarvan, or from any committee member. Telephone 43452 or 43584.

P.S. — Come along tonight, Wednesday, November 13, to "The Moorings" for a ballad session and sing song. All local musicians, who are giving their services free. A great night is assured. See you all there. — L.I.B.

LIVE COVERAGE OF J.H. FINAL: RING V. KILMAC'

Seán Bán Breathnach will do a live broadcast on Radio Na Gaeltacht on Sunday next, November 17, of the county junior hurling final between Ring and Kilmacthomas. The game will be played in Walsh Park and commences at 2.45 p.m.

ST. CATHERINE'S G.A.A. NOTES

St. Catherine's 8-13 Youghal 2-2

This intermediate hurling game was played at Ballynoe last Sunday. It was a round of the Cooney Cup competition involving the above teams. Played in gale force wind it wasn't very conducive to the contest. Catherine's, however, even though playing against a strong south-westerly wind adopted themselves better to the conditions which they maintained up to the break. The visitors played some of their best hurling prior to this and were rewarded with a goal and two points for their efforts. Catherine's reaped the best of the advantage in the last half and along with raising green flags, they sent over some stylish points, especially from far out in convincing fashion.

Catherine's lineout was — John Hartnett, Pat Fitzgerald, Pat Sullivan, Barry Regan, Patsy Donoghue, Shane O'Connell, Pad Joe Lonergan, Seamus Neville, Cathal Casey, Christy Clancy, Donal Leary, Pat Clancy, John Mangan, Denis Walsh, Eamonn Galvin. Subs. — James Spillane, James Sheehan, Sean Buckley (all used).

The U-16 county football semi-final involving St. Catherine's versus the winners of the Carbery v. Muskery contest will now be played on Sunday, November 24.

This Friday night at Castlelyons Hall our junior competitors will be competing in the Divisional Scor semi-final and it's timed for 7.30 p.m. sharp agus guimid Rath De ortha.

Do you pandiculate often?

DO you pandiculate often? Most of us do, especially when we are tired or bored. And when one person pandiculates, other people nearby often feel an irresistible urge to follow suit.

Pandiculation is simply the medical term for yawning. Although still why it is contagious still baffles the experts. They know why we yawn. It is a reflex action when there's too much carbon dioxide in the blood. It's nature's way of putting things right with a deep gulp of oxygen.

But why is it apparently contagious? A doctor said: "All we know is that the particular nerve - the fifth cranial - which controls the muscles used in yawning is somehow stimulated when someone else yawns."

The experts agree that yawning is good for us. It's almost as good as doing early morning exercises, especially if you do all the stretching movements usually associated with a good, wide yawn.

Some years ago, yawning was included in a set of exercises published by the Central Council for Physical Recreation, and, about the same time, with a special diet issued by the National Dairy Council.

Dr John Clyde, one of the country's leading dieticians, endorses yawning as a way of relaxing and digesting food.

And Sir Paul Dukes, British secret service agent in Russia during the early days of the Bolshevik regime, made a life-long mental calm.

But yawning can bring anguish, too. There are thousands of cases on record of big yawns causing locked jaws.

And 59-year-old Mrs Maggie Baldwin, of Chesterfield, Derbyshire, committed suicide after a week of non-stop yawning.

A Hereford farmer, Jim Langford, found a television programme so boring a few years ago, he yawned. Suddenly, while his mouth was still open, something snapped and he found he couldn't close his left eye.

Doctors discovered his big yawn had severed a nerve controlling the eye. It took six weeks to heal.

The longest period of continuous yawning seems to be 66 days in 1935 by 42-year-old Mrs P.E. Wakelin, a housewife, of Victoria, British Columbia.

She lost about two pounds a week and only managed to sleep with the help of drugs.

It started when she went to the cellar to get some jam for her three children. It was an old case, and as she reached to get a jar, the cover of the case slipped from her grasp and hit her on the head.

The Record books lists the case of a 15-year-old girl who, in 1888, yawned non-stop for five weeks.

Charles Darwin told us that baboons and some of the smaller monkeys yawn as a sign of apprehension or anger.

But take a leaf out of our pets' book. Watch cats and dogs and see how often they yawn and stretch for the fun of it.

Then try it yourself.

Lán Stad For Bridgie Terries

This coming Friday night, November 15, sees the return to Bridgie Terries of the up and coming folk and traditional group "Lán Stad." The group, consisting of Mick Mahoney, vocals, guitar and blues harp; Mick Lehane, vocals and guitar; Ed. Cantwell, banjo and mandolin, have been steadily building a following in the Waterford and East Cork area, indeed in recent months they have played in major folk venues as far as Cork City. The groups appeal lies in their ability to play a wide range of folk and traditional material, and in particular their treatment of old standards which they breathe a new lease of life into with their innovative arrangements. Being a Cork man myself, and indeed an avid music lover, I shall be making my way to Bridgie Terries this coming Friday night, so why not join me in an evening of "ceoil agus craic" with a group of lads that in their short life span together are starting to attract attention in the folk circuit. — J.P.M.

LISMORE BADMINTON NOTES

Mag Morrissey's team were beaten 3-1 by Ferrybank. All these game were quite close and the lads were unlucky not to have at least drawn. Catherine Crowley's team beat Dungarvan 3-1 in some very exciting games. Mary McGrath's team lost to Kilwatermoy, again all these games were good, but Kilwatermoy were just that little bit better on the night. Ann Dunne's team got the result they needed, they beat Dungarvan 3-1, which now puts them one point ahead of Dungarvan with just one more game to go.

Pa Morrissey's team lost 4-0 to Lady Lane (Waterford).

Results of the draw were — £50 Mrs. S. Norris, Barrack Street, Cappoquin; £30 Mr. P. Mason, c/o Coleman's, Lismore; £20 Mr. M. Whelan, Ferryland, Lismore.

LISMORE SOCCER NOTES

On Sunday morning last we had Inch as our visitors in this our second league game of the new season. In a very even first half we went close on numerous occasion but the same as last week's game — the ball just wouldn't go in. However at the other end Inch had goals in quick succession in the 25th and 30th minutes with Tommy Pratt replying just before the break.

On the turn around we started strongly and Gordon Clarkson was unlucky when he made his own space with a great run which the Inch goalkeeper matched with a super save.

That subsequently turned the game and a defensive error at the back gave Inch a two goal cushion. There was no reply from a limited Lismore outfit and Inch had two more before the end of the game. Final score — Lismore 1, Inch 5.

Next Sunday we travel to Youghal, kick-off 11 a.m. and players are asked to be at the monument at 10 o'clock.

Lads we must keep the heads up and stick to our task. We know our resources are limited, so let's keep plugging away — it will come good.

Attention to all under 18 players — our first game of the U-18 league season starts next Saturday afternoon when we play Railway Athletic in Lismore. All are welcome. For more information contact Michael O'Leary (Jnr.) at the Red House.

Finally, our good wishes go with our senior hurlers for next Sunday's Munster Club Championship semi-final against the Cork champions, Midleton. We have great faith in the team and know that you're capable of beating the best of them. Good Luck.

TALLOW NOTES

PA SHEEHAN, TALLOW R.I.P.

The large crowds that assembled for the removal of Pa Sheehan's remains from St. Carthage's House, Lismore to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, on Saturday evening, Nov. 2 and again on Sunday, Nov. 3 for interment in the adjoining cemetery testified to this legendary man's popularity amongst all classes of people.

Pa, despite the many accolades, showered on him, especially during his long and illustrious hurling career remained the same man always and to quote Kipling "he could walk among Kings and not lose the common touch," and at eighty two years of age his happy voice could be heard at bingo sessions, at Tallow and Conna, almost within a few days of his untimely death. And since dispensing with his camán, he held the stronghold in the realms of the G.A.A. as President of his native Tallow Club, and in the intervening years as trainer and advisor to many surrounding clubs.

He was, as well, a member of the Committee of the Tallow Community Centre and was ever available to assist in any matters or work concerning the local Convent and Church, and Pa's virtues were eloquently extolled by two of his life long friends, firstly at the Requiem Mass, by Fr. Killian from Galway and later by that doyen of orators, Pat Fanning, former President of the G.A.A. who gave the graveside oration.

Pa was brought up in a house that was "known to all the vagrant train" of G.A.A. fans, of course, and how we frequented Sheehan's house, morning, noon and night to savour with delight the Gaelic lore which permeated the ambience as the pros and cons of past games and future games would be discussed by a thronged house, mostly composed of Tallow senior hurlers, whilst Pa, Bill or Tommie could be in the process of shaping out a hurley stick with a special pole for ground hurling. And so many of those were presented to us free of charge during the dark days of the economic war.

Pa gained a junior county medal with Tallow in 1930, and a senior one in 1936. In inter-county circles he and Mick Curley were on the Waterford minor hurling team which captured the county's first All-Ireland in 1929. He was one of the 9 players from the Brideside town on the Waterford hurling team in 1931 that brought All-Ireland honours, winning for his native county the junior Blue Riband and again on the Waterford junior hurling team with six Tallow men in the jubilee year when they wrested that All-Ireland from strong opposition in 1934, and 4 years later in 1938 he was on the first Waterford team to contest an All-Ireland senior hurling final in Croke Park, and although experiencing the hard luck of losing by two points, as Pat Fanning said, they paved the way for future victories, the first one coming 10 years later.

It was elevating to hear Fr. Killian refer to Pa's outstanding Christian values, his great love of the Mass, the Eucharist and the Rosary often said on their journeys together to Thurles and Limerick, etc., and one other significant virtue in Pa's life, his care and attention of his invalided wife in her final years, and Pat Fanning's exhortation to the up and coming gaelts to model their lives on Pa Sheehan's fervour and spirit and they would be repaid for their achievements.

No doubt Pa's spirit will live on amongst us and although he sleeps in his native Tallow churchyard our prayer is that the green sod of Tallow that he cherished and revelled on may rest lightly on his breast. Go dtu gaidh Dia leaba imeag na Naomh agus na nGael do.

To his sister, nephews, nieces, sisters-in-law, relatives and friends our deepest sympathy. His coffin was shrouded in the Blue and Gold of Tallow and a guard of honour from the Tallow Hurling Club as well as many other clubs was present. — J.B.

TALLOW BRIDGE CLUB NOTES

AR MBUIOCHAS

Tallow Tidy Towns Committee wish to congratulate and thank our citizens for their co-operation during the year with all of the plans designed to keep Tallow clean, tidy and worthy of putting on one's visiting list. It can be said that Tallow maintained its high rating as an attractive small town set in a beautiful tranquil part of our county where the natural warmth and friendliness of the people make the visitor feel welcome and at ease.

The adjudicators of the national Tidy Towns competition endorsed this view of Tallow by increasing the mark of the previous year and constructively criticised where they perceived a need to do so.

Many people deserve a bouquet for enhancing our status. The townspeople in general, business people, school children and those individuals and firms who sponsored some of the schemes implemented, were to the fore front. The residents of Woodview Park can take a bow for their enthusiasm and dedicated care of the lovely young trees which have given shape and character to their estate. Mrs. Sheila Ryan, Secretary and Tallow Enterprise Group were generous with their contribution towards our efforts. Ms. Mary Houlihan I.R.D. West Waterford gave valuable assistance from the outset and was always available when required. None was more eager to help than Mr. James Ryan and staff of Waterford County Council. No request for help was rejected and he went out of his way to be of help to us. He has been doing this for years, of course, and takes pride in doing his best within the financial constraints of his position. He would be the first to acknowledge the co-operation of Mr. John O'Flynn, County Engineer and Mr. John Sweeney, Area Engineer who have been loyal to West Waterford where resources permit. In expressing thanks we look forward to fruitful co-operation in 1992.

Ar mbuiochas aris daoibh uile. Taimid faoi chomaoin agaibh.

TALLOW GUN CLUB NEWS

Now that the season is in full swing, the hardy souls with dog and gun are once again taking to the open countryside to pursue the age-old tradition of pheasant shooting. So far birds are fairly scarce in this area but this situation will hopefully improve as the weather hardens and birds leave the forestry area to feed in the more open country.

Once again it is annual social time for the club, so remember on Nov. 23, all roads lead to Knockanore — tea and sandwiches will be served as usual with music by "Keep In Touch." Tickets priced £2 each are available from all club members. There is a bus leaving the Square in Tallow at 8.30 sharp. Fare £2 return. Bookings at John Lyon's Bar or John William McCarthy, O'Brien Bros. (Advt.)

The club is now running a vermin control shoot to reduce numbers of foxes, grey crows and magpies, which cause so much damage to wildlife stocks, pheasants in particular. Any farmer having problems from these pests is welcome to contact Moss Geary (058/56158) and the club will act promptly to alleviate the situation. Once again farmers are reminded that all club members are covered by insurance. However, it should not be assumed that outsiders have taken the same essential precaution. — Chris Coady P.R.O.

THOMAS LEAHY MEMORIAL TROPHY

Tommy Leahy R.I.P. may not be known to everybody, not even everybody in Tallow, where he was born less than half a century ago and where his early years were spent. Only those who were his contemporaries would remember him well because like many before him and, sadly, hundreds more today, he emigrated to New York where his aunt helped put him on the road towards finding a rewarding job.

Once settled in the "Big Apple" he, in turn, came to the aid of other members of his family who found in New York the employment denied them at home.

He never lost contact with Tallow and frequent visits home and the "Dungarvan Leader" ensured that all of the Irish news reached his ears. His love of hurling and devotion to Tallow and Waterford hurlers were strong. When Waterford's hurling team visited New York following the All-Ireland victory of 1959 Tommy was a very proud man. I can remember him shouting encouragement from behind the goal during the first game against New York. "Come on Tallow" may have baffled some but we knew where Tommy's heart was! Tallow Gaelic Field had no greater supporter than Tommy whose dollars were generously sent on at a time when the debt needed shifting. He continued to be a loyal benefactor of the club when eventually he retired and returned to Ireland taking up residence in Youghal.

Only God knows how many lame ducks, hard-ups and neighbours he helped over the years. After his family, to whom he was devoted, especially his dear mother, he gave of himself unselfishly and when he died tragically almost two years ago he was mourned far and wide.

Mrs. J. Leahy, Tommy's mother who still resides in New York, wished to commemorate him and donate a magnificent trophy to Tallow G.A.A. Club, leaving it to the club's discretion to decide on how the trophy should be used. A recent club meeting decided that no competition deserved to be honoured more than the Under-12 'B' hurling competition for which no trophy exists. West Waterford teams all participate in this particular competition and while hurling is played, some team in this part of Waterford, which Tommy loved so dearly, will be holders of the Thomas Leahy Memorial Trophy. He deserved a fitting memento and our sincere thanks to the Leahy family for enabling this perpetual reminder of a kind, gentle and generous man who never forgot his roots.

TALLOW FOR FINAL

Tallow 3-3

St. Patrick's 1-0

Putting in a storming final ten minutes Tallow's U-12 footballers qualified for a meeting with Ardmore next weekend in the crunch match of this championship. The score at full time might suggest an easy victory but those present at Cappoquin on Sunday last witnessed a fine, well contested game where the issue was wide open until Barry Power's goal proved the turning point as it was followed quickly by two goals and a point.

Even in those closing minutes St. Patrick's, in the great tradition of the club, fought back heroically to get back into the game and the scoreboard does scant justice to their efforts. A fairer reflection of their worth was the half time score of Tallow 0-2, St. Patrick's 0-0, a slim lead in view of the strong breeze behind the winners.

When St. Patrick's had the ball in the Tallow next early in the second half to go ahead, it looked curtains for the Bridesiders. Now it was that mighty James Murray, captain and leader, decided to up his already high work rate. The full backs, Sean Slattery, Maurice O'Brien and Shane McCarthy were unyielding and David O'Brien, Martin Ryan and pocket-Hercules Paul Murray formed a launching pad from the half back line to put the Pat's defence under pressure. Barry Power and James at midfield linked to supply Paul, Sean and Ronan Cronin, William Henley, Roy Henley and Jason Prescod with the necessary ammunition to win the battle. Credit to them for putting in a strong finish and setting up a meeting at the same venue on Saturday next with the boys from Ardmore.

Thanks to Cappoquin whose pitch is always in good shape and to referee Jimmy McGrath. Scorers — Sean Cronin 1-1, Paul Cronin and Barry Power 1-0 each; James Murray 0-2.

C.L.C.G. Lios Mor

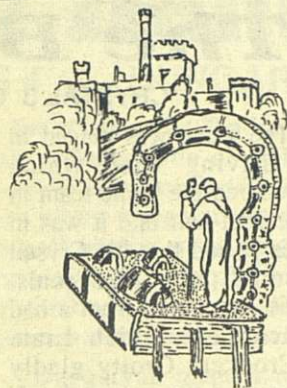

WALTER WALSH MOTORS TROPHY

Lismore senior hurlers became the first winners of this beautiful trophy at the Castlefarm grounds on Sunday last when, in a one-sided game, they over ran the Sargent Cup winners De La Salle to win comfortably on the score 4-12 to 0-3.

Playing without three regulars, Seamus Prendergast, Michael O'Sullivan and J. J. Duggan, the home side were never in danger from the outset and by half time had notched up 3-0 without reply from the city team who, try as they might, could never hope to match the skill and fitness of the county champions. As a contest, it was a big disappointment for the small crowd, which had braved the bitterly cold elements in the hope of seeing a good competitive end of season game. On the other hand it was a tonic for the local supporters to see their team display such fire power to notch up four goals and twelve points and augurs well for this weekend when they play Cork champions Midleton in the semi-final of the Munster Club Championship — "a different kettle of fish" you may well add!

Following the game last Sunday, Vice-Chairman of the County Board, Jimmy O'Gorman, had the distinction and in his own words, "the privilege and pleasure" of presenting the trophy to the Lismore captain, Brendan Lawton, who in turn expressed gratitude to his club for the honour bestowed on him before thanking the De La Salle team for a good sporting contest. The city team and officials were guests at a most enjoyable social evening which followed.

For the record, the Lismore team was — Declan Landers, Mark O'Sullivan, David Barry, Paddy O'Donnell, Brendan Crowley, Kieran O'Gorman, Billy

Lee, Brendan Prendergast, Carthage Barry, Paul Prendergast, Sean Prendergast, Brendan Lawton (capt.), Donal Landers, Sean Daly, Frank Power. Subs. — Martin O'Brien, Brendan Ormonde, Anthony Tinnelly (all used)/ Referee — Pat Moore, Abbeyside.

NENAGH CO-OP UNDER-16 HURLING TOURNAMENT

Waterford were narrowly beaten by Limerick in the semi-final on Sunday last (3-6 to 2-5). Sporting the county colours on the occasion were Oliver O'Dowd, James O'Connor and Brendan Ormonde, who also lined out for the Lismore seniors later, the same afternoon!

MAKE ME AN ISLAND — I'M YOURS!

Heartiest congratulations to our stalwart wing back, John J. Duggan on the occasion of his marriage to popular local lady Breda Hennessy, at the Church of St. Mary, Inisheer, Aran Islands, on Friday last. In wishing the happy couple many years of wedded bliss we also want to remind John that "normal life" resumes at Midleton this Sunday, November 17 at 2.30 p.m.!

COMMUNITY CENTRE

The next phase in the construction of the Community Centre has got the "green light," and the installation of doors and windows will commence shortly. While this is another giant leap forward, much remains to be done before the building is ready for use, so we appeal for your ongoing support for our efforts in providing this much-needed facility for the area.

MUNSTER CLUB SENIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

The first semi-final of the above competition takes place in Midleton on this Sunday, November 17, commencing at 2.30 p.m., when Waterford county champions, Lismore, meet their Cork counterparts in what is expected to be a thrill-a-minute encounter. While the first round against Kerry champions, Ballyduff, was a "cake walk" for the locals, Midleton can be expected to provide much stiffer opposition which their star studded side. However, Lismore are playing great hurling at the moment and their fearless, confident attitude could well see them through to a Munster final meeting between the winners of Clare champions, Clarecastle and newly crowned Tipperary representatives Cashel King Cormacs.

A special supporters bus will leave 'The Monument' at 1 p.m. and seats will be available, by prior booking only, through Dick Ahearne, 47, Parks Road. To avoid disappointment you are advised to book now.

THE CASHEL CONNECTION

Congratulations to the aforementioned Cashel King Cormacs who won their first county title on Sunday last in an historic victory over Holycross-Ballycahill. It will be recalled that Cashel beat Lismore (5-10 to 3-0) in the semi-final of the Eamonn Walsh Cup back in June and went on to defeat Ballyduff to take the trophy in July by 1-16 to 0-9. Current Lismore clubman and committee member Garda Sgt. Tom O'Grady started his playing career with the Tipperary team with whom he won minor hurling and football county titles before moving to the Cathedral Town, where he achieved the ultimate honour of playing hurling for Lismore. Well done Tom! Well done Cashel!

Bride View United AFC Notes

GOOD WEEK-END FOR UNITED

United's two junior sides did the club proud on Sunday last. Our A team had a great away win against league leaders Cappoquin. While our A team were winning away, our B team were at home to Cappoquin B and put up a tremendous performance before sharing the points in a six goal thriller.

Mickey Curley and John Doyle were our main marksmen with both scoring 2 goals each.

RESULTS DIVISION ONE Cappoquin 1 Bride View Utd. 3

United took on league leaders Cappoquin on Sunday morning last and came home with the points after an entertaining game. United took the lead in the 16th minute when Paul Curley's pass split the Cappoquin defence and brother Mickey was first to react and scored from close range.

Both sides went close after this opening goal. Ian McIntosh and Maurice Hartnett both went close for United while Cappoquin had their chances as well before they equalised in the 37th minute. Both sides were locked together at the break at 1-1.

Three minutes into the second half, Cappoquin missed a great scoring chance when from a clearance Martin Power picked up the ball at the halfway line and with only the keeper Grey to beat, he shot wide. Cusack was unlucky in the 53rd minute when he headed wide but he made amends two minutes later when he was brought down in the box and Mickey Curley made no mistake from the penalty. This was the turning point of the game although Cappoquin had a shot which came back off the post in the 60th minute. The game was sewn up for United when in the 68th minute Gerard "Speedie" Hogan got a classic goal to wrap up the points for United.

This was a great team performance from United where John P. Grey was superb in goal. The defence of McCarthy, Sice, Sheehan and Hartnett were solid. Midfielders McIntosh, Curley and Hogan all played their part while up front Cusack, Curley and Henley performed well.

United — P. J. Grey, T. McCarthy, G. Sice, T. Sheehan, M. Hartnett, G. Hogan, P. Curley, G. McIntosh, D. Henley, M. Curley, E. Cusack. Res. M. McCarthy for Cusack, P. Sheehan.

DIVISION TWO Bride View United B 3, Cappoquin B 3

This was a six goal thriller with good football and plenty of skill which kept the fans happy. United were in front three times during this game, but Cappoquin fought back each time.

Gary Henley put United in front, only for Cappoquin to equalise soon after. John Doyle restored United's lead and they held this up to the break.

Cappoquin were back on level terms early in the second half but again Doyle struck for United to put them back in the lead. Again Cappoquin struck the equaliser and at the final whistle both sides had to settle for a point apiece.

United — S. O'Brien, D. Doyle, M. Ahern, C. Cunningham, P. McDonnell, M. Geary, G. Henley, J. J. Henley, J. Doyle, C. Barry, D. Flaherty. Res., B. Murphy (used), D. Martin, J. Fitzgerald.

SEAVIEW CELTIC CO-OP DRAW

The club had two winners on Saturday night last. Denis Martin Junior won a washing machine and Peggy Murray, Convent Street won £100. Congratulations to both. Don't forget next month's draw takes place in The Corner House and what a night that should be. More news later.

BADMINTON

Waterford Glass Tournament An Outstanding Success

The Waterford Glass Open Badminton Tournament, which was held on Saturday last in Dungarvan Sports Centre was an outstanding success as large numbers of badminton players from as far away as Castleisland in Kerry to the borders of Tipperary, took part.

Under the direction of Tournament Director Jim Kiersey and assisted by executive members Michael McGrath, Maureen Moran and John Young, the tournament reached the finals with smooth efficiency.

In the women's quarter final, Janet O'Sullivan of Kerry teamed up with Catriona O'Brien of Tipperary who took on Suzanne Watters and Thelma O'Donnell. After a brilliant game, the Kerry/Tipperary combination won out.

WATERFORD V. LIMERICK IN MEN'S FINAL

It was nice to see Waterford represented in the men's final by Martin Walsh and David Nolan, who wore the county colours against Eamonn Keating and John Hickey of Limerick, who came out on top.

Red House League Notes

UTD. TOPPLE LEAGUE LEADERS

Bride View Utd. defeated Cappoquin on Sunday morning. Cappoquin's reign as league leaders was short-lived but they will remain a force in the league. Killeagh grabbed a late equaliser in Affane. The big shock in this division was Lismore's defeat by East Cork side Inch.

In division two we had a six goal thriller in Tallow while Ballyduff had a big home win. The games in Araglen and Piltown ended in draws.

RESULTS — DIVISION ONE

Cappoquin 1
Bride View Utd. 3

Holders Utd. knocked out league leaders Cappoquin on Sunday morning last. This was a tough but sporting game. Mickey Curley gave United the lead in the 16th minute but Brian Murray equalised for Cappoquin in the 37th minute. At the break the sides were level at 1-1.

A penalty to United in the 55th minute saw them go in front when Mickey Curley scored. A classic goal by Gerard "Speedy" Hogan in the 68th minute clinched the points for Tallow.

Affane 2, Killeagh 2

Sean Costin gave the home side the lead in the 23rd minute, but Killeagh struck straight from the kick-off when a 30 yards pile-driver from Richard Landers went all the way to the net. Affane went in front again in the 35th minute when Brian Sullivan scored to give Affane the lead at half time.

With time running out it looked as if Affane would secure both points but a Colman Galvin cross was headed home by Kieran Scully in the 83rd minute to give the East Cork side a share of the points.

Lismore 1, Inch 5

This result surprised many fans as it was felt the home side might shade it. Lismore were never in this game. They fell behind after 12 minutes when Diarmuid Sexton scored. Norman Griffin added a second in the 20th minute before Tommy Pratt pulled one back for Lismore.

Lismore came briefly into the game at the start of the second half but Liam "Washer" Kelly brought off three great saves to deny them an equaliser. Norman Griffin in the 60th and 80th minutes, saw him grab a hat-trick and Tomás Tracey rounded off the Inch scoring in the 88th minute. Overall a good Inch performance.

Glenview 0, Youghal 0

No goals here but plenty of chances to both sides. Youghal had Don Mulcahy sent off in the first half and they felt his loss for the remainder of the game. Glenview were short three regulars but new signing Dec O'Donnell did well on his debut.

Valley Rangers 4
Modeligo 1

Rangers had a convincing home win on Sunday despite going a goal down when Vincent Donovan scored. Liam Murphy grabbed an equaliser before the break. With the wind behind them in the second half Rangers added three further goals without reply, from Billy Carr, Sean Hickey and Liam Murphy to clinch the points for the Conna side.

DIVISION TWO RESULTS

Bride View Utd. 3
Cappoquin 3

Good football, plenty of skill and six great goals made this game a thriller for the big crowd in Tallow. Three times Cappoquin came from behind to get a share of the points. United's scorers here were John Doyle (2) and Gary Henley. If both of these sides produce performances like this for the rest of the season then both will be in with a chance of league honours.

Araglen 2, Ardmore 2

Araglen grabbed a share of the points against the seashiders on Sunday. They fell behind twice but showed courage in fighting back to get a well deserved point. Araglen scorers here were Tony White and Pat Buckley.

Ballyduff 5, Pinewood Rangers 2

Ballyduff got off to a winning start with a big home win over Rangers. James Scanlon (2) and Fintan Fennessy gave the home side a 3-1 lead at the break. Scanlon struck again in the second half for his hat-trick, with Ger Hickey getting Ballyduff's fifth.

Big John Quirke was back between the posts for the home side and brought off two great saves in the second half.

Piltown 1, Grange 1

Piltown will see this as a point lost. This local derby produced good patches of football. Grange will be happy with a share of the points. Seamus Allen was Piltown's scorer here.

PREVIEWS AND FIXTURES

Youghal v. Lismore, kick-off 11 a.m. — This should be one of the best games over the weekend. Both sides will be in the top half of the table come March.

Modeligo v. Affane, kick-off 2.30 p.m. — This local derby should produce plenty of good football with a lot of pride at stake. Affane are going well this season and may just shade the points here.

Bride View Utd. v. Glenview, kick-off 11.30 a.m.

— United will be favourites to take the points here. Glenview have pulled off some shock results in the league to-date (the biggest one was defeating Killeagh at home) but it's hard to see them getting a result from the league holders.

Inch v. Valley Rangers, kick-off 11.30 a.m. — Both of these Cork sides will be anxious for points here. Rangers with a full panel will put it up to the home side. Inch are never easy to beat at home and they may be just good enough to take the pints.

Killeagh v. Cappoquin, kick-off 11.30 a.m. — This clash of the giants should be a tremendous game. Both sides fancy their chances to become league champions. Killeagh are still looking for their first league win while Cappoquin suffered a home defeat last Sunday. The points could be shared here.

DIVISION TWO

All games in this division kick off at 11.30 a.m.

Cappoquin v. Grange — Cappoquin are having a good season. They are improving with every game despite dropping a point to United last Sunday. Grange are finding the going tough and it's hard to see them getting a result here.

Pinewood Rangers v. Piltown — Rangers are finding the going tough but their players still put in the effort. One of these Sunday's they will cause a surprise but it's hard to see them doing it against Piltown.

Mogeely v. Ballyduff — This should be a very entertaining game with both sides looking for an outright victory. Mogeely are unbeaten in the league to-date but this will be their toughest test yet and it will be interesting to see how they fare against this strong Ballyduff outfit. Ballyduff may shade it.

Ardmore v. Bride View Utd. — Ardmore are a side that have improved with each game. Both sides will be hoping to grab both points here. United had a good result last Sunday when they drew with Cappoquin and they will be hoping to get a result away to Ardmore.

UNDER-18 CORNER HOUSE LEAGUE

For the first time ever an official under-18 league gets off the ground. This will be of great benefit to the league. Four clubs have entered the league which will be run on a home and away basis. It is also hoped to have a cup competition.

Leagues for u-10, 12, 14 and 16 will begin after Christmas.

The draw for the opening games took place at The Red House Bar and are as follows (games will have 40 minutes in each half): Youghal v. Bride View United; Lismore v. Railway Athletic. Both games will be played on Saturday, November 16, at 11.30 a.m.

IMPORTANT

It's important for clubs who intend entering the under-age leagues to hand their club's age group into the league committee at their next meeting.

DUNGARVAN CRYSTAL F.C. NOTES

Crystal Get The Breaks

CRYSTAL 3 CRUSADERS 1

The game was played in a driving wind which favoured the home team in the first half and it was in this period that the Crystal scored their three goals. The first came from a bad back pass which Liam "Crocker" Crotty gladly punished the visitors for. It was "Crocker" again for the second, rounding the keeper after some good approach play. With the Crystal in flying form, Ollie White added the third just before half time, when a through ball from Willie Halpin caught the Crusaders rearguard square.

The second half was a different story, after five minutes goalkeeper Tony Murphy had to retire, injured from a bad tackle that went unpunished. It was that man again Crocker who was on a hat-trick who took the position between the sticks.

About a quarter of an hour was gone when Crusaders scored, a hit and hope shot from outside the area swerved in the wind and though the keeper got his hand to it, it still managed to creep in. This boosted the visitors but our defence of Sheehan, Sheehan, Dunford and James were well capable of handling anything that was thrown at them. The last twenty minutes saw the Crystal take control of the game again and they we might have added to our tally only for some very dubious off-side decisions.

This was a good disciplined performance from the Crystal, especially in the second half. Let's hope we can continue on in the same manner.

Team — T. Murphy, K. Sheehan, T. Sheehan, S. James, P. Dunford, G. O'Donnell, L. Shanley, W. Halpin, L. Crotty, C.

White, S. Prendergast. Res. — E. Meaney, V. O'Donnell.

SNIPPETS

We wish a speedy recovery to Pat Keane whose illness last weekend left him on the bench or was it the seat? We also hear "Kidney" has paid his light bill, so all those who donated candles can have them back!

Watch this space for more.

Glenview F.C. Notes

Glenview 0, Youghal 0

It was stalemate in our first home league game on Sunday last. The weather did not help the football, but both teams did their best in the conditions.

The first half was even with both sides having chances but failing to convert. After 30 minutes Youghal were reduced to ten men when an attacker was sent off for dissent. Glenview pushed forward and had Youghal under pressure.

At the start of the second half a defensive error let in Donnell for a shot but the keeper saved. Glenview were putting together some good passing movements in midfield which were creating the chances but we could not find the finish. A P. J. Dolan pass found McGrath on the right, his cross found Power (A.) in the area but his shot was just high off the crossbar.

Neither side could break the deadlock and on the balance of play a draw was a fair result.

Team — Casey, Power (G.), Crowley, Power (J.), Dolan, Bennett, Kett, Power (A.), Landers, Tobin, McGrath. Subs — Donnell, Hickey.

MUNSTER JUNIOR CUP

United Hammered

BOHEMIANS 4 DUNGARVAN UNITED 1

Dungarvan United made the journey to Wadding Park on Sunday morning last to take on the mighty premier side of Bohemians. Great expectations were had by Dungarvan and their supporters and as can be seen from the result there wasn't much to cheer about at the end of the day. To be fair, the day was not ideal for football with a near gale force wind blowing around Wadding Park and the standard that the playing surface was in, left a lot to be desired from one of Waterford's most prestigious clubs, but after saying this, Dungarvan's performance was main culprit on the day.

United were camped in their own half for the first 45 minutes and after which they had conceded two goals. The first goal came after Bohs had forced, what seemed an enormous amount of corners and after Dungarvan failed to clear their lines Bohs punished them severely. The game at this stage resembled that of a game of "backs and forwards" as Dungarvan were pinned with their backs to the wall. Bohs got their second goal, again the result of another corner.

The second half started as the first had finished and again Dungarvan were over run by Bohs. The game was ended as a contest when the homesters got their third goal, again it came from a cross from the right and the winger was left unmarked at the back post and he duly headed home.

Dungarvan made a rare excursion into the Bohs danger area and Willie Coward got a consolation goal with the help of the referee. Garry Burke should have brought United back into the game but he missed from 6 yards and after this Bohemians finished off the game with a fourth goal late in the game.

Dungarvan were "never at the races" in this game and their performance, or lack of it, must be a worrying sign for John Walsh and Jimmy Healy. A lot was expected of this side this season and if they are to harbour any chance of taking league honours, then they will have to get their act together and perform at the standard which they are capable of. What puzzled me on Sunday was that Bohemians weren't that great, but Dungarvan were very poor and seemed to be uninterested in the proceedings and when you're playing a premier league side of the calibre of Bohs then you will pay the price.

Dungarvan were without the services of Jeff Allen on Sunday, but this factor shouldn't have made much difference as Dungarvan have a very strong panel of players.

John Walsh has the hard job of trying to lift his side out of the doldrums after this hammering on Sunday last and he will have his work cut out for himself if his players perform like this again this season.

CAPPOQUIN SOCCER NOTES

Bride View B 3, Cappoquin B 3

Last Sunday we travelled to Bride View Park for what was always going to be a hard game. We made things even more difficult by letting Bride View take the lead on three occasions.

Bride View started the better with a strong wind at their backs and were unlucky not to take an early lead when a long range shot came back off the post. Their pressure paid dividends soon after when they scored a headed goal from a corner kick. We got back on level terms ten minutes later when a Bride View defender handled the ball inside the penalty area. Conor Prendergast converted the resultant spot kick. The next goal came with only five minutes left in the first half. Bride View scored at a time when we had most of the play. Billy O'Shea nearly levelled it before the break but his header went just wide.

In the second half and the wind with us, we put Bride View under intense pressure and got our just rewards when Conor Prendergast headed his second. We suffered a body blow with 15 minutes remaining when a bad defensive error left Bride View in for their third goal. To our credit we fought back and scored the best goal of the game. The ball was moved down the left wing and crossed into the box and was headed home by the incoming Conor O'Leary for a deserved equaliser.

Bride View had a shot go just wide late in the game and Conor O'Leary nearly snatched a late winner but his effort went just outside.

'A' SIDE BEATEN
Cappoquin A 1,
Bride View A 3

Everything fell right for last year's league champions in his game. Bride View scored early on. An awkward bouncing ball beat the defensive and ran straight to a surprised Mickey Curley who finished it off well. It wasn't long before Brian Murray got us back on level terms and the scoreline remained unchanged at the break.

We suffered an early blow in the second half when our regular goal scorer Gossie Mason had to retire injured. He was replaced by Shane Fraher. We played our best soccer in the early part of the second half and were unlucky not to score, but then our luck ran out again and Bride View took the lead from the penalty spot. We committed ourselves to all out attack after this but couldn't get the breakthrough and Bride View on the break made sure of the points through a "Speedie" Hogan goal.

Railway 0, Bohs 7

Our under-13 side were away to City side Bohs and as the scoreline shows, we were beaten well. Half this side are under 12 players and are finding the 1st division hard going. We were never really in this game but full credit to all the lads who turned up for the game.

UNDER-15 TSB
LEAGUE

Railway 0, Southend 1

Our under-15 side had top of the table Southend at home. When we met a few weeks ago they beat us by nine goals. This time it was a different story and we could have got a point. We played nice football and it is nice to see this team beginning to start playing football again.

Glenn Arrigan had a great game in goal. All the lads put in a great effort and with this kind of display we should do well for the rest

Impressive Win For '3B's'

GARDA 1 DUNGARVAN UTD. 2

A magnificent display by our second team in Waterford on Saturday evening last when they came from a goal down to take both points from a hard-hitting Garda outfit. This must rate as the Blues best performance to-date against a Garda side that must surely be the biggest in the junior league.

The home side won the toss and gave Dungarvan first use of the very strong breeze and the Blues were quickly into their stride, with the pace of Simms once again the key factor. However, it was Garda who nearly took the lead in the 10th minute when the centre forward rose high to meet a right wing cross but his powerful header was brilliantly saved by K. Drummy. The Blues broke away and a good ball from Mulcahy released Simms who sprinted into the box but shot into the side netting. Shortly after, a great through ball by P. J. Drummy put in his brother Brendan but his shot flew across the face of the goal.

Garda took the lead somewhat against the run of play midway through the half when a mistake by full back Cummins left in the winger and his shot from an acute angle beat Drummy. The visitors almost restored parity before the break but "Foggy's" free kick flew inches wide.

The Blues lost the services of "Beefy" at half time and he was replaced by B. Crotty and they proceeded to play some fine attacking football against the wind but it looked like our old problem of missed chances would spoil everything.

With 55 minutes of the game gone, Dungarvan brought on B. Wade for Stalky Walsh and moved L. Sandford to centre forward and it worked. Almost at once a good cross from Simms was met by Sandford who fired inches over. The equalizer was not to be denied the Blues for long however and minutes later Drummy's cross was touched home by Sandford. The visitors were rampant now and it was no surprise when they took the lead with ten minutes remaining.

Again Sandford was involved when his pass put Simms clear and he broke his duck with a rasping shot.

This was a fine display by the Blues against a very physical Garda side.

Team — K. Drummy, P. Mulcahy, L. Sandford (capt.), A. Donnelly, S. Cummins, J. W. Power, J. Walsh, P. J. Drummy, B. Drummy, M. Walsh, A. Simms. Res., B. Crotty for Power, B. Wade for M. Walsh.

Man of the match: P. J. Drummy.

Dungarvan Utd.
Teens Lose Again

On Saturday last, Dungarvan Teens played Johnville and after a hard fought game the Blues lost 4-2. The Blues scored first when Mark Hyslop beat three players and scored a beautiful goal. Johnville levelled and then went one up at half time.

Dungarvan tried hard in the second half with Landers and John Foley coming more into the game. However the Blues let Johnville in for two more goals before they scored their second from a penalty by Mark Hyslop.

Overall, this was a better display by Dungarvan.

Team — Lawrence, Coles, Simms, Sheehan, Butler, Landers, Hyslop, J. Foley, Power, Walsh, Cooney. Res. D. Foley for Butler, M. Coles for Simms.

European Championship Preview

GROUP 7

IRELAND HAVE NEVER WON IN TURKEY

Poland v. England Poznan
kick-off 5.30 p.m.

Turkey v. Ireland
Istanbul
kick-off 5.30 p.m.

By now everyone knows it's simple, England must lose and Ireland must win to qualify for Sweden next Summer.

Injuries have forced changes on both sides, Ireland suffering more because of their smaller selection pool. Graham Taylor still hasn't decided on a selection and playing pattern and must be reflecting on lucky wins especially away and at home to Turkey. Can he get that one point he needs? Poland have called in their players from all over Europe and they don't need motivating against England.

In my view England have not improved under Graham Taylor but they may be able to hold on for a point or maybe it's time for lady luck to turn against them, let's hope so.

Ireland play the team that hasn't scored a goal yet but who were decidedly unlucky in Wembley last month. Turkey have improved under manager Sepp Piontek and will provide stronger opposition than in October 1990 when they were over powered at Lansdown Road. Turkish club football has never been stronger with Galatasaray still highly regarded in European Club competition.

The Turkish manager's tactics usually involve 5 players in midfield behind 2 strikers with 2 man markers and a sweeper in defence. Ireland have lost 7 players from the original panel and when this includes Andy Townsend, Ray Houghton and with Niall Quinn struggling to overcome an ankle injury, it underlines just how serious it is. It is in situations like this that good managers come to the fore and Jack Charlton will stick to his game plan. I believe what ever team he puts out it will be to put pressure on the home defence and to try to batter the Turks into submission.

Alan McLoughlin is sure to come into midfield, he recently has been on loan to Aston Villa, he could easily be joined by Staunton in midfield. Up front, in the absence of Quinn, Cascarino and Aldridge will be our hope for the goals for an Irish victory. Defence cost us dear in Poland — will Mick McCarthy be recalled and at whose expense and does Chris Hughton join Terry Phelan in the full back positions. This game will be a big test on Pakie Bonner, in the week of the Polish game he conceded 12 goals in three games and while things have improved at Glasgow Celtic since, there hasn't being many shut outs for the Donegal man of late.

This time I will leave team selection to the manager with the Irish luck some one will get injured coming off the plane!

Some statistics will confirm the danger of a draw in Istanbul — Ireland have played Turkey 8 times since 1966 — 4 victories in Dublin and 3 draws and 1 defeat in Turkey. Ireland's last game in Turkey was the World Cup build up friendly in May 27, 1990 and a scoreless draw was played in intense heat. It would be a bitter irony if Ireland fail to get their first victory on Turkish soil and the old enemy were to lose in Poland. This quite possible result would add insult to those lost chances, especially against England away and Poland twice. Ireland have been dealt a tough hand to play, we have the best manager to play it and a win in Turkey under the circumstances irrespective of what ever happens in Poznan would be a great result.

GROUP 4

Northern Ireland v. Denmark in Odense

Northern Ireland play the improving Danes in Odense and if Billy Bingham is to retain his job an unlikely victory is needed here.

GROUP 2

Scotland v. San Marino in Hampden Park

San Marino have conceded 29 goals and scored none, a home banker for the Scots. But Switzerland or Romania can keep them from qualifying if the results go as I think they will.

GROUP 5

Wales v. Luxembourg in Cardiff

Luxembourg are another team with no points and Wales will push their points total to 9 points. Germany are away to Belgium, one point for the World Cup holders will set up the formality of a December 17 home tie against Luxembourg. — B.K.

SQUASH — BANK OF IRELAND TEAM TOURNAMENT

On Tuesday night last we had our second round games played in court 2 in this much sought after tournament. Teams in action were George Hamilton v. Michael Manahan.

At number 5 we had Bridget Duggan in against John Keane. The first two games here were marathon sessions with John winning 10/9, 10/9; before Bridget eventually got her game together to win the next 3 sets 9-1, 9-3, 9-4. In at number 4 came Pat Keane against our first juvenile Liam Moore. Pat's experience proved too much for Liam here and won 3-0 (9-5, 9-5, 9-2.) Next on were the number 1's, George and Michael. Here we had two speed merchants who were going to chase everything and they did not disappoint the large crowd that watched this game. Three games were fought to the end before George eventually won 3-0 (10-8, 9-7, 9-7). In at number 3 came Patsy O'Connell v. Tony Lonergan. This in true sporting terms was "the mother of all battles" with both players not prepared to give an inch in the battle for victory. Tony raced into a 2 set lead only for Patsy to fight back to win on a scoreline 4-9, 3-9, 9-2, 9-6, 9-7. (Even the ref. P.H. was shattered). And so it was now down to the number two's Andrew Lally and Gerry O'Connor, with Andrew needing to win 3-0 if his team was to go through. This looked a tall order as Gerry had always seemed to have the better of Andrew in crunch games in the past but Andrew silenced all his critics with a superb 9-5, 9-5, 9-4 victory to send Ml. Manahan's team into the semi-final.

On Thursday night we had 4 teams in action battling it out at for a place in the semi-finals. On court 1 Dermot Kelly's team were in against Pat McGovern's "famous five."

First on court at number 5 we had Ray Hahessy playing Geradine O'Connell. Ray's overall fitness and strength proved too much for Geradine and after some very long rallies Ray won 3-0. At number 4 Joe Salmon was in against Ann Dunford. This turned into a real marathon with Ann pushing Joe to four sets. Ann stormed back to take the second set but after some long rallies Joe ran out on the score 3-1. Next on court we had number 1 Dermot Kelly v. Pat McGovern. Pat raced through the first set on a score 9-1 and looked to be in complete control of the second at 5-0 only for Dermot to come storming back to take the set 9/5. Dermot seemed to raise his game from here on and ran out an easy winner of the next two sets. At number 3 we had Joe O'Brien against that most experienced campaigner Jackie Sandford. Against any other opponent I am sure Joe would be fancied to win, but Jackie's intensive training schedule in the gym over the past 3 months ensured he was not going to be caught for fitness and despite Joe's best efforts he had no answer on the night for Jackie, eventually losing 0-3. This result put Dermot's team in an unassailable position which resulted in the number two's Gerry Foley and Paddy Walsh not having to play.

So Dermot's team go marching into the semi-final so all eyes were now on court 2 where John Cliffe's team were doing battle against Dave Power's team of "no hoppers" (or so the experts said).

At number 5 Catherine Walsh played Clare Cusack. This game was played behind closed doors (presumably to accommodate Clare's very busy schedule), next time we'll take a walkover, Clare winning by the scoreline 3-1. At number 4 we had Ann Elstead against Helen Crotty (some no. 4). I suppose there is one in every tournament!! Ann battled all the way before losing 3-0 (9-4, 9-2, 9-1). Next in were the number 1's John Cliffe and Dave Power with John's team now leading 6-1 it was vital for Dave to win here if they were to have any further interest in this round. In the first set John raced into a 7-1 lead and looked all over a winner only for Dave to come roaring back and take the set 10-9. The second set was a marathon affair before Dave took it 9-6. Dave again played great squash to win the third set 9-3 to bring his team back in with a great chance. Next in at number 3 were Dave Cunningham and Kevin Moore. Here Kevin also had to win to keep the comeback going and eventually won 3-0 (9-6, 9-1, 9-3). And so it was down to the wire with the number 2's doing battle to see which team would go through to meet D. Kelly's team in the semi-final. Playing at number 2 for J. Cliffe was Paddy "Stormin' Norman" Murphy and at number 2 for D. Power was the evergreen Jack Elstead. Jack took the first set 9-5 only for Paddy to take the second on the same scoreline. Paddy raced into a 6-1 lead in the third set before Jack was seen to pull-up with cramp and lose the set 9/2. Jack then asked for "time out" for urgent medical attention of the most delicate nature from team doctor Clare. Some unprintable comments were heard from the gallery before Jack emerged from surgery and bravely carried on, only to lose the fourth set 9-7. This put John Cliffe's team through on the scoreline 9-8.

So the semi-final line-up is Stephen Lyons v. Michael Manahan; John Cliffe v. Dermot Kelly.

News on these games next week.

Our newly elected Executive Committee are certainly not wasting time with plans at present being drawn up for improvements in our squash courts seating arrangements. We await their much needed plans with interest. That's all until next week.

Cunnigar Pitch & Putt Club Notes

On November 6 we held our first annual general meeting and it was indeed a healthy meeting, with about 50 members present. Chairman, Paddy Power opened proceedings and gave an outline of the development of the C.P.&P. Club from beginning to the present day. He said that the club had gone from strength to strength and this was a tribute to the hard working Committee and the members generally who gave unselfishly of their time and labour, week after week, to maintain the excellent condition of the course and greens and to ensure the smooth running of competitions.

The Chairman also expressed the club's gratitude to Co. Manager Dan Hurley and his staff for all the help they gave from the very start. He also thanked Fás for their contribution to the club's development.

Gratitude was expressed to our sponsors and to the members who sought sponsorship, Paddy thanked the Secretary, Dan Crotty, Treasurer, Ray Moloney and all the committee for their efforts. He concluded by extending his best wishes to the incoming committee.

Finally, he extended his personal thanks to all who helped him in his period of office. Well done.

Treasurer, Ray Moloney's report showed the club to be in a very healthy condition. He expressed his gratitude to all who had helped him in his time in office with special thanks to Nora Delaney who made his work so much easier. The Chairman thanked Ray for a job well done.

MINNIES SQUASH CLUB NOTES

VICTORY IN TALLOW FOR MEN

On Wednesday night, November 6 a depleted Men's Country League team travelled to Tallow where I'm delighted to report a very good 10 points to 7 points victory for our chaps. Number one Owen O'Mahoney was on the road to recovery from food poisoning, number two Frank O'Donoghue has severe knee trouble and would appear to be finished with squash for the season, if not for good (we would like to wish Frank a speedy recovery and hope he continues being his usual helpful self around the club) — all this meant that Dan McCarthy was elevated to top spot on the night. Dan played well but went down 1-3. At number two Paul O'Brien, back after his French experience, was in storming form and he won 3-0. At number three Paddy Power found the patchy conditions difficult as he went down 0-3. At four young John O'Donoghue did the business with a fine 3-0 win while at five the ever reliable Dave Tuohy weighed in with a 3-1 victory to give Minnies an excellent away victory.

JIM BYRNE SUPERB IN SEMIS

On Tuesday night (Nov. 5) in the first Baumann Jeweller semi-final there is no doubting who the star of the tie was, for it was like old times as big Jim Byrne put in a vintage performance reminiscent to the Byrne v. Lynch (Johnny) contests of old as he defeated the super fit masseur from Southways, Paddy Power, by three games to one in a very exciting clash. The first game could have gone either way but Jim nicked it 10-9, Paddy clawed the second 9-7, but big Jim powered back 9-5, 9-4 to win the battle. Playing at two Pat Breen took a while to adjust to the deceptive skills of Shane Pender before winning 3-1 (10-9, 3-9, 9-2, 9-7). At four, in a very exciting county council title clash, a very fit looking Ian Walsh came from two games down to defeat Josephine Harty 3-2 (5-9, 8-10, 9-4, 9-3, 9-6). Sadly for Owen O'Mahoney's team Owen suffering from food poisoning had to concede a walkover to Ray Moore and to make matters worse Owen's number five, Deirdre Finn failed to show, so Annette Power also received a walkover to leave the final score Ray's team 12 pts, Owen's team 9 pts.

TREVOR O'MAHONEY'S VICTORY NOT ENOUGH

In the second Baumann's semi a superb victory by Trevor O'Mahoney over "Beany" Byrne by three games to two (10-9, 2-9, 1-9, 9-6, 9-5) was the only bright spot for Pat McGovern's team as they went down to Michael O'Mahoney's team. At number two a slightly overdue Eamonn Murphy won a very close, tense game with Peter Stam by 3-1 (10-8, 3-9, 9-7, 10-8). At number five Brian O'Mahoney overcame a nervous start before defeating Rose Dwane 3-1 (8-10, 9-2, 9-3, 9-7). At number four Willie Browne couldn't believe the storming start of Michelle Mernin as she won the first game 9-0, before he pulled himself together to win the next three 9-6, 9-7, 9-4. At one Micheal O'Mahoney was in mean form as he saw off Pat McGovern for the loss of five points (9-1, 9-2, 9-2).

JOSEPHINE HARTY THE HEROINE AS LADIES SHINE

On Thursday night, November 7 we had the Baumann Jewellers final and all I can say is that if the rest of the finals for the season are this close and exciting we're in for a very tense and enjoyable season. It was lovely to see such a large crowd present for the final of this colourful and very popular tournament who were kept warm and on their toes by the tense proceedings (isn't that right Anne?) We couldn't have asked for a more exciting opener when Liam Byrne looked to be set for causing the upset of the tournament as he came from 2-7 down to win the first game 9-7 and then won the second 9-6 against Jim Byrne. One thing all the, dare I say, "older" squash members will know is it's very hard to keep Jim Byrne down. Jim responded turning on the power to win the third 9-4 and the fourth 9-6. So we were down to the fifth in a very close final game Liam was always slightly ahead right up to the end. In fact he served five times for the match before Jim finally "stole" it 10-9. At one, Ray Moore will be hoping for a return to the American scoring system as he was totally out of sorts against a very determined Irish star Michael O'Mahoney, taking only two points off the maestro (perhaps more practice with the squash strokes instead of the paint brush strokes might help?). At five what can I say about the performance of Annette Power except all ladies (and gents) beware, Annette's on the way up, for it was clinical stuff from the road runner as she defeated Brian O'Mahoney 3-1 (9-4, 9-0, 7-9, 9-3). (Can it really be true that Annette went for a three mile run after her game to unwind? Ask La.)

At two, Eamonn Murphy outfoxed the fox Shane Pender as he used the ball to the full and he had a fine 3-1 (8-10, 9-3, 9-1, 9-3) win. This left Michael's team leading by 9 points to 7 with the fours to come, which meant Willie Browne needed 2 games for victory or Josephine couldn't drop more than one game if victory was to go to Ray's team. In a very close opener Willie shaded it 9-7, meaning Josephine needed to win the next three. After a pep talk between games, she stormed back to win the second 9-4, so whoever won the fourth would be champions. Josephine got off to a flier to lead 5-1, but Willie, shouted on by Jacinta, Owen and co., stormed back to level at 5-5 (I don't think the sponsor Dessie or photographer Rory could take much more excitement). After a couple of very long rallies and roared on by Ray, Jane and co., Josephine pulled off four superb winners to take the fourth 9-5 for the victory of the tournament. Well done Josephine — super showing. Final score: Ray's team 10 points (3 wins), Michael's team 10 points (2 wins).

The photos were taken immediately once the road runner had dried her hair, with the presentations taking place down at the bar after a super spread by Sean Power, Rita Moore and Carmel Fox, our catering crew for the night.

The President in his address thanked all who competed, the referees, the TD's, catering crew and most of all, our sponsors Baumann's Jewellers who once again came up with superb prizes. So to Dessie and all at Baumann's, Mary Street, we say thanks a million.

Not to be outdone, the first lady La was called on to draw the ticket for the raffle (and I'm sorry Louise, but that's a real fact). Finally, I would like to finish by congratulating both teams on a very close, sportslike final which will take some matching.

BRIEFLY

Keep your eyes on the board or news of the All-rounder Ladder League, our next tournament, which will be posted up soon and watch for our men's country league fixtures and come along and support them.

Our courts will be getting full use next Saturday when as part of the Dave O'Loughlin All-Ireland Cops Trophy, we will be hosting the squash section where Francis Power, Maurice Walsh and Liam O Tuama will be Dungarvan's male reps, with Deirdre Finn captaining the ladies side. Best of luck, folks.

Until next week, I think it's one-all Louise. Take care folks! — THE VICE.

DUNGARVAN ATHLETIC CLUB NOTES

THE COLLIGAN CUP

With the Colligan Cup run roughly ten weeks down the road this is a very good time for beginners to start training in order to be able to comfortably finish the five mile course on the big day.

This event is a novel and fun event organised by the Athletic Club to promote fitness and running locally. It takes place towards the end of January each year and the runner who finished nearest to the time he/she predicts takes home the cup. Everybody starts with an equal chance in this event.

RICHIE DEFENDS

Even at his early stage reigning champion Richie Moore has declared his intentions of defending his title won so impressively in Colligan last year and he is quietly confident that he can predict a time that will see him retain the cup for another year at least. Richie hopes to begin training shortly so follow the champs approach and get yourself out on the roads without delay.

NEW ARRIVAL

Congratulations to Anne and Colin Lyons on the birth of their new baby girl last week.

HEAVY FINES

Waterford were one of eleven counties who were heavily fined recently when found to be in breach of regulations relating to presentation of games. In our case a fine of £50 was imposed because we did not have a properly attired linesman on duty. (In the circumstances the County Board Chairman, Frankie Cullinane was called upon to perform as linesman at the Ballinasloe venue). A £200 fine was imposed on both Galway and Waterford for allowing their substitutes to pucker around the ball at half time.

We were also fined for a breach of the regulations concerning proper attire and it is difficult to understand why we failed on this one. According to the decision of GAC, Waterford players wore different socks and Waterford players had different jerseys. Also, the markings on the Waterford jerseys of players number 2, 7, 8 and 15 were different from the rest of the team. Galway in the same game were fined £200 for the pucker-around and £200 because they wore different socks and togs.

Can Shane Hogan match his high score of 205 scored last week!

JOHN MOORE NOT STANDING

Western Board Asst. Secretary for the past four years, John Moore, will not be a candidate for any position on the Divisional Board this year. John will remain as County Hurling Officer on the Senior Board and as our representative on Coisde Oiluina na Mumhan and on the Coaching Committee.

John, who is one of our top referees, has decided to stand down from the Divisional Board for a year, because of extreme pressure of work, etc. This announcement will be learned with regret, but his decision, however regrettable, is understandable.

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. NOTES

MEETING

A very important meeting of the club's Executive Committee was held in Lawlor's Hotel last Wednesday night. On the agenda were matters of great importance to the club.

(1) Building of Dressing Rooms — A final decision was taken to proceed with the erection of our Dressing Rooms. Contractors for the project will be the local building firm — C. Healy & Sons. It is hoped that work will commence shortly and work should be completed sometime in the Spring of '92.

(2) Disposal of Lands — It was also decided to dispose of our excess land at Clogherane. This comprises of a land bank of 5 acres plus, together with a number of road side building sites. Disposal of the said property will be handled by a local Auctioneering firm, who will advertise the sale shortly.

So as I said, a very important meeting for the club who would like to thank our hard working field committee for their tremendous efforts to date.

UNDER-12'S COMPLETE DOUBLE Dungarvan 1-6 Abbeyside 1-3

A long, successful and very enjoyable season for our under-12 players came to an end at the Showgrounds last Saturday when the Bord na n-Og football final was won to add to the hurling victory against Lismore two months earlier.

As in all the matches against our neighbours this year, this was once again another close and exciting affair with the issue in doubt right up to the final whistle. In effect, the game was won and lost in the first ten minutes when we played some very fine football to put 1-4 on the scoreboard.

The "Village" came back at us again and again but in a hectic finish our back line held firm to record a pleasant double for our young players.

Bord na n-Og Chairman, Jimmy McGrath, presented the cup to team captain Bert Ahearne after the match. Our thanks to referee, Roger Casey, who handled the game firmly and fairly.

Team — Paul Foley, John Flynn, Brian Shanahan, Eoin Sheridan, Colin Hayes, David Morrissey, M. Power, Bert Ahearne, Jamie Burke, Alan Hart, Kieran McCarthy, M. Fitzgerald, Dermot O'Shea, Martin Power, Donie Kelleher. Subs. — E. Mansfield, T. Mullins, C. Byrne, S. Kiersey, D. Walsh, S. Flynn, M. McGovern, D. O'Leary, T. Hogan, P. Hourigan, M. Roche.

SEASON ENDS

Last Saturday's game brought the curtain down on the U-10 and U-12 season for 1991. The selectors involved with these teams would like to thank the club for their practical support throughout and also a special word of thanks to the parents for their co-operation during the year.

LADIES FOOTBALL

The Bring and Buy Sale held by the club went very well and we thank all who helped in anyway. We would also like to thank St. Mary's Primary School for the use of their field for training during the year and also for the use of Fatima Hall for the Bring and Buy Sale.

SOCIAL

Our annual social will be held in Lawlor's Hotel on January 24, 1992. A sub-committee to handle this event is in place and we will give you further details as soon as they come to hand.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Thursday, December 12 is the date for our A.G.M. which will be held in Lawlor's Hotel. As we said last week — this is your chance to come along and offer your service for '92.

SYMPATHY

The club extends its sincere sympathy to J. D. O'Shea on the recent death of his father. Ar dheis Dia go raibh a anam.

Cup Defeat For Dungarvan

DUNGARVAN 6 CLONAKILTY 21

It was a depleted Dungarvan side which went under to Clonakilty in this O'Neill Cup tie played at Ballyrandle on Sunday last.

Having played with the strong wind in the first half Dungarvan trailed by 10-6 at the break and had a practically impossible task as the team turned round. To Dungarvan's credit they held out for a long period until Clonakilty got the break through and ran out convincing winners.

Dungarvan's scores came from a penalty by Jim McGrath and a drop goal by Pat Walshe.

Team — J. McGrath, P. McGrath, D. Looby, P. Wal-she, E. Phelan, M. Brackett, M. O'Connor, J. O'Hare, J. Morrissey, P. Dunphy, T. Shanley. Subs. — A. Halley for M. Brackett; N. Hannigan for J. Morrissey.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Narrow Win For Wexford

WEXFORD 0-10
WATERFORD 0-9

Waterford lost two valuable points when they went down by the minimum (0-10 to 0-9) to Wexford when the sides clashed in their National Football League tie at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last.

A bitingly cold gale force wind made conditions extremely uncomfortable for the players and the handful of supporters who turned up at the venue. It was Wexford's ability to utilise the wind to their advantage which made the difference in the end but in all honesty Waterford could have won what turned out to be a rather lack lustre game.

The standard of football was not great but the closeness of the scoring in the second half and the uncertainty of the result were redeeming features.

Waterford had first use of the breeze but failed to make the most of it. Their passing left a lot to be desired and they over elaborated their play continually when long kicks with the wind would have proved far more beneficial.

They pointed after just eight seconds when Liam Dalton won the ball from the throw-in, soloed through and shot straight between the posts. Despite a clear cut territorial advantage they did not put their chances away and they were just three points ahead, 0-4 to 0-1, going into the second quarter.

A point from Noel Fitzhenry from a free five minutes from the break kept Wexford in touch. Waterford's best spell of the half brought three points without reply in the space of two and a half minutes but the visitors sent over another minor by Seamus Fitzhenry just on the 30, to leave Waterford 0-7 to 0-3 ahead at the break, having shot 6 wides.

SIGNS OMINOUS

There was little confidence of a home win as Waterford faced the breeze in the second half with an unflattering four points advantage. The early second half signs were ominous as Wexford unleashed a series of attacks and within thirteen minutes the sides were level as points came from John Harrington, Niall Guinan (2) and Eamonn Cleary.

The barrage continued and Louis Rafter shot Wexford into the lead for the first time in the 14th minute and a minute later a point from Noel Fitzhenry put two points between the sides.

Waterford had their first score of the half after 22 minutes from Pepi Ferncombe to cut the arrears to the minimum but with four minutes to go Seamus Fitzhenry pointed to leave Wexford two points clear.

The final few minutes were dominated by Waterford as they fought to salvage the game. Pepi Ferncombe cut the arrears to a point when he scored from a free after John Byrne was pulled down with the goal at his mercy a minute from time.

Further pressure saw Byrne again getting clear but he failed to get in a telling cross and with time almost up Waterford forced another free but it was taken immediately from the hand instead of being left to the accurate boot of Pepi Ferncombe who might have levelled for Waterford from the kick.

HELD ON

The chance was lost however and Wexford held on for their narrow win. Waterford must rue the chances they missed in the first half and again in the 32nd minute of the second half when Michael McGrath should have done better when he was put through by Martin Power. However it's what's on the scoreboard that counts in the final analysis and in this respect Wexford deserved their win.

Scorers: Wexford — N. Fitzhenry 0-3; S. Fitzhenry and N. Guinan 0-2 each; J. Harrington, E. Cleary and L. Rafter 0-1 each. Waterford — P. Ferncombe 0-3; P. Queally 0-2; L. Dalton, P. White, D. Wyse and M. McGrath 0-1 each.

Wexford — G. O'Connor; G. Halligan, J. O'Gorman, E. O'Connor; B. Kirwan, P. Fitzhenry, J. Power; L. Rafter, J. Harrington; N. Fitzhenry, E. Cleary, B. Kavanagh; N. Swords, S. Fitzhenry, N. Guinan. Sub. — M. Mahon for B. Kavanagh.

Waterford — T. Brennan; E. Rockett, T. Walsh, D. Casey; G. Power, M. McGrath, F. O'Brien; L. Dalton, L. Daniels; P. Ferncombe, M. Power, P. White; P. Queally, M. O'Brien, D. Wyse. Subs. — J. Kiely for T. Walsh; J. Byrne for P. White; D. Callaghan for D. Wyse.

DUNGARVAN C.B.S. who defeated Youghal C.B.S. in the Corn Iognaid Ris

Dungarvan CBS Topple Holders

DUNGARVAN CBS 6-5, YOUGHAL CBS 2-6

Dungarvan CBS advanced to the third round of the Munster Colleges U-16 1/2 hurling championship (Corn Iognaid Rís) after a hard earned and well deserved victory over the holders Youghal CBS at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, last Thursday.

Youghal CBS won the toss and elected to play with the strong wind, but Dungarvan got off to a great start with a goal from Aidan Fitzpatrick in the third minute. Dungarvan CBS played particularly well in the early stages, and had the upper hand even against the gale force wind, with right half forward Timmy Kiely being particularly impressive, having a marvellous first half. Gradually, Youghal took control of the game thanks particularly to the great play of full back Fergal Goggin and his 100 yard clearances and puck outs put a lot of pressure on the Dungarvan defence. Youghal picked off their scores to lead by 1-6 to 2-0 at half time.

Dungarvan CBS looked to be in a particularly strong position starting the second half, trailing by only a goal and with the gale to their backs, but Youghal started well, yet could make no progress against a strong Dungarvan defence. Dungarvan edged their way back into contention when Dwain Moore had three points from frees, and he crashed a 20 metre free to the Youghal net in the 45th minute to give Dungarvan the lead.

Michael Hurley was having a marvellous performance for Dungarvan CBS at midfield and with Ciaran Curran winning great possession at centre forward the Youghal defence cracked in the last twelve minutes when Eamon Lonergan had two goals for Dungarvan and Brendan Conway also hit the Youghal net!

Dungarvan CBS now are in the Munster quarter-final where they will meet the surprise team of the competition so far — Tramore CBS — who knocked out a very strong Limerick team in the last round.

Scorers — Dungarvan CBS — E. Lonergan 3-0, D. Moore 1-3 (frees), B. Conway 1-1, A. Fitzpatrick 1-0, C. Curran 0-1; Youghal CBS — D. Gleeson 1-0, K. O'Rourke 1-0, P. Collins 0-

2, C. Carey 0-2, J. Finn 0-2. Dungarvan CBS — T. O'Mahoney (Dungarvan), J. Moore (Abbeyside), R. Casey (St. Patricks), M. Murray (St. Olivers), R. Finnegan (Gaeltacht), A. Walsh (St. Patricks), T. Keane (St. Olivers), D. Moore (Abbeyside), M. Hurley (Dungarvan), T. Kiely (Dungarvan), E. Lonergan (Naomh Bríd), B. Flynn (Abbeyside), B. Conway (Dungarvan), C. Curran (Dungarvan), A. Fitzpatrick (Naomh Bríd). Sub. — R. Lonergan (Naomh Bríd) for B. Flynn (55th minute).

Youghal CBS — K. Hennessey (Youghal), R. McSweeney (Youghal), F. Goggin (Youghal), N.

Flavin (Youghal), B. Fitzgerald (Youghal), M. O'Brien (Youghal), M. Hennessey (Ardmore), B. O'Mahony (Youghal), J. Hennessey (Ardmore), M. Costin (Clashmore), C. Carey (Youghal), J. Finn (Ballymacoda), D. Gleeson (Ardmore), P. Collins (Youghal), K. O'Rourke (Clashmore).

WESTERN U-12 FOOTBALL FINAL

With four minutes played in this games on Saturday last, rivals Dungarvan had raced into a 1-3 to 0-0 lead,

West Waterford Primary Schools Football League

ROINN C

There is a certain amount of sorting out to be done before we are ready to play a final in this section.

Section one is clear cut enough with Ardmore/Grange topping the group and Ring in second position, which means both teams go on to the semi-finals.

In Section two Modeligo were due to play the final match in the league against Carriglea/Glenbeg on Tuesday, November 12. If Carriglea/Glenbeg win this match there will be a three way play-off between Touraneena, Modeligo and Carriglea/Glenbeg to decide who goes forward to the semi-finals.

Hence there is quite an amount of football to be played before the champions are crowned in Roinn C. — P.R.O.

but the 'Village' lads battled back, showing some tremendous spirit and narrowing the gap the 1-4 to 1-1 at half time.

The second period was another close and exciting affair, these 2 young teams have served up quite a few of them in 1991. The Dungarvan goal seemed to be living a charmed life, depriving us on a number of occasions of the goal which would have given us a deserved draw.

Well done to Dungarvan and their team and mentors on their victory and the Western double.

A LONG SEASON

It's been quite a long season for the Under-12's. Training began in early February and went on until Friday evening last and great credit is due to selectors Pat Ryan and Larry Cliffe for all the work they are putting in at this level.

The team was — Paddy Murphy, Brendan Mansfield, Richard Enright, Eamonn Morrissey, Michael Kiely, Peter Burke, John Phelan, Raymond Cliffe (capt.), James Hayes, David Sheppard, Paul Landy, Ronan McCarthy, Paudie Morrissey, Michael Murray, Joe Thompson. Subs. — Paul Hayes for J. Thompson; J. Thompson for D. Sheppard.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The club's A.G.M. will be held on Thursday, November 21 next in the Abbeyside N.S. Hall commencing at 8 p.m. Club Secretary Bernard Shields will be reporting on another successful year which saw us collecting two county titles and three Western championship titles on the playing front, while Club Treasurer, Tommy Treacy will be reporting that the club finances, despite a heavy outlay, are in good nick, with a special development fund recently being set up.

RACING

Dungarvan Trained Horses In Punchestown Battle

"Cock Cockburn" trained in Dungarvan by John Queally and "Nameloc" trained by John Kiely had a rare battle in the Glenburnie Novice Hurdle at Punchestown on Sunday last. In the end Cock Cockburn, the 11/10 favourite got the better of Nameloc (11/4) but the result might have been different had Nameloc's pilot, John Flynn, delayed his challenge until much later.

Turning for home both emerged as the principals in the race and Nameloc appeared to be cantering over this rival but coming to the final flight he hung badly left and Richard Dunwoody seized his opportunity to drive Cock Cockburn clear on the run in to win by 3 lengths.

NEXT WEEK-END

Intermediate And Junior Hurling Co. Finals At Walsh Park

Lismore Meet Midleton In Munster Club Hurling Semi-Final At Midleton

With no counter attractions within the county on Sunday next we are sure of having our last big attendance of the season at Walsh Park for the two very interesting county hurling finals involving Erin's Own and St. Saviours in the intermediate grade and Western champions, An Rinn playing Kilmacthomas in the junior final.

Hurling supporters from the far Western side of the county will journey to Midleton to cheer our champions Lismore in their bid to defeat the home side Midleton in the semi-final of the Munster Club championship.

The Saturday game will bring patrons to the Fraher Field to watch Naomh Brid play Portlaw in the final of the minor 'B' football championship.

ERIN'S OWN v. ST. SAVIOURS

The forecast for this very interesting intermediate final is that the result will see the once famous Erin's Own club back in senior ranks after many years in the hurling wilderness. Those who saw Saviours play in the championship might justifiably have other views as the Ballybeg based side are an up and coming club in the hurling world even though they are looked upon by many as being completely football orientated.

Both have several very good players, but there are some weaknesses on each team as well. Exploiting the weak spots will be a tactic of both sides in this intriguing battle. Erin's Own with players like Damien Byrne, Derek Power, Paul Walsh, Johnnie Connors, Bobby Coady, Seamus Jacob and company will be slight favourites to take this title. Their two and a half games against Shamrocks will have tuned them up very well and a repeat of the form they showed in the replay may be good enough to see them win.

Saviours played splendid hurling against St. Mary's here in Dungarvan in the semi-final and a repeat of this will put them in with a fair chance of upsetting the predictions of the opposition supporters. Their best will include Alan Power, Liam Quilty, Tony and Mark Corcoran, Mickey Barry, Derek Wyse, Pat Twomey and Brendan Brophy, all of whom figured prominently in the championship throughout the campaign.

AN RINN v. KILMACTHOMAS

The Gaeltacht side who played two replays in the 1990 junior hurling county final before losing to Ballydurn will be hoping for a more favourable result in this year's final when they take on Kilmacthomas at Walsh Park on Sunday. One of their stronger players, Tom Maher who suffered an injury in the divisional final against Kilgobinet, is believed to be a definite non-starter and his absence from the side will be a blow to An Rinn who are perceived as being slight favourites.

It is difficult to judge if the standard of junior hurling is better in one division, as against that of the other, but here in this side of the county we have reason to know that the matches were of a high quality and to win out here, the Gaeltacht team had to survive some tremendous clashes against teams like Ballysaggart, Clashmore, Ardmore, Ballinameela and Kilboginet. If the competition in the East was as good, then we are in for a tremendous county final. Kilmacthomas played a total of eleven matches in their division and played their best hurling of a great season against Ferrybank in a thrilling divisional final on the scoreline of 2-6 to 2-3. In that final Kilmac' looked well and truly beaten midway through the second half when they were six points in arrears until they fought back with heroic courage to pull away for a well deserved and historic victory. I was told on Sunday that the village is bubbling with enthusiasm and confidence and that there will be a huge exodus from the Mahonside to support them on Sunday. The expectations are that their selectors will give a vote of confidence to the side which won them the Eastern title and this will see Joe Joy in goal, Michael Lawlor, Robbie Whelan and Liam Carey in the full back line. Their strong half back line of Vincent Behan, John Browne and Tom Joe Power will surely remain untouched and in the middle of the field Kilmac' will have team captain Jessie Whelan and John Power. Eddie and Andrew Rockett with Ned Power will form their half forward line and inside they will have Michael Rockett, Jim Burke and David Kiely.

Apart from Tom Maher, An Rinn will field at strength with their customary custodian Noel O Murchu as net-minder. There will likely be a rearrangement of the side as several positional changes were made during the Western final against Kilgobinet, but certain to be included are Ml. O'Sullivan, Michael Drummy, Donal Murphy, Nioclas and Carthach Mac Craith, Matty Moloney, Finbarr Walsh, Seamie McGrath, Ml. Hayes, MacDarra Mc Donnagh, Eugene Curran, Eddie Crotty, Sean Curran, Ml. O Domhnaill, etc.

THE RESULTS?

The winners of this one will replace the winners of the intermediate final in that championship and trying at this stage to figure out which this will be is a problem. I give a slight preference to the chances of the Western team to go one better than they did last year when losing that well remembered epic with Ballydurn.

NAOMH BRID v. PORTLAW

This should be a very entertaining game at Fraher Field on Saturday when the Western champions will be fancied to beat Portlaw, who were recently beaten in the county final of the 'B' minor hurling decider. Naomh Brid will have David Whelan back and this will prove a boost for the Sliabh gCua/Modeligo combination.

MUNSTER CLUB HURLING Lismore v. Midleton

All Waterford will be rooting for Lismore who take on the Cork county champions, Midleton, in the provincial club semi-final on Sunday. The Waterford champions will have to field without team captain Seamus Prendergast who is on the injured list and Ml. O'Sullivan is also doubtful and while such defections won't enhance their prospects of beating the famed Cork county champions, our very worthy representatives are fiercely determined to succeed.

It has been a long time since a Waterford club got to the Munster final in this very prestigious competition and should we succeed here it will give a tremendous boost to hurling in the county at a time when it is badly needed. Mount Sion, who were defeated county finalists this year were the last Waterford team to achieve this when they won the title about ten years ago.

If Lismore can reproduce their splendid county final performance, many people here believe that they can win, despite the home ground advantage, etc., of the home team.

We wish them the very best of good luck and we appeal to all our hurling supporters who are available to travel, to travel in support of the Waterford champions.

which they will play the Western champions, Sliabh gCua at Dungarvan on November 23 or 24.

This will be the final championship game of the present season unless of course there is a draw at Walsh Park on Sunday next.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

County Hurling Selectors

The matter of the appointment of hurling county selectors was debated at length at the meeting of the Senior Board on Monday night before a decision was reached to have the two present selectors, Danny Murphy and Senan Cooke continue for a further year with a Lismore appointed representative.

The proposition was made by Eddie Cunningham, Tallow and eventually approved. It was further decided that the Coisde Gnotha would meet with the county senior hurling panel to discuss matters relating to a statement issued by them to the meeting. This statement stated that a meeting of players had been held on Friday night last and by unanimous decision they were asking the present selectors and coach to resign. They stated that this decision had been forced upon them by the events of the past twelve months. The letter also asked for improved treatment of the players, by the County Board.

Having met with the players, the Coisde Gnotha will report to a special meeting of the County Board on November 25.

Sympathy

Danny Lennon who died last week, was always a committed Kilmacthomas man and one who wore the colours of the renowned St. Anne's team with distinction for a number of years. In those years hurling at junior level was of a high standard and with fewer teams taking part in the championship it was not easy to win a place on the local side. Such was not the case with Danny, who was a stylish and skilful half-back in his years with the club. Since coming to reside in Abbeyside, he continued to follow the fortunes of his old club.

To his wife Breda, sons Monnie and Kieran and daughter Mary we extend our deepest sympathy.

Footballers Beaten

This was a game that we could have won and very likely would have won, had our full panel been available on the day. It was disappointing not to have taken our chances and drawn the game in the closing stages.

The gale force wind and the inordinate amount of fouling spoiled the match for the small crowd who braved the elements to see the match.

In all there were 44 frees awarded and by any standards this is an amazing number of stoppages over 60 minutes. It was nevertheless a very sporting encounter.

Our two further matches before Christmas will be against Kilkenny and Carlow.

Retirement

At a meeting of Coisde Na Peil held on Thursday last, it was announced that the Committee Chairman, P. J. Coleman had reluctantly decided to retire from his post for health reasons. The very popular Stradballyman had been the Committee Chairman for a number of years and had filled this post with distinction, and many deserving tributes were paid by the members.

The vacancy will be filled at a meeting in two weeks time.

Phelan Cup Semi-final

Rathgormack and Gaultier are the teams involved here and it should be an interesting game at Dunhill on Saturday afternoon. When they clashed in the championship this year it was reported as being one of the finest matches of the entire championship. Rathgormack won by a single point in a hectic finish on an 0-12 to 0-11 scoreline. In the other semi-final Kilmacthomas will meet St. Saviours on the following Saturday.

WALSH CUP SENIOR HURLING

Easy Win For Lismore

The scoreline tells the story of this one-sided and rather disappointing senior hurling tournament match which was played at Lismore on Sunday last.

The wind spoilt the game to a great extent, but it was not in any way responsible for the gap in standards. Lismore had little difficulty in overpowering their opponents and by half time, when the score was 3-9 to 0-0 in their favour, the match was over as a contest. Playing with the wind in the second half, De La Salle scored three points (all from play by Noel Dalton) and Lismore had a further 1-3.

Despite the gap in standards, the match provided a good work out for our county champions, who play in the Munster Club semi-final on next Sunday.

Scorers: Lismore — S. Daly 0-7; D. Landers 2-0; Paul Prendergast 1-1; Sean Prendergast 0-2, F. Power, Brendan Prendergast and A. Tinnelly 0-1 each. De La Salle — N. Dalton 0-3.

Lismore — D. Landers, M. O'Sullivan, D. Barry, P. O'Donnell, B. Crowley, K.

LISMORE 4-12 DE LA SALLE 0-3

O'Gorman, B. Lee, Barney Prendergast, C. Barry, Paul Prendergast, Sean Prendergast, B. Lawton (capt.), Donal Landers, S. Daly, F. Power. Subs. — M. O'Brien for B. Crowley; B. Ormond for Declan Landers; A. Tinnelly for Donal Landers.

De La Salle — D. Tracey, G. Lowery, O. Dunphy, M. Kavanagh, T. Clooney, O. Ryan, J. Walsh, J. Brenner, G. Brenner, Ml. Murphy, N. Dalton, E. Brenner, J. Dalton, J. Duggan, J. Carton.

PRESENTATION

After the game Jimmy O'Gorman, on behalf of the County Chairman, presented the cup to Lismore team Captain Brendan Lawton, in the absence of Seamus Prendergast who was out because of injury. The medals were also presented to the winners. Jimmy O'Gorman thanked the sponsor who was Walter Walsh of Walsh Motors for presenting such beautifully inscribed medals.

Former Chairman's Appeal

good standard with excitement being maintained right up to the final whistle. St. Patricks dominated the exchanges very much throughout the first half but might have had a better total had they not missed some scoring chances before the break when they led by 1-3 to 0-1. Roanmore came more into the game in the second half and got on top in the final ten minutes.

There was no score for the first fifteen minutes until Kevin Walsh kicked over from a '45' to give Pats the lead. Pats had a great goal by Benny McGrath in the 21st minute and three minutes later Anthony White had the point which was Roanmore's only score of the half. Tom Kiely and Kevin McGrath had the two final scores of the half to give the Western champions a deserved five points lead.

A couple of points by Conor Walsh and a goal and a point by Anthony White gave the visiting team a point lead in the 43rd minute. Another Conor Walsh point was replied to by Kevin McGrath in the 48th minute and when Kevin Walsh kicked over a free a minute later the teams were level at 1-5 apiece. It was at this stage that Roanmore got on top and had points by Tom Cronin and Anthony White to end the scoring and leave them winners by two points.

High Prices Not Wardens Cause Of Shopping Decline Says Manager

we are only shooting ourselves in the foot and I think it would be better to bring forward the meeting with the Chamber of Commerce and discuss the problem in a constructive and positive way than in this negative manner."

The Chairman, Cllr. M. O'Riordan agreed that there was sensationalism in the radio interviews on the subject. He said he had also heard on the radio that a bus was now going from Dungarvan to Waterford every Thursday night to take shoppers.

Cllr. P. Power said that they had two Traffic Wardens both doing the same job. Producing a photo of a much littered O'Connell St., he suggested that from December 1 one of the wardens could be put to check litter on the streets.

Cllr. Austin Hallahan said that being the only businessman on the Council he was probably in a better position than his colleagues to really know how the business of the town was being affected. Proof of this was shown in the inclination of the business people to introduce late night trading when the wardens were off duty.

Cllr. Hallahan added that more flexibility should be exercised in applying the regulations which he felt should be implemented in a more sympathetic way.

Cllr. R. Walsh then stated that following his motion on the matter at the last meeting he had been congratulated by scores of people.

Cllrs. Mary Dixon and Nuala Ryan both said that shoppers going on the buses out of Dungarvan were on the look-out for cheaper prices.

WARDENS SHOULD BE COMPLIMENTED

Having made the statement quoted at the outset, the Co. Manager wound up the debate by saying that the two traffic wardens "were doing a bloody good job under very difficult circumstances."

Mr. Hurley went on to say that the decline in the number of shoppers coming into Dungarvan could be attributed to economic factors rather than to the 2 wardens as people would travel to outside venues for better prices than were available in the town. Apart from parking offences a big number of the dockets handed out was for non-taxed cars, he said.

"People should think positively and business people should get their pricing right and not blame the traffic plan to the drop-off," he said, adding that he thought they should be complimenting the traffic wardens for having such good traffic management in the town.

Mr. Hurley ended by stating that the detrimental name being given to the town was misdirected and he felt that if the local traders were worried about the drop in business they should do some P.R. work and advertise the fact that the first half-hour of parking was free instead of knocking the system.

Pressed by Cllr. Power on the litter aspect, the Manager agreed "that word could go out that the litter warden would be active in the future."

Job Creation In West

McHugh, he also had recently had a meeting with officials of the I.D.A. seeking a replacement industry for Lismore and this aspect was at present being strongly pushed.

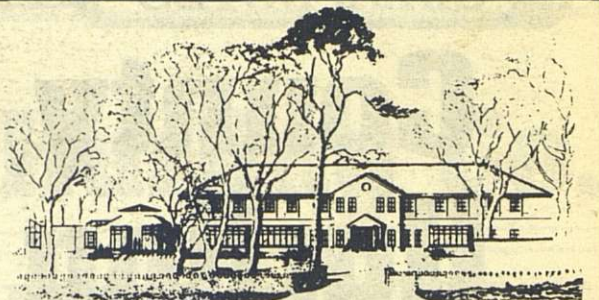

At this point Cllr. B. Kyne suggested that the Co. Manager, Co. Development Officer and the I.D.A. should take on board the matter of job protection as well as job creation. Being personally involved in the situation he was slow to raise the subject but was forced to go public now on the situation arising in Waterford Foods. Following the failure of the merger talks, Cllr. Kyne said that middle management at Waterford Foods were now engaged in getting rid of jobs in the dairy department.

He said that the new "buzz" word now being used was "contract out work" but what was being contracted out were people's jobs, entitlements and pensions. These jobs, he said, were being shed to enable the Company to build up its international reputation.

Cllr. Kyne ended by stating that it was a misguided approach by the Company to contract out jobs and he suggested that the Co. Manager, when he had time to consider the suggestion, might arrange for a forum with the management of Waterford Foods on the subject of retaining jobs within the Company.

There was no reply from the Co. Manager.
