Rate And Water Charge Increases For '92 Approved

Members of Dungarvan Urban Council at their annual Estimates meeting last Monday night following a discussion which lasted two hours, finally approved a Book of Estimates for 1992 which calls for an increase in the town rate and in the domestic and metred water charges.

The estimates as presented by the County Manager, Mr. Dan Hurley, provided for a total expenditure of £1,321,163 and called for a rate of £28.23.

Mr. Hurley told the Council that he had based his calculations on an inflation rate of 3.5%; an increase of £1 per annum in domestic water charges; a 5% increase in metred charges and a rate increase of 3.5% from £27.27 to £28.23.

The Co. Manager pointed out that they had been notified by the Dept. only that day that there would be no increase in the rate support grant but fortunately he had prepared the estimates on that premise so it would not make any difference to the figures now submitted to the Council. He added that due to the good husbandry of the Council in recent years, they were in a strong enough financial position to insulate themselves and of the 44 urbans, 33 have

Dungarvan Is Cheaper Than Clonmel or Waterford

The results of an independent shopping survey carried out recently by the Dungarvan Chamber of Commerce has shown that Dungarvan is a cheaper place to shop than Waterford or Clonmel.

The survey, carried out between Thursday, November 21 and Saturday, November 23 in the three towns, included a standard shopping basket of 40 essential food/drink items. From the result it was concluded that:

● Dungarvan stores are ranked first and third in a list of seven top stores surveyed for prices.

● On calculating the average shopping basket in each town, Dungarvan stores were cheaper than rivals in Waterford and Clonmel.

● If you shop around Dungarvan and buy wisely, the price advantage is even greater, with a £2 saving on a £50 shopping basket — that is 4% cheaper!

Items surveyed included fresh fruit and vegetables, standard food and drink items, fresh and canned foodstuffs, meat and fish and a range of cleaning materials. To ensure comparability, items were standardised by brand, weight, grade, size and number.

The convenience of shopping in Dungarvan, with all major stores within walking distance of each other coupled with the recent upgrading of shops to equal the best in the country, makes Dungarvan the natural choice for shoppers rather than Clonmel or Waterford. The price advantage has now been proven beyond doubt, on top of which out of town shoppers can save themselves one and a quarter hours travel plus petrol costs.

As Christmas comes upon us the message to shoppers is clear — shop in Dungarvan because Dungarvan is cheaper than Clonmel or Waterford!

Plans For West Waterford Golf Course On Schedule

The vital first phase of construction has been completed on schedule at the new West Waterford golf course, the challenging 18-hole championship complex being built by Mr. Pat Spratt and family at Coolcormack on the outskirts of Dungarvan.

Work on the £1 million plus course started this summer and, in the meantime, substantial progress has been made. All the greens have been constructed, laid out and seeded and the tees, too, have been built, ready for seeding in the Spring.

Construction will be resumed as early as the weather dictates at the beginning of next year and, with what has been achieved so far, the entire programme will be finished in the summer. At that stage, all the physical work on the course will have been concluded, including completion of all the fairways, bunkers and surrounds, the planting of trees and the installation of a pop-up, automatic sprinkler system.

Everything, then, will be in place to ensure the opening of the course in the late Spring of 1993. West Waterford has been designed

New Name For St. John's Association

The annual general meeting of St. John's Association for Handicapped Children was held recently at St. John's School, Dungarvan. Not entirely happy with the name of the Association, especially as the word "handicapped" was considered offensive to many, members welcomed the opportunity to discuss possible alternatives.

St. John's Association fosters the interests of all children in West Waterford with various special needs; with this in mind and realising that many people involved in the welfare and development of these children, the selection of a suitable title to capture the spirit of the Association was not an easy task. However, after much debate, the long-established body has now become "St. John's Association For Children With Special Educational Needs."

Paul Clerkin, Hon. Treasurer, indicated that through careful management of the Association's funds, along with a very generous response to the annual church gate collection (held in May) St. John's Association will continue to support strongly the work of St. John's School. This work was praised by the Chairman, Joe White, who complimented the Principal and staff on the commitment and dedication shown to the children of the catchment area.

St. John's School has pupils from Dungarvan, Cappoquin, Lismore, Tallow, Knockanore, Modeligo, Youghal, Old Parish, Bohadon, Stradbally, Le-mybrien, etc., etc. and the Board of Management (Chairman, J. D. Hally) had presented a comprehensive budget for the current school year.

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

In his report to the AGM, Noel Brennan, Principal of St. John's School, thanked the Association for its continued support. "Education at St. John's is tailored to meet individual pupils special needs," he said, "while the relaxed atmosphere and warm, family environment help to encourage pupils to develop and progress."

Due to the availability of funds, St. John's School can provide valuable and memorable experiences for the pupils, employ many and varied audio-visual aids, and devise a programme which includes practical and social skills alongside the formal areas of language and mathematics.

In conclusion, Mr. Brennan said it was important for parents and teachers to realise what a fine educational resource was available to the people of West Waterford.

"The staff of St. John's School are always pleased to welcome visitors to see the school in action," he said.

BEQUESTS

"The sudden death of Brigid O'Brien of Ardmore has been a major blow to the Association," said Joe White, Chairman. However, Mrs. O'Brien had bequeathed £1,100 to the Association and this would be used, along with a bequest from Maurice Kiely R.I.P. Dungarvan to purchase a computer for the school. "These bequests, along with other gifts and contributions from people of the area, are further indications of the generosity shown to St. John's Association since the mid '60's. Long may this goodwill towards a worthy Association continue," concluded the Chairman.

Officers and committee elected were: Chairman, Joe White; Vice-Chairman, Peggy Keevers, Ardmore; Hon. Secretary, Noel Brennan; Hon. Treasurer, Paul Clerkin. Committee: Maura White, J. D. Hally, Séamus O Domhnaill, Nora Flynn, Kitty Veale, Richard Walsh, Tom Mulcahy.

"Remembering Other Days"

It is sometime since our last "Remembering Other Days" photo appeared but because of the continuing queries from readers we have decided to re-start what undoubtedly has proved to be a most popular item in the "Leader" in the past. We have chosen a real old photo for the start of the new series which takes us back to the beginning of the present century and although all in the group have now long answered the final Great Call, the families of many still live on in Dungarvan. Unfortunately the names of all in the photo which shows the Dungarvan Strike Committee during the Great Strike of 1919 are not available. Those included are: back row (l. to r.) John Moore, Peter Moroney, Peter McGrath, — Lyons, Tommy ("Gort") McCarthy, Paddy Walsh; middle row (l. to r.) Tom Duggan, —, Jamsie Dwyer, "Cooper" Crotty, Willie White, — Meade; front row (l. to r.) — Ducey, Larry Veale, — (Union Executive from Cork), Jack Butler, Paddy Walsh.

To keep the series going we ask for the co-operation of our readers. Anyone who may have an old photo suitable for inclusion in the series would greatly help by letting us have it for publication. Any photos submitted will be looked after carefully and returned safely.

Know Your Rights

Question — A friend of mine in her late 70s wants to sell her house and move to a nursing home as she is no longer able to look after herself. She doesn't want to lose her Non-Contributory Old Age Pension as she will be relying on the proceeds from the sale of her house to cover the nursing home fees, which will cost about £180 per week. Was there some change recently about pensioners selling their homes?

Answer — Yes! New regulations came into effect on October 18, 1991 which will allow certain pensioners, who have to sell their homes to move into accommodation more suited to their needs, to retain their pension. They must be aged 66 or over, and in receipt of means-tested payments such as Non-Contributory Old Age or Widows' Pension.

This change means that income of up to £75,000 received from the sale of a principal residence will be exempted from the means-test in the following circumstances:

- When a pensioner sells her/his own home and buys accommodation more suited to their needs.
- Where the proceeds from the sale of the house are used to rent more suitable accommodation, such as special or sheltered housing in the voluntary, co-operative, statutory or private sector.
- Where income from the sale of a house is used to pay fees in a registered nursing home or retirement home.

This exemption only applies in the case of pensioners who sell their homes on or after 18th October, 1991. In the case of married pensioners they must both be aged 66 or over when the house is sold.

The Other Lismores

In the 6th century the Christian Missionary St. Mólugh following in the footsteps of St. Columba established a monastery on an Island in Loch Linnhe on the West Coast of Scotland near the mouth of the Great Glen. He named the Island Lismore. With this foundations as his base Mólugh took Christianity and learning to many parts of Scotland and Iceland. The Island became the Seat of the Bishops of Argyle and a large Cathedral was built there during the 13th century. The Island is just 12 miles by 11/2 and at the end of the last century supported a population of over 2,000 but only about 150 people now live there.

William Wilson and his bride spent their honeymoon there about 1830, they later emigrated to Australia and established a settlement on the Richmond River in Northern New South Wales. The natural beauty of their new home reminded the Wilsons of the Scottish Island and they named the station Lismore. One hundred and fifty years on Lismore has become an important regional city with a population of almost 40,000 and is called the Queen City of the North. Its principal industries are dairying, timber and flower production drawing its raw materials from the surrounding land of rich soil and plenteous rainfall.

The development and history of Lismore shows a strong Irish influence. One of the first settlers was Patrick Moloney Ryan and Fr. J. J. Doyle built the first Catholic Church there in 1878 calling it — what else — St. Carthage's. Later as Bishop he brought the Presentation Nuns and Marist Brothers from Ireland to run the parish schools. Dan Hogan, a famous bare knuckled boxer, was appointed as the first policeman, the curiously named Michael O'Nines ran the local store and J. F. Flynn was Major of Lismore for seven years in the 1890's.

The natural beauty of the area rivals its Irish and Scottish counterparts — panoramas of fertile lands, intersected by scores of streams may be seen from the surrounding hills and a few miles downstream the Richmond River opens on the golden beaches of the Pacific Coast. The town has a sporting tradition of Australian Rules (derived from Gaelic Football), golf, cricket, hockey, etc. Following the tradition of our Lismore it is the site of the States Advanced Teacher Training College from where it sends out its graduates to the schools of New South Wales.

TWINNING SUGGESTION

The coat of arms of the city, granted in 1947, incorporates the Gaelic motto: "An bhaile nach teid ar aghaigh, theid se air ais" — "He who does not advance, retrogresses." It is the understanding of the local historians and the heritage centre that the origins of their town is Scottish, apparently they are unaware that the name of the Scottish Island of Lismore was itself borrowed from the Co. Waterford town. In these times when our towns are twinned with other communities all over the world, it would seem appropriate that some connection be established between the two Lismores. Maybe the children in our primary and second level schools might like to become pen-pals with the children of St. Carthage's Primary School, the Marist Boys' School or St. Mary's Convent.

The name chosen by the original settlers of the Australian Lismore was a definite improvement on the aboriginal name for the district — Tuckerimba — meaning "place of the dog-eating glutton." — Tom O'Connor.

Waterford Is Asked To Help Ireland See The Light

The Irish Fight for Sight Campaign — the national charity based in Waterford — called on all the people of the county to help Ireland "See The Light."

The annual "See the Light" Week will take place from 24th to 31st January, 1992. The Campaign is asking for the support of everyone in Waterford who would be prepared to sell "See the Light" candles from their business, hotel, pub, shop or workplace and collect the money raised from the public for Irish Fight for Sight Campaign funds. Each candle costs £1. "See the Light Day" — Spring Eve, Friday, 31st January — is the culmination of the week's activity when the Campaign asks everyone to light the candle they have bought as a reminder to themselves and their families of the invaluable gift of sight.

Promised Talks On Refuse Privatisation Not Held States ATGWU

The ATGWU Dungarvan has issued the following statement to the effect that promised discussions on the issue of the privatisation of Waterford County Council's refuse collection service have failed to materialise.

The Union states that a letter received from Mr. Kevin Duffy, Assistant General Secretary Irish Congress of Trade Unions, dated January 7, 1991, contained the following commitment: "I have raised this matter with the Department of the Environment and they have advised me that no final decision has been taken by the Local Authority in question in this matter. They acknowledge that the privatisation of Refuse Collection is under consideration but have indicated that no decision in this regard will be taken without further discussions with the Unions concerned."

Also Waterford County Council in a letter dated 22 November, 1990 advised that when they had thoroughly investigated the possibilities as authorised, that at that stage they would open discussions with the Union.

Tony Mansfield, District Officer, ATGWU, Dungarvan, confirmed that he had written to all County Councillors advising them of these facts in order that the commitments that the Union had received were honoured.

The matter will again come up for discussion at the County Council's resumed Estimates meeting in Dungarvan on this coming Friday, November 29.

Fears Of More Job Losses At Crystal Plants

A spokesman for Waterford Crystal stated last week that no decision had so far been taken on how to deal with over-capacity in the industry but speculation was widespread throughout Waterford City that up to 800 redundancies could be expected in the three Crystal plants, two in the city and one in Dungarvan, in the New Year.

The 2,300 crystal workers are due to hold a mass meeting to discuss the situation to-day, Wednesday.

The Company spokesman also pointed out that Dr. Paddy Galvin, Chief Executive, had stated that short-time working would continue in 1992 and that there was over ca-capacity of one-third in the industry.

Dr. Galvin told shareholders when the interim figures of the company were published that there was precious little choice between short-time working and redundancies if sales did not increase in the major U.S. and U.K. markets next year.

Cappoquin Artist's Second One-Man Show In Dublin

Local Cappoquin artist Arthur Maderson, will be holding his second one-man show at the George Gallery, in Dublin, from the beginning of December.

Following his highly successful sold-out show last March, Arthur has been asked to exhibit a selection of pictures from his recent Lismore River Pool series, known locally as the Strand.

His exhibition in Dublin will also coincide with a retrospective show in Hong Kong.

Arthur Maderson's reputation in Ireland has been confirmed decisively this year with two pictures hung, and sold, at the Royal Hibernian Academy, a successful one-man show in Dublin, and more recently he was invited to represent Waterford in the 'Southern Artists' exhibition in Cork. He was also a major contributor to an authoritative book of art, published in London in November, 'The Encyclopedia of oil painting techniques,' by Jeremy Galton.

The exhibition at the George Gallery, 128 Lower Baggot St., runs from Tuesday, December 3 for two weeks.

Plans For West Waterford Golf Course On Schedule

to the most exacting detail by Eddie Hackett, one of the most experienced golf course architects in the country.

The site is ideal for a championship golf lay-out, located approx. three miles from Dungarvan, on some 150 acres of land which, with its contours and irregular configuration, permit optimum use of the truly challenging terrain. All of this represents the perfect challenge to golfers.

THE BEST BY

QUALITY AND FINISH
Mr. Pat Spratt, the proprietor, said it was always his intention to build a golf course of which Dungarvan and Waterford could be proud.

"My aim is to provide the best, recognising the standards that are now demanded and are now on offer elsewhere. Everything we do at Coolcormack will be dictated by quality and finish and when West Waterford opens in about 18 months I know we will have an exceptional golf course and a clubhouse, for which planning permission has already been granted," he added.

West Waterford will be over 6,000 yards long and one of its impressive features is the way Eddie Hackett has woven the river Brickey, and a tributary stream, into the grand design. Nine holes are brought into play with water a feature, and six will range through the mature trees, already part of the landscape.

Mr. Spratt has made no decision yet as to the level of membership but numbers will be strictly confined. Adequate provision will be made to accommodate overseas players so as to make the Dungarvan area a mecca for golfers, in particular, and tourists in general.

RECENT DEATHS

Miss Michelle O'Riordan

The entire community learned with shock, deep sadness and heartfelt sympathy and regret of the passing of twenty-two year old Michelle O'Riordan, 47 Congress Villas, Dungarvan, following a tragic road accident on Friday morning, November 15. We sympathise with Margaret (nee Walsh), Oliver and family on their loss. The McCarthy family of Deelish are also very much in our thoughts at this time, having lost son Eamon in the same accident. May they both rest in peace.

Daughter of Oliver and Margaret, Michelle was a member of a family of four. On completion of her education, she was employed at Dungarvan Crystal where she was a great favourite with both management and colleagues alike. She was an exemplary employee who carried out her duties with responsibility, vision and understanding. In her spare time she enjoyed music and the disco scene and indeed was the essence of good company having a wonderful outgoing personality. Her enthusiasm for life was infectious. In her younger years she was a cornerstone in the local Youth Club and enjoyed their many activities and projects.

For the past year she was resident in England. Predeceased by her late grandmother, Mary O'Riordan, Shandon Street by only weeks, Michelle's passing at such an early age is deeply regretted by the entire community.

On Sunday evening Michelle's remains were brought from the hospital mortuary to St. Mary's Parish Church. Guards of honour were provided by Dungarvan Crystal, Youth Club and Congress Villas Residents Association. On arrival, Very Rev. G. Power, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. J.

O'Sullivan, Rev. J. Hickey, O.S.A. and Fr. J. Gough, O.S.A., blessed and received the remains. A huge and representative concourse of mourners was present to pay their respects.

On Monday, Concelebrated Mass was offered for the repose of her soul by Fr. G. McNamara, C.C. and Fr. J. Hickey, O.S.A. Also present was Fr. J. O'Sullivan. The Liturgy was read by David (brother), Denise (cousin), while music was sung by the school choir of St. Mary's National School under the direction of Mrs. Dinah Walsh, N.T. and Mrs. Dolores Lyons, N.T.

Shortly afterwards, the cortege made its way to Kilgobinet Cemetery where Michelle was laid to rest side by side with her friend Eamon. Very Rev. S. O'Dwyer, P.P., assisted by Very Rev. R. Doherty, P.P., Rev. P. Butler, C.C. and a large choir of both local and visiting clergy read the graveside prayers.

Very many beautiful floral tributes from family, relatives, friends and organisations were placed on Michelle's and Eamon's resting place. May they both sleep in the Lord.

Chief mourners — Margaret and Oliver (parents), David and Paul (brothers), Deirdre (sister), Kathleen Walsh, Mary Street (grandmother), Paddy, Sean, Joe, Michael, Liam, Tom (O'Riordan), Jim Walsh (uncles), Peggy, Kathleen, Maureen, Joan (O'Riordan), Ann and Patsy Walsh (aunts), and many other relatives including Matt Begley and legions of friends, some of whom travelled from Ashford, England and Paris to be with us.

(James Kiely & sons, Funeral directors).

Mr. Augustine O'Neill

On Thursday, November 14, we learned with very sincere regret of the passing of ever-popular Augustine O'Neill, 41 Kyne Park, Abbeyside, Dungarvan. One of nature's true gentlemen, the deceased was very well known and highly respected among the local community. The passing of Augustine has left a void in the local scene that will be next to impossible to fill. After life's labours may he have eternal rest.

We extend our sympathies to his sister Esther Browne, Ballyvoile, brother-in-law Matt, nephews and nieces Ray, Eugene, Margaret, Angela and Pat, and many other relatives including the Bumster, Beatty and Coleman families.

On Friday evening following Rosary prayers, the removal took place from the Kiely Funeral Home to Ballinroad Church where Very Rev. R. Doherty, P.P., conducted the funeral service. Following Requiem Mass on Saturday celebrated by Fr. Doherty, the interment took place in Kilminion Cemetery in the presence of a large gathering.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors).

Mr. Edward (Eamon) McCarthy

News of the tragic death of Mr. Edward (Eamon) McCarthy, Deelish, Dungarvan, which occurred on Friday, November 15, following a car accident, was received in this area with feelings of profound sorrow and regret. The 25 year old had been working in Ashford Kent for the last two years and was travelling home with his fiancée Michelle O'Riordan, Congress Villas, Dungarvan when the accident occurred and both were tragically killed.

Edward was member of a well known and highly esteemed Deelish family. He himself was a very popular young man in the area and in England where he had made lots of friends since emigrating two years ago.

News of his tragic passing stunned all who knew him and the sympathy of all is extended to his heart-broken parents, brothers, sister and other family relatives on their great loss.

Following Rosary recited by Fr. O'Dwyer, P.P., removal was from Dungarvan hospital on Sunday, November 17, to Kilgobinet Church where the coffin was received and blessed on arrival by Fr. O'Dwyer, assisted by Fr. Butler, C.C., Very Rev. Fr. Doherty, P.P., Fr. Moran, O.S.A., Fr. Hickey, O.S.A. and Fr. Bresnan, O.S.A.

Concelebrated Mass was offered on Monday, November 18 by Fr. O'Dwyer, assisted by Fr. Doherty, Fr. Butler, Fr. Collender, Fr. Moran and Fr. Ryan, O.S.A. Also in attendance was Bro. Spring. The Lessons were read by his brother Stephen and uncle Tom McCarthy.

Burial took place in the adjoining cemetery beside his fiancée Michelle in the presence of a huge crowd who had come to pay their respects.

The chief mourners were — Gerry (father), Mary (mother), Gerry, Brendan, Stephen and Aidan (brothers), Sharon (sister), uncles, aunts, grandmother, grandfather, great-grandmother, relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

Mr. Michael Dunford

We record with sincere regret the death of Mr. Michael Dunford, Bristol and Bohadon, Dungarvan, which occurred on Wednesday, November 6 in North Tipperary while on holidays from Bristol.

Removal was from the Drohan Funeral Home on Friday, November 8 to Colligan Church where the remains were received and blessed on arrival by Very Rev. Fr. O'Dwyer, P.P., assisted by Very Rev. Fr. Doherty, P.P., Fr. Ahearne, C.C., Fr. Crowley, C.C., Fr. Lloyd, C.C. and Fr. Kiely, C.C.

Concelebrated Mass was offered up on Saturday, November 9 by Fr. Gregory Grant, P.P., Bristol, assisted by Fr. Bergin, P.P., Stinmore, Fr. O'Dwyer, Fr. Doherty, Fr. Power, P.P., Fr. Griffin, P.P., Fr. Kehoe, C.C., Fr. Ryan, O.S.A., Fr. O'Farrell, P.P. and Fr. Butler, P.P. The Lessons were read by Alex (daughter) and Bernie McGinn (sister-in-law). The Bidding Prayers were read by Sr. Aloysius (aunt), Marie Welford (sister-in-law), Jim Brooks, Bristol, Terry Coggins, do., Pat Shore, do. The Offertory Gifts were borne by his sons Ewan and Aidan and nephew Ian. During the Mass beautiful renderings of "Lord, Accept the Gifts We Offer," "Céad Míle Fáilte Romhat" and "Abide With Me" were sung by Neil Hurley.

Following the Requiem Mass, Michael was laid to rest in his native soil in the Colligan Valley.

A special Memorial Mass was offered for the repose of Michael's soul in St. Patrick's Church, Bristol on Tuesday, November 19. The chief celebrant was Fr. Gregory Grant and most of Michael's friends attended.

The chief mourners were — Amelia (wife), Ewan and Aidan (sons), Hilary and Alex (daughters), John and Gerard (brothers), Sr. Aloysius (aunt), Jack and Margaret King (parents-in-law), sisters-in-law, etc.

(Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan and Paddy Collison, Moneygall.)

Mrs. Mary Ryan

It is with deep sadness and regret we record the death of Mrs. Mary Ryan (nee McGrath), Ballinacourty, Dungarvan which occurred at Waterford Regional Hospital on Friday, November 15.

Mary, who was in her sixties, was predeceased by her husband Jamie less than 3 months ago. She was a kind and loving mother, a wonderful friend and neighbour. Though disabled for a number of years, she bore her disability with true Christian fortitude. She had a charming personality and was always good humoured and friendly which endeared her to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

Removal was from the Drohan Funeral Home on Sunday, November 17 to Ballinroad Church where the coffin was received and blessed by Very Rev. Fr. Doherty, P.P., assisted by Fr. J. O'Sullivan, Fr. G. Hickey, Fr. B. Crowley and Fr. Moran.

Interment took place on Monday in the adjoining cemetery following Mass celebrated by Fr. Doherty, assisted by Fr. O'Sullivan and Fr. Hickey.

The Lessons were read by Frankie (son), and Sean O'Callaghan (brother-in-law). Suitable hymns were sung by Jim Keohan.

Chief mourners — Eamonn, Michael, Jim, Frankie, Gerard and Martin (sons), Margaret, Anne, Carmel, Libby and Fionnuala (daughters), Denis (brother), Cait O'Sullivan, Bidy O'Callaghan and Ciss Forde, London (sisters), Naóis Cashin and Ger Fennell (sons-in-law), Anne and Cait (daughters-in-law), grandchildren, brothers-in-law, sister-in-law, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements were by Tom Drohan, Dungarvan.)

Mr. Jack Veale

It is with deep regret we record the passing of Mr. Jack Veale, which occurred at his residence 14 Mitchel Street, Dungarvan on Tuesday, November 18. Removal was from the Drohan Funeral Home on Wednesday, November 20 to St. Mary's Parish Church. Following Funeral Mass on Thursday morning burial took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To his wife Kit and relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.

Full obituary next issue.

Late Alice Cleary

Deep regret was expressed at news of the passing of Alice Cleary, Barranastook, Old Parish, which sad event occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan on Wednesday, November 20.

Removal was from the Drohan Funeral Home on Thursday evening, November 21 to Old Parish Church. Following Requiem Mass on Friday morning burial took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To her brothers, sister and relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.

Full obituary next issue.

Mr. Thomas (Tommy) Nolan

With sadness we record the passing of Mr. Tommy Nolan, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, which sad event occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan on Sunday, November 24. Removal was from Dungarvan hospital on Monday evening to St. Mary's Parish church. Following Requiem Mass on Tuesday morning burial took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To his wife and family we extend our deepest sympathy.

Full obituary next issue.

St. Declan's (Ardmore) Scout Unit Notes

As usual our weekly meeting was held in the hall last Saturday night, November 16. This week's meeting got down to the serious business of learning about how to become a Scout in CBSI.

The programme for the "Tracker Badge" has been prepared so that by January 26 we will be in a position to invest our first eight scouts and three leaders.

During the meeting we covered more about the Scout Law and learned about the unique scout handshake. The lads each reported on their "good deed" for the week and one honest scout has taken on doing two good deeds for next week!

The games this week were really enjoyable. They included "Indoor circle ball" and a game which was similar to handball with a football! This proved to be the real winner of the night.

Finally, we began planning our first hike which will take place in December. More about this in later weeks notes.

"Well done" to John, Pat and James who successfully completed the first part of the Basic Woodbadge in Mount Melleray over the weekend. They reported that the course was very well run by P. J. Kiely (16th Waterford), Assistant Regional Commissioner, Training.

May we take this opportunity to send Pad Joe our congratulations on receiving the coveted Woodbadge at a ceremony in Cappoquin recently. — SCRIBE.

High Court Judge Lifts Suspension On Waterford G.A.A. Co. Board Chairman

The suspended chairman of Waterford GAA County Board, Eamonn O Murchú of Shanclune, Dunhill, Co. Waterford, had his 12-month suspension lifted by Mr. Justice Murphy in the High Court in Dublin last Thursday.

The judge ruled that the management committee of the GAA which imposed the suspension in May of this year had acted contrary to the rules of natural justice and the suspension therefore was invalid.

The suspension resulted from an investigation into an agreement to "pay" £15,000 to the coach of the Waterford hurling team, Joseph McGrath, Shrewsbury Downs, Ballinlough, Cork, the GAA contending that such payment was in breach of the amateur status rule of the official guide (rule 12).

In his reserved judgment, Mr. Justice Murphy held that members of the sub committee of the management committee of the GAA who investigated the matter had subsequently sat on the management committee which decided to suspend Mr. O Murchú.

The judge also found that the same members of the investigating committee were also present at the central council meeting in June which heard Mr. O Murchú's appeal against his suspension, and upheld the management committee's decision.

Mr. Justice Murphy said the rules of natural justice or of fair play were not just there to achieve some academic exercise of excellence.

In this case, Mr. O Murchú, who had devoted most of his lifetime to the GAA, was suspended from all rights as a member for one year and that was a punishment. It was not a suspension pending certain investigation.

In relation to the amateur status rule, the judge said that it may be that the persons who facilitated the payment to the coach would find themselves in breach of rule 12. He was not expressing any view on that aspect of the matter because it was not part of his function to do so in this case.

Mr. Justice Murphy said that when the matter of the appointment of a coach became known in detail by the county board, Mr. O Murchú was criticised and feeling the criticism was justified and valid, he resigned as chairman on November 16, 1990.

The essence, said the judge, was that these decisions concerning the coach were made without the knowledge and approval of the county board and the board was not kept informed of the activities of the finance and development committee in the matter.

However, Mr. O Murchú was re-elected chairman of the county board at the annual convention on January 26, 1991.

Subsequent to his re-election, said the judge, the matter was pursued with greater vigour by the central council and the management committee appointed a sub committee of four to investigate the activities of the finance and development committee surrounding the appointment of Mr. McGrath as coach.

During the hearing of the case, GAA director general Liam O Maolmhuicil denied that Mr. O Murchú was singled out for victimisation.

He said the chairman of the county board was suspended under rule 136 of the association for acquiescing in regard to payments of £15,000 to the coach of the Waterford hurling team in breach of rule 12.

The director general said the entire matter hinged around the payment to the coach, Joseph McGrath, on foot of an agreement made between Mr. O Murchú and the finance and development committee and was quite clearly a breach of rule 12.

It was claimed on behalf of Mr. O Murchú that the payment was not in breach of rule 12. The agreement with the coach was for payment of 50p per mile and the sum of £15,000 reflected a figure to cover travelling expenses and some promotional work.

Costs were awarded against the GAA, but the judge put a stay on his order in the event of an appeal to the Supreme Court.

G.A.A. Decision To Re-Try Case Postponed

The Management Committee of the G.A.A. on Saturday last postponed a decision on whether they would reopen the case involving Waterford County Board Chairman, Eamonn Murphy until they receive the official record of the High Court judgment which ordered the lifting of a 12 month suspension on the Waterford official.

However, a statement issued after the meeting by G.A.A. PRO Danny Lynch hinted strongly that the Association may re-try the case involving Murphy. The association could, however, delay a decision until after the Waterford convention in December 14 at which Murphy will be seeking re-election as County Board Chairman.

Eamonn Murphy confirmed on Saturday that he would be standing for election as chairman at the Convention. But he refused to speculate on the likely outcome of the contest.

"I would not be so presumptuous as to say that I was optimistic about the outcome. I am prepared to serve in whatever role the Waterford club and delegates think appropriate," he said.

Reacting to the possibility of the case being reopened Murphy said that this was a hypothetical situation at present. "Accordingly I don't think it would accomplish anything to make any comment at present," he said.

Major Honour For Cappoquin Engineer

In conjunction with the Sesquicentenary of the School of Engineering of Trinity College, Dublin, the Senate of the University awarded the degree of Master of Engineering, honoris causa, to Mr. Brian N. Sweeney. The degree was conferred on Mr. Sweeney by the College Chancellor Dr. Frank O'Reilly on Friday last, November 15.

Mr. Sweeney, a native of Cappoquin, is Chairman and Managing Director of Siemens Ltd., and Siemens Manufacturing Ltd. as well as Chairman of Siemens Nixdorf Information Systems Ltd. He has had a close involvement over several years in the Accreditation of Engineering Degree courses at all Third Level Colleges throughout Ireland, in conjunction with the Institution of Engineers of Ireland of which he was President in 1989. He is a Fellow of that Institution and has also been awarded the Eur. Ing.

Mr. Sweeney has twice been decorated by the German Government, most recently with the Cross of Merit First Class. He is a member of the Executive and Council of the Confederation of Irish Industries, a Council Member of NESC and a member of the Board of Engineering Studies of the NCEA.

KILL NOTES

CARD DRIVE

There was another nice crowd in the Community Centre last Thursday night, November 21 for the Progressive 30 card drive with Martin Power and Noel Power in the winners enclosure, where they were joined by Patty Coleman and Mickey Hennessy.

BENEFIT NIGHT

Last Saturday night, November 23, there was a great night of entertainment and crack in Kirwan's Pub, Kill as there was a Benefit Night in aid of the "Francis Roberts Electric Scooter Appeal Fund." Music was provided by Hank and the Dominoes and the show was presented by Bob Houston of W.L.R. F.M. fame, which the big crowd thoroughly enjoyed.

The Committee would again like to thank the people for their response to this worthy cause and also to the proprietors Tom and Maureen Kirwan for the use of their premises.

KILL G.A.A. NOTES

At a recent committee meeting of the club, it was decided that the club would revive the G.A.A. Social in conjunction with the club's fabulous three-in-a-row achievement in senior football twenty five years ago. So the date for your calendar is Friday, March 27, in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan, so don't miss it!

SINGING PUBS COMPETITION

Last week saw both Dunphy's Bar and Kirwan's Pub compete in the semi-finals of the Hoffmans Variety Singing

Pubs Competition. The two shows were top class, but when it became known last Saturday night, none of the two qualified for the final in O'Shea's Hotel, Tramore.

However, we would like to thank both the publicans and the artists for two fabulous night's entertainment and hopefully next year we will see both camps in action again.

LOCAL RUNNER

Local long distance runner Francis Connolly, Knockahoola, Ballymacarbry was featured on Tipperary Radio on Wednesday last about the challenge he has issued to race against a horse over a distance of 26 miles. The following day, Miss Ann McCarthy, Graignagower, Ballymacarbry, a well known lady with Melody's Pony Trekking Stables, accepted the challenge. She was also featured on radio.

The race is set for February '92, starting at Ballymacarbry to Clonmel then on to Marlfield to Knocklofty to Newcastle via Ballybeg and finish at Ballymacarbry.

MUINTIR NA TIRE

The annual general meeting of Newcastle Muintir Na Tire Guild was held in the Community Hall on Wednesday night, November 13. Prior to the meeting Mass was celebrated in the Hall by Rev. Fr. C. Kelleher, C.C., Four-Mile-Water/Newcastle at which there was a large attendance.

The Chairwoman, Margaret Fenton welcomed all present and thanked Fr. Kelleher and the local choir who rendered some beautiful hymns during the Mass. She expressed sincere sympathy to the relatives and community on the death of their much-loved Parish Priest, the late Very Rev. Fr. Michael Russell, P.P. and all other members of the community who suffered bereavements during the past year.

A welcome was extended to Very Rev. Fr. Edmond Tobin, P.P., new Parish Priest of the Parish. She also thanked her fellow-officers and members for their co-operation during the past year, also the people who supported all functions organised by Muintir Na Tire and expressed the hope that the same goodwill will continue.

Hon. Secretary, Helen O'Grady gave a full and very detailed account of all activities run by Muintir and expressed her gratitude to each and everyone who had helped her to carry out all events in a smooth and efficient manner, making the past year a very successful one.

Marion O'Dwyer, Hon. Treasurer, gave a detailed account of the financial position.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: Chairman, Con O'Dwyer; Assistant Chairwoman, Margaret Fenton; Hon. Secretary, Joan O'Dwyer; Assistant Hon. Secretary, Helen O'Grady; Hon. Treasurer, Denis O'Grady; Assistant Hon. Treasurer, Pat O'Dwyer; PRO, Alice O'Shea.

TIDIEST GRAVEYARD

The graveyard attached to St. Mary's Parish Church, Newcastle, was recently awarded second prize in this year's South Tipperary County Council Tidy Graveyards competition. Congratulations to the caretaker, Michael Cullinane on a job well done. It is the fifth such award for the graveyard.

TRIALS WINNER

Congratulations are extended to John O'Mahony, Ardfinnan on winning the Southern Centre Two-Day Motorcycle Trials held at the Vee, Clogheen on Sunday, October 27 and also on winning the motorcycle trials at the Nire Valley, Ballymacarbry on Sunday last.

PRESIDENT'S PRIZE

A large group of residents from Ballinamult district travelled to Cork last Wednesday night where they were entertained by the Shanakiel Residents' Association, Briarscourt, Cork. They had a most enjoyable night with music, song and dance.

COACHING

On Mon. last, Mr. Peter Power, County GAA Hurling Coach, paid a visit to the local school at Ballymacarbry. The pupils look forward to those courses at which Mr. Power is doing trojan work teaching the pupils the skills of how to play the game.

BISHOP TO LAUNCH G.A.A. BOOK

In the near future Most Rev. Dr. Michael Russell, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore will launch the Holy Cross/Bally-Cahill G.A.A. History Book which is being compiled by Mr. Bob Stakelum a well known Gael at a function at Holy Cross Abbey. Dr. Russell played hurling with Holy Cross.

Tickets are available from club officers of each club.

CATHERINE KENNEDY

Ballymacarbry district was saddened on Friday last with the news of the death which occurred at the Mater Private Hospital, Dublin of Mrs. Catherine Kennedy (nee Butler), Patrick Street, Templemore and late of Deerpark, Ballymacarbry. Deceased who was in her late forties, had not enjoyed the best of health for some time, but she bore her illness with true Christian fortitude. A member of one of Ballymacarbry's best known and most respected families, the Butlers of Deerpark, she was predeceased by her mother by a mere 12 months.

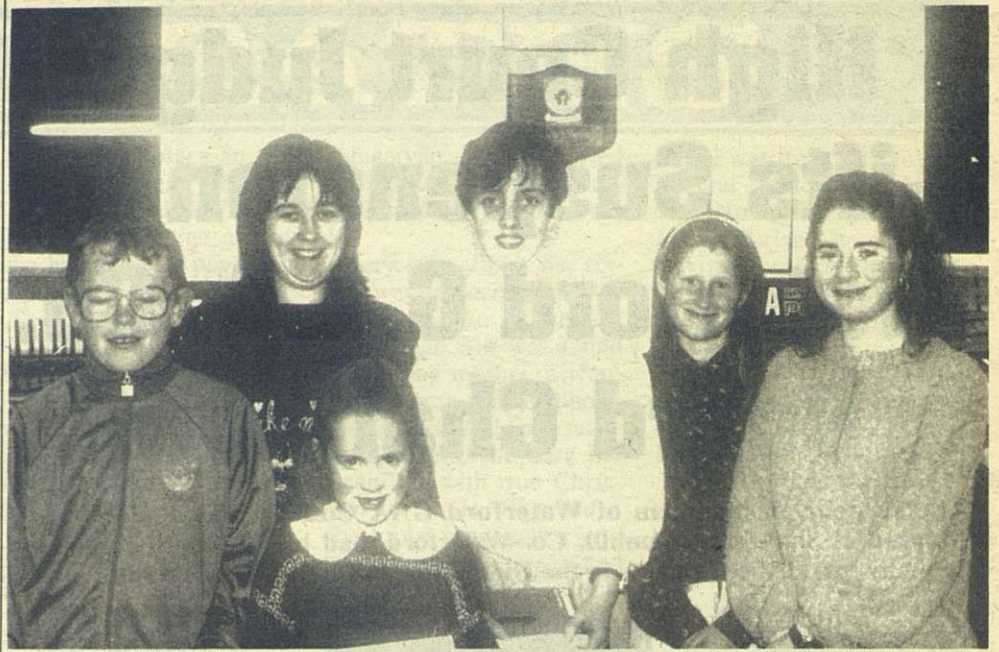

She was a secondary school teacher at Cashel, a position she had to vacate owing to ill-health. She was a person who made friends with consummate ease by virtue of her outgoing, sincere nature, courtesy and kindness which marked her out as a true Christian, and an excellent neighbour, whose demise is deeply and justifiably mourned as was evidenced at the removal of her remains on Saturday evening from the Mater Hospital Mortuary to the Church of the Sacred Heart, Templemore.

All walks of life were represented in the vast concourse of mourners, indicating the esteem and high regard in which deceased and her family are held. On Sunday morning Requiem Mass was offered for the repose of her gentle soul after which she was laid to rest.

To her husband and family, her brother and sisters, we tender our sympathy. Ar dheis De go raibh a h-anam dilis.

SYMPATHY

The sympathy of the district is extended to Very Rev. Fr. Joseph Bracken, P.P., Ballyporeen and a former curate at Four-Mile-Water on the death of his sister, Mary (Molly) Bracken, ex-N.T., Queen Street, Clonmel, which sad event took place at St. Anne's Nursing Home, Melview, Clonmel on Tuesday, November 19.

De Valera Papers Reveal New Details For 1916-1921 Period

The private papers of President Eamon de Valera for the period 1916-1921 were officially opened to the public by An tAthair Fiachra O Ceallaigh, OFM, Provincial, yesterday, Tuesday, 19 November. Covering a crucial and controversial period of Irish history, the papers provide new details on many of the traumatic events of those years both at home and abroad.

Announcing the opening of the papers, An tAthair O Ceallaigh, OFM, said that this was the second major section of the de Valera papers to be prepared and made available for historical research by the Trustees of the Order, in whose care the papers were placed by the late President. The papers are housed in the Franciscan Institute of Celtic Studies and Historical Research, Dún Mhuire, Killiney, Co. Dublin, where they may be viewed from next Monday.

RICH IN NEW HISTORICAL FACTS

"During this turbulent and vital period in our nation's history, Eamon de Valera fought valiantly and worked unceasingly for the freedom of the Irish people and to establish an independent Ireland, accepted and respected by the nations of the world. These papers are rich in new historical facts and insights into the characters of Eamon de Valera himself and of his brave and eminent comrades.

"But these papers also raise some questions, a major one being the papers themselves. Considering the trauma, the dangers and often exceedingly difficult times throughout, historians must marvel at how so many of these papers survived. That they did, we are indebted to the unnamed person or persons who filed and stored them safely during those trying times. We acknowledge that contribution and pay tribute to all those both unnamed and well-known, who achieved our independence during those critical years," said An tAthair O Ceallaigh, OFM.

Dungarvan Boy Scouts Notes

11th WATERFORD MEETING

We started the meeting as usual with the Scout Prayer, we then fell out into our four patrols. S.P.L. Jonathan collected dues and reminded the boys that the insurance must be paid by the end of the month. We then fell in for a quick drill competition which was won by Damien Walsh. As there was quite a big turnout the test-work and games had to be split up. A.S.L. Dessie took two patrols up to the snug for some testwork, while S.P.L.'s Jonathan and Simon took the remainder for some games. After twenty minutes the two groups were swapped around. At twenty past eight we had a visit from Maurice O'Brien, who presented Dessie with his camp cert.

We were then given fifteen minutes to fix up our boards. Then we had one last game of bull dog, we then fell in and Dessie gave a few announcements which was followed by the Scout Prayer.

CONGRATULATIONS

We would like to congratulate David Walsh's sister who was married on Saturday last.

GET WELL SOON

We hope that Colin Cunningham gets well soon after his recent accident.

HIKE TO COLLIGAN

Last Friday morning nine scouts headed off to Colligan at 9.45 a.m. When we arrived we did some simple endurance tests which most people found easy except Sean, who got a little tied up with Kevin Pugh and Paul Healy. We then lit a small fire on which we cooked some sausages, rashers and marshmallows.

We then had a few runs down "Hamburger Hill." While some boys were busy making a swing others were trying out a scrambling course for mountain bikes.

We finished an enjoyable hike with a game of "commando run out."

CAKE SALE

Don't forget our Cake Sale next Sunday morning in the Scouts Den. Please come along and give your support.

PENSMAN Takes You . . . Behind The SPOTLIGHT

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SURVEY CLAIMS DUNGARVAN IS CHEAPER

Prompted by a discussion at a recent meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council on the affect, beneficial or otherwise, which the employment of two traffic wardens in the town was having on the decline in the number of outside shoppers coming into the town and during which the County Manager claimed that it was the high prices being charged rather than the wardens which were responsible, the Dungarvan Chamber of Commerce, in the period November 21-23, had an independent shopping survey carried out which has shown that Dungarvan, is in fact, a cheaper place to shop than Clonmel or Waterford. The report of the survey is published elsewhere in this issue of the "Leader."

The result of the survey certainly shows that whatever the reason for the decline, it cannot be blamed on the pricing structures as the Chamber of Commerce survey has ruled that out. This then brings us back to the Traffic Wardens and it is now clear that we are to continue to have two of these following one another around in the coming year. When the subject was briefly referred to at the local Urban Council's Estimates meeting last Monday night, a suggestion that the employment of one rather than two would help to reduce the Council's budget for the coming year was dropped when the County Manager rejected it stating that he was not in the business of reducing jobs. Be that as it may, we still believe that the employment of two wardens in a town the size of Dungarvan is not warranted but the Urban Council does not see it that way.

Perhaps though, now that Christmas is fast approaching, some kind of arrangement might be introduced to allow shoppers some extra latitude. One of our readers who was recently on a visit to Killarney has informed us that the traffic regulations there have been relaxed by doubling the parking time permitted in respect of each disc during the off-season winter period. It certainly sounds more sensible to double the permitted parking time rather than the number of wardens!

WILL THEY BE ABOLISHED?

While the Urban Council discussed their budgetary requirements for all of next year at their Estimates meeting last Monday night, the spectre of abolition was very evidently hovering around the Council Chamber, as elections for new district Councils next June, are being mooted.

Cllr. Kyne was first to raise the matter when he claimed that there was a tremendous onus on the Fianna Fail Dail Deputies in the Constituency to see that the P.D. proposal to abolish Urban Councils was not realised. He said that these Councils had survived through years of wars and recessions and any direct move to abolish them now would be an attack on local democracy.

Cllr. Power blamed Energy Minister Bobby Molloy for pushing the move to abolish urban councils and Cllr. Walsh said that it was another case of the P.D. tail wagging the Fianna Fail dog.

Finally it was agreed on the proposal of Cllr. Kyne to invite the Fianna Fail Oireachtas members of the Constituency to the December meeting of the Council where they will be requested to sign a pledge to support the welfare of Dungarvan.

A VOLUNTEER WORKER IN AFRICA

Ailis Ui Chuilliu is at present working as a volunteer in a Somali refugee camp which is based in Southern Kenya in Africa. The Somalis had to flee their country because of the civil war which is raging there and in which the neighbouring Ethiopians are also involved.

The camp, under the auspices of the Red Cross is well organised, most of the refugees being women and children. Food is plentiful and varied in Kenya but money is very badly needed to buy it.

Ailis was recruited for this great work of charity by Fr. Kevin Doheny CSSp., originally from Castlecomer who is Chairman of the Irish Refugee Year Trust and General Secretary of the International Refugee Year of which Mother Teresa is patron.

Ailis, nee Cashman, originally from Abbeyside, lives in Ring with her husband Seamus and teaches in Stradbally. She previously spent a year (1989-90) as a volunteer in Sudan until all refugee organisations were asked to leave that country by its Muslim government.

As patron of the Refugee Year organisation, Mother Teresa has given her full support for the cause which she calls "a symbol of hope for each and every refugee that they might know that the world does care" during these dreadful years while hundreds of thousands languish in camps waiting for their world to change so that they can go back home or as a last resort, could be resettled in new homes somewhere far away.

We send Ailis our good wishes in this great charitable work in which she is presently engaged and hope to see her safe and well when she returns home.

Incidentally since writing the foregoing we have learned that Fr. Doheny, as mentioned above, was closely associated with the negotiations which led, last week, to the freeing of London businessman, Ian Richter, who had been held for five years in a Baghdad jail.

● Photo shows Ailis saying farewell to Fr. Pat Butler, C.C., Stradbally, before she set out for Kenya in September.

ON VISIT TO HER HOMETOWN, DUNGARVAN

On a brief visit to her own hometown, Dungarvan, last week-end was Mai O'Higgins, well-known song-writer and poet. As usual she met many of her legion of friends in the Old Boro' and made a special trip to the Cats Bar, Melleray, on Saturday night to meet Kathy Durkin who was performing there that night. "I couldn't meet her in Dublin and imagine I had to come to Dungarvan to do that," she told us. She and the friends who kindly drove her to the Melleray venue had a most enjoyable time there where she met many new friends.

Before returning to Dublin on Monday, Mai called to see us at the "Leader" Office — she never comes to town without doing so — for the usual chat. Much travelled, Mai told us of her most recent cruise in the Mediterranean and around the Canary Islands from which she returned only on November 12. She recalled being in Gibraltar on November 2 (All Souls Day) where she met an old friend Bishop Bernard Devlin.

Bishop Devlin, a native of Youghal, knows Dungarvan very well where he is a holiday visitor of the Riordan family of Gliddane. One of the outstanding features of the Rock of Gibraltar is the Shrine to Our Lady of Europa which stands at the top looking across the narrow straits to the North African coast. Some years ago during a previous visit Mai composed a lovely hymn called "Our Lady of Europa" which is now regularly sung by Bishop Devlin's flock.

WHERE 1916 PROCLAMATION WAS SIGNED

Reading through Marie O'Neill's biography of Jennie Wyse Power just published by Blackwater Press we have learned for the first time where the historic Proclamation which was read by Padraig Pearse from the steps of the G.P.O. in Dublin on Easter Monday, 1916 was signed.

According to Marie O'Neill, the seven leaders of the Rising signed the document at the restaurant and home of Mrs. Wyse Power, a leading member of Cumann na mBan, at 21, Henry St., Dublin.

This is a historic fact which was not commonly known up to this.

MORESBY MEMORIAL WRECKED

A casualty of one of the recent storms which have been causing quite a good deal of damage in recent weeks was the memorial marking the mass grave of the crew of the ill-fated sailing ship "Moresby" which foundered and sank off Ballinacourty Point in Dungarvan Harbour during a storm of similar ferocity on Christmas Eve 1895.

The memorial in the form of a simple inscribed limestone headstone stood at the spot where the victims were buried in St. Mary's Church in Dungarvan, and which was unmarked until Abbeyside Pattern Committee under

Dr. Jimmy Stacey had the headstone erected a couple of years ago.

During a recent storm, a heavy corrugated roof was blown on to the graveyard where it struck and broke the memorial. However when we visited the scene last week we noted that the damage consisted of a clean break across the base of the stone which may not be too difficult to repair. We understand that Abbeyside Pattern Committee will be attending to this.

Incidentally we were pleased to note during our visit that a number of men were engaged in painting the railings along the walkway at the graveyard under a FAS scheme. It gives the entire area a well-kept appearance.

The Shoals Of Herring

We have had a very special request for the words of the very rousing ballad, "The Shoals Of Herring" and although we have in the past included it in our column we think the information which we have gleaned about it since is worth a mention. For most of us "The Shoals Of Herring" or a revised version of it was one of the top ballads which brought the Clancy Brothers to the top of the international ballad scene in the '60's but it is not an old ballad as ballads go and is not even Irish in origin.

In fact it was one of the "radio" ballads written by Ewan McColl, author of such other well-known songs as "Dirty Old Town," "The First Time I Saw Your Face," "Free Born Man" and many more. "The Shoals Of Herring" was conceived for a radio programme on herring fishing entitled, "Singing The Fishing," the inspiration being provided by interviews with East Anglia and Aberdeenshire fishermen.

Ewan McColl together with Seamus Ennis and others brought about a momentous change in the act of folksinging in the clubs of the 50's and 60's. They started to encourage singers to adhere to their own musical heritage if they were aware of having one. It seems likely that without the dedication of McColl, Ennis and O Riada in Ireland and Pete Seeger in the US, the national folk scenes as we know them to-day would have had to wait a little longer.

Oh, it was a fine and a pleasant day
Out of Yarmouth harbour I was faring,
As a cabin boy in a sailing lugger,
For to go and hunt the shoals of herrings.

O, the work was hard and the hours were long
And the treatment, sure, it took some bearing
There was little kindness and the kicks were many
As we hunted for the shoals of herring.

O, we fished the Swarth and the Broken Bank
I was cook and I'd a quarter-sharing,
And I used to sleep standing on my feet,
And I'd dream about the shoals of herring.

O, we left the home grounds in the month of June,
And to canny Shiels we soon were bearing,
With a hundred cran of the silver darlings
That we'd taken from the shoals of herring.

Now you're up on deck, you're a fisherman,
You can swear and show a manly bearing
Take your turn on watch with the other fellows
While you're searching for the shoals of herring.

In the stormy seas and the living gales
Just to earn your daily bread you're daring
From the Dover Straits to the Faroe Islands
As you're following the shoals of herring.

O, I earned me keep and I paid me way,
And I earned the gear that I was wearing,
Sailed a million miles, caught ten million fishes
We were sailing after shoals of herring.

TALLOW NOTES

TALLOW MAN'S DEATH IN ENGLAND

It is with sincere regret that we record the death of Mr. Thomas (Tom) Harty, Mytchett, Surrey and formerly of Old Road, Tallow, which occurred on October 6 at the age of 85 years in England where he had lived for the last 52 years.

Despite his long absence from home, Tom Harty never lost his great love of Ireland and was an authority on Irish history. He left a copy of the Constitution of posterity and this has now been presented to the Tallow Heritage Centre in his memory by his family.

He is survived by his widow Nora, also a native of Tallow, by his son Robert, daughter Patricia and grandchildren Caroline and Robert to all of whom deepest sympathy is extended.

Following Requiem Mass in the Church of Our Lady Queen of Heaven, Frimley, Surrey the interment took place in Frimley.

TALLOW CONFERENCE OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

This year our appeal week for the above Conference of St. Vincent de Paul commences on December 1, until Dec. 8. The success of Vincent de Paul Week this year is all the more important in view of the extra demand being placed on the Society's slim resources. Therefore we are making a very special appeal to you to subscribe as generously as possible to this collection in order that Christmas will be a more happy and peaceful time for the people we assist. The collection this year will be taken up in Knockanore, Kilwatermoy and Glendine on Saturday, November 30 and on Sunday, December 1 after all Masses and in Tallow on Sunday, December 8.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who have subscribed so generously to our monthly and annual collections and private donations and also those who supplied us with clothes and household goods.

ST. PATRICK'S PARISH HALL

Progressive 45 results, Nov. 20 — 1st Mike Mangan and Jackie Cotter (turkey and ham each); 2nd Michael Henley and Eamon Donnelly (ham each); 3rd Maura Murray and Babe O'Mahoney (turkey each). Raffle winners — Marian Mulcahy, Kitty McCarthy, Betty Connolly.

TALLOW BRIDGE CLUB

Club Championship result, round 1 — 1st Martha Keniry and Mrs. Canning; 2nd Michael and Bernie Burke; 3rd Mary McCarthy and Chris O'Sullivan; 4th Elizabeth Wales and Kathleen O'Keefe.

Second round to be held on January 27.

TALLOW G.A.A.

The fifth round of the Carling sponsored G.A.A. Clubs Table Quiz took place in the Corner House on Thursday night last. After a very exciting contest, Timmy Sheehan's team had a little to spare at the end of an absorbing contest. We now have five finalists to be joined by one more team and they will be known after Thursday night, when we move to Luke's. A great night is assured so why not come along and enjoy a fun night out. The final is fixed for John Lyons' the following week but more about that as we get near the date.

The Annual General Meeting has been fixed for December 19.

The U-12 football final fixed for last Sunday was cancelled, due to the inclement weather conditions. A new date will now have to be fixed for it.

TALLOW SQUASH CLUB NOTES

The November League

The final of the November League will be played this Friday night. In the semi-finals Neil Twomey's team beat Tomas Roche's team by three matches to two, while in the other semi-final Billy Cantillon's team and John Roche's team were all square, with Billy winning the toss to qualify for the final. And so the first final of the year on Friday night is Billy Cantillon v. Neil Twomey, Aidan Ryan v. Pat Culloo, Jack Ahearne v. Mike O'Leary, John Allen v. Jerry Twomey and Helen Ahearne v. Stephen Hampton.

Judging on present form I feel that the final result will depend on the result of the match between John Allen and Jerry Twomey.

The presentation of prizes will take place at Ted's at 10.30 p.m. after the final.

Christmas League — The Christmas League will commence next week and the final is fixed for the Sunday night before Christmas, followed by a Christmas Party at Ted's. Full draw on the noticeboard this weekend.

Until next week — Hand Out.

BRIDE VIEW UNITED A.F.C. NOTES

Great Away Win For Our Div. 1 Side — Our first division side had a marvellous away win in Killeagh, but our second division side suffered home defeat against Mogeely.

Div. 1 — Killeagh 0 Bride View 4 — This was a marvellous victory for our 1st team away to East Cork side Killeagh. The weather was appalling and it's a credit to both sides that the game finished.

United with the strong wind and driving rain behind them in the first half, had most of the play. Killeagh can thank their keeper, who in the first half brought off two marvellous saves from Gerard Hogan. The only goal of this half came in the 34th min. when Paul Curley put brother Philly through to score a delightful goal.

Despite playing against the wind and rain in the second half, United played some great controlled football. United's second goal came in the 55th minute with Philly Curley again the scorer. This was a great individual goal by Philly. We added further goals late in the game, a great header from Dermot Henley went all the way in the 88th min. and Paul Curley rounded off the scoring in the 89th min. to give the points to the Tallow lads.

Man of the Match — Philly Curley, who capped a marvellous performance with two great goals.

United — G. P. Grey, T. McCarthy, G. Sice, T. Sheehan, I. McIntosh, G. Hogan, M. Curley, P. Curley, E. Cusack, P. Curley, D. Henley. Res. — P. Sheehan.

Division Two — Bride View 0 Mogeely 2 — League leaders Mogeely continued their good run when they had a two goal victory over league hopefuls, Bride View.

The terrible conditions made it hard for the players to hold their footing. Tom McCarthy put Mogeely in front in the first half and they held this lead until the interval.

United came into the game more in the second half and Doyle and Flaherty both went close before Paul O'Sullivan added number two for the East Cork side.

Outstanding for United in this game was keeper Seamus O'Brien and he could not be faulted for either goal.

Despite this defeat United are still in with a chance of league honours.

United — S. O'Brien, D. Doyle, A. Ahearn, L. Ahearn, P. McDonnell, M. Geary, J. J. Henley, D. Flaherty, J. Doyle, C. Barry, G. Henley. Res. — B. Murphy, G. Fitzgerald.

Fixtures — Saturday, Nov. 30 — U-18, Youghal v. Bride View United, kick-off 11.30 a.m.

A NIGHT AT THE RACES IN BALLYNOE

The above event took place at Ballynoe Hall on Friday week, when a packed audience of racing enthusiasts enjoyed every minute of it. It certainly captured the interest and enjoyment of everyone present and there couldn't be a more happy atmosphere in the Hall, and viewers of the Late Late Show were few and far between. It was a night for the community in earnest. James Tobin, Knockanore, a renowned expert as M.C. equally adept on the gavel at the auction, his wife and her bookmaking staff, and Johnny O'Mahoney, Tallow, in charge of the projector, got the business underway quickly and the programme was speedily in motion.

The first race, with the horses appearing on the screen and commentator Richard Pitman coming across articulately, increased the excitement and a rush for the Bookies Clerks. We even thought of Rudyard Kipling's words: "If you can make one heap of your winnings and risk it on one turn of pitch and toss and lose and start again at your beginnings — And never breathe a word about your loss — Yours is the Earth — You'll be a man, my son."

It was one of the greatest night's imaginable and teas and sandwiches served mid-way through by the ladies added to the contentment of the occasion.

John D. Cotter, Chairman of the Ballynoe Community Council, thanked James Tobin and his wife and staff and John O'Mahoney from Knockanore, respectively, who gave of their services voluntarily and freely on the night. Without them it would have been impossible to attempt this successful venture. He conveyed his thanks to sponsors, who were many, to all those who bought horses, and nearer home to those ladies who are always ready to procure, prepare and serve the food. He also thanked those who assisted the Bookmakers and those who helped to prepare the Hall and he said it was a wonderful and successful night financially, and more importantly, socially.

CATHERINE McAULEY, FOUNDRRESS OF THE SISTERS OF MERCY

Catherine McAuley, who died 150 years ago on November 11, 1841, still at the comparatively young age of 54, had seen the great work which she had commenced with other women come to fruition, with Sisters working in several centres in England, Ireland and America. She was born in Dublin in 1787 during one of the worst periods of the Penal Laws in Ireland. Then, as a child, she was orphaned, but was very lucky to have been adopted by a good Protestant family, who encouraged her solicitude. When the couple died shortly after becoming Catholics she inherited a considerable fortune from them and was immediately determined to use it on charitable projects. At Baggot Street, Dublin, she bought a site which became a source of refuge for the poor, and she was joined by a group of women who, like herself, were preoccupied by a desire to help the underprivileged, the sick and the dying. They called themselves "Sisters" first, but eventually were officially known as The Sisters of Mercy. That great work of Catherine McAuley's Sisters has touched the whole world since. Go mairidh se go deo.

SEAN COADY, TALLOW R.I.P.

Tallow lost another one of its well known and popular members of the community, Sean Coady, Chapel Street, whom the Lord and Master called home last Monday.

A son of the late Jimmy and Ellen Coady, Barrack Street, Tallow, Sean attended Tallow School, and as he grew up he involved himself with the life of his native town, always interested in the fortunes of the local hurlers, and other activities in the surrounding areas. We remember him well as the boy with the torch when he served as usher in Sean Hyde's Cinema. He was a most efficient member of the County Council staff and spent a term of 33 years with that body until indifferent health forced his early retirement a few years ago.

A great exponent of the game of '45' and as always, anxious to socialise with his many acquaintances, he could be seen in Tallow, Ballyduff, Glengoura, Knockanore and Lismore, where these sessions took place. Always lighthearted and wearing that smile this gallant son of Tallow will long be remembered. Solus no bhflaitheas da anam usal.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to his brother Ned and his wife Joyce, who cared for him in his final days, his step-mother Ann, step-brother, nephews, nieces, grand nephews, grand nieces, relatives and friends.

A large crowd attended the removal to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, and also the interment which took place at Tallow churchyard after Requiem Mass, celebrated by Very Rev. M. Walsh, P.P. and with the local choir in attendance.

BALLYNOE P.T.A.A.

At a recent meeting of the above it was decided to hold a poster competition in conjunction with Temperance Week which commences on December 1 until December 8. The local schools will compete in this event and it will be divided into suitable categories. The posters will be displayed in the Hall, Ballynoe on Saturday, December 14, when the Pioneer Annual Cake Sale will be in progress.

VERY REV. JAMES RYAN, CONNA R.I.P.

Conna, Ballynoe and Glengoura parishes were saddened on hearing last Saturday morning of the death of their former beloved Parish Priest, who had served them so diligently for almost 26 years.

A native of Kilworth and ordained in the Lateran Basilica, Rome in Congress Year 1932, Fr. Ryan, prior to his assignment to diocesan duties here, served temporarily in Hexham and Newcastle, England. He then came to Ireland and his first post was Meelin, then Kilcarney, Shandrum, Charleville, Kanturk. He was transferred as Parish Priest to Conna in 1962, and with his genial and courteous manner he endeared himself to the community there. He was a man of the people and apart from his dedication to religious affairs, as in previous parishes, he was always ready to support and advise the local clubs if required. He liked the Stations at the houses very much and quickly became acquainted with all his parishioners when on the rounds, and the school children too commanded his interest as well as the sick. In 1988, at a Senior Citizens Party in Conna he was made a presentation on attaining his Golden Jubilee in the Priesthood and also marking the Silver Jubilee of becoming Parish Priest of the parish. On that night as well he was accorded the honour of unveiling a plaque in Conna Hall to commemorate the Golden Jubilee of the founding of Muintir Na Tire, and the centenary of the birth of its founder, the late Canon John Hayes.

The last few years saw him still active celebrating Mass each day, even up to Thurs. before his death. His abiding interest in the Rosary was a notable feature of this loyal and lovable pastor, and our sincere sympathy is extended to his housekeeper Kathleen, nephews, nieces, relatives, friends, his Lordship Dr. John Magee, Bishop of Cloyne and the priests of the diocese. Go dtugaidh Suaimhneas Siorai da anam dilis.

EAST CORK SCOR NA nOG FINAL

Carrigtwohill Hall was the venue for the above event and as usual it attracted enthusiasts galore. With seven clubs competing, it provided great excitement. Julia Dennehy again acted as Bean A' Ti, Noel Higgins, Mrs. Bolger and Mrs. Forrester adjudicated, John Joe Whelan was Quizmaster and Chris O'Mahoney and Ger Horgan played for the dancers.

The results were as follows (two teams or individuals going forward to the final in Dungourney on Saturday, Nov. 30 at 7.30 p.m.):

Figure Dancing — Aghada and Carrigtwohill; Recitation — Dungourney and Carrigtwohill; Solo Singing — Fr. O'Neill's and AN Other; Novelty Act — Dungourney and Youghal; Instrumental Music — Fr. O'Neill's and Youghal; Ballad Group — St. Ita's and Dungourney; Question Time — Killeagh and Dungourney; Set Dance — Youghal and St. Ita's.

ST. CATHERINE'S

G.A.A. NOTES

The U-16 football semi-final involving Carberry Rangers and St. Catherine's at Shanbally, was called off last Sunday due to inclement weather.

The U-12 annual tournament, brought the young footballers of Cobh and St. Catherine's to Ballynoe last Saturday. Catherine's started off well with wind advantage and were leading at the break. Cobh then, favoured with the strong breeze in the second half, made amends and fighting back, plus the Catherine's stout resistance it brought great flair into the game, with Cobh just scrambling home by one point on the score — Cobh 3-2, Catherine's 2-4.

St. Catherine's — M. Hamilton, M. Fitzgerald, L. O'Connell, K. Ronayne, L. Flynn, J. Higgins, E. O'Keefe, J. O'Leary, D. Caples, P. Twomey, S. Kearney (capt.), J. Carr, P. Leahy, W. O'Leary, A. Hogan. Subs — S. Hogan, P. Noon, J. P. Fitzgerald.

The St. Catherine's Annual General Meeting will be held in Conna Hall on December 12 and a chead mile failte to members and intending members.

West Waterford Notes

SYMPATHY

We wish to express our sympathy to Richie, Martin and Mary, brothers and sister of Tommy Mulcahy, Curragh, Ardmore and his nephew Micheal on their recent bereavement. Tommy's death occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan. Following Requiem Mass in St. Declan's Church, burial took place in the New Cemetery, Ardmore.

Tommy was well-known among the farming community and he will be sadly missed. May he rest in peace.

SALE ON SUNDAY

The sixth class girls of Clashmore National School would like to thank Phylis O'Halloran and all who helped them to make last Sunday's Cake Sale in Clashmore Hall an outstanding success. One hundred and sixty one pounds was collected and the girls are donating this amount to the Clashmore/Piltown Building Fund.

Great credit is due to these young girls for their efforts. Well done to all.

BABY BOY

Congratulations to Anne (nee O'Halloran, Laurentum, Clashmore) and Sean Devine, England on the birth of a baby boy last week.

GET WELL WISHES

Get well wishes are extended to Anna Beresford, daughter of Eamonn and Cora Beresford, Ballinacash, Clashmore, presently in hospital.

Hope to see you out and about and back at school shortly Anna, from all your friends.

DEATH FO MRS. RITA DUNNE

Sadly we record the death of Mrs. Rita Dunne wife of Lar and mother of Theresa and Annette at the Mercy Hospital, Cork, on Thursday last. Though Rita had battled against illness for some months her death was unexpected.

Rita and Lar were well-known throughout the entire West Waterford area among the farming community and all were deeply saddened by her death and our deepest sympathy is expressed to Lar and the girls.

An exceptionally large crowd attended the removal on Friday evening from Egan's Funeral Home to Glendine Church. On Saturday afternoon the church was packed to capacity for Requiem Mass. Burial followed at Kilwatermoy Cemetery.

HOME ON HOLIDAY

Presently on holiday in their native Tinnabina are Mary (nee Burns) O'Dowd and her sister Ellen from England. We wish them both an enjoyable stay.

A.C.T.

The annual collection at churches in East Waterford will take place this weekend in aid of Aid Cancer Treatment at Cork Regional Hospital. The collections are being organised by the Clashmore branch of A.C.T.

On Monday last our annual flag day was held in Waterford City. Full details of this and details of our two-day flag sale in Dungarvan next week.

We wish to thank all the collectors who gave their time freely to collect.

NATIONAL GARDEN WINNER

For the 25th time in 10 years Paddy Long and his wife Mary from Herbertson, Limerick, have won a prize in the National Gardens Competition. Paddy and Mary are as much at home in Clashmore as they are in Limerick.

As always when they visit Clashmore, Paddy, a very talented accordion player, provides some excellent music for sessions in the "locals."

Paddy is a retired member of Limerick County Council and now enjoys the extra time to work and to continue the up-keep of his beautiful garden and we wish him continued success and happiness.

SCHOOL COACHING

Members of the Clashmore/Kinsalebeg G.A.A. have been visiting the local schools to assist the teachers in each school to coach the children in football every third week since the start of term.

This is a very positive development for the fostering of gaelic football among the young boys and girls in the parishes.

Last week a number of prizes were on offer in each school from the G.A.A. Three "original" Down jerseys were on offer and the school children enjoyed competing for them.

Liam Curran, Roger Hynes, Michael Hynes, Brendan Griffin and Tim O'Keeffe have all taken time off work and become very active on this coaching scheme to date and it has proven very popular with the school children and it should be very successful. Well done to all concerned.

PLOUGHING DINNER

A very enjoyable night was had by all who attended Saturday night's Clashmore/Kinsalebeg Ploughing Dinner Dance at the Walter Raleigh Hotel, Youghal. Music was provided by Paddy Greenslade and Pat Tobin. An excellent meal was served by Mary Murphy and her staff at the Hotel.

CLASHMORE TIDY TOWNS

The AGM of Clashmore Tidy Towns was held on Monday, Nov. 25. The following officers were elected:—

President, Fr. O'Gorman; Vice-President, Fr. O'Connor; Chairman, Davey Foley; Vice-Chairman, Tom Cunningham; Secretary, Margaret Walsh; Asst. Secretary, Laura Laffin; Joint treasurers, Mrs. Mary Dower and Mrs. May Beresford; Organiser, Richie Dee; Horticultural Advisor, Mrs. O'Reilly; Committee — Bridie Foley, Pat Flavin, Michael Lombard, Liam Curran, Mrs. Molly Lombard, Maureen Lawlor, Gretta Kearns, Ann O'Rourke, Theo Murphy.

It was decided at the meeting that an auction would be held on December 8th in the Hall at 3 p.m.

Kilmacthomas Notes

ENGAGEMENT

Congratulations to Mr. Sean Michael O'Regan, Rossmire, Kilmacthomas and Miss Valerie O'Dwyer, Abbeyside, Dungarvan, who announced their engagement recently.

BIRTHS

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cahill, Clonea on the happy event, the birth of their first child, a bouncing baby boy. Congrats' also go to Mr. and Mrs. Willie Griffin, Ballygorty, Kilmacthomas on the birth of their first child, a baby girl, born last week.

NEW PREMISES

All good wishes and the best of luck to TMI Casuals, proprietors Mr. and Mrs. Tom Whelan and family, who officially opened their new premises at Casey's Cross, Kilmacthomas on Thursday last, with well-known country singer Sean O'Farrell doing the honours.

SILVER CIRCLE DRAW

Winners in the Parish Silver Circle Draw last week were as follows — £100 Pauline Dowdall, Scrahan, Kilmacthomas; £50 Maurice Cheasty, Kilmarrin, Kill; £25 Nellie Butler, Riverview Estate, Kilmacthomas. Promoter's Prize of £25 to Mary Bowdren, Walshes Place, Kilmacthomas.

CREDIT UNION VENUE CHANGED

Kilmacthomas members of the Dungarvan Credit Union please note that the new venue for office hours is the Courthouse, Main Street, Kilmacthomas on Fridays from 10 a.m. to 1.30 p.m.

KILMACTHOMAS BRIDGE CLUB

Results from last week were as follows — 1st Mary Casey and Padraig Kirwan; 2nd Catherine Power and Paddy O'Reilly; 3rd Margaret Curran and Claire Shanahan.

"HOLE IN ONE"

Congratulations go to Mr. Peter Kirwan, Dungarvan, who secured a 150 yards "hole in one" at the Dungarvan Golf Course on Saturday last. Peter is son of Mr. and Mrs. Danny Kirwan, Main Street, Kilmacthomas. Incidentally the same tournament was won by another local golfer, Dr. Eamonn Kiely, The Villa, Kilmacthomas.

KILMACTHOMAS G.A.A. NOTES

County Final — Conditions were atrocious for the junior hurling 'A' championship county final in Walsh Park on Sunday week last, when An Rinn emerged victorious by the score of 3-6 to 1-10. Despite this, both teams served up a great hour's hurling that kept the crowd on their toes right up to the final whistle. To have reached this final was a major achievement for the club but it's back to the drawing board now and all the lads look forward to 1992, especially with the good news that our trainer Shay Fitzpatrick and coach Fr. Michael Kennedy will be controlling things once again.

Our best wishes go to An Rinn on their entry into intermediate ranks and congratulations to both teams who played with such unbounded enthusiasm under the prevailing conditions.

Kilmac' team and scorers — Joe Joy, Michael Lawlor, Robbie Whelan, Liam Carey, Vincent Behan, John Brown (0-2), Jessie Whelan, Johnno Power, Michael Rockett, Eddie Rockett (0-2), Andrew Rockett (0-4), Ned Power (0-1), Donal Lawlor, Paudie Whelan (1-1), David Kiely.

Golden Goal — The official time of the Golden Goal in the county final was 2 mins. 25 secs. Will the winner of same please contact any of the committee or phone 051/94344 before 6 p.m. on Sunday next, December 1.

Sponsorship — The club wishes to thank the following local business people who so kindly sponsored us for the county final — Dolores Mulhearn, Dawn Meats, Barney Burns, MTI Casuals, Tom Halloran, Johnny Power, Tom Crotty, A.I.B., Pat Kiersey and Maureen Kent.

Annual General Meeting — Our A.G.M. will take place on Monday night next, December 2 in the Courthouse, Kilmac' at 7 p.m. All members and intending members are requested to attend as there are a number of important items on the agenda. At times such as the A.G.M., one has to look at the many dedicated people who work behind the scenes such as the ladies and underage committees, the people who look after the kits, the dressing rooms, the hurleys and especially the playing fields, people who provide transport etc. During 1991 the efforts of these people combined with our hard working committee under chairman Peter Kiely and secretary Nicky Whelan ensured another successful year which augurs well for the future.

On Waterford Team — Well done to our two senior footballers Johnno Power and Eddie Rockett who were members of the Waterford senior football team that defeated Kilkenny in Mooncoin on Sunday last.

STRADBALLY NOTES

BARRON HALL FUND RAISERS

The Community Barron Hall, Stradbally has organised the following activities to help pay for the emergency repair work that had to be carried out on the hall premises recently. A cake sale will take place on this Sunday, December 1 after 11.30 a.m. Mass and every house holder in the area is asked to come and also bake for the event.

A bed push in aid of the fund is also taking place on Saturday, December 14 at 12 noon from Dungarvan to Stradbally, and there are now sponsorship cards available about the area for this.

FOLK CHOIR

The Parish Folk Choir are at present on rehearsals at the Church of the Holy Cross, Stradbally, on Monday nights. New members will be very welcome.

CHURCH WHIST

St. James's Church of Ireland will hold their usual whist drive at the National School house premises Stradbally on this Friday night, November 29.

At the same venue on Friday, November 15 last the winners were as follows:—

Mr. Winston Boyle, Mrs. Biddy O'Donnell, Mr. Jim Curran, Mrs. Gwen Kiely, Mr. George Crowley, Mrs. Jo Taylor, Miss Maureen Sullivan, Mrs. Margaret Coffey, Mrs. Josie Ryan, Mrs. Kathleen Phelan, Mr. Richard Hickey, while the raffle winners were — Miss Margaret Rowe, Mrs. Bernie Hobbs and Mrs. Jenny Crowley.

PIPE BAND THANKS

The Seafield/Bonmahon Pipe Band Committee would like to thank the following who have sponsored their recent fund raisers — T.M.I. Casuals, Kilmacthomas, Raymond Reilly, Cove Bar, Stradbally, Pat Foley, Car Repairs, Ballylynch, Kilmacthomas, John Maddox, Bally Inn, Ballylaneen, Kilmacthomas and Brendan Gallagher, Fitted Kitchens.

CASH SHORTAGE

There seems at present to be a major cash shortage in the run up to the festive season, but let's hope that money will become more plentiful in the coming weeks ahead or otherwise a large number of people will have a very hard Christmas festive period and a lean New Year.

LISMORE NOTES

CIVIC RECEPTION FOR COUNTY HURLING CHAMPIONS

Lismore Town Commissioners will hold a Civic Reception in honour of Lismore G.A.A. Club in recognition of their victory in this year's County Senior Hurling Championship.

The reception will be held in Lismore Courthouse on this Friday, November 29 at 8.30 p.m.

LATE JOHN CULLINANE

We record with sincere regret the sudden death of John Cullinane, Monamon, Lismore which occurred on Saturday, November 16 at Waterford Regional Hospital.

One of nature's gentlemen he possessed a friendly, good humoured and generous disposition with a ready, rich fund of anecdotes and a remarkable facility for recalling days gone by. A thoughtful neighbour, he was always ready with a helping hand and he is now deeply and justifiably mourned by all who held him in the warmest regard.

The measure of the esteem and high regard in which he and his family are held was clearly indicated by the representatives of groups of mourners paying their final respects to a dear friend at the funeral and burial in Lismore.

To his wife Nora and family, his brother and sisters we extend our sympathy. Ar dheis De go raibh a anam dilis.

MRS. BETTY CROWLEY

It's with great sadness that we record the death of Mrs. Betty Crowley (nee Casey), South Mall, Lismore, who died on Friday, November 22 at Waterford Regional Hospital.

Her remains were removed to St. Carthage's Church from Ryan's Funeral Home and the funeral was after 11 o'clock Mass to St. Carthage's Cemetery.

Betty would be well-known to the local people of Lismore, for she and her brother-in-law Teddy Crowley operated a milk round in the town for many years.

To her husband Mick, son Michael, brother-in-law Terry, daughter-in-law Patsy and grandchildren Tia, Maria, Andrew, Louise and Tish and other relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.

BALLINVELLA COMMUNITY ALERT

Another meeting in the Community Alert series of meetings will take place on Thursday night at 8 p.m. in Ballinvelva Community Hall. All welcome.

LISMORE BRIDGE CLUB

Results, November 13 — Club Championship — 1st Claire Meany and Marjorie O'Brien; 2nd Stephen and Maureen Hales; 3rd Teresa Doocey and Monica Noonan.

Elizabeth Wales; 3rd C. Treacy and B. Cotter; 4th Mary Hayes and M. Crowley; 5th Andy Crotty and Nora Kelleher.

Section B — 1st Joan Mansfield and Margaret O'Donnell; 2nd Eileen Tinnelly and Rita Hegarty; 3rd Brid Culloo and Kitty Greaney; 4th May Burke and Mary Hanrahan; 5th Catherine Hinchion and Joan McCann.

Section C — 1st Martha Keniry and Noreen O'Sullivan; 2nd Joan Crowley and Eileen Ring; 3rd M. Kelleher and Paddy Geaney; 4th Marjorie Ryan and Joan O'Shea; 5th Joan Clancy and Peggy Condon.

BALLINVELLA NOTES

Card results — 1st/2nd and 3rd divided between Sarah Tobin and Mrs. Mulcahy, Eily Doocey and Siobhan Leahy, J. O'Shea and Nora Willoughby. Tickets — 1st Sarah Tobin, 2nd Eily Doocey, 3rd Linda McCormack; 4th Mrs. K. O'Connell. Table Prizes — 1st Walter Barry and Annie Neville, 2nd P. and E. Prendergast, 3rd Pad Lineen and J. O'Gorman.

Next card night will be on Tuesday, December 3 at 8.30 p.m. sharp.

LISMORE BADMINTON NOTES

Congratulations to Ann Dunne, Ann Heaphy, Bets Daly and Catriona Fogarty on beating De La Salle in the county final. It was a very close final with the Lismore ladies just having the edge over De La Salle. The result was 3-1.

The Mixed League is about to start soon, so the best of luck to all the teams.

LISMORE GOLF CLUB NOTES

The torrential rain on Sunday caused the course to be closed. Paul Kennedy won the Saturday competition with 41 points.

Results — Saturday, 18 Hole Stableford — 1st P. Kennedy (10) 41 pts.

Fixtures — Saturday, November 30 and Sunday, December 1 — 18 Hole Stableford. Final of Winter League played over one weekend.

Saturday, Nov. 30 — Society Outing. Tee reserved 10 a.m.

Thursday, November 28 — Annual General Meeting.

All outstanding prizes will be presented on Sunday, December 1 at 5 p.m. Sponsors will be present.

C.L.C.G. LIOS MOR

Scor Na nOg — The Western semi-finals of Scor na nOg were held in the C.B.S., Dungarvan last weekend when 14 clubs competed in eight events. Lismore, taking part for the first time in many years, were well represented as follows:

Solo Singing — Enda Ormonde; Instrumental Music — Hilda Howard, Deirdre Bennett; Ballad Group — Nora Roche, Emma Dunne, Janette O'Sullivan, Enda Ormonde, Ciara Murphy, Geraldine Barry, Jennifer Dunne; Quiz — Brendan Ormonde, David Bennett, Liam Henry.

Our contestants in solo singing, instrumental music and ballad group all qualified for the final, while the quiz team just missed out, when finishing in third place on the night.

Congratulations to all our competitors on doing us proud and the best of luck in the divisional finals this Saturday, November 30 at the same venue.

Convention — Western Bord na nOg held it's annual convention last week where the club was represented by Jimmy O'Gorman, Donie Coughlan and Dick Ahearne.

Weekly Draw; Week No. 46 — £50 Mr. David Barry Snr., Glencairn; £30 Mrs. A. Coleman, Carrignagour; £20 Mr. Michael Quann, Mayfield; £15 Mr. Ed. Flynn, Main Street; £10 Mr. J. Crowley, Tallow Road; £10 Mrs. Fitzgerald, Towns Parks; £10 Miss Niamh Harty, Dungarvan. Promoter's Prize — Donie Coughlan.

The next draw will be held in the Red House on Monday, December 2 at 8 p.m. All are welcome to attend. (Advt.)

LISMORE SOCCER NOTES

On Sunday morning last we had Modeligo as visitors to the Castle Farm grounds. In what can only be described as ludicrous conditions the referee gave the go ahead and play commenced. With pools of water all the way down the centre of the pitch constructive football was out of the question.

It was the visitors who started best and after 20 minutes they were 2 goals to the good, with Lismore replying from the penalty spot thanks to Tommy Pratt and the first half finished on that scoreline.

The second half however was pretty much one way traffic, with constant Lismore pressure. It was looking like the home side would never get the goal they richly deserved to get them on level terms, but it finally came in the 75th minute, Tommy Pratt finding the bottom corner after a good run.

With time ticking away Lismore kept pressing and were awarded a free kick just inside the Modeligo half. From the resulting kick Brian Shanahan's inch perfect ball was met with a crashing header from Tommy "Gazza" Pratt which gave the goalkeeper no chance.

Our first league victory of the season and with points being so precious now, victory was the minimum requirement.

Team — M. Fitzgerald, P. Fitzgerald, D. Landers, T. Pratt, B. Shanahan, F. Power, B. Prendergast, P. Prendergast, P. Quinn, G. Clarkson.

Next Sunday we travel the short distance to Carrignagour where we play neighbours Glenview. Joe Tobin will be looking for a big improvement on Sunday's performance. A win and nothing else will do.

We wish player manager Joe Tobin a speedy recovery after picking up a serious knee ligament injury while helping his side in a recent league game in Youghal.

Finally congratulations to team member Dave Landers on his recent engagement to Noelle. Good luck to you both.

P.S. — Kick-off on Sunday is 2 p.m. and players are asked to be at the Monument no later than 1.30 p.m.

London Irish Christmas Youth Rescue

The fifth annual London Irish Christmas Youth Rescue of homeless and jobless young Irish teenagers off the streets of London will take place this year on Tuesday, December 17 next. With the economic recession biting very hard at present in Britain there are no jobs available for young, unskilled people, and young Irish boys and girls going over to London seeking work are in for a sharp shock. Many of them are still ending up homeless and jobless and having to sleep rough in biting cold weather conditions on the streets. The "Youth-in-Need" Organisation, based in Thurles, Co. Tipperary last Christmas brought home an unprecedented number of sixty young homeless Irish kids from almost every county in Ireland. This Christmas we are once again hoping to bring home as many young people as possible from the cold, damp, and often unfriendly streets of London.

We are relying very heavily on concerned parents and business people for sponsorship to cover the costs of the rescue which are increasing each year. I would be grateful, through your newspaper to appeal for the following help from your readers: (1) Financial donations are very necessary and are in most need; (2) articles of NEW clothing such as jeans, shirts, pullovers, shoes, and jackets are most welcome — but I stress that it must be NEW clothing only.

Also any parent who has a son or daughter lost or missing in London should contact us now if they want us to search for them.

For donations and missing persons please contact Seamus McGuire, Project Director, "Youth-in-Need" Organisation, 2 Ard Mhuire, Thurles, Co. Tipperary. Telephone (0504) 23857.

Dear Editor, IRISH HEART FOUNDATION

The Irish Heart Foundation would like to point out that there is in circulation a so called "Irish Heart Foundation 3 Day Diet." The Foundationsis in no way associated with this mysterious chain letter diet as it does not reflect our guidelines or policy for balance eating.

The Heart Foundation has never advocated crash diets as these could be harmful to the health of an individual. Regular exercise combined with balance healthy eating is recommended by the Irish Heart Foundation to correct overweight.

Guidelines for reducing weight are included in our leaflet 'Good Eating for a Healthy Heart.' Those who require further help should ask their doctor to refer them to a qualified dietitian for appropriate advice.

Good Health.

No welcome For Visitors To ICMSA Farms

In a message to the Chairman of ICMSA County Executives throughout the country, Mr. Tom O'Dwyer, President of the ICMSA has called for the suspension of public access on the properties of all ICMSA members until such a time as current legislation, which places liability on the farmer for injury or damage to farm visitors or trespassers, is changed.

"The legal liabilities attached to farmers arising from accidents to either trespassers or invited persons while on the farmers property, are so great that I must advise all farmers to suspend all public access for riding, walking or hunting over their properties, until we get a satisfactory resolution to this present problem.

"Under current legislation the farmer can be liable for accidental damage to an individual such as a hunter or the hunters property, while on the farmers land.

INTENTION TO INCREASE ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE

"The ICMSA has no wish to interfere with healthy country sports, in fact our intention is not to reduce, but to increase access to the countryside. However the present rights of persons entering farmers' properties cannot continue to put an unbearable burden on the farmers.

"We require that the present liabilities attached to farmers be moved and that the right to seek damage for accident be removed from persons who have not been invited on to farmers property," said Mr. O'Dwyer.

INCREASING NUMBER OF LITIGATION PRONE RIDERS

"In the hunting area, especially with increasing numbers of litigation prone foreign riders — very many of whom are inexperienced and poor riders — the farmers first duty is to look after the future of himself and his family.

"I regret that the Association has been forced into this response and I hope that a satisfactory resolution will be speedily worked out," concluded Mr. O'Dwyer.

"Manual Room" In Lismore C.B.S.

Tradition has it that the inaugural meeting of the Lismore G.A.A. Club was held in the Manual Room in Lismore C.B.S., in 1897, and that the first set of jerseys of their football team, the Blackwater Ramblers, were made by the Mercy Sisters in Stradbally, and were donned for the first time in Vaughan's forge in Chapel Street. Tradition also has it that the first chairman of the club was Sean Goulding, later to become a Teachta Dala, and Chairman of Seanad Eireann. Jack Bennett who was originally from Ballysaggart and who lived in Main Street was elected treasurer, and Mr. Creedon of Ballyin was elected secretary. It is believed locally that the club's first football match was played against Clashmore.

Anxious About Christmas?

On a Sunday evening he was browsing through the Sunday papers. A headline in Patricia's agony column caught his attention: "I'm anxious when I think of Christmas." The panic letter read as follows: "I am beginning to panic although I know there's no point. I hate Christmas, but am committed for all kinds of reasons to having my in-laws over for Christmas Day, as well as my own parents and my almost grown-up family. None of them get on well together. They never seem to particularly enjoy themselves, yet always want to come again next year. My panic is because I don't really feel I can face it, yet have no way out."

Before Glenroe came on, Fr. Liam was confirmed in the idea of getting people together to talk about their experience of Christmas — the fears, the joys, the panic, the expectations, the loneliness that surrounds the modern Christmas. Why not build the First Wednesday in the Friary in Dungarvan around the search for the real Christmas? While Miley is trying to understand Biddy's nervousness after the robbery, Fr. Liam makes up his mind to communicate with people about a celebration at 7.30 on Wednesday, December 4 in the Friary Church and inviting you to some shared reflection in the Friary House at 8.30. Come at 7.30 or 8.30.

RIGHT NOW

As I sit on the cold step of the house with the mountain view
I look around with wonder at the sight set out before me, Down at the hazel-brown gates and the gloomy grey path
Separating the two isolated isles which are now surrounded by the beauty of nature
Such a mixture combines together to present an array of callous colours
Slender birches and pining firs stand upright so as to welcome the on-coming night and the breaking of dawn,
On the horizon I clearly can see the green and lushy mountains stretching from the northern plain to the western world.
The sun is setting, reflecting the rays forming a musky hint which slowly but surely, drifts on with the night.
Pink and purple clouds blend together, a wonderful view for the onlooker
Cruachán has its cap on, the silent shadows start to cover this mighty mountain making it look fearful and foreboding
As I'm forced once more to face reality, so my body senses the chill of the nightly air and my ears pick up the shrill singing of the nightingale
. . . . I realise there are so many people to see this view
Yet so very few to admire and appreciate it.

A Good Time To Install A Garden Pond

THERE will be many gardeners who look forward to December as a chance to put their feet up or cope with the Christmas rush.

Similarly, there are those who hate the inactivity and chance to get stuck into something. Well, here is a project made for the fidgets amongst us - a garden pond.

They are relatively cheap if you do the labour yourself and ponds can be cited anywhere but beneath large trees. Once completed, they will give pleasure and enhance the garden for a long time.

Most preparation and heavy work can be done now with a view to planting and stocking the pond from next April through to September, but remember the risk and need for precautions if you have small children.

Large Ponds

Having decided to proceed, work out the best size and shape for your new garden feature. Don't be afraid to think big, because large ponds are more effective visually and easier to maintain.

You can get a good idea of what you want by laying out the shape with a garden hosepipe.

Once you've settled on shape then excavate to a minimum depth in the centre of 18 inches so that you can grow lily pads - surely what everyone expects to see in a garden pond?

The edges should then be stepped at around nine inches so that a marginal pond plants can grow properly.

The next step is to decide on the building material. It is easiest to buy a fibreglass pond liner and there are so many shapes and sizes that you should be able to find one to your design. The hole is then simply dug and lined with sand to pack and support the liner, but it is sometimes difficult to get this right.

If you have opted for a really quirky shape then a flexible plastic liner might be better. They come in several grades and can be guaranteed to last up to 15 years.

First dig the pond shape and line with sand, carefully checking for sharp points that might puncture the liner, then stretch the membrane across the hole, holding it at the sides with bricks and rocks.

You can then gently fill the pond with water allowing the liner to mould to the desired shape and the side overlap to be trimmed off.

Concrete allows similar flexibility in design and will last for decades, but must be used carefully to avoid cracking and contamination of the pond, so consult a specialist book before using this method.

Once the pond is complete you can tidy the edge with paving stones to also provide a secure path around the water.

Try adding a rockery along part of the edge to break up the pond outline and, if you are really ambitious, install a pump and waterfall from this into the pond.

A waterfall, or a fountain, will not only add visual life to the pond but also provide extra oxygen for the fish.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

MELLERAY WEEK-END

Last weekend twenty three scouts and Leaders travelled to Melleray Scout Centre for our winter weekend away. On the food end of things we had no worries as our own catering crew of Geoff, Ambrose, Fintan and "Foxy" Paddy were looking after us as well as the other seventy or so scouts and guides.

Friday night we hiked to Glenshelane where Brendan Kiersey dished out the soup and rolls. Following this we took part in a campfire with the Stradbally, Dungarvan and Abbeyside Guides, who under the "baton" of Jenny, proved very capable singers while in defence of the scouts it must be said that our concert practices seem to be tiring them slightly! On the way back from the Glen everyone was on the lookout for badgers for some reason.

Saturday morning certainly dawned early for Eamon's Wolf Patrol as they rose at five thirty a.m. to go on a morning hike before breakfast. Mind you, Mackey, John and Fifi made up for the lost sleep that evening. The highlight of the weekend was undoubtedly our midnight Mass on Saturday celebrated by Regional Chaplain Fr. Lloyd. The Mass got underway with a procession of twelve scouts with candles representing the twelve parts of the Scout Law. Martin Whelan did a good job on the voice-over here. This was followed immediately by the investiture into C.B.S.I. and the 4th Waterford of Michael Fives, Eoin Browne, John Phelan, Steven McNamara, Eoin Hayes, Ronan McCarthy, Brian Forde and Eamon Cashin. After this merit badges were presented as well as a special one to Father Lloyd. Then it was the turn of Regional Commissioner Maurice O'Brien to present scouts Brian McNamara and Neil Moore with their Star Scout Badges. This is a national award presented to scouts having reached a high standard and it was justly deserved. The S.L. Brian congratulated the newly invested scouts and wished them the best for the future. We then continued with the Mass.

Sunday being a fairly miserable day, weatherwise, we stayed indoors doing a number of bases run by the P.L.'s and S.P.L.'s. This was followed by three fifteen minute talks on hiking, campcraft and our country by Brendan, Ciaran and Brian. Following a beautifully cooked meal by our catering crew (they paid me to say that) we had inter-patrol soccer until three thirty when the parents arrived to collect everyone. All scouts went home tired but happy after a good weekend.

CUB NEWS

Our hardy cubs took part in an orienteering event last Sunday run by John and Fran, and while no details are to hand we definitely know everyone got wet!!

Leather — Practical and Flattering

A leather jacket is probably the most comfortable, practical and flattering item of clothing anyone could have in their wardrobe, especially in this country where we have nine months of cold weather.

For all leather lovers, a treat is in store for you next Saturday at the Ormonde Hotel, Dungarvan for there you can see the biggest selection of leather garments for ladies, gents and children ever to be seen in this country. Everything at the sale will be sold at half retail price, making this an ideal opportunity for you to purchase that leather garment at a price you can afford.

Cappoquin Man Is Director Of Development At U.C.C.

The new Cork Business School being developed at a cost of £5.25 million at University College, Cork is expected to be fully operational for the 1994-95 academic year and there are hopes that it may even take in students in 1993. Construction work will begin within a year and it is just one of a number of projects about to get under way at U.C.C. The Director of Development at U.C.C., Mr. J. J. Kett, has stated that total investment at the College between now and 1995 when the 150th anniversary is to be celebrated will reach £28.5 million. Mr. Kett who is son of John and Mrs. Mary Kett, Mon-eygurm, Cappoquin was formerly Farm Manager at Fota Island.

FISH DISHES FOR BIG APPETITES

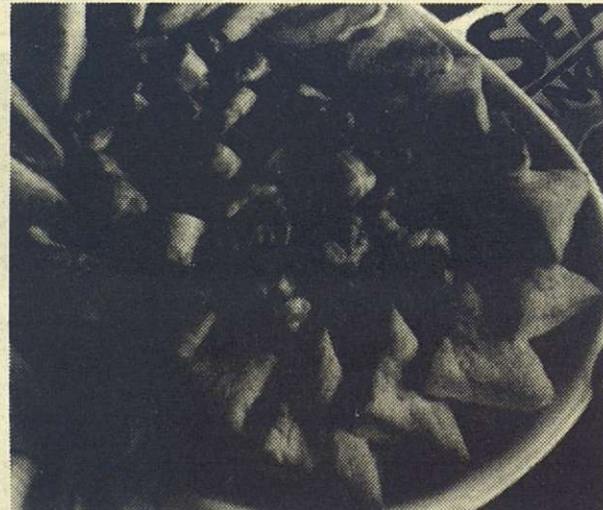

FEW people tire of fish, whatever the time of year, providing it's served up in an inventive way to satisfy the largest of appetites.

The good news about fish is that it doesn't add huge inches to the waistline. Certainly the Fish Cobbler recipe that's coming up is very low in calories, only 300 per serving, and is packed with healthy nutritious ingredients.

It can be made with huss, or ling, or you might like to be more adventurous and try conger eel or catfish. You can, of course, use frozen as well as fresh fish.

FISH COBBLER

Ingredients:
1-1½ lb (450-675g) huss, fresh or defrosted, cubed

1 tablespoon (15ml) sunflower oil
1 medium onion, chopped
1 clove garlic crushed
4oz (125g) small button mushrooms
8oz (225g) courgettes, sliced
1x7oz (200g) can chopped tomatoes
¼ pint (140ml) cider
¼ pint (140ml) fish stock
1-2 tablespoons (15-30ml) cornflour
4oz (125g) peeled prawns, fresh or defrosted (optional)

Salt and pepper

Method:

Preheat oven to 220C/425F, Gas Mark 7.

Heat the oil in a pan. Cook onion and garlic until soft and transparent. Add the mushrooms, courgettes and chopped tomatoes.

Stir in the cider and fish stock. Bring to the boil. Blend the cornflour with 2 tablespoons (30ml) water and stir into the mixture.

Cook until thickened, stirring continuously. Season to taste. Remove from the heat. Stir in the fish and prawns (if used).

Meanwhile make up the scone mixture following the packet instructions or use your own recipe.

Roll out the scone dough to ½" (1.25cm) thickness. Cut into approximately 16 small triangles.

Transfer the fish mixture into a large ovenproof dish. Arrange the scone triangles on top, overlapping slightly.

Brush with milk and bake for 30-35 minutes at 220C/425F, Gas Mark 7.

Tip

For a home-made scone mixture sift 8oz self-raising flour, pinch salt, together. Rub in 2oz (50g) butter or margarine. Add ¼ pint (140ml) milk, knead together. Used as outlined above.

Serves 4-6.

YOUR WEEK-END

Ballyduff Drama Group's Amadeus

Vienna at the end of the 18th century. A city of culture and ignorance of grandeur and despair, of genius and of fools, a city of intrigue. Here, presided over by the all-glorious hand of Emperor Joseph II, sat the court of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. Successor to the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne, through the Divine Right of Kings no longer held sway, its autocracy knew no bounds. The French Revolution with its attendant democratic notes was still around the corner and the concept of nationalism unheard of on men's tongues. Here, by a mere twitch of the eyelids, a man could either rise to riches or wither away to ignominy.

This was a court most benevolent to the arts, and to music, in particular. It was, however, a court dominated by Italian influences jealously guarded by their promoters. The main purveyor of this influence was the Court Composer, Antonio Salieri, who in his time knew much fame and power and had a distinct liking for both. Into this world stumbled a young Salzburg musician, intent on fame and fun. This man was Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. Now regarded as probably the greatest musical genius the world has ever known, he was to survive merely to the age of thirty five, to die penniless and in despair and to be cast into a pauper's grave. One could write a play about it, and he did. Peter Shaffer, the Liverpool-born playwright with previous award winning plays in "Equus" and "The Royal Hunt of the Sun," produced a stage play and based on it, a screenplay which he named "Amadeus." This film consequently swept the Academy Awards, winning seven in total including best film, best screenplay and best actor.

Exactly two hundred years ago, on December 5, 1791, Mozart departed this earth. To coincide with his bi-centenary, Ballyduff Drama Group, beginning Nov. 29 brings Amadeus to its stage under the direction of Bill Canning and, in so doing, becomes the first group in who plays "Antomo Salieri" in Ballyduff's production the Republic of Ireland, either amateur or professional to do so. This is the most ambitious undertaking from a financial, artistic and technical viewpoint that possibly any amateur group in Munster has ever undertaken. The result should be beautiful music, colourful period costumes, superb acting and a stirring and exciting story. The production runs from Nov. 29 to Dec. 5, excluding Wednesday, December 4 with booking at 058/60208.

The scene is well and truly set for our forthcoming production of "I'll Get My Man" by Philip King. Hectic rehearsals are lightened by the comic text, as even the cast struggle to maintain a serious countenance in the face of such hilarity.

The cast are expertly put through their paces by the producer Fr. Michael O'Byrne which includes William O'Brien, Hannah Lucas, Ann Meskill, Ann Ryan, Pat Murray, Mary Dee, Elaine Barrett, Liam Christopher and Pat Ryan.

This wonderful comedy should not be missed. It opens on Thursday, December 12 and all proceeds from the opening night will be donated to the Carriglea Training Centre. It continues on Friday 13, Saturday 14 and Sunday 15 December, beginning at 8.15 p.m. sharp. We are particularly fortunate on our venue, the fully equipped modern hall at Carriglea Convent, Carriglea. Tickets can be booked at 058/68091 between 5 and 8 p.m.

Dramatic Club

It is with regret that I have to inform you, our public, that Dungarvan Dramatic Club cannot stage our planned production of "Canaries" by Bernard Farrell. As they say in all the right circles, this is due to circumstances beyond our control. As is our wont, we pre-empted the choice of a Dublin based professional group in our choice of "Canaries" and consequently the performing rights are not available to us at the moment. We plan, however, to stage this play perhaps later next year.

I would like to thank sincerely all those who have worked on this venture to date: Bríd Nielsen our producer and the cast (almost too numerous to mention but I will anyhow) Margaret Dennehy, Jim Lawn, Michael Hennessy, Anne Kavanagh, Laura O'Brien, Hank Regan, Micheál O Cionnfhaoilaidh, Ruairí De Paor, Pat O'Halloran, Pádraigín Ní Chadhla. You'll get your chance to tread the boards yet!

It has been a great disappointment to us that our planned production had to be put aside and, no doubt, you, our audience, will also miss our presence this side of Christmas. However, as indomitable as always, we plan to present three one-act plays before Easter, so our talent scouts may yet nab you for a part.

Finally, let me also thank the staff of The Park Hotel and particularly Alan Flynn, for their help, encouragement and heating during rehearsals held there.

So there I leave it until 1992. Watch this space for further developments! — PRO.

Pattern Notes

The Annual General Meeting of the Abbeyside Pattern Committee was held in Minnies on Wednesday, November 20. The attendance was good and the following officers were elected:

Patron — Very Rev. Fr. Doherty, P.P.; Chairperson — Eileen O'Connell; Vice-Chairperson — Charmain O'Brien; Secretary — Richard Power; Asst. Secretary — Breda Power; Treasurer — James Stacey; Emma Flynn — P.R.O.; Committee — Bunny Garcia, Tom O'Rourke, Josephine O'Rourke, John Hourigan and Ambrose O'Connell.

The outgoing chairperson Aine O'Riordan thanked the committee and helpers for their support during the year and praised them for the success of Pattern '91. On closing she congratulated the parish for floodlighting the Abbey and thanked Fr. Doherty for his presence. She then stated she wasn't seeking re-election due to other commitments. She will be sorely missed and we thank her for her commitment and outstanding effort over the past twelve months. We wish her well. — P.R.O.

Acknowledgments

LOOBY — The sisters, brother-in-law, nephews, nieces and relatives of the late Mary Ann Looby, Lyreattin and Tivoli Terrace, Cappoquin, wish to thank most sincerely all those who attended removal of remains, Requiem Mass and burial; those who sent Mass cards, letters of sympathy and floral tributes. A special word of thanks to the local and visiting clergy; to the Matron, nurses and staff, Ardkeen Hospital and to the Matron, nurses and staff, St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan for their kindness, and to the kind neighbours and friends who helped in any way. The holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for their intentions.

DAVIS — The son, daughter-in-law, grandchildren, brothers, sisters, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, nephews and nieces of the late Abbey Davis nee Halley, Lacken, Ballinamult, who died in England, wish to thank all who sympathised with them in their recent bereavement; those who sent floral tributes, messages of sympathy and Mass cards. Mass will be offered for the intentions of all.

FOLEY — The brother, sisters and relatives of the late Michael Foley, Gortnadiha, Ring and London, wish to convey their thanks to the very many people who sympathised with them recently. They are most grateful for the Mass cards and letters of sympathy received. They wish to thank the local Clergy for their kind words, the wonderful neighbours and friends who helped in so many different ways; our sincerest gratitude also to James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors for their services. As a token of our appreciation the holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for all your intentions.

TOBIN — The sons, daughter and relatives of the late Mai Tobin, 27 Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan wish to thank most sincerely all those who shared their burden recently; those who sent Mass cards, letters and cards of sympathy, floral tributes and who attended the funeral. We are indebted to the local clergy for their words of comfort; the generosity and kindness of the Matron and staff of St. Joseph's Hospital was deeply appreciated. We remember the St. Joseph's Day Centre, our neighbours and friends and especially the O'Hara family, Sean and Francis Tobin, who all assisted us. The holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for all your intentions as a token of our sincerest gratitude.

MANAHAN — The wife Kathleen, brothers, sister and relatives of the late Sean Manahan, Helvick, Ring, wish to thank most sincerely all those who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; all those who sent Mass cards, floral tributes and letters; all those who called to the house personally, attended the funeral and burial. Thank you to Dr. Daly, also to Fr. Daly, P.P. and Fr. Mackey, C.C. A special word of thanks to Marie Kelly and Mary Graves. Trusting this will be accepted by all, as a token of appreciation the holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for their intentions.

— Outline permission is sought for a development at Ballinroad consisting of 2 bungalows, 9 dormer type houses, 22 resort houses, 32 two-storey houses, 2 tennis courts, recreation grounds and community clubhouse. — Michael Power.

County Waterford — Outline permission is sought from Waterford County Council for 1 house at Portally, Dunmore East. — Mary Halley.

Co. Waterford — Outline permission is sought from Waterford County Council for 2 houses at Brownstown, Dunmore East. — William Halley.

Dungarvan — Permission is sought from Dungarvan Urban District Council for a new restaurant overlooking the quays and harbour, new kitchen, new toilets and minor alterations and additions to the Moorings, Davitt's Quay, Dungarvan, Co. Waterford. — John and Theresa Lynch.

Co. Waterford — I, Patrick Dee, am applying to Waterford County Council for permission to erect a bungalow and septic tank at Killineen West, Dungarvan.

O'RIORDAN — The sons, daughters and many relatives of the late Mary O'Riordan, Shandon Street, Dungarvan, wish to express their heartfelt thanks to all who sympathised with them recently; those who sent Mass cards, letters, cards of sympathy, floral tributes and who attended the funeral obsequies. A special thank you to the local Clergy, to the Matron and staff of St. Joseph's Hospital who were so kind and thoughtful; to Dr. Maurice O'Sullivan; to church organist Claire Maher for her musical tributes; our neighbours and friends who assisted in so many ways, we are indebted to you all. The holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered as a token of our deepest appreciation.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair,
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day,
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you,
So very much whatever the part.

In Memoriam

BUCKLEY — In loving memory of Brenda Buckley, late of 31 Parks Road, Lismore, who died on November 30, 1990. Anniversary Mass on Saturday, November 30, 7.30 p.m.

It was a sudden parting,
Too bitter to forget,
Those who loved you dearly,
Are the ones who will never forget.
When last we saw you, you were smiling,
You looked so bright and well,
Little did we know that day,
Was to be our last farewell.
A voice from our household is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home,
That never can be filled.
Good was her heart in friendship sound,
Loved and respected by all around,
A beautiful life came to an end,
She died as she lived, everyone's friend.
We'll hold you close within our hearts
And there you shall remain,
To walk with us throughout our lives,
Until we meet again.
Just a prayer from the family who loved you,
Just a memory fond and true,
In our hearts you will live forever,
Because we thought the world of you.
(Always remembered by your loving husband Dinny and daughter Laura.)

COLEMAN — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of John Coleman of Monalour, Lismore who died on December 3, 1986.

Will those who think of him today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Inserted by his loving wife and family.)

COLEMAN — In loving memory of Mickey Coleman, late of Davis Street, Dungarvan, whose anniversary occurs at this time.

Will those who think of him today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Sadly missed by his brothers and sisters.)

HICKEY — Twenty-second and Fourth Anniversaries — In sad and loving memory of Kevin and Tommy Hickey, The Burgery, Abbeyside, whose anniversaries occur.

(Fondly remembered by Cathy, Mam, brothers, sisters-in-law and all the family.)

O'CONNELL — Sixth Anniversary — In loving memory of William O'Connell, Tourtane, Glencairn, Co. Waterford, who died on November 30, 1985.

Your life was love and labour,
Your love for your family true,
You did your best for all of us,

We will always remember you.
(Never forgotten by his loving wife Mary and family.)

WRIGHT — Twenty-First Anniversary — In loving memory of Joseph Wright, 69 Congress Villas, Dungarvan, who died November 29, 1970.

Quietly today, your memory we treasure,
Loving you always, forgetting you never.
(Your loving family at home and in England.)

WADE — Twenty-sixth Anniversary — In loving memory of our father, Daniel Wade, late of 3 Lackenfune, Dungarvan, who died on October 28, 1965 and our mother, Mary Wade, late of 3 Lackenfune, Dungarvan, who died on September 7, 1979. R.I.P. Masses offered.

Loved and remembered every day of the year.

Late Helen (Babs) Halley

With sadness we pen these lines on the passing of Helen (Babs) Halley, Woodhouse, Aghlish, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan on Sunday, November 17. A quiet, unassuming person, 'Babs' as she was affectionately known, was a great favourite with all who had the good fortune of making her acquaintance. Her home was always one of welcome, where the host enjoyed relating stories from the past. She was a model neighbour and sincere friend whose generous and kind ways were well known. Her passing leaves us all the poorer but richer for having known Babs. May she rest in peace.

We extend our sympathies to her brothers, sisters, relatives and friends on their loss.

On Monday evening the removal took place from the hospital mortuary to Aghlish Church where Rev. Fr. M. O'Byrne, C.C., blessed and received the remains. On Tuesday morning a large concourse of mourners was present to hear Fr. O'Byrne celebrate Requiem Mass for the repose of her soul. The interment followed in the adjoining cemetery with Very Rev. Fr. F. Lucey, P.P., in attendance.

Chief mourners — Jimmy and Pat (brothers), Kathleen and Bridget (sisters), Maisie and Peg (sisters-in-law) and a large circle of other relatives and friends including nephews and nieces.

(James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors.)

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

DRAMA

At a recent meeting of the Melleray Dramatic Society, the following officers were elected:

Chairman — James McCarthy; Secretary — Michael Rawlins; Treasurer — Michael Cullinane; Directors — Hugh O'Donnell and Mairead Cullinane.

CAPPOQUIN ROWING CLUB

The Annual General Meeting of the above club will be held next Sunday at the Boathouse. The meeting is timed for 12 noon and new members would be most welcome.

DAY CARE CENTRE

Planning permission has now been obtained for the erection of the new building at the Danes Field. Tenders were sought from various building contractors and we understand that the submission of a local firm has been accepted and work will commence very shortly. The hard working committee are to be complimented for their great work on this project which is indeed a very worthwhile one. They will soon have the satisfaction of seeing tangible results of their labour.

TRAFFIC REGULATIONS

Further to our item last week we now understand that following a meeting of some local traders with Co. Council officials some modifications will be carried out to the much maligned yellow lines. We understand in some places the lines will be removed altogether and will be shortened in others. The concern of the shopkeepers is understandable, they believe that their trade will be affected and maybe with some justification. The powers that be find themselves in a dilemma. The traders problems have to be weighed against the easy movement of traffic through the town. The safety of people who have to cross the streets on foot must also be a primary consideration. At the end of the day compromise will prevail which we hope will reasonably satisfy everybody.

FISHING

In these notes last week we included an official press release from the new angling club which has been set up. Having read through the list of officers we appreciate that they are people who are keenly interested in the sport and no doubt felt that to protect their interests a new club was necessary. Readers of these notes will know that there is in fact another club in the town and has been there for the past two years. The two can probably function side by side comfortably. One wonders though about the dilemma facing visiting anglers who will presumably have to deal with both. We can only hope that everything will be done by both clubs to encourage the much needed tourist business of which fishing is a major element.

LIGHTING UP

The Traders Association are at present in the process of erecting the Christmas Lights in preparation for the switch on in a couple of weeks time. The display this year is expected to be bigger and brighter than before and should add much to the festive scene. The lights have been a feature in town for many years now. Most of us only see the finished product and know little or nothing of the work that is involved in making the display possible. Even when the strings of bulbs are in position the job isn't finished as they have to be constantly monitored to check for failures and for damage by high vehicles and for several other reasons. The town traders have stuck to the task down the years and certainly deserve the thanks of all of us.

COMMUNITY CENTRE

Work has commenced on the new building in Modeligo which will be a meeting place for local people and groups and a venue for various indoor past-times. This is a brave venture indeed in a small rural area. It is the brainchild of a very enthusiastic and hard working committee who have, for the past year or so, been raising funds for the project. When complete the centre will become the focal point for people of all ages and will fulfill a need which it is felt has existed in the area for many years.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

There are at least three private residences in the town which were Public Houses during the past fifty years. Can you name them?

Answer next week.

Answer to last week's question was Dromrue.

PUBLIC MEETING

"Looking to the Future" — A very important public meeting of concerned citizens is being called in the Boathouse on Thursday, November 28 at 8.30 p.m. There it is hoped to form a Tidy Towns Committee which will start the task of organising and drawing up a plan for the development of the town and surrounding areas. It is requested that people from every street and areas as well as traders, industries and youth would attend, also those living in the surrounding areas of the town. All views are welcome. Show your commitment to your area by your presence.

SALE OF WORK

Convent Primary School, Cappoquin are holding their annual Sale of Work — next Sunday, December 1 at 2 p.m. in Our Lady's Hall.

There will be lots of attractions with Santa coming to school at 2 p.m. Also variety of stalls — toys, lucky dip, next to new, fruit and veg., cakes, raffles and great spinner prizes.

We would appreciate your support. (Adv.)

TALK

On next Tuesday, December 3 at 8 p.m. a talk will be given by Sr. Ailish Bergin in Our Lady's Hall, in Cappoquin on "Being a Woman in today's World." All are welcome — Admission is free.

AFFANE BRIDGE CLUB NOTES

Results of Turkey Competition — 1st Brid Bergin and Mary Fives; 2nd Monica O'Sullivan and Mary Radford; 3rd Claire Meaney and Addie Buckley; 4th Betty Kelleher and Fr. Barron.

RUGBY NEWS

Another power packed performance from a rampant Cappoquin XV who totally overwhelmed the Cork City side who were top of the league. Cappoquin have now gone top and it will take something special to topple them.

The game was played in arctic conditions but the playing field surface was in remarkably good condition despite all the rain.

Feature of the game was the very powerful display by the forwards both in set scrums and rucks, gaining yards at every encounter. Cappoquin were so much on top that with about 15 minutes into the second half, Sunday's Well asked to discontinue the game, due to the one sided affair and the worsening weather conditions.

Scorers — E. Hickey, J. Dignam, J. O'Brien, K. Veale and W. O'Brien (tries). 1 conversion.

Team — M. Reddy, P. J. Veale, J. Dignam, C. Rioridan, M. Power, D. McGrath, K. Veale, N. Hayes, P. Fitzgerald, Jim O'Rourke, E. Hickey, E. Lonergan, J. O'Brien, W. O'Brien. Subs. — H. Collender, A. Power, T. Ahearne, K. Riley, J. McGrath, E. Hayes, N. O'Connor, B. Cunningham.

Next Sunday we will be at home to Listowel.

TOURIN BADMINTON NOTES

Now that the men's and ladies leagues have come to a close, the club would like to congratulate John Joe Scanlon, Kenneth O'Donnell, Michael Meaney and Kevin Wilkinson on winning Section D of the Men's League in Dungarvan Sports Centre on Thursday, November 21.

Also congratulations to Eamon Scanlon, John Mc-

Grath, Pius Ormonde and Fintan Murray on coming runners-up in Section C of the Men's League, which was played in Tallow on the same date.

We would like to wish all our teams participating in the Mixed Leagues, commencing this week, the best of luck. — P.R.O.

CAPPOQUIN AND DISTRICT DARTS LEAGUE

Lindsays stay on top of Section A thanks to a five-three win in Morrissey's. The Village Inn (A) drew four all at home to Deckies, to remain in second spot just two points behind the leaders with a game in hand. The Village Inn (B) drew in the Tavern and are six points behind Lindsays in third spot with a game in hand, while in Ardmore the home side Dunvegan lost by five games to three to the Old Still.

AFFANE A.F.C. NOTES

We collected two more points last Sunday at home against Valley Rangers. This game was played in atrocious weather conditions with wind and rain sweeping up the pitch.

We had the advantage of this wind in the first half, but it was Valley who started the better creating some chances early on. After a quarter of an hour we were awarded a free which was headed clear, but the ball fell to Declan Glavin who let fly with a fierce shot from all of thirty yards which went all the way to the net. We continued to dominate for the remainder of the half but rarely looked like extending our lead.

Valley started the second half very strong, forcing several corners, but we held firm at the back. After twenty minutes Valley had two players dismissed for dissent. This changed the pattern of play and we began to create some excellent changes.

After thirty minutes we went two up when Eddie McGrath shot home. Valley still fought hard and squandered an excellence chance with twelve minutes remaining. We rapped up the points when we got a third in the dying minutes of the game, again it was Eddie McGrath who was on hand to volley the ball to the roof of the net.

This win leaves us on top of the league and unbeaten at this early stage. Next week we play Bride View United in Tallow.

Team — C. Cullinane, L. Costin, D. Glavin, F. McCarthy, T. Mansfield, K. Reddy, J. Crotty, E. O'Shea, E. McGrath, B. O'Sullivan, S. Costin. Subs. — T. Ormonde for B. O'Sullivan; M. Browne for F. McCarthy.

AFFANE/CAPPOQUIN G.A.A. NOTES

There was a good crowd present for the General Meeting on Friday night of last week. There was a good discussion on many matters which are vital to the club at the moment.

The 7th and 8th draws in our Non-Stop Draw took place during the meeting. There were a number of new subscribers who are very welcome indeed. We would like to congratulate all the winners, a list of whom is given below:

7th Draw — £50 J. Brackett, p. Ed. and Denis; £30 E. Coffey, p. Mick and Liam; £20 M. Gilligan, p. Fawltys; £10 M. Moynihan, p. C. Cullinane; £10 T. Hallahan jr., p. M. Byrne; £10 B. Hennebry, p. P. O'Shea.

8th Draw — £50 P. Duggan, p. P. O'Shea; £30 E. Coffey, p. Mick and Liam; £20 M. Power, p. Mick and Liam; £10 D. McCarthy, p. Ed. and Denis; £10 J. Keane, p. Mick and Liam;

£10 E. O'Shea, p. M. Byrne.

The 9th and 10th draws will take place on Saturday, December 7. On that night also there will be a general meeting to consider forthcoming County Convention and other matters.

On Duty — Our clubman, J. J. Landers, was in charge of the county intermediate football final in Dungarvan on Sunday last, while our Chairman, Michael Fraher, was one of the umpires. Other club members assisting J. J. were M. Byrne, J. Cullinane, C. Cullinane and T. McCarthy. The other member of the team was M. Mernin (Geraldines). They all did a fine job in terrible weather conditions.

Congratulations to Jim and Mary Collender of Ballinavouga, on the birth of a baby girl last week.

LADIES FOOTBALL

The ladies football social was held last Saturday night in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungar-van. Over 300 people attended. Local girls to receive All-Ireland medals at the function were, Jenny Hallahan, Ann Harvey and Siobhan Power, under-16; June and Colette Whyte, senior medals. Congratulations girls. The medals were presented by Willie Joe Padden legendary Mayo footballer. A good night was had by all with dancing to Gerry Walsh and Dallas.

DEATH

Deepest sympathy is extended to the relatives and friends of the late Joe Blevins, Mahonbridge and Kilmacthomas, who died in the Regional Hospital, Waterford last Wednesday.

Joe took part in many plays in the parish down through the years and was a great character, he was also in the film launched earlier this year and will be seen in the coming one.

Burial took place in Kilrossanty Old Cemetery on Friday morning. May he rest in peace.

Raffle winners were — Eileen Cotter, Joe O'Shea, Esther Walsh and Ml. Fennessy.

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Betty Feeney, Garrison, Ballyduff on the death of her step-father last weekend.

SCOR NA nOG

Congratulations to Jennifer Feeney (recitation), Emer Mills (solo singing), Colette Noonan and Raymond Dempsey (ceol uirlise), Emer Mills, Esther Feeney, Mary Feeney, Annette Feeney (ballad group) on being successful at the divisional semi-final last Friday night. We wish them the best of luck in the final on this Saturday night at the C.B.S. Hall, Dungarvan at 7.30 p.m.

PIONEER NOTES

On Friday night week at a ceremony in St. Michael's Church a large number of members from the local centre will be enrolled as Probationers and Full Pioneers. More details next week.

The Diocesan final of the Readeoiri will be held on December 7 at a venue to be announced.

JUVENILE G.A.A. NOTES

The Club would like to thank all who subscribed so generously to last weekends church gate collection. Pat Flynn and Jim Hannon attended last Friday night's divisional Bord na nOg Convention in Dungarvan where the club were presented with the U-14 hurling medals won earlier in the year.

BALLYDUFF I.C.A. NOTES

The next meeting of the Guild is in the Library on Tuesday, December 3 at 8 p.m. All members are earnestly requested to attend.

On Friday morning, December 6 the Guild will hold a (tea/coffee) morning in the Hall after 10 o'clock Mass. Why, you might ask? — Are these ladies going ad? No! is the answer —

You may have heard in the news or read in the papers that on the week from December 2 to 8 a special effort should be made nationwide by everyone, but especially by I.C.A. Guilds, to try and make funds to help sick children, whose research centre is at "Our Lady's Hospital" in Crumlin. So we hope to have good support at the Hall. You'll be glad you came.

We took part in the variety competitions in Dungarvan, it was a great night's entertainment and we congratulate Tramore on winning the Jubilee Cup.

Our team did us proud and after their performance I would not be surprised if Alan Parker visited our camp to spot the talent.

Tuesday, December 3, 8 o'clock at the Library. — P.R.O. M.H.

MACRA NOTES

On behalf of the club I would like to congratulate our Novice Debating team on their fine victory over Kinsalebeg last Friday night. The lads really put on a brilliant performance, but the debate was controversially taken from them for being late on the night. But it was when the debate was over, that the boys really showed their superior debating skills. The team have objected against this questionable ruling so we await for a just and honourable decision. On behalf of the team I would like to thank Paddy Ahern and John Kenny for coaching the team. No doubt we will hear more from this team in the future.

The Cross-Country Quiz will be held in Lawlors Hotel on November 29. The team representing the club are namely Michael Leamy, Paddy Ahern, Denis Drislane and John Scanlon. On behalf of the club I wish the lads every success.

A meeting will be held in the School on Saturday, November 30 at 9 p.m. sharp. All members are requested to attend and new members are always welcome. Topics on the agenda are the Christmas party and Yugo talent competition.

The Yugo talent competition takes place in Mount Slon Hall on December 6. The club are practising very hard for some of these competitions.

The National President of Macra, Matt O'Keefe will address the County Executive meeting on December 3. The club will have a large number in attendance.

Swimming sessions continue every Thursday night at 8 p.m. also club members are still welding on Monday nights and the rumour is that the welding is coming along well (but the same can't be said for the snooker afterwards).

Soccer continues next Friday at 10 p.m. sharp. The break should have rested those creaking muscles. Teams in action next week are, Kenny United v. Tom Kearney and John Kenny v. Catherine Harris.

BONMAHON NOTES

CARDS

Last Thursday in the Kill Community Centre there were joint winners at cards, Noel and Martin Power, Michael Hennessy, Comeen and Paty Coleman. The raffle winners were Catherine O'Regan and Noel Power.

On Friday night Neddy Kearns and Maurice Cannon were the winners of

MV METRICHA

Following a number of unsuccessful attempts at refloating the grounded freighter MV Metricha by the tug boat Lady Elma, the much larger tug the Grey Seal arrived off the Bonmahon Coast last week. On last Friday afternoon both tugs successfully refloated the ship and great credit is given to all who made the salvage possible. Great excitement was felt by the large crowd who witnessed the occasion.

ST. MARY'S

We wish the best of luck to all our participants this Friday night, November 29, who are taking part in the Junior Scor in Portlaw.

Reminder that tickets at £1 each are now available for our cabaret which takes place on Friday, December 6 in Tom Kirwan's Lounge, Kill.

Our congratulations to our secretary Martin McNamara on his election as Eastern Bord Na nOg Secretary at the Bord's recent A.G.M.

G.A.A. NEWS

Last Friday night the names of the three pubs going forward to the final of the Variety Pubs Competition were announced by the adjudicators and were as follows — The Long Hall Tavern, The Cosy Thatch and the Lord Doneraile.

At our club meeting last Monday night we completed the arrangements for the final which takes place tonight (Wednesday, Nov. 27) in O'Shea's Hotel. Full report next week.

LIFEGUARD A.G.M.

Last Wednesday week, November 20 the club's Annual General Meeting took place at Tom Hayes Arcade. There was a large attendance from members. Officers elected for the coming year were as follows:

Chairperson — Mary Wall; Secretary — P. J. O'Shea; Treasurer — Nicky Power; Medical Officer — John Doyle.

NIGHT IN LAWLOR'S

Last Saturday night the senior, minor and under-16 ladies football teams were presented with their All-Ireland medals in Lawlors Hotel, Dungarvan by Mayo footballer, Willie Joe Padden. The meal was immensely enjoyed by all and a great night's entertainment was had with music provided by Gerry Walsh and Dallas.

Congratulations to the local girls who received their medals — Ann Heame, Rosemary Fitzgerald, Alison Morrissey, Evelyn Mooney, Lorena Mooney, Rachel Kiely, Jennifer Coffey, Julie Ann Torpey and Ruth Ahearn.

DUNGARVAN RUGBY CLUB NOTES

Dungarvan Regain Clock Gate Cup

DUNGARVAN 17 YOUGHAL 12

Dungarvan got back on the winning trail with this hard fought victory over Youghal, in the annual fixture for the "Clock Gate Cup" played at Ballyrandle on Sunday last.

This was a close and exciting tie played in dreadful conditions and great credit must go to both teams for the quality of the fare served up.

Dungarvan had first use of the gale force wind and constant pressure on the Youghal line yielded three penalties which were converted by Austin Curran (2) and Pat Walshe. Dungarvan needed a try and it came with ten minutes remaining in the half. John Curran made a great break from a lineout on half way, the move was carried on by Pat Dunphy who linked with Pat Walshe and Vinny Morrissey with Peter Queally taking the final pass to crash over for a try.

Dungarvan turned to face the strong wind in the second half with a 13-0 lead but got a great boost early in the half when Dermot O'Brien crashed over for a fine try after a great forward surge with Philip Foley and Jimmy Morrissey to the fore.

It was all Youghal after this and with the wind at their backs they laid siege to the Dungarvan line. The home side defended well and while Youghal brought the score close, they never looked likely to get sufficient scores to win.

Team — D. Looby, E. Phelan, P. Queally, P. Walshe, V. Morrissey, M. Brackett, M. O'Connor, D. O'Brien, J. Morrissey, J. Curran, A. Curran, P. Mul-laney, P. Foley, P. Dunphy, T. Shanley.

DRESS DANCE

Another reminder that our annual dress dance takes place on December 7. Guest speaker will be Mick Quinn, former international and in recent times a renowned T.V. commentator. Tickets from Eamonn Spratt.

ALL-IRELAND LEAGUE

It's good to see three Dungarvan men doing so well in the All-Ireland League. Liam Lannon with Garry-owen and Tony Clarke and Sean Killigrew with Dolphin have been to the fore in their club's recent good runs. These players learned their rugby with Dungarvan and it "speaks volumes" for the quality of the players produced by the club over the years.

FIXTURES

December 1 — 1st XV, Provincial Towns Cup v. Carrick-on-Suir at Ballyrandle. 2nd XV v. Carrick-on-Suir at Ballyrandle at 2 p.m.

Deise Pitch And Putt Notes

The most recent outing was played last Sunday in the most atrocious weather conditions. The venue was Killybarry and there is great credit due to the members that they turned up in force on such a bad day. I am sure that some time in the future we will get a chance to play the course on a better day and so be able to appreciate it more. Our sincere thanks to the two attendants who facilitated us by keeping the course open.

The presentation was made in Bridgie Terries, who also sponsored the competition.

Results — 1st P. J. Dwane; 2nd Tom Power; 3rd Helen Love; 4th Billy Fitzgerald; 5th Maurice Condon.

Congratulations to P. J. Dwane and Billy Fitzgerald, our past captain and president, for getting among the prizes.

We had little to smile about while out on the course so I feel compelled to write a little ditty in honour of my partner whom I deserted.

Did you hear of the ballad of Felie and Co.,

Who went off playing pitch and putt,

The rain came down and the wind did blow,

And Dan and Dinny got wet.

The approach to the 6th was muddy and wet,

And all of our balls disappeared,

The result of it all was the partners cried halt,

Undaunted he joined those who followed behind,

And duly completed his round,

But alas when he finished his card had diminished

To nothing much more than a mess.

He demanded his pound for completion of round,

But Dinny and Dan they are tough,

The lesson I say is play on a fine day,

RED HOUSE LEAGUE NOTES

Affane Clear Leaders of Div. I

Affane go top of Div. 1, Bride View United record a big away win in Killeagh, while Mogeely stay on top of Div. II.

The weather was a spoil sport on Sunday last and forced the cancellation of many fixtures. The terrible weather conditions forced the fans to stay at home also. However, the games that went ahead produced plenty of goals to keep the fans warm.

RESULTS

DIVISION I

Killeagh 0

Bride View United 4

United turned on the style in Killeagh on Sunday last and played some grand football as well as four tremendous goals. Philly Curley put United in front after 34 mins. and they held this lead till the break.

United played great football in the second half despite playing against the wind and the rain. Curley again scored a marvellous goal in the 55th min. to put the Tallow lads two goals up. Two late goals within a minute made sure of the points for United. A Dermot Henley header in the 88th min. and Paul Curley 89th min. saw United grab two great away points.

This all Cork clash threw up a surprise result when the seaisiders were beaten by neighbours Inch. Inch went a goal up in the first half scored by Norman Griffin after just 3 mins.

Billy Lane pulled a goal back early in the second half but further goals for Inch from Norman Griffin, John Tracy and Eddie Kent clinched the points for Inch.

Valley Rangers 0

Affane are now clear leaders of Div. 1. They had a fine win at home on Sunday last. Declan Glavin put the homeside in front after 10 mins. and they held this lead till the interval.

Eddie McGrath grabbed two goals in the secondhalf to secure the points for Affane. It was not all one way traffic in this game as Rangers were always in the game up to the final 20 mins. At this stage Rangers had 2 players sent off.

Glenview v.

Cappoquin

This game was called off due to the pitch being unplayable.

Modeligo 0

For a long time during this game it looked as if Modeligo would take the points. Going into the final quarter Modeligo were two goals in front, but then Tommy Pratt took over and grabbed a hat-trick to give the homeside the points.

DIVISION II

Bride View United 0

Mogeely 2

Mogeely continued their great run on Sunday last when they defeated United at home. United will see this result as a big set back as they also fancied their chances. Tom McCarthy gave Mogeely the lead in the first half and Paul O'Sullivan wrapped up the points for the East Cork side when he scored in the second half. This was a good performance by the league leaders.

Piltown 0

Another tremendous performance from league hopefuls Ballyduff. Piltown were outclassed here but the result might have been different when they were just a goal down. They were awarded a penalty but unfortunately for them John Whelan failed to score. James Scanlon's first goal was a beauty, scored from outside the box and curled into the corner of the net. Scanlon added a second in the second half. Ballyduff's other marksmen were Brendan Cotter (2) and Fintan Hennessy (1).

Pinewood Rangers v.

Araglen

This game was called off due to the pitch being unplayable.

Grange v.

Ardmore

This game was also called off.

PREVIEW & FIXTURES

DIVISION I

Inch v. Modeligo, kick-off 11.30 a.m. — Both sides looking for league points, although Inch had a big victory last Sunday. Home advantage should swing the game for Inch against a Modeligo side finding the goals hard to come by.

Bride View United v. Affane, kick-off 11.30 —

This game will draw the fans to Tallow on Sunday. Both sides going well at the moment will be anxious for both points here. United with home advantage may just shade it, but it should be a cracker of a game.

Cappoquin v. Youghal, Kick-off 11.30 — The homeside should prove too strong for the seaisiders who suffered a big home defeat last Sunday. Cappoquin are pleased with their displays to date, will be all out to clinch the points. A home win here.

Glenview v. Lismore, kick-off 2 p.m. — This local derby should provide plenty of good football. Lismore, now with a full side, should collect full points here but with Philip McGrath having a great season for Glenview, Lismore should tread carefully.

Valley Rangers v. Killeagh, kick-off 11.30 —

This all Cork clash could go either way. Killeagh by their standards are having a very poor season. Rangers, never easy to beat at home, may settle for a share of the points here.

DIVISION II

Piltown v. Cappoquin — Piltown suffered a heavy defeat on Sunday last and will be up against a good Cappoquin side on Sunday. Cappoquin are having a good season and should be too strong for Piltown.

Mogeely v. Araglen, kick-off 2.30 p.m. — League leaders Mogeely will be anxious to take both points here. Araglen are finding the going tough and it's hard to see them stopping this high flying East Cork side.

Grange v. Ballyduff, kick-off 11.30 — Ballyduff had a big win on Sunday last and should continue against Grange. Ballyduff have a very strong side this season and could go all the way and finish as league champions.

Ardmore v. Pinewood Rangers, kick-off 11.30 — The homeside should grab both points here against a struggling Rangers side finding the going tough. Ardmore are never easy to beat at home and anything other than a victory for them would be a shock.

U-18 FIXTURES

Saturday, November 30 — Youghal v. Bride View United, kick-off 11.30 a.m.; Ardmore v. Railway Athletic, kick-off 2.30 p.m.

NON-STOP DRAW

Our Non-Stop Draw started last week and will continue for twenty weeks.

PLAYER PROFILE

Timmy Fitzgerald — Tim has been playing with us for the past five years. He is an out and out club man who always gives 100%. He is always at training and was the Under-14 captain last season.

ABBEYSIDE SCHOOLBOYS NOTES

DE LA SALLE 2 ABBEYSIDE 4

After a long lay off the side came out a little bit rusty, but eager for this game.

In the first half chances went abegging at both ends. In the second half Abbeyside piled on the pressure, but it was De La Salle who scored two quick goals. Abbeyside got back into the game when Michael Hickey scored a great goal. Derek Kenneally added the second from the penalty spot and further goals from Conor Curran and a beauty from Kieran Curran from 25 yards, had us safe.

This was a much below par performance from our side, but we still managed to steal both points.

Derek Hayes had an outstanding game and he got good support from T. Walsh, D. Kenneally, C. Curran, K. Curran and M. Kelleher.

Man of the Match — Derek Hayes.

United's Teens Win At Last

On Saturday last Dungarvan United's under 15s team played Bohemians and after a hard fought game the Blues came out on top in a 5 goal thriller.

Dungarvan scored first when a Mark Hyslop corner was headed home by A. Landers but Bohs levelled and then went one up at half time.

In the second half the Blues upped their game and levelled with an M. Hyslop free. Then the Blues scored when B. Cliff let the ball roll on to his right foot and blasted the ball past the stranded Bohs keeper.

Bohs tried hard but Dungarvan held on for a great win. A good display by all, but J. Foley, M. Hyslop, B. Cliff and A. Landers were outstanding.

Dungarvan — L. Hurney, P. Coles, E. Simms, J. Sheehan, C. Walsh, A. Landers, M. Hyslop, D. Foley, R. Power, B. Cliff, J. Foley. Res. — T. Butler for C. Walsh, M. Coles, J. Cooney.

400 DRAW

The fourth draw in our 400 confined members draw takes place on Sunday night next, December 1 in the Clubhouse at 9 p.m. sharp. Promoters are requested to have cards and money in on Thursday night between 8.30 p.m. and 10 p.m., so as to give our organising committee every opportunity to have everything in order for the draw.

With a prize fund of £1,000 on offer, we could be helping you with your Christmas expenses, all for the modest sum of £5 per month.

GET WELL

Everyone in the club sends best wishes for a speedy recovery to Mrs. May Donnelly, Byrneville, who is in hospital at present. May is a great supporter of our clubs fund raising activities and we hope to see you back at the Pongo very soon May.

Best wishes also to club referee Brian Wall, who is on the injury list at the moment.

OLD FOLKS

On Sunday night next our Old Folks Committee will also be holding their annual Christmas Draw. All monies from this draw go to help the poor and old of the town at Christmas and you can get cards for this draw from Helen O'Sullivan and Nora Walsh. Prizes for the draw (32 in all) are sponsored by clubs and groups in the area, and for 10p per line you will be supporting a very worthy cause.

Speaking of old folks, the social event of the year takes place on next Wednesday night, December 4, when we will be holding our Annual Christmas Party for the senior citizens of the town in Kilrush Park.

Ballinroad Gain First Win Of Season

Ballinroad 4, Tramore Rangers 1

A brilliant team performance by the homesters gave visitors Tramore Rangers no chance of taking anything from this league game played in St. Laurence's Park on Saturday last.

This team has made a very poor start to the season but if they continue to play football as in Saturday's game they will surely climb to a respectable position in the near future.

Four well taken goals were the order of the day so now we can look to the future with some confidence. Ballinroad scorers were Pat Flynn (2), Dermot Dee and Paul Tobin.

Ballinroad — Reynolds, O'Connor, Boland, Power, McGovern, B. Burke, Dee, R. Burke, Tobin, Flynn, Byrne. Res. Power and O'Grady.

FIXTURES

CASEY CUP FINAL

Abbeyside Bridge 27 Year Gap

ABBEYSIDE 2 SEAVIEW CELTIC 1

On what can only be described as a horrendous morning Abbeyside displayed great courage to annex the Casey Cup for the 1st time since 1964 despite having to play a large part of the match with only 10 men due to a very harsh refereeing decision.

On a heavy pitch Abbeyside immediately set about their opponents with great gusto and D. Mulvihill was most unlucky when a blistering shot shaved the crossbar. Jim Kiely was playing a captains role and Abbeyside so dominated that keeper Kevin Tobin was reduced to the role of spectator. For all their pressure, Abbeyside failed to score and when Gerome Kiely was summoned by the referee for an innocuous foul everyone present were incredulous at his decision to dispatch the same player to the line. Stung at this Abbeyside continued to dominate with Mark McCarthy continuing to make some fine runs up the wing. However no breakthrough materialised, which left the half time score 0-0.

The second half took up just as the first ended and with Woods, Lyons and Reynolds resolute at the back Abbeyside would surely make the breakthrough. Ferncombe shot just wide and Seaview cleared their lines after an almighty scramble on the goal-line. The huge crowd were at fever pitch, excited by the keenness of the exchanges and only a super save by K. Tobin kept out the Seaview attack.

This was only a temporary respite for Seaview as Abbeyside's 10 men took up the initiative and it was no surprise when with 15 minutes to go they took the lead. A short corner by Ml. Cosgrave was played to Joe O'Riordan who whipped the ball across and D. Mulvihill was on hand to crash the ball into the Seaview net.

The lead was to last only 10 minutes when Seaview, rather fortuitously, pulled a goal out of nowhere when their centre forward drove home after a cruel deflection off an Abbeyside attacker.

Extra time came and Abbeyside introduced Austin O'Connor for the exhausted Jim Kiely and it was his head which clinched victory. Joe O'Riordan sent in a swinging cross and O'Connor was on hand to head home to seal the match.

There were great scenes of jubilation at the final whistle as the Abbeyside fans were obviously delighted to regain this prestigious trophy.

Team — K. Tobin, M. McCarthy, S. Woods, M.

Reynolds, M. Lyons, J. T. Kiely (capt.), Jerome Kiely, Joe O'Riordan, M. Cosgrave, Ml. Ferncombe, D. Mulvihill. Subs. — F. McGovern for J. T. Kiely; A. O'Connor for M. Lyons; T. Cahill, P. Jordan.

ABBEYSIDE A.F.C. NON-STOP DRAW

The following are the results of the Finance Committee's Non-Stop Draw.

November 16 — £100 Pat Maher; £50 Billy Fitzgerald, c/o Village Inn; £25

John Hourigan; £10 Brendan Crotty; £10 Tony Colbert; £10 Mattie Power; £10 Francis Barry; £10 Anthony Beresford.

November 23 — £100 Michael Roche, "Carpets, Dungarvan"; £50 Brian O'Connor; £25 Kay O'Mahony, Fenian Place; £10 Noel Fitzgerald, "The Pike"; £10 Susan Ferncombe, Caseyville; £10 Maurice Walsh, McCarthyville; £10 Francis Hyslop, McCarthyville; £10 Martin Kirwan, Dawn Meats.

DUNGARVAN UNITED DIVISION 1B

Dungarvan Bounce Back

BOHEMIANS 1 DUNGARVAN UNITED 3

Dungarvan made a return journey to Wadding Park on Sunday morning last, this time to resume their league campaign and after their last visit here, they had a lot to prove to themselves and their critics. The day was more suitable for duck hunting rather than soccer and the playing surface, which is bad enough at the best of times, was in a terrible condition.

Dungarvan came to grips with the monsoon type (torrential rain and a hurricane type wind) conditions quickly and in the 4th minute almost got the breakthrough. Billy Sheehan found David Crotty with a short corner and he in turn crossed to Liam Foley who just headed wide. United went one up in the 14th minute when Pat Tutty's long clearance put the Bohs defender under pressure and his attempted back-pass found Alan Sheehan and he coolly placed the ball past the despairing keeper.

Dungarvan were on top now and were rampant and it was no surprise when Willie Coward headed home a great goal in the 17th minute to give the visitors a 2 goal cushion. Dungarvan should have had the game sewn up before half time as Liam Foley was denied on several occasion by bad luck and some great goal-keeping.

Bohs, to their credit, rocked Dungarvan for a moment when Gerry Connors lost the ball and the Bohs attacker punished United, to make the score 2-1 and Bohs were right back in the game.

The second half continued as the first half ended with Dungarvan controlling the game and it was justice when Liam Foley killed off the Bohs challenge in the 65th minute with a near post header from a Gerry Connors free-kick.

This was a fine team performance by Dungarvan and every player did justice to themselves on this occasion. The commitment and determination shown by the team was a credit to themselves and the management team and if they can keep this level of performance it augurs well for the rest of the season.

The return of Liam "Des" Foley to United is a most welcome addition and he was a revelation up front with Alan Sheehan. Welcome back Des.

Team — Alan Landers, Gary Burke, Willie Coward, Kieran Foley, Pat Tutty, David Crotty, George Hamilton, Billy Sheehan, Liam Foley, Alan Sheehan, Gerry Connors. Res. — John Donnelly, Mickey Hickey.

MINNIES DESTROY FAVOURITES!

On Wednesday night last, November 20, a very depleted men's Country League team travelled to Fermoy to take on the current group leaders and group favourites, where I am delighted to report a very convincing triumph for our very young line up. For this week's trip all three subs were called upon and all three came up trumps.

To put the result in perspective Fermoy beat us at Minnies in the opening round, so to go to their place depleted and chalk-up four wins says a lot for the chaps courage and commitment.

At number five Bobby Lyons returned to the team and gave them a great start with a brave 3-2 win. At four Dave Touhy was in commanding form as he won 3-0. At three there is just no stopping John O'Donoghue, he kept up his 100% record with another brilliant 3-0 win. At two the youngest on the team Paul O'Brien played well but narrowly went down 1-3 and at one it was "captain courageous" stuff from Dan McCarthy as he battled throughout to earn a super 3-2 win. So the final score was Fermoy 7 points, Minnies 13 points.

This Wednesday, November 27 the lads are at home to Tallow for their second last qualifying game, so if you are around come along and support them for their final home fixture. (Thanks to Bobby for providing the scores.)

LONGEST COMPETITIVE PLAYER IN MUNSTER RETIRES!

It is with great sadness that, in this week's notes, we report the retirement from squash of Tommy Butler, who, after medical advice, has been forced to call it a day.

For the record Tommy has been playing squash competitively for thirty years, which we believe is a record for a Munster player. He was Munster number one for eight years. In 1968 he was crowned the All-Ireland Army champion while the following year he won the prestigious Cork Open title. Tommy holds the proud record of being a member of the winning teams in Novice, Div. 4, 3, 2 and 1 in the Cork Leagues. In recent years Tommy was a member of the team that won the Cork Veterans in '89/90 and were runners-up the following year. Last season playing at number two on Pat Phelan's team, he was a member of the victorious Maurice Fleming Memorial team, a huge tournament held in Waterford with 30 teams taking part.

Of course Tommy is the current veteran's champion (individual) of Munster, a title he won in Killarney last season.

Minnies were lucky to have Tommy as a member for the last five years and what a great clubman he was. We were fortunate and proud to have him as our President last season and what a fine job he did. Tommy was one of the main driving forces behind the Dungarvan Closed of which I know he feels proud — he always felt that while rivalry was great it was a shame that the top players from each club never really got a competitive chance to play each other, so through this tournament the champion of Dungarvan could be found, though he felt a small bit disappointed that everyone playing squash from top to bottom didn't enter, pointing out that had they entered, sections would have been made to accommodate all.

Tommy was also one of the main forces behind the Pat Cullinane Memorial Trophy — this trophy was set up to honour the memory of our former President, Pat Cullinane R.I.P. — it was between the Glass and Minnies with the top ten men and women from each club competing against each other with a point per set awarded. Minnies won this competition last season in its inaugural year.

On Minnies Tommy said it was a great club with four courts, it's a lucky club with all its competitions, and with its current youth coaching policy it has a bright future.

For any up and coming players Tommy offers this advice: "what ever effort you put in, what ever target you set yourself, you can achieve just that — the more effort you put in the greater the player you can expect to be."

On behalf of the club and myself I would like to thank Tommy for all his work put in during his years at Minnies and wish him a happy retirement from squash. Tommy will be greatly missed from the committee and as club captain. Thanks Tommy.

LADDER EXTENDED

The Allrounder Sports Ladder has been extended for entries until Friday, December 6 at 8 p.m. This was decided in an effort to give more time for people to enter. I know there are a share of comeback players, so come on lads, stick in your names and get stuck in — I won't mention names and blow your cover. Don't forget this year's ladder is a mixed one with groups of five or six formed and grouped in accordance to standards. It's the quickest way, especially for beginners, to find four and five new opponents straight away.

JUNIORS

I've been asked to remind all the junior members that the Sunday coaching with Owen O'Mahoney from 12 to 1.30 p.m. begins this Sunday, December 1. It was great to see last Thursday, November 21, the courts buzzing with excitement as the juniors had a mini tournament going. Some of the young stars spotted playing well were Ian Power, Kenneth Power, Paul Veale, Eamonn Cashin, Brian Byrne, Michael Breen, Michael Leahy, Stephen McNamara and Killian Lyons. Keep up the good work lads and hopefully between this bunch and our established youths like John O'Donoghue, Bobby Lyons, Paul O'Brien and Pat O'Brien we can find another Michael O'Mahoney or Tommy Butler.

BRIEFLY

Our next Tournament,

The Bank of Ireland team event, is due to commence next Tuesday, November 3, so hopefully we will have news of the teams next week. Our racquetball colleagues have a competition closing for entries tonight Wednesday, November 27, so any squashers feeling like a good crack, why not enter. Until next week.

CAMOGIE

EASY WIN FOR KILKENNY

KILKENNY 5-7, WATERFORD 2-1

When the result of this National junior league game came through it occasioned great disappointment throughout the county. Perhaps even of greater concern was the fact that Kilkenny were worth their big winning margin so it's now back to the drawing board for the Decies girls.

The main reason for the defeat was fitness, or the lack of it, from a Waterford point of view.

The game itself was most interesting right through, that is until the last ten minutes when an injury to full back Linda Bennett, coupled with sheer exhaustion, left the back division completely open and in disarray, leaving Kilkenny through for the scores which gave them their easy win.

Best for Waterford were Sinead O'Sullivan, Geraldine Kennedy, Niamh McKeehan, Catherine Whitty, Orla Flynn, Elaine Mahony and Kay Brophy. The team — Mary Murphy, Linda Bennett, Geraldine Kennedy, Josie Barry, Sinead O'Sullivan, Fiona Murphy, Niamh McMahan, Catherine Whitty, Elaine Mahony, Orla Flynn, Anne Marie O'Gorman, Kay Brophy, Siobhán Coghlan, Brenda Barry.

Gael Linn Final

Just imagine the sheer annoyance in Waterford circles when the news broke that Munster found it hard to field a team in the Gael Linn junior final played recently. You will remember Waterford could only get one player on the panel, yet apparently the girls considered good enough did not consider it important enough to turn up! Congratulations to Niamh McMahon and Trudy Collins. Trudy actually travelled as a spectator but came on as a sub late in the game.

WELL DONE ARDKEEN

The Ardkeen camogie club celebrated in style last Friday week on the occasion of their 21 years in the game. The President of the Association, Brídín Uí Mhaolagáin, was guest, as were Munster officers and of course our own county chairperson Mrs. Marie Pollard and husband Eamonn.

Well done, Ardkeen — I wonder what fortune the next 21 years will bring the club?

Park Hotel Sports Star Of The Month

Pierce Flynn presenting the Park Hotel Sports Star of the Month for October to Michael Ryan. Also included are Ann Dunford, member of the victorious Waterford ladies football team, Catherine Ryan, and Fr. Pat Moran, O.S.A., Chairman of the Adjudicating Panel.

The Park Hotel Sports Star of the Month for October goes to Michael Ryan, coach to three Waterford ladies All-Ireland winning sides.

On Oct. 13 the Waterford senior ladies football team convincingly beat Laois in the All-Ireland final, taking home for the first time the Brendan Martin Cup and Waterford's first senior trophy in 32 years.

During September Michael also coached the Waterford U-16 and U-18 ladies teams to All-Ireland success and in early December leads his Ballymacarbry Club team into the All-Ireland Club final.

Waterford Schools Golf Competition At Lismore

The annual golf competition for Secondary Schools in Waterford City and County was held at Lismore Golf Club on Thursday, November 14. The weather was perfect for the event and the course was in excellent condition for the time of year.

Ten teams participated and the results were as follows: County champions and winners of the Tom Healy Shield for 1991 — Best Gross team — 1, De La Salle "A" — J. Dowling, S. Costello, S. Cummins and E. Murphy; 2, Tramore "A" — A. Thomas, G. Goodwin, C. Butler and D. Gyves.

Best Individual (Gross) — Eoin Murphy (70), De La Salle; runner-up do. — Alan Thomas (75), Tramore; Best Individual (Nett) — Trevor Hough (18) 62, Tramore; runner-up do. — Thomas Melody (16) 63, St. Augustine's, Dungarvan. After a lovely meal and prizegiving ceremony special thanks were extended to Lismore Golf Club, John O'Flynn (CBS, Lismore) the organiser for this year and to Mr. and Mrs. Pat Norris and Mrs. Connie Dowd who so kindly did the catering. The venue for next year will be Waterford Golf Club on a proposal by Mr. Dick Dowling, De La Salle.

Waterford Hurler Receives Award In Consistency Ratings Competition

Waterford hurler Billy O'Sullivan, Ballygunner, has been presented with his award for being chosen among the 20 most consistent hurlers in the inaugural 1991 Cork and Limerick Savings Bank/Gaelic World Consistency Ratings Awards scheme. Top place went to Tipperary's Pat Fox.

The Consistency Ratings, sponsored by Cork and Limerick Savings Bank in conjunction with Gaelic World magazine, are based on a player's month-by-month performance and feature the twenty most consistent players in each code, regardless of their playing position.

Dungarvan Hockey Notes

MINOR "A" Dungarvan 1, Harlequins 0

Dungarvan Minor "A" hockey team beat Harlequins in Cork on Sunday last. This was the team's sixth match and so far there has not been one goal scored against the team this year, which proves that they must be doing something right.

Although it was not the team's best performance there was some good hockey displayed. Dominating most of the match, Dungarvan had many chances to score, winning for themselves at least three short corners in the first half. Unfortunately the goals just did not materialise.

A better performance in the second half saw the midfield on the attack, enabling Anne Sweeney to push through the Harlequin defensive line and score the desired goal just fifteen minutes before the end of the game.

Harlequins made a desperate bid to retrieve an even score but it was too late and Dungarvan went home with a win.

Player of the match was Rosín Foley.

Team members — Rosín Foley, Mary Ronayne, Anne Sweeney, Tess Reynolds, Avicé Kiely, Martina Moore (Capt.), Angela Cashin, Siobhán Kelly, Clare Morrissey, Karen Dempsey, Imelda Killigrew.

MINOR "B"

Dungarvan 0, U.C.C. 3

Dungarvan Minor B's team played their first cup match of the season against UCC in Cork. From the start Dungarvan's immaturity was against them but as a team they performed exceptionally well. However, they were no match for UCC's well organised forward line which meant the defence were under pressure for most of the match. Dungarvan's goalkeeper, Imelda Killigrew, played extremely well under the UCC pressure and Catherine Brennan had a fast and well organised game.

Although the Minor B's were disappointed with the outcome of the match, they were reported to be seen in a pub (name withheld to protect the innocent) not far from Dungarvan. An eyewitness states that losing the game was the furthest thing on their minds.

Player of the match was Anne Bones.

Causeway Tennis Notes

At the recent annual general meeting, the 1990/91 committee finished their term of office and a new committee was elected. The outgoing committee are to be thanked for their hard work and commitment to the club over the past year. Anne Higgins handed over the office of President to Liam Crotty and the other new committee members are: Secretary, John O'Brien; Treasurer, John Moran; PRO, Marie O'Brien; Senior Captain, Jenny McGrath; Junior Captain, Carina O'Sullivan, with assistant Jenny Cashin; Fás Officer, Bernie O'Connor; Supervision Officer, Donal McGovern. Let's wish the new committee well for the year ahead.

On Wednesday night week last the Causeway played Aghada in a friendly. The Causeway team consisted of some new and some old faces and on the night, which was ideal for playing, the result at the end was a draw. The Causeway team was: M. Cusack/G. Cusack, B. Sheridan/V. Mullins, T. M. Keane/M. Collins, J. Fennell/A. Kiely, P. Veale/C. Carthy, R. Moore/T. Moloney.

The Winter Ladder is up and running at this stage and some great games can be seen under the floodlights. On a less energetic note the Christmas Party will be on Saturday, December 14. For details contact the committee or watch the clubhouse noticeboard. The night will be preceded by a fun for all turkey tennis competition, same day. So don't be square — be there. Keep your eyes on this space for further news.

LATE JACK VEALE

The club was profoundly shocked to learn of the sudden and unexpected death of Jack Veale. Jack was Mr. Causeway, he was with us from the start, a great worker and a friend to all, young and old. Jack shared in the joys of our victories and commiserated with us in defeat. Always there in winter and summer, The Causeway Tennis Club without Jack Veale is unimaginable.

To his wife Kit, his brothers and sisters go our thoughts and our prayers. To Jack, though you are gone, you will never be forgotten. — PRO.

CLONEA BOWLING NOTES

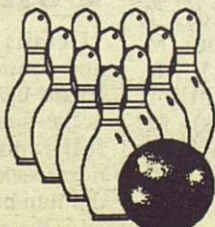

LADDER

A tournament was held last Wednesday night. There was a good entry with nearly everyone from the ladder showing up. A handicap system was used again. John Dunford won narrowly from Pierce Moloney and indeed there were many close games that night.

There will be another one night tournament coming up shortly.

LADDER STANDINGS

1, Ivor Gordon (39); 2, Tom Rowe (53); 3, Pat Cummins (61); 4, Patsy Horsom; 5, Liam Clancy (60); 6, John Foley (54); 7, Noel Stakelum (52); 8, John Dunford (51); 9, Nicky Butler (38); 10, Benny Kiely (37); 11, Tony Power (36); 12, Pat Curran (37); 13, Michael Cooney (57); 14, Bryan Keohan (60); 15, Danny Barry (20); 16, Pierce Moloney (47); 17, Noel Hackett (53); 18, Vinny Tutty (44); 19, Anthony Cooney (51).

Highest score over the last two weeks was 639. Well done, Bryan Keohan!

JUNIOR BOWL

The handicap tournament on Sunday mornings continues to attract great interest with many bowlers coming out during the week to practice. Remember that coaching will be given during the week also, so please ask. David Crotty was this week's winner with Stephen Stacey in second place, just 5 points behind. Monique Hogan was best of the girls with Trudi Walsh in second place.

Results: Alleygators — 1, David Crotty (239); 2, Stephen Stacey (234); 3, Damien Wall (222); 4, Joseph Walsh (216); 5, Simon Keane (208); 6, Michael Morrissey (206); 7, David Quirke (203); 8, Robin Keane (200); 9, Shane Hogan (196); 10, J. R. Hickey (183); 11, Ciarán Hickey (169).

Alleycats — 1, Monique Hogan (256); 2, Trudi Walsh (243).

Cushions — 1, Aisling Fraher (121); 2, Margaret Phelan (115); 3, Emma Tobin (113); 4, Lauren Tobin (100); 5, Kylie Tobin (98).

See you all next Sunday, 10.30 to 12 noon.

Dungarvan Crystal Social & Sports Club

The sheet is now posted for entries for our individual tournament. Judging from the number of entries to date it is hoped to have at least 4 sections to this tournament. This year we are inviting non-members to play in our tournaments and I am sure this will provide greater competition at all grades.

As we go to press there is still no news of the "on court activities" of our representatives at the Killarney Open squash event. This event has always proved to be a happy hunting ground, both on and off the courts, for our team in the past, so no doubt we will have some tales to tell from our "Pub Spy" next week.

This week we were sorry to hear from our friends at Minnies of the enforced retirement through injury of one of their top players, Tommy Butler. Tommy proved to be a great ambassador for the sport and for his club both on and off courts and all at the Crystal were grateful for his help in the past in the running of our Open Weekends. Perhaps now Tommy can devote more time to his second love, running, (sorry Joan). Who knows this could be the start of a whole new career, albeit in the veteran section!

On the subject of running why not join our Road Runners Club now starting this Friday, November 29 and every Monday and Friday for the next 16 weeks under the expert eye of Finbarr Kelly. We will be leaving the centre at 8 p.m. So why not come along and join in on what we hope will be a light-hearted approach to the sport.

Our newly elected executive committee are certainly not wasting any time in bringing forward change with-in the club. At present plans are being prepared for a complete redesigning of the upstairs area. We await their plans with interest.

More next week — The Doyler.

We would like to congratulate Michael Ryan, coach to the Waterford ladies teams, who received his "Sports Star of the Month" award recently.

JUVENILE NOTES

A large attendance was expected at last night's presentation of medals to the U-12 hurlers and footballers. This function was being held in Lawlor's Hotel and next week we will have further comments to make.

Next Tuesday night, of course, is Annual General Meeting time for the Juvenile Club and it takes place in Lawlor's Hotel at 8 p.m. Outgoing secretary, Pa Meehan, will report on what was a very successful year for the club. He will, as always, appeal for "new blood" in the club, so if you're interested in helping out with our young players, come along — you're most welcome.

CONGRATULATIONS
Congratulations to Angela

and John O'Riordan on the birth of their twins, a boy and girl. Also to John and Ann Butler on their happy event, a baby daughter.

GET WELL

The club extends its good wishes to popular sporting figure Liam "Jimmy Barry" Curtin, who has been "out of bounds" recently. We all look forward to seeing Liam out and about again soon.

SYMPATHY

The club extends its sincere sympathy to club committee members, Joanne Daly on the death of her aunt, Mary Ryan and to John Fennell on the death of his cousin, Ml. Dunford. Also to Mrs. Kit Veale on the death of her husband, Jack Veale. Ar dheis De go raibh a anamacha.

BINGO

Next Friday night is "Super Bingo" night in the Friary Hall. Prize money will be close on £1,200 with £600 on jackpot game.

P.S. — Because of the Friary sale of work we've had to bring forward our bingo by one week. Sorry for any inconvenience.

St. Laurence's Tennis Club Notes

NEW COMMITTEE

The following is a list of committee members for the new tennis season — Chairman, Michael Drummy; Secretary, Cora Kirwan; Treasurer, Hilary Browne. Committee members: Seán de Paor with Ann Henneby offering her services for the summer season.

I'm sure I speak for all our members when I wish the incoming committee the best of luck for the season ahead. We all hope it will be another "smashing year." Well done to the outgoing committee who did a splendid job last year.

TURKEY

TOURNAMENT

Our annual Christmas Turkey tournament will take place this year on Sunday, December 22. The tournament will be an open "fixed" draw and will consist of mixed doubles combinations. Format of play will depend on number of entries. Play will commence at 11.30 a.m. So, if you're going out the night before, take it easy on the demon alcohol!

Mulled wine, mince pies and sandwiches will be served during the day to add an air of festivity to the event. Entry fee for this not to be missed tournament will only be £2 and this gives you a great chance of putting some meat on the table for the Christmas dinner or else winning one of our many spot prizes during the day.

So come along to St. Laurence's on Sunday, December 22 — it's the place to be. All those interested in playing just write your name on the club noticeboard or notify any committee member.

MUNSTER TEAM WINTER LEAGUE

This year St. Laurence's have entered a team in division two of the Munster team league and the first match kicks off on Sunday, December 8 when the team will travel to Fountainstown in a bid to get off to a good start in this competition before the Christmas break. They then play St. Michaels in Ballinroad on Sunday, December 15. Anybody interested in playing in this team should notify any committee member as soon as possible.

CLUB TEAM WINTER LEAGUE

It is hoped to commence our club mixed doubles team winter league on Sunday, January 12.

"SURPRISING BUT WONDERFUL" NEWS

During our lives we've all had some pretty surprising news at one time or another, but the members of St. Laurence's got wind of some extremely unexpected news some weeks ago when it became known that Owen Carroll (yes, I did say Owen Carroll) had popped the question to Gillian Jeffrey. Well done, Owen, we all knew you had it in you boy! All the members wish both Owen and Gillian every congratulations on their recent engagement.

SINCERE SYMPATHY

It is with deepest regret that the committee and members of St. Laurence's Tennis club would like to extend their sincere sympathies to the family and friends of Mr. Jack Veale, Mitchel Street, Dungarvan, who died recently. It came as a great shock to us all and I know that Jack will be very sorely missed by everyone involved in tennis circles, especially the Causeway Tennis Club, for whom Jack had done trojan work over the years. May he rest in peace.

More Financial Shocks As Board Fail To Settle McGrath Issue

No decision has as yet been reached about the future of Joe McGrath as the Waterford senior hurling coach. A special meeting of the G.A.A. County Board on Monday night at Lawlors Hotel, Dungarvan, discussed the problem but after 2 hours no final decision was taken, and another meeting will now be held within the next few weeks to try and resolve the issue.

However there were a few more financial shocks when it was announced to the meeting by County Treasurer Gary Cunningham that the Revenue Commissioners were now pursuing the County Board for payments relating directly to Joe McGrath's appointment as coach over a year ago.

The Treasurer told the meeting on Monday night that the cost of preparing the county senior hurling team in 1991 topped £61,300 and of that amount payments totalling £18,500 had been made to McGrath. They now, he said, had received a bill from the Revenue Commissioners (figure not disclosed), in relation to his appointment.

The meeting was presided over at the outset by Frankie Cullinane who had been acting County Chairman until Thursday last when Eamon Murphy was reinstated as Chairman of the County Board following his successful High Court appeal (see report elsewhere).

Cullinane informed the delegates of the full details of a recent meeting between the county executive and 19 members of the county senior hurling panel. The acting chairman said there had been renewed calls by some of the players for the resignations of all the outgoing selectors, including Joe McGrath. They were also, he said, very critical of the way the whole management team had operated during the year.

It was at this stage that Eamon Murphy took over again as Chairman for the first time in six months.

PREPARED TO ACT AGAIN

Senan Cooke, Dunhill and Danny Murphy, Roanmore, two of the selectors who had been re-appointed at the previous meeting of the Board despite calls for their resignation from the players signified that they were prepared to act again in the coming year as they were heartened by the unanimous support of the Board delegates.

The question of Joe McGrath however showed that the Board was divided. Seamus O'Brien, Central Council Delegate proposed that McGrath not be appointed. He said that many of the players did not want Joe McGrath, they were dissatisfied with him and their views should be taken into consideration. Mr. O'Brien said — "I do not say this with bitterness but with the best interests of the G.A.A. and the players at heart."

P. J. Ryan, Fourmilewater,

proposed that they reappoint McGrath. In doing so he said that money should not be a factor.

Michael Brophy, St. Saviours, thought that in the interest of unity they should forget about Joe McGrath. "Rather than voting Joe McGrath down here tonight, let's appoint someone else as coach," he said.

REFUSED

The Lismore Club had earlier refused a County Board request to nominate a third selector in addition to Senan Cooke and Danny Murphy until all the present difficulties had been resolved.

Following a renewed request from the Board however Bro. Dormer, Lismore Secretary, intimated that they would do so by next week-end.

Munster Council Delegate Greg Fives then proposed a compromise that they defer the appointment of a coach and any additional selectors until Cooke, Murphy and the Lismore nominee meet to consider making recommendations on the matter to the Board. This was passed by 30 votes to 22.

MUNSTER COLLEGES HURLING

Dungarvan Bow Out

Cashel CBS 0-13, Dungarvan CBS 0-8

Dungarvan CBS were knocked out at the quarter final stage of the Corn Phádraig Colleges under-18 hurling by Cashel CBS at Clogheen last Wednesday. Dungarvan started well and dominated the first ten minutes but failed to register any score. Cashel had the first score of the game in the tenth minute and both sides proceeded to exchange points during a keenly fought first half, to leave the half time score: 0-6 to 0-6.

Dungarvan CBS again dominated the early stages of the second half, missing some easy chances. Cashel CBS weathered the Dungarvan pressure and snatched 2 points to lead 0-8 to 0-6 by the 45th minute. Dungarvan fought back with points from Niall Considine and John P. Fitzpatrick to leave the scores level 0-8 to 0-8 with ten minutes remaining.

Though Cashel scored five points without reply in the closing stages to give them a hard earned victory, Dungarvan will look back at the many chances they missed during the game.

Best for Dungarvan were John Joe Ronayne, Raymond Ryan, Tom Morrissey, Paudie Flynn, Thomas Kiely, John P. Fitzpatrick and Ciaran Curran.

Dungarvan scorers were J. P. Fitzpatrick 0-6 (0-4 frees), C. Curran 0-1, N. Considine 0-1.

Dungarvan CBS — J. J. Ronayne (Dungarvan), R. Ryan (Naomh Bríd), T. Morrissey (Dungarvan), M. McLoughlin (do.), R. Finnegan (Gaeltacht), P. Flynn (St. Patricks), M. Hurley (Dungarvan), T. Kiely (St. Patricks), L. Boyle (Naomh Bríd), D. Ryan (Abbeyside), J. P.

Fitzpatrick (Naomh Bríd), N. Considine (Dungarvan), M. Enright (Abbeyside), P. Veale (do.), C. Curran (Dungarvan).

Subs — D. Moore (Abbeyside) for M. Enright, A. Walsh (St. Patricks) for D. Ryan.

County Under-21 Hurling Trial

A County Under-21 Hurling Trial will be held at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan on Sunday, December 8 at 2 p.m. A list of players to attend will appear in next week's issue.

County Convention

Details of nominations and motions were not released by the County Board at the time of writing, but a full report will be given next week. I understand that the number of motions listed is the smallest on record.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Comedy Of Errors As Waterford Take First League Points

WATERFORD 0-4 KILKENNY 0-3

A gale force wind, torrential rain and heavy underfoot conditions turned this national football league game at Mooncoin on Sunday last into a comedy of errors.

Neither side scored against the wind and the rain turned the pitch into such a quagmire that players kept slipping and falling throughout the hour.

Neither side could produce any kind of cohesive football and the few who braved the elements were left wondering how the sides fulfilled the fixture at all.

Waterford fielded an understrength side but with Eddie Rockett, Dan Casey, Liam Daniels and Michael McGrath mastering the conditions better than anyone else the visitors were fully deserving winners of their first league points.

They had the hurricane behind them in the first half during which they scored their four points total. The wind played such havoc with the ball that they shot 14 wides and were in no way flattered by their half time lead margin.

Waterford dominated so much in this half that Kilkenny failed to get the ball over their end line once during the thirty minutes. The home side, however, made a strong bid for the points in the second half but failed to overhaul the leaders as they trailed by a single point at the finish.

Scorers — Waterford — M. McGrath 0-2; I. Kiely and P. Ferncombe 0-1 each.

Kilkenny — M. Phelan 0-2; J. McDonald 0-1.

Waterford — T. Brennan; E. Rockett, G. Power, F. O'Brien; D. Callaghan, D. Casey, I. Kiely; L. Dalton, L. Daniels; P. Ferncombe, M. Power, J. Byrne; J. Power, M. McGrath, T. Corcoran. Sub. — P. Curran for Byrne.

Kilkenny — M. Walsh; E. Delahunty, P. J. O'Connor, F. Brennan; D. Comerford, J. Murphy, M. O'Shea; B. Maguire, T. Fogarty; D. Mullan, M. Phelan, E. O'Connor; L. Buggy, J. McDonald, B. Smith. Sub. — P. Browne for Buggy.

Referee — N. Cooney (Offaly).

Abbeyside/Ballinacourty G.A.A. Notes

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Another successful year was reviewed on Thursday evening last, November 21, when a large attendance was present at the A.G.M. in Abbeyside N.S. Hall.

Chairman Pat Moore expressed the clubs immense satisfaction in the capturing of two county and three divisional titles during 1991 and in his chairman's address called for a co-ordinated approach by every member in 1992 to continue the excellent progress achieved to-date.

Secretary Bernard Shields put forward a very comprehensive report which dealt thoroughly with every aspect of the club's activities. In his report Bernard praised the local schools while together with several speakers it was felt the solid work at both primary and secondary school level augured well for the future, a fact the club is very appreciative of.

The enormous task of financing the club, was emphasised by Treasurer Tommy Treacy who revealed through various accounts together with our fundraising details that it took over £23,000 to run the club during 1991.

Election of Officers:— Presidents — Mr. P. Cashin, Mr. Paddy Kiely, Mr. Johnny Byrne, Mrs. Lennon; Vice-Presidents — Fr. C. Fives, O.S.A., Fr. Ahearne, C.C., Fr. Ml. Brennock, O.S.A., Mrs. Cashin; Chairman — Pat Moore; Vice-Chairman — Ned Keane; Secretary — Bernard Shields; Asst. Secretary — Seamus O'Brien; Treasurer — Tommy Treacy; Asst. Treasurer — Matthew Hogan. Committee — Frank Sweeney, Joe Cleary, Pat McGovern, Peter Flynn, Tony Mansfield, Larry Cliffe, Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald, Greg Fives and Paddy Coyne.

The Ladies Committee will also nominate another two committee members, while one additional member will be co-opted during the year.

Membership — Membership fees for the coming year will remain the same as 1991:

Player and spouse — £12.50; Player — £10; Non-playing — £7.50 & £5; Unemployed — £5; Minor — £2; Juveniles £1.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is extended to Pat Veale and family on the death of Jack Veale.

Sincere sympathy is also extended to the O'Neill family on the death of Augustine "Gusty" O'Neill, Kyne Park, which occurred recently. The deceased had a long association with the club, and was a goalkeeper with Abbeyside during his playing days.

LADIES ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Rarely in the spotlight but always there working behind the scenes is the ladies committee who recently held their A.G.M.

The committee which is always one of the most active in the club meets regularly and is currently working on a special assignment. More news soon!

Election of Officers:— Chairperson — Babs Kiely; Secretary — Deirdre Wade; Treasurer — Theresa Power. Committee — Ursula Beatty, Josephine Coyne, Ann Kelleher, Moll Shields, Delia Leahy.

FROM NIGERIA

Fr. Colin Fives, O.S.A. the club's vice-president sent his congratulations to the minor hurlers and selectors on their success, in a letter all the way from Nigeria — it was very much appreciated.

SCOR NA nOG

The divisional Scor na nOg competition began on Friday evening last and we had 5 acts competing. All five performed superbly with the question time team and the ballad group progressing to the Western final, while we were unlucky in recitation, solo-singing and instrumental music.

The Western finals take place on this Saturday evening in the C.B.S. Hall, Dungarvan and we wish them all the best, while all support would be very welcome.

WEST WATERFORD PRIMARY SCHOOLS LEAGUE

ROINN C FOOTBALL SEMI-FINAL

Ardmore/Grange Through To Final

Ardmore/Grange N.S. 7-6 Touraneena N.S. 4-1

These young players were asked to play their semi-final on a bitterly cold day with a wintry wind blowing down the pitch. It was a pity that these young school-children had to brave the elements to play their game of football, not to mention the hardy parents and supporters.

Ardmore/Grange, playing with the wind at their backs, almost spoiled the match as a contest within 6 minutes of the start as they had 3 goals and 2 points on the scoreboard and Touraneena hadn't succeeded in getting the ball past the middle of the field at this stage.

The first goal resulted from a long high ball which goalkeeper Brendan McDonald saved but could not hold and Adrian O'Donnell tapped in goal number 2 from a free from the hands which went all the way to the net. Point number one was scored directly from a great sideline kick also taken from the hands.

Ardmore/Grange attacked incessantly and notched another 3-1 before half time. The lone Touraneena goal was a lovely effort as a pass from midfielder Alan Hally was flicked to the net by John Ahearn.

Would there be a Touraneena revival with the wind? Ardmore/Grange answered that with 2 points directly after half time and another effort from a 45 hit the left upright and went wide.

Slowly Touraneena began to play a bit and began to use the wind more constructively. A point from a free, a goal from Paul Condon and yet another goal from a high ball all contrived to place a certain degree of respectability on the scoreboard.

However, Ardmore/Grange reasserted themselves before the final whistle and in that time tagged on a further 1-1.

For Touraneena, Adrian Lonergan played very soundly at full back with Alan Hally and John Ahearn showing well on a team that struggled for much of the game.

Ardmore/Grange played very well on this occasion and when one considers the fact that they were short two of their best players they must be considered strong favourites to beat Modeligo in the final.

Touraneena N.S. — Brendan McDonald, Adrian Lonergan, Dermot Land, Aidan Dalton, John Gleeson, Paul Condon, Alan Hally, Richard Power, David Meaney, John Ahearn, Anthony Gleeson.

Referee: Pat Moore.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

HIGH COURT DECISION

The High Court decision in relation to the suspension of Eamon O Murchu, was delivered by Mr. Justice Murphy on Thursday last and as a result Mr. O Murchu has resumed as County Board Chairman.

He officiated at the presentation of the trophy to Sliabh gCua on Sunday after the county final and was in the chair for the meeting of the Board at Dungarvan on Monday night.

The matter of the court decision was considered by the Management Committee on Saturday last when it was decided to await the transcript of Mr. Justice Murphy's ruling before taking any further initiative with regard to the case. The following statement was issued after the meeting on Saturday. "It was noted with satisfaction that the judge commented that there was no reason to say that the G.A.A. were not reasonable and sympathetic and that the plaintiff had been accorded all his entitled rights. It was also noted the judge pointed out that the G.A.A. would be entitled to carry out the investigation again. It was further pointed out that the faults found by the judge related to procedural matters, rather than the basic rules of the association. All units will be communicated with as soon as possible with regard to any procedural changes which are considered necessary."

There the matter rests for the time being.

CO. CHAMPIONS

Congratulations to An Rinn on completing the junior double and to Naomh Bríd (M.F.), Roanmore (U-21 F.), St. Saviours (I.H.), Abbeyside (M.H.) and Sliabh gCua (I.F.) on winning county titles in recent weeks.

CONVENTION DATES

County Adult Board Convention will be held in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan on Saturday, December 14. The West Divisional gathering will be held on Thursday, December 5 at the Park Hotel, Dungarvan. The East Convention will take place in Tramore on Wednesday, December 4.

BORD NA nOG CONVENTIONS

Both Divisional Conventions were held last week. At the Eastern meeting the following officers were elected — Secretary, Martin McNamara, St. Marys; Treasurer, John Laffan, Portlaw; Registrar, Liam Power, Sacred Heart; PRO, Tom Barrett, do.

At the Western Convention elected were — Chairman, Jimmy McGrath, Affane/Cappoquin; Vice-do., Tony Morrissey, St. Olivers; Secretary, Eddie O'Shea, Affane/Cappoquin; Asst. do./PRO, John Kiely, St. Patricks; Treasurer, Jimmy McCarthy, Melleray; Registrar, Seamus O'Brien, Abbeyside/Ballinacourty.

The positions of Chairman and Vice-Chairman in the East will be filled at the first meeting of the Bord.

Bord Na nOg Convention

The annual convention of the Juvenile Board was held at Dungarvan on last night, Tuesday, and a full report will appear next week.

WESTERN CONVENTION

The Western Board's annual convention will take place at the Park Hotel on Tuesday night of next week and while it may not be the sort of high-powered event that had the entire division buzzing when held at Ballyduff last year, it will, nevertheless, be very interesting as far as the election of their executive is concerned.

The chairman, Jimmy O'Gorman, vice-chairman, Ollie Wilkinson, secretary Anthony Walsh and registrar, Seamus O'Brien are all unopposed and there will be no contests here, (and as we had last year.)

Richard Hickey is nominated against the treasurer, James Walsh, who will be completing his first year in office, but it is not known yet if there will be a contest. For assistant secretary, five members have been nominated. John Moore who is the holder of the office will not be standing as already announced, but between Declan Barron, Ardmore, Denis McGrath, Affane/Cappoquin, Nicky O'Donovan, Modeligo and MacDarra Mac Donnagh, An Rinn, we are sure of having a contest.

The real battle, as always, will be for the three positions as County Board Representatives. The three men in office, John Lyons, Tallow, Nicky O'Donovan, Modeligo and Paddy Walsh Colligan/Emmetts, will have to face a contest and those nominated against them are Brendan Tobin, Sliabh gCua, Tom Cunningham, Stradbally, Tomas O Caodhla, An Rinn and Richie Harty, Dungarvan. All three members in office have certainly rendered excellent service, but this is not always taken into consideration in the ballot boxes. The contest here will be very interesting.

Waterford Defeat Kilkenny In Atrocious Conditions

The weather conditions at Mooncoin on Sunday were so bad that very many people in the small crowd believed that referee Noel Cooney, Of-faly, would call off the game having inspected the ground. In the circumstances, this would have been a wise decision as it subsequently turned into a mud-battle and this was very much in evidence when a Waterford ball en route to the Kilkenny net got stuck in the goal mouth mud. This was but one of three splendid scoring chances of goals which was missed by us in the second half in this extraordinary game.

After the game, Kilkenny officials agreed that a draw would have been hard luck on the visitors who were much the better side, even though a number of our regulars were unavailable.

Overall it was very much a mismatch, but we took the points and while these are unlikely to bring us back into contention now, it was good to record a win as defeat by Kilkenny would be demoralising.

The Show Is Over

Last Sunday's final brought down the curtain on another very busy season and while there were many complaints about the weather on Fraher Field's embankment, and the Board not being able to play the game at an earlier date, it must be conceded that with such a huge number of matches to play, the entire programme was got through in reasonable time.

Not all clubs got into the honours list, but every club and every team in the county will have their own special memories of 1991. Like Lismore, for instance who won a great senior hurling county final, having waited for 66 years to achieve this. Ring will remember it as their greatest season on record, they having won the coveted junior hurling and football double. Dungarvan in winning their back-to-back senior football final. Sliabh gCua who won their way back to senior status in football. Abbeyside who made their overdue breakthrough at underage level when winning the minor hurling 'B' championship. Throughout the next few weeks I will be returning to the subject to record the highlights and disappointments of 1991.

National League Money

The gross gate receipts from the Royal Liver National Hurling and Football Leagues for the 1990/91 season amounted to a record £1,208,718. Of this £50,000 went to the players injury fund and £50,000 to the public liability funds.

Rent and expenses amounted to £245,010 and the remainder was divided between the participating counties.

Our share was £27,701, made up of £19,416 for hurling and £8,285 for football. Kilkenny, who won the hurling league received £41,626.

G.A.A. NOTES

Sliabh gCua Battle Back To Take Intermediate Football County Title

SLIABH gCUA 0-6 NEWTOWN 0-5

In atrocious weather conditions at Fraher Field on Sunday last, Western champions, Sliabh gCua staged a second half resurrection to edge out Newtown in a gruelling and very exciting intermediate county football final in some of the worst conditions ever experienced at the Dungarvan venue.

For some time before Jim Landers got the game underway, there were doubts about the final going ahead because of the heavy rain and strong wind that made conditions unpleasant for players and patrons. In the end, and having inspected the ground, the referee decided that the underfoot conditions were not bad enough to call off the game.

Some days earlier the shelter on the sideline which is provided for the substitutes and members of the press, had completely blown away in a storm and this made conditions even more difficult for those of us who were trying to take notes, etc.

It was the opinion of practically everyone at the game, that had conditions been more suitable, this would have been a much different game, but whether or not the outcome would have been different, remains a matter of speculation. In any circumstances, the final would hardly have been more exciting for the fair sized crowd who braved the elements and soaked up the drenching rain until the last whistle was blown seven minutes after normal time. The time added on was necessary because of a long stoppage while the injured Newtown goalkeeper Billy Walsh was being attended to before he was removed on a stretcher to the ambulance with a broken leg.

THE PLAY

movement of the ball throughout the game and at times the problems of the players were compounded by the fact that the wind on a few occasions seemed to change direction. But for the most part it helped Newtown in the first half, but they failed to make full use of this advantage and might have had more than three points on the scoreboard at the break. At this stage Sliabh gCua were still without a score, but they too missed some scoring chances, particularly in the 29th min. when John Hallinan's penalty shot was wide of the post. In the 5th minute Michael Hubbard pointed a Newtown free to open the scoring and the same player was on target with a splendid point in the 12th minute. Eleven minutes later the same player had their third point to finish the scoring for the first half. In the early part of this half, Sliabh gCua, as well as failing from the penalty shot, were denied some great scoring chances, by the brilliance of Newtown's full back, Jim Harney, who gave an outstanding display.

OPENED ACCOUNT

The second half was in to its fourth minute before Sliabh gCua opened their account and this came from a John Hallinan converted free. Paul O'Donnell responded for Newtown with a beauty of a point from an awkward angle in the 10th minute. Sliabh gCua's first score from play came in the 12th minute of this half when their top scorer John Hallinan was again on target and Eamon Lonergan added another to leave the scores, 0-4 to 0-3 in favour of the Eastern champions at the midway stage in this half. Sliabh gCua took over at centre field at this stage and when John Hallinan pointed another free in the 24th minute to leave the sides level for the first time in the game, they looked as if they were going to take their second title in this grade. This opinion was strengthened a minute later when the same player put them in front from a pointed free. Eamon Lonergan put Sliabh gCua two points in front when he pointed in the 26th minute. But Newtown were far from finished and pushed play up field and the gap was reduced to a single point when Michael Hubbard sent over from a well taken free.

This was the final score of the game however and it left Sliabh gCua winners of this very exciting contest by a single point. Very many of those present would have liked to see the game end on level terms and the very courageous players given another chance to prove themselves. Both teams are to be highly complimented on having served up an exciting hour's football in such terrible conditions.

Sliabh gCua were forced to field without John Dalton and Newtown without team captain Thomas Kirwan.

Scorers: — Sliabh gCua — J. Hallinan 0-4, E. Lonergan 0-2. Newtown — M. Hubbard 0-4, P. O'Donnell 0-1.

Waterford To Host All-Ireland And Munster Scor Finals

The Forum, Waterford, has been selected to host the All-Ireland Adult Scor final on Saturday, March 28, 1992. Two weeks earlier the same venue will host the Munster final of Scor Sinnsear. This is indeed a great honour for Waterford to host these two finals for the first time at such an excellent venue as the Forum.

At the recent Munster Scor Convention, Paddy Fitzgerald (Dungarvan) was re-elected Treasurer and Liz Murphy (Dunhill) was elected to the position of P.R.O. Congratulations to both on their election to such important positions.

The dates for Munster Scor 1992 have been announced. Waterford will be taking part in the Scor Na nOg semi-final at Banteer, Co. Cork on Sunday, January 5 at 3 p.m. with the final at Thurles on January 18. In Adult Scor, Tallow will be the venue for a semi-final on Saturday, February 22 at 7 p.m. with the final at the Forum on March 14.

Juvenile Bord Goes From Strength To Strength

Seamus Aylward, Secretary, County Bord Na nOg told the Bord's annual convention in Dungarvan on Tuesday night that 1991 was a year that saw the Bord go from strength to strength as a united body. However, he said, it would be foolish to suggest that they did not have problems during the year, but these, he said, were overcome working together.

The report gave a run down on the championships played under the jurisdiction of the Bord, including the new format adopted for the playing of the various finals. There were some urgent problems, with fixture clashes with other Boards, but with common sense and give and take by everyone involved, their differences were all sorted out.

SPONSORSHIP

Dealing with sponsorship the report said: "Again 1991 saw Waterford Foods come forward with major sponsorship for this Bord. At the request of Eastern Bord Na nOg, Waterford Foods agreed to change the format of their sponsorship and they became the sponsors of all our county finals. 1991 saw all our finals called The Yoplait County Finals. A special thanks to Mr. John Harnedy for this kind gesture and to Waterford Foods who were once again our major sponsors."

INTERCOUNTY TEAMS

They had, the report stated, two teams in the Tony Forristal Tournament, but despite good results, they failed to qualify for the knockout stages. All involved, however, gave great commitment to these teams.

Again there was disappointment for the under-16 hurlers in the Nenagh Co-op Tournament but the report records "while disappointing, it was a well worth exercise."

SCOR NA nOG

A total of 17 clubs took part in the divisional semi-final of Scor Na nOg in the C.B.S. Hall last weekend.

The qualifiers for the divisional final this Saturday night at the C.B.S. Hall, Dungarvan at 7.30 p.m. are as follows:

Rinnce Foirne — Madh Dheilge, Straidbhaile, Naomh Mhuire, Cnoc Melleri.

Aithriseoireacht — Baile Ui Dhuigh, Madh Dheilge, Seana Phobail, Naomh Padraig.

Amhranaiocht Aonair — Baile Ui Dhuigh, Baile Na Sagairt, Cnoc Melleri, Lios Mhor.

Nuachleas — Caislean Cuanach, An Uidhir.

Trath Na gCeist — Sliabh gCua, Dun Na Mainistreach, Naomh Padraig, Naomh Brid.

Ceol Uirlise — Baile Ui Dhuigh, Naomh Oilibneir, Naomh Padraig, Lios Mhor.

Bailead Grupa — Baile Ui Dhuigh, Dun Na Mainistreach, Dungarban, Lios

Mhor.

Rinnce Seit — Sliabh gCua, Baile Na Sagairt, Naomh Mhuire, Naomh Brid.

Two will qualify from each of the above competitions for the County Final at Kill Community Centre on Friday, December 13. The East divisional semi-finals will take place this weekend with the final on December 7.

Sympathy

Our sincere sympathy is extended to the relatives of the late Gusty O'Neill, Kyne Park, Abbeyside, who died last week. A former Abbeyside player, Gusty, who normally played in goal, was a life-long supporter of our games, both club and county, and rarely missed a fixture at Fraher Field, either on Sundays or weekdays. May he rest in peace.

van. "In the circumstances" said Mr. Hurley, "I am very optimistic about 1992 being another year of progress for Dungarvan."

ALLOWANCE FOR CHAIRMAN

When Cllr. Tony Wright referred to the inclusion in the Estimates of a sum of £500 as an allowance to cover "out-of-pocket" expenses incurred by the Council Chairman, the Manager said that this was a notional figure which he had included but it was a matter for the Council to decide on the matter.

Cllr. Wright pointed out that a sum of £6,100 was already included to cover members expenses. "I think this is a damn bad practice to become involved in," he said.

Cllr. Nuala Ryan thought such an allowance was necessary as the Chairman was involved in many more functions than the ordinary members.

When Cllr. Ryan further asked whether the allowance would cover the Vice-Chair and if it would be paid over as a lump sum, the Co. Manager replied that there was no provision in the law for an allowance for Vice-Chairman.

On the proposal of Cllr. R. Walsh seconded by Cllr. Ryan, the Council then approved the inclusion of the £500 as the Chairman's allowance. Cllr. Wright proposed an amendment that the taxpayers be not asked to provide this money as the principle was all wrong but this was not seconded.

DOMESTIC WATER CHARGES

water charges, Cllr. D. Goode proposed and Cllr. Walsh seconded that the £1 a year increase be approved.

Cllr. Wright proposed an amendment that water charges be completely deleted as they represented double taxation and Cllr. P. Power seconded.

Cllr. B. Kyne thought that these charges might be phased out over a number of years rather than in one go.

Cllrs. Walsh, Ryan, Goode and Hallahan (4) voted for the proposal and Cllrs. Wright, Power, Dixon and Kyne (4) voted for the amendment. The Chairman, Cllr. M. O'Riordan did not vote in this but then declared he was giving his casting vote in favour of Cllr. Goode's proposal.

TRAFFIC WARDENS

Cllr. A. Hallahan then referred to the Manager's proposal to continue the employment of two Traffic Wardens and said that the employment of one rather than two could reduce the expenditure but the Co. Manager rejected this stating "I'm not in the business of reducing jobs."

Finally when the Co. Manager agreed to reduce the rate increase from 3.5% to 2.6% which would give a figure of a rate of £28, the Council on the proposal of Cllr. Walsh seconded by Cllr. Ryan agreed by 5 votes to 4 to approve the Estimates as amended which provide for a rate of £28, a domestic water charge of £48 with a 5% increase in metred water supplies.

Kielys Score Double At Tipperary

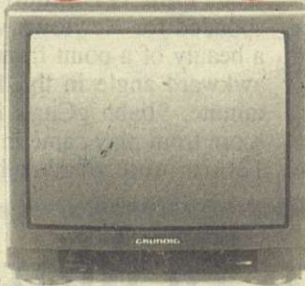

Mrs. Paddy Kiely's "Shuil Ar Aghaidh" (5/4f) trained by her husband and ridden by Charlie Swan got up by 3/4 of a length to win the November Maiden Hurdle of £2,760 at Tipperary on Thursday last. Backed down to 5/4 favourite at the off, it was only in the final run in that she got up to beat 14/1 outsider "Peleus."

Youghal owner Edmond Coleman completed a three-timer when his "High-Spec" trained by John Kiely and confidently ridden by young Jamie Magee justified his 7/4 favouritism when he held off a late run by "Chelsea Native" (10/1) to win by 3/4 of a length at the same venue.
