President Robinson Given Tumultuous Reception In Ardmore

Ardmore was en fete and looking its most resplendent best last Saturday afternoon when President Mary Robinson visited the 1992 overall Tidy Towns award winning village and was given a tumultuous reception by the vast throng that turned out to greet her.

Intermittent torrential showers, even the occasional flash of lightning had earlier greeted the President when she visited the neighbouring East Cork resort of Youghal to officially open the town's first Festival of Arts in the magnificent 11th century St. Mary's Collegiate Church of Ireland.

But while dark clouds menacingly hovered overhead as the presidential cavalcade arrived in Ardmore around 3.20 p.m., the rain, fortunately held off to enable the proceedings to be completed in dry if extremely overcast conditions.

Ardmore has seldom looked more resplendent than it did for the President's visit. The frantic last minute "clean-up" efforts were there for all to see and President Robinson told an attendance of 1,000 or more of how "very impressed" she was by the magnificence and splendour of the award-winning village.

Members of the Civil Defence Officer Colm Bannon provided a guard of honour at the entrance to the village, and at the square there was another guard of honour formed by members of the 34th Waterford CBSI Troop, together with Girl Scouts, cubs and beavers all under Unit Leader James Moloney.

Little Aoife Hennessy presented the President with a bouquet of flowers when she alighted from her car and she was welcomed to the Tidy Towns award winning village by members of the local Tidy Towns Committee, including chairperson Caroline Bowen-Walsh, secretary Mary Flavin, Lelia Cantwell and John Fitzgerald.

Also present was the chairman of Waterford County Council, Cllr. Con Casey, the Waterford County Manager Mr. Dan Hurley, county engineer Mr. John O'Flynn, eminent local author Molly Keane and a bevy of other invited guests.

Dungarvan Brass Band under conductor Francis Keenealy gave the musical salute before Caroline Bowen-Walsh formally welcomed the President.

Mrs. Bowen-Walsh told President Robinson that she has not alone become a very hard working President, but has brought a fresh, vibrant and caring dimension and image to the office.

That certainly won the approval of the crowd who greeted the comments with sustained applause.

"Your visit to Ardmore is the highest accolade in our year of victory," Mrs. Bowen-Walsh concluded.

President Robinson, having referred to Ardmore as being "very impressive," said the local community through its successful efforts in the Tidy Towns

Outline Planning Permission Granted For Derelict Site

Outline planning permission has been given for a housing development at what is arguably Dungarvan's most derelict site, members of the Urban Council were told at last week's meeting.

The permission has been granted in respect of the property known as "The Hermitage," at Abbeyside, the deteriorating condition of which has been condemned many times in the past by the councillors.

Cllr. Michael O'Riordan said that before anyone gets planning permission for any development their own house should first be in order. That could not be said of the "Hermitage." "It should be either demolished or made safe before any housing development is allowed," Cllr. O'Riordan said.

Cllr. Declan Goode said he is happy at the thought that an attractive new housing development will replace what is a major eyesore.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

The photograph featured in this week's "Remembering Other Days" series takes us back again to the Cornerstone town of Cappoquin. It is topical at this present time by reason of the fact that one of those in the photograph Rev. Fr. Steven Brennan, died recently in Australia, and a report of his passing appeared in last week's Cappoquin page. The photograph shows the Cappoquin junior hurling team who won the county championship in 1944 and on the team were back row (l. to r) P. O'Connor (R.I.P.), M. Morrissey, N. Mac Craith, J. Ahearne, P. English (R.I.P.), M. O'Connor (R.I.P.), D. Daly, R. Curran (R.I.P.). Kneeling (l. to r.) J. Brackett, S. Cahill, W. Rea (R.I.P.), S. McGrath (R.I.P.), J. J. O'Sullivan, T. Crotty. # The Right To Read And Write

Most of us who can read this paper have never had firsthand knowledge of not being able to read and write. But for those who do find reading and writing difficult, not being fully literate, has shaped their lives and coloured their perception of the world and their place in it.

It is generally assumed that where a person's reading and writing skills are low that they will be at a disadvantage when certain tasks have to be performed.

However, the effects of some disadvantages are often underestimated.

For some, the drawbacks of being unable to read and write are of a practical nature, e.g. in terms of limited prospects of employment or advancement in their jobs. Others are affected at a much deeper and personal level where their fear of exposure and feelings of inadequacy have been internalised. For them it is very private and very much a personal problem.

In a recent survey, students who were taking part in an Adult Learning Scheme cited the following as the significant effects of their reading and writing problems. Students reported that they:

Could not apply for certain jobs; had worries coping with the demands of a job; gave up career aspirations; had to turn down a job or promotion; felt stuck in a poorly paid job; couldn't take a night course; couldn't help children with school homework; couldn't read stories to children; had difficulties filling in forms; couldn't read or write a letter; had problems with shopping or with ordering a meal.

When it came to speaking of the personal effects of their disability, students reported that they: felt terrified and panicked in situations involving reading and writing; felt inferior; felt shy and withdrawn; maintained defensive barriers; constantly felt "under a shadow"; felt bitter, angry and hurt.

ers; constantly felt "under a shadow"; felt bitter, angry and hurt.

Nowadays, it is generally accepted that there is little or no connection between a person's level of intelligence and their ability to read and write. What is at stake here is that many people are suffering as a direct result of their reading and writing problems.

The purpose of this series of articles is to alert the local community to the nature of this problem and to the fact that whatever the difficulty with reading and writing, help is available locally, in the hope and belief that this message will be passed on in a sensitive manner to those who can benefit from the various courses, etc., which are on offer.

In later articles we will examine the causes of reading and writing difficulties, the extent of the problem and the types of services which are available to help.

Father And Son Appeal Against Severity Of Sentences

A 48 year old unemployed labourer and his 24 year old son, who were involved in a vicious assault on a neighbour at a Dungarvan housing estate in the early hours of March 17th last, appealed against the severity of six month prison sentences before Judge Diarmuid Sheridan at the local court on Tuesday.

The appellants were Tony Riordan snr. and Michael Riordan, both of 40 Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, who were sentenced to six months at Dungarvan District Court for assaulting John Daly 21 Cathal Brugha Place.

Both appellants, the court was told, have been in custody for the last seven weeks.

There was evidence that a hurley and a pool cue were used in the attack on Daly, and that a third family member, Tony Riordan jnr. who is presently in custody, was also involved and was the instigator of the incident.

Garda Helena Foley said the victim was removed by ambulance to Waterford Regional Hospital where he was detained for one week.

Tony Riordan snr. said the incident had been sparked off by reports that his three year old grandchild had earlier been attacked by Daly. His son Tony jnr. went to sort things out with Daly but he (witness) had only tried to break up the row that developed.

Judge Sheridan, however, spoke of his total dislike of "punishment squads" and also that Tony Riordan snr. has previous convictions "the length of his arm" dating back to 1961, including several for assault.

He affirmed the six months sentence on Riordan snr. but said he would be given credit for the seven weeks he has already been in custody.

Commenting that Michael Riordan had played a relatively minor part in the attack, and given that he did not have previous assault convictions, Judge Sheridan granted him his own bail of £300 and adjourned the appeal for twelve months on his undertaking not to go near John Daly or any member of his family during that time.

APPEAL ADJOURNED FOR TWELVE MONTHS

Dungarvan Circuit Court heard on Tuesday how a 44 year old casual farm labourer breached a barring order and attempted to set fire to the family home on June 19th last.

Terence Condon, 14 St. Martin's Terrace, Dungarvan appealed against the severity of prison sentences totalling twelve months which had been imposed on him in the District Court on June 23rd arising out of the incident.

Condon was sentenced to six months for being in breach of a Court Barring Order in respect of a house at Car-riglea, Dungarvan, on June 19th last, and a concurrent twelve months for committing damage, by arson, to the house on the same occasion.

Garda John Fleming told the court that Condon, who has been in custody since June 23rd, went to his wife's home at Carriglea on June 19th, threw petrol into a bedroom and set fire to it. Only a portion of the bedroom, however, was damaged to the extent of about £400.

Sgt. David Sheehan said Condon has a severe drink problem but is most remorseful about this incident.

"He knows he made a complete fool of himself, but I honestly believe he is deserving of a chance provided he doesn't go near the home", Sgt. Sheehan added.

When the appellant gave an undertaking to the court that he will stay away from the family home and from his wife, and that within one year he pays £400 compensation for the damage caused, Judge Diarmuid Sheridan adjourned the appeal for twelve months and remanded Condon on his own bail of £500.

Good Time To Be A Supergrass

If you plan to sow a lawn then August is a good time to do it — and July is the last chance for the groundwork.

Preparation is vital to ensure that the lawn establishes well before winter and endures the years ahead, come snow or drought.

You should actually begin preparation some six weeks beforehand but a bit of extra effort should claw back some time.

DIGGING

The site needs digging over to one-spade depth, which is going to be hard after warm weather, but don't be tempted to use a mechanical digger — they tend to spread weeds and compact soil.

If you are fortunate and the ground is wet, you still need to avoid treading down the soil — use a broad plank to stand on as you work.

While you are digging, work in well-rotted compost or manure before raking the newly-turned site into a fine crumbly consistency. Then leave it for a few weeks, apart from removing new weeds.

TYPE

Meanwhile, you should also decide on the type of lawn you need — what you have pictured is probably in the bowling green class and the required mixture will be something with fescue and bent varieties.

However, you need to be realistic if you have a family and pets who are likely to give the lawn a pounding — choose a coarser rye grass mixture which will establish and recover from damage quickly.

Of course, there are 'shades' between both extremes and you will find many mixtures in shops and garden centres — check the package or ask for more advice there.

ACCURATELY

At least by sowing a lawn rather than laying turves, you can more accurately dictate the type of lawn you end up with.

Once the seed is chosen, wait for a calm day when the soil is moist — a course of watering beforehand will help — and sow around an ounce and a half per square yard unless there is a recommended density for the particular mixture.

Gently rake the soil to cover the seed and protect from birds. Use fine netting and string out some foil and other debris to flutter in the breeze — don't rely on reassurances that the seed has been treated with repellent!

RANDOM

Cats can be put off digging the soft ground by laying canes and sticks at random over the site — the fussy felines will find somewhere with fewer obstacles.

When the blades of young grass reach 1.5 inches high give them a light rolling in dry conditions, but do not mow until they reach three inches.

Once the lawn is established, look after it by never cutting it short in dry weather, keeping it well-watered and occasionally adding a liquid feed. — ARTHUR HINES.

Labour Party Member "Amazed And Appalled"

A Labour Party member of Dungarvan Urban Council told last week's meeting that he was "amazed and appalled" that his party in Government had supported a proposal to discontinue the payment of car tax on a quarterly basis from next October.

"It is no longer the Labour Party I joined. Power seems to have gone to its head," Cllr. Paddy Power stated.

The meeting unanimously agreed to forward a motion for the annual conference of the Association of Municipal Authorities in September condemning the measure while the Council's disapproval will also be conveyed in writing to Environment Minister, Emmet Stagg.

Cllr. Mary Dixon said the discontinuation of the quarterly car tax is an attack on the working class and will lead to a dramatic increase in the number of untaxed cars.

Cllr. Michael O'Riordan described the move as "a retrograde step" that is designed to make life easier for civil servants who are not exactly overworked.

“Thoughts”

O'CONNELL STREET DUNGARVAN

A THOUGHTFUL PLACE TO SHOP

TELEPHONE
058/44490

“Thoughts” — a thoughtful place to shop. This new retail outlet has been opened recently in O'Connell Street, Dungarvan by Laura O'Brien and her partner Michael Desmond.

The idea behind “Thoughts” is to enable customers to acquire all their bodily toiletries and beauty aids in the one outlet and so make shopping and selection much more convenient and time saving.

Laura, from Kilmurray, Dungarvan, has plenty of experience in this field. She previously worked for Boots Chemists chain and also for a discount shop and she has just successfully completed an Aromatherapy Course, and having done extensive research on various products and brands, she has come to the conclusion that Bodyline is best.

Bodyline have shops in Cork, Waterford and Dublin and this particular brand provides the finest quality in pure and natural finished products — tested without any cruelty to animals involved — and it has also been proven as completely safe.

Even the containers have no CFC gases and can be safely burned, and as well, “Thoughts” hopes to provide a recycling and refilling service soon.

The products range from the very popular “White-musk” to the soothing “Aloevera”, to name but two. We also carry an extensive men's range including Woody, Spicy and Herbal Fragrances, as well as a fragrance-free collection for the more sensitive. As well, there are extensive lines in Aromathy Shampoos, Balms and Moisturisers.

Every few weeks a new range comes into being. This week sees the introduction of a banana and a cocoanut range and these will be followed shortly by a Baby's Range.

Baskets can be made to order and deposits taken, especially on the beautiful range of Irish Pottery or our Gift Lines displayed at the back of the shop where you can purchase some of life's little luxuries at every-day affordable prices.

We have endangered species Toothbrushes, Hairbrush-es, Sponges, Cards and Giftwrap, as well as novelties for children, prices starting at 10p, and for Soap Collectors, we get new ranges in the whole time!

Coming in December will be Santa, Pot Pourri and Soaps.

So come into “Thoughts” and try our the samples! We can get any product to order for you, so treat yourself at “Thoughts” — the thoughtful place to shop.

We congratulate Laura and Michael on their business venture and wish them well.

DUNGARVAN AGRICULTURAL SHOW —

Something To Interest Everyone

Tomorrow, Thursday, July 29, the 78th Dungarvan Agricultural Show takes place at Ballygagin by kind permission of the O'Grady family. This is a typical old style Agricultural Show — it has something to interest everyone.

You might like to watch the fine display of horses, cattle and sheep being adjudicated, or maybe cheer on your local Macra Club in the finals of the Farm Efficiency Tasks, or then again, there will be plenty of cheering as the young Pony Club members from West Waterford, East Waterford and the Colligan Equestrian Centre compete in the Pony Club Games. Even the tiny-tots will be there competing in the ever popular Leading Rein Class, and for those without a pony, why not enter the Fancy Dress competition.

For the dog lover, well you can bring your dog — there is a Dog Show, and should you like to know how to discipline your dog, then the Gun Dog Display which includes several Irish Champion Gun Dogs is a must.

Showjumping at Dungarvan Show has always attracted the top riders in the country as they prepare for the Dublin Horse Show and the prestigious Aga Khan Trophy. Come and see Francis Connors, Marion Hughes, Robert Splaine, etc., in action.

For the visitor who likes the finer things in life, a visit to the Home Industries Tent is essential! Fruit, vegetables, preserves, crafts, home baking, needlework, knitting, as well as a super flower show are all on display. An art competition for both children and adults plus a children's handwriting competition complete with picture, will also be held.

And should you like to really get involved in the Country Show atmosphere, then why not enter the Most Appropriately Dressed Lady competition. Judges will be roving the Showgrounds.

INTERESTING FEATURE

Trade stands are always an interesting feature at any country show — have you ever seen sheep being milked? — a visit to the Knockalara Sheep Cheese Stand where Friesian sheep will be on display should be interesting. From cars to windows, they are all on display in Ballygagin.

And then we have Waterford Local Radio — WLR — who are doing a live outside broadcast from the showgrounds between 12 noon and 6 p.m. There is always plenty of "buzz" around the WLR caravan — not alone might you catch a glimpse of your favourite DJ, but you could well make your very first radio broadcast to the nation, should a roving microphone come your way!

Ballygagin is the place to be on this Thursday, July 29. Follow tradition and be a part of the 78th running of Dungarvan Agricultural Show.

Curran Disappointed At EC Blocking Of Subsidised Milk Restructuring Scheme

Waterford IFA Dairy Committee Chairman, Mr. Gerald Curran says that he was very disappointed at the EC Commission's decision to stop the Irish Government from subsidising the restructuring of milk quota to smaller producers.

The IFA man said: "The farm price package for the 1993/94 milk year agreed on May 27 last provided £1.9 million for a Subsidised Milk Restructuring Scheme aimed at helping smaller producers to become more viable. £38 million was made available to the Community on the whole, with Ireland only receiving 5% of the total allocation."

Mr. Curran added: "I believe the reason why the EC Commission has stopped Ireland from using the funding for restructuring is because the other member states do not want to use the funding for this purpose. During the Farm Price talks it was very clear that the other member states, particularly the United Kingdom and Holland, did not want to see EC funding going for milk restructuring."

Waterford Co. Macra Na Feirme

NATIONAL SPORTS DAY IN LIMERICK

Limerick Macra Na Feirme hosted the fourth National Sports Day in the University of Limerick campus on Sunday, July 11th. The campus boasts excellent facilities including a running track, five tennis courts, soccer pitches, indoor basketball and a swimming pool.

Four clubs consisting of Ballyduff, Clonea Power, Gaultier and Kinsalebeg competed for Waterford at this event. We had to wait until near the end of the day to get our best result when Gaultier won the 3-0-war competition.

In the final Gaultier were too strong for Muskerry (Cork) and won the title in this event. Gaultier's team included Philip Pierce, James O'Sullivan, Pat Burke, John O'Riordan, William Denn, Alan Fitzgerald, Peter Power and Billy Power.

Other good results on the day were Ciara O'Hare 2nd in the long jump, Annette O'Connell 3rd in the 400m race and a third for the 4 x 100m mens relay team. Liam Hallahan, County P.R.O.

CLARE TEACHER IS MISS MACRA

A Co. Clare teacher Miss Mona Keane won the 22nd Annual Miss Macra title from over 30 finalists in the Premier Ballroom, Thurles, last Sunday night.

She fought off the challenge from over 33 girls from Russia, America, Britain, Northern Ireland and the Republic to win £1,000 worth of prizes.

This event was organised by the Clonoulty/Rossmore club and the competition was once again a great success with thousands of Macra members travelling for the week-end.

SEAFIELD-BONMAHON PIPE BAND

The band played in Kilmacthomas for the Jim Power Memorial Cup on Saturday 24th. Our Fundraising Dance in Crotty's on Saturday night was a great success. We would like to thank Maura and Seán Lannon, also Tony Coffey, Seán Murphy and the "Three Lovely Lassies" who put on a very entertaining show. The Dungarvan branch of Multiple Sclerosis gave us great support. On Sunday the band opened the Beer Garden at the Long Hall and then paraded the Fancy Dress for the Bally Pattern. We would like to thank everyone who helped in anyway over the week-end especially with transport. Next week-end the band are in Carrick-on-suir on Sunday afternoon and in Kill on Sunday and Monday evening.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Many happy returns to

WEDDING BELLS

The Holy Cross Church, Stradbally was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Thursday July 22nd when Miss Elizabeth Wade, Durrrow and Mr. Jonathon Griffin, New Ross, Co. Wexford were united in Holy Matrimony. Fr. Pat Butler, C.C., officiated at the ceremony. Marie Dwyer (sister of the bride) was matron of honour and Garreth Griffin (brother of groom) was best man. The reception was held in the Old Court Hotel, Waterford. The happy couple will reside in their beautiful new home in Englishtown. We wish them both many happy years of wedded bliss.

GOOD LUCK

Good luck to the Stradbally senior football team on Thursday July 28th when they play Rathgormack and on Sunday August 1st when they play St. Saviours.

Touraneena Notes

SYMPATHY

It is with deep regret that we record the death of Minnie Power, Bleantis, Ballinamult, which sad event occurred on Wednesday last July 21, Minnie who enjoyed good health until recently and was almost 90 years of age was a very popular member of the farming community and was held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. To her bereaved sons, daughter, grandchildren, daughters-in-law, son-in-law, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends we extend sincere sympathy. On Thursday evening the remains were removed from Drohan's Funeral Home to St. Mary's Church, Touraneena, where following the celebration of Requiem Mass on Friday morning, interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. May she rest in peace.

CARDS

G.A.A.

This week we extend a hearty welcome to the U-16 team and their trainers and leaders from the U.S.A. We hope they enjoy their stay amongst us.

WELCOME HOME

We welcome home all our visitors from abroad and from other counties in Ireland. Although the weather is not very favourable at time we still see some foreigners on their bicycles as they travel from one town to another. We hope they all have a safe and enjoyable holiday.

Ring Oyster Festival Ready To Roll

Five Days Of Action Packed Festivities

The only Oyster Festival to be held in an official Gaeltacht is ready to role in Ring from this Thursday to next Bank Holiday Monday.

Details of the five-day festival, of which Guinness Group Sales are the main sponsors, were outlined at a press conference at Tigh An Cheoil in Baile na nGall last Monday evening by its organiser-in-chief Frank Cooney, who has strung together five days of action-packed festivities.

The official opening takes place on Friday evening and will be jointly performed by former world oyster opening champion, John Cummins from Clarinbridge, Co. Galway and John Hales, Guinness Area Sales Representative.

Addressing the press conference, Mr. Cooney said last year's inaugural festival had been so outstandingly successful that the decision had been quickly taken to make it an annual event.

He said it is wholly appropriate that an oyster festival should be held in Ring which is now being acknowledged by Bord Iascaigh Mhara as the capital of oyster production in Ireland.

"The festival will promote the oyster industry in this area, it will also boost the tourist and fishing industry and will generally provide a major economic uplift for the whole Gaeltacht and its many excellent amenities," said Mr. Cooney.

He went on to refer to the very substantial input oyster growing now makes into the local economy.

While the official opening isn't until Friday evening, the festival proper gets under way tomorrow (Thursday) with a pro-celebrity golf tournament sponsored by Murphys Stout, Tigh an Cheoil and Ring Oyster producer Jim Harty at the new West Waterford 18-hole championship course outside Dungarvan.

It carries a prize fund of £1,500 and will have a novel "shotgun" start which means that every competitor will tee off simultaneously.

The Festival dome on the grounds of Tigh An Cheoil will host most of the major musical attractions, although the other Gaeltacht hostels will also be providing music throughout the festival.

Other highlights include a sea angling competition on Saturday sponsored by O'Brien's of Clonmel, an oyster opening championship on the same afternoon, the crowning of the Oyster Festival Queen on Sunday evening followed by a gala concert featuring many of the top traditional musicians in the country.

The grand finale concert on the concluding Monday evening features Bobby Gardiner, and Ann

IRISH REVIVAL AT CAISLEÁN NUA

Hundreds of pupils from all over South Tipperary and West Waterford have been converging on An Caisleán Nua for the past few weeks to learn Irish, to dance and to sample the cultural past.

Last Friday the first group of 130 pupils finished up with an open air concert, a mystery tour and a Mass celebrated in Irish by Very Rev. Fr. Thomas Morrissey, P.P., Butncourt/Clogheen.

The summer college, organised under the umbrella of Forbairt Caisleán Nua, has had to create 70 extra places to cope with demand for the popular two-week courses. The course is a complete immersion in Irish culture, manned by a very able staff.

Ned Power is well known for his sean nós singing from Sliabh gCua, and musicians include Maurice Murphy on the guitar, Cyril Humphries on the bodhrán, Tomás O Slatara on accordion and Nick Shanahan who plays the bagpipes, tin whistle, fiddle and piano. Others are involved in sports, theatre, video, computers and language and culture classes of every description. They include Shane Hallahan, Dungarvan; Sharon Wyse, An Uidhir; Marguerite Ryan, Ma Deilige; Seirse de Barra, Baile-Mhic-Cairbre; Karen Fennessy, Mary Murphy, Delia Ryan, Caisleán Nua.

The course is part-funded by the BNS Rural Development group and some stu-

FOUR YOUTHS ARRESTED

Four teen-aged youths were arrested by gardai in the early hours of Tuesday morning last in connection with the theft of a car from Davis Road, Clonmel. The red Estate car was found crashed near Harney's Cross on the road to Rathgormack. The car was completely written off. The youths were arrested leaving the scene of the crash.

PRESIDENT VISITS PRESIDENT

Ballymacarbry accountant, Tom O'Gorman, Small Quarter, Ballymacarbry, President of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Ireland, visited President Mary Robinson recently as part of the celebrations marking the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants in Ireland. He was accompanied by Peter Agars (Australia), President of the International Federation of Accounts. They presented President Robinson with a sculpture by John Behan (Galway) at Arus An Uachtarán.

Mr. Agars was the primary speaker at the seminar of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants in Ireland held recently in Dublin and attended by 200 delegates.

PRESENTATION TO GARDA

A presentation was made recently to Garda Jim Kelly, Rathgormack Garda Station on the occasion of his retirement from the force. Garda Jim was stationed at Rathgormack for the past 20 years. The presentation was made by Helen and Mandie Kennedy on behalf of his many friends in Rathgormack and Clonea-Power.

DEGREE CONFERRED

Congratulations to Pádraig de Burca, Principal Teacher, Newcastle National School, who recently, at London University was conferred with an Hon. Degree in Economics.

AERIOCHT AT NIRE VALLEY

On Sunday next An Aeriocht will be held by the Nire Football Club at Fentons Field beside the Nire Road about 2 miles from Ballymacarbry. So come along to the Nire Valley on Sunday.

POISONED DOGS WARNING

A word of warning has been given by a concerned citizen. Poison has been laid by some unknown people in the wooded area around the beauty spot at Careys Castle, Russeltstown. Several dogs have been poisoned, so you are asked to take caution with your dogs in the area.

GOLF WINNERS

Congratulations to Seamus Wall and his daughter Aine, Hanora's Cottage, Nire Valley on being the winners of the "Nationalist" Newspapers mixed foursomes at Clonmel golf links, and to Mary Wall, Seamus' wife, who won the 18 hole fourball sponsored by Eldon Morris at Clonmel golf links. A real family win.

WELCOME TO PARISH PRIEST

The parishioners of Oola and Salahead extend a hearty céad míle fáilte to their new parish priest Very Rev. Fr. Liam McNamara, P.P., formerly parish priest of Ballybricken/Bohermore, Co. Limerick. Fr. McNamara's father worked for many years at the now defunct Knockmeal Co-op Creamery, Ballinamult, and his mother comes from Ballinamult.

Fr. McNamara was ordained in 1965 and then spent four years in Gillingham, Kent, England. On his return home he was Chaplain at the Convent of Mercy, Doon and curate at Ballina, Co. Tipperary from 1970 to 1976. He was curate at Nicker, Pallasgreen for 14 years. He was then appointed parish priest in Ballybricken/Bohermore, Co. Limerick.

Fr. McNamara will reside in the parochial house, Cullen Road, Oola and we hope that his ministry in the parish will be happy, fruitful and fulfilling.

MINI LOTTO

Four-Mile-Water Hurling Club had their first Mini Lotto draw at the Oriel Bar, Ballymacarbry on Saturday night. The numbers drawn were 4, 7, 8. There was no winner. Jackpot next week is £300.

At a recent meeting of the Four-Mile-Water Hurling Club the Chairman, Billy Walsh expressed thanks to the Field Committee for all their work in the Mill field, and to Tom Flynn who looks after the grass cutting. The field is in excellent condition.

BALLYMACARBRY C.C.E.

The branch are holding their annual outing on Saturday August 14. They will visit Cobh, Blarney Woollen Mills and the J. and J. factory. Names to any committee member.

DEATH OF BALLYMACARBRY LADIES FOOTBALLER

The death last Friday of 29 year old mother Claire Mounsell-Williams, has numbered the people of South Tipperary and West Waterford. Her courage captured the hearts of the people and young and old were united in their sorrow. Claire's determination not to let her terminal illness keep her down motivated others to look into their own hearts and find a way to help her. Her dream was to go to Mexico. It was the dream of going and finding a miraculous cure for her cancer that encouraged her to live. Life was not something she took for granted even before her illness. She knew how to live to the fullest and be grateful for what she had. Before she and her husband Derek emigrated to England Claire played with the Ballymacarbry Ladies Football team and loved every minute of it. During her working years at Schiessers, Clonmel she got involved with team sports there as well. She was an outgoing, active person and her mother Phyllis recalls her as always being the sporty one of the family. Being a stranger in London did not stop her getting on and meeting people. She then joined the Wembley Gaels Ladies Football team. It is a tribute to Claire's memory that her old jersey number six will never be used again by the team. While playing with the London county team Claire participated in three All-Ireland finals in Croke Park. Ten of her old team mates flew in from London to pay their respects to Claire at the removal of her remains on Saturday evening from Condon's Funeral Parlour, Clonmel to St. Marys Parish Church, Irish-town. A special guard of honour was formed for her by them. Claire's belief in herself and her courage was helped by her strong religious faith especially in the power of Padre Pio. The only time Claire cried during her hospital stay was when the Padre Pio glove was brought to her. Deep down she knew that she wasn't going to live. Claire was buried in the clothes that she picked out herself and wearing her favourite lipstick. Her cousin Kevin who had finished fourth in the Finglas Marathon gave Claire the medal a week before she died and that and her Rosary beads are the only two things buried with her. On Sunday morning her funeral took place to St. Patrick's Cemetery after 11 o'clock Mass where interment took place.

LATE MR. EDMUND CORBETT

The district was saddened on Tuesday 20th July with the news of the death which took place at St. Josephs Hospital, Clonmel, of Mr. Edmund (Ted) Corbett, Knockballinra, Goatensbridge. Deceased was a member of a well known and highly respected South Tipperary family. Ted as he was better known to his friends and acquaintances was a tailor by trade, but it was as a hurler he was better known. He played centre field for Fourmilewater minor hurlers in the county final of 1934 against Mount Sion who had as goal keeper Pat Fanning who thirty six years later became President of the Gaelic Athletic Association. He was truly one of Nature's gentlemen possessed of a friendly, good humoured and generous disposition. He had a remarkable facility in recalling and relating experiences of his earlier years on the playing fields, that held the fortunate listener enthralled. He was a true Christian man. He never sought the limelight, but came forward only if he could offer a helping hand. A thoughtful neighbour he is deeply and justifiably mourned by all who held him in the warmest regard. The measure of the esteem and high regard in which deceased and his family are held was clearly indicated by the representative groups of mourners paying their final respects to a dear friend on Tuesday evening when his remains were removed from the Hospital Mortuary, Clonmel, to the Parish Church Ballybacon. On Wednesday morning Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his gentle soul. After Mass a great Gael and a friend of the people was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. To his wife and family we tender our sympathy. Go ndeana Dia trocaire ar an am dilis.

LATE MRS. MARY POWER

It is with deep regret we pen the death of Mrs. Mary (Minnie) Power (nee Cullinan), Bleantis, Ballinamult, which sad event took place at St. Josephs Hospital, Clonmel, on Wednesday 21st July after an illness borne with true Christian fortitude. Deceased was a member of an old and respected Sliabh gCua family, highly esteemed among the farming community. She was a lady abundantly endowed with all the true Christian traits of character. She was a thoughtful neighbour possessed of an exceptionally kind, gentle, unassuming and courteous disposition. Accordingly, she is deeply and justifiably mourned by her family, her neighbours and her many friends. That her memory will be cherished was truly indicated by the large and representation concourse of mourners who were present on Thursday evening when her remains were removed from Drohan's Funeral Home, Dungarvan to St. Marys Parish Church, Touraneena. On Friday morning Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of her gentle soul. After Mass she was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery again in the presence of a large number of mourners who were present to pay their final respects to a dear Christian friend. To her family we extend our sympathy.

COMMUNITY GAMES

Ballymacarbry girls U-16 basketball team were narrowly defeated by Tipperary in the Munster final last Saturday. It was a thrilling match with just one point separating the teams at the end. A special word of thanks to Liam Fennell for training the teams.

LARGE CROWD AT MASS IN ANCIENT CHURCH

On Wednesday evening last Mass was celebrated at the Ancient church at Kilonan. The celebrant was Very Rev. Fr. Edmund Tobin, P.P., Four-Mile-Water/Newcastle.

In his homily, Fr. Tobin spoke of the many people and the great faith they had who had attended Mass there. It dates back to the 12th century. He asked the people to have a good look around the church and cemetery. For some of them, he said, they wouldn't be there again for 12 months. He praised the FÁS workers for the way they had cleaned the cemetery and Cllr. John Kennedy, Clonmel who is responsible for bringing the FÁS workers there.

Rev. Fr. Michael Power, P.P., Nire/Touraneena making a presentation on behalf of the people of the Nire Parish to his curate, Rev. Fr. Bobby Power, C.C., who is departing to St. John's Parish, Waterford.

Letter to the Editor

The Editor, Dungarvan Leader.

'HEARD ON CRUACHAN'

"Ye'll be heard up in Cruachán" — so many times I heard these words when in my youthful Dungarvan days they were used to calm down the shrieks of laughter and ear-splitting chatter of playtime. "Cruachán" was to us children a special place.

Today, I wish to have my voice relayed loud and clear to my beloved "Cruachán" in protest against the desecration of this scenic place by the erection of a 53 metres Telecom Pylon.

It is too high a price to pay in the name of progress and technology.

Yours sincerely,

Major Initiative For New Care Facilities At An Rinn

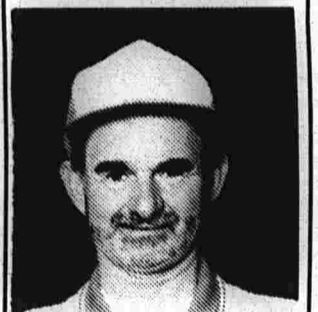

A major fund-raising drive was launched in the Waterford Gaeltacht of An Rinn on Thursday last to build new community facilities, including a new day care centre in the area.

At present the old and infirm have to negotiate a difficult, steep stairway, just in order to visit their local GP in the local community hall, and there are no proper existing remedial services available.

Among the events planned by the joint GAA/Comhairle Pobail na Rinne venture are a massive £1 per ticket draw with major cash prizes, and a Bumper Benefit Race Night at Youghal Greyhound Track next month, which it is hoped will raise several thousand pounds in aid of the day care centre and to provide extra sports facilities for the youth in the area.

life. Danny started the year by winning a Casey Cup medal, then a Waterford Junior League medal and a Waterford Dooley cup medal with local soccer side Kilmac'. Then last week he crowned a great year when he captained Dawn Meats to win out the factory league. Well done Danny.

TRAMORE FLOWER SHOW

Congratulations and well done to the partnership of well known gardeners Mr. and Mr. Michael Carey, Scrahan, Kilmachthomas who won no less than 11 first prizes at the Tramore Flower Show recently.

I WONDER

I wonder did anyone sort out the case of the missing T-shirt for Patie yet?

ACCIDENT

We wish a speedy recovery to Detective Garda Tom Flynn, New Ross and two other members of the Garda Siochana who were injured and removed to Kilkenny Hospital last week after their patrol car was in-involved in a crash. Tom who was an outstanding sportsman in his playing days, is son of Mrs. Maud Flynn, Millbrook Terrace, Kilmachthomas. Happily, they are all making solid progress to recovery.

BALLY PATTERN

They came from near and far to attend the Bally Pattern last week-end and the craic was mighty. Congratulations to the organising committee for a job well done.

BISHOP'S ORDINATION

Those who attended the Bishop's ordination in the Holy Trinity Cathedral, Waterford and the reception afterwards last Sunday were as follows: Sr. Patricia, Kathleen Kiersey, Mary Crowle, Mary Kelly and Mary Norris.

WATERFORD SHOW

Many locals attended the Waterford Show on Sunday last and, in brilliant sunshine, had a wonderful day.

CLAIRE LONG

Congratulations to local athlete Claire Long, New Houses, Kilmachthomas who had another great victory on Saturday last in Dublin, Claire is fast becoming one of the top athletes in Waterford and we wish her every success for the future.

SYMPATHY

It is with deep regret we record the death of Jimmy Walsh, Union Road, Kilmachthomas which sad event occurred on Friday morning last. We offer our sincere sympathy to his brother, sisters, relatives and friends.

KILMACHTHOMAS G.A.A. NOTES

Senior Football Win — Our senior footballers recorded a great victory over a determined Sliabh gCua side in Leamybrien on Sunday evening last by the score of 3-11 to 2-9. We now take on Kilrossanty in Stradbally on Sunday evening next at 7.30 p.m.

Kilmac' team and scorers — Dan Casey, Michael Lawlor, Johnny Brown, Colin Crotty, Michael Rockett, Eddie Rockett, Patrick O'Reilly, Paddy McGrath, Michael Downey (1-4), Joe Joy (0-3), Johnno Power (1-1), Brendan Whelan (0-1), Tom Joe Power (0-1), Tom O'Connell (1-0), Andy Rockett (0-1). Referee: Mr. Pat Moore, Ballinacourty.

Jim Power Memorial Cup — Before a large attendance in the Kilmachthomas G.A.A. field on Saturday evening last Wexford retained the Jim Power Memorial Cup with a deserving win over a determined Waterford 'A' side in a game which saw some great passages of football. In the losers final Waterford 'B' defeated Kilkenny after a good game of football. The Bonmahon Pipe Band (who looked immaculate in their new outfits) paraded both teams around the field before the final. After the match the beautiful Jim Power Memorial Cup was presented to the captain of the Wexford team by Jim's youngest son Derry. Our thanks go to Roadstone (sponsors), represented by Frank Byrne and John Frost; Danny Sheridan, sponsor of the losers shield; Margaret Mulhearn, sponsor of the Bonmahon Pipe Band; John Kiely, Martin McNamara, Johnny Brien and Eddie O'Shea representing Bord-na-nOg; Co. Board vice Chairman represented by Frankie Cullinane; Seamus Keever, Wexford; Seamus Casey; referees Francis and Nicky Whelan and anyone who helped to make it a wonderful success. We look forward to next year's tournament.

Under 12 Football — Our under 12 team were unlucky to be defeated by St. Molleran's in the semi-final of the championship on Sunday evening last in Clonea.

Ian Richardson And The Soulmasters At The Park Hotel

The name Ian Richards and the Soulmasters will be a familiar one to the revellers of Dungarvan, and on Sunday August 1st this bands unique blend of hard hitting soul and rhythm 'n blues music will be heard at The Park Hotel.

Despite having been together for almost a dozen years, The Soulmasters in their present line up boast an outstanding selection of younger Irish talent. Behind the long-standing front-line of Big Ian himself, saxophonist Shelly and Tony Healy on trumpet, you will experience the not inconsiderable skills of Bassist Mark Kelly, Drummer Dave O'Donovan and Soul Mistress Trish Cronin and Dulcie O'Sullivan, "Chanteuses Extraordinaire", all of whom have recently reached their second decade of this life. You will find these Soulmasters, have an urgency and vitality that outstrips even the sweat-drenched performances of yester-year.

If it's been too long since you witnessed an event to set the pulse racing and the adrenalin flowing, be sure not to miss Ian Richards and The Soulmasters at The Park Hotel, Sunday August 1st.

News From Friends Of St. Martin

At the 1993 annual general meeting, the following officers were elected: President, Sr. M. Francis; Vice-Presidents, Sr. Baptist, R. Walsh; Chairman, John Lynch; Vice-Chairman, Seamus Ahearne; Hon. Secretary, Cora Duggan; Hon. Treasurer, Carmel O'Sullivan; Hospital Visitation, Mary Russell; Town Visitation, Sr. Francis, Sr. Baptist.

Our programme for the year began with a social evening in March at the Ormonde Hotel. The April social brought us to the Gold Coast, which was enjoyed by all. The annual summer outing was held on May 16 during Active Age Week. A visit was made in the afternoon to the Lismore Heritage Centre and afterwards the group adjourned to Clonea Strand Hotel for a meal and musical evening. Despite the very bad weather on the day, members made the most of it and generally enjoyed themselves.

Thanks to a kind invitation from Charlie McAllister, we went to Middleton for our June outing on Sunday 20th. The Folk Group there under Charlie's leadership, treated us royally. The talent was excellent and Michael Moynihan emerged as overall winner of the talent competition. Several of our members received prizes so everyone was in great humour for the homeward journey.

As in former years we paid our annual visit to Melleray Grotto on Thursday, July 15 and afterwards had a very enjoyable evening at the "Cats." Thanks to the Tobin family for their hospitality.

A special word of thanks is due to our faithful band, John Moloney, Michael McCarthy, Peg Power and Joanne Tanner who are always ready to play when required. Micheal O Faolain makes a very welcome MC whenever he can be available. The Noonan family play regularly in St. Joseph's Hospital and Dun-abbey, and we are indeed very much indebted to all these good people.

Our next function is the annual church gate collection to be held on Saturday/Sunday, August 7/8. As we depend largely on this collection for funding our socials during the year, we look forward to the continued support of the people of Dungarvan and surrounding areas. Such generosity is an enormous help to relieve the isolation and loneliness of many of our senior citizens.

Niamh Ryan, South Mall, Lismore, who won the U-8 championship slip jig at tallow Feis and U-7 championship reel at Midleton Feis recently.

Ballysaggart Notes

CARDS

Results — 1st, Peg Morrissey and Kathleen Coleman; 2nd/3rd, Joan Byrne and Maura Curran, Jim Daly and Sean Bennett. Last 5 — Pad Lineen and Tom Brennock; Anne Bennett and Bill Kennefick. Lucky tables — Mick Pratt and Pat O'Connor, Brian Cahill and Jim Geoghegan. Raffle — Maura Murray, John Bennett, Sheila Loneragan, Dan Howard.

BALLYSAGGART

G.A.A. NOTES
Hurlers Reach 7-A-Side Final — On Sunday evening last we took part in a seven-a-side tournament in Ballygiblin. After a fine win over Sarsfields of Cork in the semi-final we had a very short break before the final and this took its toll and Skeheenarinky ran out winners.

Walsh Cup Final Friday 7.30 p.m. — The final of the Walsh Cup takes place in Lismore on this Friday evening at 7.30 p.m. With our hosts going well in the senior championship they must start firm favourites. It will none-the-less be a great experience for the club and if we strike one of those days it might be very close at the end.

Sympathy — We tender our sympathy to Kevin Murphy, St. Marys on the death in England last week-end of his sister.

ABBEYSIDE

VILLAGE TOPICS

OUR LOCALITY

Ballinroad School was the first national school in the parish and according to information handed down it was in existence for about fifty years before closing down in the late twenties. Its official name was the Garrynageeragh School House. It was a one-teacher school and although education was not compulsory then, many of the parents sent their children to school there.

The first teacher here was Mr. Murphy who was eventually replaced by Mr. Paddy Cahill, who was a brother of Mr. John Cahill a well-known figure in Abbeyside in the twenties and thirties. He was followed by Mr. Paddy Cashin who remained until the closure of the school. It was a mixed school and there was some interchanging of pupils between Garrynageeragh and Ballinacourty. The opening of the new school in Garranbane in 1923 heralded the end of Garrynageeragh school which served as an unofficial parish hall for many years afterwards. Mike Veale's grandmother supplied welcome cups of tea to those participating in the many events staged in the hall for many years. I'm sure they were very much appreciated.

FOOTBALL CAMP AT ABBEYSIDE

This week the Abbeyside-Ballinacourty G.A.A. club grounds are again a hive of activity as the annual football summer camp is in full swing. As was the case last year the camp for the Dungarvan area (from 26th to 30th July) is situated in the local sportsfield. The camp is led by County Football Coach Pat Curran and he is assisted by Pat Condon, Ger Walsh, Eddie O'Halloran and Eamonn Martin. The camp costs only £10 per player and £5 for each subsequent child from the same family. Each participant receives a free T-shirt and there are numerous prizes. Cans of Coke, crisps and so on are also handed out during the week.

In 1982 I personally did not see the need to leave 'Cliffs Field' and move to the larger more spacious grounds further out in the Burgery but one has to admit that the facilities in the present Abbeyside complex are first class and are of great benefit to the local community and in fact the whole county. A depth of gratitude is due to the people who had the vision and foresight to go ahead with the move and also those who put in the hard work in fundraising etc. to pay off the sizeable loans.

ATHLETICS

Congratulations to Dereck Hayes, Parklane who competed for Ireland in the big schools international meeting in Dublin recently. Dereck finished fourth in the high jump event.

GOLF

Congratulations to Rose Prendergast 'The Recotry' Abbeyside who had her Ladys Captain's Prize at Dungarvan Golf Club, Knocknagranagh last weekend. The two day competition was won by Crissie Terry Ballinacourty who had magnificent 65 on Sunday and another local Breda McCarthy finished in second position.

THE PUT DOWN

This one may be more relevant to people living in the Ballinacourty area. Cauliflower is nothing but cabbage with a college education. Mark Twain (1835-1910)

IN MEMORIAM

Sincere sympathy is extended to the following families:

The Meehan families on the death of John Meehan, O'Connell Street;

Carmel Keith, Ballinroad on the death of her mother Maureen Caplice, Cahir;

Jenny Phelan, St. Patrick's terrace, on the death of her mother Eileen Drea Moloney;

Margo Delahunty, Ballinroad, on the death of her father Joe Kearns, Mooncoin;

Billy Hickey, Seapark, on the death of his sister Sr. Rose Hickey, Cork;

Mary Griffin, New Line on the death of her husband John Griffin;

Mrs. Collins, Knockateemore on the death of her brother Patrick Cunningham, Clashmore;

Rev. Fr. Ahearne, C.C., on the death of his mother Mrs. Alice Ahearne.

Abbeyside Shore Angling Club Notes

Results — 1st, Marian Crowe; 2nd, Bernadette Kirwan; 3rd, Bridget Tobin; 4th, Marian Maher.

Thanks to J. P. Power (Artex Contractor) for kind sponsorship. Anglers were back in action again on July 22nd when they fished the Cormac Walsh (Gone Fishing) competition in the harbour area. A total of 28 anglers took part under ideal weather condition with fish returns of 41. Variety was 2 - Eel 37, Flounder 4.

Results as follows senior — 1st, Bernadette Kirwan; 2nd, Martin Tobin; 3rd, Johnny Cronin; 4th John Cronin.

Ladies — 1st, Bridget Tobin; 2nd, Marian Maher.

Juvenile — 1st, John Hennessy (Rhinashark); 2nd, John Paul Molloy.

Many thanks to Cormac Walsh (Gone Fishing) for kind sponsorship. Our next competition is the Tig An Ceoil (Oyster Festival). Monday August 2nd Ring area, fishing time is from 3.30 p.m. to 6.30 p.m.

Check-in and weigh-in Ballinacourty.

GET WELL WISHES

The Club would like to wish Alice a full and speedy recovery.

ANNUAL CAMP - WATERFORD 1993

Well, we all made it home safe and sound after a very enjoyable week in Waterford. Our base during our stay was the Sacred Heart Scout Den, which is owned by the 15th Waterford. We walked to our various city destinations, as many a tired foot will bare evidence to!! Our travels took us to the Waterford Crystal visitors centre and Gallery, Waterford Bowl, Reginalds Tower, Waterford Heritage Centre, Waterford City Fire Station, and Waterford Glass Swimming Pool - and that was only during the first two days!! On Wednesday we took the bus to Tramore. Unfortunately we were unable to arrange the new Splashworld in our programme but we did include Celtworld and Celtic Lazer world.

Celtworld proved a terrifying experience for some of our S.P.L.'s! We spent quite a while in "the other world" talking to Ivan Achinghead. He took a definite fancy to Sandra (and her baseball cap!). Lazerworld was for many the highlight of the week. Here we were kitted out in-lazer guns, given a quick briefing and then we entered the lazer maze where we got to shoot at each other and the opposing teams base!. At the end of the game the computer totted up the scores and the print-out was proof that yes, Jenny A.G.L. had a definite talent for it! In second place was Elizabeth Kirwan and third place went to Brian with the red team winning overall. How come some people couldn't believe their eyes!?

Thursday was to be our lazy day with no activities planned for the morning. In the afternoon we took the Galleyinuse to Ballyhack. We enjoyed afternoon tea on board and arrived back in Waterford at 5.00 p.m. approximately. On the way back to the Den we stopped off at the Peoples Park, where everyone enjoyed the obstacle course and playground.

Friday was our last full day of camp, and it was also one of our busiest, as we headed off to Kilkenny by train. In Kilkenny we visited Kilkenny Castle, Rothe House Museum, and the Dolls House Exhibition in Slee Alans House. On our return to Waterford we were treated to dinner in the Beefy King and then we did some late night shopping.

All too soon our camp had come to an end but we're looking forward to annual camp 1994!

Abbeyside Scout Notes

Yes, at about 6.30 p.m. last Saturday our thirty-two scouts boarded the bus for annual camp at Chalfont Heights. Our Chaplain had just said Mass for the group as well as many parents and friends at the Den before departure.

The new colourful neckerchief looked very colourful and the SL should have no bother keeping an eye on them — even at long distance! A big surprise was the amount of gear brought on the trip or to be more correct the lack of gear brought.

This is explained by the fact that the scouts will sleep in chalets and there was no need to bring tents, boxes, tables, etc. I've seen a patrol go away for a weekend with more gear but the amount of personal gear remained unchanged with even the odd hurley peeping out of the bags. No doubt the cards and letters will be winging across the Irish Sea for the next two weeks.

GENERAL

The strength of the Panther Patrol box was tested last week by a member of the Unit Council — with his head — I hope the headache has since cleared up. The Guides are back after their hectic week in Waterford with good reports of their trip to Tramore.

The 13th Dublin are currently enjoying their annual camp at Glenshelane after getting off to a hectic start. We wish them good weather and the same to our own at Chalfont Heights.

LISMORE COMMUNITY FESTIVAL

This week-end will see the opening of Lismore Community Festival and let us hope the weather will improve so that everyone might enjoy the various events planned for the week by a very dedicated band of workers.

As usual there is a packed programme following on the official opening at 7 p.m. on Sunday next by Bachelors In Trouble.

Fancy Dress, Announcement of Mayor of Lismore are just some of the events on Sunday night. During the week there will be Pub Talent Heats with the final on Friday night. Open Air music, Arm wrestling, Dancing to live bands, Discos, Pongo, Fete in Castle Gardens (Monday August 2nd), Cookery demonstrations, Tennis tournaments, Soap box racing, Novelty events and many more events are crammed into the week, and for cycling enthusiasts the Credit Union Junior Tour passes through Lismore on Thursday August 5th at 12 noon where there will be a hot spot sprint. All in all the place to be from Sunday August 1 to Sunday August 8 is the Heritage Town of Lismore, where you will find plenty of entertainment for all the family. See Advt. for full details.

LISMORE TENNIS CLUB NOTES

The Festival Tournaments are now under way with the final to be played during the festival week.

The club coach concluded his lessons on Saturday last and will hopefully return in the future.

We would like to wish the festival committee every success with the forthcoming weeks activities. The following are first round matches in the festival tournaments in progress.

Ladies Doubles Best Of Three Sets — Mag Morrissey and Mary Bennett Lenane v. Pauline Ferguson and Esther Hornibrook; Ciara Tobin and Anne Dunne v. Jackie Fitzgerald and Jo Jo Tobin; Patricia O'Neill and Tina Scanlon v. June Staples and Eileen Fitzgerald; Betty O'Grady and Siobhán Twomey v. Debbie Hobson and Connie Dowd; Bridget O'Farrell and Ann Hickey v. Lynne Heaphy.

AT ENTHRONEMENT OF BISHOP

At the enthronement of Bishop Lee as Bishop of Waterford and Lismore at the Cathedral in Waterford on Sunday afternoon were Rev. Bro. Dormer representing the C.B.S. Community, Dean Cecil Weekes, Church of Ireland, Lismore, Mr. and Mrs. M. O'Shea in his capacity as chairman of The Catholic Primary School Managers Association (C.P.M.S.A.), Miss Deirdre O'Shea who did a reading in Irish, Canon Nugent and Rev. Fr. Ryan, C.C., Tom and Elsie Doocey and Helen O'Sullivan.

ST. CARHTAGES

"45" RESULTS

Results — 1st, John Kennifick; 2nd, James Hyland; 3rd, Norah Willoughby; 4th, Mary O'Neill; 5th, Joan Byrne; 6th, Brian Ahearne. Lucky tables — Cassy Hyland, Annie Neville, Peg Morrissey, Kathleen Coleman. Raffle — Jack Cotter, John Maher, Johnie Hickey

WALSH CUP FINAL

As we stated in these notes 2 weeks ago the final of The Eamonn Walsh Perpetual Cup will take place this Friday 30th July at the Castle Farm grounds at 7.30 p.m.

This eagerly awaited final between Lismore and Ballysaggart has generated great excitement locally and should prove a thrilling local derby.

Organised by the Past Pupils of Lismore C.B.S. proceeds are towards Lismore C.B.S. Primary School.

LISMORE DRAW COUNTY FINAL IN CAMOGIE

On Sunday evening last in Kilmacthomas, Lismore and Gaultier drew 1-5 each in the Co. Camogie final in a real thriller. Both sides had their chances but failed to avail of them.

On Monday evening last in Abbeyside Lismore juniors were defeated by Butlerstown in the Co. junior championship by 3-3 to 0-2. The replay of the senior final takes place this Friday evening 30th July in Kilmacthomas. We wish them the very best, and great credit is due to the club to have 2 teams in 2 Co. finals on consecutive days.

RED HOUSE LEAGUE A.G.M.

The Annual General Meeting of the Red House League was held in The Red House, Lismore on Monday night last, officers elected for the coming season were — Chairman: Paddy Pollard, Lismore; Vice Chairman: Toby Collins, Inch; Secretary: Paddy Mason, Cappoquin; Asst. Secretary: Liam Fraser, Tallow; Treasurer: Lenny Fraser, Tallow; League Delegate to Waterford: Eddie O'Shea, Affane.

Present and overseeing the election of officers was Mr. John Sheehan, Chairman of the Waterford Junior League. Full report will appear in next week's issue.

LISMORE GROTTO COMMITTEE

Work on the Grotto is in progress. We are appealing for a statute to place in the grotto. We are also looking for volunteers to help with the building.

Donations may be given to any member of the committee — P. Moore, P. Reddy, C. Hyland, M. Farrell, Brother Ryan, Sgt. Tom O'Grady, K. Beston, M. Hyland, N. Gough, A. Tierney and W. Kennedy.

SWIMMING COURSES

The swimming courses are now entering their second week at the strand, and it is great to see so many young and not so young avail of the lessons.

C.L.G. LIOS MÓR

SENIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Our senior hurlers qualified for a play-off with Mount Sion for outright leaders in our particular group by virtue of a good victory over Portlaw last Sunday. The game played in Stradbally did not have an "important-tag" attached to it, as Portlaw were already out of contention for a final place, and this was reflected not only in the very small attendance but also in the appointment of the referee, who was unknown to many of those present, and also without "his own" umpires. Also the lack of adequate netting behind one set of goalposts, contributed to the remark made "that the admission charges should have been aligned to those displayed on a 1940's poster in the Clubhouse i.e. 6d, 1/6, and 2/s". This kind of degrading of senior hurling championship is simply not good enough.

The game itself was a tough affair with a lot of "dangerous" play going unnoticed. Lismore were always in control, even if for a period in the second half lack of concentration, which has occurred a few times this year, again gave the opposition some heart. However, an overall superiority throughout the field saw us through comfortably enough in the end.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Another victory last week-end over Old Parish has generated new interest in the junior football championship and training will now be stepped up. there is no truth in the rumour that "Micks" has experienced interest in taking over the team next year.

LORD MAYOR CAMPAIGN

Our candidate Patsy "The Mighty" Quinn, continues his campaign throughout the constituency this week (see advert elsewhere). The past week saw many fund raising events, and the support given by all was excellent and much appreciated. However, this is the final week of the campaign and the committee remind all those who have tickets and cards sold to return counterfoils and money immediately as it could be a punt or two that will divide the two candidates eventually, judging by reports we received from the "Hot-Rod" party, Tommy is flying, so get those last few quid in now.

BRO. DORMER CELEBRATION BANQUET

Tickets for above are in great demand not only locally but as far afield as Knockanore, Tallow, Ballyduff, Cappoquin, Dungarvan and even Dublin, Cork and Waterford etc. Billy Cunningham, ticket co-ordinator who will not have tickets himself until 1st August is already under pressure, such is the demand. Don't be left out of this eagerly awaited function - contact Billy without delay.

THE COMMUNITY CENTRE

Work is continuing on schedule to have the Community Centre ready for the Festival (1st to 8th August). Anyone wishing to help out on a voluntary basis please contact John Flynn on site.

LISMORE CAMOGIE NOTES

Our U-12 team after some great displays during the year were unfortunately denied a semi-final place when they were beaten by Dunhill/Fenor in their last league game. Some of these girls are very young and showed some great promise for coming years.

Panel — S. Barrett, M. Whelan, M. Celisse, A. Kiely, K. Dunne, E. Flynn, L. Roche, E. Khan, N. Barry, S. Murphy, E. Fleming, J. Barry, N. Ryan, D. Barry, O. Daly, L. Casey.

Our U-14 side having reached the semi-final were beaten by a very strong Portlaw side. Our girls played very well to stay within two points of Portlaw at half time but the Portlaw girls pulled away in the second half.

Panel — S. Bennett, M. Celisse, M. Whelan, K. Dunne, D. Bennett, L. Roche, M. Flynn, C. Walsh, K. Begley, M. O'Farrell, P. Dunne, N. Quann, O. Flynn, S. Mangan, E. Khan, S. Hannon.

Anne Marie, Martina, Orla and Ber are in charge of these girls and hope to organise a tournament for them shortly.

The junior team also made their exit from the championship on Monday night in Abbeyside. In terrible weather conditions our team gathered together on the night gave of their best, but could not get the breakthrough they needed and Butlerstown progressed into the next round.

Panel — B. O'Keefe, J. Walshe, B. Pollard, N. Roche, E. Daly, J. Scanlon, C. Tobin, A. Howard, C.

Howard, L. Heaphy, M. Hale, J. J. Tobin (Capt.), D. Bennett, C. Murphy.

Our senior team were fully stretched on Sunday last in Kilmac' when Gaultier had our back to the wall for most of the second half. With the wind behind us in the first half we led 1-5 to 1 point at half time but our failure to score in the second half had Gaultier attacking with the wind behind their puckouts and it took some splendid defensive play from the Lismore girls to finish the game level 1-5 to 1-5. Our thanks to the people who came to support us on the day and we hope to see even more at the replay this Friday night again in Kilmac' at 7.30. Every one at the drawn game well know just how difficult it's going to be to hold on to our Co. title. But the Lismore girls have fought hard for every title they have won and they know just what is required to win on Friday night.

Panel — C. Ormonde, C. Caples, B. Prendergast, E. Ormonde, A. M. O'Connor (Capt.), G. Barry, C. Ormonde, P. McCarthy, M. Murphy, O. Flynn, G. McGrath, E. Dunne, L. Curley, E. Daly, L. Heaphy, J. Scanlon, C. Tobin, N. Roche, B. O'Keefe, J. Walshe, B. Pollard. Our thanks to everyone who supported our church gate collection last week-end.

Fixtures — Open Week Continues
Thursday 18 Hole Singles, Friday 9 Hole; Ladies and Gents, Saturday and Sunday 18 Hole Singles; Monday 9 Hole Open Mixed Foursomes.

Ladies Section
Results — Wednesday July 21st, Eileen Murphy Foursomes — 1st, E. Tinnelly (18) v. M. Fives (19) 67 1/2; 2nd, N. Kelleher (24) and T. Ryan (25) 67 1/2.

FIXTURES

Wednesday August 3rd (Hole Stroke. Entry re-entry.

SENIOR HURLERS WIN

On Sunday last Lismore senior hurlers defeat Portlaw by 2-13 to 2-6 in their last game of the league section of the county championships. This result has Lismore and Mount Sion level at the top of their group and a play-off will now be needed to see which of them qualify for the semi-finals while the losers will qualify for the quarter finals. At this stage Lismore must be quietly confident of winning the championship as each outing has seen an improvement all round.

Dungarvan Scouts Notes

BALLYFIN '93

On Monday last our scout troop set off on its annual camp for 10 days to Ballyfin, Co. Offaly from the 27th July to 5th August. Like Jamborora in Mt. Melleray in 1977, Portumna in 1985, this year's camp is an international jamboree organised by the 3 scouting organisations which exist in Ireland at present, namely C.B.S.I. (Catholic Boy Scouts of Ireland) of which scout troops in Co. Waterford are part of, S.A.I. (Scout Association of Ireland) a non-denomination scout organisation and N.I.S.C. (the Northern Ireland Scout Council). Over 6,000 scouts are participating of which almost 1,000 are overseas scouts. From Na Deise Region (West Waterford Scout Region), the Touraneena and Stradbally scout troops are also taking part.

The annual scout camp is the most important scouting activity in the scouting year as all the training, test work, skills, etc. are put to practical use. It is the real test for scouts as for almost 2 weeks they will live, eat, sleep in groups, cook and fend for themselves, depending upon themselves and their comrades to get by. It is really pointless for boys to join scouting if they are not prepared to go on camp. The winter months are used to prepare the scouts in the skills, etc. that they will use during the summer months. Hikes, week-end camps, and in particular annual camp.

CARD DRIVE

Our progressive 45 card drive finished last Tuesday and proved to be a very successful fundraising venture. Our thanks in particular must go to Mrs. Helen O'Grady for her invaluable help which is greatly appreciated, to the Park House for the use of their facilities and our own organiser and committee member Mrs. Noreen Wright. The job of fundraising is becoming increasingly more difficult as the financial demands on parents increase each year. Without successful fundraising events it would be impossible for the Scout Unit to survive. Our thanks also goes to our sponsors, with so many worthy causes looking for sponsorship their sponsorship is greatly appreciated.

PRINCIPLES OF SCOUTING

1. A scout is grateful for the gift of faith, cherishes it all his life and is faithful to its practices.
2. A scout loves his country.
3. The duty of a scout begins in the home.

President Robinson Given Tumultuous Reception In Ardmore

President Robinson accompanied by Mrs. Caroline Bowen-Walsh viewing the Tidy Towns Plaque, surrounded by a section of the huge crowd present for the Presidential visit.

competition, has enhanced the many historical resources of the village.

"The community spirit, which is so essential if you are to achieve overall victory in the Tidy Towns, is here aplenty in Ardmore," said President Robinson. "You certainly know how to do things well," she added.

The President went on to say how wholly appropriate it is that she should visit the award winning resort on Pattern Day — the celebration of Ardmore's patron saint, St. Declan.

The President then undertook a walkabout through the village and inspected the bronze plaque commemorating the overall Tidy Towns win which was unveiled last May in the President's absence because of her State visit to Spain.

Before she took her departure — with the promise to return yet again at some time in the future — the President was made a presentation by Mrs. Bowen-Walsh of a specially bound and autographed book by Molly Keane.

It was a Pattern Day in Ardmore that its people will never forget.

National Safety Council

BANK HOLIDAY SAFETY

This August Bank Holiday Week-end the National Safety Council is issuing a special appeal to everyone to be aware of dangers on the road and in the water and to take the necessary steps to prevent accidents.

In all our interests, drivers are requested to remember that an accident can happen in a split second with tragic consequences.

★ Concentrate on your safe driving at all times

★ Always be prepared for the unexpected.

★ Don't take chances.

★ Speeding and dangerous driving can kill.

★ Always respect the rights of other road users.

★ Speed limits are there for a reason - so observe them.

Drivers and passengers should wear their seat belts on all journeys.

WATER SAFETY

In 1992 183 people drowned in Ireland. The National Safety Council points out that most drowning accidents are avoidable and issues the following advice:

Parents and group leaders please remember that a child can drown in just a few inches of water, make sure that they are constantly supervised.

NOTE FLAGS DISPLAYED

★ The area between 2 Red and Yellow flags is under the supervision of Lifeguards.

★ No Flag - No Lifeguard.

When Going For A Swim:

- If possible do use a beach or swimming area patrolled by Lifeguards.

- Pay attention to signs in the vicinity warning of specific dangers.

- Listen to the lifeguard and heed his/her warnings.

- Swim close and parallel to the shore within your capability.

- Don't swim after a meal or taking alcohol.

- Don't swim alone or in strange places and stay within your depth.

- Don't use air mattresses.

- Don't swim out after anything drifting.

- Don't play dangerous games in the water.

WELCOME HOME

Welcome home to the Singleton family, Ballyvolahane, Kill, who are home on holidays until the start of September. We hope they enjoy their stay and the weather holds up for them.

KILL SUMMER FESTIVAL

This year the Festival does not commence until August 1 due to championship games. On Sunday, August 1, Ballygunner take on Glenmore in the senior hurling game for the Michael Hennessy Memorial Trophy. Monday, August 2 is the Field Day with sports, mini-golf, shot putt, etc. There will also be a pubs tournament where Bally Inn play Kirwans, Kill and Carrolls Cross Inn play Dunphys, Kill. The final will take place on Monday evening at 5 p.m. On Monday night, St. Saviours play Kilrossanty in the McGrath Cup senior football game. These two senior games should bring out a big crowd and are sure to be very enjoyable.

ON HOLIDAY

On holiday at present in England is Martin and Suzanne Kennedy, Kilbeg, Kill. We hope they enjoy their short vacation across the sea.

KILL G.A.A. — JUNIOR FOOTBALLERS

On Saturday night last the junior footballers took on De La Salle in the championship. This was a crucial game to win. The lads started out well and at half time were leading on a score of 1-4 to 0-2, but in the second half De La Salle took over and ran out eventual winners on a score of 0-11 to 1-6.

Our next match is this Friday, July 30 against Roanmore and throw-in is at 7.30 p.m.

NEW RESIDENTS

We welcome into the Kill area international showjumper Francis Connors and his wife. We hope Francis and his family enjoy their stay here.

Ardmore Notes

CONGRATULATIONS

Last Saturday Terri Troy, Curragh, Ardmore walked up the aisle of St. Declan's Church with Colin McLean, Old Bridge, Clonmel. We wish them both many years of happiness. Not every couple get married on the day of a Presidential visit.

PRESIDENTIAL VISIT

On Saturday last Ardmore welcomed President Mary Robinson. She drove through the Village along the High Road to view the work which Ardmore did to win the Tidy Towns Award.

She had been met by a Guard of Honour of the Civil Defence and the Brass Band played the Presidential Salute and waiting for her at the end of the Village was a huge crowd with scouts, girl guides, cubs, members of the 31st Waterford providing a Guard of Honour under James Moloney.

Caroline Bowen-Walsh began by welcoming the President and went on to give credit to all involved in Tidy Towns and all the people of the Village.

In her address president Robinson congratulated all concerned and expressed the wish that someday she might holiday in Ardmore.

New Solicitor For Dungarvan

David played for three years in the Kerry county senior football championship with the Tracy Kerins O'Rahilly's Club before transferring back to Dungarvan in 1991 and has since won senior football championship honours with the Old Boro' club in successive years.

He has also won several other championships from juvenile level up with the club and has played inter-county hurling and football in different grades in Waterford.

Sport of course is immersed in the family tradition. His father Mick played with Mitchelstown, Avond-hu and St. Nicks at club level and was an outstanding midfielder in Cork's march to the 1967 All-Ireland senior football final when his hopes of capturing the coveted medal were dashed by Meath.

David's brother Eddie is the holder of three senior football championships and several under-age honours with Dungarvan. He is presently studying for a law degree.

One of a family of seven, four boys and three girls, David is looking forward to building up his law practise in what he has long since come to regard as his home town.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

THE LATE MINNIE O'REGAN

It is with deep sadness and regret we record the death after a brief illness of Mrs. Minnie O'Regan, Lower Cork Hill, Youghal on July 10th at the Bon Secours Hospital, Cork. A member of the well known Flanagan family Minnie was a sister of Mrs. Betty Fleming, Ardsallagh, Clashmore and an aunt of Mrs. Christine Coughlan, Ballycurrane. One of Youghal's most successful business ladies having purchased the premises known as the U-Tree in Youghal it quickly became known as "Minnies". Minnie and her husband Michael worked extremely hard and it provided some great entertainment for both young and old. Some well known bands rose to fame due to people like Minnie O'Regan who gave them a chance to show their talents. Some great tributes were paid to Minnie by such bands as Paddy O'Brien.

A friend to everyone, Minnie was always on hand to make sure everyone enjoyed themselves and got home safely.

Following their retirement 3 years ago Minnie was still full of life and energy. It is indeed very sad that she and her devoted husband Michael could not have had more time together to enjoy that retirement.

Our deepest and heartfelt sympathy is extended to her husband Michael, her sons Mickey and Patsy, her daughter Marie and all the family on their great loss.

HURLING CAMP IN ARDMORE

Following the success of the football camp on the previous week, the summer camp in hurling was even more successful as 100 young boys and girls from throughout West Waterford were coached in the varied skills of hurling in Ardmore.

Five excellent coaches made the week enjoyable and memorable for everyone.

We extend a special word of thanks to Peter Power, Pdraig Fanning, Ned Power, Peter Power Jnr. and McDara McDonagh.

The highlight of the week was a visit on Wednesday from one of Cork's greats Cathal Casey who spoke to the children and signed autographs.

Thanks to the Ardmore Club who looked after everyone so well.

SYMPATHY EXTENDED

The entire farming community of this area extend their deepest sympathy to Mrs. Rita Curran, Ballinamona, Old Parish and her sons Martin, Patrick and Tomás on the death of Tom Curran recently.

Tom was a very popular member of the staff at Waterford Foods Shop in Dungarvan until his retirement a short time ago. A kind, helpful, courteous man who will be greatly missed by everyone.

REMEDIAL TEACHER

It was recently announced by the Department of Education that the services of a Remedial Teacher has been granted between Clashmore, Piltown, Ballycurrane, Grange and Ardmore National Schools.

The teacher will be appointed within the next few weeks and will commence work in September. We hope this service will be of benefit to many pupils.

WITH COMPANY IN SPAIN

Following his recent appointment to the staff of M. F. Kent and Co., Clonmel, Ardsallagh fitter Michael Lynch has now travelled to Spain to take up a position with the company there. Congratulations and the best of luck to you Michael in your new position.

HOLIDAY IN KINSALEBEG

Presently enjoying one of his regular visits to Kinsalebeg is Tom Ronayne, a native of Lackensilla, Geosh who now lives and works in England. Hope you have an enjoyable holiday Tom.

VISITING HIS NATIVE AREA

Michael Geary a native of Ardsallagh and now living in the United States visited this area in recent weeks. Michael, brother of Mrs. Rita Keogh, visited many relatives and friends throughout Ireland. The highlight of his visit must have been a reunion with his life long friend Dan Hogan, also a native of Ardsallagh. Dan, now living in Plymouth, England is a brother of Willie Hogan. Great to see you both.

MASS

We are reminded once again of the Mass for our dead who are laid to rest in Clashmore cemetery. The graveyard Mass will be celebrated in Clashmore on this Friday night July 30th. As many as possible are asked to come.

ENGAGED

Belated congratulations are extended to Joseph Russell, Coolbagh, Clashmore son of Paddy and Peggy Russell on the occasion of his engagement to Nicole Bamford, Co. Cork. We wish the best of luck to both of you in the years ahead.

NEW BABY

Clashmore Tidy Towns Association and all their neighbours and friends here in Clashmore wish to extend their congratulations to the Laffin family, Laura, Justin and their son Luke on the birth of the latest addition to the family a little baby girl on Tuesday last.

Laura is a very popular secretary of our Tidy Towns Association.

DONORS REQUIRED

On Tuesday and Wednesday next August 3rd and 4th the Blood Transfusion board will be in action at the Community Centre, Youghal, from 3.00 p.m. to 5.00 p.m. and 7.30 pm. to 9.30 p.m. New donors from East Cork and West Waterford are always welcome.

WEST WATERFORD HUNT

Pony Club Barbeque — It has been a busy week for our pony club. On Thursday evening (July 15th) Rose Marie Kingston, Louise Condon and Fiona Dineen gave our three groups of members some valuable information on stable management, horse care and preparing a pony for travelling.

The evening ended with a barbeque with some great food prepared by Nick Trigg and some helpers.

CLASHMORE-KINSALEBEG G.A.A. CLUB NOTES

Tarmac — This year we have made a major advancement with our G.A.A. field here in Clashmore with the tarring of the car park on the road side of the pitch. This has been an expensive programme for our club but thanks to all our members who gave a helping hand it has been a great addition to the field.

Cards — Congratulations to last week's winners Con O'Connell and Mary Dower winners of last Monday nights 45 drive in Clashmore. The club and all our card players extend a warm welcome back to one of our great 45 players Eileen Delaney who has been off the scene due to illness. All were delighted to see her back last Monday night.

Player Injured — Get well wishes to one of our juvenile players Roger Ryan who is presently out of action due to a hand injury.

Student Scheme — Two young students Sinead O'Rourke and Vinny Murray began work on our pitch and club house here in Clashmore as part of the summer student employment scheme.

Munster U-21 Final — Well done to Clashmore-Kinsalebeg player Michael Fenton who played a great match with Waterford against Kerry in the Munster U-21 football final at Walsh park on Friday night, final score Waterford 3-5 Kerry 1-21. Waterford played a very sporting match under team coach Clashmore man Tim O'Keefe and were beaten by the better team on the night.

Draw — The July draw of the Decies Development

Draw will be held on this Friday night July 30th. Let's hope we have some local winner this time around.

Community Games — On Saturday last our county finalists U-10 and U-14 drafts teams from Clashmore travelled to Limerick for the Munster finals. We were drawn against Cork at both levels in the first round. Despite a great challenge by all our members we failed to make it through to the second round.

It was an enjoyable day with a short shopping stop in Cahir being the highlight of the trip.

A special word of thanks to our teams coach Helen Trihy who did trojan work with the teams over the past few weeks and travelled with us on the day and to bus driver Mick Baker.

PONY CLUB CAMP

On Sunday night July 18th 42 children assembled at Fortwilliam, Lismore for the annual West Waterford pony club camp. Over the four days all received some valuable instruction from Rose Marie Kingston, Geraldine Duffy from Galway, Laura Griffiths, Monatrea Riding Centre and Mark Davern, Clonmel.

During the week members were treated to a lecture on the Evolution of the house from Paul Cogan, Dunmoon and Jimmy Trigg kindly showed a video and gave a talk on working on the racing world in England and America.

Thanks to all the mums who prepared the food, it was enjoyed by the hungry troop. All members would like to thank the instructors, the organisers and everyone who helped in any way to make camp so successful and enjoyable.

Last but not least we would like to say a big

DUNGARVAN SHOW

Our teams take part in the pony club game at Dungarvan Show on this Thursday. It should be a lot of fun to watch.

ONE DAY EVENT

Anyone wishing to take part in the Pony Club one day event should contact the organiser Mrs. Laura Griffiths at Monatrea Riding Centre. Anyone wishing to take part in the event can contact Laura at (024) 94214 August 8th is the date for this event.

NEW DATE

August 10th is the new date for our Pony Club Rally at Duffy, Aglish. It commences at 11.30-3.30 with some of our members taking their D+ test.

DEATH OF JACKIE FLEMING

It is with a heavy heart and loss. Our deepest and heartfelt sympathy is extended to them and to his brothers Willie and Michael on their great loss.

Following his sudden death on Friday evening while Kathleen was ill in hospital, he was taken to Egans Funeral Home. Following the prayers on Saturday evening Jackie was taken to Clashmore Church which was filled to capacity as all came to pay their last respects to a wonderful friend. Again on Sunday morning a huge crowd attended requiem Mass to say their last goodbye to their great friend Jackie as he was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. May you rest peacefully here Jackie.

CLASHMORE TIDY TOWNS ASSOCIATION

Clashmore Tidy Towns Association were very pleased to hear that two more of its younger members have been approved for the summer student work scheme. They commenced work with us here in the Village last week. Brian and Connor Foley joined the other four members, Johnny Long, Francis O'Halloran, Micheál Lombard and Francis O'Rourke who are already doing trojan work in the area.

Cappoquin Notes

CAPPOQUIN LADIES BREAK DEADLOCK

CLASHMORE 1-5 CAPPOQUIN 3-4

Our first victory was secured in terrific fashion against Clashmore on Monday last. This win is sure to make a difference to the club only set up five months ago. The game was a fine, clean sporting one with each team giving everything they had. Cappoquin certainly played as if their lives depended on it. The standard of football was quite good and was a pleasure to watch.

Cappoquin led at the interval 1-1 to 0-1. For Cappoquin the full line of defence of Olive Stapleton, Honor Lonergan and Eda Fleming were out-standing. Half back line of Patricia (superkid) O'Brien who played a dynamite game, Edel Lonergan and Claire Reddy worked really hard. At mid-field Caroline Ormonde and Jenny Mason proved what they were capable of. Half forward line of Tina Manahan, Jackie Fleming and Catherine McCarthy turned on the style. Full forward line of Vivian (Giggs) Unacke, Veronica O'Keeffe and Mary Russell played with tremendous spirit. Super subs included Jenny Murphy and Brigid Murray.

Well done to all. We now meet St. Pats in the final of the Junior Shield.

Training on Tuesday at 7.30.

ON COUNTY TEAM

Congratulations to Honor Lonergan who plays full back on the Waterford Junior panel who have reached the Munster final.

CHURCH GATE COLLECTION

Thanks to all who subscribed to this collection.

SUMMER CAMP

Thanks to all and well done to Dunhill Sports Centre for the recent summer camp. All members of our club who participated had a fabulous week. (P.S. so had I)

CAPPOQUIN F.C. A.G.M. 1993-'94

The Annual General Meeting of the above club was held on Wednesday last the 21st at Walsh's Hotel.

The meeting proved to be one of our most successful in recent years.

The following are the officers elected — Chairman: Noel O'Donoghue; Vice Chairman: Pa Curran; Secretary: Conor O'Leary; Treasurer: Darren Mason; Committee: Charlie Barry, David Moore, James Mason, Eugene McLoughlin, Michael Looby, Garry Morrissey, Ken O'Donnell, Dean Morrissey, Trevor Mason; P.R.O.: Darren Mason.

Eugene McLoughlin stepped down as A team manager after two successful seasons, during which the side won the league title and were runners-up in all cup competition missing out on a league and cup double only on penalties to Ballyduff in the Dungarvan Tyre Centre Cup in the '91-'92 season. An excellent record by any standards.

Darren Mason was elected manager of the A side and now has the unenviable task of selecting one squad from both A and B panels.

The decision on who would succeed Darren as B team manager was deferred to this Friday night pending a meeting in which both squads will be announced. The venue is as usual Walsh's Hotel at 9.30 p.m. It is in the interest of all players to attend.

ARAGLEN CUP FINAL

Cappoquin Selection 2 Lismore 3

On Thursday night last we travelled to Araglen to compete in the final of the annual festival soccer tournament. After a thoroughly enjoyable match we found ourselves losers by the odd goal in five to cup specialists Lismore. On target for us were 'Leonardo' Morrissey and Billy O'Shea who was obviously still suffering the effects of his two weeks abroad.

Our thanks to Araglen for inviting us into the tournament and to Lismore for a sporting match.

TAVERN CUP

First Round — Our Annual Tournament commenced last Saturday evening at Railway Athletic's ground. We would like to take this opportunity to thank both Railway for the use of their pitch and, of course, Mick and Rose O'Brien for their sponsorship. Once again we have a large entry in the tournament.

Railway Athletic 4 Bride View Utd. 2

With both sides a little understrength this didn't prevent either side from serving up their usual good football, with Railway running out eventual winners although the two-goal winning margin was probably a bit flattering.

Thanks to Tommy O'Sullivan for refereeing the match at such short notice.

TOURIST OFFICE NOW OPEN

The office at the Library is now open and we understand that the staff there have been dealing with a good number of visitors seeking information about our local amenities as well as advice on guest houses and other accommodation. The Tidy Towns Committee are to be congratulated for putting this facility in place. Thanks is due to Waterford County Council who made the premises available as well to the third level students who man the office.

AT THE SPORTSFIELD

The game at the venue on Saturday evening was the junior hurling championship clash of Clashmore and Geraldines. The wind played a big part in this game, blowing towards the road goal it favoured the Aglish men in the first half.

They opened with a point from Deckie Carlton in the first minute. He followed this with a fine goal when he finished off a good movement which involved Paddy Corkery and Eddie O'Grady. Eddie himself scored an opportunist goal when he nipped in to tip home a ball which should have easily been cleared by the Clashmore backs.

The backs at the other end were having their problems as well finding it very difficult to hold the hardworking Hynes brothers. Gabriel Hynes had a goal and Geraldines were forced to make changes in their full back line.

They also had to contend with the accuracy of centre forward Ml. Shalloe. At half time it was 2-6 to 2-5 in favour of Geraldines. Clashmore with wind advantage began to play with more confidence and when Gabriel Hynes scored his second goal they looked as though they would coast home but Geraldines fought back with points by O'Grady and Brian Connery leaving just two points between them but they were unable to come any closer and further points from Shalloe ensured a Clashmore victory. Final Score Clashmore 3-12 Geraldines 3-8.

Clashmore are now certain to be in the knock-out stages of the competition, however, they will have to improve especially in the defence if they are to be crowned champions.

TEAMS

Clashmore — L. O'Donnell, T. O'Keeffe, M. Devine, M. O'Connell, D. Salmon, S. McGrath, R. Hynes, D. Fitzgerald, C. O'Riordan, M. Coughlan, M. Shalloe, P. Lombard, B. O'Neill, M. Hynes, G. Hynes.

Geraldines — P. Connery, P. O'Brien, J. O'Brien, J. Lonergan, S. Osbourne, S. Meskill, L. Maher, N. Ahearne, B. O'Connell, N. Scanlon, D. O'Brien, B. Connery, D. Carlton, P.

BEREAVED

Sympathy is extended to David McGrath, Tourin on the death of his father David (snr.) which sad event occurred on Saturday last.

AFFANE

BRIDGE CLUB
Results July 19 — 1st, M. Walsh and B. Bergin; 2nd, K. Barry and B. Tobin; 3rd, S. Lane and K. Greaney; 4th, B. Norris and S. Power.

Corkery, E. O'Grady. Referee — J. M. Kelly (Shamrocks)

CURTAIN RAISER

The curtain raiser on Sunday afternoon was the eagerly awaited junior hurling 'B' section final Tourin v. Glen Rovers. The same teams met at the same stage last year when the Glens were successful so, of course, Tourin felt that they had something to prove while the Melleray boys weren't going to relinquish their title easily.

The Glens had first advantage of the gale force wind and had an early point from a free by Aidan Power. Their next score was a mighty point from play by wingback Tom Duggan which he hit from all of 100 yards out by the sideline. They had four further points, all scored by that excellent free taker, Aidan Power. Tourin could only manage one score in the thirty minutes but this was a goal on the stroke of half time by that great servant of the club William Leahy.

A feature of the first period was the length of the puck outs by goalkeeper David Kiely. On more than one occasion the ball dropped inside the opponents 21 yard line. For the most part, however, the forwards weren't able to take advantage due to the close marking of the Tourin back line.

The Glens resumed the assault at the start of the second half but the wind was still a major factor. The Red and Whites were woefully inaccurate from frees but Tom Fives did manage to put a few over to keep his team in touch. Then as often happens they got a lucky break. A lob from Tom Fives which Kiely seemed to have covered was deflected accidentally by full back Nugent and ended up in the net.

Tourin were now in sight of victory and weren't going to let go. They introduced and entire new full forward line which included that great veteran Peter Scanlon who immediately added some much needed punch to the sector. As well as this their midfielders Leahy and Moore were on top while John Fives at centre back showed flashes of his old form. Even though they didn't score again they held on to win by 2 points. Final score 2-4 to 0-8.

TEAMS

Tourin — M. Looby, P. Leahy, P. O'Keeffe, J. Dalton, K. O'Donnell, J. Fives, K. Wilkinson, D. Moore, T. D. Leahy, C. Scanlon, T. Fives, J. Collender, M. Morrissey, W. Leahy. Subs. — K. Wilkinson for Collender, P. Scanlon for Morrissey, J. McGrath for W. Leahy.

Glen Rovers — D. Kiely, J. Nugent, G. Power, J. O'Rourke, T. Duggan, J.

Power, J. Kett, K. Curran, M. Crowley, A. Power, L. O'Donnell, S. Murphy, P. Tobin, R. Lyons, T. O'Donnell. Subs. — D. O'Rourke for J. O'Rourke, L. Houlihan for Lyons. Referee — J. M. Kelly (Shamrocks)

In must have been a joyous occasion for that doyen of Tourin men Ollie Wilkinson in his capacity as Western Board Chairman when he presented the trophy to Tom Fives, captain of the winning team.

BEST GAME

From a hurling point of view probably the best game of the week-end was the junior hurling meeting of Abbeyside and Tallow which took place on Sunday evening. This was the final of the "second string" section with a place for the winners in the knock-out stages. Tallow had wind advantage in the first half. During this period that great veteran Mickey Curley was lording it at mid-field which ensured a good supply of ball for the forwards. Corner man M. McCarthy scored two fine goals and was a constant menace to the Village backs. They led at half time 2-4 to 2-3 Abbeyside had two advantages for the second half the wind and a greater level of fitness. There was some great striking of the ball from both sides and some splendid scores making it a most enjoyable game to watch. Abbeyside ran out the winners on the score 4-8 to 3-7. The Tallow club can be proud of their juniors, their exit from the championship was an honourable one indeed. Abbeyside will continue the quest for honours and will, we feel, be a match for the best.

TEAMS

Abbeyside — P. McGovern, P. Breen, D. Walsh, J. Whelan, K. Tobin, G. Breen, F. McGovern, J. Stacey, B. O'Mahoney, P. Duggan, C. Clancy, L. Brennan, M. Enright, W. Kiely, R. Duggan.

Tallow — S. O'Brien, M. Sheehan, C. Curley, M. Geary, D. Martin, B. Sheehan, P. Henley, C. Hourigan, M. Curley, E. Cusack, F. Flynn, E. Power, M. McCarthy, M. Henley, W. Murphy. Referee — J. J. Landers (Affane-Cappoquin).

AFFANE-CAPPOQUIN G.A.A. NOTES GATE COLLECTION

The committee of the club has decided to re-introduce the rota system for Gate Collection which was in operation a few years ago. The rota will commence on Sunday next and will continue until the 30th October, 39 Club members will be involved. Members on duty on Sunday and for the following week will be Michael Fraher, James Mason and Eamonn Costin.

★ SAGITTARIUS NOV. 23 to DEC. 21 Don't let that fiery temper get the better of you this week. When someone pushes you to your limits, remain calm and count to ten. You'll feel better than you did and you'll get the better of your antagonist. In a work situation, be prepared to "have a go." Your natural versatility and ingenuity won't let you down. Phone the number below for more Astrological details.

★ CAPRICORN DEC 22 to JAN 20 If missing someone who has recently left your circle, don't fret. You won't be left lonely for long! Romantic or emotional relationships can be improved through direct communication — even if this initially proves difficult or strained. An older person needs care, attention and just a little mothering. Phone the number below for more details.

★ AQUARIUS JAN 21 to FEB 19 Don't feel the need to justify all your actions or decisions to others. Stand strong in matters of principal. Parents must offer advice and support but ultimately need to let children find their own feet. If a legal or bureaucratic issue confuses you, telephone the Astroline for astrological clarification.

Deirdre Reilly Returns

Since her last Irish visit before Christmas, Deirdre has completed a coast to coast American tour with the highly popular Tony Kenny show and she has been to Nashville to record some new material for an album to be released later this year. Now 22, Deirdre has been singing professionally since she was 15 and with strong Irish roots - her mother is a Co. Cork woman and her father from Mayo.

Back in Ireland for a singing tour is Deirdre Reilly, the American lass with a brogue in her voice. Deirdre carved quite a niche for herself on the Irish music scene during two visits here last year and her return is by public demand.

Deirdre began her singing career with Irish American groups in her home state of Massachusetts, moving on to a career which embraced several seasons at the Opryland Showpark in Nashville. Last year she made her debut on the recording scene in Ireland with a lively country 'n' Irish collection.

See Deirdre at the Cats Bar, Melleray on this Saturday night July 31st.

In Memoriam

CORCORAN — Twentieth Anniversary — In loving memory of Patrick Corcoran, Knockadunlea, Araglen, whose anniversary occurs around this time. Masses offered.

It is not what we write or say,
It is how we feel inside,
As we think of you today,
Will those who think of him today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by his loving wife, Mary and family.)

DONOVAN — Eleventh Anniversary — In loving memory of Patrick Donovan, late of 47, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, who died on July 31, 1982. R.I.P. Masses offered.

We never part from those we love,
No distance can divide,
Memory dear and love sincere,
We still walk side by side.
(Always remembered by Breda, Francis and family.)

NOONAN — Fourteenth Anniversary — In fond remembrance of Paddy, late of Thomas Terrace, Dungarvan whose anniversary occurs at this time.

Will those who think of him today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Nonie and family.)

NUGENT — Sixth Anniversary — In loving memory of Thomas Nugent, late of Coolydoody, Ballyduff, who died on July 28, 1987. R.I.P. Masses offered.

Too dearly loved to be forgotten.
(Lovingly remembered by his parents, brother and sisters.)

O'DOWD — Sixth Anniversary — In lovely memory of Margaret O'Dowd, late of Sunlawn, Affane, Cappoquin, who died on August 1, 1987.

Along the road to yesterday,
That leads us straight to you,
Are memories of happy days,
Together we once knew.
The blow was hard, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear,
Our loss is great, we'll not complain,
But trust in God to meet again.
(From her daughter Mary, son-in-law Philip, grandsons Ger and Conor.)

O'DOWD — Sixth Anniversary — In lovely memory of Margaret O'Dowd, late of Sunlawn, Affane, Cappoquin, who died on August 1, 1987.

A little tribute small and tender,
Just to show we still remember,
A heart of gold, a life so true,
Loved and respected by all she knew.
Always willing, helpful and kind,
What beautiful memories she left behind,
Will those who think of her today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(From her son Philip, daughter-in-law Carmel, grandchildren Sara, Nicola, Christopher.)

O'DOWD — Sixth Anniversary — In lovely memory of Margaret O'Dowd, late of Sunlawn, Affane, Cappoquin, who died on August 1, 1987.

A lot in life has altered,
A lot in life is new,
But the things that never alter,
Are memories of you.
It isn't what we write, it isn't what we say,
It's how we feel inside, when we think of you today.
(From your loving son, David.)

O'DOWD — Sixth Anniversary — In lovely memory of Margaret O'Dowd, late of Sunlawn, Affane, Cappoquin, who died on August 1, 1987.

A million times we've missed you,
A million times we've cried,
If love could have saved you,
You never would have died.
Things we feel most deeply,
Are the hardest things to say,
Our dearest one we've always loved you,
In a special way.
(From her son Michael, daughter-in-law Berni and grandsons Ger and Jamie.)

O'NEILL — First Anniversary — In fond and loving memory of my dear husband, Felix O'Neill, 33, Beechurst Gardens, Selsdin, South Croydon, Surrey, who died on August 4, 1992. Masses offered. R.I.P.

I lost my life's companion,
A life linked with my own,
And day by day I pray for you,
As I walk through life alone.
The house you left is lonely now,
And I am lonely too,
Those left behind are good and kind,
But none replaces you.
To me you were so special,
What more is there to say,
Except I wish with all my heart,
That you were here today.
(Your heartbroken wife, Ann.)

O'NEILL — First Anniversary — In loving memory of our Dad, Felix O'Neill, 33, Beechurst Gardens, Selsdin, South Croydon, Surrey, who died on August 4, 1992.

August comes with sad regret,
The time of the year we will not forget,
We did not see you close your eyes,
Or hear your last goodbye,
We only heard that you were gone,
Too late to say goodbye.
(Your loving son Shane and daughter Tara.)

SLATTERY — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of John, Ballygagin, Dungarvan, who died on July 26, 1988. Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on his soul.
(From your loving sister Nancy and family.)

WADE — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of Helen Wade, late of Sheare's Street, Abbeyside, who died on July 24, 1988. Our Lady of Lourdes pray for her.

Will those who think of her today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Mother-in-law Jo and family.)

MICHAEL C. NAGLE

The wife and family of the late Michael C. Nagle, Editor and Proprietor of the "Dungarvan Leader" wish to thank all those who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; those who sent Mass cards, floral tributes and letters of sympathy; those who attended the removal and funeral, Mass and burial. A very special word of thanks to Dr. Maurice O'Sullivan who cared so well for him and for the kindness he showed the family during his short illness; to Sr. Breda Doyle and Mary Conaty of the Hospice Movement, Nurse Nollaig McCarthy, Nurse Eileen Kelly, Nurse Ann Kelleher, who were all so good to him; to Fr. Peter Ahearne, C.C., who visited regularly; Fr. Coleman, Mount Melleray for his spiritual guidance and Very Rev. Fr. R. Doherty for his moving homily during the celebrated Mass and James Kiely & Sons, Undertakers. A special thanks also to club PROs for their kind votes of sympathy and the District Correspondents for their kind tributes. The holy sacrifice of the Mass has been offered for all.

WRIGHT — The son, daughter, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandchildren, relatives and friends of the late Mary Wright, 32, Congress Villas, Dungarvan, wish to thank most sincerely all those who sympathised with them during their recent sad bereavement; all those who attended the removal, Requiem Mass and burial; those who sent Mass cards and floral tributes. A very special word of thanks to the Matron, nurses and staff of the District Hospital for their kindness to her during her illness. As a token of deep appreciation the holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for their intentions.

DREA-MOLONEY — The family of the late Eileen Drea-Moloney, St. Patrick's Terrace, Abbeyside, wish to thank all those who sympathised with them in their recent bereavement; those who attended the Rosary, removal and funeral; those who sent Mass cards, floral tributes and letters of sympathy. A special word of thanks to Matron and staff, District Hospital and St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan; to Doctors I. Brennock and Maurice O'Sullivan, and to the nurses who formed the guard of honour; to Fr. C. Scanlan, and local and visiting clergy. We trust this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment. The holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for their intentions.

TUTTY — Fifteenth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Margaret Tutty, late of Congress Villas, Dungarvan, who died July 23, 1978. Mass offered.

If I could visit heaven, Mam,
On this my saddest day,
Maybe just for a moment,
The pain would go away.
I would put my arms around you, Mam,
And say these words so true,
My heart has held an empty space,
Since the day that I lost you.
And so today I pray, Mam,
That God will let you know,
How lonely life is without you,
And how I miss you so.
(Always remembered by her loving daughter Bridie, son-in-law Pat and family.)

MEEHAN — The wife and family of the late John Meehan, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan, wish to thank most sincerely all those who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; those who attended the removal, Mass and funeral; those who sent Mass cards, letters of sympathy and floral tributes, and all those who travelled long distances to be with us; to our very kind neighbours who helped in many different ways. Our thanks to the clergy who attended, especially Fr. John Kiely for his visits and kindness. A special word of thanks to Dr. Brady and the Matron, nurses and staff of the District Hospital, Dungarvan and the Waterford Home Care Services for their attention and care. Thanks to the members of the Dungarvan GAA Club who provided a guard of honour; the St. Mary's Parish Church Choir; members of the local press for their kind tributes and Messrs. J. Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors. As it would be impossible to thank everyone individually please accept this as a token of our deepest gratitude. The holy sacrifice of the Mass has been offered for your intentions.

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN (Never known to fail) — O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendour of heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favour is granted. Grateful thanks to the Blessed Virgin for favour received. — M.

KILROSSANTY NOTES

WEDDING
A lovely wedding took place in Kilrossanty Church last Saturday between Nuala McEvoy, youngest daughter of Brian and Phyllis McEvoy, Graiguerush and Alfredo second son of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Campo-Fort, Spain. The best man was Juan Pablo, while the bridesmaid was Rebecca Higgins, niece of the bride. Kilrossanty and Fews Choir rendered some beautiful hymns with the organist Mrs. Kate Walton, The Wirral, Merseyside. The celebrant was Fr. Ml. Frawley, P.P.

A reception was held in the Park Hotel, Dungarvan for family and friends. Nuala is the youngest of nine and brothers and sisters came from Japan, Spain and England for this special occasion. Many years of wedded bliss to both of you.

LOTTO
Congratulations to Mrs. Brigid Power, Briskey who had five numbers recently in the Lotto.

MASS
The Mass on Ballintlea Mountain will not take place next Sunday due to unforeseen circumstances. It will, however, take place at a later date.

I.C.A.
A minibus with I.C.A. members and friends went on their annual outing last Tuesday. The first stop was in Tipperary town for breakfast, then on to Limerick for some shopping. Killaloe was the next stop for a cruise on the Shannon which was enjoyed by all. During the cruise the last flyng boat landed for the last time in Irish waters. The flyng boat will now go to Miami to be put in a museum. Evening meal was in Kilcoran Lodge which was very good and they finished the night dancing to the ever popular Richie Halpin, in Lawlors Hotel. All in all a good day was had by all. The driver was Mr. J. Organ, Dungarvan. No meeting will be held in August, so happy holidays until September.

HOLIDAYS
On holidays at the moment are Niall, Kate and daughter Lucy Desmond, Leamybrien, holidaying with Nialls parents.

SHOW
Once again Kilrossanty did well at the Waterford Show last Sunday, Tom Walsh, Pat Whyte and Frank Cunningham all received prizes in the sheep section while Tom Horgan got prizes in the horse section.

SYMPATHY
Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Carmel Kirwan, Kilrossanty on the unexpected death of her brother-in-law Jackie Fleming, Clashmore who was buried in Clashmore cemetery last Sunday. He is survived by his wife Kathleen and three daughters. May he rest in peace. Also to May Power, Briskey, on the death of her brother Thomas Whelan, who died in Watford last week. Burial took place in Watford. May he rest in peace.

SUCCESS
Continued success to Jim Shanahan, Ashtown, on his new horse "Dancing at Lunasa" coming second in Tipperary last week.

MEETING
Hall meeting in Kilrossanty Hall next Tuesday night 3rd August at 8.30 p.m.

COMERAGH QUEEN FESTIVAL
The Comeragh Queen Festival starts this Saturday night and great "crack" is promised throughout the Festival.

MARY POWER CUP
The Mary Power Cup will be played on August 8th in Leamybrien against Stradbally. Under 14 Football.

SOCCER
Crotty's Inn were knocked out of the Heineken Pubs League semi-final last Monday by Paddy Foleys by 2-0. All the players put in a great effort and hopefully they can go one better next year.

Team — R. Whelan, B. Kirwan, B. Whelan, R. Power, P. Whyte, G. Walsh, J. Maher, J. Power, J. Kirwan. Subs. — T. Flynn, T. Keating, B. Lennon.

KILROSSANTY G.A.A. NOTES
Minor Football — Our minors were beaten by Naomh Bríd in the championship in Abbeyside last Monday evening on the score of 2-11 to 0-8. At half time we trailed by 1-8 to 0-5 and late in the match we had a player sent off.

Team — T. Hallahan, A. Wall, O. Fennell (0-1), M. Coffey, V. Harney, B. Lennon (0-1), S. Coffey, C. Dee (0-4), D. Kiely, V. Walsh, K. Hogan, J. Kiely (0-2), C. Keating, P. Walsh, S. Veale. Subs. — J. P. Hallahan, A. Walsh.

Junior Hurling — Our hurlers were beaten by Modeligo in the championship last Saturday evening in Colligan on the score 2-9 to 2-7. We fought very well in this match considering we had only thirteen players at the venue at the start of the match.

Inter County Football — Michael Fitzgerald and Pat Brazil were part of the Waterford team that lost to Kerry last Friday evening in the Munster Under 21 final while Willie Cusack came on as a substitute. Paddy Dee was a selector.

Senior Football — Our seniors are due to meet Kilmacthomas in the championship next Sunday evening in Stradbally. Our last game against Sliabh gCua took place way back on May 15 but since then some hard training has been done by the players and hopefully we can get two more points on Sunday evening.

Junior Football — Our championship game against Ballinacourty which was abandoned two weeks ago is refixed to take place in Stradbally on Sunday afternoon.

KILROSSANTY LADIES FOOTBALL
Community Games — K.C.K. Reach Munster Final — Last Saturday K.C.K. U-14 girls travelled to Limerick University grounds to take part in the Provincial finals for the first time ever. In the first game we were drawn against Cranny/Coolemean, Clare. We completely dominated the game and led by 3-11 to nil at half time. Even against the wind in the second half we were still to the fore and won by 4-11 to 1-1.

Semi-Final — K.C.K. 6-5 Skibereen, Cork 0-5 — About 1 1/2 hours later the girls took the pitch to play the semi-final. We played against the wind in the 1st half. However, this did not effect the girls and within 5 minutes we were 2-1 to no score, goals coming from M. Walsh and F. Power and point from M. Fraher. Cork then kicked 3 points in succession but K.C.K. stepped up a gear and a goal and 2pts. by T. Whyte gave us a 3-3 to 0-3 lead going into the second half. From the throw in we won possession and a quick ball into corner forward A. Wall resulted in a goal. Cork then put on the pressure but some brilliant work by the half-back line of M. Crotty, H. O'Brien and T. Kirwan kept them out. Ten minutes into the half another goal by T. Whyte gave us a 15 point lead. Again we introduced a number of subs. who showed there is very little between the players and making it harder and harder to pick the first 15.

We eventually scored a well deserved victory on a score of 6-5 to 0-5.

Panel — Sharon Nugent, Sabine Dunford, Madeline Power, Joan Fitzgerald, Michelle Crotty, Honor O'Brien, Tanya Kirwan, Ann Morrissey, Marie Morrissey, Martina Walsh, Michelle Fraher, Aileen Wall, Eileen Hickey, Triona Whyte, Paula Walsh, Denise Power, Fiona Power, Christine Keating, Triona Dunford, Angela Byrne.

Munster Final — K.C.K. v. Ballyduff, Kerry — This game will be played on the same grounds, next Friday 30th July at 7.00 p.m

MR. PAT O'DWYER AN APPRECIATION

The recent West Street, passing of the late Pat O'Dwyer has removed from our midst one of nature's gentlemen. Pat who hailed originally from RathJordan, Herbertstown, Co. Limerick, came to reside in Tallow with his wife Mary around 1963. He worked for the department of Agriculture and because of the nature of his job he travelled extensively throughout East Cork and West Waterford. He made a legion of friends where ever he went and all those people who were fortunate to know him came to regard him as a man of great integrity and thoroughly honest in his relations with all people. He was a man who never spoke ill of anyone and he was loved and respected by all those who were so lucky to know such a kind man. In his earlier boyhood years he was a student at St. Flannans College in Ennis where he distinguished himself in many a hard fought game for that great nursery of hurling. He was also an athlete of great prowess. Throughout his life he took a great interest in social and community projects but it was his work for the under privileged section of the community and the poor in general that stamped him as a wonderful Christian and a gentleman of immense stature. He touched the lives of many people with kindness and goodness all of whom will testify to the fact that they were the richer for his friendship and support and most fortunate that a man such as Pat O'Dwyer crossed their paths. His passing has left a void in the community that will be very hard to fill. He was a wonderful husband to his wife Mary and a most caring and loving father to his three children Patricia, Catherine and Seamus to all of whom we tender our deepest sympathy. We will always remember you Pat with great fondness and kindness. Go ndearna Dia trochaire air a anam. B.H.

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

Tallow Bow Out Of Junior Hurling Championship

Tallow 3-7 Abbeyside 4-8

Tallow junior hurlers bowed out of this year's championship when they went under by 4 pts. to Abbeyside in Cappoquin on Sunday night last. Having won the toss and playing with the strong wind Tallow opened up an eight points lead midway through the half when the led by 2-4 to 0-2 but from there to the break they didn't score again, while Abbeyside tacked on 2-1 to leave it at the minimum 2-4 to 2-3 at half time. When Abbeyside levelled within seconds of the restart the writing was on the wall for Tallow. To their credit they kept plugging away. Two more Abbeyside goals in the second half had them leading by 5 point to run out winners on a 4-8 to 3-7 scoreline. Tallow missed a lot of chances in both halves, but it wasn't to be our night and Abbeyside marched on to a quarter final spot against Tourin. We were well served on the night by keeper Seamus O'Brien, Connie Curley at full back, Mick Geary, Denis Martin, Billy Sheehan, Peter Henley and Mick Sheehan in defence. At midfield Ger Hogan and Mickey Curley accounted for 6 pts. between them and some of the points were gems. The forward line tried very hard - Martin McCarthy took his two goals very well ably assisted by William Murphy, Ml. Henley, Eamonn Cusack, Eamonn Power and Frank Ryan at centre forward. The 2 substitutions contributed an awful lot when introduced, James Beecher's goal brought us back into the game and Terrence McSweeney played very well when brought into the full back line.

Team — Seamus O'Brien, Mick Sheehan, Connie Curley, Mick Geary, Denis Martin, Billy Sheehan, Peter Henley, Gerry Hogan 0-2 (65 sideline), Mickey Curley 0-4, Eamonn Power, Frank Ryan, Eamonn Cusack, Martin McCarthy 2-0, Ml. Henley 0-1, William Murphy. Subs. — James Beecher 1-0 for E. Cusack (inj.), Terence McSweeney for Mick Sheehan.

Congratulations to our senior hurling captain Pat Murphy on his engagement to Karen O'Sullivan from Ballygunner. We wish them every happiness.

BRIDE VIEW UTD. A.E.C. NOTES

Brave Display By Our Ladies

U.C.C. 3
Bride View Utd. 0

Our ladies team put up a brave performance against the very experienced U.C.C. side in the final of the Corkbeg 5-a-side league.

From the kick off our defence was under pressure but Mary Pratt denied them twice in the first five minutes. U.C.C. took the lead in the 10th minute and they held this lead till the break.

The U.C.C. side were on top again in the second half but both Linda Curley and Val Cunningham both went close in the opening few minutes. However, two quick goals in the space of 3 minutes clinched victory for the college side.

This was the first game for our girls and they did very well. Mary and Imelda Pratt played well as did the Curley sisters Angela and Linda. While Val Cunningham, Fiona Henley and Patricia Pratt all gave good displays against a top class U.C.C. side which included a Republic of Ireland international.

The girls received their runners up trophies after the game and came home happy. Well done girls.

THE TAVERN CUP RAILWAY ATHLETIC 4 BRIDE VIEW UTD. 2

A very youthful Utd. side took on Railway Athletic on Saturday last in Cappoquin. Railway went in front in the first minute but Philly Curley equalised from the penalty spot in the 28th minute. At the break the sides were level.

Railway went in front midway through the second half but again Utd. came back to equalise when Gerard Hogan scored from the penalty spot.

However, 2 late goals one from a penalty saw Railway advance to the next round.

Utd. — J. Fitzgerald, S. Hampton, I. McCarthy, D. Martin, K. Murphy, J. P. Grey, D. Henley, G. Hogan, T. McSweeney, P. Curley and W. Rooney. Res. — G. O'Brien and O. Riordan both used.

Champions Into Quarter Final

BALLYGUNNER 2-13 BALLYDUFF 0-9

Reigning senior hurling Co. champions Ballygunner advanced to the quarter-final stages of this year's Lawlors Hotel Championship when they had a ten point win over a gallant Ballyduff side at Cappoquin on Sunday last.

It was Ballyduff who having played with the wind who led at half time by 0-8 to 0-4 with midfielder Paudie Prendergast rifling over six points. Ballygunner led at the end of the first quarter by 0-3 to 0-1 but Ballyduff came back to lead at the interval.

Points from Paul Flynn, John Warren and Ml. O'Neill had cut the deficit to a point ten minutes into the second half before Gerard Hickey sent over a Ballyduff point in the 41st minute.

After the Reds had earlier missed a goal chance points from O'Neill (42nd minute) and Seamus Holden (44th Minute) brought the 'Gunners on level terms before Ml. Leamy brought off an excellent save from Holden at the end of the third quarter. Fergal Hartley pointed the champions in front in the 49th minute but Holden added another a minute later to leave the score 0-11 to 0-9 in Ballygunners favour.

Holden scored the first of his two goals in the 54th minute to put his side on top and even though Ml. Leamy saved a semi penalty in the 56th minute Holden struck for goal number two in the 59th minute to ensure a clear cut victory for the 'Gunners, who now play either Lismore or Mount Sion in the quarter-final.

Ballyduff who needed a victory to ensure a play-off to stay in the championship never gave up and fought to the very end.

Scorers : Ballygunner — S. Holden 2-2, P. Flynn 0-4, M. O'Mahoney 0-3, M. O'Neill 0-2, J. Warren 0-1, F. Hartley 0-1.

Ballyduff — P. Prendergast 0-6, D. Bolger 0-1, G. Quirke 0-1, G. Hickey 0-1.

Ballyduff team — M. Leamy, M. Geary, L. Power, F. Hickey, D. Hannon, T. Feeney, M. Casey, P. Prendergast, E. Hickey, D. Bolger, R. Walsh, D. Drislane, M. Molumphy, G. Quirke, G. Hickey. Sub. — M. Quirke for Drislane. Referee — J. J. Landers, Cappoquin/Affane.

DUNGARVAN UTD. A.F.C. NOTES

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING TONIGHT

The annual general meeting of Dungarvan Utd. takes place tonight (Wednesday) 28th July in the clubhouse at 8.00 p.m. Remember, this is the place where you can air your views on the running of the club for the forthcoming season.

CARDS

One winner of cards on Saturday 24th July — Nellie and Jimmy Tobin on 11 games. Jackpot this Saturday £300 on 15 games. Progressive 45 cards start at 8.30 p.m. sharp.

YANKEE DOODLE

Numbers on Sunday night last were 45 and 76. No winner. A massive £880 on offer this Sunday. This is a record jackpot so get your numbers from any of the regular sellers.

VANDALISM AT THE CLUBHOUSE

It seems there is no end to the latest spate of vandalism at the club and the recent craze seems to be sliding down the roof of the clubhouse. Yes incredible though it may seem, youngsters are climbing up on the roof of the clubhouse and sliding down on the slates onto the flat-roof of the dressing rooms. Six slates have been broken and these will have to be repaired. But the biggest worry for the club is that one of the youngsters will fall through the roof and be seriously hurt.

This is something the committee will have to look at seriously in the immediate future as this type of black-guarding will have to be stopped. The club grounds are private property and these people are trespassing.

Camogie Notes

SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIP FINAL

Gaultier 1-5 Lismore 1-5
Sunday night last, Gaultier and Lismore battled it out in Kilmacthomas, the game ending in a draw with the replay to be played on Friday next at 7.30 p.m., same venue. Orla Flynn of Lismore was the first to score securing a point from a thirty in the first few minutes. Ger Barry followed this with a great goal and Lismore notched up another four points in the first half. Gaultier remained scoreless until five minutes before half time when Tish Barry scored a well deserved point. Shortly into the second half another point was scored by Tish Barry.

With ten minutes to go Tish Barry scored a goal and there were just two points between them and Gaultier scored another point shortly after this. The Lismore girls did everything they could to stop their opponents from equalising but, through sheer determination the Gaultier girls encouraged and supported each other to such an extent that everyone could see they were not going to leave the field beaten and in the dying seconds Helen Hutchinson took control of the ball and sent it over the bar bringing both sides to an equal score. So ended a most exciting and nail biting county final. I'm quite sure the replay will be just as good if not better. However, we will have to wait another few days to see who will be county champions.

U-14 CHAMPIONSHIP
A very strong and fit Portlaw team defeated Lismore last week in the semi-final. They now go forward to meet the winners of the St. Saviours and Dunhill/Fenor semi-final which has yet to be refixed.

SYMPATHY

We extend sincere sympathy to Mary Crowley, Kill, on the recent death of her mother Mrs. Bridget Crowley, Lisahane.

West Waterford Golf Club Notes

Last week-end we had the first of our sponsored club competitions kindly donated by Mr. Dan Hurley, County Manager. On a wild and wintry day the course proved a real test.

The coming week is a very busy one with the judges Cup on Tuesday, the 'Tigh an Cheoil Pro Celeb Am on Thursday and Captains Prize kindly presented by Mr. Pat Murphy for men and Mrs. Bernie Twomey for the ladies.

The Captains Prize is over 18 Holes Stableford. The presentation of prizes on Sunday night 10.00 p.m. Members and friends only.

Results — Sunday 25th — 1st, N. Hally (14) 39 pts.; 2nd, Joe Murphy (6) 38 pts.; 3rd, Eamonn Spratt (5) 34 pts. Best beginner G. Flavin.

Fixtures — Thursday 29th, Pro Celeb. Am, course booked from 12.00 to 4.00 p.m.; Friday 30th, Mixed Scramble 6.30 p.m.; Saturday 31st, outing from 11.00 a.m. to 12.30.; Sunday 1st, Captain's Prize to men and ladies.

Open Week-End 6th, 7th and 8th August kindly sponsored by C. Healy and Sons.

Open 4 Ball and Mixed 4 Ball from 2.00 p.m. on Sunday. Monday 9th Ladies Day sponsored by Spratts Travel, 18 Hole 4 Ball. Time sheets for both.

Well done and congratulations to Austin Spratt on his 3rd place in the Youghal Scratch Cup and to Tommy Butler on his 2nd place in the nett section. Austin was robbed of outright victory by a triple bogey on the 17th in his round of 75. Tommy had a fine 60 nett.

HEINEKEN PUB LEAGUE FINAL

Alfie The Great

Alfie Egan wrote himself into the history books with a courageous display of goalkeeping to prove the difference in a tense and titanic tussle at sun-soaked Dogleaf Park. His gallantry earned him the man of the match award from Heineken Rep. Milo Corcoran and the glittering prizes associated with the award.

Alfie now joins the pub league hall of fame and who could deny this great character his moment of glory. On at least five occasions he thwarted the Foleys D attack with a string of superlative saves.

A surprisingly large crowd turned up to witness the clash between Paddy Foleys B and D. The game was handled by top referees Tony Wall, Jim Foley and Michael Fraher. This was the first occasion two teams from the same pub had qualified for the final but the crowds turned out to watch a splendid clash.

The game itself started with Foleys D, as expected, on the attack but the immaculate Tommy Sheehan, only pipped for the man of the match award, was superb, winning some vital tackles. Alan Sheehan was getting little change out of D. Lyons and Michael Hickey at the back and P. Ferncombe dealt confidently with everything thrown at him.

Veterans Piery Walsh and Thomas Duggan featured prominently in the Foleys B defence as they struggled to contain the lively Michael Sheehan. The outstanding chance of the first half fell to Chris Gough after playing a one-two with Percy Walsh and his shot brought the best out of Ferncombe between the posts. So half time arrived with the game still scoreless.

The second half began much as the first ended with Foleys D doing the pressing. It was no surprise when they took the lead through former Dogleaf Park stalwart Michael "Archibald" Connolly. He finally managed to beat the catlike Egan in the goal with a fine volley from 8 yards.

Foleys B were stung into action and Tony Murphy was unlucky with a long range effort. Alan Sheehan also who went close as Foleys B began to get the upper hand.

The Ballinroad star, Les Delahunty took a hand and when a fierce cross was whipped in from the right, he stooped to steer a glancing header to the roof of the net. Sheer pandemonium broke out as Foleys B's loyal band of supporters celebrated. Foleys D attacked furiously for the winner but Egan, Sheehan and company held out in a frantic finale.

Extra time arrived but the deadlock could not be broken despite the best efforts of both sides and after 20 minutes the referee Tony Wall called time. It meant only one thing, — the dreaded penalty shoot out!

Foleys B went first. Pat Tutty stepped up and scored, Pele Callaghan equalised. Tommy Sheehan made it 2-1 with a bomber but Martin Kelly made it 2-2. Les Delahunty restored the B teams lead but Mickie Ferncombe made it 3-3. Alan Sheehan made it 4-3 for the B team. Thomas Donovan paced up to take the fourth penalty for the D team. There was a steely glint of determination in Alfie Egan's eye as he prepared to face the spot kick. Donovan struck the ball with power but Alfie soared like Eddie the Eagle to his left, plucking the ball out of the air. Before he touched the ground his save was greeted by a deafening roar. Thoughts went back to a balmy summer evening in Genoa when Packie Bonner saved from Timofte. It was now down to young Chris Gough and he duly slammed the ball home to give the Foleys B team an impossible but most deserved victory. Michael Wright and company chaired their unlikely hero off the field.

AFTER MATCH COMMENTS

Milo Corcoran, Heineken Rep.: "It was a splendidly run tournament and it is a pleasure for my company to be associated with it." Mr. Corcoran also said that the fair play and sportsmanship was first class and that he hoped the sponsorship would continue for many years to come.

Alfie Egan, man of the match and winning captain, praised the organisers and thanked the referees for a job well done. He intimated what a great thrill it was for him to be captain of the winning team and how pleased he was for his team-mates who showed great faith in him.

Tony Wall, regular tournament referee, expressed his great pleasure at the honour of refereeing the final and was generous in his praise of his colleagues Jim Foley and Michael Fraher who were linesmen on the night.

Billy Foley, owner of the pub, said it was marvellous for both he and his wife Mary to have two teams in the final. As far as he was concerned there were no losers and he was looking forward to a great celebration.

MANAGERS

Anyone interested in managing our 2A or 4B league teams should contact any committee member as soon as possible with a written application. Closing date is Friday, July 30.

FIELD DEVELOPMENT

The field development continues with the tidying of the ditch on the road side. It is hoped to erect a fence of some description to secure the field in the near future. A special word of thanks to all those who assisted in the tidy-up.

PUB LEAGUE

On behalf of the committee, I would like to thank all those who assisted us during the course of the above. All help was gratefully appreciated.

NEW MEMBERS

Through the medium of this column we welcome our new members who have availed of this special offer announced some weeks ago. The response to the offer has exceeded all expectations. This is due not only to the attractiveness of the offer but also to the very complimentary reports about the outstanding golfing and social facilities in Knocknagranagh. These facilities have been highly praised by the many hundreds of visitors to the club in recent weeks.

Intending members who have not yet availed of the special offer should contact 058/41605 or 43310 immediately for full details. Remember the offer closes on 31st July

Waterford G.A.A. Supporters Club News

U-21 FOOTBALLERS BOW OUT

To be brutally honest about it Kerry were a class above us at Walsh Park last Friday when our under 21 footballers had to give second best to strong, and sometimes physical, Kingdom side. They were first to the ball and they took their scores with ease despite our best efforts. But, the display of "Fly" Fitzgerald was a pleasure to see and with a personal tally of 2-6 he was our best footballer, and maybe the man of the hour. Well done to all concerned on bringing us to the Munster final this year, and, who is to say that 1994 will not be kinder to this fine young Waterford side.

EXPENDITURE ON TEAMS REACHES £6,785

At the request of some of our members we are giving below details of our 1993 expenditure up to the time of writing, and, which has now reached £6,785. Although the majority of the outlay was spent on hurling teams all grades were catered for as the table below shows:

Co Hurling Teams	£2,877
Fitzgibbon Cup	150
Co Football Teams	750
Co Carnogie Team	439
Coaching	180
Walsh Park
Floodlights	1,800
St. Patricks Day
Parades	506
Other	83
Total	£6,785

The above includes £2,000 passed to the County Board but, does not cover the cost of tee shirts, sweat shirt and other wear which was in excess of £3,000.

RECESS FOR AUGUST

Now that holidays are here, no further meetings will be held until early September. With our inter-county interest in the championships now ended we must await the National Leagues for our hurlers and footballers.

Dungarvan Ladies Football Club Notes

COUNTY TEAMS

Well done to Geraldine Hayes and Michelle Power for the part they played with the Waterford Junior Team last week-end against Cork in the Munster final.

TRAINING

We are back to training seriously. Tuesday and Thursday nights at 7.15 p.m. The Junior and U-16 leagues will start in about three weeks time so a full attendance at training is expected.

ERROR

On writing the club notes after the County final, I omitted one name from the panel. Jacinta Kelly. Jacinta has been playing football with us since last February. she rarely misses a training session and is a valuable member of our panel. My apologies to Jacinta for the error.

MEMBERSHIP

Club membership is now due and can be given to Geraldine Foran or any committee member.

7-A-SIDE LEAGUES

The 7-a-side leagues, due to get under way last week-end, were once again postponed due to holidays. They should get under way around the week-end of 14th August.

GOOD LUCK

The best of luck is extended to Michael Ryan and the Waterford Senior team who play next week-end in the Munster Final.

Causeway Tennis Club Notes

Despite the unseasonable and inclement weather the tennis season is now at its height with tournaments just completed in St. Anne's, Waterford and the Open Week in Tramore commencing on August 1. Our club players did very well in the senior open week in St. Anne's, Waterford and the Causeway players came home with a lot of trophies. Teresa Keane won the B singles. In the B men's doubles, Liam Crotty and Alan O'Sullivan of the home club narrowly beat the two vintage players from St. Anne's, Frank O'Donoghue (presently Chairman of the Tramore Town Commissioners, of the PD persuasion, and ex-president of Irish Lawn Tennis Association) and Denis Breen, in a thrilling three-setter. Dan McGovern showed that not only is he an expert with the camán, but equally as effective on the tennis court, winning the mixed men's doubles in the C section. His able partner in the men's doubles was Niall Herlihy who since he retired from rugby recently, has taken to the tennis in a big way, swapping the oval ball for the tennis ball.

In the D section, the Causeway players did the most damage, with Brigid O'Shea once more winning the mixed and the ladies doubles in convincing fashion. In the ladies doubles final the agile and svelte Brigid O'Shea and Jean O'Donovan narrowly beat our own Linda Hogan and Mai O'Brien in a thrilling all-Causeway final. In the mixed doubles final Brigid O'Shea and Thomas Murray showed no mercy to David and Lena Boyce (St. Anne's) beating them in convincing fashion. Thomas Murray and Maurice Sherlock won the men's doubles.

Congratulations to our under-16 junior team who are progressing nicely in the Munster Club Championships and today beat Douglas, Cork in the quarter final. They now meet Sundays Well at home in the next round with every chance of getting to our first junior final for a few years now.

Our junior open week is finally upon us, with all the fun and excitement it engenders. We have a massive entry of over 230 players with nearly 50% of the players travelling from Cork, Kilkenny, Tipperary and Waterford. The committee would like to thank all the parents who are putting up players for the week, for without their co-operation the week would not be the success it has been over the past five years.

But there is more to tennis than merely playing the game. The social aspect is just as important and we have put on a variable social calendar for the junior week with some form of entertainment every night and a teenage disco on Tuesday and Thursday nights. The Tuesday night disco was held at O'Bs and the Thursday night disco will be held at Club 2000, Lawlor's Hotel. It is strictly mineral bar and supervised. Admission is £2.50 and all are welcome.

The tournament organisers, Noel Brennan and Marcella McGovern will have a busy week and will need a lot of help ferrying players to St. Laurence's LTC who have kindly given us permission to use their courts. So, parents, rally round and help with the driving and make the Causeway Club Orange Junior Open Week the success it usually is.

A word of thanks to all our members who were not found wanting in supporting our tennis marathon fund raising event. It was a financial and social success. Many thanks to our cordon bleu chef, Michael Walsh of Coolnagour and to our members who entered in the spirit of fun with their fancy costumes and night attire. — T.H.

St. Olivers G.A.A. News

LUCK OF THE DRAW!

St. Olivers 1-5 Naomh Bríd 0-8

Agligh hosted its first Western Board Championship match in six years when St. Olivers faced Naomh Bríd in the Minor 'A' Football Championship (sponsored by Lawlors Hotel) last Thursday night. The last time Aglish hosted such a match, Ballinacourty pipped fellow junior footballers Geraldines in April 1987 in a close match. This tie was even closer.

St. Olivers took early benefit of their home advantage. Donnacha Tobin and Michael Murray (from a free) both kicked over in the first three minutes. This was quickly followed by two Naomh Bríd points, one from a free, and after Paul Connery and Mikey Ronayne both kicked wide, they pointed themselves into the lead. Another chance was cleared by Stephen Ronayne, while Roger Ronayne boomed a long shot just wide and Laurence Maher blocked down a shot for a 45. Naomh Bríd extended their lead with a 26th minute point, but St. Olivers responded when Kenneth Stack sailed one over from 35m out.

Naomh Bríd scored the last point of the first half (from a free) to secure a 5-3 half-time lead, and made it double scores 22 seconds into the second half. A further point meant that St. Olivers - who saw 10 chances go a-begging in the opening quarter-hour of the second half - were in deep trouble. Roger Ronayne's fist narrowly failed to connect with Laurence Maher's 20 m free and later, Aidan Ahearne had his shot cleared off the line. Roger Ronayne pointed midway through the half, and 3 minutes later, Mikey Ronayne raced in, connected with the cross and slammed it to the back of the net for an opportunist goal at exactly the right time. Michael Murray had two shots saved, and an effort from Tholm Keane found the bar.

Naomh Bríd kicked what was almost certainly the winner with 5 minutes left, but it turned out that the result of the match hinged on the last kick of the game. Tholm Keane was fouled by a rugby tackle (not the first) in the 67th minute of play. Aidan Ahearne's free headed for beyond the far post, but it curled, finding the target. Pat "Tyler" Walsh blew his final whistle, making this the first drawn match in the minor championships this year.

It was great to see a good crowd watching this fixture in Aglish. The next match will be against Abbey-side at Bushy Park.

St. Olivers — Kieran Cotter, Tomás Curran, Stephen Ronayne, Jimmy Tobin, Michael Walsh, Laurence Maher, Tholm Keane, Paul Connery, Roger Ronayne 0-1, Michael Murray 0-1, Donnacha Tobin 0-1, Kenneth Stack 0-1, Fran Cotter, Alan Ronayne, Mikey Ronayne 1-0. Subs. — Aidan Mernin for F. Cotter, Aidan Ahearne 0-1 for A. Mernin, Thomas Power for R. Ronayne (inj.), Owen Hallahan, Brendan Mernin, Anthony Morrissey. Referee — Pat "Tyler" Walsh (Fourmilewater)

THE LADIES GAME

St. Olivers 2-2 Na Deise 3-6

The first match in Thursday's double header in Aglish involved St. Olivers and Na Deise, a vital match for both teams in the ladies football U-14 championship. St. Olivers took the lead after 34 seconds. Eleanor O'Brien passed into Emer Hickey who struck the goal. Sharon Walsh's fisted shot just failed to find the target, while at the other end, Margaret Ronayne, Máire Kiely and Eileen O'Brien made clearances. No doubting though who dominated the rest of the half; a bullet 20m free goal put Na Deise on their way to a 1-6 to 1-0 half-time lead. Eleanor O'Brien kicked just wide minutes before half-time, but notched up the first point of the second half after Sharon O'Shea and Sharon Walsh kicked wide. Na Deise lobbed in two goals to secure their passage to the semi-finals, though Marie O'Donovan had a shot saved and Margaret Ronayne had a shot scooped off the line, Sharon O'Shea pointed and Eleanor O'Brien whacked in a shot off the post.

St. Olivers — Breda Aherne, Eileen O'Brien, Máire Kiely, Karen Landers, Jennifer Landers, Margaret Ronayne, Helena Power, Pamela Landers, Aine Davis, Marie O'Donovan, Sharon O'Shea (0-1), Triona Tobin, Sharon Walsh, Eleanor O'Brien (1-1), Emer Hickey (0-1). Subs. — Martha Ronayne, Doireann Corr. Referee — Declan Whelan (St. Garvans)

Cunnigar Pitch and Putt Notes

CLONMEL OPEN

Congratulations to Leonard Duggan on his recent win in the Clonmel Junior Gross with a fine score of seven gross. Also apologies to Owen Mansfield who came second in our own club juvenile tournament recently.

BAUMANN'S JEWELLERS TOURNAMENT

Twenty-two of our members took part in our tournament last weekend. The weather made conditions very difficult indeed, but as usual all involved gave it their best shot. Runners-up prize went to Jessie Landers and Leonard Duggan, and the first prize went to Eddie Lenihan and Pat Tutty. As I was saying last week, Eddie is coming into form and I would not be surprised if he wins the junior net prize in Fermoy this weekend. So, well done to Eddie, Pat, Jessie and Leonard. Also we would like to thank Baumann's for their kind sponsorship.

SINCERE SYMPATHY

It saddened me to hear of Jim Bail's death. Jim was one of our valued members who loved to pass away a couple of hours playing every week. In fact Jim gave me a pair of clubs when I started playing the game myself. I also worked for the Baily family for many years which I enjoyed very much. So on behalf of the club members we would like to extend our sympathy to his wife Joan and family. May he rest in peace.

LOTTO WEEKLY DRAW

Yes, we had a winner all right, and the lucky winner of the £100 went to Breda Lenihan of 6, Bay View, Dungarvan and the numbers were 3, 19, 21. Next week's jackpot is £100. Please try to have your tickets in by this Saturday night. We would again like to thank everybody involved in selling tickets, and Pat Regan and Paddy Power for all their work.

— SHOUT FORE.

St. Patricks G.A.A. Notes

LADIES FOOTBALL: PROVINCIAL FINALS

At the Provincial finals in Thomond College, Limerick, last Saturday, July 24, the KCK ladies did us proud.

Their first game was against Clare which they won easily after an excellent game by all the team. The backs and goalie had little to do. KCK 4-11, Clare 0-1.

Team and scorers — S. Nugent, S. Dunford, M. Power, J. Fitzgerald, T. Kirwan (1-0), H. O'Brien (0-1), M. Crotty, A. Morrissey, T. Whyte (1-2), M. Walsh (0-4), M. Morrissey, M. Fraher, P. Walsh (0-1), A. Wall (0-2), E. Hickey (1-0).

KCK then went on to play Cork in their second match of the afternoon. The Morrissey sisters played well at centre field and the half back line was very solid all through the two games. Triona Whyte, who had been carrying an injury, moved into full forward where she displayed her skill to score 2-2. Final score: KCK 6-5, Cork 0-5.

Team and scorers — S. Nugent, S. Dunford, M. Power, J. Fitzgerald, T. Kirwan, H. O'Brien (0-1), M. Crotty, A. Morrissey, T. Whyte (2-2), M. Walsh (1-0), M. Morrissey, M. Fraher (0-1), F. Power (1-0), A. Wall, E. Hickey (0-1). Subs — Angela Byrne (1-0), Triona Dunford, D. Power, C. Keating, P. Walsh.

We must travel to Limerick's Thomond College again next Friday to play Kerry in the Munster final. Best of luck to all the girls and their trainers, Mary Fraher and June Whyte.

JUNIOR FINAL

We play Cappoquin in the final next Wednesday night at Bushy Park. We wish the girls the best of luck.

MUNSTER FINAL

This evening, three of our club members, Denise Nugent, Triona Wall and Catherine Walsh are on the Waterford team who play Clare in Churchtown.

UNDER-16 HURLING

We were beaten 4-9 to 2-7 by Naomh Bríd in Touraeneena on Sunday morning. We have not performed well this season but an improvement was evident following some positional changes in the second half of this match. During this period Stephen Ryan, Kevin Casey and Peter Lynch achieved most. We were without Mark Radley, Dermot O'Brien and James Foley.

Team — J. D. Casey, B. Dunford, D. Ryan, R. Casey, J. Flynn, K. Walsh, A. Corcoran, F. Tobin, K. Casey, R. Bannon, S. Ryan, P. Ahearne, M. Tobin, R. Lynch, K. Dunford. Subs used — P. Lynch, P. Horgan.

We were to play Cappoquin at Bohadon on Tuesday evening and a win here would have put us into a three-way play-off for a semi-final place with Naomh Bríd and Cappoquin.

UNDER-21 HURLING

Preparation for this championship will begin immediately. The minors are finished following a farce of both football and hurling championships. Minor teams are supposed to be graduating from juvenile activities. They should be given the highest priority by all those organising supposedly the showpiece of all that is good in hurling and football at under-age.

Three football games in seven days and two under-16 hurling games in the same period is not the proper way to develop our teams at club or county level. It was also well established that Monday night is under-14 and under-16 championship night, but unfortunately common sense is not prevailing for our minor championships.

UNDER-10's

We played St. Marys, Clonmel on Saturday morning. All the lads had a most enjoyable outing and we will be hosts to St. Marys in August in Bohadon.

UNDER-14 FOOTBALL

Karl Dunford played at corner forward for Waterford "A" team last Saturday while Michael Tobin, Pat Morgan and Raymond Bannon were on the Waterford team which won the "B" section.

ON SCHOLARSHIP

Robert Cass is presently in Ring College on a three-week scholarship which was awarded by Waterford County Board through our club. We hope he enjoys himself.

AMERICAN VISITORS

We have very unusual visitors to Bohadon on Wednesday night when an under-16 football team from the USA will play our club. They are welcome visitors and we are honoured to be asked to participate in events being hosted by the people of the Sliabh gCua area.

FOOTBALL SUMMER CAMPS

Our younger players are well represented this week attending the Football Summer Camp at Abbeyside. They are really enjoying themselves with Pat Curran and company.

Ballymac' Side Outshine Dungarvan

FOURMILEWATER 0-17 DUNGARVAN 1-4

This disappointing senior hurling tie at Colligan on Sunday was all over as a contest long before the final whistle as Dungarvan, trailing by eleven points at the three-quarter stage, never threatened a comeback.

It was a game that Fourmilewater deserved to win as they controlled play for long periods and taken all round, were the better side. Dungarvan were forced to field without a number of regulars and were unlucky to lose Martin Houlihan with an ugly head wound towards the end of the first half.

The result puts Dungarvan out of the championship and it puts Fourmilewater in third spot behind Mount Sion and Lismore in the play-off stages.

The winners, trained by John Morgan who was once a hurling stylist with the Ballymac' team, are one of the last six and who knows what further progress they are going to make before the year ends.

Morrie Ferncombe opened for Dungarvan when he pointed a first minute free, but the next five scores were for Fourmile' with Michael Guiry (2), Seamus Cuddy, Tom Flynn and Michael O'Keefe sending over points. A further two points by Morrie Fern-combe ended Dungarvan's first half scoring, while Fourmile' added another two points to leave them with an 0-7 to 0-3 half time lead.

On the turn-over the winners tacked on eight points without reply to leave the score 0-15 to 0-3 by the 44th minute and at which stage it was all over as a contest. Morrie Ferncombe converted a '65' metre free and David Burke had a 47th minute goal to end their scoring while Fourmile' added a further two points to leave the final score as above.

Fourmilewater — O. Wall, A. Ryan, T. Walsh, M.

Hally, B. McCarthy, K. Mulcahy, S. Walsh, G. Walsh, Pat Walsh, P. Flynn, S. Cuddy, T. Condon, M. O'Keefe, P. Halpin, M. Guiry. Sub — D. Phelan for P. Halpin.

Dungarvan — J. J. Ferncombe, M. Sheehan, R. Ronayne, T. Morrissey, M. Houlihan, M. Kelly, B. Lyons, D. Lyons, D. McGrath, D. Flynn, M. Ferncombe, P. Power, P. P. Ferncombe, D. Burke, C. Curran. Subs — P. Quarry for D. Flynn, F. Cunningham for D. Lyons, S. Mansfield for M. Houlihan (inj.)

Referee: Pat Moore (Abbeyside).

COUNTY BOARD MEETING

Eamon Murphy, Chairman, presided at last week's meeting of the Senior Board, which was held in Dungarvan.

BALLYGUNNER MOTION

The motion from the county champions club, took a most unexpected turn when after a 50 minute debate it was withdrawn by the sponsoring club.

The motion, which sought to have the county senior hurling selectors and manager removed, was moved by Frankie King who outlined his club's reasons for putting the motion. He said that when a business or an undertaking of any kind was doing badly, as was our senior hurling fortunes at the present time, it became an inevitable consequence that changes would be called for to put the matter right.

When the Chairman called for a seconder there was no response for some time and the motion looked like going by default when Fiona McDonnell, popular young secretary of the Tal-low Club seconded the proposition.

Joe Byrne, Erin's Own, made a very strong case against the motion, as did other speakers who included Phil Fanning, Jimmy O'Gorman, S. O'Brien, etc. and with practically no support for the motion, the mover agreed to withdraw it, and the second motion from the club on the understanding that a motion relating to the appointment and the role of county selectors, appointed in the future, would be debated by the County Board later in the year.

The outcome of the motion was surprising in that it had been very strongly rumoured that it might receive the necessary two-thirds majority. Most clubs had discussed the motion at committee level and many, according to information, had pledged support. This most certainly was not reflected in the tone of the discussions at the County Board meeting. What was also surprising was the number of absentees from the meeting.

When Jimmy O'Gorman, Chairman of the County Selection Committee, rose to speak after the matter had been decided, the Chairman said that the discussion was closed and he would not allow further contributions. Jimmy persisted in trying to speak and when he refused to resume his seat, the County Chairman declared the meeting adjourned.

FIXTURES AND COMPLAINTS

A number of clubs wrote in complaining about postponements or otherwise of their championship fixtures and these were referred to the Fixtures Committee who were due to meet later in the night.

FRAHER FIELD

Having given a report on the Fraher Field, Nioclás Mac Craith said he had been instructed by the Committee to seek permission to have the Show Grounds drained during the coming months. He said there was sufficient space for training of county teams and there would be an objection to them using the main pitch when it was ready again. He said there would be no additional cost for the draining operation. Permission was granted.

FINANCE

The meeting discussed the financial position of the Board and the Treasurer, James Walsh gave an account of the costings relating to our eight inter-county teams since the start of the year.

GOLF CLASSIC

Justin Spratt, former county and Brickey footballer who chaired the special committee set up to run the golf classic was present at the meeting to hand over a cheque amounting to more than £10,500 which were the proceeds of the very successful venture.

Justin expressed the wish that our county teams would soon start winning again — this was what the public generally and our loyal supporters in particular wanted to see. He also informed the Board that a sum of £1,000 had been handed over to ladies football.

ITEMS NOT DISCUSSED

Because of the abrupt ending to the meeting a number of items were not discussed. These included the election of minor and under-21 hurling selection committees and a report on the progress of the championships and leagues. This latter item would undoubtedly have aroused an amount of heated discussion, given the widespread dissatisfaction at the way that the senior and intermediate championships are moving.

SPECIAL CONVENTION

At the next meeting of the Board, delegates will hear a motion from the Tramore Club asking for the holding of a special convention to deal with the organisation of the 1994 county championships.

This, I understand, will include a discussion on championship structures, proper synchronising of our competitions and proper regulations governing postponements, cancellations and refixtures, etc. Very many clubs will welcome such a motion which may be the cause of streamlining our activities, etc.

APPEALS

The appeal by the Kilrossanty Club against County Bord na n-Og which was deferred from the previous meeting, was again deferred to give all concerned a chance of resolving the matter. The Chairman warned that if a resolution of the problem was not reported within a couple of weeks, he would rule on the matter.

An appeal submitted by Tramore Club against the awarding of their football county final to Stradbally, was similarly dealt with.

Dungarvan G.A.A. Notes

MEETING

A meeting of the Juvenile Committee will take place at the Clubhouse on Tuesday 3rd August at 8 p.m.

A meeting of the Adult Committee will take place this Thursday evening at the Clubhouse at 8.30 p.m.

U-16 HURLING

In the U-16 hurling championship we were defeated by our neighbours, Abbeyside, last Thursday night. We are now out of this competition.

TOURNAMENT

Last Saturday night in the Feledon Tournament we defeated The Gaeltacht.

MINOR FOOTBALL

In the Minor Football Championship we take on Naomh Bríd this Wednesday evening. This game will be played at Colligan, at 7.30 p.m., and this coming Friday we play St. Oliver's at 7.30 p.m.

On the 4th August at Stradbally we play Kilrossanty. The venue for this game is Stradbally and the time 7.30 p.m.

SENIOR HURLING

Last Sunday afternoon at Colligan in a lack lustre performance we were well and truly beaten by Fourmilewater. This knocked us out of the championship. We have one more match to play against Colligan. We must win this to avoid relegation. Report next week.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

We resume our Senior Football Championship next Saturday night when we play Sliabh gCua.

BEST WISHES

On behalf of everyone in the Club we extend to Dr. Michael Russell, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore our very best wishes for a happy retirement and we extend a cead míle fáilte to Rt. Rev. Msgr. William Lee who has succeeded Dr. Russell.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations from everyone in the Club to Fr. Nessian Shaw, OFM. Cap. who celebrated the golden jubilee of his ordination on the 24th July. Though domiciled in Dublin Fr. Shaw is an avid Dungarvan supporter, and we wish him many more years working in the vineyard of the Lord.

DRAW

On this Friday 30th July the Deise Development

Draw will take place at our Clubhouse, and we would like to extend a cead míle fáilte to anyone who would like to attend.

LOTTO

The weekly Lotto numbers drawn on Sunday were: 22, 2, 8. No winner. Jackpot next week £400.

SYMPATHY

On behalf of the Club we would like to extend a sincere sympathy to Mrs. Joan Baily and family on the death of Jim Baily. The deceased won county football honours with the Club. Ar dheis De go raibh a anam.

Geraldines G.A.A. Notes

JUNIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Geraldines take on Ballinameela this Friday evening July 30 at Cappoquin at 7.30 p.m. After a good hard match we lost to Clashmore by 4 points last Saturday evening. Playing with a strong wind in the first half we should have been 8 points in front at half time instead of one. We need a big improvement around.

SYMPATHY

We would like to sympathise with the Baily family, Dungarvan on the death of James Baily. A former Geraldine player he played for Geraldines when he was stationed in Villierstown Garda Barracks in the fifties. May he rest in peace.

MINOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

In a thrilling Minor football match played at a well laid out pitch at Aghlish last week Naomh Bríd and St. Oliver's ended all square. This was the first Western Board match held here in five years. The pitch was in excellent condition. P.R.O.

Abbeyside Ballinacourty G.A.A. Notes

JUNIORS WIN

The junior hurlers defeated Tallow by 4-8 to 3-7 to win the second string section of the Western Championship on Sunday evening last in Cappoquin.

The Bridesiders got off to a great start, building up an early lead of 2-3 to 0-2, but a great village fight back led to two goals before half time, to leave the scores 2-4 to 2-3.

The second half saw more of the same as our fifteen fought for every ball, and when Willie Kiely found the net we went into the lead for the first time in the game. We continued to pile on the pressure which yielded some great scores and although Tallow fought back bravely we held on for a famous victory.

A LONG TIME

To the best of our knowledge, it is the first time we have won the section final since 1966, although the "Fear's Army" made good progress in 1976.

NEXT GAME

Following Sunday's win we are now through to the junior championship proper, where we play Tourin who captured the junior "B" title last weekend.

BACK IN ACTION

The senior footballers are back in championship action this week when we play Butlerstown. See official fixture list for details.

The junior footballers are also in action on Sunday afternoon when they play Kilrossanty in the re-fixtured of their play-off game in Stradbally. Throw-in 2 p.m.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING

Following last weekend's games the picture on the intermediate scene is a lot more clearer. As a result of Shamrocks win over Erin's Own, we now play the city side to determine who wins the section and clinches the prize of a semi-final position.

UNDER-AGE NEWS

The minor footballers had no games last week due to walk-overs received from Affane and Ballyduff. They face Kilrossanty and St. Oliver's in two vital games during the next week.

The under-16 hurlers had a good win over rivals Dungarvan by 4-7 to 1-4 last week and are through to the Western final.

UNDER-13 LEAGUE

We were treated to some entertaining hurling on Monday week last when the under-13 hurling league final took place at the club grounds. Amid scenes of great excitement, John Phelan's team took the honours by a single score, 6-3 to 6-2, over Eamon Morrissey's side.

Eamon Morrissey's team also consisted of David Cashin, Ronan McCarthy, Seamus Sheehan, Michael Fives, Andrew Burke, Graham Shepherd, Jimmy Moore, Peter Considine, James Power, Denis Byrne, Seamo Burns.

FOOTBALL CAMP

The football camp for the Dungarvan area was in full swing at the club grounds all week. Everyone seemed to be thoroughly enjoying themselves and having plenty of fun when we visited the camp on Monday last.

ON COUNTY DUTY

James Hayes was in action for the county under-14 footballers in the Jim Power Memorial Tournament in Kilmacthomas on Saturday last. By all accounts he acquitted himself very well.

DECIES DRAW

The July draw takes place on Friday next, while our bonus draw also takes place this weekend.

FLAG DAY

Our thanks to all those who contributed generously to our flag day in aid of the under-age section last weekend.

LADIES FOOTBALL

An U-16 league is being organised at the moment and details of the games will be available within the next week. Training continues each Wednesday evening and Saturday morning at the Burgery. All players are requested to attend these training sessions if they hope to participate in the coming league.

We still have one game to play in the U-14 championship against Kilrossanty. We hope to play this game this coming week.

John Kiely, Chairman Co. Bord na nOg presents the U-14 "A" hurling cup to Dungarvan's captain Bert Ahearne, after his team had defeated Mount Slon 4-5 to 2-1 in the County final.

MUNSTER U-21 FOOTBALL FINAL

Waterford Outclassed By Brilliant Kerry

KERRY 1-21
WATERFORD 3-5

We just had no answer to this super Kerry Under 21 side whose unflattering ten points winning margin, belies the extent of their superiority. They really called the tune and we had to play second fiddle all the way in this foul-ridden final at Walsh Park.

There was a period in the second half when Waterford took over and came within a couple of points of the visitors, but when Kerry regrouped their forces they were back in the driving seat and piled on the scores with regular monotony.

They led by 0-9 to 1-1 our goal having come from a penalty at half time and in the second half Kerry were able to add a further 1-12. We managed just 2-4.

Following our three lead-up games to this final, there was an amount of optimism that we might stop the Kingdom team from completing their four in a row, but looking at the way they played that was beyond our capabilities and also, I would judge, beyond the capabilities of any of the remaining counties. It was our thirteenth inter-county championship game of 1993, but we cannot claim that the ominous number had anything to do with the result. We were beaten by a superior side and can have no excuses. We did have some good chances that went astray and we did have some good individual performers and all the lads tried their hearts out, but everything that we had to throw at this brilliant Kerry side, was enough and Waterford must be content to wait a while longer before a football title will be won.

PLAY

Full-forward, John Driscoll pointed Kerry into a lead in the second minute and we had a chance a minute later when Eamonn Crotty's kick was saved by the keeper. Anthony Fitzgerald was wide with a shot and Kerry had a wide before Cathal O'Grady had their second point in the 6th minute. Eamonn Hennessey had a third Kerry point and they followed with two wides. Their fourth point came after a Francis Cullinane foul in the 11th minute. Our top scorer in the championship, Anthony Fitzgerald opened our account with a point, but in less than another minute Michael Hassett brought one back for Kerry. Points by John Quirke (1) and Fergal Stack (2) brought their total to 0-8 as against our 0-1.

Then in the 23rd minute Anthony Fitzgerald, racing through the Kerry defence was brought down outside the goal and the same player converted the penalty. Cathal O'Grady pointed a Kerry free to complete the first half scoring and leave the state of play 0-9 to 1-1 in favour of the visitors.

HOPES RAISED

Anthony Fitzgerald pointed a first minute free to raise our hopes, but then came a delightful effort by Cathal O'Grady who kicked a sideline ball from the near the stand, all the way for a point.

Kerry sub. Seamus Culloty pointed a free in the 36th minute and they looked at this stage to be pulling away when a well executed Waterford goal by David Phelan had the home fans roaring. The cheering increased when his namesake David Whelan added a very fine point to reduce Kerry's lead to a mere 2 points by the 41st minute (0-11 to 2-3). The next three scores were Kerry points and we had a point from a free by Anthony Fitzgerald in the 45th and Kerry pointed a 47th minute free. In the 49th minute corner forward Eamonn Hennessey had Kerry's goal and this ended any slight hopes we might have had of a recovery. The next four points were against us and our final point came from a 56th minute free by Anthony Fitzgerald who had our 59th minute goal after splendid work by Darrell Donnelly. Just on time Culloty pointed for the winners to leave it 1-21 to 3-5.

FLARE-UPS

There were a couple of minor flare-ups, but after these were quenched the match was sporting, even-though foul-ridden as I wrote at the start. This could to some extent be attributed to the very strict handling by referee John O'Keeffe from Cork, who blew for a lot of 'Mickey Mouse' infringements. When we note that ten of Kerry's points were from frees and that fact that they won by a ten points margin we find something to ponder on about different styles of refereeing, fouling and good free-taking. They make contributing factors to results. When Munster Council vice-chairman Noel Walsh was making the presentation he referred to the excellent condition of Walsh Park.

This, sadly was our thirteenth and final outing in the Munster championships for the season and while we won only four and drew two, we did have many hours of enjoyment. For this we thank everyone concerned, the players, substitutes, selectors and all the back-room boys who made the sacrifices and did their best to keep the county flag flying. Hopefully next year will bring us a title or two in either football or hurling.

Scorers: Kerry — G. O'Grady 0-7, E. Hennessey 1-2, S. Culloty 0-3, S. Moynihan, F. Stack, J. Quirke, P. O'Driscoll 0-2 each, M. Hassett 0-1. Waterford — A. Fitzgerald 2-4, D. Phelan 1-0, D. Whelan 0-1.

Kerry — D. O'Keeffe, M. Hassett, G. McGrath, N. Maughan, S. Curtan, F. Stack, J. O'Connell, S. Moynihan, J. Quirke, C. O'Grady, B. O'Shea, P. O'Driscoll, E. Hennessey, J. O'Driscoll, E. Bowler. Subs. — on S. Culloty.

Waterford — C. Cullinane, B. Lyons, D. Donnelly, F. Cullinane, V. Murray, M. Fitzgerald, D. Crotty, M. Fenton, D. Phelan, P. Brazil, A. Fitzgerald, E. Crotty, F. Cunningham, K. Whelan, D. Whelan. Subs. — W. Cusack for K. Whelan, M. Murphy for P. Brazil. Referee — S. O'Keeffe, Cork.

The attendance was approximately 3,000 and the majority were from the Westside. After the match there was a big delay to Westbound traffic when vehicles coming by Paddy Browne's Road were unable to gain access to the main road for some considerable time.

PORTLAW '93 — Waterford's brightest hurling prospect Paul Flynn, blasting a penalty to the net when he visited Portlaw Hurling Camp.

Other Results

Kilmacthomas 3-11
Sliabh gCua 2-9

Kilmacthomas recorded their first win of the season in the SFC when accounting for Sliabh gCua at Leamybrien on Sunday evening last. A John Power goal after 25 minutes gave Kilmac a two point lead, 1-5 to 1-3 at half time. In the second half, the winners tacked on a further 2-6 as against 1-6 for Sliabh gCua.

Outstanding for the winners were Michael Downey, John Power, Joe Joy, Eddie Rockett and John Browne.

SENIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP
Dunhill 0-14
St. Saviours 1-8

It was Dunhill's first win of the season and a very welcome result which avoids a relegation fight with the bottom team in the other group. Saviours, who are now in the relegation stakes, are the only point-less team in the championship.

Mt. Sion 4-16
Colligan 0-7

As the score indicates, this was a one-sided final game for both sides and Colligan, without a number of their regulars, travelled to the Mount Sion grounds simply to fulfil their championship programme.

Scorers: Mount Sion — A. Robinson 2-2, R. McGrath 1-2, K. Ryan 1-1, G. Fitzpatrick 0-3, P. Walsh, P. Fanning, D. Loughnane and S. Ahearne 0-2 each; Colligan — B. McGrath 0-6, B. Fraher 0-1. Referee: F. Whelan (Kilmacthomas).

Passage 2-8,
Roanmore 2-7

The tabletoppers certainly produced the goods in this cracker of a game at Walsh Park and it being the final game in the group, the championship planners can be complimented in keeping the good wine until last.

With each side having a goal scored in the opening two and a half minutes, the game got away to an electrifying start and the tempo never moderated until the game was won by Passage by the narrowest of margins.

Scorers: Passage — M. O'Keeffe 0-6, S. Carey 1-0, N. Connors 1-0, M. Murphy 0-1; Roanmore — N. Crowley 1-6, E. Nolan 1-0, K. Sheridan 0-1. Referee: John Hunt (Clonea).

TOP SCORERS

Top scorers, per club, in the senior hurling championship over the weekend were — Mount Sion, Alan Robinson (2-2); Lismore, Sean Daly (2-5); Ballygunner, Seamus Holden (2-2); Fourmilewater, Michael Guiry (0-6); Ballyduff, Paudie Prendergast (0-6); Portlaw, John Galvin (1-3); Colligan, Benny McGrath (0-6); Passage, Mossy O'Keeffe (0-6); Roanmore, Noel Crowley (1-6); Dungarvan, Morrie Ferncombe (0-4); Dunhill, Sean Burns (0-4); St. Saviours, P. Twomey (1-1).

JUNIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY-OFF

For their first time in about 25 years, Abbeyside juniors have qualified for a quarter-final in the junior hurling championships. On Sunday evening they defeated Tallow in a play-off that was a thriller all the way and produced some very tasty hurling.

Tallow were looking like scoring a runaway victory when leading by 2-4 to 0-2 when Richie Duggan shot home two goals and by half time the situation was 2-4 to 2-3. It was nip and tuck all the way in an exciting second half and two goals by Willie Kiely put Abbeyside into the drivers seat and a great last minute point by Paul Breen left the winners with a deserved four points victory.

Abbeyside now meet Tourin in the quarter-final.

WEEK-END GAMES

Senior Football Championships Resume

HUGE PROGRAMME OF GAMES DOWN FOR DECISION

With all our intercounty commitments out of the way until the league starts in October, the way is cleared for the non-stop playing of our club championships which will go ahead full-belt until the autumn.

While the programme of games down for decision over the coming week-end is very much of mixed grill, the focus and emphasis will be on the resumption of the senior football championships, which are way behind schedule because of so many postponements and cancellations for reasons that have been argued about all over the place.

So far, games have been played in a rather haphazard fashion and it is not easy to produce a meaningful points table. From here on it will begin to take shape and its weekly publication will be interesting.

The programme of football games coming up this week-end could not be described as being very exciting, but there will be a couple of good quality contests.

S.F.C.*DUNGARVAN V. SLIABH gCUA

There is a gap in standards here and it would be unthinkable to predict that an upset might be on the cards. Sliabh gCua had a good run against Kilmacthomas last week and played well enough against Kilrossanty earlier, but they seem destined to drop a further two points here.

GAULTIER V. TRAMORE

Both suffered first round defeats, but Tramore have a single point from a draw with Sliabh gCua. Gaultier have the better record in recent times and must be given the vote to win. Anthony Fitzgerald, star of the county Under 21 team should lead Gaultier to victory here.

v.

BUTLERSTOWN

Butlerstown beat Affane in the first round, but have since played poorly and don't seem likely to make it to the K/O stages.

Ballinacourty had a number of their games called off and had but one outing so far and that one against Stradbally ended in defeat. They have a young team in the field this year and are more or less feeling their way. Ballinacourty could take the points in this one.

KILMACTHOMAS*V. KILROSSANTY

Kilmac' had a good win last week-end over Sliabh gCua and may now be coming back to form due in no small measure to their many injuries. Kilrossanty were not great against Sliabh gCua in their last match and would need to improve on that form, even though they already have two wins to their credit.

STRADBALLY V. RATHGORMACK

This is the one that everyone will want to see and it will undoubtedly bring a very big crowd to the Kilmacthomas venue on Thursday evening. These are among the leading contenders for Dungarvan's title and are among the favourites to win out in their group.

Stradbally have already beaten Ballinacourty and Butlerstown while last year's runners-up in the marathon, Rathgormack, played a draw with St. Saviours and beat Clashmore by four points. It will be very much a touch-and-go affair with very little between them in the finish. Stradbally might just pip the Eastern side.

STRADBALLY V. ST. SAVIOURS

This is a listed game for Sunday evening at Dunhill, even though Stradbally will have played Rathgormack on Thursday. In Saviours' only game so far they have drawn with Rathgormack and according to all accounts of that game the city team should have won. The last time that these sides clashed was in 1991 and then Stradbally scored a five points victory. It will be closer now and the result could even be reversed, even though Stradbally will field as favourites.

NIRE V. DUNHILL

I don't believe that the Nire will come away from Kilmac' without the two points after they have played Dunhill in one of the lesser attractive matches of the week-end. Dunhill have been beaten by Tramore and Dungarvan and may go out of contention after this one. The Nire's only match in the championship was a couple of months ago when they beat Kilmacthomas by a single point (1-8 to 1-7) at Leamybrien on April 29th.

RATHGORMACK V. AFFANE

Like Stradbally, Rathgormack have two matches this week-end and having played on Thursday will take on Affane on Sunday evening at Leamybrien. Affane were playing well against Butlerstown in their first game at senior level, but faded away towards the end to leave the Eastern team home with the two points. I don't expect to see them defeat Rathgormack who will have too much power and experience for the 1992 intermediate champions.

Junior Football REFIXTURE

Ballinacourty and Kilrossanty will meet again on Thursday at Stradbally in their play-off game which became abortive after an unfortunate accident in which Brendan McGuire was seriously injured. In the abandoned match, Ballinacourty were leading by 0-3 to 0-2 when it was called off.

In the play-off of the other section, Affane will play Brickeys at Ardmore. Both matches will be tight and with the losers in each case going out of the championship, and the winners going forward, they all have it all to play for.

Junior Hurling Championship

ARDMORE V. CLASHMORE

This is the opening match at Cappoquin venue on Sunday afternoon. Both Clashmore and Geraldines had tough games on last week-end and both will be very fit for this very interesting contest. It can go either way.

WALSH CUP FINAL

This was formerly the Keaneland Cup and has ever aroused interest around the West. It is the first time that Lismore and Ballysaggart will have clashed at this level. Both sides will include several players who have played together at underage level with Lismore. In the semi-finals Ballysaggart beat Tallow and Lismore defeated Ballyduff. Mr. Eamonn Walsh, the sponsor who is a well-known publican, has donated a set of kit bags for the winners. It is timed for 7.30 p.m. on Friday at Lismore.

Junior Football Championship

MODELIGO V. TALLOW

Tallow juniors have not been going well in the football championship and it will come as a very big surprise if they beat Modeligo who are likely to get to the concluding stages of the championship. They meet at Lismore on Saturday evening.

EMMETTS V. LISMORE

A very close encounter is predicted. Emmetts dropped two points when beaten by Modeligo in the first round while Lismore have won both their matches against Seana Phobal and Tallow. Lismore will be hard to beat here.

BALLYDUFF V. SEANA PHOBAL

SEANA Phobal will be favourites here. Having lost by a single point to Kilgobinet they went on to beat Modeligo in another good game. They were not at full strength when losing to Lismore.

Intermediate Hurling Championship

STRADBALLY V. CAPPOQUIN

This is fixed for Ardmore on Tuesday evening of next week and by all accounts it will be a death or glory affair for Cappoquin who unexpectedly dropped points against An Rinn last week-end.

In Group 'A', Abbeyside and Erin's Own have both qualified but must meet to decide which plays in the semi-final or quarter-final. The third place will be filled by Shamrocks or St. Mollerans who meet at Leamybrien on this Thursday evening in the final match of the group. Gone are Ballysaggart and Ballydurn.

In Group 'B', the situation is not so clear cut and only Tramore are gone out as the other five are still in the reckoning; Clonea are certain to qualify and St. Mary's and Stradbally look like being the other two teams to qualify in the group. An Rinn are not out of the running and Cappoquin have just an outside chance of making it to the play-offs.

SHAMROCKS V. ST. MOLLERANS

This is a make-or-break situation for both clubs as the losers go out and the winners will qualify for the quarter finals. Last year when the sides met in the very first game in the intermediate championship, Shamrocks scored a decisive 2-8 to 2-1 victory and their win against the championship favourites, Erin's Own over the week-end showed that the Knockanore team are back at their best again. Their seven points win over the favourites gave notice to all comers that they mean to win this title.

Mollerans have an outside chance of qualifying if they win this one, but having seen them recently against Abbeyside, I would not rate them to be as good as Shamrocks, who should qualify.

Lawlors Hotel Sponsors Waterford Ladies Football Teams

Lismore Win Tough and Tumble Game

Lismore 2-13 Portlaw 2-6

This was a rather rough and tumble game and for long periods the standard was disappointing as Lismore played themselves into joint leadership with Mount Sion, while Portlaw played themselves out of the senior hurling championship for yet another year.

PLAY

Sean Daly had a Lismore goal within a minute of the start and Brendan Lawton added a point in the 4th.

Tom Larkin opened for Portlaw with a 7th minute point, but Billy Lee brought one back a minute later for Lismore. Paul Prendergast had a brace of points and Sean Daly had a couple of minors before scoring his second major, to leave the Western side clear leaders by 2-6 to 0-1 by the 19th minute and at this time it looked like developing into a very one-sided affair.

Ger O'Brien had a goal for Portlaw in the 22nd minute and points by Hugh Maher and John Galvin brought their halftime score to 1-3, while an Alan Dunne point in the 28th minute left Lismore leading with 2-7 on their side of the board.

Towards the end of the first half, Lismore introduced 16 year old Dan Shanahan for B. Lee.

SECOND HALF

Brendan Lawton opened with a Lismore point and following a long distance delivery by Davy Foran, John Galvin shot home Portlaw's second goal and when the same player had a 34th minute point, the challengers were back in the game with a chance (2-8 to 2-4). A semi-penalty to Lismore was saved and Sean Daly pointed — a score which restored Lismore's confidence and they went on to add a further four (Daly 2) and Sean and Barney Fitzgerald (0-1 each), while Portlaw's final two points came from John Galvin and Davy Foran.

Lismore — D. Landers, Mark O'Sullivan, D. Barry, J. O'Connor, P. O'Donnell, Sean Prendergast, K. O'Gorman, Brendan Prendergast, Michael O'Sullivan, B. Lawton, B. Lee, Paul Prendergast, A. Dunne, S. Daly, B. Ormond. Subs — D. Shanahan for B. Lee, Sean Prendergast for A. Dunne.

Portlaw — J. Power, R. de Paor, P. Coffey, D. Walsh, B. Laffan, G. Harris, D. Foran, D. de Paor, F. O'Shea, A. Kirwan, H. Maher, T. Larkin, Michael Walsh, J. Galvin, G. O'Brien.

The League Is Over

The league section of the senior hurling championship is now over and while there is one outstanding game (Dungarvan v. Colligan) the result is immaterial as it will only determine which side meets St. Saviours in the relegation game. In Group 'A' both Lismore and Mount Sion have ended up with 10 points each and must now meet in a play-off to decide which teams goes into the semi-final and which plays Ballygunner in the quarter final.

CLONEA TAKE ON AN RINN

This one is absolutely vital as far as the Gaeltacht side is concerned as a defeat would leave them struggling to make it to the K/O stages. Clonea are already qualified, but will need to win if they are to go straight through to the semi-final. They dropped a point when playing a draw with Stradbally but still remain unbeaten. Ring will find it tough, but if hitting their top form as they appear to have done against Cappoquin over the past weekend, they could pip the table-toppers in their group.

Fourmilewater are deservedly in third spot in this group, having finished with eight points. They will meet Roanmore in the other quarter-final. The also-rans in this group are Tallow, Portlaw, Dungarvan and Colligan.

In Group 'B' Passage have come out on top with an unbeaten record and having 10 points. Neighbours, Roanmore have taken second spot and Ballygunner, the reigning county champions have taken the third place. Gone out in this group are De La Salle, Ballyduff, Dunhill and St. Saviours.

DISAPPOINTING

Up to this stage the senior hurling championship has been a big disappointment with very few memorable games having taken place among the 41 matches played so far. It is a championship that sort of went unnoticed. Hopefully the remaining five will give us something to remember. The loss of Fraher field as a venue must have taken away some of the glamour for some of the games, as even with this lack of proper facilities, the venue does hold a special attraction for some clubs and their followers. All credit to the other venues who hosted the games during the season to-date.

Ordination Of Bishop William Lee

The new Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, Father William Lee, was ordained Bishop by his predecessor, Dr. Michael Russell, assisted by the Papal Nuncio to Ireland, Dr. Emmanuel Gerada, and the Archbishop of Cashel, Dr. Dermot Clifford, at the Cathedral, Waterford in the presence of a huge gathering on Sunday last. Cardinal Cahal Daly presided and gave the homily at the ceremony.

The Holy Trinity Cathedral, Waterford, is this year celebrating its 200th anniversary. The building is a unique treasure of the Irish Catholic Church. It was the first post-Penal cathedral built in the country. Its architect, John Roberts, had earlier designed the city's Church of Ireland cathedral, Christ Church. As an Anglican, his ideas of church architecture would have been drawn mainly from that tradition. This probably accounts for the classical simplicity of the design and the inclusion of galleries, which makes Holy Trinity unlike any other Catholic Cathedral in Ireland.

The ordination ceremony followed immediately after the Gospel of the Mass.

An Taoiseach, Mr. Albert Reynolds, led the representation by the State, which also included the Minister for the Environment, Mr. Michael Smith, and the Minister of State at the Department of Agriculture, Mr. Brian O'Shea.

A strong ecumenical representation included the Bishop of Cashel and Waterford, Rt. Rev. Noel Willoughby; the Dean of Waterford, Very Rev. W.B.A. Neill; the Dean of Lismore, Very Rev. Cecil Weekes; the Rev. Fred Vincent (representing the Presbyterian and Methodist community) and Mr. James Sexton of the Society of Friends.

Each of the 45 parishes of Waterford and Lismore were represented by lay people and a group from the new bishop's native parish of Newport, Co. Tipperary were also present.

The Mayor of Waterford, Mr. Martin Cullen, TD, and the Mayor of Clonmel, Mr. Michael O'Brien, led a strong representation of public representatives from the diocese. Members of diocesan organisations and from educational and cultural bodies were also present.

Members of Bishop Lee's family - Sr. Patricia Lee, Mercy Convent, Doon, Co. Limerick; Mr. John Lee and his wife, Gabrielle, Newport, Co. Tipperary; Mrs. Eileen McDonogh and her husband, John, Bruree, Co. Limerick; and Dr. Patrick Lee and wife, Mary Ballyclough, Limerick, were also present for the ceremony.

22 BISHOPS

Twenty-two bishops from Ireland, Britain and the United States were concelebrating at the ordination Mass. Visiting bishops included Dr. John Mone of Paisley, Waterford-born Bishop Charles Henderson, Auxiliary in Southwark, London, and Bishop P. J. McGrath, Auxiliary in San Francisco.

They were joined by the Abbots of Glenstal (Dom Celestine Cullen), Mount Melleray (Dom Eamon Fitzgerald) and Mount St. Joseph, Roscrea (Dom Colmille O'Toole), the President of Maynooth College, Mons. Miceal Ledwith, the new bishop's classmates, and religious and diocesan priests from Waterford and Lismore.

The first reading from Isaiah - "he sent me to bring good news to the poor" was read by Mr. Brendan Daly, representing the St. Joseph's Young Priests' Society. The second reading from the First Letter of Peter "Be Shepherds of the flock of God that is entrusted to you" was read in Irish by Miss Deirdre O'Shea representing the primary school teachers of the diocese. The Gospel was from St. John "This is my commandment: Love one another as I have loved you" and was read by Rev. Edmond Hassett, deacon of the Mass and a student at St. John's College, Waterford.

The cantor was Fr. Pat Fitzgerald and Mrs.

Josephine O'Carroll sang the responsorial psalm. The Cathedral choir and brass ensemble was under the direction of Mr. Kevin O'Carroll. The organist was Mr. John O'Keefe.

In the Offertory procession, the following gifts were brought to the altar:

- banner, carried by Amy

Phelan of the Cathedral parish;

- flowers, carried by Ingrid Walsh representing the Wheelchair Association;

- chalice and Bible, carried by Brian Denn and Marian Fanning of Clonmel;

- candles, carried by Sr. Patricia Lee (the new bishop's sister) and Bro. John Campion of the Christian Brothers;

- Bread and Wine, carried by Frank and Peggy Power of Kilossra, Dungarvan.

Dungarvan Man Remanded On Sex Charge

A District Court Judge has refused jurisdiction in a case in which a 28 year old Co. Waterford man is charged with a sex assault.

Patrick Duggan, 20, Caseyville, Dungarvan, is charged with assaulting an 18 year old female at a house at Seaview, Youghal, on April 5 last, contrary to Section 2(1) of the Criminal Law (Rape) Act 1990.

When details of the alleged assault were outlined to him at Youghal Court last Friday, Judge Michael Pattwell said he would not accept jurisdiction in the case.

Duggan, who is presently serving a sentence for burglary, was remanded in continuing custody to Dungarvan District Court today (Wednesday).

Supt. Maurice Murray represented the Director of Public Prosecutions and Mr. David Keane, Solr. appeared for the accused.
