Surprise Resignations Shock Lismore Festival Committee

BY AISLING CONROY

JAN VAN PUTTEN

Lismore was reeling this week in the wake of two shock resignations from the town's festival committee.

Musical director of the West Waterford Festival of Early Music, Jan Van Putten and his wife, journalist Maureen Fox, both resigned from the Festival Committee because of what they described as 'tensions' within the group.

The loss of the Dutch born Musical Director and his wife who acted as Press Officer, will doubtless deal a severe blow to the stability of what has now become a firmly established event on the Irish Music calendar.

This year's Festival attracted an Arts Council grant and two new major sponsors, Guinness and Waterford Crystal.

New Factory On Horizon For Dungarvan

Dungarvan's chances of attracting in a new industry to the town are set to increase dramatically due to an agreement which has just been reached between Forfas and a private developer for the construction of an advance factory at Clogherane Industrial Estate. A planning application in respect of this exciting development is expected to be submitted to Dungarvan Urban Council in the near future.

Letters to the Editor

DAFFODIL DAY SUCCESS

Dear Editor,
On behalf of the Irish Cancer Society I would like to say a sincere thank you to all your readers for their support for Daffodil Day 1995. This year's Daffodil Day campaign has been the most successful ever, breaking the £1 million barrier for the very first time in its eight year history and raising a record total of £1.1 million for cancer care in Ireland.

This year in Waterford, the wonderful figure of £29,459 — an increase of over £2,000 on last year's total — was raised locally on Daffodil Day. This was achieved through the generosity of a wide cross section of your community — the local branch of Bank of Ireland, businesses, schools, local clubs, the media and individuals who all contributed to the unique success of this year's Daffodil campaign.

Thank you for your continued co-operation and assistance in helping us to maintain our services in the community and country-wide.

THE CHARGE OF THE LIGHT BRIGADE

Dear Sir,
I am in the process of compiling a writing and book of photo-portraits of men who charged with the Light Brigade at the Battle of Balaclava in 1854.

Many of the Officers, N.C.O.'s and Troopers who went down that infamous valley were Irishmen. I am especially interested in contacting the descendants of these men with a view to obtaining copies of photographs of their illustrious ancestors.

If any of your readers can help me I would very much like to hear from them.

Yours faithfully,

Cappoquin Man Runner-Up In '95 Techstart Competition

The Technologist of the Year Award was held recently to find the '95 Techstart technologist.

The scheme is designed to throw the spotlight on young people who are using their talents and skills to benefit Irish industry.

Martin O'Reilly of Precast Products Ltd., Waterford, took second place in the competition. A native of Cappoquin, Martin took his degree in Industrial Engineering at the University of Limerick. His job at Precast Products Ltd., which operates in the area of reconstructing stone and engineering products and concrete manufacture, was to put in place a production/quality control system leading to certification of ISO 9000. Martin's work resulted in the company developing excellent production techniques.

QUESTION

We are a voluntary organisation and we have just been billed for £500 in rates. We are the only tenants in the building, which we are renting for a nominal rent. Our resources are very limited. Are we obliged to pay these rates or how do we go about getting these rates waived?

ANSWER

All fixed property is valued for rating purposes—but rates are only payable on commercial properties. However, some local authorities base the local service charges on the rateable valuation (RV) of property.

Valuations are determined by the Valuation Office. The valuation is based on an estimate of the annual rent that the property might be let for to a hypothetical tenant, who would bear the cost of maintenance, repairs and rates.

You can apply for a revision of the valuation of the property to the local authority. The application should be sent in writing, stating the grounds for seeking the revision, with the fee of £20. The Commission of Valuation issues the result to the Local Authority usually within six months of the application for the revision.

Revision results may be issued within the first ten days of February, May, August and November and are available for inspection for 21 days thereafter.

If you are dissatisfied with a revision you have a right to appeal to the Commissioners. The procedure for doing this is:

1. — Send the notice of appeal to the Secretary or Clerk of the Local Authority within 28 days of the receipt of the list by the Local Authority.
2. — Specify the grounds of the appeal.
3. — It must be in writing.
4. — It must be accompanied by the appropriate fee (this varies from £25 to £75 according to the value of the property).

All this can take time and in the meantime it seems that you would be liable for rates until the outcome of the revision/appeal. So, it may also be worthwhile making a strong case to the local rate collector for an exemption. If the case is good enough, it may then be referred to the County Manager for a decision. We don't know if this practice operates countrywide.

Geranium — A Favourite Plant

AUGUST is the best month to take cuttings from the versatile and highly rewarding geranium.

More correctly known as pelargoniums, geraniums are probably the Irish gardener's second favourite plant after fuchsias.

It's not hard to see why, when there is such a huge range of colours and types of bloom as well as some strong leaf markings and striking variegations. They are simple to propagate through cuttings or seed and will bloom all year in a sunny indoor location.

The regal varieties, with their large showy blooms, have become particularly popular recently, though they are more frail and tend to prefer the greenhouse.

Ivy-leaved types have less striking flowers but their trailing nature, delicate blooms and sometimes variegated leaves, make them ideal for boxes and hanging baskets — they are the frequent choice for 'tucking through' the base of baskets.

POPULARITY

Despite poor blooms, scented geraniums have gained popularity lately through the lovely fragrances given off by their leaves.

They are just as easily grown, but conservatories are the best locations to make the most of their scents during warm weather.

The plants tend to be sold by more specialised garden centres and nurseries where you will find the scents range from common fragrances such as orange and lemon, to spicy ones such as nutmeg. So, geraniums seem perfect, but they have a weakness — overwatering.

Water thoroughly when the soil or compost is reasonably dry and then leave them until they dry out again.

Never mist, cover or subject them to humid conditions or you risk stem rot and infectious leaf mould such as botrytis. In the case of stem rot or black leg, there is no cure and the plant must be destroyed.

The latter can be cured by removing diseased leaves, easing up on watering, creating more air around the plants and spraying with fungicide.

Underwatering is less serious and usually gives due warning when leaf edges stiffen and start to brown. When taking cuttings, you can pot up lots of small ones providing they are sturdy and healthy. You don't need rooting hormone.

After overwintering, be ready to pinch back the young plants to keep them bushy. You should also delay repotting until the plant shows signs of becoming pot-bound.

Geraniums are mostly propagated from cuttings but more gardeners are using seed — F1 hybrids are particularly popular.

Sow in January or February and maintain a temperature of around 22°C for germination and they will flower the following summer.

New Maternity Unit At Waterford Hospital

The new maternity department, which includes obstetrics and gynaecology, which is part of the new Waterford Regional Hospital, opened on July 25 last. All patients and staff from Airmount have transferred to the new unit.

The new 57 bed unit incorporates both private and public beds, four delivery suites, two dedicated caesarean section theatres and a comprehensive outpatients service.

The entrance for maternity admissions at Waterford Regional Hospital is temporarily beside the Accident and Emergency. Outpatients and visitors will enter the hospital through the main hospital entrance.

The integration of the obstetric and gynaecological services at Waterford Regional Hospital is the fulfilment of all those involved in having all medical specialities located on one site. It marks the completion of another phase in the development of the hospital.

Living in one room has its problems where cooking is concerned, but you would be surprised at the tasty dishes you can make in one pan. Here are some meaty ideas to try.

PORK IN A PAN

Ingredients

2 pork loin chops
1oz (25g) lard
8oz can tomatoes
8oz (225g) potatoes, diced
1/4 pint water
2oz (50g) mushrooms, sliced
2oz frozen peas
salt and pepper

Method

Heat the lard in a frying pan and brown the chops on both sides. Add tomatoes, water and potatoes, cover and simmer for 10 minutes. Stir in the mushrooms and peas. Cook for a further 15 minutes. Season to taste. Serve from the pan straight to the table.
Serves 2.

SAUUSAGE PILAU

Ingredients

4oz (110g) sausages
1/2 small onion, chopped
1oz (25g) rice
little cooking oil

Nourishing Meals In Just One Pan

1oz (25g) green beans
1oz (25g) mushrooms, sliced
1tsp Worcestershire sauce
salt and pepper
1/4 pint stock

Method

Brown the sausages in a little oil, remove. Add onion and rice. Stir continuously for about 7 minutes to prevent sticking and produce an even colour. Add remaining ingredients and simmer for about 12 minutes until the liquid is absorbed and rice is tender.

Slice the sausages and stir into the rice. Serve with a salad.
Serves 1.

BEEF CASSEROLE

Ingredients

1oz (25g) oil or fat
4oz (110g) stewing steak, cubed
1 carrot, sliced
1 medium potato, sliced
1 small turnip, cubed
1tbs plain flour
1/2 pint stock
salt and pepper
Dumplings
1tbs self-raising flour

1tbs suet
1tbs mixed herbs
2tsp water to mix
Method

Brown meat in hot oil, add vegetables and brown lightly. Stir in flour, add stock and season to taste. Bring to the boil, stirring all the time, until thickened. Lower heat and simmer for 45 minutes, stirring occasionally. Mix dumpling ingredients. Divide into two and drop into the saucepan. Simmer for a further 20 minutes.

Poaching Problem In Colligan River

With only twelve men to patrol the whole Waterford Fishery District, no wonder the problem of poaching has become so widespread.

According to local sources, poaching this season in Colligan River has now reached alarming levels with fish numbers significantly down on previous years. Speaking to the 'Dungarvan Leader' Chief Officer of the Southern Regional Fisheries Board, (S.R.F.B.), James Rogers said Colligan was a 'sadly heavily poached river'.

The Board he said recognises the problem and "is saddened by this most unfortunate and deplorable situation".

STAFF SHORTAGE

At this time of year, Mr. Rogers, disclosed that the bulk of the Board's resources were devoted to tidal water patrols. "At this stage we really don't have the resources to spare for freshwater patrolling", he added although later in the year, it is expected that Colligan will be patrolled by Fishery Officers 4/5 times a week.

Now receiving only intermittent attention from the S.R.F.B. (through no fault of their own) Colligan has become a type of poachers paradise due to an acute staffing problem which is more or less the same with other Fishery Boards nationwide.

"Our own staff resources are so low", said Mr. Rogers, "that the Board is heavily dependent on the Gardai and the public".

In this regard, the Chief Officer said he had received great support from local people and the Gardai in relation to poaching incidents over the years.

The most common poaching method, he revealed, is a fishing net strung across the river for a few hours, mainly at dead high tide.

The Clogherane industrial estate on the Youghal road is already home to two successful multi-national companies, Sterling Winthrop and Stafford Miller (Ireland) Ltd. The construction of a 'significantly sized' advance factory at this location would greatly enhance Dungarvan's chances of securing a new industry through the auspices of the IDA.

SIGNIFICANT STEP
UDC member, Cllr. Billy Kyne paid particular tribute to Waterford County Manager, Mr. Donal Connolly, who, he said, has done "trojan work behind the scenes to put a package together which will result in an advance factory for Dungarvan."

With months of preparatory work involved, Cllr. Kyne said there were many obstacles to be overcome by both the Forfas officials and the private developer. Now, however, all that remains is for the proposal to go through the planning process.

The provision of an advance factory, he said, can only be regarded "as a significant step in attracting further new industry to Dungarvan."

The labour Councillor added that the presence of two renowned companies such as Sterling Winthrop and Stafford Miller on the industrial estate would only be a help in convincing other multi-nationals to locate there.

Letter to the Editor

CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICISM OF WATERFORD CO. COUNCIL

Dear Editor,
So much for our Blue Flag Beach at Clonea, with no proper access to it for the elderly, wheelchair people, disabled people, mothers with small children, etc. Last year, 1994, was the European Year of the Disabled. Brussels made money available to the Minister for the Environment, the Minister in turn made this money available to the County Councils, including Waterford County Council. Clonea beach was granted in the region of £5,000. This money was to be used to put a proper access on to the beach for the above mentioned people. There are hundreds of people who fit into this category in the Dungarvan region. It is pointless for the County Council to be highlighting through the media that they have so many Blue Flag beaches in the county when they exclude a certain section of the community from using these facilities. I have decided to write this letter to explain my frustration towards Waterford County Council officials. The Dungarvan Multiple Sclerosis Branch have been lobbying the County Council to carry out this necessary piece of work for the past year. We got it raised at Council meetings and our local TD also raised it with the Council. We went to Waterford to get specifications from the NRB to give to the Council as the work would have to meet their standards. I, myself, have called to the Council offices at least twenty times this year. I have met with the County Engineer, Area Engineers, County Secretary and other officials, to hear a variety of excuses as to why the job hasn't been started, the excuses being i.e. bad weather, good weather, right of way, public liability, shortage of manpower, shortage of tradesmen, etc. The only shortage I can see is a shortage of commitment from Waterford County Council to carry out this necessary work. The Council's answer to queries like this usually are — "We would love to carry out the work but we have no finance available at the moment." But for this project they have no such excuse. The money is sanctioned since last year. So, let's hope we will see the proper access to Clonea beach shortly. Thank you, Editor for allowing me space in your widely read newspaper to highlight my frustration. TOM POWER, P.R.O. Dungarvan Branch Multiple Sclerosis.

Stradbally Notes

DEISE DRAW
We had no winner in the deise draw hosted by St. Saviours club on Friday night last. Well done to John Kiely and Liam Brazil who shared £10,000 in the draw. The next draw takes place in An Rinn on Friday August 25th.
DAY OUT
The Supporters club arranged a day out for our U-12 team and subs to Splash World, Tramore. The bus should have left the Village on Saturday morning at 11.30, but the bus didn't turn up. What a disappointment for our children. The bus had been booked two weeks and confirmed two days before so what went wrong. The day out will still take place but because of holidays it won't take place for a couple of weeks.

LATE RAYMOND O'REILLY
We have just learned with sadness of the unexpected death of Raymond O'Reilly, Cove Bar. We extend sincere sympathy to his wife and family. Full details next week.
GAA NOTES UNDER16's
We played our final game of the U-16 hurling championship (league section) against Colligan in Stradbally on Monday evening of last week. It was a good game of hurling. The half time score was 0-3 to 1-0 and the final score was Stradbally 1-9 Colligan 1-2. We now have to play Colligan again and this match is fixed for August 7th.

U-16 FOOTBALL
The following are the fixtures for the U-16 football championship. We play in division 2, section B. We play Abbeyside B on September 4th at home; we play the Nire away on 11th and we also play Naomh Brid away on the 18th and all matches are at 6.45 p.m.
SENIOR FOOTBALL
We played our final game of the league in the senior football championship against Gaultier in Fraher field on Saturday evening last. In a very exciting game Gaultier led by 2 points at half time 2-3 to 1-4. At one stage in the second half we were behind by 3 points but we came back to snatch a victory by 2 points 3-7 to 3-5. We have now earned ourselves a place in the semi-final. Well done lads.

Extension To Dungarvan Graveyard

Dungarvan UDC members have approved of the provision of a new burial ground at Council owned land at Ringnasilloge opposite Dungarvan Youth Club. The walled burial ground will provide approximately 320 grave spaces laid out in a lawn fashion and is expected to suffice for the next 25 to 30 years. Trial holes dug by the Council immediately outside the existing graveyard at St. Mary's Parish Church proved that the ground conditions there were unsuitable. As a result of further trial holes in the vicinity, suitable land was identified at the rear of Childers Estate, along the wall bordering the CBS sportsfield. For burials taking place in the new burial ground, following the Requiem Mass in St. Mary's the funeral cortege will travel via the existing graveyard, through an access in the existing cemetery wall and along a footpath to the new graveyard. As agreed with Canon G. Power P.P., the new cemetery will be developed by the Council and managed and maintained by the Church Authorities. 50% of the proceeds of each grave space will be paid to the UDC towards the capital costs. On the proposal of Cllr. Paddy Power and seconded by Cllr. Austin Flynn, it was unanimously decided to proceed with the new graveyard plans.

Water Safety Courses
Instruction in swimming and lifesaving will take place at the following venue during the week August 7-12 — Clonea Strand, Dungarvan.
This week's message is "At the beach, if the Red Flag is flying — DO NOT SWIM."

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

GLENSHELANE

The 11th Waterford left Glenshelane on Tuesday after an enjoyable camp, with only one very wet day recorded. We welcome St. Paul's Unit from Waterford city who begin their camp this Wednesday. This is St. Paul's second time in the Glen as they were here about four years ago. We wish them good camping weather.

GENERAL

Even though our scouts are camping in Cork, the den was busy last week with German scouts camping in the field on Monday and On Wednesday night the Glanmire scouts, camping at Stradbally, paid us a visit and stayed overnight at the Den. They left for home on Saturday and are looking forward to going to Larch Hill for the Melvin.

LOCAL DERBY CLASH

Picture the scene. A lovely summer's evening with the sun shining pleasantly. The main pitch at Abbeyside's G.A.A. grounds in perfect condition for hurling. A sizeable crowd of intensely interested supporters lining each side of the pitch urging on their favourites. Two teams of sixteen year olds from Abbeyside and Dungarvan battling it out in a local derby.

It was an exhibition of all that is good in hurling and proves that the ancient game is still an integral part of our psyche and arouses a passion that cannot be matched by other codes. It was a privilege to be fortunate enough to watch such an exhibition and it is special occasions like this that makes one glad to be living by the banks of the Collihan river. Congratulations to Dungarvan on winning the match.

Abbeyside Guide Notes

ALL RECORDED IN ABBEYSIDE REFERENCE ARCHIVE

Earlier this year Abbeyside Reference Archive asked us to produce a file recording the history of guiding in Abbeyside 1981-1994. After extensive researching, editing, writing, typing and photocopying we finally completed our task. Quite content with our achievement we decided to sit back and relax. As usual, however our holiday was brief. All too soon some smart Alec (he knows who he is!) decided that we should reproduce part of the file in booklet form, which could be obtained and enjoyed by members past, present and future. Such a good idea - so we decided to ignore it! Well we weren't exactly stuck for work at the time, so he nagged us and we ignored him and then when everything had gone quiet we got down to work.

Now, several months later, our booklet is completed. A very limited and exclusive colour version has been distributed to some well known V.I.P's. (a copy of this is on display in the archive), while the black and white copy will soon be widely available. So if you have ever had any connection whatsoever with Guiding in Abbeyside, you are bound to find some memories recorded here. If you wish to delve deeper into the past why not visit the Reference Archive, in the parish office, Strandside South, Abbeyside any Sunday afternoon where our more comprehensive file, including a wide variety of colour photos can be viewed at your leisure. While we are not promising to solve the mystery of the disappearing apple tart we have recorded the story behind our neckerchief and much much more!

Friends Of Ballinroad Hall Support Summer Dance

It may not be the time of year for activities in Ballinroad Hall but that fact does not prevent all those interested in the facility making sure that conditions in the Hall will be of the highest standard in the future.

Last Friday night it was the turn of Josephine Morrissey and Doreen Walsh to utilise their considerable organisational skills and successfully provide a night of enjoyment by means of a midsummer's night dance in Clonea Strand Hotel. Refreshments were provided during the evening and from 9.30 p.m., music for the dance was played by Richie Halpin.

People came from every corner of the locality to partake in the fun but it was plain to be seen that there was a taste of more in the proceedings when the playing of 'Amhrain na bhFiann' brought an end to the night's enjoyment. People who could not attend for various reasons bought tickets any way and so Josephine was able to tell me that seven hundred pounds had been raised. This money combined with the one thousand and fifty pounds raised on the Nire Valley Walk on Sunday July 16th ensures that structurally Ballinroad Hall will be a better place for the coming winter.

Chairman of Ballinroad

Hall Committee, Michael Fraher in his address complimented those who organised the dance and all the people who had supported it. He thanked Fr. Ahearne for being such a driving force in the parish. He also praised the FAS workers and Moll Shields for everything they had done for the hall.

There was general satisfaction at a tremendous night's entertainment and as far as we can be certain everybody reached home safely.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING

Abbeyside's new look hurling team by virtue of a 4-15 to 0-10 victory over the Shamrocks last Friday evening topped their group in the league section of the championship in which they were unbeaten and have qualified for the semi-final of the championship. Playing a brand of hurling reminiscent of the glory days of Abbeyside back into senior ranks for next year's championships. No date has yet been fixed for the semi-final.

Record Breaking Day At Sunny Dungarvan Show

BY AISLING CONROY

The 80th Dungarvan Show and undoubtedly the best! That's the general impression from those who visited the famed agricultural show on the superb Slattery/O'Grady family lands at Ballygagin last Thursday.

The scene was set on the picturesque 35 green acre site amid warm summer sunshine, as a 6,000 strong crowd teemed the show tents, stands and exhibitions to overflowing. The prevalent atmosphere was similar to that of a summer festival as children, families, couples and friends enjoyed an entertaining day out of top class showjumping, home cooking, cattle and sheep exhibitions, and everything from face painting, fancy dress, dog show and bouncing castle to line dancing.

EXCEPTIONAL QUALITY

To top off the day, entries in all categories were considerably improved on previous years while the number of trade stands doubled that of last years total. Also take into account the record breaking attendance and exceptionally high quality standard of entries and it's little wonder that this year's Show certainly had the perfect recipe for success. As in the words of Show Chairman Nicholas Power the '95 Show was "the best ever".

Visiting the show this year was Junior Minister Eithne Fitzgerald who dropped in on the WLR FM unit after a flying visit of Lismore, Cappoquin and Tallow earlier that morning. The Junior Minister was obviously impressed with the Show's proceedings and later praised the Waterford Enterprise Board who had helped set up a number of successful small industries.

Another distinguished visitor to the Show was ICMSA President, Tom O'Dwyer who presented the Waterford ICMSA/Teagasc Family Farm Award to Roger and Breda McCarthy of Churchquarter, Cappagh.

RECIPE FOR SUCCESS

In the Premier Dairies all-Ireland baking championship, Joan Byrne of Deerpark, Lismore was declared the winner. She will represent the area in the national final at the Limerick Show on August 27th. Competitors were asked to bake three items; a traditional round brown soda bread; a fruit tart; and a decorated cream cake using an 8" tin.

Mrs. Byrne will receive a presentation set of Newbridge Cutlery and a Premier Dairies hamper on appearance at the final.

In the cattle section, the prestigious Waterford Foods Super Cow championship worth £1000 was won by noted dairy breeder John Skehan of Ross, Carrick-on-Suir with his 6 year old Friesian "Howes Sultan Sara". Meanwhile, James and Ivan Ryall of Castlemartyr were also winners on the day with their 2 year old heifer "Knockare Hilda" who was named the beef champion of the show.

Starting at 10 a.m. the showjumping competitions proved a popular hit with visitors who saw at first hand the skill and expertise of such top internationals as Robert Splaine, Edward Doyle, Francis Connors and Marion Hughes who battled it out for points on the Heineken League Table. The final victor emerged as Belgooley's Robert Splaine who captured the Gain Championship on "imperial Finish Task". In second place was 18 year old Diane Beecher of Tallow on her father's horse "Loughnatusa Zara" and she also claimed third place on "Loughnatusa Bruno".

A MEMORABLE DAY

In all, the '95 Show was a truly memorable event. This year's inclusion of a regular shuttle bus from Gratton Square made access to the Show grounds easier for all while the huge line up of events ensured that there was something for everyone. Hats off to the organising committee whose detailed planning and hard work certainly paid off on the day.

DEAL TO BE SIGNED THIS WEEK

The £12.5 million investment package for South Tipperary's health services is now awaiting the seal of the Minister for Health Mr. Noonan following agreement between the Cashel Hospital Action Committee and the South-Eastern Health Board. The signing of the agreement is expected by the end of the week paving the way for a massive investment in the Health Services in South Tipperary/West Waterford. The agreement has to be signed by four parties, the Minister for Health, The South Eastern Health Board, Cashel Hospital Action Committee and Councillor Jack Crowe who is a member of C.H.A.C. and S.E.H.B.

However, there is still some disquiet in the town of Cashel and a Fine Gael member of Cashel UDC Councillor Tom Wood, has accused the Minister for Health, Michael Noonan of conducting an orchestrated campaign to pressurise Cashel into submission. Cllr. Wood warned that in years to come the citizens of the county would "rue the day any so called agreement was signed".

LATE MRS. MARY McANENEY

It is with deep regret we record the death of Mrs. Mary McAneney (nee Kennedy), Coole, Newcastle, which sad event took place at our Lady's Hospital, Cashel on Saturday July 22nd. Deceased in her 92nd year was a member of an old and respected Newcastle family. She spent some 72 years in the United States. A very estimable lady on many charming traits of character, her gentle good humoured and obliging nature, mild manner and unassuming disposition, commended her to all fortunate enough to make her acquaintance, and her demise even of an advanced age has evoked feelings of sincere regret among her neighbours and her many friends. The respect in which deceased and her family are held was amply illustrated on Sunday evening when all walks of life were present in the large concourse of mourners when her remains were removed from Condons Funeral Parlour, Clonmel to St. Mary's parish church, Newcastle. On Monday morning the feast of St. Christina (Virgin and Martyr) requiem Mass was celebrated for the happy repose of her gentle soul. After Mass she was laid to rest in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery, again in the presence of a large concourse of mourners who came to pay their final respects to a dear Christian friend whose memory they will cherish. To her relatives we extend our sympathy. Craobh an ti ar lar grasta agus Trocaire ar a h-anam uasal.

LATE MRS. MAUREEN LOOBY

Profound and sincere feelings of regret were widely expressed at the news of the regretted death which occurred after a long illness borne with true Christian fortitude of Mrs. Maureen Looby (nee McGrath) Sleady, Ballinamult. Deceased was a member of an old and respected County Waterford family and a lady of outstanding qualities who possessed a wonderful warm personality. A loving wife and mother she was proud of her family and they of her. All callers to her home were made truly welcome, as she was a caring neighbour abounding in Christian Charity who made an immediate and lasting impression by virtue of her courteous and easy going nature which endeared her to all. Many tributes have been paid to her memory, but the finest was provided when all walks of life were represented in the vast concourse of mourners who were present when her remains were removed from Kieleys Funeral Home, Dungarvan on Monday evening to St. Marys Parish Church, Touraneena. On Tuesday morning the feast of Saint James (Apostle) requiem Mass was celebrated for the happy repose of her gentle soul. After Mass she was laid to rest in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery, again in the presence of a large concourse of mourners, who came to pay their final respects to a dear Christian friend whose memory they will cherish. To her husband Tom and family, her mother and brothers and her many relatives we tender to them our sympathy. Leaba i measc na Naomh go raibh aici.

LATE MISS MARY FOGARTY

It is with deep regret we place on record the death of Miss Mary (Molly) Fogarty, Ballythomas, Rathgormack, which sad event took place after an illness of some duration at St. Josephs Hospital, Clonmel, on Thursday 27th July. Deceased was a member of an old and respected County Waterford family, abundantly endowed with all the true Christian traits of character, and possessed a most charitable outlook on life. A wonderful neighbour her integrity, courtesy and outgoing sincere nature commended her to young and old alike, and a host of friends who appreciated her company now truly and justifiably grieve for the void her passing leaves. The respect and high regard in which deceased and her family are held over a wide area was evidenced on Friday evening by the large concourse of mourners who were present when her remains were removed from Joe Walshes Funeral Home, Carrick-on-Suir to SS Cuan and Brogan Parish Church, Clonea-Power. On Saturday morning the feast of Saint Martha (virgin) requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of her gentle soul. After Mass she was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery again in the presence of a large concourse of mourners who joined family, neighbours and many friends in a final fitting tribute to a Christian friend. To her brothers and sister and her many relatives we extend to them our deepest sympathy. Suaimhneas Siorai da h-anam uasal.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

We have something of an historic photograph for our "Remembering Other Days" series this week as we cross the Causeway to Abbeyside. The picture was taken in a well known Village street called Slate Lane. The Lane we are told was demolished in 1947, just three weeks before building started on the Murphy Place Housing Scheme. Houses no. 1 to 12 in Murphy Place now occupy the site where the Slate Lane houses stood. The photo is of a group of schoolchildren and was taken during the summer (as can be gauged by the fact that most of the boys are not wearing shoes). Unfortunately we are unable to identify all of the children but some of our readers may know them. Group shows (at back l. to r.) (———), Paudie Organ, — Flynn, Larry O'Leary R.I.P., Bill Organ R.I.P., Michael O'Leary. In front — Tuckey Organ, Terry Organ, Emma Flynn, Marie Power and Neva Allridge.

Tadgh Gaelach O Súilleabháin

1715 - 1795

The bicentenary of the death of Tadgh Gaelach O Súilleabháin was commemorated in his native place, Tournafola, Drumcollogher, Co. Limerick on Saturday and Sunday, July 1st and 2nd. Members of Deuglán Fáilte attended on both days and on Sunday were accompanied by Fr. James Hurley S.J. The driving force behind the whole idea of this commemoration was our own St. Declan.

Tadgh Gaelach was a prolific writer of religious poems. His best known work is 'Duain Chroí Iosa' in praise of the Sacred Heart. He also wrote 'Duain Dheugláin', and was a frequent visitor to the Pattern in Ardmore. It was fitting therefore that Ardmore should be represented at the celebrations.

On the Saturday we were taken on a most informative and interesting historical tour of the area. Lectures were delivered by several eminent historians. Our first stop was at Mintín Eóghain, the townland where the poet was born in 1715. From there, we travelled up to the Mass Rock at Mullahareirk. (That name will be familiar to those who did "Mo Sceal Féin" at school). There was a sense of spirituality and history in this lovely spot on the mountain side overlooking the fertile expanse of The Golden Vale.

Springfield Castle was our next port of call. Part of the original castle building, with its huge courtyard, still remains, together with an extension which was added at a later stage. The entire building may be rented out for the "paltry" sum of £1,000 per day at peak times and at £500 per day in the low season. There is no shortage of takers, we were told. The present owner is Lord Muskerry, who now lives in South Africa. His daughter and son-in-law run the castle and the Deer Centre attached thereto. Among the amenities to be enjoyed there are nature walks, a guided tractor-trailer tour through the herds of deer, a picnic area, a coffee shop and a gift shop.

Our next stop was Killeedy. Here we saw the ruin of the monastery of St. Ita, who nurtured some of the great Irish saints included St. Brendan, The Navigator.

There was lots more on the itinerary, including a visit to the grave of another great poet Sean Clarach MacCarthaigh. Alas, time had caught up with us and very reluctantly we returned to Tournafola, to hear the principal lecture of the day which was by Una McHenry, who, with the use of slides and a fantastic handout, made the whole subject come alive.

Unfortunately we had to leave the festivities early because of the long journey home. Early on Sunday morning we set out again for Mass in Tournafola at 10.30 a.m. Ardmore native, Fr. James Hurley, S.J. assisted at the mass. Sr. Declan preached a wonderful sermon. She spoke of the enormous devotion Tadgh Gaelach had to the Sacred Heart; how he had travelled every county in Munster spreading that devotion through the medium of his poetry, thereby, lifting the spirit of the Irish people at a time when religion was suppressed and they were suffering extreme poverty because of the penal laws. Most of the mass was in Irish. Fr. Kelly, the parish priest was responsible for the music and he trained the choir himself. It was superb.

The people of Tournafola were just fantastic. A notable feature of the celebration was the number of people who spoke Irish. It just seemed to be the natural thing to do in the friendly and relaxed atmosphere which prevailed throughout.

Tadgh Gaelach O Súilleabháin died in the cathedral in Waterford in the year 1795 and he is buried in Ballylaneen near Kilmacthomas. Through the celebration of this bicentennial year, it is hoped that there will be a renewed interest in the work of the poet and that more people will come to know and appreciate the significance of his poetry. - Cáit Uí Leighin

DUNGARVAN SHOW

Last Thursday 27th July, the club participated in the Dungarvan Show. It was the first time in a number of years that our club managed to have a full team participate in the competitions. Well done to all our participants who were: Helen Noonan who took part in the car driving task; Tom Cliffe and Mary Barron (Dungarvan) who did the sports and dance; James Meagher made our Halloween scarecrow; Daniel O'Donnell iced the cake;

John O'Donnell and Richard Prendergast did the garden display and carpentry and finally Anita Meagher and Annette Cliffe who did the P.R.O. board.

brate and that we did by dancing to the excellent music provided by 'Cheers'. Congratulations to Ballyduff Macra who won club of the year.

So, we have come to an end of another Macra year. I would like to congratulate all those who took part in various competitions throughout the year. We look forward to seeing all our old members and also to some new faces at our A.G.M. in August and to a new exciting Macra year ahead. - Anita Meagher, P.R.O.

QUINNERS (CAPPOQUIN) A.C.

There was a good turnout for the Churchtown 5 (Ballycotton series) with improved times for all those competing. The competing members were T. J. Mason, Fox McGrath, Gerard Fitzgerald, John Cahill, Gerard O'Keefe, Stephen O'Rourke and Colette Fitzgerald.

The heat is on in the in-club competition for fastest time with Fox McGrath and Ger Fitzgerald closing the gap on T. J. Mason. The vibes on the road have it that T. J. may pull out of the last of the series and concentrate on altitude training to improve his times - with the help of some leading local sports representatives.

AFFANE A.F.C.

We are holding our A.G.M. on this Friday evening at 8.30 p.m. sharp in Affane Hall. All players please attend. All newcomers are more than welcome.

RECOVERED

We are glad to note that popular Garda Oliver Croke is home again, after a spell in hospital. We wish him a speedy return to full health.

AT THE SPORTSFIELD

On Friday evening the venue staged the Intermediate hurling championship game Abbeyside v. Shamrocks. Going into the game Abbeyside were sure of a place in the knock out stages not so their opponents, however, who needed every point to stay in contention.

Each side scored two points in the first quarter. At that stage the Shamrock's 'keeper saved brilliantly but it was Abbeyside who started to gorge ahead and scored five points in as many minutes. Dan Casey, pulled one back for Shamrocks following a solo run. In the 24th minute the village had a goal by Sheehan following a goalmouth scramble and from then on were never in any danger. Half time Abbeyside 1-10 Shamrocks 0-3.

The pattern was the same in the second half when Abbeyside went on a scoring spree. As well as hitting five points they also managed three goals two of which were scored by man of the match Cunningham, the other came from a long distance lob which was misjudged by the 'keeper and ended up in the net. Final score Abbeyside 4-10 Shamrocks 0-10. Referee P. Walsh (Fourmilewater).

It was junior football on Saturday evening with the meeting of Tallow and Emmetts. County finalists last year Tallow's form this year had been somewhat indifferent and, in fact, needed every league point to stay in contention. Emmetts were in more or less the same situation. So it was everything to play for in this one. Pat Dunford opened the scoring with a point from all of 50 yards in the third minute but a Tallow point per Ger Hogan had the sides level in the 7th. Tallow added two more but Emmetts went ahead when Casey goaled in the 11th minute. Mickey Curley and Benny McGrath exchanged points. In the 15th minute Tallow were ahead when Stuart Barry made a great solo run after which he placed Philly Curley who goaled from close in. Emmetts were awarded a penalty but Pat Dunford's kick was brilliantly saved by Bernard Pratt and when the ball rebounded Pratt saved again much to the delight of his club's supporters. The Colligan side added two more points to leave it all square at halftime 1-4 each.

At the start of the second half Ger Hogan edged Tallow ahead, Pat Dunford replied with a good point from an acute angle. Emmetts went ahead with a Kevin Walsh point but Ger Hogan replied with another one minute later. Pat Dunford pointed a 45 in the 17th minute. The decisive score came in the 19th minute when a Stuart Barry shot was deflected by and Emmetts defender into the net. Tallow had two further points without replay to leave the final score: Tallow 2-8 Emmetts 1-7.

The great team work which took Tallow to last year's County final is still there but is being executed at a much slower pace this year. They have two league games to play and if they can win even one of those they will mount a serious challenge for a County title.

Tallow — B. Pratt, T. McSweeney, T. Sheehan, D. Martin, B. Henley, J. Barry, D. Doyle, S. Barry, J. P. Grey, E. Cusack, M. Curley, S. Curley, P. Curley, W. Murphy, G. Hogan. Sub. — P. Murphy for Cusack.

Emmetts — R. Walsh, N. Drohan, M. Beresford, T. Kiely, M. Dunford, J. Dunford, A. Walsh, J. Quinlan, P. Dunford, K. Casey, K. Hickley, P. Flynn, K. Walsh, K. McGrath, B. McGrath. Subs. — P. Coffey for A. Walsh, M. Tobin for K. McGrath. Referee — J. M. Kelly (Shamrocks).

There were two further games in the junior football championship on Sunday afternoon. In the opening game table toppers Lismore - resplendent in their Castledodge strip took on Kilgobinet. Coming into the game the greens had only a slight chance of making it to the knock outs but still they tried all the way in this game but they had to give best in the end to a very good Lismore side which must now be rated favourites to take a western title at least. Final score Lismore 3-12 Kilgobinet 2-3. Referee - D. Glavin (Ballinameela).

In the second game Modeligo took on Ballyduff and again both sides needed a win to be in with a chance for a place in the knock outs. The Reds looked good last week when they recorded a good win over Kilgobinet. They didn't do so well this time around. They came up against a Modeligo side which looked fitter and sharper than we have seen them for some time. The foundation of their win lay in an excellent half back line of Ryan, Fitzgerald and Power. This trio never put a foot wrong in the sixty minutes and all three were prepared to press forward and attack. Their mentors made a good move by introducing veteran Joe Troy for the last quarter, the vastly experienced John showed flashes of his great skill especially in his distribution of the ball. Centre forward Nicky Donovan also made a huge contribution to this win. He contributed eight points of his team's total and is still a handful for any centre-back. Modeligo are still very much in contention for the title and who knows this could be their year. Final score Modeligo 0-15 Ballyduff 1-10.

CAPPOQUIN G.A.A. NOTES

INTERMEDIATE HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP CAPPOQUIN 2-9 RING 1-11

The improvement in our Intermediate team was evident again last Friday night when winning by the narrowest of margins. But in truth the game should never have reached that nerve-wrecking stage as our lads got off to a flyer. Throughout the pitch we had command of the situation playing a very good brand of hurling in the process. The level of fitness in the team is quite good and it was needed as the game was reaching its conclusion. We had been sitting pretty enjoying a seven point advantage but coming to the end the sides were level mainly due, let it be said, by defenders giving away silly frees, and a gift goal.

It was backs to the wall stuff as the seconds ticked away - Tom Mansfield won the ball from the puck out, raced forward and shot a great point to the relief of all our supporters. It would have been tragedy had we let this match slip away - as the team played really well on the night.

Naturally improvement is needed in a few positions but the main thing is the team is progressing on the right lines. The lads have won their last three matches. We can't ask for much more than that.

Players who impressed most on the night were Ml. Buckley, M. Power, T. O'Sullivan, Gossie Mason, Shane Fraher, and, of course, our joint men of the match Sean Costin and John Buckley who performed heroically from start to finish.

Team — P. Casey, M. Buckley, B. Murray, A. McCarthy, J. Buckley, S. Costin, S. McCarthy, F. Murray, B. Tobin, M. Power, T. Mansfield, J. Mason, T. O'Sullivan, S. Fraher, C. Prendergast.

WELL DONE MARY

We are delighted to hear that our popular Medical Officer and Kit Lady, Mary O'Donoghue has been called up by the Waterford Junior Camogie selectors. Mary has already been goalkeeper for Waterford Ladies Football side for a good number of years so now she might do it at Camogie level. Well done Mary.

MINOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP GAELTACHT 2-7 CAPPOQUIN 1-4

Yes that was the scoreline at Colligan last Wednesday night but in reality we left the game after us. To bring the whole situation into context the team had been shattered by the news that four of our team would not be available. It was a huge body blow but the lads donned the jerseys and got stuck in but on the night too many players were off form and the brunt of the work rested on the shoulders of too few. Looking back on the game considering the amount of possession we enjoyed it is hard to comprehend why or how we did not put the scores on the board.

Our defence was brilliant all during the game and we had to withstand tremendous pressure as we were beaten at midfield and our attack seemed to be at loggerheads with their hurleys most of the time. But that is not saying they did not try. They all battled gamely to the end.

Best for Cappoquin were: C. Scanlan, E. McGrath, M. Murphy, E. Byrne, W. Fraher, N. Maher and S. Coughlan.

Team — J. Manahan, E. McGrath, C. Scanlon, M. Murphy, E. Byrne, W. Fraher, D. Coughlan, A. Barry, S. Coughlan, P. Lacey, D. Fraher, N. Maher, D. Wilkinson. Sub used — R. Lyons our other subs were L. Cullinane, D. McCarthy, N. McCarthy, J. Ahearne.

Our next match will be against Ballyduff and we are hoping for a full turnout of players for this game this Wednesday night.

Another point relating to last Wednesday's game was the fact that only one point was separating the sides with two minutes of time left. The opposition won the next three puck outs and scored 1-2 in two minutes to put that unreal look on the score board.

MELLERAY DRAMATIC

Melleray Dramatic will hold a £5 45 Drive in the Cats Bar on Friday 4th at 9 a.m. sharp.

Welcome Cash Injection For County Roads

Just when it seemed the County roads crisis had come to a head, Environment Minister, Brendan Howlin, steps in to make a financial allocation of £460,000 for non-national roads relief.

Although the welcome windfall falls well short of the total figure needed for the entire upgrade of the county's dilapidated infrastructural network, the badly needed money will nevertheless quickly evaporate into the many potholed and overgrown back roads so prevalent throughout the county.

A MAJOR HELP

Speaking to the "Dungarvan Leader," Waterford Co. Manager, Donal Connolly, strongly welcomed the extra funding as a major help to the Council. £379,000, he said, will go towards special restoration work such as strengthening and resurfacing, while the remaining £81,000 will be spent on maintenance.

Mr. Connolly reported that he is currently drawing up a programme of works which will be carried out before the end of the year.

Minister Howlin has indicated that the surprise funding is part of an ongoing restoration programme, with more grant allocations expected in the coming years.

CHAIRMAN DISAPPOINTED

Welcoming the allocation as "good news for county roads," Waterford Co. Council Chairman, Cllr. Oliver Coffey, said many roads which wouldn't have been serviced by the cash-strapped Council, will now be included in the works programme thanks to the extra funding. "It's now up to the County Engineer,

BY AISLING CONROY

John O'Flynn and his staff to ensure the money is spread evenly throughout the county," he said.

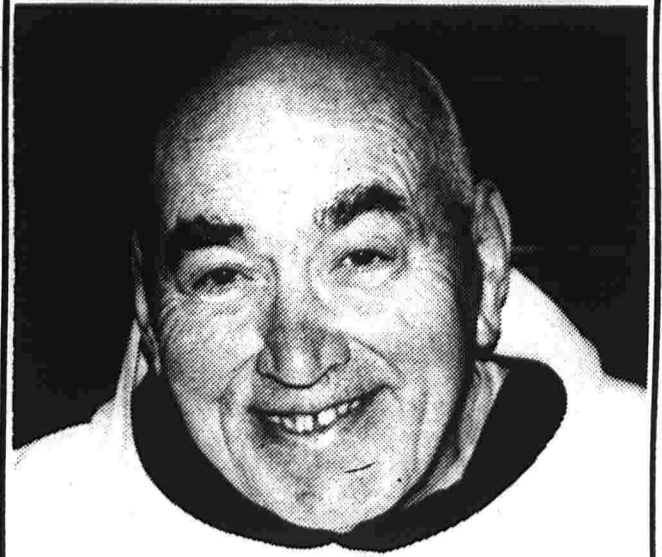

On the downside however, Cllr. Coffey said he was disappointed with the £460,000 total when compared to sums received by other counties who fared much better. Cork received a £2m. allocation, Galway £1.5m., while Clare, which is similar in size to Waterford, received a £1m. boost.

"It would seem that Waterford is down in the league table quite a bit," stressed Cllr. Coffey, who admitted however that the money is only a start for further ministerial allocations over the next few years.

With regard to a previously proposed Council delegation to Minister Howlin on the subject of the dire roads situation, Cllr. Coffey said the Council will have to wait and see if the Minister will accept a delegation in light of this recent development.

FR. COLMAN FOLEY

Fr. Colman Foley, of Mount Melleray Abbey, who died on July 22nd, was born in Dingle, Co. Kerry in 1906. He was the son of P. M. Foley, local historian and his wife, Bridget. He was educated at the Presentation Convent and Christian Brothers schools in the town. In 1924, he went to Mount Melleray Abbey seminary to study philosophy, with the intention of going to Savannah, Georgia in the U.S.A. to work in a diocese there. However, the monastic life of Melleray called him and he joined the community there in 1926, where he belonged until his death. After his ordination in 1932, he was assigned to teach philosophy at the seminary. He also preached in the Monastery's Public Church and heard confessions. In 1948, he was sent to Rome for seven years as assistant to the Abbott General of the Cistercian Order. After his return, he became prior of Mt. Melleray for seven years. He also taught philosophy in the seminary until it closed in 1974. He was a confessor until 1988.

Fr. Colman was an only son and is survived by his sister, Mrs. Mary Power of Tramore and Roundwood. During his long life saw many changes in the Church and in society but with his abiding compassion and sense of humour he adapted to the new ways, Fr. Colman brought help and consolation to many during his years as a confessor. He will be sadly missed. Ar dheis Dé go raibh a anam naofa.

Derelict Quay Properties For Sale

Two derelict seafront properties at Davitt's Quay, Dungarvan are to be put up for sale under the Urban Renewal Scheme by Waterford Foods plc and Dungarvan UDC.

A possible buy-out of the buildings she felt would develop the quay area and provide employment in the town.

DEVELOPMENT PROPOSALS

The Davitt's Quay buildings however will not necessarily go to the highest bidder as, according to County Manager, Donal Connolly, each tenderer will be asked to submit their development proposals. These proposals will be a significant factor in determining which tender is accepted.

HUGELY BENEFICIAL

Cllr. Billy Kyne, who was UDC Chairman when Dungarvan was granted Urban Renewal status last August also welcomed the coming together of the Council and Waterford Foods to dispose of the properties. "Properly developed they can be hugely beneficial to the economic life of the town," said Cllr. Kyne.

Now over the twelve months into the renewal scheme, the proposed sale of these two Quay buildings represents a valuable opportunity to potential developers who can avail of the many tax breaks and financial incentives which are offered under the renewal scheme.

The properties for sale include the former Moloney grain stores which was used for grain storage purposes by Waterford Foods (then Waterford Co-op) until their closure over ten years ago. Adjacent is the derelict UDC owned property beside Galweys Lane which was the centre of much controversy 2 years ago when a local consortium of businessmen proposed to redevelop the former warehousing and grain stores into a major complex of upmarket apartments.

Both buildings have fallen into a sad state of neglect over the years and are now a major environmental eyesore on the seafront landscape.

WELCOME

Chairperson of the Urban Council, Cllr. Nuala Ryan welcomed this latest development under the town renewal scheme and said she hoped the sale of the properties would attract potential investors to Dungarvan.

GRADUATED FROM UNIVERSITY

Photo shows Maria Creed, daughter of David (formerly Garvan's Tce., Dungarvan) and Anne Creed, who recently graduated at the University of Ulster, Coleraine with a 2:1 Honours Degree in Humanities Combined (B.A.) Maria is now going on to do her P.G.C.E. at the same University and we wish her every success.

Disabled Access To Clonea Strand

Commenting on a situation which is highlighted in a letter to the Editor on page six of this issue regarding the County Council's "inaction" in the provision of an access for the disabled at Clonea Strand, Co. Manager, Mr. Donal Connolly has stated that an access route would be in place by the end of October.

Waterford County Council was allocated £24,900 for the provision of facilities to provide access for the disabled at eight different locations around the county. One of these locations was at Clonea Strand but due to the high level of the beach and the busy summer tourist season, Mr. Connolly said the Council were unable to commence work on the access.

While admitting it was unfortunate that the facility was not in place for the summer, Mr. Connolly however stressed that work on the access will commence in September/October and he expected the project to be completed by the end of October.

KILROSSANTY G.A.A. NOTES

Senior Football — Our seniors beat the Nire in the championship last Saturday evening in the Fraher field on the score of 1-5 to 0-5. From the start we took the game to our opponents but some bad finishing let us down. With the score tied at three points all Pat Power scored a goal which was to prove vital. At half time we led by 1-3 to 0-3. In the second half Nire put us under some pressure but with our backs in outstanding form we held firm. Eventually points from Roger Power and Walter Power gave us a deserved victory. The great work put in at training by all the players and management team is certainly paying off at the moment. We now go on to meet either Ballinacourty or Sliabh gCua in the quarter finals.

Billy Harty, Premier Dairies Rep. with Mrs. Joan Byrne, Lismore, winner of the Premier Dairies All Ireland Baking Class at Dungarvan Show. She has qualified for the Premier Dairies All Ireland Baking Championship which will be held at the Limerick Show on Aug. 7.

This Week Teagasc Says

Grassland

Most farmers have found that cows do not seem to milk as well on some paddocks as others, even though they all look fairly similar. There can be over twenty different grass species, some clover plus weeds in a paddock, with the proportion of each varying with management, soil type and fertility.

Many of our pastures have poor botanical composition with a high proportion of secondary grasses like bent grass, the three meadow grasses (rough, smooth and annual), Yorkshire fog, etc. Pastures with a high proportion of these produce less milk than ones with a good ryegrass content. In addition, they are slow to recover and do not respond as well to nitrogen.

The proportion of each grass species does not remain constant for the year but varies according to its growth pattern. This was very evident during the past few weeks. Different grass types can be easily identified in many second cut silages. Ryegrass has long, dark green leaves with a reasonable upright growth habit, whereas bent grass (poor quality grass) has a pale green colour with slightly twisted leaf and low growth habit.

This grass lodges very easily after a shower of rain and is the first to start decaying at the base. The same is happening in the grazing sward though it is not as obvious since the rest period is shorter. Good utilisation of this type of sward is difficult without affecting intake and depressing milk yield.

GRAZING STRATEGY

The best strategy for such pastures is to take a light grazing (7-8 cm.) with the milking cows and follow on with animals that have a lower feed requirement to graze it hard. The best quality pastures to be seen this summer are on dairy farms where sheep follow the cows. These pastures are leafy with good clover content. Where this is not feasible, dry cows or incalf heifers can do a reasonable job, followed by a good topping to 6 cm. and an application of about 40 units of nitrogen/acre. While recovery will be slow it will benefit the pasture in the long term.

Slurry Tanks And Pits

Unless adequate precautions are taken, liquid manure storage can pose a threat to the safety of people, especially children and livestock.

Covered tanks should have adequate manholes which cannot easily be moved by children and a safety grid should be fitted below the manhole to give secondary protection.

All open tanks must be protected by a substantial unclimbable safety wall or fence at least 6 feet high with locked access gates of the same standard.

When slats are removed, temporary covers or guard rails should be used to protect the opening.

Bacterial decomposition of slurry in storage produces a mixture of gasses Methane, Carbon Dioxide, Ammonia and Hydrogen Sulphide. All are unpleasant, some are inflammable and one in particular, Hydrogen Sulphide is very poisonous to humans and animals. The gas is most likely to be involved in fatal accidents. It is a clear gas with a characteristic smell of rotten eggs and is slightly heavier than air.

The utmost care is necessary when agitating and spreading slurry. Never agitate in still air conditions as gas can linger in buildings or in sheltered yards during still air conditions.

Remove all stock from buildings above or adjacent to tanks before disturbing the slurry and open all available ventilation to provide a through draught, especially at floor level.

Never stand over slats or near tank access hatches when agitation is in progress.

Stay out of the building for the first hour of agitation and if the building must be entered, only stay in for a short period.

Cattle Farming With R.E.P.S.

The payments under REPS of almost £50 per acre per annum over 5 years on up to 100 acres have been well publicised. A 100 acre farm can qualify for payments of £5,000 per annum or £25,000 over 5 years. EU funding of £230 million has been secured by Ireland from 1994 to 1999. This scheme is part of CAP reform and partly compensation for lower output and restriction on expansion. It is therefore important that farmers qualify for and fully claim these funds.

The scheme can have a substantial impact on farm incomes, water quality, the aesthetic appearance of the countryside, wildlife habitats and the protection of historical sites and monuments.

Costs to be incurred relate mainly to the control of farmyard pollution, the management of grasslands, the application of lime and management of field boundaries. However, some of these measures will have to be carried out in any case, e.g. pollution control due to more strict water protection regulations or good farming practice, e.g. avoidance of poaching and overgrazing, the application of lime to release soil nitrogen and to give better use of phosphate.

Every farmer should consider participation in the scheme. The first step is to have an assessment done to determine the costs and benefits of making the adjustments required to comply with the specifications of the scheme.

Teagasc clients can get this evaluation done by their adviser and non-clients can get it done for the equivalent of the client fee.

BALLYSGAGGART NOTES

G.A.A. NOTES

St. Mollerans 2-12
Ballysaggart 2-6

Defeat was again our lot in Leamybrien on Friday night last in the last game of our Intermediate Championship Section.

Our opponents needed the points to be sure of qualification and their greater urgency proved decisive in the end. This coupled with their greater scoring power saw them winners by six points. The majority of the team are young and the experience gained this year should stand them in good stead next year.

MICHAEL QUIRKE MEMORIAL TOURNAMENT

On this Wednesday evening Ballysaggart compete in the Mike Quirke Memorial 7-a-side hurling tournament in Ballyduff competing in the same group as Lismore and Castletyons.

CLONEA-POWER CELEBRATE 1970 VICTORY

On 6th December 1970 Ballysaggart played Clonea Power in the County Junior Hurling final in Fraher field. Leading 2-5 to 0-0 at half time Ballysaggart succumbed to a Clonea second half fight back to lose by a point.

On Sunday week August 13th, Clonea celebrate the Silver Jubilee of their win and have invited Ballysaggart to be part of their day and night.

Further details will be communicated as they come to hand. I wonder will we get the American trip this time.

G.A.A. CLUB MEETING

A meeting of Ballysaggart G.A.A. Club will take place in the Community Centre on this Friday night August 4th at 9.00 p.m.

MODELIGO NOTES

LOTTO

Winning numbers were 5, 12 and 15. Congratulations to Royco Ware, Aglish, who scooped the £500 jackpot last week. Will this week's jackpot go west again? Watch this space and find out next week. Jackpot on Saturday is £200. Choose well.

PRETTY WEDDING

Congratulations to Patricia O'Brien, Graigue and Pat Hearn, Lackendarra, who were married on Friday last. We wish them many years of wedded bliss together.

PICTORIAL HISTORY OF MODELIGO/AFFANE

Our four students Corinna Walsh, Emer Enright, Elaine Denn and Pat Fitzgerald have been really busy over the last few weeks. They have now called to every house in the parish a second time and they were again very well received and many thanks for that.

They have been further encouraged with the positive support which, of course, has made their job more easy and more interesting. As can be expected though, they didn't always find someone at home and they are very conscious that some of you may have had material — pictures, stories or old news items ready which they wouldn't know about and which may be very suitable for the book. If this is so, we would be very grateful if it could be dropped in to Modeligo National School or given to any of the students before Tuesday, August 8.

Time is running out as the students have only two weeks left and we want to make the best possible use of these four very able and committed young people.

SYMPATHY

We extend sympathy to the relatives of May Doocey, Mountain Castle, who passed away this week. Also to the family and relatives of Johnny Ahearn, Redgate and sympathy is also extended to Donal Buckley, Scart, on the death of his father last week. May they rest in peace.

Farm Family Awards

The following is the address by Waterford County Council Chairman, Cllr. Oliver Coffey at the ICMSA/Teagasc Farm Family Award at Dungarvan Show which was won by Roger and Breda McCarthy of Churchquarter, Cappagh.

"I would like to thank ICMSA for the invitation to be present here today. These awards are now in their fourth year. While farms and farm life can be extremely enjoyable and a healthy place for children and adults alike, the reality is that agriculture is a very dangerous industry. Every year in our own county, a number of serious accidents take place on farms. The list of potential dangers is endless — uncovered power take-offs, water tanks, slurry tanks. The safety end of a farm and farmyard is something that farmers are very aware of now.

"Last year the Department of Agriculture announced grant-aid for the upgrading of milking parlours and dairies. This is another area of the farmyard where a number of serious accidents occurred.

yard that is important is the environment. Farmers have made great headway in the control of farm pollution. We now have a new scheme that was introduced last year called REPS. This is a scheme with the environment very much in mind.

"I am sure that all the entries for this year's competition have put in a huge amount of work in bringing their farms up to winning standards. I would like to compliment Teagasc for their involvement with the scheme. Teagasc, under Mr. Jerry Kingston and his advisors, have been good to farmers in Waterford over a number of years.

"In conclusion, I would like to congratulate all who took part in the scheme this year and to wish the winner well and by winning here today, this family will encourage more farm families to take part in these awards next year."

COUNTY WATERFORD I.C.M.S.A. NEWS

In order to clarify some issues the County Chairman John Skehan outlines below a synopsis of the main relevant points in relation to Occupiers Liability.

The Act is now in place and therefore legislation exists governing Occupiers responsibilities towards persons who enter property.

The Act defines entrants as either: (a) visitors; (b) recreationalists or (c) trespassers.

DEFINITIONS

Visitors — Person who have been invited by the occupier; persons who have permission to enter; persons who can enter as of right, e.g. gardai, government inspectors, ESB meter reader, etc.

Recreationalists — Persons engaging in a recreational activity, e.g. walking, hunting, studying plant life, etc.

Trespassers — Persons who are neither visitors nor recreationalists.

Duty of Care — Occupiers owe a common duty of care to all visitors. This means "a duty to take such care as is reasonable in all the circumstances to ensure that a visitor to the premises does not suffer injury or damage by reason any danger existing thereon."

The duty of care owed to Recreationalists and Trespassers is: (a) not to injure the person intentionally, and (b) not to act with reckless disregard for the person.

Therefore the duty of care owed to visitors by the Occupier is far greater than that owed to trespassers or recreationalists.

The description of Visitor is very wide ranging. It is deemed that the term "permission to enter" would include persons who entered for the purpose of (i) selling goods or (ii) enquiring for directions, or (iii) canvassing, etc.

In order to limit the duty of care owed to such people and to all visitors, Section 5 of the Act states "an occupier may by express agreement or notice, restrict, modify or exclude his or her duty towards visitors..."

It then goes on to state "an occupier shall be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, to have taken reasonable steps to bring a notice to the attention of a visitor if it is permanently displayed at the normal means of access to the premises."

Therefore, if such a notice is properly displayed, the duty of care owed to all vis-

IFA/AIB 10-Point Silage Effluent Control Code Launched

IFA President, John Donnelly, recently launched a 10-point code for the control of silage effluent to help farmers protect against contamination of inland waterways as this year's silage season continues.

The new IFA 10-point code, produced with the support of AIB Bank and prepared in consultation with Teagasc the farm advisory service, also includes emergency action steps farmers are recommended to follow in the event of an accidental breach in silage effluent management controls. These emergency action steps have been agreed by IFA with the Central and Regional Fisheries Boards.

At the launch of the new code at Peamount Dairy Farm, Co. Dublin, IFA

President John Donnelly pointed out that the effluent from 100 tonnes of silage has the same polluting potential as the daily sewage output of a town of 25,000 people.

Mr. Donnelly said: "Silage effluent is one of the most highly contaminating substances farmers have to deal with as a part of modern farming techniques. For this reason farmers must remain constantly vigilant during the silage-making season to ensure no contamination of streams, rivers or lakes occurs as a result of mishandling silage effluent on their farms."

AIB Bank Agricultural Advisor, Jim Keane, said: "AIB Bank are pleased to support the production of this code on silage effluent control which will be useful to all farmers. AIB is totally committed to agriculture and we are very conscious that all development must bear in mind the protection of the environment.

AIB has recently completed an internal study on Intensive Agriculture and the Environment which has been circulated to our branch network. This study has helped to ensure that our staff are up to date on the environmental requirements of all developments."

Mr Donnelly criticised the serious inconsistency in government policy on water protection. He pointed out that on the one hand, essential protection of Ireland's waterways is quite rightly a priority, but on the other hand a vital aid scheme to help farmers carry out expensive environmental work has been closed down because it has been over subscribed. He called for the urgent restarting of the EU-funded Control of Farmyard Pollution Scheme so that both these important Government objectives can be addressed with the same urgency.

The IFA President pointed out that Ireland continued to have very high river and lake water quality, with over 75% of rivers unpolluted. He said that this was a proud testament to the commitment of farmers and Irish society as a whole to water quality.

The IFA Silage Effluent Control Code consists of 10 vital measures which farmers need to constantly keep in mind during the entire silage making season. Copies of the code will be available to farmers through IFA Regional offices, AIB Bank branches, Teagasc offices, machinery dealers and co-ops and marts through-

1994 Craig Gardner Milk Price Audit

— IFA DAIRY CHAIRMAN CONGRATULATES PARTICIPANTS

Commenting on the 1994 Craig Gardner Milk Price Audit, Waterford IFA Dairy Chairman, Gerald Curran, commended this year's 12 participants, saying that full credit is due to them for subjecting their milk price to public scrutiny.

"Dairy farmers have a right to expect an independent measurement of the milk price paid by their co-ops," the IFA man said.

"Price claims sound very hollow indeed, unless their co-op is prepared to undertake an independent audit and comparison in the interests of their suppliers," he continued.

"Farmers are understandably sceptical of any excuse given for not joining the Audit," he added.

"Board members in the non-participating co-ops have failed in their responsibility to milk suppliers by letting management off the hook on this matter," he concluded.

FESTIVAL DIRECTOR RESIGNS

The Musical Director of the West Waterford Festival of Early Music Mr. Jan Van Putten and press officer Maureen Fox tendered their resignations following internal tensions with the festival committee.

This has come as a major shock especially as Jan Van Putten was selected as the monthly winner of the Waterford Crystal/WLR FM Arts and Entertainment Award for his role in the festivals success.

This is disappointing for the town because the festival was on it's way to becoming prestigious and the local economy had benefited with the previous three festivals.

Mr. Putten was the instigator of the festival and along with a hard working committee the festival was going from strength to strength and the proof was the number of visitors that flocked to Lismore for the festival weekend.

We accept that no individual or individuals are bigger than committees, clubs or organisations that they serve on - and we know after years of working in various committees but in this instance it was Jan Van Putten's knowledge of Early Music that helped create the festival and we looking on the outside would hope that both the Director and press officer would reverse their decision for the sake of the festival.

LISMORE GOLF CLUB NEWS

Country Club Team Advance To Semi-Final

On Saturday July 22nd seven good men and true set off to Fermoy to represent Lismore in the country club's competition against Doneraile. Team manager Pat Norris announced the line up and one by one we teed off full of hope and good golf. By the turn the position was grim, down in six matches, only the tested campaigner Frankie Corcoran was up. Things could only get better and get better they definitely did. Dan Behegan winning his first cap battled back only to lose on the 18th. At number 2 Frankie Corcoran levelled the match with an impressive 4/2 win. Pat Bennett playing at number 3 found himself down with 4 to play. Digging deep he squared on the 18th and won the 19th. Dave Murphy's best was not good enough however, Lismore 2, Doneraile 2. Willie Henry played at number 5 but we will get back to him later. John Madden continued a most impressive run in match play competitions with a fine 2/1 win. When Albert Corcoran lost his match on the 17th it all hinged on the final match which takes us back to Willie Henry. Like the rest of the team Willie gave his opponent a nice cushion at the turn but a level par back nine levelled the tie on the 18th. The 19th was played and halved and so indeed was the 20th. Would there be enough light - who would crack? All was decided on the 21st with Willie sinking a ten foot putt while his opponent missed a four foot putt., Lismore 4 Doneraile 3. With the manager leading the cheering the celebrations were full blooded. Well done to all involved in this fine performance.

JUNIOR CUP GETS OPEN WEEK UNDERWAY

Another home golfer Ken Madden was third on 73 and best nett score was Dan Spillane with 64.

SNIPPETS FROM DUNGARVAN UDC

TIME TICKING FOR MAIN STREET PROJECT

Now that Dungarvan UDC has issued a notification of their decision to grant planning permission to Irish Nationwide Building Society, Cllr. Billy Kyne has asked that no further objections be lodged against the proposed Main Street shopping development.

"We're all waiting for something to kickstart the urban renewal scheme", said Cllr. Kyne who stressed that already 12 months into the scheme, 'time is ticking away' for developments with the 1996 deadline looming closer.

Describing the exciting residential/shopping emporium as being of major significance to the economic well being of the town, Cllr. Kyne said he hoped that there would be no further delays in the process.

BADLY STAINED FOOTPATHS

Under the item 'Any Other Business' at last week's Dungarvan UDC meeting, Cllr. Austin Deasy spoke of the badly stained paved footpaths in the town particularly in Grattan Square.

Following the long, dry spell of late, Cllr. Deasy said the footpaths looked shabby with accumulated filth and chewing gum and asked that the Council use pressure pumps to clear the dirt. Town Engineer George Taylor said pressure pumps would destroy the cobblelocking and added that a scraper would be more suitable.

PUBLIC TOILET UPGRADE WELCOMED

At a cost of approximately £10,000, Dungarvan's public toilets at Davitt's Quay underwent a total revamp and badly needed upgrade recently. Now with newly refurbished and anti graffiti interior and exterior, the toilets have been described by County Manager Donal Connolly as 'first class'.

Complimenting the Town Engineer and staff on the work involved, Mr. Connolly said the Council will ensure proper caretaking of the facilities which will be closed and locked at night-time. He appealed to the public to respect the new toilet facilities.

While welcoming the new upgrade, Cllr. Tony Wright stressed the importance of keeping the facilities in good condition.

Cllr. Lar Hart said he was disappointed that the toilets did not include an access and facilities for the disabled. Town Engineer George Taylor submitted that it would take a major reconstruction of the building to accommodate disabled persons.

TALLOW NOTES

TALLOW G.A.A. CLUB NOTES

DISCIPLINE

Of all the ingredients of the ideal team's make up none is more important than discipline. No single aspect of a player's make up is more important than personal discipline and without this centrally important characteristic a team will fail to fulfill its potential. Great skill, courage, commitment and intelligence are, of course, crucial for success but if the training which produces self-control and a capacity for orderliness and co-operation is absent that team will never reach the pinnacle of success.

Being disciplined means being mentally strong. Without preparation this mental toughness in a team is incapable of being turned on in the course of a tense game as one would a tap. Rather is it the product of a rigorous spell of hard training, seriously contested, tough physical training matches where the ability to withstand severe pressure is cultivated and players are being mentally prepared for the kind of intimidation and provocation inherent in major game situations. Discipline is developed by being always in attendance at training, being on time, fulfilling all the tough demands of a training session and complying fully with the trainer's instructions. The disciplined player's lifestyle would conform to the requirements of the training schedule.

Consider your own club. Do all members of the panel attend, as much as it is possible for them, all training sessions? Arrive on time always? Throw themselves enthusiastically into all aspects of the preparation? Are there "hidlers" among them? Or dodgers? I remember some years ago attending the training sessions of two teams, Kilkenny and Dublin, where the atmosphere of one was in direct contrast with the atmosphere prevailing at the other.

Eddie Keher had charge of the Cats at that time and even though he was an outstanding hurler, an astute student of the game and a crafty mentor, his approach to discipline was somewhat lax. There was no punctuality, lads trickled into the dressing room gradually over a half hour period and he was lucky to have the bulk of his panel by 8 o'clock. I remember, Mick Brennan arriving late, half-heartedly indulging in some hurling and then for no apparent reason except laziness perhaps deciding that he had exerted himself sufficiently for that night. He left the field when the physical part of training started, showered and dressed. Afterwards when I expressed my surprise to Eddie he excused the culprit by explaining that Brennan was a temperamental chap who, he felt sure, would be all right on the big day. Well, he wasn't, played badly and his team were beaten by Offaly. His marker Pat Fleury didn't give him a puck all afternoon and Brennan was taken off in the second half. Kilkenny lost.

I watched Dublin training under Kevin Heffernan in preparation for an All Ireland semi-final with Cork, I think. Every panel member but three was out on the field by 7.15 p.m. so that Kevin could begin at 7.30 p.m. The three absentees (Brian Mullins was one) were out of town on business and arrived at twenty to eight. They immediately joined the rest after some stretching and warm up but when the session concluded at 9 those latecomers continued to work hard for another 20 minutes. The training that night followed the usual demanding pattern and the training match (twelve a side) was as keen and competitive as any championship game. Tackling was hard and uncompromising. Heffo encouraged the most severe demands on players physical and mental condition and only blew his whistle twice, to start the match and to signal the finish. Crunching tackles, holding, pulling and pushing were allowed and none of them complained. By subjecting them to this kind of experience Heffo reckoned that on a big day they were prepared for anything and they would have the toughness, mental and physical, to cope with any kind of pressure. Dublin won their match against Cork.

I thought of those and many other examples of the importance of a team's collective self-control while watching Dublin on Sunday evening leaving no doubt about their right to the Leinster football crown. Their discipline was awesome and was a central factor in their clear 10 point victory over great rivals Meath. They were able to absorb all of the physical punishment, the niggling and holding, without petulance or loss of self-control and were so focussed on the job to be done that bruising tackles and provocative physical confrontation never ruffled their admirable equanimity. Missed chances never deflected them or dispirited them. Their mental preparation for the mighty battle - and that's exactly what it was - was outstanding.

Meath surged forward after half time whipped over a point, followed by the equalising goal and now it was just as we anticipated, suffocatingly close. Graham Geraghty sent a great kick from over 50 yards between the uprights to put Meath ahead and we had a feeling of dejavu. It was then that Dublin displayed their discipline and calm control. No panic, no losing of their shape as they did in last year's All Ireland. Filled with self-belief they went up a gear, pouring forward in relentless fashion with a conviction that only teams of character possess to pile on the points and score the goal to which Meath had no answer.

The disciplined team reacts positively to adversity, is mentally prepared for it and confident of dealing with it. Cork in the Munster final showed a similar mental strength. This should mean a great game when those two fine sides meet in a few weeks time. Are Dublin invincible? Ask a Corkman! Ach is maith an scéalaf an aimsir.

CONGRATULATIONS
Congratulations to David O'Brien, Shane McCarthy, Paul Murray, William McDonnell who are part of the Tony Forristal Panel from which Waterford A and Waterford B teams will be selected. This tournament takes place at the end of the month.

BRIDE VIEW UNITED A.F.C. NOTES

BEST OF LUCK WAYNE

This week we are glad to announce that one of our Under 16 players is heading off to England to go on a week's trial with Watford. Wayne was a 'keeper with our U-16 side last season and reserve 'keeper with our Division Two side. Wayne heads off on Thursday week and everyone in the club wishes him the best of luck.

FESTIVAL LOOKING GOOD

Yes, the club has been very busy during the last week and will have a full programme sorted out by this coming week-end. A stage will be erected in the Square and already some good acts are booked for appearing on the stage.

We have local group Cheers, Tap The Barrell, members of The Booley House, The Highlanders and Beat on the Street with W.L.R. plus the now famous Knockanore Set Dancers. And remember all of this entertainment is free.

A marquee will be set up at the Bride View Bar on the Saturday night before the horse fair day and this is in aid of the injured jockey fund. The above are just some of the items taking place during the festival and there are lots more. Watch this space.

LOTTO

Last week's numbers 12, 19, 23. No winner. Voucher winner Bunty O'Sullivan. Jackpot this week is £400. Voucher is for John Ahearne. Draw in John Lyon's Bar on Friday night at 9.30 p.m.

BEST WISHES

Best wishes to Ted who celebrates his 50th this week. We hope the double celebrations on reaching the half century went well.

The officers elected for the coming season were as follows:— Hon. Presidents: Billy Beecher, Billy Coughlan and Moss Geary; Chairman, Bertie Hickey; Vice Chairman:

Liam O'Brien; Hon. Secretary: Tom Joe Daly; Ass. Secretary: Richie Pratt; Treasurer: Jack Aherne; P.R.O.: Victor Delaney; Predator Control Officer: Chris Coady; Safety Officer: Bertie Hickey.

Biggest Circus For Dungarvan

The mighty Fossetts Circus is coming to Dungarvan. This year the show consists of acts which have won awards for excellence in their field in competitions around the world. These awards are the equivalent of a circus Oscar. The circus show for 1995 is traditional in make-up with the Flying Souzas on the trapeze, the Zass Troupe on the trampoline, the Knights of the BMX who will thrill and amaze everybody who has a bicycle.

Move over Boy Zone, wait till the girls see the O G Boys with their acrobatic dance cum skipping routines, a really unique act. There are the international clowns, the Gerbolas, and for beauty and laughter the Morcova Sisters on the tightrope must be seen, as also must Tara Simone from the USA on the solo trapeze.

There are wonderful animals with a new troupe of camels all born and raised on Fossetts and for magnificent horses the Royal Palominos have never been equalled. These horses have been appearing all over the world and have appeared by Royal Command before many European crown heads of state in Arab countries.

This is one circus that you will not want to miss.

Sunday's events began with a barpersons race at Strandside North followed by the fancy dress parade at Coolagh Road which was led by the Brass and Reed band. Below at the pond Fr. Doherty blessed the boats and then began another day of events with activities such as pillow fight, clothes pegs, outdoor boxing, Irish dancing, darts and the legendary tip, the bucket. Other attractions at the pond were Madame Rosa fortunes and her helper Michael Breen and sailing in the harbour. The bouncing castle and roller-challenge proved a great hit with the kids. Prizes for the best gardens and best dressed lady were announced on the day. At the G.A.A. field the Langan Cup was played. The closing dance of the pattern was held at the Park Hotel. Music was by Paddy O'Brien and his band. A great night of entertainment was had by all.

The main sponsors of events were: Michael Moloney, Soccer Skills; Waterford Foods, Tennis Tournament; Shaws, Adult Treasure Hunt; Abbeyside Pattern, Juvenile Treasure Hunt, Fun Night, Sailing in the Harbour; Abbey Auto Services, Fancy Dress Parade; Delicious Bites, Pillow Fight; Alice O'Connors, Clothes Pegs; Irish Permanent, Outdoor Boxing, Minnies, Tip the Bucket; Village Inn, Bouncing Castle and Roller-Challenge; Eden Garden Center, Front Garden Competition; Maria Moloney, Best Dressed Lady; Carling, Pattern Queen, Guinness, Snooker Tournament; Heineken, Karaoke Contest and Paddy O'Brien.

IN MEMORIAM

AHEARNE — Forty-sixth and Thirty-ninth Anniversaries — In loving memory of our dear father Michael Ahearn who died on August 1, 1949 and our dear sister Bridie Ahearn who died on August 25, 1956, late of Monastery Lodge, Dungarvan. On their souls sweet Jesus have mercy. Masses offered.

(Inserted by Ada and Kathleen.)

CORCORAN — Twenty-second Anniversary — In loving memory of Patrick Corcoran, late of Ballyheaphy, whose anniversary occurs about this time. R.I.P.

The tears in our eyes we can wipe away,

But the ache in our hearts will always stay.

(Always remembered by his loving wife May and family.)

COWMING — Sixteenth Anniversary — In loving memory of Maurice (Harry) Cowming, late of Abbeyside who died August 7, 1979.

A bouquet of beautiful memories,
Sprayed with a million tears,

Wishing God could have spared you,

If just for a few more years.
(Inserted by Maurice, Doreen and family in Cork.)

COWMING — Sixteenth Anniversary — In loving memory of Maurice (Harry) Cowming, late of Abbeyside who died August 7, 1979.

A lot in life has altered,
A lot in life is new,
But the things that never alter,

Are memories of you.
It isn't what we write, it isn't what we say,

It's how we feel inside, when we think of you today.

(Inserted by Ellie, Chris and family in London.)

EARLEY — Fourth Anniversary — In loving memory of Johnny Earley, late of 32, Boreenatra, Dungarvan, who died on August 5, 1991.

We lost a father with a heart of gold,

How much we miss him can never be told,

He shared our troubles and helped us along,

If we follow his footsteps we will never go wrong.

He was a father so very rare,

Content in his home and always there,

On earth he toiled, in heaven he rests,

God bless you, Dad, you were one of the best.

We miss you from your fire-side chair,

Your loving smile and gentle air,

Your vacant place no one can fill,

We miss you father and always will.

Each time we look at your picture,

You seem to smile and say,

Don't be sad but courage take,

And love each other for my sake.

Will those who think of him today,

A little prayer to Jesus say.

(From his loving son Pat, daughter-in-law Gráinne and grandchildren Mark and David.)

EARLEY — Fourth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear father, Johnny Earley, late of 32, Boreenatra, Dungarvan, who died on August 5, 1991. R.I.P.

Anniversary Mass Friday, August 4, 10 a.m. in Friary Church. No longer in my life to share,
But in my heart you are always there.

Will those who think of him today,

A little prayer to Jesus say.

(Your loving son John.)

EARLEY — Fourth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear father, Johnny Earley, late of 32, Boreenatra, Dungarvan, who died on August 5, 1991. R.I.P.

Dearer to me than words can say,

Of a father I lost and loved so well,

Deep in my heart he is living yet,

I miss him too much to ever forget.

Each day I think of you,
Each night I say a prayer,

I ask God to look after you,
With love and tender care.

(Always loved and remembered — your loving daughter Mary, son-in-law Brian and grandsons Darren, Kevin and Ian.)

McSWEENEY — Fourth Anniversary — In loving memory of our dear mother, Hannah McSweeney, late of West Street, Tallow, who died on August 4, 1991.

Our hearts are full of memories,

We treasure them with care,
The way you had to leave us,

Will always be unfair.
Remembering you is easy,

We do it every day,
Missing you is the heartache,

That never goes away.
(Love always — your family.)

MORONEY — Thirteenth Anniversary — In loving memory of Joseph (Joey) Moroney, Coolnasmeary, who died August 8, 1982.

Our hearts are full of memories,
We treasure them with care,

But the way you had to leave us, Joey,

Will always seem unfair.
We never knew that morning,

What sorrow the day would bring,
When a heart of gold stopped beating,

And we couldn't do a thing.
(Sadly missed by your loving mother, Margaret, and family at home and away.)

NEEDHAM — Please pray for the repose of the soul of Patrick Needham, late of 74, Murphy Place, Abbeyside, Dungarvan, whose anniversary occurs at this time. On whose soul sweet Jesus have mercy.

(Always remembered by Sean and his family at home and away.)

O'DOWD — Eighth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Margaret O'Dowd, late of Sunlawn, Affane, Cappoquin, who died on August 1, 1987.

A mother's love is a blessing,
A gift beyond compare,

You only know its meaning,
When you find she's no longer there.

So hold her in Your arms, dear Lord,

Treasure her with care,
For You have in Your possession,

A mother beyond compare.
(Sadly missed by son Philip, daughter-in-law Carmel and grandchildren Sarah, Nicola and Christopher.)

RECENT DEATHS*Mr. Sonny Cahill

The people in the town of Cappoquin and surrounding areas were shocked and deeply saddened to learn of the passing during the early hours of Friday morning, July 21 at Waterford Regional Hospital after a brief illness of Mr. Sonny Cahill, Main Street, Cappoquin.

Sonny as one could only describe him was a true gentleman. He was honest, kind, easy going and most honourable. A former employee of M. D. O'Connor & Sons, he served his employers loyally for many years until his retirement some years ago.

In his earlier years Sonny wore the black and red colours of Cappoquin where he was part of the winning team which brought a county title to Cappoquin. He was also a great oarsman with Cappoquin Rowing Club, helping to bring the old dark blues to victory on several occasions.

In his later years he had a great love for greyhounds and he kept many winners. He liked to keep in touch as to what was happening on the local dog track.

He was a kind and loving husband to his wife Bessie as well as being a proud and loving father to his two sons Micheál and Eamonn, always wanting only the best in life for his family. Sonny made many good friends. During his life he was a great favourite with the young as well as the old. He will be very sadly missed by his wife, sons and all who knew him.

On Saturday evening the remains left the Kiely Funeral Home, Dungarvan for St. Mary's Church, Cappoquin, where, on arrival, the coffin was received and blessed by Fr. Eamonn McSweeney, assisted by Fr. Kelleher, C.C., Fr. Fitzpatrick, O.S.A., Fr. Fitzgerald, P.P., Canon Queally, Fr. Arthure, P.P., and Fr. Liam Power, C.C., Waterford.

On Sunday morning at 11.30, concelebrated Mass was offered for the happy repose of Sonny's soul, with the chief celebrant being Fr. McSweeney (brother-in-law). Co-celebrants were Fr. John Cahill (cousin of deceased), and Fr. Kelleher, C.C. Also present were Fr. Arthure, Canon Queally and Fr. Fitzpatrick.

During the Mass the Lessons were read by Bronwyn O'Dee and some beautiful hymns were sung by the members of the Cappoquin Choir. The Psalm was sung by Irene Cahill accompanied by Mairead Cullinane on the organ. Following Mass the remains were taken from the church to St. Declan's Cemetery. Outside, a guard of honour was formed by members of Cappoquin/Affane GAA Club, Cappoquin Rowing Club, as well as many good friends, and the coffin was draped in the black/red and blue/gold colours of Cappoquin/Affane. The funeral cortege made its way to St. Declan's Cemetery accompanied by a guard of honour. The graveside prayers were recited by Fr. McSweeney as Sonny was finally laid to rest under a ray of sunshine overlooking the River Blackwater where he had spent many fun-filled hours in the past. May he rest in peace. Ar dheis Dé go raibh a anam.

Chief mourners — Essie (wife), Micheál and Eamonn (sons), brothers-in-law, sister-in-law, cousins and many friends.

Miss Alice Hannigan

The death took place at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, peacefully, on Wednesday, July 26, of Alice Hannigan, Allen Street, Cappoquin. A native of Kilmacarriga, Lismore, Alice came to reside in Cappoquin with her brother Tom about 20 years ago. During that time she made many good friends and neighbours. Alice was a good, religious lady who never failed to do her weekly duties to the Lord up until ill-health prevented her from doing so. She was a kind and homely person who would always make you feel welcome in her home. She was a devoted sister to her only brother Tom who will sadly miss Alice.

On Thursday evening the remains were removed from the hospital mortuary, Dungarvan to St. Mary's Church, Cappoquin, where, on arrival, they were received and blessed by Fr. Kelleher, C.C.

On Friday morning Requiem Mass was celebrated by Fr. Arthure, P.P. Following Mass the funeral cortege made its way to St. Carthage's Cemetery, Lismore, where the remains were received and blessed by Fr. Arthure. Alice was then finally laid to rest beside her late much-loved parents.

To her brother Tom, cousins and friends we extend our deepest sympathy.

ABBEYSIDE SOCCER NOTES

BILL ORGAN MEMORIAL TROPHY

Young Reds Capture Bill Organ Trophy

Abbeyside's youngest team inflicted a big defeat on a luckless Dungarvan combination. The Red's had suffered a 3-0 defeat to the same team on the opening day of the pitch.

Abbeyside were missing Niall O'Brien on that particular day and he was instrumental in the Villagers victory with an inspiring performance in the midfield section. Abbeyside began very well and after 20 minutes a succession of fine saves by the Dungarvan 'keeper thwarted David Flavin, Seamus Lavan and Niall O'Brien.

However, the breakthrough had to come and Lavan was the man who provided it when after Stephen Drummy's break down the win he rounded the 'keeper and crashed the ball home. It was all the Reds now and 4 minutes before half-time Patrick Lynch unleashed a rocket from 35 yards beyond a despairing dive from the Dungarvan goalie. However, disaster struck two minutes later when a sloppy clearance led to the visitors pulling a goal back by half-time.

The second half began in much the same vein with the Reds on the attack and it was no surprise when after a great run by Liam Lenane, David Flavin shot through the ruck of players to billow the Dungarvan net. Seamus Lavan then got in the act with a tap in after Philip Wades fierce drive hit with great power was superbly saved. David Flavin got his brace with a close range header from Linny's corner. Stephen Drummy rounded off the scoring when he tore down the wing, cut inside to deliver a low shot to the corner of the net.

Declan Byrne in the goal made a couple of vital late saves to preserve the lead but all in all the villagers held out well for victory.

SNIPPETS

A big contingent of club members travelled to the R.S.C. on Wednesday last to see the local Blues team take on Southampton. "Superior planning" led to us arriving at the venue at 6.15 p.m. and this led to a chance meeting with the saints team including the misguided Matt Le Tissier (refused a move to Chelsea). Declan Byrne struck up an immediate friendship with Ken Monkou while advising Dave Beasant on the correct way to handle crosses. Morro, Simon and Rody tried to get the Southampton manager to take over from Magoo and Cairo. Philip Wade and Francis Denali got on immediately similar haircuts? Next journey 16th August home to Kilkenny City. Book now U-16 £3 including admission and bus.

DIVISION 4 MANAGER

Kevin Tobin has been appointed manager of our Division 4 team. Kevin is a great believer in the merits of training and will insist on 100% commitment. Best of luck Kevin.

RED HOUSE LEAGUE A.G.M. REPORT

A.G.M. A Quiet Affair

Yes, the soccer season is almost upon us again. On Monday night week last the Red House League A.G.M. took place at The Red House Bar, Lismore before a good attendance.

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS

Chairman Paddy Pollard opened the meeting and welcomed everyone especially the new faces. Last season stated Pollard was a very long season due to the terrible weather but we hope this coming season will see some improvement in the weather.

Pollard welcomed Waterford Junior League vice chairman Tony Smith (chairman John Fitzgerald was away on holidays) and Waterford delegate to The Red House League Noel Wallace.

SPONSORS THANKED

Pollard thanked all the leagues sponsors namely Michael O'Leary, Red House Bar, Lismore, John Faherty of Dungarvan Tyre Centre and Pat O'Connor of The Imokilly People who sponsored a very successful schoolboys league.

Paddy went on to thank The Dungarvan Leader, The Aventure and The Imokilly People for the big coverage they all gave to the league last season and last but by no means least Waterford Local Radio for all their coverage which they gave to the league.

WANTED

New faces on the committee are urgently wanted for the new season stated Paddy Pollard as the committee is overworked. To add to this Treasurer Leonard Fraser and Fixtures Secretary John Foley will have to leave the committee next season because the referees will have to form a referees society.

CLUBS LOST

The league added Pollard were sad to hear that Modeligo, Affane and Killeagh were defunct and would not be taking part during the coming season.

NEW CLUBS

However, we have also gained new clubs such as Clashmore, Castlebridge and Youghal. Paddy welcomed these clubs to the league and wished them well in the coming season.

Paddy then called on Secretary Michael McBride for his report and Michael gave a very detailed account of last season before Treasurer Leonard Fraser gave his report which showed that for the first season in a very long time the league lost money. However, there were many reasons for this all of which were once-off situations.

EARLY START

The new season begins on Sunday September 3rd with The Tony Bolger Cup. The season is brought forward one week.

ADDRESSED MEETING

Vice Chairman Tony Smith of the Waterford junior League then addressed the meeting and during his address he thanked Red House League delegate to Waterford Eddie O'Shea and wished the league every success for the coming season.

IMPORTANT

All clubs taking part this season must have their application forms in by August 19th. All clubs please take note.

FIRST DELEGATE MEETING

The first delegate meeting takes place on Monday night August 21st.

Committee for coming season — Chairman: Paddy Pollard; Secretary: Michael McBride; Treasurer: Leonard Fraser; Assistant: Pat Casey; Fixture Secretary: Jim Foley; Delegate to Waterford: Eddie O'Shea; P.R.O.: Liam Fraser.

SCHOOLBOY SOCCER LEAGUES A.G.M. PREVIEW

New Clubs Very Welcome

There will be a big increase in schoolboy teams for the coming season with teams coming in from all areas. To date new teams will be coming in from the following clubs - Castlebridge, Fermoy, Blackwater Rangers and Pinewood Rangers. Other clubs who had teams in last season will be adding new teams for the coming season so it will be a busy year.

NEW CHAIRMAN

The schoolboys league will have a new chairman as outgoing chairman Gerry O'Shea is going up to the Junior side of football. However, rumour has it that Joe Hartnett could be the next chairman. There will be some new faces on the committee next season and who knows but we may, for the first time ever, have a lady on the committee.

DATE FOR A.G.M.

The A.G.M. takes place in The Red House Bar, Lismore on Wednesday night next August 9th at 8.30 p.m. sharp. All clubs to have a delegate at this meeting.

BOWLING IN CAPPOQUIN

JESSIE GALLAGHER BOWLING TOURNAMENT

TUESDAY 25TH JULY LADIES SEMI-FINALS
Competing for a place in the ladies final were Breda Fitzgerald, Orla Coleman, Sinead Coleman, Mary Ann Allen, Linda Farrell, Anna Sheehan and Ruth Wilkinson.

First off was Orla Coleman, last year's winner and hot favourite to retain her crown, her opponent was newcomer Ruth Wilkinson who impressed us all on her debut with some great shots, but she would be put to the test tonight. Orla led with a good first shot, Ruth then threw a "Miler" which Orla did not pass with two shots. Around the last bend Ruth was a bowl up, which she held all the way to the line to take the first position in the final.

Next off was Sinead Coleman and Mary Ann Allen. This promised to be a good one, both evenly matched. Both started well with very little between them. After three shots Mary Ann had a ten metre lead and bowling the stronger of the two had gone a bowl up with two to go, which she held to the line.

DAVID MASON "jumps to it" in the Jessie Tournament

Last of the semis was Breda Fitzgerald, Linda Farrell and Anne Sheehan. All three started well, Linda just ahead of Anne and Breda a metre back. At the big bend Breda had moved into second place behind Linda with Anne a close third. It was anyone's score at this stage, eighty metres from the line Linda threw a bad one, which Breda took advantage of with a big shot to move to the front just short of the line. Linda was twenty metres adrift and Anne a few metres further back and it was down to the longest shot. Anne was first but it stopped just short of the line, Linda passed the line by twenty metres, and

Breda then produced the biggest shot of the night to take the last spot in the final which will take place at 10 a.m. on August 20th, prior to the Jessie Gallagher Memorial Cup final which will start at 2.30 p.m.

Wednesday 26th "B" Semi-Final — Tom Farrell v. Brian Cahill

Cahill was first away with a big shot. Farrell drove his to the right leaving Cahill with a twenty metre advantage. Farrell had a good second shot with Cahill dyking his. Both were around the first bend in three and there was little between them. Cahill again threw a huge shot to take a thirty metre lead at the "Gully". At the "Boiler" Cahill was sixty metres ahead and went a bowl up at the "Rats" with a "Miler". Try as he could Farrell could not reduce the deficit and Cahill advances to the "B" final.

"D" Semi Final — Robert Allen v. Kieran Wilkinson

Both lads started well with good opening shots. Allen threw a good second one to go in front and around the "Rats" he had gone a bowl up. Wilkinson then threw two big shots to get back on level terms at the stream. Again Allen threw a great shot to go thirty metres up which he held to the line, and became the first man to reach the "D" final.

Thursday 27th "C" Score — Tom Ormonde v. Dennis Walsh v. Timmy Fitzgerald

All three had good opening shots and were around the first bend in three where Fitz held a narrow advantage from Ormonde and Walsh. All three were at the "Gully" in five, Fitz still holding the advantage with little separating them. Ormonde twenty metres adrift and Walsh a further thirty behind. At the "Boiler" Walsh was a bowl down, and Ormonde sixty metres adrift, and Fitz was burning the road with his shots. Walsh then threw a huge shot going into the "Rats" and following up with two more was back on level terms at the "Spout", with Ormonde a bowl back. Two shots from the line, there was great excitement on the road with both level. Walsh threw a great shot which Fitz passed by five metres and Ormonde a bowl back. Walsh was first to throw and produced another great shot, tension was high, and the question was could Fitz pass it? With speed he went into the shot and released a fantastic bowl to take the score by two metres. A brilliant score by all three. Congratulations to Fitzgerald, commiserations to Ormonde and Walsh. It was a good exhibition of bowling by all three.

Friday 28th "C" Score — Kevin Reddy v. Eddie Coffey

Expectations were high for this one as both men had covered the course in sixteen shots in the previous rounds. Reddy won the toss and elected to throw first. His shot was perfectly delivered and well up to the marker. Coffey was next, with an easy stride he delivered well but stopped a metre behind Reddy's. Around the first bend in three Reddy was still just in front. It was six to the "Gully" where Coffey moved to the front by a metre, two shots later at the stream Reddy again moved to the front. With both men bowling brilliantly. At the "Boiler" the lead had changed again and Coffey was again in the lead with little separating them. Around the "Rats" in eleven, facing the home straight again Reddy took it up with a great shot. Not to be outdone Coffey again produced a "Miler" to lead at the "Spout". Back came Reddy with a blistering shot to lead going into the last shot. Tension was now high. Coffey was first to throw, and when we thought we had seen all the big shots for the night, Coffey again produced a phenomenal shot. With the pressure back on Reddy and encouragement being shouted by his supporters, with speed he delivered the bowl but it was a little off target to go in behind "Coffey's Score". It was great entertainment for the crowd. If the Romans had road bowling they wouldn't have bothered with the Lions and Christians!

Sunday 30th July "D" Semi Final — Jerry Moore v. Michael Cahill v. John Joe Scanlon

Moore giving two shots to the other two was first away with a good shot with Cahill a few metres back and Scanlon brining up the rear. It was seven to the "Gully" with Moore leading from scratch but not bowling as well as he did in the previous round. At the "boiler" Moore moved ahead from Cahill, who was bowling well, and Scanlon with the two bowls now gone. At the "Rats" Moore was one bowl ahead of Cahill and two up on Scanlon but the line came too soon to break down Cahill who now advances to the "D" final.

FIXTURES

Tonight Wednesday 2nd August 6.45 p.m. "E" Scores — Ollie Flynn v. Christy Keohan; Eddie Coffey v. Timmy Fitzgerald.

Thursday 3rd 6.45 p.m. "A" Final — Deige Fianusa v. Billy Casey v. Michael Connors

This should be one of the best scores of the year, Casey will be hot favourite. He is a bowler with style and speed, who graced the top venues in Cork a few years back and played the best in Ireland. Connors is a man with many wins under his belt. He is deadly accurate and plays to his best every time, always keeps his best for the big occasion. Fianusa is dedicated to the art of bowling and rarely missing from the road. A pupil of the late Jessie Gallagher, who taught him all the tricks, and he hasn't forgotten any of them. He will be psyched up for this one. This match could go to the last shot, with all three there with a shout, "don't miss it".

SYMPATHY

The club members would like to extend their deepest sympathy to Willie Gallagher on the death of his brother Paddy which took place in England earlier this week.

Abbeyside/Ballinacourty G.A.A. Notes

SEMI-FINAL BOUND

The intermediate hurlers secured a semi-final position by virtue of a 4-5 to 0-10 victory over Shamrocks at Cappoquin on Friday evening last.

Time is now on our side for the preparations which are necessary if we hope to advance to a county decider.

U-16 HURLING

Our under-16 hurling tie with local rivals Dungarvan proved to be a thriller and another classic local derby game. The large crowd present witnessed an exciting game and a spirited display by the Village fifteen who battled right on to the final whistle.

We can certainly consider ourselves very unlucky not to have qualified for the knockout stages, but tremendous credit is due to all concerned, especially team mentors Joe Power, Pat Ryan and Johnny Burns for all their work.

The divisional football championship will commence in mid-August.

PHELAN CUP

We have been drawn against Dungarvan in the first round of the Phelan Cup. Check official fixture list for details.

MINOR HURLING

Waterford G.A.A. Supporters Club

Draw for All-Ireland hurling and football tickets will be held on Thursday, August 17. Draw will take place at Clonea Strand Hotel at 8.30 p.m. Clubs and individuals with cards are requested to please return them with cash as soon as possible. Remember, if you are not in, you can't win!

Committee meeting at Clonea Strand Hotel on Thursday, August 3, at 9 p.m.

WHAT IS WRONG WITH WATERFORD HURLING?

My thanks to those who sent me written suggestions of their ideas. Seamus says the skills we need to emphasise are: (i) ground hurling, (ii) catching the sliotar out of the air and driving it left or right, (iii) picking the sliotar from the ground and driving it left or right as the need arises. Most important of all we need to coach our young players to be able to score at will from distances 30 to 60 yards from goal.

Keep the suggestions coming in and maybe your ideas will get Waterford hurling out of its present rut. Now is the time to start preparing for 1996 — we need dedicated players in all grades who are prepared to suffer to get fit and keep themselves fit. Nobody knows better than the player himself how fit he is and only he can keep himself fit — it's tough going, but it's worth it (I know, I went through it). If you are physically fit the skills come easy and you will enjoy your hurling.

Come on, let's started — objective Croke Park!

Fanahan McSweeney

In the early 1970's Fanahan McSweeney from Castle-townroche and competing with Grange/Fermoy AC was one of the heroes of Irish athletes for the young athletes of that era. His explosive speed over 200 and 400 metres and his physical presence alone on the track attracted the crowds to the then very popular open sports meetings. In 1970 he set a European 400 metres record of 46.14 secs. and he competed in the 1972 Olympics.

For the past nine years he has been a hero off the track in his fight against cancer. His will to live was unrivalled with his positive attitude impressing so many.

The news of his death last week at the age of 47 years has been met with widespread regret. May he now finally rest in peace.

The Cats Five Miles Classic

There has been a great tradition of athletes in the Melleray area for a long number of years and a new dimension will be added to this on Thursday, August 17 when the Glenshelane Five Miles Run, promoted by Dungarvan Athletic Club and sponsored by the Cats Bar, Melleray will take place.

The race will begin and finish outside the Cats where entries will be taken and changing facilities will be available. The event will be a novel race incorporating the pub championship of the South East and it will also be a 'hot spot' competition. The Ger Wyley Sports Summer Road Racing Series will conclude at this fixture and the presentation of prizes in the various categories will be made during a social evening after the race.

PUB CHAMPIONSHIP

This event is open to teams of three and one athlete must be under 35, one over 35 and under 40 and one over 40. It is hoped to have a high number of team prizes. Now is the time for runners to organise their teams well in advance of the night of the race.

'HOT SPOTS'

We will straight away clarify this section by stating that a number of checks will be taken at various points over the route and if the runner is not an individual or team winner then he/she will receive one of the spot prizes on offer.

World Athletic Championships

Gothenburg in Sweden is the venue for the World Athletic Championships which will be held from Friday, August 4 to Sunday, August 13. Irish interest will centre mainly on Sonia O'Sullivan who may attempt to run in both the 1500 metres and 5000 metres. The 1500 metres heats begin on Sunday the 6th with the semi-finals on Monday and the finals on Wednesday.

The 5000 metres heats start on Thursday and the final is scheduled for Saturday the 12th at 6.50 p.m. This would represent five races in seven days so the Ballymore-Cobh athlete will have plenty to think about in the days leading up to the championships.

The championships will provide experience for the youthful David Matthews, Niall Bruton, Mark Carroll, Cormac Finnerty and Sinead Delahunty while the performances of Nick Sweeney, Terry McHugh, T. J. Kearns and Sean Cahill will be watched with great interest.

DUNGARVAN BOXING CLUB NEWS

Two Dungarvan Boxers For Germany

A team of boxers from the Munster area are boxing in a tournament in Straubing, Germany, on August 14. This Irish team is sponsored by Garvy's Tool Hire, Cork.

Members of this team are selected by Munster coach, John Mahon, who was at the open air boxing at the Abbeyside Pattern on Sunday, July 23. He was looking for a light middleweight and/or welter weight. Both local boys at these weights, Jason Shaw and Timmy Coughlan knew they were in with a chance, but all depended on how they performed at the Pattern.

Coughlan was in against Denis Dingiven of Fermoy BC. Dingiven beat Coughlan on two previous occasions, but it was not a case of third time lucky for the Fermoy man, as Coughlan came on strong from the very start and to prove his fitness he even came out harder in the last round and kept Dingiven on the retreat. Coughlan won this fight well and guaranteed his place on the trip to Germany.

Jason Shaw was next when he took on Keith Whelan from the newly-formed St. Saviours Boxing Club in Waterford. Whelan, who used to box out of St. Paul's BC, is a very good boxer. This was his first fight after a break of a year and a half and he was very unlucky not to win a Munster Youths title two years ago in Fermoy when he lost on points to South Hill boy Darren Lynch.

Shaw was taking no chances and knew he'd have to keep Whelan on the end of his jab. This he did to perfection but he also caught Whelan with a couple of big right hands, especially in the last round he seemed to have him in trouble when he gave him a right cross to the chin and shook him. Shaw seemed to win the fight easy enough and was now on his way to Germany.

James Keohane was also selected but cannot go because he is in England for the summer. Gerry O'Mahoney was also requested to go as a judge but is also unavailable. So, all in all, the Dungarvan Club is much in demand.

PATTERN BOXING

To start off the show at the Pattern were two new champions of the future, Jeremy O'Mahony and Daniel Keohane. Both these young boys won't be able to box properly for several years yet as Daniel is only 9 and Jeremy 8, but they were very brave and showed a lot of promise. Other exhibition bouts were John Paul Keohane and Pa Fleming — these lads held nothing back and had a great work-out. Aidan Duff-White took on T. Keane, Ballyduff and Richard O'Leary took on

of promise. Other exhibition bouts were John Paul Keohane and Pa Fleming — these lads held nothing back and had a great work-out.

Aidan Duff-White took on T. Keane, Ballyduff and Richard O'Leary took on Jim Connors, St. Saviours. These proved to be two very skilful bouts. Kevin Kenneally made short work of his opponent Steven Padrosa, St. Saviours when he stopped him in the opening round. It was Kenneally's sheer strength that over-powered this young novice. He shows a lot of promise for next season. James Keohane put up a great display against John Collins, Fermoy BC.

CHARITY RUN

Dan Dineen is doing a charity run for Cerebral Palsy and Dungarvan BC on September 10, from Cappoquin. Please support this worthy cause.

ALL IRELAND BRONZE FOR U-14 RELAY

Well done to our U-14 boys relay team, which consisted of William Collins, Karl O'Keeffe, Jonathon Murphy and Christopher Coughlan on winning the bronze medals at the Ireland track and field championships at Kilkenny on Sunday last.

The boys as usual gave a fine display of team running and well deserved their medals on the day.

Our U-16 boys were lucky to be just out of the medals in 4th place. Here we had great running from Austin Flavin, Kevin Healy, Brian Swaby and Dermot Keyes. Our U-17 boys were also just out of the medals in 4th place. The team consisted of Austin Flavin, Kevin Healy, Brian Swaby and Walter Glavin, who gave their best in a very exciting relay race.

So well done to all our athletes and congratulations to all our medal winners over the past 2 weekends and indeed to all the medal winners from the various clubs in the county.

Midleton Sports will take place on the 13th August.

BRYAN GEARY ON IRISH CYCLING TEAM

Bryan Geary has been selected to ride on the Irish Junior Cycling team, to compete in the Junior Tour of Ireland from the 13th to 20th of August. Teams from America, Belgium, Germany, England, Scotland, and Wales are taking part in this International event. His selection comes after a series of good performances in races across the country, over the past month, winning races in Wexford, also the Carrigaline Grand Prix and the South Eastern Championship. Bryan's best performance of the year was his 2nd place in the Junior Irish Championship over 56 miles, where he put in a brilliant effort to bridge a 2 minute gap to the leaders only to be denied in the last few miles to peg back the eventual winner. The Blackwater Club, won the team event, with good placings by team members Kevin Kiely, Shane Motherway and Paul Barton.

The club would like to thank Cappoquin Pork and Bacon Company for their sponsorship over the year.

Captains Prize Success For Andy Halley

The captain's Mr. John Power's prize over the weekend proved to be a most exciting affair.

On Saturday the early starters got the worst of the weather, when heavy rain swept the course. By evening the clouds had rolled away to give way to warm sunshine.

Billy Nugent and Andy Halley took full advantage to shoot 67's followed by Tom Butler on 69.

On Sunday evening in perfect conditions the leaders got away to a shaky start and when Joe Kelly went to the turn in one under par it looked as if the winner could come from the pack, but Joe found the going tough on the finishing stretch.

The target was set by fast finishing Austin Spratt with a super round of one under 71 for a total of 141. However, Andy held his nerve on the tough back nine to win two shots from Tom Butler.

Our sincere thanks to John Power for a fantastic prize and a weekend to remember. Also to all who played those who organised and ran the competition and not least the course staff for a course that was just perfect.

DUNGARVAN SEA ANGLING CLUB

Damien Wall Takes Major Title

Prizewinners in Dungarvan Sea Angling Club's Yoplait Two-Day International Fishing Competition sponsored by Waterford Foods plc. Group shows (l. to r.) — Damien Dillon, Chairman Dungarvan S.A.C., Miriam Cummins, John Molloy (silver medal), Damien Wall (gold medal), Paddy Cummins, Managing Director Waterford Foods plc, Carrie Crowley, WLR FM and Joe Lavan (bronze medal). (Photo: Pat Crowley)

It was inevitable and predictable that one of our juniors would win one of our competitions, but to win the major competition, fished over two days, was a significant achievement by Damien Wall. The Yoplait 2 Day Gold Medal competition sponsored by Waterford Foods was particularly tough this year with a poor weather start and fishing in very tough conditions. Damien Wall stuck to his task though on Saturday despite the adverse conditions he brought in a magnificent score on the day, of 220 points well ahead of his nearest rival. Day Two saw Damien top this score up with 60 points which was sufficient to keep him clear of his nearest rival John Molloy by 32 points and 39 points clear of Joe Lavan. It was remarked upon by Paddy Cummins, our sponsor, that this achievement by a junior was a first in the 'Yoplait'. That one could have got past me as I'm only a novice in the 'Yoplait' stakes.

Billy Bumster was true to his word having said he would peak for the 'Yoplait', and took the gold for the greatest number of fish over the two days. Damien Dillon was lucky to have the extra few points to put him ahead of Alan Mulcahy in the same category, to take silver, Alan got the bronze.

Again in the Variety there was a tie between Joe Lavan and Dan O'Connor for the gold which was resolved by the points. The only lady to make a showing was Breda Warren who was pipped by Pat Dee for the Heaviest Conger. Heaviest Ling went to Gerry Keohane from Cork with Erhart Schubert and Pat O'Donovan battling it out for silver and bronze.

The quiet man of the club Sean Flynn was in there again with a gold for the best pollock. You can depend on Sean to be in there with the best. Frank Lloyd got silver for pollock and I did warn you he's a man who's beginning to make inroads. I was pleased for Mark Rylands who was overshadowed by Davids 1st prize on Sunday. Mark got bronze for pollock.

Wasn't it delightful to see Erhart Schubert take his out of state prize. A man who has supported this competition almost since its inception and then to be followed by Koos who has a similar record. Brian Fuller (Club Secretary brother) more of a golfer than sea angler will be well chuffed going home with his bronze medal for the overseas category.

If one could have any regret it would be that the Youghal contingent went home without a prize, this was a new departure for me, in angling terms, that two boats of anglers from a neighbouring town should show up and enter one of our competitions. I hope that this can be encouraged and expanded.

I went out with the Sharkhunter the other one was the Arivaderachi (as in Roma). I think the crack was mighty, cooked chickens and Irish coffees, such luxury, Johnny Boats take note!

We'll be asking the papers to publish photos of the various other categories over the next week so watch out. You now have a four week break until the 27th.

Dungarvan Ladies Football Club Notes

UNDER 14 C HAMPIONSHIP

Although we failed to win a game in this championship great skill, ability and experience has been gained by the players over the last few months. For many of the girls it is their first time playing football and if they keep the interest it won't be too long before they taste success.

JUNIOR

We played our first game in the league last week against St. Olivers, and played out a draw with them. Our next game is against St. Garvans.

COUNTY

Well done to Lisa Power and Catriona Hanley who were members of the Waterford Under 16 team who defeated Roscommon in the All Ireland semi-final last Friday night.

Congratulations to Michael Ryan and the senior ladies on winning the Munster final at Fitzgerald Stadium, Killarney last Sunday.

LADIES FOOTBALL NEWS

Waterford Take Fourth Munster Title

WATERFORD 2-12 KERRY 3-7

In a thrilling Munster Senior Ladies football final at Fitzgerald Stadium, Killarney on Sunday last, Waterford held off a mighty Kerry challenge to claim their 4th Munster title in five years. A game full of good football hung in the balance until referee Johnny O'Keefe (Cork) blew the final whistle four minutes into nail biting injury time.

A young talented Kerry side certainly put it up to the All-Ireland champions before a fine attendance. Contrary to pre match reports Kerry fielded five minors along with the core of the team that won the 1993 All-Ireland Senior Title.

Kerry got the best possible start, a goal, after forty five seconds when international soccer player Geraldine O'Shea got in behind the Waterford defence and slotted the ball past the advancing Anna Lisa Crotty. Mid-fielder Martina O'Ryan opened Waterford's account with a fine point in the 3rd minute before Geraldine O'Shea missed a free directly in front of the Waterford posts.

In fact accuracy was eventually to prove the difference between the teams as over the hour Kerry kicked 14 wides to Waterford's 6.

Ann Costello and Martina O'Ryan swapped points before Geraldine O'Ryan pointed. Kerry's young goalkeeper Andrea O'Donoaghue made some fine saves from Fiona Crotty and Aine Wall before the Kingdom took over.

However they kicked three consecutive wides and wing forward Marie Tiernan cracked a great drive to the net to leave Kerry 2-1 to 0-3 ahead in the 20th minute.

The Kerry forwards were now finding life much more difficult as Noirin Walsh switched to full back and Olivia Condon and Julie Torpey were outstanding. Waterford's wing forwards Rebecca Hallahan and Geraldine O'Ryan were continuously winning possession and the siege deep in the Kerry half began. Geraldine O'Ryan kicked a long range point and Aine Wall got on the end of a pass from Martina O'Ryan and crashed the ball into the net to level the scores. Marie Crotty pointed a free as Waterford hit the front for the first time. Kerry suffered a double blow in the dying moments of the first half. First, sterling centre half back Fionnuala Ruane pulled a hamstring and had to leave the play, then a brilliant drive by Geraldine O'Shea was touched round the post after a full length dive by Anna Lisa Crotty. Within a minute she produced another great save and Waterford went in at half time 1-5 to 2-1 in front.

SLIGHT BREEZE
They had a slight breeze at their backs in the second half and Aine Wall quickly scored a point. Claire Ryan shot another before Kerry served notice that the game was far from over with a great long range point from Marie Fitzgerald. Marie Crotty pointed a Waterford free before Aine Wall's net bound shot was tipped over the bar by the keeper.

Kerry's response was quick. Geraldine O'Shea now at centre forward pointed. Ann Costello, O'Shea again pointed and Emily Woods tied up the score after 44 minutes. Waterford introduced Catherine Walsh and within a minute she won a free which Marie Crotty pointed. Kerry fouled again and Marie Crotty duly obliged.

The match winning score came in the 51st minute when Aine Wall floated in a high ball that drifted into the corner of the Kerry square. Both goalkeeper and full back went for it but the in-running Rebecca Hallahan jumped higher than anybody else to flick the ball to the net and every Waterford supporter in Killarney made their presence felt.

Aine Wall shot what seemed to be the insurance point in the 55th minute but Kerry had other ideas and Ann Costello pointed. Into the 61st minute Kerry substitute Suzanne Purcell availed of a defensive slip to shoot a Kerry goal and the last three minutes seemed an eternity. Time ran out for the challengers and Waterford deservedly claimed the title.

Over the hour they showed the more experience and coolness under pressure, upped a gear when they had to an kicked 14 scores to Kerry's 10. However it must be said that Kerry are not far away and having won this year's Munster Minor Title the future seems secure.

This game was about getting a result as far as Waterford were concerned. The six week break to the next assignment, away to Mayo, will be welcome after four tough matches in a row. It will give injuries a chance to clear up and to improve fitness.

Anna Lisa Crotty had a fine game in goal, and defenders Olivia Condon and Julie Torpey caught the eye, both were outstanding. Martina O'Ryan had her moments at midfield, Rebecca Hallahan and Geraldine O'Ryan were well on top, Aine Wall kicked some crucial scores and Maire Crotty pointed four vital frees.

After the game Munster President Noel Murphy presented the Cup to Waterford's Noirin Walsh.

Waterford—A. Crotty, R. Byrne, S. O'Ryan, O. Condon, S. Walsh, N. Walsh, J. Torpey, M. O'Ryan (0-2), C. Casey, R. Hallahan (1-0), M. Crotty (0-4), G. O'Ryan (0-2), F. Crotty, A. Wall (1-3), C. Ryan (0-1). Sub: C. Walsh.

UNDER 16 TEAM QUALIFY FOR THE ALL IRELAND FINAL

WATERFORD 3-12 ROSCOMMON 2-4

A blistering start which yielded 2-3 in the opening six minutes paved the way for the under 16 team as they overcame Roscommon at Stradbally, Co. Laois on Friday evening last. Goals from Sharon Foley and Paula Walsh settled the team as Roscommon struggled to find the posts over the hour.

A couple of fine saves from Nuala Hearne kept Roscommon at bay and Waterford were in the driving seat at half time. Roscommon dominated the opening part of the second half but were guilty of shooting wides from good positions.

Waterford lost Brigid Hanningan and Karen Barry injured but substitutes Lisa Power and Brid Breatnach combined for the match winning goal in the 54th minute.

Roscommon's last foray brought a penalty but Waterford goalkeeper Nuala Hearne produced a great save. They had fine performers in Nuala Hearne, Cathriona Hanley, Fiona O'Brien, Brigid Hanningan and Karen Barry until they retired, Sarah Gleeson, Sharon Foley, Catriona Beresford, Triona White, Paula Walsh and subs Lisa Power and Brid Breatnach and Sarah Hickey.

They now face Monaghan in the final. Both counties also meet in the Under 14 final in what should be a interesting couple of weeks.

Brickey Rangers Notes

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL

We play the Shamrocks on Sunday next at Cappoquin in the last round of the championship for us in which we fared very badly this year.

UNDER-21

Training is now underway for the U-21 championship so we'd like to see all minor and U-21 players at training each night.

SYMPATHY

The sympathy of the club goes to Julia and the family of the late Francie Ahearne who served the club in many different capacities down through the years especially as an outstanding player. Francie was a very dear friend to the young and old in the Brickey Valley and will be sadly missed by all.

Sympathy is also extended to Ned Power, Mount Odel on the death of his sister Mrs. Catherine Sheridan of Shandon.

CO. G.A.A. BOARD SENIOR COUNTY SELECTORS

Having debated the matter at great length at their meeting on Monday night, it was decided that the newly appointed selection committee Chairmen, would each appoint his own selector to act with a nominee from the county champions. Earlier the county chairman, P. J. Ryan announced that he had nominated Tony Mansfield as chairman of the senior hurling selection committee and Vinny Kirwan, Kilrossanty, to be chairman of the football committee. These appointments were approved by the County Board.

Vinny Kirwan had requested that Franny Kelly be appointed as coach to the footballers and this was agreed.

SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIP DRAWS

The following are the semi-final draws; Senior Hurling:- Ballygunner v. Lismore/Fourmilewater/Erin's Own; Mount Sion v. Passage/Ballyduff.

Senior Football:- Rathgormack v. Gaultier/St. Saviours; Stradbally v. Kilrossanty/Sliabh gCua/Ballinacourty. (Full report next week).

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. NOTES

MEETING

The meeting of the juvenile club has been deferred to Thursday 10th August at 8.30 p.m. at the clubhouse.

FIXTURES

U-16 hurling semi-final v Tallow at the Fraher field. This game was played last Tuesday night. A win here would see us into the final versus Ardmore on Monday 7th August, again at the Fraher field.

U-16 hurling versus Tallow this Wednesday night at 7.30 p.m. at Lismore, final game against Abbeyside at the Fraher field on Wednesday 9th at 7.30 p.m.

U-16 HURLING

On last Monday night week we played Abbeyside in what turned out to be the game of the Championship. We ended up winners on the scoreline of 5-7 to 2-11. We dominated the first half and ten minutes into the second half had a lead of 11 points, but Abbeyside came back at us strongly for the last 20 minutes. The backs never gave in and were able to sustain the pressure and we ran out winners by 5 points.

We played Tallow last night in the Fraher field in the semi-final with the winners meeting Ardmore next Monday night in the Fraher field at 7.30 p.m.

MINOR HURLING

We played Lismore last Wednesday night and took a really bad beating from them. With only 4 teams in the "A" championship it looks like being a non-event. Something will have to be done about the minor championship. We found that the players who played in the juvenile championship on Monday night that a lot of them had to go out two nights later and play minor. This week it's worse having to play Tuesday and Wednesday night. Maybe Bord na nOg should run the minor as they are doing such a good job of the juvenile championship which this year is one of the best championships ever, that way you would not have three matches in the one week, e.g. minor football, Sunday night, juvenile hurling, Monday night and minor hurling, Wednesday night. What's the big rush, is it any wonder we have not won an All-Ireland in minor for 47 years.

WELL DONE

Well done to the Waterford Ladies U-16 and Senior football teams on their two recent victories over Roscommon and Kerry respectively.

LOTTO

The weekly lotto numbers drawn on Sunday were: 14 - 9 - 10

No winner. Jackpot £300 next Sunday night.

SYMPATHY

On behalf of the club we extend sincere sympathy to Michael Sheridan and his family on the recent death of his wife, Kathleen Sheridan. Ar dheis De go raibh a h-anam.

ST. OLIVERS GAA NOTES

A WIN AT THE FINISH ST. OLIVERS 2-10 CAPPOQUIN 1-9

St. Olivers ended their under-16 hurling championship campaign with a four point victory over Cappoquin in their final match which took place in Aglish last Monday week (July 24). Having lost all of their previous games, this was a result which did nothing for both teams.

Cappoquin got off to a good start by putting over two points but a brace of white flags from Anthony Walsh thirty seconds apart (the first coming from a free) and a couple of points from Stevie Keane six seconds apart gave the home side a lead of four points to two.

Cappoquin pegged back the lead with a pointed effort before James Mernin had an effort put out for a 65 which Michael "Bobbins" Carlton put over. After the visitors exerted a spell of pressure on the St. Olivers backs, full forward Paudie Landers struck over from a tight angle to make it double scores again. John Tobin registered a fine clearance to keep Cappo-quin at bay and from the forward ball Michael Walsh put it home into the corner even though he was being pressurised. That being the decisive score of the first half, it helped St. Olivers to a 1-6 to 0-3 half time lead.

Stevie Keane struck a point between the posts to increase that lead 45 seconds after the restart; but Cappoquin earned a great boost six minutes later when a lobbed effort across goal found the far corner of the net. "Bobbins" Carlton swapped points with the visitors whose revival was halted when Martin O'Brien shot to the net to wrap it up.

Or that's what you would have thought! Cappoquin added on three points without reply, had a good chance cleared well by Tom Kiely, and failed to force home two "sitters."

Two tight-angled points from Anthony Walsh restored St. Olivers confidence but they still needed good goal-stopping saves from keeper Patrick Harrington and Michael Carlton to keep them in front as the All-Blacks rounded off the scoring with two points.

St. Olivers — P. Harrington, J. Fletcher, J. Tobin, T. Kiely, M. Carlton (0-2), M. Cliffe, V. O'Brien, K. Burke, M. Walsh (1-0), S. Keane (0-3), J. Mernin, A. Walsh (0-4), D. Mulcahy, P. Landers (0-1), M. O'Brien (1-0). Subs., V. Mernin (for M. O'Brien), W. Morrissey.

EXCITING DRAW DUNGARVAN 2-3 ST. OLIVERS 2-3

The ladies football league got underway at the Dungarvan GAA grounds last Tuesday night with both hosts and visitors sharing four goals and six points between them.

It started off tremendously well for St. Olivers with Sharon Walsh's handpass setting up full forward Margaret Ronayne for a point within two minutes and it got better from there when almost on ten minutes Eleanor O'Brien played across for Aine Davis to strike home and on the next attack a free from the goalscorer found Ann Joan O'Brien who kicked over. St. Olivers led by 1-2 to 0-2 at half time.

Our second half scorers were Margaret Ronayne (point) and Eleanor O'Brien (goal). St. Olivers also had a missed penalty opportunity during this half and Margaret Ronayne hit the upright on another occasion.

St. Olivers — E. Hickey, H. Power, M. Kiely, K. Landers, J. Landers, E. Osborne, P. Landers, C. O'Mahoney, M. Pratt, A. O'Brien (0-1), A. Davis (1-0), T. Tobin, E. O'Brien (1-0), M. Ronayne (0-2), S. Walsh. Subs, D. Pratt for S. Walsh, L. Hickey. Referee: Paddy Tobin.

MINOR HURLING

St. Olivers are involved in two championship encounters this week — tonight against Stradbally in Abbeyside and on Friday against Fourmilewater in Colligan. Next week, on Friday, August 11 to be precise, St. Olivers take on Colligan at the Fraher Field.

DEISE DRAW

The club had one winner in last Friday night's Deise Draw at St. Saviours — Noel Landers who won £50. Congrats to you, Noel.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to the Waterford u-16 and u-14 ladies football teams who have now annexed the Munster titles in their grades. Three Munster titles — not bad for a week's work!

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The Editor, Dungarvan Leader

WATERFORD HURLERS' MENTAL ATTITUDE

A chara, Some years ago, Mick O'Dwyer is reputed to have offered to act as coach to the Waterford hurling team. This offer, apparently, was laughed out of court by those in control of Waterford GAA affairs, on the grounds that O'Dwyer knew nothing about hurling. However, O'Dwyer's point was that the main problem with Waterford hurling was one of mental attitude and psychological preparation, not hurling ability. He is reputed to have made his offer after Waterford, once again, failed to rise to the occasion in the 1989 Munster final. After 35 years of following Waterford hurling teams, I would have to agree with O'Dwyer's argument about mental attitude. The basic standard of hurling in Waterford is such that while we may rarely win titles, we should nearly always be capable of giving a good fight to any opposition in the country. However, the normal fare for Waterford teams in this period in big games has been capitulation and severe hidings, punctuated by occasional fighting performances which showed what we can be capable of. This was even the case of the supposedly "great" team of the late fifties and early sixties, which was badly beaten as often as it played superbly. With the major improvement in under-age skill levels in the county in recent years one had hoped for significant advance at inter-county level. However, the problem of mental attitude persists. Having good skill levels is pointless if players cannot be first to the ball, or are not prepared to disrupt the other team when they are in possession. Both Clare and Offaly have shown in recent weeks what positive mental attitude can achieve. Furthermore, teams with the right attitude always seem to get the breaks in games. Again, Clare and Offaly showed this as did Tipperary against Waterford and Limerick against Tipperary. If the Waterford under-21 hurlers had the proper attitude against Clare, we can be sure that they would not have conceded two own goals and hit the upright twice. We need to analyse this problem and come to grips with it if real progress is to be made. Why can the same team, under the same management, display entirely different attitudes from one game to the next? How was the 1992 under-21 team able to maintain its attitude right through the campaign while both this year's and last year's minor teams followed up fighting semi-final performances with listless displays in the final? Does the problem arise in the dressing room in the minutes before the game begin, or does it develop over a longer time period? Ned Power, in his superb "Tallow Notes" in the "Leader" noted how nonchalantly the Waterford team sauntered out onto the pitch for the senior championship game against Tipperary, whereas the Tipperary players came out like greyhounds released from the traps. Similarly, I felt uneasy at the lackadaisical nature of the Waterford puckabout before the start of the recent Munster minor hurling final. Sure enough, within minutes of the throw-in, several Waterford players had dropped the ball with nerves and both McGrath and Bennett had mishit their first frees. Already at that stage the writing was on the wall. Of course, Cork, Tipperary and Kilkenny have no problem with attitude. Long years of success mean that confidence is inbred in their players. Other counties are now starting to employ professional psychologists to help counter feelings of innate inferiority among their players. We may not need to go this far in Waterford, but we do need to do some serious thinking about the whole question of mental preparation, especially for big games. There is obviously no easy solution to this. As a parting thought, I do not remember any team put out by Joe McGrath during his two spells in charge of Waterford ever going down without a fight. Yet, he to, in the opinion of many, didn't know anything about hurling either. Is mise, le meas, PRIONNSIAS BREATHNACH 92 Páirc an Ráille, Má Nuad, Co. Chill Dara.

KILGOBINET/COLLIGAN MINOR CLUB G.A.A.

U-16 HURLING
Colligan played Stradbally in our final league match on Monday night last. We were defeated 1-10 to 1-2. However, we look forward to meeting them again in the semi final on Monday 7th August at 6.00 p.m. in the Fraher field. J.D. Casey, J. Kiely, R. Bannon and P. Morgan, played well. Team—J.D. Casey, P. Fitzgerald, J. Kiely, P. Maher, T. Corcoran, P. Morgan, S. Hickey, M. Tobin, R. Bannon, P. Fraher, J. Culliane, P. Ryan, V. Lynch, J. Morgan, R. Kirwan. Subs: J. Wall and T. Cullinane.

MINOR HURLING
Colligan played Fourmilewater in the first round of the league in the Fraher field on Wednesday night last. At half time Colligan were winning 1-2 to 0-7, despite being very unlucky in the goalmouth. Fourmilewater stepped up a gear in the second half and Ml. Connolly quickly netted a goal, followed by a succession of points. Man of the match was Robert Cass and S. Ryan, K. Casey, B. Dunford and K. Walsh all played well. However, we will be without Francis Tobin next time out as he got the line for an off the ball incident. Final score was 2-10 to 0-8. However, in hindsight, there was super hurling and our selectors will have time to reflect considering this was our first match. Team—K. Casey, S. Ryan, A. Corcoran, B. Dunford, R. Cass, J. Flynn, R. Lynch, D. Ryan, P. Lynch, D. O'Brien, M. Tobin, K. Walsh, F. Tobin. Subs: P. Morgan and R. Bannon. In the next match we meet Clashmore on Friday, 4th August in Fraher field, 7.30 p.m. - Good luck!

PATRICIA WALSH TOURNAMENT
This tournament continued on Tuesday night last, with P. Fitzgerald's team losing out to Richard Kirwan's team by 5-5 to 1-1. Vincent Lynch's team also won their match, defeating P. Ryan's team 1-8 to 2-0. As some players were on holidays, there were minor changes with subs coming through. This continues again on Tuesday night.

ST. PAT'S LADIES FOOTBALL
With the poor turnout at junior and U-14 training our hopes in the championship at present look very slim. At the time of writing, result is not known of the U-14 game against Kilrossanty played on Monday night.

JUNIOR
We are to play Brickey's this weekend and Old Parish next week. Day and time to be arranged.

CONGRATULATIONS
To Honor O'Brien who is a member of the Waterford U-16 team who beat Roscommon last Friday night in the All-Ireland semi-final. Best of luck in the final girls. Also congratulations to Catherine Walsh who is a member of the Waterford Senior team who beat Kerry by two points in a very exciting Muster final last Sunday. Best of luck in the All-Ireland semi-final.

Shamrocks G.A.A. Notes

DEFEAT FOR SHAMROCKS ABBEYSIDE 4-15 SHAMROCKS 0-10
Last Friday we came up against a very in-form Abbey-side team at Cappoquin in the third round of the inter-hurling county championship. Except for a few, the majority of our players were unable to offer any resistance. Unless we show a better commitment to training, we will make an early exit from the championship. We are due to play An Rinn in the Western final in 2 weeks time and we will hope for better form by then. We also have the first round to play in the county championship versus Colligan and we would appeal to all our players for a 100% effort as defeat there would be the end of the road for this year.

U-16 HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP CLASHMORE 6-6 SHAMROCKS 4-7
This Western 'C' hurling championship game was played at Tallow on Monday evening, July 25th and our young team gave a very good display against a much stronger Clashmore side who had the cushion of 2 goals in the first two minutes. On Monday evening last we played An Gaeltacht also at Tallow. The result will appear in next week's issue.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIP
We came up against Ballinamela in the fourth round at Cappoquin on Tuesday evening last. The result will also appear in next week's edition. Next Sunday we will meet Brickey Rangers in the fifth round. See elsewhere in this edition for venue.

FIRST ROUND WIN
The first round of the Western minor 'A' hurling championship was played at Lismore on Wednesday evening of last week. Result - Tallow/Shamrocks 3-16, Abbey-side 0-2.

The second round versus Dungarvan will be played this evening (Wednesday 2nd August) at Cappoquin.

DEISE DEVELOPMENT
We had no winners in last Friday night's draw at St. Saviours, Waterford.

Ardmore G.A.A. Notes

UNREST

With organised disruption and confrontation from a certain quarter within the club, it is not easy to get on with the job that one was elected to do. Our first duty should be to stick with our very successful juvenile club and this we intend to do.

The club has gone from strength to strength during the past thirteen years. Its fortunes have been guided during that time by six chairpersons and together with many willing and able workers, by our present Runai who has held office during that time. Let us then, for the sake of our players, try to withstand any attempts, whether they be from within or outside our club, to reduce it to a shambles.

BEST WISHES

It gives us great pleasure to congratulate Tony Keane and Sinead Roche on their recent wedding. Tony is one of our very talented young players and is equally adept at hurling or football. We wish the happy couple many happy years of life together.

LADIES FOOTBALL

Once again we congratulate Mary O'Donnell on her great displays with the county both at u/14 and u/16 level. Both these teams have now qualified for the All-Ireland finals in which they meet Monaghan. Maria Mahoney is also a member of the u/14 county team and what an honour it would be if these two talented girls were to win an All-Ireland medal.

On behalf of all in the club we congratulate you both and wish you all the luck in the world in the finals.

LUCKY WINNERS

In last week's Deise draw we had some lucky local winners — Jim Meaney won £300, Breeda Bradley £100 and Paul Hallahan £50. In the promoters draw John Colbert and once again Paul Hallahan were lucky winners.

DISQUALIFIED

We understand that our intermediate football team have been thrown out of the championship on account of their inability to field against Faha in their recent scheduled championship game. A club meeting has since been held to discuss this very disappointing occurrence. The club may appeal this decision of the Western Board to a higher authority, i.e. County Board.

ON TOP OF THE WORLD

Once again we salute that great little band of warriors, our u/16 hurling team who have done so much to dispel the doom and gloom in the club and to place it once again at the very top, where it belongs.

Since last going to press, under terrible weather conditions at Lismore, they overcame the home team on a score of 3-4 to 1-1. It was a fine team performance as usual with our backs well in control all through, while our forwards took their scores as the chances presented themselves. Our marksmen here were Ciaran 1-2, Cathal 1-1, Seamus 1-0 and Adrian 1-0.

Next it was Fourmilewater at Ardmore on July 20 and once again in typical fashion we brushed aside the spirited effort of the Nire boys to record a resounding victory. Another great display with backs once again laying the foundation for victory. John Conway, who is having a great year and Seamus Prendergast ruled midfield, while Cathal and Ciaran looked good in attack.

Our scorers were Adrian 2-0, Seamus 1-2, Cathal 1-1, Ciaran 1-1, James 1-0, Declan Lenane 1-0, Damien and Brian 0-1 each. Final score 7-6 to 1-4.

UNDER-16 HURLING "A"

Tallow 1-6, Ardmore 2-3 Time was (and not very long ago) when we looked in awe at the top teams in the county who were playing in the "A" Championship and wondered if we would ever be good enough to take part. The vast majority of rural clubs have to be content with taking part in the "B" and "C" championships and so were we until this present bunch of lads came on the scene and they have proved themselves before now when the chips were down.

Tallow with their large band of supporters, came to Ardmore to collect the points. This was obvious from the start as our boys had to dig deep to produce an effort worthy of the occasion and, as often in the past, they did just that, to force a great draw with their worthy hurling opponents.

This was a great game by any standards and it seems a bit unfair to mention individual players but this would have to be Austin's game, with great displays also from James O'Donnell and Cathal Hennessy. Scorers: Seamus 1-2, Richie 1-0 and Cathal 0-1.

Team — James O'Donnell, Declan Prendergast, Michael Supple, Liam Power, Austin Flavin, Brian Lenane (capt.), Patrick Conway, John Conway, Seamus Prendergast, Cathal Hennessy, Declan Lenane, Ciaran Foley, Adrian O'Donnell, Damien Lenane, James O'Neill. Sub., Richie Hennessy.

Liam O'Rourke was, as usual, a fair and competent referee.

We have now topped the table in the league section, having beaten Abbeyside, Lismore and Fourmilewater and drawing with Dungarvan and Tallow — a fantastic achievement. Congratulations and well done to all. We await our Western final opponents (Dungarvan or Tallow) and hope to give a good account of ourselves.

HURLING CAMP

The weather was good except for one wet day and all who attended were very happy with their week's hurling which was made very enjoyable by coaches Peter Power, Padraig Fanning and Ned Power. Ciaran Foley took over from Ned for two days. Garry Gater was a very welcome visitor.

NAOMH BRID GAA NOTES

UNDER TEN FOOTBALL

Our U-10 footballers travelled to Ardmore on Thursday last. The first half was played in heavy rain and we found it very hard to settle into the game. We were being beaten by 3-5 to 0-1 at half time. Shane Troy scored our only point while Michael Barker gave a brilliant display at corner back. We came out in the second half in fighting form and gave a super team performance. Seamus got two great points from difficult angles. Tristan and Shiner got two goals to bring us right back into the game. Tristan added another point to leave the score 3-5 to 2-4. Ardmore added a goal in the last few minutes to leave the final score 4-5 to 2-4 in favour of Ardmore. The club will be running a tournament in a few weeks time and if we can perform like we did in the second half we might have a chance of winning it. A good aspect of the game was the performances of Michael and David Barker. They have only been playing Gaelic Football for the last two months and they have already become very important players in the team.

KILROSSANTY 0-2 NAOMH BRID 2-3

Our U-12 footballers gave a terrific display against Kilrossanty on Sunday morning last in Modeligo. It was their first match of the year and everybody put in a great effort. It was a young and experimental team that played with some players performing well in places that they had not played in before. Sean opened the scoring with a point. Denis added another before Seamus scored a goal. Denis kicked another point and Paudie then scored the score of the game with a terrific goal. The game produced a lot of good football from both teams. The outstanding Darren O'Connor in goal made some super saves from shots that looked like certain goals.

MIXED FOOTBALL LEAGUE

WEEK-END DIVISIONAL GAMES

To-night, Wednesday, the second rounds of the minor hurling championship will be played. Practically all the interest here is in the minor 'B' where the contestants have been far, far better than at the 'A' level, as will be seen from our results panel.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Two of the three junior football ties listed are of great importance to the participants as the points are vital at this stage.

On Saturday, Emmetts play Modeligo and with both on 4 points on the table, the outcome will be of special interest to both. The result would be well nigh impossible to forecast.

The clash between Lismore and Tallow at Cappoquin on Saturday, will decide Tallow's future in this year's championship. Lismore are going very well and will be the fancied team here.

In the third junior football tie, Ballyduff will be strongly fancied to beat Sana Phobal who are propping up the table at the moment. This is the first game on the double header at Cappoquin on Sunday afternoon.

The Football Situation

With decisions having been reached in both matches on Saturday evening at the Fraher Field, Div. 1 of the football league is completed and with just the Sliabh gCua and Bonmahon match remaining from the other Division, the full league, which involved 56 matches, will be over by next weekend. This will be the first time since the introduction of the league system that the championship will have reached this point by the first weekend in August.

The position now is that Rathgormack and Stradbally have qualified for the county semi-finals and Kilrossanty and Gaultier are in the quarter finals against St. Saviours and Ballinacourty/Sliabh gCua. Dates have been set for the quarter and semi-finals and now it is reasonably certain that the county final can be played before the national leagues commence on October 8.

Kilmacthomas and the Nire will move down to Div. 2 next season (if the county decides to persevere with the league system) and will be replaced with St. Saviours and Ballinacourty or Sliabh gCua.

Newtown are the team to be relegated back to intermediate and they will be replaced with the new intermediate county champions.

WITHDRAWALS

Both Stradbally and Tallow have notified the County Board that they will not be taking part in the Sargent Cup competition this year.

Tipperary Appeals

Both the Tipperary players who appealed against the suspensions imposed by the Munster Council following the hearing of the referee's report of the Waterford v. Tipperary first round match, did not turn up for the hearing by the Central Council on Saturday last. Both Michael Ryan and Paul Delaney had served the greater part of the suspensions anyway.

The appeal by the Tipperary County Board against the £500 fine imposed on them was heard and it aroused some considerable debate as to the procedures followed by the Council in the matter. Eventually, the decision of the Council was upheld on a vote of 21/16.

Minor Hurling Gets Underway

The minor hurling championship got underway on Wednesday evening of last week when the teams in the 'B' Championship played 13 aside in deference to the Ballyduff motion to convention.

I was at the Fraher Field where Fourmilewater played Colligan in a match which produced some splendid hurling. I'm sure it must have been the best seen in this grade for a very long time. The first half in particular was brilliant and with the extra freedom of movement because of the smaller number, players were better able to display their skills. And it was a game with a lot of skill.

A goal against the run of play by David Ryan for Fourmilewater close to the half time whistle gave them a narrow lead at the break.

The second half, maybe not as good as the first, was featured by some wonderful goalkeeping on both sides. Michael Ryan for Fourmilewater and Kevin Casey for Colligan were the keepers whose respective displays added to the excitement of this first-round.

Port Lairge To Host Feile Na Gael

It has now been confirmed that Waterford have been awarded the 1996 Feile and next year Portlairge will play hosts to under-age teams in hurling, camogie and handball from the 31 other counties. The official dates are from June 21 to 23. The skills champion from each county will also compete here.

With the Tony Forrestal Tournament and the Feile being held here in the same year, 1996 is going to be a remarkable one for under-age hurling.

Kilrossanty Lodge Objection Against Gaultier

It is a rare occurrence in these times to have an objection lodged by one team against another in the championships. Last week Kilrossanty Club lodged an objection against Gaultier being awarded the senior football game in which the clubs met at Kilmacthomas on last Saturday week.

The objection was on the basis that Gaultier played Paul Foley whom they alleged was not transferred to them. The County Board had sought a ruling on the Paul Foley issue and the Management confirmed that he was legal to play with Gaultier. This was confirmed by Central Council on Saturday last.

In view of the result of the game against the Nire, it was rumoured over the weekend that Kilrossanty might withdraw the objection. If they won the objection it would have repercussions on the championship in that they would be placed level with Stradbally on 10 points, Gaultier would go out and the fourth place in line would be decided on a play-off between Dungarvan and Tramore.

In any circumstances, it is reasonably certain that nothing like this will happen.

GAME CHANGED

The Senior 'B' football game in the All-Ireland series between Waterford and Limerick which was due to be played last night (Tuesday) was deferred to tonight (Wednesday) and will be played in Clonmel. The winners play Limerick a week later.

FEILE IN CORK

I suppose it can be described as a "sign of the times" that Cork County Board have consented to allow the Feile to be staged this year in Pairc Ui Caoimh. According to some newspaper reports, the event will net in the region of a quarter of a million pounds for the Cork Board, in rent, etc. and it will bring a huge amount of business to the city as well.

For the years in which the Feile was held in Thurles there was widespread criticism about the immorality and the obscenity of staging such entertainment in a GAA ground. Whatever about the immorality of the thing (this does not seem to matter anymore anyway) or whatever about the fact that it is not in keeping with the ethos of the Association who have a responsibility for promoting our Irish culture, etc., very serious cognisance should be taken of the fact that gatherings of this nature provide the ideal market place for drug trafficking which is quickly becoming a major problem and is doing more than any other vice in destroying thousands of young people who have become entwined in the net of the racketeers who peddle the drugs in many different forms.

Very many young people from this county will make their way to Pairc Ui Caoimh for the weekend and many of them will enjoy the entertainment provided by the bands and the singers, etc. and I'm sure that to those young people this sort of criticism will sound prudish. To those people let me say I am not moralising or that they should not have the option of deciding for themselves what they should do in their search for entertainment. What I am saying is that it is a sad sign of the times that the GAA are allowing themselves to be used in this way, just because there is money to be made out of it. I must also point out that there is no rule (yet) in the GAA guide which states that such concerts cannot be organised.

NATIONAL LEAGUES 1995/1996

The draws, fixtures and match regulations for the new hurling and football leagues were approved by Central Council at its meeting on Saturday last.

The following, in chronological order, are the draws and fixtures for both codes. In all cases the first named county have home advantage.

October 8 — NHL, Waterford v. Kilkenny; October 15 — NFL, Carlow v. Waterford; October 22 — NHL, Clare v. Waterford; October 29 — NFL, Waterford v. Offaly; November 5 — NHL, Waterford v. Cork; Nov. 12 — NFL, Waterford v. Limerick; Nov. 19 — NHL, Tipperary v. Waterford; Nov. 26 — NFL, London v. Waterford; December 3, NFL, Waterford v. Kilkenny; February 4 — NFL, Tipperary v. Waterford; Feb. 11 — NFL, Waterford v. Longford; Feb. 18 — NHL, Kerry v. Waterford; Feb. 25 — NFL, Waterford a bye; March 3 — NHL, Waterford v. Galway; March 10 — NFL, Wicklow v. Waterford; March 24 — NHL, Waterford v. Offaly.

A look through the hurling league will clearly show the size of the task facing us in the coming league. Staying in Division 1 will be difficult, getting to the knockout stages will be very difficult and winning the league will be well nigh impossible unless there is a very big improvement on what we produced against Tipperary.

Whatever the result of our campaign, these must remain our objectives. We are fortunate in having most of the top-notchers, like Kilkenny, Offaly, Galway and Cork, at home.

Our best football home games will be against Offaly, Limerick and Longford.

NEXT WEEKEND

MEETING OF FOURMILEWATER AND ERIN'S OWN IN S.H. AND SLIABH gCUA VERSUS BONMAHON IN S.F. THE HIGHLIGHTS OF ANOTHER BUSY WEEKEND

Unless there is a draw between Fourmilewater and Erin's Own in the final match of the league section of the senior hurling championship on the coming weekend, the senior championship (league) in one code will have been brought to a successful conclusion. The outcome of the senior football game, will very likely mean a play-off between Ballinacourty and Sliabh gCua for the last place in the quarter finals.

The Western Board have also organised a very attractive programme for both Dungarvan and Cappoquin venues on Sunday and results here will advance the championships considerably.

An interesting fact about the senior programme is that in both games, the intermediate champions of 1994 are involved. Erin's Own are doing well as the intermediate hurling champions and Bonmahon have made many other clubs sit up and take notice, by their performance in the higher grade.

SLIABH GCUA V BONMAHON

Sliabh gCua who were cruising along nicely with three first round wins to their credit, lost by a couple of points to Ballinacourty in their 4th match and suffered a further set back in their next one when they were very decisively beaten by St. Saviours and in their last match they gave a good account of themselves when beating Dunhill by 14 points.

Bonmahon, like their opponents of next weekend, were beaten by 10 points by division 2 tabletoppers, St. Saviours, but they had decisive victories over others including, Dunhill, Newtown and Butlerstown.

The impression by most observers of the football championship is that the Touraneena team might prove to be a cut above their less experienced opponents here and that they will qualify for a play-off with Ballinacourty who recently failed against Butlerstown. If Bonmahon are successful here they will have 8 points also and a play-off with Sliabh gCua will be necessary.

FOURMILEWATER V ERIN'S OWN

This final match in the hurling league section of the championship is sure to be a cracker of a game at Fraher field over the weekend and in the expectation that it will go down to the wire, very few hurling enthusiasts will want to miss it. With the clubs level on league points, the result is all important. The winners will go through to play

Mount Sion in the semi-final. If the game ends all square they will have to meet again.

Fourmilewater, even though they are down two league points, are still undefeated. Their loss of the two points resulted from two drawn matches, while Erin's own lost their only game to Ballyduff.

The 1994 intermediate county champions led by the experienced Damien Byrne, Noel and Billy Kelly and others had some splendid victories over teams like Tallow, Portlaw and Dungarvan and will be no push-over here and many of the hurling people judge them to be on a par with Fourmilewater. Fourmile' who played drawn games with Portlaw and Ballyduff as well as having wins against Dungarvan, St. Saviours, Tallow and Stradbally, will try to disprove that judgement.

Having surrendered their senior football title, the same group of players will go all out to compensate their supporters by winning this and qualifying for the knock out stage of the hurling championship. The Ballymac' club will look to players like Owen Wall, (goal), Tom Walsh, Eoin O'Sullivan, Michael Connolly, Tom Flynn, Seamus Cuddy, David Ryan, Kevin Mulcahy, Tom Condon, Pat Walsh, Michael Guiry, Ian Walsh, Richard Guiry, etc. to see them through this very important trial. I expect to see Fourmilewater survive here.

JUNIOR HURLING

A very attractive double-header in junior hurling is scheduled for Fraher field on Sunday afternoon, where Ardmhor play Kilgobinet in the opening game and Western champions, Geraldines meet neighbours, Clashmore in the feature game. Both the Geraldines and Clashmore are motoring along nicely and both will very likely be involved at the finish, but the result, nevertheless is very important to both here.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL

Two games are listed and I must confess to being unsure if either is in any way decisive. A win for Faha against Ring will lift them a bit higher up the league table. A win for Ring will be helpful, only if other results work out in their favour. Faha will be fancied to win.

Brickeys play Shamrocks in the other game in this championship and it looks to me as if both these clubs are now out of the running.

RESULTS ROUND-UP

Senior Football Champions Nire Go Out Against Battling Kilrossanty

KILROSSANTY 1-5 NIRE 0-5

It was the closeness of the scoring and the fact that the result remained in the balance all the way, that excitement remained at fever pitch throughout this splendidly contested and very decisive seventh round match at Fraher Field on Saturday evening. The tremendous tension between the contestants from the start, was very evident and this, to some extent, was responsible for the disappointing standard of the match. A factor, too in the result, was the champions' wastage of some good scoring opportunities. This weakness seems to have plagued them in other games, also this year, notably against Dungarvan and Stradbally.

Pat Power, at full forward for Kilrossanty had the decisive score - and the only goal of the game - just coming up to halftime to give the challengers a 1-3 to 0-3 lead at that stage.

The Nire's decision to keep on trying for goals at an early stage in the second half was unsuccessful due to solid defending by Kilrossanty backs. Points were to be had at least on a couple of occasions. Both sides found scoring very difficult in the second half and had only two points apiece.

The result ended the reign of the champions, the Nire who won back-to-back titles in 1993-94 and for the next few months I'm sure they will reflect on what might have been, if they had fared just that little bit better along the way in the league series. They will most certainly be back among the strong challengers in 1996. Kilrossanty are now in the quarter final and won't be easily disposed of by their opponents. They were one of the teams who were written off by some of us at the start of the season when they went under to rivals, Stradbally in a very mediocre first round match. Also, against Rathgormack they managed to score only five points as they had done against Stradbally, (this is the 3rd occasion on which they managed only 5 points). Now no one will dispute the fact that the Comeragh side are an improving team and are well and deservedly back in serious contention for the title.

Kilrossanty Scorers — P. Power 1-0, R. Power 0-2, B. Kirwan, J. Maher and W. Power 0-1 each.

Nire Scorers — M. Guiry 0-2, J. Hogan, T. Flynn and P. Walsh 0-1 each.

Kilrossanty — A. Kirwan, B. Whelan, M. Fitzgerald, T. Prendergast, D. Mulhearn, M. Kiely, B. Kirwan, P. Whyte, W. Power, E. Flynn, N. Connors, R. Power, J. Kiely, P. Power, J. Maher. Sub. — J. Kiely for N. Connors.

Nire — M. J. Ryan, P. Halpin, T. Walsh, R. Guiry, J. Moore, P. Walsh, I. Walsh, P. Walsh, M. Guiry, T. Condon, K. Mulcahy, T. Flynn, D. Ryan, S. Cuddy, J. Hogan. Subs. — B. Kearney for T. Flynn, B. Power for D. Ryan. Referee — T. O Meachair, An Rinn.

STRADBALLY THROUGH TO SEMI FINAL

STRADBALLY 3-7 GAULTIER 3-5

The result of this tremendously exciting and splendidly contested tie puts Stradbally through to the semi-final with Rathgormack and leaves Gaultier in the quarter final. With the losing side still qualifying, the tension was not nearly as great as in the game which was to follow and this, perhaps, was the factor which allowed the players to play the better football.

All six goals were top-class and delighted the very big attendance at Fraher Field. It was a 58th minute goal which decided the issue in favour of Stradbally who had trailed by no less than five points entering the last eight minutes of the game. In fact Stradbally's great comeback from what seemed certain defeat, had a great similarity with their game against Rathgormack in the previous round at Leamybrien. This win following the Rathgormack game, will no doubt have their supporters believing that they will take the title next month.

Stradbally — O. Costello 1-1, E. O'Brien 0-4, M. Barnes 1-0, P. Curran 1-0, S. Cunningham 0-1, L. O'Brien 0-1.

Gaultier — D. Kiely 1-1, P. Fitzgerald 1-0, L. Daniels 1-0, E. Cullinane 0-1, M. O'Keefe and S. Bergin 0-1 each.

Stradbally — K. Cunningham, M. Curran, M. O'Brien, T. Walsh, L. Walsh, F. O'Brien, P. Halpin, G. Walsh, E. O'Brien, J. Weldon, S. Cunningham, N. Cusack, L. O'Brien, P. Curran, O. Costello. Sub. — M. Barnes for J. Weldon.

Gaultier — D. Taylor, J. Dunne, Ed. Fitzgerald, E. Fitzgerald, S. Frampton, S. Cullinane, K. Westman, L. Daniels, E. Cullinane, M. O'Mahony, D. Kiely, S. Bergin, M. O'Keefe, P.

Foley, P. Fitzgerald. Referee — D. Glavin, Ballinameela.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

CAPPOQUIN BEST

CAPPOQUIN 2-9 RING 1-11

This was a splendid game of intermediate hurling and every bit as good as the scoreline suggests. Two early goals, helped Cappoquin to a halftime lead of 2-5 to 0-6, but Ring came back strongly into the game in a very exciting second half and went out by a 61st minute point which won Cappoquin a place in the quarter final of the championship.

EASY FOR KILL

KILL 3-15

KILMACTHOMAS 0-8
The 1994 junior hurling champions Kill are certainly proving their worth in this very competitive championship and are now well on course for a tilt at the intermediate title. This win gives them a one point lead before they play St. Mary's in their final match. A draw will do Kill for a semi-final place.

MOLLERAN'S WIN

MOLLERAN'S 2-12 BALLYSGAGART 2-6
The game produced some exceptionally fine scores and the final result put the eastern team into the knock-out stages of the championship. The Mollerans have so far shown some extraordinary form-from being good to being awful.

ABBEYSIDE TOPS

ABBEYSIDE 4-15 SHAMROCKS 0-10
Three late goals sealed this for Abbeyside who are now top of the intermediate hurling table and safely through to the semi-final. This game is reported in the Cappoquin Sportsfield notes.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

TALLOW 2-8 EMMETTS 1-7
Tallow, who have a game in hand, were worthy winners of this close tie and are now back with an outside chance of qualifying.
MODELIGO 0-15 BALLYDUFF 1-10
Both sides were in rare scoring form in this well contested tie which produced 26 scores. The result puts Modeligo on 6 points along with Emmetts and a point behind Lismore who are the table-toppers at the present.

LISMORE 3-12 KILGOBINET 2-5

This result must have been a big disappointment for Kilgobinet who are now out of the championship for another season as they have only one remaining match and are too far behind to catch up.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

TWO GOAL WIN FOR FAHA

FAHA 4-5 BRICKEYS 2-5

This was the Sunday evening game and was brought forward from the advertised time, which coincided with the Dublin/Meath match on T/V.

A small crowd saw Faha score a two-goal win over Brickeys. The victory guaranteed Faha a place in the top three with Ballinameela and Clashmore.

Ardmore who sought and were refused a postponement of their match with Faha last week, are recommended for disqualification by the officer board. They were due to play Ring on last night, Tuesday. The final place in this championship, is a bit up in the air at the moment. (4 will qualify)

DOUBLE VICTORIES FOR CLASHMORE

CLASHMORE 1-12 GERALDINES 0-7

Clashmore made a little bit of club history at Fraher Field on Sunday afternoon when they scored double football championship victories on the same programme. In the opening match they defeated Ring in a very lively junior football championship tie (3-8 to 1-5), before defeating the Geraldines in a vital intermediate football tie. It was important in the sense that defeat would put the Geraldines out of the race. This was what happened. The score at the end, did less than justice to the losers who were only a point adrift at halfway after shooting 10 wides in that time. They were just as wasteful in the second half and finished with 19 wides. The game was still in the balance until the 57th minute when Kieran Mansfield broke through for the only goal of the match which gave Clashmore the cushion they needed. It had been 0-9 to 0-7 at that point.

Clashmore — Ml. Shalloe 0-4, G. Hynes 0-4, K. Mansfield 1-0, F. O'Rourke 0-2, S. O'Rourke and M. Coughlan 0-1 each.

Geraldines — L. Maher 0-3, D. Cullinane 0-2, E. O'Grady and N. Downing 0-1 each.

Clashmore — T. O'Keffe, S. McGrath, M. Hynes, M. Lynch, B. Murray, P. O'Halloran, R. Ware, K. Mansfield, M. Shalloe, P. Lombard, M. Coughlan, J. Power, F. O'Rourke, G. Hynes, S. O'Rourke. Sub. — M. Ware.

Geraldines — K. Cotter, J. Tobin, S. Ronayne, P. O'Donovan, J. Meskill, M. Ahern, M. Walsh, N. Downing, D. Cullinane, B. Connery, Lee Maher, M. Murray, M. Broderick, A. Ronayne, E. O'Grady. Subs. — P. Connery for B. Connery, N. Scanlon for M. Broderick. Referee — J. M. Kelly, Shamrocks.

Director of the annual festival, Jan grabbed local headlines last week when he was awarded the second WLR FM/Waterford Crystal Arts and Entertainment Award.

INTERNAL TENSIONS

Mr. Van Putten levelled a number of allegations against Festival Director Mary Ryan claiming that internal tensions surfaced as far back as April when the couple blocked attempts by Mrs. Ryan to change the relationship between the festival and Lismore Dramatic Society.

In doing so, Mr. Van Putten said he had prevented the outburst of an open conflict that would have "split the festival committee and the local community". In the run-up to this year's festival, Mr. Van Putten said he also objected to the decision to drop the Lismore Heritage Centre as the booking office for the festival. "They had been very helpful in the previous years and were now very much on top of the job," he said.

Since the end of May, the Musical Director claimed there has been no communication between himself and Mrs. Ryan.

"After the festival we had to wait four weeks before any communication was made and a meeting called," said Mr. Van Putten who claimed the meeting had gone ahead despite the fact that he had informed Mrs. Ryan of his inability to attend.

Mr. Van Putten said a strange irony was the fact that the committee meeting was called on the very night the Lismore Festival Musical Director was in the visitor's centre of Waterford Crystal to receive the WLR FM/Waterford Crystal Arts and Entertainment Award.

At the next committee meeting, held last Thursday night, Mr. Van Putten said he and his wife were met with open hostility.

This year's festival ended leaving a deficit of approximately £600 which Mr. Van Putten said he would be prepared to cover if other efforts to raise this money failed.

"DEEPLY SADDENED"

"Maureen and I spent a lot of time and personal money in developing this festival", said Mr. Van Putten. "We certainly did not deserve such treatment, we never want to go through this again. For the town of Lismore it is a great pity that this happened. The Festival was on its way to becoming very prestigious and promised to add many thousands of pounds to the local economy in the years to come."

Summing up his feelings about the Festival Jan said he felt deeply saddened at this outcome, particularly when under the Festival chairmanship of Neil Twomey last year all problems that arose - as they do in any Festival and in any committee - were solved with a constructive attitude, good humour and straight talking.

UNFOUNDED ALLEGATIONS

Do these shock resignations spell the end of the road for Lismore's successful money spinner? Not for Festival Director Mary Ryan who said her only wish is to see the festival committee to go from strength to strength.

Following the surprise announcement, Mrs. Ryan expressed shock and anger at what she said are many unfounded allegations made against her.

"I have no desire to engage in public outpourings that can only damage the reputation and status of the Festival and because of that I have no further comment to make", she added. Looking to the future of the Early Music Festival, Mrs. Ryan stated that while the resignations of the Musical Director and the Press Officer are regrettable the Festival is bigger than any individual.

"Those of us that are remaining", she stressed, "will strive even harder to ensure that next year's event is just as successful as the three previous ones".
