Scheme Workers' Access To Unique Union Branch

There are a staggering 40,000 FAS Community Employment (CE) workers in the Irish workforce. Since the introduction of the Social Employment Scheme in 1985 to combat the rising levels of long-term unemployment, the plight of scheme workers has been acute. Over the course of the decade, hundreds of thousands of Irish people have participated. Nearly every person in the country has family, friends or neighbours who have joined a scheme as a pathway to full employment.

But successive Governments have ignored the gross discrimination of these workers knowing that if their rights were recognised and redressed, the costs would have to be funded. Unions too, have been slow to represent and fight for scheme workers out of fear that viable jobs were being filled by part-time employment schemes. Now some things are changing. Unions, while not accepting schemes as a substitute for full-time work, are recognising that CE workers must develop their own policies, and strategies. The Amalgamated Transport and General Workers' Union has pioneered a dedicated branch for scheme workers offering the complete and comprehensive range of benefits and services that their other Union members receive including access to their innovative legal services and a 24 hour year-round advice helpline.

MARGINALISED SCHEME WORKERS

CE workers are low paid, part-time workers who are forced to operate outside of the normal categories of workers protections and benefits. The sad reality is that while CE workers are treated as normal staff in terms of taxation, responsibilities and duties, they are treated as second class cheap labour when it comes to benefits and protections.

The CE branch of the ATGWU will work for:

- the provision of properly certified training.
- an adequate pay increase.

● the conversion of scheme places into full time jobs.

Specifically the ATGWU will campaign on:

● Legislative change to include all CE workers under the terms of the Workers Protection Act 1991.

● Full A Class PRSI insurance coverage and all associated benefits.

● The extension of a scheme workers contract from one to two years.

● Fully recognised and certified training.

● An adequate and fair pay rise.

● Equity with other workers whose income is taxable.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

QUESTION

My pension is paid through an insurance company and it is sent to me from their head office in England each month. I presently receive £195 per month after tax and PRSI deductions. As I am over 66 should I be paying PRSI?

ANSWER

The PRSI deduction from your pension is just the two levies, the 1.25% Health Contribution and the 1% Employment and Training Levy. However, you are exempt from paying these levies as your income is less than £178 per week. So, you should advise the insurance company that these PRSI deductions are incorrect. They should record you at the M Class of PRSI and refund you the PRSI deducted since 6th April 1995.

You should check your P60's for 1993 and 1994 to see if the levies were deducted for those years. You would have been exempt if your income was less than £173 per week. If these levies were deducted you can claim a refund by sending copies of your P60's to: Department of Social Welfare, PRSI Refunds Section, O'Connell Bridge House, D'Olier Street, Dublin 2.

Successful Spanish Evening

A very successful "Spanish Evening" was held recently in the Park Hotel. The entertainment was provided by Spanish students who were staying locally, and here to improve their English. The evening was organised by the students themselves under the watchful eye of their teacher, Ms. Patricia G. The entertainment consisted of Spanish song and dance, and to show they learned some Irish culture, gave an excellent exhibition of Irish set dancing.

After entertaining their audience on stage the students then served them a traditional Spanish meal washed down by large quantities of sangria. The entire proceeds of the evening were very kindly donated to Irish Lifeboats.

Abbeyview Child Care Centre

*The Lookout

YOUR CHILD IS IN SAFE HANDS

All good things come to an end, and with long summer days fast declining, it's now time for parents to plan for the dreaded "back to school" D-day. This time of year can be especially stressful for working mothers and fathers who, after the care-free holidays, are back to the 9-5 p.m. routine and unable to mind little ones after school hours.

Situated at no. 3 Abbeyview on the Lookout, Dungarvan, is the newly opened Abbeyview Child Care Centre, which offers a welcome reprieve to all your child minding problems. The rambling nineteenth century building is a veritable wonderland of fun and entertainment for children under the experienced care of local women Marlene Daly and Julie Horsom.

WIDE RANGE OF SERVICES

Just like each of the advertising sponsors, the Abbeyview Child Care Centre is a perfect example of successful business women acting on their own initiative to serve the needs of the community.

For Julie and Marlene, who have both been involved in child care for a number of years, the market they are now aiming at is working mothers and fathers with an after school care service, the day care service caters for parents who simply need a break while there is also a pre school facility.

The Centre offers two daily sessions of the in-house Daisy Chain Playgroup; 9.15 a.m. to 12.15 p.m. and 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., Monday - Friday. A full or part-time day care facility is available from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., also from Monday to Friday. Times can naturally be arranged to suit individual needs. Limited spaces are available for under two year olds and a drop in facility is offered only on a regular basis.

Parents are invited to call in and talk to Julie or Marlene about their child's specific needs. "We would strive to establish a relationship of trust and cooperation wherein your input would be warmly welcomed", said Marlene who added that the Centre even caters for special dietary needs.

FULLY QUALIFIED CARERS

Fully qualified in the sensitive area of child care, their qualifications include City and Guilds I.P.P.A. Arts & Crafts, First Aid and a National Diploma in Child Care. "We are both insured by, and members of, the Irish Preschool Playgroups Association to whose code of standards on child care such as hygiene and safety etc., we strictly adhere", stressed Marlene who went on to describe the two well ventilated and spacious play areas, each completely safe for children with a separate rest area. The outside area is completely enclosed with space for outdoor games.

Indeed the centre is extremely well situated, in close proximity to the town park, the local library facilities and other scenic amenities, with plenty of available parking space for parents.

STIMULATING ENVIRONMENT

At the Abbeyview Child Care Centre, each child is treated as an individual. The partnership of Julie and Marlene lends to a friendly and relaxed atmosphere in which children can grow and develop through praise and encouragement. "We provide stimulating, enjoyable and educational activities which are geared towards the needs of each individual child", said Julie who also highlighted the loving environment at the Centre, where "play, creative activity and social interaction" are the carers priorities.

"We realise the importance of early learning and the Centre's environment has been especially prepared for this purpose with a wide range of books and toys", added Julie, "while we also hold daily sessions of painting and play dough."

For further information on Abbeyview Child Care Centre, don't hesitate to contact Julie or Marlene on 058-44805 or why not pay a visit to the centre and see for yourself the wide range of services on offer.

Both Marlene and Julie wish to thank the seven sponsors for their goodwill and generosity.

Best Wishes to Marlene and Julie

How To Take Good Cuttings

Sitting out in the garden on a warm August evening with the chores all done is the pledge that every gardener makes when labouring over the winter digging.

the reality is that there is always something to be done when the garden is at its peak and, in truth, keen gardeners don't mind at all!

One of the most rewarding jobs at this time is taking cuttings, not only because of the satisfaction of growing new plants for next year's pots, boxes, baskets and beds, but also saving money.

To take a cutting from a suitable variety, make a clean cut across a sturdy shoot just below a leaf joint and strip off the lower leaves before neatly firming into a tray or pot of cutting compost.

You don't have to use rooting compost but beware of over-watering and moist conditions — mould and rot can soon set in.

Place the cuttings in a sunny and airy spot and they should soon take.

JOBS TO DO

Apart from this on-going job for the month, there are many other 'pottering' jobs:

Dead-heading — cut away spent blooms on roses, dahlias and chrysanthemums to ensure a constant supply of new buds and blooms.

● Clipping — keep hedges neatly trimmed and end the month with a final neat cut before autumn.

● Autumn planting — It's depressing to think summer will soon be gone but don't let it put you off preparing sites and locations for autumn planting. Non-container grown shrubs and trees will need thorough site work.

● Bulb preparation — spring bulbs need to go in soon, so prepare the ground as you lift hippeastrum bulbs and lily bulbs at the end of their flowering season.

● Vegetables — planting of brassicas - brussels, broccoli and cabbage - should be completed. Onions should also be about ready for lifting and, once thoroughly brushed clean of soil and dried, can be plaited, and hung in the kitchen until needed.

● Herbs — if you grow your own then start gathering on dry days for bunching and drying by laying in an airing cupboard.

Turning to more major jobs, this is a good time to repair the lawn either by patching or cutting and turning damaged sections or by re-seeding bad sections.

COMPOST

A new lawn can also be seeded providing the area has been broken up, laced with well rotted compost or manure and then raked thoroughly a few weeks before sowing.

Sow the seed to the recommended density of the mixture you have chosen and then lightly rake the soil over them.

Most seed is treated with bird repellent but foil strips and netting are advisable as added insurance.

TOURANEENA NOTES

WEDDING

The Church of St. Helena in the Nire Valley was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Monday, August 7 when Siobhán Dunne and John Desmond were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Siobhán is eldest daughter of Tom and Nuala Dunne, Touraneena. John is youngest son of Daniel and Anne Marie Desmond, Deerpark, Ballymacarbry and USA.

The bride, looking radiant in a full length embroidered satin dress, coincidentally called "The Siobhán" was attended by her sister Ciara, cousins Martina and Geraldine O'Ryan as bridesmaids and Mrs. Kathleen Troy, matron-of-honour. The bridegroom was attended by his brother Daniel as bestman and Patrick Desmond, Martin Troy and Fintan Gillman were groomsmen. Page boy was Joey Troy and flowergirl was Kerri Power. Music in the church was provided by Shelley Govers, Michael and Joanne McKenna and Christine Desmond was soloist. Readings were by Carol Dunne, Caroline O'Ryan, Cathal Dunne, Margaret O'Brien, Conor and Claire Ryan. Rev. Fr. Willie Ryan (uncle of the bride) officiated, assisted by Rev. Fr. Thomas (Jed) McCarthy (cousin of the bride) on holidays from Australia. Rev. Fr. Michael Power, P.P., Touraneena and Fr. Francis Lloyd, C.C., St. Paul's, Waterford City, were also in attendance.

The bride was taken to the church in an open vintage car, kindly provided by Shane Houlihan who also took the bride and groom to the Park Hotel, Dungarvan, where the reception was held.

The happy couple are spending their honeymoon in the USA and Canada. We wish them many years of wedded bliss.

WELL BREAD TARTS

We've used crispy baked bread cases in place of the usual pastry, for these tasty egg tartlets.

Ingredients:

6 large slices wholewheat bread
4 oz (100g) butter
3 eggs, beaten
2 fl oz (50ml) single cream
2 oz (50g) sweetcorn
1 tsp (1x5ml spoon) parsley, chopped
Salt and pepper

Method

Cut the bread into 12x6.5 cm (2 1/2 in) circles. Melt 3 oz (75g) of butter and dip bread circles into it. Use to line greased patty tins, pressing circles well in. Bake at 350°F, 180°C, gas

Mark 4, for 15-20 minutes until the bread has formed crisp golden cases. Meanwhile melt remaining butter in a saucepan, add cream and beaten eggs and stir until scrambled.

Add the sweetcorn and seasoning just before the egg mixture is cooked. Pile mixture into bread cases and serve hot. Or, allow egg mixture to cool before filling the cases and serve cold.

in their brightly coloured surroundings, restored masonry walls, cobbled main street and innumerable blooms.

Street entertainment such as musicians, singers and dancers all added to the near carnival like atmosphere.

The aim of this annual European Competition is to improve the living environment by promoting the beautification of Europe's towns. In Lismore this goal was achieved to the full, reflected in the number of visitors who have visited the famed beauty spot during the past few weeks alone.

The panel of judges from Austria, Belgium, France, Britain, Germany, Hungary and The Netherlands certainly went home with rave reviews after their day long visit to Lismore.

AUSTRIA PRESENTATION
The suspense will continue up to Friday, August 25 when the overall winner of this year's competition will be announced in Austria. Until then the villagers and organising committee will maintain their month long work, watering, planting, weeding and feeding the multitude of flowers and shrubs around the town.

Travelling to Austria for next week's presentation is Chairperson of the Lismore Tidy Towns Committee, Rose O'Dowd who was well pleased with what she termed an excellent judging day. "The competition generated great community spirit," said the delighted Mrs. O'Dowd, "the Committee is very thankful to all who contributed towards the final preparations for judging day," she added.

Likewise, Committee PRO, Bernard Leddy, said the judging day was a complete success. "The atmosphere around the town was electric," he enthused "and there was a strong "feel good" factor. The people and town of Lismore can feel justifiably proud of their effort, we were all winners on the day," he added. Looking forward to the National Tidy Towns Competition in which Lismore will be judged on September 11 next, Mr. Leddy said it was important that the town keep up its efforts to win a prize. Litter, he claimed, continues to be a major problem.

Whether a prize winner in the European event, or a regional or national winner in the Tidy Towns competition, the charming town of Lismore has certainly won the hearts of numerous tourists who have visited the 'blooming' village in the run-up to the Entente Judging day.

RECENT DEATHS

Mr. Thomas (Ollie) O'Connor

It is with deep regret and sadness that we write of the passing on Thursday, August 3 in the loving care of the matron and nursing staff at the District Hospital, Dungarvan of Mr. Thomas (Ollie) O'Connor, after a long illness that was borne with great courage and dignity. Known to his many friends as Ollie, he was a very kind, gentle man who was predeceased by his wife Kathleen by five years and since then he found life to be very lonely.

He was employed for many years by Waterford County Council as well as being a former member of Dungarvan Fire Brigade. He was a great lover of cards and was a regular at Ahearne's Bar where he met up with his friends for a weekly game. He had a great love also for fishing.

Ollie was a wonderful father and grandfather, always wanting only the best in life for his family. He will be very sadly missed by his sons, daughters, sister and all who knew him and to whom we extend deep and sincere sympathy.

On Friday evening the remains left the hospital mortuary, Dungarvan for St. Mary's Parish Church where on arrival they were received and blessed by Fr. Kennedy, C.C.

On Saturday morning Requiem Mass was celebrated by Fr. Kennedy for the happy repose of Ollie's soul. Following Mass the funeral cortege made its way to Abbesside cemetery where Ollie was finally laid to rest beside his late much-loved wife Kathleen. Ar dheis Dé go raibh a hanam.

Chief mourners — Don, Brian and Brendan (sons), Pat, Helen and Rita (daughters), John O'Gorman, Tom Morrissey and Declan Doocey (sons-in-law), Alice, Violet and Bridget (daughters-in-law), David, Karen, Colin, Deirdre, Paul

Mrs. Ellen Sheehan

It is with deep regret we record the passing of Mrs. Ellen Sheehan, Coolnagour House, Dungarvan, who died on Sunday, August 13, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan. Our sincere condolences are extended to her family, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, relatives and friends.

Her remains were removed on Monday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church. Concelebrated Mass was offered on Tuesday morning and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot.

Proposed Clean Up Of Helvick Harbour

lieve the problem in the area", said Mr. O'Flynn who added that the commencement of the work would naturally depend on the agreement of the local fishermen.

Closed for over 26 years, the need for an RNLI station at the Gaeltacht site resurfaced earlier this year, due to a dramatic increase in local fishing and sea leisure activities and the recent number of serious sea faring accidents.

Dredging operations were carried out by the Council some years ago to clear Helvick Harbour but the mud and silt seems to have accumulated once more and was recently the cause of an RNLI boat getting bogged down on a 'trial' run of the area.

PRETTY WEDDING

The beautiful parish church of Saint Helena in the Nire Valley was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Monday, August 7 when John, son of Mr. Dan and Mrs. Ann Marie Desmond, Deerpark, Ballymacarbry was united in matrimony to Siobhan daughter of Mr. Tom and Mrs. Nuala Dunne, Touraneena, Ballinamult.

The marriage ceremony with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing was solemnised by Rev. Fr. William Ryan, Adm. Cathedral, Waterford (uncle of the bride) assisted by Rev. Fr. Ged McCarthy (Australian Mission) (cousin of the bride) and Rev. Fr. Michael Power P.P., Nire/Touraneena. The bride, who looked charming, was given away by her father and attended by her sister Ciara, her twin cousins Martina and Geraldine O'Ryan as bridesmaids while the matron of honour was Kathleen Troy. The bestman was Daniel brother of the groom, while Patrick, another brother, Fintan Gillman and Martin Troy were groomsmen. The flowergirl was Kerrie Power and the pageboy was Master Joey Troy. With the church ceremony over the entire party left for the Park Hotel, Dungarvan, where a most enjoyable and musical time was had for many hours.

After the blessing of the cake, the toast of the bride and bridegroom was appropriately honoured and felicitous speeches given by many present. Later in the night as the happy couple left on their honeymoon which is being spent in the U.S.A. they were accorded a most congratulatory and enthusiastic send off accompanied by the best wishes of all present for a life of unclouded happiness in the years to come.

The groom is attached to the work force of Pinewood Health Care, Ballymacarbry, while the bride is attached to the staff of Superquinn's of Clonmel. We join with their many friends in wishing them many years of happy married life.

Late Mr. Sean Houlihan

Profound and sincere feelings of regret were widely expressed at the news of the sudden death of Mr. Sean Houlihan, Fed-dins, Rathgormack, which sad event took place at his residence on Sunday, August 6.

Deceased in his late fifties was a member of an old and respected County Waterford family, his mother (nee Brazil) hails from the Nire Valley. He was acknowledged over the years as one of nature's gentlemen, whose unassuming courtesy and outgoing sincere nature were readily appreciated by all who knew him. A man who never counted the cost but gave of himself wholeheartedly when a helping hand or encouragement was required. He was indeed the essence of good humour and established lasting friendships by virtue of his unassuming nature and kindness to all who were indeed fortunate to know him and who now mourn his sudden passing.

Many tributes have been paid to his memory, but perhaps the finest was provided on Tuesday evening when all walks of life were present in the large concourse of mourners when his remains were removed from Joe Walshe's Funeral Home, Carrick-on-Suir to the parish church of the Sacred Heart, Rathgormack.

On Wednesday morning the Feast of Saint Romanus (martyr) Requiem Mass was celebrated for the happy repose of his soul. After Mass he was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery, again in the presence of a large concourse of mourners who came to pay their respects to a Christian friend whose memory they will cherish.

To his wife Ellen and family, his mother, brothers and sisters we extend our sympathy. In iothlaimn De go dtuhtar sinn.

Late Miss Margaret Fennessy

With deep regret we record the death of Miss Margaret Fennessy, Renadaumpaun-Commons, Ballymacarbry, which sad event took place at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan after an illness of long duration on Friday, August 4.

Deceased, a member of an old and respected Sliabh gCua family, who were well known for their love for the Irish language. She was sister of the late Pádraig O Fionnusa, a well known Irish teacher and Mrs. Maura Moloney, Kileshal, Cappagh.

On Saturday evening her remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church, Touraneena where they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Michael Power P.P., Nire/Touraneena. On Sunday morning the Feast of the Transfiguration of Our Lord, the 11.15 a.m. Mass was celebrated for the repose of her gentle soul, the celebrant was Rev. Fr. Francis O.C.S.O., Mount Melleray. After Mass the funeral took place to the Ancient Burial Ground at Knockboy where she was laid to rest in the family plot. Fr. M. Power officiated at the graveside in the presence of a large concourse of mourners of friends and neighbours who came to pay their final respects to a dear Christian friend.

To her sister Maura, her nephews and nieces we extend to them our sympathy. Solas na Soilse da na hanam.

Late Mr. William Veale

There was widespread sadness in Clonmel and surrounding district with the news of the death of Mr. William Veale, Boher-duff Heights, Clonmel. He was one of Clonmel's best known and liked characters. His death took place on Sunday evening at St. Joseph's Hospital, Clonmel at the age of 62 years after being unwell for the past two years.

A member of an old and respected Kilgobinet, Co. Waterford family who moved to the Old Bridge, Clonmel and then to Garrymore. The start of Christmas was signalled for Clonmel people over the past half century when they saw William and his brothers going out into the country side to collect red-berried holly, often with a donkey and cart, they then sold their ware from a pram. That was one highlight of the year, the other was hunting the wren on St. Stephen's Day, visiting houses and pubs and singing in all of them. No matter how scarce the red-berried holly was they had some way of finding it when nobody else could. He entertained the people of Clonmel and district for the past 50 years, his songs in pubs when there was no television were always welcome.

A man who had a great love for the donkey and was a familiar sight on the streets of Clonmel with his donkey and cart. He was a kind hearted man who never did anyone any harm.

On Tuesday evening his remains were removed from O'Donoghue's Funeral Home, Clonmel to S.S. Peter and Paul's parish church, Clonmel. On Wednesday morning the Feast of Saint Romanus (martyr) Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his gentle soul.

After Mass many people walked after his remains to the Convent Bridge, Clonmel as his funeral left for Kilgobinet Church, Dungarvan where a friend of the people was laid to rest in the August sunshine.

To his brothers and sister we tender to them our sympathy. Cradhbh an ti ar lar grasta agus trocaire ar a hanam usal.

Late Miss Nora Cullinan

It is with deep regret we record the death of Miss Nora Cullinan T.O.S.E., Ross, Rathgormack, which sad event took place on Wednesday, August 9 at the Regional Hospital Waterford.

Deceased was a member of an old and respected County Waterford family. Abundantly endowed with all the true Christian traits of character. Of a quiet and at all times pleasant demeanour, she possessed a most charitable outlook on life and was an excellent neighbour whose demise is deeply and justifiably mourned.

That her memory will be cherished was truly indicated by the large and representative concourse of mourners who were present when her remains were removed from Robert Thompson's Funeral Home, Barrack Street, Waterford to the parish church of S.S. Cuan and Brogan, Clonea-Power. On Friday morning the Feast of SS. Tributus and Susanna (martyrs) Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of her gentle soul. After Mass she was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery, again in the presence of a large concourse of mourners.

To her brother and sister we tender our sympathy. Suimhneas Siorai da anam usal.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy of the district is extended to the Ryan family, Old Bridge, Clonmel on the tragic death of Gerard Ryan. He was son of Nellie (nee Stack) formerly of Ballymacarbry and the late John Ryan, Old Bridge, Clonmel.

FIRST CHURCH FOR CLONMEL PARISH

Builders will start laying the foundations of the first ever church for Clonmel's Saint Olivers parish early in September. A provisional date for the start of construction on the four and a half acre site at the rear of Saint Olivers National School has been set for September 7 and to mark this historic occasion his lordship the Bishop of Waterford and Lismore Most Rev. Dr. William Lee will perform an official sod turning ceremony on the site of the proposed £850,000 church some time during next month. It is hoped to have the church, which will seat 500 people ready for opening on the Feast of Saint Oliver Plunkett on July 1, 1996.

The start of the work on Saint Oliver's new church will mark the end of a long 12 year wait for Clonmel's youngest parish.

For the past ten years the local sports complex has acted as a temporary church. Before that, Mass was celebrated in the Hall of Saint Oliver's National School. The go-ahead for the church was given last December after the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore decided to provide Saint Olivers with a £350,000 loan from their Development Fund, following negotiations and representations from the Finance Committee of the Parish's Church Building Fund.

Apart from this loan, the finance committee have raised over £330,000 over the past twelve years for the proposed new church. The fund will be boosted by the fact that the Rosminian Order are giving the value of the existing two presbytery houses in Highfield Grace as a loan. The proceeds from the sale of a 4.5 acre site at Ard Gaoithe will also go a long way towards reaching the £850,000 target. This site, originally intended as the location for the church, was bought for £40,000 11 years ago, it is now hoped to sell it for in excess of £100,000.

Win A Family Day Out In Wales

Here's your chance to enjoy a family day out of this world at the biggest theme park in Wales in association with Oakwood/Sealink and the "Dungarvan Leader".

Oakwood Leisure Park, Narberth, West Wales is now only 99 minutes away thanks to the new Sealink Seacat catamaran service between Rosslare and Fishguard. The ferry departs Rosslare at 8.30 a.m., coaches are organised at the other end to take you to the Park where all the rides are then free. The ferry returns to Rosslare at 10.30 p.m. Last year more than 6,000 Irish visitors took advantage of a special all inclusive family day trip ticket prices (IR) £69 to experience a fun day out with something for the entire family.

We have 2 family day trip tickets to give away absolutely free. If you are a family who can take your trip before Sunday 3rd September it could be you. All you have to do is answer this simple question.

Q: What is Oakwood's big new attraction for next year? You'll find the answer in the text below.

Oakwood is Wales' number one leisure park, set in 80 acres of beautiful Pembrokeshire countryside, and boasts over 20 major rides including the spectacular Snake River Falls. Opened in 1994, its water filled flumes send you twisting and turning down a rapids ride.

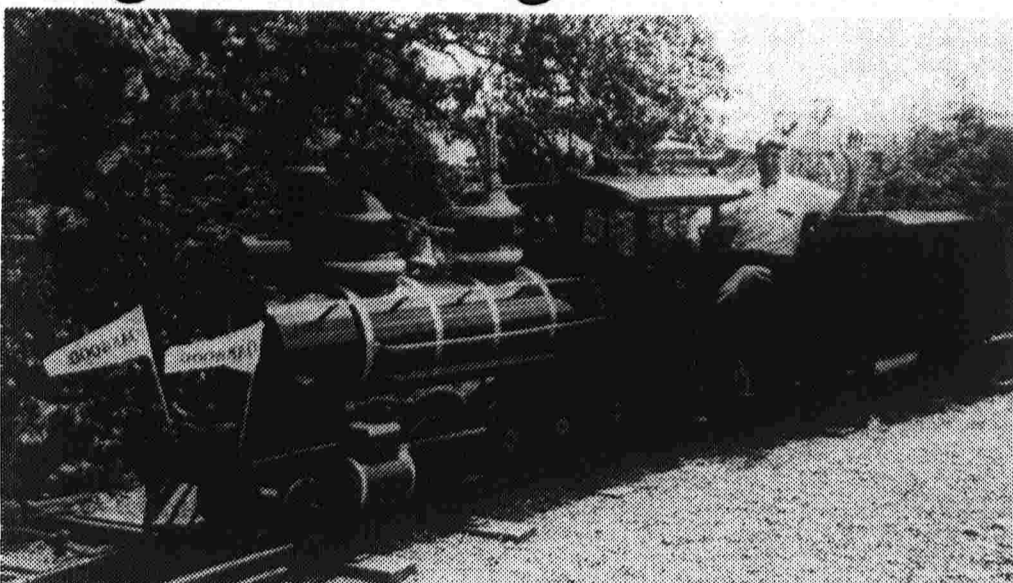

For the less adventurous and the little ones there's Playtown just one of the themed areas on the Park. Especially created for toddlers there's an array of miniature, antique style fairground rides, Playland, an indoor adventure world and a brand new attraction for 1995 - the Cuddle Farm. A farmyard of friendly animals like pigs, lop eared rabbits, miniature horses and goats, providing a hands on experience.

There's even a cottage style tea room, the Acorn Arms, where parents can relax while your children play. The fun just goes on and on!

Oakwood is the dream of a Pembrokeshire farming family - the McNamara's.

If you think that sounds more Irish than Welsh you'd be right - the family's name features prominently in Irish history and is originally derived from that of Mac-Connara, hound of the sea. More recently, between 1099 and 1600 the McNamara's were Lords of Calcullen, East Clare, and built 42 castles until 1650 when they came under attack from Cromwell's forces. Many of the family fled to the continent and it was from Holland that the family came to London shortly before the great potato famine in Ireland and finally settled in Wales.

The family's love of building has continued throughout the generations. They are about to embark on their most ambitious project to date - to build the biggest wooden roller coaster in Europe at a cost of £1.7 million, due to open in March 1996.

William McNamara, Oakwood's managing director, is in little doubt as to why the joint promotion between Sealink and Oakwood has proved such a success.

"The minute people see the Park they know why it has earned itself the reputation of having all the thrills you can take and all the fun you can handle.

"We invest every year to continually improve the Park. We also believe that our attention to customer service and our genuine determination to provide visitors with value for money, help explain our popularity as a destination."

For more information call Oakwood (010 44) 01834 891373/4/5 or for reservations call Dun Laoghaire 01 280 8844 / Cork 021 272965 / Rosslare 053 33115 or contact your local travel agent.

PAT TOBIN "THE ALL ROUND ENTERTAINER"

Pat Tobin of Mount Mellery is one of the latest Country Music stars to emerge from Co. Waterford. A very talented man who plays keyboard, accordion and guitar. Pat who is a very popular man finds himself playing all over Ireland to packed venues and '95 had him touring the U.K. With great offers coming in to his top class management 'Top Star Band Promotions' from County Kilkenny for Pat to do tours of other countries for 1996.

Pat a well established musician who appeared in shows with Irelands Top Entertainers such as 'Declan Nerney', 'The Pothole Man Richie Kavanagh', 'Louise Morrissey' and 'Paddy O'Brien' etc., etc. He also did a T.V. appearance with Bibi Baskin on R.T.E. last August. Pat is climbing the golden stairs to stardom and there is no stop to this man. Already Pat has plenty of credits under his belt. To date he has launched three tapes, the first tape he recorded at the Xeric Studio in Limerick. The ten track compilation was entitled "Pat Tobin signs Country and Irish". This tape gained immediate attention as an excellent production, the second tape "Pat Tobin signs County and Comedy". Another excellent tape, which did so well that he launched his third tape Pat Tobin's "Comedy/Parody Collection". Now adding to his already impressive bow. Pat Tobin is due to release his first video, completed under the expert direction of Frank Morgan who runs a highly successful video studio in Fermoy in Cork. The new video features thirteen fine songs shot on location at some of the best known beauty spots in West Waterford/North Cork region. Numbers such as "Waterford Has It All" (a self penned composition) "Evening In Mount Mellery" and "Save The Last Dance For Me" etc., etc., are afforded that unique Pat Tobin treatment. Pat is famous for his comic parody numbers and fans are catered for in this regard also with offerings like "The I.C.A. Song", "The Oldest Swinger in Town" and Pats very funny version of "Mickey the Monk". The impact on these comedy songs is enhanced considerably with hilarious enactments by members of the cast "Bachelors in Trouble" video series. Pat Tobin video will hopefully be the first of many from this talented artist. A happy, unassuming individual by nature, he has always wanted to release a video and that dream has now come true.

The issue of this thirteen track album signals another progressive step for one of the most aff'able people in the entertainments business.

BETTY O'BRIEN'S CAPTAIN'S PRIZE AT KNOCKNAGRANAGH

The sun shone brilliantly last Friday and Saturday August 11th and 12th and ensured complete enjoyment for all who participated in the Ladies Captains Prize for 1995 at Dungarvan Golf Club. This event is the highlight of the golfing year for every lady member of the club and to win a captain's prize the dream of every lady golfer. Yet participation too is as important as to win and this year there was a record number of entries reflecting the ever increasing involvement of people in the game of golf. Betty's prize was beautifully chosen and was much admired by all. Organizationally everything was planned in detail and the course was in excellent condition which was reflected in the exceptional scoring by the competitors especially on the Friday. At the end of the two days a number of ladies from the Abbeyside area were in prominent positions among the prizewinners. In third position was young Elizabeth Moloney from Tarrs Bridge and Josephine Melody from 'The Burgery' took fifth prize. June James from Sea Park won a prize for the best first eighteen holes. Ruth Byrne from Coolagh Road was best in Class B and Marie Fahey, Pinewood best in Class C. The Best Past Captain's prize was won by Rose Prendergast of Coolagh Road. Interestingly enough Elizabeth Moloney, Josephine Melody, Rose Prendergast and Ruth Byrne live within a short distance from each other along the main Waterford Road. At 10.00 p.m. the prizegiving ceremony took place and involved speeches incorporating the inevitable banter and good humour. Here Betty O'Brien acquitted herself in excellent fashion and she can be well proud of her contribution in her year as Lady Captain of Dungarvan Golf Club. The prizegiving over and photographs taken the members settled down to enjoy the rest of the evening comprising of music, song and dance. Enough said.

CAMP '95

We are back at home this week as we bring you up to date with the activities the troop got up to for the last week of annual camp in Kilcully.

The second Sunday was visitors day with a large number of parents visiting accompanied by sisters, brothers, aunts and uncles as well as buns and cakes for the leaders. S.P.L. Brendan had a busy day of it making tea while U.L. Brian did his Sonia O'Sullivan impression and headed for the city!

Monday saw the camp routine continue with an eight o'clock flag up, inspections, shopping and hiking. This evening was meant to be spent absailing the climbing wall but due to technical difficulties had to be cancelled and instead everyone went to the golf driving range up the road, where a number of people proved its very hard to make a golfer out of a hurler!

This second week of camp was probably the hottest weather on camp for a number of years and as we canoed on the river Lee by the Carrigohane strait, the sun shone brilliantly and left Cossie very happy with his tan. This night a lot of visitors arrived, cub leaders John and Fran as well as the returned yank Denis Slattery. A.S.L. Mark Shepherd arrived and no sooner had he set foot on the campsite than he was whisked away with two patrols going on an overnight to Glanmire where former S.L. Joe Organ had arranged accommodation in a top class motel (not!). The other two patrols headed to Ballincollig. Thursday was the big shopping day so when all patrols arrived back on site it was on with the good clothes and neckerchiefs put the money in the pockets and off down Dublin Hill for an hour long walk to the city centre where ornaments, jeans, t-shirts, soccer jerseys and framed photos in abundance were bought. At six o'clock the troop went to the cinema to see Judge Dredd followed by a visit to McDonalds. On arrival back on site we found some strange people in the marquee drinking tea. They were Ray Moore as well as Jenny Power with her guide P.L.'s Lizzie and Christine who thought Kilcully was only marvelous and were amazed at how the scouts could look after themselves! It's a pity their leader couldn't drive as well.

Friday was D-Day as it was test meal day with some superb dishes being served up. S.L. Brendan was heard saying "words can't describe the meal I just had", you lucky devil Brendan!

Saturday was spent putting the final touches to cleaning the campsite and before everyone boarded the bus at one thirty, the traditional final flag down took place. At two Larry and Foxy Paddy arrived in the truck and when it was loaded up then it was absolutely the end of annual camp '95. A camp which will long stay in the memory of those who camped in Kilcully for two weeks of fun, friendship, challenge and plenty of sun.

Of course, the question being asked now is where to next year? Only time will tell, but there are rumours, oh boy are there rumours!

QUOTE

Quote of camp came from a small scout who said: "We should go to camp for four weeks next year". This at a time when leaders felt as if they had just been through four weeks over the fourteen days.

BEST WISHES

I know all associated with the 4th Waterford will join us in sending best wishes for a speedy recovery to Scout Leader Brendan Kiersey following his operation in Dublin last week. We look forward to seeing Brendan back in the den in the near future. — Scribes

ABBEYSIDE GIRL GUIDE NOTES

WHY GUIDING?

So what is it about guiding that makes it different? There are many answers to this question and anyone who has ever been involved will reply differently. For some it's the "spirit", others liked the "challenge: while most of us just joined for the craic!

Guiding offers so much, it would be impossible to explain it all in just a few words. Our founder, B.P., hoped that through linking the young people of the world in an organisation of common principles that we would achieve world peace. So firstly guiding provides international friendship. The B.P. spirit comes from this bond and friendship. This is something that cannot be taught, learned or even properly explained. This spirit is something you have to experience to believe, it comes from the heart of the wonderful people you meet through guiding and scouting. It is most definitely one of the greatest joys and rewards we get from our involvement.

The challenge was simple 'to do your best'. Guiding provides a programme of such variety that each member can achieve their own level in the areas which best suit their interests. We make a promise to help other people everyday, so not only do we improve our own lives but we hopefully improve the lives of those around us, our community and our country.

But to be honest none of us expected to change the world when we joined first day. We joined for the fun and guiding certainly provides a lot of that. No matter what we get up to, no matter how much it rains, no matter how hard the challenge we always seem to end up laughing!

Guiding came to Abbeyside in 1981 and now 14 years later we have a good strong unit of two ladybird units, two brownie packs and our guide company. Our membership numbers are high but come September there should be a few places available in some of our sections. More information on meeting times, costs, uniforms etc. etc. later.

GET WELL WISHES

Abbeyside Reference Archive

Last Sunday proved to be a busy day at the Archive and we thank John Shanahan for looking after our interests on such a warm evening.

Our new brochure was launched last week and we would like to thank Dermot O'Brien for all his help in the production of this brochure. It will give the general public an informative account of what we have on display each Sunday evening at the Parish Office.

Next Sunday, Jennifer McCarthy will be in the office to help with any queries so if you are free on Sunday evening, give us a call.

REMEMBERING OTHER DAYS

This week for our "Remembering Other Days" series we go a few miles "out the road" so to speak, to Kilgobinet in fact. The photograph was taken in the mid-fifties at a pre-Community Games juvenile sports meeting held in that well known area and in the group are, at back (left to right) — Michael Queally, Dick Kennedy, John Hurley, James (Jim) Queally, Michael Dunford, Michael Hickey; 2nd row — Pat Hickey, Michael Kelly, Pat Kennedy, John Hickey, Christy Dunford, John Dunford, Tommy Kiely, Michael Daly. In front are Maurice Daly, Brendan French and Jim Dunford.

Modeligo Notes

LOTTO

A nice sum to help towards school costs or that last summer holiday before the season ends. Get busy marking your tickets now. £10 winners — Pat Foley, Graiguemore; Fran Phelan, Cappagh; Michael John Walsh, Giants Rock; Martin Walsh, Lower Glen; Mary Bannon, Modeligo.

SOCCER CLUB

An important agenda will be discussed at the next meeting of Modeligo Soccer Club on Thursday, August 17 in the Community Centre. It is important that all members be present, also any new members are welcome to attend.

FARM FAMILY AWARD

Congratulations to Roger and Breda McCarthy and family of Churchquarter, who received the ICMSA/Teagasc Farm Family Award '95 at the recent Dungarvan Show.

This award is in recognition of the amount of work done to bring their farm up to the winning standards required in the areas of environment, conservation and safety.

This is an important scheme which highlights the dangers involved in farm life and makes us more aware of the necessary steps to be taken to avoid serious accidents occurring.

NEW ARRIVAL

THE BEAUTY OF COUMSHINGAUN

On Sunday last we were back in the Comeragh Mountains again as a group of 18 club members headed for Coumshingaun, set deep in the heart of the mountain range and rising to a high of 1400 feet. The walk took us along through open moorland of fern and heather in magnificent colour and huge boulders which offered us all the ideal view point to take in the breath taking scenery. After walking uphill for 2 miles we arrived at the summit from where we got our first view of the lake below, which was to be our first 'official' resting point. Here, our most recent club member, Margaret Cunningham, who was still recovering from her exertions at Riverdance the previous day took full advantage taking in more than the allowed limit of 'liquid refreshments.' The lake itself formed a magnificent backdrop to the precipices that rise above it for another 1000 feet.

Our excellent guide for the day, Michael Power gave us all a detailed account of how the lake has developed over the centuries and Fintan Strain provided us with some very useful information on the rock formations in the area.

We were joined on our walk by John and Lucy Hughes from London who were full of praise for the organisation of the walk so once again many thanks to our guide Michael for an excellent day on the mountains. Last week we also welcomed back loyal club member Linda Tutty who was out of action for the past 8 weeks but has clearly lost none of her enthusiasm for the walks. However, the same cannot be said for Margaret O'Connor who I am told failed a 'medical' on Sunday morning and was rested for the trip.

Our club secretary, Deirdre Fennell is certainly very busy at present organising some very exciting areas over the next couple of months. Plans are now at an advanced stage as we head for the annual Annascaul and Inch walking festival in Kerry from October 20th - October 22nd. Here, a very heavy schedule has been organised for the weekend and promises to be a great success. Also in October the Nire walking club have organised a weekend walking festival that looks very exciting and no doubt we can expect a large number of club members taking part.

I can also reveal that plans are being put in place for a 10 day trip next summer when we hope to take part in walking festivals in Scotland and England and I hope to be able to bring more information on the exciting venture shortly.

The walk on Sunday next 20th August takes us to Knockanaffrin and we leave from T.S.B. Bank at 11.30 a.m. sharp. This walk is expected to take approximately 6 hours so you are advised to take some food and refreshments along with you. On Sunday 27th we head for Ardmore to walk a section of St. Declans Way with Michael and Fintan again acting as guides for the day.

So a busy schedule for the next couple of weeks and again we are always pleased to see new members so why not come along and join in the fun. — Shanks Mare.

Lismore Notes

Lismore Spectacular

Last Thursday 10th August was judging day in the Entente Florale Competition in Lismore.

For those who did not see the town on Thursday they failed to see the town looking it's very best. The town was just "blooming" with colour and the judges could not help but be impressed with the effort of the committee and individuals. Large crowds of visitors came to Lismore on the day and all were in awe of the splendour and the colour throughout the streets.

When one realises the amount of work that has taken place in the past months - replacement of footpaths on Main Street and West Street; improvements to public lighting, involving the undergrounding of cables; planting of 245 trees and 1450 shrubs on the streets of the town and the construction of raised flower beds at key locations not forgetting all the window boxes and hanging baskets.

Everyone that visited the town had to be impressed and hopefully all of this work and effort will be seen when the results of the Tidy Town Competition will be announced. Hopefully the markings from last Thursday will enhance Lismore's position as a tourist area.

As the Chairperson Rose O'Dowd said in her speech - Our entry uniquely reflects Lismore - a town with an elegant past and present.

Respond Housing Development On Stream

Ms. Liz McManus, T.D., Minister for Housing and Urban Renewal has announced that she has approved a proposal, from the voluntary body Respond, under her Department's Rental Subsidy Scheme, to provide 14 dwellings at Riverstown, Tramore.

This Scheme provides 100% capital loans and ongoing subsidy for approved voluntary/non profit housing bodies to assist them in the provision of family-type accommodation for low income households.

The Minister praised the initiative taken by Respond and Waterford County Council in bringing this project to fruition and said that it represents a further example of what is being achieved through partnership between the voluntary sector and local authorities.

Meanwhile the Respond housing development for the Dunabbey site in Dungarvan is expected to come on-stream in the next two weeks.

The contractor will commence construction work on the 33 unit residential development after the current holiday period around the start of September.

The development consists of 23 three bedroom houses, 10 two bedroom apartments and a community building. The new estate will be managed by the Respond Agency which operated in Waterford and throughout the South East under Fr. Pat Cogan.

Dungarvan Musical & Choral Society

Dungarvan Musical & Choral Society has great pleasure in announcing its production for February 1996 - "Carousel" by Rogers & Hammerstein. This beautiful show, which centres around a funfair carousel, tells the story of friendship, love, loss and destiny.

Rehearsals for this, the Society's thirty-sixth production, will begin in late September. So all you budding and talented singers and dancers out there, we would be thrilled to welcome new members and, of course, look forward to seeing all our old faithfuls!

However, before the Society ventures into this new production, it has a very hectic and exciting few weeks ahead. The committee is busy making last minute preparations before rehearsals begin for our entry into the Waterford International Festival of Light Opera in September.

All cast and crew of "The Pirates of Penzance", please watch this space carefully for details of rehearsals which begin at the end of August.

ATTENTION ALL CAST OF "THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE"....

All pirates, maidens and policemen - tune up your vocal chords, dust off your dancing shoes and prepare yourselves for a hectic but exciting couple of weeks. "The Pirates" are about to set sail once again!

Rehearsals of the show for the Waterford Light Opera Festival begin on Thursday, August 31st at 8 p.m. (ladies), 9 p.m. (men) in the Friary Hall.

It is imperative that all cast members should attend all rehearsals.

We look forward with much anticipation to welcoming you all back after the summer holidays and getting the show on the road (or seas!) again. See you all on Thursday 31st.

To Ballyquinn

Ballyquinn East or Ballyquinn West

They're equally dear to me
Maybe the West is slightly the best
But both have a magical sea.

It is clear as a spring
And as heady as wine
When your heart starts to sing
As the waves start to climb.

You'll feel sparky and new
As you sample the view
And breathe in the Ballyquinn air
Even Ardmore's fine strand
Would not get a hand
When its crowded and never so fair.

Whether Ballyquinn East or Ballyquinn West makes no difference what pleasure you choose
You can swim with the best
Or just paddle and rest
Then go home with the sand in your shoes.

Fr. Twomey's Residents Association

GARDEN COMPETITION WINNERS

Since last writing we have been very busy with our annual sports for children from the area. We had a very successful garden competition sponsored by Eden Garden Centre and Dungarvan Nissan.

We had a major "clean up" of the green and the right of way at Western Bay. A very big effort was put in by some of the residents and we removed four skips of rubbish from these areas. We say thank you to all who helped. Also we have to thank Mr. Ray Moloney and Mr. Joe Harty from the Town Hall without these peoples help we could not have achieved our goal, a cleaner area for all residents.

GO SLOW

We have been with Mr. Ray Moloney, Town Clerk, and have got "Go Slow" signs painted on entrances to Western Bay and both Springfield entrances. This should heighten awareness to motorists to slow down on entering these areas. A lot of children are out playing now for the summer months.

CHILDREN AT PLAY

At our last meeting of the Residents Association it was deduced that we should buy "Children At Play" signs and erect same in our local area. While their safety must be a priority these reminders are for all. We hope to have these erected as soon as possible.

GRASS - LAWN CUTTINGS

It was brought to our notice at a recent meeting with the Town Clerk that some people in the area are disposing of their grass - lawn cuttings in an improper manner, e.g. dumping on the green and other grounds in the area. This practice will have to stop immediately.

Cuttings can be left in a your normal rubbish. Your black sack or rubbish bin co-operation would be greatly appreciated.

Cappoquin Notes

TEN YEARS ON

In August 1985 thousands of people from many parts of the country flocked to a small Marian Shrine by a stream close to Mount Mellerary Abbey. The statue of the Virgin Mary situated high up in rock formation was said to have moved. There was already a great interest in such manifestations following similar experiences in the neighbouring counties of Cork and Kerry.

Of the thousand who came to Mt. Mellerary Abbey only very few were privileged to actually see the movement of the statue. Nevertheless all joined in prayer. It was an awesome sight indeed to see this large concourse of people gathered together in such a small place. As was to be expected the numbers coming dropped off but a percentage remained with the result that on every day for the intervening ten years people have come to pray especially at weekends when coaches come from Northern Ireland. From the start a committee has been in place and much work has been done to improve facilities for pilgrims. A much needed car park has been opened, there is also a public toilet and some shelter from the weather as well as seatings in the open air.

Special ceremonies will take place this week to mark the tenth anniversary (see advt) it is expected that large numbers will turn up to celebrate the occasion. There won't be as many as there was in 1985 but the genuine believers will come to pray as they have done over the decade.

IRISH HEART FOUNDATION

As can be seen on the advertisement elsewhere in this paper a great nights entertainment will be held in "The Cats", Mellerary, on Friday 25th August in aid of The Irish Heart Foundation. Music on the night will be by the ever popular Paddy O'Brien and his band. There will be numerous spot prizes and door prizes on your admission ticket. Also some lucky person must win a colour T.V. on the night. Dancing from 9.30 p.m. - 12.00 p.m. Admission £5. All proceeds of the night go to The Irish Heart Foundation. So your support would be greatly appreciated.

AFFANE/CAPPOQUIN G.A.A. NOTES

Great Win For Minors

Cappoquin 3-8, Naomh Brid 1-10

At long last Cappoquin minor hurlers got the win they deserved in the championship. In previous games our outfield possession was not being translated into scores. This bunch of lads once again had to line out minus some key players. But last Wednesday evening pulled off a championship shock with a four point victory margin over Naomh Brid. The selectors had to shuffle the pack a bit but the lads responded and everyone played their parts to the full. James Murphy in goal was sound - the defence, Michael Murphy, Eamonn McGrath John Lynch, Ed. Byrnes, Ward Fraher tackled like demons and made life very difficult for their opponents. At midfield Dermot Coughlan and Niall Maher held sway and were going just as strong at the final whistle. Our attackers, Shane Coughlan, Paul Lacey, Alan Barry, Darragh Wilkinson and Martin Ormonde got stuck in from the start. Darragh's 2 goals were gems - while Paul Lacey from placed balls was bang on target (reminiscent of his and Mick Lacey in his glory days). Well done lads this win keeps one championship hopes alive.

Our scorers were D. Wilkinson (2-1), P. Lacey (0-6), J. Lynch (0-1), Shane Coughlan (1-0).

ON COUNTY TEAM

We are delighted to report that two of our young hurlers are presently starring with Waterford U-14 team. Shane Coughlan and Richard Scanlon are our representatives and are proving the point that what you put into any sport you will reap the benefits. Both lads were in great form in the win over Wexford last week.

DONAGH CUMMINS

Good news also for the club that Donagh Cummins is slowly but surely working his way back to full fitness. Donagh has been out through injury for a long period this year and is a major loss to our club. When fully fit Donagh will be a major boost to our championship aspirations.

ANNUAL MASS

The annual mass was celebrated at the Vee on Sunday. As usual a very large crowd turned up. The celebrant was Rev. Fr. Francis O'Gor. In his homily Fr. Frances was loud in his praise of the committee which organises this event every year. He had very special words for the founder members (many of whom are now deceased) for their work in putting the Grotto in place in such a picturesque setting.

FERMOY SUB-AQUA AND WATER RESCUE SERVICE

The above will hold their annual church gate collection this Saturday night and Sunday. The rescue service is a totally voluntary organisation who have come to the rescue of many families over the years. Please give generously.

CAPPOQUIN ROWING CLUB

The F.I.S.A. World Masters will be held in Bleb on the 7-9th September and this year Pat and Milo Murray will be representing the Cappoquin Club in their bid for the treble win.

A fundraising night for the brothers will be held in the Boathouse on this Friday night. Music by Stefan and Pierie. Admission £3.00.

BOWLING FINAL

The finals of the Jessie Gallagher Memorial Cup will be held at Mellerary Road at 3.30 p.m. this Sunday. A reception will be held afterwards in the Lawlor's Lounge Bar, Cappoquin with music by Colette and Batty. Food will be served. Admission is free.

PRE-SCHOOL

16th WATERFORD C.B.S.I. NOTES

Last weekend Ray McConnell ran a semi-marathon on behalf of the local scout unit to raise funds. Seventy miles was covered from Cappoquin, Dungarvan, Carrick-on-Suir, Knocklofty, New Castle and back to Cappoquin.

There was a great reception for Ray when he arrived back in Cappoquin around 8 p.m. at the corner store where he was met by the Scouts, cubs, beavers and guides and parents. Two members of the Dungarvan Pipe Band piped Ray to the Scouts Den where he was presented with a gift for his great effort on behalf of the local troop. His wife Sylvia was presented with a bouquet of flowers. Afterwards there was a cake sale and games in the field which consisted of the following: egg and spoon race, horse shoe throwing, hoop racing, sack race, guess the number of peas, penalty taking and splat the rat.

The evening was a fantastic success to much so that we are going to hold another er sports evening in September.

On behalf of everyone in the unit I would like to thank Ray and wish him the very best of luck on his run in Greece. Mrs. Fraher for supplying the two pipers, those great people who set up the sports events, those good people who sent in donations and anyone who subscribed in anyway making this the great success that it was. By the way Ray's time was 12 hours 9 mins 25 seconds. There were several people with the correct time so the names were put in a hat. The winner was Imelda Moore of Villierstown. Well done. The bouquet was presented by David Kett of the Beavers. Rory Tobin was our star goalie. This weekend repairs to the Den are taking place. Any able bodied man or woman who can help in anyway we would be glad of your support as a lot of work has to be done. A new roof, repairs to walls and painting. Once again thanks to everyone. Until next week God Bless.

AT THE SPORTSFIELD

Clashmore Defeat Tourin In Junior Hurling

The first game at the ground on Sunday last was the junior hurling championship meeting of Clashmore and Tourin. The latter have been enjoying a good season losing only one game up to this. Clashmore on the other hand needed to win here to stay in the championship.

Mike Shaloe opened the scoring for Clashmore when he pointed a free in the 4th, Lombard and K. O'Rourke added two more before Frank McLoughlin opened Tourin's account with a point in the 9th minute. He also had his side's only other score of the first half, a point in the 26th minute. Wind assisted Clashmore went on something of a scoring spree their tally at half time was 1-10 which included a goal by S. O'Rourke in the 15th minute. Tourin did better in the second half. Frank McLoughlin got a goal and three points and Cian O'Donnell had a point. Clashmore however stayed ahead helped by points from Gabriel Hayes, Mike Shaloe and well struck '65' from K. O'Rourke. McLoughlin narrowed the gap with a Tourin goal in the 22nd minute then substitute John McGrath added another to leave just 2 points between the sides. Tourin made changes but it was Clashmore who finished the better and the last score fell to them, a point by K. O'Rourke in the 28th minute.

Final score Clashmore 1-14, Tourin 3-5. This win was a life line to Clashmore and they should make it to the play-offs. Tourin are better placed they have ten league points with a game left. This is against Kilgobinet next week and even if they lose this they should still make the play-off.

Clashmore—T. O'Rourke, N. O'Connell, T. O'Keefe, P. Hayes, B. Murray, S. McGrath, K. O'Rourke, C. O'Riordan, M. Fenton, P. Lombard, M. Shaloe, D. Fitzgerald, S. O'Rourke, G. Hayes, M. Coughlan. Subs: B. O'Neill for Coughlan, V. O'Rourke for Shaloe.

Good Win Keeps Ballyduff Footballers In Contention

The second game at the venue on Sunday was in the junior football championship. The teams were Ballyduff and Tallow. The Bridesiders were already through to the knock-outs. Not so Ballyduff however as they had to win otherwise the remaining place would go to Modeligo.

Ballyduff went into an early lead with points from Michael Walsh, Paudie Prendergast and Kevin Barry. As well as this Walsh had a good shot saved by the Tallow keeper. Ger Hogan opened the Tallow scoring with a point in the 11th minute. Walsh and Michael Mollumphy had points for Ballyduff, Walsh was on hand again with a goal in the 16th minute. Ger Hogan had another point for Tallow but James Scanlon replied for Ballyduff. Kevin Barry kicked their second goal in the 24th minute and Walsh added a point. Pat Murphy had one for Tallow but the Reds had the last score of the half a point from Kevin Barry.

Half time Ballyduff 2-8 Tallow 0-3.

Tallow had wind advantage for the second half and had the first two scores points by Ger Hogan. They were right back in it in the 5th minute when Pat Murphy placed Philly Curley for a fine goal. Mollumphy and Scanlon had points for Ballyduff. Tallow were not prepared to go down without a fight and when Curley placed Ger inside for their second goal, it was anybody's game. Curley himself scored another in the 22nd minute. Ballyduff's midfielder Paudie Prendergast was now seen at his brilliant best when following a thirty yard run he kicked a mighty goal to put the issue beyond doubt. James Scanlon and Buddy Curley exchanged points before the end. Final score Ballyduff 4-10, Tallow 3-7. Both sides must now meet again in the quarter final and what a game that promises to be.

Ballyduff—R. Walsh, K. Geary, M. Drislane, T. Scanlon, G. Hickey, T. Feeney, J. Twomey, P. Prendergast, D. Hannon, K. Scanlon, M. Mollumphy, T. Mollumphy, K. Barry, E. Flynn, M. Walsh, Subs: G. Feeney for Twomey, G. Quirke for Hannon.

DUNGARVAN SCOUT NOTES — 11th WATERFORD

Annual Camp A Brilliant Success

Glenshelane was our destination for this year's camp. We had a big turnout this year. We cycled to the Glen, the weather was perfect and the parents gave us a good send off. The first day was hectic as we had to pitch the tents and lay out the campsite. We had three patrols, the Eagle, Python and the Cobra. Sunday was our first full day. Tom had us all up at 7.30 a.m. The day started with physical exercise and the lads felt like going back to bed after that. Each patrol finished off their campsite also each patrol had a project to complete. The Cobra had to build a table, the Eagle a Tee-Pee and the Python a gate. The patrols had 3 days to complete their project. The weather was great during our camp and swimming was on top of the agenda everyday. There was an 8 foot drop into the river and all the lads enjoyed jumping into the river, Victor Murphy and Paul Towhig even found the courage to jump in. Mind you it took nearly 2 hours for them to do it. Monday and Tuesday was very active as we did orienteering, pioneering, bridges, rounders, soccer and also the big favourite canoeing. Paul Power and Stephen Crotty proved to be fast learners. While Shane Whelan kept falling out. Wednesday was the wettest day of all and I don't mean rain. We had a water balloon fight. Each patrol was given a supply of water balloons and they had to hide and ambush the other patrols, the leaders even got involved. When the balloons were gone we resorted to buckets of water. Dave Walsh and Paul Towhig got away without getting wet or so they thought. We got them later on that week and we handcuffed them to the gate, and each member had the pleasure of drowning them. That night we headed off to Ballyduff our exact destination was the Booley House, it was a night of dancing, music, craic and eating. At this stage we would like to thank Fintan Strain, and Ann Power and of course our Unit Leader Kevin Kiely for transporting us up to Ballyduff. A great night was had by all.

getting shot even by their own team. Brendan came out with a minus score. Burger Land was our next stop and once everyone was fed we went shopping and the scout shop was the top of our list. Tom bought a camping bed, he must be getting too old for this camping lark. Steven Crotty buying a set of handcuffs, they came in handy especially when we were soaking David and Paul. Fermoy swimming pool was our next destination. The lads had a good swim while the older lads had a sauna. We all felt very refreshed after that. We arrived back after a full and active day. Friday was our rest day we lazed around and took in the sun. That night we went to Melleray to watch a video. The lads were so excited as it was the first bit of telly that they saw all week. Saturday saw the rain falling but that did not dampen our spirits. We went canoeing, Paul Sheridan even went down a weir. The rain still did not ease off by the evening so we played cards in the marquee. That night we went on a hike to North Glenshelane. Sunday arrived and everyone was excited as it was parents day. We had plenty of activities organised one of which was slippery soccer. All parents got wet, then the water bucket fight started, I think Liam Sandford was the main culprit there. At the end of the evening we had a bar b que. The lads were quiet content as they had another supply of sweets. A great day was had by all. Monday and Tuesday were our last days in the Glen and we went orienteering in the North Glen on Monday morning and in the evening it was time to dismantle the gadgets. We left for home on Tuesday and we arrived back at the Den at 3.00 p.m. after a long and eventful camp. Here's looking forward to next year.

KEEPING TOURISM FLAG FLYING

Hats off to local man Rory Wyley (Jnr) of O'Connell Street, Dungarvan who has performed admirably as a Bord Fáilte representative since moving to England.

Expounding the scenic delights of Co. Waterford and the many opportunities available for tourists, Rory caught the attention of Keith Langride, Reading, Berkshire and Richard Fpraggett, Newbury, Berkshire who travelled to Dungarvan this year to experience it from themselves.

The Englishmen stayed a total of five days at the renowned 'Whitehouse' at Youghal Road while visiting Dingle, the Tramore Races and various places of interest, accompanied by Rory.

Soaking up the rich Irish culture, the duo sampled the famed Guinness and even a local hurling match at Fraher Field. The men really got into the game once the rules were explained!

Having thoroughly enjoyed their stay in Dungarvan, both Keith and Richard are adamant that they will return on a holiday next year.

For Richard, this was his second trip to Ireland through the encouragement of Rory who continues to keep the Irish tourism flag flying in England.

SHARON CROWNED QUEEN

At the conclusion of the Comeragh Queen Festival the Comeragh Queen was picked last Monday night at a dance in Crotty's Inn. She was the Durrw Co-Op sponsored Queen, Sharon Fennell, from Clonea, Dungarvan. She is daughter of Jamie and Mary Fennell. Incidentally Mary is formerly from Grawn (nee Brazil), so she has the Kilrossanty roots, and her uncle Liam is Manager of Durrw Co-Op. The judges had a hard task in picking Sharon as all eleven queens were very good in their presentation. The following girls represented the different sponsors. Durrw Co-Op: Sharon Fennell, Clonea;

CHOIR

Kilrossanty and Fews Choir had the privilege of singing in Ballylaneen Church on Sunday morning last, where the ex-president of America was attending Mass. President Jimmy Carter was on a visit to the Sunny South East. All present had a hand shake from him. There were other singers there as well, so who knows they could be the start of singing for various statesmen or women when they visit this country.

THIS WEEK TEAGASC Says

MAINTAINING MILK YIELDS

Grass Growth has been satisfactory over the past few weeks and cows are milking well. The mid August target for spring-calving cows is slightly under four gallons. Every effort should be made to maintain performance as a lot of valuable milk can be produced over the next three months.

Grazing Height—The post grazing stubble height in paddocks should be about 3" forcing cows to graze much tighter at this stage in the lactation will depress yields too much and result in short lactations. The response to nitrogen is still good for another three weeks.

Meal supplementation, if yields are slipping at about 2 kgs./cow is about the right amount to feed. The economic response from feeding up to 4 kgs. is about break even and even then should only be contemplated by those within the quota.

PLANNING AUTUMN GRASS

Preparation for having good quality grass in September/October must start this week. Paddocks grazed during the last week of August are likely to be those grazed for the last time in late October - early November. If these happen to be your driest, things are ok but if they are your wettest you should try to make the necessary adjustments to your rotation cycle over the next six weeks. All paddocks must get a good grazing (with dry cows, store cattle or sheep) or topping to about 2 1/2".

Spread about 35 - 40 units nitrogen/acre on all paddocks and try to extend the grazing cycle to 35 to 40 days. This extension of the rotation cycle will allow grass to build up but you must resist the temptation of applying too much nitrogen (50 - 60 units) in the hope of producing a lot of grass - this will cause lodging and produce a poor quality sward.

Extending the rotation is not easy on well stocked farms, but options to consider for increasing the grazing areas per cow include disposal of saleable drystock, tightening up on dry cows or ewes, meal feeding finishing cattle, thereby reducing their grazing requirements.

Utilisation—To achieve good utilisation, a roadway and easy access is essential. Subdivision of the normal paddock into three grazings and the use of a back fence will reduce the amount of walking and sward damage. There is a wide range of temporary fencing accessories and quick fit water couplings available in most hardware or co-op stores to make this subdivision easier and to reduce the risk of getting an electric shock on some wet October evenings.

TEMPORARY LEASING OF MILK QUOTA

With cows milking well and milk deliveries running over quota, there is an unprecedented demand for milk quota. Many farmers in the 30000 to 50000 gallon category failed to get quota under the first phase of this year's scheme. Many of these relied on temporary leased quota in previous years and now find themselves very vulnerable.

To take some of the pressure off these, the Minister has decided that producers in the 30000 to 50000 gallon category should have priority in the second phase of the scheme along with those in the under 30000 gallon category. These producers should now apply to their Co-Op.

Even though the closing date is the 30th September, the sooner applications are sent in, the better as it gives more time to the Co-Op, to follow up any producers unlikely to fill their quota. As the demand will probably exceed supply by up to 2 to 1, each producer has to assess his own situation very carefully.

APPLICATION OF LIME

Some years ago it was estimated by Johnstown Castle, research staff that an annual usage of 2 million tonnes of lime is needed to maintain soil pH levels and bring deficient soils up to the desired level over a period of years. The annual usage has been running at well under 1 million tonnes for several years now.

Lime/Nitrogen Relationship—In grassland, the main benefit of liming is the release of soil nitrogen. Heavy applications of chemical nitrogen fertilisers will mask the effect of soil nitrogen released and therefore the liming effect will not be apparent. At low nitrogen use (30 kgs./acre) liming could be expected to release about 50 units of nitrogen per acre per year and this will have a similar effect to the application of an additional 50 units of nitrogen per acre.

Where pH has been brought up to the recommended level, it will not be necessary to relime again for up to ten years, depending on soil type. The extra grass output from the release of soil nitrogen will pay for the cost of liming where the level of chemical nitrogen use is low or medium up to 160 units/acre.

SILVER JUBILEE CELEBRATION IN CLONEA

On Sunday evening last the Ballysaggart Junior hurling team of 1970 journeyed to Clonea Power to celebrate the silver jubilee of their county final clash. Team selectors—P.J. Fennessy and chairman of selectors, Sean Griffin announced the team and they sprinted on to the pitch. After the photographs the teams lined out and the ref threw in the ball. The pace might not have been as hectic as twenty-five years ago but the commitment had not diminished. At the end of the 'hour' Clonea had asserted their superiority. Afterwards we all headed for Carrick-on-Suir for a social evening, during which the members of both teams and selectors were the recipients of mementoes of the occasion. P.J. Fennessy, chairman of Ballysaggart GAA in 1970 made a presentation to Clonea Power to mark the occasion.

County Waterford ICMSA

The County Waterford Executive of ICMSA was represented at a recent ICMSA National Council meeting by John Dowley, Tom Hickey and Anne Kirwan. The main items discussed at that meeting were the court's finding of the 4.5% reduction on milk quotas, animal disease programme and ICMSA/ACC Bank loan scheme for milk quota purchase.

The National Council rejected the European Court's finding on the ICMSA 4.5% quota case.

ICMSA and ACC Bank have designed a special loan scheme for farmers buying milk quota under the restructuring scheme. The ICMSA/ACC Bank scheme has a very competitive interest rate of 9.25 per cent combined with a delayed repayment of interest and capital for up to one year and nine months.

The President Tom O'Dwyer told the National Council that the loan scheme and the quota subsidy provides the best help to date for farmers wishing to buy quota. Mr. O'Dwyer said that the delay in paying the subsidy for last years scheme caused cash flow problems for many farmers and that ICMSA will be pressing that this does not occur this year.

He continued, "farmers qualifying for the quota subsidy and borrowing over 5 years can opt to make no repayments during 1995 and 1996 and the first repayment will fall due in May 1997. The repayments normally due in 1995 and 1996 will be met by the subsidy which the farmer will assign to the ACC Bank. This means that a farmer will have the benefit of the additional quota for the 1995/96 and the 1996/97 milk quota years without having to make a repayment from his milk cheque. This will be an advantage to farmers who may have existing repayment commitments or who may have to borrow to purchase additional cows to fill the extra quota.

Mr. O'Dwyer said that the ICMSA/ACC Bank scheme is also designed for farmers who purchase quotas but who do not qualify for a subsidy. "Under this loan scheme these farmers may defer repayments until May 1996 and continue to receive the benefit of the 9.25 per cent rate."

Farmers can avail of this loan scheme by contacting their Co-op or local ACC Bank branch.

Mr. O'Dwyer said that he hoped that all the quota will be allocated under the restructuring scheme within the next few days and that the subsidy scheme applications for this year should be processed early so that payment of the subsidy can be made in 1995.

There was a full discussion on animal disease at the Council meeting and the Council felt that farmers needing a test should not be held up.

Waterford IFA Issues Grading Advice

At the last meeting of the Waterford IFA County Executive, the problem of downgrading of heifers for slaughter was discussed. It emerged that many top quality heifers are being classed by meat factories as cull cows, resulting in losses of up to £100 a head for some farmers.

Waterford IFA County Chairman, Pat Murphy advised farmers that when sending in this type of animal to factories they should accompany them to slaughter to ensure proper grading.

"Should farmers fail to have their animals properly graded, the matter should immediately be brought to the attention of the County Executive", he concluded.

Waterford I.F.A. Dairy Chairman Warns Of Likely Superlevy Fine for 1995/96

Waterford IFA Dairy Committee Chairman Gerald Curran, said that as announced by the Minister for Agriculture Ivan Yates, Irish dairy farmers will pay a bill of £4.075m. on over-production to the tune of 2.9m gallons. "This is well down on earlier expectations, thanks to strenuous efforts by dairy farmers and coops to minimise the national superlevy exposure," the IFA man said.

It is a significant bill nonetheless, and I do not underestimate the hardship it will create for individual farmers penalised for over-production. I would like to remind these dairy farmers that IFA negotiated with AIB a low cost finance plan to help them schedule penalty payments over a period of up to 5 years," he said.

Mr. Curran also warned that the significant overdeliveries in the peak milk production period of April to July 1995 would be very difficult to compensate for later in the quota year. "Concerns that this year's superlevy bill may be worse than last year are very real, as the most recent national figures show that supplies at the end of June outstripped quota by a 4.7%," he said. "I call on all dairy farmers to plan production cautiously to eliminate their own and therefore the national exposure to superlevy penalties this year," he added.

He further called on the Department of Agriculture to establish urgently a Management Information System to allow Irish dairy farmers keep track of their butterfat quota, just as they do of their superlevy quota. "The national maximum level of 3.58% is bound to become increasingly tight, and it is critical for farmers and co-ops to get a handle on their butterfat quota to be able to plan production," he said.

Finally the Waterford IFA

Dairy Chairman welcomed Minister epositive response to the IFA request that temporary quota be exceptionally made available to those small to medium producers just over 30,000 gallons who normally rely on the scheme, but had been unable to avail of it in the first phase.

"Non-Contract" Malting Barley Worth £20 Per Tonne Premium Over Feed Says IFA Grain Leader

The Chairman of Waterford IFA Grain Committee, Alex Heskin has said that malting barley outside of the IFA agreed contracts with Guinness, Minch Norton, Williams Waller and the Malting Company of Ireland is worth £20/t minimum over feed barley.

Mr. Heskin pointed out that this was due to a very strong world demand for malt, adding that there was great potential for exporting malt from surplus Irish malting barley this season. "In addition total spring malting production in France is now expected to be down 15-20% because of poor yields."

The Waterford IFA Grain Chairman strongly advised farmers growing barley varieties with malting potential to assess the grain potential for malting prior to selling as non-contract premia would be very strong this harvest.

"Already premia of £15/20/T have been offered from a number of buyers," added Mr. Heskin.

IFA Advises Farmers To Ensure Contractors Covered By Insurance

Waterford IFA Industry and Environment Chairman Matt Cunningham has advised farmers to check their insurance policy to ensure they are fully covered when employing contractors for work on their farms. "It is essential, particularly at this very busy time of year, that farmers are aware of the need to insure themselves against accidents to contractors working for specified periods on their farms", he said.

The IFA man said that many farmers were taking advantage of the fine weather to get important building and painting work done on their farms, as well as harvesting fodder and cereals. A farmer taking on contract workers should check his insurance policy to ensure that contract workers and casual labourers are sufficiently covered or make contact with his broker to obtain temporary cover for the duration of the contract. Mr. Cunningham also stressed the importance of being safety conscious at all times, especially working with farm machinery.

"While the pressure is on to get work done while the fine spell lasts, farmers and their families should be extra vigilant about safety and resist the temptation to take risks or short cuts. Farm machinery is the number one cause of all accidents on farms and every effort must be taken to ensure safety precautions, such as guards, are in place and safety procedures are followed."

BOOK REVIEW

'Brave Seamen of Youghal' is the second huge success story from native Youghal author now living in Kinsalebeg, Mike Hackett.

First launched in May of this year this brilliant 'On Stream Publications' book brings to life some of the most historic and great moments of seafaring history in Youghal town and the surrounding areas over the past centuries.

Anyone can tell a story but it takes a very special author to bring historical facts to life, capturing the great spirit and happiness of the times despite the hardships and presenting them to the reader almost as a story.

On reading this book one almost envies the author his in-depth knowledge, his love and deep feelings of these wonderful characters whom he had brought back to life in his book, some of whom we fondly remember, some who are only memories, but Mike makes us believe we do remember them.

For us here in Clashmore - Kinsalebeg great local seamen such as The Flaherty and Mulcahy brothers, Monatrea, Moss Keogh, Maurice Fleming, William Keating, John White, John Hogan all of Ardsallagh, Pats Murray Monatrea to name but a few of those whose great memories have been honoured in this book, Mike also gives an excellent history of Clashmore Distillery.

A beautiful book brilliantly written by Mike Hackett and well worth reading. Stocks are quickly running out. Available at all local news agents and shops. Be sure to secure your copy before it's too late. Continued success Mike.

BRIAN RECEIVES WARM WELCOME

A huge West Waterford welcome was extended to very popular M.E.P. Brian Crowley from Cork to last Sunday night's social evening hosted by Piltown Fianna Fail Cumman in the Decies Lounge, Clashmore.

At this early stage in his political career Brian is already a household name especially among the young. On Sunday night voters of all dimensions came along to meet Brian and a great social night was had by all.

Piltown secretary Mrs. Breda Murray extended a warm welcome to Clashmore to Brian and to all the other special guests, Brendan Kenneally T.D. and his wife, Cllr. Patsy Kenneally, Nuala Ryan Chairperson of the Dungarvan UDC also the Chairman and secretary of Dungarvan Comhairle Ceanntar Mr. David Murray. Piltown Cumman Chairman made a special presentation of Clashmore crystal to Brian to make this very special occasion - his first visit as M.E.P. to this area.

Then came the moment we had all been waiting for when Brian Crowley almost brought the house down with a melody of songs. There was a treat in return when Eileen Delaney followed by Breda Murray both gave a song which went down well. Mark and Red kept the music going throughout the evening and Brian Crowley M.E.P.'s visit to this area will be remembered for many years to come.

DEATH OF MRS. MAMIE WHITE

With much regret we learned of the death on Saturday last of a dear and widely respected Clashmore lady Mrs. Mamie White, Cross, Clashmore. The last surviving member of the O'Rourke family Mamie was predeceased by her brother Paddy less than four months ago.

Wife of Ned White both were very popular members of the local farming community who enjoyed a long and happy life together. Mamie's death leaves a great void in the life of her husband and family.

Reposing at Egan's funeral home Youghal her removal took place to Clashmore Church on Sunday evening. No proof was needed of the esteem and affection in which Mamie and her family were held, the hugely representative attendance at her obsequies were a touching final testament to a lovely lady. Many heart breaking tears were shed as a wonderful wife, mother and grandmother was laid to rest following requiem mass on Monday morning.

To her husband Ned, her sons Bill and John and her daughter Mary and all the members of her family we extend our deepest sympathy.

SYMPATHY TO THE WILLIS FAMILY

Our deepest and heartfelt sympathy is being extended to Mrs. Nora Willis, her daughter Mary son-in-law Noel Hayes (formally of Clashmore) their daughters Ciara and Orla and all the family on the tragic death of a wonderful and dearly loved husband and father, Henery Willis, Shean, Ballyduff on Wednesday last August 9th.

Henery was held in high regard by all sections of the community, he enjoyed the respect and esteem of all who knew him and his death was learned of with sentiments of sincere and genuine regret. The large and representative attendance at the removal of the remains to the church of the Immaculate Conception Tallow on Thursday evening and at the burial on Friday morning in the adjoining cemetery were an eloquent token of the popularity of the deceased and his family over a wide area.

PRESENTLY ON HOLIDAY

Happy holidays to the Fox family, Terry, Fred, Winnie and Miss Nancy all presently on holiday in Tinnock, hope you enjoy your stay.

CHILDERS ESTATE JUNIOR CLUB

Here we are once again and we have been kept busy lately. We went on an educational trip to Lismore Towers. The journey was very enjoyable as the route is very scenic. After the tour of the Towers we had a picnic beside the river. Most of the members as well as leaders went home wet. All were trying to beat each other by jumping from one side of the river to the other. We were very lucky with the weather as it was a really warm night.

To finish our year we had our annual weekend away to Woodstown. This always seems to be the highlight of the year. All were packed well in advance and at the bus in plenty of time. Most of the children are regular visitors to Woodstown but we did have a couple of new members this year. Once again God smiled on us and gave us good weather for the weekend.

On arrival all were fed and got their bunks ready for the night. Then we went for a walk on the beach which is very beautiful and later we watched a video. All were up bright and early on Saturday morning and after breakfast we headed straight for the beach to start a day of fun and games. We played our usual games of soccer, tennis and frisbee. We have some very good soccer and tennis players. The children really surprised us this year with the beautiful sandcastles they made.

After lunch and a rest it was back to the beach again for our swim, it was very cold at first but the children stuck it out which is more than can be said for some of the leaders. They were afraid the crabs might get them. This year we had a new water game organised by Carmel. First you had to put on two big wellingtons, you had to run to the waters edge, fill up the two big wellingtons with water, you then ran back as fast as you could and filled up a big bin with the water. The first team to fill the bin were the winners. Somehow the game took on a different slant and it ended up with the leaders getting soaked. It was very exciting anyway. We had our sponge game with members and leaders wetting one another. We played some more games and before we knew it, it was time for dinner.

All the fresh air really made them hungry so the dinner was devoured by all. Triona and Jeddy were the chief cooks for the weekend. They must have been good as we all survived. After dinner Norah took some of the members on a treasure hunt. The other members opted to have a rest on the beach much to the delight of Triona Wright and Michelle Delaney. Carmel kept herself busy burying the children in the sand. After an hour we opted for a long earned rest as the day had got quite warm.

Later we watched a video and finally all went to bed. It took a while to get them to sleep. Sunday is a kind of a quiet day because they know they have to go home. We cleaned up our rooms and had our breakfast. Then it was off to the beach again. More games were played, some of which were made up by the children themselves. After dinner the bus arrived at 3 p.m. and we had a bit of a sing song on the way home. Some had a sleep among all the noise. We are sorry to say that some of our older members will be leaving us and going on to other clubs so we wish them the best of luck. We would also like to thank everybody who helped us out in anyway during the year and a special thank you to Annie who has been a long serving leader with the club. We will miss her next year and wish her the best of luck for the future. Finally we would like to thank the members for the beautiful gifts they presented the leaders with in Woodstown.

GET UP AND GO

Our summer programme began with the members brainstorming and planning their own programme. At the start of June a Tuesday afternoon was spent at leather making where we made wrist bands. The main event was our camping trip to Mahon Falls. We left Dungarvan at 7.30 p.m. on Saturday evening where Nora Lynch brought us to the falls. When the tents were pitched the water and the firewood was collected. After the battle with the midgets we decided to light the fire and have our supper.

We sat around the fire and told stories, jokes, etc., and then to bed with the singing of Billy and Thomas to put us to sleep.

Fitzzy took the members on a hike after the breakfast on Sunday and Triona and Trisha stayed back to cook the dinner with very little oil as Samantha thought it was shampoo. We returned to Dungarvan on Sunday afternoon quite exhausted.

Our summer break is in progress so I hope the leaders and the members have a great summer and hope to see you for Woodstown in September.

SUMMER BREAK

This event was run early this year. Twenty children and nine leaders headed to Woodstown on Sunday the 16th of July for a weeks break.

We were very lucky with the weather as we only had a few wet hours, but overall the weather was good. All the children and leaders got stuck into the raft making event. We are still trying to find out who broke the raft, rumour has it that Brendan may have something to do with it. This week was thoroughly enjoyed by everybody as with all residential it wasn't long enough for the participants. But I think the leaders were happy to get home. I would like to take this opportunity to thank everybody who helped in anyway to make the week possible.

NEWLINE CLUB

CANOEING PROGRAMME

This summer we were once again able to offer a canoeing programme to 10 young people. There were two sessions each day for five days. All of the participants received an Irish Canoe Union Cert Certificate of participation for completing the week. The event was held in the Gold Coast. Great fun was had by all who took part. Many thanks to Joe the instructor and to Ger who did a lot of running around getting the young people in and out for each session.

All of the clubs are now enjoying their summer break so we look forward to seeing everybody again in September/October.

In June the members of the Newline Club, Cathal Brugha set off once again on their annual weekend to Woodstown. We left Dungarvan in bright sunshine and arrived in Woodstown to white sands and blue seas. That evening after supper we all walked along the beach together and played group games until the sun went down. The next day we were helped out by Chris Fogarty, a qualified canoeing instructor from Waterford Regional Youth Service. The members spent the morning working together in teams to make rafts. In the afternoon they went canoeing and tested out the rafts which floated with ease.

That evening we were honoured to be joined by Paddy Power, Vice Chairman of Dungarvan UDC and his wife Mrs. Judy Power, Garda Eddie Fitzpatrick, Junior Liaison Officer, and his wife Mrs. M. Fitzpatrick and Triona Foley, Dungarvan Youth and Community Worker.

The local dignitaries were treated to a short display where the members explained about the Cathal Brugha "Clean Up" programme and the "Hygiene Programme" that they had all taken part in over the last 6 months. They also talked about what they had learned from participating in these programmes. Some of the members sang a song and were then presented with their certificates by Paddy Power and Eddie Fitzpatrick.

The Newline Club would like to thank Paddy Power, Eddie Fitzpatrick and their wives also Triona Foley for making this a special occasion for all members of the club. Another thank you must be given to all the voluntary leaders, Theresa Wright, Paul Hansberry, Patricia O'Doherty, Jeddy Walsh and Juliet Pickup who gave up their weekend to give all the children a holiday to remember.

THE DIFFERENT HURLING STYLES

Galway's style over the last 10 years is easily defined and is a reflection of the influence over the Corrib men of their most successful coach, Cyril Farrell whose coaching of Galway teams really began in 1978 when Galway under 21 won the All Ireland. In 1983 he took the maroon minors to All Ireland victory over a Dublin team which featured a giant of a lad called Niall Quinn who was to achieve international fame ever since by using his head rather than his hurley. It was the best of those two teams which backboned the Galway All Ireland champions of 1987 and 1988 final.

Whatever criticism may be made of Cyril's game plan or hurling style - and you and I have as much right to question as the next person - it must never be forgotten that he won his native county a considerable amount of respect and a new status while taking Galway to All Ireland success as well as League Oireachtas and Railway Cup. Galway became a force to be reckoned with and Cyril was an innovator in hurling coaching.

The Farrell style was new and was a radical departure from the more traditional. He had an aversion to ground hurling, didn't acknowledge its importance and based his approach on securing possession and retaining it. His philosophy owed much to Gaelic football and to the Kerry style where running and passing were central elements. He saw no good reason why elements of the Kerry game should not be adapted to hurling. His game plan placed a big emphasis on solo running and passing until the posts were in sight. Then scoring entered the equation. Hours were spent on perfecting hand-passing movements and interchanging positions and ground hurling got a low priority. In his book "The Right to Win" he lambasts what he calls "the twaddle about ground hurling, as if it's somehow a superior way of doing things. It most patently is not. Yes it had its uses if a player is in a tight corner but it can never be as beneficial as getting a ball into your hand," page 135.

Two points should, I think be made. Nobody with any pretensions to being a student of the game would assert that ground hurling and handling are mutually exclusive. We have the evidence of every great game over the last half century to support the view that no All Ireland winners won with a team which was lacking in the ability to play the ball on the ground as well as from the hand. And that includes Galway. Wasn't it Noel Lane (with Peter Finnerty the best striker of a ground ball on the Galway team) who clinched victory for his team in the 1987 and 1988 All Ireland finals with goals late in each game from ground shots? Another misconception is that ground hurling means "pulling on everything that stirs" as a junior hurling guru I knew used to describe it.

Once before a league match in Laois the county chairman invited the team to "go out and pull and pull until are tired of pulling." Fortunately we ignored that precious advice in the interests of public safety and survival. What about the flicking or touching on or moving the ball on the ground of which skill Eugene Coughlan over 10 years ago and Kevin Kinahan of today's Offaly team were the masters. They knew well that "in a tight corner" tipping the ball away to allow them the option of lifting was the safest, most controlled and best course of action. And boy could they pass too! Kilkenny or Cork the leaders of hurling's All Ireland roll of honour know only too well the critical importance of controlling the ground ball and striking it. That is precisely what Kevin Hennessey did to a crossing ball in the 1986 All Ireland. He got a stick to it to control it before smashing an unstoppable shot low into the Galway net.

When Cork and Kilkenny met in the 1992 All Ireland final the game was remarkable for how little Cork played the ball on the ground throughout the game. Yet it was a piece of neat ground play by Kilkenny which clinched the match for them late in the second half when Liam McCarthy fastened on to a breaking ball on the edge of the Cork square, touched it forward on the ground and drove powerfully across Ger Cunningham and into the far corner of the net. That goal came from two simple ground strokes.

I met John Connolly (would you believe on a beach in France where we were both holidaying and hurling) a few years ago. He was quite bothered by the disproportionate amount of training time which Cyril used give to running, soloing and passing to the neglect of striking. He wondered what satisfaction as a hurler a panel member would derive from a training session in summertime when ball striking was relegated in importance and most of the session stressed handling and running. John himself was skilled at lifting, handling and striking but what really troubled him was what he saw as a lack of balance in the training programme. Besides, as John knew the practice of ground striking in training enables players to confidently perform that skill whenever during a game it was needed. Only players can make that decision, not the management on the line. What is more, only a skillful player can play the ball properly on the ground.

Watching Damien Byrne or Billy O'Sullivan or Stephen Frampton doing a bit of ground hurling during training is a delight they are so accomplished. It is no accident that the same lads are fine strikers from the hand. The player who is master of the ground stroke has no difficulty with any other aspect of the game. Eamonn Cregan, among others, appreciates this and if you recall this year's Leinster final (how could anyone forget it) you saw the fruits of his hurling convictions.

Cyril had exceptionally fast players in Anthony Cunningham, Martin Naughton and Joe Cooney in the 80's and was anxious to utilise their speed in opening up defences. Sadly Anthony couldn't strike from his left side, Martin couldn't (or didn't) from his right and Joe at centre forward wasn't able to double on a ball (an essential for any number 11). Pity these weaknesses weren't addressed over the half dozen years of the players' prime. Then, perhaps, more All Irelands would have been won.

One way or another Cyril Farrell left a deep imprint on Galway hurling. He shaped their style, made them proud of their county and gave them many glory days. He has earned an honoured place in Galway hearts. I get a distinct feeling that Cyril Farrell's second coming is imminent. He'll be back.

BALLYDUFF MACRA

The Trip Of A Lifetime

That's right folks Ballyduff Macra had a trip of a lifetime when they recently visited Scotland. The voyage began on Thursday the 13th July when 11 members hit the road. The hiccups began as early as 7 a.m. when the person (no names being mentioned) who had the tickets almost missed the bus to Dublin. Well done Michael.

On Friday the 14th we made an early start and decided to check out Edinburgh. Then after dinner we hit the road again, to visit Perth. As the lads were becoming a bit home sick, we decided to check out Perth Mart, and low and behold there was an auction of Pedigree Simmental Cattle. Then it was off to Aviemore where we checked out some of the Scottish beer.

On Saturday we went canoeing in one of the many lakes in Scotland. Where we nearly got rid of Mag, Trish and Phil when their boat capsized - well, if that wasn't the screaming!

Then it was time to head off up to Elgin where the highland games were held. On Saturday we drove 150 miles from Aivemore to Elgin and all the land between the two towns was owned by one man. On Saturday night we really left our hair down and we went to a Church to raise our spirits. A pub inside an Old Church - well "Holy God" we had to check that out. The name of it was High Spirits. It was some party.

On Sunday we all headed off for church. Then we visited a car museum. Some got the bright idea of going pony trekking and I thought Sunday was a day of rest.

On Monday the end was in sight - we decided we would have to see Nessie so we headed off for Lough Ness. At this stage I better say something about the scenery, it was simply massive. There was mountains and lakes everywhere. Monday evening we hit the outskirts of Glasgow where some of us went swimming and more went shopping.

then we headed back to Preswick as we were flying out at 8.15 a.m. Tuesday. Well it was our last night so we just had one hell of a party. We drove 650 miles in 5 days, had a brilliant time and would recommend Scotland to anyone - only one question remains and that is where are Ballyduff Macra going next year.

Dungarvan Show — Dungarvan show was held on the 29th July. The show team were namely Niall O'Brien, Gardening; Michael O'Donnell, Carpentry; Kevin Condon, Scarecrow; Elish Flynn, Sports; Brendan Hannon, Sports; Martin Kenny, P.R.O. Board; Mary Russell, Car Driving; Denis Drislane, Gents Cookery. The club won for the second year running the Best Macra Club in Waterford 1995 which is every clubs ambition at the start of the year. We also won the gardening section where Niall seems to be the next Gerry Daly. We also won the carpentry section which was to make a garden fence for around the miniature garden. Our sports team were also successful which was a great achievement as Brendan and Elish are new members of the club. Our driver Mary Russell won her section despite all her bad luck changing the wheel. Well done Mary. Our P.R.O. Board was second. The most surprising thing of all was that the Ballyduff Tug-O-War team just walked away with this title. The All-Ireland champions Cappelquin couldn't hold back our lads and lassies. The Tug O War team were namely Michael O'Donnell, Kevin Condon, Brendan Hannon, Elish Flynn, Mary Russell, Denis Drislane, Martin Kenny. Despite all our success we were pipped for the overall show winners. On behalf of the club I would like to congratulate Dungarvan on winning the show.

A.G.M. — The A.G.M. of Ballyduff Macra will take place on Saturday the 19th of August at 9 p.m. All members must attend as it is vital for the forthcoming year. As Chairman of Ballyduff Macra I would like to thank the rest of the officers and all those who assisted me or Ballyduff Macra through the year.

On behalf of Ballyduff Macra our deepest sympathy is extended to the Byrne and Willis family on their recent bereavements.

BALLYDUFF G.A.A. NOTES

The junior footballers have qualified for the quarter final stages of the championship following their 4-10 to 3-7 win over Tallow at Cappoquin on Sunday last. Playing with the wind we led by 2-8 to 0-3 at half time. The goals coming from Ml. Walsh after 16 minutes and Kevin Barry in the 24th minute. Paudie Prendergast, James Scanlon, Ml. Molumphy, Barry and Walsh kicked some great points in that opening period. Tallow piled on the pressure early in the second half and scored 1-2 in the opening six minutes of the half. However, Ml. Molumphy and Scanlon pointed to leave us 2-10 to 1-5 in front with 40 minutes played. Tallow again rallied and scored 2-1 from the 44th to the 52nd minutes to leave them only one point in arrears. In the 53rd minute Paudie Prendergast scored a vital goal following a run out of defence by Tom Feeney to put us four in front. Tallow pointed again before James Scanlon goaled a minute from time to leave us through to the quarter final which will be against Tallow.

Scorers:- M. Walsh 1-3, J. Scanlon 1-2, K. Barry 1-2, P. Prendergast 1-1, M. Molumphy 0-2.

Team — R. Walsh, K. Geary, M. Drislane, T. Scanlon, G. Hickey, T. Feeney, J. Twomey, P. Prendergast, D. Hannon, J. Scanlon, M. Molumphy, H. Molumphy, K. Barry, E. Flynn, M. Walsh. Subs. used — G. Feeney, G. Quirke.

Referee — J. M. Kelly, Shamrocks.

The minor hurlers are through to the B championship quarter final as a result of their easy win over An Gaeltacht on Wednesday night last. They play Naomh Brid (tonight) (Wednesday) in their final league game in Tallow at 7.30 p.m.

The minor footballers will play Dungarvan in the divisional semi final. The U-21 hurlers will open their championship campaign against Dungarvan in Cappoquin next Sunday at 2.00 p.m. The S.H.C. quarter final against Passage will be in Fraher field on Sunday week August 27th at 2.00 p.m. The club extends sincere sympathy to the Byrne and Willis families on their recent bereavements.

IN MEMORIAM

BURKE — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of Gary Burke, late of 18, Silversprings and 15, Fitzgerald Terrace, Dungarvan, whose anniversary occurs on August 16.

Anniversary Mass at 11.30 a.m. on August 20 in the Friary Church.

No farewells were spoken,
No time to say goodbye,
My loss was oh so sudden,
Only God knows why;
Find the softest pillow, Lord,
To rest his head upon,
Put a kiss upon his cheek,
And tell him who it's from.
Gone from me, but leaving memories,
Death can never take away,
Memories that will always linger,
While upon this earth I stay.
(My love always Gary, Ann.)

BURKE — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of Gary Burke, late of 18, Silversprings and 15, Fitzgerald Terrace, Dungarvan, whose anniversary occurs on August 16.

Happy memories last forever,
Of days when we were all together,
Each one of us in our own way,
Have special thoughts of you today.

Quietly today your memory we treasure,
Loving you always, forgetting you never.
Will those who think of him today,

A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Lovingly remembered by his Mam and Dad and all the Burke family.)

A lot in life has altered,
A lot in life is new,
But the things that never alter,
Are memories of you.
It isn't what we write, it isn't what we say,
It's how we feel inside, when we think of you today.

(Lovingly remembered by Billy, Maureen and all the Mulvihill family.)

A heart of gold, a life so true,
Loved and respected by all he knew.
Always willing, helpful and kind,
What beautiful memories he left behind,

JOHN COONEY Curraheen, Aghlish

The nephews, nieces and relatives of the late John Cooney wish to thank most sincerely all those who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; those who sent Mass cards, letters of sympathy, floral tributes and who called personally; those who attended the funeral and burial. A special word of thanks to Fr. Treacy, C.C., Matron and staff of the District Hospital, Dungarvan and to all the kind neighbours and friends who helped in every way.

Trusting this will be accepted by all as a token of appreciation. The holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for their intentions.

KEANE — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of Michael Keane, Mweelahaorna, Ring, Dungarvan, who died August 20, 1993.

It was a sudden parting,
Too bitter to forget,
Those who loved you dearly,

Are the ones who can't forget.
We often sit and think of you,
And think of how you died,
To think you could not say goodbye,

Before you closed your eyes.
Your life was one of kindly deeds,
A helping hand for others needs,
Sincere and true in heart and mind,
Beautiful memories left behind.

The blow was hard, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear,
Our loss is great, we'll not complain,
But trust in God to meet again.

Two tired eyes are sleeping,
Two willing hands are still,
The one who worked so hard for us,
Is resting at God's will.

Our family chain is broken now,
Nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The links shall join again.

(Always remembered by your loving wife Margaret, son Patrick, daughter Mary.)

O'BRIEN — Twenty-third Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Mary O'Brien, late of 11, Congress Villas, Dungarvan, who died on August 17, 1972. R.I.P. Masses offered.

Mam, you were always there when we needed you,
No task too great or small,
With loving hands and loving heart,
For us you did it all.

We speak your name with love and pride,
We smile through tears we cannot hide,
Thank you Mam for the years we shared,
The love you gave and the way you cared.

You often said we would miss you,
Your words they have come true,
We lost the best and dearest Mam,
The day we lost you.

Will those who think of her today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by your loving daughter Bernadette, John, Ann Marie, Jonathan and Shane.)

O'BRIEN — Twenty-third Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Mary O'Brien, late of 11, Congress Villas, Dungarvan, who died on August 17, 1972. R.I.P. Mass offered.

Mam, you were always there when we needed you,
No task too great or small,
With loving hands and a loving heart,
For us you did it all.

We speak your name with love and pride,
We smile through tears we cannot hide,
Thank you Mam for the years we shared,
The love you gave and the way you cared.

You often said we would miss you,
Your words they have come true,
We lost the best and dearest Mam,
The day that we lost you.

So rest in peace dear loved one,
And thanks for all you've done,
We pray that God has given you,
The crown you've truly won.

(So very much missed and loved by your loving daughter Bridget, son-in-law Liam and grandchildren Jason, Marie and Jonathan.)

O'BRIEN — Twenty-third Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Mary O'Brien, late of 11, Congress Villas, Dungarvan, who died on August 17, 1972. R.I.P. Mass offered.

Of all the gifts in life,
However great or small,
To have you as my mother,
Was the greatest gift of all.

For when you lose your mother,
You love with all your heart,
It doesn't only hurt you,
Your world just falls apart.

Will those who think of Mam today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by your loving son, John.)

Your smile was made of sunshine,
Your heart was made of gold,

This world could ever hold.

A mam beyond compare.

I want to tell you something,
Mam,
So there won't be any doubt,

You're so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to be without.
I wish I could see you,
Mam,

Sitting in your chair,
I wish that I could go back home,
And find you waiting there.

It seems like only yesterday,
The wound is still so sore,
For every hour of every day,

I miss you more and more.
They say that hearts don't really break,
Dear Lord that's just not true,
The day you took my Mam from me,

You broke my heart in two.
(Sadly missed by your loving daughter Philomena and son-in-law Micheál.)

I wish that I could see you,
Mam,
Sitting in your chair,
I wish that I could still drop in,

And see you sitting there.
A special smile, a special face,
A special mother by the fireplace,
A laugh, a smile, a joke or two.

That's the way we remember you.
(From your daughter Marion, son-in-law Pat, grandchildren John, Valerie, Deirdre, Mark, Patricia, Angela and Nicola, also great-grandchildren Craig and Aaron.)

As down the road of memories,
We gently tread today,
Our loving thoughts are with you,
As life goes on it way.

Time may heal the heartache,
Like the smile that hides the tears,
But happy memories I keep close,
Despite the passing years.

SCANLON — First Anniversary — Treasured memories of my friend Tom, late of Ballyhane, Cappoquin, who died on August 19, 1984. Masses offered.

The gates of heaven stood open,
One year ago today,
The angels stood there waiting,
For a special person who was on his way.

God called your name so gently,
That only you could hear,
No one heard the footsteps,
Of the angels drawing near.

Many things have happened Tom,
Since you went away,
All the things you would have shared with us,
If God had left you stay.

Tears in our eyes may not glisten,
Our faces may not look sad,
But deep in our hearts there's a longing,
For the wonderful friend we were so lucky to have.

IN MEMORIAM

SCANLON — First Anniversary — In loving memory of Thomas Scanlon, late of Coolhilla, Ballyhane, who died on August 19, 1994.

Anniversary Mass on Saturday, August 19, in Affane Church at 8.15 p.m.

He never thought when leaving home,
He would never more return,
That he in death so soon would sleep,
And leave us here alone.
A sudden call from God on high,
You had no chance to say goodbye,
Without farewell you fell asleep,
But memories of you we will always keep.
And those who loved you dearly,
Are the ones who won't forget.

No farewells were spoken,
We did not say goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
But we will always remember our whole life through,
The last words we had with you.
We never fail to pray for you,
We never cease to care,
We wish we could go home again,
And find you waiting there.
To the throne of Christ he will guide us,
And with us he will stand,
And that golden chain will be linked again,
Locked by Christ's own hands.

(Inserted by your loving parents Catherine and William, brother Richard and sisters Elaine and Maria.)

SCANLON — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear nephew, Tom, late of "Coolhilla," Ballyhane, Cappoquin, who died on August 19, 1994. Rest in peace.

ABBEYSIDE A.F.C. NOTES

LOTTO DRAW

Winning numbers this week 12 - 24 - 28. There was no winner so the jackpot goes to £600 this week. The draw will be at Radleys Bar at 10 p.m. If you're not in you can't win.

JIM EGANS MEDAL

A number of people have volunteered information about the league and it is being collated at the moment. One wag however in O'Connors enquired whether it was a miraculous medal that Jim won.

CONGRATULATIONS

A big vote of congratulations to Ballinacourty senior footballers who qualified for the senior football quarter final on Sunday last.

TRAINING

The field is a hive of activity at the moment as our underage teams have begun preseason training.

U-11—This bunch of lads are being trained by John McGovern on Sunday mornings at 11.30 a.m. and the improvement they have shown over recent weeks is proof positive of the benefits of good coaching.

U-14—Ollie Keohan and Boots Jordan are in the helm here and I was very impressed at the authority and know how of this duo at a recent session. Keep up the good work lads.

U-16—Dwane Cantwell and Philip French are training this team with Dwane taking the physical side. The players have showed a great enthusiasm for the training and already Dwane and Philip are proving a popular and respected pair.

LOST JUMPER

In 1961 Micheal O Faoileain set out with an assorted bunch of townies for the village to participate in a local street league. Donning an immaculate new jumper the young Micheal, his chest swollen with pride made his way with his compatriots into the village towards what was the area of the village known as the 'Dump'. His team he recalls were mainly drawn from the Brigids Ter. area, a brave crew to face the wilds of the village. Micheal had a preference for defence in those days and often used his height to great effect but the main reason on this day for his defensive role was to keep an eye on the brand new "geansai". During the course of the game this new geansai was transformed into one of the goalposts, and the young Micheal was leaving nothing to chance.

However a fracas broke out at the other end of the field and off up ran the young Faoileain. When he returned to his 'post' however it was gone, his beautiful new geansai. It was a disconsolate Micheal who headed over the bridge that day having lost his jumper and the match which the village lads won by a handsome margin.

Micheal is now offering a reward for the return of the jumper. Anyone with information leading to the return of the jumper shall receive the handsome amount of a half crown.

BALLINROAD TOURNAMENT

We bowed out of this tournament against 1st division side Dungarvan on a 3-2 scoreline. What was largely our 4th division side gave a heroic display and in the view of many neutrals were most unlucky not to gain an improbable victory. A list of near misses allied to the concession of soft goals led to our downfall. Still a most encouraging performance with Mark McCarthy playing out of his skin notching 2 great goals.

STUCCO LANE

This is the official name of our pitch but it is little used due to the popularity of the name Dogleaf Park.

"Dogleaf" of course is a colloquialism of "Dock leaf" and this gives reason to the spelling. But what of the word Stucco? Professor Ernest Weekly of the Browne and Nolan Etymological dictionary gives the explanation as 'plaster'. Can anyone throw light on the reason for this?

PUB LEAGUE FINAL

At the time of going to press the pub league has yet to be played on Tuesday 15th August at 7.30 p.m. Full report next week.

RED HOUSE LEAGUE

FIRST DELEGATE MEETING

On this coming Monday night the first delegate meeting takes place in the Red House Pub, Lismore. At the A.G.M. it looked as if the league would lose three clubs and gain three new clubs but we are happy to announce that Affane will be back again in the league.

We would like to make one correction to the Affane notes on last weeks paper and that is to say that the club were notified regarding the leagues A.G.M. That said, we look forward to all clubs attending this delegate meeting on this Monday night where once again we see an increase in clubs for the coming season. Meeting begins at 7 o'clock.

EAST CORK/WEST WATERFORD SCHOOLBOY SOCCER LEAGUES BACK TO THE ACTION

The first delegate meeting takes place at the Red House Bar, Lismore on this Monday night at 8 o'clock. All clubs are to attend this meeting as the start up date for the leagues will be announced at this meeting. While most clubs have their teams entered there are still some clubs yet to enter, please have all details at this meeting for Monday night next.

EAST CORK/WEST WATERFORD SCHOOLBOY ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING REPORT

Huge Increase In Schoolboy Teams

The schoolboy league A.G.M. took place on Wednesday night last at the Red House Bar, Lismore before a good attendance.

BIG INCREASE

This season will see a massive increase in schoolboy teams. Last season twenty teams took part in the league but this will almost be doubled for the coming season. It will place a big burden on the committee and referees for the coming season.

NEW CLUBS

At the moment thirteen clubs will have schoolboy teams this season and this could very well be added to within the next week or so. Some new clubs are putting teams into the league this season namely Castlebridge, Carrig Rangers, Blackwater Rangers and Pinewood Rangers.

The league will spread into new areas this coming season and this is very welcome.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

The league understands that other clubs are interested in putting in teams and if this is so, all applications must be in by Monday August 21st. No club will be allowed in after this date.

PROBLEMS

While the league are delighted to see all the new clubs and extra teams it also brings it's problems. This season the league lost it's chairman who is gone up to junior football and it's secretary who is now living in Cork.

While a new Chairman was elected at the A.G.M. namely Ger Hartnett and a new treasurer, Matt Harper other people were not anxious to go on the committee. Some positions were left vacant at the A.G.M. although some clubs did hope to have people at the next delegate meeting to fill these places in. Hopefully this will be done at the next meeting.

SPONSORSHIP

While the Imokilly People will again sponsor the U-12, U-14 and U-16 leagues for next season new sponsors will have to be found for the U-18 league and the cup competitions. Here however two companies have expressed an interest and before too long it is hoped to have a sponsor announced for these competitions.

Other items discussed were finance, club grounds, insurance, entrance fees and refereeing.

DELEGATE MEETING

The first delegate meeting will take place in The Red House Bar, Lismore on Monday night August 21st at 8 o'clock sharp. Clubs who still wish to enter teams in the league please ring 058-56324 immediately.

NEW SEASON BEGINS

The 1995/96 season kicks-off on this Saturday, August 19. Our Div. 1 side are at home to Johnville on Saturday afternoon at 2.15 p.m. This is their first game in the 1A section and not having seen Johnville play, it would be hard to predict the outcome. This side have played a number of challenge games and a good start is vital for this team if they are to challenge for honours this season.

Our Div. 2B side face a very tough opening game away to Ferrybank also on Saturday, kick-off 4.15 p.m. Thomas Duggan's side have reached the final of the Ballinroad tournament and have a big squad to pick from.

Our under-17 side are away to St. Otteran's also on Saturday at 4.15 p.m. We have a very young under-17 team this year with mostly under-16's and we wish Edwin and J.D.'s team the best of luck.

On Sunday Liam Sandford's side are away to Kilbarry Rangers at 11.30 a.m. This team were promoted to Div. 3B from Div. 4 this year after they won the Div. 4 cup last year.

We expect our Div. 3 side to get off to a winning start. Remember it's three points for a win and three subs are allowed this season.

KILLIAN WALL'S TEAM WINS TOPSEY TOURNAMENT

SPONSORED CYCLE

Our annual sponsored cycle from Cork took place on Saturday last and proved an enjoyable day for all cyclists. We left Cork at 10.30 a.m. with a heavy drizzle making things miserable for all concerned. First stop was the lake outside Middleton for some light refreshments. It also gave a chance for Stan to catch up with the main bunch as he got lost in Carrigtwohill. On to Youghal then for an hour long pit stop and thankfully the rain stopped. The toughest leg of the cycle followed from Youghal to the Marine and thankfully all made it safely to "The Marine". Thanks to Christy O'Neill for his hospitality and an enjoyable afternoon was had by all.

Our thanks to all the cyclists especially the ladies who completed the 50 mile journey. A special word for Tony and P. J. Power for the transport to Cork. Would all card holders please return same as soon as possible to Stan Cummins.

RAILWAY ATHLETIC F.C. NOTES

Railway Well Beaten By M.S.L. Side

TRAMORE ATHLETIC 4 RAILWAY ATHLETIC 1

On Sunday last our 1B side made the long trip to Cork City to play Munster senior league side Tramore Athletic, this was always going to be a very tough game for us as we were short a few regulars.

The game started at a frantic pace with Tramore setting the pattern of fine flowing football. Railway lost centre half Des Foley after fifteen minutes with a bad ankle injury and keeper Glen Arrigan had to retire at half time with a shoulder injury. Tramore took the lead after twenty five minutes with a very scrappy goal. Fifteen minutes later they scored a second when a mix up in defence allowed the Tramore centre forward to shoot home. Just before half time Railway pulled a goal back when a Liam Costin free kick was cleared only as far as John Quann and he blasted on the volley straight into the top right hand corner giving the Tramore keeper absolutely no chance. Half time, Tramore 2 - 1 Railway.

The second half was all Tramore and they added two more goals but try as we might we could not break down a very fit and skillful Tramore outfit.

Team: Glen Arrigan, Stephen Quinn, Greg Reddy, Des Foley, Martin Reddy (Capt.), Gary Morrissey, Conor Prendergast, John Quann, Liam Costin, Eamonn Murphy, Tom Flynn. Res: Tom Mansfield for Des Foley (inj.), Michael Browne for Gary Morrissey, Ciarain Cullinane for Glen Arrigan (inj.) and Paul Ormonde for Liam

FIXTURES

On Saturday next our 1B side are at home to Waterford Glass in the league. This will be a vital game for us as the Glass finished second and we were third in the league last year. Kick off 2.15 p.m.

For the first time ever our club are entering a second team into the 3B league. They are playing their first league game at home on Sunday next against St. Josephs. Kick off 2.15 p.m.

LEBANON BOUND

The club would like to wish Conor Prendergast the very best of luck on his trip to the Lebanon. C.P. will be heading off in early October and will be sorely missed by our 1B side this season. Best of Luck C.P.

ABBEYSIDE SHORE ANGLING CLUB NOTES

The Club held its second juvenile competition on July 31 last at the quay. A total of 11 anglers took part and they returned a total of 8 eels to be weighed-in. Results were as follows (over 10) — 1st, David Tutty; 2nd, Yvonne Cullen; 3rd, Nicola Maher.

Our 7th senior competition was fished on August 7 last this was the Tig An Cheoil Oyster Festival Competition. A total of 13 anglers took part, weather conditions were calm with bright sunshine, which may be the reason for the poor return of fish. Results were as follows — Senior: 1st, Alan Mulcahy; 2nd, Tony Crowe; 3rd, John Wall; 4th, Leo Power.

Ladies — 1st, Bernadette Kirwan; 2nd, Marion Maher.

Juvenile — 1st, David Tutty; 2nd, Mark Crowe.

A special thanks to Frank Cooney (Tig An Cheoil) for kindly sponsoring this competition.

Anglers will be back in action on September 2nd when they will be fishing for the Gold, Silver and Bronze medals which are kindly sponsored by Ann and John McGrath (Gold Coast Golf and Leisure Centre). This year we return to old form by making this a two day competition the 2nd and 3rd of September. The venue is Ballinacourty and the check-in and weigh-in will be on the pier. I'm sure many anglers are eagerly awaiting this competition.

CONGRATULATIONS
Congratulations to our juvenile angler Damien Wall on his fine achievement in winning the gold Medal in the Dungarvan S.A.C. Yoplait Competition.

Also congratulations to John Cronin and Alan Mulcahy, John took first place and Alan came second in the All Ireland Boat Master angler fished in Killybegs. John and Alan will go on to represent Ireland in the World Boat Master Angler which will be fished in the Baltic Sea.

SYMPATHY

DUNGARVAN GOLF CLUB NOTES

Brilliant Sunshine Graces Lady Captain's Prize

Orla Sheehan swept to a magnificent victory in the Lady Captain's Prize, a 36 Hole, 2 day event which concluded on Saturday evening. Winning from the front, with a margin of 8 shots underlined a fantastic personal achievement by Orla, who, earlier in the week, took a runner-up prize (and a cup in handicap) in the President's Prize at Courtoum Golf Club.

In Friday's perfect balmy sunshine, Orla produced a record-breaking 61 nett to lead the field from Kathryn Keighery on 63 and June James on 65, a performance all the more impressive given the difficulty of the pin positions.

Saturday's cross winds and tougher playing conditions caused scores to tumble but, once again Orla returned the best score of the day - 69 nett. She extended her lead, leaving no opportunity for others to close the gap.

Making the presentation of prizes on Saturday night, with a capacity crowd in the clubhouse the Lady Captain, Betty O'Brien, congratulated the many winners, she said the competition was a celebration of women's golf in Dungarvan, a fact borne out by record entry and the number of new golfers coming to the fore. Betty expressed appreciation for the help and co-operation she is receiving during her year of office and went on to compliment the course Management Staff on their tireless work which has resulted in a course of which we can all be proud. There followed music and dancing which brought a very successful event to an enjoyable conclusion.

THE WORLD ATHLETICS CHAMPIONSHIPS 1995

The opening weekend of the fifth World games, being held at the remarkable Vllevi Stadium in Gothenburg, produced a number of major talking points, with brash young Canadian, Donovan Bailey generating huge excitement in whipping away the 100m crown from a less than 100% Linford Christie. The new order starts here. The early exchanges also provided this quiz question: which event saw the same 1-2-3 as in 1993? Keep reading, and we'll tell you a little further on.

KING EDWARDS

Monday, August 7 (Day 3)

Two almighty leaps of faith from devout vicar's son Jonathan Edwards propelled him further than any athlete - or non athlete - has ever travelled before, not once but twice, in a fascinating contest which was decided in the first round. You could associate Edwards with the activities and excesses which have dragged international athletics through the mud in recent years; a man whose strong Christian beliefs prevented him from competing on Sundays earlier in his career (he later decided that it was very appropriate to use his god given talents of the Sabbath), he nearly didn't make it to Gothenburg. First illness (Epstein Barr Disease) and then self-doubt threatened his future in athletics, but a world record triple jump of 17.98 during a fitness test at Salamanca inspired him to greater things. His opening mark today was clearly a world record before it was even measured. And it was measured three times, twice to make sure there was no mistake and the third to make sure it all sank in. 18.16 metres. The smiley face on the scoreboard to confirm a legal jump was a carbon copy of Edwards. The British champion could have stopped there and then. He didn't. His second jump plunged down at 18.29m - sixty feet and a quarter inch. Another new world record for Jonathan Edwards.

What Gwen Torrence, Merlene Ottey and Irina Privalova were doing in the same women's 100m semi-final isn't clear, but after finishing in the order in the semi, they all went on to finish in the exact same order in the final. The usual controversy, meanwhile, was to be seen in the women's 10k walk, with Finland's Sari Essayah being out-run in the race for bronze. Russian Irina Stankia took gold.

GREAT DANE

Tuesday August 8 (Day 4)

When is a Kenyan not a Kenyan? When he's a Dane. Wilson Kipketer felt that he would never be able to command a regular place in the Kenyan team, so when a Copenhagen university offered him an electronics scholarship, he grabbed it with both hands and made himself eligible to run for his new country. None of his former Kenyan team-mates managed to make it to the 800m final ironically enough, and Kipketer glided through to take the gold. Ethiopian Haile Gebresilasie retained his 10000m title in a championship record time of 27:12.94, with Olympic champion Khalid Skah in second, and Joseon Machuka in sixth. When Machuka thumped Gebresilasie as they were crossing the line in the World Student Games 5000m in 1992 an incident which lost Machuka his silver medal - it created a new unfriendly rivalry which will be interesting to follow over the next few years. The Bahamas earned their first ever World Games medals today when Troy Kemp won the men's high jump and Pauline Davis finished second behind France's Marie Jo Pécé in the women's 400m.

And just to tell you briefly the answer to the quiz question earlier, the men's hammer finished in the same order in 1995 as it had in Stuttgart: 1st, A. Abduvaliyev (TJK); 2nd, I. Astapkovich (BLS); 3rd, T. Gecsek (HUN).

MYSTERY MAN TAKES TITLE

Wednesday August 9th (Day 5)

"He's the Jonah Lomu of athletics," said an astonished Roger Black after Michael Johnson destroyed the rest of the field to win the men's 400m title in the second fastest time ever, 43:39 seconds, missing the world record by a tenth of a second. His winning margin of 0.83 seconds over world record holder, Butch Reynolds was the biggest at World or Olympic Games in modern times. Yet, the American is still largely unknown in his own country where in the recent past, stadium announcers have identified him both as Mike Conley and Michael Jackson. Whatever people call him, he is now established as America's top track star. Algeria's Hassiba Boulmerka held off the challenge of Britain's Kelly Holmes to regain the 1500m title which she won in 1991 and then lost in '93. European champion Fernando Ribeiro continued Portugal's excellent championships by winning the women's 10000m as Ireland's Nick Sweeney failed to qualify by 40 centimetres to qualify for the discus final.

LANE PAIN

Thursday August 10th (Day 6)

Gwen Torrence of the United States surged to victory in the women's 200m final to complete a famous sprint double, and then had her second gold medal of the games (and a second Mercedes) snatched away from her when she was disqualified for running outside of her lane. Torrence, who won the 100m title on Monday was giving a live interview to Australian TV when an official bluntly told her that Merlene Ottey was the champion, not the American. Ottey and Russian Irina Privalova both were credited with the same time, 22.12 secs, streets behind Torrence's 21.77. A war of words erupted from there. "It is a cheating... I don't know if she did it on purpose. I heard she did it in the semi-final" stormed Ottey, with Torrence continuing "A person can't enjoy winning that way. I clearly beat them, I know that deep in my heart". One result not in doubt was Sonia O'Sullivan's emphatic victory in her 5000m semi-final. Policing at the front of affairs for the whole of the race, she pounded in front with 200m to go to leave the others trailing in her wake as she raced to a new championship record of 15:13.88 (considering it was only the second 5000m championship race anyway, it wasn't too hard). Meanwhile, Sinead Delahunty came 13th in her heat. Also we had another world record as Inessa Kravets hopped, skipped and jumped to triple jump gold thanks to a 15.50m mark, beating the previous world best by 41 centimeters.

BATTEN DOWN THE HATCHES

Friday August 11th (Day 7)

Kim Batten emerged from out of the shadows to pip fellow American Tonya Buford by one hundredth of a second to win the women's 400m hurdles final in a new world record time of 52.61 seconds beating Sally Gunnell's old time of 53.13 of a second. With the Americans now taking control, all it needed now to confirm it was another amazing burst of speed from Michael Johnson. He duly obliged, taking the 200m crown in 19.79 seconds beating defending champion Frankie Fredricks and the rest into distant oblivion. Fredricks clocked 20.12, well behind the new championship record; and a new games mark of 8:04.16 (dangerously close to the world record) was set as Kenyan Moses Kiptanui won the 3000m steeplechase. Ukrainian Sergey Bubka won his fifth world pole vault title as both Mark Carroll, third in the 5000m semi-final, and Niall Bruton, second in his 1500m semi, made certain of further Irish representation on Sunday with two superb performances.

GOLDEN MOMENTS

Saturday August 12th (Day 8)

Sonia O'Sullivan can now list "5000m World Champion" to her ever growing list of achievements thanks to a perfect race which saw her take gold, breaking her own championship record in the process. A period of 14 minutes, 46.47 seconds passed between the starting gun and the Cobh athlete crossing the finishing line in first place. It was a tight race up until the final 200 metres when O'Sullivan broke away from new 10000 metres champion Fernanda Ribeiro of Portugal to race home in emphatic style. But it almost went horribly wrong for her, when after half a dozen laps, she stumbled over the leg of a dejected long jumper (Koukodimos of Greece being favourite) who had walked out onto the track in the same manner that a hedgehog walks out onto a motorway. Luckily, Sonia kept her rhythm to take Ireland's first World championship gold since Eamonn Coughlan in 1983. Immediately after her popular victory, she celebrated with the official mascot, received congratulations from fans of many nationalities, got hugged by her dad. But what incident do you think many people focused in on? That alleged "snub to her country" where she removed an Irish flag that someone draped on her shoulders. Would you be perfectly happy if someone had placed some very heavy cloth on you after you had run three miles in sweltering heat? Elsewhere, Spain's Martin Fiz won the men's marathon, Cuba's Ivan Pedroso took the long jump and Allen Johnson came from nowhere to earn the 110m hurdles crown.

COMEBACK QUEENS RULE

Sunday August 13th (Day 9)

The final day saw a scintillating final lap from Algerian Noureddine Morceli which earned him his third 1500m title in a row with a speedy 3:33.73; the man's a marvel. Another man successfully defending his position was 5000m champion Ishmail Kirui of Kenya, the 20 year old held off Morocco's Boulami and Sghir and fellow Kenyan Kororia in a bunch finish. The Irish pair of Niall Bruton (1500m) and Mark Carroll (5000m) failed to shine today, but they are names for the future. The women's 800m was won by Cuban Ana Quirot; a great achievement considering how two years ago she received severe burns and lost her baby as a result of a domestic fire at her home. Another comeback queen, Stefka Kostadinova of Bulgaria, earned her first Worlds medal since 1987 in winning the High Jump. So, there ends the fifth World Championships - roll on the Atlanta Olympics!

ATHLETICS BY RACE LEADER

Sean Foley Best In Ballymac'

Ideal weather conditions, a well received course, top class organisation and excellent allround support all combined to make the inaugural Ballymacarbray five miles road race an outstanding success on the recent August Bank Holiday Monday.

Winners in the open event of the Ballymacarbray Road Race which was run on August Bank Holiday Monday after receiving their prizes (l. to r.) — Mark Radley (3rd.), Sean Foley (1st), Pat Heffernan (2nd), Billy Fox (4th), Christy Maher (6th). (Photo: Tom Walsh)

The event, which was staged in aid of the local Primary School Building Fund, packed Ballymac' with juvenile races, a non competitive walk and the five miles race comprising the evening's programme. The juvenile events attracted large entries with Brian Swaby, Ring/Old Parish A.C. and Nicola Moore, Dungarvan A.C. with Ballymac' connections proving to be convincing winners. Swaby won the bronze medal in the recent Irish Juvenile Steeplechase championship in Santry Stadium and Nicola Moore is a runner that much will be heard about in the not too distant future.

Juvenile results to hand are as follows:

Boys Under 10 — 1 David O'Grady, Liam Whelan. Under-12 — 1 William Harty, 2 Simon Wall. Under-14 — 1 Joseph Whelan, 2 Raymond Phelan. Under-16 — 1 Brian Swaby, 2 Brendan Moroney.

THREE MAN DUEL

Following a first mile run in 4 min. 59 secs. the senior five miles race soon developed into a three man duel between the eventual winner Sean Foley (Waterford A.C.), Pat Heffernan (St.

Catherine's A.C. Tipperary) and Mark Radley (West Waterford A.C.). Sean Foley is a traditional slow starter but once he comes through the field there is no stopping him and this again proved to be the case in Ballymac' as he finished very strongly to win in 25 mins. and 44 secs. Pat Heffernan showed he is also running well at present when holding the winner to a six seconds gap while the younger Mark Radley, who led for over three miles, showed that he is a prospect for the future.

CATEGORY WINNERS

Billy Fox (Clonmel A.C.) who has made the Nire run his own over the years, finished fourth with Philip Harty (West Waterford A.C.) once again breaking 27 minutes for the distance with a solid run in fifth position. The first vet over the line was Christy Maher (Comeragh Harriers) in sixth position in 28.17 with his team mate T. J. O'Loughlin winning the over 50 section. Michael Brannigan, Clonmel A.C. was the over 45 winner with John Anthony Phelan winning the award for the first local vet to finish.

The first lady to finish was Ann Cronin from Carrick-on-Suir in 37.29 with Idi

Smith in second place. The junior race was won by Rebecca Harty (West Waterford A.C.) while the hill in the wood proved to be no problem for Gerry Forde (Blarney A.C.) who won the wheelchair section in fine style. The junior mens event was won by Mark Radley with Philip Harty in second position.

The team event gave much hope for the future of athletics in West Waterford area with the youthful team of Mark Radley, Philip and Tony Harty beating the experienced Clonmel squad of Billy Fox, Myles McHugh and Ned O'Brien by ten points.

LOCAL RACE

With Alan Whyte, Francis Connolly and Frank Bolger involved in the race organisation, the local event was wide open and Tom Connolly came through best of all to take the honours. Well done to those who joined in the spirit of the event, including Ignatius Whyte, Paddy 'Tyler' Walsh, Stephen Foley, Michael Carey and Pat Power, who gave good support for their community promoted event. A large number also took part in the non competitive four miles walk which aided the success of the event greatly and many of them were rewarded with spot prizes afterwards.

FINISHING TIMES

The following are the finishing times of the West Waterford runners in Ballymac' — Mark Radley (26.15), Philip Harty (26.42), Tony Harty (29.00), Martin McCarthy (29.45), Michael Murphy (30.34), Mark Harty (30.36), Michael O'Dwyer (30.46), Anthony Harty (31.00), Tony Ryan (31.18), Martin Sandford (31.40), Paul Keating (31.46), Tommy Egan (31.56), Anthony Dwyer (33.05), Seamus Healy (33.06), Noel McGrath (35.18), Tom Fitzgerald (35.31), Stephen Curran (35.32), David Power (37.15), Patrick Lannon (39.33), Rebecca Harty (42.14), Paddy Lannon (49.00).

PRESENTATION OF PRIZES

The presentation of prizes took place in Doocey's Bar where Principal of Ballymacarbray National School thanked everybody who contributed to the success of the event. Special mention was reserved for the race organisers and hopefully the Ballymac' '5' will now become an annual event.

Irish Eyes Are Smiling As Sonia Swoops For Gold In Gothenburg

Ballymore-Cobh Athletic Club's Sonia O'Sullivan carried the flag for Ireland where it really mattered in Gothenburg last Saturday evening when she pedestrianised the field in the 5000 metres final to win the country's second World title since these championships were inaugurated in 1983.

Interestingly, it was another Irish athlete, Eamonn Coughlan who won the first men's 5000 metres final in Helsinki those twelve years ago and now following a flawless display the queen of Cobh town has achieved the same distinction from a female perspective.

Indeed if the 10,000 metres winner from these World championships, Fernanda Ribeiro from Portugal, was not in the race, then the outcome would have been a total cakewalk for O'Sullivan who has achieved so much for Ireland since her World Student Games 1500 metres championship win back in 1991.

In Saturday's final the Kim McDonald managed Sonia displayed a continuing maturity in her running before unleashing a sprinting effort from three hundred metres out to win by over two seconds from Ribeiro in 14 mins. 46 secs., with the surprise runner of the race Aohra Quaziz from Morocco claiming the bronze medal.

Sonia O'Sullivan has a three pronged career ambition. She wants European, World and Olympic success. To-date two of these desires have been achieved and though is a long time in athletics, an injury free Sonia should fulfil her ambitions in the Atlanta Olympics in 1996. Maith a chailín!

BELLRINGER DOES A BONK!

On the first day of the championships, the lap counter mistakenly left the lady marathon runners one lap short. On the last day of these World Championships and in front of millions of tv viewers, the bellringer, who obviously hadn't checked his equipment, saw his bell disintegrate in front of his eyes as the men's 5000 metres final was reaching its thrilling climax.

The word around Dungarvan on Monday morning was that in all the years of athletics at the Friary College that this never happened to the resident lap counter and bell ringer there and that the IAAF would be doing very well if they acquired the services of this local official for the Atlanta Olympic Games in 1996!

Kilrossanty Ladies Football News

U-14 CHAMPIONSHIP

Over the past two weeks the U-14's played their remaining games in this championship. In the 3rd round the girls travelled to Bohadon to play St. Pat's. This was a very competitive game with both teams giving it everything from start to finish. At the interval, just two points separated the sides. However, in the second half Kilrossanty stepped up a gear and kicked some fine scores to leave them 2 goals ahead at the final whistle. This was a good team performance but if these two teams meet again at a later stage in this championship it promises to be a very exciting game and will be a much tougher encounter.

In the 4th and final round we played host to St. Garvan's on Wednesday evening last in Leamybrien. Kilrossanty got off to a whirlwind start and never looked back. However, St. Garvan's did battle away to the final whistle but were well contained by a Kilrossanty team who have improved game after game. This Kilrossanty team have put in a lot of work over the last few weeks under the watchful eye of Johnny Kirwan, but let's hope the whole panel of players will put in the effort and turn out for training from now on.

QUALIFIED FOR THE 'B' COUNTY FINAL

Following our victory over St. Garvan's, we have now qualified for the County final as we have topped the group. There is no definite date for this game yet, as we await the result of the semi-final of 87. Pat's v. B/mae. Best of luck to the girls in the final and lets hope they get your support on the night.

CONGRATULATIONS I.N.T.O. MINI SEVENS

On Sunday 20th August Marie Walsh will have the honour of playing in Croke Park before an attendance of 60,000 people during the All Ireland senior football semi final. And three weeks later Kristina Keating will have the same honours when she plays on All Ireland final day. Both these girls were members of the Kilrossanty N.S. team who won the mini sevens County final and went on to represent their county in the Munster finals. This is a well deserved selection for these girls who have played very well for school and club all year and lets hope it is the first of many appearances in Croke Park. Incidentally, Kristina is also preparing for the U-14 All Ireland final against Monaghan on 26th/27th August.

ALL IRELAND FINAL V. MONAGHAN

A number of players from the club are preparing for the U-14 and U-16 All Ireland finals at present.

The following girls are on the U-14 panel — Tanya Kirwan, Leigh Mulhearn, Roisin Keating and Kristina Keating and on the U-16 panel — Martina McCarthy, Triona Whyte, Martina Walsh and Tanya Kirwan. Good luck to both teams and their mentors in the finals - with both teams playing Monaghan.

Bowling In Cappoquin

B FINAL

Paul Flynn v. Pat Fitzgerald v. Brian Cahill

Cahill was first away with a good shot leaving Fitz ten meters adrift with Flynn just in behind Cahill. The Big Bend was well opened in three by all although Cahill had the advantage. With two more huge shots Cahill reached the "Gully" in five. Fitz was sixty meters adrift in second while Flynn was a further ten. At the "Boiler" in seven, no change in the order with Cahill bowling brilliantly, around the "Rats". In nine Fitz at 90 meters beat Flynn who was a bowl down. Cahill bowled over the "C" line in thirteen, Fitz in fourteenth position and Flynn in fifteenth place. At Ahearns in sixteen Cahill was a bowl and forty meters clear of Fitz and Flynn. By Fentons it was only a matter of who would be second and third. Fitz held on to 2nd.

This was a fine exhibition

Kevin Reddy in action during the tournament of bowling by Cahill and he must now be hot favourite to win the cup.

"C" FINAL

Sunday 13th August

Timmy Fitzgerald v. Christy Keohan v. Benny Cunningham

Good opening shots from all three. Round the first bend in three, Fitz led from Keohan and Cunningham. At the "Gully" Keohan had gone to the front just ahead of Fitz with Cunningham a close third. Fitz reached the "Boiler" in nine, Keohan and Cunningham ten. Brilliant bowling by Fitz saw Keohan and Cunningham a bowl back at the "Boreen". At "Ahearns Cross" Fitz was two bowls up on the other two and it was now down to who would fill second and third place. Keohan with three great shots took the second spot. Cunningham was a close third leaving Fitz into the grand final.

BOWLING FINALS

Sunday August 20th

Ladies Final at 10 a.m.

Breda Fitzgerald v. Ruth Wilkinson v. Mary Ann Allen

The latter will be hot favourite for this contest. She is a very strong bowler who won her heats in great style.

Ruth threw very well to reach this final, beating the hot favourite Orla Coleman in the process. If the throws go straight for her she could take the glory.

Breda won her two scores in style and can produce great shots, as she did in her semi final win. Should she win it, the family could have double champions as her brother Timmy competes in the "Jessie" grand final later in the day.

The Jessie Gallagher Memorial Cup, presented by the Cummins family

"A" Final 3.30 p.m.

"Jessie Gallagher Memorial Cup Grand Final"—Deige Finusa "A", Brian Cahill "B", Timmy Fitzgerald "C" and winner from D group yet to be decided are the finalists.

This promises to be one of the best finals ever. All four are there on merit, having won all their scores with brilliant bowling. Finusa produced some of the best bowling of his career when accounting for Billy Casey and Mick Connors in the "A" final. On that occasion he reached the first bend in two, a feat that has only been achieved a handful of times in the past ten years, and went on to equal the course record. He will be giving shots to the other three, but must be strongly fancied to take the cup.

Brian Cahill is reaching his first major final. He has fantastic speed and a great style and proved in his "B" group final that he can handle the big occasion. On that occasion he produced some breath taking shots. He will have plenty of support, and will be there with every chance in the last few shots.

Jimmy Fitzgerald, an Army man and all round athlete has been bowling a comparatively short time, this his third year, and is now without doubt the best bowler in the "C" group. He produced great bowling in the earlier round when he beat Denis Walsh in the last shot. That score was one of the highlights of the tournament. He again produced it in the "C" final covering the line in twenty two getting three from Finusa and two from Cahill, he must have a great chance in the final.

Social evening to follow at Lawlors Lounge Bar, Cappoquin starting at 8.30 p.m. during which cup trophies will be presented. Music by Colette and Batty. Admission free.

DUBLIN BRANCH NOTES

WOMEN CONTINUE TO SHOW THE WAY

Our women footballers continue to show the men what inter-county success is all about. We congratulate the Under-14's and Under-16's on reaching the All Ireland finals, and the seniors on retaining the Munster title after a marvellous contest against Kerry. We look forward to the day when the national media devotes proper attention to this skillful and popular sport. Meanwhile, the Dublin Branch has made a contribution to the teams' expenses, and looks forward to being able to do so again later in the campaign.

CLARE ALSO SHOW THE WAY

We have been delighted by Clare's hurling breakthrough this year. It has also set us thinking as to what this means for Waterford, especially as we would normally fancy ourselves against the Banner County in all grades of competition. It is vital that those in charge take a very close look at the measures taken by Clare this year, in terms of developing positive thinking and physical fitness, as well as weeding out players who do not have the "bottle" for the big occasion. Meanwhile, we wish the Claremen the best of luck in the final.

ANOTHER WINNER

We had another winner in the July Deise Development Draw, this time Father Jim Mountain of Dungarvan. Congratulations Jim!

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. NOTES

U-16 HURLING

On last Monday night week at the Fraher field before a large attendance we bridged a 13 year gap by winning the West Waterford Under 16 Hurling Championship and thus qualified for the County Final. For the record we won this title in 1964, 1977 and 1982.

Ardmore were our opponents on the night and they came into the final full of confidence after going through the league section unbeaten and drew with us in the earlier rounds. Dungarvan played a grand brand of hurling and never gave Ardmore time to settle with scores coming thick and fast in the first half and led by 2-7 to 1-1 at half time. Ardmore started bravely in the second half and put the Dungarvan backs under pressure but they never wilted and the forwards took their chances and we ended up winners on the score line Dungarvan 5-14 Ardmore 1-6.

COUNTY FINAL

The County Final is fixed for next Saturday August 19th in Kill. Throw in is timed for 3 p.m. and we hope to have a large following on the day. The team will have to be firing on all cylinders if we hope to beat De La Salle who have come out on top in the East after beating Mount Sion in the Eastern final. Two years ago in the under 14 Feile final the same two teams met and Dungarvan won by 1 point so a close game is anticipated on Saturday. Bus will leave from outside C.B.S. at 2 p.m. for the match.

ed on Saturday. Bus will leave from outside C.B.S. at 2 p.m. for the match.

U-21 HURLING

Next Sunday at 2 p.m. we take on Ballyduff in the U-21 hurling championship. This is a once off opportunity and a victory here will see us through to the semi-final to face reigning champions, Lismore. Last year we put in some very good performances and were unlucky to lose the divisional final to Lismore by one point. We last won this title in 1987.

Kilgobinet/Colligan Club Notes

MINOR NOTES

Colligan v. St. Olivers last Friday evening in the Fraher Field, Granted, this was St. Oliver's first match and it started off well. This match is probably amongst the records for Colligan scoreboard 5-18 to 1-6. Kenny Walsh's (capt.) personally tally of 1-10 and D. Ryan's 1-5 were big contributions to the game, but it really was a full team effort that made the game Colligan's. There were great display of skills from the backs and midfield, as well as the fact that all forwards contributed to the scoreboard. This team continues to improve as this 13-a-side championship progresses and I'm sure they are looking forward to their next outing.

KILGOBINET G.A.A. NOTES

J.H. CHAMPIONSHIP

Kilgobinet 1-13, Ballinameela 2-4

The first half of this game was a fast moving affair and our passing and support play was good, which resulted in some beautiful scores. The combination of some very accurate free taking and some well taken scores from play by our skilful forwards saw us lead by seven points at half time.

The second half saw a Ballinameela resurgence, yet their progress was slow because of the strength of our defence. Our goal came when Alan Fitzgerald flicked a lovely ball across the goalmouth which Raymond Lynch rattled to the back of the net.

Overall we gave a spirited display which is sure to inspire us in future games. Our next game in this championship is against Tourin next Sunday at the Cappoquin venue at 3.15 p.m.

Shamrocks G.A.A. Notes

DEFEAT FOR SHAMROCKS

Colligan 2-10 Shamrocks 0-10

We made our exit from this year's intermediate hurling County championship at Cappoquin on last Sunday evening and it was the same story that our forward line failed to take their chances during the hour.

Halfway through the second half we dominated the play when reducing Colligan's lead from 7 points to four and we could have gone ahead if we tried for points instead of going for goals. Full credit to Colligan who took their chances which was the difference between the two teams.

CRUCIAL GAME

On Friday evening of this week we take on Ballinameela at Cappoquin in the fifth round of the intermediate football western championship. This is a game we must win if we want to have any further interest in the championship. We understand that Ballinameela are tipped to win this year so we'll have to be all out to beat them

U-21 NEWS

In the U-21 hurling championship Tallow/Shamrocks play St. Patrick's in the first round. This game will take place at Cappoquin on next Sunday evening. The time appears on the fixture list elsewhere in this issue.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Pdraig Tobin who has been selected to play with Waterford in the Tony Forristal U-14 hurling tournament which will take place at the end of this month.

SYMPATHY

Our club extends deepest sympathy to the widow, daughter and relatives of the late Henry Willis, Shean, Tallow who died last week. Henry was a former club treasurer for the Shamrocks for a number of years. Ar dheis Dé go raibh a anam.

ST. OLIVERS G.A.A. NEWS

Champions For The First Time

ST. OLIVERS 4-5 ABBEYSIDE 1-4

St. Olivers captured their first ever county title in ladies football thanks to a superb display in defeating Abbeyside by ten points in the under-14 'C' decider at the Fraher Field on Thursday night. In the club's fourth year in existence, this was the third county final that they had reached.

It was Abbeyside who had the better start; having had early chances cleared well by Carol Guiry and Emma Donovan, they went on to add the first two scores of the game, both points. The first score for St. Olivers came on 13 minutes, when Lisa Corkery kicked over the bar. And within two minutes, the red and whites were ahead. First, Dianne Pratt hooked the ball into the path of full forward Sarah O'Brien for her to point, and then Cairiona Power was placed to raise the white flag. With St. Olivers leading 3-2, there were no more scores for a further ten minutes until Abbeyside found the net. With seconds remaining in the first half, Sarah O'Brien sent over the final score of the thirty minutes and at the break Abbeyside led by 1-2 to 0-4.

Full credit to the St. Olivers defence of Caroline O'Brien, Karen Landers, Emma Donovan, Carol Guiry, Doireann Corr and Marie O'Donovan for standing firm form there; only two white flags were raised by Abbeyside in the second half. St. Olivers took the lead again five minutes after the restart when Sharon Walsh won possession, ran in towards goal and buried it into the back of the net. From this great boost for the Saints, there was no further scores for 15 minutes. This barren spell ended when Diane Pratt took advantage of a defensive error and walloped home after 50 minutes. Abbeyside added two points onto their score before Cairiona Power finished the match as a contest thanks to two goals in the space of 75 seconds. Sarah O'Brien completed the scoring with a point right on time to make the score at the end St. Olivers 4-5 Abbeyside 1-4.

Because this is a new championship, there was no cup presented, but there were medals given out, with the first one being presented to the St. Olivers captain Sharon Walsh by Munster Council Chairman, Noel Murray, to great celebrations. Afterwards the team went to Mac's Restaurant, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan to celebrate.

A word of well done too for the selectors, Fr. Finbarr Lucy, Aine Davis and Ann Joan O'Brien and to Bridget O'Brien for taking down the scores.

St. Olivers — Helen

Cliffe, Caroline O'Brien, Karen Landers, Emma Donovan, Carol Guiry, Doireann Corr, Marie O'Donovan, Diane Pratt (1-0), Linda Schliebitz, Sharon Walsh (1-0), Donna O'Flaherty, Cairiona Power (2-1), Patricia Fitzgerald, Sarah O'Brien (0-3), Martina Prendergast. Subs used — Lisa Corkery (0-1), Ailish Clancy, Catherine Osborne; Subs. — Clodagh Corr, Jackie Tobin, Olivia Carlton, Lorraine Kennefick, Karen Twohig.

Referee — Declan Whelan (St. Garvans).

MINOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

St. Olivers were beaten by Colligan at the Fraher Field last Friday night by 5-18 to 1-6 and, after playing one match, are now out. This championship has degenerated into farce. It's an absolute disaster which doesn't seem to be of benefit to anyone. The whole thing is now a non event, if Colligan had lost, they would have been knocked out of the championship. Something major must be done and soon.

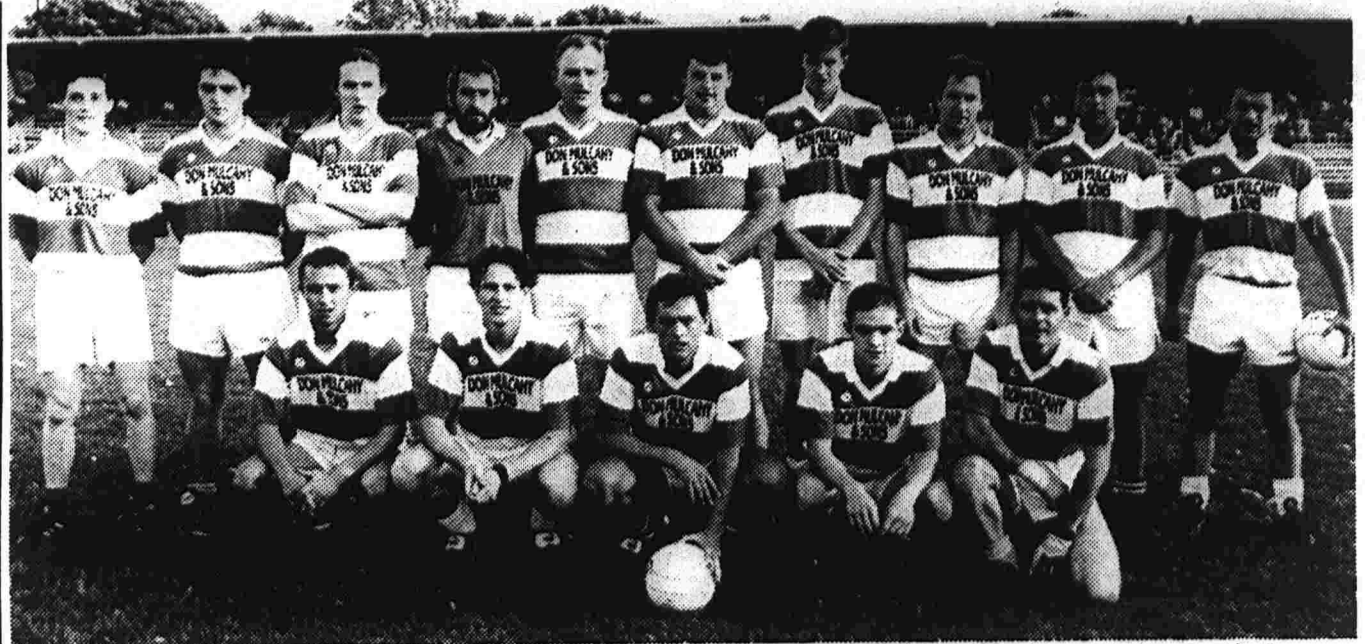

The St. Olivers scorers were — Kevin Cotter (0-4), Caimin Radley (1-0) and Michael Murray (0-2). St. Olivers played Fourmilewater in Colligan in the second (and last) match last Monday night.

THE LEAGUE

St. Olivers drew 1-6 to 1-6 away to Dunhill last Saturday in the ladies football league, a match which came four days after the Saints lost by 6-11 to 3-4 to St. Garvan's in Aglish.

IN FINE JUMPING FORM

Congratulations to Tholm Keane who performed brilliantly in the Dairygold Boomerang Finder Qualifier at the Millstreet Horse Show. Riding "Kereen Comeragh" he won this competition in style.

NAOMH BRID G.A.A. NOTES

CAPPOQUIN 3-8 NAOMH BRID 1-10

Our minor hurlers suffered a four point defeat at the hands of Cappoquin on Wednesday evening last in Colligan. This was a game we left slip through our fingers. This defeat means that if we are to be guaranteed a place in the semi-finals we have to beat Ballyduff in our last game. If we are to qualify there must be a better turn out of players.

At the start of this game we had only thirteen players plus two injured players. We started well with three excellent points from Ian Dunford and were drawing five points each at half time. In the second half Cappoquin proved to be the more determined team and ran out winners by four points. Best for Naomh Brid were Eugene Hickey and Tom Queally.

Team — J. Connors, E. Condon, P. Condon, E. Hickey, T. Queally (0-1), B. Power, P. Fitzgerald (1-3), D. Lonergan (0-1), R. Power, K. Reddy, M. Power, I. Dunford (0-3), D. Dumne. Subs. — M. Cliffe (0-2), P. Denn, D. Meaney.

BUSY WEEK FOR UNDER-10'S

Our under-10's travelled to Leamybrien to play Kilrossanty in a tournament game as part of the Comeragh Festival. Tristan Hickey got us off to a great start with a super goal. Kilrossanty scored two points to leave the half time score at 1-0 to 0-2. "Tayto" hit the net again in the second half but Kilrossanty proved to be the stronger team on the night and ran out winners by 3-3 to 2-0. Our lads got presented with their first medals after the game.

Team — S. Hickey, D. Barker, J. Cummins, J. Cliffe, R. Power, W. Power, E. Condon, S. O'Neill, J. Power, S. Power, T. Fenton, S. Troy, M. Barker, A. Cliffe, T. Hickey (2-0). Subs. — M. Myles, J. Buckley, B. McCarthy, A. Hickey, N. Power, R. Nugent, P. Murphy, P. Coffey.

On Saturday evening last we held our own tournament in Modeligo. Ardmore, Nire, Kilrossanty and ourselves played. The Nire emerged victorious after beating Kilrossanty in the final. We played the Nire in the first round and were only beaten by two points. We were only a point down with minutes to go when a thunderbolt shot from Aidan Cliffe looked like a certain goal came back off the post and the Nire broke up the field and scored a point. The final score was Nire 2-8 Naomh Brid 3-3.

Team — B. McCarthy, M. Barker, J. Cummins, P. Murphy, R. Power, W. Power, E. Condon, J. Power, S. O'Neill (2-1), S. Power, A. Cliffe, S. Troy, D. Barker, T. Hickey (0-1), S. Hickey (1-1). Subs. — S. Hourigan, P. Coffey, J. Buckley, N. Power, R. Nugent, M. Myles, F. Grace, J. Cliffe, M. Dalton.

DEDICATED REFEREEING

The club would like to thank Pat Moore for coming out to referee the final of the under-10 tournament. It is great to see that one of the best referees in the country is so interested in underage games. He is one of the very few people in this county that every youngster looks up to and respects.

UNDER-16 HURLING

The Western under-16 'B' hurling final between Naomh Brid and Stradbally was due to be played in the Fraher Field on Monday evening last. If we were victorious here, the county final is due to be played on Friday evening next. This will probably be played in the Ballyduff Lower G.A.A. Grounds.

ROBBIE RULES SUPREME

The mixed league Div. 2 final proved to be one of the best games of football ever seen in the Touraneena G.A.A. field. Everyone of the sixteen players involved gave it their all and deserved every cheer that they got from the crowd that turned up. Straight from the throw-in, the game produced some nailbiting football. Every kick of the ball was cheered with the result going right down to the last minute when the Cork team, led by Kerrie Cliffe, pulled away and won by three points. The final score was Kerry 3-3 Cork 2-9.

Teams: Cork — Kerrie Cliffe (0-4), Seamus Power (0-5), Robbie Power, Jenny Buckley, Marie Quinlan (1-0), Vincent Kirwan, J. J. Coffey, Finnean Grace (1-0). Kerry — Sean O'Neill (3-2), Julia Walton, Jack Cummins, Deirdre Kiely, Michael Barker (0-1), Brian McCarthy, Amanda McCarthy, Eileen Hickey.

The players would like to thank Mrs. McGrath for presenting the plaques and also David Meaney for doing such a terrific job in refereeing the final.

The players of the tournament were: Girl — Kerrie Cliffe; Boy — Sean O'Neill; runners-up: Girl — Mairead Hickey; Boy — Eddie Condon.

Player of the final — Robbie Power. Youngest Player — Maygin Cliffe. Most Improved Player — Girl: Marie Quinlan; Boy: Michael Barker.

The top ten scorers were — Tristan Hickey (24-5), Sean O'Neill (15-23), Shane Troy (15-7), Seamus Power (7-22), Tomas Fenton (10-11), Jack Power (7-14), Kerrie Cliffe (8-9), Willie Power (6-14), Sharon O'Connor (4-8), Aidan Hickey (6-1).

FINAL APPEAL

Will clubs and other persons who have cards for draw for All Ireland Hurling and Football tickets return with cash immediately as draw takes place Thursday next 17th, at Clonea Strand Hotel at 8.30 p.m. My thanks to all who helped with the draw and especially to Ann Ryan of the Dublin Branch Supporters Club. All are welcome to come along to the draw.

WATERFORD HURLING

Supporters writing to me say that Waterford are not far from that vital breakthrough. We have very good coaching schemes in the schools and the summer camps are a great help.

WEAKNESSES IN WATERFORD HURLING

1, lack of ability to deal with big occasion; 2, lack of discipline, poor striking, lack of confidence and commitment, overplaying the ball, handpassing a disaster, they go on and on. These are hurling basic - it is simple. Waterford was always admired for its skill of ground hurling and ability to take points from far out. Clare have shown how it should be done and with their fitness and power hurling they will take some beating on All Ireland day. Wishing Tony Mansfield and Ollie Wilkinson every good wish for success in 1996. More next week.

Under-16
Hurling
Finals Main Attraction

The under-16 hurling Western finals have held centre stage over the last two weekends. After completing the league schedule over a six week period each of the Divisions produced cracking "down to the wire" encounters.

In Div. 1 Ardmore screamed into the Western final with an unbeaten run, accounting for Abbeyside, Lismore, Fourmilewater and securing draws with Dungarvan and Tallow. Abbeyside went into their final league game versus Dungarvan with both teams needing to win to secure a place in the semi-final.

This proved to be the best game of the championship with Dungarvan coming out winners after a titanic game. Even at that, Abbeyside could have gone into a play-off for the third spot if Ardmore had beaten Tallow in their game played at the same time in Ardmore. This game ended in a draw — that's how close it all was.

The semi-final between Dungarvan and Tallow saw Dungarvan recover their known form to reverse the league result between the same sides with a blistering performance. Dungarvan's return to form seemed to spark from their local derby game with Abbeyside.

In the final Ardmore gave as good as they got and were well in the hunt until a late flourish by Dungarvan sealed a great victory for them. They now go on to represent the West in the county final where they meet De La Salle this Saturday afternoon at Kill.

A truly great Western championship which restored one's faith in under-age hurling.

In Div. 2, Naomh Bríd went straight through to the final with a very impressive run of victories and they are a very smart outfit indeed. The second and third spots fell to Stradbally and Colligan. This semi-final was played on August bank holiday Monday and a whale of a game it was too. The young Stradbally boys were full of dash and had a good championship cut about them. The Colligan boys too had that determined cut about them and both teams played some delightful hurling before the Stradbally lads run out winners to qualify to meet Naomh Bríd in the final.

That final will have been played on Monday of this week. One thing for sure — we are in for a cracker of a game! Naomh Bríd's early form suggests that they are in form, while Stradbally's late run brings them bang on form, so it's down to the wire. The winners will play St. Mary's in the county final at Ballyduff Lower on Friday.

In Div. 3 An Gaeltacht had a very steady run to make their way to the final. They have some very fine hurlers in their outfit. Clashmore and Shamrocks fought out the semi-final in a mighty game. The Knockanore boys justified their semi-final placing and gave a wholehearted performance but they had to give way to a superior Clashmore unit. The Clashmore boys look right on form and with An Gaeltacht hurling well, we are sure to have a great final.

The winners go on to meet Mollerans in the county final at Kill on Saturday afternoon.

Dungarvan Are Western Champions

DUNGARVAN 5-14 ARDMORE 1-6

Dungarvan under-16 hurlers who won the Western Div. "A" Bord na nÓg Championship. They beat Ardmore in the final 5-14 to 1-6. —(Photo: Sean Byrne).

On Monday night of last week Dungarvan's under-16 hurlers captured the Div. 1 Western title with a comprehensive victory over Ardmore. In doing so they broke Lismore's remarkable stranglehold on this particular championship winning twelve titles in a row since 1983.

The good sized attendance found Fraher Field resplendent in the evening sunshine, creating all the ideal conditions for hurling.

Dungarvan, playing with the slight breeze but against the strong sun, were three points up within the first four minutes with Eamonn Morrissey the first, followed by two from Donie Kelleher. After ten minutes Diarmuid Keating cut in from the right wing to score the opening goal of the game and within a minute the same player pointed.

At this stage Dungarvan were dominating throughout the field and an example of this was Bert Ahearne's great long range point on the quarter hour. Almost immediately Ardmore struck back when following indecision and poor clearances allowed Ardmore in for a goal, hit from some distance but expertly placed. Dungarvan's reply was instantaneous and in what was almost a replica of his first goal Diarmuid Keating again found the net followed by a well taken point by Michael Power. The only other reply from Ardmore in the first half was a point seven minutes before the break while Dungarvan through David Morrissey, Bert Ahearne and Diarmuid Keating all found the target, the half time score standing at 2-9 to 1-1 in Dungarvan's favour.

On the restart Ardmore scored a point with Alan

Harty replying for Dungarvan on 32 minutes. Ardmore were determined not to let this game go without putting up a fight and went very close for a goal gaining a sixty five. This was followed by a point. Dungarvan's only reply was Paul Radley's effort at goal and a point from Diarmuid Keating after 40 minutes. Ardmore struck back with two good points within a minute but Dungarvan went into an unassailable lead when Diarmuid Keating put Alan Harty through for a well taken goal. The same player pointed from a free and the result was now inevitable. Dungarvan's scoring was by no means finished and they hit a purple patch in the final five minutes with a goal from James Burke, a point from Diarmuid Keating and a goal and a point from Alan Harty.

For Dungarvan this was essentially a team performance on a par with their displays against Abbeyside and Tallow, and credit must be given to selectors Sean Murphy, Richie Harty and Pat Curran for their work in bringing this squad of players to within one hour of county championship glory. The commitment from the selectors to this panel of players is being rewarded in the game of hurling being played as it should, skillful, fair and a determination to win, but at all times totally disciplined.

Commiserations to Ardmore on this defeat, but on the night they were second best. However they should be congratulated on their determination to play the game of hurling in Div. 1 when it would be an easier option to stay where they were two years ago and it is hoped they will continue to take part at the highest level.

Dungarvan — Paul Ahearne, Alan Harney, Owen Sheridan, John Flynn, Jason O'Mahoney, David Morrissey, Brian Shanahan (capt.), Bert Ahearne, Eamonn Morrissey, Michael Power, James Burke, Paul Radley, Donie Kelleher, Diarmuid Keating, Alan Harty. Subs. — Graham Nagle (used), Derek Truaman (used), Martin Power (used), Michael Fitzgerald, Eoin Mansfield, Seamus Kiersey, Damian Walsh, Gerard Cusack, Michael Cummins.

COUNTY FINAL

The final chapter in this year's campaign moves to Kill on Saturday when De La Salle are Dungarvan's opponents in the county final, with a 3.15 p.m. start. It will take a mighty effort to overcome the city lads. Dungarvan are prepared physically and mentally for the challenge and are good enough to claim the ultimate prize.

U-16 CO. FINALS BEING STAGED THIS WEEKEND

This weekend sees the playing of the U-16 hurling county finals with the champions of East and West meeting to determine the outright winners. Both East and West divisions have had hugely entertaining championships and I understand from Liam Cheasty (East) and Eddie O'Shea (West) that the '95 championship was without doubt the most keenly fought for many years.

County Bord na nOg Chairman Jerry Quinn has been busily putting the final touches to arrangements for the weekend fare. At a full meeting of Bord na nOg officers held on Tuesday, Jerry Quinn acknowledged the tremendous work being done by the divisional boards in regard to the running of the championships.

THE FINALS

Division 1 sees Dungarvan take on De La Salle. Dungarvan have had a very successful Western campaign coming through the stiffest possible task. The Old Boro' boys are of proven quality - county and feile champions two years ago and just now running in to top form again. But they will be cautious of this final De La Salle outfit. And so they might be. It was this same De La Salle team that pushed them to the limit in the Feile final as 14 year olds. The city boys are fast now beginning to realise their true potential - they looked very promising as U-12's. Now they have learned their trade and have come through a very competitive Eastern championship and are worthy divisional champions. A tight one to call - Dungarvan showing their old form, De La Salle coming with a wave of fresh enthusiasm. It should be a mighty final. 3.30 p.m. Saturday, 19th August at Kill.

Division 2 brings together St. Marys and the winners of Stradbally/Naomh Brid Western final which was played on Monday of this week. The St. Marys boys have been very neat and slick in their Eastern campaign. The club has produced some beautiful teams over the years and this latest group will be there or thereabouts at the end of the final.

The Western champions, whoever comes through will be worthy representatives. There is no doubt but that the best two teams are doing battle in the Western final so either Naomh Brid or Stradbally will provide the stiffest of challenges as Western champions. A great final in store.

Ballyduff Lower on Friday evening 18th August at 7.30 p.m.

Division 3 will be played between Eastern champions St. Mollerans and the winners of the Clashmore/An Gaeltacht Western final which is being played on Monday of this week. I haven't seen the Mollerans team in action this year but their results suggest that they are a very useful side. They have run a good score tally and if things go their way in the final then they will take beating. Their opponents, either Clashmore or An Gaeltacht will be well toned and ready for the fray. Both have had a great run in the West and will not be found wanting in the county final.

FIXTURES: County U-16 Hurling Finals — Friday 18th August at Ballyduff Lower at 7.30 p.m.; Division 2 final St. Marys v Naomh Brid/Stradbally; Saturday 19th August at Kill G.A.A. field, 2.00 p.m. division 3, St. Mollerans v Clashmore/An Gaeltacht; 3.30 p.m., division 1 Dungarvan v De La Salle.

Abbeyside Ballinacourty GAA Notes

SENIORS THROUGH

The senior footballers qualified to meet Kilrossanty in the quarter-final of the County senior football championship by virtue of a 2-9 to 0-4 victory over Sliabh gCua in the play-off game on Sunday evening last.

Although we made a poor start, we battled back into the game to take a firm grasp of the proceedings.

The quarter-final has been fixed for Saturday, August 26 and provides our young team with their first taste of knockout championship.

DIVISIONAL FINAL

The junior 'B' footballers travel to Cappoquin on Saturday for the Divisional 'B' final against Melleray. Throw-in 7.30 p.m. This is the first final to be contested by the club this year and all support will be vital.

The Junior 'A' footballers are also likely to be in action against the Geraldines in the final of the second string section over the weekend. Please check the official fixture list for time and details of this game. It should be a difficult assignment as we will be considerably weakened following the promotion of key players Paudie Shields and Gavin Keane to the senior side.

UNDER-AGE NEWS

The minor hurlers play Tallow in the Western semi-final this evening Wednesday, August 16 in Cappoquin. The u-10 and u-12 footballers have been very busy of late. Last week both sides played useful challenges against Ardmore, while this week they play Kilrossanty.

The u-16 footballers first championship action will be against Dungarvan on September 4.

BINGO

The Sports Centre is the place to be on Sunday evening next when the club will hold a big bingo. Pa McGovern and his committee have been extremely busy over the past few weeks, ensuring that everything will be in place on Sunday evening.

The prize money is very attractive and is sure to be a big draw. 8.30 p.m. is the "off" time here.

Ballinacourty Qualify For Senior Football Play-Offs

Ballinacourty 2-9 Sliabh gCua 0-4

This game attracted a good following to Fraher Field on Sunday evening. It was a play-off to decide Kilrossanty's opponents in the semi-final of the senior football championship and also to decide the second team to join St. Saviours in the move up to Division 1 next season.

It turned out to be a most extraordinary game and instead of being the thriller that had been predicted, it was over as a contest well in advance of the final whistle which saw Ballinacourty eleven points clear of their challengers Sliabh gCua who had flattered to deceive in the early stages of the match which saw two players, Declan Kiely and Pat Cunningham receive marching orders from referee Tomás Ó Meachair.

After just 15 minutes Sliabh gCua were in front by 0-4 to nil after both Kieran Hallahan and Aidan Fitzpatrick had both on target with a brace of points apiece. It seemed at this point that the Touraneena side, who had a very large following, would cruise to a decisive victory as Ballinacourty were making no impression on the game. Sliabh gCua were not to score again in the match.

Then in the 16th minute a 20 metre free to Ballinacourty was miskicked by the very accurate Michael Cosgrave and sailed to the roof of the Sliabh gCua net to the astonishment of the defenders. In the following minutes frees awarded to Ballinacourty were converted by Michael Cosgrave to give them a half time lead of 1-2 to 0-4.

SECOND HALF

Eight minutes elapsed before Ballinacourty had their next score and they were a goal clear when Michael Cosgrave pointed from play. A 41st minute penalty gave hope to Sliabh gCua, but amazingly and very unusually, Kieran Hallahan sent the ball inches wide. Michael Enright and Gavin Keane had Ballinacourty points and in the 45th minute Gavin Keane missed what looked like being a certain goal. In the final twelve minutes Ballinacourty added a further 1-4 (all by Michael Cosgrave, whose total contribution was 2-7 of the winners 2-9).

The result delighted Ballinacourty supporters who

Scorers — Ballinacourty — M. Cosgrave 2-7, M. Enright 0-1, G. Keane 0-1; Sliabh gCua — K. Hallahan 0-2, A. Fitzpatrick 0-2.

Ballinacourty — T. Cahill, G. Breen, J. Shields, J. Mulligan, P. Shields, M. Reynolds, J. Moore, J. McGrath, B. Landers, D. Cliffe, M. Collins, M. Enright, M. Cosgrave, P. Cunningham, G. Keane.

Sliabh gCua — V. Lonergan, R. McGrath, J. Hallinan, P. McCarthy, J. Lawlor, D. Kiely, J. McGrath, D. Whelan, T. Condon, T. Queally, K. Hallahan, I. Dunford, A. Fitzpatrick, S. Kerins, J. P. Fitzpatrick. Sub. Tom Condon for J. Lawlor.

Referee: T. Ó Meachair (Ring).

Ardmore G.A.A. Notes

UNDER-16 HURLING FINAL

On an evening when nothing went right for our depleted hurling team we were swamped by a rampant Dungarvan team that on this display seem to be well nigh unbeatable.

Even though we topped the league losing no game on our way to this final the writing was on the wall for us as one injury followed another to reduce our already small panel to a completely unrealistic level.

Then as necessity is the mother of invention we were forced to switch our team around on the night with the playing of the "prince of full backs" Michael Supple at full forward with top scoring forward Ciaran Foley taking over at full back.

Let there be no inquest as we have no dead body here, no indeed this fine team that has brought such honour to our club will certainly be back to once again cover themselves in glory as they have so often done in the past.

James O'Donnell was once again an inspiration in goal. Declan Prendergast played Alan Harty very well. Ciaran Foley in unfamiliar surroundings sealed off the path to goals and scored two inspirational points during his brief period up front. Liam Power and Jamie Hennessy tried their all on the night to contain top class forwards. Austin Flavin had a great championship as had team captain Brian Lenane while wing back Patrick Conway improved with every game. At midfield where Shane Dower's loss was sorely felt, the lion hearted Seamus Prendergast had some great games while his new partner John Conway, a great wing back, adapted well to his new role. At right half forward Wayne Hennessy, despite carrying a hand injury, tried all he knew. Our attack was expertly led by the very competent Cathal Hennessy who had a great year. New-comer Declan Lenane is settling in well in attack. Opportunist Adrian O'Donnell scored a total of five goals in this campaign. Michael Supple a born full back, showed that on his day he could pose problems anywhere while Damian Lenane in the left corner tried real hard. James O'Neill and Richie proved to be match winners also when our needs were greatest. Risteard Power also played his part in the campaign.

Our scorers in the final were Cathal 1-1, Ciaran 0-2, Wayne, Michael and Seamus 0-1 each.

So there it is an unbelievable run in the 'A' championship, topping the table. Who would have thought this possible a few short years ago, but then these lads are exceptional. We congratulate John Hennessy who gave so much time to the lads in training and everyone who helped along the way.

BEREAVEMENTS

It was with a sense of loss that we learned of the recent deaths of a former knight of the whistle Liam Crotty and the very fine Brickey Rangers star of the past Francie Ahearne. May their noble souls rest in peace.

MEMORABLE VICTORY

Local ladies football club St. Colman's captained by our own Mary O'Donnell scored a great county final victory over the very fancied St. Anne's in the under-14 'A' football final.

We congratulate the local girls involved in this memorable victory a very well deserved well done to you all. Mary O'Donnell, Maria Mahony, Noelle Mahony, Michelle Beausang, Lisa Prendergast, Aisling Conway, Aoife O'Brien, Grace O'Brien, Sinead Hickey and Marie Terese Power. This was a real giant hitting act as victory was secured against all the odds and it augurs well for the football futures of these talented players.

UNDER-12

Our under-12 footballers should at this time be present at training sessions if we are serious about entering a team in this competition. A decision will shortly be made in this regard and as we were forced to withdraw from the under-12 hurling competition some time ago it would prove a major disaster were we to follow a similar line in this the lowest age group competition — organised by Bord na nOg. It's now over to you parents and players.

STANDARD BEARERS

This week we salute the players who in an effort to pick our club off the ground, lined out in the junior hurling championship against Kilgobinet recently. It was a worthwhile outing with our club being the real winner here.

The team lined out as follows — Michael Hennessy, John Sullivan, John Power, Patrick Prendergast, Kieran Gleeson, Pat Walsh (capt.), Thomas Power, Maurice Hennessy, Pat Hallahan, Eoin Flavin, Johnny Hennessy, Paul Hallahan, Denis Conway, Vincent Tutty and Declan Barron.

Colligan Win At Cappoquin

Colligan recorded a two goal win over Shamrocks in the final match in their section of the intermediate hurling championships at Cappoquin on Sunday evening. At the end of a very well contested tie, Colligan emerged winners on a 2-10 to 0-10 scoreline. Goals by Benny McGrath in the 5th and 30th minutes helped Colligan to a 2-5 to 0-4 half time lead. The margin flattered as Shamrocks were very unlucky for at least one goal in this half.

Shamrocks were slightly the better team in the second half, adding on six points as against four for Colligan.

Michael Wadding (Roanmore) was referee.

JUNIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Kilrossanty's Hurlers Cruise It

KILROSSANTY 7-12

ARDMORE 2-1

Leading by 3-7 to 1-1 at half time Kilrossanty were well on their way to victory in this one sided game played before a small crowd at Fraher Field on Sunday afternoon.

In the second half Kilrossanty were in complete control and added a further 4-5 to their half time tally while Ardmore managed just a goal in this period.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Geraldines Advance

GERALDINES 5-1

CLASHMORE 1-11

It is very rarely that we come up against a situation where a team records twice as many scores as their opponents and still lose. That was just about what happened to Clashmore last week when their twelve scores were not enough to match the six recorded by Geraldines in the section final play-off of the junior football championships.

Geraldines had the most unusual score of 5-1 while Clashmore had 1-11 in a game that finished on an exciting note at Bushy Park.

Other Results

In junior football, Ballyduff surprised the divisional champions Tallow whom they defeated by 4-10 to 3-7 in their afternoon game in Cappoquin. This result brought Ballyduff level with Tallow on league points.

Clashmore moved up a step closer to the leaders when they beat joint leaders Tourin by three points in a closely contested junior hurling tie at Cappoquin, also on Sunday afternoon.

Promotion and Relegation

With the league section of the championships now completed, the promotion and relegation movement will be as follows—

Senior Football — St. Saviours and Ballinacourty will move up to Division 1 and will be replaced in Div. 2 by Kilmacthomas and Dunhill. Newtown will be back to intermediate and will be replaced by the new intermediate football champions.

Senior Hurling — Ballyduff and Fourmilewater move up and will be replaced by Clonea and Dunhill. Stradbally are going back to the intermediate championship after two years in senior ranks.

Next Weekend

SENIOR FOOTBALL QUARTER FINAL TO BE DECIDED

DIVISIONAL BOARD PROGRAMME TO INCLUDE UNDER 21 HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

By comparison with previous weekends, the number of championship games down to be decided over the coming week, shows a cutback due to a number of circumstances. Not least among the reasons is the fact that Cork and Dublin are due to meet in the All Ireland semi-final of the football championship and in the opinion of the majority of supporters, this game at Croke Park, which is being televised live, is the All Ireland final.

Judging by the extraordinary demand for stand tickets, the attention of the entire county seems to be focused on that game and all other fixtures are being given a back seat.

At the time of writing, I am not certain of the time of the second quarter final of our football championship involving Kilrossanty which is scheduled for Fraher field. I am certain, however that it will not be timed to clash with the Croke Park fixture.

WESTERN BOARD MATCHES

One of the four junior hurling championship games down for decision will not take place as Glen Rovers (Mellary) have pulled out of the hurling championships and this means that Balli-nameela, who were listed to play them, will be free to play football on that weekend.

As Kilrossanty are due to play in the senior football quarter final over the weekend, there must be a doubt about the club playing junior hurling against Geraldines. Our fixtures column should be consulted on this one.

In the double header scheduled for Cappoquin, Ardmore are due to play Modeligo in the opening game, but as both are well out of contention, there will be very little interest in the contest.

The second game at Cappoquin will involve Tourin and Kilgobinet, both of whom are now on ten points and vying for places in the semi-final.

In fact the junior hurling situation after last weekend results has taken an unexpected twist and we now have six teams in contention and all half a dozen separated by only two points, with one or two having a game in hand.

This championship will certainly be played to a very exciting climax and at this point it is anyone's guess as to which two will contest the Western final. Kilgobinet are one of the clubs with a match in hand and that gives them two chances of going ahead of Tourin who have led the field all the way until being beaten by Clashmore at Cappoquin.

This should be a great game and if the time remains unchanged, I know that many followers will miss the Cork/Dublin game on TV to watch this thriller.

J.H.C. KILROSSANTY V GERALDINES

There was a doubt about this going ahead because of the possibility of Kilrossanty being involved in the quarter final against Ballinacourty, but this game is gone back a week and the Comeragh hurlers, who made a very big impression against Ardmore on Sunday last, are free to take on the Western Champions, Geraldines who are tied on ten points at the top of the table with Tourin. The champions are safe as far as qualifying is concerned, but Kilrossanty will need the points from this one to make absolutely certain of getting into the knock-out stages. Geraldines will start favourites. The game is fixed for Fraher field on Saturday evening.

SGT. CUP GAME

Lismore, strong contenders for the senior hurling county title this year, will play Roanmore in the quarter final of the 1995 Cup at Fraher field on this Thursday evening. When they clashed in the championship, Lis-division and St. Saviours played in division 2.

Gaultier got off to a disappointing start when losing by a couple of points to Rathgormack. In the other games in the league section they played two drawn matches with the Nire and Kilrossanty. In their last match they were defeated in the closing stages of their game against Stradbally, but they still managed to qualify for the quarter final but only just.

more just managed to beat Roanmore by 2-13 to 2-1. The winners of this game will play Mount Sion in the semi final. Ballygunner and Passage have qualified for the other semi-final.

GAULTIER V ST. SAVIOURS

This is one of the two quarter final matches that will bring the senior football championships to the semi-final stage. It will be played at Kill on Sunday and is sure to attract a big following from the city.

When they clashed last year St. Saviours defeated the team from Passage East by 2-3 to 0-7. Gaultier however subsequently qualified for the county final only to be narrowly defeated by the Nire.

In the defections from St. Saviours early this season, centre field man Liam Daniels was with St. Saviours. Now he is with Gaultier.

In the league section, the sides were in different groups, Gaultier in the top paign proved was that the defections from the club, which made the headlines at the start of the season, did not have the devastating effect that had been predicted. They now stand on the verge of qualifying for the county semi-final and despite taking on the role of outsiders, they are in the game with a chance.

Tony Corcoran, David Jacobs, Ml. O'Brien, Liam Quilty, Mark Corcoran, Brendan Brophy, Owen Hartley, Jn. Walsh, etc., will be among their strong players striving to get them through to the semi-final.

Game Off

The Western final of the special intermediate hurling championship involving Ring and Shamrocks which was scheduled for Saturday evening last in Cappoquin, was called off by the Board, because Shamrocks were involved in the county intermediate hurling championship against Colligan at Cappoquin. The game will be refixed for the same venue when the teams become available.

ALL IRELAND 'B' FOOTBALL SEMI-FINAL

Brave Display Not Enough

TIPPERARY 0-16 WATERFORD 0-12

Having defeated a spirited Limerick in an extra time marathon in Kilsheelan on Tuesday evening last, Waterford were quietly confident that they could account for Tipperary in the semi final which was fixed for five days later.

Waterford did express disappointment when the game was fixed for Ardfinnan on Sunday evening as they had asked for Clonmel.

On Sunday afternoon a number of the Waterford panel played championship hurling with their clubs and then lined out with the county team — something which showed tremendous spirit on the part of the players concerned, but hardly the best way to approach such an important game.

After 17 minutes the score stood at 0-4 apiece, but after this Tipperary took control and led by 0-10 to 0-4 at half time.

Waterford played far better football in the second half but wasted many good scoring chances. They had five wides in the first ten minutes.

In the final ten minutes Waterford exerted enormous pressure in the hope of getting the goals that would turn the game around in their favour, but Tipperary defended firmly and held out for a four points win and a place in the All Ireland final of the competition.

Scorers: Tipperary — B. Cummins 0-6, J. Corbett 0-

3, F. O'Callaghan 0-2, D. Hogan, P. Lawlor and G. McGuire 0-1 each. Waterford — J. Maher 0-8, L. Daniels 0-2, S. Martin 0-1, J. Power 0-1.

Waterford — T. Brennan, D. McMahon, M. Fitzgerald, B. Whelan, M. O'Brien, E. Cullinane, M. Kiely, S. Bergin, G. Walsh (Stradbally), S. Martin, L. Daniels, J. Power, O. O'Brien, J. Maher, P.P. Ferncombe. Sub. — P. Whelan for E. Cullinane.

The game was featured by an outstanding display from man of the match, Matty Kiely.

Waterford's next outing in football will be in the league against Carlow on October 15th in Carlow.

Under-21 Hurling Championships

An effort is being made to make progress in the under-21 grades and a number of matches in the hurling championships have been fixed for the coming week. For the dates and venues, patrons should consult the official fixtures list.

Three games in each of the 'A' and 'B' Championships are being arranged and if all are proceeded with, progress will have been made in this knockout competition.

In the 'A' Championship Dungarvan will be strongly fancied to defeat Ballyduff and Tallow will be favourites to account for Colligan. The reigning champions, Lismore, take on Fourmilewater and I cannot see the champions losing out here. Abbeyside have a bye.

In the 'B' Championship, Cappoquin are down to play Ardmore and a win for Cappoquin looks to be on here. Stradbally and Naomh Bríd as well as the clash involving Clashmore and St. Olivers will be close. Results will bring the championship to the semi-final stage in both grades.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

Footballers Good Win At Kilsheelan

WATERFORD 1-20
LIMERICK 1-16

New football boss Vinny Kirwan, former Kilrossanty and Mitchel's player enjoyed a very satisfactory start to his term of office when his 21 man selection defeated Limerick after a 98 minute epic in the quarter final of the All Ireland 'B' football competition at Kilsheelan on Tuesday night of last week.

It was a very spirited display by both teams who were very obviously bent on qualifying for the All Ireland semi final against Tipperary and the standard of football, considering that they are both out of the championships was reasonably good.

The game was moved from Clonmel and only a handful of supporters from both counties attended. When the game went into extra time, it was felt that the fitter team would survive. This was what happened.

The match was refereed by Tommy Howard, Kildare (he refereed the four Leinster finals games between Dublin and Meath three years ago). To say that Waterford were displeased with his handling of the match, would be putting it mildly.

Although the new selection committee chairman had very little time to organise a panel of players, there were 21 players at the game, twenty of the panel were played.

Limerick opened with two early points and Waterford had no score on the board until Jim Maher's very well taken 20th minute goal after P. P. Ferncombe's splendid delivery.

Points by Ml. O'Brien,

John Power, Jim Maher and Liam Daniels helped us to a half time lead of 1-4 to 0-4.

The second half saw the sides level on four occasions and they finished level at 1-11 each after 63 minutes of very spirited football. Liam Dalton retired injured during the game.

EXTRA TIME

Limerick went in front with an early point, but P. P. Ferncombe brought the sides level again with a pointed free. At the end of the first period of extra time, the teams were tied at 1-14 apiece.

In the second half of extra time, Waterford added a further six points while Limerick could manage only two to leave the final score at 1-20 to 1-16.

The sides were level on nine occasions. The Waterford score of 20 points was the highest recorded by a Waterford football side while records are being kept. Incidentally the only other occasion on which we were level on nine occasions in a football game, was also against Limerick and that game too went to extra time when we beat them in Clonmel in the McGrath Cup by 1-17 to 1-13 (against it was a 4 point margin) in 1987.

Scorers: Waterford — J. Maher 1-5, P. P. Ferncombe 0-5, M. O'Brien 0-2, L. Daniels 0-2, J. Power, K. Whelan, M. Kiely, S. Bergin, S. Martin and R. Power 0-1 each.

Waterford — T. Brennan, D. Mahon, M. Fitzgerald, B. Whelan, M. O'Brien, M. Kiely, L. Dalton, D. Kiely, L. Daniels, K. Whelan, S. Bergin, P. P. Ferncombe, L. Quilty, J. Maher, J. Power. Subs. used — S. Martin, R. Power, D. Mulhearn, V. Murray, O. Clifford. Ref.—J. Howard, Kildare.

Poc Fada

Waterford's Michael Beresford did very well to come third in the All-Ireland Poc Fada Championship which was fought out on the Cooley Mountains on August Bank Holiday Monday in ideal weather conditions. It was a sensational finish in that only four metres separated the winner Michael Shaughnessy of Galway from the second, Liam Shinnors, Tipperary. Both had 55 pocs which is only 2 pocs short of the record of 53, which was set by Cork's famous goalkeeper Ger Cunningham in 1987.

Michael Beresford was close behind on 57 pocs (which would have won the championship in other years). Clare's All-Ireland goalkeeper David Fitzgerald was fifth, just one poc behind Beresford.

It is noteworthy that almost all of the ten finalists are goalkeepers. There was a huge following present in the overcast conditions which made the going easy for the hurlers. Our heartiest congratulations to the Colligan man on being among the prizewinners and for keeping our flag flying.

Comfortable Victory For Kilgobinet

Kilgobinet 1-14 Ballinameela 2-4

This was an enjoyable junior hurling championship game which improved considerably as a contest in the second half when Ballinameela increased their threat to the favourites. Kilgobinet controlled the first half and raced into a ten points lead before Ballinameela opened their account with a William O'Brien goal in the closing minutes of the half.

Martin Curran, Kevin Walsh and Ray Lynch were the chief scorers for Kilgobinet. A Ray Lynch goal in the 25th minute killed off the Ballinameela challenge as Michael Culloo's 28th minute goal came too late to inspire a Ballinameela resurgence.

Scorers — Kilgobinet —

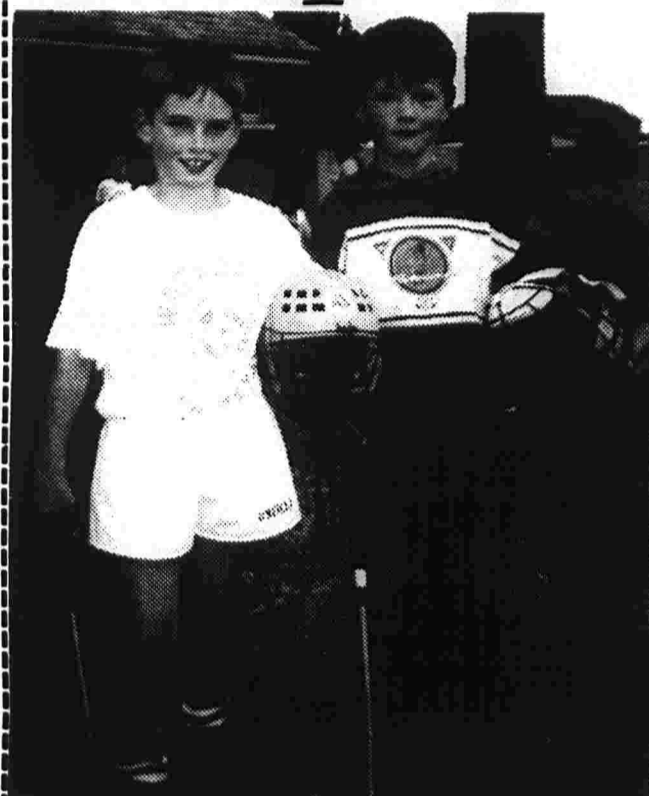

K. Walsh 0-6, R. Lynch 1-2, M. Curran 0-4, J. Walsh and M. Walsh 0-1 each; Ballinameela — W. O'Brien 1-0, M. Culloo 1-1, J. O'Brien, A. Ahearne, D. Glavin, G. O'Brien 0-1 each.

Kilgobinet — M. McCarthy, J. Walsh, P. Hayes, P. Byrne, J. Nugent, S. Byrne, J. Fennell, T. Burke, J. Moore, K. Walsh, M. Curran, J. Walsh, R. Lynch, A. Fitzgerald, M. Walsh. Sub., M. Flynn for A. Fitzgerald.

Ballinameela — J. Maher, P. Barron, J. J. O'Brien, J. Power, T. Power, M. Donnell, M. Walsh, W. O'Brien, A. Ahearne, Jim O'Brien, G. O'Brien, M. Culloo, J. O'Donnell, D. Glavin, W. Buckley.

Referee: Pat Moore, Abbeyside.

Lismore Summer Hurling Camp '95

▲ LISMORE SUMMER CAMP '95 — 8 years old Eamon Nugent and 7 years old Daniel Devine, just two of the 140 boys and girls who attended Lismore '95. Both young lads were well behaved and really enjoyed the camp.

THIS WEEK'S HINT —Ground Stroke: The ground stroke is the most important stroke in hurling. If this is not perfected at a young age, it causes major problems as you grow older.

Kill Hurling Camp — Monday next 21st August.

Intermediate Situation

HURLING

Group A — Abbeyside top the group and Mollerans and Colligan are joint second, each with 5 points.

Group B — St. Marys must meet Kill in the final league game. The winners will top the group and the losers will be placed second, with Cappoquin filling third spot. There will be a draw for the semi-finals with the top team in each section being seeded.

FOOTBALL

Shamrocks, with one final chance of getting back into contention, will take on Ballinameela over the coming weekend. A win for Ballinameela will move them into second place in the table behind Clashmore who top the table with all their matches played.

Shamrocks only win to-date was against Brickeys whom they beat decisively in a fourth round match two weeks ago.

The Knockanore side still have three games to play and would need to win all three to have a chance of getting to the knockout stages.

Meeting Of Our Club PRO's

All club public relations officers have been notified of a meeting in Dungarvan on Tuesday night next to discuss the club input into the forthcoming Year Book which is scheduled for publication in late November.

The book of approximately 120 pages will be the seventh county year book since the late Seamus O Braonain published the first "Deiseach."

Junior Football 'B' Final

Ballinacourty and Melleray are due to clash in the final of the junior football 'B' championship at Cappoquin on Saturday evening. Last year, Melleray were just pipped by Eire Og in a tremendously exciting final at Fraher Field.

Melleray were the holders of that championship having won it in 1993. This is Ballinacourty's first year in this championship.

Incidentally, Ballinacourty's junior 'A' team are scheduled to meet Geraldines in the final of the second string section within the next week or so and should both Ballinacourty teams win the above matches, they will clash in a quarter final of the championship proper.

Dungarvan Man Buys Famous Cork Pub

The famous 'Larry Tompkins' pub at Lower Glanmire Road, Cork has been bought by Dungarvan man Dermot Moore.

The 34 year old new owner hails from a staunch local GAA family and is therefore delighted that the great Cork footballer has given his approval to allow the pub to continue trading under the 'Larry Tompkins' name.

Widely experienced in the vintners trade, Dermot owned two pubs in London between 1986 and 1991 before opening 'Rosie O'Grady's' Irish pub in Moscow.

Located just a stone's throw from the Kremlin, 'Rosie O'Grady's' became the second only Irish owned pub in the entire Russian capital.

Spending two years in Moscow the Dungarvan man disposed of his interest in the Russian pub and returned home to the Decies.

Through GAA links, he became acquainted with famous Cork footballer Larry Tompkins and his eye for lucrative business opportunities soon had him down to the negotiating business.

His first priority, he says, is to build on the considerable local trade the Cork football ace had already garnered for his establishment.

Dermot was generous in his praise of the smooth and cooperative way Tompkins enabled the "deal" to be concluded. "Larry conducted the business transaction in the same exemplary way he performs on the field, and he has given me every encouragement for the future", said Dermot who is now hoping to continue enjoying the support of the many sports fans who frequent the famed establishment. And with the star name of 'Larry Tompkins' over the door, the pub is set to continue as a major sporting haven for GAA and sports enthusiasts of every persuasion.
