Machine Destroyed In Fire At Dungarvan Crystal Plant

A blaze at the Waterford Crystal factory at Springmount, Dungarvan last Thursday morning completely destroyed a glass 'wash' machine, causing serious smoke damage to the wash room area.

The Dungarvan plant was on annual shut down and only fifty employees were present when the fire broke out at around 6.45 a.m. Fortunately no one was injured.

Smoke from the fire was spotted by a security guard who immediately contacted the fire brigade and initiated safety procedures such as the sprinkler system and automatic door shut to keep the fire under control.

It is thought that an electrical fault may have caused the blaze which spread to packaging boxes and paper.

Dungarvan Fire Station were loudly praised for their prompt response and speedy arrival on the scene. Three units from the local station including the hydraulic platform were quickly in control of the fire.

Shortly after the incident,

Deise Day Care Centre Takes Part In Collage Classes

A collage of Dungarvan's Crest is on display in Dungarvan Library, Lower Main Street, Dungarvan. The crest was made by retired ladies who use the Deise Day Care Centre, Dungarvan.

The ladies worked on individual collages with their art teacher Sinead Ni Chionnola over a six week period and the crest was the result of their group project.

The participants were Maureen Fives, Philomena McCarthy, Joan Whelan, Mary Denmead, Mary Tobin, Peg Cliffe, Kit Veale and Yvonne Hayes. This project was devised and funded by the County Waterford Arts Office as part of their Community Art Programme for 1997.

New 77 Acre Industrial Park For Co. Waterford

There was encouraging news on the jobs front last week with the announcement that the IDA are to create a multi million pound high-technology industrial park at Butlerstown on the outskirts of Waterford city.

At a special Waterford County Council meeting held recently in Dungarvan, members unanimously approved a variation of the County Development Plan which rezones 77 acres of agricultural land to 'industrial', thereby enabling the IDA to lodge a planning application with the local authority for the development of the park.

Negotiations have already taken place between the IDA and the landowner and an agreement has been reached on the sale of the land at Butlerstown.

It is the intention of the IDA to develop the 77 acre site into one of the biggest high tech industrial parks in the country, benefitting both the city and the county in terms of enhanced employment prospects.

County Manager Donal Connolly said the development of the proposed high-tech industrial park would be of major advantage to both the city and county.

The land, he indicated, would be serviced by the approach roads network planned for the proposed second river crossing in Waterford city. Mr. Connolly said he was satisfied that a sufficient green belt of agricultural land will remain in the area after the rezoning of the 77 acres.

Proposing the draft variation of the County Development Plan, Cllr. Pat Leahy described the development of the industrial park as an "excellent proposal", which would prove to be a tremendous employment asset, not just to that immediate area, but to the whole of Waterford county and city.

"It is a golden opportunity not to be missed", he stated.

Seconding the proposal was Tramore Councillor Con Casey who said the park would also inter relate with the upgrading of the nearby Waterford RTC to Institute of Technology status, creating exciting employment prospects for many of its graduates.

The next stage on the road to the creation of the major

IDA industrial park will see the proposal going on public display for a period of three months during which time submissions or objections from members of the public can be lodged at County Council headquarters in Arus Brugha, Dungarvan.

If and when this stage is passed, the revised plan will again go before Council members for the passing of the resolution that will sign it into law. All going according to schedule, that should happen before the end of the year.

Council Submits National Road Realignment Plans To Minister

Waterford County Council has initiated the first steps towards the compulsory acquisition of land in connection with proposed major road improvement works on the main Cork-Waterford N25 route near the village of Kilmacthomas.

The Council has sought a Compulsory Purchase Order from the Minister for the Environment that will enable the local authority to acquire varying areas of agricultural land including a small stretch of an abandoned railway line, a disused quarry, a number of entrances to private dwellings, and several stretches of public roadway. The programme also calls for the abandonment of up to seven public rights of way, returning them to agricultural use. If there are objections to that proposal the Minister will then be obliged to hold a public local inquiry before adjudicating on the matter. Any objections in this regard must be lodged with the Minister before September 12th.

The multi-million pound road improvement programme will take several years to complete and will involve the complete realignment of the existing national road from Garranmillon Upper to Parkeena-glogh, through the townlands of Garrahylish, Faha, Currahaba West, Kilmacthomas and Scrahan etc.

A starting date will depend entirely on the speed with which Waterford County Council gets over the various compulsory acquisitions and the various public rights of way extinguishments that are involved. A copy of the order and the maps referred to in it can be seen at the offices of the Co. Council, Arus Brugha, Dungarvan or at the Road Design office, Tramore.

Exciting Programme For Daonscoil In Ring

Daonscoil na Mumhan have an exciting programme for their week long summer school in Ring, Co. Waterford (August 16-23). The main thrust of the week's activities are a selection of major hard hitting lectures on history. The directors of Daonscoil have felt for some time that the terms of reference of — (i) films such as Michael Collins; (ii) the commemoration of the black famine; (iii) the coming bicentennial of the '98 rebellion — have been severely limited by political correctness.

In a year when the famine is more remembered in New York and London than in Ireland, the passing of Daniel O'Connell unremembered, the directors feel that in this changing world there is a need for historical correctness.

Sunday, August 17, 3 p.m. — The Band of the Southern Command is giving a free open air recital in the grounds of Ring College, a large attendance is expected.

Thursday, August 22, 11.30 a.m. — Nollaig O Gadhra, journalist/historian, perhaps Ireland's foremost authority on Michael Collins and the 1922 era will give a definitive lecture on the events of that fateful summer.

Other lectures during the week include:— Can one identify the real truth in history? Northern Ireland for the past 25 years. The 1847 Black Famine. '98 Rising in Wexford (11 a.m. each morning Monday - Friday)

Interspersed with all this activity, an abundance of music, song, dance and crafts are well catered for in the week's programme and even hill walking for the energetic. Plenty of good company is guaranteed at this summer-school, which draws people from many parts of the world and from all parts of Ireland.

The entire week will be held through the medium of Irish in one of the country's smallest but most vibrant Gaeltachts, let this be no deterrent to anyone who feels that they have only 'cupla focal'.

Why Do Penguins Have Small, Stiff Wings?

Most birds use their wings for flying, but penguins use theirs as paddles for swimming. The penguins spend most of their lives on the sea and find their food there. Many birds can swim and fly, but no other bird can swim as well as the penguin. Penguins have bones, muscles and organs very like those of flying birds, so it is assumed that their ancestors must have been able to fly. It is also assumed that they lost the power of flight while learning to swim faster and dive deeper in search of food. All this must have happened millions of years ago because 25,000,000 years ago the penguins were very much like the species, today.

The penguin's feathers are short and grow all over the body leaving no bare spots unprotected from cold air and water. The feathers of the paddle-like wing are small and stiff, with broad flat shafts. On the back edge of the wing are rows of many short feathers with strong shafts. The bones of the wing are flat, thus allowing the wing to be thin and streamlined yet strong enough to push the bird through the water. The shape is very much like that of the flipper of a seal. The penguin paddle is stiffer because some of the bones have grown together, although it is thinner than the wing of a flying bird. The breast muscles are large and powerful like those of another bird, but the muscles in the wings are small.

DUNGARVAN SCOUTS

(11TH WATERFORD)

Annual Camp '97 Was Hugely Successful

Denbigh in North Wales was our destination for camp this year. We attended the 13th Jamboree Cymru International Camp between July 25 and August 3. There was an attendance of over 3,000 people on the Jamboree. They came from different parts of the world such as Denmark, Hungary, Russia, America and, of course, Ireland. The camp was made up into sub camps of four, they were Holywell Sub Camp, Llangollen Sub Camp, Wrexham Sub Camp and finally Overton Sub Camp of which we were a part of. On site we had a bank, post office, shops and McTaff's Cafe, which we frequented a lot.

FIRST FEW DAYS

On arrival on Saturday, July 26 we slept in a big marquee as we arrived on the site at 3 p.m. in the morning. Mind you everyone were still fairly lively especially Ronan Flynn and Stephen Murphy. Saturday was fairly wet so we spent that day setting up camp and getting to know the area. Over the next few days the weather picked up and we were busy taking part in a lot of activities. Some of the activities which we took part in were sailing, dragon boating, archery, canoeing, assault course, swimming and gliding. Jonathan our S.L. was brave enough to do the gliding and in his own words it was "a great experience", but he had to change his shorts afterwards!

The 11th Waterford is well known for taking part in sporting activities. Some of the events that we participated in were soccer and gladiators. Brendan Wright, Derek Murphy, Conor Power, Seamus Hayes, Paudie Power and Wayne Hayes played teams from Wales, England and Hungary and they kept the Irish flag flying high. They went by the name of the "Fighting Irish", by the time camp was over, this was a familiar name on site.

A lot of the lads went on to the international tent to sign up for pen pals. Sean Og Murphy, Stephen Murphy, Paudie Power and Robert Begley were looking for pen pals. One of our lads, I won't mention him (Wayne) was looking for a pen pal in Wales — let us know when you get a reply Wayne!

DAY TRIP

During camp we went on a day trip to Knowlsey Safari Park. We went through the Park in a coach and we were face to face with all different kinds of animals. The best part was when the monkeys climbed on the roof of the coach. The lads got really excited as they were banging the roof and side of the bus. The monkeys got so excited that they pulled off the lights on top of the bus. I don't think the bus driver was impressed.

From there we went on to the city of the Beatles, Liverpool. Here we walked along Liverpool Docks and we also did some shopping. Sean Og bought a puppet while David Walsh was at home browsing around the record shops. The sights in Liverpool were excellent.

DAILY DIDDLY

The Daily Diddly was the daily newspaper which brought us information on activities and any general information on site. If we had any scandal we reported it to the newspaper — but for some reason they would not print some of it.

LEADER ACTIVITIES

Our leaders took part in many activities. We won the international soccer in the Overton Sub Camp. We got a nice plaque for this. We also won the assault course event, which we were surprised at ourselves.

Time was drawing near to the end of camp. The lads made a lot of friends from different countries. One of the main troops that they got on with was a Scottish Troop. We had chillie nights (food not cold), barbecue and ceili nights with them. We even tried haggas!

We left Wales on Saturday, August 2 and we left Holyhead at 3.45 a.m. and we arrived in Dublin at 8 a.m. From here we travelled by Bus Eireann and we arrived in Dungarvan at 2 p.m. knackered but content after a most enjoyable camp.

QUESTIONS

- (1) Why were the 11th Waterford dying their hair green?
  - (2) Did Paul get his hour with you know who?
  - (3) Why was Brendan Wright depressed on the last day of camp. Will he be visiting the 3rd Radcliffe Guides in England next year?
  - (4) Why was Seanie's ear so soar?
  - (5) Majella, how much did those bears cost in Liverpool?
- And finally, Ronan, the answer to your question "are we there now?" is YES.

GET WELL WISHES

Dungarvan Scouts (11th Waterford) would like to send best wishes to Tom Power, former S.L. of the 11th Waterford. We hope to see you out and about soon and back up those mountains again! Bi Ullamh

Co. Enterprise Board Announces Assistance Programme For Autumn

The County Enterprise Board has had a busy year so far with £241,900 allocated in direct grant aid to small enterprise. The immediate creation of 48 full-time jobs is very satisfactory, particularly as it is the result of a relatively low cost per job of just over £5,000. It is also worth noting that this core figure of 48 does not reflect the potential of these small companies to realise further jobs as they become more established.

entrepreneurs is our small business management development programme. This programme is designed to be flexible and is built around one to one consulting. The aim is to work on areas like Profitability, Financial Control, Cash Management, Marketing and Long Term Planning. Essentially to assist companies move to the next stage of development. This programme is run twice a year with the first just drawing to a close for 10 companies.

Quite apart from the assistance given in capital, employment and feasibility grants, over 50 companies have taken advantage of a range of management development programmes which have been run over this period. Having just completed the Compass Marketing Programme - a practical marketing course run one evening a week over an eight week period, Rosemary Walsh of Bonmahon Joinery had this to say -

"the course gave a great insight into the practical side of marketing. The trainer Siobhan O'Dwyer was excellent. Conor Gilligan of Passage East Ferries claims that "the programme was very helpful, going in detail through issues like pricing, distribution and getting the most out of advertising." Conor is now looking forward to taking part in the follow-up programme in the Autumn where Siobhan will work with each company individually to develop and help implement their marketing plans.

A second programme which may be of interest to

The second round of placements to this programme are taking place now for the coming Autumn. The total value to your company is £2,000 with 90% subsidised by the County Enterprise Board.

A third initiative is the Tourism Enterprise Development Programme. The purpose of it is to help people in the industry to assess capital requirements of their business, identify sources of finance, carry out research and planning with professional advice, develop a soundly based market driven business plan and develop the skills needed to set up and sustain a viable business. Participants who successfully completed this programme will qualify for the CERT Certificate in Enterprise Management. The course is also starting in September and is subsidised by the County Enterprise Board.

Other initiatives starting in the Autumn which may be of interest are mentioned briefly here.

Export Development Programme - for companies who want assistance to move into export markets.

Start Your Own Business Programme - for those with ideas, who want to move onto the next step.

Support For Exhibition and Fair Attendance - list of exhibitions taking place internationally is available from the Board (subject to approval).

Business Planning - the Board also assists those with business ideas to develop a thorough business plan.

Service Sector Programme - a step by step programme of finance and marketing skills workshops and one to one counselling for the owners of service businesses.

For details of any of the above, you can contact Gerard Enright or Anike Tyrrell on (058) 44811 at the Waterford County Enterprise Board, Cross Bridge Street, Dungarvan.

SHAWS OPENING DAY -

The Countdown Is On For September 11th!

With just 5 weeks left to the opening of Shaws Dungarvan brand new store the countdown is now on to get everything in order for Opening Day.

Shaws will re-open on Thursday, September 11th with 3 days of celebrations and special offers. There is an air of anticipation in Dungarvan as to the 'look' of the finished store - we might be able to give you a sneak preview in a week or two. Suffice to say that Shaws are quietly confident of a positive reception. The new store will also place much more emphasis on fashion by adding new brands featuring with up-to-the-minute trend setting styles as well as the more classical, timeless look.

The new Shaws store, designed by well known local architect Muiris O Chriostoir, will be almost double the size of its predecessor with a magnificent stairwell centrepiece with natural lighting from above. More about the details soon in these pages.

Meanwhile Shaws continue to trade from the Friary Hall, around the corner from their new premises in Dungarvan and at the moment Back to School is taking up almost all the available floor space. As usual Shaws have the complete range of uniforms for all the county schools in all sizes.

"We don't even have to think about the big move at the moment," John Nee, Shaws Manager told me although he did confide that he's looking forward to having a brand new store to take charge of.

Shaws will remain open at the Friary Hall until Friday, August 29th before transferring to their premises on Main Street - to open on September 11th.

Flights Offer With A Difference From SuperValu For Dungarvan Shoppers

SuperValu supermarkets are giving shoppers in Dungarvan the chance to travel to the holiday destination of their dreams with SuperValu's Fly For Less promotion. The promotion is the better value flights offer with more exotic destinations for SuperValu customers to choose from. The promotion takes place in the 2 SuperValu stores in Dungarvan and in SuperValus all over the country from now until October 19th 1997. With dozens of exciting destinations worldwide, tickets available for one or more travellers and no supplement for weekend travel, SuperValu's Fly For Less promotion is the flights offer with a difference, according to Tessa O'Connell, Marketing Manager, SuperValu.

The SuperValu promotion not only boasts better value flights to Britain, Continental Europe and the U.S.A. but also offers consumers the opportunity to fly further for less this year. The addition of destinations including Bangkok, Singapore, Rio de Janeiro, Dubai, Cape Town and Johannesburg makes Fly For Less the shoppers passport to a more exotic break this summer or winter.

By shopping at SuperValu, consumers have an opportunity to participate in the promotion by collecting tokens. With every £10 spent in a participating store, a customer will receive one token. By collecting just 15 tokens, shoppers can get packing with SuperValu's pricebusting fares and outstanding service from some of the world's leading airlines including Lufthansa, Cityjet, United Airlines, Iberia and Air France.

SuperValu is the largest independent supermarket group in Ireland with 167 owner-operated stores nationwide.

Waterford Allocated Extra £75,000 For Roads

Waterford County Council is to benefit from a grant of £75,000 this year for maintenance work on local county roads. This extra sum, announced last week by the Minister for the Environment, takes into account the length of roads in the Council's area.

The money will have to be spent by the Council on surface dressing, surface restoration or road reconstruction.

Minister Noel Dempsey

commented that the allocation, which will be spent on Class 3 county roads, will come as a relief to rural communities living along relatively isolated roads which would normally be low on the list of priorities for road maintenance.

He added, "I am allocating these grants in an effort to offset the disadvantages suffered by people in these areas and to restore confidence in the Government's firm commitment to upgrade all regional and local roads needing attention in county council areas to a satisfactory condition".

Waterford received one of the lowest allocations with only Wicklow, South Dublin and Louth receiving lower amounts of £50,000 each. Meanwhile, Tipperary South benefited from £114,000, Mayo (£556,000), Kilkenny (£100,000), Cork (£537,000), Tipperary North (£113,000) and Wexford (£125,000).

Flynn Unlucky In Seanad Election Attempt

Waterford was unlucky in the Seanad Eireann elections last week with County Councillor Nora Flynn (FG) failing to secure a seat.

Nora was one of 118 candidates who took time out from her busy schedule in Cappoquin and spent days at a time on the canvas trail on every back road from Wexford to Dublin.

Married to Danny, a local publican and farmer, Nora is the first ever female Vice Chairperson of Waterford County Council. She was nominated by the Irish Vocational Education Association for one of the five Seanad seats on the cultural and educational panel.

Unfortunately, Nora failed to get the necessary number of votes in this her first Seanad attempt but managed to secure a creditable 36,000 of the 989,000 votes cast. Fianna Fáil's Ann Ormonde topped the poll on the first count with 121,000. (Votes are multiplied by 1,000 to avoid using fractions in the final transfer of votes).

Meanwhile, eleven Seanad members have yet to be nominated by the Taoiseach and hope still remains that representatives from Co. Waterford, such as County Councillor Ollie Wilkinson, will be included on the list. The PDs have been promised four of Mr. Ahern's 11 nominees.

Late Mr. Patrick Guidera

Profound and sincere feelings of regret were widely expressed at the news of the death of Mr. Patrick (Paddy) Guidera, Loughtally, Clonmel and late Ballindoney Cross, Grange, which sad event took place at his residence on Saturday, August 2nd after an illness of some duration.

Deceased, a member of an old and respected South Tipperary family, was brother of Mrs. Kitty O'Sullivan, Bawnfaun, Kilmanahan. He was for many years in the employment of the Quinlan family of Kilmanahan. During that time he was an outstanding Gael and played some memorable games with the now defunct Comeragh Rangers. He was a man of outstanding qualities who possessed a wonderful warm personality and made friends with ease. A wonderful neighbour, abounding in Christian charity he made an immediate and lasting impression by virtue of his courteous and easy going nature which endeared him to all who were indeed privileged to know and respect him and will deeply and justifiably mourn his demise and long cherish his memory.

That his memory will be cherished was truly indicated on Sunday evening when all walks of life were represented in the large concourse of mourners who were present when his remains were removed from Condon's Funeral Parlour, Clonmel to Saint Mary's Parish Church, Irish-town, Clonmel. On Monday morning, the Feast of Saint Dominic, Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his gentle soul. After Mass the funeral took place to Saint Nicholas Cemetery, Grange, where on a wet August day a great friend of the people was laid to rest, in the presence of another large concourse of mourners who were present to pay their final respects to a Christian friend whose memory they will cherish.

To his family, his brother and sisters and his many relatives we extend our sympathy. Deiseach a bhui le Dia. (Undertakers Condon's, Clonmel.)

Late Mr. Denis Walsh

It is with deep and sincere regret we pen the death of Mr. Denis Walsh, Loughryan, Grange, which sad event took place at Saint Theresa's Hospital, Clogheen on Sunday, August 3.

Deceased, who had reached a ripe old age, was a member of an old and respected South Tipperary family. He was a very estimable gentleman of many charming traits of character. His gentle, good humoured and obliging nature, mild manner and unassuming disposition, commended him to all fortunate enough to make his acquaintance. He was a man who possessed a most charitable outlook on life.

A wonderful neighbour he was always ready to lend a helping hand as required and he is deeply and justifiably mourned by his family, neighbours and his many friends. Many tributes have been paid to him but perhaps the finest tribute was paid to him on Monday by the large concourse of mourners who were present when his remains were removed from the hospital mortuary St. Theresa's, Clogheen to Saint Nicholas Parish Church, Grange.

On Tuesday morning, the Feast of the Dedication of Saint Mary Adnives, Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul. After Mass on a bleak and wet August day, he was laid to rest in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery, against in the presence of a large concourse of mourners who came to pay their respects to a Christian friend whose memory their will cherish.

To his son, daughter and sister and his many other relatives we extend our sympathy.

Go dtugadh Dia solas na bhflaitheas da anam.

Late Mr. Ciaran Kelly

It is with deep and sincere regret we pen the death of Mr. Ciaran Kelly, Cool-Na-Horna, Carrick-on-Suir which sad event took place at his residence on Sunday, August 3.

Deceased was a member of an old and respected family. A kind and thoughtful neighbour his integrity, courtesy and outgoing sincere nature commended him to young and old alike. He was a true gentleman in every sense of the word and a host of friends who appreciated his company, advice or assistance in any way grieve for his passing.

The respect and high regard in which deceased and his family are held over a wide area was evidenced on Wednesday evening when a large concourse of mourners were present when his remains were removed from his residence to S.S. Cuain and Brogain Parish Church, Clonea-Power. On Thursday morning the Feast of Saint Cajetan, Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul. After Mass he was laid to rest in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery, again in the presence of another large concourse of mourners who were present to pay their final respects to a Christian friend.

To his sons and daughters and his other relations we extend our sympathy. Solas na soilse da na anam. (Undertakers Joe Walsh, Carrick-on-Suir.)

SECURITY GRANTS FOR THE ELDERLY

The elderly are to receive home security grants as part of a revamped community support scheme. The Government are planning a sweeping root-and-branch review of the year - old programme. Since the beginning of '97, the scheme has struggled to stay within its existing £2 million budget after grant applications from senior citizens hit record levels. A massive number of applications was received to finance the installation of window locks, door chains, security lights and community watch alarm systems. This could be attributed to the increased number of attacks against the elderly.

The Minister for Social Welfare, Dermot Ahearn, insisted the community support for older people project had "been very effective in getting assistance to the most vulnerable older people in a cost effective and streamlined way." The Minister says that a far reaching overhaul was over due. The investigation, jointly co-ordinated by Minister Ahearn and Junior Minister Moffat, will consult the special advisory committee set up last year to advise the Government on the administration of the scheme. Neighbourhood Watch, Muinir Na Tire, Community Alert and the Gardaí are all represented on the group. There is no doubt that the scheme has been very effective in getting assistance to the most vulnerable older people in a cost-effective and streamlined fashion. This allocation will provide the necessary resources to meet the volume of worthwhile applications received, the Minister added.

Cappoquin Notes

CAPPOQUIN MACRA NA FEIRME NOTES

Dungarvan Show Success — The past few weeks have been extremely busy for the club with Dungarvan Show, Miss Macra and Ideal Bachelor.

On Thursday, July 31st, the club had a strong team competing in Dungarvan Show. The team included James Meagher (gents cookery), Eoin Collender (woodchopper challenge), Pat Walsh (recycling competition), John O'Donnell (carpentry), Pat Hennessy (garden), Mary Cliffe (lady driver), Helen Noonan (P.R.O. board) and Eamonn McGrath and Eddie Byrne (sports).

Each member did the club proud as was found out at the Show Dance which was held in Clonea Hotel on Thursday night. The club had wins in the sports, woodchopper challenge and P.R.O. board section. We came second in the recycling competition and tug-of-war and third in the gents cookery. With all of these prizes under our belt, the best was yet to come when it was announced that the club had won Club of the Show. It is 10 years since the club won this title so there was some great celebrating at the disco which followed. Great credit is due to all the members for their hard work. Well done also to Annette Cliffe who helped Helen prepare the P.R.O. Board and to Anita Meagher who stood in for Helen Noonan in the tug-o-war. This party mood was to be the beginning of a hectic week for the club.

Miss Macra — As the club were celebrating their win at the Show, Anita Meagher was heading to Thurles to represent the county in the International Miss Macra. Most of the club attended both Saturday and Sunday nights entertainment. Both cabaret and banquet were excellent with both club and Anita still recovering. Many of the club agree that it was one of the most enjoyable weekends ever within the club. As tired and weary as we all were our fun was not to stop here as last weekend we made a much longer journey to Castlepollard, Co. Westmeath for the Ideal Bachelor Festival.

Ideal Bachelor — Tom Cliffe was Waterford's representative for this competition which proved to be another thoroughly enjoyable weekend with plenty of sports, discos and sing songs.

Next Weekend — Word has it that the club intend to stay at home this weekend!! The venue is Ballysaggart for their annual field evening which the club will compete in.

Basketball Training — Now that the basketball team is more or less after their holiday breaks, it's time for serious training. This training will begin on Tuesday night at 9 p.m. and will continue for a number of weeks in Lismore Hall.

BLACKWATER HOUSE GOLF SOCIETY NOTES

All of our Society members will be notified about our next outing. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all our members for their support all year.

AFFANE/CAPPOQUIN G.A.A. CLUB NOTES

Under-16 Hurling
Cappoquin 1-7
Ardmore 0-9.

It was heart stopping stuff in Ardmore last Friday evening when our under-16 hurlers scored a narrow win over the homeside. This victory has clinched us a Western Final place. Well done to the entire team who really pulled out all the stops in the closing stages to grab victory. Late scores by Michael Scanton and Shane Coughlan put us on our way but some terrific saves from Dick O'Rourke were also deciding factors. Besides the above, Stephen Morrissey, Stephen Landers and Kevin Looby, Brian Coughlan, Kevin Foley and Richard Scanton were particularly outstanding.

Team: D. O'Rourke, P. Coffey, S. Landers, K. Looby, B. Scanton, S. Coughlan, S. Morrissey, B. Coughlan, K. Foley, P. Scanton, M. Scanton, M. Fraher, L. McLoughlin, J. Dalton, B. Scanton (Affane).

County Duty — Congratulations to Kevin Looby and Brendan Scanton who were involved with the county under-14 hurlers last weekend. Well done lads.

Sympathy — The club wishes to extend sincere sympathy to clubman John Mansfield on the death of his brother Martin Mansfield, Dungarvan who passed away at lunchtime on Saturday at Waterford Regional Hospital. The burial took place in Ballinameela on Monday morning. May he rest in peace.

Lotto — There was no winner of this week's £600 jackpot. The 3 consolation prizes of £10 each went to Jason Fleming, Shanbally; J. Mansfield, Cappagh; H. McGrath, Dromroe. Next week's draw will be held in Fawly's Bar at 9 p.m. sharp. All are welcome.

R. RYAN BOWLING TOURNAMENT

The final of the C grade was played on Saturday evening and it was James "Gossi" Mason who came home alone. It was quite an even score up to 5 shots to go but Mason found extra and went almost 2 shots clear and 3 shots to go. However Mason's last 3 shots were very poor. Perhaps he lost his concentration due to the fact the handicapper was now making notes. 27 shots was the official time.

AFFANE SUMMER BRIDGE RESULTS - AUGUST 4

AT THE SPORTSFIELD

Junior Football B Championship Kilrossanty B 2-7 Melleray 1-2

On Friday evening Kilrossanty B played Melleray in the Junior Football B Championship. Kilrossanty started well with points from T. Flynn and P. Walsh. T. Duggan opened the Melleray account and after 10 mins. Duggan again did all the spade work, setting up a goal for David Kiely. Amazingly Melleray would not score again for 40 mins. With 13 mins. gone J. Boland goaled to give the Comeragh men a 1 pt. lead again. This was the final score of the first half, the remaining 17 mins. saw some of the worst shooting seen at the Sportsfield for many a day. To be honest if Melleray scored a quarter of what they missed, the game would have been over at half-time. Kilrossanty, to be fair, were not exactly innocent either. They also shot some unbelievable wides although their star full-forward, Pa Walsh brought a great save out of Melleray 'keeper, Niall Maher. The half-time score was Kilrossanty 1-2 Melleray 1-1.

After the restart B. White pointed, Pa Walsh goaled after a tumble by the Melleray 'keeper just simply fisting the ball to the net. Walsh added 2 more points and with 15 mins. left, they led by 7 pts. All this time Melleray continued their wides shooting spree. P. Barry pointed to extend their lead and then the excellent J. Kett scored a point for Melleray. Fittingly the final point of the game came from the trusty boot of Pa Walsh. The final score was Kilrossanty 2-7 Melleray 1-2.

Kilrossanty had some fine performers. The high fielding of P. Keating at full-back was a joy to watch, also Pa Walsh at full-forward scoring 1-4. Both these seasoned campaigners, one slightly over the half century the other just under, have done it all and deserve great credit for still toting out for Kilrossanty. N. Hayes was excellent at centre-back and J. Boland at centre-forward.

For Melleray E. Byrnes when switched to corner-back also J. Power, P. Hallissey, D. Kiely, J. Kett and P. Hennessey.

Kilrossanty: R. Whelan, D. Whelan, P. Keating, G. Foley, K. Casey, N. Hayes, K. Hogan, J. Power, P. Prendergast, R. Cotter, J. Boland (1-0), P. Cotter, B. White (0-1), P. Walsh (1-4), T. Flynn (0-1). Subs: P. Barry (0-1) for R. Cotter, P. Lennon for K. Casey and S. McGuire for P. White.

Melleray: N. Maher, S. O'Donnell, J. Nugent, T. Murphy, J. Power, G. Power, P. Hennessey, J. Kett (0-1), T. O'Donnell, A. Power, K. Curran, E. Byrnes, D. Kiely (1-0), T. Duggan (0-1). Subs: M. Murphy for S. Donnell, M. Gorman for D. Kiely (inj.).

Referee: E. Cunningham (Tallow).

Verdict — While defeat was Melleray's lot, the scoreline does no justice to them and with any luck should have won. This grade was designed for small clubs and now three of the four teams left are all third string teams. A Melleray mentor pointed this fact out to me and he was suggesting that maybe for 1998 all third string sides would play a league among themselves but he did agree that they could have won but kicked it away. Kilrossanty march on to the semi-final and to be honest will be very difficult to beat. They defended well when it mattered and scored with limited supply to their forwards. Another plus for Kilrossanty. They had a large number of young subs, the three introduced all played well and I fancy them to win this championship.

Intermediate Football Championship Geraldines 0-6 Modeligo 1-16

On Sunday night Geraldines and Modeligo clashed in the Intermediate Football Championship.

Modeligo, the 1996 Junior football champions, started in a blaze and totally over-ran the Geraldines with some fine flowing football. Their forwards were on song and, with some wonderful shooting, led at half-time 0-9 to 0-2.

While the Geraldines rallied after the restart, the accuracy of Modeligo killed off any chance of a comeback. By the time the big Ed blasted home a late goal, it sealed an overall excellent performance from Modeligo. The final score was Modeligo 1-16 Geraldines 0-6.

Modeligo were excellent overall, in particular the Fitzgerald brothers, D. Morrissey, J. P. Ryan, B. Barron and scarred from a thousand battles N. Donovan.

For the Geraldines K. Cotter, P. Donovan and M. Ware played well.

Verdict — Modeligo will be delighted with their performance. They scored at will with the majority of their points coming from open play. While the Geraldines interest in football would be minimal, Modeligo looked fitter, stronger and played with the determination required for championship fare. It is difficult to say how much further Modeligo will go but playing on this form, they will prove a real difficult nut to crack for all challengers in the Intermediate Football Championship.

MELLERAY LADIES CLUB

The club were delighted with the success of the Festival Weekend held in Melleray recently. One of the highlights was the selection of a Melleray Queen. The night was organised in conjunction with the G.A.A. Club. There was a full house for this and we would like to thank everyone for their support. A total of 16 beautiful roses took part and all of them performed very well. They were interviewed privately by Nicola Beresford and Timmy Ryan of W.L.R. FM who acted as judges on the night. Meanwhile, the night got underway with music on stage by Pat Tobin. The success of the night is due in no small way to Tony Coffey of "Bachelors In Trouble". Tony interviewed the girls on stage. And so the Melleray Queen 1997 was finally announced — Carol O'Keeffe from Clashmore. Carol works as a fitness instructor in a gym and even gave a demonstration on a willing volunteer.

Nicola and Timmy presented each girl with a single red rose on stage and the winning rose received a perpetual trophy and a piece of Waterford Crystal, as well as a bouquet of flowers and sash. The trophy was sponsored by the Cats Bar and the Waterford Crystal by Pat and Kathleen Mangán.

Carol is a popular choice and was escorted to the opening of the Sports Day on Sunday by pony and trap owned by Jim and Mary Hennessy of Salterbridge. She was also on hand at the dance held in the Cats Lounge on Sunday night.

The club would like to thank everyone who helped to make the night a success, the sponsors, the judges Nicola Beresford and Timmy Ryan, Tony Coffey and last but not least the girls themselves without whom the night would not have taken place. We wish Carol the best during her reign as Melleray Queen and look forward to supporting her in her bid for the Waterford Rose next year.

Beauty Wants To Be Left Alone

IT'S a delicate beauty that doesn't like to be messed with.

Despite its vigorous and healthy appearance, the peony is a sulky plant that hates to be disturbed.

The trouble is they do outgrow their spot in the garden — and September is the month to move them.

But if you have a peony you feel should be shifted, do so at your peril.

At best it may take a couple of years before it flowers again. At worst you can say farewell to those glorious blooms forever.

If you have to move a peony, hoe a couple of good handfuls of bone meal into the square metre of topsoil around them.

When spring comes give the plant a mulch of well-rotted manure, watering in dry spells.

The peony may be slow to recover but it is believed to have excellent healing powers for human ailments and is used in Chinese medicine.

Most peonies are herbaceous perennials apart from four species (including P. delavayi pictured) which grow into woody shrubs up to six feet high.

The plant was first discovered in China but was only brought under cultivation in Europe at the start of this century.

Most peonies grow well in sheltered spots, shaded from early morning sun. The site should be well-prepared with manure — and once planted, the peony will thank you for leaving it undisturbed for 20 years or more.

TREE Peony: P. delavayi grows to six foot and is one of the hardiest of the rich and colourful species.

THIS WEEK IN THE GARDEN

PRUNE HYDRANGEAS
Most hydrangeas will have finished flowering and will benefit from a little pruning. Cut off each faded flower truss as far back as the first plump looking growth bud and remove any thin, weakly looking stems. Of course, if some of the branches are still producing good blooms leave these unpruned.

LIFT SPRING SOWN ONIONS
Onions sown in January under glass and March outdoors should have completed their growth, and there is no point in leaving them in the ground any longer. Lift them carefully with a fork and spread them out on the surface to dry. After a few days shake any soil from the bulbs and store them, either on shelves or in shallow boxes in a dry, frost proof shed or room — or strung together in ropes.

SOW ONIONS
This is the time to sow onions, both for use as small salad-ing in the spring and to provide early bulbs before the spring sown crop. Select a fairly sheltered place and ground that has been well cultivated, but not recently manured.

LIFT SECOND EARLY POTATOES AS REQUIRED
When you come to the end of the first early potatoes make a start on the second early or mid-season varieties, but only lift a few roots at a time as you need them.

THIN VEGETABLE SEEDLINGS
Thin out seedlings of lettuce, spinach and other sowings made in July.

FEED AND TRAIN TOMATOES
As soon as outdoor plants have made four trusses of flowers, stop them from growing by pinching out the tips of the main stems.

EARTH-UP MAINCROP CELERY
It is time to begin to earth up the maincrop celery. The process is exactly as for early celery except with these bigger plants more soil will be required. Draw the stems together with raffia or string before starting, so you have both hands free to work soil around the plants.

er capable of finishing off the moves. Memories of last season and why Waterford are still in Division 1.

The big surprise was the news that Waterford's outstanding defender last season has signed for Kilkenny. Without a doubt he was the Blue's best defender last year and as was said on the local radio, was a "cult figure" in Waterford. But then Tommy Lynch's decisions definitely do not make it easy for this writer to understand as last season proved.

Waterford Utd.: M. Devine, J. Harkey, D. Jordan, A. Barry, T. Lynch, P. Heffernan, M. Keane, C. Delahunty, J. Frost, G. Conway, P. Sinnott.

Kilkenny City: A. Stephenson, C. Maher, B. Barry, D. Breen, M. Reed, A. Kelly, R. Walsh, B. Arrigan, P. Keane, P. McCarthy, D. Walsh.

Referee: Dick O'Halloran. Linesmen: M. O'Neill and N. O'Donovan.

At a reception for both teams later in the Red House, Laura Roche, Chairperson Lismore Community Festival thanked both teams and officials and Michael O'Leary, Red House for sponsoring the game.

Alfie Hale and Tommy Lynch both replied and promised to bring their sides back again next season.

Red House League Confined Draw — Tickets are on sale for the Red House League Confined Draw. The first draw will take place on September 27th. Tickets can be purchased from Joe Tobin or Dave Landers.

Happy Retirement — The club would like to take this opportunity to wish Liam Fraser a happy retirement for a few months from the underage committee.

At the underage A.G.M. last week, Liam did not seek re-election due to business commitments. Liam's work at schoolboy level is unparalleled and hopefully he will be back next season with his batteries recharged. The good news is he is still in the committee of the Red House League and working very diligently to making the draw a success for all the clubs. Individuals like Liam are few and we know the love of football will always be with him and his beloved Brideview.

LISMORE COMMUNITY FESTIVAL

Last week we wrote of the total washout of some events due to the bad weather. Thankfully the sun shone last weekend and a marvellous crowd turned up at the G.A.A. field for the family day and barbecue. The winner of the Cowpath of £100 was Lorraine Geoghegan.

The Waterford heat of the Culchie of Ireland took place on the open stage on Friday night with Nicola Beresford W.L.R. FM as compere. There were five entrants with Michael O'Rourke adjudged the winner.

The Pub Singing Final was held in Rose's with M. Morrissey, Aglish the winner.

On Saturday night Waterford played Dublin in a ladies football challenge game with the Waterford girls coming out on top.

The final of the Unisex Soccer saw Eamonn's defeat the Red House with Bets Daly and Patricia Bolger-McCarthy sterling for the winners.

These are just some of the highlights of what could have been one of the best festivals ever in Lismore if the weather had been that bit kinder early in the week. The programme that had been planned by the committee was excellent and had something to suit all ages young and old but credit is due to the hardworking committee for the effort and time under weather conditions that they had no control over.

LISMORE CRICKET CLUB NOTES

TOWNS CUP SEMI-FINAL

Lismore v Tower

Lismore 165 For 5 Off 40 Overs,

Tower 140 For 9 Off 40 Overs

Tower requested this match to be played at Lismore because of the better conditions afforded for the occasion and despite the heavy rain of the last week, the wicket was in excellent shape. Hoping to put "one over" Lismore for the first time in four meetings, Tower arrived with a strong side. Put into bat, Lismore lost two quick wickets Winston Boyle out for 9 and John Ind 12, both falling to Tower's number one bowler Phil Hattlesley. David Ind was run out for 15. David Dungan and Bruce Coker steadied the ship sharing a partnership of 47 before David was out stumped for 17. Bruce was joined by the big hitting Sean Fuller and the tempo increased. In a score of 31, Sam hit six fours. Michael Hickey hit a rapid 13 not out and Bruce finished at 46 not out. A fine knock. The Tower innings started slowly and when the Tower umpire objected to the Lismore short leg fielder crouching instead of standing, the game came to a halt while the situation was clarified. This incident only succeeded in firing up David Ind who, in the space of two overs, claimed 3 wickets and Tower found themselves at 21 for 3.

Tower's skipper Brendan Hegarty, along with partnerships with Ian McLean and Dougie Shaw rescued the Tower innings along with some rather vague wide ball decisions by the Tower umpires. One would have thought that before offering to umpire, they should be familiar with the wide ball rule. In all 38 wides were given against Lismore. Lismore stuck to the task in hand and after the departure of the above mentioned batsmen and a rearguard action by Towers Tony Weaver, Towers innings closed at 140. Best of the Lismore bowling was John Ind with 3 for 11, David Ind 3 for 28, Brian Power 2 for 24 and Sam Fuller 1 for 7.

During the Lismore innings, one of the Tower fielders was sent to hospital with a badly dislocated shoulder. His name for the moment escapes me but on behalf of Lismore Cricket Club, I wish him a speedy recovery.

MINOR LEAGUE

Lismore v Listowel

Listowel 45 for 8, Lismore 48 for 4

Listowel, with two regulars missing, were put into bat on a wicket still wet from an earlier thunderstorm and were soon in deep trouble. A fine spell of bowling from Lismore's Allen Sheane (back in form at long last) and Brian Power reduced the visitor's to 4 runs for 3 wickets after 7 overs. By the 19th over and with the score at only 29, Listowel suffered a double setback. David Ind claimed the wicket of Colin Mann who looked as though he had settled in and then ran out the Listowel skipper for nought. A brief flurry of runs off the easier pace of Andrew Malcolm ended with Andrew claiming his first wicket and David taking the last two. The Listowel innings closed at 45. Lismore bowling Allen Sheane 2 for 3, Brian Power 1 for 7, David Ind 3 for 8 and Andrew Malcolm 1 for 26.

The funny thing about chasing a small total to win a game is that complacency will always set in. Lismore started off at a steady pace and by the 10th over were at 34. John Ind was then given out L.B.W. for 21. Then Ray Bryan was out for 1, Bruce Coker for 3 and David Ind out for 0. It had taken a further six overs to increase the score to 44 and on the second ball of the 17th over, opener Winston Boyle hit the winning 4 to the relief of all in the pavilion. Winston finished on 15 not out.

The final of the Shannon Estuary Ports Minor Cup will be played at the Harlequins Cricket Club, Cork on August 24th. Lismore's opponents are Waterford Jordons. Jordons have given Lismore exciting games in the past and this match should prove no exception.

4th Waterford Abbeyside Scout Notes

ANNUAL CAMP 1997

- Monday, August 4th -

This being day one of Annual Camp 1997, all the scouts were gathered at the Scout Den in Abbeyside before 9.45 a.m. for the long drive to Clonbur. The rain, which had fallen in a constant sheet since late on Saturday night, still lashed down but it did not dampen the spirits of the 18 scouts who were going to camp. The scouts are Tomás Kiely P.L., Colm O'Sullivan A.P.L., Mark Foley, Pádraig Cullen, Kelvin Brady, Aidan French, Scott Fitzgerald P.L., John Foley A.P.L., Patrick O'Donnell, Michael Browne, Aidan Loneragan, Mark Fives, Tim O'Donnell P.L., Matthew Burke A.P.L., Declan Fives, Sean Kiely, Brendan Meehan, Brian Rossiter. It was on to a Hallahan's bus where Ron was our driver for our journey. The bus journey up was an uneventful one with just two stops.

On arrival at the site, the rain had stopped and each patrol put their tents up. John Paul, Paddy and Thomas Meehan had come up on Sunday with all the troop gear and had the marquee up and ready. At around 5 p.m. the heavy rain from the south had finally caught up with us and the first night of camp was a tough one making sure that no rain got into the tents or that none of the scouts got wet. Dinner was cooked with difficulty but it was cooked well and all plates were cleaned.

On Tuesday each patrol went on short hikes taking a packed lunch. This was a nice easy hike for the patrols and when they returned from their hikes, wood was collected and the dinner was started. It was at this early stage that songs were created and nicknames were given. The P.L.'s are now known as the Spice Girls. We also have a Sparky and someone who refers to himself as Bimbo. It is like mastermind at times with all the questions that are asked by the scouts. The big question of the week is will there be a P.L.'s and A.P.L.'s hike. Watch this space to see if they got their way. On Wednesday the whole troop went in patrols to Ballinrobe where they ate lunch on a bench outside of town after which the patrols explored the town.

On Thursday it was our first trip to Galway City. Our bus dropped us off in Eyre Square where we ate our lunch in the sunshine on the grass. Before leaving the site, the P.L.'s and A.P.L.'s were all in 'shaving' themselves before hitting town. On Friday the patrols were to eat out at Ashford Castle !! (Packed lunch in the grounds if the truth be told). Each patrol also had to visit a place of interest in the locality - castles, towers and a corrie lake. Again the usual nightly routine was followed with dinner being cooked and then it was down to the Sligo group of ventures for a campfire during which each troop and patrols sang songs. Tim O'Donnell was asked to help with a sketch. It was based on an Italian restaurant which had nothing but the waiter recommended water melon but they had no melon only plenty of water which Tim got all over him. We also had a few mugs - Mark Fives, Sean Kiely, Michael Browne and Kelvin Brady. Another helpful scout was Scott Fitzgerald who also fell victim to a water prank. But Abbeyside got their own back with a donkey sketch. Ask any of the scouts about it when you see them.

On Saturday it was our first day using the on site facilities. Six went absailing, six went sailing and the other six went canoeing along with the leaders. All enjoyed themselves with those in the water bases activities getting a lot of water. Everyone had a good day.

WEDDING BELLS

Congratulations to Jane Cooney and Fran McGovern who were married recently. Best wishes from all at the 4th.

ABBEYSIDE REFERENCE ARCHIVE

We lost two members from the Archive Committee recently but the good news is they have been replaced by 3 people so we should be okay for the future.

Back issues of the monthly parish news are available at the Archive any Sunday evening.

This Sunday being Pattern Sunday is a special day in Abbeyside. To mark the occasion we will be open from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.

which gives an extra hour for browsing.

With the Pattern on in the nearby Pond, we look forward to a fine day and wish the organising committee well with this very ancient Abbeyside event.

OUR LOCALITY

Last week we pointed out that Abbeyside wore the blue and gold jerseys for the first time in 1946. In the first round of the junior hurling championship St. Augustine's defeated Touraneena comfortably at the Modeligo venue at the end of the month of April. The game was succinctly summed up by An Runaidhe in the Dungarvan Leader.

"... Young Fraher and Johnny O'Connor were the pick of the players. On the side lines Percy (Brett) and John (Hayes) directed operations in a way that made defeat almost impossible..."

Round 2 — St. Augustine's 6-8 Modeligo 0-3. Round 3 — St. Augustine's 3-7 Dungarvan 4-2.

This was a famous victory and the bonfires were blazing that night in the Village. Training and preparation had been intense; no stone was left unturned. The public houses were scoured on the Saturday night lest anyone be guilty of weak resolve. Only one team member was found... drinking lemonade!

There had been a great build up to the game and the start of the Dungarvan Swimming Gala (then one of the major events in aquatics) was put back to 3.30 p.m. so that the game could be played in the Gaelic Field at 2 p.m. without clashing.

The Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band was there under Mr. T. Costin. Bro. Murray threw in the ball. Michael MacCarthaigh (Tipperary) and Michael Kehoe (Wexford) who were in Ring College for the summer session acted as officials.

Kehoe, who was an umpire, took special pleasure ever afterwards in recounting the manner in which he had been roundly denounced by an Abbeyside supporter who ended by declaring "you know nothing about the rules". (Mr. Kehoe was, at that time, Chairman of the Leinster Council and later to be President of the G.A.A.)

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Mary (Minnie) Veale (nee Daly)

On Tuesday afternoon, July 29 the locality learned with great sadness of the unexpected demise of Minnie Veale (nee Daly) at her residence 7 Mitchel Terrace, Dungarvan.

Predeceased by her husband Patrick in 1973, who was a native of Old Parish and is interred in his native parish, Minnie was a daughter of Ballyvoile and was aged 76 years. Only two years ago her sister Hannah went to her eternal reward in England. For many years Minnie was employed at the local Apple Factory.

She loved her television and was an avid reader. A quiet unassuming person, she lived for her family. The simple things of life meant so much to Minnie.

We tender our deepest sympathy to her sons, daughters, brothers, sister and many other relatives on their loss.

'Eternal rest grant to Minnie, Lord.'

On Tuesday evening last, following rosary and prayers recited by Very Rev. Fr. N. O'Mahony P.P., Mary's remains were brought to St. Mary's Parish Church where they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. G. McNamara C.C. En route the funeral cortege passed for a minute or two outside Mary's residence in prayerful tribute. Very Rev. Fr. N. O'Mahony P.P. was Mass celebrant on Friday morning after which the interment took place in Ballinroad Cemetery. At the Requiem Mass the lessons were read by Betty (daughter-in-law) and Anita (niece). Beautiful music was provided by Lorna Daly.

Very many floral tributes were placed on Minnie's resting place.

Chief mourners — Mick, Jim, Paddy (sons), Breda, Eileen, Marie (daughters), Johnny, Billy, Joe, Gusty and Tommy (brothers), Nellie (sister) and a wide circle of other relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely and Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mrs. Bridget Ivers (née Corrigan)

With profound feelings of great sadness we record the passing of ever-popular Mrs. Bridget Ivers, 30, Caseyville, Dungarvan, at the District Hospital on Friday, August 1, after a long duration of illness. Aged 94 years and one of a family of ten, Bridget hailed from Bangor Erris in Mayo.

Educated at the local national school in Bangor, her family, like many others in the West at this time, emigrated to Boston, U.S.A. After a year or so they returned home to Ireland. Bridget herself worked for a time in Ballina and later in Essex, England. She met her husband Richard who was a native of Ballingarry, Co. Tipperary and who was employed at the local glue factory. Sadly, Richard went to his eternal reward twenty-nine years ago, leaving Bridget a widow for almost three decades.

At first the family resided at O'Connell Street, later Mitchel Street and for the last forty years Caseyville was their home. A woman who saw tough times, times of struggle, Bridget, to her eternal credit, never complained but got on with the job of making the best of what was on offer.

A deeply religious person, she loved her God, Church and sacraments. A woman of the old values and traditions, her long life was focussed very much on her family. In truth, her home and her children were her life. A sincere neighbour and good friend, her passing has been the source of great sorrow to the many residents of Caseyville, but especially to her family and many relatives, to whom we extend our deepest sympathy.

When I am gone, release me, let me go, I have so many things to see and do,

You mustn't tie yourselves to me in tears, Be happy that we had so many years.

On Saturday evening following rosary and prayers at the Kiely Funeral Home, the funeral left for St. Mary's parish church, pausing at the entrance to Caseyville in prayerful tribute. Fr. Michael Kennedy, C.C., conducted the funeral liturgy in the presence of a large gathering who had come to say farewell to a much loved member of the local community.

Fr. Kennedy was Mass celebrant on Sunday morning. Fr. N. O'Mahoney, P.P. and Fr. Crowley, O.S.A., were also in attendance. Music was provided by the Friary Choir. The Readings were shared by James McNulty and Paddy Corrigan (nephews). The Prayers of the Faithful were read by Cora Drummy, Bridie McLoughlin, Ann Wyer, Richard Ivers, Kieran Walsh and Margaret Joyce (née Drummy) (Margaret, along with Aaron and Jaime, were so very special to Bridget). The Offertory Gifts of bread and wine, flowers and the Mayo colours, were brought to the altar by Sharon Ricken, Richard Ivers, Josie (daughter), Jonathan Ivers and Aaron Joyce. A Communion Reflection and a personal tribute was delivered by son Michael.

At the graveside, Bridget's musical favourite "Danny Boy" was played by Frank Shorthall. Following prayers recited by Fr. Kennedy, Bridget Ivers was laid to rest after life's long journey. Very many people gathered in the torrential rain to pay their respects and console the bereaved. Beautiful floral tributes were placed on Bridget's resting place.

So rest in peace, Bridget, And thanks for all you've done, We pray that God has given you, The crown you've truly won.

Chief mourners — Dick, Paddy, Jimmy and Michael (sons), Josie (daughter), Paddy and Tony, Mayo (brothers), Ann, Preston, England (sister), Mary, Pat and Cora (daughters-in-law), Ann (sister-in-law), Sean, Richard, Patsy Ann, Sharon, Richard (grandchildren), Shaun, Jonathan, Siobhán, Courtney and Dáire (greatgrandchildren).

Mrs. Annie Carroll

It is with great sadness we record the death of Mrs. Annie Carroll, late of Boola, Mt. Melleray, Cappoquin, who died on Friday, August 1. Annie was a native of Newban, New Ross, her maiden name was Dunphy and she was predeceased by her husband Thomas on February 27, 1977. Her son Sean also sadly died on August 21, 1989, aged 47 years. It was with great sadness that Annie carried on with the help of her family and friends but it was a very sad and hard time for her.

Annie loved to pay a visit to her home town New Ross and visit her relatives and friends and also Johnstown Castle where she worked for many years.

Annie was a good neighbour and friend to all who knew her. She was a loving and caring mother to her daughter and sons.

On Saturday evening her remains were removed from Dungarvan hospital mortuary. Fr. Boneventure, Mt. Melleray, assisted by Fr. Thomas and Fr. Aidan, said the prayers and rosary. On arrival to Mt. Melleray Abbey her remains were received and blessed by Fr. Boneventure, assisted by Fr. Aidan and Fr. Thomas.

Mass on Sunday was celebrated by Fr. Boneventure, assisted by Fr. Thomas, Fr. Aidan and Bro. Angus and other members of the Community were also present. The Lessons were read by her grandchildren Brendan and Louise Carroll. The Offertory Gifts were brought by her grandchildren Raymond, Angela and Jessica.

The graveside prayers were said by Fr. Boneventure and Fr. Thomas recited the rosary, and Annie was laid to rest in the family plot in Mt. Melleray.

We extend our deepest sympathy to her daughter Ann, sons Tom (Aglis) and Jim (England), daughters-in-law, grandchildren, relatives, cousins, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends. May her gentle soul rest in peace.

(Funeral arrangements by Aidan Walsh & Sons, Funeral Directors, Cappoquin.)

Mr. Jeremiah Connolly

It is with deep regret that we record the passing of Mr. Jeremiah (Jerry) Connolly, late of Mongally, Aglish, Cappoquin, which took place on Tuesday, August 5 at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan.

After selling the family homestead, Jerry and his brother moved to Dungarvan where they lived for a number of years. Due to ill-health Jerry spent some time in Dun Abbey Home and later was moved to St. Joseph's Hospital where he was cared for with tender loving care until his death.

His remains were removed to Aglish Church and before leaving the hospital mortuary Fr. Lucey, P.P., Aglish, recited the rosary. On arrival at Aglish, the remains were received and blessed by Fr. Lucey.

Next morning Requiem Mass was celebrated by Fr. Lucey and graveside prayers were also recited by Fr. Lucey, after which Jeremiah was laid to rest in the family plot.

To his sister Abbie and niece Patricia, relatives and friends we extend our deepest sympathy.

Mrs. Maureen O'Doherty

With great sadness we pen these lines on the passing of Mrs. Maureen O'Doherty (née Quinn), 15, St. Martin's Terrace, Dungarvan, which occurred at St. Vincent's Hospital on Thursday evening last. A native of the Kilcolman area near Kinsale, Maureen was predeceased by her husband Michael by a number of years.

We offer our deepest sympathy to her sons Gerard and Pius, brother Pat, daughter-in-law Maude, granddaughter Grace and her other relatives and friends at this time.

Removal took place on Friday evening from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church. Following Requiem Mass on Saturday morning at 11 a.m., interment followed in the adjoining cemetery.

Mr. Matt Begley

A native of Grange, Matt lived in Dungarvan for approx. 50 years, spending all of his employment in the local tannery. Matt was a well liked man who loved nothing more than a game of '45' or draughts in the Mary Street Club. His friends loved to meet him in the Enterprise Bar for a social drink where he was a great storyteller of times past.

Matt was a generous, inoffensive man who will be especially missed by his niece in Grange with whom he lived for the last 3 years where he used to visit Ciss Fleming's pub. All those with whom Matt came in contact will deeply miss him. May he rest in peace.

Following a rosary, recited by Fr. O'Mahony P.P. on Friday evening, the removal took place from Drohan's Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan. The remains were received and blessed on arrival by Fr. N. O'Mahony P.P. The requiem Mass on Saturday morning was celebrated by Fr. O'Mahony P.P. assisted

NOTES

League Final Ends In Stalemate — On Tuesday evening last the Western Football League Division 3 Final between Sliabh gCua and Kilrossanty's third team was played in Kirwan Park and ended in stalemate.

The game was originally fixed for Fraher Field but because of the rain that fell over the Bank Holiday Weekend, the pitch became unplayable. The game was therefore switched to Kirwan Park which was in perfect condition for the game. Twelve months ago there is no way anybody could have got into the field under similar circumstances as it would have been under several inches of water. Hopefully the Western Board officials will have noted the condition of the new playing surface and will give a lot more games to our club in the future when they are drawing up their fixture lists.

The team against Kilrossanty was -

Eamonn Condon, Eamonn Lonergan, Tom Condon, Mike Heame (0-1), Anthony Gleeson, Seanie Kearns, David Meaney, James Connors (0-1), Peter Fitzgerald (0-1), Dermot Halley, Dermot Lonergan, Pat Hearne (0-1), Royco Ware (0-5), Eoin Butler (0-1), Donnachadh Dunne. Subs: Aidan McGrath, Paul Aheame, Pa Hallinan.

The final score was Sliabh gCua 0-10 Kilrossanty 1-7.

Replay — The League Final replay takes place this Friday evening at 7 p.m. in ## Leamybrien.

Intermediates Are Out — The club's last chance of winning a championship in 1997 ended on Saturday evening in Fraher Field when Ardmore beat us by 4 pts. on a scoreline of 2-9 to 1-8.

Sliabh gCua had their chances to win the game but on the night it was not to be. Ardmore scored their second goal after collecting the ball inside their half back line after we had too much messing with it. John Hallinan, who usually takes penalties for the club with ease, saw an effort go wide after Royco Ware was pulled down.

Team: Eamonn Condon, Eamonn Lonergan, John Hallinan (1-1), David Meaney, Joe Lawlor, Declan Kiely, Laurence Boyle, Tomás Condon (0-2), Tom Queally, James Condon, Kieran Hallahan (0-2), Ian Dunford, Peter Fitzgerald, Seanie Kearns (0-1), Aidan Fitzpatrick (0-2). Subs: James Connors, Royco Ware, Anthony Gleeson, Vivian Lonergan, Michael Mulcahy, Paul Condon.

All-Ireland Final — Congratulations to the Na Déise girls on the county under-16 football team who have reached the All-Ireland final after a big win against Longford in Laois last Saturday. In the final the girls will be playing against Monaghan who had a one point win over Mayo in a high scoring game.

Lotto — Sliabh gCua Community Centre & G.A.A. Lotto. Weekending August 10th. The numbers drawn were 6, 9, 22. New jackpot £1,000. The 5 winners of £10 each were Tom Foley, Kilcooney; Jim Queally, Kilbrien; Tom O'Leary, Knockenpower; E. O'Donnell, Killusty; B. and C. Walton, The Lodge.

After the 7 weeks the team with the most points accumulated will qualify for the final while the second and third teams will play in a semi-final. Any player who doesn't have their entry fee of £2 paid must have it paid before their first match or else they will not be left play.

Waterford Faces First Test Of Its Litter Campaign In Bid To Win £1m Prize

An Taisce, The National Trust for Ireland is to conduct the first of three litter surveys in County Waterford as part of the independent monitoring service it has undertaken on behalf of the Irish Business Against Litter Organisation (IBA). The survey will give the first indications of how Waterford County is progressing in its drive to become litter-free. If successful, the County will be rewarded by IBAL with a £1m ready-to-advance factory.

An Taisce, which already has a national monitoring responsibility under the Blue Flag beach monitoring scheme, has been commissioned by IBAL to evaluate and monitor the level of litter in County Waterford during the campaign period.

As part of the stringent evaluation criteria, An Taisce intends to conduct three outdoor litter surveys of Waterford City and County during the period May 1997 - April 1998. A number of representative locations throughout the County have been chosen which include Waterford City, a selection of towns and villages, rural areas, non-coastal tourist locations and popular beaches. Trained surveyors will allocate each survey site with a Cleanliness Grade which will be rated with a point system. On completion of each location survey, a County Cleanliness Rating will be ascertained.

The results of this survey will be a crucial adjudicator in determining the success of Waterford County Council and Corporation's Litter Action Plan and Environmental Campaign for the County.

In May of this year IBAL challenged the City and County of Waterford to become litter free within 12 months. If the challenge is met, IBAL have offered to donate a £1m advance factory to County Waterford which will have the potential to generate substantial jobs for the area. Waterford will also be in a unique position to market itself as Ireland's first and only litter-free county.

The Waterford County Manager, Mr. Donal Connolly and Waterford City Manager, Mr. Eddie Breen are responsible for overseeing the county litter action plan.

The plan, outlined at the Dungarvan Press Conference in May involves a comprehensive range of anti-litter measures including the introduction of specific bye-laws to introduce more effective litter controls and the establishment of a Litter Control Office in Waterford to co-ordinate the campaign throughout the county.

The Chairman of IBAL, Mr. Tom Cavanagh said that Waterford was selected for this initiative because of the local authorities' clear commitment to litter prevention and hoped it would be the first of many counties to tackle litter in a meaningful manner by linking it directly to the future well-being of their community and local economy.

"We were impressed with the existing structures in place at local authority level to tackle litter and the fact that people like Donal Connolly and Eddie Breen have already gone some way down the road in putting litter at the top of the agenda," Mr. Cavanagh said.

"We in IBAL sincerely hope that Waterford does succeed in becoming litter free. The prize is a great one but the challenge is very considerable indeed," he added.

Irish Sport Horse Industry Has Bright Future

As the Kerrygold International Horse Show in the RDS took place last week, Waterford IFA Horse Committee Chairperson, Anne Waistell, said the competition in the sport horse industry continues to increase.

Ms. Waistell stated the co-ordinated plan of improving the quality of Irish sport horses is now paying dividends. The astute use of EU structural funds for the sport horse industry under the aegis of the Irish Horse Board is increasing the international demand for athletic Irish horses with good conformation and renowned temperament. The schemes being financed by the structural funds include the quality brood mare incentive scheme and the stallion performance and progeny testing programmes. Our best mares and stallions are now being retained in Ireland for breeding to guarantee a bright future for the industry.

Ms. Waistell said there is, however, an urgent need to invest further resources in the training of young riders to compete in international events and also for the breaking and training of young horses over a 10 week period by exports to add value to the horses before they are offered for sale.

Ms. Waistell added the Kerrygold International Horse Show is the premier event for promotion of Irish sport horses and ponies throughout the world.

Dungarvan Harbour Sailing Club Notes

JUNIOR SAILING COURSE

Well done to all our junior members who successfully completed their water-based sailing course recently. Participants included David Curran, Niamh Foley, Darren Connolly, Finbarr McGuinness, Gearoid Terry, David Moloney, Robert O'Neill, Adrian Whelan.

We will be holding a minor league in the coming week. This series should give lots of opportunity for the juniors to hone their new-found skills!

Many thanks to Barry McConnell (ISA instructor) and also thank you to M. Whelan for covering with the rescue launch.

FARRELL CUP LADIES RACE

Atrocious weather conditions prevented our race on Sunday last from going ahead. However, hours of bailing and fast minute weather change on Wednesday evening allowed the ladies to go ahead with their race. Conditions still looked a little dubious and as a result numbers were down.

But this didn't stop two brave ladies and their crews from taking on the elements. With light wind conditions, Nessa and Alex got off to a good start. Nessa coped with her new role as helmswoman with great ease and appeared to have an advantage over Clare and Don. Unfortunately, wind and opposing tide gave Clare a chance to view the situation from behind and steered a more favourable course to come home ahead. Well done!

Thanks to Chris Kelly for covering with the rescue launch.

PICNIC AT HELVIC

Unfortunately, weather conditions precluded us heading for our original destination, Ardmore. Steady force four wins with good rolling seas made for very interesting sailing to the three harbours — Helvic, Baile na nGall and the Gold Coast.

Four petrels made the trip and enjoyed the brisk conditions across the bay. We all enjoyed our picnic in Murray's Beer Garden and relaxed in the warm sunshine, sipping as usual, the odd "iced tea" to prepare us for the homeward journey.

PATTERN DAY RACE

This race is open to all dinghies and yachts. The Youghal Enterprises are invited for this race. Hope to see you all participating. Race commences at 4 p.m.

Also, there will be an RNLI fundraising swim from the Gold Coast to Helvic at the same time. Please support your swimmers.

ADULT SAILING COURSE

Don't forget our course starts next Monday evening at 7 a.m., for one week (ISA approved). If you have not enrolled yet, please contact Christopher Kelly (tel. 058-41820) ASAP.

TALLOW NOTES

TALLOW G.A.A. CLUB NOTES

Déise Development Draw — Our membership to date has surpassed even last year's great effort and for a club of our size, we are at the top of the list per head of capita throughout the county. If you are one of the few who has not yet joined then contact Tim Sheehan, Draw Co-Ordinator or any Club Officer and be in for the remainder of the year.

With all the scrappage deals and what-nots available today, you'd hardly beat the one which gives you a chance of a spanking new car for a mere £5 per month every month not to mention an almost endless list of other prizes. The last prize alone would more than cover your subscription so don't let the chance pass.

Happenings — Following on the restructuring of our club a few years ago under the guidance of present chairman Sean Sheehan, it is very heartening to see the supporters coming back in numbers. Following on the decades of success at all levels, it is now history that we went through a lean period on the playing fields. This is inevitable in any walk of life but now, thankfully, we seem to be entering another era.

On any training evening or Sunday the field is black with youngsters enjoying the game and there is a great buzz surrounding this bunch. A lot of work behind the scenes at school level and outside by some very dedicated men and women has rekindled the old spirit and it is a joy to see. This doesn't occur overnight of course and the work is ongoing so hopefully sometime in the near future, it will reap its just reward.

To keep an eye out for the upcoming fixtures and join the rest who are following and cheering on our present day representatives of the Blue and Gold jersey.

Our senior hurlers play Passage next week in the quarter-final of the County Championship. Our minor hurlers are already into the Western Final to mention but two. Hope to meet you all there.

Rohan Family Trust Fund — Waterford Utd. v Cork City.

On behalf of our committee, I extend sincere thanks to our local soccer club, Brideview Utd. for staging a match between Waterford Utd. and Cork City on Sunday week last. A large crowd turned up on the day and the supporters were also treated to a display from the under-8 local teams. All proceeds from this game were donated to our trust fund as well as more being added to make a very generous round sum.

Following the game Milo Ahearne, Chairman Brideview Utd., along with committee members, handed over the donation to Liam O'Brien, Chairman Trust Fund. Liam thanked the club for this very worthwhile effort which was very much appreciated.

Since the setting up of this fund, we have received tremendous support from various clubs, businesses, organisations and individuals alike and our sincere thanks once again to everyone concerned.

Martin continues to make good progress but still requires further longterm treatment for his injuries. Great to see him doing his utmost to get back into the everyday routine of life. His huge circle of friends and supporters far and wide wish him continued good progress.

Full Committee Meeting Trust Fund this Thursday night, August 14th at 9 p.m. sharp in St. Patrick's Hall.

Under-13 Hurling League

The under-13's played their last two league games in the hurling league last week but with very little success. We were beaten by both Lismore and Ballyduff respectively. We have a very young side and weren't helped by the young lads that were on holidays as we were missing about 5 but then again so were the rest of the clubs.

The panel who played the three games were -

Under-10 Hurling Blitz

An under-10 hurling blitz takes place in Youghal on Saturday next starting at 11 a.m. All under-10 players to be at the Square at 10 a.m.

Minor Hurling — Tallow 4-17 Lismore 1-4.

Many people felt that Tallow should have won last year's drawn Western Minor Final with Lismore but on Wednesday night last there was no doubting the result. Lismore, who have been champions for the last 10 years (a remarkable achievement), had no answer to a highly motivated Tallow 15. Tallow, taking what little breeze there was, took the game to Lismore right from the throw in. With John O'Donovan and Paul Murray lording it at midfield and the Tallow forwards using every square inch of the Cappelquin pitch, they left the Lismore backs bewildered and bemused. This was a forward line who struggled to score 9 pts. in the previous round against Ardmore but having worked on their game now scored 3-8 to 0-0 in the first half and left their supporters delighted and their critics silenced.

Only Lismore's pride was at stake in the second half and to their eternal credit, they fought manfully to the end of what was a lost cause. It would be unfair to single out any member of this Tallow team as everyone of them stuck to their task even though some hadn't the busiest of evenings. All the hard work done by Liam Aherne and Colin Cunningham is now bearing fruit and we wish them well in the Western Final.

LORD MAYOR ELECTION

Sponsored By Tallow Area Credit Union

As we enter the final month of canvassing to become the first ever Lord Mayor of Tallow, we profile our 5th candidate in the person of Fin McCarthy.

An extremely hardworking officer of our juvenile club, Fin is one of many who have made an enormous contribution to the underage affairs over the last number of years and is indeed a very strong and popular candidate.

Married to Margaret with 5 children, he is a teacher by profession and also, along with Margaret and their family, runs his own dairy farm. An active person indeed and outside of the workplace his hobbies include (apart from hurling) rugby, swimming and the occasional visit to the Cotswolds and seasonal weather dictates more leisurely indoor pursuits he can be found on local quiz teams which support various worthy causes.

From a family with strong G.A.A. ideals and traditional values down the decades, his own sons and nephews carry on those same principles on the playing fields and I've a personal feeling that it won't be too long before these same boys will be a household name far and beyond our own locality.

Speaking to Fin last week, he has some glorious memories of great hurling and football games down the years at local and national level but one of his most abiding memories is the visit of our under-16 north of the border to Tyrone last summer when the parish of Tallow and its surrounds was so ably represented by our youth and left a lasting impression on our hosts up there with their overall performances and manner.

Easy to see therefore why Fin has such an affection for the boys who are the future of our club. They have indeed a strong ally representing them. Fin McCarthy, Gaelic man, teacher, farmer and I almost forgot to mention, part-time raconteur but that's for another day!! Best of luck, Fin.

Junior B Football — The Junior B football team played Sliabh gCua in the final of the league in Sliabh gCua last Tuesday night. This game was transferred to Sliabh gCua owing to Fraher Field being unfit for play. This great game ended in a draw. Pa Walsh, who re-

The rest of the second half was point for point with it being level a few times but in the end the Nire came out tops. The score was Kilrossanty 0-14 the Nire 3-9. ## BALLYDUFF FINANCIAL COMMITTEE NOTES

Ballyduff Salmon Festival — The committee would like to thank all those who contributed in any way to the success of the Ballyduff Salmon Festival. According to Tommy Enright, Treasurer of the Committee, the final figures won't be too far off our original target.

Baron Of Ballyduff Contest — Paddy Jim's re-election for Baron has finally got underway. Macra say their tickets are selling well, in fact Macra's candidate Pat Kenny says there isn't half enough tickets printed. Paddy Jim said his team are fighting to reply, that by August 31st the only thing Paddy will be fighting back will be the tears. It seems that Paddy Jim has taken to drinking morning coffee in Ballysaggartmore. Suzanne wouldn't confirm whether it was Nescafe or Maxwell House but by all accounts the coffee mustn't have been all that strong because the 'coffee drinkers' were later seen in the village consuming something stronger.

The great debate is on Friday, August 22nd.

BALLYDUFF COMMUNITY COUNCIL NOTES

Cake Sale — A cake sale will be held in the hall on Saturday night at 9 p.m. after Mass in aid of the Hall Development Fund. There will also be a bric-a-brac stall and anyone wishing to donate items should contact Suzanne Hannon.

Meeting — A meeting of the Community Council was held in the Hall on Monday night with a good attendance. The main item on the agenda was the forthcoming Gala Weekend. Some new side shows will be there this year to add to the ones down through the years. This year we are delighted to have the All-Ireland Macra Tug-O-War. We have Fancy Dress Parade, Harvest Queen, Baron of Ballyduff, a contest that is hotting up very well. At the moment it's not easy to say who's ahead, possibly neck and neck. Watch out for further details.

Fundraising Night — A fundraising night will be held in the Central Bar, Cappoquin on this Friday night for St. Michael's Hall in conjunction with Paddy Jim Feeney's Baron campaign. Your support would be much appreciated.

BALLYDUFF TIDY TOWNS NEWS

The Tidy Towns Committee wish to thank all who supported and helped out with our recent Church Gate Collection.

BALLYDUFF MACRA NA FEIRME NOTES

All-Ireland Tug-O-War Competition — Ballyduff Macra are hosting the All-Ireland Tug-O-War Competition at the Gala Day in Ballyduff on August 31st. Entries have been flooding from all parts of the country and there will be teams from Monaghan, Carlow, Meath, Kildare, Kilkenny, Tipperary, Wexford, Cork, Waterford and many other counties will be represented as well. The closing date for entries has been extended from August 8th to August 15th so get your skates (oh I mean boots !!) on and get your entry forms into Pat Kenny (058) 60218. There is a ladies and gents section with wonderful prizes for the winners. Many of the teams will be staying in the locality for the weekend so Ballyduff is the place to be for the last weekend in August.

Baron Election — Club members are presently travelling the highways and byways of Ireland selling votes for the forthcoming Baron Election. Ballyduff Macra are very proud to have Pat Kenny running as their candidate because Pat is simply the best, better than all the rest and will make a perfect baron. As Bertie Ahern would say, "we need a young leader for a young community."

Now there is no need for me to tell anyone about Pat's achievements or qualifications for the job as anyone who has met Pat will know he is the right candidate. But my friend Pat needs your support to win this election and a vote for Pat is a vote for democracy. Votes (tickets) are for sale from Pat or any Macra member. Pat and his campaign team would like to thank all those who have supported them. We hear the other campaign team have resorted to drinking tea to drown their sorrows.

Dungarvan Show — The club recently took part in the Dungarvan Show and won the Waterford Macra Club of the Year Competition for the 4th year running. This is a magnificent achievement and well done to every club member but special praise must go to the four club officers - Eilish and Margaret Flynn, Alan Martin and last but not least Michael O'Donnell who put in trojan work throughout the year. So on behalf of the club, I would like to thank Michael and his fellow officers for the time and effort they put into running the club throughout the year. Congratulations also to Martha Leamy on winning the car driving section at Dungarvan Show. Well done to Michael O'Donnell on winning the gents cookery section at the Show. Michael had to prepare a fruit salad and make butterballs. So now ladies, this man can not only cook but he is a dab hand at gardening (which he won last year) as well.

Well done to our ladies on the Show team who won the best ladies namely Mary Kearney, Eilish O'Flynn and Martha Leamy. We all headed for Clonea Strand Hotel for the Show Dance that night where a great night was had by all. I hear a few members went for romantic walks along the beach.

Ideal Bachelor Competition — I hear on the grapevine that one of our members headed for Castlepollard last weekend to the Ideal Bachelors Festival in search of a bachelor and on all accounts I think she found one but wasn't Castlepollard an awful long way to go when you need only go to Cappoquin. I'll say no more.

Ballysaggart Festival — Club members will be heading in their droves to Ballysaggart this weekend. On Friday night the Macra competitions are on and on Sunday after dinner to the fancy dress. So the place to be is Ballysaggart for the ceoil agus craic and the jokes.

A.G.M. — It's Annual General Meeting time again and Ballyduff Macra takes place on Thursday, August 21st so write that into your diaries.

Bon Voyage — On behalf of the club I would like to wish Triona bon voyage as she headed back to Norway last Wednesday.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

DAN VISITS ARDSALLAGH

From Plymouth, England we had Dan Hogan formerly of Ardsallagh, Clashmore visiting us this week. This is the first visit home since his trip earlier this year for the funeral of his brother, Willie whom he sadly missed on this occasion.

Dan, a retired Navy man, was an outstanding athlete in his day and ran his first marathon at the age of 60. Still fit and hardy, Dan wasted little of his holiday sitting around. Instead he visited many relatives and friends and enjoyed a great holiday with his niece Marie and nephew Liam and their families.

Great to see you looking so well, Dan. Glad you enjoyed your stay and hope to see you soon again.

SUCCESS FOR MARCUS AND JOHN

At last Sunday's Open Sports at Middleton, the Prendergast brothers from Clashmore were among the prize winners. In the boys under-13 800m race Marcus came home to take the gold medal from a strong field of starters. Younger brother John is making an early start in the athletics and here we saw him take the runner-up prize in the boys under-6. Well done to both of you.

MASS IN OUR CEMETERIES

It was wonderful to see so many people taking time out to remember all those who have gone to their eternal reward and now resting in our cemeteries in Clashmore and Piltown by attending the annual celebration of the graveyard Masses this past week.

On Tuesday evening the wet and windy weather prevented an outdoor celebration in Piltown. A major change later in the week gave us ideal conditions for open air Mass in Clashmore. On both occasions a large crowd joined in the celebration and the blessing of the graves. Our thanks to Fr. Maurice O'Gorman and Fr. Tom Hubbard (celebrants) on both occasions for keeping this beautiful tradition alive.

HOME FROM ENGLAND

Welcome home and happy holidays to student nurse Carina Kelly, daughter of Tom and Kitty Kelly, Piltown who is presently on her summer break at home.

STILL IN HOSPITAL

Continued good wishes to Joe McGrath of Shanakill, Aglish who has been a patient in Cork University Hospital over the past few weeks. Thinking of you Joe and wishing you a speedy recovery and hope to have you back home soon.

WEEKLY LOTTO

The Clashmore G.A.A. Club Lotto jackpot continues to grow with no Match 4 winner last week. The numbers drawn were 4, 8, 14, 18. The lucky £10 winners were Jim Bailey, Mary Power, Cian Shalloe, Patrick Walsh and Pad Collins. Congratulations to all the winners. Next Saturday night's draw takes place in The Old Still, Clashmore.

BALLYMACARBRY FIVE MILE ROADRACE

Going the distance and coming home a strong winner in her section in a time of 34.24 in last week's Ballymacarbry 5 Mile Road Race was Bridget Hynes of Tinnock, Kinsalebeg. Bridget has been in top form and enjoying lots of success this season. Well done and continued success to you, Bridget.

BRONZE MEDAL WINNERS

Congratulations to local athletes Aileen Barron and Tracey Shalloe, both of whom were members of the county team who took home the bronze All-Ireland medals in the B Championships held in Waterford recently. Well done and continued success girls.

WHAT A PICTURE - WHAT A SHOW !!

Hidden in a small corner of our parish is a wealth of talent which was almost unknown until last weekend. Only a few people were aware of D'Loughtane Art Group until their public exhibition of paintings at the League of the Cross Hall, Youghal on Saturday and Sunday last.

A total of 22 artists from the East Cork/West Waterford area exhibited their work and all in aid of a very worthy cause - Youghal Hospice.

The D'Loughtane Group have been in operation for 2 years under the instruction of Gay Moorhead from D'Loughtane, Clashmore.

All the exhibits, some of which were for sale, were of exceptionally high standard. Of special interest were some well painted local statues. If you missed this exhibition watch out for future shows from this group, they are well worth viewing. Well done and continued success to all of you.

SPANISH HOLIDAY

Off enjoying the sun and sights of Spain are a group of local lads Arthur Walsh, Tomas Glavin, Brian Murray, Michael Costin, Tiger O'Neill, Francis O'Rourke and Kevin O'Rourke all from the Clashmore/Kinsalebeg area. Hope you have a lovely holiday.

FLOOD DAMAGE

The heavy rain throughout last week caused extensive damage in this area. Once again the road at Ballyheaney Bridge near Clashmore has been one of the worst hit and some major repairs will be needed here.

Acting overseer Mr. Eddie Moloney, just days after taking up his present position with Waterford Council, has been faced with a major task coping with the flood damage and is doing an excellent job. Well done, Eddie.

YOUGHAL MAN LAID TO REST

On Sunday afternoon last the town of Youghal bid farewell and laid to rest one of its most unassuming citizens, Mr. Jackie Nunn, Dominic Collins Place.

Jackie was almost as well known on this side of the Bridge as he was in his native town and he was a regular visitor to friends here. Jackie was indeed one of the 'old stock' and he was loved and respected wherever he went.

To his relatives and friends, we extend our deepest sympathy.

Ar dheis Dé go raibh a anam.

CAROL MELLERAY QUEEN

Congratulations to Clashmore lady Carol O'Keeffe on winning the Melleray 1997 Queen title last week. Carol was an exceptionally popular winner and we wish her well for the future.

CARD RESULTS

On Monday night last the weekly 45 Drive in Clashmore took place at the Decies Bar and the following were the winners -

Joint 1st on 9 games each: Paddy and Nell Foley, Joseph O'Keeffe and Ned Hynes; 3rd on 7 games: Mary Coughlan and Birdie Cunningham; Best of the Last Five: Maura McGrath and Eileen Delaney. Well done all.

WHERE'S WILLIE ?

A noted absentee from the cards over the weeks has been our Ace Man Willie Ronayne. Hope to have you back with us soon Willie.

Good wishes also to regular visiting player Terry Fox who returns to England this week.

HOLIDAYING IN GRAND CANARIA

Bon voyage to Mag Dewick from Tinnock and her good friend Mary Murphy who have teamed up for a sun-filled holiday in the Grand Canaria. Be sure to bottle some of the beautiful weather and bring it back to us girls !!

Late Mr. John O'Brien

It is with feelings of regret we record the passing of John O'Brien, Shanakill, Aglish which sad event occurred on Sunday, August 10th.

Removal was from his residence on Monday evening to Aglish Church. Following Funeral Mass on Tuesday morning, burial took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To his wife Lizzie, sons, daughters and relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.

PRIZE DONATED TO THE SHANE BRODERICK FUND

Our Irish showjumpers came out in style last Friday and proved once again they are among the tops in the world. Prior to Friday's Aga Khan Trophy competition, Ireland were given little hope of victory. Against all the odds, the four man team of Eddie Macken, Capt. John Ledingham, Paul Darragh and Trevor Coyle gave the display of their lives with first round clears from Trevor on "Cruising", John on "Kilbaha" and Paul on "Scandal" which left Ireland on joint top position with the favourites Great Britain. Eddie Macken did not have to jump on this round.

The second round proved to be equally as exciting and once again only Trevor, John and Paul were required to jump and kept Ireland ahead of the other five nations to win the Aga Khan Trophy.

It was an exceptionally proud moment for Waterford to have once again one of our own, Capt. John Ledingham, a member of the winning team.

The team very kindly came together after the victory and announced their intention to donate their £10,000 prize money to injured jockey, Shane Broderick's Fund.

JOHN THOMAS SCORES AT BALLYHOOLEY

At last Sunday's annual gymkhana at Ballyhooley (outside Fermoy), one of our talented young showjumpers from Ballymacoda, Co. Cork pulled out all the stops to win the 138 cms. A.B. Competition on the great veteran grey "All Shell" owned by his mother, Mrs. Noreen Gould. Well done, John Thomas.

AGLISH PRIDE IN SLIGO

Another magnificent victory for Aglish Pride last week in Sligo when this beautiful 5 year old mare won her bumper race by 5 lengths.

Owned by Mr. P. J. Fenton of Aglish, "Aglish Pride", by Strong Gale out of a Doran's Pride mare won her first race by 20 lengths at Kilmallock Point-To-Point earlier this year.

There is no doubt this mare is improving all the time and is one to watch for the future. Continued success to Pad Joe and "Aglish Pride".

PIPPED FOR THE GRAND PRIX TITLE

The Kerrygold Grand Prix, the most sought after prize at the R.D.S., was won by Britain's Robert Smith when he pipped Capt. John Ledingham's time of a clear round in 45.27 by going clear in a time of 45.12.

The Clashmore man, riding Kilbaha, was one of only 4 riders through to the jump off. Second last to go, John gave a brilliant display of showjumping and was unlucky to be beaten on this occasion. Well done, John.

SUCCESS IN ENGLAND

A further 4 major victories have been won by dogs bred by Mr. Pad Joe Fenton on tracks across England in recent weeks. All 4 dogs proudly carry the Aglish name and have brought great fame to their native village. All join in wishing you many more great successes, Pad Joe.

SHARE A DREAM MUSIC TRAIL

The Share A Dream Music Trail will continue on its journey this week and stops off at Bridgie Terries, Dungarvan for another Sunday afternoon in the Beer Garden with music from Martin Curran and friends from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. in aid of Share A Dream.

Last Sunday the musicians received a warm welcome from Danny and staff at the Central Bar in Cappoquin. Martin was joined by visiting musicians from Liverpool, also Carol Guiry. A special word of thanks to everyone who helped make it an exceptionally enjoyable afternoon.

Q. My friend's baby was found dead in her cot a few months ago. A post-mortem didn't find any cause, with the result that it has been called a cot death. My problem is that I am due to deliver my baby shortly and I am terrified. Have you any hints or tips about what I can do to reduce my chances of losing my baby to cot death?

A. Cot death is the sudden and unexpected death of an apparently normal and healthy baby. Occasionally a post-mortem will show a reason for the baby's death, for example an unrecognised infection or abnormality, or a severe heart defect, with cot death nothing abnormal is found. Fortunately it is reasonably rare. Most cot deaths occur in the first year of life between one and five months. No-one knows what causes cot death and so there is no certain way of preventing it. But by taking some simple precautions you can reduce the risk of it occurring. Firstly, place the baby on her back or side when putting her down for a sleep. If you are putting her on her side then stretch the underneath arm out to stop her rolling on to her tummy. NEVER put a baby to sleep on her tummy except on medical advice. When the baby learns to roll herself she will find her own sleeping position. There is nothing you can do about it except to keep a close eye on her if she prefers sleeping on her tummy. Secondly, keep the baby warm not hot. The baby's room should be comfortable, or stifling. To check how hot the baby is, place a hand on her tummy, it should feel warm, not hot. If the baby is ill or has a temperature, take some of the bedding and clothes off. If you are worried call your doctor. Do not use a duvet or baby nest indoors as the baby can get too hot in these. When indoors, the baby's outdoor clothing should be removed. Thirdly, don't smoke near the baby. Better still, don't smoke at all. Lastly, breastfeed the baby, if possible, for the first few weeks of her life. It may not reduce the chance of a cot death but it will certainly reduce the chance of your baby getting infections.

Beauty basics

A THOUSAND WAYS TO IMPROVE YOUR IMAGE

NORMAL SKIN - Its care and maintenance

Normal skin results from a well balanced diet and correct skin care and hygiene. To maintain a normal skin it is important to practise a proper skin care routine. Proper cleansing, toning and moisturising morning and night are essential. A visit to your local beauty salon once a month will benefit. Usually a facial including a cleanse to remove dead cells and a massage will be given. It is important that dead cells are removed from the surface of the skin regularly and that all impurities are removed from the follicles. Facial massage will stimulate the skin and improve the metabolism of the skin. You will also be advised about products which will suit the skin that can be used at home between visits to the salon. In order for the skin to continue functioning in a normal way regular care must be given.

The appearance of a normal skin is very clear, translucent and healthy. It is a glowing pink colour neither shiny or dull, not too dry or oily. Normal skin is usually free from blemishes which need extensive treatment. It is fine and even textured with no shiny areas. Spots very rarely develop on a normal skin as there are no greasy areas. A normal skin is always in good condition: it is firm to look at and soft to touch and has a healthy appearance.

- Follow a correct skin care routine.
- Visit a beauty salon for treatment and advice.
- Ensure you follow a balanced diet to maintain the healthy appearance of the skin.

Chef's corner

Prune and Almond Tart

Preparation: 25 minutes + Chilling
Cooking: 45 minutes
Serves: 6

225g/8 oz puff pastry, thawed if frozen 100g/4 oz caster sugar juice of 1 orange
450g/1 lb no-need-to-soak dried prunes
1 cinnamon stick, broken in half
50g/2 oz blanched almonds
2 tbsp clear honey beaten egg for glazing orange zest to decorate yoghurt or cream sprinkled with cinnamon to serve

Preheat oven to 220°C/425°F/Gas mark 7. Meanwhile, put 75g/3 oz of the sugar into a pan with the orange juice and 150ml/1/4pt water. Heat gently to dissolve the sugar. Add the prunes and cinnamon and simmer gently for 20 minutes until the prunes are plump. Stir in the almonds and honey. Leave until cold. Using a sharp knife, score a crisscross pattern on the border of the pastry rectangle and brush with the beaten egg. Sprinkle border with remaining sugar. Bake the pastry for 15-20 minutes until well risen and golden brown. Leave until cold. To assemble, place the pastry case on a serving board and spoon in the prune mixture (discard the cinnamon sticks). Decorate with the orange zest and serve with yoghurt or cream sprinkled with cinnamon.

Mushroom, Leek and Potato Bake

4 tbsp olive oil
1 onion, peeled and chopped
1 garlic clove, crushed
1 (397g/14 oz) can chopped tomatoes
1 tbsp fresh chopped oregano or 1 tsp dried
175g/6 oz flat mushrooms, wiped and thickly sliced

900g/2 lb potatoes, peeled and thinly sliced
100g/4 oz feta cheese, crumbled
50g/2 oz butter

Method: Butter a large ovenproof casserole. Heat 1 tbsp oil in a pan and add the garlic and onion. Cook for 3 minutes until softened. Add the tomatoes and simmer for 10 minutes. Stir in the oregano. Season. Preheat oven to 200°C/400°F/Gas mark 6. Heat the remaining oil in a frying pan and saute the mushrooms until lightly browned. Cook the leeks in boiling salted water for 5 minutes until tender. Drain. Line the casserole with a layer of sliced potatoes. Top with the leeks and mushrooms. Season then top with another layer of potatoes. Mix the feta cheese with the tomato sauce and spread on top of the potatoes. Finish with a neat layer of overlapping potato slices. Dot with butter and bake for 45-60 minutes, until golden brown.

HOUSEHOLD TIPS

- To make inexpensive wrapping cord, crochet lengths of wool.
- To hang your dress on the line, put it on a clothes hanger and tie the hanger to the line with a stocking.
- When washing a nylon jumper, turn it inside out to prevent snags and damage to the jumper.
- To test whether an avocado is ripe or not, squeeze the narrow end: it should feel slightly soft.
- Empty plastic room fresheners can be filled with pot-pourri. They have the same effect and last longer.

† IN MEMORIA M †

BREEN — Eighth Anniversary — In loving memory of P. J. Breen, late of 4, Ballyrandle, Dungarvan, who died August 10, 1989. R.I.P.

Your memory is precious and never grows old,
It is locked in our hearts in letters of gold,
Your presence we miss and memories we treasure,
Missing you always, forgetting you never.

(Always remembered by the Breen families at home and abroad.)

CUMMINS — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of Julia Cummins, late of 28, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, who died on August 12, 1994. R.I.P.

In a near and silent graveyard,
Where the trees their branches wave,
Sleeps a kind and loving mother,
In her cold and lonely grave.
She bade no one a last farewell,
She raised her hand to none,
Her spirit flew before we knew,
That she from us had gone.
(From her loving daughter Ann, son-in-law Joe and grandchildren Marie, Theresa, Tanya, Shane and her loving son Dan.)

CUMMINS — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of Julia Cummins, late of 28, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, who died on August 12, 1994.

Our lips cannot speak how we loved her,
Our hearts cannot tell what to say,
But God only knows how we miss her,
In our home that is lonely today.
(From her loving husband Danny and son Peter and grandchildren.)

CUMMINS — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of Julia Cummins, late of 28, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, who died on August 12, 1994.

Along the road to yesterday,
That leads us straight to you,
Are memories of happy days,
Together we once knew.
You left those memories, mother,
They make us laugh and cry,
But the love that's planted in our hearts,
While we live, will never die.
(Never forgotten by John, Patsy and family.)

CAHILL — Twelfth Anniversary — In loving memory of Peter Cahill, late of Main Street, Cappoquin, who died on August 17, 1985.

A loving thought, a silent tear,
A little prayer to keep in touch,
Just to say we miss you so much.
(Always remembered by his sons, daughters and families.)

CUMMINS — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of Julia Cummins, late of 28, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, who died on August 12, 1994.

Along the road to yesterday,
That leads us straight to you,
Are memories of happy days,
Together we once knew.
The blow was hard, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear,
Our loss is great, we'll not complain,
But trust in God to meet again.

(Never forgotten by Tina, Peter and family.)

CUMMINS — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of Julia Cummins, late of 28, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, who died on August 12, 1994.

The say there is a reason,
They say that time will heal,
But neither time nor reason,
Will change the way we feel.
For no one knows the heartache,
That lies behind our smiles,
No one knows how many times,
We have broken down and cried.
We want to tell you something,
So there won't be any doubt,
You're so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to be without.
(From your loving son Pakey, Claire and grandchildren.)

CUMMINS — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of Julia Cummins, late of 28, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, who died on August 12, 1994.

A loving mother most sincere,
Loved by all she knew,
She loved us all so very dear,
And we all loved her too.
But God in His mercy will give me hope,
And help me bear the strain,
Of the one we cherished, loved and lost,
To meet in heaven again.
As down the road of memories,
We gently tread today,
Our loving thoughts are with you,
As life goes on its way.
(Always remembered by Killian, Breda, James and family.)

ELSTEAD — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of Jean Elstead, late of Park Lane, Abbeyside, who died on August 15, 1995. R.I.P. Masses offered.

Our hearts are full of memories,
We treasure them with care,
But the way you had to leave us,
Will always seem unfair,
We never knew that morning,
What sorrow the day would bring,
When a heart of gold stopped beating,
And we couldn't do a thing.
(Sadly missed by Granny Peg and family at home and away.)

Anniversary Mass in St. Augustine's Church, Abbeyside on Friday, August 15, at 7 p.m.
You were such a loving daughter,
So caring and so kind,
Your beautiful smile and voice so sweet,
Will never leave our minds.
Your parting was so sudden,
You were so far away,
We never got to say goodbye,
On that sad and sorrowful day.
We think of you in silence,
Jean,
We often call your name,
Without your love and kindness,
Our lives will never be the same.
The loneliness will never be gone,
And although we're worlds apart,
The happy memories we shared together,
Will always be in our hearts.

A little prayer to Jesus say.

Anniversary Mass for Paul Saturday evening, August 16, at 7.30 p.m. in St. Mary's Parish Church.

But the souls of the virtuous are in the hands of God,
No torment shall ever touch them,
In the eyes of the unwise, they did appear to die,
Their going looked like a disaster,
Their leaving us like annihilation,
But they are in peace.
(Always remembered by your loving wife Teresa.)

FRAHER — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of our father, Paul, late of 8, Comeragh Crescent, Dungarvan, who died on August 17, 1995.

God called you home so gently,
That only you could hear,
And no one heard the footsteps,
Of the angels drawing near,
You left us so suddenly,
One could only wonder why,
But the saddest part of all,
You never said goodbye.
Time slips by but still you stay,
As near and dear as yesterday,
No longer in our lives to share,
But in our hearts you are always there.
(Loved and always remembered — Catherine, Regina, Paula, Gillian and Richard.)

FRAHER — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of our grandad Paul, late of 8, Comeragh Crescent, Dungarvan, who died on August 17, 1995.

Up to one who knows,
There's a new star,
Brightly shining forth.
It's shining in the sky,
From heaven above,
Grandad we miss you,
And we send you all our love.
(Kayleigh and Vicky X X.)

HOWELL — Tenth Anniversary — In loving memory of Abbie, who died August 13, 1987, late of Barracree, Ballinamult.

(Sadly missed by his Mam, Dad, brothers and sisters.)

KEOHAN — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of Christy Keohan, late of 12, Western Terrace, Dungarvan, who died on August 14, 1992.

These are the memories you left behind.
(From his loving sister Margaret, London.)

KEOHAN — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of Christy Keohan, late of 12, Western Terrace, Dungarvan, who died on August 14, 1992.

I seldom ask for miracles,
Dad,
But today just one would do,
To leave my door wide open,
And see you just walk through.
My heart still aches with sadness,
My eyes shed many a tear,
God only knows how I miss you,
As it dawns another year.
A prayer, a Mass, are all I can give,
And those you shall have as long as I live.
(From his loving daughter Ann, son-in-law Jimmy and grandchildren.)

KEOHAN — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of Christy Keohan, late of 12, Western Terrace, Dungarvan, who died on August 14, 1992.

Behind the gates of heaven,
There is someone special there,
A dad we loved so dearly,
A dad who will always care.
You gave us all you had to give,
Gifts both big and small,
But most of all you gave us love,
The biggest gift of all.
The tears in our eyes we can wipe away,
But the pain in our hearts will always stay.
(From his loving daughter Mary, son-in-law Sean and grandchildren.)

BURKE — Fourth Anniversary — In loving memory of Gary Burke, late of 18, Silver Springs and 15, Fitzgerald's Terrace, Dungarvan, who died on August 16, 1993.

Anniversary Mass at 11 a.m. on Sunday, August 17, in the Friary Church.

The angels sang Amazing Grace,
The Lord came down and touched your face,
Then he whispered soft and low,
Come with me Gary, it's time to go.
So sad is the heart that loves you,
Silent the tears that fall,
Living life without you,
Gary,
Is the hardest part of all.
So find the softest pillow,
Lord,
To rest his head upon,
Put a kiss upon his cheek,
And tell him who it's from.
Because no matter how my life changes,
Or whatever I may do,
I will never forget all those special years,
The ones I had with you.
(All my love always Gary, Ann.)

A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by Mam and all the family.)

IN MEMORIAM

KEOHAN — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of Christy Keohan, late of 12, Western Terrace, Dungarvan, who died on August 14, 1992.

Put Your arms around him,
Lord,
And kiss his smiling face,
For he is very special,
And can never be replaced.
They say that time heals everything,
But I can't believe it's true,
For the ache in my heart is still the same,
As the day I lost you.
(From his loving wife Mary and son John.)

KEOHAN — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of Christy Keohan, late of 12, Western Terrace, Dungarvan, who died on August 14, 1992.

Away in the beautiful land,
with God,
In a valley of peace so fair,
Some day, some time, dear
father,
I will find you waiting there.
I will know your voice in the heavenly crowd,
And your steps on the streets of gold,
And the same sweet smile on your face,
I knew in the days of old.
Your memory is my greatest treasure,
Deep in my heart you will live forever.

(From his loving daughter Veronica, son-in-law Jerry and grandchildren.)

KEOHAN — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear father, Christy, Keohan, 12, Western Terrace, Dungarvan, who died on August 14, 1992.

Deirdre and grandchildren.)

KEOHAN — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear father, Christy Keohan, late of 12, Western Terrace, Dungarvan, who died on August 14, 1992.

A lot in life has altered,
A lot in life is new,
But the things that never alter,
Are memories of you.
It isn't what we write, it isn't what we say,
It's how we feel inside, when we think of you today.
Will those who think of him
today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Never forgotten by Eleanor,
Liam and grandchildren.)

LYONS — Seventh Anniversary — In loving memory of
Willie Lyons, late of Shandon Street, Dungarvan, who died

today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by his loving wife Sheila, relatives and friends.)

NAGLE — Eleventh Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear husband
Michael Nagle, late of 89
Bow Road, London and formerly Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, who died on August 16, 1986.

I lost my life's companion,
A life linked with my own,
And day by day I pray for you,
And I walk through life alone.
The house you left is lonely
now,
And I am lonely too,
Those left behind are good and kind,
But none replaces you.
To me you were so special,
What more is there to say,
Except I wish with all my heart,
That you were here today.
Will those who think of him
today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by his loving wife Bridie.)

NAGLE — Eleventh Anniversary — In loving memory of my
dear father Michael Nagle, late of 89 Bow Road, London and formerly Cathal Brugha Place,

gust 16, 1986.

Away in the beautiful land,
with God,
In a valley of peace so
fair,
Some day, some time, dear
father,
I will find you waiting there.
I will know your voice in the
heavenly crowd,
And your steps on the streets of gold,
And the same sweet smile
on your face,
I knew in the days of old.
Your memory is my greatest
treasure,
Deep in my heart you will
live forever.
Will those who think of him
today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by his loving daughter Joanne, son-in-law Tony and grandchildren Emma and Hannah.)

sary — In loving memory of my
dear father Michael Nagle, late
of 89 Bow Road, London and
formerly Cathal Brugha Place,
Dungarvan, who died on August 16, 1986.

A loving spray of memories,
Tied up with all our love,
Memories we will treasure,
Of the one we dearly loved.
In the centre of God's garden,
There is someone special
there,
That someone is our father,
The best beyond compare.
(Never forgotten by his son
Ritchie and grandchildren Tracey, Michael and Danny).

NAGLE — Eleventh Anniversary — In loving memory of our
dear father Michael Nagle, late
of 89 Bow Road, London and
formerly Cathal Brugha Place,
Dungarvan, who died on August 16, 1986.

God came and stood beside your bed,
He took your hand and gently said,
You've suffered enough, more than you can stand,
You'll come with me to a better land.
You had a smile for everyone,
You had a heart of gold,
You left the sweetest memories,
The world could ever hold.
(Lovingly remembered by his sons Pat, John, Christy, Stephen and Jimmy and daughters-in-law and grandchildren.)

NEEDHAM — Twenty-third Anniversary — In loving memory
of my father, Patrick Needham, late of 74, Murphy Place,
Abbeyside, who died August 13, 1974.

Like falling leaves the years go by,
But memories of you will never die,
Sunshine passes, shadows
fall,
But memories of you outlast them all.
(Sadly missed by your daughter Mary and granddaughter Tracy.)

NEEDHAM — Twenty-third Anniversary — In fond memory of my father, Patrick Needham, late of Murphy Place, Abbey-side, who died August 13, 1974.
R.I.P.

Quietly today your memory is kept,
No need for words we will never forget,
As thoughts go back as they often do,
We treasure the memories we have of you.
(Always remembered by your son Michael, daughter-in-law
Mary and grandchildren.)

O'BRIEN — Twenty-fifth Anniversary — In loving memory
of my dear mother, Mary
O'Brien, late of 11, Congress
Villas, Dungarvan, who died on August 17, 1972. R.I.P. Masses offered.

Happy memories keep forever,
Of days when we were all together,
Each of us in our own way,
Have special thoughts of you
today.
(Always remembered by your loving son John.)

O'BRIEN — Twenty-fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear mother, Mary
O'Brien, late of 11, Congress
Villas, Dungarvan, who died on August 17, 1972. R.I.P.
Masses offered.

I thought of you today,
Mam,
But that is nothing new,
I thought of you just yesterday,
And the day before that too.
I will think of you tomorrow,
As I will my whole life through,
For the day I fail to think of
you,
Is the day God takes me
too.
Our family chain is broken
now,
Nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The links shall join again.
Look around your garden,
Lord,
She won't be hard to find,
She has a face that's full of love,
And a face that always smiles.
Call her name out softly,
Lord,
And when she looks our way,
Tell her that I love her,
And miss her every day.
(Sadly missed and always remembered by your loving daughter Bridget, son-in-law
Liam and grandchildren
Jason, Marie and Jonathan.)

O'BRIEN — Twenty-fifth Anniversary — In loving memory
of my dear mother, Mary
O'Brien, late of 11, Congress
Villas, Dungarvan, who died
on August 17, 1972.

Your life was never selfish,
Mam,
For us alone you lived,
Not for what you received,
Only for what you could give.
Mam, you used to say to us,
You'll miss me when I'm gone,
Believe us Mam we never knew,
The pain would last so long.
For those who have a mother,
Love her while you may,
For we wish with all our hearts,
That ours was here today.
Will those who think of her
today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(From your daughter Philomena and son-in-law Micheal.)

O'BRIEN — Twenty-fifth Anniversary — In loving memory
of my dear mother, Mary
O'Brien, late of 11, Congress
Villas, Dungarvan, who died on August 17, 1972. R.I.P. Masses
offered.

You left us memories, Mam,
So lovely and true,
You made in our hearts
A room only for you.
We know you are with us
wherever we go,
You come and cheer us when we're feeling low,
We will never forget you,
Mam,
You'll always be near,
Your face it is mirrored.
In each dropping tear.
(Lovingly remembered by your son Christy, Noreen and grandchildren.)

O'BRIEN — Twenty-fifth Anniversary — In loving memory
of my dear mother, Mary
O'Brien, late of 11, Congress
Villas, Dungarvan, who died on August 17, 1972. R.I.P. Masses
offered.

I'd give the world if I could say,
I'm going to see my Mam
today,
To hear her voice and see her smile,
To sit and talk with her awhile.
To those who have a Mam,
Cherish her with care,
For I wish with all my heart,
That I had mine today.

(Loved and remembered always by your loving daughter Bernadette, John, grandchildren Ann Marie, Jonathan and Shane.)

O'CALLAGHAN — Twenty Second Anniversary — In sad memory of our loving son Dermot of Camglass, Knockanore,
who died on August 16, 1975.

Demot we looked in to your eyes
Hoping you would wake,
We prayed to God that this would be
Some awful bad mistake,
And when we touched your beautiful face
The way we used to do,
Your skin was soft, but oh so cold,
This nightmare was so true,
We held your hands so gentle
But you never held ours
back,
And then we kissed your face again
But you never kissed us
back,
A million thoughts went through our minds,
A million times we have cried,
A million times we asked the Lord,
Why our beautiful son died.
(Too dearly loved to be forgotten, Mam, Dad, brothers and sisters.)

This tribute of love to a brother so dear,
You are close to our hearts
Every day of the year,
A smile can hide the sadness,
A tear can be wiped away,
But the heartache of losing you Dermot,
Will never, never fade away.
(Lovingly remembered by Jean, James, Michael and Shane.)

O'FLYNN — Eighth Anniversary — In loving memory of Micheal O'Flynn, 22, Murphy Place, Abbeyside, who died
on August 15, 1989.

Eight years today the sad news came,
That our son Micheal had died,
And still the pain has never
gone,
And our tears have never dried.
Since then your Dad has joined you,
Now you're both with God above,
And your loved ones left to mourn you,
Send you our undying love.
(From your lonely Mam, brother Tomás, sisters Máire, Brid, Áine, Eileen and all your family and friends at home and overseas.)

POWER — First Anniversary
— In loving memory of my dear
father, Seamus, late of 19,
Mitchel Street, Dungarvan,
who died on August 13, 1996.

I'm proud I was your daughter,
I thought the world of you,
To me you were someone special,
You know I always loved you.
On that night there were no
farewells,
No time to say goodbye,
Our loss was oh so sudden,
Only God knows why.
Find the softest pillow, Lord,
To put his head upon,
Put a kiss upon his cheek,
And tell him who it's from.
Will those who think of him
today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Your daughter Alice.)

POWER — First Anniversary
— In loving memory of my dear
father, Seamus, late of 19,
Mitchel Street, Dungarvan,
who died on August 13, 1996.

Who ever said that sorrow was healed by time,
Could never have had a dad
like mine,
These words are written with sad regret,
From the heart of a daughter who could never forget.
No better dad this world could hold,
I miss you more than anyone knows,
As the year has passed the emptiness grows,
I miss you dad and always will.
Will those who think of him
today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Sadly missed and always remembered, from Ann-Marie and Robert.)

POWER — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear father, Seamus Power, late of 19, Mitchel Street, Dungarvan, who died on August 13, 1996.

The saddest thing in the world to bear,
Is to want your father and he's not there,
So with a sad heart I whisper low,
God bless you Dad I love you so.
I did not see you close your eyes,
I did not see you die,
All I heard was you were gone,
Without a last goodbye.
This last year without you,
Is the saddest I have known,
I treasure every thought of you,
When I am all alone.
I want to tell you something,
So there won't be any doubt,
You are so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to be without.
(Lovingly missed by your daughter Teresa and son-in-law Paul.)

POWER — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear husband Seamus, late of 19, Mitchel Street, Dungarvan, who died on August 13, 1996.

So many times I've needed you, Seamus,
So many times I've cried,
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
The hands of time keep turning,
A year just slipped away,
But your memories are my keepsake,
No one can take away.
(Always remembered by your loving wife, Peggy.)

POWER — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear father, Seamus Power, late of 19, Mitchel Street, Dungarvan, who died on August 13, 1996.

Dad, I know you've gone,
To a place not far away,
That special place is in my heart,
Where forever you will stay.
(Sadly missed by your loving daughter Noelle.)

POWER — First Anniversary — In loving memory of our dear father, Seamus Power, late of 19, Mitchel Street, Dungarvan, who died on August 13, 1996.

POWER — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear father, Seamus Power, late of 19, Mitchel Street, Dungarvan, who died on August 13, 1996.

Of all the gifts in life,
However great or small,
To have you as a father,
Was the greatest gift of all.
I often lie awake at night,
When the world is fast asleep,
I think about the dad I lost,
With tears upon my cheek.
I can't get over losing you,
No matter how I try,
The only thing I can hope right now,
Is that baby Sheridan is by your side.
(Always remembered by your loving daughter Eleanor.)

POWER — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear father, Seamus Power, late of 19, Mitchel Street, Dungarvan, who died on August 13, 1996.

The saddest thing in the world to bear,
Is to want your father and he's not there,
So with a sad heart I whisper low,
God bless you Dad I love you so.
I did not see you close your eyes,
I did not see you die,
All I heard was you were gone,
Without a last goodbye.
This last year without you,
Is the saddest I have known,
I treasure every thought of you,
When I am all alone.
I want to tell you something,
So there won't be any doubt,
You are so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to be without.

For every day in some small way,
We always think of you.

Someone kind and true,
You will never be forgotten,
For we thought the world of you.

Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me. TRIP TO CO. WESTMEATH
Yet again this was one of the best trips and it was tremendously enjoyed by all the club. On Friday evening 14 of us headed off on the bus with our bags and baggages for Cavan. On our way we yet again got caught on the roundabout, the very same one as the last time at the very same time. But our bus driver, excellent as she is, got us out of it in just a jiffy and we arrived in Cavan at 12.30.

On Saturday morning we headed for Co. Westmeath where the lads were playing the 7-a-side football and although the day was wet, the lads still put in their best effort. Out of 22 teams, the lads finished up fifth. They played to their best and did Waterford and Ballysaggart very proud. On Saturday night we headed back to Baileborough for the disco. Some were able for it, more weren't.

On Sunday we had a few sore heads but we eventually got everybody on the bus and headed back to Castlepollard to see the final between Wexford and Cavan and after a tough match, Cavan pulled through to victory. So to the football team, congratulations.

SCENES FROM SHINER'S HOLIDAY

Young Jonathan slowly boarded the horse drawn carriage that would lead him to Castle Sheehan. Several people ran as he got on board. Those who remained had a look of terror frozen on their faces. An elderly woman placed a crucifix around his neck. "Wear this at all times," she said, "it will protect you from all evil". Suddenly the carriage left for the castle. For the long journey all Jonathan could hear were the long howls of wolves in the dark. The fog around the carriage made it impossible to see anything.

"I say driver," Jonathan said, "how long more till we reach the castle?". There was no answer, just the sound of terrifying laughter. After what seemed like an age, the carriage stopped. The carriage door opened on its own and Jonathan stepped out. Again the sound of wolves crying. Suddenly the fog cleared and there in front of him was Castle Sheehan.

Jonathan slowly walked up to the castle doors. He was just about to knock, when suddenly the door opened. A fair haired thin man with a long cape and an ear-ring in his belly-button stood before him. "Welcome," he said, "I am Count Shiner. Enter freely of your will." Jonathan slowly entered the castle, the door slammed shut behind him. "My home is your home," said the Count. "Let me show you to your room," he said, "you will need to freshen up."

Later that evening as Jonathan was shaving, the Count entered his room. Again the wolves starting crying outside the castle. "Listen to them," said Count Shiner, "the children of the night, what sweet music they make." With this Jonathan let his blade slip and blood trickled from his neck. Count Shiner's eyes turned yellow. Blood, he thought to himself, I must have blood for the coming season or I will never keep my place in the side. He slowly walked towards Jonathan, fangs protruding from his mouth.

"Look into my eyes," he said, "you will now do as I tell you."

"Yes master," replied Jonathan, not realising he had even spots. Slowly Count Sheehan put his cape around Jonathan's head and slowly sank his teeth into the cut on his neck.

To be continued ..... (P.R.O.)

WEST WATERFORD GOLF CLUB NOTES

West Waterford Are Munster Champions

On Monday last 5 boys from West Waterford etched their names in the annals of the club when they brought the first Munster Championship penant back to the Brickey Valley.

In Castletroy Golf Club on Monday evening, the scene for the final was set when Nenagh beat favourites Limerick in the semi-final and were confident of victory against their less experienced opponents. Inter Provincial Alan Harty was first off against two handicapper Ronan Maher and in the space of 6 holes had stamped his authority on the match to be four up and clinched his match 4-3.

Meanwhile John Keane, playing steadily, was two up. David Morrissey, after a wretched start, was three down after three, fought on bravely but could not cut the deficit and was beaten on the 16th.

Mark Shanahan also got off to a poor start and was two down when he birdied 6th and 7th to draw level.

But some wayward shots over the narrow tree-lined Castletroy course brought him back to level again after 11. Stephen Walsh had a fine start and was two up after three but plugged the ball in the heavy rough and lost two holes in a row and though he fought on bravely, had to concede victory on the 16th.

John Keane stood on the 16th green three up but unfortunately three putted to lose the hole and on 17th had to look on hopelessly as his opponent (you guessed it) chipped into the hole for a birdie to bring the match down the 18th. At this time young Shanahan had fought his way back to be one up playing the 17th. Here again using every inch of the course, he came up short of the green and chipped strongly 25 ft. past while his opponent lay on the green in regulation. When Shanahan coolly stroked home his putt, his astonished opponent took three putts to lose the hole and the match. At precisely the same time young Keane was holing from 8 ft. for a par on 18 amid scenes of unparalleled excitement. The dream of a Munster penant had finally come true and West Waterford were into the All-Ireland finals in the City of Derry Golf Club on Wednesday next. Their opponents are the red-hot favourites, Shandon Park. Fielding three current Irish internationals but credentials mean little when you have the fighting spirit and the will to win that these boys have shown throughout the championship and we wish them well in their quest to change the colour of the penant from blue to green.

At the presentation ceremony, team captain and youth officer Pat Spratt complimented his team and their loyal band of supporters for making it one of the proudest days of his golfing life. "Picking the team", he said, "was easy when you have such a small panel".

LADIES GOLF CLUB NOTES

Michelle Mernin Captures Lady Captain's Prize

The lady members took to the fairways in great numbers at the weekend to play for the Lady Captain's Prize. Our captain, Bernie Hayes, together with her committee, had arrangements to perfection, together with superb weather conditions and the course at its best.

On Saturday the scoring was particularly high for Captain's Day with Michelle Mernin leading on a great score of 65, closely followed by Phil Donnelly on 68. Ben Conway was the other keen contender on 70 and six competitors on 71.

On Sunday a strong breeze developed making conditions a little tricky and many of the leaders fell by the wayside however Michelle kept up the momentum and proved an outstanding winner with a great score of 135 nett over the two days. Indeed it was a great achievement for Michelle, playing in her first captain's prize and in her acceptance speech, she thanked and complimented the Lady Captain on her magnificent prize. All lady members join me in thanking Bernie for a wonderful weekend.

The President's Prize to the ladies, kindly presented by Mr. Redmond Russell, will take place on Sunday, August 24th so make sure you mark this date on your golfing calendar.

THE WORLD ATHLETICS CHAMPIONSHIPS 1997

BY WILLIAM
DOWNING

The opening exchanges of the Athens athletics festival produced quite a lot of unexpected surprises with the shock failure of favourites allowing a new generation to shine. Maurice Greene and Marion Jones grabbed their opportunities with both hands earning themselves the prestigious 100m titles. There were surprise exits too in the womens 1500m and that was in Sonia O'Sullivan's favour.

MANIC MONDAY

- Monday, August 4th (Day 3) -

A day of discontent saw Australia's Cathy Freeman writing herself into the history books. She had already earned one milestone by becoming the first Aborigine to win a world title. Freeman only did it though by edging out Jamaican Sandie Richards and Jearl Miles-Clark of the United States (49.77, 49.79 and 49.90 respectively) in a close finish and celebrated by waving both the Australian and Aborigine flags. Her joy was shared by Stephane Diagana of France. Unlucky with injuries, he missed last year's Olympics but made up for it by winning the 400m Hurdles title beating promising South African youngster Llewelyn Herbert into 2nd.

Having almost slipped up earlier in the first round heats, Michael Johnson had no problems in qualifying for the 400m final - back on course for gold and one of a record four Americans in the decider. Despite being bettered by Britain's Denise Lewis in the later events, Sabine Braun did more than enough to bring another world crown back to Germany. Both Olympic champion Charles Austin and Ireland's Mark Mandy failed to qualify for the men's high jump final but David Matthews did have a lot to shout about by finishing 2nd in the 800m heats.

Overall it wasn't a happy day. Ireland's Niall Bruton failed to qualify for the 1500m final and immediately afterwards complained heavily about the level of grants using loads of interesting words and all live on television. These R.T.E. post-race interviews are almost like the "Rocky Horror show" or "TFI Friday" by now - anything can happen. And usually does. Having suffered the ultimate transport nightmare in Atlanta last year, the world's best now find themselves in the European chaos capital. There's even a scheme in Athens where only even registered cars are allowed on the streets on even-numbered days and odd-numbered cars the rest. That hasn't gone down too well, neither has the IAAF's decision to cut bars on drug cheats in half and as for all those empty seats .....

SUSAN SHINES BUT SONIA SLUMPS

- Tuesday, August 5th (Day 4) -

You've got to be up early in the morning to catch Susan Smith - 6.30 a.m. in fact. But for any early risers, it was more than worth it. The Waterford athlete shattered her Irish record to finish 2nd in her 400m Hurdles heat behind Kim Batten of the U.S. and this after leading for most of the race. Coming in just behind the defending World champion, Smith clocked up 54.61, a full half second inside her previous best. In fact going into last year 58.31 was her best time. Overall a terrific start for the Atlanta based hurdler.

"I just felt great. Every hurdle was spot on, I came off the 8th hurdle ahead of Kim Batten which is kind of a dream. I want to be in that final. I want to be there."

Sonia O'Sullivan had made it there, qualifying for the 1500m final sensibly in 4th place in her heat without stretching herself and with Svetlana Masterkova and Kelly Holmes falling to injury and poor form, things were looking good for the Cobh athlete. But controversy caught up with her again. If it turns out that 15 months ago she accidentally broke a mirror over a black cat while walking under a ladder, then it would explain her unbelievable luck. It all happened with 300m to go. Nineteen year old Swiss Annita Weyermann, in her first World Games, pushed her way between American Regina Jacobs and Swede Malin Ewerlov, Jacobs was forced outside in front of O'Sullivan who stumbled and tugged on Jacobs' vest. The American broke clear with 200m left, too early as it turned out as Portuguese Carla Sacramento surged through in the last 50 to win. Two years ago that would have been O'Sullivan. She was 3rd with those same 50m remaining but went backwards. That determined famous late kick of hers is now gone. Jacobs finished 2nd with Weyermann 3rd. A decelerating O'Sullivan pulled up and finished 8th. That should have been that but Jacobs wasn't happy and pushed the Corkonian as they were walking off the track. Battle-hardened reporter Tony O'Donoghue (from now on to be known as Trackside Tony) was right there. What Sonia was saying was totally laudable, then went and ruined her argument when the Swiss Miss passed: "It's a bit ridiculous. It's a sport at the end of the day and people are going to start acting like that then I mean ... (points finger) It was her fault !! She should have been disqualified !!" Over on the B.B.C., a calmer Dave Moorcroft was in total agreement. "I think she's dead lucky. That was way beyond normal aggression," he said of Weyermann.

Jacobs herself was in similar mood to O'Sullivan who she blamed for everything. "Obviously I was angry that she did that. In the moment I felt it was very intentional. I'm on the medals stand and she's not so ne-ne-ne-ne-neh !!" More juvenile than a 6 year old's sack race.

In more sensible competition, Michael Johnson romped to the 400m title in a final of four Americans, three Britons and one Ugandan, Davis Kamoga who took silver. Sally Barsosi set a new world junior record in winning the women's 10000m, Cuban Ivan Pedroso took the men's long jump with his very first effort while a thrilling javelin final was won by South African outsider Marius Corbett. Britain's Steve Backley claimed silver with his final throw, knocking room-mate Mick Hill out of the medals. It must have been fun when Backley got home that night.

Of the other Irish, Peter Coughlan was 6th in the 110m Hurdles with David Matthews 8th in his 800m second round heat.

SUSAN SHINES AGAIN

- Wednesday, August 5th (Day 5) -

By virtue of finishing 2nd in yesterday's first round with the 4th fastest time, Susan Smith found herself in lane three in today's 400m Hurdles Semi-Final and again the best athlete to come out of Waterford since John Treacy didn't disappoint.

Second fastest out of the blocks, she was first to rise at the first hurdle and increased her pace just past halfway. It was this kick, developed during her 400m flat running, which put her 3rd into the finishing straight. Kim Batten took the semi-final honours in 53.67 secs., Ukrainian Tatyana Tereshchuck came in 2nd with Debbie Paris of Jamaica pipping Susan for 3rd though they were both credited with 54.72. Though she was laid out with exhaustion in the tunnel - a training tip picked up from her father - she got up immediately to speak to the press afterwards, a nice touch as not many would do this. "I've had a lot of things set me back this year, I pulled my hamstring, I was out for a little while. I never didn't think I could do this. After all my setbacks, I did it like I knew I could," was her immediate reaction to qualifying for the final. Quite simply a magnificent achievement for the 27 year old.

Moroccan Nezha Bidouane won the 2nd semi in a new African record time 53.48. At 22, Hicham El Guerrouj is the new king of the metric mile. The Moroccan sped away from the almost legendary Nouredine Morceli with 100 metres of the 1500m remaining. World record holder Morceli, who has dominated the event since 1991, could only finish 4th behind Fermin Cacho of Spain and Belgium's Patrick Stevens.

Africa continues to dominate the longer distances - Ethiopian Haile Gebreselassie retained the mens 10000m while Kenya had a clean sweep in the Steeplechase. Gold here was claimed by Wilson Bauyt Kipketer.

Cuba's excellent games got better thanks to Javier Sotomayor's high jump success. This event saw a world record with a difference as Britain's Dalton Grant chose to enter the competition at 2.32m, nobody's tried that before. He came 4th.

There were mixed emotions for Gary Ryan of Nenagh in the 200m as he equalled the Irish record of 20.69 in finishing 2nd in the first round heats but came 8th and last in round two. The heats also saw a wobble from top American Jon Drummond who almost lost balance and toppled out of his lane. In balancing himself, he slowed down and just scraped 3rd, barely getting into the next round.

IT DOESN'T RAIN .....

- Thursday, August 7th (Day 6) -

Things just keep getting worse for beleaguered Sonia O'Sullivan. After Tuesday's 1500m final, she was in need of a pick-me-up. The 5000m was the event in which the Cobh runner won gold at the 1995 World Championships - it was the first running of the distance and so she became the first World Champion of the 5000m.

The first semi-final went to Gabriela Szabo of Romania in 15:26.63. It was a speedy semi as most of the entrants were bunched together and when Valerie Vaughan crossed the line 30 secs. after Szabo, she claimed 14th spot. And so to the second semi-final. The first six and the three fastest losers to go through. Fernando Ribeiro of Portugal set a brisk pace throughout with the field stretching out as a result. Chasing the runners-up of '95 was a group of five, with O'Sullivan trailing behind in 9th and nowhere. Ribeiro, having run in the 10000m twice already, took it easy for the last couple of laps coming home in 15:27.32. The main attacking bunch stayed together and came in together. Those were the six qualifiers. The focus now was on the time of the 9th athlete in the first semi-final 15:36.16 belonging to Australian Karen Anderson.

O'Sullivan stormed forward in the last lap crossing the line in 7th. The time was all-important. 15:40.82 - four seconds too slow. Her championships were over. "I did a lot of hard work and I did it because I love it. I accept there is something wrong. I just don't know what it is," was the former champion's post-race reaction.

The consensus is that she has run herself into the ground. In a bid to get race-fit, she has done too much and gone too far. It looks that way. She has reportedly increased her training far beyond the call of duty since Atlanta and is suffering as a result.

Running back to her hotel after the race wasn't a good idea unless she wanted to avoid the traffic. On the 9 p.m. News Trackside Tony wondered if she was getting bad advice, concluding that she can't keep running away from her problems.

Allen Johnson only needed 12.93 secs. to retain his 100m Hurdles title, the fastest time in the world this year, only two hundredths of a second outside the world record of Colin Jackson who finished 2nd.

New Zealand won their first ever world gold due to Beatrice Faumina's women's discus success while 4ft 11in. Annarita Sidoti of Italy became the shortest World champion ever in winning the 10000m Walk.

Sally Gunnell announced her retirement having picked up an injury in the heats of the 400m Hurdles with former Olympic Javelin champion Tessa Sanderson doing likewise. The first drugs story of the Games cropped up too. Ukrainian Aleksander Bayach was stripped of his shot putt gold medal for testing positive for ephedrine. Instead of the traditional four year ban, he was publicly warned by the IAAF. Standards are falling .....

SEVENTH HEAVEN

- Friday, August 8th (Day 7) -

The last two runnings of the women's 400m Hurdles Final had produced world records for Sally Gunnell in 1993 and Kim Batten in 1995. The final of 1997 was Susan Smith's stage. On the turn into the final straight, Deon Hemmings of Jamaica was shading it from world record holder Batten with the Waterfordian in joint 4th alongside Nezha Bidouane of Morocco. Hemmings, the Olympic champion, cleared the final hurdle comfortably in the lead but as soon as Bidouane had taken out Batten, her sights were firmly on gold. The Moroccan edged ahead 5m from home to claim an unlikely and quite fantastic world crown in another new African record of 52.97. Hemmings was in 2nd with Batten 3rd and Susan Smith in her first World Championship Final finished 7th. Her time of 55.25, though her slowest of the Games, was still inside her pre-Championship personal best with Smith once more breaking the pain barrier.

"Before I came here, my season's best was 55.26 so I even bettered that. I'm thrilled. I ran three good races. I really am very proud of what I did. I hope next year at the Europeans I will be in contention."

From an Irish point of view, Susan Smith has provided the feel-good factor in these championships and has another big date on August 14th when she marries American law student Ryan Walsh in Waterford. They met at college in the States.

Triple jump world record holder Jonathan Edwards won Britain their 4th silver medal with a leap of 17.69, 16cm short of Cuban Yoelvis Quesada. It's only the second time that a country has executed a clean sweep of all the men's jumping titles; the U.S.A. did it in 1991 with Carl Lewis, Kenny Harrison and Charles Austin. In the 200m finals, Zhanna Pintuzevich of the Ukraine and Trinidad's Ato Boldon found that their time had finally arrived. Pintuzevich, pipped by Marion Jones in the 100m, clocked up 22.32 with Boldon's time of victory 20.04.

The smiling Wilson Kipketer, originally from Kenya but now running for Denmark, retained his 800m crown and immediately set his sights on the world record of 1:41.73 - shared by himself and Sebastian Coe.

Ireland's Mark Carroll meanwhile finished 14th in his 5000m semi-final.

JAPANESE WIN AS HISTORY REPEATED

- Saturday, August 9th (Day 8) -

In 490 B.C. the Athenian army defeated the huge Persian army in a major bloody battle. To announce the Athenians' victory, one of the soldiers, Pheidippides was sent back to Athens to spread the word. Running the 24 miles or so, he informed the Athens Council of what had happened, collapsed of exhaustion and died. In honour of this and in memory of the battle that gave the race its name, both marathons at these Games began at Marathon and passed the Tomb of the Marathon Warriors. Hiromi Sukuzi of Japan earned an emphatic victory by storming home in a course record of 2 hours 29 mins. 48 secs. Defending champion Manuela Machado of Portugal finished second with third position falling to Lidia Simon of Romania who had got physically sick during the race having drunk something that disagreed with them. With a terrific performance in 23rd was S4C newsreader Angharad Mair. Her third marathon lasted 2 hours, 42 mins. Well done and nos dach.

The Sonia-less Women's 5000m Final was won by 21 year old Romania sensation Gabriella Szabo, pipping Italian Roberta Brunet and Fernando Ribeiro of Portugal in a tight finish. Long time leader Paula Radcliffe came in 4th.

Third in the Barcelona Olympics, Ana Quirot was lucky to escape with her life when a kerosene cooker at her home exploded, causing her potentially fatal burns. While fighting for her life in hospital, she gave birth prematurely to a daughter who survived just one week. Her comeback began when she promised one of her hospital visitors, Fidel Castro that she would run again for Cuba. Quirot retained her 800m title in Athens in emphatic style, overtaking Mozambique's Maria Mutola in the final straight. Mutola didn't even get second being edged down to third by Russian Yelena Afanasyeva.

The home support during these Games has been terrific. The latest Greek to be cheered on was Niki Xanthou in the Women's Long Jump, though lamentably her nearest rivals were all jeered. Xanthou finished second to Lyudmila Galkina of Russia. In the mens 4 x 100m Relay, the U.S.A. dropped out because of a poor baton change in the quarter-finals, just as they did in Gothenburg. Ireland meanwhile notched up a new national record of 39.46 finishing 7th.

BUBKA STILL ON A HIGH

- Sunday, August 10th (Day 9) -

The championships ended without the hoped-for World Record which would have earned £100,000 for whoever broke a record.

Sergei Bubka is still top of the world, winning his 6th Pole Vault world title. In fact he has collected all the pole vault world titles which have been contested - 6.01m the latest championship winning vault.

Daniel Komen is the newest Kenyan sensation taking the 5000m title in 13:07.38. Khalid Boulami was 2 secs. back in runner-up spot. The only non-African to win this world title is Eamonn Coughlan, back in Helsinki in 1983.

Another drugs shock saw Russian Olimpiada Ivanova stripped of her 10000m walk silver medal. She tested positive for Stanazol.

The United States were tested all the way by Britain in a thrilling 4 x 400m Relay Final pipping them by eighteen hundredths of a second 2:56.47 to 2:56.65.

Though they won no golds, it was a good day for Britain who earned a bronze in the mens 4 x 100m behind Canada and Nigeria.

For Ireland, it's the first summer since 1991 in which medals have not been won but with Susan Smith covering herself in glory, perhaps the 1998 European Championships will provide more joy.

MINOR FOOTBALL

This Wednesday evening we take on Ardmore in the minor football championship. The game will be played at the Cappoquin venue, time 6.30 p.m. All players to be at the C.B.S. at 6.30 p.m.

UNDER-16 HURLING

In the under-16 hurling we were beaten by Lismore last week.

MINOR HURLING

This was a game of high drama — it had everything, near misses, soft scores, a below par performance for 48 minutes — then a few switches (at this stage we were six points down), Bert went to centre forward, Jamie to centre field and Buddy to full forward. Pride, guts, commitment started to come through, this 10 minutes was not for the weak hearted — there was power hurling and with Alan Harty's unerring free taking the points were going over until the final 75 yard free which Alan, with a wet heavy ball, put straight between the uprights and Dungarvan lived to fight another day.

Final score Dungarvan 0-11 Abbeyside 2-5.

What a game, what a draw, congratulations lads, well done. The replay will take place on Tuesday, August 19 at the Fraher Field at 6.30 p.m.

We would like to apologise to all our supporters who went to the Fraher Field last Wednesday night thinking the game was on there. It was late in the afternoon when we were made aware of the change of venue. We apologise to anyone who was inconvenienced, but the matter was entirely beyond our control. Many thanks to all who made the journey to Touraneena, it was well rewarded.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

On Sunday evening last at the Fraher Field we came to grips with Ring in the quarter final of the senior football championship. Played in ideal weather conditions this was not a good game of football, and if we are to advance further we must get down to serious training and give greater commitment. Remember we have as good a chance as anyone of the other teams, so now it's up to the players. We have drawn Stradbally in the semi final. Final score Dungarvan 1-13 Ring 2-7.

UNDER-13 HURLING

We played our final league game in the under 13 hurling championship at our club grounds on Friday last when we were comprehensively beaten by Ballyduff. However, our previous two wins in this competition had ensured our qualification for the knock out stages.

DRAW

We had no luck in the Deise Draw last week. The next draw will take place on September 2. Anyone with scratch cards please return same to your promoter without delay.

SYMPATHY

On behalf of the club we extend our deepest sympathy to the Mansfield and O'Riordan families on the recent death of Martin Mansfield. Ar dheis De go raibh a anam.

ATHLETICS

BY RACE LEADER

BALLYMACARBRY FIVE MILES ROAD RACE

Record Entry Despite The Rain

Despite the incessant rain over the bank holiday weekend the Ballymacarbry Five Miles Road Race followed the trend of all the races in the Ger Wyley Sports Summer Road Racing Series this year with a record entry of 87 runners.

It was also probably the highest standard race this summer with quality entries in many categories, especially in the men's vets section.

The race almost produced a surprise result when the unheralded Matt Flannelly (nephew of former All-Ireland hurling star Mick) from United Striders, set a scorching pace from the start and he in fact led until the four miles mark where he was caught by the eventual winner James Sullivan.

The Waterford runner went on to win by ten seconds in 25 mins. 30 secs., the exact time he recorded when winning the East Cork Oil Dromana Five Miles event in July. Old reliables Pat Heffernan (St. Catherines) and Martin Drake (East Cork) finished third and fourth respectively and these two are having a rare old battle in the Summer Series with only two points separating them at present.

In the ladies race, Geraldine Guiry recorded her first win since the Cunnigar race with come-back athlete KCK's Rose Doherty running a fine race in second spot and it's good to see her back in action again.

The first local for the second race in a row was young William Harty and his times continue to improve with a clocking of 27.51 on this occasion. He was the first junior to finish in twelfth place overall.

Despite the flooded conditions on the road and through the wood, finishing times did not suffer, which shows the quality of the popular course which was very well organised by the race committee. The prizes were presented by local sporting personality Michael Ryan, Oriel Bar at an enjoyable social evening in the Oriel Bar.

GER WYLEY SPORTS SUMMER SERIES

Michael Wade Leads Div. II

The seventy plus participants in the West Waterford Athletic Club's summer road racing series received an unseasonal wetting in Ballymacarbry over the Bank Holiday weekend. The five miles race there was the sixth race in the series following which a further thirteen runners now appear in the league table.

It's as you were in the three first divisions with Waterford A.C. runners James Sullivan, Tom Burns and Geraldine Guiry heading their categories. In fact James Sullivan has the series won overall as following last week's race he has recorded five wins from five outings which at this stage cannot be equalled or bettered.

Michael Wade (West Waterford) leads Div. two in the under 40 grade at present. Michael, from Portlaw, is a loyal supporter of all the races on the calendar and he hasn't missed an event in the series to date. He is currently on 149 pts, well clear of Ray Burke (179), Tony O'Mahoney (207) and series sponsor Ger Wyley (255).

The other league tables currently look as follows:

Under 40 — 1, James Sullivan (5 pts), 2, Martin Drake (-2 pts), 3, Pat Heffernan (0 pts), 4, John Walsh (34 pts), 5, John Bennett (58 pts), 6, William Harty (72 pts), 7, Thomas Bennett (100 pts), 8, Martin McCarthy (117 pts), 8, Ger Flanagan (117 pts), 10, Bobby Coady (138 pts).

Over 40 — 1, Tom Burns (16 pts), 2, Pat Dempsey (61 pts), 3, Anthony Harty (76 pts), 4, Colin Lyons (90 pts), 5, Noel Shortis (115 pts), 6, Maurice Boland (136 pts), 7, Anthony Dwyer (164 pts), 8, Martin Sandford (186 pts), 9, Connie Kelleher (200 pts), 10, Tony Shalloe (249 pts).

Ladies — 1, Geraldine Guiry (271 pts), 2, Hilary Collins (347 pts).

Ballysaggart Open Handicap Race This Friday

Ballysaggart brothers John and Thomas Bennett, participants in their local six mile road racing event this Friday.

Promoted by the Ballysaggart Festival Committee and organised by West Waterford Athletic Club, the Ballysaggart six miles open handicap road race takes place this Friday at 7.30 p.m.

To all the runners on the local athletic scene, Ballysaggart is the home of the West Waterford runners the Bennett family who are great supporters of all events near and wide. This Friday affords us the opportunity to repay part of that support and in the process enjoy a different type of event which is the first of its type in Waterford and to the best of our knowledge the first road race ever to be held in Ballysaggart.

This is a race that anybody can win and for the vast majority of runners probably the only race that they might win for the rest of their careers. So Ballysaggart is the place to be this Friday evening. Entries will be taken from 6.30 p.m. at the G.A.A. field where changing facilities will be available. Refreshments will be served there after the race. Prizes will be presented to the first fifteen runners over the finish line and they will be presented at Meagher's Ballyvera Bar after the race where musical entertainment will be provided.

First Ten Local Runners To Start — Paddy Lannen (56.18), Dan Dineen (55.24), Siobhan O'Mahoney (51.36), Tommy Keniry (50.42), Rebecca Harty (46.48), Seamus O Droma (46.30), Trevor Gould (46.18), Michael Bennett (45.36), Frank Bolger (44.54) and Bridget Hynes (44.18).

Last Ten Local Runners To Start — Timmy Foley (35.36), Joe Kelly (35.18), Colin Lyons (35.06), Anthony Harty (34.54), John Bennett (34.00), Michael Barrett (33.54), Alan Ryan (33.42), Michael Roche (33.36), William Harty (33.24), Thomas Bennett (33.24).

Susan Smith Is Seventh In The World

Hands up anybody who is seventh in the world in their chosen sport? That cherished distinction belongs to Waterford's 400 metres hurdler Susan Smith following her exciting exploits at last week's World Track and Field Championships in Athens.

The Waterford girl travelled to the championship hoping to consolidate and improve on her form at the Atlanta Olympics where she qualified for the semi-final of the 400 metres hurdles. In her first outing Susan broke her Irish record when finishing second to the American Kim Batton in a time of 54.61 seconds. Two days later she moved her career along one step forward when she finished fourth in the semi-final in 54.72 seconds to qualify her for her first major championship final. She was given the same finishing time as the third placed finisher and was allotted lane seven for the final last Friday evening.

In the highest quality race of its kind in the world, Susan Smith gave of her best and got the best out of herself to finish seventh in a time of 55.25 seconds. In a few short days in Athens she had established herself as among the best in the world, she set a new Irish record and she gained great confidence for the future with the European Championships beckoning next year.

Susan is back in action this Sunday following her midweek wedding when she leads her club Waterford AC in the finals of the Mazda National Track and Field Leagues in Tullamore. In the earlier rounds she scored many points for their team when she facilitated her club in competing in as many events as requested ahead of her departure to Athens.

K.C.K. Athletes Win Further Irish Titles

Hot on the heels of their four Irish title wins at the recent Irish Juvenile Championships recently, KCK athletes won further Irish championships in Waterford the weekend before last.

Niamh Cummins added to her growing list of Irish titles when she won the u/15 combined events with 2443 points from E. Flannery (Portumna) 2331 pts. and S. Kelly (Portumna) 2309 pts.

KCK's Helen Reilly (Bonmahon) cleared a very respectable height of 1 metre 41 cms to win the Irish u/15 high jump title.

Fermoy 5 Mile Race

Grange-Fermoy AC will hold their annual 5 mile road race on this Sunday, August 17 at 7 p.m. Changing facilities at Fermoy Swimming Pool. Further details from Bernard Collins at 025/32907.

Youghal 4 Mile Race

The Youghal 4 mile road race takes place on Thursday, August 21 at 7.30 p.m. Further details from Tim Twomey at 024-92285.

SONIA SUFFERS

Despite a fairly promising start in her two first races in the 1500 metres, Sonia O'Sullivan's form slumped again as in Atlanta which shows us now that all is still not right with the former world champion. It's no doubt tough going for her at present but hopefully she can recover in time and relive some of her former glories in the seasons ahead.

WATERFORD GIRLS FINISH THIRD

The county u/12 girls team of Edel Morrissey, Claire Cashin, Claire O'Sullivan (all KCK) and Aileen Barron and Tracey Shalloe (both Ring/Old Parish) finished third in the All-Ireland combined event championship recently.

Waterford Teams In National League Finals

Good luck to Waterford Athletic Club's men's and women's teams who have qualified for this Sunday's Mazda National Track and Field League finals in Tullamore. The ladies team will be led by the world ranked Susan Smith and they should figure among the leading contenders.

International Win For KCK Athletes

The Celtic International Games between Ireland, Scotland and Wales were held in Newport, Wales last Saturday. The Irish under-15 girls team won the 4x100 metres relay and included on the team were the KCK athletes Eibhlís Ahearne and Niamh Cummins. This is a major achievement for both girls and they are among the very few of local juvenile athletes that have experienced international success over the years.

The girls enjoyed further success in their individual events with Eibhlís finishing second in the 200 metres where she was just pipped for first place, while Niamh also finished second in the 75 metres hurdles.

De La Salle athlete Mary Dalton finished fourth in the under-15 javelin.

Sandra Clancy Wins All Ireland Medal

Dungarvan AC athlete, Sandra Clancy won the silver medal in the All-Ireland under-18 combined events championships in Waterford recently. The event was won by E. Egan (Bree) on 3338 pts. The Dungarvan girl scored 2928 points and O'Flannery (Portumna) was third on 2545 points.

De La Salle athletes John Windle and Eoin McGrath were third in the u/16 and u/17 combined events respectively.

James Sullivan Digs Deep

Waterford runner James Sullivan recovered from a fifty metres deficit after the five miles mark to retain the Paddy Flanagan Cup in the Waterford Crystal Waterford to Tramore Road Race last Sunday. Full report next week.

KCK ATHLETIC CLUB NOTES

BRILLIANT PERFORMANCES FROM NIAMH CUMMINS AND AILISH AHEARNE IN WALES

Niamh and Ailish got their first international vests on Saturday last as members of the Irish team competing in the Celtic Games in Spyth Park Athletic Stadium in Newport, Wales and both girls did their club, county and country proud with brilliant performances.

Niamh was first into action in the girls under-15 75 metre hurdles and had a great battle with the Welsh girl whom she matched stride for stride and came home a very good second, with Scotland third and Ulster fourth.

Ailish Ahearne had a super run in the girls under-18 200, leading in the home straight and was in hard luck to be caught on the line by Megan Foceth of Wales.

Both girls teamed up with Sara Kelly, Galway and Zeta Murphy in the girls under-15 4x100 relay.

So well done to Ailish and Niamh who can compete with the best in their own age groups and this is a great boost for a young club which was only formed in September 1990.

On the home front, club athletes had a great day at Middleton Open Sports, taking home a large amount of trophies in the individual events. The club also put out seven relay teams and all but one made the medals — girls under-8 (first), girls u-9 (third), girls u-10 (third), boys u-10 (second and third), boys u-12 (third) and girls u-12 (fifth, after dropping the baton).

Full results next week.

American Race Night For Injured Jockeys Fund

Improvements Announced By Directors Of W & T Racecourse Ltd.

Racegoers, trainers, sponsors and horses are all set to benefit from improvements announced by the directors of W & T Racecourse Ltd. New operators of the Waterford and Tramore race-track, changes which will all be in place for the track's upcoming August Festival meeting (August 14th - 17th), the first under the course's new ownership and management.

The public will be able to appreciate a new entrance, complete refurbishment of bar and restaurant facilities including a doubling of the bar area, improved viewing of both parade ring and saddling boxes and a new ramp access for wheelchair racegoers. Those involved in the industry will benefit from a new saddling box complex, increased parade ring capacity and new veterinary boxes and facilities. A new hard standing area has been created which will cater for a 2000 capacity marquee while safety enhancements include provision for all cabling on the complex to be underground.

Safety is also a major feature of the planned second phase development at Waterford and Tramore which will feature alterations and improvements to the track itself, increasing the circuit length to allow cambering and smoothing of the bends.

A committed sponsorship drive by the directors has resulted in added prize money for every race at the 4 day festival while local media personality Eddie Wymberly will provide added colour, comping and conducting informal post-race interviews.

The directors of Waterford and Tramore are upbeat about next month's meeting. Director Karl Casey, a spokesman for the group, commented:

"We are looking forward to the meeting next month with a great deal of optimism and are confident that the changes made and those scheduled will be immensely beneficial without in any way diminishing the character of the track and its August Holiday Festival."

CHAMPIONSHIP FIXTURES

The following are the championship fixtures made at a recent Western Board meeting.

Junior Football — Clashmore v. Ballinacourty 'A'.
Minor Football — Clashmore v. An Gaeltacht. Minor Hurling — Clashmore v. St. Olivers. Junior Hurling League Final — Clashmore v. Lismore.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL

On this Saturday night we play the first round of the intermediate football championship against Brickey Rangers in the Fraher Field at 7.30 p.m. Preparation for this game has not been great due to the involvement in the hurling championship and due to a large number of the panel being out of the country on holidays. For the last two years we have qualified for the Western final, but defeat has been our lot on both occasions. This year we hope to go one better and win the title.

This year's championship is on a knockout basis so we only get one bite of the cherry. Once again I urge all our supporters to come out in force on Saturday night and cheer the lads on.

MINOR FOOTBALL

We play the Western semi final on this Wednesday night in Ardmore against An Gaeltacht. As this is our first game in the championship it is hard to gauge our team. Having seen An Gaeltacht in action in the first round I am sure they will provide formidable opposition in this game. Throw in time 7.30 p.m. sharp.

MINOR HURLING

We played the Western semi final on last Wednesday night in Old Parish against St. Olivers. In very wet underfoot conditions we started very slowly and left St. Olivers dictate the game for the first 10 minutes. We gradually came more into the game and led at half time on the score Clashmore 1-3 St. Olivers 0-3.

The second half was completely different and Clashmore took control from the throw in and the game as a contest was over after 10 minutes of the second half. Final score Clashmore 6-8 St. Olivers 1-4.

Team — Gerry O'Rourke, Pa Troy, Noel McGrath, Shane Allen, Karl O'Keefe, Donal McGrath, Ed. Beresford, Mark Power, Stephen Barron, David O'Keefe, Roger Ryan, Brian Dunne and Tomas Burke. Subs. used — Michael Cliffe for Mark Power; Barry Dunne for Tomas Burke.

Scorers — Declan O'Keefe 2-1, Brian Dunne 2-2, Stephen Barron 0-2, Ed. Beresford 0-3 and Barry Dunne 2-0.

Man of the match was Pa Troy.

We now await the winners of Colligan and Stradbally in the other semi final to see who our opponents are in the Western final.

LOTTO

No winner of last week's jackpot. Numbers drawn were 4, 8, 14, 18. £10 each to the following — Jim Bailey, Aglis, Mary Power, Aglis, Cian Shalloe, Ballygury, Patrick Walsh (058) 62147 and Pad Collins, Clashmore.

Jackpot next week £1,900. Draw in The Old Still on Saturday at 11 p.m.

JUNIOR HURLING

League final v. Lismore in Cappoquin on Friday, August 22 at 7 p.m. sharp.

JUVENILE G.A.A. CLUB NOTES

Football Training — Training for under 14's, 12's and 10's recommences on Saturday at 11.30 a.m.

Girls Football — Clashmore 7-19 Kilrossanty 2-4. We played our best football of the year in this game and got good scores and dominated from start to finish. Thursday night we play Kilmacthomas in Clashmore and a win here should see us through to the county final.

Ardmore G.A.A. Club Notes

GREAT VICTORY FOR ARDMORE INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALLERS

Ardmore 2-9 Sliabh gCua 1-8

Our Intermediate footballers confounded the experts when they carried out a great win over favourites Sliabh gCua on Saturday evening last. This win puts us into the semi-final of the championship. Our preparation was, to a large extent, disjointed due to many and varied reasons but the players put all of this behind them and were focussed on the job they had to do.

Both sides were evenly matched throughout but our better team work saw us getting some good scores in the first half which ended with Kevin Lenane finishing a great move after being set up by Eoin Flavin for our first half goal which had us 4 pts. in front at the half-time break. The disappointing feature was that four of their first half scores came from basic mistakes by us which could have cost us the game and will have to be cut out for future games.

In the second half our lads continued to play good football and when the need was greatest, they were not found wanting as Sliabh gCua closed the gap. We had a let off midway through the half when a rather dubious penalty was missed but we were not as lucky second time round when our defenders allowed a quick free to be taken and the resultant goal brought Sliabh gCua right back into contention. Our lads however did not die and they continued to press forward and were rewarded when Eoin Flavin crashed home our second goal at the second attempt and this score allowed us to re-organise for the last few minutes and when we added an insurance point, it was enough to secure a famous victory full of character and which put a little pride back into the team.

It is now, of course, up to the players where they go from here as although it was a marvellous win, there were many areas where we will have to improve upon if we are to progress further but I am sure that with everyone's co-operation we can achieve better fitness and discipline levels as sometimes lack of concentration due to tiredness caused us to argue when we should know better and an improvement in fitness will help us to concentrate better and therefore eliminate the need to argue.

Our team was Seamus Prendergast, Patrick Gallagher, Eamonn Power, Maurice Hennessey, Anthony Aherne, Michael Supple, Nicky Keating, Kevin Flavin (0-2), Anthony Sullivan (0-1), Cathal Hennessey, Johnny Hennessey (capt.) (0-1), Kevin Lenane (1-2), Eoin Flavin (1-0), Seamus Veale (0-1), Tony Keane (0-2). Sub: Declan Hennessey for T. Keane, Killian McCarthy, Pat Walsh, Glen Moloney, Tomas Power.

The referee was Tom Mansfield from Affane and it was nice to see that Tom had his own umpires with him and as no side is ever happy with all decisions. Tom, who is one of the new referees, is to be complimented as are Affane who keep producing referees which the game cannot do without.

LOTTO - NO WINNER AGAIN

The numbers drawn were 10, 12, 15. Once again our punters failed to get the right combination which means our jackpot rises again next week. The numbers drawn were 10, 12, 15 and we had the following consolation prize winners -

Pat O'Shea, Ardmore; Johnny Carlton, Monea; Joan and Breda Hennessey, Ardmore.

We would like to thank Aidan and his staff at The Round Tower Hotel for their hospitality on the night. Next week's draw takes place at Paddy Macs Bar and as usual tickets can be purchased from all the local outlets as well as from the club's regular sellers.

BEST WISHES

We hope that Ladies Football Coach, Michelle Power has recovered from the hand injury she received in training last week. Our secretary informs me that she was well looked after by the local doctor and that she will be in charge of training as usual this week which is great for the girls as they are improving all the time under her tuition.

ON COUNTY DUTY

Once again Mary O'Donnell has been to the fore with Waterford ladies at both under-16 and minor level as well as senior level and Mary now has an extremely busy few weeks ahead as all three teams have advanced to the next rounds of their respective championships and could yet appear in three All-Irelands which would be a fantastic achievement. We wish the ladies continued success.

JUVENILE AFFAIRS

Our under-16 hurlers have qualified for the semi-finals of this competition even though they suffered a 1 pt. defeat by Cappoquin on Friday evening last. This was a good game in which the star was the Cappoquin 'keeper' so if we can defeat An Gaeltacht, we may have another chance at Cappoquin. I have no match details so we will report when we get them.

MINOR FOOTBALL

Our minor footballers face a tough semi-final contest when they take on Dungarvan in Cappoquin tonight (Wednesday). Their divisional title will be on the line and I am sure our mentors will be hoping for a good display as Dungarvan will be very hard to beat and having scored 5-6 in their first round win our defenders will have to be on their toes. We wish the lads the best as they try to qualify for the Divisional Final. Throw in 7.30 p.m.

UNDER-13 HURLING

We have only played one game in this and having recorded a win, we still do not know what is happening with this competition as there has been a large number of withdrawals.

UNDER-10 AND

UNDER-12 TRAINING

All juvenile under-10 and under-12 football players are asked to come to the field on Thursday at 6.30 p.m. for training for these championships which begin shortly.

A TALE OF TWO MANAGERS

There is no hiding my admiration for Kilkenny nor my envy of their ability to take full advantage of any situation where their craft and pride and self belief are tested. Last Sunday fortnight was the latest example of what they can do when dire straits left them nine points adrift of Galway at half time with just 35 minutes left to salvage the last of the Cats' nine lives. I don't know what their manager, Nicky Brennan said to them at half time or how precisely he utilised those precious 10 minutes. Certainly he wasted no time uttering inane clichés about his team having as many bones in their bodies as the Galway lads, nor did he call for more use of ash. I rather fancy that he was calm and positive pointing out that they hadn't played badly but needed to up the tempo, that they didn't deserve to be nine points in arrears. He surely stressed the need to attack the ball in every area of the field in a more determined focused fashion from the restart, point every opportunity, that there was no need for anxiety or panic as they had 35 wind-assisted minutes to do it. They got a reminder that this game offered neither team a back door, that all the training, all the hard work ideally prepared them for this moment of truth when their match practice would see them through against a team sipping its first taste of 1997 hurling.

I know Nicky Brennan for many years and his Kerry wife Mairead who live in Conahy. He is a very genuine chap with high standards in his professional life as an executive of Avonmore Creameries and his uprightness in his dealings with people. He has brought those qualities of honesty and sincerity to the position of manager of the Kilkenny senior hurling team and his integrity is unquestioned. We know how insistent he is on discipline and how he suffers fools neither gladly nor patiently.

What surprised me this year was how long it took him to settle his team. His indecision about the goalkeeper is still unresolved and Ronan in my view is not a better choice than Dermody. Pat O'Neill at full back always seemed to be to be a case of wishful thinking, or trying to make a square peg fit into a round hole. Perhaps he thought when throwing the no. 3 jersey to Pat that a good hurler can play anywhere. But then Pat O'Neill has always played centre back, all his hurling days since I first laid eyes on him as a 12 year old with Gowran. I remember a great game in the county under 12 championship between Graigue/Ballycallan and Gowran. O'Neill at centre back marking Ronan with the sparks flying. D. J. Carey was there too, in the Gowran jersey but at that stage Ronan was the star attraction, the main source of scores, and at the same time very egocentric with an attitude problem. Even in those early years Pat seemed to have the physical requirements for the full back position but not once do I recall any jersey on him but no. 6. Pat is still comparatively young and may one day be the man who will stand in front of the goalie at the edge of the square but not yet. Luckily for Nicky Brennan Pat was in his old familiar position against Galway whose big strong centre forward wasn't allowed to dictate matters after the early exchanges. Of course the movements of the Galway centre forward, whose main play was to try catching the air ball, were greatly curtailed in the second half.

Nicky Brennan learned from the Leinster final experience of the necessity to select only fit players. In the Leinster decider John Power was at centre forward still not fully recovered from the affects of a hamstring injury. Any player who experiences pulling a hamstring muscle knows how extremely difficult is it to quantify the healing time and it is so easy for a player's strong desire to play to overcome any reluctance to jeopardise his team's chances by fielding out in a less-than-match-fit condition. There are too many examples of allowing the heart to rule the head in this matter and a short time ago on T na G we watched one of the great Kerry/Dublin All Irelands where a Dublin player's foolish decision to play cost his side dearly. I refer to Kevin Moran who despite pulling a hamstring some days before the final strapped up his thigh and took his place at centre back. Dublin did very well over the first quarter of the game but the immobility of Moran when it came to covering and chasing his marker, Ogie Moran, led to the concession of one goal and was a significant factor in the exchanges which led to the infamous Mikey Sheehy chipped goal from the close in free. Kevin Moran struggled painfully to get back to a through ball and Paddy Mullins knowing that Kevin wouldn't reach the ball in time, dashed out to save but clashed (for the second time that afternoon) with Ger Power. You know the rest. Kevin Heffernan erred in fielding the unfit Moran. Had a fit man worn the no. 6 shirt, and Fran Ryder was a worthy choice for it, perhaps the game would have gone differently and Dublin emerged victorious. An unfit man in a vital position, centre back and centre forward, are key areas — hamstrings (if you'll pardon the pun) the whole team.

Bringing on John Power in Thurles was more positive than selecting an unfit Power for the Wexford match and having to take the negative step of withdrawing him after 35 minutes or less. Of course it very much depends on the type of injury. A small niggling injury, to a finger or hand for instance, in no way inhibits the otherwise fit player. The muscle or ligament injury is slow. Injuries such as a slipped disc are fine in a very short time once an expert in that field deals with them. In 1963 I was crippled completely and unexpectedly by disc trouble and visited Jimmy Heffernan at his home in Drangan outside Fethard, Co. Tipperary. Going up to him I was bent over and in pain. After a few moments of manipulation by Jimmy's gifted hands I could stand perfectly straight and he promised me that the pain would disappear in two days. That was Tuesday and Waterford had a tournament game with Cork at Buttevant on the following Sunday. "Do you think could I play next Sunday Jim?" "Oh yes, but don't go crashing into any forwards or you could unsettle the disc again". Well of all days I never had such a busy time because Waterford had a very weakened team. Not that I took the initiative against red-jerseyed forwards. Rather was it that they came in waves to visit me bumping and thumping and occasionally flattening. Nothing vicious or mean-spirited, just the inevitable consequences of a poor defence and all most enjoyable. From which you will rightly deduct that I had one of my better outings. Better still the disc never moved.

Cyril Farrell has worked tirelessly for Galway hurling over very many years and without him the All Ireland victories of 1987 and 1988 might not have been a reality. A very personable fellow, Cyril is infectiously enthusiastic about hurling, Galway hurling in particular. His pride in his native county is very clear. Once more after a few years absence he is again in charge of the Galway senior hurling team and his record in the role entitles us to expect that Galway will be a major player in the All Ireland stakes over the next few years.

My friendship with him, however, will never inhibit me from expressing a wholesome disenchantment with his hurling philosophy. I just don't agree with Cyril's obsession with the possession game, nor with his strong emphasis on handling to the almost total exclusion of simpler more direct hurling. Cyril's theory is that you control the game more effectively if you get the ball in hand and only play it to pass or score. Hence the proliferation of Galway solo runs. Which would be fine if it were possible to guarantee opposition devoid of pace, guile or craft. Intelligent opponents with a coach committed to a more varied type of play can cope with that one-dimensional approach and so the 1986 and 1990 Cork teams overcame talented Galway teams who failed to match their scoring rate. Despite their great speed and ball carrying ability Galway's shooting was sub-standard. Joe Cooney's non stop running in 1990 wrecked Jim Cashman but for all his massive superiority in the first half Joe never gave Galway a lead commensurate with it. For the second half, and in the final 15 minutes in particular, Joe looked completely burned out, at a time when he might profitably have run at the Cork backs (the Cork forwards did this to the Galway defence over the closing period) and secured winning scores. Galway had one very direct forward, Noel Lane, who would have capitalised on early low ball. Instead he had to endure the role of spectator for much of the game while Cooney, Naughton, McGrath and Cunningham and Eanna Ryan ran and ran expending massive amounts of energy and missing more scores than they got.

In 1990 too Farrell dropped Conor Hayes figuring that Jimmy Barry Murphy would expose the full back so he placed Sylvie Linnane at full back, a position Sylvie hadn't filled before for his county. The experiment failed because Sylvie didn't strike the ball once in the 70 minutes, got possession on one occasion and had room only to kick the ball clear. He adopted a negative role all that afternoon and, for such a good hurler, did nothing for his team, nor derived any enjoyment from the game. Cyril hasn't changed. This year he dropped Tom Helebert, right full back and current All Star, the outstanding defender in last year's semi final, a man for the big occasion. He put last year's successful full back Brian Feeney in the left full position and gave the full back jersey to Willie Burke. So he had what was virtually a new full back line which put pressure on the half back line in front and the goalie behind. Padraic Kelly was omitted from the half back line. When the polished constructive attack-minded Kelly came on in the second half he made a big difference.

Of course, it was unfortunate for Cyril that he had no meaningful championship match to discover his mistakes and also that he had no second chance such as Kilkenny had. All he had was a charade dignified by the description Connacht final which cost him his main target man, Joe Rabbitte the victim of a harsh assault by a player whose subsequent one year suspension was totally inadequate.

Bringing on a clearly unfit Michael Coleman seriously lacking match practice was a bad decision. It was not that Michael did not try, of course he did and always does. Rather was it a case of the weak flesh failing to match the ever-willing spirit. He reminded me of John Power in the Leinster final, more shadow than substance. Cyril should have learned from Nicky's mistake. Nicky Brennan proved himself the more astute manager. This time. How I wish for Galway's sake that Cyril would promote a more expansive game, give a greater share of training time to shooting practice and the simple basic skills and get a better mix of those skills rather than an over emphasis on running. Perhaps he will and then with the abundance of fine young talent at his disposal the West will indeed be awake once more. Is maith an scealai an aimsir.

LADIES FOOTBALL NEWS

Munster Junior Title For Waterford Ladies

WATERFORD 3-11 LIMERICK 1-8

Waterford added the Munster junior crown to the senior and under 16 titles at Bansha on Sunday last when they convincingly defeated Limerick. Playing a good brand of football they were always in control and were worthy winners.

It will bring back sweet memories for June Whyte and Ann Dunford, who played on the team that won this particular title in 1986.

Limerick started brightly with Carmel Collins pointing in the 2nd minute. They looked dangerous but June Whyte marshalled the Waterford defence and Sinead Kirwan equalised in the 9th minute.

Monica Power and Carolyn Ahearn added points before Helen McMahon pointed a Limerick free in the 19th minute. Two minutes later Waterford scored their first goal. There seemed little danger when Breda Morrissey won possession near the corner flag, she passed to Lorena Mooney who found Sinead Kirwan twenty yards out and she placed the ball beyond the diving Limerick keeper.

In the 24th minute Breda Morrissey knocked the ball into the path of Paula Walsh who beat the keeper from close range. Sinead Kirwan added a point and Waterford led at half time 2-4 to 0-2.

Again Limerick started the half well with two Helen McMahon points but the defence was exposed when Breda Morrissey beat the keeper to punch the ball home. Paula Walsh pointed but Helen McMahon kept Limerick in touch with two points.

Carmel Kirby, sister of inter county player Gary, who was present at the match, goaled in the 40th minute, 3-5 to 1-6 but Waterford recovered as Monica Power and Lorena Mooney (free) pointed. Helen McMahon was on target with a Limerick free and Monica Power, Carolyn Ahearn, Paula Walsh and Sinead Kirwan tacked on further Waterford points with Limerick's lone reply coming from Carmel Collins and Waterford were worthy winners by a nine point margin.

They now face Longford in the All Ireland semi final and are in with every chance. They had outstanding performers in Bridget Hannigan, June Whyte, Sinead and Tanya Kirwan whilst the attack was far too good for the Limerick defence.

Waterford — N. Hearne, B. Hannigan, J. Whyte (capt.), D. Nugent, T. Whyte, H. Fitzpatrick, A. Dunford, T. Kirwan, S. Kirwan (1-3), P. Walsh (1-2), C. Ahearn (0-2), M. Troy, B. Morrissey (1-0), L. Mooney (0-1), M. Power (0-3). Sub. — A. Walsh.

UNDER-16 ALL IRELAND SEMI FINAL

Under-16's Qualify For All Ireland Final

WATERFORD 6-11 LONGFORD 5-4

Waterford overcame a strong Longford challenge at Stradbally, Co. Laois on Saturday evening and qualified for their third successive All Ireland final. Longford came into this game with impressive credentials having won a good Leinster championship but Waterford's experience proved too much for them.

The Decies girls got a tonic start as Annette Raheer blocked down the goalkeepers clearance and the ball crossed the goal-line. Aine Ryan added a point before Longford struck a purple patch and by the 20th minute led 3-2 to 1-2, Waterford's second point coming from Angie Walsh. Aine Ryan scored a point and Noeleen Crowley got through for a crucial goal in the 22nd minute.

Niamh Barry pointed a free and as the half came to a close, Annette Raheer shot her second goal and Waterford turned a six point deficit into a two point interval lead, 3-4 to 3-2.

The first score of the second half fell to Waterford, a Noeleen Crowley point. In the 48th minute Longford keeper Carmel Kearney, who had a brilliant game, left Tanya Kirwan's lobbing ball slip through her fingers into the net. Longford were in trouble as Niamh Barry scored two goals in a minute either side of an Aine Ryan point. Annette Raheer and Julie Keane shot points and in the 48th minute Waterford led 6-8 to 3-2.

Fiona Blessington's 49th minute point was Longford's first score in 29 minutes, but Aine Ryan, Annette Raheer and Noeleen Crowley completed Waterford's tally with 3 points.

Longford, who promised so much in the first half, did score a couple of consolation goals, but were beaten by a better all round team.

Next on the list is Monaghan in the final, a repeat of the 1995 under 14 final which Monaghan won. They beat a very strong Mayo side 5-8 to 3-13 in the semi final.

Waterford — L. Mulhearn, B. Hannigan, M. Troy, C. Fitzgerald, A. Morrissey, T. Kirwan (1-0), D. Power, M. O'Donnell, M. Walsh, N. Barry (2-1), A. Walsh (0-1), J. Keane (0-1), A. Ryan (0-4), N. Crowley (1-2), A. Raheer (2-2). Subs. — K. Lannen, S. Flynn, L. Prendergast.

MINORS PLAY CLARE IN MUNSTER FINAL

This Thursday evening Waterford play Clare at Cappoquin (7.15 p.m.) in the Munster minor final. Marion Troy, Tanya Kirwan, Angie Walsh and Bridget Hannigan will be attempting a treble having played on last week's successful under 16 and junior teams. Clare are a very formidable side and will take a lot of beating.

SHAMROCKS G.A.A. CLUB NOTES

INTERMEDIATE WESTERN FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

On Saturday evening we meet Lismore in the first round at Tallow and we will be hoping to do better than last year, when we were beaten by the same opposition. Throw in at 7.30 p.m. and all players to be at the venue not later than 7 p.m.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIP

In the semi final we are drawn against Ring and this game will take place at Cappoquin on September 7 and again we were beaten by the same opposition last year, so an all out effort by everybody will have to be made if we hope to reach the final.

UNDER-16 WESTERN HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP DIV. 3

On Monday evening we were at home to Brickey Rangers in the last of the 1st rounds. Result will appear next week.

RETURN OF JIM O'MEARA

During the past week we had Jim O'Meara visiting the area. Jim was one of the top class players helping the St. Patrick's team, which won hurling championship honours in 1947. He is domiciled in Australia with a number of years and was unable to travel on the occasion of the celebrations during the May Bank Holiday weekend. When coming last week with his wife he really looked fit and a reception was held in his honour at Knockanore on last Sunday night which was attended by a number of his former comrades and a presentation was made to him on behalf of the Shamrocks club. We wish him many more years of health down under with his wife.

SYMPATHY

The reception on Sunday night was tinged with sadness when word came through of the death of John O'Brien, Shanakill, Aghlish, who was also a member of the 1947 team, and we extend deepest sympathy to his wife and family. Ar dheis De go raibh a anam.

VIDEO TAPES

Video tapes of the Shamrocks celebrations in honour of the 1947 and 1972 victories and the opening of the John F. Kennedy pitch at Knockanore are now on sale and can be had from Ann O'Keefe, Secretary.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congrats' to our minor hurlers who were assisting Tallow in the Western 'A' semi final against Lismore at Cappoquin on Wednesday evening of last week where they had a good win.

WESTERN MINOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

DERBY CLASSIC

ABBEYSIDE 2-5 DUNGARVAN 0-11

Any hurling supporter present at Kirwan Park, Touraneena on Wednesday evening last will certainly testify that they witnessed a local derby encounter of truly classic proportions. Both teams have been the keenest of rivals at under-12, 14 and 16 levels with Dungarvan having the upper hand throughout those years.

LOW SCORING

The Villagers started best but throughout the first half they squandered score after score both from play and placed balls. Alan Harty opened the account for Dungarvan with a point in the 11th minute and followed this 2 minutes later when he pointed a 65, his accuracy from placed balls was crucial to Dungarvan over the hour.

From my vantage point I was in the midst of supporters from both clubs who anxiously studied each of his strokes and his excellent strike rate (7 out of 9) was sportingly acknowledged by the Abbeyside followers throughout.

Brendan Mansfield and Gary Hurney pegged the score back to 0-2 each before Harty from a free and Graham Nagle from play ensured that the 'Boro' lead at the break by 0-4 to 0-2.

CONFUSION

On the turnover Abbeyside were awarded a 65 which John Paul Keohane duly pointed but his effort was disallowed as debate raged as to the exact location of the 65 metre line. He retook the 65 from seemingly the same position but the ball sailed wide of the post.

Minutes later the Villagers were awarded another 65 when the Dungarvan goal keeper Paul Ahearne was judged to have stepped outside the 13 metre line for the puck-out. Paul Landy landed a point from the resultant 65.

A shot from Abbeyside substitute Ronan McCarthy was well saved by Paul Ahearne and put out for a 65 which was struck by Landy to level the scores 0-4 each. Alan Harty edged the 'Old Boro' ahead but the hard working James Hayes pointed to level the scores at 0-5 each.

PHYSIOLOGICAL

Abbeyside dominated the exchanges up to the 3rd quarter and it was generally acknowledged that a goal for either side would be the deciding factor.

That goal came for Abbeyside from the hurley of Ronan McCarthy, 1-5 to 0-5 and within a minute Brendan Mansfield hammered home a 2nd, 2-5 to 0-5.

This left Dungarvan with a 6 point deficit with 10 minutes to go and certainly the proverbial hill to climb.

However Abbeyside had not reckoned on the grit and determination of this 'Boro' fifteen who immediately set about their task showing marvellous spirit and character.

The Dungarvan fight-back commenced immediately with 2 points from placed balls by Alan Harty. The lion-hearted Bert Ahearne reduced the deficit to 3 points before Jamie Burke and Graham Nagle both of whom hurled well over the hour, added points to leave the score at 2-5 to 0-10.

Dungarvan were now laying siege on the Village goal and they were certainly putting it up to the boys from "across the Bridge". The Abbeyside defence was resolute however with Sheamo Burns, Brian Hayes, John Phelan and Joe Walsh repelling several late attacks.

THE EQUALISER

Alan Harty provided the equaliser in the 60th minute when his free from approximately 75 yards went straight between the posts for the all important score and when referee J. M. Kelly sounded the final whistle seconds later, the relief was palliative for both sides and there was open admiration to all concerned for providing such a thriller and, of course, the replay was already being looked forward to.

THE OVERVIEW

There was widespread disappointment locally that the game was moved from Fraher Field, a factor which I am sure cost the Board financially as the crowd in Touraneena was considerably less than expected.

It was our first visit to Kirwan Park since it was officially opened and the development work and investment in the grounds is excellent.

Dungarvan are a sharp outfit, they showed great character and had good performers in Alan Harty, Owen Sheridan, Alan Radley and Brian Shanahan who was solid in the no. 6 position throughout.

Jason O'Mahoney and Bert

Ahearne ran themselves into the ground at midfield while Alan Harty's contribution was immeasurable. A physically strong forward division worked hard over the hour with Graham Nagle, Jamie Burke, Diarmuid Keating and Mickey Power impressing.

Abbeyside's full back line were always busy. Mickey 'Do' Kiely, J. P. Keohane and Eamon Cashin hurled well. James Hayes provided good support at midfield with Gary Hurney. In all, Abbeyside tried 9 players in attack over the hour, all of whom had their moments.

KEY INGREDIENT

The game had all but one of the ingredients of a thrilling local derby game — thrills, skills, heart, end to end action, but the missing factor the Fraher Field was a big minus. Hopefully it will be different on next Tuesday.

Abbeyside — S. Burns, B. Hayes, J. Phelan, J. Walsh, M. Kiely, J. P. Keohane, E. Cashin, E. Hayes, J. Hayes (0-1), D. O'Dee, G. Hurney (0-1), P. Veale, R. Cliffe, B. Mansfield (1-1), P. Landy (0-2). Sub. — R. McCarthy (1-0) for R. Cliffe.

Dungarvan — Paul Ahearne, Alan Harty, Owen Sheridan, John Flynn, Paul Radley, Brian Shanahan, Eamon Morrissey, Bert Ahearne (0-1), Jason O'Mahoney, Graham Nagle (0-2), Jamie Burke (0-1), Mickey Power, Diarmuid Keating, Donie Kelleher, Alan Harty (0-7).

Referee — John Michael Kelly (Shamrocks).

RESULTS

SENIOR HURLING LEAGUE

Mount Sion 1-13 Ballygunner 1-13

This tremendously exciting league semi-final attracted a big crowd to Walsh Park on Friday evening last. The teams were level on 4 occasions and Mount Sion were 5 pts. (1-13 to 0-9) ahead at half-time. It took a splendid Paul Flynn goal in the 58th min. followed by a Liam Whitty point to help the county champions to a share of the spoils.

Mount Sion scorers: K. McGrath (0-7), B. Browne (1-1), D. Power (0-2), J. Meaney (0-1), Jimmy Meaney (0-1), G. Gater (0-1).

Ballygunner scorers: P. Flynn (1-6), D. Fitzpatrick (0-2), B. O'Sullivan (0-1), F. Hartley (0-1), C. Sweeney (0-1), T. Fives (0-1), L. Whitty (0-1).

The replay is fixed for this Thursday evening at Walsh Park.

MINOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP B

There were good wins for Clashmore who defeated St. Olivers by a whopping 6-8 to 1-4 and in the other first rounder, Stradbally just managed a narrow 1 pt. victory over An Gaeltacht.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL RESULTS

Ardmore 2-9 Sliabh gCua 1-8

In this game at Fraher Field on Saturday evening, a much improved Ardmore team surprised Sliabh gCua who were having their first championship game since coming back down to the intermediate grade. The game is reported in the club notes.

Ballinameela 0-8 Emmetts 0-5

The Colligan/Emmetts combination looked to be on their way to victory in this tie until a late resurgence by the regraded Ballinameela brought about a late victory in this Junior Football Championship tie which was a curtain-raiser to the above on Saturday evening.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Modeligo 1-15 Geraldines 0-6

The Cappoquin Sportsfield Notes will tell the story of this game which saw the current junior champions score a victory in their first game at intermediate level.

INTER-CLUB GOLF

The 5th annual golf inter club championship takes place over the coming weekend at the West Waterford Golf Course. The scores of the best three from each four-man/woman team will count in giving a result.

Dunhill are the current holders having won from an increased entry last year. Brickeys were the first winners of this popular competition and it was also won by Geraldines and Colligan teams.

All registered GAA club teams are eligible to compete. There is a nominal charge of £1.

Clare Double

There seems to have been an amount of local rejoicing when Clare scored a decisive victory over Kilkenny who came by the backdoor into the All-Ireland senior hurling semi-final at Croke Park on Sunday last. Obviously it would have been a tragedy if the Munster champions were defeated by the Leinster runners-up.

Clare made history by scoring their first ever championship double against Kilkenny as they also won the minor hurling semi-final which was the very entertaining curtain-raiser.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

KILROSSANTY (B) 2-7 MELLERAY 1-2

At Cappoquin on Friday evening Kilrossanty's third team proved too strong for Melleray when they ran out 8 point winners. Kilrossanty led at half time by 1-2 to 1-1 but got well on top in the second period adding 1-5 to their first half tally while restricting Melleray to a single point. Referee — E. Cunningham, Tallow.

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to County Bord na nOg P.R.O. Catherine Tuohy of the Clonea Club on the death of her father Ciaran Kelly, Coolmahorna, Carrick-on-Suir, who passed to his eternal reward last week.

Interesting Intermediate Hurling And Football Games Listed

On the senior club scene the coming weekend will be described as the calm before the storm as on the following weekend it will be championship action all the way to the finish.

In the meantime, the divisional boards are availing of the venues and dates to make as much progress as possible with their competitions. The coming five or six days will see them advance with the intermediate and minor championships in particular and a few games in the league as well.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Dungarvan v. Stradbally
The death of the President of the Stradbally club, the late James Phelan, caused the postponement of this first round tie and now it will attract a very good crowd to Fraher Field on Sunday evening.

Dungarvan, relegated from senior championship status this year, will be organising themselves for a campaign that will see them return to the top grade and will be strongly fancied to take their first step on the road back when they line out on Sunday next.

Stradbally, having beaten the champions Rathgormack in the championship, were expected to concentrate on football, but I was reliably told by an officer of their club that two evenings after their football victory, the players were in full training for the hurling. This indicates that they will take their game against Dungarvan very seriously. I believe that no matter how seriously they prepare for it, they are unlikely to succeed here on Sunday.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL

Two games are down for decision and both will be played on Saturday evening.

Clashmore v. Brickeys
Since they opted to come back down this grade from senior over two years ago, Clashmore have been giving signals that they were going to win their way back up to the top grade again, but in the two championships in which they have played something went wrong with the signals, just when success looked to be within their grasp. Now that the championship has reverted to a knockout system, things could change in their favour as they will have less matches to play.

Last year Brickey Rangers did a lot of hard training, but had nothing to show for it in the end. Their best display of the season was against Lismore who defeated them by a single point. Lismore in turn went close enough to beating the eventual county champions, Ring, so the Brickeys standards cannot be all that bad.

They may not win here, but they will certainly make it very hard for Clashmore to get through to the semi final.

Lismore v. Shamrocks
I have written several times that Shamrocks are the club who have been 'knocking at the door' of this championship for longer than most and I don't know just how many times their efforts have been thwarted by sheer hard luck.

Last year they fared disappointingly and scored only one victory in the league style championship. In fact it is fair to say that if last year's form runs true for both Lismore and Shamrocks, than the 'door knocking' will continue a little longer for the Knockanore based side. Having given such outstanding service to the county teams over a good number of years, it would be a great pity to see men like Liam Dalton, Dan Casey and others having no reward on the club championship front.

Lismore, who are synonymous with hurling, as everyone knows well, have recently been making an impact in football and many observers claim that they are quite capable of winning an intermediate title in the grade, if they take the game a bit more seriously. I was told this by a colleague who saw them beat next Saturday's opponents, Shamrocks, by 2-12 to 1-7 in last year's championship. In all the circumstances, Lismore must be given the vote here.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Faha v. Ballyduff

Faha, who are back down in the junior grade after a couple of short years back in intermediate are scheduled to play Ballyduff in what is a very interesting junior football championship tie over the coming weekend. Ballyduff had a number of good victories last year, notably against Modeligo against whom they scored 5-7 to 0-9 before Modeligo won the county junior title. They also had a worthwhile win over Seana Phobal, so they will not be easily beaten, even if Faha improve on their poor league form.

Junior Football League Finals

Both the division 1 and 2 football league finals will be decided over the coming weekend.

At Leamybrien on Friday evening, Kilrossanty will play hosts to Sliabh gCua for the replay of their game in division 1.

In division 2 of the league, Ballinacourty 'A' team will take on the Nire at Touraneena on Saturday evening.

Fraher Field Unplayable?

The announcement on Wednesday of last week that Fraher Field was unplayable because of waterlogging and that the minor hurling game involving Abbeyside and Dungarvan, as well as the minor hurling B match between Stradbally and An Gaeltacht would have to be moved to other venues, angered quite a lot of people who were not slow in letting their feelings known to board members on the matter.

The decision is believed to have been made by a member of the field committee in the early afternoon, after which the Board Secretary found alternative venues. A very experienced colleague who inspected the pitch on Wednesday afternoon confirmed that the field was playable. In any case it is difficult to understand how every other venue in the division was playable on the same date. The Board Officers have made it clear that they were in no way responsible for the decision which was entirely a field committee matter.

The local game between Abbeyside and Dungarvan was moved to Touraneena and the other match to the Colligan venue. The other minor game on the same evening between Tallow and Lismore was played in Cappoquin. On the previous evening two matches were played in the Ballyduff field and again there were no problems.

Cork v. Wexford At Fraher Field

The GAC has fixed the All-Ireland under-21 hurling semi-final involving Cork and Wexford for the Fraher Field and it will be played on September 7. This will be the first really high profile championship match to be fixed for the Dungarvan venue since it was redeveloped and I feel that Jimmy O'Gorman, who is a member of the national fixtures board, must have had a say in fixing the game for the venue.

This will be a match to tax the capacity of the ground (which is limited to about 10,000) including seated accommodation in the stand.

During this week, both counties had a "trial spin" in that they were accommodated by the county board for a challenge game in order to get the feel of the field.

I also understand that Cork and Kilkenny will meet in the Fraher Field in the intermediate All-Ireland semi-final. This will be another big occasion for the ground and a boost for the coffers of the Fraher Field funds.

Tonight's Games

The semi-finals in both the A and B minor football championships will be played on this Wednesday evening. The venues are included on our fixture list.

In the 'A' games Dungarvan will play Ardmore and Kilrossanty will meet Stradbally. In the 'B' semi-finals Clashmore will play An Gaeltacht and Brickeys meet Kilgobinet.

MINOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

ABBEYSIDE V. DUNGARVAN

The replay of their thrilling drawn match at Touraneena will take place at the Fraher Field on next Tuesday evening and if the standard of hurling is as good as in the drawn match, it will be a contest well worth seeing.

COLLIGAN V. STRADBALLY

This is the semi-final of the minor 'B' championship and it will be played at the Fraher Field on Wednesday of next week. The winners will meet Clashmore in the final.

Tallow Minors Too Good

Tallow 4-17, Lismore 1-4

This was Tallow's most comprehensive victory over neighbours Lismore in the minor hurling championship in a very long time and by all accounts it heralds a change in leadership at underage level. An account of the game can be read in the club notes.

De La Salle Cause Surprise

DE LA SALLE 1-11 LISMORE 0-12

De La Salle caused a surprise when they had a 2 pts. win over championship quarter-finalists Lismore in the semi-final of the Waterford Senior Hurling League at Fraher Field last evening. It was a deserved win for the city side who trailed by a point 0-9 to 1-5 at half-time, the goal coming from full forward Mark Kennedy in the 11th min. when he blasted a 20 metre free to the net. The sides were level twice in the opening half and a point from Dan Shanahan on the stroke of half-time gave Lismore the narrow half-time advantage.

The sides exchanged points in the opening 4 mins. of the second half before Gerry Brenner levelled the game in the 35th min. with Derek McGrath putting De La Salle ahead in the 37th min. a lead they never relinquished. The score of the game came in the 40th min. when De La Salle full-back Keith Cashin pointed from his own 45 metre line.

De La Salle: S. Brennar, P. Fanning, K. Cashin (0-1), T. Clooney, J. Walsh, E. Dunphy, B. Power, A. Kelly, G. Brennar (0-2), D. McGrath

(0-3), J. Brennar, F. O'Brien (0-1), D. Duggan, M. Kennedy (1-3), B. Phelan (0-1). Subs: O. Phelan for F. O'Brien.

Lismore: B. Landers, M. O'Sullivan, D. Barry, A. Whelan, B. Crowley, S. Prendergast, Mark O'Sullivan, J. O'Connor, J. Daly (0-2), D. Bennett (0-4), D. Shanahan (0-2), P. Prendergast, B. ## Senior Football Championship

DUNGARVAN BEAT
OFF SPIRITED RING CHALLENGE

DUNGARVAN 1-13 RING 2-7

After 14 mins. of the first half, Dungarvan, who were the hot favourites to win this tie, were a clear 6 pts. ahead and without reply and must have missed enough chances to have them a further 6 pts. ahead before Ring decided to wake up and challenge the favourites.

Overall the game, although entertaining, could not compare with the one which followed and the performance of Dungarvan did little to enhance their chances of beating Stradbally in the semi-final unless they show considerable improvement.

They played with a strong breeze in the opening half and had points by John Power (2), David Burke, Derek Lyons, Owen Cunningham and J. J. Ferncombe before Ring opened with a Carthach Mac Craith point from a free in the 22nd min. Carthach made it 2 for Ring in the 24th and Michael O'Domhnaill made it three before P.P. Ferncombe, who came on as a sub after a 6 months lay off through injury, pointed a free with his first touch of the ball in the 28th min. It was then 0-7 to 0-3 and this was the half-time score in favour of Dungarvan.

SECOND HALF

Ring improved their game quite a lot in the second half and after 10 mins. only 2 pts. lay between the teams.

Carthach Mac Craith pointed a free in the 34th min. and John Power, from play, brought one back in the 35th. Morrie Ferncombe had a point before Seamie McGrath raced through for the first goal of the game after some good play by Tomás Maher in the 41st min. (0-9 to 1-4). But from the kick out Dungarvan attacked and a John Power goal within the next minute proved a setback for the expected Ring resurgence in the 42nd min. There was an exchange of points between Kieran Curran and Michael O'Domhnaill and Owen Cunningham and Eugene Curran. Darragh Breathnach pointed in the 54th min. to leave the state of play at 1-11 to 1-7. Points by Morrie and J. J. Ferncombe put Dungarvan 6 pts. ahead before Ring were awarded a penalty just on the 60th min. and which was shot to the net by Carthach Mac Craith to leave just a goal between the teams at the finish.

Dungarvan: C. McGregor, D. Lyons (0-1), D. Dee, T. McGovern, T. Galvin, N. Considine, K. Curran (0-1), Derek Lyons, D. Burke (0-1), D. Callaghan, O. Cunningham (0-2), S. Power (1-3), S. Burke, J. J. Ferncombe (0-2), M. Ferncombe (0-2). Subs: P. P. Ferncombe (0-1) for J. Burke, H. McGrath for J. Power.

Ring: T. O Cadhla, L. Murray, L. Curran, E. White, S. McGrath (1-0), S. Curran, T. Maher, L. Drohan, D. Breathnach (0-1), M. O'Domhnaill (0-2), C. Breathnach, N. Mac Craith, E. Curran (0-1), E. Crotty, C. Mac Craith (1-3). Sub: C. Murray for S. McGrath.

Referee: Robbie O'Neill (Ferrybank).

Nire Survive Strong
Kilrossanty Challenge

NIRE 3-9 KILROSSANTY 0-14

This was one of the better football games played at this side of the Mahon so far this season and the second half in particular produced some very exciting passages of football on both sides.

It was to an extent a game of two halves and for a while in the first half, it looked very much as if both the halves would belong to the Comeragh team who opened in brilliant fashion and played a type of football that seemed to bewilder the Niremen, who apart from their goal, could only manage a single point from a free before the half time whistle.

In the second half the Nire got their game together and within ten minutes they were on level terms and contributing their share to a thrilling contest.

A notable feature of the match was that a total of 14 players shared in the scoring.

PLAY

Kilrossanty had the breeze in their favour and set up a couple of attacks that yielded nothing before Niall O'Connor opened the scoring with a very good point in the 7th min. Michael Guiry replied with a Nire point from a free in the 9th minute (amazingly they were to score 2 goals before their next point was scored in the 35th minute).

Brian Kirwan had a point from play in the 10th minute and the fact that they had points by Colin Dee, 11th minute, Jacko Kiely 13th, Niall O'Connor 15th, Colin Dee and Pat Brazil in the 16th and 17th minutes, gave a clear illustration of the complete dominance by Kilrossanty for the first 20 minutes. They were certainly calling the tune and the Nire, who started favourites, were playing second fiddle up to this point. It was 0-7 to 0-1 in favour of Kilrossanty when a ball kicked in by Tony Condon was helped into the net by Kevin Mulcahy for the Nire's first goal. This might have been a score to cool the nerves of the men from the north of the county, but it was Kilrossanty who came back for the next two scores and points by Niall O'Connor and Kieran Whelan had them in front by 0-9 to 1-1 at the break.

SECOND HALF

From the start of this half, the Nire took over and within five minutes were on level scores. Within 30 seconds Paudie Halpin had the ball in the Kilrossanty net after the ball came off a defenders leg. A lucky break which had an obvious motivating effect on the side who went on to draw level with points from Connie Power and Brian Wall. A point by Michael Guiry from play in the 35th minute gave the Nire the lead, but it was short lived as points by Colin Dee and Jim Maher in the 38th and 39th minutes brought the battling Comeragh team back into the lead. Connie Power pointed a free to level the game again, before substitute Pierric Whyte restored the lead for the challengers.

However, three rapid-fire points by the Nire sharpshooter Connie Power gave them a 2-8 to 0-12 lead in the 52nd minute. A point by Darrell Donnelly reduced the gap to a single point and the excited crowd were bracing themselves for a draw and a replay next week, before full forward Kevin Mulcahy scored his second goal after great work by Ml. Guiry to widen the gap to four points with only 3 minutes remaining. An exchange of points by Colin Dee and Michael Guiry ended the scoring, leaving the Nire 4 points clear. The win was a deserving won, but they may have been flattered by a 4 points margin.

It was a good, tough and very sporting game, that gave great entertainment to the big crowd who paid £4,129 at the turnstiles.

Scorers — Nire — K. Mulcahy 2-0, C. Power 0-5, M. Guiry 0-3, P. Halpin 1-0, B. Wall 0-1. Kilrossanty — C. Dee 0-4, N. O'Connor 0-3, B. Kirwan, J. Kiely, P. Brazil, K. Whelan, J. Maher, P. Whyte and D. Donnelly 0-1 each.

UNDER-14'S LOSE TO LIMERICK

Both Waterford under-14 hurling teams lost to Limerick at Dungarvan G.A.A. grounds on Saturday last. Limerick, who are well organised at underage level under the leadership of Tipperary Christian Brother, Philip Ryan who spent some years at Mount Sion C.B.S., were playing their fourth challenge game. Waterford, who were short some key players, will need to get the basics right if they are to figure in the Tony Forristal Tournament. The B panel held a good lead at half-time but used the entire panel of players and Limerick won in the end. Thanks to Pat Morrissey (Brick-eyes) who refereed both games. The pitch was neatly trimmed as usual and Dungarvan Ladies Committee looked after the food for both teams. A very pleasing sight to see was the amount of parents who turned up for the games.

Waterford A will play Wexford at New Ross this evening (Wednesday) and Cork on Saturday at Ardmore. The B team will play Longford on Saturday next. Players will be notified about times and venue.

BANNER ON A ROLL

What a transformation in Clare over the past 5 years. Once the 'whipping boys' of hurling, they showed on Sunday last with a double victory over the Cats that the sky is now the limit. No doubt it will make a hectic week there and they deserve it. Now that the holidays are nearly over, summer camps will resume on Monday next at The Mill Field, Ballymacarbry.

SPECIAL UNDER-14 TRAINING

At a city venue on Thursday and Friday, August 21st and 22nd a special under-14 coaching for both under-14 panels will be held. Seven days of this type of coaching has been laid out to help the under-14 selectors. With the Tony Forristal/Sonny Walsh tournaments just around the corner, these final 2 days should be utilised to the full.

Senior Football
Semi-final Draws

Following the programme at the Fraher Field on Sunday last the draws for the county semi-finals were made as followed: Dungarvan v. Stradbally; Nire v. Gaultier.

It is now almost certain that both will be played at the Fraher Field, probably on a double bill. The date has not been made definite either as the GAC must await confirmation from Croke park of the dates for the two inter-county games being played here in a few weeks time.

It now looks certain that the board will be bang on schedule for the county final, which is also due to be played at the Fraher Field this year.

Dungarvan Toastmasters News Round-Up

So, what have we been doing lately? Our club had its mid-summer outing on Saturday, July 26, which proved a very different and popular event. Our Toastmasters tried their hands at deep sea fishing. We departed Helvick Head with both enthusiastic and experienced fishers. What was undeniable however was the beauty and tranquility of the sea on such a glorious day. One fisher did fall victim to seasickness, but with help from her shipmates, she was soon back to business with the rest of the crew.

Michael Holland, Plant Manager and Michael Wilcox, Manufacturing Director held a meeting to discuss how best to minimise disruption to the plant. A new replacement 'wash' machine was subsequently ordered and a temporary machine is being used in the interim. The management has also taken action to speed up the eight week delivery period of the new machine and it is envisaged that the fire will have no adverse effects on production.

Arriving back on land, Louise and Dorothy were waiting for us. Their delicious cooking on the barbecue in the cove at Helvick brought a most enjoyable day at sea to an end.

Our annual general meeting took place on June 5 and we formed a new committee for 1997-1998 — President, Geraldine Veale; Immediate Past President, Winston Boyle; Vice-President (Education), John Foley; Secretary, Rita Sandford; Sergeant-at-Arms, Paddy Power; Treasurer, Marita Collins; Vice-President (Publicity), Josephine McCarthy; Membership Officer, Pádraig de Búrca.

First meeting in the autumn will be held on Thursday, September 12. Looking forward to seeing you all back after the summer break.
